Jazzfest '94

For the uninitiated, the New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Festival is two weekends' worth of non-stop food, music, crafts, more music, more food, kids' entertainment and even educational speakers, all gluttonously crammed onto the infield of a horse race track known as the Louisiana Fairgrounds. It's getting so popular that musicians themselves try their hardest to get New Orleans gigs during the week, just to be in town—this year, Richard Thompson played a concert in a small local venue for the second weekend, and rumor had it that he booked the gig expressly to catch the Fest on his free time in town.

Even though the Jazz Fest has grown to gargantuan proportions over the last 25 years, it amazingly still retains most of its inherent charm and good vibes. Even the addition of non-roots music performers who have absolutely nothing to do with the Festival's focus (like Jimmy Buffett, who nearly ruined the Fair's ambience for a whole day by bringing out a host of his idiotically-clad and culturally clueless Parrothead fans to the Fairgrounds) can't dampen the spirit that makes the Festival one of the country's unique events.

To give an example of how seriously New Orleans takes its partying, we checked out the front page of the local newspaper, in which articles on bottled water concessions and where to get stuffed crab po-boys shared equal billing with such monumental historical events as the city's mayoral inauguration and the ongoing controversy over Louisiana's state gambling franchises.

The Fest's key appeal is the incredible synchronicity of all the different musical events happening everywhere at once—you can't possibly see it all, but you're guaranteed to catch something special, and this year there was no shortage of musical high points. There were Max Roach, The Band, Little Richard (his first Jazz Fest performance ever), Aretha Franklin (her first New Orleans appearance in twenty-some odd years), Donald Harrison, Dr. John, and legendary jazzman Doc Cheatham. At one point, during a set featuring George Porter, Jr. of the Meters on bass, blind piano player Henry Butler put together an awesome rendition of the classic "Tipitina." But instead of playing it straight, he monkeyed with the riff, moving it away from New Orleans and into funk, until it ended up sounding like a Stevie Wonder jam circa 1973, ultimately showing that Stevie and Fess (and Henry) all have more in common than just their shades. Other spectacular highs included jazz trumpeter Marlon Jordan with his sister Stephanie on vocals, gritty bluesman R.L. Burnside, smoking zydeco sets from Boozoo Chavis and Nathan & The Zydeco Cha-Chas, and pulsing, intense performances by several Mardi Gras Indians tribes, including Creole Wild West, the Guardians Of The Flame and the Wild Magnolias (with a psychedelic lead guitar player who appeared to be channeling the spirit of Jimi Hendrix in his psychedelic outfit of feathers and scarves).

Even the rain, which fell on the second Saturday, couldn't dampen the mood, instead providing a fun relief from the heat and the hectic pace—no one is going to convince us that Jimmy Smith wasn't somehow responsible for the squall: The 69-year-old Hammond organ master whipped the audience into a frenzy, taunting the crowd and nearly blowing the jazz tent off of its moorings as he slipped into "Got My Mojo Working" just as the heavens opened up.

By far the favorite food this year among fans, from the lowliest of Parrotheads to the most grizzled and diehard Fest veteran, was the culinary triumph known as crawfish bread, a gooey treat consisting of crawfish, cheese and Jalepeno peppers baked inside a chewy blob of bread, which edged out other local delicacies such as soft shell crab po-boys and Creole stuffed artichoke (with a thick oyster stuffing), and other concoctions such as shrimp tacos or African peanut soup.

Sounds good? Well, it was, but too bad you can't bring it home on the plane. You'll have to go back next year to get it: 1995's Fest is tentatively scheduled for the last weekend in April and the first weekend in May. While there's always plenty of tickets to the Fest itself, airline flights and hotels fill up early. So if you're coming in from out of town, be sure and plan ahead. It's certainly worth the trip.

Essential New Music

DAVID BYRNE David Byrne (Luaka Bop/Sire, c/a Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—The key turns in the lock, the door opens, and the unmistakable figure in the True Stories hat and the big white suit steps through the door and puts his suitcase down: David Byrne is back. Back from his musical travels and third world forays, he's ready to sit down and squeeze some great old Talking Heads-style songs out of that big red guitar of his. The "return of Byrne" headline is hardly unexpected; people who saw Byrne's almost-unplugged solo shows or any of his hit-and-run sets with this new band last year could already tell that good things were afoot. The Brazilian, Caribbean and soul influences on this album are like stickers on a suitcase or souvenirs for the mantelpiece: not an attempt to mimic the genuine article, just a whiff of spice, a hint of flavor, a pleasantly tingling memory of how good it felt to be there. And it's the same with elements from Byrne's classic past as a Talking Head: "Angels" somehow recaptures the weird elation of "Once In A Lifetime" without re-writing it, while "A Long Time Ago" is surprisingly evocative in its vague, ominous lyrics. In sum, it's more than just coincidence that this album simply bears the name of the man who made it; rarely has an artist so successfully synthesized everything he's done in a long and adventurous career into one seamless, near-perfect album that's totally him. Try the above, plus "Lilies Of The Valley," "Strange Ritual," and "My Love Is You."

—James Lien

ZAP MAMA Sabsylma (Luaka Bop, c/o Warner Bros., address above)—Belgium-based Zap Mama inspires the same sense of amazement as the boundless feats of Chinese acrobats or the mind-boggling juggling of the Flying Karamazov Brothers: It's simply wondrous that there are humans capable of creating something so startling and inspiring with their voices. Like their American cousins in Sweet Honey In The Rock, these five women of varied backgrounds and cultures blend, contrast and explore so many known vocal styles with such freshness and verve that they seem to fold together the corners of the globe. Once the initial admiration for Zap Mama's skills settles in, the true focus of Sabsylma begins to sharpen. This is a record about spirit, soul and joy, where minimal hand percussion, arrangements of pure genius and vocal technique of the highest order illuminate those intangibles. In addition to its stunning harmonies, Zap Mama supplies rhythm, percussion and backing accompaniment by exhausting the possibilities of lips, voicebox and tongue. On "Mr. Brown," members mock beat-box percussion and JB's horn fills. But it's more than standard instruments Zap Mama replicates: on "India," the group combines a series of breaths and clipped phrases so expertly, you'd swear a flock of geese had just fluttered past, chattering as they flew away.

—Steve Ciabattini

FRANK BLACK Teenager Of The Year (4AD, c/o Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—One key attribute of the Pixies that people sometimes forget is plenitude—the way their hits just kept on coming, with as many tight, direct songs as they could cram into every album, show and year of their career (they were signed on the strength of a 25-song demo tape). Chastened, perhaps, by the way Kim Deal's Breeders blew up, Frank Black has harnessed the wide-reaching but unfocused stylistic experiments of his first solo album, redirected that album's energy, and let the abundance rip. The 22-track Teenager Of The Year is one little wonder after another, from compact Pixies-ish rock (the two minute-and-a-half mine explosions that open the album) to a surprisingly tender lullaby ("Sir Rockaby") to more compact Pixies-ish rock ("I Want To Live On An) Abstract Plain," one of many science fiction fantasies with unfathomably wonderful melodies) to a little piano-driven reggae ("Fiddle Riddle") to even more compact

Pixies-ish rock ("Bad, Wicked World," in which Frank reclaims the high-speed shuffle beat that's practically his birthright). Eric Feldman's keyboards are well integrated into the songs this time, coloring them without overwhelming them, and every track sounds carefully arranged, with quickly shifting sonic textures. It's an hour-long trip with nothing but brightly colored highlights. Other Teen dreams: "I Could Stay Here Forever," "Headache" and the archetypal "Space Is Gonna Do Me Good."
—Douglas Wolk

VERSUS The Stars Are Insane (Teen Beat, P.O. Box 3265, Arlington, VA 22203/703-358-9382)—Versus shares more than just a name with Mission Of Burma's debut LP VS.: both Versus and MOB batter everyday tension into a pliable, aggressive dialectic. This allows NYC trio Versus to turn what might ordinarily be a basic three-piece rock set-up into something that transcends its potential limitations. Just as Versus' songs are fraught with anxiety, they beat the odds and flower into buds of crisp melodic strength, fed by the gentle tug-of-war between Richard Baluyut's convincing, pretty guitar lines and Fontaine

Toups' spry basslines. Both Baluyut and Toups sing in plain, decidedly un-style-conscious voices, lending their songs honesty and individuality. While songs such as "Thera," "River" and "Blade Of Grass" leap off The Stars Are Insane as solid rock tunes, graced with scalloped-edged guitar lines and memorable vocal bits, "Wind Me Up" and "Janet" bristle under the calm strength of Toups' vocals, the band's inventive arrangements and Baluyut's expressive guitar work. Since the release of its promising first single nearly two years ago, Versus has developed into a multi-dimensional band that's quickly grown out of its "indie-rock" tag and into something much more meaningful, and the band's debut LP stands as a proud testament.

THE CHURCH Sometime Anywhere (Arista, 6 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019)—The essence and appeal of The Church has always been its two main songwriters Steve Kilbey and Marty Willson-Piper. Now, as its only remaining original members, Kilbey and Willson-Piper have written, performed and recorded Sometime Anywhere, one of the band's most welcome and solid releases. Sometime Anywhere (a play on Todd Rundgren's Something Anything?) is an epic of sorts, spanning nearly 77 minutes, with 10 of its songs drifting along at five minutes and beyond. For the most part, the open structures of the songs suit The Church's trademark guitar figures, which build large atmospheres from layers of strummed and picked six- and 12-string guitars. Only songwriters of considerable talent can hold the interest of a listener for more than an hour these days, and Sometime Anywhere, while mostly a mid-tempo record, is time well spent—a credit to the mature melodic sense of the Kilbey/Willson-Piper team. Spend Sometime with: "Loveblind," the edgy "The Maven," "Angelica," "Two Places At Once" and "Dead Man's Dream." —Steve Ciabattini

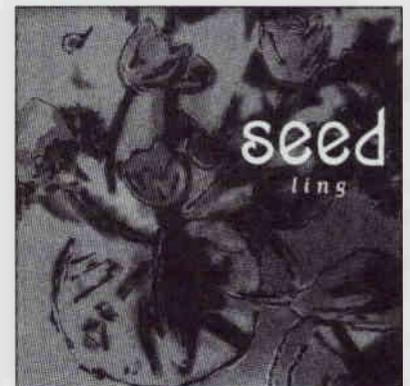

SHEILA CHANDRA The Zen Kiss (RealWorld, c/o Caroline, 114 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001/212-989-2929)—From Zap Mama's triumphant success over the last few years, the Bulgarian Women's Choir touring stateside and this new album from Indian-born singer Sheila Chandra, it seems that the sound of the female voice is everywhere, and what a welcome thing that is indeed. Of all these artists, Chandra may, in fact, be the most radical and challenging—unlike those other groups, who rely on combinations of voices to achieve their impact, Chandra relies almost exclusively on her own unaccompanied voice, which is so astounding and free it gives her an almost limitless spectrum of emotion (Chandra performs alone on stage, yet her voice will fill even the largest of rooms). "Awaken to your power," she sings to women everywhere on "La Sagesse (Women, I'm Calling You)," and it's a message of strength and empowerment that reverberates throughout her work (even the cover's nods to the infamous wet sari scenes of Indian filmfare seem more of a witty, guileful play on stereotypes than a play that panders to them). And if you've ever heard what she does with her voice on any of her "Speaking In Tongues" pieces (where she imitates the complexity and dynamics of Indian percussion with an amazing scat vocal style), you'll thrill to just about every song here. —James Lien

BIG SANDY AND HIS FLY-RITE BOYS Jumping From 6 to 6 (Hightone, 220 Fourth St. #101, Oakland, CA 94607/510-763-8500)—Cartoonist Daniel Clowes predicted that soon people will be experiencing nostalgia for the nostalgia of earlier generations. As all things retro run out of control in the '90s, and Clowes' prophesy seems more and more feasible, it's hard not to approach rockabilly traditionalists like Big Sandy And His Fly-Rite Boys without more than a touch of cynicism. However, Big Sandy and his band are not the safely watered-down, Grease/Happy Days-style trip down memory lane that one might suspect. Although they'll surely be pegged as rockabilly revivalists, Jumping From 6 To 6 shows an impressive command of the various strains of music that formed rockabilly, namely country-boogie like the Delmore Brothers and Merle Travis, straight honky-tonk (Jumping From 6 To 6 includes Hank Williams' "Weary Blues From Waiting"), western swing, and, of course, rhythm and blues (the record also includes Jackie Brenston's "Juiced"). Big Sandy's voice can convincingly jump from a tender country croon to a tough Gene Vincent swagger, and all of the Fly-Rite Boys display a downright dizzying arsenal of chops. B-I-Bickey-BI, Bo-Bo-Gol: "Juiced," "Barnyard Beatnik," "Different Girl" and the title track. —Steven McGuire

SEED Ling (Mechanic/Giant, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—It takes a band with a singular artistic vision and a solid sense of direction to complete an undertaking such as Seed has done with its debut, Ling. While the Austin, TX-based band's sound, comprised of thickly layered vocals and orchestrated melodic splendor, may cause some to lump Seed in with bands such as Extreme, Seed has cleverly skirted any of the self-conscious overtones or pompous qualities usually associated with the genre. Each piece emerges as a substantial entity rather than a showcase for someone's arrangement prowess. Production by Howard Benson helps maintain the band's edge throughout, symphonic tracks like "Mariposa" sounding more like something off Abbey Road than A Night At The Opera. Seed takes a cue from the Seattle scene as well; "Doe" is easily one of the album's best songs and definitely its heaviest, with a mean, sinewy bassline battling a syrupy, unyielding guitar riff for acoustic space. Plant deeply in your CD player: "Ladybug," "Virgin" and the majestically savage "Fortune."

—Aaron Clow

THE VERVE No Come Down (B-Sides & Outtakes) (Vernon Yard, 1790 Broadway, 21st Fl., New York, NY 10019/212-586-7700)—Britain's The Verve (formerly just plain old Verve) wowed the ears and heads of many critics two years ago when its debut Verve E.P. unleashed a surreal landscape of shimmering guitar washes and weightless vocals upon the unsuspecting world. In addition to that critically acclaimed EP and the subsequent full-length A Storm In Heaven, numerous singles and EPs have been floating between the two continents, which are collected on the album-length No Come Down for the first time. Tracks from A Storm In Heaven are featured in remix ("Blue") and acoustic versions ("Make It Till Monday" and "Butterfly"), retaining much the same headiness of the originals, albeit a bit more intimately in the case of the acoustic renditions. Equally day-dreamy are songs taken from the Blue U.K. E.P., "Twilight" in particular employing lethargic guitar tones, Doors-y organ touches and a lazy harmonica line. A few more EP tracks and B-sides round the album out, including a live version of "Gravity Grave," recorded in Glastonbury last year.

—Colin Helms

BLUR Parklife (Food/SBK, c/o EMI Records Group, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, 42nd Fl., New York, NY 10104)—While Pantera was surprising everyone by hitting the U.S. charts at number one, Blur was pulling a similar feat overseas with its third album Parklife (talk about culture shock). All similarities end there. Parklife is a campy, fun-loving foray into '70s and '80s nostalgia, but more importantly, it displays a band willing to grow and evolve with every release. Blur has always been on the cusp of trendiness and fashion, hooking into the neo-psychedelic Manchester groove on Leisure and reviving '80s cynicism and '70s songwriting with last year's Modern Life Is Rubbish. On its new record, the band delves into the new wave of new wave (NWNW) with the hedonistic zeal of "Girls And Boys," which sounds like the Pet Shop Boys (who produced the re-mix) cross-pollinated with Gary Numan. But despite the new wave leanings of much of the record, Parklife offers far more than retro-revivalism. Eclectic and dynamic, the album spans the spectrum of popular music, toying with a number of styles including cabaret, Broadway, classic rock, pop, punk and of course, new wave. It's a celebration of British culture, exploring the common and revelling in the mundane. The carnivalesque "Park Life," which features vocals by Quadrophenia star Phil Daniels, tells of a homeless man who feeds pigeons, while "Bank Holiday" is a high-octane punk/pop number about getting drunk on a day off from work. Also spin "Tracy Jacks," "The Debt Collector" and "London Loves." —Jon Wiederhorn

PONY Cosmovalidator (Homestead, P.O. Box 800, Rockville Center, NY 11571-0800/212-675-0922)—After releasing their first EP earlier this year, New York's Pony return with Cosmovalidator, a solid full-length effort recorded in their own Brooklyn studio. The album proudly displays its home-spun roots, comprising such a blistering amount of garage-rock energy that in places it will threaten to knock you off your feet if you dare to venture too close to your speakers. Cosmovalidator's hooks, while technically poppy, are jagged and angry enough to spin it over into an entirely different, edgier category. Even when tracks like "Black Dragon" delve into occasional near-atonal breaks, they are still held together by frayed melodic threads consisting of M. Kitty Dubois' bounding, galloping basslines and Dallas Crowe's wild, emotional guitar leads. "Driving Ms. Danger" is a perfect example of Pony's dynamic intensity, effortlessly spinning from a grungy gait to a speedy, thrashing drive. The band says it best on "Gimme," the last track: "Just promise me/You'll play something hip and LOUD." You don't need a better reason to play all mentioned above, plus "Michael" and "Fortune Cookie." —Aaron Clow

URBANATOR Urbanator (Hip Bop, c/o Silva Screen, 1600 Broadway, Ste. 910, New York, NY 10019/212-757-1616)—Ever since jazz music's boundaries were expanded to include the street rhythms of hip-hop, funk and R&B—mostly by curious rap DJs or acid jazz bands like the Brand

New Heavies—the majority of releases have been either the results of studio stunts like US 3 or a rap producer digging through old records for the most obscure jazz riffs. Not until players like Greg Osby or the all-star cast on Jazzmatazz applied their stamp of approval did jazz purists begin to accept street rhythms as a new and viable source from which to create and improvise. Exploring new sounds through cool rhythms and textures, Urbanator is painted with contemporary, jazz-lite colors from several accomplished soloists. Urbanator is primarily made up of Michael Urbaniak (violin/sax), Lenny White (drums), Al McDowell (bass) and Jon Dryden (keyboards), though its extended family includes notable names such as Herbie Hancock (who helps cover "Chameleon"), Kenny Garrett and the Brecker Brothers. The album also features new rappers on the cuts "Hot Jazz Biscuits" (starring Solid) and "Here I Go Again," mixing rap and jazz cultures in their most primitive forms, while cuts like "Hopscotch" and "First Flight" are basically high-gloss ad-libbing that lack any real bite. For tastes of pure listening satisfaction, place your bets on the groove-heavy "Sack O' Woe" or "Square Park Sunday." —Glen Sansone

IVY Lately (EP) (Seed, 19 W. 21st St., Ste. 501, New York, NY 10010/212-691-8805)—This self-produced EP and a previous 7" single are presently the only documents of this NYC trio's immaculate pop craftsmanship, a delicious prelude to Ivy's full-length debut, currently being recorded with producer Kurt Ralske (of Ultra Vivid Scene). Ivy's sound centers around the distinctive voice of Dominique Durand, a native Parisian whose gossamer vocals lend an air of childlike innocence to the music's sparkling melodies and refined construction. Jangly guitar textures and backing harmonies from Andy Chase and Adam Schlesinger form the delicate pop fairytales "Wish It All Away," "Twisting" and "Can't Even Fake It," while the wah-wah effects on "I Hate December" steep the song in cruel, cold-day melancholy. Perhaps the best example of the band's gentle style is found in "I Guess I'm Just A Little Too Sensitive," a cover of Scottish wimp-rock heroes Orange Juice which effectively uses Durand's lilting voice to frame the song's fragile confessions. —Colin Helms rock, it's just really good at what it does, period. What it does is instill its music with a genuine enthusiasm and eagerness, joyously celebrating youthful innocence with a headlong dive into unabashed, pop-induced fun. On Starduster, this NYC trio has created songs gloriously full of themselves, confidently beaming with the kind of bright emotion and sharp-toothed hooks that manifested themselves throughout the band's gleeful debut, Punk Rock City U.S.A., and numerous singles. "If livin's this good I don't wanna die" sings guitarist Chris O'Rourke on "Solid Gold," and you can tell he really means it. The title track, a two-minute hyper-pop celebration featuring some thoroughly snappy drumming and adrenalized vocals from Rachael McNally, shows off the band's developing maturity as well as any of its songs so far. Other great Dusters: "What's Gonna Set You Free?," "Punk Rock City U.S.A." (previously released as a single) and "The Mood Swing."

VARIOUS ARTISTS Volume Nine (Volume, 22/23 Brook Mews North, London W2 3BW, U.K./071-706-8122)—As we approach the end of the shark on the spine (it will be complete with next month's Volume Ten), we welcome

Volume Nine with 19 tracks from some of our favorite names from both sides of the Atlantic. While the last two issues of Volume were more techno/electronic oriented, Volume Nine boasts several tracks with an acoustic flavor: the leadbelly-influenced blues of Mark Lanegan's "Wheel" opens the disc, followed by a stripped-down live version of Buffalo Tom's "Sodajerker," a sweet new ballad from Maddie Rose, and a stark demo version of "Close Your Eyes" from Kristin Hersh, one of the strongest songs on her Hips And Makers solo outing. Other tracks, like the brief, country-inflected "Black Sheep Boy" from Paul Weller (which doesn't appear on his new Wild Wood outing), Sonic Youth's "Doctor's Orders" (which does appear on SY's new album), a new, squawking track from Morphine, an ambient offering from Wagon Christ, Spooky's techno dub, ethnic flavorings from Jah Wobble and Fun-Da-Mental, and an ominous shuffle from the Tindersticks, make Volume Nine the most diverse in the series to date. As always, the accompanying book reveals some insight into each band, with lots of wit, interesting facts and fish thrown in for good measure.

SHOUKICHI KINA Peppermint Tea House

[Asia Classics 2] (Luaka Bop, c/o Warner Bros., address above) and SHANG SHANG TYPHOON 2 (TriStar, c/o Sony, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Okinawa, a southern island of Japan, has its own distinct language, culture and musical traditions. It was occupied by the U.S. from the end of WWII to the Nixon regime, and predictably, American rock 'n' roll has had a large impact on the culture. Traditional Okinawan folk music, however, is still played by everyday folks, not just revivalists, and Shoukichi Kina comes from a musical family. Way back in 1966, the rebellious teenage Kina first fused the traditional rhythms and instruments with his pop music influences (the Ventures and James Brown). Peppermint Tea House collects tracks from four of his eight albums, plus his groundbreaking '66 single, "Haisai Ojisan." This song's catchy melody, backed by plucked sanshin (a distant cousin to the banjo), simple drumming and high-pitched female vocal yipping and yapping, is probably like nothing else you've ever heard (unless you've heard it covered by French/Frith/Kaiser/Thompson). The song is a crazy dialogue about booze, whores and baldness (don't skip the translation booklet for this one!). "Basha-gua Suncha (The Cart Puller)" will appeal to those who enjoy weirdness, with an odd clip-clop rhythm and horse-whinnying sound-effects. Reggae was later to become a big influence on Kina (Bob Marley was a mutual admirer); "Mimichiri Bozu" (translation: "Ear Cutting Samurai Monks") and "Hana No Kajimaya" (from the 1980 album Blood Lines, with guest Ry Cooder) have bouncy ska-like rhythms. 2 is a 1991 hit recording by Shang Shang Typhoon, whose members are from the mainland but play in the Okinawan pop style with a slightly more cosmopolitan flair than Kina. "On The Morning Of The Flower Festival," featuring percussion and sangan, is a good choice for those who favor traditional sounds, but the essence of Shang Shang Typhoon is fun; the group plays delightfully schmaltzy liets full of bubbly synthesizers and cheerful singing. Unfortunately, a strange kazoo solo in the middle of the group's rendition of the Beatles' "Let It Be" was edited out of this U.S. version for the kazoo-loathing American audience, but there are lots of other bright spots.

MERCY RULE God Protects Fools (Relativity, 187-07 Henderson Ave., Hollis, NY 11423/718-217-3600)—Once upon a time, in the quiet

Midwestern town of Lincoln, NE, there lived a woman who spent her days cooking, cleaning and keeping house. One day she started a band, got signed to one of the biggest indie labels around and is now shining bright in the spotlight, spreading her music and heartfelt stories to the world...A fairy tale for some, but for Heidi Ore it's reality. Heidi's strong, resilient, aggressive vocal power is the driving force behind Mercy Rule, which blends aggressive, punk-fueled rock with catchy, hook-filled beats. God Protects Fools, originally released on the band's hometown label, Caulfield Records, has been remastered and refined, and is brimming with energetic, boisterous songs and insightful lyrics that tell tales of desperation, confusion, heartbreak and frustration. "My Mouth," although chaotic and fierce, retains a strong sense of togetherness and melody, with rhythms that stick in your head. "We Know" is a more mellow, passionate tune that ponders questions about the uncertainty of life and the

DEATH CUBE K DREAMATORIUM

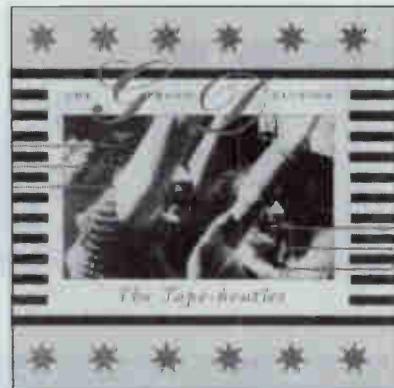

DEATH CUBE K Dreamatorium (Strata, c/o Subharmonic, 180 Varick St., New York, NY 10014/212-675-7168)—Death Cube K is an alter-ego/nemesis/anagram for guitar-playing mystery kid Buckethead, the first truly original guitar virtuoso of the next century. He/it's been building a whole new guitar vocabulary of sounds and tricks, and has now become one of the few modern players to use technology and still communicate real soul and feeling through the instrument. Those familiar with Buckethead's crazed Maggot-brained guitar wizardry and space-age sci-fi trickery may be surprised by how subtle and subdued his playing is on this "ambient" project with Bill Laswell. What does it sound like inside the Dreamatorium? Well, it sounds like nothing else on earth: a little like the middle 30 minutes of "Dazed And Confused" live, perhaps, mixed with ambient recordings of Aphex Twin and the soundtrack to The Shining, with even a little bit of the machine-like roboticism of Charlie Chaplin's soundtrack to Modern Times thrown into the mix. It's not ambient in the sense of relaxing or psychedelic; it's more oblique and far deeper, like a childhood dream that can suddenly transform from peaceful serenity to horrible nightmare in a few freakish seconds. Like invincible superhero Ultraman, wading out of the water on the Pacific coast, Bucketheadmania will be sweeping into America any day now. —James Lien

MAIN Motion Pool (Beggars Banquet, 274 Madison Ave., Ste. 804, New York, NY 10015/212-889-9595)—It started with Loop, an '80s British drone rock band that turned single riff songs into mind-bending excursions by using loud, hypnotic guitars and wispy, psychedelic solos. When Loop broke up, the band's bassist and drummer formed Hair And Skin Trading Co., a more complex, experimental outfit, while guitarist Robert Hampson took an opposite path to sonic oblivion, exploring a more minimalist school of sound with Main. Lotion Pool, the band's second full album, is the perfect antidote to the blissed-out sanctity of ambient techno. There's something distinctly unsettling about Main's beat-free soundscapes. Perhaps it's the lack of structure and cohesion on songs like "VII" and "Heat Realm." Maybe it's the way the album shifts volume levels with alarming intensity. But more likely, it's the sense of emptiness and isolation driving the cold, bare rhythms. Lotion Pool is sparse, stark and suffocating—the sound of the void echoing our own insignificance back in our faces. "Rail," which features shimmering guitars, a malignant dub-wise bassline and murmured vocals, is a deep, oppressive descent into organic trance, while "VIII," which highlights a simple rhythm and lots of frightening whooshing sounds that drift from one speaker to another, is more like soundtrack music for an outer space horror film. Dive in and embrace oblivion. —Jon Wiederhorn

TOAD THE WET SPROCKET Dulcinea (Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Toad the Wet Sprocket's music has always been highlighted by its earnest delivery and simple, expressive songwriting. On its latest, Dulcinea, the songs sound more stripped down, rather than over-produced, as they sometimes were on the band's recent releases. The refreshing simplicity of the new record, in fact, is its outstanding feature; the clear, crisp guitars and passionate vocals lending it an honest quality which is the strongest element in this style of folk-rock band, but rare in a band that reaches out to a more traditional rock audience. When Toad The Wet Sprocket does cross between those two genres, the songs incorporate both folkie idealism and pop melodies, putting the band in a league with such stalwarts as the Gin Blossoms, the Grays and Crash Test Dummies. "Fall Down," the first single, is the perfect example, using both a chanty chorus and slashing guitars. Other sweet songs include "Fly From Heaven," "Stupid" and "Listen." —Megan McLaughlin

TAPE-BEATLES The Grand Delusion (Staalplaat, P.O. Box 83296, Portland, OR 97283)—The Tape-beatles' motto is "Plagiarism®," and it's the group's modus operandi as well: not a single sound on The Grand Delusion was originally recorded with this album in mind. There are news clips, fragments of political speeches and moral homilies, and mangled bits of classical cadences and pop records, sampled, looped and arranged into a 17-part audio collage that's a sad, embittered commentary on the Gulf War and its aftermath. (The album may have been delayed by the Art Strike, which was organized in part by members of the band.) If it sounds like the Tape-beatles are mining the same territory as Negativland, well, it's similar, but the Tape-beatles' concerns are less satirical and more musical. Most of these pieces are sonically compelling on their own merits, with tightly looped samples forming subdued, feather-light grooves—there are even a couple of instrumentals. And where other tape-collage artists use their found-oratory snippets mostly as ironic tools, the relation of voice samples to the point of the work here is more complex; The Grand Delusion raises political questions, instead of reinforcing ideological answers. Try the whispering, rattling "Home Problems" or "Grave Implications," which is built on a very dodgy sample indeed. —Douglas Wolk

AIRLINES Airlines (Quixotic, G.P.O. Box 7296, New York, NY 10116/212-979-6938)—New York City's Airlines have been around in ever-changing forms since the late '80s, recording singles for various small labels and sharing members with other New York area bands such as the Mad Scene, Speed The Plough, Giant Mums, Lid and the Ex-Lion Tamers (who opened up for Wire on the Ideal Copy tour, playing Pink Flag start to finish to satiate fans who wanted to hear old Wire material). Although Wire is a definite reference point throughout Airlines, the influence never becomes distracting; instead, what continually grabs the listener's attention is Airlines' impressive mastery of textured arrangements and three-guitar dynamics. Over throbbing basslines and the sparse, steady drumming of Tom Kelly, the guitars intricately weave clean, arpeggiated chords around simple, precise, sometimes nearly droning, melody lines. The overall effect of this calculated, cerebral approach recalls Television, or even the Velvets, without ever actually sounding like either band. Ultimately, Airlines would be more listenable as a whole if they loosened up here and there, but tunes like "Deja Vu," "Interval" and "10,000 Days," among others, continue to impress even after repeated listenings.

CRUST Crusty Love (Trance Syndicate, P.O. Box 49771, Austin, TX 78765/512-454-3265)—Three albums on, Crust keeps delving lower and lower, coming dangerously close to hitting rock bottom. The first band signed to Trance

Syndicate, Crust set the tone for Butthole Surfer King Coffey's label. Every aspect of Crusty Love can be summed up by the adjective "crude," from the lyrics to the instrumentation. Crust pushes the listener to the edge of uncouth and offensive with lyrics like "I've got your name on my dick" and "You've never had it so good until you've had a hermaphrodite." Bizarre noises and tape loops provide the slightly surreal sparkles that dot each song. "Lesbian Weekend" steps aside with a wacky, ethereal Star Pimp-like quality, while the other songs remain steady with growls of distorted vocals and bass rhythms. This is most definitely the musical culmination of experiences accrued by three men who have worked in the state institution. Crust dredges the bottom of the river with: "Chlamydia Is Not A Flower," "Bumblebee," "Painsville" and "Slurpee."

JACKPOT EXTRA!

VELOCITY GIRL Sorry Again (EP) (Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA 98102/206-441-8441)—If the muddy sound of Velocity Girl's debut LP disappointed fans who dug the band's live ebullience, the follow-up, !Simpatico!, should do the trick. On the album's first single "Sorry Again," producer John Porter (Smiths) has washed away the sloshiness in favor of a crisp, bright sound that gives vocalist Sarah Shannon the space to shine; the band, in turn, has tidied up its guitar sound with chiming New Order-ish melody lines, making "Sorry Again" a summery head-bobber along the lines of "My Forgotten Favorite." An early version of "Labrador," also from the LP, along with two non-LP cuts, including the less bouncy "Diamond Jubilee," on which Archie takes over lead vocals, round out the EP. —Lydia Anderson

COWS "Cow Island" (7") (Amphetamine Reptile, 2645 First Ave. S., Minneapolis, MN 55408/612-874-7047)—The Cows are back and throwing more curve balls than ever. "Cow Island," the first single from the upcoming Orphan's Tragedy, finds the band packing a wallop, but this time the punk rock is laced with a melodic mean streak. The A-side is a bit surprising for this group of usually relentlessly rough punks in cowboy hats, but the B-side is just down right loopy.

"Chicken Rhythm," which is full of silly chicken clucks and exaggerated dance rhythms, sounds like the Cows have been listening to too much Perrey and Kingsley. The Minneapolis boys are building our anticipation for their next record, which is due out in August. —Dawn Sutter

PREHENSIBLE MONKEYTAILED SKINK I Am A Gorilla (7" EP) (Blackjack, 663 10th St., Oakland, CA 94607/510-763-7632)—This is the third single from these self-proclaimed "98% talent free" mystery men. In the garage-scuzz tradition of Pussy Galore and the Thrown-Ups, their first release, "We Found A 4-Track," was one of last year's finest small platters. They seem to be defining their own genre with goofy lyrics that are generally no longer than one or two repeated sentences. Anarchist punks are a pretty easy parody target in "Anarchy Is Stupid," but the guys in Prehensible Monkeytailed Skink probably don't fancy themselves as astute social commentators anyway; they prefer to explore the multifarious variations of the aesthetics of stupidity. The sophomoric humor predominates over the musical merits on this one, but we still want to be the first on line to hear what they do next. —David Newgarden

CRASH WORSHIP "Pyru" (7") (Charnel House, P.O. Box 170277, San Francisco, CA 94117-0277/415-664-1829)—We love singles that sound good at either 45 or 33 1/3 rpm, and we sometimes can never quite figure out which is the "correct" speed. Crash Worship's new single can get filed in this stack, but it's very musical, not just noisy, although pretty diabolical nonetheless. "Pyru" buries wah-wah guitar, cheesy organ and hidden messages beneath pounding ritualistic drums and guitar distortion. The B-side's a "Pyru" dub, plus a similar instrumental, "Iche Horn," with a guitar that wails like a possessed banshee. —David Newgarden

VARIOUS ARTISTS I Like Walt! (7" EP) (Walt, 89 Fairview Ave., Port Washington, NY 11050/516-944-3345)—Every single to emerge from this tiny startup label is a lovingly crafted, musically inspiring moment, and the same could be said about each of the six tracks on this compilation 7". The astoundingly prolific Franklin Bruno (of Nothing Painted Blue) opens the proceedings with "The Irony Engine," full of chime and wit, and Midwestern duo Butterglory ices the cake with "The Drummer Goes," a buzzing pop rush. In between, the Mountain Goats ooh and aah through "Noche De Guajolote," solo act Guiding Genius rips apart "Don't Cry For Me Argentina" (from Evita), Dump (a k a Yo La Tengo's James McNew) does the lonely guy-'n'-his-Casio thing on "Bunny Boy" and Railroad Jerk's Marcellus Hall moans through a cheap mike with slide guitar accompaniment on "I Was Sleeping." —Lydia Anderson

VIVIANS "Spades" (7") (Hit-n-Run, P.O. Box 44302, Cleveland, OH 44144)—The Vivians attack the beginning of "Spades" so fiercely it sounds like the recording picks up mid-song—but that's just the way the opening riff works. Throughout both sides of this single, the band plunges head-on into weirdly off-center rhythmic structures, but Michele Temple's brash, dense guitar playing and Diane Duncan's singleminded howl anchor the songs with their absolute conviction. "Meltdown," on the B-side, is a longer, twistier song, with tricky minor riffs and Shudder To Think-like non-obvious lyrics and rhythmic sequences. —Douglas Wolk PICKETTS "Pick III!" (7") (Cruddy, c/o Poploma, P.O. Box 95364, Seattle, WA 98145-2364/206-527-8816)—This time around, crooner Christy McWilson takes a break and the other Picketts ham it up with some incredibly fancy pickin' on four instrumental pieces. The A-side starts off in country surf mode with "Suki-yaki" and then gives way to a more traditional steel pedal tune, "Stella Stomp." The B-side is just right for country dancin'—grab the boots, gingham blouse and denim skirt and be prepared. —Dawn Sutter

WASTE KINGS "Millionth Eye" (7") (1 1/4 York, P.O. Box 146472, Chicago, IL 60614)—There's no reason why Chicago's Waste Kings couldn't have been a great early-'60s Texan punk band, except for the clearer-than-it-used-to-be recording and freer-than-it-coulda-been sax playing on "Millionth Eye." The B-side here, a cover of the Troggs' obscure "Strange Movies," is a filthy-minded joy, with hiccupping, gasping lead vocals that ooze malevolent lust, down-and-dirty sax blats, primal drumming, and a hook that goes "uh uh uh uh uh uh OWW!" You have to hear it to believe it. —Douglas Wolk

PET UFO Pigasus (Burnt Sienna, 207 Powhatan Ave., Columbus, OH 43204/614-279-2016)—Pet UFO rocks. They rock hard. But their singer, Souci Broskowitz, rocks like her hair's on fire. Her ferocity is probably not born of an admiration for similar singers like Kat Bjelland or Courtney Love, but more likely out of frustration with real life's jerks. In "Vienna Sausage" each chorus is just the single word "ASSHOLLLLLL" howled with deep feeling, and when she sneers "I hope your dick falls off with your dignity in tow," she sounds like she really means it. Pet UFO hails from Columbus, OH, home of a very healthy scene (Gaunt, V-3, New Bomb Turks and numerous other fine bands) and Pigasus (the name comes from the Yippies porky presidential nominee at the '68 Democratic National Convention) is a promising debut CD. The band wisely steers its forceful, unadorned punk rock power to complement the singing, never stealing the spotlight from Broskowitz's growl. The group shines on "Rectal Tear," alternating a metal-ish riff with jazz-funk moves that would've made the Minutemen proud. Broskowitz throws a curve ball with sweet, embellished Slavic singing on the 10th track, whose unreproducible Cyrillic alphabet title angered our normally peaceful typesetting staff. Her melodic singing contrasts the raging vocals almost like a split personality on "Wreck," which surprisingly ends the album with an anthemic flourish. —David Newgarden

FYI

Nary a bongo drum is heard on Lord Mongrel Is Dying, the debut CD from BONGO FURY (SineAppleSap, 22 Elko St., Brighton, MA 02135/617-783-2894). Its loopy poetry and skewed improvisations at times recall Frank Zappa (his juvenile humor) and Captain Beefheart (especially his "Trout Mask Replica" spoken-word segments), whose 1975 collaborative album inspired this band's name. A side-project for three ex-members of Boston band Think Tree (this and $1.25 will get you a subway ride to Caroline Records), which is also working on another, more "serious," new music project (not yet named). Both the accompanying music—versatile guitar and drum jazz/rock skronk reminiscent of several SST bands—and the giddy poetry sound equally spontaneous. Laughable cultural satire, including shots at Pearl Jam, Grace Slick and Garth Brooks, derives inspiration from (and parodies) beat poetry, cartoons and rap music ("Palomino Pal-O-Mine" is a ridiculous hip-hop limerick). It might be hard to sit through 48 straight minutes of this, but tracks played individually on the radio would be an interesting change of pace, and hopefully the trio won't ignore this type of material in their "other" group. —D.I.Y.

DIVINE COMEDY

DIVINE COMEDY Promenade (Setanta, 123 Shakespeare Road, London SE 24, U.K./071-703-0871)—Having made inroads fronting a trio in the memorably plaintive folk-œdolic vein, Neil Hannon dropped the guitar/rock structure and his fellow musicians and arrived at the wonderful Liberation, on which Hannon joined the dots between Nick Cave and Cole Porter, Jacques Brel and William Wordsworth in an enthralling, maverick journey into the inner psyche and record collections that typified the last Boo Radleys and Gorky's Zygotic Mynci albums. Now comes a sequel in Promenade, albeit the same rarified, literate corner of Brit-pop as the likes of Morrissey (yup, Brit preciousness as opposed to American 'slacker' grunge), although the tone isn't introspective and closeted, but explorative, gleefully grasping all musical and lyrical potential. A typical slice of Hannon eccentricity is "The Booklovers," a string-laden, chamber-pop piece with a spoken-word list of fabled authors, 'samples' of each 'personality' and a dreamy chorus. From wistful folk-pop to breezy electro-pop to arch cabaret we go, led by Hannon's baritone croon. Not that the man is a maverick dandy dipping toes into the genre pool: This is simply post-modern music that stretches like elastic. In fact, Hannon measures up more to Peter Hammill, whose early back pages paralleled Bowie in their extended, experimental balladeering, or Scott Walker, who's tried injecting the Big Ballad form with existential thought. But for every "Booklovers," there is a pop song like "When The Lights Go Down All Over Europe" or a measured ballad like "The Summerhouse," and throughout, poetry-in-rock never sounded as convincingly made for each other. Charming, elusive, funny, endlessly ambitious, sometimes ludicrous (hear "A Drinking Song"), in pop-palate terms, almost genius—Hannon is a true auteur. Walk this promenade.

AUTECHRE Basscadet (EP) (Warp, Studio 2, 1 Brown St., Sheffield S1 2BS, U.K./0742-757-586)—Available as a triple 10" box set or a single CD, Basscadet is a five-track 40-minute follow-up to the (Incunabula) debut album. This Northern duo is proof that dance provocateurs are not all sold up the hyper-kinetic rave-scene river, following the steely, stripped-back, industrial throb-mesmerism of the Detroit sound, by way of a darker hue, like Coil. But like Aphex Twin, Autechre's synth/percussion tones are its own: weird sound-scenes from inside the goldmine of effects. "BCDT-MX" is the blueprint, before Beaumont Hannant and Seefeel add their own remixed ideal, the latter marked by Seefeel's inimitable loop-cycle ambience. After "TAZMX," comes the more ambient-drifting "Basscadubmx," on which space is at a premium. 'Space' is the holographic image here too, Autechre out of orbit, heading for the asteroid citadel. Or something. 'Intelligent Techno,' they rightly call it, and more can be found on Warp's new compilation Artificial Intelligence, featuring Autechre, Speedy J, Richard Kirk, Seefeel and Polygon Window (a k a Aphex Twin) among the 12 tracks. The future-now of dance music.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Pop (Do We Not Like That?) (Too Pure, 3A Highbury Crescent, London N5 1RN, U.K./071-609-2415)—One of the more enterprising, eclectic U.K. labels of recent years, Too Pure is celebrating its fourth birthday and 34th release. Stereolab ("Super Electric"), PJ Harvey ("Sheela-Na-Gig"), Th Faith Healers (a new version of the U.S.-only single "Don't Jones Me"), Voodoo Queens ("Supermodel Superficial"), Seefeel ("Plainsong") and Moonshake ("Just A Working Girl" from the band's new and wild album) are the 'major' players, but just as integral are the label's newer signings like the darkly hued Pram, Minxus ("Steal Steal Steal," ambidextrous post-punk with blues/jazz shoots), German electro-techno duo Mouse On Mars and Laika, formed by ex-Moonshakers Margaret Fiedler and John Frennett (the polyphonic-shuffling "44 Robbers"). Too Pure once said it tended to sign those bands that weren't immediately snapped up elsewhere: in other words, bands that slip between the cracks of trends, inner-dancing to their own private musing, with a restless entrepreneurial spirit. The same stands for Too Pure.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

The hard news of the week is the forthcoming Criminal Justice Bill, which presents a draconian crackdown on travellers, ravers, squatters, hunt saboteurs and environmental protesters by limiting the amount of gatherings and protests. A host of bands—Back To The Planet, the Levellers, S*M*A*S*H, Carter USM and Radiohead included—are clubbing together under the banner of the Levellers' information service On The Fiddle, which is formulating the music industry's opposition to the bill. The government hopes to push the bill through before the summer season of festivals starts—looks like it's going to be a summer of war if civil liberties are about to be sacrificed...On the playlist this week: the Pirate Prude mini-album by the very wonderful HELIUM (Matador), HEAVENS TO BETSY's Calculated (Kill Rock Stars), JEFF BUCKLEY's Live At Sin-é EP (Columbia), POP ART TOASTERS' eponymous EP (Flying Nun), LOTION's Full Isaac (spinArt), LAY QUIET AWHILE's Delicate Wire (Daemon), GENE's sold-out 7" "For The Dead" (Costermonger) and DUSTY SPRINGFIELD's Goin' Back—The Very Best Of Dusty Springfield (Phillips)...If you haven't investigated DISCO INFERNO's recent D.I. Go Pop album, then shame on you—the trio's soundscape of guitar-synth/drum-synth sample triggers marked by a 'gothic,' evocative claustrophobia actually deserves to be called astounding. Leading off a new four-track EP, "Second Language" harks back to last year's "Last Dance," on which Ian Crause's electric guitar inhabits a much clearer, almost conventional space, except the notions of melody are snared and eventually swamped by a cacophony of tiny sound-samples that build up a frenzied tension. "The Atheist's Burden" is even more of a clarified pop song, with uncanny whispering-wind percussion and a fluorescent, giddy synth sound bound all inside a Spector-ish production. "At The End Of The Line" is back to DI's elegiac core before "A Little Something" is DI going 'pop' again with a rhythmic, echoplexed guitar figure and more sample noise. This is pop and techno principles measured, applied and reinvented in a totally new way—unknown pleasures await you (Rough Trade, 66 Galborne Road, London W10, U.K./081-960-9888)...It'll stink out your singles collection with its sprayed sleeve, but Midlands trio PERFUME's second single is worth the florid whiffiness. "Young" is unadorned, acoustic guitar-pop, with a briskness counteracted by a melancholic pull back—a little bit Merseybeat, a little bit (early) Aztec Camera, with great attention to The Song. "Anointed" is more of the same, except a folkier ballad, Mick's plaintive complaint—the man's tonal range recalls a less gruff, (much) more musical Billy Bragg—deservedly pushed out front (Aroma, U.K./0850-853-929)..."White Stains" is the third single by London-based quintet R.O.C.—where did its predecessors escape to? And is its subject matter male masturbation, white colonialism or washing powder? The track is a sleek electro-pop throbber with a lilting, boyish vocal, pitched between a baggy-Manchester sensarround (Stone Roses/Charlatans) and a techno outfit brought up on Human League and Kraftwerk, the singer sounding suitably lost as the synths sumptuously glisten. "Kirsti" is an instrumental variation on the above but even better is "Dead Sea," which reworks R.O.C.'s debut single "Dead Step," the spacious-dub aura closer to the early '80s dark, tribal feel of the forgotten 23 Skidoo (Little Star, P.O. Box 4245, London SW9, U.K./Savage & Best PR: 071-284-1922)... Last year, London/Brighton quartet FABRIC approached Wiiiija with the idea of a joint venture, resulting in the Whole Car label. On the evidence of Fabric and CHICKEN BONE CHOKED, the label's genre-premise is predominantly DC/Dischord hardcore, with a more contemporary funk-metal afterburn. The instrumental "March Of The Machines" doesn't quite match the title's strident, militant tone but "Freedom" and "Seven" are austere driven, with a flurry of drums in the furnace room. On "Fool" and "Leave Me Nowhere," Bradford trio Chicken Bone Choked's sinewy American surge is more emotional and less socio-political hardcore than Fabric (Whole Car, 130 Talbot Road, London W10, U.K./071-229-8541)...The second in Fire's 'Spawning Monsters' series of limited-edition (1,000) singles is by Dutch quartet the NIGHTBLOOMS. "Hold On" is the epitome of fragile, fuzzy, fizzy pop with a matching guitar solo—fans of Madder Rose will dribble uncontrollably. The flipside "Changes" (by Black Sabbath, bizarrely) is treated like butter—slow and sensual, with another sustained, mercurial solo (Fire, 21A Maury Road, London N16 7BP, U.K./081-806-9922)...With an average age of 15, TRIBUTE TO NOTHING sounds pretty proficient, but the slightly loose playing adds to the turbulence. "24 Hours" is a raw, frayed rocker with an initially incongruous metallic guitar solo until you realize that to the band, this is just electricity, not punk, hardcore, metal or whatever. "Yet Again" is another genre-less pop thrash that simply concentrates on reaction. The next generation, in fact, just in time for the new Criminal Justice Bill to stop them gathering for a party (Kingslake, c/o Excess Press, 88 Leather Lane, London EC1, U.K./071-405-5563).

Martin Aston, 125B Crofton Road, Camberwell, London SE5 8LZ, U.K./071-703-3281.

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/noncommercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). ▲ indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position; #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more...PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

3. A separate application (xerox copies are acceptable) must be filled out for each tape submission.
4. Artists failing to submit a fully completed showcase application will not be considered for showcases.
5. Only one showcase per artist will be recognized as such (multiple bookings do not equal multiple listings).
6. Outside bookings without the prior consent of CMJ will not be considered a CMJ event.
7. Independent bookings within CMJ participating venues during convention days do not guarantee admittance into other CMJ events nor inclusion into showcase listings.
8. CMJ will not assume responsibility for providing registration badges to those artists independently booked who do not submit a showcase application.
9. Artists are solely responsible for all advance work done with participating venues.
10. Artists/band members ONLY receive complimentary registration badges. Managers, crew, etc. do not.
11. Artists submitting material after the postmarked deadline date will NOT be considered for showcases.
12. In the event an artist receives a showcase slot, notice will be given by telephone between August 12 and September 7, 1994.

Olympia, WA's brightest punk rock hope is making a splash with its second LP New Plastic Ideas on the local Kill Rock Stars label and a supporting nationwide tour. The band's traditional punk rock, infused with a vehemently youthful energy, has brought increased attention to its tiny hometown, further supported by guitarist Justin's own label, Punk In My Vitamins?, which recently issued a tape by Calvin Johnson's new project Dub Narcotic Sound System. College radio is mulling over New Plastic Ideas, driving the album up 99-40 in its second week on the chart. Of the 360 top 35 reports submitted this week, 35 are charting New Plastic Ideas, lead by top five reports from KAOS (#1), KBOO, KLPI (#1), KRUX, KSCL, KZSU, WGHR, WHUS, WNMC, WNUR, WODU (#1) and WRUV.

PROGRESSIVE RETAIL

Chart compiled by Dawn Sutter

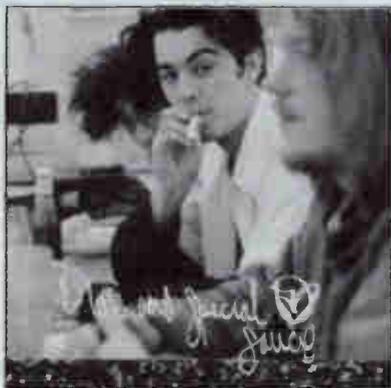

ON THE CHART

There is very little status quo on the chart this week. Breaking mach speed, DGC's Sonic Youth flies into the #1 position (5-1), also sweeping the top In-Store spot. Sneaking up from nowhere are Epic's Indigo Girls, who debut at #2 with their first album in quite some time. Reprise's Green Day holds on to the #4 spot with its MTV-friendly poppy punk rock. Also appearing for the first time is the latest from Sire-WB's Pretenders at #7. Moving into the top 10 this week is Radioactive's Live (11-10).

OKeh-Epic's G. Love And Special Sauce takes their hip-hop sound and premiere record to #56 for their first week on the chart (see retail focus), while Revelation's metal-rock group, Into Another, follows closely at #60. Epic's The The steps into the #64 position with an album of remixed songs taken from earlier albums, while Rev. Horton Heat and Supersuckers continue the popular trend covering your buddies' songs on a split 7" on Sub Pop (#72).

Breaking ground on the chart this week: Mammoth-Atlantic's Frente! (27-22), Epitaph's Offspring (33-25), Capitol's Bonnie Raitt (37-32), Sire-WB's Aphex Twin (58-39) and Hannibal-Rykodisc's Ali Farka Toure With Ry Cooder (61-47). Touch And Go's Shellac witnesses the benefits of touring as the band re-enters the chart at #50. (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

RETAIL FOCUS

G. LOVE AND SPECIAL SAUCE

G. Love And Special Sauce (#58, #5 Breakthrough, #14 In-Store), the debut record from the Boston trio of the same name, is the first record to be released on the legendary blues imprint OKeh since Epic recently revived the label—an impressive feat for a group that's only been together for a little over a year and whose members are just in their early 20s. It seems a logical combination, but the group throws some serious grooves into its rap/blues hybrid, a special musical combination which the band calls "rag-mop" music.

MC SOLAAR Prose Combat (Cohiba, c/o Island, 400 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10003/212-995-7800)—Put all of your hip-hop prejudices aside and head to your local bookstore for a French dictionary, because the stateside debut of France's MC Solaar has all the ingredients (and then some) to be one of the most significant albums of the year. Solaar is as fine an import as a vintage bottle of Dom Perignon, his lyrical command striking poetic chords despite the potential language barrier. He's sold 350,000 copies of his debut Qui Seme Le Vent Recolte Le Tempo ("he who sows the wind shall reap the tempo") and contributed to domestic collections Planet Rap and Rebirth Of Cool, but his work on Guru's Jazzmatazz has turned the most heads. Thankfully, Prose Combat is no longer a secret, and it's superb on all levels. Cuts like "Obsolete" and "Superstar" are supported by swirling jazzy atmospheres (thanks to DJ Jimmy Jay), but still garner high hip-hop marks. MC Solaar has a cerebral vision unlike many American voices: He is not caught up in the bullying and browbeating that affects most stateside hip-hop, instead questioning people's greed and materialistic natures. Solaar's raps insist on thought, but not without letting his fundamental beliefs slip from the fore. The first single "Nouveau Western" compares American industry to Hollywood's old west ("While John Wayne looks like Lucky Luke/Clean as a high duke, Uncle Sam has me rooked/Hollywood tricks and Hollywood burns/In day-to-day life as in the new western movies"). One of his strongest statements comes on "La Fin Les Moyens" ("the end justifies the means"), where he pragmatically and insightfully insists that people should not look for shortcuts to achieve a goal, but instead take action. Without the translations, Prose Combat is still a fulfilling sonic event from start to finish, hitting its mark with timing, graceful French phrasings and luscious jazz-influenced music beds that rediscover the cool.

ON THE CHART

KEEPIN' IT ILL: For the second straight week, the top three positions remain the same, as Columbia's Nas (1-1) keeps Illmatic in control and Chrysalis-ERG's Gang Starr (2-2) stays out of the reach of Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Above The Rim soundtrack. With Jive's A Tribe Called Quest (6-4) leaping over the idle Black Moon (5-5), MCA's Crooklyn Volume 1 (15-7) becomes the second soundtrack to hold a position in the top 10. Artists riding the waves of hot singles include Jive's Casual (17-13), Chrysalis-ERG's Arrested Development (18-15), Violator-Relativity's Beatnuts (33-19) and Pendulum-ERG's Lords Of The Underground (32-25). While we welcome back Delicious Vinyl-EastWest America's Masta Ace Incorporated (#32), Chrysalis-ERG's Solsonics (#38) and Giant-WB's Hammer (#39), the only debut to report this week comes from Jive's Aaliyah (#40), who hopes to rock the same audience that's been bumpin' and grindin' with R. Kelly. This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Above The Rim; 2) Outkast; 3) Gang Starr; 4) Queen Latifah; 5) Nas; 6) Arrested Development; 7) Smif-N-Wessun; 8) South Central Cartel; 9) Artifacts; 10) Crooklyn Volume 1. barrios of Long Beach, CA, made famous by Snoop Dogg Dogg and Domino, comes the tag-team raps of Tha Mexakinz. Aside from groups like Cypress Hill, Kurious and the Beatnuts, many Latin American and Mexican rappers have lacked the universal support of the hip-hop community. Those questioning the verbal skills of Tha Mexakinz need only listen to the blinding and impulsive power of Zig Zag, which should squash those notions with the force of a baseball bat. Aside from the album's bad-ass attitude and intimidating posturing ("Cok Bak Da Hammal"), there is little camouflaging the duo's perfectly constructed Spanglish (a hybrid of Spanish and English) phrases, seamlessly tailored to smoldering beats that boast the same smug, yet energetic veneer as every carefully chosen word. The outcome is a textural firestorm, smothered with Mexican street culture that, thankfully, relies on straightforward hip-hop bravado originated from their own side of the border. If you've grow tired of the first single, "Phonkie Melodia," try a serving of "Welkum 2 Da Hood," "Da Method" and "Wrong 1."

MR. FREEZE AND THE HOMEWRECKERS Coldwave Of Terror (Radical, 77 Bleecker St. #C221, New York, NY 10012/212-475-1111)—The moniker Mr. Freeze And The Homewreckers gives the impression that we're being fed the next disposable rap gangster—once firing his round of verbal ammunition, he's defenseless. Not so fast. After a lengthy defrosting, Mr. Freeze has endured, despite remaining relatively dormant for nearly 10 years. His first single was 1981's "Jazzy Sensation" by Afrika Bambaataa & The Jazzy 5 (one of Tommy Boy's early releases). Following his latest single "We're Compatible," Coldwave Of Terror is a confident updating of his old-school roots, kept alive by his rhythmic, brisk lyrics. Freeze rarely alters his cadence or style (often sounding like early Big Daddy Kane or Monie Love), keeping pace with his backup band's uptempo framework and happily succumbing to the beat. Danceable tempos and slick sax and basslines add to this spirited lyrical adventure, climaxing on the funky rendition of the southern standard "Oh Susannah" (complete with banjo on knee), which features guest pickin' by Grand Puba. Also ride the waves of: the reality check on "Bahondo," "A Macabre Tale" and "I Ain't Do It."

SOUNDTRACK Crooklyn Volume 1 (MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608)—Leave it to Spike Lee to produce a film like Crooklyn, and its ensuing soundtrack, which already has kids talking, thanks to the success of the Crooklyn Dodgers' celebration "Crooklyn," produced by A Tribe Called Quest. Masta Ace, Buckshot (Black Moon) and Special Ed have laid down one of the finest hip-hop cuts of the year. The rest of Volume 1 doesn't feature any hip-hop bombs, instead delivering an imposing collection of soul and funk standards (even a little Latin soul on "El Pito (I'll Never Go Back To Georgia)"), which are required listening for any hip-hop aficionado. Add these to your stacks: the Staples Singers' "Respect Yourself," Sly & The Family Stone's "Everyday People," Curtis Mayfield's "Pusher Man," the Jackson 5's "ABC" and the Chambers Brothers' "Time Has Come Today," to name but a few. The '70s are back!

MAD FLAVA From Tha Ground Unda (Priority, 6430 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028/213-467-0151)—To keep from falling into the deep, ambiguous void of groups that don the word "flavor" somewhere in their moniker, Dallas-based Mad Flava experiments and tinkers with sounds more akin to those of creeping Soul Assassins (Cypress Hill, House Of Pain) works, rather than anything it can irrefutably call its own. Adopting many of the conventions already running amok in rap—mainly its devotion to blunts, caustic, grinding lyrical bursts and hardcore trumpeting—Mad Flavor puts more emphasis on the DJ, mixer-master Baby G, who won the 1990 USA DMC Championship and was a finalist in the DJ Battle Of World Supremacy. Unfortunately, the resulting bantering and overused reliance on phonetic spellings has a no-frills feel, especially when spread over a lengthy 20 cuts. Stacked phat tracks: the title track, "Feel The Flava," "Git Tha Funk Up" and "Freak 'Em." Beware of "Fools," which earns a "shame on you!" for using the same piano sample as Wu-Tang Clan's "C.R.E.A.M."

E-40 "Captain Save Them Thoe" [88 BPM] (Sic Wid' It, c/o Jive, 137-139 W. 25th St., New York, NY 10001/212-727-0016)—From the quiet, Vallejo section of California rolls E-40 and his Click, made up of D-Shot, B-Legit and Suga-T. His recent signing to Jive is launched by the radio-safe "Captain Save Them Thoe," a cut with definite Bay Area trappings: the chrome-plated bassline and sharp guitar work over a cruisable tempo is merely the tip of the iceberg. E-40's animated, quick-tempo delivery is one step above every gangster wannabe on his block, and his funk beds are rugged without being intimidating. Kick the bass and let me ride; E-40 is deserving of every G-Funk accolade.

AND IN THIS CORNER: Beneath the surface, it's a grudge match between East and West. Which side are you on? Is it the Queensbridge projects-native Nas (1-1), who keeps Columbia in the money for another week, or will it be the G-Funk-loaded soundtrack for Above The Rim? Where does your loyalty lie? Storming in from the South is LaFace-Arista's Outkast, which moves its debut album up 5-3, as Virgin's favorite son, Shyheim (6-4), reaches a new peak. While the cream is thinning on releases by

Loud-RCA's Wu-Tang Clan (3-5), Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Snoop Doggy Dogg (4-6) and Chrysalis-ERG's Gang Starr (7-7), the gangster posse known as South Central Cartel makes a menacing debut at #8. Other significant debuts come in from Blackfist's King Just (#18—keep an eye on this one) and Wreck-Nervous' Smif-N-Wessun at #25. (BEAT BOX RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

WORD IS...

A funky fist in the air goes to Rap-A-Lot Records, which was named best independent rap label by Billboard magazine...Pendulum-ERG's DIGABLE PLANETS are working on a follow up to the Grammy Award-winning Reachin' (A New Refutation Of Time And Space). As yet untitled, the album is due to drop later this summer... Jazz heavyweight HERBIE HANCOCK, who's been repeatedly sampled, will be releasing an acid jazz album (similar to GREG OSBY's 3-D Lifestyles or MILES DAVIS's Doo Bop) this September. The album is titled Dis Is Da Drum and features a DJ Smash remix of the first single, "Call It 94." Smash, a pioneering acid jazz DJ, has done remixes for GURU ("Loungin'"), JAMAL-SKI and Greg Osby...Since we're on an acid jazz tangent, the Moonshine label will be releasing a new collection of acid jazz and rare groove sounds called The Speakeasy Collective to go with Acid Jazz Test Part One. Part Two, by the way, will be released this August.

BLOWIN' UP

BEASTIE BOYS Pretzel Nuggets (EP) (Grand Royal, c/o Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Los Angeles, CA 90028)—Once a threesome that taught us how to fight for our right to party, the Beastie Boys have developed into a funky, adventurous groove outfit, rediscovering its punk roots while injecting them with the raucous elements of old-school B-Boy posturing. The upcoming Ill Communication is prefaced with the Pretzel Nuggets EP, featuring the heavily-reported cut "Get It Together," which stars A Tribe Called Quest's Q-Tip, who gives it plenty of lyrical firepower. In just its second week on the chart, Pretzel Nuggets chomps its way from 31-20, while biting off 14 out of 95 reports this week. Here are the stations savoring the salty flavor: CHRY, CKCU, CKDU, KDUR (#1), KTRU, KTUH, WBIM, WDCR, WKNH, WMUC, WNUR, WQHS (#1), WVUM and WXCI.

SLAM-JAMS

Noteworthy selections from new releases.

JEANIE BRYSON/Tonight I Need You So/"Honeysuckle Rose" (Telarc, 23307 Commerce Park Rd., Cleveland, OH 44122/216-464-2313)

—The much-awaited second offering from vocalist Bryson, the most engaging distaff jazz vocalist to emerge in years, offers many charming performances, none more so than her treatment of the perennial "Honeysuckle Rose." Beginning as a duet with the young-blood contrabass phenom Christian McBride, "Honeysuckle Rose" blooms as the drums and piano enter the bluesy mix. Bryson's husky contralto, a honey-and-licorice combination, and masterfully controlled phrasing ("the... honey... fairly... drips") are fully evident on this selection. The daughter of composer Connie Bryson and the late trumpet titan Dizzy Gillespie, this amiable singer abundantly displays the breadth of her pedigree: Her keen attention to lyricism and wordplay are clearly traceable to the former (two of the most-requested numbers in her live repertory, "Simple Song" and "Solamente Tu," both from her mother's pen, are included here); her adeptness with Latin rhythms ("Simple Song" and "Skydive"), to the latter. Returning from her previous CD, I Love Being Here With You, are guitarist Vic Juris, vibist Steve Nelson and saxist Don Braden; the Latin numbers are enlivened by rhythmicians Daniel Perez (piano) and Ignacio Berroa (traps) plus hornmen Paquito D'Rivera, Claudio Roditi and Jay Ashby.

HOWARD PRINCE/Straight To The Soul/"Over Easy" (Accurate, P.O. Box 390115, Cambridge, MA 02139)

—For a musician who aspires ostensibly to the avant-garde, trombonist Howard Prince's debut as a leader is a delightfully varied, coherent and tuneful platter. As on singer Bryson's rendition of the haunting "Two Hump Ride," whose words remind one of Coleridge's "Rhyme Of The Ancient Mariner," trumpet soloist Claudio Roditi shines on Prince's sambaish "Over Easy." (The Brazilian Roditi, to these ears the legitimate heir to the late Clifford Brown's mantle of golden lyricism, is truly deserved of a domestic record deal.) Prince, best known heretofore as the bass trumpeter with the Metropolitan Opera Orchestra, incorporates the entire history of the jazz-trombone (especially the approaches of modernist J.J. Johnson and avantist Jimmy Knepper) into his conception. One also hears the scalar influence of theoretician/composer/bandleader George Russell, with whom Prince worked and studied. But even if you can't distinguish Russell's Lydian chromatic mode from pie à la mode, Straight To The Heart's energy and directness should appeal to your audience. Marvin "Smitty" Smith, an orchestral drummer, is the linchpin throughout much of this recording, and, like the resourceful Smith, Prince boasts a keen sense of musical organization; the combination of the leader's trombone and Dave Moreno's guitar is particularly effective on many of the numbers here. The only knock against Prince on Straight To The Heart is the smattering of synth he employs unnecessarily, but, overall, the leader keeps his chosen musicians (and, ultimately, his listeners) acutely involved in the proceedings. These skills bode well for his continued high-level development as a composer (he penned six of the 10 songs) and recording artist.

BHEKI MSELEKU/Timelessness/"Ntuli Street" (Verve, c/o PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—PolyGram has pulled out all the stops in uniting this London-based South African pianist, composer and occasional saxist with a number of its biggest stars, among them Joe Henderson and Abbey Lincoln. ON THE CHART

In its second week on the chart, Verve-PG's Charlie Haden Quartet West continues to hold a commanding lead (#1 at KRVS, WCBN, WEOS, WIUS (IN), WMPP and WMUC). The top 10 doesn't change very much, with one-notch moves by several artists, save for the #9 debut by Antilles-PG's Frank Morgan. Gramavision's Ray Anderson makes a big move in his second week with his Big Band Record, featuring the George Gruntz Concert Jazz Band (25-14), while Prawn Song-Mammoth's

Charlie Hunter Trio makes another upward swing in its 15th week on the chart (22-15). Our only two other debuts come in from Atlantic's Julian Joseph (#17) and Rhino's Ray Charles compilation (#25), while Verve's Gil Scott-Heron, Novus-RCA's Maceo Parker and Virgin's jazz score for the movie Backbeat, featuring Terence Blanchard, fall just shy this week. (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) medium-up number features Kent Jordan's heady flute over the leader's rumbling, Tyneresque pianistry. While many of the tunes on this whopping 78-minute CD are rather long (the title track, featuring Henderson, clocks in at 9:09; "Yanini," featuring fellow tenorman Pharoah Sanders, at 11:04), Timelessness is a captivating, rhythmically compelling outing that should appeal to straight-jazz and worldbeat formats. With apartheid now formally dead, this release is joyously timely. Bassist Michael Bowie and drummer Marvin "Smitty" Smith, who form the rhythm section throughout this album, can also be heard with Mseleku on Celebration (World Circuit, c/o Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700), which also spotlights British-based hornmen Courtney Pine, Steve Williamson and Jean Toussaint.

VARIOUS ARTISTS/Crescent City Gold: The Ultimate Session/"Hang Tough" (High Street/Windham Hill, 75 Willow Rd., Menlo Park, CA 94025/415-329-0647)—Earl Palmer's funkily syncopated, second-line drumbeats, Mac "Dr. John" Rebennack's chattering rhythm guitar and Allen Toussaint's roiling piano form an insistent good groove. The words on "Hang Tough" are didactic ("Even the masters miss sometimes, baby/So don't be so hard on yourself/... You got to hang tough/Never give up"), but the feel, abetted by the saxophones of Lee Allen and Alvin Tyler, cannot be denied. This reunion of the classic Nawlins studio band of a generation ago truly lives up to its name with authentic, undiluted Crescent City sounds, recorded right there. As a corollary programming option, also check out Bluesiana Hot Sauce (Shanachie, 37 E. Clinton St., Newton, NJ 07860/201-579-7763), featuring Toussaint with Will Calhoun, Michael Brecker and Ray Anderson, among others.

MOSE ALLISON/The Earth Wants You/title track (Blue Note, 1750 N. Vine St., Los Angeles, CA 90028)—Toussaint's uplifting, buck-up sentiments are counterpoised niftily by fellow composer/pianist/vocalist Allison's lye-on-wry words over a cheery, bluesy instrumental track highlighted by Ray Mantilla's cross-channel conga patterns and John Scofield's razor-sharp guitar lines. Just when you think all is lost and there's no place to park your miserable, wretched carcass, ol' Mose (who's also been known to croon "You Are My Sunshine") offers these words of wisdom: "If you feel neglected by someone you love/Even get rejected when push comes down to shove/You think nobody gives a damn about what you're going through/But one thing you can count on—the earth wants you."

JACKPOT!

BALANESCU QUARTET Luminitza (Mute, 140 W. 22nd St., 10th Fl., New York, NY 10011/212-255-7670)—There was a time, of course, when "popular" music was what we now call classical music. It is only since the arrival of marketers and hucksters in the late 20th century that the boundaries between what one part of the population and another listen to and love has become so carefully defined to make sales easier and to maximize profits. So what is now produced by "classical" musicians is often relegated to the background of contemporary culture. A few musicians and composers have bridged that gap, some more successfully than others, including Kronos, Philip Glass, and just a little earlier in the century, Leonard Bernstein. Alexander Balanescu and his group are consciously searching to tear down the wall between Carnegie Hall and MTV, first with a release featuring new arrangements of music composed by German experimental pop band Kraftwerk, and now with an album of original works, Luminitza.

Composer/musician Balanescu, who was born in Rumania but trained in the West, returned to his post-counter-revolutionary homeland in 1992 to write a series of works that reflect the small lights (Luminitza) of hope and the dark corners of despair that exemplify the reconstruction of post-Communist Europe. The compositions, by Balanescu and violinist Clare Connors, are in turns potent memories and portentous visions. The addition of poetry adds another dimension of post-modernism to the mix, but the message is timely, both a welcome and a warning of what comes with the turning tides of capital and politics in the eastern world. Musically, the pieces are all over the spectrum, from Rumanian folk songs to classical romance, each strained by the composers' bleak intuition. In addition to the strings are keyboards and some synth percussion, lending a contemporary starkness and tension to their sound. "Revolution is great, it's fun," Balanescu chants in "Democracy," "It gives us something to look forward to...something exciting to watch...to kill, to die...I can't wait for the next one." The cynicism he exhibits is also part of the purification process he hopes for, both politically and musically. Here is true "world music" that sees the world for what it is and tries to recreate it through art and magic. Luminitza burns much brighter than its diminutive title would imply.

SHANG SHANG TYPHOON 2 (TriStar, c/o Sony, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—At last, a domestic release of one of the great records of Japanese pop band Shang Shang Typhoon. The group's second release in 1991 was a milestone in the Japanese scene. Few bands were using the local roots to make a pop hybrid, and fewer were having any success. SST broke through with a mix of Okinawan minyo, Japanese folk-pop, clever, sometimes cutting lyrics, and a screwy sensibility that made them cult heroes both in Asia and around the world. Many a WPKN listener has been driven to despair trying to find an import copy of 2. So

It's Hannibal-Rykodisc's All Farka Toure With Ry Cooder, still at the top by nearly a two-to-one margin over Mutabaruka on Shanachie (8-2). Things might shift and change a little bit in the top 10—Ellipsis Arts' Africa Never Stand Still compilation rises 6-4, while Hollywood's Yothu Yindi moves 9-6 and Hannibal-Rykodisc's Best Of Both Worlds sampler moves 11-9—but the big action comes further down the charts, not surprising since most of the heavy-hitting top-10 records have been up there for almost two months or more. Talitha MacKenzie on Shanachie returns at #13, while the Meditations anthology on Heartbeat enters our chart at #15 (see the glowing review in this week's reggae column on the next page). Further down, Caetano Veloso E Gilberto Gil arrive at #21 with their brilliant and celebratory Tropicalia 2 CD on Elektra Nonesuch. Just out of the picture: Sola (Axiom-Island), Israel Vibration (RAS), Barrington Levy (with both Olive on RAS and a new single from Barrington on MCA) and Superblue on Ice. (WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) here it is, in 90% of its original glory. "Paper Tiger" takes on the American military presence with cutting wit and a bright, jumping groove tinged with percussion from the islands. A nice mix of Asian and Caribbean comes through on a number of tracks, including "Hot Night In Yokosuka," another shot at the U.S. military, and the cheesy but fun "I've Got That Sento Feeling." There is also some more tradition-rooted music here, like the gorgeous "On The Morning Of The Flower Festival." What's missing is the brilliant, sanshien-and-kazoo-with-sumo-choir "Let It Be" that was the centerpiece of the original Japanese release. It has been replaced by a shorter, tamer, more synth-centered version that comes nowhere near the original. Too bad, because that one song probably had more potential to introduce the band to an audience outside of the "world beat" ghetto than anything else on the album. But for real fans of pop music with a local heart, you couldn't do much better than Shang Shang Typhoon.

BITS O' THE WORLD

A Brit saxophonist, a fretless bassist and a Ghanaian drum ensemble come together as TREVOR WATTS MOIRÉ MUSIC DRUM ORCHESTRA to make A Wider Embrace (ECM, 1540 Broadway, 33rd Fl., New York, NY 10036/ 212-930-4996) around jazz and African traditions. The theory here is to make an encounter between the anti-structure of free improvisation and the mystical organization of west African drum rhythms, and they succeed in intertwining the threads of each into a complex cloth that makes the best of both. Blues, jazz, highlife and even some Anglo-Celtic melodies all find a place in this tapestry, and the final product is a unique fabric that is beholden to none of its individual fibers. "The Rocky Road To Dublin" and a medley of Ghanaian drum songs may best personify the spirit of Moiré as the Euro-jazz and American blues grooves swing slowly along on one track, and then reflect both gentle beauty and rhythmic strength on the other. Living tradition collides with rampant innovation, and the end results are what they are should to be: surprising and challenging, yet familiar.

I seem to be stuck in a groove of new meets old this week, and here is another CD reinforcing my notion that one needs the other to make truly great music. Dalveleikkat/Wintergames (DAT-Norway, c/o Folk Music Institute, SF-69600 Kaustinen, Finland/fax: 358-68-612352) features Nils-Aslak Valkeapää, the Sami singer whose singing opened the Winter Olympics this year, and fellow joiker Johan Anders Bær. But rather than just exposing the cold beauty of this traditional singing from Lapland, the singers are joined by avant-garde musicians Seppo Paakkunainen and Esa Kotilainen, who add acoustic and electronic music and sounds that bring this music into a new realm. Accordions, synths, windy samples, clarinet and percussion surround and echo the unique northern vocal style, turning these pantheistic chants into powerful modern music. Jazz, new age, even a bluesy squeeze box all seem to naturally fit together as musicians and singers both reach further into their respective music to find a new, common territory to explore.

X Marks The Spot (Caroline, 114 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001/212-989-2929) is a collection of tunes from around the world put together to benefit the Matla Trust of South Africa to facilitate voter registration. It features rap from Canada's Devon and a roster of RealWorld artists such as Mozambique's Ghorwane and Kenyan harpist Ayub Ogada. The "fame-sells" spots are filled by a lackluster track from Paul Simon ("Proof"), the Neville Brothers, one of the few good Savuka tracks in recent years and Peter Gabriel's powerful "Fourteen Black Paintings." South African politics and art are well represented by a gorgeous "Mayibuye" by Shifty Mohasela, "Now Is The Time" by poet Mzwakhe Mbuli and a live recording of "Stimela" by the Graceland tour edition of Hugh Masakela's band, recorded live in Zimbabwe. It's a good collection of work, both unheard and well known, and your listeners will be contributing to a good cause when they buy it.

CRUCIAL!

DAWN PENN No, No, No (Big Beat, 19 W. 21st St., Ste. 501, New York, NY 10010/212-691-8805)—When I first heard this album, booming out of the house stereo in the basement Reggae & World Music section of Tower Records, I could tell it was going to be huger than huge as this summer began to heat up. The broadness of this music's appeal could be seen not just in the different kinds of people that were picking it up, but the ways in which they bought it: some stopped the buyer, demanding to know what it was, others simply reached down and coolly scooped one up. Not only is this record going to be one of the summer's biggest hits, but Dawn Penn is one of those "significant artists" that sometimes seems to grab all the ink in these pages; namely, she defies the stereotypes and norms of the reggae milieu these days, and does so in such a triumphant and authentic way that it makes all the competitors all but disappear in the glow. Too often female singers in reggae are reduced to pliant, supportive backup singers, cooing about how much they need to be loved or how much they love some singer or other they're duetting with, victims of the vapid scenarios of flimsy, chauvinistic songwriting. Dawn Penn, however, portrays the full spectrum of being a woman today, illustrating the joy and complexity of life in both the songs she writes herself, and the way she interprets the songs of others ("Night And Day" being a perfect example). One could argue that Penn takes her cues more from the great women of '60s soul, such as Carla Thomas, Irma Thomas or Mable John, than from any contemporary figure in the music world today; tough, independent, sometimes strong, sometimes not, but able to sing about love and relationships earnestly, honestly and directly. Top five for this summer.

MEDITATIONS Deeper Roots: The Best Of The Meditations (Heartbeat, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700)—

The Meditations were one of the great message groups from reggae's most spiritually active era, and this "best of" is a deep and powerful slab of irie vibrations. (Let it be said that this was one of those weeks where the roots reissues were so powerful and strong, they almost beat out the new releases to earn a Crucial! pick.) These awesome selections, many never before released in this country, spotlight the powerful vocal skills of the Meditations at their greatest. Of particular note to collectors and diehard fans is that several of these tracks are presented in their original 45 or 12" mixes; the expanded frequency range of the CD format makes the bass jump out of the speakers, while the group's voices are as clear and bright as possible. Also, the liner notes give extensive information about the group's history and other albums, a rare occurrence in the world of reggae mystery releases bearing no information whatsoever. And the amazing thing is that the Meditations are still around and going strong after all these years. This album sets the record straight as to the impact of their work; pair any of these tracks with cuts from The Return Of The Meditations (also on Heartbeat) and give yourself a taste of how deeply moving reggae music can be.

JACOB MILLER Who Say Jah No Dread (RAS, P.O. Box 42517, Washington, DC 20015/301-588-9641)—They don't make reggae heroes like they used to. When they spoke, it was with weight and meaning, the voice not just of a singer or DJ, but of a movement, a force to be reckoned with, crying out against Babylon. One of those voices was the fiery talent of Jacob Miller, a poet/prophet/singer who could galvanize an audience by singing about issues, ideas and change. Maybe it's just the personal reaction of a jaded soul, but when I hear a song like the title track, with its chorus of "Too much commercialization of Rastafari," I can't help but marvel at the potency of that kind of a message in the face of so many shallow songs coming my way these days. Today, it seems that many DJs and singers merely try to think of the most wildly confrontational, overtly controversial lyrics they can, using shock value to sell the maximum number of records in the shortest time. Meanwhile, someone like Jacob Miller takes a stand—this at a time when reggae was garnering increased attention from outside Jamaica, an effect that was no doubt a prominent issue. My point is that if he wanted a hit, he would have written whatever it took, but Miller wasn't about that—he had something to say, and reggae music was merely a medium for that higher calling. These Pablo-produced sessions are strong reminders of what the most potent classic reggae was all about, or at least as worthy of attention and airplay as the higher-profile Inner Circle hits collection, box set compilations, or Marley reissues with new music overdubbed on top. Check it out.

JACKPOT!

WAX THIEF

WAX THIEF "Generation" (12") (Emotive, 19 W. 21st St., Ste. 1204, New York, NY 10010/212-645-7330)—New York DJ Hippie Torales is perhaps best known for his sadly defiant, floor-shaking garage classic, "You're Gonna Miss Me," released on the tiny Music Village label in 1988. Since this seems to be the season for the return of garage music's most poetic minds and voices (Robert Owens, Vicki Martin, Colonel Abrams, Ce Ce Rogers, Jay Williams and Ten City have all released new records in the past few weeks), it seems only fitting that this gliding lament for the dancefloor arrives this week. The mix of merit is the "Original Mix," which has a soft, quasi-acidic bassline rolling beneath the neo-disco chanted vocals. The arrangements here sound like nothing else around, and it is as though this were constructed as a song without lyrics rather than a raw track. Let us hope this is the first of many projects from one of New York's most tenacious garage DJs.

NO LACK OF HOUSING

Let's not leave the deep garage revival quite yet, because another ray from heaven has appeared in the form of JACQUETTA DAVIS' "Last Night" on the increasingly impressive Music Station label. With projects from Mentalinstrum, Ronald Burrell and others in recent weeks, this is the deepest garage label in town right now. "Last Night" is just the sort of thing fans of Blaze or Arnold Jarvis are going crazy for. Davis' tremulous vocal and the simple, minimal basslines of Healy LeCator hark back to the days when vocal garage was under-produced in the most magnificent way. This is a soul record first and foremost, and it does damage on the dancefloor (Music Station, c/o Dancefloor Distribution, 111 Cedar Lane, Englewood, NJ 07631/201-568-8699)...I don't need to list KERRI CHANDLER's credentials any further in this space, but you should acquire a gem of his which regrettably missed this column upon its initial release a few weeks back. It's the charging "All Of Me" by TY BRUNSON (who, if I'm not mistaken, is electro-funk pioneer Tyrone Brunson, whose "Smurf" single for Enjoy in '83 remains a beatbox classic), and the "Alternative Dub" on the flipside has an intro that'll knock your glasses off. Chanelle's vocal versions are not exactly lackluster either (Nott-Us/212-370-1302)...AARON SMITH's "Going Round" was perhaps the most successful vocal house record of the past winter and the new set of remixes do not disappoint. The reliable Marc Kinchen (MK) provides an effortlessly smooth rendition of the song, while Vibe label chief Georgie Porgie runs the track through the sampler, throwing the vocals back at a frenzied staccato pace. Blissful (Vibe Music, 2566 W. Argyle, Chicago, IL 60625/312-271-9924)...The ever-reliable Ed The Red and Nelson Roman have concocted an infinitely smooth groove on "Day Walkin'" by JAZZMEN. Since the pair

ON THE CHART

As we predicted last week, Richard James' Aphex Twin continues to hold down the #1 position, while WHITE LBLs-American's Messiah once again shows it's here to stay, holding tight at #2. KK-Restless' Zen Paradox makes a huge leap, moving 18 spots (25-7), and Caroline's release of Round & Round/Antler-Subway's Transformer 2 makes a significant move as well, scooting up to #9 after last week's debut at #20. New faces on the chart this week include yet another compilation, Waveform's One A.O., at #13 and two major-label findings, XL-Elektra's Prodigy (#20) and Atlantic's B-Tribe (#24). The updated compilation count: seven. (RPM REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) relocated to Florida from Brooklyn, their music has been just a little bit brighter, but just as deep. This sort of stuff is going to horrify some of this column's more techno-minded readers, but it's as sleek and gracious as a greyhound (Bottom Line, 10202 284th St. E., Myakka City, FL 34251/813-322-2834).

UNSOLICITED WHITE LABEL OF THE WEEK

POSITIVE "I'll Heal Your Body" (12") (Love From San Francisco, 591 Haight St., San Francisco, CA 94117/415-621-2230)—The title says it all. This is a nifty, compact stormer from U.K. producers who recently relocated to the West Coast. Originally part of Nottingham's Di-Y/Strictly For Groovers organization and the Time label, this collective has come up with a record that doesn't sound a bit like anything to come out of Haight Street in the last year. With a curved bassline soaked in reverb and a mid-track, pounding piano break, this is a barnburner which will not allow you to stand still.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

This week brings a new single from JEFF MILLS as well as a new SONIC SOLUTION (the project name for C.J. Bolland and Steve Cop's outings) single on R&S. With Jeff Mills' radically experimental single just out on Axis in the U.S., he's also managed to concoct one for the hardheads on his German label, Tresor. "The Extremist" is a nasty little exercise in gritty analog terrorism, the best mix being the acid-riddled "DNA Mix." Mills can make music that is nearly industrial but retains an indestructible rhythm (Tresor, P.O. Box 360428, 10999 Berlin, Germany)...Sonic Solution's "Turbulence" is a welcome addition to the C.J. Bolland catalog. That Bolland's first three masterpieces, the Rave Signal EPs, could all be played today without sounding a bit dated is a testament to his knack for creating simple, heavy techno tracks with enduring appeal. "Turbulence" is one of those heart-stopping tracks similar in construction to Cop and Bolland's "Beat Time" from two years ago, with sudden shifts in mood and temperature riding a furious, taut bassline (R&S, 82 Limburgstraat, 9000 Gent, Belgium).

State Of The World Address

(Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)

—And now, ladies and gentlemen, the moment you've all been waiting for... "It's the State Of The World Address motherfuckers!!!" Brooklyn's hardcore boys are back to stomp and mangle your world into a heap of quivering mush. State Of The World Address takes a harsh look at the bitter reality of violence, racism, hatred and crime in society. The first single, "Tales From The Hard Side," debuted at #45 on the Loud 100, and Biohazard is sure to blast into the top 10 within the next few weeks. This time around, the band has sharpened its slammin' blend of metal, rap, hip-hop and hardcore, creating an even tighter, fuller sound. The lyrics are vivid and insightful, penned by four men that have experienced some of life's worst atrocities first hand. Inventive samples, ranging from sirens to screams show up throughout the album, adding a true-to-life quality to the already graphic landscape that's set forth through the music and lyrics. "How It Is" (with special guest Sen Dog from Cypress Hill on board) rides along a rough, aggressive edge of throbbing guitar grind and angry, rapped vocals. The opening of "Failed Territory" is atypical for these guys, featuring beautiful, gentle, acoustic guitar strumming, which later returns to Biohazard's characteristic powder keg of ferocity. Also check out the title cut, "What Makes Us Tick," "Five Blocks To The Subway" and "Human Animal." (Also don't miss the groovy rap at the end of track #14.)

DROWN

Hold On To The Hollow

(Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)

—Sometimes the burning feeling of despair and hopelessness that rips and tears at the tender lining of your soul devours every shred of hope for happiness and serenity, leaving only a vacuous shell of emptiness and futility. Instead of being sucked into the murky depths of this overwhelming force, the guys in Drown manage to keep their heads above water by channeling their pent-up anger, frustration and pain through a pipeline of heavy, oppressive, grinding music. Hold On To The Hollow is drenched in negative emotion, feelings of despondency and brooding power. Amidst fierce, churning guitar roars and the brutally anguished vocal wails of Lauren Boquette is a flurry of industrial-tinged electronics adding an ominous, eerie texture to the music. The album was produced by Dave Ogilvie of Skinny Puppy, who has also mixed records for Nine Inch Nails and Ministry. "Pieces Of Man" begins with a hushed tone and whirling, pulsating electronic beats, then crashes into a frenzy of sharp, slamming guitar chords and pummeling drum kicks. The first single, "What It Is To Burn," with its shower of chaotic instrumental intensity, captures the explosive emotion of being hurt by the truth. "Longing" is a stark, hypnotizing tune that has absolutely no instrumentation, only harsh, agonized screams ("I don't want you to see me like this!!") mixed with spooky, chime-like sounds. Anyone can sing about pain, fear and misery, but you can actually feel it in Lauren's delivery. Also check out "Beautiful," "I Owe You" and "Everything."

Dusted

(Metal Blade, 2345 Erringer Road, Simi Valley, CA 93065/805-522-9111)—It's been two years since we heard anything new from these heavy, industrial rockin' Texans. 1992's Burning In Water, Drowning In Flame was Metal Blade's largest selling debut in years and amassed a ton of positive feedback from fans and critics alike. Skrew takes industrial a step further, centering its whole sound around a blistering three man guitar attack. By focusing more on a thick, meaty guitar groove, while not neglecting any inventive programming, the band creates a powerful sound that stands out among the many bands of that same genre. Skrew relies more on loud, grinding machinations than a dancey techno beat. Dusted is 10 tracks of pure adrenalin-fueled energy. The album opener, "In Tongues," is filled with swarming air-raid assault sounds, booming drums and frantic, babbling voices, making it the most bizarre track on the album and nothing like the rest of the songs. "Jesus Skrew Superstar" is a whip-cracking frenzy of crushing rhythm and blasts of supersonic speed grinds. "Skrew Saves" has a clanky, jangly feel to it that vibrates around a fuzzy wall of noise. An industrial pow-wow of sorts, "Mouthful Of Dust" strays from the norm with a very spiritual, tribal sounding vibe. "Godsdog" is also experimental, its warped, hazy vocals turning into rap-like spurts. Also check out "Picasso Trigger," "Season For Whither" and "Albatross."

—Jenni Glenn

SONIC YOUTH

Experimental Jet Set, Trash And No Star

(DGC, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069)—Some headbangers will probably be surprised at Sonic Youth being reviewed in a "heavy metal" section, but you can't deny this group's influence upon many of the bands who have appeared on this page. Several bands which emerged from the late '80s/early '90s using loud, feedback-drenched guitars—we'll avoid the dirty "G-word"—owe Sonic Youth a debt. Sonic Youth also deserves credit for opening major label doors for those who like to play loud, but by their own rules.

REVIEWS

And while volume still comes into play on Experimental..., SY has taken a more subtle turn. Feedback is still an instrument in and of itself, but this time around it is used to garnish the mix instead of as a main ingredient. With less emphasis on feedback, the songs' structures become more important. Guitarist/vocalist Thurston Moore and bassist/vocalist Kim Gordon (all of the songs were written by one of these two) don't seem to have urges to play conventional music. Of course, this is one of the reasons why this band is so revered. Fitting into a genre is of no interest to this band, but that's what college radio is about, right? So check out "Bull In The Heather," "Self-Obsessed and Sexxee" and "Tokyo Eye," and find your favorite bands in "Screaming Skull." —Brian Ives

Dirtbomb

(RCA, 1540 Broadway, Times Sq., New York, NY 10036)—Oh, no—not another band named after the miles on the odometer of a rental car! Singer/guitarist John Carlin and bassist Tom Clapp (formerly of the punk/pop trio Next Big Thing) had earned a name for themselves in the NYC area before joining up with Justin on skins to become 700 Miles. Produced by Matt Hyde (Porno For Pyros), Dirtbomb boasts licks and vocals ringing with sounds of the alternative scene, with kick-ass rock 'n' roll roots added in for punch. The band's style is difficult to pinpoint, ranging from slow, psychedelic ballads to loud, grinding rock. Dirtbomb is packed with originality and incredible energy that flows from track to track. "Wet" whispers at you hypnotically, while the notes float by like a colorful rainbow of fish swimming by in a blurry dream. "Unnatural" breaks through with a Primus-like bass thwap mixed with thick, heavy riffs. Switch to "Greedy" and enjoy a southern bluesy style accented by a keyboard. Grab on to the above, along with the heavy "Drift," "Wire" and "Eventide." —Lana Michalko

ICE COLD JULY

There Will Come A Day

(Sector 2, c/o Futurist, 6 Greene St., New York, NY 10013/212-226-7272)—Ice Cold July is a fiery hailstorm of hard rockin', bluesy metal with a touch of funk. There Will Come A Day, produced by David Eaton (Slammin' Gladys, Warrant, Human Drama), is the band's first full-length LP. With influences ranging from KISS and Jane's Addiction to Bob Seger, Ice Cold July isn't an easy band to categorize. Jason Michael's vocals go from screechy, high-pitched wails to passionate, blues-inflected tones—kind of like Mark Slaughter meets Axl Rose meets Ray West. The band is reminiscent of late '80s/early '90s metal, but with a little more punch and a harder edge. There Will Come A Day is chock full of catchy, spirited rockers, along with soothing, melodic ballads. "City" pivots from swaggering, funky grooves to straightforward, power rock jolts, blanketed in a swirling, psychedelic aura. "Kick It Up" boasts a more pompous grind that struts with slinky, gritty guitars and attitude-laden voicings. Also check out "Angel In The Forest," "The Fix" and "Live/Amazing Grace." —Jenni Glenn ■

Tommy Davis, Outlaw Records, Memphis, TN (901) 521-9551

There's a new label in town, in case ya didn't hear. It's Outlaw Records. Mostly handling street rap, the label is working its first heavy band, SON OF SLAM. The band is straight outta Tate County, Mississippi. The name of the album is Trailer Parks, Politics & God. If you haven't received a copy, give Tommy Davis a call. Mon.-Fri., 10-6 Central time. Also going for adds.

Maria "Mom" Abril, Metal Blade Records, Simi Valley, CA (805) 522-9111

So many shows, so little hearing left as it is. I saw the beauty we call CHEMLAB last Friday. They were amazing. If you haven't seen them on this KMFDM tour, then you, my friend, are lame. Their new LP, Ten Ton Pressure, will be out this summer. GWAR will be annihilating what is now Los Angeles on Friday the 13th and the day after BROKEN HOPE is in town. My head's spinnin' and my ears are ringin'! Here's the Gwar tip...play "Jack The World" and "Saddam A Go-Go" or we'll have to hurt you. Metal Blade is a scary label, you know. Headbanger's Ball and Beavis & Butt-Head are spinning "Jack The World" EVERY WEEK, so you have ample chance to see it. If you're still not playing this record, wake up and smell reality. Gwar is the #2 independent Soundscan release, right behind...CANNIBAL CORPSE. That's right, folks. Numero uno indie release is The Bleeding. "Staring Through The Eyes Of The Dead" will be airing on MTV within the next two Saturdays and the band is on the road for two months starting May 27th in Long Island, NY. BEATS THE HELL OUT OF ME and SKREW are in your hot li'l hands. Hopefully you know what to do. Hint: Press play. Many times a day. Over and over. The tracks are "Behind My Back" and "Picasso Trigger," respectively. Coming your way: EPIDEMIC 7 "Lament," MERCYFUL FATE EP The Bellwitch, DESULTORY LP Bitterness and as early as July, new FATES WARNING! On the road: Broken Hope, Gwar, Cannibal Corpse, Chemlab, SLOPPY SECONDS and THOUGHT INDUSTRY with Type O Negative. Wish you were me, don'tcha? Mom outthere.

John P. Spain, Heart & Soul Records, Chicago, IL (312) 775-9797

To the many of you who are graduating, congrats. Amy Franklin from KWWC, both myself, SLAM and SPHINX will miss ya. Good luck!! Thanks to WFPR, WMNJ, WRUW, KSMU, WTHS, WBSD, WSFX and many others for making Sphinx #1 on their stations. Thanks to Mark Morden & WSGR for supporting Slam St. Joan's Detroit gig, it was a hell of a show. Any retailers who do not have the Slam or Sphinx record should direct their calls to Baker & Taylor at 800-775-2800. Look for Sphinx in the June issue of Rip. God, how I miss MJ.

David T., Leviathan Records, Atlanta, GA (404) 463-1009

It is very encouraging to see the response to IMPERIUM's Too Short A Season and the lead track, "Chemical Dreams." It has moved all the way up to #26 on Hard Report's Spins Chart and is charting on everyone's list somewhere. Once again, I would like to suggest the first track on the CD, "Silenced." This track really is what the band is about...power, dynamics and melody. These progressive metal masters are currently in Europe writing material for their next release and touring constantly. We will have some big announcements here at Leviathan in short order. Don't turn that channel. Till next...

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY (212) 275-2135

Six weeks ago, I stated that The Crow soundtrack would be the biggest soundtrack of this decade thusfar. Thanx to metal, rock and alternative airplay on STP's "Big Empty," The Crow soundtrack is all that and more. FYI—STP's new single, "Vaseline," will hit radio on May 25th for reports on May 31st. Watch the roster: JAWBOX, SURGERY, KING'S X, COLLECTIVE SOUL, STUTTERING JOHN, GODSPEED, COLLAPSING LUNGS, RUSH and RUST. Coming soon: OVERKILL, TESTAMENT, SAVATAGE, VIOLET'S DEMISE. We're ready for ANOTHER year of brilliant dominance!

Munsey Ricci, Skateboard Marketing, Ltd., Valley Stream, NY (516) 825-5549

So, yo, I had someone else tell me I had the coolest Dialogues. I don't know about that, I guess I put in print the way I speak. Who knows what's up with that, dude. Anyway, DIO starts his U.S. tour on May 20th, so keep on doing the right thing for the record. "Jesus, Mary And The Holy Ghost" is in your face big time. Do it because you know you love it. BLACK SABBATH may be returning to the states for another tour in July. Do this record heavy. Can you believe some idiot said Black Sabbath's too old a band for him to play; what a fuckin' Einstein. Cya, dude. LOVE/HATE has some nice chart moves this week. Get down with this record. Give your listeners a chance to react to it. IMPERIUM makes good moves this week, also. Dig on this record because it will work. The full length on the SARKOMA and the SKATENIGS will be in your face this week. You want it, you love it, you need it, so do it. Till next week, cya.

Marni/Wayne/Psycho, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077

Everyone should be playing BLACK TRAIN JACK's new release, You're Not Alone. Please concentrate on "Hand Outs" and "What's The Deal." There will be a summer tour, and if everything pans out with this other band, this tour will rule! Thanks to all who added DOG EAT DOG's new CD, All Boro Kings. Jam on "No Fronts." They are over in Europe with Biohazard doing that tour thing, then will be back to tour the states. Don't forget the tour that will end all tours—SEPULTURA, Pantera and Biohazard! Call us for dates and venues. Enough said on this subject. Well, TYPE O NEGATIVE just finished with Nine Inch Nails. They will now be heading out for a national tour with Motley Crue and the Ramones. Then the Butthole Surfers will be taking over for the Ramones or vice-versa. LIFE OF AGONY continues to pound the pavement! Europe will never be the same! The video for "This Time" has been completed. It will be appearing on Headbanger's real soon. The NAILBOMB craze continues to sweep the nation. This catchy disease resembles that of Captain Tripps from Stephen King's The Stand. That's right, it is devastating! See, I too have a corny side. If any of you have not started playing "Point Blank," then talk to Jay Hugen at A&M about how fucking outrageous this record is! The Rangers and Red Sox are both rolling...oooooooooh, phat!!

Sharon Joffe, Arista Records, New York, NY (212) 830-2144

Last week, STICK did a free show for the wonderful people of New York City and our newest rock station on the block, Q104. Can you say hundreds? Yes, there were many a black leather clad individuals at this show. Even a few suits from the surrounding midtown area emerged to see what this amazing live band was all about. They came out afterwards and signed at least 100 autographs, if not more. NEW YORK CITY LOVES STICK! And most of you do, too. In just a few short weeks, you'll find an EP called Full Frontal Nudity. Stick live in L.A. at the Whiskey. The power and force of a Stick show on plastic for you to share with your listeners. And don't forget, Stick is still on the road with I Mother Earth throughout May. I saw the show in Philadelphia and it makes for an amazing double bill. Don't miss it! Coming at you this summer is the Airheads soundtrack, featuring incredible tunes from MOTORHEAD (with Ice T and Whitfield Crane), WHITE ZOMBIE, PAW, PRONG, ANTHRAX and more! You guys are gonna eat this one up. MUZZA CHUNKA is still doing live dates around the country, so call for the usual stuff. New office hours? Going of the air? You want tickets or interviews for Stick? Call me and play "Grind!" See ya laterbye.

Sheri Sinclair, Energy Records, New York, NY (800) 235-5678

Hi to all! Special thanks goes out to KCSB, KFSR, KRNL, WFPR, WGAJ, WKSJ, WLCV, WMUC and WPUR for the early support on LARVA. All should follow. Tracks to spin—"Sister," "Kia" and "Word." New PRO-PAIN in June. I'm counting the days. Call me with your new summer hours. Thanx, xoxo.

Dyana Kass, Hollywood Records, Burbank, CA (818) 560-5670

This week, I would like to leave you all with a few deep thoughts. Never wrestle with a pig. You both get dirty and the pig likes it. There is always one more imbecile than you counted on. All things being equal, fat people use more soap. Records have come and gone and ELEVEN lives on! Tours begin and end, but not every band is going on tour with Soundgarden. Singles go for adds, but Eleven's "Heavy" hits on May 23rd and 24th for all you metal types. Bands get signed daily, but not all can fuck up shop like the mighty SEAWEED. Did you catch these guys live? In parting, I must close by saying not one shred of evidence supports the notion that life is serious.

Matt Young, Earache Records, New York, NY (212) 343-9090

The Morbid Florist EP was just the beginning. A.C. is ready to make their Earache debut! Everyone Should Be Killed is the newest offering from the Boston experts on abrasive audio. 58 songs of pure A.C. You should be playing "Song # 8." Give it a listen (I mean more than ten seconds worth!) PITCH SHIFTER rocks. Give the "NIB" some more play. The perfect cure for the post-finals depression syndrome is a healthy dose of DISGUST. Crank out "Mother Earth" for instant relief. That cool looking sampler you all have contains unreleased GODFLESH. The new NAPALM DEATH is fucking mint! Wait till you see the video for "The Plague Rages." Full length in stores on the 31st. God bless Earache! 212-DIE-9090.

Linnea Nan, Warner/Reprise Metal, Burbank, CA (818) 953-3692

Lame Dialogue #69—Sunday I went to preview the Elvis stuff going on the block next month in Vegas. Next month I beg you all send money! I must own the hair of Elvis. Enough of fantasy. Here's reality...BIOHAZARD Biohazard Biohazard! Keep doing the right thing with "Tales From The Hard Sidel" If you didn't get your vinyl, call us now. I have a few left and once these are gone, that's it! DIO dates—I've got 'em! Kickin' off May 29th with Love/Hate and Godspeed! Look out! ATOMIC OPERA—so far, so good. I do encourage you to spend some time with the full CD, For Madmen Only, and keep turning your listeners on. Just got the new L7 advance, Hungry For Stink. It's very cool! Ultra fast, nasty, hard and punk. More to follow. Yes the JESUS LIZARD "Show" soon! P.S. STRIP MIND isn't looking for a drummer anymore!

Michael J. Schnapp, EMI Records Group, New York, NY (212) 492-1812

We love live shows. We live for live shows. We love New York City, where you can see so many different shows and have all the fun you want. Just this month (I think) I've seen D-GENERATION, Nine Inch Nails, Rollins, Johnny Cash, Pantera, Pearl Jam, Genitorturers, Eric Clapton, the WAQX Q-104.3 party, King's X, MUTHA'S DAY OUT, Anthrax, Fight, Prong, MOIST, the High Times magazine party (what a nitel!), Murphy's Law, Hunk, Mudhoney, Mutha's Day Out (again), the usual street busts that we watch, Tree Dude (the NYC bum that'll dance for your change), and the eclipse (great light show!). Call us here at The EMI Records Group, and we'll put on a show for you. Have you hugged your mutha?

Beth Krakower, Mechanic Records, New York, NY (212) 226-7272

Picture this—pink cotton candy, blue blue sky, a rich green field. These are all vivid images. SEED is a vivid band. The Doe EP goes for adds May 24th (lead hard rock track is "Doe"). Give a hearty warm welcome to Chainsaw, formerly of WZMB, who will be my new metal partner in crime, right in time for the TAD/Eleven/Soundgarden tour (segues are for kids). Call for more information. Keep jammin' the MY DYING BRIDE, AUTOPSY, ANATHEMA and DEAD FLY BOY. On the horizon, PUSH-MONKEY and more Pezaville stuff (don't worry, no more maggots!)

Greg Derbas, Pavement Music, Oakbrook Terrace, IL (708) 916-1155

FEAR OF GOD, Toxic Voodoo, is the next gut wrenching release from Pavement Music. In your hands June 7th with a tour to follow. Other summer releases include HEADLOCK—never heard of them before? Oh, believe me, you will. Also on the front is something new from SOLITUDE AETURNUS. Tours are still in action for DEMENTED TED, on the West Coast with Unleashed and Broken Hope. STRESSBALL in the Midwest with the Genitorturers and CROWBAR's headlining tour with opening act, Varga. Interviews, IDs and tickets are still available for selected shows. Going to the big bash in NY, fill me in.

Sue Stillwagon, Zoo Entertainment, Hollywood, CA (213) 468-4225

George Peppard has died. Sadness. At least he has left us "Breakfast At Tiffany's." I'll forget that he was part of the A-Team. Solar eclipse. Who! We in Los Angeles missed it, though, due to the wonderful ocean layer hovering over our city all morning. Rangers win! That's what the Capitals get for beating the Penguins. Revenge is sweet. Now, go Sharks! Happenin' Zoo records include VARGA, TOOL, COURSE OF EMPIRE and GREAT WHITE. Are you playing your recommended daily allowance? On the horizon, very cool music from KILLING JOKE...very cool music. Ciao, bella.

Keith Jenkins, Relapse Records/Nuclear Blast America, Millersville, PA (717) 397-9221

Hey, you music freaks! After a one month lull in the promotional onslaught, Relapse/NBA has rescued me from the terminal yawn of real estate law and rewarded me with the task of promoting the most outrageous talent in the music industry. While bloodying the rungs on their climb up the popularity ladder, PUNGENT STENCH has put together another music masterpiece of artistically contrived gore called Club Mondo Bizarre—For Members Only. I dare you to play this! For those squeamish old ladies cowering in the corners, a clean version of Club Mondo... will be out on June 7th. Sweden's groove and doom hippies, COUNT RAVEN, deliver the Sabbath-like goods on Destruction Of The Void. Experience the northern hyperblast! Ice cold, KATAKLYSM hits you in the face with The Mystical Gate Of Reincarnation—extremely brutal death metal from Canada. FETISH 69, pumping out savage, mutilated blues is a must hear. Response to their latest, Antibody, has been falling off, so get back on it. Over all, positive reactions are soaring, but these grind-encrusted jewels deserve even more. Keep on the lookout for these upcoming releases: PHOBIA's Return To Desolation, SIEGE's Drop Dead, DISRUPT's Unrest and CONVULSE's Reflections. And, don't forget this! SINISTER on tour with Cannibal Corpse and Cynic beginning May 27th. Contact me for dates and information. P.S. See you at the Wetlands Deathfest on May 29th...INCANTATION, DECEASED and Kataklysm will rule!

Tommy Daley, Capitol Records, Hollywood, CA (800) 342-8842

Dig deep in the snack tray and grab a Pretzel Nugget. This isn't your ordinary cheese-filled combo. It may not be all that healthy, but it sure feels good. I have some dates for Lollapalooza. The BEASTIE BOYS are bringing a basketball hoop on the road with them. The video for "Sabotage" is hilarious. III Communication hits the streets on May 31. Tell everybody. Later.

Reporting to CMJ New Music Report

WHEN TO REPORT

Reports are taken weekly as follows:

- By FAX at (516) 466-7159 or (516) 466-7161 until 10 PM Eastern Time on Mondays.
 - By PHONE at (516) 466-7111 from Noon until 6 PM Eastern Time Monday and Tuesday.
- It is strongly suggested you call early.

WHAT TO REPORT

If you FAX us, please include the station's call letters, music director's name, city, state and a phone number at the top of the report. Include the Artist, Title and Label of all records reported.

If you PHONE us, please be prepared with an Artist's record, Title and Label, and have the following information ready:

1) TOP 35 RECORDS (mandatory—no fewer than 35 accepted)

In airplay order (#1 is most played, etc.) only. Records alphabetized within rotation categories (i.e. heavy, medium, light) is not suggested. The playlist reported should accurately reflect the entire radio station's programming—not one particular program—and should include ALL TYPES OF MUSIC presented (not necessarily rock only) and ALL FORMATS represented (albums, EPs, 7" and 12" singles, imports, tapes, etc.). We want an accurate list of what current releases have been played on your station for the week—either a direct count or a reflection of rotation. The CMJ Radio Top 150 is album-oriented, so if you must report album tracks, be careful NOT to report more than one track from the same album.

2) ADVENTURE PICKS (not mandatory but highly encouraged)

Up to 3 subjective selections of new personal favorites. These have no correlation with station airplay, and do not necessarily represent projected adds.

3) TOP CUTS (not mandatory but highly encouraged)

Up to 5 of the most played tracks, be they album cuts or singles. Mention the artist's name first when reporting. For an album track, know what album it's taken from.

4) TOP AUDIENCE RESPONSE (not mandatory but highly encouraged)

Up to 5 of the most requested artists with current releases and/or positive feedback on such releases being programmed.

Please call us if you have any questions!
(516) 466-6000

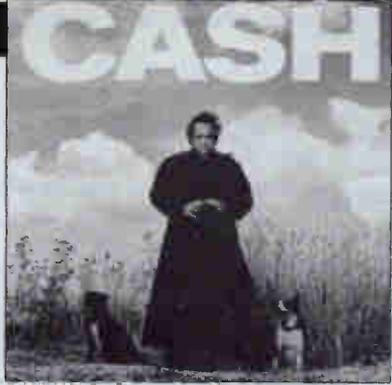

Submitting Dialogues to CMJ New Music Report

Dialogue is a forum for communication about all facets of the music industry.

All CMJ New Music Report subscribers are welcome to submit comments for publication to New Music Report Dialogue, c/o CMJ, 11 Middle Neck Road, Ste. 400, Great Neck, NY 11021-2301, or via fax to 516-466-7159.

Dialogues will only be accepted every other week from any individual subscriber; refer to page 6 for deadlines. Comments must be typed, are strictly limited to 250 words, and must include name, title, company/station, city, state and phone number.

reviews continued

jazzy East Coast minimalism of A Tribe Called Quest than to Casual's West Coast roots. Whatever part of the map you care to place "Me-O-Mi-O" there's no getting around its fresh delivery and the charismatic video to which it's joined. The shots are cut in the standard fashion to the beat while the camera itself opts to mimic the bouncing, gliding and sliding bassline luring the viewer in quite nicely. (SC)

BIOHAZARD "Tales From The Hard Side"

(Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505)—Brooklyn-based quartet Biohazard were one of the highlights of last year's rock meets rap project for the Judgement Night soundtrack, teaming up with the similarly heavy-hitting Onyx for a potent blend of streetwise gusto, slamm'n' beats and bruising guitar punch. This hardcore pairing seems to have rubbed off on the band, judging by the gruff posturing the band puts forth on "Tales From The Hard Side." Shot alternately in B&W and color on Biohazard's home turf, the clip relies primarily on the group's burly, shout n' stomp performance on neighborhood streets to carry its muscular pound. (CH)

TOAD THE WET SPROCKET "Fall Down"

(Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Like the Live video mentioned above, "Fall Down" may just be the one to help Toad The Wet Sprocket make the leap into the living rooms of the same people who've been gobbling up the likes of the Gin Blossoms or Counting Crows this past year. The clip places Toad as the house band at an all night dance marathon, refereed by a chalky cast of pin-striped rollerskating officials. As these judges watch couples drop likes flies and race to drag them from the dancefloor an almost Carrie-like participant is the one left standing, performing a solo dance for the dead bodies strewn across the floor. (CH)

SWELL "Forget About Jesus" (american, address above)—If you've been reading recent issues of this magazine, you're already familiar with San Francisco's Swell, a tough-to-pin-down three piece who do it all themselves, including directing its own videos. "Forget About Jesus," has a hazy feel brought about by both dimly-lit sequences and shots oversaturated by sunlight. As for technique, other bands may not want to employ Swell to direct their videos. It's not like its members are master filmmakers, just three guys with a camera, some film and a handful of really fun, creative ideas that make "Forget About Jesus" a clip glowing with oddball charm and visuals from the mind of the artist and not from a hand-picked, groomed-for-MTV director. RECORD COMPANY

Acey-Boy, Clean Up Crew, Sub Pop Records, Seattle, WA (206) 441-8441 ext. 3026

Shout outs to Sherri Lewis for teaching me the value of a clean sock. Shout outs to ron popeil. Shout outs to Fruit Salad Sam (the next big thing). Shout outs to code money. Shout outs to the man who loaned me a dollar fifty to ride the bus so I could sit next to miss bus etiquette. Shout outs to Juan Epstein. Shout outs to Farrah jeans. Shout outs to Nana Maskouri. Shout outs to the janitors in this building. Shout outs to Charles Nelson Riley. Shout outs to Ed Begley Jr. Shout outs to Angeline. Shout outs to Stretch Armstrong. Shout outs to Fred Van Wallinga. Shout outs to Nipsey Russell. Shout outs to facial hair. Shout outs to Nick Bowcott. Shout outs to Wendy Whitebread. Shout outs to Vine for being too young to fall in love. Shout outs to Clarissa for explaining it all. Shout outs to Rascal, Missy, Baron and Annie. Shout outs to water. Shout outs to Pablo Escobar. Shout outs to Chris Deagan. Shout outs to Scampers the chimp. Shout outs to my bed. Shout outs to Chicken Gunnells. Shout outs to Danny Heifetz. Shout outs to Morris Day. Shout outs to Methusala. Shout outs to five speed automatic transmission cars. Shout outs to Wavy Gravy. Shout outs to Anais Nin. Shout outs to Harry Wayne Casey. Shout outs to Thurston Moore's love of Deicide. Shout outs to mangy curs. Shout outs to disco hand claps. Shout outs to the common cold.

Rich "Noclever Nickname" Masio, Publicity, Oculus Records, Hoboken, NJ (212) 691-1824

Should I use this space for stupid jokes or over-exaggerated label-speak hype like some label publicity hag or college radio dork?...N...What I will say is that if your label isn't servicing Oculus magazine, you're pretty sad. Nils Bernstein has been quoted as saying "I'm down with Oculus." Nuff said. New issue features VAPOURSPACE, MELTING HOPEFULS, SEAWEEED, KEITH CLARK and more. Retailers, we deal direct. Send demos, 7"s, CDs, no naked pictures of Wood pussy and ad bucks to P.O. Box 148, Hoboken, NJ 07030. We have released our third in a never-ending series of unusual 7" bands. HUGE VOODOO fuses jazz, hip-hop, ambiance and clever samples with New York's and the nation's best spoken word artists to create some of the most unbelievable music you will ever hear. Check out "You're Just Using Me For Sex," recorded with Maggie Estep and Reg E. Gaines long before they signed major record deals and were MTV personalities. Recently featured on their second MTV unplugged appearance, Huge Voodoo is catching on...Also available: RASPUTINA is three women, three cellos and one voice. Rasputina's Serena Jost was hand picked by Kurt Cobain (God rest his soul) to be the cellist for Nirvana's recent European and previously upcoming U.S. tour. If Kurt liked Rasputina, you will too. SHRINKTRIP is our bunch of outcasts doing the punk/groove thing as its done best. Thanks to Paul Semel at New Review, WFMU, the mighty Jason Pettigrew at AP, Chase at Cargo and many others for support.

Craig Williamson, Zoo Entertainment, Hollywood, CA (213) 468-4224

MISS ALANS got the opening slot on the Medicine tour, Southwest leg, 5/17-6/1 (TX, UT, WA, OR, CA), call me for details and/or tix. Check this band out if they're in a city near you—and if not, get in your car and drive. This dose of music will be well worth it. Trip on the new album by CAUSE & EFFECT; you should have your copy already but if not I'll get one out to you...just say aahh. CARNIVAL STRIPPERS making headway from the Midwest. MATTHEW SWEET is finishing his tour in a week or so on the East Coast, his Son Of A. Beast will keep good company until next time (hope your hand is feeling better, Matthew). You can't go wrong with BILLY JOE SHAVER's national tour. He just came back from shows down under with Waylon and Willie...Yes TOOL are still on the road. Get off your ass and see them already but don't get too close—the band was held up at U.K. quarantine earlier this year after officials dug up their video for "Hush." Hollywood sightings: David Dick 'scuse me...I'm not sorry, Duke, at a show in L.A.—to be doing spoken word piece with unsaid band's singer...Uh...sounds like...rent starting with a silent T or something...

HELLO?! Congrats to Kevin and everyone involved in Ooz Jelly Productions, we'll be sensing a lot from you now and in the future in some capacity or another whether it be virtual or real.

Dave Mac, Manager Radio Promotions, Guitar Recordings, Port Chester, NY (914) 935-5241

Greetings, radio friends. And people I don't know. Ah, the sounds of the seashore. The hum of steady train service. Fresh seafood. Interstates that look suspiciously like parking lots. New York is like no other area of the country, and I am proud to be back in the area courtesy of Cherry Lane Music, and a smart little record company called Guitar Recordings, and Guitar Acoustics. We are poised to make some noise. The people here love music. They take care of their artists. I look forward to turning you on to great music. Right now, a New York band with strong Florida connections called the FENWICKS is on the burner, with a record called Member Of No Tribe. Thanks for all the early support (a hundred of you are too many to mention! Thanks, in advance, of the late support from you who were on the fence, but have seen the error of your ways. Quote overheard at a recent gig: "Where are the keyboards, man?" (best said with the drawl of post-doo Tommy Chong). No keyboards, dude. Guitarist Carlo Mercieri is all midi'ed up. Live, this band smokes up the stage. No, not leftover dry ice from Def Leppard tour. Steam from sweat under pressure.

Sharon Joffe, Arista Records, New York, NY (212) 830-2144

Yet again, the always babbling and rambling Sharon is semi-lost for thoughts. Fear not, dear college radio types, for an anecdote of some sort is sure to cross through my head and trigger my brainwaves into typing it onto my computer and sharing it with you. Specials this week include: Sometime Anywhere, the ninth, count 'em 1-3-6 album number nine from THE CHURCH. Some major Church fans received an artwork-less advance CD in the mail. Hope you dug it and have shared it with your staff and devoted listeners (or at least rubbed it in their face that you are a very well connected industry hipster). Street date is 24 May. Try these: "2 Places At Once," "Eastern" and "Loveblind." Marty Willson-Piper and Steve Kilbey from The Church will be doing acoustic dates late May through mid-June. Check your major cities. SARAH McLACHLAN will be on her last few U.S. dates when this reaches your eyes, so thanks again to all that came out to see her amazing live performances and interviews and stuff like that. Tell your summer staff about Fumbling Towards Ecstasy and what a great record it is and that she was great on Letterman (did you hear me scream Yaaaay! when Dave fucked up her last name? That was my dumb anecdote) and her video is on MTV and they should play "Good Enough," "Possession," "Hold On" and "Ice Cream"... Our next release from Dedicated Records is sooner than you think...

Rich Holtzman, 4AD Records, Los Angeles, CA (310) 289-8770

Many of you receive hundreds of CDs every week, few are as bad and disgusting as the one many of you have received from the "band" Lightning Rod. Lightning Rod is a white supremacist band out of the hip city, Seattle (Time said Seattle was the best city to live). However, Seattle can hardly be to blame for such garbage; instead we can blame inbreeding, lack of education, and tiny amounts of brain tissue that actually work. Luckily for all us free-loving people, Lightning Rod give us more reasons to hate them: besides the fact that they are racist scums, their music sucks. As I suggested about a year ago you should take the CD you have now, smash it, mail it back to them asking for a new one, smash the new one, mail it back, etc. If you want to play something good, play LISA GERMANO, East River Pipe, and Tindersticks. In a week or so you'll be able to play new music from FRANK BLACK and LUSH.

Pete George, Promotions Director, Good Kitty Records, Richmond, VA (804) 358-5946

Greetings, folks! It's been awhile, so I'll get right down to business. Welcome aboard to our new booking coordinator Sylvia Graves. Despite the title, she'll be helping me with both booking and promotional chores. The TROUBLE WITH LARRY has undergone a personnel change. Bassist Kathy Jones left the band in an amicable split at the end of 1993, but sadness became joy when Steve Vogt jumped in and hit a homer his first at bat. Wait 'till you catch him live or on future releases! Speaking of releases, Larry's latest 7" is out at last, "Cult Heroes"/"Is This What U Want?" Special thanks to KOOP, KDIC, WJSC, and KSSU for early chart action. The first pressing has sold out, so additional vinyl copies won't be available for a couple of months. Cassette copies are available, so just write or call. Be sure to catch Larry June 2 at CBGB's, June 3 at The Rat (Boston), June 17 at The Somber Reptile (Atlanta) and June 29 at Local 506 (Chapel Hill). If you're interested in having TTWL defile your town, favorite club, or campus, give Sylvia or myself a call at the above number, day or night. Take care and keep on rocking! Go Braves!

Chris Baldwin, National Radio Promotion/Asst. Sales, Break Thru Production Inc., San Francisco, CA (415) 626-7611

Just when you thought it was safe...I'm back! Now I do the radio thing and the retail marketing thing. (Great, now I sound like George Bush.) For May this means MAZZY STAR, LUCY'S FUR COAT, MEAT PUPPETS, INDIANS, PAUL WELLER, SARAH McLACHLAN, PAW and TEXAS! So much for the hype content of this. Right now I'm gathering together a herd of worthy radio projects—plus, I'll be releasing a single by the MASONS on my own label, Resonate Records. Hopefully it'll be out late in May or early June. And I finally got all my schtuff moved to my new apartment...and I think I need to get my records and CDs transferred to DAT. DATs don't take up as much room. Words of wisdom for the month—"Don't forget to poison the children!"

Chuck P. & John Perrone, Radio, Caroline Records, New York, NY (212) 989-2929

"Can you dig it? I knew that you could!" Ahhh, Saturday Night Fever, one of the best comedy movies ever made. Anyway, we got records and we got tours, so here we go...First off, PEACH is out on the road supporting their debut, Siesta. They'll be heading through Texas, Florida and the rest of the South this month. Give us a call for tix or interviews. This record kicks! Check out "Dead Soldier's Coat" and "Lord Of Less." Remember, you got a former member of the Poises in the band...Also, FUDGE has their second one out now, Southside Speedway. What a tour they are on! First they went out with the BUZZ-COCKS and now a great triple bill with Vanilla Trainwreck and Five-Eight. They will also be down south playin' all over the place. Check out "Shirts & Skins" and "Car Stereo Blast-Off."...Hey kids! Wake up! ADRIAN BELEW'S Here is a great record, done by a great musician. If you're not familiar with Adrian, you can check out some of his guitar work on the new Crash Test Dummies and Nine Inch Nails records. He will be on a national tour in June and July...Some of you should just be receiving the SEEFEL Quique record (Quique is Welsh for 'shit'). It is a cross between My Bloody Valentine and the Cocteau Twins. Check out "Plainsong." For all you RPM reporters, there will be an Aphex Twin remix of "Time To Find Me" in June...All RPM reporters should have the TRANSFORMER 2 Transfor-mations by now.

Pete Rosenblum, EastWest Records America, New York, NY (212) 275-2860

The DAMBUILDERS have finally arrived and if you haven't checked out their EastWest debut, Encendedor, you're really missing out. Spin magazine calls them "the best indie rock band in America that doesn't sound like Pavement or Dinosaur Jr." WHALE continues to do flips in the alternative arena, despite only releasing a single. If you can say "Hobo Humpin' Slobobabe" really fast 10 times, call me for a T-shirt. On the road: the DENTISTS (with Shonen Knife): 5/16 Boulder, 5/18 San Diego, 5/19 Phoenix and 5/20 L.A. BRAND NEW HEAVIES: 5/17 L.A. and 5/18 San Francisco. PANTERA is out with Sepultura and Biohazard starting June 14 in Boston. BUFFALO TOM is doing some dates June 6 through 28 (West/Midwest). Coming soon: new one from OPUS III, entitled Guru Mother and FOR LOVE NOT LISA "Slip Slide Melting," from The Crow soundtrack.

Jill Richmond/Susan Darnell, Bar/None Records, Hoboken, NJ (201) 795-9424

The WALLMEN have the most shredding fucking album out there and we're looking at some of your playlists, filled with safe folk-oriented rock and getting sick! The Wallmen play punk pop that punishes. Come on you big wimps! Before we puke, put something on that rocks! Not Too Long Time Sound should be ruling the airwaves. Check out "She is Not My Friend" and "Rubber Monkey." Watch out for profanity on "Magic Toyshop." Be afraid—be very afraid...If you don't have a copy of TINDERSTICKS let us know. If you only got our semi-cheesy promo version in a cardboard sleeve, add the album and we'll send you the real deal...Melody Maker hailed The First Tindersticks Album "The album of the year"—and it certainly is. The band will begin their first American tour this June. This cruel and lovely record is a work of wickedly beautiful art...In Ireland, TOUCH OF OLIVER means a kick up the behind. Their first release is fraught with rollicking selections. May we suggest "Candy Bottle Green," "Why" and "Carousel" featuring Delores O'Riordan of the cranberries. Hey man, give these four Limerick lads a try.

Andrew Goldstone, ERG, New York, NY (212) 492-1274

First off, let me just congratulate WVBC for being "indie." As their motto clearly states "the indie, the better," and wouldn't you know there are at least five indie bands on their playlist, and they should be receiving their platinum records from King's X and Enigma soon as thanks for their Top 35 airplay. You guys are doing a great job! Anyway, SUPERSTAR are taking the whole shit over in the Nine Quad, Scottish style. Some freak named Alex Chilton is on the record, along with some dope-smokin' loser, Matthew Sweet. The lead singer, Joe McAlinton, was on the last two Fanclub records, that's Teenage if your nasty. You might have heard of BLUR, a small band out of London. Well, they're back and schizophrenic. If you like The Jam, Small Faces, Oil, New Wave, the Kinks, Sex Pistols or any other music to come out of England in the past 20 years, this Blur's for you. While we're rolling, sit your ass down, because punk rock has no fury like BUTT TRUMPET, and they're ours. So do us a favor and don't front.

Rich Wall, Radio Promotion, Righteous Babe Records, Buffalo, NY (716) 885-5200

ANI DiFRANCO's new release, Out Of Range, should have arrived at your stations by now. Please take a listen, and for the people that need focus tracks, they are "Letter To A John," "Out Of Range" (electric) and "The Diner." This is Ani's sixth release on her very own Righteous Babe Records independent label. This one features the addition of electric guitars and percussion added to Ani's already rockin' acoustic sound. She is currently on tour on the West Coast along with percussionist Andy Stochansky, so please call me with any guest list requests because we want you to see her.

Kirk Drabing, Caustic Fish Records, Denver, CO (303) 825-8230

COLD CRANK's debut release, Saccharine, is out and may even be sitting on your desk if Eric managed to stay off his girlfriend long enough to mail them out. Thirteen songs make up this punk release. Listen to track #2, "Saccharine," to get an earful of Cold Crank's sound. For those of you that want the harder edge and still want to comply with the FCC, check out "Raw Rat Burger," "Grudge" and "Planet Hahn." For those of you that don't give a shit about our good friends the federalis, try "Cool War," "Stick Song," "Got" and "Maybe." I won't promise you an ear-gasm or transcendence into another world (consult your local dealer for that), but give it a listen anyway. Cold Crank will be touring out west beginning in July. Two other bands also have the Caustic Fish label tattooed on their asses, GOD RIFLE and SYMPATHY F. Their debut releases from last year are probably either collecting dust in your office or are sitting in the used CD bin at your local record store. Dig 'em up or buy 'em back, 'cuz these two will be touring the west this summer.

Kerry Murphy, Lady Of Universal Appreciation, Slash Records, Los Angeles, CA (213) 937-4660

Shout outs to Florence Henderson for making Crisco a crucial food group. Shout outs to whomever discovered the therapeutic effects of beer. Shout outs to Lyn Collins. Shout outs to Colonel Sanders. Shout outs to Barney for making murder justifiable. Shout outs to those keeping the Mad Libs torch lit. Shout outs to lawn bawling and bocce. Shout outs to Mary Kay ladies in their big pink cars. Shout outs to the Tupperware nation for having the best, most raucous parties. Shout outs to Crystal Gravy. Shout outs to the Wonder Bread population for making Cops the brilliant show it is. Shout outs to Jello mold. Shout outs to Betty Chou. Shout outs to big hair cheese rock. Shout outs to Mr. Clean for emulating Henry Rollins. Shout outs to pet rocks. Shout outs to dehydrated snow globes.

Michelle Anderson, Publicity-type Person, Bizarre/Planet Records, San Francisco, CA (415) 292-3677

I got a lot of calls after my diatribe on industrial music a while back. Feel free to call me if you'd like to hear another diatribe on sexism in industrial music. I think I'll start a whole series. There's some new stuff out that if you haven't already heard of, you soon will. You must hear the RUG-BURNS, who have become a famously disreputable live band and will soon be leaving their San Diego home to be acoustic anarchists abroad. In the works is a tour of pubs, clubs, Improvs and anywhere else that will have them and give them beer. Also a 7-11 parking lot tour. I told them that junior high schools would probably be a better idea, because those young kids are so darn impressionable and make for rabid groupies, but they are insisting that 7-11 is now the place to play. Also out now are new records by former Beat Farmer BUDDY BLUE, England's BLIND MR. JONES, bluesman EARL THOMAS and the legendary SCREAMIN' JAY HAWKINS.

Lulu Cohen, The Collectors Pipeline, Hicksville, NY (516) 935-4018

R.E.M. to RuPaul. James Brown to the Rolling Stones. The UPTOWN HORNS have played with everyone. Check out their CD featuring Albert Collins, Peter Wolf and Keith Richards, Bernard Fowler and more. Bluesy, ballsy, brilliance! The last cut (#10), "Odds Are Good That The Goods Are Odd," sounds like a heavier, harder Robert Cray. The Albert Collins tracks are some of his last known recordings before his death. The fifth tune, "Trust Me," from Keith Richards and Peter Wolf, is kicking Keith lickage. Check it out. Talk to ya soon!

Adam J. Pollock, Polygram Label Group, New York, NY (212) 603-3942

So we all went to see the great PAUL WELLER at Town Hall over the weekend, such a great show, killer songs, beautiful musicianship, makes up for all those times you stand in the back of Irving Plaza or The Academy or CB's getting drunk and wishing the band on the stage had stuck with their day jobs. So you all better bloody well start paying attention to this record (Wild Wood)—you can't live on Live and Hole and Pavement alone. Call me for a copy. STAKKA BO, that wacky alterna-dance group from Sweden (it's not all Fjords and porno movies you know), zooming up the modern rock charts with the catchiest tune, "Here We Go," since Cheap Trick made good records. And then there's PULP and FRETBLANKET and JAH WOBBLE all with new recordings hitting retail in June. Go see WOOL (they're on tour too ya know—elpee in August).

Brendan P. Coyne, Choke Inc., Chicago, IL (312) 226-9477

MILKMINE with their new double bass guitars, and MORSEL with their buzz saw and flute treated vocals are somewhere around your person. If you don't have a copy and would like to play one, call or shut-up. CRAW is recording again in June, the songs are good, we like them. Play our stinkin' records...Hey, you retailers who happen to be reading this, we have recently hooked up with Southern Records in the states (ours) for distribution...so do what retail people do.

Billy Pruitt, Promotions And Retail, Monkey Hill Records, New Orleans, LA (504) 944-4776

Whoa!...The 25th Annual Jazz and Heritage Festival is over and it's time to dry out and sell some records. Monkey Hill's roster was well represented, and if audience participation was any indication, very well perceived. The BLUERUNNERS, in support of their new release The Chateau Chuck, had the 5000 fest fans dancing wildly to the hottest set of rockin'-zydeco to be found. The CONTINENTAL DRIFTERS headlined Saturday's show in a wash of Louisiana sunshine, but from the opening note of the timely "Rain" no one was leaving. And last but not least COWBOY MOUTH's antics left the 10,000 frenzied festival sharks begging for more. And there is more, look for the Mouth in the upcoming Stephen Soderburgh movie The Underneath. Thanks to all of you who have been playing our records and may the Voodoo Gods of the Crescent City get those of you who aren't. See ya!

Mike Kondo, Ichiban Records, Atlanta, GA (800) 966-4244 ext. 3020

Well I managed to survive another visit from the parental units to Atlanta. The only problem when the family visits is that they want to stay so active the whole time down here that I'm running out of things for them to do. Thank God they won't be back for another year. For those people who still don't know, we are distributing Monkey Hill Records out of New Orleans. You should already have the BLUERUNNERS and MUSTANG LIGHTNING on your station now and you should be receiving shortly the CDs from the SHINES out of Jackson, MS, and PAUL SANCHEZ from the band Cowboy Mouth. So keep a watchful eye out. Also FIVE-EIGHT are now finished with their dates with Cracker and will be touring with Vanilla Trainwreck shortly. They will be doing a string of southeast dates, so for interviews give me a call. For those people leaving for the summer have a great one and will catch you next fall.

Tramp, Brave New Radio, Los Angeles, CA (213) 962-8738

Greetings and salutations from the city of lost angels...I made the switch from college radio and into the realm of Brave New Radio. If you haven't already heard, Brave New Radio is a one-hour-long, nationally syndicated radio show produced weekly and given to radio stations at no cost. Each week features four segments with the first three featuring signed bands, the last an unsigned band on compact disc. Brave New Radio offers you the chance to give your listeners something they can't get anywhere else with the bands performing in the studio for music featured on the shows. Brave New Radio has no advertising so the non-commercial stations will not be in conflict with the FCC in broadcasting BNR. Sounds too good to be true? Try me...call 213-926-8738 and ask for Tramp to give ya the straight poop on Brave New Radio. Much thanks for early support from the following stations... KMSA, KCHU, KFSR, WCBE, WWSU, WCWP, WHSR, WHCL, WRNV, WMSS, WNTE, KVTI, WWNW, WBEB, KCSF, WVJC, WFPR. Catch ya on the next chat.

Me And Holly Hatcher, Music Directors, WGMU, Beautiful Fairfax, VA (703) 993-2935

Holly digs the bands with the chicks on the mic

"Strong musical statement influenced by blues and gospel, and powered by Paul K's dark and brooding image"

—Don Yates, KCMU, Seattle, WA.

"The pain in his voice could make a hard man cry"

—Melody Maker(UK)

"His voice is evenhanded but robust, in a manner that recalls Jim Carrol or Ian Hunter, while his guitar evokes the jagged majesty of Neil Young and Tom Verlaine" —Chicago Tribune

TORI AMOS, MADDER ROSE, FRENTEI, WHALE, VELOCITY GIRL), the king goes for the U.K. groups (CHARLATANS, INSPIRAL CARPETS, DENTISTS, BLUR, STONE ROSES (whenever)), country not accepted by either. The semester ends but not the calls, so Holly gets zany with messages that you people are given to hear. Highly anticipated is the new BEASTIE BOYS—okay, so there is no girly singer but Holly is not a radical feminist. In fact, she absolutely loves the B. Boys and just might wet her pants when Ill Communication arrives. Chris digs the DAMBUILDERS, go figure, if you know what I mean. Yep, we're on during the summer—new antenna and all (more specifics later—chuckin' the carrier current). POP WILL EAT ITSELF—the backflips are in progress for the coolest band in the world. Holly has yet to catch on to this, for me, the heavy stuff that Holly craves will always be a mystery. However, she questions my techno/industrial infatuation. Tough! But we make a swell team, satisfying the needs and desires of others, and we hope for all the best to all stations over the summer break, not excluding all labels, indies included. See ya next time, unless you see us first.

Pete Burness, KUPS, Tacoma, WA (206) 756-3144

Radio snot turned radio slime. My term at radio KUPS is now up and I am soon off to San Francisco to accept a lucrative offer to work for Virus Promotions. Company car, membership to the Olympic Club, expense account, the whole sha-bang. Despite the many administrative and transmitter problems at KUPS we can at least say that we played some great music: SILKWORM, EVERCLEAR, SAGE, BUILT TO SPILL, FUGAZI, PEGBOY, LAGWAGON, ENGINE

KID, CRACKERBASH, CODEINE, JOHN SPENCER B.E. No word yet who will take my place. Thanks to the following radio people who made my job a little bit more enjoyable: Stephanie and Lisa at Vision Trust, Dave and Leland at PGD, Dave at the Want Ads, Margo at Sonic Bubblegum, Maureen at AAM, Sep at Lipp Service, Anne at Break Thru, Maridi at EastWest, Seana at Gavin, Jonathan at Virus and all at C/Z. Others who weren't complete pains in the butt: Rich at 4AD, Jeff at Interscope, Will at Thirsty Ear, Frank at Roadrunner, Jay at Reprise, Rachel Crick (ex of Sony), Linda and that new guy at Macola, Scott at A&M, Todd at American, and Loring at EMI. If I left you out of this esteemed list, don't fret. I just really don't like you but my opinion doesn't matter much anyway. Thanks all for a cool year.

Eitaro Hayashi, Music Director, KTUH, Honolulu, HI (808) 956-4848

Yo, a movie trivia for y'all. "They offered me a hundred grand, but you wanna know something? When I found out that I could get my hands on you, I said I'd do it for nothing!" Man, come on you action film junkies! No, it ain't anything Van Damme or Seagal! Need more? Light, from a different scene... "Your piss ant soldiers make me laugh. If Matrix was here, he'd laugh too!" If you are one of the sorry asses that has no clue, call me pronto. Oh, by the way, look for Hawaii's newest superaction hero the DANCING FOOL, who's rumored to cut a debut CD soon. Aloha you mainlanders.

Jonathan Levitt, International Music Director, Radio Shanghai, Madison, WI (608) 255-1011

Ain't it funny how CMJ charges an arm and a leg, and then doesn't keep their promise to print your Dialogue every other issue. Yes, I am with an international radio station. Yes, CMJ will not let my station report due to its non-U.S. status. Finally, it costs a buttload to fax a Dialogue and it sucks when you do it and then get the confirmation that it made it to its destination, and then you finally wait the two weeks until publication, the CMJ arrives, you open it, and bam! No Dialogue. The reason I write a Dialogue is so record companies can be in the know as to what Radio Shanghai does, and what music it plays, to send this info to each individual company would be too much for one person, namely myself, to do. But hey, I guess they would rather print label slobber and M.D. schmooze fest than help out the Chinese. New stuff just sent over: SWELL, SONIC YOUTH, all FUGAZI albums, DAMBUILDERS, COME, V.T.W., BLACK SUN ENSEMBLE, BARK PSYCHOSIS (the best thing since VERVE), APHEX TWIN, TINDERSTICKS (U.S.S.R.), plus other stuff, call me for complete list. My address is 1430 Williamson St. #1, Madison, WI 53703...A kick-ass local band is FEZ PETTING ZOO...Someone at Sony and Capitol call me...All genres accepted. Chuck Slomovitz, break up but don't break out! Call me for limited-edition Mao Dong face watches courtesy of Radio Shanghai!

[As stated in the Dialogue rules on the heading for the section, "subscribers are welcome to submit comments." Due to space limitations, we have never promised to print every Dialogue we receive. We apologize for any inconvenience. Dialogue deadlines are printed each week on page 6.—Ed.]

TWIN TOWERS TOURING BOUGHT OUT BY I.C.M.

Independent booking agency Twin Towers Touring, which handles artists such as Lemonheads, Sonic Youth, Dinosaur Jr., Liz Phair, Juliana Hatfield and Yo La Tengo, has been bought out by International Creative Management. Twin Towers will undergo no structural changes, remaining at the same location and continuing to work the same artists.

MTV SEARCHES FOR UNSIGNED BANDS

MTV and the National Association Of Music Merchants (NAMM) are sponsoring the "MTV Beach House Band Search," which is accepting video tapes of original songs by local bands. Prizes will be awarded in various categories based on the group's video performances of its original, unpublished songs. The grand prize winner will receive a trip to New York to perform as MTV's Beach House Band for the week. In addition, the band will be awarded $10,000 cash and each band member will receive a new instrument plus other MTV prizes. Entries must be received between July 1-25, 1994. Forms can be obtained from local music stores or by writing to The MTV Beach House Band Contest, c/o MTV, 1515 Broadway, Room 2326, New York, NY 10036.
