Are Multiple Hits Evidence Of Top 40 Becoming More Artist-Loyal?

by Jeff Silberman

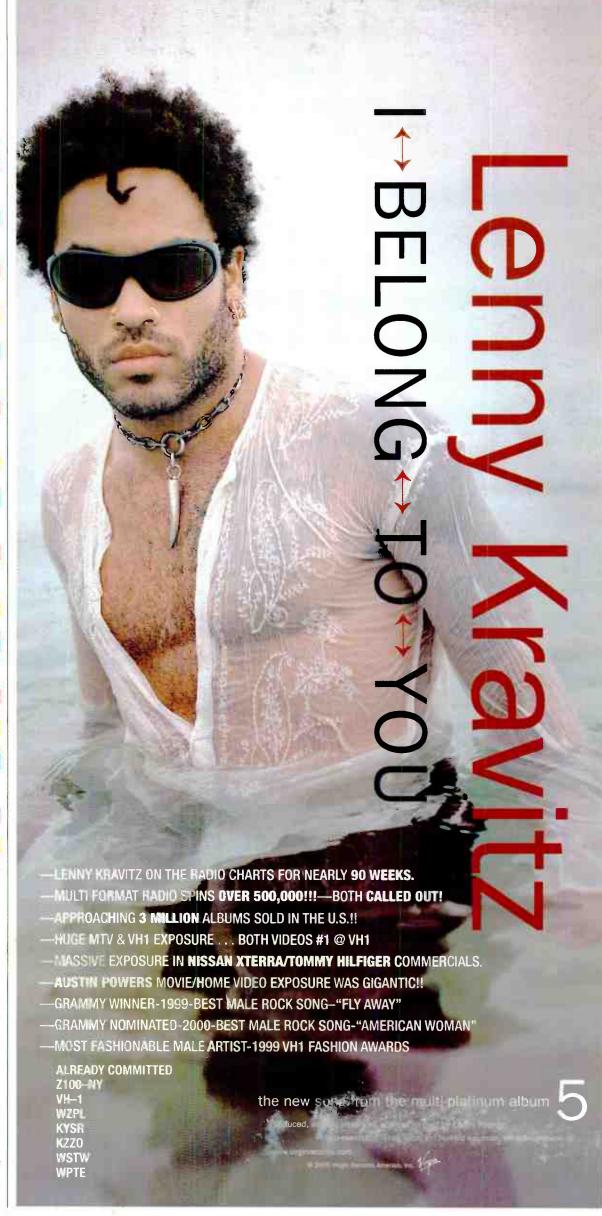

It's an undeniable fact of radio life: Top 40 has always been and will always be a song-driven format, where the programmers' main reason for adding a new song is the song itselfnot whether its artist is coming off a big hit single. Not too long ago, record companies were complaining loudly about the difficulty in getting radio to jump aboard the successors to hit singles from their artists. Today, however, the current mainstream top 40 airplay chart is literally strewn with follow-ups. Christina Aguilera is enjoying her second straight hit single; ditto Smash mouth and Jennifer Lopez. Britney Spears, Sugar Ray, and Backstreet Boys are climbing the charts with third hits off their latest albums. Don't forget to add Whitney Houston, Ricky Martin, Enrique Iglesias, and TLC to the multiple-hit list.

Even Lou Bega, whose own trade ads had to address the expectation that he would be a one-hit-wonder, is finding considerable success the second time around. In fact, 31 of the 40 titles on the Jan. 14 mainstream top 40 charts were from artists who had either had top 40 success from multiple projects (i.e., Celine Dion, Lenny Kravitz, Will Smith, Savage Garden) or were enjoying second hits from their first breakthrough project (Blink-182, Fatboy Slim). Only nine acts are firsttimers at mainstream top 40, and of those, several (Marc Anthony, Blaque, 702. Filter, and Vertical Horizon) have

Buc The Redskins

Frankie Blue Stands By Jailed DJ

WKTU New York PD Frankie Blue has announced his support for morning co-host "Goumba Johnny" Sialiano, who started serving a five-month sentence Jan. 21 after he pleaded guilty to a federal tax-evasion charge in October. Promising to keep the job open until Johnny returns, Blue tells Billboard's Chuck Taylor, "I'm disappointed, but you've got to adjust to reality and make what you feel is the right decision. When John's sentence is over, we welcome him back. He's a very popular air personality, not just for 'KTU but on New York radio, and he's too talented not to put back on the air. It's a short sentence, and we're just going to count the days.'

For his part, Sialiano told Taylor, his heavily publicized ordeal "has taken over two years to come to an end for me," with the beginning of his sentence. "This has been so difficult emotionally. I've been doing my work and my appearances, and then I come home and isolate myself. I've been paralyzed, just waiting for this whole thing to get worked out." Sialiano estimates that legal fees, fines, and lost income will have cost him half

PROGRAMMING: KQMQ LEANS POPPIER

After several months focused entirely on R&B, KQMQ Honolulu re-adds some pop titles, including Savage Garden, Eiffel 65, A.B. Quintanilla, and Christina Aguilera.

Groove Radio, the eclectic dance format heard on KACD/KBCD Los Angeles before Jacor bought it and flipped it to triple-A Channel 103.1, has resurfaced on the Internet. The eclectic beats can now be found at, surprise, GrooveRadio.com.

Active rock KTNP Omaha, Neb., PD Tony Matteo joins modern AC KLCA (Alice 96.5) Reno, Nev., as PD.

Album KKEZ (Z94) Fort Dodge, Iowa, flips to Clear Channel's classic hits-based adult top 40 format as Mix 94.5, under PD Lindy Kaye and OM Mike Blakemore. Kaye moves to afternoons, replacing Dave Austin, who shifts to morning drive.

AC KFIZ Fond Du Lac, Wis., pumps up the tempo to adult top 40 as "K107.1, your hit music station." Also, APD/MD/mornings Tim Taylor is upped to PD, replacing PD/afternoon host Steve Torgerson. Taylor says KFIZ has added titles from such acts as Britney Spears and Backstreet Boys but is also playing a heavy dose of '80s gold. Also, top 40 WCFX Mount Pleasant, Mich., afternoon host John Carson joins KFIZ in the same capacity.

New adult top 40 WCLZ (the Point) Portland, Maine, flips calls to WTPN. PD Neil Sullivan, who arrived several weeks ago from WBBO Ocean County, N.J., goes on-air in middays.

KMEL SHOW HALTED

A KMEL San Francisco concert Jan. 14 at the Oakland Coliseum Arena was stopped well before headline act Hot Boys could take the stage. According to The San Francisco Examiner, trouble with gate-crashers started as soon as doors opened at 6 p.m. Once the music started, with Eve and Ginuwine, people started rushing the stage. Numerous fistfights broke out, and folding chairs were thrown. Coliseum officials quickly canceled the show. As police escorted people out of the building, four shots were fired into the air, extending the pandemonium. No major injuries were reported.

PEOPLE: MORNING MUSICAL CHAIRS

The new year has seen considerable shuffling of morning shows. At WKQI (Q95.5) Detroit, new PD Tim Richards has recruited Mojo, who was doing mornings at Richards' previous haunt, KRQQ Tucson, Ariz. Richards is still working on finding supporting players for Mojo, who'll start in February

Assistant MD Makeisha Russ is upped to MD at KPTY Phoenix, replacing Dead Air Dave, who stavs on for afternoons.

KMSX (Mix 95.7) San Diego PD/p,m, driver Mike O'Brien moves to mornings (partners to be named later), with Network 40's Michael Storm joining for afternoons and KDMX (Mix 102.9) Dallas APD/MD Lisa Thomas voice-tracking after dark.

Six Mainstream Debuts In Record Week

DEBUT MADNESS: With six titles debuting at top 40 mainstream, the chart sees its largest number of new entries in a single week in at least the past three years. (The last time there were even five new chart entries was last July.)

'N Sync's "Bye Bye Bye" (Jive) debuts at No. 19 on the top 40 mainstream audience chart while picking up Most New Stations and Greatest Gainer honors on both the top 40 mainstream and rhythmic top 40 airplay charts. Out of 110 mainstream reporters, 103 are playing the song, as are 23 out of 35 rhythmic reporters.

Normally, you'd expect a country-to-top 40 crossover to spread from secondaries to majors, but because Lonestar's "Amazed" (BNA) got early airplay at WHTZ (Z100) New York, among others, it made the mainstream top 40 audience chart in advance of this week's debut on the mainstream top 40 airplay listing. "Amazed" is up 31-23 in audience and debuts at No. 34 in airplay.

AIRPLAY LEADERS: This issue marks the cutoff date for Monitor's first Airplay Leader competition. Look for a special section dedicated to the Airplay Leaders in a finture issue, celebrating the stations and personnel that have been most successful in identifying hit records over the past year: Airplay Leaders, as ranked on Monitor's Airplay Leaderboard, are the first stations to give 150 spins to songs that achieve Airpower status (100 in AC), our recently revamped measure of when a song becomes a confirmed hit.

ACCORDING TO The Hollywood Reporter, Bertelsmann CEO Thomas Middelhoff has told German weekly magazine Der Spiegel that Bertelsmann is actively looking to acquire major music companies, specifically Sony and EMI. Although he did not divulge how advanced talks were, he did admit that his goal is to make BMG "No. I in the music sector this year." Currently, Bertelsmann is No. 4 worldwide

Also in that interview, Middelhoff noted that BMG's relationship with AOL (with which it is a partner in Europe) is all but over in the wake of AOL's merger with Time Warner. "I don't want to end up as a divison head working for [AOL chief] Steve Case," he said. However, he did express interest in Time Warner publishing properties (including Time and People) should AOL decide to divest AOL Time Warner of them.

PERSONNEL FILE: Veteran record promoter John Fagot joins Mercury Nashville as director of alternative marketing and promotion. He previously was senior VP of promotion for Hollywood Records, Capitol Records, and Columbia Records . . . Island Def Jam Music Group Houston rep Jammer shifts to Atlanta, replacing Karl Bader, who can be reached at 404-876-7163. Alex Valentine takes over all of Texas and adds Oklahoma, New Mexico, and Louisiana duties . . . Capitol Records national director of adult formats Nick Bedding exits to join Hits... Wind-Up Records needs a publicist; fax résumés to Bridget Hollenback at 212-251-0779.

PANEL CHANGES: Effective this issue, KCDA (Mix 103.1) Spokane, Wash., and KSTJ Las Vegas are added to the adult top 40 panel, and WCDA Lexington, Ky., is added as a dual reporter to both adult top 40 and modern AC. WRMF West Palm Beach, Fla., moves from AC to adult top 40. In addition, modern rock reporter WLIR Long Island, N.Y., becomes a dual reporter to the modern AC panel. There are now 81 adult top 40, 74 AC, and 37 modern AC reporters.

Winter Promos Busy As Spring Book Looms

The spring-book promotion was top-of-mind for the Promoganda panel this week, with Valentine's Day, the Super Bowl, and other winter-related activities not far behind.

Modern rock KXTE (Extreme Radio) Las Vegas is taking a busload of listeners to a ski resort in Utah and comping lift tickets, snowboard rentals, and Sam Adams beer—"for the ride home, of course," says Carly Johnston. "It's the cure for X-treme Board 'Em . . . as in 'snowboard 'em.'" Uh huh. This column will surely go downhill from there.

AC KWRM (Warm 106.9) Seattle's annual winter book promo, Warm Weather Getaways, is taking its cue for destinations this year from the Beach Boys' song "Kokomo." Winners are choosing destinations such as Antigua, Aruba, the Bahamas, Bermuda, Jamaica, and Key Largo and Key West, Fla. We didn't ask PD Tony Coles if they'll have fun, fun, fun, until he gets to take their T-Birds

More Super Bowl doings: Top 40 WNKS (Kiss 95.1) Charlotte, N.C., will do its Misfits Road to the Super Bowl again. "We put eight misfits in a limo, and they are allowed to take one bag but no cash or credit cards," says Diana Ades. "They have to make it to the game by working on the road to pay for food, lodg-

Rock KEGL (the Eagle) Dallas is treating its winning listener to a Super Bowl With a Centerfold. On top of a ticket and trip to the game, the winner "also gets to hang out with Playboy's Miss December, Brooke Richards," says Loren Condron, who only reads the magazine for the staples.

PROMO TOPIC OF THE WEEK: PRE-SPRING SCHEDULING

Although most Promogandists are spending more time on their big spring-book promotions, they are just as active with their winter promotion schedule, if not busier. The stats: 62% are spending more of their energies on the spring event, with the remainder spending just as much time as last year. Yet 59% are just as active during the winter as they were last year, with 41% more active.

Why the continued strong interest in winter? "The winter book is becoming more important every year that goes by," says one panelist. "To investors in your company, you have report cards every three months called Arbitrons.

Winter promo schedules include everything from special dayparted programming to contests with prizes that fit the season. "We're planning to do more Ski-for-Free promos with skiing or snow-tubing nights at local ski mountains than we did last year," says Donna Talarico of country WGGY (Froggy 101) Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

"We like to keep our promotions fresh and topical vs. doing the same thing year after year,' says Dianna Obermeyer of R&B KPWR (Power 106) Los Angeles.

Popular wintertime prizes include warmweather trips, credit-card payoffs, mall certificates, and the reigning king, cash. The key is in the planning. Says a panelist, "We try to do about three important things, such as a nonprofit event, a big on-air giveaway like a trip, and, of course, remotes and personal appearances. But we try to keep options open and keep the clutter off the station, so that if something fabulous comes up, we can handle it without jamming it into our schedule. Good planning is important. It's not like you don't know when Valentine's Day, Father's Day, and other holidays are.'

"And you have to make sure that you don't toss money out the window when it's not necessary," adds Tristano Korlou of CBS Hartford, Conn. "Be creative in the winter months, then find good promotions and marketing campaigns for the spring book."

QUICK HITS

It's a record-breaking winter in Boston, in terms of least amount of snowfall. To remedy that, modern AC WBMX (Mix 98.5) Boston morning man John Lander will Let It Snow for a lucky New Englander. The prize is a Winter Wonder Lander," namely, six to 12 inches of manufactured snow delivered right to the winner's door. Contestants qualify by faxing to the show a petition of signatures taken from their neighborhood, school, or workplace. The listener with the most names on a petition will be building snowmen on his or her front lawn in no time. Anne Marie Strzelecki will provide the carrots in nose time.

The morning show of rhythmic top 40 WKTU New York will hold open auditions at three area malls in the tri-state area to help launch a singing career for some lucky folks. Would-be teen idols are invited to the event with a résumé and a song ready to perform (performers can bring a DAT tape or sing a cappella). A VIP panel of judges will be on hand to pick finalists, who then will have the chance to receive exposure on the station. Clara Malafarina expects big numbers at the audition.

Country KEEY (K102) Minneapolis is sponsoring Land O'Lakes Cheese Roll 2000 during halftime at a Timberwolves/Rockets game in the Target Center. After filling out an entry form, cheese lovers can get a chance to be one of 12 finalists who, with one randomly selected fan at the game, will roll the Cheese Roll 2000 dice at center court. Each finalist will get one chance to roll the dice; the first to roll all six dice and spell out the word "cheese" will win the grand prize. The finalist who rolls the largest number of Land O'Lakes logos will win the second prize of $1,000. "Cheese Louise!" exclaims Diana Buckmann.

FCC To Beat Congress On Sales Reforms?

FCC Chair Bill Kennard, long under fire from Capitol Hill for the FCC's lengthy merger reviews, is hoping to beat Congress to the punch by proposing internal reforms. Kennard has directed FCC general counsel Christopher Wright to review the process. Wright and his staff say they have come up with a way to ensure that even the most complex transactions are processed within 180 days. While implementation is already under way, the team is developing internal procedures to meet that deadline. Wright says the team has been working closely with FCC staff on pending applications "to ensure timely and consistent review," adding that a team is being created to "ensure consistent analysis of major transactions in a timely fashion." This session, the Senate Judiciary Committee is expected to take up a bill, sponsored by Mike DeWine, R-Ohio, and Herb Kohl, D-Wis., that would give the FCC three months to finish its merger-review process.

Kennard has rebuffed a last-ditch effort to delay the FCC from taking action on low-power FM (LPFM) at its Jan. 20 meeting. Kennard has turned down a request by National Assn. of Broadcasters president/CEO Eddie Fritts, who asked the FCC to delay its vote until its Feb. 17 meeting. Meanwhile, sources say the FCC plan will include both 10- and 100-watt

The draft decision, obtained by the NAB, apparently raised more questions than answers, so Fritts asked Kennard to delay the vote until the NAB could meet with FCC staffers. But Kennard replied the FCC had already granted the NAB four extensions. And while Fritts said the FCC is apparently abandoning its goal to preserve interference-free radio, Kennard replied, "I would never support any action that would disturb the integrity of the free over-theair radio service. I am confident that the [FCC's] action will follow this principle."

The FCC has flagged Journal Broadcasting's proposed $4.25 million purchase of adult top 40 KOEZ Wichita, Kan., from Kansas Radio Assets, citing concentration concerns.

CAPITAL: CLEAR CHANNEL SACRIFICES VIRGIN

Clear Channel has lost its bid to buy the U.K.'s Ginger Media Group to Scottish Media Group, which becomes the first British TV broadcaster to buy into radio. SMG will pay $370 million for the company, which includes rock AC Virgin Radio.

DIGITAL RADIO UPDATE

After being talked about for nearly a decade, it appears digital radio will become reality before the end of the year. The conversion will bring not only better sound quality but also the capability to stream data for programming, promotions, and advertising.

The developers of digital radio have until Jan. 24 to submit their technical proposals to the FCC, which will examine the plans and adopt a standard by next fall. The FCC is looking at two proposals. The first is called IBOC (in-band on-channel). It would allow stations to broadcast both analog and digital signals on their assigned frequencies during the conversion period. This is the plan favored by USA Digital Radio and Digital Radio Express. The second proposal would give stations new spectrum space, perhaps using TV spectrum space at channel 6, since all those stations have to be off that signal after 2006 as part of TV's conversion to digital.

One thing that should speed the process is the fact that competitors USADR and DRE formed a "strategic alliance" in early December, which essentially favors USADR's plan, thereby eliminating a "VHS vs. Beta" issue. USADR is owned by 12 of the top broadcasters, including Clear Channel, CBS, AMFM, ABC, Citadel, Cox, Cumulus, Emmis, Entercom, Hispanic Broadcasting, and Radio One. There is still another developer, Lucent Technologies.

While the FCC may piece together a hybrid from both companies' proposals, USADR president/CEO Robert Struble believes it will select one or the other, noting little commonality between the two systems. "We believe there's going to be one standard."

USADR engineers have been doing field testing of digital on a number of stations, including modern AC KLLC San Francisco, country WPOC Baltimore, and modern rock WHFS Washington, D.C. Earlier this month, USADR demonstrated its system on country KWNR Las Vegas during the Consumer Electronics Show. Lucent has also been busy testing its system, primarily on top 40 WPST Trenton, N.J.

Once the FCC has adopted a standard, Struble says, the rollout will occur fairly rapidly. He expects that 50 stations will be broadcasting in digital by the end of 2000, with receivers going on sale to consumers by the end of 2001.

The digital conversion will allow stations to also send along a data stream, which could be used for programming announcements, contesting, promotions, and advertising sales. Yet as the amount of streamed data increases, the quality of the sound goes down, explains Ben Benjamin, senior VP of product development for Lucent. "Programmers will need to think about how data needs are going to be competing with audio needs."

The ultimate test for digital radio will come when consumers are asking to throw their existing radios into the trash heap and replace them with new, digital receivers. So far, receiver manufacturers like Kenwood, Jensen, and Pioneer are waiting for the FCC to announce its standard before they start making radios. Once they do begin rolling out, the auto aftermarket and high-end in-home stereos will be the first to offer digital. With an estimated 550 million radios in use in the U.S., experts estimate it will take a minimum of 10 years to replace all radios with digital.

Like U.S. Markets, Toronto Warms Quickly To Top 40 Kiss 92 (And Its Un-American Spot Load)

We answer every E-mail and every phone call. The lines are crazy, but we try to get to every call

That's a little harder these days for PD Julie Adam and her staff at CISS Toronto. Not only does Kiss 92 air a lot of calls that begin with a listener expressing surprise at getting through, but there's even a promo in which a caller observes that rival CIDC can't be doing very well because the phones ring right away. (That might sound like radio hype, but having called the Kiss contest line, we can vouch for them.)
And there's more than anecdotal evidence of Kiss' success. After becoming Toronto's first full-signal top 40 last February, CISS was up 3.6-8.1 in the summer BBM ratings. In the fall book, it was fourth overall with a 7.6 12-plus and a 47 share in teens. That's an accomplishment on the scale of KXXM (Mix 96) San Antonio's, the fastest U.S. top 40 ramp-up in recent memory.

'A key to our

been not playing as many units as Julie Adam Program Director other stations' CISS Toronto

> Owner: Rogers Broadcasting Ratings: 3.9-3.6-8.1-7.6

Certain elements of Kiss 92 will be familiar to American PDs. Adam is a fan of KIIS Los Angeles, KUBE Seattle, and WKTU and WHTZ (Z100) New York, among others. The station's Million Dollar Phrase That Pays is "Kiss 92 plays today's hit music, now give me my money." (Kiss has thus far given away over $200,000 in increments of $1,000 to $40,000.) And like KHKS Dallas team, for example, Adam and MD Drew Keith are faster on rhythm titles than rock crossovers, if they play them at all. But Kiss differs from its U.S. counterparts in several key ways. It's more aggressive on R&B. It has a younger feel than most mainstream outlets (lots of stations count down the top seven at 7 p.m., but Kiss does it at 7 a.m., too). And Kiss has a spot load that most U.S. PDs would envy.

While top 40 languished in the U.S. during the mid-'90s, it wasn't even legal in Canada, where FMs were-until recently-compelled to play 51% "non-hit" music (anything that hadn't reached the top 40) and spin their top hits only two or three times a day. Those regulations were supposed to protect Canada's top 40 AMs, which survived a decade longer than their U.S. counterparts, but when those stations, including CFTR Toronto, went away in the early '90s, few FMs came along to replace them.

In the mid- to late '90s, two dance stations that had targeted Toronto from adjacent markets, CIDC and CING, segued to mainstream top 40. Finally, last winter, Rogers Broadcasting, which owns CHUM and heritage AC CHFI, LMA'ed then country CISS and flipped it to top 40 as Power 92, becoming Kiss 92 several weeks later after complaints from suburban dance outlet CKDX (Power 88.5), which has since gone country. Adam, APD of CISS in its country days, was named PD in March.

Although Adam says the goal was never to invoke the CFTR legacy, many of Kiss' key players were involved with CFTR in some way, including consultant Pat Bohn and Rogers national PD Sandy Sanderson. And the first two hires were CFTR vets: middayer K.J. and afternoon host Tarzan Dan. In April, the station teamed new morning host Jay "Mad-Dog" Michaels from Halifax, Nova Scotia, with Daryn Jones, a college student with no radio experience who'd been discovered on a Rogers Cable youth program and was, Adam says, "talented and funny and right for the radio station."

Kiss has a quiet storm-type show from midnight to 2 a.m. with overnighter Emcee Slim and a hip-hop show on Wednesday night. But its most unusual aspect is having just one stopset an hour (usually around :25) outside morning drive. While that strategy was widely tried here in the early '90s, most PDs decided it wasn't worth the 10 (or more) consecutive units that it necessitated. But Adam says, "It's not a really long break. One of the keys to our success has been not playing nearly as many units as other stations." Cluster length varies, but Monitor Cluster length varies, but Monitor clocked a 2 p.m. hour with five minutes and a six p.m. hour with six minutes.

That Kiss is able to keep its spot load low (or come across as unapologetically youth-oriented on the air) might seem to be a function of having an established AC next door, but Adam says, 'Kiss is responsible for its own revenue. It's just part of our committment to trying to be a good radio station." She also emphasizes that despite the big teen numbers, "74% of our cume is over 18, [and] we have big 18-plus numbers as well.'

That notwithstanding, Kiss 92 has no concerns about riding the teen-act bandwagon. "The Backstreet Boys are the ultimate top 40 stars right now, and the hysteria that surrounds them is incredible and unbeatable," says Adam. 'They're the ultimate boy band. They were just here, and they sold out [instantly]. They're coming back, and they've sold that concert out. They've got another block of tickets going on sale at noon today, and I imagine those are going to sell out in five minutes." Kiss contesting tied to those shows has included Backstreet Thursdays, where "we answered phones nonstop and gave tickets to every 92nd caller." Promotion director David Wannan and Kiss also arranged two 92-minute ticket blitzes live on Toronto "backstreets" before causing 10-mile freeway backups that forced them to quit.

One vestige of the old broadcast regulations that remains is the rule that requires most stations to play 35% Canadian music. Kiss, since its inception, has had to play 40% Canadian music—a promise it made in the early '90s in exchange for getting one of the market's last FM licenses. Despite that, Adam says, "there's a lot of Canadian music out there, [including] some wonderful Canadian artists that aren't signed to major labels . . . I worked with CMT when it started, and we saw tremendous growth in Canadian talent development for country, so we hope the same thing is going to happen now that there's an outlet.

Here's a monitor of Kiss 92 at 6:15 p.m. (Cancon is asterisked): Faith Evans, "Love Like This"; Lou Bega, "Tricky, Tricky"; Deborah Cox, "September"*; Boomtang Boys, "Dancing With Myself"*; 98°, "This Gift"; Ol' Dirty Bastard, "Got Your Money"; Britney Spears, "(You Drive Me) Green, "Brite Mel Gister "Book Att. Drive Me) Crazy"; Brian McKnight, "Back At One"; Choclair, "Let's Ride"*; Prozzak, "Europa"*; and D-Cru, "I Will Be Waiting."

While many market observers expected a full-signal top 40 to do well in Toronto, Adam was surprised by how quickly Kiss kicked in. Adam says, "Part of the beauty of the station [was] that there were no ratings for us until the summer book, so we just did what felt right. Station manager Chuck McCoy is just a brilliant radio guy. So having him lead the way, we just did a lot of stuff on instinct. When you start seeing thousands of teenagers around the Kiss Hummer at the Backstreet Boys [show], you know [it must be working], but you never expect success SEAN ROSS

will always be a

it's a good thing for top 40 to have artists

that matter'

charted more than once at other formats.

It raises the question: Is the growing top 40 audience becoming more artist-loyal? The answer, from both programmers and label promotion executives, is a resounding, "Yes, somewhat..."

"I don't know if listeners are more artist-loyal, but radio stations hope they will be," WZPL Indianapolis PD Scott Sands says. "One critical part of my programming philosophy is to take ownership of artists, especially those that are shared by my competition. Whenever someone hears Smash mouth, I want the listener to think of 'ZPL."

Some of the new artist loyalty may be because with top 40's resurgence having begun at least five years ago, the artists the format discovered in the mid-'90s have had time to establish themselves. Other reasons include the format paying more attention to teens, labels concentrating their efforts on getting more hits out of fewer releases, and artists who are more willing to press the flesh and make themselves personally available to their fans and who have the ability to put on a good show.

THE MORE THE MERRIER

"Over the past 18 months to two years, top 40 has gone back to what made the format successful over the course of time, and that is appealing to a younger demo as its core audience," says Arista VP of top 40 promotion Jim Elliott. "It has become more of a 12-24 format, and it's reaping the rewards of going back to its roots. A number of acts that have achieved success with the younger end are getting repeated shots whenever they have a new project. I've always felt that if an artist is on a roll at the format and has had two [straight] big hits, that artist's next song deserves the benefit of a doubt, until they've shown themselves not to be relevant to the audience."

PDs, who are less likely to say publicly that they're focusing on 12-24, see other factors at work. In fact, some cite label consolidation as being at least partly responsible for multi-hit albums. "As much as top 40 will always be a song-driven format, it's a good thing for top 40 to have artists that matter," says KKRZ (Z100)

Portland, Ore., PD Tommy Austin. "However, as the record labels consolidated, they cut back on the amount of product and started focusing on the artists' [albums] depthwise, and the artists also started recording better music."

While label execs assert that they've always gone for depth in the lion's share of their releases, they do agree that the artists have been giving them more potential hits to work with. "Top 40 is at a critical point with [artist loyalty]," says Jive senior VP of pop promotion Joe Riccitelli. "The format has never been known to be that

"The format has never been known to be that way. Part of the reason [for multi-hit success] is that we are actually giving them the right second, third, and fourth singles. With that kind of depth in product, it's easier for top 40 to stay loyal. And it's mutually beneficial for both of us to give them the right [follow-up] singles, which puts the pressure on the record company [to do that]."

Interscope head of top 40 promotion Chris Lopes, who's about to release Smash mouth's third single, "Waste," says, "When you have an artist with more than one hit single on a record, it's going to sell a lot of product, because the second and third singles make the less-active music buyer finally go buy the album. I think both radio stations and their audience are initially more accepting with a follow-up to a huge single, and I'm happy to have that as an advantage. Yet eventually the [follow-up] single has to stand up on its own merit and prove itself to go all the way. It has to perform up to the same standards as the previous hit."

"You still have a problem with black acts at top 40," Elliott adds. "Outside of Will Smith and TLC, whom I consider to be universal artists, none of the other [R&B-oriented] records have been a walk in the park. Look at the current top 40 chart: The only R&B/crossover artists with current hits are Whitney Houston and Brian McKnight. Top 40 programmers still have a 'prove it to me' attitude with those artists' next releases, as opposed to the more instant acceptance of a white artist coming off a top 10 record. When a group like Next, which had an enormous top five record at the format, comes out with their next song, they'll still have to deal with that 'prove it to me' attitude."

GETTING IN THEIR FACE

Another oft-cited reason for recent multiple hits is the new crop of talent's ability to perform live and their willingness to meet their fans, either through station concerts or promotional appearances.

"Labels are doing a much better job of putting a face and persona to the name," says WNVZ (Z104) Norfolk, Va., PD Don London. "Lou Bega looks like a unique, fun personality. People get a feel for his whole image. Look back at the 'Macarena' guys or Tina Arena. What did the audience know about them? With Britney, Christina, and Ricky, their images are really cutting through. When the audience can feel and touch the artists, they have a better chance of succeeding. Country [artists] have been running circles around top 40 in that respect."

Sands agrees. "Country's success comes from Sands agrees. "Country's success comes from the loyalty the artists build with their audience through events like Fan Fair, where they press the flesh with the people who spend money on their records. For a long time, many top 40 artists were unapproachable by radio and their fan base. Artists who take time out of their schedules to do station shows and goof off on the radio turn listeners into fans, and in the long term that's to everybody's advantage. The audience is more willing to spend money on their next CD, too. Plus, radio will stick around, because they like them on a personal level."

inf touring, we're finding more sponsors who enable us to put on better shows, to offset losses and increase gains," Riccitelli says. "Sponsors give our artists more access to people. I wish I could say it's now easier to get Backstreet Boys to meet people on the last leg of their tour, but it isn't. But having a sponsor gives us more of a leg to stand on on.

"I believe [promo appearances] have to happen for any artist in the pop genre, especially those who are so magnetic," he adds. "When they meet people, they make connections. Look at Christina Aguilera's launch. It was almost an exact duplication of what we did with Britney."

Yet some wonder whether these artists can translate multi-single success into multi-album success, especially given radio's historical ability to burn out an artist with recurrent play before a second album even drops. "People said the same thing when they were talking about Jewel and Alanis a couple of years ago," says WZPL MD Dave Decker. "A lot of people have two or three hits off one album, but few have two or three hit albums in a row."

"The Backstreet Boys and Sugar Ray have done well with their follow-up albums," WHTS Davenport, Iowa, PD Tony Waitekus counters. "And I don't think anyone is going to be very cautious about the upcoming 'N Sync album or the next Britney album. These acts are hot right now for several reasons. No. I is they put out good-quality hit songs, but they also have a hit sound and a look."

Says WKRZ Wilkes-Barre, Pa., PD Jerry Padden, "We're in such a good climate of music right now, people really want to hear what these artists will put out next. Bottom line, it still comes down to the song, not the artist. Artist loyalty and longevity? Talk to me when their next album or two comes out."

Honesty Vs. Showmanship: Where's The Line?

Even after more than a year of negative local press stories on collective contesting—the national contests that aren't always obvious to listeners as such—it was still a little mind-blowing to see The Syracuse (N.Y.) Post Standard report that the Clear Channel stations there were not only running national contests but dubbing their own jocks into promos featuring out-oftown winners. Suddenly, the issue wasn't just whether stations were calling enough attention to the national nature of their contest but whether they were deliberately obscuring it.

A rival broadcaster calls collective contesting "a cynical, arrogant thing to propagate on all of radio." But even if that's true, it's not the first standard radio practice that could be characterized that way. Some of the rival broadcasters that compete with collective contesting, I'm sure, have exemplary relationships with their audience based on trust and honesty. But there are probably plenty of others whose jocks coach their request-line callers to ask for the song they were going to play anyway. Or announce that the No. 1 song on the top seven at 7 got 1,300 votes tonight, when even major-market stations are happy to get that many requests for a song in a week. Or make up the top seven at 7 altogether, for that matter.

But that's not contesting, right? So maybe these broadcasters' jocks have never edited a winner's phone call to make sure they said the call letters correctly at the end (or worse, misedited the call so that what they were trying to do became apparent to the listener). And while these broadcasters might be correct in their belief that collective contesting—when revealed—contributes to listeners' cynicism about station giveaways, that cynicism was probably fostered the first time a station promised "a chance at a million dollars" and gave away lottery tickets, if not by the slate of insurance-game giveaways that followed.

This isn't an effort to defend collective contesting, merely to put it in perspective—a perspective that's often lost in an industry where the line between dishonesty and showmanship has been blurred from the beginning. Was it lying to the listener when a station tried to make its two-vehicle van fleet sound larger by dubbing the vans Nos. 37 and 43? When stations made their 225-song gold libraries sound bigger with stagers promoting "the largest classic rock library" in town? When stations imaged themselves around the 22-song music sweeps that they run only a few times a day? When they gave their Anglo air talent Hispanic surnames in the mid-'80s to cash in on the Latin dance boom? When they gave listeners a chance to "design your own radio station," when, in fact, most of the format details were long determined? We've heard reality bent, er, repositioned, so many times in the past 45 years that we're a little fuzzy on its parameters ourselves.

A lot of people in our industries have trouble with those parameters off the air, too. Certainly, if broadcasters had all understood that reporting a playlist meant telling people every record they were actually playing and not the ones that they weren't, there would have been no need for BDS. That particular sort of dishonesty has been sharply reduced, but if you're anywhere in the business, you're still likely to encounter lies somewhere. For any trade journalist, it's the broadcasters who swear that they're not changing their station's format, firing their morning show, selling their station, or changing jobs themselves, usually 24 hours before doing the exact things they denied. It happens plenty, but the few whom you actually believe are the ones you thought you had a relationship with. Those that aren't avoiding you afterward usually express astonishment that you're upset—they view it as just part of the game. Or you find out that the web of lies was more elaborate (i.e., "Well, I was still telling my staff that they weren't getting fired. I couldn't tell you.")

Eventually, people in the industry get used to the game enough to become at least a little inured to it. They sort of understand that not everybody glad-handing them at a convention would return their call if they were unemployed. And cynicism propagates more cynicism. Game not only recognizes but fosters game. What's different these days is that listeners are likely to recognize games, too.

An increasingly media-savvy audience will, in the near future, probably come to know a lot more about radio than just how national contesting works. And if they were really more interested in being entertained than in any of the particulars—the "it's only a movie" school of radio—than they'd long ago have given up on trying to interact with radio stations in a way that they don't with other forms of entertainment. Honesty is still a valued commodity for listeners. And sometimes it's amazing that the same PDs who decided years ago that "big" voices on the radio were "jive" didn't reach the same conclusion about manipulating the audience.

Songs ranked by audience, computed by cross-referencing exact times of airplay with Arbitron listener data. Records showing an increase in audience over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in audience. If two records are tied in total audience, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records become recurrents and are removed from this chart in conjunction with the Mainstream Top 40 Airplay chart.

Songs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records

Songs ranked by audience, computed by cross-referencing exact times of airplay with Arbitron listener data. Records showing an increase in audience over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in audience. If two records are tied in total audience, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records become recurrents and are removed from this chart in conjunction with the Rhythmic Top 40 Airplay chart.

Songs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most Naw Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Songs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 25 weeks.

Compiled from a national sample of data supplied by Broadcast Data Systems. 110 mainstream top 40, 35 rhythmic top 40, 81 adult top 40 and 61 crossover stations are electronically monitored 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Songs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on a chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a builtet, even if it registers an increase in detections, Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. ©2000 Billboard/BPI Communications.
