The Ear Inspires the Pen

E. W. Buxton, 2889 San Pasquel, Pasadena, Calif.

Sirs: Among our radio programs, I have found a real jewel. Quite by accident I tuned in one day on "Dick Tracy." I was much pleased with it, without realizing why, but finally it dawned on me that there was no music. My ears were not tortured by sudden bursts of loud, nerve-racking disharmonies. Why does there have to be this insistent intrusion of socalled "interpretive music"? The other day, a mystery program that I was listening to h a d a gremlin crash of gruesome instruments about once every five sentences. If there is not enough material to fill an entire period, what is the objection to a half-minute of silence now and again, to do one's own thinking, or to crystallize what one has been listening to?

Mrs. James Broderick, Los Angeles, Calif.

Sirs: I was very much surprised to read the criticism on "One Man's Family." I think it is a fine family program, and the children are a delight to hear. They color their lines like old-timers and little "Margaret" is a true artist.

Don Brandt, 5505 Harco, Lakewood City, Long Beach, Calif.

Sirs: I would also like to put in a good word for Jack Kirkwood and his gang which form just about the best program on the radio. And please, don't take away those silly commercials. They're good.

Mrs. P. Shannon, 817 South Bixel Street, Los Angeles, Calif.

Sirs: Why do they have the bridge music and announcements so much louder than the remainder of the program that one has to fiddle with the dial constantly? Some of the "singing" commercials drive me mad. Also, while I get ready for work in the morning, I turn on the radio, hoping to get a little music—but all I hear is boogie-woogie, a lot of talk, and someone trying to be funny about "time to get up, fellows, so hop out of bed." You may think I'm "an old crab," but I'm really not. I merely want to point out my own radio "gripes."

Jimmy Moore, 720 North Orange Grove, Hollywood, Calif.

Sirs: As to the Lawrence Tibbett situation, I think the "Hit Parade" is now as good, if not better than the Frank Sinatra era. Both have their own types of songs. Personally I would rather hear "Accent-tschu-ate the Positive" sung by Tibbett than "The Music Stopped" by Frankie.

About Bob Hope and the people who fail to find him amusing, no other entertainer has given his time as faithfully or willingly to a cause such as the amusement of servicemen as has Mr. Hope. We should not criticize anyone who has done so much.

E. C. Barney, Main P. O. Box 1051, Los Angeles, Calif.

Sirs: What do you think about these sadistic plays on the radio? Every evening there is broadcast for the children and youth of this land, by large food manufacturers, plays with murder, tortures an d hand-to-hand battles. It has become so that children who follow these outrages via the air are slapping and kicking their playmates, and in some cases, as I have seen, clubbing them. This morning, I see in the paper that three boys of around 15 years of age are being tried in Seattle for torturing and then murdering another youth, under the guise of some radio character!

Mrs. Robert Stanton, 11688 McCormick Street, North Hollywood, Calif.

Sirs: Recently I was reading Radio Life and saw your story about the radio show, "Never Too Old." The story was very nice, but not complete. I noticed that all credit went to Art Baker, and not one word about Joan Schaffer, who, in my opinion and the opinion of my friends, gives the show the "added touch."

I believe if you would check, you would find that Miss Schaffer does the research and all of the interviewing for the program. Mr. Baker is the didn't they share the column? She is doing a splendid job and should get credit where credit is due.

Our error, and thank you for bringing it to our attention, and to the attention of our readers. Miss Joan Schaffer is a charming radio personality, and does have an integral part in the presenta-tion of "Never Too Old."

of "Gildy" invades the comfortable Peary hilltop home.

"Well, I'm luckier than 'Gildy'," said Peary with his familiar, hearty laugh, reappearing with Betty, "because I have a wonderful wife."

Looked Smart

Mr. and Mrs. Peary smilingly stood before us. Mrs. P., the former Betty Jourdiane, is a small red-head with flashing green eyes and a sense of humor matching her husband's. While we were complimenting her upon her smart black gown, Hal, linking his arm through his wife's, informed us the soft gray flannel suit he was wearing was new—and didn't we like it?

When quizzed as to his favorite type of clothing, Hal admitted he would rather wear grays and blues and by all means sports togs. His wife preferred him in conservative browns. Betty, in turn, confessed her favorite color was red, but as Hal wasn't fond of it, she seldom wore it. Yet they each vowed they had reds and blues, and had to wear them sometimes!

"We've lost weight," Hal announced.

"He lost 30 pounds," Betty pointed out proudly.

The Disarrayed Pearys

By Betty Mills

LOOKING DOWN AT HAL AND BETTY PEARY you might lind them on the phone inviting some of their friends over for potluck dinner. "You bring the pot," grins Hal, "we hope for luck."

> That's What the "Great Gildersleeve" Jokingly Dubbed His Pretty Missus and Himself; In Reality They Are a Very Happy Couple, Thriving on Informality

Sunday, 8 p.m. NBC-KFI

ELLO. You're early. I'm not quite ready — but please come on in," said Hal Peary peeking out of his front door. Upon opening it, he smiled apologetically for his coatless Page Four appearance, and graciously ushering us into the living room, disappeared upstairs to call wife, Betty.

Because we are all familiar with the adventures of that loveable, laughable bachelor, "Throckmorton P. Gildersleeve," Radio Life had come to call upon the same laughable, lovable Hal Peary to learn how much "Yes, don't I look sylph-like?" Peary asked, striking a pose, hand on hip.

"Oh, silly," said his wife, affectionately poking him. "Would you like to see the house? We're planning to do it all over. It's too formal for us because we live so informally."

Leaving the large, cheery — and what the Pearys term "much too formal" — living room with its rose couch, smartly curved desk, and ornate grand piano, we crossed into the brightly-papered dining room. Mrs. Peary's favorite antique piece, a rare egg dish, w a s sitting majestically upon the mahogany side-board.

Entering Hal's den, we were greeted by a cozily furnished oak-panelled room. "Believe it or not," he said, regarding the scattered papers,

THE COLORFUL DINING ROOM is the home of "Throcky," Betty's bright yellow canary. "Ginger," a black spaniel, and 'Throcky" are the household pets.

"it always looks like this." It is here that Hal personally answers all of his fan mail and reverts to being the Peary "bookkeeper." "He's a shrewd business man," Betty confided, "and some day wants to own a restaurant."

Although she wasn't able to show us the kitchen, Hal assured us that here Betty presided as queen. "What a wonderful cook she is!"

Up the Stairs

Upstairs, there are three bedrooms and baths. The master bedroom is furnished in pastels with a matching, quilted headboard and spread upon the large bed. Hal has a spare, completely masculine room of his own. "I hide up here if there are a lot of chattering people downstairs." And the small guest room is furnished in early American style.

"Some day, we are going to have the place the way we want it," Betty concluded, "It's nice being closer into town. We used to live in the valley."

In telling us how they met, the Pearys proudly called attention to their approaching seventeenth wedding anniversary. "We were doing a show together," Hal reminisced. "It was in October."

"I didn't like him at all," grinned Betty. "In fact I told him he had hair like a poodle."

"That intrigued me," interrupted Hal.

His Career Is Business

"We were married the following May," Betty continued. "I retired several years later. Of course, now I've got my hands full with the house. But I look upon Hal's career as a business. If he were selling vacuum cleaners, I wouldn't tag along."

Asked if her husband had any faults like forgetting anniversaries or the like, she answered "no."

"He's too generous. On my birthday I received five wonderful gifts. He's the most fastidious man I know, is lots of fun—but—," with a smile at her husband, "has a temper. But who'd want a man without one?"

"Isn't she wonderful?" said Hal,

YEP! THAT'S JUST THE WAY I DO IT," remarked Hal,

If marriage is so grand, we suggested, maybe "Gildy" is going to get himself hitched.

"Well, now I wouldn't say that," mimicked Hal in friend "Peavey's" gentle tones. "He" — with a broad wink at his wife—"seems to be in enough trouble already."

"Believe me, my desk always looks like that."

e Min Wald

Janet Is as Unpredictable as "Corliss" Is, Currently Raves About Movies and Airplanes, Often Says "Golly!", "Wonderful!", "Lousy!"

VERYTHING is subject to change, of course, but I'm more subject to change than anything," summed up Janet Waldo with a merry twinkle. "Everything I'm saying now is true now, but I never know when I'm going to get different ideas."

Currently, youthful Miss Waldo is keen on flying (she plans to learn how), movie-going (she'd like to go every night), shopping, horsebackriding, bicycling and badminton, but her busy radio schedule doesn't permit her to indulge in any of these pastimes as often as she'd like. Air audiences hear her at the microphone weekly as CBS' "Corliss Archer," as "Barbara" on NBC's Eddie Bracken show, and as "Irene" on the Blue's "One Man's Family."

"For instance," the actress went on to reveal an example of her characteristic-inconsistency. "I used to consider it necessary to get up at least two hours before I was due at the studio. I allowed for a leisurely breakfast (always thinking of my stomach, that's me), time to read the paper, and so forth. But not any more! Now, I just manage to jump out of bed and dash down to the studio in the nick of time, buttoning my blouse and combing my hair on the way."

Could Be "Corliss"

Running a hand through her long dark bob, Janet gave us an animated demonstration of her frantic ministrations en route to her morning radio rehearsals. A slim figure with a wide smile and sparkling brown eyes, and clad in a trim red suit, pretty Miss Waldo could be "Corliss" before a camera as well as a mike. She talks rapidly with youthful zest, and accompanies her words with energetic gestures. She us e s such words as "lousy" and "wonderful" and "golly" in her conversation frequently because "Corliss" does and they've become a habit. She plays "lousy" tennis, thinks Helen Hayes is "wonderful," doesn't wear hats because "golly," they make her feel "sort of hindered." She likes to wear flowers in her hair. JANET GOES FOR bright colorsvivid reds and blues, doesn't like to wear hats or slacks; prefers culottes or pedal-pushers. She is thrilled to the squealing stage over the newly-created Junior Miss of California wardrobe of "Corliss Archer Originals,"

She doesn't like slacks. "I don't even own a pair," she stated, only to exclaim, "Oh, golly, there I go again! I'm going to get a pair—one pair, because there are some times when no other outfit is suitable." But she prefers culottes — or pedal pushers. She is thrilled to the squealing stage over the Junior Miss of California wardrobe (including a pair of pedal pushers) which is being created to bear the tag, "Corliss Archer Originals." She likes bright colors—vivid reds and blues.

Janet "loves" California, hikes and all-day outdoor outings ("especially in California"), but she misses the snow and the seasons.

Here Only Four Years

Born on a farm in Yakima Valley, Washington, the actress h as spent much of her life in Seattle, attended the University of Washington for a year, appeared in a student presentation of "Show Boat," and came to Hollywood some four years ago. She had a brief film career, but didn't like the "sitting around and doing nothing" that accompanies moviemaking.

Radio, she declared with enthusiastic emphasis, is "fun!" She used to go around chanting in starry-eyed appreciation of the chance to be in the business, but she soon realized that she'd better stop letting everybody know how happy she was at a microphone or they'd be able to persuade her to work for nothing.

"Some day," (really going "beserk," she grinned in an áside) "I'd love to own a horse, two cars (she has one now), an airplane and lots of ground. (Please Turn to Page 26)

V-E Day Celebration

With the ringing of the historic and inspiring Liberty Bell, radio announced to the waiting world that the long-awaited V-E Day had come at last.

Sweeping aside most commercial programs to bring Mr. and Mrs. America the complete and authentic picture of German's surrend-er, radio performed a duty of which it may long be proud. For months in advance the industry had been making extensive plans and preparations for immediate coverage of the eagerly anticipated event. Several times when peace seemed imminent, radio turned all of its forces to fulfilling its duty to the people—reporting Victory. When at last the official confirmation came from President Truman at six a.m., May 8, radio was ready and swung into immediate action.

Never in the history of radio had so many people, both famous and obscure, spoken over the air as did on May 8th, when the networks and local stations devoted most of their daytime schedules to special programs in connection with V-E Day.

Speakers included President Truman, Winston Churchill, King George Sixth of England, all the American five-star generals and admirals, a party of celebrating Russian soldlers in Portland, statesmen attending the United Nations conference in San Francisco, war correspondents and G.I.'s on every fighting front, and ordinary citizens who gave their reactions in their own words.

Listeners also heard the sounds of assembly lines tu. ing out the weapons of war still needed to lick Japan; they heard the bells of Mission San Fernando, which once rang out to herald the end of the Civil War; and they heard taps played by a bugler at the close of military ceremonies at the Santa Ana Army Air Base, honoring the men who died to make V-E Day an actuality.

Though many regularly scheduled programs were broadcast as planned, nearly all messages on commercial programs were written to salute the arrival of the long-awaited day of Victory in Europe, with station break announcements repeating the hope expressed earlier by President Truman that all energies be concentrated on completing the job that lies ahead.

Corwin at Work

Hollywood's Columbia Square studios hummed with added excitement and activity on V-E Day last week as writer-producer-director Norman Corwin and his crew set about to present their special one-hour show conceived by Corwin for broadcast upon the long-awaited day of victory in Europe.

Corwin completed the work in November of last year, titled it "On a Note of Triumph." To bring it to the airlanes, two studios, a dramatic cast of thirty performers, and an orchestra of fifty musicians were employed, with music composed by Bernard Herman and conducted by Lud Gluskin, and narration by Actor Martin Gabel.

Corwin, in a conservative brown suit, a belge pull-over sweater, his familiar sunshade drawn over his eyes, gesticulated dramatically as he cued the music in one studio, the actors and sound in another.

When the program's dress rehearsal ended, he wiped the perspiration from his brow, frowned and called it "a very bad rehearsal."

"It means," he smiled then, "we'll have a good show."

Was His Face Red?

William Carr, allas J. Murray, the famous drama critic, trudged back to the NBC "People Are Funny" stage with a very red face. In addition to being crimson with embarrassment and covered with bright red indelible lipstick, Mr. Carr's wife was trailing him with a big club behind her back ... and a very grim look on her face.

It seems Mr. Carr and his wife had volunteered for the first stunt of the evening in which Mr. Carr was to impersonate a noted drama critic and deliver a lecture to one hundred secretaries. They were in reality actresses from the Studio Club, residence of young girls in the industry. If Mr. Carr could successfully read his five minute speech without interruptions he would receive a thirty-plece set of silver. Unfortunately several ambitious girls made it uncomfortable for the lecturer by hanging on to his coat tails—and kissing him. At one point his wife emerged from behind the curtain and drove him off the stage with a paper club.

"They weren't secretaries like you said," commented Mr. Carr with an

injured air. "They were actresses."

"I don't think I did so well in spite of the derby, cane and gloves you lent me and the build-up you gave me. I couldn't fool 'em. They knew I was a phony. But it was fun," smiled Mr. Carr until he caught the look his wife gave him.

Surprise Package

Jay Stewart, genial mikeman on CBS' "Meet the Missus" and "Money on the Line," found a surprise awaiting him when he walked through the studio lobby en route to lunch. There was a package for him at the information desk and inside he found two tiny hand-crocheted sweaters in dainty pink and white.

Jean Gillan, faithful "Meet the Missus" and "Money on the Line" fan, made them for the blessed event that Jay and his missus, radio's Beverly Barnes, are expecting within the next few weeks.

How Could It Miss?

Before three thousand interested spectators, Irene Dunne, Eddie Cantor, Will Durant and Rev. J. Herbert Smith brought the "Town Meeting of the Air" to Los Angeles with a bang—or should we say a clang.

When the popular Blue Network program made one of its infrequent appearances at the Philharmonic Auditorium last week the huge hall was packed to the rafters with Los Angelans eager to participate in the evening's discussion of "Is America Losing Her Morals?" "Yes," said Miss Dunne and Rev. Smith. "No," said Mr. Cantor and Will Durant. "What do you think?" asked moderator George Denny and interrogator, Lewis Brown of the guest speakers and audience.

For one hour the question was a heated one. Reverend Smith opened the discussion by announcing that church membership had fallen off to a considerable extent, literal proof of the status of U. S. wartime morals. Eddie Cantor answered him by pointing out that church attendance was higher at present than ever before. Lovely Miss Dunne, speaking as a mother and wife, attacked the problem from the angle that the fault lay with negligent parents who had failed to teach their children right and wrong at an early age. Summing up the negative side of the argument, Mr. Cantor advocated regular church membership as being good for the souland your business. Miss Dunne capably summed up the affirmative by stating that "If we don't stand for something, we'll fall for anything."

After the broadcast, chatting with Miss Dunne, we learned that the actress had spent two weeks interviewing and talking with educators throughout the city in order to acquaint herself with every angle of her argument. Looking very charming in a chartreuse and gray suit, she was thrilled over the warm reception given her by the audience and fellow speakers.

Cornering George Denny and his pretty wife, we wanted to know how the broadcast went in San Francisco. "Fine," they assured us, and they had been quite thrilled over having Ad-(Please turn to Page 8) miral Stassen as a guest speaker. Mr. Benny was delighted by the enthusiastic response to his Los Angeles airing. "How could it have missed?" asked a friend, "it had everything. Glamour in the person of Irene Dunne, comedy in the Cantor way, good common sense from Will Durant, inspiration from Reverend Smith, and" (referring with a wink to Mr. Cantor's intense plea for church membership) "God...how could we miss?"

Best Story

This week's best story on Radio Row concerns Don Bernard, producer of "The Life of Riley," program starring Bill Bendix.

On the way home from rehearsal the other night, Don saw two boys on the highway carrying a gopher snake. "Just what I need to get rid of those pesky gophers on my farm," mused Bernard. So he bought the reptile for fifty cents and put it in the trunk of his car. When he arrived home he discovered the snake had mysteriously disappeared.

While Don was rehearsing with "Abbott & Costello" next day, a parking lot attendant came into the studio to tell him there was a snake coiled on the front seat of his car. But when Don investigated no snake could be found.

A few days later while Don was en route to "The Life of Riley" show, he discovered the elusive reptile asleep on the front seat beside him. Don stuffed it into a paper bag and locked

Comics Open Drive

Dale Evans, Wendell Niles and Don Prindle, officially opened the Helldorado Bond Drive Celebration and led the Western Parade at Las Vegas, Nevada, May 17.

Las Vegas has gone all-out Western for the four-day event which will include typical early day horse-drawn vehicles in the parade, Rodeo with Servicemen audience made up from GI's from hospitals and Army bases nearby, and a bathing beauty contest at which Dale Evans, Republic star, and the Blue Network comedy team of Niles and Prindle will be the judges.

Niles and Prindle will emcee the Bond Dinner at the Last Frontier Hotel, which is a sell-out at $500 per plate.

The only modern touch of the celebration will be the 7th War Loan Bonds that will be sold throughout the city and at all events.

In Our Mail Box

This week's mail brought an interesting letter from Clarence Bland Edwards, a Radio Lifer who tickles our memory with these reminiscences of the ether industry in its earliest days:

"...my first radio set was a crystal set which the instructions said would receive five miles. I experimented with radio crystals in receiving until I found a crystal that gave me a continuous connection with KDKA, the world's first broadcasting station, five hundred miles from my home in Rhode Island. It brought the great powerhouse of Westinghouse to our home, and like a fairy tale, I was called to New York, expenses paid: A new express train, "The Pittsburgh Express," appeared at our little railroad station and carried me to KDKA on a West-

"One Man's Hobby Lobby" is a story accompanied by eight pictures showing Bob Burns at the Bazooka Berk ranch, and all the versatile undertakings at which Burns is adept. "... I punched the time clock at the door of the world's first radio station, and each morning walked through a great electric generator on the shop floor on my way to work. One day they called me from my desk where I was writing copy for Westinghouse International Magazine and photographed me on that big power generator. They told me that it was "the world's largest power generator' and that it had been sold on contract to the Southern California Edison Company, where it is still furnishing light and power to our city from Big Creek Hydro Electric Power Station ...

". Vice President H. P. Davis of The Westinghouse Company, the Father of All Radio Broadcasting, called me and made me his right hand advertisement writing man. It was he who established KDKA and gave it its broadcasting room, grand plano and "Little Symphony Orchestra," a good policeman was also donated by the company to protect the studio from the "curious." This month young Alastair opened in his third Broadway show which is "Too Hot to Handle" starring Richard Arlen. He made his stage debut in Bilhie Burke's "This Rock" and had the juyerile load "This Rock" and had the juvenile lead in "House In Paris" last year. His present stage role is that of a boy genius which we think is pretty much of a "natural."

Vyola Vonn's guest this Saturday on EVERYBODY' FAVORITE (4:30) is the on the Jack Haley-Joan Davis show on Fridays at 9:30. Miss Vonn is going to attempt to discover how Dave rose from a singer at a local radio station to screen and network fame in her interview and then as a special treat, her guest artist will display his well known vocal talent. You can be sure this program will again present the songs and music you like best so don't miss it. Claude Sweeten will direct the orchestra and the production is under the able direction of Andy Potter. Incidently, Andy has accepted a production post with the Los Angeles Area War Chest for the second season. His record last year was very impres-sive with some 30 network and local programs placed each month on behalf of the War Chest. -Advertisement.

WARING'S SIGNATURE

The signature of Fred War. ing's Pennsylvanians, "Sleep," has been with the organization since its Penn State College days. When they were just a four-piece band playing for fraternity dances, Waring heard a Ne-gro band from Columbus, O., playing a tune he immedi-ately liked. The Negro band. leader admitted he had no idea of its origin, but one of his men thought it was from an old hymn. After exhaustive search, Waring traced the tune to a church in Philadel. phia. The organist who had written the melody gave him permission to use it.

\star VERSATILITY VOICE

Producer George Allen had almost given up hope of finding an authentic English bulldog's bark for Colum-bia's "The Whistler" thriller, when he happened to hear when he happened to hear strange, animal-like sounds coming from a near-by of-fice. Allen dashed across the hall to the other office to discover the outbursts—and there found Gordon Hughes, producer on the CBS "Holly-wood P r e v i e w" broadcas, practicing up on his dog. practicing up on his dogbarking repertoire. Gordon, being an old hand at dog yowls, got the job.

BILL GOODWIN

Bill Goodwin of the Frank Sinatra program has been voted the favorite radio actor of the National Youth Movement in its annual pol', just completed, and announced by the organization's headquarters in Washington.

PHOBIAS

Gene Baker, maestro of the KNX "Smile in the Morning, has one pet phobia—people who whisper. Truda Marsen, comedienne of the KNX "Pot-luck Party," suffers from a fear of driving in the moun-tains, and Barbara Tate, heard on the KNX "Through a Woman's Eves" has a very a Woman's Eyes," has a very bad case of claustrophobia.

\star SOME SINGER

Harry von Zell plays the guitar and piano; and can he sing!

THAT'S THE IDEA

This does it. One listener to the Columbia Pacific Network "That's A Good Idea" recently wrote in to sug-gest the invention of a "crumbless cracker to eat in bed."

* SPORTSCASTER

Joel Kupperman, eight-y e a r-old math marvel of the Blue Network "Quiz Kids," will broadcast several innings of a forthcoming Chicago Cubs game via a local Chicago station.

FAITHFUL FAN

There are radio fans and radio fans. but one of Anne Seymour's is perhaps the most devoted. Ann, who stars as Prudence Dane in NBC's daytime ser-ial, "Woman of America" tells of a listener who hasn't missed one of her programs in ten years. Every Saturday she sends Anne a resume of her week's programs together with personal com-ment on each show. The Cape Code fan hasn't missed a week since Anne first starred in NBC's "Grand Hotel"

MELODY ON RECORDS

William Gillespie, baritone heard each morning on the KNX "Sunrise Salute" program, has just completed recording seven verses of the title song for the new Superior picture, "A Walk In the Sun," which was written by Earl Robinson.

When Kate Smith made her eighth visit to the Red Cross blood bank she qualified for the Gallon Club.

RACE RESULTS

KGFJ announces that it will give instantaneous race results as received from the major U. S. tracks from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily. The removal of the ban on horse racing restores this feature to the airlanes and KGFJ will carry it regularly at the 1230 spot on the dial. Official late jockey changes and scratches will be broadcast from 10 to 10:15 a.m. daily.

Meanwhile, Janet lives in Los Angeles with her mother and father. She has two sisters and one brother, all older than she. One sister, Elizabeth, is an accomplished concert violinist, now in Mexicq, appearing on her own radio program and working with Augustin Lara, famed South American composer. "I'm awfully proud of her," said Janet earnestly.

Of her own career, Janet speaks in awed wonder of the nice things that have happened to her. "Whenever I begin to take my good fortune for granted," she pointed out soberly, "I remember to feel lucky." The young

"That was a fine bit of acting in that scene," said Producer Don Bernard to Arthur (Dagwood) Lake during rehearsal of the weekly "Blondie" program. "You sounded as if you were really in pain."

"I was," replied Lake. "There's a nail in my shoe."

"Well," countered Bernard, "leave it there until after the broadcast, won't you?"

Seeing Double

Adding to the backstage confusion caused by false surrender reports at "Your Hit Parade" a week ago last Saturday night, Lawrence Tibbett had the strange feeling that he was seeing double. Up skipped Alice Delmar, wife of announcer Kenneth Delmar, to relay the rumor to the barltone star. A few minutes later, Mrs. Delmar upped to Tibbett again and repeated herself practically word for word.

That might have been discounted by the general excitement, except that just before he left for home, Tibbett encountered Mrs. Delmar again. She said she wanted to be sure to wish him good luck on his West Coast concert tour. Graciously, Tibbett thanked her, said goodbye, then stepped outside the theater only to run smack into Mrs. Delmar. Wondering how she could possibly beat him to the street, he heard Mrs. Delmar insist she wanted to be sure to wish him good luck before he left on his concert tour. Noting the astonishment on Tibbett's face, she hastened to explain t

RADIO STAR By The Skin Of His Teeth

Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Salurdays, 7:30 p.m. Don Lee-KHJ

N "INFIRMITY OF AGE" creeping up on a movie player, made a radio star out of Henry Blair, though you'd never think an eight-year-old youngster would have to worry about the toll of years. It's true, though, that his advanced years, bringing with them a set of permanent teeth that needed help in setting themselves straight, are responsible for the fact that Henry was on hand last Feburary 27, to celebrate his first anniversary as "Little Beaver" on the KHJ-Don Lee "Red Ryder" series.

Here's the way little Henry tells it, between the Indian whoops he loves to practice as he taunts Brooke Temple ("Red Ryder") and Horace Murphy ("Buckskin") at the "Red Ryder" rehearsals. "I grew old playing in motion pictures. I grew so old that I got buck teeth. I was playing George M. Cohan as a little boy in 'Yankee Doodle Dandy.' Daddy and Mother and I went to see the picture. When Mother saw me, she put her hands over her eyes and ran right out of the theater. When Daddy and I caught up to her she said she was going to put me in braces and bands -I mean my teeth. She did, and oh. brother, I sure looked funny. I was lonesome for the studios, so I read for a radio producer, and he said I was good, so I played radio programs. At first I clicked, my teeth I mean, till they put another kind of brace on me, my teeth I mean, and now you can't hear me-my teeth clicking, I mean. And that's how I got into radio."

In addition to playing "Little Beaver" on the "Red Ryder" series, Henry is also heard regularly as "Skipper" on "One Man's Family," and "Toby" on "Those We Love," and in a host of casual assignments for the air. His film career started when he was six years old, and was highlighted by his role of "Tad" in "Abe Lincoln in Illinois," "Willy" in "King's Row," and the young George M. Cohan of "Yankee Doodle Dandy." Henry has appeared in lesser roles in more than 30 pictures.

Then, of course, there's his own "theater." Before he took up radio, little Henry built himself a miniature stage, making backdrops and sets for it from scraps of material he collected at Hollywood's motion picture studios. With paper dolls and his own voice, Henry "produces" most of the pictures he sees, and many of the radio programs he hears.

Since Henry has a creative instinct, too, he writes some of his "productions," and sprinkles them liberally with the dialect parts he enjoys so much. To date he has mastered five dialects, Southern, Scotch, French. Cockney and British.

Wrote Song

A Christmas song he wrote, "Here Comes Santa Claus," which he introduced on "A Song Is Born" last year, gave Henry a penchant for musicals, whoops, he says he'd like very much to be a musical comedy star someday.

Though he's a very talented actor, with a remarkable memory for lines and a sure instinct for characterization, Henry is also very much a little boy (you should hear those Indian whoops!). He belongs to the Boy Scouts, goes on camping tours with his fellow Scouts, and carries out "secret projects" with other members of his "secret society," the TNT.

Henry swims like a little seal, dives under the water to pick up pennies at the bottom of the pool, loves horses and stories about horses, and like other little boys, leaves his room a clutter of discarded clothes, plastics, DECKED OUT IN INDIAN attire, Henry Blair portrays Little Beaver of the "Red Ryder" series. Eight-year-old Henry celebrated his first anniversary as Beaver last February.

bits of string and wood cuttings from his "stage work."

Excels In Music

He goes to school in North Hollywood, where his family lives, gets average grades, except in music, in which he excels. In some ways his radio work has given him an advantage over his classmates. Henry reads better than most, and since his mother insists that he take care of his own radio assignments, booking them properly to make sure he doesn't have conflicting appointments, Henry is probably more self reliant than the average child his age.

But he has one little habit that proves that he's fifty per cent boy and fifty per cent showman. Henry, like other youngsters, loves the comics. But unlike most kids, he doesn't sprawl out on his stomach on the floor to read them. Henry stacks his comic pages in a corner of his bedroom, day by day. Then, on Sunday morning, before the family awakes, Henry tiptoes out to the porch, gets the Sunday comics, adds them to his week's collection, and reads them all, one after the other, in bed. while he "breakfasts" on an apple or an orange, just like "every actor reads and eats in bed," he explains, between Indian whoops.

looked immense, and we shuddered involuntarily. There was a moment of ghostly silence, then Mr. Welles and his table companions began to converse.

les At Work

Claudette Colbert was seated at Mr. Welles' right, George Brent at his left. Two young boys and a little girl completed the party. All of them were eating ice cream, but Miss Colbert was crying into hers. You'll learn why when you view "Tomorrow Is Forever" on the screen. We meant to find out for you, but the director ON HIS DIRECTORIAL STAND, he is an imposing figure, with his beard, his ear-phones, the microphone before him, the cue-box at his side. It is with this instrument that Welles directs while acting. He signals the respective departmnts of his radio production by pressing buttons which flash a white light for the control booth crew, a red light for the sound man, a blue one for the orchestra and a green one for any additional facility employed.

EDITOR'S NOTE:

As we go to press, we have been told that Orson Welles and "This Is My Best" have come to the parting of the ways. However, regardless of Mr. Welles' current inactivity on the airlanes, we feel that he is a personality of interest to every radiodialer and that it is likely he will return to the microphone at some date in the not-too-distant future. Therefore, we bring you he accompanying article.

shouted "Cut!" and Miss Colbert stopped crying before we could discover what was making her so unhappy. Besides, by that time, Mr. Welles was emerging out of a dark passageway behind the scenes and lumbering straight toward us, so we were too scared to bother about poor Miss Colbert any more. (Anyway, out of the corner of our eye, we had seen her over on the sidelines being consoled by Mr. Brent, who looked very handsome and distinguished with threads of silver hair at his temples, and we didn't think Miss Colbert was so badly off, after all.)

Glowers

Mr. Welles was within speaking distance now, but he didn't speak. He just glowered. He looked like a wraith. His eyes were sunk into deep dark hollows, his skin was old and creased, its color drained to a deathlike gray pallor; his beard was as ragged and unsightly as his hair.

His manner was restless and impatient, but his sudden smile was kind and his voice, when he finally spoke, was surprisingly gentle. "Hello," he said with quiet courtesy, giving our trembling hand a warm grasp. "I'm pleased to meet you."

We relaxed, but our vertebrae snapped into a taut ridge agair a second later, when he scowled darkly and demanded, "What is it that you want?"

Timorously, we opened our mouth but gratefully clamped it shut again with a noisy gulp when we realized that Mr. Welles had something else to say.

"I'm supposed to be dying," he said. "It is an exhausting business."

We expressed our sympathy, intimated that we would make our mission brief. Would he merely, we requested, talk to us a few moments about his air assignment on CBS' "This Is My Best" series.

"I'm too tired to talk of generali-ties," said Mr. Welles, adding with an impatient bark, "Ask me a question!"

"What changes," we chirped quickly, sharp as a tack, "have you insti-gated on the show?"

"Changes?" repeated Mr. Welles loudly. "Know What's Right"

"Changes," we echoed weakly. "For one thing," we ventured bravely onward, "we understand that you have isolated the orchestra from the dra-matic cast."

"When it's necessary," bellowed Mr. Welles. "Not always. When Jane Powell appeared with us in 'Snow White', we didn't."

"Whatever I do," he went on, "I feel that I have been in this business long enough to know what is right."

We nodded our head in mute agreement.

At this crucial moment, when we were about to have to speak again, Natasha Gurdin, the tiny actress who had appeared with Welles in the movie scene he'd just completed, walked by and smiled up at Orson, who smiled right back at her. It looked like love.

Welles stooped to pat her head affectionately, and to say to her in that deep, romantic voice of his, "Goodnight, my darling. You're wonder ful."

"She's just six years old," he informed us as proudly as if she were his own daughter, "and she's simply wonderful."

"Ah," we beamed inwardly, "the Achilles heel in the formidable armor of Mr. W. Now's our chance."

But the tender mood was broken before we could open our mouth. "Where's my cigar?" shouted Orson.

"Have you any other questions?" he demanded of us in the same breath, turning his head away again to ask of everybody in general and nobody in particular. "Where's my cigar? I think I handed it to somebody a while ago."

We felt defeated.

"Where's Sam?" Mr. Welles was asking now. "I think I handed my cigar to him."

"I think," said Mr. Welles, turning to us again, "we had better postpone this until Tuesday, when we rehearse for the radio show. There will be much more to see."

"Thank you," he called to us courteously as we made haste to make an inconspicuous departure, "and goodbye."

Comes Tuesday

Tuesday found us on deck ,and Mr. Welles on-stage in CBS' Studio A, directing, narrating and portraying the title role in Robert Louis Stevenson's "The Master of Ballantrae." We were happy to see that he had with him his cigar. He kept it clenched in his hand, puffed on it spasmodically all during rehearsals, and drank two glasses of iced tea.

He was working with Conductor Bernard Katz and the orchestra when we arrived. He (Mr. Welles) looked decidedly younger than when we had seen him last. The gray in his hair and beard was gone. Both were now black, but still disheveled. He was wearing a black pin-striped suit, a green striped shirt, unbuttoned at the collar, a black knit tie hanging limply around his neck. He was working very hard.

Harry Essman, sound effects man on the show, said, "I don't see how he does it. He works like that from early in the morning right up until seconds before air-time. He always (Please Turn to Page 31)

VE ARDEN, garbed in blue and white striped cotton, absently drummed her fingers on the steering wheel of her beige convertible. "It's such a relief not to have to keep the baby a secret any longer. Since I've announced her adoption, I can face people again."

"It was awful," she confessed, "trying to keep a wonderful thing like that quiet. But I didn't want it publlcly known until the adoption was legal. I had to tell so many people so many different tales," she said, "that I was afraid to go out. I didn't know which lie was going to catch up with me."

The "new—honest" Eve Arden, featured star of the popular "Danny Kaye Show," glowingly talked to Radio Life of the "biggest thing in her life," Liza Bergen. "Bergen, spelled just like Charlie McCarthy," smiled Eve.

"She's so darling, such a good baby. And do you know, I can see traits of Ned and me in her already. In fact, I think she looks like Ned." Ned, whom Eve enthusiastically describes as a cross between Robert Taylor and Robert Montgomery, has been in the army for two and a half years. "He's dying to come home to meet Liza... but I've got to get that nursery built so she'll have a room of her own. She sleeps in her papa's at present."

Too Good-Looking

Ned, a native New Yorker, and Eve, a native Californian, met seven years ago. "I was fancy free—and if I recall, looking for romance at the time," winked Eve. "A girl friend and I went to Palm Springs one week end, and what Prince Charming did I meet? Ned! Only I didn't find him completely captivating. I disliked him because he was too darn good looking."

"Pretty soon we were going together, but things weren't all hearts and flowers. I'd get mad about the sillest trifles and then we'd break up. That went on for awhile and at last we both gave in and eloped. It was the only time I've ever had stage fright. Brother, I was tetrified!"

She says she gave up trying long ago because she got confused before she started.

The Bergens love to putter around their home. "I used to be the biggest lier-around the house you ever saw, but with Ned away I have to get up and hustle." They enjoy entertaining and going to dances. "Really dancing. Not the kind where you sway with the couple next to you on these postage stamp floors. With Ned gone I miss dancing so much I sometimes think I'll hire a gigolo," she laughed.

Loves Antiques

Having just returned from a trip to New York with the Danny Kaye Show, Eve was thrilled over the latest additions to her antique collection. "I'm getting so many, Ned, the baby, and I are going to have to move out. There won't be room for all of us." She also collects books, particularly beautifully bound ones ---and her favorites, mysteries.

works like that-12, 14, 16 hours a day."

Mr. Welles, Mr. Katz and the musicians continued to sweat out the drama's musical scoring for another half-hour or more, then Welles and his dramatic cast retired to the actordirector's dressing room for further rehearsal.

Later, when we had the opportunity, we asked Ray Collins, who was portraying the Master's servant in the play, what went on during these dressing room sessions, which Welles always conducts.

"We feel out the drama," explained the actor, "and establish the tempo. Orson gives us his interpretations of the parts we are playing—although he never, under any circumstances, reads another actor's lines for him. He merely employs his own skill as an actor and his gift for direction to point out little things we might not see ourselves."

Always Rending

Mr. Collins, who has worked with Welles since the days of the "Mercury Theater," told us this about the actor, personally. "He is always reading. I remember," Collins reminisced, "when we were working together in New York, whenever we were in a cab or a subway, Welles would always have a book with him. If he didn't, he would stop at a book-store and buy one—sometimes just a quarter copy, other times a more expensive edition. He was always a great man for books."

During the program's dress rehearsal, we watched Welles mount his directorial stand. He was an imposing figure, with his beard, his horn-rimmed spectacles, his earphones—the microphone before him, the cue-box at his side.

It is with this latter instrument that Welles directs while acting. It is equipped with four buttons and corresponding lights-a white one for the control booth, a red one for sound, a blue one for orchestra, a green one for any other additional use. Welles signals these respective departments by pressing the proper button or they, in turn, contact him by flashing the lights on his cue-box. But (in this instance, at least) Welles directed visually as well, to the sound man who worked directly behind him, to the actors who worked at a microphone opposite his stand, to the orchestra through a door-sized space left open in the screen that isolated the musicians (in this "necessary" instance) from the dramatists, and to the crew in the control booth. During the rehearsal, of course, he was also a ble to speak his directions aloud, and did so-interspersing them with his own lines in the script, which made for such humorous passages as the following:

"... a strange place," Welles narrated from the script, "a place of barren Scottish moors, within earshot of the thunderous surf that beats savagely in all weather (we should have wind here!) on the rocky Solway shore ..."

Several times, he stopped the rehearsal to point out minute errors, or ways in which the sequence could be made more effective. "Don't make it an attack," he instructed the orchestra in one instance, "Schmaltz it up." Once, he missed one of his own cues, stopped and apologized.

Bagpipe Trouble

For' this emotional drama of two Scotsmen and the woman they loved (played by Agnes Moorehead), Welles had two bagpipers on hand to provide special effects. Stationed in another studio, they were to start tooting on cue, but, bagpipes being bagpipes, they would merely wheeze when Welles signalled for them, then come in full-blast in quiet, emotional scenes when they were supposed to be muted.

Welles, in the midst of directing and emoting, spoke smiling quips about his errant bagpipes. As the opening lines of the drama were spoken, he commented softly into the microphone to the engineer, "We are with the bagpipers now," adding with a grin (as only the wind and the wheeze of the bagpipers' warm-up" could be heard) "theoretically."

Then, as Agnes Moorehead read her initial lines which introduced the Scottish drama, "... An ill day for the groom, and a waur day for the bride," Welles added drily, "and for the producer."

An "Honest Woman" Again!

In personal life, Eve is not the continual wisecracker. In reality, she is charming, gracious and inclined to minimize herself. She abhors seeing her face upon the screen and prays for technicolor films. "At least I have a chance." She is tall, smartly groomed, and wears her taffy-colored hair in a feather bob.

"I'm so tired," she explained, "of half way through a picture, either sticking my head into a doorway and giving out with a wisecrack or giving advice to an ingenue. For once I wish I'd be given a chance to get a man of my own. I'd like to try sophisticated comedies."

As for radio, this is Eve's second show. She started out with the old Ken Murray program in 1938 and claimed she was' nothing but the "best-dressed stooge on the air." "I didn't have anything to say, but I had a lovely new evening dress each week."

The present Kaye show is "fun-time" to her. Danny and she are friends of long standing, having appeared in the New York stage version of "Up In Arms." She confessed that the stage was her favorite medium of expression, but she had no immediate plans.

"Speaking of immediate plans," she announced, "I had better get home to my young daughter. I've been away four whole hours and she may forget me — or maybe she's grown into all' of those new baby clothes I bought in New York. With kids around," she gaily laughed, "life's a wonderland!"

actress considers that "remembering to feel lucky" and "a terrific sense of humor" are all-important to a person striving for success.

Grateful for the fun of doing ingenue roles, Janet also aspires to more serious portrayals, and is appreciative of the adult assignments she has been given on "One Man's Family," "Silver Theater," "Cavalcade of America," and "Man Called X."

Her most ardent fan is her father, who comes to almost all of her broadcasts. Her mother listens to them at home and is her severest critic.

Many Fans

Janet has a large fan following, particularly as a result of her "Corliss Archer" role, and she loves the letters she receives from listeners of every age. Parents commend her portrayal of adolescent youth. bobbysockers follow her lead, and servicemen send her love-letters.

"Once," laughed Janet, "three fellows came to the 'Corliss' broadcast and squealed when I appeared at the microphone. They said they wanted to make 'a female Sinatra' out of me, but the ushers thwarted their good intentions by kicking them out of the studio."

Janet saw them after the show, however, because she wanted to thank them for their "nice attitude." Now they're in the Navy and among her favorite letter-writers.

"I get so many nice letters and have conscience qualms about not answering them. I never get around to writing letters—mot even to my sister. We spend all the money we earn on long-distance phone calls to each other."

Negligent as she is as a letterwriter, Janet used to compose poetry and still cherishes an ambition to write. "I don't think I have any talent for it," she smiled, "but it's fun." She also once started to study piano and Spanish, but became too busy to continue her courses. "Some day she wants to resume them.

As for romance, she declared, "None-for the duration," then added with a wink, "maybe."
