BRAND NEW HEAVIES

Brand New Heavies

(Delicious Vinyl, 6607 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90028/213-465-2700)

Those people who are tiring of unimaginative sampling on rap records, or the use of drum machines, computers and other technology in the studio, should be pleasantly surprised by the Brand New Heavies. Dance music hasn't sounded this jazzy, this soulful, this real for years. Coming out of the mid-to-late '80s rare groove and acid jazz scenes in England, the Heavies—a five-piece ensemble with a bevy of additional brass and woodwind players—have added the strong, expressive vocals of N'Dea Davenport to four of the cuts on their U.S. debut ("Dream Come True" is the best of those). Her presence only makes the part jazz fusion, part vintage funk, part brassy pop music that much more deep and dramatic. Yes, the LP brandishes a few gooey '70s "Pick Up The Pieces"-like moments, but when your hips are swaying, the kick drum is pounding, the brass is blaring and the bass is a-thumping, you'll be smiling as wide and as stupidly as the infamous happy-smiley face itself. If Soul II Soul could slow down the beat, then the Brand New Heavies certainly deserve the chance to inject some humanity into the techno-drenched dance genre. Heaviest: "Put The Funk Back In It," "Gimmie One Of Those," "Stay This Way" and "Sphynx."

LENNY KRAVITZ

Mama Said

(Virgin, 9247 Alden Dr., Beverly Hills, CA 90210)

In the same way that people said Springsteen was copping Dylan, people are saying that Kravitz is copping Lennon. As the Boss later proved with a larger-than-life road show and his own persona, Lenny Kravitz is proving himself with a personal, heartfelt sophomore LP that is filled with pop/rock/soul nuggets that hold up, listen after listen, despite the scrutiny of retro naysayers. Perhaps his greatest feat is creating an album that depends heavily on his own tribulations in lyrical content while still speaking with a relevancy for the masses—not unlike I Do Not Want What I Haven't Got. That relevancy comes with the addition of other songwriters, arrangers and musicians—most notably Guns N' Roses' Slash on the churning title track and Sean Ono Lennon adding piano (and not helping to distance Lenny from John) on the ballad, "All I Ever Wanted." Also on the subject of progression is the addition of more tracks utilizing brass, woodwinds, strings and especially Kravitz's amazing falsetto; "It Ain't Over 'Til It's Over" melds Earth, Wind & Fire with latter-day Beatles, and "What Goes Around Comes Around" recalls Curtis Mayfield bopping around the stage in Superfly. Progression through regression might not be the artistically correct mode of operation, but Mama Said simultaneously makes a case for the sheer enjoyment of listening to classic pop redux, and the multi-faceted talent of Lenny Kravitz.

(Touch And Go, P.O. Box 25520, Chicago, IL 60625/312-463-8316)

Slint's second LP has the same clean, efficient rumble that so endeared us to Tweez, but the sedan has been souped-up into a ruthless racing machine, Slint's power under the hood having increased tenfold. Slint makes music free of human foibles, toying about with passages that are crystalline pretty, geometrically diagrammed and staggeringly slow. Muttered mouthings that were part of the dry, airless atmosphere of the last LP have burst into meek, tentative singing here, with vocalist Brian McMahon still more the wry observer than impassioned participant. As in the similarly unhurried solos of H.P. Zinker, there's a subverted strain of an old bell-bottomed Valkyrian guitar lord, but Slint strips away any romanticism and mystery, their only excessiveness lying in their stark and unassailable song progression. Listening to a Slint song is like watching a nature program on beasts of prey—brittle, icicle guitar leads flit harmlessly through the songs, and just when the wandering seems interminable, down come the riffs, pouncing like a big electric cat with amplifiers unsheathed. Slint has tragically broken up, the musically nomadic bunch of Kentuckians scattered to the tradewinds, but dare we say this was their most aerodynamically sound project to date. Swan songs: "Breadcrumb Trail," "Good Morning, Captain" and "Washer."

Three Men With The Power Of Ten

(Priority, 6430 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028/213-467-0151)

Though the Geto Boys might hold high the blood-soaked title belt as the kings of "Splatter Rap," Los Angeles' KMC (means: Kaotic Minds Corruptin') could give them a run for their money in the L.A. terror-rap sweepstakes. At times KMC even makes Ice Cube seem kinda vanilla—they're undeniably the raging pitbulls of graphic rap. It's a hyper, pumped up, unrelenting style of rapid-fire assault and battery that doesn't even give you a chance to breathe, as KMC triple-teams the listener with their intense, pummeling three-way attack. Despite their whack attitudes toward violence and women, we're still struck by how harshly and intensely outspoken the KMC crew are, defining themselves in their own certain terms, unafraid to employ whatever words and images may suit their needs, no matter how shocking and graphic they might be to others. Definition of terror: "Terrifying Tracks," "Murder," "The Streets Are The Battlefield," "2-N-1" and "Grim Reaper."

KRONOS QUARTET Hunting: Gathering/Five Tango Sensations/ String Quartet (Nonesuch, c/o Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—The Kronos Quartet balances on the cutting edge of the modern string quartet, pushing frontiers and advancing boundaries in a ceaseless quest for a musical repertoire that reflects and refracts the challenging and expansive nature of modern times. These three releases may be considered somewhat of a milestone in the career of Kronos: At last, their music is being delivered into the realm of commerce with a concept in marketing that's as adventurous as some of the ensemble's own musical ideas. This set consists of three "singles," each comprised of one piece of music, listing at a special low price, and presenting a slightly different side of the challenging music of the Kronos Quartet. Kevin Volans' Hunting: Gathering picks through the many musics of the world, cramming over 20 different and distinct musical motifs into its short half-hour, pitting Western classicism against African harmonic ideas and ultimately striking bonds between the two. Astor Piazzolla's Five Tango Sensations is a joyous, sensual tango-twisted romp, from the tip of its cunning, punning title to the last lilting wheezes of its conclusion. Meanwhile, Polish composer Witold Lutoslawski's String Quartet is a jagged, ragged soundscape featuring brackets of ad-lib, improvisational space built right into the musical score. It's intriguing for the listener to play with these three pieces as if they were parts to a puzzle, listening to them in different orders and settings, making a hypothetical mini-concert series in one's own living room, juxtaposing their differences and contrasts, and finding new threads of continuity between the vastly different musical worlds that they explore.

TRAGICALLY HIP Road Apples (MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608)—There are rock bands, and then there are rock 'n roll bands, and Canada's Tragically Hip is poised to join the ranks of the world's great guitar-fueled rock and rollers. It isn't just hot-winded hyperbole to compare them to some of rock's most volatile guitar tandems like Keith Richards and Mick Taylor, or John and Tom Fogarty—when they're on, these guys are simply that good. Vocalist/frontman Gordon Downie is the kind of wiry, raw, jab-it-in-the-mainline singer who instinctively knows how to grab a microphone and take control of an audience, as scores of won-over skeptics who've seen the Hip live will attest. Recorded in New Orleans, the fivesome's second full album captures their boots-jeans-and-two-guitars approach to rock in all its simple, straight-shooting power and down-to-earth glory. Road

Apples is one of those albums where a song like "Three Pistols" is the first single not because it's the best song, but simply because somebody somewhere decided to put it out first. There's lots more where that came from, as "Little Bones," "Bring It All Back," "Cordelia," the Doors-y "The Luxury" and the soulful "Long Time Running" are all equally stunning showcases for the Hip's fiery rock 'n roll.

PHRANC Positively Phranc (Island, 14 E. 4th St., New York, NY 10012)—

Sometimes she's humorous, sometimes she's solemn; sometimes she's tender, sometimes she's biting. But always, she's Positively Phranc. With an acoustic guitar, frank lyrics and a discernible folk style somewhere between Suzanne Vega and Michelle Shocked, Phranc sings songs about things important to her socially (homosexual acceptance on "Why?"), personally ("I'm Not Romantic" and the "Barracuda" introduced "'64 Ford") and heroically ("Tipton," an ode to recently deceased female jazz musician Billie Tipton who posed as a man to launch a successful career, "Gertrude Stein" and "Hitchcock"). She brings her tales to life with a passionate voice, candid honesty and squeaky-clean image. Guest appearances from Syd Straw (the a cappella duet on the Beach Boys' "Surfer Girl"), Two Nice Girls, ex-X drummer DJ Bonebrake and Blaster Dave Alvin help Phranc expand the rootsy folk base established on her first two albums—more raucous pop, rock and punk elements are added to the pliable acoustic foundations. With Positively Phranc, this all-American gal fills another sparse, yet effective album for the non-conformist in all of us.

North Carolina's Blackgirls have lived the drama of the hopeless romantic and come back, smiles gleaming, faces shining, to sing about tension and catharsis using their musical training and rebellious spirit. The songs on Happy are spun of radiant melodies carried by the soaring voices of Eugenia Lee and Dana Kletter and the expressive violin of Hollis Brown. Nestled in the sound are jazzy piano forays and delicate guitars and mandolins, all blended with an understated beauty by producer Joe Boyd (R.E.M., Fairport Convention). Like the Throwing Muses and Salem 66, Blackgirls challenge existing musical ethics with an overt femininity, adding a touch of Joni Mitchell to the mixture. However, they veer from the rock standard, preferring to invent their own classical-cum-folk style. The absence of a rhythm section draws more attention to the melodies and words. Lee and Kletter's lyrics express frustration, religious confusion and the perennial ennui of the hopeless romantic, but carry a stronger sense of hope and happiness than earlier releases. Happy moments: "In The Room," "Car" (which especially invokes the evil side of Kristin Hersh), "Talk," "Tell You Everything" and the title cut.

SEA STORIES Wide Eyed And Dreaming (I.R.S., 3939 Lankershim Blvd., Universal City, CA 91604)—

Though they've been making music since 1985, Australia's Sea Stories made their U.S. debut with last year's Miller's Pond LP, exposing us to their fine songwriting and beautiful arrangements. Wide Eyed And Dreaming actually describes the music fairly well—it's easy to picture Simon Honisett and Penny Hewson, who make up the band's core, sprawled out under the Australian sun dreaming up songs. Simon and Penny's voices and strings—in the form of electric, acoustic and slide guitars and mandolins—take the forefront in the songs, with layers of organ, pedal steel and even some horns coloring in the sound. The swooning organ especially fills in songs like "Gone For Sure" and "New Mexico," giving them depth and bringing to mind the majestic sounds of Died Pretty. The slide guitars, mandolin and pedal steel don't actually make for a very folksy or country sounding record, as you may expect. Instead they're incorporated in the music in a way that's fresh and uplifting, producing a sparkling guitar-pop album in a pastoral setting. Other dreamy cuts: "I Told Her So," "Make You Mine" and "Milltown Flood."

CURLEW Bee (Cuneiform, P.O. Box 6517, Wheaton, MD 20906-0517)—

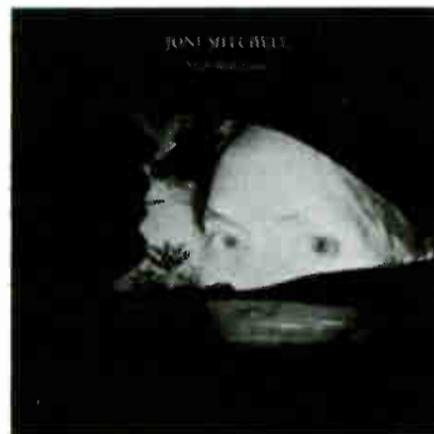

It seems that just about every Curlew review starts off by trying to define the band. Suffice it to say that Curlew is a five-piece instrumental/improvisational unit. Curlew's music constantly shifts contexts, challenging both the listener and, most likely, the band as well. Bee is no different that way; it is an album that combines sounds and textures leading to new realities, attitudes and/or fantasies. The music is full of brief fragments of close intervals, phrases that are rhythmic units in and of themselves, much like other genre-busting groups of this sort. Even though Bee seems a bit more structured than Curlew's previous recordings, the music still is full of stark, jagged-edged textures, a beatniks-on-speed kind of feeling. Bassist Ann Rupel and drummer

Pipin Barnett seem to have locked in fairly tight within the 12 tunes on Bee. Tom Cora, as usual, is bowing a ton of cello and saxophonist and Curlew leader George Cartwright makes the whole sound fluid and weightless. Ultimately, Curlew is able to call attention to the music without making a spectacle of itself.

JONI MITCHELL Night Ride Home (Geffen, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069)—

Entering decade four of music making, this poet/painter/photographer is still as timely and articulate as ever, if not a tiny bit wiser. After an album that featured everyone from Willie Nelson to Billy Idol, Joni Mitchell has settled into a musically more comfortable atmosphere on Night Ride Home. The wanderings of her open-tuned guitar, and the sparse arrangements on some songs (husband/co-producer Larry Klein, bass; Alex Acuna, percussion) gladly remind one of great past works, most notably Hejira. Always with something to say, her lyrics allow you to get the point without the chorus screaming "MESSAGE!" Storytelling with piercingly well-chosen details do the trick on songs like "Cherokee Louise," about a forlorn foster child, and "Ray's Dad's Cadillac," brimming with vivid teenage memories. Sadly, this album may go over the heads of AOR and is too damn good just to be played on those "light" stations that zombies listen to at work. So look smart with "Slouching Towards Bethlehem" from the apocalyptic W.B. Yeats poem. All songs are gems, especially: "Passion Play," "The Windfall" and "Two Grey Rooms."

WEATHERMEN Beyond The Beyond (Mute, c/o Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—

With a strong storm front passing through, this enigmatic duo of Chuck B and Jimmy Joe Snark III come up with a sarcastic collection of sample-heavy industrial dance waves that rain down more like Pop Will Eat Itself or Yello than bands of the Wax Trax jet-stream. Backed by a beat box montage created by sampler Snark, Chuck B rifles off hard-edged rapid-fire retorts that leave no sacred ground unturned (the liner notes make sure to point out that "there are no James Brown samples on this record," though). From the timely war commentary of "Heatseeker" to the social discourse of "Freedom Or Slavery," Mr. B hums direct hits at real life with an attitude that everybody is a victim of everybody else in one way or another. On their third album, with a dozen or so 12"s floating around, the Weathermen take black comedy to another extreme, putting more twists and turns into their brand of dance music than the hipster does tearing up the dancefloor. Also make a prediction on "Once For The Living" and the dual anti-love/music biz ridicule of "Muzak" and "Mr. Wonderman."

VINCENT HERRING Evidence (Landmark, 2600 10th St., Berkeley, CA 94710)—Evidence, the landmark debut from this 25-year-old Kentucky-born altoist, is a brilliant, to-the-point jazz excursion. Herring, with his clear, wide and deep alto tone can resemble, at times, Cannonball Adderley. But listen closer and you'll hear a sense of cheerfulness and adventurousness all his own. The sense of communication both within the band and between the music and the listener is tremendously inviting. Herring is backed superbly by young stalwarts Wallace Roney on trumpet, Mulgrew Miller on piano, bassist Ira Coleman and dazzling drummer Carl Allen. The program on Evidence is comprised of eight tunes, two of which were penned by Herring, and also includes Monk's timeless "Evidence" and Kenny Baron's "Voyage." Mulgrew Miller plays the range from catchy rhythmic figures to bursts of dazzling technique, always developing new and swinging ideas. Despite being the altoist and leader, Vincent Herring exercises commendable restraint and taste, providing exciting and incredible soulful support throughout Evidence.

BRUCE GILBERT Insiding (Mute, c/o Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—As the guitarist for Wire, and generator of several solo and side projects during that band's early '80s respite, Bruce Gilbert has honed a sound that mixes industrial chaos with pop and dance fascinations, an avant-pop hybrid that is as magnetic as it is curious. Insiding is a fully orchestrated example of Gilbert's talents; the two tracks featured are scores written in collaboration with British choreographer Ashley Page. "Bloodlines" was written for Page's recent production by London's Royal Ballet, its blocks of imagery at once exhilarating and entrancing as it slowly commands your attention; your imagination will try to come up with the scenario as the moods quickly shift. "Insiding," the soundtrack to Page's British television documentary of the same name, starts with a more forbidding preamble, only to have the grinding bleakness come full circle as it tumbles through you, keeping you too close to the action to estrange your wonderment. A full Wire album will be out later this spring, but until then, keep delving into this body of work—it will surely challenge you.

GANG OF FOUR/RUTS/EXTREME NOISE TERROR/ADAM & THE ANTS/PRONG The Peel Sessions (Strange Fruit, c/o Dutch East India, P.O. Box 800, Rockville Centre, NY 11571-0800/516-764-6200)—At the very least, Peel Sessions are always reliable satiation for those curious to hear a group in a setting not only of no-frills spontaneity but also legit studio fidelity. Now, there's plenty of ear-worthiness at a domestic rate from the vast truckloads of discs documenting the BBC's most significant contribution to rock. The Gang Of Four's LP-length, decade-old versions of already-recorded classics practically outdo the drier, tighter-clenched takes from Entertainment! and Solid Gold, and

catch this usually pursed-lipped group in a looser, more explosive kinesis. The Entertainment! tracks especially show the band snapping out their songs with a punk urgency borne of disgust, as charged up as The Clash was about that time. "I Found That Essence Rare," "5.45," "Not Great Men" and "Ether" emphasize their lean and hungry sound and drive out the armchair existentialism of some of their LP moments. The Ruts' moment in the Peel spotlight casts a beneficent glare upon their historical significance, with this cassette-only variation on what the Bad Brains have been lionized for. The Ruts' recordings have been scarce commodities in the U.S. practically since the original date of release (they're on the verge of being reissued) and we haven't noticed any Ruts tribute compilations, but these '79-'80 sessions function as a near-complete greatest hits selection. In one of the happier Peel Session occurrences, more punch and less polish than the official version results in only a trace of sloppiness, the band vitally distinct from both the typically less-rhythmic punk diatribes and less-visceral 2-Tone movement. Strangely enough, early Adam & The Ants also holds up sound as a schooner, this long-playing CD featuring some prime pre-irate Antitude. Mr. Ant, for a brief shining moment, could have been the punk rock Bowie; instead he miscalculated the amount of marketing frivolity that his music could sustain without becoming absurdly dated. On these tracks from the Dirk Wears White Sox period, he's extravagantly indebted to the glam age, but the music's smart and swift, with more guitar chunk than pop fluff. Extreme Noise Terror is grindcore at its most vociferous and truncated, this Peel Session about equal to their recent debut at exuberantly pushing the max in both speed and density. Plus, they shed new insight on grindcore's family tree with a credible Cockney Rejects cover. Prong, the U.S. representative of the batch, has already had a couple of the five tracks on their session pop up stateside, all the songs void of the band's usual monolithic presence, instead focusing on their world-class thrash capabilities.

JACKPOT EXTRA!

DREAM WARRIORS "My Definition Of A Boombastic Jazz Style" (5") (4th & Broadway-Island (UK), c/o Island, 4 E. 14th St., New York, NY 10012)—This Canadian duo of Captain Q and King Lou takes hip-hop's new school down the untraveled path of bebop jazz on their second single. Already a sensation in the U.K. (two music-rag covers to their credit), the Warriors might be putting De La Soul on the defensive with this incredible tune (and upcoming LP) complete with wheezing, old-time bebop—courtesy of an old Quincy Jones sample. The raw bonus cut furthers their soon-to-be mythical status.

SUPERCHUNK "Fishing" (7") (Merge, P.O. Box 1235, Chapel Hill, NC 27514/919-929-0711)—Like their ferocious live gigs, "Fishing" will sock you in the face harder than most songs Superchunk has recorded so far. The fire fueling the debut album has been distilled into one compact aural moment, with sparks flying as soon as the needle hits the wax. On the flip, "Cool" has the smart attitude of "My Noise"—"There's nothing new/Everything's borrowed/Everything's used... There's nothing new/But we know it's cool/And we're cooler than you"—but still flaunts the band's own finesse at creating a pop punk masterpiece on seven inches of vinyl.

DISTORTED PONY "Angel On A Haug" (7") (Peace Of Mind, 7325 1/2 Receda Blvd #646, Receda, CA 91335)—A heavy, sorrowful, enchanting band out of Los Angeles appears out of the smoke and steam. Guitar echoes of Hammer Party Big Black, and conjunctive bass fevers of Beme Seed, press the Distorted Pony concept into your face with power. "Angel On A Haug" jumps up and down, chanting and screaming, an entrancing flight of primordial beings from the most savage of republics.

SKULLFLOWER "Riff" (7") (Majora, P.O. Box 78418, Seattle, WA 98178)—Majora released the essential Sun City Girls LP last year and now have spread their wings on a flight to England, swooping down on a deadly flower. Where Spacemen 3 expounds upon dream music, Skullflower investigates the mystic existence of life beyond reason. The muddy production leaves you lost in a crowd—surrounded by the company of many faces, yet desperately alone. Skullflower is an irreversible mind-print, an inescapable cult of fevered intellectuals.

STRANGULATED BEATOFTS "Practicing To Be A Doctor" (7") (Forced Exposure, P.O. Box 9102, Waltham, MA 02254/617-562-0507)—Containing an ex-Drunks With Guns element, this band similarly grinds out loaded guns with drunken aggression. Side A is a repeated anthem on the evil play of small children, where pulsing bass mashes your eyeballs back into your skull. "Heeby Jeeby" on the flip sends the message from an incarnation of Jim Morrison depicted on the cover, with backwards masking, foggy, anti-techno keyboards, and a pleasantly bothersome confusion of guitars, beat and distortion.

FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION Freedom Of Expression (Klow, P.O. Box 120372, Nashville, TN 37212/502-842-0916)—The same mystic cosmological forces of misplaced geography and distance that made British art students struggle to play Chicago blues, or spawned thrash punk and hardcore bands in suburban Japan, must be hard at work in the general vicinity of Nashville, Tennessee. What we have here is a classic, textbook case of genuine misappropriated musical roots in the unusual saga of the band, Freedom Of Expression. This jovial six-piece ska and reggae ensemble melds swaying reggae and jumping ska with hints of American soul a la UB40, espousing an outlook and sound that's fresh and warm in spite of the band's home in the land of 10-gallons and pedal steel guitars, and despite being such an oppressive distance from the cosmic source of reggae emanations. Freedom Of Expression pulls it off by remaining loose, whether pumping out a juicy, reggae-soaked groove or rocking with a frantic, go-go-fied ska beat filtered (like Madness or the Specials) through the decidedly Anglo-influence of their new wave suits and relatively suburban ancestry. While they haven't gone so far as to cover "I Got You Babe," the good-time reggae music of Freedom Of Expression is still fun and free enough to show that you don't necessarily need all the sunshine, rum and splashing waves of all those glitzy airline ads in order to feel a little Jamaican soul.

port, NY 11731/718-441-5766) like a mixture of Lone Star Roadhouse regulars and Beck-ola period Jeff. While the vocals and structures are gruff, gritty and designed for honest, blue-collar stock (and as such are reliable if not sparkling), some captivating beauty and wonder billows forth from the guitar solos, which are numerous. The twin slides of Paul and Andy Zunno are grandiose and fluid, and when they aren't making Beck-like pronouncements their leads have the same cantering ease as the Allman Brothers. Snips of such fanciwork thread throughout this 10-song set (recorded live at the China Club)... The TAILS of Buffalo have a plushy-produced four song sampler, Floating World On Blue (Bungo, 56 Wellington Ct., Williamsville, NY 14221). Though they don't have the most elegant or distinctive vocal flair (someone listened to a little more Style Council than is healthy), their pop-as-pop-can-be craftwork is stable, consistent and doesn't vanish into a cloud of wimp or pretense. While some of those keyboard fills could be trimmed back, it takes talent to write Jellyfish/World Party-like melodies of vintage '60s warmth and good cheer (in a shade of whiteness between the Cowsills and the Hollies), and then give a bizarre Caribbean twist to the meticulous arrangement.

TUXEDOMOON The Ghost Sonata (Les Disques Du Crepuscule, c/o Lowe Profile, Studio 303, Panther House, 38 Mount Pleasant, London, U.K. WC1X 0AP/071-837-2655)—

"An opera without words" Tuxedomoon calls the soundtrack to the multi-media theater piece they originally wrote for an Italian arts festival in 1982 but have only now re-recorded (a long story) for release; "possibly the most psychedelic symphony ever waxed" their record label suggests. True, this ambitious collage of neo-classical strings, electronics, cabaret futura and taped musique concrete isn't even your average post-modernist score. To recap, the members of Tuxedomoon were early Ralph Records associates who relocated to Belgium in 1981 where their increasing Eurocentric forages could thrive in a mutually beneficial climate. Their first album since 1983 to feature the "classic" lineup of Peter Principle, Blaine L Reiningger and Steven Brown beside Winston Tong and Bruce Gedulig, The Ghost Sonata is a tint masterpiece of sorts, being an ultravivid, rhapsodic updating of film noir atmospherics that was cruelly born 40 years too late to complement Citizen Kane. Although the component parts overlap, The Ghost Sonata leans toward the overridingly elegaic, elegant swell of strings, resonating as if the last string section on earth—the title track, "Les Odalises" and "Music Number Two" are particularly outstanding—using the electronic enhancements, neo-cocktail jazz passages (on woodwind and piano) and added dialogue to provide a palpable sense of mood/scene-shifting momentum. The net result captures Tuxedomoon's rarified, quixotic melancholy at its peak—like Joy Division and Dead Can Dance, a melancholia that is less comforting than overwhelming, eschewing the comfortable gothic trappings of gloom for gloom's sake. A unique overspill of imagination, through a glass darkly.

CHERRYBLADES In-Dependence (Imaginary, 28 Hopwood Ave., Heywood, Lancashire OL10 2AX/061-643-2895)—Overseas' usual disappointment reserved for the way the U.K.'s volcanic House Nation uprising has solidified into a smothering indie-dance hegemony can't be pinned on the London-based Cherryblades—though In-Dependence sounds like a pre-emptive confession of a title—simply because they've taken another route in revising the era's kaleidoscopic matrix. In place of the post-Valentine psychedelic-swirl placebo, there's an edgy, (early) Pixieish abandon; "dance" is present only in spirit, not structure; dispossessing the drone-melody cadences are a set of less classifiable, if still reliably neo-'60s transfusions. Bypassing the effective tidal wave wah-wah suction that propels "Happy Families"—too traceable back to Ride—the opening "7:12:12" is a taut, twin-guitar surge—Eleventh Dream Day's kid English cousin—before "Everything Is"'s folk-pop hush is galvanized by similarly needling guitarwork. From here on in, the underlying influence lies in R.E.M. in all icons, except there's only a goose-chilling thrill to hearing how Cherryblades connect R.E.M.'s retro-futuristic hold on melody and closely spun lead/harmony vocals with the U.K.'s similar—if notably different at source—tendencies. Without being groundbreaking, "Down #1," "Face #1," "Soul" and "Morphine Wave" combine the dynamics and soul of jangle and post-hardcore rush with a gripping fervor; a panoramic production too. Can they take it further?

PITCH SHIFTER Industrial (Deaf, c/o Peaceville, 28 Howard St., Batley, West Yorkshire/0924-467-929)—

The in-Dante's-Inferno gravel-pit vocals; the relentless grunge-grind guitar plunge; "VASECT, SEETHE, DESPISE" written, like a revised Ten Commandments, on the inner sleeve; titles like "Gravid Rage," "Catharsis" and "Inflamator"... so far, so predictable for Midlands death-metallurgist trio Pitch Shifter, but Industrial is indeed a shift in pitch. For a start, the drum programming immediately lays a different infra-structure while its mid-tempo pulse—in other words, neither a funereal thud or adrenalin jackhammer—opens up gaping spaces (room to breathe on a deathmetal trip? Whatever next?) in the guitar. Rather than being smothered by flailing guitars, Pitch Shifter's riffs tower and collapse around your head like classic monolithic Black Sabbath monuments or neo-metal forgers Prong. Another comparative image is a metal-mechanized Sisters Of Mercy—Yorkshire-based too, remember—stricken with anthrax, especially "Brutal Canceroid" with its buried thread of goth-pop melody and stadia-level guitar shriek; "Inflamator," pop halitosis from human hell; and "Eye," which is almost the last word in beautifully leaden stop-start riffing drama.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

Despite the likes of Cherryblades, Pitch Shifter and Curve (see Singles), it's getting hard to avoid being worn down by the U.K.'s prevailing tendency to forge and follow. Has our prevailing market economy seeped into creative consciousness? The independent scene thrives in market share—and it's hardly coincidence—the underlying thread is ultra-conservative, using prepared languages rather than radical talking-in-tongues. Those non-believers—Tuxedomoon, say—are marginalized here in a way it would have been hard to believe would transpire in post-punk's early-'80s heyday. The cover version syndrome may have died down but the Soul II Soul dub-reggae drum backdrop is as freely available as oxygen, and if it's not indie-dance, then rap, reborn reggae, speed/death metal, post-My Bloody Valentine post-hardcore post-noise/pop (this post-game really is too easy), shambling-band pop or "pure" pop genres are just as generic. I can think of few British bands who go out on a limb like some Shimmy-Disc collaborators or even a Vermonster or Dustdevils. Already the makings of a self-consuming, self-limiting "pure" pop scene in Liverpool has been proposed by the music press, following the rehabilitation of The La's—The Top and the Real People are just two new bands with, you know, real songs, brash, white rhythms, a healthy, forward-looking regard for tradition(s), etc.—which is just waiting for the public to legitimize it. In the absence of provocative songwriters, tousling vocalists, changes in mood, outrageous advances, maybe I should act out that other hoary cliché—looking to opera and classical. Is "rock 'n roll" really Teen-Age Innocent after all?

SINGLES

The general disillusionment can be offset by just one thrill, and CURVE's state-of-the-art kleptomania can be forgiven everything because they reactivate Pop's potential delirium, making it new. Already a Melody Maker single of the week, the Blindfold EP lends Ride's guitar-swirl the Cocteau Twins' cotton-wool sensurround, Liz Fraser's lower-register swoon and the Mary Chain's pop classicism, with a brilliantly staged rap section. Sounds messy? Pop genius all the way (Anxious, c/o Best In Press, Unit 2C, Bouman House, 7 Greenland St., London NW1/071-284-1922)... More forgiveness: WHIPPING BOY's debut EP showed it was better at playing My Bloody Valentine than the originals, but its I Think I Miss You EP forges a perverse post-Cave cabaret-rock persona instead. "Highwayman" is an excuse to imagine Jim Morrison fronting Sonic Youth; the title track slowly builds up a strobe-guitar melt into a Stoogey finale; "She Makes Me Ill" could be Spacemen 3 with food poisoning and malice (Cheree, c/o PR/OD, Panther House, Mount Pleasant, London WC1X 0AP/071-833-5715)... Forgiveness (3): CATHERINE WHEEL's She's My Friend EP is the next definitive Ride-ridealike but they have their own sub-niche, namely a more concrete Byrds/Merseybeat teen-pop lilt. Thanks, baby Jesus (Wide Club, 50 Oak Lane, Norwich, NR6 7DD/0603-426-493)... This is outrageous: There's no room in this JULIAN COPE review for the words "Ride" or "Valentine." Anyway, "Beautiful Love" is bouncy, playful, sunsplashed, popchewing Julian with trumpets, so don't go expecting "Reward" (Island, 22 St. Peters Square, London W6 9NW/081-741-1511)... To end where we began (almost), you should already know and love CRIME & THE CITY SOLUTION's tremulous sea-shanty "The Dolphins And The Sharks," but not its three instrumental B-sides—"The Bride Ship," "On Every Train (Grain Will Bear Grain)" (an uptempo "All Tomorrow's Parties") and "The Sun Before The Darkness," a stunning, solemn Euro-soundtrack, which made me think—Tuxedomoon, Wim Wenders, creaking flagships, Jon Hassell and Apocalypse Now. Your turn (Mute, 429 Harrow Road, London W10 4RE/081-969-8866).

Definition Of Sound: Check this one out

Portions of this broadcast have been pre-recorded

R.E.M. Stage: Yeah, alright, Jesus Jones is at #1 again for the fifth week, but could it (he? they?) possibly hold off the powerful new R.E.M. LP. If this was a different publication, we might say that R.E.M. is one of the forefathers of PoMo. Their seventh true LP debuts at #9 for the #1 Breakthrough, kicks the beJesus out of the top Audience Response slot and comes in behind the Feelies as the #2 Adventure Pick. While the stage is set for R.E.M. to make a run for the top (all of its other LPs have gone #1, not counting Eponymous and Dead Letter Office), there might be a deteriorating base of support: While scoring a #4 in the East, Out Of Time is only at #18 in the South. Are the Southern stations sending out a message?

Coulda Been A Contenduh: Still gaining support is A&M's Kitchens Of Distinction (3-2; #4 Audience); look for "Quick As Rainbows," a song possibly about premature ejaculation, to be the second single. Sire-WB's Dinosaur Jr. (9-3) scores a #2 in the South and sets its sights on the top spot for next week. Despite losing its bullet by holding in the #6 spot, Eleventh Dream Day scored a #1 in the South. Bound for the Top 10: Rough Trade's Butthole Surfers (20-12), A&M's Feelies (76-13; #1 Adventure Pick for second week!), Sire-WB's Throwing Muses (#30 debut) and Sire-Reprise's Morrissey (106-34; #1 Retail!).

Indiedom: CMJ's Dialogue section has recently seen a lot of discussion regarding the age-old major/indie debate. First off, anyone who would claim that music sounds better on a major label or better when its self-produced, or on an indie, should reconsider being involved in music. Some major-label music sucks, some doesn't; some indie music sucks, some doesn't. However, college radio has always been allied with independents because of their underdog, D.I.Y. ethic and their recognition of quality regardless of the promotional dollars behind the artist. Therefore, here are some of the indie successes on the Top 150: Sub Pop's Beat Happening (81-36; #6 Breakthrough) and Tad (57-39); Wax Trax's Coil 12" (75-68); Atomic Theory's Boiled In Lead (107-82); Rykodisc's John And Mary (#110 re-entry); SST's Leaving Trains (147-106); and Matador's Teenage Fanclub 5" (chart numbers prohibited from appearing in this space until band signs with major).

CHART Call them geeks and they won't care, because everyone else already has. Yes, we're referring to Alias Records' Hypnolove-wheel, who hail from the NYC metro area. Their third LP, Space Mountain, hikes up 96-57 for the #11 Breakthrough. It's already on Top 35s at 63 stations and the interesting thing is the broad regional support: They're playing it from Maine (WUMF), to Louisiana (WTUL), to Nova Scotia (CKIC), to Oregon (KEOL).

ON THE CHART

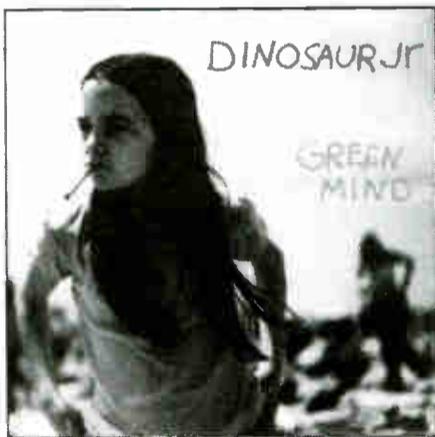

After a short one-week reign at the top, Sire-WB's Dinosaur Jr. (1-2) succumbs to the power of Sire-Reprise's misery-goat par excellence Morrissey (15-1). But watch out for WB's R.E.M., which begins a long chart stay at #23 and is sure to overtake the Mozzer next week. Charisma's Enigma takes the back seat, dropping 2-4, while Food-SBK's Jesus Jones holds onto #3 for the third week in a row and Rough Trade's Butthole Surfers ride up 6-5. The departure of Jane's Addiction and Front 242 from the Top 10 leaves room for the debuts of A&M's Feelies at #8 and Elektra's soundtrack for The Doors at #10.

Geffen's Joni Mitchell enters the chart at #12, while considerable upward movement is seen on these records: Def American's Black Crowes (21-19), Touch And Go's Jesus Lizard (24-21), A&M's Kitchens Of Distinction (28-24), Beggars-RCA's Darkside (41-27), Mercury's Material Issue (46-35) and EMI's EMF (55-38), who will be making their U.S. live debut this month.

Rhino's PETA benefit compilation, Tame Yourself, debuts at #39 while Beat Happening's first LP for Sub Pop enters the chart at a respectable #44. Metal Blade's Goo Goo Dolls (60-48) have been hovering around the second half of the chart since the beginning of the year—when will this band really break? A couple of 7"s entered the chart this week: Maximum Rock 'N' Roll's Bad Religion/Noam Chomsky split EP and Merge's Superchunk single.

This past Tuesday was a major release day, with R.E.M., Throwing Muses, Cowboy Junkies, Boogie Down Productions and the Godfathers all hitting the racks. Stay tuned. (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

FRESH!

KMC Three Men With The Power Of Ten (Priority, 6430 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028/213-467-0151)—After one listen to the debut release by KMC (Kaotic Minds Corruptin'), you'll quickly realize something pleasantly unconventional about this trio. You'll first notice the raw power of the group; the swarming collection of beats, scratches and sparse but effective samples. Then the content of the lyrics will send chills up your spine—they are delivered with terrifying aggression and cover everything from gangsta street violence ("Gangsters"), to gripping inner-city life ("Living In The Ghetto"), to unique freestyled rhyming (the title track, "Lyrical Tournament" and the butt-shakin' "2-N-1"). ROCC, Tee and Poison Ivey's lyrics are refreshingly free from meaningless cursing and phony attitudes which too often dilutes hardcore rap songs. KMC offers something different for the hardcore fans who want to be kicked in the face with something undisguised and totally slammin'. Other car pumpers: "Avalanche," the screaming guitar riff on "Murder," "The Streets Are A Battlefield" and "Grim Reaper."

VARIOUS ARTISTS Dance Now!! Arista's Dance Collection: Volume 1 (Arista, 6 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019)—Make that two dance compilations in the last three weeks! For whatever reason, Arista is tempting our ears with their first volume of some of the hottest and most successful club hits of recent months. With club smashes coming at a dime-a-dozen today, it's refreshing to have at your disposal a concentrated disc of can't-miss dance monsters. The tracks have some impressive chart and sales numbers to back them up—Shawn Christopher's #1 U.S. dance hit, "Another Sleepless Night," kicks things off with her soaring vocals and Mike "Hitman" Wilson's production expertise. Pop sensation Snap is naturally included with the tribal hit, "Cult Of Snap," while the catchy platinum-seller by Twenty 4th Street Featuring Capt. Hollywood entitled "I Can't Stand It" adds one of a few doses of hip-house. Also highlighting this release is the answer to Enigma's "Sadness Part 1" called "What Is Sadness?" by the scab group Devise. For non-stop club excitement, this comp. has it all.

GERARDO Mo' Ritmo (Interscope, 10900 Wilshire Blvd., Suite 1230, Los Angeles, CA 90024)—It starts with a line from Salt-N-Pepa's "Expression" and slides into a sample from Earth, Wind & Fire's "September"—not even 10 seconds into the body-rockin' "When The Lights Go Out" and Gerardo has already ripped off two artists. Get used to it because he's really good at it. We all know this stud from his chart-topper "Rico Suave," the song that's been on everyone's lips for weeks and if you're saying to yourself that it hasn't, you're lying. Face it, he's young, he dances, he's got a great body, he wears steel-tipped boots, he's got long hair, he wears headbands and leather jackets—by God, he even speaks two languages! And more importantly, the girls think he's h-h-hot! What more can you ask for in an entertainer for the '90s! If you're buying any of this you need help. Let me just quote a few lines from this masterpiece: "Roll

EPMD is certainly takin' care of business as they secure the top spot for the sixth week in a row. But don't get too cozy, because this week's highest debut is the full LP from Ed O.G. And Da Bulldogs, who are barking awfully close at the heels of the reigning duo. Returning in a big way to the Top 10 this week is C & C Music Factory (13-7), sweating it out after a slide last week. And new to the Top 10 is the soundtrack from New Jack City (18-10), a movie that's stirring up a riot at the theaters. Monie Love (10-9), Son Of Bazerk (9-8), Brand

Nubian (6-5) and L.L. Cool J (4-3) all move up one spot each, waiting for something bigger to happen. And now let us welcome to the charts, those tiny Motown boys Another Bad Creation (#27) and the "Boombastic" Dream Warriors (#31). This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Nikki D; 2) Definition Of Sound; 3) New Jack City; 4) Brand New Heavies; 5) Ed O.G. And Da Bulldogs; 6) Tony D; 7) L.L. Cool J; 8) Downtown Science; 9) Yo-Yo; 10) Master Ace; and at no extra cost 11) Genius. (BEAT BOX REPORTERS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) year thanks to their hybrid of bebop samples (something like bop-hop), happy sampling of bright '60s-sounding horns and flowing, mind-soothing rhyming from Captain Q and King Lou (only this group could possibly make "Lou" sound hip). Be prepared for one of the best releases ever.

DREAM WARRIORS "My Definition Of A Boombastic Jazz Style" [84 BPM] (4th And Broadway, c/o Island, 14 E. 4th St., New York, NY 11012)—The hype surrounding this group is spreading throughout the industry like wildfire and it's all true. The Canadian duo is gearing up to release their LP domestically, And Now The Legacy Begins—but before they do, they're releasing the second single following "Wash Your Face In My Sink" entitled "My Definition Of A Boombastic Jazz Style." This cut is by far one of the most innovative creations of the

HEARING IS BELIEVING

An absolute must-hear is RUN-D.M.C.'s new 12", "Faces"/"Back From Hell" [116/108 BPM] (Profile, 740 Broadway, New York, NY 10003/212-529-2600). The latest 12" from Run-D.M.C.'s fifth LP, "Faces" is a reverberating R&B-flavored jam with guesting from the Afros and an eclectic display of samples, beats and tricks from Jam Master Jay. But the real gem on this 12" is the ultra-slammin' B-side remix of "Back From Hell," which shows off Run-D.M.C. coming across harder than you've ever heard them before as they bring on the inseparable Chuck D and Ice Cube to assist with the rhyming. The three groups together trading rhymes makes for one of the most explosive combos of 1991...Two of today's most promising female MCs have finally got it together to release follow-ups to their debut 12"s. The first is by NIKKI D (the only female on Def Jam) called

"Daddy's Little Girl" [104 BPM] (Def Jam/RAL, c/o Columbia, P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY 10101-4450) and is sure to successfully follow up "Lettin' Off Steam" thanks to a sample of DNA/Suzanne Vega's "Tom Diner." Nikki drops one of the toughest rapping deliveries of any female MC. . . Or should I say almost any female MC? Ice Cube's homiegirl YO-YO is back with the suggestive "You Can't Play With My Yo-Yo" [100 BPM] (Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019). With Ice Cube and a groove that's got plenty of '70s soul and West Coast hardcore (what a perfect blend) backing her up, this dominatrix of sorts lets fly her in-your-face rhyming and serious attitude. The "Hip Hop Remix" on the B-side is incredibly hard as it loses the soul/disco samples and sticks to the funk. Other worthy releases include: DHS's "House Of God" (Hangman, c/o Rough Trade, 611 Broadway, New York, NY 10012/212-969-0576). Also known as Dimensional Holofonic Sound, this double turbo-dance 12" will more than satisfy. . . MC SWAY AND DJ KING TECH's "Follow 4 Now" (Giant, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91501); LUKE FEATURING THE 2 LIVE CREW's "Do The Bart" (Luke, 8400 NE 2nd Ave., Miami, FL 33138/305-757-1969); and SHEILA E's "Sex Cymbal" (Warner Bros., see address above).

Do I have a demo for you! If you think you have seen it all when it comes to rap combos, think again. There is always someone out there with something new or different to offer. From the rugged West Coast comes, get this, RAPPIN' GRANNY & DJ LEN (Fresh Management & Music, 382 N. Lemon, Walnut, CA 91789/818-998-2643). She's a 60-year-old MC who plays bingo when she's not droppin' surprisingly clear, aggressive and very well-delivered rhymes with the youngest of her nine children, DJ Len. His talents can easily be overlooked when listening to this tape, but rest assured, his DJ skills are all there. Their two songs, "Bow Down" and "Rappin' Granny," are simple, radio-ready jams with Granny's amazingly young-sounding voice dropping confident rhymes along with Len, that will have you chuckling in disbelief. The funniest thing is hearing her shout, "Yo DJ Len, bust a scratch for your mama."

READING IS BELIEVING

For any true rap fan, there has been a new book written by Bill Adler which is one of the most accurate and beautifully presented books on the history of rap entitled RAP: Portraits And Lyrics Of A Generation Of Black Rockers (Weasel Marketing & Promotion, 326 Lennox Ave., Suite 1, New York, NY 10027/212-876-4463). Along the lines of a Trouser Press (but without discography), the book presents, in chronological order with vivid pictures from Janette Beckman, the bios of the most influential and important artists/figures of the genre. From Kool

Herc to Young MC, this book is desktop material that will be referred to over and over again.

NEWS FROM THE FRONTLINE

Not even a year since forming the label, Bill Stepney has stepped down from his duties at SOUL (Sound Of Urban Listeners) Records because of creative differences between himself and Hank Shocklee. Bill and SOUL's promotional staff of Walter Dawkins, Lindsey Williams and Nathan Nazario have collectively shifted themselves to Bill's other project: Weasel Marketing and Promotion, which is currently working with rap artists Laquan and Lifers Group. Bill's SOUL responsibilities have been taken over by ex-Sony Retail Sales Rep Tim Olphie. Weasel's new address is 326 Lennox Ave., Suite 1, New York, NY 10027 and the phone is 212-876-4463. . . THOMAS MAPFUMO and the BLACKS UNLIMITED

THOMAS MAPFUMO Chamunorwa (What Are We Fighting For?) (Mango, 14 E. 4th Street, New York, NY 10012)—To see him onstage is to understand the power this man has. He is sublime serenity incarnate, totally absorbed by his audience and his music. Swaying on stage or roaming the audience with a mike in hand, he radiates energy without showy steps or scowling pedantics. In spite of this, Thomas Mapfumo spearheaded a revolution in Zimbabwe that has been an example for all of Africa, far from perfect, but attempting to be progressive and humane. His music was, and is still, the soundtrack for that movement. His own government has been the target of his lyrical barbs in the past, and remains so now. This new recording offers six more tracks of his now classic "chimurenga" music, a mix of Zim folk music, rock and reggae. Recorded in Zimbabwe by a Zimbabwean band, this music is straightforward, tough and, above all, danceable. (Mapfumo refuses to play to audiences seated in theaters.) As a musical experience, few popular musical forms come close. As political statement, few musicians have had the kind of impact on their society that Mapfumo has had. It is a shame, then, that nowhere on the new album do you get a taste of that strong political commitment—no songs in English (which is fine), no lyrics, nor even translations of the titles are provided in spite of the fact that this is supposedly "one of his angriest records yet." Since Mapfumo's music may be the only news you'll hear from Zimbabwe this year, I wish the producers and record company had seen fit to at least give us the headlines!

BAYRAM BOLGE TOKER Bayram (Music Of The World, P.O. Box 3620, Chapel Hill, NC 27515-3620)—

If the Erguner Brothers haven't sated your appetite for the music of Turkey, here's the next course. Bayram plays the "baglama," a lute type instrument, sometimes known as the saz. He is also a poet and a wonderful singer. On this recording, he presents both Sufi devotional music and Turkish folk songs, each one delivered with exuberance and skill. He can be dark and emotive in the Sufi song "Haydar, Haydar" or the funeral lament "Ag It." The instrumental lines are complex, giving rhythm to the long vocal lines. Some of the folk dance pieces here are as frenzied as any raga, and as beautifully and expertly played. While it never reaches the thundering roar of qawalwaal, it gives a feel for the smaller moments, a sort of front porch music from Turkey. You'll recognize in the strum and pluck of this music a similarity with modern artists like Fahey and Renbourn, an improvisational flair based on a solid folk footing.

DOUGLAS SCHEIDT Action/Reaction (Diffusion Media, 4487 Rue Adam, Montreal, Canada H1V 1T9)—

If you didn't take the opportunity to get in touch with the Canadian Electro Acoustic Society when I mentioned it a while back, you have missed out on some unusual, sometimes unsettling, music. Here's more reasons to

ON THE CHART

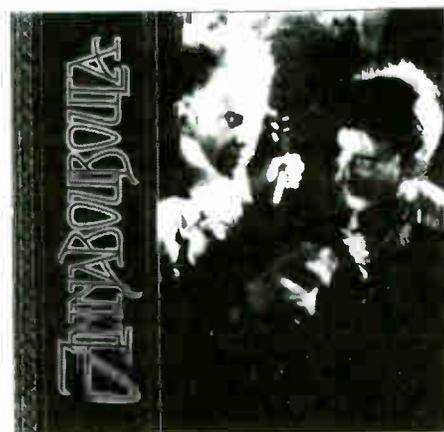

In spite of Bob Marley's nearly two-to-one hold on the top slot over his nearest competitor, there's still been a surprising amount of jumping around in the numbers right behind him this week: Aswad re-rises to the #2 slot, swapping with Bunny Wailer, while the Rhythm Safari comp., Boiled In Lead, Juluka and 3 Mustaphas 3 make jumps into our Top 10. And now it's time for one of our periodic plugs for some exciting albums we'd like to see doing better on the charts: the wonderful Heartbeat Compilations Fire Down Below, Musical Feast and Original Club Ska, All Akbar Khan, the third volume of Le Mystere Des Voix Bulgares and that great album from Ali Farka Toure. Hopefuls on the horizon: Loketo, Thomas Mapfumo and who knows, maybe even the Rebirth Brass Band. Be brave, give it a shot! (WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

write. Daniel Scheidt is a computer composer, using software as an instrument to perform on, and perform with. Through techno-wizardry that I frankly don't care to understand, he makes the computer interactive with percussionists, singers and all sorts of musicians' input. This is not pre-programmed "hearts of space" stuff, but truly daring, ever-changing adventures in the outside possibilities of sound. Some pieces skirt the edge of melody, like "Obeying The Laws Of Physics," which pits a percussionist against a program of synthesizers, creating sounds and changing the drum sounds in ways that are probably as surprising to the player as the listener. Another, "Norm 'N George," pits a trombone player against a hard disc and computer operator in a most remarkable, if sometimes dissonant, improvisation. Most unusual is a program that generates a highly developed, yet completely fictitious language, a story to be told for its emotion instead of its content. These are strangely beautiful compositions at times, not "relaxing" but very challenging. Action/Reaction is a truly collaborative effort between the composer and five musicians, and must be heard.

ANNABOUBOULA Greek Fire (Shanachie, 37 Clinton St., Newton, NJ 07860)—I'd rather set myself on fire than admit it, but I really like this new one by New York's answer to Greek disco.

They have gone full-tilt on "Greek Fire," cranking out acid guitars and crazy mixes. They held back on their last LP, but they let it all loose here. Me thinks a bit more parody is afoot here, or at least they communicate it better. The whole mix of synth and oud works well. "My heart is empty like the ashtroys you fill"? Yow! If you're going to do techno-pop dancefloor stuff, why screw around! The hell with art. DANCE!!

LEON ROSSELSON RosselSonGs (Fuse, 28 Park Chase, Wembly Park, Middlesex, England HA9 8EH)—British songwriter Leon Rosselson has something to say concerning just about everything, from contemporary mercantile tendencies to fried fast food. He's probably best known for "World Turned Upside Down," a song so often covered that you'd think you would have heard of Leon! Whether he's commenting on the religious racism of modern Christianity or lamenting that love is so badly and falsely depicted in music and the media, he is literate, acerbic and inciteful. If there is a "folk" version of Jello Biafra, Rosselson is it. He knows his stuff, and he never fails to have the facts firmly in hand when he waxes poetic. He has recently released a CD of his favorite songs from his many albums, titled Rossel-SonGs. It's 18 no-holds-barred, KO punches: "Stand Up For Judas" squarely places blame; "Whoever Invented The Fishfinger" points one at the stupidities of modern dining; "No-one Is Responsible" is a frightening "pass the buck" tale, an all-too-timely military and political satire. There is a particularly blunt, bare new recording of "World Turned . . ." as well. If the recordings aren't enough, Leon is also planning his first American tour for the spring. If you want to hear him or book him, call Janet Chayes at (203) 827-9336.

SAY SOMETHING

I wouldn't think I'd have to say such things, but as times get weirder, the need to remind the radio world of its responsibilities seems ever more important. At one local radio station (WNHU), DJs have been forbidden (!) to play Jello Biafra's "No Blood For Oil," because it doesn't support the troops. Sad times when free speech is considered un-American by the president of a university. At the IBS convention, someone at the "Radio In Time Of War" panel proclaimed that their station would only read reports from AP, because those were the only ones you could trust to tell "the truth." I sat through two other panels where I heard student leaders say that they couldn't take chances with music, because they might offend someone, or worse yet, not get service from the record companies. One offered the excuse that they had to direct their 5,000 watts to the six square blocks of "campus" because they had to serve the university community. To all of the above, get a carrier current and give your license to someone who can make use of it! . . .

Peace?

CRUCIAL!

CULTURE INCULTURE

CULTURE Culture In Culture (Heartbeat, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA

02140)—What's in a name? Well, in addition to describing and defining the bulk of the content and ideas contained within their ornate vocal trio work, for nearly 15 years, the name Culture among reggae fans has come to be regarded as virtually synonymous with the finest of vocals and messages that the world of reggae music has to offer. From the opening salvo of "Peace And Love," an outcry against violence in the dancehall, you instantly realize that this is indeed the work of the masters, and you are continually reminded of just why Culture is among the most celebrated of reggae's vocal groups today: They're leaders, fiercely dedicated to their craft, their music and their beliefs. The sound of Culture at its finest—songs like "Capture Rasta," "Five To One Strip Me" and "Soon Come"—show Joseph Hill, Albert Walker and Roy S. Dayes at the peak of their powers.

High Note And Gayfeet Label compilation. It's basically an early-Jamaican-music fan's dream come true: 18 rare, hard-to-find, long-lost sides from some of the earliest of reggae's most seminal figures, mastered from the original tapes in absolutely sizzling quality. By way of history, Mrs. Sonia Pottinger started the legendary Gayfeet label out of her record store in the '60s, and for a time enjoyed success as head of one of the period's most bustling local labels. Imagine being so successful that you had to start a second label, simply because radio program directors were becoming upset that too many records from your label were consistently charting on their playlists! But such was truly the case, and Mrs. Pottinger started the offshoot High Note label to partially prevent her own business from appearing to bottle up Jamaica's Top 10s—a frequently occurring situation which apparently made a few program directors nervous. Hats off to Heartbeat's Chris Wilson, who even goes further to treat us to some of the rarest of rarities in the reggae world: comprehensive, intelligent liner notes! Barber accurately and easily tells us roughly when each cut came from, who had a hand in it, a bit of background info and even uses actual quotes from Mrs. Pottinger herself to fill us in on what the music's all about. It's a miracle of sorts to hear this stuff and actually be able to figure out where it came from—keep up the good work, Heartbeat!

MIGHTY DIAMONDS Jam Session (Live & Learn, c/o RAS, P.O. Box 42517, Washington, DC, 20015/301-588-9641)—As if Culture In Culture wasn't enough, there's more fine vocal work awaiting the listener who cues up Jam Session by the Mighty Diamonds, a current RAS release from these vocalists, who've also been favorites of reggae fans for years. With support from such important names as Sly & Robbie, Dwight Pinkney, etc., it's no surprise that this album is such a feast of fine reggae. Try "Is This An Illusion" or the old-time harmonies of "Who Told You So" for starters, but don't just take our word for it—you should have no trouble finding your own favorites on this excellent LP.

HEARTBEAT HITS THE SPOT

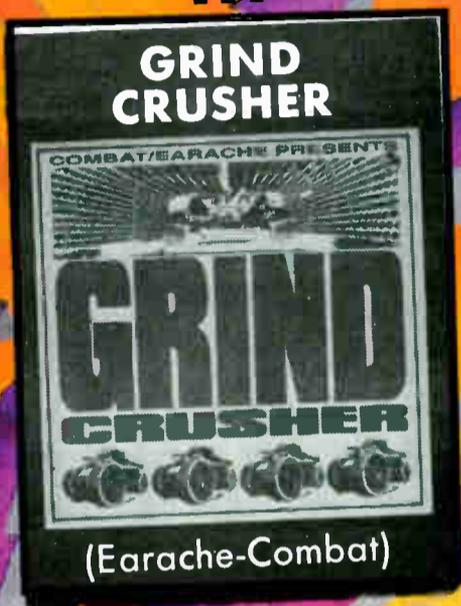

Once again, Heartbeat Records (address above) has rolled out more in their never-ending roster of fine reggae reissues. As a logical follow-up to last year's Observer Station, the 'Beat brings us Turbo Charge, a second collection of NINETY THE OBSERVER productions featuring the likes of Gregory Isaacs, Big Youth and the ubiquitous Observer All Stars. This second batch of more recent Ninety selections is again a superlative tour of one of reggae's most significant musical minds. Turbo Charge mostly emphasizes these newer, more up-to-date Ninety selections (some as recent as 1990) showing the undeniable fact that even today, Ninety exerts a strong and far-felt influence on the current reggae scene. My personal favorite among the latest installments in the Heartbeat series is Musical Feast: Mrs. Pottinger's

News from a Loud World

ARGH!!! Blackmail Contest #5: This two-part question deals with who these good 'ole boys were, and who they is today. Their hometown is in 'da land of heat, retired old folks and lost construction workers. Some say their beastial vocalist ain't got dat much to say, but we think dis here picture says it all. Ta win, call ARGH!!! with their former and current band name. Congrats to last week's winner, Bruce at Touch & Go, who correctly identified Godflesh's Justin Broadrick with his former band, Head Of David.

MINISTRY SIGNS WITH CRAZED MGMT.

Ministry, just one of many entities to bear the name of Chicago's monstrously prolific musician/producer/lunatic Al Jourgensen, has signed a deal with Crazed Management (Anthrax, Mind Funk, etc.), which suggests that the band plans to capitalize more thoroughly upon their burgeoning metal audience with their next LP, scheduled to be recorded this spring. Rumor has it that Jourgensen showed up early for a meeting at Crazed/Megaforce's plush Jersey offices, and greeted supremos Jonny and Marsha Zazula sitting indian-style in the parking lot in his underwear (reportedly, neither Z batted an eyelash!). In related news, it seems that a track Jourgensen recorded with management-stablemate Mind Funk guitarist Louis Svitek over Christmas break will surface on the next Revolting Cocks LP. If time permits, the two may collaborate on more material for the Ministry record. Oh—and Godflesh is still slated to record with Al next month!

INTERSCOPIC LIMBURGER MANIACS

Interscope Records might be a new and unfamiliar entity, but they're set to make a big splash in our Velveta-infested seas. The label will release Primus' third LP—brilliantly titled Sailing The Seas Of Cheese—on May 14th; you'll find the lead cut, "Jerry Was A Racecar Driver," featured on ARGH!!! It's a Loud Rock CD,

Vol. 4, included with our next issue. The Cheese album cover was done by vocalist/bassist Les Claypool (who also did the cover of Frizzle Fry) and reportedly features a similarly hilarious depiction of the album title. This summer, the label will also re-release the soundtrack of Bill And Ted Go To Hell. No matter what you think of the film, the soundtrack features newly-recorded tracks from Faith No More, King's X, Primus, Megadeth, Slaughter, Winger, Faster Pussycat, Kix and newcomers Neverland and Love On Ice, as well as a live version of the Black Crowes' "Jealous Again." The album is scheduled for a 4th of July release; the film comes ten days later.

N.A. IN ANY OF MANY WAYS

Nuclear Assault will begin recording their next LP later this spring, scheduled for release this summer through either In-Effect or I.R.S. (the band has an every-other-album deal with both labels that's so complicated that they're still not sure who gets this one!). In the meantime, both John Connelly and Danny Tilker are hard at work on solo ventures: John Connelly's Theory is currently recording their debut LP, Back To Basics, at Normandy Studios in Rhode Island (it's tentatively scheduled for a July release and will unquestionably come out on In-Effect), while Danny's The Brutal Truth (check the review of their demo a couple of issues back) have been playing local dates and seem likely to record their debut for Combat after Danny finishes work on the N.A. LP.

WHO'S ON FIRST?

As reported earlier, guitarist Jeff Murphy has left Obituary, but was replaced by original member Allen West in time for the band to play a set of Mexican dates. Murphy spoke with Minefield earlier this week and assured us that the split was more amicable than any of his many previous situations. The busy guitarist has recorded tracks on the upcoming Cancer LP, Death Shall Rise, and will tour Europe and Japan with the English-based band, but has left his future options—which may include a stint with Ft. Lauderdale's Monstrosity or a possible solo venture—open. More details as they unfold.

PLEASE DON'T FEED THE DEAD HIPPIES...

Paradise Lost, Halifax's (and maybe the world's) only death-metal-goth-hippies, are set to release their second LP, Gothic, through English-based Peaceville Records this month. Indeed, the sort of Stateside record deal is worked out.

LORDS OF ALL PLAGUES BLEED SICKNESS

Rapid speed metallers Morbid Angel have completed work on their second LP, charmingly entitled Blessed Are The Sick. The album, co-produced by the band and Tom Morris, was recorded at Morrisound Studios in their native Tampa, and features a change in sound. Although the new LP is anything but an "Altars Part II," the band has refined their sound for the better with a cleaner sense of power and brutality: the vocals are much stronger and the guitars much dryer. New material, as well as classic tracks from their aborted Abominations LP and Thy Kingdom Come demo, finally find their way to vinyl; the album also includes two instrumentals involving acoustic guitar and piano to astonishingly tasteful effect. The band is currently sweeping the country picking up shows here and there waiting for the album to push through the Earache-Combat domestic release bottleneck (their 1989 debut was released here for the first time last month!).

lads have taken the gothic elements of their first LP to an ungodly extreme on this self-produced outing, including operatic vocals, keyboards and string samples. Titles include "Dead Emotion," "Shattered," "Rapture," "Eternal," "Falling Forever," "Angel Tears," "Silent," "The Painless," "Desolate" and a title track. The band is planning a U.K. tour, but a visit to these shores seems unlikely until some

Rick Rubin will produce the next Red Hot Chili Peppers LP; currently in pre-production... Aerosmith will soon begin work on their next LP; plans call for the band to begin recording (again) with producer Bruce Fairbairn in Vancouver in May or June. A

EXPOSED!

PERHAPS THE ultimate twist in the ever-evolving and ever-incestuous "Seattle scene," Temple Of The Dog is a side-project involving vocalist Chris Connelly, drummer Matt Cameron (both of Soundgarden), guitarist Stone Gossard, bassist Jeff Ament (both ex-Mother Love Bone and currently piloting a new band apparently named Mookie Blaylock—after the point guard of the New York Nets) with guitarist/friend Mike McCready. Their self-titled album is devoted to a subject near and dear to all of them: Andrew Wood, lead singer of Mother Love Bone and roommate of Cornell, who died in March of last year of a heroin overdose at the ripe old age of 24.

The album is as good as—and has significantly more AOR potential than—anything either band has produced, Cornell's freedom from his sometimes confining Soundgarden sexgodhead image exposing more sides to his musical talent than his past work even suggested. Sympathetic but laden with some harsh drug imagery, the album manages to evoke its inspiration without ever getting corny or tasteless, which is a hell of an achievement in itself.

Soundgarden is scheduled to begin recording its third album next month, and it looks like two different bands will emerge from MLB (read on). Matt wanted to make just one thing perfectly clear: "Chris and I have not formed another band! We're still completely dedicated to our main band—Soundgarden—and that's what we love the most!"

ARGH!!!: Can you give a basic who/what/when/where/why?

Matt Cameron: The album was pretty much written by Chris—there are a couple of songs that he and Stone wrote the music for, but essentially he wrote all the lyrics and most of the music. I would assume that most of the stuff was inspired after Andrew died, but some were actually written way before that—there are a couple of songs on the record that Chris had done on his four-track machine back in '87 or something. We recorded the album in November, we had like two weeks up at London Bridge [Studios in Seattle], and A&M gave us some money to record it, so we could block out a fairly good chunk of time. Essentially we wanted to get more of a band approach on tape, instead of taking a whole lotta time in the studio and getting every part perfect and all that stuff. We kinda wanted to get a feeling down on tape, instead of all this meticulous recording.

Were any of these songs demoed for Soundgarden or played live?

No, but Chris wrote a lot of the music during the last tour. Once the seed of this project was planted in his head, he started writing music for it pretty much right away. From there, it kinda turned into more of a collaboration/band approach.

Has Mike McCready played with any bands we've heard of?

No, not really. A couple of real ugly kinds of bands who wore makeup...that I won't really mention! But he's a really, really good player, and we did one song with a singer named Eddie Vedder, and those four guys (McCready/Gossard/Ament/Vedder) are in a band called—I believe—Mookie Blaylock. We just did a video for "Hunger Strike," and that was the only sensitive thing I was concerned about: just how my band is gonna be represented in a video. The director was pretty cool about that, and did kind of a separation thing which I thought was essential—like at first

TEMPLE OF THE DOG

Interview by Jem Aswad

Members of Soundgarden and Mother Love Bone record an album in memory of Andrew Wood.

Soundgarden: Kim Thayil, Chris Cornell, Matt Cameron.

Chris and I are paired off, and the other four guys are paired off, and then they bring us all together for a couple of scenes. I haven't actually seen it yet, but the director seemed pretty sensitive to the whole issue.

So you're going pretty far to avoid anyone thinking that this is a full-time new band.

Yeah, it's like if people are gonna see a video with Chris singing after there's been kind of a lag in Soundgarden product, then I felt that it would kinda confuse things.

Yeah, but it's confusing anyway with—[Laughs, completing my sentence]
All the incest that goes on up here!

The Temple album is such a stylistic departure for both bands.

Well, Chris is essentially a very versatile songwriter. He's got a lot of stuff that hasn't been played or performed live by anyone, and that's not to say that it wouldn't necessarily fit Soundgarden, but he writes in a lotta different veins.

Mother Love Bone

And how much does this album point to the direction the next Soundgarden album will take?

I would say very little. The next Soundgarden record is a complete collaboration, as far as

The LP, Dawn Of Possession, should see release this summer. Colin will begin work on the new Carcass LP at Slaughterhouse next month. Rumour has it that the yet-titled LP may feature artwork by H.R. Giger. No doubt blood, guts and fermented rancid

All kidding aside, this means that RCA has finally gotten a decent loud rock person—two, in fact, as Phil recently hired Joanne Grand to his ever-expanding SRO posse.

GRINDCRUSHER Various Artists (Earache-Combat, 187-07 Henderson Ave., Hollis, NY 11423/718-740-5700)—Compilations are a weird thing. The way I see it, there are amazing ones, disasters and darn few in between. What makes excellent compilations are fluent and logical sequences (production and music-wise), rare or unreleased tracks and a diverse selection that ties a natural thread through the whole scheme. The original import of Grind Crusher featured fourteen tracks (on CD) and pretty much pointed out the direction Earache was heading, while touching just a tad on the past. This updated compilation features twenty four tracks, past and present, from Earache and its two subsidiary labels (Necrosis and Staindrop), and indeed runs the original into the ground. Although certain tracks are from the first compilation, this one highlights the diversity and genre-breaking ability of the label—everything from the hardcore blast of the Filthy Christians, Intense Degree, Sore Throat and Heresy to the industrial metal of Godflesh and Sweet Tooth, to more traditional speed-metal sounds (Hellbastard and Repulsion) to the humor-core of Lawnmower Deth, Old Lady Drivers and Spazztic Blurr to the grinding brutal sounds of Morbid Angel, Carcass, Terrorizer, Bolt Thrower, Napalm Death and Entombed to the jazzcore work of John Zorn's Naked City. In a nutshell, I'd say just about everything one could consider "extreme" is crammed onto this 73-minute disc. Take your pick! (KS)

HEATHEN Victims Of Deception (Roadracer, 225 Lafayette St., Suite #407, New York, NY 10012/212-219-0077)—Over the past few years, the proverbial "Bay Area thrash" sound has been copied, cliched, capitalized and marketed far beyond its worst possible extreme. The thing is, most folks forget who originally crafted the sound some five or six years ago, and made it what it is today—an essential and identifiable strain of modern loud rock. In retrospect, I'd say bands like Exodus, Death Angel and Heathen built the road for the army of generic imitators that have almost killed the mighty Bay-beast. After their fine debut Breaking The Silence, Heathen drifted into the bad-luck hotel for some three or four years, falling out with their label and management and swapping more members than auto parts on a bad Fiat. Granted, this is their first effort in over four years, yet Heathen '91 retains the tenacious bite that had previously poised them for major success. Victims Of Deception is crunch beyond crunch, riff after riff, hooks and more hooks, solid lead guitar work and crisp vocals—just about everything one could ask for to place a classic outfit far above a genre that seemingly is past its farthest possible limit of unnecessary bands. I dream of the day I'll see a Bay Area Polka Scene. Shatter "Hypnotised," "Heathen's Song," "Fear Of The Unknown," "Prisoner Of Fate" and their cover of Rainbow's classic "Kill The King." (KS)

BULLETBOYS Freakshow (Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505-4694/818-846-9090)—Even though they were signed only nine months (and a mere four gigs) after their formation, Bulletboys' first album of tasty power rock showed a potential that almost all others in the L.A.-style lacked. Frontman Marq Torien revealed one of the most powerful and distinctive voices to arise in a long time (maybe since David Lee?), while Mick Sweda's tasty guitar work matched the muster of Marq's voice. Well, 386 days of touring and almost three years later, the 'Boys do not disappoint with their sophomore outing. Again, veteran producer Ted Templeman (who's worked with everyone from Van Halen to Montrose to the Doobie Bros.—the Doobies' old percussionist plays on this LP!) streamlines this solid quartet with arrangements lively enough to rattle your chain without going off the deep end. The powerful bluesy songwriting is still the main course, but here is expanded into a scorching emotional tone—and takes a totally unexpected turn with a daring cover of Tom Waits' "Hang On St. Christopher" that (amazingly) not only isn't a total disaster, but is actually a pretty swank percussion-laden slowgroove that suggests all kinds of possibilities for the band. Although we still get the feeling that these guys still haven't reached their potential, this album blazes a refreshing path thru yo' earhole. Smooth up "THC Groove," "Do Me Raw" and "Freakshow." 360's Illuminated (Link, c/o Hollywood, 500 S. Buena Vista St., Burbank, CA 91521/818-560-5670)—Formerly known as the Bardots, Boston's 360's combine the groove, grind and menace of the first Pretenders LP with an equal dollop of sweet pop verve and kitchen-knife-wielding psychosis. While Audrey Clark's tough/sexy vocals are the obvious focus, what really makes this band exciting is its multi-layered wall of guitars, thrust way up in the mix by producer Sean Slade (Dinosaur Jr., Buffalo Tom) to crushing effect. Perhaps most impressive of all, the band lays down 11 strong songs in just over half an hour, a strong case for our fervent "just because a CD can hold 80 minutes of music doesn't mean that anyone would want to listen to you for that long" argument. The band's more "alternative"-oriented bent is the only reason Illuminated isn't a picks. Spin "Dead-pan Superstar," "Texas," "Death Defies Me," "What We Are," the poppier "Garden Of Departure" and "Heroina." (JA)

NOCTURNUS The Key (Earache-Combat, 187-07 Henderson Ave., Hollis, NY 11423/718-740-5700)—Hailing from the swampy depths of Florida, Nocturnus brings a much needed distinction from the rest of the death bands. Although the wailing speed-guitar and rhythmic complexities are there, what separates these guys from the rest of the pack are the spiritual-like, eerie melodies and the punctuation of keyboards, not to mention the conceptual ideas. The basic idea of The Key is a pseudo-song cycle in which the listener can follow the songs together or separately. The storyline is about a future resident who blames organized religion for the ills of the Earth and travels back in time, slaying the baby Jesus and assuming rulership of the Roman Empire. [Sounds like an average day in Florida to me—ed.] Maybe this isn't Shakespeare, but it's nice to hear some thought being put into music. All in all, a surprisingly well done album, especially for a debut. (RJ)

SLINT Spiderland (EP) (Touch And Go, P.O. Box 25520 Chicago, IL 60626/312-463-8316)—Evolving from the ashes of Kentucky's Squirrel Bait, Slint specialises in slow riffs that are as noisy and repetitive as they are melodic and effective. The six-song Spiderland contrasts sounds and textures, maintaining certain obvious influences (H.P. Zinker among others) while avoiding any one for any extended period of time, resulting in a fresh, unexpected sound with every track—to pin them down to one particular genre would be ill and serve them no justice. That said, Slint aren't "industrial metal" or

"funk metal" or "alternative metal" or even "metal," for that matter. However, "Breadcrumb Trail," "Nosferatu Man" and "Good Morning, Captain" will satisfy most all adventurous loud rockers. (KS)

SACRIFICE Soldiers Of Misfortune (Metal Blade, 18653 Ventura Blvd., Tarzana, CA 91356/818-981-9050)—Available on Canadian import since late last year, for a more thorough review of this LP, dig through your carefully-organized collection of back issues of ARGH!!! to the Dec. 14th ish, when this album was on the cover. As predicted there, Soldiers has been picked up by Metal Blade for Stateside release: it's the second effort from a band referred to by many as "Canada's answer to Slayer," yet finds them abandoning the speed-for-speed's-sake mentality and growing into a complex, highly accomplished musical force (despite some shades of Nuclear Assault). Bring "As The World Burns," "Pawn Of Prophecy," "Truth" and the title track to the altar. (KS/JA)

CYCLONE TEMPLE I Hate Therefore I Am (Combat, 187-07 Henderson Ave., Hollis, NY 11423/718-740-5700)—Evolving from the same scene as Zoetrope and combining a bunch of ex-Znwhite members, Cyclone Temple finally seem set on legitimising the Midwestern speed metal scene. I Hate Therefore I Am is a crunchy heavy guitar-oriented affair that for the most part seems content with reminiscing rather than innovating. There's certainly nothing wrong with that as long as it's done properly: not stepping too hard on any one influence, heavy n' hooky and recorded with an undeniably crushing production. All are present on the Cyclone debut, mostly due to founding member Greg Fulton, whose solid guitar work carries them far above the average thrash outfit. Whirl "Why," "Words Are Just Words," "March For Me, Die For Me" and "Silence So Loud." (KS)

METAL CHURCH Human Factor (Epic, P.O. Box 4455, New York, NY 10101-4455/212-445-4321)—The roots of Metal Church go all the way back to '81, when a Washington State native named Kurt Vanderhoof moved to California and hung with early shakers of American metal like (pre-Metallica) Lars Ulrich, Brian Slagel and Ron Quintana. While Kurt ceased to be a touring member in '87 (he is still a studio/songwriting member and is also a full-time member of Hall Aflame), Metal Church's fourth album still bears his unmistakable mark: double-bass-drum pulse, doom-laden riffs, Mike Howe's menacing snarl (which actually sounds a lot like that of original MC vocalist David Wayne, who now leads Howe's ex-bandmates in Reverend—Northwest incest at its best!), and the streak of classic metal that runs through every song they've ever done. Lyrically, Human Factor rumbles across a plethora of topics both political and personal, among them child abuse, the pitfalls of a band's life ("Date With Poverty," "In Due Time") and even the lack of originality in rap (the title track). Also dig "Betrayed" and "Flee From Reality." (JA)

REISSUE HELL: THE SEQUEL

There are three kinds of reissues: the ones that make you wonder why anyone bothered, the ones that you listen to once and file away forever, and the ones that you play constantly at brain-melting volume. This week, we've been blessed with several of the latter type...

QUEEN Sheer Heart Attack/A Day At The Races/News Of The World (Hollywood, 500 S. Buena Vista St., Burbank, CA 91521/818-560-5670)—One of the greatest and most successful rock bands in history, Queen was formed in 1971 in the only place such characters could possibly unite: an upper-class British university. Merging rock with a world of other influences (classical, opera, vaudeville) and an army's worth of vocal overdubs, Queen's magic sprung democratically from the compliments and contrasts in the four members' individual styles (which are pretty damned diverse on their own): frontman/pianist Freddie Mercury's sweet lullabies and backstreet thuggery, guitarist Brian May's rock raunch and technical wizardry, drummer Roger Taylor's metallic growl and piercing falsetto, and bassist John Deacon's poppier sensibility (the three first-named sing; all four have individually written #1 singles). Although virtually every '70s band thought it was making art, Queen was one of the few that actually did.

This mouth-watering first batch of catalogue reissues includes the band's third, fifth and sixth LPs (spanning 1974-77; we're ignoring '82's dreadful Hot Space), and shows the obscene excesses of '70s rock put to the best possible use, resulting in music that is lavish, expensive and mind-bogglingly pretentious, but above all tasteful: almost nothing's there that doesn't need to be. The CDs remix/remodel without making the albums sound artificial or out of their original element, and are the most natural sounding archive items we've yet heard (altho' they're cruel to Taylor's sometimes uneven drumming), and the original artwork is embellished with rare (Maltese, Taiwanese) single sleeves and period photos.

The fittingly-named Sheer Heart Attack shows the wild variations in the band's first two albums coming into a more cohesive and accessible whole that would be fully exploited on its successor (A Night At The Opera), and is easily the most hard-rocking LP of Queen's career. The whole album's amazing, but highlights include "Stone Cold Crazy" (presented in both its original mix and a new Michael Wagener remix, which boosts the drums and guitars and puts the song on sonic par with Metallica's cover), Mercury's skulking "Flick Of The Wrist" and anthemic "Lap Of The Gods Revisited," and May's staggering "Now I'm Here" and "Brighton Rock"—the latter includes a scorching guitar solo and lyrics whose euphemistic "Jimmy/Jenny" characters predate rap slang by at least ten years! Throughout, the groundbreaking massed harmonies and May's brilliantly intricate guitar thrusts and caresses astound.

Unfortunately, 1976's Day At The Races found ambition giving way to excess as the band fell over themselves trying to out-do the chart-topping Opera, which had been the most expensive album ever made until it was topped by Races! However, it does contain Mercury's breathtaking "Somebody To Love" and May's raunchy ode to teen lust, "Tie Your Mother Down" (the CD adds a Matt Wallace remix for which he should be killed—sorry dude, but you made one of my favorite bands sound like Poison!).

The follow-up, News Of The World, was much better on all counts. You all know "We Will Rock You/We Are The Champions" (such a big hit that my high school's marching band—which, incidentally, included future Cinderella drummer Fred Coury!—played it), but lesser-known classics include May's sweeping "It's Late," Mercury's swank "Get Down Make Love," and Taylor's turbocharged homage to punk, "Sheer Heart Attack." The CD adds a "Ruined by Rick Rubin" remix of "We Will Rock You" that I think is hilarious but everybody else seems to hate.

Although Metallica's cover of "Stone Cold Crazy" may have been many a youthful headbanger's first introduction to the wonders of Queen's early work, those albums were an enormous influence on many of today's loud rock luminaries, and Queen songs have been covered by everyone from Hallow's Eve to Mind Over Four to Henry Rollins to Nine Inch Nails. Although they haven't had a big hit in the States since "Under Pressure," here's some perspective: Queen has sold more records worldwide than Kiss, they drew the world's biggest-ever paying audience, and they were listed in the 1980 Guinness Book Of Records as Britain's highest-paid "executives"! Can't wait for the next batch. (JA)

THIN LIZZY Dedication (Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019/212-333-8000) —Formed by bassist/vocalist Philip Lynott (a black Irishman) and drummer Brian Downey in 1971, Dublin's Thin Lizzy was one of the greatest rock bands ever. Lynott's songs were heavy but soft and sensitive, his smooth, soulful voice and lyrical skill adding depth and dimension to the band's trademark tasteful twin-guitar fury. Perhaps more interesting to the metal-minded, Lizzy was a breeding ground for a generation of great guitarists: Gary Moore had three separate stints with the band and John Sykes (White Snake, Blue Murder) had a three-year hitch, but almost all of Lizzy's classic material involved the lesser-known Brian Robertson (later of Motorhead) and mainstay Scott Gorham. This staggering 18-track retrospective compiles almost all of the band's best songs into a sweeping chronological tour-de-force that breezes over all weak points and shows how truly awesome they really were. Virtually everything on here was a "hit" in one form or another: the band's 1971 debut single "Whiskey In The Jar" (a Top 5 U.K. hit, but the next seven flopped!), the brace of albums that led up to the band's 1976 breakthrough LP, Jailbreak, which included the worldwide hit "The Boys Are Back In Town," the superstar-era and decline (no post-1980 material), which found Lynott sinking deeper and deeper into the substance abuse that finally killed him in 1986. The title track is a song for which Lynott recorded bass and vocal tracks just before his death, and with backing material recorded recently by Downey, Gorham and Moore, it fits in perfectly with the rest of the classics. Drop the laser anywhere—you can't go wrong. (JA)

GRAND FUNK RAILROAD The Capital Collectors Series (Capitol, 1750 N. Vine, Hollywood, CA 90028/213-462-6252) —In the pre-Kiss/aeoep days of my youth, all the cool older kids were into Alice Cooper, Humble Pie and other metal-before-it-was-called-metal, but there was nuthin' like the excitement when word got out that Grand Funk Railroad was comin' to our town to help us party down (my parents wouldn't let me go). Almost forgotten now, in the early '70s Grand Funk was, well, outtasite: filling the boogiebluesy power-trio gap left by the dissolution of Cream, they were hated by critics but so popular with the masses that they headlined Shea Stadium and ran up a string of ten consecutive gold albums (as many as Zeppelin). Aided by skillfully-chosen covers as well as ridiculously long originals, the Funk was monstrously prolific (an album every six months for seven years!), creatively peaking around '72-'73 with the titanically overplayed We're An American Band and E Pluribus Funk, which included the excellent "Foot-stompin' Music," an amazing feat of microcondensed jamming that crams a verse, three choruses, a guitar solo, organ solo, a five-second drum solo, a call-and-response part and a dramatic finale into three minutes and 45 seconds! Predictably enough, the Funk burned out fast and split up in '76, with frontman/main songwriter Mark Farner going solo and the others forming a new band imaginatively named Flint, after their Michigan home town (well, it worked for Boston and Chicagol). While much of their material has not aged well, this bad-ass compilation contains the band's best material and a boss 16-page booklet that brings back the whole era in a rush of boogified riffs, four-inch collars and leather headbands. Tell it like it is, man: Grand Funk was HOT. (JA with three solos by James Lien)

PEEL SESSIONS AVALANCHE

The Peel Sessions (Dutch East India, P.O. Box 800, Rockville Center, NY 11571-0800/516-764-6200)—Before you listen to any of the many releases in The Peel Sessions series, you should know: A) They contain sessions recorded for a radio show by legendary BBC dj John Peel, for over 25 years perhaps the single most influential radio programmer in the world. B) They were recorded quickly and intended for their demi-bootleg status, and consist of demo versions of officially released material as well as outtakes and covers of both serious and not-the-slightest-bit-serious persuasions—in other words, less than LP quality, but a collectors' wet dream of subsidiary recordings by everyone from T. Rex to the Buzzcocks to Carcass. At any rate, a steady sampling of the vast Peel archives has been released in the U.K. by Strange Fruit Records, and has finally been picked up domestically. Now that we never have to explain the above again, we'll get on to the first loud rock-oriented batch of releases... PRONG'S outing was recorded in early '89 and features four Force Fed-era tracks that are rawer and more painful than the original releases, and even rival the songs on last year's excellent Beg To Differ... The 14-track/23-minute assault of EXTREME NOISE TERROR is available only on cassette, and includes two sessions recorded two-and-a-half years apart with almost completely different lineups (the early session features Napalm Death's Mick Harris on drums), ripping through a brace of severely grinding originals as well as a strange Cockney Reggets cover. Recommended for folks that dig the likes of Doom, old Discharge and Heresy... Heading off into punkier realms, the awesome nine-song DAMNED disc features the original lineup tearing through material from their first album as well as a couple of long-lost rarities. Recorded in late '76-early '77, this is a priceless artifact of the real punk era... Although SIOUXSIE AND THE BANSHEES were considered a punk band and these sessions were recorded only a few months after the Damned's, their disc now seems to have more of a metal bent—the Banshees were early architects of the "goth" sound later purveyed by everyone from Celtic Frost to Sisters Of Mercy. The performances and production on this one are pretty weak, but it's worthwhile anyway—if you're intrigued, check out The Scream or Ju Ju LPs... Around the turn of the last decade, THE RUTS and GANG OF FOUR were two of the best bands thrown up by the British epoch known as "post-punk." A huge influence on Fugazi/Minor Threat domo Ian MacKaye, the Ruts were one of the most underrated bands of the era (largely because their singer died of a heroin overdose just as their career was gathering steam), combining the energy of punk with some fabulous songwriting: "Babylon's Burning," "Something That I Said" and the brilliant "Staring At The Rude Boys" were genuine British hit singles. On top of that, the Ruts also played reggae as well as any bunch of honkeys we've ever heard—this fab 14-track is on par with both of the band's albums. Gang Of Four combined strident Marxist rhetoric with a pioneering punk-funk (GO4 guitarist Andy Gill produced the first Red Hot Chili Peppers LP) format: screeching metallic guitars over a dry but powerful funk beat and deadpan, bleak vocals. The tracks on their Peel LP pale next to the versions on the Entertainment and Solid Gold LPs, but are a harsh reminder of how abrasively irresistible they were at their best. (JA/KS)

the universal First, on February 28 I went to see perhaps one of the greatest live bands ever! Who, you ask, might that be? Slayer? Metallica? OBITUARY? None of the above! I saw the Village People! Yes, you know the ones! The cowboy, the construction worker, etc. They were AMAZING! I know you're laughing at this point, but don't—they have to be seen by every person to have been alive in the '70s. I'm serious. Next, I went on the roadtrip of hell: Poughkeepsie to see Morbid Angel/Prime Evil/Morpheus, and everything that could have gone wrong along the way, did! Let's just say that a simple trip turned into an overnight extravaganza of hell! At least the natives (of Poughkeepsie) were extremely nice to us. And last, but not least, there is the never-ending torment bestowed upon me by Tori "I'll marry Psycho if it kills me" Mazur from WWUH. At least there is stuff like CEREBRAL FIX and TREPONEM PAL to comfort me in times like this. You too should be losing your minds over these records because they are amazing! I know it's probably hard to remember to play them, what with that amazing new HEATHEN 12" in front of you, but don't worry; you can play all three! On your desk soon: Heathen Victims Of Deception, SEPULTURA "Under Siege" CD single, R.D.P. Anarkaphobia, and Sepultura Arise LP. In the meantime, I need an aspirin!

Bill Batta, Torrid Records, Scarsdale, NY (914) 664-3885 A big MUCKY PUP thank you to ALL the very cool stations that are kickin' butt with Now, including KUCI, WBAU, WCDB, WCWP, WKNC, WNHU, WRIU, WSOU, WWVU, WRTN...blah, blah, blah...etc. "Hotel Penitentiary" is a track that deserves a spot on any rotation. So, what are you sittin' around for, GO ADD IT! Mucky Pup will be doing some serious gigging (a word?)—check tour dates. I'm here on Wednesdays and Fridays, so ring me up for passes, interviews and all the other related stuff.

Frank Ritchie, Grudge Records, Nyack, NY (914) 358-7711 Though you might hear rumbling throughout the industry—Grudge is still here. We're revamping our organization and possibly moving our offices, but still in business. JERSEY DOGS tour—I'll be calling you to give exact dates. You may have heard that the Great Kat was to be doing some shows with the Dogs—forget I mentioned that, it's not happening. When I know more, you'll know more. Enjoy the music.

Dan Pinto, Megaforce Records/Crazed Management, Manalapan, NJ (908) 972-3456 Yo listen up... Normally I would take this time to say how cool our bands are. Instead, I am just going to say goodbye (for now). I would like to thank everyone out there that has helped me out. This is sad. My office is bare. Actually it is not so sad, I have a big party to hit tonight. Hey, I could use a favor from all of my industry buddies (I know that sounds queer). My only plan for the immediate future is to take over as the new metal director for WRSU (1400 watt FM) in New Brunswick, NJ. With that said I am going to need help from all of you out there to get things started off on the right foot. While I will be calling everyone out there in due time, maybe some of you could give me a call at home (908-409-6004). This also goes for all my radio friends. Drop me line if you want to rap. Oh—and don't worry, something tells me that you will all be hearing from me sooner than you think. Cheryl Valentine—you made my day last week! Thank again. All of you radio people should have received a letter with all of the information you need. P.S. Megaforce still rules! My love goes out to Missi and Jessi. You gals have been great!

Rita Cox, Big Chief Records, New York, NY (800) 235-2442 Last week we learned how to live the experience of AGONY COLUMN live and that such an experience would make Agony Column followers out of all who saw their show. This week you will be given a homework assignment to tide you over until Agony Column comes to your town. All right, the assignment is to go to your nearest cattle pasture and have a friend take your photo with any number of those bovine creatures. Taking into consideration the fact that not all people have such a pasture within easy crawling distance, there is one alternative assignment. This option is to find hamburger in any form (raw, burnt, McDonald's, etc.) and have a different friend take your photo with the meat. The due date for these assignments is April Fool's Day and if your photo is deemed to be worthy by Devil Chicken and his cohorts, you could be rewarded with one of two cow skulls or one of two Agony Column jackets. Until next time, don't ALWAYS listen to Mom, have a pedicure done biweekly, and check the consistency of any drink given to you by a man.

Clarissa Garcia, Def American Recordings, Los Angeles, CA (213) 278-6699 Headline: GARCIA SELLS ROMANCE TO HARLEQUIN... it was announced yesterday that Harlequin romances is currently in final negotiations with Clarissa Garcia to publish a romance novel based on Garcia's life. Insiders claim negotiations for publishing rights began at $1 million, but quickly increased when Jackie Collins expressed interest in bringing the novel to television, as she did with her own novels, "Lucky" and "Chances." Jill Eisenberg, long-time friend of Garcia, said, "Her novel won't sell—her life is boring," to which Garcia quipped, "She's just jealous." While no title has been confirmed yet, Garcia described the novel as "a sweeping romance of epic proportions based on fact. Of course, the story was enhanced for dramatic effect, but most of it is true." Harlequin tentatively plans to publish the novel early next year. Other Def news: SLAYER ends U.S. tour with Testament. BULLETBOYS join Great White for U.S. tour beginning March 23rd. Also, Bulletboys' video for "THC Groove" premiered on MTV's Headbanger's Ball. More news at 11.

Dot Roy, Atlantic Records, New York, NY (212) 484-8260 WRATHCHILD AMERICA is on its way to #1! This is one band that definitely deserves to be at the top! BUT WAIT! Here is the best news: Wrathchild America will be going on tour with Pantera! The tour kicks off at Bogart's in Cincinnati, April 10th forging ahead to Flash's in Cleveland April 12th. I hate to torture you, but those are the only dates we have thus far. For those of you who haven't discovered SAIGON KICK yet, WAKE UPI No, Saigon Kick is not a glam band; yes, Saigon Kick is for you. Yes, YOU, METAL RADIO! Do not deny yourself or your listeners. The trades agree. Saigon Kick is one of the most exciting and refreshing new bands to emerge this year. P.S. I am pleased to announce that East West America/Interscope (a member of the Atlantic Group) will be handling the soundtrack for Bill & Ted Go To Hell (starring Keanu Reeves).

Kathie "I'm Rotting Therefore I Am" Reed, Relativity/Combat/In-Effect, Torrance, CA (213) 212-0801 Well, it's been a rather wild week or two! DARK ANGEL's coolest LP to date Time Does Not Heal has received rave and I do mean RAVE reviews! Five K's in Kerrang! Also, check out the ARGH!!! and Hard Report re-view! Hey what about the CYCLONE TEMPLE—the CD single for "Words Are Just Words" has landed #1 most added honors and the full release should now be on hand! Cyclone Temple will be starting their tour on March 11! The GRINDCRUSHER tour will be kicking off around March 25 and should be going everywhere! GODFLESH is still smoking up the charts—thanks, I'm really enjoying this "Zip Lock Bag" lifestyle to which I've grown fairly accustomed. GET ME OUT OF THIS FREAKING BAG, WOULD YA?!? When Godflesh breaks the Top 10, I can wash this green ooze off of my back and get on with my life! RADIO DIALOGUE

Jen Cardany, Metal Director, WSFX, Nanticoke, PA Help! We at Luzerne County Community College (not "loser"—you know who you are!) are going insane preparing for the Pennsylvania Regional Conferencel! What we need are soothing voices coming over the telephone wires saying that yes, you did see our flyer come soaring out of your mailbox and head straight for you, and that you will join us in our day of festivities here at L-C cubed. But if our letter somehow passed you by, call me! If you'd like to find out more about the fearsome metal panel, CALL ME. If you want to know what's for lunch, CALL ME. Don't miss out on a day of information, entertainment, giveaway goodies and yes—food, all in a pastoral country setting. Whether it be by mail (Luzerne County Community College, Prospect St./Middle Rd., Nanticoke, PA 1863), fax (717-821-0905) or phone, interface with us—time's a wastin'! Oh, and by the way, congratulations to Stu Morales on your new job!

Beth Krakower, Metal Music Director, WDCR/WFRD, Hanover, NH (603) 646-3313 This year marks the first anniversary of WDCR's metal programming. I've spent the past two months completely restructuring metal here in Hanover to equally represent all kinds of metal and hardcore. A little about myself, I've spent the past six months at home in New York living like every good American should, off my parents. Now I'm ready to whip WDCR/WFRD's asses into shape like it was one year ago. I'd like to thank all those who helped me out through the tough times, NOW I'M READY TO KICK SOME ASS! Thanks to Dan at Megaforce who rescued me from the doldrums of New Hampshire and sent me to see the most godly performances of TESTAMENT and SLAYER in Vermont. Thanks to Cheryl of Combat for the sweet Dave Vincent interview. Quik piks—I'm totally backing SAIGON KICK (s ass!), IGNORANCE and the sweet STEVE MORSE guitar sounds, and I'm loving the whole Earache thing. One last thing, RITA, I WANT THE AGONY COLUMN COW SKULL! I'm keeping office hours Tues/Thurs. 3-6 PM. call and say "HI" (603-646-3313). That's all folks.

Shawn Williams = "Death," WDWN/WIN 89-FM, Metal Promotions/Production Director, Auburn, NY (315) 255-1743 ext. 284 I saw LIVING COLOUR and URBAN DANCE SQUAD again last night and it was beyond god. THANX RUSSI They did a lot more different stuff than last time. See them, donate to Greenpeace and Black Rock Coalition. A couple nights ago I saw local hard rock bands SAINT CHAOS and DIAMOND TYR. Saint Chaos did a cool cover of Jane's "Stop." Next weekend is KREATOR and BIOHAZARD! SAIGON KICK are cool as fuck. OH MAN—the new MORDRED IS AMAZING! The first two hours of my show are now controlled by Pete "Corpse Grinder" Clark! George Carlin is coming to the collegel! Office hours: Tues. 1:30-3:00, Thur. 1:30-6:00. Well that's all. Worship the LAUGH GOD!!

all the members writing and contributing, arranging... putting our feet down and making sure that things are gonna be more of a collaboration.

[New bassist] Ben Shepard too?

Ben too. And the Temple record has a pretty obvious pop kind of flavor to it, and the Soundgarden record's still gonna be very heavy, but it's gonna be somewhat weird and rhythmic as well. It's definitely not a commercial type of record. The Temple record is not gonna indicate what the Soundgarden record could be.

Is the album supposed to tell a story, or is it more just impressions?

Yeah, it's more impressions. There are themes as far as... the death of a friend and how that death was caused, but there's not a moral or a concept behind the record at all. Each song is a separate statement in and of itself. The sequencing was decided completely on musical terms.

Yeah, song-cycle concept albums are kinda dangerous.

Yeah, it wasn't anything like that. It was a concept in the sense that the title was chosen from a lyric that Andrew wrote, and that's about as far as it goes.

What do you remember most about Andrew?

Well, the lasting impression I have of Andrew is playing with Malfunkshun. I saw them around '85-86, when the music scene up here was at its peak, as far as the rock scene goes. I mean, you could go down to the Central Tavern and see bands like the Melvins, Green River, Feast. I just have real fond memories—Malfunkshun was a band that I thought was very frightening, and that's an element that doesn't seem to happen much up here anymore. But he was extremely flamboyant, and just a great, great presence onstage. He wore this white pancake makeup with black lipstick, and he played bass and sang, his brother Kevin played guitar, and Regan Hager was on drums, and they were just frighteningly good.

And how much of their material was actually released?

There were two tracks on Deep Six [a hopelessly rare Seattle compilation that also included Soundgarden], and two tracks on the Another Pyrrhic Victory compilation [on C/Z Records]. But I talked to Regan last week, and I guess J Mascis [of Dinosaur Jr.] is interested in releasing some Malfunkshun stuff that has just been sitting around for years—there's a couple of records' worth of stuff recorded. So if that happens it'd be really great. But as far as the sound of that band, it was completely different from the Love Bone sound and his solo stuff, in the sense that it was just very big and very scary.

"We wanted to get a feeling down on tape."

Was there an obvious Queen influence? The image sounds like early Freddie Mercury.

Oh yeah, totally. Sometimes it was black, sometimes it was red, sometimes the makeup changed. He also did these solo shows where he was "Landrew Lovegod," and he'd play piano and sing to pre-recorded tapes that he'd bring in. That was a whole other trip, that was just a completely weird, psychedelic, almost comic kinda thing that he did. And he would MC shows around town.

Do you know what the other guys in Love Bone are doing?

Yeah. The drummer, Greg Gilmour, is travelling in South America right now, and [guitarist] Bruce Fairweather is in a band up here called Blind Horse—they're gonna be doing a record on Sub Pop soon. They're really good, they're more in the R&B-swing kinda vein that seems to be sweeping the nation!

The Seattle trendies used to call Mother Love Bone the "poser faction" of Green River, but Apple was a pretty adventurous album. Right, as far as the songs, and the sequencing and the overall approach of the record, it was very mature. They'd been planning it for a long time, and I thought it was very successful musically. I don't think it was strictly a poser faction, it was probably more of a pop sensibility, as opposed to the more idealistic kinda punk aesthetic. I guess people could view that as "poser" or "sellout."

Who wrote the Temple "bio" that we just got in the mail? A similar one was written for the Apple bio.

I think that's Jeff. Could you read it to me? I haven't seen it yet.

Okay. [Verbatim:] "Green River + Soundgarden. 80's Seattle bands making huge sounds. Friends one + all with similar interests + a genuine respect for each other. Chris + Matt did things that amazed Stone + Jeff and vice versa. Life was beginning. They had many common friends, one being musician/entertainer/Freddie [Mercury] prodigy Andrew Wood, who lived with Chris + who formed a new band with Stone + Jeff when Green River broke up. Mother Love Bone. Life was great. Soundgarden made records, toured, rocked hard, flourished. Mother Love Bone made records + was on the verge of... and we all lost our beautiful friend, Andrew. The rest of us hung. Told stories. Helped each other. Friends. Life was confusing. Chris wrote two songs about Andy ('Say Hello' + 'Reach Down') + asked Stone + Jeff + Matt 2 record them. Yes. Life moves on. We jammed. Guitar wizard, master of animal sounds Mike came by. We did coffee. [Matt laughs] Ate huge carcass-less meals with cyclops and drank with Septiem + the other gods. Music flowed, we got excited, played a show + wrote + reeled in a 10-pounder... in a good way. 10 songs. Spontaneous. Creation. Emotion. Very pleasing. Real music. No analyzation. No pressure. No hype. Just music to make music. Friends + a reason. Chemistry. Beauty. Life rules!" And you can just imagine how funny I feel being the one to read you that!
(Laughs) Yeah, that's usually how it works with drummers! Always the last to know! That's not too bad, actually.

JACKPOT!

CARMEN McRAE Sarah—Dedicated To You (Novus, c/o RCA, 1133 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10036)

When Sarah Vaughan passed away last year, the jazz world lost another of its legends. Vaughan, the greatest of the first-generation bebop singers (many would say the greatest, period), is gone but hardly forgotten, least of all by her longtime friend and fellow singing great, Carmen McRae. On the heels of her triumphant tribute to pianist-composer Thelonious Monk, Carmen Sings Monk, the soon-to-be-71 McRae remembers her friend on a program of 14 songs sung by, or dedicated to, the singer known as Sassy. Included are several numbers virtually owned by Vaughan ("Misty," "Send In The Clowns," "Tenderly") along with a concluding triptych that culminates with the deeply moving "Sarah," written by Carroll Coates a few days after her death. McRae receives sensitive accompaniment from the trio of pianist Shirley Horn, another longtime friend of McRae's whose own album, You Won't Forget Me (Verve-PLG), has hit No. 1 on the charts. (Songs from these two recordings, needless to say, will work marvelously alongside each other.) Comparing McRae's vocal style with Vaughan's is unnecessary—each is singular, sensational—but McRae's statement to CMJ highlights a key difference and goes a long way toward explaining why Sarah—Dedicated to You is a two-fold triumph—praise for the dead and a huzzah for the living: "Sarah made a comment years ago in Down Beat that, to her, the melody was the most important thing in a song. I've said in many interviews that words for me are the most important." Melody and words, Vaughan and McRae—praise be.

THE WILD BEAST BREAKS OUT

Steve "The Big A" Alvin, the Wild Beast of south Florida radio, has taken his popular jazz show, The World Jazz Federation, on the road, so to speak. By syndicating his no-holds-barred straight-ahead program, for several years a staple on Miami's community station WDNA-FM, Alvin expects to attract buyers from contemporary jazz, new age and NAC stations that covet the respect, not to mention the enticing 25-to-54 demographics, enjoyed by mainstream stations. On the basis of his 90-minute demo, The World Jazz Federation sounds like a natural. Hardly your typical deadpan, pseudo-hip and pedantic host, Alvin is direct, personal and obviously enthralled by jazz, essentially bebop and points beyond. For what they are, the syndicated radio programs by Ben Sidran (documentary/talk) and David Sanborn (contemporary) are fine, but what's needed is a pure jazz music program that is intense and edifying to the jazz freak without being threatening to the

ON THE CHART

After reclaiming the top spot last week, Marcus Roberts opens up a commanding lead this time out, for his fourth week at #1. Moving back up to #2 is Shirley Horn (3-2), whose trio appears on her longtime friend and fellow vocalist Carmen McRae's #21 debut this week. Top debut honors go to the Yellowjackets at #8, with labelmate—and another vocalist—Diane Schuur entering the Top 10 (14-9) right behind. Look for Epic's multi-talented Jon Faddis (16-11) to break into those ranks next week. Also, check out the Marsalis patriarch Ellis' new solo piano release on Rounder, bubbling under this week. (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) jazz neophyte. The World Jazz Federation is just that. Besides presenting a survey of new releases, the program features interviews, artist spotlights and even comedy. "Sam's Time," the comedy bit on the demo, is overly long and a bit too precious, but it's a refreshing pause from the sheer rush of jazz sounds. A bearish guy—at 6-foot-3 and 280 pounds, he's been the perfect "heavy" for bit parts on Miami Vice and other TV shows and movies—Alvin has wisely decided not to narrow-cast his program or adopt common-denominator cliches. Of course, he never has. Before he was booted off WDNA, amid a station-wide firestorm of idiomatic and ethnic backstabbing, he presented an unapologetic jazz show on which one was as likely to hear Geri Allen's kaleidoscopic piano chords as interstellar studio conversation with Sun Ra. When he presented a three-hour "Tales From The Blue Note Crypt," consisting entirely of out-of-print treasures from that storied label, his phone rang off the wall and area roadways turned into mazes as drivers listening in frantically searched for pen and paper, their cars careening out of control. Anyway, The World Jazz Federation is a show whose time has come. (For a sample of the show contact: Intensity Productions, Inc., 2652 S.W. 87th Ave., Suite 207, Miami, FL 33165.)

ODDS 'N' ENDS

The first release from the newly revived Strata-East, the '70s label that won praise for its inside-outside symmetry under the artistic direction of trumpeter CHARLES TOLLIVER and pianist Stanley Cowell, is not a reissue, as Tolliver has informed CMJ previously, but a new live recording from the trumpeter himself. Live In Berlin/Vol 1, recorded at the Quasimodo in the summer of 1988, finds the trumpeter in the company of a trio with Alain Jean-Marie at the piano. A long-lined player whose li- quescence, even at torrid tempos, earned him enviable comparisons in the '60s with the late Clifford Brown, Tolliver heats things up on four originals spanning 64 minutes. An earlier date by the trumpeter, a 1972 concert from Holland titled Grand Max (Candid, c/o PPI, 88 St. Francis St., Newark, NJ 07105), reprises a quartet encounter with pianist John Hicks, bassist Reggie Workman and stickman Alvin Queen. Of the five selections, the three Tolliver cuts (each exceeding 11 minutes) boast the most engaging intragroup repartee and stretching out... Boy, the soprano saxophone has really made a comeback! Forthcoming albums by the well-regarded tenor JAMES MOODY (Honey, Novus-RCA) and the youngster COURTNEY PINE (Within The Realms Of Our Dreams, Antilles-Island) are largely showcases for the soprano sax. Don't get me wrong. That's quite all right. It just seems that the shadow of Kenny G is looming ever larger. Make no mistake, the Moody and Pine projects are straight-ahead, and quite interesting, but why so much soprano all of a sudden?... For The Cat, his Antilles debut and first album in the States in a while, JOHNNY GRIFFIN sticks with his accustomed axe. The quick-draw tenorist, an expatriate for decades, wrote all nine numbers for this soon-to-be-released CD, which boasts input from a quintet including Curtis Fuller on trombone, Steve Nelson on vibes and Michael Weiss (an underrated, Bud Powell-inspired member of the Little Giant's working band) on piano. Watch for it.

SXS is HERE and with it are incredible showcases! Circle your calendars and saturate your brains with this info: Bob Mould, Glass Eye, EGGPLANT, DON'T MEAN MAYBE and CADILLAC TRAMPS at Cannibal Club on Friday, March 22. If that isn't enough for one day, then catch the latter three at an acoustic Tower in-store the same day at 2 p.m. . . . Doctor Dream new releases are just two mailing weeks away. On those that are rapidly approaching, ANDY PRIEBOY is the first with a five-song CD including the newest single "Montezuma," two new tracks, and a spaghetti western take on Led Zeppelin's "Whole Lotta Love" sung with Johnette Napolitano. . . Corraling the sometimes disparate influences of R&B and punk is often times an ambitious yet fruitless adventure. However, CADILLAC TRAMPS have proven this endeavor to be more than road-worthy and have taken it to task with humorous success. Their self-titled debut should be within listening range in weeks. . . Other releases to watch for will be new offerings from FOOD FOR FEET, WALKING WOUNDED and DRANCE.

If you're attending the South By Southwest conference in Austin, check out Rheostatics, Surrender Dorothy and Meryn Cadell at the Canadian showcase Saturday, March 23, at the 311 Club. And remember. . . Intrepid. Color, when the rest of the world is black and white.

Gerard Coslay, Matador Records, New York, NY (212) 995-5882

Sting, Phil Collins, et al, are fair game for abuse in the pages of Kicks. Meanwhile, editors/A-Bones Billy Miller and Miriam Linna were so wiggled out by the slags levelled at their band by the Gibson Bros. (check out the back cover of The Man Who Loved Couch Dancing and the A-Bones sample at the album's beginning) that they've threatened legal action. Rather than retaliate via the pages of their magazine, the cover of their own record or even accept the challenge of an on-stage battle, the A-Bones would prefer to stomp all over the Gibson Bros.' First Amendment rights (the same rights that allow Miller and Linna to take such brave shots at balding zillionaire pop stars who'll probably never read their magazine). . . If Homestead Records does give in to the demands of the A-Bones' high-powered attorneys, and ultimately delete the LP in question, the fight for free expression will have been dealt a serious blow by a couple of unlikely culprits. . . Super Dave and Paul V. want to know if the Jane's Addiction tour "could be the Alternative Woodstock." Hmmm. Lots of mud, bad drugs, crummy sound, worse sightlines, interminable delays, Sha Na Na, several deaths, doesn't sound too hard to imagine. . .

I had fun in New Jersey. Even more remarkable I had fun in the Heart of Springsteen country—Asbury Park. I know, I can barely believe it myself. It's all due to low beer prices, a big club and the Asbury Park Lanes—what better, bowling and good bands! I can hear you all now—Gee I wish my life was a thrill a minute like Susan's. If it's not and you're stuck in your low rent pad listening to records and wishing you were me, make sure you check out a copy of Aggravation by TREPONEM PAL on Roadracer. It'll make you forget you're such a loser! Also, coming soon is VENUS BEADS' first LP on Emergo entitled Incision, due out April 30, and HEADS UPI's new EP, Duke, due out April 16.

Sue Patel, Nettwerk Productions, Universal City, CA (818) 508-3130

Just the facts: By now everyone should have their copy of MANUFACTURE's second release, Voice of World Control. For those of you with a memory, you might remember this Boston duo from their debut release on Nettwerk, Terrorvision. We have yet to confirm any tour dates, but the record release giveaways (at various clubs around the country) have begun. Call George at Nettwerk-Vancouver (604-687-8649) or myself for details and invitations. For the SKINNY PUPPY fans: The band just completed a video and a remix for "Spasmolytic" (from their last record, Too Dark Park). Look for the CD-single in early April or call Sean Renet at Capitol for servicing. And lastly, the long-awaited follow-up to The Myth Of Rock is due out in early May. Look for the new 12" from CONSOLIDATED ("Brutal Equation" from the full-length record, Friendly Fascism) in early April. That's a lot for now.

Ken Katkin, Homestead Records, Rockville, NY (516) 764-6200

As many of you told me when explaining why you wouldn't play their records, Homestead recording artists SEBADOH had never set foot in a recording studio. Through their two-LP (plus assorted 7" and cassette) recording career, the "band" has consistently pioneered its own low-fi sound, to match its distinctly "incomplete" song-writing approach. As one might expect, this approach went over most people's heads. So Sebadoh have decided to pursue a "new" "career" path. They have recently finished documenting this change with a massive, high-tech session at Boston's legendary Ft. Apache studios. The first 7" from these sessions will be the anthem for the '90s, "Gimme Indie Rock," a bitter pill directed at former Sebadoh sideman J Mascis. The disc is limited, on clear vinyl and with a full color sleeve. Since the pressing will sell out, I can't give too many away for free. So just to show that you actually want it, the first 75 postcards demonstrating even the slightest knowledge of the band will probably win. Just write the name and address of your station, and maybe the names of the bandmembers or something. It'll be worth your while. Good luck!

Faith Henschel, Marketing, Elektra Records, New York, NY (212) 448-7933

Saw the Doors movie this weekend... very effective—not only will the Doors catalogue be in greater demand, I imagine the hunt for LSD and peyote will be on the rise. In search of the shaman experience... HAPPY MONDAYS are once again one step ahead of the world. "Step On" indeed. The Mondays will be on the road in the U.S. as will SISTERS OF MERCY, and ROBIN HOLCOMB (#32 in the Village Voice Pazz and Jop Critics Poll). The INSPIRAL CARPETS are already touring and the rave reviews just keep coming in. AMBITIOUS LOVERS will be doing a five-night stint in New York City—we shall look for you there. Bye.

Karen Last, Reckless Records, San Francisco, CA (415) 431-8435

March 11 brings two new Reckless releases: HENRY KAISER Hope You Like Our New Direction features collaborations with over 23 different musicians. Henry works with the likes of Richard Thompson, Bruce Anderson, Andy West, John French, Tom Constanten, Sang Won Park and many more. Yet another masterpiece from Tucson, Arizona's BLACK SUN ENSEMBLE. Their new one, Elemental Forces, brings a somewhat new lineup to the band. The ever-constant searing guitar of Jesus Dagan Acedo is still the focal point of this band's latest assault in the desert of musical mediocrity. Hope you like both of these. BEVIS FROND is working on a new album due out sometime late this summer. Check out the Bevis And Twink LP on Nick Saloman's Woronzow label. It is a limited edition vinyl-only thing. Any questions or requests, feel free to call or fax (415-431-2920). P.S. What is with the sudden rash of bands with "Jesus" in their title? i.e. Jesus Jones, Jesus Lizard, MC 900 Ft. Jesus and the newest, Creaming Jesus? Is it an homage to the Easter season or what?

Noelle G., Mammoth Records, Carrboro, NC (919) 932-1882 ext. 200

The brand new BLACKGIRLS album comes out March 15. It's called Happy. Many of you may remember last year's Procedure, which was produced by Joe Boyd (R.E.M., Fairport Convention, Billy Bragg, Nick Drake); Happy incorporates Boyd's guidance this time on his home soil—England that is. Blackgirls create unique, beautiful havoc with violin, piano and acoustic guitar. Happy is full of contradictions, convolutions and intense, arresting playing tempered by a touch of humor. But, of course, in this flurry of activity and self-revelation, Blackgirls haven't lost their ability to be a bit caustic... what a relief... More BLAKE BABIES tour dates: 3/20 Morgantown, WV; 3/21 Philadelphia; 3/22 Washington, DC; and 3/23 Chapel Hill, NC... CHAINSAW KITTENS just finished slogging it out on the road in the Midwest. Thanks to those who made them feel welcome. F.Y.I., I have a new intern, he is called Jason and he will be calling some of you. Anyone out there love Gore as much as I do? If so, make sure you shell out the import bucks for the Skullflower record 'cause it'll really hit the spot. Things worth waiting for (at least I hope so): the new Die Kreuzen LP and the Mookie Blaylock tape.

Ron Cruz, Cruz Records, Long Beach, CA (213) 430-2077

ALL will be savin' the South on their Allroy Saves national tour, following some perch fishin' in Brookfield Lake... BIG DRILL CAR and CHEMICAL PEOPLE not only share a split seven-inch colored-vinyl record, both bands have been covering Southern California with lots of heavyweight, hammerdown rock shows... Peace, Love & Eardrums that ring into the wee wee hours.

Steve Pilon, DB Records, Atlanta, GA (404) 521-3008

A local critic calls 'em "a cross between the Go-Go's and the Goo Goo Dolls." They call themselves SWELL (although they used to call themselves Homade Sister). I just call 'em nifty. Swell's debut 7" is called "Rip The Wreck" b/w "Merry." We've got it, you can get it, here's the rules: Just let me know your station wants it. Phone, fax, card, letter, smoke signals, carrier pigeon, strip-o-gram, I don't care—just let me know you want a cool 7", and it's yours! More good reasons to keep your eye on your mailbox: any day we will be releasing Electric Landlady by the WIND-BREAKERS and What An Experiment His Head Was by UNCLE GREEN. More on these later...

Jay Septoski, Alligator Records, Chicago, IL (312) 973-7736

Hello. Coming at you in about three weeks will be a new one from KENNY NEAL. Kenny is currently on Broadway performing in Mule Bone, a play written by Langston Hughes back in the mid-'30s that is just now seeing the light of day. The new record spotlights the keyboards of LUCKY PETERSON as well as the Horny Horns, featuring James Brown alumni Maceo Parker and Fred Wesley. We here at the 'Gator are proud to be celebrating our 20th year of Genuine Houserockin' Music and giving you a helping hand are the fine folks at the TDK New Music Report. If you are a member of the CMJ radio network be sure and listen in the coming weeks for a spotlight on the label. ELVIN BISHOP and LITTLE CHARLIE AND THE NIGHT-CATS are still out there and getting some good support, keep it up. The coming months are going to be busy ones for us; in the pipeline are new releases from LONNIE BROOKS, SON SEALS, SAFFIRE—THE UPPITY BLUES WOMEN, KATIE WEBSTER, and a couple of extra-fine reissues from OTIS

RUSH and an acoustic BUDDY GUY AND JUNIOR WELLS release. I know you can't wait. Until next time, deny false excellence.

John "Leprechaun" McFadden, Core Entertainment, Woodland Hills, CA (708) 359-3760

Yes, St. Patrick's Day is on its way and the Core stable is buzzing with new music. ED-E ROLAND is in your hands and hopefully on your playlists. Ed-E is the ex-lead singer from the Wayouts of Flinstones fame. He is currently marrying Zsa Zsa Gabor in Acapulco, and will be very unhappy if his record is not a big success when he comes back. Don't make Ed-E mad!! VIGILANTES OF LOVE is starting to happen out there. Those of you who had faith, thanks! Those of you who just discovered Vigilantes, thanks! Those of you who haven't listened; what's your damage?? Just do it! Playlists can be sent to: 1114-B Prairiebrook Dr., Palentine, Illinois 60067. JET BLACK FACTORY and MONDAY MORNINGS are on their way in April. Big hellos to Toni "Betty Boo" Michaels, Kris "A&R" Metzendorf, and Kathy "Killing Joke" Dvlatov. May the luck of the Irish be with you.

Andrew Peterson/Shawn Rogers, Moist/Baited Breath Records, Chapel Hill, NC (919) 929-2533

Andrew: Hey Shawn, what's up?
Shawn: I'm debating quitting school.
A: Oh, good, does that mean you'll be here pushing our wonderful records over the top full-time?
S: Can I say "hi" to Tekla?
A: Sure.
S: Hi, Tekla. Are you really going to send this?
A: Yes, any other fascinating news?
S: Well, I failed my Econ exam today.
A: Come on, no one out there cares, I'm not going to put that part in.
S: Would it be kosher to ask for donations?
A: This is getting surreal. Hey, how about if we ask everyone to send a dollar and every 100th person we will send fifty bucks to?
S: Is that legal?
A: Dunno. (Calls lawyer.) He says we'd be asking for trouble.
S: I've got to go see if my roommate bought any toilet paper.
A: OK. Let's wrap this up.
This concludes our first CMJ actual Dialogue...

RETAIL DIALOGUE

Donna Marcus, Retail Promotions, Beggars Banquet Records, New York, NY (212) 889-9110

Time for a vacation is coming up soon and I am looking for ways to make a little extra money to finance it. Does CMJ need any proofreaders? Contrary to my previous Dialogue, ROBERT FORSTER is not from LOVE AND ROCKETS, that is DANIEL ASH. Robert was a co-founder/singer/songwriter from Australia's Go-Betweens. Now that the misprint has been cleared up... The BEGGARS BUCKS contest is under way and going well. Response has been amazing and affidavits and display photos are pouring in. Good luck to everybody. Also new in the stores is the CHARLATANS UK home video that includes live concert footage from the Manchester Ritz. Talk about fanatics—you have to see it to believe it. The Charlatans just finished their first ever U.S. tour and it sold out almost everywhere. Thanks to retail for all of their support. BUFFALO TOM also finished a kick-ass tour and will be heading overseas soon. Ditto to all those supportive retailers! Look for a new import 12" by the Buff Toms for "Fortune Teller" with some great B-sides!! By the way, I am starting up mail order here at BB. Our catalogue will have hard-to-get back catalogue imports. Please write or call to be put on the mailing list. That's all for now. Ciao!

◆ Chris MacDermott (Woody), Retail Promotions, Caroline Records, New York, NY (212) 989-2929

A few Dialogues ago I asked if anybody really reads these things. Well, I got my answer—I've been getting lots of calls from college DJs and music directors. Unfortunately, I do retail and not radio promotion (Chuck and Tom are our radio men). Anyway, here's what's happening at Caroline if you're interested. NAKED RAYGUN is touring the South and West coasts now. KINGHORSE is answering lots of fan mail and playing select Southern towns. The new A SPLIT SECOND 12", "The Parallax View," is out as well as the brand new, totally psychedelic LP from LEGENDARY PINK DOTS, The Marla Dimension. The Megaforce comp. DEEPER INTO THE VAULT is also out (rare/unreleased ANTHRAX, TESTAMENT, OVERKILL, SOD, etc.) and, yes, there will be a poster. Speaking of posters, there's still plenty of BAD BRAINS Rock For Light posters for your store. Small quantities of MONSTER MAGNET "Murder" and SPRINGHOUSE, CHUCK TREECE, SMASHING PUMPKINS and BLOODY STOOLS.

RADIO DIALOGUE

◆ Dexter, WBRU, Providence, RI (401) 272-9550

Big News from the home office! By now you are all aware of the results of the 1990

Rolling Stone Readers Poll. For the second year in a row, WBRU was voted the fourth best radio station in the medium market category. For this we have only to thank our listeners... So that is precisely what we are going to do. I thought to myself, how can I award the masses of people who, without any solicitation or prodding, took the time to send in their ballots? Maybe a direct cash gift? Nah, smells of payola. Better yet, we'll give the BRU fans what they like best... awesome live music... free! So put this down on your calendar: March 23, Saturday night, the FEELIES will headline a free BRU listener appreciation party at Providence's exclusive night hang-out Club Babyhead! In addition to the totally brilliant Feelies (note regarding the Feelies new record: if you don't get it, you don't got it), the party will feature BRU jocks spinning way cool tunes (hold back your excitement please) and massive giveaways. (If you've got any neat stuff you'd like to add to the list of raffle prizes and/or party favors please let me know.) So, you're saying to yourself, I didn't vote in the Rolling Stone poll but I want to go to this extravagant happening. Well, we'll let you off this time. Give me a holler if you'd like to see and be seen at this history making event, but please be sure you can make it and tell me soon because I only have so many tix. Hope to see ya all there, Dex.

◆ Almsel Ponti, Music Director, WKNH, Keene, NH (603) 358-6425

Greetings from: Keene, NH. I don't want to do a cheesy Dialogue saying I like this band and that band and all that hype crap. I do however need to say three little words: TWO NICE GIRLS. Anyway, to continue with my recycling crusade, WKNH reads anti-longbox messages several times a day over the air. These messages were provided by the Ban The Box Coalition. Call them at (212) 684-2550. They will give you information your station can use to help the anti-longbox cause. Please do this. Thanks, and "Let's Gc Bonding."

◆ Paul (call me tin pan) Alley, Music Director, KNEU, Kirksville, MO (816) 785-4506

From a town of distance spitting, porch sitting and cow tipping comes the "neu" KNEU, bent on revamping the city's music scene before the community mass-lynches us. We're looking for up and coming bands in all areas (Kirksville World Tour, anyone?), and we are willing to lick some executive boots in the process. We have budding metal, industrial/core and rap shows, and we want to know the new names. Our jazz department is just starting up, and we want to expand the all-day progressive catalog. Give us a call, and we'll give you airplay and free hand-whittled craft items! Office hours: MWF 1:30-400, T all day. Many thanks to those of you who have already gotten in touch with us, and we hope to hear from you.

◆ John Clark, Music Coordinator, CJIV, Burnaby, BC (604) 291-5940

IMPORTANT ADVICE for people sending promo to Canada!! We've been having a lot of problems lately getting through Canada customs. There's a new tax system in place and the government is trying to squeeze every possible drop of blood out of every possible mark. What happens is that people send us packages and declare a value on the customs declaration. We are subject to a 9.5% duty and 7% Goods & Services Tax (GST) on whatever you put as a monetary value in addition to possible brokerage fees. Sending stuff via UPS is even more costly! If you send the package through the POST OFFICE and DECLARE a value of ZERO (you can note on the package: "promotional materials, no commercial value") it almost always SAILS through with no charge to us. Thanks!

sunshine, '87 Sterling Cabernet Sauvignon, live blues and tequila. My brain is wearing a red leather dress. My brain is NOT answering phones. Any questions? Call someone else. Like Bubbles The Hell Bitch. . . I'm telling you right now that the upcoming RADIATORS release will totally evaporate your brain. It's been in MY room for a while now and my brain is SO evaporated you could call me brainless. . . Hot Tip O' The Week: Call Resounding Records of Denver at (303) 331-2412 and ask 'em for a copy of Every Night Of The Week by MOLLIE O'BRIEN AND THE BLUETIPS. Such great new blues music—the new JOE LOUIS WALKER live album is a killer. So is the LITTLE CHARLIE release. Must be something about Slim's. . . That's it, but remember, life anywhere is just life.

Christopher Caake, Jazz Host/Jazz Fan, KBLZ, Omaha NE (402) 554-2957

Jazz is. . . the music. I want to thank all of the record companies that have joined the KBLZ jazz gig, companies such as Atlantic, RCA, Novus, Mu Productions, Blue Note-Capitol and Warner Bros. Thanks! . . . Jazz releases to check out: KENNY GARRETT African Exchange Student. He's Miles' saxman, and does this guy play. Check out STANLEY JORDAN's Cornucopia for some great jazz guitar. Somebody definitely to watch. The best fusion release is MILES DAVIS' Agharta, continuing the sounds of jazz, rock, and African music released on Pangea. 1990's best fusion release. By Miles Davis. The Prince Of Darkness. . . rules. . . Call me at 402-554-2957 for more information on how you can join the Jazz Gig or if you'd like any info on jazz labels, history or gigs to dig.

Les Aaron, New Music Sunday Programmer, KHTK, St. Louis, MO (314) 256-0999

"New Music Sunday" is a four-hour progressive music showcase that has been very successfully running on a 100,000-watt St. Louis commercial radio station for almost a year and a half. The show is a blend of all types of progressive/alternative music from techno-pop to reggae, industrial to world beat, alternative rock to punk. "New Music Sunday" reaches a 5% share of the Sunday evening listenership in St. Louis (Arbitron 1990), and it is sponsored by Streetside Records and other local alternative businesses. Later this month it will be expanded to include a midweek reggae/world beat show. Any record company promotion types not already aware should contact Leslie Aaron as above.

Greg Adamo, General Manager, WSIA, Staten Island, NY (718) 448-9742

I just wanted to thank everyone who helped out with all the music panels at this year's IBS convention. There is no way I could have done it without a lot of people's help. . . One of the main reasons I work on these music sessions is my commitment to diversity in music. It was great to see that there are other college stations with this same goal. Now we just have to keep breaking down musical barriers and spreading the word.

James Akhbari, Music Director, WHCS, New York, NY (212) 772-4472

Last semester had so much school work that I only read the New Releases section of CMJ. This semester, I started to read the reviews and the Dialogue sections and found out that we weren't receiving all those great artists. So I called you and requested products and you sent them. But some of you promised the world and didn't deliver. All I have to say is that it is your loss and not ours. For those of you who have sent the products I asked for, you will see them on our playlist. By the way, we want to do more promotional giveaways, so give me a call on Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays between 2-5 p.m. Keep an eye out for NUMB, the John Peel Sessions and ENIGMA.

Travis Grimes, Music Director, WEIU, Charlestan, IL (217) 581-6116

Thanks to Dave Kirchgessner for finally writing something I have been wanting to for a long time. Promo packs from record companies are a major waste of money and resources. I have to be honest, I quickly glance at promo material—no matter what length. Other unnecessary promo items are band photos and portfolios. I really don't see what good it does to send me a photo of a band. Believe it or not, I do not play music due to physical appeal of the artist. I think that if people want promo material, they will call the respective company. Please quit sending so much wasted material. Why don't the record companies take the money spent on promotional gibberish and invest it into more new artists? Something brought up in an earlier Dialogue is the money that companies waste on mailers. Why do I receive three different albums, from the same company, in three separate mailers on the same day? Why do I receive a CD in a mailer designed for a 12" record? I don't know, but this is happening every week in my office. . . How come I have never seen a Radio Dialogue from Illinois? Best albums of 1990 were PRIMUS, ROBERT JOHNSON and ALICE IN CHAINS. . . And finally, I have a hint for record companies. Your music will receive faster airplay if you would enclose a lyric sheet! P.S. Kudos go to CMJ for really screwing up my playlist in #223. #1 should have been CHICKASAW MUDD PUPPIES.

Dave Keighley, Music Director, CHSR, Fredericton, NB (506) 454-4985

Just a short note to update you on my office hours for the next few months, should any of you record company types wish to call. I should be around the station at the following times: Monday: 8:30-12:30, Tuesday: 8:30-11:30 a.m., Thursday: 12:00 p.m.-4:00 p.m., and for those people on the West Coast, Thursday 7:30 p.m.-11 p.m. (all times Eastern). . . Here in Canada, our beloved government has introduced a fked-up new tax, the GST, and we have recently been made aware that all promotional material entering the country will be subjected to this tax. Customs will check the "Green Labels" for product value, and levy us here at the station a 7% tax on it! Material listed as having no value will be subjected, arbitrarily, to a levy by the Customs depending on how much THEY think its worth. Fkers, eh? So, a request. Please, when filling in those little green customs labels, can you make sure a nominal value is included, say $1. (We all know that is somewhere close to the true cost of manufacture anyway!) Terms like "No Commercial Value" might not stop them. . . As I write, the station has just completed its annual fund-drive to raise much needed extra cash. Though slightly disappointing in the total collected, I suppose that we shouldn't complain, given the "recession," the new GST tax and higher student fees. Anyway, I'd like to thank BMG, Capitol, Enigma, Geffen and PolyGram for their support of the event. . . Finally, some excellent new bands which I came across on my visit home to Manchester over Christmas: PARIS ANGELS, BEDFLOWERS, WORLD OF TWIST, SAINT ETIENNE, MOCK TURTLES, NED'S ATOMIC DUSTBIN and SPIRITUALIZED.

Toni (Habitual Bitcher) Michaels, Music Director, WSFX, Nanticoke, PA (717) 821-0933

What kind of name is Skippy? Sounds like a dweeb to me. Or maybe an Irish leprechaun. (Sorry Skip, I couldn't resist.) Hey stations in the West/East/Midwest/South and all over the U.S.!!! Why aren't you playing SARA HICKMAN???. She should be in the Top 5 in CMJ. She is probably the most talented, well-rounded, educated singer/songwriter I have plugged my ears into in a long time. I might add one of my favorites!!! Call your Elektra dude and get her CD, Shortstap!!! When you get it, follow these four easy steps: 1) listen to this great music; 2) add into rotation; 3) report it to CMJ; 4) and finally call your Elektra dude again and tell him how much you love the record. Now wasn't that one of the easiest tasks you've done in a while? I thought so. OK! I'm done bitching for now. Don't forget 4/6/91!!! If you don't know what this day is CALL ME!!! PRONTO!!! Later kiddies!

MIND OVER MATTERS

James Brown, Pete Rose: Separated At Birth?; Gavin in the 21st Century

by John Loscalzo, MCA Records

Drug abuser/wife beater/denture wearer James Brown is out of jail and we are anxiously awaiting his new album. Meanwhile Pete Rose is also a free man, but no one really cares. Both have made unequalled contributions to their respective professions. However, Rose is considered more of a discredit to his peers than Brown. I don't know about you, but wife beating and/or shooting at your neighbors is a helluva lot worse than making a few bets on your own team. (Hey, I'm still pissed at Rose for trying to beat up Mets short-stop Bud Harrelson in the 1973 NL Playoffs, but I believe he belongs in the Hall Of Fame and deserves a chance to redeem himself.)

I really don't have a problem with James Brown getting out of the joint and going back to his old gig. But as a role model for our nation's youth, Brown is no M.C. Hammer. As a matter of fact, to some of our suburban youth, he's just that guy in a Dead Milkmen song.

I don't mean to pit Brown vs. Rose, after all, there are many similarities between them: they've both adjusted "themselves" in front of large crowds; both have trademark hairdos which have influenced a generation (Brown = Sharpton and Rose = Quayle); Rose has placed bets with organized crime, Brown is the "godfather of soul"; Rose was known for his speed on the base path, Brown is known for his excessive speed on interstates. . . You get the idea. . . HIT ME!

" . . . In another 10 years we're going to look as lame as any generic AOR programmer—too old trying to look too young."

On a totally different subject. . . The Gavin Seminar was a primordial soup of alternative activity. The one thing that keeps popping up in my head is that I've been seeing the same people at these get-togethers for almost 10 years. What frightens me is that in another 10 years we're going to look as lame as any generic AOR programmer—too old trying to look too young.

Overheard dialogue between two alternative leftovers at the Gavin Seminar, 2010:

"Hey I remember the Jags, 'I Got Your Number' was total godhead. . ."

"No way! 'Switch Into Glide' ruled! They just don't make songs like that anymore. . ."

"Yeah you're right. Things started to change right around the time the stuff we liked started to sell!"

"Hey, are you checkin' out that Big Star reunion tonight? I hear Chilton's still got it!"

"I'll be there, too bad you never hear that stuff on the radio. Speaking of which, what do you think is going to happen to the format?"

"Well, it seems pretty healthy. . . I mean there are, like, 30 commercial stations doing it now. And if it weren't for that classic rock thing it would be huge!"

"Classic rock! I can't believe anyone would want to hear R.E.M. again in this day and age. . ."

Remember, you read it here first.

VILLAGE PEOPLE NYU Loeb Student Center, New York City, February 28

Somehow, you knew if you walked in the venue just in time to hear the segue from John Travolta/Olivia Newton-John to the Bay City Rollers that you had in fact entered a time-warp set for disco hell—sort of an ugly retro flash could leave you somewhat more than dizzy. Eight-track stereo, Kojak, flaired polyester suits, lava lamps, bean bags and six freaks were the order of the night. After a "best '70s dressed" contest featuring Starsky & Hutch's Huggy Bear look-alikes, out came the cowboy, construction worker, main man, Indian, biker and soldier—a sight that triggered rapid childhood images. Village People circa '91 features a contemporary feel to the lost genre, er "trash disco," in the form of hip-hop rhymes, that for the most part work (Dave the construction worker handles the mike with ease while the Indian should probably stick to his wardance spiel). While all the hits were covered and performed up to par, the group's sheer genius was in its between-song banter that worked the crowd into a frenzy comparable only to an '84 David Lee Roth lather. Ironically, to the left of the stage a sign proclaimed the illegalities of dancing. Yet the sign was completely ignored as just about all the folks participated—especially in the classic "Y.M.C.A." hand gestures—in bringing the roof down. If the Village People have any say, the '70s, the decade that taste forgot, will be here forever. . . So get wise and dust off your platforms!

SOUTHERN CULTURE ON THE SKIDS

Exit Inn, Nashville, TN, February 20

What better place in America is there to witness the decline and fall of all that was grand and glorious in our Southern civilization than in Music City, USA. Not since the War (Civil, not Gulf) has Southern culture been so raw and untamed as when Southern Culture (the band) took to playing their own version of Link Wray-inspired trash. The trio, headed by guitarist Rick Miller, warmed up with a slow twistin' blues instrumental, then broke into the fiery "Cicada Rock." Southern Culture, though, never veers too far from their three favorite subjects: 1) sex and food; 2) food and sex; and 3) sex as food. The third subject was borne out especially well in their hilarious song, "Shacking All Nite, Feeling Alright, I've Got My 8 Piece Chicken Box." Miller sings this one like he was George Kennedy in Cool Hand Luke, as he goes on about the leg, thigh and breast in finger-lickin' detail. Similar numbers like "She's My Little Bisquit Eater" had the crowd stompin' and howling in a way only the South can do. Still, the show wasn't all dumplings and gravy—on the contrary, some of Miller's amazing guitar licks and feedback gave parts of the show an eerie sensation like listening to Robert Johnson on percodan. Add to this bassist Mary's yodeling and dog howls and you have yourself the weirdest trio this side of Captain Beefheart. If you're going to SXSW in Austin this month, be sure to check them out. And bring napkins.
