CAKEKITCHEN

Time Flowing Backwards

(Homestead, P.O. Box 800, Rockville Centre, NY 11571-0800/516-764-6200)

Graeme Jefferies has made moderate waves on these shores with his solo releases and This Kind Of Punishment, but this debut LP (including the four songs from their 1989 release) is the one most likely to carve him a cornerstone in New Zealand rock along with all the Verlaines, Chills and Cleans one could throw a fanzine at. Cake Kitchen draws from primarily NZ map reference points; from the Verlaines/S. Fits school of moody, windswept soundscapers, an ambience wild and desolate is sown, contrasting with prim and proper vocals. It's not all rolling hills and waving grass—the forlorn, halting songs owe a little to the inverted Gordons with instrumental quirks that, like the Tall Dwarfs' more wistful numbers, form a part of the CK's piquant sadness. And sometimes, like on "Dave The Pimp," the tidal tugging of guitar and rhythm comes close to unglued, and close to the standard Sonic Youth power ballad. With only three people scrambling to and fro on recorders, viola, keyboards, etc., it's an intricate, and therefore inextricable, mood-trap with dolorous, lagging melodies with a spirit of resignation that's outstanding on even jollier, relatively bare numbers. Cake Kitchen adapts the cherished NZ guise of twisted, misunderstood mystic to lavish, blockbuster scale on "Airships," "Machines" and "One + One = One."

SONNY SHARROCK

Ask The Ages

(Axiom, c/o Island, 14 E. 4th St., New York, NY 10012)

Now this is heavy. His preeminence on the electric guitar is hardly in question: Extend the arena of comparison, and Sonny Sharrock is quite simply one of the most dynamic and riveting soloists in jazz, on any instrument. He's the John Coltrane of the electric guitar—when it comes to soaring melodicism, breathtaking conceptions and biting tone, he's one of the few players who's remotely on a similar musical and spiritual wavelength with the late master. Ask The Ages is even more special because it's a reunion of sorts, teaming the guitarist with legendary saxophonist Pharoah Sanders. Sharrock first moved from obscure origins playing doo-wop into jazz by joining Pharoah's band, becoming a pioneer on his instrument, probably the first jazz musician to approach the guitar with full-on, wailing solos like Hendrix rather than sticking to mellow chordal colors and tame post-Django single-string bopping. Add in the dynamism of Elvin Jones on drums and Charnett Moffett on bass, and you've got an awesome quartet on your hands, and some pretty amazing results shine on Ask The Ages. The key is that Sharrock gets to the heart of jazz music in his piercing solos—if his Les Paul sounds at times like a saxophone, it's only because he knows that both guitar and reed sound their best when they imitate the cry of the human voice.

DEFINITION OF SOUND

Love And Life: A Journey With The Chameleons

(Cardiac, 1790 Broadway, New York, NY 10019/ 212-977-8020)

Perhaps they should have called themselves the Re-definition Of Sound. The London duo makes like club DJs who want to play records while the band's still on stage, mixing rapping, spacey samples, deep diva singing, '60s harmonies, Sade-esque nouveau soul and handfuls of wide-eyed positivity. Though Kevwon and The Don are the main players, the group goes the way of U.K. collectives, utilizing producer Rex Brough (guitar, bass, cello, etc.), amazing singers Elaine Vassell and Ashanti, and tasteful live instrumentation from many others. DOS is truly innovative, balancing the aesthetics of hip-hop with the melodic force of a rock-soul band and still creating an incredibly coherent statement throughout the album's length.

Love And Life follows more like a Beatles LP than a Run-D.M.C. album; slower reggae dubs ("Rise Like The Sun," "Won") temper the upbeat pop-rap hybrids ("Now Is Tomorrow," "Dream Girl") just as Sweet Paul might have complemented/contrasted with Sour John. And the comparison isn't lost on Definition Of Sound—"Wear Your Love Like Heaven" combines '90s rap with live neo-'60s British Invasion pop seamlessly, bringing to mind a radio dial caught between an AOR station and a Saturday-night mix show on an R&B station. While Deee-Lite was lacking in songs and Beats International was lacking in concept, DOS has mastered both, making a musical Journey that shatters preconceptions as well as the pigeon-holing typified by MTV's summer blocks.

MR. BUNGLE

Mr. Bungle

(Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505)

Hailing from Eureka, CA, and the original vehicle for the myriad vocal energies of Mike Patton, Bungle's debut can be considered a Dali-esque mirror of the SanFran musical smorgasbord, to a comparatively Norman Rockwell Faith No More. Produced by John Zorn, the Bungle funhouse is heavily influenced by his Naked City project (as well as the Boredoms and Japanese hardcore), but like the mythological camelopard, its metallified loins, f-punk stripes, grind spots and operatic-polka-noir antlers are its own extremely skittish, musically omnivorous beast. Tirelessly rattling the album's cages and bouncing off of its walls, a standard Bungle song shatters and recombines into a thousand particles—a partial listing includes: ludicrous antics of the horn section colliding with Valkyrian crescendos, industrial lurching guitar, sampled absurdity and booby-trap time-changes, with narrator Patton's porno-contortionist vocals swinging from monkey chatter to Mr. Doomsday as the tempo strikes. Mr. Bungle is as complex, ambitious, painstakingly orchestrated and exhaustively sequenced as this decade's best rap albums; keeping up with the Bungle circus and its ever-evolving surprises should be a challenge even for the Nintendo generation. Advanced play: "Travolta," "Slowly Growing Deaf," "My Ass Is On Fire" and "Girls Of Porn."

SKIN YARD 1000 Smiling Knuckles (Cruz, P.O. Box 7756, Long Beach, CA 90807/213-424-8291)—Try to fence in Skin Yard with Seattle bands like Mudhoney or Nirvana and you're missing the point, because punky neo-grunge isn't their game. Over the crooked course of their three previous LPs and handful of singles, they've evolved to this blow: 1000 Smiling Knuckles, a decidedly metal album that is far too brutal and cohesive to dismiss. Noted for his production prowess, guitarist Jack Endino looks and plays like the missing member of Crazy Horse who's been mixing way too much speed with his cactus juice. And frontman Ben McMillan has perfected his menacing delivery, to complement a rhythm section upgraded by the presence of Barrett Martin, who lithely handles the band's surging time changes. OK, so they're a distinctly better band than ever before, so they should have no problem writing fierce anthems on par with the marvelous "Stranger" from their second LP, Hallowed Ground, right? Right: "Psychoriflepowerhypnotized," "Living Pool," "Jezechrist," the title track and "Material Freak."

KATYDIDS Shangri-La (Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505)—At last, the third band for the dream bill of Jellyfish and the Posies. There were a few who wrote off the Katydid's debut as bright, pert, jangly and often somewhat inconsequential, but if you really listen, songs like "The Boy Who's Never Found" or "Faith To Change" are darker, dreamier pieces of pop that expose a mysterious, if not downright eerie, aspect that creeps into their music. On their second album, singer Susie Hug's vocals are often just so high and so clear that they take on a sublime, chilling effect that's a little bit like when Alex Chilton used to hit those ghostly high notes. It's of the same cloth as, say, your favorite precious Badfinger or Byrds record, but the Katydid's still exist in their own space that defies easy description and categorization, neither sardonically retro like Jellyfish nor as '90s as Material Issue. Side two (if there really still is such a thing) is actually a nice mixture of what we guess you'd call post-'80s female-singer rock with (note the album's title) Kinks-like melodicism—just when things might be getting a wee bit twee, they throw in a simple and catchy art-school-rocker riff like "Don't Think Twice."

CARTER THE UNSTOPPABLE SEX MACHINE 101 Damnations (Chrysalis, 645 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022)—Yeah, hype is a dirty word, and it can be as harmful to a band's career as it can be helpful. In the case of Carter The Unstoppable Sex Machine, the hype is just something else that they throw into the smorgasbord of images on their U.S. debut, as the duo of Jim Bob and Fruit Bat put substance above all else. There's punk energy, British humor and graphic lyrics that are full of anger and sarcasm, almost like Billy Bragg on MDA. There are testimonies to life-like little scenes out of the tourist guide of the dark side of human nature. There are stories of suicide, problems of the homeless, crime and slumlords that are told with an acerbic wit, finely walking the line between political preaching and humanistic caring. This, their first album released in the U.K. over a year ago (followed by 30 Something, to be released stateside shortly), is told with clanging guitar energy, bold synth beats and often comedic samples (lines by people ranging from Bob Dylan to Kurtis Blow are also borrowed here and again). Plug into: "Sheriff Fatman," "Everytime A Churchbell Rings," "Good Grief Charlie Brown" and "Midnight On The Murder Mile."

WEIRD PAUL Lo Fidelity, Hi Anxiety (Homestead, P.O. Box 800, Rockville Centre, NY 11571-0800/516-764-6200)—Weird Paul Petroskey, who recently celebrated his 20th birthday, has seven long years of teenage angst pent up inside his corrupted soul and just the right tools to share it with an empathetic subculture—a guitar, an amp and a friend with a drum kit. Weird Paul is actually a band comprised of Paul Petroskey and fellow Pittsburgh suburbanite Manny Theiner, with creative assistance from a few friends and members of the Petroskey clan. Don't start thinking that Weird Paul is the next post-punk thing. By contrast, he lives in the underground which spawned punk in the first place. Paul probably grew up taking in the melodic punk, snotty demeanor and rebellious attitude of the Ramones along with the real-life situations presented by TV sitcoms, which he expertly synthesized into his own version of D.I.Y. sensitive song-writing espoused by Daniel Johnston and Beat Happening. Did we mention that the lyrics are undeniable expressions of the pain and glee in modern life? Cue these up on your lo fidelity CD-player: "What I'm Gonna Do To You," "My Head's On Fire," "Listening To Your Heart," "Acting Like Mel Torme," "Whalin' The Shit Out Of Guys" and the closing ballad "Once In A Blue Moon."

INTO PARADISE Churchtown (Ensign, c/o Chrysalis, 645 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022)—

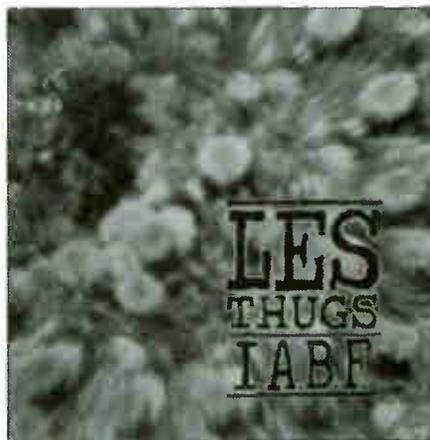

Hailing from the Dublin suburb of Churchtown (hence the title), Into Paradise is a four-piece that captures much of its intimate surroundings in its music. A high-powered rhythm section fuels the guitar-driven pop with music that is hopeful and reciprocally anguish-ridden at the same time. This is wrapped around the searching, painful vocals of frontman Dave Long, who evokes images of Ian Curtis, Robert Smith and Wayne Massey in his dark intensity. Into Paradise puts it all together with a fine balance of sadness and inspiration, never losing faith and never becoming morose, as they keep control of the turmoil in the polished outer result. Churchtown is an album that comes from within, sophisticated while bucking trends, and honest while avoiding pop pretensions. With its second release in the States (1990's eponymous debut was a compilation of the first two EPs), Into Paradise has left an accessible calling card that rings with many emotions. Get into: "Burns My Skin," "Rain Comes Down," "All Down From Here," "Bring Me Up" and "Dreaming."

GALLOPING CORONERS Jump Out The World-Instinct (Alternative Tentacles, P.O. Box 11458, San Francisco, CA 94101/415-541-5303)—

The celebrated god of fuzz pedals and acid-envisioned guitar freakouts has smiled benevolently on the Hungarians—rampant psychedelic spirituality and punkish anarchic turmoil conspire for one head-expanding rat's nest of a record. Donning a halo of trashy production and adorned with all the '60s-reaffirming, foot-stomping devices needed to blast music back into the stoned ages, the band does its best to bash into being a time warp of swirling, dimension-shifting confusion. The song excursions fall into themselves from sheer heaviness of vibe, the players bashing on in the throes of acid attack until every last neuron has been swept up and altered. The band goes about its task with the jagged riffage of fellow Europeans as the Nomads or Union

Carbide, and dangerous levels of noise are scattered to the winds as hedonistically as the meaner CA revivalists (early Miracle Workers or Dwarves), but the Coroners start where other bands fall apart. Discipline and structure are mere impediments to these ultra-faroutski passages, which invariably end with the amps, instruments and the band members themselves melting into a sticky dayglo glob. De-programming begins with: "Hello Universe!" "I'm Calling You!" and "Another Kind Of Landscape."

LES THUGS I.A.B.F. (Alternative Tentacles, P.O. Box 11458, San Francisco, CA 94101/415-541-5303)—

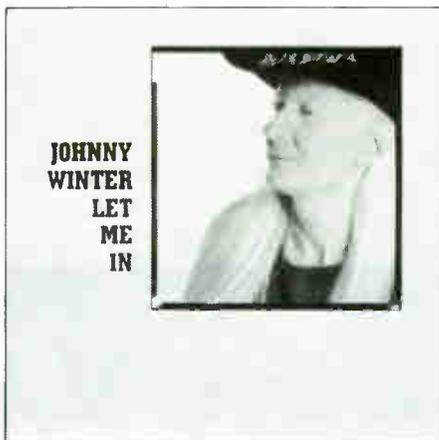

France's Les Thugs take the spirit of punk rock to heart, infusing both the music and the lyrics with a rebellious spirit that is straightforward and honest. The band has been making volatile, MC5-fueled rock for years, but on I.A.B.F. (International Anti-Boredom Front) they expand upon that sound, taking it to new heights. Some of the songs are slower and explore the use of driving repetition. The three instrumentals stand out especially as testaments of the band's growth, as they balance on a teeter-totter between the spirited power chords that fuel the music and the melodic energy that drives them to conclusion. The lyrics, which are in English, alternately explore the pain of love and the oppressive political climate of the world, making it evident that this band lives the sentiments in its songs. Like the Godfathers, Les Thugs have found an irresistible blend of metallic anger and melodic structure. Picks: "I Love You So," "And He Kept On Whistling," "Is It The Right Way?" and the title cut.

BENNY GREEN TRIO Greens (Blue Note, c/o Capital, 1750 N. Vine St, Hollywood, CA 90028)—

Young pianist Benny Green is fast becoming the most playful, resourceful and all-around swing-iest pianist in the neo-postbop mainstream scene today. With Greens, Benny conveys the sheer brilliance of his piano playing plus soulful and scorching forward-looking compositional skills. With all the attention the media has been giving to young boppers, it's refreshing to notice an artist (in the true sense of the word) with the clarity and maturity of Benny Green. The incredible recording quality is beautiful in and of itself—listen to the many sonic nuances in Christian McBride's bass sound—and it brings out the soft lyricism in such ballads as "You Don't Know What Love Is," "I See Your Face Before Me" and the tough attack in "Greens" and "Battle Hymn Of The Republic." No one can deny the artistry and rhythmic imagination that bassist Christian McBride and drummer Carl Allen bring to this trio, making every song sound like nobody else's.

JOHNNY WINTER Let Me In (Point-blank, c/o Charisma, 1790 Broadway, New York, NY 10019)—

Feeling a strong sense of good blues deja vu, we were gonna say something along the lines of "Side two of Let Me In is Johnny Winter's best solid album side since..." and fill in the blank. After a while, our home research broke down into a rousing, collection-scouring Johnny Winter bluesfest which lasted most of the night, and we realized the extent of our folly: It turns out that just about any side of virtually every album he's ever done over 20-odd years has been a guaranteed down-home scorcher from end to end. He cut his first record when he was 15 (that's right around Stevie Ray Vaughan's second birthday, if you're curious), and he's hung with the heavies all his life (practically adopted as spiritual son by Muddy Waters). As always, Winter has an incredible knack for finding obscure but apt songs and making them his own—you might think that a poignant blues lyric like "Life Is Hard" or "Illustrated Man" might be autobiographical, but they're actually covers. Johnny Winter is a bluesman's bluesman 'til the end, as undeniable an American institution as any of his peers of the first magnitude, and Let Me In is a blues tour de force, from National steel-string to boogie to searing Southside slide, dished up for blues fans and purists who like it straight up, no fanfare, no frills.

KANDA BONGO MAN Zing Zong (Rykodisc, Pickering Wharf, Bldg. C-3G, Salem, MA 01970/508-744-7678)—There is no doubt that Kanda Bongo Man, a Zairean native and the world's best known voice of soukous music, is a man of many abilities. Zing Zong has both a soothing and intensely dramatic force; its drive stems from the thumping rhythms and excellent lyricism. The central arrangements are lush and accessible, devoid of the clusters of synthesizers often overused in current African releases. The title track is a simple, rhythmically and lyrically abstract song, an adaptation of Bella Bella's (the group which launched Kanda's career) "Houleaux Houleaux," and an homage to the untimely death of his musical cohorts, the Soki brothers. The eight-piece band particularly suits him, with all players as assured as he is, adding to the tight, body-centered feel of the music, and leaving any further ornamentation to his voice. Kanda's singing will sweep you along, its seductive, pulsating conviction being the highlight of the record, especially on "Monie," "Wallow" and "Kadhi."

POWER OF DREAMS Immigrants, Emigrants And Me (Polydor, c/o PLG, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Singing songs about love, teenage angst and youthful hopes and frustrations, Dublin, Ireland's Power Of Dreams provides a glimpse of growing up on its debut LP. Considering they are still teenagers themselves and are still experiencing what they write about, they make Immigrants, Emigrants And Me that much more convincing, as rebellion and heartache abound. Crafting and channeling their feelings and making sense of the mess of emotions, Power Of Dreams follows the trails blazed by fuzz-pop elders, especially the House Of Love ("Stay") and the Wedding Present—chiefly akin in Craig Walker's drawled vocal presence. They play literate power pop with an emphasis on lyrics and hooks, all captured by the lively production of Ray Shulman (Sundays). Dreams are made of "The Jokes On Me," "Never Told You," "Where Is The Love," "Had You Listened" and "Does It Matter."

ANTIC HAY A Few Cuts In Return (Merkin, 310 E. Biddle St., Baltimore, MD 21202/301-234-0048)—Antic Hay has been lurking around Norfolk, VA, for seven years or so, honing down its own distorted, psychotic rock. Spending some time in the studio proved to be a fruitful event, as it produced a debut album, A Few Cuts In Return, which should quickly put the group on college radio's musical map. Antic Hay doesn't easily fall into a category—it encompasses a soul-searching dreaminess as well as a decided nervous anger. The muscle holding all this together is taut with aggression and anxiety, fleshing the songs out with a sympathetic sense of confusion. Take "All So Easy," which starts off with the jangle of what sounds like wind chimes—this delicately disturbing noise resounds at the end of the song, reinforcing the sense of unease.

The other songs follow a similar pattern: They begin with a luring melody that bends and twists within the tension of the music and the emotional whims of singer Gary Ziroli's overwrought voice. Cut in with these: "And," "Fear Alone," "One That Got Away" and "Everything Is Beautiful."

LEO KOTKE Great Big Boy (Private Music, 9014 Melrose Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90069/213-859-9200)—Kotke's not known for his singing, so much so that he claims he was advised against it by friends; Great Big Boy marks his first LP of all vocals. Good for him. Kotke has sung before, but on this record he doesn't rely on purely instrumental dazzlers for support. Kotke's singing is a lazy, deeply spoken patter which adds an undeniably distinct character to the work. Like a stateside Richard Thompson, Kotke's playing is brilliant without showing off, and he shares Thompson's penchant for the twisted side of life in his songs—enjoy the keen details of California life on "The Other Day (Near Santa Cruz)." Kotke's lyrics range from the playful fairy-tale "Pepe Hush," about a nosey dog, to the twisted poetry of "Great Big Boy" and "Driver." Kotke is at his best when the tempo is up and the strings are really buzzing, like on "Nothin' Works" with Lyle Lovett. Enjoy all the above, and "Running Up The Stairs" and "Ice Cream" as well.

WALTER WOLFMAN WASHINGTON Sada (Pointblank, c/o Charisma, 1790 Broadway, New York, NY 10019)—Walter "Wolfman" Washington had been stalking the blues world unrecognized for decades when Rounder finally got around to recording him in the mid '80s; by that time he had long begun tempering his blues with soulful ballads and elaborate R&B horn and vocal arrangements. His major-label debut Sada continues his evolution toward a smooth and bluesy form of soothing modern soul, showing that the age-old adage must indeed be true: If you serve enough time playing the blues, you can play just about anything else and still never forget your roots. This is indeed sweet soul music—something that we're afraid is fast becoming a vanishing breed these days. Still, don't think that the "Wolfman" middle name is an outdated misnomer that's a vestige of bluesier hard times: Washington handles his vocals with a gruff, rough and heartfelt quality, punctuating his growling shouts and singing with piercing, stinging guitar lines. Though he's moved his base from the Crescent City to Switzerland, Sada still bears a strongly soulful New Orleans pedigree, including some tasty rhythm guitar by Leo Nocentelli (of Meters fame) and an unmistakable swing that Walter and his band the Roadmasters have been rolling out for years.

JACKPOT EXTRA!

WALKABOUTS Where The Deep Water Goes (EP) (Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA 20645/206-441-8441)—A perfect four-song aperitif prior to the Scavenger album (late September release), Where The Deep Water Goes lifts two originals from the upcoming Gary Smith-produced LP and then tags on a twin-killing of superlative covers not bound for the LP. "Where The Deep Water Goes" is luxurious, seafaring folk-rock, with a bucolic Fairport Convention-like feel that recalls both Linda Thompson and Sandy Denny, while "Stir The Ashes" is more propulsive and earth-bound. The two non-originals are brilliantly conceived and executed, particularly in lieu of the glut of banal cover versions we've grown tiredly accustomed to—takes on Alex Chilton's "Big Black Car" and Neil Young's "On The Beach" are astonishingly gorgeous and would make both authors proud.

CORAL "Filling A Hole" (7") (Merge, P.O. Box 1235, Chapel Hill, NC 27514/919-929-0711) — This is the first we've heard from the immortal high-stress yelp of Bob Schick since Honor Role broke up ages ago, and hoo boy, does Coral match the taut, tumbling acrobatics of the former. Where "Filling A Hole" starts out with light rhythms and barely electrified guitar, it soon shifts to a towering monument of guitar scree and impervious bass, with "Your Reward" another drama of phase-shifted guitar and rhythm section hurtling through.

PRISONSHAKE "Then She Prayed" (7") (Rubber (Australia), c/o Scat, P.O. Box 141161, Cleveland, OH 44114/216-861-2175)—Featuring a selection from the progressively-harder-to-find I'm Really Fucked Now of yesteryear, "Then She Prayed" is worthy of re-introduction due to its disruptive swagger, sawdust 'n shit-kicking demeanor. P-shake gets a little more blues-infested than usual, and to emphasize the mood there's an unreleased bar-burner called "Little Pink Ribbons" on the flip which takes a Gibsons-like skeletal riff on a death ride to Jeffrey Lee Pierce's unmarked grave.

ZENI GEVA "Honowoh" (7") (Baby Huey, 9028 E. Rancho Real, Temple City, CA 91780)—Japan's Zeni Geva has released one excellent LP stateside this year, establishing a formidable reputation amongst adventurous metalheads, and now these three songs can do the same for the category-busters on the indie circuit. On "Honowoh," there's a brief, almost speedy, burst of Japanese spazcore along with a compendium of those old Sabbath/Melvins vibes of creeping black annihilation with a death metal finish. The rest of side A, "Sweetheart," and "Bloodsex" chant their title as a Satanic mantra amid arid gusts of guitar, and a relentless wasteland of bass and drums sits squarely between the intensities of B. Sab and B. Flag.

WILLIAM S. BURROUGHS & GUS VAN SANT "Millions Of Images" (7") (SOL, 118 Washington St., Hoboken, NJ 07030/201-653-1703)—Slingshots of past, present and future surface and vanish in this groovy-weird artifact. Gus Van Sant directed Drugstore Cowboy, among other accomplishments, and he's responsible for this trippy instrumental track, which rambles on coolly and unconcernedly, much like a Hendrix psychedelic noodling session. That description is particularly apt on "Hipster Be-bop Junkie," with "Third Stone"-ish 78 rpm voices intruding, making for a laid-back and timeless setting for echoey excerpts of fave Burroughs subjects.

SUGARBURN "Halfway Train" (7") (Sonic Bubblegum, 157 Murdock St. #3, Brighton, MA 02135/612-645-0227)—If Dinosaur Jr. sounded a little more like Superchunk and a little less like Neil Young, then they might sound like the melodic fury of Boston's Sugarburn. "Halfway Train" has a raging melody and a furious rhythm section, finished off with a guitar solo that favors energy rather than the retro classicism of many in its ilk. "Cloudbreath" follows a similar pattern, though it's a little more jangly, with an irresistible chorus.

DASHBOARD SAVIOURS "All Before" (7") (SOL, 118 Washington St., Hoboken, NJ 07030/201-653-1703)—Y'know what this reminds us of? Yup, the first Prisonshake single, what with its mix of bleary sunrise wisdom and rock instantaneousness. Seeing as everyone realizes how much we value slow, strained torchsongs from the scruff-haired and bare-foot side of the tracks, one must also recognize we have in our midst potential masters of the form, Bible Belt blues-yowling from a bedraggled punk perspective. And if that isn't enough for an Athens band debut, Peter Buck produced and played 12-string on the B.

TREEPEOPLE "Mistake" (7") (Sonic Bubblegum, 157 Brighton St. #3, Brighton, MA 02135/612-645-0227)—Treepeople has confused a lot of people by releasing several singles and an EP on various labels and by moving from their hometown of Boise to Seattle, where they are confused with Screaming Trees and often asked why they are not on Sub Pop. "Mistake," produced by Jack Endino, probably won't clear anything up, but it's sure a nice chunk of punked-out pop to keep us wallowing in confusion. The Steve Fisk-produced "Ballard Butter" is a grittier, brasher affair, with a driving, repetitive rhythm and a tense, energetic melody.

FUTURES

JACKPOT!

TSUNAMI Tsunami (Simple Machines, 3510 N. 8th St., Arlington, VA 22201/703-276-0680)—Though all four members are fresh arrivals to the scene, after half a minute through this six-song demo, our ears fill with wistful memories of the verdant days ('round '84-ish) when indie rock, and bands like Uzi and Christmas, first rose to distinction. Apparently recorded from a radio station's production board, the appallingly flat, muddy sound can't obscure a hearty and traditional tackling of honest, staunchly grass-roots rock. Bassist Andrew Webster and drummer John Pamer's anchored, methodical rhythms are direct descendents of Antietam's or early Volcano Suns' broilings (quite discernable on "Flameproof Suit" and "Candyman"). The songs are lumbering at first but pick up steam as they go, with interplay between the instruments as great a consideration as the plain-spoken melodic simplicity of the songs themselves. Vocalist/guitarist Jenny Toomey utters purposely obscure, caustic lyrics with growly defiance—part Tara Key quaver, part Jean Smith accusation. About as steadfast, un-flash and liberal-arts righteous as we can expect in these image-conscious days, Tsunami hasn't quite blown away the accomplishments of the hoary and honorable indie hall of famers, but the blustery spirit and fearless, confrontational attitude indicate a growth spurt from already solid ground.

House of Abdul Records (Rt. 3, Box 318, South Boston, VA 24592/804-753-6736). In an articulately rhythmic style mirroring the low-key raps of Q-Tip or Posduuos, Mello Dread explores the strange relation between headwear, hairstyle, thought processes and identity, ending up with a single that's one big wonderfully long, elaborate and addled mixed metaphor—hats off. . . History lesson: Before he formed the Velvet Underground, Lou Reed was a paid professional songwriter, churning out jingles and songs between donuts and coffee in some Brill building-style office. While JONATHAN GREGG may not be quite of the same luminous quality as his Lou-ness, there is something to be said for his ability to turn a catchy tune or two. Even though his band, the Lonesome Debonaires, may be unsigned, somebody somewhere at Warner-Chappel over in Europe must have recognized a good thing, resulting in a worldwide publishing contract with this largely unknown voice, pen and guitar collusion. If, like us, every once in a while you get a bang out of a really well-turned phrase, you should check out Jonathan's recent four-song demo (c/o Jamie Kitman, 201-886-8416, or write to Jonathan at 304 Mulberry St., #LJ, New York City, NY 10012).

F.Y.I.

The song of the week, "The Dome," comes from rap newcomer MELLO DREAD, whose cassage comes to us "under the production & direction of Abdullah F. Rufus," presumably the force behind the newly formed

JACKPOT!

I.A.O.

I.A.O. Sublimity (Interfisch, c/o Brown Buffalo, 34-35 D'Arblay St., London W1V 3FE/071-734-2712)—

As reissue labels shift into '70s overdrive, the new progressive slowly cumulates. Not that we need Dinosaur-Rock democracy—instrumental virtuosity for its own reward—but there must be room for music that doesn't adhere to a post-punk Stalinist ideology—like I.A.O. The Berlin trio is definitively '90s, since their spirit-drift imbibes—but doesn't imitate—the chemistry of Dance, but these pulsations are another tension altogether—an eight-mike-high glide that dispenses with uptight Western cultural bearings in favor of the East's more meditative ebb-and-flow mentality. I.A.O.'s debut album is a tangent off) space-rock moodistry, but, in truth, Sublimity is rock opened up by space, with room to roam (one German review labeled the trio "Buddha Rock." How about "Zen House," or have The KLF got there already?). I.A.O.'s combination of methodical motion and graceful free-flow can be traced back to the avant-garde "Krautrock" tradition, 1968-76, as in Kraftwerk's minimalist electronica, Neu's lock-grooves and Can's elliptical East-West fusion, but I.A.O. adheres to the dynamic of the rock trio, which is one but not the sole reason why they recall The Cure circa 17 Seconds/Faith. There's also the sparsity and stark simplicity, a deepening mood via a repetitive pace, except I.A.O. replaces Robert Smith's (expert) sullen monocromy with glowing-coal color schemes; these drums/bass gently probe and throb, likewise the stroked, stoked guitars, keyboards and the fragile, faintly robo-pop vocal, but with more decorative, arcing force. The 10 tracks work as chapters of the same book, but "Green Earth"'s slight ethnic influx and processionary trumpet line, "Ferns"'s dance-conscious shimmer, like a jazz-funky moonwalk, and "Nothing Above Us"'s hypnotic lunar-disco stand out. The Cure was termed arrant New-Age anti-revolutionaries in those days, and Sublimity will attract similar flock; after all, side one runs "All Is Bliss," "Spring," "Hands Open," "Green Earth" and "Places Of Soul," but your reception to I.A.O.'s bliss-out plateau depends on whether you're the kind who finds flotation tanks a risible indulgence. By the way, "sublimity" means "elevation, grandeur, nobleness of nature, thought, execution." Dunno about that, but please turn out the lights on your way out.

From the name onwards, can you pin them down? More to the point, can we please have more unpinable, maverick bands? Rock oddballs supreme, Finnish trio 22-Pisterpirrko recently jaw-widened a mostly invited audience at their debut U.K. show this year with a 10-minute feedback freakjam; nothing wrong with that, but it was only their second number of the night. In fact, it was a sublime, timely gesture of fuck-you-ism. This six-track mini-LP contains "Don't Play Cello" and "Frankenstein," overactive thyroid charges from their extraordinary debut album Bare Bone Nest of 1990 (one-time Overseas Jackpot! victors), which the rest more than matches—"Hong Kong King," a lysergic rockabilly lunge; "Bank's TV Set," a Joe-Meek style, cheesy '50s TV/B-Movie instrumental bizarro replete with gunfire that drops in a backwater Bayou pedal-steel interlude; the Conway Twitty-style "Don't Try To Tease Me"; and a comparatively conventional "Motorcycle Man" that won't settle conveniently into any other category other than rock-sinister. The real freak scene, then, without an iota of rock mythology or high camp about them, until we find out otherwise.

HOOVERMAN Not So Fast (Cheree, P.O. Box 653, London E18 2NX/081-530-8381)—Hooverman—as in sniffing up the loose ends off the floor of post-World War II music factory. Not So Fast is no revelation but doesn't sound like Ride, Stone Roses or any other, as of this second, which is worth inclusion alone. This London quintet revels in their post-modernist crunch, which is both their blessing and curse; what is effervescent and slippery can become evasive for its own sake. "Intro Stage Left" and "Rainforests" immediately establish the quirky, almost parodic air, at the junction where pub rock meets punk rock, with duckwalking, skinny-tie guitars, elephantine saxes, trombone farts and flea-jumping tempo changes, like the Bonzo Dog Band adapting to new wave. When they submerge the clownish hullabaloo and ska/bluebeat center, as on "Ummm" and "3" Wide"—not so fast, indeed—Hooverman hints at a higher state of surrealism, but their hearts remain in playful pop structure, not derangement, as the lopsided guitar-based arrangements of "Cranium Dan," "TB," "Les Fleurs Schnell" and "Jack's Back" testify. Quarkness, strangeness and charm nevertheless.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

Most telling post-New Music Seminar news involves a pre-Seminar offer from the British Phonographic Institute, the industry's governing body, to encourage U.K. attendance. Labels at the initial meeting expressed surprise when they saw an EMI representative, since they hadn't figured the major munitions-associated giant needs the 250-pound grant... Maybe MORRISSEY isn't selling enough singles. Which conveniently leads to the too-bloody-long wait before His Nib's U.K. dates. John Peel once told me anticipation was half the pleasure, but it pains me to report it was all the pleasure at what was a sagging London debut at Wembley's Aircraft Hangar (what happened to the promise not to play arenas?)—an out-of-breath singer, a chronically flat sound, a bassist who took to playing his double bass over his head and a guitarist duckwalking from side to side, neither of which said much about my or Morrissey's life. At least EMI has been selling Kraftwerk's remix-collection The Mix prior to their first U.K. dates in a decade. The highpoint—when the band disappeared, leaving the robots to do their little mechanical dance for, needless to say, "The Robots."

SINGLES

It's been a year since the WOULD BE'S "I'm Hardly Ever Wrong" single forced Morrissey and John Peel to slavishly promote their excellence. The Silly Songs For Cynical People EP is equally inspirational; primary guitar-pop with melodic, melancholic verve and ironic, cynical sentiments—yes, the Smiths' tradition/light never goes out. The EP is more robust than the glorious, faint charm of their debut, especially "Cynical Song," taking them close to prime Girls! At Our Best territory, although "Logic Makes No Sense To Me" is gorgeous folk-rock protest. Yup, pop 45 of the column (Decoy, 231 Portobello Road, London W11 1LT/071-792-9824)... Instrumental space-rock vintage of the column: The long-standing ORZIC TENTACLES are dreadlocked denizens of the free-concert circuit. Incredible how they're in "style" now; incredible how it's their first single in 10 years. "Splosh"/"Live Throbbe" are strobe-lit spacegrooves, forged out of Krautrock, Hawkwind, Arabic melody and Planet Gong/Steve Hillage tee-pee prog-rock (Dovetail, c/o Real Time, 69 Wells St., London W1P 3RB/071-636-5608)... Rock Splurge of the column goes to Perry Farrell's new faves SILVERFISH and their Fuckin' Drivin' Or What EP. The lead-off is "Big Bad Baby Pig Squeal," a constipated, petrol-slick rock-funk riff supporting singer Lesley's feminist rant, "hips, tits, lips, power." "Puppy Truck" and "Texas Tea" confirm Silverfish's growing dexterity; rock shards coming from all angles instead of just in your face (Creation, 8 Westgate St., London E8/081-986-7190)... Take your pick—grunge, metal, boogie, psychedelia. SPITFIRE's "Superbaby" takes them all, generically so. Approximately 1/50 as emphatic as the MC5/Stooges mania it's formulated on, and these anguish-faced, wah-wahed guitars and wrap-around-shade vocal sighs are starting to sedate me. I think Spitfire takes drugs and leaves the rest to chance (Eve Recordings, c/o Real Time, address above)... SLOWJAM's "Freefall" is much more arresting, and a curio too. It's funk-metal, but garage-born, thrashy and punky, muddled and murky, with a cranky drum machine, offkey samples and outrageously commercial tunes, cleverly under-produced by Mekons/Three Johns founder Jon Langford. On the flip, "Can't Sit Still" adds great AOR guitar springboards (Boston was one of the world's most subliminal influences, don't you think?) and "Distance" some flat-out horn section. No arsequake, but a lot of your time (Darling, c/o Brown Buffalo, address above)... Slowjam's smorgasbord effect doesn't appear to strain for pop-mobility, but it makes ground over FIVE THIRTY's similar attempt. The mod-ish power trio should stop trying so hard—"Supernova" is neat nugget-pop, in limpy, psychedelized Small Faces tradition, but no supernova, while the rockier flip-side's "Something's Got To Give" shows a far clearer sense of pop dynamism. This reduction of '60s/'90s rock-out trip-out is still looking for the genius touch (East West, The Electric Lighting Station, 42 Kensington Court, London W8 5DP/071-938-2181)... As are cuddly Welsh militants MANIC STREET PREACHERS. Their major-label debut, "Stay Beautiful," is still frustratingly short of the incendiary, insurgent call-to-arms that their out-of-time proto-punk ideology now demands, but it's cute—an endearing reminder of the calorific dash of London Calling-era Clash-rock mixed with the Replacements' trad-rock romanticism. But "endearing" won't win the war (Columbia, c/o Hall Or Nothing, Broadway House, 35 Harwood Road, London SW6 4QP/071-371-5633).

Martin Aston, 50 Choumert Road, London U.K. SE15/071-639-2308.

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/non-commercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). BOLD indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position; #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more... PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

RADIO BREAKTHROUGHS

Greatest Upward Chart Movement

ROBYN HITCHCOCK & THE EGYPTIANS Perspex Island (A&M)

Where Perspex Island is we're not sure. Perhaps it's the place where a noted English oddball could crossover to the mainstream of the mainland. A proud oasis of clever and creative Anglo pop, Perspex Island is this week's Radio Breakthrough at #22.

CMJ RADIO TOP 150

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/non-commercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). BOLD indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position; #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more. . . PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

CHART TALK

Column by Mark Glaser

Living Colour: Stealing the show

Massive Attack should be massive

A Real Lollapalooza: Thanks to the Lollapalooza Tour (see below), a dedicated Geffen promotional staff, a CMJ cover pick and all of our predictions to the contrary, Siouxsie & The Banshees hang on to the top spot for the seventh straight week. Not only that, but the Smashing Pumpkins, who we had already anointed kings, dropped down to #3, leaving Chapterhouse in the runner-up spot. Ned's Atomic Dustbin (4-4) and Big Audio Dynamite II (7-5) are still pretty far back from the top, with poor showings in the West regional holding both down. New Top 10ers: Geffen's XTC redux package and Arista's Straitjacket Fits. Look out for Columbia's Psychedelic Furs (17-12), Capitol's Crowded House (19-13) and Morgan Creek's Mary's Danish. This week might also mark the end of an incredible run of Top 10 indies, with the Pumpkins (2-3), My Life With The Thrill Kill Kult (5-6) and Blake Babies (6-11) all losing support.

Super Indies: Despite the drop off at the top, there are loads of indies that are thriving lower down the chart. 4AD's Pale Saints EP (39-32), Homestead's Daniel Johnston (52-41), Triple X's Barkmarket (65-42), Matador's Thinking Fellers Union Local 282 (51-46) and New York Eye & Ear Control (108-79), and Taang!'s Moving Targets (69-57) all improve this week. Look out for new Mudhoney, Hole and Cakekitchen to join the list soon.

P.S.: The Top Cuts chart is not supposed to be a mirror image of Billboard/Gavin/HITS' PostModern Rock Alternative Tracks charts. It should be a list of the most-played songs at reporting stations, and that means ALL the stations, not just the ones that program tracks. Even free-form radio stations have a few songs that get played more often than others. Only you can help make this chart more interesting; get involved, report cuts today. Good songs that should be there: "Melt Against Yourself" by Straitjacket Fits; "Kinky Love" by Pale Saints; "F-ck Compton" by Tim Dog; "Zing-Zong" by Kanda Bongo Man; and especially "Buzz" by Pop's Cool Love.

FOCUS

At this point, Head Lollapaloozer Perry Farrell should be considered to head a booking agency or a matchmaking service. His grandiose idea, termed (we love this) the "Alternative Woodstock," has reaped a harvest of rewards, and not just at the box office. Radio-wise, Siouxsie is tops, Living Colour's EP moves 41-30, with Ice-T not far behind (74-31 thanks to radio edits), while Jane's Addiction rises from the dead (81-72). Retail numbers are equally impressive, with Jane's getting brisk back catalog biz and Nine Inch Nails re-entering at #72—NIN also leads in merchandising bucks. Who said phooey to the Lollapaloozie?

Kanda Bongo Man: Post-soukous crossover hit

PROGRESSIVE RETAIL

Chart compiled by Lydia Anderson

ON THE CHART

Though Siouxsie & The Banshees (1-1) and R.E.M. (2-2) still top the chart off, two indie bands (both distributed by Caroline, incidentally) have moved into the #3 and #4 slots: Caroline's Smashing Pumpkins (4-3) and Sub Pop's Mudhoney (11-4), which has also swiped the top In-Store spot from Siouxsie. Along with Wax Trax's My Life With The Thrill Kill Kult (5-6), that makes three indie albums in the Top 10! The only other upward shifts in the Top 10 came from Columbia's Big Audio Dynamite II (9-8) and MCA's Tom Petty And The Heartbreakers (10-9).

The top debut this week (and the only debut on the top half of the chart) was from Columbia's new Psychedelic Furs album, World Outside, at #17. Most of the other new entries were from indie labels, with several from the SST/Cruz camp: Cruz's Big Drill Car (#41), SST's Dinosaur Jr. singles collection called Fossils (#43), Cruz's Skin Yard (#50) and Cruz's Tonyall (#59). The other debuts this week were: Acoustic Discs-Grateful Dead Productions' Jerry Garcia & Dave Grisman (#56), TwinTone's Poster Children (#64), I.R.S.'s Animal Logic (#65) and Elektra's new Metallica single (#66).

Several bands on the Lollapalooza tour are making strong Progressive Retail strides. Such as ... Siouxsie at #1, Epic's new Living Colour EP at #16, WB's Jane's Addiction up 29-23, Sire-WB's Ice-T up 39-28 and TVT's Nine Inch Nails making a re-entry at #72.

We seem to have reached the August doldrums as far as new releases, but look for strong debuts from Robyn Hitchcock & The Egyptians on A&M and Metallica on Elektra in the near future. Also, please note that there will be no reports taken the week of August 19, and thus no New Music Report published. (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

FRESH!

IMS Testimonies Of The Misunderstood (Calvert Street, 6126 Chinquapin Parkway, Baltimore, MD 21239/301-323-2563)—While you all sit and wait for the big records to come out from Queen Latifah, Public Enemy, Jungle Brothers and Poor Righteous Teachers, there is one out there right now that pulls together some of the best assets rap and most of the aforementioned groups have to offer. From a virtually unknown label, IMS (Immortal Mind State) is the duo of Mike Willis and rhythm-maker Sean Carter who present what could almost be considered "new age" rap. With a Gil Scott-Heron ethic and sounding like some outlandish combination of groups like Consolidated, A Tribe Called Quest, X-Clan and Dream Warriors, IMS are explorers of the mind with lyrics that are spiritually stimulating while being as metaphysical and transcendental as KRS-One. Sean Carter's selection of beats and samples provide a brilliant backdrop and perfectly complement Michael's sophisticated rhyming style which drops more science than a textbook—his rhymes always stay bold and serious, coming across with biblical references in "When God Comes Down" to his Nubian Queen praises in "Thinkin' Bout Chu." They provide meditative preachings over Jungle Brothers-style grooves on "M.A.N." and "Free," and Consolidated-sounding thuds on "Destination Unknown" while most of their samples are of obscure jazz riffs that set this effort at the top of its class. Every track has something to offer but I'm partial to: "2 Deep," "New Age," "InnerG." and "Light," which—like DJ Jazzy Jeff did on "Summertime"—samples Kool & The Gang's "Summer Madness."

POSSE NFX Black Or Ya White (Critique, 800 W. Cummings Park, #2500, Woburn, MA 01801/617-935-7540)—Once upon a time there was a rap group from Boston. They were formed by a budding DJ named Mike Dee and their name was Gangstarr Posse. After the eventual success of a group called Gang Star, Mike Dee has since changed the name to Posse NFX (No Further Xcuses). The new crew is a culturally mixed blend of Berklee Music School graduates which, as you can expect, make Black Or Ya White a fantastically diverse and eclectic brew that's packed with throwdown freestyle and vocal entertainment. Straddling a line somewhere between hardcore funk and street-bred hip-hop, Posse NFX rock hard with dense, raw sampling and small bites of sound from the ingenious Mike Dee which at times can be overbearing. MC Shabb's vocal assault is shipped with a smooth street-appealing brashness and confidence that won't short-change any hardcore listener. Several topics are covered between the raw and lively "Posse Funk" and "Do I Come Off." They kick serious issues in their own style on the safe-sex cut, "Johnny," the harder "Shouldn't Have To Run," the social consciousness of "Black Or Ya White" and my personal fave, "The King," which flips an Ed O.G. And Da Bulldogs flavor. This posse's in full effect.

THE JOURNEY CONTINUES . . .

And now for something completely different . . . The first release from Prince Paul's

ON THE CHART

With 12 #1 reports coming in for New York's 3rd Bass (1-1), they are able to keep the upper hand on De La Soul (2-2), who are spending week #4 in the runner-up spot. Fellow Native Tongue family members Black Sheep barely hang on to the #3 spot with Tommy Boy's Naughty By Nature (7-4) just one point behind them. Leaders Of The New School (5-5) sits tight while Ice-T (8-6), who is currently out on the Lollapalooza tour, moves up two to #6. Don't Call It A Comeback: 2 Kings In A Cipher (#26), Brand New Heavies (#29), Sway & King Tech (#32) and

L.L. Cool J (#34) all refuse to call it quits and re-enter the chart. This week's highest debut is metal godheads Anthrax (#39), who finally crack the Top 40 with "Bring The Noise" featuring Public Enemy—it's about time! This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Downtown Science; 2) Black Sheep; 3) Raw Fusion; 4) Cypress Hill; 5) Del Tha Funkee Homosapien; 6) Compton's Most Wanted; 7) Tim Dog; 8) 2 Black 2 Strong; 9) Jibri; 10) Larry Larr. (BEAT BOX REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

(De La Soul/Stetsasonic) new Dew-Doo Man Records (great logo) is RESIDENT ALIEN'S "Ooh The Dew Doo Man" (Dew-Doo Man/RAL, c/o Columbia, P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY 10101-4450). It's a combination of raggamuffin-style rapping and conventional rapping that pokes fun at the Dew-Doo Man Hissell (Prince Paul) . . . Other singles going steady are the H.E.A.L. project's "Heal Yourself" (Elektra, see address above), whose profits will help fund a book by KRS-One; Mercury's JAY B.U.M.'s "The Underground" (Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019); CRIMINAL NATION's remixed "Release The Pressure" (Nastymix, 800 Tower Building, Seventh & Olive, Seattle, WA 98101/206-292-8772), which features the unreleased "Rap Criminal"; and 2 BLACK 2 STRONG's "Across The 110" (Relativity, 187-07 Henderson Ave., Hollis, NY 11423/718-740-5700) which is produced by Chill Will. Peace to all the grandmothers out there who are into rap.

New York, NY 10019—The cast and crew at Elektra are on quite a roll this year with what seems like hit after hit. The latest hitmaker is Del Tha Funkee Homosapien with "Sleepin' On My Couch," which has Ice Cube in its corner (executive producer and cousin) and DJ Pooh producing. This cut is both funny and trimmed with a nice balance of vocals/deep rhyming ("Get your lazy butt off my couch") and short piano and sax samples. Although the group sports an East Coast sound, the group actually hails from California—go figure. Also check out the colorful rhyming on the B-side "Ahonetwo" ("I love the shade of green like my brother Billy Bixby").

ON THE HORIZON

Look out for new LPs from POOR RIGHTEOUS TEACHERS, BLACK SHEEP, DEF JEF, 2 BLACK 2 STRONG and A TRIBE CALLED QUEST (The Law End Theory).

DEL THA FUNKEE HOMOSAPIAN "Sleepin' On My Couch" [100 BPM] (Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza,

No rock, no country, no folk, no gospel, no classical, no metal, and especially nothing from Color Me Badd. Just the funky stuff to Glen "T-Bag" Sansone at CMJ, 245 Great Neck Road, 3rd Floor, Great Neck, NY 11021.

A taste of Gold.

Big Daddy Kane

Hot on the heels of his third Gold Album Taste of Chocolate and the Top 20 hits "Cause I Can Do It Right" and "All of Me," Big Daddy Kane returns with a fly four-song EP of fat remixed Kane joints and a never-before-heard cut.

MACHANIC MANYERUKE

AND THE PURITANS

MACHANIC MANYERUKE AND THE PURITANS Machanic Manyeruke And The Puritans (Flying Fish, 1304 W. Schubert, Chicago, IL 60614/312-528-5455)—Say hallelujah! The gospel has spread far across the world, to the spiritual and social detriment of many cultures, but the one thing that has risen above the damage is the music. Inspiration takes many forms, and here the word of the Lord becomes the rhythm of joy. The approach is simple: Take one electric guitar, a charismatic lead vocalist and ecstatic back-up singers, and add a taste of the music of Zimbabwe. The Puritans are as pure and simple as it gets, and the results are unsweetened bliss. It's got a bit of American country, an Appalachian strumminess (can I say that?) that is 100% charm. If there is any comparison I could think of, it would have to be A.P. and Mother Maybelle Carter with a pinch of Ladysmith Black Mambazo for spice. I wish I could say more about this record, but perfection speaks for itself.

KOTOJA Freedom Is What Everybody Needs (Mesa, P.O. Box 5510, Glendale, CA 91201)—What every African-American band needs is a bass player from Sunny Ade's band and a member of Fela's horn section. Kotoja has both, plus a lot of drive, rock-solid drumming and percussion, and too many bad keyboard samples. This is a band of top-notch performers, notably the horns, with each one offering virtuosity and a steady groove. The songwriting is good, in English and Nigerian, and the arrangements are interesting. What's lacking on this recording is energy. So much of it seems to have been sedated by the production, dulled by the multi-track mixing and careful placement of adornments. A little less care in favor of some excitement would have made a great recording for this obviously talented band. They're touring all over the West Coast in August and September, and my guess is they'll blow you away in concert.

GIPSY KINGS (Toad's Place, New Haven, CT August 24)—A strange event from the first. A sign at the door at Toad's warns "There is limited seating because the band wanted a dance floor. DON'T BLAME US! THEY MADE US DO IT." . . . The lights dim, the band starts a synthesizer and kick drum riff worthy of an Elvis entrance, and then out walk the Gipsy Kings, who ROAR into a wall of sound, six "acoustic" guitars screaming, backed by a four-piece of drums, bass, percussion and orchestra in a box (let's all bow to the great god IBM). Someone next to me mentions that these guys sound like Siouxsie & The Banshees, someone else notes the resemblance to Miami Sound Machine. The Kings gave a no less than passionate performance, blasting through old and new songs to an audience who felt they could do no wrong, playing fast and fiery, the drummers laying down complex rhythms from Spain, France, North Africa and the Caribbean. The problem was that the guitars were lost in a blur of phase shifting and chorusing, the voices were reverbed

ON THE CHART

Sneak attack and double sneak attack! While last week's news was the Itals creeping up to #2 behind Ziggy Marley, this week it's Eek-A-Mouse who slyly wedges himself between Shabba Ranks on top and those very same Itals, who fall to #3. Meanwhile, poor Zigg looks like he may have fallen on hard times, especially in the August lull when reporting is at its lowest; but he could bounce back when some of the more seasonal stations come back on the air in September. Just a reminder: We won't be taking New World Music reports August 19-20, and CMJ will be taking a one-week breather in our publication schedule before school gets back in swing in the fall. So call us again on the 26th and 27th, and let us know what's up. (WORLD MUSIC PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) like it was Shea Stadium and the guy controlling the volume still thought they were in Central Park playing to 30,000 instead of a small club for 400. The Gipsy Kings gave the audience what they wanted—45 minutes and one encore of personality and kick-drum dance beats that drown out any hope of hearing the mastery and subtlety of the music they make. These guys want to be big pop stars, playing Yankee Stadium and the Kinshasa Bowl. Playing places like Toad's seems to be an obligatory stop (and a short one) on the way to the top.

ACROSS THE WESTERN OCEAN

There's a lot of interesting music coming from the other side of the Atlantic lately. So across the western ocean we must wander. . . . STEVE TILSTON returns with a major project of new Celtic music. Like Percy Grainger and Alan Stivell, he hears a grandeur that is expressed in an orchestral style. SWANS AT COOLE (Run River-USA, 2801 Rodeo Road, Suite B-570, Santa Fe, NM 87505/505-438-8022) is a departure from them, however, in its intimacy and small graces. Tilston is a virtuoso guitarist, highly melodic, almost classical in attitude and structure. The centerpiece of the album, "Rhapsody," is arranged for a chamber group of mandolins, guitars, flutes, bagpipes, cello and violins. I'll go so far as to call it a modern masterpiece—elegant, inventive, yet true to the roots of the music. The rest of the album are instrumental works that harken to early Pentangle and earlier baroque masters. . . . No month is complete without an accordion orgy, and August's gorge comes from one of England's squeezebox innovators, ROD STRADLING. While the rest of the folk world in the '70s was hopelessly enamoured with Irish fiddle tunes, Stradling and friends were reviving and reinventing the English country dances. From his folk work with Oak to his dub-reggae-set dance fusions with Tiger Moth, Rod took the accordion where the Albion sun never rose, and made some damn interesting music. His newest release continues the new tradition in a set of old-style tunes set to slide guitars, saxophones and electric rhythm section. The center of it all is the energetic push and pull of his melodeon, a veritable orchestra in a box with no samples, just a lot of air and a lot of music. Bits of Italian, French and American folk tunes insinuate themselves into the proceedings nicely, and the spirited backing of his band, Feckless, is far from the definition of the name, with all the players being musically adept and clever. Rhythms of The Wold (as in "Cotswold," etc.) is another title in the continuing bad pun catalog of Rogue Records, Box 337, London N4 1TW, England. . . . Pure rock 'n roll with a message comes from a 7" by the ROBB

JOHNSON BAND. "Wasted Years" b/w "The Towers Of Basingstoke" (Irregular, c/o Moose Music, 175a Station Road, West Drayton, Middlesex UB7 7NQ, England) features the Tiger Moth rhythm section of Maggie Holland and John Maxwell, great backup singing by Pip Collings (shades of Christine Collister) and vocals and guitar from Johnson and Graham Barnes. It's a thrash at the Thatcherites and Bush-leaguers; it's direct, non-poetic and mad, like a good rock band should be. In the tradition of Ewan MacColl and God's Little Monkeys, this one... But are there moose in England?... Is there a voice that makes me wax romantic; one of those adolescent, squirmy sort of things? (Don't deny it, YOU have one, too.) SANDY DENNY is my weakness. Her high, sweet voice kept me going for most of the '70s in her work with Fairport Convention and solo endeavors. Sandy Denny And The Strawbs (Rykodisc, 58 Pickering Wharf, Bldg. C-3g, Salem, MA 01970/508-744-7678) digs into a very early series of takes from 1967, the heyday of British folk-rock, complete with sitar and tablas and long sighing paeans to love. "Who Knows Where The Time Goes?" is a song there can't be too many versions of.

KETCHUP!

I thought I ought to do one of those trendy, quick blurb things that trades are supposedly famous for... Best album title goes to KIRSTY MACCOLL for Electric Landlady (Charisma, 1790 Broadway, New York, NY 10019), a nice album of Anglo singer-songwriter and some fine Latin grooves. [Sorry, Cliff, but the Windbreakers used that album title first—Ed.]. It's unaffected and easygoing, without the pretense of calling itself "world music," which of course it is! "He Never Mentioned Love" would be a hit song in a sane world... Talk about pure unadulterated! BOOZO CHAVIS (Elektra Nonesuch, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019) delivers no additives and needs no preservatives. Call it zydeco, call it Cajun, call it Creole—it's a home-cooked, smoked barbecue, wheezed and squeezed at a spit-cooked accordion party. Maybe the best recording of the music of rural Louisiana made yet?... Why isn't MARISA MONTE's Capitol album Mais climbing these charts? If you haven't received this one, get quick. "Intoxicating, clean, live and intense" were my exact words... It's bad enough that we have been subjected to the "dread"ful Zeppelin covers all over the airwaves this month by a band that hasn't a clue what reggae is about (let alone Elvis). But now the parodists have been parodied. EEK-A-MOUSE strikes at the heart of cheap-shot makers with his version of Led's "Dyer Maker" on his new album, U-Neek (Island). Once you've gotten a cheap laugh, dig into some of the other tracks, like "Get Away" and "Border Patrol" to hear why the Mouse still has it...

Peace.

CRUCIAL!

BURNING SPEAR Jah Kingdom (Mango, 14 E. 4th St., New York, NY 10012)—What more can possibly be said about Winston Rodney, a.k.a. Burning Spear? Last year's Mek We Dweet burned up the reggae chart and then, following its conversion to the New World Music chart, still continued to smoke for months and months to follow, far into the cold winter. Now in the final days of summer '91, along comes Jah Kingdom, yet another triumphant and outstanding outing from the Spear. There's not really that much that needs to be said about this record, other than that this is yet another outstanding Spear album in the context of today's, or any, times. Spear has always stood out from his contemporaries as an exceptional voice of truth and message, and Jah Kingdom continues to do so, while still managing to bring his words to ever greater audiences. If there were some sort of Nobel Peace Prize to be awarded for reggae as well as for literature, medicine, etc., no doubt Bob Marley would win the first one posthumously, but after that, it'd probably have to go to Spear. The inclusion of "Estimated Prophet," Spear's contribution to the recent Dedicated project as the disc's final bonus track only underscores his vitality and diversity as a performer, figurehead and ambassador for reggae music the world over, but originals like "Jah Kingdom," "Praise Him," "Tumble Down" or "Thank You" also stand out.

set from PRINCE FAR I, aptly entitled Dubwise, that soaks in and out of heavy vibrations throughout its 70 lengthy minutes. There's a funky set from SLY DUNBAR (of course with Robbie Shakespeare as well), culled from two seminal albums in the late '70s, including a bizarre/hilarious reggae workout of the theme from Sesame Street and licks copped from the Saturday Night Fever soundtrack! Two discs from U-ROY represent much of his Virgin Front Line output from 1977-79. There's still more, but I'll save some of it for next time and discuss them in more depth and particulars. While the Heartbeat reissues captured the sounds of Studio One from the late '60s and early '70s, the Front Line series by contrast features much of the preeminent reggae of the late '70s and early '80s. Their technique of distilling two or three albums down to one lengthy CD is both realistic and fair to the original music; to re-release dozens of original titles would be ideal but economically unfeasible, while to release just two or three compilations would barely skim the surface. This stupendous series walks that delicate reissue line concerning art and commerce, and is a model to the entire industry. Superb.

WORDS FROM THE FRONT LINE

In my valiant crusade for more consumer information, I'd like to think that the first set of Front Line reggae reissues from Virgin (and available through Caroline here in the U.S.) had some role in upping the ante as far as giving the buyer more of what he or she wanted from reggae CD reissues. It really did seem that shortly after the series began, even the most mysterious and elusive of reggae labels suddenly started including things like liner notes and session information in their packaging. Well, another batch of Front Line stuff has just shown up, and it upholds the high standards of the first wave last year. Nice artwork, too—and did I mention the music? This is plain and simply some of the greatest reggae out there, both from famous established names and lesser-known, but no less spectacular, talents taken from some of reggae's most memorable years. I have to be careful not to get too carried away in my limited space, but for starters there's a wonderful

Next time: More of the Front Line series, plus we'll catch up with more new releases from Heartbeat (including a new disc from Sugar Minott), as well as singer Judy Mowatt and all-around ladies' man Lieutenant Stitchie. Stay tuned!

BRIAN LYNCH IN PROCESS

BRIAN LYNCH • JIM SNIDERO • JAVON JACKSON • BENNY GREEN • DENNIS IRWIN • ANTHONY REEDUS

BRIAN LYNCH In Process (Ken Music, 301 W. 57th St., #26A, New York, NY 10019)—Brian Lynch, the last in a long, distinguished line of Jazz Messenger trumpeters spanning some 40 years, displays power and poise in equal measure on this nine-track, 72-minute hard-bop delight, the 11th (and most airplay-worthy) title from the nascent Ken Music label. This Wisconsin native, one of the few Caucasian brassmen hired by Blakey, was the Messengers' trumpeter at the time of the drummer-leader's death in October 1990 (he had joined in late 1988). By the time he hooked up with the Messengers, Lynch had already established his worth as a player (with the big bands of George Russell and Toshiko Akiyoshi as well as the combos of Horace Silver and Eddie Palmieri) and recorded as a leader, so his tenure as a Messenger was less an apprenticeship than a master's degree in hard-edged swing and ensemble interaction. Nonetheless, because this CD was recorded only a few days after Bu's passing, and because the sextet includes three other Messenger alumni (tenorist Javon Jackson, pianist Benny Green and bassist Dennis Irwin), In Process is true to both the spirit and methodology of the drummer's revered institution. Lynch, sporting a rich, burnished tone, equally cogent on ballads or uptempo burners, offers four of his own tunes and spearheads a razor-sharp horn attack with tenorist Jackson and the soulful altoman Jim Snidero, his long-time buddy and Ken Music compatriot. And in Tony Reedus he has a Blakey-inspired drummer whose piledriving stickwork and lightning-quick adaptations to the needs of the soloists stand out as a heartfelt benediction to Bu. In Process is a natural for airplay, all the more so for the numerous programming possibilities it suggests: In addition to In Process, Lynch can be heard on Back Room Blues, a late-1989 quintet session as a leader for Criss Cross (also with Jackson), and two 1990 Messenger sessions with Blakey, Chippin' In (Timeless) and One For All (A&M). Tunes from these two Blakey discs, both of which feature Jackson and pianist Geoff Keezer, will segue nicely into music from the nifty new Blue Note recordings by Green (Greens) and Keezer (Here And Now).

ON THE CHART

As David Sanborn settles in for his third week at #1, the action undemeath is heating up. Cassandra Wilson is not finished singing yet, as she moves back up (4-2) followed closely by the young altoist Antonio Hart's stunning debut (11-3). Veteran rock 'n roller Charlie Watts continues to climb with his tribute to Charlie Parker (15-8), and violinist Jean Luc Ponty does the same with his hot new effort (25-12). Top debut this week goes to vibe-man Bobby Hutcherson, whose latest effort bows in at #7. Also debuting this week is one of several new efforts by piano stalwart McCoy Tyner (#18), which is followed by piano youngster Benny Green (#19). Also debuting are new albums by tenorist Coleman Hawkins (lucky #13) and the debut by trumpeter Rebecca Coupe Franks (who features a host of heavyweight supporters) at #21. Welcome to new reporter KTRU in Houston. (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

Miles Ahead, Porgy And Bess and Sketches Of Spain, all arranged and conducted by Gil Evans. Qwest/Warner Bros. expects to issue this live date next year... In more welcome news to pre-fusion Davis fans, the so-called "Prince Of Darkness" recently corralled a number of his onetime sidemen, now all-stars in their own right—Chick Corea, Jackie McLean, Wayne Shorter and Herbie Hancock (who has signed with Qwest)—to re-do a number of his classic straight-ahead tunes from yesteryear. This double-dose of good news shouldn't be too surprising to Davis devotees. Davis regained the interest of his pre-fusion faithful with Aura (recorded in 1984 but not released by Columbia until 1989), a semi-mainstream date from Denmark with Palle Mikkelborg and the Danish Radio Big Band, and his cameo on You Won't Forget Me (Verve), the smash comeback album by his longtime friend, pianist/vocalist Shirley Horn. "For Miles," said the WB exec, speaking on condition of anonymity, "this is a peak—or, rather, a re-peak. A rebirth, a renaissance."

THIS & THAT

MAX ROACH, the most melodious of drummers, has signed a production deal with Bluemoon Records (209 E. Alameda Ave., # 101, Burbank, CA 91502) that will enable him to bring his sundry projects under one roof. Roach, whose tuneful time-keeping has uplifted the music of Charlie Parker, Clifford Brown and Cecil Taylor, to name but a few, will soon be heard on a two-CD set, To The Max, followed by issues featuring M'Boom (his all-percussion band), the Uptown String Quartet (featuring his daughter Maxine), his own quartet and Double Quartet... JUDY NIEMACK, a jazz singer with subtly graceful charms who has become a popular attraction on the live scene in Gotham, has signed to record for Stash (611 Broadway, # 411,

New York, NY 10012); her upcoming release will feature the exquisite pianistry of Kenny Barron (see July 12 Jackpot!)... The New Jersey-based multi-reedman JAMES DEAN has followed up his nifty debut CD for Cexton (2740 S. Harbor Blvd., # D, Santa Ana, CA 92704), Ceora, with another date of equal potency and variety. For Mise En Scene, on which trumpeter Claudio Roditi gets co-star billing, the tenor-, flute- and clarinet-playing Dean is again joined on a few tracks by vocalist Marlene VerPlanck ("Stranger In Town," "I Didn't Know About You"). The leader, whose tenor tone suggests a middle ground between Lester Young and Hank Mobley, is heard in two sextet sessions doing such numbers as Kenny Barron's "Voyage," Bill Evans' "Very Early" and Wayne Shorter's "Infant Eyes" and "Children Of The Night." Watch for it... Keyboardist CHICK COREA is back to his electric ways. In mid-August GRP (555 W. 57th St, New York, NY 10019) will release Beneath The Mask by his Elektrik Band. This time out Corea, saxist Eric Marienthal, bassist John Patitucci and drummer Dave Weckl lay into a batch of shorter (than usual) songs with the leader returning to the MIDI'd Fender Rhodes, an axe he has seldom played since his Return To Forever period in the '70s. Technophiles will be interested to learn that Corea has also adopted a new keyboard, the Yamaha SY99, after which he has coyly named the tune "99 Flavors."

DIALOGUE

RECORD COMPANY DIALOGUE

Jeff "Panic Attack" Cook, Capricorn Records, Atlanta, GA (404) 873-4796

Music of the South has a foci, a flavor and a purity that can't be denied. Listeners will react to WIDESPREAD PANIC. It's not slick! It's not trendy!! It's not disposable!! So be forewarned, we're not going for instant chart success. We're going for YOUR STATION NO MATTER HOW LONG IT TAKES! So we could be talking about this band for a while. In the meantime, call 800-955-INFO and get a hearty Panic Attack, Jack!

Jani Solomon, Rhythm Safari Records, Van Nuys, CA (800) 424-4863

First off, it was nice seeing some of you at NMS last week! For those of you who weren't there, I'll see you at the CMJ Music Marathon in October. I'd like to take this opportunity to thank all the stations who have given so much support to both MANAZART and the ITALS... especially the Itals! I really appreciate you giving them a chance to be heard, and am very pleased that these two records are doing so well for your stations! For those of you who do not know what I'm talking about... CALL ME!!!! 1-800-424-4863. I'd be glad to fill you in on what's going on! (And believe me, with this label, that's a lot!) Best, etc.

Gerard Cosloy, Matador Records, New York, NY (212) 995-5882

September '91, hold your breath for new albums from SUPERCHUNK, UNSAFE and the SHAMS... Thanks to everyone who has been so patient waiting for the Pony Express to deliver the THINKING FELLERS UNION LOCAL 282 and New York Eye & Ear Control LPs. If you didn't receive either, that's probably because we don't know who you are—feel free to forward a written request to 611

Broadway, Ste. 712, New York, NY 10012, along with a recent playlist and the names of three or four stations we should cut off to make room for you. While you're at it, please include a list of record stores and venues in your home town (phone numbers and addresses would be nice), along with demo tapes from any bands you think should have a record out. Actually, we'd really like it if you could try to drum up some financing for us, you know, names and numbers of everyone you know who we can borrow money from without paying back. We need some new shirts and floppy hats, too... I really hate it when record companies expect MDs to do their job for them, don't you?... Antietam, best live band this year, hands down. Anybody who "misfiled" their last LP is hereby encouraged to go roller skating on the Pulaski Skyway... J. Kugelberg, king of the anagrams; whip out the scissors and Alias' ultra-setup slogan "None Of Our Bands Suck" becomes "Fuck One Of Our Bands," "One Of Our Bands Suck," etc., try a few yourself... There is no truth to the rumor that Jeff Dahmer and Frogs figurehead Dennis Fleming are the same person... Sometimes you have to watch these ART films closely. Did you catch the anti pay-to-play poster in the new Bill & Ted film? Or how about the credits—Howe Gelb, "Guitar Coach"? Even funnier, the swishy-looking chain-snatcher in Boyz N The Hood is wearing a "We Want Easy" T-shirt... Buy something good for a change dept.: Wingtip Sloat 7", Sebadoh III, New Bomb Turks 7", Fish & Roses "Monks Hate You" 7", Anthony Newley Does The Unsane, not much else.

Jerry Rubino, Record Company Guy, Chrysalis Records, New York, NY (212) 326-2337

I'm hoping that of those who attended NMS 12, most of you got a chance to see CARTER THE UNSTOPPABLE SEX MACHINE. For a band who until now hasn't had a domestic release (Aug. 13 101 Damnations hits the racks) most of the audience knew most of Carter's set. I'm sure those of you who got to see them in Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, New Haven and Boston, as well as New York, enjoyed the show. Keep it in your memory, because as of now Jim Bob and Fruitbat aren't expected back in the states until February. By then, Chrysalis will have released 30 Something, originally out on Rough Trade U.K. March '92 sees an LP of all new material. Chances are your station has never been able to find any of these albums in your local store. If you didn't, let's all set the groundwork in this country for one of England's most popular bands... Hitting your station at the same time as Carter is INTO PARADISE. The album Churchtown is sure to gather many new fans. I'd like more than just the music directors to hear this record in its entirety. If you want cassettes sent to the station, please call. That goes for anything else we put out. If you as a music director feel a record can really work well at your station, and you want your staff to hear it, use this opportunity... Coming in the next couple of weeks: Laurie FreeLove, Blue Aeroplanes, Follow For Now and Sons of Freedom. More about these releases next time.

Tom T., Mango/Antilles Records, Nu Yawk, NY (212) 995-7800

DATELINE... East Village... It's hot, it's cold, it's wet, it's hell—it's war. According to yesterday's Times, the world of Top 40 is doomed; by extension so is radio as we know it. What to do in a time when pap reigns supreme, SoundScan puts the Robin Hood soundtrack in the Billboard Top 10, rap sells humongously offa word-of-mouth and rock is deep in the throes of uncontrolled epileptic spasms? Simple... play mo' world music and jazz. Be Bold, Be Black, Be Bass-ic, Be Down wit' da likes of BURNING SPEAR's awesome new roots groove, Jah Kingdom; Dig by C-Funksters BURNING FLAMES; SALIF KEITA's magnum opus Amen; and DOROTHY MASUKA's Pata Pata. Keep Swingin', Keep Boppin', Keep Compin' to de Antilles-derived monster riffs of Alone Together by the five TOUGH YOUNG TENORS, JOHNNY GRIFFIN's The Cat, PETER APPELBAUM & THE HIEROGLYPHIC ENSEMBLE's Signs Of Life and Sir COURTNEY PINE's Within The Realms Of Our Dreams. Soon Come: Baobab; WAGNER TISO, Ask The Ages; SONNY SHARROCK, The New Arrival; CHARLIE SEPULVEDA, The Promise; WOLFGANG MUTHSPIEL, Pan Progress; OUR BOYS STEEL ORCHESTRA, The Third Power; MATERIAL and a trailer-fulla-reissues on the jazz 'n reggae tip... Geeba-geeba-dat's all folks!

John Butler, TVT Records, New York, NY (212) 979-6410

THREE MERRY WIDOWS on tour with School Of Fish... go see them both! If you'd like to interview the band as they travel in their 1974 Dodge van, buzz me soon. They may just take you along for the ride! Watch out for SEVEN SIMONS and their new release 4:24 due in early fall. We may run a contest to let you guess how many dresses lead singer Nat Webb has in his wardrobe! You mean you've never seen them live??!! Lots of folks calling about NINE INCH NAILS and Trent. You must see Lollapalooza to believe it! Nine Inch Nails will be heading to Europe to tour after the festival. The first stop is Wembley Arena with Guns N' Roses! No bullshit!! Coming soon: GROUPS OF WRATH, RISE ROBOTS RISE and BUTT MUSIC ORCHESTRA. You call, we haul!

Jay Septoski, Alligator Records, Chicago, IL (312) 973-7736

Up next is a killer new record from Louisiana Bayou bluesman LONNIE BROOKS. This is the strongest studio album Lonnie has cut to date. Every single tune on the record simply kicks ass. Catchy, Bayou-flavored blues just don't get any better than this. Lonnie isn't gonna have an MTV video or Top 10 hit, but he is gonna be out in your town in support of this record and he is gonna deliver the goods on the bandstand just as he has been doing for the past 35 years or so. I'll let you know when he gets to your local venue. Satisfaction Guaranteed will be in your mitts sometime around the middle of August. Enjoy it! Also being released with Lonnie Brooks is a record from an obscure West Coast bluesman named JOHNNY HEARTSMAN. Active in the studio scene since the 1950s.

Johnny has cut just two records under his own name. His 'Gator debut is entitled The Touch and is a laid-back, West Coast, jump-style, blues record. Good stuff, you'll be pleasantly surprised if you are unaware of Johnny's music. SON SEALS, keep on playing him!!!! I think I've used up my adjective quota for this week so until next time, stay blue.

Chuck P., Radio, Caroline Records, New York, NY (212) 989-2929

A big "yo" to all you cool radio-homies who chilled with me and a brew outside of CBGB for the majority of NMS. Thanks for the laughs and/or insights: KSJS, KCSB, WLOZ, KALX, WNHU, WDRE, WHTG, WZBC, WBRU, WMDK, WDCR, WPRB, WVKR, CFNY, WNYU, WXYC, WWCD and countless other blurs... Happening in a big way—SMASHING PUMPKINS take time to make Gish the summer savior. Also putting the "kick" back into the ass of rock 'n roll, GUMBALL, YOUNG GODS, LA MUERTE, CHUCK TREECE. On the road: HOLE (new record soon!), Gumball, Smashing Pumpkins, LEGENDARY PINK DOTS, KINGHORSE and SPRINGHOUSE. Congrats to Michelle Robbins... Thanks to Rob @ WDRE for the Prov/Boston Pumpkins weekend... Call for upcoming release schedule information!

Ron Cruz, Cruz Records, Long Beach, CA (213) 430-2077

1000 Smiling Knuckles by SKIN YARD is hammerin' across the land. Meanwhile, Jack, Ben, Pat and Barrett are clobberin' folks at a few local Seattle sets before headin' east next month... BIG DRILL CAR drove the locals into a frenzy at a few So Cal gigs and are headin' up the West Coast this week for their Batch tour of North America... The CHEMICAL PEOPLE are also grindin' across the States doin' tunes from their latest 10", Angels 'N' Devils... ALL is on its way to Europe again to do a bunch of Allroy Saves festival type gigs this month... New Girl, Old Story by TONYALL will help you laugh off any romances that have gone into hurtin' crew status... Peace, Love & Hate Mail.

Esther McGowan, Merkin Records, Baltimore, MD (301) 234-0048

Stop! Nobody move! Where's that ANTIC HAY CD? Yeah, you know the one... It came wrapped in that really gross plastic American flag with some little teeny fireworks inside... I hope you enjoyed our little gifts, but now it's time to get down to the nitty gritty. Has the CD been listened to? Has it been added? Is it getting any play? Oh, and Antic Hay is also R.E.M.'s favorite band. Well, maybe not quite, but Peter Buck and Mike Mills did show up to see their recent gig at the 40 Watt Club in Athens and were reportedly enraptured. As were all who were fortunate enough to see their raw live energy unleashed at the Merkin Human Barbeque during NMS '91. Hopefully, if you're lucky, Antic Hay will be We're back from NYC and nary a scratch. Thanks to Sub Pop/Touch And Go/Island & Jagermeister for the boat, bands and BOOZE! Thanks to Glenn Boothe, Brian Long and Steve Balcom for the Tar Heel Toe Jam (quite fun, painless and a compilation tape to boot). And extra, extra special thanks to Gerard Cosloy for not picking on us!! Highlights beyond NC (I'm so daring) consist of Pegboy, Didjits, Rev. Horton Heat, Hole, Railroad Jerk, Unrest, buying Jon Spencer and CHRISTINA a beer and that damn Pavement 10" that won't get off my turntable... Here's the plug: slam it in fifth and drive all over the gravy-lickin', swamp-ticklin' goo chowder being spat out on SOUTHERN CULTURE ON THE SKIDS Too Much Pork For Just One Fork. Meanwhile, in MOISTville, USA—recordings in progress by MONKS OF DOOM, BICYCLE FACE and METAL FLAKE MOTHER... Mama pinch me!

Sue Patel, Nettwerk Productions,
New York, NY (212) 334-2170

As one person pointed out to me already, finally, promotions with balls (literally, in fact)!!! Andy Wombwell has agreed to head the Nettwerk-L.A. office commencing August 15 (Yipppeeee!!! You cannot imagine my gratitude to Nettwerk, to Wax Trax and to my friend Andy.) So, you don't have to return my calls anymore. You now have a choice—call me here in New York or Andy in L.A. at 818-508-3130... In the meantime, open your eyes and check out the new HILT EP/CD Orange Pony. I cannot believe that some of you have actually complained about the length of the tracks on this record!!! Since when did college radio need radio edits???! Tell me you hate the music, the lyrics, the songwriting, anything but the length of a track or the artwork!!!... Upcoming: A new full-length record from Australia's SINGLE GUN THEORY (the first in three years) and a new record from MC 900 FT. JESUS WITH DJ ZERO Welcome To My Dream.

Right now, as you are reading this, I am probably nose-deep in the soothing mud of the Dead Sea in Israel, or else I am cowering somewhere with a gas mask hoping that my ass does not get annihilated by whatever great forces there are that I cannot control. Either way, I have left First Warning for a month-long vacation before returning for my final semester at NYU. Hopefully, by now, our fresh-faced and fresh-voiced radio raja has been chosen and coronated and has begun calling you. I will r.o.t get all mushy or anything, but it has been a pleasure to work at First Warning promoting the DIVINE WEEKS single. Both radio and First Warning have treated me kindly, and I thank everyone—it was greatly appreciated. In the meantime, take care everyone, I am not sure what I will be doing once I graduate, but it is likely that we will meet again sooner or later. Ciao, for now.

Chris Seiler, Channel 83 Records,

Welcome. If you're a true fan of punk, I'd like to recommend Minneapolis' finest, CHARLIE DON'T SURF. This band kicks! They're very well received by the press, and for good reason. Charlie Don't Surf sports a political edge to their punk, and has started to receive some airplay. If interested drop us a line... SMASH THE PMRC! Tipper Gore's all-time FAV band has a fresh new release! It's that Loud 100 attention-getter IMPALER. They've appeared inside all the best mags, and even made the cover of KERRANG!!!... Find out who's really out there listening! Why not use Impaler to support the cause? (Wouldn't Tipper just love tuning into that?) Hmmm. Later.

In an effort to top Gerard vs. the bunny, a couple of questions for Bob from BNM. 1) Did you even read my Dialogue which was published in CMJ #242, since you addressed virtually none of the points I made?... 2) Did BNM really expect us to send videos for IMMACULATE FOOLS to radio that weren't on VHS format, but the European PAL... 3) Still not sure where I'm "at least slightly responsible for my (sic) bands getting dropped"? Retail promotion can't sell a record that has more returns than orders... 4) As for you and not Epic sending out promotional material and not

I'm sure it's a real winner that will remain timeless for years to come. . . 6) As for Epic's "reputation going down the tubes," no one's mentioned such a thing to me since last summer when we were associated with BNM on the Immaculate Fools. . . 7) Bob, didn't you say a couple of Dialogues back you were told not to write Dialogues unless you "plugged your projects"? . . . Lastly Bob, don't expect me to join you for a beer anytime soon, I've got to talk to Gerard and Jerry about convincing Doug Schoemer to trade for Donnie Moore. . . 241, sorry Deborah.

Greg Dubrow, Sky Records, Inc., Philadelphia, PA (800) 779-0759

The scene: Last night of the New South Music Showcase. Jim Parker (our label manager) and I, already burnt from three days of bands and schmoozing, walk into the Cotton Club in Atlanta. INSANE JANE takes the stage, and midway through the set, Jim and I look at each other and say. . . "We should sign this band." A few months later we do, and months later, the debut, A Green Little Pill, is ready to go. By now you should have it, so listen up. Not to be overlooked is fine music from WIDESPREAD PANIC (on Capricorn Records, from Athens, GA), and RIGHT AS RAIN (on DB records, from Atlanta, notice a trend?). Non-Georgia music includes the trippy, oddball dance-hall sound of THE ORB (Big Life-Mercury Records), and Japanese power-poppers, the BLUE HEARTS, who will hit the road in October. On the road now are the FLAT DUO JETS and CHICKASAW MUDD PUPPIES in a shit-stomping double-bill. . . Questions or comments can be directed to me (#above) or Mike Kondo at 800-442-3142. My office is moving soon, or rather I'm moving my office soon (oh to be politically and grammatically correct these days), I send you the details, or watch this space. Ever have a TITANIC LOVE AFFAIR??

Giana Bernardini, Alias Records, San Francisco, CA (415) 546-1863

Big News For Us: For the first time ever, there are testicles on the staff at Alias Records! (Well, not literally on the staff. . .) That's right, we've gone and hired us a big, hairy smelly MAN type creature. Don't get me wrong—we all like men and everything, but can you really trust 'em to help run a record company? We'll see. . . And just 'cause Greg at Alternative Tentacles hates this kind of thing, there are a few bands I think make life in San Francisco very fine indeed: Thinking Fellers Union Local 282 (a.k.a. Stinking Smellers), Colorfast (drop the "Overwhelming" crap, guys), Ed's Redeeming Qualities (cuter than a bag of puppies), Barbara Manning (call her "Babs"—she loves it), Swell (not from Georgia), Ed Haynes (a sicker individual than you'd guess) and Sordid Humor (apparently they suck, but I don't know it).

RonSSTer, SST Records, Lawndale, CA (213) 430-7687

THE COUNTDOWN HAS BEGUN. NEGATIVLAND has a sonic SCUD prepared for launch at 0900 hours PDT on August 20, 1991. . . Another big blast due to impact that same day is the new NO MAN album called How the West Was Won. . . TROTSKY ICEPICK will unveil The Ultraviolet Catastrophe right alongside of these titanic slabs of tuneage. . . Peace, Love & Duck & Cover.

Steve Dixon, Retail Promo, Sky Records, Atlanta, GA (404) 263-7888

I remember the first time I thought I was Hunter Thompson, when the sunset over the blooming desert sunrise made me know that Nixon was on my trail. It was then first, but also several times since, in moments of painstaking logic, that I realized that while the pervasive Americana true-blue-view is that liberal policies and programs have been tried ad nauseam and have led us in to the political, social and economic mess we're in now (and were getting into then) and should therefore be avoided like the plague (so much so that running for president on the Democratic ticket is a faster way to clear a room than playing a James Taylor record at a straight-edge sock-hop), what really, really, REALLY has gone down in the last four score and seven is owned lock, (devalued) stock and barrel by the conservative forces that be. Period. How can these wily politicians wield so much reality-bending power as to be able to own the direction of the country and at the same time convince us that the enemy (those labeled with the dreaded "L" word) has charted our descending course. Methinks these stuffed shirts are akin to powerful herbs and chemicals in their ability to change reality—while you're pondering that, spin Capricorn's WIDESPREAD PANIC, Sky's new INSANE JANE (entitled A Green Little Pill) for a taste of the new breed and watch for the FLAT DUO JETS out On The Road for a true-to-life reality check (w/CHICKASAW MUDD PUPPIES) and maybe play all your Kiss records full-blast at the same time on different players—questions, comments and angry retorts at the number above or (outside of Georgia) at 1/800-442-3142.

Paul Ashby, TRIP, W. Sacramento, CA (916) 373-2548

Since I had an inordinate amount of free time in New York last month, I tried to pass the hours by attempting to define "new music" (I was really bored). Couldn't find anything in the sample bag that would pass muster and most of the panel topics, although very sexy, seemed irrelevant, so I almost gave up. Decided instead to attempt to come up with some examples of labels who press the stuff up. Like Cuneiform, Hat Hut, Recommended, New Albion, Dossier, Ear Rational or Enemy. None of them had representatives at NMS. The anemic exhibit floor was largely uncluttered by indie labels, other than Dutch East's, Relativity and a handful of others. It wasn't a complete write-off, though—got to see BONG-WATER, AMC, URGE OVERKILL, YO LA TENGO, MARK EITZEL, UNSAFE, RAILROAD JERK and LOVE CHILD over the course of five neo-music nights. Got to custom-make my own "SST Rock Still Sucks" bumpersticker. Got to giggle at Tony Wilson's smarmy attempts at provocative "humor." Got to cover your ears when Alan Licht plays leads at Knitting Factory. Gotta wonder why people pay $300 to be told that, yeah, it's a really bad time to start a label and no, we're not accepting unsolicited demo tapes or hiring alternative promo reps right now. . .

G.W. McLENNAN's debut solo release Watershed is creating pockets of excitement all over!! By now everybody should have their in-store play copies and posters. If you need more display material (especially those of you in the "hot" radio markets) please call and I'll send you as much as you want!!!! Also coming up are the CARNIVAL ART and DYLANs releases in mid-August. Carnival Art played a couple of rocked-out shows during the NMS. Thanks to all of you who made it out to see the guys. For those who didn't, expect to see 'em on a full-fledged tour this fall. I also want to thank those of you who came to our NMS party at Mike's place—he greatly appreciates that nobody tore up the sofa or knocked holes in the walls or dumped guacamole on the floor or strung up his cat from the ceiling. Still, it could have made for an interesting scenario. . . maybe next year!! (Just kidding Mike.) As far as NMS went, it was great to meet those of you who I only get to talk to on the phone!! Smashing Pumpkins were amazing!! Believe the hype. Dash Rip Rock was of course great (sorry, I'm biased). The rest was a big sweaty sticky blur. 'Til next time, ciao!

Japanese noise guys ZENI GEVA have a new 7" single out on our fine local Baby Huey records. Any station interested in a copy should send a playlist or something to Bill at Baby Huey, 9028 E. Rancho Real, Temple City, CA 91780. He'll send you one for free if you're playing CAROLINER's Rise of the Common Woodpile LP (Nuf Sed, P.O. Box 591075, San Francisco, CA 94159), SUN CITY GIRLS' 3 Fake Female Orgasms double 7" on Majora (P.O. Box 78418, Seattle, WA 98178), PETER JEFFERIES AND ROBBIE MUIR's great "Catapult" single (Ajax, P.O. Box 805293, Chicago, IL 60680-411400), Matador's New York Eye & Ear Control or anything else even mildly challenging.

Carl D. Orr, MD, WFNM, Lancaster, PA (717) 291-4098

Reports of my death are, well, premature. I swear to God this story is true: In May I got the chicken pox and wasn't allowed to leave my room for 10 days. Then I went home for a week, came back to Lancaster to record a demo with my band the IN-COHERENTS (call if you want a copy), after which I went to Germany for a few weeks. When I finally set foot in the station again, things were of course in a shambles. I am slowly getting caught up, but my miserable summer job and our summertime gang of idiots make things difficult. Hint: If you call me and bother me, I am much more likely to search out your record or CD and maybe add it and/or report it. Sending a cassette for me to listen to at home or at work would help too. I don't really have any office hours for the summer; call and leave a message, I will get back to you someday. Our mailing address has been changed for no apparent reason. Now, it's: WFNM, Franklin & Marshall College, P.O. Box 3220, Lancaster, PA 17604-3220. Thanks to Big Cat Records for the way cool CARTER THE UNSTOPPABLE SEX MACHINE T-shirt. Why can't the women here at F&M be as cool as those I talk to at certain record companies? NED'S ATOMIC DUSTBIN rules, but you knew that. The

SHAGNASTYS are also way cool. Carl D signing off to go listen to John Valby.

KROQ in Burbank had another awesome free noon-time concert. NED'S ATOMIC DUSTBIN headlined with Miles Hunt from the WONDER STUFF singing the MORRISSEY version of "That's Entertainment" on John Easdale's (DRAMARAMA) guitar. Could life get any better? By the way, did anybody else notice that KROQ is now reporting? . . . Finally, a simply incredible various artist theme collection. Blood And Roses, the new 10-album collection from Forkboy Records, resembles those old K-Tel sets, except the artists aren't oldies, but some of the CMJ alternative legends. The biting theme behind the set is the pain of love. Quite a bitter, but enthralling, collection. Social Distortion typish fans should take a listen to JAWBREAKER, from Shredder Records. It's nothing but untamed fun. Alternative labels: Please make sure we're on your servicing list! We're not getting a lot of stuff! Also hot here: EASY, WONDER STUFF, MATERIAL ISSUE, RIDE and DEEJAY D.

Rad Barnett, Music Director; Mark Vaughn, Program Director, WTTU, Cookeville, TN (615) 372-3169
BUNNE: Well, we just got in The Wrong Sampler.

POPE: Why? Which one were we supposed to get in?
BUNNE: No, we got in the right one.
POPE: I thought you said we got the wrong one.
BUNNE: Not the wrong one, The Wrong Sampler! You know, SCHOOL OF FISH.
POPE: Whatever.
BUNNE: Don't you remember? I showed it to you. It's blue vinyl. The record plays backwards.

CONTINUED DIALOGUE

POPE: I've listened to MOTORHEAD backwards.

BUNNE: No, the song doesn't play backwards; the record does.

POPE: But if you play the record backwards, the music's gonna play backwards too.

BUNNE: Not if you play the "Wrong" side!

POPE: Yeah, but who would've thought they could make a dance song out of it without really changing it any?

BUNNE: What are you talking about? School of Fish?

POPE: No, that's the wrong band. I'm talking about the 1000 HOMO DJs' version of "Supernaut," the old Black Sabbath song.

BUNNE: Oh yeah. And they got the cover from Master of Reality.

POPE: Now wait a minute. I thought "Supernaut" was on Black Sabbath Vol 4.

BUNNE: It is.

POPE: But you said...

BUNNE: Oh, never mind!

Dave Brookhouser, WVSS, Menomonie, WI (715) 232-2100

God, I feel much better after last week's therapy, so much that I think I'll even use this to try to help my station again. Hell, two reps even called after reading my second-to-last Dialogue! What a day, what a life! I'll get through this real quick so I can get to my therapy session. We're new. We're in severe need of real music without a rock star attitude. If you have any, we could certainly use it. We'll play it, and if it's okay we'll chart it here. It's that easy. Due to us being sparsely serviced, it just makes it that much easier for your bands to make our chart. Hell, if your stuff can't beat our old catalog of such greats as REO, Foreigner and Journey maybe something's wrong. Fuck that, something is wrong. So just call me anytime during business hours (8-4:30 daily) and I'll call you back and give you the quick rundown about us. Which brings me to my therapy topic this week. Nothing pisses me off more than calling up record reps asking for service and having them tell me to send them a letter about us and a playlist on station letterhead. First of all, we already did that about two months ago. And secondly, our Top 35 is (probably) sitting on their desk right in front of them in their CMJ, every stinkin' week. I know it's not their fault, but why don't companies hire more people!?! I mean, you call up some companies and they'll talk your ears off and others almost hang up on you before you introduce yourself. God, I sound like a whiny little bastard. But that's my therapy, and my, I feel a lot better.

Brett Schulze, "The Cutting Edge," WVRK, Columbus, GA (205) 821-ROCK

Yo record dogs (it's a JOKE!). Please check your lists twice to make sure our #1 12+ AOR is on your ALTERNATIVE list! We service Columbus, GA, AND Auburn University with a hot ALTERNATIVE program. So far, absolutely NO indies are servicing us, which really BITES. Oh yeah, and how 'bout them GA boys WIDESPREAD PANIC! Wow!!! THANKS!!!

Shannon Showalter, MD, KGSP, Parkville, MO (816) 741-2000

I am sitting smack in the middle of the USA wondering why I can't find The Last Temptation Of Christ anywhere in the city (Kansas City). The asst. mgr. at a national chain said all the stores removed them and said it like it was no big deal! Fornicate that! Well at least I am an MD at one of the only sanctuaries for undesired creativity in the community. I've seen the movie, but that's not the point. Pencil-neck at the video store said "It was too controversial." I am sick of better safe than sorry. And no, Mike, PD, we're not switching to a pop format. Let's not be CONSERVATIVE. I believe college radio stations should stick to tradition and tradition dictates innovation. Impressed with THE FARM, liked the latest single. ELECTRONIC (possible team-up of the year?) from the national realm of music videos (MTV's 120 Minutes) is leaving me wanting to hear more. Howie, thanks for the tunes.

Clark J. Nelson, Former MD, Current PD, Slightly PU, KWLC, Decorah, IA (319) 387-1240

Write that number down! You're going to need it when you are desperately searching for an ambitious, hard-working, creative, mean bass-playing, trilingual (Norwegian and German), modest and slightly deranged person with 3.5 years of college radio experience to join your station/company and make life 42.6578% more fun. Let's see now, other than looking for a job (preferably West Coast, large city) I am directing the programming here until September 3. (Did I mention that I'm pretty good at house mixing?) Things are pretty slow here in Decorah town. But a few great new releases are keeping us going: 1000 HOMO DJs, JELLO BIAFRA, MLWTTK, KLAUS FLOURIDE and of course, new and improved Trix cereal. Please listen to Jello's new spoken-word if you haven't already. And of course, please hire me... Peace, love and Frank Zappa for President...

Chip Peters, Music Director, WBUQ, Bloomsburg, PA (717) 389-4686

Hullo! Just thought I'd drop a line from the thriving metropolis of northeastern PA, Pennsylvania's only town: Bloomsburg. WBUQ, BU's only alternative is alive and kicking, spinning those Pennsylvania polka tunes the folks 'round here love so much. Among the polyurethane riding our waves heavily at the moment are NED'S ATOMIC DUSTBIN and the FAT LADY SINGS. We're really excited about that fantastic foursome out of Texas, the SHAGNASTYS (thanks Debbie at A&R). Do not exclude KIRSTY MACCOLL and the WONDER STUFF—out of this world!! Check out the Swedish act EASY—ex-l-ent! Down to business—as a Norwegian immigrant, I'm constantly reminded about a-ha (you know—that obscure pop trio). Unfortunately, those guys and more recently Swedish Roxette seem to have wrongfully become representative of the Scandinavian music scene, thereby denying solid Northern European progressive/alternative acts what they truly deserve—a chance to grow outside of their respective nations. Some actually do have potential. I know prejudice exists in our business, both on the part of the record companies and the radio stations. Although a few non-English-speaking bands are released in the U.S. and the U.K., they usually fail to receive airplay, chiefly because they're not British, Australian or American... It seems pretty imperialistic to me. Addressing mainly the college stations: I thought that's what we're here for; to play alternatives—acts that wouldn't normally break out on commercial stations. Keep an open mind, and watch for international releases. Why limit yourself when there's so much great stuff to choose from?! I know record companies HATE taking chances, and our playlists are largely determined by what they send us. However, if you do receive anything "non-Anglo," give it a listen. We've added a few international alternatives to our rotation, among others, Norwegian DUM-DUM BOYS, hailed as probably the best live act out of Scandinavia—catchy modern rock serving as a fresh breath of air to an otherwise "normal" playlist... Is this an appeal? I just feel it's time to expand this business to include the rest of the world.

Go figure... Office hours 1-3 p.m. every day.

Michael McElligott, Parenthetical (Man) And Various Summer Titles Like MD and DDS, WXJM, Harrisonburg, VA (703) 568-6878/3559

Things that are good are these: CONSOLIDATED, music and message (and our interview/adventure while trapped in the bowels of the 9:30 Club, and Sue at Nettwerk for making it possible); every second of the new BELA FLECK CD (DDD!), which is surpassed only by every nanosecond of the band in concert; the appearance of TOM WAITS on PRIMUS' CheeseSea album, and that wonderful band's awaited performance in Bogus Adventure and then at the end of this month in DC with (I'm sure you can think up an obvious joke about obesity, but not one that hasn't been used several times in various Dialogues in the past few months) TAD in tow; SMASHING PUMPKINS in August (thank you Caroline); the Lollapalooza tour (twice) (thank you Visa) later that month; the expectation of new ROBYN HITCHCOCK this fall; RICHARD THOMPSON's new Rumor And Sigh; MEAT PUP-PETS' new single "Sam"; and the prospect of the new LP (it's in the mail right?); the fact that this is the only one of these strung-together, goo-gaa, fan-schmooze, drivell Dialogues I've written... Bad is: the fact that this may be only one of the strung-together, goo-gaa, fan-schmooze, drivell Dialogues I'll write... I still don't know what dry is... (I thought "NMS" was a new band from Manchester, but it seems it's a condition that all my company contacts get for one week a year, but which poor college radio slugs, like myself, are immune to.) (Get it? "...")

Sylvain Lafreniere & Laurent Cadieux, CIBL, Montreal, QUE (514) 526-2581

When Llyn Adalist of ECM (who?) mentions she refers Canadian stations to their local rep, that should be a normal process. But what about the "paying plan" that some of the majors have for a policy? What's this all about? Here's basically how it works: Let's say a station, CZZZ for example, wants to get service from a major label. In order to get service, CZZZ has to pay a yearly fee which can be anywhere between $150.00 to $400.00. For that amount, CZZZ will get a monthly or a bi-weekly CD compilation of upcoming releases that will be handled by the record company. Then, CZZZ will choose all releases that will fit its format and pay approximately $7.00 for every promotional copy they order, payable in advance of course... Ridiculous, isn't it? Now, not every major label has this policy anymore, but just knowing it still exists, it's sickening... Obviously, a lot, if not all college, community and small independent stations do not have the money to afford this kind of plan. And in the eyes of a big percentage of these promo reps, these stations are nothing but a pain in the ass, run by a bunch of morons, very good at brown-nosing but who can't collaborate for "national alternative charts." And besides, majors do not need those damn small stations for the Bruce Springsteen and Phil Collins and Samantha Fox. But where do they go with SONIC YOUTH and SUICIDAL TENDENCIES? So when U.S. record companies service the dozen or so Canadian CMJ reporters, it's not exactly a waste since chances are we will never get it from the Canadian company. So Llyn Adalist, we don't know what company you were working for in Canada and we don't know who or what ECM Records is (yeah, we are kind of stupid) but we are sorry to see you have exported such a typical Canadian promo rep mentality to the U.S... No, it's not an "earth shattering" issue. But if CMJ wants to drop their Canadian reporters, that's fine. We will save $375.00 every year.

[To set the record straight, Llyn Adalist—not CMJ—brought up the subject of dropping Canadian reports. We have never considered dropping Canadian reporters, and are currently working on having a separate Canadian chart as well.—Ed.]

CENSORSHIP FROM THE NORTHERN LIBERAL WING?

Minnesota Attorney General Hubert H. Humphrey III has sent a letter to Jack Eugster, the chairman of Musicland, the 1,000-store, Minneapolis-based music retail chain, warning him that making N.W.A.'s Niggaz4Life available to minors may be in violation of state statutes regarding the sale of sexually explicit material to minors. The complaint against the sale of the album was initially lodged by Florida attorney and anti-pornography crusader Jack Thompson, and Humphrey has forwarded the case to the Minneapolis city attorney. In the letter sent to Eugster, Humphrey stated that, "Material such as that contained in the N.W.A. album feeds the warped and demented minds that perpetrate such violence. At a minimum, such material should not be available to Minnesota minors." Musicland, which has already affixed an 18-to-purchase sticker on the album in some locations, has said that it will continue to carry the album, not wanting to set itself up as a censor. Bryan Turner, president of Priority Records, said that the flak N.W.A. is receiving is "helping them achieve their goal of being the world's most hated group. And you know what, they like that."

I WANT MY THREE MTVs

MTV has announced that it will be splitting into three stations, two of which will focus on particular genres, sometime in 1993. Advertising would be sold as a package, to be sent out on all three stations equally. MTV Networks CEO Tom Freston said, "These three MTV feeds will still target the same people. The idea is to get them to watch longer—increase length of viewership..."

INDIE FEST UPDATE

As previously reported, the International Pop Underground Convention will be held on Aug. 20-25 in Olympia, WA, and will feature a host of independent rock bands from the U.S. and overseas, as well as other diverse events. An updated list of bands performing includes Beat Happening, Scotland's Pastels, Fugazi, Canada's Shadowy Men On A Shadowy Planet, England's Three Headcoats, Mummies, Seaweed, Soloman Grundy, Scrawl, Nation Of Ulysses, Jad Fair, Mecca Normal, Some Velvet Sidewalk and others. In addition to all the bands performing, there will be spoken word performances from Slim Moon, Mecca Normal's Jean Smith, Billy Childish and others; a cake walk; a barbecue sponsored by Sub Pop; and a Planet Of The Apes festival. For more info on registration and accommodations, call K Records at (206) 786-1594.

YET ANOTHER MUSIC CONFERENCE . . .

The first annual Arizona Music Conference & Showcase will be held on November 7-10 in Tempe, Arizona. The event, which is produced by Az Good Az It Gets, will include panels with top industry professionals and a music festival featuring over 200 acts from Arizona, the Southwest and elsewhere. Registration is $95 before September 1, and students receive a $20 discount. For more information, call (602) 966-9595.

SENATE ROCKS EASIER VOTER REGISTRATION

The Senate did not pass the National Voter Registration Act of 1991, also known as the Motor Voter Bill, which would have allowed people over the age of 18 to register to vote when they apply for or renew their driving licenses. The bill isn't dead yet, at least not according to Rock The Vote, a non-profit organization made up of music industry professionals which actively promotes voter registration. The bill is expected to come up before the Senate again in September, and Rock The Vote has planned several promotions to get their point across in the meantime, including: postcards to the president on the back of CD packaging for artists like Young MC and the Red Hot Chili Peppers (similar to the ones on R.E.M.'s Out Of Time); the distribution of "Dear Mr. President" postcards through record stores; public service announcements; and a national ad campaign. To get involved, contact Rock The Vote at (213) 276-8364.

MIND OVER MATTERS

Open Letter to a Music Director

By Andrew Peterson, Moist/Baited Breath

We at Moist/Baited Breath received a request for service from Park College in Parkville, Missouri. Their playlist did not include even one independent band, so I sent back a (rude) postcard saying no, we don't have that money to waste. Their MD was upset—this letter is a response to hers. . .

My dearest Shannon:

Circles, circles, circles—how confusing they can be. If you care for some opinions from an extremist, please read on. If your budget allows, I strongly encourage you to go to the CMJ Music Marathon and attend some college radio panels and ask the question "What is the role of college radio?" My personal opinion is that it is a resource for new music. "New" does not include the "new" New Kids record, rather "alternative" or "progressive" music (or any number of other nondescript phrasings). Major labels have done their work to destroy alternative music by signing great bands, polishing them for "mass" consumption and over-promoting (and overshadowing indie labels with big $) a record that is only played on college non-commercial radio and therefore does not sell a million copies. The result is an OK record from a great band capable of much more. Then we get to watch the band be dropped by the major—witness Soul Asylum, Buck Pets, Redd Kross and countless others. And still college radio encourages major labels to continue by trading CDs and posters for chart numbers.

"Major labels have done their work to destroy alternative music by signing great bands, polishing them for "mass" consumption and over-promoting [them]. . ."

Please explain this quote of yours: "I have to maintain a certain quality and standard that fits in with our station's image. This means sometimes cutting music that I care for or adding music I despise." WHAT? WHY? Thinking like that says to a record company like Moist/Baited Breath that none of our records will ever appear on your charts. Our radio list changes every week based on what stations A) play our records; B) send playlists; and C) talk to us. College radio is not about "images" but about great music. If you want to cultivate a "We're so cool 'cause we play college music" image, fine, but don't ask independent labels for music that you won't play. Tell everyone about what bastards we are and our "too cool for you" image if you insist on being stuck on images. Thanks for the free promotion.

On a large scale the kind of thinking you are encouraging is rooted in our judgmental society. Do you support censorship? Are you aware that you are responsible for attitudes that have allowed the FCC to put a tight rein on music? Would you play the Superchunk record on Matador at all? Do you care that you shouldn't play "Slack Motherfucker" on the air? Perhaps you are not to blame. Perhaps you are merely a product of our non-thinking declining (yet college educated) society. Poor little victim. Nurse your wounds and pray that you are not in as deep as I fear you are. . .

Love, Andrew.

Andrew Peterson is CEO, VP and a fledgling record mogul for Moist/Baited Breath. If you'd like to comment on the ramifications of this letter or any other worldly matter, feel free to contact Carlos Tabakof at CMJ (516-466-6000).

the last one did, but will most likely come out on another domestic label.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

Tad plays drums on a few cuts of the new Mark Lanegan album to be released by Sub Pop. . . Drivin' N' Cryin' will be doing a dozen live dates with Lynyrd Skynyrd. . . Frontier labelmates Young Fresh Fellows and Dharma Bums will be touring the country together in September and October. . . Swedish band Whipped Cream will be the first Swedish band to record a John Peel session, which is scheduled for August 25. . . All's Bill Stevenson was diagnosed with the chicken pox upon returning from the band's year-long tour. Though he was quarantined for three days, he has already taken off for a tour of Europe. . . Roger Miller's No Man is now a trio, due to the addition of drummer Malcolm Travis, formerly of Human Sexual Response and the Zulus.

INDUSTRY SHUFFLE

WBRU has announced that Michael J. Osborne will be the station's new program director. Osborne previously programmed at WPRO, WXLO and WCOD. . . Marc Offenbach has been promoted to VP of Sales at Relativity Records.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Dutch East India Trading is looking for an intern to work on the Peel sessions. For more info, please contact Alan at (516) 764-6200.

SMASHING PUMPKINS Danceteria, New York City, July 31

Chicago-based Smashing Pumpkins, infatuated with Hindu/Tantric mysticism, make it their mission to become the modern Western apostles of religious/sexual convolutions. With teeming masses of every sect (TGIF partying Wall Streeters, those in search of mid-week industrial thrills, several thousand press geeks on the list) all reduced to disoriented, mind-addled cattle, the Danceteria (moved to a vastly different building) presented the perfect opportunity for unification and nirvana in a club setting. Actually, the Pumpkins were ragingly successful at lulling the crowd into peaceful harmony or lashing them into bodily frenzy, proving that preaching the pleasures of the flesh works best with the stage, not the video screen, as pulpit. Any unrest was sorted out within minutes of the Pumpkins' opening licks, as the vibe was owned solely by guitarist/vocalist/charisma impresario Billy Corgan, whose presence is of the Hendrix school of understated cool, a misfit turned guitar dynamo. Most of their Caroline debut LP was covered along with newer mystery tracks—since any song introduction would obviously have broken the spell, Billy kept mum between songs. Although Danceteria normally is an arena for machinery-processed pulsation, tonight's exercise in live mesmerization nearly obliterated the techno-creatures in their tracks, or at least satiated them by more organic means.

SOUL ASYLUM Marquee, New York City, July 24

The Soul Asylum fanatics at the Marquee this night had every reason to suck in their collective breath: The band had been dropped from A&M, scrawny idol Dave Pirner had supposedly developed a devastating, constant ringing in his ears known as tinnitus, and America's finest live band's demise seemed to many casual observers a done deal. Good enough time to die. But goddamn if they weren't right here at the Marquee, making Pirner's lines like "If I ever get to Easy Street/I will say with a smile/I came just for the ride" ridiculously appropriate, what with the guy gesturing dismissively (but not too dismissively) at the A&R hordes dominating the club's second level. Concessions were made to Pirner's ears, as a fiber-glass shield blunted the racket drummer Grant Young was making, and the band started the show with a relatively quiet acoustic set that highlighted the new tunes they had recently demo-ed. A hardly tapped Byrdsy side of Soul Asylum prevailed, and it was just as memorable as hearing songs such as "Made To Be Broken" or "Sometime to Return" for the first time. But as pretty as those big bulky acoustic guitars sounded, they just didn't look right. So when Pirner and Dan Murphy turned in the acoustics for electrics and turned a lot of knobs up far too high, the crowd just about squealed. And when they absolutely tore into "All The King's Men," any remaining doubters let that big breath out.
