Are Rock Crossovers Suffering For Linkin Park?

■ by Marc Schiffman

During the second half of 2001, modern and active rock crossovers were on the rise at top 40, led by mega hits from Staind, Nickelback, the multi-platinum success of Linkin Park, and more. As the format became one of extremes, rock seemed poised to usurp teen pop and join rhythm as mainstream top 40's other core sound.

But in the Nov. 8 issue of Top 40 Airplay Monitor, there wasn't any product that had crossed over from rock radio in the top 10. Creed's "One Last Breath" had just fallen out. The only title that top 40 shared with modern rock radio was Eminem's "Lose Yourself," while the only uptempo guitar-driven record was Avril Lavigne's "Sk8er Boi"—never a hit at rock radio.

A recent Monitor study of where mainstream top 40's hits charted first found that only five of them came from modern rock, down from nine the year before. The percentage of modern hits that eventually crossed over was flat, at 30%, but considerably less than other formats, including rhythmic top 40 (63%) and R&B (45%), and that number was based on the modern rock chart in May. The last No. 1 modern rock song to crack mainstream top 40 was Chad Kroeger Featuring Josey Scott's "Hero" in June.

If there's less modern rock at top 40, it could be because less-extreme product from new singer/songwriters like Lavigne, John Mayer, and Michelle Branch is filling stations' pop/rock slots. Another reason is that modern has gone in directions that top 40 either can't pursue (progressive acts like System of a Down) or won't pursue (the neo-garage of the Strokes, Hives, and White Stripes). But even more mainstream modern hits have faced resistance at top

FMC Consolidation Report Angers NAB

A new report from the Future of Music Coalition (FMC) concludes that consolidation of the U.S. radio industry has led to decreased competition, less diversity of programming, and unsatisfied listeners, according to Billboard Bulletin. The report—which has been filed with the FCC—has riled the National Assn. of Broadcasters (NAB), which claims that the study's methodology is flawed and its assertions are "myths."

Among other findings, the report, which analyzed data compiled from Airplay Monitor and other publications, concludes that the U.S. radio industry is an "oligarchy," with every territory dominated by four companies with market share of 70% or more.

The report also found "considerable format homogeneity," with "playlist overlap between supposedly distinct formats" of as much as 76%. As a result of shrinking playlists, it says, record companies have limited their promotion efforts, creating a "double bottleneck" for artists.

An FMC survey of 500 radio listeners found that 80% support action to prevent further consolidation and less repetition of songs and playlists with more variety. About 68% of respondents say they support congressional involvement to curb the use of indie promoters.

The NAB says that the survey results contradict the positive responses of 3,000 listeners in a recent poll conducted by Arbitron and Edison Media Research.

CC NEEDS CAPITAL?

Reports in the British press say that Clear Channel is readying a bid for several British properties, including Capital Radio. Airplay Monitor sister publication Music & Media reports that the British government has already loosened a pending communications bill—which will also allow greater foreign ownership—to allow only two owners in a market, rather than three.

Back at home, Clear Channel has officially named Andrew Levin senior VP of government relations. He will be based at the company's new Washington, D.C., office, reporting to chairman/CEO Lowry Mays. Levin, an attorney and CPA, was most recently minority counsel to the House Committee on Energy and Commerce.

In other legal and business news, the Senate voted Nov. 14 to approve the FCC nomination of legislative assistant Jonathan Adelstein, which had been held up since February. And on Nov. 15, both houses of Congress passed the Small Webcaster Settlement Act of 2002 to allow copyright holders and Webcasters to cut their own performance royalty deals rather than adhering to the Library of Congress royalty rate that many small Webcasters found prohibitive.

MANAGEMENT & BUSINESS

United Stations Radio Networks has bought Launch Radio Networks, the syndicated music and entertainment news arm of Yahoo. The Launch networks will continue to operate under that name and are expected to maintain their editorial, affiliate relations, and advertising staffs in New York, Los Angeles, and Nashville. The syndication operation is separate from Launch's online music portal, which continues to be part of Yahoo.

Former M Street Journal associate editor and Jones Radio Networks affiliate relations staffer Michelle Jasko opens her own Nashville-based affiliate relations firm, Nashville Radio Syndication. Jasko's shows include Rick Jackson Country Hall of Fame.

PROGRAMMING: WEATHERLY REPORT

Classic rock KCBS (Arrow 93) Los Angeles PD

Tommy Edwards exits. As a result, modern sister KROQ PD and newly minted Infinity senior VP of programming Kevin Weatherly adds PD duties.

Rhythmic top 40 XHTZ (Jammin 99.5) and adult R&B XHRM (Magic 92.5) San Diego PD Rick Thomas resigns. Replacing him is top 40 sister KHTS PD Diana Laird at 99.5 and adult top 40 sister KMYI PD Duncan Payton at Magic.

Steve McVie, director of operations for the past four years at Makkay Broadcasting/Cape Cod, Mass.—including top 40 WRZE, album WPXC, and classic rock WCIB—joins syndicator Superadio as VP of programming.

Recently installed WIOQ (Q102) Philadelphia PD Todd Shannon adds OM duties for parent Clear Channel/Philadelphia. Brian Check, PD of AC sister WSNI, who had been OM for both WSNI and Q102, is now CC's latest regional VP of programming.

Ross Winters, PD for modern/classic rock combo CFOX/CFMI Vancouver, adds director of programming duties for parent Corus Entertainment.

Bill Sheridan, PD of Nassau's classic rock WODE Allentown, Pa., adds those duties for rock-based adult top 40 WSBG Stroudsburg, Pa., replacing Angela Mason.

FORMATS: SLEIGH BELLS RING

A number of Clear Channel AC stations are leading the way with Christmas format flips. They include KKDJ (K-Lite 105.3) Bakersfield, Calif.; KKLI (K-Lite 106.3) Colorado Springs, Colo.; and WKSQ (Kiss 94.5) Bangor, Maine. WMXW (Mix 103.3) Binghamton, N.Y., will flip Nov. 29.

AC KMMZ Oklahoma City has been LMA'ed by Citadel and is also now programming all Christmas music. The station is being co-branded with the cluster's country KQBL (K-Bull) by stunting as "the Bull's Oklahoma Christmas."

In other news, rhythmic top 40s KXME Honolulu and KQCH Omaha, Neb., are both starting to filter in more non-R&B titles, including Avril Lavigne in the case of the latter.

PEOPLE: LINK INK

The Charlotte Business Journal reports that adult top 40 WLNK (the Link) Charlotte, N.C., is looking to turn middays into a more personality-intensive daypart along the lines of its morning and afternoon shows. GM Rick Jackson tells the paper the station is trying to woo former WTJM New York morning host (and Charlotte radio veteran) Jay Thomas. "I don't know if we can make the dollars work, but he's interested, I'm interested, and it's something that we haven't ruled out."

Adult top 40 WTTI Milwaukee adds Amy Taylor from co-owned WTMJ-TV to the Reitman & Mueller morning show.

Rhythmic top 40 WBTT (105.5 the Beat) Fort Myers, Fla., hires modern rock WTKS Orlando, Fla.'s Soul Brother Kevin for nights, replacing Bruce Da Moose. Kevin was part of the Monsters of the Midday crew on WTKS.

Modern WXRK (K-Rock) New York production/creative services director Steve Stone exits.

Modern WPLY (Y100) Philadelphia promotions director Patrick Schmidt exits. Marketing director Kelly Gross is seeking a replacement.

Former triple-A KCTY (106.9 the City) Omaha, Neb., PD Max Bumgardner jumps to crosstown rhythmic KQCH for mornings. He joins current host JC Simpson. Also at the Journal cluster, KCTY middayer Nikki Boulay joins adult top 40 KSRZ (Star 104.5) for middays.

KQKQ (Sweet 98) Omaha, Neb., taps new middayer Brittany Huntman from the same shift at adult top 40 KSTZ (Star 102.5) Des Moines, Iowa.

KSPW (Power 96.5 Jamz) Springfield, Mo., taps P.K. (the Preacher's Kid) for nights from KSYN Joplin, Mo. He replaces A.J. Maguire.

BMG Buys Out Davis, Folds J In With RCA

As Airplay Monitor went to press, BMG announced it was buying out Clive Davis' 50% stake in J Records and combining it in a new division with RCA. Davis will serve as chairman of the two labels, known as the RCA Music Group. Current chairman/CEO Bob Jamieson exits the former configuration of the RCA Music Group, which comprised RCA, BMG Canada, RCA Label Group Nashville, RCA Victor Group, strategic marketing BMG Special Products, and BMG Heritage.

BOBBY'S BACK: It was nine years ago this week that Bobby Brown debuted with his last charting single on rhythmic top 40, "Something in Common," a duet with wife Whitney Houston. This week, Brown returns to the chart as a featured artist on Ja Rule's "Thug Lovin'" (Murder Inc./Def Jam/IDJMG), which debuts at No. 40. "Thug Lovin'" is Ja Rule's 13th chart appearance at rhythmic, eight of which are from this year. Prior to this issue, Ja Rule was tied with P. Diddy for the 2002 lead with seven charting titles, yet he still can't shake him, as Diddy also debuts with his eighth of the year as a featured artist on B2K's "Bump, Bump, Bump" (Epic) at No. 33.

Phil Collins racks up his eighth No. 1 at AC, with "Can't Stop Loving You" (Atlantic). His most recent No. 1, "You'll Be in My Heart," spent 19 weeks on top—which tied it for the second-longest No. 1 title reign with Celine Dion's "Because You Loved Me"—two weeks shy of the record of 21 weeks set earlier this year by Dion's "A New Day Has Come."

Christina Aguilera's "Beautiful" (RCA) earns Airpower status in only two weeks, moving 35-18. The track is also the Greatest Gainer and earns Most Airplay Adds. Her first single, "Dirrty," which peaked at No. 14 last month, re-enters this week at No. 40. At rhythmic, "Beautiful" is new at No. 30 and her eighth chart appearance to date.

No Doubt featuring Lady Saw's "Underneath It All" (Interscope) takes over the No. 1 spot on the modern AC chart, ending Creed's seven-week run on top with "One Last Breath" (Wind-up). It's the first No. 1 for No Doubt at modern AC. The track moves 4-2 at adult top 40.

LABEL NEWS: Neda Tobin joins Lyric Street Records as Southwest regional. Tobin, who most recently did pop promotion for Atlantic, replaces Sharon LaPere. Meanwhile, LaPere joins Arista for pop promotion.

Getting A Head Start On The Holidays

After last year's rush to be the first in the market with holiday music, it's no surprise that the all-Christmas formats began popping up almost immediately after Halloween. Stations that have made the flip include KOST Los Angeles; WLIT Chicago; WPCH Atlanta; WNIC Detroit; WOOD Grand Rapids, Mich.; KOSI Denver; and KMEQ Dallas. Because many AC stations replaced their regular offerings with holiday fare, Top 40 Airplay Monitor swapped out its weekly recurrent chart to show the most-played holiday gold at our reporting stations.

The weekly holiday music chart will return to Airplay Monitor next week. But this week, we thought we would show you the top 20 holiday songs of 2001—a programming tool you're sure to find helpful whether you're planning to go all-Christmas or just making a list of songs for the holiday category and checking it twice.

Surviving 1991, And 2002, Too

I was unpacking the boxes at my new place (still am, still will be by the time you read this. As a radio person, you may, perhaps, be able to relate), when I came across a handout called "The 1991 Top 40 Survival Guide" from a top 40 format panel that I had sat on at a National Assn. of Broadcasters Fall Radio Show. The moderator was Steve Rivers. The other panelists were Dave Shakes, Casey Keating, Mark Driscoll, and, I believe, Rick Stacy.

TOP 40 TOPICS

BY SEAN ROSS

646-654-4617 • sross@airplaymonitor.com

The "Survival Guide" was a handout featuring five pieces of advice for the then-ailing format. At the risk of pointing out just how long I've been harping on certain issues, these were my suggestions from more than 11 years ago:

1. Believe in yourself. If you don't, no one else will. If you decide to settle for the same shares as a niche format, that's all you'll get. Stop assuming that everyone who isn't an 18- to 34-year-old female isn't interested. Those folks didn't go away until they were told to leave.

If top 40 was doing great in its current form, superserving 18- to 34-year-old females at the expense of everyone else might be OK. Since it isn't, try to get the traffic back in the door. You won't know they're not interested until you try. As [veteran AC programmer] George Johns says, run a department store and not a boutique.

2. Reflect the market. Why do so many cities with huge ethnic populations still have top 40s without any black or Hispanic jocks, and no females before 10 p.m.?

3. Rethink your presentational efforts. The high-energy radio of the "Q-format" era lasted only about four years before everyone burned out on it. So why have we been doing pseudo-[WHTZ New York] Z100 "flamethrower" radio for eight years? [Then WPOW (Power 96) Miami PD] Bill Tanner is right when he says too much radio production sounds like an angry parent.

Top 40 needs its energy and production elements—it doesn't have to go to a completely dry presentation like a KRBE Houston [which had just unveiled its "hits without the hype" approach, in which jocks didn't talk over music], but those presentational elements still need to be freshened up and made friendlier to listeners.

Also, try letting your jocks talk again. Allowing them to talk only four times an hour in between all the nifty production pieces hasn't worked. Maybe listeners would like to be related to by friendly, humorous people again.

4. Let other stations break music for you again. If you stop assuming that country, rock, and R&B listeners don't want to hear their own music when they visit top 40, then you suddenly have a lot more music to deal with that has already been familiarized in the market. And, as Mike Joseph says, start going to the box office for music. Too many records are selling without top 40 airplay, and that means something bad for the format.

5. Say thanks. Since "eat me" and "don't be a dickhead" didn't work as radio positioners [and yes, someone did use them at the time], maybe top 40 PDs should take another tack. Thank your listeners often. Thank the people who made the decision to tune in the office radio, and thank their co-workers who are listening to you even though it may have not been their own choice. People like to be around people who

Archway's Brian Krysz: More Equity, No Less Outspoken

Asked what led him to his new post as Archway Broadcast Group VP of programming and marketing, outspoken former Cromwell Group head of programming Brian Krysz sums it up in one word. "Equity. Twenty-one years in the business of making other people rich has been fine, but it's my turn now, and this is such an excellent opportunity we have ahead of us," he says. "I'm working with two great friends—Chris Fleming and Al Vincente. I've known Chris for about eight years and Al for about seven. I left a great job, but there's not many chances to work with such a dynamic team of people that you not only trust and respect but are also friends with and have a good time with. We really want to be a company that people all over the country will want to work for."

He continues, "I didn't expect this to come together for another year-and-a-half. The company's only 4 months old. I was driving back from Nashville about two weeks ago, and I got a call wanting to know if I was interested in being a market manager in Little Rock, Ark., and I thought it might be interesting."

That was the plan until "we made an exceptional hire by promoting the director of sales, Ray Daugherty. I got a call the next day saying, 'How about a corporate position instead?' The next day, they asked if I could come to New York the following Monday to meet with the J.P. Morgan folks [who are Archway's lenders]. I did that, and they grilled me for four hours, then offered me the job. Nine days later, I was on site in Little Rock, Ark., as they did the LMA [of the group's newly acquired modern/rhythmic top 40 combo KLEC/KHTE]."

Krysz says that his relationship with the other Archway principals makes for "a very dynamic management situation. The trust level is so high [among] Al, Chris, and myself that there's no hesitation. It's 'Let's do it,' instead of hours of discussion... We have such great experience working together that we know what the right decision is to make in instances where we can't communicate with each other directly."

Little Rock is Archway's third market, after picking up clusters in New Bern, N.C., and Columbus, Ga. Krysz says, "Our short-term plan is to get these 12-13 stations up and running and six to nine months from now hopefully be able to pick up some more. It's a work in progress."

"We just hope that the minority tax bill passes and the companies will want to get the tax break and be looking to sell off some of their lower-performing properties," he continues. "These companies can only cut [budgets at their current properties] so much. They've done all their cutting. In Little Rock, the No. 1-billing station in the market has a live morning show and middays, and that's it. I look at Nashville, where [Clear Channel has] eliminated [regional senior VP of programming] Buddy Scott's position... the midday, afternoon, and night [people] on [top 40 WRVW] the River [are] gone. What can they do next? There comes a point where you can't cut anymore and can only voice-track so many shifts, and they're going to look to increase their revenue, and they're not going to be able to do it in all these markets, so the only way they'll be able to get more cash is to sell off some of their lower-performing properties."

BRIAN KRYSZ

VP of Programming/Marketing
Archway Broadcast Group

'People who treat radio as a job are not as successful as the ones who live it'

"We're looking at stations in the top 100 markets, primarily 50-100," Krysz adds, "and I think we're going to see a lot of the Toledos and markets like that become available in the next two years."

Once associated primarily with rock radio, Krysz had expanded into multiple formats in recent years, particularly top 40. At Cromwell, he was doing music for most of the group's 20 stations, with five top 40s, two moderns, three album rockers, and four country stations. "I always laugh when you come into a market and they say, 'It can't work here, this market is different,' because 99% of my experience is that the markets are identical. If you do the same basics in all of the markets, you'll be successful: Play the hits. Identify the station. If you have a good morning show, take advantage of it, and if you don't, play the hits some more and be as visible, local, and in-the-face of the people in the market as possible."

During his time in mainstream top 40, overseeing Cromwell's WQQZ (the Party) Nashville, Krysz got a lot of attention several years ago for an outspoken attack at the Billboard/Airplay Monitor Radio Seminar on the state of current, mostly teen-act-driven music. "I said that these acts were novelty acts comparable to the Partridge Family and the Archies. They were manufactured artists, as opposed to being real talents. And in the two years since I've made those comments, as up in arms as Jive was, I think they're seeing the reality today."

But while many PDs feel the teen idols of 1999 have been replaced with acts of greater substance, Krysz makes an equally controversial prediction. "I think Avril Lavigne is going to be the same as Britney Spears. She's the flavor of the month, and let's see if there's a third or fourth song," a prediction that puts him at direct odds with numerous PDs who feel that Let Go will yield at least that many singles. He asks, "Does anyone really think that 'Sk8er Boi' is a great song?"

And Krysz is equally unsparing about the state of today's rock. "There's only about 32 artists at modern that have more than two songs in the format... There aren't enough artists that have been developed to carry a format. If you look at the '70s, the reason classic rock works is that there's 80 artists that have more than one song at the format and about 30 that have 10 or more... What artists that came out this year are going to be around 20 years from now?"

"To me, melody is what music's really about," he continues. "You'll still be hearing 'Wasting My Time' by Default in 20 years, because there's a good melody to it. You probably won't be hearing 'What's Your Flava?' 20 years from now on an oldies station. I don't think that a businessman driving to work 20 years from now will be listening to System of a Down... The reason the Red Hot Chili Peppers' songs work is that they all have a good melody, they have cool chord changes, and the lyrics are pretty clever. Most of these songs these kids like now are just fast, noisy chords with no melody."

During his time at Cromwell, Krysz wasn't uncomfortable with the notion of voice-tracking. "Our philosophy is that while it does save some money, it also gives talented people an opportunity to make more money," he says. "For 45 minutes of work five days a week, they can make another $150 a week voice-tracking a station, we have a better talent on there, and they have another revenue stream for themselves. I would like to, in the future, get a couple of people that work in Atlanta [where Archway will be based] and voice-track a less significant shift in other markets."

As for his new properties, "KHTE just had a very good summer book, and we have good, talented, and energetic people who really care on both stations. We didn't buy any dogs, we bought good stations that we hope to improve," Krysz says. "I've never walked into a station that's as excited about the future of the company as I've been there. When there's a sale, there's usually a lot of paranoia and worry. But I went in to look at the music, and I had three full-time staffers come and sit in because they wanted to learn so much. They're really being like a sponge—they want to learn and do radio better. That's all we can ask for in employees."

BRAM TEITELMAN

like them. [That last line, by the way, came from Valerie Geller, now a well-known talent consultant but then a N/T programmer.]

So how are we doing today? The best news is that, for now anyway, most top 40 stations are more comfortable than ever being top 40. Shakes had advised that stations affected with 25-54'itis "sell what you are and get big shares." Oddly enough, that really happened, although we'll never know if it was because of consolidation or despite it. But there's still a mainstream-to-adult-top-40 segue every few months, and as top 40 shares in some markets dip into the 3-4 share range, more of those wouldn't be a surprise.

Top 40 PDs certainly learned to play R&B crossovers, as well as modern rock crossovers, although not necessarily all at once. Women started to show up before 10 p.m., and even in a more prominent role in mornings occasionally. But as for reflecting an ethnically diverse market, a Shelley Wade, who made the transition from R&B radio to middays at Z100, is still too much of a rarity. There is, at least, greater cause for optimism in the growing number of African-American PDs of rhythmic top 40 outlets.

What else hasn't changed? The "angry parent" drops are back, although it's more of a sneering parent now. I still don't hear many stations thanking listeners for choosing the station or listening to a station that may not have been their choice. (Office listening isn't as controlled by one person as it used to be, but if the PPM ever becomes a factor, acknowledging forced listening will again be important.) Most stations would still rather have listeners humiliate themselves to win concert tickets than thank them.

Unlike the early '90s, when production was doing the DJ's job ("request lines are open, dickhead," says Mr. Angry Parent), jocks are allowed to entertain again. Then again, because of the increased reliance on voice-tracking, you often end up with only four breaks an hour anyway. But now they're longer.

In September 1991, markets were starting to lose top 40 stations at a weekly clip, and having been through a similar doldrums a decade earlier offered the industry no assurance that they would make it through this one. Eleven years later, stations don't necessarily have the numbers or the available product they would like. They do, however, seem to have the intestinal fortitude to go through this soft patch without panicking and without apologizing for the format in the first place, which counts for a lot.

Songs ranked by number of detections. () Songs showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A song will also receive a bullet if its percentage loss in detections does not exceed the percentage of monitored station downtime for the format. A song that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will generally not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to the song with the largest increase in detections. Most Airplay Adds awarded to the song registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. A song with a gain in detections over the previous week is placed first if tied with a song with a decline over the same period. When tied songs are each gaining detections or each losing detections, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Songs below the top 20 become re-entrants and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Songs ranked by number of audience, computed by cross-referencing exact times of airplay with Arbitron listener data. () Songs showing an increase in audience over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A song will also receive a bullet if its percentage loss in audience does not exceed the percentage of monitored station downtime for the format. A song that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will generally not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in audience. A song with a gain in audience over the previous week is placed first if tied with a song with a decline over the same period. When tied songs are each gaining in audience or each losing in audience, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Songs become re-entrants and are removed from this chart in conjunction with the Mainstream Top 40 Airplay chart.

AIRPLAY
MonitorNielsen
Broadcast Data
Systems

Songs ranked by number of detections. Playlists are listed in order of TSA weekly cume, beginning with the highest-cuming station. Cumes are updated twice yearly following the release of the spring and fall Arbitron surveys. The number of stations shown each week varies depending upon space.

* denotes songs with 6 or more detections at station for first time this week.
* Indicates station reports to both Adult Top40 and Modern AC.

Songs ranked by number of detections. ○ Songs showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A song will also receive a bullet if its percentage loss in detections does not exceed the percentage of monitored station downtime for the format. A song that has been in the chart for more than 20 weeks will generally not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the song with the largest increase in detections. Most Airplay Adds awarded to the song registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. A song with a gain in detections over the previous week is placed first if tied with a song with a decline over the same period. When tied songs are each gaining detections, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Songs below the top 20 become re-entrants and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Songs ranked by number of audience, computed by cross-referencing exact times of airplay with Arbitron listener data. ○ Songs showing an increase in audience over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A song will also receive a bullet if its percentage loss in audience does not exceed the percentage of monitored station downtime for the format. A song that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will generally not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in audience. A song with a gain in audience over the previous week is placed first if tied with a song with a decline over the same period. When tied songs are each gaining in audience, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Songs become re-entrants and are removed from this chart in conjunction with the Rhythmic Top 40 Airplay chart.

Songs ranked by number of detections. ○ Songs showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A song will also receive a bullet if its percentage loss in detections does not exceed the percentage of monitored station downtime for the format. A song that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will generally not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the song with the largest increase in detections. Most Airplay Adds awarded to the song registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. A song with a gain in detections over the previous week is placed first if tied with a song with a decline over the same period. When tied songs are each gaining detections or each losing detections, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Songs below the top 20 become recurrences and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Songs ranked by number of audience, computed by cross-referencing exact times of airplay with Arbitron listener data. ○ Songs showing an increase in audience over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A song will also receive a bullet if its percentage loss in detections does not exceed the percentage of monitored station downtime for the format. A song that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will generally not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in audience. A song with a gain in audience over the previous week is placed first if tied with a song with a decline over the same period. When tied songs are each gaining in audience or each losing in audience, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Songs become recurrences and are removed from this chart in conjunction with the R&B/Hip-Hop Airplay chart.

Songs ranked by number of detections. ○ Songs showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A song will also receive a bullet if its percentage loss in detections does not exceed the percentage of monitored station downtime for the format. A song that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will generally not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the song with the largest increase in detections. Most Airplay Adds awarded to the song registering six or more detections for the first time this week. A song with a gain in detections over the previous week is placed first if tied with a song with a decline over the same period. When tied songs are each gaining detections or each losing detections, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Songs below the top 15 become recurrences and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

Songs ranked by number of audience, computed by cross-referencing exact times of airplay with Arbitron listener data. ○ Songs showing an increase in audience over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A song will also receive a bullet if its percentage loss in audience does not exceed the percentage of monitored station downtime for the format. A song that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will generally not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in audience. A song with a gain in audience over the previous week is placed first if tied with a song with a decline over the same period. When tied songs are each gaining in audience or each losing in audience, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Songs ranked by number of detections. ○ Songs showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A song will also receive a bullet if its percentage loss in detections does not exceed the percentage of monitored station downtime for the format. A song that has been on the chart for more than 20 weeks will generally not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the song with the largest increase in detections. Most Airplay Adds awarded to the song registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. A song with a gain in detections over the previous week is placed first if tied with a song with a decline over the same period. When tied songs are each gaining detections or each losing detections, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Songs below the top 15 become recurrent and are removed from the chart after 26 weeks.

ADULT CONTEMPORARY POWERPLAYISTS

FOR WEEK ENDING NOVEMBER 17, 2002

Songs ranked by number of detections. Playlists are listed in order of TSA weekly cume, beginning with the highest-cuming station. Cumes are updated twice yearly following the release of the spring and fall Arbitron surveys. The number of stations shown each week varies depending upon space.

6+ denotes songs with 6 or more detections at station for first time this week.
