Mainstream Top 40 Programmers Consider Playing The Dance Card

by Jeff Silberman

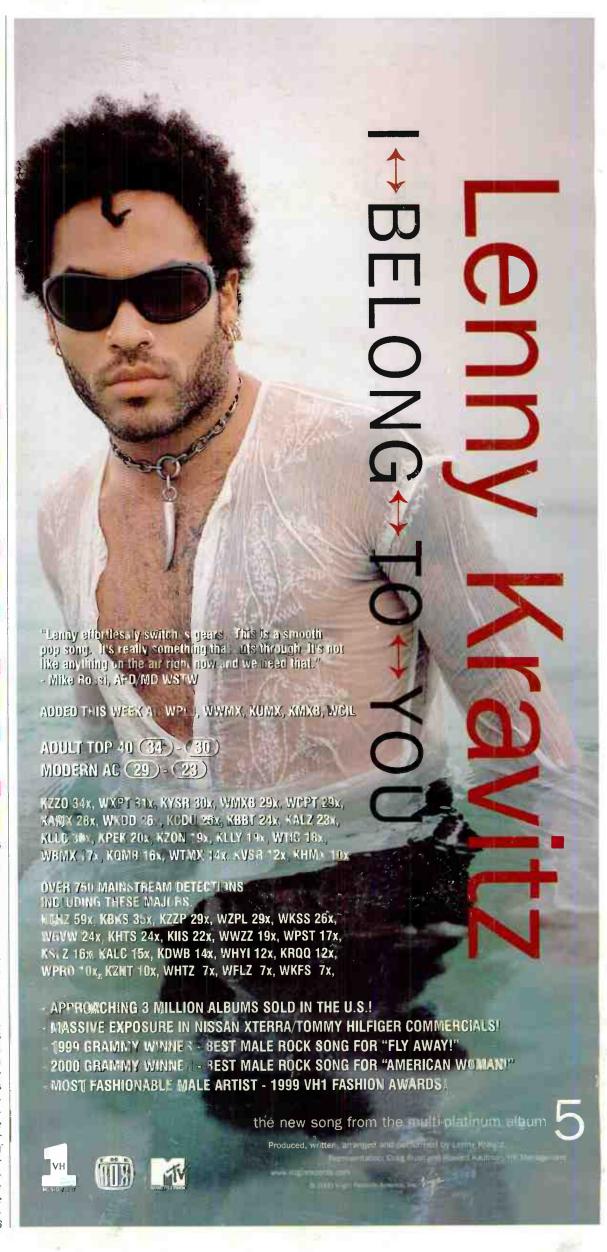

Proponents of the oft-abused genre have been expecting a dance pop renaissance since Cher's "Believe" became one of 1999's biggest hits. But now, with the success of Eiffel 65's "Blue (Da Ba Dee)" and other recent titles (including hits from Jennifer Lopez and Vengaboys), there seems to be both a greater number of PDs who are amenable to dance records and a larger number of records to play for those who liked dance music all along.

The genre also seems to be getting a new infusion of energy from the mainstream breakthrough of trance records like Sonique's "It Feels So Good," Alice Deejay's "Better Off Alone," Angel-moon's "He's All I Want," and even Madonna's "American Pie." Trance records, which might have been confined to a WPOW (Power 96) Miami six months ago, are now on main-stream rival WHYI (Y100) and getting airplay beyond South Florida.

How far beyond? Well, when "It Feels So Good" or Amber's "Sexual (Li Da Di)" work on a pop/rock top 40 like KMXV (Mix 93.3) Kansas City, something must be happening.

"We've never seen dance music work in Kansas City until recently," says KMXV PD Jon Zellner." "In fact. since I've been here, the R&B records by Next, TLC, and Brian McKnight have always worked much better than dance. It wasn't until recently that we could play an Amber and a Sonique as early as we are now, and we're real excited about it Popular music is definitely shifting in the Midwest. We're able io play more of it now than a year ago, because the compatibility levels of those type of songs with the Sugar Rays, Filters, and Kid Rocks have increased. Before, people who enjoy modern and pop couldn't stand white dance or R&B music. Now they've be-

Mayhem In Mornings Nationwide

Who says that consolidation and syndication have led to a lack of morning opportunities? Stations such as WBTS (the Beat) Atlanta; WNVZ (Z104) Norfolk, Va.; and KZON (the Zone) Phoenix are still seeking the perfect morning show. They have just been joined by WKRQ (Q102) Cincinnati, which bids adieu to Dr. Bruce Maimans, and KXME (Extreme Radio) Honolulu, which gave a lovely parting lei to Jimmy the Geek.

Meanwhile, one station that has changed morning shows is rhythmic top 40 KPTY (Party Radio) Phoenix, which sent the syndicated Mancow Muller packing and moved afternoon host (and former MD) Dead Air Dave there.

JEFF SILBERMAN 323-525-2303 • jsilberman@airplaymonitor.com

PD Byron Kennedy takes over in afternoons. Also settling on its morning show is WIOQ (Q102) Philadelphia, where afternoon driver Chio takes the gig permanently. He was replaced in afternoons last week by KBKS (Kiss 106) Seattle APD/p.in. driver Matt "L.A."

Finally, oldies WMNG Christiansted, Virgin Islands, won't be tapping the Greaseman for mornings. The St. Croix (V.I.) Source reports that owner Jonathan Cohen reconsidered his offer to the former WARW Washington, D.C., morning man, fired for racist comments last year, after a community uproar and physical

A Good Week For Santana At Rhythmic

GRAMMY SWEEPER Carlos Santana's "Maria Maria" (Arista) bullets in its 21st week at rhythmic top 40, as it continues to increase in rhythmic detections. (In addition, Santana's "Smooth" reenters the rhythmic chart.) Similarly, although it has spent 26 weeks on the AC chart, Lonestar's 'Amazed'' (BNA) earns a bullet, due to significant gains in detections. In last week's Monitor, "Amazed" was up 119 spins; this week, the song is up 50 spins.

Savage Garden's "I Knew I Loved You" (Columbia) marks its 12th week atop the AC chart, besting the group's "Truly Madly Deeply," which spent 11 weeks at No. 1 in spring 1998.

Vertical Horizon's Top 40 Airplay Monitor debut becomes its first Monitor No. 1, as "Everything"

You Want" (RCA) ascends to the top of the modern AC chart.

PANEL CHANGES: WEAT West Palm Beach, Fla., is added to the adult contemporary panel. There are now 74 AC reporters.

Emmis Portal Debuting As Soon As Next Month

groups are finally readying their own Internet portal, to launch possibly as soon as next month, Monitor has learned.

"We need to capitalize on the economies of scale," says Emmis CEO Jeff Smulyan, who has lobbied other groups since last summer to work together on a portal that will compete with such sites as Broadcast.com.

Emmis has hired a division of CMGI, an Internet consulting firm that has worked on sites including Lycos, AltaVista, and GeoCities. CMGI will design the site layout and software, although details are closely guarded.

"It will be different than anything that is out there," boasts Rey Mena, VP of Emmis Interactive. Although Mena won't discuss what the site will feature, E-commerce is likely. "The goal is to compete, not just an Internet play," says Mena, who adds that radio must leverage its strengths and its numbers. "With all our stations, you get some pretty substantial reach

FCC: CONSOLIDATION INFIGHTING

FCC Commissioner Gloria Tristani is attacking the agency's Mass Media Bureau (MMB) for approving two deals. In the first, the FCC is allowing AMFM to sell five stations in southern Connecticut, including classic rock WEFX Stamford and album WPLR New Haven, to Cox. The MMB ruled that since AMFM was allowed to control 88% of the market's advertising revenues, Cox should be allowed the same set of stations. "I have serious doubts that this level of concentration of the public airwaves is in the public interest," says Tristani, adding she would have forced AMFM to find other buyers.

The second deal under fire from Tristani involves Citadel's purchase of eight stations in Augusta/Waterville, Maine, from Pilot Communications, including top 40 WMME, adult top 40 WQHR, AC WCRQ, and country outlets WEBB and WBPW. She charges Citadel played a "shell game" with overlapping signals to buy more stations than she believes it should be legally allowed to own. "The only way this transaction could be approved is through the regulatory sleight-of-hand," says Tristani.

Meanwhile, the Senate Commerce Committee has scheduled a hearing March 22 on the nomination of Republican FCC Commissioner Susan Ness to a second term.

CAPITAL: MEL IS AN SFX MACHINE?

As consolidation continues, companies that got out of radio may end up back in the business. The latest example could be SFX, which is reportedly the apple of CBS CEO Mel Karmazin's eye. The March 6 edition of Business-Week quotes sources as saying CBS is interested in buying a stake in SFX Entertainment, which sold its radio holdings to Capstar. SFX now concentrates on concert promotions and producing live events. But SFX "firmly denies that it is in any negotiation whatsoever with CBS or any of its related companies on any transaction involving either an investment in SFX or a combination with SFX," it said in a Feb. 25 statement. A CBS spokesman would only say the company does not comment on speculation.

Clear Channel chairman Lowry Mays admits the company was "presumptuous" about how quickly it would roll up AMFM into its fold. "We vere not as successful at proceeding through [the Department of] Justice as we thought," he told analysts during a conference call to discuss quarterly earnings. Mays now believes the deal will close by Sept. 30.

AN OVERVIEW OF RADIO PROMOTIONS • BY JEFF SILBERMAN

Who Wants To Read About Promotions?

A last-second surge of interest in the Grammy Awards helped catapult them to the Top-ical Barometer crown over spring-break promotions, St. Patrick's Day, and the Internet. Plans for the spring are still in development at most U.S. stations, but top 40 CKIK (Power 107) Calgary, Alberta, is already well into its big book effort. For each week of Fantasy February, Power has given away a different fantasy, such as a visit to see a taping of "Ally McBeal," a trip to the Grammys with postawards party invites, and a "Pretty Woman" package, which is "basically all the stuff Julia Roberts did in the movie" (without the hooker part), says Michael Godfrey, who claims to remember exactly what that was

In a similar tack, modern AC WBMX (Mix 98.5) Boston held a Rock, Shop & Recover contest, where the grand-prize winner will receive VIP treatment to see Smash mouth and Luscious Jackson, a shopping spree at a local outlet mall, and a trip to a local ski resort for a luxury weekend of "recovery," complete with accommodations, lift tickets, a day in the resort's spa, and dinner for two. Anne Marie Strzelecki came up with a nice mix of prizes.

Although not charting yet, interest is rising around baseball's spring training. Country WYNY (Y107) New York will send a listener and guest to the New York Mets' spring training site and Disney World. After watching Country KNIX Phoenix will stage its annual Diamond Dig with the Oakland A's. WHO WANTS TO DO A MILLIONAIRE PROMOTION?

Modern AC KFMB-FM (Star 100.7) San Diego, for instance. In its takeoff on the ludicrously popular game show "Who Wants To Be A Millionaire," listeners compete four times a day for cash. If they answer a question at 7 a.m. correctly, they play again at 11 a.m. If they get that question right, they play again at 3 p.m., and so on. "They keep going until they answer incorrectly," says Kim Leeds, who's cashing in on the extra time spent

Country KEEY (K102) Minneapolis held a contest in February called Who Wants To Be A Mazatlánaire? "We gave away 20 trips to Mazatlán, Mexico" says Diana Buckmann. 'We played five times a day, and the contestant chose from three different trivia categories each time. A correct answer to the first question won a commemorative Y2K102 Tshirt. A second correct answer won tickets to see the Judds in Minneapolis. A third correct answer won the trip to Mazatlán. We also promoted it on our Web site. Each day at 1:15 p.m., we picked a Web site entry to play the game. When the name was announced, they had 10 minutes to call back and play. We had 100% of the people call in to play. The contest has been a huge success.'

WHO WANTS TO DO THE GOOFIEST MORNING SHOW STUNT?

Talk about some worthy nominees:

 Top 40 WFLZ Tampa, Fla., morning duo BJ and MJ hosted a Dwarf Launch, where they strapped co-host Dave the Dwarf to large helium balloons and sent him off into the skies. Watching the skies for her Dwarf star was Shannon Wray.

• AC KVOP-FM Plainview, Texas, morning duo Terry Wright and wife Sally moseyed for 13 miles while wearing a cow suit in a weightloss drive to raise money for the American Heart Assn. Before a small entourage of local media and fellow walkers, he wore the udders while she wore the horns. The entourage, including the walkers and a mini-van, crawled along I-27 at a neck-breaking four miles per hour. The pair received certificates of appreciation from two local town mayors.

• After Chief Billy Swamp of the Seminole Indian tribe lost his last right finger and part of his hand to Digit the alligator, top 40 WHYI (Y100) Miami morning co-host Super Jonny decided to wrestle the alligator. The live and unrehearsed event included Hooters girls, buffalo wings, various other festivities, and the entire Y100 morning show in the state-of-theart Alligator Arena. Apparently, Camie Dunbar couldn't get Mike Tyson to do it.

• Country WPKX (Kix 97.9) Springfield, Mass., stunt guy Shaggie wanted to see how long he could ride inside a clothes dryer. Morning hosts R.J. and Jack O'Neil took listener predictions on how long he could last; the closest guess would win Martina McBride tickets. Shaggy first stuffed the dryer with a blanket and pillow for padding; even so, he only lasted 55 seconds.

Ironing out the wrinkles in that stunt was Jerry West, who previously had Shaggie dress up as George Washington on President's Day. To commemorate the historic crossing of the Delaware River, Shaggie stood in a boat on a trailer attached to the back of the Kix van as it crossed the Connecticut River via two bridges. Afterward, he handed out several hundred cherry pies to passers-by.

TOP 40 TOPICS BY SEAN ROSS

Sean Names His Single Of The Decade

Technically, if I was going to write a column assessing the musical legacy of the '90s, I probably should've done it before March. But while I'd already gotten "best of the '90s" lists from most of my friends by mid-December, mine has become a major project. That's partially because being thorough requires going through at least three reference books: not just the pop charts but also the country and British charts. At this writing, I'm just getting to "J" in my copy of Joel Whitburn's "Top Pop Singles."

That the best songs of the '90s, particularly from the early part of decade, were spread over so many formats speaks volumes about why few radio people are thinking of the decade as an exploitable era for oldies yet. A lot of early-'90s country hits are probably familiar to a lot more listeners than, say, "The One And Only" by Chesney Hawkes, and yet they were never officially part of the pop universe. And if you were to play them on the "Retro Flashback Lunch," where would you put "Dre Day"?

And those records at least got widespread airplay somewhere. A lot of the best early-'90s stuff was played only at modern rock when that format existed on just a handful of stations, meaning that the number of people likely to know "Born Of Frustration" by James is small. And there were a lot of great British hits that barely got played here (e.g., "Fascinating Rhythm" by Bass-O-Matic, an early-'90s studio project of then little-known producer William Orbit).

What did get played on top 40 was often soft AC in disguise (e.g., "Set The Night To Music" by Roberta Flack or "When I'm Back On My Feet Again" by Michael Bolton). And while those weren't the only forgettable hits of that era (I have a hard time remembering what, say, "I Wanna Love You" by Jade sounds like), I've stumped a lot of folks by asking them which top 10 Amy Grant single followed "Baby Baby" and "Every Heartbeat." (Only two knew, and neither immediately.)

We've already seen that nobody knows how to program any era of music when listeners split into camps. It's easy to program a 1956-71 oldies format. After that, PDs get confused. We've had numerous oldies formats come out of the '70s, from Arrow to "Jammin' oldies.' Separately, they're each worth a 2 to 3 share. Together, nobody knows how to make all the music work at all. And '70s top 40 did play "D'yer Mak'er" and "Rock The Boat" on one frequency, albeit uneasily. Add that sort of confusion to the fact that top 40 doesn't need to augment a relatively strong supply of current music with oldies and one might assume that the early '90s will stay buried forever.

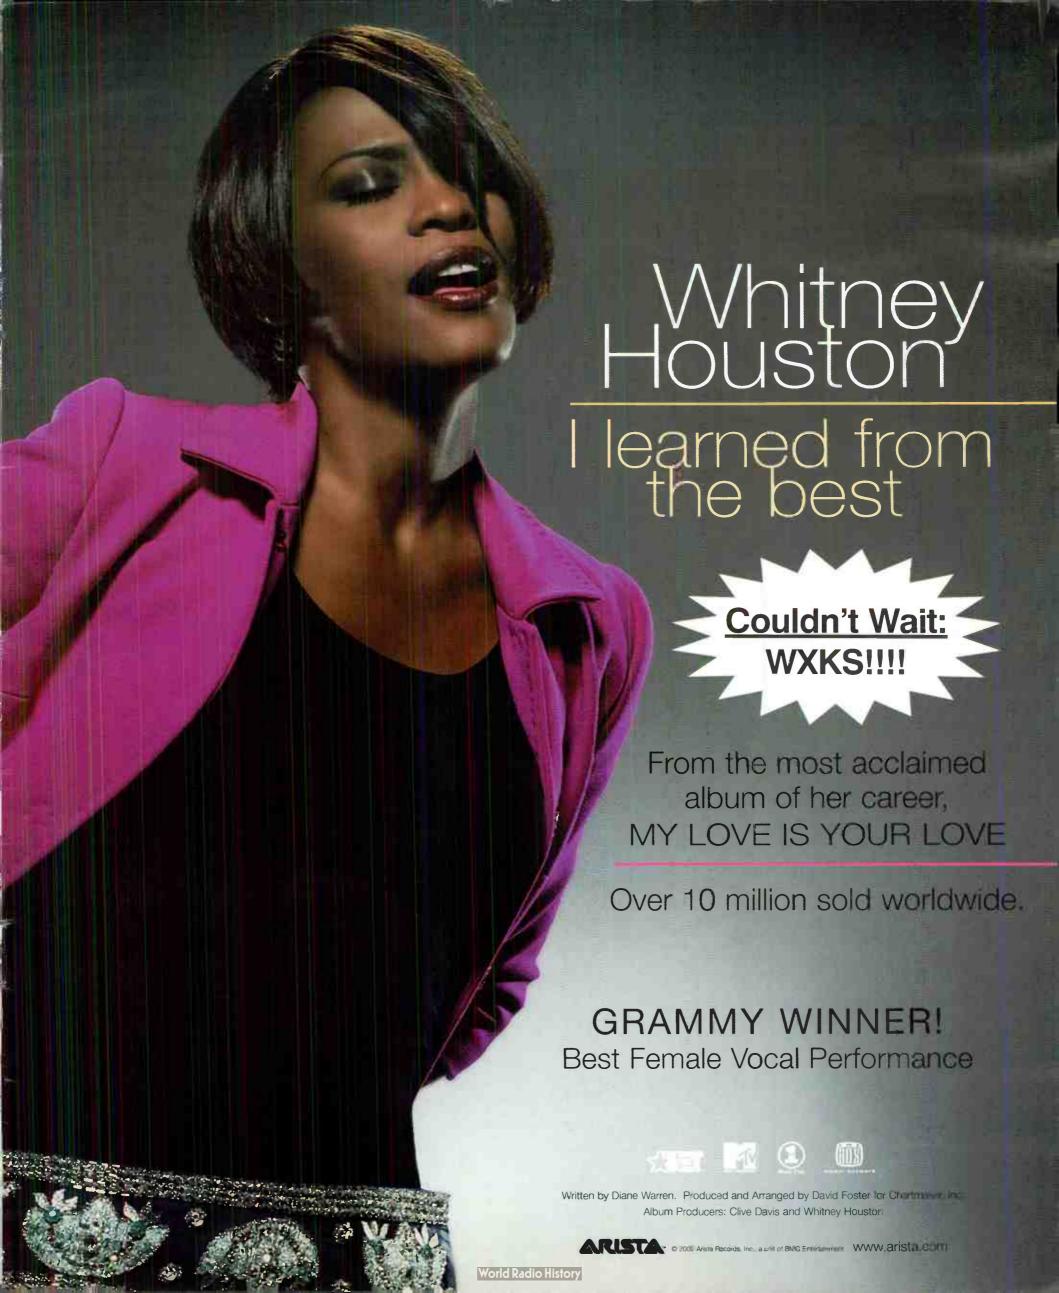

It is, theoretically, possible that an entire era of music will stay buried forever. That's what happened to 1980-82. As in the early '90s, a lot of markets were without top 40 stations, or successful ones, so it was hard for even a major top 40 hit to reach critical mass with listeners. The best records were either R&B titles that didn't really cross to pop ("Burn Rubber On Me"), album rock hits that only sort of crossed over ("The Stroke"), or modern rock nuggets that barely dented top 40 ("1 Got You," "Turning Japanese") or missed it altogether ("Save It For Later"). Ironically, those songs sneak into today's flashback weekends, but many of the biggest hits of that era ("Bette Davis Eyes," "Stars On 45") are completely lost. And the secondary ones-even the ones I like ("Deep Inside My Heart" by Randy Meisner)—may as well not even have existed.

But I'm expecting that the early '90s will be back on the radio. Top 40 may not need oldies right now, but adult top 40 does need to separate itself from mainstream top 40. While it's hard to imagine "Do Me" or even "Escapade" on the hard rockin' hot ACs of the past few years, many are dealing with rhythm again, meaning that it will eventually be less of a stretch.

It's also the case that at least a few of the early-'90s records that top 40 missed will loom larger in listeners' memories than the actual amount of airplay that they got would suggest. "It's Raining Men" was hardly common currency in 1982. Neither was "Kiss Me" by Stephen Tin-Tin Duffy, but it shows up on retro lunch shows in markets where you probably couldn't even buy it at the time (e.g., KLRS Chico, Calif.). And if it's hard to imagine a time when listeners will be ready for Kris Kross again, well, we thought that about "Ring My Bell" and "Y.M.C.A." for a while, too. (Hint: Adult top 40 WQSX Boston traffics heavily in "Jammin' oldies," but it plays "U Can't Touch This" seven to nine times a week.)

And there are still early-'90s records that never stopped sounding good. Mary J. Blige's "Real Love" was one of those rare records that took a genre both backward and forward; it has emerged, after some indecision, as my single of the decade. And while the great pop/rock records of the early '90s were few and far between at the time, there are more than there seemed at the time ("Connected," "I've Been Thinking About You," "Life Is A Highway," "I Touch Myself," "Right Here, Right Now," "Unbelievable," etc.), especially if you just need enough for a category, not an entire radio station. Songs like "Two Princes" were, by necessity, overexposed, but never really diminished.

Ultimately, like the pre-Beatles early '60sanother part of a decade that is often dismissed, until you figure in Phil Spector, early Motown, the doo-wop revival, and the artists who kept Buddy Holly's sound alive for several years-folks will have to remember the early '90s as not without merit. And maybe more favorably than that.

come more open to that sound."

Even among advocates, the greater quantity of dance hits has made it easier. WXXL (XL106.7) Orlando, Fla., PD Adam Cook says, "There has always been an appetite for dance songs in this market, and they've been a signature of our station. In the past, we've had to go out and find those songs in the clubs and elsewhere. Having these songs [available] gives us more good music to choose from and a better quality of dance music, too. Dance is really important to our 18-34 audience, which is why it's a pretty big part of the station."

"The quality of dance music is better," WLAN Lancaster, Pa., PD Vince D'Ambrosio affirms. "There's a lot of good dance music out there now. Most of it used to be strictly meant for the clubs, but lately more of it has been geared for the radio."

'NOTHING IS DEFINITE'

However, other programmers are not so quick to jump on a dance bandwagon. "I'd say it's making a small renaissance, but nothing is definitive yet," says WHT'S Davenport, Iowa, PD Tony Waitekus. "We still determine if it's a hit on a record-by-record basis, which is how we look at every genre."

In fact, even some dance music supporters are hesitant to label it a trend. While WKSE Buffalo, N.Y., PD Dave Universal never stopped playing dance, he says, "Pop/dance records by Christina Aguilera, Jennifer Lopez, and Britney Spears may dominate the format, and they seem to blur the line between dance and pop. But I'm still having a problem getting white dance music to test. Eiffel 65 is about the only exception to the fact that those records have yet to call out that well. And I'd love to see it happen, to go back to the days when WIOQ [(Q102) Philadelphia] and WQHT [(Hot 97) New York] were dance stations, especially with spring and summer coming up.

"To be sure, we're giving these records a fair shot, with 20-25 spins out of the box, and we don't pull them after one week of bad call-out, yet they never seem to test," Universal adds. As was the case during the last dance boom in 1995-96, pop/dance product still has a reputation of appealing only to the audience that grew up with it 10-12 years ago. "I've found that the younger end likes the black rhythmic stuff, while the white dance product seems to test with upper-end females. It has been like this for the past few years. Young females would rather hear the Jam'n [WJMN Boston], B96 [WBBM Chicago], and WQHT rhythmic record."

"For us, dance songs typically test better with 18-34s and 25-32s," Cook says. "Those demos love Sonique and Alice Deejay, so there's no reason to daypart them. In fact, we're always looking for uptempo music to put between the ballads and country crossovers during the day. In fact, we schedule them [differently from] an LFO, which is a dance-ish record the younger kids like."

"We [schedule dance records] on a record-byrecord basis," Waitekus says. "Eiffel 65 was so hot, it went around the clock out of the chute. The Sonique [track] is getting played around the clock, because we had a good feel about that from the get-go. We saw good things happen in other markets, too, so we gave it the benefit of the doubt."

In Kansas City, "we opened up Amber and Sonique at night," Zellner says. "Sonique is now a full-time record, while the Amber [track] has worked its way up to 3 p.m. Currently, we're seeing decent call-out potential on both records, but [getting good call-out] has been a problem in the past."

WWZZ (Z104) Washington, D.C., PD Dale O'Brian—one of the PDs who didn't stop supporting dance in 1997-98—offers a slightly different perception. "There's a fairly consistent appetite for dance music in this market, and we're the only radio outlet for them to get it," he says. "Eiffel was a huge phone record that had big callout for just a short while, but they still do well on the phones. Sonique looks like it'll be a good phone and call-out record over a consistently longer period of time."

Although WLAN doesn't do call-out, D'Ambrosio sees a unique pattern with dance music when it comes to requests. "They seem to start off hot on the phones, but once we start playing them, they stop calling for it," he says. "For instance, the Amber record was getting top five requests before we even put it on. I don't know where they heard it before. I do know that 'Open House Party' played it a few times and, being in close proximity to Philadelphia and Baltimore, people may have heard it while visiting those markets. Even so, soon after we put it on, the requests slowed up a bit."

In the Midwest, just the opposite may be true. "We thought the Eiffel 65 was burnt a number of weeks back, but we just got an audience test back, and it's still as hot as it ever was," Waitekus says.

When it comes to burn, there doesn't seem to be a consensus on how fast dance hits wear out. "They normally burn slower, but with two stations now playing them in this market [WXXL and WPYO], that may quicken the burn," Cook says. "At this point, I'm not seeing any fatigue on dance songs. Eiffel 65 burned fairly quickly, but I think that was more due to its novelty appeal. The same can be said for Lou Bega's 'Mambo No. 5 (A Little Bit Of...)."

"There is a burn factor to consider," D'Ambrosio adds. "I don't expect to see a lot of these songs in our gold category in about six months. These types of songs are more about the moment."

SHOULD WE BE DANCING?

While the dance boom is still nascent and not a slam-dunk, many top 40 programmers would love to see it happen, at the very least to give them a greater latitude in balancing out their playlists. "I would love to see dance music become the Latin pop boom of 2000, but that hasn't happened yet," Universal says. "I don't think it will happen until we can play the hooks over a phone line and have it test with younger-end females."

Then there are those "artist image" concerns that were so often cited during the mid-'70s, which have been only slightly offset by the surprise durability of an artist like Amber. "It remains to be seen if dance will be the next big thing," O'Brian says. "It's rare to find dance acts that consistently put out big hits. Three years ago, La Bouche was as hot as fire. They looked like they were on a great track and ... poof! What happened to them?

"Over the years, there have been so many onehit dance wonders. Not that many of them have been able to hang around. When it comes to artists like Sonique and Eiffel 65, I just hope I can get another two or three great tracks off their current albums," he adds.

MONITOR PROFILE

Jeff McHugh Discovers That Top 40's Grass Is Greener At WKZL Greensboro

A couple of years ago, WKZL Greensboro, N.C., Jeff McHugh sent Top 40 Airplay Monitor a letter to the editor. He was taking issue with a Top 40 Topics column that described the Triad as one of the markets that still needed a mainstream top 40. At that time, McHugh, like many PDs, believed the hole was covered between WKZL, then a hot AC station, and crossover R&B outlet WJMH (102 Jamz). When WKZL did modify its format, it instead turned to modern AC in an attempt to head off a similar format change by then country WKSL.

"Everybody knows Dick Broadcasting is extremely research -driven," says McHugh, "and [interest in a] top 40 has never shown up in research in Greensboro. There hasn't been a top 40 success story here since WKSI in the '80s, and that didn't last long, either."

But with WKZL locked in a war of attrition with WKSI (and also facing soft AC WMAG), the station "decided to throw the research out

'We developed the idea that if you build it, they will come'

the window and take a gamble," a decision that paid off with a 3.3-5.9 jump in the fall Arbitron survey. "We developed the idea that if you build it, they will come. After all, on both sides of the market, top 40 was doing very well at [WDCG] G105 Raleigh and WNKS [Kiss 95.1] Charlotte, not to mention across the country."

Despite Triad broadcasters' lack of interest in top 40 for many years, WKZL had to move quickly last summer. "WKSI and WKZL were almost mirror images of each other; then in August they started adding top 40 titles," McHugh says. "So Bill Moyes, Alan Dick, and I decided we had to go to top 40 before they did. In less than three weeks, we changed all the music, created a new jingle package and TV spots, and hired a new voice guy. Yet we were afraid our plans would leak out, so I spread rumors that someone in the market was about to go 'Jammin oldies.' I sent an intern to our production room and told him to leave the door open a crack while he started dubbing Rick James songs. Heft some Donna Summer CDs around my office." (Ironically, the story mutated on the Internet to the point where album rival WXRA was falsely rumored to be switching.)

"By Labor Day we were ready to go, but we wanted to totally re-image the station in people's minds," says McHugh. "Morning man Jack Murphy was about to go on a vacation cruise, and he gave us this idea: Station manager Bruce Wheeler went on-air and said he wasn't satisfied with our ratings performance, so he was going to fire all the personalities. Plus, he was going to change the format, because people are tired of hearing just one kind of music all the time.

"The audience went ape," he adds. "Murphy was the top morning [host] in the market, and everyone loved afternoon host Terri Knight, who's the Dale Dorman of Greensboro. We aired all the complaint calls for four or five days, and we got major TV and print coverage.

"Finally, Bruce went back on the air and said he was 'forced' to bring back 'sweet' Terri, and after thinking about it more, he also brought back Murphy the following Monday—when he returned from his cruise. The whole episode got everyone's attention. I doubt if we'd be seeing such numbers if we didn't do that stunt."

McHugh then moved night guy John Matthews to middays and brought in Scholar Brad from KJYO (KJ103) Oklahoma City to do nights. "His presence has been like a nuclear explosion," McHugh says of Brad. "He basically does a wild morning show at night. Once this staff was assembled, we just took off."

Of course, it helped to have a lot of quality hit music he could own. "The boy bands put us in a great situation, because nobody in the market was playing the Backstreet Boys," McHugh says. "Fortunately for us, right after we flipped formats, Backstreet Boys came to [town]. Previously, Charlotte and Raleigh used to pull the big tours away from us. But since we changed formats, Ricky Martin is coming here. Even now, we're still the only ones in town playing a lot of [boy band product], although WMAG will play an occasional Backstreet Boys ballad."

Here's a sample of WKZL in nights: Marc Anthony, "I Need To Know"; Pearl Jam, "Last Kiss"; Sugar Ray, "Falls Apart"; Ricky Martin, "Livin' La Vida Loca"; Savage Garden, "I Knew I Loved You"; Smash mouth, "All Star"; Third Eye Blind, "Never Let You Go"; K-Ci & JoJo, "All My Life"; LFO, "Girl On TV"; Santana Featuring Rob Thomas, "Smooth"; and Backstreet Boys, "I Want It That Way."

Éven with the amount of available music these days, McHugh says, finding the right mix remains a tricky proposition. "Greensboro is a funny market," says McHugh. "The reason top 40 hasn't done well here is because, while the format normally plays a lot of crossover product from R&B and modern, there's a deep chasm here between hip-hop and top 40. Those records cross over successfully in Tampa, Fla., but Greensboro isn't Tampa. So we hold on to the pop alternative sound while mixing in Christine Aguilera, Will Smith, and Sonique for differentiation. We look at rhythmic crossovers on a song-by-song basis. But we can't go too far with that music, because R&B WIMH owns that neck of the woods."

To help him with music, McHugh hired Ronie Alexander from classic rock sister WKRR as APD/MD. He also counts on his staff to keep him up on local events, such as the intense market interest in the ACC conference college basketball tournament, set to start within weeks. "The ACC tournament is huge here. People take portable TVs to work to watch it, and it's a big deal with both males and females. The same goes for NASCAR. Women make buying decisions based on what sponsors are painted on their favorite driver's car. It's that big a deal."

McHugh's immediate challenge is to maintain this momentum for the spring book, which normally calls for big cash contests. "WKRR has already done a million-dollar contest, and I'm sure there will be a lot of cash being flung around by stations this spring," he says. "The big question is how to make a cash contest really special. We're still trying to formulate our plans, to put the right angle on it. Going through the whole [format flip] process has been a valuable lesson for us. Jack Murphy's idea of firing everybody made a good, basic marketing plan special. Having learned that lesson, we're now finding out what kind of new twist we can put on our cash contest."

That challenge and WKZL's success excites McHugh about Greensboro. "Being from L.A., I was originally going to stay for just a couple of years," he says. "But once I started here, I liked Dick Broadcasting so much I've passed on other offers. I'm having a lot of fun with the most talented people I've ever worked with. Everyone is enjoying this, making it fun to come into the building every day." JEFF SILBERMAN

Songs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record registering six or more detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Sougs ranked by audience, computed by cross-referencing exact times of airplay with Arbitron listener data. Records showing an increase in audience over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in audience. If two records are tied in total audience, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records become recurrents and are removed from this chart in conjunction with the Rhythmic Top 400 Airplay chart.

Songs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks vill not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records w the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Songs ranked by audience, computed by cross-referencing exact times of airplay with Arbitron listener data.
Records showing an increase in audience over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in audience. If two records are tied in total audience, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records become recurrents and are removed from this chart in conjunction with the Crossover Airplay chart.

Songs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Congr. re	ankod by	audione	e. computed by cross-referencing exact times of airplay with Arbitra	- Cotano data O Bassada abassisa an

Songs ranked by audience, computed by cross-referencing exact times of airplay with Arbitron listener data. Records showing an increase in audience over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in audience. If two records are tied in total audience, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records become recurrents and are removed from this chart in conjunction with the Adult Top 40 Airplay chart.

Songs ranked by number of detections. Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the record with the largest increase in detections. Most New Stations awarded to the record registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. If two records are tied in number of detections, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.
