hit songs

American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers
One Lincoln Plaza, New York, New York 10023

From the founding of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers (ASCAP) on February 13, 1914, to the present, ASCAP has numbered among its members some of the most gifted composers and lyricists of each era. Many of them are represented in this year-by-year compilation of ASCAP-licensed hit songs from 1914 through 1976. (We have also included songs from the period 1892-1913, which was prior to the founding of ASCAP, but includes famous song hits of that era written by writers who subsequently became members of ASCAP.)

You are almost certain to find many of your favorite popular songs on the pages that follow--rock, easy listening, country, soul, music from Broadway shows, films, and television--but you may also wonder about certain omissions. The contents of this booklet reflect only one taste - that of the public. Objective criteria were the sole bases of selection. ASCAP's performance records were carefully correlated with lists and charts and surveys published in major music trade periodicals. And a song was included only once, even if it met the objective criteria in later years. The songs listed are only a fragment of ASCAP's popular repertory, and the selection is not relevant to the many splendid gospel, religious, symphonic, concert, and liturgical works which the Society proudly licenses. Indeed, for those interested in the "serious" music part of the Society's repertory, a revised catalog of symphonic works has been published recently.

We hope that this new edition of ASCAP Hit Songs will be as helpful to licensees, music programmers, journalists, and music lovers as the previous editions were. An enormous number of wonderful songs (many recognized by Oscars, Tonys, Grammy Awards and TV Emmy honors) are listed in these pages. It may well be that - in addition to being useful - this list of ASCAP hit songs will be informative.

ASCAP is a non-profit, unincorporated membership association which licenses to users, such as radio and television stations, bars, grills, hotels, etc., the non-dramatic public performances of its members' musical compositions. For those interested in learning more about ASCAP and how it works, please write to our Department of Public Relations, ASCAP Building, One Lincoln Plaza, New York, New York 10023.
