WMIB Brings A New Beat To Miami

by Skip Dillard

If you had asked most industry experts in 2002 what markets would be prime targets for a new R&B station, it's likely few would have mentioned Miami. With heritage R&B WEDR, adult R&B WHQT and hip-hop-heavy rhythmic top 40 WPOW in the mix alongside various noncommercial, pirate and nearby signals in West Palm Beach, it would have seemed the region was well-served.

Fast forward to this month, and new R&B WMIB (103.5 the Beat) is up to No. 2 18-34 in the summer Arbitron book after less than one year on the air. It edged out WEDR in the summer and is just behind market leader WPOW.

WMIB PD Dionne Summers was happy at his previous job as PD at R&B WERQ (92Q) Baltimore but admits he couldn't resist the Miami challenge. "When Clear Channel regional VP Rob Roberts and [senior VP of urban programming] Doc Wynter approached me about the landscape of the market and an opportunity for a third [R&B] FM, it seemed like the next step in my career."

So how could WMIB make a mark? "Both WEDR and WPOW had flirted with hip-hop but neither station wanted to own it as a lifestyle," Summers explains. "It was almost as if there was a certain fear [of] embracing it in their positioning statements, programming and promo

Edgier Male Country Acts On The Rise

by Phyllis Stark

Could such qualities as substance, grit and edginess be making a comeback among country music's male stars?

After years of pretty, polished new artists who sometimes displayed more style than substance and were often sanitized for our protection by their labels, some programmers say the tide seems to be turning. This is evidenced, they say, by a rash of new artists—such as Jimmy Wayne, Billy Currington and Jeff Bates—who sing about their painful upbringings, as well as recent stars like the male-friendly Montgomery Gentry, Trace Adkins (who has battled alcohol problems) and Keith Urban (who included a song about his former cocaine addiction on his current album).

Each of these acts comes from a background that is more outlaw than silver spoon, and they've developed the chops as songwriters to reveal their Continued on page 31

McCain Urges FCC To Act On Payola

Sen. John McCain, R-Ariz., submitted a letter Nov. 3 to FCC chairman Michael Powell urging the group to review allegations of payola-like payfor-play practices on both radio and TV, according to Billboard Bulletin.

"In light of this apparent emergence of novel means of profiting from broadcast air time in ways that appear not fully disclosed to the public, I am writing to inquire whether you believe the commission's rules on sponsorship identification and 'payola' are adequate," wrote McCain, chairman of the Senate Commerce Committee.

Lobbying by the Recording Artists' Coalition was instrumental in the decision by McCain to contact the FCC.

In other FCC news, the commission has rejected a California resident's request to deny modern WXRK (K-Rock) New York its license renewal, stemming from complaints about material he heard on Howard Stern's program. Al Wescott, who has frequently complained about Stern, heard the show on Los Angeles affiliate KLSX, which the FCC said made him an objector of the station and not an actual listener. In addition, the show, which aired live, was on KLSX between 3 a.m. and 6 a.m., which is outside the FCC's "safe harbor" hours.

A Nov. 3 Los Angeles Times article chronicled a recent lawsuit filed against Clear Channel-owned Premiere Radio Networks. The suit claims Karen Childress, a former senior VP at Premiere, was fired shortly after objecting to an offensive e-mail distributed in the workplace. Childress reportedly made several complaints about sexual harassment, including misconduct by top programmers.

Childress also accused Clear Channel CEO John Hogan of promoting women who slept with other male executives, including former Clear Channel CEO Randy Michaels. The suit seeks $10 million in damages. Clear Channel had no comment.

MIT MUSIC SHARING SERVICE NIXED

Two Massachusetts Institute of Technology students who developed a legal system for sharing music have had the program shut down while licensing issues are worked out. The New York Times reports. The two students, Keith Winstein and Josh Mandel, developed a system known as Library Access to Music System, which had the approval of the school and was backed by research money from Microsoft. The delivery system of some 3,500 CDs was the university's cable TV network. The students claimed that the network, which is analog, should have been treated like a radio station, with the school paying performance fees to ASCAP and BMI, but not to the labels. However, within the week that the LAMS went live, labels including Universal complained that they hadn't granted legal permission to use their songs on the system. Winstein and Mandel say that since they had paid Loudeye to fill a hard drive with the music, they thought their contract with the company ensured that the copyright issues had been resolved.

MANAGEMENT: AGOVINO SAYS SI TO SBS

Michael Agovino joins Spanish Broadcasting System (SBS) as VP/GM of its Los Angeles cluster. He previously was president of Clear Channel Radio Sales. In related news, SBS has closed on its purchase of KXOL Los Angeles from the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel.

Infinity has repositioned country WYUU Tampa, Fla., as "Outlaw 92.5." The format is described as "a highenergy mix of country songs with an attitude from the last 10 years" capitalizing on "the emerging edgy segment of country music," according to market manager

Charlie Ochs. Core artists will include Toby Keith, Tim McGraw, Hank Williams Jr. and Charlie Daniels. Cowhead and his sidekick Brent move from sister WQYK-AM (the Sports Asylum) to WYUU for mornings. They replace Dave Morgan and Carmen. Morgan moves to afternoons; Carmen exits.

AC WLTW (Lite 106.7) New York will temporarily segue to an all-Christmas format beginning Nov. 28.

After stunting with an hour of Halloween music Oct. 31, AC WSSS (Star 104.7) Charlotte, N.C., flips to all-Christmas music as "Christmas 104.7, Charlotte's holiday music station." In addition, WSSS morning hosts Sander Walker, Robin King and Kara Edwards exit.

On the heels of heritage top 40 KTFM San Antonio's recent flip to rock, rhythmic top 40 rival KCJZ (106.7 Jamz) shifts toward mainstream, becoming "Z106.7" under current PD Doug Bennett.

Cox flips Spanish WRJS Birmingham, Ala., to country as "Country Legends 1320." Brian Driver, PD of country sister WZZK, adds those duties

Country KQBL (the Bull) Oklahoma City has flipped to classic rock as "Bob 96.9." The station is operated by Citadel through an LMA with Chisolm Trail Broadcasting.

After 18 months as a country oldies-based station, KJJY Des Moines, Iowa, returns to a current format. The station's slogan changes from "great country" to "today's country and the legends."

AC WYLT Fort Wayne, Ind., shifts to adult top 40 as "My 103.9" under OM/PD Dave Eubanks.

PROGRAMMING: KRYSZ KRUIZES

Archway Broadcasting Group VP of programming/marketing Brian Krysz has exited his position for an undisclosed new job he'll start next year. He'll consult Archway through year's end. He may be reached at 770-486-9549, 404-275-4147 or bkrysz@archwaybroadcasting.com.

Clear Channel/Fresno, Calif., OM Scott Keith is named PD at AC sister WMAG (Magic 99.5) Greensboro, N.C. Keith replaces Nick Allen, who recently transferred to AC WLYT Charlotte, N.C.

Clear Channel/Tucson, Ariz., market OM/mainstream top 40 KRQQ PD Tim Richards adds the PD title for country KOYT. He replaces Jeff Baird, who exited (Airplay Monitor, Oct. 24). Richards is looking for an APD/MD/afternoon driver for the station. Former KEKB Grand Junction, Colo., morning man Jim West is currently auditioning.

Former Infinity/Memphis director of programming "Big" Steve Kelly takes on a similar position with Clear Channel/Jackson, Miss., which includes country WMSI and mainstream top 40 WDBT (the Beat). He replaces Scott Johnson, who recently transferred to the company's Greenville, S.C., cluster. Kelly's voice-over and consulting business move down the road with him.

Modern WYNF and active WQBZ Macon, Ga., PD Erich West is upped to OM of Clear Channel's Macon cluster. He'll continue to program the two rock stations.

Saga/Člarksville, Tenn., OM Chad Rufer exits to join top 40 KKMG (98.9 Magic FM) Colorado Springs, Colo., as PD.

Former R&B WEMX (Max 94.1) Baton Rouge, La., PD Adrian Long lands middays at adult R&B WYLD New Orleans, replacing Neicy Davis, now at crosstown R&B oldies KMEZ.

Infinity Broadcasting has teamed with Apple Corps to present a premiere airing of "Let It Be... Naked," the new version of the Beatles' final album, Billboard Bulletin reports. The set will air in its entirety at 10 p.m. ET Nov. 13 on Infinity radio stations in 35 major U.S. markets. TV journalist Pat O'Brien will host the broadcast, which will be followed by a live discussion with musicians and other guests. In the 10 days leading up to the premiere, 72 Infinity stations across the U.S. will broadcast teaser "vignettes" of rare or unreleased excerpts from the original "Let It Be" recording sessions.

XM Satellite Radio picks up artist/producer Jermaine Dupri's SoSo Def Radio. Dupri's show has been heard on R&B WVEE (V103) Adanta since 2002. XM will air the hip-hop show Saturday afternoons.

Universal Music Group has reached an agreement to acquire DreamWorks Records from DreamWorks SKG for about $100 million, according to Billboard Bulletin. Under the deal, DreamWorks will be placed within Interscope Geffen A&M under the direction of Jimmy Iovine. Sources say it's too early to tell whether the label will continue to operate on its own or will be folded into one of the Interscope labels. Also, no decision had been made at press time as to whether Dream-Works principals Mo Ostin, Lenny Waronker and Michael Ostin will stay on.

At Sony Music Nashville, Larry Pareigis is upped from senior VP of country promotion for Epic/Monument to senior VP of radio promotion for all Sony Nashville labels, including Columbia and Lucky Dog Records. ## Callout Issues That Affect Top 40

■ by Guy Zapoleon

A huge problem that affects the national charts is getting reliable samples and more passionate listeners with traditional callout.

Callout results are extremely slow, and it will only get worse. Luckily, online research is becoming more acceptable. But until it becomes a national standard for radio research, programmers are looking more at the national charts to determine the hits, and they are projecting songs into power based on those charts. So instead of real, valid research behind a lot of these songs, many top 10 titles are increasingly "turntable hits" because of the amount of spins they get and not real hits based on real popularity.

Because of callout's slowness, labels are releasing records far too fast for most stations, doing so before they have research to justify moving them up in spins. Labels are playing the chart game and jamming stations for spins. "Spin maintenance" is the game and often more important than getting the add. With programmers jumping songs based on national rankings, there is the danger of the national charts becoming "garbage in, garbage out."

As a programmer, if you play that game and move up a song in rotation for any reason other than a good programming one (requests, callout, online research or just your gut), you're taking a big risk. For the labels, after they get the first few big stations to take the leap, everyone else in the herd jumps into line without the info to back it up. That's hurting not only our format but also radio overall.

If we want this to remain a creative business, it's important that programmers are given the freedom to program their radio stations—and part of that is their interpretations of what music to play and how to balance their playlists.

THE END—OR IS IT?

Because the hits are becoming more rhythmic and because top 40 owners and programmers are steering their stations more rhythmic to go where they think music is heading, the national charts—which are already extremely rhythmic—will increasingly become more rhythmic. Since many programmers are looking at these national charts instead of their own callout these days to create their rotations, those rotations will get more rhythmic.

What we have here is a vicious cycle that will cause mainstream top 40 to stop being a variety format. Rock and pop songs will have a harder time finding a foothold on these increasingly rhythmic radio stations. Thus, there will be fewer rock and pop hits. Because of this and because much of the pop and pop/rock fare isn't selling, the labels will put out fewer rock and pop songs. But this music is so very important to the mainstream top 40 format to hold it together. If this trend toward more rhythm continues, then a return to the doldrums of 1992-94, when we lost 500 top 40 radio stations, is imminent.

Susquehanna's WWWQ (Q100) Atlanta states in its positioning statement, "all the hits—not just some of them." For the health of the format, mainstream top 40 needs to play all styles of music, not just rhythm or rock. If top 40 plays only one style of music, the format fails to deliver on its promise of variety. And, it creates the final fulfillment of the '90s phase of the doldrums—the extinction of mainstream top 40 stations across America.

This is the final installment in a four-part series by veteran programmer/consultant Guy Zapoleon, president of Zapoleon Media Strategies and a partner in Promosquad.

Songs ranked by number of detections. Songs showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of charf movement. A song will also receive a builet if its percentage loss in detections does not exceed the percentage of monitored station downtime for the format. A song that has been on the charf for more than 20 weeks will generally not receive a builet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charfs for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the song registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. A song with a gain in detections over the previous week is placed first if led with a song with a decline over the same period. When ited songs are each gaining detections over his song being played on more stations is placed first. Songs below the top 15 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

songs ranked by number of detections. Songs showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A song will also receive a bullet if its percentage loss in detections does not exceed the percentage of monitored station downtime for the format. A song that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will generally not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Greatest Gainer awarded to the song with the largest increase in detections. A song with a gain in detections over the previous week is placed first if tied with a song with a decline over the same period. When tied songs are each gaining detections, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Songs below the top 15 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

WMIB Brings A New Beat To Miami

tions. Clear Channel saw an opportunity to bring people in Miami together under a big hip-hop umbrella."

He continues, "WEDR has done a great job as a heritage station. WPOW superserved the Hispanic market for many years, but no station would speak to both in a market like Miami. It's such an ethnically diverse market you really can't speak to one and not the other. The attitude we work to project is, 'If you love hip-hop, you can listen to the Beat.' Our ethnic composition for the summer book reflects the diversity. We're 50% African-American, 38% Latin, and we're on the right track to becoming a coalition station."

In addition to Miami, 2003 has seen the arrival of additional Clear Channel R&B outlets in Columbia, S.C.; Hartford, Conn.; Des Moines, Iowa; and most recently Tampa, Fla. "It's amazing where hip-hop has come from in terms of radio," Summers says. "We all remember when top 40 radio was on the fence about hip-hop. Bobby Brown at one time was considered a rapper, and he never really rapped. You had stations that didn't want to deal with a record with a rapper in it. Today, you've got R&B stations that don't want to play an R&B record unless a rapper is on it. Hip-hop is definitely the flavor right now."

Summers adds that the recent Billboard Hot 100 chart that had hip-hop songs in all top 10 positions "was a great moment to be black. [That] made us feel great down here. All hip-hop. It's the mainstream right now."

CHANGING THE GAME

If competition is good for radio overall, Summers feels WMIB is proof of that. "WEDR has tightened up. You can tell stark differences that have come straight from WMIB. Beside [longtime WEDR morning host] James T being shifted to sister WHQT, you've got Rick Party doing morning drive at WEDR. They've also recently brought in Lorenzo Thomas for after-

Diddy Radio

Sean "P. Diddy" Combs spent 16 continuous hours on the air Nov. 2 on R&B WQHT (Hot 97) New York prior to competing in the New York City Marathon. His run raised money for area charities benefiting children, collecting a total of more than $2 million.

noons. There's no doubt they are a better radio station [than they were].

Summers says that during the on-air war, WEDR changed their positioner to 'all of today's hip-hop and R&B.' We came back with 'the station that doesn't play all of today's hiphop and R&B, only the **** you want to hear. These subtle shots have made them do what few heritage stations will do-chase the No. 2 guy. But WEDR's younger, more relevant approach lately shows that WMIB is being taken seriously.'

He credits WMIB's airstaff for the station's impact. While popular in Los Angeles for years, many radio programmers and executives paid little attention to current WMIB morning hosts the Baka Boyz outside of the West Coast. Summers was glad that was the case.

"What's unique about [the Baka Boyz] is they're mini PDs,' he says. "I'm fortunate because I got them after [Emmis Radio president] Rick Cummings and [Clear Channel VP] Steve Smith [had worked with them]. They know the radio game and understand mornings. They walked in the door knowing all the basics that PDs usually waste time trying to teach, like time and temperature. That means we're spending our time brainstorming ideas and new ways to capture the market. They've had a serious impact here already. They've gone from seventh to fifth and [are] now third in their target demo [18-34]. They're aggressive and push the line at times, but hip-hop pushes the line. Hip-hop is aggressive. They live the lifestyle.

"Outside of the Baka Boyz, we've got Big Tigger voice-tracking middays and new jacks Nina Chantele in afternoons and Papa Keith at night. On weekends, LSQ and Mr. Mauricio are doing a great job, and Prince Markie Dee, formerly of the Fat Boys, is one of my main swing jocks.

TRUE TO SOUTH FLORIDA

While continuing to develop the station's sound. Summers has worked to find local artists that fit WMIB. "We were among the first to break artist Jacki-O, and we've got a new local artist, Dirthag, who's due to make some noise. He had a record with Monica recently, and we helped him get his springboard here.'

So what's important to South Florida right now? "So many different ethnic groups exist here," Summers says. "You've got your African-American, Cuban, island, Anglo and Hispanic communities making for a sensitive balance. While everyone has individual issues, we work to bridge the gap on a bigger scale. The entire city is trying to do the same.

In addition to an aggressive ongoing billboard campaign, Summers sees on-air branding as crucial to WMIB's success. "Early on, I knew my job was to brand the station against the others who both have history and heritage. Why listen to the Beat? It's a question we've got to answer by getting into people's minds what we're about.

"In terms of attitude, one promotion stood out for us. On March 31, we had a plastic surgeon on the air named Dr. Purdue. He said he stopped by to show appreciation for the Beat, and he was so happy with the station he wanted to offer free breasts to the first 100 women who came to the station at 8 a.m. the next morning. Now, a free breast job may not mean much to

10 Questions With...

BROWN HORNHIT PRODUCTION DIRECTOR WPGC WASHINGTON, D.C.

How did you get into production?

"I started out in my hometown of Grand Rapids, Mich., out of high school as a mix jock at R&B WKWM. When the station switched formats, I was out of work and realized being a jock may not be a secure career.

I went to college to study law and child psychology.

How did radio find you again?

"Four years later, I wound up as production director [with on-air duties] for a small AM hip-hop station. I actually beat the top 40 station in town in my

Who helped you along the

"I met imaging talent Scotty Webb, who later brought me to Washington, D.C., to work with him and voice-over specialist Jack Daniels. Also, XM Radio/Radio One's Mike Abrams, [who was] working for Cox/Birmingham [Ala.] then, was one of [Webb's] clients. He had come from WQHT New York and schooled me on majormarket production. He would fax me pages of stuff nonstop.'

What was your first main production system?

"I used an Akai BPS 12, a CD player and

What do you use now?

"Cool Edit Pro's new version, Audition, is my main program for promos. For remixing and jingles, I prefer Logic Audio."

What's your favorite toy?

Mac computers. I prefer Macs over PCs. At WPGC, I can easily turn out 10-15 produced spots in an hour. That's a lot of stress on a machine. I have a Mac Powerbook G4, and it's the only [computer] I haven't been able to crash yet.

How do you define good production?

Spots must be infectious and effective. The overproduced 'balls to the wall' stuff doesn't work. Listeners, especially females, should be able to walk away from your station with an understanding of what a promo said.'

What's the hardest part of your job?

"Balance. Production takes dedication. The hours don't matter; it's about getting the job done. And that can be rough on your personal life. I always work to stay ahead of my PD. I don't want him having to wait on me. I listen to the station so I can stay ahead of what's happening.'

What stations influence your work?

'Growing up it was WJLB Detroit, especially when Tre Black was doing nights. He did his own production and was phenomenal. WQHT New York is always good. [WQHT morning host] Sway's 'Wake Up Show' during his Los Angeles days were always well-produced."

What keeps you motivated?

This battle between WPGC and [crosstown] WKYS. It's brutal."

some, but in Miami, women pay attention to that stuff."

After 200 women showed up at the station, the joke was revealed when Purdue started handing out frozen chicken breasts.

LESSONS LEARNED

Summers credits his time battling former R&B challenger WXYV Baltimore as good preparation for Miami. "I'm doing the opposite now of what I did in Baltimore. WERQ is to Baltimore what WEDR is to Miami. So when we were attacked through promos and imaging, my [instinct] was to go dirty. But I made a point not to. McDonald's doesn't use their marketing to trash Burger King. We kept the high road at WERQ, which led to WXYV flipping to talk in just over a year

"Today, I'm the little guy, so I've had to put on a different pair of shoes. I learned a lot from [former WXYV PD] Thea Mitchem and how [she fought] in the trenches. The more we're able to get our competition to take their eyes off their goal and focus on us, the more we can focus and eep moving away from them.

So what will WMIB bring to Miami in the long run? "We're bringing a station to Miami that's real," he says. "I was surprised when I got here that there was no straight-up hip-hop station off the hook and talking to the masses in a market as dynamic as Miami. Our goal is to be the most consistent radio station for this format. Our competitors are no longer the stations they were just a short time ago. My job is to make sure five years from now WMIB is still WMIB."

Summers adds that Miami is everything he hoped it would be. "I'll hit South Beach at 11 p.m. on a weeknight and the energy is incredible. In Baltimore, people are at home at 11 p.m. getting ready for work the next day. WMIB has to work hard to keep up with the energy of this place. I remember in my interview, Rob Roberts told me Miami could be likened to dating a dangerous woman. If you understand how she rolls, you'll be all right. For me personally, it's all about focus and balance.

iongs ranked by number of detections. Songs showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A song will also receive utilet if its percentage loss in detections does not exceed the percentage of monitored station downtime for the format. A song that has been on the chart for mor han 20 weeks will generally not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airpla and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the song with the largest increase in detections and audience. By a swarded to the song with a gain in detections over the precious week is placed first if ited with a song with a decline over the same period. When tied songs are each gaining detections or each losing detections, the son eign played on more stations is placed first. Songs below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

20 weeks will generally not receive a builet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airpiga Audience charls for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the song with the largest increase in detections. Most Air Adds awarded to the song registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. A song with a gain in detections over the previous were placed first if lied with a song with a decline over the same period. When tied songs are each gaining detections or each losing detections, the song being played on in stations is placed first. Songs below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Edgier Male Country Acts On The Rise

experiences in potent country songs about abuse, alcoholism and other edgy topics.

Programmers say such acts have largely been good for country radio.

The format always benefits when real and distinctive male artists rise to the top," KPLX (the Wolf) Dallas APD Smokey Rivers says. "Not only are they wellremembered, they are almost always format-exclusive. Historically, men have always driven the bus during our best times. Country is always at its best when it has some dirt and sweat on it."

Consultant Ioel Raab agrees. "Country has always performed better when we've had strong, male performers, so obviously, it's a good thing.'

KNIX Phoenix MD Gwen Foster says, "Music from artists from all walks of life keeps the music interesting, fresh and exciting." She thinks these acts "have made it easier for listeners to get acquainted with them because their stories are so amazing."

KZLA Los Angeles OM R.J. Curtis says such acts and their real-life songs are good for the format because "these themes can appeal to male listeners, and we all know we are challenged in that demo. As long as the artists and the labels keep it real, it'll be a good evolution.

BUT WILL IT BRING BACK MEN?

The preponderance of such acts seems to some like a throwback to the days when Merle Haggard, George Jones and other hard-living artists kept listeners' attention with their real and relatable songs. But at a time when country radio has lost many of its male listeners, there's little evidence that these artists are bringing men back to the format-at least not yet.

yet. It's still early," Curtis says. There haven't been enough of huge hits [for such songs to] were real."

far, no one [has approached] the level of Garth George, great as they are, they never sold the the rock, talk and oldies stations with men 18-49 book after book," he says. "One of the big reasons why is the visibility we give to artists like Pat Green, Cross Canadian Ragweed and Toby Keith.

The nice surprise is that women love this music too. With this resurgence, country has begun to get back into the business of giving everyone a reason to listen, not just suburban women 25-54 who drive Volvo SUVs."

Foster, however, doesn't think "we've been male-artist deficient in country music." She says, "I've always felt that artists who wrote from their own life experiences made the music more interesting . . . This is just a new batch of potential male stars to watch and listen to.

Bob Moody, VP of programming for Regent Communications, has a completely different take. "Many of the songs about men that have been hits lately-and I should emphasize songs rather than the artists singing them-remind me more of Alan Alda and Morris Albert [who sang "Feelings"] than Haggard and Jones.

"For example, Gary Allan's 'Man to Man' recounts a conversation that I can't imagine actually taking place between any two men I know," Moody continues. "And I can't name any of my male friends, regardless of how sensitive they may be, wanting to be called a 'big baby,' as in [Allan's] 'Tough Little Boys.' These are songs about men written for women. I don't see that it helps draw back male listeners at all. In fact, it could have the opposite effect.'

Rivers says, "The idea that women only like frothy ballads or heavy 'message' songs is very outdated. In fact, those songs seem to have run their course. It's the big reason why women artists are having such a tough time researching right now. Country has become an audio track for the Lifetime channel. Women want to have fun, and I think Nashville is just now finding that out."

Curtis adds that these songs "can potentially appeal to both males and females depending on the strength of the music and [the] image women can attach themselves to. Maybe some of these guys will be seen as the type of person women would like to save. Some women are attracted to guys like that.

Raab is more concerned about "Nashville's tendency to grab on to a trend, or a perceived trend, and beat it into the ground. What we're lacking now," he says, "are great records by female artists to balance the strong new music by the guys.'

FOSTER

"This trend hasn't really gained any traction

these songs yet that have been become a signature sound for this format. Having said that, I hope Nashville doesn't start cloning these themes just because they may be working. The reason songs like this used to work, and seem to be working again, is because the artists and the stories

Raab says, "There are a lot of strong, authentic artists, but so Brooks or Alan Jackson. As for Merle and level of product [as that] of the class of '89."

Rivers is more optimistic. "The Wolf beats all

Letter: In Defense Of Overnight Spins

Can someone please explain to me why eliminating overnight spins from the charts is a WGNA's overnight came is 30% of its morning-drive cume, while our 7 p.m.-12 a.m. cume is 50% of a.m. drive cume. Why aren't those third-shift workers, insomniacs and truck drivers considered by the labels to be potentially valuable customers of their product?

If one-third of our station's prime-time cume isn't considered good enough by the labels, then is one-half prime-time cume not a viable number of listeners either?

Country Panel Policy: A Refresher

CONFIDEN

BY WADE JESSEN

615-321-4291 · wjessen@airplaymonitor.com

In the Oct. 3 issue of Airplay Monitor, we detailed our amended policy regarding minimum standards for current music for our monitored stations used for chart tabulation. In the weeks following that announcement, some readers expressed concerns that the policy itself and the methods we use to analyze airplay data to determine those current percentages wasn't made completely clear. To remedy any potential misunderstanding about the policy, we thought it important to restate the policy and our research methods.

On a quarterly basis, we will examine airplay data from all courtry stations monitored by Nielsen BDS, including those that are monitored but not used to tabulate charts. The results of these quarterly studies will largely determine the size and composition of our reporting panel

Using six to eight weeks of BDS airplay data for each station, we examine only the 30 mostplayed songs for each of those weeks to identify what percentage of each station's mostplayed songs are defined as currents (any song that s on our airplay chart corresponding to each week of airplay data, any songs too new to have had chart impact or recent album cuts). The average percentage must consistently be at least 60% (or 18 out of 30 titles) in order for stations to achieve or maintain reporting status.

Some misunderstanding of this policy surfacec when questions were raised about how stations might potentially adjust their playlists in order to achieve or maintain reporting status. Some label readers were concerned that programmers wishing to improve their current percentage might simply add another title or two to their light rotations, or play their light rotation or dayparted titles a bit more and meet the 60% rule. Under the methods we employ, this type of minor adjustment would not affect a station's current percentage because we are only scrutinizing the station's 30 most-played titles. Programmers adjusting the number of titles in their slowest rotations would have no bearing on our research.

Some readers have asked whether we will notify programmers of the specific weeks of air-play data we'll be analyzing. Stations will never be notified that we are examining or are about to examine their airplay data, and the weeks we will use to determine the current percentage are taken at random during any given quarter. This prevents stations from temporarily beefing up their top rotations with current titles in order to achieve or maintain reporting status and provides a more fair and accurate result.

Once our research is complete, and following the resulting panel changes each quarter, we will reveal a station's current percentage only to its programmer should he or she inquire. We will not reveal that information to a competitor or any other station.

Finally, a word about ratings-based panel adjustments. While we reserve the right to make panel changes at any time during the year, we typically only make changes to our panel based on our minimum cume and minimum share requirements following the spring and fall Arbitron results. Our reporting stations are required to maintain at least a 3.0 share or 100,000 weekly cume (TSA, 12-plus).

If you have any questions about these policies, please contact me at the phone number or e-mail address listed above.

Macias, Merrick Form Management Firm

Music business veterans David Macias and Doug Merrick have teamed to form Nashvillebased Merrick-Macias Management. Their first clients are country acts Suzy Bogguss, Hal Ketchum and BR549 and jazz artist Danny Jiosa.

Macias is president of Emergent Music Marketing, a company he launched nearly three years ago that specializes in sales, marketing and distribution (via Sony/RED) for small labels. He will continue that successful venture and plans to add additional Emergent staff shortly. Macias previously managed Rich Robinson of the Black Crowes

Merrick has been road manager for numerous acts-including John Hiatt, the Gin Blossoms, Ricky Skaggs and Trace Adkins-and he has served in a management role for Sherrié Austin, Ketchum and Jiosa.

In other news, Jason Owen is promoted to VP of media and artist relations for Mercury and MCA Nashville, and Jim Flammia is upped to VP of media and artist relations for Lost Highway Records. Owen was senior director of media and artist relations for Mercury and MCA, and Flammia held the same title at Lost Highway where he was VP of production, artist/writer development and A&R. He is expected to launch his own company.

Brooks & Dunn are scheduled to play 24 dates in markets smaller in size than those they hit during their recent Neon Circus & Wild West Show trek. The Red Dirt Road tour kicks off Feb. 12, 2004, in Reading, Pa., and runs through April 25.

Pat Green and his wife Kori welcomed their first child, a son, Oct. 27 in Austin, Texas.

BYRD GETS COOKING

Tracy Byrd has teamed with Chicago-based brand-development company Vista Management to launch a line of spices, rubs and marinades bearing his name and likeness. The products, which will be sold under the brand name Tracy Byrd's Tiny Town Products, will be available this month in 1,350 Wal-Mart stores. Byrd is donating 5 cents from every bottle sold to Children's Miracle Network.

Byrd will also have a cookbook on the market Nov. 7. "Eat Like a Byrd," published by Nashville-based Interactive Blvd., includes the artist's favorite recipes, many of which utilize his marinades and seasonings.

Jim Richards Plans To Return 91X To Modern Rock Dominance In San Diego

MONITOR PROFILE

JIM RICHARDS

Predating the early-'90s modern rock explosion, XETRA-FM (91X) San Diego launched in 1983 following the success of modern rock originator KROQ Los Angeles. As evidence of how much the format has grown since then, San Diego is now home to three modern rock signals.

Recently, Clear Channel/San Diego director of FM programming Jim Richards assumed programming duties at 91X, swapping positions with classic rock KGB PD

Bryan Schock.

"Bryan has a lot of history with KGB and with the rock field in general, and I've certainly been in the rock world for a long time," Richards says of the move. "I thought it might help out both properties to get a fresh perspective on things."

While this is Richards' first time with direct oversight of a modern station, he's no stranger to the format. "I got very involved when we signed on [KCNL] Channel 104.9 in San Jose [Calif.], the first '80s-based modern rock station that had been put on. I got very familiar with a lot of the deeper and more eclectic '80s modern cuts. And I've had various points of involvement in market visits at [KTBZ] Buzz in Houston and [KDGE] Edge in Dallas. I was also part of the initial call to launch [KHBZ] Buzz in Oklahoma City."

'BETTER EVERYTHING'

One of Richards' biggest challenges at the helm of 91X will be returning the station to modern dominance in the market. Jefferson Pilot's KBZT, which signed on last November, topped 91X for the first time in the summer Arbitrons. The third modern station in the market is Astor's KFSD.

"We have to continue to strive to be the best choice on the dial," Richards says. "I definitely think that we're a better choice than [the competition]. The listeners haven't really left 91X. They've beaten us from a share perspective in the summer book, but from a cume perspective, we still enjoy an enormous lead over them, and that's one of the things I'm focusing on. Talk to me a year from today and let's find out where 91X is vs. where they are.

When asked what 91X offers over KBZT, Richards bluntly claims ties, a better music mix, better variety from newer to older music, better connectivity with the artists, better access to the artists [and] bet-

Richards also adds "better information" as one of his station's qualities, which he says gave 91X and the rest of the Clear Channel cluster the edge when it came to covering the recent wildfires. "We've done a far superior job at getting information out about what's going on with the fires than they have," he says. "We've had better community outreach and [are]

Richards was very involved in Clear Channel's Fire Aid program, which will benefit victims of the fires. "We're all banding together at four various points throughout the county to raise money for the fire victims," he says. "We've chosen to hook up with the Salvation Army, because they're guaranteeing that every dollar raised during our efforts will remain in San Diego County to help fire victims. Also, Clear Channel has stepped up from our local and corporate offices to donate $10,000 to kick [the campaign] off. It's another way to show how committed we are to the local community.'

One of KBZT's calling cards at its launch was a series of positioners taking shots at 91X, calling it a "corporate" station and claiming that it was run from out of town "[KBZT] has done a much better job of manipulating the facts and the truth to their audience than we ever would want to do," Richards says. "They've sold people a false bill of goods in terms of corporate radio and how 91X isn't local, and when most people find out they've been taken, I think egg will be on their faces. That's really the only drum they can beat."

XETRA-FM recently fired off a shot in the radio war by hiring KBZT's Al Guerra to host 91X's local show, "Loudspeaker," and moving the show to an earlier time slot.

IT CAME FROM THE '80S . . . AND IT'S STILL ON 91X

One area where Richards thinks KBZT can't compare with 91X is the station's heritage. "We embrace it quite a bit, and I'm wanting to embrace even more of it," he says. His station has a six-hour Sunday feature called "Resurrection Sunday" featuring retro music, and it is implementing a "Resurrection Lunch" feature with 15-year station vet Robin Roth as host.

The station recently wrapped a "20 Years in 20 Days" feature during which 91X played the best songs from the last 20 years. "Now that that's done," Richards says, "I've gone in and retweaked the clocks to get better emphasis on our past and our history."

The '80s music featured on "Resurrection

Sunday" isn't relegated to just one day per week. Some of the 40% gold that 91X plays comes from the '80s. "The Cure and Depeche Mode, Oingo Boingo, English Beat, the Talking Heads—those types of acts are a big part of the music," Richards says. "So are the '90s staples like Nirvana, Stone Temple Pilots and Soundgarden.'

Currents are also important to 91X. New-music show "The Lab" has been moved from one night per week to five, and the station has taken some chances with new songs, such as Belle & Sebastian's "Step Into My Office."

"I can't get the hook out of my head," Richards says of the track. "That's a band that has huge

AN OVERVIEW OF RADIO PROMOTIONS

WXTB Collects Food For Schiavo

Syndicated active WXTB (98 Rock) Tampa, Fla., morning man Todd "Bubba the Love Sponge" Clem ripped a page from current events by hosting a food drive-not for those displaced by the San Diego fires, but for Terry Schiavo, the comatose woman currently at the center of a right-to-die battle in Miami.

Since Schiavo cannot consume most of the fare collected in the canned food drive because she eats through a tube, listeners were urged to donate liquid nutrient Nestle Nutren. All other canned goods that Schizvo's family didn't want were donated to a local charity. In addition, the station had "living will" documents for those donating food to fill out. The forms can help prevent such right-to-die batties from occurring. Also, the person who donated the most food won two tickets to a Tampa Bay Baccaneers game.

A REVOLUTIONARY PROMOTION

What is the matrix? If you have it completely figured out, let us know, but modern WBRU Providence, R.I., gave listeners a chance to get an early look at the second-most-talked-about movie trilogy conclusion of the year, "The Matrix: Revolutions" hat theaters Nov. 5, but lucky New Englanders picked up tickets to see the film two days earlier. All listeners had to do was call the station after hearing sound bites from either of the first two movies. In the words of Keanu Reeves, "Whoa ....

98 ROCK GOES ONLINE FOR AUCTION

Active WIYY (98 Rock) Baltimore is presenting its inaugural 98 Rock Online Auction to benefit Lupus Mid-Atlantic. The auction, which will run through Nov. 24, features signed memorabilia from AC/DC, Kiss, Creed, Mötley Crüe and Ozzy Osbourne, as well as from members of the Baltimore Orioles and Ravens, among others. Items will be on display at the station's Web site, 98online.com.

A 2000 auction that benefited the Lupus Foundation raised more than $25,000, but station management anticipates a higher total this year because of the auction's online presence.

WBOS DIPS INTO ARCHIVE FOR CD

It's almost holiday shopping time, and nothing fits better under the Christmas tree or Chanukah bush than a radio station compilation of songs recorded by core artists during station visits. Triple-A WBOS Boston delivers its first such collection with "WBOS Live From the Archive.' The 16-track album features contributions from acts including Jack Johnson, Jason Mraz, the Wallflowers, Aimee Mann and Pete Yorn.

The compilation will benefit the Genesis Fund, a nonprofit organization that raises funds for New England-area children with birth defects, mental disabilities and genetic diseases.

A rhythmic component is also part of the station's sound, as evidenced by its current support and the station has also played Daft Punk in the past," Richards says. "And before the switch, Bryan was playing the Roots. There has always been that ability to play the music that fits a broader definition than just modern.

While a look at 91X's playlist shows it skewing a bit more adult than the rest of the modern panel, that doesn't concern Richards. "We're skewing to the needs of San Diego," he says. "The San Diego audience is very discriminating. They've always had different tastes than the national perspective.

involvement. "We've been able to work with the labels to get artist IDs on a broader scale. We've been able to get songs put out to Clear Channel's network of rock stations through our network audio distribution system. There are more things that we would like to do, but I think we've been able to benefit both the labels and us in the meantime.

MEXICAN RADIO

Clear Channel's involvement with the San Diego market has gotten the attention of the FCC, which claims that the company's concentration of stations may be too high. However, some of the group's transmitters, including 91X's, are located in Mexico (hence the X" prefix).

"It's undetermined what needs to happen, so we'll wait and see what the government ends up doing," Richards says. "But we've played within the rules and laws that have been defined by Congress. We have done nothing that any other operator didn't have the ability to do. Anybody could have done that, and other operators have tried. The Mexican owners enjoyed working with our management locally and from the corporate structure, so that's why they went with us.

Songs ranked by number of detections. Songs showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A song will also receive publied if its percentage loss in detections does not exceed the percentage of monitored station downtime for the format. A song that has been on the chart for mor han 20 weeks will generally not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplar and undence charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the song registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. A song with a gain in detections over the previous week is placed first if tied with a song with a decline over the same period. When tied songs are each gaining detections or each losing detections, the song peing played on more stations is placed first. Songs below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

* Initial impact: songs appearing on this page for the first time in summary form. Airplay Adds are songs with 6 or more detections at new stations this week. The Airplay Leaderboard ranks taste-maker stations that have been the most successful in identifying future hit songs as measured by the amount of AIRPOWER titles for which they were Airplay Leaders. Refer to each format's Power Playlists page to see this week's Airplay Leaders.

Chingy: Two Singles, Two No. 1s

Chingy's second chart hit becomes his second No. 1 at rhythmic top 40 as "Holidae In" (Capitol) steps 2-1. He is the first male artist to reach the top of the chart with his first two charting singles since Usher did so with "You Make Me Wanna" in 1997 and "Nice & Slow" in 1998. Other than Chingy and Usher, only Christina Aguilera, Ashanti and, most recently, Beyoncé have started their chart careers with at least two straight No. 1s.

Avant earns his fifth top 10 at R&B/hip-hop with "Read Your Mind" (Geffen), joining the ranks of Aaliyah, Ashanti, Ginuwine and R. Kelly as artists who have charted five or more top 10 R&B titles in this decade without the aid of a featured hip-hop artist. Avant, however, earns the distinction of being the only one among that group to do so with not only five consecutive tracks but also with his entire output, which includes a guest stint on Keke Wyatt's "Nothing in This World."

KEITH LOVES THIS NO. 1

Toby Keith makes his third-fastest trip to the pinnacle of the country chart as "I Love This Bar" (DreamWorks) goes 2-1. It is Keith's 12th No. 1, a slot he first occupied when his debut single, "Should've Been a Cowboy," topped the list in June 1993.

By today's standards, Keith's 12-week ascent to No. 1 is equivalent to warp speed, but he has outdone that pace twice before. "Who's That Man" took 11 weeks in 1994 and the reactionary "Courtesy of the Red, White and Blue (The Angry American)" needed only nine weeks in 2002.

Elsewhere on the country chart, Montgomery Gentry notches its fifth top 10 single with "Hell Yeah" (Columbia), which hops 13-10. The rowdy duo has now had five top 10 tracks. All of the prior four made it to the top five.

TWAIN ENDS KRACKER'S 23 WEEKS ATOP AC

Shania Twain's "Forever and for Always" (Mercury/IDJMG) jumps to No. 1 at AC, ending the record-setting 23-week run at the top for Uncle Kracker's "Drift Away" (Lava). "Forever and for Always" marks Twain's third No. 1 at AC and first since "From This Moment On" graced the top spot for a week in November 1998. "From This Moment On" was the follow-up to her other chart-topper, "You're Still the One."

STAIND HAS YEAR'S LONGEST NO. 1 RUN

After a two-week hiatus, Staind's "So Far Away" (Elektra/EEG) returns to the No. 1 spot at modern for a seventh week-the longest run at No. 1 in 2003. It is the first song to have a second stay at the top spot at modern since August 2000 when Papa Roach's "Last Resort" spent seven non-consecutive weeks at No. 1.

"So Far Away" also earns a seventh week atop the heritage chart, after spending seven weeks at No. 2 behind Nickelback's "Someday" (Roadrunner/IDJMG).

There is another returning act at the top of the mainstream top 40 chart as 3 Doors Down's

"Here Without You" (Universal/UMRG) reclaims the crown from the song that bounced it out one week ago, Beyoncé Featuring Sean Paul's "Baby Boy."

"Here Without You" is the second song this year to have two stays at No. 1 on that chart following Black Eyed Peas' "Where Is the Love?" (A&M/Interscope). At modern AC, 3 Doors Down becomes the first act to hit No. 1 with three consecutive tracks as "Here Without You" follows "When I'm Gone" and "Be Like That" to the top.

A Perfect Circle's "Weak and Powerless" (Virgin) reaches the top of the active rock chart, giving the group its first No. 1 at the format. "Judith" peaked at No. 2 in July 2000. For the second consecutive week, "Weak and Powerless" is the only track to receive airplay on the entire

The Offspring's "Hit That" enters the modern chart at No. 27. Only three acts on this week's list have charted prior to the Offspring's first appearance in May 1994. Jane's Addiction's history dates back to October 1988, while Stone Temple Pilots and 311 first charted in April 1993.

PANEL CHANGES

Due to a format change, WSSR Tampa, Fla., has been removed from the adult top 40 and modern AC panels.
