Eagles, WBCN In Promo Scuffle

A WBCN/Boston promotion critical of Eagles concert ticket prices triggered a series of angry responses by band members last week.

The Infinity Classic Rocker's "Eagles Greed Rebate Offer" invited listeners to send in their ticket stubs or other proofs of purchase for a chance to win a $50 "cash rebate," among other prizes.

The Eagles responded by staging a "What Goes Around, Comes Around" contest of their own at their Boston concert site. According to a flyer passed out to concertgoers, "The Eagles believe in good, clean fun and want to help their pals at WBCN get the attention they so desperately crave."

Playing off the Don Henley hit, the flyer then asked audience members to collect their "Dirty laundry" — "socks, underwear, etc. — the dirtier, the better" — and send it to VP/GM Tony Bernardino, PD Oedipus, morning personality Charles Laquidara, or afternoon DJ Mark Parenteau . . . and included their home addresses.

Participants were asked to document their entries via photos or videotape and were promised prizes for the "dirtiest laundry" and "biggest load" of laundry sent.

Band members then took to the air at Progressive WBOS Boston, where Don Henley and

Senate Wants Easier Ownership Rules, Tougher Obscenity Fine

The Senate Commerce Committee has approved a bill that would leave the door open for the FCC to relax broadcast ownership rules as competition increases.

Along with helping to pave the Clinton administration's "information superhighway" by updating the Communications Act of 1934, the Communications Act of 1994 also:

- Allows the FCC to consider further relaxation of its ownership rules. The exact wording: "Within one year after the date of enactment of this Act, the Commission shall, after a notice and comment proceeding, modify or remove such national and local ownership rules on radio and television broadcasters as are necessary to ensure that broadcasters are able to compete fairly with other media providers while ensuring that the public receives information from a diversity of media sources."

- Increases fines for broadcasting obscene language on the radio from $10,000 to $100,000. The provision was added by Sens. James Exon (D-NE) and Slade Gorton (R-WA). (The FCC recently fined several Infinity Broadcasting stations and other broadcasters for indecency, not obscenity.)

- Lifts a prohibition against broadcasters' accepting gambling ads in states where gambling is legal. It's uncertain what effect this provision, added by Sen. Richard Bryan (D-NV), will have on radio revenues. In some states where gambling is legal, such as Mississippi, broadcasters already air spots for gambling casinos, but they have to be careful about wording.

Metzenbaum To Block?

That plan could hit a snag. Sen. Howard Metzenbaum (D-OH) isn't satisfied with the bill. He plans his own hearing September 20 before a Judiciary Committee subcommittee that he chairs.

Even if the ownership rules language is approved (the House version is more ambiguous), there's no guarantee the FCC would go beyond the 20 AM-20 FM limits due to take effect September 16. One administration source says Chairman Reed Hundt would be hard-pressed to pursue a relaxation of ownership rules while touting a diversity of viewpoints and minority management and ownership.

EARNINGS

Viacom Second-Quarter Income Up

Viacom Inc. (AMEX: VIA) reported second-quarter net earnings attributable to common stock of $221.7 million ($1.44 per share), up sharply from $41.6 million (35 cents) a year ago. Much of the increase was attributed to its acquisition of a 50.2% interest in Paramount Communications, which became 100% July 7.

Total revenues were $1.73 billion, up from $495.8 million. Radio revenues were $26.6 million, up 13% from $23.6 million. Earnings from radio operations were $10.1 million, up 23% from $8.2 million.

Viacom's MTV Networks had revenues of $198.3 million, up 21% from $163.9 million. Earnings from MTV Networks operations were $68.4 million, up 20% from $57.1 million.

Viacom owns 12 radio stations, 12 TV stations, MTV Networks, and numerous other communications/entertainment businesses.

Osborn Communications (Nasdaq: OSBN) reported a second-quarter net loss of $1.9 million (36 cents per share), compared to a loss of $832,000 (24 cents) a year ago. Net revenues were $7.1 million, up from $5.9 million. Media cash flow was $1.8 million, up from $1.4 million.

Osborn owns 16 radio stations, one TV station, Muzak franchises, and other media-related businesses.

All-American Communications (Nasdaq Small Cap: AACI) reported a second-quarter net loss of $3.8 million (78 cents per share), compared to a loss of $909,000 (19 cents) a year ago. Revenues were $7.6 million, down from $12.9 million.

All-American, primarily a TV production company, owns the Scotti Brothers and Street Life record labels.

For The Record

Jim Mergen and Ray Stanfield of Ray Stanfield and Associates brokered the KOQQ/Bakersfield deal listed in Transactions in last week's (8/12) R&R.

Warning: Political Ad Season Ahead

The political season is upon us, and broadcasters may need to brush up on FCC rulings before the lowest unit rate rule kicks in (September 9 for this year's November 8 election).

In an attempt to cut through the haze, NAB Assoc. General Counsel Steven Bookshester and VP/Policy Counsel Jack Goodman moderated a video conference last week (8/11) in which broadcasters nationwide were invited to query experts on the FCC's political advertising rules. The panel included FCC Political Programming Chief Milton Gross and two communications attorneys, Craig Blakely and Arthur Goodkind.

The difficulty of complying with the maze of rules may prompt some broadcasters to refuse advertising for state and local candidates (licensees are required to provide access to federal candidates), but even that isn't completely safe.

"If you decide not to give coverage to an important state or local race, there may be a political backlash from the candidates — either individually or more broadly," warned Blakely.

NAB is providing videotapes of the two-hour program, "Danger! Avoid The Pitfalls Of Political Broadcasting," to members for $10.

Inter-Urban Petitions To Block WIZF Sale

Inter-Urban Broadcasting Chairman Thomas Lewis and President James Hutchinson have filed a petition to deny the sale of Urban Inter-Urban's WIZF-FM/Erlanger, KY (Cincinnati), claiming the buyer is a front to get minority tax breaks.

Although Lewis and Hutchinson are still running Inter-Urban as a debtor-in-possession, neither signed the FCC application or contract to sell WIZF to Blue Chip Broadcast Co. for $4 million. Both were signed by a bankruptcy court clerk, with all proceeds going to lender Barclay's Business Credit.

Lewis and Hutchinson charge that the deal was assembled by venture capitalist John Wyant, who then "installed" Procter & Gamble VP/Advertising Luther Love Jr. as Blue Chip's African-American Chairman "to appear to run the store."

Lewis and Hutchinson claim the deal's finances are designed to collapse in three years so Wyant can take control.

But Love told the FCC Hutchinson first approached Wyant's investment group, to which Love is an advisor, seeking backing.

Love said he assembled his own proposal only after it appeared WIZF would be sold to out-of-town white investors.

Multi-Market Catches Southern Starr

Multi-Market Radio (Nasdaq Small Cap: RDIOA) is acquiring Southern Starr Broadcasting Group (Nasdaq: SSBG) for approximately $27.8 million (see "Deals Of The Week" below), more than quintupling Multi-Market's annual revenues.

Multi-Market is picking up a revenue powerhouse in WPLR-FM/New Haven. Duncan's American Radio lists 1993 billing for the Rock outlet at $5.5 million.

Southern Starr reported net sales of $9.7 million for its fiscal year ended March 31; Multi-Market reported net sales of $2.2 million for the 1993 calendar year. Both have made acquisitions since those figures were announced.

Expose yourself with a minimum of risk.

Today's level of fierce competition demands that you prominently display your name every chance you get (location broadcasts, concerts, station sponsored autograph sessions, etc.). With theft, vandalism and loss, it becomes a costly proposition to continuously replace expensive signs and banners costing hundreds of dollars.

Roll-A-Sign™ offers a better way. You get up to four vibrant colors printed on durable, high quality 4 or 6 mil plastic film to display your logo and message brilliantly for an economical price. Now you can afford to display a bright new sign at every public event. They even make great cost-effective promotional give-aways. Just roll off what you need and cut.

Banners are available in 18', 24' and 36' heights on 1000 ft rolls. The number of banners on each roll is determined by banner length.

- ✂ Durable banners for a throw-away price.
- ✂ UV stabilized plastic won't fade indoors or outdoors.
- ✂ Simply FAX your logo and color separation information for a free price quote.

FCC Thaws Station Application Freeze

The FCC has lifted a five-month freeze on applications for new stations and upgrades. The move follows a decision not to appeal a court ruling that struck down one section of the Commission's criteria for comparative hearings.

In light of that decision, the FCC decided to "narrow the scope of the freeze order." But while new applications are being accepted, they'll still run into a brick wall if there's more than one applicant for a license.

"There was a concern that all new applications would get held up in the freeze," said FCC Audio Services Asst. Chief Stuart Bedell. "The freeze will only kick in when [applications for new AMs and FMs] become mutually exclusive — when they are competing."

As of August 4, the FCC said it had resumed:

- Processing of upgrades or major modifications of the facilities of such stations, and requests for rulemakings for FM allotments;
- Accepting applications for AM CPs and the opening of FM filing windows in the same manner as before the freeze.

Anyone who submitted a hearing fee due after February 25 (the date the Commission issued a Public Notice of the freeze) may request a refund through the Office of Managing Director at (202) 418-1919.

Car Lease Ad Bill Nearly Law

The Radio Ad Leasing Disclosure Act, which would cut down on the legal wording required in auto leasing spots, should soon be on its way to President Clinton's desk to be signed into law.

The bill cleared its last hurdle in Congress this month after both the House and Senate signed off on final language. The legislation, which had been backed by RAB and NAB, is part of HR 3474, the Community Development Banking and Financial Institutions Act.

NAB estimates the new law could mean an additional $20 million to $50 million in radio revenues.

Taylor Appointed KUPL/Portland PD

Taylor

KSKS/Fresno PD Dave Taylor has been named PD at Country KUPL-AM & FM/Portland. He succeeds Bill Bradley, who left last week to join KORD/Tri-Cities, WA as

VP/GM and part-owner.

KUPL VP/GM Gregg Lindahl told R&R, "Dave is the perfect person for KUPL. He's very competitive and has the kind of intensity this situation calls for. A number of folks were after him, and I feel very fortunate to have gotten him."

Taylor joined KSKS 15 months ago as PD. His background includes programming stints at KHOW/Denver and KWEN/Tulsa.

Aurand Now PD At WDSY/Pittsburgh

Former WPKX/Springfield, MA PD/afternoon talent Scott Aurand (aka Justin Case) has been named PD at Entercom Country outlet WDSY/Pittsburgh, effective August 22. He replaces Bill Macky, who left in June to become Western Regional Director/Promotion for MCA/Nashville (R&R, 7/1).

"Scott brings a wealth of programming experience to Y108," commented Entercom VP/GM Joseph Armao. "We're looking forward to his input as we take the station to the next level."

Aurand began his radio career at WADM & WQTZ/Decatur, IN at the age of 15. His resume also includes stints at WMEE/Fort Wayne, IN; WZOQ/Lima, OH; and WMME/Augusta, ME.

13,000 Jam To The Beat

After selling out 13,000 tickets in less than 24 hours, Evergreen Urban KKBT/Los Angeles held its "92.3 The Beat Summer Jam" last weekend (8/14) at Irvine Meadows Amphitheatre. Dedicated to the memory of late station personality Greg "Captain G" Beasley, the 12-hour concert featured performances by 25 acts. All proceeds from the show were donated in Beasley's name to various anti-violence and drug-prevention organizations.

Boston N/T Party

■ WEEL calls, format to 850; WHDH's Williams, Limbaugh to 'RKO; Back Bay brings in Biz News

Three of Boston's heritage AMs are juggling their formats and call letters in a massive realignment that will give the market three more sharply focused information formats.

American Radio Systems is buying WEEL-AM's call letters and Sports format from Back Bay Broadcasters and installing them at 850 kHz, currently the home of News/Talk WHDH-AM. ARS will continue to dominate the Talk format in Boston with WRKO, which remains at 680 kHz.

Talkers making the move from 'HDH to 'RKO include late-morning personality Jerry Williams, Rush Limbaugh, and afternoon driver Howie Carr.

ARS co-COO Dave Pearlman said the realignment will "maximize programming, creating two 50,000-watt AM superstations."

Meanwhile, back at Back Bay, the 590 kHz slot formerly occupied by 'EEI will become all-Business News WBNW. Programming for the new format will be anchored by Bloomberg Business News and by money talkers Bob Glosky and Rick Shaffer (formerly of WHDH).

"We intend to be a significant element in the market," commented Back Bay CEO Peter Ottmar. "Where we'll differ from other stations is in the amount of resources and the expertise of the personnel we'll bring to providing the best business coverage possible."

Although the format flips are scheduled to take effect August 29, expect plenty of simulcasting and cross-promotion to take place prior to that date as the three stations try to direct listeners to their favorite programs' new dial positions.

EXECUTIVE ACTION

Messerman Named GSM At Z100/NY

Former WHNZ-AM & WHPT-FM/Tampa GSM Jeffrey Messerman has taken a similar post with Shamrock Broadcasting CHR WHTZ (Z100)/New York. He replaces Lonnie Gronek, who becomes NSM.

WHTZ GM Alan Goodman told R&R, "The onset of duopolies has brought about the availability of very talented people. Jeff simply had the experience and talent that matched perfectly with Z100's needs. Without question, Jeff will lead the revenue side of the Z100 equation to levels beyond the ratings success we have enjoyed."

Messerman has also served as GSM at Boston outlets WXKS-AM & FM and WBCN-FM.

Thomas GM, Kelly PD at KEYV/Las Vegas

KEYV-FM/Las Vegas Operations Director/middayer George Thomas has been upped to GM at the Broadcast Associates Young Country outlet. Concurrently, WEAT/West Palm Beach morning personality Tom Kelly has joined the station as PD.

The appointments follow Regent Communications' recent purchase of crosstown Country KFMS-AM & FM from Broadcast Associates, which resulted in KFMS-AM & FM & KEYV GM Doug Shane exiting and KEYV PD/afternoon talent Charlie McGraw becoming KFMS's PD. Regent, which is also buying KRLV/Las Vegas, plans to continue its LMA with KEYV.

Thomas told R&R, "With Regent coming in, it allows us to stand alone. Y93 can now have its own identity — that's the most exciting part of this whole transition."

Thomas joined KEYV in 1991 as Asst. PD. After a series of format changes — including NAC, Urban, and Progressive — the station flipped to Country, with Thomas taking the PD reins in July 1992.

Dane Becomes PD At WKLI/Albany

Former WRMX/Nashville PD Laura Dane has been appointed PD of WKLI/Albany. The AC had been without a programmer for well over a year.

Dane told R&R, "WKLI has a positive image of being the community's heritage station. There will always be competition coming at us, but we're ready for the challenge. [Crosstown AC] WYJB is mirroring what we do. We'll set ourselves apart strategically as the original and dominant station."

Prior to joining WRMX, Dane spent nearly six years as Asst. PD of KBSG/Seattle.

Record Sales

"Our industry's double-digit growth is a direct result of the tremendous success of so many current hits," said RIAA Chairman Jay Berman. "We are well beyond the point of attributing such growth to consumers simply replacing their LP collections [with CDs]."

The double-digit growth rate for the first six months of this year continues the strong growth the U.S. record industry has enjoyed since the mid-1980s.

Sales for most types of recorded music formats were up for the first half of this year. CD sales jumped $20.9% to $3.3 billion, CD singles were up 15.2% to $25 million, music video sales rose 4.2% to $72.3 million, and even LP sales rose to $7.5 million.

Full-length cassette sales declined 4.8% to $1.2 billion, while vinyl single sales were off 19.3% to $23.8 million. And although the dollar value of cassette singles sales dropped 3%, the number of units sold rose 4%.

'ZINE SCENE

Green Day Recoups With 'Stock!

Woodstock "is really corporate," admits Green Day bassist Mike Dimt in Time. "But that's one of the reasons we're playing. It's helping us make up a lot of the money we've lost touring, being out there keeping our ticket prices low." The best-paid acts received $250,000, and all get a chunk of the ancillaries.

Uncontrollable Urge

Green Day singer Billie Joe Armstrong tells Details that as a kid he "had a problem keeping my penis in my pants."

Meanwhile, Paula Abdul has checked into a Tulsa clinic to combat bulimia (National Enquirer).

Diamond's Pearls

Does Neil Diamond watch MTV? "Occasionally. It's basically negative, sensationalist, and exploitative. Other than that, there's nothing wrong with it," he tells Details. Why the sideburns? "Elvis Presley was rock & roll to me, and he had sideburns. So I had to have sideburns."

Diamond also offers amusing anecdotes about stealing turkeys, his dad in drag, and his son talking to neighbor Lisa Marie Presley through the fence between their houses when they were little, "each with their own bodyguards."

Presley-Jackson Action

Speaking of Mrs. Presley-Jackson, the Globe alleges Michael Jackson imported a 16-year-old California kid and his mom to Budapest, where MJ's shooting a supposed $5 million video that shows him liberating a country. Meanwhile, the National Enquirer features an eight-page color pull-out of Michael and Lisa Marie's post-wedding pix.

More links: On LaToya Jackson's country album, she covers "Burnin' Love" and mentions Elvis in a song called "Trash Like You" (Entertainment Weekly).

Faithfully Yours

Vanity Fair visits with Marianne Faithfull to learn about her forthcoming autobiography, film, and two albums. With her book, she says, "I really wanted to show [ex-boyfriend] Mick Jagger in a fair and proper way, and it does that. God, does it ever slay the image of the demon king. He's a nice, ordinary, lower-middle-class boy with proper..." She waves her cigarette and adds, "I don't really like him. I don't know why I ever had anything to do with him, really, except that it had something to do with the zeitgeist of the times."

She tells Details, "The day will come when people just think of Mick Jagger as my ex."

Marketing 102

Al Cafaro

In Us's look at the newest wave of tribute albums, A&M President Al Cafaro opines, "Tributes give artists a great association with other artists, which is fun for them..."

Tributes are a win-win situation. While most artists are doing them for creative reasons, they also get introduced to other potential fans — and if it's well done, chances are, critics will view them kindly too." He adds that artists like being on the second Leonard Cohen tribute, because "I think it makes them feel noble."

"Gospel music is a vital art form, but the marketing has taken the idea of 'Don't offend anybody' to such an extreme that the colorfulfulness of being human is not encouraged" — Amy Grant (Details).

Stone Grown

Meet Rolling Stones keyboardist Chuck Leavell in People, and learn about his Georgia tree farm. He loves trees: "After all, my instrument's made from them." While the rest of the band sleeps late on tour this summer, he'll be up early. "I always carry a tree identification book for whatever region we're in. I'll try to find a park or forest and do some hiking. Of course, I can't do a whole lot of that. I've got to stay focused — on rock & roll!"

Hello Young Lovers

Chris Isaak is dating Margaret Cho, star of the fall TV show "All-American Girl" (Star).

It "has a lot of sex on it," says Michael Stipe of R.E.M.'s forthcoming LP, "Monster." The songs are "your standard emotional train wreck. They're about obsession" (Us).

"We could sit in the same room, but all we'd get out of Rich would be 'Fuck you.' Brotherly love, you know what I mean?" says Chris Robinson of the sibling rift that's held up the Black Crowes forthcoming album, "Amorica." Rich notes, "I hate the '60s and '70s. I hate hearing about it" (Rolling Stone).

Sandra Bernhard rags on Madonna in Us: "She's so past tense. I look at my friendship with her as like having a gallstone. You deal with it, there is a pain, and then you pass it."

Each week R&R sneaks a peek through the nation's consumer magazines in search of everything from the sublime to the ridiculous in music news. R&R has not verified any of these reports.

Ostin

been 25 years, and that's a very good number — the silver anniversary. About 10 months ago I went to Gerry Levin and told him I was interested in stepping down, and I gave him some ideas for my succession. Those talks turned into the possibility of a three-year contract, which I considered but ultimately didn't sign. This was before Doug's promotion. I guess I had a feeling about it," he laughed.

David Geffen, who worked with Ostin for nearly 20 years, this week called him "the single finest record executive in the world — a man with no peers in this industry. He made that label the most successful on the planet. It's impossible to imagine WB Records without Mo Ostin running it."

Ostin is leaving, as he noted, "with a blaze." By year's end, the label is scheduled to have released new records from Eric Clapton, Madonna, Prince, Tom Petty, R.E.M., Van Halen, Karyn White, and Neil Young. Candlebox and Green Day are among the Bunny's fast-rising young stars, along with Seal, Faith Hill, and David Ball.

The Next Job

As a consultant, explained Ostin, "I'll be working on increasing the synergy between Time Warner's divisions: music, film, publishing, television, and HBO, trying to see where music fits in — in effect, what was intended when Time and Warner merged."

Ostin told R&R that though he'll work indirectly with the Warner labels, he has no plans to work hands-on with another record company. He noted his contract does include a noncompete clause, which he declined to discuss.

'Pride & Humility'

"With Lenny at the helm, I have complete confidence that Warner Bros. Records is in good hands," said Ostin. "His instincts are unerring, his rapport with artists unparalleled, and his industry acumen a matter of record. His 12 years as President have been a time of unprecedented growth for our company, growth certain to continue into the next century under his leadership."

Waronker said he felt both "pride and humility" at the prospect of succeeding Ostin. "Pride because of the unique opportunity I have been offered; humility because . . . let's face it, these are big shoes to fill."

Business Of Change

Asked whether he planned any staff cuts, Waronker emphasized the continuity between the regimes and noted, "This company has always been about music and artists, and all the people here are very musical — in every way."

But he added, "This is a business of change — and there will be changes." Rumors have flown, especially in recent weeks, about Reprise assuming a more independent identity under one or more newly hired executives. Presented with a short list of names, Waronker broke in and said, "Let's make this easy: There are a handful of qualified people out there, and it would be foolish not to talk to them. Do I have any concrete answers? No."

Ostin joined Warner Bros. in 1963 as President of Frank Sinatra's Reprise Records. In addition to artists, he's brought in affiliated labels such as Sire, Geffen, Capricorn (twice), Island, Chrysalis, Qwest, Tommy Boy, American, Giant, and Maverick. He helped conceive and develop WEA Corp., WEA Manufacturing, and Warner Music International.

Waronker began his music career while attending USC. He worked for Metric Music Publishing, then went on to the promotion department of Liberty Records, which was started by his father, Si Waronker. He joined WB's A&R staff in 1966 and rose to Sr. VP/A&R before becoming President.

McNeill

"I've known Bob since he was PD of WMZQ/Washington in the early '80s," noted WWI President/Programming Ed Salamon. "His success in strategizing and programming in multiple formats and diverse markets will help keep Westwood One at the forefront of the national format business."

"I didn't think there could possibly be a better job than consulting," McNeill remarked. "But the opportunity to work with Ed during this period of growth for the Westwood One radio formats is sensational. It will be great to work with great people on seven different formats without getting on airplanes."

McNeill most recently was a consultant with McVay Media. He previously served as VP/Programming for the Viacom radio group (where he assisted with the development of WWI's "Format 41"), was PD of Viacom's WMZQ, programmed WRBQ/Tampa, and was OM at KOY/Phoenix.

Katz

"In naming Tom chief executive, Katz is selecting someone with unparalleled leadership abilities," said Goulzian.

Stu Olds was upped to President of Katz Radio Group July 27 (R&R 8/5) in a surprise move by Olson to oust Gordon Hastings prior to the DLJ closing.

Deal Details

DLJ's acquisition of Katz was valued at $287.1 million in a Katz news release. That figure apparently includes assumed debt and the stock interest retained by Katz managers. R&R's sources estimated that DLJ paid just under $100 million for its stake.

"This recapitalization plan affords Katz many advantages — it gives us an extremely strong financial partner with a good understanding of our business, as well as the backing of a firm that shares our vision of the future," said Olson.

Premiere

the deal. Archon and the management team have agreed to hold onto at least 50% of their Premiere stock for at least four years.

Archon CEO Robert Fell will join Premiere's board of directors after the deal closes, along with three other Archon principals: Kenin Spivak, Ronald Beck, and Steven Fink.

The deal with Archon is subject to approval by Premiere's shareholders. Premiere produces 18 syndicated radio programs which air on more than 2000 affiliates and owns Mediabase Research Corp. It is selling its only radio property, KZDG/Denver.

LETTER

'False Information' Not True

Dear R&R,

An item in Street Talk (R&R 8/12) incorrectly suggested that NAB was providing false information to its members about the status of performance rights legislation in the Senate. This assertion is just plain wrong.

On this issue, all NAB ever said was that Sens. Hatch (R-UT) and Feinstein (D-CA) have agreed to draft and "fast-track . . . compromise legislation" exempting broadcasters from a performance rights fee.

NAB never said a subcommittee vote was about to occur. The Street Talk item erroneously said we did. The Hatch aide apparently was reacting to this bad information. For the record, when Senate legislation is "fast-tracked," a subcommittee or committee vote is not necessary because of the nature of Senate rules.

—Doug Wills, NAB Director/Media Relations

Editor's note: It was a congressional aide who used the phrase "false information" after receiving numerous calls prompted by NAB's "Radio Week" fax.

Cook

WUSA, and KUSA-AM & KSD-FM/St. Louis. Cook was named Radio Division President in 1987 and returned to Tampa two years ago.

Prior to joining Gannett, Cook was VP/Programming at Combined Communications. He also served as PD of legendary Top 40 WFIL/Philadelphia for more than a decade, having been part of the station's original staff when it signed on in 1966.

Blue remarked, "After many rewarding years with Z100, it's time to take the programming experience gained at Z100 and apply it in totally new ways within the interactive framework of the Box. I've been fortunate to have been schooled by [past and present Z100 programmers] Scott Shannon and Steve Kingston. Now I'm looking forward to working with not only the most innovative music programming service in America today, but with Les Garland, one of the music industry's most respected leaders."

Eagles

Glenn Frey complained about the WBCN promotion and gave out home phone numbers for key WBCN personnel.

WBOS PD Jim Herron said he invited Henley and Frey to the station believing they would be discussing only their charitable projects, adding he was "shocked, surprised, and disappointed" at their ultimate on-air behavior. (Members of the band made a subsequent appearance on the station and, at Herron's request, did not discuss the 'BCN incidents).

A WBCN representative said the "Greed" promotion was never meant as an attack on the Eagles or their music — which the station promised to continue playing — but was meant to call attention to the issue of rising concert ticket prices.

Eagles spokesman Larry Solters told R&R, "[WBCN] can dish it out, but I guess they can't take it."

Connick's A Pryor-ity

The same night Columbia Records invited industry execs to dinner with Harry Connick Jr. (r) at L.A.'s Georgia, actor/comedian Richard Pryor (c) was dining at the restaurant and asked to meet Connick and wife/model Jill Goodacre (l). Taking advantage of the celebrity photo opportunity are Columbia's VP/CHR Promotion Jerry Blair and Dana Keil.

No Broadcasters Up For USIA Broadcast Board?

NAB President/CEO Eddie Fritts fired off a letter to U.S. Information Agency Dir. Joseph Duffey last week, wondering why no one in the broadcast industry is being considered for appointment to USIA's new Broadcasting Board of Governors. The board will oversee Voice of America, World Net, Radio Marti, TV Marti, Radio Free Europe, Radio Liberty, and — when it begins broadcasting — Radio Free Asia.

"Frankly, I am dismayed that it seems no one is being considered who has any experience in the broadcasting business," Fritts said in his letter. The USIA press office says selection of board members rests with President Clinton.

Here are some of the people being considered for the eight-member (plus Duffey) Board of Governors, as reported recently by the Washington Post: AFL-CIO Chairman Lane Kirkland, House Minority Leader Bob Michel (R-IL), author Betty Bao Lord, Oklahoma Gazette editor Pam Fleishacker, Miami activist Jorge Mas Canosa, former Congressman Dan Mica, and ad agency exec Carl Spielvogel.

Late flash: Cox converts UC KACE/L.A. to what the company terms a "Black AC" approach.

Rumors

- Will Hollywood shift its distribution from Elektra/WEA to PGD?
- Will KEDG/Las Vegas owner Radio Vision Inc. expand into other markets? Would that create a chain programming gig?
- Is there a new Jacobs Media-consulted "Edge" station coming to a Top 50 market in the next 60 days?
- Is ex-Q105/Tampa PD Brian Thomas setting sail for a major West Coast PD post?
- Is it true that WCIL-FM/Carbondale, IL PD Tony Waitekus — fired over philosophical differences after 19 years with the station — was given only two weeks' severance?
- Will Jive hire WWKX/Providence MD/afternoon thoroughbred John "The Horse" McMann for its promo department?
- Is KHKS/Dallas MD Mr. Ed Lambert a dark horse candidate for the Z100/NY MD slot?

In This Corner . . .

KYSR (Star 98.7)/L.A. PD Greg Dunkin will exit the station when his deal expires in October. Boulevard banter has the Viacom Hot AC hiring Bill Richards as a consultant, which would have him directly confronting former partner Guy Zapoleon, who consults crosstown CHR KIIS.

From the "Iowa Great Deal" handbook, ST hears an overzealous broker was shopping Saga's Des Moines duopoly (KSTZ-AM, KRNT-FM, KIOA-AM & FM) to several potential buyers (after getting permission to present a bid from a single interested party). The sales dynamo was shut down when Saga boss Ed Christian got wind of what was going on. Nervous staffers can apparently rest easy — the stations are NOT for sale.

Big Orange Duopportunity

What's an Orange County stick worth? After rejecting would-be suitors for years, owner Paul Toberty has listed KYMS/Santa Ana, a Class A FM currently carrying Religious programming, with broker Gary Stevens. Look for the bidding to push the $10 million barrier. (Crosstown Asian-programmed KWIZ-FM went for $8.75 million in '92.)

Potential buyers? Just about every L.A. station owner.

Marvin Robinson

Marvin Robinson — former Zoo VP/Black Music and 13-year KSOL/SF PD — becomes PD at UC KYEA/Monroe, LA.

Clear Channel Communications closed its $21 million duopoly buy of KBXX-FM/Houston. That leaves Cook Inlet Radio Partners with zero radio stations, but ST hears the Alaskan Native American tribe that owned 50% of the partnership is likely to return to the radio biz.

CONTEMPORARY HIT RADIO

The Reimaging Of Q102

■ Presentation/music update generates great demos

Ask Citicasters Pop CHR WKRQ (Q102)/Cincinnati PD Jimmy Steal why the station scored so well in the Spring '94 Arbitron (6.0-7.3, good for fourth place 12+ and the best book since Summer 1991), and he won't point to the music first.

While music changes were a contributing factor, Steal will tell you it was the modifications in the presentation and overall image that helped Don Benson-consulted Q102 score No. 1 with teens and 18-34 females, and No. 2 among women 18-49 and 25-54 (behind Country WUBE).

Jimmy Steal

Steal, who arrived in October, says Q102's former image was blurred because of:

- A misaligned morning show
- '80s-sounding jocks, who didn't appeal to women
- Juvenile positioning in promos and sweepers
- Perception of playing too much rap for the market.

"Arbitron is like a popularity contest; even if people were listening to Q102, they wouldn't admit it," he recalls. "It's like that commercial for Frosted Flakes — no one wants to admit they eat it. This was the first thing we had to address.

"David Letterman calls it 'piercing the screen.' It's 'orchestrated chaos,' or whatever you want to call it, that goes beyond the music. It's not a big secret, but it's one of the most important elements of Q102's success. It's about designing a product people want to consume . . . making your station a part of your listeners' daily lives.

"When we began reimagining Q102, [Citicasters President] Dave Crowl, [VP/Research] Nick Miller, and [Q102 President/GM] Jim Bryant all bought into the concept that there are no concise formats any more. I suggested that we pick a demo target, construct a format around it, and play what works for that target. It's just bottom-up marketing applied to radio."

More Entertaining, Less Abrasive

Steal details Q102's changes, which focus on 25-34 days and 18-34 in other dayparts. "By switching production voices, we began reshaping the on-air sound to be more entertaining and less abrasive. We imported Randy Marx from KHFI/Austin to work in-house. Not only can he create promos and sweepers that sound intelligent yet exciting, he can transpose the harebrained ideas in my head and put them to tape.

“MTV and VH-1 have made the stakes higher; they've increased the audience's entertainment expectation quotient.”

MTV and VH-1 have made the stakes higher; they've increased the audience's entertainment expectation quotient.

"In a high-repetition, foreground format like CHR, the on-air packaging must be fresh. That's why we have about 30 different stagers in-studio to begin our 'music marathons' at :15 and :45. We also cut many versions of promos to keep them fresh and interesting. Q102 promos are brief, entertaining, left-of-center, and [feature] compelling production.

"MTV and VH-1 have made the stakes higher; they've increased the audience's entertainment expectation quotient. So production, presentation, and personalities have become the distinguishing factors for a radio station in 1994. We've internalized and maximized the interests of the listeners and let them know we're living the same lifestyle."

Although he's not on the air regularly, Steal's reputation as a great jock precedes him. "I have empathy for what it takes to be fresh every day, which means doing as much prep as possible. I tell the jocks to look at the music logs, know the songs, say things that relate to the music, and talk about things the audience is into — not their personal agenda — in an entertaining yet [concise] fashion."

The cornerstone of most successful CHRs is the morning show. Steal, however, must find a new foundation, since Dave Mason joined duopoly sister AC WWNK as PD. Q102 currently teams co-host Linda Welby with news personality Dennis Rooney, a candidate for the slot on a permanent basis. "With Dave, the show was fashioned after 'Regis & Kathie Lee,'" says Steal.

The Q102 staff, lined up and ready to entertain.

"One player was more conservative than the other for balance, which replaced the old 'zoo' concept. Now direct mail tied in with a shopper's magazine," notes Steal. "We also awarded a Neon the same way. It was more economical to buy the front and back covers of these magazines than to customize our own mailer. They were sent to over 500,000 homes, and listeners had 15 minutes to call in once their names were announced. We had a hit ratio of around 50%. Fewer contests with bigger prizes compete better with other media contests like lotteries, without the clutter of smaller giveaways."

Summertime events at Q102 include free "One Earth Parties" that solicit donations to Cincinnati's Parks & Recreation department; artists like 4 Non Blondes, Aaron Neville, and the Knack have made recent appearances. And on the first Friday of every month it holds "Thank Van Gogh It's Friday" parties at the Cincinnati Art Museum. Says Steal, "We have live bands; it's the place to be if you're single in this town. That's what we try to get across — if it's going on in town, Q102 is plugged in."

mornings are topical, fun, and relatable to a wider audience."

Fewer Promotions, Bigger Prizes

Director/Promotion & Marketing Von Freeman assistant Scott Colebrook, and a bevy of interns make up Q102's promotion department, which is about to receive a new van that will serve as a remote vehicle. Q102 is currently handing out "One Station, One World" bumper stickers, which can be worth up to $1000 on the spot to listeners.

"During the spring we gave away a $130,000 home promoted through

Q102's Mass-Appeal Music Policy

Many question whether Q102 is CHR or Hot AC. Besides the music, the debate revolves around the positioners "Q102, the best hits of the '80s and '90s" and "The radio station you grew up with has grown up with you."

APD/MD Brian Douglas says, "Those slogans and a different way of programming the music helped us shed our teen-only image. When you look at all of the music we play, it's easy to see we're still cognizant of 12-24s in the right dayparts — so you're not going to get us confused with an AC station."

Douglas admits Q102's tight music policies can make life difficult for record labels. "We're not everyone's favorite in the record industry, but we've learned who our true friends are. They have an agenda to sell records and we're here to get ratings. We're quite happy when those agendas meet."

To keep up Q102's familiarity, five of the 13 titles scheduled each hour are non-currents, and the A's were loosened a bit to avoid repetition. Here are the details behind Q102's music systems:

Currents

- A's: 7 titles; 3.5-hour rotation
- B's: 10 titles; 4.5-5-hour rotation
- C's: 5 new titles; 3-4 times daily
- Nights: 3 night titles; each airs twice nightly

Recurrents

- Power recurrents: 7 titles; 3 times daily
- Regular recurrents: 30 titles; approximately twice daily

Gold

- 1988-92: 100 titles, two per hour
- 1983-87: 100 titles, two per hour
- Pre-1983: Fewer than 100 titles "spiked" for flavor

And The Beat Goes On

■ Evergreen's KKBT continues its ratings climb in the City of Angels

My latest stop on the Urban market-overview circuit is Los Angeles. Here, KKBT (92.3 The Beat) continues to move up ever so slightly each book: Among persons 12+, the Beat rose 3.3-3.6 for a No. 8 overall market rank (see "Raiding L.A.'s Ratings" for an overview of the market's other Urban outlets).

KKBT VP/GM Craig Wilberham discusses his and Evergreen's philosophies about owning an Urban station in the nation's second-largest market. "From a revenue standpoint, this is the largest market in the country. Every major broadcaster wants to have a full signal here; we're fortunate to have one of the best."

"Urban radio is a very exciting format today. If not first, it's in second or third place in all of the country's major markets. The music crosses a lot of lines — it's very popular and cutting-edge. In fact, you could argue that alternative and urban are the two groundbreaking music genres in radio today. We're proud to be the Urban outlet in L.A. taking advantage of that."

and WRKS/New York. Depending on the book, you'll see between 50%-60% of our audience is African-American [see "Ethnic Com-

Raiding L.A.'s Ratings

Following are Winter '94-Spring '94 Arbitron ratings comparisons for three L.A. Urban stations: KKBT, Urban AC KACE, and Mainstream Urban KJLH. (Note: Ratings for Urban Gold KGFJ were unavailable at presstime.)

Calls	W'94	Sp'94
KKBT	3.3	3.6
KACE	0.6	0.7
KJLH	1.0	0.6

positions"]. The remainder are Latinos and 'other.' At Chicago and New York Urbans, you see anywhere from 80% upwards of African-American listeners.

"Our station was [influenced] greatly by the 1990 Census. It had always been our philosophy to superserve the African-American radio listener in L.A. But because of the market's multicultural nature and the urban product's broad appeal, we also wanted to open up this station to whomever was interested. So we've been able to expand the station, while still superserving the core promotionally and musically."

Reaching Consumers

Although the Beat is white-owned, Wilberham says it doesn't experience any resistance from black-focused buying agencies or retailers. "When people are marketing to the African-American in L.A., they have a clear picture as to the best way to reach them. There are alternatives, and there always will be, but the bulk of African-American listening is done through the Beat — and advertisers recognize that. Any negatives about the ownership's ethnicity tend to come from competitors or disenfranchised radio listeners and really haven't had any dramatic impact on station sales.

"It's unfortunate that advertisers don't see the value of the African-American consumer. One of the major thrusts of our sales and marketing is to speak directly to these marketers and talk to them about the value of this growing group of people. From educational and consumer-spending perspectives, it's clearly a growing portion of the population. There's a way to speak to them, a type of product they prefer, and a lot of spendable income there to benefit them."

In its target demo — women 18-34 — KKBT's tied for seventh in the market. According to Wilberham, "We're also starting to show growth among 25-54s, the selling demo where you can make a lot of revenue."

"The broad appeal of our radio station is to the 25-34 listeners. Our popularity falls equally on each side of that demo, appealing to secondary demos 18-34 and 35-44. That allows us to compete within 25-54 business — where the bulk of the advertising revenue is devoted — and get involved in the 18-34-year-old youth-oriented business."

'No Color Line'

KKBT's mornings, hosted by John London, inched 3.0-3.1 and rose from a 14th-place tie to 11th overall this spring. Although London is white, Evergreen felt he was the right person to communicate with the station's large black audience. "We recruited John from Urban KMEL/San Francisco," says Wilberham, "so he had a great deal of experience with the audience, cul-

Ethnic Compositions

Here's Arbitron's Spring '94 overview of the ethnic compositions of Urban KKBT, CHR KPWR, and the Los Angeles market itself. Findings are based on quarter-hour listening.

	Black	Hispanic	Other
KKBT	69%	14%	17%
KPWR	11%	63%	26%
Market	9.8%	34%	56.2%

Power Play

KKBT shares some audience with crosstown CHR KPWR (Power 106), which is heavily into street hip-hop/rap music. "It's probably the station we share the most audience with," says Wilberham. Responding to the rumor that KPWR salespeople have intimated they have no interest in African-American listeners, Craig says, "[The rumors] are correct in their statement that [the staff] doesn't focus on African-Americans. They do play some of the same product we play. However, they play techno, house, and other music that tends to attract a teen, male Latino. That's KPWR's core. Our core is 18-34 — with an emphasis on 25-34 — and leans slightly female."

"One of the unique things about this station versus other Urban outlets nationwide is that our total audience doesn't have as high a concentration of African-Americans as such stations as WGCI/Chicago

Reaching Consumers

Although the Beat is white-owned, Wilberham says it doesn't experience any resistance from black-focused buying agencies or retailers. "When people are marketing to the African-American in L.A., they have a clear picture as to the best way to reach them. There

True To The Streets

KKBT "Street Science" host and community action consultant Dominique DiPrima has maintained a single, focused agenda since joining the station last November: Get things done and move on to the next project.

This philosophy has helped decrease any skepticism that might arise because the Beat is a large commercial venture and therefore not interested in becoming a vital part of the community. Nothing speaks louder than action, according to DiPrima, who did a similar stint at KRON-TV/San Francisco with "Home Turf," a magazine-style talk show. "We're showing that our community activism is not isolated to one area of the station — like the 4-6am Sunday morning show. It permeates every area of the station."

One of the many examples of staying "true to the streets" is the Beat's fundraising concert for Centennial High School. "We raised $12,000 so the school could do a yearbook. That's a tangible result and the kind of thing I'm interested in doing. We have breakfast coming up in late August where we are going to feed more than 900 homeless young people from Hollywood." The station recently did a Mother's Day brunch for single mothers with Death Row Records.

Broader Appeal For Hip-Hop

DiPrima does not think the Hip-Hop format is only geared toward the younger demo. "I'm 28 and have been into hip-hop since I was 14. There are a lot of people out there like me. People want to listen to hip-hop and all the range of messages in there — as controversial as they need be. But when you start taking responsibility for discussing the issues that are brought up, and giving people access to the airwaves to air their opinions, then you create real dialogue and opportunities for community action. People with kids want to see that you're bringing some positive values along with the gin and juice."

"A lot of people were wary of the Beat going pop or whatever. That whole true to the streets thing is hard to live up to, but we're doing everything we can. We're trying to find one thing that's broken and fix it — then on to the next. It's being consistent and sincere and therefore gaining trust."

ture, and musical tastes; he was always interactive with the audience. This wasn't a guy we brought in cold to this kind of a format and audience.

"The morning show also spotlights Shirley Clark, an African-American woman we recruited from Chicago, who does a terrific job as John's sidekick. About six months ago, we promoted Ben Kelly, who's also black, into the morning show, which also features Dennis Cruz, who's white."

"Our sales staff has nine people. Four are black, four are white, and one's Latino. So we have a multiracial morning show, a multiracial sales department, and a multiracial radio station."

"We're rolling out a new slogan for the station: 'There's No Color Line.' There remains a great deal of tension here in L.A., and we feel it's our responsibility to address these tensions and speak responsibly on behalf of blacks, Latinos, Asians,

Because of the market's multicultural nature and the urban product's broad appeal, we wanted to open up this station to whomever was interested.

and whites about getting along. We feel this station offers a great platform to do that; too much has been swept under the carpet. What we do is unique to radio — especially in Los Angeles, where history [dictates] giving away a Porsche a day. There have been very few socially responsible stations aggressively pursuing that tack. We'd like to change that."

WAVF Asks, 'What Is Rock?'

■ Definition results in Charleston, SC outlet's musical odyssey

As fragmentation splinters rock into distinct molds divided along precise musical party lines, a new era of music unfolds. Progressive's expansion breathed new life into such artists as Bonnie Raitt and Peter Dinklage and opened new doors for bands like Counting Crows, Widespread Panic, and Sheryl Crow. Meanwhile, guitar-laden acts such as Green Day, Smashing Pumpkins, and Offspring have made the Alternative-Rock crossover a startling reality.

Dave Rossi

Though many already have questioned the meaning of the word "alternative," we have yet to ask, "What is rock?" In a recent comparison, 70% of the Rock chart's Top 10 tracks also charted on Alternative:

30% of the same artists were on the Progressive chart.

One Rock station's playlist reflects that diversity in a region not commonly thought of as being musically liberal: Charleston, SC. When WAVF (96 Wave) PD Dave Rossi asked, "What is rock?" he found it was like asking "What is love" or "What is religion." He explains, "Depending on where you were raised or how you were brought up, everyone has his own and different answer. The overwhelming response turned out to be that rock is what our audience expects from us."

"At WAVF, we can play an artist like Lisa Loeb and have nothing but positive response to it. But we also can play Helmet and Neil Young with success. We've broken a lot of new artists in our market who have gone on to be successful, familiar, and accepted. We see the station as a place for listeners to shop for music. When we open the doors to a gigantic store and people walk in and see a lot to choose from, they expect it all the time. We turn people on to so many different sounds, they've become accustomed to experimenting."

Question Of Balance

Rossi says the station has had this musical range for three years and credits the first Pearl Jam record with helping WAVF break traditional form. "We learned the hard way that you can't suddenly start jamming something new down listeners' throats. Pearl Jam, Nirvana, Soundgarden, and Red Hot Chili Peppers all came out at the same time, and we jumped all over them. The reaction was great at first, and we had a great fall book. We thought we had it figured out, so we went further musically in the winter. But it was too far, and the ratings fell. We weren't pacing properly, and we could see it in the ratings: We'd go

Alternative GM

An adventurous and patient GM helped 96 Wave ride through the storms. "Woody [Bartlett] is a product of college radio; he's really into alternative music. He even does our cutting-edge show Sunday nights. He's known about Soundgarden for their entire career and been friends with the Meat Puppets since 1980. He recently was out doing his show live from the Mighty Mighty Bosstones concert. When we started playing alternative bands, it was rough — but now it's a part of our heritage.

"What pushed us over the edge in deciding to go this musical route entirely was one of our yearly free listener-appreciation concerts. In '92, we brought in Cracker, Matthew Sweet, and Screaming Trees and wound up with 15,000 people. Last year we had Cracker again, plus Drivin-N-Cryin, Meat Puppets, and Jeffrey Gaines and had 35,000 people. That's when it came together for us. We saw the support in the market both at the ticket outlets and the sales counters, plus we had a great book.

"Being in a smaller market, we don't have the advantage of doing a lot of research, so what we do is totally based on our gut. But both Woody and I are in our target demo [adults 25-34], so it's easier to trust our senses."

Southern Dichotomy

It's not hard to imagine Charleston as a nonprogressive city, so it's no small wonder that 96 Wave has accomplished such a musical feat. Rossi agrees, but says the city is changing. "Charleston is growing — people move here from other parts of the country and bring their influences with them. It's a traditional city, proud to be in the South, and has a very relaxed lifestyle which plays into what we're doing at the station. When I first came here seven years ago, there was no music scene; the station sounded like any other Rock station in the country. When Woody came here — also seven years ago — he was able to get some alternative bands to play here by promoting his own shows. He had a good sense of the underground music scene, and the shows went over very well as a result.

All the success we've had at the station has been because of the music and community involvement. It's a purely organic, street-level strategy.

"Soon, we started seeing a cutting-edge subculture raise its head. We started seeing people who were more into this different type of music — they weren't Journey or Foreigner fans anymore. They liked the Violent Femmes and Jane's Addiction. It started to grow, then the local music scene started to develop. We were still playing a lot of the regular mainstream rock music, and the ratings were around a six, with the Classic Rocker within two shares. We finally decided we could separate ourselves from the pack and do something original — or we could sit there and flounder.

"All the success we've had at the station has been because of the music and community involvement. We haven't done any TV, billboards, busboards, major giveaways, etc. It's a purely organic, street-level strategy. Our promotional calendar is packed with at least one event per day for the entire summer. Our first promotional day off is October 25! There's been a huge buzz on the station for a year now, and it's still growing.

"We had four consecutive up books 12+; our four-book average works out to a 7.6 share. In the winter book, we had a huge amount of female numbers, and it was really a kiss from Arbitron. The spring book was closer to reality. Last month, we experienced the best month in the station's financial history. Interestingly, this success [exposed] problems we never knew existed — like not getting a day off promotionally until October 25, because everybody in the market wants us. So we're learning how to deal with the new pressures. Still, being oversold is a great problem to have."

Artistic Assortment

Rossi says, "We're having success with bands like Offspring, Green Day, Freedy Johnston, Iguanas, Mazzy Star, and Hootie & The Blowfish. What's good about WAVF is that it can embrace any type of music. We don't put labels on the music or let stereotypes limit us. MTV has exposed people to different sounds and styles of music. People just want to hear good music, and today you can get away with more musical diversity. Many listeners said they had quit listening to radio, but we got them back into it because it's interesting again!"

KGSR Reflects Community In Music, Programming

By Cyndee Maxwell

The community spirit of Austin is mirrored in its Progressive outlet, KGSR. Winner of the Austin Music Awards' Best Radio Station honor for three consecutive years, plus other awards from the Austin Chronicle, the three-and-a-half-year-old station marches to its own drummer when it comes to programming.

The owners of KGSR, originally an NAC station, heard about the success of KBCO/Denver and contacted then-PD (now consultant) Dennis Constantine about consulting their switch to Progressive. KGSR PD Jody Denberg was at crosstown Rock KLBJ when Constantine approached him about joining KGSR.

Denberg says, "When this went down at the end of 1990, there really wasn't a Progressive format established; there were just scattered stations doing it. We did our own thing both then and now in that we don't program everything that hits the Progressive charts. In some ways we have more of a public radio attitude but with many of the formatics we thought were cool and played them with Poi Dog Pondering, Neil Young, Sting, and Peter Gabriel. Not too long afterward, a lot of the NAC material started to sound out of place next to the newer Progressive music, so we gradually weeded it out. However, we still play some NAC artists."

One of the format's highlights is its sense of community and localism. Denberg says, "In Austin, the regional music scene [includes] Ian Moore, Jimmie Dale Gilmore, Iain Matthews, Sara Hickman, Storyville, and Jimmie Vaughan. There's a strong singer-songwriter scene, blues scene, and progressive country scene with artists like Asleep At The Wheel, Willie Nelson, and Robert Earl Keen, who all live here.

"That's what really separates us from other Progressives. Some will play Tish Hinojosa and Jimmie Dale Gilmore, but for the most part the country-flavored artists have met with resistance at the format. We're into it because they live here; they draw a lot of people to their gigs, and we feel their music is worthwhile. We don't play a local record just because it's a local record. There are plenty of things we pass on, but if it's good — whether it's Jimmy LaFave or Soulhat — we play it."

Blues Bond

The blues alliance between KGSR and Austin is tightly woven. Den-berg points out some blues connections in illustrating why the station plays a heavier-than-average blues contingent. "Antone's Nightclub is here, the Antone's label is here, and there are so many great blues artists who live here: Jimmie Vaughan, Kim Wilson, Steve James, W.C. Clark, and Lavelle White.

"The only thing we have that's close to a blues show is the '5:01 Blues,' which is a two-song feature to get the afternoon drive started. We normally mix in the blues everywhere. We don't have a local music show per se either, because we play that music all the time. I got frustrated with the 'ghettoization' of genres. We have little features like the 'Daily Demo,' where we play a demo tape, or the 'World Party,' where we feature a world music track every night; but for the most part, those elements are integrated into the programming."

Like those at most Progressives, KGSR's sales department sells the qualitative aspects of its listeners: well-educated, professional, in the higher income brackets. Denberg says, "Our listeners are cosmopolitan; they live in the city, they spend their money in the city. We get a lot of advertising from restaurants, furniture stores, car dealerships, and nightclubs and concert venues."

Musical Promotions

Most of KGSR's promotions are music-driven, says Denberg. "We named June 'Music Month' and highlighted different songs from an artist every hour, emphasizing the depth of our library and showing that we weren't just playing the hits. Two or three times a year we do 'Select-A-Set Weekends.' We put an ad in the newspaper that serves as an entry form; listeners choose five songs they think would sound good on the station. Then for an entire weekend, every set is culled from the Select-A-Set entries. With close to 1000 entries coming in, it's a major promotion.

"We give away trips to the New Orleans Jazz and Heritage Festival and the Chicago Blues Festival, but one of our most successful promotions is called 'Give Austin To A Friend.' For two weeks in October, every time [we play] an artist who's from Texas the seventh caller qualifies for a drawing for two round-trip tickets to Austin from anywhere in the United States. We're so into Austin and sharing it with people that it really makes a great prize. We also pay for accommodations and give them concert tickets.

"We invite 600 listeners to our annual anniversary party at the 'Austin City Limits' studios. Last year we had the Subdudes, Jimmie Dale Gilmore, and Toni Price; this year we're hoping for Los Lobos and Bruce Cockburn. The show is recorded, so a week later everyone gets to hear it on the radio."

Denberg explains KGSR's special Father's Day promotion: "Mothers

call the station and make an appointment for themselves and their children to come in for a 10-minute recording session in our production room. They record a message or sing a song for Dad; we give them a nice package with the cassette and a T-shirt that says 'I'm A Star Dad.' It really pushes a lot of buttons."

Team Players

According to Denberg, KGSR's success is due to a genuine team effort. "Our GM is in our demo; he listens to our station when he's not working, comes to our promotions, and supports us 100%. MD Susan Castle really has a great ear for what fits and what doesn't, and our music meetings are very productive.

We really try to reflect the Austin community and how diverse, eclectic, and wonderful it is.

"Our Production Director, Bryan Beck, and nighttime announcer, Rolee Rios, are both very visible at all of our events and concerts. Combined with our morning show, Ed Mayberry & Cecilia Nasti, we all have our own areas we relate to with the audience.

"Everyone is out there being a part of the community. That's what Austin's about — it's special. We really try to reflect the Austin community and how diverse, eclectic, and wonderful it is."

We don't have a local music show per se, because we play that music all the time. I got frustrated with the 'ghettoization' of genres.

of a Progressive station. We rotate our songs at a decent clip, and we're not afraid to play commercially successful things like the Rolling Stones and Traffic alongside Iris Dement and Manu Dibango."

Progressive Evolution

In switching from NAC to Progressive, Denberg says it was more of a gradual evolution than an all-out format flip. "When we went on the air December 3, 1990 with our new DJ lineup and new library, we still played a lot of music from the old library, like Pat Metheny and Strunz & Farah. We kept the songs

Longer Songs Mean Shorter Lists

■ New acts suffer the most as times continue to increase

In recent, isolated conversations with two of Country's most prominent PDs, both brought up a subject I haven't heard discussed in years — the effects of and problems caused by the increasing length of records.

KKBQ/Houston PD Dene Hallam and Nationwide Regional VP/Programming and WPOC/Baltimore PD Bob Moody offer their concerns in the best interests of both sides of the music business. Explains Moody, "Whenever radio people start talking about shorter songs, it's misperceived by creative people who think we're trying to somehow squelch creativity. But that's not it at all. Obviously, there are a lot of classics and hits that are over four minutes. And if it's in you to write 'Hey Jude,' go for it."

Dene Hallam Bob Moody

Simple Mathematics

"But we don't have any control over the number of minutes in an hour. For argument's sake, let's assume that after news, spots, jock talk, contests, and whatever, we have 48 minutes an hour left for music. If the average song is three minutes, we can play 16 records. If it's four minutes, we can only play 12 songs. It's simple math.

"As songs have gotten longer, the average station is playing two or three fewer songs an hour. That means PDs have to decide which songs to drop. And I guarantee PDs don't begin by cutting the hottest currents or power gold. The first to go are the new music currents and the fringe gold."

Hallam agrees, adding, "That should be alarming to producers who are trying to break new acts. By making longer records, they're unwittingly knocking slots off playlists — the very thing they don't want to do."

Says Moody, "It's in all of our best interests to play more records and more new music, and radio wants to do that. And the way to do that is to have shorter songs."

As songs have gotten longer, the average station is playing fewer songs an hour. That means PDs have to decide which songs to drop.

— Bob Moody

Watch The Clock

Hallam doesn't think it's too much to ask of those in Creative to keep an eye on the clock when making records. "People in other industries are conscious of time. It's pretty well known that Hollywood directors try to keep movies around two hours. They know people become antsy after that. Any good movie, book, or record should get done in a certain amount of time. A song with a message and a hook should be able to come in at around three minutes. Many of those that don't are because of the lack of discipline on the part of producers and artists.

"I once read that Ben Franklin said, 'If I had more time, I would have written a shorter book.' I think producers, writers, and artists need to follow that as well. A handful of people control 80% to 90% of hits; they need to be sensitive to the time issue so they don't hurt artists, labels, writers, or themselves in the long run. The irony is that many producers are working with veterans as well as new acts, and they're hurting their chances with their own new acts when making long records on their stars."

Hallam is known for playing album cuts and dance mixes, and admits to a certain degree of hypocrisy in his words. "I guess I'm my own worst enemy, because regardless of length, if a song's good I'm going to play it. I feel I'm cheating the public by not giving them the cut they hear on the album. And dance mixes add a lot of excitement to the station and give listeners versions they're not likely to hear anywhere else."

'More Music' Perception

"We certainly break more than our share of records and new artists. And my intention is not to exclude anybody. But I can't worry about leaving out records. My duty is to play the hits."

Hallam and Moody also point out that playing more records per hour yields other positive effects on programming. Says Hallam, "The more records I can play in an hour, the more music the listener perceives I'm playing. Sixteen songs in 48 minutes sounds like more music than 12 songs in 48 minutes. Playing more records also means more variety, more texture, and more different artists each hour."

A Matter Of Time

A decidedly unscientific, random survey of songs that achieved Top 15 status in the designated years yields the following song-length trends:

Editor's Comments

The song-length debate has a long history and will no doubt be a never-ending saga. I vividly remember the audible gasp rising from a CRS panel audience a few years ago when one of Nashville's top producers admitted he intentionally printed the wrong times on the records his label was distributing. He said he didn't want time to be a factor for adding a record.

While that's obviously not the way to go, the fact is there's no right or wrong. There have always been hit records over four minutes long — any jock in the biz more than 10 years can tell you how long "El Paso" is. But now they're no longer a rarity.

No one wants to stifle creativity; it's the lifeblood of this business.

'HUNGRY' FOR HAGGARD

Tribute Album To Benefit Food Bank

Sixteen country artists will pay tribute to Merle Haggard and his musical accomplishments through a unique album project and a TV special set to air on TNN in November.

"Mama's Hungry Eyes," the Arista/Nashville album tribute due out October 11, contains nods to the Hag from Clint Black, Vince Gill, Willie Nelson, Alabama, Emmylou Harris, Pam Tillis, Randy Travis, and others. Proceeds from the 13-track CD will benefit the Second Harvest Food Bank program, which assists the needy through a network of 185 food banks across the U.S. "It's always nice to be appreciated by your fellow artists," commented Haggard. "And it's even nicer to know that their appreciation is being used to help people in a needy situation."

Spearheading the effort are Arista/Nashville President Tim DuBois (a longtime supporter of Second Harvest who has used label events as food-gathering opportunities for years), album executive producer Bruce Bouton, Black co-manager and project director/associate producer Jeff Gwaltney, Tree International CEO Donna Hilley, and publicist Evelyn Shriver.

The first single from the project, "Working Man Blues" — featuring labelmates Lee Roy Parnell, Steve Wariner, and Diamond Rio — will be shipped to radio October 17. The artists were in Nashville last week shooting a video for the song, which Haggard took to the top of the charts in 1969.

Clips from their performance and other studio footage of the making of the album will be included in a two-part TNN special, "Merle Haggard: An American Story." The show will include interviews with Haggard about his San Quentin days, his rags-to-riches story, and highlights from his recent performance at Nashville's Ryman Auditorium. It will also include performances by participating artists on Haggard classics like "Today I Started Loving You Again," "Tonight The Bottle Let Me Down," and "Silver Wings."

Love And Luck

Marty Stuart recently helped a fan win the hand of his girlfriend during a concert in Kitchener, Ontario. Peter Karwowski approached Stuart before the show and persuaded him to help him propose. During the concert, Karwowski handed Stuart a note with his marriage proposal, which he later read to the crowd. The surprised woman gladly accepted, and Stuart went on with the show.

Bits & Pieces

Ricky Lynn Gregg recently performed at a New York party for network execs and Madison Ave. ad agency reps, hosted by TV mogul Aaron Spelling. . . . John Michael Montgomery is recuperating at home in Nicholasville, KY after an accident on an ATV resulted in a back injury. He's scheduled to be back in action this Friday (8/19) at the West Virginia State Fair.

NEW ARTIST FACT FILE

Label: Step One Records
Single/Album: "Western Flyer"
Producer: Western Flyer/Ray Pennington

Background

Named for the famed bicycle that holds a special memory for the group's co-founder Chris Marion, Western Flyer has bounded onto the country scene with crisp, six-man harmonies reminiscent of Poco or the Eagles. And the backgrounds of each band member are as distinctive and unique as the group's tight sound.

- Lead vocalist Danny Myrick grew up influenced by gospel sounds in his hometown of Pascagoula, MS. Performing from an early age in a family band, Myrick arrived in Nashville to attend Belmont University.

- Also a Mississippi native raised around gospel and bluegrass, keyboardist Marion traveled with his mother on the Christian music circuit and played in several rock bands before heading to Nashville. He spent years in the Christian industry before co-founding Western Flyer with Myrick.

- Drummer Bruce Gust, the native New Yorker and Yankee of the group, cut his musical teeth as a member of the U.S. Marine Corps Band. Gust found a home in Christian music with the Young Messiah Tour after moving to Nashville, and joined the band after meeting Marion and Myrick at church.

- Marion later recruited friends Steve Charles, T.J. Klay, and Roger Helton to round out the band's lineup. Ohio native Charles, the band's lead guitarist, counts Dan Fogelberg, Boston, and John Denver among his influences. Upon moving to Music City, the Indiana University graduate joined Steven Curtis Chapman's road band, where he played until joining WF.

- Hailing from Iowa, Klay has logged performance time on the mandolin and harmonica with John Prine and Roger McGuinn. He moved to Nashville 10 years ago and did jingle and session work before joining the band.

- The only Tennessee native of the group, Helton spent time in Washington, DC playing bluegrass, rock, and country. He settled in Nashville and performed at Opryland for a while before adding his banjo, dobro, and guitar licks to WF.

Signing

The band elected to do a showcase at a Nashville club that was well-attended by label reps in December '92. Though they received no immediate offers, Step One Records and several major labels later contacted them. They opted to go with SOR, and they co-produced their debut LP, which was released July 26.

Songs

Myrick co-wrote several songs on the CD, including the haunting "Cherokee Highway," a tune about racial unrest and tragedy in 1961 Mississippi.

From Audition To Airplay

■ Six top MDs reveal what really goes on in music meetings

Each week, MDs screen countless releases in search of tracks that embody their station's sound. I asked some of the format's leading MDs for a glimpse into the inner sanctum of music meetings — and to trace the process from auditioning music to airplay.

Time Issues

There's no question MDs spend plenty of time just listening to music each week. How much time? KKSF/San Francisco's Dore Steinberg says, "I never stop — If I'm in my office, I'm listening." KTWW (The Wave)/Los Angeles's Ralph Stewart is the same: "It goes on all day, every day, but there's never enough time."

Of course, the music ebbs and flows. WQCD (CD101.9)/New York's Steve Williams says his listening "varies depending on the amount of new product, but generally takes about four hours a day." WNUA/Chicago's Michael Fischer adds, "During a heavy release season, I'll listen to 10 to 20 complete CDs, every cut, in a week."

Shaun Yu achieves a balance at KKJZ/Portland: "I listen for two hours before I go on, and then again after I get off the air." And Ron Cadet's workload at KBLX/San Francisco sounds positively laid-back by comparison: "I spend at least one, and often a couple of hours a day listening."

Ears Vs. Research

"With new music, we add nearly 100% on ears," says Yu. "We use research primarily to check the library material." While this is perhaps the most extreme repudiation of research among our six panelists, it's not too far out.

It doesn't matter what the style, as long as it's 'smooth' — but if everything is uniformly smooth, we run the risk of sounding too homogenized.

— Dore Steinberg

WNUA does quarterly auditorium testing, but Fischer has no problem ignoring its results: "We still go with our gut. If it's a format song, a statement song, we'll play it — even if it doesn't test well — because it'll keep the station niched."

Then there's the safety valve approach. Stewart says, "We don't add music because of research; we use our ears." But, he adds, "Research is a reality check for us. It can help your gut and ears too, because after being involved with research projects, you develop the ability to recognize listeners' hot buttons."

Williams believes "research is a tool to confirm or deny your gut. It's easy for me to hear the songs that are right for the station's sound. But it's really important to check the pulse of the listenership."

Steve Williams

Ralph Stewart

Michael Fischer

Dore Steinberg

Ron Cadet

Shaun Yu

Steinberg notes, "The role of research at KKSF is more to identify the 'stinkers.' We don't have the budget to test every song, so our ears and gut are our primary tools."

On the other end of the scale, Cadet believes, "Research is important, and we do all the standard methods. It gives us the confidence to know when we're taking risks, or not. We don't let it override what our gut tells us, but it allows us to make more creative decisions."

What's In A Name?

What role does an artist's name value play in adding a record? "Name recognition isn't a factor," says Steinberg. "For us, it's all about strong songs with great melodies." Fischer adds, "Name recognition has merit, but even the stars have to deliver the goods."

Yu concurs: "We'd never add a record just because of the artist's name. The one thing I hate hearing from record reps is that so-and-so is a core artist. I have to ask, 'A core artist for whom?' The beauty of this format is that there is so much range and diversity in the music."

Williams strikes a more accommodating position. "An artist's name is important in the sense that if we've had success with them in the past, you can be sure a new release will get heard. But if it's a 'dog,' it just won't get added."

"Aside from Kenny G and a couple others, not many NAC artists are household names, so we definitely try to nurture the 'names' in the format," says Stewart.

PD Vs. MD

What happens when the MD and the PD don't see eye to eye (or hear ear to ear) on a decision? Cadet says, "Of course, PD Kevin Brown has the [final] say, but we have a very good, mutually respectful, relationship. He's willing to try things I believe in." Taking that dynamic further, Steinberg says, "If I'm banging on the table, and Steve [Feinstein]'s conviction is not that strong, though we may disagree — I'll get my way. But if our convictions are equally passionate, he'll win every time. That's why it's really nice to have a third person in the meeting for additional input."

Michael Fischer

Dore Steinberg

Ron Cadet

Shaun Yu

At bottom, music is still a subjective issue. Stewart notes he and his PD "try to divorce our personal feelings and listen with the station's best interest in mind. I have a soft spot for blues, so if I go off too far in that direction, I have to take her word on it, roll over and play dead. But for the most part, we're on the same wavelength."

Yu adds, "If there isn't a consensus between us, we usually won't add. His background is in AC, and mine is in Progressive and Classical. We're a good complement to one another — I like to push the edge of the envelope, and he keeps me in line."

And some are just plain fortunate, like Fischer — "It's probably symptomatic of our symbiotic relationship, but we don't disagree very often" — and Williams: "We don't have disagreements, because we're both listening for the same things in a song. I have not only a good idea of what will work for the station, but what will work for PD Fleetwood Gruver's ears, too."

Comparisons Melodious

I asked the MDs which stations' music activity they watch, and the responses were typically skewed. Williams warns, "It's dangerous to monitor stations in other markets, because no two are the same," and Steinberg agrees: "The Bay Area is unique, so I'm not looking for market similarities. I try to be generally aware of other stations in the format to see whether I've overlooked something."

On the other end, Yu says, "There isn't one station in particular that we key on. I try to watch the whole national picture."

But some were happy to name names. Stewart notes, "East Coast stations are more jazzy than their West Coast counterparts, so I tend KMEL. We also watch WQCD and KACD/Los Angeles."

Decisions, Decisions

What are the greatest challenges in making music decisions? Fischer cites achieving "melodic consistency and tempo," and Cadet says it's finding songs that "match our texture, melody, and artist profile expectations, while still moving the format forward in a fresh way."

Stewart is concerned about "getting over the fantasy of what the station should sound like, so we don't add music that's too hip for the room. Also, identifying songs that not only fit, but enhance what we do."

It's dangerous to monitor stations in other markets, because no two are the same.

— Steve Williams

Steinberg also seeks "music that not only fits, but that enhances our sound. This is a very disciplined format, and we draw from a variety of music styles that are not genre-specific. It doesn't matter what the style, as long as it's 'smooth' — but if everything is uniformly smooth, we run the risk of sounding too homogenized."

Williams tries "to present a balance for our listeners, and not be too anything — Rock, Urban, whatever — in our presentation. The challenge is to find music with across-the-board appeal and present it in a balanced mix."

"Here in Portland," says Yu, "we're faced with a unique situation in that there are four stations that, to some extent, play this type of music [Progressive KINK-FM, Jazz/NPR KOPB, and Jazz KMHD]. With so many choices for the NAC listener, our mission is to keep people from tuning out. It's a lot harder to get them to come back to you than it is to keep them from tuning out in the first place. The key is to create a solid mix by keeping a tight rotation of solid, memorable music."

For The Record

Sincere apologies to WJZ/Philadelphia PD Bernie Kimble for the erroneous impression given that WJZ would be "converted" to NAC by Pyramid Broadcasting when it completes its acquisition of the station (R&R 8/5). WJZ has been NAC since Kimble put it on the air one-and-a-half years ago, and he will continue to serve as its PD upon completion of the sale.

Building Format-Exclusive Artist Base

■ Contact between artists and listeners benefits stations

While one must applaud the extraordinary relationship Country artists have with radio programmers and fans, it's frustrating that this same passion doesn't seem to exist in our format. It's time to develop a roster of artists the format can truly call its own.

Bob Dunphy

"It would be nice if artists made a commitment to the audience through the radio station," opines "Mix 105" WMXV/New York VP/Programming Bob Dunphy. "It could help stations bond better with artists and listeners would get to hear these artists on the air. The more contact we have with listeners, the better our chance to keep them with us.

"We can get support from developing artists, but when their second and third albums come out they're either out dealing with CHR, or they won't appear anywhere."

Artist Accessibility

Citing Michael Bolton as such an example, Dunphy comments, "For his first album, he was 'in your face.' His people are still very responsive, but we haven't had him on the air for a couple of years. I like him personally, but you now have to make reservations to be the third-base coach at one of his [Bolton Bombers] softball games. When they need you they're there, but when artists become established, they lay back."

Naturally, artist accessibility varies. "In the last six years, we've been fortunate to get Phil Collins and/or Genesis here three times," he recalls. "Some artists just won't do anything. They come to New York because labels are here and they can hang out for a while. But for me to get artists to do something to tie in with the station is very difficult."

Feeding The Fans

Mix 105 often invites listeners to the station, where they can have breakfast or lunch with performers such as Richard Marx. "We fill the conference room with food, and people get to have their pictures taken with the stars. We've had good luck because these things can be very cool."

Crosstown Hot AC/Adult CHR WPLJ recently staged a listener appreciation concert. "They're amazing events," acknowledges Dunphy. "But they often feature acts whose careers have usually peaked and are at the bottom of the curve."

When they need you they're there, but when artists become established, they lay back.

On the flip side are rising artists. This time last year, Mix 105 was involved with newcomer Joshua Kadison. "We did a three-hour dinner cruise on a boat around Manhattan,"

It would be nice if artists made a commitment to the audience through the radio station. The more contact we have with listeners, the better our chance to keep them with us.

Dunphy recalls. "He played several songs, signed autographs, and was very personable. To help get the album off the ground, he visited the station several times since the cruise and has been tremendous. I [wonder] if he'll be as 'radio-friendly' for his next album."

Concerts vs. Interviews

While confident he can get well-known performers like Huey Lewis to do on-air interviews, Dunphy notes it's much more difficult to get something more elaborate — like backstage concert passes for listeners. "It's not even easy to get developing artists to do benefit concerts. I doubt we could get James Taylor or Kenny Loggins to do them. If they do, the cost is high because they don't just bring themselves and a guitar. They come with security, publicists, and six-piece bands.

[New York CHR WHTZ] Z100 was backstage at the Elton John-Billy Joel concert at Giants Stadium. I didn't know it was even a possibility, and nobody plays more of their music than Mix 105. They had interviews and we didn't — it's bizarre."

Dunphy is well aware of the parade route that exists for those artists willing to do interviews. "They're at PLJ at 7:30, here at 8:30, and at Regis & Kathie Lee by 9:15." The significance of on-air artist interviews depends on each particular station. "They're important to 'on-top-of-things' morning shows trying to be entertainment vehicles, rather than music boxes," explains Dunphy. "It's easy to get someone promoting a first release, but you [also] want to bring in the bigger acts people know."

Perhaps the reluctance some artists have in appearing on morning shows stems from previous bad experiences. "In the days of 'Zoo' morning shows, a fair number of artists were put on a skewer and got burned," Dunphy points out. "Stations like ours wanting to do fun interactive interviews — without prying into someone's personal problems to get any dirt — suffer."

Maintaining Relationships

Another problem is many big-name artists prefer to relax or don't believe there's a need to do such interviews. "In order to get his CDs played and sold, Billy Joel doesn't have to go from station to station. It would, however, be nice if he could do some to keep up the relationships.

"Steve Perry was in here a few weeks ago and was wonderful. He's trying to make his new album work and he spent about 90 minutes at the station. They almost had to drag him out of the studio. In terms of interaction with the morning show and listeners, he was one of the best artists to ever come through here."

Contrast that with a very recent call Dunphy received from a promoter hoping to boost disappointing ticket sales. "We were happy to give away tickets if the artist would appear on the air. The artist refused. If artists won't support their own act, why should we?"

Hartford At A Glance

Hartford's spring Arbitron was a mixed bag for the market's three ACs. Lite WRCH was all smiles with its key demo victories. In fact, despite its third successive downward 35-64 trend, WRCH was able to displace Full-Service WTIC-AM for the top spot.

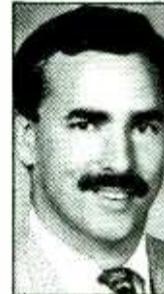

The best the other two ACs could manage, however, was Mainstream WZMX's fifth place 35-64 showing. Ironically, Hot AC WYSR's best performance was among 35-64s.

	18-34	25-54	35-64
WRCH	#5 (+2.1)	#1 (+1.8)	#1 (+1.9)
WZMX	#6 (-0.5)	#7 (-1.3)	#5 (-0.3)
WYSR	#10 (-0.6)	#10 (-1.2)	#9 (-0.9)

Hartford Lite AC Strikes It RiCH

With No. 1 25-54 and 35-64 Arbitron spring performances, Lite AC WRCH/Hartford may be turning the Insurance City's three-way format fray into a one-station race.

"We're happy to see that our climb has been gradual because we know it will last," observes PD Allan Camp, who cites 35-44 females as his station's prime target.

Allan Camp

Money & No Repeats

A highlight of WRCH's spring contesting was a daily $1000 payoff throughout May. "It was very well-received because everybody wants to win money. [Crosstown Gold] WDRC gave away some money, but [no other local] station did anything major like we did.

"Our announcers have more of a 'human' approach. We don't want them just reading liner cards. They try to work in special events that are happening in the community."

One of Bob Elliott-consulted 'RCH's daily staples is its "No Repeat Workday." Camp explains, "We get great comments from people who don't want to hear the same partners. "WZMX didn't do anything special with promotion this spring and I'm not sure what will happen this fall," remarks Camp. "[Musically], they're picking up the tempo. Our two stations will work together and will take as many women marketwide as possible. [Hot AC] 'Star' [WYSR] is going after younger males. They just hired [former WZMX personality] Neil Jackson in hopes of bolstering morning drive."

Having overtaken Full-Service power WTIC-AM for 35-64 bragging rights, Camp notes, "Our morning drive show is becoming more full-service. The whole package — which includes music — seems to be pretty attractive to older demos. They don't want to hear just talk."

While WRCH did extremely well among upper demos, it's significant to note the Lite AC also registered strong 18-34 numbers. "It was a very pleasant surprise, especially considering all the hotter AC competition. In addition to Star and WZMX, [CHR] WTIC-FM can songs every four hours. We've also added 'The 5:00 Extra' — a long block of lite songs as people begin their ride home. We keep the music rolling — our only stop in the 40-minute set is for traffic and weather."

We go on songs quicker these days. We don't want to have a stodgy image, so we've added more currents.

In spite of its "No Repeat" feature, WRCH has recently become more aggressive in playing current music. "We go on songs quicker these days," Camp says. "[Fellow AC] WZMX had been saying we were the softest station on the dial. We are — but we don't want to have a stodgy image, so we've added more currents."

Full-Service Package

WRCH and WZMX are now American Radio Systems duopoly also sound like an AC. They're playing Jon Secada and Elton John and are aiming at Star. It will be pretty interesting to see how things shake out." This spring "TIC-FM placed fourth among 18-34s and was sixth 25-54.

The Country Factor

Another principal market player is Country WWYZ. "I thought Country was starting to get tired here," Camp comments. "But they bounced back this book [and ranked second 25-54 and third 35-64]. They provide an alternative to stations like ours that play lots of the same music. It's probably a good [escape] for some people."

In the days of 'Zoo' morning shows, a fair number of artists were put on a skewer and burned. Stations wanting to do fun interactive interviews — without prying into someone's personal problems to get dirt — suffer.

Turning Phrases With Top Stations

■ The stories behind their current liners and positioners

Thinking about revamping your station's liners? Here's a look at the on-air phrases currently employed by some of the format's more successful stations — and why the PDs chose those particular words to tout their programming.

WGST: 'News Monster'

Jacor's WGST/Atlanta currently uses "105.7 FM and 640 AM, Newsradio WGST." According to PD Nancy Zintak, the station leads with the dial position of its recently added FM outlet because "FM is where the real competition for listeners takes place." The "Newsradio" moniker, she says, reinforces the Talk station's long-standing image as the radio news source in Atlanta.

"News has been a big part of the mix at WGST for a long time, and that's what we want people to think about [first] when they think of us," she explains.

The station also describes itself less formally as "The News Monster," a nickname given the station by afternoon driver Kim Peterson and reinforced by WGST billboards that show King Kong looming over the Atlanta skyline (see top right). "The 'News Monster' phrase melds our news image and talk attitude in a fabulous way," says Zintak. "It's something people want to be a part of — it's cool and kinky."

WFLA: 'Brutal Honesty'

Jacor's WFLA/Tampa also emphasizes its strong News image — to the exclusion, in fact, of hyping its extremely entertaining talk programming.

We want WABC to be bigger than a dial position or a slogan. After all, you don't have to say, 'Buy Cadillac — an automobile.'

— John Mainelli

"The only thing we've used consistently over the years is 'Newsradio WFLA,'" says OM Gabe Hobbs. "News is the cume magnet. It's difficult to sell the concept of entertainment on AM radio unless you have something like a Howard Stern. It's a much easier sell once they tune in and hear what you're doing. So it's better to go with the news image and then convert new listeners once they've tuned in for news."

The station does use some wacky spot breakers, including "What you call psychotic behavior, we call company policy" and "The _____ show — it's not just another dumb radio program . . . well, actually it is."

Says Hobbs, "I think that kind of self-deprecating humor is good. The listeners like that brutal honesty."

WABC: Creating A Club

Capital Cities/ABC's WABC/New York uses two top-of-the-hour liners: "America's most-listened-to Talk station" and (when it's true) "The No. 1 AM radio station in New York, Long Island, and the U.S.A.!"

Macho swagger? Maybe. But PD John Mainelli says there's a method to the bragging: "We want people to feel that they're part of a big club. We want them to know the station they like is the station a lot of people like."

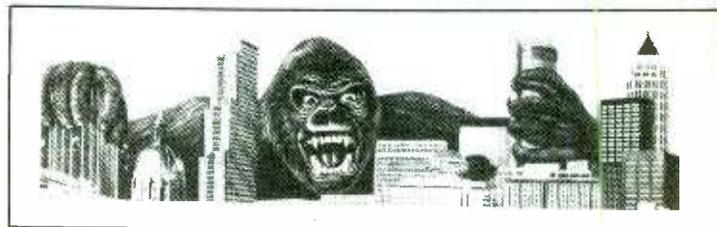

For that same reason, the station occasionally runs qualitative-based liners like "WABC listeners have more American Express cards than any other station's audience. You're in good company at WABC."

Interestingly, WABC rarely uses its 770 kHz frequency in its liners. Mainelli's reasoning: The dial position is legendary and can't be confused with an FM location. The WABC calls, he says, should be an instantly recognizable brand name. "We want WABC to be bigger than a dial position or a slogan," he says. "After all, you don't have to say, 'Buy Cadillac — an automobile.'"

I've tried to write snazzy, hip liners, but everything just sets off the bullshit meter. I suppose we could say, 'KSTP — straightforward talk, all day long.' But what does that mean? What's the point?

— Steve Konrad

The 'News Monster' phrase melds WGST's news image and talk attitude in a fabulous way. It's something people want to be a part of — it's cool and kinky.

— Nancy Zintak

WXYT:

'Roasting Sacred Cows'

Infinity's WXYT/Detroit emphasizes its hard-nosed Talk image with "Asking the tough questions like no other Detroit radio station" and "Roasting the sacred cows like no other Detroit radio station."

According to VP/GM Michael Packer, those liners reflect the listening public's perception of his station. "We've created an image of ourselves as somewhat rebellious and not afraid to ask the tough questions — we don't throw softballs," says Packer. "If negatives have to be addressed, we do it. This differentiates us from the soft talk other stations are doing."

Chief among those "other stations" is WJR/Detroit, which Packer believes is toying with the idea of positioning itself as a News/Talk outlet. "We also use 'WXYT is News/Talk Radio,'" says Packer. "That's designed to lock in the News/Talk image in the face of these dalliances from 'JR.'"

KSTP: No Liners

KSTP/Minneapolis Program Manager Steve Konrad is attempting to boost the Hubbard station's image — by not using liners. Konrad firmly believes his station's programming speaks for itself. Any attempt to describe the station in 20 clever words, he says, will detract from that message.

"Action speaks louder than words," says Konrad. "We let the listeners find out for themselves that we are interesting, blunt, controversial, and entertaining."

"An advertising-like slogan would be inconsistent with that image. I've tried to write snazzy, hip liners, but everything I come up with just sets off the bullshit meter. I suppose we could say, 'KSTP — straightforward talk, all day long.' But what does that mean? What's the point? I think we're past that kind of Madison Avenue packaging stuff."

The only liners KSTP uses are those written by the hosts themselves and tied to something that's happened on their show. Afternooner Don Vogel, for example, recently used a liner that said: "When asked about Rwanda, this guy said, 'I never heard of the chick' — Don Vogel, The Afternoon Saloon."

"STICKERS? STICKERS? WE DON'T MAKE NO STINKIN' STICKERS!"

- Pancho Villa, 1916

No, Pancho, you don't need no stinkin' stickers. But, effective, high-quality decals? Well, that's a different story. The heart and soul of your image may very well rely upon the acceptance of the bumper decals you distribute. If it doesn't look great, chances are most folks won't display them for you. And that's where we come in. We produce decals like nobody else, with care and craftsmanship. Head-turning design and state-of-the-art production, that's what you get with Communication Graphics. Call us today and see what a difference a few centavos can make.
