PRONG

For Prong guitarist Tommy Victor, certain five-letter words are worse than the nastiest four-letter ones—especially words that start with “M,” end with “L” and have an “ETA” in the middle.

Since Prong burst onto the NYC noise scene, the band has gone out of its way to emphasize its hip, alternative roots, stressing that Ted Parsons once drummed for Swans and Victor jammed with such downtown luminaries as Glenn Branca and worked as a soundman at CBGB, where he mixed a slew of hardcore and no-wave acts that made their mark on Prong's sound.

Despite its stripped, barren guitars and stop-start noise bursts, which have influenced harder-edged alternative bands such as Helmet, Tar and Tool, Prong's fist-in-face attitude, dire, hostile countenance and unkempt appearance have stereotyped it as a metal band. “There seems to be too much of a stress on hair length and guitar sounds rather than on substance, and that's what upsets me,” says Victor from a pay phone outside The Sports Arena in Toledo, Ohio. “I just don't understand how people can label us to metal bands when groups like Soundgarden and Helmet seem to use more traditional metal vehicles to get their point across than Prong does.”

He has a point. Prong's latest album Cleansing is loud and belligerent, but it's also refreshingly cutting-edge, mingling its distorted crunch and screaming vocals with syncopated rhythms, staggeringly precise drumming and torrents of noise, grazing a number of styles along the way including punk, industrial and the one that begins with “M” and ends with “L.” Hell, the band even recorded an inter-minably long techno remix of the LP's first single “Snap Your Fingers, Snap Your Neck” for radio promotion. “We're still doing what we've always wanted to do—progress with each record, dispose of a lot of vehicles we've used in other records, and revitalize ourselves every year. A lot of groups that came out in 1987-88 when we came out are no longer with us, but we're still around. We have a real survivalist, ambitious attitude about what we're doing, and in order to survive you need to be able to adapt.”

Survive, adapt, progress. It all sounds pretty regimental, almost militant. It's as if Prong is forming an anti-establishment army of malcontents in order to rage against the machine. “We're trying to battle certain common notions in music and society, and certain false attitudes that we see,” explains Victor. “The record's kind of a purification. It's about being really wary about what you look at and what you consume. Making your own order through your own goals and achievements.”

What's with all the fury and frustration in the songs?

“I've lived and I've done weird jobs, and I've seen a lot of the shit that goes on in life. I'm not comparing myself to Bukowski or anything, but there's something extremely juvenile about a group like Rage Against The Machine. I like them, and I think they have amazing beats, but the lack of know-how in your average band is sad. We're not a bunch of kids. We've been around the block a couple times.”

Around the block four times to be exact, and Cleansing is the band's fifth attempt to wash away preconceived notions of who or what a metal band should be.

Essential New Music

PAVEMENT Crooked Rain Crooked Rain (Matador, 676 Broadway, 4th Fl., New York, NY 10012/212-995-5882)

—Yes. Pavement's second proper album reaches the same high standards set by Slanted And Enchanted: its chunky songs are catchy enough for commercial stations to jump on the caboose of the bandwagon, and the band thankfully hasn't left its smarts and attitude behind. The songs are more fully developed, with several potential singles ("Ell Ess Two," "Unfair," the almost jangly "Range Life"), and the album is expertly conceived, sucking you in with the fat, power-pop of "Silence Kid" and never leaving you dangling for a minute thereafter. Both arty and artful, Pavement reveals everything and nothing all at the same time: its songs are plopped down, seemingly with no effort at all, yet ultimately they're quite complex, riddled with bewitching guitar bits, deft hooks and swipes at the band's own coddling scene. "You've gotta pay your dues before you pay the rent," Stephen Malkmus reminds the scenesters on "Range Life"; the undeniably catchy

"Cut Your Hair" is a hilarious, and hummable, portrayal of the indie-rock world. In suitably post-modern fashion, the bedraggled Malkmus leaves off with the unfinished line "When they pull out the plugs and they snort up the drugs, their throats are filled with..." Like your all-time favorite albums, Crooked Rain Crooked Rain asks more questions than it ultimately answers, which is only one of the hallmarks designating it a great album.

—Lydia Anderson

LOW I Could Live In Hope (Vernon Yard, 1790 Broadway, 21st Fl., New York, NY 10019/212-586-7700)

—Imagine, if you will, floating slowly towards the bottom of the sea, absorbing the warmth of the sun's rays filtering around you from the world above. Your perceptions become altered in the fluid atmosphere, reflecting stark images of loneliness, wonder and peaceful introspection. Lose yourself in this daydream, and you'll begin to comprehend Low's wistful and delicate character. Produced by Shimmy-Disc guru Kramer, I Could Live In Hope finds this Duluth, MN, trio drawing from the same sense of lethargic beauty as bands like Slowdive, Codeine or Galaxie 500, while effortlessly shaping its own timeless presence. Though most groups of similar bent rely on sudden electric bursts or washes of feedback to accentuate their songs, Low allows each note to hang in space, to breathe and shimmer momentarily before the next tone emerges. Low's debut is a gorgeous exercise in minimalism, from the warm lull of John Nichols' bass and the tap of Mimi Parker's lone snare and cymbal, to the soft waver of Alan Sparhawk's guitar.

With little more than an aching sigh, the voices of Parker and Sparhawk slowly stretch and pull at each songs' chorus, leaving the measured lap of sparse instrumentation to echo and float across the weightless expanse. Transport yourself with "Words," "Slide," "Lazy," the dark drift of "Rope" and "Lullaby," a 10-minute stretch of majestic radiance.

—Colin Helms

PRAXIS Sacrifist (Subharmonic, 180 Varick St., New York, NY 10014/212-675-7168)

—Praxis is Bill Laswell's conceptual avant-thrash/dub/funk supergroup, a startling vision of the channel-flipping future, where genres and styles are impossibly scrambled, sampled, snipped, clipped, transmogrified and stuck together. If Material's Hallucination Engine seemed to be heading towards more atmospheric realms, floating weightlessly in ether, then Sacrifist is its evil twin, the sound of music being sucked into a powerful black hole. It's a one-of-a-kind amalgamation of the heaviest parts of just about every kind of heavy music ever made, built from revolving, loose contributions from John

Zorn, Mick Harris, Bernie Worrell and Bootsy Collins, as well as cameos from cyber-guitar whiz Buckethead and do-or-die vocals from Boredoms' Yamatsuka Eye. But what sets Sacrifist apart from other genre-jumping noise-fests is its humor and musical wit: not only does it shred speakers, but its gurgling histrionics and mutational sound also wink slyly at an industrial genre that too often takes itself far too seriously. The second mind-melding Praxis effort is also among the first releases from the Subharmonic imprint, another Laswell boutique label designed to spotlight some of the more extremist, futurist dub and thrash music in his musical universe. Dig into "Cold Rolled," featuring a skull-rattling track from NYC noisemasters Blind Idiot God, "The Hook" and the thrasher "Stronghold," and bug out to Worrell's epic Hammond organ freakout on "Crossing."

—James Lien

ROLLERSKATE SKINNY Shoulder Voices (Beggars Banquet, 274 Madison Ave., Ste. 804, New York, NY 10016/212-889-9595)

—Back when the Stone Roses and the Charlatans UK were the rave of the day in the U.K., Rollerskate Skinny's frontman was riding the wave, strumming out melodic neo-psychedelia in his Dublin band Shake. But don't let that fool you: the Skinny ones have about as much in common with the happy Manchester crop as Joy Division has with the Inspiral Carpets.

Turning away from the state of conformity that once possessed it, Rollerskate Skinny is now slashing convention with wily, wild and wonderful anti-pop constructions. Shoulder Voices, the group's debut LP, is bold, ambitious and undeniably listenable, reaching new levels of sonic achievement with the aid of cellos, flutes, trumpets and a bunch of instruments we can't even place. Not since My Bloody Valentine's Loveless has dissonance been so effectively crafted into a pastiche of melodic euphoria. Rollerskate Skinny takes a similar musical approach to Mercury Rev's, blurring guitars and mysterious noises into a vibrant rainbow of sound. But while Merc Rev tends to alienate its listeners by bridging the gap between dementia and psychopathy, Rollerskate Skinny is far more listener-friendly, crafting memorable songs through truly unusual means. Think of it as an upstart, more tuneful Sonic Youth raised by a tribe of medicine men in a church choir. Roll "Miss Leader," "Violence To Violence" and "Bow Hitch-Hiker." —Jon Wiederhorn

AMINIATURE Depthfiveratesix (Restless, 1616 Vista Del Mar Ave., Hollywood, CA 90028-6420/213-957-4357)

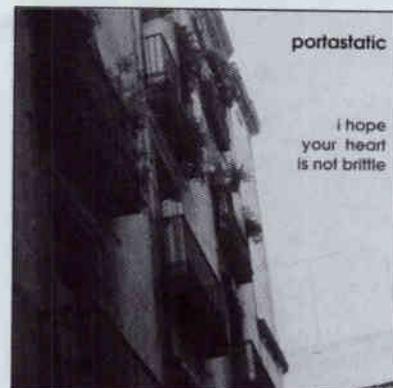

Few bands live up to their often hyperbolic comparisons and name-drops found within their record company bio. Much to our delight (and initial surprise, we'll admit), San Diego's AMiniature manages to validate references to such sonic innovators as Gang Of Four and Wire. Many bands have traced those bands' blueprints, yet AMiniature seems more interested in emulating their brand of creativity, resulting in a recording that is more spirited than derivative. Vocalist/guitarist John Lee and guitarist Kevin Wells play their instruments in complimentary fashion, either harmonizing brilliantly ("Physical Climber") or clashing brittle sounds just enough to make the ultra-melodic bits (which remind us of Buffalo Tom) stand out even more. Depthfiveratesix may not be remembered in the canon of great guitar records (it merely retells some old tricks very well), yet its tremendous undercurrent of skill and devious interplay indicate that the band's subsequent releases may reshape the way we hear guitars in rock. —Steve Ciabattini

GREENBERRY WOODS Rapple Dapple (Sire, c/o Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)

In a day when mediocre songs are transformed into acceptable pop with the simple layering of tracks, it's refreshing to find a band that places its emphasis on the songs themselves rather than post-penned ornamentation. Rapple Dapple, the sparkling debut from Maryland guitar-pop quartet the Greenberry Woods, sets a higher ideal for modern pop, deftly navigating the same clear-cut forests tread by such notables as the Posies, XTC and Big Star—and it accomplishes this without a trickling of pretention or self-consciousness. The album opener and kick-off single, "Trampoline," perfectly exemplifies the band's taut harmonies and catchy choruses, showcasing an emotional melody that would do Matthew Sweet proud, while the jangly "#37" pays homage to Roger McGuinn's shimmering pickings. The band effectively shares lead vocal duties, creating a varied palette of intonation ranging from the happy, light Brit-tones of Paul McCartney to the thicker, emotive sweepings of

Elvis Costello. Production by Andy Paley (Brian Wilson) is superb throughout and highlights every mammoth hook. In short, this is one woods we won't mind getting lost in overnight. Just follow your ears with "Oh Christine," "More And More" and the scrumptious "Sentimental Role." —Aaron Clow

PORTASTATIC I Hope Your Heart Is Not Brittle (Merge, P.O. Box 1235, Chapel Hill, NC 27514/919-929-0711)

Superchunk's Mac McCaughan must be a busy guy. Somewhere in between going on the road, writing songs and recording with Superchunk and helping to run Merge Records, he found time to record a penetrating solo album. Unlike the chunky, fuzzi-heavy sound of his day-band, Mac's Portastatic shapes each of its songs gingerly, using the barest essentials. What I Hope Your Heart Is Not Brittle shares with Superchunk's recordings is McCaughan's songwriting flair; even the simplest of his songs resonate with catchy refrains and thoughtful arrangements, qualities which have always made Superchunk stand above the pack of indie rockers next door. McCaughan also plays nearly everything on the album himself, lending it an intensely personal, introspective air with nods to both Flying Nun's sweeter moments, the Xpressway stable's singular vision and Lou Barlow's Sentridoh. The delicate guitar work in "Naked Pilsners" frames the dueting vocals of Mac and Erectus Monotone's Jennifer Walker beautifully, while the other duet, "Beer And Chocolate," with Kaye Woodward of the Bats, evokes a similarly melancholic air. Also try the 'Chunk-like "Silver Screw," the slowly building "Polaroid," "Why Have You Come Back," whose treated vocals and organ give it a pared-down garage sound, and "Had," whose chord progressions provide one of the LP's highlights.

GIANT SAND Purge & Slouch (Restless, address above)

The latest from Giant Sand is less a proper album than an acoustic documentary, and its title could not possibly be more apropos. Purge & Slouch is a 78-minute collection of meandering tracks that have seethed and dripped from the dank, cobwebby places in the mind of Giant Sand's helmsman, Howe Gelb. The entire album was recorded in Tucson, AZ, in the home of co-producer Harvey Moltz over the summer of 1993, with the assistance of a multitude of guitarists and bassists. Despite the obstacles that might have been encountered in attempting to capture such a warm, organic sound in a private home, Purge & Slouch as a whole is remarkably vast and roomy. Each song is delightfully engaging in its energy and spontaneity, forgiving and secure in its imperfections. Gelb's vocals, occasionally taking on the relaxed, gruff wanderings of Dylan ("Bender"), elsewhere nodding to Neil Young ("High Lonesome Curl"), were casually overdubbed while he "slouched on the couch." The album's light-hearted tone is exemplified on the opening to "Corridor," on which an unidentified musician asks Gelb, "Which song are we playing now, the first one?" To which he replies, "Um, I don't know...maybe." "Overture" is perhaps the most bizarrely orchestrated track, its harmonized, sampled voices swirling around deep grunts and sticky, monstrous noises. Bury yourself in "Here On The Planet," "Owed Ode" and "Dance Of The Cicadas."

—Aaron Clow

CRUNT Crunt (Trance Syndicate, P.O. Box 49771, Austin, TX 78765/512-454-3148)—Crunt is a supergroup in every sense, comprised of Kat Bjelland (Babes In Toyland), Stu Spasm (Lubricated Goat) and Russel Simins (Jon Spencer Blues Explosion), whose union was a result of each's temporary residency in Seattle. Collaborations such as this often lead to disappointment, but with the exception of its unappealing moniker, Crunt is a far cry from a let-down. The self-titled album features indulgent grooves based on catchy hooks and screams; the majority of the screaming is Stu's, though Kat takes the mike for "Unglued," whose sound recalls the Babes' in both music and vocals. Despite its members' affiliations with better-known bands, Crunt claims to be a real band and not just a side project: the band's got a tour scheduled and has even written a theme song which displays a few fancy, ear-catching guitar riffs by Mr. Spasm. Songs such as "Black Heart," "Punishment," "Changing My Mind" and "Sexy" nullify any supergroup skepticism; it's great punk rock, no matter who's playing.

—Dawn Sutter

THE VELDT Afrodisiac (Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—The indie music scene in North Carolina has been well documented over the last few years, but the punk- and '70s-influenced bands we've heard haven't indicated the other kinds of sounds lurking around town. That's where The Veldt comes to play, incorporating soul, gospel and touches of R&B into its rock format while employing murky guitar treatments, a wide collage of moods and heady, conscious messages, like a more homespun Living Colour. Led by twins Daniel (vocals) and Danny (guitar) Chavis, The Veldt writes songs which balance spirituality and desperation, each song sharing a unifying force which advocates positive strength in the face of adversity. Produced by Ray Shulman (Sundays, Ian McCulloch), Afrodisiac incorporates equal parts Hendrix and U.K. guitar pop, made more discernible by Daniel's impassioned vocals. Songs like "Wanna Be Where You Are" show that the band can kick a beat, too. The dynamic "Soul In A Jar" has hit written all over it, and for a few changes of pace, also try moving "Revolutionary Sister," "You Take The World" and "Juicy Sandwich."

full-length release was last year's ...of the angels. The Gift Horse Acetate is also on the short side (clocking in under half an hour); while it doesn't have the experimental-noise tracks of the earlier record, it also doesn't have pop songs like "Sit Down And Taste The Coffee." Rather, its four lengthy tracks amble along with ramshackle ease, assiduously avoiding hooks, choruses and anything else that might smack of conventional songwriting. The result is anarchic enough that it's easy to suspect at first that the songs were simply improvised with the tape rolling, or hallucinated after a night of painfully loud music and Welsh rarebit. Before any of the songs either break down into free-improv doodling or peter out, however, The Gift Horse Acetate rallies itself together, some vocal harmonies or a bass/guitar unison passage holding the pieces together. Dolomite intentionally composes its music that way, so prepare for heady confusion.

STUART MOXHAM Random Rules (Peak, c/o Cargo, 3058 N. Clybourn Ave., Chicago, IL 60618/312-935-5683)—One third of the oft-referenced and hopelessly obscure Young Marble Giants, Stuart Moxham's second solo record shows a brighter side to his pop tendencies. He's joined by brother/YMG Andrew Moxham and four other musicians on Random Rules, the six of whom play close to 20 instruments. The resulting sound is warm and homey, as if the musicians were gathered in an old church to sing some songs after a potluck supper. Although there is an abundance of instrumentation, the songs are spare and simple, the instruments' flourishes merely accenting the melodies rather than overwhelming them. Moxham's vocals share the reserved emotional tone of Matt Johnson, quiet and soothing without being cold. His songs are catchy and varied in style, ranging from the adult alternative sound of "Hanging On" to dub on "Golden Childhood" and poppier Caribbean rhythms on "Baroque Calypso." His best songwriting feature, however, is his ability to write a melody that is both understated and catchy ("Back To You"). Stuart Moxham's happy little record is an oasis of pop in a sea of angst.

—Megan McLaughlin

WOLVERTON BROTHERS Liarman (Atavistic, P.O. Box 578266, Chicago, IL 60657)—Blame it on the seclusion of the Midwest or attribute it to a lackadaisical, unambitious attitude: whatever the reason, it seems there is more than one Ohio-area band not motivated first by fame or fortune, but which is simply making music because of an obsessive love for the art itself. The eight-year-old, Cincinnati-based Wolverton Brothers are the archetype. Previously, they've made two records for OKra (a small label based in nearby Columbus) and a handful of appearances on compilations and 7" singles, and now they've got an album on another small indie, Atavistic. The band is known for its outrageous far-out spacey guitar jams, which keep Liarman from slipping into a lull between guitarist Tim Schwallie's howls. This album is hardly enough to satiate a rock thirst: there are only seven songs in all, and "Max Gomez Love" already appeared on a Sub Pop single once-upon-a-time, but that's hardly a complaint. Songs like "Our Town," "Tornado Bomber" and "Vampyre" offer a solid rock 'n' roll fix, and enough talent to result (despite themselves) in a bit of fame and fortune.

—Dawn Sutter

CUB Betti-Cola (Mint, 699-810 West Broadway, Vancouver, BC V5Z 4C9 Canada/604-669-6468)—"Cuddle-core" is an ugly word, but it's just about right for CUB's music, like a big-eyed teddy bear holding a broken bottle behind its back. These three Canadian women play irresistibly cute, hummable songs about best friends, broken hearts, drowning and dying, picnics, assassins, and the like. Betti-Cola's 24 tracks include eight songs from a pair of earlier singles, and a cover of Cub's "What The Water Gave Me" by New Brunswick punk band NFA. Singer/bassist Lisa (no last names) has a gift for simple, terse tunes with super-catchy choruses; be careful, or you'll walk around all day singing "You bring me carrots and celery" (from "A Picnic"), or "Oo la-la oo-wee cha-cha" (from "Go Fish"). Two of the covers reveal a lot about where Cub's coming from: Beat Happening's "Cast A Shadow" (Cub's unornamented melodicism owes a lot especially to Heather's songs) and a surfed-up version of the Beach Boys' "Surfer Girl," which takes on some wry overtones from Lisa's guileless delivery. There's not a loser in the bunch, but start with "My Chinchilla" ("Satan sucks/But you're the best!"), the chirpy revenge fantasy "It's True," "Nicolas Bragg" and "Tell Me Now," which at 2:58 is a virtual epic for the band. —Douglas Wolk

LEE HARVEY OSWALD BAND A Taste Of Prison (Touch And Go, P.O. Box 25520, Chicago, IL 60625/312-463-8316)—

Obvious references to its moniker aside, the Lee Harvey Oswald Band is a potent example of how decadent our society has become, or closer to the mark, how decadent a band becomes after dragging itself through late '70s punk rock and its ever-present filth. A Taste Of Prison is the first proper effort this trio has recorded since its 1989 eponymously-titled EP (included on this CD for your continued listening pleasure). If the photos and artwork on this disc's insert are any indication of the band's extracurricular interests, tempting the law may not be an unrealistic hobby for these guys. For starters, the CD's cover features a half-naked prepubescent girl "tied off" in narcotic ecstasy, and lyrics like "Pulsating ring I'm your vaselined thing/I'm your black rubber bitch I'm a Halloween witch" ring of the devilish perversity and zeal the band uses continually to push the limits of taste and acceptance. Paralleling this exterior attitude is the group's uncompromising smack-in-the-face of smut-soaked guitars and blowtorch vocals, the epitome of what punk purported to be in its brasher days when a sense of humor, no matter how deviant, carried its vision beyond amateur musicianship and typical self-indulgence. A Taste Of Prison refreshingly offers all this, along with a cover of McCartney's "Junior's Farm" and a twisted take on the Little Eva hit "The Loco-motion." —Colin Helms

SWIVELNECK Contactor (Cargo, address above)—"Why were you using chopsticks?" a voice asks at the beginning of Contractor before a minute of acoustic guitar noodling. It's an unusual way to begin a driving, straightforward punk rock record, but it sheds some light on the band and its motivation. Swivelneck isn't as ham-fisted as you might surmise. Any seeming lack of gray matter is actually an effort by the band to bring rock back to the basics: grooving rhythm, memorable hooks and emotional atmospheres. There's hardly a Swivelneck song you can't shout, air-guitar or headbang along with, but at the same time, there's always a spin or quirk that adds relevance, like on "Curb Job," where a single guitar note rings and squabbles at an entirely opposing tempo than the rest of the song, or on "Flypaper," which interrupts balls-out rock with stabs of introspective terror. Then there are the strange filler tracks like "Wait" and "All Kinds," which expand on the cryptic nature of the opener with low-fi acoustic passages that drone for about a minute each. Swivelneck attracts melody-suckers in the same manner as Rocket From The Crypt or Jawbreaker, while drawing in the more adventurous with unexpected twists. Top neck-breakers: "Dysfunctional Superhero," "Twenty-Inch Ride," "June Bugs" and "Waco, TX."

KURIOUS A Constipated Monkey (Hoppoh, c/o Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Hip-hop's obsession with being hard often leaves a real thin line between tough street-level rhymes and jokey novelty raps. A Constipated Monkey is Kurious' first full-length walk down that tight rope. His 1992 hit "Walk Like A Duck" established this 3rd Bass acolyte (Prime Minister Pete Nice is listed as executive producer, and he and Daddy Rich produce "I'm Kurious") as a rapper with prodigious mic skills and a keen wit. It's this wit which dominates the record, infusing his intricate rhymes with ego-deflating barbs and a noshit attitude. While any number of rappers chant the "I'm real" mantra, Kurious (his real name is Jorge—if you don't get it, ask the man in the big yellow hat) seems genuine, popping off self-effacing rhymes like "Got a heart full of kindness, pocket full of lint-balls/Everywhere I go tryin' to avoid the pitfalls." The sound of the record favors fellow Latin rappers the Beatnuts, who produced five of the disc's dozen cuts. Still, the best moments come when Kurious pokes holes in every rap myth within reach and lets his freestyle rhymes speak for themselves.

OPAL FOXX QUARTET The Love That Wouldn't Shut Up (Long Play, P.O. Box 55233, Atlanta, GA 30308/404-681-4915)—Atlanta's Opal Foxx Quartet is not a quartet; rather it's a coterie of local musicians bent on keeping the loose and loopy strands of Southern psychedelia alive. There are reference points to the sound of the OFQ, yet no discernible rules. The Love That Wouldn't Shut Up, produced mostly by Michael Stipe, serves up a stew of Southern folk and blues with an emphasis on the bluest of blues and performance art. Opal Foxx's voice (imagine a less-articulate Tom Waits), despite its lack of diction, has character galore. It's no surprise that he notes Patti Smith's Horses as a touchstone, although unlike Smith, Foxx is fond of wearing print dresses (and in one instance absolutely nothing!) on stage. The strands of cello, violin and coronet that tenderly decorate the LP add a further element of drama. Shut Up and listen to: "Clean White Bed," "Blue Exception" and the covers of the Mary Tyler Moore theme, "I Don't Know How To Love Him" (from Jesus Christ Superstar) and "Strange Fruit."

GREEN HOUSE 27 Smashed (Bar/None, P.O. Box 1704, Hoboken, NJ 07030/201-795-9424)—Ohio's Green House 27 plays modest, unassuming music on its debut, Smashed. In the Amerindie DIY tradition, Green House 27 loosely constructs short, catchy songs which use their simple nature to create an impact. The combination of naive lyrics with an understated delivery lets the sincerity of the songs shine through; the humble stories make statements about religion, friends and drugs, but stop short of anything controversial. Songwriter Jack Dean sings his words with a light, soft-spoken voice, one that captures the quiet, demure mood of Smashed without overpowering the strum of the guitars (and vice versa). Sax and flute help stamp several tracks with a more rounded sound, airy female backing vocals serving to lock the hummable

VARIOUS ARTISTS Technosonic Volume 4 (Sonic, 26 W. 17th St., New York, NY 10011/212-727-1360)—It is a universal musing that most techno records could double as some sort of soundtrack, whether it's a quiet ambient disc or some frenetic coked-on-the-dancefloor disco mayhem. Technosonic Volume 4 sounds as if you're driving in a fast, aerodynamic, black car on a highway late at night, the wind rushing through the half-open smoked windows. The disc creates a mood of speed and potential danger, the rhythms quick enough to set you on edge but not so fast as to be silly. The artists on this compilation are licensed from Antler/Subway in Belgium, and the rigid, slightly harsh feeling that conjures up is entirely appropriate for this compilation. The most recognizable name is Adamski's, but his track is no more poppy than the others. All of the tracks share an obsession with speed, interesting sounds and a wash of emotional movement. Technosonic Volume 4 is another in a line of soundtracks which may never get their celluloid, but are still able to evoke a mood.

—Megan McLaughlin

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

The hipness of Moroccan music continues to make headlines amongst those in the know, and Lyrichord's Songs And Rhythms Of Morocco is one of the cooler installments in its "Lyrichord Presents Outstanding Music From Around The World" compilation series. (Amazonia, the Afro-Cuban-tinged volume of "festival and cult music from Northern Brazil," is also highly recommended.) From the martial dervish of "Taskiouine" to the mystical Berber sounds of the guimbri (a handmade lute) to the deep, hypnotic percussion of the Gnawa musicians, it's a trip of noteworthy intensity (Lyrichord, 141 Perry St., New York, NY 10014/212-929-8234)...Violins, funky basses, saxes and distinct songwriting punctuate the DAVE MATTHEWS BAND's live recording, Remember Two Things (Bama Rags, P.O. Box 1911, Charlottesville, VA 22903/804-979-9695). The band pulls off adventurous pop quite well in a live setting—think of the Waterboys backed by the funk and twang of Bela Fleck and you're halfway there. The band has recently signed to RCA for a studio LP due out in the fall...For Louisiana swamp rock trio DASH RIP ROCK, it's almost as if the years bashing it out on the frat circuit have fried their brains a little bit: for all the pummeling tuneage and frenetic stage sweat of Tiger Town (Doctor Dream, 841 W. Collins, Orange CA 92667/714-997-9387), only "Walk Down Broadway" and "Livin' Breathin'" stand out, although "Shine A Light" shows considerable savvy in its Foghat moves. And you can't argue with a Thin Lizzy-style tribute to "Dizzy Miss Lizzy."...Almost a full 10 years after he first boldly declared that "nothing exists," and fervently proclaimed that all mankind is descended from bacteria, poet/prophet/seer COPERNICUS has returned with another spoken-word/improvised music opus entitled No Borderline (Nevermore, P.O. Box 170150, Brooklyn, NY 11217).

JACKPOT!

MR QUARK Enjoy Nuoc-Mam With Mr Quark (c/o Christophe Degoutin, 27 N. Croix-Basset, 92310 Sevres, France)—Performed by a French quartet (guitar, recorder, vibes and tambourine), this four-song "concept" demo tape about the life and death of a nuoc-mam-addicted superhero who is "extra-handsome, extra-strong, extra-kind and extra-light" is, as you may have guessed, a real head-scratcher. It took us a few listens to decide whether we loved it or hated it (and others in the office threatened to beat us up if we kept playing it). The decision's in, and we love it, having found a new lo-fi friend along the lines of Frank Sidebottom, Sebadoh or Daniel Johnston. It's astonishingly weird, but its weirdness is natural and enforced—the kind of illogic that makes perfect sense in dreams. All four songs also work as songs: their simple melodies and endlessly repeated recorder hooks are darkly but really memorable, especially the groovy "Do You Really Know Mr Quark?" "Beware, Mr Quark" has a slinky shuffle beat; "Requiem For Mr Quark" juxtaposes major- and minor-key bits really effectively; and all the songs have spoken/sung English lyrics, the intentionality of whose hilarity is debatable. Enjoy Nuoc-Mam definitely isn't a comedy tape, even though it induces more giggles with every listening—the band goes for things that are musically effective rather than funny, given the choice. Expect a cult following soon.

—Douglas Wolk

FYI

Amongst the troublesome noise and meaningless din cluttering the world, some artists are still striving to create something meaningful, original, and based on quality and beauty, things sadly absent in much of today's life. Proof of such a bold postulate comes in the form of the recent demo from TINA LOVINGS (3810 Martin Ave., Greensboro, NC, 27405/919-621-5680), an East Coast singer/songwriter who's quietly and unassumingly been pushing the form to new levels. With a folk-influenced sound recalling the Indigo Girls, Lovings builds songs that shift and move with an energy and skill that matches the level of emotion in her singing and lyrics. While using the singer/songwriter mold, Lovings expands her reach to incorporate disparate sounds, including strings, fuzz bass and a full gospel choir on two tracks. When the choir comes in unexpectedly in the middle of an otherwise spartan and haunting demo, it's a moving experience, perhaps the only time in the last year that we can remember finding ourselves being truly startled by something we heard on a cassette. Lovings' music defies easy categorization, the same sort of praise we've heard others make about Suzanne Vega, Marti Jones and Ben Harper. Organic, rootsy and touched by southern experience, her Mitch Easter-produced demo shines its brightest on "Day In America," "Ploughman" and especially "Morning Hours," which recalls Anton Fier's Golden Palominos' quieter, more somber work.

HELIUM Pirate Prude (EP) (Matador, 676 Broadway, 4th Fl., New York, NY 10012/212-995-5882)—Two previous singles have set the stage for Pirate Prude, Helium's Matador debut. The rhythm section used to be part of Dumtruck, and it's solid and resilient throughout, but this show belongs to singer/guitarist Mary Timony (ex-Autoclave). Timony favors deliberate tempi, unconventional song structures, odd sonic elements (including her distinctively hollow-toned, heady soprano), and pisstake song titles (the EP starts with "Boby Vampire Made Me" and "Wanna Be A Vampire Too, Baby"). She's also an astonishingly original and creative guitarist, fading slowly stringbending lead lines into jets of feedback and back into long-held droning, buzzing chords and scraping noises. Best of all, Helium uses quietness and silence as musical tools, even at its loudest—there are wide-open spaces in every song's texture, and there's always the implication that no matter how much firepower Helium is using, there's more it's holding in reserve. Late in the EP, there's some mysterious, seductive tape-play, too. All seven tracks are excellent, but listening to "XXX," in particular, is like sucking in the contents of the highest balloon in the room. —Douglas Wolk

ARCHERS OF LOAF The Results After The Loafs Revenge (7") (Merge, P.O. Box 1235, Chapel Hill, NC 27514/919-929-0711)—Once the buzz began about Chapel Hill, labels rushed to this sleepy Southern college town signing every Saturday night pick-up band in the area and occasionally stumbling on a real find like the Archers Of Loaf. Now after an accomplished full-length debut on Alias, the Archers Of Loaf pay homage to their hometown roots with a single on their local indie label. The Results consists of two cuts that surpass the majority of songs on Icky Mettle. "What Did You Expect" is classic punk rock, dissonant and scratchy, but with a melodic sing-along chorus. The B-side tribute to diva "Ethel Merman" uses the guitar hooks to keep the listener's mind focused. —Dawn Sutter

VARIOUS ARTISTS Straight From Da Streets: Vol. 1 (Priority, 6430 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028/213-467-0151)—Nowadays, the best compilation albums come as a vehicle to support and raise money for a greater cause (No Alternative, Born To Choose, In Defense Of Animals). While the media continues to attack rap music and its social relevance, Straight From Da Streets shows that hip-hop is not all about violence and the almighty buck. Demonstrating its charitable and rarely heralded capabilities, Priority and KPWR/Power 106 spearheaded this benefit disc. Its net proceeds will go to the Knowledge Is Power Fund, which is helping to build a performing arts center and training complex for underprivileged youths. The album's a hit-infested collection of some of the most memorable hip-hop tracks from the past few years, including the crossover party-anthems "Dazzy Duzs" by Duice and Tag Team's "Whoopl! (There It Is)." After bouncing through cuts by House Of Pain ("Jump Around"), Paperboy ("The Ditty"), Ice Cube ("It Was A Good Day") and Digable Planets ("Rebirth Of Slick"), the album uncovers a previously unreleased live version of "One Nation Under A Groove" by Funkadelic with George Clinton. —Glen Sansone

AMPERSANDS "Postcards" (7") (Harriet, P.O. Box 649, Cambridge, MA 02238/617-666-4007)—The Ampersands are another Australian band in the fine tradition of pop combos like the Cannanes and the Go-Betweens, whose lilt-ing sounds are more akin to New Zealand's output than their native land's better-known big rock sounds. The band seems to rush through "Postcards," as Maria Poletti hurries to squeeze in each word of her lyric before the last frenzied drum beat. A more relaxed mood permeates "Dull Light," its ringing acoustic guitars and soft, loping bassline linking it to the pastoral sounds of the Bats. "8826," the sole cut featuring the vocals of guitarist Darren O'Shannassy, falls somewhere in between: loftier than "Postcards" but more sullen than "Dull Light," and its lyrical aside to Aussie swamp legends the Scientists is at once humorous and ironic. —Lydia Anderson

MAN OR ASTRO-MAN? Mission Into Chaos! (7" EP) (One Louder (UK), P.O. Box 1NW5, Newcastle-Upon-Tyne NE99 1NW, England)—The Alabaman surf boys of Man Or Astro-man? have quite a bit of research time on hand, enough to write a soundtrack to the long-lost film Mission Into Chaos, a film which the band has not even seen in its entirety. Recording the soundtrack for a film with a sci-fi/espionage plot is more than appropriate for the band's Ventures-on-Mars sound. Letting its imagination rage, MOAM has developed five instrumental songs to set the mood, if ever the film should be discovered. —Dawn Sutter

SPACE STREAKINGS Space Streakings (7" EP) (Skin Graft, P.O. Box 257546, Chicago, IL 60625/312-404-8624)—Call it whatever you want—"noise-core," "art-core" or just "the strangest sounds ever produced by human beings"—the steady proliferation of Japanese recordings into this country is forcing everyone to redefine the kind of music they expect to erupt from typical rock instruments. Recorded with K.K. Null of Zeni Geva, "Sexual Aesthetic Salon After School" (which includes a band-designed comic book) further illustrates the Japanese aesthetic allowing for an utterly chaotic melting pot of hyper-active guitar drilling, grating screams and numbing reverberations to form a cohesive blast of sound. While somewhat alien to American ears, Space Streakings' inventive tangle is ultimately heavier than most stateside hybrids existing today. —Colin Helms

MILKMINNE SuperM (7") (Choke Inc., 1376 W. Grand, Chicago, IL 60622/312-226-9477)—Who says you need guitars to rock? Not Milkmine, the bass-bass-drums trio behind this ferocious, meaty single. Both "Skelch" and its 5/8-time flipside, "Split Tail," pound like a herd of low-end elephants; they also both have (mostly unintelligible) lyrics about homophobia. The superdistorted vocals and bear-down drumming bring to mind early Scratch Acid; the lyrics to "Skelch" have an Albini-esque black wit to them. Mostly, though, the vocals work as the sole treble instrument, scraping and razzing like a rusted sheet of metal and providing a free counterpoint to Jay Wilson and Jon Nash's lockstep bass riffs. —Douglas Wolk

HAFLER TRIO Four Ways Of Saying Five (Kut, c/o Soleilmoon, P.O. Box 83296, Portland, OR 97283/503-621-3202)—In a career filled with strange records, the Hafler Trio's new album is one of its strangest. The first 2/3 of the disc is the previously issued "Three Ways Of Saying Two," a series of extracts from lectures with ambient industrial noise (jackhammers, engines, other machinery, all recorded from far away) laid over them. The other piece is "The Butcher's Block," a new 20-minute collage of bits of Hafler Trio performances. "Performances" here is used very loosely: some of these sounds seem to have been constructed intentionally, others are found noise, and many blur the distinction. "The Butcher's Block" is quiet and free of rhythmic or melodic motion enough that it could be called "ambient," but not in the usual sense of something that fits in with the listening environment. Rather, it creates a sense of disjunction in any setting normally reserved for music. —Douglas Wolk

Chart information is based on combined airplay at reporting commercial and college/noncommercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point-to-point tabulations from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). ▲ indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5 equal or upward position. #6-10 increase of at least 1. #11-20 increase of 2 or more. #21-30 3 or more. # CMJ RADIO TOP 150

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/noncommercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). BOLD indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5 equal or upward position #6-10: increase of at least 1 #11-20: increase of 2 or more #21-30: 3 or more. PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

CHART FOCUS

RICHARD THOMPSON

Rock critics have long considered Richard Thompson a folk/blues/rock master storyteller, in the same league as more widely known artists like Bob Dylan. Thompson has been spinning tales for almost three decades now, both with the Fairport Convention and as a solo artist, and his latest effort, Mirror Blue, is yet another emotional, character-laden triumph. The album features Thompson's direct language surround by his stirring guitar playing and his signature heart-rending folk ballads. Programmers are looking into the Mirror, helping the album jump 105-50 in its second week on the chart, with the West regional leading the pack with its #24 charting. Of the 462 top 35 reports this week, 53 chart Mirror Blue, led by top five reports from KALA, KAZU, KBUT, KRCC, KRVS, KUNI (#1), KVMR (#1), KVSC, WHRV (#1), WLFM, WMBR, WRSI, WUSB and WWUH.

PROGRESSIVE RETAIL

Chart compiled by Dawn Sutter

ON THE CHART

The upsets continue this week as Atlantic's Tori Amos shoots straight up 31-1, knocking Columbia's Alice In Chains (1-2) out of the coveted spot. The top 10 also gets jostled by two debuts from the Warners camp: 4AD-Sire/Reprise's Kristin Hersh (#4) and Reprise's Green Day (#7). Bongload-DGC's Beck squeezes in at #10, jumping up from last week's #15 position.

Most records on the chart move up or down this week, leaving little room for those wishing to linger. Gaining ground this week: Arista's Crash Test Dummies (18-14), Sub Pop's Mark Lanegan (30-19), Rykodisc's Morphine (52-21), Kill Rock Stars' Bratmobile (61-30), Maverick/Sire-WB's Candlebox (38-33), Atlantic's Stone Temple Pilots (44-34), Zoo's Tool (42-38), Radioactive's Dig (58-41) and American-Reprise's Danzig (57-44). This week's re-entries include the full-length LP from Matador's Jon Spencer Blues Explosion (#48), Rocket From The Crypt's compilation album on Headhunter-Cargo (#66) and the import LP from Naked City on Avant (Japan) (#70).

Other new releases selling like hotcakes: the new single from Matador's Pavement (#25; see Retail Focus), the full LP from Atlantic's Jawbox (#26) and Hollywood's Alternative NRG compilation (#42). (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

RETAIL FOCUS

PAVEMENT

Fans have been waiting quite awhile for new material from Pavement, whose landmark Slanted And Enchanted came out two years ago. The immediate popularity of the "Cut Your Hair" single (available in 5", 12" and 7" formats) proves it. A precursor to the band's new album Crooked Rain, Crooked Rain, the single features one track from the LP plus two otherwise unavailable cuts, including a cover of R.E.M.'s "Camera." The band, which might as well have coined the term "slacker rock," has earned quite a bit of praise for Crooked Rain, including spotlight reviews in both Rolling Stone and Spin. The album's release is scheduled for Valentine's Day.

BITES O' THE APPLE

Quality guitarists, like pianists, are never in short supply in the Big Apple. Every streetcorner, it seems, boasts both a world-class master and an apprenticing master-in-the-making. Among the latter, guitarist PETER BERNSTEIN is making some joyful noises and attracting attention. This New York City native, just 26, has displayed his deft touch and fluid, single-note linear designs in the employ of the organ-immersed combos led by altoman Lou Donaldson and the emerging B3-bigwig Larry Goldings. Bernstein's propitious playing as a sideman on two CDs from Gerry Teekens' splendid Criss Cross label from Holland—trumpeter Brian Lynch's At The Main Event, a quintet/sextet side with organist Mel Rhyne, and Rhyne's own The Legend—has earned him his own shot as a leader on Criss Cross. That CD, the newly issued Somethin's Burnin', dispenses with swirlin' organ funk without slighting the blues. For this quartet project Bernstein has aligned himself with his like-minded associates from another of his band affiliations, Cobb's Mob: pianist Brad Mehldau, bassist John Webber and Cobb himself, the onetime stickman for Miles Davis and one of the sturdiest swingers in the business. Unlike many nascent leaders who overplay out of eagerness to strut their stuff, Bernstein is confident enough in his own abilities and the artful support of his mates to allow his game plan, as it were, to synchronize organically. Mehldau, in particular, possesses a rhythmical left hand every bit as developed, and as integral to his conception, as his line-playing right. Three of the eight selections on the hour-long Somethin's Burnin' are Bernstein originals, and combined with such interpretations as Tadd Dameron's "On A Misty Night" and Lee Morgan's Latin-laced "Mr. Kenyatta," the CD's overall ensemble ethos compares favorably, a generation apart, with the glorious recordings guitarist Grant Green (one of Bernstein's inspirations) cut with pianist Sonny Clark for Blue Note. (The complete Green-Clark collaborations are available in a highly recommended box set from Mosaic, 35 Melrose Pl., Stamford, CT 06902-7533; write for a free catalogue.) Among Bernstein's self-penned numbers, "Booker's Little Blues," dedicated to the Memphis trumpeter Booker Little (whose brilliant career was tragically cut short in 1961), is especially moving. Criss Cross CDs, unfortunately, can be difficult to find, but better specialty shops usually carry them. They're distributed nationally by Rounder (1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700). Coming off a successful run at the newly opened Iridium jazzspot on 63rd Street in Manhattan, Bernstein brings his axe (and his sidekicks Mehldau and Webber) to Cleopatra's Needle, a club farther uptown, Mar. 18-19...Cleopatra's Needle, incidentally, appears to have weathered successfully the opening-year uncertainties that beset all new jazz clubs in the jazz capital of the world. Under the direction of Tracy McDonough, the Needle has stitched itself a niche as a player's room for both instrumentalists and singers. McDonough, herself, is a jazz singer and frequent

ON THE CHART

JVC's Ernie Watts continues to roll, claiming the #1 position for the second consecutive week, settling down the revolving door that has been the top spot on the jazz chart so far this year. Atlantic's Cyrus Chestnut tries to keep the margin close, jumping 6-2 in his third week, followed closely by Birdology/Verve-PG's McCoy Tyner Big Band, which advances 5-3 in its second week. Making headway in the top 10 are DIW-Columbia's Contemporary Piano Ensemble (16-6) and Chrysalis-ERG's Solsonics (15-10), while DIW-Columbia's James Blood Ulmer comes in as this week's highest debut at #13. Red Baron's Ali Ryerson also makes an entry this week at #25, as Triloka's Hugh Masekela, Verve-PG's Romeo Is Bleeding soundtrack and Axiom-Island's Material wait in the wings. And by the way, we now print 19 reports in the back of the magazine instead of the previous 12. Look for more fun things from the Jazz section in the near future! (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) bandstand presence there. For two Thursdays, Mar. 3 and 10, Cleopatra's welcomes the combo of GIACOMO GATES, a jazz singer strong and clear-voiced and well-versed in the vocalese tradition pioneered by Jon Hendricks and extended by Eddie Jefferson and Mark Murphy. On the basis of an audition tape he's shopping around, this Bridgeport, Connecticut, resident is an obviously talented and well-schooled practitioner of a waning art form. The male jazz-vocal ranks are thinning rapidly (despite the emergence of Kevin Mohogany on Enja), as opposed to their distaff counterparts, and these ears think Gates is eminently worthy of a recording shot...Having walked away with the first prize and 10 grand from the Thelonious Monk International Piano Competition recently, pianist Jacky Terrasson needn't worry about having his name misspelled much longer. (Many label execs are salivating over the prospect of his signature on the dotted line; indeed, word of his signing could come any minute now.) Suddenly, Terrasson is What's New—coincidentally, the title of his debut for the French Jazz aux Remparts label—but his Bud-ding runs and Hancockian flourishes are no secret to insiders well aware of his work on sides by Arthur Taylor's Wailers and altoist Jesse Davis. During Terrasson's week at Bradley's in Gotham (with Ugonna Okehwo and Leon Parker) in mid-January, speculation about the pianist's label affiliation continued to swirl as he regaled jazzbos with his tactile elegance on the keyboard... "Looseness and blowing" were the order of business Jan. 11-16 at the Blue Note as pianist/composer DON GROLNICK premiered his "experimental" Latin-jazz group. Though best known as a sensitive, craftsmanlike pop player/producer with the likes of James Taylor and Paul Simon, Grolnick impressed jazz mavens earlier this decade with his tasty Blue Note albums Weaver Of Dreams and Nighttown. Grolnick's avowed goals with his new band, "to groove" and "to have fun," were realized with help from saxist Mike Brecker, flutist Dave Valentin, vibist Mike Mainieri, bassist Andy Gonzalez and three world-class percussionists (Milton Cardona, Steve Berrios and Don Alias). Here's hoping Blue Note Records, or some other enterprising company, forks over the dough to document this band on CD...For nearly a half-century, Marian McPartland's piano conception has embraced an encyclopedic repertoire, harmonic sophistication and, when necessary, a mean swing-streak. The distinguished McPartland begins a two-week run at a suitably distinguished venue, the Chestnut Room at Tavern on the Green in Central Park, on Mar. 1st. Her long-running Piano Jazz series for National Public Radio has now made its way to compact disc with the release (on Concord's Jazz Alliance subsidiary) of her pas de deux with such immortals as Eubie Blake, Bill Evans and Teddy Wilson. The British-born McPartland's early, formative stylings on the piano are available again on a handful of Savoy CD reissues from Denon.

DOPE!

VARIOUS ARTISTS Giant Steps Volume One (Payday/frr, c/o ILS, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—This compilation, cast in the mythical shadow of New York's ambitious Giant Step gatherings, is a wondrous display of the many sounds and styles that make up street-soul music (a k a acid jazz). A Giant Step event boasts a rare opportunity for musical truthseekers to see how the propagation of boundless musical ideology can come together to work for a common objective—that objective being a new soul created by rethinking jazz, soul and R&B with a groovy, street-funk intellect. Giant Steps Volume One is a gathering of English and American artists who provide a soothing sort of consistency throughout the disc's 11 tracks. Martine Girault's wispy-throated "Revival" sets the collection's generally soft-toned, slow-burning vibe, while Galliano's "Prince Of Peace" (based on a spiritual piece by Pharaoh Sanders) offers rapping, and the pop flavors of Cooly's Hot Box's "Don't Throw My Love Around" are lively and melodic, but equally picturesque and soulful. While Jhelisa's "Sally's Knockin'" is spearheaded by a bigger, techno-funk rhythm (and the often-used drum fill from Michael Jackson's "Rock With You"), the album's most surprising inclusion comes from ex-Jam/Style Council frontman Paul Weller, whose languid, Marvin Gaye-inspired "Above The Clouds" comes from his 1992 self-titled solo album. Also not to be overlooked is poet Dana Bryant's (who can also be heard on Ronny Jordan's "The Jackyl") rewording of Gil Scott-Heron's "The Revolution Will Not Be Televised."

ZHANE Pronounced Jah-Nay (Motown, 6255 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90028)—Last summer while everybody was Whooping it up, the vocal duo known as Zhane served up the sugary-soul single "Hey Mr. D.J." (then part of Flavor Unit's Roll Wit Da Flava compilation), a warm, disco-styled jam produced by Naughty By Nature's Kay Gee with contagious

ON THE CHART

On a week in which every record in the top six has been on the chart for over 10 weeks, Jive's A Tribe Called Quest (1-1) is watching its lead over Loud-RCA's Wu-Tang Clan (2-2) diminish. Even as 70% of releases in the top 10 have spent at least one week at number one or number two, the top 10 remains relatively grid-locked, its only new addition coming from the resurgence of Elektra's Leaders Of The New School (11-9). Further down the chart, we see Columbia's Nas (14-12) continuing his climb, followed by upward swings from Jive's

Casual (23-16), Hoppoh-Columbia's Kurious (22-18) and 4th & B'way/Gee Street-ILS's Doug E. Fresh (31-20). Debuts come in this week from LaFace-Arista's Outkast (#29), Delicious Vinyl-EastWest America's Born Jamericans (#31), Jive's R. Kelly (#34) and Mercury's Yaggu Front (#36). This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Wu-Tang Clan; 2) Gang Starr; 3) Das EFX; 4) A Tribe Called Quest; 5) Kurious; 6) DFC; 7) Down South; 8) Ice Cube; 9) Casual; 10) Raw Fusion. (BEAT BOX REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

hip-hop undertones. Renee Neufville and Jean Norris' debut Pronounced Jah-Nay apprises listeners of their jazz vocal roots and piano training while maintaining a steady stream of nourishing soul, jazz and hip-hop fusions that warmly embrace the urge to move your body. The key here is simplicity. The songs develop an attraction because of their lush vocal waves and plateaus, flattered by gentle arrangements on the beautiful "Love Me Today" and "For A Reason," whose lyrics are pensive and mournful, and whose aural pictures are as pristine as a cool, misty morning. Like many dancefloor ballads of the '70s and '80s, Zhane's intertwined vocals are drenched in a spinning disco ball of light on cuts like "Sweet Taste Of Love" and "Changes," while the lively hip-hop/soul solidifies the second single, "Groove Thang." Inspired stylistically by jazz and soul singers (much like Des'Ree), Zhane's new ultra-hip hybrid of beat-oriented soul with just enough hip-hop and jazz peppering will undoubtedly earn a wide variety of fans. Groove to: "Vibe," "You're Sorry Now," "Off My Mind" and "La, La, La."

DEF12

BRAND NEW HEAVIES "Dream On Dreamer" [100 BPM] (Delicious Vinyl, c/o EastWest America, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—Bringing back the steaming live funk is England's Brand New Heavies featuring N'Dea Davenport. The Heavies were one of the first groups to fine tune American ears to the funky ways of acid jazz on their 1991 self-titled debut. With the release of Heavy Rhyme Experience Vol. 1, they also coupled their live sound with the rapping of some of hip-hop's biggest names for a truly groundbreaking event. The group's sophomore effort, Brother Sister, faces some potentially sharp criticism now that acid jazz has slowly built a strong reputation. The first single, "Dream On Dreamer," appears on this double 12" set featuring remixes by Dallas Austin, the club-oriented David Morales and the Angel. The Heavies build upon their own sun-burned funk with "Dream On Dreamer" (caressed by N'Dea's sing-along chorus), showing there's no doubt that this Landon-based crew is shattering any chance of a jinx. Be sure to check side six, which features the barn-burner "Snake Hips," an infectiously chunky slab of fire-breathing, instrumental funk.

HANGIN' WIT... TOO $HORT

Todd Shaw on Too $hort...

I'm not surprised how much he's taken off, I purposely planned everything I did. I thought it out and put it all on paper. It's that "bad" thing. Everybody always likes that "bad" thing. Drugs, violence, whatever, that's why there's so much violence on TV and in the movies, you know what I mean? It's the same reason why Richard Pryor was successful, and people like Eddie Murphy. I could be the type of person where every time I have to do an interview or take a picture, I feel I need to look like a pimp or act like a pimp, or something like that. But I can do interviews with you, and you could ask me questions and I'll give you answers like, 'Yeah, man, fuck a bitch'—but that's not really me. Every time I've done an interview in all these years, I've always been myself when asked questions about me—I never play the character, I would never front. For the six years that I've been on Jive Records, and out of all the shit I've done and said and been into, the media always seems to skip me. I'm not the controversial artist, y'know? I didn't quit my group, or get involved in any shootings, or all that stuff. I get phone calls asking what I feel about violence in rap. And, y'know, there's violence in the streets, so why wouldn't it be in rap? Rap is about everything.

On the use of the word "bitch"...

Being that you've got a lot of people conscious right now about this whole degrading women thing going on, and they're trying to be against it so strongly, sometimes when people ask me, they expect me to give [I guess] some "I'm sorry" explanation—I don't know. If you ask me, ask me as a person, you can't ask me as a character. As a person, I'm not even like that so it doesn't even bother me. I don't treat my family like that and I don't treat my women like that, at all. I like to think of my music as ego-strokin' for the male ego.

ON THE CHART

Fresh off a performance at the American Music Awards, Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Snoop Doggy Dogg (1-1) remains top dog, while Priority's Ice Cube (2-2) and Loud-RCA's Wu-Tang Clan (3-3) remain runners up for another week. Buzz groups Salt-N-Pepa (5-4) and Jive's A Tribe Called Quest (6-5) make modest gains, while Columbia's Nas (16-12) seems destined for the top 10. This week we welcome

Mercury's Yaggu Front, the chart's only debut, which enters "Action Packed Adventure!" at #20. Making re-entries this week are Ruthless-Relativity's MC Ren (#18), Tommy Boy's De La Soul (#21), Jive's Souls Of Mischief (#24) and Rap-A-Lot-Priority's Scarface (#25). ### The Too $hort plan...

I got two more album to go on my contract. After I make these two albums, I'll probably try and put all the major stuff from Jive on just Too $hort's greatest hits—and throw on some new songs, you know how they do it. You get a Too $hort album later on this year in '94, you get one in '95, and then in '96 we come out with the greatest hits, and I'll just tip my hat to every fan who ever bought a Too $hort tape and then put the mic down, y'know? Then I'll be Todd Shaw the executive, and they'll say here's Todd Shaw the executive, he used to be Too $hort. I'll just run my company [Dangerous Music].

What do you do with all that money?

At the present moment, everything I did in the past was just stick all my money right back into the company. I mean I've got my goodies out of it, have to do that first of all. You gotta go crazy on the jewelry and cars before you realize the shit ain't worth nothing. What's on my mind now is laying some sort of foundation so that Dangerous Music will always be and we won't fade away after Too $hort.

HUGH MASEKELA Hope (Triloka, 1327 Electric Ave., Venice, CA 90291/310-392-5058)—Perhaps the best known champion of the music of South Africa, Hugh Masekela has spent his entire career trying to find a meeting between the popular music of America and the local sounds of his homeland. Since 1968, when he recorded his first hit song, "Grazin' In The Grass" (not too long after "Wimoweh" become perhaps the first "world beat" pop record), he has wielded his horn in defense of the music and the people of the Horn of Africa. Hope is a greatest hits collection of a sort, with all new recordings of his best-known or favorite songs from the last 30 or more years. And most of them exceed their original recordings in both energy, honesty and roots. The current ensemble is one of his best ever, with special note going to the guitar work of Lawrence Matshiza and the bass of Bhatiki Kumalo, both of whom lend these songs the funk and rawness they have always deserved. "Grazin' In The Grass" is as sweet as ever, Miriam Makeba's "Abangoma" is stark and beautiful, and the blend of Harlem and Soweto in "Uptownship" is one of Masekela's best moments on record.

RENÉ MARINO RIVERO Bandoneon Pure: Dances Of Uruguay (Smithsonian/Folkways, Office Of Folklife Programs, 955 L'Enfant Plaza, Ste. 2600, Washington, DC 20560/202-387-3262)—When a recording like this comes along I just have to listen in awe. Here is a magnificent record of a solo artist from Uruguay, a master craftsman with the soul of a poet. He plays the bandoneon ("the breathing box"), the German-designed, free-reed instrument made famous by the tango artists of Argentina. Unlike the more popular Piazzolla, Rivero is devoted to the rural style, playing tango, waltz, polka and milonga with a simplicity that only the most absorbing player can turn into a thing of rare grace. Rivero's repertoire includes old folk music, early theater pieces and modern compositions. There is no flash, no fusion, no references to jazz, pop or world beat. It is unadorned by technology, unmarred by cleverness.

SHIRIM KLEZMER ORCHESTRA Naftule's Dream (Northeastern, P.O. 3589, Saxonville, MA 01701-0605/508-820-4440)—Here is the new wave of klezmer, both true to the tradition of Yiddish theater and wildly innovative. The title track says it all, starting out in serene, mystical solo clarinet, then thrashing through a warp-speed dance, falling slowly into a jazzy improv before exploding in tonal fireworks. The group is marvelous and the lead vocals of Betty Silberman are lovely and urgent.

D'CUCKOO Umoja (RGB, P.O. Box 31321, San Francisco, CA 94131)—This California trio of women is searching out the cutting edge of world beat. When the women succeed, they are energizing and inventive. When they fail, they are techno-trivial. The album is an even split of the two,

ON THE CHART

In a surprising jump back into the limelight, RealWorld-Caroline's Hassan Hakmoun And Zahar reclaim the #1 slot after idling at #4 last week. Meanwhile, Heartbeat's vintage compilation from the Starlights inches up 6-2, supplanting both Mango-Island's massive Tougher Than Tough compilation (2-3), RealWorld-Caroline's Geoffrey Oryema (5-4) and the Wailers on RAS (1-5). Here are some other bold names on the chart: Shanachie's Huun-Huur-Tu, the incredible vocalists of Tuva (#13 debut); World Circuit-Rounder's Oumou Sangare (21-14); Triloka's Hugh Masekela (#17 debut) and Rai superstar Khaled (#18 debut), out now on Mango-Island. Pausing for breath, we also note the following debuts in the lower registers of the chart, both on the Green Linnet label: Ad Vienne Que Pourra (#22) and JPP (#24). As always, be sure and specify title and label for all records you report, and only report whole albums whenever applicable, not just the current single being promoted to radio. with some songs fresh, politically astute and rhythmic, while others are steeped in too many cute electronic ideas that drown out the voices and the soul of the songs. This is a bond of great musicians and writers who would do well to spend less time talking to the techies at Kurweil and E-Mu and concentrate instead on the music they are clearly capable of making.

PLANETARY SOUNDSCAPES

Music Of Japanese People (King (Japan), c/o Koch International, 177 Cantiague Rock Road, Westbury, New York 11509/516-938-8080) is another series from the seemingly bottomless well of the King Records' catalog, which continues to find its way to America through Koch International. This series features the music of King's own country, Japan. Music Of Okinawa includes the omnipresent Sadao Chino, master singer and sanshien player, along with less well known but equally great performers, such as Masao Shimabukuro. These performers are also represented on Music Of Amami, which traces the roots of these small Japanese islands. Particularly wonderful on this set are the vocal duets and solos by Shunzo Tsukiji and Rika Kamimura.

Soundscapes Of Japan is unusual. It is a recording of "the seasonal sounds of downtown Tokyo" that includes the natural and man-made ambiance of birds, water, street carts and cars, as well as the singers, musicians and story-tellers who populate the streets of the city.

If a more contemporary approach is what you want, you can get a certain feel for the ambiance of Japan in the acoustic/electronic fusions of HAROUMI HOSONO, long acknowledged as one of the country's shining lights of new music. Medicine Compilation From The Quiet Lodge (Tristar Music, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211) features collaborations with a number of internationally known artists including Laraaji, Rincken Teruya and Akiko Yano (although you'll be hard pressed to tell who did what on this completely un-annotated album). "Mabui Dance" is a melding of Okinawan sanshien and voice with slow, intense electronics. The whole collection travels through funk, jazz, new age and ambient. Haroumi Hosono's minimal, terse compositions were made for this kind of cross pollination, and each one stands out as singular.

Of course, at the root of all this "ambient" music of the '90s is the "new" music movement of the '50s, ▶

'60s and '70s, and specifically the work of PHILIP GLASS. His fusion of East, West and the totally new has inspired artists from all areas of the music world. There is hardly a genre that doesn't owe something to his creative force. Two recent releases from Elektra (75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019) highlight his music, new and old. Music For Changing Parts is one of his most obscure, and most interesting recordings. Released and then almost immediately deleted in the early '70s, it has been one of those rarities sought out by his fans for two decades. My cheaply taped copy is so worn out that I had forgotten what the work originally sounded like until this CD came in the mail. This single one-hour performance is so powerful it denies an adequate description. The Glass ensemble at that time was a picture of creative harmony, and its work on this piece is still one of precision, control and creative wonder as the group swirls together reeds, horns, electronics and strings in a cascade of sound. Hydrogen Jukebox is a collaboration between Glass and poet ALLEN GINSBERG. Taking various pieces from Ginsberg's prodigious catalog, Glass has scored an opera for electronics, chamber orchestra and voices, with frequent appearances by Ginsberg reading his own work. Central to the piece is one of Ginsberg's great poems, "Witchita Vortex Sutra." Reaching into the Vietnam era and contrasting it with the confused international politics of today, the two have created a nuclear broadcast that blasts the world's idiot leaders and praises the human spirit. The musical setting is one of strength.

Yet it also has moments of gentle rhythms and sweetness. Perhaps these are its finest moments. To quote Phil Ochs many years ago, "In such ugly times, the only true protest is beauty."

JEFF BUCKLEY's debut EP, recorded Live At Siné (Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211) is one of those promising little records one gets to hear rarely. Buckley and his electric guitar clearly held his audience in rapt attention, and both his songwriting and performance have an unrefined charm. His 10-minute interpretation of "The Way Young Lovers Do" is worth a whole album. Let's hope some major-label producer doesn't lose sight of all this when they roll 24 tracks.

Peace.

Reggae Route

Reviews by James Lien/Ah-So-Me Chat by The Night Nurse, Amy Watchel

CRUCIAL!

VARIOUS ARTISTS Big Blunts: A Collection Of Classic Reggae Weed Anthems (Tommy Boy, 902 Broadway, 13th Fl., New York, NY 10010/212-388-8300)—It was only a matter of time before Cypress Hill's sample of Rita Marley led to a reawakening of interest in reggae amongst cheeba-conscious hip-hoppers and younger fans. So the reggae compilation phenomenon has now discovered a new purpose, as Big Blunts compiles together some of the biggest and baddest hemp-positive songs, creating one of the ultimate party records of the year. While most of today's audience will no doubt dig the DJ Muggs-produced remix of "Under Mi Sleng Teng," one of the all-time great herb anthems (which also appears in its original form), this CD also presents some great vintage reggae, like the deep beats of Lone Ranger's "Jamaican Weed," and U Roy's immortal "Chalice In The Palace," which postulates a hypothetical toké session between the legendary reggae toaster and the Queen of England. While the concept of herb as a marketing craze and fashion accoutrement for an American audience may be an ironic far cry from its original role as holy sacrament in Rastafarianism, any chance for straight-up positive reggae to penetrate the public consciousness in this day and age is more than welcome. Light up to: Tony Rebel's "The Herb," Barrington Levy's "Under Mi Sensi" and the immortal "Pass The Kutchie" by the Mighty Diamonds.

WAILERS The Never Ending Wailers (RAS, P.O. Box 42517, Washington, DC 20015/301-588-9641)—Well, I was trying to take Bunny Wailer's advice and "Just Be Nice" by not saying anything, but when this record shot to #1 on the chart, I realized that it couldn't be ignored. CMJ columnist Cliff Furnald has dubbed it "necro-reggae," and it isn't really clear exactly what the goal of this recording is. New instruments and vocals have been dubbed onto finished Bob Marley/Wailers tracks circa '70 to create something that's new, but frankly, it really isn't any better for all the sweetening. It reminds this reviewer of the treatment of Sly & The Family Stone at the hands of disco producers on the infamously bad disco-remix album Ten Years Too Soon from the late '70s. In truth, The Never Ending Wailers isn't bad—to actually mess up a Bob Marley track would be an extremely difficult task indeed—but unfortunately, the results are so uninspiring that they almost manage to insult the names and the memory of some of the great music of our era. Unlike many, I am not a blindly reverent Marley worshipper, and I'm as open to new things as the next guy, but there is the smack of sacrilege about this release: in musical terms, overdubbing onto Bob Marley is not too far removed from adding books to the Old Testament or adding a few more notes to a Mozart sonata. It also reeks a little bit of opportunism, which recently inspired close friends of the late John Lennon to auction off articles of his clothing at outrageous prices. The problem lies perhaps at least partially in Marley's huge success, and the eagerness of his fans, who want to hear anything more from the great departed master. This ardent enthusiasm is only matched by the eagerness of certain individuals to fill the void of that yearning; hence no Crucial! stamp of approval on this admittedly high-charting, top-selling release. Frankly, I've never understood or tolerated any attempt to add musically to the canon of someone who's no longer living, whether it's this record, or the heavily-overdubbed Jimi Hendrix albums from the '70s, or even the smash hit duet by Natalie Cole with her dad. I'd rather hear the unfinished, unpolished original, than something else with electro-drums and effects attached later, even if in this case they are from Sly & Robbie. It just doesn't work, because the person involved at the point of creation isn't there to say "I want it done this way." If it doesn't come from the living man, it should not have his name attached.

TALKIN' BLUES (AND REGGAE TOO)

Though I'm usually not a fan of using this page for shoutouts to people out there in readerland, I would like to extend a big up to reggae director Bobby Comstock from WVBR in Ithaca, NY. He recently wrote in to the Dialogue section in the back of this magazine, and I would like to take a moment to encourage any other reggae directors out there who feel they have something to say to write in as well. The Dialogue section belongs to everybody—Reggae, RPM, Beat Box, Jazz—and whatever your job description or tastes in music may be, it's a forum for you to communicate and get the word out to others who may think and hear things the way you do. In the words of soul legend Charles Wright, "Express Yourself!" For more details, see the instructions at the beginning of the Dialogue section on page 61 in the back of this magazine.

TRAX BEYOND SUBCONSCIOUS

TRAX BEYOND SUBCONSCIOUS Vol. II (EP) (Labworks, Gaustraße 36, 55116 Mainz, Germany/06131-237557)—With last year's breathtaking Labwork EP, Patrick Sjerén, from the Swedish town of Malmo, established himself as a true electronic dance visionary. He utilized those techno tools-of-the-trade, namely the Roland 303 and 909, in a manner that highlighted the emotive power of the genre. He constructs vast landscapes of glacial majesty, hemmed in by contemplative strings and raging acid basslines. A tape of Sjerén's unreleased material that found its way into my hands last year demonstrated that he is an artist of mammoth talent. But nothing prepared me for the track "Oceanic" on his latest record. Opening with a characteristic minor-key, longing synth sequence and bass squelches, this barnburner suddenly erupts into an unremitting electronic mayhem while retaining a clean, spacious texture. At moments, "Oceanic" is reminiscent of C.J. Bolland's earlier Rave Signal EPs (which don't sound a bit dated to this day), its odd juxtaposition of rage and longing welded to a pile-driving rhythm. While the other tracks here are worthy of investigation, "Oceanic" is a true analog masterpiece. A few more like this, Sjerén, and those other techno producers will just have to pack up their bags and forget it.

CHICAGO REDUX

After waxing lyrical last week about the Chicago house resurgence, here comes another gorgeous song to boost the revival. AARON SMITH's U Hot Me Going Around (EP) is an aching jewel of a house record. With consummate production by the inimitable Terry Hunter and the stirring vocals of Smith, this tune will be stuck in your head for days. The long, winding "UBQ Underground" mix wastes nary a minute in developing the sonic themes of the record, which are supported by an insistent keyboard hook and rolling percussion. With the recent Georgie Porgie single, the Vibe stable is proving itself a force to be watched in the Chicago scene (Vibe, 2566 W. Argyle, Chicago, IL 60625/312-271-9924)...We're always waiting for new Chicago dance indies, so with the arrival of the first single on Swing Street, the wait is ended. The Perfect Love EP by DOOBLE DUBZ is a cleanly sampled nail-biter not dissimilar to the recent "All Right Now" by Ralph Rosario. The "Perfect Love" dub is rent with sharp vocal snippets with the occasional Hammond blast to jolt you into action. "Just A Thought" has a softer groove which really ignites once the keyboards kick in. This is an auspicious debut single (Swing Street/312-829-0293)...When a neat four-track EP emerged from the consistently excellent ACV organization in Rome, I wondered as to the identity of the record's author, Rob Woods. Well, it turns out this is ROBERT ARMANI at his finest. If you think he can't create punchy sample house, a listen to this

ON THE CHART

The U.S. major-label debut from Richard James (a.k.a. the Aphex Twin) climbs to #1 this week, and who could be surprised that Island Red-ILS's domestic issue of the Orb's double-CD extravaganza Live '93 would be this week's highest new entry at #16. The deep, experimental soundscapes of Autechre debuts at #18, part of Wax Trax!-TVT's Artificial Intelligence series, while NovaMute's

Version 1.1 compilation jumps 10 places this week (17-7). Experimental techno still dominates the top 25, with nary a house record in sight. Bubbling just below the printed chart are dozens of indie dance records. The labels who should be most delighted with this week's chart are ffrr/ILS, with four entries, and NovaMute, also with four. (RPM REPORTERS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) will prove you wrong. While Armani's known for his stripped-down tech tracks, "Get Into This Groove" combines minimalist texture with a house floor groove. The flip's "Roul" is classic Armani with a vicious snare track (Blue Village, c/o ACV, Via A. Coppi 4/c (A), 00179 Rome, Italy/06-7806466)...From the school of Armani asceticism comes the hollowed grooves of the DJ Funk EP. I wish an EP like this would come out every week and get mailed to all the RPM reporters so everyone could witness the glory of the Chicago instrumental underground. "House The Groove" is about as minimally charged as you're gonna get, with a percolating keyboard and a percussive charge that would fell a tree. We need, in the words of The Andrea True Connection, "more, more, more" of this sort of record (Dance Mania, c/o Barney's, 3400 W. Ogden, Chicago, IL 60623/312-521-6300).

MORE MINIMALISM

The ingenious Tim Van Leyden (a.k.a. Like A Tim) has been wowing acid fanatics since his first EP on the See Saw label two years ago. Back with a fifth deranged project, the Freak Funk EP, perhaps his best since the first, Van Leyden whips up a firestorm of cut and scratch 909 ripsaw tracks in a Chicago style. The peculiar "Bagpipe" features a relentless analog drum program with a splintered bagpipe sound punctuating the groove. "Leather Jacket" has more of the high-velocity high hat and sudden keyboard bolts appearing from nowhere (Djax, P.O. Box 2408, 5600 CK Eindhoven, Netherlands/040-450434).

FLORIDA REDUX

If you're not yet convinced that Southern Florida has become a house hotbed in the last year, three new records ought to do it. From the ever reliable Nelson "Paradise" Roman and Ed Goltsmann comes the storming Tracking Classics EP by PARADISE PRESENTS. These two are garage fanatics of a higher order than you and me, and their way around a rolling bassline is well documented on vinyl. The jumping "Jungle Beat" has the sort of percussive complexity that earns this label much respect from the hardcore, while "Bad Boys" has a trickling rhythm that won't go away (Bottom Line, 10202, 284th St. E., Myakka City, FL 34251/813-322-2834).

Tim Haslett, 65 Leighton Road, Wellesley, MA 02181/Voice Mail: 617-764-6741/Fax: 617-237-4730 (8 a.m.-11 p.m. EST only).

WARGASM

Ugly
(Century Media, 1453-A, 14th St. #324, Santa Monica, CA 90404/310-396-0094)—If you're from Boston you're already familiar with Wargasm, the band that used to open for whichever thrash metal outfit was passing through town. At any given show, whether it was Slayer, Megadeth or Overkill, you could count on the 'Gasm to present a blistering set that inevitably concluded with the chant along, "And he/wound up/knee deep/knee deep in blood." Unfortunately, War was declared when the band tried to get out of a contract with its former label, and an ensuing lawsuit rendered the mighty Wargasm impotent, preventing it from releasing any further material. But now that all the nastiness seems to be behind the band, it's time to move on. Ugly leaps right in with "The Rudest Awakening (W.P.A.)," which features some of the fastest double-bass drumming ever, along with fine, speedy riffing. From there, the band drops the tempo and intensity a bit to deliver some classy old-school thrash reminiscent of Exodus, Testament and the rest of the Bay Area bashers. While Ugly includes some top-notch thrash, it's interesting to note that while Wargasm was one of the heaviest outfits back in 1988, it seems a tad delicate and old-fashioned when compared to the likes of Entombed, Carcass, Massacre and Cannibal Corpse. It's not so much a case of the group getting stuck in a time-warp; it's more a matter of a band writing what it knows, adhering to its influences and not being swayed by the trends and pitfalls of the '90s. Drown in the orgasmic blood-rush of "One Man Army," "I Breathe Fire," "Ugly Is To The Bone" and "Slow Burn." —Jon Wiederhorn

STABBING WESTWARD

Ungod
(Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—For a lot of bands, location is of little importance. You can create a stellar grindcore album in England or Switzerland just as easily as you can in Florida or NYC. But for Stabbing Westward, Chicago means a lot more than frigid winters and winning sports teams. Not only does the windy city bring the band closer to its inspirations Ministry, Nine Inch Nails and Big Black, it actually makes the services of its mentors available. Aided by Ministry's Paul Barker, who Stabbing Westward's vocalist Christopher Hall and guitarist Stuart Zechman have played with on other projects, Stabbing Westward taps into a multitude of heavy grooves and treats them with tribal percussion and industrial production tricks, many of which come courtesy of drummer David Suycott, who has toured as a back-up skin-slammer for Die Warzau. If Ungod bears sonic elements in common with Nine

Inch Nails, it's at least partially because the record was produced by John Fryer, who has worked with Trent Reznor. The best thing about Ungod is how organic it sounds. Stabbing Westward views electronics, not as an impervious vehicle of sound, but as a way to enhance and embellish natural musicianship. Ungod is stimulating and ruggedly engaging, tripping the light fantastic while it blows out all the bulbs in the house. Take a Stab at "Ungod," "Lost" and "Control." —Jon Wiederhorn

WHITE TRASH

¿Si O Si, Que?
(Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—A few changes have been made in the White Trash camp since 1991's eponymously titled debut. For starters, the band has traded rhythm sections with fellow blues/funk jammer Hash. Another more notable change comes with the severe scaling down of brass sounds on the band's new record. Only one song on ¿Si O Si, Que? ("Minor Happiness") features any prominent horn arrangements at all (provided by the now aptly monickered "Half-Ass Brass"). While it may be uncommon for a band to completely abandon an aspect of its sound that brought it notoriety, for White Trash, the decision seems to make sense. This is not a band bred for layered arrangements, but rather for clean, slick stretches of brain-scrambling, rock-solid power-jammin'. ¿Si O Si, Que? is meaner and more revealing than White Trash, with high-powered tracks like "Catalepsy" churning forward in ultra-low gear with the needle pinned at 9000. "Got To Get Away" illuminates the band's new rhythm section with thick, speedy basslines that mesh precisely with monstrous percussion. Avoiding the sophomore jinx may not be easy, but White Trash has taken every step possible to do so, evolving into a beast truer to itself than ever. —Aaron Clow

INTRICATE

[va:1]
(Century Media, address above)—Achtung! The Germans are coming, the Germans are coming! Like Panzer tanks in the heart of battle, Intricate lets fly with combative bursts of heavy musical ammunition. Intricate in both name and structure, [va:1] combines a number of styles including, thrash, death, doom and industrial metal into a menacing concoction, but it's the little tricks that make the record stand out. On "Turning," Intricate induces dizziness for the first several measures by shifting a chugging guitar riff back and forth between speakers, and dropping the mood from ragged and bombastic to gothic and acoustic mid-song. And on "Minus," murmuring whispers and soundbites gurgle under a drunken, staggering guitar line. Then there's "To Hell," which starts with a half minute of frontline battle sounds before laying distorted vocals atop a strange, but crushing mix of electric and acoustic guitars. Compressed to the point where the drums sound like gunshots and the bass slides right under the guitars like a parasite on the back of a knife-toothed shark, [va:1] is a tense record that should draw Intricate straight to the maws of those who like their metal sharp and fresh. Drop the bomb on the above, plus "Nothing Ends," "Backwards" and "My Base." —Jon Wiederhorn

VARIOUS ARTISTS

Clusterfuck '93
(Amphetamine Reptile, 2645 First Ave. S., Minneapolis, MN 55408/612-874-7047)—A compilation of Amphetamine Reptile acts Chokebore, Today Is The Day and Guzzard, Clusterfuck '93

quickly dispels the myth that all AmRep bands slam out the same sludge for frustrated art-school dropouts. While they do share some obvious reference points—a relentless rhythm attack, a love of brutal guitar noise and an unrestrained, blind rage that makes them tops among pissed-off maladjusts—the end results reveal immediately discernible differences. With a comparatively clean bass-driven sound, Chokebore provides Clusterfuck's most accessible moments, but it's Minneapolis' Guzzard that has the Argh! office ballin' the jack around the water cooler. Throughout the Guzzard cuts, the ghost of Greg Ginn looms large. The dissonant punk-metal riffing in "Licking The Steeple" betrays a My War-era Black Flag influence, and the instrumental flip-out "Go Carting" wouldn't sound out of place on Gone II. Nashville ghoul Today Is The Day represents what most people probably think of as the quintessential AmRep sound: aggressive and harsh, at once precise and teetering on the brink of falling apart, with vocalist/Minister Of Bad Vibes Steve Austin waging a constant battle to break free from the noise that's burying him. What's he so angry about? We don't know! Surprisingly, the band's "Pipedream Zero," a previously unreleased number, is Clusterfuck's biggest change-up. A quiet, lysergic, somnambulist gem, it provides four minutes of welcome relief before the slaughter resumes. HANDS UP! WHO WANTS TO DIE?! "Last," "Hands And Knees," and "Now I Crawl." —Steve McGuirl

JAWBOX

For Your Own Special Sweetheart
(Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—Hey, what's this doing here? Jawbox isn't metal. In the minds of bitter, straight-edge loyalists, the band isn't really even punk rock now that it has left Dischord for the majors. Yet For Your Own Special Sweetheart features that special mix of angst and aggressive melody that's perfect for those super-rare moments when you just can't take another Earache release. "FF=66" has got to be one of the most nerve-jangling cuts we've heard in weeks, and with Valentine's Day upon us, what better way to spend a romantic evening than wallowing in the confusion of J. Robbins' vocals. Play "Savory," "Cruel Swing" and "Cooling Card." —Jon Wiederhorn

DEMO-LISHED!

SUBMISSION

(Nicole Van Drunen, Tichelstraat 85, 7574 XW Oldenzaal, The Netherlands/5410-30928)—Pardon the pun, but this is one hell of a submission, and without a doubt, the top Demo-lished entry to date. Submission's résumé reads like a row of t-shirts at a Deicide show. Featuring ex-members of Pestilence, Asphyx, Comeon and Sacrosanct, Submission has the background to rip flesh and shatter teeth at warp speed. But rather than aim for sheer sonic oblivion, the band opts for crafty, stomping thrash riffs and tuneful hooks that sever without drawing blood. Sure, vocalist Martin Van Drunen still sounds like he swallowed a hot toaster, but the three songs here are composed with such an awareness of melody and a love for mayhem that they stick to the walls for hours. —Jon Wiederhorn

The highly anticipated debut album featuring "Fathom," "Love Is Dead" and "Is It What You Wanted."

This band is wild, and the variety of different musical styles they incorporate into each song is amazing. To call Greta a thought-provoking and entertaining band is probably an understatement.

Maria "Mom" Abril, Relativity Records, Hollis, NY (718) 217-3636

Our first band release of 1994, the EX-IDOLS, is in your hands now. The EP is Pill Popper and the track you'll definitely want to play is "Social Kill." This band is the '90s answer to Sex Pistols. They're the perfect combo of Sex Pistols, Bad Religion and STP. Ex-Idols are a must. "Social Kill" is a must! A full LP will be released in March. DEATH will be releasing an EP (still untitled) as well as a video for "In Human Form" and another U.S. tour in the Feb./March days. SHOTGUN MESSIAH also have plans to tour again but in the meantime, anyone who wants an interview or IDs, call me. All band members are safe and accounted for post earthquake. New PISS FACTORY approaches. Coming soon: NOISESCAPES, LUCY'S FUR COAT and C.O.C. Words of wisdom...never try to defrost your freezer with a hammer. Peace, love and DEATH. Mom outthere.

Beth Krakower, Mechanic Records, New York, NY (212) 226-7272

In L.A.—earthquake, the east—sub-zero temperatures, the Mechanic offices—floods, TAD's "Leafy Incline" going for adds. Coincidence, I think not. GREEN APPLE QUICK STEP is on tour—call for dates and interviews. Paula Hogan is helping me out with metal calls till our new metal rep is announced—check my Dialogue next week!!

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY (212) 275-2135

Are you sure you're ready to hear this?!? Monster shit is in the works!! Not only are the new BAD RELIGION "American Jesus" and MELVINS "Lizzy" singles ready to slam y'all this very week, but later this month, we've got the new hard rock track from RUSH, "Double Agent," and a mother of a CD compilation from KING'S X...There's more...How about a new PANTERA LP called Far Beyond Driven, featuring the single "I'm Broken" shipping out of 75 Rockefeller on March 4...And how about The Crow soundtrack, featuring HELMET, STP, Pantera, NINE INCH NAILS, RAGE AGAINST THE MACHINE, ROLLINS BAND and more...What about tours?!? How about Rush/Melvins on the West Coast, JAWBOX on the East Coast and King's X in the middle!! Let's all go UNSAFE!!

Paula Hogan, Futurist Records, New York, NY (212) 226-7272

I woke up this morning, on a side not typically known to myself, wondering, 'Why? What? How could this be?' I thought about it seriously, pacing back and forth over morning tea. Suddenly, without a moment's notice, an overwhelming sense of longing took over my very existence, forcing tea to spill all down the front of my R2D2 t-shirt, a keepsake from my youth. Confusion? Dementia... Then it came to me. I began to understand my true calling—radio! So I threw away all the charm, the professional facade to become the real me. That's right—no more nice guy! I'm back and in your face! It may only be a dream, it may only be a day, but rest assured, you will remember what's important. The real deal—play my records! [Side bar: a new metal radio contact will be announced shortly. Stay tuned to a Dialogue near you. You may always contact Beth Krakower with questions. After all—am I real? Somebody pinch me...ouch!]

Matt Young, Earache Records, New York, NY (212) 343-9090

PITCH SHIFTER! The album is Desensitized. The radio track is "Diable." The power is overwhelming! The U.S. tour starts in March. BLOOD FROM THE SOUL is the brilliant chaos that could've only come from the minds of Shane Embury (NAPALM DEATH) and Lou Koller (SICK OF IT ALL). You folks should be playing track two, "The Image And The Helpless." The Benny Hill of Earache is LAWNMOWER DETH. A little sense of humor goes a long way! Try the 1993 version of "Kids In America" or "Buddy Holly." SCORN and OLD deserve another chance. Hey, has Earache ever let you down?! Try track five, "Nothing Hunger," from Scorn and the fifth song, "Happy Tantrum," from Old. MEATHOOK SEED is still rockin'. The video for "Famine Sector" is coming real soon. SLEEP is making big waves too. The tour with Hawkwind is smokin' the States till the end of February, when the band will hook up with a more "metal" tour. My apologies to all the folks in DC and Boston who missed the band. It seems the diaper delivery truck it's touring in doesn't always break down in the town where the show is. Spin track five, "Aquarian." God Bless Earache! 212-DIE-9090.

Jesse Lombardi, Century Media/Lonely Planet, Santa Monica, CA (310) 396-0094

Things are still shaking out here. WARGASM is going for adds Feb. 8. We all know this band from the last couple of Foundation Forums. Listen to "One Man Army," "Dreadnaut Day," and "Blood Flood." This band has earned this chance. Let's pull it together and support it. SPUDMONSTER chips should be on your desk along with the full-length LP titled Stop the Madness. Check out "10 lbs of Shit in a 5 lb bag," "Beer," and "Repo Man." INTRICATE is a very cool cyber-punk record worth checking out. STILLBORN is getting good college response. UNLEASHED should be charting all over college. MERCYLESS and COMECON are holding strong. CHAOS UK is a very cool fucking punk rock/hardcore band. If you are a Sex Pistols or Minor Threat fan, this is a cool refresher for your office. EYEHATEGOD is getting more press than I could ever want. The naked 13-year-old girl is really making a splash, along with several record burnings being held in the bible belt. GRAVE has a very cool EP coming titled And Here I Die Satisfied. Unleashed has a live bootleg from Vienna. Both of these records are limited-edition pressings. Interviews and posters are available for all my acts. DOPE is on the way, so please be patient. Peace-out!

Dyana Kass, Hollywood Records, Burbank, CA (818) 560-5670

The band is ELEVEN, the tour is the opening slot for CANDLEBOX, the new single is "Let Down," the add dates are Feb. 14 and 15, and your obvious duty is to play it 24-7! Get ready people because we will be talking about this band until the cows come home...or until it breaks, whichever comes first!

Jill Castellano, Red Light Records, Des Plaines, IL (708) 297-6538

CMJsters! So much happening! VICTIMS OF INTERNAL DECAY just had their record release party at The NuBone in Portland. Huge success, tons of people, tons of press. Also, since Jeremy from

BROKEN HOPE is sitting here in my office, I would like to extend a big congrats to Broken Hope as well as to PITCH SHIFTER and CROWBAR. Did you know that all three of these bands were on Red Light Records? Glad to know we're doing our job! Hey, also thanks to everyone for heading out to the POST MORTEM shows—you're diggin' it! In February we have a release from COVEN. This band is thrash, and pretty comical! Its lyrics kinda poke fun at satanic death metal. Also in March we have GUTTED and OPPRESSOR. Until next week, call me!

Steve McClure, Leviathan Records, Cincinnati, OH (513) 825-0612

DAVID T. CHASTAIN's Next Planet Please is now available!! If you did not receive a copy, give us a call, as we have only sent this out on a limited basis. This is a progressive rock/hard fusion release and may not appeal to the average fan, but should to the sophisticated listener. In any case, it is an amazing display. As Guitar World recently stated, "As a player Chastain ranks with Steve Morse, Eric Johnson, Joe Satriani and Steve Vai." Not bad company! Open your ears and mind. IMPERIUM is coming soon.

Munsey Ricci, Stateboard Marketing Ltd., Valley Stream, NY (516) 825-5549

I can't believe the response the DIO record has been getting. Everybody loves it to the max. We should be starting telephone interviews in a few weeks, you will have liners too. MOTORHEAD's in your face, so what's up? How can you not love Lemmy. In your CD player or on your knees. MUZZA CHUNKA is on the road with STRIP MIND as we speak. Dig on this record big time, you have a lot of hip tunes to groove with. BLACK SABBATH is on the road and it's coming your way. Don't miss it live. This record has the goods, so do it for prosperity (uh, maybe that's posterity, Munz—ed.). FOR LOVE NOT LISA is out on the road. It is doing some college campuses and clubs, we have tickets. TAD is on your desk, we know how much enthusiasm there is for the band. It's been making great music for years. Sit back and crack a cold one and have a leafy incline. MORBID ANGEL's Covenant is on your desk. The band is on the road with Black Sabbath and Motorhead. Play all these records in heavy. The last command of the week, obey.

Greg Derbas, Pavement Music, Oakbrook Terrace, IL (708) 916-1155

CROWBAR's "Existence Is Punishment"—play it. Just a few last-minute adjustments and you will have Pantera/Crowbar dates in your hand. The guys just got done hangin' with Phil while they shot some live footage for the video to "Existence," and all Phil could say was "This is going to be the best f@!#in' tour of '94'. In the meantime, Crowbar will be passing the time with a monster Paradise Lost tour overseas. Check out DEMENTED TED, you already have the disc and most of you added it. Thanks to all of the first time supporters. As you already know, this band is brutally intense. Just wait till you see their live show. Play my TUNGSTEN record. Phoners are still available. Don't be the last one on this record. Congrats to all of the new players in the metal game.

SINEAD O'CONNOR
"You Made Me The Thief Of Your Heart"
(Island, c/o PLG, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—We don't usually review videos of songs from soundtracks that make extensive use of footage from films, but this one's so well-done we had to make an exception. "You Made Me The Thief Of Your Heart" is from the soundtrack of In The Name Of The Father, and part of the reason the intercutting of scenes from the movie and shots of S(k)in(h)ead is so effective is that Jim Sheridan directed both the film and the video. The highlight is a section in which both the movie's protagonist and O'Connor are being forced to sign some kind of confession form, although hers (subjected to freeze-frame) is some sort of odd poem. There's some clubfisted symbolism (the dead-bird-on-the-table thing signifies either too much or too little), but there's also a real filmic intelligence going on in the way the clip is put together—rich backgrounds and evocative lighting. And O'Connor gets to make use of both her glorious voice and her knack for looking simultaneously like an oracular mystic and a frightened innocent. A project well worth coming out of semi-retirement. —Douglas Wolk ▼

RAGING SLAB
"What Have You Done"
(American, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—With a bellbottom backlash against all things retro descending swiftly upon pop culture, what's a backward-leaning band like Raging Slab to do? Make a video so '70s-looking, it could've been unearthed from a lost Midnight Special vault, that's what. "What Have You Done" is excessive only in its excess, squeezing trucker paraphernalia, black-light posters and three (count 'em) guitar players all playing slide into a low-ceiling, snow-covered shack. Where many videos could wallow in the kitsch of these trappings of '70s pop culture, this clip neither pokes fun at nor pays homage to the folly of the past. No, "What Have You Done" simply rocks as hard as any video you're likely to see before the weather breaks, wrapping its crowded performance footage, shots of white-tailed deer and odd ephemera like musket marksmanship and Donny and Marie posters into a split-screen montage (a la rockumentaries like Woodstock and The Kids Are Alright) that makes "boogie" seem like a modern concept. —Scott Frampton ▼

AFGHAN WHIGS
"Gentlemen"
 (Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—If Afghan Whigs singer Greg Dulli has been cast as a disillusioned ladies' man before, it's for good reason. Fronting the Whigs' churning sound with a sarcastic yet soulful yelp Dulli is an enigma in himself, brazenly declaring his appetite for women while personally unforgiving for his own actions. This paradox manifests itself in the band's videos as well as their music, from the disturbing substance abuse vignette for "Milez Is Dead" to the brutal honesty of their latest album, Gentlemen. This release's second single and video appropriately places Dulli as a bitter voyeur, whose privileged gaze into different fractured relationships only heightens his gnawing desire. With an arrogant swagger Dulli and cohorts perform in a cushy lounge, while the real action takes place in another building across the street. Peering out the window, Dulli glimpses romantic bliss gone awry, the result of seductions that Dulli soon finds too tempting (or aggressive) to resist himself. A constant reminder of the universality of Dulli's enticing predicament (or possibly his surface bravado) are the two alter-egos that pop in and out of his place. Watch this one for yourself to grasp all the fine details and chalk another one up on the Whigs' growing list of potent visual portraits. —Colin Helms ▼

BLUR
"Sunday Sunday"
 (Food/SBK, c/o EMI Records Group, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, 42nd Fl., New York, NY 10104)—The clip for "Sunday Sunday," the second single from Blur's sophomore effort Modern Life Is Rubbish, finds the quartet in all of its wisecracking, smart-alecky glory. On a bright Sunday day, with colors alive and vibrant, the trio documents a typical British day of rest with a decidedly '70s feel, as nothing on this special family day ever changes over the decades. A trailer and picket fence are set up outside a modern glass office complex in an almost surreal fashion. One member of the "family" works out on a precursor to the Thighmaster, a Jack Russell terrier plays in the yard with the football (soccer to us Yanks) and Sunday lunch is prepared in Sunday's best, all winding down to Sunday's afternoon nap. Shades of Madness (who could forget them?) are felt in the speed-framed goofiness of the songs instrumental break, complete with the horns, odd looks at the camera and the lighthearted whims of the band. Social commentary runs throughout Modern Life Is Rubbish, and Blur proves in the video for "Sunday Sunday" that they can humorously poke fun at society while they sharply comment on its shortcomings. —Andy Skibins ▼

DEPECHE MODE
"In Your Room"
 (Sire, c/o Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 90510)—That U2 and Depeche Mode have become decadent new wave remnants is surprising when you consider both bands started with an excess of youthful zeal and naivete. But gradually, through the rigors of life on the road, too much money and a whole generation of kids idolizing one or the other, both bands have achieved the debauched attitude of past warhorses such as the Rolling Stones. Depeche Mode's videos are testimony to its '90s mood, and its latest repeats the others in tone and style. Since all of them are intriguing mini-movies, however, "In Your Room" is no slight; set in a red-curtained room or out on a strip of desert highway (shot in black and white), the members of the band play, images of a very beautiful androgynous person on the highway flash intermittently and in each scene the image of a lightbulb hangs overhead. The song follows the mournful tone of the band's previous single releases, the swell of the synthesizer blast pounding the rhythmic point home. Once again, Depeche Mode has done a superb visual and audio treat. —Megan McLaughlin ▼

COURSE OF EMPIRE

"Infested"
(Zoo, 6363 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028)—Deep from the heart of Texas, Course Of Empire pound out a sound (they have two drummers for that very reason) that is, in a word, intense. "Infested," the lead single from Initiation, is harsh and driving, a sound that gets an added edge from Vaughn Stevenson's distorted voice. The clip features some of the finest computer-generated images in music video. The cold, electronic feel of that digital animation lends an ominous quality as armies of mechanized ants (with glowing red eyes, yikes) march towards destruction. Despite all the technical pageantry that is cross cut with the performance footage, Course Of Empire uses little gadgetry to construct its fierce sound. For those looking for a bit more, there's also a remix version of the video with assorted squawks, bleeps, whistles, drums, new artwork and swing horns added in. The album version should rock hard enough for most, yet the remix is almost better when you factor in the Glen Miller "Sing, Sing, Sing" sample.

GANG STARR

GANG STARR
"Mass Appeal"

(Chrysalis c/o EMI Records Group, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, 42nd floor, New York, NY 10104)—Boasting is as much a part of rap and hip-hop as striped t-shirts and beat-up Fenders are to shoegazing bands. Few, if any, rappers have more right to criticize others while boosting their own image than Gang Starr's Guru (that's Gifted Unlimited Rhymes Universal for the less-than streetwise). The lead track from Gang Starr's new LP, Hard To Earn, is a return for Guru to the smooth style found on Gang Starr's last LP, shelving for the time being classic jazz strains and influences. The video for "Mass Appeal" is far from being in your face; the lyrics and the inimitable work of DJ Premier do the talking. Gang Starr is so cool it doesn't need a video to blow anyone away. The song itself employs only a simple blipping sample to keep the track on track. Guru just lets his rhymes float out effortlessly, letting you know he can't be shaken by trends or tough talk: "So I'm gonna end this lecture, ...those who kick dirt and do time I'm gonna getcha." Earlier on he sums up the mentality of get-in-get-out-with-a-fast-buck-one-rappers with: "You'd do anything to get a record deal, maybe a soul you'd sell to have mass appeal."

RECORD COMPANY

David Weigel, Rust Records, Portland, OR (503) 282-8449

Anxious to follow up the success of their fall 1993 release UNGAWA beepbeep, IN JUNE has set February 21 as the date for the nation-wide release of Melt, a three-song 7". Melt features all new material and will surprise everyone with the added edge to the band's unique sound. Not to digress or anything but, sometimes I feel like Clark Kent; which is not to say that there is any time I feel like Superman but, it's a simple entertainment-type metaphor. All this because I'm a dude in a band acting like a record label dude. I guess I have to play pretend so that it gives me, my band and my record company some "credibility." In reality, it just gives me a hell of a lot more work to do. I have to practice, gig, record, write songs, all while I'm writing these Dialogues, press releases, making promotional calls, etc. I guess I've taken off my little disguise but, like Clark, I'm sure you have always known my true identity. I'd like to take this opportunity to thank all those college radio people who helped up so much on UNGAWA beepbeep. This new 7" is for you.

Brendan P. Coyne, Choke Inc., Chicago, IL (312) 733-7447

MORSEL and MILKMINE are on the way, so you'll be able to check out their full-length efforts at the end of March, so be on the look out. CRAW is still out there, getting some good press, and playing out more and more. As I said before, if you haven't listened to the Craw, then you haven't listened to Craw, but in actuality it would please your ears to do so, and the ears of so many listeners within your broadcasting radius. And if you lined the listeners up end to end, or head to toe (whichever you feel up to), they could possibly stretch from one end here to the back end of there, and let me tell you, that is a lot further than to and fro. Play our stinkin' records.

Chuck and Steph, Bike-riding Crispy Noodles, Virgin Records, New York, NY (212) 586-7700

Our special today: Steph with no Chuck added... We use vegetable oil, no M.S.G. Try our sesame prawns with a side of BEN HARPER. Welcome To The Cruel World will add extra spice to your main dish. We recommend gourmet garden on the special diet menu sprinkled liberally with ENIGMA. Only $8.95 includes The Cross Of Changes. Famous customers SHONEN KNIFE always enjoy shredded pork with szechuan pickled cabbage noodle soup—take out only as they are busy getting ready for tour in spring. Rock Animals are mighty tasty. Come bask in musical ecstasy in our dining room as LENNY KRAVITZ goes "Spinning Around Over You"—don't worry, he wears a hairnet. We are open seven days a week so you have time to see The Piano and hear it too. If you like sesame chicken (we know JOHN HAMMOND does!) then come dine with us... Corporate accounts are welcome.

Amy Siegel, Detour M, Belleville, NJ (201) 759-4881

It's been a couple of months but I'm back—it's taken most of my energy just to keep from freezing here in NYC/NJ, that and digging out from under the load that's been coming down (and the weather's been terrible too). But there's nothing that jump-starts me like a new release—especially when it's as infectiously hooky and upbeat as VALENTINE SMITH! VS overdrives their guitar and violin assault straight to the listener. If you haven't already, you'll hear what I mean in the next week or so...look for Back On Earth to land on your desk. And for your files, a new address for me: 802 Ninth Ave. #3B, NYC, NY 10019, calls at 201-759-4881 or 212-967-7711 ext. 3847 voicemail (or fax me at 212-956-1944).

Pete Rosenblum, EastWest America Records, New York, NY (212) 275-2860

What you should be playing now: great British pop from the DENTISTS, pop punk from the WILDHEARTS and the "I'm Allowed" CD5 from BUFFALO TOM. What you should have real soon: a new PANTERA record to blow your head off (3/14), new rhythms from the BRAND NEW HEAVIES (3/14), and punk rock with violins from the DAMBUILDERS (4/18). Who you should go see on the road: CLUTCH with Sepultura through March 10, Buffalo Tom in smaller markets through March 12 and FOR LOVE NOT LISA hitting the small clubs through March 19.

Matt Griffin, Promotion Coordinator, Tim Kerr Records, Portland, OR (503) 236-0013

Greetings from the "home of Tonya Harding and Sen. Bob Packwood." Being that this is our first Dialogue for '94 I thought it might be a good idea to give an overview of what is going on at "the label with an identity problem." 1993: WILLIAM S. BURROUGHS/KURT COBAIN get college radio airplay and make MTV News. POISON IDEA goes on hiatus, EVERCLEAR tours everywhere and plays Music Marathon, GIFT debuts, we release the first WIPERS album in four years and I get married on Dec. 18 (it's not too late to send a gift—I wanted records but all we got were dishes). 1994: Wipers begin charting all over radioland, Everclear makes the Loud 100, new albums coming down the pike (as in very soon) from ZOOM, SUGARBOOM, CAVEMAN SHOESTORE, Gift, Poison Idea, PETER LAUGHER and ICE CREAM HEADACHE. Call for further information.

Gary Jay, Promo Eskimo/Loretta Windas/Amy Nathanson, AIM Marketing, Old Bridge, NJ (800) 275-0091

Snow, snow, snow, more snow...global warming, my ass. Winter in New Jersey ain't all it's cracked up to be. It's a new year and we've got a new radio promo gal, her name is Amy. Loretta and I are still here, so now we're a three-headed monster, look out! Oh, this is a funny story...The other day I pulled into a 7-11 for a morning cup o' Joe. ▶

NEW MUSIC REPORT 61 FEBRUARY 14, 1994 ©1994

This rather ordinary white Plymouth pulls up next to me. The only out-of-the-ordinary detail was that the radio was cranking out of the car. Louder than loud. Boom! Pearl Jam's "Daughter" blasting to the max. The car stops, and out steps this guy who looked sorta like my grandfather (or anybody's grandfather, for that matter). I thought that was pretty fucking funny, Grandpa's got the Pearl Jam going, he's out cruising for babes...Well, I thought it was funny. Music, you say? We got it...New stuff from THE VELDT, WILDHEARTS, a new 7" from HOPE FACTORY, COURSE OF EMPIRE's grimy Gearhead EP, and coming soon, new MATERIAL ISSUE. Let me repeat Material Issue! Yowza! Give us a call, wabbits. Talk to you soon. P.S. Telly (Kojak) Savalas, R.I.P., who loves ya, baby?

Edie Lundeen, Alternative Radio Promo, Metal Blade Records, Simi Valley, CA (805) 522-9111

Damn! Would the room stop shaking for just a minute so I can write my letter?! Life after the big quake has not quite gotten back to normal. We keep feeling tremors every hour. When I go to sleep at night, it feels like I'm in a sleazy hotel room with those "Massage Beds" (don't ask how I would know how that feels). This is a lot for a girl from Arizona to take. Anyway, we at Metal Blade are just thankful to be alive. Sorry to those of you that tried to reach me during that week. Well, I've been getting ready for the release of one of the greatest bands out of Arizona. Who could this be? BEATS THE HELL OUT OF ME! You all should have it or it will be there soon. If you don't see it around, give me a call! More great stuff on its way soon is GWAR's This Toilet Earth. Also, thanks for the support for the THOUGHT INDUSTRY record. Let's keep it coming. They will be on the road very soon in your area. Stayed tuned. A big hello to my buddy Toby Hood, MCA's new college promo guru! All of you in radioland, don't be too cruel to him. He truly is a nice guy. Take care!

Kerry Murphy, Radio Promo, Slash Records, Los Angeles, CA (213) 937-4660

Those of you who know me know that I am a complete cynic in the light of any kind of stress. Thank your lucky stars that I am, for once, at a loss for words, be they cynical or otherwise. The past week and a half has offered nothing for me to feel at all chatty about. Nothing like a good natural disaster to shut me up. I am, however, finding great joy in the diversion of work. So here I go: FAILURE have a new album coming out on March 8, called Magnified. You'll be getting the pro-CD for "Moth" (the single) around February 8. Love it, worship it, and hope it satiates you until they come through your town (!) during their tour with Tool...Other stuff in the works: LATIN PLAY-BOYS, the project by David and Louis of LOS LOBOS with Mitchell Froom and Tchad Blake, will be landing in your lucky hands around March 1 (release date, March 8). I really can't describe this without making other musical references, so don't ask. All I'll say is that it is nice and eclectic, with a little jazz/blues backbone...Future things: MICHAEL PETAK, L7, stuff I can't really talk about yet and a shortage of Valium in SoCal.

Hey you! By now you should have all received SOULS AT ZERO "Grey World," and for your enjoyment a cover of Bad Brains "I Against I." Check it out. You will love it! If not, call me and tell me I'm wrong (if you dare). OK? OK! Well, gotta catch a bus. XOXO

Lenny Johnson, Fiction Records, New York, NY (212) 489-3717

Tell everyone you heard it here first. The new EAT album, Epicure, is the best of the year, hands down. I know it's a little early in the year to tell, but I want to get my vote in now and have you all tell me how right I am later. The single "Shame" goes to commercial alternative radio on February 15 and Epicure hits the stores on February 22. Check out the cuts "Fecund" and "Bleed Me White"... "Purple Haze," THE CURE's contribution to Stone Free: A Tribute To Jimi Hendrix, is getting great airplay, thank you very much...BLACK HAPPY continues to hit the road, and their album Peghead is doing as well as the Seattle Super Sonics. The single "Shoveljerk" is currently at commercial alternative and is building and building. Check them out live, you won't be disappointed...BLEED's live dates went as planned despite the earthquake. More dates are scheduled for February, so do the right thing and go see Bleed...Did I hear you say "techno?" And you want it heavy? Well, get off your ass and check out PEACE LOVE & PITBULLS. The CD single "Reverberation Nation" continues to make some noise on various alternative dance charts. Tell everyone you heard it here first, part II: Get the Oblivious (Holly Vincent's new band). They're currently on the road with Concrete Blonde, and this album should not be overlooked. (Watch out all you grrrl rockers!)

Edward Brodzky, Radio, Widely Distributed Records, Chicago, IL (312) 465-2558

This is going to be sweet and simple. We are sending out some of the best pop music in the universe (obviously my opinion but hopefully will be yours) from Glasgow's ORCHIDS. The latest album from this 'Sarah' band, Striving For the Lazy Perfection, was produced by One Dove's Ian Carmichael and features him on keyboards, as well as another One Dove on bongos. The album also features a special vocal appearance by a famous TV beauty...This winter/spring, SKULL-FISH CACTUS will be touring the 48 states. While they are bringing their jazzed hard rock to your area, the mailman will deliver (by special delivery to Sue at WRUV) ALGEBRA SUICIDE's "going out in a blaze of glory" final album Tongue Wrestling. The HARVEST MINISTERS send their regards from Dublin, HIP DEEP TRILOGY is busy resting, while GREEN is busy in the studio recording an upcoming album. We also have more 'Sarah' bands up our sleeves and some deliciously fresh bands whose releases will be out in the warmth of spring. Thanks to everyone who played and are still playing, our stuff and to those who were at least honest.

Steven "Mr. Tough" Charles, Two Tough Records, Washington, DC (301) 680-1970

Props to all CMJ affiliated DJ's who made Dancehall Boom Shots a big success. This compilation kicks from start to finish. With big stars like TERROR FABULOUS, CAPLETON, JIGSY KING, JACK RADICS, LEROY SMART and many more chatting on some wicked original styles it lives up to the title, a real Boom Shot. If you haven't gotten your copy yet, it's not too late, just give us a call, and we'll get one out to you pronto. Also new on Two Tough are some hot new 12" selections. Yikes! SNAGA PUSS has arrived and he is tearing up the dancehalls. His latest "Sixty Sexy Girls" is truly massive. Also check out "Hot Stuff" a combination featuring Leroy "The Don" Smart alongside Jiggy King and the sweet "Price of Life" by ADMIRAL TIBETT. How can we top that? Watch us. The long-awaited debut CD from GENERAL T.K. entitled Original Poisonous is slated for an April 4 release, with a single due by the first of March. On a sadder note, I wanna pay respect to Panhead and Dirtsman, two heartical brethren killed in separate incidents on the violent streets of Kingston. Both artists leave behind a wealth of wicked music, beloved families and lots of fans. Also, condolences to the families of Roots

It's pretty funny the way all you so-called college radio music directors think that people tune into radio because they want to be turned on to something new. People listen to the radio because they want to hear something familiar. Rule #1. And kids, the people have spoken. They want to hear PRISONSHAKE. Their new Scat release The Roaring Third delivers the goods, repeatedly. Produced by Andy "The Dictators" Shernoff. If you can spare a bunch of money, go buy GUIDED BY VOICES' new import 7", "Stotic Airplane Jive" (City Slang). These are the secrets to gaining and keeping the kind of listeners your station is looking for. By the way, Scat is releasing GBV's new full-length, Bee Thousand, in a couple of months. In the next few weeks, our busy shipping department will be vomiting forth CDs from JENNYANYKIND on No. 6, and Duluth, MN's exemplars of quietude, LOW, thanks to Vernon Yard. Also find new singles or EPs from KICKING GIANT (K), FORD (No. 6), TINDERSTICKS (No. 6) and FLOPHOUSE (Stickshift). If you're after a more discerning, adult listener, hold out for K's upcoming release of Whirlpool, the third album from SOME VELVET SIDEWALK. Produced with Steve Fisk. Or perhaps you are a Top 40 station—in this case, autoTonic hopes you will find a place for A Day in the Park, a sampler from the Now Sound which includes consistent hitmakers like VERSUS, GRIFTERS, POR-TASTATIC and BLAISE PASCAL. Y'know, the stuff everybody's familiar with.

Sean Salter, Music Director and Client Of The Hair Club For Men, WDCR, Media, PA (215) 359-5358

Hello, and welcome to my 15 minutes of fame! Ya know, this job would almost suck if it weren't for the help of some really cool folks around this country (e.g. Dan "The Man" Jensen at Epic, Seth at Atlantic and Chuck at the Want Adds, just to name a few). These guys made my job a lot easier and got me some really great comps, SIDs and, of course, music. So, I would like to extend a Laurel and Hardy handshake to these fine gentlemen. As for the rest of 1993, the new bands are in orbit, and I don't think they're gonna land. My best of '93: MACHINES OF LOVING GRACE, POS-SUM DIXON, STABBING WESTWARD, EVE'S PLUM, the ROSE CHRONICLES and SUNSHOT. There's more, but I've only got seven and a half minutes left. 1994 looks like it's gonna be a hell of a year for new music. So, for those of you who have never heard of our microwave oven radio station (we're slightly bigger than a toaster), have your people call my people and we'll have a politically incorrect lunch, where I will lick your toes for new music. Anyway, have a great '94 and remember three very important things: never inflate a football over 13 psi, the moon of Phoebe revolves around Saturn every 9,755.679 hours, and never, ever roll naked in a patch of poison ivy! See 'ya!

Richard J. Liversedge, MD, KSJS, San Jose, CA (408) 924-4547

Month after month of listening to hundreds of different pieces of music can make one feel like an automaton. However, every so often something will travel through my ears causing me to grin brightly. The most recent band to cause a smile is RED NO. 9. Not exactly received via normal transport, this wonderful gift was placed in my hands by one stumbling drunk KSJS DJ at 1:00 a.m. during my DJ shift. This seven-song punk-pop masterpiece is the best thing to make my acquaintance in a very long time. And they're from Sannozay to boot! Hurray! A 7" is forthcoming and hopefully they will send it out so all the world may share in its splendor. Things that do not make me feel like a part of Metropolis: CRUNT (the BABES IN TOYLAND/LUBRICATED GOAT/J.S.B.E. Supergroup!), SMUT, BRIDGET, NEUROSIS, SILKWORM, SPIES WHO SURF, memories of the KARL HENDRICKS TRIO show during CMJ, and all those damn '80s comps that make me want to roll up in the fetal position and just breathe. For the spring: same hrs M 12-4. My asst. Sharon takes calls T/Th 2-4. I have a second asst. Grancinda. Hurray! P.S. Anyone want to exchange their holiday music list? The Reel World is coming to SF; how sad. McDs now has soup! Yum! KSJS Record Swap #5 is coming in March. Carrots, Raisons, Headcheese (sic?), etc.? Call me, write me, hurt me, make me love you.

Corey Kaul, Music Director, KRNL, Mt. Vernon, IA (319) 895-4431

Howdy! First and foremost I wanted to let everybody know that I am updating my list of companies that I send playlists to—if you would like to receive KRNL's playlist on a weekly basis, contact me and I will be more than happy to add you to the list. If you don't, you're not going to get one! Otherwise, things at the station are running great. Happening bands include: LEVELLERS, JAWBOX, POP SICKLE, MEAT PUPPETS, PRONG, THE VELDT, DOC HOPPER, SYMPATHY F, RAMONES, COURSE OF EMPIRE, UNSAFE and SILKWORM. As always, multitudes of thanks to my reps—you're all awesome! Things will be busy for me this semester as I prepare to graduate. I have a motto: "If you have a promotion position, I have a resume and a stamp!" I may be even busier, since I recently accepted an intern position with Generic Records. I am very excited about it and hope that HIFI goes over well! The first single is "Oh," and you'll definitely want to check out "Too Tight"—both tracks are outstanding! That about covers things. Have fun and stay out of trouble...take care.

I've recently wondered why certain labels send WFNM stuff, considering we: A. Aren't really near anything; B. None of the bands we play come to town; C. We're in a pretty conservative area; and D. It's hard to buy a lot of the stuff in town. Then I looked down playlists in CMJ and realized 95% of those stations suck worse than WFNM. Too few take any chances with their programming, just playing pure crapola. It pisses me off that many stations don't take any chances and just program what they see on TV or seems big at the moment. On a nice note, I must say thanks to Engine, Pop Narcotic, Kill Rock Stars, Mint, Proteen, Merge, Bar/None, Dromedary, Touch And Go, Harriet, Sonic Bubblegum and others for sending us some stuff recently. Hopefully, we are having some type of influence on our listeners. Granted, many of their bands will never come closer to Lancaster than Philly, but I'd like to imagine that some kid is sitting in his room digging CUB or HELIUM or JON SPENCER or something he has never heard before.

To begin: a great big hello to all. Here I sit, nestled snugly in the valleys of central Pennsylvania with about a billion feet of snow outside, pondering what I can put in my first Dialogue that will help our poor little station get back on track. (I know, I know. WRLC who?) You see, I very recently became the new alternative music director (Karen is still here doing metal). I should also mention that our station has been rather lax of late in its weekly reporting of CMJ charts, as well as in its contacts with record labels (in fact, I believe we are currently shunned by all but about three). Furthermore, much of the music we did receive never seemed to reach our playlist...but of course, names will go unmentioned (ahem, previous MD). Anyway, I have composed this poor excuse for a Dialogue in order to beg for your help. Please, please, all you benevolent labels, send me anything you've got; I solemnly promise to play it all (including vinyl). We are utterly starved for tunes. My office hours this semester are Tuesdays and Thursdays, 1-4 p.m. EST, and our mailing address is: WRIC, c/o Lycoming College, Williamsport, PA 17701. Very soon you will see us reporting the weekly charts on a regular basis as well. Alas, I must depart—I pray you will not forsake me.

Andy DiGiovanni and Lisa MacRae, Rock Directors, WDOM, Providence, RI (401) 865-2460

Hi y'all. Santa came and went and here we are ready to dive back into the music. KRISTIN HERSH was a Providence College grad, so we're proud to play her new one. We love the following: DANDELION FIRE, OCTOBER PROJECT, HOVER, LETTERS TO CLEO, THRONEBERRY, SPEED THE PLOUGH, LOTION, DIED PRETTY (thank God they're back), FOGGY NOTION, SCARCE (local band, big talent), COWBOY JUNKIES (special thanks to Nick Bull at RCA), JAWBOX and POP SICKLE. But most of all folks, above all else, the new SLOWDIVE album Souvlaki has finally met its American release date, and Jason Wyner from EMI will be receiving quite a fruit basket when he sets us up with them upon their tour hitting town. They are only the best ethereal, shoegazing band this side of anywhere...Call us Tuesdays between 1 and 4 p.m. EST, but not every week. And please let us breathe! The questions we hate most are: "what rotation?" and "so if it's charting this week, will it chart next week too? Huh?" If we're playing it, we're playing it. If it charts, it charts. End of story. Andy's voice mail (401) 865-2000 ext. 8753. Ciao.

Frank Huang, Music Director, WBRU, Providence, RI (401) 272-9550

Hello. Yes, the rumors are true. My time as music director is winding down. If you want to know what the exact story is, well, you will have to give me a call (the afternoons are better than the mornings. Believe it or not, I still go to class). This is also the time to get your limited-edition "Frank Huang, Music Director" business cards. In case you did not receive or read my fax to you, we are looking for judges for the WBRU Rock Hunt—the dates are February 11, 17, 18, 20 and 25. If you can judge, it would be great...Music: I like the GREENBERRY WOODS "Trampoline" (also thanks to Steve Tipp of Reprise. The trampoline makes a great addition to my office). Big phone records: TORI AMOS "God," BECK "Loser," CRASH TEST DUMMIES "Mmm" and SMASHING PUMPKINS "Disarm" and still "Today." And to answer one last common question: no, I am not going to the Gavin Convention, but my program director Mike O. is, so you can go harass him there. Talk to you later.

Since the world already has a billion holidays, how about adding one more? I would love a college music director appreciation day in lieu of the enormous amounts of CDs we have been receiving. It seems like Aunt Sally's even got a record out. So how should we overworked, underpaid directors sift through all this stuff? Beats me. But here are a few tunes to listen to carefully. They are not only from New Haven (the "new scene"), but are absolutely Nancy Kerrigan free. Hopefully you should have received four new 7"s from New Haven's own Caffeine Disk. Groovy, hippy, happy music from the big little guys MIGHTY PURPLE. Noise professionals SHIV gives any college station satisfaction. The GRAVEL PIT also drop some wax to give all those in search of mega melody a lovely treat. And last but not least, my favorite drug buddies FLOWERLAND. Mix a little hardcore with bitter happiness and psychedelic overtones and you have the best unknown band of the year. This 7" did incredibly well at our station (top 10 for months) and I guarantee it will do the same to yours or your money back. And if that wasn't enough, Caffeine Disk also has a brand new compilation CD, Collison With Tradition, that is so hot you can only get it by calling me at WNHU. The CD is free, and plus, you get to talk to me. What are you waiting for?

Mary Koma, Music Director and Dance Show Host, WVUM, Coral Gables, FL (305) 284-3131

Hello again. This is my second Dialogue about my dance show (real underground dance show) that airs every Friday night down here in Miami. I got a lot of response last time from my Dialogue! The Winter Music Conference is in about a month and I'm really looking forward to meeting with anyone who'll be down here for it. (When you're here, call me at 305-284-3131 and tune into my show before you head out to the clubs!) Oh, and by the way, WVUM is at 1500 watts now—enough for everyone to hear us, and I mean everyone. We're crystal clear on South Beach. We're really happy about it, and the response from the community is phenomenal. Burning up the airwaves right now: LOST TRIBE's "Gimme A Smile," DREAMFISH, LYDON & LEFTFIELD's "Open Up" and HAVANA's "Condensed." Thank goodness that I.R.S./Tribal America/Guerilla started picking up cuts from Limbo, and that Moonshine is distributing Sasha and Stress to the U.S. It's about time! Although I still have to shop in my favorite dance-only record store to find all the goodies that I play on my show, some titles (import and domestic) are for sale in regular retail chain stores. You can buy Dreamfish in the mall! America is truly amazing. Please contact me at 305-284-3131 about servicing my show. I'd love to hear from you!

Mitch Youts, Program Director, KWBU, Waco, TX (817) 755-1111 ext. 6909

Hey guys, this is my first Dialogue in my four years associated with college radio. So I guess that makes me a slacker? Anyway, the big Branch Davidian trial is going on in San Antonio—need an update, just call. Here's some news: over the holidays we received a new transmitter, so we have bumped up to 4500 watts. So, we are all pretty stoked. Shoutouts to Melissa Stegall, Tim Cook, Kris Metzendorf, and those others who know who you are. We are all super-hyped about SILKWORM, UNSANE, ENGINE KID, JAWBOX, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, especially SWIVELNECK and their raging tune simply titled "Waco, TX"—need anything, give us a ring.

Tesin "Tes" Uy and Tex "Jim Nightshade" Long, KSCU, Santa Clara, CA (408) 554-4907

KSCU-FM 103.3 is proud to announce our affiliation with two VMJ West Regional reporters. KSCU deejay Bob "Bobby T." Torres and his hip-hop music video program Video Fusion will celebrate this joint venture during Gavin. Artists coming down to the KSCU studios will enter studio A for a live radio interview, visit studio B for SID recordings and then kick in studio C for video program filming. KSCU is also excited to work with KSCU deejay Eric "E.O." Olsen's Subculture rock music program. If you would like to set up interviews, giveaways or live performances, call us to get booked! Erick Klotz and Diane Liu are our promotions coordinators. Call them on the business line 408-554-4413. Ask them for a copy of our fanzine Shmade. Tes' office hours are MWF 12-2 p.m. PST and Tex is in MWF 8:30-10 a.m. PST. We are looking for help with our annual fundraiser February 28-March 6. We are planning a benefit concert and are currently booking artists with some draw that would like to support college radio. Also, if your label can send us limited-edition promo items or extra CDs and vinyl they would be greatly appreciated. Mail us at KSCU, 500 El Camino Real-3207, Santa Clara University, Santa Clara, CA 95053. Or, drop by during Gavin. Tes will be in SF and Tex will be at KSCU which is only one hour south. TATTLE TALE is intense.

Ken Viste and Meredith Goulet, MDs, KDIC, Grinnell, IA (515) 269-3335

Um, yeah, we've been gone for awhile—a pleasant winter break ("on the first day of Christmas my brother gave to me, a rare EP from SPACE-MEN 3"). Anyhow, as of Monday, January 31, we're back on the air and looking forward to hearing from you—the dust has settled in the office and we're catching up on calls as quickly as possible. Office hours (CST): Ken—Tues. 1-3, Wed. 3-4, Th. 2-4, Fri. 3-4; Meredith—Tues. 1-2, Thurs. 12-3, Fr. 2-4. Fritz Lanz, our third MD, will also be handling calls Fridays between 1 and 4. Our format managers will be in as follows: Eric Fischer (ska/industrial and more!) Th. 2-3; Peter Comings (blues) Wed. 3:15-5:15; Anthony Cammarata (RPM) Th. 2-4; Gammie Thomas (rap) Wed. 2-4; and finally John Powers (reggae/world) on Tuesdays 1-2. Hi to Adam Kashuba and Jackie Stasy...Thanks.

Brent Wilcox, Producer of Night Land, KOTR, Cambria, CA, and WorldWind and Cryptomusicology, KCBX, San Luis Obispo, CA (805) 927-1953

New stuff! At the top of the heap is MATERIAL, BEAUTIFUL PEOPLE and THAT DOG. There's the rock/folk triple header of LEVELLERS, OYSTERBAND and WOLFSTONE (with RICHARD THOMPSON not far behind). And the dark cabaret weirdness of OPAL FOXX QUARTET and SHOULDERS—neither eclipsing TOM WAITS, and tilting towards NICK CAVE in the process. Dare I say that TORI AMOS is "God"-dressed-like? CROWDED HOUSE seems to have taken cues this time from their hemispherical mates, NOT DROWNING, WAVING. And (likely to both bands' chargin) the MEKONS are facing off with the KILLER SHREWS in a Nightland grudge match. RISE ROBOTS RISE lives up their name, going higher and higher (you must listen to Spawn!). HAIR & SKIN TRADING COMPANY is another cool new one, and both OVERPASS and M-3 (the Brothers Miller) offer envelope-stretching surprises. The EGOMANIACS are fun, but why didn't they credit Lord Buckley? Hmm? KRISTIN HERSH, SLANG, SPEED THE PLOUGH, SEALAND POETS, MEDICINE, DEAD CAN DANCE, COCTEAU TWINS...still on the map. TARIKA SAMMY and OUMOU SANGARE move up in the international league, GEOFFREY ORYEMA and BAKA BEYOND still hold tight at the top. Killer accordion from MARIA KALANIEMI, and HUUN-HUUR-TU keeps the caravan rolling. A couple of electronic composers—TODD FLETCHER and BRIAN GINGRICH—make regular appearances, but make room for LUKE KOYLE and ARCANE DEVICE. And does anyone really believe TERENCE MCKENNA? You tell me! Write Box 1554, Cambria, CA 93428. Email me at brent.wilcox@genie.geis.com. Fax me at 805-927-0384.

Brendan M. Gillen, Music Director, WCBN, Ann Arbor, MI (313) 763-3501

An era has ended. Andy Flynn has left on that hellbound train to his dreams. He will be in New Orleans by the time you read this, dressed as a Mardi Gras Indian. He helped make this place what it is and we will surely miss him. Any gifts/correspondence should be conducted via Brendan. Also, close friends of WCBN and you industry types should have received a copy of our dazzling new program guide. It's world class, so please do check it out. And if you don't receive one soon, place thy fingers on these phone and I'll send you one. Here in Ann Arbor we have a rich musical history, including but not limited to the MC5, the STOOGES, GEORGE CLINTON, HALF JAPANESE, the LAUGHING HYENAS, BIG CHIEF and MULE. I suppose you're curious about what's happening now. As Andy alerted you years ago SLOT are still quite a happening band, but there are some talented newcomers on the scene. The ones to keep your eyes on are MORSEL, a very creative sort of avant guitar band with tons of strange effects, and MELBA, a way cool indie rock thing with the brother of the guitarist for VERSUS. Big ones: SILKWORM's In The West, GOD IS MY CO-PILOT Straight Not, the SOLSONICS Jazz In the Present Tense and that LOTION thing. Big Ups: the SUPER SATURDAY CREW.

JAZZ FEST RIDES AGAIN

The New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Festival has announced its schedule for 1994. For 25 years the Festival has been one of the nation's most popular music events, featuring seven days and nights devoted to indigenous food, crafts, culture and live music, scheduled over two weekends from April 22-May 1. The Festival takes place on the infield of the Louisiana Fairgrounds, and each day features over 100 performances by mostly Louisiana-born or -based artists, who make music in the jazz, blues, gospel, zydeco, Cajun, R&B and roots music realms. Artists slated to perform include Little Richard, the Neville Brothers, Aretha Franklin, Dr. John, Irma Thomas, the Re-Birth Brass Band, the Dirty Dozen Brass Band, The Band (minus guitarist Robbie Robertson), the Allman Brothers Band, Boozoo Chavis, Doc Cheatham, Marlon Jordan, the Meters, the Bluerunners and Ali Farka Toure. In addition to the big names headlining the event, the Jazz Fest will also feature lesser known regional performers such as R.L. Burnside, the Young Soul Rebels Brass Band, Al "Carnival Time" Johnson, Eddie Bo, Tommy Ridgely, the Creole Zydeco Farmers, Walter Payton, Percussion Inc., and the Como Drum & Fife Corps. This year the Festival goes on as scheduled, even though its landmark Fairgrounds site was catastrophically damaged by a fire shortly before Christmas.

ATLANTIC CELEBRATES GAY RIGHTS

In celebration of the 25th anniversary of the Stonewall riots, Atlantic Records and Out magazine have put together Knock Out, a compilation CD tackling such issues as homophobia and AIDS. Artists featured on the 18-track CD include Evan Dando, Clannad, Juliana Hatfield, Billy Pilgrim and Melissa Ferrick.

KILL ROCK STARS IN EUROPE

RECORD NEWS

Specialty Records, distributed by Fantasy, has just completed work on a deluxe five-CD box set entitled The Specialty Story, to be released in late March. The set chronicles the pioneering independent blues, R&B and gospel label from the late '40s through its glory years of the late '50s. Fantasy is also anticipating an eight-disc box of Joe Henderson's Milestone Years to be completed sometime this summer. The Henderson box will be compiled by renowned jazz scholar Orrin Keepnews, and will be similar in style to Fantasy's acclaimed boxes of the complete recordings from Sonny Rollins, Miles Davis and John Coltrane from the Prestige label. Further ahead are plans for a four-CD set of live Ella Fitzgerald recordings spanning 1953-83 on the Pablo label. In a radically different vein, Fantasy also plans to reissue seminal albums by the Fugs later this spring, including their first two albums, each augmented by additional live and studio material...Merge will be releasing the new Superchunk album called The First Part on March 14...Sub Pop is releasing a collaborative CD-single from acclaimed roots artist Jimmie Dale Gilmore and garage gurus Mudhoney on March 15...Anotha Level, an L.A.-based rap group, has signed with Priority Records and will release its first album in March...Caroline has reissued Japan's first three albums, Adolescent Sex, Obscure Alternatives and Quiet Life...Rusted Root has signed with Mercury Records. A new album is scheduled for release this summer...Hammerhead has finished recording its second LP, Into The Vortex, for Amphetamine Reptile. The album will be released in April...Shanachie has compiled Brace Yourself: A Tribute To Otis Blackwell. The tribute album will feature Frank Black, Willie Deville, Dave Edmunds, Joe Ely and Sue Foley, Deborah Harry, Chrissie Hynde and Chris Spedding, Kris Kristofferson, Graham Parker, Paul Rodgers, Smithereens, Ronnie Spector, Jon Spencer, Tom Verlaine and Joe Louis Walker. The album is scheduled to be released on Blackwell's birthday, Feb. 16.

INDUSTRY SHUFFLE

Kerry Murphy has been promoted to the position of director national radio promotions at Slash. Dale Johnson has taken over her former position handling retail promotions.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Slash Records is looking for radio, publicity and marketing interns. Interns must be based in the Los Angeles area. For more info call 213-937-4660...Rounder Records is looking for someone to do radio promotions. Responsibilities include tour promotion, tracking and charting.
