R.E.M.

Out Of Time

(Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505)

While Green paved the way for stadium storming and lucrative songs ripe for TV show themes, Out Of Time is definitely not the type of album you'd expect as a follow-up. Quiet, reserved, introspective and downright pretty in spots, it's an overt emotional and musical turnaround from the grandstanding and global eco-political concerns of the band's last two or three years. You can find links to R.E.M. points previous—"Losing My Religion" echoes "World Leader Pretend"; "Belong" is a more modern "7 Chinese Bros."; "Me In Honey" could have been the last song on either side of Reckoning—but, like all their best, you can't really pin down exactly why this record makes you feel the way you do when you hear it. Joining the R.E.M. bandwagon this time out are rapper KRS-One, Kate Pierson, a weeping, drooping string quartet, a mellotron, harpsichords and soaring Beach Boy four-part harmonies. Best Stipe: "Losing My Religion." Best Buck: the unmistakable fingerprint riff on "Me In Honey;" Best Berry and Mills: the harmony vocals on "Near Wild Heaven" and "End Game." Only time knows where this record fits into the grand and rapturous career of Athens' most-loved sons, but we like where it fits into our collection of hallowed records just fine, nestled somewhere between Lou Reed and the Replacements, alongside Murmur and Fables Of The Reconstruction.

FEELIES

Time For A Witness

(A&M, 1416 N. LaBrea Ave., Hollywood, CA 90028)

It's interesting to have new R.E.M. and Feelies LPs the same week, because both groups have overlapped, sound-wise, over the years. While R.E.M. has opened up their sound, the Feelies' fourth LP (not including side-projects as the Trypes or Yung Wu) reaches back into Byrds and Velvet Underground territory more than ever; but those guitars 'n harmonies only serve as guideposts into their own vast cyclical soundscapes and vocals-as-instruments (predating R.E.M. by a couple years). Every song on Time For A Witness has a sterling melodic hook to it which makes picking tracks or singles a difficult task. While A&M chose "Sooner Or Later" to come first, the bright "Away"-like chorus of "Invitation" is as lilting-pop as we've heard in eons and "Doin' It Again" has a vocal hook in the chorus a mile wide. The Million/Mercer guitar attack and interplay are as volatile and tight as ever, winding and bending throughout the LP without ever going around the curves too fast—the only real addition to the Feelies sound is a stronger dose of psychedelia with extended jams like "Find A Way" and "No More." Time is summed up best in the group's finale, a cover of the Stooges' "Real Cool Time," that again shows the Feelies' incredible ability to take aspects from the past and layer them under a massive guitar haze while still retaining a heavenly melody and a precise, churning rhythm.

FLESH EATERS

Dragstrip Riot

(SST, P.O. Box 1, Lawndale, CA 90260/213-430-7687)

Chris D. has not been particularly dormant since the Great Flesh Eaters Hiatus of 1983-1991. His B-movie/horror flick columns have been sprinkled throughout several fanzines, and there have been the regular appearances of reissues, Divine Horsemen and Stone By Stone LPs, all manifest with the allure of Chris D.'s creepy-crawly, black and white Hollywood babylon. The Flesh Eaters were his first and purest outlet of sci-fi punk scenarios, though with its revolving, all-star membership (such sympathetic talents as Dave Alvin and John Doe were enlisted), the lineup didn't lend itself to the most flexible of recording/touring schedules. Now with what purports to be a permanent lineup, D.'s made up for lost time, with no stinkers in this two-LP batch of rich technicolor bawdiness and greased-pompadour cool, unchanged are his 3-D lyrical capabilities and wide-ranging squawk, jumping presto-chango from a low rumble to a pitch of creature-ish torment. Wayne James' every move is a new extension of L.A.M.F./Link Wray squint-eyed grace; his guitar/co-writing skills are within the bounds of both old Flesh Eaters style and stereotype bad-ass rocker blare. On Dragstrip, Chris D. is, as usual, about as good as an inspired Jeffrey Lee Pierce or Glenn Danzig when it comes to packing enough flesh, bone and high-octane fuel to mobilize tales of supernatural love and murder. Top Cuts: "Take My Hand," the title track, "Soul Kiss" and their cover of the Flamin Groovies' "Slow Death."

GERI ALLEN

The Nurturer

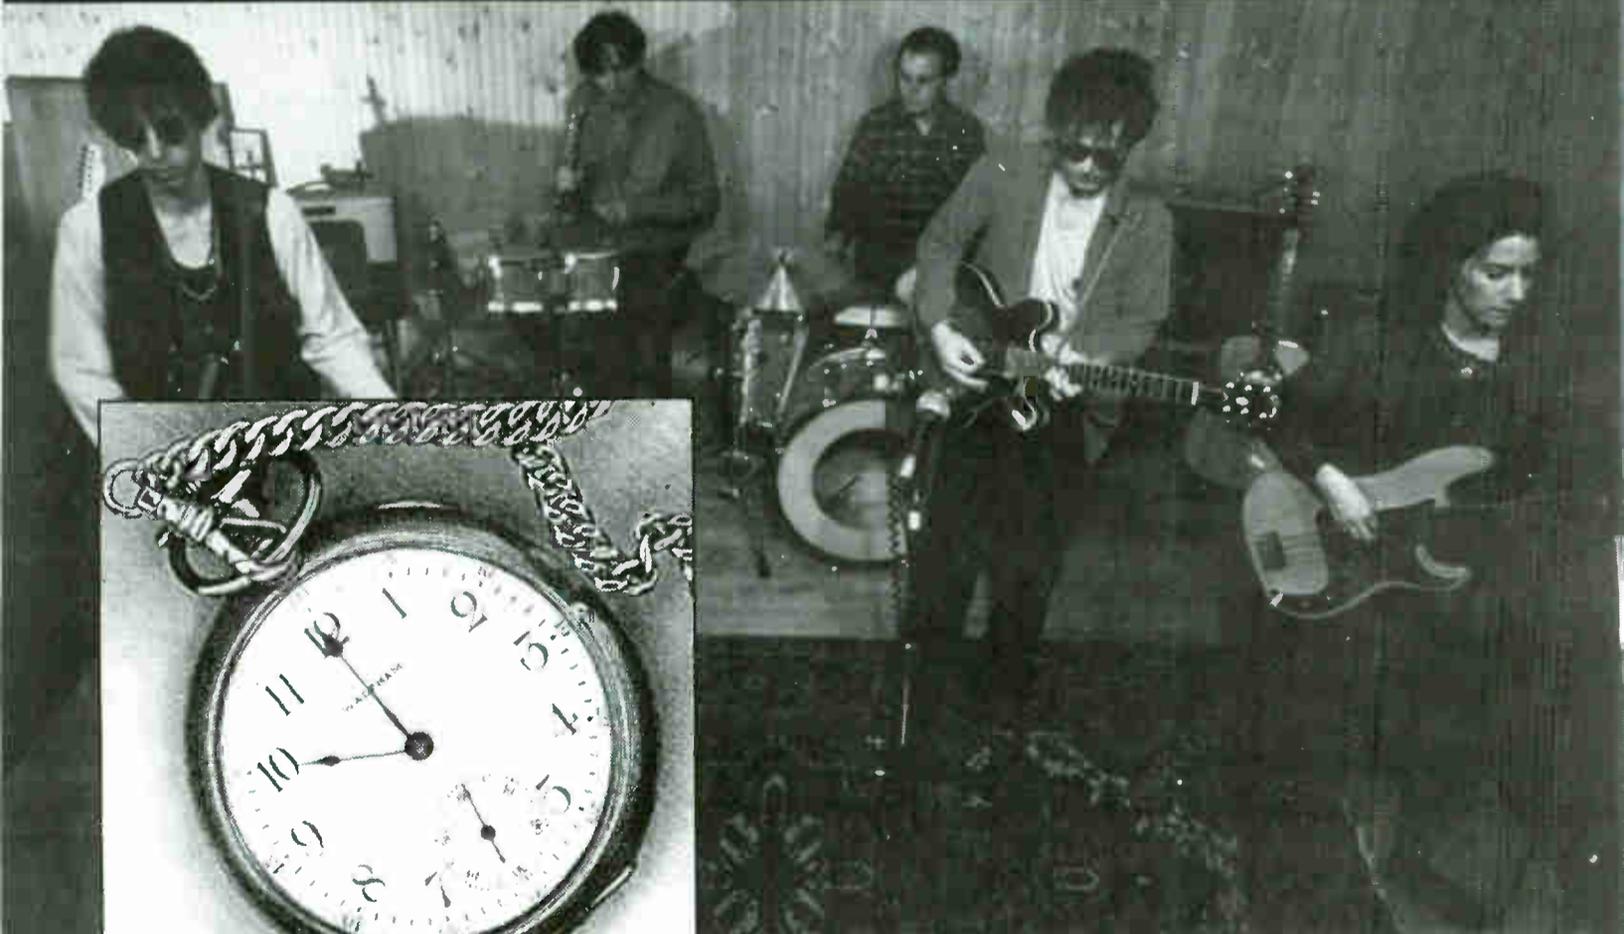

(Blue Note, c/o Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028)

Get set for the arrival of one of the most stunning new pianistic talents to emerge in recent years. Detroit native Geri Allen has charted a five-year trajectory of performing and recording with Paul Motian, Charlie Haden and others, but all of her past credits were simply a prologue for an album of this scope and quality. While it isn't exactly the sort of wildly mind-blowing jazz you might expect us to champion on our cover a la Sun Ra, John Zorn or Randy Weston, The Nurturer is a remarkable album brimming with quality jazz delivered with poise, finesse and passion. The music is propelled by the inimitable pulse of Marsalis-alumni Jeff Watts on drums and Robert Hurst on near-inaudible but ever-present thrumming bass, and abetted by Kenny Garrett on saxes, Marcus Belgrave on trumpet and the multi-talented Eli Fountain on percussion. Allen herself spreads out a well-toned palette of piano textures that are simultaneously stunning in their sweeping majesty and admirable for their subdued restraint. Overall, it's a well-heeled set of songs that, although they're not currently standards per se, could conceivably find their way into the songbooks of other, later musicians with the same ease and adaptability as any well-known cover tune: for example, "Night's Shadow," "No. 3," "Our Gang" or "Batista's Groove."

3D'S Fish Tales (EP) (Flying Nun, P.O. Box 677, Auckland, New Zealand/649-774-607)—The first recordings from Dunedin's 3D's are all over the place stylistically, yet they form a coherent portrait of a multi-faceted band. When the light shines a certain way, the 3D's play frenzied little pop songs with impassioned vocals and quirky hooks battered out by dueling guitarists Davids Saunders and Mitchell, something like NZ compatriots Snapper. At other moments they come across as a folkier, more sober Pastels, especially on the cuts sung by bassist Denise Roughan, like "Dreams Of Herge." Fish Tales is a collection of lost fragments that come to life with clouded but potent pictures, their tense but gripping melodies and vocals struggling to sing of confusion. The closing cut, a dreamy meditation of Roughan's spoken-word discourse backed by soft drum beats and hushed guitars, is the calm after the storm.

GODFATHERS Unreal World (Epic, P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY 10101-4450)—The British may not be able to cook, but they sure have a lot of good rock bands, and London's Godfathers are certainly one of them. Proving man doesn't live by blood pudding alone, there are virtually no weak links on this album or in the band. Everybody sings behind Pete Coyne, the choruses really shine on cuts like "Unreal World" and "I Love What's Happening To Me," which has a tight refrain that sounds like it was left over from Revolver. A raucous mix of hard and loud guitars, supplied by the new fingers of Chris Burrows, paired with catchy sing-along choruses is what makes this album—and rock 'n roll in general—truly rewarding to listen to. These hitmen sound quite solid on their third album and the proof is in the bitterness of "Drag Me Down" and "Can't Try Harder." The second part of the LP gets better with each track, starting with a well-chosen cover of Creation's "How Does It Feel (To Feel)" and ending in a fireballing, percussion-driven rage of a tune called "This Is War." And don't leave without tasting the sarcastic "I'll Never Forget What's His Name" and "Something About You."

JAMES CLAY I Let A Song Go Out Of My Heart (Antilles, c/o Island, 14 E. 4th St., New York, NY 10003/212-995-0202)—James Clay is one of that notorious and legendary breed of jazz musicians, the Iconoclastic Jazz Genius Who Never Leaves Home. His name is known only to a handful of cognoscenti, but his years spent blowing with the likes of Wes Montgomery, Don Cherry, Red Mitchell and even a young and incendiary Ornette Coleman in the '50s, as well as nearly 10 years in the phenomenal Ray Charles band of the '60s, should give some idea of the scope and magnitude of his talents. The recent facts and figures to set the table for this straight-ahead, swinging jazz feast: Clay nearly stole the show at the sessions for Don Cherry's 1988 Art Deco album with his virtuoso sax playing, causing drummer Billy Higgins to ultimately wrangle Clay a session all his own. An ensemble was quickly recruited to back up the saxophonist, and the results now emerge on this album. It's almost as if by being unknown and unheralded for so long, Clay's talents have been nurtured and developed by the intensive years of woodshedding, until his talent burst forth in full flower on cuts like "I Mean You," the jumping "Rain Check," the regal "My Foolish Heart" and "Body And Soul."

THROWING MUSES The Real Ramona (Sire, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505)—On the Throwing Muses' fifth album, the battle between good and evil is waged in the pen of vocalist/songwriter Kristen Hersh. From the peaceful chants of the instrumental ode to her son "Dylan" to "Ellen West," where she shrieks "... my house is full of demons," to "Graffiti," where she sings about walls set before her, The Real Ramona is full of songs of introspection, growing up and manic battles with reality. But, unlike past efforts, the good sister side seems to prevail in the end, as Hersh emerges with a smile and only a little bit of dirt to wipe off. New bassist Fred Obong evens up the sexes, and helps this Boston/Providence quartet display the colorful quirkiness that has become their refreshing trademark. The whining guitars complement Hersh's twangy alto wailing as the rhythm section feverishly stomps at the beasts within, breaking through to the other side and back, leaving you hanging on for every powerful twist and turn. Embark on "Counting Backwards," "Say Goodbye," "Not Too Soon" and "Two Step," and don't miss any of the exceptional single B-sides.

LEAVING TRAINS Sleeping Underwater Survivors (SST, P.O. Box 1, Lawndale, CA 90260/213-430-7687)—Given Falling James' brusque, nose-thumbing attitude on record and in print, he could easily be categorized as a rock equivalent to such snide chroniclers of decadence as Jay McInerney. Good thing, then, (with an occasional lapse now and then) that FJ's smarmy, sassy vignettes of L.A. hyper-fueled disintegration are related with equal parts artfulness and bravado, and with enough punch to alleviate the die-young cockiness. Avoiding the too-much-too-loose spotty ambition of Transportational D. Vices, the Trains (same lineup as last time) scamper right back to the insouciant attitude of Fuck and the slingshot pace and perniciousness of songs like "Temporal Slut." The maturation syndrome is apparent in a few Steve Wynn-shadowed ponderings via long instrumental wind-ups; yet even on the more extended songs, James and guitarist Bobby Belltower don't allow any lag time, enabling even those with an MTV-added attention span to latch on for an LP-length spin. Brassy, caustic, impatient and with a whirlwind of smart, swift hooks and refrains, the Trains can be as rude as they like with songs like: "I Love You," "Come," "Room At The Bottom" and "Extinction."

JAN GARBAREK I Took Up The Runes (ECM, c/o PLG, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—

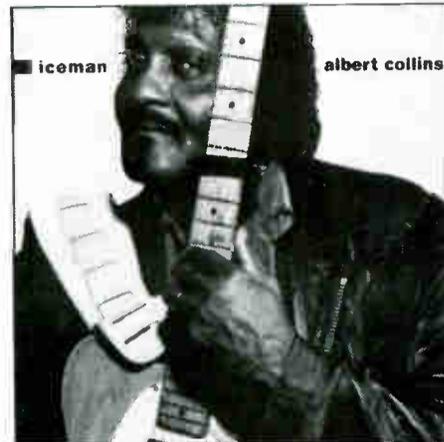

Saxophonist Jan Garbarek, a player who has been responsible for stunning music throughout the years, has deftly assembled a brilliant crew of musicians that makes I Took Up The Runes his strongest outing to date. The textural soundscapes Garbarek brilliantly creates are given a new dimension with the addition of African-Parisian drummer Manu Kathe (Peter Gabriel, Robbie Robertson, Sting). Kathe is able to provide both muscular backbeat and melodic fluidity, opening space for Brazilian percussionist Nana Vasconcelos to supply beautiful textured percussive layerings. Garbarek successfully brings together ambient atmospheres, folk songs and African polyrhythms into a splendid musical expression. Rounding out the distinguished cast are Garbarek's longtime musical associates, bassist Eberhard Weber and pianist Rainer Brunnhäus. The five-part "Molde Canticle" (Part 4 is on Certain Damage Vol. 33) is the centerpiece of this provocative and melodically sublime outing by Jan Garbarek.

TOO MUCH JOY Cereal Killers (Alias/Giant, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505)—

"To create you must destroy! Smash a glass and cry... Too Much Joy" is this Scarsdale, NY, group's credo as espoused on their "Theme Song." And there's cute destruction galore on TMJ's second elpee, Cereal Killers; cute as in literarily inept songs like "William Holden Caulfield" or lovey-dovey as in the ultra-cute tongue-in-cheek "Crush Story." But the destruction comes in huge doses on "Good Kill" (with guest KRS-One), which lays down a thick-as-fog sarcasm over an anti-death penalty philosophy; and the drunk hero who proclaims himself as "King Of Beers" doesn't even notice that he's lifting the title from a beer commercial. All this creation through destruction can get a bit unnerving, not because of the destruction, mind you, but the Joys' smugness will remind you of that sneaky, smart-alecky kid who would trick you out of your lunch money rather than simply bullying you for it. Their cutest, most out-of-bounds moment comes on "Long-Haired Guys From England," which is a scathing attack on the sexual preferences of female record company personnel. This kind of harmless fun should be a prerequisite for any Jonathan Swift course in college.

ALBERT COLLINS Iceman (Point Blank, c/o Charisma, 1790 Broadway, New York, NY 10019)—

Out of the teeming town of Leona, Texas, there once came a guy whose guitar tone was so clear, biting and just plain cool, that when he picked up his Fender Telecaster and started squeezing out solos, folks listening took to calling him "The Iceman." There's plenty of Albert Collins' trademark icelicks in evidence here, but 20 years plus in the blues biz has enabled him to stretch far beyond the usual three chords and love-gone-wrong, and Iceman finds Collins getting into a big ol' bag of tricks, taking on warm soul, low and sleazy R&B and below-the-waist funk workouts with equal aplomb. These days, bluesmen are becoming harder and harder to find, and Collins is a direct heir to the legacy—his cousin was Lightnin' Hopkins, who considerably influenced his single-note picking style as well as his wry, dry humor. Collins sounds as natural and innovative today as he did when he first received that moniker so long ago; even in the heat of passion, in the heat of the spotlights, in the midst of smoking hot music, there's no one as cool under pressure as the Iceman. Songs to delay global warming: "Travelin' South," "Head Rag," "Iceman" and the funky "Put The Shoe On The Other Foot."

JUNK MONKEYS Five Star Fling (Metal Blade, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505)—The second album from Detroit's Junk Monkeys finds these Midwestern bubblegum punkers bringing to mind such a court reference as the Goo Goo Dolls, with whom they share a predilection for a catchy tune and aggressive playing, and Soul Asylum, who might outflail the Monkeys hair-wise, but are an even match power-chord for power-chord on a good night. A hootenanny-ish, Replacements shuffle pervades "Everything Remains the Same" and "Everyone Can See You," while songs like "Sad Letters" (the first single) stay closer to the usual power-punk mold. Other dependable rockers include the aptly titled "Like A Firecracker," "Marigold," "Time On Hand" and the MC5-ish "Wig Shop." The band was smart enough to follow The Who's lead from The Kids Are Alright and shorten "A Quick One" down to around six minutes, making it fit their scruffy-rock-kids-of-the-'90s attitude. Like the selective nature of "Quick One," the Monkeys seem to know their influences well enough to inject them into their songs when it's called for, but not rely on the familiarity they bring to the songs for their spark.

FRAZIER CHORUS Ray (Charisma, 1790 Broadway, New York, NY 10019)—Frazier Chorus is intellectual orchestral dance music. Snappy production by Lightning Seed Ian Broudie helps combine flutes, clarinets and the softly suave vocals of Tim Freeman on the second album by this Brighton, England trio. Keeping the sound more consistently bouncy throughout than on past works, Frazier Chorus has come up with a group of radiant pop songs with incessant hooks and charm. Headed by the inevitable delight of "Cloud 8," a tune filled to the rafters with melodic bliss, Ray aims to please both the urge to boogie and the desire to sit back and get lost in savory regions. Restlessly serene, Ray is full of subliminal sounds—different crackles emerge with each listen, with seemingly contrasting passages drifting together in improbable, yet delightful, harmonies. Also check out "Nothing," "Prefer You Dead," the floating "Walking On Air" and "Never Wake Up."

RALPH PETERSON Ralph Peterson Presents The Fo'tet (Blue Note, c/o Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028)—Drummer Ralph Peterson's debut for Blue Note, Ralph Peterson Presents The Fo'tet (a group of four players, get it?) is a rich showcase of rhythm, polyrhythm and bits of every paradiddle of Pan-African literature. Through his provocative compositions, Ralph Peterson brings forth the spectrum of what rhythm can encompass, from the "Good Foot" James Brown school to subtle harmonic movement that stretches our ears and defies categorization. Ralph Peterson plays hard, full of both energy and nuance, and this album is a great midground between organic playing and expert execution. The Fo'tet features stellar clarinetist/bass-clarinetist Don Byron along with bassist Melissa Slocum and vibraphonist Bryan Carrot. Special guest appearances (on three tracks to be exact) by tenorist David Murray and flugelhornist/trumpetist Frank Lacy add depth and openness with thick and joyful brass contributions. Highlights include "Thabo" and the Peterson-penned "Ballad For Queen Tiye."

Dog Faced Hermans

TOO MUCH FOR THE RED TICKER

DOG FACED HERMANS "Too Much For The Red Ticker" (7") (Project A-Bomb, 2541 Nicollet Ave. S., Minneapolis, MN 55404/612-872-0646)—In all their time (about three or four years), and a stack of U.K. vinyl to show for it, someone finally has the sense to release at least two songs domestically.

From the Rubella Ballet/A-Heads/The Ex school of underdog banner-waving, the A-side and "Timebomb" are clattering, outspoken and designed to get under your skin; the Amsterdam four rushes through their presentation with springy rhythms and insistent vocals that come off as intelligent rather than exhausting.

THOMAS JEFFERSON SLAVE APARTMENTS Career Interruption Code (7" EP) (Datapanik, 1992-B N. High St., Columbus, OH 43201/614-294-3833)—The second single from Columbus rock stars the Thomas Jefferson Slave Apartments is a shoddily produced (the sleeve jokes "you lookin' fer treble?") but expertly executed slab of garage rock.

Hooks are as natural a part of these four songs as hops is to beer, and the frenzied vocal style of frontman Ron House (formerly of Great Plains) makes the whole thing seem like a sweaty night for misfits at the Deadbeat Club. Fave cuts are "Please Hear My Plea" and "Spasm Of Morality," which will just barely keep us sated 'til a full LP recorded in a real studio setting gets thrown our way.

SKATENIGS "Chemical Imbalance" (5") (Wax Trax, 1659 N. Damen, Chicago, IL 60647/312-252-1000)—

"Chemical Imbalance" is something of a theme song for Austin's Skatenigs, who, after being local favorites for eons, have finally committed the tune to plastic. While the production of Wax Trax's infamous Hypo Luxa brings out the industrial side of the band, the single also boasts a comical punk attitude which sets them apart from the industrialists to whom they might be compared. The 'Nigs' sense of humor rages in full force on their assaulting cover of "Damage 43" by fellow Austinites the Big Boys, with its accusative refrain of "Why can't you see the big picture?" Look for a full-lengther this fall.

SUPERSTAR DAN THEMAN "In The Face Of Coldness" (7") (Scat, P.O. Box 141161, Cleveland, OH 44114/216-861-2175)—In the demented tradition of the Legendary Stardust Cowboy and Wild Man Fischer comes Superstar Dan Theman (or "Supie T," as he's known by his public). Best described as a cross between Bobcat Goldthwait and that guy from the Police Academy movies who makes all those noises, Superstar upchucks a mortifying tale on the A, naked for all the world to see, armed only with his formidable vocal chords. The B, "Please Tell Me Color," lays into the ugly beast known as the record business. Kaleidoscopic-colored vinyl's the cherry on top. Limited edition of 1,000.

HELIOS CREED "The Warming" (7") (Amphetamine Reptile, 2541 Nicollet Ave. S., Minneapolis, MN 55404/612-872-0646)—Good ol' Helios Creed gets out his bag of tricks and devices and manipulates another outer-space magic show from one little guitar, with Randy Krause way down below on drums. "The Warming" is a standard Helios space odyssey, with guitars drifting in and out of static, head-over-heels percussion, and E.T. with a pillow over his face for vocals. "Your Spaceman" is a deeper, groovier side of Mr. Creed with transistor radio-knob noises and an almost Wartime-like cadence.

REIN SANCTION "Creel" (7") (Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA 98102/206-441-8441)—Rein Sanction is one of the latest mythic hammering rock gods to come under Sub Pop's ample wing, with two songs to prove the band's gotten brawnier and (natch) furrier since the wispiest merits of their debut EP. "Creel" is a formidable knot of guitars distorting every which way, and encased within we find vocals transcended straight from DinoJ's whiny soul. The instrumental mess of both "Creel" and "Willowbranch," however, while just as loud as any Amherst dweller, stays at a consistent, unwavering level for a spacier effect.

FETISH 69 "Pigblood!" (7") (Project A-Bomb, 2541 Nicollet Ave. S., Minneapolis, MN 55404)—Plodding out of Vienna straight to the cholesterol-clogged hearts of Americans, Fetish 69 aims for a Melvins-level chest-rattling heaviness. Added to Fetish's cannibalism-connoting vocals, these newcomers are clunky and solid enough to squash themselves a place between the aforementioned and early Cows for the basic heavy heavy monster sound.

GEAR JAMMER "Two Tons Of Chrome" (7") (Amphetamine Reptile, 2541 Nicollet Ave. S., Minneapolis, MN 55404/612-872-0646)—This mysterious Michigan salvo sounds curiously close to Pogo The Clown's lead singer covering an unrecorded Pussy Galore standard (the first song, especially). "I Saw You Video" is even choppiest and more gruesomely out of control, with a spirited if indecipherable chorus.

JACKPOT!

LIZARD 99 Black Fantastic (Desert Music, 2320 Flora St., Cincinnati, OH 45219/513-784-0153)—From a city notable for lurching from post-industrial malaise to pro-censorship tizzy, Lizard 99 is crackling with testy, unfocused aggression, erasing lines and parameters through sheer irrepressibility. There's a curious, if slightly motley, bag that we suppose is inevitable due to the fashion of the times; pretty much every style of rock music covered in these pages ends up for a blip's worth of time on this disc. The Lizards most often thrive with an Alien Jourgensen-like industrial corrosion that gives added punch to the more benign jitter of the whole funk/metal craze. Though sometimes when Lizard 99 goes for menace, they show more milk teeth than fangs, and while vocalist James is raspy, tuneful and undistinctive, the guitars lather on enough malignant texture to make them serious contenders. With the skillful rhythm section as perpetual yo-yo, the guitar leads and vocals strive for black-clad intimidation as much as they want and stay primarily a dance band. "Dance Dance Dance," "New Tattoo" and "A Hit On The Head" are highlights of a party out-of-genre-bound.

F.Y.I.

Keep your hands off my 3.5 liter, and that's my 40-gallon container as well. . . Roaring into our ears with all the force of a massive explosion and flash fire in that rickety, decaying and unsafe factory where they probably press all the Jesus Lizard and generating a thick smokescreen that manages to hide the brutally solid walls of sound until just before the moment of melodic impact, when it's too late to swerve out of the way. Motorcycle metaphors are somehow appropriate, as there's more than a little bit of other famous hog-riders from ages past (from Steppenwolf on through to Steve Albini) lurking in the shadows here, and song titles like "Pretty Little Suicide Girl," "No Control," "Reptilian" or "Heather's Hit" pretty much show the emotional tack these guys are taking. Just point the handlebars at the center line and let the tape roll. . . Though it takes a little while to get rolling, there's some truly wondrous moments awaiting the listener deep inside the debut demo cassette from JADE HOLIDAY (call Steve Walker, 404-874-3778), but then again, we here at Futures know what a tricky process sequencing demo tapes can be. In the case of the Jade-sters, it takes them a few songs to get going, but once they get 10 or 20 minutes into it, everything really picks up in terms of quality and, well, just general likability—they're one of those bands where it's not so much a matter of getting used to the songs, but of getting to know the singer that makes the difference. We kind of sense that Jade Warrior is at its best when their boyish, loose and fun side shines through in whimsical, more spontaneous-sounding songs, rather than their more serious attempts at overly heavy-handed social commentary. —D.I.Y.

Urge Overkill records, the demo from Vancouver's TANKHOG (Zulu, 1869 W. 4th Ave., Vancouver, BC Canada V6J 1M4) rumbles and roars and kicks up a riot 'til it just about trashes the whole tape deck just from its sheer power and sustained high-decibel frenzy. Guitars slash and scream,

JACKPOT!

KALEIDOSCOPE White-Faced Lady (Kaleidoscope, c/o Wayward, Unit 401, 444 Brixton Road, London, UK SW9 8EJ/071-978-8611)—Is there brighter treasure from the '60s epoch left unearthed? The reissued Tangerine Dream and Faintly Blowing albums recently capitalized on cult (and I mean $200-an-original cult) status, and now (the UK) Kaleidoscope's "lost" fourth album from 1969 emerges, like a prisoner of war, in 1991 (although by then, they were known as Fairfield Parlour. Please don't get confused). Why the fuss? Because Kaleidoscope's paisley psychedelia, Celia, was a magnificent thing; a lush, dungeons-and-dragons Small Faces, a chocolate-boxed, cherubic Syd Barrett-era Pink Floyd, the acceptable face of England's precious (in both senses) folk-minstrel strain—the kind Mellotrons were invented for, that portentous rock operas depended on if they were to retain a scrap of self-esteem. The original double-album-concept concept might only appeal to SST legionnaires—anoxious, agrophobic Angel craves Elvis' baby; is institutionalized. Becomes world-famous actress. Ruined by fame, lovers and a slightly skewed perspective on Life. Dies—but was Tommy worth an Oscar? And anyway, I'm on the side of heaven-gazers, of giddy self-indulgence, of any band who lace their psych poetry with the London Symphony Orchestra and wild sitars on the same track—"Diary Song: The Indian Head"—all for a drooly Marilyn Monroe storyline. "White Faced Lady" still swishes on pop tunes, not movements; out of 18 mostly short, sharp spangles here, the euphoric pop of "Nurse Nurse" and the horn-lined "Coronation Of The Fledgling," the moody scene-changes of "Song For Jon," "Angel's Song," "Freefall" and the title track's orchestral opulence instantly stand up. Peter Daltrey's Shakespearean voice, Eddy Pumer's quilted guitar plumage and an eight-page story/lyric booklet too. The kind of album the word "kaleidoscopic" was invented for. . .

CARTER THE UNSTOPPABLE SEX MACHINE 30 Something (Rough Trade, c/o Bad Moon PR, 19 All Saints Road, London W11 1HE/071-221-9611)—Carter's irreverent, laugh-or-you'll-cry look at the decline of Western civilization initially sounded awkward, an in-joke among boozers and losers, but the South London duo Jim Bob and Fruitbat prove to be a necessary panacea to the bliss-out retreats into baggy pop-dance and post-hardcore psychedelia and rock/metal's flaying nihilism. After the 101 Dalmations debut (on Big Cat), 30 Something is an even greater slice of post-modernist pop dazzle gone AWOL. Carter's blitz of jagged guitar fizz, bastardized beats and sample overkill—an arsenal of media cut-ups, a Scud of horns and strings—enables them to veer, with a drunkard's glee, anywhere they please: the gawky harmonies and big-band crash of "Surfin' USM"; the Jacques Brel-inspired cabaret turn "Prince In A Pauper's Grave"; the punk-stomping "Sealed With A Glasgow Kiss"; the manic bombast of "Anytime, Anyplace, Anywhere" and "Shopper's Paradise"; at the close, exhausted and hoarse, the MOR tearjerker of "Falling On A Bruise" and sparse surrender of "The Final Comedown." Towering hooklines dress each bruised and bruising lament—for shoppers, soldiers, wives, lovers and drinkers. Especially drinkers—which spikes their upbeat momentum and happy-feet laughter with some telling sobriety. The more 30 Something spins, the more sense its emotional and musical warfare makes. Invest.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Keeping The Faith (Creation, 2nd Floor, 8 Westgate St., London E8 3RN/081-986-7190)—What's so hot about British dance music anyway? And can you trust a label like Creation, whose reputation originally see-sawed on neo-'60s guitar fandangoes? Well, any notions of "trust" and "authenticity" don't exist anymore; we live in a thriving post-modernistic world, prey to every dizbusting influence we hear. Hence "keeping the faith." After a shaky start, the label has assembled a steady dance-based axis, even if they are shuffling clichés and insulating the status quo. In other words, don't expect too much of the unexpected: to wit, Love Corporation's 10-minute mind-relaxation throb "Palatial"; Primal Scream's—should I say DJ Andy Weatherall's—inspired Xeroxes of '60s euphoria "Loaded" and "Come Together," flipped and juggled and beautifully grooved; and JCB's generic treatment of the Stones' "We Love You." The unexpected does raise its pointed head: Weatherall's mix of My Bloody Valentine's "Soon" is seven minutes of ebb-and-flow dizziness; Fluke's "Philly" is not a tribute but a effervescent inspiration; and World Unite's "World Unite" is a taut Clash-adelic rock groove with Afro-coloring. The dance-cult spreads.

Avoid any contact with the ASSOCIATES Popperetta EP; "Waiting For The Loveboat" and "Club Country" are given irrelevant and tacky updates. Buy 15 copies instead of Popera, the "Greatest of Should've Been" hits compilation that constitutes surely the most glamorous, glut-tonous pop flourishes of the '80s. With Alan Rankine's luscious arrangements behind Billy MacKenzie's lavish post-Bowie croon, they were a daring, exotic, swooning cabaret; MacKenzie alone still effortlessly swooned, but sounded a little like the Euro-disco king without his crown. The CD has the early (1981-82) Situation 2 label singles—even more unique blends of Teutonic motorik, high camp and bedsit balladry. And I mean, widescreen. Unmissable (East West, The Electric Lighting Station, 42 Kensington Court, London W8 5DP/071-938-2181).

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

There's so little news this time 'round, all I want to say is that I'm currently looking out at five inches of snow, our first drop in four years. A good excuse not to go to shows. Who have I missed? Let me see—Neil Arthur Is Delirious, Wild River Apples, Working With Tomatoes, Village People, Zip Zip Undo Me, Birdland, Lost T-Shirts Of Atlantis, Moscow Grocery, Well-Oiled Sisters, Giggle Stick And The Love Truncheons, The Velvet Jean Band, Drive George Drive and Tanita Tikaram. More snow is forecast . . . seal me in with my Tim Buckley albums, please . . . and an advance tape of the new MORRISSEY album Kill Uncle; no U-turn or speed-ahead surprises here, just another memorable glut of wistful morosity—only one upbeat surge out of 10. "Driving Your Girlfriend Home" and "Asian Rut" are the initial stand-outs here. I did get out to see CHAPTERHOUSE, MOOSE (the most promising—a Kitchens/Ride drone-flange direction) and KATHERINE WHEEL, filmed by Snub TV (our only level-headed TV show), which proves the U.K. is still buried in a My Bloody Valentine avalanche. . .

SINGLES

What's in a name after all? MY BLOODY VALENTINE says a mouthful to me, as does their new EP Tremelo (Creation, address above). It says: crushed, ambiguous, close-to-the-cutting-edge, vibrating. Which is how it sounds too. MBV is several galactic vibrations ahead of post-hardcore thrall, on their way to a brave new whirl, toward Can and Jon Hassell's Fourth World polyrhythms, between giddy pop suction ("To Here Knows When," "Honeypower") and futurism ("Swallow" and "Moon-song"). Expect bands called Swallow, Honeypower and Moon-song to emerge. We've already got Curve, Blur, Spin, Drop, Swirl, Lush, Bleach, Chunk, If?, (The) High, Whirlpool, Sensurround. . . and now DRIVE. At least the Liverpool trio's new 12", "Greasegun," takes a different tack to the one-word pop-semiotics, because we haven't had a plausible Dinosaur Jnr/Screaming Trees fuzzpop-thrash copy for a long while (First Strike, c/o Red Alert, 23 New Mount St., Manchester M4 4DE/061-953-4068) . . . Then again, FISHMONKEY-MAN isn't very generic, likewise "If I've Told You Once" and "Air And Skin" being mildly euphoric pop rushes with a palpably '70s New Wave drive, like a jangly Psychedelic Furs (check the nasal, phased vocal) with skiny sex appeal. A recent Melody Maker single-of-the-week (Furious Fish, P.O. Box 244, Liverpool L69 7EX) . . . Talking '70s, the MAGIK ROUNABOUT (classic kiddies' puppet-sitcom) are New Zealanders-in-London scenario in quite unexpected post-glam bubblegum pop-dance scenario, with trilling organ and harmonic swell. A chorus worth gagging on. Anyone remember Barry Blue? The Archies? Ripe for a yooof film soundtrack come summer (Wau Mr Mado, P.O. Box 483, Sheffield S1 2BY) . . . On the subject of the '70s, CABARET VOLTAIRE sounds familiar. "What Is Real" doesn't quite reinvent the Cabs according to the futurist manifesto proposed by the 1916 Dadaist collective that lent them their name, but this taut, frosty slice of blip-and-bleep, grin-and-bear-it funk is their best track in five years. Anything to do with being back on an indie label perhaps? (Les Disques Du Crepuscule, c/o Lowe Profile, Panther House, Mount Pleasant, London NW1/071-837-2655) . . . The WENDIES may not be much of a name, but who's complaining, the Scots are already Factory Records' new bright young things, although their typically Mancunian dance-pop doesn't conform to any futurist manifesto either. In other words, "More Than Enough" isn't, but it's quite handsome and cocky-confident, led by a neatly clipped, ringing guitar line (Factory, c/o Capersville, 83 Clerkenwell Road, London EC1/071-430-9060) . . . And that's more than enough (arf, arf!) for this snowbound column too. . .

CHART TALK

We're running these photos...

Jesus Saves: For the third straight week, Jesus Jones holds down the top spot on the Top 150, this time adding #1s in the South and East along with the already-conquered Midwest, Cuts and Audience Response charts. Daniel Ash goes up to #2, with a #1 in the West, but Jesus' lead looks insurmountable for the immediate future. Pretenders or contenders for #1?: Front 242 (6-5; #7 Audience), Kitchens Of Distinction (13-6; second week on chart!), Material Issue (12-7) and Eleventh Dream Day (11-8; last LP peaked at #2)—the latter three all new to the Top 10 this issue.

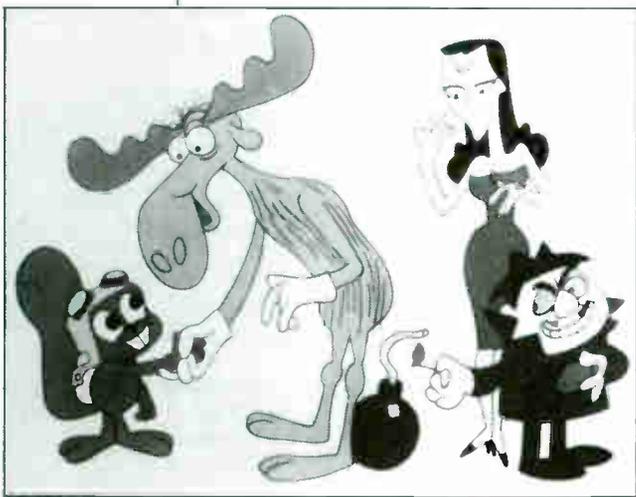

Don't You Have Schoolwork To Do?: For the second time in three weeks, CMJ has broken its record for reports. Of the 1,203 total reports, 444 of them were Top 35—if you're a glutton for punishment (like our typesetters), you can flip to the back and read all 18 pages of them.

Rough Trade Rout: After the success of last year's Galaxie 500 LP, there hasn't been much noise out of the RT camp... until now. The Butthole Surfers LP follows up the "Hurdy Gurdy" single (which peaked at #9!) with a #31 debut, for the #1 Breakthrough. Also, the Two Nice Girls score (114-54; #8 Breakthrough) and Nova Mob has a hefty debut (#56; #2 Breakthrough). With all the aforementioned just starting their chart lives, it seems assured that the folks at Rough Trade will be quite busy in the coming months.

Dropping In: We know how difficult it is to keep your mind on new releases when there are reissues by Grand Funk Railroad and the Raspberries sitting around, but here are a few new LPs that are debuting this week: Link's 360's (#73), Sire-Reprise's John Wesley Harding (#80), Touch And Go's Silverfish (#87), Epic's Godfathers (#91), MCA's Horse Flies, Fire's H.P. Zinker (#132) and Tommy Boy's Stetsasonic (#140). Look out for LPs from R.E.M., Manufacture, Feelies, Shonen Knife, Too Much Joy in the near future and King Missile, Dylan bootlegs and Lenny Kravitz in the not-as-near future.

WTSR (NJ), WUOG (GA) and WZRD (hometown of Chicago).

With an overly hyped movie about the Doors in everyone's face, it's only appropriate that we focus on the lizard kings of the Midwest, Jesus Lizard. Their second LP, Goat, on Touch And Go, is their second full-length LP—by far their most cohesive and intense effort to date. On its fifth week on the chart, the Lizard moves 54-28 with a #21 lead in the Midwest. JL's clocking #1s at WMBR (MA), WOSR (OH), WRUV (VT),

PROGRESSIVE RETAIL

ON THE CHART

While Sting still holds onto the coveted #1 spot, Dinosaur Jr.'s Green Mind (43-2), still #1 In-Store, is poised to give The Soul Cages a run for its environmentally sound money. Epic's Front 242 slips down 2-4, leaving room for Food-SBK's Jesus Jones (the #2 pick In-Store and #1 at radio for the third week in a row) to move up 5-3. Charisma's mysterious Enigma moves up 8-5 and Rough Trade's Butthole Surfers debuts at #10 with Pioughd (you know how to say it by now).

The Buttholes stinking up the Top 10 is just the beginning of the indie scorecard this week. Indie debuts this week include Touch And Go's Jesus Lizard at #27, Sub Pop's Tad at #36, Rough Trade's Nova Mob at #60 and Sub Pop's Nirvana/Fluid single o' the month at #64. Shimmy-Disc's Bongwater also moved up, 28-21. Why did Wax Trax's KLF and Coil, and Mammoth's Blake Babies drop off so quickly?

Some really great records also emerged from the major label camps. Debuts include A&M's beautiful Kitchens Of Distinction (#33) and two from Sire-Reprise—John Wesley Harding (#40; #5 In-Store) and Royal Crescent Mob (#51). A couple singles also graced the chart: EMI's EMF (#69) with "Unbelievable" and Morrissey's import single of "Our Frank" (#70). (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

JACKPOT!

JAMES CLAY I Let A Song Go Out of My Heart (Antilles, c/o Island, 14 E. 4th St., New York, NY 10012)/ JAMES SPAULDING Gotstabe A Better Way! (Muse, 160 W. 71st St., New York, NY 10023)—A toast to two of the most expressive, albeit underrated, saxophonists on the national scene. Tenorman James Clay, a bluesy swinger with a tone as expansive as his native Lone Star State, turns his Antilles debut—indeed, his first major album as a leader proper—into a most welcome event, a 10-tune, 68-minute album of standards with accompaniment from the dream team of Cedar Walton (piano), David Williams (bass) and Billy Higgins (drums). Clay, who can also be heard on Don Cherry's 1989 A&M entry, Art Deco, as well as on Fathead Newman's all-star jam date Return To The Wide Open Spaces (Amazing Records), plays, alternately, with cutting bravado or lush lyricism on such chestnuts as "I Can't Get Started," "Body And Soul" and "My Foolish Heart." Well done and welcome back. James Spaulding, a multiple-threat woodwind ace (alto sax, flute, piccolo), is the perennial TDWR (Talent Deserving Wider Recognition), a masterful section player. Now, on his second Muse foray, he commands the spotlight on a lovely, breezily swinging album full of exotic flavors and ethnic rhythms. Mulgrew Miller (piano), Monte Croft (vibes on five numbers), Ralph Peterson (drums), Ron Carter (bass) and Ray Mantilla (percussion) bring their experiences and talents to bear on this often enchanting album, which extols the African-American cultural and political figures who provided the moral impetus that helped to spawn jazz. Gotstabe A Better Way! is a subtly persuasive album full of sincerity, longing and, not least, remarkable musicianship. Clay, who spent 10 years with Ray Charles, and Spaulding have dedicated their lives to jazz. Anyone who professes to do the same will be enchanted by these recordings.

PLAY THAT HORN

The wacko wonder, trumpeter ROY HARGROVE, strikes again on his much-anticipated second album as a leader, Public Eye (Novus, c/o RCA 1133 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10036). This time out, the 21-year-old from New York City by way of Texas penned four originals, among 11 tracks, for a quintet comprised largely of his working band members, most of whom are also youngbloods: alto saxist Antonio Hart, pianist Stephen Scott and bassist Christian McBride. Anchoring this strong neo-bop fivesome is the ever-smiling Billy Higgins, drummer nonpariel for longer than his session mates have been alive. Hart, an unquestionable comer, sounds somewhat out of his depth here, but he musters all of his considerable energy and wits to keep up with his more experienced comrades; the kid's tone isn't there yet, but after a few

ON THE CHART

In one of the closest races in some time, we have a new winner (the third change at the top in as many weeks). The Chick Corea Akoustic Band live-in-the-studio date surges 3-1 past Marcus Roberts (2-2) and last week's #1, Shirley Horn (1-3). In fact, all of the Top 10 remains the same, save for a shuffling of positions, with Ray Obiedo gaining the most ground (10-6). Top debut goes to pianist Geri Allen (check out the Jackpot! cover pick!) at #18, followed closely by CTI's re-emergence with Rhythmstick, a who's-who collaboration that finally hits the chart (#19) after bubbling under for quite some time. Look for present bubblers J.J. Johnson, Jon Faddis and James Clay to hit the chart soon. Speaking of chart, we set another new record amount of reports this week: 90! Let's make it an even 100! (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) more handy sessions like this, he'll be a force to contend with. The frontline configuration of trumpet and alto doesn't quite click, for the reason already stated, but the rhythm section is so supple, so pliantly sturdy one might say, that Public Eye proceeds with a winsome forward thrust. Choice cuts include the leader's title track, the late brassman Kenny Dorham's "Night Watch" and, especially, the splendidly lyrical standard "Once In A While." . . . Road-warrior CLARK TERRY, a trumpeter who, for some four decades, has lent his St. Louis-derived singing lines to albums by Count Basie, Duke Ellington and Thelonious Monk, not to mention a slew of albums under his own name (the most recent being Having Fun for Delos-A&M), displayed true gift as a sideman on the new album by pianist JOHN CAMPBELL, Turning Point (Contemporary, 10th & Parker, Berkeley, CA 94710). Despite suffering from a dreadful cold that, according to Campbell, bordered on pneumonia, Terry blew with vigor and his accustomed humor on four of the album's 10 tracks. Campbell, a transplanted Midwesterner who has earned his stripes in the employ of Terry Gibbs, Buddy DeFranco and Mel Torme, displays a sure touch and a commendable balance between rock-ribbed swing and delicate lyricism on this trio and quartet outing. Bassist Jay Anderson and the leader's longtime pal from Chicago, drummer Joel Spencer (whose trapwork is at once steady and wondrously symphonic in texture) round out the cast. The four tunes with Terry are highly recommended, as is the pianist's fleet-fingered workout on the Dizzy Gillespie/Charlie Parker-penned bop warhorse "Shaw 'Nuff" (my friend was fooled into thinking the pianist was Bud Powell); "Tin Tin Deo" is also especially tasty. . . . Terry can also be heard in the company of fellow "Trumpet Kings"—Harry "Sweets" Edison, Roy Eldridge and Gillespie in 1974—on the Pablo CD reissue of The Trumpet Kings Meet Joe Turner. The four brassmen, flanked by four rhythm, pump out a welcoming backdrop of sound against which the Kansas City bluesman belts out four songs, among them "T.V. Momma" and "Ain't Nobody's Bizness If I Do." . . . When you hear the rap song "Repatee" on JON FADDIS's new album Hornucopia (Epic, P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY 10101-4450), don't assume that another jazzman has gone slumming, gone mersh. Faddis, the onetime Gillespie protege and a trumpeter with extraordinary technique, has been rapping as part of his stage act for several years. Having left both Gillespie's band and security of the studio scene in order to establish his own identity, Faddis now commands attention as an independent artist in his own right. Backed by the same rhythm nucleus he takes on the road (pianist Renee Rosnes, bassist James Genus and drummer Billy Drummond), and supplemented by Gillespie ("Repatee") and vocalist Vivian Cherry ("Reckless Blues"), among others, Faddis presents a 57-minute mixed bag of straight jazz (the high-C energy of "High Five") and fusion of sorts ("Ahbeedunseedja," a nod to Miles Davis with rock and heavy-metal influences). To diehard straight-ahead mavens, the frenetic "Dizzy Atmosphere" should find favor, while "March That Thang," which Faddis calls "a drum and bugle corps kind of thing," retains its infectiousness despite 20 overdubbed trumpet parts by the leader. Clearly, Faddis has opted for diversity (including a smattering of synthesizer) rather than an all-acoustic allegiance on Hornucopia, but this is a spirited effort that, heard in aggregate, should please most Faddis fans and win him new converts as well.

JACKPOT!

MAHLATHINI AND THE MAHOTELLA QUEENS The Lion Roars/Marriage Is A Problem (Shanachie, 37 E. Clinton St., Newton, NJ 07860/201-579-7763)—Mbaquanga, the roaring sound of South African pop music, is again on the prowl. The Mahotella Queens and Mahlathini are represented on two separate compilations (which clock in at a total of under 60 minutes for the two CDs combined). Marriage Is A Problem features the Queens and a number of unidentified male fronts; The Lion Roars includes the Queens and Mahlathini. Both offer rock-solid bands, with mostly, I assume, the Makona Tshole Band backing. Rumbling bass, rippling guitars and screaming saxophones form the bedrock for the growling Lion and earthy Queens. This music is as visceral and genuine as it gets, thumping and howling in a bluesy, funky groove. The tracks seem to span a number of years, and a variety of band members, and if I sound unsure here, it's because of Shanachie's determination to give NO details about any of the compilations they put together. A few dates, names of band members and such, would give some perspective to the whole history of these groups. If you want to get the full experience, Mahlathini and the Mahotella Queens, backed by Makona Tshole, are on a major U.S. tour through the end of March. Music that hits this hard on record should absolutely rip up a live venue.

BERT JANSCH Sketches (Temple, c/o Flying Fish, 1304 W. Schubert, Chicago IL 60614)—Once upon a time, Bert Jansch heard Gary Davis and Bill Broonzy, and then founded one of the most unusual "folk" groups to ever hit the scene, Pentangle, who pulled together acid rock, medieval folk and American jazz and blues. That was many moons ago, but Jansch and his cohorts have all been making music ever since, both as Pentangle, and in many solo and group efforts. Sketches is Bert's latest, and it is a strong statement from one of Britain's folk legends. His fluid yet funky acoustic guitar playing is here in force, along with a nice trashy, distorted electric to give a hard bluesy color. His new version of "My Father" is here a rumbling, scathing "prayer" to a God unseen. He takes God to task again in "Poison," where he admonishes humans that "your Creator is running out of ideas." He can paint a pastoral picture of the better side of life, but even his love songs are tinged with sorrow and death. His band, notably bassist Danny Thompson and percussionists Stefan and Frank Wulff, are understated and supportive, there to carry the songs and gruff vocals of Jansch. There are a lot of rock musicians doing "acoustic," but Bert Jansch is an originator and master of the genre. Beauty, grace and power exemplify Sketches.

ON THE CHART

There's a lockout in our Top 5, as all the heavies stay in place, not willing to give up an inch of their chart potential just yet. Further down, the Rhythm Safari World Music comp rises up into our Top 10, while Mango-mates Amina and Ali Farka Toure are hovering just on the brink of charting in the single digits. The Jolly Boys make a welcome return with their superb Sunshine 'N' Water album, and also look for big gains ahead from the Missa Luba, as performed by the Muungano National Choir Of Kenya. There's a couple of reggae newcomers further down the chart—keep your eyes and ears peeled for Englishman and the Jamaica Go-Go soundtrack. (WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) possibilities and limitations of "world music." On the plus side, they offer The Best Of Juluka. It's a tall order when you consider how much good Juluka there is to cull from. Prize tracks like the rock-inspired "Impi" and the anthemic "Scatterlings" were milestones in Afro-pop fusion in the '70s. The processed acoustic guitars and layered voices of Spho Mchunu's "Sonquoba" is a priceless piece of Zulu jive folk-rock. What I liked about Juluka was its directness; musically and lyrically, they cut through all the clutter and stated their case. I'm a sucker for that. I could, however, have done without a synth-soaked mega mix of all their hits. It's a small flaw on a welcome reissue of material that has been hard to find. On the other side of the coin is The Best Of World Music. Hardly. What you get is a collection of goodies from mostly recent major-label releases. Now, Margareth Menezes' "Elegibo" is one of my favorite songs, but it's readily available, as are almost all of the tracks on this set. I expected something a little more adventurous, not an aircheck of a radio show that is on the big mailing lists. If you have no African, Brazilian or European pop in your library, you'll find this useful. Unless you have been under a rock for a year, you'll find it all redundant. "Everybody do the rai"???? Future offerings will include L.A. Latin groups, and some solo guitar from South Africa. For info, call Joni Soloman at (818) 501-7722, or write them at 5430 Van Nuys Blvd. #305, Van Nuys, CA 91401 . . . There is a real dichotomy of emotion that works on me when I hear the classic Missa Luba, an African version of the Christian mass. It is stunning in its beauty and carries the charge that great religious experiences can ignite. This new recording on Philips is by the MUUNGANO NATIONAL CHOIR OF KENYA and is perfectly performed and recorded. It not only includes the mass, but 10 other traditional Kenyan folk songs with liturgical lyrics. What nags at me is the fact that it was the "Christians" who brought this liturgy to Africa who are most responsible for Africa's political and social woes, and a celebration of this must be tinged with a certain sorrow. Maybe that's where part of the power of Missa Luba lies. Like the blues or Azanian jive, there is an undeniable conflict here that colors and strengthens the music. . . It's cold and wet and the news is all bad. Whatcha gonna do? GET JOLLY AGAIN!! The new JOLLY BOYS set is full of Sunshine 'N' Water (First Warning, c/o Rykodisc, Pickering Wharf, Bldg. C-3G, Salem, MA 01970/508-744-7678). This record is a much-needed shot of good times and warmth. Sing a little sand, rum, and love for a few minutes in an otherwise insane world by traveling to the Caribbean with these masters of strum and stroll. Banjos, guitars, drums and a giant bass kalimba make up the band, but it is the happy-go-lucky singing of this ensemble that will warm your weary soul with risque humor and unadorned musicianship.

CRANKY AGAIN!

This week's Cranky Award goes to Warner Bros. and a group called Earth Communications Office. In the back of the CD insert for MAURA O'CONNELL's new album (a great record, by the way; more's the pity!), is a message for us to "save our planet" by buying "environmentally sound products" and recycling and such. The problem is, the product this message is contained in was packaged in a longbox, complete with shrinkwrap, and promoted by a CD single, one of the most environmentally unsound, and musically useless products in the musical milieu, and completely UNRECYCLABLE!! For the time, plastic (read: petroleum product) and money that Warner spent on that single, they could have donated the cash saved to Greenpeace or one of the hundreds of L.A. shelters for the homeless and the battered and the hungry. Now THAT would be "environmentally sound." I'll bet thousands of college radio and indie reviewers would gladly forego the privilege of receiving CD singles, and not get that cranky outlook for the company every time we open up a big box only to find three minutes of music and three pounds of trash! To be fair, ECO is doing a lot of work in the music industry, starting recycling programs at places like WEA, and contacting artists and such about their environmental concerns. Write to them about what you think, and what they're doing, at ECO, 1875 Century Park East, Los Angeles, CA 90067... Second prize goes to Shanachie. Surely they could have ordered their promos without longboxes and shrink-wrap!

One last personal plug. I have been involved in a recording project here at home. It is called Mosaic: New Haven Sings Of Peace And War. Twelve area musicians and singers contributed songs, including jazz, folk, rap, klezmer and rock from Muslims, Jews and Christians in the area, in an effort to state our case against war. All (ALL!) proceeds go to local peace groups, and with contributions from artists, printers and musicians, that means almost the whole 10 bucks. If you are interested in getting a copy, call Chris at (203) 481-4506 or write to Mosaic, c/o Farm River, 127 Highland Ave., Branford, CT 06405. If you or artists in your area are involved in similar projects, please let me know about them!

CRUCIAL!

VARIOUS ARTISTS Exterminator Dance Hall Revue (ROIR, 611 Broadway, Suite 411 New York, NY 10012/212-477-0563)—What Exterminator Dance Hall promises to bring us is a canny and cunning studio recreation of a night in a real Jamaican dancehall with all the star players in place. This stellar set includes snippets, samples and contributions from cool ruler Gregory Isaacs, Clement Irie, General Three (Trees) and Dillinger. Even though it was recorded in a studio and isn't actually live, you can almost see the toasters and deejays passing the microphone around as each takes a turn working over the eager crowd. It's pretty good—raucous, heated, passionate and unrelenting in its pace and energy. Though occasionally on side one the crowd patter is piped in a little too loudly, the whole thing is still a masterful reproduction, and is guaranteed to work wonders on an audience, just as it would if you were right there on the dancefloor. It's as if this tape is an open invitation for a dancehall party to which anyone is invited, any place or any time; you don't have to spring for a ticket to Jamaica to hear such fantastic sounds. With Dance Hall Party, you're almost there—just pop in the tape and take off.

went out to BUNNY WAILER for Time Will Tell—A Tribute To Bob Marley (Shanachie). While congratulations are certainly in order, one must wonder how NARAS selects their choices. Last year, Bunny was nominated for an amazingly powerful and original piece of work, Liberation, and lost, while the following year he wins for a 10-year-old album of cover songs. Go figure... Respect must be given where respect is due and kudos go out to singer DENROY MORGAN and NEDRICK of the New York-area group ADJA who made appearances on The Cosby Show on February 14... The results of the E-Z Money/Reggae Report/ROIR talent search for the Reggae USA compilation are in. Out of 107 entries, the following groups from across America, Canada and Mexico have been chosen to appear on the cassette to be released this spring: ISHMAEL, MURDER CITY PLAYERS, LAMBSBREAD, IRIE, PHONY POLIO, BURNING BRASS, the TRIBULATIONS, ALGORHYTHMS, COPACETIC, RANKIN' SCROO & GINGER, AWARENESS ART ENSEMBLE and the KILLER BEES. Congratulations to all involved!... ROIR has a number of new releases scheduled for April, including BIG YOUTH recorded live in Japan and OKU ONUORA with a collection of dub, poetry and more. Previously released ROIR cassettes, Killer Bees, Live In Berlin and CEDELLA BOOKER MARLEY will be coming out on CD via Rykodisc. And word has it that ROIR President Neil Cooper was recently on Donahue, not as a record company mogul but as a sexist! In June, his company will release a 10-year anniversary tape of some of their best reggae releases over the past decade. Compiled by Stephen Davis, it will be called Planet ROIR... Congratulations to BURNING SPEAR for coming in as the top reggae LP of the year on CMJ's year-end charts for the Grammy-nominated Mek We Dweet (Mango)... BRIGADEER JERRY and SISTER CAROL were enjoying a tour of the States when their bus caught fire in Denver. Although nobody was hurt, the tour seems to have concluded midstream... ASWAD proceeds with their Too Wicked tour; contact Mango for more specifics. And by the way, it has officially been confirmed that the scream in the opening of Aswad's killer track with SHABBA RANKS, "Fire," belongs to your friend and mine, the Night Nurse! This could start a whole new aspect of her career... Until next time, keep the faith.

RAGADUBBIN' UK Ragadubbin' UK (ROIR, address above)—Subtitled "Big O Productions Meets Progressive Sounds Somewhere Between South London And Saudi Arabia In A Hip-Hop Reggae Dub Clash," this latest ROIR release brings us some of the weirdest and wildest vibrations to emanate from London's heady dub scene. Often supported only by underground "pirate" radio stations operating outside the law and programming dictates of state-controlled radio, the dancehall and dub scene in England has grown and blossomed in recent years, and compilations like this one enable those of us stateside folks to reap the rewards of such a boom. These tracks are dub fare presented by Big O Productions, a U.K. label that is home to much of the country's spiciest, wildest and most authentic dubsters. With lots of grooves and beats to choose from (many featuring a more upbeat, hip-hop sort of feel common in a lot of British reggae), this taste of the label's wares gives us lots of great dub reggae to sample, most of which might never get heard outside of the U.K. if it weren't for ROIR. Jolly good!

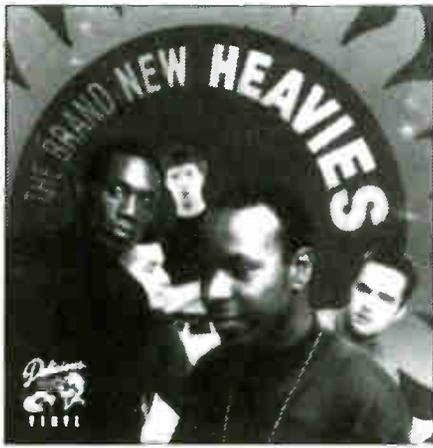

VARIOUS ARTISTS Jamaica Go-Go (Mango, 14 E. 4th St., New York, NY 10012)—Though I'm not generally a fan of slackness in music (for various lofty and personal reasons too high-falutin' to pontificate about here), once in a while a record comes along that's so loose, you just have to put aside any high-horse conceptions and just crack a wicked grin and enjoy it in all its impoliteness and impropriety. This soundtrack album is one such record—complete with cover photos that will probably keep it out of the more timid big chains of retail stores. The reigning masters of slackness and steaminess in the dancehall all turn in some of their raunchier and less culturally conscious contributions. What also hits you about this record is just how brash, raucous and in-your-face it all is; like the latest vicious rap record, the wittiest pun-filled calypso or a raunchy blues record of three decades ago, there's a forceful, boisterous quality to these songs of money, sex and general hedonism that makes you sit up and take notice. Whether it's Shabba Ranks sounding like he's spewing his raunchy spiel into your ear a few inches from your face or the worldly, witty, rapid-fire rap-a-tat of Johnny P/Tinga Stewart's "Salary," something about these songs somehow makes them almost as fun and fresh as they can be—streetwise, risqué, and full of wild and off-color innuendo.

AH-SO-ME CHAT

Once again, the name Marley has snuck its way into the Grammys as this year's winner for "Best Reggae Recording of the Year"

FRESH!

BRAND NEW HEAVIES Brand New Heavies (Delicious Vinyl, 6607 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90028/213-465-2700)—Within the last few weeks we have heard a lot about an emerging musical scene in the underground British soul/dance renaissance. By now we've all heard the Acid Jazz compilation, the new Loose Ends LP (both exports of the U.K.) and now probably the hottest of the three and most musically stimulating is the release from the Brand New Heavies. This London-bred quintet weaves one of the most perfect fusions of true soul, '70s funk, jazz and an authentic live sound. Shying away from the sterile techno-dance scene, the Heavies' sound is natural dance music that stems from the blood-pumping heart and soul. You may feel like dimming the lights as they slip and slide through their polished instrumentals and slicky jams that flow almost hypnotically with ambient synths and keyboards and are highlighted with jazzy sax and piano solos ("Shake Down"). Four of the cuts (most notably "Never Stop") are highlighted with the sultry voice of N'Dea Davenport, who has sung on records for Tone-Loc and Madonna. Thanks to groups like Brand New Heavies, dance music is returning to its roots and getting the facelift it definitely needs for it to thrive in the '90s. Jam on: "BNH," "People Get Ready," "Put The Funk Back In It," "Gimmie One Of Those" and "Stay This Way."

VARIOUS ARTISTS Best Of '90s Dance Music, Vol. 1—Hip House Jam (PWL/Mercury, c/o PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Not even three months into 1991 and we're already being force-fed the first compilation of the hottest dance jams within the past year or two. This first volume, dedicated to hip-house, features some of the most influential cuts which have helped earn house music the club status it has today. Its main attraction was that it gave the club-goers the perfect marriage between musically stimulating beats and rhythms while satisfying those looking for street-smart rapping rather than the boring, illiterate lyrics found in most club music. Early blockbusters included M/A/R/R/S' "Pump Up The Volume" and Rob Base & DJ E-Z Rock's "It Takes Two." Along with the mega-hits "The Power" by Power Jam featuring Chill Rob G., Stevie V's commercially successful "Dirty Cash," Queen Latifah's "Come Into My House" and the timeless "I'll House You" by the Jungle Brothers, the LP presents some of the less commercial but definitely essential cuts like house pioneer DJ Fast Eddie's "Yo Yo Get Funky" and Doug Lazy's "Let It Roll." This fun hour-long party is juiced with all the dancefloor excitement you'll be able to stand without passing out.

GENIUS Words From The Genius (Cold Chillin', c/o Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505)—There are few releases I recieve that are looked at with more skepticism than those new faces in rap on major labels. They are often the targets for those accusing the majors for flooding the market

With the Chart Talk coordinator calling up Guinness every week to rant and rave about how many reports we're taking, I have notified Ripley's to tell them we have taken a record number of Beat Box reports: 148! And with all the new reporters, EPMD (1-1) still holds a tight grip on the top spot while Digital Underground (3-2) trades spots once again with L.L. Cool J (2-3). And if that's not enough excitement for you, Brand Nubian (6-4) and Ed O.G. And Da Bulldogs (12-5) make impressive gains, while others making a climb include Stetsasonic (10-8). When will Gang Starr (11-10) clear the 10 spot? For the seventh straight week, the duo has bounced between the 10 and 11 position, never getting any higher than #10. Jeffrey Sledge must be going crazy! This week's highest debut goes to Pop Will Eat Itself (#29), which has already hit #1 on the Top 150. Other new jacks include: Leaders Of The New School (#30), Ice-T (#31) and Poison Clan (#36). This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Downtown Science; 2) Ice-T; 3) Ed O.G. And Da Bulldogs; 4) Kid Capri; 5) Lifers Group; 6) Movement Ex; 7) Son Of Bazerk; 8) DJ Quik; 9) Genius; 10) B.M.W. with weak music. New to the Cold Chillin' label is Brooklyn, NY, native Genius who on this debut may surprise you with an impressive capability of pulling off several different rap styles with an equal amount of intelligence. Beyond the first R&B-styled single, "Come Do Me," there is a wonderful amount of loose, free-styled jams like "True Fresh MC" and "The Genius Is Slammin'"—which uses the same bass-line as BDP's "Blackman In Effect"—and like some tracks, lacks in inventive musical samples. The B-side shows a harder, more assaulting Genius which is apparent in the roughened-up lyrics and images he projects on "Life Of A Drug Dealer" and "Drama."

doesn't let go as Ice's vocals—which are more forceful than ever—project his hustler image and Alladin throws down punchy beats, scratches and noise bites.

DA NEWZ

If anyone remembers that EP a few months back by 2 BLACK 2 STRONG on In-Effect Records, I am pleased to inform you that John Mars and the boys will be attempting an LP that will get started with the release of the 12", "No Blood For Oil," in about four weeks. But what if the war is over by then?... CONSOLIDATED has just finished recording their follow-up to The Myth Of Rock entitled Friendly Fascism. The new LP, which was recorded in San Fran, was mixed by Jack Dangers (Meat Beat Manifesto) and the first 12" ships April 15 and is entitled "Brutal Equation." The LP will ship April 23... And on a final note, VANILLA ICE will be releasing a hardcore/gangsta EP entitled Words From My Mother (produced by Grammy-hog Quincy Jones) and will include the single "I'm From The Streets." Just kidding. Word Out.

News from a Loud World

ATHEIST BASSIST KILLED

Roger Patterson, bassist for Metal Blade artists Atheist, was killed on February 11th when the band's van was involved in an accident outside of New Orleans. The Florida band was on the way home from the last date of their tour with Candlemass when apparently another vehicle pulled in front of them; the van flipped over while trying to avoid a collision. Patterson was thrown from the van and killed, and guitarist/vocalist Kelly Schaefer suffered a broken arm and foot, among other injuries. Guitarist Rand Burkey and the band's crew were not seriously hurt; drummer Steve Flynn had flown home ahead of the band and was not with them at the time. At present, the band plans to continue and will start auditioning later this spring. ARGH!!! sends its deepest condolences to Roger's family, friends and fans.

WITH THE CHUCK-NESS

After ten years, three break-ups and two reunions, rumor has it that hardcore legends Bad Brains will soon re-emerge with a new singer—ex-Faith No More vocalist Chuck Mosely—and a new record deal. The band has been released from their contract with Caroline Records (their fourth label) to pursue other offers, and are said to be near a deal with PolyGram's newly-reactivated London label—but of course, all this could change at any moment, as virtually everything else has throughout the band's turbulent career. The original lineup splintered for the third time after their tour in support of '89's excellent Quickness LP in the same way that it had before: focal point/vocalist HR (a.k.a. Joseph I) split to be at one with Jah in his self-titled solo project, which has released several albums on SST.

C.O.C. ROCKS COMBAT

After months of speculation (and years without a record deal), North Carolina's awesome Corrosion Of Conformity have officially signed with Combat Records. The band is currently hard at pre-production, and their first release since the 1987's Tech-nocracy EP should be out by September. Probable titles include "Remains To Be Seen," "Buried," "Vote With A Bullet," "Damned For All Time" and "Dance Of The Dead"—all of which were showcased when the band played Metal Marathon in October.

FROM INCARCERATION TO TV STARDOM?

In a bizarre case of mistaken identity, Napalm Death drummer Mick Harris was arrested last week on charges of taking part in the theft of a reported 100,000 Pounds Sterling worth of jewels! He was picked up by three plainclothes-policemen while on break from rehearsal, and was held for five hours before the police realized they had the wrong man and let him go. However, because he so resembled the suspect (and because he's such a nice guy), Mick has decided to help find the real criminal by starring in a police re-enactment for the Brit-TV show Police Five!

CINDERELLA POSTPONES TOUR

Cinderella's Heartbreak Station tour, scheduled to begin on March 6th in Mississippi, has been pushed back "a month or two." At presstime, the band was rescheduling the dates and hoped to retain the original tour itinerary as much as possible. Openers BulletBoys have already hooked up with the Great White tour (beginning on March 23rd in Flint, MI), and co-openers Lynch Mob probably won't be tour-less for long either.

THE CYBORG STRIKES AGAIN

Congrats to intergalactic metallions Voivod, whose 1989 LP Nothingface has been nominated for Best Hard Rock/Metal Album in Canada's Juno Awards. The band is currently working with ex-Rush producer Terry Brown at Metal Works in Toronto on the follow-up, which will be titled Angel Rot—a character in

QUEEN REISSUES IMMEDIATELY

Hot on the heels of the album in ten years (cheer review in this ish), the first of long-awaited Queen reissues should be in our laps any day now. The CDs are being reissued in groups of four throughout the year, and reportedly they sound amazing and are a huge improvement on the lame European editions. Previously unreleased material from the albums' session is being saved for a possible boxed set; this series will include remixes as bonus tracks. From the first batch: News Of The World's "We Will Rock You" has been remixed by Rick Rubin; Sheer Heart Attack's "Stone Cold Crazy" has been remixed by Michael Wagener (Skid Row, Saigon Kick); A Day At The Races' "Tie Your Mother Down" was remixed by Matt Wallace (Faith No More, Replacements); and Hot Space's "Body Language" was remixed by Susan Rogers. The next bunch, due in May, includes A Night At ARGH!!! Blackmail Contest #4: You all should recognise this by-now legendary British band that Kerrang! once deemed "beyond metal." one of drummer Away's short stories and song on the LP. However, vocalist Snake has taken a stronger role in the lyrics this time, reportedly resulting in a less cerebral concept. The album will be out by summer—and no, there are no guest spots from Men Without Hats!

new band featuring ex-Mother Love Bone/Temple Of The Dog guitarists Jeff Ament and Stone Gossard with two other Seattleites and a guy from San Diego. The band's recent set at the Gavin Convention (where they replaced a scheduled set from Temple Of The Dog, Jeff and Stone's side-project band with Chris and Matt of Soundgarden) featured several new songs in a way late-'70s rock sound, and is a logical progression from both of the albums these busy boys have twanged out in the past year. More details as they arise... Delicious Vinyl will release a promo-only Masters Of Reality CD single this month, featuring three different mixes of a new version of "John Brown" recorded live in studio with the band's new lineup. The session was also filmed and will be released as a video soon; the band will (finally!) begin work on its second LP this spring... On a related note, the awesome Boggymen have begun work on their debut LP, due on Delicious in June or July. If it's anything like their demo, they could be one of this year's major new acts... Word has it that godfather of funk George Clinton may produce the new Excel record. The band is set to begin recording in April or early May, and it seems very unlikely to take a funky route...

Tesla's 75-minute home video Five Man Video Band (filmed at the same show as the album) will be released on March 19 and is available through Geffen... Motley Crew is recording a song with 2 Live Crue; more details as they arise... An album by The Green String Quartet features a classical rendition of Guns N' Roses' "Welcome To The Jungle"... Dirty Looks honcho Henrik Ostergaard is currently in the studio with NYC's Abby Jaye, who put out a killer demo tape a couple years back... Look for Slash on two tracks on Lenny Kravitz's new LP, Mama Said, to be released next month. He plays on the first single, "Always On The Run," as well as "Fields Of Joy"... Working around recent Ramones tours of Australia and Spain, Joey worked with ex-Blondie masteemind Chris Stein mixing tapes that Stiv Bators recorded before his death last summer. Joey also has recently been writing songs with Daniel Rey and Wild Kingdom bassist Andy Chemoff... Old has signed with Earache... Overkill are officially a five-piece, welcoming second guitarist Merit Gant (ex-Faith Or Fear)... Agnostic Front will record a new LP for In-Effect this spring... Bang Tango will release their next LP Dancin' On Coals May 15. The record was produced by John Jansen (Cinderella)... Chuck Treece has finished his debut solo effort for Caroline while also completing work on a soundtrack for a Powell Peralta skate video. The professional skater also has his own board through the same company... Pop band Springhouse has signed to Caroline... Legendary Pink Dots, The Young Gods, La Muerte, the Overlords will release LP's domestically through Caroline-Play It Again Sam... Mind Over Four are working on new material and searching for the right producer; they should have a new album out by late summer.

ROLODEX FILE

The one and only Motley Stue Morales has returned as Maze Records' Manager Of Radio And Press Promotion. He hastens to add that Biohazard is currently touring with Kreator and Morgoth—harass him at 516-763-1313... Please note Future Shock Records' new address: P.O. Box 0286, Baldwin, NY 11510/516-678-9133.

WHOOOPS...

In our last issue, we made the bold assertion that "Black Sabbath's criminally underrated 1983 Born Again LP will soon be reissued through Metal Blade-WB. Reportedly, it sounds like Bad Brains and Living Colour." After we finished laughing and then crying, we realized that a typesetting error deleted this part: "Former Underdog guitarist/pro skater Chuck Treece is set to release his Ron St. Germaine-produced solo outing through Caroline," which does sound kinda like Living Brains Bad Colour, although Born Again does not. Um, yeah.

SAIGON KICK Hot New (Insert Inaccurate Stereotype Here) Band

Interview by Jem Aswad

Much as musicians hate "categories," the reason why music is so often labelled so inaccurately is because there are only so many adjectives that describe what a band sounds like. And with the rampant genre-crossing of the past two years, there's even more room for confusion, which is part of the reason why this mag is called The Loud Rock Report: it's such a broad term that we can review almost anything we want!

Like many of the best bands in recent memory, Saigon Kick fits several categories without being enslaved to any of them. Their self-titled Third Stone/Atlantic debut wields the crunch of a full-on metal band, the hooks and harmonies of a Top 40 outfit, and the unpredictability of that uncategorizable morass that people call "alternative"—the best quick description we can conjure is "Jane's Addiction-meets-Warrant with early Queen on guest backing vocals." So there.

Guitarist Jason Bieler, vocalist Matt Kramer, bassist Tom DeFile and drummer Phil Varone joined forces in the Miami-Ft. Lauderdale area three years ago, and they've gotten this far strictly through talent, luck, and a strong local following—perhaps the relative isolation of the Miami rock scene is part of what's enabled them to straddle so many stylistic lines.

Although the band's self-titled Atlantic debut is doing well at metal radio (Saigon Kick isn't really a metal band, but neither are a third of the bands in our Loud 100 chart), many people are still saying "It's not heavy enough" or—better yet—"It's too heavy." Obviously, they haven't listened closely enough, because no matter where you drop the laser, there's something for everyone here.

ARGH!!!: You're about to start a tour with Cheap Trick—are you psyched?

Jason Bieler: Oh yeah! I grew up on them, so it's really wild. We did a club tour with Ratt in December and it was the same thing: when I was 16 or 17 years old Ratt was really happening, and now we're touring with them, so it's really strange. Things have been happening so fast for us—I mean, I can't believe we have an album out! As soon as we got home from recording the album we went out with Ratt.

What sort of reaction did you get on that tour?

I was expecting it to be a little weird, number one, because the album wasn't out; two, it was a club tour, and the most die-hard Ratt fans were going to see them; plus, we're a much different band. But—it was like 99% positive, I was really surprised. I mean, you always have one guy yelling out "Free Bird," but he's in every club all over the world!

Obligatory question about how the band got together.

Well, Matt and I have been writing together for five or six years now. We met through a mutual friend, started writing and looking for the right kind of lineup, and we really were having a very hard time finding anybody that had the same ideas that we had. We wanted to do the type of music we're doing now, and five or six years ago was the height of the Ozzy/Motley Crue/Ratt period, and everyone else wanted to do that. Finally, about two or three years ago, we ran into Phil and Tom, and it just synched up and locked in and we've been Saigon Kick since then. The other guys really solidified the attitude of what we wanted, and it wouldn't be the same without them.

So you and Matt must have a lot of the same influences.

It was really funny, because Matt and I were the only two guys that I had ever met that liked such a weird amount of things. I mean, I was really into Prince, and so was Matt. We're also major Beatles fans, we're major Kiss fans, and we also like Metallica—I mean, most people that like Metallica aren't necessarily buying Prince albums! And as we got older and started listening to different types of music, we find we usually have the exact same tastes.

Weren't you in a band with Jeff Scott Soto? (Ex-Yngwie vocalist; currently with Eyes.)

Well, he sings backing vocals on the album, but yeah. It was a band called Talisman, with Marcel Jacob, who was the original bass player in Yngwie Malmsteen's Rising Force. They were touring Scandinavia and asked me to play, and they paid me really well, so it was like a vacation in Scandinavia while I was playing!

Wasn't somebody interested in signing them?

Yeah, it was Atlantic! It was so funny, because I was not "in" that band at all, I was totally into this band. But it worked out that the morning after Saigon Kick finished a show in Miami, I left for Scandinavia, and we had another show booked like a month later, and I got back two days before that. Now, Atlantic had sent some people over to Europe to see [Talisman's] shows, so they were all like, "Which band are you really in?" I mean, to be in two different bands that were being looked at by the same label at the same time is really weird!

Was there any life in the Miami rock scene when you started out?

Well, there's been a major dance scene for years, but I think Miami was good for us, because in L.A. and other places where there's tons of music happening, you're competing with so many bands, and you have to start adjusting what you're doing to blend in, so you can get on a circuit that's a certain way. Like when Guns N' Roses made it, it seemed like every band in L.A. became Guns N' Roses. And if you didn't look and sound like them then you weren't "cool" and the clubs didn't want you—it's just so hard to work your way in. And in Miami, due to the fact that there wasn't a huge rock scene happening, we could do the kind of songs we wanted. We just started really slow, with a really small following, and built from there. And now there's a happening scene in Miami: there are some great thrash bands down there, and there's another band, Nuclear Valdez—well, they're not thrash at all, they're lighter music, but they're really good writers and a really good band. But what I like about that scene is that there's a lotta different bands doin' a lotta different stuff. There's not like thirty versions of every band.

And there's a club scene to support them?

When we started, we were playing a club called the Treehouse that held about 200 people when it was packed. We knew we wanted to play progressive ["alternative"] rooms as well, so we were the first "heavy" band to be able to play the progressive room—the Reunion Room—in Ft. Lauderdale. We started playing there, we got a progressive following happening, and then as the following started to build, we'd start cross-drawing from both crowds at our own shows, and it kinda built from that.

Weren't you voted best metal band and best "progressive" band in the same poll?

Yeah! They have music awards in Florida—we won "Best Progressive Band" two years in a row!

ON THE CHARTS

And the gridlock finally begins to break: Slayer retakes the top of the Loud 100 and College charts (holding at #1 Commercial), while Megadeth slips to #2 and re-captures the Audience chart. However, relative newcomers Wrathchild America (5-4), Alice In Chains (10-6) and Agony Column (8-7) roar through the ice, suggesting (finally) a new era. Further down, Saigon Kick soars climbs 36-24, and Dark Angel (#32) and Morgoth (#41) score the biggest breakthroughs, with Ignorance well on its way as the #1 Adventure Pick. Keep yer heads low...

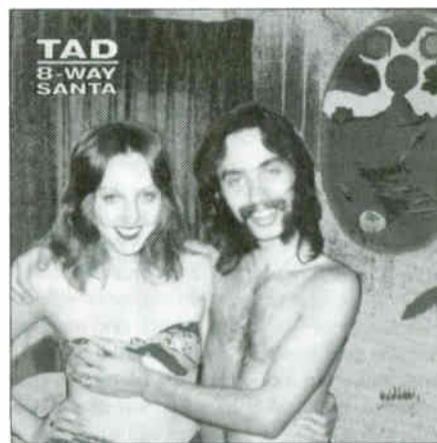

LOUD ROCK PICKS!!!

MIND FUNK Mind Funk (Epic, P.O. Box 4455, New York, NY 10101-4455)—It's gotten to the point where we're so blue in the face from raving about this band that we don't know what else to say, but here goes one more time. Although Mind Funk is basically comprised of a thrash semi-supergroup, they sound nothing like their former bands, and they're not "funk" (their original name—guess what it was—is much more fitting) or thrash: Mind Funk is a "metal" band, but one that fuses every conceivable strain of the genre into an explosive hybrid thoroughbred that touches on (but doesn't sound like) everything from Aerosmith's lighter moments to the full-on roar of Motorhead to the throbbing groove of the Chili Peppers. The band's lineup—vocalist Pat Dubar (ex-Uniform Choice), drummer Reed St. Mark (ex-Celtic Frost), bassist John Monte (ex-M.O.D.) and guitarists Louie Svitek (ex-M.O.D. and Zoetrope) and Jason Coppolla (ex-Chemical Waste)—add up to much more than the sum of its parts, and while all of them shine, we'd have to single out Monte as the band's real engine: his brutally driving bass gives the riffs a kick in the ass that precious few other bands can touch. Much as we'd hate to call anyone "the next Faith No More," this album gave us the same feeling that we got hearing The Real Thing for the first time: it's familiar and accessible but still wild and disorienting, full of surprises even after dozens of listens. And like FNM, Mind Funk might take a year or two to catch fire on a major scale, but given the right chance, they will. Yeah, it's only March, but we'll be amazed if this isn't the loud rock debut of the year. Picks: all. (JA)

MORGOTH The Eternal Fall/Resurrection Absurd (Century Media, 1605 N. Cahuenga Blvd. #200, Los Angeles, CA 90028/213-463-1764)—Death metal is hard rock at its most extreme: brutally uncompromising, heavy as sin and unfortunately often misunderstood by the masses. Oddly enough, most death metal bands are comprised of boys next door—light-hearted and fun-loving, but thoroughly obnoxious, and bottom line: harmless. This German band originally saw print in these pages several months ago when this two-EP/one-CD release hit the streets via import (they also saw a domestic release on Road-racer's At Death's Door compilation), but to commemorate the disc's Stateside release, we'll guide you down their path again. It's not that Morgoth offer anything remotely original—after all, traditional death metal is somewhat limiting—they just do the crushing sounds better than most. All the necessary elements for a corker are present: solid heavy riffs, brutal vocal arrangements and songwriting that stands a shade to the left of the mighty Death. Although certain references to the aforementioned originator of the genre are prominent, Morgoth is impressive none the least. The Eternal Fall starts the affair off and although the production and musicianship is noticeably better than Resurrection Absurd, the combined package shows the growth and promise in the band. "Burnt Identity," "Female Infanticide," "Travel" and "Selected Killing." (KS)

TAD 8-Way Santa (Sub Pop, 1932 First Avenue, Suite #1103, Seattle, WA 98101/206-441-8441)—Long a major cog in Sub Pop's indie-grunge world domination scheme, this is really the first gander the metal community at large is getting at Seattle's legendary Tad (apart from his appearance on an ARGH!!! CD last summer). He's large, loud and obnoxious, and although this album is much cleaner and more serious than the toneless grunge of God's Balls and the Salt Lick EP, it still goes down about as smooth as a mouthful of gravel. There's plenty of the noise-mongering that got His Largeness to where he is now, but this album finds Tad nearly mastering comprehensible lyrics and polysyllabic words, getting well acquainted with melody and hooks, and almost shaking hands with singing on-key. But Tad is a band, and although they sorely miss their old drummer, musically they hold their own against stablemates like Swallow and Cat Butt. While 8-Way Satan—er, Santa—sometimes gets far too carried away with the "progression" thang (as someone once said, "Tad, you're no K.F. Kobain"), the fiercer stuff here is easily Tad's best work to date. Hurl the power-grunge of "Jinx" and "Stumblin' Man," the Buttholes-ish lurch of "Hedge Hog" and the hilarious "Jack Pepsi" (the CD single of which has an awesome sleeve), and "Plague Years," an experiment that works. (JA)

QUEEN Innuenda (Hollywood, 500 S. Buena Vista St., Burbank, CA 91521/818-560-5670)—One of the greatest bands of the '70s, Queen were pioneers who took rock music beyond mere songs into an art form so eclectic and original that it still continues to defy all cliches and mystify the listener. Although they haven't had a big hit in the States since "Under Pressure," Queen is still one of the biggest bands in the rest of the world (they've sold more records than Kiss!), and after 20 years, you'd think that they'd be "going slightly mad." Well, what has kept this band alive is a common thread that runs through all their albums: their brilliant sense of theater, their ability to build and maintain suspense with a wild variety of songs and sounds and emotions that ebb and flow, climaxing at just the right time. Innuenda includes all of the above emotions, but most of all relief: this album is a triumphant return to form that will surely put them back on top. Queen and co-producer David Richards bring a modern touch with tasteful arrangements that are integrated perfectly into lush and intricate songs, and the lyrics take on an optimistic view of life with inspiring quality. Innuenda has all the trademarks of a classic Queen album, from the epic title track (destined to be another banner-waver) to offbeat songs like "I'm Going Slightly Mad" to the choir sounds of "All God's People"—it's all here. Although this isn't a "metal" album—and Queen's never been a metal band—"Headlong," "Hitman" and "Innuenda" will surely satisfy your needs. This is daring, original and simply brilliant. (RJ)

NATIONAL VELVET Courage (Capitol (Can.), 3109 American Dr., Mississauga, ONT, L4V 1B2)—Perhaps part of the reason that Canadian bands never seem to get a fair shake in the States has to do with availability—apparently this album's been out for awhile, but it just crossed our path, so apologies where they're due. Anyway, like another Canadian band 15 years ago (Heart), this Toronto quintet boasts one of the most powerful female singers we've heard in years—and that's where any comparisons end, because National Velvet has a strong grasp on their own thing. Where their '88 debut featured a cleaner, slicker production, this one keeps the shine but throws big-ass beefy guitars and drums way out front, and stylistically they're all over the map: crunching riffarama, brooding ballads, sweeping anthems, "alternative" weirdness and even a bizarre song called "Weebles" that makes no other reference to those '70s toys that wobbled but didn't fall down. At any rate, Maria del Mar's voice is staggering throughout and the band has made serious songwriting progress. While not all of these songs will fit a loud rock show, you can't deny "Chalice," "Fountain Of Youth," "Border Patrol," the poppier "Shine On" and especially the crushing opening track, "Sex Gorilla." (JA)

S.O.B. What's The Truth (Rise Above, P.O. Box 178, Coventry, CV1 5TG, England/0203-555-821)—Originally starting from a more hardcore blast style (like From Enslavement-era Napalm Death), Japan's "Sabotage Organised Barbarians" have always maintained a close tie to Napalm, thus their first release is through ex-Napalm rumbler Lee Dorian's Rise Above label. The A-side was recorded last fall and featured a more metal/riff oriented style, while the latter half was taken from the classic blast Thrash Night EP, recorded in '89. Long a top selling act in Japan, with this release, S.O.B. seem set to make their mark worldwide. Sling "Over The Line," "Look Like A Devil II (Hell)," "No Control," "S.O.B." and the title track. (KS)

TANKARD Hair Of The Dog (Noise-RCA, 5 Crasby St., New York, NY 10013/212-334-9268)—Tankard is reportedly and probably undisputedly the only band that gets tighter musically as they get farther under-the-table-drunk. Ah! The concept of "the very best of Tankard" fills me with the burning chunks of Jack Daniels-'n-yogurt float! The band's alcohol-fueled Germanic thrash seemingly never stuck here in the States—I have no idea why, but this release gives you the chance to catch up. Over a span of five years and four records, Tankard (along with Kreator and Destruction) sent the Euro-concept of faster-than-you 'round the world. After all, thrash was never really a thinking man's genre, and Tankard took the jokester thing to the ugliest and funniest extreme, their lyrics concentrating solely on the consumption of alcohol and the post-blitzed state. It's beyond Baloff-era Exodus... how genius. I'll have another for my friend: "The Mourning After," "Don't Panic," "Zombie Attack," "Tantrum" and "Shit-faced." (KS)

VARIOUS ARTISTS Death Is Only The Beginning (Nuclear Blast, DR Frey Str 54, 7322 Donzdorf, Germany/7162-29737)—Production quality varies on all compilations, but especially this one—that said, there are certain qualities to Death that elevate it above most. First, the sequence is sensible, with diverse bands signed and unsigned, active and extinct, classic and new—basically a little something for everyone. Old-school veteran tracks from Master (the heaviest Black Sabbath cover ever!) and Deathstrike hit home, while new-schoolers Disharmonic Orchestra (two tracks) and Pungent Stench show the shades of a grinding hardcore blast. Traditional heavyweights lie in Benediction, while a hardcore blast of Impulse Manslaughter treats me fairly right. Seventeen bands or side-projects total, all worthy of checking out. (KS)

SHORT PLAYS

BIG DRILL CAR/CHEMICAL PEOPLE "Surrender"/"Getaway" (7") (Cruz, P.O. Box 7756, Long Beach, CA 90807/213-430-2077)—Swindle that dollar! Although the artwork and concept are the same as Big Black's '87 single of Cheap Trick and Kraftwerk covers, this split 7" features equally brilliant artwork and covers of Cheap Trick and Kiss. Big Drill Car and Chemical People respectively show their (dis?)respect with a whack in the back of your head that throws ya' reelin' all the way back to the care-free '70s. Great for reminiscing. (KS)

THUNDER "Dirty Love" (5") (Geffen, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069/213-278-9010)—Originally released on Capitol last year, in the time between Thunder has become near-stars in England, with two hit singles and an appearance at Donington that had the British metal press all ajizz. This song is one of those hits, an AOR-ready rocker that borrows cleverly from Def Lep's "Photograph" and averages a hook every five seconds. (JA)

 Howdy all! It would appear that the frozen winter chill which engulfs Minneapolis has been briefly driven away by the return of COUP DE GRACE from their power tour with Skin Yard on the west coast! Thanks boys, we needed the break. Reports continue to roll in that the shows were awesome for both camps. Cool! Thanks from us here in the DeciCamp for all who we dragged out to see 'em, thanks to the ultra cool stations and writers who chatted with the band, you people deserve medals! After a brief hiatus to work in new drummer Bret Degandorrrrrffer they will be back out on the road—get ready! BLOODSTAR continues to claw its way into radio heads. Some have said to have witnessed sensations of euphoria and having out of body experiences upon listening to it...Metal for your mind. Speaking of the subject of mind expansion, DROP HAMMER's Mind And Body is patiently awaiting for its release in March. I'll warn you now—it's gonna stoke ya from head to foot! All other Decibands: RAPSCALLION, LIBIDO BOYZ and FAT TUESDAY are doing the recording or mini-tour thang so check your local papers, something you should do anyway, and call me up! Video Sheet Metal will be available to the general public in March and the line up is hot but I will not consume space here to list them, just call me. Other than all that, I got nothing to say. Later.

Bill Fischer, MCA Records, Woburn, MA (617) 933-9294 Well kiddies, it has been a little to long since I have entered the dialogue arena; however, it has been worth the wait. Guitar virtuoso STEVE MORSE (Mr. Morse to you and I) kicks off the new year at MCA with his latest release Southern Steel. Over the past few weeks, Morse has been the top added artist at virtually all the trades. The word "artist" is very appropriate in this situation, for Steve has been proving his guitar mastery since the majority of newer bands have been learning to play. Obviously, since Southern Steel is an instrumental album, not every cut is a metal-oriented tune. Therefore, I suggest checking out "Cut To The Chase" and "Sleaze Factor" as some of the more heavier cuts that will fit nearly every style of metal radio show... Just a reminder, MCA's next set of metal releases include BANG TANGO, LIQUID JESUS and the mighty VOIVOD!!! All to be released in either April or May, so jump on board this non-stop express to hell and back.

Kenny Berenson, College Metal Representative, SONY Music, New York, NY (212) 445-4321
 How is everybody doin'? (Now it's your turn to say "fine.") The four "M's" is what you should be aware of now and that's not the musketeers either! They are MAIDEN, MOTORHEAD, MIND FUNK and METAL CHURCH. Give me a call if you want giveaways. Alice In Chains have a new video for "Man In The Box," so keep them alive or else Bridget may have to be put inside the box again! They will also be on tour with Megadeth in Europe starting in March. KREATOR will be on tour as well in March, so call me if you want to go! I heard through the grapevine that JUDAS PRIEST really kicked ass at the Rock In Rio II show. Maybe MTV will show their whole set one day I hope! KATMANDU is a killer new band featuring Dave King (Fastway) and Mandy Meyers (Krokus, Asia). Check out this killer debut release! Coming soon to a local mailbox near you: DANGEROUS TOYS and the CYCLE SLUTS FROM HELL.

Mark "Psycho" Abramson, Roadracer/RC Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077 God, what a weird week! I came back from Florida and everything went out of kilter. My old station went from underground grindcore to complete commerciality in one week, there were numerous personnel problems at several stations throughout the east coast, I received a marriage proposal from another station (I guess the wedding takes place at the New Music Seminar with Minister Scott Givens), I mistake Rita Cox for Lori Meadows on the phone (I apologize to all parties) and I'm leaving tomorrow for the Gavin convention to appear on a panel. So, how was your week? I guess the "World Rock Team" (what a dumb name!) defeated Concrete in the industry football game. Thank god I don't have to hear Concrete boast about how manly they are anymore. But anyway, CEREBRAL FIX is flying up the charts so don't be the last kid on your block to add Tower Of Spite. "Unity for Who?" is the lead track so check it out! By now you should also have learned that the French can cut it just fine in today's competitive metal market. I'm talking, of course, about TREPONEM PAL and their brilliant second release Aggravation. Try "Radioactivity," "Rest Is a War" or "Out With No Flag" or you will receive a lot of aggravation from me, the angry radio rep. (What a horrible play on words!) No one can wait to add this record, so check it out because it rages in a big way, even Kevin Sharp of this great magazine is going crazy over this record. HEATHEN is on the way! The original Bay area band is back and they are better than ever. On your desk now is the 12" of the brilliant cover of Rainbow's "Kill The King." Add it, play it, chart it—these are your listeners talking, not me! Keep on KING DIAMOND, EXHORDER, SADUS and OBITUARY. Call me for giveaways or interview! coming soon: R.D.P., SEPULTURA, Heathen's full LP and MALEVOLENT CREATION! Also, I wish to send my deepest and most sincere condolences to all the family, friends and fans of Atheist upon the death of bassist Roger Patterson. He was truly one of the nicest people I've ever met. The world will miss him. I've got to go, after this week I need some serious preparation to see what next week brings!

Debra Rosner, KAOS Management, Los Angeles, CA (213) 962-9400 Okay kiddies, it's RHINO BUCKET time! Jean Pellerin (Poison, Def Leppard, Skid Row) just finished directing their second video "One Night Stand." Full of humor, attitude and enough antics to knock you over, "One Night Stand" should hit MTV by the end of February. Rhino Bucket begins touring again on February 21 in Houston and will kick the asses of audiences for at least the next two months. BILLY SQUIER's new album CREATORS OF HABIT ships to radio on March 13 with an April 9 street date. The album is extremely versatile, with songs that can get into AOR, CHR or Hard Rock formats. This album looks like it will put Billy Squier back at the top where he belongs! It saddens me to tell you that BRUNETTE is history. However, Johnny and Joe Gioeli, the founding members of Brunette, have started their own solo project under the moniker of their last name, GIOELI. Neal Schon is producing their new demo which is so rockin' that it's bound to create major waves. Neal says that Gioeli will be huge and with all the hits under his belt, his is an opinion not to be taken lightly. Any questions?

Rita Cox, Big Chief Records, New York, NY (800) 235-2442 What can a girl say? Metal radio is great! Thanks to the multitude who have added AGONY COLUMN's Brave Words And Bloody Knuckles and have helped it off to a great start on all the charts! A video is coming soon for "Ultraviolet Rays." It was shot live at a hometown show in Austin, Texas and will demonstrate to everyone the way a crowd should be! Speaking of live entertainment, Agony Column is on the road with Gwar. Here's your chance to fulfill all those fantasies you've kept inside for all these years! Don't miss this one! The photos are coming in for the Agony Column contest, I'd hate to see anyone miss out on a chance to win their own cow skull or jacket. Give me a call if you haven't figured out what a cow looks like. Until next time, don't accept gifts from perverts in Florida, stay awake while on public transportation, and love your favorite bald man.

Kathie Reed, Metal Radio Gal West, Relativity/Combat/In-Effect Records, Torrance, CA (213) 212-0801 Hello world! It is hot and sunny where I live, and things are looking up! Living in a zip lock sandwich bag is not as horrible as I had originally thought. The view is good, and the high humidity is good for the complexion! Thanks to all of you dudes, babes and assorted others who have helped bring GODFLESH up to the Top 20 of ARGH!!! and seem truly concerned with my being able to maintain my life outside of a zip lock! Thanks, really! Keep it going up! Godflesh is heading out on the road with NAPALM DEATH and NOCTURNUS, starting March 21 in Springfield, NY, heading down the east coast and then west coast. This "GRINDCRUSHER" tour should prove to be pretty hellacious! GOD BLESS EARACHE FANS. MORBID ANGEL is cruising in the Top 20 and also heading for the road. They start February 23 in Richmond, VA and head west! If you haven't seen Morbid Angel yet, trust me you haven't really lived (or died)! They sold out two nights at the Country Club here in L.A. and the shows were pure insanity! Napalm Death are just loving the radio, and the upcoming tour will win you over, no doubt! CARCASS and ENTOMBED are also just smokin'. Gee, I love this business! Make sure and look for your CYCLONE TEMPLE CD single of "Words Are Just Words," already a killer pick at Z-Rock's Crazy Paine. Count on Cheryl and me harassing and pushing you all to do phonies with Cyclone Temple and DARK ANGEL in the coming weeks. Keep the phones ringing, and I look forward to chattin' at ya soon!

Michael Brandvold, National Publicity/Promotions, Red Light Records, Des Plaines, IL (708) 297-6538 DIAMOND REXX. These guys are literally insane! Radio has the CD Golden Gates—put it in and crank it! Listen to the tracks "Cold & Sorry," "Cathouse" and "Put 'Em On Ice"! Initial reaction to the album is incredible! First week out-of-the-box adds have been great! Over 20 adds, including two tops tens at WCSF and WLCA! The band is preparing to hit the road in early April, with a stop in Japan in May! Big things are happening at Red Light! Need anything? CALL ME!

Dan Pinto, Megaforce Records/Crazed Management, Manalapan, NJ (908) 972-3456 Wow, busy week. I can not believe it is 5:40 already. That means I only have twenty minutes to get this in. So much for wit! I would like to say hello to my new friend Michelle at Geffen. I would like to thank Adrienne of WDCE for the sending the pictures from Zone dk. I guess I really was that wasted. Enough said. The news: If you haven't heard, MIND FUNK's first single will be "Big House Burning" and you can expect to see that on your desk by March 25 (Kenny B—do you want an advance? Ha ha). Speaking of your desk, by now you should have some live stuff from ANTHRAX on it. Play it OK? By the way, Anthrax has added some more dates, so keep your eyes open. All of you should have also received "The Legacy" single from TESTAMENT by now. You know what to do with it (DJ, don't do that, just play it)! KING'S X will be doing some dates with Living Colour. Look for the new video for "We Are Finding Who We Are." Amazing, isn't it? Coming events: OVERKILL back from hell (or wherever they live).

Michael Rittberg, Metal Blade Records, New York, NY (212) 921-4370 As I sit back in my chair to type this out, I ache in pain from the first annual Ulysses Bowl football game. However, I do feel better reflectin' on the fact that we got to watch the guys from Concrete bow on their knees. Thanks to Silvio for the Saigon Kick t-shirt and for leading our team to victory. MVP should go to Dr. Metal for some incredible catches. Anyway, to sum it up, we won and they lost! THE NEW WAVE OF BRITISH HEAVY METAL storms up the metal charts. There is something for everyone on this incredible compilation. Call me if you need help picking a track. Do you like Slayer? Pink Floyd? Psychedelic music? Then make sure you play the FEAR OF GOD. RHINO BUCKET continues their climb. "One Night Stand" is the track—I know some of you can relate to this song. LETHAL continues to gain momentum—look for "Immune" on Headbanger's Ball. Coming to your desk is the first single from IGNORANCE entitled "Questions." After you hear this you won't have any!

Dot Roy, Atlantic Records, New York, NY (212) 484-8260 WRATHCHILD AMERICA's 3-D is on it's way to the top! This is one band that deserves to be #1. Only you can make it happen. Based on radio response, it looks like SAIGON KICK will be following Wrathchild America right up the charts. Saigon Kick is a new band that cannot be overlooked. Just listen to this record once and you will see why everyone is talking about the "new, refreshing sound" of Saigon Kick. So perfect for the nineties! Coming soon: LOUDNESS On The Prowl, CRIMSON GLORY Strange And Beautiful, MR. BIG Lean Into It, WHITE LION The Mane Attraction and CHINA RAIN (Randy Jackson's solo project)! from the pound. Yes, they are being unleashed in your neighborhood. So watch your step because we don't curb these dogs. And I don't think they've had their shots!

Clarissa Garcia, Def American Recordings, Los Angeles, CA (213) 278-6699 Campus update: SLAYER and Testament are still on the road and still stirring up the masses. Word from the road is that Tom Araya knows how to quiet a room—he simply walks in. The "E.F. Hutton Factor," as Mike Colucci calls it, was in full effect in Boston. Between songs, as Tom approached the microphone to talk, and at the aftershow gathering, as Tom walked in, the rooms were hushed and all eyes were on him. Tom Araya...the man...the myth! Happy fifth anniversary to KNAC! They celebrated the auspicious occasion at Long Beach Arena with a two-story party and a show that featured Ozzy Osbourne, L.A. Guns, Lynch Mob and Alice In Chains. At the party and on-the-air KNAC premiered BULLETTYOYS' "THC Groove." The band also hopped on stage after Ozzy for a rousing rendition of "Smooth Up In Ya." The all-star line-up included Brian May, Taime Down, George Lynch, Steven Adler (yes, Steven Adler), Gene Simmons, etc., who performed "Jumping Jack Flash" and "Cold Gin." Two nights later, I was once again at Long Beach Arena. This time, Frank Sinatra was the main attraction and Steve and Eydie were supporting. Yes, I did wear my Slayer clothing to the show. What a weekend! Take care my little pretties, and I'll talk to you soon.

Kathy Dovlatov, Noise International, New York, NY (212) 334-9268 These two weeks are turning out to be very hectic. Just returned from L.A. where I spent two fun-filled days with Bridget, Schnapp, Brian, Schock and Alice In Chains. KNAC's 5th anniversary party was lots of fun and thanks to everyone who bought me a drink, and those who didn't—it was great to see you anyway. Even though Bridget didn't spend nearly enough time in that luxurious crate, I can understand why it only took two days for A.I.C. to reach top 5. They're awesome! Now to business at hand: D'PRIEST: #32 and still climbing on Z-Rock's top 50! Featured on MJI Metalshop's Fresh Metal! New on KNAC! Debuted at #38 and are #2 most added on the Hard Report; #3 most added at FMQB. Can be seen on MTV's Headbanger's Ball. Can be seen in regular rotation if you 1-800-Dial-MTV. All of you should have received the fabulous, very heavy package containing a brand new MORDRED, BATHORY, RAGE and TANKARD. Mordred is doing some warm-up shows in the Bay Area and are ready to speak to each and every one of you about their second LP titled In This Life. Check it out, groove to something new. KILLING JOKE can be seen across the country. Their shows are intense and loud. See Martin Atkins do with a single bass drum what most double-bass drummers can't do. That's speed...and from a man wearing plaid! Well, that's it for now...

RADIO DIALOGUE

John Roling, Promotions/Metal Director, KNEU, Kirksville, MO (816) 785-KNEU Greetings metal gods and goddesses. KNEU is back from our hung-over break hiatus and now we're rocking harder than ever. We are boasting a brand spankin' new format that encompasses six hours of metal mayhem a week with metal crossovers all day long. So mega-thankx to all of you that are servicing us for metal. For those of you that are avoiding me, I'd like to rip your fingers off, i.e. AGONY COLUMN style. But hey, the rest of your re the deities of metal and I absolutely worship the ground you walk on. So keep sending me all your music and promo stuff and I'll keep blasting it over our airwaves and reporting them of course! Thank and CALL ME, I'LL PLAY YOUR STUFF! Keep on cow tipping, I will.

Lyle Kolosik, Metal Director, KIGC-FM, Oskaloosa, IA (515) 673-1095 After listening to JAMIE LARITZ just once, my mind was blown. The man knows his axe, 'nuff said. Special thanks to the man himself for giving me a great interview. KIGC is back from the dead for the long second semester haul. Finally, the industry "biggies" are taking notice (Warner Bros., will you ever service us?). Enough of my complaining. What's hot? STEVE MORSE, STEELHEART, CHAGALL GUEVARA, STEVE VAI, RHINO BUCKET, CINDERELLA and AC/DC. What's not? Anything Iraqi, girls with legs hairier than mine, hickeys (only if they're above the waist), and those unsightly underarm perspiration stains. Lastly, who do those jerks with the FCC think they are? $35 for a license? I'm a college student for Pete's sake! I can't even afford POP TARTS! The death of college radio as we know it? Time will tell.

It's a good thing for the local scene, I guess, but I don't really pay too much attention to it because it seems more like a popularity contest.

So how'd you hook up with Michael Wagener?

Oh, boy! Michael flew down to Miami on the invitation of Jason Flom [the band's A&R dude]—Michael had wanted a tape, but Jason said "You can't have a tape, just please come see this show." Michael agreed, and I met him on in a bar on a Thursday. And we got completely shitfaced, almost got arrested, the whole thing—You hit it off that well?!

[laughs] Just... I mean, we were heckling the lounge singer and throwing things, and there was a huge fight in the parking lot and we were kicking cars and stuff. Anyway, we had such a good time that he said, "Even if the band only knows two chords I'll do the album!" So he came to the show the next night, liked it a lot, and Tuesday we left for L.A. to do the album—it was that fast. I was expecting him to say, "Oh, I'll squeeze you in sometime in late April for preproduction," and we started in like three or four days! It worked out perfectly because Skid Row had pushed back their sessions about a month, and we did the album in eleven days!

Whose idea was the kazoo solo in "My Life"?

Hal! That was Michael's. We had gone out for sushi before we recorded that and we were blowing the kazoo's right in Michael's face—he was playing one too. He yelled out "fish breath!", and I thought we were rehearsing, but we weren't—that's actually on the album, and if you listen you can hear it after the first section of the kazoo solo.

What do you say to people who just don't understand what you're trying to do?

People keep asking us what our music's like, and how we'd describe it, and I think it's just about music. Y'know, I'm into good music: I'm not just into thrash, I'm not just into rock or anything. I listen to Little Richard or Suzanne Vega or Prince or Tracy Chapman or whatever. I just like music that's played really well. And it seems as though the press and the record companies have created a situation lately where everything's so labelled—they have to define it down to the square inch of exactly what it is—that bands aren't taking as many chances, at least until very recently, now it's starting to expand again. But it's like you're supposed to do an album with twelve of the exact same songs. I like all types of music; why do I have to put just one style on my album?

Beatrice Pulliam, Boomerang Productions, New York, NY (212) 941-0147

This balmy NY weather makes me wish it was popticle season. Won't be long though. I could really go for one of those red, white and blue bomb pops right now... MATERIAL ISSUE's "Valerie Loves Me" has DJs skipping and singing along in the booth, I'm told. You should have the International Pop Overthrow LP now. Also on Mercury, expect a 12" vinyl/CD single or a remix/remake of the SOUP DRAGONS' "Mother Universe" and "Sweetheart" from the Lovegod album. The Soup Dragons are on tour this month with INXS... After rave reviews in the U.K., EMI's EMF (Ecstasy Mother-fucker) has released "Unbelievable" as a 12" only so far in the U.S. This song's a smash even for the long-haired holier-than-thou types. It's already in the mail so look out!!... Look—up there in the sky—it's the CHILDREN with their Every Single Day album. This record is getting tremendous response and the band's wonderful harmonies and strings are a refreshing change... Thanks to everyone for playing BLUE RODEO's Casino LP on East West America and making it a hot!!! You can't keep a great band down... Everyone knows how well NINE INCH NAILS has done. Sell-out shows across the country and after 65 weeks of top charts, the current tracks "Sin"/"Get Down, Make Love" put the band back in the Top 10. And speaking of staying power, TVT's CONNELLS is probably the only band you could put in a truck and tell them "Don't come back till you've covered the entire country," which is exactly what they have been doing for the last six months. Keep up this band's profile with "Get A Gun."

Chuck P, Radio Clown, Caroline Records, New York, NY (212) 989-2929

Like, like, like, like. Neat football game in Central Park the other day... My condolences to Concrete Marketing! Friends tell me I saw the ACTION SWINGERS... It was real cool too. The SMASHING PUMPKINS were brilliant at Maxwell's (NJ) and T.T.'s (MA), don't miss 'em! Call Sub Pop for a copy of their new single and expect a new LP with Caroline in April/May. Chicago's finest, NAKED RAYGUN, will be touring throughout March, dates TBA. New stuff out now and soon: BAD BRAINS Rock For Light, remixed, re-mastered, with three extra tracks; MUSSOLINI HEADKICK "Get Out" 12" remix; A SPLIT SECOND "Parallax View" 12" remix; LEGENDARY PINK DOTS Maria Dimension LP; CHUCK TREECE; LA MUERTE; YOUNG GODS; and SPRINGHOUSE. WDRE, here I come! Phone or fax!

Scott Warner, Promotion/Marketing Director, Get Hip Records, Pittsburgh, PA (412) 231-7713

BLAKE BABIES just finished their first part of their tour with Buffalo Tom and continue on the West Coast with FIREHOSE; they are on the road until mid-April and here are some more dates for the Midwest: 2/26 Minneapolis, MN; 2/27 Madison, WI; 2/28 Champaign, IL; 3/1 Milwaukee; 3/2 Chicago; 3/4 Iowa City, IA (with CHAINSAW KITTENS); 3/5 Bloomington, IN; 3/7 Cincinnati; 3/8 Granville, OH; 3/9 Cleveland... Chainsaw Kittens just did three shows with Jane's Addiction for thousands of screaming fans in Albuquerque, Oklahoma City and Austin. For those of you not into the arena/convention center scene, here are some club dates for them: 3/4 Iowa City, IA (w/Blake Babies), 3/6 Chicago, IL; 3/7 Champaign, IL; 3/8 Madison, WI; 3/9 Milwaukee; 3/10 Minneapolis, MN; 3/12 Columbia, MO; 3/14 Dallas; 3/15 San Antonio, TX; 3/16 Houston. For those of you into the convention thing... Blakes play Feb. 16 with Charlatans UK in San Francisco at Gavin and the Kittens will be at SXSW in March... The next Mammoth release will be the latest from BLACKGIRLS. These three white women from Raleigh, NC, create beautiful havoc with acoustic guitar, piano and violin. The record is called Happy and it was produced by veteran Joe Boyd who has lent his hand to the likes of Fairport Convention, Nick Drake and Billy Bragg. Look for it on March 15... As usual, lots of local band action down here... Greensboro's Well Nigh Forgotten graced Chapel Hill and their five-song demo tape is available (if you like twisting Mould-ish guitar crunge, this is for you). The new WXYC Demolisten tape will be ready soon featuring the wonderful world of WILLARD and many others.

CONTINUED DIALOGUE

Youth sucked. Yes, that's right, SONIC YOUTH SUCKED. It's really a shame that the talent this band has in the studio can't shine on stage. The TRASH VEGAS (not Crash Vegas) 7" is ready to be shipped. "Legal High Blues" and "Rated X" are KILLIN'. I'd also like to add a comment to David Kirchgessner's Dialogue. How can you bitch and whine about Arista? It seems to me like they did their job, and you still found the inner strength to chart the Hollow Men at 26. If I sent you 20 pages of promo material, would you chart my record at 25? I'd hope not. I want the music on Get Hip to be played because the music director likes it, not because I sent him/her hype material. Stay Hip!

Ron Cruz, Cruz Records, Long Beach, CA (213) 430-2077

ALL is marching across the states with their Allroy Saves North American tour that'll be hummin' along through the summer... No need to wait on the supercharged split-seven-incher of the season now that the BIG DRILL CAR/CHEMICAL PEOPLE single of '70s-type covers is spinnin'. Go goddamn wild with versions of Cheap Trick's "Surrender" and Kiss' "Getaway," by these Cruz type bands... Peace, Love & Hot Dog Mustard Seed Yellow Vinyl.

Esther McGowan, Merkin Records, Baltimore, MD (301) 234-0048

By now you should all have BUTTSTEAK and MOONCALVES CDs, as well as one or more examples of our pretty excellent assortment of rubber cockroaches. In addition, for those music directors deemed worthy, we have extra large cockroaches and stag beetles and giant green tomato worms that bear a striking resemblance to the Incredible Hulk's penis (or rather what I imagine the Incredible Hulk's penis would look like, as I've never had the pleasure...) Greetings to the 100 new stations that are now part of Merkin. The insanity is just beginning... To Jennifer at WTUL; Dave from MONKEYSPANK tried to get in touch with you when he was in town for Mardi Gras, just to say "hi" and "thanks for the support." However I guess you were out somewhere, enjoying yourself. Hope you had a great week, even if you can't remember it... I know Dave can't.

RETAIL DIALOGUE

Paul Ashby, TRIP, W. Sacramento, CA (916) 373-2548

The Gavin Convention finally proved it can be worth something: two fun shows in a short period of time, both poorly attended by the sort of person you'd associate with Gavin (don't ask). Last year the highlight (for me, I mean; it was the only thing I went to...) was the AMERICAN MUSIC CLUB/THIN WHITE ROPE show. This year, AMC, THINKING FELLERS UNION LOCAL 282 and TOILING MIDGETS (w/Mr. Eitzel on vocals) played in the space of a day and a half. (Thinking Fellers didn't do "Sister Hell." Again.) I missed ROYAL TRUX, instead irrationally choosing to lurch to the hotel for a mercifully abortive party thrown by KFJC, Wax Trax and Alternative Tentacles. By our 2 a.m. arrival, the place was packed with tipsy Gavin vermin and (believe it or not) one or two people I actually enjoyed talking to. I really wanted to meet Les Scurry, if only for proof he exists, but the closest I could get was hearing someone repeatedly rasping "SCURRY'S A FAG" at the top of their lungs. Some higher being (or hotel security, anyway) intervened and sent everyone to their beds around 3 a.m. Next year Royal Trux should do a KFJC benefit at the men's mission in the Tenderloin. That would be a colorful event, and nobody'd have to worry about hotel security. Do any DJs actually read this section? Consider giving up 10 minutes airtime to BONGWATER's "Folk Song." It's longer than "Stairway To Heaven," shorter than "3 Days" but at least as relevant as either.

Chris MacDermott (Woody), Retail Promo, Caroline Records, New York, NY (212) 989-2929

In my quest to make these things shorter, here goes. The NAKED RAYGUN tour starts March 9 in Memphis and travels westward. Call for dates or consult local listings. KINGHORSE has been getting mail from U.S. soldiers overseas asking for stickers to put on their weapons. The SMASHING PUMPKINS tour went really well and the band played to lots of new fans and A&R geeks. MUSSOLINI HEADKICK's tour is coming soon; BORIS MIKULIC's will not (no U.S. entry allowed). New records out (probably by the time you read this): LEGENDARY PINK DOTS The Maria Dimension, A SPLIT SECOND 12" of "The Parallax View" and the Megaforce comp. Deeper Into The Vault (w/rare and unreleased M.O.D., ANTHRAX, TESTAMENT, OVERKILL, S.O.D., etc.). Still available in small quantities: MONSTER MAGNET and ACTION SWINGERS 7" singles while supplies last. Plenty of BAD BRAINS Rock For Light posters for store displays. Beware the BLOODY STOOLS. Call me if you read this.

RADIO DIALOGUE

Carrie McLaren, Cruise Director, WXYC, Chapel Hill, NC (919) 962-7768

Q: Why is college radio more appropriately called "white college radio" given its so-called "progressive" bent? For years, we, the DJs, have grumbled about our predominantly white male body. Although we have made no attempt to "scientifically" survey our listenership, I'd suspect most all of our audience is indeed white, if not male. Most stations claim to escape this problem via block (a.k.a. specialty) programming: "Yeah, we play for our African-American audience. We have this hour for reggae, this hour for rap..." etc. However, at any given hour at WXYC, you can hear SLEEPYHEAD, SLY STONE, the CARTER FAMILY, ORNETTE COLEMAN, POOR RIGHTEOUS TEACHERS and hell, DURAN DURAN. But the problem shouldn't be the format—which we all assume to be the only genuine alternative.

Music To Thrill You!

AND REGGAE!

Sigue Sigue Sputnik "The First Generation" (A-194)

The earliest studio demos (1984-85) recorded at Sputnik Studios, and recent avant-garde experiments recorded (1990) at S.S.S. Experiment Camp Studios. This U.K. Best-Selling Electronic, Dub Rock 'n' Roll band features Tony James, formerly of Generation X and now with Sisters Of Mercy. Like jaded mutant androids out of a toxic, desolate future, they glorified a cinematic style of random violence and dirty sex...Mad Max meeting Blade Runner!

Gregory Isaacs "Come Again Dub" (A-193)

The Dub version of the recent RAS Records "Call Me Collect" by Gregory Isaacs. All Dub tracks have been remixed in historic, classic and traditional Dub fashion Jamaica-style. Isaacs, "The Cool Ruler," is amongst the most popular crossover Jamaican artists! Musicians include: Sly & Robbie, Steely & Cleve, and many more! Dancing and trancing encouraged!

Exterminator "Dance Hall Party" (A-192)

Over 60 minutes long, was originally released in Jamaica as two BEST-SELLING vinyl LPs. Exterminator has the power, feel and raw excitement of a hot, sweaty ganja-laced night at the Dance. Featuring Sanchez, Dillinger, General Tree, Gregory Isaacs, Lukey D., more.

James Chance and the Contortions "Soul Exorcism" (A-191)

This live performance was recorded in Holland in June 1980. James says, "That night was one of those very rare ones when everything was right! This band was as tight as could be after a wild and eventful tour!" Funky, demented, punk-jazz by N.Y.C.'s maestro of the New Wave at his BEST!

Raggadubbin' U.K. "Big O Productions Meets Progressive Sounds Somewhere Between South London and Saudi Arabia in a Hip-Hop Reggae Dub Clash" (A-190)

Reggae that rocks to a progressive East meets West groove. Hip-Hop-Reggae, Raggamuffin-Hip-Hop, Ragga-Hip-House-Dub. The freshest sounds straight from the streets of U.K.'s inner city ghettos. Stops the beat dead with underground rebel grass roots, heavy beat box stylee Dub meets African polyrhythms! "One Great Step For Mankind!"

Available on cassette-only from your favorite record stores or directly by mail order for only $8.00 each (Overseas orders $10.00 each U.S.A. funds) from: ROIR, 611 Broadway, Suite 411, New York, NY 10012. CONTINUED DIALOGUE

The problem lies in the institution that reinforces white supremacy. Admittedly, there are several dimensions to this euphemized racism, including: 1) The lack of African-American DJs involved in "alternative" radio. On this point, I'd like to ask stations like WCBN, KCMU, KCRW, KGNU, WNMC—that, when perusing their playlists, I feel all warm inside—if they have encountered a similar white male phenomenon when it comes to selecting DJs. And 2) The arbitrary division of college (read white) and black music. Yeah, stations may pat themselves on the back for playing ROBERT JOHNSON, LIVING COLOUR and PUBLIC ENEMY. Yet it seems impossible to ignore the fact that these admittedly great artists make the college charts because they appeal to white audiences. Please note the marketing of Johnson, the "major influence behind Eric Clapton, Keith Richards" et al. OK, so you can point to the hard rap the better stations play. True. However, given the overall state of college radio, isn't it possible that dropping 2 BLACK 2 STRONG or PARIS in between the latest in processed Manchester pop will only further marginalize, hell, exploit black ideology? I'm not saying there's an answer to this convoluted issue(s), but I would burn and rob to have some music people contact me at WXYC, UNC-CH, Box 51, Carolina Union, Chapel Hill, NC 27599 (919) 962-7768. I'd love to babble about format/racism.

Steve Spike, Program Director, WSYC, Shippensburg, PA (717) 532-6006

Hey you!!! Well, as Steve McGinnis the music director I never got around to mentally vomiting for Dialogue, so here in 1991 as PD I finally find time. First up, thanks to all the labels big and small for making us the most listened-to station in the metropolis of Shippensburg (maa). Our listeners are clearly pleased with our wide variety of music. Those of you who aren't servicing us, please do... or a letter bomb will be on the way. Speaking of ducks, WSYC has started a new program that requires a lot of black programming. If you have any rap, hip-hop, R&B, dance, house or other urban contemp artists that need el mucha airplay, I beg of you... Please send it. DIGITAL UNDERGROUND, UNITY 2, PUBLIC ENEMY and MONIE LOVE are getting great response now. WSYC is very much in need of more new jazz, world beat, reggae and any other cool shit you want to send us. I promise it will get instant airplay or my name isn't Patsy Cline. Right now, the HOLLOW MEN, DANIEL ASH and JESUS JONES are in heavy rotation, while standards like JANE'S ADDICTION, HAPPY MONDAYS and LIVING COLOUR continue to be mast-requested. Check out DANIELLE DAX "The Id Parade" and "Susquehanna Hat Company" by TOO MUCH JOY (yet another fond memory of CMJ MM '90 that flashes through my mind). As if this whole Milli Vanilli thing didn't annoy and generally irritate us—now I hear that Bart Simpson doesn't sing his own lyrics! How cool is that? Well, check out our report in the back, and stay cool. Peace!

Chin-a P., Music Director, WXDR, Newark, DE (302) 451-2703
Gee, it seems ironic that CMJ would finally tell Dialogue contributors now to be nice after letting Mr. Coslay go off for awhile on the whole music industry. Whether Mr. Coslay is justified or not, he has always been able to speak his mind freely even as he verbally attacks everyone in the music industry. Sorry if I refuse to kiss anyone's ass, especially MTV's. I refuse to let myself be etherized, and accept things that I disagree with or find offense in. I could be like everyone else in the country and pretend that MTV is the paradigm of hipness, the war is justified, and David Lynch is god. I know Mr. Scurry may think these topics have nothing to do with college radio, but all these issues, one way or another, influence or reflect our mentality as college radio programmers. Here we have the opportunity to make a difference in a medium in which we decide our own programming and it still blows my mind to see stations let record promoters, MTV and their PD or MD dictate what we should play. There are college radio stations who even use the infamous selector computer program (which commercial radio stations employ), which makes a list of what they should be playing. Are we going to be subversive in our programming and play music which reflects our own intelligence as programmers or are we going to let others decide (out of ignorance or personal gain) what we should play or not play? But then again, I think that thinking has gone out of style in this country as we let this war ravage on and let college radio programming stagnate.

[To Chin-a and all who mistook our ad—the ground rules for Dialogue are printed above the section each issue. In our ad that restated those rules, we made an attempt at sarcasm (by saying "Be Nice") that obviously went over/under the heads of some of our more conscientious readers. We actually meant to say "Bet Rice," a message to fans of Southwest Conference basketball —Ed.]

Matthew Reber, Music Director,

From the city where drunk pro-war demonstrators run through the streets chanting "fuck Iraq" and "we want blood." 'Nuf said. . .OK Gerard, there is a lot of chart analysis, but don't you need that when you're making up your promo kits? If the DUSTDEVILS hit number one just think of all the stuff you could possibly photocopy. Hell, the Chart Talk section could say something like "Those noisy Devils kick the booty out of the Charlatans UK in the fight for the top spot on the Radio Top 150." It's not really that useless. . .Life after GREAT PLAINS? Hell yes! Ron House and company, THOMAS JEFFERSON SLAVE APARTMENTS, rule the universe with their latest, the Career Interruption Code EP (Datapanik), which contains four great tunes despite the low-tech production. Send $3 to Ron at 1992B N. High St., Columbus, OH 43201. My office hours are Mondays 3-5.

Pam Markle (MD)/Heather Mull (Ex-MD), WARC, Meadville, PA (814) 332-3376

Normally, we're quiet girls who keep to ourselves but NW PA is boring this time o' year so it's rally or die! Does anyone know FUCKIN EDDIE DINGLE's phone no.? Got to hand it to PA, though. . .lotsa WEENERS in these parts. MIRACLE ROOM is HERE, MARCH 9—commute! Thank God because the only people in Pittsburgh this month are Hall & Oates, Nelson and REO Speedwagon. Grover, what of the RC MOB fete in Columbus? Is the invite still open? Our slogan: Who needs 1-900 numbers when you have Red Decibel? MOUTH MUSIC, Twin Peaks, Wild At Heart, CHICK MUDPUPS, DRIVIN' N' CRYIN', GWAR. Scud Dave Kendall. Spring office hours: Pam (MD)—MF 3-5, W 3-4; Greg (promo)—TH 3-5; Cyndi (GM)—T 3-5; Amy (Publ.)—T 1-3; Lauren (Publ.)—F 6-7.

Pierre Vanderhout, Music Director,
CFRC, Kingston, ONT (613) 545-2121

As Joe Cocker said, "We're on the edge of a dream." Yes, my tenure as music director here in Kingston is about to end. Watch this space for news and views from my most able successor, whose identity is known only to Price Waterhouse. Looking back, it's been a landmark year for us, as we've diversified into programming areas that other local stations refuse to touch. Modesty prevents me from listing all of them, but I have personally been most pleased with the recent surge of interest in music created by REAL people. Albums with personality and without drum machines. Albums that are often marginalized as "blues" or "folk," but surpass "rock" or "pop" in every respect except volume. And sales, I suppose. Sigh. Anyways, thanks to MISCELLANEOUS "S", SUFFERIN' CATFISH, the ABSOLUTE WHORES, SPIRIT OF THE WEST, PALADINS, LAVA HAY, LUCKY 7 (yeah we charted them last July already), MORGAN DAVIS, KOKO TAYLOR, LONNIE MACK, the NERVOUS FELLAS, ROBERT JOHNSON, JERRY JERRY & SONS OF RHYTHM ORCHESTRA, TOM ZE and anyone else who made ME happy. But that's just me. Have a peek at our charts for an aggregate CFRC portrait. I have one other regret: I have three weeks left as MD, but have yet to interview a former Beatle. Can anyone help out? I'll be here for a while still. Auf Wiedersehen.

Philip L. Hoffman, GM, WECR, St. Petersburg, FL (813) 864-8419

Having overcome the three days of winter here in Florida, let me once again bring you greetings from the warm sunny coast! We too survived the winter at WECR and are now back up to full speed. Let me begin by thanking Pete at MCA, Tod at Atlantic, the folks at Geffen, the whole staff of Megaforce and the anonymous person at Atco who have given us such great service this year. Y'all are rad! CHAGALL GUEVARA, BLUE RODEO, WRATH-CHILD AMERICA, and the THROBS are all groovin' mightily. So is a band from my home, MAMOU. The A.M.A.'s were real lame, and the Grammys don't look better. . .can someone tell me what is Sinead O'Connor's deal? Finally, on a serious note, does anyone out there have any experiences with purchasing live, remote equipment they could share with us? For that matter, do you have an act you want heard in Florida, but can't get the big guys to play it? We will be glad to help. . .Keep the faith!

"THIS GUY'S A RIOT"

Here's more info on the upcoming Columbia BOB DYLAN box set. Due for release March 26, The Bootleg Series Volumes 1-3 (Rare And Unreleased) 1961-1991 will consist solely of previously unavailable tracks and unreleased versions—58 selections in all. Among them: the original version of "Tangled Up In Blue"; "If Not For You" featuring George Harrison; an acoustic version of "Like A Rolling Stone" in ¾ time; an acoustic take of "Subterranean Homesick Blues"; "She's Your Lover Now," recorded with The Band and considered by many to be one of his greatest songs; plus live tracks from Carnegie Hall, rehearsal tapes and publishing demos. And no, his slurred version of "Masters Of War" from this year's Grammy Awards will not be included. Maybe next set.

BASSIST DIES IN CAR WRECK

Roger Patterson, bassist for Atheist, was killed in a car accident outside of New Orleans on February 12. Patterson was traveling with bandmates Kelly Schaefer and Rand Burkey from Los Angeles, where the band had just wound up a tour with Candlemass, to his home in Florida when the accident occurred. Schaefer sustained mild injuries, while none of the other passengers were seriously hurt.

C/Z HAS A HOME

C/Z Records has set up an official office. You can reach main man Daniel House at 206-441-0875 or fax him at 206-441-8448. The C/Z address remains 1407 E. Madison #41, Seattle, WA 98122.

ANOTHER ARTSY VID FOR R.E.M.

The video for R.E.M.'s new single, "Losing My Religion," features a 52-foot-long mural and a few guest appearances by students at Oglethorpe Elementary School in Athens, GA. This is the second time that the band has used artwork by local children in their videos.

ROUGH TRADE (UK) KEEPS TRADING

Rough Trade Distribution in England, the second largest independent distributor in the U.K., has survived financial troubles due to the strong support of its distributed labels. The larger labels distributed by Rough Trade, such as Mute, 4AD and Situation Two/Beggars Banquet are all allowing Rough Trade time to pay back money owed them, so that the distributorship can get through its monetary difficulties. Other measures taken to help pull Rough Trade out of its woes include further layoffs and temporary pay cuts for remaining employees. Rough Trade will be distributing sure-selling new records in the U.K. from The KLF, Throwing Muses, Butthole Surfers and Carter The Unstoppable Sex Machine.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

It now looks as though the next Red Hot Chili Peppers album will come out on EMI, to whom the band is contractually obligated for one more album. . . The Bad Brains, which now consists of bassist Darryl Jenifer, guitar whiz Dr. Know and former

MIND OVER MATTERS

The Tao Of Radio: Beyond Assumptions About College Radio

by Dan Mackta, WESU

John Cage once remarked that the essential element of music is duration—the job of the composer is to determine the duration of a piece and then to fill this time with sounds (or with absence-of-sounds). We've heard everything from Napalm Death to Negativland and, though we call both music, the main thing they have in common is their existence in time. I think radio is at heart analogous to Cage's "music."

If a station's transmitter is on, whoever controls it is presented with a duration of indeterminate length which wants desperately to be filled by sounds. Most stations divide this undifferentiated time into relatively short segments—shows. And each show has its own composer, who is the person who ultimately decides which sounds will be broadcast. The problem is that each person has his or her own set of assumptions about the essence of the medium. The only thing which all radio stations actually have in common is that they all represent someone's effort to fill up time with sounds.

Freeform radio is the way I would choose to fill up my allotted time. Freeform is experimental because the programmer does not always know what the outcome of something will be. Freeform programming reflects the fact that how material is presented can be every bit as interesting as what the material is. Through freeform, a DJ can communicate complex ideas and concepts which could not be communicated through the use of language alone. For this reason, freeform radio is an art.

"For most people, music is a diversion which takes their minds off their problems and reminds them of the first time they had sex."

Of course, not every station can be freeform. Not only is it the most difficult type of radio to do, but it is also the most difficult type of radio to explain, and most stations have to explain themselves to somebody in order to get the money they need to stay on the air. Some stations even need to prove that people are going to listen to what they broadcast. But good freeform radio is influenced by the community in which it operates. Programmers ("composers") must be aware of the context in which the sounds they broadcast will be received. Some stations recognize themselves as training facilities for people interested in for-profit as a career. These stations cannot be freeform because for-profit radio is concerned with making money rather than art and artistic value—you don't train English teachers by teaching them calculus. As long as the programmers at these stations don't try to tell all the other "composers" what to do, they don't bother me at all. Somebody has to train the "good guys."

At my station, our goal is to educate and entertain both ourselves and our listeners. Programmers learn and pass their knowledge onto listeners; "composers" have a good time making discoveries and teaching, and listeners like being surprised and hearing something different. Freeform can in fact be appreciated by the average person. We college radio programmers are not average, however—music is central to our lives. For most people, music is a diversion which takes their minds off their problems and reminds them of the first time they had sex. Unlike us, most people are not too particular about what they will listen to; they don't have discerning critical ears nor sharply defined musical tastes. So I think that freeform, with its natural reliance on the juxtaposition of genres and styles, can be targeted to the average person. Radio is the soundtrack to many people's lives, and freeform can make those lives more interesting.

"These Rolling Rocks taste like piss"

KITCHENS OF DISTINCTION CBGB, New York City, February 19

The steady NYC Tuesday night drizzle was a neat meteorological match for the shades of grey displayed by England's Kitchens Of Distinction, briefly here in the States to support their brilliant new Strange Free World release. Playing in front of a largely rigged audience—A&M employees galore, industry geezers, etc.—the trio were comfortable and confident from the get-go, readily poking fun at the "biz" and delighted to be performing on the hallowed CB's stage (they obviously hadn't needed to use the bathroom yet). What the Kitchens lack as visual fare is more than made up for in the beauty and breadth of their music, particularly the melancholy strain of vocalist Patrick Fitzgerald and the ringing cacophony of guitarist Julian Swales. Though not able to recreate the grandeur of their Hugh Jones-produced LP, the songs, stripped of their protective layers, were hardened and condensed, more "rock" perhaps, but just as winsome and dolorous. They saved most of their fireworks for the endings of songs like "Drive That Fast," where Swales pulled rabbits out of his effects box and both band and crowd were levitated high above the murk of a rainy Tuesday eve.

SONNY SHARROCK BAND Knitting Factory, New York City, February 16

After we'd heard he'd been wowing crowds all weekend long, we finally stopped in to catch the fourth and final set of a two-night engagement at Sonny Sharrack's New York home stage, the Knitting Factory. Expecting Sonny Sharrack's more bulldog-ish, mean and scrappier side to show up, we were pleasantly surprised at the midnight show to find Sharrack (with two drummers in tow!) slipping into, shall we say, a more melodic mood, expressing himself in a more tender, almost melancholic tone than one might expect. Using no visible or audible effects, electronic devices or auxiliary outboard gizmos, Sonny just plugged his ubiquitous burgundy

Les Paul into a modest Marshall amp, but once he tuned up, it became instantly evident that the man is deadly serious about sound and tone. In a 60-minute set, he made his guitar whisper, scream, sing, pout, cry and talk back like an angry lover, pulling solos from detached fusion through pensive introspection, jumping from angular and exerted scrap-metal funk to a loose and limber Mardi Gras groove, before kicking his crew into what may well become his signature riff, the crushing "Dick Dogs." From the soulful opener to the final devastating solo delivered with a frenzied, over-the-top slide flourish, it was evident that Sonny Sharrack meant serious business at the guitar that night—he never even stopped to take off his jacket!
