WEEN

God Ween Satan—The Oneness
(Twin/Tone, 2541 Nicollet Ave. S., Minneapolis, MN 55404/612-872-0646)

Youth of America, meet your new god: its name is Ween. Rather than killing their idols (a terribly '80s thing to do anyway), Ween takes a giant Magic Marker and draws a silly—or sillier—mustache on almost every rock icon you can imagine, sorta like cyberpunk Marcel Duchamps. Ween is crude, obnoxious and uproariously funny, but anyone who tries to dismiss them as a novelty just ain't listening. Not only are they formidable musicians (especially guitarist Dean), but they're first-class songwriters as well: Almost every song, hook- and lyric-wise, ingrains itself after one listen. And while they're devastating mimicks, even the spoof-songs bear the mark of Ween more than their inspiration: Gene and Dean scrawl their silly faces over a lifetime of memories, briefly inhabiting the souls of gospel, bubblegum, Springsteen, Jethro Tull, power ballads, metal, punk and even a genuine cover (an obscure Prince B-side that they've charmingly retitled "Let Me Lick Your Pussy"). Perhaps most remarkable of all, the whole thing was done on a four-track recorder (with producer Andrew Weiss), resulting in perhaps the most creative use of the machine since, well, the Beatles or something. Ween sings about cars, love and wood ticks with equal importance, and if God Ween Satan is at times self-indulgent, so were Layla and Zen Arcade. Around Weenworld in a day: "You Fucked Up," "Birthday Boy," "Up On The Hill," "I Got A Weasel," "Don't Laugh (I Love You)," "Cold And Wet," "Old Queen Cole," "L.M.L.Y.P" and "El Camino."

CHARLES BROWN

All My Life
(Bullseye Blues, c/o Rounder, 1 Camp
St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700)

Can you say smooth? How 'bout sultry? That's Charles Brown. Like many of the music's early stars, Brown had a huge success in R&B's early pioneering days with his smash sides (big for the times, at least) on the Alladin label, modeled after the smoky, bluesy sound of Nat King Cole's famous piano trio (among the most famous were "Drifting Blues" and "Merry Christmas, Baby," a perennial holiday song that could well be considered Brown's trademark). Like many others of his day, however, Brown eventually fell sadly to hard times, and spent a long time out of the spotlight playing for tips in small clubs in out-of-the-way places (at one point he was almost literally held prisoner as house musician in a mafia-run club in Kentucky!). Fortunately (for himself as well as for blues fans), the tides of fate seem to be turning back in favor of Brown. A stellar album a few years back on the now-defunct Upside label helped set in motion a rediscovery of Brown's talents, and hence his latest, the debut recording for Rounder's new Bullseye Blues label. Framing his emotive piano and warm, soulful voice, Brown's intimate, relaxed, ballad-based club blues shine here with embellishment from Dr. John's gravelly voice and keys on a few cuts, and legendary blues belter Ruth Brown (no relation to Charles) guesting on "Tell Me Who." They just don't make 'em any better than this. A definite keeper.

BRAND NUBIAN

One For All
(Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)

It's unfortunate that innovative, interesting rappers like Brand Nubian (and the Jungle Brothers and A Tribe Called Quest) are automatically lumped into the De La Soul New School without distinction. De La surely paved the way, but Brand Nubian has expanded upon the idea of non-traditional hip-hop with their delightful debut LP on the mainly rap-less Elektra. Coming from yet another hub of New York suburbia—Westchester County—the group (named from a kingdom in northeast Africa) has three voices: Grand Puba Maxwell, Lord Jamar and Derek X, along with DJ Alamo, all of whom have experience with other rap crews. Dante Ross, one of the co-conspirators of 3 Feet High And Rising, is the executive producer, but the group focuses less on in-jokes and spaciness than De La, and places the emphasis on messages ("Concerto In X Minor," "Dance To My Ministry") and musical variety. The middle of the LP is where you'll find the meat: Their take on Trouble Funk's "Drop The Bomb" mixes Public Enemy samples and go-go with Middle Eastern spice thrown in; "Slow Down" loops the guitar from Edie Brickell's "What I Am" (along with her sped-up chipmunk voice); the Stimulated Dummies Mix of the first single, "Wake Up," utilizes a JB's (as in James Brown's backing band) horn backing and ragamuffin phrasing. There's even a tongue-in-cheek new jack swing number, "Try To Do Me," that's icing on the funky cake.

KALEIDOSCOPE

Greetings From Kartoostan . . . We Ain't Dead Yet
(Gifhorse, c/o Curb, 3907 W. Alameda Ave., Burbank, CA 91505)

In the late '60s, Kaleidoscope's pioneering music (featuring David Lindley as an original member) helped open up new doors by fusing blues and non-Western folk traditions into the standard psychedelic rock equation of the day, in a series of brilliant early albums (those interested should seek out the excellent series of U.K. CD reissues). Not just a tired reunion of another old hippie group who find themselves suddenly low on cash flow in the '90s, Kaleidoscope has a lot here to lose as musicians (all have proven their integrity and skill over the years) and quite frankly, little to gain from this reunion—Michelob ain't exactly beating the doors down over this one—so this project ranks as one of the most aspiring and artistically satisfying "comebacks" we've ever heard. There's absolutely no attempt to recreate or revel in past glories, as the 'Scope recklessly but masterfully fuse world styles and sounds—oud, flute and flamenco music nestle snugly beside country blues and plain old bluesy psychedelia. It's a little weird to hear ourselves saying it about this batch of weather-beaten ex-hippie-looking types, but half the time these guys sound for all the world like Dead Can Dance, 3 Mustaphas 3 or the latest Bill Laswell project. Cornball as it may sound, Kaleidoscope still expounds the bold and daring sense of experimentalism and freedom that marked their music the first time around.

JACKPOT!

TAV FALCO'S PANTHER BURNS Return Of The Blue Panther (Triple X, 6715 Hollywood Blvd., Suite 284, Hollywood, CA 90028/213-871-2395)

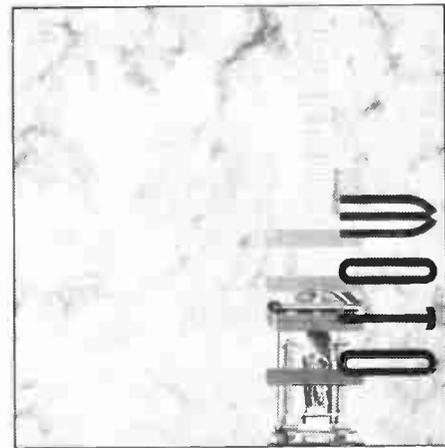

—During much of the tail end of Alex Chilton's decade-long tailspin, Tav Falco (like Lux Interior of the Cramps) was right there by his side, and even ol' LX himself served a stint as producer and member emeritus of the Panther Burns during the dark and hazy nights of the weekend that lasted seven years. Still bearing traces of that barfly glow of Chilton's most decadent days, Return captures the same sort of chaotic gin-soaked melee spirit that made such albums as Like Flies On Sherbert, the Mekons' New York, or for that matter, Big Joe Turner's "Shake Rattle And Roll" such decadently enjoyable cacophany. Tav's softened a few of the raw edges of sheer psychosis and almost Blue-Velvet-like dementia that marred earlier efforts by giving them that eerie, unsettlingly voyeuristic quality of watching Falco and fellow Burns self-destruct and collapse onstage. Here, there's oodles of the raw blues roots of Memphis (one of Tav's many adopted hometowns), lots of primal, distorted six-string stingers and even a nod to Tav's Baton Rouge heritage as well in the cover of Slim Harpo's "I Got Love If You Want It" (sic). Despite its sarcastic, intentionally weak start (Toto covers were obviously never Tav's strongest suit), Return gives us 10 murky, rocking reasons why Tav's among the wildest and most way-out of the spiffily dressed, mojo-toting men of rock 'n roll. Top pompadours: "I Got A Woman," "Rock Me Baby," "Got Love If You Want It," "Surfside Date" and "Girls On Fire."

ROKY ERICKSON Reverend Of Karmic Youth (Skyklad, 6 Valley Brook Dr., Middlesex, NJ 08846/201-968-0073)

—This past year has seen major labels catching on to the covers comp trend, and every single rock musician, whether they're upstarts or old farts, have fallen all over themselves to pay homage to every single important artist whose important output ceased at least a decade ago. Most discoveries of note for 1990 have been of records from our parents' day and age instead of, for example, anything from 1990; if you guys who oh-wowed all over Pyramid Meets The Eye can't muster similar response over the Real Thing, we won't exactly be surprised but we don't exactly need to get any more cynical either. Roky's in kind of a non-productive phase at the moment, and these live recordings of mostly-previously-released-on-import tunes aren't too earth-shaking in light of old Erickson LPs, but in themselves are shining examples of truth and beauty in the ordinary medium of song. Side two, recorded in 1979 with an electric four-piece lineup, is a satisfying enough alternate, requisitely rawer, take on the similar studio arrangements with the added excitement of a couple "completely unreleased" songs. Side one is what makes the record worthwhile, because Roky is captured, in 1985, bleating his heart out with an acoustic guitar, more wrenchingly personal, ideally off-guard than previous studio versions and proof of why everyone was so eager to be a fan of his in the first place. The best is "Starry Eyes," "True Love Cast Out All Evil" and "To Think."

MASTERS OF THE OBVIOUS This Corpse Is A Warning (Resonance, P.O. Box 549, Village Station, New York, NY 10014/212-268-5051)

—Masters Of The Obvious, grand entertainers that they are, have been churning out C-90s and 7" of their conceptual pop art, basement style, for four years. This actual-legitimate-full-record collects some of the wit and whimsy of the Moto machine, from the early recordings to the previously unreleased in any form—the Masters Paul Caporino and Beck Dudley seemingly capable of whipping out one Moto classic after another at will. The concept, a stringent, unvarying but near-always satisfying one, involves a couple trashy chords (Paul plays guitar), the most basic of drumbeats (Beck), tinny production and lyrics that are usually about the band itself or people that annoy them. It's all very simple, which is why most people don't have the genius to pull it off, and because all the songs make full usage of the rock 'n roll basics and get it over with in a minimum of fuss, it's easy and fun to listen to one two-minute Moto song after another without exhaustion. Though the aim is to amuse, Moto is no joke band, though perhaps they are the Saturday-morning cartoon version of the Ramones (two highly conceptualized pop art forms right there). Introduce yourself to the wide world of Moto with "Moto Love," "Moto Life," "Knee To The Groin" and the very first song ever recorded about an actual CMJ editor, "I Killed James Lien."

BLOOD ORANGES Corn River (ESD, 530 N. 3rd St., Minneapolis, MN 55401/612-375-9188)

—To most alternative folk, the term "roots music" doesn't always bring to mind any notions of fresh, innovative bands, but the Blood Oranges is a band who could easily transcend any musical tags given out of laziness. They play a bluegrass/garage hybrid, with equal parts grimy guitars and toe-tapping melodies. Set against Jim Ryan's warm, immediately familiar voice and the inviting harmonies of bassist Cheri Knight and guitarist Mark Spencer, Ryan's mandolin flavors the Oranges' sound with enough tradition and warmth for bluegrass enthusiasts and enough grit for fans of the Buck Pets. Ryan plays his custom-made mandolin, which has five thick strings instead of the customary four pairs of thin ones, like a virtuoso electric guitarist, picking out spicy solos and strumming out an enchanting web of sound. The cover of the traditional "Shady Grove" is an easy reference point for their updated version of bluegrass, with the mandolin-picking up front and a dark current of guitar pervading the backwash, as is the fascinating interplay between the guitar and mandolin picking in "Little Maggie." The originals are well-structured and very rhythmic, bringing a traditional bluegrass inspiration to songs which are injected with a thoroughly modern current. After peeling the above tunes, juice these: "Pounding Pipes," "High On A Mountain Top," "House Boat" and "Western Man."

GREGSON & COLLISTER

LOVE IS A STRANGE HOTEL

GREGSON & COLLISTER Love Is A Strange Hotel (RNA, c/o Rhino, 2225 Colorado Ave., Santa Monica, CA 90404-3555/213-828-1980)—When you find some truly gifted artists, you always wonder what it was that got them started as songwriters and performers in the first place, or even what sorts of things they spend their time listening to now. Love Is A Strange Hotel is a peek into the influences of Clive Gregson and Christine Collister, a pop/folk duo residing in Manchester, England, who may be best known for their studio and road work with Richard Thompson. Their third collaboration for Rhino is a record of covers that begins with their favorites like Bruce Springsteen (the haunting "One Step Up"), Merle Haggard ("Today I Started Loving You Again"), Joni Mitchell ("Same Situation") and 10cc ("The Things We Do For Love"). The title track, a version of the Boo Hewerdine/Darden Smith collaboration from last year, and Aztec Camera's "How Men Are" lead the tributes to this duo's contemporaries. Throughout the songs, Collister charms us with her Joan Armatrading-like range and ability, her full voice echoing above the acoustic accompaniment like the call of a mermaid to a lonely sailor. Gregson provides a graceful harmony and some strong leads of his own, as they share the instrumental and production duties. The duo works as comfortably and naturally together as any of the great duos in rock history, and make it all sound so easy.

BOSS HOG Cold Hands (Amphetamine Reptile, 2541 Nicollet Ave. S., Minneapolis, MN 55404/919-932-5256)—Fear, anger, passion, deceit, masochism, death and wet kisses boiled in the caldron until the sticky sweet juices flow over the edge onto the floor. Boss Hog slimes their way into your heart with their second LP; but Cold Hands is much more than a New York grunge all-star record with a beautiful naked girl on the cover. The vocals of Jonathan Spencer and Cristina (Remember when they were in Pussy Galore? Of course you do) lead the troops: Kurt Wolf (also of Pussy Galore), Jerry Teel (Honeymoon Killers), Peter Shore and Charlie Ondras (Unsane). This dish is a mingling of all those bands plus a touch of the blues. All is intricately woven together in the Steve Albini sound studios, which is the equivalent of the icing on the cake. Boss Hog eats their cake, too. Unlike Drinkin', Lechin', And Lyin', they have discovered a new subtlety, which is revealed in the new Twin Peaks innocence of Cristina's cover shot as compared to the queen of sleeze portrait of previous. Yet what lurks under the covers of those pure and innocent? Cold Hands reveals all secrets, big and small. Side one opens with the straight-ahead groove of "Gerard," progresses to the heavy, industrial locomotion of "Red Bull" (featuring Santiago Durango on guitar), and ends with the screaming saxophone of Kurt Hoffman on "Go Wrong." Then on side two, "Domestic" whispers tails of delight, and "Duchess" swings like Jerry Lee Lewis all tied up in leather. Don't be surprised if you find yourself screaming for more.

PHISH Lawn Boy (Absolute A Go Go, P.O. Box 187, Oakland, NJ 07436/201-405-0417)—Phish has been setting the hills of their native Vermont aflame since their inception in 1983 with their phery hybrid sound. A little bit of jazz, a little bit of country, a little bit of Zappa and a little bit of the Grateful Dead are combined into a heady, yet relaxed alliance of styles and moods. All phour members have studied their instruments since early ages, with an emphasis on jazz harmonies and compositions. Repeated listenings make it even that more difficult to peg this record, as something else inevitably pops up, whether it's a piano phrase that wasn't noticed before, or a jazz-like rhythm change that just caught you in mid-stream, or maybe even yet another line of the extremely phrolic-some lyrics phinally sinking in. Whatever it is, Lawn Boy, Phish's debut album, offers much phor the listener with eclectic tastes, and does a good job in satisfying the appetite of those hungry phor several courses instead of just the dessert menu. We just wish we could hear more of the vacuum cleaner! Gold phishes: the epic guitar jams of "Reba" and "Run Like An Antelope," "The Squirming Coil" and "Bathtub Gin."

VARIOUS ARTISTS Afros E Afoxes Da Bahia (Mango, 14 E. 4th St., New York, NY 10012/212-995-0202)—The region of Bahia in Brazil is, as described by Brazilian musician Caetano Veloso and echoed in Gerald Seligman's liner notes, "Africa in the New World." With the largest African-derived population of any region of that large country, Bahia is unique in that traditional African culture and religions remain virtually untouched. Part carnival music, part religious ceremony, the music of this disc presents a miniature guided tour of the world of Bahia. Afros is (regardless of the members' hairstyles) the name given to the smaller, more informal of Bahia's two fundamental musical units—a group of maybe 10-20 musicians—heavy on the drumming and percussion end, while afoxes are generally larger, more structured groups ranging from a dozen members and up—sometimes numbering as many as two hundred! While the comprehensive liner notes may intimidate at first glance, even those not immediately curious as to the intricate technique on instruments such as the tarois or berimbau should find themselves responding to the invocations of these polyrhythmic grooves aplenty almost instantly. Couple this with whatever your favorite carnival music may be—Rounder's Cuban Dance Party series, any of Mango's recent calypso series or the Dirty Dozen—and let the grooving begin.

RHYTHMSTICK Rhythmstick (CTI, c/o PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—CTI Records, the label that brought us jazz with strings, is back. No strings and lush orchestrations this time, though. If Rhythmstick is any indication of the direction producer Creed Taylor wants to pursue, then we're in for a special jazz treat. The disc features a stellar lineup which includes Dizzy Gillespie, Art Farmer, Phil Woods, Flora & Airto, Jimmy McGriff, Robben Ford, John Scofield, Charlie Haden and Tito Puente, to name just a few. Co-produced by Benny Golson, the tunes on this masterfully recorded disc are mostly latin-jazz oriented (Brazilian to be more precise), with compositions written by Gilberto Gil, Toninho Horta and Moacir Santos. On "Friday Night At The Cadillac Club" (written by saxophonist Bob Berg) this all-star group burns through the bluesy tune with guitarist Robben Ford shining all along. Phil Woods, as brilliant and eloquent as usual, leads off Charlie Parker's "Barbados," anchored by Charlie Haden and drummer Marvin "Smitty" Smith and Art Farmer on flugelhorn. On "Nana"—the Brazilian-boogaloo tune pegged by Brazilian composer Moacir Santos—pianist Jim Beard and vocalist Flora Purim's funky delivery are juxtaposed with the full sound of thick horns provided by Phil Woods and Bob Berg. The disc ends with Salif Keita's polyrhythmic "Wamba," featuring a duet between Tito Puente and Airto Moreira, and Dizzy Gillespie tapping his infamous stick and proceeding to kill with a soaring trumpet solo.

OF CABBAGES AND KINGS Basic Pain, Basic Pleasure (Triple X, 6715 Hollywood Blvd., Suite 284, Hollywood, CA 90028/213-871-2395)—Through years of playing NYC live shows and releasing records on challengingly distributed indies, Of Cabbages perseveres with methodic, unfaltering tenacity, just as their music steadily hammers its way into the mind's superstitions and subconscious. Of Cabbages And Kings wears their shrouds and deaths-heads well, and while their music is obsessed to Victorian-era proportion with Ouija-board metaphysics and the celebration of all that is old, dead and depressing (they do things like set Baudelaire's poetry to music), they drag out these incantations of the underworld with all the somber, classic style of a mausoleum gargoyle. Carolyn Masters and A. Kizys play guitar and bass with wintery austerity; tolling along heavy as granite and slow as molasses, their sound is uncluttered and severe without any of the excesses that befall most doomy types. The band is Gothic but not goth, and we doubt they'll trade in their stone-cold intensity for more light-fingered religious odes as did the Swans—this band is, was and always will be as dark and portentous as a lump of coal in a bright red stocking. "Of Service," "Land Of The '57 Chevy" and "Crawl" are fine antidotes for the holiday season.

LUNACHICKS Babysitters On Acid (Blast First (UK), c/o Blast First (US), 262 Mott St., Room 324, New York, NY 10012/212-941-9560)—With all the finesse of a 300-pound ballerina wearing toe shoes three sizes too small, the Lunachicks attack the stage of the post-modern world, only to point out its faults through mockery. Clad in tight leather jeans and spikey heels, these babes kick furiously against the pricks, turning upside-down the society that reared them and taught them how to behave. The assault is brutal—Theo's insistent snarl stomps all over Sindi and Gina's raunchy guitars, which are all set in motion by the furious pace of Becky's skin-pounding and Sydney's throbbing bass-lines. But the Lunachicks did not attend the Miss Brown school of manners and morals; they turn the society's mythic ideals inside-out, acting them out as a horrifying fantasy just to have a good laugh and shock the hell out of everyone who can't laugh at their own misconceptions. But there's a good laugh to be had on Babysitters On Acid, a record that describes a world where babysitters with meat cleavers instead of milk bottles put babies in the microwave and people are mercilessly slaughtered on the sidewalk. Fuck off and die with the after-taste of these: their mouthful o' fun singles from their debut 7" two-pack, "Sugar Luv" and the anthemic "Jan Brady"; the Lunachicks' raison d'être, "Born 2 Be Mild"; and the punked-out "Complication."

BREATHLESS Chasing Promises (Troy, P.O. Box 2103, Venice, CA 90294-2103/213-305-1643)—Unlike the legion of oft-over-emotional and usually under-innovative bands that have cropped up in the 10-year wake of The Cure, Bauhaus and Joy Division, Breathless is endowed with solitary rule over a singular dominion of musical beauty and gloom that is unlike any of history's other doom merchants who have plied the same dark waters. In their music, Breathless plots the same emotional trajectory as The Cure's first three records, while invoking the spirits of more complex and fragmentary psychedelic voyagers such as Viv Akauldren or even Bitch Magnet, and adding their own personal third axis of introspection and deeper thought. Beneath this brooding, weatherbeaten exterior and shroud-like mix, one can peel back the layers to find glittering melodies bathed in subtle and hazy splendor within: It's almost as if these melodies were wafting upward through all the echo and reverb toward the surface of the water far above. Lead singer Ari Neuffeld grapples with his own personal gargoyles while the band unleashes dense and thickly woven sounds, completely immersing his vocals in the music, reminding us that the most dangerous part of the iceberg lurks below the water's surface. Dark but not Gothic, melancholy but not morose, Chasing Promises is a stunning new addition to an exceptional and ever-growing oeuvre. Top Cuts, in merely chronological order: "Hereby," "Better Late Than Never," "Moment By Moment" and "Sometimes Sunday."

JACKPOT EXTRA!

MARCUS ROBERTS O Come All Ye Faithful (5'') (Novus, c/o RCA, 1133 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10036)—We can't help but get the feeling that even the most Scrooge-ly of programmers wouldn't be able resist these strident and serene solo piano interpretations of three traditional Christmas songs. All three chestnuts roast on the open fire of Roberts' impeccable piano artistry: the jazzy, Monk-ish "Let It Snow, Let It Snow, Let It Snow"; the stately, regal, bluesy rendering of "Silent Night"; and the nascent Ellington-isms of the title track. Any and all three would pair nicely with like-minded cuts from Wynton Marsalis' Crescent City Christmas LP of last year or the wonderful Jingle Bell Jazz LP from a few years back, to present the younger generation of jazzmen's take on the traditional music of the season.

VENUS BEADS Transfixed (EP) (Emergo, 225 Lafayette St., Suite 709, New York, NY 10012/212-219-0077)—This four-song EP is the American debut for this English quartet. Produced by ex-House Of Love guitarist Terry Bickers, Transfixed finds a medium between that band's sensitivity and the Anglo-punk energy of bands like Mega City 4, Birdland or even to some extent, the Wedding Present, while still maintaining its own singular voice. The Venus Beads shows a strong ability to blow away some steam on this debut, a musical combination that is loud, quick-paced and spangled with enough percussion and off-key guitar tricks to keep it unpredictable. Their debut album is slated for early next year, and if it sounds anything like this EP, we may have found an alternative to shoveling the snow.

CAPPING DAY Post No Bills (EP) (Popllama, P.O. Box 95364, Seattle, WA 98145/206-527-8816)—Out of the misty city known mostly for long hair and loud guitar, Capping Day refreshes the spirit with clean songwriting and soft presentation. The brainchild of Laura Weller and Bonnie Hammond, Capping Day released a single on Green Monkey Records in 1987 containing "Mona Lisa," which won them best unsinged band in America (sponsored by EMI, Snickers and Campus Voice magazine, but don't hold it against them). After lineup changes and contract problems, Capping Day re-recorded "Mona Lisa" on Post No Bills along with four new songs—all smooth and reflective with melodic vocals, airy synthesizer, hearty guitar and bouncing rhythms. Produced by Jonathan Auer of the Posies, this EP brings back a band whose musical sincerity shows through your speakers and makes you smile.

FUTURES

JACKPOT!

DIRT FISHERMEN Glenn's Car (Silence, 1206 E. Pike, Suite 671, Seattle, WA 98122)—Being from Boise, Idaho, the Dirt Fishermen do embody salt-of-the-earthiness and an unspoiled, uncynical moodiness and don't clumsily fall into those ever-menacing Midwest college radio traps of hokiness and embarrassing amounts of sincerity. With five members, four of which are listed as playing guitar, the record is broadly melodic, with the sort of interlocking, rangy jangle that also distinguishes the Walkabouts. Vocalist Gina Gregerson howls with biblical fervor, with the feeling gushing out of her vocals making lyrical enunciation superfluous. The most notable attribute of the Dirt Fishermen is the way they fashion perhaps the most standard modern-day indie-rock technique into their own quietly mature (not dull), assured weave, with its own post-Velvets haunting quality that turns all jangling and lashing. Like both Died Pretty and Antietam, Dirt Fishermen covers wide open spaces in their songs and fills them with all kinds of emotional substrata, their debut showing the capability to articulate the inexpressible in three-some minutes. Cuts: "People In Trees," "Heavy Metal Kt," "Song For An Obituary" and "Horse Sense."

voices, sound effects, mini-stories and scenarios gurgle lazily in and out of the mix to create a collage that, if it isn't downright funny in its implausible sci-fi weirdness, at least keeps your ear in the speaker waiting for what comes next. Maybe the more scatological stuff might not be the funniest shit on the planet, but moments of this "think piece" for the post-nuke family are simultaneously entertaining, creepy and well-crafted enough to warrant a late-night or early morning spin or two to watch the phone lines light up... While most of the ARGH!!! rock metal tapes we come across in Futures are usually pretty tepid/flaccid (all the cool bands are already friends of Kevin and mail to him direct), once in a while we still find a good lycanthropic, hair-raising demo that rattles our teeth and sends bloodcurdling, necromantic screams rising from our throats with all the thrills 'n spills fun of a Nordic invasion. ANGEL ROT (239 S. 4th St., Brooklyn, NY 11211/718-599-0820) unleashes hairball-sized gobs of fuzz and power that are so loud and pernicious, they're almost guaranteed to make even the most timid of brown-eyes stand right on end. Though sometimes we weren't entirely sure how serious they took their death metal dirge gouging, Angel Rot could be—tarnished halos and all—the most ravaging and ornery rumblings to thunder out of our Futures speakers in a long long time. —D.I.Y.

F.Y.I.

Though the songs on their musical tape sounded to our ears like Mannheim Steamrolling the Yes-music progrock of Emerson, Lake, Bruford, Wakeman and Why Bother, we momentarily dug the

"radio theater" pieces by the MOUTH BANDITS (c/o Spare Change Studio, 1302 E. Michigan, Urbana, IL 61801/217-367-1639). In a low-key spoken-word/sound montage effect (like vintage Firesign Theater or a more mellow Negativland),

JACKPOT!

NRBQ Peek-A-Boo—The Best Of NRBQ (Rhino, 2225 Colorado Ave., Santa Monica, CA 90404-3555)—

NRBQ will never be pop stars. They're too smart and funny and good at what they do, and too many people (especially the lummoxes at commercial radio) just don't get it. Since 1969, when their debut LP kicked off with a cover of Sun Ra's "Rocket #9," NRBQ has been America's greatest rock 'n roll band; if there was some sort of World Olympics of rock, they would be the ideal U.S. representatives. It's easy to understand why they've never broken out of the critics' choice/cult favorite circuit; as we continue to turn our backs on American culture and folklore pre-MTV/People magazine, a band like NRBQ that extols the virtues of an "RC Cola And A Moon Pie" and "Ridin' In My Car," and base their rhythms and instincts on rock 'n roll (as opposed to rock), R&B (as opposed to urban contemporary) and jazz are considered either too cute or too simple or too sentimental. Sad but true. Luckily, you're much smarter than all that, and you could care less about pop stars, and you like songs about drive-ins, and a two-CD, 35-track NRBQ compilation that spans their entire recording history (even including the few good tracks from last year's Virgin LP) sets your tail a waggin'. We could quibble over track selection, but it couldn't have been easy limiting the songs to 35, so we'll just patiently await Volume 2 and thank Rhino very much. Tracks: play 'em all and play 'em often.

ROY ORBISON The Legendary Roy Orbison (CBS Special Products, P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY, 10101-4450)—

Even in the wake of the post-Wilbury, posthumous mythologizing pop culture process, nobody's going to deny that Roy Orbison was a figure of absolute and utter legendary proportions—even the detailed liner notes here seem to wobble precariously between referring to Roy in the past or present tense, as if the

the vicinity, including the players' usual out-fits. Chris D.'s run-over-kitty vocals would be riveting even if he were singing on a Wilson Phillips covers compilation, but thankfully enough his lyrics are always thought-provokingly horrific, albeit hard to comprehend. Cuts: "Because Of You," "Poison Arrow," "My Life To Live" and "Tightrope On Fire."

BEACH BOYS Sunflower/Surf's Up/Holland (Brother-Caribou, c/o Epic Associated, P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY 10101-4450)—

Three fucked-up records from one fucked-up band. With the possible exception of Dylan, no band's flops and failures are as fascinating as the Beach Boys'. Their wild popularity was already a thing of the past, as was Brian Wilson's involvement with the group, except for one performance at the Whiskey-a-Go-Go in 1970. Despite the lack of forward momentum, the band developed a custom-label deal through Reprise (Brother Records) and released Sunflower in '70, Surf's Up in '71 and Holland in '72. Sunflower is the most consistent of the three, a charming, small sort of record with some beautiful songs and a SoCal soul that propelled such classics as Wild Honey and parts of Smile. Needless to say, the record flopped miserably. Surf's Up's completely crazy—it begins promisingly enough with "Don't Go Near The Water" and "Long Promised Road," but then degenerates into some of the most embarrassing drivel the Beach Boys ever produced: "Student Demonstration Time," based musically on the Leiber/Stoller hit "Riot In Cell Block #9," featured new, contemporary lyrics by noted political theorist and antichrist Mike Love, while "A Day In The Life Of A Tree," co-written by Brian Wilson and Jack Rieley, is sadly self-explanatory. Even the epic title track, a B. Wilson/Van Dyke Parks collaboration, was an ambitious mistake. Legends abound about the making of Holland, and the studio the Beach Boys built in the Netherlands for the occasion (for this and other remarkable stories and insights into the Beach Boys, we strongly recommend the Heroes And Villains novel from a few years back. As rock books go, it's even better than I'm With The Band.) "Sail On Sailor" brought the Beach Boys briefly back on the charts, but Holland continued the downward spiral. Surf was decidedly not up.

FLESH EATERS Prehistoric Fits Vol. 2 (SST, P.O. Box 1, Lawndale, CA 90260/213-835-8977)—

L.A.'s Flesheaters stalked the earth at a time when people were just beginning to realize you could still be punk without playing as fast as humanly possible or by including other topics besides fascism or cops. Centered around the glowering presence of Chris Desjardins, the Flesheaters included a passle of yet-to-be-famous L.A. stars like Dave Alvin and John Doe, and always seemed more indebted to L.A.'s cinematic past than to the current music scene. Until all the original Flesheaters LPs see the light of day, the SST samplers are a good enough indication of Chris D.'s pulp-inspired pathos. Fits Vol. 2 tramples through sections of all four studio albums, and while the band gradually evolved, its choppy punk basics giving way to more grandly theatrical melodies, the chunky, bar-raised expertise of the backing musicians always stood apart from any other band in

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/non-commercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). BOLD indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position; #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more... PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

KMFDM Naive (Wax Trax)

Controversy, shmontrousery. Programmers are not so naive as to let a little cover art spoil a little screaming fun provided by the funk and drone sound of this KMFDM LP. Featuring the chart-climbing single "Godlike" (on CD and 12") as well as the title track—could this have been the sound that toppled the Wall? If you turn it up loud enough, you won't even see the cover, Mr. Helms.

CMJ RADIO TOP 150

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and collegenon-commercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). BOLD indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position; #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more. . . PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

Jane's Addiction

The Cure

CHART TALK

Column by Mark Glaser

Boss Hog: ... maybe not

Brenda Kahn: And she has a great personality

For the fourth straight week, Mancs Charlatans UK rule at the top, with no end to their reign in sight. Their only possible weakness is in the West regional, where they came in at #2 behind the Pogues, who move up a notch, 5-4, overall. The Cocteau Twins fall down 3-6 to facilitate The Cure's 4-3 and Red Hot + Blue's 9-5 jumps, the latter gaining on the heels of an ABC special over the weekend.

School's Out Forever: With the coming holiday break, radio reports should be slacking off a bit; but if your station is still on the air, remember that the last reporting dates of 1990 are December 17 and 18. The first reporting dates for next year are January 7 and 8. The end of the year signifies more than just Christmas and drunken New Year celebrations—it's time for those utterly obnoxious year-end "Best Of" lists that clutter up every mag in existence (expect our Tops Of '90 issue early in '91).

Indie Rule: With the end-of-the-year slow release schedule, lots of independent releases are making the Top 150. There are a total of 64 indie records on the chart, with many making upward moves this week. Leading the charge is TVT's Connells (10-9), with "Stone Cold Yesterday" moving to #4 on Top Cuts. Mammoth's Blake Babies, which had stalled earlier at #22, moves up to #17; Rough Trade's Butthole Surfers single takes a huge jump up 115-39, good for the #3 Breakthrough, while Jackofficers debuts at #124. Wax Trax's KMFDM scores the #1 Breakthrough this week (#43 debut) and the #10 Adventure Pick. Other independents making noise: Relativity's They Eat Their Own (60-45), Matador's Superchunk (83-70 after previously peaking at #58), Lookout!'s Mr. T Experience (89-77), AmRep's Boss Hog (#90 debut) and Dragon Street's The Spin (147-112), among so many others.

Dust Off The Cobwebs: New singles have infused new life in age-old favorites Public Enemy (#109; "Can't Do Nuttin' For Ya Man" in Flavorvision) and Nine Inch Nails (#63; "Sin"). New interest has been injected into more recent releases, too: Nettwerk-I.R.S.'s Falling Joys (#87 re-entry), SST's Duck And Cover comp (110-89; previous peak at #61), Sire-Reprise's Aztec Camera (106-91; previous peak at #8) and Amphetamine Reptile's Helios Creed (144-126; previous peak at #71).

Fresh For '91: Chartbound early in the new year—Ween, Pop Will Eat Itself LP, Drivin' N' Cryin', new Babes In Toyland, H.P. Zinker, new Ride, Eleventh Dream Day and Blue Rodeo.

Rosanne Cash:
And she has a great personality

PROGRESSIVE RETAIL

Chart compiled by Lydia Anderson

ON THE CHART

Once again, we have more place-swapping to discuss than new entries. The Cure holds fast at #1 for the fifth week, while most records below are just shuffled around. Two records inched their way into the Top 10 this week: Chrysalis' Red Hot + Blue charity compilation (11-6) and Rough Trade's Butthole Surfers single (15-9; #8 In-Store). These push Sire-WB's Madonna compilation (10-11) and Elektra's Deee-Lite (9-12) just below the top.

Our chart is graced with only five new entries, the highest by far being Elektra's Happy Mondays (#19; #1 at Co-Op Book-store and VVV), who also garner the #6 In-Store spot. Epitaph's Bad Religion (#53; #1 at Lou's and Trash American Style), Caroline's Samhain reissue (#56; #1 at Home Of The Hits and Magnolia Thunder-pussy), Sympathy For The Record Industry's Melvins 7'' (#61) and In-Effect's Limbomaniacs (#75) are the other four lucky new entries.

Christmas is carrying its weight at retail, with box sets from Led Zeppelin (23-18) and Robert Johnson (24-20; #1 at Rhymes) leading the pack, and a respectable appearance from the Byrds set (re-entering at #72). Indies moving through the ranks include the Jackofficers (32-25) debut on Rough Trade, the second LP from AmRep's Boss Hog (42-31) and TVT's Connells (66-46). (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

JACKPOT!

CLIFFORD JORDAN/RICHARD DAVIS/JAMES WILLIAMS/RONNIE BURRAGE Four Play (DIW (Japan), c/o Sphere Marketing & Distribution, 175 Fifth Ave., Suite 2350, New York, NY 10010)—It's no secret to any close observer of the international jazz scene that the Japanese have staked a strong, if not exactly commanding, position in the market. The Japanese DIW label, perhaps taking its cues from the stateside recession, has decided to make its CDs available to American jazz fans at domestic prices or slightly above. DIWs have been available, on a limited basis, in recent years for about 20 bucks; now they are available widely, courtesy of Sphere Marketing & Distribution in Manhattan, for $14 or $15. The above recording, credited to the entire ensemble—Clifford Jordan, tenor; Richard Davis, bass; James Williams, piano; Ronnie Burrage, drums—is an unflinching mainstream-to-bop date recorded in Tokyo probably in 1990 (no precise recording date is given). The liner notes are entirely in Japanese, but this cavil aside, Four Play is a strong entry (50 minutes) brimming with energy and togetherness, beginning with Jordan's up-tempo "Tokyo Road" and concluding with Davis' tenderly evocative ballad "Misako—Beautiful Shore." Jordan's two originals, along with one each from Williams and Davis, are interspersed among captivating renditions of Thelonius Monk's "I Mean You" and Randy Weston's "Hi-Fly." The other offerings in DIW's opening stateside salvo are: Spirituals, David Murray; In Touch, Phalanx (with George Adams and Blood Ulmer); Soweto, Art Ensemble Of Chicago; Heroes, Defunkt; The First Recording Vol. 2, Albert Ayler; Trio Revision, Mulgrew Miller Trio with Oliver Lake; and Elec. Jazz, Music Revelation Ensemble (with tenorman Murray and guitarist Ulmer).

VINCENT HERRING American Experience (Music Masters, 1710 Highway 35, Ocean, NJ 07712)—If the twentysomething alto saxists Christopher Hollyday (with two RCA/Novus albums under his belt) and Antonio Hart deserve the raves they've been getting, and they do, then Vincent Herring merits banner headlines, if not shouting from the rooftops. His overdue debut as a leader fulfills the promise he has shown with the David Murray Big Band and, more recently, the Nat Adderley Sextet, with which he has recorded Live At Sweet Basil for the new Sweet Basil label of Japan. Unlike some of his impatient peers, Herring (who just turned 26) doesn't try to play everything at once; rather, he allows his lines, like fine wine, time to decant before he fills the glass. Herring's rugged, billowing sound, more than a little reminiscent of Cannonball Adderley's, is heard in two groupings on American Experience: three sextet

ON THE CHART

For the fourth straight week, Art Blakey & The Jazz Messengers sit atop the mountain of records reported this week, and is seriously challenging the Marsalis Brothers for record of the year honors on this chart. Keeping pace at #2 is Sun Ra, with the Paris All Stars filling in the third spot (9-3), keeping the gold, silver and bronze positions for A&M intact. Kenny Garrett proves that he isn't done yet, moving back up 8-4, while Michael Brecker does the same

(7-5) to round out the Top 5—further down on the chart, five other records that have been around for some time have a similar revival. Top debut this time out goes to Wynton Marsalis and his soundtrack for the movie Tune In Tomorrow (#16). His new Standard Time Vol. 2 should be out early next year. Also debuting is guitar sensation Mark Whitfield (#19), with his first album. (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) tunes from 1986 with trumpeter Tex Allen and trombonist Clifford Adams, and quintet. For all of his fluidity on alto, Herring relies on precise timing to create suspense in the ears of his listeners: When one expects control, he lets go; when one expects abandon, he displays steadiness. No doubt his stints as a sideman with rhythm-masters Lionel Hampton, Art Blakey (one week), Horace Silver and Art Taylor (he's a current member of the drummer's Wailers) have imbued him with the disciplined swing that serves him so well.

MONTE CROFT Survival Of The Spirit (Columbia, P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY 10101-4450)—Here's a young vibraphonist/vocalist who plays his fanny off but hasn't earned accolades a la pianists Marcus Roberts and Harry Connick, trumpeter Roy Hargrove and flutist Kent Jordan. Like the abovenamed, Croft owes his signing to the long arm of the Marsalis clan. Croft, who came to Manhattan in 1983 after studying at Berklee with Branford Marsalis and Donald Harrison, displays his deft touch and rich tone as a vibesman on his second Columbia offering, but this time around he also makes his mark as a more than serviceable singer. His "Divine" is a sincere memorial to the recently deceased Sarah Vaughn, while his "Ella, Eddie, Jon And Betty," a sure shot for jazz radio, is a loose, spontaneous vocal ode to Fitzgerald, Jefferson, Hendricks and Carter; another tune, "Dedicated To You," again evokes Vaughn, this time in tandem with Billy Eckstine. Elsewhere on the 68-minute CD, Croft overdubs four vocal-harmony parts on "Take One Step" (tipping his hat to Take Six) and takes off on Dizzy Gillespie's "Bebop" as a means of saluting the fallen in Tiananmen Square ("Beijing"). Croft is a fast-rising triple threat (composer, vibist, singer), to be sure, and it'll be interesting to assess his progress down the line. In the meantime, check this one out.

ODDS 'N' ENDS

Dependability has long been HOUSTON PERSON's strong suit, whether it's his reliably rich tenor tone on the bandstand or his sound business sense off of it. So it came as no surprise the other day when the message I left on his answering machine in Newark, New Jersey, was returned the very next day—from Tokyo. Person, on tour in Japan with his 20-year stage partner, vocalist Etta Jones, related that his next album, due from Muse early next year, finds him on ballads featuring some most noteworthy youngbloods in the biz: organist Joey DeFrancesco ("Where Is The Love?"), trumpeter Philip Harper ("Blue Gardenia") and guitarist Randy Johnston ("As Time Goes By"). The new album, cut at Rudy Van Gelder's famed waxworks (with Winard Harper on drums), will contain at least two Person originals and one by DeFrancesco... Pianist MARCUS ROBERTS, the Wynton Marsalis-discovered pianist whose first two albums for RCA/Novus shot to the upper reaches of Billboard's trad-jazz charts, goes the solo route his third time out. Having cut several solo pieces on his inaugural offering, The Truth Is Spoken Here, the blind pianist will be featured Alone With Three Giants—Jelly Roll Morton, Duke Ellington and Thelonius Monk. Until his new one, produced by Delfayo Marsalis, is released in January, programmers can spin his promo-only Christmas CD for Novus.

JACKPOT!

VARIOUS ARTISTS Singing In An Open Space: Zulu Rhythm And Harmony, 1962-1982 (Rouner, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700)—Back before the hype, believe it or not, there was still plenty of music in southern Africa. Plenty of rip-off producers and record companies, to be sure (remember "race records"?), but the music lives on, a legacy of genius and greed that will be considered one of the major moving forces in late 20th century popular music. Like R&B did in the 40s and '50s, southern African pop expressed frustration with the powers that be, even while it was wed to those very same powers. And like rock, it simultaneously triumphed and succumbed. This set will give you another solid look at what may have been the heyday of the music, the pre-hype golden era. Listen to the plodding insistence of "The Crooks Are Coming," a sound that both drags and demands, scraping fiddles and thudding kick drum counting out the long walk. Listen to West Nkosi's production of Moses Mchunu (whose cut on the original Indestructible Beat LP is still the blueprint for Azanian jive). Again, the ensemble voices, the crushing guitar and scratchy fiddle set the tone. Listen to the raw electric guitar and bass laid down by Amagugu, as close to Chicago blues, 1940s style, as anyone in the world has ever come since. Listen to guitar/vocal soloist John Pengu, and hear what the streets were saying in 1962. Listen.

OUSMANE KOUYATE BAND Domba (Mango, 14 E. 4th St., New York, NY 10012)—This week's column is full of contradictions. And so it's appropriate to include this album here. It is full of contradictions, strange and questionable turns, but after many listenings, it finally won me over. My advice to you? Skip directly to track five, "N'Nanfanta Lele." This is the one that got me to take notice. It is all pop, solid kit drumming, layers of guitars, riffing horns. Glued onto that is a constant pounding of balafons and small drums, angelic voices and incessant rhythm. Pure pop, but verging on perfection. The whole album exhibits the same dichotomies, placing sounds like sitars, tablas, synth koras against an Afro-rock groove. The guitar is the thing here. Kouyate was the inspired guitar behind Salif Keita's best recordings, and here he gets to take his own proficiency to center stage. He can be mystical ("N'Nanfanta") or joyous ("Domba"). This title cut is soaked with soca and Motown in even measure. While he doesn't have the voicing of Keita, he outdoes his former partner by using a steady band, one that sounds like they've spent a long time together, and understands the whole thing instinctively. With a few dull edges here and there, Domba still manages to grab you, and with some simple programming on the digital-ground you can have yourself a fine set of what's best in pop fusion from Africa.

ON THE CHART

Aswad continues their reign of wickedness at #1, stepping out even further ahead of their arch-rival from Senegal, Yousou N'Dour, who is held back at #2. Meanwhile, Lucky Dube leaps into the Top 10 (15-9), along with Niney The Observer (10-7). Meanwhile, 3 Mustaphas 3 inch ever upwards, as does Amina, and the irrepressible Macka-B, who jumps 5-3. One point for all of our world music reporters—in the midst of all the multiple releases by the same artists (i.e. the Mad Professor reissues, the many Lee "Scratch" Perry titles on various labels or the whole slew of Macka-B albums on RAS), make sure in the coming weeks that when you report, you specify which release it is that you're playing. (WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) of Hotel BRAVE COMBO. The Texas Mustaphas, the band that lives on the border (of the planet). The grooves are authentic, sort of. Mambos, polkas (Tex-Mex style), obereks and choros, are ostensibly from locations as diverse as Italy, San Antonio and Israel, but in truth, most are magical fictions from the bravest musical minds of the American Southwest. Is psychedelic bubblegum from Mexica City your thing? Try to dance to "Dulcecita." Do a western round while learning the ins and outs of life on Earth with the title track. How about a cha-cha-cha with Debbie Reynolds? "Hey There," from the Broadway show Pajama Game was probably my first initiation to "world" music (or was it Percy Faith doing "Jealousy"?), back in my kindergarten days, but it wasn't like this! Opa! Dance! "???"! (Rouner, address above)... If you are familiar with Fairport Convention before they discovered that the music they played was "folk," then this sort of retro-Brit band from San Francisco is a recommendation: The BEDLAM ROVERS' sound is simple—electric guitars through inexpensive amps, violin with a Barcus Berry pickup, no effects, straight-ahead drums and bass, and marginal but determined vocals with classic "folk-rock" harmonies. "Objectivity" should follow your every newscast. It's a relatively timeless but no less topical warning about military incursion. "Tear Gas Y Cola" takes somewhat the same tack, in a musical style that fuses Tex-Mex with message. The lyrics are usually of a political (and pedantic) nature, which is OK by me. Somebody's got to complain about the trash we're getting for government and social service. File this one with God's Little Monkeys, Phil Ochs and Paul Robeson. Frothing Green (my vote for best parody title) is fresh and uninhibited, brash and noisy and mad and happy and needed. P.S. to the band: Stay away from Peter Asher. Thanks. (Heyday, Box 411332, San Francisco, CA 10012)... Their last record was maniacal, bizarre, incoherent. Maybe we're just used to them now. "The March of The Cosmetic Surgeons" seems so obvious now, so certain. "Now That I Am Dead" is what we expect from four old rockers who never quite hit the big time, but never gave up the fight. They're bald, they're jaded, and they're still four of the best musicians around. They're FRENCH/FRITH/KAISER/THOMPSON, and they are back, ready to storm the world by any means necessary, even by Invisible Means. Who would argue with a screaming electric version of "Loch Lomond"? Who would question the logic of their observations about "The Days Of Our Lives"? It's disjointed, even bothersome. It does its job well. It even remaps your view of their record company (Windham Hill, 1416 N. LaBrea Ave., Hollywood, CA 90028).

BRAZIL!

Comment from Mr. A.N.R. at Megaconglom Corp: "You press people have made so much of Brazilian music this year, we'll just have to dig into our back catalog again." So much for the value of self-fulfilling prophecies... New stuff? Yes, indeed. Chesky Records (Box 1268, New York, NY 10101) has released a simple and therefore exquisite album by ANA CARAM. Everyone should record on this label. There are no effects, no overdubs, just a well thought-out arrangement by an excellent band, fronted by the gentle voice and sensitive playing of Caram. Amazonia is breezy and unaffected, rolling along on the drums and percussion of Portinho and Cyro Baptista, hitting a subtle funky bass line, then bouncing back off of her vocals. There's as much New York as Sao Paulo in this recording, especially when Leandro Braga's piano takes center stage. It is the solo pieces that get to me the most. Her interpretation of Jobim's "Solidado" is perfect—just voice and guitar, in synch and unadorned. A late-night radio must!... You read so often (even from me) how much better someone's older work is. Well, here's your chance to hear the exception to the rule. Tropical Storm (4100 W. Alameda, Toluca Lake, CA 91505) has releases a set of GILBERTO GIL's early '80s records, all of them eminently forgettable! Part of the tropicalismo movement was the incorporation of other world pop trends into the music of Brazil. Here, Gil manages to quote from sources like Gilbert O'Sullivan, REO Speedwagon and a host of other '70s "swoosh-pop" groups, heavy on the screaming electric guitars, but light on creativity, soul or passion. The only thing that saves this set is the fact that no matter what, Gilberto Gil is a great singer. Here, though, it's all lost to the production. If someone has the rights, I remember an early '70s thing by him that was his tribute to the Sgt. Pepper era, complete with harpsichords, Salvation Army horns and funny para-military outfits. At least that one was humorous. Outta here!

Reggae Route

Reviews by James Lien/Chat by the Night Nurses, Amy Wachtel

CRUCIAL!

MAD PROFESSOR A Feast Of Yellow Dub (RAS, P.O. Box 42517, Washington, DC, 20015/301-558-9641)—Where will it ever end? Who can say where the trail of the master tape will lead us as it is continually unravelled from spools and spools of the Mad Professor's own personal tape library. Layering delicate and distant touches from Augustus Pablo's synthesizer and melodic over some serious Roots Radics backing grooves—10 tracks in all—next we hear from Yellowman, who adds his own vocal style to the proceedings. Then, as if that weren't enough great reggae names and ingredients already, leave it to the one and only Mad Professor to tinker and frolic with the results in his own steady and innovative dub fashion. The Professor's playful manipulation of the sounds of Yellowman's vocals as well as the various Pablo contributions floating in and out of the mix enables him to map out plenty of new and interesting dub terrain. It's a tour de force in dubwise headiness that somehow transcends the mere sum total of the individual parts given by its many illustrious contributors. 'Tis the season for feasting, and here's one that's too good to pass up...

sense of humor and irony; although he may seem to be poking fun at these issues, Macka's actually dead serious about any issue he turns his watchful eye toward. For starters, after our appetite was whetted with Macka's Buppie Culture album on RAS a few issues ago, we moved on to Natural Suntan, another biting taste of Macka-B's wonderfully irreverent and delightfully twisted, dead-on sense of humor. Wind up your Mr. B fest with a glimpse at Looks Can Be Deceiving, another scathing and yet still irresistibly funny romp through such typically topical Macka matters as racial stereotypes ("Looks Are Deceiving"), unemployment ("Unemployment Blues"), or the hilarious yet hard-hitting anti-overindulgence anthem "Drink Too Much." Even beyond the LP's title reference to unfair racial stereotypes, the title is a fitting one, describing the peculiar and wonderful guerilla tactics Macka uses to convey his message: Though you might find yourself smiling at first at the wit, humor and irony of his lyrics, beneath the surface the message is real and deep.

LEE "SCRATCH" PERRY AND MAD PROFESSOR Mystic Warrior Dub (ROIR, Suite 411, 611 Broadway, New York, NY 10012/212-477-0563)—Many hailed the triumphant return of the inscrutable Lee "Scratch" Perry with a variety of responses, ranging from claims that "the prophet has come down from his mountain" to other folks rolling their eyes in annoyance and moaning, "Oh no, not him again." Perry has indeed returned to form again, and one of the marks that signaled this return was the emergence of his Mystic Warrior collaboration with the notorious Mad Professor on RAS Records a while back. While that record was classic and timeless in its mix of Perry's eclectic jabbering and twiddling with the Mad Professor's solid but innovative production techniques, this dub treatment of the Mystic Warrior song set spotlights Perry in an even crazier, more fragmented light, sending us even further out into orbit than the original LP. Here Perry's near-maniacal ravings (yet often politically and socially charged with truth and peppered with Perry's unmatched wit) are reduced to their most fundamental components—bite-size chunks of near-inscrutable sound—leaving the groove and the spaced-out, underwater sound effects in the forefront of the listener's (sub)conscious.

MACKA-B Looks Are Deceiving/ Natural Suntan (Ariwa, c/o RAS, address above)—As one World Music reporter playfully remarked during last week's reporting, there's enough Macka-B on the market these days that you could practically program an entire station with Macka for 24 hours a day! Here's an attempt to wade through some of the many worthy releases that the B-man has available, all of which showcase his unique

SHABA RANKS Rappin' With The Ladies (Pow Wow, 225 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019)—This new release from the folks at Pow Wow presents Shaba in several steamy tracks co-starring with several of reggae music's most sultry-voiced leading ladies. Though such slackness may or may not be everybody's bag, Shaba is among the best in the biz at his own sensual grooves and slightly risqué style.

TIPPA LEE & RAPPA ROBERTS Roots Vibrations (RAS, address above)—Yet another fine release in the latest batch from RAS, this CD could play a crucial role in transporting the duo of Tippa Lee and Rappa Roberts from being pretty much "underground" names here in the States to more of a primary force in reggae music—at least to fans up here to the North. With a rat-a-tat style of rapping that meshes seamlessly with the snare drum rattle and rippling bass-line pulse, Tippa Lee and Rappa Roberts are a duo to watch on the ever-changing reggae music skyline.

FRESH!

BRAND NUBIAN One For All (Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—Every once in a while a group comes along that goes beyond conventional standards; their individuality stems from a sense of originality, sheer talent and an uncanny knack for producing true art. De La Soul opened the door to a whole new sound and approach to hip-hop while leading a charge of followers. On a similar plane as De La but with much less of the surreal wit that group practices, comes New Rochelle, New York's Brand Nubian. Grand Puba Maxwell, Lord Jamar, Derek X and DJ Alamo's debut LP (they did release the 12" "Brand Nubian" last year) is a brilliant collection of tracks that are styled with unadulterated hip-hop beats, imagery and sound. Puba Maxwell (ex-Masters Of Ceremony) displays some of the finest rapping heard with a sharp, rapid-fire tongue that possesses such natural rhythm and proficiency that you can sometimes lose sight of the knowledge that's dropped—lyrics cover social commentary, self-liberation, awareness and respect. "Here's some food for thought/Many fought for the sport and the black man still comes up short/It's time to motivate, build and elevate/Blind, deaf and dumb we gotta change their mind state" from "Wake Up" paints a pretty clear picture on where they're coming from. Their sound never becomes predictable or redundant as they go from the Bell Biv DeVoe-borrowed "Try To Do Me" right into the contrasted Jamaican-ragamuffin "Who Can Get Busy Like This Man..." to always leave you guessing and making One For All easily one of 1990's most prolific and smartest releases. Nubian cuts: "Concerto In X Minor," "Ragtime," "Dance To My Ministry," "Step To The Rear" and the artistic, Edie Brickell-tainted "Slow Down."

2 IN A ROOM Wiggle It (Cutting, c/o Charisma, 1790 Broadway, New York, NY 10019/212-332-0445)—As we speak, one of the hottest dance hits of the moment is 2 In A Room's "Wiggle It." Its simple house beat, fun dance floor vocals and infectious chorus has made for one of the fastest rising club hits in a while. But now the duo of Dose and Rog Nice have followed up the single with a heaping portion of hip-house/hip-hop grooves on Wiggle It. While also being producers for other Cutting and soon Cardiac Records artists, the pair utilize a plethora of producers and mixers (Chep Nunez, Todd Terry...) and offer the dance scene an easily accessible LP that touches on more than standard club beats by showing off their ability to rap to more than just house based rhythms. The album has a diversified style that isn't greatly radical, but in its own sugar-coated way (don't look for any serious issues raised) meshes many styles and creates the variety and dimension releases of this type very often lack. For the hip-house junkies there's the Todd Terry mix of "She's Got Me Going Crazy," "House Junkie," the harder "Bring It On Down," the JB's-flavored "Do What You Want" (originally on CMJ's Digital Dope compilation) and "Booty Hump" which is a carbon of "Wiggle It." For some surprisingly honorable but tame hip-hop try: "Hype Stuff," the gangsta attitude on "Got 'Em On The Run," "Body To Body"

ON THE CHART

As we put the Beat Box chart into cruise control and coast into the new year we still have Def Jam/Columbia's L.L. Cool J (1-1) up beyond the rest of the pack while Tommy Boy's Paris (2-2) has a strong grip on the two slot. While Big Daddy Kane (5-3) graces the Top 3 and Public Enemy (3-4) slips a notch, A Tribe Called Quest (10-5) have silently found their way back near the top where they haven't been since the summer. New debuts this week include the stylistically brilliant Brand Nubian at #18, the delayed and deserving debut from Lakim Shabazz's incredible The Lost Tribe Of Shabazz at #27 and the second platter from Profile's King Sun at #30. Can't wait for those year-end charts! This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Son Of Bazerk; 2) Run-D.M.C.; 3) Paris; 4) Young Black Teenagers; 5) Brand Nubian; 6) King Sun; 7) Professor X; 8) Public Enemy; 9) Stereo MC's; 10) Schoolly O. (BEAT BOX REPORTERS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) and my personal fave "Soul Train."

DEF 12

SCHOOLLY D "King Of New York" [108 BPM] (Capitol, 1750 N. Vine, Hollywood, CA 90028)—The master of the Philly street-sound Schoolly D is attacking New York (after a not-so-successful LP in Am I Black Enough For You?) with a new label and a new slammin' single from the new motion picture King Of New York that sounds as though he may be returning to those glorious Smoke Some Kill days. His in-your-face rawness shines brighter than ever as DJ Code Money lays down huge funky grooves with very light samples of distorted guitars (he combines rap and rock incredibly), Flavor Flav and scratches as Schoolly's ruggedly explicit rhymes flow with precision. The 12" is equipped with radio versions but if you asked Schoolly, he'd want the "Extended Hardcore" played. Schoolly's back in session with a full LP in February.

"WORD TO YOUR MOTHER"

Just thought I'd grace y'all with those immortal words from one of this year's greatest hip-hop poets, Vanilla Ice... I know you gonna dig this... The AFROS have dropped an amazing 12" for "Kickin' Afrolistics"/"Feel It" [100/108 BPM] (JMJ/RAL, c/o Columbia, P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY 10101-4450) that features brilliant remixes from Clark Kent on the three-dimensional "Kickin' Afrolistics" and Jason Mizell and David Reeves creating a stronger mix of "Feel It" that throws in a chunk of the Jackson 5's "Dancing Machine." Should stir up new life in the LP... Other commendable 12"s and such: Reggae feelings abound through NARDO RANKS' "Burrup" and the latest collection of dancehall cuts on The Best Of Reggae Dancehall Music Volume 2, both available from Profile (740 Broadway, 7th Floor, New York, NY 10003/212-529-2600). The holidays are approaching but the CMJ Beat Box is not turning off—so if your station remains on the air please continue to fax/phone those lists in. The reporting line is 516-466-7111 and the fax number is 516-466-7159. New releases are coming from EPMD (called Business As Usual), U.T.F.O. and the ICE CUBE EP. Until next time... Wordsweeteyobaby!

I still drop the load, so send all rap/dance offerings to the number you see on your screen. Glen "T-Bag" Sansone at CMJ, 245 Great Neck Rd., 3rd Fl., Great Neck, NY 11021.

"INCIDENT" KILLS FAN

A 21-year-old fan was killed outside an AC/DC concert at the Meadowlands after a state trooper tried to break up a fight in the parking lot. A prosecutor would only say there was "some sort of incident." It was the second death in two years at the arena (the first was at a Grateful Dead show). Several fans have complained about being beaten by Meadowlands security, but security has not been linked to either of the deaths.

DEATH ANGEL IN BUS CRASH!

Death Angel drummer Andrew Galeon suffered serious injuries when the band's tour bus flipped over en route from Tucson, AZ to Las Vegas, NV. The accident occurred on Nov. 28 at around 8:30 AM; all band members were sleeping in their bunks when the bus swerved suddenly and then flipped over on its side. The others suffered minor injuries—although vocalist Mark Osegueda lost part of his toe—but Galeon had to be flown by helicopter to Valley Hospital in Las Vegas, where he underwent several hours of plastic surgery. Andy is expected to make a full recovery, and will be released from the hospital soon. ARGH!!! wishes a speedy recovery to all, and you can too, by sending cards and letters to: D.A. Fan Club, 735 Hickey Blvd., #171, Pacifica, CA 94044.

YOU CALL THIS "ART"?

If their behaviour on their recent tour is any indication, Jane's Addiction is more like a virus. On Nov. 19, angry fans started a "riot" after a lackluster 40-minute set from the band at the Tower Theater in Philadelphia. Several people were injured (including one policeman) and 22 were arrested as police tried to disperse a crowd of several hundred.

Reportedly, the show's atmosphere was hostile throughout, and the band wandered offstage after a short set that included very few of their "hits." The band refused to do an encore (despite the promoter's repeated attempts) and the already agitated crowd of 3,000 chanted insults and caused minor damage to the band's tour bus outside. According to all reports, the real trouble started when the police arrived.

In a press statement, lead singer Perry Farrell said: "I regret anyone getting arrested or hurt in Philadelphia. I know people may have felt they did not get their money's worth out of us. It is unfortunate that I'm not a wind-up toy that can perform anywhere, any time under any conditions. We were booked into a restrictive venue. Performing there was like having an epileptic seizure in a subway. I felt nothing, and so rather than fake an orgasm, I decided to get dressed and leave. It would have been a bigger insult to the audience to play three more songs just to keep the guarantee. We did not 'take the money and run.' We told the promoter to shove the money up his ass and took our time getting out of town." (The promoter offered $5.00 refunds instead.)

The following night, in front of a rabidly adoring crowd at Manhattan's cozy and intimate (we're really laying it on thick) Ritz, the band played a blistering set that included virtually all of their hits (with the notable exception of "Jane Says") and a 20-minute encore. Farrell slurred some words about having "started a riot" the night before and apparently was explaining what happened, but his words were lost in the Ritz's bottomlessly murky sound.

Less than a week later, the band ejected openers the Buck Pets from the tour and replaced them with the Rollins Band for the remaining dates.

ROTH RECEIVES WRATH!

Some distributors refused to stock David Lee Roth's new album, originally titled Cut N' Out, because the cover art created "unusual and overt sexual con-ists. The new band includes mainstays Greg Bissonette (drums) and Brett Tuggie (keyboards), as well as newcomer guitarists Dezi Rexx (ex-D'Molls) and Joe Holmes (ex-Lizzy Borden) and bassist Todd Jensen.

OH YEAH! GUESS WHAT . . .

Here are the latest updates in the never-ending Death saga: the band's rhythm section (Terry Butler and Bill Andrews) refused to work with vocalist/founding member Chuck Schuldiner after he returned from his unexplained disappearance during the band's European tour. The pair will carry on under a different moniker (although still for Combat Records), and "Evil" Chuck has written a bunch of new songs for the next incarnation of Death . . . Expect the Black Crowes to get even bigger: they're scheduled to spend January and February opening for Z.Z. Top . . . At the annual Rip party in L.A. last month, Ozzy joined headliners Faith No More for an encore of "The Headless Cross" (just kidding—it was really "War Pigs") . . . Geffen recording artists White Zombie are recording in Rhode Island with producer Jim Thirlwell, a.k.a. Foetus . . . On Motorhead: 1916, maybe their best studio LP to date, due on Feb. 10.

SLAYER Slaytanic Wehrmacht Or Bust

"Yeah, you could say I'm somewhat infatuated with serial killers... I mean I'm into that," confesses Slayer frontman Tom Araya.

I ask him: Ed Gein didn't actually kill anyone until the end of his run, did he? Didn't he more or less just dig up graves because he was hungry? Or did he just get tired of old meat?

"No, no, he killed too," Tom says insistently. "They found faces of people that were missing. He had seven full masks with hair all the way to the neck—it was almost like he peeled off their faces so he could wear them. He also used to dig up graves and steal the noses, ears and... female body parts, but he also killed several people. They don't really know how many people he killed, 'cause they found this massive grave in his back yard full of bones—it was uncountable number.

"After reading about him, all I could think about was 'Dance with the dead in my dreams,' so I wrote that down and worked it into some music. In fact, the music for 'Dead Skin Mask' was originally supposed to be called 'Seasons In The Abyss.'"

This isn't idle chatter for the squeamish, but what else could you expect from Slayer, quite possibly the definitive speed metal band? The name alone summons images of snapping limbs, blood-thirsty orgies and general mayhem—Slaytanic rituals, if you will—and that's just their live shows! Come along, if you dare, into the mystical world of Satan's bastard sons.

Slayer was formed in L.A. in '81, when guitarists Jeff Hanneman and Kerry King were trying out for the same band. After swapping ideas, the guitarists added the talents of vocalist/bassist Tom Araya and a pizza-delivery guy by the name of Dave Lombardo. The lineup intact, the foursome bashed out "Aggressive Perfection" for Metal Blade Records' Metal Massacre III compilation (it's now included on the Show No Mercy CD) and, with some persuasion from label head Brian Slagel, decided to continue writing material. After two albums (Show No Mercy and Hell Awaits) and an EP (Haunting The Chapel), the band split from Metal Blade and joined forces with renowned then-hip-hop producer Rick Rubin (Run D.M.C., Beastie Boys, L.L. Cool J.) and signed with his then-label, Def Jam.

Their Rubin-produced 1986 LP, Reign In Blood, contained not a split-second of weakness, and is considered by most (certainly myself) as thrash metal's ultimate masterpiece. While on tour supporting the LP, drummer Dave left the band for a period of four months, only to return stronger than ever. The band changed direction slightly with the slower-but-just-as-heavy South Of Heaven, and became the first artists on Rubin's new Def American label, emerging several months ago with the equally bold Seasons In The Abyss, a mix of their strongest styles to date.

Heavy as they are, Slayer still gets grief from longtime fans for slowing down their tempo. Perhaps in response, the album's opening track/single/video, "War Ensemble," is a bruising blast of speed that could easily nestle up to a number of the band's blood-drenched tracks. Yet speed-for-speed's-sake has already been done and certainly isn't this beast's only number. "I mean, we really don't think about people saying that we're 'supposed to be' the fastest band and we're 'supposed to be' doing that. We know what people expect and we like to do the opposite. 'Oh, you wanna hear that? Well, tell you what. This is what it's gonna sound like.' We do things to sort of fuck with people on records, like on "Ghosts Of War" from South Of Heaven, at the very beginning the mix is very tweaked. So you reach for the volume, you turn it up, you start fixing the levels, then it kicks in and you're like 'Woooooh,'" he laughs sadistically. "And the voices in 'Dead Skin Mask' are like the ones that start off and end Hell Awaits."

"Then, another new effect was the overlapping vocals, which happened by pure coincidence. The last song we did was 'Temptation'—Kerry had written the song the night before the last day of mixing. So he came in and said, 'This is what I have, see if you like it.' So I told him, 'Let me go over it and sing it the way I think it should be sung.' He liked the way I did it, but I sang it with his melody too, and we figured we'd see which one Rubin liked before we seriously started working on the vocals. Rubin came in and turned on the machine and both vocal tracks were rolling, and I said, 'Wooah, this sounds cool!' He said, 'What, isn't that what it's supposed to be? I said no! A lot of the record was kind of like that—it just kind of happened.'"

But did the speed freaks affect the band's writing at all?

"I think Jeff wrote the way he usually writes," Tom says. "He comes up with anything. Kerry was the one who tried to write fast songs. Basically, they come in with their stuff and I come in with my lyrics and make a tape of their stuff and then work with it. When I feel pleased with it, I submit it to them. Then they say they either like it or hate it. That's basically how we work."

MTV: the final frontier! With other hold-outs like Metallica falling under the blade of Headbangers Ball, it seems that video as a medium has not only become acceptable, but more than necessary. This time around, Slayer enters the picture with something very tasteful and effective, yet very safe. "We recorded the video live at Wembley Arena in London. We recorded the whole show, so you might see more." Maybe a home video? "Ya know, we'll just have to see about that, it'd be up to Rick to say yeah or nay. We might even have videos for songs on our last few albums, so don't be surprised. I mean, if we were to do some concept-type video, it would be a SLAYER video, if you know what I mean. It would be very surreal...very graphic."

With album and video in hand and the "Clash Of Titans" European tour (with Megadeth, Testament and Suicidal Tendencies) over, the time has come to route a tour of whichever American cities will permit such an unruly spectacle. "We like playing live, but we're not big on touring," Tom groans. "They've been telling us, 'Come on guys, you have to tour.' And we're telling them, 'Okay, but can you make it short?' We're going over to Japan for the first time this weekend to do five shows. New things kind of make me nervous, so I'm like in nervous anticipation. I'm really curious to see how the shows go over. I'm just going to wait until we get there to see how it's going to be. People say, 'God, you must be excited.' Yeah, I'm excited, but I'm still nervous. We're hoping to do some kind of 'Clash Of The Titans' U.S. tour. Hopefully, it might become something. That's something we had planned to do, but Megadeth had prior engagements with been replaced by Rob Cannavino and the band is seeking a second guitarist... In the wake of the Motorhead reissues on Road-racer comes news that two of the band's three GWR releases, Orgasmatron and Rock N' Roll (the third was the live No Sleep At All) will be reissued in January on Sinclair Records, an independently distributed offshoot of Mechanic Records intended to provide Mechanic with "the means of creating a base for developing artists" (like Motor-head?). Other label releases include Alien Sex Fiend and L.A.'s Bang Gang. This development will not effect the label's arrangements with its exclusive licensor MCA Records, and will be a "sister label" to Mechanic's other other label, World Of Hurt Records... Vocalist Martin Van Duren has left Pestilence; one of the band's two guitarists named Patrick is handling the vocals for the time being... After deciding not to tour until January because two band members will soon be fathers, Ratt has decided to do a bunch of club dates this month anyway (see their itinerary toward the back of the mag). On the other hand, Kix has decided not to tour this month; instead they'll continue preproduction for their next LP (due this spring) with producer Tom Werma... T.N.T., now with Atlantic, are recording in Long Island... Dangerous Toys' second LP will be called Hellacious Acres and will be out on Columbia in February. It was produced by the legendary Roy Thomas Baker, who produced Queen's amazing first few albums... Dedicated is the name of a Grateful Dead tribute LP to be released on Arista in early March, for which all profits will go to the Rainforest Alliance. Of particular interest to loud rock reporters is Jane's Addiction's cover of "Ripple."

ON THE CHARTS

"Clash of the Titans" indeed! Not since 1987, when Whitesnake and Anthrax traded the top spot every week, have we seen two albums in such mortal combat for the coveted top of our chart. Megadeth recaptures the peak of the Loud 100 and Commercial charts, while Slayer remains at the top of College, Audience, and Retail. Making the slow caterpillar climb in the Top 10 are: Judas Priest 4-3, Scorpions 6-5, and Iron Maiden 9-8, while King Diamond has refused to budge from the #10 spot for the past month! Death Angel makes a curious re-entry at #29, while the top debuts go to Coup De Grace at #41 and the New Wave Of British Heavy Metal compilation at #42 (they also occupy the #1 and #2 Adventure Picks, respectively). Others impressive jumps include Rhino Bucket (38-25), Living Colour (66-36), and Mucky Pup (74-40). Less drastic (but still important) jumps come from Lethal (42-33), Biohazard (50-39), Exhorder (62-43), Trixtor (75-48), The Great Kat (72- 57), and Ratt (79-54).

LOUD ROCK PICKS!!!

AT DEATH'S DOOR Various Artist (RC-Roadracer, 225 Lafayette St. #709, New York NY 10012/212-219-0077)—Having written the liner notes for the LP along with Monte Conner (of Roadracer) and Borivoj Krgin (Metal Maniacs/Metal Forces), I feel pretty familiar with the material on this compilation, which some may call a bit of a "conflict of interest." Oh well, the world is full of conflicts and if you don't like it... too bad! Personal ties aside, I can safely say that At Death's Door is the heaviest compilation of its nature to date. Sure, there are other death metal compilations available, yet as far as a general scope of the genre (past, present and possible future) you just aren't gonna find anything heavier. Classic material from Death, Obituary, Sepultura and Pestilence add merit to the compilation, while newcomers Believer (as far as we can tell, the first Christian death metal band—how's that for a conflict?), Morgoth and Decide point fingers to what could be. As for rare material; Morgoth and Atrocity (on Century Media and Nuclear Blast, respectively) are available on import only, while Believer is a fairly tough find (I hadn't even heard of them before the project came up) and Malevolent Creation and Cerebral Fix both debut material. And while, as in most compilations, production varies and gives ya a bumpy ride, the folks at Roadracer did an excellent job of sequencing. Personal faves include Pestilence, Morgoth, Sepultura and Believer. (KS, King of Conflict)

PAIN TEENS Born In Blood (Trance Syndicate, P.O. Box 49771, Austin, TX 49711/512-454-3265)—Despite their (and this album's) name, Houston's Pain Teens aren't a drooling thrash band, although they're certainly into extremes. In one way or another, every song (although we'd hesitate to call them all songs) on this brain-twisting 12-track LP is subversive and disturbing; the band is from Houston and their label is run by King Coffee of the Butthole Surfers, so some influence is evident. Yet Pain Teens are their own sicko cult religion, because they rely as much on deceptive seduction (vocalist Bliss Blood's often pretty voice contrasts violently with the sicko-but-true lyrics) as the Buttholes' in-your-face bluntness. Likewise, while only three or four tracks on this LP can even be considered musically metallic (although "Lady Of Flame" may be the first grind-core hip-hop song), Pain Teens are a much more subtle brand of sickness than your usual Slayer clones: by diversifying the sound they're more capable of surprising/startling/revolting, and a strange, spacy melodic element flits through the bacchanalian jungle of nerve-frying guitars, bulldozer rhythms, tape loops and other implements of aural terror. Anyone who's into loud rock because it's scary and unpredictable will find a world of challenges in these bloodletting sessions: "Lady Of Flame," "The Basement," "My Desire," and ESPECIALLY "Pleasures Of The Flesh" (not the Exodus song—something better...) (JA)

SACRIFICE Soldiers Of Misfortune (Diabolic Farce, c/o Fringe, P.O. Box 670, Station A, Toronto, ONT, M5W 1G2/CANADA/416-365-7878)—Referred by many as "Canada's answer to Slayer," Montreal's Sacrifice have finally released the follow-up to their Forward To Termination debut. Due to label troubles, this album comes a full four years later, yet is more than worth the wait. Unfortunately, because of previous headaches, Sacrifice remain virtually unknown in the States, unable to tour and get a record properly worked. While in past studio jaunts, Sacrifice seemed more concerned with an all-out attack blast of speed, leaving songwriting a second priority and musicianship even lower, yet Soldiers shows a new light on the band. Abandoning the speed-for speed's-sake mentality, Sacrifice have grown into a complex, highly accomplished musical force (despite some shades of Nuclear Assault), lyrically adapting a social conscience, while guitarist/vocalist Rob Urbinati enters the John Connelly school of yelping. Punchy production from the band and Brian Taylor adds crunch to the riffs and airs out a full drum sound that was previously lacking. Although there is talk of a U.S. deal, if you're anything like myself... ring these Canadians, 'cause this sucker burns like a mother fucker. Most fortunate tracks include "As The World Burns," "Pawn Of Prophecy," "Truth (After The Rain)" and the title track. (KS)

REVIEWS

HELLHAMMER Apocalyptic Raids 1990 A.D. (EP) (Noise-RCA, 5 Crosby St., New York, NY 10013/212-334-9268)—Some bands are musically adept and play scales with the ease of Yngwie Malmsteen, but can't write to save their lives. Some play and even write well, yet lack the "tude" to lay it down the way rock n' roll was meant to be laid down. Before Celtic Frost, there was Hellhammer: attitude and attitude alone. 110% anger. Noise has finally re-issued the first recordings of Thomas Gabriel Warrior and Martin Ain on CD, and to make the deal that much sweeter, added the two rare Death Metal compilation tracks, "Revelations Of Doom" and "Messiah." I would go as far as saying, if played on maximum volume, Apocalyptic Raids is the most painful thing ever... I mean, is there really anything more excruciating than the anguished screams on "Triumph Of Death"? (KS)

ATHEIST Pieces Of Time (Death-Metal Blade, 18653 Ventura Blvd., Tarzana, CA 91356/818-981-9050)—One would think that highly trivial sacrilege would be the order of the day here, but you'll find no trivial writing from these guys. Long available on import, Atheist's debut finds the band stepping out of the death metal mold and becoming a tight, virtuosic music machine. Formed in the mid-'80s in Florida (and formerly known as Ravage), the band features intelligently written lyrics questioning spirituality and politics, while producer Scott Burns molds their sound to a fine, piercing and brutal whole. Complex arrangements (no reliance on verse/chorus form here), fast-breaking tempos, changing meters, and the matching of music to the meaning of the lyrics makes for a thoughtful record—the death-defying rhythmic accents on "I Deny" make the music and lyrics fit like a fist in a smelly glove. Outstanding converters include "Pieces Of Time," "Room With A View," "I Deny" and "No Truth." (RJ)

KILLING JOKE Extremities, Dirt & Various Repressed Emotions (Noise-RCA, 5 Crosby St., New York, NY 10012/212-334-9268)—In their early '80s heyday, London's Killing Joke were one of the single most influential influential bands of the post-punk genre: their apocalyptic thrashings were blueprints of the noise-dance-metal interface that influenced both industrial dance and some of thrash's more pulse-oriented material (Metallica covered Killing Joke's "The Wait" on Garage Days). With ¾ of the original lineup, Killing Joke has returned with their strongest LP since '83's Fire Dances. In many ways, this album picks up where that one left off, wielding a more coherent yet no less furious drum-and-guitar-heavy approach driven by Jaz Coleman's inspired ravings and Geordie's roaring atonal riffs. Yet don't let the rhythm fool you: the only people who can dance to this want to get hurt. Hardly repressed emotions: "Age Of Greed," "The Beautiful Dead," "Inside The Termite Mound," the noisy "Intravenous" and especially the single, the righteous "Money Is Not Our God." (JA)

REALM Sulciety (Roadracer, 225 Lafayette St. #709, New York, NY 10012/212-219-0077)—Milwaukee's prog-metallers Realm return with their second LP, one that not only features better production, but a more solid stylistic foundation. Yeah, they dance up and down the scales like jumpin' beans, but Realm have grown into songwriters with material that's complex (fans of Watchtower take note), but flows logically in specific structures. Taking a cue from—yet sounding nothing like—Obituary's Cause Of Death, Realm segues each song with interesting engineering sound effects. While it makes the album a solid listen throughout, it's a bastard to cue up for radio programming! Songs to yoodle in high pitch: "Gateway," "The Brainchild" and "Dick." (KS)

REISSUE HELL

Now that Metal Blade has licensing access to the Warner Bros. back catalogue (which basically makes Brian Slagel a kid in a candy store—when are the Thin Lizzy reissues coming out?) and countless other labels are snapping up the rights to various archives faster than you can say "Budget-priced reissue with sixteen bonus tracks," we present The ARGH!!! Holiday Buyers Guide To Classic Metal Reissues (we'd also recommend the Jimi Hendrix boxed set if we had it, and we won't even bother telling you how great the Zeppelin set is)...

MOTORHEAD Motorhead/Iron Fist/No Remorse (Roadracer Revisited, 225 Lafayette St., #407, New York, NY 10012/212-219-0077)—I could probably spend the next three or four pages talking about what legends these guys are, or how influential they are, or even just how cool, but everybody already knows that story. Let's just say that Roadracer has reissued some long out-of-print records from the classic 1975-82 "three-piece" Motorhead line-up of Ian "Lemmy" Kilmister, Phil "Filthy Animal" Taylor and "Fast" Eddie Clarke, with the exception of the "greatest hits" No Remorse, which was released in '84 and featured some material with current guitarist Phil Campbell and Wurzel. The band's '77 debut featured a mix of pop sensibilities with a hog-ridin' bad-boy sound, and inspired a host of both punk and metal bands. The re-release features five essential bonus tracks from various EPs and B-sides from this period. Next up is Iron Fist, the last to feature Clarke, and probably my personal favorite Motorhead record. It's not a "speed metal" record, but this LP took the band's sound and sped it up into a rock a' boogie whirlwind that many speed metallers took to heart. By this album's release in 1982, the band was huge in Europe but had scarcely made a dent here, and after Clarke left the band began a three-year tailspin of personnel changes and record company hassles from which they briefly emerged in '84, with the "retro" double LP No Remorse, which originally came in a special leather record sleeve and featured liner notes written by Lemmy that were inexplicably not included in this issue. However, it does add two bonus cuts, both entitled "Under The Knife" (although they sound nothing alike). Interesting notes: elder classics like "Motorhead" and "Iron Horse/Born To Lose" were recorded live, while "Killed By Death," "Snoggletooth" and "Steal Your Face" feature the Wurzel/Phil Campbell line-up and a slight change in sound. Lemmy summed it best, "If ya don't like this record, we'll put another out. Ya don't like that record, we'll put another out. Pretty soon you'll like us just to get us off your back." Keep 'um rollin,' boys. (KS)

ALICE COOPER Muscle Of Love/Lace And Whiskey/From The Inside (Metal Blade-WB, address above)—From what we hope will be a much more extensive reissue series (with liner notes written by the man himself!) come three of Alice Cooper's stranger albums. While all feature ballads and other "experiments," let it be said that the overall sound on all albums is Alice's trademark hard rock. Muscle Of Love was originally released in 1973 in cardboard box packaging, and is the last album by the original Alice Cooper Band (Killer, School's Out, etc.). While the album lacks a "classic" single, the band's style of heavy rock was strong as ever, although it misses the structuring element of Bob Ezrin (who produced the band's early hits), and sometimes relies too heavily on the session musicians, who tempered Alice's more brawling qualities and edged out the original band after this LP. The story continues with 1977's detective-novel spoof Lace And Whiskey; Alice had endured taunts of "sell-out" after a series of ballad hits beginning with "Only Women Bleed," the prototype for Kiss's "Beth," and every power ballad since. For Lace Ezrin was back, but in the intervening years had become perhaps rock's biggest over-producer: we're talkin' choirs, layers of keyboards and endless guitar solos. As always, it's best when things are kept simple. By the following year, Alice had spent time in the hospital recovering from alcoholism, and this album is a depiction of his fellow inmates, all of whom were "totally out of their minds." Sonically, producer David Foster lays on a big late-'70s rock production (sorta like Desmond Child did with Trash!) that's often just too out of context with Alice's character, but more straightforward rock tracks make the LP worthwhile. (JA)

DEEP PURPLE Stormbringer/Live In Europe/Come Taste The Band (Metal Blade-WB, 18653 Ventura Blvd., Tarzana, CA 91356/818-981-9050)—History lesson, Part I: When people talk about "classic" Deep Purple, they usually mean the lineup that recorded "Smoke On The Water" and Made In

Japan and revolved around the talents of vocalist Ian Gillan and guitarist Ritchie Blackmore. They seem to forget that post-Gillan—and for one album, post-Blackmore—Deep Purple were incredible bands featuring some of the best rock musicians of the time. In actuality, Gillan was replaced by two singers: David Coverdale (yes, we can all thank Purple for giving Mr. "Slip It In" his big break) and bassist Glenn Hughes, who was good a singer as Coverdale and harmonized with him incredibly. After the excellent Burn LP (unfortunately not included in this reissue series), the band recorded Stormbringer, its last studio album with Blackmore—it's fairly obvious that his mind was somewhere else, as Hughes had steered the band into a funkier, more American direction that sounds less more like Bad Company and other early '70s FM-rock bands than Deep Purple. Live In Europe documents one of Blackmore's last gigs with the band. While at times it's an av. 3some testament to the power of this lineup, like many live albums from 1975, it includes three or four great minutes of a song before the band takes off on some of the most masturbatory soloing we've ever heard (average song time: 9:01). Finally, Blackmore was replaced by Tommy Bolin, an incredible guitarist and songwriter (and a decent lead singer, as well!) who probably would have been a huge star had he lived past 25. Bolin and Hughes steered the band fully into a neo-jazz-funk-rock direction that made for an at-times excellent album that nonetheless split the band in early '76. Coverdale went on to form Whitesnake; Hughes recorded with Gary Moore and Black Sabbath; Bolin died of a drug overdose later that year, and the other two played with Whitesnake until Deep Purple reformed. (JA)

IAN GILLAN BAND Clear Air Turbulence/Live At The Budokan/Mr. Universe/Glory Road (Metal Blade-WB, address above)—History lesson, Part II: Between leaving Deep Purple in 1973 and taking part in its 1984 reunion, Ian Gillan recorded eight solo albums (of which we listened to four). Turbulence was his second LP and is a startling time-capsule from an era long-gone: progressive rock. Virtuosity was the key, and Gillan's ultra-feisty musicians made sure he spent a lot of time playing tamborine (four of the six tracks are over seven minutes long). Still, the band soars through atmospheric jazz-rock and bluesier material with style if not distinction. Live finds the same band playing better versions of many of the same songs, but they completely destroy three Purple classics. This album was released in the same month as the Sex Pistols' Never Mind The Bollocks, and Gillan met with little success until '79, when the New Wave Of British Heavy Metal turned the tide back into his favor. For Mr. Universe, he formed a much more aggressive (and much more Purple-ish) band dominated by keyboardist Colin Towns and powerhouse guitarist Bernie Torme, who busts a serious gut on 1980's Glory Road, the last band's last quality outing. Tacked onto the CD is a bonus album included only with the LP's original pressing called For Gillan Fans Only, a half-nonsense, half-fun outing that actually includes some of the most burnin' material on any of these discs (especially the rockabilly cut, "Trying To Get To You"). At any rate, if you haven't received any of these already, jus' give Metal Blade a call. (JA)

RECORD COMPANY DIALOGUE

Jessica Harley, Megaforce Records/Crazed Management, Manalapan, NJ (201) 972-3456 And we thought CMJ was exciting! Not quite as happening as a Monday night at the Cat Club. Only days after his video debut Tom Araya appears in New York. How did we know it was Tom Araya—well, Missi's screaming was a big hint. So there we were casually standing next to the bar—not drinking, of course, but nonetheless we were there. At that point we became excessively bored and were contemplating a quick escape. Then all of the sudden, just like in the movies, there was a scream, I looked only to find Missi screaming and running through the Cat Club. Why was she doing this? It could only have been the fact Tom Araya—that's right folks, Slayer's frontman—had entered this illustrious establishment... In Megaforce/Crazed news OVERKILL announce new guitarist Rob Cannavino. Rob has been assisting Overkill throughout the audition process and proved to be just what the band was looking for. Rob was formally part of the Overkill road crew and hails from upstate New York. Overkill are still looking for a second guitarist. They will enter the studio in February with a release in May 1991. The album is tentatively titled Bare Bones. TESTAMENT continue to tour up the states with Megadeth and Judas Priest. This three-band bill is a must see—call for tickets and interviews soon because lists are closing! ANTHRAX have begun to announce dates in the States for the month of January. Full itineraries shall be available in the coming month. Persistence Of Time has reached gold status and is on the way to platinum. Look for Persistence Of Video in stores now! KING'S X are touring throughout Texas and I'll be going with them. MINDFUNK is coming... Hope you all had a great holiday. With the holiday upon us what we all need is a little Faith Hope Love by King's X. Peace.

Jake Wisely, Red Deciman, Red Decibel Records/Video Sheet Metal, Minneapolis, MN (612) 872-9326 If you read this 'zine, you know about the COUP DE GRACE. If you don't know, you aren't very attentive. Just about everyone will be havin' promo within the near time period, so I need not explain how to BE COUP. Europe gets lucky come March, whence the Coup does the yonder tour thing. In the meantime, U.S. dates are happenin' while they showcase for Stateside booking agents... Within the confines of the cardboard or paper-type thing in which the Coup is sent will also be BLOODSTAR, Switzerland's answer to grindcore, techno-industrial, new age tuneage. You can't begin to comprehend the totality of heaviness within... Look to January for DROP HAMMER, the most metal Red Deci-group to lay waste in recent history. Mind And Body should kick a few heads to the left... Look into my eyes, YOU WILL CALL ME FOR PROMO...

Michael J. Schnapp, "Epic Records Metal Answer Man," Epic Records, New York, NY (212) 445-5987 Let's think clearly. Not that easy, huh? As I sit here in Corporate America listening to the new MOTORHEAD at loud volumes, people look at me funny! That's cool, 'cause all the music out of my stereo usually is way loud. Hard and fast or fun and melodic, volume is crucial! I put IRON MAIDEN's "Tailgunner" picture CD on and cranked it! Iron Maiden smokes most holy! They'll be touring the U.S. with Anthrax Jan. 13 through the end of March! Fuckin' A! Okay, so then I put on SUICIDAL TENDENCIES "Send Me Your Money." LOUD. On tour now—their live shows are crushing me (that's not a pretty sight!). Also crushing me is KREATOR's Coma Of Souls. The sound and production is crisp and the whole LP is truly brutal! On tour in early '91—aargh!!! Catching on is FIREHOUSE—keep an eye on them as they build. Look for the BLONZ on tour and buy 'em a drink! I hear that LIVING COLOUR's live shows are a must-see, so I will when they hit NYC! Look for BURNING TREE on tour with Black Crowes—they are truly talented and extremely awesomely cool. Also BLITZSPEER are on the road doin' lots of shows with Exodus, Chris Poland and headlining on their own. Epic should own a highway because all of our bands are on the road! In '91 look out for MIND FUNK, Motorhead's 1916, new ones from OZZY, ALICE COOPER, CYCLE SLUTS FROM HELL's debut LP, new METAL CHURCH, EUROPE, KILLER DWARVES, BONHAM and KATMANDU (Dave King from Fastway and Mandy from Krokus). Remember: he who toasts the most... Turn that fucker up!

Clarissa Garcia, Def American Recordings, Los Angeles, CA (213) 278-6699 I just returned from my short-but-sweet roadtrip. One week and three bands (SLAYER, the FOUR HORSEMEN, and the BLACK CROWES)—I had my hands full. Special thanks to everyone we visited and with whom we did the hang thing: Fingers, Gail Flug, Claire Walsh, Don Kaye, Steve Aprea, Jem Aswad, Kevin Sharp, Caprice Carmona, Chris Black, Beth Renaud, Jim Trapp and Bill and Collie Hard. We'll just have to do it again some day... Hope you had a chance to check out Headbangers' Ball this past weekend. Tom Araya and Kerry King did a short interview and aired their first-ever video, "War Ensemble." Look for Slayer to start their tour of the States some time in January. 'Til then, take care kids, and I'll talk to you soon.

(718) 740-5700 Once upon a time there lived a weeble named "Irkt" who resided in a dead coral reef. Days would pass by unnoticed as Irkt floated aimlessly along the mass he called home. Suddenly, on a Sunday, I believe, he experienced an audio orgasm (his first) which added enormous spice to his otherwise dismal existence. Hark! What might that sound be? Why it was none other than Combat's TWO-BIT THIEF. Nowadays Irkt is the life of every party he and his Two-Bit CD attend. Won't you come out of that drab shell that you call a life? Play Two-Bit Thief and create a glorious existence for yourself. There are rumors that Irkt has been weathering deeper waters: he discovered MEGADETH. "Hangar 18" really catches the hottest of babes," sez Irkt, the geek-of-boredom-turned-hipster. "How if only I could hold on for dear life as I await the new SICK OF IT ALL 7"—one can only hope... In the "Gosh it sucks for us but way to go Christine" dept.: Christine Minot has left these metal radio waters for a bigger Northeast AOR ocean at Arista Records. I truly wish that I could have worked with her more (as I'm sure many of you do). Kathie and I wish her the best of luck in her new job. Thanks for all your hard work, Christine! We dug it!

Kathy Dovlatov, Noise International Records, New York, NY (212) 334-9268 Happy Thanksgiving everybody! D'PRIEST single "Ride You Through The Night" on your desks now! Album comes out Jan. 22, so unless you want to be left in the dust, play the single! Already on Z-Rock as "Pick Of The Week," KNAC, 97 Underground, CFMU, KBZR, KCMU, KHDJ, KRFA, KUCI, KUNV, KVHS, WAJF, WBAU, WBRS, WFSE, WHJY, WKNH, WLAY, WPSU and WXPL. This band is destined for great things—check out their first single, call MTV to see the video! Talk to Nadir, the man that sang for that notorious L.A. band London, which spawned Izzy & Slash, Nikki Sixx, Freddy Coury and Blackie Lawless! Call me for interviews. Check with your local record store for the D'Priest contest entry forms—just fill out the postcard and send it to Noise! CELTIC FROST! The band that introduced to the world death, grunt, puke metal in the form of HELLHAMMER is back with a killer LP, Vanity/Nemesis. They are getting ready to tour, so keep playing it! DESTRUCTION debuted at the Hard Report at #40! Now everyone has the brand new Cracked Brain, so play these masters of German thrash metal 'cause they're coming to the States in February. This seems like the year of instrumentals, so if you're into Chris Poland or Steve Vai, you'll love DAVE SHARMAN. His debut 1990 has gotten rave reviews from all guitar mags. D.A.M. was your #2 most added! Play this "crunch" metal act! GAMMA RAY is Kai Hansen and Kai Hansen was Helloween! Get it, got it. Now report it! KREATOR—enough said! Get ready for BATHORY, RAGE and MORDRED. See ya!

Michael Rittberg, Metal Blade Records, New York, NY (212) 921-4370 Every once in a while the metal charts get jammed up and then along comes a band that makes you take notice of some new music. Look past the obvious comparisons and you shall find a band with their own sound and style. Metal programmers across the country have taken notice of this band and in turn their audiences have responded. Over the past few weeks they have begun their climb up the charts. This band is LETHAL! CANDLEMASS is gearing up for their 1991 U.S. tour in support of their current release LIVE ATHEIST (you will have it soon) and BITTER END (look for a video soon) will be the opening acts. Finally, the NEW WAVE OF BRITISH HEAVY METAL CD is coming your way. There is something on here for everyone. If you need help picking a track to start off with give me a call.

Kenny Berenson, Metal College Representative, CBS Records, New York, NY (212) 445-5959 What is up? Plenty of things happenin' here at CBS. First of all, you should have IRON MAIDEN's new single "Tailgunner," so play it loud! And yes, they will be here in the States in January. Radio people are really diggin' "Nightcrawler" from JUDAS PRIEST. Call me for info on the tour of the year with Megadeth and Testament. ALICE IN CHAINS are now on tour with Iggy Pop, so call me for dates if you want to go. Also, check out their new single, "It Ain't Like That" because it's so groovy. KREATOR will be hitting the states in January, but you have Coma Of Souls now until the "Sun Burns Red." PRONG's new single is "For Dear Life." Check it out, as well as "Defiance" which is live from the famous Peel Sessions. LIVING COLOUR is out on tour as well, call me for dates, plus check out the new single, "Pride" with the killer live B-sides. And finally, "Last Call" goes out to BLONZ. They are now on tour, call me for tickets, interviews, and IDs. Is that enough for you? Rock on.

Bill Fischer, MCA Metal Representative, Woburn, MA (617) 933-9294 We'll keep it short and simple, kiddies! SPREAD EAGLE! Yes, this band is still alive and kicking about. As of the first week of December, you all should be receiving "Suzy Suicide," the new single from this stellar debut release. Everyone should be quite familiar with this fearsome foursome from NY. This single is one of the heavier cuts off of this album and should catapult them back into the top twenty on the charts. Expect new live dates to be announced along the east coast and, quite possibly, beyond...Speaking of year ending tours, SWEET F.A. continues to progress through Texas and towards L.A. From there, throughout December, they will eventually trek north and then homeward bound by the new year. Their latest single and video "Rhythm Of Action" has garnered much airplay on MTV, so expect much audience response.

Stev Riccardo, Third Stone Records, Los Angeles, CA (213) 280-6880 SAIGON KICK shocked the capacity crowd in attendance at X-Poseur 54 on November 18. It was the Fort Lauderdale band's L.A. debut and was anything but forgettable. The outrageous young group played thirty minutes worth of music from their upcoming Michael Wagener-produced Third Stone/Atlantic debut LP. The Broward County natives' set ended in total destruction as totally naked lead singer Alexander and cast demolished their rented equipment and left the audience with their mouths wide open with chants of "Fuck you/Suck my dick." Needless to say the club was pissed and a near riot broke out. It was fucking incredible! Look out for Saigon Kick's debut this spring, it's gonna be huge! Meanwhile back in Miami, CRYER began recording their debut LP with Jim Faraci. If all goes well this one should hit the streets in the spring. Also, David Alex-Barton is currently jamming with ex-Gang Green/Band 19 guitarist Fritz Erickson up in Beantown, getting tunes together for upcoming demo sessions... Wire Train hits L.A. next week. Looking forward to Lemonheads show this week also. Keep on rockin'!

Motley Stew, Torrid Records, Mt. Vernon, NY (914) 664-3885 Yo, It's not Skinny Puppy, Monkeyspank, or Monkey Puppy. It's MUCKY PUP!!! It's their new CD called Now. Play Now now! Get it? Start with the track "Hippies Hate Water," a sure crowd and phone pleaser. Join the growing posse of stations on this record with adds and play. Stations that are Now include: WRTN, WNYE, KWUR, WCWP, WDWN, WCDB, WWVU, WLFR, WPSU, WSOU, and WARC. This disc rules because it doesn't play by any. "Adventurous" is an under-statement! Get with it Now, what are you waiting for???

Dan Pinto, Megaforce Records/Crazed Management, Manalapan, NJ (201) 972-3456 Well, so I missed a week or two, "I got caught up!" While CMJ may just be a memory by now, I would like to reminisce. First, I would like to thank Ray Koob for coining my new nickname. This was a source of amusement for many (myself not included!). I would also like to thank Adrian and Erica of WDCR for contributing heavily to my sorry state. Cheers! (We were the ones door-hanging by Zone dK.) One more thing about CMJ: for all those I met and don't remember, please call and refresh my memory! I seem to remember saying "I will give you a call next week" a few hundred times and then waking up with a stack of business cards. The only thing that I can recall quite clearly is that KING'S X was amazing and if you weren't there, you missed a spectacular show. As expected, we are having great success with them at radio—but there is plenty of room for improvement! For those of you that feel King's X is a little too mellow, obviously you have not listened to "Moanjam" or "Talk To You." VIOLENCE is back on the road so look for them soon! ANTHRAX still has the time, but it may be time for you to try something new—how about "In My World." All vagrant metal stations that do not talk to Megaforce, call me!

RADIO DIALOGUE

Shawn "Death" Williams, Metal Director, WDWN/WIN, Auburn, NY (315) 255-1743 ext. 284 HOLY COW! I got a new job (I now get paid). I'm promotion/production director here are WIN 89 FM. I saw ALICE IN CHAINS last week. It was "godlike." A cool guy from WBSU has a brain and was there! I was SUICIDAL TENDENCIES at the Penny Arcade in Rochester. That club SUX. They had super dickhead bouncers in the pit! Don't go there. BAPHOMET show Dec. 2 at Backstreets in Roch. I should be getting a new SUFFOCATION tape soon—those guys rule. "Some shows were meant to stay underground": SEPULTURA/OBITUARY/SADUS Dec. 4. Glen Benton of DEICIDE now has an inverted cross branded in his forehead—the guy's got balls! Ask him why they don't like flying. Scott Burns is god! (That was necessary.) I need more info on the Tommy of the ACCUSED's side-band GRUNT TRUCK call or write. Send the heavy demos. CHACKO CHOOKY!?!?!?!?

Paul Phelps, Metal Director, WSDP, Plymouth, MI (313) 451-6266 G'day folks. Newcomer to dialogue here. Just thought I'd mention how dead the concert scene has been around here since the FLOTSAM AND JETSAM show and since GWAR and AGONY COLUMN cancelled their last show (welcome back Balzac). Now you play three of the greatest concert billings Detroit has seen in months all on the same night. We have AC/DC with LOVE/HATE; PANTERA, PRONG, and MIND OVER FOUR (thanks Tom); and SEPULTURA, OBITUARY, with SADUS (thanks Sophie). I gotta admit, I haven't gotten a really great mosh in since PESTILENCE (first show in America kicked major ass) and DEATH (real sorry to see Chuck go) so it looks like I'll be meeting them Brazilian Boys Sepultura. I'll try to keep you all posted. I wanna see SLAYER live for Christmas! How about IMPETIGO for openers? ANNIHILATOR's also sounding good. Thanks, please call me, support the Underground!

Jen Cardany, Metal Director, WSFX, Nanticoke, PA (717) 821-0933 Are you nervous, on edge, uncertain of your future? Afraid to make those everyday decisions? Don't know which direction to take? Your answers are in the stars! Your horoscope for this week: You may feel strange desires taking control of you earlier in the week—such as picking up albums by the likes of GWAR, DEICIDE, OBITUARY, EXHORDER, or SEPULTURA. The best thing to do is simply give in. Although you may be initially alarmed at your mind and body's reaction to this sort of music, the final result will be pure pleasure. Also, supporting your local college radio station can lead to financial success and even romance. Don't hesitate to send your demos or other input to your favorite astrology.

EXPOSED!

Judas Priest. We were kind of hoping to get that gig, but they turned it down.

In the past, things seemed less than copacetic with the band due to the extreme personalities of each member. How are things with the line-up now? “We get along now more than ever, which is kind of neat because that’s something we were lacking. I think a lot of it has to do with us getting older. We’ve always learned to accept each other for who we are, and that’s how we get along.”

Looking back on one’s career can be a frightening thing. God knows my past seems like a Steven King Horror story, yet Tom reflects on paying dues with the humble gratification of the boy-down-the-street done good. We did a song for Metal Massacre III, ‘Aggressive Perfector.’ We practised that song over and over and over and went into the studio and did it. And Brian said, ‘You guys want to do a record with me?’ Sure! And they were like, ‘Where are we gonna get the money?’ And we were like, ‘Fuck that! Let’s just get in the studio and do it, and worry about how we’re going to pay for it afterward.’ We realised that we all liked the way ‘Aggressive Perfector’ came out, so Kerry said, ‘Why don’t we get rid of all our older stuff and start writing shit like this?’ So we changed some of the songs and threw the rest out. We liked the way it came out, so we just decided to be fast and heavy. We set out to be the heaviest and the fastest, but aside from that, we also allowed ourselves to grow. I think that’s why we’ve been received so well now. Everybody figured we’d made enough noise, thus we’d earned something.”

He laughs, “I figure if you make enough noise, they can’t ignore you any longer! But looking back now, we went through a lot of heavy shit. We did our own tours with no tour managers—we just got in our cars and said ‘Let’s go.’ they gave us the dates, addresses, a map, and said ‘See ya when you get back!’ We did that on two tours, before we hit big on Reign In Blood.”

“We know what people expect, and we like to do the opposite.”

Hit big they have. The living embodiment of the P.M.R.C.’s nightmare will soon have gold records. Love or hate ‘em, Slayer has become a sales force in the metal market. “I think a lot of it has to do with the shit we get away with!” Tom says. “I mean, it gives me a chance to be really creative in the way that I want to be creative: I want to be really sick!”

“The most interesting thing to me is the way the fans react to us. That’s so amazing. When they see us on the street, they’ll ask us if we’re in Slayer first. When we answer, first they’re like ‘Dude,’ and then they scream ‘SLAYER!!!’ right into your face. And that to me is so cool, ‘cause it annoys people!”

As much fun as that might be, annoying people can land you in court very easily these days. “My biggest gripe about the music business is not even with the music business itself, it’s this censorship stupidity,” Tom says. “It has nothing to do with the music industry. The way these record companies are allowing little people to push them around? To me, the idea is to try and get kids together that are 18 and can vote, and then look for someone who will listen to them and not listen to the paranoid lame old stupid fucks, the paranoid people that don’t understand the music, that won’t even give the music a chance. ‘Cause once you understand the music, it becomes just another type of music.”

Finally, just what sets Slayer apart from other speed metal bands?

“I have no idea, dude. That’s one question I cannot answer. That gets asked a lot. Everything they ask me, I always look for something new to answer...but I have no idea.”

“We do what we want, and if it sounds good to us, great. We hope the kids like it. But I think we’re our worst critics. We try to please ourselves before we please anybody else. And if nobody likes it, they don’t have to listen to it.”

After chatting with Mr. Araya for close to an hour, I would like to clear up a few myths behind the legend. He’s no “rock star,” no Satanic wizard on the hunt for a sacrifice, and he’s certainly not out to corrupt America. Actually, he’s quite the opposite, Mr. Araya is the guy next door, slightly on the obnoxious side yet not an asshole, humble beyond belief, and more than anything, a genuine character.

So who’s your favorite serial killer? I’m torn between Henry Lee Lucas and Albert Fish.

RECORD COMPANY DIALOGUE

Jay Harding, Frontier Records, Sun Valley, CA (818) 506-6886

Frontier's latest is Still . . . Again by SPOT 1019 (that's "ten-nineteen," man) whose main goal is to put a smile on your face and encourage you to be productive ("Nothing But Good Things") in the global village. Whether it's by stealing a line from the band Boston ("More than a feeling! . . .") in "HHH" (Hubert Humphrey) or taking off on Flip Wilson's Geraldine character ("If I was a lady! . . .") in "Message To The People," it's a killer. DHARMA BUMS just finished West Coast dates with Buck Pets. More live dates throughout the U.S. sometime soon. 'Tis the season to give the "Bums some, food and bed (hey! none of that!) gladly accepted. YOUNG FRESH FELLOWS are on a 7" craze. If you're really lucky you'll total 12 tunes from six singles on six labels. PopLlama (Seattle), Frontier (Jan 1991 mailout, good luck on everything else), Pravda (Chicago), Skulduggery (MA), Estrus (Seattle) and the band's own Cruddy (Seattle) are co-conspirators. The Mark Eitzel Ordeal (he's of AMERICAN MUSIC CLUB) 7" titled "Innocence And Beauty" should be out on Matador soon. And finally, THIN WHITE ROPE get the January single slot for Sub Pop with "Ants Are Cavemen"/"Little Doll" (Stooges cover). A french horn on a Flaming Lips record is a beautiful thing. Neiter proms naked, he told me so.

Albert Garzon, Community 3 Records, Brooklyn, NY (718) 599-2205

I'd like to call attention to CBS's Alyson Shapero's Dialogue in CMJ issue #209—"We have a staff of local college reps on all major campuses ready to assist your radio days." Isn't that wonderful? Next CBS will be moving into vacant ROTC offices—then paying tuition for MDs. One wonders: How many stations have already been infiltrated by these "reps"? Just what our country's colleges need and want—Sony thought police on every campus. . . . Comm3 will soon be releasing a series of 7" singles by Soviet artists. The first is by ANASTASIA POLEVA—"Nastia," from the town of Sverdlovsk in the Ural Mountains. Growing up near the Siberian border has given Nastia a set of influences which we find exotic and alluring. Eastern cabaret—sung in perfectly sexy Russian. We're currently negotiating with Mezhdunarodnaya Kniga regarding the export and distribution in the U.S.S.R. for Nastia (and hopefully her Comm3 comrades). The POOPSHOVEL/HORNY GENIUS show at the Ecstasy Club in Berlin was hot as hell (the Fluid also played), and MTV Europe was there taping the show and interviewing the bands. The ARSON GARDEN/CHICKEN SCRATCH tour hits Berlin this week. . . . Poopshovel will have a 7" out soon called "Outta My Hair." BRENDA KAHN has been criss-crossing the Midwest on her new release Goldfish Don't Talk Back. Thanks to everyone who has helped her out and had her in for an interview. BIG TROUBLE HOUSE and the new AGITPOP should also be in your little hands. . .

Karen Booth, Radio Promo Type, TwinTone Records—East, Chapel Hill, NC (919) 932-5256

I'll explain it one more time. . . . I handle radio promotion for both TwinTone and Amphetamine Reptile, hence I am the person you need to speak to regarding service. Please no more irate phone calls about records—if I'm not currently servicing your station with either or both label's records there's a good reason for it, and I'll be more than happy to explain it over the phone. Geez. . . . I guess it must be going to a CMJ convention that gets you guys all excitable. On to a more pleasant topic, things are finally starting to wind down as my thoughts turn to shopping, eating and time with family and friends. Believe me, if there's a good holiday in the vicinity to participate in—I'm all for it. Fine releases you can look forward to in January, February and March include: WEEN, POSTER CHILDREN, SKUNK and BABES IN TOYLAND. So there.

Greg from Sky Records, Philadelphia, PA (800) 779-0759

I know, I know, you read my spiel in the Nov 16 issue of CMJ, and wonder how behind the times I am. Well, hopefully the Ed. guy will own up to the fact that they must have found that moldy Dialogue under an enormous stack of paper, and decided to print it just to appease me. Just goes to show you how effective and timely these things are. I'm not that out of step really. Hey, gotta go, my leisure suit has to be picked up at the cleaners before 5 p.m. . . . Music you should be playing (as of 11/19/90) includes PYLON, UNITY 2, LACH, ORIGINAL SINS, BOXCAR, OHO and BRIAN RITCHIE. Should these things not be at your station, call me at the toll-free number above, or 215-732-2061. Try Mike Kondo at 800-442-3142, or 404-263-7888. . . . By the way, despite rumors to the contrary, the members of Pylon really do sing and play on their album.

Gee. I forgot to thank CMJ for un-serif-ing the playlist type. Yow! I can see again! I'm so happy, I re-subscribed. It was nice of you and all, but you didn't have to fire all those people on my behalf. I guess letting the sub dry up is true empowerment in CMJ country. Nice to know you guys care. Nice new layout (am I out of touch, or what?), but I miss all the big-hair, tight-spandex and plaque-holding of Glimpses Of Reality. I had developed this grand picture (taken by notorious booking-type Craig Koon) of a Texas glimpse of 50 Skid hierarchy, members of HAPPY FAMILY, POCKET FISHERMEN, Marvel comics and KBVR's butts from a South By Southwest BBQ detour taken last spring. I developed it just for YOU GUYS. . . . Then you pull the blinkin' thing. Hey, speaking of South By Southwest. . . . Thought I'd wait 'til the NY conferences were over to tell y'all how much more relaxing those things are in Austin. What a town! If you can eke it out of your budgets, plan now. SXSW is too good to miss. And if we've met, or are phone-affectionate, send me a SASE and I'll draw you a map to the best li'l BBQ-house in Texas, send me cash and I'll tell you when we're going. Ha ho. Really, though, the Austin Chronicle's got the ticket to how to do these icky biz things right and human. Shows all over place. . . . Some of the best clubs are in the country. . . . It's during spring break, so your mom'll let you go and the UT crowd dwindles just in time for the showcases. . . . Call the Austin Chronicle's SXSW hotline and get their info at least: (512) 477-7979. Tell them some creep from 50 Skid told you to and maybe they'll get me in for free on the controversy panel or something.

Kathy Dovlatov, Noise International, New York, NY (212) 334-9268

Happy Thanksgiving to all! Can we talk KILLING JOKE! This legendary band is BACK! Check out the first single "Money Is Not Our God" and see for yourselves. The band that gave us such classics like the "Eighties," "Wardance," "Requiem" and "Change," to name just a few, is BACK with a brand new album, titled Extremities, Dirt And Various Repressed Emotions which I am certain will make its impact on the '90s! Listen to the soon-to-be-classics: "Beautiful Dead," "Intravenous," and "North Of The Border." Play "Money. . . ." report "Money. . . ." watch for a brand new video for "Money. . . ." on MTV's 120 Minutes. Album in your hands today! Adds are in 11/26, that's Monday after Thanksgiving! And remember what Jaz said: "Money Is Not Our God." Word! P.S. A lot of you received a package from Noise and automatically assumed it was for the metal guy (or gal) even though it said att: Music Director. So, when you see the next envelope addressed to you, music director, remember it's Killing Joke!!!!!!

Hullo kiddies! The holiday season is almost upon us, and most of us have started wrapping those convention freebies to give to unsuspecting relatives. (Remember: No matter how cheesy, it's the thought that counts!) . . . Fire releases to check out before year's end: Brother Aldo, the spectacular solo debut from CHUCK PROPHET (of Green On Red); Earth, Dogs And Eggshells, the latest from Britain's PARACHUTE MEN. "Every Other Thursday," the album's first single, is destined for T-35dom. . . . The CONNELLS' One Simple Word college tour is in high gear, so you'll definitely hear more from them next year. Thanks for your tremendous support of the Connells!! Boomerang will close for the holidays on December 13 and reopen on Jan. 3. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!!

Rachel "Groovy Chick" Crick, College Radio Wondergirl, CBS Records, Seattle, WA (206) 527-0736

Hellooo from the grunge capitol of the Northwest... I'm Rachel, the new rep for CBS for the Northwest area. I'm looking forward to working with KCMU, KUPS, KZUU, KBBJ, KUGS, KEWU, KWCW, KTOO, KGLT, KGRG, KWRS, KASB, KAGU, KSFC, KCCR, KMPS, CJIV, & KNHC. I would love to receive playlists or any other publications you would like to send me and would also love tapes of what your station sounds like. My current address (which is unfortunately changing in about a month) is 8261 5th NE #2, Seattle, WA 98115. If you need anything just let me know. We've got great records out by (Seattle's own) SCREAMING TREES (EP), ALICE IN CHAINS, LIVING COLOUR, the DARLING BUDS, FRONT 242 and ULTRA VIVID SCENE, of course you should already know of and be playing these. I hope! So if you're missing out give me a call!! Until next time, when I'll be back with an address change... Peace.

Paul V. and Super Dave, Warner Bros. Records, Burbank, CA (818) 953-3566

Did you know that there is actually a chemical in turkey meat that makes you sleepy? Did you know that Paul V. actually had dinner next to David Lynch and Sheryllyn Fenn last week? How about that Leland? Did you know that Super Dave is on vacation in Jersey? Did you know that JANE'S ADDICTION's Ritual De Lo Habitual was certified gold last week? Enough questions: Huge thanks to everyone at college radio, commercial alternative radio and hip trades for believing in Jane's Addiction and helping prove that this band is our future. It is an especially sweet success considering that this record went gold on the strength of our format! Thanks to Kurt, Duane, Neil and Troy at WFNX for a great interview with Stephen Perkins. "Been Caught Stealing" remains #1 at Billboard for its 3rd week and its cool video is raging in Buzz Bin on MTV! Try Perry's remix on the air as it sounds way cool! On deck is "Classic Girl" as the next track. So, are you playing "Tomorrow Never Knows" from DANIELLE DAX? Lots of you are and she's getting great phones. If you don't hear this track I'll loan you some large Q-Tips. ECHO & THE BUNNYMEN is starting to kick in with "Enlighten Me" and some of the initial resistance by programmers is being squashed by the reality of listeners wanting Echo, Ian or not. The GOO GOO DOLLS will spice up your playlist with "There You Are." Check out the JUDYBATS' "She Lives (In A Time Of Her Own)" as well as "Southern Bells Ring" on CD5 for X-Mas play. "Come Together" from PRIMAL SCREAM spells HIT! Look for our new Follow Our Tacks CD this week which contains every song that needs to be played on your radio station. And now, The Bugs List, Paul V. style—Alan Brown, Misery and It, Danielle Dax, Buckwheat, John Fleuvdog, Kurt's Megabong, Rob & Fab (I'm Glad...), George Skaubitis, Perry's Kiss.

Eric Floyd, Promotions Director, Kaleidoscope Records, El Cerrito, CA (415) 845-9200

It's nearly time to fly south for the winter, for those who do; dreams of flight will have to suffice for the rest of us. "Mexico would cure what ails me/Sweet Mexico/Warm tequila, salty nights/Oh Mexico..." That's what SARAH ELIZABETH CAMPBELL leads off with on A Little Tenderness, her debut, and she'd better be careful singing so heartfelt about running off to distant paradise, because I just might do it instead of promoting her album, fine though it is... Sarah's world-weary and bluesy folk is sadly beautiful and yet inspiring: music about trouble that takes trouble away. She has a wide recognition within the music community, particularly Texas and California, and has had her songs recorded or performed by Jim Messina, Rick Danko, Levon Helm and Blue Rose, among others. Her rough-edged voice carries the conviction that none but the writer of a song can carry, and if you'll pick that CD out of the immense incoming pile, you won't be disappointed. Then we can discuss it... when I run into you on a beach in Baja.

Jane Gulick, Taang! Records, Auburndale, MA (617) 965-5673

The debut record from our new band MAELSTROM is finally here and should be where you are in a week or so along with the new GANG GREEN CD-only release (if you requested it)... This is actually a re-release of 1986's classic Another Wasted Night with eight unreleased tracks (featuring Tony Nichols of Meliah Rage on guitar on two tracks)... If any stations out there with hardcore shows don't have the Taang! reissues of early JERRY'S KIDS & DYS, please call me & I'll send them to you... Also, if your station never received MOVING TARGETS' Burning In Water (it's included on the Brave Noise CD), if you need it, get in touch. The new targets LP Fall will be out in early '91... SLAPSHOT home video in the works (should be out in January). Slapshot may be a hardcore band, but "White Rabbit" can fit into virtually any format, and everyone who hears it loves it, so give it a chance on your non-hardcore shows!!!... The MIGHTY MIGHTY BOSSTONES just finished shooting their Devil's Night Out video at Charles River Studios... Plaid skirted go-go dancers in a 1940s barroom... I missed the shoot, but I hear it looked great... The Bosstones are on the road from January 10-20, call me if they're in your town and you wanna go... SEKA fuckin' rocked with Slaughter Shack and Axis last Wednesday... Seka's debut record is due in February and it's gonna blow you away...

Doug Schoemer, First Warning Records, New York, NY (212) 925-7220

What I did for Thanksgiving vacation: Well, my Mom got married—yep, she and Dad finally decided to make it official after all these years (children of the '60s and all that)—is there anyone else out there who can claim he was the Best Man at his parents' wedding? Got the JOLLY BOYS to play the reception—all sorts of swaying and partying and herb until one of my great aunts requested "The Banana Boat Song" and the Boys freaked, seems that one's been requested once too often at this point, especially for a band doing a show for free; saw CLOCKHAMMER play Kentucky Weekend Jam—Lexington the 23rd and Louisville the 24th; seems the head of Churchill Downs was at the Louisville show and the "Hammer will be playing "My Old Kentucky Home" at the Derby in May—who'd a thunk it? Signed a traditional blues artist from Virginia named TERRY GARLAND, plays a National, sold his soul at the Crossroads, all that, we'll have his debut out in February/March, so all you radio types get ready for the "this shouldn't only be put in the blues show" discussion; filled out my 1990 Rolling Stone Reader's Poll ballot (yeah I read it)—every year I hope to see "Best Band—the Chills, I vote" in the results, but they always seem to round down—who says your vote is your voice? Got the new Spot 1019 record—credible; also incredible—Jim Thompson (see The Grifters, then read all his books), Prisonsnake, Blake Babies, Perfect Disaster, Waterboys live, Verlaines, Giant Sand, NRBQ (Rhino collection); did I mention my parents got married? What a trip to finally be legitimate, now if someone calls me a bastard I guess it must really be an insult. I'd like to get a dozen roses from Bon Jovi.

Tom "Tom T" Terrell, National Promotion Mgr., Mango/Antilles Records, New York, NY (212) 995-0202 ext. 223

YeeeeAAAAHHHH!!!!!! Wat up, sports fans? How was Turkey Martyr Day? I trust y'all had some taste tidings. I traveled down to my ol' hometown—Wash, DC—with the folks and jammed at my sis', did a little bar DJing, ate too much and played the hell out of the Prodigal Son angle to the tune of free drinks and huggin' 'n muggin'. Meanwhile back in Kill City I've been reading the charts, doing some tracking modes and I must say y'all rilly know how to warm up a cynical promo guy's heart... Thanks for the massive airplay with KETAMA, Y'alla Hitlist Egypt, SPEAR's "Great Man" 12" (w/Laquan), ARROW, GNAWA, MAJEK FASHEK, BENJAMIN ZEPHANIAH, The Hot Spot, "SCRATCH" and, most importantly, ASWAD's magnum opus, the inestimable Too Wicked. Wat can I say after all of this... how 'bout checkin' Yalil by Tunisia's goddess AMINA, Domba by the pride of Guinea OUSMANE KOUYATE, the compilations DJ Riot (slammin' dancehall) and Afros E Afoses Da Bahia (samba without trauma) or two from the U.K.: Jah Shaka Presents Dub Symphony and UN-DIVIDED ROOTS' self-titled debut. There actually is more to come before the year's out but I'll hip y'all in a minute. Mango juice be sticky but it's hot, music for da soul and your dancin' feet. Ceeeeeeeeee Ya!!!

Jerry Rubino, Rough Trade Records, New York, NY (212) 777-0100

Yeah, sure, the first day back after our four day holiday, and I'm supposed to get my head into a Dialogue. Well, some stuff does want to come out, so I'll try... Hope you all took a chance in our BUTTHOLE SURFERS contest in the last issue. Watch this space in the next couple of weeks for our reissue contest... As things start to lighten up nearing the year's end, I actually get to read playlists a little closer than normal, so keep 'em coming... Excitement in my feet as Lush and Velvet Crush come to CBGB this week... Early in the new year has a new NOVA MOB single which is Grant Hart's new project. A full LP follows in February. Also in February will be the Butthole Surfers album, you should currently be playing the 12", "The Hurdy Gurdy Man." TWO NICE GIRLS follow up their well-received Like A Version EP in January with their new album, currently being completed. FAIRPORT CONVENTION's new one comes out in December... If you got the Lunar Bear Ensemble or Fred Frith releases, listen to them now and get them in rotation!!

Peter Wetherbee, MuWorks Records, New York, NY (212) 228-7413

Hey Mom and Dad! Grab your socks and hide the kids—MACHINE GUN is back in full effect for some New York-area gigs. PHEEROAN AKLAFF performed live at Zanzibar on the 27th, was also spotted recently jamming with Bernie Worrell, Ronnie Drayton and Jamaladeen Tacuma. Pheeroan's smoking release on MuWorks, Sonogram (w/ Sonny Sharrock, John Stubblefield) is currently hitting the stations with serious word-of-mouth preceding and following it everywhere. THOMAS CHAPIN's Radius (Ronnie Mathews, Ray Drummond) is similarly blowing the jazz side of radio off the dial with this sweet 'n nasty hard bop stylings of Machine Gun's own Rage. LUNAR BEAR ENSEMBLE is drilling its deep, dark and introspective grooves into college rock radio with a vengeance that could only be pumped by the likes of Martin Atkins (Ministry, Killing Joke, PiL, etc.) and John Richey (Machine Gun, Screw magazine) on Dark Pastures, the best thing to come out on vinyl in years! Give me a call if you need anything, or for a limited edition, signed, Playgirl centerfold shot of our Promotion Director Steven "Extreme" Popkin.

Woodrow Dumas, C'est La Mort Records, Baker, LA (504) 772-8286

The fourth AREA LP, entitled Fragments Of The Morning, was released in November and should be in your hands by now. If your station has not yet received this title or if you'd like a CD copy, please let us know. This year's release has a lot to offer both commercial and alternative programmers, so don't let this one slip through the cracks. At the time this Dialogue was written Doctor Death's Vol. IV—The Marvels Of Insect Life was still climbing the charts, but some of you still haven't discovered this compilation! If the 45-minute LP version strained your attention span, the CD must have really caused a short circuit. It's sad that you might have ignored such a fine release, but we do thank the 50 or so stations that have kept DDV IV in heavy rotation for so long. One nice thing about DDV IV was the fact that it set the stage for some of our '91 releases by groups like HANDFUL OF SNOWDROPS, M-1 ALTERNATIVE and JOHANNA'S HOUSE OF GLAMOUR. We'd like to thank Ed Garcia at WRIU in Kingston, RI for inviting Johanna to perform live for their station's studio on December 8. It should be very exciting. Other news: Handful Of Snowdrops start recording a new album in January. EAST ASH have just finished their new one and the second by CONDITION is in the works. We're sorry that Condition was not able to make to this year's CMJ convention, but they were denied entry into the U.S. at the Canadian border. It's a long story! In case this should be my last Dialogue for the year, I would like to wish all of you a happy Christmas and a great New Year. We really do appreciate the support so many of you have shown us. Take care and be well.

Tom Simonian, Mesa/Bluemoon Recordings, Burbank, CA (818) 841-8585

By now you should be digging deep into the new LP by Texas guitarist Mitch Watkins. Curves is even better than his very well-received LP of last year, Underneath It All (also on Enja). "Rock edged" jazz guitar in a variety of modes. High powered bebop, twisted landscapes of kinetic virtuosity, pretty ballads and more. This is for hardcore jazz purists AND alternative play(pen). Listen and get connected. Ta.

Robert Vodicka, New Alliance Records, Lawndale, CA (213) 835-4267

In the November issue of Maximum Rock 'N' Roll, Dwarves bass player, Salt Peter, uses inclusive language in an interview: "he or she" instead of just he. That's extremely enlightened on his part but I'm shocked to learn the band isn't all a bunch of misogynist creeps. Once people learn it's all an act, scandal will shake the punk rock world. Love.

Gerard Cosloy, Matador Records, New York, NY (212) 995-5882

While we appreciate Karen Booth's support of SUPERCHUNK, she has, perhaps unwittingly, helped to perpetuate the myth that Matador Records (or myself in particular) are unwilling to service more than a few stations. Although our standards are a bit more exacting than those of most multinationals, we are not adverse to sending promo copies of the Superchunk record to programmers around the country, as our large mailing list (and Superchunk's CMJ chart placement for the past two months) will show. The vast majority of those who have asked for service, either by calling or writing, have received what they were looking for, without being called to task for any imagined sins against indie-rock-credibility. Though our resources are slim compared to many other labels, indie and major, the size of Matador Records' radio mailing list compares favorably to that of, say, Twin/Tone. Perhaps someone should buy the new Mekons EP, especially if all this scamming is gonna be added up on judgement day... Sarcasm, Lowest Form Of Music Dept.: Jill Maxick might try to elicit sympathy with comments like "Since I'm a female paid promotion rep at a major, God knows I don't have an intelligent thing to say," but surely she's as eligible for criticism as anyone in these pages, regardless of her employer or gender. While Jill is correct in stating "freedom of speech does not mean every American gets the privilege of being published or recorded," she fails to understand that when someone can arbitrarily cut off the public's access to pressing plants, recording studios, distributors, printers or retailers, based on their own idea of what's offensive and what isn't, someone is being censored. Morons or not, the rights of Bushwick Bill and GG Allin to express themselves should be protected just as fervently as those of Jimmy Somerville or Jim Fouratt. If the First Amendment was only designed to protect those who had something "good" to say, the Vietnam War could've continued indefinitely. And you'd see Miami Sound Machine on the cover of CMJ... For you, "sense of responsibility" might mean staying on the the right side of an issue. For others, it might be more responsible to let intelligent adults make up their own minds... If Milli Vanilli have to give back their Grammy, does this mean the Replacements or New Bohemians have to start making videos that only feature the musicians who played on their last record?... The reason people don't like it when you call them "dicksuckers," Mike Kole, is 'cause you say it like there's something wrong with it. The reason you think oral sex is an act of submission is 'cause you haven't met anyone with teeth. . . Whatever difference between majors and indies that Ken Katkin alludes to, is often made indistinguishable by the actions of indies that are as aimless, shortsighted and artistically vapid as any major. Throw K, Merge, Scat, T&G or Dischord off the pile and that difference becomes. . . uh, salaries?

RETAIL DIALOGUE

Paul Ashby, TRIP, W. Sacramento, CA (916) 373-2548

Um. . . Karen? I thought Todd B. (or is it TB?) had perfected the art of combined free association and non sequitur. . . "A college radio station that no one listens to is no different than me sitting in my bedroom listening to Superchunk"? That's based on an irrelevant assumption and is, at least, convoluted in any context; just because a station plays obscure/unknown artists doesn't mean it's disappearing up its southernmost orifice and taking its (OK, humor me) audience with it. And I can't believe that someone could fit the words JELLYFISH, "lighten up" and "image" in the same line, but Marla P. claims the music "stands on its own." Yeah, like a pair of unwashed paisley jeans circa 1967. . . And remember the feeling of fulfillment you got from playing Adrian Sherwood records that didn't cross over into emasculated R&B/soul/acid house? It's just my opinion. . . lighten up, lighten up. It's Christmas. God bless Irving Azoff. God bless SST and grant them His divine guidance in their "Corporate Rock Sucks" crusade. God bless Perry Farrell. God bless Milli Vanilli, whoever they are. God bless college radio, whatever it is and should never be.

Paul Ashby, Tower Records, Import/Indie Products, W. Sacramento, CA (916) 373-2548

If people cared half as much about voting as they did about sports and music, they'd have more control over the people in control and, correspondingly, their own lives (yeah, and if chickens had lips they could whistle). Dialogues are intended to be a forum for music-related topics and I can (usually) handle people's socio-political grandstanding (like now) as well. . . But who could possibly be less concerned about what team a label person or MD likes? I want to read sports scores/standings/opinions in CMJ like I want to read about Twin Peaks in HITS. Matt Callahan wants a word limit on gabby promo goofball backslapping; amen. But how about some kind of self-censorship from sports nuts? Was anyone else aroused by the 11/16 Dialogue from Raymond at KSCR? Seductive references to MTV, KROQ, syndication (mmmm, baby, yes), "sweepers," jingles, (ooh, yeah, right there), "scooped airchecks" (oh God please don't stop) and a "unique 'urban modern' hybrid format. . ." (unghhh. . . ahhh. . . eeee. . . oooo. . . sigh. . . I need a cigarette. . .)

Chis MacDermott (Woody), Retail Promo, Caroline Records, New York, (212) 989-2929

BURP! Hope you all had a good Thanksgiving and are still able to zip up yo' pants. Here's some things to think about as the Christmas season approaches. FUNHOUSE's "One Funhouse" video on Headbanger's Ball and some West Coast dates with Sweet. NAKED RAYGUN had their massive homecoming show at the Riviera in Chicago on Nov. 24 to celebrate their new album Raygun. . . Naked Raygun. Look for a Jan. tour from the almighty

Raygun. . . KINGHORSE is also gearing up to tour in January by doing some local shows in Louisville. Be prepared to lay down and die. Both of these releases are doing great, so give me a call if you haven't heard them. SAMHAIN's Final Descent is finally out!! As most of you know, Plan 9 is Glen Danzig's own label and there will be absolutely NO promos on the Samhain album—sorry. There will, however, be a Samhain/Plan 9 retail display poster real soon. There's still plenty of p.o.p. for Kinghorse, Naked Raygun, BORIS MIKULIK/MUSSOLINI HEADKICK (Antler-Subway Records) and the New Wave of British Heavy Metal compilation, so call now. MIND OVER FOUR finishes up their U.S. tour with Prong and Pantera only to do West Coast with Skinny Puppy. Crazy industrial god-head Boris Mikulik is going to try and get into the States to do some touring. Also, stay tuned for a radio/retail contest for Mussolini Headkick "Dance With A Dictator." Upcoming releases: more industrial stuff from the Play It Again Sam label, and the BAD BRAINS' Rock For Light with bonus tracks.

RADIO DIALOGUE

Paul Phillips, Music Director, WODU, Norfolk, VA (804) 683-3441

I am starting a series of trading cards for those involved in the college radio industry. The caricatures represented on said cards are not of actual MDs or promo reps but are instead an incredible simulation. I am accepting character concepts from interested parties. Anyone wanting some cards who isn't on the station mailing list should give me a call at the above number if you want some. Collect and trade with your friend(s). You know, in the space of two weeks I saw Steve Albini selling T-shirts for Sawnick Youf and heard Pen Rollings describe Honor Role as "this band I was in." I also managed to pull a neck muscle while craning to yell "motherfucker" at the JESUS LIZARD show (held in the beautiful King's Head Inn). "It's a sad and beautiful world" indeed.

Themis Hronopoulos, Music Director, KSJS, San Jose, CA (408) 924-4547

Trying to waste some of the valuable advertising space of CMJ, here's my first Dialogue. Most of you know me anyway, since I was promotions director for the station sometime ago. I haven't been involved as much in this business for a year and a half now, and the only differences I can see are those cute promotions companies pushing major label product, and the fact that there is more shit getting airplay in college radio than ever before. Oh yeah, another big change is that CMJ became weekly, so it can satisfy some record companies according to the article of Mr. Jim Caligiuri, information systems engineer of CMJ, in his Mind Over Matters article. If I was not involved within the real alternative community I would think that this is the worst time for alternative music ever, something completely false. By the way, no one seemed to complain about the fact that CMJ's price will double, and I understand that the labels can afford it, but what about college stations? Especially during a time of recession, energy crises, etc. I'd like to inform Mr. CMJ economics wizard that the budget cuts are in education not in defense. Anyway, enough for now and just remember that we'll listen to just about anything, but we won't necessarily play it. And the p word is still a four letter word for us, but not a dirty one. YES WE PLAY PUNK, or whatever the hell you wanna call it.

[When we went weekly, regular subscription rates went from $175 to $250 per year—Ed.]

"Rockin" Jon Hilgreen, Music Director, WRUB, Buffalo, NY (716) 636-3370

Hello all! If I have blown you off lately it is because I was sick for a month with the flu.

In that time I missed the CMJ Marathon. From what I hear this wasn't a loss at all. If you would like to get a hold of me, try Tuesday or Thursday 2-5 p.m.—those are, and have been, my office hours. Please start servicing us with CDs as soon as possible. We finally have the equipment to go CD. Long live vinyl (underground??). I recently saw the ORDINAIREs, BLUE RODEO, BUFFALO TOM and Buffalo's pride and joy, the GOO GOO DOLLS!!!! All the bands were amazing! On the other hand, I saw the Lemonheads. They sucked! Major attitude problems, if you know what I mean. I guess you could say seeing the Lemonheads live left a sour taste in my mouth. Cheers to MTV for actually acknowledging the fact that there are alternative artists out there, as well as independent labels (God knows the CMJ charts don't reflect that). Cheers to Gerard Cosloy for his brilliant Dialogue of 16 November 1990. One last piece of drivel. Can someone name this tune? The words I can remember are, "I'm down on my knees/I'm begging you please/I won't (or "don't") come back no more/I'm changing my song. . ." It is either an MTV pop metal song, or the Smithereens, or a college radio type song from the past two years. I have it stuck in my head and it won't leave. I think I could be saved if I knew the title and the artist. It's driving me crazy. Call me and I'll sing (sic.) it to ya. Bye!

Sevillesdote, DJ, WXDR, Newark, DE (302) 451-2703

Go get 'em Kate Messer! (Mind Over Matters 10/26) I, too, fail to see what major reps are thinking when they decide that the CHILLS, DIED PRETTY, LOS LOBOS and—what the hell—PREFAB SPROUT will sell more records among bored fixed-income students in their late-teens-early-20s, raised on shock-value media and in the midst of a 16-year course on settling for less, than if marketed to bored career-climbers in their late-20s-early-30s, with money to burn and a love of the Beatles under their belts. They sure ate up NEIL YOUNG. Which brings me to Marc Attenberg's 11/16 hawking of Ragged Glory—good point on behalf of a great record, Marc, but do you really think the problem lies in the fact that it wasn't "marketed" to us? Would those folks who think the Charlatans are the hottest thing since sliced bread be any more receptive? (And by the way, where do the KITCHENS OF DISTINCTION, HEART THROBS, SENSELESS THINGS, FAMILY CAT, CUD and CARTER THE UNSTOPPABLE SEX MACHINE fit in college radio's assessment of what's worthy of a hard-on in British indie music? I'll tell you where—somewhere outside of Manchester, off the dancefloor and in the most cases criminally underdistributed. And has anyone else noticed that the vinyl pressing of Some Friendly was "made in the U.S.," and yet it isn't domestically available?) I see a lot of otherwise intelligent folks looking to "outdo" commercial radio—what a boring aspiration! How much crossover audience do you really think we've got? Wait, don't answer—don't even contemplate it. Just ignore the charts and demographics and play what you want. I'll bet, gentle reader, that your setting for Neil Young is better than commercial radio's, and I'll hope that your character and personality is going to give him a lot more weight with your listeners than he'd have between Heaven's Edge and a drivetime spot for a waterbed outlet. . . That said, Marc professed at a Marathon panel that for him, proof of the continuing diversity and excitement of independent music rests with TEENAGE FANCLUB. It's a good enough record, but forgive my paucity of frothing saliva for yet another band of four or five white folks, (ex-)students all, who play guitar, bass and drums and get their lyrical subjects from watching too much TV. The truly unique and innovative records aren't going to show up in your mailbox unsolicited, folks. (Unless it's the new ENO/CALE alb.) And the not-so-unique, not-so-innovative records that would nonetheless go a long way towards shaking up your alternative block might arrive at your station, but they won't be addressed to you. They'll be for your jazz directors, reggae directors, folk directors and I daresay, your metal directors. As long as CMJ continues to devote another two or three pages each to yet another sub-genreial "chart," radio stations and MDs will continue to divide the new arrivals shelf of their libraries into similarly uninviting categorical chutes. And that, my friends, is not going to get a good radio show broadcast without a fight. . . . At that same panel was a distressing consensus of opinion that college radio, even at its most tepid, was still the best music media going. Let's save that honor for Sanborn's Night Music. And to the fellow who's still waiting for the next big thing since The Clash, we've already got our copies of PUBLIC ENEMY's Nation of Millions (also on Columbia), but if you'd care to hold out for the white equivalent, fine. I suggest you bring a bag lunch and a good book. . . . You've got our phone number so use it.

Scott C, General Manager, WPRB, Princeton, NJ (609) 258-3655

I had the good fortune to be in San Francisco for Fall Break (we get a week) where I saw SONIC YOUTH and the LAUGHING HYENAS. Definitely a scary show (it was Halloween) for the execs at DGC Records, who must have been shitting a brick when Lee stood there by himself just swinging two guitars and banging them together for what seemed like five minutes. A lot of people just didn't get it. Thanks to DGC rep Jon Rosenfelder for scoring me a ticket. Nice guy. Call him back sometime. . . . Tops on my list right now is the new double live album from the long-defunct EASTERN DARK (Waterfront Records, Sydney), which was taken from a bootleg cassette made by someone in the crowd, in the spirit of the Velvet Underground's Max's Kansas City. The first of the two discs is among the best we've heard this year. If your station has funds, buy the first and only studio EP, Long Live The New Flesh. . . . The single "Stompin' To Tha '90s" from Ice Cube's woman friend, YO YO, totally smokes, but I don't know when we're going to see the album. No naughty words either. Trenton's own BOULEVARD MOSSE has also released a pretty hype new single, "You Can't Escape The Hypeness" (stamp out and abolish redundancy), with the sampling and mixing by a local producer named TONY D. They also did the POOR RIGHTEOUS TEACHERS record and will have a new record out on 4th & Broadway soon. . . . Lots of calls on the new NIRVANA single, but my favorite new single is the BEAT HAPPENING; "Red Head Walking" is probably their most musically satisfying song yet, and Calvin is as dopey as ever. SUPER-CHUNK's "My Noise" is almost as genius as "Slack Motherfucker," the single they put out earlier (but which also appears on the album). Mac's old bands WWAX, CHUNK and BRICKS are also worth listens. Bricks are a dead ringer for the Tall Dwarfs. Finally, while I was in San Francisco I had time to sample the smorgasbord of alternative music the Bay Area has to offer, including 90.1 KZSU Stanford, 89.7 KFJC Los Altos Hills, 90.7 KSJS San Jose, 90.7 KALX Berkeley and 90.3 KUSF San Francisco. KUSF was my favorite probably because their playlist was so similar to our own and because thier DJs sound intelligent, but not cheesy. Great production, too. It sounds like they have a lot of non-students working for them, which will improve any station's airsound dramatically.

Lloyd Ulina, Randy Iwata, CITR, Vancouver, BC (604) 228-3017
Hey, honkie! New Discorder's out with stuff on JAZZ BUTCHER, BEAT HAPPENING, DAVID LEWISTON, BOOTSAUCE, REVERB MOTHERFUCKERS, DICKLESS, SKIN YARD, RAY CAPPO AND KRISNA CONSCIOUSNESS, LEMONHEADS, ATTRITION, A SPLIT SECOND, and our regular columns and charts and all that shit! Pick it up, please. Drop by Lloyd + Randy, CITR/Discorder, 6138 SUB Boulevard, Vancouver, BC, Canada V6T 2A5. Or go down to your record shop and scream at them for a while. . . . Gas is 69.9 cents a litre (or about $2.65 a gallon) and DOA's going going gone. Can anyone help us with the CABARET VOLTAIRE back-catalogue stuff? Jesus Christ. Also how about that band with that Rollins guy on it called WARTIME? Goddamn it we've been trying and trying and no one loves us. . . .
Once again, big news out here CITR-wise has been our The Communities v. CITR. For the last ten months, CITR has been the focus of attack by several community organizations that want the words of PUBLIC ENEMY removed from all on-air consideration—in particular, the song "Welcome To The Terrordome." The issue has reached a new level CITR-wise when we presented the Public Enemy show on August 30: an anti-racist organization has lobbied the Canadian Radio-television and Telecommunications Commission (a/k/a the CRTC, the federal broadcast regulatory body), demanding that CITR's license to broadcast be revoked for continuing to program racist material. Their demands are currently under review by the CRTC so we don't know what's going to happen yet. Dear reader, what are some other broadcast experiences with this song in particular and songs in general? We'd be interested in looking at other stations' programming policies, commitments and stuff.

NEWS

News coordinated by Lydia Anderson

MCA TURNS JAPANESE

In the largest Japanese takeover of an American firm, Japanese electronics firm Matsushita has purchased MCA Inc. Along with Universal Pictures and two Universal Studios theme parks, the deal includes the following record companies: Motown, MCA and the recently acquired Geffen, DGC and GRP. UNI (the distributing arm of MCA) is now one of five American major distributors owned by non-American conglomerates, leaving WEA as the only one of the "Big Six" distributors that's American-owned.

L.A. TO GET CHILLS

The New Zealand rock group, the Chills, has replaced bass player Justin Harwood with original bassist Terry Moore, and the band plans to relocate to Los Angeles within the next six months.

A&M NAMES CAFARO PRESIDENT

Making certain what we had reported as a possibility in last week's issue, A&M's Chairman and CEO Jerry Moss and Vice Chairman Herb Alpert have announced the appointment of Al Cafaro as president of A&M Records. Cafaro has been with the label since 1977, and most recently served as the label's senior VP and general manager.

RHINO SPAWNS NEW LABEL

Rhino Records, famous for reissue and compilation packages, has announced the formation of a label exclusively for new artists and projects. Releases on the RNA label (Rhino New Artists) include albums by Steve Wynn, Exene Cervenka, Clive Gregson & Christine Collister, Buddy Blue and Peter Holsapple And Chris Stamey, as well as a compilation to benefit the animal rights organization PETA with tracks by the B-52's, Michael Stipe, Indigo Girls and Belinda Carlisle.

OOPS!

At the CMJ Music Marathon, there was a crediting error on the listing for continuous video programming. The "Blues From The Rainforest" video, out on Sumerstone Records, should have been credited to Merl Saunders with special guest Jerry Garcia.

RECORD NEWS

MIND OVER MATTERS

Promoter Harrassment?—We're Not Havin' It by Carolyn Wolfe, WRUV-FM

Often in the "tracking game," promoters tend to lose sight of the music and focus only on locations on the charts, trying to smooth talk music directors to "help them out." This approach gets in the way of music directors doing their jobs, and prevents a mutual respect among these two positions in the music industry.

As has been said before, music directors have a few major responsibilities. First, it is our job to listen to the new releases which are sent, review them fairly and decide whether or not to add them to rotation. Also, it is our job to compile and report our Top 35 every week in an honest and fair way. It is also up to us to introduce music to our staffs, which without an extra push may go unnoticed.

Record promoters have a few responsibilities also. I feel that much of the phone contact is essential—to keep track of whether or not stations have received their releases, to hear what the music directors thought of those releases, and to see how well they are doing in rotation. It's also up to them to be cheerleaders for their band, to a point. Promos may help to raise awareness of a band at a station, but should not have any reflection on the chart number of a band. When promoters call me asking "What can I do to help my band. . . ." I often tell them to send cassettes, posters or other promotional items. These are not used for bribery, and in no way will their sending these things make a difference on the charts. However, since most stations compile their Top 35s on a tally basis, raised awareness of a band at a station may indirectly affect a weekly report. (I know this is the part where the smaller labels object because they don't have the money to send dupes, but by having the major labels take care of their bands, MDs have more time to concentrate on the indie bands.)

If after all this, "THE BAND" is still not doing well, problems begin. At this point it is probably wise to admit that not every band is for every station, and perhaps not every record is destined for the charts. However, not all promoters can accept this. A major label rep once told me that "the boss" decided that if we didn't start playing his records, they would be forced to drop us from their service. The reply was simple: "Send us some music my DJs like, and we'll play it. . . otherwise the threat really doesn't mean anything." Same goes for the guilt trips some promoters try to pull. Yes, it's great that you sent our station dupes and concert tickets, or that you bought me dinner and drinks at the convention. . . but when it comes down to compiling the weekly report, unfortunately those things are not on my mind.

Whining about how much a record means to "the label" cannot change the musical quality of a record, and this is where music directors need to be honest and firm. Being somewhat of a bitch, I have no problem telling promoters when they've overstepped their boundaries. What makes me upset is to think of MDs who are not willing to stand up for themselves or their stations. I can only imagine how many bands have been included in reports just to shut up the person on the other end of the phone.

Steps can be taken to avoid such situations. Promoters need to be aware that promotion is one thing, harassment is another. It is important to realize that making people aware of "THE BAND" is great, but trying to force them to play it is outrageous. The music industry is changing, and since many new promoters are coming directly from college radio there is an opportunity for great improvement—they can remember which tactics used to piss them off when they were on the other end of the phone and which approaches they liked to deal with.

If a promoter is pushing too hard, let them know that they are out of line. MDs should try to stay in touch with other stations to see if they have had similar problems and how they were resolved. If you're afraid to say anything directly to the promoter, talk to their boss or another promoter that you feel comfortable with. To lie about a chart position does not help the band find out what people really think about them. I'm not going to be hypocritical and say that I don't enjoy the benefits of being MD and all of the free music that I get from it, but I'd like to think that at least some of the freebies are sent because I do my job well and promoters like to work with me. It's time we all took at the reasons why we are in our positions. . . and hopefully the music is still the first priority.

*We thank Carolyn Wolfe, a music director at WRUV at the University Of Vermont in Burlington, for offering her thoughts for this column. Is there a topic you'd like to broach with the readers of this publication? Care to respond to the submission above? ## LUSH/SMASHING ORANGE Maxwell's, Habaken, NJ, November 28

The second New York-area performance by Wilmington, Delaware's Smashing Orange had a shaky start, but it didn't take them long to win over the high-brow Maxwell's crowd. America's answer to the My Bloody Valentine school of lusty, layered guitars and the Telescopes/Mary Chain interpretation of the white noise theory, Smashing Orange has digested these influences and generated something of their own. Their carefully welded songs are showered with wah-wah nonsense and sensual, male/female vocal interplays, leaving the ears sore but yearning for more. After the immensely loud power crunch of Smashing Orange, Lush's approach seemed more subtle and quiet. Miki and Emma's guitars displayed the same controlled aggression as on the recorded versions of "Baby Talk" and "Deluxe," and their cherubic voices were remarkably polished. Their version of pop music is very focused, not easily lending itself to drastic remakes of songs or lots of sprawled out jamming. The set covered most of the Gala LP and introduced a few new songs, one with a beautifully wandering guitar solo, similar to the one in "Sweetness And Light." The sparkling "Scarlet" was slowed down to create a mysterious environment, like moonlight shining over a foggy woods. "Hey Hey Helen," the Abba cover, came off really well, its sticky-sweet power chords not reaching the heights of Lush's own songs but not dribbling into pale mediocrity either. And the pace of "Sweetness And Light," one of the band's highest points yet, was stepped up, making the song more immediate but no less alluring.

RICK MARGITZA QUARTET Blue Note, New York City, November 26

Tenor saxophonist Rick Margitza closed the Blue Note Monday Night series that took place throughout the month of November at the aforementioned club—a series that also brought Renee Rosnes and Benny Green, among others. His musical maturity and ability to call from many different forms of music can partly be attributed to his experience with bands as diverse as Flora and Airtio, Maynard Ferguson and most recently as a member of Miles Davis' touring band. For this show, Margitza was accompanied by pianist sensation Joey Calderazzo (who has an album on Blue Note due out soon), drummer Jeff Hirshfield and bassist Peter Herbert. Calderazzo and Margitza seem to have developed quite a musical rapport, giving the audience some inspired moments.

AMERICA'S Best

ATTENTION ALL MUSICIANS . . .

If you're not signed to a record label and think you oughta be, CMJ is looking for you!

America's Best Unsigned Music Talent Search is looking for the 20 most talented unsigned bands in the nation. Once we've found them, we'll put out a compilation CD featuring these groups and distribute it to key members of CMJ's worldwide network of radio, video, record, retail and press professionals, and of the 20 bands on the CD, one will be chosen "Undiscovered Artist Of The Year."
