Modern Rock Has More Hip-Hop Choices

■ by Bram Teitelman

Modern rock has always had room for hip-hop, but the two seemingly disparate genres seem to be intersecting more now than ever before.

The success of Eminem's "Lose Yourself" early last year wasn't that big of a surprise. The artist was already a superstar who had received nominal modern play in the past, and the song was a guitar-based track from an event movie that many 18- to 34-year-olds flocked to. Likewise, OutKast's "Hey Ya!" was too big of a song for modern rock

However, a new crop of songs-including Jay-Z's

"99 Problems," Cypress Hill's "What's Your Number," Atmosphere's "Trying to Find a Balance," N*E*R*D's "She Wants to Move" and D12's "My Band" -have all received airplay at modern rock. Modern programmers say they have more hip-hop choices now than they have had in some time.

MONROE

WBRU Providence, R.I., PD Seth Resler thinks modern's hip-hop neo-renaissance is the result of R&B radio attracting a large chunk of modern's demographics. "Modern rock isn't as big as it was, and a lot of us are getting beat by hip-hop stations for the first time in the last couple of years," he says. "We're trying to figure out how to [lure that Continued on page 35

Infinity Clarifies Indecency Policy

■ by Phyllis Stark

After outlining its indecency policy to GMs and PDs in a Feb. 18 internal memo (Airplay Monitor, March 5), Infinity has further clarified its policy in a Feb. 27 memo sent to the same employees.

The newer memo, from the company's attorney Steven Lerman of the firm Leventhal, Senter & Lerman and obtained by Airplay Monitor, addresses specific questions raised by some Infinity managers. The memo could serve as a model for indecency policies at other broadcast companies.

"Corporate management and our office are sensitive to the practical difficulties associated with identifying indecent material, stemming from the fundamental and unfortunate fact that the FCC's generic indecency standard is, and has been acknowledged by the courts to be, inherently vague," the memo says. It further notes that the law firm is "not in a position to decree whether any particular material is or is Continued on page 29

FCC Fines CC Again, For WWDC's Segal

The FCC has proposed another large fine against Clear Channel. This time, it's a $247,500 penalty levied against syndicated modern WWDC (DC101) Washington, D.C., morning man Elliot Segal for material broadcast last year on three stations.

The material in question involved a discussion with a female caller about oral sex and adult-film star Ron Jeremy, warranting the maximum $27,500 fine. The bit aired two more times throughout the day in promos for Segal's show, which is also heard on modern stations WRXL Richmond, Va., and WOSC Bethany Beach, Del.

Clear Channel issued a statement saying the incident in question took place one year before it implemented its Responsible Broadcasting Initiative and that it has since begun broadcasting Segal's show with a seven-second delay. CC also said it would "investigate the situation fully and respond as appropriate."

As was expected, the House of Representatives recently passed the Broadcast Decency Act, raising the maximum FCC fine for indecent broadcasts from $27,500 to $500,000.

Howard Stern reacted to the House passing the bill by doing his show without speaking for an hour-and-a-half. Playing bits of music, media reaction to his show and a voicemail from Stern to producer Gary Dell'Abate asking him to put together a show where he didn't talk, Stern finally cracked the mic by saying the bill's passage was the end of free speech and repeated that he might wind up on satellite radio. Stern has said that he would become an amazing spokesperson for satellite radio and "kill the industry he worked so hard to build up."

Meanwhile, exiled Clear Channel jock Bubba the Love Sponge recently spoke during a video news conference at Web sites bubbaarmy.com and btls.com. He stated that he has "no ill will toward Clear Channel" for firing him. He vowed to resurface on satellite radio, noting that he has spoken with Sirius and XM.

In other news, Sen. Russ Feingold, D-Wis., sent a letter to the FCC March 9 calling on the agency to begin a probe of "pay for play" schemes at radio. Feingold is the sponsor of pending legislation that calls for an increase in local and independently produced radio content, as well as greater competition in radio programming, advertising and concert promotion.

The letter follows lobbying on the issue by the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences, the Recording Artists Coalition and the American Federation of Television & Radio Artists.

Radio Show

For your information: Wearing red gets you better service in a restaurant, women miss kissing most in a mature relationship, and don't eat hot soup in your car.

Now, stir in Celine Dion, Paul Davis and Brian McKnight-and add the dulcet tones of media/music personality John Tesh-and you've got a typical broadcast of "The John Tesh Radio Show," a quickly burgeoning daily syndicated show targeting AC radio stations. With its mix of music and relevant talk, the show's savvy slogan is "music and intelligence for your life."

Since launching at the end of April, the five-hour program has scooped up 76 affiliates-this, in addition to the 150 outlets already airing the weekend edition of the program, which began in 2000. Most, but not all, of Tesh's affiliates air his show in the evening.

In an era where broadcasters are frantically apprehensive about offending listeners-and the FCC-the former "Entertainment Tonight" host and new age minion seems to have tapped into a literal safe harbor with programming that offers a "family-safe and -friendly" promise. In fact, liners actually assure his audience, "If a 9year-old can't listen to it, you won't hear it on this radio station.

PULLING IN THE REINS

Tesh is considerably passionate about the show's mandate: "You can scream all you want about First Amendment rights, but someone had to pull in the reins," he says of recent actions taken by Clear Channel to squelch randy jocks Bubba the Love Sponge and Howard Stern. "I say, 'Thank you.' I don't think there's any place for this stuff. I believe in free speech until it goes against what the airwaves were intended for. We've turned our backs on decency. You can be funny without being disgusting and provocative. Things have just gone too far.

"I have a 9-year-old in the house and I tell you, it really levels you," he adds. "In Los Angeles, the only two radio stations I can listen to with my daughter are the Disney Channel and the Christian station.'

Clearly, Tesh has tapped into a widely shared ideal. In a number of markets, his show has posted dramatic worst-to-first ratings. At KKDJ (K-Lite) Bakersfield, Calif., the first signed affiliate of the daily version of his show ranked No. 1 in the summer and fall 2003 Arbitron books with women 25-54, walloping longtime AC syndicated evening-show staple Delilah, according to PD Kenn McCloud.

"It's one of few destination shows," McCloud says. "We say our morning show ["The Kenn & Barbie Show"] is mom-safe. Moms can listen with their 7-year-old in the car with them. John's commitment to radio for the family is perfect for us."

At KKLT (Lite Rock 98.7) Phoenix, the weekend show improved the station's share 744%, with cume up 283% and TSL up more than 200%, according to Tesh. Overall, the show is No. 2 in its daypart.

NATIONWIDE LOVE STORY

Tesh's six dozen affiliates seem to dot the country in equal geographic proportion, including WLYF Miami; WKJY Long Island, N.Y.; KOSI Denver; WEZY Milwaukee; WYSF Birmingham, Ala.; and KRBB Wichita, Kan. Five stations have also signed on in Canada. And recently, adding further testament to the show's versatility, Las Vegas affiliate KMZQ became the first station to air Tesh not in evenings but during afternoon drive. WBHH Norfolk, Va., followed in early March, putting Tesh in morning drive.

In another twist, three non-AC outlets have adopted the program, using only Tesh's voiceovers and inserting their own music. They are contemporary Christian AC WVFJ Atlanta; adult R&B CIQX Calgary, Alberta; and oldies KTSO Tulsa, Okla.

SHOW PREP PAYS OFF

"I think the show has turned into a real gold mine of information," Tesh says. "I really believe that people start tuning in and they just get hooked. I'm a friendly voice, but this isn't about me. The concept is so strong: We like to say we offer 'all the information you need to live your life a whole lot better—or just impress your friends at the water cooler on Monday.' Give us 20 minutes and we'll make you the smartest person in the room."

Tesh employs a research staff of seven just to dig up the information he shares a tidbit at a time with listeners. "There is a magazine for everything now; we go through all of them to find the best stuff and subscribe to every imaginable newsletter," he says. "Whenever there's a new study, we have it before it hits the wires and we share that with our listeners.'

Predominant themes are health and well-being, parenting issues, convenience tips, romance, motivation and positive thinking.

It was a major goal from the beginning to distinguish the show from relationship-focused competitors. Tesh explains, "We want to be useful. We don't want to listen to the crying and whining, where you do nothing about it. We want to help people solve their problems, to give a purpose in their lives and then to live that out. 'Go home, get a Sharpie and write on your mirror three goals and see them or pray over them every day and make your life better.

The information bits that Tesh delivers are nestled between familiar AC hits. One recent hour included the Corrs, Dan Fogelberg, Jewel, Edwin McCain, Christina Aguilera, Rod Stewart, Sheryl Crow, Marc Anthony, Genesis and Faith Hill. Ten to 12 songs per hour is the norm.

Conveniently, the music mix complements Tesh's own status as a fixture in the new age, instrumental and Christian music genres. His accolades include three gold albums, two Grammy Award nominations, several No. 1 radio hits, three PBS specials and sold-out tours. His current "Power of Love" was nominated for a 2003 Grammy for best pop instrumental album.

As a broadcaster, Tesh has earned an Associated Press Award for investigative journalism and worked two tours as an Olympic

K-Hits Puts 'Bounce' In Top 40

Sometimes, it takes the good intentions of record," Rush recalls. just one forward-thinking station.

In the case of Sarah Connor's top 20 hit, the midtempo soul stomper "Bounce"which achieved Airpower status on last issue's mainstream top 40 chart—KHTT (K-Hits) Tulsa, Okla., imported the song all the way from the artist's native Germany because it sounded like a good fit for the station.

How often does that happen

Across much of Europe, Connor has scored a number of hits during the past year, including hip-hop-inflected "Let's Get Back to Bed Boy!" featuring TQ and "One Nite Stand" featuring Wyclef Jean, as well as power ballad "From Sarah With Love." But the Epic singer's brand of greeneyed soul was not necessarily targeted for U.S. release.

That's when K-Hits APD Matt the Bratt Ryder got into the act. He heard "Bounce" on a Web site that samples overseas hits and, he says, "thought it was one of those fun, pop, upbeat records that just stands out. It was the kind of record that top 40 sorely needed at the time. It kind of has that Robyn sound.

Robyn scored defining pop hits in 1997 with "Do You Know (What It Takes)" and "Show Me Love," both of which peaked at No. 7 on The Billboard Hot 100.

Ryder took the song to K-Hits PD Carly Rush, who also figured "Bounce" as a smash in waiting: "Matt is really plugged into that kind of music, but I heard it and remember saying to him immediately, 'This is a K-Hits

The station tested the song on-air in late August 2003 by putting it in a battle of new songs. It won for three or four consecutive nights and on Sept. 8 was added to the station's regular rotation, in all dayparts.

We never saw it as an exclusive nighttime record," Rush says, noting that "the curiosity phones started immediately."

As the song continued to build in spins, it also began to test. "It's very hard to get a dance record to test, but this is one that did," Rush says. "It was No. 1 with our [listener board of] music advisers."

At its peak, "Bounce" was getting 96 spins per week at K-Hits.

Meanwhile, station personnel met with Epic executives, who were impressed with the reaction at K-Hits and ultimately decided to go for a push on a national basis. Epic also released Connor's self-titled album stateside this month.

Currently, "Bounce" is spinning on 116 mainstream top 40 stations while showing signs of gaining steam at rhythmic and adult top 40 radio. Airplay is heavy in most major markets, including New York, Los Angeles, Chicago, Dallas and Detroit. Epic also tweaked the original version, offering both a rap and non-rap mix.

It feels great knowing that we gave this record its start in the U.S.," Rush says. "So many people add records strictly by research numbers. I'm a second-generation radio guy, and I believe that a certain amount of gut reaction has to go into it. We took a chance on this one, and it was a home run."

His entertainment career began when he was still a student at North Carolina State University as the weekend news guy, where Rick Dees was then doing mornings. By 23, he was with CBS News in New York, then transferred to CBS Sports before landing the "ET" job.

"I couldn't do it anymore," he says of his voluntary exit from the syndicated TV show. "It was nothing but butt shots of Victoria's Secret models.

Four years ago, he filled in for Casey Kasem during the countdown guru's Westwood One tenure and was bit by the radio bug all over again. Tesh had already formed a company—the Los Angeles-based Tesh Media Group-to sell his records. Now, it also hawks his radio show.

"I really believe in this stuff," he says. "And I really enjoy coming in and doing this radio show. This is information so that people can live their lives a whole lot better.'

a bullet if its percentage loss in detections does not exceed the percentage of monitored station downtime for the format. A song that has been on the chart for month an 20 weeks will generally not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Greatest Gainer awarded to the song with the largest increase in detections. A song with a gain in detections over the previous week is placed first if tied with a song with a gain in detections over the previous week is placed first if tied with a song with a decline over the same period. When tied songs are each gain ing detections or each losing detections, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Songs below the too 15 become recurrents and are removed these forms.

Specialty Shows Provide Alternative Outlets For Unheard Artists

Specialty shows aren't just for hip-hop mix shows anymore. A recent crop of specialty programs geared toward R&B and jazz is providing new platforms for artists who don't normally see the light of day in regular rotation.

R&B WUSL (Power 99) Philadelphia mainstay "Inner City" and smooth jazz WQCD (CD 101.9) New York's recently launched "Groove Boutique" are among the specialty shows breaking new ground.

For "Inner City" creator/host Tiffany Bacon, the show allowed her to combine her two lovesmusic and poetry.

"Friends and I would sit and talk about how we missed hearing A Tribe Called Quest, De La Soul, Digable Planets and people like that on the radio," Bacon says. "At the same time, I was already a fan of poetry venues. I would go to weekly poetry events at [Philadelphia jazz restaurant] Warm Daddy's just to chill out and enjoy myself. And one day I thought, 'If I could take this atmosphere and put it on the radio, it could be a cool show.

Bacon, who began at Power 99 in 1997, originally pitched the show to then-PD Helen Little in early 1998, but the idea was rejected. This didn't deter her.

"In November of '98, I put together an hour-long demo tape," Bacon says. "I figured if I did get a shot that it would only be for 60 minutes. I put music like Jamiroquai, Brand New Heavies and Digable Planets on the tape along with a poet reading poetry in between three or four songs. [Little] liked it."

The program was approved a month later and debuted Feb. 7, 1999.

Since its inception, "Inner City" has served as a launching pad for poet Black Ice of "Def Poetry Jam on Broadway" fame and artists Jill Scott and Musiq.

"Musiq's managers brought in a tape of his first single, 'Just Friends,' "Bacon recalls. "I played it [on the show], and the next day the programming department was asking about the song because they were getting a lot of requests

"The list goes on and on," she adds. "Floetry is in that circle. Anthony Hamilton is in that circle, [as well as] India.Arie...A lot of people that ended up doing really big things and setting the stage showed up at our doorstep first."

GETTING INTO THE 'GROOVE'

R&B radio isn't the only format that utilizes the specialty show to give opportunities to the unheard artist. WQCD's "Groove Boutique" also offers alternatives to the acts heard in heavy rotation.

Saturday nights from 11 p.m. to 1 a.m., host Rafe Gomez kicks up the station's pulse by playing various forms of uptempo jazz including soul jazz, acid jazz, U.K. jazz-funk, nü jazz and neo-soul.

"The idea behind the show was to present another side of smooth jazz music and also music that could gel very nicely with the smooth jazz format but isn't necessarily smooth jazz," Gomez says. "The things that unite all of the types of sounds that I play are that [they are] melodic, groove-driven and beat-driven.

"A lot of the stuff you hear on smooth jazz radio is more lush and downtempo," he adds. "However, if you go to a concert of any of the marquee smooth jazz artists, they're not going to play laid-back, lush music for three hours. They're going to get loose, and the crowd is going to be on their feet. That's the starting point of the 'Groove Boutique'-uptempo, melodic, jazzy music that is danceable but also has the artistry of jazz musicianship for the people that appreciate that."

While Gomez focuses on jazz, he also dabbles in like-minded R&B and hip-hop.

"I play R&B if there is live instrumentation and if the lyrics are not pure cliché," he says. "The most neo-soul that I have played hasn't come from the U.S. or the U.K. There are groups out of New Zealand, believe it or not, that are absolutely amazing. I'm very discriminating when it comes to anything that has singing or lyrics. It really has to be at the top of

While the show has gained the attention of listeners and the media, programmers at WQCD—like those at WUSL—weren't initially keen on the idea. When Gomez first pitched the show in 2000 to PD Charley Connolly, the idea was rejected.

"Connolly thought that smooth jazz listeners would do a 180 [degree] turn and run off into the other direction," Gomez says. "Smooth jazz is a passive format. No one can tell you that they love this artist or that artist on smooth jazz radio, because they don't know which artist it is. They just love the feeling."

Connolly suggested he take the show to satellite radio. Gomez launched a six-hour weekly version of "Groove Boutique" on Sirius. But soon, the success of the show drew a lot of attention and word got back to WQCD.

According to Gomez, "Groove Boutique" was brought on to attract younger listeners to the station.

"It's a listening experience they can't get anywhere else, he says. "So, on top of the listeners digging it, the station is thrilled because they now can sell ads to advertisers who had no interest in them [previously]. They're getting advertisers who want to reach my young, hip, affluent audience.

"The idea that this music would repel the smooth jazz audience is an absolute falsehood." he adds. "If presented properly, this type of sound-neo-soul, acid jazz, jazz-funk-will absolutely appeal to this audience. It's all about how it's packaged and presented."

CAUGHT OFF-GUARD

For Power 99's Bacon, it's the audience's response to "Inner City" that has caught her the most off-guard.

"It has always been surprising for me," she admits. "I didn't know what to expect when we first aired, and neither did anyone else. There was a small group of people that immediately said, 'Right on. Thank you. Hallelujah!' It took a while for others to catch on because it wasn't the norm. We were into a different style of music [than what was popular].

"I guess through listening to us and [seeing] the support of these artists going on to do national things solidified us and gave people the opportunity to see what we were talking about,' Bacon adds. "The music is always pure and mostly good. It's feel-good music, so when people listen, they react.

Radio Rivals Unite

Crosstown rivals WQHT (Hot 97) and WWPR (Power 105) New York united for a good cause when their staffs attended the New York metro A.I.R. Awards at B.B. King's Blues Club & Grill. WQHT VP of programming/PD Tracy Cloherty was presented with the Broadcast Leadership Award. New York radio veteran Jim Kerr was also honored at the event. All proceeds benefited the New York-area March of Dimes. Pictured, from left, are WWPR PD Michael Saunders, Cloherty and Def Jam/Def Soul VP of promotions Thomas Lytle.

Interestingly, the recent mainstream success of acts like OutKast and Kanye Westartists that would normally receive attention on this type of show-may be a sign of things to come.

"I've always believed that the pendulum had to swing back the other way at some point,"

Bacon says. "You can only saturate things completely for so long, so for now with 'Hey Ya!' being a big deal . . . that means people will be a little more open to something that is not formulaic. People will be a little more willing to accept something that has not been in the status quo and give it a chance."

Songs ranked by number of detections. Songs showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A sung will also receive a builet if its percentage loss in detections does not exceed the percentage of maintened station downtime for the format. A song that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will generally not receive a builet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the tip 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the song with the largest increase in detections. Most Airplay Adds awarded to the song registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. A song with a gain in detection over the previous week is placed first if tied with a song with a decline over the same period. When tied songs are each gaining detections or each losing detections, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Songs below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

20 weeks will generally not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the song with the largest increase in detections. Most Air Adds awarded to the song registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. A song with a gain in detections over the previous we placed first if tiled with a song with a decline over the same period. When tied songs are each gaining detections or each losing detections, the song being played on ristations is placed first. Songs below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart afc6 weeks.

CRS Panel Tackles Indecency

Indecency and edgy music were the central topics at the "How Far Is Too Far" panel at Country Radio Seminar, held March 4 in Nashville.

Noting that Infinity has been "taking precautions" with regard to indecency (see story, page 1), KILT Houston PD Jeff Garrison said he's more concerned about what live guests and callers might say than what his own jocks might slip up.

"If someone wants their 10 seconds of fame," he said, "you are responsible."

Garrison recalled one of his earliest jobs at a rock station in 1985 in Lufkin, Texas, where he was taking live phone calls about whether to play the new Ozzy Osbourne single. A caller told him to "shut up and play the fucking record." Garrison said, "I think that was the last live phone call I ever took on the air.

"It's easy to be raunchy. It's hard to be classy," Garrison said. He described a line he calls the "cume buster" that country stations shouldn't cross. "If you cross the line, the [female diarykeepers] will never write your ass down again.

WKDF Nashville morning man Eddie Foxx agreed. "You have to be careful. I don't want a $700,000 fine coming down from corporate."

Panelists also discussed pushing the line both during live shows and on the air. Trick Pony's Ira Dean said that while he's "all about shock value" in his live show, "if it's an adults show, game on. But not if there's kids in the audience. I'd love to whip my apples out onstage," he said. "But there are kids watching."

On the radio side, Foxx said, "If you know your audience, you know what you can get away with. The soccer mom driving to work doesn't want to hear a couple having sex in a church."

Moderator Ed Hill, who is PD of KUBL Salt Lake City, thinks country music has become almost too sterile. "We need songs with real adult human longing [and] slightly sexually overt content.

"We lack sex appeal [in country]," Hill added. "We lack a walk up to the sexual tension they have in other formats . . . the bump and grind songs that were an element of other formats in the '70s.

Dean agreed, noting that he has "quit listening to country radio. It sounds like bad Richard Marx records. We sound like we're making music for 13-year-olds.'

Foxx said that "today's music is a little too polished." Citing Gretchen Wilson's "Redneck Woman," he said, "Give me more of that gritty, nasty country."

But potential listener and even programmer complaints may be keeping the format overly sanitized. Asylum Records VP of promotion Rob Dalton talked about having to send some stations an edit of the Joe Diffie song "Ships That Don't Come In" when he worked at Epic, because some programmers complained about the line "bitch about a dollar."

WCOS Columbia, S.C., OM Ron Brooks said those complaints are driven by the listeners. He said he had to "throw a cymbal crash" over the word "ass" in Toby Keith's "Courtesy of the Red, White and Blue" and he also got "crappy research" on the Montgomery Gentry song "Hell Yeah," presumably because of the word "hell."

Another panel attendee noted that audience reaction can be hard to predict. He also got complaints about "Hell Yeah" but said he can play "drinking song after drinking song on the air and even play [Keith's] 'Weed With Willie' and get no complaints.

Indecency was also discussed at the label heads panel at CRS. Sony Music Nashville president John Grady and Universal Music Group Nashville chairman Luke Lewis called the current climate of FCC crackdowns and radio group zero-tolerance policies "scary." Lewis added, "You can't legislate morality."

not indecent as a matter of law. That is the government's job, and its results are often models of inconsistency.

The memo notes that expletives, particularly the so-called "seven dirty words," are not the only things considered indecent by the FCC. "In addition to expletives, indecent material generally includes language or sound effects which describe or simulate sexual acts, sexual organs or excretory functions as well as sexually oriented double-entendre and innuendo where the context of the speech makes the references clear," the memo says.

Lerman also spells out what he refers to as "coarse language," to be avoided on Infinity stations. "Included in this category would be terms such as 'prick,' 'dick,' 'pussy,' 'titty bar,' 'hard-on,' 'asshole,' 'douchebag,' 'scumbag,' 'twat,' 'cock' and similar coarse words and phrases,' the memo says. "General managers and program directors should direct their talent generally to eliminate these references on-air and replace them with more benign terminology."

Addressing questions about who is responsible for editing syndicated personalities, including Infinity's Howard Stern, Tom Leykis and Don & Mike, the memo savs that "all stations should delete indecent syndicated material even if the program in question has been previously edited at the origination point. In the case of Infinity-originated programming, however, the primary responsibility for ensuring that the program contains no indecent material falls upon the editor and management of the originating station.

"Editors and their management at stations to which Infinity-produced programs are syndicated will not be subject to draconian penalties such as suspension and termination for syndicated material which airs in such programs. However, this does not mean that independent editorial controls may be eliminated.

The memo further states that newscasts and all-news stations are exempt from the company's newly instituted delay requirements with the exception of "live, longform interview news shows ... with telephone callers or instudio newsmaker guests." Live play-by-play portions of sports game broadcasts are also exempt from delay, but not "pregame, halftime and postgame elements that may include

Meanwhile, Clear Channel has announced that it has invested more than $500,000 in new broadcast-delay equipment. The equipment will allow stations that air potentially sensitive material or live callers to have a 20-second delay. The company also said that it is developing an in-house system that will allow for an up-to-five-minute delay.

ON THE ROW

WFMS Racks Up Three ACM Nods

WFMS Indianapolis earned three nominations in the Academy of Country Music's radio categories. It is nominated as station of the year and has two nods in the on-air personality category, for MD/afternoon driver J.D. Cannon and for the morning team of Jim Denney, Deborah Honeycutt and Kevin Freeman. KYGO Denver earned two nominations, one for station of the year and one for morning team Kelly, Jonathan and Mudflap.

Also nominated in the station of the year category are WSIX Nashville; WQYK-FM Tampa, Fla.; and WUSY (US101) Chattanooga, Tenn. Other air personality nominees are KFDI Wichita, Kan.'s Cornbread and Pat James, KNIX Phoenix's Tim & Willy and Premiere syndicated overnight host Blair Garner.

In other news, former Broken Bow Records artist J. Michael Harter has formed Big Al Records with Phoenix business executives Steven Dick and Joan Heil. Veteran Nashville producer/publisher/songwriter Blake Mevis has been tapped as president/CEO for the Tempe, Ariz.-based label. Big Al has formed an alliance with Nashville-based independent label Lofton Creek Records, which will promote Harter's new album, "Unexpected Change." It will be distributed by Select-O-Hits.

The Grand Ole Opry will take its show on the road this year for a national tour featuring Opry members Vince Gill, Patty Loveless and the Del McCoury Band, along with Rebecca Lynn Howard. The Grand Ole Opry American Road Show 2004 will kick off April 23 and run through Oct. 16. Opry announcer/WSM-AM Nashville personality Eddie Stubbs will be featured on the tour, which will also include guest appearances from other performers.

Sources say Tim McGraw & the Dancehall Doctors will play a run of outdoor amphitheaters from mid-June through August, doing approximately 40-45 dates in total. Last year, McGraw grossed $33 million from 53 shows, ranking him 14th among all touring acts in 2003.

Brian McComas has signed with Buddy Lee Attractions for booking.

audience back], and some are trying to go across the street and steal hip-hop artists. That works better for some stations than others.

Modern programmers readily acknowledge that some of their listeners are fans of rhythmic music. "I think the demographic that I program to has always had an interest in hip-hop and rap," WXTM (Xtreme Radio) Cleveland PD Kim Monroe says. "I feel pretty sure that most 18- to 24-year-old males who own the Linkin Park CD also have Jay-Z's 'Black Album' in their collection. That being said, the jury is still out on my audience and what they feel and expect to hear."

"I have no doubt that a large percentage of my audience owns the OutKast and 50 Cent records, and I think everyone in the world owns an Eminem record," Resler says. But other than Cypress Hill, WBRU isn't dabbling in much hip-hop.

"I felt the station was too wide when I started here and wanted to make sure the audience knew what to expect when they tuned in," Resler says. "The analogy I use is that I love 'The Sopranos,' but I don't want to see it on the cooking channel. I'll never forget the time that I saw 'The Godfather' on VHI, and it puzzled me. When I go somewhere, I want to know exactly what I'm going to get.

"I think it's important for us to keep our brand," he continues. "We've moved away from the days of three television networks that show a broad spectrum of shows. Now we're into the 600 digital cable channels, and each one is very niche. I think it's important to stick to your niche."

'This is certainly a viable format

but probably wouldn't be an easy one to sell at a local level'

— Steve Blatter, Sirius

IT'S THE SONG

Programmers have different criteria for adding the rhythmic-leaning music they play. A guitar base is one parameter that seems to be a requirement. Jay-Z's "99 Problems" was produced by Rick Rubin and harks back to his work on the Beastie Boys' "License to Ill" album, while Cypress Hill's "What's Your Number" is anchored by a sample of the Clash's "The Guns of Brixton" and features Rancid's Tim Armstrong.

But the most important factor comes back to the song itself. "What I look for is plain and simple," Monroe says. "A good song that feels compatible with what we play on Xtreme. We didn't play Out-Kast because we felt that it was a little too pop. But Jay-Z, texturally, sounds like it should fit."

For CIMX (89X) Detroit, a strong local angle is what gets hip-hop on the station. 89X is currently playing D12's "My Band," which features Eminem. "The Detroit connection is strong, but we also love to have a sense of humor, and the song is funny as hell," PD Murray Brookshaw says. "With Eminem, it's the Detroit connection as well.'

WBRU is playing Cypress Hill for several reasons. " 'Rock Superstar' is a level one gold for us, and we do play 'Insane in the Brain' here and there," Resler says. "Cypress Hill has somehow crossed over to modern, and the fact that we can talk about a Clash sample and Tim Armstrong of Rancid on the record makes a big difference.'

MAKING THE BRAND

Resler says branding has a lot to do with whether he'll play a rhythmic-leaning artist. "Jay-

Z has had eight or nine albums at hip-hop, and he's branded there," he says. "I thought that way about OutKast too. They're a rap group that has put out a greatest-hits album already. At least when modern rock adopted Eminem, he wasn't branded. I would consider Jurassic 5 before Jay-Z, because [the band is] not branded vet."

But there are still a number of listeners that want their modern rock to, well, rock.

You'll always get some complaints [about playing hip-hop]," Brookshaw says. You're going to get some of the rock guys that don't want any part of it. But if people are open to different styles of music, they won't have any problems with it."

Monroe says some listener objections are to be expected. "We do get some complaint calls, [but] these are the same complaints we continue to get about [playing] the Beastie Boys."

Instead of listening to his most vocal Pls, Brookshaw relies on research to ultimately decide whether a songs stays on 89X. "We played OutKast because we thought it was a great song that just jumped out of the speakers," he says. "But we tested it with our audience, and they came back and said that it didn't fit us. We also played the Roots' 'The Seed' for a while because we thought it was interesting. But we let the audience decide what they thought, and they weren't into that, either.'

A NEW FACTION

There's one station playing rock and hip-hop without any concern about fitting into the stillnarrow definition of what sort of hip-hop music fits on modern rock. However, it won't be found on terrestrial radio. Sirius Satellite Radio stream. Faction is playing titles by Kanye West, Raekwon and Ying Yang Twins alongside aggressive rock music by such bands as Metallica and Chevelle and punk tracks by NOFX and the Ramones.

"We looked at potential opportunities for formats where there were underserved audiences at traditional radio," Sirius VP of music programming Steve Blatter says. "We found that there was an opportunity to serve younger men with this format.'

But Blatter admits that while Faction appeals to its target audience of 18to 24-year-olds who grew up listening to hip-hop and hard rock, the mix might not translate to terrestrial radio.

"It would depend on the local marketplace," he says. "The format would appeal to a lot of people, but one of the luxuries of programming at a subscription service is that we don't have an advertiser base to be concerned with. This is certainly a viable format but probably wouldn't be an easy one to sell at a local level."

Rock Art Show Hits The Road

Guess Who drew this lithograph?

(OK, it was John Entwistle.)

As anyone wearing a Jerry Garcia tie can tell you, many musicians have turned to visual art as another outlet for their creativity. Right Brain Revenue, a company owned by Greater Media/Philadelphia marketing director Scott Segelbaum, has launched a touring event showcasing the art of musicians as a revenue builder Segelbaum first got the idea of having a rock art show when he was the promotion director of classic rock KLSX Los Angeles. After arriving in Philadelphia, he did a similar event at classic rock WMGK.

"This is upscale, cool and a natural extension of artists people love," he says. "If you're a Paul McCartney fan, you would be interested in his art. And if you go home with a piece of his artwork, you've got a limited-edition lithograph signed by Paul McCartney.

Former heritage rock WMMR Philadelphia PD

Sam Milkman is acting as a consultant for the rock art show project. He cites a book called "Musicians As Artists" for which Segelbaum served as a consultant. "The theory is that if your mind is geared to creating artistic musical work, then those same circuits help create visual art as well," Milkman says. "We all have some sort of inclination of what the artwork of Jerry Garcia looks like, but apparently, it works that way for many creative minds. It's really cool to see what comes off the pen of Paul McCartney or Tom Petty. And it brings you closer to the artist.'

The show features about 100 lithographs, photographs and signed lyric sheets by artists including John Lennon, David Bowie, Ron Wood, Garcia, McCartney, Petty and Jon Anderson of Yes. The show also features photographers that have shot album covers and have signed some of their photographs.

The prices range from $100 to $4,500, but Segelbaum says there will be "a few select highprofile shows where I may take out on consignment some original John Lennon artwork that sells for $13,000.

"This is a sales dream come true," Segelbaum adds. "Programming loves it, and the sky's the limit on how to sponsor it. It's a lot of work to put everything together, but once it's all together, I have this stock, inventory and the relationships I've built up over the last 10 years where I can get access to all these pieces."

After stations book the show, Right Brain Revenue brings all the artwork to the city. "We ask the radio station to supply the venue, which can be a revenue generator," Segelbaum says. "In Philadelphia, for example, the venue pays to have us there because of the traffic we get. What we ask in return is a commission on the sales of their sponsorships. So there are no upfront fees, there's no guarantees and the fees that we ask for are after the commissions have been paid.'

The rock art show is geared for classic rock or triple-A stations, as those artists are the most appropriate ones for the stations with which Segelbaum has done the show in the past. But he doesn't rule out expansion to other formats.

"The art that we've been able to curate has been a lot of Beatles, Stones and basically the Mount Rushmores of rock," he says. "But I absolutely think it can branch out. John Lennon and Jerry Garcia are incredible artists, but Marilvn Manson is a great artist, too. So it certainly can expand to other formats as it goes on."

Segelbaum encourages participating stations to have a client reception and invite the media. "It's a very good way to show off the radio station in an upscale way," he says. "When we had our opening-night party in Los Angeles, we invited the media, [which] tends to love this because it's a visual promotion." He adds that Elton John, Stevie Nicks, Brian Wilson, Brian Setzer and Graham Nash attended the Los Angeles event, while Steven Van Zandt and Led Zeppelin's John Paul Jones were at one of the Philadelphia shows.

With such visitors, this type of event is ideal for artist appearances. "You have an extension of the radio station in a retail location," Segelbaum says, "and if an artist happens to be going through, it's perfect for them to do interviews or an acoustic show or a live broadcast to attract people.

The first station that the rock art show will be visiting is classic rock WGRF Buffalo, N.Y.

Chaos, Vendetta Reign On Indie 103.1

Before Joey Scoleri was VP of rock promotion at Hollywood Records, he was Joey Vendetta, PD of CILQ Toronto. Through the power of modern KDLD/KDLE (Indie 103.1) Los Angeles, Vendetta has returned to the airwaves as host of weekly rock specialty show "Chaos." Guests on the program's first installment included Brides of Destruction's Nikki Sixx and Tracii Guns, as well as adult film star Amber Lynn. Pictured, from left, are PD Michael Steele, Sixx, Scoleri and Sanctuary's Mark Chotiner.

Songs ranked by number of detections. Songs showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A song will also receive a builet if its percentage loss in detections does not exceed the percentage of monitored station downtime for the format. A song that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will generally not receive a builet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Altrower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the song with the largest increase in detections. Most Airplay Adds awarded to the song registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. A song with a gain in detections over the previous week is placed first if tied with a song with a decline over the same period. When tied songe ace ach gaining detections or each losing detections, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Songs below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Compled from a national sample of data supplied by Nielsen Broadcast Data Systems. 45 heritage rock and 20 triple-a stations are electron-cally monitored 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Songs ranked by number of detections. Songs showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chair movement. A song will also receive a builet if its percentage loss in detections does not exceed the percentage of monitored station downtime for the format. A song that has been on the chair for more than 20 weeks will generally not receive a builet, even if it negisters an increase in detections. A proving availed to song appearing in the log 20 on both the Anaplay and Audience charls for the first time with increase in other chestions and audience, Createst Garden availed to the song registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this view. A song with a gain in detections over the previous week is placed first if their with a song with a decine over the same pend. When better songs are each joining detections in each losing detections the song being played on more stations is placed first. Songs below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks. 5° 2004 VIKU Business Media. Inc. All rights reserved.

Big Jump To No. 1 On Adult T40

After peaking at No. 2 on the adult top 40 chart with its debut single, "Bring Me to Life," Evanescence earns its first No. 1 at the format as "My Immortal" (Wind-up) moves 5-1 with Greatest Gainer honors (up 204 detections).

The four-place leap is, surprisingly, the biggest jump to No. 1 in the eight-year history of the chart. Three songs have climbed 4-1 on the chart, the last being Avril Lavigne's "Complicated" in July 2002.

"Immortal" marks the third No. 1 in three weeks at adult top 40, something that hasn't occurred on this usually stable chart since June 2001, when Uncle Kracker's "Follow Me," Train's "Calling All Angels" and Lifehouse's "Hanging by a Moment" occupied the No. 1 slot in three consecutive weeks.

Sheryl Crow earns her first solo top 10 on the mainstream top 40 list in 5¹ 2 years, as "The First Cut Is the Deepest" (Interscope) inches up 11-10. Besides her 2003 "Picture" duet with Kid Rock, Crow last hit the top 10 with "My Favorite Mistake" in December 1998.

Martina McBride earns her first solo top 10 on the AC chart, as "This One's for the Girls" (RCA Nashville) moves 12-10. McBride's first appearance on the AC chart was as the vocalist on the Jim Brickman track "Valentine." That song peaked at No. 3 in March 1997.

McGRAW, CHESNEY, KRACKER MAKE NOISE ON COUNTRY CHART

With 4,587 detections, Tim McGraw's "Watch the Wind Blow By" (Curb) collects a second week atop the Country Airplay chart, while Toby Keith's former chart-topper, "American Soldier" (DreamWorks), lags 128 plays behind McGraw and holds at No. 2.

Although McGraw's single takes top ink on the detections chart, the real noisemaker this issue is Kenny Chesney & Uncle Kracker's "When the Sun Goes Down" (BNA), which increases 447 spins to earn Greatest Gainer stripes and moves 9-4.

Chesney's duet also dominates the Nielsen BDS country audience tally, where it finishes first with 33.4 million listener impressions. Keith's single dips 1-2 on the audience chart with approximately 33 million audience impressions, while McGraw's entry is pushed 2-3 on the audience list with 32.9 million impressions.

Considering the impressive momentum gained by "When the Sun Goes Down," it is likely to dominate the detections chart next issue.

INCUBUS SCORES FIRST ACTIVE ROCK NO. 1

Incubus earns its first No. 1 at active rock, as "Megalomaniac" (Epic) takes over the top spot from Nickelback's "Figured You Out" (Roadrunner/IDJMG). Incubus' previous peak at the format was the No. 3 showing of "Pardon Me" in May 2000. At modern rock, "Megalomaniac" extends its run in the pole position for a sixth straight week its run in the pole position for a sixth straight week.

Audioslave's "What You Are" (Epic) enters the active chart at No. 34 and the modern chart at No. 40, becoming the fifth song from the group's self-titled album to appear on both charts. This is the first time an artist has had five songs from an album reach the active list since Staind's "Epiphany" became the fifth song from "Break the Cycle" to chart in May 2002. The last time an act took five songs from one album onto the modern chart was June 2002, when "Runaway" extended Linkin Park's output from "Hybrid Theory."

A 'NEW DAY' FOR PATTI LaBELLE

Patti LaBelle debuts on the adult R&B chart for the first time in three years, as "New Day" (Def Soul Classics) enters at No. 33. LaBelle is the second artist on the chart signed to a "classics" imprint; Teena Marie's "Still in Love" (Cash Money Classics) earns Greatest Gainer and Most Airplay Adds honors as it jumps 16-11 with an increase of 184 detections.

LaBelle's previous chart appearance, "Why Do We Hurt Each Other," peaked at No. 35 in April 2001.

PANEL CHANGES

WZZN Chicago has been moved from the modern rock panel to active rock. KCHZ Kansas City has been removed from the rhythmic top 40 panel and added to mainstream top 40. KQKQ Omaha, Neb., has been removed from the mainstream top 40 panel because of a format change. WMCS Milwaukee has been removed from the adult R&B panel.
