Here are the results of The Billboard's Thirteenth Annual Record Artists' Popularity Poll, based on a survey of disk jockeys and station librarians across the country.

Deejays should find interesting supplementary material for on-the-air commentary in the analytical stories which accompany each group of charts. The poll results, of course, can be utilized as programming by jocks in any number of ways. Additional biographical material on the No. 1 winners in each category appears in "Today's Top Record Talent."

Top Disks Cut By Ventures, Presley, Sinatra & Mancini; Film Themes Get Big Play

Record manufacturers are releasing so much more product—both singles and albums—today, that The Billboard decided to extend the favorite records category this year by setting up two separate divisions—vocal and instrumental—for both singles and albums.

Only Frank Sinatra and Bobby Darin made the favorite single record chart again this year—Sinatra with "Nice 'n' Easy" and Darin with "Artificial Flowers." Elvis Presley's first post-G.I. hit, "It's Now or Never" walked off with the No. 1 favorite vocal single slot, altho Connie Francis would have taken the top spot if her vote hadn't been split between two disks—"My Heart Has a Mind of Its Own," No. 5, and "Everybody's Somebody's Fool," No. 8.

The strength of novelties this year is pointed up by the presence of two novelties on the favorite vocal single poll—"Itsy Bitsy Teenie Weenie Yellow Polka Dot Bikini" by Brian Hyland, and "Alley Oop" by the Hollywood Argyles. The increased popularity of country and western-oriented artists in the pop field is indicated by the presence of Brenda Lee's "I'm Sorry" in the No. 2 favorite vocal-single and Jim Reeves' "He'll Have to Go," No. 6.

Movie and TV themes had a strong influence on the pop singles field this year as reflected in the favorite instrumental-singles poll. Six of the top 10 disks are movie themes and one—Henry Mancini's "Mr. Lucky" is a TV theme. Billy Vaughn has two on the favorite instrumental-single chart—both movie tunes—"Look for a Star" and "Theme From 'The Sundowners.'" However, only one of the movie themes—Percy Faith's "Theme From a 'Summer Place'"—made No. 1 on the "Hot 100" this year.

Interestingly, the movie theme trend also influenced the favorite instrumental album chart, in that Mancini's "Mr. Lucky," featuring the TV series score, was voted No. 1 in this category, while Billy Vaughn's movie theme LP, "Theme From a 'Summer Place,'" was No. 2 and his "Look for a Star" album was No. 5. Vaughn also took the No. 3 spot, giving him three out of the top 10.

The varied fare offered by LP producers this year is spotlighted on the favorite vocal-LP chart, which features Bob Newhart's spoken word comedy LP, No. 4; Nat Cole's original musical score, "Wild Is Love," No. 3, along with the usual Sinatra, Darin, Peggy Lee, Eydie Gorme (with Steve Lawrence), Johnny Mathis, etc.—all of whom made the favorite LP chart in last year's poll.

The potent deejay appeal of certain artists is revealed by the fact that Sinatra, Darin, Henry Mancini, Vaughn, Faith and Connie Francis all have two or more records (singles and/or LP's) on the chart.

Some top LP artists failed to make the chart because their votes were split among too many different albums (i. e. Mitch Miller and his "Sing Along" packages).

Frank Sinatra Still Champ; Darin, Mathis Also Strong; Adam Wade Most Promising

Frank Sinatra, Bobby Darin and Johnny Mathis are the favorite male singers of America's disk jockeys in The Billboard's 13th Annual Disk Jockey Poll. The fact that Sinatra walked away with top honors again this year in the favorite category, is no surprise, since the singer has finished first in this poll for the past four years. And both Darin and Mathis, too, finished high up in the favorite and the most played polls last year. Sinatra, tho, still outdistances them all, with almost three times the number of votes in the favorite category, and with almost twice the number of votes as the most played. Nat Cole and Perry Como are two other veterans who still remain disk jockey favorites.

There were a few interesting developments in this year's favorite and most played poll this year, however, as compared to last year. Some of the newer, younger singers made this year's favorite or most played poll, and a number of veterans dropped off. The younger singers on the favorites poll included, in addition to Darin and Mathis, Brook Benton (also on the most played poll), Jimmie Rodgers and Jackie Wilson; and Paul Anka and Bobby Rydell made the most played poll. Off the favorites list this year were Bing Crosby, Vic Damone, Steve Lawrence, Frankie Laine and Andy Williams, who made it last year. Some of the younger singers slipped off the most played list this year, too, including Frankie Avalon.

The biggest representation of new, young vocalists came thru this year on the most promising list. (A number of jockeys apparently still look on Bobby Darin and Sam Cooke as a most-promising talent, since they both received sizable votes in that category, too.) The new young chanters included young singer Adam Wade, 16-year-old Brian Hyland, Bob Luman, Bobby Vee, Don Brooks, Jack Jones, Ray Orbison and Johnny Burnette. All of these artists had at least one big hit this year: Brian Hyland with "Itsy Bitsy . . . Bikini," Adam Wade with "I Can't Help It If I'm Still in Love With You," Bob Luman with "Let's Think About Livin'," etc.

A modified type of rock and roll appears to be strong as a programming trend, since almost all of the rock and roll artists, who showed up on the various polls have changed to a sweeter style. This includes Elvis Presley, whose last record ("It's Now Or Never") and his current release ("Are You Lonely Tonight") are on the ballad side, and the same is true of new records by Paul Anka, Brook Benton, Jackie Wilson, Bobby Vee and Sam Cooke. Only Fats Domino and Bobby Rydell are out and out rockers these days, and even these artists can sing sweet, too.

Ella and Connie Francis Still Tops With Deejays; Brenda Lee Most Promising

Seven out of 10 incumbents were returned winners again in the balloting by America's deejays for their favorite girl singers. Of the first five positions of the Top 10, only Connie Francis in third position changed the pattern from last year.

Others in the top five who retained their exact positions of last year in the current voting were Ella Fitzgerald in the top rung spot, Peggy Lee, second; Doris Day, fourth, and Sarah Vaughan, fifth. Miss Francis moved up from a finish last year in seventh place, on the strength of a string of consecutive two-sided singles hits, plus a series of strong-selling albums.

Joni James, absent from last year's favorite top 10, scored this year in the nine spot, despite the lack of any substantial singles hit activity. On the other hand, the only real newcomer, Anita Bryant, showed in seventh place solely as the result of important singles efforts.

Miss Bryant, in fact, showed in the most played and most promising categories as well, a considerable feat for a newcomer. Connie Francis maintained her lead position as most played of the girl singers and by a healthy margin. Other repeaters here were Doris Day, Peggy Lee, Ella Fitzgerald, Dinah Washington and Keely Smith.

Peggy Lee, for years one of the most played female artists, along with other standard names, found new competition for spin honors this year from a younger Lee, namely Brenda, who placed second. Brenda Lee and top winner, Connie Francis, were easily among the hottest in the singles field during the year.

In the most promising category, all but two are new to the voting this year, the only holdovers being Anita Bryant and Mavis Rivers. Youngsters showed strongly in this category with such names as Brenda Lee, Joanie Sommers, Jeanne Black, Annette and Jo Ann Campbell dotting the list. Again, most of these can trace their success to strong singles activity.

4 Freshmen Top Favorites; Kingston Trio Pull Most Play; Brothers 4 Strong Newcomers

The Kingston Trio and the Four Freshmen again turned up as important kingpins in the voting by America's disk jockeys this year for their favorite as well as their most played vocal groups. Despite comments in the past that jocks' own personal favorites did not often parallel their most played artists, the Kingstons and the Freshmen highlight almost a complete switch, in that eight of the most played groups were also listed as favorites.

Both categories contained winners that got that way for a variety of reasons. The most favored Four Freshmen, for example, took first place despite almost a complete lack of singles and with only a modest release of new albums. The second place Kingstons, on the other hand, enjoyed numerous hits in the single field as well as with albums.

So it was down the line, with the Hi-Lo's, third in the favorite voting, receiving the accolade with little in the way of disk activity. Others in this category, including the Everlys and the Platters, made it on the basis of numerous singles and hot-selling albums. Columbia dominated the "favorite" grouping with four winners, while Capitol had three. Even among the most played, some acts appeared to be winners on the strength of strong jockey loyalty rather than any notable hit activity.

Most played because of strong disk representation were such acts as the winning Kingston Trio, the Everlys, the Platters, Dion and the Belmonts and the Brothers Four, the latter mainly on the basis of one big hit, "Greenfields."

No single label gained any dominance in the most promising category, nor was there any preponderance of album versus singles artists. One notable point, was the naming of Dinah Washington and Brook Benton as a promising vocal group, indicating that one company at least enjoyed a solid payoff on the always risky practice of teaming individually successful artists. These two were by all odds the most successful in this practice which gained some sway during the year. Vocal duos were counted as a separate category last year, but were included with vocal groups this year, because there weren't enough strong vocal duos around to form a substantial category by themselves. Therefore the charts on this page do not show what positions—if any—were occupied by the duos and/or groups in last year's poll.

Shearing Continues Reign; Black-Eddy-Ventures Awards Show Jocks Also Like Rock

The George Shearing combo continued its two-year reign as the Favorite Instrumental Group of the country's deejays in this year's 13th Annual Disk Jockey Poll. This year, however, Shearing was hard pressed by two rock and roll-styled instrumental groups, that of Duane Eddy and the Bill Black Combo. The Black group, which didn't even finish in the most promising or most played polls last year, jumped into first slot on the most played poll, second position on the favorite chart, and finished in second slot in the most promising division. The Ventures, another rock and roll group, ended up in first place as most promising.

The favorite instrumental group poll included many different types of combos this year. George Shearing, Dave Brubeck, Andre Previn and Erroll Garner, are all jazz-oriented. Bill Black, Duane Eddy, and the Ventures are in the pop-rock and roll tradition. And Jonah Jones and Ferrante and Teicher can handle any type of music from sweet to swing. Ferrante and Teicher, when necessary, can also play classical music, since both started out their careers as classical musicians.

The most played poll notes the importance of either single or album hits on the part of the artists concerned. Bill Black has had a string of rock and roll hits, including "Don't Be Cruel." Duane Eddy comes up with a hit with almost every single released and now has a number of best-selling albums. George Shearing remains a strong seller on albums after almost a decade of popularity. Jonah Jones is another album and night club favorite, as is Dave Brubeck and Ahmad Jamal. The Ventures, on top via their smash hit "Walk, Don't Run," and the Hurricanes, who have a string of hits to their credit, are both strong singles sellers. Santo and Johnny are now strong album sellers, and Ferrante and Teicher sell both album-wise and on singles. Ferrante and Teicher this year, of course, came thru with two strong movie theme hits, "Theme From The Apartment" and "Theme From Exodus."

Many of the nation's deejays showed their interest in jazz via their votes for the most promising combos. Ray Bryant, for instance, finished on the most promising list, both for his pop single ("The Madison") as well as for his jazz albums. The Benny Golson-Art Farmer Jazztet, one of the modern new jazz units, also made the most promising list. The Pittdown Men, who have had two good-selling singles out, and Floyd Cramer, whose current dishing of "Last Date" is a big hit, also made the most promising chart. The Viscounts, Santo and Johnny, and Johnny and the Hurricanes finished on the most promising chart, as three more swinging instrumental groups in addition to the Ventures and Bill Black.

Some of the old favorites from last year didn't show up on the instrumental favorites this time. These included Benny Goodman and his combo, the Three Suns, Miles Davis and Martin Denny. Last year Denny swept the most promising poll and finished high on both the favorite and most played charts.

Pianists Dominate Poll Again; Newcomer Floyd Cramer Scores, Roger Williams Wins 2 Awards

For the second year in a row pianists swept the favorite, most played and most promising categories of the Solo Instrumentalists poll. (This category started for the first time in 1959.) Roger Williams won both the favorite and the most played polls, and newcomer Floyd Cramer, whose big hit record is "Last Date," was the winner of the most promising instrumentalist poll. However, two guitarists finished second and third in the most played poll. Duane Eddy and Chet Atkins respectively, and Atkins and Eddy also came in strongly on the favorite poll.

Last year Roger Williams finished second to Erroll Garner as the favorite and most played instrumentalist. This year Garner was second to Williams in the favorite category, and fourth in the most played department. (Garner's second-place and fourth-place finish in the two polls is noteworthy in that he has not had a new release on Columbia Records in two years due to a contractual hassle.)

Floyd Cramer came out of nowhere to wrap up the most promising poll. Bobby Darin, who was featured on one record release "Beachcomber," this year as a pianist only (there was no vocal on the record) made enough of an impression to finish in second place as most promising instrumentalist. Pete Fountain and Preston Epps landed the third and fourth spots, and Duane Eddy, still regarded by some disk jockeys as a new talent, finished fifth. (Either there is a lack of strong new instrumental talent or else disk jockeys were not very impressed by the new talent they heard on records this year, for only the above five received enough votes to qualify for the most promising instrumental poll.)

In addition to pianists Williams, Garner, Andre Previn, Eddie Heywood and George Shearing on the favorite instrumentalists poll, and guitarists Chet Atkins and Duane Eddy, a number of horn men copped places as well. Pete Fountain, Benny Goodman, Jonah Jones and Miles Davis finished in the top 10. Goodman is one of the few veterans to appear in the favorite poll, illustrating his hold on the country's deejays and their loyalty to the one-time "king of swing."

The most played poll showed similar results to the favorite poll, with pianists Williams, Garner and Previn among the winners, and guitarists Eddy and Atkins there, too. Floyd Cramer broke into the most played chart via his hit "Last Date" recording for the first time. And such well-known instrumentalists as Pete Fountain, Jonah Jones, Billy Butterfield and Benny Goodman completed the list. The fact that Benny Goodman has made few new records yet finished on the most played poll is a tribute to his great popularity among the radio audiences.

A number of artists who finished in the top 10 in the most played or most promising polls last year didn't make the polls in 1960. These included Ahmad Jamal, who finished first in most promising last year and also made the most played list; Martin Denny, who finished second in 1959 most promising; Dave (Baby) Cortez, who finished on both the most played and most promising last year; Johnny Smith, on the favorite chart last year; Cozy Cole, last year on the most played chart, and Ramsey Lewis, Jackie Noguez and Bill Doggett, all on the most promising poll in 1959.

Elgart-Vaughn Top Favorites, Kenton-Conniff Also Strong; Si Zentner Most Promising

The first four finishers in the balloting for favorite in the band category have again demonstrated the consistency of the top names. Each of the four have been winners in the category for the past three years. Also of interest in band voting, is the virtual sameness of winners in the favorite and most played categories.

In the voting for favorite band, Les Elgart, Stan Kenton, Ray Conniff and Count Basie all were named for the third year in a row. All these and all but two others are almost exclusively album artists. Only Percy Faith with his smash single of "Theme From a Summer Place," and Billy Vaughn with various singles as well as albums, deviated from this pattern.

Interestingly enough, both Faith and Conniff scored in both the favorite and most played categories, even though each is active only with studio recording groups. Faith's group, in fact, might well be better described as an orchestra rather than band, because of its large string complement.

In the most played category, Les Elgart and Billy Vaughn, who finished in that one-two order last year, merely switched positions this year. The two maestros were closely bunched but far ahead of the rest of the pack.

Among the most promising bands in the opinion of the jockeys, are four repeaters from last year, at least one of which, Henry Mancini, could be described as having really moved out of the promising category into the group of those who have made it. Others receiving the promising accolade again this year are Si Zentner, Claude Gordon and Luther Henderson.

Among the newcomers to this category, Don Costa heads the list in third place, primarily on the basis of several hit singles, "Theme From the Unforgiven," and "Never on Sunday," since his move to United Artists. Another newcomer, Felix Slatkin, well-known on the West Coast music scene, and one who has conducted the Hollywood Bowl Symphony, has developed a lot of recent interest on the basis of a single, "Theme From the Sundowners."

Birthday Calendar

Deejays should find a wealth of year-round chatter angles and programming ideas in this new feature which lists birth dates—by day and month—of a flock of top show business names, past as well as present. In addition to an extensive number of recording artists' birthdays, the calendar spotlights the natal days of well-known composers, Broadway and motion picture stars, and key jazz musicians. An asterisk indicates personality is deceased.

THE CONNIE FRANCIS STORY

Connie's charm and wholesome good looks have made her a favorite with all age groups. This has accounted, in a large measure, for the outstanding success she continues to achieve whether she's playing before an adult night club audience, a mixed audience of TV viewers or a teenage group of record fans.

the little girl from

Every time 22-year-old Connie breaks with a new M-G-M record . . . every time she shows on the nation's TV screens . . . or belts out a song at one of the top night spots . . . she adds more and more to the vast army of fans who help keep record dealer cash registers ringing, who build deejay audiences, and who get the SRO signs hung outside the leading clubs.

But like all solid showbusiness careers—the kind that go on and on and on—this one was a long time building.

It goes way back to 1942 when Connie was just four. The milestones that helped launch this sparkling star? There were many of them and many people, and only a few can be covered here.

Like Papa George Franconero who never stopped working with Connie . . . like winning the “Arthur Godfrey Talent Scouts Show” . . . and like the M-G-M Records contract that sprung Connie on a delighted world of record buyers and listeners.

“Try just once more—how about an old song like ‘Who’s Sorry Now.’” Connie’s father, George Franconero, took time out from his roofing contractor business to guide Connie’s career over some of the early rough spots.

Jersey who made it big . . .

Yes, the little girl (five-one and 105 pounds) from Jersey has made it big, thanks to a lot of talent and a lot of people. We proudly present, on the following pages, some highlights of Connie’s outstanding successes—with a hint of things to come:

Connie’s vivacious personality and stage presence stamp her as a top-grade “pro” on her personal appearance dates. This area of her showbusiness life is studded with record-breaking engagements and standing-room-only performances both in the U. S. and overseas.

Connie’s bubbling personality before an audience belies the seriousness with which she approaches all of her many entertainment activities. Here, with the help of M-G-M Records president, Arnold Maxin, she gives a thoughtful listen to a playback at one of her recording sessions.

MUSIC FOR EVERY

A strong factor in Connie's fabulous rise is her versatility. She can rock with the best—and she has. And she can touch hearts with the sincerity of her ballads.

Programming for radio? You name the show, or the kind of show—Connie's got the song and the delivery that fits like a glove. And for dealers, Connie's wide selection of albums—all top-grade sellers—rate the top spot in the display racks in all types of record shops from coast to coast.

THE LADDER OF SUCCESS

Scenes from her brand-new M-G-M picture, WHERE THE BOYS ARE. This is still another facet of Connie's success-studded showbusiness career. Her versatility embraces not only an uncanny ability to handle all types of songs, but also a remarkable "feel" for all entertainment forms.

Over the years, Connie has earned a lot of nicknames based on her many successes. But the one that record people like best is "the million-a-month gal." That's based on sure fact, too—a recent 8-month period during which Connie's records sold at a steady million-a-month clip. It all started—the big-time sellers, that is—with "Who's Sorry Now," and it's been going on at an uninterrupted rate ever since.

And, as if million-sellers weren't enough, Connie's set a fabulous pace for two-sided winners, too.

What's it add up to? Some high-powered electronic computers would be needed to find out what it has all meant in terms of dealer sales, disk jockey spins, juke box plays, and total audience—but the tip-off is in the more than 15,000,000 Connie Francis records now owned by the world's record buyers.

And the fabulous success of Connie's singles keeps growing with each new release.

HOW TO USE THIS FEATURE

JUKE BOX OPERATORS, in view of the increasing number of stereo juke boxes, will be especially interested in listings of available stereo singles and EP's in the record data column. Also, operators may profit handsomely when an artist is particularly hot by programming, not only his current big record, but also the same artist's earlier hit or standards. This info, too, is in the record data column.

DISK JOCKEYS will find that the information in this complete easy-to-use directory can be integrated with nearly every spin. The wealth of chatter in the brief biographical summaries is presented here alphabetically by artist for easy reference. And many fine programming ideas can be developed from the record info data.

BUYERS AND BOOKERS OF TALENT will need no diagrams to tell them how valuable this compilation is, or how to use it. They have continuously requested biographical data as well as for the personal managers and booking offices or leading talent. This feature should answer these requests.

A practical programming guide for disk jockeys and juke box operators, featuring biogs and basic record data on all recording artists whose records appeared on The Hot 100 or Top LP Charts from September 1960 thru November 1960, plus any million-seller artist who had a singles release during the same period.

(NOTE: Biographical and disk data was secured from the record companies for which these artists record. Omissions or lack of data is the result of inability by the record company to provide information to The Billboard. In the case of artists with lengthy record credits, a representative selection is used to provide a basis for programming).
