Incredibly Strange Music

Volume I

INCREDIBLY STRANGE MUSIC

Andrea Juno is off and running. We've asked the co-editor of the RE/Search books about Rajput & the Supo's incompetent sitar version of "Up, Up And Away" on the Incredibly Strange Music CD she compiled, and she's launched into one of her rapid-fire amalgamations of critical language, analysis and general exuberance, barely keeping up with herself:

"There's those absolutely wonderful surprise mistakes—it's badly out of tune, missing notes. First, there's the disjunction of 'Up, Up And Away'—you've already made up your mind. I mean, it's like the expectations and dehabitation of the mind already. And then when it's done in such a warbly, out-of-tune way—and it's not the record, the record is in good shape—and every time I listen to it, I just have fantasies of what was going on when it was made. It's like 'hey, guys—the sitar's really popular right now—let's call up all these studio musicians that're lying around the record company, let's do some pop tunes!' Something is kind of marvelous about the fact that it is not perfect, kind of like the Japanese custom of having a thumbprint on perfect pottery to make it human. But then there's also something about the commercial exploitation of a record. And it's obvious that this record was literally to a market segment. It's like, okay: Sitar is really popular now, it's like late '60s/early '70s, but you know that there's also a big—you know, Peter Fonda films are popular, and so these suburban partygoers need their records for a good party. It's just wonderful to think of how the undergrounds get overground, and there's an exploitation market to it."

It's that kind of lateral, wide-ranging thinking and championing of the distinctly marginal on Juno's part that's kept the RE/Search books going through 17 volumes to date. Incredibly Strange Music, the book, came out last summer, and included interviews with both record collectors (such as Lux and Ivy of the Cramps) and the original artists of the records covered within (including Eartha Kitt and Gershon Kingsley). Incredibly Strange Music, Vol. 1, the CD, was recently released on Caroline; it's a sampler of some of the music discussed in the book, and a handful of other bizarre things from RE/Search co-editor V. Vale's personal collection, transferred directly from glorious vinyl, surface noise intact. The CD has everything from comedy songs to examples of unintentional horrorfulness to bizarre arrangements of familiar pieces (Buddy Mitchell's guitar-boogie take on "The Flight Of The Bumblebee" is pure genius). But what makes a piece of music incredibly strange, exactly?

"The title 'Incredibly Strange' actually comes from a book that we did, Incredibly Strange Films," Juno explains. "People might write 'Oh, it's not strange enough,' but they are incredible, and we liked the title. So now just forget about the title. A lot of the themes of the music book are the same as we had for the film book, which is that we can remap aesthetics, and what's good taste and bad, and that we really did like this music... So I had Vale's stack of records, and my criterion was that I wanted it to be more than just a one-joke thing. Everything had to stand the test of repeated listenability." Except, maybe, Kali Bahlui's ridiculous flower-child narrative "A Cosmic Telephone Call." "That's why we put it last—but it's just so marvelous. It really is just like...haiku poetry. It permeates and percolates in the brain, long after the listening."

Volume 2 of both the book and the soundtrack are due later this year. Juno's guarded about who they'll feature, but she does offer her vision of the future of incredibly strange art:

"You're going to see a lot of things that we take for granted now being marginalized in 20 years. We're at a unique historical point right now, in that art is taken almost too seriously. I almost long for the days when musicians, artists and filmmakers were really kind of a lower rung in society, and so they weren't given the kind of self-conscious criticality that they are now. That's what produced a lot of unselfconscious, marvelous, spontaneous musical, filmic and artistic moments. It's an amazing thing that the rock 'n' roll artist in 1993 has a very high critical place in society. I think that's scary. It really should be back when they were bad, and they weren't on the cover of Time, and they weren't dining at the President's table, and they were taken out to pasture when they got old."

ON THE COVER ACK POT!

Essential New Music

RICHARD THOMPSON Mirror Blue (Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028)—Regardless of his personal circumstance or level of previous success, Richard Thompson seems to make new records as if he's just endured great personal tragedy, like a forgotten hero returning in grand fashion to record a hallmark after a mysterious absence. His 1991 "comeback" LP Rumor And Sigh was evidence of that, and his latest, Mirror Blue, is a similar revelation containing equal parts rock 'n roll exuberance and emotional exorcism. The opener, "For The Sake Of Mary" (the song's riff is cousin to Neil Young's "Cinnamon Girl"), finds a gruff character forsaking pills, booze and tattoos in an attempt to impress a woman with his new-found goodness. Thompson's ability to use the plain language of one-chord blues to express pathetic romances such as this one is unparalleled and limitless. Musically, Mirror Blue masterfully refracts everything from Chet Atkins to Middle Eastern rhythms and every blues tangent in between, yet it is the folk ballad that remains Thompson's strong suit. "King Of Bohemia" and "Beeswing" are two stellar examples that will surely become emotional centerpieces of his solo concerts, much like "1952 Vincent Black Lightning" from Rumor And Sigh. Reflect upon those above, plus: "MGB-GT," "Brando Mumble, Mingus Eyes," "Taking My Business Elsewhere" and "The Way That It Shows," which arguably features the best guitar solo of this decade.

—Steve Ciabattone

PRONG Cleansing (Epic, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Although Prong was born in the thrashy bowels of New York's heavy metal underground, over the years the band has strived to shed its metal skin by experimenting with samples, staccato guitar lines and unconventional rhythms. But while its songs have influenced a slew of bands including Helmet, Tool and Godflesh, its street image, chunky guitar riffs and lyrical contempt have kept Prong entrenched in metalville. Never mind that drummer Ted Parsons used to play for alternative demi-gods the Swans, forget that guitarist/vocalist Tommy Victor once jammed with underground composer/noisemaster Glenn Branca; up until very recently, alternative rockers were just too cool for Prong. Until recently that is, because the post-grunge explosion has made power chords and screaming vocals far more acceptable to the masses, and Prong is now just as alternative as L7 or Alice In Chains. Not that Cleansing is anything but a metal record. Although the band has added two ex-Killing Joke members (bassist

Paul Raven and sample man John Bechdel), its sound is as crunchy, antagonistic and blaringly guitar-based as ever. While many metal groups flaunt style over substance, Prong cuts straight to the core with jagged, compact musicianship and impeccable timing, latching onto dense grooves and riding them to the end of the world. Ignore Cleansing at your own risk.

—Jon Wiederhorn

THAT DOG. that dog. (DGC, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA, 90069)—An actual band for just a tad over 18 months now, that dog has a huge buzz, a major-label deal and some familiar surnames. Backlash is inevitable: know-it-alls will toss around allegations of nepotism, bellyache about credibility or simply dismiss the band as an inconsequential part of current major-label alternative hysteria. What these nay-sayers will foolishly miss is that dog's original and compelling sound—the group's relative inexperience effortlessly translates into invention. Primarily a vocal group (an anomaly in the punk/alternative world) with violin as its lead instrument on most songs, that dog gives straight-ahead two-chord punk rock the old art-college try on a few cuts with pretty mixed, if unremarkable, results. On the slower, folkier tunes, though the trio's twisted vision is clear and consistently appealing. Guitarist Anna Waronker's simple, arpeggiated chord progressions allow Petra Haden's violin to weave delicate, beautiful melodies around the rhythm section, and most importantly, the gorgeous three-part harmonies that define the group's sound are front and center. The more that dog turns down the volume, the denser its sound becomes, and tunes like "Jump" and "She" defy categorization (chamber-rock?), becoming weirder, creepier and more compelling with every listen. Also check out "You Are Here," "Angel" and "She Looks At Me" before experience and 'progress' as musicians take their toll.

—Steve McGuire

ENTOMBED Wolverine Blues (Earache, c/o Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Oh man. Now this is METAL. It's not like Entombed does anything that new, it's just that this band does everything exactly right. No slow numbers, no wanky solos, no triumphant high-end guitar noodling, no self-indulgent screeching, no high-school irony in the lyrics, no pop-wannabe crossover bullshit. Just 40 minutes of utterly savage, overdriven, razor-clawed, bleaker-than-bleak death metal. The Swedish quintet nails the target with Wolverine Blues—for an equivalent to Entombed's nihilistic crunch-attack, you have to look back to Negative Approach's Tied Down. And that's not even a fair comparison: Entombed isn't interested in compactness or pop structures, it's interested in sonic battering rams, as long and rhythmically complex as they can be without losing any of their force. Lars Goran-Petrov's shredded-steel voice has a range of about two and a half notes, but what use he makes of it: howling like the Boredoms' Yamatsuka Eye at the beginning of "Demon," gargling through "Blood Song" until he gets to the payoff line "I suck your blood!" which is actually scary by that point. "Eyemaster" trades off between a unison-lead hook and a murderous hard-core vamp; the band rips through the odd-metered riffs of "Rotten Soil" so deftly that they feel like a groove. A leather-fisted triumph.

KRISTIN HERSH Hips And Makers (4AD/Sire, c/o Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—Kristin Hersh and her band Throwing Muses have created nothing less than a legacy, releasing a small treasureload of albums and EPs and acting as a springboard for former member Tanya Donelly to form her own successful band Belly. After a decade of writing and recording unclassifiable, folk-spirited rock, Hersh has made her first solo work in Hips And Makers, an intricate, achingly beautiful album offering an intimate glimpse into Hersh's fears and dreams in a sparse but artistically rich setting. Hersh's warm acoustic guitar strumming and picking offsets the demons living in between her words and quirky vocals, slithery cello filling in the few open spots left by producer Lenny Kaye. While not all of Hersh's poetry could stand on its own, her words and music work particularly well on the chillingly gorgeous "Your Ghost," featuring a stunning vocal interplay between Hersh and Michael Stipe; the demonic, yet delicate, "A Loon"; the lullaby-like piano lull of "Beesting"; and the muse-call of "Me And My Charms," colored by Hersh's passionate vocals. —Lydia Anderson

MEAT PUPPETS Too High To Die (London, c/o PLG, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Some twisted old sage once said that college "is a place where stones are polished and diamonds are dimmed." The same has often been said for punk rock bands that get signed to major labels. That sort of dormroom-door wisdom doesn't really apply to a band that can shift into by-the-numbers ZZ Top at will, however, and the irony of a "breakthrough" record coming after 13 years and eight previous albums puts a few lived-in nicks and dents into Too High To Die's buff and polish. The macramé intricacy of Curt Kirkwood's guitar lines wraps itself around the huge sound grafted onto the songs by producers Dave Jerden and Paul Leary, playing on your ear like Tinkerbell's whisper. Despite this spit-shine—even the Kirkwoods' ne'er-do-well harmonies seem dressed up in their Sunday best—the songs retain a hand-wrought and emotional quality. The result is the sort of album nobody makes anymore: a really fine rock record that neither heaves itself onto a pedestal of technique nor stoops to its audience's prejudices. Too

High To Die is a backhanded tour-de-force through the glories and pitfalls of rock before it was rendered into a useless body of "classics," shining warm light onto post-Allman Brothers blues ("Roof With Hole"), semi-acoustic pretty little love songs ("Shine" and "Why"), big-time rock 'n roll ("Velvet Eyes"), and songs that, well, sound like nobody else but the Meat Puppets (most notably "Flaming Heart"). —Scott Frampton

SHONEN KNIFE Rock Animals (Virgin, 1790 Broadway, New York, NY 10019)—Shonen Knife's m.o. is epitomized by primitive punk rock and broken English; the band's reputation is founded more on 'Oh, those girls are so cute, and they even make their own outfits' than on their music. With Rock Animals, Shonen Knife pops out from behind its hype and delivers a more mature, less one-dimensional punk-rock record, as well as continuing to astonish with its unique take on the English language. Instead of badly played instruments and repetitively endearing melodies, the songs are marked by synchronized drumming and more complexly played instruments, as well as the same repetitively endearing melodies. On "Music Square" and "Quavers," the trio totally breaks from the mold to deliver a couple of acoustic gems. If you've been a fan of the band in the past, chances are you'll groove to "Little Tree," "Catnip Dream" and "Tomato Head," songs whose lyrics build gothic imagery into catchy tunes. "Johnny Johnny Johnny" is in the classic style of a '60s surf band, straying a bit further from the band's basic 1-2-3-4 style. Prior to this, Shonen Knife has been a love-them-or-hate-them band; with Rock Animals, the band has broadened its make-up, and should be reconsidered as a rock 'n roll band. —Megan McLaughlin

DENTISTS Behind The Door I Keep The Universe (EastWest America, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—British quartet the Dentists have developed an extensive U.S. following despite the fact that their only domestic releases up until now were two compilation albums and a handful of indie singles. The release of Behind The Door I Keep The Universe heralds the Dentists' major-label and official stateside debut LP, and demonstrates their ability to construct intelligent, deliciously crisp, aggressive pop. The vocal enunciations of the optimistic, ethereal "In Orbit" recall the post-punk quirkiness of early B-52's, while the softer, meditative "Sorry Is Not Enough" gives a subdued wink to James. One of the album's most interesting facets lies in its mating of dark, contemplative lyrical subjects with musically cheery and carefree arrangements. The guitar-drenched "Space Man" is as melodically irresistible, as happy-go-lucky as The Cure's "Friday I'm In Love," yet all the while extols the virtues of solitude and loneliness, concluding with the desperate lyric "I just can't seem to get away from you." Likewise, the jumpy bassline and spacy harmonies of the album's opener, "This Is Not My Flag," scrape sharply against the song's lyrical pugnacity. For those of you frightened by the band's name, there's no need to be squeamish—these Dentists only inflict satisfaction.

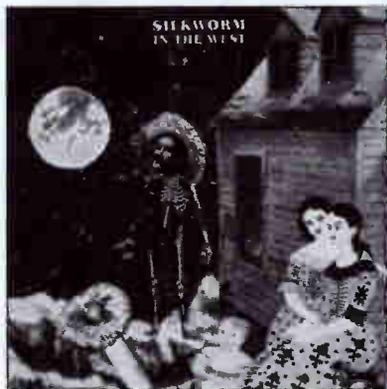

—Aaron Clow

CONCUSSION ENSEMBLE Stampede (Conc, P.O. Box 56, Cambridge, MA 02141)—A negative review of Stampede would be hard to find. Even harder to find in such a review would be the word "predictable." This Cambridge, MA, septet dives headlong into rock fusion, and while that may not seem so interesting, that dive is taken with one bassist, two guitarists, three drummers and a grab-bag percussionist who is credited as playing "junk." The group is a sort of antithesis to its friends and neighbors Morphine (whose sax player has a guest spot). The theory of Concussion Ensemble is a frank "More is more." Play Stampede in a space people walk through and you'll hear things like "What is this...Zeppelin?" or "What is this...Phish?" or more commonly, "What is this?" Stampede is simply an all-out jam session that provides chaotic, thudding percussion over thick, discernable guitar riffs. The early part of Stampede is more palatable than the second half of the disc, which is actually more interesting, as the group starts to experiment more with its curious, assaultive setup.

SILKWORM In The West (C/Z, 1407 E. Madison #41, Seattle, WA 98122/206-621-9127)—Silkworm has released numerous 7" singles, a CD and an EP, perfecting its control of emotional tension and catharsis through a most a decade of sweat, not to mention a favorable association with the infamous Steve Albini (who recorded both this album and last year's ...His Absence Is A Blessing). Steering clear of any associations with its current homebase Seattle, Silkworm twists traditional rockisms to its own liking, uncompromising in the musical textures it pours forth. When the band throws punches of pain-drenched cries, sheets of chugging guitar and stomping rhythms, there is no relenting. Each song is built around a predominant low-end squirm, the bass lines and skin thumping laying a foundation for the melodic glimmers hidden beneath gnarled guitar leads. Prickly, ragged noise erupts around a voice teetering on the verge of either despair or explosive outrage, a pleading ache amidst the rumbling clamor. The resulting intensity is both fragile and chaotic, with the kind of unsettling strength that most bands of similar bent rarely achieve. Although all of the tracks meander, wail and scrape with equal passion, "Into The Woods," "Raised By Tigers," "Dust My Broom" and "Dremate" prove Silkworm to be a band capable of reinventing the way it approaches typical rock and punk forms time and again.

JAWBREAKER 24 Hour Revenge Therapy (Communion/Tupelo, 290-C Napoleon St., San Francisco, CA 94124/415-647-5667)—

During its five years of existence, California's Jawbreaker (which recently relocated from L.A. to San Francisco) has been a purveyor of punk traditions. The three musicians, who have typical rock-musician degrees in philosophy, history and English, deliver a passive West Coast attitude garnished with a bit of angry deliberation about what it really means to be punk and veneration for those who truly are. The band's aggression is built on a strong foundation of hook-laden guitar pop melodies. The epitome is "Indictment," a happy carefree tune with a handsome pop groove of a colossal size. 24 Hour Revenge Therapy does not stray far from the

“Of course, I’d rather be at home with the family”

“But I can’t afford to miss the 1994 GAVIN SEMINAR, and I’m aiming to make my way to San Francisco to meet up with all my friends from radio and music once again. It amazes me how fast it comes around each year but I wouldn’t miss it for the world.

“You see, as well as finding lots of familiar faces (and new ones!), I actually learn a lot from it, unlike some conventions I could mention. You get a nice mix of very specific sessions and broader topics which tackle the real issues. As well as keynote addresses by high-flyers like Capitol Records president Gary Gersh and that Superbowl football coach Bill Walsh, there are panels dedicated to just about every format you can think of, including Top 40, A<sup>3</sup>, Alternative, College radio and Rap. My favorites, I can tell you. I hear there’s going to be lots about some of them new technologies in 1994. I guess we’ve got to face up to change.

Why, I’m even thinking of investing in one of those gas BBQ’s sometime soon. But that’s another story.

“The other thing I like about the Seminar is the chance to cut a rug at the live performances. You can really let your hair down, in a manner of speaking, as well as finding out what the latest “big thing” is likely to be.

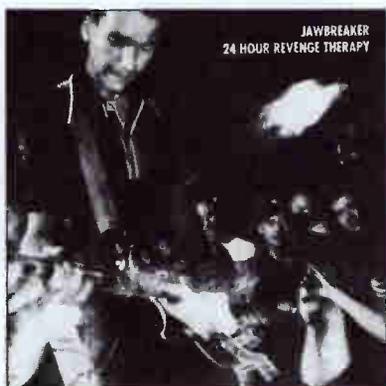

“So take a tip from a regular. Better book your place real fast on that new fangled Seminar Hotline (that’s 415-495-3200, if memory serves me correctly) and feel the benefit of those early registration rates.

“As for burning those burgers that weekend, I guess I’ll be letting those nice people at the Westin St. Francis take care of all that stuff. I hear they’ve got some special Gavin room rates if you act quickly (415-397-7000)”

“Nice talking to you.”

path laid by Bivouac or even Unfun—the songs remain true to the band's brand of head-bobbing punk rock. While it is now the mid-'90s and punk rock like this was at its peak some 10 years ago, Jawbreaker remains fresh and full of vigor. Perhaps the band will spearhead the revival. BOOZOO CHAVIS & THE MAJIC SOUNDS
Boozoo, That's Whol (Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700)

Boozoo Chavis has long been regarded as one of the great men of zydeco music, and certainly one of its most beloved practitioners. Even then, he's not known as the greatest of innovators, but as a man who simply defines the form every time he straps on his accordion. Other zydeco men may cover R&B, jam with Clapton or take on other such extravagant pursuits, but Boozoo just wails away at his home-cooked zydeco like every night is Saturday night. Boozoo's last album was one of the most acclaimed titles in Elektra-Nonesuch's acclaimed American Explorer series, and this one, like its immediate predecessor, is produced by NRBQ man and longtime Boozoo-phile Terry

Adams. Adams' approach is sympathetic but light-handed, just letting the tapes roll, leaving Boozoo to crank the party into high gear. Like Lightnin' Hopkins, Boozoo creates his music out of whatever happens to be happening around him: real scenes and real people. It's a spontaneity that suits the music perfectly, marking Chavis as not just another zydeco artist but as an American original, on a compositional par with Lightnin' Hopkins, Roy Orbison or Hank Williams, Sr. It's a style that leads many zydecophiles to answer the question of who's the greatest living zydeco artist by shouting gleefully, "Boozoo, that's who!" —James Lien

THRONEBERRY Sangria (Alias, 2815 W. Olive Ave., Burbank, CA 91505/818-566-1034)

Trivia fans will be pleased to know that Cincinnati, OH's Throneberry takes its name from the first baseman of the original 1962 New York Mets (Marv Throneberry), but thankfully, the band's debut album has more hits than its namesake had. Following in the footsteps of the Afghan Whigs (head Whig Greg Dulli sat behind the production boards for this album), but wearing its very own shoes, this quartet plays infectious pop in a relaxed atmosphere. Instead of forcing the songs, Throneberry lets them ferment at their own pace, keeping the rhythms modest while letting the music unfold, creating a sincere mood of elegance. Jason Arbenz's unaffected vocals carry Sangria with an emotional agility matched by the continuously winding guitars. "Off The Ground" and "Velvet Maroon" conjure up candlelit romantic pictures by featuring strings and piano, while "Touched" and "Green Goddess" worship at more illuminated levels. In either light, Sangria holds a torch to its gesture-laden images, taking a page from the Afghan Whigs in creating an American Rock record with an artistic vision. Also sip the psychedelically-tinged "Shellac The Bozac" and "Trial Flight Behind." —Andy Skibins

DEL McCOURY A Deeper Shade Of Blue (Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge MA 02140/617-354-0700)

When you hear a CMJ staffer talking about Del's latest record, he or she may not be referring to Del The Funkyhomosapien: for nigh on 30 years now, Del McCoury's been putting out solid, dependable albums, and A Deeper Shade Of Blue is the latest in his long line of classic, homespun bluegrass LPs. It's just what you'd expect from a performer who remembers seeing Bill Monroe and Flatt and Scruggs for the first time back in the '50s and saying, "I knew right then that was what I had to do." Not only is he passionately in love with the music, but he knows how to do it right, serving it up straight-up, no frills, with his excellent band (two members of which are his sons!) backing up his promise. When his voice cracks on a high note, it'll melt the coldest and most jaded of hearts, and even people who aren't even from the South may find themselves pining for the blue, blue grass of home. Traditional music for its own sake is interesting enough, but what makes McCoury something special is that his music is so classy and so stylishly and perfectly presented—it's really just a hop, skip and a few miles north and east of popular "alternative" cowboys and girls like Jimmie Dale Gilmore, Lyle Lovett and k.d. lang. A deeper shade of Del: "Cheek To Cheek With The Blues," "What Made Milwaukee Famous," "More Often Than Once In A While," "Cold Cheater's Heart" and "Lonely Side Of Love." —James Lien

UMC'S Unleashed (Wild Pitch, c/o EMI Records Group, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104)—For the plainly-dressed, boys-next-door looking duo of Hass G. and Kool Kim, distinction in the overcrowded hip-hop arena can only be accomplished by full use of its finely-crafted, interactive wordplay. The UMC's (Undisputed Masters of Charisma) first album, featuring "Blue Cheese" and "One To Grow On," won them a modest following, the album's spacey, hallucinogenic-filled production providing an unusual touch. Unleashed sets out to give the duo a little rougher coating by factoring in various life experiences and basic street survival tactics, and winds up sounding distinctly confident and street-educated, rather than like the congenial, mother's favorite sons of days past. The first single, "Time To Set It Straight," quickly lays the foundation, the duo waving the banner of its native Staten Island, NY ("Staten Island Comes First"), and rapping about topics found in any updated rapper's handbook ("Eat an MC and his crew for lunch/then set 'em up for the Melachi crunch"). Fortunately, rather than sounding as disposable as the pen that wrote the rhymes, this second encounter is made satisfying by the UMC's enigmatic and sprightly deliveries. Flip the script on: "Evil Ways," "What's Up," "Ill Thoughts" and "I Gotta Be Sure." —Glen Sansone

VARIOUS ARTISTS Trance Europe Express (Teex (UK), 22/23 Brook Mews North, London W2 3BW U.K./071-706-8122)—Let's face it, ambient music is a force to be reckoned with, not just a mere sideline or flavor of the month. The folks who produce the Volume series know this, and they've put together Trance Europe Express, a sensational compilation spotlighting the most adventurous and exciting recent expressions in the form. With a collection this consistent, recommending tracks is essentially a subjective judgement of favorites; with so much material to choose from, it's worth exploring to find one's own. Start with the gently choogling techno of disc one's tracks from Readymade and System 7, and then explore Material's spooky "Praying Mantra" (perfect for those who don't want to spend a third of their air shift playing the ultra-lengthy Orb remixes on the import single). On disc two, cruise through tracks from MLO and Aphex Twin and Moby's "Move," and wind down with Trance Induction's "N." Because the set totals almost 160 minutes of aural hypnosis, we're actually quite thankful for the copious 192-page booklet, providing plenty of ocular stimulation and good reading to go along with the out-of-body experience offered by the music. Our favorite parts of the booklet are the occasional "Top Ten" lists from various DJs, ambient musicians and rave figures: a surprising and eclectic batch of sounds that give an interesting clue to this music's predecessors and influences. —James Lien

THIS KIND OF PUNISHMENT In The Same Room/5 By Four and WRECK SMALL SPEAKERS ON EXPENSIVE STEREOS River Falling Love (Ajax, P.O. Box 805293, Chicago, IL 60680-4114/312-772-4783)—Brothers Peter and Graeme Jefferies (the latter of Cakekitchen) already have a vast arsenal of raw, wrenching recordings under their belts, and their work together as This Kind Of Punishment still ranks among their most compelling. Ajax's second disc of reissued TKP material (the first was last year's A Beard Of Bees) is another installment of vital, rudimentarily recorded songs that twitch and hum with suppressed angst. Peter's deep-as-a-batomless-well vocals and Graeme's stylized guitar work shine through In The Same Room (originally released by Flying Nun in 1987), drenching "Immigration Song," "Ivan Fyodorovitch" and "Holding" (featuring vocals by Michael Morley) in the coarse cloth knit by the Jefferies' haunting poetry. 1985's 5 By Four EP is a looser, more experimental work, less song-oriented and decorated with more found sounds and nearly industrial rhythms. The EP's final cut, "Out Of My Hands," however, is a surprisingly sweet (and sour) finale to this vast project. A duo comprised of Richard Ram and Michael Morley (later of Xpressway legends Dead C), Wreck Small Speakers was a contemporary of TKP but even more experimental in theory and process. River Falling Love, an LP recorded in 1985 and released by Flying Nun in 1987, features pastiches of textured keyboards, inorganically played guitars and vocals buried behind caves of sound. "Lots Of Hearts" swims somewhere between its dense organ beds and quiet guitar strumming, "Alice In Wonderland" features the same organ

squashed in seemingly random fashion, a fluid bassline and distorted vocals, and the gray-toned "Rain" includes Denise Roughan (currently of the 3Ds) singing in French. Last year Ram and Morley rejoined forces, after nearly seven years distance, and recorded some new material, which Ajax promises to release as soon as it's ready. —Lydia Anderson

DQE But Me, I Fell Down (Feel Good All Over, P.O. Box 148428, Chicago, IL 60614)—DQE (abbreviated from a name that mentioned a famous ice cream chain), a duo of singer/guitarist Grace Braun and drummer Chris Verene, has appeared on singles, cassettes and compilations for years, but this is its first album. Braun's experiences in mental hospitals are the subject of a lot of DQE's press, but for once not as a result of media nosiness. Mental illness, its treatment, and the confrontation of internalized demons are central to DQE's lyrics, and even to its sound. Listen, for example, to Braun's voice quavering and breaking in barely disguised terror on "Funny Thing," the jittery rant about therapy and medication that opens a cover of the Breeders' "Fortunately Gone," the chirped "This is a song about incest!" at the beginning of "Twister." Verene's drums are usually miked badly but not inappropriately—most of the time, they carry the songs along with Braun's singing, and her distinctive guitar playing takes a back seat in the mix. Recorded at five different sessions over several years, the songs on But Me, I Fell Down sound very different from each other, but that works to the album's advantage. "Psychic Dream" is as delicate and scary as a dead grandmother's wedding dress, and "Shaky Sugar" is a playful, amazingly well-crafted love song. Also milky, regal and imperial: "Twister," "Beestung Me" and "Carnival."

VARIOUS ARTISTS Volume Eight (Volume UK), 22/23 Brook Mews North, London W2 3BW, U.K./071-706-8122—If Volume is any indication—and it usually captures the spirit of the moment pretty well—techno is really starting to take over. Seven of the new issue's 17 CD tracks are instrumental electronic dance music, and the songs by the Wonder Stuff, Curve, Butthole Surfers, James and The Fall are all techno-oriented new tracks or remixes of recent tracks originally recorded with traditional rock instruments. The most adept of the hybridizers is The Fall, which contributes a terse, sharp-jawed cover of Henry Cow's "War," using electronics to augment the band's trademark single-chord vamps and pounding, subtly complex rhythms. Aside from the techno groups, there are fewer new faces here than usual; the major exception is Elastica, whose "S.O.F.T." exploits the high-end/low-end dichotomy to fine effect. Other highlights include Come's new "City Of Fun" (an Only Ones cover!), Afghan Whigs' oddly blurry "Little Girl Blue," and the Wonder Stuff's dub fantasy on "Swell." Check out the magazine for a hysterical take on all-time top album lists ("recall how we soaked up the seminal vibes of the seventh greatest album ever made"). We're getting ever closer to the end of the shark, too.

CARTER USM Post Historic Monsters (I.R.S., 594 Broadway, Ste. 901, New York, NY 10012/212-334-2179)—Jimbat and Fruitbob, or whatever they call themselves (incidentally, Jimbob's real name is Jim Morrison), are back again, spreading a gospel of British sarcasm and politics with drum machines cocked. Although they've nabbed the name of one of America's presidents, everything about the group is inarguably English, right down to its heavy electro-pop beats and heavier working class accents. With its fourth album, Carter USM (that's Unstoppable Sex Machine to you) has tightened its grooves and turned up the guitars, which squabble and bray through most of the mechanical rhythms as if they're trying to cover up the band's synthesized song frames. At the same time, it's impossible to discount the somber lilt of "Under The Thumb And Moon," or the jazz swing of "being here." In the past, Carter has been largely tagged as a hybrid of Pet Shop Boys and Billy Bragg, but we see more of a Clash/Jesus Jones composite. Anyhow, the music is pretty secondary to the message, and on Post Historic Monsters Carter USM rails against conservatives, capitalists, guns and government, opening the first real song (following a rather useless intro) with the line, "Fee, fi, fo, fum/I smell the blood of a nazi scum" ("The Music That Nobody Likes"). Other Britwit can be found in "Travis," "Lean On Me I Won't Fall Over" and "Evil."

JACKPOT!

BEEKEEPER Beekeeper (224 E. 13th St. #24, New York, NY 10003/212-598-4922)—Not related to the recently-broken-up West Coast band (are all the good band names already taken?), New York's Beekeeper has played a number of shows you can count on the fingers of one hand. Siblings Karla and Matt Schickele play bass and guitar, respectively, and both sing; drummer Eric Eidel used to be in the Glories. A recent performance at Under Acme found the audience calling for encores after Beekeeper had played all the songs it knew. This three-song cassette isn't as breathtakingly forceful as the band's live show, but it's a mighty impressive beginning. "Impossible," which Karla sings, is the best of the three, with long instrumental passages where the tempo is sometimes felt rather than strictly enforced—a tricky thing to pull off with a band, but very effective—and a distinctive, touching vocal performance. Matt sings "The Gist," powered by a bent-string riff that owes more than a bit to Babe The Blue Ox, and "Strange Miranda," a slow, off-kilter song reminiscent of the Breeders' "Mad Lucas" and Shudder To Think's quieter moments. There are a few moments on the tape where the music or lyrics are a bit too self-consciously arty or clever ("The Gist" starts with an allusion to "Mairzy Doats"), but if the band continues to pursue the emotional, creatively harmonic path of "Impossible," it'll be onto something very special.

FYI

Well, popular consensus indicates that since New Orleans and Louisiana are both full of bars, it'd be a pretty good place for a bar band slugging out good ol' stompin', pumpin' American rock and roll. Hence the success of a burgeoning genre of Louisiana pub rockers, from Dash Rip Rock to Cowboy Mouth, and now, a new contender, the BINGEMEN (P.O. Box 791339, New Orleans, LA 70179/504-488-7435). Their name alone implies a target audience, and the frat-dancing beery riffs of "Drop Me Off" or "Muthafunti" seem built for that peculiar fist-in-the-air moshing-in-place dance that's often exhibited at such events. Cowboy Mouth drummer/wildman Fred LeBlanc lends his production skills, and no doubt some of his charisma and experience have rubbed off on this debut (uncannily, singer James McCormick's voice is often a dead ringer for LeBlanc's own throaty pipes). They're not exactly Faulkners of rock, but sturdy, dependable, working songs like these will certainly do well on the spring-break club circuit of the deep Southwest (if you think we're knocking it, consider that R.E.M., the Georgia Satellites and the B-52's were once its hottest tickets). There's a lot of room for the Bingemen to grow, and a lot of different directions they could take: let's hope they don't get dulled by the drain of pounding it out night after night for gas money and free beer.

GANG STARR "Mass Appeal" (12") (Chrysalis, c/o EMI Records Group, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104)—With "Mass Appeal," Gang Starr's Guru lays legitimate waste to the MCs who try to bank on their mass appeal, rather than staying true to the form as Gang Starr does. In doing so, however, Gang Starr produces an insanely radio-friendly track, one which is slow and rhythmic, and features a catchy, repetitive synthesizer line. But Gang Starr never incites or inflames with rhetoric; rather, Guru relies on his silky smooth voice to carry his message. "Mass Appeal" will be massive. —Megan McLaughlin

EGGS "A Pit With Spikes" (7") (Teen Beat, P.O. Box 3265, Arlington, VA 22203/703-358-9382)—The latest release from one of TeenBeat's most interesting and promising artists comes in the form of this quizzical single, surely one of Eggs' strangest moments yet. An overtly cheesy drum machine and subtle guitar work cushion Andrew Beaujon's restrained musings on "A Pit With Spikes," before the ghost of the Bee Gees seizes his soul for the tune's grand finale. "A Pit With Spikes," remixed on the B-side as the sluggish, droning instrumental, "A Sparkling Mix," can be found in different clothes on Eggs' upcoming second album, the double LP-length Eggs TeenBeat 96 Exploder. —Lydia Anderson

'68 COMEBACK Paper Boy Blues (10" EP) (Sympathy For The Record Industry, 4901 Virginia Ave., Long Beach, CA 90805/310-423-0281)—Monsieur Jeff Evans (ex-Gibson Bros.) continues rockin' 'n rollin' with his new band '68 Comeback. The three guitar players in '68 Comeback find more inspiration in rock 'n roll than the bluesy Gibson Bros., following a calling from a Memphis/Sun Studios legacy. Paper

Boy Blues is full of southern soul rants and raves, as songs such as "Tennessee Rock'n'Roll" and "A Little Bitch (And A Little Bitch Better)" keep the house jumpin'. —Dawn Sutter

BECK Loser (EP) (Bongload, c/o DGC, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069)—SoCal's Beck jumps to the major label ranks with his debut single "Loser," originally released by the tiny Bongload label in 1993, from the forthcoming LP Mellow Gold. Opening with a steel string slide guitar before breaking into a hip-hop groove, "Loser" cruises with a catchy rap, an infectious-as-hell chorus, a repeated guitar hook and the smarts of MC 900 Ft. Jesus, laying back with more of a slacker ideal than a copped false attitude. Also included on the EP are four non-LP tracks, including the bass/percussion-heavy "Corvette Bummer," the Pixies-ish "Fume" and the acoustically strummed "Alcohol," which opens as more of a folk song before tribal percussion and distorted guitar noise bring the track to its end. —Andy Skibins

HEAVY VEGETABLE A Bunch Of Stuff (7" EP) (Way Out Sound, 2284 Manchester Ave., Cardiff, CA 92007/619-220-8070)—The last time we heard a band that was both as delightfully poppy and as lyrically bitter about the horror of life as Heavy Vegetable, it was the sorely missed Vomit Launch. That's also a good comparison for the way "Love American Style" sounds (bell-like female vocals, instrumental hooks stuck in where they don't even need to be, energetic 12/8 tempo), but it doesn't hold for the rest of A Bunch Of Stuff: a little low-fi instrumental, the brief, snarling "St. Livingston," and a gorgeous acoustic guitar/three-part harmony piece called "Doesn't Mean Shit." The four tracks were recorded at four different places, and they sound like they were by four different bands—four different really good bands. Let's hear it for versatility. —Douglas Wolk

NEW RADIANT STORM KING "Smear" (7") (Trixie, P.O. Box 379373, Chicago, IL, 60637/312-493-6716)—Following up last summer's Rival Time, New Radiant Storm King digs some tracks out of the archives for this 7". NRSK has established itself as an indie-rock standby in the vein of Sebadoh and Pavement, but these songs chronicle a time when the band was more influenced by its punk rock records. "Smear" is a noisy, driven number which crescendos into an all-out screamfest. The B-side, "Indiana Jones," is a trifle more melodic and gives a slight hint of the band's more brooding later work. —Bryan McNamara

ALICE IN CHAINS Jar Of Flies (EP) (Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—When a popular rock band decides to venture out beyond the comfort zone of its electrified musical boundaries, there can be cause for concern. With the release of Jar Of Flies, however, Alice In Chains proves any apprehension or suspicion to be unjustified. Its latest EP finds the band wading in moderately orchestrated folksy-rock waters, with a majority of tracks featuring a classic plugged-in Ovation acoustic guitar twanginess, coupled with the Chains' inimitable, twisted harmonic vocal signatures. The dynamic string reinforcements on "I Stay Away" are casually reminiscent of early Elton John rockers, with the aggressive, tasteful cello and violin arrangements pumping up the track rather than pumping it out. The haunting instrumental "Whale & Wasp" transfers the harmonizations usually reserved for vocals to electric guitars and laces them within a warm pad of strings. With Jar Of Flies, Alice In Chains provides us with a luminous example of a band with a desire to push its limits. —Aaron Clow

DELIGHTFUL LITTLE NOTHINGS Delightful Little Nothings (7" EP) (Candy Floss, 130 Sutter St., 5th Fl., San Francisco, CA 94104)—Velocity Girl came up with a successful formula, and the Delightful Little Nothings see no reason to mess with a good thing. Aside from a brief, rockish burst at the end of "Freesong," the Benicia, CA, band accurately follows the recipe of one clean guitar, one distorted guitar, verse/chorus songs, and a singer (named Kelsea) who sounds exactly like Velocity Girl's Sarah Shannon. For all the familiarity of its sound, "Walk Away" is a neat pop song, cresting in an energetic instrumental passage near the end. "Over Us," a why-did-you-leave-me hum-along that doesn't really sound the least bit broken-hearted, is a day-brightener too. —Douglas Wolk

BLONDE REDHEAD "Vague" (7") (Smells Like, P.O. Box 6179, Hoboken, NJ 07030)—NYC four-piece Blonde Redhead is the latest darling of Sonic Youth drummer Steve Shelley's label. The band is slated to release its full-length debut sometime this year, and "Vague" is a captivating prelude. The song is driven by a hypnotic, throbbing guitar and the yearning boy-vs.-girl duel vocals. The flip, "Jet Star" (featuring lyrics co-written by former DNA frontman Arto Lindsay), resonates softly before giving way to velvety guitar blossoms, forming a lush background for wide-eyed girl vocals and the occasional dissonant tone. —Colin Helms

JACKPOT!

ORNETTE COLEMAN Beauty Is A Rare Thing: The Complete Atlantic Recordings (Rhino, 10635 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90025-4900/310-474-4778) [cat. no. 71410]—Beauty is a rare thing, indeed: Just ask anyone trying to track down a complete set of Atlantic LPs by Ornette Coleman, many of which have been out of print since the turn of the '70s. It was a strange commercial fate for the seminal jazz reedman who broke new ground in the '60s and practically single-handedly laid the foundation for "free jazz." And so, it's significant that of all the legendary Atlantic jazz artists to have been revived via Rhino-Atlantic's Jazz Gallery series, Ornette was the only one to warrant the gluttonously whole-hog, completist treatment of this high-impact, high-pricetag, deluxe six-CD box set. Like Mercury's awe-inspiring complete Rahsaan Roland Kirk box set, this set's admirable, all-or-nothing premise suggests that the best way to listen to and appreciate such over-the-top music is to gorge to the gills, cramming as much of it as you can in between your ears at one time. And what a feast it is: nine albums' worth of sessions spread over six CDs, with a 70-page booklet crammed full of insightful quotes, essential annotations and vivid photography. To us, Coleman's music has always been palatable to "rock" ears, especially enjoyable to anyone who digs Beefheart, Zappa, Pere Ubu or even the Coctails. What Ornette Coleman did was free jazz from the rigors of conformity and decades of convention: Instead of soloing over an invisible, imaginary melody line or a set of structured chord changes, he and his fellow players (including Don Cherry on pocket trumpet) opened up the solos to a wider range of freedom and feeling. From there, things became wide open, and music has never been the same since. It's expensive, but that's Ornette—he's always had a high price, and some things are simply worth it.

RAINCOATS The Raincoats, Odyshape and Moving (DGC, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069) [cat. nos. 24622-24624]—Without embracing any style-conscious mottos or snotty-nosed politicisms, the Raincoats perfectly embodied everything there was to embody about punk rock. Their tools were rudimentary, their skills were copiously unsanded-down and their view was certainly from the fringes. There were other women on the music scene when the Raincoats formed in 1977—Patti Smith, the Slits and Poly Styrene are all credited as influences in the band's own liner notes—but this all-woman quartet used its uniquely female perspective to impressive and, as time has revealed, significant effect. The Raincoats released three striking, and strikingly different, albums on the influential (especially during the early '80s) Rough Trade label between 1979 and 1984, albums which have had an enduring effect on today's punk-rock heroes. In fact, DGC's domestic reissue of these albums, whose previous "I've-got-that-on-tape" availability made them a sore spot for many collectors, feature introductions penned by some of our current punk heroes—Kurt Cobain and Kim Gordon on the first two discs—who all agree that the Raincoats made a significant impact on their musical development.

FLASH BACK

The Raincoats is brimming over with unbridled energy, all the ideas and unconventional sounds four English women (well, one Portuguese transplant) could cram onto their debut album. Gina Birch's bouncy basslines and (former Slit) Palmolive's perky drumbeats charge every song with naive energy, and Ana da Silva's gloriously untamed guitar noises and Vicky Aspinall's proudly unorthodox violin-playing set the songs' personal politics afire. The sprightly opener "Fairytale In A Supermarket" is an irresistible invitation, da Silva's throaty voice carrying the song's quirky melody. "Off Duty Trip" discusses rape/date rape, long before it was a trendy topic, with a suitably nervy, jerky bassline and an overall sweaty tension; the pits-of-depression "The Void" evokes an effectively melancholic mood, and the Raincoats' rendition of the Kinks' "Lola" is unparalleled for its complete and joyous upheaval of gender-based sexual roles.

The Raincoats' second album is, in many ways, their most experimental. With Odyshape, the band stretched the limits of its own loosely-configured song structures, taking melodies, sung in their now familiar, atypical voices for a waltz across the countryside. The departure of drummer Palmolive, which prompted the band to use several different drummers on the album, may have contributed to the album's looser feel. These nine songs are as anti-establishment (social, rock, government) as you could want, but in a stylistic rather than a predictable, three-chord-rant sort of way. Gina plays her bass with a cello bow, Ana tries her hand at kalimba for the startling "Only Loved At Night," piano and cello dance over reggae-ish rhythms on "Dancing In My Head," and "found" percussion contributes to the rawness of "Red Shoes." The title cut tackles the difficult issue of a woman's negative self-image with empathetic sensitivity, and "Go Away," the album's downbeat closer, suggests a baffling state of mental chaos.

By the time Moving was recorded, the Raincoats had become a more technically proficient unit, augmented by several new members, mostly male. Here the band adopted a more eclectic sound, felt in the song's swifty rhythms and their widespread incorporation of instruments such as tympani, charango, saxophone and kalimba. Sometimes the tones are Celtic, as on "Dreaming In The Past," at times they're Brazilian, as on "Honey Mad Woman," and at others they're simply jubilant, as on "Avidoso," the first Raincoats song to feature male lead vocals, from drummer/percussionist Richard Dudanski. Were Moving recorded in 1993, it might be released by David Byrne's Luaka Bop label and touted as a thought-provoking yet palatable fusion of worldly sounds. The CD reissue, due out March 1, also includes the 7" version of the 1982 single "No One's Little Girl" and the 12" version of Moving's "Animal Rhapsody." Let it rain!

JELLY ROLL MORTON The Library Of Congress Recordings Volume 1-4: Kansas City Stomp/Anamule Dance/The Pearls/

Winin' Boy Blues (Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700) [cat. nos. 1091-1094]—Considered by many (including himself) to be the father of jazz, Jelly Roll Morton is, at the very least, an extremely important figure in the early development of this indigenous American music. Born in Louisiana in 1890, his musical influence began as a bandleader and composer in Chicago during the 1920s. Including his time in New York City and his later days in Washington, DC in the mid-1930s, Morton left a body essential to American music history. These four discs comprise Morton's entire Library Of Congress sessions, recorded at the Coolidge Auditorium in Washington, DC, by Alan Lomax in 1938. Mostly piano and vocals in barrelhouse, rag-time and blues style, they contain a great deal of material that has never been available before, mostly because of Morton's obscene lyrics, and include dialogue between Lomax and Morton, adding an unprecedented understanding of the artist and his music beyond their historical significance. Since Lomax used a less-than-reliable disc recorder, which did not always run at a steady speed, playback of these recordings has been equally inconsistent in the past. A relatively simple process has been used on those recordings to bring the music back to its original key. With extensive, informed notes on the music, the recordings and the various sessions, written by James Dapogny, this collection is a fascinating experience, a must for any library of American music. —Jim Caligiuri

HOLLYWOOD FATS Rock This House (Black Top, P.O. Box 56691, New Orleans, LA 70156/504-895-7239) [cat. no. 1097]—

Consider this: when people who really love music deeply are given the chance to run reissue programs, amazing things can happen. And so, here's Hollywood Fats, the latest treasure from Black Top Classics, the blues label's reissue wing. Hollywood who? Well, Hollywood Fats was a great guitar player and singer who recorded in obscurity in the late '70s, a period after the initial resurgence in blues interest, when the public's attention was once again on the wane. The sound is vintage, plugged-in, jump'n'shout blues, not the typical dorky guys in shades and sideburns who so often seem to put out records that look like this one. In fact, you'd be hard pressed to find many other records from the late '70s that rocked this hard and swung this much. Unlike a lot of recordings from the era, where the studio sound is just a little too clean or polished, Rock This House retains much of the primal, gutsy rawness that made the first sides by Little Walter, Elmore James and Howlin' Wolf so irresistibly powerful. True, clean and neat, an unforgettable jump blues record from start to finish—cue up "Caldonia," "Rock This House," "Little Girl" or "Prettiest Little Thing." Out of sync, caught in obscurity between waves of blues interest, Fats died at the incredibly young age of 32, forever turning the question of his music into one of those "what if he'd lived" propositions that always end up with the true fans as losers. He may not have had the star potential of Stevie Ray Vaughan or the hoodoo power of John Campbell, but he sure could stretch his fingers over the neck of a six-string to make a room full of people dance. —James Lien

Flashback is CMJ's biweekly column dedicated to reissues of old, obscure, and life-changing music. Send all reissue material for review to Flashback, CMJ, 11 Middle Neck Road, Ste. 400, Great Neck, NY 10021.

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/noncommercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). ▲ indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position; #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more...PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

CHART FOCUS

CROWDED HOUSE

Neil Finn, along with brother Tim, led Split Enz throughout the mid-'70s and early half of the '80s with an eccentric brand of pop from New Zealand. Nearly two decades after those beginnings, Neil Finn continues to write challenging pop songs with Crowded House on Together Alone, the fourth album under his latest moniker. Undaunted pop is still the name of the game as Finn creates some of his moodiest work to date, expanded by more worldly elements, such as an Asian vocal group and South Pacific log drummers (inspired, no doubt, by the band's participation in the WOMAD festival in 1993), making his bright-eyed pop even brighter and deeper. Programmers are taking notice, as Together Alone climbs 46-31 in its third week on the chart, taking in top 10 reports at KALA, KBUT, KDCV, KRCC (#1), KSTO, KYMC, WHRV (#1), WLFT, WLHA, WMCC (NY), WMCR (IL), WPLS, WRSE (#1), WRSI, WUMD (MI), WVMW, WWSU and WXCI.

ON THE CHART

During the coldest week this year, the battle continues between Virgin's Smashing Pumpkins (2-1) and 4AD-Elektra's Breeders (1-2). The triumphant Pumpkins are still feeling pressure from others with incredible staying power, as Epic Associated's Pearl Jam (3-3) and Island-PLG's cranberries (4-4) hold onto their positions. DGC's Counting Crows (17-5) hustle into the top five for the first time, jostling the rest of the chart. Working the top 10 bustle to her favor, Matador's Liz Phair continues inching her way up (10-9). Capitol's Crowded House claims the top debut at #10 (as well as the #1 Breakthrough and In-Store positions) with its new album Together Alone.

Last year's releases still rumbling on the chart include: MCA's Tom Petty And The Heartbreakers collection (16-13), A&M's Gin Blossoms (18-15), Epic's soundtrack to Philadelphia (32-19), Epic's Rage Against The Machine (24-20), Jive's A Tribe Called Quest (27-21), Elektra's Bjork (29-23) and Island-PLG's PJ Harvey (34-24).

There's plenty of new stuff shuffling in between last year's releases: the first major-label release from Atlantic's Jawbox (#27), a split 7" of Superchunk/Caterpillar from Simple Machines' Working Holiday collection (#47), Earache-Columbia's Carcass (#52), Jive's R. Kelly full-length (#62), a Japanese import from Naked City (#64), an import single from Atlantic's Tori Amos (#66), another split 7" from Anyway featuring Guided By Voices and Jenny Mae Leffler (#67), 4th & B'way-Island's Rebirth Of Cool compilation (#68) and the third record from Thrill Jockey's Freakwater (#71). Hopefully these new releases will be enough incentive to compel folks to brave the cold weather for a trip to the record store. (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TDP 35 REPORTS)

RETAIL FOCUS

JAWBOX

Jawbox has been a prominent force on the indie scene in Washington, DC for years—recording for infamous hardcore label Dischord and even logging in time on the label's timeclock. The band has finally made a calculated move to the major world, signing to Atlantic. The move is proving to be a well calculated one, as the band's large fan base has rushed out to buy the new EP, Savorij +3 (#27 debut). The EP offers a preview to Jawbox's full-length debut for Atlantic, For Your Own Special Sweetheart, due out February 8.

WINTER/SPRING PREVIEW PART TWO

Blue Note Records, a household name in modern jazz, is readying its New Faces program with projected recordings by tenorist Javon Jackson, pianist Kevin Hays and trumpeter Tim Hagans. Steve Masakowski, a well-regarded, seven-string guitarist from New Orleans, came out with What It Was on Jan. 10. Late February will bring the much-anticipated release of Tenor Legacy with leader Joe Lovano, the reigning tenorman of the times, hooking up with youngblood tenor sensation Joshua Redman... Warner Bros.' chart-topping successes in 1993—with Fourplay, on the contemporary side, and young tenor saxist Joshua Redman, on the trade front—give the California-based major strong impetus as '94 gets underway. Keyboardist/producer Bob James, one-fourth of Fourplay, is readying his first solo project in four years; Nathan East and Michael Brecker are among his sidekicks. March will bring Redman's third date as a leader, this one a platter of his own tunes with his working band of Brad Mehldau (piano), Christian McBride (bass) and Brian Blade (drums). The long-awaited tribute to Miles Davis from the late trumpeter's mid-'60s quintet members (Wayne Shorter, Herbie Hancock, Ron Carter and Tony Williams) with brassman Wallace Roney, a Davis devotee and newly signed WB artist, is expected in the first quarter. The Groove Collective, an acid-jazz group, and Brazilian superstar Milton Nascimento will be represented on new outings. On the love-jazz side of things, the company has high hopes for two recent signees, saxists Andy Smitzer and Boney James. Jimmy Scott (whose career took a deserved upturn with 1992's All The Way) are in the studio... The German Enja label, which enjoys good stateside distribution and promotion via Koch International (177 Cantigue Rock Rd., Westbury, NY/516-938-8080), closed out '93 with a flurry of strong straight-ahead issues—In Focus from pianist Bruce Barth, Let's Play The Music Of Thad Jones from Tommy Flanagan, Another's Point Of View from trumpeter Eddie Allen and Morning Song from tenorist John Stubblefield. Three titles from the Lebanese oud player Rabih Abou-Khalil's own label, out in Europe but never in the U.S., will be released in early '94 under the Enja banner; saxists Charlie Mariano and Sonny Fortune appear on different discs. A CD from altman Arthur Blythe, recorded live at the Village Vanguard with John Hicks at the piano, is coming in February or March. Trumpeter Dusko Goykovich, well-regarded in Europe but seldom heard here, makes the Soul Connection with assistance from Flanagan, Jimmy Heath, Mickey Roker and Eddie Gomez. Composer Klaus Konig's two-CD set Times Of Devastation, featuring hornmen Ray Anderson, Kenny Wheeler and Marty Ehrlich, among others, in septet and orchestral configurations, is due in the near future. In the meantime, treat your ears to Konig's 1993 The Song Of Songs, a rousing, truly uplifting oratorio for two solo voices (Jay Clayton and Phil Minton), the Montreal Jubilation Gospel Choir and jazz orchestra. Instruments and voices congeal to marvelous effect... New Jersey's MusicMasters (201-531-3375) continues to plow deeply into the traditional jazz furrow at the same time it heeds to the neobop cutting edge. Pianist-composer Mark Puricelli's Melting Point, for which he wrote all the music and engaged a bass/drums/cello (Erik Friedlander) backing group, has just hit the streets. Feb. 1 brings keyboardist Al Kooper's long-awaited comeback (he calls it his "fantasy") recording, Rekoopera-tion—a mixed bag of rock and blues and New York-style jazzy soul. The former sideman to Bob Dylan and linchpin of the Blues Project and Blood, Sweat and Tears lays into a bunch of familiar and still-funky tunes with help from a coterie of distin-guished pals: "After The Lights Go Down Low" (Hank Crawford), "Johnny B. Goode"

ON THE CHART

As we continue to settle into the New Year, we find the top spot changing more easily than usual. This week, Muse's Wallace Roney leads the way, bounding 10-1. Roney also marks the first independent jazz record to hit #1 in quite some time. Columbia's Tony Bennett is a close second (5-2), as Warner Bros.' Bela Fleck & The Flecktones re-enters the top 10 at #9, just ahead of World Circuit-Rounder's Bheki Mseleku (20-10) and Verve-PG's re-entry from Shirley Horn (#11). JVC's latest batch of releases begins to take hold, led by Ernie Watts, who becomes this week's highest debut (#13), followed by six more re-entries and three more new entries, including Evidence's Joshua Breakstone Quartet (#16), Justice's Stefan Karlsson (#19) and CMP's Trilok Gurtu (#24). (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

(Johnnie Johnson) and "Honky Tonk" (Jimmy Vivino). Of historical importance, MusicMasters is issuing the second title in the Duke Ellington Travelog series on Feb. 15, this one a two-CD, live-in-Chicago set from 1946 that includes four tracks with the late gypsy guitar great Django Reinhardt. A big-band session led by drum master Louie Bellson—featuring Ellington's Black, Brown And Beige and the drummer's own Ducal offerings, "The Hawk Talks" and "Skin Deep"—arrives Mar. 15. That same day, the company is putting out Folklore by alto sax firebrand Vincent Herring, recorded live at the Village Vanguard in New York with his working quintet (Cyrus Chestnut, piano; Carl Allen, drums; Ira Coleman, bass; Scott Wendholt, trumpet). Critic Peter Watrous of the New York Times attended one of the week's shows, during Thanksgiving week, and wrote a rave review. Keep an ear open for Folklore... Justice Records of Houston, Texas, has just come out with new CDs from two promising neoboppers—pianist Stefan Karlsson (Below Zero) and drummer Sebastian Whittaker (One For Bul, a bow to the late Art Blakey). Coming soon is Texas Swings, a swingful, stringful outing by Herb Ellis that features members of Bob Wills' Texas Playboys and guest guitarist Willie Nelson. Guitar ace Ellis, the 72-year-old Texan, covers considerable ground, ranging from the country spiritual "Old Rugged Cross" to the perennial "Sweet Georgia Brown" to Charlie Parker's "Billie's Bounce." In a major coup, Justice brings out on Feb. 15 Moonlight Becomes You, the sequel to the multiplatinum Stardust from country Hall of Famer Willie Nelson. Nelson, having ended his commitment to Sony, has inked a one-off deal with his longtime pal Randall Hage Jamail of Justice to do this album of jazzy pop standards. Kudos to a label with lots of taste and integrity; Justice's Strike A Deep Chord: Blues Guitars For The Homeless was one of the finest, most heartfelt compilations-for-charity these ears have been privileged to hear... In other indie news, Telarc (216-464-2313) reports that jazz singer Jeanie Bryson will hit the studio late this month to record the follow-up to her wonderful and well-received debut, I Love Being Here With You. In addition to bass phenom Christian McBride and two returnees from her debut, guitarist Vic Juris and vibesman Steve Nelson, her forthcoming CD will boast appearances on several Latin numbers by Danilo Perez, Ignacio Berroa and hornmen Claudio Roditi and Paquito D'Rivera. Production is in the capable hands of John Snyder, who supervised Bryson's inaugural and is one of the industry's best... Bryson, incidentally, is the featured vocalist on the upcoming Columbia release by trumpeter Terence Blanchard, In My Solitude, an orchestral tribute to Billie Holiday. The delightful, husky voiced Bryson's contributions include "Fine And Mellow," "What A Little Moonlight Can Do" and a haunting recitation of "Strange Fruit."

DOPE!

SOLSONICS Jazz In The Present Tense (Chrysalis, c/o EMI Records Group, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104)—With so many record labels looking to join the current burgeoning acid jazz craze, this new form of expression runs the risk of watering itself down before it even has a chance to flourish. Unlike its popularity in Europe, acid jazz is still sequestered in the club scene in New York and Los Angeles over here, although it enjoys high praise from the press. Emerging from the Los Angeles-based Brass collective of artists with unmatched stylistic elegance and a sound that is unpretentious and instinctively visionary, the Solsonics are pragmatic enough to keep their groove-happy foundation in focus. With contemporaries that range from the Brand New Heavies to Young Disciples to even Sade, Jazz In The Present Tense is a landmark recording, effortlessly gliding from icy soul to traditional jazz arrangements (check the title track). The LP also wades through seldom-explored terrain, blending Afro-Cuban rhythms with hip-hop textures on "Montuno Funk," and creating a reggae/jazz/soul hybrid on the Freddie Hubbard tune, "Red Clay." Headed by drummer Willie McNeil and bassist Jez Colin, this collective of singers, rappers and instrumentalists operates over a singular groove, expressing all of the emotions of a closely-bound group with lyrics that are not always as utopian as others: "Blood Brother," with its War-like soul, feeds off the L.A. riots and calls for harmony. Although lyrics are rarely the selling point of acid jazz, the Solsonics' allure lies in their enviable musicianship and ability to expand the limits of a rising genre a little further. Touch the future on: "Keep The Rhythm Strong," "Ascension," "So Much More Together" and "Mountain Man."

CASUAL Fear Itself (Jive, 137-139 W. 25th St., New York, NY 10001/212-727-0016)—If 18-year-old Casual had his finger on the button, he would probably blow away everything in existence, save his Hieroglyphic siblings, with one catastrophic blast; that way, there would be absolutely no question about who the best MC's on the map were. Until then, Casual will have to

ON THE CHART

Despite sub-zero temperatures, ice and snow battering the East Coast, and a catastrophic earthquake shaking the West Coast, nothing can jolt Jive's A Tribe Called Quest (1-1) from its #1 ranking. So far, the new year has been good to Loud-RCA's Wu-Tang Clan (7-2), as Enter The Wu-Tang (36 Chambers) reaches its highest position to date, while albums by Elektra's Del The Funkyhomosapien (9-8) and Priority's Ice Cube (12-9) also achieve their highest chart positions. This week's highest debut goes to hip-hop/jazz pioneers Gang Starr, which acquires "Mass Appeal" with the release of its first single from the upcoming Hard To Earn album, due out February 8. This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Gang Starr; 2) Wu-Tang Clan; 3) Nas; 4) Main Source; 5) Ice Cube; 6) US 3; 7) Terminator X And The Godfathers Of Threatt; 8) Blood Of Abraham; 9) KRS-One; 10) Father. systematically take out one crew at a time. He gives himself a pretty fair headstart on his debut, Fear Itself, on which he sends loaded challenges to his foes, treating them like target practice for his articulate and fine-tuned rhymes, assaulting with his overly-confident (almost angry sounding) boasts. Before the rise of the Hieroglyphics, Bay Area rappers were marked as second class citizens, lacking any creditable representatives, while respect primarily went to New York or Los Angeles. Casual not only displays the skill to compete, but with his perpetuation of the generally old-school notion that respect is achieved on the mic, his claims will not go unchallenged. With a thick stew of deep basslines and loosely-fitted jazz samples, tracks like "You Flunked," "Get Off It" and "We Got It Like That," and their high-powered wordplay, take more than one listen to completely digest. Fear Itself is more than the next hip-hop record to bug-out with, it suits up and goes on an offensive attack that leaves nothing but ruins in its wake. Fear "Me-O-Mi-O," "That's How It Is," "Who's It On" (featuring Del The Funkyhomosapien), "I Didn't Mean To" and the self-motivating "Chained Minds."

UMC's Unleashed (Wild Pitch, c/o EMI Records Group, address above)—The tag-team of Hass G. and Kool Kim put the New York City borough of Staten Island on the map in 1992 when they drew their microphones on Fruits Of Nature (they first appeared on a compilation released on Rough Luxury in 1989), which featured the day-glo cuts "Blue Cheese" and "One To Grow On," and drew far-reaching comparisons to De La Soul's early days. Dropping mild-mannered, high-paced rhymes which rolled smoothly off the tongue, the album lacked the street-toughness to make noticeable waves within the community. Like a fighter who's perfected a combination punch, Unleashed packs the knockout blow previously missing from the group's arsenal. Inspired by their natural maturation as rappers and survivors of the urban environment, the UMC's (Undisputed Masters of Charisma) are quick to show off their new-found toughness and zeal for metaphorical, pun-heavy rhyming on "Time To Set It Straight," "Hit The Track" and "I Gotta Be Sure." Where the UMC's used to be agreeable and happy, they're now fiery and boastful, tossing rhymes around like a hot potato while serving them on a platter strewn with sample loops, scratching ("Can U Feel It") and lively hip-hop beats that swing more than they stomp. Set it straight on: "We Go," "Staten Island Comes First," "Ill Thoughts" and "Pleasure In The Dark."

DEF12

GANG STARR "Mass Appeal" [100 BPM] (Chrysalis, c/o EMI Records Group, address above)—Who has been busier this year—Bill Clinton or the members of Gang Starr? While Guru has been doing nothing but loungin' around and recording some of the most important and ingeniously conceptualized music from the hip-hop community in years, DJ Premier has been doing an endless string of remix work for just about everyone on the planet. Still, there's time to return to the mothership. Recording under the Gang Starr banner, the group is a pure master of the rhyme and an innovator of the beat, long regarded as a primary architect of the jazz-meets-hip-hop boom. The group's lyrics take on a darker, angrier tone on "Mass Appeal," the first single from Hard To Earn, which features Guru's deadpan threats (much like "Take It Personal") and a well-rehearsed Premier, who turns out some of his finest turntable work for this cut.

Send the funk'n' funk, hip-hop and hot-battered soul to Glen "Funkenberry" Sansone at CMJ, 11 Middle Neck Road, Ste. 400, Great Neck, NY 11021-2301.

WORD IS...

Tommy Boy is running a COOLIO trivia contest, and the grand prize is a fly, limited-edition Tommy Boy jacket. To win, you must answer these questions correctly: 1) Who were the original members of N.W.A.?; 2) Name the two groups Coolio was in before signing a solo deal with Tommy Boy?; 3) Which of the following rappers is from the L.A. old-school: a) Whippa Whip, b) Arabian Prince, or c) L.A. Sunshine; 4) Define the term "Hittin' Switches"; 5) What was the name of Ice Cube's first group? (Hint: It wasn't C.I.A.). All entries should be sent to Tommy Boy (930 Broadway, 13th Fl., New York, NY 10010) and must be postmarked before February 1 to be eligible...The always-busy HEAVY D. is finishing up work on his new album, Nothin' But Love (Uptown-MCA), scheduled to be released sometime in March. Look for the first single, "Got Me Waiting."...GANG STARR's new album Hard To Earn will be out on Chrysalis-ERG on March 8. Until then, bask in the group's "Mass Appeal."... Tommy Boy has recently inked a deal with Los Angeles-based Fat House Records. Fat House was formed in 1992 by Pharcyde producer J. Swift along with Lamarr Algee (ex-Delicious Vinyl) and Quentin Howze. The first two releases will be from QUINTON with the single "Quinton's House," and female quartet JAZZYFATNASTEES, which will release an album this spring. For further

BLOWIN' UP

GANG STARR "Mass Appeal" (12") (Chrysalis c/o EMI Records Group, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, 42nd Fl., New York, NY 10104) Radio Chart Position: #16—No this isn't the Gang Starr page, but just in case you missed the bit about how Guru and DJ Premier are back together as Gang Starr, the reporting community reminds us that the new Gang Starr album (that's March 8 kids) will probably be the biggest thing this spring. Not only was "Mass Appeal" the number one Adventure Pick, but the cut also landed at #16 on the Beat Box Radio chart, which means folks played it the second they got their hands on it. "Mass Appeal" showed mass appeal at KHSU in Arcata, CA and WRCT in Pittsburgh, two of the seven stations (out of 63 reporters this week) reporting Gang Starr.

JACKPOT

OUMOU SANGARE Ko Sira (World Circuit, c/o Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700)—With all the recordings of moussolou (women) from the Wassoulou region of Mali that are currently available, you may be tempted to let this one go by as "just another variation." BIG MISTAKE! Oumou Sangare may be the best of the bunch, with a voice as pure and wondrous as voices get, and with a rootsy, acoustic musical ensemble behind her that will melt hearts and burn dance floors. The rhythms are graceful, simulating the feel of a wild animal running free and leaving immense open spaces for Sangare and her singers to expand into a sensual rush of melodies. At the center of the band's sound is the low-toned buzzing of the kamelen ngoni, a six-string harp familiar to the area. Throbbing percussion instruments, guitar, scratchy violin and some flute round out the sound, which is underscored by some remarkable bass playing, interestingly by westerner Colin Bass. While the whole thing is very much "in the tradition," the end result is a very contemporary sound, as compelling as any synths-derived competitor, and all the more so because of the purity of the instrumental sound.

All of this would be rendered moot if not for the singer and the songs, and here a good album becomes a great one. Oumou Sangare has a voice both sensual and meticulous. It's a rich mix that puts her in league with Billie Holiday and Om Kalthum, conjuring up emotions that are powerful but somehow uncertain. Her songs speak of the struggle in the lives of African women, both social and political; of the anguish of the new wife in a land where women are second class; of the joys of being a woman, even in the face of such odds. All the lyrics are translated in the notes, a rare treat these days! But even without your knowing the stories on Ko Sira, Oumou Sangare and her group convey the feelings of contemporary Africa as it searches for balance between old ways and new necessities.

SHORT CUTS

AMIT CHATERJEE Songs Of Kabir (Interworld, 139 Noriega St., San Francisco, CA 94122/415-242-9788)—Indian poet and mystic Kabir has inspired many performances since his work in the 15th century. His deeply spiritual poetry is an obvious starting point for many musicians seeking an enlightened musical experience. Chaterjee captures the spirit of Kabir with his voice, electric guitar and sitar, and with unique arrangements of non-Indian instruments courtesy of Glen Velez (Middle Eastern, Celtic and African percussion) and Eva Estalis (violin, synthesizer). This probably reflects Kabir's own earthly vision of living a spiritual life without living an austere one. These songs are both spiritual and visceral.

ON THE CHART

Well, there's been a changing of the guard at #1, as Hassan Hakmoun And Zahar (2-1) take over the top honors from RealWorld-Caroline labelmate Geoffrey Oryema (1-2). This race is still very close, so keep your eyes peeled. Elsewhere, Baka Beyond rockets into the top five (15-3), as does Corason-Rounder's Africa In America compilation (19-5). We have some new faces this week:

Maria Kalaniemi on Green Linnet (#14 debut), Khalifa Ould Eide & Dimi Mint Abba on World Circuit-Rounder (#16 debut) and reggae favorites the Starlights on Heartbeat (#22 debut). As the new year rolls in, there are many exciting new records out, so look for lots of debuts and high-charting new entries in the coming weeks. (WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

301-588-8269—The reigning (possibly eternally?) Queen Of Calypso strikes hard this time, with a lively album of her great songs, great singing, and this time out, a good horn band. (But it's sadly marred by those damn synthetic drums! Will somebody give producer Eddy Grant the phone numbers of a few good drummers?) In addition to the usual party bally-hoo, she has penned some great new topical numbers, including a nasty dig at Chris Columbus and the rollicking "Juju Warrior," which will burn up any dance floor. Next time, get Manu Katche and Babatundje to pound the skins, though!

CONNIE DOVER The Wishing Well (Taylor Park Music, P.O. Box 12381, North Kansas City, MO 64116-0381)—On her solo recording, and on her outings with Scartaglen, Missouri singer Connie Dover has always impressed me with her voice. It's earthy—not Enya, yet as evocative as any of the more popular Celtic women singers now hitting the big time. The Wishing Well hits pay dirt [sod?] for her, in an album that not only displays her warm and beautiful tones but finally gives her the musical bed she deserves to lie in. Produced by Phil Cunningham and recorded in Scotland, it features the sizable talents of guitar/bouzouki player Manus Lunny (Ireland), fiddlers Brian McNeill (Scotland) and Aly Bain (Shetland), driving pipes and percussion, as well as Cunningham's keys, squeeze and whistles. The opening track is a stunning mix of pop and tradition, and the rest of the album only gets better as it moves through ancient a capella and even a cowboy song. Play it!

ALAN DARGIN WITH MICHAEL ATHERTON Bloodwood and MICHAEL ATHERTON Windshift (Small World Music, 116 30th Ave. S., Nashville TN 37212/800-757-2277)—These two records are from a new label that hopes to explore the new acoustic music being made all over the world. Both are interesting but ultimately unsatisfying blends of cultures by Australian instrumentalists. While Windshift does show Atherton's versatility on the instruments, and his passing knowledge of many cultures, it fails to ignite the listener's interest in any of those cultures or Atherton's own musical ideas. About the only tracks that really set any fire are the ones where other musicians intervene. The trio of Atherton's koto with a sax and bass accompaniment approaches real live beauty on "After The Rain." But there's too little of that fire to keep you very warm. Bloodwood fares better, with some real insight and wit in the presentation of the didjeridu and its music by Dargin. There are some intense moments like "Storm Warning," but these are often diluted by too much pseudo-dramatic synth. Dargin's solos display skill and energy ("Gaia" and "Fantastic Plastic"), but he is often overshadowed by the production.

Peace.

JACKPOT!

MIKE DEARBORN/ DB-X

MIKE DEARBORN Chaotic State (EP) (Djax, P.O. Box 2408, CK Eindhoven, Netherlands/040-450434) and DB-X Flying Saucer (EP) (Accelerate, P.O. Box 43651, Detroit, MI 48243/312-262-6862)—My God! We weather three desolate dance weeks and on comes a batch of electrifying tracks showing you exactly where underground dance is heading in 1994. If anyone is still thinking that the Chicago Minimalist movement remains in the minds of a few critics, a glance at some upfront U.S. and European DJ's charts over the last several weeks reveals an increasing number of severely rhythmic, stripped down percussion tracks like those being released on the Djax and Accelerate labels. Pore over the dubs on some of Steve "Silk" Hurley's early efforts, such as 1986's "Jack Your Body", and you'll see why instrumental house dubs are perhaps the most ecstatic body music ever created. Today, this music is still created by those who know dance best, DJs who can take the music's most lean, essential characteristics and make the body move almost involuntarily. Producers such as Dan Bell ("Flying Saucer") and Mike Dearborn spring from a tradition that starts with Ron Hardy and Farley "Jackmaster" Funk, a school where the rallying cry was to "jack," to literally go berzerk on the dance-floor to music that was almost pure percussion, rent only by the wild exhortations to dance. The masterful Dearborn (whom DJ Pierre recently cited as one of his favorite artists) has his finest hour with "Outer Limits," which paints a vast, panoramic vista like the sun rising behind the mountains, with an enormous arpeggiated acid bassline filling the distances. The nascent ingenuity of Dan Bell is quite apparent on his latest EP, particularly the glorious "Back 2 Da Beat," a slice-and-dice 909 exercise with a hiccupping synth effect. These are two marvelous records which make clear that in 1994, less will be more.

MORE JACK TRAX

What a wonderful surprise to find this mysterious EP, simply titled Basement Trax Vol. 1, on a red label with no other information except track names and a production credit given to Jack Master. Better news still, this EP thumps like a hare on speed. If the A-side's crazed "Bang The Box" doesn't get you moving, try the flip's fuel-injected "Manic Danser" with a racing 909 drum pattern that'll have your mind reeling. Now, if we could only find out who recorded this stomping EP, it would be a lot easier to track down.

ON THE CHART

The major-label debut from young Richard James, a.k.a. Aphex Twin, on Sire-WB is this week's highest new entry at #8, and those who've been following this chart will probably react with little surprise. NovaMute's Tresor-licensed 3 Phase full-length makes its debut at #14, and the label will no doubt be pleased to see the Version 1.1 compilation and Juno Reactor enter at #18 and #19, respectively. This week marks an impressive entrance for L.A. indie ExistDance, its first compilation debuting at #20. Perhaps the success of ffrr-ILS' California Dreaming comp aided this collection. The label run by a principled socialist dance enthusiast, Hooj Choons, makes its debut here with Dancekult (#21), featuring a selection of tracks licensed to Moonshine. RPM reporters this week:

high quality of music released on Toronto's Stickman label. The demand for tracks from this stable is overwhelming. Because Stickman's output varies from deep garage, such as the recent EP by P.J., to the newer, more tech-influenced Robostickmen project, fans of the label bridge the ever-widening gap between traditional vocal house heads and techno kids. The Robostickmen EP was put together by the Stickmen with the help of Richard Michaels (a.k.a. Richie Hawtin), and it jumps along at a furious pace bolstered by an array of synth blasts just when you need them. Chicago's Derrick Carter contributes "D's Red Dub," and with a line-up of names like this, you're unlikely to go wrong (Stickman, 34 Marilake Dr., Toronto, ON, Canada M1S 1V7/416-321-5509)...Apparently the A&R minds at Strictly Rhythm wasted no time in releasing a couple of searing tracks by the aforementioned Stickmen. (In recent months, Strictly's been venturing further afield than the five-borough area, demonstrating its commitment to quantity and quality.) The soaring "Reach Out" is a clean, spacious house track that demands to be heard at riotous volumes, while "Da Real Shit" is a bouncer, tribal percussion track with a whopping

LAST BUT NOT LEAST

When most people think of the Paradise Garage, they think of Larry Levan, the turntable visionary who could mix Steve Miller and The Who into Taana Gardner and Gwen Guthrie without blinking an eye or missing a beat. So, it's a good thing that Vinylmania has resuscitated its mid-'80s store-based label. One of the first releases is a reissue of the vocal masterpiece "Love Honey, Love Heartache" by Man Friday, mixed by Levan. This is garage music at its finest: strings, keyboards and a heart-breaking vocal. Vinylmania is also funding a separate jazz label, whose first release is due soon (Vinylmania, 60 Carmine St., New York, NY 10024/212-924-7223).

JACKPOT!

DIXIE CHICKS Shouldn't A Told You That (Crystal Clear Sound, 4902 Don Dr., Dallas, TX 75247/214-630-2957)—Now whittled down to a three-piece, the Dixie Chicks return with another charming set of their winning combination of country, Western swing and bluegrass, and they continue to display a delightful amount of skill and remarkable confidence. It remains an enigma, however, why this band remains unsigned by a label. The combined sales of their first two self-produced and distributed records totals over 40,000 copies. They've performed on national television as well as at the Grand Ole Opry and major festivals around the country, and they've been named Dallas Observer Music Awards Best Country Artist four years running. All of which must count for something, shouldn't it?? Perhaps it's for the best. Shouldn't A Told You That overflows with the Dixie Chicks' undiluted, traditional sound, loaded with pleasant harmonies and solid musicianship. They've added their unmistakable stamp to songs from some of Nashville's best contemporary writers, including Rodney Foster ("Whistles And Bells"), Jamie O'Hara ("There Goes My Dream") and Jim Lauderdale ("Planet Of Love"). Sooner or later, the Dixie Chicks are destined to be America's country music sweethearts.

5 CHINESE BROTHERS Singer Songwriter Beggarman Thief (1-800-Prime-CD, 111 E. 14th St., Ste. 300, New York, NY 10003)—Regular readers of Horizons will surely be familiar with New York City's 5 Chinese Brothers, as they've been mentioned several times for their appearances on both Diesel Only compilations, as well as various 7" releases and a cassette also titled Singer Songwriter Beggarman Thief. The newly released CD version of SSBT has been re-sequenced and contains several songs that have been re-recorded. The rest have been remixed, resulting in a crisp, more precise sense of the Brothers' sound: an eclectic amalgam of folk, country, rock and soul, accented by sharp ensemble work, the highly developed songwriting skills of Tom Meltzer and Paul Foglino and a shrewd sense of humor. Few bands, if any, are able to tackle such disparate subjects as the Cubist painter "Paul Cezanne," unrequited lust on "She's A Waitress (And I'm In Love)," and memories of life in "Baltimore" with this much glee, adding another side to the seriously overworked roots-rock category.

SHORT SHOTS

Lots of varied and interesting records have arrived in the mail since the beginning of the year. Without a doubt, ANI DIFRANCO has the biggest buzz that I've heard in a long time for a folk performer on the underground scene. Her last, self-released record, 1993's Puddle Dive, performed the extraordinary feat of spending ten weeks on the CMJ Top 150. For Like I Said (Songs 1990 - 1991) (Righteous, 429 Richmond Ave., Buffalo, NY 14222/716-884-0248), she re-recorded 15 of the most requested songs from her first two records, which featured only voice and guitar. DiFranco infuses bits of cello, accordion and various percussion instruments into the arrangements, which have grown over the years, and winds up with her most effective set to date. Don't miss "Not So Soft," "The Whole Night," "Both Hands" and "Out Of Habit." ...One of the more unusual records I've heard in a while comes from DEE CARSTENSEN. Beloved One (NYC, 450 W. 20th St., New York, NY 10011/212-627-9426) is a powerful debut for this singer/songwriter. Her main instrument is the harp, which isn't usually associated with pop music, yet Carstensen uses it sparingly and with surprising results. Her songs are soulful grooves, wide-screen narratives that skirt being trite and are accented by her facile vocals. At times she recalls Joni Mitchell or Shawn Colvin at their commanding best. But, Carstensen's music is strong enough to withstand such comparisons. Highlights include "Waterhole" which features guitar work by Mark Knopfler, the driving rave-up "Rooftops" and the haunting "Forgiven." ...Long time lead vocalist and rhythm guitarist of the Bluegrass Cardinals, DAVID PARMLEY has begun a solo career with the release of Southern Heritage (Rebel, P.O. Box 3057, Roanoke, VA 24015/703-343-5355). He's chosen some high-quality material from, among others, Carl Jackson ("Hometown Girl"), Larry Cordle and Randy Scruggs ("That's Why They Call 'Em The Blues"), and Jamie O'Hara and Kevin Welch ("Desperately"), as well as a couple from the Stanley Brothers' songbook ("Pretty Polly," "If I Lose"), creating a nearly perfect blend of tunes with a traditional country feel and rock steady bluegrass back up. This collection is well worth seeking out...Moving to a place where musical categories won't help us, we find HYPNOTIC CLAMBAKE. Gondola To Heaven (Blue Button, c/o Northeastern, P.O. Box 3589, Saxonville, MA 01701-0605/508-820-4440), the group's second CD, is another inventive mish-mash of zydeco, klezmer, country, old-time fiddle tunes and rock. What other group around today can jump from the wacky, Cajun inflected "Zyde-Coo-Coo" to the swing blues of "Scorched Earth Polly" to the electric hoedown "Trucking & Schucking" to the dreamy-smooth, environmentally correct "Plain Green" with such ease, while having such whimsical fun?... Speaking of fun, slap Boozoo, That's Whol from BOOZOO CHAVIS & THE MAJIC SOUNDS (Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700) on the CD player and see how long you're able to sit still. Chavis, one of the originators of zydeco, plays it like no one else. His records are always packed with funky, bouncing grooves. This one, produced by NRBQ's Terry Adams, is no exception. "Lula Lula Don't You Go To Bingo," "Billy Goat Number Three" and the title track are sure to get your party started.

IN THE NEWS

The Country Music Foundation and Grove Press have published Country On Compact Disc: The Essential Guide To The Music, a book that is likely to become an essential reference for all music fans. More than 2,000 discs and nearly 600 artists are covered with reviews and ratings that may be surprising to some. By including generally favorable mentions of artists like John Gorka, Maura O'Connell, John Prine and Cheryl Wheeler, while dismissing a great deal of Nashville's "New Country" and praising classics from the likes of Hank Williams, Merle Haggard and George Jones, it reads a lot like this column. It's available from the CMF at (800) 255-2357...This year's Merle Watson Memorial Festival will take place April 28-May 1 at Wilkes Community College in Wilkesboro, NC. Among the artists scheduled to join host Doc Watson at what is quickly becoming known as one of the best acoustic music events in the country are Emmylou Harris, Alison Krauss, the Nashville Bluegrass Band, Front Range, Peter Rowan, Iris Dement, Cephas & Wiggins, Ralph Stanley and a reunion of New South featuring Ricky Skaggs, J.D. Crowe, Tony Rice and Jerry Douglas. For more info call (800) 343-7857...Rhino (10635 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90025-4900/310-474-4778) has issued JERRY JEFF WALKER's 1968 debut, Mr. Bojangles, for the first time on CD. It features David Bromberg on lead guitar, two bonus cuts not on the original LP and Jerry Jeff's most famous composition, the title track. Walker is currently readying a new, live set, titled Viva Luckenbach! for mid-March release...Continuing on the reissue front, WEBB WILDER's hard-to-find 1987 debut It Came From Nashville is now available on Watermelon Records (P.O. Box 402088, Austin, TX 78704/512-458-6275) with four songs not found on the original Landslide release. Recorded both in the studio and before a live audience at Nashville's Exit/In, this is Wilder's best work, jumping, high-energy roots rock with his distinctive style and twisted Southern-fried wit.

STILL GOT THE BLUES

Few would argue with bestowing upon KOKO TAYLOR the title "Queen of the Blues" and, once again, she proves she's worthy with Force Of Nature (Alligator, P.O. Box 60234, Chicago, IL 60660/312-973-7736). Taylor does what she does best on tracks like the earth-shaking shout out "Let The Juke Joint Jump" and the gritty ballad "Nothing Takes The Place Of You." She's joined by Buddy Guy for a tribute to the late Albert King on "Born Under A Bad Sign," while harmonica ace Carey Bell lends a hand on "Mother Nature."...Fat Possum (P.O. Box 1923, Oxford, MS 38655/601-236-3110) has quickly developed into the hottest new blues label on the scene by releasing several brilliant records by some under-recorded artists of our day. R.L. BURNSIDE's Too Bad Jim is his second release for the label. It's a raucous haze of ferocious country shuffles like "Shake 'Em On Down" and "Fireman Ring The Bell," and down right scary ballads like "Short-Haired Woman" and "Death Bell Blues." Although it's a purely digital recording, this is as unrefined as the blues gets these days...Trouble No More, the latest from JOHN HAMMOND (Pointblank, c/o Virgin, 338 N. Foothill Road, Beverly Hills, CA 90210), is a star-studded affair. Hammond's long-time friends Little Charlie And The Nightcats back him up on seven of the album's 12 tracks, slide guitar master Roy Rogers shows up for the ragtime styled "That Nasty Swing" and Charles Brown adds his sensuous piano styling to a couple of songs including Brown's own "Trouble Blues." All in all, this is a different type of record than Hammond's been known to make in the past and, to his credit, it all works very well.

Horizons is a column about country music for people who don't like country music. Send music for review to my attention care of CMJ, 11 Middle Neck Road, Ste. 400, Great Neck, NY 11021.

ENTOMBED

Wolverine Blues

(Earache, c/o Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—When we bum out about the regurgitated, assembly-line bands that plague the Loud 100 chart, it's because records like Wolverine Blues prove just how much potential the metal genre has to create transcendent rock music, and how, instead, fans and musicians accept the lowest common denominator of mediocrity far too often. While we're still big fans of Left Hand Path and Clandestine, Wolverine Blues is on an entirely different level—one of top-notch songwriting, exquisitely thick guitar tones and dynamite-charged riffs. Assimilating the flash-fry blitzkrieg of Discharge and throttled crunch of Animosity-era C.O.C. with its own unique death-metal stylings, Entombed has achieved the elusive kind of high-energy rush that literally explodes on impact, making Wolverine Blues every bit the equal (nay, superior) to Vulgar Display Of Power, Meantime, Arise or any other significant metal record of the '90s. This is the genuine shit; in fact, it's so clearly obliterating whatever else is out there at the moment that if you're not playing Entombed in '94, you might as well give it up. "WHO EXAMINES THE DOCTORS?!!" (uh, other doctors I guess): "Rotten Soil," "Eyemaster," "Wolverine Blues" and "Full Of Hell."

—Paul Sommerstein

PRONG

Cleansing

(Epic, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Despite undergoing numerous lineup changes (the latest being the booting of bassist Troy Gregory) and possessing one of the most unorthodox/uncategorizable sounds to grace the metal world for the past half decade, Prong continues to endure. And although Tommy Victor and Ted Parsons' refusal to succumb to the obvious has made their career more arduous, it's paid off in the end. Countless part-timers and posers (many of whom have cashed in big time) have been influenced by the mighty Prong's stark, staccato rhythms and crafty songwriting. Cleansing is the kind of disc that makes you quiver with glee as you reach for the nearest blunt object to club your face. Victor's guitars peel away layers of skin with each slice, cutting to the bone before they've reached the first chorus, and new bassist Paul Raven and drummer Parsons suture together what's left with squeaky-tight rhythms. Terry Date's wildly compressed production (most notably on "Another Worldly Device," "Snap Your Fingers, Snap Your Neck" and "Cut-Rate") helps make this Prong's most palatable disc to date without sacrificing what's made the band distinctive. With any luck, Cleansing will reach the mass audience it deserves.

BLACK SABBATH

Cross Purposes

(I.R.S., 594 Broadway, Ste. 901, New York, NY 10012/212-334-2179)—That Black Sabbath and Dio are releasing new albums just weeks apart, following long hiatuses from the music industry, can be no mere coincidence. Maybe it's just a matter of the powerful psychic energy transmitted between former metal legends, but we detect a marketing ploy, or at least a friendly, incestuous challenge between old rivals. After all, isn't it a bit strange that Sabbath is using former Rainbow drummer Bobby Rondinelli and vocalist Tony Martin, whose vocal inflections are frighteningly similar to those of Ronnie James Dio? And isn't it odd that Sabbath is suddenly singing about rainbows, a Dio trademark since the wee days of Holy Diver? And what about all the doomy, lommi-influenced guitar licks on the new Dio record? Hmmm? Whatever the case, Black Sabbath is the undisputed grandpa of metal, having influenced a generation of bands from thrash to doom to death metal (not to mention half the bands that call themselves "alternative" these days), so we'll give the band the benefit of the doubt. Cross Purposes sees the Sabbulous (ugh!) Four back in fine fashion, kicking off with four driving, gut-punching cuts ("I Witness," "Cross Of Thorns," "Psychophobia" and "Ritual Death"), proving the band is still relevant and powerful, even in the jaded '90s. From there, the momentum slows a tad, but not enough to prevent us from unreservedly recommending the record. Jam hard and heavy on the above, plus "Back To Eden" and "The Hand That Rocks The Cradle."

—Jon Wiederhorn

GOREFEST

The Eindhoven Insanity

(Nuclear Blast America, P.O. Box 251, Millersville, PA 17551/717-397-9221)—Unlike most live albums, which are carefully planned and executed, with band members scouring live tapes to find the perfect concert encapsulation of their sound, The Eindhoven Insanity was a bit of an afterthought. Recorded by a small Dutch radio station on a 24-track board during the Dynamo Festival, the tape was meant to be aired on a late-night metal show and then forgotten. But on the band's request, the master was turned over to Nuclear Blast and scheduled for release. Meant as a vehicle for capturing the force and intensity of Gorefest live, the record wound up being much more. Maybe it's the hodgepodge, makeshift nature of the project, but The Eindhoven Insanity effectively communicates the essence and raison d'être of the band. Rather than cover over extraneous feedback screeches or tiny musical mistakes, Gorefest has opted for an accurate playback of the show, forsaking overdubs and edits entirely. Even so, the record is recorded and mixed as well as practically any live album, and the musicianship is fist-tight, especially for a festival gig, where sound quality is usually prioritized right under lavatory cleanliness. This disc should easily tide over Gorefest fans until the band's next release, due around June or July. Play "The Glorious Dead," "The Mass Insanity," "From Ignorance To Oblivion" and "Mental Misery."

—Jon Wiederhorn

what we expected, to be perfectly honest, but maybe that's not such a bad thing. While Dirt was one of the darkest, most oppressively heavy mainstream releases of the past few years, Jar Of Flies is an entirely different can of larvae. First of all, there's not a dollop of "grunge" to be found in the grooves—not a single distorted power chord flurry. Instead, Alice In Chains has written seven bluesy songs that teem with feeling. Never contrived or sappy enough to be called balladic, nor industrious enough to qualify as anthemic, Jar Of Flies is simply a forum of great songwriting and impressive musicianship. Still bleak, but never dismal, the cuts wander from being mildly psychedelic to kinda jazzy to almost rocking. Guitarist Jerry Cantrell solos without wailing and vocalist Layne Staley manages to impart a feeling of desperation without having to scream. Many of the vocals are even harmonized, and "I Stay Away" and "Don't Follow" feature violins and a viola. Not only has Alice In Chains proven its ability to craft great songs, on Jar Of Flies the band has also reinforced its depth and diversity, ensuring its prominence for a long time to come. Fly away with "Rotten Apple," "Whale & Wasp" and "No excuses."

—Jon Wiederhorn

DIO

"Evolution" (5")

(Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—Well, here it is. After six years of waiting, Dio has returned with the band that brought us tales of devils and dragons, mystery and magic and those all too important rainbows. Ripping as hard as anything from Dio's back-catalogue, "Evolution" is a fine, riff-heavy preview of a killer comeback album. Even as good as the new Black Sabbath is, it looks like Dio is winning the battle. At the end of the war Ronnie James Dio may well be the last in line.

—Jon Wiederhorn

WILDHEARTS

"Suckerpunch" (5")

(EastWest America, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—The Wildhearts are a new group from England with a raggedly melodic hard-rock buzz that's downright poppy at times. Just check out the total pop chorus of "My Baby Is a Headfuck," which appears on the group's forthcoming LP as well. While the production's a bit too polite for our taste, we could listen to what we'd wager are some of the Wildhearts' faves 24 hours a day (Cheap Trick, Damned, Ramones), and the band recalls those groups more smartly than most.

DEMO-LISHED!

CEMENT

Demolition

(11304 SW. Boonesferry Road, Portland, OR 97219/503-232-8976)—Like a lot of young bands, Portland's Cement hasn't quite found its own distinct personality yet (getting by on a sort of Pantera-like "in your face" attack), but the band is further along than most, with significant improvement soon to come. The playing on Demolition is unrelenting, lithe and self-assured, and singer Joe Toth can soar from Phil Anselmo-style grunts to King Diamond (!) air raid shrieks. Most of the songs here are chunky and wholesome, with some pretty crafty hooks jammed between the grinding guitars. Watch this space.

DIALOGUE

Bill Castellano, Red Light Records, Des Plaines, IL (708) 297-6538

Well, I just got back from the Michigan Death Fest! What a blast! Our new band GUTTED played to a crowd of 1,000 screaming fans. Our publicity gal gave me a tape and I even got up on stage and threw tons of VICTIMS OF INTERNAL DECAY, CIANIDE, OPPRESSOR and Gutted cassettes and t-shirts into the crowd. The kids were loving it! We also had the distinct pleasure of hanging with Bill and John from Nuclear Blast/Relapse. We even slept with them. No, no, no, they were kind enough to offer us their room when we got to the hotel and our reservation had expired (I really allowed it to expire on purpose). Well, John will probably mention the cup on the tape's head incident, but I'm sure he will leave out the fact that he walked up to the wrong car and tried to get in as we all stood laughing at him in the parking lot of a Big Boy's restaurant. We definitely had a great time. Be sure to support John when he calls ya, his bands are great. Their Corporate Death CD is #1. Well until next week, Victims Of Internal Decay, POST MORTEM and EL DUCE. Call for interviews. P.M. is on the road, call for dates and keep up the good work. Death to all, aagghh!

Yvana Kass, Hollywood Records, Burbank, CA (818) 560-6962

Well folks, the entries for our ELEVEN radio and retail contests are tallied, and we are proud to announce the following winners! The grand prize went to the fabulous CHMR with the most ultimate listener's reason to win an Eleven CD! Runner ups included KISS, KUPS, WMHB and KCAT. On the retail side, winning stores included Michigan Warehouse, Coconuts, Pirate Records, Long Island Sound, Rock Nest, J.J.'s Ear Candy, Karma Records, Perry's Rockpile, Check It Out Records, Off The Record and Crossroads Records and Tapes. Thanks to all who got involved, and know that your efforts are really appreciated here at Hollywood. Keep up the push on "Crash Today," and next up will be "Let Down" with a tour to follow. If you would like interviews, giveaways or any other Eleven materials, please call... That's all, folks.

Steve McClure, Leviathan Records, Cincinnati, OH (513) 825-0612

We hope that everyone had a great holiday season! I know we did, and we are looking forward to 1994 even surpassing 1993 in terms of success. SIMPLE AGGRESSION are still doing dates in the Midwest and are preparing for a short run into Europe in February for some promotional work. DAVID T. CHASTAIN's new release Next Planet Please is due out Jan. 25. This is definitely David's most progressive work to date. If you have any inklings of being a musician, this is a must-buy release. We are also happy to announce the signing of IMPERIUM. They are from Holland and can be best described as a mix of the good parts of Megadeth and Fates Warning. The band are doing great in Europe.

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY (212) 275-2135

If you're looking for a hard rock record that grabs an audience by the nads and doesn't let go—a record that's already spurring positive reaction at stations everywhere—a record that sticks out and makes a difference whether you're an AOR or metal format; the record you should study and labor over is Dogman from KING'S X. This album rules, and is a massive hit in the making because it's that different. Everybody knows that the tunes that stand out on the air are the most successful! Point being, right now, no one touches King's X as far as originality!

John Yencik, Futurist Records, New York, NY (212) 226-7272

Now that Christmas and New Years are a blur, it's time to look ahead. In your hands right now should be four kick-ass titles: LOUDBLAST, GAMMA RAY, MURDER INC., and WIGHAT. If, for some unknown reason, you do not possess any of the aforementioned, just give me a call. Also we have product for giveaways. Ask and ye shall receive. In store for you in 1994: MY DYING BRIDE, ANATHEMA and AUTOPSY!

Beth Krakower, Mechanic Records, New York, NY (212) 226-7272

It's a TAD, Tad, Tad world! Who will they tour with—stay tuned! Up and coming—the "Pale Corkscrew" CD pro! Also, a kickin' new band called SEED. These Austin boys prove the South will rise again. Go Giants, go Giants, go!

And what doesn't kill you... makes you stronger.

"If there was ever a record capable of toppling Slayer's Reign in Blood as the ultimate death metal album, Wolverine Blues is it. It's forty devastating minutes of all-out aggression that will leave you gasping for air."

-Don Kaye, Producer, MJI's Metalshop

"Combining sheer raw ferocity with brilliant grooves, makes this a record you cannot deny."

-Psycho, Roadrunner

"The same kids who love Sepultura & Alice in Chains will soon have Wolverine Blues on the shelf next to records by those groups...Wolverine Blues will be a landmark by which to measure the true heaviness of music in the '90's. It's the album you need to blow holes in your neighbor's walls."

Linnea Nan, Warner Bros./Reprise Records, Burbank, CA (818) 953-3692

What a great way to start '94! The mighty BIOHAZARD are recording their Warner Bros. debut just down the street! The new DIO record, Strange Highways, will be in your stations and stores Feb. 8! Look for "Evolution," the first Dio track to metal. It's amazing! The add dates are Jan. 24 and 25. STRIP MIND are back and What's In Your Mouth is the track! A new video and a long and short version of the song are on your desk now! Your continued support of this band will help take them to the next level very soon! It's show time! CANDLEBOX are supporting Rush! GREEN APPLE QUICK STEP are going out with Fishbone. MORBID ANGEL are doing it live with Sabbath and Motorhead! And of course, Strip Mind hit the highways again with the Organization and Muzza Chunka! Dates to follow! P.S. Don't forget TAD's "Leafy Incline" is on its way!

Munsey Ricci, Skateboard Marketing Ltd., Valley Stream, NY (516) 825-5549

We like to see everything's back to normal, well almost, I think. MOTORHEAD's new track, "On Your Knees Or On Your Feet," is on the full-length. "Evil Eye" from BLACK SABBATH is in your face, Adds go for Jan. 24. Look for Black Sabbath, Motorhead and Morbid Angel on the road. TUNGSTEN and STRESSBALL had nice moves this week; teley interviews will be here soon. "Leafy Incline" by TAD is almost here. "Slip Slide Melting" by FOR LOVE NOT LISA is next week. Add it. Until next week, ceeya.

Mark Schmidt, Megaforce Records & Crazy Management, Manalapan, NJ (908) 972-3456

Happy New Year! Hope everyone had a good one. MINDFUNK is back on the road again and NUDESWIRL will be there soon, so call me to find out the lowdown! You know, the other night I was driving with my friend Rich and I decided to put in the Nudeswirl tape. Not only did Rich love it upon first hearing it, he came to the conclusion that it was great driving music. So give it a try! Play Nudeswirl and Mindfunk on your airwaves often! And then throw on some TRIBE AFTER TRIBE and REVOLTING COCKS! And be sure to watch your mail—you'll be getting SWEATY NIPPLES sooner than you know it!

Well, here we are again. 1994 kicks off with a continued emphasis on PARADISE LOST, THOUGHT INDUSTRY and BROKEN HOPE. In the mail to all is the debut release from the ORGANIZATION. Make sure you check out "Free Burning." The "O" will kick off it's headlining tour on Feb. 2 in Phoenix, AZ. Strip Mind and Muzza Chunka will be opening. The "O" features former members of D.A. Speak to ya soon. And yes!! I have my national championship!

Greg Derbas, Pavement Records, Oakbrook Terrace, IL (708) 916-1155

Play my TUNGSTEN record. Big moves this week, thanks to all of the supporters. Interviews are now available for both Tungsten and STRESSBALL.

Stressball is also making some waves with a tour in the works. The big news is DEMENTED TED, the first release of the year for Pavement. Just wait till you hear this one, you will be unbelievably surprised. Major tour in the works, and I do mean major. I'll keep you posted. Crowbar is finally off the road after that awesome spectacle with Sacred Reich. It's hitting the road again on foreign ground with Paradise Lost, then it's back here in March for a monster tour. Need anything, just call.

Mark "Psycho" Abramson, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077

I hope your 1994 has started out half as good as mine has because you would be pretty damn psyched if it did! Here's the deal—a SEPULTURA tour is coming in February with FEAR FACTORY, Fudge Tunnel and Clutch! This record is still a huge, mondo priority! I want to see this record still at number one in 1995! The new single is "Refuse/Resist," with B-sides coming in February! Sepultura number one, period! LIFE OF AGONY! This record still needs tons of care and attention from you people! "Through And Through" is still the track. A radio contest is coming real soon as well as a U.S. tour with TYPE O NEGATIVE. The tour starts in February and the contest should start at the end of January. Life Of Agony—huge priority! Type O Negative: This record is really starting to move at retail—big time! Please do not feel that this record is anywhere near over! You just got "Christian Woman" at the end of the year, so jam this thing into heavy! The brilliant video is going to MTV imminently! Sepultura, Life Of Agony and Type O Negative—live 'em, love 'em, make 'em your own! Thanks to Tom Gates for doing his time in Hell (working with me in metal radio) and I wish him luck in alterna-land. New partner for me will be announced real soon. Soundgarden, Prong, live Painkiller, Alice In Chains, Unsane.

NEW ORDER

"Spooky"
(Qwest c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—This could well be the final New Order video—well, they're "taking some time off from the band" following "rumors of dissension within the group," which is pretty much what, say, the Police did in 1983. Not that it makes much difference since, as usual, the band is nowhere to be seen in the video; instead it's two men and a woman flickering in fast-motion, talking on the phone, arguing in person, arm-wrestling, cutting their own hair, accepting delivery of a baby from a string that descends from above, and so on. They're pretty goofy-looking, and lit entirely in a steely blue. Blue and bright white are the only colors in the entire video, aside from a few quick shots of an open field and a Mayan temple (uh, whatever). What does this have to do with "Spooky"? Not much—but semantic content isn't New Order's lyrical strong suit, and the images just look darn cool in conjunction with the song's technoid twinkle. Having a point isn't the point; being cryptic and entertaining is. If this is their last video, it's a fine au revoir to a great band and its great videos. —Douglas Wolk

LEVELLERS

"This Garden"
(Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—One strength of the Levellers is that they never started out to be an "alternative rock band." Music in general is the vehicle for their purposeful and often weighty messages. That sort of mindset enables the eclectic London-based band to steal, reinvent and reinterpret whichever sonic style they see fit. "This Garden," the first single/video from their new 5-song EP, blends a hippy/hip-hop groove over spoken verses and an Arabic-styled chorus. The theme of the video reminds us of Blur's "Chemical World" with its environmental outlook, though it's only fair to point out that the Levellers aren't following anyone's lead when it comes to making global-political statements. The band's newsletter On The Fiddle is part fanclub letter and half political

SMALL 23

"True Zero Hook"
(Alias, 2815 W. Olive Ave., Burbank, CA 91505/818-566-1034)—Small 23 is unavoidably compared to its Chapel Hill neighbors Superchunk for good reason—it shared a drummer at one time and consequently play a similarly impassioned brand of indie-rock, although a bit warmer around the edges and inflected with its own vibrant harmonies. Despite the song's title, "True Zero Hook" is actually beaming with bright pop hooks and equally glowing images for the band's first foray into the video world. Like many other clips of its kind, this video uses low-budget film techniques to accent Small 23's performance for the camera, allowing its musical and personal charm to speak for itself. Oversaturated colors ooze from every sunny shot, from the band's game of badminton to the obnoxious orange goldfish that looms across the screen. All of these images are overlapped and pieced together with carefree abandon, creating a splash of brightness as equally fun as the song itself. "True Zero Hook" may not win any MTV video awards, but it certainly does the trick when it comes to capturing the infectious rush that is inherent in Small 23's brand of spirited guitar pop.

And what doesn't kill you... makes you stronger.

"If there was ever a record capable of toppling Slayer's Reign in Blood as the ultimate death metal album, Wolverine Blues is it. It's forty devastating minutes of all-out aggression that will leave you gasping for air."

-Don Kaye, Producer, MJI's Metalshop

"Combining sheer raw ferocity with brilliant grooves, makes this a record you cannot deny."

-Psycho, Roadrunner

"The same kids who love Sepultura & Alice in Chains will soon have Wolverine Blues on the shelf next to records by those groups... Wolverine Blues will be a landmark by which to measure the true heaviness of music in the '90's. It's the album you need to blow holes in your neighbor's walls."

-RIP Magazine

Linnea Nan, Warner Bros./Reprise Records, Burbank, CA (818) 953-3692

What a great way to start '94! The mighty BIOHAZARD are recording their Warner Bros. debut just down the street! The new DIO record, Strange Highways, will be in your stations and stores Feb. 8! Look for "Evolution," the first Dio track to metal. It's amazing! The add dates are Jan. 24 and 25. STRIP MIND are back and What's In Your Mouth is the track! A new video and a long and short version of the song are on your desk now! Your continued support of this band will help take them to the next level very soon! It's show time! CANDLEBOX are supporting Rush! GREEN APPLE QUICK STEP are going out with Fishbone. MORBID ANGEL are doing it live with Sabbath and Motorhead! And of course, Strip Mind hit the highways again with the Organization and Muzza Chunka! Dates to follow! P.S. Don't forget TAD's "Leafy Incline" is on its way!

Munsey Ricci, Skateboard Marketing Ltd., Valley Stream, NY (516) 825-5549

We like to see everything's back to normal, well almost, I think. MOTORHEAD's new track, "On Your Knees Or On Your Feet," is on the full-length. "Evil Eye" from BLACK SABBATH is in your face, Adds go for Jan. 24. Look for Black Sabbath, Motorhead and Morbid Angel on the road. TUNGSTEN and STRESSBALL had nice moves this week; teley interviews will be here soon. "Leafy Incline" by TAD is almost here. "Slip Slide Melting" by FOR LOVE NOT LISA is next week. Add it. Until next week, ceeya.

Mark Schmidt, Megaforce Records & Crazy Management, Manalapan, NJ (908) 972-3456

Happy New Year! Hope everyone had a good one. MINDFUNK is back on the road again and NUDESWIRL will be there soon, so call me to find out the lowdown! You know, the other night I was driving with my friend Rich and I decided to put in the Nudeswirl tape. Not only did Rich love it upon first hearing it, he came to the conclusion that it was great driving music. So give it a try! Play Nudeswirl and Mindfunk on your airwaves often! And then throw on some TRIBE AFTER TRIBE and REVOLTING COCKS! And be sure to watch your mail—you'll be getting SWEATY NIPPLES sooner than you know it!

Well, here we are again. 1994 kicks off with a continued emphasis on PARADISE LOST, THOUGHT INDUSTRY and BROKEN HOPE. In the mail to all is the debut release from the ORGANIZATION. Make sure you check out "Free Burning." The "O" will kick off its headlining tour on Feb. 2 in Phoenix, AZ. Strip Mind and Muzza Chunka will be opening. The "O" features former members of D.A. Speak to ya soon. And yes!! I have my national championship!

Play my TUNGSTEN record. Big moves this week, thanks to all of the supporters. Interviews are now available for both Tungsten and STRESSBALL.

Stressball is also making some waves with a tour in the works. The big news is DEMENTED TED, the first release of the year for Pavement. Just wait till you hear this one, you will be unbelievably surprised. Major tour in the works, and I do mean major. I'll keep you posted. Crowbar is finally off the road after that awesome spectacle with Sacred Reich. It's hitting the road again on foreign ground with Paradise Lost, then it's back here in March for a monster tour. Need anything, just call.

Mark "Psycho" Abramson, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077

I hope your 1994 has started out half as good as mine has because you would be pretty damn psyched if it did! Here's the deal—a SEPULTURA tour is coming in February with FEAR FACTORY, Fudge Tunnel and Clutch! This record is still a huge, mondo priority! I want to see this record still at number one in 1995! The new single is "Refuse/Resist," with B-sides coming in February! Sepultura number one, period! LIFE OF AGONY! This record still needs tons of care and attention from you people! "Through And Through" is still the track. A radio contest is coming real soon as well as a U.S. tour with TYPE O NEGATIVE. The tour starts in February and the contest should start at the end of January. Life Of Agony—huge priority! Type O Negative: This record is really starting to move at retail—big time! Please do not feel that this record is anywhere near over! You just got "Christian Woman" at the end of the year, so jam this thing into heavy! The brilliant video is going to MTV imminently! Sepultura, Life Of Agony and Type O Negative—live 'em, love 'em, make 'em your own! Thanks to Tom Gates for doing his time in Hell (working with me in metal radio) and I wish him luck in alterna-land. New partner for me will be announced real soon. Soundgarden, Prong, live Painkiller, Alice In Chains, Unsane. ■

REVIEWS

"Nice And Lovely"
(Virgin, 1790 Broadway, New York, NY 10019)—It hasn't taken long for artists of all genres to realize that jazz is quite a universal spice. Mixed with reggae (quite a handy spice in its own right), a mellow jazz/swing groove makes "Nice And Lovely" perhaps the loveliest video of the week. Though some may argue that it's the host of ultra-sexy women that are the true spice of this clip, we'll argue that it's a helluva song first and respectfully admit that the women are somewhat attractive (OK, so we spent half the day using the stop motion feature to get a better look, so sue us.) While some of the shots may be too hot to handle, the filming is ultra-cool—a black and white, back street jazz mood with shots of Shaggy and pals happily skipping around to the beat. That sort of carefree style reminds us that the '90s are less timid than the '80s when it comes to skipping across boundaries to make new sounds. Like Digable Planet's "Cool Like Dat," it's tracks like "Nice And Lovely" that will carve more room for other fun, creative and musically rich songs on the airwaves. This means less room for those overblown emotional duets from movie soundtracks, so do your part and play this now!

—Steve Ciabattoni

GEOFFREY ORYEMA
"The River"
(RealWorld c/o Caroline, 114 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001/212-989-2929)—It's no surprise that a video from an artist on Peter Gabriel's RealWorld label would present us with a video that was different, beautiful, creative and ultimately moving. "The River" by Ugandan songwriter/performer Geoffrey Oryema uses simple elements to create a visually captivating work. Like this lead track from his latest CD, Beat The Border, which is graceful, rhythmic and intense, the video locks us in a deep, hypnotic groove of beauty, focusing on the overwhelming splendor of nature, the grace of the human hand and the unlimited powers of water. The clip starts with a few raindrops until the viewer is then "flooded" with water and river imagery, lending "The River" an comforting and tranquil spiritual quality. The lush textures come courtesy of Western influence rather than a Ugandan background, yet producer Bob Ezrin (Pink Floyd, Kiss) never buries the heart of the track. This work, however, is far too powerful to be lost under any amount of audio or video technology.

NEW ORDER

"Spooky"

(Qwest c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—This could well be the final New Order video—well, they're "taking some time off from the band" following "rumors of dissension within the group," which is pretty much what, say, the Police did in 1983. Not that it makes much difference since, as usual, the band is nowhere to be seen in the video; instead it's two men and a woman flickering in fast-motion, talking on the phone, arguing in person, arm-wrestling, cutting their own hair, accepting delivery of a baby from a string that descends from above, and so on. They're pretty goofy-looking, and lit entirely in a steely blue. Blue and bright white are the only colors in the entire video, aside from a few quick shots of an open field and a Mayan temple (uh, whatever). What does this have to do with "Spooky"? Not much—but semantic content isn't New Order's lyrical strong suit, and the images just look darn cool in conjunction with the song's technoid twinkle. Having a point isn't the point; being cryptic and entertaining is. If this is their last video, it's a fine au revoir to a great band and its great videos. —Douglas Wolk

LEVELLERS

"This Garden"

(Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—One strength of the Levellers is that they never started out to be an "alternative rock band." Music in general is the vehicle for their purposeful and often weighty messages. That sort of mindset enables the eclectic London-based band to steal, reinvent and reinterpret whichever sonic style they see fit. "This Garden," the first single/video from their new 5-song EP, blends a hippy/hip-hop groove over spoken verses and Arabic-styled chorus. The theme of the video reminds us of Blur's "Chemical World" with its environmental outlook, though it's only fair to point out that the Levellers aren't following anyone's lead when it comes to making global-political statements. The band's newsletter On The Fiddle is part fanclub letter and half political action sheet. Take a close listen to the verses and you'll get a good picture of where the band's heart lies. This planet is your garden, make your decisions wisely and responsibly. —Steve Ciabattini

"True Zero Hook"

(Alias, 2815 W. Olive Ave., Burbank, CA 91505/818-566-1034)—Small 23 is unavoidably compared to its Chapel Hill neighbors Superchunk for good reason—it shared a drummer at one time and consequently play a similarly impassioned brand of indie-rock, although a bit warmer around the edges and inflected with its own vibrant harmonies. Despite the song's title, "True Zero Hook" is actually beaming with bright pop hooks and equally glowing images for the band's first foray into the video world. Like many other clips of its kind, this video uses low-budget film techniques to accent Small 23's performance for the camera, allowing its musical and personal charm to speak for itself. Oversaturated colors ooze from every sunny shot, from the band's game of badminton to the obnoxious orange goldfish that looms across the screen. All of these images are overlapped and pieced together with carefree abandon, creating a splash of brightness as equally fun as the song itself. "True Zero Hook" may not win any MTV video awards, but it certainly does the trick when it comes to capturing the infectious rush that is inherent in Small 23's brand of spirited guitar pop.

—Colin Helms

ENGINES OF AGGRESSION

"Illusion Is Real"
 (Priority, 6430 Sunset Blvd., Ste. 900, Hollywood, CA 90028)—Y'know, you can bet that Engines Of Aggression never took the word "mean" to connote "average." No, "Illusion Is Real" is mean in the good ol' fashioned axe-wielding clown sense of the word. The band has also been far from average in its videos, the twin poles of two extremes formed by the vastly different technological approaches used by this latest clip and the earlier "Animals" and "Slipping Away" videos. When you consider that the earlier two vids were filmed on a child's toy, a Fisher-Price Pixelvision camera, the effects, splashy edits and high-concept storyline of this new clip make it seem like the video equivalent of the group's first talkie. The clip features quick snippets of performance footage intercut with scenes featuring the above-mentioned clown and a suitably terrified youngster. The result is a creepy, fast-moving video that looks like it was shot at an outward bound week-end in John Wayne Gacey's backyard. If all you know of Engines Of Aggression is the band's first two videos, you'll hardly recognize them in "Illusion Is Real," but you'll be glad you've had the second look. A pretty snazzy video. —Scott Frampton

QUEEN LATIFAH

"Just Another Day"
 (Motown, 6255 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028)—In this second video from her dynamite LP Black Reign we hang out with Latifah in her humble kingdom of Newark. The mellow black and white tones of the video suit the laid-back feel of the song, Latifah relating the realities of daily life, not so much in an ironic tone like Ice Cube's L.A. story "It Was A Good Day," but more in a factual, objective one. The clip shows Latifah amongst her neighbors, and then floating above them as an observer should, the camera panning across the crowds of people while she remains in the center of the screen. Other shots show her alone in a black background, the low-budget quality reinforcing her earnestness. The song really takes center stage here, Latifah's no nonsense style supported by the warm and cool jazz feel of the music. "Just Another Day" seems like just another video, but Latifah's boundless charisma and the song itself saves it from another rapper going low-key and sentimental. —Megan McLaughlin

RECORD COMPANY

Rich Holtzman, 4AD Records, Los Angeles, CA (310) 289-8770

Happy New Year. There will be a lot of records to look forward to from 4AD this year. LISA GERMANO has signed with 4AD and will be releasing a limited edition EP called The Inconsiderate Bitch. In April, we will be re-releasing Happiness, which has been totally reworked and remixed. The GLEE CLUB and SPOONFED HYBRID (import only) are out in late January. RED HOUSE PAINTERS will have an EP in February which includes a cover of Kiss' "Shock Me." The LUSH record will be out in April. UNREST are gearing up for a tour that will take them to all the places they missed the last time around and you will be receiving some acoustic versions real soon. If there is someone who has a considerable amount of free time and has some radio experience, call me because I need an intern. Things you should be playing: KRISTIN HERSH and Rollerskate Skinny.

Cory Brennan, Triple X Records, Los Angeles, CA (213) 221-2204

Welcome to 1994! Music coming in the next few months on XXX include: the VANDALS Sweatn' To The Oldies, a live album and full-length video recorded in fabulous Orange County, CA; BO DIDDLEY Live; and two new additions to our roster—HYPERHEAD, which features former members of Ministry, Revolting Cocks, PIL, Killing Joke and Gaye Bikers On Acid, and CRADLE OF THORNS, which is kinda a cross between Ministry and Rage Against The Machine. Look for tour dates in the near future.

Mike Kondo, Sky/Ichiban Records, Atlanta, GA (404) 419-1414

For those of us old enough to remember the early '80s, you should remember a cool band out of New York, the FLESHTONES. February will bring the release of their new CD Beautiful Light, which was produced by Peter Buck. The Fleshstones are not "funk" or "punk" or "dance." The Fleshstones are a great big greasy ball of all that is glorious and fun in rock and roll, with a dash of charismatic magic thrown in. That last line almost made me puke. It took me awhile to heave that one out. Watch for their CD as well as a full-length from FIVE-EIGHT entitled Wierdo. Thanks to all the folks who have been spinning Five-Eight's EP The Angriest Man. Be sure to catch them on tour.

Steven Joerg, Homestead Records, New York, NY (212) 675-0922

What settled into your station homes while some were recharging the battery...TARA KEY's Bourbon County; as rich and wide as the night is long. When I accidentally talk to some of you and you say, "Cherokee?" Why yes, it's in her blood...BABE THE BLUE OX's Je m'Appelle Babe EP; let's see, "it's a keeper!"...SUPREME DICKS The Unexamined Life; the title may say it all, only you can know for sure. Soon, soon: the third (or sixth) full-length from TRUMANS WATER.

Brett Greene/John Di Maio, Radioactive Records, New York, NY (212) 489-4820

How 'bout those RAMONES?

Steve Riskin, Meltdown Records, Los Angeles, CA (213) 221-9833

In 250 words or less: PINCHING JUDY 7" (scratch and sniff then listen here) in January. Thanks to all those involved. Check out LAVA DIVA live (or their debut 7"). Stay tuned...

Tom Gates, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077

Desperately Seeking Spam! SWM, 23 Br./Bl. New alternative radio guy for Roadrunner seeks folks "alternative" in nature for phone talk, possibly leading to some sort of relationship. Must like music and have an open mind. Interests include jumping out of planes naked, eating Ramen Noodle Soup, killing rapists, doing laundry, raising pet armadillo, hanging out at shows with that girl from Roseanne and watching my roommate's life fall apart on a daily basis. Also digs the band DIE MONSTER DIE, whose full CD Withdrawal Method will hit radio stations any day now. No whips, chains or handcuffs please. Call me!

Don Blanchard, 21st Circuitry Records, San Francisco, CA (415) 252-9578

OK, I'll just come out and admit I'm a Dialogue virgin. I'm thinking, should I read what other people write? Nixed that idea mighty quick! Can I swear? Fuck I hope so. Anyway, 21st Circuitry continues its dedication to hard, aggressive, electronic music of the millennium approaching. Interested? Well our three new releases are: Death Rave 2000 compilation (four songs on vinyl + five songs for full-length LP), GRACIOUS SHADES Inoculation Of The Media and XORCIST Bitches EP with bonus track "Smells Like Teen Spirit" done a bit different than its creators (heh, heh). These releases just got to radio in December, so if you don't have them and are interested, we'd love to hear from you. And if you did get them, be sure to have as many ears to listen to them as possible, and make them available to all DJs. Look out for my great friend and fellow DIY'er Page Huff's new label Now Records with its first release L.A. Hardcore compilation featuring the most kick ass electronic acts and DJs you've heard in awhile. Page is one of the SMASHING ATOMS found on Zoo Rave 1 and our own Death Rave 2000 compilation. Also, making for an even stronger Bay Area electronic music scene if you haven't already noticed are Cop International and Silent Records (to name a few). Retailers: Our goods can be located from Silent, Caroline, Twin City Int'l and Cargo.

Robbie, Cargo Records, San Diego, CA (619) 483-9292

Heard the new FLUF album the other day. Two words: burly and nice. It's called Home Improvements and will be sent out soon enuf. Look forward to the MORNING GLORIES debut in February, as well. They had one of dem 7" things on Kokopop a while ago. I guess that makes them indie rock. SWIVELNECK Contactor should have crashlanded in your hemisphere by now. Think Project Blue Book (yeah, that old U.F.O. Air Force thing) mixed with disjointed punk and revelations will start to fall from the sky. Stuff I'm into lately: a Miniature (first "pop" album to give me the blues since Buzzcocks Different Kind Of Tension), Jimmy Smith, Link Wray and Ronald McDonald, just to drop a few names. Oh yeah, I turned 13 the other day, bejesus I feel old.

Pete Rosenblum, EastWest Records, New York, NY (212) 275-2860

Put all those dental and orthodontic jokes aside, because the DENTISTS' EastWest debut is finally here. By now, you should have their full CD, entitled Behind The Door I Keep The Universe. It was produced by Ingmar Kiang, who has done some work with Bob Marley. Also from the Dentists, something special called Radio Novacaine at your station in mid-February. Radio Novacaine is a special 1/2-hour radio show, featuring the Dentists playing their favorite music and telling corny British jokes. Also from EastWest, a new band called the WILDHEARTS. You will receive a four-track CD featuring tracks entitled "My Baby Is A Head Fuck" and "Shut Your Fucking Mouth And Use Your Fucking Brain"; make sure the FCC doesn't have you on probation before you play this record. Coming in March, a brand new BRAND NEW HEAVIES record. Coming in April, the DAMBUILDERS.

Brian Foyster, I.R.S. Records, Universal City, CA (818) 508-3130

Hello, Happy New Year. My name is Brian Foyster, the new college promotion guy here. Sorry about any inconvenience you may have had getting in touch with someone here for the last couple of months re: promo copies, interviews, etc. Anyway, I've arrived and I'm looking forward to speaking with you soon. Please send any playlists to me at: I.R.S. Records, 3939 Lankershim Blvd., Universal City, CA 91604. Out now is CARTER THE UNSTOPPABLE SEX MACHINE (USM), Post Historic Monsters. Anyone who is interested in interviews, giveaways, etc., please give me a call. Carter will hit the road in March; tour dates are t.b.a. Any stations with dance/techno/trance shows, call me re: Murk: The Singles Collection. Coming soon: BLACK SABBATH Cross Purposes. Yes, the band as seminal to metal as the Pistols were to punk not only have a new release but a U.S. tour starting in February with Motorhead and Morbid Angel. Coming to a city near you.

Big Ed Sandblaster, D-Tox Records, Greensboro, NC (919) 370-1573

By now you radio do-gooders have had more than enough time to either play, ignore, throw away or sell GEEZER LAKE's debut, Feet In Mud Again. Not a peep about it from this rag. Spin said, "Call Geezer Lake Chapel Hill's best kept genius..." Well, that's great, except they're not from Chapel Hill. Chapel Hill's beloved Stay Free! rag called them "one of the most powerful bands in North Carolina." Listen to it, if you got it. You will soon be receiving WELL NIGH FORGOTTEN's full-length debut, Betty's Wake. Expect a manic, angular, melodic soul machine of a band. Look out for the secret bonus Dwight Yoakam track at the end. Plus loopy phone antics. BICYCLE FACE's The Red Hat Man four-song EP should be in your hands quite soon. Chapel Hill's Trash hailed it as their best recording yet. It is certain to bring loads of joy to your miserably confused life. Coming in '94: Geezer Lake/DRUNKEN BOAT split single, Geezer Lake/VERY PLEASANT NEIGHBOR split single, new SLOWCHANGE MADAGASCAR, etc. Also look for Geezer Lake's "Songs From The Watering Hole" 7" on Squealer and vinyl version of their Feet In Mud Again from Mudd Industries. Things we love and would hope you would too: Babe The Blue Ox, Stub, the Raymond Brake, Sonic Youth (we hear they're awesome!), Blownapart Bastards. Big Ed signing off...

Adam J. Pollock, Polygram Label Group, New York, NY (212) 603-3942

Hey kids, is everybody excited about the new MEAT PUPPETS album? Too High To Die hits the streets Jan. 25, and to celebrate its release we're putting the boys out on a little promo tour titled "The Munchies Tour," which hits 13 major markets in late Jan./early Feb. Look for a big tour in the spring after they return from a European jaunt with Nirvana and Soul Asylum. The first single is "Backwater." The INDIANS continue to generate a lot of excitement, with the mighty KROQ adding their "Look Up To The Sky" track over the holls. Feel free to call if you need a CD. E will be out on a promo tour/tour in the spring, and the soundtrack to the new Daniel Day Lewis movie, In The Name Of The Father, comes out on Jan. 25 (featuring new music from BONO/GAVIN FRIDAY/SINEAD O'CONNOR). All in all we're off to a pretty good start despite my New Year's Eve hangover that won't go away.

Scott Perry and Will Simon, Beggars Banquet/Thirsty Ear Recordings, New York, NY (800) 866-2313

So we're a little busy around here with all these new releases coming to you in a few weeks... You should now have Over Valence, the new CD by HAIR & SKIN TRADING CO. Looming vocals and intense guitar hypnotica, engineering help by Ott (The Faith Healers). Flat out awesome, tour dates soon. So what do you think of the advance cassette for Shoulder Voices by ROLLER-SKATE SKINNY? Everybody who keeps asking for this CD will be relieved to know that you'll have it by the end of the month. Libertine, the debut American release by SUNDIAL comes out at the end of February; marvel as they conjure some spacey guitar voodoo with groovin' backbeat. Those of you that received the RADIAL SPANGLE "Birthday" import single: isn't "Snow" one of the prettiest mellow songs you've ever heard? Play the POLYPHEMUS single and be carried to a far-off, warmer land on these brutal winter days. Call if you need a copy of either, we have a couple around the office. Also call for QUEEN SARAH SATURDAY live and interviews as they play a town near you. SMALL BALL PAUL's debut full-length, You In Flames, comes out February 22. These homeboys (and homegirl) from St. Louis rock with the force of an anvil dropping on your skull. Advance music soon.

Morgan Church/Duke Davis, Spin Radio Network/National Alternative Network, Minneapolis, MN (612) 338-2211

Minnesota winters suck! First off thanks to all those cool stations across this wonderful nation of ours who subscribed to the Spin Radio Network last year. Extra sloppy tongue-filled kisses to those stations who returned the affidavit cards. By now you should have the first two programs of 1994. Featuring interviews with RED RED MEAT and EVAN DANDO, pre-release exclusives from BRATMOBILE, GLUE and PONY, plus lots more of that "alternative" stuff you "politically-withdrawn, body-piercing, tattoo-sporting, marketing department's-worst-nightmare" types like to hear. If you have yet to receive programs 13 and 14 or are interested in getting the show, give us a call. Self-determination for all peoples!

Jonathan Clark, Head Honcho, Ringing Ear Records, Newmarket, NH (603) 659-7516

It took a New Hampshire label to find Boston's two best new bands, but with all the idiot Masshole tourists we have to deal with, I guess they owed it to us. We've got new CD/cassettes by SINKHOLE and DOC HOPPER, entitled Groping For Trout and Aloha respectively, and if you like the speed-power-pop-punk-rock thing, you'll love these bands. Check out "Red Dog" and "Waterdog" by Sinkhole and "Geiger" and "Melcher" by Doc Hopper. Radio mailing goes out January 14, so be ready. These two bands threw a hell of New Year's Eve party and managed to crank out two fantabulous sets, no thanks to Mad Dog 20/20. Watch for Sinkhole's unreleased pop masterpiece "Casemaker" to show up on the upcoming Lookout! Records compilation Punk U.S.A. If your local record shop doesn't carry our stuff, or if you don't see one of our many mailorder ads, give me a call.

Tim Cook, C/Z Records, Seattle, WA (206) 621-9127

Somebody told me that the guy from WMNF is prominently featured with an active layout in the new issues of Future Sex magazine... If this indeed is the case I'd be bummed 'cause they said they had to mix mine due to the uneditable length of the R.U. Serious interview. Don't ask, I'll tell you anyway—what I did on my winter vacation: went to Boise (Idaho, a state), saw Ma, Grandma, DIRT FISHERMAN and BUILT TO SPILL (twice). Four days later I returned here and rang in the new year watching the Space Needle illuminate itself faintly through the fog and relished in ENGINE KID Greg renouncing his arcane straightedged ways of old with a reiterated form of encouragement: "New Year's Bowl, time to roll!" Anybody remember the Brotherhood? C/Z Records: SILK-WORM In The West and POP SICKLE Under The Influences. In awhile: GITS, VEXED and WRECK. Other stuff: Edsel CD (Grass), Guru Guru CD reissues (ZYX), Totem Pole Of Losers 7" (Nuf Sed about Amarillo) and this past year's Christmas Ale (Anchor Steam).

Rosie V-Estrada, Hollywood Records, Burbank, CA (818) 560-5670

Happy "1994" to all! Let's make this year a better year for the entire world. We should all work at making this happen, because this is where we live, and we can't trade our planet in for a new one! In addition to recycling, you can now help to support the Energy & Climate Campaign, which is Greenpeace's current mission on the hot topic of the Earth's rising temperature and its potentially disastrous effect for life on this planet. In conjunction with Greenpeace, we have recorded and mixed the first-in-history album recorded using solely solar energy. Alternative NRG features a diverse roster of artists: SONIC YOUTH, L7, R.E.M., U2, MIDNIGHT OIL, DISPOSABLE HEROES OF HIPHOPRISY, SOUNDGARDEN, the JESUS AND MARY CHAIN, YOTHU YINDI, BOO-YAA T.R.I.B.E....the list continues. Make sure to check your mail and look for this one. The DEAD MILKMEN are continuing to liven up 1994 with Not Richard But Dick, so don't be left out and catch a groovy gig!

Scott Carter, A&M Records, Hollywood, CA (213) 469-2411

Even more proof that the A&M logo is the "immediate add" symbol: the brand new SWERVEDRIVER EP, with an edited album track, a re-recorded album track and a whopping four new songs. Play it lots, especially when Swervedriver comes to your town—call if you want to go, especially you West Coast folks who never got to see them with the Smashing Pumpkins last year. Coming February 8 is a brand new full-length album from THERAPY?—15 songs (including covers of Joy Division's "Isolation" and the popular sing-along "You Are My Sunshine"). But before that you'll get an EP with a clean edit of "Knives" (one of the coolest album tracks, only in a form that the FCC won't have a bird about), a non-LP track and current UK single "Nowhere." And February 16 is the magic day that you'll get the brand new SOUNDGARDEN single, "Spoonman." The only other Soundgarden fact I can legally tell you right now is that the album is called Superunknown. By the way, when I'm playing Defender, here's what I listen to: Blues Explosion!

Keith Moran, Radio Promotions, Restless Records, Minneapolis, MN (612) 874-2423

The following three releases should have just been placed on your desk. aMINIATURE's Depth Five Rate Six, SMUT Blood Smut And Tears and GIANT SAND Purge And Slouch. Call if you have been a victim of the postal service and did not get copies of the releases. aMiniature is very much in the same vein as old Wire, Gang Of Four, Buzzcocks and perhaps some Babes In Toyland, but with a little bit more smart-ass punk attitude. If you don't know what Giant Sand is about just keep your head in your ass where it is nice and warm and don't worry about it. If you can only put (pull) your head half way in [out], at least listen to the song "Elevator Music." Once again a reminder that I am still taking resumes for the Restless nationwide intern program. If you are in a large city or college town please call for more info.

Lulu Cohen/Kristen Lucidi, Pipeline Records, Hicksville, NY (516) 681-2125

Welcome back radio freaks! Hope your holiday was not at all like mine. Why you ask, well...here's my sob story...I'm in Florida...It's 80 degrees and sunny...and I am on my way to the local hospital (buckled over with excruciating pain) in an ambulance! Long story short...I suffered from kidney stones while you guys were partying and drinking egg nog. Boo hoo for me...I feel great now but then...boy did that suck. Thanks to KQAL, WFMU, WCUR, WKNH, KUNI, WUEC, WOUB and WAKE and everyone else who supported the record! The MARTIN NEWELL/ANDY PARTRIDGE record is #88 on the CMJ chart. We love you—XOXOXO. SUNSHOT is happening also...don't forget it...the first tune—"Nasties"—is funky...and check out cut #5—"Babydoll." Bye-bye for now.

Scott Bradford, Marketing, Alias Records, Burbank, CA (818) 566-1034

My best of list for 1994...sure it has only been a week, but who gives a shit. I'm just getting a head start. 1. That Gulianni kid at his father's NY mayoral swearing in: one of the most entertaining induction ceremonies ever. Pure genius in a Sears size 7 suit. Those who were offended by his actions need to lighten up. Get that kid at every induction ceremony, I say; 2. Cabin Boy: yeah, you heard me right. Chris Elliot at his comedic best in this sure-to-be-a-classic seafarer tale of dreams, love and coming of age in a George Washington-style wig. Unfortunately, it was released just after deadline for last year's Oscar consideration; 3. Jon Spencer Blues Explosion, Whiskey, L.A.: rock and roll as it was meant to be played. Raw, loud and with curled lip. Zack from Rage Against The Machine was there so it must have even been PC. These things would have made the list but would sound overly self-serving: THRONEBERRY Sangria album: Out now and needs your support. Gritty guitars packed with enough emotion to make you blush. Greg Dulli production gives it that oomph. PICASSO TRIGGER's iFire In The Hole! blows out on February 14 and will make a fabulous Valentine present for that special boy or girl. Punk rock N.C. style. TOMMY KEENE, Late Night With Conan O'Brien, Feb. 1. Wake the kids and stay up late. ARCHERS OF LOAF West Coast tour: It's about time. Look out for February dates in your West Coast town. Call for info.

Melissa Stegall, Alternative Tentacles Records, San Francisco, CA (415) 431-5697

Just a quick word to let you know what's going on with our label. You should all have the ZENI GEVA, NEUROSIS and JELLO BIAFRA/MOJO NIXON releases by now; if not give me a call. Landing on your desk in a couple of weeks will be CHILL E.B.'s new one Born Suspicious. Chill's a Bay Area rap artist of whom you should take notice. Being one of three recipients in the state of California to win $25,000 for outstanding work in the community should clue you in that this guy's not just shooting his mouth off. Out in February is the new VICTIMS FAMILY full-length Headache

Remedy. Also keep your eyes open for the full-length release by Jello Biafra & Mojo Nixon Prairie Home Invasion. Call me for details. Brent Wilcox, Producer Of Night Land,

RADIO

KOTR, Cambria, CA and Worldwind and Cryptomusicology, KCBX, San Luis Obispo, CA (805) 927-1953

1994? I'm ready for '95! A couple of 1993 discs that arrived too late for the lists (or too early for 1994) are RISE ROBOTS RISE with an inventive, unpredictable work I can't recommend highly enough, and (r.i.p.) FRANK ZAPPA's The Yellow Shark, which deserves a Grammy. So what's been up on the air? GEOFFREY ORYEMA rules, so does KATE BUSH. The MEKONS rock solidly, and the "Squelchy" tracks from BRIAN ENO (Enobox II) are cool. Brand new music from the SEALAND POETS, TORI AMOS (do I hear ARTO LINDSAY on that single?), and KRISTIN HERSH gives '94 a great start. SPED THE PLOUGH has cut a nice niche. Lessee... COCTEAU TWINS, DEAD CAN DANCE, INSIDES, JAMES, ONE DOVE, MORPHINE and MEDICINE definitely on the Nightland and/or Worldwind maps. HASSAN HAKMOUN and JAM NATION still cooking. KAMPEC DOLORES is wild music from Hungary, and ANITAS LIVS is even wilder from Sweden (with vox and percussion covers of BESSIE SMITH)... Speaking of incredible voices, I can't forget Tuva's HUUN-HUUR-TU (they kicked ass live last night in San Luis Obispo)! International miscellany: BAKA BEYOND, LA MUSGANA, DJUR DJURA, DISSIDENTEN and RINKENBAND. Cryptomusicology thanks STATE OF THE UNION, Passed Normal, Transforms and Excursions In Ambience 2 compilations, plus ARCANE DEVICE and LAST EXIT...and HANS REICHEL's Shanghai'd On Tor Road is all the top five of any Top Crypto Ten. Meanwhile, my address is Box 1554, Cambria, CA 93428. E-mail me at brent.wilcox@genie.geis.com. Fax me at (805)927-0384. I'm going to Gavin. Good night!

Giving To Your Hospital Is Good For What Ails You.

If you want to give to a cause that's guaranteed to make you feel good, give to your hospital. That's right, your hospital. The fact is, they've always relied on private donations to stay current with medical needs. Now the need is greater than ever. New medical breakthroughs are entering the market every day. And the thing is, they're the kind of breakthroughs you'd never miss—unless the patient they're intended for turns out to be you.

FROM THE STREETS

Priority Records and Power-106 will release Straight From The Streets, a hip-hop compilation to benefit the L.A. group Knowledge Is Power, an organization raising money to build the L.A. Performing Arts Center and Training Complex for underprivileged youth. Artists on the album include 2 Pac, Dr. Dre and Ice Cube. All of the tracks were previously released, except for a live version of Funkadelic's "One Nation Under A Groove."
