VH1's New At Work Audio Channel: Today The Office, Tonight The TV

by Jeff Silberman

As it is, attracting adult listeners, especially during at-work hours, is tough enough for most non-AC or adult top 40 stations. Now. VHI might make it difficult even for officefriendly formats. It's just starting to publicize the VHI At Work channel, an online radio version of its network on the Web at VH1.com.

Music First... in your office

For now, the purpose of the online entity is to provide VH 1-branded music to listeners when they're away from the TV and drive them back to the music channel when they get home. 'It's John Sykes' personal brainstorm," VHĬ VP of music programming Mike Tierney says. "He has always been frustrated by the fact that our adult audience can't take us to work with them. We needed to give them a way to listen to us on the Internet while they're at work. We went through a bunch of things that we found out we couldn't technically do, such as streaming the channel. We settled on having an Internet radio station with the VHI brand on it, basically playing VHI's current list around the clock.

"We actually went online in December, and we hired [PD] Ian Harrison before the first of the year. But we haven't really publicized it until the 'Divas' special. The day after it aired, we basically repeated the audio from it all day long. We got over 20,000 hits,

DOJ Approves Clear Channel, Capstar Deals

The Justice Department has approved two of the largest radio deals before it, signing off on the $3.8 billion Clear Channel/Jacor merger and Capstar's addition of 31 Triathlon stations. The Clear Channel/Jacor marriage was approved on the previously announced condition the company sell 18 stations in Tampa, Fla.; Cleveland; Louisville, Ky.; and Dayton, Ohio. While the FCC still needs to finish its review, station managers have been told by corporate brass that a closing could occur as soon as early May. Clear Channel becomes the third-largest radio group in terms of revenues and has the second-biggest portfolio of stations, with 458.

Separately, DOJ has signed off on Capstar's $190 million purchase of Norm Feuer's Triathlon Broadcasting, with the caveat that it spin five stations in Wichita, Kan. Capstar plans to put the Wichita quintuplet in a trust to close by April 30 on the balance of Triathlon's portfolio. In January, Connoisseur Communications had announced it planned to buy the five sticks, but that deal has now been withdrawn. Capstar expects to close on the Triathlon stations April 30.

KENNARD SEES PROGRESS

Advertisers are making progress toward spending more money with black, Hispanic, and Asian stations, according to FCC Chairman

Bill Kennard. He is praising advertisers for making progress, specifically pointing to True North Communications, which has set up three minority-focused agencies. "Large advertisers are also responding with business solutions. For instance, Pepsi-Cola recently announced a 10%-15% increase in its advertising on black radio stations," said Kennard. The American Advertising Federation has created a task force to bring more attention to the issue. AAF is working with Procter & Gamble on a survey of workforce diversity and multicultural ad practices. Results will be released next month.

WALL STREET WARMS ON RADIO ONE

Standard & Poor's has revised its rating of Radio One from stable to positive. S&P says the revision is based on Radio One's increasing cash flow from newly purchased stations, its track record in boosting station performance, and its modestly improving financial profile resulting from the anticipated stock offering. The firm is still worried, however, about the $140 million debt load the company is carrying. The company's R&B format specialization is also an issue. "Some concern also surrounds the company's primary operations in a niche radio format with inherently low revenue yield on audience share and the direct format competition from much larger operators in most of its markets," say S&P analysts.

The owner of country KDJR (K100) and sports KHAD De Soto, Mo., found an innovative way to cut out broker fees and complex haggling to sell his stations. Kim Schafermeyer sold the combo via the eBay.com site. With a minimum bid set at $150,000, bidding quickly climbed to $999,999, until two days later, when a winning bid of $1 million was entered for item No. 91964998. The identity of the winner remains a mystery until paperwork is filed with the FCC.

'PLJ Brings Back 'No Rap' Positioner

With most adult top 40 stations sporting a distinctly rock feel these days, and with the hip-hop backlash having lost some of its potency, the "no hard rock" and/or "no rap" positioners that defined adult top 40 in the late '80s/early '90s have been a lot less prevalent. But WPLJ New York, one of the stations that helped reshape adult top 40 in the early '90s, has started using "no rap" again in some of its promos for the first time in more than two years. WPLJ's Tom Cuddy says the "no rap" slogan came back "because research showed that people still retained the fact that 'PLJ is the station that doesn't play rap." And with WPLJ now using the positioner "New York's hit music," Cuddy says that the revived slogan is "an important point of difference between us and other stations that might play hits."

Twain's 'Impress' Marks Modern Adult

Shania Twain's "That Don't Impress Me Much" (Mercury) continues to impress as it enters the modern adult chart. "Impress," which is being played on only 10 modern adult stations, is gaining strength at the format in the West and Southeast. Its popularity at top 40 is based on a remix serviced to radio but is only available commercially as a bonus track on import versions of Twain's album.

Another artist who has transcended format boundaries is Ricky Martin, whose C2 debut single,

Another artist who has transcended format boundaries is Ricky Martin, whose C2 debut single, "Livin' La Vida Loca," enters the modern adult audience chart three weeks after first appearing on the corresponding detection chart. "Loca" is getting new airplay at seven modern adult reporting stations this week.

Actress Jennifer Lopez makes her debut as a vocalist with "If You Had My Love" (Work/ERG), which enters the rhythmic audience chart. "Love," which has been at radio for less than a full week, is being played on 19 rhythmic stations.

Sugar Ray's "Every Morning" (Lava/Atlantic) racks up its seventh week atop the mainstream top 40 detection chart this week. The only other record to manage that many weeks on top in the first four months of the year was Shawn Mullins' "Lullaby," which ended its eight-week run at No. 1 in January.

PERSONNEL FILE: Former Island/Mercury Denver local Joe Daddio joins Jive Records, covering the Northeast, based in Washington, D.C.

R&B hitmaker Roger Troutman, who had songs such as "More Bounce To The Ounce" and "I Want To Be Your Man," has died along with his brother in an apparent murder-suicide, Dayton, Ohio, police said. He was found outside his Dayton recording studio, shot several times. His brother, Larry Troutman, was found in a car a few blocks away with a fatal gunshot wound to the head.

REPORTER PANELS: Effective this week, WZJM Cleveland is removed from the mainstream top 40 panel. WPNT Milwaukee is removed from the adult top 40 and modern adult panels. There are now 111 mainstream, 75 adult top 40, and 34 modern adult reporting stations.

WJWZ Montgomery, Ala., is added to the crossover panel this week. WBTT (the Beat) Dayton, Ohio, is removed from the crossover panel but continues to report to the rhythmic top 40 chart. Finally, top 40 reporters WQSL and WRHT New Bern, N.C., and WQZQ Nashville, which had been removed from the panel due to technical difficulties, return this week.

'Phantom Menace' Grows To Epic Proportions

the unprecedented buildup to the May 19 "The Phantom Menace" debut grew larger still. "Phantom" finished far ahead of the pack on the Topical Barometer. Mother's Day and Memorial Day once again finished behind it, practically a galaxy away. (Our survey, compiled before the Columbine High School shooting, doesn't reflect radio's impassioned response; see below.)

Ironically, George Lucas and Fox have made it next to impossible to get tickets for screenings. So, Promogandists have found ways to get around it. Top 40 WKSE Buffalo, N.Y., will give free popcorn to listeners who attend the film's morning premiere, while modern rock KXTE (Extreme) Las Vegas will tie in with collectable stores that sell old-school "Star Wars" toys.

When premiere screenings were canceled in Rochester, N.Y., top 40 WPXY quickly offered a Movie Premiere Pass. Lucky eighth callers won tickets to the next 10 'PXY film premieres, plus a pair of tickets to "The Phantom Menace" on opening day. "I had to pull a lot of strings to be able to lock up those tickets," stringer Tristano Korlou says. "The theater even asked me not to mention their name in any of the promos.'

Want to talk to some people who are already standing in line at Mann's Chinese Theatre in Hollywood? Call the nearby pay phones: 323-462-9609 or 323-462-9607.

For Mother's Day, country WYRK Buffalo, N.Y., will hold an Iron Mom contest. Five moms will compete in such events as the Price Is Right and Folding Clothes. The winner gets family-of-four tickets to "The Phantom Of The Opera," a hair-salon membership, a makeover, and a gift certificate from a candle company. Steve Burgess is the mama's boy behind it.

Modern adult WALC (Alice@100.5) Charleston, S.C., plans a Super Mom Shopping Spree at Super K-Mart. The winner straps mom into a shopping cart and has 10 minutes and five seconds to push her around. Mariana Franco-Robertson was the bargain hunter.

Top 40 KKRZ (Z100) Portland, Ore., feted Secretary's Day with a Stud Finder bash. After the morning show solicited 100 studs to go to a local hotel, "we invited as many secretaries as we can fit in the room to find their stud," Wendi Foster says. "Our Booty Booklet had bios on the studs as well as their corresponding 'number.' The women mingled to find their stud." For Most Popular Stud, a condom was given to each woman, who gave it to her favorite stud. The stud with the most condoms won a night at the hotel, dinner, and a movie. For Studs in Towels, 15 guys "paraded around the bar and onstage in nothing but towels," Foster says. "The winner got a gift certificate to a local porn shop.

RADIO RESPONDS TO TRAGEDY

Within 48 hours of the Columbine High School shootings, AC KIMN Denver and country KKCS Colorado Springs, Colo., distributed silver-and-blue ribbons to listeners—the high school's colors-and asked listeners to wear them in remembrance of the victims.

Donations to help the families and students directly affected by the tragedy can be sent to Mile High United Way Community Fund, 2505 18th St., Denver, 80211. Phone 303-433-8383. Chancellor's Denver cluster (KALC, KIMN, KXKL, and KVOD) has set up a victims' fund at First Bank, 1200 17th St., Suite 100, Denver, Colo. 80202. Phone 303-446-3000.

PROMO TOPIC OF THE WEEK: THE ART OF TAKING TIME OFF

The Promogandists must love their work, be-cause they rarely leave it at the office. That's why 48% of them spend at least part of their week-end home life on the job, while another 42% consider themselves on call all weekend. Just 3% say they have since solved the time-off problem, while 7% don't think time off is a problem.

"I'm always on call, 24 hours a day, seven days a week," states Vicki Fiorelli of country KNIX Phoenix. "The pager never leaves me, and my cell phone is always ringing. I have an excellent assistant and events manager to help problemsolve and to take care of the littlest challenges, but basically everyone [still] counts on me.

"Even during my free time, I still end up working," adds Vanessa Thill of rhythmic top 40 KLUC Las Vegas. "I carry paper with me at all times to constantly write down new ideas while in the car, at the mall-even when an idea wakes me up at night, which always happens.'

Panelists are split on whether the problem is getting better or worse, although they do agree on how to make the situation at least manageable. "Delegate, delegate, delegate," says Katie Eyerly of R&B KMEL San Francisco. "Trust your staff to rise to the occasion. Put them in charge, and they'll surprise you. The world does not stop if you're not personally there to spin it.'

"Say 'no' to things that aren't relative to what the station represents," says Jason Gani of R&B WILB Detroit. "We don't do a remote for every single client that walks in the door, especially if it won't benefit them, or us, in the long run.'

The trick is to work in an environment where people respect the need of co-workers to sneak away," says Mike Paterson of top 40 KHFI Austin, Texas. "It helps when the GM, PD, or other staffers realize we work nights, weekends, and holidays, and there are times when we need to sneak off to relax."

After 14 days of nonstop work, Sheila Silver-stein of country WPOC Baltimore says, "Every-one in promotion should learn to take time for themselves and their families. I've accepted the fact that I'm just one woman, I'm comfortable with my staff, and that my family and golf game deserve my attention, too.'

Classic Soul Is For Real, But So Is Top 40

There are a couple of ways to identify the hot new format of the week. One is when a market ends up with more of that format than it really needs. The other is when broadcasters, in their determination to cover the position before their competition, start blowing up otherwise healthy stations. The first criterion was met last fall when Nashville got dueling R&B oldies stations—one targeting African-Americans, the other serving the general market. And with the recent demise of WZJM ([ammin' 92), Cleveland's only top 40 station, we've now seen the latter take place.

All of which has led more than one person to ask, "Isn't this just the '70s oldies format all over again?" No. R&B oldies, if done correctly, is for real. But that doesn't mean that the position is so potent that a 6-share major-market station (whatever its demos) should be blown up just

In markets where the correct conditions exist for the format to be successful, there's no reason that R&B oldies should be any less durable than '50s/'60s pop oldies FMs or classic rock stations, both of which have been in most markets for 12-15 years. To the extent that either of those formats has frayed recently, it's been less a question of their audiences aging than their music burning. And KRLA Los Angeles, the oldies AM whose library became the core of FM rival KCMG (Mega 100)'s format, had been playing 'Right On The Tip Of My Tongue" by Brenda & the Tabulations and "Gimme Little Sign" by Brenton Wood for more than two decades without any signs of wear.

The long-term fortunes of the format will have more to do with where and how the format is done. The success of the format hinges on whether it's in markets where R&B music has a historic constituency (New York, Detroit, Philadelphia, etc.), instead of markets where disco was a two-year fad followed by a threeyear backlash; whether African-American P1s, who have thus far shown the greatest loyalty to the music, are directly courted (in most cases, they haven't been); and, above all, whether R&B óldies outlets are operated as real radio stations.

After all, broadcasters saw the '70s format as a long-term failure. The truth was that in most cases, broadcasters failed the format by not doing the things that typify great radio stations regardless of format. Many of the '70s outlets were jockless, at least outside mornings, for the bulk of their existence. And many rhythmic oldies stations are repeating that mistake. '70s oldies PDs also had a hard time finding records of their own that tested well. Either they relied on songs that didn't test or they ended up sounding like classic rock stations. R&B oldies stations have plenty of records that test well, but not all PDs want to play all those songs because they test only with black audiences. Instead, in an effort to be mass-appeal, they're relying on the "I Like The Nightlifes" that won't generate longterm passion from black or white listeners.

There are a lot of potential snags here. If broadcasters avoid them, they probably have a format for the ages. Is it a format that's worth blowing up the only top 40 in town for (as we've seen in Cleveland and Tallahassee, Fla.)? Probably not. There are some markets where R&B oldies is much more than a niche format, most notably Fresno, Calif., and Memphis, where it's been No. 1 in the market. Those, so far, are the exceptions. Right now, it's looking like a healthy niche in most markets, the kind of format you should do if you don't have top 40 to yourself. And if you can't make the only top 40 in a market work you'll have a hard time bringing huge numbers and long-term durability to this for-

THE MILLION-DOLLAR giveaways that many top 40 stations are running have made the format more exciting promotionally than it's been in many years. But not every milliondollar giveaway sounds, well, like a million bucks. Some have too many rules attached for listeners to follow, much less expect to win. Others just have surprisingly little sizzle.

Ideally, all the million-dollar giveaways would sound as big as WHTZ (Z100) New York's Millionaire for the Millennium contest. Z100 is already one of the best-produced top 40s of all time, but its recent promo, "We'd Like Some Money," assembled by Z100's Dave Foxx and Z100/United Stations writer David Brody, is one of the best things I've heard on the radio in years. In the promo, copy promoting the giveaway is interspersed with new lyrics, to the tune of "We Like To Party!" by Vengaboys.

'We'd like some money/ We'd like, we'd like some money/ We'd like some money/ We'd like, we'd like some money

Hey now, hey now, you too can play now/ Wealthiness is just around the corner/ Hey now, hey now, 10 times a day now/ We've got cash for you

A million bucks is coming/ And everybody's calling/ New York will just go crazy/ When Z100 pays me/ The wheel of fortune's spinning/ It could be you that's winning/ So if you win the money/ Your days will all be sunny.'

The song-parody promo is hardly a new concept. (KZQZ San Francisco PD Mark Adams did some great ones during his tenure at KBOS [B95] Fresno, Calif.) But as done here, they're one of the little touches that puts this promotion over the top. And with million-dollar giveaways proliferating rapidly, execution will have a lot to do with whether they maintain their impact or whether cash loses its value as a promotional tool altogether.

Whitney Houston it's not right but it's okay

From her critically-acclaimed Double Platinum new album, My Love Is Your Love.

The New York Times reviewing VH-1 Divas Live '99, the highest rated show in VH-1's history, said: "Ms. Houston recognized no obstacles." On "It's Not Right But It's OK," she made every sound bite register. On "Ain't No Way," both Whitney & Mary J. Blige let loose, their voices entwining and rippling through the octaves. Then Ms. Houston reclaimed "I Will Always Love You" making its virtuoso flourishes heartfelt. On every song giving her room, she was invincible."

VH1's New At Work Audio Channel: Today The Office, Tonight The TV

which for us is pretty good. Since the 'Divas,' we started promoting it on the channel for the first time."

Harrison formerly programmed modern WEQX Albany, N.Y., and before that, WEBK Killington, Vt. "The Internet and radio are the future of broadcasting," he says. "The fact that I love VH1 really gravitated me toward this opportunity. The Internet and digital radio seem to be the future of radio broadcasting, which obviously was a big incentive, too."

Naturally, VH1 At Work's music mix will closely mirror the video channel. But there is one main exception. "There are many songs from [VH1-friendly] artists who don't have videos," Harrison says. "The Beatles, for instance, don't have many clips of their hits. We can play these great tunes that VH1 can't."

Tierney notes that the site could be used to test new music, but that's not imminent. "Right now, we just want to carefully reinforce our brand. Yet once we're in gear, I see no reason why we couldn't do that. People are investing a ton of money into figuring out how to use the Internet for scientifically valid research. It's tough; you can't just put music on and wait for an E-mail response."

MINIMAL NON-MUSIC CONTENT

Currently, non-music content is minimal, outside of promos for VH1. In a typical hour, there are only two or three stagers and drop-ins. There are no other commercials. "Inevitably, we could run spots, but my goal is different than that of a radio PD," Harrison says. "I'm not trying to increase ratings as much as I'm trying to drive people back to VH1, the cable channel."

"The [in-house] promos are our way to push people from the Web site to the channel," Tierney adds. "We're still feeling this out as we go along. In fact, just today we made a tactical decision only to run promotions of VH1 programs that are airing that night, with the exception of weekend airings of 'Behind The Music,' which will be promoted on Friday."

Expect to hear a lot of contesting on the Web site in the near future. "That's another way to push people back and forth from the channel to the Web site," Tierney notes. "We'll do promos centered around VH1 programming, such as asking listeners which member of the band spotlighted in that night's 'Behind The Music' died suddenly, then having them call us [at a certain time] tomorrow with the answer to win."

Visually, the music is currently accompanied primarily by the name of the song and artist. Will VJs be used in the future? "We'll find that out," Tierney says. "Without a doubt, radio personalities bring a competitive value to their stations. In time, we'll find out whether people will actually turn to the Internet for personalities. We feel the Net is its own medium that's apart from radio.

"Besides, the whole idea of this is to have it on background," he adds. "Using Real Audio, you can put it on and still do what you need to do on your computer, be it word processing or E-mail."

Even so, Harrison has developed two block programs specifically geared for the Web site. "One is 'Then & Now,' which is essentially a double play—an early recording and their latest hit—from big VH1 artists," he says. "The other may be called 'Uncovered,' where an artist such as Sheryl Crow will play a cover version of, say, Led Zeppelin's 'D'yer Mak'er.' We'll have some narration describing why she did the song, and we'll also play the original version."

The powers that be are toying with the notion of airing VH1's hit shows, such as "Behind The Music" or the live "Storytellers" concerts. Yet those programs—especially the former—require far more than a background-listening environment to be truly enjoyed. "That may be a limitation," Tierney admits. "We'll have to find out whether 'Behind The Music' works in the background. We may try to program it during the lunch hour. The essence of our music programming has to stay in the background, yet at the same time, block programming can be used to get them to return for current music rotations.

"We're at the crawling stage, so we're going to put all the emphasis on musical content and the VH1 brand. The music we put on there right now is real listenable and fun. Ultimately, we believe we'll get people to tune in when we start doing 'Storytellers,' for example, every day at the lunch hour. We'll see if using our franchise programming will translate to our audience at work. Live concerts would seem to be a natural on the Web site, but we'll also find out whether 'Behind The Music' works without pictures. Our goal is to create a free-standing operation with programming that mirrors VH1 and is just as compelling."

MORE MUSIC? LESS LONGFORM?

Their desire to transplant programs like "Behind The Music," "Storytellers," and maybe even "Pop-Up Video" is understandable. After all, block programs consistently attract larger audiences than music videos; why shouldn't the same hold true online? Ironically, the popularity and inevitable increase of block programs on VH1 may incite the same industry criticism that has been habitually leveled at MTV—not enough videos, too many programs.

"A balance has to be worked out," Tierney says. "An hour of videos will probably never get better ratings than a 'Behind The Music' special. It's harder to generate TSL off a succession of four-minute music clips than it is for an hour show. At the same time, it's not impossible to get ratings with music videos. Our challenge is to find more ways to get ratings with video. MTV has done it very well with their 'Total Request' hours, and we've had some success with our 'Women First' rock show. A new contemporary hard rock program, airing at 1 a.m., is doing really well, and it's attracting an audience that's 70% males, compared with our normal 50/50 composition."

Besides block programming, VH1's growth can also be mirrored to the success of modern AC radio stations. "It's been a mutually beneficial situation," Tierney says. "By no means can we take credit away from great stations such as KYSR Los Angeles, WBMX Boston, the Alice stations, and KFMB-FM San Diego. They were figuring out how to do it before VH1 caught on. The majormarket stations laid the groundwork, then VH1 evolved to play more contemporary artists such as Lenny Kravitz. Our hipper image brought a lot of new audience into the fold."

SHOULD RADIO WORRY?

Yet can VH1 At Work be mutually beneficial to radio stations that thrive on daytime listening? One prominent broadcast researcher told Airplay Monitor that he could see "radios switching off across the country" as a result of MTV At Work.

"The Internet is still an unproven entity, so there's no yardstick to measure our success," Harrison says. "But ultimately, I think, we could compete with radio."

"Our biggest day so far has been 20,000 hits, which on a national scale is not a threat to anybody just yet," Tierney says. "I still believe the possibility is here for a rising tide to raise all the ships. Someone could hear a Sixpence None The Richer record or audio of Cher's 'Behind The Music' on the At Work Network, then realize that their records could also be heard on certain radio stations in town. Who knows? The Internet is still new and we're just out ting our feet in the water."

new, and we're just putting our feet in the water."
Yet both Tierney and Harrison point out that VH1's At Work network is just a small part of MTV's massive Internet project, tentatively titled Buggles, set to debut in a few months. "VH1 At Work.com will be just one of 100 Internet radio stations available on the site," Tierney says. "People who come to the site will also be able to link to CDnow and shop for records and buy concert tickets. Buggles will be do for the Internet what MTV did for cable TV."

MONITOR PROFILE

Joel Salkowitz Returns To New York, Jammin' Oldies And Taking Names

The old saying "everything old is new again" took on added significance in New York when Joel Salkowitz returned to the Big Apple, after leaving WQHT (Hot 97) several years ago, to program Chancellor's new rhythmic oldies station, WTJM (Jammin' 105). In the just-released winter Arbitrons, the station rocketed from a 1.7 share as adult top 40 WBIX to a 3.5, tying oldies veteran WCBS-FM.

Salkowitz was working for Fox TV's audio and music department when Chancellor asked him to help start up rhythmic oldies station KTXQ (Magic 102) Dallas. "While I was getting Magic off the ground, [Chancellor president] Jim de Castro and [VP of programming] Steve Rivers were doing research for New York. When the data came back that they should do it here, he asked me [to join the new station], since I knew all about rhythmic radio firsthand. Naturally, I was thrilled."

'As a station

format, we're

Besides welcoming the return to New York, Salkowitz long had an inkling that such a format would succeed. "Although I didn't give it a lot of thought at the time, I did have some discussions [during his previous tenure in New York] with people on what would be the next incarnation of oldies for people my age, 35-46," he says. "Traditional oldies have left us behind. I don't care to hear all the doo-wop that WCBS [plays] or all the [surf] music on KRTH Los Angeles. [As one who grew] up in the late '60s and early '70s, [I find that rhythmic oldies] is certainly a piece of my music; traditional oldies stations never really addressed that. Logic would tell you there had to be an opportunity there. Steve Rivers has to get credit for cooking up the format in first place.

Having started Magic in Dallas and currently helping start up Chancellor's WGAY Washington, D.C., on top of WTJM, Salkowitz has a clear idea of the minute music differences in the playlists. "The core of rhythmic oldies-Motown, late-'60s to early-'70s R&Bis essentially the same at all of the Jammin' stations," he says. "Yet each market has a handful of records, more in L.A. and New York, that were bigger in their markets than the others. For instance, El Chicano is huge [at KCMG (Mega 100.3)] L.A. but would never be played in New York. Mega can also go a lot deeper on War and Santana than other markets, which will basically play their two or three huge national hits. Conversely, D-Train and Dr. Buzzard's Original Savannah Band's 'Cherchez La Femme' are huge here [but] will never test in Dallas or L.A.

Here's WTJM at night: Spinners, "I'll Be Around"; Stephanie Mills, "Never Knew Love Like This Before"; Dramatics, "Whatcha See Is Whatcha Get"; Earth, Wind & Fire, "Fantasy"; Supremes, "Baby Love"; Undisputed Truth, "Smiling Faces Sometimes"; Isley Brothers, "That Lady"; Patti Austin (With James Ingram), "Baby, Come To Me"; KC & the Sunshine Band, "Get Down Tonight";

Temptations, "Psychedelic Shack"; Al Green, "Let's Stay Together"; and Michael Jackson, "Wanna Be Startin' Somethin'."

Salkowitz isn't afraid that the rhythmic oldies format will burn out as listeners eventually tire of hearing the same catalog over and over. "Look at the model of traditional oldies stations and compare it to this format," he says. "KRTH has been playing the same core of music for 25 years. The same basic thing can be said for WCBS-FM. They've continued to succeed by developing special programs and features, which serve as interesting vehicles to introduce a wider variety of music. That keeps those stations fresh.

"Remember, you're talking about a format in its infancy," he adds. "With the possible exception of [KISF San Francisco], which is a slightly different animal, all of our stations are less than a year old. Over time, you'll see our libraries add new dimensions. I still don't know what the final number of songs will be, but like any other hit music format, the list will be pretty tight. We're going to make sure listeners get what they came for . . . We're not going to throw them any curveballs; we're going to play their favorite songs."

Salkowitz believes WTJM's pinpoint music focus was the main reason it tied WCBS-FM out of the box. "They used to have a large swatch of music all to themselves," he says. "We came in with a specifically focused product, and from early indications, we took practically everyone under 45 from them. We simply picked our target—basically 35-45, with our center of the universe being 40 years old—and went after it. We don't plan to expand a major effort outside that target. Even though we know there are a bunch of listeners in their late 20s and early 30s, that's gravy for us. We look at them the same way that a rap station looks at those over 25. We don't actively target the younger listeners, because the biggest bang for our buck is the real partisans for this music.

Historically, the format flavor of the month inevitably attracts direct competition, yet Salkowitz thinks his station would have little problem dealing with latecomers. "I'd be very surprised to see someone come in and put another rhythmic oldies [outlet] on," he says. 'You're talking about a format that attracts adults, who don't sample nearly as much as young listeners. It would almost be a suicide mission, especially if we're well-branded in the market. Our primary goal right now is to develop a brand for all of Chancellor's [rhythmic oldies] stations, so it would be very dangerous for someone to come in and do this format better. This market and many others are littered with the remains of other stations that tried to duplicate the success of established, well-branded stations.'

The ultimate branding is Chancellor's synergy plans for rhythmic oldies tours and compilation albums. "I don't have the details just yet, but it absolutely makes sense to take a number of these groups and promote them on Chancellor's rhythmic oldies stations in New York, L.A., Dallas, Washington, D.C., Chicago, San Francisco, Cleveland, and Orlando, Fla.," Salkowitz says. "In putting a compilation CD together, it would be a simple matter of changing the cover artwork for each market to create custom product that further brands our stations. It's a real win for everyone involved."

However, Salkowitz doesn't want to look too far ahead. Jammin's marketing campaign is just starting, as word-of-mouth has largely been responsible for getting the station off the ground. "As a station and as a format, we're still in our infancy," he says. "It's like we're writing out the rules as we go along. We'll have to figure out what comes over the next several months."

Songs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to those records that attain 2,000 detections for the first time. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Songs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to those records that attain 600 detections for the first time. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Songs ranked by audience, computed by cross-referencing exact times of airplay with Arbitron listener data. Records showing an increase in audience over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in audience. If two records are tied in total audience, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records become recurrents and are removed from this chart in conjunction with the Crossover Airplay chart.

Songs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to those records that attain 900 detections for the first time. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Songs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to those records that attain 700 detections for the first time. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

The chart, reprinted from Rock Airplay Monitor, is compiled from a national sample of data compiled by Broadcast Data Systems, 69 modern rock stations are electronically monitored 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Songs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to those records that attain 1,100 detections for the first time. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks. ©1999 Billboard/BPI Communications

Compiled from a national sample of data supplied by Broadcast Data Systems. 111 mainstream top 40, 35 rhythmic top 40, 75 adult top 40 and 65 crossover stations are electronically monitored 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Songs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on a chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to those records that attain 2,000 detections (mainstream), 600 detections (adult top 40 and crossover) for the first time. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. 1999 Billboard/BPI Communications.
