Even If You Live in the Heart Of a Canyon, Palm Springs, or Similar Areas Hard to Penetrate

APPY FAMILIES in several areas are comfortably watching good television pictures because a guy named Scotte Gray saw television for the first time back in 1937 in London, England, and decided it was the world's greatest invention and, incidentally, his future. But more of Scotte later.

First, let's see what he's done for people who have real reception problems, such as those who live in Bel Air's Stone Canyon and Roscomare Road and in Coldwater Canyon in Beverly Hills.

Formerly the only canyon-dwellers who could get a picture at all were those who mounted their an-

"It's Fun To Be Young"

But It Takes More Than Just a Group of Mother's Curly-Haired Darlings Kicking Up Their Heels to Build a Successful Radio Show on This Premise

By Jane Pelgram

T'S FUN to be young—but it's more fun if you are also talented, and if your nature and your locale permit displaying that youth and talent on a show such as the abovetitled KNX half hour.

Producer Gene Webster and his assistant, Mickey Finn, have lined up an amazingly constructive package of stunts, performances and rewards which parades the top youthful amateur talent within range of Hollywood. With Dick Aurandt supplying music, Jay Stewart guides the audience members and special guests through the winner - vs. - challenger spot that features singers, instrumentalists and other specialists in things auditory; through the audience-member stunts that send competititors out to shop for a meal, run a shoestring into something of value, or come back with the best "scavenger hunt" item.

These general contests provide the fun, plus wonderful prizes and rewards, for the actual participants.

Out of the Mouths

Fun for the listener is supplied by other bits of the show, such as the "Kids View the News" spot, when four- to nine-year-olds kick around news bits tossed the panel's way. Typical is the information broadcast Page Four by a six-year-old girl on the subject of safe driving. "I always help mummy with safe driving. I sit in the back seat and watch for the policeman. When I see one, she slows down and drives safely."

A nine-year-old boy, during a discussion of Palm Springs, volunteered the information that he lived there. When Jay Stewart mentioned the informant's lack of tan, the logical explanation was, "Well, you see, I've been spending the summer in Laguna." This was hilariously funny to all familiar with Southern California's summer beach fogs.

The three adults who plan and execute this entertaining show each week work at keeping all the stunts constructive. As Father's Day approaches, fathers and sons are invited to work out stunts together. When the trio promoted a grand prize such as a pony to give to some lucky kid, they didn't merely have the best letter writer get the pony for himself. The most likely candidate for ownership had to be someone else!

This same unselfish sort of constructive "fun" finds the show giving bicycles to deserving newsboys, holding Christmas parties for the children of the Baptist Home, giving awards to the Camp Fire Girls, 4-H Clubs and YMCA. LAST JULY "It's Fun to Be Young" celebrated its third air anniversary, quite appropriately to the tune of cakes and ice cream. Host-emcee Jay Stewart loads a plate for a contest winner unwilling to put down his prize for even a minute. (CBS-Rona photo.)

The fine prizes offered by the show are reserved for the young. Such name guests as Bob Waterfield, Tom Harmon, Red Saunders, and the policemen, firemen, and civic leaders who visit to hold open forum on the show with the youngsters consider themselves more than compensated by the interest accorded their work. They feel it is "fun to be with the young."

Nor do the three weekly judges, principally big names in the showbusiness world who sit at home and judge the weekly talent champ and talent challenger through listening to them on the air, receive material benefits. They are rewarded through having their choices turn out to be pretty illustrious alumni. For instance, little Kay Brown is now a Mercury Recording star and under MGM contract. Pat Harding, another of their consistently chosen winners, appeared many times on the Alan Young TV Show, and holds a Paramount contract. Georgeann Garner, a more recent returning champion for many weeks, was chosen first for an Army tour, then given a spot as vocalist with Chuck Cabot's orches tra.

As for Gene, Mickey and Jay, they insist to a man—" 'Fun to Be Young' keeps us young!"

Will TV Elect the Next President?

HO WILL be the next President of the United States?

Of course no positive answers can be made, particularly after the unexpected beating Tom Dewey, the Gallup Poll, and Life magazine took in 1948.

One thing is certain: television will play a big role in the presidential campaign of 1952, perhaps an even bigger one than the newspapers and radio.

For centuries the printed word, whuch still has tremendous votegetting influence, was the king of public opinion. However, recent years have shown that despite a predominance of Republican papers. the Democrats have been able to overcome this disadvantage.

Then came the spoken word and the magnetic speaking voice of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt. There is little doubt in anyone's mind of the important part this medium played in FDR's four successful campaigns.

Now, with 1952 just around the corner, television — the little boy who has had a phenomenal growth is a full-grown, coast-to-coast giant ready to take on all comers.

In order to get a first-hand report on the effects of TV on politics, we wanted to talk to someone well informed on the subject. Who could be better than the number-one citizen of Los Angeles, the Mayor himself?

So — one Saturday afternoon we entered the almost empty City Hall to keep an appointment with the Honorable Fletcher Bowron.

We Meet the Mayor

Escorted by a policeman, we ascended the elevator to the second floor and walked along the isolated, impressive marble corridors. The white-haired, affable mayor greeted us, and for the next full hour we sat with him in his huge office and had a good TV-political gab session.

As many televiewers realize who watch his fifteen-minute program every Friday night over KTLA, Mr. Bowron is quite adept at expressing his opinion.

This is what he had to say:

"I was one of the first public officials to have a program in the United States. The difficulty in government is to get the fellow interested who doesn't care about it. Here in Los Angeles it's particularly difficult because the city is so big and spread out. Television is a wonderful opportunity to bring government closer to the people."

Incidentally, the mayor preferred to have his program unrehearsed and completely extemporaneous. As far as the future presidential election is concerned, Bowron' believed that "television will have a tremendous effect on the outcome." (He also said that Eisenhower would win, if he ran.)

"I do not wish to diminish the power of radio, but TV will bring back the idea of the old 'town meeting.' After all, democracy was founded on the principle of the town meeting.

"I remember attending many rallies where the people saw the candidates in person and either liked them or disliked them. But we wore ourselves out with speeches, and only reached about one-half of one per cent of the people. With TV you can go right into the living room of millions of people."

No More Ghosts

"Television will also do away with ghost-writers. Politicians won't be able to get away with it on TV. As in the days of the town meeting, the people will once again come face to face with those who seek election."

By Ted Hilgenstuhler

The mayor also pointed out that his program was a public service and not a political football.

"I never use my time for political purposes. If I did, I should have to pay for it, or be put off the air. Any elected official who does otherwise would be very foolish."

As a final point, Mr. Bowron declared that during his last campaign, "I could have used TV three or four times as much—if it didn't cost so much."

There's the rub for 1952.

Political parties. besides having fund-raising problems, are also limited by law as to the amount of money they can spend on a campaign.

And TV. although it will be the best medium for politicians. will also be the most expensive. Consequently, whatever candidate gets to TV firstes with the mostes—and who has the personality and magnetic appeal of Uncle Miltie, King Arthur, or Red Skelton—may be the next President of the United States.

WAYOR OF LOS ANGELES for thirteen years, Fletcher Bowron says, "TV will have a tremendous effect on the outcome of the 1952 presidential

STAN CHAMBERS: Daytime Salesman--Nighttime Announcer

MILING, BROAD-SHOUL-DERED twenty-eightyear-old Stan Chambers has had twenty-eight varied obs at KTLA in as many months. This genial emcee of "Frosty Frolics" has had eight skinned knees in the line of duty, and he's convinced that his twenty-ninth chore for KTLA is going to be learning how to skate. Mastering a figure eight shouldn't be too difficult a task for Stan, a former college athlete.

Native Angeleno

Stan is one of those rare creatures ... a native Angeleno, and furthermore he didn't have to leave town to make good. While attending USC, Stan was sportscaster for KUSC, editor of Campus Magazine, active in sports and the Dramatic Society. From all indications he can't deny being a member of the eager-beaver clan.

Stan joined KTLA's stage crew a little more than two years ago. and has parlayed his twenty-eight diversified jobs into salesman and announcer. Although he is thrilled with his emcee chores on "Frosty Frolics." which was KTLA's first network microwave telecast, he reserves a warm spot in his heart for special events. The excitement, timeliness and historical importance of these events appeals to Stan. Because of his tele-reporting he feels a close association with them.

From nine to five, Stan is occupied as a KTLA salesman. To clients seeing him on TV the previous evening, he has that "familiar" look when he makes his early-morning calls on prospects. He's usually favored with the open-sesame treatment by the advertising executives. What magic! Just to keep busy. Stan expends his youthful vitality by emceeing at Kiwanis and Rotary Club luncheons.

TV Romance

Television has been a romantic factor in Stan's life as well as an economic one. He met his wife when her mother spotted him on television, and she lost no time in playing Dan Cupid. Stan. the handpicked son-in-law, and his lovely wife, Beverly Jean. live at Malibu Beach with their two offspring, Stanley, Jr. (eighteen months) and Beverly Jean (two months old). They are predestined to be great swimmers if Stan has anything to say about it. Junior is proud of his dad's dual career, and whenever he sees him on their television screen he toddles over to the set and plants a wet kiss on Stan Chambers... daytime salesman and nighttime announcer.

WARNING the use of scap substitutes that they need to be RECONDITIONED, and we recommend a special washing as follows: Put clothes through one wash period, using 1 to 1/4 measuring cups of White King Water Softener according to the capacity of your washer...but use no soap. Wring or spin clothes from this water. Then wash again, using both White King Water Softener and White King Soap according to the "1-2" method given above.

(CLOTHES NEED TO BE RECONDITIONED ONLY ONCE.)

the way to DO is use the "TWO"!

Remember...when water is hard - substitutes and short-cut washing methods.

Continued use of these methods is bound to turn your clothes dull and gray...leave your washing loaded with chemical deposits and accumulated dirt. If you want to banish the hard-water bugaboo...here's the sensible, scientific way to do it. Switch to WHITE KINC'S new "1.2." Try it in your automatic or conventional type washing machine. See how WHITE KING WATER SOFTENER softens your wash-water without forming scum. See how little WHITE KING SOAP it takes to make an abundance of rich, active, dirt-getting soapsuds. See how EASY it is to turn out a clean. sweet, color-bright wash...even in the hardest water, when you

If you have the hard luck to have to wash clothes in hard water... DON'T resort to soap-

Contest Winners

TV-Radio Life is happy to announce the winner of its fourth and final week's contest, "Why I Like My TV Set.'

six-month subscription to TV-А Radio Life magazine has been sent to: Mrs. Lauretta Crawford, 4666 Terry Lane, San Diego 15, Calif.

TV-Radio Life wishes to thank the hundreds of persons who submitted letters in our four-week contest.

Rumors Are Flying

That NBC-TV is waving the long green at Phil Harris, trying to tie him up for video. We didn't hear of any answer being given the net. Maestro Frank DeVol is being sought by KTV for a new series of musical programs featuring him and his "Music of the Century.".... That CBS. TV is being real cozy with its color TV cameras, and won't let Paramount experiment with its system with the borrowed CBS-TV camera. Understand-able... "Topper" may come to life-on TV, that is. And it is the same "Topper" Thorne Smith immortalized in black and white, yep. . . An NBC-TV musical, starring Ezio? . . . And another, on an unstipulated station or net, for Frankie Laine?

The turbaned musician dropped such treasured bits of information as such treasured bits of information as the fact that he was born in New Delhi, India, that he came to this country at the age of twelve, and that the name "Pandit" is the designation for spiritual leader. TV-Radio Life Magazine had brought out these facts some time ago. We have more facts on Korla coming out in our December 7 issue. Mr. Pan-dit then answers a couple of dozen questions—just as personal as we could make them!

Edwards Coming Back!

Best piece of news in weeks is that Ralph Edwards has been signed to a Ration Life "viewed with alarm" Ed. wards's current absence from the air and videolanes. For our money he is tops and it has been more than disheartening to have him "off" while other programs not as good as his have rolled on merrily.

Starting the first of next year, Ralph will do a daytime TVer coast to coast. But inasmuch as h is contract in. cludes radio, we may also be hearing (and/or see-ing) "This Is Your Life" or "T. or C." It would be wonderful to have a really great day. RALPH EDWARDS time show from Hollywood, like the old Tom Brene-man program. Ralph's ingratiating personality, basic kindness and good taste in dealing with all types of peo-ple can turn the trick if audiences are involved as intimated. We predict that Edwards will be worth every penny of his $6,500,000 contract. Congratulations, Ralph Edwards; con-gratulations, NBC.

"Boston Blackie"

Sunday, 9:00 p.m. KNBH, Channel 4

This filmed TV series, born of a radio series which was born of or bought from-a motion picture series, was born of a fiction series by Jack Boyle, who started hacking out "Blackie" stories as long ago as 1919. Probably best known of the "Blackie" stories, and one which appears in many anthologies, is "Boston Blackie's Mary.

The "Boston Blackie" you will see swashbuckling about your TV screen (on the right side of the law, no mat-ter at what odds he may be with his ancient enemy "Inspector Farraday") is not quite a match for his original counterpart counterpart.

"Blackie" today is played by Kent Page Seven

Taylor. The character is big and healthy, and nas no record. He is what mystery addicts know as a "peeper," or a "private eye." His "Mary," circa 1951, is certainly not the frait creature of the old days, who lay on a bed (tuberculosis was a popular fictional malady then, being regarded as incurable) praying and hoping for "Blackie's" salvation. Lois Collier plays "Mary," but good and sexy, and is usually seen rushing about the country in "Blackie's" wake.

The only thing outstanding about this series is the excellence of the outdoor shots. Most of the private-eye capers are just about alike—but when the producer takes the time and effort to incorporate good outdoor footage and, say, an exciting chase across working mining equipment which could at any moment chop the protagonists to bits, the series emerges as just a bit better and more heartstopping.

And as long as "Blackie" seems to have graduated completely from the underworld for television and whatever code governs, production has introduced some charming thug types to make up for it. It's a lively show, worth watching—if you like mystery. We do.—J. P.

"Great Churches of the Golden West" Sunday, 11:00 am. KTTY, Channel 11 souls grow tall looking up to 'Thee." So prayed Dr. Louis Evans, head minister of Hollywood's First Presbyterian Church, as this, the largest of its de nomination in the world, admitted KTTV's cameras into its sanctuary for initial telecast of a new Sunday morning series.

Succeeding Sabbaths will take the TV audiences into other great Southland churches for a complete hour of worship. Inglewood Park is sponsoring the series.

First Presbyterian of Hollywood was fortunate and logical choice for the first telecast. In appointments, atmosphere, ritual and personnel this church has dignity without being stuffy and a modern approach without going overboard.

On the initial telecast, the cameras actually went to church, even as you or L. They showed boutonniered ushers clustered about the doors and leading worshipers down the aisles, close-ups of choir members and speakers. Generally, participants and audience were the least self-conscious public we have ever glimpsed on television. Even late-comers, conspicuously edging their way into the pews, did not flinch.

Music of the seventy-voice robed Cathedral Choir was exceedingly fine. Dr. Evans's sermon on "What Can I Do?" may not have dwelt on the most popular theme, but then what sermon pleases everyone? Interlude while collection was being taken was put to excellent use by having an unseen narrator give vital statistics about the church: e.g., founded 1903, twentythree charter members. moved to Gower Street 1923, has sent 175 young people into the mission field, has more than 6,000 members. maintains five ministers in addition to its chief minister.

To those unable to attend church services or "shopping around" for a church home, "Great Churches of the Golden West" may fill a great need. Though telecasting each Sunday from a different place may pose production problems, the presentation will probably smooth out in a couple of weeks. More meticulous segueing, from the musical theme to the actual church being visited should be achieved; in fact the sharp switch from church back to theme on the first telecast ruined the entire closing of the service and should be eliminated. It is also to be hoped the sponsor discontinues stressing the nearness of the church to Inglewood Park.

The churches are to be commended for their TV-mindness in participating in this new series. Apparently they are not afraid that televising their services will nurt their "box office."— E, B,

"Sno Ball-Clark Dennis"

Monday-Friday, 11:30 a.m.; 1:30 p.m. KECA-TV, Channel 7

In this TV-minded world today, it seems that everyone has a "great" idea for a show. How does this formula sound for a combination morning and afternoon show:

Start with a popular singer, Clark Dennis. Besides being a fine Irish tenor, Dennis also has personality plus, which should please the majority of viewers, in this case mostly women.

Add a feminine vocalist with lots of charm, like Evelyn Lynne; a sharp announcer, like Mark Jordan; and a capable organist like Rex Koury.

Then have star Clark Dennis conduct a quiz show and give away plenty of prizes.

In order to be different from the ordinary quiz show, have a "sno-ball" gimmick. If the first contestant answers the question correctly, let that person also receive a prize for each subsequent participant who gives the right answer. In similar fashion, the second contestant would cash in on every person who follows him.

This formula is precisely the one which producer Bob Raisbeck has applied to the new "Sno Ball" show Monday through Friday at 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. over KECA.TV.

Unfortunately, the over-all effect of the show is sometimes boring. Of course the advertisers who give the prizes away have to get their money's worth, but a lot of time is devoted to showing them off to the viewers. There is nothing so un exciting as the still picture of a refrigerator or a radio.

The questions are also much, much too simple, the cameramen stay glued to one particular angle, and there just aren't enough humor, warmth, or even novelty acts to keep the viewer's steady interest for an hour.

We'd like very much to see amiable Clark Dennis and his bunch stick around. Unless some changes are made, however, it looks as if the "Sno Ball" might melt under the hot California sun.

We Point With Pride

. . To the felines who parade their balanced diet beauty on KLAC TV's "Million Dollar Movie Night" commercials for Dr. Ross. And please, before you grunt at this mention, just try taking a cat before a TV camera. Even on a leash. Like handling animated cactus-unless the cat in question is one of the calm, dignified Ralph Morris cats. They range in breed from Siamese to alley and back again to rarities we can't even spell, but their good breeding is a common trait. (You'd think some enterprising pet-food manufacturer would latch onto Morris and his brood for a whole show!).... To the new Bobby Clark as he appeared on the Fred Waring Show a couple of Sunday nights ago, on CBS-TV. While this fur caned, ebullient old-timer didn't turn up as another Barrymore when he did "Little Boy Blue," the poignant little piece Boy Blue," the poignant little piece was given the feeling reading it de-served. Bobby even erased his "spec-tacles" for this turn. . . Ronald Colman hailed American Education Week on his "Halls of Ivy"; while Red Skelton, as television chairman, will do likewise on his Sunday video show; and Walter O'Keefe will make a special presenta-tion on "Double or Nothing." Kay Mulvey, Monty Margetts, Al Jarvis, Lee Hogan, Art Linkletter, Hawthorne, Norma Young and Eddie Ryan are among other radio-video personalities who participated. Sixty Southern California radio, and all L. A. TV stations donated time.

portrayal of a shabby, genteel older woman whose great sacrifice had rendered her at least shabby, A shade of difference in portrayal one way or another would have turned this tender story into the laughable travesty of a taggly old woman conning her way through life on the strength of a pitiful past. Actress Fuller and the author must have spent some time together before the cameras hit this gem. It turned out exactly right for actress, scripter, and best of all, viewer! . . . To Margaret Truman's appearance on Jimmy Durante's "All-Star Revue" on November 5, NBC-TV. Miss T. shows considerable improvement over her TV debut of last season. Musical ability. poise and stage presence all seem on the upgrade. Jimmy Durante proved a particularly happy choice of foils for Miss Truman, too, but then for whom Miss fruman, too, but then for whom wouldn't Gentleman Jimmy prove happy coupling?... To the unassum-ing good humor and nice arrange-ments of "The New Yorkers," a group of music men who blend instruments and voices on KNXT, Channel 2, each day at 2:45 p.m. Sill Baker, Bob Meyer and Cal Gooden are the entertainers who with piano, celeste, bass and guitar can turn out a samba or a ballad, a rumba or some two-beat all with the same ease.

Those Philip Mortis commercials' How long can they get ... or worse how often? The one that makes with the business about something or other "having been proved definitely less irritating to the nose and throat" is our favorite. With each pounding word of this familiar theme we repeat . . . "and Philip Morris com-mercials have proven definitely more irritating to the eye and ear. . ." Aren't the agency men who promote this sort of thing spreading the an-noyance value of the harping ones a bit thin? "and Philip Morris com-

The continued run of what we consider slipsnod scripts, employing but the tritest and frailest of plots, on Channel Two's "Bigelow Theater," seen Monday nights at 6:30. The thesping suffers when the actors and actresses peopling these plots are called upon to deal in such drivel by way of dialogue. . . . At the risk of antagonizing some people some more, we view with alarm a few of the re-marks dropped by Red Skelton the first Sunday of this month on his NBC-TV show from the El Capitan. After all, Red must know that his show is not only on top of the rating heap for adults, it is now one of the top kid shows! This was the kind of stuff he'd want kids to hear? On Sunday, yet? . . . Spade Cooley's hoked-up gimmick between two guest stars, who supposedly did not know each other's identity. A screen was placed between them; "them" being Max Beer and Ley New and Sur placed between them; "them" being Max Baer and Lou Nova, and Spade went to great lengths to "entertain-ingly" conceal their identity from each other. Every adult televiewer knows about reheareal, and on a woist about rehearsals, and on a variety how trumped-up surprise is so obviously feigned, particularly when the feigners are a couple of crack actors like Baer and Nova. . . . NOVEMBER 22

lent audience inability to appreciate a show of the caliber of KNBH's "Kukla, Fran and Ollie." Now the show is being reduced to fifteen minutes. It probably had no rating, a state that arises from not having a preponder-ance of possible viewers tuned to you at the time you are on. (They were probably watching Frank Sinatra, "Ghost Rider" or Roscoe Ates!) It is this particular reporter's hope that all you sufficiently lacking in whimsey, taste and the ability to dig this most delightful of all television shows are happy. You should be. The same walrus hide wall of imperviousness keeping you from watching and cham-pioning "KF&O" will protect you from many a blow or disappointment in life

Calo Show Contest

If you have a mutt that wears clothes well, deck him or her out and arrange to parade your pet on the Friday-night-at-7:30-p.m. "Calo Pet Exchange," over at KTTV's Sunset Boulevard lot.

Be sure and watch the show first, so you will know all the rules and regulations and not wind up disappointing both yourself and your pet. There are good prizes, and the "Mutt Show" runs for several weeks, with winners of the best-dressed dog being announced weekly.

By Dorothy Gardiner and Dick Gar-ton, stars of KTLA's "Handy Hints," Monday through Friday, 6:45 p.m.

Each week we pick the best Handy Hint sent directly to TV-Radio Life, 6361 Selma Avenue, Hollywood 28, and use it, with your name and address, in this column as well as on the air over KTLA, Friday evening at 6:45. A lovely gift will be sent to everyone whose hint is used here as KTLA-TV-Radio Life Hint of the week.

Here's this week's winner: Mrs. Jack Nolan. 1045 Glenwood Place, Santa Ana, Calif.

The hint is:

HERE'S A HANDY HINT FOR THOSE OF YOU WHO HAVE A GARBAGE-DISPOSAL UNIT IN YOUR SINK. Buy one of those rubber scrapers and use that to feed garbage into the disposal. Even if it should get caught in the disposal, you can turn it off and take the scraper out, as they have a long wooden handle.

HERE'S A GOOD HINT TO REMEM-BER. When patching cracks and holes in a wall you are going to paint, mix the wall paint with the plaster and fill the cracks in the usual way. This saves you the trouble of painting over each and every crack before painting the wall.

A VIOLIN CAN SERVE AS A KNICK-KNACK SHELF. Gently remove the front piece of wood, sand thoroughly inside and out, then finish with ma-hogany stain. It is necessary to saw off fingerboard. Small 1/8-inch pieces of wood make the shelves which fit into the grooves of the violin. Now you will have an unusual knickknack shelf for your small figurines shelf for your small figurines.

This fail KECA has brought its listeners many new shows. ... Now there's another we want to call your attention to. ... That's the unique twice-a week five minute airer, "Will Rogers," a program series bringing the voice and spontaneous humor of the famed Oklahoman to ABC's coast-tocoast audience every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon at 5:25. The excerpts from broadcasts by one of America's great folk heroes are heard under sponsorship of the American Chicle Co. ... By the way, have you caught the thumb-nail entertainment special, "Victor Borge Time," which is heard on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 5:25? We recommend this interlude of highly civilized fun in which Borge, the Great Dane, puts to good use his skills as concert pianist and comedian.

Along with its lineup of shows that are new and unusual, KECA's day-today schedule brings you many programs which are longtime favorites ... like the Original Amateur Hour, recently renewed by its sponsor for another 52 weeks at its familiar dial spot... 8 o'clock on Thursday most honored programs, "The Greatest Story Ever Told," heard every Sunday afternoon at 2:30, Mary Jane Higby Sunday alternoon at 2:30, now in its sixth year on ABC ... And there are many, many more. . . For example, that all-time favorite, "The Breakfast Club" with Don McNeill, which first hit the airlanes on June 23, 1933. Many segments of the Breakfast Club . "Memory Time," "Inspiration Time" and others . . have remained unchanged in the format since that first show! And it is these very familiar segments which have remained most popular with the show's more than seven million daily listeners.

Thinking about daytime radio, KECA's new fall lineup of serialized dramas has proved mighty popular with the fans. We thought you'd like to see pictures of some of the principal players in these dramas. Above is Mary Jane Higby, the lovely dramatic actress who plays "Mrs. Harry Davis" on "When a Girl Marries" weekday mornings at 11:15.

LOOKING AHEAD: A date to remember is December 1. . On that date ABC-KECA will bring you the twelfth season of opera from New York's famed Metropolitan Opera House. . . We're looking forward to Saturday mornings at 11! —Advertisement Food Facts By BETTY HOYT

So you're shopping again? And you have already discovered that fresh fruits and vegetables are one of the biggest price variables in the market. Prices slide up and down on produce with the ease of a yo.yo, which means that we can save our pennies only by a knowledge of our current best buys.

Varonon

I suggest you look for tomatoes as an outstanding buy for the coming month. You will see those large firm beauties from our own Northern California that promise good nutritional value in Vitamins A and C as well as good price.

Did you know also that new bunch beets and turnips are at exceptional values, especially when you consider that the new tender tops of these vegetables can and should be used since they are vitamin-packed with Calcium and Vitamin A? The disposal can't use these tops as much as your own precious health.

Fall always brings us to a good case for fruit. I suggest you enjoy small Valencia juice oranges at their current low price. And too, as Bartlett pears slowly fade, Danjous and Winter Nellis will be appreciated for their thriftiness and tastiness by you pear lovers.

There is no more nutritious dessert than a fine baked pear complemented by brown-sugar syrup. Apples, too, are a harbinger of exciting fall holidays. Look for Jonathan and Delicious for the fruit bowl and hungry little hands after school, and tart. Pippins for that hot apple pie you've been intending to fix for hubby.

Enjoy yourself in the produce section of your market. It's more fun to save pennies while saving your health with FRESH fruits and vegetables, one of the finest sources of precious vitamins and minerals.

For daily good buys in all local markets, here's an eager invitation for you to visit FOODS FOR THOUGHT. at 2:00 p.m. daily on KNBH. I'll be televiewing you . . till then, these are your foods for thought this week.

'Smokey' Rogers: Star of San Diego

ENTION THE name Eugene T. Rogers in television-minded San Diego and chances are you'd get a blank stare from the owners of 112,500 sets served by Channel 8, KFMB-TV.

But should you softly whisper the name "Smokey" Rogers, you'd receive a loud vocal nod of acknowledgement.

Smokey Rogers is as much a part of San Diego television as are the cameras - or the transmitter.

For more than a year - five days a week, three hours a day - Smokey has clowned, sung, played and sold his way into the San Diego KFMB-TV area where one out of every two homes has at least one television set.

Brother Smokey is no stranger to Los Angeles viewers. He was playing and singing before L.A. television cameras a year ago when he started his San Diego appearances at Channel 8. For a while he could "Smokey" Rogers and San Diego. flying time got in the way of his television time and Smokey joined other ex-Angeleno television performother ex-Angeleno television performers now showing on Channel 8 programs.

Tight Schedule

Smokey is by way of an "iron man" with his daily schedule. He arises at his ranch twenty miles east of San Diego at 4:45 a.m., has a spot of breakfast, turns on the lights for his chickens and drives to KFMB in downtown San Diego where he does a twohour radio show from 6 a.m. to 8 a.m. Then back home to feed the chickens and eat lunch. Then race back to town for his three-hour television show from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. If he doesn't have a personal appearance or charity show of some kind that evening (and he usually has one every evening) it's home for dinner with Mrs. Smokey and the four little Smokes.

San Diego's television personality is no less a delight to his sponsors than to his viewers. At the drop of a Stet-son his sponsors will spout testimo-nials to his selling ability. Recently he sold more than 1,000 hams over a week end at a large grocery store in the area.

Smokey has progressed past the "cowboy" tag. It's doubtful if his thousands of fans and admirers think of him as a cowboy. Rather, he is "But," says Smokey, "don't think for one minute that I can't ride a horse."

Smokey Rogers was born in McMinnville, Tennessee. During grammar school he learned to play all the instruments he performs on now guitar, banjo, mandolin, ukulele, bass

NOVEMBER 16, 1951

The Radiomites are looking forward to a Thanksgiving party on November 20 to be held at the Red Log, a beautiful restaurant owned by Jill Oppenheim's parents. This party is in honor of three small war orphans who are being brought over here by the Foster Parents Plan to commemorate the fifteenth anniversary of this wonderful institution. Hanka, age twelve, from Austria, is the foster child of a group of secretaries at Twen-tieth Century-Fox.

Norma Jean

Rolland, age ten, from France, belongs Rolland, age ten, from France, belongs to Art Linkletter, and Roberto, age eight, from Italy, is the foster child of Steve Allen. The Rodiomites are going to bring each child a present so that these orphans will know their first real party. If any of you folks are interested in donating money or clothes to the Foster Parents Plan for war-orphaned children you may send war-orphaned children, you may send your money donation to P.O. Box 944, New York City, N.Y. If you want to adopt a child, a letter to this box number will bring you all the details. Ricky Nelson is a new addition to Bancroft Junior High while alumnus David Nelson is now at Hollywood High, playing on their "B" football team. In his spare time Ricky is practicing the trumpet and David is working on the sax.

That was little Patty Iannone in the dream sequence on KTLA's "Frosty Frolics." Lynette Bryant, ten years old, is our Cinderella this week. That was Lynette making her TV debut on the recent Jack Benny show in his hillbilly act. Lynette was adorable in her hillbilly costume and her dead pan all the way through and her little song highlighted the whole show. And last Tuesday night I saw her on "Fireside Theatre." Congratulations, Radiomite Lynette, and a hearty welcome to this column.

Stuffy Singer, so busy these days with his TV chore on "Beulah," makes a guest appearance on the upcoming Eddie Cantor TV show. And that was Stuffy on the last Ed Wynn show, too. Cute, huh? He gets around to radio too, 'cause I heard him as Sammy Ogg's twin on a recent "Lux" show.

Former Radiomite Jimmie Ogg has answered a call to Uncle Sam. Happy sailing, Jimmie, and may good luck go with you always.

Well, so long kids, see you in a couple of weeks, and remember, when there's news in your bean, call NORMA JEAN.

KNBH AUDITIONS

In keeping with the general NBC policy of searching for new talent and new formats for television, KNBH has inaugurated a series of closed-circuit auditions.

The auditions are held in Studio E with a "live" audience and are supervised by KNBH program director Bud Cole.

I'm getting a little tired of reading columnists who knock All-America football teams. Certainly All-America teams are ridiculous. But I think most of the American sports public knows it.

All-America teams today are conjured up by press agents a full seven months before the season even opens. However, just in case some of you may be unfamiliar with the workings and politics of A.A. teams, here are a few of the high. lights.

The first step in making a boy an All-American takes place in the press agent's office of the university in question. Let's call it East Cupcake Tech. About February or March before the season opens, the press agents get together with the coaches. Their first job is to pick out the man on their team with the best chance of making the grade.

Then begins the publicity binge! "Sam Comball. East Cupcake's most brilliant tackle in 30 years..." And so on. This starts long before the season opens. After the regular schedule gets underway, Sam Cornball is the press agent's baby. '. wat's the guy he builds up to the scribes. Every time Cornball makes a tackle, the P.A. screeches through the press box: "Looka that guy, will ya? — an All-American if there ever was one!"

After the local scribes have been convinced that Cornball has it, the next job is to influence writers from other parts of the country. This is done by publicity releases, personal contact, and more plugging if Cupcake happens to play in other sections of the country.

So, if all works well, and ol' Sam Cornball doesn't have too bad a season. he'll probably win himself a place on the All-America team. He will be put there by men who, for the most part, have never seen him play.

Then, there's one other facet to picking All-America clubs. There seems to be an unwritten law by the electors that players from as many different parts of the country as pos-sible will make the team. In the end, it may not be the best All-America eleven, but it will certainly be the best - geographically.

For an example, I can just about tell you right now which players will comprise the 1951 All-America backfield. And get a load of the different parts of the country involved. From the Midwest, Johnny Karras of Illi-nois: from the South, Hank Lauricella of Tennessee; from the East, Dick Kazmaier of Princeton; and from the West, Frank Gifford of Southern Cal.

That tells the story of All-America teams better than anything else.

Rumors Are Flying

... If Tide has its way, Margaret Whiting may be back soon ducting with Jack Smith on the five a week Tide musicals. Whiting left her singing spot with Jack Smith recently because she wanted free time to make personal appearances. . . Tennessee Ernie may have to sidestep his vocalizing at the request of the U. S. Air Force. It is reported that they are about to send him the usual greetings. . . With Chuck Ponomo as announcer, and Al Martell as writer and producer, KMPC's "Football Scoreboard" every Saturday afternoon at 5:00 p.m. has provided grid fans with up-to-the-minute football news and some exceptional interviews. The Martell-Panama combination has been so good that it might even stick around for the coming basketball season.

Looks Like

Maestro Dick Aurandt's nightly organ programs on the CBS Coast network have been renewed for another thirteen weeks. . . Meredith Willson caught on tape for thirteen weeks. . . Meredith Willson caught on tape for his NBC "Music Room" series the talents of Mario Lanza, Phil Harris, Johnny Green and Greer Garson as his guests. . Dick Powell will get to take his wife June Allyson on his planned European tour in a few months, because he is busy now socking away taped "Richard Diamond" adventures. . . Jo Statford, singing star of CBS's "Carnation Contented Hour," has been named National Chairman of the American Heart Association's entertainment committee. She will give her time to assembling and co-ordinating the entertainment for the organization's 1952 fund-raising campaign.

Dick Powell

Station KBIG

First it was KFMV (FM station owned and operated by the International Ladies Garment Workers' Union); then KFWB's Harry Maizlish purchased the studios from the ILGWU and applied to the FCC for transfer of the FM station's license. Now, John H. Poole, owner of KALI in Pasadena, and experimental UHF television station KM-2XAZ, has acquired the non-operating FM studios from Maizlish.

Poole contemplates selling his Pasadena station and using the former FM studios (located at 6540 Sunset Boulevard. Hollywood) as the Hollywood studios and general offices for KBIG, his new 10.000 watt AM station scheduled to go on the air early in 1952. Transmitter for the new station will be located on Santa Catalina Island. and programs will be microwavel from Hollywood to the transmitter, supplementing broadcasts originating at Avalon.

American Composers

CBS Radio Network is offering opportunities for the airing of a number of unknown works by contemporary American composers, according to an announcement by James Fassett, Supervisor of Music for CBS. Composers' works will be written for chorus, for organ, for organ with assisting instruments, for string orchestra and for full orchestra. Alfredo Antonini and his orchestra will perform the orchestmal and string compositions, which will be announced this month. Oliver Daniel of the Music Division of CBS Radio, who is in charge of the project, said, "If a school of serious American composers is to flourish, we must constantly provide ways for their works to be heard.

"Broadway Is My Beat"

Saturday, 9:30 p.m. CBS-KNX, KCEO

If you care at all for stories about New York City and one of its most illustrious streets, you would have en-joyed a recent airing of "Broadway Is My Beat."

Shows You

May Like

It opened with an on-the-spot investigation of a murder of a young Spanish boy in one of Broadway's dark alleys. From the alley, action switched to the apartment of the young fellow's girl friend and then to the small neighborhood bakery where she worked. After that the scripting was filled with more excitement, and some excellent acting which was most effective in interpreting the an-guish of a teen age boy who was suspected of murder. A trip to the college where the young boys involved played football and crammed for exams gave listeners another insight into the lives of the characters already implicated in the crime.

Along with the dramatic episodes which are the back-bone of each airing of "Broadway Is My Beat" is the smooth narration by the cop who walks the Broadway beat. This dialogue is one of the most outstanding examples of tight, picturesque scripting to be found any. where on radio, Larry Thor is to be praised for handling the lead, "De-tective Danny Clover," with scripting by Morton Fine and David Friedkin and direction by Elliott Lewis.

Radio drama aimed at pleasing adult audiences is aired consistently on "Broadway Is My Beat," and a one-time listening is bound to make you a regular fan.—A. G.

Sunday, 7:30 p.m. CBS-KNX

Meeting Millie is quite an experience. The "not-too-bright" secretary has a mania for becoming involved in awkward situations, giving rise to many comic sequences.

Millie is the hard-working secretary from Brooklyn, who has a crush on the boss's son. Audrey Totter, flexible actress and dialectician, portrays the role of "Millie Bronson" in a stereotyped Brooklyn accent. (There are times when her inflection reminds us of Academy Award winner Judy Holliday of "Born Yesterday" fame.)

In a recent airing, Millie decides to find a spouse for her widowed mother, who had too much time on her hands. As a matter of fact Mama innocuously infringed on "Millie's" dates with the boss's son. Mama reluctantly conceded to the cupid plotting with "I may have lots of mileage left, but my model went off the market years ago."

Checking the personal columns, "Millie" and her em-ployer, "Mr. Boone, Sr.," found what they thought to be just the "right" man, "A retired railroad executive whose object was matrimony." "Mr. Ambrose," the prospective Page Twenty-four husband, proved to be anything but. He was a crackpot who labored under the misapprehension of being a retired railroad executive. He exercised undue influence on "Millie" and "Boone," so that the pair 'ound themselves engaged in playing railroad. "Ambrose" was the engineer, "Millie" a bridge, and "Boone" the conductor. The police broke up their act amidst toot-toots and who-whoos. They booked the innocent pair for disturbing the peace, while releasing the guilty, wacky "Mr. Ambrose." Thus another of "Millie's" brain storms dissipated itself into nothingness, but left chuckles and humor with the listeners.

A special plaudit goes to Bea Benaderet, who plays the role of "Millie's" mother, for her fine characterization. --M. R.

If You CAN'T Get Out

Tuesday-Friday, 11:15 p.m. NBC-KFSD Saturday, 9:30 p.m. NBC-KFI, KFSD Monday-Saturday, 12:00 p.m. KMPC

If you can't get out dancing—just can't—don't give up the kicks of at least hearing the good bands that keep pouring into the famous Hollywood Palladium to pour out onto the airwaves a half-dozen different brands of music per annum. As shown above, the Palladium broadcasts fall at all manner of hours during the week.

The crew you will hear at this time are a long-awaited arrival. The band is Blue Barron's, and the music is strictly the most danceable type. The maestro calls it "Music of Yesterday and Today." More literally, he and the band, an aggregation with a style that could be of any era, play a lot of old songs and a lot of new ones. The gang who hopped around the floor of the Turnpike just outside Lincoln, Nebraska, back in 1933, will have just as good a time in range of Blue's baton as do the kids who didn't venture onto a dance floor until "Domino" was a hit.

Blue also has with him about as versatile a group of musicians and entertainers as you'll find with an orchestra, and the way he shuns the spotlight to favor his singers wins real admiration from us. A heartening sight. Betty Clarke, Eddie Morgan, Dick Hall, Jimmy MacDonald, Phyllis Inez and the Three Blue Notes all give splendid vocal performances, and if you think this is a regular thing in banddom—to have all the vocalists sound good you are so wrong. Or we are.

Or maybe we are just real happy when we are (a) at the Palladium, having fun or (b) listening to the Palladium broadcasts, having fun.—J.P.

truly a credit to the net's anniversary radio celebrations, Meredith has been associated with NBC for most of its twentyfive-year history. #### French Censorship

Hollywood commentator William Tusher displayed to excellent advantage his knack of getting newsworthy statements out of movie stars when he launched his Sunday night movieland show over the 436-station Liberty Broadcasting System.

Bill did an ad-lib interview with Paramount's French star, Corinne Calvet, and his reportorial acumen came sharply to the fore when he drew from Miss Calvert such provocative and listenable declarations as these:

"Our (French) censorship is only toward gangsters, dope, guns, anything of this kind. We don't have any censorship of relationship between a man and a woman, because they feel over there that this is a most normal thing, and that the children—or whoever go to the movies —shouldn't be frightened or horrified by seeing a man and woman in love. Over there they feel that if a picture is showing how a young kid got away stealing this and stealing that, this may be a very bad example."

When Tusher asked Corinne if she considered French censorship standards more mature than the American, she replied:

"I don't think they are more mature. I think that they are more happy. But maybe this kind of understanding in this country would not make the people happy."

Tusher wanted to know about her personal encounters with censorship. Miss Calvet's reply:

"I'll tell you one thing about censorship. I get very annoyed when they try to put two inches higher on my decollete. I get beautiful dresses made and then we make a test and the little men of the censorship come around and say, "This is very bad. You've got to put two inch higher." Really, it's not bad, you know. It's not shocking. When you go to the beach, what do you see there?"

TV-RADIO LIFE

Ear, Eye Inspire the Pen

Charles E. Brown, 7889 Croydon Ave., L. A., Calif.

Why do radio and television stations suddenly cancel programs without any announcement? The other evening KNBH received hundreds of phone calls when Cliff Arquette fans, expecting to see their favorite program, found another show there—with no announcement whatsoever!

The excellent "Dimension X" on radio has been switched around so much, with no announcement, that it loses many listeners.

Another example of this is the Henry Morgan Show for Campbell Soup. We were all looking forward to the next program and there just wasn't any "next"—and, as usual, no announcement of any kind. By the way, what DID happen to Morgan?

The least they could do would be to make an announcement after the last show or before the new show comes on. All the good will created by the program and the station is lost when a show is jerked so discourteously, leaving irate fans. It seems to me that the sponsor and the station both lose by this lack of consideration for the viewer and listener.

Now you have a vague idea of the headaches our Log Editor suffers each week.

Bill Owens, 978 W. 13th Street, San Pedro, Calif.

I am sure the readers of TV-Radio Life will be happy to know that the World's Finest Wrestler, Lord James Blears, will arrive in town with his manager, Captain Leslie Holmes, November 15.

Their first appearance on TV will probably be the following Thursday.

This return engagement has been made because of the hundreds of thousands of letters from wrestling fans requesting his return.

Fern Woods, 1452 W. B8th Place, Los Angeles, Calif.

I have enjoyed your magazine for a long time, I would like to see you do an article on Jack Rourke. He is such a swell emcee. We all enjoy his program "Ladies Matinee" so very much. It gives the studio audience and also the home audience a chance to win a lot of prizes. He is one of the very few emcees who is grateful for the regulars who come daily to his program, and yet make their appearances far enough apart we at home look forward to seeing them.

TV-Radio Life is preparing a story on Jack Rourke. Watch for it.

Mrs. Margaret Harvey, 5022 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, Calif.

There's one man in my estimation that should get more recognition than he does. I am speaking of Jack Rourke, who appears on "Ladies Matinee" every afternoon over KTTV. He has personality and charm and I think he is as handsome as some of our glamorous boys of the movies (if not more so). Why don't you give

Mrs. Dorothea Jones, 427 W. 63rd Place, Los Angeles, Calif.

It was quite a thrill on Saturday while watching the USC and Army game over KNBH. A beautiful snow storm In Yankee Stadium.

While sitting in your living room in Los Angeles on a hot afternoon. I say television is wonderful and those who are fortunate in having one certainly witnessed a very exciting event. What the eyes see, the heart is bound to believe.

Name withheld by request.

I have just finished reading your report on the Frank sinatra show in your magazine.

I agreed with every word you wrote. It was the most isinine show I've ever watched. CBS must have more noney than brains if they pay Sinatra what is reported. sn't he just awful?

His show of November 6 hit a new low. Imagine a honeymoon scene" with all the headlines of the past ouple years?

Your magazine is wonderful. Couldn't do without it.

ackie Blagrave, 12942 Wilshire Drive, Whittier, Calif.

Recently you had an article about fan clubs and I'm ure there are plenty of people who read your magazine 'ho would be interested in joining the new Betty White an Club, "Bets' Pets." It's a wonderful club and they ist issued their first "Bets' Pets Journal."

For information about joining "Bets' Pets" write to arbara Guthrie, 4126 Huntley Avenue, Culver City, Cali-rnia. Come on, all you loyal Betty White rooters! I'm member. How about you? Thank you for TV-Radio ife. We think you have a fine magazine.

TV-Radio Life has a special feature coming up on Betty White id the entire Al Jarvis show. Keep on the lookout for it.

mes Gleason, Los Angeles, Calif.

Keep it up. Better than ever. Your handling of the langes in time from Standard to Daylight Saving and ack again were okay. How do you do it?

(If you will notice: My secretary got married. Answer: > secretary.) And what I can do to an inoffensive pewriter is really something. You know something? his should go into Bob Ripley's thing.

TROUPERS WITHSTAND AD-LIBS

When Bob Hope appeared on the recent "Lux Radio eatre" version of "Fancy Pants," only actors who had rked with him before were cast in supporting roles. Ly seasoned actors can keep from breaking up on their es when Hope begins to ad-lib on a program.

You Can Have Perfect TV Reception

on the hills surrounding tennas them. Roof antennas were completely useless. Scotte perfected this type of installation—Incidentally making friends of the Fire Department.

Scotte and his crew cut a wide path through the brush of the canyon up to the top of some hill where they received a good signal. There they placed a Radarray antenna, strung Gonset line wire to the house, strung Gonset line wire to the house, mounted it on six-foot poles so that it couldn't be reached by the hill animals—and suddenly a happy family had a picture where there had been none. Why did the Fire Department appreciate it? Perfect firebreaks, of course.

Now Scotte has perfected a new system whereby 100 homes in each of the canyons are receiving a per-fect picture from ONE antenna. Known as the Teleplex multiple antenna system - designed, manufactured and installed exclusively by Scotte Gray, Inc.—this near-miracu-lous system is composed of Teleplex ious system is composed of Teleplex antennas, amplifiers and isolators, all of which add up to as perfect television as is at present possible. It was designed especially for areas where reception is extremely bad or where there is none at all, such as the canyons mentioned above.

Here's how it works. Scotte is called by some set owner who wants television. As soon as Scotte knows the area involved, he knows his problem. So he surveys the area, finds the best possible point of reception from the transmitters on Mt. Wilson, establishes a Radarray an-tenna on that spot. Then he runs a line from the antenna, amplified wherever necessary, and any num-ber of homes in the vicinity can have perfect TV reception, if one more component of the Teleplex sys-tem is included. This is the isolator, placed on the wall inside the home, which receives the signal from, and sends it back to, the main line and, meantime, gives you the picture you ought to have.

Scotte's work with his Teleplex systems had led him into even larger territories than neighboring and involved the canyons use of automobiles and even helicopters. Take the towns of Taft, California, and Bountiful, Utah, as examples.

Taft was separated from a good signal from Mt. Wilson by an uneven range of mountains, and no-body could get a picture. Scotte was hired to see what could be done.

In an extensive survey like thisthe proper antenna site could be anywhere from one to fifteen miles radiating concentrically-Scotte uses a station wagon which is equipped with a receiver, a twelve-foot antenna and a Simpson field-strength meter, accurately calibrated to give a true signal-strength reading of 110-volt AC within the car.

Starting from the center of town starting from the center of town and working out in ever-widening circles, Scotte tested for signal. He worked into the foothills until he found the one spot in the territory where a signal could be received. There he placed his antenna and ran a Gonset open-wire line, amplified every few thousand feet, some six miles into town. As soon as Taft homes were equipped with their Teleplex isolators, families were treated to pictures exactly the same as those received by station KTTV, some 100 miles away, and powerfully equipped.

The receiving point in Taft is situated, oddly enough, in relatively flat country and not on the highest peak between itself and Mt. Wilson. The signal apparently comes through some canyon.

TV-Happy Bountiful

Not so with Bountiful, Utah. Sit-uated just "over the hill" from the transmitters in Salt Lake City, Bountiful couldn't get a picture at all because the "hill" was 7000 feet high. Scotte was called for consultation, found his antenna site on the highest peak (far above the trans-mitters in this case) and hundreds of Bountiful homes had television.

The desert resort of Palm Springs, California, can have the same happy experience if they decide to avail themselves of Scotte's further services. He has already made his survey -this time by helicopter-and has found the site, seven miles above the center of town, where he can get a good signal from Mt. Wilson.

The Invo-Kern Naval Base survey disclosed that an antenna would have to be set up on El Paso Peak, some fifteen miles from the receiver site.

It can be done! is the creed of Scotte Gray, who is Southern Cali-fornia's true antenna specialist in the sense that he does nothing else. As head of a crew of varying num-bers, Scotte does all antenna locating and siting, lays out the trans-mission-line route, and orients all antennas used in his system of pro-viding TV for everybody.

Scotte was born in Chicago; has made his home in Los Angeles since 1930. He was born of Scotch parents -hence the name Scotte and the Scotch plaid shirts he always wears. without tie, above denim slacks and shoes.

Scotte was a real soldier of fortune. During the years between 1925 and 1945 he traveled all over the world, flew practically every kind of plane made; flew for the Mexican, Chinese and British governments.

He was a Wing Commander in the R.A.F., and flew every aircraft con-structed by the English and American governments during the period between 1940 and 1945. Also during this period, within five days of land ing on English soil as a matter of fact, he married a girl who became

More Details

How old is Smokey? Well, I tell ya, podner, one day he's twenty-three and the next he's eighty three. No one but Smokey and the social security department have the answer, and at this point Smokey isn't having any gov-ernmental social security—he has his own.

Smokey has an investment of $10,000 in special-made, hand-tailored Western outfits including one outlandish pink suit.

The charitable organizations get in line to get a plug on Smokey's "Gen-eral Store" show on KFMB-TV. His last venture raised $2,200 for the March of Dimes with a few earnest requests.

Up until right this moment Smokey hasn't been "stopped" on his show. Carol Salentine, pert r e d h e a d who helps sell the commercials, found herself in a spot the other day. She stepped confidently to the counter and stooped down to get the vacuum cleaner she was to demonstrate. It wasn't there.

She was desperately trying to find something to say to cover up when Smokey came to the rescue: "If'n I'd a knowed you was about to start talking about that vacuum cleaner, Carol, I'd a told you I sold it to a feller a while ago."

That's the success story of Eugene T. "Smokey" Rogers, television person-ality of KFMB-TV, Channel 8, San Diego.

The initial "T"? "Tis rumored it stands for Throckmorton.

the first English war bride of World War II.

When the war ended Scotte went into the television business as a retailer. His customers and friends developed so many problems having to do with antennas that he began to concentrate on this important phase of reception. He had to learn the hard way—at that time there were no books on the subject.

Well, Scotte learned, and there are a number of grateful people in this area who are happy he did.

How he feels about television is enlightening. He says: "Television is without a doubt the world's greatest invention."

And if you say, "But what about ..." he'll repeat emphatically, "It's just the greatest thing ever.'

A Colonel Dares Call the General Wrong! By Jane Pelgram

COLONEL TIM McCOY AND A FEW of the Indian friends who help make his television show an informative pageant of lore native to America. To the right of McCoy sit Roan Horse, a sand painter, and Little Sitting Bull, a child named on the show by John S. Bull, son of the original Sitting Bull. To the Colonel's left sits Len Mana, a Piute girl. The rest of the group with the huge authentic headdresses are Pueblo Indians. An endorsement of the authenticity of all Colonel McCoy presents weekly lies in his Indian friends' willingness to appear on his show.

RITICISM OF a wartime general is a privilege usually indulged in by the public whose nearest brush with the military rests in a visit to the local canteen, or perusal of a newspaper.

Army personnel don't busy themselves along this line for the simple reason it would result in a visit to the guardhouse or a bust down to two cuts below KP.

Yet Tim McCoy, a bona fide full colonel, a former general (when Mc-Coy served as Adjutant General of Wyoming, the command carried with it the rank of brigadier general), and a military history student. builds constructive, informative and completely fascinating television shows around this business of showing just how wrong a general can be!

True, he lies in small danger of having his rank yanked, for the mil-itary enthusiast is taking the gen-erals of the Indian Wars.

First Prologues

McCoy's KTLA show consists of a prologue featuring Indian lore, dances, customs, legends and many of his Indian friends, followed by a Tim McCoy movie.

Prologues are an old story to Mc-Coy. Back in the days of silent pictures, it was he who brought 500 Indians from Milford, Utah, to the site of the famous Jesse Lasky pro-duction "The Covered Wagon." Later McCoy headed the stage prologue to the picture and accompanied his In the picture and accompanied his In dian friends on a tour of Europe.

A Maligned Race

Feeling that the Indian not only was, but currently is, being por-trayed in a false light, McCoy started devoting an occasional show November 16, 1951 to re-creating, by map. chart and live action bits, famous Indian battles.

On more than one occasion it was the undisciplined character of the frontiersmen as they thrust inexorably westward that was the princion Indian lands in defiance of treaty; they destroyed game upon which the Indian depended for food and clothing; and many were ready to slay any redskin on sight.

Last Stand

The case of General Custer pictures this stalwart as going down in defense of the lives of his men at the hands of a horde of savages. The battle of the Little Big Horn has been depicted on calendar and in picture puzzle and identified in quiz questions for years. McCoy one night re-created for his audience a former battle of Custer's. During the Battle of the Washita, Custer's blunders resulted in the pulling away from the scene of battle of all regiments save those of Major El-liott, who was slain by the Indians -Indians on whom a surprise at-tack had been planned, and who were defending their own lives.

This blunder on General Custer's part resulted in dissension among his regiment, the formation of the Custer Clique and the Anti-Custers. Custer's own "Last Stand" occurred when troops pulled away from him in the same sort of maneuver.

First Currency

On another occasion McCoy told of Pontiac's attack on Detroit. Few people know that the Indian leader, in his negotiations with the French. at this time issued the first currency.

Promissory notes on birch bark purchased arms and goods. Later the defeated Pontiac redeemed every scrap of bark. How many defeated leaders of contemporary times have fulfilled their obligations in such a manner?

On another Saturday, M c C o y touched upon General Braddock's defeat in the French-Indian wars. It seems that General Washington's colonel of the Colonial troops wasn't about to take any advice from the thick-headed Colonials. Off to the woods, natural habitat and fighting ground of the Indian, he went, huzzahing into war in the true British fashion. Waylaid as they sat at lunch one day, the entire company was slain to a man.

Authentic

Authentic McCoy has yet to indicate one phase of any battle which can't be, and hasn't been, authenticated by istory and its provident of the programs from which he is privileged to have undience are members of the programs from which he is privileged to have undience are members of Indian the theory the Indian trappings and tate objects that make his shows addhentic gageans of Indian the theory of gratuating him as they do would be used a call a wrong tarm. now being shown on television. Four local channels carry more than eleven full hours of wrestling every week.

A nightly visit to your neighborhood tavern will further demonstrate the universality of this much-discussed subject. More than likely, you will hear a conversation like this:

Wrestling Willie: "Let's see the matches!"

Culture-conscious Charlie: "Leave this channel on, there's a good drama coming up."

Bartender (turning the dial to the wrestling channel): "I play what the majority of my customers want to see."

Culture-conscious Charlie: "Those guys are nothing but a bunch of fakes and half-dressed vaudeville actors."

Wrestling Willie: "I'd like to see you get in the ring with 'em! And if that's vaudeville, then it's a heck of a lot better than some of the stuff they put on."

Even in the home the debate goes on. Momma loves the maulers; Daddy is disgusted, or vice-versa. From the teen-agers down, the squabble continues.

One night, in order to satisfy our

Television Poses a Wrestling Question:

What Do You Think of

T WOULD be a dull world if everyone agreed with everyone else. Television, besides being one of the scientific marvels of our time, has undoubtedly stimulated undoubtedly stimulated many heated debates over issues that had once been "dead" and forgotten.

Take wrestling, for example.

"You take it!" one viewer says. "I think the whole thing smells and is a big joke."

"I never miss a wrestling match. I think it's the best show on television," another one declares.

"Says who?" says one.

"Says me!" says the other.

Wait a minute, fellows. Before you start swinging or grunting and groaning at each other, let's be a little more objective.

One indisputable fact concerns the predominance of wrestling bouts own curiosity we decided to go to the Hollywood Legion stadium and get a first-hand report on the "mystery of the matmen."

Before we even got through the gate, we had part of our story.

Several men, big men, were picketing the place. They carried signs saying "Unfair to Organized Wrestlers." We found out they were members of the ASTES—American Sportsmen Television Equity Society, Inc., a bona fide labor union.

We talked to two of them: John Weaver, vice president, and Leslie Grimes, a director of the union.

In brief, this is what they had to say:

1. Wrestlers were not being paid enough. Some of them were lucky to be making $60 a week.

2. Some bookers and promoters had a monopoly.

3. Although professional matches November 16, 1951

"IF PEOPLE WANT old-fashioned wrestling, then they can go to the nearest college," says Bill Welsh, popular mat announcer for KITV. should not be conducted as the amateur bouts are, they should not be as bad as they are now.

4. So-called championship matches, in particular, should have top men facing each other, instead of including so many second-raters.

Weaver went into more details. (For obvious reasons, we will not use the names he did.)

"..., who is wrestling tonight, is tough, and one of the best in the business. But ..., he's strictly a bum."

"Television brought wrestling back to life, but it will kill it again if things keep up."

After a lengthy discussion we had one side of the story and walked through the contestants' gate to get the rest. We didn't have to wait long.

Opposite the locker rooms, we entered a small and stuffy room filled with glaring lights, TV cameras, and broad-shouldered wrestlers attired in brightly colored robes. Bill Welsh, the popular TV and radio announcer, was on hand to greet us.

We put the question to Bill right away and asked him if he thought wrestling was becoming "overvaudevillized." As in his interviews, Bill was emphatic, enthusiastic, and right to the point:

"If the type of wrestling that is being put on today pleases the people, then it should continue. Other sports, such as basketball and football, have changed the rules to please the spectators, so why shouldn't wrestling? If people want old-fashioned wrestling, then they

"Kill the umpire" or "Take the bum out" is a mild creature compared to some of the rabid wrestling enthusiasts. After talking to many of them—from the Legionnaire guards to the public announcer to several of the women who flock to these affairs—we were convinced that they were sincerely enjoying themselves.

During the fights some of the more skeptical spectators laugh and shout derisively: "Quit your faking. You're not hurt, yer bum, he never touched you." Five minutes later, however, these same critics are screaming their heads off a bout the unfair tactics of the "villain" in the ring.

Although some of the matmen may act more hurt than they actually are during the matches, when you talk to these panting musclemen in the locker rooms and see the black eyes, the swollen bruises and the chipped teeth, you realize that show business or no show business, it's a tough way to make a living.

can go to the nearest college." With these words, Bill had to leave to start his interviews. These interviews (which we have heard people say were "the thing we really get a bang out of") were informal and entertaining. Occasionally even the cameramen cracked a few smiles —and in teevee circles, if the cameramen like the stuff, the show is a sure hit.

Finally, the big test came—the bouts themselves, and the crowd's reactions to them.

The impressions that you get after watching over two hours of wrestling are as varied as the colors of a modern woman's hair.

T IS NOT far, yet very far from the sound stage of Warner Bros. movie lot where glamour, gaiety and gorgeous girls sing and sway, to a colorless, unusually quiet room at the Braille Institute in Los Angeles. You would not be very likely to find the same musical director leading singers in both places. Not unless he were a music man with flexibility and deep interest in his profession and in peoplea man like Norman Luboff, choir director on NBC's "Railroad Hour," as well as vocal arranger and coach for some of Warner Bros. mighty musicals. When we tracked him down he was standing in front of the stage (surrounded by actors, directors and cameramen) as they were s h o t i ng a song-and-dance routine with Patrice Wymore for the forthcoming film "Till See You in My Dreams," starring Doris Day and Danny Thomas.

A Weekly Session

One night a week Luboff stands before a group of Braille Institute students, setting the tempo and giving the down-beat for group singing. As they are without sight, he is without baton. He has instituted a system for counting in advance in the tempo in which the song is to be sung. Or he relies on the sightless singers' memory work for knowledge of the lyrics and music, to compensate for not being able to see him beat out the musical time or the finer direction pointers usually used in choir leading. Luboff said. "At first we started off singing the rounds on 'Are you sleeping... are you sleeping, brother John.' They were all crazy about them. We don't do pop tunes and I discourage all song pluggers who come around, as it's impossible to use any of their music at the present time."

According to Luboff, "It's not the lack of sight that is a handicap with the Braille singers . . . it's a lack of musical experience, the same as it is with any other person. I go ahead as though they were a group of any other amateur singers. I treat them like any other group learning to sing . . . and sometimes I lose my temper, too." Not all blind people know Braille, so often it is not possible for everyone to read the lyrics or the music. The Braille Institute cooperates to the fullest in making available copies of different musical numbers, Luboff said.

First Blind Choir

This is the first blind choir to be organized on the West Coast, although similar groups exist throughout the country. There are several sightless singers as regular members of one of the nation's finest choirs under the direction of Robert Shaw. An intellectual curiosity a b o u t a blind person's ability to follow choral arrangements, after hearing about work being done in this field elsewhere, led Luboff to start the L.A. Braille Choir. He believes it is an important part of their recreational activities, besides the possibilities it presents for singing before an audience. The biggest problem at present in organizing the musical aggregation is that of transporting the singers to the evening rehearsals. Volunteers arrange to pick up and deliver the Braille singers, but Luboff stated that many more such helpers with cars are needed if the choir is to be enlarged and its benefits made available to all those who are interested.

Leading Conductor

Norman Luboff is, at thirty-four, one of the nation's leading choir arrangers and conductors. He came to Hollywood in 1948. He has recently completed the recording of "Jack and the Beanstalk," the new Abbott and Costello musical, and is well known for his "Norman Luboff Choir" work with such popular singers as Frankie Laine, Doris Day and Jo Stafford. Plans for the future include a visit of Luboff's famous "Railroad Hour" choir and other professional groups to the Braille Institute. An official of the Institute said of Luboff's work, "It is our feeling that he is making more of a contribution to the happiness and satisfaction of a number of blind persons than he may realize at this time. We are grateful that a man of Mr. Luboff's great ability and talent is willing to assist in the rounding out of the lives of so many of the sightless."

It is hard to say who gains the most, the Braille singers or Luboff, in meeting the challenge to lead the sightless voices so effectively in song. It can safely be said, however, that if the choir director has his way the blind will have a voice ... and a very melodious one, too.

I Believe in Miracles

They Are Divinely Natural, But Must Be Earned Humanly

By Danny Thomas as told to Mildred Ross

BELIEVE in miracles," commented c o m e d i a n Danny Thomas. "My whole life has been one . . from rags to riches, and now my most cherished dream is closer to becoming a reality." Danny's dream is to build a hospital in honor of St. Jude, his patron saint. This hospital will open its arms to all races, creeds and religions.

Danny's goal is fostered by recollections of the poverty-stricken childhood to which he humbly admits. "Although my parents could not offer us the usual material comforts, they did teach us faith ... faith in God, man and ourselves. Regardless of our economic struggle, we always tried to see the humorous side of our hardships. It's all in your perspective," says Danny.

Danny's perspective has taken him a long way. From burlesque candy butcher and neighborhood entertainer he has developed into a top television, motion-picture and supperclub star. He started his funny routines while a member of his high school's dramatic club. He left school to make his talents pay off, and laughingly recalls that he returned in 1950 to receive his diploma. Today the black-framed diploma, inscribed with the belated date, hangs proudly in. his study. Danny humorously admonishes his young son Tony that a high-school diploma is necessary to get ahead.

Danny's engagement at Chicago's 5100 Club started him on his road to fame. Afraid of offending the family's good name, Danny (nee Amos) chose two of his brother's given names and has used them professionally ever since. Although the reviewers have been kind to Danny, he takes an adamant stand against unfair critics. He believes a person's efforts are worthy of constructive comment and not destructive, demoralizing lambasting.

dialectician and story teller. However, the cinema usually prefers to cast him in straight dramatic roles. In his forthcoming Warner's picture, "I'll See You in My Dreams," Danny plays the role of Gus Kahn, famed song writer. Roguishly Danny claims, "There's hope for Hollywood now that they have deviated from the collar-ad-type hero and cast my type, the average guy, in a lead role." Adding to the touch of reality, Danny sings (his own voice) with vocalovely Doris Day.

"This picture is part of my miracle," said Danny. "Not because I'm co-starring with lovely Doris, but because of the national audience a picture attracts. The percentage of people seeing me at night clubs or on television is small compared to the numbers who attend the movies. It isn't that I want the fame for myself alone, but with wider recognition it will be easier to raise funds for my hospital."

Danny's picture will not be released until next spring, but he's counting on a miracle: that it will be premiered in 'Chicago just a few blocks from the site (former 5100 Club) where he got his big break; and if the "powers that be" are cooperative the premiere performance will be a charity one, all proceeds going towards Danny's miracle.
