Top 40's Record-Selling Power: The Proof Is In The Numbers

by Sean Ross and Jonathan Kurant

In the early '90s, when Sound-Scan piece counts first became available and mainstream top 40's numbers began to decline, that format seemed particularly out of touch with reality. Hip-hop, country, and modern rock albums were not only able to reach No. 1 without mainstream top 40 support but even able to debut there. With mainstream top 40 no longer even available in many markets, it became a common label strategy to take most records to another format first, because top 40 wasn't considered capable of selling records by itself.

Almost a decade later, it's still considerably easier to sell records that have multi-format support. But this week, Airplay Monitor cross-tabulates its BDS-generated charts with sales information from SoundScan and the Recording Industry Assn. of America in hopes of getting a handle on the sales power of various formats. The results may surprise you:

• Mainstream top 40's current for more total alchart hits account for more total album sales than those of any other current-based format. Its hits are also responsible for more gold and platinum albums than any other Monitor chart. Mainstream top 40 is playing more of the top-selling albums in the country than any other format. And even adult top 40 radio appears to have more sales power than most give it credit for, finishing second among total albums sold by its most-played titles.

· Mainstream rock radio, which has long complained about getting less attention than modern rock, is

Feds Charge Label Execs Bought Spins

by Chris Morris Billboard Magazine

Latin-music label Fonovisa, its president, and its VP of promotion have been charged with payola-related offenses for buying spins on radio stations. The U.S. Attorney's office says in one incident, Fonovisa promotion VP Jesus Gilberto Moreno paid $2,000 in cash to an unnamed PD in May 1997.

"Moreno paid the program director this sum for the purpose of having the program director include Fonovisa records on a program playlist for more frequent broadcast over that radio station," a court document says. "[Moreno] made the payment knowing that he and the program director would never disclose the payment to the radio station."

Prosecutors contend Fonovisa set up a separate promotional company, Radio/T.V. Promotions Inc. (RTV), which allegedly was used to funnel payola money to PDs at Spanish-language stations. In 1996 alone, the government charges, Fonovisa paid $425,000 to radio programmers.

A separate charge accuses Fonovisa and president Guillermo Santiso of preparing false tax returns.

As part of the investigation, more than two dozen radio stations have turned over payroll records as the U.S. attorney's office attempts to determine how many programmers may have taken cash, and how much. No word on whether any radio station employees will be charged. The U.S. attorney's office began looking into Fonovisa's activities in late 1997, after lawyers for the label contacted the Justice Department to report improprieties in its promotion department. In a statement issued July 1, the label's parent, Grupo Televisa, said it fully cooperated with the government and that it hopes to put the matter behind it. "Fonovisa will continue to concentrate on its core business, which is [making] and selling recordings."

Other labels may also face federal scrutiny, according to The Los Angeles Times, quoting unnamed sources.

More Rhythmics Adding More Pop

Noticed how several prominent rhythmic top 40 outlets have been filtering in more pop product over the past few months? WJMN (Jam'n 94.5) Boston, which was playing little non-R&B product until "Livin' La Vida Loca" and "I Want It That Way," shows First Impressions this week on its third Ricky Martin title. Now, KSFM (Jaminin' 102.5) Sacramento, Calif., is showing First Impressions on titles by Backstreet Boys, Britney Spears, and Christina Aguilera and dropping several harder rap records. No staff or positioner changes are involved.

MANAGEMENT: DYMOND MINED

Top 40 WIOG/AC WGER Saginaw, Mich., GM Nancy Dymond becomes VP/GM of country WXIK, album WJXQ, and modern WWDX Lansing, Mich., replacing Mike Thomas.

Adult top 40 WAEV and AC WYKZ Savannah, Ga., GM Steve Godofsky joins AC WKTK and N/T WSKY Gainesville, Fla., as VP/GM.

FROM INDIE TO INDEPENDENT

It was only in the past three to four years that radio stations began issuing press releases to announce their associations with independent promoters. This week, rhythmic top 40 KKUU Palm Springs, Calif., PD Pattie Moreno has issued a press release announcing that the station "is not working with any independent promoters at this time." Moreno says the station was previously affiliated with Billy Brill.

PROGRAMMING: HE'S MEGA

WHYI (Y100) Miami APD Al Chio is the new PD of Clear Channel sister station WPLL, which flipped from AC to R&B oldies July 1 as Mega 103.5. He replaces Rob Archer, who may stay at Clear Channel in another capacity.

Modern rock KKDM Des Moines, Iowa, owner/GM Rich Eychaner has sold the station to Clear Channel, which takes it top 40 as Kiss 107.5. Eychaner has left the GM post, replaced by Clear Channel's Iowa market manager, Steve Winkey. Other staffers are still on board but applying for new positions within the company. Clear Channel director of Iowa FM programming Mike Blakemore is overseeing the station for now. Clear Channel also buys top 40 KCCQ Ames, Iowa, which is pulling several shares in Des Moines. It says no format change is planned at KCCQ.

WMEE Fort Wayne, Ind., APD Ange

WMEE Fort Wayne, Ind., APD Ange Canessa is named PD at WGTZ (Z93) Dayton, Ohio, reporting to OM Michael Luczak.

Following last week's flip from soft AC to rhythinic top 40 at WXCT Muskegon, Mich., now WWIP (105.3, the Whip), Keith Curry is named PD. Curry was previously APD/MD at similarly formatted WSNX Grand Rapids, Mich.

Top 40 WEZB (B97) New Orleans overnighter David Marxx joins crosstown country WYLA/WYLK/WADU (Lake Country 94) as PD/afternoons. WYLA morning jock Tony Kerr shifts to middays, with crosstown AC WLTS overnighter Tony Cruise taking mornings.

Sign-on WSRQ/WSRI Traverse City, Mich., flips to '80s oldies as Star FM, "the greatest hits of the '80s and more." GM/PD Bill Boggs is a former AE at religious WRFD Columbus, Ohio; David J. Fox returns to radio for mornings; WRFD AE Michael Stevens takes middays; country WHZR Kokomo, Ind., afternoon host Kevin McKay joins for afternoons/production director; and AC WSNY (Sunny 95) Columbus, Ohio, P/T Ann Cherry voice-tracks nights.

PEOPLE: MORNINGS BECOME VACANT

Still don't think there's an air-talent crunch in this business? Tell that to the following stations looking to fill holes in their morning shows: KZZP Phoenix (following Bruce Kelly's departure last week); KKRZ (Z100) Portland, Ore.; KHTS (Channel 933) San Diego; WKRQ (Q102) Cincinnati; and KDON Monterey, Calif. These on top of any vacancies reported elsewhere in this column or start-up stations seeking entire staffs.

At WPRO-FM Providence, R.I., middayer Giovanni segues to mornings, where he's joined by WNCI Columbus, Ohio, morning vet Kim Zandy. Tanya Cruise moves from overnights to early middays, PD Tony Bristol segues from afternoon drive to late middays, MD Davey Morris flips from middays to afternoon drive, and P/T Shannon comes in for nights.

The Cleveland Plain-Dealer reports that Danny Czekalinsky, previously with album WMMS Cleveland, is the new morning host at adult top 40 WQAL (Q104), replacing Larry Morrow.

Priestly moves from late nights to nights at WXYV Baltimore, replacing Jason Kidd.

WHTZ (Z100) New York promotion coordinator Frank Canale joins Chancellor modern rock sister KXPK (the Peak) Denver as promotion director; he'll be based in Denver.

Backstreet's Back, With Mainstream No. 1

The Backstreet Boys net their first-ever No. 1 at mainstream top 40 with "I Want It That Way" (Jive). Although the song is actually down slightly in detections, it receives a bullet since it hits the top of the chart for the first time. "I Want It That Way" is the act's seventh title to chart at mainstream top 40. The Boys' previous high-charting titles are "Quit Playing Games With My Heart," which peaked at No. 2 in September '97, and "As Long As You Love Me," which went to No. 3 in February '98.

Madonna makes her first appearance on Monitor's rhythmic audience chart with "Beautiful Stranger" (Maverick/Warner Bros.). "Ray Of Light" was Madonna's last title to chart on the rhythmic detection chart; that song reached No. 32 there exactly one year ago.

Pearl Jam's "Last Kiss" (Epic) continues to grow at adult radio, as it picks up Greatest Gainer and Most New Stations honors on the modern adult chart. The title is also awarded Airpower stripes, as it moves into the top 20 of the modern adult detection chart, while simultaneously debuting in the top 20 of the modern adult audience chart. It is interesting to note that "Last Kiss" is already in its seventh week on the detection chart. Likewise, Blessid Union Of Souls' "Hey Leonardo (She Likes Me For Me)" (Push/V2) debuts on the modern adult audience chart this week. "Leonardo" is currently in its eighth week on the modern adult detection chart.

The Cranberries make their first Monitor appearance in two years with "Animal Instinct" (Island/IDJMG), which debuts on the modern adult chart. The group's last title to chart at top 40, "When You're Gone," charted at mainstream top 40, adult top 40, and modern adult in spring/summer '97.

Usually, a holiday week means fewer bullets on the charts, as specialty programming and holiday-themed countdowns dominate the airwaves. This Fourth of July, however, more stations than not seem to have kept rotations on current songs relatively high, as the number of bullets on Top 40 Airplay Monitor charts remain fairly constant in relation to non-holiday weeks. In fact, the number of bullets on the mainstream and rhythmic top 40 charts are up this week; more than half the titles on both of those formats' detection charts are increasing in spins.

PERSONNEL FILE: C2 adds former A&M/Interscope promo man Buddy Deal for regional duties, based in Los Angeles.

Former Motown Southeast regional Andy Rosenberg relocates to Florida and can be reached at 561-997-8011.

RCA national director of modern adult and adult top 40 promotion Cheryl Khaner is upped to senior director of national promotion for adult formats.

RADIO PANELS: WXPT Minneapolis is added to the adult top 40 and modern adult reporting panels. WIOG Saginaw, Mich., moves from adult top 40 to mainstream top 40. There are now 73 adult top 40, 112 mainstream top 40, and 35 modern adult reporting stations.

What's Hotter Than One Hot Topic?

While summer concerts, movies, and the Fourth of July once again dominated the Topical Barometer, Promogandists offered multi-appeal promos and planned ahead. Top 40 KHFI Austin, Texas, killed two promo topics with one stone in its Summertime Beach and Concert Destination Weekend. "Listeners pick the artists they'd like to see and what beach-side community they'd like to see them [in], such as Alanis Morissette in Tampa [Fla.], Ricky Martin in Miami, or Whitney Houston in L.A.," says virtual Beach Boy Mike Paterson

Rhythmic top 40 KLUC Las Vegas doubles its topical pleasure with its seventh annual Baby and Family Lifestyle Expo featuring the Back to School Fair. Entertainment at the fair, boasting more than 80 booths and displays focusing on the family and back to school, includes "a magician, clowns, a live concert, autograph party, the Blockbuster/Nintendo Game truck, and more," says Vanessa Thill, who is thill thingle.

Looking ahead is R&B KPWR (Power 106) Los Angeles, which has lined up its End of the Millennium Powerhouse for Dec. 31. The private Powerhouse, to be held at a secret location, features dinner for two, dancing, disco, a live concert and broadcast, midnight balloon drop, and champagne toast. "You can't buy tickets to this black-tie affair," says Dianna "Y2K" Obermeyer. Power is also staging a special Hawaii concert Sept. 24-27 featuring the live reunion of Snoop Dogg and Dr. Dre. Stations interested in tying promotions to this bash should call Obermeyer at 818-953-4200.

TOPIC OF THE WEEK: PET PEEVES ... VALUE-ADDED PROMOS

A recurring if hardly popular topic among our panel concerns value-added promos, such as dog-food giveaways. "Everyone wants free mentions," says KHFI's Paterson. "'Please promote our Web site because we bought time on your station.' 'Please give away a hammer from my store.' Since we're so ready for revenue and willing to do anything to keep the other guy from getting it, we compromise our positions. It's important to put money on the bottom line, but how far do we bend to get the buy? Does it take the [person] in charge to say, 'No added value for promos! Use spots correctly, and your business will skyrocket!'?"

Apparently so. "It takes a mandate from the GM, with buy-in from the GSM," says Dave Demer of country WWKA (K92) Orlando, Fla. 'Get the rules on paper, and stick to them! Rules that get overruled by the GM or GSM will nev-Album rock WPYX Albany, N.Y., is "pretty accommodating in giving added value, but there comes a point when you have to draw the line," says Nicole Cyr. "One salesperson wanted to give away driveway sealer on-air, and we refused. We offered a billboard to a sponsorable feature. Instead of giving out dog food on-air, I might pass out samples at a county fair and just say our broadcast was sponsored by the client.

"What's difficult is that other stations will literally 'drop trou' just to get a buy, promising things I just can't fathom that they'd deliver," she adds. "The problem is a big one with clients, but other stations perpetuate a competitive climate of 'get the buy no matter the cost.' Luckily, we're supported by a GM and a GSM who know when it's time to withdraw—that the buy isn't good for programming or financially viable."

'Make the promo work for you, so what's onair is good for the listeners," says KLUC's Thill. "If the client's promo is silly or sloppy, come up with something that works for both of youand sell it. Get the clients to buy what you want."

Stop complaining about bad prizes and turn them into fun, unique promotions," advises Tristano Korlou of CBS's Hartford, Conn., cluster. "A while back, [WPXY Rochester, N.Y.] had to give away gift certificates to Boston Market. In a perfect world, I'd never designate a weekend to give away chicken. Instead, we built a promo called Pixy's Choke the Chicken weekend. At the sound of the choking chicken, the eighth caller won dinner from Boston Market and a family dinner pass to the movies.

QUICK HITS

Top 40 WWZZ (Z104) Washington, D.C., is aggressively targeting Spanish-speaking listeners via a bilingual direct-mail campaign. The postcards read, 'If you like dance music, you'll love the new Z104!' and have been mailed to more than 35,000 households, primarily with Hispanic surnames. Half of the card touts Z104's dance-music programs in English, the other half in Spanish. For more info, si Sammy Simpson.

Country WBEE Rochester, N.Y., is throwing a Kids Fest and Christmas in July bash. The Kids Fest features camps for all local sports teams, lessons, and autograph sessions. There will also be booths for equipment manufacturers, gymnastics camps, day cares, and playground displays, as well as ice cream sampling and a Christmas in July display with gift ideas and sample holiday cooking. Checking out who's naughty and nice will be Stephanie Modern rock KXTE (Extreme Radio) Las Vegas will be part of a Running with the Bulls event in Mesquite, Nev. "It's similar to the one in Pomplona, Spain, except the bulls aren't slaughtered at the end," Carly Johnston says. "We'll give the grand-prize winner a night's stay at a Mesquite resort and the opportunity to actually run with the bulls. (Don't worry, I've talked to my legal department.) The qualifying prizes will be a pair of tennis shoes and a special-edition Xtreme T-shirt with a bull's-eye on the back.

Alex Tear And Jay Towers Merge WDRQ's Success To Detroit's Renaissance

Thirteen months ago, Alex Tear segued from modern adult WPLT (the Planet) Detroit to sister WDRQ, which was relaunched in '96 as a rhythmic AC and has since gradually evolved to mainstream top 40. "When I came into this situation, I knew I had to push the borders to find a definitive direction for the station," he says. "I started with a three-year plan. There were a lot of growing pains as we pushed the musical borders to find the exact formula to success. We've made fairly decent progress, and we're progressing at a nice pace.

With the input of Jay Towers, a 'DRQ alum from '96 who left for WIOQ (Q102) Philadelphia before returning as APD/mornings in March, Tear and crew have taken the station to heights not seen in several years, thanks to its 4 share in the second spring Arbitrend. Both attribute much of the success to a finely defined music position, with a distinct rhythmic bent. "WDRQ, without question, is the top [top] 40 in this marketplace," Tear says. "We have an open field [competitively]. We're energetic and rhythmic-leaning, so we're not directly up against the adult stations, and we're still pop, to stay apart from R&B stations. We are unique enough to stand alone

"Detroit is a very soulful and rhythmic city, where you can feel its Motown roots," Towers adds. "We've custom-built this station to the point where it may not fit in New York or L.A. We can go early on certain rhythmic titles, because they're mass-appeal here.

Here's a typical hour on WDRQ: Britney Spears, "... Baby One More Time"; Will Smith, "Wild Wild West"; Backstreet Boys, "I Want It That Way"; Lauryn Hill, "Doo Wop (That Thing)"; Ricky Martin, "Livin' La Vida Loca"; Smash mouth, "All Star"; Prince, "Kiss"; Notorious B. L.G. "Mo Money Mo Problems": Notorious B.I.G., "Mo Money Mo Problems"; Shania Twain, "That Don't Impress Me Much"; Enrique Inglesias, "Bailamos"; Whitney Houston, "It's Not Right, But It's Okay"; and K-Ci & JoJo, "All My Life."
Even when it was still an adult-leaning station in other ways, WDRQ was an early and ardent supporter of the current wave of boy bands. The proliferation of those acts doesn't frighten Tear. "The misconception is that bands like Backstreet Boys and 'N Sync are teen-oriented, but we see research where their records test tremendously with adults as well as kids, which is why they're crossing into hot AC and AC,' Towers notes.

"When Joey McIntyre came to the station, approximately 300 people showed up in the conference room to meet him, and they were all 30something-old females," Tear adds. "That tells you this pop music hasn't scared them off. Women are still tracking the artists they grew up on, even as they buy their own cars and have kids. This music style exists and will be around forever.

"In addition to that, you have [records like] Whitney Houston's 'It's Not Right, But It's Okay.' It's extremely dancey, so it works great with the younger end. Of course, being Whitney Houston, it works just as well with the older end. You kill two birds with one stone.'

Tear notes that 'DRQ's music dovetails with that of sister WPLT. "[PD] Garret Michaels, Jay, and I align our two stations to complement each other," he says. "[That affects] not only the choice of music, but promotions."

'That doesn't mean we're going to ignore mass-appeal hits," Towers adds. "We're still responsible for our own stations. We just make sure we're not in total conflict. When we share things, we have to debate on how that goes.

Towers' return to take over mornings illustrates the other main reason for DRQ's rise: an active air staff. "One of the main things I was looking to do when I came back was to somehow get the fun sound of top 40 back on the radio without resorting to old '80s bits," Towers says. "One way to do that was have the personalities really drive what we do in the music and promotions. Every jock custom-tailors his or her show, so we hit all ends of the spectrum. Every jock has the responsibility for doing a show, not an airshift. They're onstage every day, which leads to a far more creative and energetic air staff. The jocks can generate more response than the music they play. People will come out in droves to remotes even when we're not giving away a trip or concert tickets. They come to see the jocks.

"We wanted to pick a specialist for each daypart," Tear says. "The one thing we wanted to create was an internal chemistry—not just within members of the morning show, but between the individual jocks. We want them to hang together and communicate in the hallways. Once an internal chemistry is on fire, it comes out through the speakers. They can call each other at home and cross-promote their shifts without using liners. Those things make that station sound like a fun place to be, and listeners want to be a part of that."

So where does Tear go from here? "We're now solidifying our music position and starting to grow the morning show. The show has already grown at a phenomenal rate without marketing. I can only imagine what will happen if we had a TV campaign to go with it. As it is, we're accomplishing a lot just from the great chemistry that's going on there. That's something you can't pay for.

When it comes to promotion and marketing, "we really want to get promotionally active to involve listeners in things we do that are cost-efficient," Tear says. "There's a lot of listener involvement in events that are fun to go to. It's too easy to say, 'Well, we'll just hit them with more billboards, then do some TV.' The Web site is definitely an alternate resource for nontraditional revenue. Right now, though, our Internet needs are still tertiary. When Arbitron's involvement with the Net grows, so will mine. Of course we'll do all that, but for the people of this station, we're going to make sure our mission, first and foremost, is to entertain our listeners and play the best available music

The end result is a station that, in Tear's eyes, is mirroring the renaissance of the city itself. "Detroit is going through a rebirth," he says. "There are two new stadiums being built and three new casinos. New buildings are popping up all over downtown. Our mission is to surround ourselves with a team that can take WDRQ into the next millennium and grow with the city.

"We're going to make WDRQ an icon in not only this city, but throughout the industry," he continues. "There's no reason people can't look at Detroit radio and see industry leaders. We have air personalities and staffers who are lovers of this format, and we've got extremely high goals we're still trying to accomplish. When we're doing that day after day, it makes for a very exciting place to be. This is more than a job. It's a passion and a lifestyle for all us."

What To Do When Someone Else Wants To Drive?

Throughout my four years at Airplay Monitor, I've been fortunate to operate with a pretty good degree of autonomy. Through four bosses, including publisher Jon Guynn, I've always had the freedom to pursue harder topics, both in this column and in our news and features, than readers are used to seeing in other trade publications. It's a freedom I particularly appreciate now, seeing the number of radio people around me who no longer enjoy quite the . same autonomy they once did.

In the post-Telecom Act era, an increasing number of programmers find themselves reporting to at least one cluster or group programmer and, in the case of some groups, multiple new levels of management. And although the specifics are different, those PDs find themselves in the same position as the APD or MD who serves as interim PD for several books but doesn't get the ultimate PD nod or the PD of a successful top 40 who suddenly finds his station programming R&B oldies. All those scenarios have been played out more than a couple of times recently.

What each of these situations has in common is that somebody who's been brought in to spearhead a radio station suddenly finds himself having to share the driving duties or execute somebody else's game plan. In theory, there's a correct way to handle this situation. If your bosses want a "Jammin' oldies" station, give them the best R&B oldies station possible. It's the same thing you'd ask your air staff to do if you made a decision they didn't like. Work under the assumption that you'll either be part of a success that allows you to write your own ticket elsewhere or that your bosses will eventually realize that you were right in the first place, and you'll still be around to enjoy it.

That's easier said than done, of course. I've always regarded myself as a good collaborator and particularly good in brainstorming situations. But when I was programming an R&B oldies AM in the mid-'90s and suddenly found myself reporting to an OM, our FM station's PD in this case, it was still a tense situation, at least initially, even though the OM's promotion had been presented to me as a means of giving him more responsibility, not as a vote of no confidence in my programming. Even though the OM and I usually talked every day about both stations, and he seemed to value my feedback as much as I valued his. Even though the OM and I were (and remain) friends with a strong mutual respect.

Suddenly, what had been feedback became, well, something more. And there was no really good way to answer those "You know, I was just wondering if . . ." questions. Suddenly we were having conversations like this:

OM: "Sean, do you really think 'Lowdown' by Boz Scaggs belongs on an R&B oldies station?

PD: "Why not? It tests power. And 70% of the audience thinks it's compatible. And it still gets calls. And it was a top three R&B record as a current."

OM: "I was just asking. There's no need to get defensive.

A fair question. A reasonable answer, or so I hoped. But now fraught with drama for reasons that were probably more my fault than his.

Ultimately, having an OM didn't result in any major direction change, and I was still doing my job more or less by myself. After all, he had a big FM station to run. Then again, some of the positive things that could have come out of an OM's involvement didn't quite materialize either. The department heads whose previous inclination was to do more for the FM continued to do so, even with us both representing the AM.

In retrospect, I should have realized that the little suggestions were not worth arguing over, as long as I was being allowed to determine the station's larger direction. But PDs are trained to be drivers, not collaborators. And, although this shouldn't necessarily be the case, jocks aren't always led to expect a consensus-building environment either. I know one relatively low-key PD who recently came into a major-market radio station, following a much more hands-on manager. Ultimately, the station flourished under his direction, but initially, not everybody was accustomed to not being directed on every detail. (I had a similar experience when I pulled the liner cards at my AM and some of the jocks continued to recite them from memory.)

The increased number of decision makers involved in the programming process wouldn't be so bad if it were allowing PDs to get back to the business of overseeing the aesthetic content of their radio stations (as opposed to being concert promoters), but that isn't happening. Instead, the move to a more collaborative atmosphere is just another one of the changes that PDs have to get used to in this much different environment. Not so easy? I hear ya.

right on modern's heels when it comes to both albums sold and gold and platinum albums. While their combined sales oomph might be the same, however, modern rock sells its records with a lot fewer stations.

• While the pop success of Shania Twain, LeAnn Rimes, and Faith Hill has led many in Nashville to declare that they can't sell records in bulk anymore without crossing over, country is still the genre with the largest-selling format-exclusive hits. That said, only a few country albums are selling at that level and, as such, country resides well below most other formats in most indicators of sales power.

WE DO THE MATH

In trying to get a handle on the "who sells records" question, we looked at several indices.

• First, we totalled the week's singles and albums sales for each of the charted songs at our major current-driven formats: mainstream, rhythmic, and adult top 40; crossover; modern rock; mainstream rock; and country. We used sales figures from SoundScan's top-300-selling albums and singles (except on country, where, to be comprehensive, we also looked at the country albums and singles charts for titles that fell below the top 300 Billboard titles). We didn't run a similar tally for triple-A (it's only a 20-position chart, and we would have been comparing it with 40-position charts), AC (only 30 positions), the adult R&B chart, or the modern adult chart. For country, we examined only the top 40 records on its 75-position chart to keep it consistent with the other 40-position charts.

• Then, we did the same with gold and platinum certifications for both singles and albums to get a handle on the total sales tonnage achieved by every charted title.

Finally, we checked each of the formats to see how many of SoundScan's top-selling albums and 45s they were playing—a tally that see how many of SoundScan's top-selling albums and 45s they were playing—a tally that wasn't meant to determine just who breaks the hits, but also who acknowledges them.

THE RAW FIGURES

When you look at total album sales, the top 40 songs on the mainstream top 40 chart are selling more than the hits on any other format. Top 40's biggest hits for the July 2 issue of Airplay Monitor were selling a combined 2,238,000 units, followed by adult top 40 (1,956,000); rhythmic top 40 (1,829,000); crossover (1,771,000); modern rock (1,661,000); mainstream rock (1,633,000); mainstream R&B (1,326,000); and country (582,000).

Rhythmic top 40 is first in singles sales (653,000 units), followed by crossover (557,000); R&B (549,000); mainstream top 40 (473,000); adult top 40 (247,000); and modern rock (120,000, mostly because of Pearl Jam's "Last Kiss").

When it comes to gold- and platinum-certified albums, the hits at mainstream top 40 have been certified for a combined 66.5 million units, followed by adult top 40 (53 million), rhythmic top 40 (52 million), crossover (40.5 million), R&B (31.5 million), country (27.5 million), modern rock (22 million), and album rock (21 million). Mainstream top 40, rhythmic top 40, and crossover were tied for gold and platinum singles certs with 5.5 million units, followed by R&B with 4.5 million units, and adult top 40 with 3 million.

Finally, as for who's playing the most hits, as decided by the audience, top 40 leads the album count, with 11 of the top 20 albums represented on this week's Mainstream Top 40 Airplay chart. Crossover, rhythmic top 40, and adult top 40 are tied for second with nine. R&B is fifth with seven, followed by modern rock (six), album rock (five), and country (two).

Rhythmic top 40 is first in terms of acknowlabilities the metals in the second with a second control of the second contro

Rhythmic top 40 is first in terms of acknowledging the most hit singles, with 14. Mainstream top 40 and crossover are second (13). Adult top 40 follows with seven. Then it's R&B (four), modern rock (two), album rock (one), and country, with none at the moment, although, to be fair, you could count Shania Twain's "That Don't Impress Me Much," which isn't on the country chart now but began there.

NO FORMAT IS AN ISLAND

All right, you might say—playing the big-selling records is not the same as being able to sell them without the assistance of any other format. Or video support (since most of the major radio formats are paralleled by at least one video channel). In the early '90s, mainstream top 40 became associated with widely played formatexclusive hits with marginal sales. For many, suggesting that a record be worked exclusively to top 40 still conjures up the specter of numerous early '90s hits that sold singles, not albums, and did so in disproportionately small numbers to their airplay.

Today, it's hard to get a fair read on any format's power to break a record single-handedly, given the fact that so few records are marketed to any single format and also because formats are niched so closely together. Even when you consider some of the genres associated with only one format, there are adjacent formats that can share that musts.

Capstar Folds SouStar Into SeaStar, AtStar

Just two weeks before its merger with Chancellor, Capstar has dissolved its Southern Star division. Stations in Florida and Alabama become part of Sea Star, while stations in Georgia and the Carolinas are shifted to Atlantic Star. A handful of corporate employees were squeezed out, including president/CEO Rick Peters, who says he may buy stations himself. Chancellor shareholders vote July 13 on merging with Capstar.

In hopes of avoiding potential ugliness at the meeting, Chancellor's largest shareholder, Hicks, Muse, Tate & Furst, has agreed to lower its "adviser fees" under pressure from other investors, who claim a conflict of interest. At issue is whether Hicks, Muse should be advising Chancellor on what to buy, particularly regarding companies in which Hicks, Muse has a stake—such as Capstar. Chancellor proposes giving Hicks, Muse $10 million in cash plus future stock options instead of the $31.7 million Hicks, Muse is seeking.

Senior Emmis executives are calling their purchase of Sinclair's St. Louis properties a "done deal" despite a rather ominous announcement from Sinclair June 28 saying it is "evaluating" former CEO Barry Baker's letter of intention to buy the stations and sell them to Emmis (Monitor, July 2). Emmis executives say Sinclair officers are simply not happy about giving up $16.31 million in annual radio revenue, plus $27.4 million from KDNL-TV. Meanwhile, the FCC has finally approved Sinclair's purchase of R&B adult KXOK. It is one of the stations Emmis intends to purchase.

Radio deals may be off from their peak in 1998, but the broadcasting business remains robust for mergers. Radio and television mergers totalled $118 billion in the first half of the year, according to Securities Data, which ranks broadcasting behind the telecom and banking sectors. With the June 30 prime-rate hike by Federal Reserve Chair Alan Greenspan, several more deals may be struck shortly, as companies try to avoid higher interest rates.

Radio revenue is growing even more quickly than predicted, so media forecaster Robert Coen is upping his projections for 1999. The McCann-Erickson senior VP says radio ad revenues will rise 9% this year, up from his 6% forecast issued last December. Coen says skyrocketing rate cards and added inventory account for most of the increase. The biggest surge comes from local dollars, which Coen predicts will rise 9% in 1999, compared with 6% last year. He predicts spending will grow in all media segments, and U.S. ad spending is expected to rise to $213.95 billion in 1999 and reach $230 billion in 2000.

SENATE TARGETS FCC "LETHARGY"

The Senate Judiciary Committee wants to put a "shot clock" on the FCC to complete broadcast and telecom mergers more quickly. It has reported out of committee a bill sponsored by Sens. Mike DeWine, R-Ohio, and Herb Kohl, D-Wis., that would force the FCC to act on a purchase application in as little as three months. Kohl and DeWine reached a compromise with Judiciary Chair Orrin Hatch, R-Utah, who preferred a bill sponsored by Sen. John McCain, R-Ariz., that would remove the FCC's merger-review authority altogether. The bill will not likely come up for a full vote until after the summer recess. The Antitrust Merger Review Act has been renamed the Expeditious Action on Telecom Mergers Review Act (EATMA).

As reported last week (Monitor, July 2), President Clinton has forwarded Susan Ness' name to the Senate for another FCC term. She was first nominated by Clinton in 1994.

The FCC is expected to take up several broadcast ownership rules at its August meeting, according to FCC sources.

NEW MEDIA

Internet radio upstart WebRadio.com is downplaying the exit of several senior staff members. June 25, including VP Michael Weiss. "The departure is a bump in the road," says VP Joe Budenholzer, who points out that WebRadio employs 40 in the U.S. and 100 in Israel. "Although it was unexpected, it was not critical, in the sense [that Weiss] was basically doing a lot of evangelism in sales by going out and selling the concept." Budenholzer says Weiss' claim to be the company's founder is "not accurate," saying he was simply part of a larger team that launched the company five years ago.

SALES

Tele-Media is buying religious WZEC Albany, N.Y., and top 40 WBEC-FM and N/T WBEC-AM Pittsfield, Mass., from Aritaur Communications for $4.65 million. Tele-Media already owns AC WABY-FM and adult top 40 WKLI/WKBE in Albany.

Rhythmic top 40 was able to play most of mainstream top 40's boy bands. Modern rock has been able to co-opt most album rock bands except those with a heritage image. And any modern rock acts that aren't suitable for album rock are likely to be appropriate for adult top 40. You get the idea.

The only example of a mainstream top 40 hit that isn't charted anywhere else is "I Drive Myself Crazy" by 'N Sync. That act's album sold roughly 58,000 units in the week we examined, although other cuts on that album have received multi-format airplay. Then again, we have noted in a recent Monitor story that mainstream top 40 is again starting more of its own records than it picks up from any other chart. So the sales power of top 40 can't be minimized.

The biggest album by any act charted at only one format is Dixie Chicks (about 63,000 units), although even that act is receiving some AC and top 40 airplay; nobody, however, is sharing the Tim McGraw album, which sold around 43,000 units with only country airplay. R&B radio sold roughly 35,000 copies on its most successful exclusive, Case's "Happily Ever After." Other R&B-driven hits, such as those by Chanté Moore, Eric Benét, and Kelly Price, were around the 17,000-unit mark. (Because the crossover chart is a hybrid of rhythmic top 40 and R&B reporters, we still counted a song on the crossover chart as a format exclusive for R&B if it appeared at R&B but not rhythmic.)

Def Leppard's "Promises," charted only at album rock in the week we examined, was selling around 39,000 units, although it was also receiving airplay at top 40. There weren't many pure modern-rock exclusives; those we saw tended to be in the 11,000-12,000 unit range. Together, however, rock radio can achieve formidable sales without top 40, as evidenced by the week's spectacular debut of Limp Bizkit (around 634,000), as well as the approximately 112,000 sales of Kid Rock (although, again, both also had significant video play).

One more note on the modern vs. mainstream rock issue: While the two are surprisingly close in terms of the sales power of the songs they support, a realization that many rock reps seem to have come to recently, modern is still doing it with fewer stations that spin their records more. If you were to look at total sticks around the country, R&B and rhythmic top 40 would both have to be given credit for selling records disproportionate to the number of available outlets for hearing them, while country, the most programmed format in America, would have even less sales clout.

Songs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Songs ranked by audience, computed by cross-referencing exact times of airplay with Arbitron listener data. Records showing an increase in audience over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in audience. If two records are tied in total audience, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records become recurrents and are removed from this chart in conjunction with the Mainstream Top 40 Airplay chart.

Songs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Give us a break it's almost the millennium! We use state-of-the-art technology to monitor radio. Mediabase still toys around with the average joe. What does it all mean? Faster data. More station coverage. And with our new partner, SoundScan, things are only going to get better. Give us a call at (914)684-5600 so we can tell you all about that and more. You'll see there's really no comparison and we're not owned by the competition.

ongs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registring six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being layed on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Songs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Songs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Songs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Compiled from a national sample of data supplied by Broadcast Data Systems. 112 mainstream top 40, 33 rhythmic top 40, 73 adult top 40 and 63 crossover stations are electronically monitored 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Songs ranked by number of detections.
Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on a chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections, Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. 1999 Billboard/BPI Communications.
