market station of the year, PD of the year (Dan Kieley). APD/MD of the year (Michael Steele), air personality of the year (morning star Rick Dees), and promotion/marketing director of the year

(Von Freeman). KIIS took station and promotion director honors last year.

KIIS faces familiar competition from WHTZ (Z100) New York and WXKS-FM (Kiss 108) Boston, which picked up four nominations each, and WSTR (Star 94) Atlanta, which earned three

Ross Promoted To Group Editor

Veteran Airplay Monitor and Billboard staffer Sean Ross has been promoted from editor to group editor of the four Airplay Monitor magazines and their Country Hotline fax publication.

"For the last five years, Sean has helped Airplay Monitor evolve from a strictly chart-based publication to one that is now regarded as the leading music radio trade magazine," says Monitor publisher Jon Guynn, to whom Ross will continue to report. "This new title better reflects the crucial contribution Sean makes to Monitor's entire op-

Ross joined Billboard magazine in 1988 as radio editor after a 4½-year stint at Radio & Records. He left that post in 1992 to become an A&R manager at Profile Records, then PD of R&B oldies WGCI-AM Chicago. He returned to the company as Airplay Monitor's first editor in 1995. His experience also includes on-air work in the mainstream R&B, modern rock, and top 40 formats, as well as numerous liner note projects and a radio column for Tower Pulse maga-

Kiss Goes Ape Over Big Fox Concert

One of the most hotly contested top 40 markets, Jacksonville, Fla., figures to get a lot hotter as heritage top 40 WAPE (the Big Ape) and Clear Channel newcomer WFKS (Kiss 97.9) are now battling over an Aug. 13 concert that features 'N Sync, 98', Sisqó, Jessica Simpson, Pink, Destiny's Child, Mandy Moore, Vitamin C, and more.

According to WAPE PD Cat Thomas, promoter Phantasma Productions called him personally and asked WAPE to present the show. The station has been giving away hundreds of tickets, including some in the first three rows. He alleges that Kiss was "embarrassed" after hearing about the show on WAPE.

Not surprisingly, WFKS PD Brent McKay claims to be co-presenting the show with the Clear Channel-owned Fox affiliate. The concert is one of several the Fox TV network is putting on for a televised music series that will air Sept. 15, which will be simulcast on Kiss. On the first day tickets to the show went on sale, Clear Channel's marshaled 11 of its market cluster's vans on-site and gave tickets to people who traded their Big Ape shirts for Kiss T-shirts.

CLEAR CHANNEL SCRUTINIZING INDIE PROMOTER PACTS

Airplay Monitor business correspondent Frank Saxe reports that Clear Channel PDs have gotten an internal memo from VP of radio programming Michael Albl instructing them not to sign any new programming contracts unless they are first reviewed by a corporate VP. The directive includes Clear Channel deals with programming suppliers, independent promoters, and other vendors and also prohibits participation in "Al R-like contests."

Albl says that the fast-growing companywhich just closed on its merger with SFX-is just looking to identify all its business relationships. 'We're just trying to get a handle of who is doing what with whom and for what reason, and is there a better way for making the deals. It may make sense at times to leverage our group buying power," says Albl. The memo also tells PDs they cannot sign any new agreements with an indie promoter or renew any current agreement once it expires. But Albl says Clear Channel will continue to work with independent promoters, adding, "There's a place for everybody." Representatives from Jeff McClusky & Associates and Tri-State Promotion declined to discuss the ban on new contracts with independents.

In the memo, Albl also asks PDs to cease participation in AIR or contests like it, although he tells Airplay Monitor it would be merely "a brief hiatus" until PDs inform their regional VPs whether they are participating and why. AIR founder Jonas Cash says he is confident that once Clear Channel executives learn more about what it is his company does for stations, the temporary ban will be lifted and PDs will be allowed to once again take part. "I can appreciate that Clear Channel is going to review everybody that deals with their radio stations," he says, adding, "In return for information that they give us, they get our consultation for free." Cash says Clear Channel and AMFM programmers account for 25% of mainstream top 40 participants, with less than 10% of its panel in rhythmic top 40, modern adult, and adult top 40 coming from Clear Channel or AMFM stations. Cash also owns Sound Judgment, which has a minority stake in Airplay Monitor.

MANAGEMENT: GEHRON OVERSEES INFINITY UNIVERSE

Infinity has shuffled the duties of its COO triumvirate. John Gehron will oversee programming strategies for the entire station group. The individual stations he previously oversaw have been divvied up among co-COOs Don Bouloukos, David Pearlman, and senior VP Bill Figenshu. Bouloukos will assume oversight of Las Vegas and Austin, Texas. Pearlman adds Minneapolis to his purview, while Figenshu takes on Sacramento, San Jose, and Riverside Calif.

Susquehanna/San Francisco VP/director of sales Julie Kahn joins Entercom/Boston as VP/GM of adult top 40 WQSX and album WAAF, replacing Bruce Mittman, who left in March. Kahn will start in Boston in early fall.

J. William Poole is retiring after 40 years as GM of Free Lance-Star Publishing's adult top 40 WYSK and country WFLS Fredericksburg, Va. Free Lance-Star associate publisher Florence Barnick adds Poole's GM duties. Also, technical services director Gary Harrison is upped to OM for the stations.

PROGRAMMING: DAYTON KISSES OFF THE BEAT

WBTT (the Beat) Dayton, Ohio, has adopted Clear Channel's "Kiss" template as 94-5, Kiss FM. New calls are pending. KIIS Los Angeles cyberjock Valentine will do mornings; locals Yvette Williams and PD Dino Robitaille do middays and afternoons, respectively; and WFLZ Tampa, Fla.'s Kane is a virtual lock at nights. WBTT is using the Kiss handle despite the fact that rival WKSW has been billing itself as Kiss Country for 14 years.

Jay Thomas, OM of country top 40 WMME (Moose 92) and WEBB Augusta, Maine, exits to join country WWYZ Hartford, Conn., as MD. That leaves both stations looking for MDs. So is sister WCRQ Presque Isle, Maine, whose PD/morning host, Kyle Kristopher, is moving elsewhere within Citadel Communications. By the way, Citadel is continuing its voice-tracking of WMME from its sister cluster in Syracuse, N.Y., something that began under previous owner Pilot Broadcasting, making WEBB one of the first "virtual radio" stations.

PEOPLE: SUPERJOCKS ON THE MOVE

Two years ago there were rumors that adult R&B WHUR Washington, D.C., would lose ABC Radio Networks' syndicated Tom Joyner morning show, but while WHUR was told that it was losing the show, it never showed up on adult R&B rival WMMJ as expected. This

Matchbox Twenty's 'Bent' Is Back On Top

Two weeks ago, matchbox twenty scored its first-ever top 40 mainstream No. 1 with "Bent" (Lava/Atlantic). The song held the top spot for just one week before Nine Days "Absolutely (Story Of A Girl)" (550 Music/550-Work) topped the chart last week. Now "Bent" reclaims the No. 1 position at top 40 mainstream while also topping the mainstream audience chart for the first time.

The song regains 101 of the 106 detections it lost last week while posting an 8% gain in audience. "Bent" is being played on all 120 mainstream top 40 reporting stations. There's still some consolation, however, for "Absolutely," which goes to No. 1 on the modern AC chart.

The last time a title hit No. 1, lost the top spot, and then regained it at mainstream top 40 occurred when Savage Garden's "Truly Madly Deeply" went to No. 1 for just one week in January '98 before being displaced by Celine Dion's 10-week chart-topper "My Heart Will Go On." In April, "Truly Madly Deeply" regained the pole position for a week

Jim Brickman returns to the AC chart with "The Love I Found In You" (Windham Hill/RCA). The song features saxophonist Dave Koz, who charted at the format under his own name with "You Make Me Smile" in the fall of 1993.

PERSONNEL MONITOR: Roadrunner Records president Derek Shulman exits. A successor has not been announced.

time, the show is definitely headed to WMMJ on Aug. 28, where it'll replace motivational speaker Les Brown. Elsewhere in Radio One, at crossover R&B WPHI (Philly 103.9) Philadelphia, promotions director Amber Noble exits.

After much speculation, legendary '60s/70s Chicago top 40 "superjock" Larry Lujack has extended his Thursday morning guest appearances at WUBT (the Beat) into a permanent weekend shift at the Chicago R&B oldies outlet under PD Jay Beau Jones.

KANR (Fly 92.7) Wichita, Kan., MD/afternoon host Ricardo Cherry exits.

B.J. Austin is upped to promotion director for AMFM/Raleigh, N.C., including AC WRSN and top 40 WDCG (G105).

Adult top 40 KSTP-FM (KS95) Minneapolis taps WRAL (Mix 101.5) Raleigh, N.C., MD Rob Poulin for afternoons, succeeding Pat Mc-Keever, who relocated to Corpus Christi, Texas, for family reasons.

KMXB (Mix 94.1) Las Vegas promotion diva Jennifer Markham Wynn moves east to be a morning co-host at modern AC WXLO Worcester, Mass.

Marc Jones is named promotion director for KBKS (Kiss 106.1) Seattle from N/Γ rivals KIRO/KQBZ, replacing Gina Thompson.

WJJS Roanoke, Va., brings in Zak Tyler from WVSR (Electric 102.7) Charleston, W. Va., for middays.

KVŚR (Star 101) Fresno, Calif., MD Julie Logan exits the modern AC station.

Replacing the WLIT Chicago-bound Genevieve Shanahan as MD of AC KESZ Phoenix is Craig Jackson.

Stu Schroeder, the former OM of the Keymarket (now Entercom) Scranton, Pa., cluster, is named director of production for the 10 Keymarket Communications stations in the Pittsburgh area. His wife, Kim Schroeder, aka former WGGY morning co-host Polly Wogg, will also join the Keymarket chain in the next month in an as-yet-undisclosed capacity.

Sorry to report that Rosko Mercer, a veteran of numerous formats in New York radio, died Aug. 1 after a battle with cancer. Mercer had been gone from commercial radio since the mid-'80s, when he left WXRK following an onair tirade during its switch from top 40 WKTU to rock, but had most recently done voice work for CBS-TV.

TAKING IT TO THE EXTREME

The Fargo, N.D., Forum reports that WDAY-FM (Y94) morning co-host Jill St. John is charged with falsely reporting a crime, a misdemeanor, after she called police and told them that morning-show stunt guy Extreme Jim was running naked through a local park. Police showed up with sirens wailing and found the stunt jock in his boxers doing a callback to the station. A hearing is scheduled for Aug. 15. St.

John tells the paper, "I wish I could plead funny/not funny . . . It's for the show. I'll do anything for the show, I guess."

AC: TOP 40 P1S' NEXT CHOICE

While it might seem logical that adult top 40 would be top 40's No. 2 sharer, a new Arbitron study that examines the listening habits of various formats' P1 listeners says that the second-choice format of top 40 P1s is instead mainstream AC, cumed by 21% of those listeners, followed by R&B (15.1%), modern rock (12.3%), adult top 40 (11.4%), oldies (9.2%), album rock (8.2%), country (7.8%), and classic rock. Similarly, 33.8% of top 40's P2s come from AC, 21.4% come from modern, and 18.3% come from hot AC.

Looking at AC sharing, 27.8% of AC P1s also listen to top 40, while 16.3% listen to oldies and 11.4% listen to N/T. And if you were looking for further evidence of how the mother/daughter coalition is working, 19.4% of children's radio P1s also listen to AC, while 18.8% cume top 40.

NEW MEDIA: DOG NET AFTERNOON

The Ralston Purina Co, and the Radio Voyager Network are planning to launch the first-ever Internet radio network produced exclusively for pet enthusiasts. The Purina Radio Voyager Network will provide customized programming to include contemporary music, live news, and original companion animal programming, along with contests and promotions every hour. The network will be streamed through Purina's Dog Chow and Puppy Chow Web sites. Its listeners, meanwhile, will be streaming against certain fire hydrants.

WBLI Long Island, N.Y., middayer Holly Levis heads to Sirius Satellite Radio as supervising manager of its top 40 format. PD J.J. Rice is soliciting T&Rs for what could be either a midday or evening shift, depending on whether current night rocker Fisher's fill-in duties for Levis become permanent.

Greater Media promotes research director Michael Joly to director of Internet strategies.

Y100, CRESCENT MOON SEEK STARS

WHYI (Y100 Miami) and Emilio Estefan's Crescent Moon Records are joining forces to search for new talent. Over the next four weeks, they'll select 48 people or groups for the chance to win an opportunity to cut two singles with Crescent Moon. Twenty-four have already qualified and are featured on the Y100 Web site at y100.cc. After all preliminary contesting is finalized, the field will be narrowed down to three performers. Those performers will then perform onstage at morning host Footy's Y100 Wing Ding Oct. 21-22, alongside major national recording stars, where Estefan's next protégé will be chosen.

Triple-A: WBOS Boston's Adam Klein.

PROMO TOPIC OF THE WEEK: ESSENCE OF SWAG, PART II

The large majority of Promoganda panelists believe the importance of station swag is growing. "People love free stuff and always will, Donna Talarico of WGGY (Froggy 101) Wilkes-Barre, Pa. "With markets getting so competitive, you have to do all you can to get your logo and calls plastered everywhere. In addition to taking out ads, billboards, etc., you can use your listeners as a cheap medium to advertise your station for free on their cars and bodies. If I give a Froggy T-shirt to someone, I created a fan for life. Getting these items promotes loyalty, too.'

"It's growing, just because we're doing more appearances," says Anne-Marie Strzelecki of modern AC WBMX (Mix 98.5) Boston. "You can't show up without swag. People expect it.'

"The importance of swag is just as important as it's ever been, and maybe even more so," says Vicki Fiorelli of Clear Channel's Phoenix cluster. "We need to be more creative and fresh to stand out from the competition.

"It's increasingly important for an ongoing one-to-one marketing effort," says Michael Godfrey of top 40 CKIK (Power 107) Calgary, Alberta. "The power of going. 'Hi, we're Power 107, thanks for listening' is huge. It gives a person-to-person element to the relationship listeners already have with the voices on the station."

'It is very important to develop a long-lasting image of [country] KZLA [Los Angeles] to our listeners," says Marida Petitjean. "It's a constant reminder that we're in their cars, at work, and at home on their radios and our Web page. It also gives a message to their family and friends that they listen to KZLA and encourages them to check it out."

Holding a minority view is Tristano Korlou of Infinity Hartford, Conn., who thinks swag's clout is lessening because "[there's] less budget for merchandise and more for cash contests.

The bottom line: If you use swag, it better be worthwhile. "Listeners need something they'll take with them and incorporate into their lives, says Jim Sheehan of album rock KSJO San Francisco. "Our job is to know what that is."

What items have been particularly effective?

 Mood cards. "[They're] like the old mood rings with comments like 'hair check,' 'time to dance,' etc. on them," says Godfrey. "They get people talking to each other."

· Also, "while temporary tattoos may not be the coolest thing in the world, people love them, especially in the clubs," he adds. "We have been giving them out for at least two years now, and they just don't go away."

Station spring water.

Lighted keychains.

TW LW TOPIC

 License plate frames. "The good metal ones are such a hit, I'm almost afraid to wear station attire on an off day, because no matter where you go, you get asked for one," Talarico says. "They go like hotcakes."

QUICK HITS

Country WQMX Akron, Ohio, held an Unconditional Love contest, where a listener has one distant relative flown in for a family reunion party catered by a station client. Artist Clay Davidson will play at the event. The winner will see his brother, who disappeared without a word, for the first time in nine years. Keeping it warm and fuzzy is Wendie C. Vestfall.

KEGL held its second Miss Tore Up Texas Pageant. Women vied for a $1,000 prize in contests like Tattooed Mama, Nasty Ass Feet, Widest Stretchmarks, and other anatomical comparison contests that might make KSJO's Jim (contestants eating scabs off each other) Sheehan blush. Complaints to Loren Condron.

Country WWFG (Froggy 99.9) Ocean City, Md., awarded a VIP Martina McBride concert package for Get In Touch With Martina McBride. Nine qualifiers grabbed a life-sized stand-up of McBride and drank nine ounces of water every nine minutes. The one who "held it" the longest won.

Alan Hennes were honored.

Secondary mainstream top 40 honors were largely divvied up among KMXV (Mix 93.3) Kansas City, WFLZ Tampa, Fla., and WNKS (Kiss 95.1) Charlotte, N.C., each of which snared three nominations. KMXV is up for station of the year, PD (Jon Zellner), and MD (Dylan). WFLZ was cited for PD Domino, MD Stan "the Man" Priest, and air personalities MJ Kelli and BJ Harris. WNKS is up for station of the year, PD (John Reynolds), and air personality (Ace & TJ). What's also interesting here is that none of last year's winners are up for nominations in any of these categories.

Other multiple top 40 nominees are KHKS (Kiss FM) Dallas (major-market station of the year and air personality Kidd Kraddick) and WKSS (Kiss 95.7) Hartford, Conn. (secondary market station of the year and APD/MD Mike McGowan).

RHYTHMIC TRIPLE THREAT

Talk about heritage power: Three major-market rhythmic top 40 stations picked up four honors each, for station, PD, APD/MD, and air personality. WBBM-FM (B96) Chicago will defend the awards it won last year for station of the year, PD Todd Cavanah, MD Erik Bradley, and morning hosts Eddie and Jobo. They'll go up against WKTU New York, PD Frankie Blue, APD/MD Geronimo, and air personality "Broadway" Bill Lee. KYLD (Wild 94.9) San Francisco nominees are PD Michael Martin, MD "Jazzy" Jim Archer, and air personality St. John.

In the secondary-market category for rhythmic top 40, WLLD (Wild 98.7) Tampa, Fla., picked up four nominations, while KLUC Las Vegas and KQKS (KS107.5) Denver attracted three honors each. Besides a station of the year nod, WLLD's Orlando comes out as the most nominated person of the year, snagging nods for PD, APD/MD, and air personality of the year. (He won MD honors last year.) KQKS will defend its station and PD (Cat Collins) of the year victories, with APD/MD John E. Kage also nominated. KLUC is up for station, PD (Cat Thomas), and MD (J.B. King).

Other rhythmic multiple honorees are WPOW Miami (major-market station, PD Kid Curry) and KPRR (Power 92) El Paso, Texas (station, PD John Candelaria).

ADULT TOP 40: 2 STARS, 2 MIXES

That practically says it all in the adult top 40 major-market race, as KFMB-FM (Star 100.7) San Diego, WBMX (Mix 98.5) Boston, and WTMX (the Mix) Chicago picked up four nominations each, with KYSR (Star 98.7) Los Angeles garnering three nods. WBMX will defend its '99 station of the year honors, plus being cited for PD (Greg Strassell), MD (Mike Mullaney), and air personality (John Lander). KFMB is up for station, PD (Tracy Johnson), promotion director (Kim Leeds), and air personalities (last year's winners Jeff and Jer). KYSR is up for station PD (Angela Perelli) and MD (Chris Patyk).

In the secondaries, KMXB (Mix 94.1) Las Vegas, which swept the station PD, MD, and promotion director awards last year, will try to duplicate that success this year, with nods going to the station, MD (Shark), and promotion director (Jennifer Markham Wynn). Also picking up three nods is KALC (Alice 106) Denver, which was nominated for station of the year, PD (Jim Lawson), and MD (Kozman, who won last year at KMXB).

Other multiple nominees are WPLJ New York (MD Tony Mascaro and air personalities Scott Shannon and Todd Pettengill); WSSR (Star 95.7) Tampa, Fla. (station and PD Scott Chase); and WMC-FM (FM100) Memphis (MD Bruce Wayne and promotion director Cindy Horton).

AC: SEE THE LITE

WLTW New York is the clear front-runner this year, placing nominees in all five categories: station, PD (Jim Ryan), MD (a nod for former staffer Haneen Hunter), air personality (Valerie Smaldone), and promotion director (Bridget Sullivan). The station, Ryan, and Smaldone all won their respective categories last year.

Lite will go up against four other multi-nominated stations: WPCH (Peach 94.9) Atlanta (station of the year, PD Vance Dillard, MD Steve Goss), KOST Los Angeles (station of the year, PD Jhani Kaye), and WBEB (B101) Philadelphia (station of the year, PD Chris Conley).

It's share and share alike in the AC secondary market nominations. Five of the eight nominated stations boast two nods each: WDOK Cleveland (station, '99 winner MD Scott Miller); WEAT (Sunny 104.3) West Palm Beach, Fla. (station, PD Les Howard); WMGF (Magic 107.7) Orlando, Fla. (station, PD Ken Payne); WRCH (Lite 100.5) Hartford, Conn. (station, MD Joe Hann); and WHUD Poughkeepsie, N.Y. (PD Steve Petrone, MD Tom Furci).

THEY'RE BAD, THEY'RE NATIONWIDE

On a national scope, "Rick Dees' Weekly Top 40" will defend its top 40 network/syndicated short- or longform program of the year against "Hollywood Hamilton's Rhythm Top 30 Countdown," "Open House Party," and "American Top 40 With Casey Kasem." The adult version of Kasem's show will defend its AC/adult top 40 crown against AC night queen Delilah and '80s rivals "Backtrax USA" and "Retro Pop Reunion."

The nationally syndicated air personality of the year category honors jocks with full syndicated weekday dayparts, such as national morning or overnight shows. Nominees in this category, which covers talent in all formats, are ABC Radio Networks' syndicated morning host Doug Banks; Premiere Radio Networks' Blair Garner, host of long-running country show "After MidNite"; ABC's Tom Joyner; and Infinity's Howard Stern, who has won this category every year it has existed.

GROUP SECTS, ANYONE?

It comes as absolutely no surprise, after breaking the nominees out into radio groups, that the big boys garnered the most honors. AMFM employees will go into their Clear Channel merger boasting 39 nominations, leading the pack at mainstream top 40 (11 nominations) and AC (12 nods), and tying Infinity at adult top 40 with eight each.

Infinity won the rhythmic top 40 race with 11 nominations, earning 30 honors overall. Meanwhile, Clear Channel picked up 19 on its own, just one nod short of AMFM in mainstream top 40 with 10 honors.

Outside the big three, Jefferson Pilot acquitted itself very well at rhythmic top 40 and mainstream top 40, pulling three nods in each format to finish fourth best overall with six noms. Thanks to KFMB-FM San Diego and WTMX Chicago, Midwest TV and Bonneville scored four nominations each, all of them in adult top 40.

In all formats, AMFM led the pack with 81 nominations, Clear Channel culled 59 nods, Infinity had 58, and Susquehanna was No. 4 with 11. In markets, Chicago stations garnered 21 honors, followed by New York (18); Los Angeles and Philadelphia (17 each); Dallas (14), Boston, and Tampa (13 each); Atlanta (12); and Denver, Las Vegas, and San Diego with nine each.

THE FINE PRINT

Voice Tracking And NTR: Welcome To 1959!

Regular readers know that I'm always looking for resonances between the '70s and '80s top 40 that provided my formative experiences in radio and today's different-but-not-so-different post-Telecom Act world. Former broadcaster David Carson wasn't necessarily looking to do anything but channel the Detroit top 40 stations of his childhood in the '50s and '60s when he wrote "Rockin' Down The Dial" ($24.95, Momentum Books), but even in his reminiscences of the format's earliest days, there are some stories that sound eerily familiar. Consider how . . .

• WJBK's Ed "Jack the Bellboy" McKenzie becomes the Motor City's first night rocker in the late '40s by mixing Ella Fitzgerald and Louis Armstrong in with the MOR hits. McKenzie ties up downtown Woodward Avenue with 65,000 listeners at a remote, and blows out 11 phone exchanges with more than one contest. When McKenzie jumps to rival WXYZ, WJBK sues to keep his nickname, which it gives to a succession of night jocks.

which it gives to a succession of night jocks.

• Legendary R&B powerhouse WJLB begins, like many other R&B outlets, with block programming, in this case the "Interracial Goodwill Hour." Despite its success, host Bill Randle is fired in 1949 for playing Nat "King" Cole during the station's "regular" programming. By the mid-'50s, the white hosts of the "Goodwill Hour" have been replaced by pioneering black broadcaster LeRoy White, whose influence will eventually get his wife and another WJLB announcer elected to the state

• Top 40 WKMH switches format to MOR and starts importing New York radio legends Bob (Elliot) and Ray (Goulding) via voice-tracks, forcing morning host Robin Seymour to spend four hours "interacting" with the two taped comedians. He describes the virtual morning show as "some of the worst times I had in the business."

• Ironically, just a few years earlier, WKMH night jock Dave Prince had tried to get some attention in nights by pointing out that his WXYZ rival, Joel Sebastian, was voice-tracking the last hour of his show. "So I would go on the air and make this big deal about it . . . 'I'm right here at the station, and you can call me and request a song. You can't do that with Joel Sebastian because he is on his way home right now. If you don't believe me, here's his number at the station.' Kids would call the number, and an engineer would answer. They would call me back and say, 'Yeah, you were right.' You would do anything to make some Group Editor: Sean Ross Managing Editor: Jeff Silberman Director of Charts: Silvio Pietroluongo Associate Director of Charts: Steven Graybow headway in the ratings back then."

• Legendary Detroit DJ (and recording artist) Tom Clay tries to get some attention on his new job at KDAY Los Angeles by giving listeners what he says is Elvis Presley's phone number, but what is really the switchboard of format leader KFWB. After tying up KFWB's phone lines for two days, Clay is forced to issue a public apology. And KFWB remains the leader.

• Clay, by the way, flees Detroit after irate listeners, who joined his Beatle Booster Club on the promise of personal souvenirs from the group, complain about receiving the group's cigarette butts, or receiving no souvenir at all. Then there's WXYZ night jock Lee Alan, who was fired over an alleged conflict of interest involving the record hops he did on the side. He'll later return as PD. Top 40 stations in the '50s and '60s were every bit as much in the concert business as their successors were, but it was usually jocks doing the wheeling and dealing.

• But not always. Until the 1959-60 payola scandal, both WKMH and rival WJBK have suspiciously familiar sponsorship opportunities: WKMH's Album of the Week, where one song can get 114 sponsored plays a week for $350 a week, and WJBK's "Sound Special," spotlighting a single that had been discounted from 79 cents to 50 cents. "When questioned whether this practice constitutes payola, WJBK GM Harry Lipson commented that this view was 'distorted,' " Carson writes.

• These marketing deals weren't the only nontraditional revenue that existed in the early '60s. New R&B outlet WCHB had to go to advertisers "with ideas rather than just a rate card," according to early jock Larry Dixon. "I sold Pepsi on sponsoring a chain of youth teen clubs. I figured if the kids didn't have a club to go to, they would probably find a gang to join. The clubs were very successful, and it was a way to bring someone like Pepsi onto a relatively new, untried station like WCHB."

Finally, consider the fate of WKMH's successor, WKNR (Keener 13), which, despite an anemic signal, managed to galvanize the market on its arrival in late '63 under the direction of Mike Joseph. "By 1967, WKNR had become a money machine, bloated with commercials, up to the legal limit of 18 minutes per hour," Carson writes. "What had sounded so exciting in 1964 had begun to sound a bit cluttered," setting the market up for the arrival of the more streamlined CKLW, which signed on commercial-free, then held the line at only 13 units.

MONITOR PROFILE

Modern AC And Rock Veteran Castellini Finds New Life At Online Retailer CDnow

Ali Castellini had worked extensively in modern rock before landing in Philadelphia as MI)/afternoon host of the late modern AC WXXM (Max 95.7). When Max flipped to R&B oldies, Castellini did what any normal out-of-work radio person would do: She started a consultancy. Aside from work at noncommercial triple-A WXPN Philly and her continuing relationship with United Stations Radio Networks' "Today's Women" syndicated show, she picked up online retailer CDnow as a client. "They started eating up more and more of my time, and suddenly I was here full time."

Why is a radio veteran working at a retailer? Because, says Castellini, as the business model for Web presence changes, "there's the push to create a multimedia center on CDnow. We want to become the destination for music experiences. We have the music to sell, but you still need to experience it." And so was born CDnow Radio, another new Web-petitor vying for the attention of radio listeners.

Ali Castellini CDnow Radio 'Streaming audio is lowcost, so we can afford to take more chances'

Castellini cites CEO Jason Olim's mantra that "just as MTV and VHI helped expand the music experience 20 years ago, we're expecting music online to impact the music experience just as much in the next couple of years."

In addition to traditional streaming, CDnow Radio offers "a bunch of instant information," says Castellini. "It's going to allow us to bring our user closer to the artists. And that's something that traditional media can't do."

Castellini forecasts an enhanced radio experience, much like the Web-enhanced TV viewing that technophiles are promising. As a CDnow radio user, "you get the artist info, album info, and also the tour schedule. You can read reviews of the tour [or] the album. You can see the band's [electronic press kit]. You can read an interview or even see the band in an interview. And, oh yeah, you can also purchase the album—or even buy concert tickets—because we also have this little multimillion-dollar store on the side."

CDnow will offer more than a dozen traditionally niched channels, including pop, hiphop, R&B, modern rock, hard rock, classic rock, oldies, and world music. While there are no live jocks yet, Castellini says, "We're moving quickly toward that . . . The elements that make radio successful still apply here. You still have to be able to relate to somebody."

Here's a sample hour on CDnow's pop channel: Macy Gray, "The Letter"; Santana, "Supernatural"; Filter, "The Best Thing"; Ben Folds Five, "Jame"; Luscious Jackson, "Naked"; Guster, "What You Wished For"; Simply Red, "If You Don't Know Me By Now"; Sisqo, "Thong Song"; Savage Garden, "To The Moon And Back"; Joe, "I Wanna Know"; Michael Penn, "Lucky One"; Savage Garden, "I Knew I Loved You"; Santana, "Smooth"; Fountains Of Wayne, "It Must Be Summer"; Amel Larrieux, "Get Up"; and Iom Jones, "Sexbomb."

That may seem broad by traditional top 40 standards, but CDnow plans to break even further from traditional radio with eight planned

"destination" channels. There, Castellini says, "We can take a specific demo and a specific niche of that demo and . . . create a place for these people to go and listen to music. We're working under the assumption that true music lovers enjoy more than just one type of music or one genre of music." The channels range from the MTV-like the Scene (with sample artists Britney Spears, Eminem, and Hoku) and Centre Stage, which spotlights all this summer's major touring acts from Sting to the Beach Boys, to the left-of-modern format Altered States, which ranges from Method Man and the Deftones to Fatboy Slim.

The destination channels will offer "Web sessions, games, and other interactions like chat rooms at this platform, and the radio channel becomes its soundtrack," Castellini says. "We're looking for these to be our big unique factor to set us apart from all the other streaming that's out there. We're going to be targeting everyone from teens to [the so-called] soccer moms... We even created a music stream for people who are musicians or want to be musicians... They might be in a band, but they have to have a real job. But they're definitely more interested in a lot more of the experimental bands. It's more of an eclectic mix."

And with these new destination channels comes the balancing act that Castellini will oversee. "For a programmer, it's going to be a bigger challenge. That's really why I came on board. We still have to be able to balance it so there's still the familiarity, but we [can] push the depth of the music and find new cuts and hit deeper cuts off albums that otherwise you wouldn't hear on traditional radio."

One of the things that will make that easier for Castellini is the technology that will track usage of the channels on the company's Web site. "We know when people are listening and when they click on and when they click off, rather than waiting for call-out to come back 2½ weeks later," Castellini says. "It allows us to delve into the audience, see who the customer is. We can niche it even further."

She also sees using that information to leverage advertisers. "When [users] come onto the site or when they're listening to radio, and they start clicking through the site's other pages or [move] onto other sites, we can follow them to see where they go," she says. "So, when we get advertisers and start inserting audio ads, we can give that demographic information back to the advertiser. We know exactly who heard it, how long they're listening, where else they would go, and what their interests would be."

Castellini also promises that CDnow will pick up the mantle from radio of embracing new music. "There's no doubt that over the past couple of years, with consolidation at radio, that radio [is] not as experimental as it used to be. They're playing it safe, and they admit it. They have to be vanilla, because there's a lot at stake. When you're rolling that many radio properties together and you're working against a deficit and you're constantly looking at the stock prices, you have to play it safe." In contrast, she says, "one of the advantages that we have working online is that streaming audio is relatively low-cost, so we can afford to take more chances."

Next on the CDnow Radio horizon is personalized radio, à la the services of SonicNet or ClickRadio. "We're working with another partner to create technology to customize streams, so somebody can have their own individual stream. You can go through a series of filters, pick out the bands you like and the kinds of music you like, and it puts together all your choices into a stream, and you can also elect to have new music inserted that we think you might like. If not, then you have the option to go forward." MARC SCHIFFMAN

Radio One Eyes National Network Biz

The billion-dollar radio network business, now consolidated to such major players as Clear Channel's Premiere and soon-to-be-sister AMFM Radio Networks, CBS/Infinity's Westwood One, and ABC Radio Networks, will soon add Radio One to that list.

Radio One president Alfred Liggins wants to start picking the "low-hanging fruit" and form a network targeting African-Americans. "Most of the activity is [a result of] five major advertisers coming and saying they'd like to buy all 18 of our markets," says Liggins. Currently, American Urban Radio Networks is the only African-American-targeted network, but Radio One's greater number of largemarket stations would give a larger audience.

Most networks use rep firms to sell ads, but Liggins says Radio One will create an inhouse division and go directly to advertisers. "We're not trying to usurp the agencies—the agencies are our friend—but this is a pitch we're taking directly to advertisers because they need to know what the opportunity is. It will also allow us to circumvent our competitors."

Radio One is meeting with Westwood One and ABC Radio Networks, exploring a joint venture, says Liggins, who adds that something will be in place by the new year.

CAPITAL: A BATTLE FOR WBTJ

Clear Channel and Stop 26 Riverbend Inc. are battling over WRBP Youngstown, Ohio. In May 1998, Clear Channel agreed to buy the station for $2.75 million, giving Stop 26 a $1.725 million down payment to begin an LMA. The station flipped to rhythmic top 40 WBTJ. While the FCC dragged out its approval of the sale, Stop 26 president Percy Squire's agreement to buy crosstown WRRO-AM, which flipped to R&B oldies under an LMA, fell through. Squire took WBTJ back, alleging Clear Channel never paid Stop 26 the roughly $1 million it still owed. Clear Channel won a restraining order against Stop 26, but U.S. District Court Judge David Dowd lifted the restraining order. Clear Channel attorneys are expected to file an appeal.

Nassau Broadcasting hired Salomon Smith Barney to consider financial alternatives after it put a planned IPO on hold due to "current market conditions and recent volatility." One such option is selling the company. Nassau owns 32 stations in New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, and Connecticut. CEO Louis Mercatanti says that although Nassau won't go public, it should be able to complete all its planned acquisitions, including a $185 million deal to buy Aurora Communications. That deal, however, will be reworked because it included $35 million in Nassau stock.

Infinity Broadcasting continues to be a cash cow—first for CBS, now Viacom. In its second-quarter earnings statement, Viacom credits Infinity radio and outdoor business for generating most of the company's cash flow, with a profit margin of 53%—far above industry average. Investors, however, rewarded Viacom's stock, pushing it up more than $1 a share, while Infinity's stock price has languished in the mid-30s, to the dismay of Viacom president Mel Karmazin. "Infinity is a gen, [with] great assets that deserve to be trading at a much higher price." Karmazin has said if Infinity's stock price does not move higher, it may be rolled into Viacom.

Cox Radio has named Neil Johnston its new CFO, effective Sept. I. Johnston has been Cox Broadcasting VP of development since last year. He replaces Maritza Pichon, who leaves the company to spend more time with her family.

CAPITOL: GOP VOWS MORE DEREG

Republican presidential candidate George W. Bush vows to continue media deregulation. The GOP platform states the party will "restrain the hand of government so that it cannot smother or slow the growth of worldwide commerce and communications through the Internet." Although the platform does not specifically name any specific media, it does take credit for deregulation that has already taken place. The Democrats' platform is still being written, but nominee Al Gore has long opposed media deregulation and consolidation. If Bush wins the White House, it's expected that FCC Chairman Bill Kennard, a Democrat, will resign his post.

While the FCC continues to deal with Clear

While the FCC continues to deal with Clear Channel's buyout of AMFM, the commission has flagged a trio of non-AMFM purchases in three states. Clear Channel's purchase pf adult top 40 WBWZ, country WRWD, and N/T WGHQ Poughkeepsie, N.Y., is drawing attention, as is its purchase of country KEAN-AM-FM, gospel KULL, album rock KEYJ, adult top 40 KHYS, and Spanish KBBA Abilene, Texas, from Sunburst Media. In Maine, the focus is on the purchase of triple-A WBYA, country WLKE, country WBFB, AC WKSQ, oldies WGUY, and N/T WVOM Bangor from Eastern Radio Assets.

Songs ranked by number of detections. Songs showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A song that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will generally not receive a builet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the song with the largest increase in detections. Best 1st Impression awarded to the song registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. A song with a gain in detections over the previous week is placed first if tied with a song with a decline over the same period. When tied songs are each gaining detections or each losing detections, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Songs below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Songs ranked by number of audience, computed by cress referencing exact times of airplay with Arbitron listener data. Songs showing an increase in audience over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A song that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will generally not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in audience. A song with a gain in audience over the previous week is placed first if tied with a song with a decline over the same period. When tied songs are each gaining in audience or each losing in audience, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Songs become recurrents and are removed from this chart in conjunction with the Crossover Airplay chart.

Songs ranked by number of detections. Songs showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A song that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will generally not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the song with the largest increase in detections. Best 1st Impression awarded to the song registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. A song with a gain in detections over the previous week is placed first if tied with a song with a decline over the same period. When tied songs are each gaining detections or each losing detections, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Songs below the top 20 become recurrents and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Songs ranked by number of audience, computed by cross-referencing exact times of airplay with Arbitron listener data. Songs showing an increase in audience over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A song that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will generally not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in audience. A song with a gain in audience over the previous week is placed first if tied with a song with a decline over the same period. When tied songs are each gaining in audience or each losing in audience, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Songs become recurrents and are removed from this chart in conjunction with the Adult Contemporary Airplay chart.
