$145 million goes toward 11 mid-market stations

By Jeremy Shweder r&r Washington bureau shweder@rronline.com

For the past two years radio industry experts have been saying that the next great battle-ground in the business will be in the middle and small markets. Citadel Communications gave that hypothesis a little more credibility this week, spending $145 million for 11 stations in markets no bigger than No. 112.

Citadel is paying Liggett Broadcast $120.5 million in stock and cash for nine of the stations: WJIM-AM & FM, WVFN-AM, WFMK-FM, WITL-FM and WMMQ-FM/Lansing, MI; WFBE-FM/Flint, MI; and WHNN-FM and WTCF-FM/ Saginaw-Bay City-Midland, MI. The other two — Montachusett

Columbia Records Group on top for second consecutive year

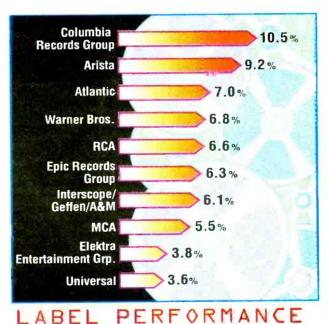

Sony Music's top execs celebrate a very successful 1999. In addition to Columbia's emergence as R&R's top label of the year, both Columbia and Epic exceeded $100 million in sales in November. Pictured toasting the achievements are (I-r) Columbia Records GMWill Botwin, Columbia Group EVP John Ingrassia, Sony Music EVP Michele Anthony, Columbia Group Chairman Don Ienner, Sony Music Ent. Chairman/CEO Thomas Mottola, Epic Group Chairman Dave Glew, Sony International Chairman Mel Ilberman, Epic Group President Polly Anthony and Sony Music Dist. Chairman Danny Yarbrough.

Columbia Records Group continued its dominance of R&R's airplay charts this year: It closes out 1999 at No. 1 with 10.5% overall chart share, three percentage points higher than 1998. The New York-based label rolled out another year-long hit parade of superstars and newcomers and demonstrated significant growth over last year in such key formats as CHR, Hot AC, Alternative and more. Additionally. Columbia's successful launch of its new C2 label secured its No. 1 spot, as C2 recording artist and Latin superstar Ricky Martin made the move to mainstream Pop with his first No. 1 Pop hit, "Livin' La Vida Loca." Other CRG artists contributing to its No. 1 position include Offspring, Destiny's Child, Tal Bachman, Train and Blaque.

"We are very proud and honored to continue the Columbia tradition of developing new artists while keeping our superstars at the fore-front," Columbia Records Group Sr. VP Jerry Blair remarked. "I want to congratulate our national and local promotion staffs for their tenacity, creativity, belief in the music and boundless energy. We would especially like to thank the diverse group of Columbia Records Group artists we have had the pleasure of being part of in 1999."

Ranked by percentage of overall chart share

Columbia Sr. VP/Promotion Charlie Walk added, "Radio is more competitive than ever, and our focus has to be on introducing new artists to the marketplace and selling records. We design and execute individual strategies for each artist. Columbia uniquely tweaks and tailors the promotion and marketing of each single to the demands of the audience. Developing artists from niche formats to the mass audience and educating programmers and key music trendsetters are what helped us achieve No. 1 status again this year."

Urban group buys Alt. outlet for $80M

By JEFFREY YORKE R&R WASHINGTON BUREAU CHIEF yorke@rronline.com

Radio One has purchased Alternative WPLY-FM/Philadelphia from Daniel Lerner's Greater Media Radio Co. for $80 million. "Y-100" joins Radio One's other Philly station, WPHI-FM, which the company bought three years ago for $20 million. Lerner has owned and operated his sole radio property under the Greater Media Radio name (not to be confused with Greater Media of East Brunswick, NJ) for decades.

"Philadelphia is a place where we wanted to get bigger," Radio One CEO/President Alfred Liggins told analysts during a conference call last week. "This transaction represents one of the best opportunities for Radio One to build its position in Philadelphia,

Zier VP/GM, Wyatt OM At WMZQ

AMFM Market Exec. VP/Washington, DC Bennett Zier has added VP/GM responsibilities for Country WMZQ-FM in the market. At the same time, Jeff Wyatt has assumed OM duties at 'MZQ in addition to his PD post at "Jammin' Oldies" WJMO-FM/DC. Zier and Wyatt succeed WMZQ VP/GM Charlie Ochs and PD Mac Daniels, respectively, who recently exited the station.

Also, Mark Lapidus adds Director/Marketing duties at WMZQ. He currently holds a similar title at AMFM's WTEM-AM/DC.

Zier commented, "I am excited about the addition of Jeff and Mark, two proven radio executives with outstanding track records in the Washington, DC area and the country. I am confident they will energize WMZQ, thereby extending AMFM's command of the DC market."

Zier, a 21-year broadcasting veteran, has been in Washington since January, when he was named VP/GM of WTEM-AM & WWRC-AM. In April he added GM duties for WWRC-AM and WGAY (now WJMO). Before joining AMFM, Zier was VP/Sales for CBS Radio and also served as VP/GM for WODS/Boston.

Wyatt joined WJMO as PD in May, after serving as morning show host at AMFM's KCMG (Mega 100)/Los Angeles. Prior to that he operated Wyatt Consulting Service, whose clients included Westwood One, CMI Films and Fox Kids.

Lapidus joined WTEM in 1998, after operating his own media consulting firm. He previously served as Corporate VP/Marketing for Liberty Broadcasting.

O'Neill VP/GM, As Y-107/L.A. Readies Flip

By Abam Jacobson

R&R RADIO EDITIOR

vacobyon@rronline.com

Big City Radio is gearing up for big changes at all of its properties in the wake of a Nov. 2 announcement that Charles Fernandez would become President/CEO and his Hispanic Internet Holdings would merge with Big City. The first of those changes took place in Southern California, where Sean O'Neill has been promoted from GSM to VP/GM of the FM Alternative trimulcast of KLYY/Arcadia, KSYY/Fallbrook and KVYY/Oxnard-Ventura, known as "Y-107." Those stations will flip to an undetermined Spanishlanguage format on either Monday evening (12/13) or Tuesday (12/14). O'Neill told R&R. Market rumors have the station debuting an all-rock en español format.

"Sean has played a critical role in establishing Y-107 and growing its revenues." Fernandez said. "I am certain he will be able to translate his proven sales success into equally impressive management accomplishments."

O'Neill added, "I am thrilled that Charles has chosen me to lead one of

Big City Radio's premiere properties, and I'm excited about our decision to enter a new Spanish format in Los Angeles, the No. 1 Hispanic market in the U.S. Currently, there are five Spanish-language radio stations that account for approximately 85% of all Spanish listening. We strongly believe, and our research has substantiated, that

Clarification

A story in last week's issue (12/3) stated that RADAR 64 measurements for ABC's show prep services would reflect dayparts. The estimates will, in fact, reflect the actual time the spots aired. Also, while other networks have been measured as "run of schedule," ABC's nets will be the first ones reported as ROS.

Harris Consolidates With Louth Automation

☐ Gear maker also acquires No. 3 supplier

By Matt Spangler R&R Washington Bureau spangler@rronline.com

Harris Corp. strengthened its position in the broadcast equipment industry last week with an $85 million cash deal to acquire Louth Automation. The company also completed its purchase of the No. 3 gear distributor Audio Broadcast Group.

Melbourne. FL-based Harris says the addition of Louth, which automates 3,000-plus broadcast and cable outlets worldwide, will strengthen its hold in radio and TV markets and bring it into new businesses, such as cable and satellite.

Louth's systems will also be paired with Harris' Broadcast Manager product, which will be unveiled at next spring's NAB show. Broadcast Manager will allow a single operator to monitor the "health" (for example, whether switchers are working properly) of equipment in several facilities or markets. The concept of remote monitoring and control is already in widespread use in the telecommunications. long-distance and Internet industries, and Harris believes such a setup is ideal for the consolidating radio industry.

"It's not a huge piece of business for them." SG Cowen analyst Blaine Carroll told R&R, "but it does enhance their broadcast equipment business." Louth had sales last year of $35 million, compared to Harris' $1.7 billion in revenue, Carroll also pointed out that the private sector represents only about half of Harris' business, with the defense industry and other public sector segments also accounting for nearly half of the company's sales.

Following its decision earlier this year to spin off Lanier Worldwide, Harris shifted its primary focus from office equipment to communications gear.

Palo Alto. CA-based Louth will become an independent unit of Harris' broadcast equipment division. Don Naab, former President/COO of Pacific Research & Engineering — PR&E was acquired by Harris in September — will head up the unit. Ken Louth, who founded Louth Automation in 1988, was named Chief Technology Officer of the unit.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

CBS-Viacom Merger Expected To Close By March

Viacom Chairman Sumner Redstone, speaking at an investor's conference, said that he doesn't expect major regulatory hurdles to the merger with CBS, and that the union should be completed in February or March. When the companies first announced the merger in September, they said that the deal should close in the first half of 2000.

Infinity-OSI Merger Cleared With Divestitures

The $8.3 million merger between Outdoor Systems and Infinity Broadcasting closed Tuesday, as the companies agreed to Department of Justice demands to divest various advertising properties in New York, Phoenix and New Orleans. Neither the DOJ nor Infinity released the total value of the divestitures, but in New York alone the companies must sell ad properties generating revenues equal to at least $25.3 million, the sum total of OSI's billboard business there. In addition, the companies must sell either OSI's bus shelter or its subway advertising operations. The DOJ said that the deal as originally proposed would have been anticompetitive.

Gaylord To Restructure, As COO Resigns

aylord Entertainment COO/CFO Joe Crace announced his resignation last week, as the company goes through management restructuring. Crace joined Gaylord as CFO in 1998 and became COO in May. Gaylord President/CEO Terry London said that Gaylord will reorganize in order to have three group presidents overseeing various parts of the company and reporting directly to him. Gaylord will not select a new COO, but will name a CFO. A company spokesman told R&R that Gaylord's radio division, which owns four stations. will not be affected by the changes.

Tristani Will Stay At FCC

nding rumors that she was planning to run for Congress from her home state of New Mexico. FCC Commissioner Gloria Tristani said last week that she will remain at the agency until her term expires in June 2003. "I viewed Congress as an opportunity to serve the people of New Mexico every day." she said in a statement. "However, the Clinton administration has asked me to stay at the FCC, and I will."

Personal Attack Case Back At FCC

The U.S. Court of Appeals in Washington refused last week to rehear arguments by the NAB and the RTNDA that would have struck down the commission's personal attack and political editorial rules. That means the case will remain with the FCC, which has not acted on a 1987 RTNDA petition to overturn those rules.

'Net News

Webcasters streaming via RealNetworks technology can now use Internet ad company DoubleClick's DART service for "targeted advertising." A website can insert an ad, heard only by Internet users, to lead into a webcast. Home pages can also feature rotating or static banner ads. Real says that ABC News, CBS.com and Salem's OnePlace are testing DART, but by the first quarter of 2000 all its customers will be able to use the service.

- Former Time Warner and iVillage executive John McMenamin was named EVP/Sales and Marketing for NBC Interactive last week. Part of his role will be to look for new radio ad and sales opportunities for the NBC online unit. Alan Braverman, former head of Internet Research at Banc of America Securities, was appointed NBCi President, Business-to-Business.
- Salem Communications has acquired Christian website ICRN.com for undisclosed terms. The broadcaster said its stations already use programming from 20-plus ministries also streamed by ICRN. Salem added that this doubles the number of ministries it streams through its online subsidiary OnePlace.com to 120.
- Entercom joined other companies, among them Time Warner and America Online, who have invested in Bolt.com. The teen site said it wants to promote itself on radio, cable and other media. Financial terms of the deal weren't disclosed
- Premiere Radio Networks bought an undisclosed stake in Auctions.com last week in exchange for an unspecified amount of advertising on the network. The online auction site said the deal will foster cross-promotional

Radio Still Strong Despite Listenership Drop, Analysts Say

A Ithough the Internet and cable TV are crowding the media field, causing a slight decline since 1993 in hours spent listening to the radio, that has had "no impact on the strength of the medium." So says a trio of Prudential Securities analysts. In their "Medial Monthly" report, analysts James Marsh, Brian Shipman and Bill Lerner note that "while TSL has moderately declined over time, we aren't concerned about any ad-related impact going forward. Actually (and more importantly, in our opinion), over the same sixyear period radio's share of total advertising has grown an estimated 11%." They also expect radio to benefit in the future "from secular trends resulting in increased time spent out of the home and in one's car." Why are the analysts bullish on radio? They believe that strong "same-station revenue and cash flow results, robust ad revenue pacings and improving inventory sellout ratios" will continue.

Here are recent analyst ratings for radio's publicly traded companies:

Harris hopes to close on the deal by next month.

The Audio Broadcast Group transaction follows on the heels of the retirement of ABG founder and President/CEO Phyllis Freeman. ABG sells radio products from Auditronics, Orban, Andrew Corp. and other companies and does some studio design and integration. Some observers call it the third-largest domestic supplier, behind Broadcast Supply Worldwide and Harris itself.

ABG's Grand Rapids, MI headquarters will be folded into Harris' broadcast communications division in Mason, OH. Financial terms of the deal weren't released.

opportunities — such as auctions of concert tickets by Premiere affiliates — and allows the site to reach the "tech-savvy" Premiere audience. Earlier this year Premiere host Dr. Laura Schlessinger promoted an auction by Auctions Universe (the site's former incarnation), proceeds from which went to her foundation.

• Think "dot-com" is too expensive or too common? Las Vegas-based The New.fm may have a solution for you: domain names that end with ".fm." COO Doug Geinzer told R&R last week that the company has purchased several hundred Internet addresses with the ".fm" extension in recent months and is now in talks with several major radio groups about using New.fm's model search engine/portal. The .fm URL refers to the Federation of Micronesia.

• WarpRadio.com, an Internet radio provider, says that it is streaming about 100 radio stations now and is shooting for 350 by the end of January. WarpRadio.com VP/Investor Relations Eric Miller told R&R that Clear Channel, AMFM, Citadel and other major radio groups have signed on to the project. Denver-based WarpRadio.com streams radio stations on a barter agreement, taking two minutes of prime-time ad time per day. The company, which was started earlier this year, is traded publicly on the OTC Bulletin Board under the symbol WRPRE.

Interep Loses Clear Channel As Client, Cuts IPO

Atz Radio Group — which Clear Channel Communications is acquiring through its merger with AMFM — will replace Interep as Clear Channel's rep beginning today (12/10). Interep Chairman/CEO Ralph Guild took the news in stride, calling Clear Channel's move "a practical business decision." The firm's Clear Channel Radio Sales unit had represented the 225 stations the company owned before it merged with Jacor. Interep, which is in a quiet period due to its pending IPO, wouldn't comment on how much revenue it will lose due to Clear Channel's decision. The firm's revenue declined to $75 million in the first three quarters of this year from $90 million last year.

Meanwhile, a source close to Interep's IPO told R&R this week that the firm could raise $65 million with the offering. The company had previously estimated that the 5.4 million-share IPO could generate $75 million. Robertson Stephens is managing the IPO.

EIGHT STEPS TO STRIKING GOLD

Or 'How to Make Your Radio Station Websites More Profitable'

You can't pick up a newspaper today without reading about the latest Internet millionaires. Revenues of all U.S. Internet-related businesses—ranging from the sales of computer hardware for running the global network to the electronic trade of books, movies and plane tickets—will total an estimated $507 billion in 1999, up from $301 billion in 1998.

According to a study released in October by the University of Texas, Internet businesses will grow revenues at a booming 68% rate this year. They appear to be helping boost productivity and hold down inflation. The estimated 52 million U.S. households with PCs use them, on average, more than 20 hours a week. Homefront, a semiannual survey from market research firm Odyssey, reports that Americans spend a billion hours online weekly at home.

The average radio group owner is naturally looking to participate in this once-in-a-lifetime boom. Radio and the Internet are perfect complements — as radio listeners ebb, Internet surfers flow. In addition, radio stations have proven to be one of the best vehicles to drive traffic to websites.

The following steps are designed to help your stations' websites earn a healthy slice of the dot-com pie.

Step One: Separate your radio ego from your Internet ego. The Internet should be viewed as a completely separate business arena. Although both industries are highly competitive, there's one significant difference: The majority of radio stations are making money; the majority of Internet sites are simply looking to survive. Internet market caps aside, all of us in Internet start-ups are paddling like hell to keep our noses above water.

ADAM

Although we are competitive, our primary goal is survival. That's why you hear of so many partnerships inside the Internet industry. These alliances are partnerships designed to increase traffic by exchanging unique visitors. It's that simple. With a partnership that includes a revenue share, it's the same type of arrangement, except that you receive a percentage of the revenue when someone buys a product. A similar strategy in radio is a per-inquiry campaign. The idea is to first build traffic (which will hopefully translate into a brand image), then build advertising revenue or e-commerce sales.

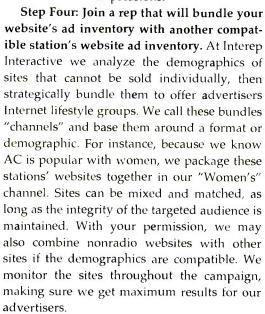

Steps Two and Three: Acquaint yourself with two terms that will make your job easier—"unique users" and "stickiness." A unique user on the 'Net is akin to an unduplicated listener in radio. Stickiness is similar to TSL. Ask yourself, "Why would they want to come to my site?" and, "How can I get them to stay?"

As in radio, consider your website demographic. If you have a sports site, we know that sports content primarily draws men. We know men buy flowers and check stock portfolios. So you might partner with a company that shows live stock trades or a company that sells flowers online, thereby giving your audience more reasons to return to your site. Capitalizing on the direct response model of commerce, you could negotiate a share of revenue for each inquiry or each sale. Or instead, a partnership with an e-trading firm could mean that each time a visitor to your website opens an account, the station gets a cash bounty. Or let's say you partner with a company like Flowers.com. Each time a visitor to your site buys flowers, the station receives a percentage of the sale. Now your station's website is beginning to generate not just revenue but, more importantly, traffic that you can sell back to more advertisers. By establishing unique users and stickiness, you are attracting loyal site visitors, which builds your brand ... and ad revenues.

Other concepts and phrases that will help you speak dotcom are "page views" and "impressions."

Step Five: Form alliances. Most independent radio station websites do not have enough inventory or reach to be requested for proposals from interactive agencies. So large groups may want to "bundle" their own stations' websites. However, another option is to form a

A MESSAGE OF HOPE

By Dick Kazan

In this week's and next week's columns, you'll find the story of the Al Wooten Jr.

Heritage Center in South-Central Los Angeles. You may wonder what this has to do with becoming successful in business. Plenty! As virtually every top businessperson learns, success starts with a vision, then is achieved through hard work, perseverance, a dedicated staff, outstanding customer service. maximizing financial resources and, ultimately, overcoming adversity. This story has it all.

But there's more. Many businesses want to help their communities. You'll see what Rhino Records is doing at the Wooten Center, and it will become apparent that what matters most is not just your money, but your knowledge and your caring. Your involvement with a charitable organization will impress your listeners, customers, vendors and employees. Most importantly, it will make you feel good about yourself.

In an explosion of gunfire, Al Wooten Jr. became a drive-by shooting victim in South-Central L.A. His devastated mother, Faye Rumph, cried for days. She wanted to respond, but wasn't sure how.

THE ROAD TO SUCCESS

"My son getting killed sparked something in me I didn't know existed. It was painful, but I never wanted revenge. I also didn't want my son forgotten — just a statistic." Faye saw her opportunity. She and seven others took 21 children from the Nickerson Gardens government housing project to a black cultural event and to McDonald's.

"All the kids were hungry. Some lacked love and attention. It was really sad. When it came time to return them, no parents showed up. I'll never forget that. A little 3-year-old girl started crying when we tried to explain that she had to go home. I knew then my work would be with kids."

In May 1990 the center opened its doors. Its intent was to provide a safe, well-supervised place for children to study and to play after school. Faye and her husband were operating a small moving company, but with his support, "We sold our home to pay off all of our debts so I could work at the center. We rented an apartment in Hawthorne.

"To raise money for the center, I was selling candy in front of a grocery store every day. In addition, at church concerts people came and gave offerings. Also, the kids and I would make pizza and deliver it to families and merchants in the area." Shortly after the 1992 riots The Wall Street Journal ran a front-page story describing how this tiny center was succeeding against difficult odds. Checks arrived from all over the country.

Today the center serves "about 65 children on a daily basis," operating an after-school program and the Al Wooten Jr. Alternative High School. The center charges only a nominal fee, so it's dependent upon fund-raisers and donations.

To help others grieving for loved ones who've died violently, Faye started the Face-To-Face Memorial Quilt project in '94. Each panel tells the story of a life as others remember it. One such story is of Robert Patrick Brown. He was born Dec. 5, 1989, addicted to his mother's drugs. She left her son with her aunt, who was on welfare and unable to afford his care. The aunt reluctantly placed him in a foster home. He died on Nov. 4, 1991, beaten to death by his foster mother. But his beautiful little face and a description of his brief life live on in the center for all to share.

Faye is most proud of "the kids. When I see smiling kids, it makes my day. That's why we're here. It takes commitment. My staff has that special love for the kids and the community."

Next week: I'll tell you the story of one high school graduate, a former gang member and ninth-grade dropout, who has given his life real purpose.

- Our industry continues to change rapidly
- Record companies, broadcast companies and new technology companies are still consolidating
- Many qualified people have been squeezed out

We Can Help!

This year JMA has helped transition capable people into new opportunities in the music, broadcasting, and new media industries. Also, in our company specifically, we created and/or filled several positions this year. We have received many calls from friends in all areas of our business including record company executives, radio programmers and General Managers as well as executives from other related entertainment companies, including many of the newer Internet music alliances, regarding employment. Many have called to alert us to open positions within their companies and others have inquired about existing opportunities.

We Can Help!

JMA will keep trying to help people find employment as our business evolves and grows in 2000. We are looking for self-starting, entrepreneurial candidates. Positions we hope to fill in the New Year include the following:

- Executive VP/CFO/COO
- New York GM
- Director, Non-traditional Revenue, Broadcasting
- Director, Rock Music Marketing & Promotion
- New Media Manager/Web Master
- Manager, NTR Events

Some positions will be in our Chicago home office, as well as in Los Angeles and Atlanta.

partnership with several carefully chosen competitors in the radio arena and share inventory and other Internet business opportunities. Centralizing the buy will take many buyers' logistical issues out of the equation. This type of partnership will keep your interactive nose above water. When traffic builds to the point where you can be sold on your own, do it. Until then, partner.

In doing this partnering, an independent rep can be useful as an impartial and nonpartisan mediator. The rep will split revenue based on an impression-served accounting model very similar to cost accounting.

Step Six: Push value-added promotions to your Internet sites. Promotions will increase traffic, which should increase revenue. Here's one way to do this: Instead of having the 23rd caller win a prize, have the 23rd click-through win a prize. Two goals are accomplished: increased traffic and increased click-throughs. Both are vital components for successfully selling your Internet inventory, and both can be achieved with promotions.

Step Seven: Don't give away Internet inventory as added value with a radio buy ... do the opposite! We suggest including free radio promos with paid Internet buys. This practice establishes a market for your Internet advertising and is a unique selling point.

Step Eight: Support a "media mutual fund" to invest in Internet start-ups, modeled after CBS' concept, but comprised of smaller group owners. There's a valuable opportunity for radio to barter broadcast inventory for an equity stake in Internet companies. An independent, nonbiased company will split the equity based on the delivery from the ads placed and traffic delivered to the "dot-com."

Without question, the radio industry strives to share in the incredible boom of the Internet, maximizing shareholder value. Fortunately, most agree that we are not too late: We are right on time.

There's a lot going on in WXKS/Boston's spot to promote its million-dollar giveaway. The station's Matty in the Morning anchors the spot, but rarely gets to finish a sentence.

Instead, 11 listeners appear on-screen through fast-paced editing, finishing Matty's and each other's thoughts.

The commercial and contest are part of Film House's Million-Dollar Birthday Game, so the word "million" (a popular word lately, isn't it?) is empahsized both visually and audibly during the :30 spot, as are the instructions to listen to Matty at 7:20am.

The constant variety of different sights and different voices is eye-catching and ear-catching, yet the station's logo is constantly on-screen, so there's never any doubt who's giving away the million.

If you'd like to see your station's ad in the TV SPOTlight, send at least three screen shots and a description or a videotape copy of the spot to MMS Editor Jeff Axelrod at R&R, 10100 Santa Monica Blvd., Fifth Floor, Los Angeles, CA 90067.

Tim McNamara VP/GM Jammin' 95.5

Dear Radio Professionals:

It's nice to know radio can still produce overnight smash successes like KXJM. But research studies alone don't make successes, people do.

In creating the new Jammin' 95.5 in Portland, VP/GM Tim McNamara and programmer Mike Dirkx made the tough calls internally. McNamara says, "For Paul Allen's first entry into radio, we had to guarantee success. That's why we chose Mike Henry and Paragon Research. The results of their market research, format recommendation, and strategic planning speak for itself. Jammin' 95.5 debuted #3 in Portland* in its first book."

- Maintaining success over the long-term is elusive, but low-profile Bristol Broadcasting makes it look easy. From WXBQ in Johnson City (TN) to WQBE in Charleston (WV), Bristol's Country FMs dominate their markets ... usually as #1 12+. An ongoing client since 1986, Bristol's Operations Manager, Bill Hagy says, "Thanks to Paragon for your continued help in keeping our radio stations on top in our markets. We have more music tests coming up, and I look forward to adjusting our libraries for the Fall book."
- Other radio groups, including RadioWorks, Inc., use Paragon to help them align multi-station clusters in markets such as Rockford and Lafayette. David McAley, Executive Vice President of RadioWorks, Inc., comments, "Paragon helped us strategically align our market clusters in Illinois and Indiana. We got powerful, actionable studies at a price affordable for our smaller markets, especially when you consider the value of our stations. I can't say enough about Paragon's service and follow-up. Outstanding!"

These three Paragon clients exemplify successful radio operators in the age of media convergence and sweeping change. Paragon is proud to be on their winning teams! Let me know if you need another player on your team, too.

DECEMBER 22

ANY GIVEN SUNDAY (Warner Bros.) — Academy Award-winning director Oliver Stone examines post-modern society through the prism of professional football in this drama starring Al Pacino as a coach more in love with the game than anything else. The film takes a close look at everyone from the players and their families to the owners and the media. Also starring: Dennis Quaid, Cameron Diaz, Jamie Foxx, L.L. Cool J.

GIRL INTERRUPTED (Columbia Pictures) — Set in the late '60s, this film follows the true story of Susanna Kaysen (played by Winona Ryder), who finds herself in a renowned mental institution for troubled young women. After spending nearly a year inside the institution, Kaysen discovers how hard it is to leave and ultimately must decide if she wants to face the reality of the outside world. Directed by James Mangold. Also starring: Angelina Jolie, Jared Leto, Whoopi Goldberg.

MAN ON THE MOON (Universal Pictures) — Academy Award-winning director Milos Forman (One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest, The People Vs. Larry Flynt) teams up with Jersey Films and writers Scott Alexander and Larry Karaszewski to make this film about the late comedian Andy Kaufman. Jim Carrey plays Kaufman, and Danny DeVito plays Kaufman's manager, George Shapiro. Also starring: Courtney Love, Paul Giamatti and Tony Clifton.

NEXT FRIDAY (New Line) — Picking up where the original comedy left off, Next Friday stars rapper Ice Cube as Craig. This time around the action moves from the inner-city to the suburbs, as Craig must again face off with Debo (Tommy "Tiny" Lister Jr.), a neighborhood bully bent on revenge. Also starring: Tamala Jones, John Witherspoon.

SUPERNOVA (MGM) — When a deep-space hospital ship answers an emergency distress signal from a distant galaxy, the six-person crew soon find themselves in danger from the man they rescued, the alien artifact he smuggled aboard and the gravitational pull of a nearby star about to go supernova. Starring James Spader, Angela Bassett, Robin Tunney.

RADIO GETS RESULTS

SUCCESS STORIES FROM THE RAB

RADIO SPARKS HIGH-HEELED BUYS

SITUATION: Located in the Adrian Mall in Adrian, MI, Shoe Sensation is an upscale store that competes with four other shoe stores in the same shopping center. The store uses radio and newspaper to advertise its products, including Nike, Reebok, Keds, K-Swiss, Connie, Calico, Dexter and Bass shoes.

OBJECTIVE: To drive traffic into Shoe Sensation for holiday sales.

CAMPAIGN: The manager of Shoe Sensation usually voices the 60-second commercials, which promote specific sales events at the store. The store typically runs 20 to 30 spots during a given one-week campaign. The ads run in all dayparts on WABJ-AM and WQTE-FM/Adrian, MI and WMXE/Hudson, MI.

RESULTS: "I highly recommend using radio for any business advertising needs," said store manager Tracey Bailey. "I find that I receive a large amount of feedback from my customers. Many of them tell me, 'I didn't even know you were a store at the mall until I heard your ad on the radio!' I find it very satisfying to see that my money is well-spent and adds profit to my store — profit I might not have had without using radio."

RAB TOOLBOX

More marketing information and resources from the RAB MEDIA TARGETING 2000

More than a third (36%) of those who have bought shoes in the past 12 months earn more than $50,000 per year, and 28% are college graduates. Seventy-four percent own their homes, and 39% have children living at home. This group spends an average of 45% of its daily media time with radio.

INSTANT BACKGROUND — WOMEN'S SHOES

Why female household heads choose to shop at certain stores for shoes for themselves (multiple answers were allowed): Prices/value, 76%; has brands they prefer, 34%; return policy, 34%; store mix/other stores nearby, 27%; service level, 23%; closest/most convenient, 19%; one-stop shopping/buying other items, 12%; quickest checkout, 5%. #### RAB CATEGORY FILES

"What do baby boomers, Generation X and GenerationY have in common? Very little, except all three love shoes, are fixated on the latest fashion trends and make up the footwear market's primary customer base. And spending money is something they all do well: Baby Boomers spend over $900 billion a year; Generation X spends $125 billion; and GenY, through their own shopping and influence on family purchases, spends up to $100 billion. And that's a healthy market no responsible athletic retailer or marketer can ignore." (Footwear News, 1999)

Davis Promoted To PD At WLLD/Tampa

Infinity's CHR/Rhythmic WLLD/Tampa has elevated APD/ MD/afternoon driver Orlando Davis to PD. He replaces Dave Ferguson, who exited the station last month.

"My goal is to keep this radio station as one of the top-rated stations in this market and also within Infinity's stable of CHRs," Davis told R&R. "This company owns some great CHR stations with winning programmers who possess a deep knowledge of the format. I hope to work closely with them to keep moving up in the ratings. We've already made some great strides with our team, and our station is unique and perfect for this market."

Davis will also maintain his music duties. "That's my passion, and that's what I love to do. I don't know what's going to happen in the future as far as hiring someone, but I initially signed up to do it all myself."

Prior to joining WLLD, Davis worked in Tallahassee, FL as PD of WHBX and PD/MD at WWLD and WXSR. He began his career in that market as an intern, weekender and nighttimer at WFHT.

Allen Appointed WOCL/Orlando's PD

gas PD Burke Allen has been named to a similar post at AMFM's "Jammin' Oldies" WOCL (Power 105.9)/Orlando. WOCL had been programmed by AMFM's corporate team since the station flipped from '60s Oldies to Jammin' Oldies in April.

"I'm really excited about entering the new millennium with a great staff in Orlando at Power 105.9,"

Allen tells R&R. "If you're going to be involved with the Jammin' Oldies' format, having the opportunity to work with great programmers like AMFM's Steve Rivers and Joel Salkowitz is a phenomenal opportunity."

Prior to spending two years at KMZQ, Allen spent two years as PD for KISN/Salt Lake City. His radio career includes programming stints in Savannah, GA at WAEV and WLVH.

A 'Star' Is Born, As WRQQ/Nashville Bows

Dickey Brothers' Hot AC WRQQ (Star 97)/Nashville debuted last Friday (12/3). "A Better Variety Of Music" is the station's positioning statement. Overseeing the project are Stratford Research VP Jan Jeffries, OM Bill Kennedy and PD Bill Catcher, who joins from WILN & WYYX/ Panama City, FL.

As Kennedy noted, "Star 97 plays '80s and '90s music and will be positioned smack dab in the middle between CHR/Pop WRVW and Soft

Included in Star 97's first hour were Smash Mouth's "All Star," Madonna's "Lucky Star" and Earth, Wind & Fire's "Shining Star." Those were followed by Santana f/Rob Thomas' "Smooth," The Backstreet Boys' "I Want It That Way," Whitney Houston's "I Wanna Dance With Somebody," Sugar Ray's "Someday," Robbie Williams' "Angels" and Steve Winwood's "While You See a Chance."

UPDATE

Arbitron Spring 2000 Survey Adds Three Markets

hree new markets have been added to the spring 2000 Arbitron radio survey schedule. The addition of Bowling Green, KY; Elizabeth City-Nags Head, NC; and Sebring, FL bring the total number of syndicated markets measured to 279.

Bowling Green has a 12+ population of 152,900; its estimated market rank is No. 201. Elizabeth City-Nags Head's 12+ population is 115,400, and it is estimated to have a market rank of No. 241. And Sebring, with a 12+ population of 71,900, is estimated to be ranked No. 268,

All of these markets will be part of the Arbitron Qualitative Diary Service.

Cahill Now OM Of 'TVR/Richmond Duo

Former WFOX/Atlanta programmer Bill Cahill has joined WTVR-AM & FM/Richmond as OM. He succeeds Tony Florentino, who recently transferred from the Clear Channel Adult Standards/AC combo to program Hot AC WMTX/Tampa (R&R 11/19).

"In my search for the best candidate to continue

Concurrently, Peter Mullen has been chosen to run SoundsBig's Music Services office in New York. He most recently served as VP/GM of PolyGram Group Distribution. Albano continued. "Peter and Corrine will work very closely in acquiring content and working with labels in terms of hooking up online concerts, chat events, etc.

Baldassano will be based in SoundsBig's main office in Boston. She relocates from the Washington, DC area, where she previously served as VP/Broadcast Programfor Associated Press. Baldassano has also served as a senior programming executive at Westwood One, Sony's SW Networks and ABC Radio Networks. She's been Programming & Operations Director of WSAI/Cincinnati. PD of KAUM-FM/Houston and MD of WPLJ/New York and WHN/ N.Y., where she began her career in 1970 as a news reporter.

SoundsBig.com was founded in April by Albano and Chairman/ CEO Tom Cook - who both previously held executive posts at music applications software developer Cakewalk Software - and former BMG Entertainment CFO Andy Smedra, who now serves as SoundsBig's CFO. SoundsBig.com expects to have 100 channels in operation by the end of the first quarter of 2000. The company uses a Windows-based application that acts as a tuner.

Smith Will Become PD At KROX/Austin

LBJS Broadcasting has named Alan Smith PD of Alternative KROX (101X)/Austin. Smith replaces Sara Trexler, who is exiting the station to pursue broadcast opportunities in Pittsburgh. Smith will leave his APD/ MD post at KDGE/Dallas on Dec. 23 and join KROX between Christmas and New Year's Day.

"It's been a great 5 1/2-year run at the Edge," said Smith. "I've had an exceptional group of people to work for, and AMFM is easily one of the best companies in America. Some of the best people in America doing Alternative are in this building, and I feel lucky to have been able to work with and learn from them.

'While I'm excited about going to Austin and entering a new competitive environment,  $\Gamma m$  most looking forward to working with the great team at LBJS and maximizing the position of 101X within the market cluster. So far they've been able to deliver excellent ratings, and I hope to continue what Sara Trexler started.

Smith started his radio career at KYQQ/Wichita. He has also worked in the programming departments at KXXR and KISF in Kansas City.

MUSIC & MOVIES ZINE SCENE

1999: The Year In Music!

S pin chronicles the past year in music Park Till go to Nine Inch Nails' The Fragile. "I wanted this record to sound like it was falling apart," reveals NIN mastermind Trent Reznor "So I really went for imperfection." Reznor finds mainstream audiences somewhat imperfect as well: "When I see what's on Total Request Live, it's like, 'Who are these people? Who's buying this? I know someone is, and I want them to buy my record, but good Christ! How did this hap-

Best Band goes to Rage Against The Machine, who clock in at No. 2 in the "Top 20 Albums of the Year" Other notable albums include Moby's Play (3), Beck's Midnite Vultures (9), Fiona Apple's When The Pawn... (10), the Chemical Brothers' Surrender (12), Mary J. Blige's Mary (15) and Eminem's The Slim Shady LP (20). TLC's "No Scrubs" is No. 1 in the "Top 20 Singles of the Year" category.

In Search Of A Wayward Bastard

Vibe goes in search of Ol' Dirty Bastard (a.k.a. Russell Jones), talking to family and friends of the eccentric rapper. The 'zine finally catches up with ODB in an L.A. drug rehab center, where a medicated Bastard ruminates about the government's conspiracy to kill rappers: "I think the government is tryin' to set a nigga up, like [with the] Tupac and Biggie Smalls 'mystery' murders. The government got a lot of ways of gettin' at motherfuckers, man,

"You know how they killed Mozart and them motherfuckers, man? They killed them niggas because they wasn't vibin' the way that they wanted the vibe to go. After my niggas Tupac and Biggie left, it left the rap game like a boat in the water without no motherfuckin' stern, Nobody can drive that motherfucker - the bitch just floatin' And it scared a lot of folks in the rap game. It's scarin' me now, man."

You Gotta Have Faith

Entertainment Weekly does a feature on rising country star Faith Hill, who has faced criticism from traditionalists that her sound is too pop: "There seems to be a real aggressive attack right now to preserve the traditions," Hill relates. "And I can only do what's real to me. I would never be able to do a record like Loretta Lynn."

Speaking of faith, People asks country star LeAnn Rimes, who recorded two songs for the upcoming CBS miniseries Jesus, about her recent visit with Pope John Paul II: "I guess the guy who was with him told him about me and who I was, and he started blessing me. I just wish I was able to understand

MARC & MR. JONES - "Fans throw underwear at every concert. I still don't know how to pick up panties in front of thousands of people and be cool about it. Especially when my mom is in the audience. I gotta call up Tom Jones and ask his advice" — Latin music heartthrob Marc Anthony is trying to keep up with crooner Tom Jones underwear collection (People).

what he was saying. It was such a moving moment, I almost started crying.

Hard Knock Knife?

Newsweek examines Jav-Z's alleged stabbing of Untertainment Records head Lance "Un" Rivera According to reports, the rapper was upset about Rivera's suspected leaking of his new album, Vol. 3 — The Life and Times of Shawn Carter. An East Coast rapper and friend of Jay-Z's was an evewitness, but remains anonymous: "Jay-Z approached him, they had a few words, they became loud, and then this big commotion began, One guy I couldn't see hit Un with a bottle, and then Jay-Z pushed something in his back and in his stomach, and Un began to sort of bend over, and people started yelling." Charged with assault, Jay-Z showed up the next day at a police station with his lawyer and was freed on $50,000 bail,

Pharoahe Who?

"[People] haven't put the face together with the song. I was on Atlantic Avenue in Brooklyn, 'Simon Savs' came on the radio, and, like, eight squeegie guys were all dancing around the car. I pulled up to the light and was like, 'Yo, good lookin', And they're like, 'What the fuck are vou lookin' at?" - Rapper Pharoahe Monch realizes he's not the most recognizable face in music just yet (Vibe).

Rapper On The Crapper

"The reason most of these guys started rapping in the first place is because they were sitting on the can trying to sing 'Stairway to Heaven' and couldn't do it" -Sharon Osbourne, wife/manager of Ozzy Osbourne, offers her take on the white rap/metal phenomenon of 1999 (Spin).

The Talk Of The Twin Cities

☐ KSTP-AM enters its second century under the same local ownership

inneapolis-St Paul is home to a number of things that are well-known throughout America — cold weather and lots of snow, baseball's Twins and football's Vikings and, these days, pro-wrestler-turned-governor Jesse Ventura. But the Land of 10,000 Lakes is also home to a station that has been one of the icons of the radio business for nearly eight decades, KSTP-AM.

AM 1500 on the Twin Cities' radio dial has a long and colorful broadcast history that dates back to the Golden Age of radio. It was founded in 1923 by broadcast pioneer Stan E. Hubbard as WAMD ("Where All Minneapolis Dances"). Toward the end of the Roaring '20s the station merged with St. Paul's KFOY-AM and became KSTP-AM, the call letters by which Minnesotans have known the legendary station since 1928.

But perhaps the most amazing part of KSTP's storied history is that in today's broadcast world of megamergers and ownership changes, the station is still locally owned and managed by the same family that founded it — Hubbard Broadcasting, Inc.

At the programming helm of the station these days is PD Todd Fisher, who also oversees Adult Contemporary sister KSTP-FM (KS-95). Fisher, who joined Hubbard in 1996, added KSTP-AM to his daily duties following last year's departure of former PD Steve Konrad, who moved to Dallas to join KLIF. I recently talked to Fisher about the pros and cons of working for a family-owned operation, the company's new Midwest Network and how he thinks his music radio background has benefited him in Talk radio.

R&R: How did a music radio guy come to program a Talk station like KSTP?

TF: I've always wondered why we tend to label people in our business. like, "Oh, he's a Top 40 guy," or, "She's an AC programmer." Although my background had always been in music radio programming before KSTP, I really spent most of my time growing up in Phoenix listening to KTAR and KOY. I wasn't your typical Top 40 teenager. I was listening mostly to News and Talk radio programs.

But when (GM) Ginny Morris asked me to oversee programming for both stations. I really did have to think about it. Ginny and I have a terrific working relationship, and we really trust each other a lot. I think she felt that a strength I had developed over my career in music radio was working with morning show talent. That was something she was looking for, given the fact that we have a lot of really major local personalities on KSTP-AM. I think that was the major reason I was asked to become involved with the station.

R&R: Did your music background help in your transition to Talk programming?

TF: Again, I'd have to say it's been my experience in dealing with "The hosts on this station don't just try to ring the phones by sitting down and saying, 'Jesse Ventura — an honest guy or a bonehead? Let's take some calls!""

Dolans To Deliver Exclusive Presentation

The always entertaining Ken and Daria Dolan will be on hand at R&R's fifth annual Talk Radio Seminar in Washington, DC, offering their exclusive presentation "Financial Survival 2000 for Busy Radio Professionals." TRS 2000 attendees will learn:

- The five money moves you can make today that will benefit you tomorrow.
  - How to pick the next broadcasting stock winner.
- Tips on designing your personal portfolio for the next millennium.
- How to really evaluate those stock options you've been offered

The WOR Radio Network's financial gurus will discuss all this and more and send you home with solid advice on how to reach your personal and professional financial goals for the 21st century!

personalities that has helped me the most. I know that some music programmers might suggest that Talk is just like music radio, only instead of songs between the breaks, it's topics and issues. But I don't really buy into that. The hosts on this station don't just try to ring the phones by sitting down and saying, "Jesse Ventura — an honest guy or a bonehead? Let's take some calls!" Topic selection on KSTP has everything to do with what the interests of the hosts are, not what the PD thinks the audience wants to hear.

I think the biggest role I play is as a facilitator. And aside from one or two great FM morning shows I've had the pleasure of working with in my career, I've never before been involved with a group of talent like we have at KSTP. These are people wno are just so aware of who they are and what the audience expects their shows to be all about. Watching their awareness of that and how each of them craft their respective shows each day is just unreal.

R&R: What are the advantages and, conversely, the disadvantages of working for a family-owned operation like Hubbard vs. a megagroup?

TF: First off, the greatest thing about it is that my boss is always right down the hall. That gives us the ability to get things done quickly and efficiently. It's just great to know who owns you, to be able to see their face, their emotions and their reactions to the day-to-day goings-on at the radio station. It sounds corny, but in an operation like this there is still a very strong sense of community and a commitment to public service to that community. Those things are still important in a company like Hubbard.

What's the downside? I don't think there really is a downside. Everybody probably says, "Gee I wish we had the money to do this," or, "Boy, wouldn't it be great if we had two or three more stations?" Frankly, I'd rather be in a situation like this, where the company keeps investing in the ongoing success and continued development of two strong stations to keep them performing at very high levels rather than having to spread resources across five or six other stations in a cluster.

R&R: Give us a rundown on the station's lineup and what you think each of your local hosts brings to KSTP.

TF: From 5-8am it's Babs and the Boys, featuring Barbara Carlson. Barbara is a wide-open, totally honest and highly opinionated person. She does an entertaining and irreverent show surrounded by four guys — Dan Terhaar, Mark O'Connell, Tom Goodrich and Brad Lane — who the audience thinks are all there to try to keep the always-outspoken Barbara in line, so to speak.

From 8am-2pm we carry Dr. Laura, Paul Harvey News and Rush Limbaugh. From 2-5pm local host Joe Soucheray takes over with a show called Garage Logic. Joe, who is also a columnist for the St. Paul Pioneer-Press, is joined by Matt Michalski, a.k.a. The Rookie. It's an issuedriven show supplemented by discussion of stories about absurd political correctness. What Joe's show is really all about is common sense.

At 5pm Jason Lewis takes over. Jason, who is a constitutional scholar, is the ultimate political insider and is known around town as "Mr. Right." He really has his finger on the political pulse of middle America, Jason blows my mind with the amount of work he puts into his show and the knowledge he can just pull off the top of his head. He's currently the No. 1 25-54 afternoon drive host in town.

Our evening host is T.D. Mischke. Tommy has been on a leave of absence recently, and we hope he'll be back with us by the first of the year. He's strange, irreverent and does what I'd call a "nonradio" show. He's one of those hosts you have to hear to really truly understand. He's an amazing talent. From 10pm-midnight we do two hours of the best of Joe and Jason, followed by Art Bell for overnights.

R&R: Tell us about the new KSTP Network that the company has recently launched.

"I've seen former music format jocks really struggle trying to make the transition to talk host, because they don't come to it by first understanding who they are, what their interests are and what their point of view is."

TF: The KSTP-AM Network is talk programming from the Midwest, for the Midwest and by the Midwest. We think it's time that stations in middle America have an opportunity to carry top-quality programming that is really targeted at the Midwest listener. It's already on in several markets, and we're looking forward to continuing its expansion in the upcoming year. It features a lineup consisting of most of our great local talents and, unlike many networks, every commercial avail belongs to the local affiliate. There are no regional or national spots. We're very excited about the future of this project.

R&R: Minnesota, for all of its recent publicity as the state that elected the unpolitician — Jesse Ventura — is generally considered to be a fairly liberal Democratic state. KSTP's lineup would seem to lean to the right, so why do you think it has succeeded so well?

TF: I think it's fair to say that KSTP's talk shows do lean toward the conservative side. But liberalism and the Democratic party in Minnesota are a lot different from what they are in other places like Massachusetts, New York or California. The social issues are different here. Even though the Twin Cities is a major metropolitan area, the nightly local TV news isn't a half hour of police-blotter and crack-house stories.

The cliche here is that many people have a Democratic heart but a Republican wallet. What it really all boils down to is that Minnesotans are independent. Jesse Ventura got elected here because people perceived him to be different — honest, outspoken and direct. I'm not sure that any of the traditional political labels truly fit Minnesota.

R&R: Speaking of the governor, after a year, do people on the phones at the station still seem to think electing Jesse was a good idea?

TF: Well, he's certainly made for some great Talk radio, so we appreciate him. But I do think that generally people here approve of the job he is doing. If he continues to say and do stupid things, like the Playboy interview, he'll eventually get into trouble for that. But I think they still appreciate his honesty, that the state certainly hasn't fallen apart since he took over as governor and that he's done some good things that haven't gotten a lot of national press.

"It sounds corny, but in an operation like this there is still a very strong sense of community and a commitment to public service to that community."

He is a larger-than-life personality, but I think the people of Minnesota would rather he concentrate on paying attention to what's going on here and give up the Playboy interviews. But, no, there does not seem to be any sense of "Oh my God, what have we done by electing this guy?"

R&R: Most industry observers would say that your main competitor is WCCO, another legendary station in the market. Would you agree?

TF: I don't really look at them as our main competition. WCCO and KSTP are completely different radio stations, so we don't see WCCO, or even [Sports/Talk] KFAN, as our primary competition. KSTP is unique in this market, and that's because the station is driven by our personalities. WCCO is primarily a news, traffic and weather station, and they do a great job of delivering that. But as far as having personality talk, the stations are worlds apart. If any other station is a competitor to KSTP, I'd have to say it's [Rock] KQRS-FM's morning show host, Tom Bernard.

R&R: A Rock morning guy is KSTP's competitor?

TF: Absolutely. Bernard makes it tough for everybody in town in morning drive, but there is no question that there's a connection between his audience and KSTP's fans. Tom's show is what a good talk show is all about. He's opinionated, and he speaks his mind. He tells it like it is. And Tom is Minnesota. He's from here. And in this area, that still means something.

R&R: What does it take, in your opinion, for a music format DJ to make the transition to Talk?

TF: Being self-aware and honest about who you are — and being comfortable with that. Saying what you believe in and not being worried about what your audience is going to think.

I don't want to come off like some know-it-all snob who used to be a music guy and got lucky enough to get involved in Talk who says, "Hey, DJs, don't even think that you can do Talk radio," but it is tough. I've seen former music format jocks really struggle trying to make the transition to talk host, because they don't come to it by first understanding who they are, what their interests are and what their point of view is. They misunderstand Talk radio and think that the job of the host is to simply say outrageous things in order to get listeners to call them.

That doesn't work. You've got to understand what you are all about and then pursue your interests on the air in order to craft the theme of your show. To be a successful talk host, I think your show really has to be about something. And that something is you.

terrific year-over-year ratings gains, we're confident Rona will maximize the value of the Jammin' format in the New York market.'

Landy joined AC WLTW in 1987 as GSM and has served as VP/GM since 1992. She previously served as LSM for CBS News Radio/N.Y. "WLTW has been tremendously successful as a result of our top-notch staff, who, day in and day out, pour 110% of themselves into their work." Landy commented. "I see that same dedication, passion and excitement in the staff at Jammin' 105, and I look forward to working with them to build upon the station's early success and take it to the next level."

Citadel

Broadcasting's WORC-FM & WXLO-FM/Worcester, MA --- were purchased for $24.5 million cash and represent a new market for Citadel.

Citadel already owns six stations in Saginaw-Bay City-Midland -WSGW-AM, WGER-FM, WILZ-FM, WIOG-FM, WKQZ-FM & WYLZ-FM — and said it expects to sell off stations there to meet FCC ownership requirements.

The terms of the Liggett deal call for company Chairman/CEO Robert Liggett Jr. to join Citadel's board of directors as its sixth member. Liggett's deal with Citadel included 200,000 shares of Citadel stock, valued at $50.375 per share and worth nearly $10.1 million.

Second Major Deal In Two Months

Citadel Chairman/CEO Larry Wilson hasn't been shy about spending money on big deals at the end of this year. While most radio groups are focusing on landing Clear Channel-AMFM spinoffs, Citadel is buying up everything else in sight. Less than two months ago Citadel spent $190 million to buy Broadcasting Partners, a 36-station group with holdings in small and middle-sized markets (R&R 11/5)

The only other company making comparable purchases right now could be Cumulus Media, which, like

Citadel, builds clusters in smaller and medium markets. Cumulus recently spent $242 million for Connoisseur Communications, a 35-station group that has strong Midwestern middlemarket holdings (R&R 12/3).

The companies have spent nearly identical amounts on purchases this year. According to R&R records. Citadel has announced purchases in 1999 of 72 stations worth about $485 million, while Cumulus has announced the purchase of 90 stations worth about $445 million.

Nearly four years after the Telecom Act of 1996 started the current wave of consolidation, most major markets are fully bought up. That's why most people in the radio industry have been expecting turf wars in the smaller and middle markets

With the Liggett purchase, Citadel gets stations in markets No. 114 (Lansing), No. 116 (Flint) and No. 124 (Saginaw-Bay City-Midland). The Montachusett stations get Citadel into Worcester, listed as market No. 112

Montachusett President Robin Martin said it was a difficult decision to sell the two stations. "We never thought we would sell. But as all media, not just radio, continue to consolidate, we wanted to be certain WXLO & WORC would always be on top. Citadel's geographic presence and resources will insure that happens.'

WPLY

and the benefits to be derived from clustering this station with our existing stand-alone FM will further strengthen our position in one of the largest radio markets in the country."

Radio One, a mostly Urban operator, has opted not to flip the station's Alternative format, but rather will try to build on its recent ratings and revenue success. "We've got the wind to our backs with this radio station," Liggins said, adding that there were no plans to switch signals with WPHI either, WPLY's signal is better suited to reaching a suburban white audience, Liggins noted, while WPHI blankets the city's urban area. Still, WPLY's studios will join WPHI's Jenkintown, PA facility on Philly's Northwest side, where staff there is "very excited" over the deal. GM Darryl Trent told R&R.

Although $80 million is a big chunk of Radio One's $300 million cash-on-hand account, Liggins and CFO Scott Royster assured analysts they are on the prowl for other clustering opportunities - including the Clear Channel spinoffs. "We are looking to get bigger in any market we are in and anywhere we have competition." Liggins said. "We are interested in the Clear Channel bigmarket Urban stuff."

And despite the addition of an Alternative station, Liggins stressed. "First and foremost, we are an Urban operator. If it makes strategic sense. we will operate non-Urban stations in markets where we operate Urban stations."

The company — founded in 1980 by Liggins' mother, Cathy Hughes, with only the low-powered. community-oriented WOL-AM/ Washington — has exploded into a 27-station group. Its growth has been stunning, but not nearly as much as its share price increase. In May, when the company went public, shares were sold at $24. At R&R's Tuesday press time, shares in "ROIA" rocketed to a record high of $81.875 up $8.625, or 11.77% — sparking still more chatter about the company.

But not all of it is welcome chatter. Rumors that Radio One was talking to Liberty Media about a possible sale drew an annoyed response from Liggins. "There is no truth to that rumor. No truth. There have been inquiries, but people have been approaching us since we started the business.

Bitting

Bitting added, "To be a part of Catholic Family Radio is the ideal job for me. I consider this a rare opportunity to help build a company and at the same time be a part of an organization bringing quality Catholic-based programming to the family.'

Big City

there is a wonderful opportunity for us to deliver an exciting new Spanish format to meet the needs of this huge underserved audience and the advertisers wishing to reach it."

O'Neill is an L.A. radio sales veteran who began his career as an AE at the former KMET-FM. He's also been an AE at KMET's successor. KTWV-FM, and was NSM at KBIG-FM. He joined Big City in April '96.

The decision to drop Y-107's present format comes following weeks of speculation fueled by Fernandez himself, who told R&R in early November that he'd love to hear "Feliz Navidad" rather than

"Merry Christmas" on the trimulcast. Since then, Big City stock has risen as high as $5.25 a share. As of Tuesday's close, the issue was trading at $4.63 a share.

Big City's other properties include three multistation FM simulcasts in America's top markets: New York's Country "Y-107" (WWXY/Nassau-WWYY/Allentown, WWZY/Monmouth-Ocean and WYNY/White Plains): suburban Chicago's CHR/Pop "92KISS FM" (WKIE & WKIF) and the Windy City's Classic Hits "The Eighties Channel" (WXXY & WYYX). The company also owns five FMs in Phoenix. Additional changes at Big City's other properties were expected by the end of this week.

All Arista, All The Time

t's certainly the industry's hottest topic these days, as the rumors, innuendoes and implications of changes at the label and its subsidiaries continue to spill over into the consumer press. The latest: Tons of talk about the fate of Arista/Nashville, which has already been reported as a possible casualty in the feud between Arista President Clive Davis and BMG chief Strauss Zelnick. The flames were fanned when Nashville's Tennessean ran a story headlined "Arista Nashville May Close."

Last week, before leaving Nashville for New York — to "go fight for my people," as he told an airline gate agent — Arista/Nashville President Tim DuBois confided to ST, "I honestly don't know how this is going to turn out." Dubois, who's already announced he'll leave to become one of three new group presidents at Gaylord, believes, "The absolute worstcase scenario is that there will still be an Arista imprint and a promotion staff" with most other functions consolidated under the RI G banner

"Up until the day I leave [he's under contract through next June] we'll concentrate on running this business and treating it as if it's going to last forever."

Just before press time Tuesday (12/7), label staffers told ST everything was "business as usual"

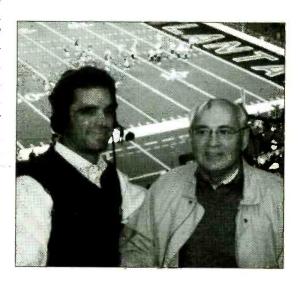

The New York Daily News reports that Zelnick is eyeing big cuts at Arista and LaFace if the two are merged. BMG is currently negotiating to buy the 50% of LaFace it doesn't own. The paper reports the company is looking at slashing as many as 50 positions in one scenario. Arista just posted a record sales month, logging over $85 million in November

Meanwhile, yet another honor has been bestowed on embattled Arista chief Clive Davis: He's been given the nonperformer's spot in this year's induction class at the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame.

With rumors of change swirling around the executive tier at AMFM, is Sr. VP John Madison being courted for a new gig elsewhere?

G-G-Georgia's Always On My Mind

And he's not talking about being back in the U.S.S.R. either. Check out former Soviet prez Mikhail Gorbachev, spotted here with WGST/ Atlanta morning man Jeff Hullinger during the latter's broadcast of Sunday's Atlanta Falcons-New Orleans Saints game.

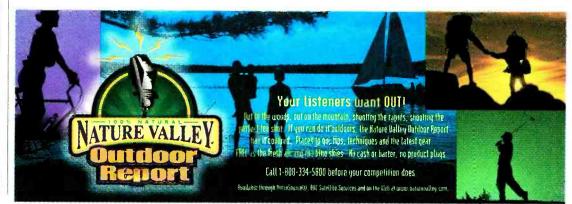

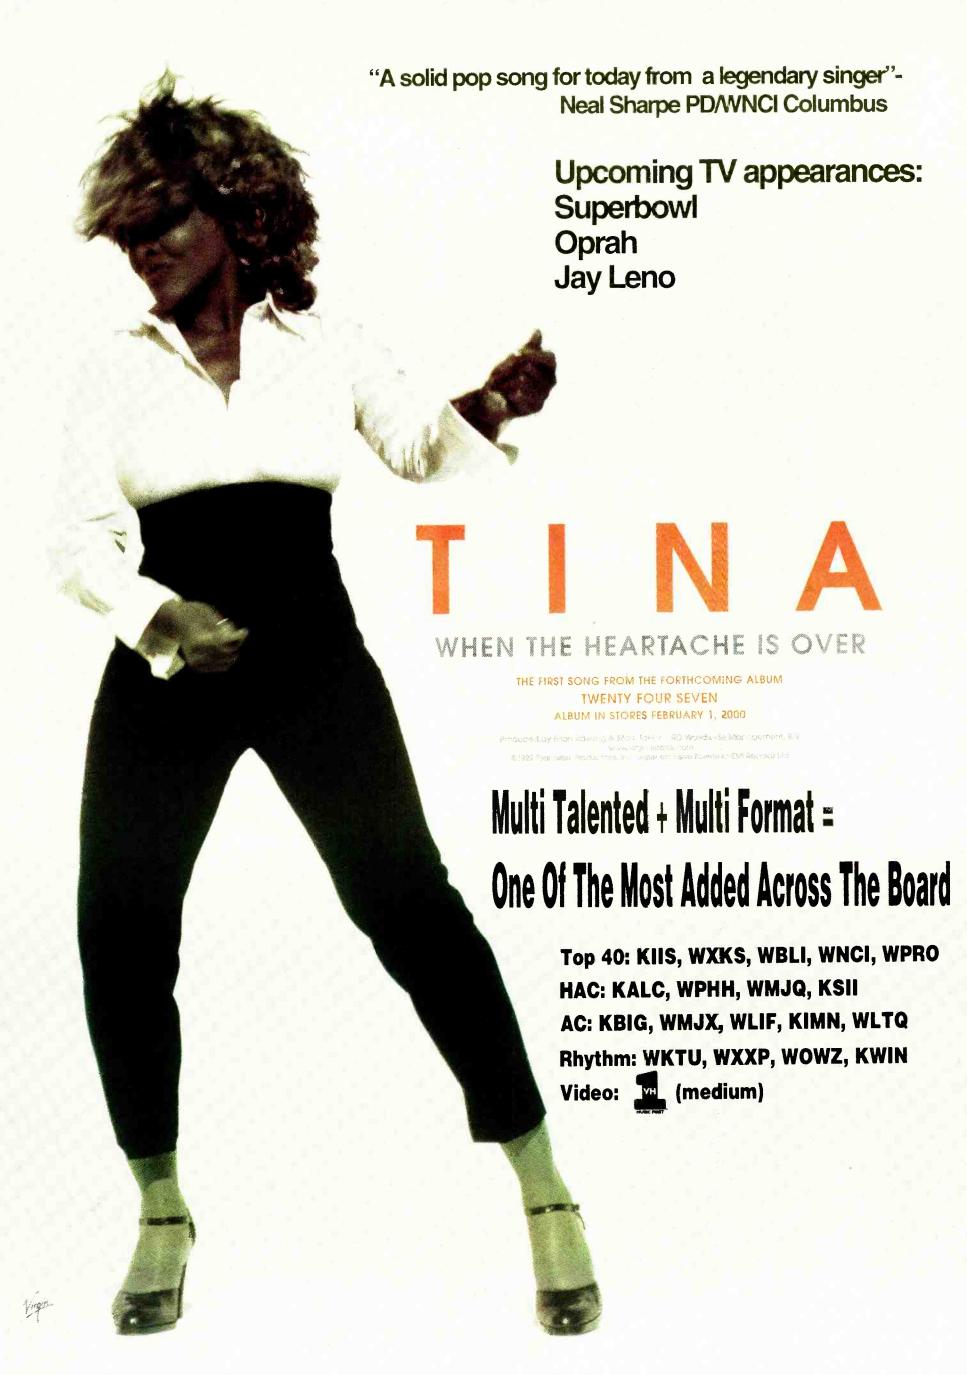

According to 'GST PD Ken Charles, it was Gorby's first football game, and while he did take the mike for about five minutes on the Falcons Radio Network, he watched most of the game from the 'GST box, where he provided Charles with a memory he'll likely never forget: watching the Falcons scoring a touchdown, then turning around to see the former Soviet leader and WGST GM Pat McDonnell high-fiving each other!

Rush Crush Redux

Following up last week's ST story, WABC/ N.Y. did "test" the KASH device to squeeze extra minutes into The Rush Limbaugh Show, PD Phil Boyce tells ST, "although we were not using it at the time the N.Y. Post's item ran. Those tests were completed in November." Boyce says ABC will discuss the use of KASH in the future, adding that he knew of several stations that were regularly using it. "But when you're WABC, having people take shots at you just goes with the territory."

Here's another story update from last week: WSPD-AM/Toledo talk host Scott Sloan was supposed to return Monday (12/6) from his oneweek suspension over comments he made about the Rev. Jesse Jackson, but all listeners heard was a taped apology from Sloan that said, in part, "I apologize for the hurtful comments I made toward the Rev. Jesse Jackson, the controversy I've generated and the negative publicity I've brought to our city." Sloan's suspension, it turns out, has been extended indefinitely while he completes sensitivity training.

B94 Discrimination Suit Settled

Infinity's WBZZ/Pittsburgh had been sued by a pair of former personalities, Troy Garrett and Ron Chavis, who contended their firings were racially motivated. The suit has now been settled out of court, Pittsburgh's Post-Gazette reports, though terms were not disclosed.

Another suit that's been around for nearly a year looks like it may soon wrap up. Beasley Broadcast Group sued the Florida Marlins for $50,000, claiming that its radio properties incurred damages after former Marlins owner Wayne Huizenga dealt away most of his 1997 world championship team. Beasley had just finalized its contract for the radio rights in March '98, shortly before several key players were traded. The team subsequently posted the league's worst record that year. A state court judge held a hearing on the suit six weeks ago and is now reviewing the case.

Three men were killed last Friday (12/3) while painting a tower owned by AMFM's WFMX/Charlotte. The three men worked for a Virginia firm that specialized in painting towers, and were approximately 1,000 feet off the ground when the cable apparently jumped off a hoist being used to lift them. A woman on the ground — the wife of one victim and mother of another — suffered cuts and burns to her hands when she tried grabbing the cable to arrest their fall. AMFM Regional VP Reta Thorn told the Charlotte Observer, "We're really very saddened

Lost Time? Alien Abduction?

Both might seem to be logical reasons as to why Coast to Coast host Art Bell was missing from his show last Wednesday morning (12/1). But like some episodes of The X-Files, the truth turned out to be more terrestrial in nature, though still scary. Bell told listeners he'd received a threat from a crazed listener in Oklahoma — a threat serious enough to cause him to fear for his personal safety. He was back on the air Thursday morning, he said, because "precautions had been taken." What kind of precautions? We asked Premiere Radio Nets President/COO Kraig Kitchin, who told ST, "In all such matters that are close to Art, we will offer him every protection and resource available. There are elements of his audience that are just plain unexplainable."

Rumbles Pt. 1

- · Regent Communications purchases Active Rock KZAP/Chico, CA and begins operating it under an LMA, simulcasting Active Rock KFMF on KZAP's frequency. KZAP PD Ronda Betts remains
- · WPLT/Detroit Creative Dir. Jay Slater replaces Rich Stevens as PD at WTCF/Saginaw, MI.
- · WKSF/Asheville, NC PD Jeff Davis has been promoted to OM for WKSF and AM sister WWNC.
- · WXIS/Johnson City, TN flips from CHR/Pop to CHR/Rhythmic, though no staff changes take
- · KXL/Portland PD Mike Dirkx exits the station, as does his wife, reporter Marie Dodds.

University of Massachusetts basketball coach Bruiser Flint doesn't need the FCC to tell him that he screwed up. After using profanity on his WHMP-AM & FM/Springfield, MA postgame show one night last week, Flint took matters into his own hands ... and issued himself a one-game suspension!

Striking A Pose

The latest cover Jeff McClusky's working isn't Pearl Jam's "Last Kiss" - it's the cover of a recent Chicago Tribune Magazine. The Sunday supplement gave the Windy City-based promoter an impressive seven-page spread that referred to McClusky's company as "the industry's most powerful independent promotion company" and was chock-full o' quotes from industry heavyweights. By the way, McClusky scores extra points with ST for being pictured with a Cubs jersey in his office.

A Couple Of Lies Guys

WLS/Chicago talkers Roe Conn and Garry Meier have hatched an interesting syndicated special to end the 20th century: Sex, Lies and Audiotape will take 20 of the century's most infamous people and analyze their voices with the "Truster," said to be the world's most sophisticated lie detector. PROMO ITEM OF THE WEEK - Virgin VP/Promo Al Moinet is retiring next week after 31 years in the record biz — he says he'll take the next two months to do "nothing but play with my dogs" and to demonstrate the scope of his work since '69, this CD was given out at a party in his honor. # Columbia Records Group Wins Label Performance Crown balanced attack from a wide variety of A&R and promotion fronts propelled the Columbia Records Group to the top spot for the second consecutive year in the R&R label performance review. A powerful mix of superstars (Will Smith, Ricky Martin, Mariah Carey, Lauryn Hill, Offspring, John Mellencamp), newcomers (Blaque, Tal Bachman), international acts (Lo-Fidelity Allstars), joint ventures and/or pickups (Train, Sixpence None The Richer) and even an '80s hair band (Great White) all contributed to CRG's 10.5% chart share, which was nearly a third higher than last year's 7.5% showing.

☐ Arista claims second, followed by Atlantic, Warner Bros., RCA

Arista Records earned the second spot with 9.2%, up a full two points from last year's share thanks to its commanding lead in CHR/Rhythmic, Urban and Urban AC. Atlantic Records picked up the bronze medal with a 7.0% share, a dip of only three-tenths of a percent from last year. Rounding out the top five were Warner Bros., which improved to 6.8% from 1998's 4.9%, and RCA Records, which rose to 6.6% from last year's 5.5%.

In winning the last label performance crown of the century, CRG demonstrated that it's hitting on all cylinders across all genres as it heads into Y2K. The group — which includes C2 Records, which debuted at the beginning of the year, and Portrait Records — was No. 1 at CHR/Pop (15.2%), AC (12.0%) and Rock (11.7%); No. 2 at CHR/Rhythmic (16.4%), Urban (11.0%), Hot AC (14.1%) and Active Rock (9.0%); and No. 3 at Alternative (8.6%).

Like last year, CRG started and ended 1999 strong, beginning the year with the No. I single (Shawn Mullins' "Lullaby") at CHR/Pop and Hot AC on the first chart of 1999 and ending the survey period with the top song at AC (Savage Garden's "I Knew I Loved You").

CRG's powerful Pop showing came courtesy of several songs, including Sixpence None The Richer's "Kiss Me," which was No. 2 at Hot AC, No. 3 at CHR/Pop and No. 6 at AC. Another key contributor was Martin with "Livin' La Vida Loca" (No. 9 at CHR/Pop and No. 15 at Hot AC) and newcomer Bachman with "She's So High" (No. 9 at Hot AC and No. 25 at CHR/Pop).

CRG remained a force in Urban, releasing hits from Hill ("Ex-Factor" was No. 8, and "Everything Is Everything" was No. 35), baby act Blaque (No. 13 with "808") and Destiny's Child (No. 29 with "Bills, Bills, Bills"). Ditto at CHR/Rhythmic, where "808" was No. 7,

"Bills, Bills, Bills" was No. 9, "Ex-Factor" was No. 19, Carey's "Heartbreaker" was No. 22, Martin's "Livin' La Vida Loca" was No. 25, Blaque's "Bring It All to Me" was No. 28 and Smith's "Miami" and "Wild, Wild West" were No. 29 and No. 30, respectively.

On the rock side, CRG had success with Offspring ("The Kids Aren't Alright," "Why Don't You Get a Job?" and "Pretty Fly [For a White Guy"]), Alice In Chains ("Get Born Again"), Train ("Free" and "Meet Virginia") and Great White ("Rollin' Stoned").

Over at Arista, the label once again showed why it continues to set sales records year after year, as it bested last year's chart share in its bread-and-butter formats. It was the No. I label at CHR/Rhythmic (19.1%, up from 15.6%), Urban (18.7%, up from 14.5%) and Urban AC (16.3% vs. 9.0%). Arista also scored a second-place finish at CHR/Pop (where it climbed to 9.7%, compared to 7.5% in 1998) and at Country (10.0% vs. 8.7%).

Arista's key contributors in its core genres: TLC's "No Scrubs" was No. 1 at CHR/Rhythmic, No. 5 at CHR/Pop and No. 6 at Urban, while "Unpretty" was No. 15 at CHR/Pop and No. 26 at CHR/ Rhythmic; 112's "Anywhere" was No. 3 at CHR/Rhythmic and Urban; Whitney Houston's "Heartbreak Hotel" was No. 9 at Urban, No. 7 at Urban AC, No. 10 at CHR/Rhythmic and No. 38 at CHR/Pop; Monica's "Angel of Mine" was No. 12 at CHR/Rhythmic, No. 13 at AC, No. 19 at Urban AC and No. 23 at CHR/Pop; and Deborah Cox's "Nobody's Supposed to Be Here" was No. 4 at Urban AC, No. 21 at Urban and No. 40 at CHR/Rhythmic. Other point-getters included Puff Daddy ("Satisfy You"), Outkast ("Rosa Parks"), Faith Evans ("Never Gonna Let You Go"), Total ("Sitting Home") and Donell Jones ("U Know What's Up").

Arista also picked up major points with Santana's "Smooth," which was No. 1 at Adult Alternative, No. 16 at Hot AC, No. 19 at CHR/Pop and No. 28 at Rock. Sarah McLachlan's "I Will Remember You" was No. 11 at AC, No. 13 at Hot AC and No. 44 at CHR/Pop.

Over at Atlantic, acts like Sugar Ray, Jewel, Collective Soul, Edwin McCain and multiplatinum newcomer Kid Rock paid off handsomely. The label was No. 1 at Hot AC; No. 3 at CHR/Pop, AC and Adult Alternative; No. 4 at NAC; and No. 5 at Rock, Active Rock and Alternative.

Driving the pop engine was Sugar Ray, whose "Every Morning" was the No.1 song at CHR/Pop, No. 3 at Hot AC, No. 8 at Alternative and No. 10 at Adult Alternative. The group's "Someday" was No. 12 at Adult Alternative, No. 14 at CHR/Pop. No. 17 at Hot AC and No. 37 at Alternative. Other songs strengthening the label's Pop position were Jewel's "Hands" (No. 16 at AC, No. 19 at Hot AC and No. 48 at CHR/Pop) and Matchbox 20's "Back 2 Good" (No. 4 at Hot AC and No. 21 at CHR/Pop). Also lending a big hand were Edwin McCain ("I Could Not Ask for More," "I'll Be") and Phil Collins.

On the rock side, Atlantic scored big with Collective Soul's "Heavy," which was No. 1 at Rock, No. 3 at Active Rock and No. 7 at Alternative. Kid Rock also broke through in a major way. The Detroit raprocker's "Bawitdaba" was No. 13 at Active Rock and No. 23 at Alternative, while "Cowboy" was No. 38 at Alternative and Active Rock.

The label also racked up multiformat airplay with R&B vocalist Brandy, whose "Have You Ever?" was No. 16 at CHR/Rhythmic, No. 17 at Urban AC and No. 18 at CHR/Pop, while "Almost Doesn't Count" was No. 13 at Urban AC, No. 24 at Urban and No. 35 at CHR/Rhythmic.

A rejuvenated Warner Bros. hit big at Adult Alternative, Urban AC and NAC, where it was the No. 2ranked label with 13.0%, 10.9% and 11.3%, respectively. It also was No. 3 at Rock (with a 9.7% share) and Hot AC (with an 11.7% share) and No. 4 at CHR/Pop (with 8.0%). Among the songs assisting the label was the enormous success of The Goo Goo Dolls' "Slide" (No. 1 at Hot AC, No. 2 at CHR/Pop, No. 13 at Rock, No. 9 at Adult Alternative and No. 29 at Alternative). The group also landed multiformat airplay for "Dizzy," "Iris" and "Black Balloon."

Warner Bros.' other key multiformat songs came from Cher ("Believe" was No. 8 at AC, No. 10 at CHR/Pop and No. 14 at Hot AC) and The Red Hot Chili Peppers ("Scar Tissue" was No. 5 at Alternative and Rock, No. 8 at Adult Alternative, No. 11 at Active Rock, No. 43 at Hot AC and No. 47 at CHR/Pop), as well as from Citizen King, Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers, Faith Hill and Eric Benet.

RCA continued to prove that it's a force to be reckoned with. It was the No. 2 label at Country with a 10.3% share, No. 4 at Alternative with 8.0% and tied for fifth at CHR/Rhythmic with 6.0%. Key songs came from Christina Aguilera ("Genie in a Bottle" was No. 7 at CHR/Pop and No. 6 at CHR/Rhythmic), Lou Bega ("Mambo No. 5 [A Little Bit Of...]" was No. 22 at CHR/Pop, No. 33 at Hot AC and No. 41 at CHR/Rhythmic), 'N Sync ("[God Must Have Spentl A Little More Time on You" was No. 3 at AC and No. 33 at CHR/Pop), alt rock group Lit ("My Own Worst Enemy" was No. 1 at Alternative, No. 12 at Active Rock and No. 25 at Rock) and R&B vocalist Tyrese, whose "Sweet Lady" was No. 4 at Urban, No. 5 at CHR/ Rhythmic and No. 6 at Urban AC, while "Lately" was No. 12 at Urban AC and No. 17 at Urban. Other contributors were The Foo Fighters, Eve 6 and The Dave Matthews Band.

Honorable mention goes to Jive Records, which appeared at No. 11 with a 3.5% share. Also making appearances in the top 25 are DreamWorks, Tommy Boy Records and Disney's Nashville unit, Lyric Street.

Slash/London Hits Pay Dirt At Rock Radio With Billionaire

Zig when everyone else is zagging. That's the approach Slash/London is using to break the mainstream rock band Billionaire, whose debut single, "I Fell From Space," is making inroads at Active Rock and Rock.

Key stations supporting the group include Active Rockers KHTQ/Spokane, KUPD/Phoenix, WQXA/Harrisburg, WXRC/Charlotte, KQRC/Kansas City and WRIF/Detroit. Rock outlets lending a hand include KBER/Salt Lake City, KOMP/Las Vegas, WAQX/Syracuse, WLUM/Milwaukee and KFZX/Odessa-Midland, TX.

e and KFZX/Odessa-Midiand, 1X.
Atlanta-based Billionaire, who had already self-released one album, first came to the attention of SLRG - the group were initially inked to London Records - in early November 1998. when label A&R exec Greg Glover hooked up with Jake Ottman, an old friend who also happened to manage the group. Glover recalls, "One of the first groups I ever put out on my small indie company. Arena Rock Recording Company, was Superdrag, and Jake managed that group. We kind of stayed in touch since then. One day I called to see what he was up to, and he told me about Billionaire and that there was a lot of interest from the other labels. He sent me their music, I loved it and immediately went to see them perform."

Billionaire

After the show Glover offered them a deal, and in early 1999 the band went to work on their debut SLRG disc, Ascension. Glover comments, "There was a lot about their own album that we really liked. We wanted them to add some new songs and refresh the older material. And we also wanted to find a very classic producer who could bring out the group's sound, but who is known for working well with new bands. That's why we went with Chris Kimsey, who's done great work with The Rolling Stones and Bad Company."

Interestingly, Billionaire's new album was released during the transition—which has yet to officially close—from Universal Music Group to the Warner Music Group. Yet SLRG felt confident that the music would break through and that a full promotion staff would be in place by the time the first single went to radio. The former happened, though the latter didn't.

Handling setup duties during the UMG-WMG transition was SLRG Sr. Director/Promotion Dave Barbis. His key pitch, other than great music? Programmers needed mainstream hit rock songs to balance a diet that was getting overloaded with hard rock and metal rap. "Myself and our staff at the time went out and visited all the mainstream and Active Rock stations in early September," says Barbis. "We positioned the band and the song as a relief record, a meatand-potatoes record they could own. We also sold the band, not just the single. We made sure the staff tracked the album for programmers so they could hear that this was something we were committed to and that it was something they could embrace for the long haul."

Not surprisingly, when the label went for adds in late September, it ran up against some resistance. Comments SLRG VP/Rock Promotion Barry Lyons, who officially joined the label a few weeks prior to the add date, "It's kind of funny, because a few years ago at London we were working Ramm-stein and trying to get programmers to play more heavy music. At the time radio told us they wanted more traditional-sounding rock songs. Now it's going the other way around."

Nevertheless, SLRG continues to make headway, which is no small feat at this time of year. Lyons continues, "Each week we get either more adds or more stations upping the rotation. And we're also seeing balanced growth at both Rock and Active Rock."

One station that's had significant success with the group and single is WQXA. PD Claudine DeLorenzo comments, "It sounds really good on the air. In a time when we don't have hits from mainstream rock stars, it's nice to have something like this. It's very catchy and has been getting top five phones."

WQXA has also worked closely with the group. DeLorenzo continues, "We had them out for a benefit show the Tuesday before Thanksgiving, which went very well. And the next day they did the 'Star Spangled Banner' Jimi Hendrix-style before a local hockey game. People are already becoming familiar with the group and the song.

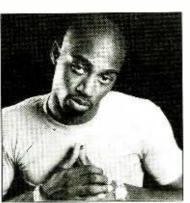

Each time we play it, we get calls, and whenever we're out on promotions for the station, people ask for the song. It's all positive."

Looking forward, Billionaire is currently on tour, opening for Megadeth. SLRG will use that opportunity to take the band to visit radio. The group's album, Ascension, was released on Oct. 19.

Ready For Takeoff: Drama

Don't be surprised if, by the time you read this, Tight 2 Def inks a jointventure deal with a major for rapper Drama, whose commercial single. "Left/Right," has sold nearly 20,000 copies, according to the label. The song has been the top-selling single in Atlanta for several weeks and is among the top 100-selling tracks in Birmingham, Tulsa, Greensboro and Greenville. Two weeks ago it was No. 1 in Chattanooga and No. 3 in Columbia. according to the label. Tight 2 Def is owned by Atlanta-based rap/hip-hop artist Raheem, who has 10 albums to his credit.

Among the Urban stations spinning "Left/Right" are WVEE and WHTA in Atlanta: WALJ/Macon, GA; WFXE/Columbus, OH; WJTT/Chattanooga, TN; and WPEG/Charlotte. WALJ PD/MD Derek Harper, whose station was the first reporter to add "Left/Right," says the song "is an across-the-board hit. We've been playing it for over three months, and it's still in high rotation. It has that dirty South sound that works really well for us."

Drama

Nearly every major label is bidding for the rights, with the top contenders being Atlantic Records and Island Def Jam Music Group. Also in the race are Universal, Republic and Capitol. Look for a deal to be announced shortly. Drama's full length album, Causin' Drama, will hit retail in February 2000.

Congrats to Miami-based rock outfit Crease, which inks with Roadrunner Records.

The Music Matters

□ Looking back on '99 and forward to 2000

ou can almost hear it now: It's New Years Day, and Casey Kasem is once again counting down the biggest songs of 1999 exclusively from the R&R charts: And now the No. 1 song in the land. It comes from a band that almost named themselves Black Elvis 2000 when they formed in 1989 in Hancock Park, CA. On March 18, 1999, the band's lead singer, Mark McGrath, was featured on the cover of Rolling Stone, and People magazine declared him one of the sexiest people of 1998. He even appeared in the movie Father's Day.

At parties, Mark's favorite trick is to light his pubic hair on fire. Being a boxing fan, Mark named the band after prizefighter Sugar Ray Leonard. When the band delivered their first album to their record label, the band wore only jockstraps. Today, Mark Sayers McGrath, Rodney Charles Sheppard, Matthew Murphy Karges, Stan Stanton Frazier and Craig Anthony Bullock, better known as Sugar Ray, have the No. 1 song of 1999 with "Every Morning" (Lava/Atlantic).

Or perhaps you're listening to a worldwide broadcast of Rick Dees' Weekly Top 40, which also uses R&R charts exclusively; And now the No. 1 song on the Rhythmic chart for 1999 comes from a band whose eight-year career has been plagued with arson, bankruptcy and illness — TLC (LaFace/Arista). Formed in 1991, the band has demonstrated an impressive amount of strength and determination to stay together. It was the second single from their album Fanmail that really got them noticed again. The female trio from Atlanta, GA -Tionne "T-Boz" Watkins, Lisa "Left Eye" Lopes and Rozanda "Chili" Thomas — you know them as TLC, have the No. 1 Rhythmic song of 1999 with "No Scrubs."

For the past week, R&R computers have been counting the millions of plays across 12 formats for our highly anticipated year-end music charts. For the 1999 year-end charts, we have compiled 50 weeks of airplay from the R&R charts dated Dec. 11, 1998-Dec. 3, 1999. Each song on the year-end chart is ranked 1-99 by total plays received during the chart year.

CHR/Pop Label Performance

When it comes to the labels, music and artists, every year has its standouts. When it comes to CHR/Pop label share in 1999, the Columbia Records Group dominates with a 15.2% share, an increase of 4.2 shares from 1998. Other significant label share increases come from Arista, moving from fifth (7.5%) in 1998 to second (9.7%) in 1999. Warner Bros. also moves up nicely from sixth to fourth, increasing from 5.0% to 8.0%. Jive surges from eighth (4.4%) to fifth in 1999, with a 7.9 share. Other noteworthy increases and new entries within the top 10 include the Epic Records Group at 7.3% and the combined Interscope/Geffen/A&M group with a 6.7% share.

A Great Year For Pop Music

Musically in 1999, the Pop side was driven by strong talent like Sugar Ray (Lava/Atlantic), Britney Spears (Jive), TLC (LaFace/Arista), The Backstreet Boys (Jive) and Ricky Martin (C2/Columbia). After topping the 1998 year-end CHR/Pop chart with "Iris," the Warner Bros. act The Goo Goo Dolls came close to doing the same in 1999 with "Slide." The song finishes the year in the No. 2 position, just 79 plays behind Sugar Ray's chart-topping smash "Every Morning." Sugar Ray's follow-up, "Someday," is not too far behind at No. 13. Following the success of their multiplatinum album Floored, Sugar Ray hopes to do it again with 14:59.

This was certainly the year of The Backstreet Boys. On R&R's yearend Pop chart for 1998, the Boys finished at No. 8 with "As Long as You Love Me." No. 25 with "I'll Never Break Your Heart" and No. 36 with "Everybody (Backstreet's Back)." After blowing over 9 million copies of Millennium out the door. The Backstreet Boys proved once again that they were back for real with a tour that sold out in minutes. On the R&R Top 99 of '99 for Pop, "I Want It That Way" finishes the year in the No. 8 position, "All I Have to Give" is No. 40 and "Larger Than Life" is No. 45.

Christina Aguilera's "Genie in a Bottle" (RCA) and Jennifer Lopez's "If You Had My Love (Work/Epic) are examples of two songs that dominated the Pop and Rhythmic charts in 1999. On the Top 99 of '99, "Genie" finished at No. 7 on the Pop chart and No. 6 on the Rhythmic chart. Lopez's "If" clocked in at No. 11 on both the Pop and Rhythmic year-end charts.

Ranked by percentage of chart share

label share, moving up from 1998's 15.6% to 19.1% in 1999. The label also has three songs in the top 10. They include TLC's chart-topper "No Scrubs," 112's No. 3 hit "Anywhere" (Bad Boy/Arista) and diva Whitney Houston's "Heartbreak Hotel," which ends the year as the 10th most-played CHR/Rhythmic song.

Although RCA did not have a CHR/Rhythmic song in the top 20 of 1998, the label blazes into 1999 with two top-10 finishes: Tyrese's "Sweet Lady" (No. 5) and Christina Aguilera's "Genie in a Bottle" (No. 6). RCA also increases its CHR/Rhythmic chart share from 4.0% in 1998 to 6.0%, tying for the fifth slot in 1999.

After sweeping the CHR/Pop label share, the Columbia Records Group also increased its CHR/Rhythmic label share, moving from 1998's 14.7% to 16.4% in 1999. Helping drive Columbia once again is Destiny's Child. After a top 10 finish in 1998 with "No, No, No," Destiny's Child is the only artist to return to the top 10 of the CHR/

Rhythmic chart, as "Bills, Bills, Bills, Bills" closes out 1999 as the ninth most-played song. Destiny's Child also came in at No. 51 with "Bug-A-Boo."

Megastar Will Smith (Columbia) finished 1998 in fine form with "Gettin' Jiggy Wit It" (No. 13) and "Just the Two of Us" (No. 15). Smith comes right back to end 1999 with two more hits: "Miami" (No. 29) and "Wild Wild West" (No. 30).

Other CHR/Rhythmic labels to increase chart share in 1999 include the Island Def Jam Music Group, which finishes at No. 3 (9.0%), and Interscope/Geffen/A&M, hitting No. 4 (7.3%). Two labels tie for No. 5, as both the Epic Records Group and Universal garner 6% shares, and Jive lands in the top 10 at No. 8 with a 5.7% share.

Veteran And New Artists Shine In '99

Callout America® Hot Scores

BY KEVIN MCCABE

ne of the greatest attributes of national callout research is the ability to get an advance read on songs crossing to CHR/Pop from other formats. Take a quick glance back at this year's examples, and you'll find major hits from such formats as Rhythmic, Urban, Alternative and Country. The latest success is unquestionably "Amazed" by Lonestar (BNA), which retains its No. 1 position on Callout America with a 3.90 overall score. Not surprisingly, "Amazed" is the top tester among women 25-34 (3.97) and shows major strength in the South and Midwest.

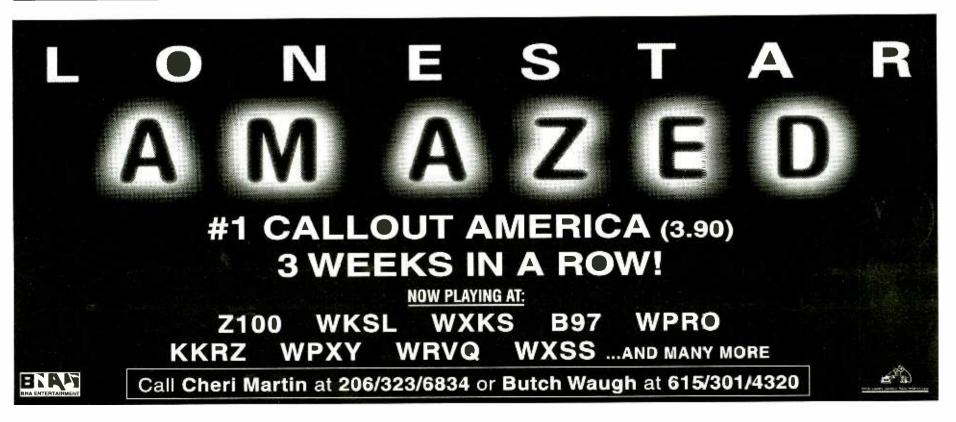

R&R's annual "Year in Music" issue includes a top 99 of '99 year-end overview for Callout America. The year's biggest ballad, "Angel" by Sarah McLachlan (Warner Sunset/Reprise). ranks No. 1 with a 3.84. Last year's champ was also a ballad from a soundtrack — Celine Dion's "My Heart Will Go On" (550 Music/Epic). "Back At One" by Brian McKnight (Motown/Universal) ends the year with a 3.84 overall score, and the monster callout hit by Blink-182, "What's My Age Again" (MCA), ranks third with a 3.81. Check out the entire Callout America year-end overview on Page 40.

"Bring It All To Me" by Blaque f/ N' Sync (Track Masters/Columbia) shows a three-week trend of 3.54-3.69-3.78. It will likely be one of the biggest hits at CHR/Pop into Q1 2000.

"What A Girl Wants" by Christina Aguilera (RCA) enters with a 3.63 overall score and ranks No. 4 among teens with a 4.01.

Check out the Pop radio edit of "Got Your Money" by Ol' Dirty Bastard (Elektra/EEG). "Money" holds steady with a 3.61 overall score and boasts a 3.70 among females 18-24.

Total sample size is 400 respondents with a +/-5 margin of error. Total average lavorability estimates are based on a scale of 1-5 (1 = dislike very much). Total familiarity represents the percentage of respondents who recognized the song. Total burn represents the number of respondents who said they are tired of hearing the song. Songs must reach 40% familiarity before they appear in print. Hit Potential (HP) represents songs that have yet to chart in the top 25 on *R&R*s CHR/Pop chart. Sample composition is based on females aged 12-34, who responded favorably to a CHR/Pop musical montage in the following regions and markets: EAST: Baltimore, Boston, Long Island, New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Providence, Washington, DC. SOUTH: Atlanta, Dallas, Houston, Miami, San Antonio, Tampa. MIDWEST: Chicago, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, Detroit, Kansas City, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, St. Louis. WEST: Los Angeles, Phoenix, Portland, Sacramento, San Diego, San Francisco, Seattle. © 1999, R&R Inc.

Aguilera, Jennifer Lopez and Ricky Martin. Sixpence None The Richer's "Kiss Me" (Squint/Columbia) was the No. 1 most-played song in more than 10 countries, including the United States, Canada and Australia. Also making our acquaintance in '99 were Blaque with "808" (Track Masters/Columbia), Juvenile's "Back That Thang Up" (Cash Money/Universal), Lil' Troy's "Wanna Be a Baller" (Short Stop/Republic/Universal) and Lou Bega's catchy dance tune "Mambo No. 5 (A Little Bit...)" (RCA).

For the Grammy Awards in February 2000, the bookies are already placing high odds on Santana's single featuring Matchbox 20's Rob Thomas, "Smooth" (Arista). The track continues to top the R&R CHR/Pop and Hot AC charts.

The past year also provided songs that marked unforgettable moments. Sarah McLachlan's heartfelt "Angel" (Warner Sunset/Reprise) was.

unfortunately, a grim reminder of the tragedy that struck Colorado's Columbine High School.

Country Crossover Hot And Getting Hotter

This year has also been a very busy one for the many country artists crossing over to the Pop charts. Shania Twain made a huge impression on the Pop charts with her single "That Don't Impress Me Much" (Mercury), as well as her Cover Girl theme song. "Man! I Feel Like a Woman!" In 2000 look for Garth Brooks (Capitol) starring as Chris Gaines in his movie, which should give him a real Pop boost. Early Callout America scores on Lonestar's "Amazed" continue to illustrate the strength of country crossover. Furthermore, Columbia is now preparing to cross the multiplatinum-selling Dixie Chicks to Pop in early 2000.

Next week R&R will spotlight the newsmakers and the movers and shakers of the past year.

McLachlan's "Angel" Tops Year-End Callout America

Each week, Callout America interviewers call America's 30 largest metros and seek out the pop music opinions of women between the ages of 12-34 who listen to the CHR station in each respective market. Since its inception, Callout America has made over 100,000 calls in search of the hits. Each of the following songs is ranked on combined scores 12-34.

In 1999 the listeners have voted Sarah McLachlan's "Angel" (Warner Sunset/Reprise) as the No. 1 Callout America song of 1999, just edging out Brian McKnight's "Back at One" (Motown) by .002.

The pop future looks bright for MCA's Blink-182, as "What's My Age Again?" is the third-best-testing song of 1999. It's no wonder, as the band have topped the Alternative charts and are enjoying massive buzz and exposure for their cutting-edge videos on MTV

posure for their cutting-edge videos on MTV

The No. 1 most-played CHR/pop song of 1999, Sugar Ray's "Every Morning" (Lava/Atlantic), was the fourth-best-testing song of the year, followed by Eve 6's "Inside Out" (RCA).

The infectious Lou Bega hit, "Mambo No. 5 (A Little Bit Of ...)" (RCA), struck a chord with listeners of all ages as the sixth-best-testing song. Bega was followed closely by Jay-Z's "Can I Get A ..." (Def Jam/IDJMG).

Rounding out the top 10, the seventh-best-testing song is also currently No. 1 on the CHR/Pop and Hot AC charts — Santana f/Rob Thomas' "Smooth" (Arista). Orange County, CA-based Offspring hit it big in 1999 with "Pretty Fly for a White Guy" (Columbia), which checks in as the ninth-best tester. The No. 10 slot belongs to the No. 1 CHR/Rhythmic song of 1999, TLC's "No Scrubs" (LaFace/Arista).

R&R's CHR Editor Tony Novia ditches work to play with his programming buddies. Caught in the act are WNKS/Charlotte PD John Reynolds, Novia and KHKS/Dallas PD Ed Lambert.

67 CHR/Rhythmic reporters. Monitored airplay data supplied by Mediabase Research, a division of Premiere Radio Networks. Songs ranked by total plays for the airplay week of Sunday 11/28-Saturday 12/4. Bullets appear on songs gaining plays or remaining flat from previous week. If two songs are tied in total plays, the song being played 21 on more stations is placed first. Breaker status is assigned to songs reaching 1000 plays or more for the first time. Songs below No. 20 are moved to recurrent after 20 weeks. Gross Impressions equals Average Quarter Hour Persons times number of plays (times 100). Average Quarter Hour Persons used herein with permission from The Arbitron Company (Copyright 1999, The Arbitron Company). © 1999, R&R Inc.

New Acts Tops In '99

□ Turnover from '98 strikingly low as the year ends

ur 1999 year-end music wrap-up is really interesting, because it shows some of the same trends as last year's. What I mean is that once again the chart is packed with a number of new artists.

The first thing of interest is the fact that not one artist, group or duo that was in the top 10 last year made into the top 10 this year. The next thing of interest was the fact that only one artist, group or duo from last year's top 20 made into the top 20 this year, and that was K-Ci & JoJo.

On the 1998 chart Brandy and Monica came in at No. 14 with their duet "The Boy Is Mine," but this year the duo is nowhere to be seen. Brandy did make it into the top 25 this year by herself. She's at No. 24 with her single "Almost Doesn't Count." No one else from last year's top 20 was able to place in the upper part of this year's Top 99 of '99. If someone had suggested such a thing, would you have believed it? I certainly wouldn't have.

The Lowdown

Congratulations to Case, who has this year's No. 1 song, "Happily Every After" (Def Jam/IDJMG). This gives Case two songs in the top 50, as "Faded Pictures," featuring Joe, comes in at No. 34. Other artists who placed two songs on our year-end chart are 112, Total and K-Ci & JoJo, whose two songs happen to be in the top 30—"Life" at No. 18 and "Tell Me It's Real" at No. 27. Silk also placed two songs on our chart this year, "If You (Lovin' Me)" at No. 7 and "Meeting in My Bedroom" at No. 22.

There's also Missy "Misdemeanor" Elliott, Destiny's Child, Total. Brandy, Faith Evans and Eric Benet, while R. Kelly shows his muscle with "When a Woman's Fed Up" at No. 16 and "If I Could Turn Back the Hands of Time" at No. 94. Mariah Carey, Tyrese and Lauryn Hill round out the list of those with two songs on our year-end Urban chart for 1999. Tyrese did very well, placing his "Sweet Lady" in our top 10 and "Lately" in the top 20. Not bad for a newcomer.

Then there are those who placed three songs on the chart. TLC had "No Scrubs" at No. 6, "Unpretty" at No. 9 and "I'm Good at Being Bad" at No. 98. Dru Hill also had three songs on the chart, "You Are Everything," "These Are the Times" and "Beauty." Whitney Houston's trio was "Heartbreak Hotel" at No. 9, "It's Not Right but It's Okay" at No. 40 and "My Love Is Your Love" at No. 51.

Only Jay-Z had four tunes on our chart: "Can I Get A...," featuring Amil and Ja, which hit at No. 66, "Jigga Who Jigga What" at No. 75, "Jigga My..." at No. 87 and "Girls' Best Friend" at No. 88.

Our Urban top 10 was quite impressive, starting with Case at No. 1, then Jesse Powell at No. 2, 112 at No. 3, Tyrese at No. 4, my man Maxwell at No. 5 and TLC at No. 6. Silk hung in at No. 7, Lauryn Hill was strong at No. 8, Whitney was at No. 9, and one of America's favorite heartthrobs.

Eric Benet, rounded out the chart. The top 10 was male-dominated this year, with six male artists or groups present, while the ladies had four representatives. Ballads also continue to be very popular with Urban radio listeners.

Love At Urban AC

Looking at our Urban AC Top '99 of '99, Jesse Powell and his song "You" came in at No. 1. The first thing I noticed about the chart was the fact that love songs dominated — as they should. Artists like Maxwell, R. Kelly, Tyrese, Eric Benet, Whitney Houston, Deborah Cox, Chanté Moore, Lauryn Hill and Jesse Powell were the norm. It was also good to see a group like The Temptations place three songs on the Urban AC chart.

Lauryn Hill had a phenomenal five songs on the chart. "Ex-Factor" was at No. 9, and the others were spread out throughout the chart.

Others, besides The Temptations, with three songs on the chart were Whitney Houston and Deborah Cox. Those with two songs were quite numerous, so bear with me as I try to mention all of those who deserve credit for their accomplishments. The list goes like this: R. Kelly, Tyrese, Eric Benet, Case featuring Joe with "Faded Pictures" and Case solo doing "Happily Ever After," Glenn Jones, Silk, K-Ci & JoJo, Trin-I-Tee 5:7. Will Downing, Divine, Brandy, Kenny Lattimore and my personal friend Tamia.

Going Deeper

Going back to our Urban chart, we find that 28 different artists or groups managed to make it to No. 1 during 1999. Out of that 28, only two artists managed to be No. 1 for five consecutive weeks: Gintiwine with "So Anxious" (550 Music/Epic) and Donell Jones with "U Know What's Up" (Untouchables/LaFace/Arista). To be No. 1 for five weeks on the Urban chart, you have to be hot! Three others did their thing at No. 1 for three weeks: TLC, Ideal and Destiny's Child. Six artists were at No.1 for two consecutive weeks: Mary J. Blige, Dru Hill, Maxwell, Chanté Moore, R. Kelly and Tyrese.

When it comes to our Urban AC chart, there is a big difference in the number of artists who had the pleasure of having their song — or songs — make it to No. 1. Only 11 artists or groups had No. 1 songs on our chart this year. Maxwell dominated with "Fortunate" (Rock Land/Interscope/Columbia), which stayed at No. 1 for 14 consecutive weeks. Now that's popularity! Maxwell was on our chart for a total of 37 weeks with this song.

Next was Eric Benet, whose "Spend My Life With You" (Warner Bros.) was No. 1 for seven weeks and on the chart a total of 29 weeks. Two other artists had songs that were No. 1 for six weeks: Deborah Cox with "Nobody's Supposed to Be Here" (Arista) and R. Kelly with "When a Woman's Fed Up" (Jive). Brian McKnight was No. 1 for five weeks with "Back at One," and Jesse Powell did it, too, with "You." The folks who had No.1 songs for two weeks on the chart were Kevon Edmonds and Tyrese.

A Quick Look At The Record Business

Now let's look at the urban record label shares and see who deserves

kudos for their music and their efforts this year. For the fourth consecutive year Arista Records was the No. I label. It was fortunate enough to have artists like Whitney Houston, Puff Daddy, 112, TLC, Faith Evans, Total, Donell Jones. Shanice, Deborah Cox, OutKast and Angie Stone. The rest of the chart looks like this: Columbia Records Group (No. 2), Island Def Jam Music Group (No. 3), Elektra Entertainment Group (No. 4) and Interscope/Geffen/A&M (No. 5).

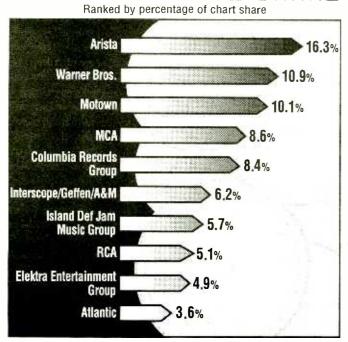

In Urban AC, Arista is once again the top performer. Our sincere congratulations to its staff. Arista was able to garner a 16.3% share of the Urban AC Chart for 1999. The rest of the top five consists of Warner Bros. (No. 2), Motown (No. 3), MCA (No. 4) and Columbia Records Group (No. 5).

Take the time to really study this year's results, and I'm sure you'll learn something that will be helpful to you in being better informed and prepared.

Obviously Private Music/Windham Hill Group recording artist Barry White knows. Last month the RIAA certified his single "Staying Power" gold. Celebrating the achievement following a performance on the Tonight Show With Jay Leno are (l-r) Windham Hill Group President Steve Vining; Leno; White; WHG VP/Marketing Ron McCarrell, VP/Field Marketing Grace Newman and VP/Sales Dave Yeskel; White's manager, Ned Shankman; and White's musical director, Jack Perry.

MEDITA	BASE	83 Urban reporters. Monitored airplay data supplied by Mediabase Research, a c	division o	f Premiere	Radio Netwo	rks. Song	s ranked by total plays for the airplay week of Sunday 11/28-Saturday 12/4. Bullets appear on songs gaining plays or remaining flat from previous week. If two songs are tied in total plays, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Breaker status is assigned to songs reaching 1000 plays or more for the first time. Songs below No. 20 are moved to recurrent after 20 weeks. Gross Impressions equals Average Quarter Hour Persons times number of plays (times 100). CHART 35

ARTIST REAKDOWN

ARTIST: EVE F/FAITH EVANS TRACK: "LOVE IS BLIND" LABEL: RUFF RYDERS/ INTERSCOPE

While riding to work with Asst. CHR Editor Renee Bell, I was her prisoner, and therefore had to listen to whatever music she played. A song came on that had such intense passion and unrelenting fury that it immediately seized my attention and held it for the duration of the song. Now, I like rap music just as much as I like any other genre: I just haven't profiled it as often as I'd like to, 'cause I can't figure out what the hell they're saying. Eve's "Love Is Blind" is an exception. The "blonde bombshell" made us take notice of her lyrical power when she was featured on The Ruff Ryders' "What Ya Want." Then she bragged about having a significant other in her single "Gotta Man." Now she reveals to us the lioness within Her unconditional love for her friend shines through the hateful words conveyed and the painful anger expressed here like a full moon on the darkest of nights. In an angry tone and with a hurting heart, Eve tells a story of love

"I don't even know you, and I hate you." Eve explodes, talking to her friend's ex-boyfriend. Not your typical narrator, Eve tells the life story of her best friend, who was killed by said boyfriend. "See all I know is that my girlfriend used to date you/How would you feel if she held you down and raped you?" questions the dynamic orator as she reads dude. Throughout the song Eve gives a scene-by-scene account of her friend's life. "She tried and tried, but she could never escape you/She was in love," explains Eve. Sista girl knew in her mind that dude was no good, but she thought she was in love and chose to deal with his abuse. As a loyal friend trying to make some sense of it all, Eve questions, "What kind of love from a n***a would black your eye?/What kind of love from a n***a every night make you cry?" Citing just a few of the painfully depressing and sad events that homegirl endured, Eve talks of how dude (obviously lacking self-confidence) "smacked homegirl down 'cause he said she was too tall for him" and stopped her from going to school to better herself. And, because he had other women, she had to deal with phone calls and fistfights. After one too many beatings, homegirl dies, and dude has the nerve to go to her mom's house to pray with the family! This is the last straw for Eve, as she cocks her gun and, with no regrets, sends him home to Lucifer.

"Love Is Blind" is one of the best records I've heard in a long time. I've been a fan of Eve ever since I heard "What Ya Want," and this single strengthens my admiration for one of the music industry's most talented rappers. Many times when we hear rap records, we think the artist is giving a depiction full of fabrications and embellishments. Sometimes that is the case: other times, though, it's not. The streets are real, ya'll, and they can be deadly. With "Love Is Blind," Eve opens our eyes to another deadly place: home. Though I love this single. I have one disagreement with Ruff Ryders' first lady: The vision of love is 20/20; it's our vision of love that is distorted. Peace.

IN MY OPINION

"Let's Make Love" Elektra/EEG

PD/MD-WESE/Tupelo, MS

Hmmm, what can I say about Silk? Only that they're one of the hottest groups out of Atlanta, and that their album is blowin' up all over the South — especially in Tupelo, Mississippi! And you can take it from Tupelo: When something is blowing up here, it's got to be good. Silk's latest single, "Let's Make Love," is the next in a long line of hits from this superstar group. I'd advise anyone to give it a listen. The ladies are gonna love it. Fellas, this is the single to play when you're with your lady. You won't have to say much, just play the single and watch things

So take Stan Allen's advice and play the song. Put it on as many times as you can. If you're playing it 30 times a week, it's not gonna hurt you, 'cause the fellas are gonna love it too. "Let's Make Love" — another super-hit from Silk.

38 Urban AC reporters. Monitored airplay data supplied by Mediabase Research, a division of Premiere Radio Networks. Songs ranked by total plays for the airplay week of Sunday 11/28-Saturday 12/4. Bullets appear on songs gaining plays or remaining flat from previous week. If two songs are tied in total plays, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Breaker status is assigned to songs reaching 350 plays or more for the first time. Songs below No. 20 are moved to recurrent after 20 weeks. Gross Impressions equals Average Quarter Hour Persons times number of plays (times 100). Average Quarter Hour Persons used herein with permission from The Arbitron Company (Copyright 1999, The Arbitron Company). © 1999, R&R Inc.

A PIONEERING NEW CONCEPT HAS BEEN BORN.

Inspiration Jam flows with an exciting two hours of contemporary Gospel creatively beat mixed with a sprinkling of classics by America's top mixers. It's a great way to program something hip and positive that is exclusive to the urban format, something CHR/Rhythm radio cannot steal or own.

> "Inspiration Jam is a great positive idea whose time has come. After listening in my office to a 26 minute segment, I was surprised, blown away, and very eager to recommend it to my group of stations. It's very radio accessible and will be a ratings powerhouse."

> > - Doc Wynter, Director, Urban Programming, Clear Channel

The Chicks Top '99 Country Airplay

☐ Seven new acts break this year with top 15 success

ince Gill was right. As The Dixie Chicks were leaving the CMA Awards show stage after picking up one of their many awards, you may recall that he quipped, "There's a new sheriff in town, folks. Get used to it."

Nowhere is that more evident than in the airplay totals for 1999. which see the Chicks leap from being No. 9 on the Most Valuable Performer list in 1998 to becoming the most played act on Country radio in 1999. The ladies from Monument went from having their first top 15 hit in '98 to the top of the format's MVP list in a single year. In fact, last year the Chicks became the first act (since I've been keeping these stats for the last decade) to break into the top 10 overall MVP list in the same year that they registered their very first top 15 hit.

Top 15 First-Timers

Here are the artists who had top 15 hits for the first time in 1999, with the number of songs (if more than one) reaching that mark in parentheses:

Chad Brock (WB/Reprise) (2)
Sara Evans (RCA)
Andy Griggs (RCA) (2)
Montgomery Gentry (Columbia) (2)
Brad Paisley (Arista) (2)
SHeDaisy (Lyric Street)
Yankee Grey (Monument)

They made the leap on the strength of four top 15 singles in the last 12 months, one of which, "You Were Mine," stayed at No. 1 for two weeks ("Cowboy Take Me Away" is in the top 15 and still climbing).

Five other artists accumulated four top 15 singles in '99: Faith Hill, Alan Jackson, Tim McGraw, George Strait and Shania Twain. If the slowdown we've seen in the last seven months on the national charts continues, this may well be the last year we see any artists ring up that many top 15 hits.

The aforementioned chart slowdown was also reflected in the fact that there were 32 fewer records that made it into the top 50 in '99 than in '98, when 255 songs reached at least No. 50. The 233 charted records in '99 were the fewest since I started keeping that stat in 1987. The previous low was 244 in 1993.

Seven Acts Hit Top 15

The slowdown, which really only affected about half of the year, was also evident in the reduced number of songs hitting the top 15. In 1999 48 different artists (one as part of a duet) contributed to 94 different songs making it into the top 15, the fewest to hit that mark since I've been doing this. Last year held the previous low figure, when 108 tunes made it to the top 15 from 50 artists. In '97 it was 56 acts and 117 songs.

Country also maintained its sluggish pace of breaking new artists, with seven new acts posting top 15 songs for the first time in 1999. That was up from four in '98 and six in '97. Of course, those numbers are off dramatically from the halcyon days of the early and mid-'90s, when this format regularly broke 12 to 15 acts per year.

The seven — Chad Brock, Sara Evans, Andy Griggs, Montgomery Gentry, Brad Paisley, SHeDaisy and Yankee Grey — posted 11 songs among the top 15. With hits by Evans and Griggs, RCA/Nashville accounted for both No. 1's delivered by artists achieving top 15s for the first time

Fewer No. 1's

As you might have expected, the number of No. 1's and the number of artists who had them both fell precipitously in '99. Last year there were a total of 18 No. 1's from 15 different artists — this from a format that has delivered over 40 chart-toppers a year since, well, it seems like forever.

The big news, of course, was Lonestar's record-setting streak

COUNTRY LABEL SHARE

Ranked by percentage of chart share

MCA puts a cap on country's most amazing decade with an incredible feat of its own: its ninth consecutive win as R&R's Country Label of the Year and a no-contest win as the Country Label of the Decade.

RCA gets Leap o' the Year honors by vaulting from seventh place last year to second this year, with a 6.9%-10.3% jump in share. Arista and Mercury were in a virtual dead heat for third, with Arista getting the nod by mere fractions. Curb cracks the top five for the first time, edging up six to five — quite an accomplishment for an independent in the land of "giants." Epic slips from fourth to sixth, BNA moves from eighth to seventh, WB/Reprise is up from ninth to eighth, Monument debuts in the top 10 at No.9, and Capitol slides from fifth to tenth.

Rounding out the labels with over 2% of chart share in 1999: Atlantic, 3.5%; Lyric Street, 3.3%; DreamWorks, 2.9%; and Columbia and Giant, 2.5% of nine weeks on top with "Amazed." And you shouldn't be amazed to also learn that it was Country's No. 1 record of 1999.

Finally, a reminder that R&R breaks out labels as separate entities if they deliver their own unique imprints to Country radio and have their own promotion departments.

Other multiple-week pinnaclepoppers were Clint Black's "When I Said I Do," which held down the top spot for the last two weeks of our chart year; Kenny Chesney's "How Forever Feels" (two weeks); Mark Chesnutt's "I Don't Want to Miss a Thing" (four); The Dixie Chicks' "You Were Mine" (two); Martina McBride's "I Love You" (five); Tim McGraw's "Please Remember Me" (three) and "Something Like That" (five); George Strait's "Write This Down" (four); Randy Travis' "Spirit of a Boy" (two); Mark Wills' "Wish You Were Here" (three); and Lee Ann Womack's "I'll Think of a Reason Later" (two).

That's the overview of 1999 in music. Next week we present the year-end review of news and how the format fared.

Country Radio's Most Valuable Performers

Which artists were the most important to Country radio in 1999? To find out, I tallied the points garnered by every charting record for every artist during the entire year. # THE YEAR IN MUSIC

Country By The Numbers

$\Box$ Female acts watched their fortunes grow in '99

f your career has been less than satisfying during the past 12 months, then it's safe to assume that you're probably not Shania Twain, Faith Hill or a member of The Dixie Chicks.

In the radio industry there's often talk about "taking it to the next level," and that's exactly what Twain and the Chicks did with their careers in 1999. Granted, when the year began, Twain had already sold 6 million copies of her current Mercury album, Come on Over. But total sales now stand at 14 million. moving the album closer to the 16 million level of the biggest-selling country album in history, Garth Brooks' No Fences. And with last month's release of a new version of Come on Over featuring producer Mutt Lange's international mixes, don't be surprised if Twain soon eclipses Brooks' sales for a single

This year the sales total also jumped to 11 million for Twain's groundbreaking 1995 album, The Woman in Me. And while Twain's self-titled debut album was not a hit when it was released in 1993, it has now reached the platinum level. Additionally, three of her video titles went platinum this year: The Complete Woman in Me, Shania Twain Live and her episode of VH1: Behind the Music.

As for The Dixie Chicks, Monument kept seeing the tally rise for the trio's major-label debut album, Wide Open Spaces. The figure now stands at 8 million, but the Chicks have also sold more than 2 million copies of their follow-up project, Fly, released in August.

It was a breakthrough year for Faith Hill, whose Warner Bros. album Faith has now sold in excess of 4 million copies. No doubt those sales were amplified by the crossover success of the platinum single "This Kiss." Her follow-up album, Breathe, was released last month.

Additionally, Martina McBride hit double platinum this year with Evolution. She followed that up with the September release of Emotion, which has already gone gold.

Considering the current achievements of female artists, it's hard to imagine that the country music industry of the '60s referred to similar artists as "girl singers." And these women's achievements extend beyond mere album sales: This year's success allowed Hill to embark on her first tour as a headliner. The Dixie Chicks spent most of '99 opening shows for George Strait and Tim McGraw, but they begin their first tour as arena headliners next year.

More Platinum

Of course, there are still male acts in country music, but a year without new music from Garth Brooks—let's make that a year without new country music from Garth Brooks—does have a decided effect on the country sales landscape. Released late last year, Brooks' two-CD concert album, Double Live, did receive RIAA certification in '99 for sales of 12 million units. However, the rock project Garth Brooks In ... The Life of Chris Gaines provided little for Country radio to play, though the album has sold 2 million copies.

George Strait's 1999 album, Always Never the Same, went platinum, but there's a lot to be said for an extensive catalog. Strait had four more titles go multiplatinum and another two hit double platinum.

Tim McGraw's latest release. A Place in the Sun, quickly hit double platinum. Among the male acts receiving their first platinum plaques in 1999: Lonestar (Lonely Grill) and Mark Wills (Wish You Were Here). On the female side, first-time platinum owners include Jo Dee Messina (I'm Alright) and Lee Ann Womack (her self-titled debut album).

Musical Chairs

Several artists found new label homes in '99. Kenny Rogers decided to become involved in the creation of his own label, Dreamcatcher. The move has already delivered major rewards, with Rogers' Dreamcatcher debut, She Rides Wild Horses, certified gold. The album's debut single, "The Greatest," also provided Rogers with a bona fide hit after a several-year absence from the R&R Country Singles chart.

Other proven hitmakers switched labels. Tracy Byrd exited MCA after the release of Keepers — Greatest Hits, but he later signed with RCA for the recently released all-new album It's About Time. Among the other changes:

- John Berry, who scored several major hits at Capitol, signed with Lyric Street and released a new album, Wildest Dreams.
- After the closing of Decca, Gary Allan moved to sister label MCA to release Smoke Rings in the Dark.
- Keith Harling, a casualty when the MCA/Decca rosters were combined, resurfaced on Giant with a new album, Bring It On.
- Danni Leigh, who lost her Decca deal when the imprint folded, signed with Monument and will release her long-awaited second album next year.

- Toby Keith exited Mercury to sign with DreamWorks for his new project, How Do You Like Me Now?
- After recovering from health problems that kept him sidelined for a couple of years, Doug Stone moved from Epic to Atlantic to release Make Up in Love.
- The Oak Ridge Boys signed with Platinum Entertainment, as did former Capitol singer/songwriter Suzy Bogguss. Both released new albums that will soon be available for free downloads on Platinum's new website, HeardOn.com
- Travis Tritt exited his longtime label home, Warner Bros., to sign with Sony Music. Another familiar name added to the Sony roster is John Anderson, who left Mercury. Both will release new albums next year.
- George Jones released Cold Hard Truth, his first album for Asylum, and scored his first radio hit in years, "Choices"
- The Mavericks shifted from MCA to Mercury, now a Universal Music Group sister label. And despite lead vocalist Raul Malo's earlier derogatory remarks about Country radio, the band returned to the format with the single "Here Comes My Baby."
- Wynonna also made a move within the Universal Music Group family after a lengthy solo alliance with Curb/MCA. Her upcoming album, New Day Dawning, will be issued on the Curb/Mercury imprint.
- Sons Of The Desert exited Epic and signed with MCA. The band are now working on their new album, set for release next year.

Other acts exited labels but still haven't finished the paperwork for their new deals. That list includes Billy Ray Cyrus, who left Mercury; Neal McCoy, who left Atlantic; and Michael Peterson, who exited Reprise shortly after the release of his second album.

Newcomers

Industry observers are always hoping to identify a single trend that will dominate country music, but there's no common musical thread among the new acts that grabbed programmers' attention this year. The Class of '99 includes everything from Brad* Paisley's traditional approach to Yankee Grey's Southern rock influence and SHeDAISY's pop sound.

RCA's Andy Griggs found immediate acceptance with his No. 1 de-

The Year In Heavy Metal Country

Here's a list of the RIAA's gold and platinum certifications for Nashville-based labels during the past 12 months, including December 1998. The information reflects RIAA-announced certifications through Nov. 30, 1999. The certifications for this month — which will reflect holiday-season retail traffic — will be released in early January.

148 Country reporters. Monitored airplay data supplied by Mediabase Research, a division of Premiere Radio Networks. Songs ranked by total points for the airplay week of Sunday 11/28-Saturday 12/4. Bullets appear on songs gaining points/ plays or remaining flat from previous week. If two songs are tied in total points/plays, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Breaker status is assigned to songs achieving airplay at 60% of reporter base for the first time. Songs that are down in points for three consecutive weeks and below No. 1 are moved to recurrent. Gross Impressions equals Average Quarter Hour Persons times number of plays (times 100). Average Quarter Hour Persons used herein with permission from The Arbitron Company (Copyright 1999, The Arbitron Company). © 1999, R&R Inc.

The biggest vocal event of 1999 took place in October, but George Strait's duet with Alan Jackson won't be heard until next year. The two superstars teamed up to record "Murder on Music Row," a song written by Larry Cordle and Larry Shell. The song will be one of the new tracks on Strait's next MCA greatest hits album, which is set for March release. Pictured at the session are (l-r) Strait's manager Erv Woolsey, MCA/Nashville Chairman Bruce Hinton, Strait, Jackson and MCA/Nashville President Tony Brown.

JULIE REEVES 'What I Need" (Virgin)

Julie Reeves' "What I Need" was an automatic add for KMLE. She's right on top of the sound we are looking for, and I love it! When I listened to the entire project, "What I Need" immediately stood out for me. It really brings Julie's talent to the forefront. It's well-produced, and most importantly, it sounds great on the air. It's a tough time right now to be breaking music, but Julie is running strong over here. Don't hesitate,

MARTINA MCBRIDE "Love's The Only House" (RCA)

Martina is on a roll, and this song only adds to her momentum! Take her powerful voice and these powerful lyrics, and you get another strong hit for Martina. "Love's the Only House" has extra-special meaning this time of year. It's a time to look to those we love and, hopefully, a time to share with those less fortunate. You go, girl! This "house" has "Wow!" written all over it!

A Little Bit Of ... History

☐ A look back at the year in music

here was definitely something for everyone this year in which it was declared that we're all "free to wear sunscreen." As the late legendary WWF grappler/commentator Gorilla Mon soon would say, "history was made" in 1999 on several AC-Hot AC-Pop/Alternative fronts. The following column begins to recap a truly memorable year and is a most fitting way to close out the decade. Part two will run 1/7.

- The Adult Contemporary chart at certain times looked schizophrenic. For a format whose demos are supposedly skewing older, one had to wonder why such younger-leaning acts as Britney Spears and boy bands The Backstreet Boys, 'N Sync, Boyzone, 98 Degrees and Savage Garden were immensely popular.
- So-called "experts" who'd totally written off onetime core performers because they were no longer relevant were relegated to chomping on those words by Thanksgiving. After all these years, veterans were still standing tall with '99 chart visits: Paul Anka's "It's Hard to Say Goodbye," a duet with Celine Dion, reached No. 26 and was his first AC chart song in 15 years; Jimmy Buffett spent two weeks at No. 30 with "Pacing the Cage"; Eric Clapton's "Blue Eyes Blue" checked in at No. 4 for three weeks; Phil Collins had a monster vear with 1999's No. 1 song; Cher can "believe" it, she's still "strong": superstar group Chicago got three more chart hits; Natalie Cole spent two weeks at No. 18 with "Snowfall on the Sahara"; Elton John had a rare chart song that didn't crack the top 10: Robert Palmer's "True Love" peaked at No. 26; Bonnie Raitt's "Lover's Will" reached No. 16; Rod Stewart's "Faith of the Heart" spent five successive weeks at No. 3; and Barbra Streisand had one chart week via a Vince Gill duet.

- This was the year of the great Latin explosion, as evidenced by Marc Anthony ("I Need To Know" hit No. 24 at AC and Hot AC in the final week of the chart year), the wonderfully infectious stylings of Lou Bega ("Mambo No. 5 ..." was a No. 2 Hot AC song), Gloria Estefan (featured on a No. 1 'N Sync track) and Enrique Iglesias ("Bailamos" spent four consecutive AC weeks at No. 13). Moreover, Ricky Martin and Carlos Santana had highly pronounced effects on the Hot AC and Pop/Alt charts
- Onetime Country-exclusive acts like Garth Brooks (as Chris Gaines), Faith Hill, Lonestar, Martina McBride, LeAnn Rimes (paired with Elton John) and Shania Twain heavily dotted AC playlists. In addition to charting three new songs, Twain's "From This Moment On." which debuted at No. 24 on Sept. 4. 1998, fell off the AC chart just last week after a 63-week run. The song spent nearly half its history (31 weeks) in the top 10, peaking at No. 1 for three straight weeks. She's by far the artist who has enjoyed the most crossover success.
  - Names heretofore familiar to us for their instrumentals were present again in '99, but with vocal variations. Keyboardist Jim Brickman had three chart appearances, all featuring different vocal partners; the inimitable "Satchmo" Louis Armstrong was brought back to life on Kenny G's "What a Wonderful World"; and multitalented John Tesh vaulted to No. 8 with "Forever More (I'll Be the One)," spotlighting James Ingram's distinctive voice.

- · Opera (yes, opera!) was represented on the AC chart for the first time by the tremendously popular and enormously gifted Andrea Bocelli on the Carole Bayer Sager-penned "The Prayer." Sarah Brightman, who has collaborated with Bocelli, reached No. 29 with her first AC chart stop, "Deliver Me." Contemporary Christian act Avalon placed "Can't Live a Day" on the AC chart (albeit for just two weeks), and Kathy Troccoli had a top 30 AC hit for the second straight year.
- Of all songs cracking the AC, Hot AC and Pop/Alternative charts, only these 11 were common to all three: Lou Bega's "Mambo No. 5 (A Little Bit Of ...)," Cher's "Believe," Jewel's "Down So Long," Madonna's "Beautiful Stranger," Ricky Martin's "Livin' La Vida Loca." Edwin McCain's "I Could Not Ask for More," Santana f/Rob Thomas' "Smooth," Sixpence None The Richer's "There She Goes," Sugar Ray's "Every Morning" and "Someday" and Shania Twain's "That Don't Impress Me Much.
- · Ouick ... name the year's charted remakes. Confident? Final answer? Among those strolling down memory lane were Michael Bolton, who covered Marvin Gaye's "Sexual Healing." The song reached No. 25 in its third week and is still climbing. Kenny G's "What a Wonderful World" is a rare "remake," in that it features the original artist (Louis Armstrong); "World" peaked at No. 18. Thanks to Austin Powers and Lenny Kravitz, Guess Who's "American Woman" was reborn on the Hot AC chart, topping out at No. 23. Na Leo delivered Phoebe Snow's 1974 hit "Poetry Man" to No. 17. Rockers Pearl Jam enjoyed their firstever Hot AC hit by smacking J. Frank Wilson & The Cavaliers' 1964 classic "Last Kiss" to No. 5. On the Christmas/holiday music front, Chicago's version of "Little Drummer Boy" and John Tesh Project's "Carol of the Bells' were both part of the AC chart late last year for two weeks

A complete column could be devoted to AC's No. 1 '99 songs, but most noteworthy was the crowning of a new longevity champion. With 19 chart-topping weeks, Phil Collins notched the impressive accomplishment with "You'Il Be in My Heart" from the Disney film Tarzan. Collins eclipsed the previous mark of 17 weeks set by Celine Dion's "Because You Loved Me."

But setting the record is only half the story. The way Collins etched his name in R&R's record book bears repeating. The song began a 10-week occupation of the top spot May 14. The Backstreet Boys displaced it July 23 with "I Want It That Way" -- and that's where the fun starts. The Boys stayed on top for two weeks: Collins returned for another week: the Boys reclaimed the lead for two Fridays, Collins and the Boys traded successive weeks at No. 1; Collins then reappeared for a two-week run; The Backstreet Boys fought back for another stay on top; and Collins finally flexed his muscle for a fiveweek residence in the penthouse. After the dust had settled two acts - Phil Collins (19 weeks) and The Backstreet Boys (six weeks) dominated the chart's top spot for more than five months (May 14-Oct. 29).

Put another way, "You'll Be in My Heart" occupied either the top or runner-up slot for 26 consecutive weeks, "I Want It That Way" did the same for 22 of 23 weeks (six at No. 1, 16 at No. 2 and one at No. 3).

Collins came roaring back Nov. 19 and in just three chart weeks zoomed the follow-up, "Strangers Like Me," to No. 13.

In addition to having the longestcharted song of the year, 'N Sync was the only artist or group with multiple No. 1's. "(God Must Have Spent) A Little More Time on You' held the lead for two weeks, and "Music of My Heart" (featuring Gloria Estefan) supplanted Phil Collins for four weeks beginning Nov. 5, meaning songs with "heart' in the title held the top spot for 23 of the 50 chart weeks.

"Angel" was the other most common word appearing in a No. 1 AC title this year. Eight weeks in the lead position was more than enough for R. Kelly & Celine Dion's "I'm Your Angel" and Sarah McLachlan's "Angel."

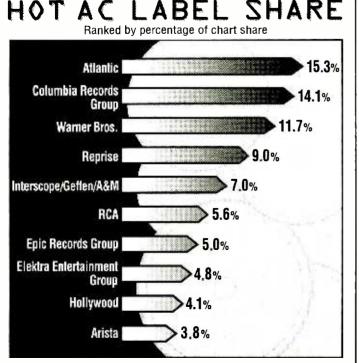

Only eight songs made it to the top this year, compared to last year's 10.

There were eight No. 1 Hot AC songs this time last year, and eight is again the magical number. All the Hot AC No. 1's were by separate artists. Of that elite group, Sugar Ray's "Every Morning" emerged as the big winner, with 11 successive weeks at the top.

Not long after this year's All-Star Game at Boston's Fenway Park. Smash Mouth's "All Star" began a nine-week reign at the top and, as expected, was used in a plethora of baseball-themed promos. Sarah McLachlan mirrored her AC accomplishment of eight No. 1 weeks in Hot AC, although March 5 and 12 were the only weeks "Angel" was No. 1 simultaneously.

In chronological order, Shawn Mullins' "Lullaby," Sarah McLachlan's "Angel," Goo Goo Dolls' "Slide," Sugar Ray's "Every Morning," Ricky Martin's "Livin' La Vida Loca," Smash Mouth's "All Star" and Santana f/Rob Thomas' "Smooth" were No.1 at both Hot AC and Pop/ Alt. Exclusions, however, were Everlast's "What It's Like" (Pop/Alt No. 1 May 21, but not a Hot AC topper) and Tal Bachman's "She's So High" (Hot AC No. 1 for four weeks, but never atop Pop/Alt). This year's total of eight No. 1 Pop/Alt songs betters last year's total by one.

108 AC reporters. Monitored airplay data supplied by Mediabase Research, a division of Premiere Radio Networks. Songs ranked by total plays for the airplay week of Sunday 11/28-Saturday 12/4. Bullets appear on songs gaining plays or remaining flat from previous week. If two songs are tied in total plays, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Breaker status is assigned to songs reaching 875 plays or more for the first time. Songs below No. 20 are moved to recurrent after 20 weeks. Gross Impressions equals Average Quarter Hour Persons times number of plays (times 100). Average Quarter Hour Persons used herein with permission from The Arbitron Company (Copyright 1999, The Arbitron Company). © 1999, R&R Inc.

96 Hot AC reporters. Monitored airplay data supplied by Mediabase Research, a division of Premiere Radio Networks. Songs ranked by total plays for the airplay week of Sunday 11/28-Saturday 12/4. Bullets appear on songs gaining plays or remaining flat from previous week. If two songs are tied in total plays, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Breaker status is assigned to songs reaching 1300 plays or more for the first time. Songs below No. 20 are moved to recurrent after 20 weeks. Gross Impressions equals Average Quarter Hour Persons times number of plays (times 100). Average Quarter Hour Persons used herein with permission from The Arbitron Company (Copyright 1999, The Arbitron Company). © 1999, R&R Inc.

YEAR IN MUSIC

The Heart Beats Soundly In 1999

☐ From established stars to breakthrough artists, NAC's musical vitality remains undiminished

or the sixth straight year, our analysis of R&R's year-end charts shows that when it comes to the music NAC/Smooth Jazz plays, all is well. New artists continue to enrich the musical gene pool, and their value has been recognized by programmers formatwide. Not surprisingly, major labels dominate the charts. But the appearance of three independents among our top 10 performing labels is a healthy and encouraging sign.

The top five ratings that all NAC/ Smooth Jazz stations used to strive for have become routine in market after market because so many programming mysteries have been solved through years of experimentation. An integral element in the format's evolution to mainstream success is the music it plays. As KSSJ/ Sacramento Station Mgr. Steve Williams observed several years ago, this format is still all about the music.

Today, tighter playlists — the big winners play between 25 and 45 currents — and an airplay commitment of numerous months (in recognition of the music's tremendous shelf life.

leading stations generally give currents 600 plays before moving them to recurrent status) have greated the necessity to play the absolute cream of the musical crop. As never before, available airplay slots must be filled with songs that break through to become audience favorites.

Top O' The Pops

New artists, who infuse any format with fresh influences and enhance its vitality, were still embraced by NAC/ SJ programmers in 1999, but fewer new artists appear on our year-end list — only eight in 1999, compared to 11 in both 1998 and 1997. Roger Smith attained the year's most noteworthy success for a new artist when his "Off the Hook" (Miramar) went to No. 1, followed by Jango, whose "With Your Love" (Samson) peakedat No. 2. Other new acts such as Kombo, Chris Gaines (a.k.a. coun try superstar Garth Brooks), Eric Essix, Dwight Sills, Bona Fide and Marcos Ariel made their marks on our charts too.

The quality of the tracks on our year-end top 10 bears favorable comparison to years past: The independent label Instinct earns top of the pops, as Gota's "In the City Life" scores No. 1. Boney James' "Into the Blue" (Warner Bros.) is second, followed by Kim Waters' "Easy Going" (Shanachie). Waters' "Nightfall" was No. 1 last year. George Benson's "Cruise Control" (GRP/ VMG) took fourth, with 3rd Force's "Revelation of the Heart" (Higher Octave) following in fifth and Najee's "Room to Breathe" (Verve/ VMG) sixth. As the year's top hit for a breakout artist. Roger Smith's "Off the Hook" (Miramar) captured seventh. Peter White's "Autumn Day" (Columbia) is eighth, Tom Scott & The L.A. Express rank ninth with "Smokin' Section" (Windham Hill Jazz), and Lee Ritenour is 10th with "This Is Love" (i.e./Verve/VMG).

Vocals played a crucial role in creating a comfort zone for P2s and P3s while pleasing core listeners. Vocals appearing in the year-end chart include Joe Sample & Lalah Hathaway's "Fever" (GRP/VMG), John Tesh & James Ingram, Natalie Cole, Kenny G & Louis Armstrong, Will Downing & Gerald Albright, Luther Vandross, Phil Collins, Chris Gaines, Vanessa Williams, Eric Clapton, Brian McKnight, Bobby Caldwell, Gabriela Anders, Kenny Lattimore, Diana Krall, Marilyn Scott and Slim Man

Label Performance

Last year, before the merger of the two labels, Verve and GRP placed third and fourth, respectively, in label performance. Since then the two entities have become one — now called the Verve Music Group - and their combined power captured first place among NAC/Smooth Jazz labels for 1999. The powerful merger gives VMG a whopping 18.6% chart share the third-highest of any label in any format. The Verve/GRP roster, which includes such fine veteran artists as George Benson, Joe Sample, David Benoit. Lee Ritenour and Naiee and newer acts like Diana Krall, Chris Botti, Marc Antoine, Kombo and JK, dominated 1999's NAC/Smooth Jazz charts. Guitarist Jeff Golub, newly signed by VP/

A&R Bud Harner, will supply additional wattage to the Verve Group's jazz dynamo in 2000. Warner Bros. placed a strong second in label performance with an 11.3% chart share. Gold-certified saxophonist Boney James scored the No. 2 track of '99 with "Into the Blue," while "Body Language" came in at 28. Norman Brown made his label debut with Celebration, which spawned the hit "Out'a Nowhere," and his "Celebration" is climbing the chart at year's end. Saxophonist Kirk Whalum and supergroup Fourplay, along with Quincy Jones, Gabriela Anders and Marilyn Scott, all contributed to the label's impressive airplay action. With the recent addition of Rick Braun to the roster and several imaginative collaborations upcoming, Warner Bros.' Exec. VP/GM Jazz Matt Pierson has put all the pieces together to continue the ride well into 2000.

Up from fifth place last year, independent label Shanachie Entertainment earns third-place honors, fueled by the success of such artists as Kim Waters, Nelson Rangell, Walter Beasley, Nestor Torres, Chuck Loeb and Special EFX.

Atlantic places fourth - down from first in '98 — with entries from Steve Cole, Rick Braun, Brian Culbertson, Jeff Golub and Wayman Tisdale. Braun and Golub have departed the label, but Culbertson and Cole - two of the most vibrant young voices in smooth jazz - remain to continue Atlantic's NAC legacy.

NAC/SMOOTH JAZZ LABEL SHARE

The Windham Hill Jazz roster represents many veteran artists with high marquee value, such as The Rippingtons, Tom Scott, Spyro Gyra, Earl Klugh and Phil Perry. along with newer artists such as Jim Brickman (who has enjoyed noteworthy crossover success) and the fabulous Braxton Brothers. Windham Hill handily takes fifth Appearing among the top 10 labels for the first time since 1996, independent Instinct Records placed sixth and can claim the distinction of having the year's No. 1 track, Gota's "In the City Life." Brian Tarquin, Shakatak, Nite Flyte and Chris Standring also enhanced Instinct's airplay track record for the year.

Returning to the top 10 this year in seventh place is Higher Octave Music. 3rd Force (with support from Peter White and Brian Hughes) has the No. 5 track of '99 with "Revelation of the Heart," while Grant Geissman's groovy "Did I Save" and tracks from Craig Chaquico, Bryan Savage and Dancing Fantasy also enlivened the airwaves.

Superstar guitarist Peter White was the engine of eighth-place Columbia's NAC/Smooth Jazz success in 1999. He has three tracks in the top 100, including his "Autumn Day" at No. 8. Airplay on tracks by Mariah Carey and Kenny Lattimore contributed to Columbia's standing as

Blue Note places ninth, with Richard Elliot's "Ain't Nothing Like the Real Thing" and "Chill Factor" providing much of the momentum. Dave Koz's cover of "I'll Be There" earned considerable airplay early in Independent label Zebra Records re-enters the top 10 after a one-year absence. Brian Bromberg's hit "September," No. 14 on the year-end chart, was responsible for most of the label's airplay in 1999, but his track "Hero" and Jeff Lorber's "Midnight" were additional factors.

43 NAC/Smooth Jazz reporters. Songs ranked by total plays for the airplay week of Sunday 11/28-Saturday 12/4. Bullets appear on songs gaining plays or remaining flat from previous week. If two songs are tied in total plays, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Breaker status is assigned to songs reaching 400 plays or more for the first time. Songs below No. 20 are moved to recurrent after 20 weeks. Gross Impressions equals Average Quarter Hour Persons times number of plays (times 100). # NAC notes with Carol Archer

s it does every year at this time, our chart has slowed dramatically. In fact, there is barely any movement among the top 12 tracks, except for Joyce Cooling's "Callie" (Heads Up), which trades places with Dave Koz's "Together Again" (Capitol) with a move to 2*. You'll notice a dearth of bullets too; rotations are slowing down, plus four reporters froze their lists or didn't report.

In light of the diminished activity, the following tracks stand out. Kenny Garrett's "Simply Said" (Warner Bros.) is among Most Increased and moves 16-14*/Breaker with two new adds. Richard Elliot's "On the Fly" (Blue Note) also earns two adds. The track is second Most Increased, too, and gains 18-16*. Brian Hughes' excellent "Shakin' Not Stirred" (Higher Octave) rises 26-23*, while

Walter Beasley's "Nice and Easy" (Shanachie) debuts at 25* and is second Most Added, with eight stations throwing support its way. Grover Washington Jr.'s "The Night Fantastic" (Columbia) at 29 picks up four adds

Top Most Added, with 14 new reports, is Boney James' "Boneyizm" (Warner Bros.), another outstanding entry from the topperforming seller Body Language. It's a tribute to the depth and richness of this tune that a programmer of KTWV/L.A. APD/MD Ralph Stewart's standing recognized the value of this track and championed it for many weeks before the official release of the single. "Boneyizm" stands out on Los Angeles airwaves. Now it's added at WVMV/Detroit, KWJZ/Seattle and WNWV/Cleveland, among many others (see "Heads Up" below).

Not surprisingly, Kenny G's "Auld Lang Syne" (Arista) earned four adds, and that number is sure to increase over the coming weeks. The track's emotional appeal is certain to engage listeners at the deepest level — after all, it's the soundtrack of the waning 20th century.

When it comes to creative marketing, Windham Hill is known for connecting all the dots. One of the label's current seasonal projects, Winter Solstice on Ice, is as intriguing for its multifaceted marketing campaign as it is for the music — 29 tracks in all! — contained on the discs. Windham Hill's VP/Marketing, Ron McCarrell, gives an overview,

This idea was born from Windham Hill Pres. Steve Vining. We've been casting about for a couple of years to find a tie-in to figure skating, which is enormously popular. People love beautiful music combined with the grace of ice skating. Also, we were looking for a way to breathe new life into our Winter Solstice line, which has become a pretty strong brand for Windham Hill. We've done Winter Solstice projects over the past dozen years, and this edition is the eightly release in the series. Our VP/Strategic Mktg. Faithe Raphael, took on the project, although Steve. Patrick Clifford and myself were also involved in different aspects along the way.

Faithe spearheaded the TV production. It was organized around a group of skaters, many of them former Clympians, including multi-gold medalist Brian Boitano. They all went to Finland, and most of the show was filmed on an iceberg! Everyone went out by an icebreaker ship and were out there for a couple of days. They leveled this huge block of ice out in the open ocean — it must have been several square acres! — and created a skating area on it. Along with this we had a number of our artists there, including Jim Brickman, who is the show's host and narrator, along with Tuck & Patti, Samite and Jettrey Osborne. Although they weren't there, we've also got performances from Phil Perry, Peabo Bryson, The Rippingtons, David Arkenstone and several others in the production as well. If I do say so, it turned out better than anyone could have dreamed as both a show and a musical package.

We have three products that we're marketing around all of this. There are the two CDs for the price of one, a DVD and a VHS video and the television special itself, which ran last weekend on A&E. The Nestfe's product Taster's Choice is the title sponsor, and they put up money for that privilege. A&E is doing direct response for the video products and the CD within the body of the show.

Heads

Boney James "Boneyizm" Warner Bros.

We added Boney James' "Boneyizm" back in early July (talk about your premature adulation). There is something very compelling about the interplay between Boney and

Rick Braun on the song. They are tied at the groove from beginning to end and build off of one another throughout. As with any meaningful conversation, there is no sense of competition between the two participants in the exchange. Boney and Rick let the vibe take over and allow their dialogue to create its own entity. If this song is any indication of their forthcoming collaborative project, we are in for an incredible album. Fortunately for us, when the "monsters of smooth" get together, they don't clash; they only use their powers for good.

Recent Trend Of Fewer Hit Records Continues In 1999

☐ Less music vs. fewer decisionmakers

ver the last four years the number of songs that have made it into the top 15 has steadily decreased. At Active Rock 97 songs placed in the upper tier of the charts in 1996. That dipped to 90 songs in 1997 and 82 songs in 1998. This year that number dips to 75. The situation was similar at Rock: In 1996 there were 99 songs that made it to the top 15. That was followed by 90 songs in 1997 and 83 songs in 1998. This year the figure drops to 77.

It would be a good guess that the prime reason fewer songs made the top 15 was radio consolidation. Or the decrease in hits could be attributed to a shorter attention span among listeners. But even as the number of "hit" songs decreases, the total number of plays on the biggest tracks of the year has steadily increased. At Active Rock the No. 1 record in 1996 had received 43,361 plays on 76 stations at the end of the year. In 1997 the No. 1 record received 49,597 plays on 82 stations, and in 1998 the No. 1 record received 53,263 plays on 76 stations. This year the No. 1 track picked up 59,448 plays on just 75 stations!

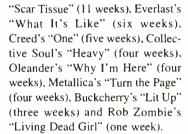

A parallel exists at Rock. In 1996 the No. 1 record had 36,125 plays on 88 stations. The following year the No. 1 track earned 43,523 plays on 81 stations. By 1998 that figure grew to 51,782 on 86 stations. This year the results show an increase to 52,752 — a remarkable feat considering that there were only 73 stations at the end of the year.

30 Weeks Or More

Longevity is king when it comes to the year-end charts. The six Active Rock records with the longest chart life were all in the top 10. Oleander's "Why I'm Here" and Godsmack's "Whatever" each led the pack with 34 weeks on the chart. Godsmack's "Keep Away" enjoyed 33 weeks on the chart, Korn's "Freak on a Leash" and Creed's "One" both held on for 31 weeks, and Rob Zombie's "Living Dead Girl" stayed on for 30 weeks.

It's interesting to note that the average chart life for the majority of Rock singles was not as long. Only three Rock tracks survived for 30 weeks or more: Collective Soul's "Heavy" enjoyed 34 weeks. Oleander's "Why I'm Here" earned 33 weeks, and Creed's "One" won 31 weeks on the Rock chart.

Nine songs accomplished the coveted goal of reaching No. 1 status on the Active Rock chart this year. They were: Creed's "Higher" (12 weeks at No. 1), Red Hot Chili Peppers'

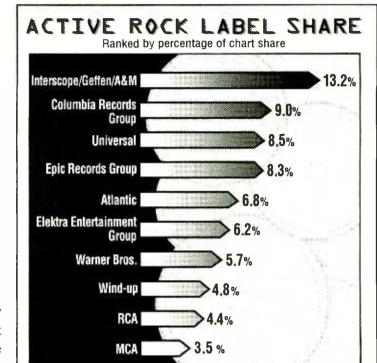

On the Rock side, seven songs made it to No. 1 in 1999. They were: Collective Soul's "Heavy" (15 weeks at No. 1). Def Leppard's "Promises" (nine weeks), Creed's "Higher" (10 weeks), Red Hot Chili Peppers' "Scar Tissue" (seven weeks), Black Crowes' "Kickin' My Heart Around" (four weeks), Metallica's "Turn the Page" (three weeks) and Sammy Hagar's "Más Tequila" (two weeks).

Label Shares

Last year Columbia shared firstplace honors with Capitol in Active Rock, but the combining of Interscope, Geffen and A&M into one label group proved formidable in 1999. Of the latter, last year only Geffen was in the top 10, but this year the company rises to No. 1 with approximately 13% of the Active Rock chart share. Columbia and C2 were merged into one entity called The Columbia Records Group, which moved to second place this year with 9% of the overall chart share. Universal soared from nowhere last year to rank third in 1999. Likewise, RCA (No. 9) and MCA (No. 10) enjoyed plenty of forward momentum to place in the top 10.

On the Rock side, Columbia skyrocketed to No. 1 with nearly 12% of the overall chart share, up from last year's third-place finish. Interscope/Geffen/A&M rose to second place this year, Warner Bros. rose to third from last year's fifth place, and Elektra climbed from 10th to No. 4. As it did in Active Rock, Universal made a strong leap to land at No. 6. Similarly, the Island Def Jam Music Group (No. 9) and RCA (No. 10) also made noteworthy appearances.

Top 10 Most Added

In Active Rock the No. 1 Most Added track for the year was Metallica's "No Leaf Clover," with 73 adds out of 75 reporters (R&R 11/26). Alice In Chains' "Get Born Again" was a close No. 2, with 72 adds out of 78 reporters (6/4). In at No. 3 was Creed's "Higher," with 69 adds out of 70 reporters (9/3). The remaining Most Added were: No. 4, Korn's "Falling Away From Me," 68 adds out of 76 reporters (11/5); No. 5, Stone Temple Pilots' "Down," 67 adds out of 68 reporters (9/24); No. 6, Live's "The Dolphin's Cry," 67 out of 70 reporters (8/27); No. 7, Bush's "The Chemicals Between Us." 65 adds out of 69 reporters (9/ 17); No. 8 Red Hot Chili Peppers' "Scar Tissue" 65 out of 78 (5/28): No. 9 Filter's "Welcome to the Fold," 62 out of 71 (7/16); and No. 10. Days Of The New's "Enemy," 61 out of 71 (7/30).

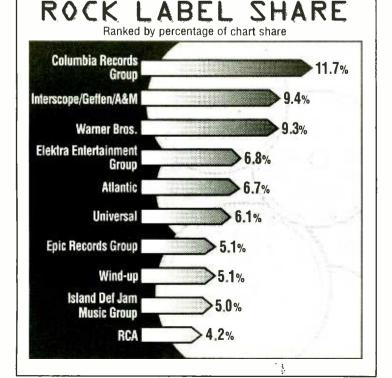

Over at Rock 1999's No. 1 Most Added track was Sammy Hagar's "Más Tequila." with 81 adds out of a possible 87 reporters (R&R 3/5). No. 2 was Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers' "Free Girl Now." with 76 adds out of 87 reporters (2/26). No. 3 was Def Leppard's "Promises," 68 out of 82 reporters (5/28); No. 4, Metallica's "No Leaf Clover," 65 out of 73 (11/26); No. 5, Creed's "Higher," with 63 out of 71 (9/3); No. 6, Live's "The Dolphin's Cry," 61 out of 72 (8/27); No. 7, Kenny Wayne Shepherd Band's "In 2 Deep," 60 out of 70 (10/1); No. 8, Stone Temple Pilots' "Down," 57 out of 70 (9/24); No. 9, Lenny Kravitz's "American Woman," 54 out of 82 (5/14); and No. 10, Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers' "Room at the Top," 53 out of 82 (4/9).

This Is How We Do It

Here is a brief overview of R&R's methodology pertaining to the year-end charts: Our chart year consisted of 50 weeks of airplay from issues dated Dec. 11, 1998 through Dec. 3, 1999. The Top 99 of '99 are ranked by total plays on each song during that time period. All current and recurrent plays are included for every song.

In next week's Rock column we'll provide you with an overview of the year's most newsworthy topics in our format.

The Static X road show stopped at KRTQ/Tulsa to visit with PD/MD Chris Kelly recently. Shown here (l-r) are Wayne Static, Kelly, Ken Jay, Tony Campos and Koichi Fukuda.

Most Added is the total number of new adds officially reported to R&R by each reporting station. Songs unreported as adds do not count toward overall total stations playing a song. Most Increased Plays lists the songs with the greatest week-to-week increases in total plays. Weighted chart appears on R&R ONLINE MUSIC TRACKING.

72 Rock reporters. Monitored airplay data supplied by Mediabase Research, a division of Premiere Radio Networks. Songs ranked by total plays for the airplay week of Sunday 11/28-Saturday 12/4. Bullets appear on songs gaining plays or remaining flat from previous week. If two songs are tied in total plays, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Breaker status is assigned to songs reaching 400 plays or more for the first time. Songs below No. 20 are moved to recurrent after 20 weeks. Gross Impressions equals Average Quarter Hour Persons times number of plays (times 100). Average Quarter Hour Persons used herein with permission from The Arbitron Company (Copyright 1999, The Arbitron Company). © 1999, R&R Inc.

75 Active Rock reporters. Monitored airplay data supplied by Mediabase Research, a division of Premiere Radio Networks. Songs ranked by total plays for the airplay week of Sunday 11/28-Saturday 12/4. Bullets appear on songs gaining plays or remaining flat from previous week. If two songs are tied in total plays, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Breaker status is assigned to songs reaching 600 plays or more for the first time. Songs below No. 20 are moved to recurrent after 20 weeks. Gross Impressions equals Average Quarter Hour Persons times number of plays (times 100). Average Quarter Hour Persons used herein with permission from The Arbitron Company (Copyright 1999, The Arbitron Company). © 1999, R&R Inc.

Hollywood, Beverly Hills, South Central, Downtown — Los Angeles has it all, and each is a stone's throw from one central point. Do you think Crazy Town had that in mind when they named themselves? All seven members are City of Angels natives whose roots are apparent in the mixture of hip-hop, rock and rap on their Columbia debut, The Gift of Game.

L.A. has long been a Mecca for everything musical. Virtually every genre of music can be traced in one way or another to the Sunset Strip. Rock, glam, hip-hop — you name it, it was born here or made its impact here. It's no surprise, then, that seven Southern California natives could get together and create music that combines all these influences in an artful way. Headed by Epic Mazur and Shifty Shellshock. Crazy Town deliver guitars, turntables and backbeats. all in one neat package.

The first single from The Gift of Game, "Toxic." has been spinning on specialty shows for some time now, and programmers are beginning to take notice. "Toxic" has a funky beat you can mosh to, and it isn't the only track to fulfill that need. Lyrically, Crazy Town twist and turn through relationships. life in the city and the trials everyone faces — they just happen to rock, rap and scratch their way through them. Skillfully sampling Red Hot Chili Peppers' "Pretty Little Ditty" on "Butterfly." Crazy Town pay homage to the woman every man hopes to find. They have found a unique way of drawing listeners in musically first.

Crazy Town

then slapping them in the face with the lyrics.

Mazur and Shellshock grew up listening to The Cure, Beastie Boys and N.W.A. Six years ago they started creating music together, and after several side projects (Black Eyed Peas, for one) they decided to make music of their own. They grabbed bassist Faydoedeelay, guitarists Rust Eique and Trouble Valli, D.I A.M. for turntables and drummer JB.I. recruited producer Josh Abraham (Orgy, Coal Chamber) and a couple of special guests, such as Jay Gordon of Orgy, KRS-One and Mad Lion, went into the studio, and voila! Hip-hoppers who rock, complete with riffs.

"Toxic" is getting top 10 phones at WXTM/St. Louis. PD Tommy Mattern loves the record and says, There is a lot out there right now with a similar sound. Crazy Town stuck out in the crowd and has the most potential.

Mazur describes his band as "loud and obnoxious!" Loud, yes. Obnoxious - well, that is a matter of opinion. Maybe he should have tried "obnoxiously good.'

HEYEAR IN MUSIC

A Six Pack Lasts A Full Year

☐ A glut of great new music was tempered by tighter playlists in 1999

ore than anything else, 1999 was a year in which the demographic focus of the format finally seemed to settle toward the young end. The large-scale move toward embracing younger-appealing and harder acts was primarily due to a new musical trend that hit with a great deal of force. Fueling that trend was a revitalized flow of alternative music powered by Kid Rock, Limp Bizkit, Rage Against The Machine and other bands that fused hip-hop and rock. All told, it led to a boom year for both radio ratings and record sales.

While there was a lot of press about the return of rock, the truth is that rock didn't return, it changed. Hip-hop, a concept for the most part verboten in the rock genre in the past, was fully embraced by this year's class of breakthrough artists. The resulting fusion of hip-hop and camp is a question that has yet to be answered, but the fact that a step has been made is important in and

Pop-Rock Still Drives Format

Despite the dramatic success of harder-sounding songs, straight-rock galvanized the 12-24 audience in a way not seen since grunge exploded five years ago. Luckily, Alternative radio has always incorporated new sounds, and the format has taken full advantage of this one.

One of the seminal moments in Alternative radio's welcoming of hip-hop into the formatic fold was when Eminem hit the charts with his song "My Name Is." Eminem became the first pure hip-hop artist to chart at the format since Public Enemy. Whether the format will move any further into the hip-hop ahead pop-rock still drives the forof the grunge explosion.

While the musical trends were

mat. You need look no further than the biggest songs of the year for proof. In fact, Lit's "My Own Worst Enemy" received nearly twice as much airplay as Limp Bizkit's "Nookie" and Korn's "Freak on a Leash" combined. If you think that the popularity of mass-appeal rock this past year is an anomaly, you'd better look to the past. A grunge song never finished at No. 1 on the year-end charts, even at the height

The Few, The Proud

Here they are, the six songs that were able to hit the top of the chart over the past year. These songs stayed at No. 1 for an average of more than two months.

hard to miss - and while record company executives were certainly happy with the sales results — there was also a tangible change in the way the music was handled by radio. A close look at both the charts and the individual playlists makes it pretty clear that the format's approach to music tightened considerably in 1999.

The first clue to this is a striking one: Only six songs hit No. 1 in the past year. This is dramatically lower than in any previous year. In fact, the previous record low was in 1998, when 12 songs hit No. 1. But looking at the number of songs to hit the top spot tells only part of the story, as there were just as many songs that parked themselves at No. 2 for long periods of time. The perfect example of this is Red Hot Chili Peppers' "Scar Tissue" and Blink-182's "What's My Age Again?" which were on the chart at about the same time. "Scar Tissue" broke the record for most weeks at No. 1, while "What's My Age Again?" stayed at No. 2 for almost as long as "Scar Tissue" was at the top. Clearly, the format found hit records and stuck with them for unprecedented lengths of time.

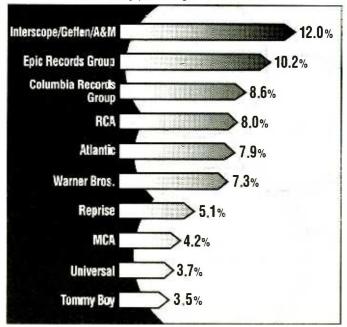

The move toward sticking with the hits longer seems directly linked to the adoption of callout research. a tool that has become increasingly common within the format. With the adoption of callout research, programmers can finally see just how long it takes for their audience to tire of a hit record. The result? Songs stay on playlists for longer and longer periods of time. In fact. the low number of songs that hit No. I this year seems to be the culmination of a trend that mirrors the adoption of callout. In 1996 17 songs hit No. 1. That decreased to 12 in 1997 and 1998 — and in 1999, as I stated, we end the year with only six No. 1's.

Label Frustration

While the tightening of the music in the face of a glut of strong releases helped radio's case dramatically, it certainly led to a great deal of frustration on the label side I don't believe I've ever seen a fourth quarter with so much great music being stalled on the charts not because the music didn't look like it could deliver, but because there was so much music already performing strongly in front of it.

ALTERNATIVE LABEL SHARE

Ranked by percentage of chart share

This affected not only baby bands, but superstar artists as well. In fact, it even affected bands that were trying to follow up on their own insanely successful first tracks. Has there ever been a year in which so many labels continually pushed back the add dates for follow-up singles because the first singles were still in power rotation across the country?

The good news is that the format is poised for an excellent new year of music. The popularity of the current music trend doesn't seem anywhere close to waning, and the albums that have been released recently are deep with strong songs. In fact, with a first quarter that looks like it will be filled with fresh, exciting new talent, the format is probably in the best musical position in its history.

Record Breakers In '99

Bush made history toward the end of the year when their single "The Chemicals Between Us" was added by every single radio station on the Alternative panel in the same week.

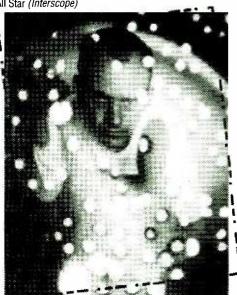

The Red Hot Chili Peppers set a record that may stand for a very, very long time: 16 weeks in a row at No. 1, surpassing the previous record by over a month.

82 Alternative reporters. Monitored airplay data supplied by Mediabase Research, a division of Premiere Radio Networks. Songs ranked by total plays for the airplay week of Sunday 11/28-Saturday 12/4. Bullets appear on songs gaining plays or remaining flat from previous week. If two songs are tied in total plays, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Breaker status is assigned to songs reaching 1000 plays or more for the first time. Songs below No. 20 are moved to recurrent after 20 weeks. Gross Impressions equals Average Quarter Hour Persons times number of plays (times 100). SIMON SAYS
Track: "LIFE JACKET"

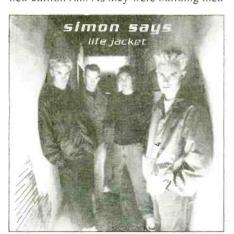

LP: JUMP START

Label: HOLLYWOOD

Jeanette Grgurevic
Asst. Alternative Editor

ssentials: The youngsters who make up Simon Says (Matt Franks, vocals; Zac Diebels, guitar; Michael Arrieta, bass; and Mike Johnston, drums) are fun, energetic and, despite their young age, can write some pretty grown-up songs.

Simon Says formed in 1993 in their hometown of Sacramento, CA (a.k.a. "Sac") while the members were still in high school, but it wasn't until a couple of years later that Franks, Diebels and Johnston added the final member, Arrieta. The foursome started playing Northern California high schools and soon after put out their first self-released album, Little Boy. which sold over 5,000 copies. In 1997 Perfect Examples old out its limited-edition run. As they were building their fan base and grabbing the attention of a local Rock station, Hollywood Records took notice and signed them in early '98.

Their debut label release, Jump Start, was produced by Grammy-winning producer Rob Cavallo (Green Day) and Mark Needham (Cake) and written almost entirely in only six weeks.

According to Franks, when the boys were ready to start recording their new tracks, they entered their recording studio only to find the lights turned off and the entire room lit with candles. Apparently, the studio people were expecting "artistes" instead of four young, energetic kids who prefer bubble gum and soda pop to patchouli oil and latte. Franks says, "For a joke we put all the candles together in the shape of a pentagram."

Simon Says may like to goof off, but they work much harder then most kids their age. They've been on the road for the past 10 months and just recently finished touring with Filter. After the holidays they will continue to tour with Static-X. Be sure to catch their live show, which is supposed to be full of surprises.

Artist POV: Franks and Diebels on playing live: "We don't really need lots of lights and stuff. We just jump around and feel the music and the audience's energy. Hey, we'll be jumping around even if we're just playing for the bartender and nobody else."

89X/CIMX/Detroit, MI "Phatt" Matt Franklin, MD

It looks like Kid Rock's "Only God Knows Why" will be the anthem of the Christmas season. Phones are really picking up on it, and it sounds great on the air. Also Methods Of Mayhem's "Get Naked" is starting to get some phone activity. The song I'm most excited about is Suicide Machines' new single, "Sometimes I Don't Mind." The record won't be out till February, but since they're local and we love them, we immediately threw them on our feature "The People's Choice." So far, it's getting a great reaction, and it is currently the champ. There's also another really great song on the record called "Extraordinary," which I think can be really big. The fourth quarter is finally winding down, and we just put on our sold-out Christmas show, "The Night 89'X Stole Christmas," which featured Bush, among others. There was a huge fan reaction to the new Bush single, "Letting the Cables Sleep," after only a few spins. I'm really liking some of the electronic stuff that's out there, like the new Apollo Four Forty, "Stop the Rock," Groove Armada's "I See You Baby" and Basement Jaxx's "Rendez-vu."

For only the sixth time in 1999, we have a new No. I song. Blink-182's "All the Small Things" squeaked past Bush's "The Chemicals Between Us" by sine spins to hit No. I. The fight for No. I was incredibly close, with fewer than 100 spins separating No. I from No. 4 __ On the adds front, Stone Temple Pilots are No. I host Added, with 35 adds this week. "Heaven & Hox Rods" more than doubled the add total of the No. 2 finisher, the young band Chevelle. Chevelle had a great add week of their own, pulling in almost 20 adds on their second single, "Point #1" ... Joydrop, Kid Rock and Third Eye Blind all pulled in double-digit adds this week, as the radio and record industries slow down for the holidays ... Fith things slowing down, what do we have on the horizon? Well, there will be plenty of killer second and third singles. The format's been lucky, in that bands like Rage Against The Machine and Third Eye Blind delivered albums deep with singles. There will also finally be the opportunity for some singles to break through that have been hanging tough for a while. Great songs like Methods Of Mayhem's "Get Nabed" shit at retail this week), Owsley's "I'm Alright" (5 adds). Incubus "Pardon Me" (25-23 and a Beazer). Gay Dad's "Joy" and Powerman 5000's "Nobody's Real" (40-32) will get that second wind opportunity Septical about the possibility of a second wind? Look at Fuel: "Sunourn" keeps its bullet in the top 30 almost two years."

after the album's initial release. Also, don't be surprised early in 2000 we see some more superstar releases, including Smashing Pumpkins and possibly a new No Doubt album. Finally, you can be sure the new year will bring plenty of exciting new artists for the format, some of whom will surprise us with their musica vision, and some of whom are so good, radio is already playing them. Here's one that isn't waiting until the new millennium to go for adds: RECORD OF THE WEEK: Moby "Natural Blues"

New Music Specialty Shows

R&R's Exclusive Look At The Cutting Edge Of Alternative

Holy Smokes

Jeanette Grgurevic Asst. Alternative Editor

Chevelle swipe the No. 1 spot for the second week in a row, and Breakbeat Era make it to the top 5 once again this week. I'm not sure if you've heard the news about Breakbeat Era, but their album has been chosen as one of Alternative Press magazine's 10 Essential Albums of 1999 and 100 Best Albums of the '90s. That's pretty darn impressive, if you ask me. And Breakbeat Era aren't the only ones that are stopping the rock this week. Apollo Four Forty are at an impressive No. 2 — up from last week's No. 9 with their single "Stop the Rock," which should prove to be a smash early next year. By the way, is it just me, or has their name gotten longer since their last release?

The Deftones are in the studio, working on a new record to be released in early 2000 on Maverick Records. These guys are definitely worthy of the airwaves. Maverick has relaunched the band's website at www.deftones.com, and the site will be updated regularly with new songs, photos, exclusive videos and all sorts of other groovy things. Check it out when you get a chance

Punk rock rules! That would explain why No Use For A Name have been on the chart for seven weeks now. Speaking of punk rock, have you checked out all the cool stuff on Drive Thru Records, like Allistar or The RX Bandits? Allistar do a cover of The Backstreet Boys' "I Want It That Way" that is totally hilarious. Be on the lookout for their compilation, You'll Never Eat Fast Food Again.

A quick note to all the label peeps: J.J. Thomas' hot little specialty show on KRAD/Corpus Christi, TX, Rad Radio, is new to the Specialty panel, so don't forget to put him on your mailing list. Records Of The Week: Sunset Valley, Supreme Beings Of Leisure

1999: It's Still All About The Music

□ Format embraces core artists and mass-appeal hits

By Mark Solovicos Editorial & Charts Coordinator

his year's R&R analysis of the Adult Alternative year-end chart is similar to last year's, in that the format remains unique with its blend of exclusive core artists and mass-appeal hits. Adult Alternative is a consistent breaking ground for new talent and is driven by the major labels that use the format as a secret weapon for artist development. Market-to-market diversity particularly distinguishes Adult Alternative from other formats, and, as witnessed by the 1999 year-end chart, its ability to break new music into the mainstream has perhaps never been stronger.

The shining example for 1999 is the unstoppable Santana, as "Smooth" (Arista), featuring Rob Thomas, easily grabs the top spot on R&R's year-end chart. "Smooth" racked up a recordbreaking 13 weeks at No. 1, and the early Adult Alternative airplay began a wave of success that sent the song into the upper regions of four other format charts. The scenario was similar to that for 1998's top song, "Iris" by Goo Goo Dolls (Warner Sunset/Reprise).

Loyal As Ever

Adult Alternative continues to demonstrate a strong loyalty to its core artists, as evidenced by tracks on the year-end chart from such artists as Sheryl Crow, R.E.M. and Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers. Crow placed four tracks from her There Goes the Neighborhood collection on the chart, with "Anything but Down" hitting the top in April and staying for seven weeks.

On the other side of the coin, Adult Alternative stations maintained their own unique and diverse set of artists, as evidenced by Van Morrison's "Precious Time" (Point Blank/Virgin) landing at No. 6 for the year. Such artists as Wilco, Chris Isaak, Sinead Lohan and Lucinda Williams all appeared in the year-end top 30. That each of these artists has long prospered at the format also suggests that Adult Alternative does not always subscribe to an inflexible mass-appeal song philosophy.

Label Leaders

Universal's combined Interscope/Geffen/A&M labels packed a major punch, blasting into No. 1 for 1999 on the strength of such artists as Sheryl Crow, Jonny Lang, Sting and Smash Mouth. That's a significant achievement for the new entity, since none of the three labels appeared in last year's top 10. The powerful merger gives Interscope/Geffen/A&M 14.2% chart share, with Adult Alternative being one of three formats in which the Los Angeles-based company ranked No. 1 (the others were Active Rock and Alternative).

Warner Bros. improved its performance from fourth place in '98 to second this year with three year-end top 10 hits—"Human" by The Pretenders, "Scar Tissue" by Red Hot Chili Peppers and Goo Goo Dolls' "Slide." Warner Bros. also released tracks from such Adult Alternative core acts as Tom Petty and R.E.M., and the label boasts 13% chart share.

New and returning labels to this year's top 10 include Columbia Records Group, Arista and Island Def Jam Music Group.

The No. 1 Club

Santana's "Smooth" clocked the most weeks at the top of the Adult Alternative chart this year, with 13 — nearly double the time spent there by second-place "Run" by Collective Soul. "Daysleeper" by R.E.M. was the lone carry-over from 1998 to 1999. The track predominantly charted last year with three weeks at No. 1, but maintained into the 1999 chart year to make both surveys.

ADULT ALTERNATIVE LABEL SHARE

Clear Channel's KACD/Los Angeles recently donated $9,100 to the local Eastside Boys & Girls Club of Los Angeles. To raise the revenue, Channel 103.1 held an on-air ticket auction for listeners to phone in and bid for tickets to the station's one-year anniversary concert, which featured a plethora of heavyweight performers. All of this was done in conjunction with the Bonnie Raitt/Fender Guitar Program. Seen here with KACD staffers and the high bidders are Shawn Colvin, Jackson Browne (front row, third and fourth from l), Raitt and Bruce Hornsby (second row, second and third from l).

31 Adult Alternative reporters. Monitored airplay data supplied by Mediabase Research, a division of Premiere Radio Networks. Songs ranked by total plays for the airplay week of Sunday 11/28-Saturday 12/4. Bullets appear on songs gaining plays or remaining flat from previous week. If two songs are tied in total plays, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Breaker status is assigned to songs reaching 250 plays or more for the first time. Songs below No. 20 are moved to recurrent after 20 weeks. Gross Impressions equals Average Quarter Hour Persons times number of plays (times 100). Average Quarter Hour Persons used herein with permission from The Arbitron Company (Copyright 1999, The Arbitron Company). © 1999, R&R Inc.

By Erica Farber

utspoken, opinionated, full of attitude and moving at a speed faster than light are all words and phrases that could be used to describe Marc Chase.

As one of Clear Channel's Regional Vice Presidents, this Alabama son oversees programming for approximately one-third of the company's stations. Traveling somewhere at least once a week, he has adapted extremely well to the new world of consolidation. With all of the changes that have occurred. Chase is not one to sit on the sidelines he is a total player. Although he admits to working more than ever, he follows a well-thought-out plan of action that will not allow him to take for granted his family, his

Getting imto the business: "It was totally by accident. A friend of mine was running the board at an FM station in my hometown that signed off at 1am. I'd go by and drink beer with him on the way home. He couldn't work one night and told the people he had this guy who could probably run the board. He knew I could, 'cause he'd go out and make out with a girl or drink beer, and I'd run the board.

State of the industry: "Change. For me, it's great, but for a lot of people, I can see why they think it's horrible. Is a gun a good thing or bad thing? Are you pointing it at someone, or is someone pointing it at you? If the people who are in the business right now don't do the things that are necessary to facilitate some radical change, then somebody else will show us how to do it and clean our clocks.

The biggest change: "When we went from having two sets of clients to three. We had enough problems trying to reconcile the differences between listeners and advertisers. Now you have shareholders in the mix, and it's a whole new ballgame. No longer do you have programming people running around saying, 'This is sacred territory; we can't do this.' It really forced people to work as a team, and that's probably one of the biggest benefits that has helped us produce some of the tremendous results we've produced as an industry. We've just had to get by a lot of the bullshit.

Current organizational structure of Clear Channel: "On the product side, Tom Owens, Jack Evans and I have the country split into thirds, with the stations in the West being Jack's, those in the East being mine, and the stations with great golf courses or beaches being Tom's. It's good to be the king. In addition, there are brand managers who work specifically with different formats, Jack, Tom and I will work with any format at any point in time, sometimes with a brand manager.

MARC CHASE

Regional Vice President, Clear Channel Communications

His programming philosophy: "If there's one underlying thing that would work for me in any format I do, it's the ability to create an attitude, teamwork and a fellowship. When I was a Top 40 guy, I always felt like I was a man trapped in the body of a female radio station. All of the sudden I got to program a Rock station, and it all just came out. We sacrificed virgins, we did penile extensions. It was unbelievable, because the core just loves that. The joke was, how many different ways can we find to put women with big boobs up on billboards with our call letters? It's amazing — the ratings go up every time you do that.

The group of people I have always worked with has done a great job of making it family. Every station I have been in, you could tell when they were most successful, because things people would normally say behind other people's backs, they were saying to their faces in the hall in front of everybody, and everybody was laughing about it. I feel sorry for people who haven't had a chance to experience something like that. I'm very fortunate, because I've been able to be a part of one and create two or three others. It goes back to being a creator not just of goofy ideas, but of a very productive work environ-

How he responds to the claim that there is no talent today: "If there's zig, then there's zag. I'm a big believer that for every job opening I have, there is the perfect person to fill it. It's just my fault, because I haven't found them. It's how you look and where you look. Here's why people think there's no talent anymore: Before, you were a big company if you had seven radio stations. There were seven good morning people. If you've got 1,000 stations, it's different finding 1,000 great morning people.

"I don't think there is more or less talent to that much of a degree, but I do believe that the more-music, less-talk, liner-reading consultants of the '80s ran a lot of people into cable. People who are really talented are probably making more money now than they've ever made. For me, I'm kind of the back end of the first generation of program directors or the front end of the second generation of programming people who can make it a career. Used to be, you had to grow up and not be a disc jockey or program director. You had to be a sales guy or general manager. Now, because there is a priority on the product, it's created opportunities for guys to become program directors forever. That is good and bad, but for me, it's great.

Current challenge: "There are a bunch of them: Getting everybody on the same page, overkilling communication and making sure everybody understands where we're headed and getting them to believe we can do it. When you're doing it at a station level, you see everybody every day and everybody sees everybody else every day, but it's different when you're trying to put the program director in Rochester together with the program director in Des Moines and Cincinnati and of every station called 'Kiss.' You're trying to say, 'OK, if one of you writes a really good promo and shares it, it's making it better for everybody, but you have to be willing to look beyond point of origination and park your ego at the door.' If you don't see each other every day, it's hard to feel like you're part of a club or a member of something you don't see the tangible results in.

"It was really great when we did the first group contest. We asked each of the program directors to write three promos. We sent out an example of three and said, Here are three; make up your own! It was amazing. At the end of it we had 40 promos that were great. We could do a different promo every day and have a good one. It's really using the power, but we haven't gotten to where it's second nature yet."

Internet strategy: "We have two or three different

Internet things going right now. There is the Internet involvement at the station level, then the corporate level, and then there's the Clear Channel Internet, which is kind of at the corporate level, but different. Again, we're early in the learning curve. We throw a lot of shit up on the wall and see what sticks. It's like trying to come up with the formula for Coca-Cola. It tastes good, and you kind of know what's in it, but if you don't have that exact ingredient, it's not going to work right. We have to make sure we get the original recipe for almost every one of the things we're trying or at least know what potential problems we're causing by not having it.

Something about his company that would surprise our readers: "We have high-ranking officials who wear women's clothes — no, that wouldn't surprise anybody. I don't know what surprises people.

Career highlight: "Being able to work with the same group of people for 15 years in a business where that doesn't happen a whole lot. It's unbelievable. For me, it's always been about a group of people you like working with, having a great time and making a difference. That's been No. 1. It's still fun. Personally, it would be Y-107 in Nashville, the fact that it had a cume of over half a million people in a market of only 800,000, and we didn't even realize until probably six months later what had happened. Everybody involved knew it was a very special place.

Career disappointment: "I would have loved making $20 million being the most successful morning

Favorite radio format: "It would have to be CHR, Rock or News/Talk. I've also heard Country stations that were great. I defy anybody to talk to me about me not living the country lifestyle. I'm right out of that country life group — trailer parks, outdoor plumbing.

Favorite song: "I've got too many. My CD collection drives my wife nuts. Between the albums I've never thrown away and the CDs, it's two rooms.

Favorite television show: "The Man Show, South Park and Friends.

Favorite movie: "Reservoir Dogs."
Favorite book: "Missing Links by Rick Reilly from Sports Illustrated. If you like golf, it's unbelievable: if you don't, it's still a good read.'

Favorite restaurant: Sylvian Park in Nashville. It's a meat-and-three. They have pictures of the country stars they've helped kill on the wall."

Beverage of choice: "Sweet tea. That's one word, by the way Hobbies: "Golf, professional wrestling, comic books and being a daddy.

Stock recommendation: "Clear Channel, baby. We need to go to 100 and split.

Communication medium of choice: "E-mail is simplest, but I still like the telephone. My e-mail address is alexcityal@aol.com. That's my hometown.

What he is most looking forward to in the new millennium: "For my son to speak. I've got a 7-year-old who's autistic and hasn't said any significant words. It's on the verge of happening. It's one of those things where you get an occasional, 'Night night, da da.' I'd swap it all for that."
