New Talent Influx Assures Steady Folk Field Growth

By MIKE GROSS

NEW YORK-The folk music field is replenishing itself. With key attractions like Peter, Paul and Mary; the New Christy Minstrels, the Kingston Trio, the Limeliters, Joan Baez and the Brothers Four, among others, still drawing large concert crowds and big record sales, a flock of new attractions are making their own dents in the folk scene. Among the newcomers are the Serendipity Singers on Philips, the Womenfolk on RCA Victor, the Goldebriars on Epic, John Hammond Jr. on Vanguard and Orriel Smith on Columbia.

Tradesters agree that the continual influx of new names is what's keeping the folk field alive and vibrant. They say that it's the steady stream of key names that carry forward the interest and excitement of the record buyers for the entire folk movement.

Records Help

The record companies, too, have done quite a bit in firming up the folk situation. By adding merchandising techniques to their folk artists, the sustained interest has carried the Bob Dy-lans, Peter, Paul and Mary, and New Christys, out of the single record category and into the catalogs, thus bringing the ethnic enthusiasts back into the stores for repeat purchases and attracting, at the same time, a wider audience for folk music on the mass pop level.

In so doing the labels have changed folk music from a "trend" into a staple. Whereas no one could have predicted the durability of folk records at the time of the Kingston Trio's "Tom Dooley" success, this product today is considered as important an area of commercial significance as Broadway show albums, Hollywood sound tracks, country music or even classical war horses. It is interesting to note, however, that recent efforts to do the same for "pop gospel" failed.

Newport Folk

The importance of folk music is also pointed up in the fact that the Newport Folk Festival has now become an annual event. It was launched as an afterthought to the Newport Jazz Festival but it's now considered of equal importance.

Country artists like Johnny Cash and Flatt and Scruggs have also invaded the folk field via concerts and LP's that exploit the close link between folk and country music. In so doing, Tennessee Ernie Ford's "Sixteen Tons" and Jimmy Dean's "Big Bad John" have become pop contemporary folk standards.

Strip Strutting Is Musical Barbecue

By ELIOT TIEGEL

LAS VEGAS - Pop balladeers. Latin instrumentalists. country and western singers, jazz soloists and French revues make this city a music lover's delight.

Once you get past the cacophony of slot machines, Vegas swings, twangs and rocks to every kind of music commercially acceptable in hotel lounges and main rooms.

On a recent trip a visitor was regaled by Tony Bennett at the Sahara, Mitzi Gaynor at the Flamingo, and the "Lido De Paris" revue at the Stardust, three excellent examples of the kind of repertoire on display.

Radio Deal

On the local radio dial, two Top 40 outlets, a good music station and a country/western specialist extend the width of programming available. Years ago hotels used to pipe in background music to the rooms. These days the Stardust offers Top 40's KRAM and KENO, middle of the road music on KORK, and c.&w. on KBEG.

Vegas has become the home of the spectaculars and three French revues are packing in audiences: the fifth edition of the "Lido" at the Stardust, the "Follies Bergere" at the Tropi-

Eurovision Song Contest Won by Gigliola Cinquetti

COPENHAGEN-The Eurovision Song Contest was won here in Copenhagen (March 21) by the youthfulness and simplicity of a 16-year-old Italian girl, Gigliola Cinquetti, and the charm of her song, "Non no I' eta" (Still Too Young). It was a glittering affair, with artists, conductors music publishers and personalities of the musical world from 16 European countries at the Tivoli Concert Hall.

The winning song "Non no I' eta" was given a tremendous reception by the concert hall audience and drew three times as many votes as the song which got second place, England's "I Love the Little Things," sung in great style by Matt Monro.

"Non no I' eta" was written by Nicola Salerno and Mario Panzeri. Gigliola Cinquetti's recording of this song, released in February by CGD in Italy, had sold nearly 450,000 copies up to the day of the contest. Gigliola has also recorded the song in German and Spanish. Publisher is Sugar. Chappell, Ltd., acquired the song for England and Felix Stahl of Stockholm's Musicproduktion for the Scandinavian countries.

Stahl, who acquired the song at San Remo, told Billboard, "We now have two local recordings, one in Swedish and one in Danish, with lyric translations by Lisbeth Stahl."

Jean Kluger of World Music, Brussels, who was in Copenhagen, has taken it for Benelux and expects considerable success in Belgium and Holland. Composer Nicola Salerno has had many hits before, one of them "Tango del Mare."

The Spanish song "Caracola" received much applause from the theater audience but not many votes." The Monaco entry "Ou sont-elles passees" sung by Romuald came third and there was almost a tie for fourth

Chart Crawls With Beatles

By JACK MAHER and TOM NOONAN

NEW YORK - Just about everyone is tired of the Beatles. Disk jockeys are tired of playing the hit group; the writers of trade and consumer publication articles are tired of writing about them and the manufacturers of product other than the Beatles are tired of hearing about them. Everyone's tired of the Beatles-except the listening and buying public.

Two more Beatles singles popped onto the Hot 100 this week, "You Can't Do That" on Capitol and "Thank You Girl,"

Vee Jay. This ups last week's total of Beatles records on the chart to 12. "Can't Do That" is the flip side of "Can't Buy Me Love" which broke in at No. 27 last week and went to No. 1 this week.

Canada Source

The mass of Beatles material being supplied to American radio stations and stores is being increased again by product from Canada. Latest is "Love Me Do" which is getting hot air play across the country. Now that U. S. retailers and subdistributors have set up air corridor channels of supply with Canadian subdistributors, "Love Me Do," like the previous "All My Loving," can be expected to funnel into the country at a much quicker and regular rate.

One thing that seems to have handicapped output of the "Love Me Do" single is the accidental breaking of one of the pressing masters in Capitol of Canada's plant.

The Prices

Prices paid for those three Capitol of Canada disks from Canadian one-stops is approximately 61 cents and they are being sold to other retailers in this country for 75 to 89 cents. The retailer who gets on the street first with the disks can sell them for anything from $1.25 to $1.75. But as the amount of Capitol of Canada singles appear the price declines. It seldom goes below 99 cents, however.

There was also some demand for the Capitol of Canada LP "Beatlemania," but requests for this have diminished somewhat. It is understood that "Beatlemania" will be repackaged to conform with the new U. S. Capitol LP called "The Second Beatles Album." There are two Capitol of Canada LP's which have found their way into the U. S. market. "Twist and Shout"

Hugo & Luigi Part Company With RCA

NEW YORK - The record producing team of Hugo (Peretti) and Luigi (Creatore) are winding up their million-dollar affiliation with RCA Victor. Hugo and Luigi have not yet determined their program after they leave Victor April 30 but it's reported that they've been talking to Broadcast Music, Inc., about a publishing operation and with Morris Levy about returning to Roulette Records.

Hugo and Luigi came to Victor from Roulette about six years ago. It's understood that the deal came to $1 million for a five-year term but was payable in 10 years. When the original five year term expired recently, it was renewed on a year-tovear basis. Now that their contract with Victor has been terminated, they'll still be getting $100,000 annually for the next three years.

Steve Sholes, RCA Victor's division vice-president of pop a.&r., is expected to bring in a new a.&r. producer in the near future. He's now working with Ben Rosner as manager of a.&r. and producers Andy Wiswell, Jack Somer and Jim Fogelsong.

In a prepared statement about their leaving, Hugo and Luigi said, "We've got that old itch to go into business for ourselves, and while we're sitting here, it's not polite to scratch. What business? Well, we know absolutely nothing about the sale and manufacture of iron horses, so it will be the music business. A number of proposals have been made to us recently, and we have been looking into them. But we cannot openly negotiate while we are holding our present position with RCA Victor."

LOUIS J. SEBOK has been set as assistant general sales manager of Decca Records. Sebok started his career with Decca in 1938 as a member of the New York sales department. In 1946, he was made assistant division sales manager for the East, and subsequently joined the national sales office in 1956.

SYDNEY—The local Australian record industry came of age and has received its most important recognition with the awarding of first disk awards from a major radio source. The awards were made this past week by the Macquire broadcasting network and station 2GB. The Tunetable Awards, as they are called, were made to outstanding home - produced disks in 1963.

Best male vocal disk was by Jimmy Little called "Royal Telephone" on the Festival label. In the female section Little Patti took the cake with "He's My Blonde-Headed, Stompie Wompie, Real Gone Surfer Boy," on HMV. The best vocal group was the Delltones with "Come a Little Closer" on London, Instrumental topper was the Atlantics with "Bombers" on CBS. Of the 25 new names introduced to the industry in 1963, Jimmy Hanan with "Beach Ball" on R. G. was named the best.

The best all-Australian record of the year was the Delltones with "Hangin' Five," the top composer Johnny Devlin. The best album of the year is Lionel Long's "Bold Bushrangers" and a special award was given to Frank Ifield as the outstanding Australian overseas during 1963.

Best Record

adds that the full potential is still in the future, owing to likely changes in the Copyright Act, and possible new mechanical innovations in the reproduction of music - to which the mechanical right will be applicable.

In European countries, the total income from mechanicals is closer to the total from performing rights - owing to the fact that the mechanical levy there is predicated on 81/2 per cent of the retail price of the record. Unlike copyright proprietors in the United States, Europeans have more carefully guarded the mechanical-so that now, in view of the great expansion of the record business, it amounts to big money.

In the United States, it has been common practice on the part of many publishers to give away the right for less than the 2 cents per side figure specified in the Copyright Act of 1909. The idea, of course, has been to let the right go cheaply in order to get a record-which would assure a payoff in performance money. In brief: trading away one right to gain via another. Now, the validity of this point of view is being questioned.

One exec very close to this scene stated: "The time is now passed where a publisher can afford to put all his eggs in one basket. The 2 cents mechanical statutory rate is likely to go up ... and the new figure will be negotiable also ... but the base will be higher."

Another element of importance is the thought, held in some key quarters, that income from performing rights may be close to its peak. Some stations, in fact, argue for a per program license. The societies, of course, will do all they can to secure a fair return from the profitable use of music; but many feel that if there is a major breakthrough in royalty income, it is likely to come from new uses in mechanical reproduction which are not yet on the market.

Fact that more thought is being given to the matter of mechanicals, synchronizations, etc., was pointed up recently in the Billboard story of the hassle over the sync rights to the Beatles' closed-circuit TV airer.

Other hard-hitting British products released this week that is getting extensive air play are "Not Fade Away," by the Rolling Stones, London, and the Hollie's version of Doris Troy's hit of last year "Just One Look," Imperial. There's a new Cliff Richard disk available on Epic as well, "I'm the Lonely One" coupled with "I Only Have Eyes for You." Capitol of Canada is unintentionally creeping into the Richard market, too with French titles "J'Attendre" getting extensive play and sales in New England.

AWARDS GO TO MORE EPSTEIN DISK WINNERS

LONDON - EMI Chairman Sir Joseph Lockwood held what was virtually a mass presentation ceremony to honor three of Beatles' manager Brian Epstein's other hit-makers last week (23). The three were Gerry and the Pacemakers, Billy J. Kramer with the Dakotas and Cilla Black. All received Silver Disks from Sir Joseph for passing the quarter-million sales mark with their latest releases-all three records are now well in excess of that figure, Gerry had his fourth hit (though his first not to reach the No. 1 spot) with "I'm the One," Billy J. and Cilla both had chart toppers-with "Little Children" and "Anyone Who Had a Heart" respectively.

Jenkins' 'Tower' Still Rising After 20 Years

NEW YORK - Gordon Jenkins' "Manhattan Tower" continues to build as a tall disk property almost 20 years after its original publication. The Jenkins composition has had three album workovers which have sold more than 3,000,000 copies and now Columbia Records is training its big guns on the package with the first stereo treatment which stars Robert Goulet.

"Manhattan Tower" was originally released in 1946 by Decca Records and was followed 10 years later by a Capitol LP. which was a treatment of the TV production, and by a Patti Page LP of the Jenkins song on Mercury.

Lou Levy, who publishes the work via his Pickwick Music (ASCAP) firm, reports that "Manhattan Tower" also has been done as a ballet, a symphonic piece and has been issued in concert band form for schools. Levy is now dickering to sell "Manhattan Tower" as a picture property.

The Columbia LP will be tied in with the 300th anniversary of the founding and naming of the City of New York. Columbia kicked off the LP last week with a cocktail party at the Tower Suite of the Time and Life Building where Richard C. Patterson Jr., New York Public Events Commissioner, presented a special citation to Goddard Lieberson, president of Columbia Records, Robert Goulet and Gordon Jenkins for their contribution to the celebration of the 300th anniversary. The Department of Public Events has mapped out plans to offer souvenir copies of the LP to dignitaries who will visit the city during the upcoming New York World's Fair.

ords has moved for an order setting aside a Civil Investigation by the Justice Department of its manufacturing price practices. The order, which was filed with Judge Edelstein in New York Federal Court, stated, "We shall show that Civil Investigation of the Department of Justice pending the outcome of proceedings is unreasonable and oppressive and constitutes an abuse of power."

The Justice Department seeks to have Columbia produce its books and records and other documents for the purpose of ascertaining whether there is or has been a violation in pricing of phonograph records manufacturing service at unreasonably low levels in an attempt to monopolize the manufacturing industry.

The Justice Department had filed for the Civil Investigation in Washington on December 6.

The FTC more than three years ago conducted an investigation into all phases of the business and pressing service service and monopolizing or attempt to monopolize. Last year FTC hearings were held in various cities in the U.S. (New York, Los Angeles, Chicago, et al.) and Columbia claims that after a thorough investigation the FTC found no evidence. Columbia claims that Justice Department is seeking to continue this investigation, which is a duplicate of the FTC hearings.

ASCAP Case Withdrawn

NEW YORK - The Justice Department last week withdrew its civil contempt case against the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers (ASCAP) and its president, Stanley Adams, for refusing to grant CBS a per-program license (Billboard, March 21).

ASCAP, required under its 1941 and 1950 consent decree terms to give its customers the option of a blanket license or per-program license, refused this to CBS and offered a license requiring CBS payment of $12,500 a month, plus additional fees when ASCAP music was performed.

The Society will shortly announce a "per program" formula, according to Adams.

Electrola Surges: Plans More Offbeat

Moldau.

By OMER ANDERSON

COLOGNE-Electrola, which last year regained top spot on the German record market, with 25.6 per cent of the total volume, will not rest on its laurels. It has been 25 years since Electrola landed at the top. Electrola says no single German diskery will ever again dominate the German market with 80 per cent of sales, as was the case in its heyday in the 1930's.

In fact, Electrola, while again back on top, is conscious that it does not dominate the market and probably cannot. But Electrola plans on staying on top, and its strategy for doing so is to push offbeat LP output.

Superficially, this seems a contradiction. For while the German record industry at large slumped 20 per cent in singles sales, Electrola boasted its own singles by 17 per cent.

Away from Singles

However, Electrola strategists believe the trend is with LP and away from singles, and they are pushing LP production on all fronts-but mainly off-beat. A spokesman said, "At Electrola we are of the opinion that there are no more nosegays to be won with perpetual new releases of Beethoven's Fifth Symphony and Smetana's

"We are also of the opinion that even with enormous financial and trade promotion, as in the case of Beethoven's Ninth Symphony with Karajan, it is not possible any longer to reach a reasonable return."

Accordingly, Electrola has formed a special production group - the first such group (Continued on page 8)

Jay-Gee Sets Foreign Distribs For Its Labels

NEW YORK-Jay-Gee Records has concluded new arrangements for foreign distribution of disks released by its affiliate labels. Jubilee, Josie, Port and Dana, and for disks of labels for which Jay-Gee handles world-wide distribution. Agreements have been concluded with distributors in Europe, the Far East and the Carib Islands.

Pattern for the new agreements follows the one which obtains between Jay-Gee and Quality Records, Ltd., of Canada. According to Steve Blaine, Jay - Gee president, royalties from Quality in 1963 quadrupled the 1962 figure.

Contracts have been set with the following distribs in various areas: Festival Records Pty., Ltd., of Pyrmont, NSW, Australia; Show Records, Aarschot. Belgium; Cosdel, Inc., of Tokyo; Vogue Records, Paris; Fotaleza Record Distributors, Inc., Bayomon, Puerto Rico, and Vdette Records, Milan, Baline added that distributorships are now being set in Spain, Portugal, the United Kingdom and the Scandinavian countries.

Chuck Kaye Part of Complex Colpix Changes

NEW YORK-Colpix Records is still in a state of flux. Bob Rosen and Erv Bagley, who were set as national sales manager and head of one-stop and rack jobber sales and promotion, respectively, only two weeks ago, left the firm abruptly last week over policy differences with Ray Lawrence, the record company's new general sales manager.

HOLLYWOOD-Among independent West Coast record firms, the A.&M.-Almo combine, run by Herb Alpert and Jerry Moss, rides its Latin hits with a never-panic philosophy.

Firm's latest singles, "Mexican Drummer Man," by the Tijuana Brass, and "Moonglow/ Picnic Theme," by the Baja Marimba Band, are proof that clever arrangements with their own distinct sound can crack the pop market.

"People advised us against starting a record company with the 'Lonely Bull' single," Moss recalled, "but we had faith in the sound and didn't want to lease the master, so we went for broke." Company has been in operation a year and a half.

Music is of prime importance when the shows spotlight Tony Bennett, Nat Cole, Frankie Laine, Harry James, Charlie Spivak, Esquivel, Leon McAuliff, Martin Denny, Don Cornell, Brothers Castro, and the DeJohn Sisters, who were all performing through the March 20 weekend.

Of the aforementioned artists, Esquivel had his RCA LP's promoted by an attractive display board in the Stardust lobby. Disk affiliations for other artists was noticeably absent.

NOM Music Wins Case

NEW YORK—Nom Music, a music publishing subsidiary of Roulette Records, won a victory in New York Federal Court last week in a copyright infringement action against Hull Records, Keel Music and James Sheppard for the copying of the Nom Song "A Thousand Miles Away" under the name of "Daddy's Home."

The decision granted Nom an injunction and accounting of profits of the tune "Daddy's Home" which the court ruled was a copy. The decision was based on an analysis presented companies are being alerted to this expanding market.

With this demand for Latin music hitting an all-time high, Decca Records is moving in with a special program that will include albums of the top names in the Latin dance field. The program kicks off March 30 and will run for two weeks.

Highlighting the program are new packages by Machito and His Afro Cubans, Grupo Marcano, Augustin Irusta Canta, Los Rancheros, Pedro Flores, Augustin Lara, Noro Morales, and a new package titled "Desile De Estrellas," which includes Rafel Munoz, Rene Cabel, Bobby Capo and Noro Morales.

Also in the program will be such Decca catalog names as Emilio Reyes, Jose Greco, Bebo Valdes, Machito, Vincente Gomez, Sabicas, the late Carmen Amaya and D'Artega, among others.

by Nom showing evident similarities in the music and lyrics of both tunes. Since Nom's copyright to "A Thousand Miles Away" is dated 1956, "Daddy's Home" which was copyrighted in 1961 was named an infringement.

The court concluded that Nom established the right to recover damages for the infringement of its copyright and was also entitled to injunctive relief for its protection.

Sheppard is co-sponsor of both songs involved. In 1956 Sheppard and William Miller assigned a composition entitled "A Thousand Miles Away" to Keel Publishing which copyrighted it as an unpublished composition, published it and copyrighted it in 1957. In 1961, Sheppard, together with Charles Bassett and Clarence Bakerville, composed "Daddy's Home," assigning it to Keel.

Shad's New Disk Idea

NEW YORK — Bobby Shad has come up with a new idea for musical disks on his newly created label. Theater Productions. Shad is presenting an original musical comedy version of "Tom Jones."

The novel idea, which Shad calls "putting the cart before the horse," is a recording of an original musical score for the Tom Jones story line before it is ever presented on stage, TV or radio.

The 14 original tunes for the LP musical were written by Ruth Bachelor and Bob Roberts

Courts Not Mad at Mad On Parodies

NEW YORK — "Parody and satire are deserving of substantial freedom both as entertainment and as a form of social and literary criticism." So ruled the U. S. Court of Appeals last week in upholding the right of Mad magazine to satirize the lyrics of popular songs. The ruling was against a group of song publishers and writers, including living Berlin, who charged copyright infringement.

The parodies were published in a special edition of Mad which transformed "The Last Time I Saw Paris" to "The First Time I Saw Maris" and "A Pretty Girl Is Like a Melody" to "Louella Schwarts Describes Her Malady."

Judge Irving R. Kaufman, who wrote the opinion, said that "the fact that the defendants' parodies were written in the same meter as plaintiffs' compositions would seem inevitable if the original was to be recognized but such a justification is not even necessary; we doubt that even so eminent a composer as Irving Berlin should be permitted to claim a property interest in iambic pentameter."

Julian T. Abeles, attorney for the publishers in the suit, is planning to file an appeal in the U. S. Supreme Court.

Taubman and Brass Band To Africa

NEW YORK—The big brass band is going to Africa. Under the sponsorship of the U. S. Department of State's Office of Cultural Presentations, Paul Taubman and his All American Big Brass Band have been set for a tour of the African Continent from September 12 to December 6.

Taubman, who is scheduled to appear in 16 African countries, will also conduct seminars, workshops and clinics in the art of the brass band. Taubman's brass instruction will be held in universities, colleges and mission schools mission schools.

An unusual aspect of the Taubman tour, which is said to be the first brass band junket in Africa, is that it was partially screened through his recordings. Copies of Taubman's Epic album, "Big Brass Band," were sent to the various American embassies in Africa for their approval. It was after the embassies sent in their okay that the State Department wrapped up the deal for Taubman's tour. New albums have been sent to the various radio stations in Africa to herald the band's approach in September.

the Chuck Casey Chorus and a copies are being sent out this week and Shad has made a special point of visiting key distribs to play and presell the album.

Early reaction to the LP idea has been strong, and, Shad says, CBS-TV is interested in the property as a one-hour feature presentation. It is also understood that a number of Broadway producers have heard of the presentation and have showed interest.

The off-beat unit is called "Extra-Produktion" and it will operate under a broad general directive to "break new ground" and "create unusual records."

Electrola has in mind more releases of the genre of "Halunkenpostille," "Nachtlokal frei Haus," "24-Belina-Behrend," all released in 1963.

Deutsche Grammophon and Philips are evincing interest in similar production, examples being DGG's "Der Brave Soldat Schweigat" with Werner Fink and Philips' Juergen van Manger disks. Teldec is also moving to create a special production program.

Nero Re-Signs With RCA; Plans Single Exploitation

NEW YORK — Peter Nero, who has seven hit albums under his belt at RCA Victor, is now casting his eyes toward the singles field. Nero, who was in New York recently for a college date and to sign a new long-term contract with Victor, feels that the singles market is now ripe for his type of material and he's now looking into the possibilities of turning out more singles product during the course of the year.

The Nero drive into the singles field will not affect his album production, however. Nero says that he'll continue putting out three LP's a year as he had

L, H & B Disband

NEW YORK—The Lambert, Hendricks & Bavan jazz singing trio has disbanded. The group has broken up so that Dave Lambert can return to arranging and conducting work with his own Dave Lambert singers.

Lambert had been most active in this work prior to the formation of the group with Jon Hendricks and Annie Ross in 1957.

Jon Hendricks broke in his single act at the Village Gate a few weeks ago and is currently performing at the Village Vanguard as a solo. He is inclined at the moment to pursue his single singing role with future plans that might include the formation of a new trio.

The disbanding of the Lambert, Hendricks and Bavan group nullifies a recording contract the group had with RCA Victor. Hendricks is currently talking with a number of labels about his future recording plans since he is not signed to Victor as a single act.

been doing under his previous arrangement with Victor. The material for the singles, he says, will be original, and not culled from album tracks.

Meantime, Nero is hitting the college trail with a vengeance. He played about 200 campus dates in 1963 and reports that this year he's well ahead of the 1963 pace. Of the college scene, Nero said, "I'd have to do 20 years of one-nighters to cover all the colleges."

In addition to his campus concertizing. Nero is also extending his efforts into composing for the movies. His initial effort was "Sunday in New York" and he's under contract for three more pic scores to Seven Arts Productions

The "Sunday in New York" album is his current click release for Victor. His previous LP's were "The Colorful Peter Nero," "For the Nero Minded," "Hail the Conquering Nero," "New Piano in Town," "Young and Warm and Wonderful" and "Peter Nero in Person."

Are Folk Still Pop on Campus?

PHILADELPHIA — The marked emphasis on folk artists for college campus dates, which was so pronounced at the beginning of the school year, has waned to a great extent for year-end school dates, according to Bill Honney, head of the William Honney Agency here. One of the most active talent bookers for colleges in the East, Honney reports that the musical names dominate his bookings for both college and club dates in April and into May.

The Four Preps and Sarah Vaughan are teamed for an April 3 date at Villanova (Pa.) University; the Four Freshmen are alone April 11 at La Salle College here, he same April 11 date brings the Jimmy Dorsey band to Gettysburg (Pa.) College; Richard Maltby to the Philadelphia Country Club here, and Billy Butterfield to the University of Deleaware, Newark.

Denise Does Delightfully

NEW YORK—France's Denise Darcel introduced a soupcon of Gallic spice and a good measuse of joie de vivre to the Living Room where she opened for a three-week engagement March 17. Revealing some talents kept pretty well under wraps in the past, she proves to be a disarming entertainer of exceptional

Her act is well paced and varied. Lacing her speech with such Americanisms as "too much" and "forget it," she creates an atmosphere of informality in which the audience feels free to participate. She seemed to be enjoying herself and, consequently, so does everyone else.

In a French woman's impression of a Frenchman singing in English, she does a rather funny bit with a medley of Chevalier tunes. Bringing a song into a strong personal frame and concentrating on the lyric value, she manages to give a new look to a group of old ballads. "When the World Was Young" sounds refreshed, and such typically American songs as "Rock-a-Bye Your Baby With a Dixie Melody" and "Birth of the Blues" seem quite natural although somewhat improbable sung in her husky, heavily accented voice.

Rounding out the bill is a funny young comic, Richard Pryor, with some irreverent material, and a romantic Argentinian, Albert Rochi, singing love songs of many countries. A two-register singer, Rochi's combination baritone-falsetto lends itself better to a Latin ballad.

JOHN HAYS

Jon Hendricks Sparkles Mazda Magic in Village

When Jon Hendricks goes on stage a room lights up. With no by-your-leave from the Electricians Union, and no subsidy from General Electric, singer Hendricks turns on the Mazdas at the Village Vanguard each and every night he appears on its small bandstand.

The singer, who until recently was the driving force of the Lambert. Hendricks and Bavan jazz singing trio, is doing a solo at the club and will be there for at least two weeks. He opened Tuesday (24). (L. H. & B. disbanded and Hendricks is forming a new singing trio. For details see separate story.)

Jon Hendricks not only lights up the Vanguard but turns on the heat as well.

The artist radiates warmth, enthusiasm and joyousness, and he has much show business savvy. In short, he communicates with his audience. The strongest tool in the communication is a direct, natural humor.

That indefinable thing, swing, oozes from every pore of this singer. He works so tightly with the Gildo Mahones trio, the supporting rhythm section, that the combination functions more as a quartet than as trio and singer. The Mahones group also come in for accolades for its exciting support, with individual laurels going to pianist-leader Mahones, George Tucker, bass, and the most recent addition, Walter Perkins, drums.

Hendricks not only covers a good deal of the L. H. & B. repertoire but the material takes on a new warmth in solo context. The broad, swinging quality of the up-tempo "Give Me That Wine" is filled with as much fun; the special Hendricks-conceived lyrics to the Miles Davis interpretation of "Bye, Bye Blackbird" and Herbie Hancock's "Watermelon Man" are only a few of the quicker tempo tunes that score. For change of pace, Jon stuns the audience with a tender reading of "I Wonder What Became of Sally?" In all, the singer is a natural as a single, long may he Sharing the bill is ex-"Beyond the Fringe" star Dudley Moore. He fronts a trio on piano and plays well. On opening night the group seemed to be working the kinks out of its team play. They've played only a few dates together in the States. Moore's piano style is what might be termed conservative — modern, spiced with healthy helpings of Oscar Peterson, Erroll Garner and a dash of Ahmad Jamal. He has an album available in the States on Atlantic.

Jay McDonald, program director and host of "Mornings with McDonald" on KIBL (Beeville, Tex.) conducted an onthe-air "Bug the Beatles Day." McDonald got so bugged by it all he challenged his listeners to a marathon carnival ride contest. The local carnival had 11 rides and by the time Jay reached the "Tilt-a-Whirl" he was really bugged.

New Shows, More D.J.'s At Palisades

NEW YORK — New York area radio stations and air personalities will be holding forth in strength this spring and summer at Palisades Amusement Park, Palisades Park, N. J. The park will again be offering live shows, starring top record acts every Saturday and Sunday afternoons:

WABC top-rated evening mentor, "Cousin" Bruce Morrow began his sixth season Saturday (28) as the bespangled emcee of the Saturday shows 2 to 3 p.m.

Newcomers to the festivities will be the WMCA "Good Guys" who will be handling the emcee chores on an alternating basis every Sunday starting April 19, 2 to 3 p.m. "Dandy" Dan Daniels will be originating his 4 to 7 p.m. air show from the park on Saturdays beginning May 30.

WJRZ, Newark, will broadcast its "Hootenanny" show live from the New Banjo Palace at Palisades Amusement Park Sunday afternoon from noon to 2 p.m. hosted by Jerry White. The two hour broadcast will spotlight folk singing artists and inperson musical groups.

The shows are being produced and co-ordinated by Gil Faggen.

NAB Expects Record Turnout in Chicago

CHICAGO — With the National Association of Broadcasters 42d Annual Convention less than a week away, reports indicate that it may very well be the largest and most diversified of the series.

Among the top-ranking dignitaries scheduled to participate in the four-day meet April 4 through 8 will be Chairman Harris (D., Ark.) of the powerful House Commerce Committee who will address the broadcasters on Monday, April 6, at the first afternoon general assembly.

Chairman Harris' address will be followed by a panel discussion on broadcasting freedom, fairness and right to know. Theodore F. Koop, Washington vice-president of CBS and president of Sigma Delti Chi Professional Journalistic Society, will moderate the discussion.

Code of Ethics

The importance of a workable radio code of ethics and how it can bring better business to stations will be discussed by a panel April 8, at 10 a.m., moderated by Elmo Ellis, general manager of WSB-Radio in Atlanta and chairman of the NAB Radio Code Board. Others in the group will be code director Howard Bell, code administrator Charles Stone, Frank Mc-Intyre, vice-president of KLUB, Salt Lake City, and Cliff Gill, retiring chairman of the Radio Code Board.

On the entertainment side, SESAC will again this year feature continuous live entertainment by top recording artists in their Conrad Hilton Hospitality Suite.

Among the recording celebrities scheduled to appear will be Duke Ellington, Warren Covington, Richard Maltby, Kai Winding, Roy Drusky, Claude Gray, the Don Jaris Sextet, Roy Hamilton, Margie Singleton, Ernest Tubb and the Texas Troubadours and others.

The SESAC suite will have a recording studio where broadcaster may tape interviews with all the SESAC artists for use on local stations across the country.

The music licensing firm will introduce its new "Big Band" LP series at the convention—a package of 10 albums with more than 115 selections of the big band music.

Triangle Tipple

Triangle is transforming an entire suite at the Hilton into an exact replica of the famed White Horse Cellar, Edinburgh, Scotland, furnished with antiques, dart board, and an English barmaid, side of beef, wheels of English cheese and tankards of ale will highlight the menu offered to guests of the station group.

The 18th Century British publik house, attended by Triangle's sales and production staff, is symbolic of the foreign film and tape commitments of the company, which this season made a strong entrance into the production and syndication fields.

College Radio Men Grip Problems in Annual Meet

NEW YORK—The myriad of problems connected with running a radio station were explored by some 250 collegiate broadcasters during the third annual Collegiate Broadcasters Conference of the International Radio and Television Society, held here March 19 and 20.

Conference Chairman Mark

Olds, general manager of WINS and conference Program Chairman Bert Cowlan kept the students in a constant whirl of panel and luncheon discussions attended by top-ranking professional broadcasters and advertising executives.

One of the most controversial panels held during the two-day session took place on Thursday with "The Sound of Modern Radio" as the topic. William J Kaland, national program manager of the Westinghouse Broadcasting Company was moderator of the discussion which spotlighted panelists - deejays, Billy Taylor, WNEW; Herb Oscar Anderson, WABC, and Murray (the K) Kauffman, WINS. Walter Neiman, WSQXT, manager of operations fielded the questions on classical music programming and Joe Cook, WCBS program director, represented informational-talk programming.

Questions from the floor were both pointed and required some deep soul-searching by the astute panelists. A few of the problems crying for answers presented by the campus broadcasters were how to get record and LP service, how to present a diversified music for informational schedule without losing listeners, why do certain stations program as they do and the (Continued on page 16)

Focus on the Deejay Scene

STEVE WOODMAN, one of the most talented (sings, plays the piano) and zany comics to hit the New York City airwaves, is one half of the team of Woodman and Rich presently holding forth daily 2 to 6 p.m. on the NBC flagship station WNBC. Woodman, a mimic extraordinary, makes the listener feel that their fifth floor studio is filled with all sorts of characters as he leads his partner Keith Rich and the audience on a merry chase every afternoon.

A Canadian by birth, Steve began his comic romp by putting on his teachers back in Saskatoon and Edmonton. At 18 he joined CKUA in Edmonton and also did air stints on CJCA and CFRN in the same city. Steve later took his talents to Montreal to launch a children's show called "Stevie-O" on CBC television where he did his own animation with a small select circle of wooden-headed puppet companions. His radio show in Montreal also featured the zany off-beat characters such as "Marlon the Cool Cat," "Percy the Englishman" and "Long Gone."

The next move for Steve was to bring his show (and his 13 different voices) to WNTA-TV (Newark), now Gotham's educational station. When WNTA folded Steve continued a very active acting career with the CBC and soon landed his own radio show with partner Keith on Toronto's CKEY. Steve proved his ability to swing with the hits there.

Twenty months ago the team, while doing special guest shots on a regular basis for Monitor, were asked to join the newest WNBC

Steve's line-up has been changing almost as swiftly as WNBC's. Now the father of seven, his most recent family addition was born only last month.

Better Public Relations Needed

By BILL GAVIN (Contributing Editor)

rabio people are so busy talking to each other—and, occasionally, to themselves—about the fine points of their business that they are sometimes surprised to learn what others think about it. While the number of radio receivers in use is at an all time high, and while nearly everyone is exposed to some radio broadcasts during a year's time, people in general take less interest in radio, and are less informed about it, than in the pre-television days.

letters in Billboard I have received a surprising amount of mail from readers who have no direct connection with broadcasting. Some of their comments and questions reveal alarming misconceptions about what is happening in modern radio. I've selected a few of these as typical of more or less widely prevalent misunderstandings.

"RECORD PROGRAMS ARE JUST FOR KIDS." "Why doesn't radio play some good music once in a while?" "All the news you hear on the radio these days is about somebody getting robbed or hurt or killed." Comments of this kind indicate one thing about the people who make them: They haven't been doing their own tuning. Their radio listening has been selected by the young people in the home. If the objectors were to explore the variety of entertainment and news available on their radio sets, there is a very good chance that they would find something they liked.

NATED by a teen-age majority. Even the stations with the largest share of teen audience can show a substantial majority of over-21 listeners. There are many adults who prefer the young modern popular music. For those who prefer other music—jazz, classics, religious, or what-not—it's available practically anywhere all the time. Between 50 per cent and 60 per cent of American listeners regularly select programs which are not oriented toward best selling single records.

have made "blood and guts" newscasts notorious. Some station newscasts are so strongly slanted toward sensationalism that they hardly deserve the name of "news." And yet, in all fairness, they are no less distortions of good taste and no more abuses of good news coverage, than some of our big city street editions. For those who prefer their news in breadth and depth, the network stations, as well as a few major independents, offer news reporting and news analysis at their best.

ONE OBVIOUSLY THOUGHTFUL and intelligent reader expressed a strange (to me) conclusion: "Good music" stations are more interested in public service and aren't so concerned with making money as the pop music stations are. Just why a particular type of musical programming should reflect an altruistic disdain for profits is hard to comprehend. And yet, if you will listen to different stations with this thought in mind, it may dawn on you-as it did on me-that the purveyors of "good" music manage somehow to project a sense of indifference to the size of their audience or the urgent requirements of their advertisers. Their implicit appeal is one of class rather than mass. Their listeners demonstrate their own good taste by tuning in the station, is their

THE MANAGER OF A "GOOD MUSIC" station once told me, "Regardless of what music a radio station plays, the name of the game is money." it would appear, however, that to at least a portion of the public, the name of the game is spoken more clearly by the "top 40" stations than by their more conservative colleagues. While it is not necessarily an obstacle in the path of good public relations, it points to an area of public misconception that could stand more attention. The fact is that many "top 40" stations are not only leaders in public service, but have pioneered new and better ways to help their communities. It may be that the successful "top 40" station makes too big a noise about the size of its audience, and fails to emphasize sufficiently its many services to its community.

PROBABLY THE MOST RIDICULOUS accusation I have received is that radio stations are engaged in a conspiracy with the big music publishers to prevent a new songwriter from getting his material accepted for air play. The fact is that radio today provides exposure for more new musical talent, writers and performers, than any other form of showbusiness in our history. It goes without saying that if any conspiracy were possible it would be directed toward the discovery—not the repression—of any creative musical talent.

Radio does a good job of selling for its sponsors. Radio does an inferior job of selling itself to the public. Each station is so busy promoting its own interest that there is no one left to speak for radio broadcasting as a whole.

THE EGGHEADS, new singing sensotions, are invading TV. An appearance on the Garry Moore show (CBS-TV) March 31 will be followed by the Johnny Carson Benefit Special April 11. In negotiation is a guest appearance on "Hollywood Palace." Their hot single on the Bell label is "WHY DON'T YOU STOP FOOLIN' AROUND" b/w "MIRACLE." #601. WNBC AIRS RODGERS SHOW

NEW YORK—WNBC here recently aired a three and one-half hour salute to Richard Rodgers. Hosted by Wayne Howell, the spectacular ran the gamut of the great composer's outstanding compositions and featured the voice of his former partner Oscar Hammerstein, Mary Martin and Robert Russell Bennett.

Producer Lee Jones came up with a noteworthy autobiography of Rodgers in Rodgers' own words by allowing the composer to speak about his life, music and associates at great length. Jones' deft editing provided the listener with a memorable radio show.

Trimm, personnel, J. Walter Thompson and Richard C. Stanley, manager of personnel placement, CBS Network.

On Saturday many of the visiting student broadcasters took part in the Intercollegiate Broadcasting System conference at Columbia University's Ferris Booth Hall. The theme of the IBS confab was "New Look in College Radio." The high point of the day was an address by James C. Hagerty, vice-president of corporate relations for ABC and the keynote address by FCC Commissioner Robert E. Lee.

The students participated in down - to - earth workshops designed to probe the day-to-day operating problems of campus radio stations.

Nashville NARAS Sets Charter Member Deadline

NASHVILLE - The steering committee of the Nashville chapter of NARAS, at a meeting here March 23, announced the deadline for charter membership in the organization as May 1. According to committee president Harold Bradley, the date will allow people in the trade who want to be counted as "one of the originals" plenty time to join.

The committee composed of Owen Bradley, Decca; Fred Foster, Monument; Billy Graves, Capitol; Bob Ferguson, RCA Victor; Lester Rose, Hickory; Harold Bradley, Nashville musician; Hubert Long, Hubert Long Talent Agency; Frances Preston, BMI; Chet Atkins, RCA Victor; Shelby Singleton, Mer-

A constitution and bylaws for the Nashville NARAS chapter have been prepared. These are fashioned along those of the New York, Chicago and Los Angeles chapters. It is expected that the constitution and bylaws will be ratified at the April 20 meeting. The next step will be to petition to national trustees of NARAS for acceptance as a chapter - and favorable action is a foregone conclusion.

Chi Airs Mystery Beatle Disk; Midwest Simmers as Sales Fall

playing it, too," he told Billboard.

The big ABC outlet already has the Beatles on Capitol in its No. 1 spot; the Beatles on Swan in No. 2; the Beatles on Vee Jay as an "extra," and the latest offering on the unknown label "just being played."

A spokesman for Capitol's branch here said he knew nothing about the new record except that he thought it came from Capitol in Canada (not the same firm as Capitol in U.S.).

A spokesman for M-S Distributing Company, which handles Vee Jay and Swan, said the "Roll Over Beethoven" is a mystery to him.

Beatles No Mystery

The Beatles, however, were no mystery to the Midwest's dealers, rack jobbers and one-stops, not to mention juke box operators, all of whom were being besieged with requests for Beatles product.

Capitol's branch spokesman said he had no accurate count, but by best estimates he had moved close to 300,000 singles and 200,000 aland regular rate.

One thing that seems to have handicapped output of the "Love Me Do" single is the accidental breaking of one of the pressing masters in Capitol of Canada's

The Prices

Prices paid for those three Capitol of Canada disks from Canadian one-stops is approximately 61 cents and they are being sold to other retailers in this country for 75 to 89 cents. The retailer who gets on the street first with the disks can sell them for anything from $1.25 to $1.75. But as the amount of Capitol of Canada singles appear the price declines. It seldom goes below 99 cents, however.

There was also some demand for

There was also some demand for the Capitol of Canada LP "Beatlemania," but requests for this have diminished somewhat. It is understood that "Beatlemania" will be repackaged to conform with the new U.S. Capitol LP called "The Second Beatles Album." There are two Capitol of Canada LP's which have found their way into the U.S. market. "Twist and Shout" is the other. These packages are being purchased for approximately $2.60 and it was reported that in Boston they were sold by some retailers for as high as $6. The Canadian LP price is $4.20.

Nine Positions

In Canada, the Beatles hold the first nine chart positions. With the addition of "Can't Buy Me Love" at the No. 1 post, they now hold the first five slots on the Hot 100.

Geoffrey F. Racine, executive vice-president of Capitol of Canada, has denied reports that any firm in the U.S. has distribution rights to "Roll Over Beethoven." Racine also said that the company is not exporting Beatle Records to the United States and has no intention of doing so. He does admit, however, that records are being shipped here through one-stops and other large buyers of records who happen to have branches in Canada. It is also known that many American record merchandisers have set up specific deals with Canadian subdistributors of Capitol product.

bums, easily the hottest disks the branch has had in its history.

At M-S, Vic Faraci said he had moved 172,000 Swan singles, 43,000 Vee Jay singles and 20,000 Vee Jay albums. Most of the Vee Jay albums and singles were moved in the past week since prior to that the firm had been prohibited from shipping or manufacturing by a Capitol injunction (see separate story)

Individual store records were fantastic. Musical Isle, large onestop and rack jobber in Milwaukee, last week ordered 2,000 Capitol singles. A day later they called again to order 35,000.

Both Music Box and Singer one-

Both Music Box and Singer onestops in Chicago were buying Beatles singles at the rate of several thousand per day.

New Deal, supplier for the city's four Korvette stores, alone ordered 900 Swan singles from M-S in a single day.

Store Promotions Heavy

Store promotions were equally heavy. Korvette, which traditionally shies away from factory promotions, placed the Capitol mobile Beatle statue on top of its 45 merchandise rack.

Swan's Fountain Square store in Indianapolis has literally papered its walls with Beatles fliers. Among items furnished by Capitol: A national Beatles newspaper, day-glo posters, diecut jackets, banners, buttons, and of course, the popular Beatles wigs Wieboldt's in Chicago has been discounting Beatles albums but selling Beatle wigs for $4.98.

Patio Television in Chicago has literally turned its store into a Beatle House and the practice has been followed to a more or less degree by virtually every promotion-minded dealer in the city.

25 Beatles singles. To date, Riley received over 7,000 replies.

Art Roberts, WLS' 9-midnight man, told listeners he would get a Beatle haircut if he received 10,000 cards. Roberts was saved from this fate when the contest closed after WLS got 9,112 cards.

Beatles Fan Club

Both Roberts and Riley are also pushing a Beatles fan club, with the reward being a photo of the Beatles plus one of the two deejays. A Capitol spokesman, who is having the photos printed, said he has scheduled an initial run of 25,000 copies.

WYNR continued to play Beatles records despite a recent switch to r.&b. format.

Beatles Bring Love to N.Y.

Wednesday (12), both of which were sold out at a $5.50 top hours after the tickets went on sale a couple of weeks ago.

Several years ago violinist Isaac Stern fought a long, hard battle to "Save Carnegie Hall." Stern probably had no idea that the Beatles were coming.

The kids did, though, and they were out in force not so much to hear the Beatles as to see them. Inside and outside Carnegie Hall they released all inhibitions to show their approval and adoration for the uniquely coiffed quartet.

With signs and screams the femme adolescents displayed their emotions for John Lennon, Ringo Starr, Paul McCartney and George Harrison. Love has seldom been put on a more public display.

The concert itself was an example of pulsating pandemonium. It was virtually impossible to hear what the boys were singing through their close-to-35-minute turn. The roar from the girls in the audience was constant and had a decibel count that was ear-shattering. For those unfamiliar with the Beatles repertoire, it was virtually impossible to separate a "She Loves You" from a "I Want to Hold Your Hand." It seems that records still remain the only way to get an idea of what the group sounds like.

Young Folk Group

The Carnegie date was arranged by the newly formed Theater Three Productions who also set a group of New York disk jockeys to stir up the intros and a fresh young folk group called the Briarwood Singers as an opening act. The Briarwoods (four boys and a girl), who record for United Artists Records, were in a tough spot but they acquitted themselves admirably and drew respectful attention from the kids who were waiting for the Beatles to

Plans to put the concert on tape for a "Beatles at Carnegie Hall" album release by Capitol Records ran into union problems and an onthe-spot recording session was dropped.

The package probably would have been a hot seller for Capitol, but then again, this whole hysteria may just be a teenager's hair fetish:

THE BEATLES I WANT TO HOLD YOUR HAND

This is the hot British group that has struck gold overseas. Side is driving rocker with surf on the Thames sound and strong vocal work from the group. The flip is "I Saw Her Standing There" (Hefer, BMI) (2:50).

Beatles Giving Trade a Solid Bite

By BARRY KITTLESON

NEW YORK—Britain's hottest record act in history, the Beatles, only a source of speculation three weeks ago, has kicked off the industry's new year with a classic shot in the arm—with not one, but two, singles and on not one, but two labels jarring their way onto Billboard's Hot 100.

The Capitol Records' single, "I Want to Hold Your Hand," has bolted into the No. 3 slot in just two weeks. Shipments on the single are reportedly past the million mark, and an album "Meet the Beatles," has already been released.

Swan Records' single by the group, "She Loves You" (which sold over a million copies on EMI's Parlophone label) is No. 69 on this week's Hot 100, in its first week on the chart.

Advance reports have it that the Beatles are carriers of a harmless, but contagious "bug"—Beatlemania—and it, too, has arrived, in epidemic proportions.

Beatle Fever

For the past year, the quartet, which hails from the Mersey River district of Liverpool, has captured the imagination of the British, and has spread Beatlemania like a fever through the United Kingdom, Australasia, Germany, and now Norway (see separate story). Their first single effort on Parlophone, "Love Me Do," sold a "modest" 100,000 copies. No subsequent single released has sold less than half a million.

When "I Want to Hold Your Hand" was released in England on November 29, advance orders had already exceeded the million mark. Their two LP's have sold more than 300,000 copies.

One of the most efficient and effective promotional campaigns in recent memory presaged the arrival of the Beatles. Newsweek, Time, Life, UPI and AP have avidly chronicled Beatlemania from the boys' mushroom-shaped mops to their classic exchanges with the Royal family. Jack Parr offered a taped preview of the boys in early January, and their official debut is set for the Ed Sullivan show on February 9, with two more Sullivan spots following in short order.

Radio Fans Like

As expected, Beatlemania has hit the radio scene with a tremendous impact. WEEL, Fairfax, Va., inaugurated what is perhaps the first series in the country revolving around the Beatles (11). Through the cooperation of Giant Music and Capitol Records, a weekly one-hour program entitled "Beatles Bonanza" is offered on Saturday night. The Beatles' past hits, interviews with visiting Britons, and future merchandising of Beatle jewelry, wigs and other promotional items fill out the hour.

WABC, New York, initiated a Scott Muni Beatles Fan Club on Friday (10) which has resulted in a tide of mail averaging 2,000 to 3,000 pieces daily. All Muni asks is a self-addressed envelope, in which their membership card is returned to them. WABC reported that requests have been for "anything" by the Beatles.

WMCA, New York, is running a Beatles wig contest. The "Good Guys" are seeking listeners to take photos of their friends or from newspapers and paint on Beatles wigs. The station is awarding $57 to the first two most original entries with another 998 winners receiving a 45-r.p.m. disk, featuring photos of the group and the "Good Guys" on specially made record jackets.

English-Style Promo

The station is also airing Beatles promos cut by such legit theater artists as Margaret Leighton, star in Broadway's "Chinese Prime Minister," and cast members from "Chips With Everything." Artists all state, "I would like to thank WMCA for bringing the Beatles to America... WMCA reports that the most popular subjects thus far painted with Beatle wigs are: Khrushchev, Mayor Wagner, Alfred E. Newman (of Mad Magazine), Brigitte Bardot, and the Jolly Green Giant.

The Beatles, (John Lennon, Paul McCartney, George Harrison and Ringo Starr), until a year ago were but one of more than 300 rock and roll groups that populate the Liverpool musical scene. Together since 1958, the boys have worked under a variety of names, such as the Quarrymen, Moon Dogs, Moonshiners, and the Silver Beatles. When they accepted an engagement in Hamburg the "Silver" was dropped as being too cumbersome and they have kept the Beatles tag ever since.

Brian Epstein, whom the boys affectionately refer to as the "fifth member" of the group, was responsible for mentoring the Beatles into distinction. He acts as their manager.

Another young group featuring the so-called "Liverpool sound," which has recently entered the race and could possibly emulate the success of their forerunner, goes by the one-upmanship name of the Dave Clark Five. They are currently battling the Beatles for first place in England, with their Columbia single "Glad All Over." The single has been released in the U.S. on the Epic label.

On Capitol

broadcast newscasters gave the uninitiated adults (rumor is there are some) a snatch of Beatle style on record. Some reporters played it deadpan, some donned Beatle wigs, but everybody enjoyed it, even those who nominally scorned such highjinx.

"I Want To Hold Your Hand" was the city's theme song, and only the efforts of Washington's Finest (cops that is) kept it from becoming a reality as the fans converged on the Liverpool kids at the train on arrival and at the Coliseum later. The Beatles' own mixture of ingenuous mopflop, and their own kind of singing, with lyrics more sentimental than sexy, may have been one reason why there was no rioting in the crowds of teenagers.

Washington Deejay

On the Coliseum's centered platform stage, Washington deejay WWDC's Carroll James emceed, and kept his aplomb through the first wave of moans and groans when he announced that the Beatles would be on later, but first there were Jay and the Americans, the Caravelles, Tommy Roe, the Righteous Brothers, and the Chiffons. Favorite local deejays, wearing Beatle mops, phalanxed the boys to the stage. Guard of honor included Johhny Dark of WCAO, Baltimore; Dean Griffith (Dino) of WPGC, Morningside, Md., and Jay McKay, WEAM, Arlington, Va.

The Beatles were in fine fettle, undisturbed at having to move clockwise around the central stage to give each bank of fans a faceview. Swooners in the audience were strongest—or perhaps weakest—for the favorites doing "I Want To Hold You Hand," "Till There Was You," "Please, Please Me," "She Loves You" and "I Saw Her Standing There."

Theodore Bikel. Elektra EKL

250 (M), EKS 7250 (5) Some Bikel fant will rejoice that this album is in English or at least in Engtish dialects which can be understood by the non-linguists of his audience. There should be no cavil about Bikel. He is a consummate actor, and folk songs one scene plays all are only one of the areas in which he acts superlatively.

CLASSICAL SPOTLIGHT

BARTOK: CONCERTO FOR ORCHESTRA

Landon Symphony (Darati) Mercury MG 50378 (M); SR 90378 (5)

There are eight other versions of this work available in catalogs, but this is the first recording by Dorati and the London Symphony. Other versions are by Ansermet, Bernstein, Leinsdorf, Van Karajan and Stokowski, among others. Despite the competition, the dramatic work is sure to be one modern music collectors will want on their shelves

FOLK SPOTLIGHT

ANITA CARTER

Mercury MG 20847 (M); SR 60847 (S)

At may be expected from a member of the highly regarded Carter Family, Anita Carter performs traditional ballads from the British lives with an unchallenged authority, tenderness and authenticity. The use of multi-fracking is very effective-enhancing the ungimmicked simplicity of Anita's singing. An album for the discerning folk music lover.

SPOKEN WORD SPOTLIGHT

UNCLE VANYA (2-12")

Original cast. Philips PHM 2-301 (M): PHS 2-701 (5)

A sheer delight for the collector of re-corded drama. The play, widely heralded while at Chichester Festival Theater in England, is performed by an all-star cast lead by Sir Laurence and featuring Sir Michael Redgrave, Joan Plowright, Max Adrian and others. The album contains a seven-page booklet of photos and text on the play and its actors.

(Encore of) GOLDEN HITS OF THE GROUPS

The Platters, Mercury MG 20893 (M); 5R 60893 (5)

The Platters have rarely sounded better than they do on this album of top hits. The talent group gives fresh non-rock in-terpretation to 12 songs previously made Mississippi Mud," "Sincerely," "P.S. I Love You," to name a few.

Already established as French composersinger, Gilbert Becaud now makes a strong impression in debut LP singing in English. In addition to some of his own hits like "What Now My Love" and "The Day the Rains Came," there are such others as "More" and "What Kind of Fool Am I" to make it an entertaining, well-rounded

This is the second LP edition of the "Besatiric and at times quite funny. Paxton

Aretha Franklin, Columbia CL 2163 (M);

This LP is not one of one singer skillfully mimmicking another. Aretha Franklin projects her own special style and emutional approach to the songs made famous by

Dinah Washington, However, the gals are very much in the same musical groove and the late Miss Washington would have been most pleased with Aretha's approach "What

GREAT VOICES OF THE CENTURY

Various Artists. Angel NP 4

It's hard to imagine snyone not now having these tracks-by Gigli, John McCormack, Caruso, et al. But even those who do have them will want these vastly improved remasterings of connoisseur voices in arias.

FOLK SPECIAL MERIT

LOGAN ENGLISH SINGS THE WOODY GUTHRIE SONGBAG

20th Century-Fox TFM 3126 (M); TFS 4126 (5)

Some of the most singular of Woody Guthrie's songs are here, and they are all sung the head-on cando that butterie is and his songs demand. Any disk jockey could play the wryly humored "The Ladies" Auxiliary. Folk jockeys should delight in another legitimate way to present Guthrie. Too, there's a "mystery" female voice about whom guessing it not necessary, though it can be fun.

FOLK SPECIAL MERIT

THE SONGS OF FRED ENGLEBERG

Elektra EKL 247 (M)

Engleberg has a voice which ranges be-tween Josh White and Hoagy Carmichael, and a relaxation similar to the best of them. Beyond that, his choice of repertoire is as wild as it is varied, all written by him, and ranging from the Iraniz "Hang-man Song" to "Somebody Finked to the Fizz." He's a delightful and special story teller; a good bet for the disk jockey looking for special features.

JAZZ SPECIAL MERIT

EVENIN' BLUES

Jimmy Witherspoon, Prestige PR 7300

It's hard to remember a recent jazz record with such overpowering blues singing and playing, or a blues record with so much the five musicians, T-Bone Walker's guitar is an exceptional addition. Chances are some tracks can be programmed on other than the obvious shows. Try "Baby, How Long," the old "How Long Blues."

SACRED SPECIAL MERIT

CAROL AND JIMMY SNOW CARRY ON FAMILY TRADITIONS

Sucred songs have seldom been better performed than in this album by the Snows. The talented duo sing the songs with warmth and feeling backed beautifully by strings, femme voices, guitar and some fine arrangements.

Colleges Using Top Disk Acts; Records Sell Along

NEW YORK — The college talent circuit is boiling along, using top record acts, and plenty of disk product is being moved by dealers tying in with these promotions.

A report from Billboard's campus correspondent at the University of Kentucky, Max Schwartz, states that the Chad Mitchell Trio played to an attendance of 4,700 recently. This attendance is about one-half of the total enrollment. Dealer who cashed in best on this show was the Kennedy Book Store on campus. Peter, Paul and Mary are scheduled to appear at the college on April 18. The act has never been to Lexington, and their appearance, according to Schwartz, is eargerly awaited. Other acts which are being mulled for the college are the New Christy Minstrels and Joan Bacz.

Cameo Records' Orlons appeared March 7 at Muhlenberg College, Allentown, Pa. Their performance of "Wah-Watusi," "South Street," etc., drew tremendous acclaim. An informal poll of the audience indicated that quite a few had purchased albums by the Orlons prior to the show.

Comedian Nipsey Russell regaled the students at Fairleigh Dickinson College February 29, in Teaneck, N. J. Although snow was falling, a large turnout was at hand. Karl Olsen of the Hackensack Record Shop reported good sales of Russell's LP's. Ditto the Relic Rack and the Dumon music shops of Paterson and Passaic and Eclipse Music shop of Paterson.

At Cornell University's Bailey Hall, Ithaca, N. Y., Odetta played to a packed house of 2,000. The artist received a standing ovation at the conclusion of her show on February 22.

Ferrante and Teicher, appearing February 24 at the University of North Carolina's Memorial Hall at Chapel Hill, presented a smash performance to a packed house of 1,750. Tickets, placed on sale one week prior to the show, were sold out in just three hours, according to campus correspondent Lou Rosenthal. The piano duo are in the midst of an eight-month tour, averaging five shows a week. Some 25 college dates are included. Art Ferrante told Rosenthal: "We like college concerts best of all ... they are great audiences." Rosenthal also reported that the duo's albums, which have always sold well in Chapel Hill record shops, moved exceptionally well before and immediately after the performance.

Sandor Polster, campus correspondent reporting on Louis Armstrong's appearance in mid-February at Ohio State, Columbus, Ohio, states Satchmo and his All Stars played to a capacity house at Mershon Auditorium. Local radio outlets, Polster states, promoted the show for two weeks prior to the play date.

Two new correspondents have been added to Billboard's Campus Bureau. They are Jeffrey Feinman at New York University, and Joseph Tiegel at Long Island University.

New Firm Will Push Filipino Pop Music Around the World

MANILA — Formation of a new international company devoted to the exploitation of Philippine music, artists, recordings and audio-visual productions (such as feature and commercial films, TV, etc.) has been announced by the Philippine Music Enterprises Corporation, headed by a trio of executives consisting of the Villar brothers (Manila), Louis Witkoff (New York) and Robert B. (Bobby) Weiss (Paris and Tokyo).

This marks the first time that special emphasis will now be given to the global development of Philippine music—described as Latin and was sparked as a result of a recent visit to the Philippines by Bob Weiss, now heading his own International Holding Company, Ltd.

The Villar Bros. are the foremost record and music publishers in the Philippines representing the Filipinas Record Corporation, the RCA catalog and, through Mareco, Inc., the labels—Columbia, Epic, Dot, Warner Bros., MGM, United Artists, Kapp, Laurie, Select, Joy, Command, Grand Award, etc.

On their own local Mabuhay label, they feature native talent recording songs of local origin mainly. Through this they have established a music publishing catalog of more than 1,000 Philippine - a u t h o r e d songs. These will immediately become available for world-wide exploitation through PMEC.

Copyrights Exist

Contrary to what many visitors to the Philippines believe, copyright does exist on Philippine music—and in the majority of cases the songs are controlled by the Villar Bros., through their local music publishing firm. Several outstanding hits have originated in the Philippines, including "Dahil Sa Iyo" (recorded in the USA by Jerry Vale and known as "Your Love Is Mine"—Columbia Records).

The Philippine Music Enterprises has been incorporated in the State of New York—with equal shares for the Messrs. Villar, Witkoff and Weiss—and will operate on an international scale, with the Villar Bros., coordinating all activities in the Philippines, Witkoff and Weiss sharing duties in the USA and with Weiss helming the global side of the business directing the sublicensing of music, masters, etc., to all foreign sources.

Emphasis will be placed on the cultural exchange of music, recordings and talent with the assistance of various persons in the Philippine government circles—in Manila and abroad—and it is felt that as a result of the promotion to be given to the native music and talent—this will help create a greater interest in the Philippines as a tourist attraction for foreign visitors.

First U. S. Release

Negotiations are already underway by Weiss for the licensing of PMEC recordings and songs in the USA, Japan, France, Belgium, Germany. Switzerland, Austria, Mexico, Central and South America. Meanwhile, in the USA, RCA Victor just issued their first Filipino music LP-acquired from the Mareco/Villar Bros. The first major song effort will now be given to the PMEC copyrights,"Manila, I Love Manila" -written by Louis Ma. Trinidad & Tex Salcedo and as recorded by Vic Soledad on the Villar label. Several American majors are negotiating for the record rights in the USA, PMEC disclosed.

PMEC will maintain offices in New York, Manila, Paris and Tokyo, effective immediately.

ROBBINS AUSSIES: A. W. T. Smith, of ARC Records, Australia, gives the glad hand to Marty Robbins on the Columbia Records star's first trip Down Under. Along with a reception went a genuine sheepskin rug, another gift from ARC, which represents Columbia in Aussie land.

DR. STANTON SKETCHES COL. UPS & DOWNS

NEW YORK—The ups and downs of Columbia Records were spelled out recently by Dr. Frank Stanton, CBS president, in an address to the New York Society of Security Analysts.

Dr. Stanton reported that sales of Columbia Records increased each year 1960 through 1962, then dropped off with the rest of the industry sales in 1963. In 1962, the peak year, he said, sales were 88 per cent above 1959, and even 1963 was 78 per cent above 1959.

Dr. Stanton also stated, "Columbia Records has led the U. S. phonograph record industry in sales for the past five years. During this period its share of the total market has steadily risen. For competitive reasons I am not in a position to disclose these relative figures, but I can tell you that Columbia has a commanding lead over its nearest competitors — RCA
Victor and Capitol — in retail and record club sales."

Beechwood Owns 'Surfin' Bird'

Music, Capitol's BMI subsidiary, has won copyright and royalties to "Surfin' Bird," recent Garrett hit single by the Trashmen, which was published by Willong.

Jack L. Levy, Beechwood's general manager, said substantial sections of the tune were copies from two songs owned by his firm and written by the Rivingtons. As result of complaint, Garrett is paying Beechwood a retroactive royalty on every disk pressed. Steve Wahrer, listed composer of the tune, has disassociated himself, and the Rivingtons are now listed as composers. Two songs they wrote from which Levy claimed "Bird" was taken were "Papa Oom Mow Mow" and "The Bird Is the Word."

Unified Issuing Word Classic LP's

NEW YORK—Webster's Unified, Inc., is introducing a new series of album packages based on spoken word sections from the classics. The firm is issuing the records through its disk subsid Unified Audio Classics, and the first album set is composed of two LP's with a bound volume of excerpts from Shakespearean plays. The package was produced and directed by Arnold Moss.

VEE FOR JOY: Bobby Vee, far left, is the first of the American artists to say "hello" and perform with the new British group sensation, the Joy Strings. (Story March 21 issue.) The Salvation Army group's hot U.K. disk, "It's an Open Secret," is being issued here on Atco.

III Wind Blows No L. A. Good

HOLLYWOOD-Record gale force winds struck the Southland recently and the 60 to 90mile-per-hour blasts caused $7,000 damage to Sight & Sound's two San Fernando Valley locations, President Jerry Johnson reported.

At the Van Nuys, Calif., piano organ store across from the main record component store on Victory Boulevard, a 10-foot window was shattered, a 50foot awning came crashing down, and a 50-foot Magnavox sign was blown to the ground.

At the recently opened Canoga Park, Calif., location, a smaller window was cracked. causing around $1,000 damage to radio-phonograph consoles and several TV combinations. There were no injuries to employees or customers and the stores were kept open with plywood panels in place of the glass.

Duford Operates New Franchise

LOS ANGELES - Discount Record Center chain has signed its second franchise, Duford-Kaiser, in Pasadena, Calif. Art Grobart, head of the now sixlocation chain, said Frank Duford would operate the store under the Discount name and is committed to having merchandise advertised available in his location. Duford has been in the record business 30 years.

Discount's first franchise was issued early this month to Larry Barnett's Reseda Music Mart in the San Fernando Valley. Grobart explained he does not tell his franchises where to buy their merchandise, only that they have to stock it to match firm's heavy consumer advertising programs.

Lenny Meisel on Colpix Promo

NEW YORK-Lenny Meisel has been set as Eastern and Southern director of promotion of Colpix and Dimension. Meisel will cover markets as far West as Pittsburgh. He'll report directly to Danny Davis, national promotional director. Davis will concentrate on promotion in key areas west of Pittsburgh

Philips Has Best Year

LONDON-Philips Records, Ltd., report that 1963 was best ever year with sales by value up 21 per cent over 1962. Singles sales were up 49 per cent and LP sales up 10 per cent.

Biggest single seller was Dusty Springfield's "I Only Want to be With You." Dusty's new EP sold 25,000 first week of issue and an LP "A Girl Called Dusty" will be issued in April.

Fontana started 1964 very strongly with new signings, including Craig Douglas, the Caravelles, the Avons and a new Liverpool group, the Escorts. Another recent acquisition to the Fontana label is Eden Kane with "Boys Cry" currently in the British charts. Max Bygraves, for a long time a Decca artist, has been signed by Philips. An LP from Max's new show "Round About Piccadilly," which opened March 28 at London's Prince of Wales Theatre, will most likely be issued by Philips.

Leslie Gould, Philips general manager, told Billboard he thinks he has a "find" in a 16year-old Jamaican known as Millie, who has her first Fontana disk "My Boy Lollipop" selling 30,000 the first week. This will be issued on Smash in U.S.

Unusual exports are some LP's of Japanese melodies, arranged by Johnny Gregory on Fontana entitled "Melodies of Japan," which have already sold 50,000 copies in Japan.

For release at the end of March was "How to Win an Election" with comedians Peter Sellers, Harry Secombe and Spike Milligan, a comedy skit on contemporary English politics.

The prelude to 1964 for Philips shows the first two months' sales up 15 per cent compared to the same period in 1963.

Among the most unusual features of the "Festial Radio" package are five minute dramas and "On Location." The dramas are carefully written to deliver maximum impact a meaningful story (usually emphasizing suspense or adventure) in a total of four minutes. One minute is allowed for a commercial message. The dramas scheduled during the week may be strung together for a 10, 15, or 30 minute drama show for weekend scheduling.

The quickie dramas I heard may very well return this almost lost art form to radio stations that have heretofore found the longer drama programs incompatible with their schedules and formats.

Another unusual feature, "On Location," will offer stations and their listeners a change of pace through 2:30 musical excursions to the top night clubs and concert halls around the world for outstanding performers caught in the act before a "live" audience.

centration is on government officials. Interesting and to-thepoint conversations are held with such Washingtonians as historian Arnold Toynbee on the world food problem; Marie Ritter of the International Rescue Committee; John R. McKenzie. a congressional assistant discussing foreign relations and a story on the Library of Congress from Lawrence Mumford. its librarian.

Happily Miss Blair's on-the air-voice and delivery does not fall into the annoying categories frequently occupied by some female reporters - cuteness, shrillness, triteness, etc. Her interviews are carefully researched, she listens, the guests talk, and she projects a warm. but authoritative personality.

Falstaff Looms in Year Philharmonia Rises Marking Shakespeare 400th From Legge Ashes

By JOHN HAYS

NEW YORK-RCA Victor, in honor of the 400th anniversary of the birth of William Shakespeare, has brought out a complete recording of Verdi's comic masterpiece, "Falstaff," with libretto by Arrigo Boito after Shakespeare's "Merry Wives of Windsor" and "King Henry IV" (3-12", LM 6132; (S) LSC 6132). Released to coincide approximately with the Metropolitan Opera's new production, it is the first complete recording this year of an opera inspired by one of the bard's plays.

Earlier this year London Records released a boxed, single package of excerpts from the opera (A 4154; (S) OSA 1154).

Shakespeare in Music

There is probably no other literary figure who has contributed so much to the materials of music as has Shakespeare. Passing over the numberless songs and orchestral compositions derived from his works, the plays alone have furnished texts for more than 75 operas, few of which are now known to the record buying public. Wagner wrote an opera "Liebesverbot" based on "Measure for Measure"; Rossini, an "Othello"; Bloch, a "Macbeth" and Saint-Saen, a "Henry VIII." Handel composed a "Julius Caesar" which is currently available on Vox (2-12", VUX 2011) and on Deutsche Grammophon (18637; 138637).

Next to the tragedy of "Romeo and Juliet," the comic figure of Falstaff looms brightest as an inspiration to operatic composition. The master buffoon has romped his way through at least nine operas, including Holst's "At the Boar's Head," Nicolai's "The Merry Wives of Windsor" and Vaughn Williams' "Sir John in Love." The Nicolai opera is the only other "Falstaff" at present listed in the catalog (Urania, 3-12", 214-3; 5214-3).

Verdi and Comedy

Giuseppe Verdi, a man with an obvious affinity for Shake-speare ("Macbeth," "Otello," "Falstaff") came late to the application of his comic genius. His only previous attempt at comie opera, "Un giorno di Regno," had been a failure. The steady outpouring of tragic operas from the composer had led to the general assumption that he was incapable of conceiving of music in a lighter vein. But when nearing the age of 80, with the offer of a brilliant libretto from Boito, who had supplied the book for "Otello," Verdi undertook, in his last opera, what many admirers consider to be his most mature work and one of the greatest comic pieces in the opera repertory, to be compared with Wagner's "Die Meistersinger" and Mozart's "The Marriage of Figaro."

Sir John as Opera

Full of buoyancy and bubbling-over-laughter, Verdi's "Falstaff" is clearly a match for the poetic creation of Shakespeare. The musical line never ceases but moves from one melodic outburst to the next in an almost unbroken flow between aria and recitative. The action in its compression proceeds at an almost breathless pace with scene tumbling into scene and rapid verbal exchanges that dazzle the ear. And through it all bounces the irrepressible Sir John with his ever-replenished, self-deluding arrogance.

It is a glorious opera from start to finish, if glorious isn't too weighty an adjective to apply to a work that is in every way so felicitous, light, airy and playful.

RCA Victor and Verdi

The RCA Victor pressing can certainly be considered a prestige recording; technically it is superb. In an opera that leans heavily upon an over-lapping lyric line, a clarity and articulation of sounds is imperative. This recording possesses both to a high degree. The production is well balanced and has been sensitively staged for stereo.

Comic opera depends so much upon the visual that any recording is bound to suffer somewhat in the translation. This performance is extremely well served by cast, conductor and orchestra alike, all of whom bring a maximum of aural life to the disks; they are excellent. It is conceivable that more brilliant voices could be found for the individual performances, but it might prove difficult to find a cast that is so integrated and complementary.

Geraint Evans, making his Metropolitan debut in the role this season, sings the part admirably. He has a warm full voice that is handled at all times with intelligence and taste. The Welsh baritone brings with him from Europe the reputation of being the most accomplished Falstaff on the operatic stage. Special mention must be made of Robert Merrill's Ford. The handsomeness of voice and vitality of characterization in every way meet the demands of the

George Solti is especially to he commended for the crispness with which he directs the RCA Italiana Opera Orchestra at almost break-neck speed without ever sacrificing sharpness of detail. Never overpowering nor subordinating to the singers, he underscores and wryly comments upon the moment.

Falstaff on London

It is less easy to review the performance on London Records. An opera that would seem to defy the popular practice of excerpting, and which relies so heavily for its effectiveness and grandeur upon the cumulative scene upon scene impact, it seems rather a shame, that with an edge over Victor on release date, London should not have issued the opera in its entirety. The recording as a comparative album is most rewarding-Corena vs. Evans, Resnick vs. Simionata, etc.

Though lacking the even local texture of Evans, Fernando Corena's voice is darker, more full of vocal play. (Corena also sings the role at the Met this season.) And Regina Resnick's Mistress Quickly is earthier and perhaps a bit spicier than is Giulietta Simionato's. Ilva Ligubue performs the role of Alice Ford in both recordings. If there is any noticeable difference in her performance vocally, I would say it was in London's favor. There is a difference, however, in the orchestras. The New Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Edward Downes is more frenetic, seemingly less disciplined than is the Italiana. It has less fluency and seems to lack the propelling sense of direction which distinguishes the RCA recording. This may be due in part to the scenes being arranged out of sequence on the London disk.

Nevertheless, we have one and a half fine new recordings so far in this quadricentennial year with which to pay homage to the greatest poet in the English language.

Earlier complete recordings of the Verdi opera still available are the 1950 issue on Cetra with Giuseppe Taddei (1207); the recording of the Toscanini broadcast with Giuseppe Valdengo on RCA Victor (LM 6111); and the first stereo recording on Angel with Tito Gobbi, Karajan conducting (CL 3552; (S) CL 3552).

NEW YORK-The recent decision by Walter Legge, founder and artistic director of London's Philharmonia, to suspend operations of that 19-year-old, free-lance orchestra met last week with a counter-decision by its 65 members to form their own orchestra probably to be known as the Philharmonia Symphony Orchestra.

Legge's announcement came as a shock to admirers of fine orchestral music the world over. In Britain's House of Commons expressions of regret were registered by both parties. The London Times called it "... a national disaster to British musical prestige. . . . To let a national cultural monument crumble would be to admit Britain's indifference to the value of the arts not only for LEONTYNE PRICE, one of the world's busiest and most celebrated sopranos, has completed a recording of Bizet's "Carmen" for RCA Victor to be released early this summer in the Soria Series. Others featured in the cast are Franco Corelli, Robert Merrill and Mirella Freni. Herbert von Karajan conducts. Miss Price's operatic portrayals have proved extremely popular with the record buyer. Last year she was represented on Billboard's Top LP's chart with two complete opera recordings, Puccini's "Tosca" and "Madame Butterfly." In a lighter vein, her recording with William Warfield of Gershwin's folk opera, "Porgy and Bess," remained on the charts for 16 weeks. This month Miss Price goes on tour with the Metropolitan Opera Association visiting Boston, Cleveland, Atlanta, Minneapolis, Dallas and Detroit after which she goes to Europe for a summer of recording. Miss Price records exclusively for RCA Victor.

themselves but as emblems of our prestige in the world at

The London Daily Mail quoted Legge as saying, "It is no longer possible in present circumstances to maintain the standards which have been the hallmark of the Philharmonia since I founded it. I have, therefore, decided that after the fulfillment of present commitments, the activities of the Philharmonia will be suspended for an indefinite period." Other reasons for disbandment were given as poor subsidies by the Arts Council and London County Council (the British Philharmonic Orchestra is said to have four times the subsidy available for the three leading London orchestras-LSO, LPO and London Philharmonia), a general contraction in the amount of classical recording by the major companies, the intense competition for services of key players by radio and TV and lack of public support for con-

The Philharmonia was formed in 1945 for the primary purpose of making quality records not at that time available in war-torn Europe, under conditions which would ensure the highest possible standards. An orchestra of such distinction that first-rate instrumentalists would compete for the privilege of playing in it. Through the guidance of Walter Legge and the enthusiastic endorsement of public and critics alike, the Philharmonia became one of the most highly acclaimed orchestras in Europe. In the late 40's and early 50's it attained international prestige along with and under the direction of the famed Herbert Von Karajan. Other notable conductors under which the orchestra has played are Sir John Barbirolli. Wilhem Furtwangler, Otto Klemperer, Rafel Kubelik and Richard Strauss, to name a few.

The Philharmonia has been responsible for the encouragement of several chamber music groups, and has produced some of the finest recordings issued in recent years, the majority of which have been released on Angel and Capitol Records.

A spokesman for the governing body of the new orchestra said that Otto Klemperer, chief conductor of the Philharmonia. has agreed to conduct, initial finance has been secured and that they are ready to accept engagements.

Walter Legge will in no way be responsible for the new orchestra.

TAPE RECORDER SURVEY: 3

How Can Manufacturers Boost Recorder Sales?—Dealers Say

(This is the third in a series of four reports on merchandising of tape and tape recorders, based on a nationwide survey earlier this year by Gordon Jones of the Wharton School of Business, University of Pennsylvania, in co-operation with the Record Market Research division of Bill-

What are the major "problem areas" in selling tape recorders-and what can manufacturers and distributors do to overcome them?

These questions were answered in detail-and often in no uncertain terms-by retailers responding to the Gordon Jones-Billboard recorded dealer survey. That dealers were strongly concerned by these problems is demonstrated by the fact that every single one of the close-to-100 respondents took the time to write out his gripes and suggests remedies.

Problem Areas

The No. 1 problem area, as noted last week (Billboard, March 28), is "discounting by other retailers," mentioned by 32 per cent of respondents. "Customers ignorance" was the second most frequently mentioned-picked by 20 per cent. "High price of recorders as compared with phonographs" was cited by 12 per cent, followed by two gripes about demonstrations-"poor demonstration and instruction by other retailers" and "too much time needed to demonstrate"each checked by 10 per cent.

Other principal gripes, cited by fewer than 10 per cent of dealers: "Poor service facilities," 8 per cent; "Too many models-customer confusion," 7 per cent; "bulky recorders" and "complicated operation," 5 per cent each; "poor in-struction manuals" and "poor construction," cited by 3 per cent each.

Here are some of the gripes spelled out in

"There are far too many makes and models. Customers become confused as to which recorder they should buy. Manufacturers should make fewer models but make them as trouble-free as possible."

"Any supposed superiority of tapes over records cannot be demonstrated, inasmuch as the vast majority of tape units are portables with insufficient amplifier power and speaker size to even begin to match the sound quality of a console phono in the same price category."

"Customers complain about the way they have been treated by salesmen in other stores, especially that the sales force do not know too much about the machines. . . . The average person cannot understand why tape recorders should be so much higher priced than record players

"How do you teach the public the difference between one machine at $300 and one at $100, when both have the same features?"

One respondent cited 3M's cartridge machine and self-threading reel, and added: "This is the kind of thinking that's needed to stir the public's interest and start them thinking about tape."

"There's no problem in selling recorders. Your problem comes after you've sold them. Stores don't give the customer proper instructions about how to operate the machine. The customer should be taught in person. Most people can't follow written instructions."

"The biggest problem is making them look simple for novices and making them look complicated for 'bugs.' "

What Manufacturers Can Do

Dealer were liberal with their advice to manufacturers and distributors on how to overcome recorder sales problems.

Surprisingly, the No. 1 solution was an SOS for more selling support-"better and more consumer advertising"-urged by 34 per cent or recorder retailers. This proposal even eclipsed "price control, stable price, fair trade," and the like, urged by 23 per cent.

Each of the other proposals was made by fewer than 10 per cent of dealers. In order, they were: "Better service," "improve reliability," "more ads in consumer magazines, fewer in hi-fi publications," "more co-op advertising," "improve instruction manuals," "simplify machines," "standardize models," "reduce prices" and "help educate salesmen."

Advertising and promotional policies came in for a large share of the individual comments, too.

Here are some samples:

"Devote less space to db's, ohms, impedance, frequency response, cycles per second, etc., and more space to 'family fun.' "More newspaper advertising-too much advertising to hi-fi bugs. The average consumer does not see enough advertising to stimulate purchases." "Stress simplicity of operation. Create desire to buy, not by mentioning characteristics of recorder, but by stressing advantages of use." "Why not advertise in church magazines and school music maga-

Here are typical comments about demonstration problem: "Accentuate the uses of recorders and educate sales personnel. The lack of sales education is unbelievable. Every man in the business should own a recorder and use one. How can we approach the public if we are unimpressed ourselves? Train our sales personnel. Hold instore demonstrations and promotions."

Some retailers felt that including blank tape with a recorder wasted an opportunity to get a message across. "Include a demonstration tape that explains the care and maintenance of the machine," said one. "Instead of a blank tape, it should be the best pre-recorded tape," urged

There were also suggestions for improvement of the product. "Improve reliability and simplicity. Eliminate necessity of having to flip reels over for second track. Improve ease of threading tape. Eliminate machines which can utilize only fiveinch reels." "Why not just a tape player? A lowcost player coupled with low-cost prerecorded tapes would really sell." "Even reputable companies mislabel their machines stereophonic when they require a second amplifier and speaker." "Simplify controls and improve quality of smaller unit." "Make more reasonably priced ones for younger people."

As to suggestions about recorder quality, this one quote sums them all up: "Improve quality control, then plug it. Tape can be superior to records. Make it obvious.'

(NEXT WEEK: Pre-recorded tape; problems and prospects.)

Six Bright Merch Ideas For Tape Recorder Sales

NEW YORK-A little imagination in tape recorder merchandising often pays off in increased sales-as indicated by the results which retailers have obtained from these ideas.

1. One retailer in Denver furnishes each recorder purchaser with a free patchcord, plus instructions on how to hook up the phonograph, radio, or television set. This $1 investment opens up huge vistas of extra entertainment possibilities from a tape recorder, and has actually sold tons of extra sets, according to the dealer.

2. In Cheyenne, Wyo., a dealer invited everyone who came into the store for any purpose to tell his favorite joke. By the end of a year he had accumulated a one-hour tape of the best gags which has proved tremendously entertaining to tape recorder prospects. In fact, he also loans the tape out for parties, luncheons, etc.

3. In St. Louis, an enterprising dealer writes couples whose engagements have been announced and offers to make a free tape recording of wedding ceremonies and the reception. The bridegroom must come to the store, learn how to operate the machine, and take care of the details himself. Quite often, this leads to the sale of a tape recorder as a wedding gift.

4. Where customers have children of college age, it is a highly practical suggestion that the parents buy two recorders, and encourage their youngsters to exchange three-inch tapes regularly through the mail. rather than writing letters. This particular aspect of tape-recorder usefulness has never been fully exploited. The same student, of course, can use the recorder for homework, dictating reviews, reports, assignments, etc., practicing diction, dramatics for school plays, and other purposes.

5. Aware that many people are afraid to try stereophonic (Continued on page 40).

Hartman Moves Tape to Field; Customers to Store

ROANOKE, Va. - Getting outside of the store to look for additional markets for tape recorders has boosted sales for Lee Hartman & Sons Sound Equipment Company of Roanoke.

While Hartman does an excellent business with walk-in customers for tape recorders, stereo phonographs and components.

he is particularly proud of the excellent additional sales volume he has developed in the commercial market. When Hartman first began selling tape recorders he realized that this was an item with a tremendous potential, but one which might require years for the public to "catch up." Instead of waiting, he began getting out of the store at every (Continued on page 40)

Concord Electronics Tries For Mass Market Selling

By ELIOT TIEGEL

HOLLYWOOD — Four-yearold Concord Electronics is blazing its growth by de-emphasizing the traditional audiophile and concentrating on selling the mass market through such outlets as Korvette, Fedco, Gem, Polk Bros., Olsens, Sears, and White Front.

"We are making audiophiles out of the mass market," boasted advertising director Jack Cardenas. "Other companies work exclusively through the audio stores and limit their audiences. We believe in selling through the audio stores but we go one step further and offer quality merchandise to major retail out-

Concord is aiming to capture 15 to 20 per cent of the market, explained Don Hassler, head of sales and marketing. "The tape market is really unsaturated," he said, "We're aiming at new customers who have never bought a tape recorder before."

Hassler believes Concord can achieve this goal by offering high quality machines at inexpensive prices with ease of operation. "Dealers can hit 85 per cent of the tape market with our line, which sells from $99 to $450," he emphasized.

Concord has shown a steady sales increase, Hassler stated, noting sales were up last year almost 100 per cent over 1962. He would not, however, divulge any quotations nor would he predict how many units company hoped to sell this year. "Since January 1," he said "we are 80 per cent ahead of the ame period last year.'

Seven models comprise the Concord line, all manufactured in Japan by Matsushita. Three were introduced in January, including the 330 transistorized mono automatic, voice-operated portable retailing for $199; the 440 transistorized three-speed stereo with push-button control for $239, and the 884 transistorized push-button sound-onsound 15-watt stereo amplifier.

Company plans to debut a new model with automatic reverse action this year, which will not need installed leaders on the tape to trigger the reversal action.

"We have taken the machine out of the control room and hobbyist's hands," Hassler said. "and placed it with the consumers as a workable instrument."

To get the message across fully to consumers, firm, which heretofore hasn't allocated a large ad budget, plans experimenting with campaigns in selected markets, notably through billboards and TV. Los Angeles is the first city, with $50,000 budgeted for the push, which promotes the entire line.

Hassler said he was surprised that music stores weren't selling more tape machines, chiding dealers for not going after the tape market with as much enthusiasm as they sell phonographs. "Music dealers shouldn't let tape machines get into the hand of the photo stores and mass merchandisers," he remarked. Their lack of success in the past has been because of inadequate product knowledge, he added. "Music stores are afraid of tape machines because they think they're too technical. Today you push a button and away you go."

Hassler also bemoaned dealers who sell machines without orientation. "Dealers have to operate the machines correctly for the customer. Once you sell the machine, there is repeat business in pre-recorded tapes," Hassler said. If dealers allow manufacturers to orient their salesmen in correct operation, this will enable salesmen to impressively service customers, executive stated.

Onehalf of the total ad fund-the amount undisclosed - has been set aside for local use by dealers. The local ad expenses will be paid 100 per cent by the company, in what a spokesman described as "the most liberal dealer program in tape recorder history."

Hartman contacts the local chapter or a local member of the sponsoring organization, gets the name of the secretary or business manager for the convention, and writes a letter, offering the facilities for recording speeches, addresses, lectures and entertainments. When the secretary arrives in the city, the dealer calls on him personally, taking along a sample recorder or two. Invariably he rents at least one machine, sometimes three or four. More important, the same conventioners begin calling on him for services year after year. Not infrequently, the business manager or executives of such an association will decide to buy a machine rather than rent it.

Hartman has become a familiar figure in the offices of schools for almost 100 miles in any direction. Knowing that most schools have special funds for educational accessories, some of them administered by teachers for individual classes, Hartman carries good-quality recorders with him on school calls. demonstrates how helpful they are in recording lectures, in projecting educational material, helping students with longdrawn-out meetings, correcting diction. He has sold scores of tape recorders to schools for cash, including expensive stereo recorders which can be used for entertainment as well as educa-

Churches often have the same need for recorders as schools. In addition, pastors enjoy polishing up their sermons on tape, before the actual delivery. While he usually finds it necessary to set up some type of time payment for churches, Hartman has found this an excellent market, amounting to more than 30 tape recorder sales over the past three years.

In selling the commercial market, the Virginia dealer usually concentrates on good, reliable monophonic tape recorders in the $250 to $300 price brackets, but where stereo music is the objective, sales can go as high as $995. Incidentally, in providing lower cost music systems for his commercial users, Hartman found himself in a business he hadn't anticipated - rental and sale of pre-recorded musical tapes. Employees in large plants using his systems want new music regularly, of course-all of which has added up to a profita-

What Sales Figures Are Telling Us

By DAVID LACHENBRUCH Equipment Editor

Electronic Industries Association's January figures give some clue as to where the home entertainment equipment dollar is going.

As compared with January 1963, distributorto-dealer sales of black-and-white TV were up 17 per cent, radio sales were up 20 per cent, and packaged phono sales—down 13 per cent.

It's not quite as simple as it appears on the surface. Black-and-white television's increase is a 17 per cent rise over a very good January 1963. In addition, nearly 89,000 color TV sets were produced in January, and presumably almost as many were sold (although EIA doesn't release color sales statistics).

Radio's whopping 20 per cent increase over 1963 would be real cause for celebration, except that January 1963 was a very bad month for radio—it was 20 per cent below January 1962, in terms of unit sales.

In the packaged phono field, January was an extension of the generally lackluster aspect of the January phono figures, however, is that all of the decline from January 1963 was accounted for by sagging portable sales. Console sales actually showed an increase (albeit less than 1,000 units out of a total of 272,000). Could be a trend to heavier console sales this time of year—but we'll withhold judgment until we see February's figures.

Despite the fact that phono sales sagged during the second half of last year, the average phonograph sale last year brought in more dollars than in 1962. Undoubtedly, this was due in some measure to an increase in phonos sold with AM-FM. Nevertheless, it could represent a turning point, halting the general price-per-unit decline of the past few years.

Using factory-level prices, the average packaged phonograph (including both portables and consoles) sold last year for $81.66 (before excise tax), up almost $3 from the 1962 average of $78.59, which culminated (for the time being, anyway) a decline from $83.88 in 1961 and $87.22 in 1960.

Phonographs were the only major home entertainment equipment category in which the average price went up last year. The average blackand-white television set hit an all-time factoryprice low of $117.94 (before excise tax), down from $128.31 in 1962 and $135.21 in 1961. It's a good guess that the average factory price of portable TV last year was a few pennies less than $100. (Of course, if color were included with black-and-white TV, average factory price might be somewhere around $150.)

Radio price attrition continued, too. Averaging all domestic-brand radio sales except auto radios, we get a 1963 factory price of $16.95, down from $17.32 in 1962 and $18.05 in 1961.

So these possible trends emerge from a look at 1963 and early 1964 sales figures: Black-and-white TV sales continuing to rise, but at a lower dollar volume per sale. Radio sales probably rising somewhat over last year's poor showing, but still at a lower dollar per sale. Phono sales continuing their apparent settling to a lower unit level—but dollars-per-sale rising.

Dealers, of course, can ride on these trends. They seem to indicate that the emphasis in phonos should be placed on quality, on sell-up features, because the trend now is toward increasing dollars per sale. Black-and-white TV, on the other hand, is becoming more of a high-volume, lost-cost item.

And, of course, the growing interest in color TV means that nobody in the home entertainment market should ignore this new opportunity. A store with a "quality" image—even if it doesn't currently handle black-and-white TV — can do well with color. Despite the usual price-cutting in this field, color is a rising market; it is new enough and high-priced enough so that most consumers would prefer to purchase their sets from a prestige dealer who supplements the manufacturer's warranty with his own guarantee of satisfaction.

This is what the 1963-1964 sales figures seem to be telling us.

Ideas for Tape Recorder Sales

recording, a Detroit dealer announced a contest, among stereo tape recorder owners, for the best piece of all-around music recording done over a sixmonth period. The prize was an album of pre-recorded tape, and the contest was sparked with a newspaper ad, with window display, and direct-mail sent to every known stereo tape recorder owner. The public was kept advised as to how the con-ble specialty for Lee Hartman & Sons Sound Equipment.

A surprising bit of co-operation from local radio stations has helped to sell more advanced, professional-level tape recorders for the Virginia dealer. Since some broadcasting headquarters in the city have display windows, usually filled with posters showing the stars of radio shows, Hartman asked for, and received, permission to show many of his recorder and component lines right in the window of the type of broadcasting station which would be most logically using such equipment. In this way, his name has become associated with fine sound engineering, in the best possible of surroundings, and, in fact, he has sold recorders, microphones and other sound equipment to several of the city's radio stations.

With these methods, Hartman has seen his tape recorder sales volume advance spectacularly year by year, and in just about the same proportion each year. Sticking to top nationally advertised, highly successful lines, and eschewing low-cost "toy" portable recorders, he has had far less difficulty with price competition than the average dealer.

on how many entrants had submitted reels of tape, together with names and addresses. By the end of the competition, more than 200 reels of tape had been brought in, representing everything from orchestra music to barnyard sounds, recordings made in factories, at sports events, in night clubs, etc. The stunt sold an unexpectedly large number of top-quality twin microphones, according to the dealer.

6. Teaching the public how easily all sounds are recorded. a Cleveland dealer went out with an inverter in his car, and recorded such familiar sounds as the clang of a traffic signal, the acceleration roar of automobiles and buses, a newsboy crying his wares, motorcycles starting up, ordering a sandwich at a drivein restaurant, etc. Using a halfhour tape to record all of these familiar sounds proved to have much more effect on the average listener than a professionally pre-recorded opera, popular music, etc., simply because they were "on familiar grounds."

American Hi-Fi Manufacturers Aim European

HOLLYWOOD — American component manufacturers continue their concentration on the European market, aiming next at the London Audio Festival. April 2-5, at the Hotel Russell.

Los Angeles speaker manufacturer James B. Lansing, plus Sherwood Electronics, Chicago FM tuner manufacturer, are known to be among the expected 100 London exhibitors. Ray Pepe, executive vice-president at Lansing, told Billboard it will be his firm's debut at the London show, which annually draws close to 40,000 persons.

Pepe feels the European market is a prime area for expensive American components of the type not produced on the Continent. There are enoughmoderate-priced components available in Europe, Pepe says, but there is a lack of models on the high end of the price spectrum.

Lansing recently participated in the Paris Audio Festival for the second time and at the Frankfurt, Germany, High-Fidelity Component Show, at which the American high-fidelity industry was represented for the first time.

N. Y. Legislature Passes Bill To License Game Operators

ALBANY, N. Y .- The New York State Assembly Thursday (26) unanimously passed a bill which provides for the licensing of amusement machine operators. The measure had been approved by the State Senate the previous day and awaits the signature of Governor Rockefeller to be enacted into law. It goes into effect immedi-

Under terms of the measure, no person may operate coin amusement machines without obtaining a license from the secretary of state. The license, good for two years, goes for $600.

In order to obtain a license, the applicant must be "of good moral character and have not been convicted of a felony" and "have the necessary financial responsibility to conduct the proposed business."

Veteran Preference

Operators who have been in business for five of the last 10 years are eligible for license without examination. The secretary of state determines the qualifications of the others.

Other key provisions of the bill include licenses to be displayed on machines and a more precise definition of what is an amusement device.

Leading proponent of the bill is Mrs. Millie McCarthy, Hurleyville, N. Y., operator, who is president of the New York State Coin Machine Association.

Oppose Fee

Principal opposition has come from a group of New York City operators who oppose the $300-ayear license fee and who are rigidly restricted by municipal ordinance as to the type games they can operate.

One effect of the bill would be to discourage location ownership of amusement games. It costs the licensee $300 a year whether he operates one game or a thousand.

Hence, the full-time operator would not be discouraged from paying the fee, but the location owner with one piece of equipment would think twice before shelling out $600 to keep the game on his premises for two years.

Locations Oppose

It was with this in mind that organized groups of liquor license holders made an unsuccessful bid to prevent passage of the bill in the Senate.

In order to allay the fears of the location owners, Mrs. McCarthy said the New York State Coin Machine Association will emphasize two benefits which accrue to them as a result of this legislation:

1. With legal games more precisely defined, the location owner is less likely to be beset with legal problems.

2. The location owner will know that he is dealing with a licensed operator who has a clean record and who has demonstrated some measure of financial ability.

Mrs. McCarthy said these points would be made to location owners either through a direct mail campaign or through visits. She feels that once location owners realize the benefits of the bill, they will be for it enthusiastically.

MOA Conclave Set For Sherman House

CHICAGO - Music Operators of America has officially settled on the Sherman House here as the site for its next convention, October 14-16, and contracts are expected to go out shortly to exhibitors.

Fred Granger, MOA managing director, said that early indications are that it will be one of the "biggest shows" in MOA history. He said inquiries from exhibitors have been coming in for the past month.

"The success of last year's show has undoubtedly helped create momentum for this year," according to the managing director. He said he believed that MOA's new "progressive look" had stirred interest among members and the industry as never before.

"Our intention is to translate this interest in MOA's most successful convention," he said. "This means increased attendance by operators as well as an increase in the number of exhibitors.

"It means outstanding forums and entertainment. It means making the MOA convention the great annual market place of the coin-operated music and amusement industry."

A total of 30,000 square feet of exhibit space will be available to exhibitors. The show will be set up on the mezzanine, accessible from the lobby without need of elevators.

Pa. AMOA Session Changes Bylaws, Picks New Manager

By ED BARNES

HARRISBURG, Pa .- A general meeting of the Associated Music Operators (AMOA) of Pennsylvania, Inc. held Sunday (22) at the Penn Harris Hotel here made some farreaching changes in its organization and leadership.

The post of executive secretary, vacant after the recent resignation of Leon Taksen, D & L Coin Machine Company, Harrisburg, was filled by the appointment of Joseph La-Sala of Pittsburgh, a public relations man who has been active in the campaign that has increased the membership of the Greater Pittsburgh association by almost 40 per cent during the past four months. Sam Daub, Pottstown, continues as president of AMOA of Pennsylvania, but James Amato, Sewickley, was elected treasurer, succeeding Harry Beck of Lewisburg.

to hire LaSala as a fulltime secretary it was necessary to amend the bylaws of the State organization and provide that the general membership, by a majority vote of those present, could transact the business without approval by the board of directors. Motions for the amendment and for hiring of LaSala were made by Phil Eisenberg, Consolidated Vending Company, Johnstown, Pa., and were carried unanimously. The revised bylaws include the provision that the State association's board of directors will determine the rate of LaSala's compensation.

In describing the activities of the Greater Pittsburgh organization, LaSala pointed to a recent Statewide survey of Pennsylvania coin-machine business in which responses to 200 questionnaires sent out indicated that operators in the State have $20,000,000 worth of equipment on location. Statistics such as this, he said, are important in presenting a fair and complete picture of the industry to legislators and others. LaSala also described the efforts of the Pittsburgh organization in behalf of the defense in a current Erie County court case involving legality of coin-operated machines.

Both Mrs. Millie McCarthy, president of the New York State Coin Machine Association, and Mike Mulqueen, president of the New York State Operators Guild, addressed the meeting as guests, explaining the organization and procedures of their groups. Mrs. Mc-Carthy also explained the pending bill that would license amusement machine operators in New York State.

Ohio Court OK's Shuffle Alleys

COLUMBUS, Ohio-An unusually restrictive local ordinance was upset here recently when a Youngstown law bancoin-operated bowling games was declared invalid in 6-0 decision by the Ohio Supreme Court.

Walter Dragelevich, operator of Walt's Tavern, Youngstown, had contested the action of a lower court following seizure of shuffle alleys from his property on January 20. The high court upheld his contention that the machines provided no free games, no prizes or other results which might tend to classify them as gambling devices.

Parkoff Hosts Ops At Tax Symposium

NEW YORK-Thirty operators attended a symposium on the 1964 tax law recently as the guests of Meyer Parkoff at the office of Atlantic New York Corporation. Those present heard Joseph Klein, CPA, give a comprehensive review of the new law and a discussion of methods of computing depreciation of equipment.

Klein stressed the advantages of incorporation, pointing out that under Sub-Chapter S of the 1964 law, operators may file at

Seeburg Names Lillian Kubicek To V.-P. Berth

CHICAGO-Lillian K. Kubicek, general counsel and secretary of the Seeburg Corporation, has been elected a vice-president of the firm. The announcement came last week from J. Camcron Gordon, executive vicepresident.

Miss Kubicek has been associated with Seeburg a number of years. When the firm was sold in 1956 to Delbert Coleman and associates, Miss Kubicek was one of the attorneys representing the Seeburg family.

She was later retained to represent the new firm and was named its first general counsel in 1960,

Miss Kubicek joined the prestigious law firm of Kirkland, Fleming, Green, Martin & Ellis shortly after passing the Illinois Bar. The firm represented the Seeburg Corporation, and it was through this association that she later joined the company.

Alteration Fee Rule Modified For NY Trade

ALBANY, N. Y - Both houses of the New York Legislature this week passed a measure which amended the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act to allow music machine and game operators to place equipment on location without paying a $100 alteration fee.

The current law has been interpreted by several local ABC boards in the following manner: Placement of a juke box or game on location, or addition of another machine is an alteration to the premises. Even removal has been considered an alteration.

Hence, the location owner was required to pay a $100 fee every time coin machines were put on his premises. In practice, the operator ended up by paying the fee.

The new law provides that unless the installation of a juke box or coin game alters the seating capacity, no fee is required

See Italian Coin Boom

MILAN-Italy is luxuriating in the Continent's only authentic contemporary coin machine boom-and the boom is still in its infancy, according to trade experts here.

Phonograph locations have been showing small year-to-year gains, but last year they jumped a full 15 per cent, and the forecast is for a 1964 gain of 25 per cent or more.

Italy now has just under 20,-000 phonographs, which places this country second only to West Germany among operator-owned national trades in Europe.

West Germany has over 50,-000 machines, followed by Britain with well under 20,000 and France with 16,000. Belgium has about 30,000 machines, but most of these machines are location-owned, locations investing in machines without regard

What makes the Italian count significant is that the phonograph boom is only beginning. In West Germany, the bloom has been off the boom there for several years; in England the situation is static despite the British trade's insistence that the United Kingdom is an "underdeveloped" coin machine country due for a boom; and the French trade is hobbled by archaic laws and trade practices.

But Italy is frontier coin machine country. The big share of machines is in the industrial north, in Lombardy, Veneto, Piedmont, Tuscany and Liguria. For example, there are seven regions with only 1,700 machines in all, and one area, Basilicata, has grand total of

Chattel Mortgages Issued by MONY Withstood Two Tests

NEW YORK - The chattel mortgage available to members of the Music Operators of New York, Inc., for their protection when locations are sold to new owners has withstood two tests and is undergoing a third that also appears to be developing in favor of the operator.

Speaking to a meeting of operators at the office of Atlantic New York Corporation, Theodore Blatt, attorney for MONY, said that in the first two cases the operators involved were spared any loss from the sale of the locations because the new owners both assumed the original installation contract of the seller, as provided in the chattel mortgage.

In the third case, still unresolved, the issue appeared for a time to be headed for the courts, but Blatt later told Billboard that there is a good chance that this case, too, will be settled out of court. The circumstances were that the attorney for the new location owner, finding a balance of $400 owed on a loan made by the operator when he installed coin machines, sent a check for that amount to the operator with a request for acknowledgement.

This was unsatisfactory to the operator, and attorney Blatt immediately returned the check. Fulfillment of the original installation contract is as important a part of the chattel mortgage as is repayment of any outstanding loans. The case rested there, but it now appears that it will be settled in the same manner as the first two. MONY, however, would welcome a court test, now or later.

The chattel mortgage form, each one identifiable by a perforated number, is furnished only to members of MONY. Each one issued is listed by number in the name of the operator and can thus be identified if it should later turn up in any other hands.

German Wholesalers Begin Pub House

FRANKFURT - A new music publishing house has been founded in Frankfurt by a group of leading figures in the West German disk wholesaling field.

Transatlantik - Musikverlag -GmbH & Company, KG-Transatlantic Music Publishing Company-has been established by Hans R. Beierlein, Marianne Karthal, Edeltraud Kuepper, Gundula Michael and Gerhard W. Schulz.

Beierlein operates the music house Edition Montana, Munich: Marianne Karthal is chief of Globus - Schallplatten - Zentrale, Frankfurt; Edeltraud Kuepper is proprietor of the firm Ed. Kuepper, Stuttgart-Munich; Gundula Michael operates the firm Michael & Company, Duesburg, Coblienz, and Munich; and Schulz is chief of Loewen-Automaten, the sales arm of N.S.M., the Bingen coin machine manufacturer.

Move to Add

There are reports that additional disk wholesalers will participate in the new concern, which trade circles call "the strongest economic concentration in the West German hittune business."

Transatlantik - Musikverlag -GmbH & Company, KG, has as joint business managers Karl Karthal, Frankfurt, and Hans R. Beierlein, Munich. Headuarters have been established at 18 Schleusenstrasse, Frankfurt.

Objectives of Transatlantik have yet to be spelled out publicly. However, formation of the new group on such a broad distributor basis has spurred speculation that it will function primarily in the interest of the juke box trade.

Always Unhappy

West German phonograph operators are chronically unhappy over what they term a costprice squeeze. They blame: 1) GEMA, the West German performing rights society, which is accused of demanding unreasonable record royalties; and 2) major diskeries, which are reproached for lack of effort to accommodate juke box operators with low price disks.

For several years now, juke hox operators have been exploring possible avenues out of the high-cost disk impasse.

Lomenzo Set for UJA Appearance

NEW YORK - John P. Lomenzo, secretary of state of the State of New York, will be the guest speaker at the victory dinner of the Coin Division of the 1964 United Jewish Appeal, to be held Saturday, June 6, at the Statler Hilton Hotel.

Division Chairman Irving Holzman, United East Coast Corporation, made the arrangements for Secretary Lomenzo's appearance at the dinner. Holzman returned from a trip to Florida during the week of March 30.

EUROPEAN NEWS BRIEFS

Brisk Payout Sales

WEST BERLIN-Wulff Apparatbau, the West Berlin firm which has grown into a major European payout producer, reports brisk sales for four of its payouts.

The machines are Rotomat Additor, Tivoli, Astra and Tiptop. The four machines, according to sales promotion, offer the operator a "balanced" line of payouts.

German payout producers generally report record demand for their products, inspired in part by the gamesmanship surge in Britain. The United Kingdom has developed into something of a payout paradise, with at least one British firm advertising that it maintains a constant stock of 2,000 German payouts to meet the big demand.

To Form Association

OSLO-Norwegian operators are moving to organize that country's first trade association. An operator committee is gathering information on the various European trade groups to pick a model for adoption in Norway.

After several years of backing and filling on the issue of organizing a trade association, the great majority of operators now favor pushing ahead with the project. Many Norwegian operators refer to this country as being a coin machine "underdeveloped country," and they blame the absence of a trade group.

Sound Level Lower

MILAN-"Good listening is soft listening!" This slogan, propagated in Italy several years ago by AMI's Italian licensee, Apparechi Musicali Italiani, has proved one of the most effective phonograph public relations campaigns ever conducted in this country of the overheated decibel.

A survey just released shows that noise complaints to Milan police involving phonograph locations have diminished a full 50 per cent in the last three years. At the same time, collections have increased, and trade experts here doubt that this is coincidence.

The Milan survey is substantiated by similar surveys from other areas of Italy where the "keep it low" campaign was pressed.

Award Sales Prizes

BINGEN, West Germany-Loewen-Automaten has awarded prizes for 1963 sales competition. The first-place gold medal went to Heinz Kaestner, proprietor of Westav Company, Rothhelmshausen. Other winners were the Globus firm of Frankfurt and Erich Schneider of Hamburg. A silver medal for fourth place went to the firm of Ed. Kuepper, Stuttgart. Outside the competition, the firm of Hermann Volbracht Nachf., Hanover, was awarded a gold medal for special sales achievement. Volbracht regularly records a huge sales volume for Loewen-Automaten equipment.

East Europe Market

BONN — Bonn government trade experts say that the series of trade pacts negotiated by West Germany with Eastern European nations should provide a definitive answer to the extent of the Iron Curtain market for coin machines.

Beginning with Poland, Bonn has signed pacts with all of the Soviet satellites save Czechoslovakia. A pact with Prague is being negotiated and is expected to be signed soon.

The trade agreements are uniform and provide for the exchange of trade missions. In practice, they should mean, according to experts here, that the Communists will be able to buy almost anything they really require or want within reasonable limits and excluding large amounts of capital goods.

The Iron Curtain coin machine market is highly controversial, some trade authorities claiming it offers a tremendous potential market, and others doubting if it will ever provide a worthwhile market for anything but vending equipment.

Coin Exports Stay on Upswing

NEW YORK - The steady gain in dollar value of United States coin machine exports that has been evident for the past several months shows no sign of slowing down. According to figures released by the U.S. Department of Commerce, the total value of phonograph and amusement game exports for December 1963 was $3,568,574 as against $3,246,878 for the same month of 1962, a gain of more than $320,000.

The total number of machines exported during the 1963 month was 7,651, up from 6,304 in the previous December. The only category that declined numerically was used phonographs, an export that has shown a recent tendency to sag. New phonograph sales abroad, however, were at 1,754 for the month, a gain of almost 200 over 1962, and their dollar value rose from $1,173,179 in December 1962 to $1,292,968 in the same month of last year.

Amusement games, while down slightly from November 1963, still scored gains over December 1962. The comparative figures show 5,238 machines shipped in 1963, up from 4,031 in the previous year. Dollar value of games rose approxi-$185,000, reaching mately $2,091,318 in December 1963 as against $1,906,429 the previous year.

Evidence of the reported coin machine boom in Italy could be read in that country's rise from twelfth in the list of importing countries in December of 1962 to sixth in the following year. Exports to Italy had a dollar value of $287,507 in 1963, all of it in amusement machines. In 1962 the figure was $39,523. more than two thirds of it in amusement machines.

Anti-Smoking Drive Slows Cia Machine Receipts, Taxes in Vt.

MONTPELIER, VI. - Vermont's eigarette machine operators have become confronted by an anti-smoking crusade launched by the newly organized Interagency Council on Smoking and Health, composed of representatives of health, religious and medical groups.

The council chairman, Getty Page, who is executive secretary of the Vermont Medical Society, said: "This is the first co-ordinated agency step in promoting and organizing an educational program on the hazards of smoking. We recognize this as a health problem and not a moral Tax Commissioner Charles T. Shea attributed the decline to public reaction to the United States surgeon general's report in January on the health hazards of cigarette smoking.

The number of packages sold in the State in February dropped to 3,055,000, a decrease of 767,-000 from the same month a year

Meanwhile, the Vermont Tax Department reported a 20 per cent decrease in cigarette sales in this State during February compared with sales for the same month in 1963. It was the second consecutive month of cigarette revenue reduction in Ver-

MACHINES SELL LOTTERY TIX UNDER NEW N. H. LAW

MANCHESTER, N. H .- The only vending machine operation of its kind in the country, has begun in New Hampshire.

Starting with a number of machines more than a week before at the Rockingham Park race track in Salem, the sale of the newly legalized sweepstakes tickets from the machines was extended to State-owned liquor stores on March 23. The $3 tickets, which give their purchasers an opportunity to win up to $100,000, are sold only at the State's pari-mutuel race tracks and liquor stores.

The first ticket was purchased at the Rockingham Park machines by Gov. John W. King, who gained nation-wide publicity when he signed the controversial sweepstakes bill after it had been approved by the last Legislature. He said he hoped he would not win anything in the big lottery because it might embarrass him politically.

Actually, sweepstakes ticket buyers will not receive tickets from the automatic machines, but rather an "acknowledgement" or receipt. The tickets, with names and addresses of their owners, will be picked up from the machines and deposited in a Manchester bank vault for the big drawing in September, a few days prior to the big sweepstakes race to be run at Rockingham Park.

There will be only one race this year and the sweepstakes is expected to net the State some $2,000,000 for educational purposes. In future years there will be two sweepstakes races, with at least double that revenue anticipated.

LOS ANGELES-Bulk vending customers notice the difference in more or less generous amounts vended for a penny.

Ray Miller, El Segundo operator, disappointed at a falling off of volume in his locations near schools, in discount department stores, service stations and supermarkets, experimented by adding about 10 per cent to the amounts delivered from peanut, jelly beans, candy corn, and confection machines. Feeling that the slightly larger portions might persuade youngsters to look for his machines, he tested the program by spotting those which gave standard amounts, plus those which vended more side by side. A test comparison over a period of three months showed that invariably youngsters who had operated both machines with a penny went back to the largeramount models on return visits.

Volume grew rapidly in every location on the more generous machines but remained static on the others. "There's no doubt that youngsters are just as bargained-minded as their parents," Miller said. "We simply provide a better return for the penny and let the extra volume make up the difference."

Loot Coin Machines

MANCHESTER, N. H. -

Thieves preyed upon vending machines in a series of burglaries in the downtown area here during the night of March 18. About $40 was stolen from vending machines and a juke box at the Circle A Social Club, vending machines were looted of $36 at American Legion Post 79 headquarters, and a coffee machine was forced open at the Queen City Bowling Alleys, but it contained no money.

Ark. Operators Hold 1st Annual Convention

LITTLE ROCK — New officers of Arkansas Automatic Merchandising Association were elected last week at the group's first annual convention which proclaimed the first year of the association highly successful.

Biggest accomplishment of the association in its first year was to get the Arkansas Legislature to pass Act 145 which makes burglary of a coin operated vending or amusement or service machine a felony.

Charles A. Stewart, executive secretary of the association, said this law, combined with the association's organized battle against break-ins, had cut coin machine burglaries by 50 per cent.

Board Chairman

Harry Dales, president of Capitol Vending Company, Little Rock, was elevated from president to chairman of the board of directors.

Herman Snyder, vice-president of Rowton Tobacco Company, West Memphis, Ark., a wholesaler in tobacco and operator of cigaret and candy machine routes, was elected president.

All other officers were reelected. They are:

J. Earl Gill, owner of Gill Vending Company, Hot Springs, vice-president.

June West, owner of West Wholesale Tobacco Company, Russellville, treasurer.

Stewart, who is also executive secretary of Arkansas Music Operators Association, was retained as executive secretary of the vending association.

Decals Printed

Stewart reported on the vending group's war against coin machine burglars. When the campaign began in 1963, the association had decals printed for members to stick to all machines, after the law was passed.

The decals warn that it is a

Stewart to Join Seeburg Branch In Laconia, N. H.

CHICAGO—John A. Stewart, onetime Bally Vending executive, has been appointed to the executive staff of Seeburg's Musical Instrument Division in Laconia, N. H. He will also serve as chairman of the executive committee.

J. Cameron Gordon, executive vice-president of Seeburg, said that Stewart will participate in the general management of the division and will also serve as a liaison between Seeburg-Laconia and the Chicago head-quarters.

Stewart joined Seeburg when it acquired Bally Vending Company. At the time, Stewart had been vice-president and general manager of the Bally division.

Upon joining Seeburg, he became vice-president of the company's International Bally Vending division, later assistant treasurer and credit manager in the financial division.

He is a long-time resident of Chicago and a graduate of Northwestern University. He will reside with his wife and two daughters in Laconia.

Selectorama Price

CHICAGO—Price on Victor Vending Corporation's Selectorama is $37.50, not $34.50 as originally reported. A previously announced price of $10.50 on its multiple stands has also been changed to $19.50.

felony to break into the machines and carries punishment on conviction of one to three years in prison. The decal also says the association would pay a $100 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of anyone who robs or

Stewart told the convention, attended by 75 vending men from over the State, that the association had paid out $1,700 in reward money in the first year of the program—meaning 17 burglars were caught.

Reward Offered

Stewart said every time a thief is caught, the association gets a picture in the paper about it and "word gets around." He said the association also gives the reward to police officers if they catch a thief.

In North Little Rock, he said, two off duty officers on separate occasions caught two different coin machine burglars and got the $100 rewards.

At this, Robert Kirspel, president of Kirspel Vending Company of North Little Rock, rose to speak. Kirspel has been a city alderman eight years and is the police commissioner.

He said the $100 reward system has "really got our police officers on the ball. Before, police were blind and couldn't see these coin machine burglars. Now, with $100 in front of them, it wakes them up. My men are really looking for the thieves now."

The convention was held in the swank new Coachmen's Inn at Little Rock and included a cocktail hour and banquet.

Denver Discount Stores Go Big for Bulk Venders

DENVER — Bulk vending machines in the two big GEM department stores here are helping shopping mothers to control small children.

Whereas most discount department stores in the Denver area have limited bulk vending to lobbies or the snack-bar area, GEM Northway and GEM Southway, located on opposite sides of the city, have distributed four, six, and even eighthead machines throughout the store, flanking the aisles at many points.

No matter where a shopping mother may be, she is never more than a few steps away from a vender. Mix offered includes peanuts, gum, varmints, capsules, bubble gum, flavored specialty gums, and novelties.

Carefully varying the product mix from one spot to another in the same store, he has made it possible for mothers to keep their youngsters' interest up with a different item at each vending point.

GEM Northway, the original Denver discount department store, has even spurred interest from the outset through installing a 22-pound Big Boy ball gum vender, just inside where traffic splits into the 50-odd departments located to the east or west of the entrance.

At least 25 per cent of the mothers entering the store with small children automatically note the presence of this big, eye-catching ball gum machine, and still their children's clamor for candy by immediatly popping pennies into the ball gum machine, and keeping the youngsters occupied with chewing, until encountering the next machine, with a different item to offer, provides the opportunity to start the process all over again.

All Parts of Bulk Industry at Miami

CHICAGO - National Vendors Association will have all segments of the bulk vending industry represented at its April 15-19 conclave in Miami Beach.

In addition to the large turncut of operators and guests, there will be distributors, manufacturers and assorted suppliers, not a few of which will hold separate meetings of their own.

The National Vending Machine Distributors Association (NVMDA) will hold a meeting Thursday (16) morning in the Cavalier Room. The manufacturers have scheduled a special meeting as have the United Vending Distributors, though a time and place have not been decided.

Leaf Brands is holding a dinner meeting for its distributors Thursday (16) in the Charlemagne Room. Karl Guggenheim is holding a luncheon for its distributors Friday (17) in the same Eppy, Inc., is also holding a luncheon for its distributors Saturday (18).

Annual Conclave Offers Package Plan to Guests

CHICAGO-As in the past, National Vendors Association is offering a special package plan for guests to its April 15-19 conclave in Miami Beach, Fla.

Room rates run from $10.75 to $14.75 per person, modified American plan, including breakfast and dinner. Convention guests will also be charged a $50 registration fee which includes the following:

 Two NVA breakfast meetings.

- Thursday evening hospitality night in the exhibitors' suites.
- · Friday night dinner and

- Tickets for drawings of prizes.
 - Badge for exhibit floor.

According to Don Mitchell, NVA legal counsel, a couple can easily plan on attending the convention at a cost of under $100.

L. A. Op Advises Display Of Name on All Machines

LOS ANGELES-It's a mistake for the bulk operator to run his route on an anonymous basis, according to George Mitchell, central Los Angeles

Mitchell identifies every machine on location with adhesive labels bearing his name, address, and telephone number. He makes a point of continuously re-introducing himself to location owners at every call to make sure that whenever a location owner looks at his redenameled machines, the operator's name will come to mind. This is particularly important in Los Angeles where most machines are spotted on the sidewalk in front of stores, barbershops, taverns, bus stations, and similar spots.

A strong believer in constant upgrading of his routes, Mitchell provides every location with attractive machines, a minimum of four heads, a wide choice of fill, and portability. All of his bases are provided with either casters or small roller wheels to make it easy for the location owner to trundle the machines in and out at closing and opening time.

Because the white stick-on labels, impervious to weather, are prominently shown at each spot, Mitchell can pick up unsolicited locations from time to time as empty stores are rented by new tenants or new buildings are constructed.

Although he keeps his eye

open for new locations, the California operator realizes he cannot keep in touch with every development.

Each of Mitchell's widespread routes, which extend as much as 40 miles from his office within the Los Angeles area, has grown steadily on the basis of requests from potential location owners as much as from the usual type of sales call.

Bill Falk Returns From Orient Trip

FREEPORT, L. I., N. Y .-Bill Falk, head of Knight Toy and Novelty Company here, returned this week from an eightweek buying trip in the Orient.

Falk picked up several charm items which will be displayed at the annual National Vendors Association convention in Miami Beach, Fla., April 15-19.

Guggenheim Back From Hong Kong

NEW YORK - Bob Guggenheim, Guggenheim, Inc., has recently returned from a threeweek trip to Hong Kong, where he arranged for the shipment of 20 new lines of charms for the bulk vending industry. While in California Guggenheim also made business calls on Operators Vending Machine Supply Company in Los Angeles.

The Guggenheim company is planning to present several new lines at the NVA convention in Miami Beach in mid-April.

Mounting License Fees Irk L. A. Bulk Operators

LOS ANGELES — Members of the Western Vending Machine Operators' Association here are highly concerned with the trend toward higher licensing cost evident in small municipalities in this area.

Most of Los Angeles' estimated 1,200 bulk operators will find their cost of doing business higher considerably during 1964, according to Preston Coombs, president of the Southern California operators' group. Many city councils, mayors and planning boards are proposing licenses that are beyond the reach of the average operator.

Coombs cited the town of Redondo Beach. There, the city council has proposed a $25 op-

ROANOKE, Va.-A $700,-000 perpetual fund set up by the late Frank E. Page, former head of Roanoke Vending Machine, Inc., here, is making it possible for 60 students to attend college this fall.

The Frank E. Page Educational Fund was set up after Page's death in 1954 and is administered by a local bank. It is in its second year of assistance to students here.

Payments of $500 to $750 per student are made each quarter or semester. The 60 students attend 15 colleges, mostly Virginia schools. This year the bank is to pay $34,250 from the income of the Page Fund.

The money is awarded on the basis of need. Recipients are selected by a three-man committee headed by E. L. King, Montgomery County school superintendent.

erator's license for doing business in the community plus a straight $5 across the board for each machine installed. This, Coombs says, overlooks the fact that the total number of spots available to an operator in today's competition scarcely justifies the initial $25 license fee, let alone $5 for machines. Coombs feels so strongly about the issue that he has an attorney working for a more realistic outlook on the part of the tax officials.

Coombs, who pays more than $1,000 a year in licenses throughout Los Angeles and its county cities, points out that even in Los Angeles, with opportunities for literally thousands of locations per operator, the license is only $45 per year. If any of the smaller Los Angeles-area cities involved successfully establishes an oversized tax or license fee, the precedent will be dangerous, he feels.

Moreover, this paucity is doubly meaningful because it is the south of Italy, which is beginning industrial development (for instance, steel is now being produced in southern Italy for the first time). Coin machines should proliferate apace with this industrialization.

The Italian market is currently under close observation by European Common Market coin machine manufacturers. French producers are striving to widen their share of the Italian market in step with the flourishing Franco-Italian trade, and their prospects seem good. But it is the Germans who are moving hardest and fastest to fill what is regarded as almost a sales vacuum.

German equipment, featuring economy-class machines with easy-to-maintain rugged mechanisms, is promoted as ideal for the developing regions of Italy.

In any event, U. S. equipment, which now dominates the Italian market, is assured of an expanding market. This applies, specifically, to Wurlitzer, which has a licensed-production arrangement with Notomat of Leghorn; to AMI, whose machines are produced by Apparecchi Musicali Italiani of Mi-

Some astute Italian trade figures are betting that the real boom may be in games, which have been subjected to legal harassment for several years. This applies primarily to pinball games (flippers, in European parlance), which were banned in 1959 on the grounds they encouraged juvenile delinquency.

SAPAR, the Italian trade association, has been waging a patient, skillful campaign for reinstatement of the pinballs, and success may be at hand. The interior ministry has the matter under review.
