COLORFUL EGGS

Much like their moniker, Arlington, Virginia's Eggs are a little odd-shaped. The current life of the Eggs is filled with indie/major decisions, near-death experiences, Masons, dancers and the Eggs' special blend of coffee, which is available via mail-order from an Arlington coffee shop. What else would you expect from a rock band with a trombone?

Things have been even stranger for this trombone-toting indie-rock band lately: It was on their last tour that Eggs had a near-death experience in a winter storm van crash, in which they totalled their friend/occasional dancer's van. The band jokes that the crash was caused by the Masons. "We've been going across the country telling people about the Masonic threat," explains singer/guitarist Andrew Beaujon. "So lately we feel they've stepped up their attack on us." Whether it was Masonic revenge or simply the forces of nature, the Eggs have done some serious thinking about the whys and hows of their existence.

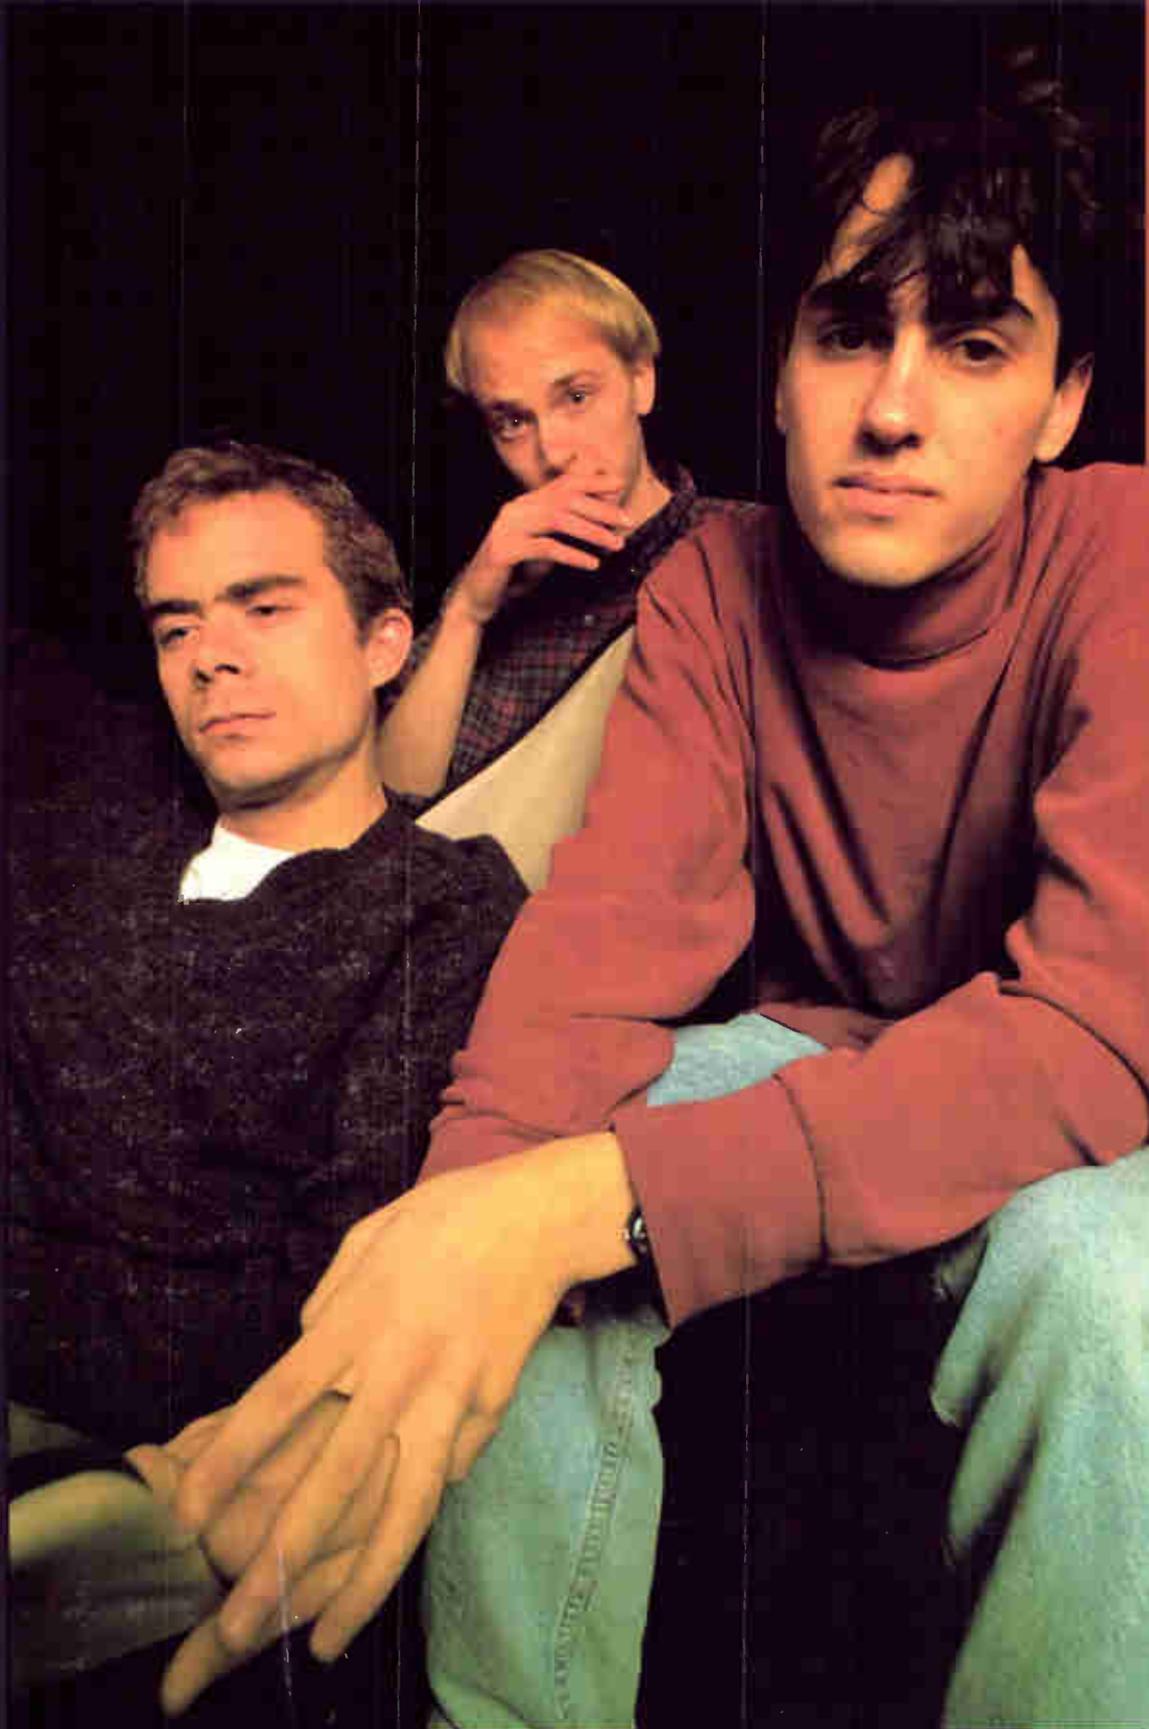

Their latest dilemma is one that faces many up-and-coming bands: the indie/major decision. At the moment, the band is considering a jump from its comfy home at Teen Beat (all three of the Eggs live at the Teen Beat house) to a major-affiliated label. "There's a lot of soul searching. It's a really big change. I'm still not entirely convinced it's the right thing to do. Of course, if we get sports cars..." Andrew muses.

All joking aside, Eggs take these decisions quite seriously. There is a level of control these guys like to maintain, and they oversee every aspect of the band, down to recording and producing their own material. "The Eggs take themselves far too seriously. We're the most uptight wrecks in the world," confides Andrew. So much thought—and recording time, courtesy of trombonist/guitarist Rob Christiansen and bassist Evan Shurak's student status at American University—has gone into Eggs Teenbeat 96 Exploder, the band's new double-album, that each member has his favorite side. Rob likes side three; it's "a perfect mess, it's barely listenable." Both Andrew and Evan prefer side two; "it's just the perfect album side, a concise piece," explains Evan. The album's length and stylistic breadth can make a fairly rich listen when taken as a whole. "I wouldn't listen to the whole thing at once," warns Andrew. "It's just too much."

This breadth and the band's interest in non-rock musics goes a long way towards defining the Eggs' sound. "We're not a particularly good rock band," says Andrew. "I don't think we could be if we wanted to... We were playing a show last night in Buffalo. There were a lot of people staring at us blankly. You can't really impress a crowd like that by being able to disco particularly well."

Besides their ability to disco, what do the Eggs think justifies their music in the much berated indie-rock world? Andrew explains: "Most indie rock is so bad, it sounds so much the same. That's not to say we are any better, but we are willing to attack it from different angles." —Dawn Sutter & Lydia Anderson

Essential New Music

MILLA The Divine Comedy (SBK, c/o EMI Records Group, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104)—Most ex-model/actresses wouldn't dare to name their debut music release after one of the greatest works of literature, but Milla Jovovich has, which is one sign of her confident triumph over what can only be described as extremely small competition (although Naomi Campbell's record is due out soon). The Divine Comedy's easiest touchstone is Kate Bush, whose quirky, breathy delivery and odd note choices Milla shares. But where Bush swoops to attack with high notes and melodic bursts, Milla's approach is more subtle, tailored for her uncommon voice and lush instrumentation. Although she's only 18 (!), Milla's lyrics have a world-weary viewpoint, reflecting someone who's wise to the world and is saddened by her loss of naivete. The first single, "Gentlemen Who Fell," features a sparkling mandolin line and a plaintive call: "I don't know how to speak to you/I don't know how to trust you," ending with "I don't know how to love you," a remarkably frank statement from one whose public persona, at least, is one of mature assurance. The overall tone of The Divine Comedy reflects Milla's folk roots, both in her Joni Mitchell-styled Westernisms and her native Ukrainian flourishes. A striking record from an unusual source, The Divine Comedy is a very personal disclosure of a budding artist.

ALI FARKA TOURE WITH RY COODER Talking Timbuktu (Hannibal, c/o Rykodisc, Pickering Wharf, Bldg. C-3G, Salem MA 01970/508-744-7678)—When American six-string whiz Ry Cooder and Malian griot Ali Farka Toure sit down to talk Timbuktu with their guitars, you can bet they're talking the universal language of the blues. Talking Timbuktu is one of those rare records that does something that's not only new, but also really means something: in this case, it's finding the connection from the Niger Delta to the Mississippi, and forging entirely new music from the bond between the blues and the stuff of its origins.

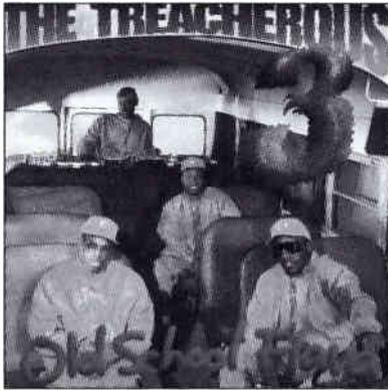

As a teenager, Ali Farka Toure heard imported records by John Lee Hooker, sensed a link between this American sound and the traditional music of Mali, and began exploring that link in his music. Then there's Ry Cooder, whose lengthy and diverse resume of fret-work has culminated in a series of dazzlingly exciting guitar-related projects, including the Grammy-winning A Meeting By The River, a similar collaboration with Indian string man V.M. Bhatt. The guiding hand here is unquestionably Toure's, his Malian musical roots taking the foreground with Cooder supplying sympathetic strums and slides; but the real stars of the show are the resonating wood and sparkling timbres of the guitars themselves. Like a dream or the mesmerizing beauty of a golden sunset unfolding, the album spins out peak after peak through its 10 songs, each crescendo somehow deeper and more profound than the one before it.

TREACHEROUS THREE Old School Flava (Easylee/Wrap, c/o Ichiban, P.O. Box 724677, Atlanta, GA 30339/404-419-1414)—Almost 15 years later, Kool Moe Dee reunites with his first group to make an unrepentantly retro album with a nostalgic title, including a '94 remake of the Three's biggest hit, and you wouldn't necessarily expect it'd be the best old-school rap album ever made. Surprise! It is. Old School Flava is a non-stop hand-waving party. Instead of trying to play the new jacks' game, T3 has gone back to those gold sounds and found veins that have been unjustly neglected for years. The "fast talking" style KMD used as far back as "New Rap Language" gets revived here on "Mo Money Moe"; "A True Story" (a solo turn by L.A. Sunshine) is a playful tribute to the meter and style of Hustler's Convention; "Feel The New Heartbeat" reuses that famous Taana Gardner bassline, but sounds just as fresh (in all senses) as T3's original "Feel The Heartbeat." Moe has always had a knack for giving his raps one massive verbal hook with about a zillion rhythmic variations, and he does it all over Old School Flava: the "boom!"s that punctuate "Lower The Boom," the snarls of "ain't nothin' changed" in the track of the same name, the call-and-response chorus of "We Wit It." The last of those features a handful of big-name guests—including Chuck D and Melle Mel—who still get outshined by the mighty T3. The above, plus "We Come Phat" and "The Mic Wreckers."

—Douglas Walk

TED HAWKINS The Next Hundred Years (DGC, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069)—Looking over his life story, you'd think that Ted Hawkins would have to be a blues singer: never knew his father, dropped out of school, spent years as a street musician, had a few broken marriages, was in and out of jail. But he's not a bluesman at all; in fact, he's nothing less than an American treasure, a visionary performer whose musical reach includes blues, country, folk and, most significantly, the deep wellspring of American soul. Hawkins takes all these and makes them his own, holding them firmly in the grasp of the black leather glove that prevents the strings of his acoustic guitar from cutting his fingers while he plays all day. Years spent playing on the Venice Beach boardwalk have sharpened his weatherbeaten voice to a gravelly husk that's somehow excruciating and exhilarating at the same time: When he slips on a high note, every listener in the room slips emotionally with him. Though his spartan acoustic instrumentation recalls folk singers such as Richie Havens, Hawkins' most profound influences are great soul stirrers such as Ray Charles, Sam Cooke, Otis Redding and Arthur Alexander. His songs and well-chosen covers do more than just make up an album; they portray a whole world marked by deep pain and loss, but one where joy and love still persevere and optimism remains undaunted. For the underlying story in every song that Ted Hawkins sings is not one of defeat or despair, but of the triumph of an unstoppable spirit.

MORRISSEY Vauxhall And I (Sire, c/o Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—Vauxhall And I is the fifth solo album from the prolific Morrissey since the disbandment of the Smiths in 1987, and it places the enigmatic moper in his most revealing backdrop to date. Over the years, the Moz has crafted his self-conceived anti-hero/anti-pop star aura with introverted, vulnerable and definitely British wit, and Vauxhall And I strips all of that to its bare minimum. Morrissey's crooning and perfect-pop sensibility are still there, but where 1992's Your Arsenal wielded a more rockabilly flavor, Vauxhall And I settles into gentle acoustic strums to create its melody-rich, hook-laden, moderately-tempoed arrangements, indicated by the choice of Steve Lillywhite (U2, Kirsty MacColl) as producer. Vauxhall And I is a straightforward pop record, hushed in presentation but ever-confrontational in Morrissey's lyrical approach, more comfortable with its intimacy, while never becoming obvious or soft. The drama and intensity of these songs emerge on the lead single, "The More You Ignore Me, The Closer I Get," which has the Moz in unforgettably hummable form. Also: the soaring "November Spawned A Monster"-like "Spring-Heeled Jim," "Now My Heart Is Full," "Speedway" and the charged electricity of "Billy Budd."

MEICES Tastes Like Chicken (External, c/o ILS, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019/212-603-7943)—The recent rash of success by a few punk rock bands (Green Day, Jawbox) has opened the gateway of acceptance for many bands brandishing a raucous sound and slacker ideals, and the help of a major label can't hurt. The Meices test the rawer waters on their major-label debut, following their first LP on Empty. Tastes Like Chicken's melodies are indigenous to the Bay Area, hinting at influences from other regions—the peppy riffs of the Replacements or the lonely whines of Dinosaur Jr. Put all of these ingredients in a pot, and though it may Taste Like Chicken, when cleverly delivered (as in the story of button soup), the concoction is bound to impress even the most astute dinner guests or radio listeners. Making us love those Meices to pieces:

"Daddy's Gone To California," "Lettuce Is Far Out," "Until The Weekend" and "That Other Good One."

REG E. GAINES Please Don't Take My Air Jordans (Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—The difference between Reg E. Gaines' jazz-like poems set to hip-hop meters and the usual Pandora's box of pedantry that is opened up when artists opt for the "more free" expression of spoken word is that Gaines' words have meaning as well as purpose. Please Don't Take My Air Jordans is filled with pungent anger, polarized politics and most strikingly, a definite sense of artistry. Gaines never fails to hit close to home as he aims his impressive internal rhymes and chant-like rhythms at both the symbols and pawns of oppression. He doesn't take aim at his targets so much as he envelops them, ensnaring everything from the Statue Of Liberty ("For The Lady In Green Who Shits In The Harbor") to Maya Angelou ("My-A-Y-YA Write That Poem") to Billy Dee Williams and Fab Five Freddy's endorsements of malt liquor ("Loaded .45") with uncomfortable truths. A perfect example of Gaines' skill is the rabble-rousing language he uses in "Watermelon, Lox And Bagels," which mimics the voices of hate in order to deflate their meaning, ultimately pointing out that Jews and African Americans have both been the subject of hate too long to go on hating each other in a pointless struggle. If this record doesn't offend, disturb or move you, you're not listening hard enough.
—Scott Frampton

KILLBILLY Foggy Mountain Anarchy (Crystal Clear Sound, 4902 Don Dr., Dallas, TX 75247/214-630-2957)—Kicking up its Dallas-bred heels, Killbilly reels around with Texas two-step enthusiasm. The band's music is defined by fast rolling banjo picking, twanging steel pedals and swinging mandolins reminiscent of the latest work of its contemporaries Uncle Tupelo and Bad Livers. While its relationship to these modern-day cousins is merely implied, Killbilly wears its old-time-great influences on its sleeve (CD sleeve, that is) by naming the album Foggy Mountain Anarchy. The "Foggy Mountain" part is obvious; the band's instrumental style draws a direct line back to the early bluegrass days of the Foggy Mountain Boys. But for

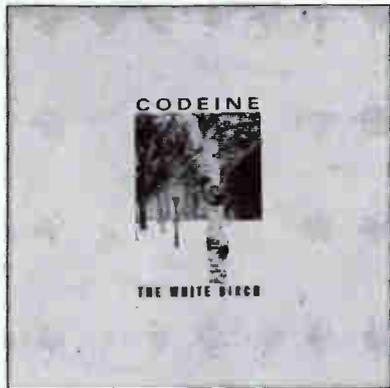

I WISH I'D GOTTEN THAT

The New Album

"Milky" and "Goodbye"

Killbilly, "Anarchy" bridges two drastically different cultures divided by style and a few decades; while the punk influence is subtle, particulars such as the cover of Husker Du's "Hare Krsna" give away the secret. Yet no matter how strong its punk idealism runs, the band remains true to its country heart. Lovely Lonestars: "Shame The Devil," "Drivin' Around," "Running Gun" and "Heaven Is A Small Town."

CODEINE The White Birch (Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA 98102/206-441-8441)—It's been nearly three years since the release of Codeine's debut Frigid Stars LP, whose remarkable starkness, simplicity and restrained, yet potent, expression helped make a name for slo-mo rock (along with acknowledged kings like Slint). While not exactly a new category or snazzy cross-breed, the trio's sound was the antithesis of over-the-top punk rock and gnarled grunge while appealing largely to the same audience: even rockers need music for reflection. Codeine's sophomore LP, The White Birch, isn't a marked progression from the last album, but it brings into sharper focus the band's strongest points: Stephen Immerwahr's softly pained vocals; his increasingly discernible, downcast lyrics, which frost the songs with fuller meaning; and the quietly vibrant sonic textures resulting from the band's carefully landscaped sound. Where a song is usually defined by a lyric phrase or a catchy chorus, Codeine's songs are marked by one word or a single chord which dangles suggestively in one's memory for days. "Sea" makes grand use of the word "understand," "Loss Leader" has a surprisingly crunchy break, and "Tom" (previously a 7" single) is a lesson in metallic subtlety. But Codeine reaches a new high (or low?) on "Wird," which builds like the tense introduction to a Metallica epic that never submits to release.

—Lydia Anderson

WILD COLONIALS Fruit Of Life (Geffen, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069)—When trying to describe an overall impression of the Wild Colonial's debut Fruit Of Life, the temptation is to gather up a series of hyperbolic, yet accurate, pull-quotes like "hauntingly beautiful" or "a gorgeous and intimate blend of pop and traditional folk." This four-member band (along with guest musicians) uses the blueprints of Scottish and Irish traditional folk to create music of a greater scope and depth than the confines of "tradition" might imply. Exquisitely produced by Tchad Blake (recording engineer for Tom Waits, Elvis Costello and others), Fruit resonates with acoustic beauty, the loose mingling of guitars, violins, pianos and rudimentary percussion exuding more passion than reverence. Just as it's easy to lose track of time when taking in a beautiful landscape, it's easy not to notice that some songs on Fruit roll past five or six minutes; the stories are rich and literate, and Angela McCluskey's voice sets the senses tingling. Like the best bands that are students of ethnic folk, the Wild Colonial's have hit upon what is truly mystical and expressive about the genre. Hear: "Girl," "Spork," "Don't Explain" and "Victim."

GITS Enter: The Conquering Chicken (C/Z, 1407 E. Madison #41, Seattle, WA 98122/206-441-0875)—Enter: The Conquering Chicken, the second full-length album from relocated Seattle punkers the Gits, is a compilation of sorts, gathering together several remixes of previously released singles, along with a cover of Sam Cooke's "A Change Is Gonna Come" and a live track. Judging from the radiantly witty, raucous material ▶ on the album, it's not hard to tell in which direction the Gits were heading before the horrific murder of lead vocalist Mia Zapata last summer. What makes Mia's death even more tragic is the fact that her lyrics focused so heavily on songs about strength in the face of adversity and an exploration of self, clearly demonstrating that the Gits had much more on the ball than your average punk band. Add that to the fully competent instrumental ability of the band itself (when's the last time you heard an intricate guitar solo on a punk record?). Of particular note is the brilliant "Italian Song," which kicks off with a soundbite from The Godfather and continues with a campy delivery that comes off like the Sex Pistols crossed with Adam Sandler's Opera Man. You won't find more inventive punk this side of The Great Rock'n'Roll Swindle. The time is now for: "Spear & Magic Helmet," "Sea-weed" and "Drinking Song."

BEAU JOCQUE AND THE ZYDECO HI-ROLLERS Pick Up On This! (Rouder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700)—Zydeco sounds have been pouring out of the south Louisiana Creole dancehalls for generations, and Beau Jocque and his Zydeco Hi-Rollers are leading a new flock into the party. Combining French Creole sounds with the blues and Afro-Caribbean grooves, zydeco lends itself to all-night dancing sprees, and in Beau Jocque's tremendous hands (he is quite an imposing figure behind his accordion), it becomes a forceful, thundering, exciting celebration. Alongside the smokin' blues of guitarist Ray Johnson and the steady, funky rhythm section, with Wilfred Pierre on the washboard, Beau Jocque gives his accordion quite a workout, squeezing out a wealth of notes and sounds from his instrument with a manic energy matched by his party-leading gravelly vocals. Background shouts and talking from the rest of the band help the free-for-all party mosaic stay loose, giving Pick Up On This!, the band's sophomore outing, a live atmosphere that'll carry into the wee hours of the morning. Pass the Abita and the crawfish: "Zydeco Boogie Woogie," "Give It To Me," "Mardi Gras Blues," "Don't Tell Your Mama, Don't Tell Your Papa," sung in Creole patois, and the title track.

LOU B. Winning Losers: A Collection Of Home Recordings (Smells Like, P.O. Box 6179, Hoboken, NJ 07030)—Once known as Dinosaur Jr.'s bad-attitude bass player, Lou Barlow has come into his own with Sebadoh, currently one of indie-rock's biggest names. At the same time that Sebadoh was becoming a full-time gig, Barlow was recording solo, under the name Sentridoh—just Lou, his guitar, chord organ, 4-track recorder and his deeply personal, immensely touching songs. In this spare setting, Barlow's songs stand proud (albeit on wobbly knees) with their genuine expression, a plainly painted vehicle for his ups and downs: each chord change, each hushed vocal line and even the fuzzy background noise tug at all available heart strings. Winning Losers represents 10 Lou moments recorded between 1989 and 1993 (four of which were previously released on the Shrimper cassette Losers). With its graceful construction, "Chokechain" just might be one of Barlow's finest tunes to date, but be sure to check out "Stronger," "Not Nice To Be Nice" and "High School," which could be a hit on the next youth-generation film with its conclusion "I've forgotten how rotten it feels to be down."

MOON SEVEN TIMES 7=49 (Roadrunner, 225 Lafayette St., Ste. 407, New York, NY 10012/212-219-0077)—Make fun of the name all you want, but the Moon Seven Times actually manages to live up to all the fanciful and ethereal imagery conjured up by its moniker. Fronted by lyricist/vocalist Lynn Canfield, the band is a manifestation of a distinct musical vision, as much a personal reflection as it is a collective presence. The Champaign, IL, quartet made its first appearance last year with its self-titled album, showcasing a group capable of stirring up not only haunting musical soundscapes, but wistful and probing eddies of thought as well. Delicately produced by the band's drummer Brendan Gamble, 7=49 presents a considerably matured and crafted atmosphere of sound, allowing a soft, eclectic blanket of instrumentation to caress Canfield's emotive voice through explorations in lilting pop or more adventuresome journeys in dark emotion and shimmering beauty. Songs like "John" and "Knock" dive headlong into sweet, unabashed pools of guitar and vocal melody, "Desert Vineyards" stretches out with a whispery touch of melancholy, while "I'll Gather Flowers" frames Canfield's fragile and poetic honesty with a carefully layered drift of sound. 14 songs proper, 7=49 also contains 13 additional passages of quiet song fragments, bits of situational sound and ambient tones that unveil the band's more experimental inclinations to add subtle detail to its magical sound.

VARIOUS ARTISTS The Acid Jazz Test Part 1 (Moonshine Music, 8391 Beverly Blvd. #195, Los Angeles, CA 90048/310-246-0091)—Moonshine Music (purveyors of the Speed Limit techno compilations) steps into the arena of the ever-expanding world of urban fusion known as "acid jazz." You don't have to be fluent with phrases like "mad phat" or even "mad jazzy phat" for that matter, to enjoy these 11 tracks. Like all fine compilations, The Acid Jazz Test Part 1 gives the listener more than just an overview of the genre, creating a sense that one is actually hearing what's happening "at the moment" in New York and London throughout the disc. The smooth soul of Jhelisa ("All I Need") and the earnest grooves of the Brooklyn Funk Essentials ("A Headnaddas Journey To The Planet Adidi-Skizm") will find favor with fans of the Brand New Heavies, while Milk's "Beached" wanders off into spaces that perhaps Dizzy Gillespie might have found pleasing. OKRA ALL-STARS The OKra All-Stars (OKra, 1992 B N. High St., Columbus, OH 43201/614-294-3833)—Taking stabs at country music can be a risky undertaking for rock 'n' roll bands. Even the best albums by the masters of so-called "Cosmic American Music"—the Byrds, late '60s Everly Brothers, Gram Parsons' various projects—are inconsistent, often marred by awkward self-consciousness. The OKra All-Stars, a side project for members of the Fellow Travelers, Schramms, the Hoot Owls and Hank McCoy And The Dead Ringers, shares the occasional pitfalls of its predecessors, but at its best, shows an understanding of the subtle, often elusive, qualities separating great country performances from the rest. The All-Stars do right by Merle Haggard ("Shade Tree Fix-It Man"), the Louvin Brothers ("Don't Laugh") and George Jones ("One Of These Days"), but trying to re-create the venom in Buck Owens' voice on "I Wouldn't Live In New York City" (a song that many of us at CMJ can't bear to listen to lest we pack our bags and ditch this "concrete jungle" forever) is a little too ambitious. The originals, most notably "She's Taken All My Toys Away" and "Falling Fast," really shine, and closing the disc with "Purple Rain" is a shrewd move. Like the Byrds' cover of "You Don't Miss Your Water" and the Flying Burrito Brothers' version of "Dark End Of The Street," the All-Stars expertly illustrate the link between country and soul ballads by connecting Lefty Frizzell and Prince.

STEVE WYNN Fluorescent (Mute, 140 W. 22nd St., Ste. 10A, New York, NY 10011/212-255-7670)—Throughout the '80s, Steve Wynn gained notoriety as the guiding force behind Los Angeles' renowned Dream Syndicate. His third solo outing, the self-produced Fluorescent, only vaguely recalls that outfit's psychedelically-edged rock textures, and concentrates instead on a more stripped-down, focused and countrified approach. While Fluorescent certainly sounds well-mapped out, the songs that appear on the album are, for the most part, first takes, and the results are remarkably fresh and immediate. The relaxed "Carry A Torch" is a marvelously solemn ballad, its deep, wavering textures even further buffered by its haunting, concise backup vocals by studio manager Connie Hill. Elsewhere, Wynn is joined by Giant Sand mastermind Howe Gelb, whose bizarre guitar leads stand out amongst the acoustic, organic instrumentation like dark electric scribbles on a pure white canvas. While Wynn sometimes reverts to obvious stylistic experiments with his vocal delivery, they never seem flippant, even as they casually recall the likes of Dylan ("Never Ending Rain") and Lou Reed ("Follow Me," "Carelessly"). Other luminescent tracks: "Older," "Wedding Bells" and "Layer By Layer."

GREEN MAGNET SCHOOL Revisionist (Sonic Bubblegum, P.O. scene. After signing to Sub Pop and releasing the harrowingly messy and explosive Blood Music, however, the group ran into some lineup and personal complications which resulted in months of inactivity. Having sorted out its problems and relocated to Sonic Bubblegum, the band emerges from the wreckage with renewed drive and heightened intensity. Revisionist is a savagely poignant six-song disc reflecting the group's troubles through jagged riffs and turbulent rhythms. Unlike its past material, which roared with fury but lacked direction, the new release launches one hateful guitar burst at a time, embellishing anger with disconcerting noise bits instead of attacking from three different directions at once. As a result, songs like "Spitter" and "Hopkins" are sharp, comprehensible and nearly melodic. New bassist J. Iwanicki provides a previously absent low-end lurch for guitarists C. Keskin, C. Pearson and T. Shea to weave around, while Pearson's occasionally subdued vocals lend the songs an ironically hopeful feel. Get learned good with the above, plus "Mary-Joey" and "Hyman."
—Jon Wiederhorn

INFECTIOUS GROOVES Groove Family Cyco (550, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Infectious Grooves is part of a line of hyperactive funk-rock combos that extends from Mother's Finest through the Red Hot Chili Peppers, each more cartoonish and "rock" than those before it. After milking teen angst in adolescents and non-adolescents alike for a decade or so, Suicidal Tendencies members Mike Muir (vocals) and Robert Trujillo (bass) formed Infectious Grooves in 1991 as a part-time project to provide a little knuckleheaded, madcap relief to the usual long-faced doom and gloom that is par for the thrash-metal course. On their third record, Groove

Family Cyco, Muir and the boys continue to refine their funk/metal hybrid. Through 10 relentless songs, the drums churn out fatback beats, Trujillo follows the Larry Graham school of bass playing, and the attitude and metallic guitar crunch of Suicidal Tendencies remains wholly intact. On the less "metal" of the songs, Infectious Grooves reveals a pleasantly surprising awareness of funk roots; on "Rules Go Out The Window," for example, the band eases up on the usual overdriven metal guitars, replacing them with a more subtle arrangement, and this show of restraint pays off with the best performance on the record. In addition to "Rules," check out: "Violent And Funky," "Why" and "Die Like A Pig."
—Steve McGuire

MIDI RAIN One (Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—MIDI Rain is the nom de techno of John Rocca, who recorded as Freeez back when people thought sampling was something you did with your dinner partner's dessert—he was actually among the first to use sampling for a dance track. If you've been on a techno-dance floor in the last year or so, you've probably heard some of his hits ("Shine," "Eyes" and others); One is the first album he's made under the current name, and it includes all of the MIDI Rain singles to date. Rocca's technique is simple: softcore beats (fast and insistent, but not paounding with hard-core megabass), a few layers of high-end keyboards playing shimmering polyrhythms, and (more often than not) vocals, sometimes singing words and sometimes, as in the gorgeous "Amen," whispering in and out of the track in a wordless falsetto. Occasionally, a track will flirt with song structure (as on "Brother," which is vaguely reminiscent of a Depeche Mode ballad), but Rocca's vocals slip easily beneath the high, hollow tones of his synthesizers. At its best, One is synth-pop without the pop, drifting away from conventional songwriting to concentrate on the interlocking rhythmic patterns of electronic dance music, and on the feather-soft textures of its own sound. Emulate to these: "Yes," "Amen," "Always" and "Shine."

JACKPOT EXTRA!

UNREST Animal Park (7" EP) (Teen Beat, P.O. Box 3265, Arlington, VA 22203/703-358-9382)—Seven years after its formation, Unrest has officially called it quits, though it's doubtful that the band's three members—drummer Phil Krauth, bassist Bridget Cross and guitarist Mark Robinson, who all write songs, sing and have recorded stuff outside Unrest—will disappear from the scene anytime soon. This swansong 7" spotlights Cross' all-too-rarely heard vocals, which glide over acoustic guitars on the sparse "Afternoon Train" and bubble above a bouncy guitar jangle on a remix of Perfect Teeth's "Light Command," featuring an extended parfait-like layering of Cross' and Robinson's voices at its end. "Hey Hey Halifax" is a Stereolab-inspired instrumental that plays with speed changes. —Lydia Anderson

was part of the Sub Pop/DGC raid on Halifax, which also disclosed the secrets of Eric's Trip and Sloan to Nova Scotia, Canada's southern neighbors. On "Promise," this all-female four-piece tromps through familiar jangle-pop territory with confidence and maple syrup-sweet harmonies. The more somber "3 Days" isn't quite as instantly snappy, but winds up the more inventive of the two, tempering an uneasy guitar crunch with more of Jale's strong lead vocals and harmonies. Look for the band's debut album in the spring. —Lydia Anderson

BROKENMOUTH/DAHLIA SEED Brokenmouth/Dahlia Seed (10") (Jagerlegs, Box 666, 7605 Santa Monica Blvd., West Hollywood, CA 90046/310-204-2828)—

The connecting factor between these two bands is singer/guitarist Tracy Wilson, who plays with each band. Wilson's deep, rich vocals play against the tender guitars of Brokenmouth. The spell becomes distorted with the Dahlia Seed's more riff-intensive songs. Brokenmouth's "Creepy Baby" and Dahlia Seed's "UFO" bridge the gap. —Dawn Sutter

XTC "Cherry In Your Tree" from Carmen Sandiego Out Of This World (Zoom Express/BMG KIDZ, c/o Fight, P.O. Box 306, Prince St. Sta., New York, NY 10012/212-274-0200)—XTC's Andy Partridge has dabbled in nursery rhyme lyrics, so it's no surprise that XTC has contributed this clever track to a soundtrack for the popular kids show Where In The World Is Carmen Sandiego. Described by Partridge as "the bastard son of 'Yummy Yummy,'" "Cherry In Your Tree," with its double entendres about pies, cherries and kneading dough, is not exactly a "kid's" song. As with any good nursery rhyme, there's a hidden story somewhere, so listen closely and look for a new XTC LP coming in late winter.

—Steve Ciabattini

SPINY ANTEATERS "Soundcheck" (7") (Baby Universe, P.O. Box 1335, Stn B, Ottawa, ON K1P 5R4, Canada)—This Canadian quartet

plays with the same fuzz-'n'-squalor grind usurped by so many post-My Bloody Valentine bands, but rather than copy an MBV swoon note for note, the Spiny Anteaters are more intent on discovering their own slow-paced groove. The loose basement sound of "Soundcheck," with its rock-centric chorus of "I saw you at the soundcheck," belies the steam behind it. "Motor" is more dreamy, its drums softer, but with chord changes in all the right places, and the strung-out "You Walked Away" barely holds itself together. A full LP, to be released on Kranky Records, is currently in the works. —Lydia Anderson

MERCY RULE "Bye Bye" (7") (Faye, P.O. Box 7332, Columbia, MO 65205)—This trio from Lincoln, NE, caused quite a hullabaloo in the Midwest before signing with Relativity Records. This latest 7" is indicative of the band's style, which is similar to New York City's Antietam, both musically and vocally. "Bye Bye" is all-out guitars, with Heidi's vocals as an intriguing focal point, while "Royal" is a fast-paced duet with Jon. —Dawn Sutter

MEXICAN POWER AUTHORITY Strang From Endville (7" EP) (Scratch, 317A Cambie St., Vancouver, BC V6B 2N4, Canada/604-687-0488)—A seven-piece band whose instrumentation includes bells, ocarina, recorder and thumb piano in addition to standard rock instruments, Mexican Power Authority comes off like the Mothers Of Invention reincarnated as snotty young hardcore brats. This single's 10 tracks (median song length: 46 seconds) include covers of both halves of John Coltrane's "Om," a couple of tightly controlled avant-jazz blurts, and a hardcore song with a precisely rendered opera quote stuck in the middle. A few songs start out as straightforward loud pop and then explode into free clarinet solos; the ridiculous "Angry Sock Puppet" ("penetrated by endless hands") has moments of grindcore fury but never does the same thing musically for more than eight seconds straight. Let's hear it for short attention spans. —Douglas Walk

GARDEN VARIETY Garden Variety (Gern Blandsten, 305 Haywood Drive, Paramus, NJ 07652)—The feisty and youthful spirit of punk rock is alive and well, as the recent success of Green Day, Superchunk and Jawbox will surely attest. The same kind of love for anthemic post-

Husker thrash shines through on Garden Variety's debut long-playing CD (the last three songs here were previously out on a 7" that kicked up quite a ruckus and garnered glowing reviews in Flipside, Sound Views and Your Flesh). Even one listen through the band's debut reveals a scruffy young band that's brimming with energy, one that's overflowing with a fresh and honest attitude that's miles away from the cynical, built-in wariness found in so many newly-formed bands. In other words, these guys couldn't care less what other people thought of them or how their music relates to others' ideas of "success" in an Alternative Nation. At its heart, Garden Variety is a sturdy, fire-breathing power trio (think Husker Du or the first three or four Soul Asylum LPs); bassist Anthony Roman has the kind of hoarse, anthemic, I'll-sleep-on-the-floor-or-in-the-van shout of youth, a style bred from yelling above the amps on the stages of barrooms and C.Y.O.'s that bands have been calling home for years. The kids will have their say, at least as long as there are bands like Garden Variety to do the talking. —James Lien

In a homespun strummy way, TWIST is carving a niche for itself as a male/female acoustic duo. While most such groups generally leave us cold, this one has managed to entice us with its just-released CD Summer Salt (Twist, P.O. Box 36B05, Los Angeles, CA 90036). At the forefront of the band's seven songs is vocalist Lana Beeson, who recalls the high wispy voices of Rickie Lee Jones and Edie Brickell. She's joined by musical compatriot Michael Down, and together they form the nucleus of a quiet, spartan sound that finds Down's acoustic guitar augmented by tambourine, flute, hand percussion and occasional well-placed instrumental contributions (cellos, violin) from guest players. In spots, the duo's sound recalls 10,000 Maniacs' Unplugged album, although Beeson generally sings a little more uninhibitedly than Natalie Merchant. Though we've never seen Twist live, we can imagine the group as kind of a walk-on sensation; i.e. we can see the band doing well in an unplugged, informal showcase setting that lends itself to an intense and riveting performance before a hushed crowd. Twist's melodies are ear-catching, and the ambience of mystery is there, creating an appealing mood, though Beeson should watch her lyrics a little more carefully to keep them from becoming too precious. Though ultimately these songs and this CD probably aren't the ones that will make this band's name, it's a promising start for a duo worth watching. —D.I.Y.

DISCO INFERNO D.I. Go Pop (Rough Trade, 66 Golborne Road, London, W10 5PS England/081-960-9888)—If its name weren't enough, this East London trio's second album title is a pursed-lipped statement of irony if ever there was one. Then again, there is some perverse pop sensibility in the way Disco Inferno has incorporated contemporary sound design into its minimalist rock architecture. Whereas 1991's debut album Open Doors, Closed Windows took the raincoat-rock throb of Joy Division/New Order to more introspective lows, D.I. Go Pop drops conventional guitar/drum foundations and opens the doors onto startling new vistas, where all manner of samples (running water, crashing glass, voice babble, other indefinable 'sound-affects') provide the rhythm or meter, deploying found noise in the same way dance music utilizes percussion. Around a loping, centrifugal bass, instruments and samples swirl around, all fractured shards and eddies, ebbing and flowing, creating a new, darker version of ambient house, where industrial music, not the disco matrix, is the motivating source. The disoriented atmosphere is reflected in song titles like "In Sharky Water," "Starbound—All Burnt Out And Nowhere To Go" and "A Crash At Every Speed" and is articulated by Ian Krause's doleful, 'exiled' vocals. Never have 'pop' melodies sounded so much like elegies; in fact, nothing else sounds remotely like D.I. Go Pop. As track two puts it, this is "New Clothes For The New World," where a blueprint is taken to the next stage, influenced only by the times rather than any trend or somebody else's brilliant career, which is rock's usual trajectory. Rock often has to pretend to sound 'moved,' the manifestation of protest and angst; D.I. Go Pop gets there by taking a completely different, original path: "A Whole Wide World Ahead." It truly deserves the word 'brilliant'; if only pop, or rock, even, was always this brave, this single-minded. A disco inferno that lives up to its name.

SUBMARINE Submarine (Ultimate, 271 Royal College St., London, NW1 9LU England/071-482-0115)—Take the guitar stratospheria of the Flaming Lips and Mercury Rev, fuse with the opiate languor of Galaxie 500 (Submarine covers "Tugboat" on its new single) and the Mary Chain's post-Spector moodiness, then lace with the wave-upon-wave momentum of the U.K. shoegazing aesthetic. By concentrating on a sleepwalk tension, the eponymous debut album from this London trio realizes much of the promise that the shoegazing movement only patchily delivered, with a gripping, end-to-end guitar-haze foray with the right balance between eyes-closed and bleeding-fingers dramatics. The production by Keith Cleversley (Spiritualized, Mercury Rev, Flaming Lips) adds to an air of graceful slumbering that doesn't relent for a moment: From the two-chord crank of the opening "I Can't Be Satisfied" to the drifting lull of the closing "Alright Sunshine Song," it's only the density that alters. The one diversion, though, is the best, when blissful horns decorate the feedback-beauty of "Never Be Alright Again," a typically slow descent into a walking sleep. Immerse yourself in Submarine's murky depths, then catch up with the band's compilation of mail-order singles, Kiss Me Till Your Ears Burn Off (on the Lips' Fantastic label).

ECSTASY OF SAINT THERESA Free-D (Original Soundtrack) (Free, P.O. Box 2851, London W6 9ZW England/081-748-7973)—Set the controls for the heart of the sun. This Prague sextet is already renowned for its ambient guitar-technics, which Free-D (Original Soundtrack) takes to the near infinite. While the group's debut EPs were more in line with a soft-focus My Bloody Valentine and Seefeel, its debut album dispenses with songs per se, loosening any ties that bind them to the earth (free-d at last), and heading for ambientland's never-ending omniverse, or rather, the axis where the distinction between rock and ambience ends. Elements of Eno, the Orb, Pink Floyd, Aphex Twin and the Valentines are all drawn on for this starship enterprise; suitably recorded in two converted-church studios, the music has a sacred, up-there sublimity, fluttering and floating into the ecstatic ether. Instrument credits say it all—"sound space oscillation," "heavenly bells," "bubble bass," "low vibration," "color rhythm sound"...vocals are soft moans or coos, while bird-song and Moog-synth burbles get equal space to roam. Free-D is a beautiful piece of work—entrancing, enterprising, full of efflorescent detail, a space bath with rejuvenating properties. Chill-out with "Trance (Among The Stars)," "Sooper Kosmos" and "Her Eyes Have It."

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

Sadly, I missed Manic Street Preachers' benefit for Cancer Research at London's Grand Theatre, an event precipitated by the tragic death of their manager, PR supremo Philip Hall, at 33, late last year. The infamous outburst by Manics bassist Nicky Wire, to the effect that "I hope Michael Stipe goes the way of Freddie Mercury," was apparently triggered by news of Hall's initial diagnosis, as Wire was angry that cancer wasn't a 'fashionable' disease like AIDS and would never get the profile or assistance. The show raised £20,000, with Suede guitarist Bernard Butler guesting on a couple of Manics tracks and the Manics doing a version of Suede's "The Drowners." The Pogues, fellow friends and clients of Hall, guested, as did cranberries' Delores. Sounds like an event: Hopefully they'll be some live versions available in the near future... Strange that after two striking 7" singles, Ithaca, New York's MILF should not have gotten wider recognition; this is one coruscating, combustible East Coast rock trio with firebrand singer/guitarist Justin a veritable magnet for attention. Preceding the band's debut album on Big Beat comes its 7" release via January's installment of the Rough Trade Singles Club. "No Name" and "2" are nothing new, except that the tumbling, soaring guitar noise and Justin's heartfelt vocal sound like the first time around: When "2" speeds matters up and adds an oxygenated chorus, then the thermometer hits red. The production is fairly garage-bound, which only serves to increase the riveted tension (Rough Trade, address above)...On a similar tip, Northern U.K. newcomer TC HUG also inhabits the 'East Coast rock' corner, but with much clearer antecedents in that well-served soundmine. The debut EP Find leads off with the title track, a Sugared toke on the bleeding-heart, taillights-fading Buffalo Tom stance, with leanly pummeled guitars, terse vocal and undulating, pop-thrasy chords, but excellent all the same. "Walnut Xanadu" and "Fabled In Our Time" are more of the same, but "Fake" is a welcome stab at mellowdom, albeit under two minutes long, with smoky electric/glimmering acoustic guitar and plaintive vocal (Playtime, P.O. Box 354, Manchester, M60 4PR U.K./061-228-6884)...THESE ANIMAL MEN's mad-pop package is set to explode by way of their debut single. The 7"-only, limited-edition (2000 copies) "Speed King" has already caused controversy before release with its pro-amphetamine diatribe (the sleeve says, "t.a.m. commandment no. 8 'amphetamines are where it's at'" and white-powder sleeve photo; they've just been banned from playing a series of school shows, but you get the feeling they were only planned so that they could be banned. The song is a simple, vigorous slice of urchin pop, surprisingly lightweight, unlike their Hi-Rise label brethren S*M*A*S*H (more on that band next column), like power pop with spiky haircuts—likewise "Jobs For The Boys." The photo shows four boys, gang-like with matching clothes (sports sneakers, nylon sipper jackets, real '70s ichnography); the press release talks of "council estate chic": t.a.m. commandment no. 6 is "if you've got it, flaunt it." Only in the U.K. could this happen... (Hi-Rise, 429 Harrow Road, London, W10 U.K./081-964-6195)...Dutch pop has seemingly upped its ante, with Bettie Serveert, the Nightblooms, 2 Unlimited (just kidding) and now DARYL-ANN, new signing to Hut. The I Could Never Love You EP is four tracks of the purest pop weaving to be heard in a blue moon—how long since any Euro-pop was Byrds-influenced and jangle-inflected (U.K. pop has left it all behind, as the fad doesn't fit), with harmonies of a Crosby, Stills & Nash persuasion that stand the comparison? The title track immaculately rawks; "Friends" is the sweetest ache; "She Is, I'm Not" is a more variable psychedelic mood-swinger; "My Last Call" is the prettiest of them all, with guitar feedback even more delicate than the guest violin. Throughout, the guitars maintain a tender, sublime zest; just the most refreshing thing in the larder today (Hut, 429 Harrow Road, London W10 U.K./081-964-6195)...Likewise SILVER. The London quartet follows up its debut single (on the Rough Trade Singles Club) with an equally tender pure-pop escapade in "Silver Saturday." Plangent guitars, autumnally winsome vocal and silvery harmonies come in a '60s-not-'60s setting, reminiscent of the Zombies, if anyone, with a fragile warmth shared by Kevin Ayers and Nick Drake (track three, "Travelling Show," could have come off Drake's Five Leaves Left). "Riding A Different Horse," meanwhile, is a touch glam-rockier, with cheesy handclaps and a '70s-not-'70s atmosphere. Songwriter Ian De Zilwa is also a dark-haired handsome who should be given a sizeable advance and left alone to craft more beauties (Liberty Place, 30 Shooters Hill, Blackheath, London SE3 U.K.).

Martin Aston, 125B Crofton Road, Camberwell, London SE5 8LZ, England/071-703-3281.

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/noncommercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). ▲ indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position; #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more...PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

Elvis Costello

Prior to their breakup eight years ago, Elvis Costello & The Attractions were a CMJ chart staple, the bespectacled rocker usually assuming top positions on our charts. After the release of some of Costello's more exploratory work, including an album with the Brodsky Quartet, the band has reunited to record one of Costello's strongest records ever, Brutal Youth, their first since 1986's Blood And Chocolate. Belying their age, Costello and crew deliver some consistently agitating music with an energy that holds its own with the kids on the chart above them. Powered by a 14-8 move in the East regional, Brutal Youth climbs 15-10 in its third week on the chart. KAUR, KBUT (#1), KMSU (MN) (#1), KRCC (#1), KRCL, KUGS (#1), KUNI, WBSU, WDCR (PA), WFNP, WGLZ, WHRV, WHSE, WICB (#1), WLHA, WLNZ, WMBR, WМУH, WNEC, WNKU, WNTI, WNYK, WONC, WORT, WQUB, WRBC and WWSP all chime in with top five reports.

PROGRESSIVE RETAIL

Chart compiled by Dawn Sutter

ON THE CHART

The battle continues this week as Nothing/TVT-Interscope's Nine Inch Nails captures the #1 position from A&M's Soundgarden, though Soundgarden remains the #1 In-Store pick. Bong Load-DGC's Beck holds steady at #3, while DGC's Counting Crows (8-7) and Reprise's Green Day (12-9) scale up the chart.

Other chart movers include Nettwerk-Arista's Sarah McLachlan (17-14), Atlantic's Jawbox (20-18), Tupelo/Communion's Jawbreaker (25-21), Matador's Liz Phair (29-23), Rykodisc's Morphine (38-28), Sub Pop's Combustible Edison (65-30, #5 In-Store), Teen Beat's Unrest 7" (48-33), Capitol's Richard Thompson (49-38) and Elektra's Bjork (#57 re-entry).

There's plenty new to the record store scene this week: Elektra's Motley Crue (#16, #1 Retail Breakthrough), Merge's Superchunk (#20, #2 Breakthrough), Sire-Reprise's Morrissey (#27), Sub Pop's Mudhoney/Jimmie Dale Gilmore (#35), 1/4 Stick-Touch And Go's Mule (#47), Matador's Helium (#49), Touch And Go's Killdozer (#52), EastWest America's Pantera (#59) and Ajax's Thinking Fellers Union Local 282 (#65). (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

RETAIL FOCUS

SUPERCHUNK

Superchunk, the band that triggered the discovery of "the Chapel Hill scene" and gave the anthem "Slack Motherfucker" to a neezy young generation, will release its fourth album, Foolish, on April 18. After three albums on Matador, Foolish will be the band's first album of new material released through its own Merge label, which also issued the spunky singles compilation Tossing Seeds two years ago. Getting the word out early, Merge has released The First Part (EP), which includes the album cut "The First Part," a tightly-knit tune that's less bubbly (but no less infectious) than some of Superchunk's other singles, plus two non-LP tracks. The EP enters the retail chart at #20 and ranks #2 on the Retail Breakthrough tally.

VARIOUS & SUNDRY

Those stations that contributed to the rapid ascent of tenorist Ernie Watts' Reaching Up (JVC) to the top of the CMJ jazz chart should be especially amenable to Always Say Goodbye (Verve, c/o PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019), the new entry from the CHARLIE HADEN QUARTET WEST, of which Watts is an integral member. Like its 1992 predecessor, Haunted Heart, Always Say Goodbye is a dark, yet often softly lyrical serenade to another time and another place—the shadowy, noirish world of '40s Tinseltown populated by the likes of Philip Marlowe, the hard-bitten private dick played by Humphrey Bogart, and Carmen Sternwood, the wickedly spoiled rich bitch who, in the words of her ancient, decaying father (a man reduced to indulging his vices by proxy), has all the usual vices plus a few of her own creation. The sweet, sick smell of decay, of dashed dreams and slap-in-the-face reality, pervades the evocative Always Say Goodbye. As a member of Ornette Coleman's revolutionary quartet of the '60s, bassist Haden explored uncharted realms of improvisation (imagine—using the melody itself, instead of a song's almighty chord changes, as the springboard!), absorbing the brickbats of offended critics before gaining ultimate, and deserved, renown for his daring innovations. Together for several years now, Haden's Quartet West (which also includes the venerable drummer Larence Marable and the resplendently lyrical pianist Alan Broadbent) emphasizes music that, while obviously a throwback, is rich in melodiousness and redolent of American iconography. Dim the lights when you slip Always Say Goodbye into your CD player. Oh, yeah, be sure to look through the peephole before you answer the knock at your door. Jocks who marvelled at Watts' deep-toned, billowy tenor on Reaching Up will find in Always Say Goodbye a worthy programming companion piece. Residents of and visitors to New York City the week of May 10-15 are in for a treat when Haden's Quartet West shares a bill at the Blue Note, the Big Apple's most prestigious jazz-spot, with Bobby Watson's Horizon quintet (whose Live Midwest Shuffle is due imminently from Columbia)...Vocalist Abbey Lincoln's working pianist, RODNEY KENDRICK, has come out with a debut CD, The Secrets Of (Gitanes/Verve, address above), that bespeaks his precociously assured command of the keyboard and augurs well for his continued development. A percussive pianist, but not at the expense of dynamics and a relaxed elegance, Kendrick purveys a logical, linear, often blues-suffused concept that leaves room for the compatible accents, on several tracks, of additional hand-percussion. From the opening selection, his own "Slide The World Into Place," Kendrick reminds one of a young Randy Weston. It's no surprise, then, to learn that two of the next three tracks on the CD are Weston compositions, one being the oft-covered "Berkshire Blues." That is not to say that Kendrick is imitative, mind you; it's

ON THE CHART

Over the last few weeks, the battle for the top has been between Atlantic's Cyrus Chestnut (1-2) and JVC's Ernie Watts (2-7), but this week, a pair of youngbloods pushes everybody aside. Novus-RCA's Roy Hargrove & Antonio Hart leap 4-1 to take command of the chart, grabbing the #1 ranking at CFRC, KTEG, KUNM, WCUR, WDPS and WUSM, while seemingly entrenching themselves for a multi-week run at the top. Elsewhere in the ever-tightening top five, Atlantic's Modern Jazz Quartet (5-3) and Chrysalis-ERG's

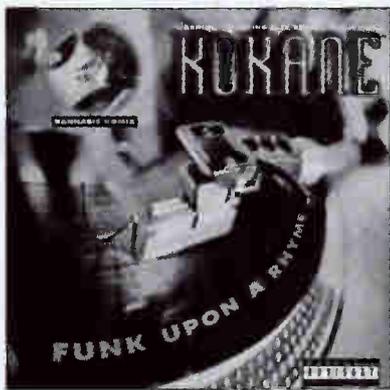

Solsonics (6-4) both enjoy new peaks, while Atlantic's Carl Allen (19-8), Gerald Albright (21-11) and Mike Stern (#15 debut) set themselves up nicely for next week, making a strong showing for Atlantic, something the Jazz chart hasn't seen from that label in quite some time. Our only other new entry sneaks in at #25, from Muse's Jack Walrath And The Masters Of Suspense. (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) simply that the Weston influence suits his own approach very well. Cornetist Graham Haynes (his pinged tones are quite effective), trumpeter Roy Hargrove, alto saxist Kenny Garrett and tenorist Houston Person make creditable frontline appearances on various cuts. Well done. Do check it out...The just-mentioned HOUSTON PERSON, whose natural, just-folks gregariousness has made him an effective, in-demand producer for a number of artists on the Muse roster, has come out with his own, highly recommended disk for the same label, Now's The Time. This duet with his co-leader, the incomparable contrabassist RON CARTER, is a classy sequel to their previous Something In Common collaboration. These two established vets display an instant empathy and esprit. Their voluminous harmonic resources, in tandem with their overtone-laden instrumental capabilities, more than compensate for, indeed render moot, the absence of any supplemental chordal accompaniment. Person and Carter purvey an easeful, full sound, rich in tonal color and never overdone, on such delightfully straightforward fare as "Spring Can Really Hang You Up The Most," "Quiet Nights" and "Since I Fell For You." Call or write to Muse (160 W. 71st St., New York, NY 10023/212-873-2020) and cop this side...From twosomes we move to threesomes and the wonderful offering from bassist ROB WASSERMAN, Trios (GRP, 555 W. 57th St, New York, NY 10019/212-424-1155).

The third and concluding album in a recorded triptych begun a decade ago, Trios is a stylistically varied, often captivating get-together with a disparate lot of players including Brian and Carmie Wilson, Edie Brickell and Jerry Garcia, Neil Young and Bob Weir. Jazz, per se, doesn't dominate Trios, though Wasserman doesn't shortchange swing altogether; his breezy, timely, tuneful and unaffected basswork is the centering force, indeed the common denominator, on this winsome platter. For jazz, blues and related programming purposes, the following tracks are heartily recommended: "White-Wheeled Limousine" (with pianist Bruce Hornsby and saxist Branford Marsalis), "Dustin' Off The Bass" (with the lamentably deceased bassman Willie Dixon and drummer Al Duncan) and "Gypsy One" and "Gypsy Two" (with cellists Matt Haimovitz and Joan Jeanrenaud of the Kronos Quartet). Congrats to Wasserman for having the perseverance and protean musical skills to pull off this estimable trilogy. Methinks Trios is an early frontrunner for strong Grammy consideration.

Gene Kalbacher is the editor and publisher of Hot House, the monthly jazz night-life guide for the New York metropolitan area. DOPE!

KOKANE Funk Upon A Rhyme (Ruthless, c/o Relativity, 187-07 Henderson Ave., Hollis, NY 11423/718-217-3600)—The liberating effects of stellar funk in the spirit of Parliament/Funkadelic, Zapp and George Clinton are rarely captured by hip-hoppers, who somehow feel that because they love funk, they too are master funkologists. Sadly, that's generally not true, unless you try on Funk Upon A Rhyme, the second release from Pomona, California's Kokane (a.k.a. Jerry Long). Kokane is from the same family tree as the writers of songs like "Just My Imagination," "ABC" and "The Mack," and he spent much of his childhood listening to such essential music, which would later give life to this impressive, all-live, brick house of sizzling P-Funk harmonies combined with Pharcyde-like humor and heavy-fisted hardcore mackin' ("Aftermath"). Cousin Cold 187um (Above The Law) furnishes Funk Upon A Rhyme with a crib full of unmuddled funk grooves, which sound less produced and more like weighty blasts of unconstrained, sample-free funk extract, and Kokane, when he's not rapping, strains and struggles with his Clinton-influenced voice on "No Pain No Gain," while his words paint murals of survival in the modern world. "Funkinmuffin," a static attempt to join ragamuffin vocals with a mechanical raga/funk rhythm, is passable only because of Kokane's unusual vocalizing. While most street-funk reaches back into the archives, sampling and shrouding old standards, Kokane strategically manages to sound like he's sampling when he's actually coming up with something remarkably original. Funk upon: "From The Funk To The Back," "Slow Burnin' 22.5 Fahrenheit," "I Need Representation," "Bakin' Soda Free" and "Don't Bite The Phunk."

VARIOUS ARTISTS The Acid Jazz Test—Part 1 (Moonshine, 8391 Beverly Blvd. #195, Los Angeles, CA 90048/310-246-0091)—Turn the clocks ahead about 15 years. In the next millennium, acid jazz multi-CD collections could be the next Time Life infomercial to be peddled by some washed-up MTV jock. Today, acid jazz (in all its forms) is giving a new sensibility and integrity to the music of jazz dinosaurs like Miles, Dizzy, Bird and Trane—the original purveyors of street culture. The Acid Jazz Test—Part 1 is a formidable representation of the refreshing combinations of live jazz structures with some of the rare groove, soul, funk and hip-hop happening in New York, Los Angeles, London and Paris. As evidenced by Jhelisa's "All I Need" and Karime Kendra's Jody Watley-flavored vocals on "Never Give Up," much of this collection travels deep within heavy soul gems like Milk's "Beached." Beat-poet Shakee (who fronts Brooklyn Funk Essentials) delivers a spoken word dream entitled "A Headnaddas Journey To The Planet Adidi-Skizm," while Good Morning Mr. Basie romps through smokey, Ronny Jordan-like grooves on "Kiss Like A Frenchman." Whatever your musical persuasion, this compilation is an up-

ON THE CHART

EVERYONE WANTS TO BE A STARR: In two out of its first three weeks, Chrysalis-ERG's Gang Starr (1-1) has beaten out Jive's A Tribe Called Quest (2-2) for top Beat Box honors, while—after 20 weeks on the chart—Loud-RCA's Wu-Tang Clan (3-3) rounds out the top three. With an album forthcoming, Columbia's Nas (5-4) reaches a new peak, while Elektra's Del The Funkyhomosapien (18-10) re-enters No Need For Alarm into the top 10. While many artists, such as Virgin's Shyheim (15-12), Wreck-Nervous' Black Moon (19-15), Jive's KRS-One (22-20) and Tommy Boy's Quinton (29-

24), take small steps up the chart, we see a giant debut from Delicious Vinyl-EastWest America's Brand New Heavies, who drop their third record, Brother Sister, at #18 this week. Also reaching the chart this week are Elektra's K.M.D. (#34) and Tommy Boy's Coolio at #35. SOUNDTRACK Above The Rim (Death Row/Interscope, c/o Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—It seems like only yesterday when Dr. Dre promised that his newly-formed Death Row Records was going to blow up on the spot with some of hip-hop's fiercest hardcore since the break-up of N.W.A. Now, riding real low in his Chevy Impala, Dre rolls onto a Hollywood movie set and assembles a soundtrack packed with a full clip of incessant G-funk and R&B—something the movie moguls haven't witnessed since last year's Menace II Society. Starring Tupac Shakur and Marlon Wayans, Above The Rim's 21-cut soundtrack (with three extra cuts only available on the cassette) features Snoop Doggy Dogg-spinoffs Tha Dogg Pound Gangstas on "Big Pimpin'" and "Dogg Pound 4 Life," along with 2Pac-spinoffs Thug Life on "Pour Out A Little Liquor." The street ballads by female crew Sweet Sable ("Old Times' Sake") and D.J. Rogers' "Doggy Style"—whose laughable chorus states: "I really would like to ride it doggy style, let's do it doggy style!"—are routinely suggestive enough to make Don Cornelius blush, as they become insipid and trite by the soundtrack's end. Noticeably, there's no shortage of hardcore bauble, a few praiseworthy cuts standing out in a sea of elementary boasts and continuous posing; Nate Dogg & Warren G give us "Regulate," which samples Michael McDonald's "I Keep Forgettin," and female gangsta the Lady Of Rage, who sounds like a cross between MC Lyte and Boss contributes "Afro Puffs." Regardless, 2Pac's "Pain" and 2Pac/Treach/Riddler's "Loyal To The Game" are worth the price of admission. Also peep: SWV's "Anything," CPO Boss Hog's "Just Say Ya No" and Al B. Sure's cover of Al Green's "I'm Still In Love With You."

MASTA ACE INCORPORATED "Born To Roll" [96 BPM] (Delicious Vinyl, c/o Atlantic, address above)—"Check it out, baby/Check it out y'all" is the energetic chorus of the new single from Masta Ace Incorporated. "Born To Roll" shows the group's competent hardcore style, as Masta Ace Incorporated raps about car wars, cops and booming systems. The flipside features the new joint "The B-Side," featuring sparse production and a Brooklyn take on cold, bass-laden West Coast G-funk.

WORD IS...

WAKE THE CHILDREN: Although it might surprise some, EAZY-E's Ruthless-Relativity EP release It's On (Dr. Dre) 187um Killa has recently achieved double-platinum status... U-GOD of the Staten Island, NY, group WU-TANG CLAN left the band's recent promotional tour to return home to be with his two-year-old son, Dante Hawkins. Dante was caught in the crossfire of a shootout between two young men and suffered critical injuries. His prognosis is positive for survival, despite suffering injuries to his pancreas and losing one of his kidneys.

NEW WORLD MUSIC

Chart compiled by James Lien/
Column by Cliff Fernald

201: A FILLING-THE-SPACE ODYSSEY

You'd think that after writing 200 columns (roughly 250,000 words) that I would have no trouble writing my 201st New World Music column. I figured it would be easy to reflect on what went through these pages since June of 1989—the changes in the music, the institution of the phrase "world music" and the institutionalizing of the New World Music charts that have appeared here, and subsequently in a number of other magazines. But here I am, two hours from my deadline and no closer to a comprehensive view of these last 4.75 years, so once again you're stuck with my random ramblings. Here's a brief history of the world of music according to my columns. Bear with me.

I started off the first New World Music with two Jackpots, SALIF KEITA's Ko-Yan (Mango) and the Italian folk-jazz quartet RITMIA's Maybe The Sea (Shanachie). So why, you ask, is the picture here of Keita's 1987 album Soro? Because from day-one, CMJ editors and I haven't necessarily seen eye-to-eye on what should be in the column. CMJ's mission has always been to present the newest music, but I wanted to start off this new enterprise with what was, at the time, the seminal African pop record available in the U.S. Soro is a masterpiece of fusion, blending old work songs from Mali with a high-tech silicon base that has been captured only rarely since. So now I indulge myself and make the record the 201st Jackpot of CMJ's New World Music column. I think it's well deserved. Keita still endures, with three Mango albums and reissues of most of his work with the Ambassadeurs still in print. He is also the subject of a new compilation, The Mansa Of Mali (Mango), which includes a live tune and hard-to-find soundtrack cuts. Since the '70s, Salif Keita has charted an unswerving course through the sometimes rough waters of popular music, presenting Mali as "a contemporary neighbor, not a textbook curiosity."

That column was a struggle, as I set out to try to de-define the term "world music" before it ever got off the ground. I included reviews of juju Beatles covers by ODION'S JUJU AND THE BEATLES (a misprint spared you my musical pun, as I referred to them as "odious juju"), Original Music's The Nairobi Beat (recently expanded and re-issued as a CD—yep, we were still getting vinyl promos way back in the '80s), Minneapolis punk-Celtic rockers BOILED IN LEAD, the MAD PROFESSOR, the WORLD SAXOPHONE QUARTET, Cajun popsters FILE and London's answer to them, the BALHAM ALLIGATORS.

Through all of the ensuing months, CMJ pretty much let me do my thing, writing what I thought was relevant, never arguing about the appropriateness of one album or another. Then-Editor Scott Byron championed my cause more than once, even while he begged me not to do some of the things I did. We came head-to-head a number

Well, we have a new #1 on our hands, as Green Linnet's Tarika Sammy, a longtime favorite, drops from the top all the way to #7. Rising into its place of honor is Ellipsis Arts' joyous multi-disc celebration of African music, Africa Never Stand Still (2-1). Meanwhile, Mango's Khaled is close behind, inching up 3-2. The top is tight here, and there could be any number of wild shakeups taking place amongst these top five slots in the coming weeks. Our highest debut this week goes to Hollywood's Yothu Yindi, coming in at #12. Further down, we find two RAS releases debuting back-to-back: the dual release from Gregory Isaacs and Dennis Brown (#18), followed closely by the incomparable Yellowman (#19). Further down, Warner Bros.' Milton Nascimento comes on board at #22, and rounding out the bottom of our chart is Heartbeat's Word Sound 'ave Power tribute to great dub poetry. (WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) of times, like when I wanted to make a political statement about label waste by Jackpotting a make-believe CD single (I lost the battle, but we still ran the article further down in the column) or when I blasted OFRA HAZA's Desert Wind (Sire-WB) in February of 1990 (I was too kind, calling it "a failed attempt." It was rubbish!). It is to Scott's and CMJ's credit that then, as now, they let me call them as I see them, good or bad. A trade rag that pans the hits? It's about time.

Probably the most significant shift in things on this page came in May of 1990, when the Reggae Route chart became a world music chart. It was no surprise to find BLACK UHURU and GREGORY ISAACS at the top, but one non-reggae record snuck in there, the BHUNDU BOYS' Pamberi (Mango again!). That week also marked the appearance of Fode by Mali's KASSY MADY, the first American title from Stern's Music's newly opened New York offices. In the coming years, the music of both Mali and Stern's would play a major part in both my radio life and this column.

It took a big name and some major-label clout to get a non-reggae record into the number one spot, and it came on the wings of YOUSSOU N'DOUR and his Virgin-backed release of Set. No doubt his upcoming release on Sony will do it again, as he moves from Peter Gabriel to Neneh Cherry, looking for that elusive MTV hit. It was opposed to the chart when it was first suggested, believing that it would ultimately pen-in the radio reporters as the definition of this world music became more narrow. Instead, over the years it has grown to include Finnish accordion players, New Orleans brass bands, English comedians/musicologists like 3 MUSTAPHAS 3, gospel songbirds SWEET HONEY IN THE ROCK and a number of crossover jazz, hip-hop and folk artists from all over the populated planet. In the eminent wisdom of the larger group, New World Music has come to mean many things, and is still keeping the marketing departments confused and off center.

The other exciting aspect of these last 200+ weeks has been the growth in the industry itself. Those first charts were dominated by smaller labels like

Mango, Shanachie, Heartbeat and Rounder, with the occasional major-label toss-off. But as time went on, other established labels found a niche in world music was finally opening new areas to them, and we now have U.S. operations for Stern's, Real World and World Circuit, world music pioneers in Europe. Irish folk label Green Linnet Records has exploded with the creation of their Xenophile nameplate, and names like Earthbeat, Music Of

The World, Ellipsis Arts and Triloka now frequent the charts, while dozens of smaller specialist labels have sprung up and thrived, even if they never charted.

There have been a number of moments over the years that have made what I thought was going to be a short-term gig into an interesting second career. Thanks to Sire Records for sending me and thousands of others a quart of oil during the Gulf War; it made it all so clear. Thanks to Scott B. for forcing me to write better, for arguing with me constantly and for letting me win most of the important ones. Thanks to the genius who thought up CD-singles, for giving me a universal constant to complain about. To Scott Decker for understanding (or claiming to understand) what I was trying to do here. To James Lien and Jim Caliguiri for keeping me in line, and making me laugh about this business when I most needed it. Some things I'm happy about: Paul Simon never made it into the top 10; thanks to the wonders of telecommunications technology, I have never visited the CMJ offices in Great Neck; because the world is a wonderful place, I regularly get entertaining crank calls from over-zealous reggae fans every time I say the wrong thing.

Reviews by James Lien/Ah-So-Me Chat by The Night Nurse, Amy Wachtel

alpha blondy LIVE AU ZENITH (PARIS)

ALPHA BLONDY Live Au Zenith (Paris) (World Pacific, c/o Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Los Angeles, CA 90028)—Throughout reggae's history, the live album has always been a great device to consolidate an artist's position and affirm his or her reputation: From Bob Marley to Peter Tosh to Burning Spear to Steel Pulse, virtually every key reggae talent has released at least one superb breakthrough live album that manages to bring everything that he or she does into one dynamic package. For this writer, the appeal of a live reggae album today is that it puts the emphasis back on the singer's own groove, feeling and passion; while the studio recordings of the big name artists often seem a little calculated for crossover and the jackpot of commercial radio play, it would be very difficult to overproduce a live reggae album, or to lose the immediacy of an impassioned performance. This is especially true given the advancements in modern recording, which allow a clean, sophisticated sound that also captures the emotional intensity and vibrancy of a good live performance. In the case of this live album, capturing Alpha Blondy on stage in Paris way back in October of '92, it's a welcome change of gears from the pre-programmed, crossover-minded mainstream reggae albums that have been coming along these days, and on those terms, it's an overwhelming success. Somewhere in the middle of "Jerusalem," the groove takes hold, and we're suddenly in the midst of one of the most hypnotic, intense performances ever committed to tape; virtually every cut from that point on ranks among the best performances in Blondy's lengthy career. Those who remember the phenomenal success of last year's Steel Pulse live set may want to watch this one: So far, its performance on the New World Music Chart has shown a stronger initial reaction from retail than from radio airplay (although in the last week or two more stations and DJs seem to be picking up on the record). Also, this album serves as a healthy, jubilant state-of-reggae address for the '90s, and affirms the universality of reggae music as a force with the potential for a truly global impact. Not every day does a record come along that can do all of that in a little over 65 minutes.

(Earth Beat!, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—To those lucky enough to be able to attend, the annual Reggae On The River festival at the Mateel Community Center in California is a reggae fan's dream come true, as literally dozens of performers strut their stuff onstage in front of over 10,000 reggae fans. For more than 10 years, it has been one of the United States' biggest reggae attractions, and to document the Festival's 10th Anniversary last year, live recordings were made of the jubilant occasion, the best results finding release on these two CDs. Here we're treated to more than two hours of uplifting live reggae. There are a few "world music" performers in the mix, such as Angelique Kidjo, Baaba Maal and Ismael Lo (if memory serves, Mango's Africa Fete tour was in the States at about the same time as last year's Reggae On The River concerts), but they are all artists who fit in well with the reggae flavor of the Festival. It's a little weird to hear each performer say things between numbers like "This is our last song," or "How are you all doing this evening?" or even "We have CDs for sale on the side of the stage," but in spite of this peculiar flaw (which is somewhat understandable considering that these two discs were whittled down from literally hours of performances), the music is still top-notch, a testimonial to the greatness of the Reggae On The River festival and the first-rank artists that perform there. If spirit and positive vibes are what you're after, you can't do much better than this festival, and these two CDs are living proof. We'd also like to call your attention to the interesting pairing of Baaba Maal and Michael Frante of Disposable Heroes Of Hiphoprisy on "Yelle Jam (Hamady Boiro)." How many times have you heard a rap MC shout out "Yo, Baaba Maal's in the house, y'all! Give it up!" Our reggae picks: Annete Brisette's "Na Na Na," Third World's "You've Got The Power," Jimmy Cliff's "Treat The Youth Right" and contributions by the Wailing Souls and Lucky Dube.

GREGORY ISAACS Unlocked (RAS, P.O. Box 42517, Washington, DC 20015/301-588-9641)—Gregory Isaacs is one of the most prolific and persistently high-quality artists in all of reggae. Unlocked presents some of his strongest material from the Artistic Productions posse, including several particularly steamy soul-flavored ballads. Of course, the wide variety of topics discussed on Unlocked range from love to love—too much love, not enough love, the complications of love, and of course, how to get more love. Which, coming from Gregory Isaacs, is not a bad thing at all; in fact, it's quite the contrary. Our favorites here include one such ballad, "Love And I Lost It," as well as the heavy electronic concoction "Make Sure" and the slinky "It's True." As always, the ubiquitous Sly & Robbie rhythm section gives each track just enough of a quirk or rhythmic twist or wise bassline to keep things interesting, even though the music is clearly not the most important element here. It's Isaacs' voice, of course, that steals the show, and he's always center stage telling some tale of romance. Our only negative comment hasn't got a thing to do with the music, but with the cover photo, in which Gregory looks anything but charming; it's the second bad cover photo of a major RAS artist this year, coming after that dreadful photo of Bunny Wailer that adorned his Just Be Nice album. Though it doesn't fit the Unlocked concept, how about the shot of Gregory on his snazzy motorcycle on the inside?

MYAKKA "Chantment"/"Back Stage Blues" (12") (Bottom Line, 10202 284th St. E., Myakka City, FL 34251/813-322-2834)—Bottom Line Records, with its stellar production team of Nelson "Paradise" Roman and Ed Goltsmann, is certainly one of the most overlooked independent dance labels in the U.S. Long respected overseas for their crisp, punchy, soulful garage instrumentals, Roman and Goltsmann should be adored on these shores, yet they remain in relative obscurity. (The label also recently moved from Brooklyn to Miami). Nelson Roman served as A&R coordinator and in-house producer at one of the earliest, most well respected-garage labels, Big Beat. There he oversaw the mighty "Sweat" by Jay Williams and dancefloor monsters such as Taravhonty's "Join Hands" and Jomanda's "Make My Body Rock." Label heads Ed and Nancy Goltsmann are responsible for a series of impeccable NY deep piano house tracks from the mid-'80s onward. "Back Stage Blues" is one of the team's finest moments, the sort of uplifting motivator that sounds so good at the end of a long, brutal winter. Opening with clicking high-hat and high toms, the track seems to have a built-in momentum and a drive that won't quit. At a time when dozens of house records a week have identical kick and high-hat patterns overlaid with Hammond bursts, this track really makes heads turn.

TECHNO-CAL DIFFICULTIES

Dan Bell, one of Detroit's most promising producers, is taking the Chicago school of minimalism into wonderful dimensions. His latest Alien EP by DBX is a full-on percussion-driven clanger, although the tracks themselves were apparently recorded over a year ago. The standout, "Super Phreak," is a lean, closely-cropped 909 stormer with more energy than a supernova. Bell collaborates with Moritz Von Oswald on the spooky "City On The Edge Of Forever," the flip's track of merit. Watch Bell closely; his creative energies have yet to reach their peak (Peacefrog, 7 Welclose St., St. Albans, Hertfordshire AL3 4QD, U.K./0727-846312)...As might be expected, the new Acid Junkies double-12" on Djax is a grueling mental and physical exercise in acid dynamics, strictly for the head-strong. The eight-track Paranoid Experience EP is just what the doctor ordered, a headlong excursion into the mind of Stefan Robbers (a k a TERRACE) whose way with analog instruments is now well documented. The Roland 303 is an inexhaustible source of motion on the hands of Robbers, and this is some of the most searing acid of the year from a label that never disappoints (Djax, P.O. Box 2408, 5600 CK Eindhoven, Netherlands/040-450434)...With German techno becoming more Teutonic and noisy, the emergence of a more melodic strain of hard dance music from Frankfurt is welcome indeed. The city's leading dance store, Delirium, recently launched an in-

TVT's release of Richard James' first Aphex Twin project, under the moniker AFX, takes the top debut at #18—did you think it wouldn't?—while the Twin's Sire-WB single clings at #2, second only to the Orb's live endeavor (1-1), which shows no signs of moving for the next month or more. If you thought industrial dance was a thing of the past, new entries at #20, #21 and #22 for Armageddon Dildos, Non-Aggression Pact and Sheep On Drugs, respectively, will prove you wrong. There is upward progression this week for Richie Hawtin's Plastikman (15-9), Sister Machine Gun (19-12) and Exquisite Corpse (23-17). Some of this week's longest residents include KMFDM (22 weeks) and Plastikman (15 weeks). The chart was compiled from an impressive 83 reports this week. (RPM PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) house label, and the latest release is the refreshing double A-side single by REDEYE and GENETIC WASTE. The track of real quality is Redeye's moving "Contrex Ville," an exercise in stark, grinding electronics offset by grand, sweeping, melodic synth lines. This is an obscure gem worth looking for (Delirium, c/o Neuton, Frankfurt, Germany/069-81 1792).

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

You've seen Roger Sanchez's name here before, and you'll see it again, because his knack for making deep underground dance tracks shows no signs of relenting. His latest, ambitious project is the "Secret Weapons" Vol. 1 double-12" (maybe we'll start calling these LPs!), purpose-built for the underground house DJ in need of a fix. Roger S keeps things raw and stripped down, New York style, with the occasional vocal sample moving through the mix like a sidewinder in the desert. These are not the sort of tracks you'll be humming along to for days, but that's really not the point. The jostling "Spirit Lift You Up" has a couple of dizzying synth breakdowns that ought to keep everyone on their toes, while "D-Day" has a punishing bassline lurking beneath the surface (One, 1650 Broadway, Ste. 610, New York, NY 10019/212-956-8693)...A host of Chicago's finest producers crop up on the remixes from "I'm Leavin' You" by ULYSSES, turning the original inside out and upside down. Since everything Ralphie Rosario touches turns to gold, it's no surprise that "Ralphie's Extreme Dub" is the most satisfying mix here, with its breathless intensity and manic energy. Rosario can fit more power onto a mix than one would have thought possible, and he does it again and again. Elsewhere, Derrick Carter and Chris Nazuka's adventurous "Derrick And Chris Dub" works strange, off-beat drum tempos and piano runs into the fray, with considerable success. Just another record that demonstrates Chicago's importance in underground dance (Large, 714 N. Racine, Chicago, IL 60622/312-829-0293).

EDGE OF SANITY

The Spectral Sorrows

(Black Mark, c/o Cargo, 3058 N. Clybourn Ave., Chicago, IL 60618/312-935-5683)—

Like most death metal records, The Spectral Sorrows begins with a doomy, minor-key intro then bursts into a full-throttle series of growls and blast beats. But unlike most grinding outfits that sacrifice substance for speed, never returning to the atmosphere and mood they led off with, Sweden's Edge Of Sanity constantly straddles the crooked fence between noise and nuance. With time, the band has learned that it's far better to evoke a number of different moods and sensations than to numb its listeners into catatonia with repetitive, monochromatic torrents of volume. The Spectral Sorrows centers its assault around evil sounding riffs and eerie climates, varying in tempo and severity with every song. More importantly, the record display the band's vast vocabulary of darkness; while Edge Of Sanity has mastered all the death metal tricks that make a song scary, the band also has an understanding of death rock and a grasp of ambient classical techniques. "Sacrificed" sounds like it could have come from a Sisters Of Mercy record, while the keyboard-infested "A Serenade For The Dead" is disturbingly crisp, cool and gentle as a lapping stream filled with the blood of dead soldiers. Elsewhere the band thrashes up an inferno on "Darkday," "Livin' Hell" and "On The Other Side," and delivers a fine tribute to Manowar with a harmony-treated "Blood Of My Enemies."

Into The Vortex

(Amphetamine Reptile, 2645 First Ave. S., Minneapolis, MN 55408/612-874-7047)—

The best noisy music always hurts, leaving you with a pain in your heart and an ache for more. If it didn't, it wouldn't be any good. People don't write loud songs to express their joy at life's many pleasures; they do it to release their aggression and vent their disgust. They do it to isolate their anguish, come to terms with it, and in an ideal situation, transfer it to the listener so it's no longer their burden. Hammerhead's Into The Vortex hurts—not like the sudden sting of a papercut, but like the dull, emotional injury of being stood up. Many of the songs rage in somewhat tuneless volleys, then drop to sparser, more hushed tones for a few moments like an infant who has cried himself breathless and has to pause for air. And like the toddler whose cries go ignored, Hammerhead seems to feel alone and neglected by a society it would probably rather not be a part of. "I wash my hand of this dirty world/It makes whores out of pretty girls," screams Apollo Liffoff in "All This Is Yours," while guitars scratch at a framework of throbbing bass and crisp drumming. Even though they make enough noise for anyone within miles to hear, the members of Hammerhead realize that they're ultimately alone—that no matter whose company they're in, at the end of the day they're alone inside their swarming heads, which they crystalize with lines like "Live alone, die alone" ("Zesta"). Even within the band Hammerhead is isolated and unsettled, clamoring to be left alone instead of harmonizing for a cause. Blast off to oblivion with "Swallow," "Brest," "Galaxy 66" and "Journey To The Center Of Tetanus 4."

MUNDANE

Seed

(Raw Energy, 65 Front St., Ste. 0116-42, Toronto, Canada M5J 1E1)—

In the post-apocalyptic industrial lottery filled with the void sweepstakes tickets of bands that can't seem to get it right, Mundane has scratched the winning numbers to armageddon. With divebomb riffs, surging rhythms and tribal drumming, this Toronto outfit is anything but mundane; menacing is more like it. On Seed, the band attacks with the intensity of Godflesh and Prong and the hypnotic power of I Mother Earth, drawing from a vast range of styles and techniques to achieve sonic overload. Vocalist Vitor Rebelo screams lines like, "The motherfucker never left me alone" ("Tribal Season") into a distorted-sounding mike with ulcerous vigor, while guitarist Alex Rebelo hacks out chunky axe lines that buzz like a swarm of killer bees. Adding seasoning to the lethal mix is Mike Gibbs, whose sparse, effective samples clang and ring through the songs, providing dynamics and diversity. As impressive and oppressive as the distorted soundstorms are, however, it's drummer Drew Gauley that keeps the tracks together and gives the band real kick. Unlike many industrial metal bands that use keyboards and drum machines to achieve a cold, distanced sound, Mundane keeps most of the instrumentation human, giving its songs a decidedly real and menacing feel. Remember, a computer can launch a deadly weapon, but it takes a creature of flesh and blood to push the button.

MANTISSA

Mossy God

(Poldor, c/o PLG, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—

Because the band looks like a tribe of neo-hippie pirate gypsies, you might expect Mantissa to blare like a punk thrash metal band. Surprise! The band's debut Mossy God blends jazz, funk and hip-hop rhythms with a hard rock kick, allowing the band to expand beyond the scope of a metal audience. To audition for Mantissa, guitarist Chris Collins hitchhiked all the way to Australia. With production by Terry Date (Soundgarden, Pantera, Screaming Trees), Mossy God reflects this type of drive and dedication, exploring new territories of sound with every track. Wild guitars are the strong point in all of the songs, with improvised solos overtaking every melody. "Mary Mary" revs with rabid drums while a jealous guitar drag races along.

Sounding like an adult version of the nursery rhyme, the sultry vocals ask, "Mary Mary quite contrary, how does your garden grow/With bleeders and breeders and your soul feeders all in a row." Contemplative lyrics are also a key ingredient for Mantissa, the band hitting nerves with likes like, "Taking pills to stop this needing/I can feel this future crush/Everyone pushing much too much." Funk out to "Round The World," or chug a Foster's to "Seed," "Ruby's Mind" and "Land of the Living."

Onward Thru The Fog

Leviathen seems to be one of the few metal bands that is either uninterested in, unintimidated by or unaware of what's hip. Impossible to pigeonhole, the band bears no detectable traces of premeditated coolness. From the artwork, which looks like old Manowar or Uriah Heep, to the members' skinny ties, which are reminiscent of '80s new wave, to (most importantly) the music, which sounds like a hybrid of '80s progressive metal and full-on Bay City thrash, Onward Thru the Fog is the kind of record that gives major-label executives heart attacks ("Where are the mysterious photos and one-syllable song titles? You can't wear a tie!"). One highlight of Leviathen's sound is that the band has two distinct lead singers. More problematic, however, are its lyrics, which are well intentioned and extremely positive, but a bit too sophomoric for our taste: "Don't matter if it's good or bad/The truth can make you glad or sad/It's just a fact of life/But the liars always seem to make you feel bad" ("In Search Of Truth"). Silly lyrics aside, Onward Thru The Fog is a breath of fresh air and a bite of pure power. Onward, hol: "The Devil Takes A Ride," "Cry Wolf" and "Read My Lips."—Brian Ives

SHORT PLAYS

RUST

Rust (EP)

When uncertainty reigns and the main component of trust has been broken, all that remains is Rust. Like the corrosive stuff that forms on the blemishes of a car, Rust eats away at itself, magnifying its flaws and sidestepping its attributes. As the band sings on the opening cut of its self titled EP, "Everyone believes in me/Everyone, except for me." But while the group's egos may be filled with holes, its music is pretty seamless. Combining the melodic styles of Alice In Chains and Soundgarden, with harsh, self-deprecating lyrics and a pounding, lead-fisted groove, Rust is a twin-pistoned angst machine set on permanent press, its scribbling guitars and brooding bass leaving an indelible mark on a restless mind. Whether gliding delicately atop an arpeggio or bushwhacking through a dense forest of braying guitars, Rust moves with the power and emotion of a virtuoso with low self-esteem. If Tool could write truly expressive songs instead of just shouting out blindly, it would sound a lot like Rust. This is as fine a debut EP as you're likely to hear all year. The most Rustworthy: "Dry," "Pills," "Ask The Judge" and "Frustration."—Jon Wiederhorn

What the fuck can I say but, I'm leaving. It's time for some waves, however, just because the almighty god of promotions is on his way south does not mean that the juggernaut Relapse is not continuing to pummel those with the balls to play PUNGENT STENCH, EXIT-13, DEAD WORLD, HYPOCRISY, DISCHARGE, LOVE LIKE BLOOD, NONOYESNO, SINISTER and AMORPHIS. Don't think for a second that the onslaught of death and pain is over! Relapse/NBA is god! Hey, thanks to Matt and Bill for letting me be as whacked-out as I wanted. And to Jill at Redlight, it's 10 p.m., an hour past your bedtime. Thanks to Rayshelle at Century. Never be afraid to take a chance. God bless the Indy 500, the beer industry and chicks that wear thong bikinis. Thanks to Sue Q and Pops for the rent money. Thanks to Seka for all the great movies. Thanks to all at R.E.D. for your input, and finally, thanks to all the radio slugs that had the balls to chart honestly. Piss off Pennsylvania Kiss My Ass Society. Now, who wants to hire an honest hard-working promotions director from the midwest who is as pure as the morning sunlight? Thanks everyone, it's been real!

Sue Stillwagon, Zoo Records, Hollywood, CA (213) 468-4225

VARGA's video for "Greed" will debut on Headbanger's Ball on March 26. Tune in the tube. The tour with Greta and Shootyz Groove begins April 8 in Burlington and continues through the East and Midwest. I think you should check it out, so call me for fix. COURSE OF EMPIRE continues touring with Machines Of Loving Grace until the end of March. Look for the band with Prong in April. "Breed" is the next emphasis track and, it will be on your desk in a couple of weeks. The add date is April 11. Put it in your calendar.

Jessica Harley, Elektra Records, New York, NY (212) 275-4106

First and foremost, I want to say thank you for your support! The MOTLEY CRUE album has made its way into the top 10 at metal radio! You don't know how ecstatic I am...The band will be hitting the radio in June. Shipping to you next week is the debut issue of our newsletter Eye On Elektra. EOE includes an interview with Motley Crue's Nikki Sixx and John Corabi, it also features record reviews, add dates, street dates, the latest info on COMPULSION, DROWN, KYUSS, METALLICA, ANTHRAX and HASH, as well as the Elektra tour guide! We want this newsletter to open the doors of communication between radio, retail and Elektra! In order to kick the first issue off in style we're giving you the chance to win an autographed Gibson Les Paul from Motley Crue! Look for Eye On Elektra and enter our contest! Shipping on March 17 is the CD-maxi from Compulsion. The add date is March 29!

PITCH SHIFTER interviews went really well. Thanks to Larry, Leigh, Paul, Wayne, Kelly and everyone else who did one. I just saw the video for "Triad." Holy befezus, this thing rocks! A radio edit single with rare tracks will be in your hands soon. Violence follows this band everywhere (like the band isn't pessimistic enough?). During a NAPALM DEATH show in England the band's manager was knocked over in the pit and kicked in the face. The broken nose he suffered kept him from making the trip over here. Then, just before leaving England, the drummer D and his girlfriend were walking home from celebrating the start of Pitch Shifter's first American tour when they were jumped and battered with hammers after announcing they had no money. D's head is a mess but he will tour. His girlfriend had to get stitches but is okay as well. Wow. SLEEP will be on the road with ENTOMBED in April. BLOOD FROM THE SOUL is kickin'. OLD demands more than one listen. SCORN forces you into another mind state. LAWNMOWER DETH is the perfect traffic driving music. DISGUST is coming! God Bless Earache!

Steve McClure, Leviathan Records, Atlanta, GA (404) 463-1009

Another reminder that we have relocated to the Atlanta, Georgia, area and the new fax number is (404) 463-8646. We are getting very excited about the upcoming release of IMPERIUM's debut Too Short A Season. Imagine putting Megadeth and Fates Warning in the same room and telling them to put out an album! Imperium definitely seems to have both bonds as influences, and its CD is an incredible mix of power and dynamics. It's coming April 12! If you still haven't received the new hard fusion/progressive rock release from DAVID T. CHASTAIN titled Next Planet Please, give us a call. Some very original music, and the "Instrumental" highlight of 94.

Marni/Psycho/Wayne, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077

For all those who have complained about our voice mail from hell, Marni's extension is 214, Wayne's is 218 and Psycho's is 207. Let's talk about NAILBOMB, shall we? By the time you read this, Point Blank should be in your top 10. If it is not, then you are a smacked ass who needs a head check! Just kidding! What we are not kidding about is the potential this record has on your station in way heavy rotation. What state needs to fall into the ocean for you to keep playing SEPULTURA's "Refuse/Resist" is the song you should concentrate on. However, if there is another track you prefer, please be our guests. The monster tour with labelmates FEAR FACTORY, Fudge Tunnel and Clutch continues to sell out venues and leave people bloodied. Look for a "Refuse/Resist" video real soon. As we speak, LIFE OF AGONY and TYPE O NEGATIVE continue their U.S. tour. If there is a date near you and you'd like to go, just give us a buzz. Both should still be getting plenty of airplay. Tour support is a beautiful thing, so don't be a jerky, and continue enduring these way cool bands, man!

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY (212) 275-2135

In a world full of PANTERA's, Soundgardens, KING'S Xes and Sepulturas, we must never forget our goal as musical leaders in our respective communities. I know the Pantera record is so brutal that it cuts your hands whenever you touch it, and I know the Soundgarden record shines with the brilliance of God, etc., etc., etc...The fact is, there is fresh material being released hourly, and it is our deal to weed out the good fresh and the bad fresh, if you know what I mean. In my opinion, RUST is a band worth checking out for the following reasons... The band combines raw punk influences with modern hard rock feeling! Rust is leading a new charge of attitude out of San Diego and it has got hard rock radio written all over it! "Ask The Judge" because "God Is War."...It's just a good tune!

Dyana Kass, Hollywood Records, Burbank CA (818) 560-5670

So, do you want to hurt yourself on that cutting edge? Do you want to be the hippest kid on the block? You too can achieve a level of coolness if you stick with a new artist for not just one, but two singles! Sounds too good to be true? Well, people, you can be a part of breaking an artist like ELEVEN! On the metal side, tantalize your listeners with "Let Down," which, after many weeks on the charts, is still going, so keep it there! Looking for something with punch that isn't too aggressive for a regular format? Try Eleven's rock anthem "Reach Out." The band is on tour with CANDLEBOX and buzzing in every market it enters! Major tour announcements are on the horizon, so get on the hip tip with this one now!

Jill and Jeannie, Red Light Records, Des Plaines, IL (708) 297-OK,FUI

COVEN, Coven, Coven, Coven, Coven! Agh! Next up at bat we have OPPRESSOR's "Solstice Of Oppression" and GUTTED's "Bleed For Us To Live." The radio impact date for both is April 11. Look for postcards in your mail. Also, the very next Monday, April 18, is the SARKOMA add date. That's April 18 and don't you forget it! This is the second release from Sarkoma and it kicks! Look for postcards in your mail. The following Monday, April 25, we are going for SKATENIGS phoners. Coven, Coven, Coven, Coven! Thanks for your support!

Cornelia, Taang! Records, Auburndale, MA (617) 876-2411

I bet you've been wondering what the hell Taang! has been up to during this long period between releases...Well, other than hibernating in a bottle away from this past winter's cruelties, I've been telling you what you'll get in the mail very soon: GODSTAR's EP Lie Down Forever, SPORE's debut full-length record called Giant, LYRES best-of retrospective Some Lyres. SAM BLACK CHURCH will be hitting the road again after Jet recovers from his hardcore-inflicted hernia. Well, everything I have told you would happen has. You should have those records this week, and Sam Black Church is in the van pulling up to a venue near you. Hide your breakables. Call me.

Greg Derbas, Pavement Music, Oakbrook Terrace, IL (708) 916-1155

CROWBAR Live + 1. The unreleased track is "Numb Sensitive." Add it March 28. That's all you need to know.

Munsey Ricci, Skateboard Marketing Ltd., Valley Stream, NY (516) 825-5549

Looking at what's going on at radio, I think we have the cure. Well, SABBATH is off in Europe on tour. But they will be back in the States soon. The new single for metal radio is "I Witness." We're trying to bring you all the import with an unreleased track, so keep your fingers crossed. DIO will start his U.S. tour in the beginning of April. The next single will be "Jesus Mary And The Holy Ghost." Don't add it yet, we still have a few weeks, so just listen to it. PANTERA jams at radio this week. It's relentless if ya know what I'm sayin'. All the in-stores are coming your way: 3/21 - Dallas, 3/22 - L.A. and San Francisco, 3/23 - Chicago, 3/24 - Detroit and Cleveland, 3/25 - N.Y., 3/26 - Philadelphia and Baltimore, 3/27 - Tampa. MUZZA CHUNKA's tour is bringing in sales for the band. Thanks to all of radio for the support, you rule. MOTORHEAD will be doing some dates on its own. We don't have them yet but, we'll let ya know. The Airheads soundtrack is due out in June. "Born To Raise Hell" will be on it. FOR LOVE NOT LISA's tour is rockin', don't miss it. "Rocket Ride" is the track to gig on. TAD is still doing well. We'll talk to ya this week. Ccccccya.

REVIEWS

NINE INCH NAILS "March Of The Pigs" (Nothing/TVT c/o Interscope, 109000 Wilshire Blvd., Ste. 1230, Los Angeles, CA 90024)—Our expectations of this video were that it would be a dizzying display of all manner of gruesome shots of pig parts, medieval torture machines and other mayhem, edited faster than the eye can focus. The actual video for "March Of The Pigs," (which has no, count 'em zero edits) is brutally effective nonetheless. The clip shows Trent Reznor and the Nails thrashing out the track in a hollow white studio. Partway through "March Of The Pigs," when Reznor has finished with screaming out a phrase, he merely whips the microphone to the floor, resulting in a highly audible "thud" right in the middle of the track. It is the intensity of this raw performance that reminds one of the genesis of NIN's real big break, those frighteningly intense performances at Lollapalooza. This ain't just a studio band, kids. PRIMAL SCREAM "Rocks" (Sire, c/o Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—The new Primal Scream track "Rocks" leaves the subtlety at home, going all out to meld glam influences with meaty white British soul. All of this excess (glittery set, gaudy backup singers) would merely be excess if Primal Scream didn't have anything to back it up. Frontman Bobby Gillespie pours a little bit of Vegas into the rock god setting, resulting in something that's so over the top it's hard not to appreciate. As the first single from Give Out But Don't Up, "Rocks" seems like a pumped-up hybrid of the Black Crowes and Redd Kross (or the Stones and Bowie for you nostalgia buffs), yet Gillespie's unique brand of gyrating (a cross between Mick Jagger and Martin Short?) and his dynamite sense for pure soul and glam lifts Primal Scream to the forefront of bands borrowing from the past. MILLA "Gentlemen Who Fell" (SBK, c/o EMI Records Group, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104)—Milla is nice to look at. This is not news. What is new is that this 18-year old Ukrainian-born actress/model can add talented songwriter to her growing list of entertainment credits. ▶

Directed by Lisa Bonet and featuring Harry Dean Stanton, "Gentlemen" is a video as beautiful and moody as its star. She may still be a kid, but this video proves there's maturity and talent galore behind those eyes. (SC)

BECK "Pay No Mind" (DGC, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069)—Stop right now. "Pay No Mind" is nowhere near as catchy as "Loser." It's not even close. It is weirder with an undefinable sense of weirdness that will eventually carry Beck past the pitfalls of one-hit wonderdom into his own incredibly skewed niche. "Pay No Mind" does reprise "Loser"'s cough-syrup surreality, juxtaposing slow-motion skateboarding with big-haired women sipping blender drinks in a tiki bar. The odd tequila-dream pacing of the video eventually causes the women and their multi-colored drinks to seem less kitschy and more like some sort of bizarre pineapple-garnished menace. (SF)

KOKANE "Slow Burning 22.5 F" (Ruthless, c/o Relativity 187-07 Henderson Ave., Hollis, NY 11425/718-217-3600)—We're flipping through our Street Slang to English Dictionary at this moment to get the correct translation of this song title, but one can pretty much guess what's going on here even without a translation. The video starts as Kokane and his troupe pirate a major music television station to bring you their message, and the interference is certainly worth the trouble. With every rapper and his mother lifting funk samples like appliances in a riot, Kokane lifts almost nothing, his debut LP, Funk Upon A Rhyme, is as much a funk record as it is a rap record, with real music cooking up this stew. (SC)

CRUNT "Swine" (Trance Syndicate, P.O. Box 49771, Austin, TX 78765/512-454-3148)—Crunt is an indie supergroup made up of Babes In Toyland's Kat Bjelland (bass), Lubricated Goat's Stu Spasm (guitar and vocals) and the Jon Spencer Blues Explosion's Russel Simins (drums). The novelty of the whole underground supergroup thing is a big part of the appeal of "Swine." Let's face it, we could talk about the film technique and mumble Jean-Luc Goddard this and rough-cut editing that, but anyone who sees it will still say "Wow, Kat's playing bass. Cool." That said, the big highlight is Simins pounding on a cymbal with his bare hand after losing grip on one of his drumsticks. (SF) ▼

GUEST DIALOGUE

Ty Elam of Cradle Of Thorns, Triple X Recording Artist

Welcome to America, land of the free. Come stay awhile, have a kid or two. We'll pick up the check and guess what? We will also give you cash so you can live worry-free, buy the drug of your choice, and eat rib eye steaks. Hey, while you're here, why not commit a crime and spend a few months at our lavish resort. Three hot meals, a place to relax and a gymnasium with all the latest in workout equipment. In the animal kingdom, the strongest survive, and when the population gets out of control, nature takes over. The hungry starve and the weak perish. What will happen when there is no more room to fit the "smartest" animal of them all... "more brains." A message to the public: we're enduring poverty, we're bailing, baking, frying the poor, the worthless and the needy. No more bumming change, no more misery. We'll just bind 'em up and bake 'em and send 'em overseas. A way to end world hunger. We'll make it clean and neat—just imagine all the reaps for using human meat. Some say it tastes like chicken, say it's finger lickin', some say it's better livin', soon to every kitchen...

RECORD COMPANY

Scott Carter, A&M Records, Hollywood, CA (213) 469-2411

Probably the funnest thing to do in the spring (and I'm really serious about this) is to play the latest releases from THERAPY? and SOUNDGARDEN. Hey, I'm just passing along what people have been telling me. The next Therapy? single will have another extra track on it, this one a cover of the Membranes' "Tatty Seaside Town." And Soundgarden aren't going to tour the U.S. until May or June, so stop bugging Terry The Tour Boy so he can get back to doing what he does best: talking to his friends about hockey. Also out soon: the original grunge compilation, Deep Six, originally put out by C/Z Records in 1985, featuring tracks from SOUNDGARDEN, the MELVINS, GREEN RIVER, SKIN YARD, MALFUNKSHUN and U-MEN. And look out for MARXMAN, a new Irish group on the Guru/Jazzmatazz tip. Kind of. And since PAW are touring again, we'll be sending you a new version of the "Jessie" single with a couple of new tracks that you've never heard before, so beware. And when you're not playing A&M stuff, make sure to play Super-suckers, Speculum, Combustible Edison and the Tagalongs. Our fax #: (213) 856-2639. Our live person #: (213) 856-2716.

Amy Siegal, Detour M, Belleville, NJ (201) 759-4881

Now, has everybody taken the time to give VALENTINE SMITH's Back On Earth a listen? If not—what are you waiting for? They're an upbeat acoustic (not all acoustic) rock band who, as I quote an MD who prefers to go nameless, "are sort of a melodic, acoustic punk band because they're so in-your-face and have sooo much energy!" Good call if I do say so myself. I know how heavy a load there is out there and thank you to everybody who's supporting Valentine Smith, but those of you who aren't yet...please check them out—a request from a girl who's trying single-handedly to track every one of you guys down. Give it a spin, get a listener response thing going because more often than not we've gotten positive feedback. Phone interviews have been going great—just ask Penis Boy and Elroy or Scott at WQSU (who is not wearing a Cheater, if you know what that is, which you don't, but you will soon). Try something new—have some fun or I'll send Bill after you. A shout out to Shawn at WDSR and Mike at WCWP for all your help and therapy sessions. P.S. Somebody asked me what "M" stood for in Detour M—any guesses?

Bill Murphy, Yodeling Cowboy, Bug Music, Los Angeles, CA (213) 466-4352

OK, here we go again. MUDDY WATERS One More Mile: The Chess Collection on MCA—this man was the baddest mofo on the planet for a while. If you're wondering what all the hubbub is about this guy, this is a good place to start. It's comprised of sides recorded for Chess Records over his entire career, and MCA has done a lovely job in packaging this. Dig the way he growls on "Hoochie Coochie Man." Way rad...Rhino is putting out a series of reissues of TOWNES VAN ZANDT albums—Townes, Our Mother The Mountain, The Late, Great, Townes Van Zandt, Delta, Live and First Album. Townes is what you would call a quintessentially Texan songwriter, and has been championed lately by the Cowboy Junkies, who understand this sort of thing. If you love country but hate Billy Ray Cyrus, get this...The LATIN PLAYBOYS (on Slash) are not Gerardo clones—no, this is David and Louie from LOS LOBOS doing wacky instrumental music, cheap, fast and in your face. Crank up the lava lamp and let the mai-tais flow as you mambo and cha-cha to "Rudy's Party" and "Manifold De Amor." Or you can just buy something silly like Kenny G. The choice is yours...Song of the day has to be "I Wanna Eat Your Pudding" by Ron Weiser and Alvis Wayne. Bye.

Andrew Goldstone, EMI Records Group, New York, NY (212) 492-1274

This is a virgin Dialogue, so please ignore my inexperience and anxiety. I just want you to know that you can call me anytime on the "rave" hotline: (212) 492-1274. Feel free to call for any of the following reasons, 1. you're charting my records; 2. you want to talk about your favorite rave; 3. you love the Rangers; 4. you love the sound of my voice. Please refer to the following list for records you should call me about: SLOWDIVE, a great dreamy guitar record. SOLSONICS, our acid-jazz wonders. MILLA, our resident alternative siren. GANG STARR, the original jazz-hip-hop group. TASMIN ARCHER, who returns with some Elvis Costello covers, and the PRO-CLAIMERS, those loveable Scottish twins. So call me, we'll talk.

Robbie, No Kidding, Cargo Records, San Diego, CA (619) 483-9292

In an attempt to go #1 at CMJ and sell millions, Cargo Records has decided to sell off its entire roster to an undisclosed major label in exchange for one artist: GYRATIO. You may remember Gyratio from a few years back as the Latin star who had all the kids shaking with that multi-platinum hit "I Want To Be Your Lover." We feel that Gyratio, unlike indie rock, is the future of college radio, and what better way to capitalize on the future than to buy it. As a result, if you want any info on touring bands such as BIG DRILL CAR, FLUF, SMUDGE, MORNING GLORIES and 7 SECONDS, you'll have to contact their major label, because we no longer have anything to do with these small-time acts. Likewise, if you want servicing on the new THREE MILE PILOT and HEAVY VEGETABLE records, or have questions regarding the burly sounds of Fluf and the belt buckle rowk of UNCLE JOE'S BIG OL DRIVER. If you have any questions regarding these bands up to the date of the actual transaction, please call us. Until that time, long live Gyratio.

Dr. Rev. Clay Shearer, D-Tox Records, Greensboro, NC (919) 370-1537

You may or may not have received our latest lil' package. In it would be the mighty rock sounds of WELL NIGH FORGOTTEN's Betty's Wake, originally to be released on the now defunct Moist label. You may have heard the single, or their smokin' track on our Pyloric Waves comp. These kids are earnest, Jack. Be sure to check out the secret tracks at the end, a Yoakam cover and a dial-a-prayer session. Also in yr little goodie sac you will find BICYCLE FACE's The Red Hat Man four-song EP. Woody Allen fronts the Troggs at the Mayberry Spring Jamboree. Three originals and a take on the Move's "I Can Hear The Grass Grow"...Lots of treats coming later in the year, in various forms from GEEZER LAKE, SLOWCHANGE MADAGASCAR, the RAYMOND BRAKE, DRUNKEN BOAT, VERY PLEASANT NEIGHBOR and more...Other things you might check out. Geezer Lake Feet In Mud Again vinyl with non-CD track from M.U.D.D. Ind., Geezer Lake 7" on Squealer Records, Picasso Trigger LP on Alias and Babe The Blue Ox in general...Geezer Lake at IMF April 2 at Brownie's, plus an eastern U.S. tour in May/June.

Michael Raucheisen, Hour Records, Baltimore, MD (410) 465-7825

I would just like to take a moment to thank everyone who has helped make our three latest releases (the CASUAL OUTCASTS, Summer and SPORATIC SUNJAM) such rising successes. In particular WFIN, KUOP, WELR, WPCR, WUMF, WHUS, WSHL, WNEK, WRMC, WASR, WRBC, WECS, WVOF, KASR, WZLY (and far too many more to mention). You guys were on the boat before it even sailed and we appreciate it. It has been great getting to know all of you and have the opportunity to work with college radio so closely. College radio is the backbone of the independent label, without you there is no us, and we thank you. For those of you who have not received the above listed and would love to have us on your charts—hey! what are you waiting for, give us a call and we'll get them out to you.

Everyone have a great spring and thanks for your support! We have two new releases coming out this spring so keep your ears open. P.S. We are still looking for a few good distributors who can help us out, please let us know.

Bob W., Triage International, New York, NY (212) 353-2002

First off, Creation: lots of Creation catalogue coming out on TriStar. Such as: TELESCOPES, JAZZ BUTCHER, Patron Saints Of Teenage, WEATHER PROPHETS, BIFF BANG POW and FELT to start with. Wow. Then there's the Crammed Discs-licensed Sahara Blue—a collaboration of HECTOR ZAZOU and loads of fine people such as Dead Can Dance, Bill Laswell, John Cale, Minimal Compact, David Sylvian, R. Sakamoto...the list goes on. Then, of course, there's the FAMILY CAT's new import single, "Airplane Gardens" (with a new LP on the way), the JIGSAW's Cereal Toy album (which sounds like a British import though they're from Boston) and all those SUGARFROST 7"s.

SLOWDIVE touring? Let's hope so this time. The album from STABBING WESTWARD and XCNN (for you aggro-electro-guitarro punks) and the latest from Denmark's TRAINS & BOATS & PLANES on Shimmy. Not promoting but must mention: Helium (though both 7"s are better than the new EP), La Di Bloody Da, Alabama Kids, Ovarian Trolly. Oh yeah, Volume 9 out very soon with tracks from SONIC YOUTH, MADDER ROSE, TINDERSTICKS, MORPHINE, BLESSED ETHEL and other greats. "People that hide are afraid."

Jim Neill, Eric Kayser, Jenni Sperandeo, Rhino Records, Los Angeles, CA (310) 441-6651

As if Jeff Buckley weren't cool enough. Damn. We've just put out an unreleased live album by his deceased father TIM BUCKLEY that puts the flu in influential. Recorded in L.A. back in 1969, this swell CD contains two Buckley compositions that aren't available anywhere else. If you don't have this treasure, please call and get one from us. If you don't know who he is, ask the next person that calls on your music line and ask them who he is. They'll know...Coming soon from us in our line of new artist releases (yes, Rhino has living artists under the banner of Forward) are albums by several people who college radio gave a hoot about in years gone past and should still think fondly of: BUSTER POINDEXTER, WILLY DEVILLE (he of Mink DeVille fame) and RICHIE HAVENS. As if that weren't enough, we've got two JOHN CALE releases slated for May and June. The first is a reissue of the long out-of-print Music For A New Society, and the second is one of the now-famous double-CD career retrospectives that Rhino puts out so often. It's called Seducing Down The Door: A John Cale Collection, and it features music from his first album all the way through his collaborations with Lou Reed and Brian Eno. If you don't know who John Cale is, see the Tim Buckley approach above...Other things to help you sleep well at night include: NRBQ, Z and Street Jams (early '80s hip-hop and funk).

Jon Clark, Ringing Ear Records, Newmarket, NH (603) 659-7516

Thanks again to all who have been playing the DOC HOPPER and SINKHOLE albums. I'd like to give special thanks to Steve at WUNH, Frank at WBUL, Mike at WBSU, Shawn at CKCU, Corey at KRNL, Tim at WKVR, Anthony at WVKR, WXVU, WRUV, KLA, KMBU, WERG, KUGS, WXJM and about 20 others that I'm forgetting right now. The new Sinkhole 7" is in the can and should be out mid-April. Hopefully we'll hit you with it before the semester ends. It's got an Eddie Money cover, an ode to Evan Dando (loser), and probably the catchiest pop song the band has written. You'll like it, I promise. For those of you who might have been trying to get in touch with me via e-mail, my address was previously mis-printed, due to a confusing typeface I was using. My address is: jwc1@kepler.unh.edu. In past reports, the number one after the jw looked like the letter L. So computer geeks, let's interface. Tour info: Doc Hopper tours the world and beyond starting April 15. Sinkhole will be touring briefly with Drive Like Jehu in late June/early July.

In the Enemy camp reigns ROYAL CRESENT MOB Good Lucky Killer. "That's The Way It Goes" is the track to hit. On tour, check CMJ tour listings. Cool psychedelic alterfunkness, say what? Yes my selector man, drink from the succulent stream of tunes. We love you Gary!...LIQUID HIPS Static April 15 release. Rude, literate, metal-bottomed funk. Don't fret, they'll be back to kick the U.S. beginning April Fools Day. Excuse me for side steppin', check A.D.'s dates in CMJ's tour listing. Any interviews while they're in town please call. The CD single of "Buckshots" should be burnin', if not, watch your head. Next record to drop on Rage is a single by PEOPLE WITHOUT SHOES "Thoughts Of An Optimist (Green Shoelaces)," out mid-April. Optimisttempoomet, vocal drum and respected tenant of New York's underground hip-hop scene, and his partner DJ Ockmead. Melvin Gibbs (Rollins, Eye & I, Sonny Sharrock...) kickin' mad bass lines on the tracks. This abstract, mad attack on the tracks will devastate hip-hop junkies cross the board. Check it!

Woo hoo! March is finally here—the snow is melting, baseball is around the corner, and we are heading into a new release schedule. Boy, did I miss those long days of putting together mailings! So, what's on the horizon? How about some music to listen to while submerged in your sensory deprivation tank? Hex, from BARK PSYCHOSIS, is a beautiful blend of instruments and voices that will get your mind travelling—even without the tank. This is the band's first full-length album and will be supported by a national tour this spring. We'll have posters shortly and play copies are on the way!...The first two releases in the "Essential Series" are KLAUS SCHULZE (1972-93) and The Essential Fripp/Eno. Each of these releases documents the influence of these musical pioneers on today's electronic music...New from the Astralwerks label comes Barramundi: An Introduction To A Cooler World. This eight-track compilation is just a sample of work that's come to us from Antler-Subway's new ambient imprint. Artists include JAYDEE, MAN-DELO and TRANSFORMER 2...Things to look for in the near future: FUDGE's sophomore effort, the U.S. release of SEEFEEEL's Quique, new kids on the label PEACH, and long-awaited reissues of the MEATMEN. Hot tip of the week—NBA Jam on Sega. Get that outta here!

RADIO

Mat Cantore, Publicity Director, WRHO, Oneonta, NY (607) 431-4555
Recently, WRHO has been undergoing drastic reorganization and now we're back and better than ever! Due to the internal renovation, many calls and reports have been neglected. We apalogize for any inconvenience this may have caused. What we have been doing is recategorizing our entire music library so as to allow DJs to get their hands on music easier. This has taken large amounts of time from not only our music directors, but other members of the station as well. Second, we have also restructured the officer system so that our executive council will be more efficient. Third, we have repaired and are currently upgrading equipment so that our sound quality is better. Thanks to everyone for being so patient, and thanks to those who helped. After being under a lot of pressure by the other station members to get these jobs done, the MDs have fallen a little behind but they are getting back into the swing of things. So any record companies or other stations please give us a call to catch up on things. The MDs here are anxious to get the station running smoothly again. The music department calling hours are: TJ Allard, urban music director, Mon/Wed 12-3, Tue/Thurs 2-4; Sid Werthan, jazz/world beat music director, Tues/Thurs 12-2. Assistant music directors are Scott Glover, metal, and Ed Meehan alternative/rock. Give us a call, the music dept. has a new number (607) 431-4005!

I've been music director for two years, and this is my second Dialogue. What good is a form of communication that takes a month to be printed? CMJ should go electronic...WNUR's annual phonathon was Feb. 17-21, and was highly successful. Thanks to everyone who gave us premiums to offer our listeners; I wish I could thank you all by name...The really sad news is that in April I will no longer be music director. Don't worry, I'm leaving you in the highly capable hands of Todd Hyman, who has really been running the show for the last two months anyway. He'll have a partner and an assistant, who will be chosen by now. Information will be on the voice mail, in case you have trouble getting hold of them during the transition period. I'll still be around as DJ and consultant, so hopefully I'll get to talk to everyone before I go. I graduate in June, and plan on moving to New York City, if I can find a job there paying enough to keep me from starving. I doubt I'll end up working in the music business, but if you happen to have a job available in the NY area, give me a call (god, I never thought I'd say that). I'll miss this job, but hopefully I'll be able to keep up with the friends I've made. Thanks to everyone for making it a great couple of years. E-mail me: sdg@merle.acns.nwu.edu.

[CMJ is currently exploring the integration of on-line technologies into various sections of the magazine. The more Dialoguers that acquire on-line capabilities, the more feasible its use in the Dialogue section becomes. Stay tuned. Either way, however, editing and printing do take some time.—ed.]

Rob Mikels, Alternative Music Director, KFMG, Des Moines, IA (515) 282-1033

My office hours for calls are 8:00 a.m. to 12 noon (Central Time) on Fridays, and I'm usually here for some calls on Tuesday's from 8-10 a.m. Thanks to Adrienne at National Music for all of her help recently. Thanks to Mark at Triage for recommending the HOLY TOLEDOS, and thanks to John at Interscope for the POSSUM DIXON and NINE INCH NAILS giveaways. The dent KFMG is making with Modern Rock on Central Iowa's airwaves is really showing, and we appreciate the continued help from the labels. Here's what's happening at KFMG: We had a great visit from SLIM DUNLAP the other night, and Iowa's own HOUSE OF LARGE SIZES played Ames a few nights ago...Thanks for the support everyone's giving to H.O.L.S.—don't forget about the other great bands trying to break out of Iowa! We're welcoming shows coming up from the likes of UNCLE TUPELO, MAZZY STAR, MATERIAL ISSUE, the SUBDUDES and more. We love it when bands stop by for interviews and/or record tunes with us! Even if you aren't playing a gig for Central Iowans starving for new music, you can always stop by for a visit...Chances are good you'll drive through here: Des Moines is at the intersection of I-80 and I-35, right in the middle of the good old U.S., eh. Thanks again...especially to anyone I neglected to mention.

Joel Mowbray, PD, WHFH, Flossmoor, IL (708) 798-9434/799-3033

Hello. This is my first Dialogue in CMJ. Just to introduce my station, we are WHFH (30 years and running!), a 1500-watt station in a wealthy suburb of Chicago. We dig straight-forward rock like CROWDED HOUSE, BODEANS, MATERIAL ISSUE, PEARL JAM, etc. We're mainly an alternative format, but we play some AOR. We avoid metal, but hard rock is great. We love to do promotional stuff like giving away T-shirts and CDs. We also have a featured artist of the week if we're doing giveaways for that artist, and we run promos throughout the week. Being from Chicago, I know a group that's about to break big. Mark my words: Within a few years you'll be hearing a lot about a group called the BAD EXAMPLES, with lead singer Ralph Covert. The Examples have three albums out already, and Covert just did a solo album, which was great. All the CDs have been released on Waterdog (phone: (312) 538-7499), which is an indie here in Chicago. Covert is an absolute musical genius, and he writes songs that are great for radio. He's written "Not Dead Yet" and "Any Twisted Thing," both of which were big radio hits here in Chicago. By the way, I'd like to thank: Nancy at Capitol, Nancy Geno at BMG, Chris at Elektra, Jay at Sony and Jeff at Interscope 'cause you've all been great!

Richard J. Liversedge, Music Director, KSJS, San Jose, CA (408) 924-4547

Masturbation, masturbation, masturbation. I would like to beef one of my biggest griefs. And yes, it is masturbation: not the physical or mental kind, but "aural" masturbation. When I listen to college radio, one of my biggest problems are with DJs' incessant urge to play (with) those new wave hits (MTV hits!?!), MV3 hits!?! of the '80s. I am not one to slam the '80s. I, myself own a half dozen TOTAL (nee Toto) COELO 12 inches. But come on! Playing '80s music, or any fill-in-the-blank "musique horrible" is complete aural masturbation. Masturbation vs '80s: masturbation, I won't knock it (yeah right). Masturbation is a good thing, and I have no guilt about it. But it is something to enjoy in private (or with a friend or two), in the privacy of your own home; not in front of the whole world and their mother to see. To all the college DJs: I really don't think one has to dirty our airwaves with those damn '80s hits. Please, please, (Tell Me Now) if you have an overwhelming urge to jack-off (or "jill"-off) and spew your load over the airwaves, please go home read Star Hits and play with your RICHARD BLADE CDs. I know I will...Doesn't that make you feel better?

Dom Casual & John Lenac, KTOZ, Springfield, MO (417) 869-8400

Greetings and salutations from your friends in Springfield. We hope all is well at home. Things are fantastic here! Thanks to A&M, Interscope and Warner Bros. for their help on our huge win-it-before-you-can-buy-it weekend featuring SOUNDGARDEN, NINE INCH NAILS and ELVIS COSTELLO. Thanks also to da boyz at Epic for the PEARL JAM show packages, even jocks from other stations in town were calling trying to win. We'd also like to express our appreciation to those helping to make our April 16 AIDS Benefit a sure success. Have a happy GREEN DAY Thursday, and a merry Friday. C U Bye-Bye.

Ken Vista and Meredith Goulet, MDs, KDIC, Grinnel, IA (515) 269-3335

I would greatly appreciate it if somebody at CMJ could explain to me why we've been getting most of our issues a week late—the people at the subscription headquarters have been helpful, but we still seem to get them later than everybody else...perhaps this is the cause of all the "angers and frustrations of youth in a stagnant Midwest" (thanks, Andy Skibins, your hackneyed, stereotypical generalizations are really fucking profound). Hot damn, there, Andy ol' pal, me just about forgettin' how dopey we is out here—ain't nothin' but pig shit and corn! Look out for that combine, buddy! Anyhow, though this is a bit after the fact, KDIC was off the air for spring break March 18 through April 4—just letting you know. Perhaps some of you got to meet Meredith at SXSW in her travels for North Cedar Records and Steb's—if so cool. '68 COMEBACK is the very embodiment of rock 'n' roll, and everybody should run out, see them live, and then buy all their stuff, if you ask me—of course, you didn't, so bye bye. I've got some corn to shuck before class.

[CMJ apologizes for any problems subscribers have had in receiving their issues. We are following up with the postal service to ensure that issues are received in a more timely manner.—subs.]

Pete Kernast, Folk/World Music Director, WTSR, Trenton, NJ (609) 771-3200

Wanted to comment this week on the 6th annual North American Folk Music & Dance Alliance conference held in Boston last month, but then my pet peeve the Grammy's happened. I compare this television program to that of an idiotic sitcom. The pretentiousness of the whole thing always makes me nauseous, and the biggest joke is the musical categories. Can you believe some of the nominees? The categories artists are nominated for? Someone's been exercising their creative thinking sucking on that funny blotter paper too long. Maybe what the Academy should really do is give some airtime to the reggae, folk, international or blues artists, not to mention jazz performers. Perhaps it would add a little more variety and be a more stimulating program. Then again, you probably shouldn't expect much from an award presentation based more on "product" sales than artistic merit. And, to top it off, the other awards programs (American Music and MTV) aren't any better. Well, now that my hyper-ventilative little rant is over, my soul has been purged for another year. Ahhhhhh...Next time (promise), I'll cover the Folk Alliance Conference. It's like the folkly equivalent to NMS, SXSW or CMJ.

Kevin Shannon, WCBE, Columbus, OH (614) 365-5555

There is no college radio in Columbus. Imagine that a place with one of the largest universities in the country (Ohio State) and with a metro population of over a million possible listeners having no college radio, no forum for the type of groundbreaking music that listeners constantly search for. Seems kinda odd, eh? That's what we thought. ActiveRadio is out to change this. However, trying to bring college radio to Columbus is a difficult task, especially without the financial or administrative support of the university. Since they have turned their back on student-run radio (by letting WOSR at Ohio State die), ActiveRadio has turned to WCBE-FM to show that alternative, earth-shaking, way cool, crazy-ass, O.G. programming is valuable and necessary in Columbus. And as Jon Peterson, Norm Beeker and the rest of the WCBE staff have been so generous, we are also asking all college radio reps to help in our endeavors, by supplying us with music and other materials to better enable us to service our audience. Please help ActiveRadio bring this addictive, long sought-after music to a wide, ever-growing Columbus radio audience and allow us to fill the void left behind by Ohio State and the commercial stations of Columbus. ActiveRadio, aired Saturday nights on WCBE 12 a.m.-6 a.m., will be reporting to CMJ under the loud and beat box charts and contributing to the Top 35 under WCBE/ActiveRadio. If you have any questions or want to service us, contact me at WCBE at (614) 365-5555.

IT'S FESTIVAL SEASON!

The rock trend of the moment seems to be festivals. The second annual Loud Music Festival will take place in Northampton, MA, on April 1-3. Here's a sampling of the 64 bands playing this year: Azalia Snail, A-Bones, Karl Hendricks Trio, Codeine, Come, Small 23, Trumans Water and Versus.
