BETTY JANE RHODES IS GOING PLACES

Beautiful Betty Jane Rhodes, whose picture on the cover just caught your eye, is the perfect triple threat of the entertainment world. Radio, television and the movies all combine to transport her charm to the public's senses. As "First Lady of Television" she comes right into the homes of those lucky people who tune in to Mutual's W6XAO. Regular radio fans hear Betty Jane sing every Tuesday evening at 8, and every Saturday at 6:45 over the Don Lee-MBS hook-up. For that night out at the movies, hold your self ready for this month's Universal release, "Oh, Johnny, How You Can Love." Betty Jane Rhodes is the starlet who stole the leading role in that picture, and naturally, is featured singing the title song. And who cares if you want to sit through the show twice? World Radio History

He's kind to animals anyway. It's Picklepuss Ned Sparks, a natural on the Grouch Club, Sundays at 3:30 on KFI,

PROGRAM CUT TO FIT McCARTHY

From now on it's really going to be Charlie McCarthy's show. The Chase and Sanborn Hour which you hear every Sunday afternoon at five over KFI, has been cut down to a half-hour program consisting for the most part of Charlie and his country cousin Mortimer Snerd and of course their pal Edgar Bergen. Which means no more Don Ameche, no more Dorothy Lamour and no more Nelson Eddy. And not a moment of drama, guest stars or special features. However, there will be songs by the popular Donald Dixon, and Robert Armbruster's orchestra will continue on the program. Thus Charlie will rule the roost for a half hour every week, the sponsors of the show figuring to please as many fans as have enjoyed the full hour of variety in the past.

One Man's Family has been moved up to fill the second half hour and it will be a real pleasure to many followers of that program to hear Minetta Allen and J. Anthony Smythe and their company at the more favorable time of 5:30 P. M. Into the 9:30 evening spot on KFI will go "Those We Love" switching over from the same time on Thursdays, and continuing to feature the excellent performances of Nan Grey, Dick Cromwell and Donald Woods.

GRAND HOTEL RE-OPENS

"Grand Hotel," drama series which has served as a springboard to stardom for many actors, returns to the air over the Columbia network Sunday, January 7th, KNX-CBS, 10:35 A. M.

Two radio stars will be heard each week in original two-act plays, written especially for the "Grand Hotel" program series. Other players will receive an opportunity to become topflight stars, as have such well known alumni of the program as Don and Jim Ameche, Ann Seymour and Betty Lou Gerson.

GLENN MILLER PLAYS THRICE WEEKLY

Introducing the "band favorite of the nation," a new series of thrice-weekly broadcasts presents Glenn Miller and his orchestra with the Andrews Sisters over KNX-CBS, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, 7:00 to 7:15 P. M. The Andrews Sisters, hot rhythm trio, will be featured in vocal numbers with Miller's regular singers, Marion Hutton and Ray Eberly, on his series which music critics hail as "A 1940 program—in the 1940 manner."

It has been by popular demand of Miller's radio fans that he is being presented in this unique thrice-weekly series. Immediately upon learning of his contract for one-half hour broadcast weekly, listeners throughout the country wrote in by the thousands to express the hope that the band would be given more than one period a week.

Miller's rapid rise in the realm of popular music within 15 months is not so phenomenal as it seems. The young maestro (he is 29) has been a topflight trombonist and arranger for the bands of Ben Pollack, Red Nichols, Jimmy Dorsey, Casa Loma and Ray Noble. For three years he has been building his band; molding, fashioning, experimenting, while working for other orchestras. His programs, which will feature such outstanding "ride men" as Clyde Hurley on the trumpet; Tex Beneke on tenor sax; and Miller's trombone, are to be built around the popular routine of his "something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue" medleys.

RADIO NEWS

Record fanciers are getting a kick out of This Week's Waxes, Sunday mornings at 10:30, KECA. It's the low down on each week's best disc releases. A buyer's guide and an entertaining half hour well delivered by Joe Thompson. . . . That broadcast of the Graf Spee blow up off Montevideo was a real scoop for radio. These exciting times have put a tremendous punch into newscasting. . . . The teacuppers are predicting further big name curtailments along the line of the Lamour, Ameche, Eddy tossout. leaves point to the big salaries paid every week by Good News, another coffee show. If they cut the wrong way it might be just News of 1940. . . . Dennis Doyle, son of Conan Doyle, and authority on his late father's works, has given high praise to the Sherlock Holmes series. It's the result of the perfect casting of Basil Rathbone and Nigel Bruce as Sherlock and Dr. Watson. A great improvement over the show of a few

"DR. CHRISTIAN" SWITCHES TO LATER TIME

Jean Hersholt, stage and screen star, will bring his "Dr. Christian" dramas to CBS fans at an earlier hour beginning Wednesday, January 3rd, when the program will be heard from 8:30 to 8:55 P. M., P.S.T. Hersholt acts as the kindly doctor of River's End. The cast includes Rosemary De Camp as his secretary, Judy Price and Gloria Holden. Hersholt met his old friend, Dr. Allan Roy Dafoe, when they were both invited to distribute Christmas toys reconditioned by members of the New York Police Department. It was the first time the actor and physician of Dionne quintuplets fame had met since making a movie in Canada.

IT'S ELECTION YEAR AGAIN

Presidential silhouettes by radio-verbal reports of interviews pro and con, with currently leading contenders for the 1940 Presidential Nominations of the two major political parties—will be broadcast each week by Mutual's ace Washington news analyist, Fulton Lewis, Jr., heard over KHJ-Mutual Monday through Friday, 10:30 P. M., P.S.T. To cover thoroughly the 1940 possibilities Lewis personally will interview not only the candidates themselves, but leaders of the opposition to the statesman. Candidates scheduled for silhouettes by Lewis were selected by his nationwide radio audience. Because they should be already well known to listeners, President Roosevelt, ex-President Hoover and former Governor Landon will not be silhouetted.

BEHIND THE DIAL

years back. . . . If you think you live in a good neighborhood, listen to the folks whose property surrounds Carson Robison's, Duchess County, N. Y., farm: Franklin Roosevelt, Thomas Dewey, Lowell Thomas and Lanny Ross. . . . With all his worries, King George VI has requested and will get recordings of Kate Smith singing "The Moon Comes Over the Mountain." He heard her sing it last summer in the White House. . . . And don't fail to tune in to all the goings on January 30th. That's the President's Birthday Ball and Kate and Bob Trout are heading the committee. . . . Another sure-fire program not to miss is Jimmy Cagney in Arch Oboler's production of Dalton Trumbo's "Johnny Got His Gun" over KFI Saturday, January 15th, 6:00 P. M. . . . Following the movie success of "Information Please" they're planning the same treatment for Hobby Lobby. . . . Lanny Ross is the voice of the Prince in "Gulliver's Travels."

"Elmer Davis and The News." One of the most intelligent and critical analyists of the world's news.

This serious young actress is none other than Shirley Temple, who made her radio debut Christmas Eve on the Screen Guild Theatre, and is soon to be heard again.

"MY SON AND I"

Around the studios Kingsley Colton often is referred to as "the handsomest boy on the air." Co-starred with Betty Garde in Columbia's daytime serial, "My Son and I," 12-year-old Kingsley portrays 10-year-old Buddy Vance. In a little over two years in radio, the youngster has been in 16 commercial and 10 sustaining shows. Miss Garde, who has the part of Buddy's mother, is the daughter of a Philadelphia newspaperman who dissuaded her from an early ambition to be a reporter.

It's lucky for Betty Garde that she's gifted with a good soprano voice. If not, she'd have to ask Frank Provo, script writer of "My Son and I," CBS dramatic serial, to stop writing singing parts for her. KNX-CBS, Mondays through Fridays, 11:45 to 12:00 noon.

But that isn't necessary. As a matter of fact, listeners responded so enthusiastically after Betty sang a few times in the role of Connie that she's getting an increasing number of musical bits to handle. In a recent episode there was a night club scene in which Betty sang "More Than You Know."

Betty studied voice as a youngster in Philadelphia. In high school she won local fame when she composed "You're Always Changing Your Mind." Since then she's been writing music constantly, without trying to have it published. One of her ambitions is to write music and lyrics for a complete musical comedy.

KFWB KEY-STATION OF NEW TRANSCONTI-NENTAL BROADCASTING SYSTEM

KFWB is the key-station for the great west. Programs will be created and produced and broadcast over the entire country from this point. The vast facilities of the Warner Bros. Broadcasting Corp., will be at the service of advertisers and their representatives, who work hand in hand to bring the radio audience finer programs.

Some of the programs started on KFWB January 2nd include Stella Dallas, Backstage Wife, Widder Brown, Front Page Murphy, David Harum, Helen Trent, Orphans of Divorce, Amanda of Honeymoon Hill, Just Plain Bill, Our Gal Sunday, Crystal Collins, Lorenzo Jones, Doc Barclay, John's Other Wife, Bruce Scotts, The Good Will Court, and others. KFWB is 950 on the dial.

KAY ST. GERMAIN SINGS FROM HOLLYWOOD

The glamorous ballad singer, Kay St. Germain, whose voice has graced many an orchestral and variety program, is featured as soloist on the weekly program, "Little Ol' Hollywood," heard over KFI Tuesdays at 5:30 P. M.

The program, which originates on the tradition-honored corner of Sunset and Vine in Hollywood, brings to light famous episodes in the history of Hollywood through interviews with noted guests from the motion picture industry.

Miss St. Germain applied for an audition five years ago on a dare of her friends at a bridge party and has been oozing personality and a magic voice over the networks off and on ever since. She also sings as a voice double for screen stars.

Here's Phil Harris, the cynical maestro of Jack Benny's Sunday evening show.

5,000 HOURS OF TELEVISION

Marking one of the most phenomenal developments in the entertainment field, television in California celebrated its eighth birthday December 23rd, with a special ceremony at station W6XAO at Seventh and Bixel Streets.

Coincident with the birthday party, Thomas S. Lee, owner of the only television station in the entire eleven states west of Kansas City, announced that his organization had completed purchase of Mount Lee overlooking Hollywood and that the transmitter would be moved to a new building thereon as soon as possible.

More than 5,000 hours of entertainment have been presented to the county's several hundred home television receivers with the number of programs nearing the 2,500 mark. W6XAO was founded December 23, 1931.

FRANK MUNN 15 YEARS ON RADIO

Fifteen years of continuous commercial broadcasting is the record which Frank Munn, tenor star of NBC's Waltz Time and American Album of Familiar Music, has set in radio. To make it even more impressive, Munn has appeared before the microphone at least once a week since he entered radio in 1924.

Following his early commercial broadcasts over station WJZ, then located on West 42nd Street, New York City, Munn was signed as soloist on many programs. His voice has since been heard each week on the American Album of Familiar Music program Sundays at 6:30 P. M., KFI, which had its inception in 1931, and the Waltz Time program Fridays at 6:00 P. M., KFI, which made its debut in 1933.

DAVID HARUM PASSES THOUSAND MARK

David Harum, dramatic serial based on the famous novel of the same name by Edward Noyes Westcott, celebrated its 1,000th performance on the air last month. The program, broadcast Mondays through Fridays at 3:00 P. M., over KNX, made its debut January 27, 1936.

An adaptation and sequel to the story that has thrilled Americans for generations and was immortalized on the screen by the late Will Rogers, the sketch of David Harum has won for itself one of radio's largest and most loyal audiences. The dramatic series portrays the true-to-life account of the mellow, little country philosopher who makes like worth living by helping those who need help and by outwitting those who are apt to be too clever in helping themselves.

Wilmer Walter

Wilmer Walter, well-known stage and radio star, has played the role of David Harum since the program's inception.

MAXINE WEARS SPITALNY'S PANTS

As powerful as any dictator is Maxine, charming singer of Phil Spitalny's Hour of Charm Program, heard Sundays at 7:00 P. M. over KFI. As president of the program's common council, which controls all affairs of the orchestra, Maxine is the absolute fuehrer.

The orchestra, composed of 30 girls players, is an organized community. The girls have an executive committee and a common council which lays down rules of personal conduct and levies fines for infractions of the laws.

Activities on which the committee frowns include application of red finger nail polish, marriage, temperamental exhibitions and tardiness for rehearsals. If a girl has a date she asks permission before accepting the invitation.

STUDENTS TRAIN WITH SHORTWAVE

Up to November 15, 1939, some 71 colleges and universities in the United States had indicated their interest in and use for teaching purposes of short-wave broadcasts in foreign languages. Moreover, there are as many as 72 high schools in one city alone which are beginning to use the programs of NBC's International Division to build up interest in foreign languages and to train students in pronunciation.

The value of these programs for teaching lies, to a great extent, in the fact that they consist of news bulletins or talks which are not directed toward the students but rather toward adult listeners in foreign countries. They have served as models of pronounciation in Spanish, French, German, Portuguese and Italian.
