Is Country Listening Down? Or Is It Just Ratings Methodology?

by Phyllis Stark

When Airplay Monitor recently reported the alarming statistic that country's national audience share is back down to where it was when Garth Brooks debuted in 1989—about 9.3% of national listening—a few readers protested (Country Airplay Monitor, May 28). Although Billboard/Airplay Monitor and Arbitron have been jointly tracking national listening for 10 years, some say comparing country shares from 10 or even five years ago to today is unfair because of changes in Arbitron methodology and because of population shifts, all of which have adversely affected country. In proper context, critics say, country's real strength hasn't deteriorated as much as it might appear.

Arbitron, however, calls these claims ridiculous. And format observers who see some validity in the ratings explanation say blaming Arbitron for the format's troubles is just shooting the messenger.

Chief among those disputing the 10-year trend is Keith Hill of Hill/Acree Consulting, who believes that "we in country aren't performing any worse or equivalent to our low point of 10 years ago. The format is certainly more robust than 10 years ago," he says. "If Arbitron used the same procedures as it did five years ago, our ratings would jump by 2 shares across the board.

"In the past few years, there have been more and more markets identified as high-density black areas or high-density Hispanic areas," says Hill. "That means the treatment of diaries as well as the methods used to retrieve them are dramatically different. Add to it two more layers. Arbitron has changed vendors [from Metro Mail to Survey Sampling Inc. last summer] for their blind call lists, and they are now farming intentionally larger households to be diarykeeping households, [which] favors black households and disfavors nonethnic households," he contends.

"I'm willing to concede that what we're seeing in numbers is more accurate today," adds Hill. "But what that means is that earlier, [Arbitron] showed country more inaccurately. It's one or the other. Pick your poi-

Country "may be down some, but Hill says its decline is "overstated by Arbitron." Hill says he conducted an Arbitronlike experiment in one of his markets using similar methodology minus ethnic weighting and found it made a 2share difference in favor of his country client.

Hill is quick to note that he's "an Arbitron fan . . . I really believe they put a Herculean effort into being unbiased. [But] the reality is, farming larger households is biased. They actually had a holy intention, but it went awry. They introduced Former KKBQ (93Q) Houston programmer Dene Hallam says, "Arbitron measures differently than 10 years ago" and adds that the "percentage of the white population has shrunk since 10 years ago." But, he adds, "this is not a racial issue per se, just a factual analysis of who listens to what. Minority listeners are a small segment of country Pls, especially in markets that have strong stations super-serving minorities," particularly Hispanics and African-Americans.

Mullins Named Journal's Country Group PD

Moon Mullins is named to the newly created position of director of country programming for Journal Broadcast Group's 14 country stations. He will directly oversee the programming of Journal's three Wichita, Kan., country stations, KFDI-AM-FM/KYQQ, where he will be based. Mullins, a veteran country programmer and consultant, has operated Nashville-based research and marketing firm FirstTrack since 1996. Prior to that, he was co-owner of the Pollack Media Group and president of its country consulting division. He previously was PD of KFDI-AM-FM, among other stations.

Parton, Twitty, Bond Advance To Hall

GALLERY OF HONOR: Dolly Parton, Johnny Bond, and Conway Twitty will be inducted into the Country Music Hall of Fame Sept. 22 during the 33rd annual Country Music Assn. Awards show at the Grand Ole Opry House in Nashville. Each of the honorees is known for entertainment-industry contributions beyond recording and performing country music.

Singer/songwriter Bond released numerous singles throughout his career and charted 11 songs from 1947 to 1971. Many of Bond's songs pre-dated Billboard's country chart, which began in 1944. His biggest hits include "Hot Rod Lincoln," "Divorce Me C.O.D.," "So Round, So Firm, So Fully Packed," and the anti-Hitler anthem "Der Fuehrer's Face." His biggest chart hit came in 1965 with an updated version of "Ten Little Bottles," which he originally recorded for Columbia in 1951.

He worked closely throughout his career with singing cowboy stars such as Gene Autry, Jimmy Wakely, and Tex Ritter. In 1939, Bond appeared with Roy Rogers in "Saga Of Death Valley" and subsequently performed in many western films, mainly in musical sequences. He also toured with Autry and authored several books, including "The Tex Ritter Story," in 1975. Johnny Bond died in 1978.

Parton is country music's most successful entertainer and film star and its most recorded female singer/songwriter. Her career began at age 7, when a relative bought Parton her first guitar. A short time later, she began performing on WIVK Knoxville, Tenn.'s "Cas Walker Farm And Home Hour." She first recorded for Mercury, followed by Monument, RCA, Columbia, and Decca.

Parton starred in films such as "9 To 5," "Steel Magnolias," and "The Best Little Whorehouse In Texas" and charted 133 singles between '67 and '98. Many of those sides were duets with Porter Wagoner and Kenny Rogers, among others. Her current project is "Trio II" (Asylum) with Linda Ronstadt and Emmylou Harris.

Twitty, who initially gained notoriety as a rock'n'roll singer (à la Elvis Presley), was born in Mississippi and raised in Arkansas. He learned guitar chords at age 4 and had formed his own band, which performed regularly on a Saturday-morning radio show, at age 10. He was exposed to black blues and country music as a child. While in the army in '56, he formed another band and, on his discharge, joined the "Ozark Jubilee" TV show in Springfield, Mo. He recorded four sides for the venerable Sun

He recorded four sides for the venerable Sun imprint and wrote songs for other artists. He became a rock'n'roll icon in 1958, when "It's Only Make Believe" became a No. 1 pop hit. He starred in movies and was parodied in the Broadway musical "Bye Bye Birdie."

Twitty cut his first country record in 1965 and charted 97 titles prior to his death in 1993. Forty of those songs peaked at No. 1.

SWEET MUSIC MAN: Kenny Rogers scores his highest-charting title on Billboard's Top Country Albums chart since '85, as "She Rides Wild Horses" (Dreamcatcher) gains 2,500 units to leap 9-7. Rogers hasn't seen top 10 territory with an album of new material since his '85 set, "What About Me," peaked at No. 9 on the chart.

Elsewhere on the album chart, Chris Le-Doux takes the Hot Shot Debut purse, as "20 Greatest Hits" (Capitol) enters at No. 17 with more than 9,000 scans. It's his second best-of set. The former world-champion bareback rider has charted nine album titles since signing with Capitol in '90 and issued more than 20 independent titles before inking the Capitol deal.

NOW YOU SEE IT: With airplay at 28 monitored country outlets, Radney Foster's "Godspeed (Sweet Dreams)" (Arista Austin) enters our country Airplay Chart at No. 74. The single is included in Foster's new "See What You Want To See" album and is being worked by Arista Nashville's promotion staff.

Foster, whose single was serviced in a customized greeting card to indicate its appropriateness for Father's Day (which occurred during our chart week), has been absent from our chart since "If It Were Me" charted for five weeks in the autumn of '95.

ON THE ROW

Alabama, Sony In Publishing Deal

Alabama has sold its three publishing companies to Sony/ATV Tree Music Publishing for a reported $18 million. The acquisition of Maypop Music (BMI), Alabama Band Music (ASCAP), and Mountain Flower Music (SESAC) gives Sony/ATV Tree about 3,500 new copyrights. The three songwriting partners in Alabama also signed five-year contracts with Sony ATV/Tree. Company president/CEO Donna Hilley says all of the three publisher's writers will be brought on board.

Daniel Hill is exiting as VP of Universal Music Publishing in Nashville, according to a source. Hill, with the company for 10 years, had been acting GM of PolyGram Music Publishing when it merged with MCA Music Publishing earlier this year. Under the realignment, Hill reported to Pat Higdon, senior VP/GM of Universal Music in Nashville. Hill has reportedly told friends he plans to take some time off before announcing any plans. Hill and Higdon were not available for comment.

Citadel Communications CEO Larry Wilson will be the keynote speaker at the regional Country Radio Seminar-Gulf Coast Aug. 27-28 at the Adam's Mark Hotel in Mobile, Ala. Performers will include Epic's Joe Diffie, new Monument band Yankee Grey, and new Columbia signee Tara Lvn Hart.

Mark Alan Springer has been elected president of the Nashville Songwriters Assn. International (NSAI), succeeding Jim McBride. Other NSAI officers for the next year are VPs Skip Ewing, Bob Regan, and Mark D. Sanders; legislative chair Dottie Moore; secretary Angela Kaset; treasurer Beckie Foster; and sergeant at arms Craig Wiseman, who also serves as membership chairman. Newly elected NSAI board members are Chuck Cannon, Gary Chapman, Roger Cook, Skip Ewing, Annie Roboff, and Paul Williams.

Rod Essig was named talent agent of the year by the National Assn. of Talent Directors for the third consecutive year. Essig also took over the reins as president of the group at its June 14 meeting. Tandy Rice received the group's Hubert Long Award for artist development.

Warner Bros. artist Joni Harms has signed with Monterey Artists for booking representation.

The Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum's new Web site went online June 16. It can be accessed at www.halloffame.org or through CBS Cable's country.com. Site content includes bios of the 69 Hall of Fame members, articles from the Journal of Country Music, a multimedia archive featuring audio- and videoclips, Hall of Fame exhibit displays, and a tour of Music Row.

Scott Borchetta, DreamWorks Records' senior executive of promotion and artist development, co-wrote a track on the upcoming Jerry Kilgore album, due Sept. 21 from Virgin. Borchetta penned "The Real Thing" with Jeff Stevens and Steve Bogard.

Station Concerts Head Summer Promo Bill

Station concerts reclaimed the top spot on the Topical Barometer, edging summer movies and Independence Day. Country WWKA (K92) Orlando, Fla., offered a rather swank perk for a lucky station concertgoer. "One winner won the use of a locked Porta-Potty for him and his friends," says Dave Demer, flush with success. Talk about relatable!"

Meanwhile, country KZLA Los Angeles is looking ahead to its second Country Cookout in October. "It's a full-day event with two stages, outside vendors, tons of music, and artist meetand-greets," says chef Marida Petitjean. "It's a mini-Fan Fair, if you will."

A more intimate station concert was held at modern rock KXTE (Extreme Radio) Las Vegas. "We did a weekend promotion, giving away passes to a Back Patio performance with Stain'd, with full gear," Carly Johnston writes. "It was loud." Talk about getting a lot of feedback. It looks like "Wild Wild West" will be the next event summer flick, as top 40 WPXY Rochester, N.Y., adds a nice twist to the nth-caller ducat giveaway. "Listeners who ask to have his or her prize super-sized will also receive $50 worth of New York Lottery 'Wild Wild West' instant cash games," says Tristano Korlou, who's gamblin' and ramblin' on to a new gig at Infinity's Hartford, Conn., cluster. "Each ticket has eight chances to win up to $25,000."

Here's a Dad's Day idea to file for next year: Album rock WPYX Álbany, N.Y., held a Father's Day Action Lane 500. Five fathers "raced" in recliners pushed by their wives down a 106foot-long course. The first couple to cross the finish line won a recliner, a 32-inch TV, and a box of cigars. Nicole Cyr was laid-back about it.

Winfax on your computer, and it'll fax your releases at night. Get as many people at TV stations as possible—reporters, assignment editors, producers, cameramen. What's worthless to one reporter can be a gold mine to another, more creative reporter and cameraman.'

Triple-A KKZN (the Zone) Dallas has an outside PR guy fax releases and follow them up. "We've had some luck with fancy PR deliveries, like a mock-up of our benefit CD with a CDsized press release inside a jewel case—it was featured in a local paper's music column," says

Barbara Luchsinger. "When I was at [country] KPLX, I sent a Marine action figure attached to a press release for Toys for Tots' three-day drive. Anything to draw a little more attention to your Vanessa Thill of rhythmic top 40 KLUC Las Vegas prefers the personalized pitch. "We send personalized invites and tickets to all the TV anchors and reporters for our listener-appreciation shows. If they come, great. If not, they'll remember who sent them. But I usually let my air talent get in the face of the press. I have them hand-deliver gift baskets and other promo items. This makes their faces memorable, so they'll think of us in the future

Anne-Marie Strzelecki of modern adult WBMX (Mix 98.5) Boston invites the press to client parties. "The more you can make them feel like they're part of the station's family, the more likely you are to get press when the time comes. Offer them extra concert tickets or movie passes. Treat them like the sales people treat their No. 1 clients. Don't call them only when you're asking for coverage.

Finally, "remember to be reciprocal," says Greg Frey of country KSON San Diego. "At some point, the radio station will be asked to get involved with a TV station or newspaper. It goes both ways."

PROMO OF THE WEEK: ATTRACTING PUB

After discussing the pluses and minuses of the various media's coverage last week, the panel turns its attention to the best ways to attract that coverage. "We concentrate on developing relationships, so they'll say our call letters instead of those dreaded words 'a local radio station,' " says Mike Culotta of country WQYK Tampa, Fla.

The panel was evenly split between those who regularly send press releases and those who only send them for big events. "I send out at least two to three press releases a week for each station," says Loren Condron of modern adult KDMX/album rock KEGL Dallas. "Get

QUICK HITS

At WWKA's Undy 400, listeners race go-carts in their underwear for Pepsi 400 tickets. What will Dave Demer be wearing? Depends.

Rhythmic top 40 KQBT (the Beat) Austin, Texas, introduced its new morning duo, Rick The Stick and Pete Gallendo, to the market in some novel ways. First, the station put the duo in a bathtub with the Texas Bikini Team and placed them at a busy intersection. The streets were as clogged as the drain. Then the duo took 300 tacos to the streets and fed passersby. Jody Bailey subbed for that cute little chihuahua, who was out fighting the Imperial Forces.

AC KESZ Phoenix will toast morning duo Beth and Bill's ninth anniversary during a live broadcast July 1 at Alice Cooper'stown (a great tavern/restaurant next to Bank One Ballpark and American West Arena). A local band will perform live in and out of commercial sets (à la the "Saturday Night Live" band). They expect many surprise guests to stop by, including the proprietor, Alice Cooper, who Vicki Fiorelli thinks is Marilyn Manson's father.

Here's a testament to the power of online marketing: Top 40 WNKS (Kiss 95.1) Charlotte, N.C., is conducting a cruise with its morning show. "We have yet to promote it on-air," Diana Ades says. "And we've already sold four cabins just through the Web site and direct mail."

PROMOGANDA HONOR ROLL

KENNY ROGERS Greatest

Coast to Coast the Greatest Responses... From All Ages!

NATIONAL

"The Greatest' is a very robust song...and it's working with all demos."

Keith Hill, consultant

NORTHEAST

"Another week of solid testing. Overall scores put Kenny at 5 out of 35. Potential scores had Kenny at #1 out of 35! In the ultra core 'like a lots' group, it was the #1 best testing song with a 43%. It's a hit!"

Ken Johnson, WXTUPPhiladelphia

"Listeners gravitate to this song. Great phones from all age groups."
Roy Sampson, WGRX/Ealtimore

"Phones, phones, phones!" Dan Lunnie, WOKQ/Dover

"Big phones!" Clint Marsh, WPOR/Portland

"Kenny Rogers is blowing out our phones. Everybody has a story—about their son, their father, or memories of the first time they went to a baseball stadium. It's unreal. I didn't believe the hype, but it's true."

John Davison, WHWK/Binghamton

"Strong, positive listener reaction. A song with more than a catchy hook...what a concept!

Mac Daniels, WMZQV'ashington

SOUTHEAST

"The Greatest' is our second most requested record just behind Lonestar! Don Schlitz paints a wonderful picture with his words and Kenny Rogers gives them life."

Ron Brooks, WESC/Sreenville

"In our 'Nine Most Wanted' with heavy phones!"
Eddie Foxx, WKSF/Asheville

"I'm amazed at all the calls covering ALL the demos!"
Bill Black, WKSJ/Mobile

"The phones speak for themselves." Nite Train, WAMZ/Louisville

"Kenny's song captures the essence of youth and easier times, and the listeners have attached themselves to it!"

Robyrn Jaymes, WYYC/Lynchburg-Roanoke

"A home run for phones!" Jim Andrews, WGNE/Daytona Beach

SOUTHWEST

"This record has captured the imagination of our listeners. We continue to get calls and requests from all ages. The funny thing about listeners is they don't spend much time worrying about how to label songs and artists, they only know what they like...and they like this song!"

Tim Murphy, KKBQ/Houston

"Kenny Rogers' The Greatest' is testing Top 5. We're getting tons of calls for this one!"

Bob McNeill, KYNG/Dallas

"Parents want kids to hear its positive message!"

Danny Mack, KOUL/Corpus Christi

"I continue to be surprised at the amount of requests it gets."

Steve Jackson, KV00/Tulsa

WEST

"Kenny is still knocking 'em out of the park in Seattle with 90% familiarity and a 50% passion score! The female and core listeners numbers are growing and the album's already approaching 2500 units sold in our market!"

Tony Thomas, KMPS/Spattle

"With 81% familiarity, 'The Greatest' has been one of our Top 10 best testing records for two weeks. And, the passion scores are even 25% higher with our younger demos!"

Larry Daniels, KNIX/Phoenix

"Made the phones ring the first time it was played and they have not stopped since! All demos."

Shari Singer, KFMS/Las Vegas

"Top Eight at Eight #1...so many requests."

Kris Daniels, KUZZ/Bakersfield

MIDWEST

"Researching as one cf our highest positives!"

Kerry Wolfe, WMIL/Miwaukee

"It's the hottest record we have!"

Mel McKenzie, WWQM/Madison

"As much as I didn't want to play this record, I can't deny the phones ringing. It's a hardball hit!" Party Marty, WTHI/Terre Haute

"Could it be that the 'the next big thing' we've all been waiting for are artists like Kenny Rogers? He's 'The Greatest'!"

Dale Carter, KFKF/Kansas City

Is Country Listening Down? Or Is It Just Ratings Methodology?

ARBITRON RESPONDS

Arbitron GM Pierre Bouvard says the company's methodology really hasn't changed all that much in the past decade or even the past three decades. "The seven-day diary, for the most part, is unchanged for 30 years," he says. "It's still recall-based. People have to write it down. It's still one week. So, in actuality, your 10-year trend is really an excellent way of judging where formats are going."

And while there have been tweaks in methodology here and there, Bouvard says, 'we're doing more to get the response rates up, but basically this is the same methodology.

While Arbitron is, admittedly, doing a better job of measuring blacks and Hispanics, Bouvard says, diaries have always been weighted to represent the population. "If you go back and look at proportionality of our sample going back five or 10 years, if a market is 10% black we're going to weight those diaries to be 10%. So if we were underachieving or overachieving, it always comes back to being 10%," he says.

"We're doing a better job of making our sample proportional, no doubt, but just because our sample is more proportional doesn't necessarily mean higher ratings for anybody. There is no relationship between sample proportionality and ratings performance

He says the last major change in black audience measurement came in 1978, when Arbitron stopped use of the telephone retrieval method for blacks' diaries. For Hispanics, the last big change came in 1983, when Arbitron stopped personally placing and retrieving diaries in Hispanic neighborhoods.

Bouvard says the moves to target larger households with diaries mailed in brightly colored boxes and other methods are actually an effort to reach the elusive 18- to 24-year-old males who tend to live in such households. As for the change in sample vendors, Bouvard says, the new vendor's sample, analyzed by "whatever attribute you would analyze them by, looks exactly like" that of the old vendor.

So what's really going on with country? Bouvard says, "The compellingness and the vitality of a music genre is what drives the ratings When you walk around the Country Radio Seminar and hear people saying, 'I can't get records to test,' and 'There is no good music,' that's when you start to see ratings problems."

While he agrees there are more blacks and Hispanics in the general population, Bouvard says that country radio ought to be targeting those ethnic groups, perhaps looking for the country version of Latino star Ricky Martin. The point is, does country radio want to seize the Hispanic opportunity? Because it's absolutely there to be had," he says.

OTHER FACTORS IN PLAY

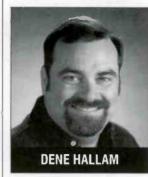

Consultant Joel Raab says, "Country has faced a significant decline due to a lack of new male stars, the rise of various forms of contemporary music, and changes in Arbitron and the population." But, he adds, "to whine about Arbitron is to shoot the messenger. The decline is real, and we have to work that much harder to improve as the world changes around us. As further evidence, look at the drop in country music sales. Arbitron is not responsible for that.

Other consultants agree with Hill and Hallam up to a point but say Arbitron isn't country's only problem or even its worst problem.

"When Arbitron tinkers with their product, it will have an impact on various formats, including country, to an undetermined degree,' says Bob Moody of McVay Media. "I think the 'at work' ZIP code wasn't good news for us and neither has been the emphasis on 18-24 males, blacks, and Hispanics.

I also strongly suspect that when the 2000 census is finally reported, we will find that many Arbitron metro areas will have larger ethnic populations than they currently project," says Moody. In some markets, we may also see the country audience moving beyond the metro boundaries. The anecdotal evidence for this-and that's all we will have until the census report-may be seen in the dominance of ethnic stations in markets like Memphis.

"Does all this mean that country is really as healthy as it was in 1989? Of course not," says Moody. "Ask record labels, club owners, and concert promoters. We are clearly seeing a major downturn, in which Arbitron's methodology is just one of many negative factors.

Bob Glasco of Rusty Walker Consulting says. There's no doubt Arbitron has hurt the format in almost all of the high-density markets. We're mainly a Caucasian format, and in the markets where we battle against Arbitron's weighting practices, we have a tough time. You only have to look at a non-ethnic breakout of the Chicago survey over the last couple of years to see graphic proof of that.

"In the other markets, it's been a combination of things: increased spot loads, being a part of the mainstream instead of the niche player we always were, current music policies that have been suspect, owners who bought both country stations in a market and stopped being aggressive with either one . . . and, to a lot lesser extent than some have said, the lack of great songs from Nashville," says Glasco.

McVay Media's Jaye Albright says, "It seemed to me quite some time ago that the 18-34 male initiatives that started more than two years ago were downplaying response from country hot ZIPs, as the extra phone calls, colorful packaging, and higher premiums were causing the kind of households where younger men tend to live to return more diaries. Then, last summer, the move to SSI caused a higher percentage of unlisted homes to become a part of the in-tab in a number of the markets I watch very closely. The qualitative of unlisted vs. listed homes appears to mean that fewer country diaries are coming back from those ar-

"All of these methodology changes have seemingly caused more wild fluctuations in book-to-book trends than I have ever seen, says Albright. "Shares being a zero-sum game, anything that makes one station or format go up means that a format or station that is flat is actually going to appear to go down.

"Sure, the methodology has changed. And sure, country isn't performing as well in young male diaries, in unlisted homes, and in workplaces as pop formats do right now. You could say the same for rock. However, Arbitron's changes would not be a problem if country music were more appealing to both the mass and fast-growing ethnic audiences.

Nothing will help country radio do well more than understanding and marketing directly to the changing Arbitron universe, as many country stations are able to do even at this time of format decline, and making sure that only the best music [finds] a place on our playlists while we wait for hip-hop and modern AC to burn among adults. When that happens, country and rock will rebound, Arbitron methodology changes notwithstanding.

"A decade ago, when Arbitron was having problems getting books back from ethnic listeners and younger males, country radio probably did benefit from the fact that country fans listened quite loyally and were absolutely diary responsive. Today, Spanish-speaking Hispanics appear to listen longer to radio than bilingual Hispanics or Anglos. Sure, that helps Hispanic radio. But, it's also real life, and what else do we want Arbitron to do its best to try to measure?"

Stars To Jam For Okla. Tornado Relief

Toby Keith and fellow Oklahomans Ronnie Dunn of Brooks & Dunn, Bryan White, and Wade Hayes will be among the performers at the daylong Tornado Relief Jam June 29 at Zoo Amphitheater in Oklahoma City. Dallas Cowboys special teams coach Joe Avezzano will cohost the event along with personalities from local stations KTST and KXXY. All proceeds from the show go to the victims of the May 3

Billy Ray Cyrus was honored by the International Entertainment Buyers Assn. with the 1999 Humanitarian Award June 13.

Collin Raye will host the 17th annual Academy of Country Music Bill Boyd Celebrity Golf Classic Oct. 11 at the De Bell Golf Course in Burbank, Calif. Proceeds from the event will be donated to various charities.

Wynonna and Suzy Bogguss took top honors in the booth contest at Fan Fair in Nashville. Wynonna's booth was decorated as a Southern home. Bogguss' booth was filled with red roses.

MCA artist Gary Allan has filed for divorce from his wife of seven months, Danette Day, citing irreconcilable differences.

A bronze sculpture of Keith Whitley by artist Bill Raines will be unveiled in Nashville June 24. Ricky Skaggs and Ralph Stanley will perform a musical tribute to Whitley at the ceremony. The sculpture will then be moved to its permanent home in Sandy Hook, Ky., and dedicated at a July 1 ceremony.

Tennessee state Sen. Steve Cohen's office received the unanimous approval of a state bill to name a rest stop currently being remodeled in Benton County on I-40 the Hank Williams/ Loretta Lynn Rest Stop. Meanwhile, the Nashville Metropolitan Transit Authority named and dedicated a trolley in honor of Opry legend Charley Pride June 15. The trolley is now known as the Pride of Country Music.

Jones Buys Broadcast Programming

As more radio groups explore ways to syndicate their talent in-house, Jones Radio Networks is expanding its offerings through its purchase of Broadcast Programming for an undisclosed sum. Jones CEO Ron Hartenbaum says the two companies are "complementary," noting that Jones' MediaAmerica has been repping BP since 1994. With its buy, Jones gets BP's strong research division and shows such as "Delilah," heard on nearly 200 AC stations, and "Neon Nights," which counts 60 country affiliates. "Neon Nights" competes against Jones' "Nashville Nights," but Hartenbaum believes the two appeal to different programming needs, since "Neon Nights" has what he calls a more "localized" sound.

No programming or staff changes are planned, and BP president Edie Hilliard will continue to oversee the company. Hartenbaum says the two divisions will continue to be run separately, although their mission won't be to compete. "We don't want to go head to head; I want to segment the market." BP, founded in 1958, was most recently owned by Broadcast Electronics.

KENNARD DETAILS MINORITY FINANCE PLAN

Calling for a "new and improved" tax-certificate program, FCC Chairman Bill Kennard has outlined his plan for using government tax breaks to increase the number of women and minority broadcasters. A similar program was in place from 1978 to 1995, when perceived abuses led Congress to abolish it. Yet Kennard believes with the necessary "safeguards," such a system could be revived. He would limit the number of times an owner could tap the fund, as well as how long it would be required to hold the license. Small businesses would also be eligible under the Kennard plan. His comments came during a financing seminar sponsored by the Rainbow/PUSH Coalition. Coalition president the Rev. Jesse Jackson said the "vulgar degree of concentration" is an unintended consequence of the 1996 Telcom Act. "There's no shortage of capital. It's just not available to all people, he added. A program would need congressional authorization, and a spokesperson for Commerce Committee chair Sen. John Mc-Cain, R-Ariz., says McCain's office is working with FCC commissioner Michael Powell to write a bill. A National Assn. of Broadcasters spokesman says it will "lead the charge" in favor of the program if Congress revives it.

Meanwhile, CBS CEO Mel Karmazin and Clear Channel CEO Lowry Mays held another brainstorming session June 21 with other group CEOs on formation of a venture-capital fund that minority broadcasters could tap to purchase stations.

CAPITOL: RATINGS STRUCK DOWN

A bill that would have required record ratings and labeling was defeated by the House last week. The proposal, sponsored by Reps. Zach Wamp, R-Tenn., and Bart Stupak, D-Mich., would have imposed felony convictions and fines of $10,000 per day against store owners who failed to meet the proposal's standards.

The NAB has joined a coalition calling for an end to laws that permit the IRS to collect up to 55% of an estate in inheritance taxes. 'This would be a big help particularly to the many family-owned radio-station owners in NAB who want to pass the stations on to their sons and daughters," says NAB spokesman Dennis Wharton. Among the family-owned groups are Cox and Radio One.

Music Row Gears Up Marketing To Woo, Study P1 Listeners At Fan Fair

by Phyllis Stark

As nearly 20,000 hardcore country fans descend on Nashville this week for the Country Music Assn.'s 28th annual International Country Music Fan Fair, Music Row labels are gearing up their marketing efforts to attract these consumers.

While the impact of Fan Fair on record sales is nowhere near that of the televised CMA Awards or

Academy of Country Music Awards, which reach millions of people, label VPs of marketing say Fan Fair is still a viable marketing opportunity, particularly because of the national media it attracts. And even if it can't necessarily break new acts, Fan Fair can serve as both a barometer of an act's future success and a one-of-a-kind consumer-research opportunity.

Tower Records has the only on-site store at the fairgrounds, from which it sells music, books, and videos. Its post-Fan Fair list of the top 10 best-selling artists is closely watched by the industry. Consequently, many labels tie in with Tower for value-added promotions, such as a guitar giveaway or the giveaway of a poster or T-shirt with the purchase of a CD or cassette, as both Columbia and Arista Nashville are doing this year for Montgomery Gentry and Brad Paisley, respectively.

Tower GM John Kerlikowske says those kinds of added-value promotions "have a lot to do [with determining] who is No. 1," a slot that has gone to Sony Music Nashville artists for the past several years.

To drive sales, Kerlikowske collects as many autographed items as he can ahead of time. "The reason the consumer comes to Fan Fair is to meet the artist and get autographs," he says. But with some artists only available for autographs for a few hours during the week, the likelihood of fans scoring those autographed items is low, making his merchandise all the more valuable. "It's a very good tool specifically for that Fan Fair [attendee]," he adds.

In addition, Tower books four shows a day for four days during Fan Fair at its Nashville brick-and-mortar location, where up-and-coming artists can be showcased and sell product. Those events always draw a large crowd and, consequently, are coveted by labels.

Kerlikowske says, "I probably could have booked six nights this year. There were a lot of people that wanted to do it."

But Tower is not the only retailer that takes Fan Fair seriously. Atlantic Records VP of sales and marketing Bob Heatherly says, "Kmart does something devoting the checkout lanes to a display of country artists.

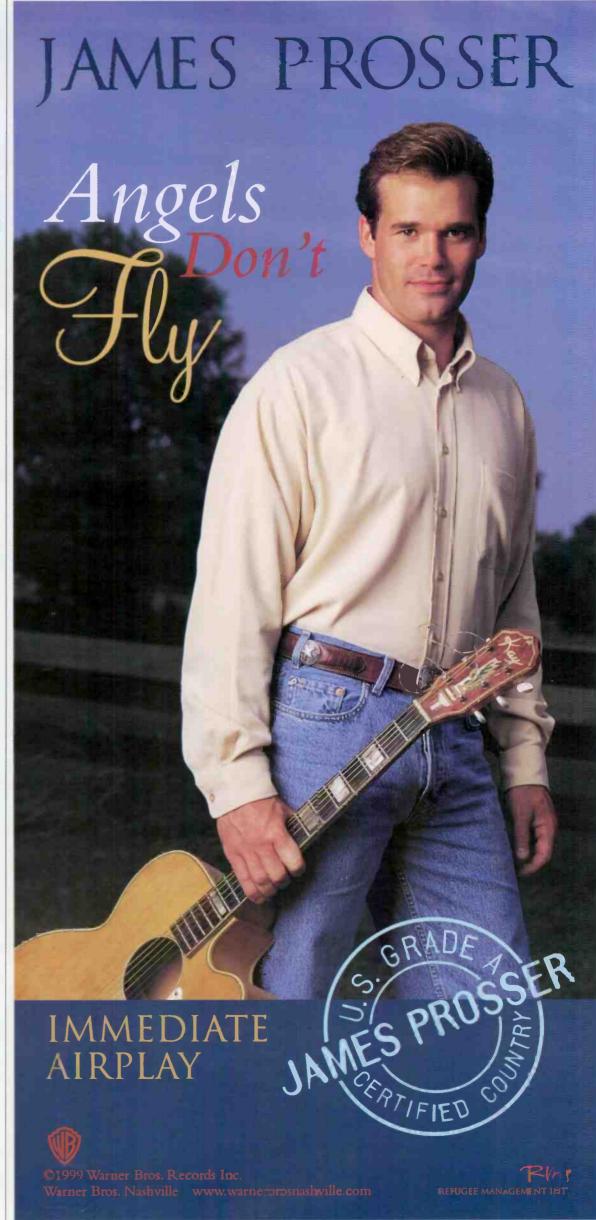

Target is featuring 21 top country artists in a special display. Wal-Mart has always been real good about devoting space to country and doing special promotions every year."

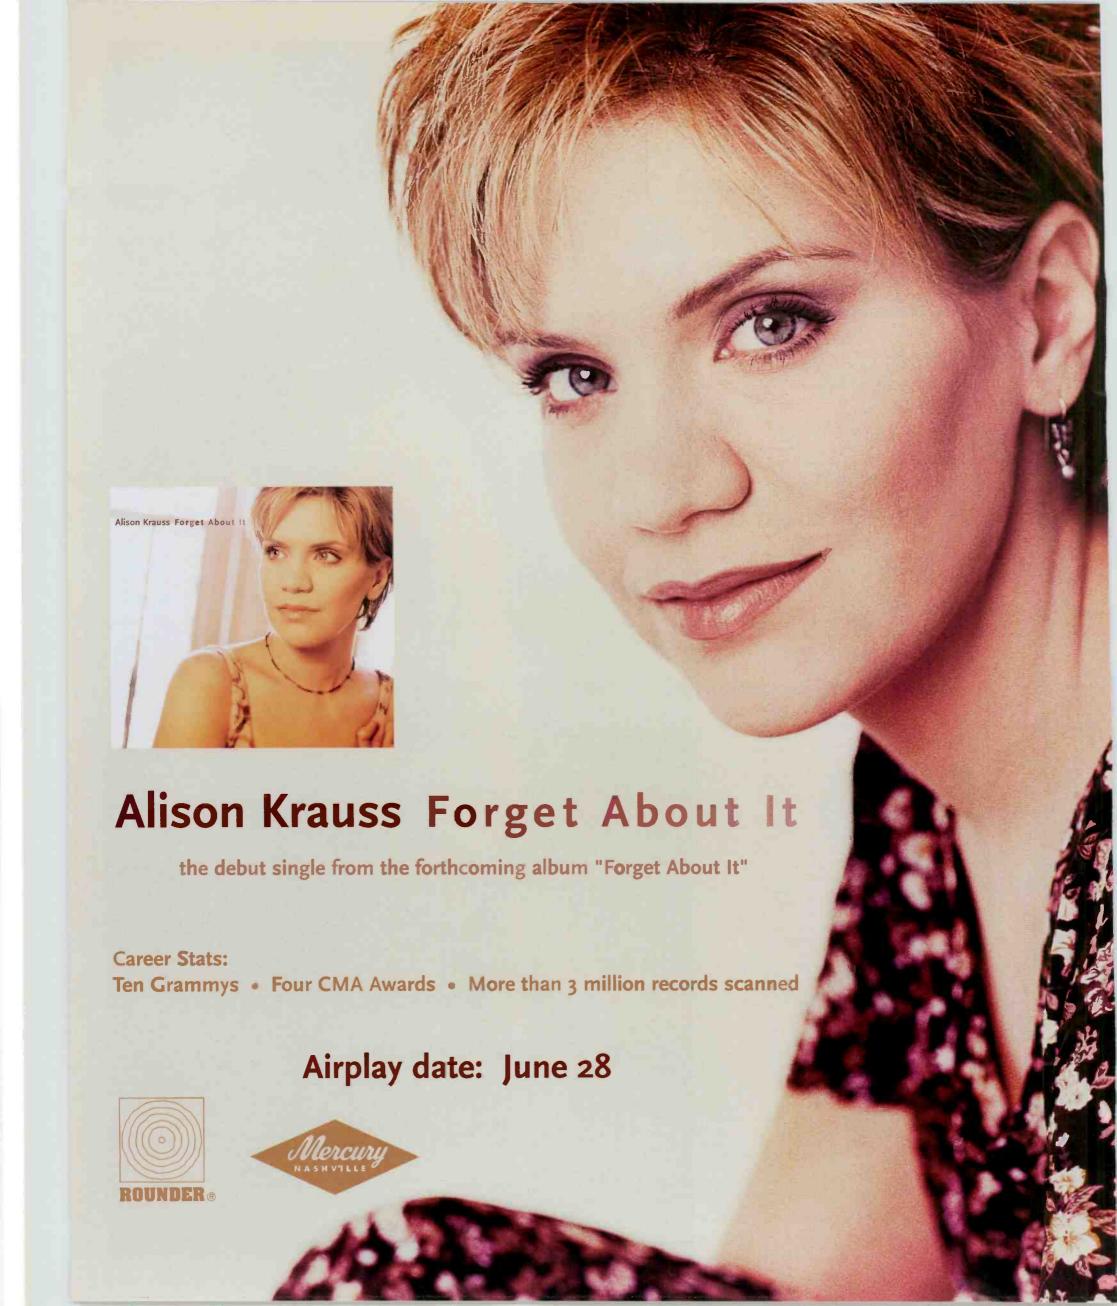

The draw of Fan Fair has always been more about superstars than new acts. Heatherly says, "It's tough to break artists at an event like that because people really want to see the stars, so you have to make sure you have your headline artists there to draw a crowd."

New artists who perform at Tower, or at their labels' shows on the main Fan Fair stage, have been known to create a buzz that translates to sales, although, Heatherly says, "there are not that many new artists that can create an impact in 15 minutes."

Just in case, Heatherly adds, "you always spend a little money advertising and try to have your record positioned, so if something does break out, you can take advantage of it." But in general, he adds, "you see some sales boost, but it's not like the ACMs or CMAs."

But some newer artists have bene-Continued on page 6

WZZK Earns Friend In Need Radio Award

WZZK Birmingham, Ala., will be recognized by the National Assn. of Broadcasters' Educational Foundation for its efforts to help victims of a tornado that swept through the city just before Easter. WZZK quickly joined forces with listeners and local businesses to collect money, food, water, clothing, and cleaning supplies and distributed 500 Easter baskets to affected children. WZZK also joined with Habitat for Humanity to build one home and part of a second. The Friend in Need Radio Award will be given at the Foundation's first-ever Service to America summit, to be held later this month in Washington, D.C.

In other news, The FCC has finally granted Journal Broadcast Corp.'s application to purchase Great Empire Broadcasting.

Wright, Yoakam Take Airpower Honors

Chely Wright's "Single White Female" (MCA Nashville) and Dwight Yoakam's "Crazy Little Thing Called Love" (Reprise) qualify for Airpower status this issue under the new formula announced last week. Under the new rule, Airpower is awarded to songs that appear in the top 20 on both the detection and audience charts for the first time, as well as showing increases in detections and audience.

Wright's song gains 372 detections (20-16) and more than 2 million estimated audience impressions, while Yoakam's single jumps 362 plays and gains 3 million in audience.

Since there were no titles that qualified for Airpower last issue, this week we celebrate our first Airplay Leaders (see IMPACT!, page 16). The Airplay Leader designation is awarded to the station that first spun any given Airpower title 150 times. (The date the station crossed the detection benchmark is also listed). In the case of multiple Airplay Leader stations, they are listed in order of cumulative detections to date. KBEQ Kansas City, is the airplay leader on "Single White Female," while KPLX (the Wolf) Dallas takes that distinction for "Crazy Little Thing Called Love."

Airpower Leader stations will compete throughout the chart year on our Airpower Leaderboard, another new feature that will bow shortly.

Also take note of our new First Impressions listings on Power Playlists and IMPACT! These titles are those that received six or more plays for the first time.

In effect, our First Impressions makes such titles and the stations that played them more visible. First Impressions also recognizes stations that make an initial commitment to airplay. The benefits of First Impressions are twofold. First, at a quick glance, readers can identify which stations are actually spinning new titles. Second, in keeping with our mission to offer the most credible and most quoted charts in the industry, First Impressions quantifies initial airplay, thus furthering the obsolescence of the term "adds."

HE'S STILL GOT A PLACE IN THEIR HEARTS: When George Jones last appeared in the top 40 of Airplay Monitor's country chart, in January '94 with "High Tech Redneck," country radio was only a few months away from starting to reconsider the "hot new country" stance that cut off most gold libraries between 1987 and '90 and exiled Jones and other veteran artists from the format. Even then, it took Jones five years to return to the top 40, which he does with this issue, as "Choices" (Asylum) jumps 45-39, up 152 spins.

THEY STAND ALL AMAZED: Taking Hot Shot Debut roses, Lonestar's "Lonely Grill" (BNA) makes a splash on Billboard's Top Country Albums chart by popping on at No. 4 with approximately 47,000 scans (see At-a-Glance, page 17). The watershed debut marks the group's fattest opening-week sales. Its first set, "Lonestar," opened with 2,500 units sold in '96, and "Crazy Nights" entered with 6,000 in '97.

"Amazed," the lead single, gains 583 plays to move 8-5 on our detection chart and logs more than 35 million estimated audience impressions with airplay at each of our 154 monitored stations (see Song Activity, pages 13-15).

THE BIG THREE: Up 800 units, Brad Paisley's "Who Needs Pictures" (Arista Nashville) takes the biggest gain on Top Country Singles Sales to shoot 16-10. Paisley's debut release scans more than 2,000 this issue.

Buoyed by an increase of 700 units, Alabama's "God Must Have Spent A Little More Time On You" (RCA) holds stubbornly to No. 3 with more than 14,000 scans. With approximately 1,300 sold, Sherrié Austin's "Never Been Kissed" (Arista Nashville) gains 300 scans to rise 18-14. These three titles are the only ones on the singles sales chart to show any increase.

ON THE ROW

Jeff Hackett Joins Giant/Reprise Team

Jeff Hackett joins the Giant/Reprise promotion team June 21 as West Coast regional. Hackett, who will be based in Phoenix, previously was VP of promotion at Curb Records. He replaces Lisa Andrick, now with Dream-Works.

Giant Records has signed former MCA artist Keith Harling. He inked his deal with the label June 10 in the Nashville offices of independent promoter Young-Olsen & Associates, which Webcast the event live on the Internet. Giant president Doug Johnson and John Hobbs are co-producing Harling's Giant debut. A single is expected in late summer.

Music industry veteran Kristi Brake has formed the Nashville-based Take a Brake, a full-service artist development company. Brake's background includes stints at Mercury, Capitol, and Asylum. Her new firm will handle advertising, artist relations, creative services, event planning, marketing, production/A&R administration, and writing/editing projects.

Neil Pond is named executive editor at Country Weekly, and Sheri Warnke joins as VP/publisher. Pond, a veteran journalist, most recently was editor in chief of Country Music magazine. Warnke most recently was associate publisher of Travel Holiday magazine.

Buddy Lee Attractions has signed four new artists for booking representation. They are Asylum's Chad Austin, Warner Bros.' James Prosser, RioStar Records' Trailer Park Troubadours, and the group formerly known as the Young Guns, signed to Double R Records. The group's new name will be determined via a national contest on CMT.

The Bobby Roberts Company has signed Shenandoah for exclusive worldwide booking representation.

Tara Herman joins CMT as director of marketing. She previously was VP of consumer promotion and planning for Showtime Networks Capital campaign organizers for the new $37 million Country Music Hall of Fame museum are now making direct appeals to hundreds of artists and their families who have contributed to country music past and present. These include recording artists for both major and independent labels from the earliest commercial recordings through the present, as well as stars of "The Grand Ole Opry," "The Louisiana Hayride," "The WLS Barn Dance," and similar historic radio and TV programs. Each participating artist will be recognized on the Wall of Honor, which will be a permanent exhibit at the new museum.

The second George Strait Chevy Truck Country Music Festival—featuring Strait, Tim McGraw, Dixie Chicks, Jo Dee Messina, Kenny Chesney, Mark Wills, and Asleep At The Wheel—grossed $32.4 million from 17 dates, according to Billboard Bulletin. This compares favorably to the $33 million the tour grossed in 1998 from 18 dates. Attendance didn't fare as well, down to 793,564 from 881,717 last year. The tour wrapped June 6.

Summer Flicks Top Station Concerts, July 4

Summer movies jumped up to the No. 1 spot on the Topical Barometer, with station concerts and Independence Day also finishing in the money. Debuting on the Barometer this week are summer vacations and camp promos, as well as getting listeners out to amusement parks.

Country WBEE Rochester, N.Y., is using Father's Day for a hardball promo with the minorleague Rochester Red Wings. Each winning dad will have his name engraved on a brick in the "walk of fame" inside the Red Wings' ballpark. The grand-prize winner will throw out the opening pitch at a game, then retire to a luxury box with 10 friends and family members. Stephanie Hogerman pitched this stunt to us.

Tying in to the month of marriage, rhythmic top 40 KLUC Las Vegas hosted the World's Largest Bachelorette Party. Brides-to-be won 10-ticket prize packages to see Britney Spears and registered to win a honeymoon trip to Pleasure Island at Walt Disney World. Unfortunately, Vanessa Thill thought the Chippendale dancers were those cartoon chipmunks, so she didn't book them.

Modern adult KDMX (Mix 102.9) Dallas jumped on the high-tech promo highway with Cash and Computers Song of the Day. Caller No. 50 won a laptop computer and, on "Bonus Thursdays," increments of $5,000. Loren Condron is keeping it on the download.

dismissing it as hardly important.
On the print side, "if the paper sends a reporter to cover your event, you don't spend any ad dollars to get that exposure," says Mike Paterson of top 40 KHFI Austin, Texas. "People read those things before they look at the ads

Carly Johnston of modern rock KXTE (Extreme Radio) Las Vegas prefers weekly mags because they best reach her target audience, but Dianna Obermeyer of R&B KPWR (Power 106) Los Angeles goes for L.A. Times coverage, because "it adds to the increasing popularity of hip-hop and adds credibility to our event."

"It's very important to keep our visibility up and make as many impressions as possible with the local community," says Nicole Cyr of album rock WPYX Albany, N.Y. "Local press coverage for an event can make impressions on people who may not listen to the station or notice a station-sponsored ad."

Yet some panelists dismiss newspapers for their declining readership, older demographics, and often condescending attitude toward radio events. Many Promogandists are more into local TV coverage. "Listeners can see your air talents' faces," says KLUC's Thill. "It's more personal. I get more response from people who see our promotions on TV."

"Our morning shows have TV anchors and reporters on all the time to help give them publicity so they will return the favor," says KDMX's Condron. "We involve the press in almost all promotions. For Halloween, we'll have a press pumpkin-carving for charity, so the anchors will talk it up. A KDMX free listener show got over two hours of TV coverage by giving all the stations tickets to the show and creating a specific promo with each one."

National press elicits a varied response. "If it makes national TV, then you've done an outstanding job," says Tristano Korlou, new promotion director of Infinity's Hartford, Conn.,

"National publicity is nice, but your first priority is reaching the people who actually listen to you," says Anne-Marie Strzelecki of modern adult WBMX (Mix 98.5) Boston.

Next week: attracting press coverage.

PROMO TOPIC OF THE WEEK: PUB IS THE DRUG

Getting publicity is the lifeblood of radio promotion. "Every time you get exposure for your station from another media source, you have the potential of reaching individuals who may never listen to your station," says Mike Culotta of WQYK Tampa, Fla. "It's a great chance to influence them with your message, and it's free."

'Our philosophy is the more exposure, the better-even if it's controversial," says Wendi Foster of top 40 KKRZ (Z100) Portland, Ore. "If people read about something, or see it on TV, they're more apt to tune in to see what the fuss is about, possibly creating a new listener."

What are the best avenues for exposure? Local papers and local TV have equal benefit, as 75% of the panel says they're very important, and 25% says they are a plus, or "icing on the cake." However, only 37% of the panel believes national press exposure is very important, with 53% considering it as more of a plus and 10%

To spice up its Shania Twain concert giveaway, country KYGO Denver asked listeners to Show KYGO the Woman in You (based on a Twain hit song, natch) for front-row tickets to the show. So, men had to expose their "feminine side" by dressing in drag. "One contestant liked it a bit more than the others," says Garret "Living" Doll. "He stayed dressed like that for the whole show, and nobody suspected he was a he."

Top 40 WFLZ Tampa, Fla. took over an entire beach resort for its Biggest Beach Bash, featuring a free Stevie B. concert. The entire staff moved in to broadcast, work, party, and sporadically sleep there for the entire weekend. They checked guests in, waited tables, and even tended bar. Jay Griffiths took tips.

Country WYRK Buffalo, N.Y., tied in to the touring "Phantom Of The Opera" musical by having Phantom Van stops. A jock dressed up as the Phantom signed people up to win tickets, as well as offered coffee and Phantom cookies. Steve Burgess unmasked this winner.

Artists Flock To 28th Fan Fair In Nashville

With the 28th annual International Country Music Fan Fair taking place in Nashville June 14-17, most of this week's artist news centers around Fan Fair appearances and events.

Marty Stuart headlined the annual Inter-national Fan Club Organization show at the Ryman Auditorium June 13. The lineup also included South Sixty Five, Janie Fricke, Storm Seymour, Brad Hawkins, Beverly Ellis, Jeff Carson, Eric Heatherly, Ricky Lynn Gregg, Victoria Shaw, Trini Triggs, and Danni Leigh. Journalist Robert Oermann hosted the show for the third consecutive year.

Comedian Tim Wilson (Capitol) guides viewers of the Box Country cable channel through Fan Fair this year, talking to attendees and visiting exhibition booths. His walk through Fan Fair will air later this month on the Box Country. Kelly Willis (Ryko) is moonlighting as Fan Fair correspondent for Rollingstone.com. She also performed at Nashville's Tower Records June 14. DreamWorks' Jessica Andrews, meanwhile, kicked off her Fan Fair appearances with an acoustic concert and autograph session at Tower June 13. The third annual Softball Showdown to benefit St. Jude Children's Research Hospital takes place June 17 during Fan Fair. Participating artists include Susan Ashton, Paul Brandt, Carson, Leigh, Ken Mellons, Doug Phelps of the Kentucky Headhunters, Jason Sellers, and Kevin Sharp

Also set for June 17 is the groundbreaking ceremony for the new Country Music Hall of Fame. Randy Scruggs will serve as music director for the event, which will include performances by Vince Gill, Bryan White, Kathy Mattea, and Scruggs. Confirmed Hall of Fame attendees are Brenda Lee, Roy Horton, Earl Scruggs, Kitty Wells, Chet Atkins, Bud Wendell, and Jo Walker-Meador.

Deana Carter donated proceeds from her June 14 fan-club breakfast at Nashville's Planet Hollywood to the Nashville chapter of the National Kidney Foundation.

Fricke was asked to sing at the Fan Fair fan-club parties of both Ty Herndon and Chely

Wright as the artists' invited guest.
In other news, Tim McGraw and Trisha Yearwood's Web sites are the winners in MII Broadcasting's CountryNow.com Fan Site Awards. The awards recognize the best amateur and professionally developed Web sites dedicated to individual country performers. The Yearwood site, totallytrisha.com, won in the amateur category, while TimMcGraw.com won in both the professional Webmaster and fan's choice categories.

Hawkins will star in the CBS-TV mini-series 'Shake, Rattle, And Roll (An American Love Story)," which begins production this month with music portions completed in Los Angeles and filming done in North Carolina. The twopart series will air Nov. 28 and 30. A soundtrack album will be released simultaneously with the film. Hawkins got his start in the business starring in the children's series "VR Troopers."

Nashville's Cheekwood Gallery is featuring an exhibit of Stuart's black-and-white photographs June 27-30. He is currently putting the finishing touches on a book of his photos and the stories they tell. Titled "Pilgrims: Sinners, Saints, And Prophets," the book will be released this fall.

'Johnboy' Growns Up, As John Crenshaw Takes The Reins At WCMS Norfolk, Va.

As Mama Walton might say, "Our little boy's

After years as Johnboy Crenshaw, the former WCOL Columbus, Ohio, MD/midday host became John Crenshaw as he began his new job as PD at WCMS Norfolk, Va., June 7.

"Some people around the office are a little uncomfortable calling a 34-year-old man Johnboy," he says. But he reserves the right to revive Johnboy' should he ever return to the air.

Corresponding with the name change, Crenshaw has some seriously grown-up new responsibilities. In addition to the new job, he is also this year's agenda committee chairman for the Country Radio Seminar, and he and his wife are expecting their second child in September.

everybody John Crenshaw

that works Program Director WCMS Norfolk, Va.

'It's a

Owner: WCMS Radio Inc. Ratings: 6.7-6.4-6.5-5.2

Crenshaw says changing jobs midterm has been the "curse" of the CRS agenda committee chair for the past several years. But this was not supposed to have been his year. A change in rules by the Country Radio Broadcasters' board reduced the agenda committee chairman's seat to a non-voting position this year, prompting the resignation of at least one agenda committee member and Crenshaw's quick ascension from vice chairman-elect to chairman.

Nevertheless, Crenshaw says that his agenda committee is rising to the challenge of presenting a relevant and valuable CRS in 2000. Despite joking about a theme of "learning through drinking," Crenshaw says plans are in the works for panels addressing "some of the new things going on with direct, in-home, and in-car satel-lite broadcasting. We'll be tackling some of those issues now that we're known as 'terrestrial broadcasters.

Another challenge facing Crenshaw is getting WCMS back on track. For the nearly two months the station was between PDs, it slipped 6.5-5.2 in the 12-plus Arbitron ratings, dipping to seventh place overall, while rival WGH-FM (Eagle 97.3) soared 5.4-5.9 to rank No. 3.

More dramatically, the station's male numbers virtually evaporated. Among 25- to 54year-old males, WCMS was off by a share, and in the 25-49 demo, it dipped to the low twos, while WGH-FM rose to the low sevens.

Nevertheless, Crenshaw says that most of the basics were covered by the six staffers who split programming duties after PD Mike Meehan's departure. With WCMS' veteran air staff, the absence of a PD is not as keenly felt as it might be elsewhere, but Crenshaw says the staff still needed a little guidance.

"The station doesn't do anything poorly," he says. "But there are some things it could do better, like talking about listener benefits, increasing promotional value, [and] the small fine-tuning things you can do with your air talent by virtue of regular aircheck sessions, such as saying the call letters with pride. People that have been in a job a long time tend to get a little loose on the basics. They need someone reminding them it's 100 point five, not 100 five.

"From what I've read," Crenshaw says, "Eagle's come on pretty strong here in the last six months. I don't know if they're coming into their own or developing hot zips that aren't our hot zips or developing a younger audience." Or, because Norfolk is a big military town with a transient population, Crenshaw only half-jokingly theorizes that "maybe their listeners just haven't gotten their transfer orders from the Navy yet.

After 51/2 years at WCOL, including a sixmonth stint as interim PD before the arrival of Tom Fridley, Crenshaw says he was not actively looking for a new job but was still getting offers.

The interim programming challenge at WCOL reminded Crenshaw, who had been a PD twice before, that "I like the mental exercise" of being PD. "It was wonderful to have a job where I could think and be creative and help solve problems and be a coach. I discovered those were things I really loved doing, even if it meant working longer days.
"Even though WCOL couldn't see their way clear to making me PD, they weren't treating me badly. They weren't paying me poorly. I was very happy in Columbus, but I wanted a bigger challenge.

"When WCMS called and said they'd like to talk to me, everyone I talked to said, 'What a wonderful place to live and raise a family.' Then Crenshaw discovered how similar the markets are. Columbus is Arbitron market No. 33. Norfolk is No. 36. Both have 1.6 million in total population and a radio audience of 1.2

But what clinched the deal was WCMS having "a sole owner who is actually on-site, and a great staff. It's a long-term station for everybody that works here," says Crenshaw.

While he had not yet had a chance to put his thumbprint on the station at press time and was still looking for a place to plug in his headphones in the production room, Crenshaw's initial plans are to "take a good, in-depth look" at the market and the region. "I understand the East Coast can be a little different from Columbus," he says. "I want to take a look at what other stations up and down the Eastern seaboard are doing. I want to look at some research and see where the station needs to be focused and targeted and imaged.

T'm really trying to make sure I understand what the market's tastes are like," he says. "I could come in and say, 'I had great success playing David Ball [at WCOL], so we're going three deep on David Ball.' That would be a bad move to make until I get the nuance of the market.'

Even before he had a chance to schedule his first WCMS music log, Crenshaw says the station was positioned a bit differently than rival Eagle 97.3. "Their music is all post-1993 and, from what it sounds like to me, heavily concentrated in the last three years," he says.

'WCMS, by virtue of the fact that we've been on the air since 1954, we play music that some have foregone, and some programmers are coming back to," including cuts from Ronnie Milsap, Keith Whitley, and others. "We have a good number of classic cuts available for play, but there are only several that come up over the course of the day. It's not like we're playing two or three cuts an hour from the wayback machine," he says. "The bulk of our gold is from 1986 forward."

WCMS plays 35 currents, which make up about 40% of the mix.

Despite having worked in radio since first get-ting a taste of it as a kid through a 4H radio show in Kent, Ohio, Crenshaw still feels blessed to be working in the business. "When I was 8 years old and falling out of trees, I never though people would want my autograph," he says. I'm freaked out when kids come up and ask for my autograph. I tell them, 'I put my pantyhose on one leg at a time just like everybody PHYLLIS STARK

Letter: How Does Insulting Audience Help?

What damages our format is when record companies and radio companies compromise their products because of budget concerns. To use a barn-animal analogy, we must not kill the goose that laid the golden egg. Now, we all know the golden egg is money. But what, or who, is the goose?

It's the art, stupid. The art that happens in the recording studio and the art that happens in the radio studio. When we have Nashville cranking out McMusic just to make a fast buck and radio cranking out McCountry for the same reason, we need to get back to the basics.

Nashville needs to ditch [its] pre-fab, hiredfrom-the-Ford Modeling Agency catalog of demographically correct jingle singers that they're trying to pass off as artists, and radio needs to figure out that if you have all your jocks reading liner cards into a Dell computer introducing the same 150 records over and over again, you're in deep doo-doo.

Our problem is pretty basic: make good radio, make good music, and then market it to the right people.

Which leads to the one-to-one relationship we're losing with our listeners. Both radio and records are guilty of this. When country radio stations started riding that early-'90s wave of popularity, some of them started getting too big for their britches. Suddenly, they were big shots and were looking down their noses at the listeners without teeth-you know, the ones who fill out diaries? The ones who pay our salaries? You remember them, right? And the record companies and artists began to realize that they were in big business now. The meet-and-greets and opportunities to get close to the listeners began to dwindle.

Recently, a major tour came through our area, and the meet-and-greet was the most dehumanizing cattle call I have ever seen. There must have been 300 people in line for their 'group shots" with the artist, who hardly said a word to anyone. Another tour, featuring an Alevel artist whose career is soaring these days, started off the meet-and-greet this way: The assembled crowd was instructed that they should not touch the artist.

Hello? Wouldn't it be better to not have a meet-and-greet at all? Or do we really think that insulting people is going to help us somehow?

MC103's Twain 'Twailer' Defaced

WKDF (Music City 103) Nashville's Shania Twain 'Twailer,' which it was using to collect food for Second Harvest Food Bank before Twain's June 2 local appearance, was defaced by a vandal who gave Twain some unbecoming facial hair. The station created a reward fund of $1,300 for information leading to the arrest of the vandal.

fited from Fan Fair exposure in the past. Kerlikowske says, "The people we see the sales spike for are the people that perform on the stage at Fan Fair. A perfect example was the Mavericks last year. As established as they were, I'd be willing to bet that half the people that saw them [perform] never heard of them before. I heard that comment over and over" in the fairgrounds store as people were buying the album. "You play name that tune' [with customers] a lot, but almost all the questions relate to the people who play on the stages. It really does create a lot of interest, because in a lot of cases it's that person's first time seeing that artist, especially live, and you can't beat live."

Sony Music Nashville senior VP of sales and marketing Mike Kraski says, "One of the healthiest gauges of what's really hot out there is what happens in the on-site Tower store at the fairgrounds. Typically, the albums that sell really well show themselves to be a precursor of what we're going to find three or four months down the road, because you're dealing with your double-A consumers.

the ones you target first. And they kind of give you an indication of how future fans that need more than one hit single to react to an album are going to react.

"Last year, we did very well with Dixie Chicks, and, at that point, they were not even a gold act," adds Kraski. "They were second-best selling at Tower without any value-added [promos] attached to [the record] at all."

CONSUMER RESEARCH

Whether they are buying product or not, having that many devoted fans all in one place is still an opportunity worth taking advantage of, labels say.

"When you get 20,000 or better of your core consumers in one place, it avails itself of a number of opportunities," says Kraski. "We kind of look at the Fan Fair fans as just one large focus group more than anything else. They are the consumers [whose] first choice in radio listening is country music, their second choice is country music, and typically their third choice is country music as well. So if you get all of them in one place, you can learn a lot not only about the core consumer, which is half of the battle, but also about their likes and dislikes and your artists and music within that framework."

In the past, Sony has asked fans to fill out questionnaires while they are standing in line at its booth, which are processed by the company's consumer-research department in New York. As an incentive to fill out the questionnaires, the label has given out free product and merchandise. "It helps us develop a database and also gives us a clear sense of their likes and dislikes," says Kraski.

"We use these [fans] as our core witnesses to go back and tell people of the best, hottest thing in country music," says Arista Nashville senior VP of marketing Fletcher Foster. "They are your active consumers [who] are going to plop down money to spend their week in Nashville." But Foster and others say they don't go overboard with their marketing efforts, because even if these are P1 consumers, Fan Fair still only attracts 20,000 of them.

Arista's efforts in the past have included collecting E-mail and postal addresses from consumers and sending them samplers and other product, as well as giving samplers away at its Fan Fair booth. To take advantage of the simultaneous releases last year of the Reba McEntire and Brooks & Dunn albums, which shared a hit duet, Arista Nashville and MCA teamed up to hang doorknob tags promoting the albums in local hotels.

John Grady, VP of sales, marketing, and promotion at Mercury Records, is supportive of Fan Fair but says its impact is localized. "From a local retail level, our visibility is as high as it is at Christmas," he says. And while that may not translate into sales in other markets, Fan Fair is "still the essence of a lot of this business. It's the deepest core of the fans. I've got a lot of respect for it and for the core fans of this whole genre that take a week out of their lives to come hear country music. We just try to support it."

A NATIONAL STORY

National media has been a valuable side benefit in the past, although, Foster says, press attendance is light this year. Last year, Arista's Pam Tillis hosted a Fan Fair segment on "Good Morning America," and Sherrié Austin was featured on "Entertainment Tonight," while the label's Fan Fair show was shown during "Entertainment Tonight's" closing credits.

Getting that kind of exposure, Foster says, is "taking Fan Fair and making it more of a national story... One of the most important aspects is getting those national television spots. If everyone is doing Fan Fair, how do you make your artist pop out of the pack? That's what the key is, how to differentiate them. That's the challenge, because if I can't do that, people are going away just remembering a mess of artists."

"Fan Fair as an event brings a lot of national media not only to Nashville but to the genre of music as a whole," says Kraski. "It's great PR for country music in general, and if you use it right, it [offers] great media opportunities for all of your artists."

Chancellor Media Gets Stake In Net

Chancellor Media is taking a 25% ownership stake in Internet music company Custom Revolutions, Airplay Monitor has learned. Custom Revolutions markets the CustomDisc.com Web site, which allows users to compile and purchase custom CDs online. The investment was made in April, according to insiders, who add that the role the radio group will take at Custom Revolutions is still under discussion. A Chancellor spokesman did not return calls at press time.

Based in Stamford, Conn., and founded in 1996, Custom Revolutions is privately held, although it is likely to file an IPO shortly, say sources. To date, it has licensed more than 200,000 tracks from more than 130 record labels. Chancellor, which plans to change its name to AMFM Inc. at July's shareholder meeting, launched an Internet initiative in May. Chancellor execs have also announced plans to form a companion record label.

Clear Channel is buying a controlling 50.5% interest in the French billboard company Dauphin OTA. The $250 million investment gets Clear Channel an outdoor presence in France, Spain, Italy, and Belgium. Clear Channel already has an interest in the More Group, a billboard company with faces in the U.K., Scandinavia, and Belgium.

Sinclair Broadcast Group's stock price continues to soar, since it announced last week it may spin off its radio group or file an IPO for a radio-only division. Under the IPO scenario, the company would seek to raise approximately $175 million to $200 million, which would go to pay off company debt. Meanwhile, radio division CEO Barry Drake is named CEO of both the Sinclair television and radio divisions. He replaces Barry Baker, who left for USA Networks in February.

Across the border, Toronto-based Shaw Communications has been given approval by the Canadian government to spin off its radio and TV holdings into a separate division. The new entity, Corus Entertainment, will include 14 radio stations, plus Canada's country music cable network.

NEW MEDIA: COX INVESTS IN MP3

Cox Broadcasting's new-media division, Cox Interactive Media, has invested $45 million in MP3.com, the music download site. The companies will collaborate on the creation and operation of several music-related sites and will make approximately equal financial contributions to the new venture. There will also be advertising and E-commerce revenue-sharing arrangements. Cox's network of Web sites includes 25 city sites.

CAPITOL: NO FLAGS FOR ATLANTA

Cox Radio overcame the first hurdle in its $78 million purchase of Atlanta move-in WNGC Athens, Ga., from Clarke Broadcasting. The Federal Communications Commission has decided not to investigate whether Cox would control too high a percentage of advertising revenues once WNGC is combined with its Atlanta radio and TV portfolio, although the FCC has yet to approve the buy. The company is applying for a special waiver that will allow it to own both radio and TV stations in the market. Cox's current Atlanta armada includes AC WSB-FM, N/T WSB, jazz WJZF, N/T WCNN, and ABC affiliate WSB-TV. It also owns The Atlanta Journal-Constitution, the dominant print player in the market. The deal still needs Justice Department approval.

A congressional initiative that would have required music retailers to provide lyrics of any CD or cassette sold in their stores has been killed. Under pressure from fellow Republicans, Rep. Henry Hyde, R-Ill., agreed to take the measure out of his amendment aimed at limiting youth access to guns and media violence. Hyde's reconsideration came after a meeting with Rep. James Rogan, R-Calif., who opposed the bill. "This wasn't protecting kids; it was punishing retailers," said a Rogan spokesperson. The House amendment will now include a resolution calling on retailers to provide consumers with lyrics but with no penalties for noncompliance.

SALES: NORTH BY NORTHWEST

New Northwest Broadcasting is buying top 40 KWLF, album rock KUWL, and N/T KFAR Fairbanks, Alaska, from Borealis Broadcasting for $2.8 million. It is also buying crosstown classic rock KXLR and N/T KCBF from Northern Radio and Television for $750,000.

Baltimore: Known For Loving Byrds

Songs ranked by audience, computed by cross-referencing exact times of airplay with Arbitron listener data. Records showing an increase in audience over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. If two records are tied in total audience, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records become recurrents and are removed from this chart in conjunction with the Country Airplay chart.

Songs are ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first exercise.

"The Sons debut album was one of the more undeservedly ignored releases of the past couple of years. It was packed with rich stories, outstanding harmony work, and memorable. instantly likable tunes. "Albuquerque" is a woven piece of fresh, crisp, modern sound with a time tested country theme. This song is adventurous in its incorporation of new musical ideas to country and yet faithful to the traditions of the format. A great, solid song, that is wholly relatable to the average listener. I think its crucial for programmers to embrace traditional country sounds, but I think it's historically proven that country needs songs like this to stay fresh and relevant.

With Secondary Listeners In Flux, Does Press Aid Or Hinder Country?

Negative Images Persist In The Consumer Press

by Phyllis Stark

While country music's treatment in the consumer press has always disturbed many broadcasters, it particularly rankles now that the format is struggling to hold on to many of the secondary listeners it gained during its early-'90s boom. With country sales and listenership off, even the news reports that don't portray country as hokey or hayseed aren't particularly positive, PDs say.
And there's still plenty of coverage that does reinforce negative stereotypes. Many PDs cite Jay Leno dressing on the Academy of Country Music Awards every year as what WBCT/WCUZ Grand Rapids, Mich., OM Doug Montgomery describes as "an extra from 'Hee Haw'" as a particularly troubling example. Big-hair references are prevalent in coverage of female country music, despite the fact that it's hard to name a female country artist with a prize-winning 'do. And nearly everyone seems irritated by the ongoing references to "country and western" music

Some coverage shows little comprehension of current country music or a distaste for it on the part of the writer. L.J. Smith of BP Consulting Group says the Learning Channel recently covered the life of B.J. Thomas and "touted him as one of country's biggest stars and even gave him a better-than-average chance of having another country hit." KFRG Riverside, Calif., OM Ray Massie says his local paper "ran a terrible piece on our station when we picked up play-by-play baseball on our sister FM. They suggested we should do milking-the-cow promotions, cow-chip throwing, etc.

PDs: Trade Press Should Tell It Like It Is. In Good Times And Bad

The bad news about country radio hasn't been restricted to the consumer press. Country Airplay Monitor's stories reflecting negative news for the format (e.g., national Arbitron numbers, declining station counts) have generated some complaints from readers who believe the trade is overplaying bad news. But while a few of our survey respondents say negative trade press can be just as damaging as the negative consumer press it ultimately influences, the majority say they want the cold, hard truth, as long as it is fair and

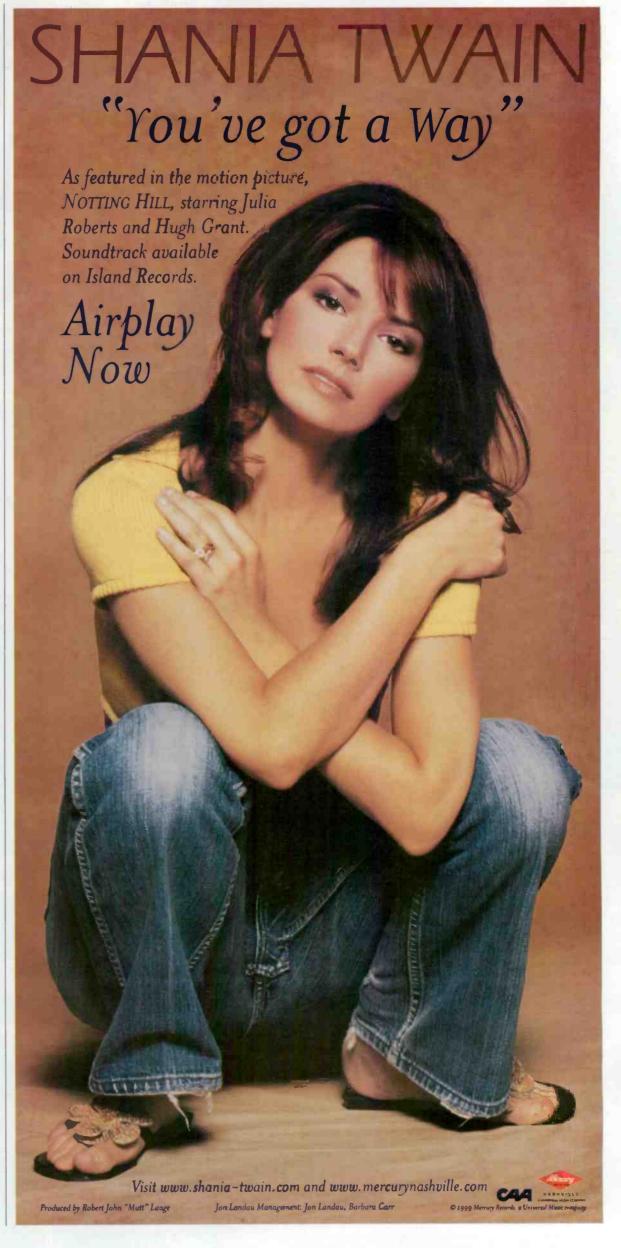

The last thing we need is our own trade press sticking its collective head in the sand," says KDRK Spokane, Wash., OM/PD Ray Edwards. "We need to be talking about the issue and thinking of how to combat the decline and then doing something. If I need cheerleading or whitewashed versions of the truth, I'll stick to reading annual reports and résumés. I prefer that our trade publications stick to journalism.'

"I prefer to know what's really going on," says WGRL Indianapolis PD John Q. Morris. "A recent [Monitor] article noted that country's shares are now back at 1989, pre-Garth levels. I found it troubling yet informative.

The truth will always prevail, and sometimes the truth hurts," says WBCT/WCUZ Grand Rapids, Mich., OM Doug Montgomery. "I believe that as long as the facts are accurate and the comparisons fair, then there's no issue.

'Anybody who doesn't want to see bad news printed should get out of the business," says John Dimick, director of programming and operations at KSON San Diego. "News is

Emerging Hits, Trendsetting Stations Spotlighted

Two Chart Features Debut, Airpower Retooled

by Silvio Pietroluongo, Airplay Monitor chart administrator

Airplay Monitor is proud to introduce two new features in this week's issue, along with the retooling of our Airpower criteria. This new information allows Airplay Monitor to better highlight both emerging hits and the programmers who are helping discover them. It will also provide the industry's most accurate indicator of when a song is truly broken.

The retooled feature is our criteria for Airpower status, which previously recognized those songs that had reached a certain level of detections. The recent inclusion of audience charts in Monitor allows us to create a formula for Airpower that recognizes not only the mostplayed songs, but also the ones that are reaching the widest audience. Airpower status will be awarded when a title reaches the top 20 on both the airplay chart and audience chart in the same week for the first time. The title, however, must have increases in both detections and audience impressions to qualify for Airpower, whether in the first week the title appears in the top 20 on both charts or any subsequent week.

We found that the new formula significantly improves the chances that an Airpower title will eventually become a top 10 hit. And by no longer tying Airpower to an arbitrary number, we can now take into account the fluctuations in detections that occur as we adjust the chart panel size on a quarterly basis. The new formula determines Airpower criteria on the basis of a song's performance compared to all other songs within that particular week.

Our new First Impressions feature, located on each of Monitor's weekly Power Playlists for individual stations, lists the top three songs that have received six or more detections at each station for the first time that week. First Impressions will highlight those songs that are receiving significant airplay for the first time but, in many cases, are not yet highly enough ranked to show up on a station's Power Playlist.

While this airplay has always been reflected in Monitor's "most new stations" ranking, First Impressions makes it easier to find and use_It's designed for the people who've told us that, while they regard Airplay Monitor as the only accurate barometer of real airplay, they wanted a better tool for judging airplay on brandnew titles. We'll also list First Impressions stations for all songs on the Impact page, replacing the New Airplay This Week listing.

You can also find our new Airplay Leader feature on the Impact page. Whenever a song reaches Airpower status, we'll spotlight the first station to play that title 150 times. In the event that more than one station qualifies, the stations will be listed in order of cumulative detections up to that date. In an increasingly conservative programming environment, Airplay Leader is our way of spotlighting those stations that helped find the hits.

And in the coming weeks, we will introduce the Airplay Leaderboard, which will rank stations in order of how many times they have appeared as an Airplay Leader on Airpower titles. The Leaderboard will acknowledge those stations that have repeatedly paved the way for songs on their road to Airpower status.

We are confident that these new features will make Country Airplay Monitor a more useful and valuable tool for both programmers and record labels. Please call me at 212-536-5154 or E-mail silvio@airplaymonitor.com with any questions or comments.

COUNTRY CONFIDENTIAL BY WADE JESSEN

Strait Ousts McGraw From Top Spot

With an increase of 206 detections, George Strait's "Write This Down" (MCA Nashville) scores more than 45 million estimated audience impressions to oust Tim McGraw's "Please Remember Me" (Curb) from No. 1 after a fiveweek reign atop both the Country Airplay and Country Audience charts. Strait bested McGraw by 27 plays to rise 2-1 on both charts. On the audience list, Strait's margin over McGraw is almost exactly 1 million impressions.

Meanwhile, Mary Chapin Carpenter's "Party Doll And Other Favorites" (Columbia) scans more than 32,000 units to bow at No. 4 on Billboard's Top Country Albums chart and enters The Billboard 200 at No. 43. The album, Carpenter's first in almost three years, is essentially a greatest-hits package with several new tracks including "Almost Home," which gains 83 plays to bullet at No. 39 on the Country Airplay list.

Alan Jackson's "Little Man" (Arista Nashville) gains 482 plays to jump 56-40 on the airplay chart and captures Greatest Gainer honors. The song also hooks the Most New Stations designation (see Greatest Gainers, page 8).

Elsewhere on the airplay chart, the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band's "Bang, Bang, Bang" (DreamWorks) pops on at No. 72 with spins at 11 monitored stations. The title was previously released on the now-shuttered Rising Tide imprint and charted for seven weeks in early '98, when it bowed at No. 65 and later peaked at No. 52. (The song was also worked at radio briefly by Decca after Rising Tide folded.) Since the song has been rereleased on a new label and the original chart action was too early in '98 to affect year-end totals for '99, it is listed as a new

ALTHOUGH this is the week we unfurl our new Airpower formula and introduce several new features (see story, this page), no titles on the detection chart qualify for Airpower designation under the new rule. As always, your feedback on these changes and additions is encouraged. Please call or E-mail me with comments at the phone number or address listed above.

WBAP, Bill Mack Nominated For Marconis

WBAP Dallas is among the nominees for legendary station of the year in the National Assn. of Broadcasters' Marconi Radio Awards, while the station's Bill Mack is up for major-market personality of the year. Country station of the year nominees are WBBS Syracuse, N.Y.; WDAF Kansas City; WIVK-FM Knoxville, Tenn.; WSOC Charlotte, N.C.; and WUSY Chattanooga, Tenn.

PHYLLIS STARK 615-321-4284 • pstark@airplaymonitor.com

Other country nominees are WIVK and WROO Jacksonville, Fla. (medium-market station); Scott Innes, WYNK Baton Rouge, La. (medium-market personality); KTTS-FM Springfield, Mo., and WGOH Huntington, W.Va. (small-market station); and Terry Bell, KKAJ Ardmore, Okla., and Jim King, KECO Elk City, Okla. (small-market personality). Winners will be announced Sept. 2 during the NAB Convention in Orlando, Fla.

PROGRAMMING: K-TEX SIGNS ON

Midland, Texas, is finally set to get its new country station when Graham Brothers' KTXC (K-Tex) signs on June 14 after four days of stunting. The station, formerly soft AC KIOL (K-Lite), had announced plans to sign on in mid-May with the calls KAXT and nickname Wildcat Country (Country Airplay Monitor, April 9). New PD Jay Richards, who planned to do mornings, will now handle afternoons with the arrival of former KOUL Corpus Christi, Texas, morning hosts Steve "Doc" Weldon and Terry McKeever. Midday host Renee Drake joins from crosstown KODM/KNFM. Former KODM P/T jock Eric Van Allen joins for nights. The syndicated "Nashville Nights" runs in overnights.

Look for WCKT Fort Myers, Fla., PD Paul Orr to be named PD at WYNK Baton Rouge, La., replacing Ralph Cherry

WITL Lansing, Mich., PD Jeff Davis is named PD at WKSF Asheville, N.C.

WQCB Bangor, Maine, PD/p.m. driver Bob Potts exits to join the University of Maine in a development capacity. MD/middayer Cindy Campbell is upped to PD. Chris Powers, morning host of WLKE Bar Harbor, Maine, joins for afternoons

WMTZ (the Mountain) Johnstown, Pa., OM/ PD/p.m. driver Brian Cleary joins WFBE Flint, Mich., as OM, replacing Art Oppermann, who will exit June 24. Oppermann will relocate to the St. Louis area to look for a new opportunity. Until then, he can be reached at 810-239-5128.

WCTD/WCTP Wilkes-Barre, Pa., morning host Jesse James joins WDEZ Wausau, Wis., as PD/afternoons, replacing Mark Skibba, who was recently promoted to corporate PD. Skibba will continue to do mornings on WDEZ. KWFS (Lonestar 103) Wichita Falls, Texas, PD

Scott Bryant exits.

Changes in Port Huron, Mich., as Blackburn prepares to sign off country AM CKTY in order to launch new FM CHKS as an album rocker.

Katherine Brown, former morning host at the previous incarnation of WYNY New York, is the new PD at N/T WTKS Orlando. Brown was previously PD of co-owned modern adult outlet WSHÉ until its recent switch to oldies

PEOPLE: CULOTTA ADDS NEW DUTIES

WQYK-FM Tampa, Fla., promotion and marketing director Mike Culotta adds those duties at sister WRBQ replacing Pat George.

Former KIKK Houston evening host Elizabeth Rose segues to the morning sidekick spot at crosstown KKBQ (93Q). Also, former KIKK MD

Jay Kelly joins 93Q for swing duties.

Dave "the Gerbil" Anderson joins WSTH
(Rooster Country 106) Columbus, Ga., for nights from WXXQ Rockford, Ill.

WNUC Buffalo, N.Y., afternoon jock Buddy Shula joins crosstown AC WMJQ for sales and P/T air work.

Strait Models New Birthday Stetson

After searching high and low for the dumbest George Strait birthday promotion idea, KRYS (K99) Corpus Christi, Texas, decided to throw him a party at a Chuck E. Cheese's. The K99 staff got him a cake, presents, festive hats, and all the game tokens he could use. As you can see from this photo, Strait showed up for a little while but just didn't seem to be himself. Pictured, from left, are morning man Dean Jaxon, "Strait," and morning man Rusty Aldredge.

ON THE ROW

Lisa Andrick Segues To DreamWorks

Giant/Reprise West Coast regional Lisa Andrick segues to similar duties at DreamWorks. She replaces Bob Mitchell, who steps down due to complications he suffered from a leg injury in 1997. He will stay with the company as senior consultant working on special projects. No replacement has been named at Giant/Reprise.

Pete Fisher is named GM of the Grand Ole Opry effective June 28. As a partner in Fisher Raines Entertainment, Fisher had been managing Paul Brandt and Christian artist Carolyn Arends. Fisher reports to Gaylord Entertainment's Grand Ole Opry Group president Steve Buchanan, who had been running the Opry. Fisher also previously worked at Warnersongs

Cindy Finch, a 19-year veteran of Warner/ Reprise Nashville, is elevated to senior VP of administration for the label.

The Country Music Assn. has formed a strategic alliance with entertainment communications specialist Pittard Sullivan aimed at developing consumer products, licensing, and retail merchandising opportunities for several CMA events, including the CMA Awards and Fan Fair.

Noble Vision has signed singer/songwriter Claire Davidson to the music publishing division.

Chet Atkins has been tapped to lead the all-guitar marching band at the groundbreaking ceremonies for the new Country Music Hall of Fame June 17 (Country Airplay Monitor, May 21).

Former KMON Great Falls, Mont., P/T jock Will Johnson returns for afternoons, replacing Kim Taylor, who shifts to sales.

Stu Evans celebrated his 10th anniversary as afternoon jock at KMLE Phoenix June 7. Meanwhile at KXRB (Country 1000) Sioux Falls, S.D., morning host Ratt Reno celebrates his 30th anniversary with the publication of the book "This Is My Country" (Pine Hill Press), sharing his memories of the station (from its 1969 sign-on), its personalities (including "Mama Cass, the Wonder Dog"), and the artists who dropped by.

Sorry to report the death of Delores McGhghy, mother of WFYR Peoria, Ill., PD Bob Grayson. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Make-a-Wish Foundation, 2055 S. Freemont, Springfield, Mo. 65804.

We're pleased to report that "Nashville Nights" executive producer Jim Darby is now out of rehab and recovering at home following his stroke a few months ago.

Report: Radio Industry 'Transformed'

The radio industry is facing additional fractionalization, while the impact of ownership concentration is becoming clearer, according to the fourth annual State of the Radio Industry study, prepared by financial firm BIA.

At the end of 1998, the number of owners had dropped from 5,222 controlling 10,246 stations to 4,241 controlling 10,636 stations. There was also a lot more money to be had. BIA estimates radio revenue grew 12.6% last year, to $13.8 billion. It says almost 30% of the industry's revenues came from the top 10 markets. And it es timates that 54% of the estimated $13.8 billion of 1998 ad revenue went to the 25 largest radio owners. The top three billers—Chancellor/Capstar, CBS/Infinity, and Clear Channel/ Jacoraccounted for almost 35% of total industry revenues. Cost-cutting and consolidation efficiencies also account for 35% to 45% increases in cash flow for the public companies studied.

While the pace of consolidation has slowed considerably, BIA CEO/president Tom Buono predicts radio revenue will grow 8.7% this year, 9.3% in 2000, 8.0% in 2001, and 8.7% in 2002, despite potential competition from the Internet, satellite radio and microradio

CAPITAL

Clear Channel is among the bidders for Sea-gram's concert division, Universal Concerts. The New York Post reports the price has apparently climbed to about $175 million.

Emmis Communications is paying $191.5 million for WB affiliate WKCF-TV Orlando, Fla. The last radio station Emmis bought was WQCD New York, and despite the fact it's been more than two years since it has purchased a U.S. radio station, CEO Jeff Smulyan says radio remains its core business. "When we see value in radio, we won't hesitate to acquire aggressively." In an age when size matters, seller Press Communications, owner of three New Jersey radio stations, couldn't compete on the TV side and plans to focus on radio acquisitions.

CAPITOL

Sen. John McCain, R-Ariz., and Sen. Joe Lieberman, D-Conn., are introducing legislation to create uniform labeling requirements for music, videos, movies, and video games. The 21st Century Media Responsibility Act would require record companies and other producers to rate a product's violent nature by context and intensity. It also requires that recommended ages be included on the packaging. Retailers would be responsible for enforcing the age restrictions or face a fine of up to $10,000. One year after the act is signed into law, it would ban the domestic sale and distribution of import CDs and other media not carrying the violence labels. The bill gives the affected industries a six-month antitrust waiver to work together in developing a standardized labeling system.

While the FCC is still evaluating several proposals submitted to it from USA Digital Radio, Lucent, and Digital Radio Express for conversion to digital, in-band on-channel (IBOC) radio, the National Assn. of Broadcasters' DAB task force is asking the commission to wait un-til IBOC testing has been completed in December before moving forward with its lowpower FM (LPFM) radio proposal. The group says it wants the time to determine the full impact of LPFM.

Meanwhile, Lucent says its field testing of overlapping digital and analog signals has shown that the digital broadcast does not degrade the host FM analog signal. This summer, the tests will be expanded to several other stations, including top 40 WPST Trenton, N.J., as Lucent tests prototype transmitters. With listeners expected to use both analog and digital receivers for many years to come, IBOC proponents need to develop a system that blends both signals without distorting either. Digital signals will provide clear reception, say propo nents, who add that the quality of reception will be particularly noticeable at the fringes of a cov-

Elsewhere, the FCC is holding up Citadel's $63.5 million purchase of the Fuller-Jeffrey Broadcasting stations in Maine and New Hampshire, including country WPKQ and WOKQ, AĆ WHOM and WJBQ, modern rock WCYI and WCYY, album rock WBLM, and classic rock WXBP and WXBB.

NEW MEDIA: MORE MEL AND CBS

On the heels of its $8.3 billion purchase of billboard company Outdoor Systems, CBS is continuing its cross-media presence. It is buying a 35% stake in Switchboard.com, an Internet yellow-page service. No cash is changing hands, although Switchboard will get $135 million of TV, radio, and outdoor promotion and branding over the next decade, similar to deals CBS has made with Hollywood.com, Storerunner.com, and Office.com. The Web site will be renamed CBS Switchboard.

SALES

Clear Channel is buying top 40 KKEZ and country KWMT Fort Dodge, Iowa, from KWMT Radio Inc. for $7.5 million. Clear Channel is also buying country WCYK, R&B oldies WVSY, and oldies WVAO Charlottesville, from Clark Broadcasting for $6.35 million. Va., from Clark Broadcasting for $6.35 million.

Station Concerts, July 4 Set Off Promo Fireworks

Station concerts once again ruled the Topical Barometer, with Independence Day coming on strong in second place. While many stations are naturally tying in with fireworks and picnics, country WPOC Baltimore is saluting Mary Chapin Carpenter's new album, "Party Doll & Other Favorites," with a Party Doll on Wheels Fourth of July. New air talent Bob Delmark will pick up one lucky party girl and five of her friends in a limo for a ride to dinner, Carpenter's concert, and a VIP area to watch fireworks. Sheila Silverstein got a bang out of it.

Thinking of the holiday-trip angle is top 40 WPXY Rochester; N.Y., which will take over two stations for a huge pre-Independence Day gas giveaway. Tanks to Tristano Korlou for the idea.

Novel twists in modern rock KEDJ (the Edge) Phoenix's "Austin Powers II" promo are free tickets and replicas of Austin's gnarly teeth. Jane Monzures embraces that idea.

For Father's Day, rhythmic top 40 KLUC Las Vegas believes that Father Mows Best, as listeners receive a prize package and qualify to win a lawn mower, tools, etc. Vanessa Thill again shows why she's on the cutting edge.

NBA and NHL fever have hit playoff-contending markets. Top 40 KKRZ (Z100) Portland, Ore., held a Dribble-Off. Each contestant had to dribble two balls at once; the last one dribbling won playoff tickets. "All the TV stations and the local paper came down," says Wendi Foster of the full-court press.

Top 40 WKSE Buffalo, N.Y., is on the Buffalo Sabre bandwagon, as the morning show is setting up its own chocolate factory. Those who find "golden tickets" in the bars win tickets to the NHL Stanley Cup finals. "The donations will benefit Sabre captain Michael Peca's charity of choice, the Juvenile Diabetes Assn.," says Stephanie "Skates" Ringer round the competition.

PROMO TOPIC OF THE WEEK: THE EFFECTS OF CONSOLIDATION

The station-group buying frenzy has died down a bit since its 1997-98 heyday, as evidenced by the fact that 55% of the Promoganda panel's stations haven't changed hands, formats, or become part of a larger market cluster over the past year. Even so, almost 28% of the promo directors now oversee more stations, and more than 17% have new bosses this year.

For those who have a new owner or GM,

Michael Godfrey of top 40 CKIK Calgary, Alberta, suggests you "spend as much time with them as you can and learn what their expectations of promotions are. That expectation level has a huge impact on how your efforts and role [in the company] will be perceived."

As part of a larger cluster, Diana Buckmann of country KEEY (K102) Minneapolis has seen her workload increase. "We now coordinate promotions with the six other stations in the market," she says. "The sales staff has increased, and I have more sales promos to plan."

Overseeing more than one station can create a problem in where to allocate your efforts and resources. "At the moment, one station [generates] greater revenue, hence more value-added demand, while the other demands a greater need to boost ratings and business," Godfrey says. "It's a challenge to give one priority when they have different needs and objectives. If push comes to shove, you serve the money first, then the station that needs the work."

Stephanie Hogerman of country WBEE Rochester, N.Y., agrees. "We serve the biggest audience first [in order] to not lose any part of it," she says. "It's imperative to find self-sustaining promotions for the biggest station in the group Some promos can run on their own due to their popularity, along with the station's ratings.

Becoming more common are multiple-station promos such as kids' fests, used-car bonan-zas, and other citywide events. "We're doing this more often," notes Katie Eyerly of R&B KMEL San Francisco. "It works out fine once everyone gets used to the idea, It actually spurs competitive spirit. If all five of us are at the same event. you can bet we each give a little more thought to our on-site activities and presentation. We don't want to look lame in front of our sister stations.

QUICK HITS: TICKETS AND TRIPS

Promogandists never run out of novel ways to give away tickets. Modern adult KFMB-FM (Star 100.7) San Diego had two teenagers camp out in its Dumpster for 'N Sync tickets. Local businesses added their trash to the fish and dog hair already in the bin. The girl who stood N-Da-Stink the longest won. Kim Leeds gave new meaning to the term, "talking trash.

CKIK held a 24-hour 'N Sync Ticket Blitz by giving away a pair of ducats each hour from midnight to 10 p.m. the following day. "Parents called in, complaining that their kids wouldn't go to bed, or made them stay up to hear the cue to call," Godfrey says. "We also got complaints about kids skipping school to try to win tickets."

R&B WJTT (Power 94) Chattanooga, Tenn. gave away a trip to the Essence Music Festival in New Orleans with backstage and Coca-Cola Hospitality Lounge access, ground transporta-Hospitality Lounge access, ground transportation, airfare, French Quarter hotel accommodations—the works. On top of the Coke sponsorship, the contest was leveraged with a local grocery store chain. "We nailed them for a schedule and two remotes—one to kick off the giveaway and the other to hold the grand-prize drawing," Wayne Collins says.

Top 40 WSTR (Star 94) Atlanta will give Jamaican vacations to lucky callers who dial in af-maican vacations to lucky callers who dial in after hearing "Uncle Clive doin' a cliff dive." PD Dan Bowen's full-gainer got an 8.4, 8.5, and 8.9 in the most recent books

ALLERGIC TO COUNTRY

KKBQ Houston PD Tim Murphy calls consumer-press coverage of country "condescending. The reviews tend to be that once someone becomes popular [e.g., Shania Twain, Dixie Chicks] they obviously are an exception and not really country and should be classified differently. There does seem to be an allergy to the word 'country,' except in regard to classics and Americana. They ignore the mainstream of country music [and] focus on the fringe or those that have moved beyond country."

KDRK Spokane, Wash., OM/PD Ray Edwards says, "There is still a tendency in the mainstream press to portray any country music that smells of steel guitar or twin fiddle as being somehow hokey, while they applaud anything that sounds more like pop."

But WPOC Baltimore PD Scott Lindy thinks otherwise. "Lately, I think the consumer press has realized that Shania Twain, Faith Hill, and Garth Brooks do not ride horses to work and are actually real people," he says. "The national consumer press probably does more good for our format than we realize. The media covers what they see, not what they know. When I see a TV Guide article about Mary Chapin Carpenter or new act Jessica Andrews on the cover of the purple section in USA Today, I stand up and "I believe that the press is accepting country artists more than ever," says WHSL Greensboro, N.C., PD Brian Landrum. "But I sometimes get a feeling that they still think that we are a novel-

MASS EXODUS TO JAMMIN' OLDIES?

So does any of this bad press really hurt the format or drive away listeners or advertisers? Opinions on this subject were mixed, with most saying it does cause harm to country.

In the minority is WOKQ Portsmouth, N.H., PD Mark Ericson, who says, "As broadcasters, we often forget how the people out in the real world use our services. If a country Pl has a favorite station, and they read that, nationally, country radio listening is down, they will not immediately seek out the new 'Jammin' oldies' signal in the market. Broadcasters have a tendency to overreact to mainstream media coverage of our KKBQ's Murphy disagrees. "It helped when everyone was talking about it booming, so it has to hurt when we are being trashed," he says. "Fence-sitters and fair-weather listeners are more easily swayed. It also hurts when it comes to advertisers. If they are not first-choice listenbuying decisions."

"For most folks, perception is reality," says WXTU Philadelphia PD Ken Johnson. "If only the negative side of country is reported, it can only accelerate the problem. Nothing like giving fuel to the naysayers and letting the agencies who control the ad dollars-and [are] generally staffed by twentysomethings who hate country -have more negative ammunition.'

People take a lot of cues from what they think other people are doing," says KDRK's Edwards. "If they perceive that country is somehow uncool, they may be less inclined to listen, even if they themselves haven't stopped liking it. On the other hand, I don't think our P1 listeners are going to abandon us just because [a newspaper] says country record sales are down.

"It hurts us insofar as it perpetuates the 'most people don't like country' syndrome," says KYCW Seattle PD Becky Brenner. "Fewer people are willing to jump on the bandwagon if they think it isn't the hip thing to do."

"I don't think it hurts us so much with our core," says BP Consulting's Smith. "Pl country fans are offended by the negative press. My fear is that our secondary listeners will use the press to support their objections to country.

COMBATING NEGATIVE PRESS

So how can country radio combat negative press? "We need to celebrate our successes, such as the Dixie Chicks' going multi-platinum, and to continue a healthy dialogue as to how we can get back on top," says Montgomery.

Sell the success stories nationwide," says KHAK Cedar Rapids, Iowa, PD Jeff Winfield. "Just because country music isn't thriving in the major markets, it does very well in most medium to small markets-and certainly some major cities as well."

"Take advantage of the exposure that these acts who are crossing over are getting outside of country and take ownership of them for our format," says BP Consulting Group's Ken Moul-

Keith Hill of Hill/Acree Consulting suggests that stations "consistently sell country music and the category positively [and] vigorously.

"Just keep promoting, promoting, promoting," says Johnson. "We can't get distracted." Country always has peaks and valleys. We just need to hang tight until the pendulum swings back. Sadly, with consolidation, there seems to be less marketing money available to promote country radio and country music.

"We need to make great music, be great stations, [then] the listeners come, the ad dollars come. Bad press ends," says Landrum.

news; it's neither bad nor good. It is just the

"The damage was not done by the press," says consultant Joel Raab. "Everyone knows the truth. We're struggling, and we're finding our way back.

"Bad news is necessary in order to keep the format honest," adds WHYL Harrisburg, Pa., GM Lincoln Zeve. "The bands on the Titanic played 'til it sank. The realists hopped on the lifeboats.

"Radio, like everything else, is about survival of the fittest," says KKBQ Houston PD Tim Murphy. "Blaming the press, the music, the competition, the spot load, the logo is always easier than being a better radio station, regardless of format.

But Murphy also sees the other side of the coin. "If the format is perceived as really taking a dive, there will be as many country sta-tions becoming 'Jammin' oldies' as there were [top 40s] turning to country a few years ago," he says.

Negative trade press about country "gives other formats fodder for negativity," says WXTU Philadelphia PD Ken Johnson. "They love to copy clients and agencies with 'gloom and doom' pieces about other formats.

"I do not think [the trade press] should be apologists for the format," says KYCW Seattle

PD Becky Brenner. "I do believe that it is more important to focus on the positive. I don't mind statistical information, but the doom-andgloom opinions based on individual interpretation of those statistics can be very annoying.

There are a lot of owners who don't know much about country radio and who may jump to broad conclusions based on what they read in the trade press," says Bob Moody of McVay Media. But, he adds, it isn't the role of the trade press "to be a cheerleader as long as you get the facts right."

'Painting doom and gloom about the format's decline certainly doesn't encourage investing in the format, and although I don't expect a tainted or biased view of the format, I personally am more interested in solutions than in negative facts trending us down," says WWWW Detroit PD Tim Roberts.

"[An] industry trade's role is to provide legitimate coverage of what is going on in our industry," says WOKO Portsmouth, N.H., PD Mark Ericson. "If any particular segment of broadcasting is going gangbusters, then we should hear about it, maybe even swipe an idea or two. If an industry segment is taking the pipe, then we should know about that, too. Knowledge and information, as long as it's genuine, is always a good thing."

MONITOR PROFILE

From A Diamond For 'Greatest Hits' To Hit 'The Greatest,' A Great Year For Rogers

1999 is shaping up to be a comeback year for Kenny Rogers. His fast-selling new album, "She Rides Wild Horses," debuted at No. 6 on Billboard's Top Country Albums chart in May, his highest chart debut in more than 15 years The album remains in the top 10 on the chart. Its first single, "The Greatest," rises 32-29 this week on the Country Airplay chart.

Already this year, Rogers has received numerous honors. He was an inaugural recipient of the Recording Industry Assn. of America's diamond award, marking sales of more than 10 million units of his "Kenny Rogers' Greatest Hits" album. He also received the National Assn. of Recording Merchandisers' Chairman's Award for sustained achievement and, on June 9, was honored with the Sammy Cahn Lifetime Achievement Award at the 30th annual Songwriters' Hall of Fame Awards Dinner in New York. And Rogers recently completed a monthderful gift.

"I've always had a belief that careers, as well as business deals and relationships, [are] always in a spiral," he says. "You're either going down or you're going up. When you go down, it seems like nothing good can happen. And when you go up, it seems like no matter what you do, it turns out fine. It's great to be in the upward spiral. For a few years, it wasn't that simple. I've always been extremely successful and made a lot of money, but there's a psychological weight that comes in this business that you really want to be contemporary. So to me, having this opportunity at radio again is a won-

But Rogers is a realist. He knows airplay isn't promised on the planned follow-up, "Slow Dance More." "Artists can get caught up in what they used to sound like and their success from the past," he says. "They think that should carry them, and it just doesn't. I feel like I'm given a second chance to see if I really can compete on radio. I'm kind of a student of the business, and I know that just because I've had this one song and they played it, that does not guarantee me success in the future. But I do think it guarantees me an opportunity for a second record.'

Rogers says he learned a valuable lesson 10 years ago, when radio largely refused to play his single "Planet Texas," a record he thought was "so hip and so well-done." The song peaked at No. 30 on the country singles chart in 1989. "I said to [a programmer,] 'Look, I won't take this personally, just tell me why so I'll know what to correct.' He said, 'Because it doesn't sound like anything we would play, and when people turn by the dial, they won't recognize our station, and once they go by, they may not come back.

That was a great deal of insight for me that you have to be an individual, but you have to stay somewhat in the box to protect the radio station," says Rogers. "[But] I think all of these things are cyclical. Eventually, it can open up again so that it's not all new, young country and there's room for people that have been around for a while, and hopefully I can have some records that can help do that."

For most of this decade, Rogers was part of the generation of artists country radio wouldn't touch. "I would go in [to stations,] and they would say, 'We're calling ourselves new, young country. You tell us which one of those you fit in, and we'll play you.'

To help pave the way for his own comeback. Rogers has been very involved with country radio this year, even going on a monthlong radio tour. "I literally donated the month of April to radio promotion," he says. "I've always said I'm not very good at saying 'please,' but I'm good at saying 'thank you,' so we went to radio stations that had committed to the record. It's much easier for me. I'm just not good at saying 'please play my song.' I won't do that. It's either good enough or it's not. There's no way I'm going to talk someone into playing my record. So if they like it, I'll do everything I can to support them.

The writer of "The Greatest," Don Schlitz, also penned Rogers' signature song, "The Gambler," 20 years ago. And while Rogers says he knew instantly that "The Greatest" would be a big reaction record, he says, "What scared me was I didn't know whether it would play on radio. I didn't know whether once you hear the punch line, if you'd want to listen to it again."

Over a span of nearly three decades, Rogers has recorded an astonishing 56 albums that have sold more than 100 million units worldwide. Also on his list of credentials are four Grammy Awards, 11 People's Choice Awards, 18 American Music Awards, eight Academy of Country Music Awards, and five Country Music Assn. Awards. His résumé also includes numerous acting roles and the publication of two books of his photographs. He is currently working on a third book featuring photos of past, present, and future country stars.

Earlier this year, Rogers and former EMI

America chairman and Capitol Records president Jim Mazza formed Dreamcatcher Entertainment, which is made up of a record label, an artist management firm, and a film/TV production division. The management arm represents Rogers and Diamond Rio. But so far, Rogers is the only artist on the label's roster. While the company is prepared to add management clients, it will not sign other artists just yet.

"We need to make sure that we are a viable label" first, Rogers says. "One of the things that I will not do is tie somebody up if I can't help them. The odds against an independent label having a hit record are astronomical. So is this a one-shot record? Can we bring this record home? Are we literally a really good label, or did we just find a good song? That's what we have to find out for ourselves. If we find out that we have all the inner talent, which I truly believe we do, then I think we can" add acts. 'We have several multi-platinum artists that don't have record deals that have already approached me," including some in formats other than country "that like the idea of a label that's artist-driven."

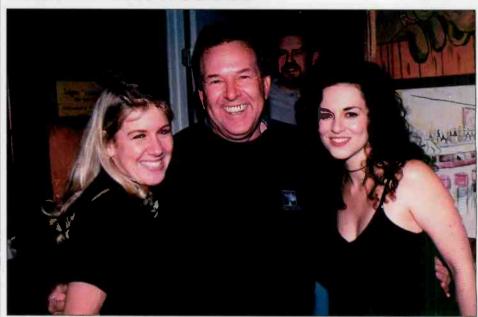

He formed Dreamcatcher primarily to protect his own intellectual property, since he owns many of his own masters. "I'm just come from a European tour where I've literally signed more albums than I even knew existed over there," he says. "I have more greatest-hits albums than I have greatest hits. I saw albums with pictures that I've never seen before. Some are bootleg and some are just creative compilations, where they have rights to your stuff, and they put combinations of things [together] and call it 'Love Songs In The Key Of C'—just anything to have a new title. One of the things I wanted to be able to do was to protect that in the future, so the idea of putting the label together was to be able to protect these intellectual properties and also have the creative freedom and license to think outside the box. Record companies today are all working on such small margins that they have to think inside the box, or they don't even get a shot."

FOR WEEK ENDING JUNE 6, 1999

Songs ranked by number of detections. Playlists are listed in order of TSA weekly cume, beginning with the highest-cuming station. Cumes are updated twice yearly following the release of the spring and fall Arbitron surveys. The number of stations shown each week varies depending upon space.

First Impressions (FI) denotes songs with 6 or more detections at station for first time this week.

FOR WEEK ENDING JUNE 6, 1999

Songs ranked by number of detections. Playlists are listed in order of TSA weekly cume, beginning with the highest-cuming station. Cumes are updated twice yearly following the release of the spring and fall Arbitron surveys. The number of stations shown each week varies depending upon space.

First Impressions (F1) denotes songs with 6 or more detections at station for first time this week.

WRNS

FOR WEEK ENDING JUNE 6, 1999

Songs ranked by number of detections. Playlists are listed in order of TSA weekly cume, beginning with the highest-cuming station. Cumes are updated twice yearly following the release of the spring and fall Arbitron surveys. The number of stations shown each week varies depending upon space.

First Impressions (FI) denotes songs with 6 or more detections at station for first time this week.

FOR WEEK ENDING JUNE 6. 1999

Songs ranked by number of detections. Playlists are listed in order of TSA weekly cume, beginning with the highest-cuming station. Cumes are updated twice yearly following the release of the spring and fall Arbitron surveys. The number of stations shown each week varies depending upon space.

First Impressions (FI) denotes songs with 6 or more detections at station for first time this week.

songs are ranked by number of detections. Where showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Galher awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record being played on more stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 25 are removed from the chart after 20 weeks.

Collective Contesting Grows, But Is It Fair To Listeners?

by Phyllis Stark

Collective contesting, aka group or corporate contesting, has become more widespread in the last year, but it is still not without its critics. The idea started last spring with Jacor's AC and hot AC stations and has since spread to most other formats and several other groups, including Collective contesting involves multiple stations within the same group and format staging their "song of the day" contests in tandem and sharing a cash pool to which they all contribute. Participating stations play the same song at the same time. Listeners in those markets call an 800 number and compete to win a jackpot that is higher than it would ordinarily be if a single station were running the contest (Country Airplay Monitor, Oct. 30, 1998).

Although stations that have done it say they are careful about on-air wording and contest rules, critics, including consultant Bill Hennes, say such contests are "a lie to the listeners."

Most of them are promoted in such a way that the assumption is the station they are listening to is the only station running the contest, and that's not true," says Hennes, echoing the complaints of PDs who have had to compete against such contests from the beginning. "On one extreme, it's misleading. On the other extreme, it goes from misleading to, on some stations, outright lies."

Not so, say programmers who have done it. For a six-week $10,000 song-of-the-day contest that ran on more than 20 Jacor/Clear Channel country stations and ended May 28, the second line of the printed contest rules stated that it was a national contest and listed the other participating stations. The contest rules also aired once a day on all the stations and again stated that it was a multi-station contest

But Hennes claims that other stations that do such contests "are not running the proper disclaimers. The ones that are either burying or not running the disclaimers are creating a lie. Some are using Web pages to be their disclaimer, and some are not even doing that. They are pretending to take ownership of these contests.

Hennes believes this may come back to haunt those stations. "Over the years, it's been my experience that stations that run real hyped-up prize contests may win a victory in the short sight but lose the war in the long run, because the listeners discover that the station has lied to them," he says.

> "Don't mislead the public, because if they discover it, trust me, they don't like it" -Bill Hennes

"They may run a disclaimer promo at 3 a.m. but, as a listener, you make the connection that the station you're listening to is giving the prize away, and they may or may not be. You really have to listen long, hard, and fast to find those rules. It's just misleading. Radio should be fun, truthful, have a good time, and give away the prize you can afford to give away. Don't mislead the public, because if they discover it, trust me, they don't like it.

"The promotions should be the icing on the cake," adds Hennes. "If the promotions are the cake, the sta-tion most likely will end up eating it."

J.J. Cook, GM of nest marketing at Critical Mass Media, agrees with that point. "Programming still has to be good," he says. "Contesting isn't the save-all. It's not going to make or break the radio station.

Stuart Revives The Concept Album

RED HEADED PILGRIM: One of country music's occasional, yet enduring, traditions is the concept or theme album, a tradition Marty Stuart is preparing to revive with the release the only true country concept album of the '90s. "The Pilgrim" (MCA Nashville) tells the story of a hometown glamour queen who chooses a cross-eyed local for her husband. The pilgrim is the man with whom she carries on an affair after the glitter fades from the union.

Through country's early commercial years, concept albums, often packaged like photo albums, with each track on an individual 78 rpm record, were common. Of course, back then country was dominated by male artists. It wasn't until Jean Shepard's landmark 1956 Capitol release, "Songs Of A Love Affair," that the ladies entered the theme-album arena.

True concept albums are those that tell a story from beginning to end and usually stick to one main topic or idea, although the material can be diverse. Shepard and other artists continued the theme album, but true concept albums gradually became a rarity.

bums gradually became a rarity.

Although Willie Nelson had charted 27 singles and more than a dozen albums by the end of 1974, it was his now five-times platinum "Red Headed Stranger" concept album in 1975 that provided his first No. 1 single, a remake of Fred Rose's "Blue Eyes Crying In The Rain." The follow-up single, "Remember Me," peaked at No. 2 in early "76.

There were no highly commercial concept albums during the '80s, except possibly by a much looser definition that could include Kenny Rogers' "Gideon," a No. 1 title on Billboard's Top Country Albums chart for seven straight weeks in 1980. Even at that, Rogers' record was fueled by the pop crossover hit "Don't Fall In Love With A Dreamer," a duet with Kim Carnes.

"Red, Red Wine And Cheatin' Songs," Stuart's lead single from "The Pilgrim," rises 75-69 on our detection chart. The album will begin scanning at retail June 15 and features vocal guests George Jones, Emmylou Harris, Johnny Cash, Pam Tillis, and bluegrass patriarch Ralph Stanley.

OPENING AT NO. 10 with more than 15,000 units on Billboard's Top Country Albums chart (see At-a-Glance, page 17), Dwight Yoakam's second hits package, "Last Chance For A Thousand Years: Dwight Yoakam's Greatest Hits Of The '90s" (Reprise), also enters The Billboard 200 at No. 80. Yoakam's prior best-of album, "Just Lookin' For A Hit," entered the country chart at No. 20 (during the pre-Sound-Scan era) in October '89.

The new title includes Yoakam's cover of Queen's "Crazy Little Thing Called Love," which jumps 29-25 on our Country Airplay

Meanwhile, "Single White Female," Chely Wright's fourth album (and her second for MCA Nashville), enters Top Country Albums at
No. 15, with about 10,000 scans. On the Top Country Singles Sales chart, "Single White Female" gains 1,000 units to bullet at No. 3. Wright's prior set, "Let Me In," charted in the autumn of '97 and yielded "Shut Up And Drive," her highest-charting single to date, which peaked at No. 14.

Also on the retail singles scorecard, the pop remix of Shania Twain's "That Don't Impress Me Much" (Mercury) opens at No. 1, with 18,000 units sold. Although the pop version is the A-side of the retail piece, it is allowed to chart on Top Country Singles Sales because the B-side is the album version of the song from "Come On Over," which was played at country radio. (One major-market top 40 station, WXSS Milwaukee, has opted for the original version of the song.) "That Don't Impress Me Much" peaked at No. 8 on our Country Airplay chart in the Feb. 19 issue.

ON THE ROW

Ken Kragen Joins Dreamcatcher

Veteran artist manager Ken Kragen of Los Angeles-based Kragen & Co. has been named president/COO of Dreamcatcher Artist Management. Simultaneously, Dreamcatcher adds Diamond Rio to its client roster, which also includes Kenny Rogers. Kragen has appointed Ted Greene VP and Renee Behrman director of media/radio relations. Both were previously part of the Diamond Rio organization. Dreamcatcher Artist Management is a division of Dreamcatcher Entertainment, which has offices in Nashville and Los Angeles.

Platinum Entertainment has signed former Capitol artist Suzy Bogguss to a long-term recording contract. Bogguss and her husband, Doug Crider, will again team to produce her Platinum debut, due in the early fall.

Nick Hunter and Chuck Rhodes have shuttered their Nashville-based independent promotion firm, Niche Promotions. Hunter is expected to announce a new venture in a few weeks.

Lyric Street Records names Amy Williams Southwest regional promotion director, replacing Louis Heidelmeier. Williams, who will be based in Dallas, spent the last year and a half as an intern in the promotion department of RCA Records in Dallas and previously worked at KSCS Dallas.

Three Senators Seek To Clip FCC's Wings

FCC Chairman Bill Kennard may have received a more cordial welcome on Capitol Hill during the May 26 Senate hearing, but at the same time three high-level Republicans were looking to clip the FCC's wings. Senators John McCain, R-Ariz.; Orrin Hatch, R-Utah; and John Ashcroft, R-Mo., introduced a bill that would streamline the government's merger review. The Telecom Merger Review Act mandates that if either the Department of Justice or the Federal Trade Commission has reviewed a proposed merger and found no need to intervene, the FCC must remain hands-off. If the FCC does gets involved, it would have only 60 days to complete the review. The senators' complaint is that the FCC typically re-reviews proposed mergers, even after DOJ or FTC approval, adding months to the process and millions of dollars in costs.

The commissioners defended the process, arguing that their reviews supplement, and do not overlap, DOJ scrutiny. During most of the hearing, radio issues were overshadowed by long distance and the Internet, although Sen. Byron Dorgan, D-N.D., asked the FCC to explain what its decency standard is and how it is set. Dorgan also asked Kennard to list the words not allowed on the radio. "I'm not sure that would be appropriate," responded a flustered Kennard.

Elsewhere, the FCC has flagged Capstar's purchase of CP KBED (102.9 FM) Shreveport, La., from Port City Communications, citing concentration concerns.

CAPITAL: INFINITY BUY BOARDS, CHANCELLOR SELLS

CBS/Infinity CEO Mel Karmazin is expanding his outdoor division, while Chancellor Media is taking steps to exit the business. CBS/Infinity is paying $8.3 billion for Outdoor Systems, which combined with TDI creates the largest outdoor media company in the world. Outdoor Systems owns 112,000 display faces in 150 markets in the U.S., Canada, and Mexico. It also owns 125,000 subway displays in New York.

Meanwhile, Chancellor CEO Tom Hicks says his company is taking a significant step toward becoming a radio-only corporation, with the sale of its billboard business to Lamar Advertising, which will pay Chancellor $1.6 billion in stock and cash for Chancellor's 42,500 billboards. As part of the deal, Chancellor will continue to own a 30% stake in Lamar for at least the next year. The DOJ must approve both deals, and both companies say its review should be completed by the fall.

Citadel will sell 10 million shares of its common stock, worth $146 million. Proceeds will, in part, pay for Citadel's purchase of stations in Charleston, S.C.; Binghamton, N.Y.; Muncie, Ind.; Kokomo, Ind.; Portsmouth, N.H.; Portland, Maine; and Wilkes-Barre, Pa. Half of the shares will be sold by the company, the other half by shareholders. Among those cashing out is the venture capitalist firm Baker, Fentress & Co., so Citadel is replacing board member Scott Smith of Baker, Fentress with former banking giant Ike Kalangis. He now advises a number of institutional investors.

NEW MEDIA: CD, GM TALKING AGAIN

CD Radio says it has reopened discussions with General Motors on building cars with CD Radio receivers, six weeks after it broke off talks, when it said a deal between GM and competitor XM Satellite Radio was imminent. But an XM representative says that despite this new development, their two companies are still talking. "Satellite radio is a hot, emerging industry. This is just the beginning; there are a lot of major players who want to become involved," says XM's Vickie Stern. CD Radio holds its annual shareholders' meeting June 22, and a deal with the car company could ease shareholders' fears over its 25% drop in recent weeks.

INSIDE THE SEC FILINGS

Public companies must eventually show their hand, and Capstar is no different. In its recently released annual report to the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), Capstar reveals the outcome of several lawsuits filed against it. One suit, brought by Cardinal Communications over the sale of sports KTCK Dallas, was settled with Capstar writing a check for $2.9 million. Another suit centers on Capstar's purchase of Triathlon Broadcasting. The action, brought by former Triathlon shareholders, alleges Capstar helped Triathlon cut a deal that would favor Triathlon senior officers over rank-and-file shareholders

The SEC filing also reveals pay for top officers. CEO Steve Hicks is given a base annual salary of $577,500, with a guaranteed 5 percent pay increase each year, a benefit afforded no other Capstar employee. Most others make roughly $300,000 and are subject to bonuses.

Citadel has also recently released its annual report, showing CEO Larry Wilson made $358,000 in 1998, with another $214,000 in bonuses. Like Hicks', Wilson's contract has a built-in 5 percent raise clause.

SALES: RADIO ONE BUYS WCAV

Radio One is buying country WCAV Boston from KJI Broadcasting for $10 million. The longtime country outlet is expected to become Boston's first R&B FM.

New Northwest Broadcasters is buying country KIDX, country KGHL, and classic rock KRSQ Billings, Mont., from Marathon Media for $3.9 million.

93Q's Whack-A-Yugo Event

KKBQ (93Q Country) Houston morning man Johnjay, right, and his team gave listeners a chance to pound away on an old Yugo April 22 to show support for the U.S. soldiers then being held captive in Yugoslavia. Listeners donated $1 to take a whack at the car. The money was donated to the American Red Cross.

Station Concerts Top Outdoor Fun, 'Powers II'

Station concerts reclaimed the Topical Barometer crown, which it will likely hold throughout the summer, well ahead of summer movies—specifically, the "Austin Powers" sequel—and outdoor activities.

While modern rock KXTE (Extreme) Las Vegas and top 40 WPXY Rochester, N.Y., are tying in "Austin Powers II" ticket giveaways with grand-prize trips to London, where winners will catch a big concert, top 40 CKIK Calgary, Alberta, will host a Shagadelic Shindig at a local club immediately after the premiere. The club will be decked out with a full retro theme, complete with go-go dancers, etc. Says Michael Godfrey, "It'll be groovy, eh?"

On Memorial Day weekend, adult top 40

On Memorial Day weekend, adult top 40 KHMX (Mix 96.5) Houston gave away videos of "Saving Private Ryan," while country WQYK Tampa, Fla., ran the oldies standby, the Top 500 Songs of All-Time weekend. "We ran ads in The Tampa Tribune asking people to send us their top 10 and had a grand prize of $1,000 for those who voted," says Mike Culotta. "The response was great."

Obviously, the "Phantom Menace" buzz has cooled considerably, and some stations are playing on its backlash. Yet several are still getting considerable mileage with creative contests. Album rock KEGL (the Eagle) Dallas duct-taped a male intern, dressed as Princess Leia, to a telephone pole and gave out clues to where "she" was. Everyone who found "her" won movie tickets. Loren Condron offers clever remarks on "why a duct" tape.

amusement parks. Country WBEE Rochester toasts a local theme park's opening day by taking 20 lucky winners to the park (before it opens to the public) to test-drive the rides. "We'll do call-ins and really make a 'scream' on the roller coasters," Stephanie Hogerman says. "On the same day, our morning co-host will head for the water park for sprinkler games and the dunk tank."

PROMO TOPIC OF THE WEEK: THE STATIONS THAT SWAG YOU

In radio, swag, like diamonds, are forever. T-shirts and hats are the most prevalent swag, but items range from lip balm, key chains, and water bottles to refrigerator magnets, bubbles in mini-champagne bottles for New Year's Eve, boxer shorts, polo shirts, tank tops, jogging suits, Halloween candy, and radios that can only be tuned to your station. Most irreverent swag came courtesy of Jason Gani when he worked at WBHT (Hot 97) Wilkes-Barre, Pa. "We gave away 'Leprecondoms' to 'keep your little fellow safe when he's searching for that pot of gold."

Most of the stuff is sold for profit, although many stations sell special items for charity or just to cover their cost. Prices for the usual stuff average $10 for T-shirts and $14 for hats. Garret Doll at country KYGO Denver is trying to get labels to sponsor their hats by embroidering artists' names or signatures on them. Others cited several ways to make the swag special:

WBEE's Hogerman suggests using quality cottons or 50/50 fabrics. "Things printed on white last longer. Pigment-dyed fabrics fade. Use colored ink, not colored shirts, to give away. They cost less, too!"

 "Add excitement to your logo," WPXY's Tristano Korlou says. "If it's cool looking, people will want to wear it and show it off."

• Country KEEY Minneapolis' Diana Buckmann changes T-shirt designs every year and creates limited-edition swag for special events. "Our commemorative state fair T-shirt, featuring a country lineup, always sells out," she says.

Country KSON San Diego toyed with the idea of giving tickets to people who'd be the least likely to see "The Phantom Menace." "Being cold-hearted radio geeks, we first considered sending homeless people and then getting their critiques," Greg Frey says. "Hilarious, but misguided. Instead, we stationed morning producer Doug Sterling at a central location and asked listeners to drive by and donate money to buy tickets. We raised enough in one morning to buy 200 tickets, which we gave to two local youth groups."

which we gave to two local youth groups."
Top 40 KKRZ (Z100) Portland, Ore., will send one lucky winner to Tunisia, where the movie's Tatooine scenes were shot. Qualifiers get a "Star Wars" leather jacket, with the winner going to a resort in Africa, "not in the middle of the desert!" says Wendi "Force-ter."

A definite top 10 staple this summer will be

QUICK HITS

The mystery music montage is alive and well at R&B WJTT (Power 94) Chattanooga, Tenn., whose Power Mystery Music Sweeps are quick snippets of five songs. Whoever names the artist and title of each song wins cash. Better yet, the pot increases by $100 every time someone guesses wrong. Rumor has it that Wayne Collins even changed his name to Benjamins.

KEGL's Condron also keeps us abreast of the station's Topless Summer. Caller No. 9 who hears the "topless tune of the day" can win a topless trip for two to Mazatlan, Mexico, and qualifies to win a topless Jeep Wrangler.

Tristano Korlou describes WPXY's Hairiest

Tristano Korlou describes WPXY's Hairiest Man Contest: "In the summer, more and more guys walk around with no shirts on," he waxes eloquently as he gets it off his chest. "Our morning show encourages lady listeners to send in pictures of their hairy men. The pictures will then be put on the 98PXY Web site. The one that receives the most votes will win a pair of VIPs to our Summer Jam concert, plus a free wax job. All entries receive movie premiere passes to see the ultimate hairy man, 'Austin Powers: The Spy Who Shagged Me.'"

Collective Contesting Grows, But Is It Fair To Listeners?

Critical Mass Media is the syndicator of the group contesting idea, which it is now spreading to the Clear Channel stations following the Clear Channel/Jacor merger. Beyond that, Cook says, CMM, which had initially announced that it would syndicate the contest outside Jacor and Capstar, is not seeking new clients for such contests at the moment. "Anybody that's talking to us, we're sharing our knowledge with them and helping them facilitate it, but not aggressively seeking these groups out, because we have to take care of our own people first," he says.

A WELL-OILED MACHINE

Since these contests started a year ago, Cook says, they have become increasingly common and increasingly streamlined. "They're happening in every book now, because the model is already there," he says. And "more and more of the technical problems have been worked out, and it's running like more of a well-oiled māchine." Among the early technical problems were some toll-free telephone exchanges that were not accessible in every market.

Cook says the upside of such contests is the opportunity to offer "bigger prizes than you could afford by yourself," although he admits that's a bigger issue for the smaller-market stations than for their big-city sisters. The six-week Jacor country contest had a total cash pool of $225,000.

The downside is that not every participating station will have a local winner. As a result, some of the bigger stations have started giving away additional cash prizes locally under the song-of-the-day-contest umbrella. CMM has also started tying in some retail clients. Jacor's rock stations, for example, teamed with Harley Davidson for the "hog-a-day-in-May contest," awarding one motorcycle a day.

Pricing varies by market and group. The Jacor country stations contributed an amount to the pool that was determined by their market size. Cook says, "Some stations in the bigger markets are paying the brunt of it and letting smaller stations ride along." But he says that in some of the other contests all participating stations have contributed the same amount.

Cook says that such contests "push the competition to pony up to the bar." And despite the critics, he says, "it's all sizzle. The people who are going to play [local] contests are going to play [this]. But it's more about image and the sound of the radio station and what's going on. With as many lotteries as there are going on, winning $50 or $100 or tickets to Gino's Pizza doesn't cut it anymore."

'THERE IS A WINNER'

WCOL Columbus, Ohio, just finished its second group contest, and PD Smilin' Tom Fridley says, "The bonus is, we can offer our audience a chance to win bigger prizes more often," despite the fact that he had no local winners the second time out. "The odds aren't as good but it's still a game of chance, and the payoff is much bigger," he says.

But sister WGAR Cleveland had four local winners the first eight times the contest ran, giving away $20,000 locally in eight days, and never had another winner for the remainder of the contest. PD Clay Hunnicutt says, "It gives the listeners a chance to win big money. It may be a little bit of a diluted chance, but it's still a chance."

But running such contests means walking a fine line on the air. "We never say, 'We have a winner'; we say, 'There is a winner.' We say, 'You have a chance to win $10,000 today.' We make sure the language is appropriate," says Fridley.

"You have to be a little generic and careful about the way you promote it," says Hunnicutt. "We try to stay away from things like, 'WGAR is giving you $10,000.' The way we say it on the air is, 'The song-of-the-day contest is now playing on WGAR.'"

"If we have a local winner, we'll make a promo out of it," Fridley says. "If we have a national winner, we'll say their name or play their phone call."

But Hunnicutt says his group is very upfront about the contest's national nature. "We don't want to mislead the listeners," he says. "I have heard some [similar contests on other stations] that [make] you go, 'That is a flat-out lie,' but the way Jacor/Clear Channel has handled it is upfront." And, Hunnicutt says, "the listeners aren't dumb. They get the big picture when you give them an 800 number."

With the way the radio industry is consolidating into a few mega-groups, it would seem that group contests would be the wave of the future. But Hennes says that will depend on what kind of results they can generate over the long haul.

"Stations are doing it because they can, and they'll see what kind of results they get," he says. "The proof will be in the sustained results from these contests. If they do not help the ratings, they will go back to operating in a different manner."

John Marks Helps Separate 'Siamese Twins' KFMS, KWNR In Vegas—And Both Thrive

Monitor Profile

When one radio group owns two country stations in the same market, the ratings often show growth for one at the expense of the other. But by clearly positioning KFMS and KWNR Las Vegas away from each other and targeting them toward distinct demos, OM John Marks and his staff were able to generate significant growth for both Clear Channel sta-

The move to differentiate the stations has been ongoing for about two years, predating Marks' arrival by a year. But it hasn't been easy. "Because country is such a homogenous format, it's kind of like separating Siamese twins," Marks says. "It's very difficult to do."

tions in the winter Arbitron book.

KWNR, Marks says, is "more mainstream, more cume-driven, street active, and has more emphasis on production values and personalities, as opposed to just being a music-driven machine." It has a higher-profile morning show and targets a 25- to 44-year-old audience. A whopping 4.7-7.2 jump in the winter book puts KWNR at No. 2 in the market 12-plus.

who you are and what

vou do'

Owner: Clear Channel Ratings (KWNR): 6.6-5.2-4.7-7.2 Ratings (KFMS): 4.3-4.4-3.8-5.3

Its "gold-driven" sister, KFMS, was up 3.8-5.3 in the winter, taking sixth place overall. Marks says KFMS is TSL-driven, has less street presence, goes much deeper on gold, and targets 35-54. Because it is music-focused, Marks says, KFMS gets very little marketing support.

KWNR is more tempo-driven, plays about 31 currents, and is about 60% current- and recurrent-driven and 40% gold.

KFMS, meanwhile, is typically 65% or more gold and goes late on most currents, although Marks says, "I don't want it to be understood that it is a golden oldies station. We go deep on gold, but we still know currents and recurrents drive radio stations, so we have a strong representation of today's current artists in the mix." KFMS plays about 23 currents.

It's not necessarily a given that currents will air on KWNR first, despite that station's more mainstream approach. Marks says that which station starts it in Las Vegas depends on "the nature of the song." Shedaisy's "Little Goodbyes," for example, was a KWNR record. The Lorrie Morgan/Sammy Kershaw duet, "Maybe Not Tonight," was aired on KFMS first. But the Montgomery Gentry record, "Hillbilly Shoes," worked for both stations. Marks says it gave KWNR listeners "a raucous party sound" and KFMS listeners a song "reminiscent of Charlie Daniels."

Comparing sample hours illustrates the musical difference between the stations. Here's a recent hour on KWNR: Alan Jackson, "Who's Cheatin' Who"; Mark Wills, "Wish You Were Here"; Vince Gill, "One More Last Chance"; Chely Wright, "Single White Female"; John Michael Montgomery, "I Swear"; Shane Minor, "Slave To The Habit"; Trisha Yearwood, "Walkaway Joe"; Jo Dee Messina, "Stand Beside Me"; Garth Brooks, "Somewhere Other Than The Night"; Shedaisy, "Little Goodbyes"; George Strait, "I Cross My Heart"; Alan Jackson, "Gone Crazy"; and Tim McGraw, "Where The Green Grass Grows."

Here's the same hour on KFMS: Dan Seals, "Everything That Glitters"; Collin Raye, "Anyone Else"; Tim McGraw, "Refried Dreams"; Ty Herndon, "A Man Holdin' On"; Shelly West, "Flight 309 To Tennessee"; George Strait, "Meanwhile"; Sammy Kershaw, "Cadillac Style"; Lila McCann, "With You"; Alan Jackson, "Dallas"; Lee Ann Womack, "I'll Think Of A Reason Later"; Reba McEntire, "The Heart Is A Lonely Hunter"; Alabama, "How Do You Fall In Love"; Garth Brooks, "Shameless"; the Judds, "Girls Night Out"; Mindy McCready, "Ten Thousand Angels"; and George Strait, "Round About Way."

Programming in the transient Las Vegas market presents a unique set of challenges. "Las Vegas is one of the most rapidly changing markets in the U.S.," says Marks. With about 5,000 people a year moving in and an equal number moving out, Marks says, "we calculate there is about a 10,000-person swing in population, [so] we experience ups and downs in Arbitron all the time."

As a result, he says, "you can't assume people know who you are and what you do. It's easy to say we could solve our marketing [dilemma] with millions of dollars, [but] you can't keep up with the changing market with money entirely. We do marketing efforts and try to keep them focused into more country-driven enterprises, but it's a very difficult task to keep up. It's a never-ending tunnel from which you never emerge, so through this phase of Las Vegas growth, our best strategy is to sound as good as possible."

Because so many people find stations either by word of mouth or by using the "scan" buttons on their car radios, Marks says, "the best marketing we can do is to open our microphone and say who we are and what we do."

What Marks calls the "moving nature of the market" also has an impact on programming and research. "It takes longer for us to get a read on how a song is doing," typically between 300-400 spins on one or both stations before Marks says he can get "an accurate read an a song, and that's a long time."

As a result, he says, "familiarity helps, but that doesn't mean we don't take chances on new or untried songs. People are moving into this market from all over the country with different tastes, so we try to keep it familiar and stick with the current songs longer."

Marks says the recent merger of former KFMS/KWNR parent company Jacor with Clear Channel has yet to have an effect on the operation of the stations. "We haven't felt a thing," he says. "When you are assimilating [as many] stations as Clear Channel is, it's going to take a while to see changes. The only difference we've seen is who clears the checks now."

Marks joined KWNR as PD a little more than a year ago, and was promoted to OM when Jaye Albright left to resume her consulting career. Nearly all of his career has been spent in country radio.

In junior high school he started working at hometown station WPFB Middletown, Ohio. His first "real job" post-college was driving the WSAI Cincinnati chicken mascot around town just after that station went country. After working his way up to PD at WSAI, he jocked at WJEZ Chicago. From there, it was on to KAYC/KAYD Beaumont, Texas—then owned by singer Charley Pride. That was followed by stints at KSSN Little Rock, Ark.; KRPM Seattle; and KKAT Salt Lake City, which he flipped to a full-time country format in 1985.

He joined KWNR after 12 years at KKAT.

Songs fanked by audience, computed by cross-referencing exact times of airplay with Arbitron listener data. Records showing an increase in audience over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. If two records are tied in total audience, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records become recurrents and are removed from this chart in conjunction with the Country Airplay chart.

Songs are ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. Airpower awarded to those records that attain 2,700 detections for the first time. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 25 are removed from the chart after 20 weeks.
