Iris DeMent

When Iris DeMent's first record, Infamous Angel, was released on Philo Records in 1992, it took a lot of people by surprise. Very few of today's singer/songwriters make such affecting, homespun music. DeMent seems to wrench every ounce of emotion from her heart with simple, yet precise lyrics, a quavering, alluring voice and spare, acoustic accompaniment. You might not expect this type of down-to-earth music to garner so much attention in these high-tech days of cyberspace and supersonic air travel, when grunge, hardcore rap and techno are the music for the masses. Even so, the buzz on DeMent grew with each stunning live performance to the point that Warner Bros. signed her and, in an unusual move, bought the record outright from Rounder, Philo's parent company, re-releasing it with wider distribution and another round of publicity.

According to DeMent, the biggest change she's noticed between the response to her first record and her latest, My Life, is that "with a few exceptions, it took a few months before people started to take notice of me with Infamous Angel." Now she's on tour headlining small theaters, while press and radio have taken an immediate interest. "There's been much less of a time delay," she admits. All that recognition hasn't done much for her self confidence though. She confesses, "I guess, I'm just basically insecure. I mean I'm happy with the record. I don't know why it is, but even when people tell me something's good, it just doesn't sink into me. Maybe that's a good thing in the long run."

My Life is an intense, melancholy portrait of love and childhood centered around the trauma experienced with the death of her father, Patric, not long after the release of Infamous Angel. "When I sat down to make this record, I didn't intentionally have any of it revolve around the death of my father. When my dad died, I told myself, on my next record I wanted to write something about him. But I never intended for it to be that long," DeMent explains, referring to the short story contained in the liner notes. "I was thinking of a paragraph or two. But somehow when I sat down and looked at the songs that I had, there was a certain feeling that seemed to tie them all together in some way. His death seemed to be a theme that tied all the songs together."

The conversation turns towards songwriting and the liberating nature of listening to and performing such deep, dark music. "Even though I have at times written songs that were lighter and more humorous," she explains, "for some reason, during the past few years, those kinds of songs haven't been coming that naturally to me. When I try to write songs like that I feel like I'm forcing it, so I just gave up. In general, I sit down to write when I'm feeling bad. It's a way for me to work something out. If I'm feeling good, I want to be out having a good time. In the end, I don't think of my songs as depressing, because they help me in some way. There's usually some element of hope in them, even though they may seem really down. At least there is for me, because I feel better after I finish singing them."

DeMent's work ethic and her feelings about music seem to be backed up by one song in particular from My Life, "Sweet Is The Melody":

*"Sweet is the melody, so hard to come by
It's so hard to make every note bend just right
You lay down the hours and leave not a trace
But a tune for the dancing is there in its place"*

BEASTIE BOYS III Communication (Grand Royal, c/o Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028)—

Imagine if somebody had told you when Licensed To Ill came out that eight years later the Berlin Wall would be down, Nelson Mandela would be president of South Africa, and the Beastie Boys would release a mature, spiritual and brilliant album. The world is strange. The Beasties are masters of music that emphasizes extremity and camaraderie. Punk, hip-hop, soul-funk: To them it's All-One like a bottle of Dr. Bronner's. What sounds like a break at the end of the hip-hop "Sure Shot" turns into the hardcore quickie "Tough

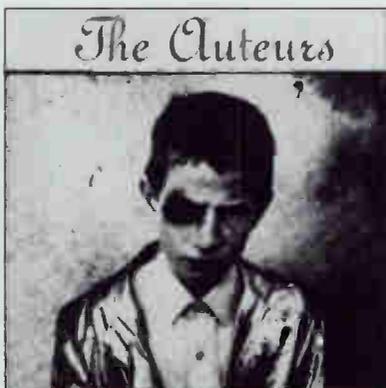

Guy" without missing a beat; "Sabotage" fuses punked-out guitars and yells with an old-school rap framework, and somehow manages to avoid sounding like rap-metal. As with Check Your Head, there's a balance between live playing and sampling, including some mighty instrumentals (who says a rap band can't play funk-rock?), and the lyrical name-drops are as double-take-worthy as ever (Vaughn Bode? Huggy Bear?!). The big move forward this time is into spiritualism, which the Beasties embrace with characteristic toughness and smirk. The chanting monks on the instrumental "Shambala" are performing a meaningful and haunting ritual, and they sound dope too. And MC Adam Yauch pulls off the Buddhist-themed "Bodhisattva Vow" on the strength of just about his hardest flow ever. Still III: "Root Down," "Get It Together" and the amazing violin-graced instrumental "Eugene's Lament."

AUTEURS Now I'm A Cowboy (Hut U.S.A., c/o Vernon Yard, 1790 Broadway, 21st Fl., New York, NY 10019)—

The decidedly British sounding Auteurs and their self-conscious debut album New Wave arrived last year on the coattails of massive British press attention to the "glam revival" led by Suede. Surprisingly, the Auteurs managed the nearly impossible feat of surpassing immensely pompous style with substance in the form of Luke Haines' poetically scripted, crisply designed guitar pop. Haines' songs obsess on the glitz and glamour of fame, wealth and film stars, as well as the emptiness they leave in their wake, and his voice, always on the edge of a strained collapse, captures this emotion. Like New Wave, Now I'm A Cowboy reacts to the strictures of British class divisions and snarls with vague glam-rock undercurrents, but America has become a new obsession: "Chinese Laundry" is set in New York City and "Underground Movies" in Baltimore, while the cowboy mystique of Hollywood turns up throughout the album. Warm cello strokes, occasional horns and percussion flourishes round out the Auteurs' crisp sound, calling attention to their ear for detail. Try those above, plus the taut, two-minute "Lenny Valentino," which fuses Lenny Bruce and Rudolf Valentino and scripts this new icon's funeral, "New French Girlfriend" and "Modern History."

MC SOLAAR Prose Combat (Cohiba, c/o Island, 400 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10003/310-276-4500)—

Since much of the hip-hop in the U.S. is mired in assorted controversies and constant battles with right-wing marksmen trying to weaken rap's influence, what better place to seek refuge than Paris. Once a well-kept secret, MC Solaar's second (first domestic) album, Prose Combat, is a courageous venture, paralleling the prose-mastery of rappers like Big Daddy Kane, Rakim and C.L. Smooth, while DJ Jimmy Jay's assemblage of savvy beats and mellifluous jazz samples is constructed with studious care. Once translated, Solaar's lyrics reveal his poetic flair and headstrong sentiments, as they examine, but never abandon, his own personal convictions. Passionately delivered, Solaar's observations contain a full plate of emotions, related with a swiftness and eloquence that have made him a favorite of Gang Starr's Guru, and a potency separating him from the narcissism of many American gangstas.

The first single "Nouveau Western" searingly compares American culture with old westerns, while "Dieu Ait Son Ame" is a sentimental eulogy for a dead friend, demonstrating that rappers, no matter what language they speak, share a common thread in their use of the art of hip-hop to celebrate, investigate and illustrate the world around them. Also translate: "A Dix De Mes Disciples," "L'NMIACCD'HTCK-72KDPD," "Obsolete" and "Superstarr."

FUTURE SOUND OF LONDON Lifeform (Astralwerks, c/o Caroline, 114 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001/212-989-2929)—

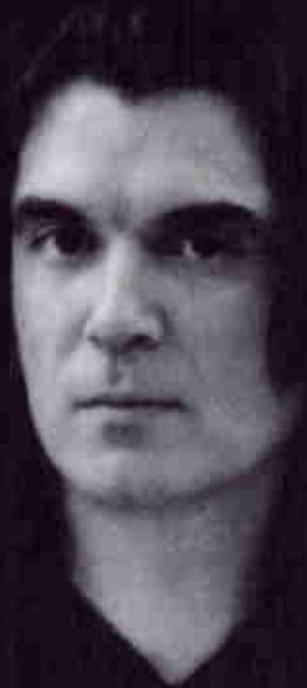

Future Sound Of London is the brainchild of Gary Cobain and Brian Dougans, two tech-heads exploring the cusp between two centuries. The two have been experimenting with ambient and electronic music for years, and last year came to light stateside on Astralwerks' Excursions In Ambience Vol. 1, and on a CD released by their alter-ego, Amorphous Androgenous. So what, exactly, is the Future Sound Of London going to be? It sounds like sound, all kinds of sound, taken apart digitally and reconstructed into new forms. It's the metaphorical sigh of conventional music falling into a slumber from which it may never awaken. The group has long been coupling its work with computer graphics, and while the results are pretty typical so far (blobs of moving color, gyrating tentacles, scenes resembling the final sequence of 2001), the potential for synchronizing the two to create new forms of expression is very real indeed. This bold multimedia approach—the band plans to perform concerts live via a Digital Audio Transceiver later this year—is exactly what makes FSL more than just the ambient scenesters of the moment, the Tangerine Dream of the '90s. Even though this movement may still be in its infancy, the future is nonetheless headed our way fast, and that Future Sound Of London is at the very edge of the wave makes being a Lifeform so exciting.

MOONSHAKE Big Good Angel (EP) (Too Pure, c/o Matador, 676 Broadway, 4th Fl., New York, NY 10012/212-995-5882)

The final recording from the original lineup of Moonshake is also its best, six songs alternating between songwriters Dave Callahan (who's continuing with the Moonshake name) and Margaret Fiedler (now of Laika). Fiedler's songs are creepy, sexy toys de force, unselfconsciously startling, especially the hurtling "Two Trains" and the whispered incantation "Girly Loop" ("She knows what God gave her eyelashes for"); Callahan's songs are just plain creepy, if more narratively based, with his corrosively vicious vocals, unsettling bursts of atonal keyboard noise and what sounds like a steel drum (on "Seance"). Moonshake's hallmark bass sound is deeper, dubbier and more disorienting here than ever before, and the rhythms are more dance-based and free-floating—"Flow" and "Two Trains" both dive headlong into strange-metered percussive bridges, then resurface effortlessly. New records by Callahan and Fiedler's bands will be out soon; if they blend clattering alien horror and deep-planted earthiness as well as this, we'll be lucky.

BEACON HILLBILLIES More Songs Of Love And Murder (ESD, 530 N. Third St., Minneapolis, MN 55401/612-375-0233)

Bluegrass from Beantown?! Can the sound of the "T" and the drunken howls of obnoxious Celts fans really provide the some inspiration as the lonesome whistle of the Pan American on a quiet country night and Mother singing "Farther Along" on the front porch? Actually, while listening to the Beacon Hillbillies' second LP More Songs Of Love And Murder, boring questions of authenticity quickly become irrelevant. Like Austin's Bad Livers, the Beacon Hillbillies are not concerned with transporting the listener back 45 years in time; instead, they play reverent bluegrass-based music that avoids the trappings of staunch-by-the-numbers traditionalism and the one-dimensional genuflection that plagues so much of today's "American roots music." For the best example of their twisted vision, check out "Dustbowl Shuffle." With an odd, classical-sounding minor key guitar/mandolin intro, a busy jazzy baseline, and a series of solos on guitar, dobro, mandolin and fiddle (including a quote from "Turkey In The Straw") and an unusually intricate arrangement, the overall effect is absolutely dizzying. Also check out the lovely Gram Parsons-esque country-rock of "Water, Water" and, for a little bit of both love and murder, the traditional "Omie Wise."

TRONZO TRIO Roots (Knitting Factory Works, 47 E. Houston St., New York, NY 10012/212-219-3006)

Although Tronzo "Trio" is a clever alliterative name for this group, it's more or less a solo spotlight for frontman Dave Tronzo. His virtuosic slide guitar and dobro have previously been heard in a variety of settings: with the Lounge Lizards, John Hiatt, and the guitar/tuba/trumpet avant trio Spanish Fly. On Roots, his wonderful debut as a leader, he covers a lot of ground as well. The album opens with a fuzzed-out, but sweet rendition of the Irma Thomas ballad "Ruler Of My Heart," and there's a twangy, bewitching take on the jazz classic "Monk's Dream." Duke Ellington's "Rockin' In Rhythm" is interpreted on overdubbed stereo guitars, which Tronzo twists and bends as if they're reflected off of wacky funhouse mirrors (no studio trickery involved). He plays very respectable acoustic blues on the sad and lonely "Precious Time" and the tribute "Son House," and does his meatiest electric playing on "Blues For Me." Amidst the diversity of styles (there's also a bit of African talking drums on two tracks), Tronzo occasionally moves through several genres within the confines of one tune. "#13" effortlessly shifts from kora-like plucks to bluesy licks to maniacal, skittering atonal lines. "Yo Hey" runs from meandering blues to a '60s surf beat to funk-rock, never sounding abrupt. Whatever style he's playing, Tronzo makes it his own, never compromising his personality for the sake of diversity.

family life is falling apart, and sometimes the truth isn't what you were expecting. Frontman Lauren Boquette expresses his disappointments and anger so intensely that you feel pissed-off; "When things hurt, upset us, when it's something you really don't want to deal with—I assign those emotions to songs, let the song keep that emotion for me," he explains. ALLOY ORCHESTRA New Music For Silent Films (Accurate, P.O. Box 390115, Cambridge, MA 02141/617-628-0603)—Technically just a trio, with just one synthesizer and two percussionists (both also in the rock-based Concussion Ensemble), the Alloy Orchestra manages to paint with a large palette of sounds, working almost exclusively in the medium of silent film accompaniment. Its dramatic soundtrack to Fritz Lang's 1926 futuristic classic Metropolis is not only a vast improvement over the horrible Giorgio Moroder/Adam Ant/Pat Benatar score for the 1984 theater re-release, it's captivating music on its own, minus the visuals. Caleb Sampson's synthesizers don't suffer from the usual flat, two-dimensional sound of electronically replicated strings and horns. This is partially attributable to the rarely-resting percussionists; it's sometimes difficult to tell what's percussion and what's synth. In "Life On Mars" (for the 1924 Soviet film, Aelita, Queen Of Mars), a poppourri of strange extraterrestrial squeaking and belching sounds humorously accompanies the Martian proletariat of this odd sci-fi/communist propaganda film. The album covers wide musical territory: marches ("Metropolis" and "Burundi"), repetitive minimalism ("Aelita"), ragtime waltz/tango ("Cabaret Medley"), odd-meters ("Deep Water"), frenzied drumming ("Baptism Of Fire") and lots of weird atmospheric selections. A number of other adventurous musicians/composers are exploring silent film accompaniment (Gary Lucas, Club Foot Orchestra, Bobby Previte, Bill Frisell); let's hope more of it makes its way to disc.

'68 COMEBACK Mr. Downchild (Sympathy

For The Record Industry, 4901 Virginia Ave., Long Beach, CA 90805/310-423-0281—Monsieur Jeffrey Evans migrated from Ohio down to Memphis, and since the split of the Gibson Bros. has been working with '68 Comeback and its ever changing line-up (this time Peggy O'Neill has been replaced with Ross Johnson). Perhaps it's in the Memphis water, but a strong sense of traditional music seems to come naturally to those in the region—no one has to put the blues in rock 'n' roll, it just happens that way. Not that the effort is entirely subconscious with Evans; after all, he does place all of the Comeback's originals between songs written by Bo Diddley and Charlie Feathers. But happily, '68 Comeback appears genuine and forthright with its solid songwriting and not dependent on a presentation riddled with gimmickry—there are no tricks from the Monsieur and friends. After scads of singles, the band finally presents its premiere full-length, Mr. Downchild, which lives up both to expectation and tradition. Comeback to: "Richman, Richman," "Mr. Downchild" and "The String That You Wear."

above)—Since Compulsion first stepped off the plane from its English homeland, the band has caused nothing but trouble. Promo posters depicting a wet cat tied to a boulder have raised a ruckus among animal rights groups, and live shows have turned into drunken bouts of abuse. With a bassist named Sid, a pantry of peroxide and a wardrobe of '70s punk garb, Compulsion seems intent on rekindling the hedonistic spirit of the Sex Pistols. But while the Pistols had only cursory control over their sonic maelstroms, the members of Compulsion are both clever songwriters and tight musicians.

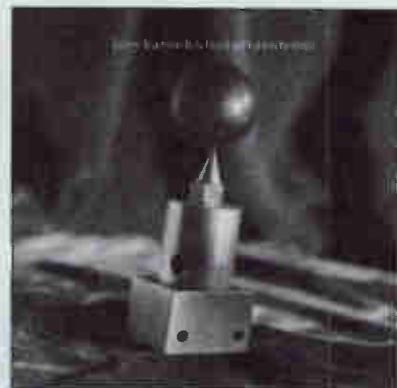

Comforter, the band's full-length debut following the Boogie Woogie EP, is a brash foray into punchy guitar rock that harnesses the attitude and arrogance of the Pistols with the more commercial trappings of The Clash or The Jam. "Rapejacket" features clawing guitars and a contagious refrain, and "Basketcase" quickly builds to a climactic roar of double-time drumming. But Compulsion doesn't limit itself to punk rock; "I Am John's Brain" is a slow, grooving track featuring harmonized vocals and an ego-less vocal melody, "Dick, Dale, Rick And Ricky" is a '90s surf-pop instrumental and "Domestique" sounds like an illicit affair between Pixies and Nirvana. —Jon Wiederhorn

PALM FABRIC ORCHESTRA Vague Gropings In The Slip Stream (Carrot Top, 3716 N. Greenview, Chicago, IL 60613)—For those who find ambient electronic music too "cold," Palm Fabric Orchestra's organic presence may be just the right comforter. Originally intended as a new instrumental Poi Dog Pondering album by frontman Frank Orrall, Vague Gropings found its own shape over a three-year period as Orrall brought in new players and ideas. Like Poi Dog's more whimsical folk-rock moments, Vague Groping strikes an enchanting balance between a variety of musical scopes and textures while retaining the inherent spirituality and warmth of the cultural traditions from which it borrows. These expert musicians allow their instruments—including piano, cello, clarinet, horn, mandolin, drum kit and wordless voice—to fill each song with a variety of distinct moods, through gentle acoustic rhythms, playful Hawaiian guitar or bright touches of brass. None of the eight pieces were actively orchestrated or composed, but together weave their own richly hued tapestry. —Colin Helms

JOEY BARON Raised Pleasure Dot (New World, 701 Seventh Ave., New York, NY 10036/212-302-0460)—Drummer Joey Baron is known mostly for his role in Bill Frisell's trio, where he is not so much a timekeeper as he is a shrewd dismantler of rhythms, splashing, whacking and scraping about Frisell's elusive melodies. With Raised Pleasure Dot, Baron is more in the swing of things as he supplies a framework for the two other musicians, saxophonist Ellery Eskelin and trombonist Steve Swell. Not that Baron's playing is laid back in the least, but Raised Pleasure Dot seems to be more a record about plumbing than drumming. Eskelin (who has also played with drummer Paul Motian) has a powerful tone on his tenor; he wrenches squawking, full-bodied lines from his sax that would sound erratic or just plain awful if it weren't for their obvious precision and clever phrasing. Despite the obvious limitations of the trombone as a lead instrument, Swell pushes the expectations of the horn aside, keeping up with Eskelin's honks, squawks, slides and pulses. Baron's best moment comes in the solo piece "Absolutely," which slowly draws the listener into Baron's melodies with sensitive skill rather than blinding technique. —Steve Ciabattani

BIG DRILL CAR No Worse For The Wear (Headhunter, c/o Cargo, 4901-906 Morena Blvd., San Diego, CA 92117-3432/619-483-9292)—With a name like Big Drill Car, you'd probably expect something heavy, loud and grinding...well, think again. No Worse For The Wear bubbles with airy rock-pop beats and head-bobbing rhythms. Crisp, dynamic vocals bounce off extremely catchy guitar licks inside an elastic shell of vibrant grooves. BDC's original singer and guitarist are still riding strong, but a new bass player and drummer have jumped aboard this time around. It's obvious from the music and the album artwork that these are four fun-loving, wacky guys with a wild sense of humor. Produced by Bill Stevenson and Stephen Egerton (of All fame), No Worse For The Wear encapsulates a great vibe and strong, powerful hooks. The band delivers each song with such a

PAPA BRITTLE Obey, Consume, Marry, Reproduce (Nettwerk, 1250 W. Sixth Ave., Vancouver, BC, V6H 1A5, Canada/604-654-2929)—Britain's Papa Brittle draws on more than one style and forcefully fuses them together, making the group's music as complex as the political and social issues it tackles. Obey, Consume, Marry, Reproduce is masterful in its musical ironies: hard rock, funk, techno and intense sampling make up this assaulting release, driving home the record's unhidden agenda. Listeners on this continent may not be moved by the scathing swipes at Prime Minister John Major in "Status Quo," but like the tirades of the band's American counterpart Consolidated, Papa Brittle's rants on greed, business and government are barbed enough to sink into any welcome consciousness. The album title alone (which echoes the Godfathers' Birth, School, Work, Death) makes an impact, reducing the path of the unexamined life to animalistic commands. Think for yourself, but take our word that these tracks are worth a listen: "Greed Is Good," "Heist Your Mind," "Unsafe," and "Enemy Of The Brotherhood."
—Steve Ciabattini

SKREW Dusted (Metal Blade, 2345 Erringer

Road, Simi Valley, CA 93065/805-522-9111)—Unlike many other industrial metal hybrids that confuse their electronic dabblings with muddled sonic overload, Skrew relies on its metal roots primarily to keep its sound as brutally precise as possible. Fronted by vocalist/guitarist Adam Grossman, this six-man Texan arsenal erects a three-guitar wall of grueling riffage and uses computerized effects to pepper its bleak wasteland of pain, betrayal and death. Voiced by Grossman's flesh-searing vocal treatments, these sufferings take on sinister personas further fueled by Dusted's religious overtones (speaking-in-tongues on "In Tongues," the sacrilegious suggestion of "Jesus Skrew Superstar" and "Skrew Saves"). Songs like "Picasso Trigger" and "Season For Whither" reduce Skrew's pound to pure guitar grind, meshing electronic blips and mechanical jolts as an afterthought, while more experimental elements reveal themselves near the end of the album. "Mouthful Of Dust" and "Godsdog" all but forgo the band's feral guitar assault with groove-laden drum programming, eerie keyboard surges and an uncharacteristic vocal presence haunting Grossman's fiendish lashings.

FRANKLIN KIERMYER QUARTET FEATURING PHAROAH SANDERS Solomon's Daughter (Evidence, 1100 E. Hector St., Ste. 392, Conshohocken, PA 19428/215-832-0844)—Among the hordes and hordes of young turks and old hands whose releases are crowding into every nook and cranny of the jazz bins these days, it's getting harder and harder to find the records made by the visionaries. The presence of guest saxophone titan Pharoah Sanders offers a clue as to the power of the music within—this is one spiritual affair, full of meditative space and transcendent peaks. On Solomon's Daughter, there's a moment, about six or seven minutes into the lead track "If I Die Before I Wake," where suddenly, everybody just lets go, the center unhinges, Kiermyer's drums push the music through wave after wave, and, zoom, it's off into the great beyond. Sound like fun? In fact, if one influence looms large over the proceedings, it would be the profound music of the late period of John Coltrane's classic quartet, where McCoy Tyner and Elvin Jones stretched out while Coltrane wailed on top. The connection is perhaps embodied best by the presence of one-time Coltrane alumni Sanders, who turns in a brilliant, mind-blowing performance. Drummer Franklin Kiermyer's been on the jazz scene in New York and Montreal for years, but he's never stepped up and recorded a proper domestic album until now, simply because he wanted it to be right; with Solomon's Daughter, he's not only achieved that aim, but landed himself in the land of jazz titans.

SEAL Seal (Sire, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—To listen to this, the second of Seal's eponymous Trevor Horn-produced albums, is once again to immerse yourself into warm tide pools of lush sound. Seal's remarkable voice—so much tone—has found a formidable partner in Horn's production, which imbues every moment of the record's soulful pop with sumptuous layers of sound. In this case, citing the record's producer is no rock critic's conceit; the production is so pronounced, the finely-crafted sound forms something of a duet with that magnificent voice. Still, it is the voice, more so than the songs, which tows the same lyrical lines as the earlier self-titled Seal, giving this record its flickering moments of transcendence. While continually referring to the exceptional quality of Seal's voice may seem overly repetitious, that is part of the point here: you really cannot overstate just how wonderful his singing is. The sound of the record is impressive and the songs are well above the usual pop music chorus clatter, but it is his vocal prowess that takes it all to a higher level, one that all music fans can easily appreciate.

JANITOR JOE "Lucky" (Amphetamine Reptile, 2645 First Ave. S., Minneapolis, MN 55408/612-874-7047)—Quite some time ago Amphetamine Reptile made a name for itself as peddlers of noise-rock, helping to popularize the genre; even today, the label continues to support some of the best guitar racket around. Janitor Joe stands out from these bands, which hide behind thick curtains of guitar, weighted down by bass and drums. It's the group's proficient delivery rather than its ingenuity that separates it from the rest. "Lucky," the band's second full-length, is ridden with intensive snarls and quirky rhythms, which sound glossed and polished in comparison to the roughness of its debut album, Big Metal Birds. The loss of bassist Kristen Pfaff (to Hole) did not prove damaging to the Minneapolis trio, which sounds nothing less than smooth on "Lucky". A lack of tired, pop-punk melodies is the key to Janitor Joe's engaging songwriting—the pieces may not be indelible, but they're far from predictable. Throw the die and win with: "Naked Ape," "Fragile X," "No Smokes For Wave" and "Flyblown."

JARON LANIER Instruments Of Change (Point Music, c/o PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Most know Jaron Lanier as "the father of virtual reality," his dreadlocked mane covering one of the chief brains at that interesting point on the cutting edge where science and computers end and the stuff of sci-fi prophecy begins. Well, not only is Lanier an author, thinker and music fan (we once spotted him at a Fluid gig on Manhattan's Lower East Side) but he's also an accomplished multi-instrumentalist and composer, and Instruments Of Change marks his first recordings released through Philip Glass' Point

Music label. The connection to Glass is understandable when you hear Lanier's music: both share many of the same geometric, mathematical qualities, and often tend to take a single theoretical idea and follow it through a variety of permutations. What may surprise many is that only one of Instruments Of Change's pieces uses computers; the rest are all-acoustic, organic performances played on a plethora of instruments, including piano, angklung, bowed psaltery and a curious piece of equipment known as a Hadgini drum. While the phrase "keep your day job" doesn't really apply—these days, people pretty much pay Lanier just to keep thinking about things—it is still surprising just how interesting parts of Instruments Of Change are when approached with an open mind. Try the two khaen/violin duets with violinist Barbera Higbie, "The Tired Heart" and "Come Along."

LLOYD COLE Bad Vibes (Rykodisc, Pickering Wharf, Bldg. C-3G, Salem, MA 01970/508-744-7678)—It's been three years since Lloyd Cole's last album, 1991's Don't Get Weird On Me Babe, and the long layoff has done nothing to dull his sharp pop sensibility. As one of British pop's most literate singer/songwriters, with the Commotions for three albums in the mid-'80s and solo since 1990, Lloyd Cole has always shown a keen sense of melodic subtlety. Cole immerses Bad Vibes in multicolored melodic depths, and his second-nature lyrical wisdom and wit splash his songs with potent imagery, making his brand of pop one of the most honest coming in from the British shores. Featuring Cole's long-time cohorts Matthew Sweet and Fred Maher, as well as former Commotion Neil Clark, former Banshee John Carruthers and Golden Palomino leader Anton Fier, Bad Vibes gives off a moody array of feelings, from the darkness of "Wild Mushrooms" to the piercing "So You'd Like To Save The World" and the psychedelic colors of the stand-out "Morning Is Broken," whose sound is pared down to its simple instrumental elements and rhythms, giving its lyrical irony that much more bite. Cole's instantly recognizable voice is nestled in these ironic yet enlightening settings, keeping his pop craftsmanship at the top of the very crowded singer/songwriter scene. Also feel the Vibes on: the Matthew Sweet-stamped "Fall Together" and the acid-jazzy "Too Much Of A Good Thing."

—Andy Skibins

NAPALM DEATH Fear, Emptiness, Despair (Earache, c/o Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—If metal albums were to be weighed only by virtue of their "heaviness," Fear, Emptiness, Despair would be judged "totally k-rad, dude." The pulverizing songs are slower and longer (all are over three minutes) and have more room for compositional depth than the short frenetic grindcore blasts which defined this pioneering unit's early work. In the late '80's, Napalm Death was a tremendously innovative band, almost single-handedly redefining the genre, knocking Slayer, Anthrax and Metallica from their cutting edge perch, and spinning off several other inventive groups, including Godflesh, Painkiller, Head Of David. The band's trademark demonic vocal growl has been aped by countless imitators who unfortunately add little variation or individual personality, wearing out the style to the point of comical cliché (for which Napalm Death should not be blamed). Given this history, Fear, Emptiness, Despair might seem a bit safe and conventional, but this album will undoubtedly help Napalm Death reach an audience that's never experienced anything even remotely like this before. This is the first Napalm Death disc distributed by Columbia, and it is one of the most ferocious (and hook-less) rock albums a major label has ever put out.

22 BRIDES 22 Brides (Zero Hour, 1600 Broadway, Ste. 701, New York, NY 10019/800-722-0613)—Sisters Carrie and Libby Johnson have been hitting East Coast coffee-houses and clubs under the veil of 22 Brides since late 1991. Their eponymously titled debut assembles a varied supporting cast of musicians for a powerful, simmering concoction of dangerous, moody tales about dragons, angels and serial killers. Hints of the Indigo Girls waft through the entire length of the album, with Carrie and Libby's graceful and occasionally eerie harmonies drifting dreamily from track to track. While the majority of the tracks are rooted in sparkling, percussive acoustic guitar, heavier songs such as the driving ballad "Visions Of You" are propelled by drummer Jonathan Mover's casually dauntless thudding. "You Do" recalls Tori Amos, with colorful piano dancing between strands of violin melodies. "Transparent" is one of two tracks produced by Godfrey Diamond (Lou Reed, Piss Factory), and it's also one of the album's best: its infectious chorus and quick-stab attitude sweep into the brain on waves of wiry electric guitar and Brazilian percussion. Other dark and dimly-lit tracks: "King For The Day" and "Wild In My Arms."

PALACE SONGS "Horses" (7") (Drag City, P.O. Box 476867, Chicago, IL 60647/312-455-1015)—Will Oldham's Palace Brothers are back with another new name and another impossibly powerful single. "Horses" is a Mekons cover, deliberate and ragged, peaking in a rough-hewn, anthemic guitar solo—a Palace first. "Stable Will" is even more frayed and tortured, with Oldham's voice shuddering and cracking through near-abstract lyrics about death, God and horses. The guitar playing is slow and pained; vocals and instruments drop, flat-toned, through echo chambers; Pere Ubu-like synth and theremin whistles appear and disappear like ripples in a pool. There's no way of telling what Palace will do next, but we can't wait.

—Douglas Wolk

SMALL FACTORY "Lose Your Way" (7") (Slumberland, P.O. Box 14731, Berkeley, CA 94701/510-654-6124)—One of Small Factory's finest, most fully-realized moments manifests itself on the trio's fourth 7" single, which equals in shorter form the highest points of last year's debut LP I Do Not Love You. "Lose Your Way" capitalizes on the band's strengths: compact structure, jangling semi-acoustic guitars and three-part vocal harmonies, which all contribute to a remarkable sense of movement, sweetness and sadness that has been known to change the speed of blood's flow through the veins. The flipside's "Scared Of Love" is another in Small Factory's long product line of heart-felt, toe-tapping charmers, more of which are sure to show up on the band's second album, due this fall on Vernon Yard.

E-40 "Captain Save Them Thoe" (12") (Sic Wid' It, c/o Jive, 137-139 W. 25th St., New York, NY 10001/212-727-0016)—

E-40 is one of the more celebrated, yet obscure, artists in the G-Funk movement. Before landing a deal with Jive, E-40 was quietly working with his posse known as The Click (B-Legit, D-Shot and Suga-T) in the Vallejo region of northern California, constructing high-luster tracks, with dark, odd-tempo deliveries. Though Bay Area neophytes may compare his lyrical agenda to that of Too $hort, E-40's lyrics are not based on sexist fodder, instead making full use of street slang and imaginative wordplay layered over a sullen groove, sharp bass and guitar for a cool outcome. This 12" version of "Captain Save Them Thoe" is radio safe, but if you listen closely enough, you'll discover what the street version is saying.

—Glen Sansone

ERIC'S TRIP "Float" (7") (Summershine/Sub Pop, P.O. Box 13, Prahran, Victoria, Australia 3181)—Eric's Trip should be commended for opening their new Sub Pop single with a taped sample from a singularly unhip source: the Fred Astaire/Audrey Hepburn film Silk Stockings (yes, we're a little bit embarrassed that we recognized it). It's followed by the very Sebadoh-ish "Trapped In New York" with rudimentary acoustic strumming, extraneous street noises, tape recorder mic rustling, lyrics about getting high; it's actually a lot better than you might imagine after reading this description. "Float" is a very nice melodic piece of uptempo guitar rock with catchy laid-back vocals and that great basement production sound that used to scare away A&R men back in the good old days of indie rock.

—David Newgarden

SPECTRUM Spectrum (10" EP) (Sympathy For The Record Industry, 4901 Virginia Ave., Long Beach, CA 90805/310-423-0281)—

Throughout his career with Spacemen 3, his solo recordings under the name Sonic Boom and the music of his current band Spectrum, Pete Kember has never been shy about his influences (musical and otherwise), and this EP collects five Spectrum cover versions, delivered in Kember's typically mild, organ-drenched psychedelia. Surf pop (Jan And Dean's "California Lullabye"), Bo Diddley ("It's Alright"), jigsaw pop (Beat Happening's "Indian Summer"), lonesome pop (Daniel Johnston's "True Love Will Find You In The End") and psychedelic garage rock (the 13th Floor Elevators' "Thru The Rhythm") all receive his mild-mannered, but no less mind-expanding, treatment. It's an interesting detour while we wait for new Sonic stuff.

MOVIOLA Moviola (7" EP) (Anyway, 118 E. Patterson Ave., Columbus, OH 43201/614-268-1457)—

It took very little time for a second 7" to appear from Columbus, OH's Moviola. Moviola builds upon the sound the band introduced on the first single, distortion teamed with ultra-lo-fi recording, disguising wonderful melodies in the songs, especially "Lookin' In." In addition, each side contains an incredibly brief melody—"Ted Was Born In The Summer Of Love" and "Cartography"—passed off as a song. Topped off by the reading of a letter and piano playing by "Miss Smith," this single has more than one appealing aspect.

—Dawn Sutter

SPECTORS "When The Girl Of Your Dreams..." (7") (Prospective, P.O. Box 6425, Minneapolis, MN 55406)—

The difference between the Sectors and most of their retro-garage-rock kin is that this quintet doesn't quite play it straight. "When The Girl..." is a British Invasion-inflected number with some awkwardly goofy lyrics, sung straight enough that you won't notice them if you're not listening. Much more worth hearing is the B-side's "In My Grave," a turbo-driven invitation to necrophilia, powered by a startling variation on the "Lucille"/"Dizzy Miss Lizzy" riff, with a weird and charming bit of audio verité at the end.

SLACKER Melting The Myth (Knapsak, 24040 25th Ave. S., Seattle, WA 98198)—So what if the chorus of the opening track sounds a smidgen like "Rock You Like A Hurricane?" A deeper gaze into this self-produced disc from Seattle-based Slacker reveals a band with a solid identity of its own. There's all the late teens/early 20s lyrical introspection/angst one might expect to find from a Seattle band these days: "Daydream #112" emotes "No one understands me...I've taken all I can tonight." Much to Slacker's benefit, the whole album sounds much more personal and direct simply because wholly self-recorded (the band's bassist, George Beasley, engineered and produced), rather than sonically or structurally filtered through the suggestions of an outside producer (such as Steve Albini or Sean Slade). In contrast to the myriad of other self-produced recordings, however, Melting The Myth is not lacking for cement-busting fury or arrangement dynamics. Witness "Hyper," which begins with only the rhythmic percussion of strummed guitar, then erupts into an avalanche of cymbals and wall-of-sound electric riffing. Singer/guitarist Brian Day's vocals often take a highly affected tone, exploring the range of delivery from Layne Staley (Alice In Chains) all the way to Axl Rose. Be sure not to miss the educational liner notes identifying popular types of cheese.

FYI

NATE OUDERKIRK's self-released cassette Meltdown (c/o Ten-Below, 440 W. 34th St. #5B, New York, NY 10001/212-947-4677) starts off with two steadily-strumming rockers, leading us to believe the next eight songs would be more of the same. But even the up-tempo songs that follow have variety, adding agreeable twists and spins on simple formats. From the stop/start rhythms of the title song to the dreamy "Panajacel," Meltdown quickly shows that Ouderkirk has more in his gig bag than the letters R.O.C.K. Of the many self-made demos that cross our desks, many reveal artists who splurge on production, winding up with a sound that's too produced or too slick for their songs. Conversely, Ouderkirk's songs benefit from the semi-pro fullness surrounding his work. The guitars are more than just layered for the sake of it; they weave, grind and pick as if Ouderkirk had clear intentions for their use. As a singer, Ouderkirk has a strong, clean and steady voice—further indication that stripped-down arrangements would have been too glaring a contrast. Though the distilled vision of Meltdown is basic rock, the variety of Ouderkirk's songs and the manner in which they're ultimately delivered show he's no one-trick pony.

MUDDY WATERS One More Mile (Chess, c/o MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City CA 91608) [cat. no. 9348]—Muddy Waters was probably the biggest and baddest bluesman of all time. Period. He dressed sharp, lived the life, played a mean slide, and spouted pure poetry in every three-line verse he sang. His poise and “don’t you mess with me” bravado provided the original blueprint for today’s tough guy definition of “hard” that lives on, in twisted and mutated form, in today’s rap posturing, but even the toughest rapper could learn a lesson or two about being a man from Muddy. One More Mile (Chess-MCA) compiles some neat rarities and outtakes into a walloping double-disc set. Some of the alternate takes are unquestionably alternates (the odd botched guitar chord or lyrical flub here or there) and many of the rarities are only of the “previously unreleased in this country” variety. Yet all in all, even the alternate takes serve as a reminder of just how awesome Muddy and his band must have been in their prime. The real crux of One More Mile is a 1973 radio broadcast from Europe that finds Muddy stretching out with an acoustic band, a far cry from the heavy, almost psychedelic blues of his later years. In a way, it’s a shame that MCA doesn’t see fit to reissue the late ‘60s/early ‘70s “heavy” albums by Waters and Howlin’ Wolf, such as Electric Mud, After The Rain, or Howlin’ Wolf’s legendary This Is Howlin’ Wolf’s New Album. These heavy, late ‘60s albums may not sparkle as much as the immortal ‘50s stuff, but they’re cool as hell—even John Paul Jones cites a track on Electric Mud as being a seminal influence on Led Zeppelin’s “Black Dog.” What Muddy Waters essentially did with his Chicago band of the ‘50s was take the older, acoustic blues and plug it in, playing louder and longer than anybody previously. When he toured England in the early ‘60s, he literally shocked crowds into speechlessness—they were expecting something much more acoustic and Delta-flavored. But that’s what Muddy Waters was all about.

GRANDMASTER FLASH, MELLE MEL & THE FURIOUS FIVE Message From Beat Street: The Best Of Grandmaster Flash, Melle Mel & The Furious Five (Rhino, 10635 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90025-4900/310-474-4778) [cat. no. 71606]—From the lines “Grandmaster, cuts faster!” from the breath-taking “Freedom,” to “Don’t push me ‘cause I’m close to the edge” from “The Message”—the first rap single to handle social realism—Grandmaster Flash & The Furious Five (Melle Mel, Scorpio, Cowboy, Kidd Creole and Raheem) were the ultimate hip-hop party-rockers of the early ‘80s. Lately, it seems many hip-hop junkies are turning back the clocks to the old school to escape much of the gangster trash-talk and general weak (or painfully boring) rhymes in circulation. This 11-song gem will not disappoint. Apart from a few significant hard-to-find singles, most notably “Super Rappin’” and “Grandmaster Flash On The Wheels Of Steel” (where Flash introduced the art of “scratching”), old jams are dusted off to reveal a well-preserved shine that is just as deserving of hand-waves as it was 10 years ago. 1981’s “Showdown” recreates an MC battle (minus the guns) between the Furious Five and the Sugar Hill Gang, while the open-minded and colorless cuts “The Birthday Party” and “It’s Nasty (Genius Of Love)” (complete with Tom Tom Club sample and patented horns) remain some of the finest hip-hop ever put on wax. Much of the group’s post-“The Message” work lacked the energy of its earlier singles, stumbling on “Message II (Survival),” as the business of success began to splinter the group. But thankfully the crew has left the bass-infectious “White Lines (Don’t Don’t Do It)” and “Beat Street” in its wake. Break out the Puma suedes!

TED HAWKINS Watch Your Step [cat. no. 2024] and Happy Hour [cat. no. 2033] (Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700)—Ted Hawkins is more than just a blues singer or a street musician—armed with just a guitar, he embodies the very spirit of American music, drawing strains from country, blues, gospel and soul into his art, showing the connections between them all with every song he writes, or even every time he takes a breath and starts to sing. In that sense, he shares space with timeless legends like Otis Redding, Sam Cooke and Ray Charles: just like Charles would take a country or gospel tune and turn it around with a soulful interpretation, so does Hawkins. He was obviously listening to a lot of music in those days, and his “Bring It On Home, Daddy” sounds so timeless and lasting, it’s almost impossible to put a year on it. These albums, originally released in the ‘80s on Rounder Records, found their way out of print as vinyl died in the last half of the decade. Now, perhaps in part due to Hawkins’ Geffen outing, The Next Hundred Years, Rounder has re-released these two earlier albums. Watch Your Step is an awesome and thoroughly inspiring album. Even though few may remember it now, it actually topped many critics’ year-end lists back in ‘82. Its best moments come when Hawkins just plays his guitar and sings “TWA” and “I Gave Up All I Had” (with his wife Elizabeth on backup vocals). A voice like no other, Ted Hawkins is an American original of the highest caliber.

BUKKA WHITE The Complete Bukka White (Legacy, co/ Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211) [cat. no. 52782]—Bukka White was one of those bluesmen who was tracked down and rediscovered in the ‘60s by a whole new audience in the wake of the big British blues boom—it’s funny that it wasn’t until kids heard the Stones and Cream cover American artists that they sought out the real thing. White returned to record several albums in the late ‘60s and early ‘70s (including the excellent Sky Songs, recorded by Chris Strachwitz of Arhoolie Records and recently reissued on disc as well). But it was these 14 songs, first collected on an album called Parchman Farm in the ‘70s, which re-established his legend, putting him back on the blues map. The Complete Bukka White restores all of White’s original ‘30s and ‘40s sides for Vocalion and Okeh Records. “Shake ‘Em On Down” was one of the sources for Led Zeppelin’s “Custard Pie” from Physical Graffiti (is there any blues album reissued these days that doesn’t have a song on it that British rockers lifted from? Chess even has released Stone Rock Blues, a whole CD’s worth of songs the Rolling Stones covered at some point). And on the American front, a young Bob Dylan learned “Fixin’ To Die” off the 1959 LP The Country Blues, and covered it on his 1962 debut, marking a profound influence that still reverberates even to this day. One can’t help but wonder what role Bukka’s grizzled and gruff lower singing register (particularly on “When Can I Change My Clothes” and “Sleepy Man Blues”) might have played in forging Bob Dylan’s wheezy rasp on his recent unplugged/acoustic albums (try playing these cuts beside something from Dylan’s World Gone Wrong and hear for yourself). Bukka White’s blues songs, like Robert Johnson’s or Charlie Patton’s, are more than just a dusty collection of tunes or tinny old recordings of plinky guitar riffs; they’re a whole world unto themselves, a place full of bad luck and trouble, ruled by the unfeeling hand of fate, painting a picture of pain, hardship and blues that speaks relevantly even today.

JACKPOT!

BEACON HILLBILLIES More Songs Of Love And Murder (ESD, 530 N. Third St., Minneapolis, MN 55401/612-375-0233)—Mandolin player Jim Ryan obviously has a deep love and appreciation for American music. His other band, the Blood Oranges, already released one of this year's most electrifying albums, The Crying Tree. On More Songs Of Love And Murder, Ryan and his friends John McGann (guitar, dobro) and Jim Whitney (bass) explore Ryan's acoustic side, infusing bluegrass with elements of classical, jazz, Celtic and rock, while retaining the form's traditional qualities with outstanding musicianship and delicate harmonies. Though not as improvisational as the Bad Livers, the Beacon Hillbillies, like the Livers, take traditional music to places that it's rarely been before, injecting it with the delightful combination of youthful enthusiasm and an ardent reverence for the past. "Whiskey Donna," "Troublehound," "Burnell, Come Quick" and "Face Up" stand out among these Songs Of Love And Murder.

WILLY DeVILLE Backstreets Of Desire (Forward, c/o Rhino, 10635 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90025-4900/310-474-4778)—As part of Mink DeVille, Willy DeVille was part of the heady New York City punk scene of the late '70s. He spent time in France in the '80s, recorded five albums and became a major attraction in Europe. DeVille moved to New Orleans in 1990, where he's recorded two records. The second, Backstreets Of Desire, was originally released to acclaim in Europe in 1992. A steamy stew inspired by Cajun, soul and Latin music, it features Dr. John on keyboards and production on a few cuts, as well as guest appearances from David Hidalgo of Los Lobos and Zachary Richard. DeVille has a remarkable knack for capturing New Orleans' sultry side, especially on tracks like "Lonely Hunter," "Bamboo Road," "Voodoo Charm" and "Jump City," where he mixes the city's exotic rhythms with piercing lyrics. Also, don't miss the chilling tribute to the late Johnny Thunders, "Chemical Warfare."

JOHN GORKA Out Of The Valley (High Street, P.O. Box 9388, Stanford, CA 94309/415-329-0647)—Those familiar with John Gorka are in for a bit of a surprise with Out Of The Valley. Nearly gone is the dark melancholy soul we once knew—he's even caught smiling on the CD jacket! The good news is that Gorka remains an exceptional tunesmith and, like the best of those, he continues to defy categorization. While his growth on the upbeat side is evident on "Good Noise," "Mystery To Me," "Talk About Love" and "Up Until Then," Gorka continues to mine the depths of gloom with "That's Why," "Bigtime Lonesome" and the title track. As he has for five albums now, Gorka displays a shrewd sense of humor and an uncanny ability to imaginatively capture emotions and real life situations using the bare minimum of words.

ANI DiFRANCO Out Of Range (Righteous Babe, P.O. Box 95, Ellicott Sta., Buffalo, NY 14205/716-882-4911)—The artistic growth of Ani (AH-nee) DiFranco continues at an astonishing pace with the release of Out Of Range. This is her fifth self-produced/self-released project and, without a doubt, her most accomplished. For the most part, DiFranco's music is closest to folk, yet her intensely independent stance, unique guitar style and pointed lyrics help to distance her from more familiar folk artists. Her songs are passionate rants about sexual politics and emotional issues, and though she uses words some may find objectionable, others will be grateful that she puts into words things they could never say themselves, as on "Letter To A John" and "The Diner." DiFranco expands her musical vocabulary with the horns on "How Have You Been," while the bits of accordion and piano on tracks like "Face Up And Sing" and "Hell Yeah" add some spice to her already hearty brew.

IN THE NEWS

The Lone Star State's best magazine, Texas Monthly has just released Honed On The Range, the first in the magazine's series of albums focusing on the broad range of Texas music. A compilation of 12 tracks, it runs the gamut, from a LIGHTNIN' HOPKINS recording from 1953 to KELLY WILLIS' "Anyway The Wind Blows" from 1993, and includes songs from STEVE EARLE, JERRY JEFF WALKER, NANCI GRIFFITH and BOB WILLS AND HIS TEXAS PLAYBOYS. It's available through mail order only at Texas Monthly, Dept. A, P.O. Box 1569, Austin TX 78767 or call (800) 926-7657. PETE ANDERSON, best known as the producer and guitar player for Dwight Yoakam, is in the studio recording his first solo release with a host of special guests. It will be released on his own Little Dog label some time this fall. BUDDY GUY, with back up from G.E. SMITH & THE SATURDAY NIGHT BAND, has just completed a sold-out two-night stand at NYC's Irving Plaza. The shows were recorded for release on Silvertone in late summer...Those of you who have just discovered TED HAWKINS through his new DGC release, The Next Hundred Years, will be pleasantly surprised to know that he recorded two excellent albums for Rounder (1 Camp St. Cambridge, MA 02140/617-654-0700), Watch Your Step in 1982 and Happy Hour in 1986, and that both are now available on compact disc for the first time.

SHORT SHOTS

On Acoustic (Liberty, 3322 West End Ave., Nashville, TN 37203), their 26th(!) record, the NITTY GRITTY DIRT BAND really gets back to its roots. One of the original country/rock bands, the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band still sounds a lot like it did when the band started in 1966—just four guys locked in a room singing and playing their own songs for the fun of it, a long time before "unplugged" was such a trend. Highlights include the sweet ballad "Love Will Find A Way," the bluegrass-tinged "Sarah In The Summer" and the dark and bluesy anthem "This Train Keeps Rolling Along."...Nashville's BILL LLOYD has long tread the fine line between country and rock, both as a solo artist and as a member of Foster & Lloyd. On Set To Pop (ESD, address above), he spotlights 14 powerful new songs filled with ringing guitars, swaggering rhythms and insightful lyrics, as well as a fine cover of Ray Davies' "This Is Where I Belong." With the help of guests like Marshall Crenshaw, Al Kooper, Rusty Young (Poco), Jody Stephens (Big Star) and Gary Tallent, Lloyd has produced a muscular effort containing such memorable tunes as "Trampoline," "I Went Electric," "Forget About Us" and "In A Perfect World."...Let The Picture Paint Itself is RODNEY CROWELL's first release for MCA (70 Universal Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608) and it reunites him with producer Tony Brown. The last time these two worked together was on Crowell's career-breaking 1988 album, Diamonds And Dirt. Although some may find Crowell's work a bit too glossy, his songwriting and performances are stone country to these ears, and this record is no exception. His collaborations with Guy Clark, the rockin' "The Rose Of Memphis" and the introspective "Stuff That Works" cover two very different emotions, but with the agility you'd expect for such highly regarded writers. The guitar-laden title track and the dreamy ballad "I Don't Fall In Love So Easy" are two examples of Crowell at the top of his form...One of the most popular of the new crop of Cajun bands, STEVE RILEY AND THE MAMOU PLAYBOYS have made some good records but, like most great bands, are best experienced with a dance floor that shimmies and shakes. Live! (Rounder, address above) was impeccably recorded on their home turf at the Eunice, Louisiana VFW Hall, one night in September of 1993, and it's a delight. Playing music from the masters—Dewey Balfa, D.L. Menard, Clifton Chenier and others—with respect while exhibiting a willingness to expand its horizons, Riley and band lay down some marvelous grooves and the crowd roars with delight, making Live! an excellent display of today's Cajun music. Safe House (P.O. Box 349, W. Lebanon, NH 03784/802-295-1269) continues to release fine roots rock by a variety of underappreciated American bands. The VOLEBEATS hail from Detroit and the music on Up North recalls that of fellow Midwesterners the Jayhawks and Uncle Tupelo. Spare instrumentation, lamenting vocals and easy-going melodies make the Volebeats authentic country. Check out "Rubber Soul," "Ten Cars Back" and the title track for an interesting new take on some familiar territory...

More familiar to those who like their sounds good and greasy, SOUTHERN CULTURE ON THE SKIDS returns with Ditch Diggin' (Safe House, address above). No American band today blends country, rockabilly, blues, surf and the funky chicken into such an undeniably attractive whole. Guitarist/vocalist Rick Miller is an off-kilter genius who pays homage to Link Wray, the Louvins, Carl Perkins and Hasil Adkins, sometimes all in one song. Wacky song titles like "Put Your Teeth Up On The Window Sill," "New Cooter Boogie" and "The Fly That Rode From Buffalo" only add to the fun, and don't miss the swell version of "The Great Atomic Power."

Horizons is a column about country music for people who don't like country music. Send the twangy stuff to my attention care of CMJ, 11 Middle Neck Road, Ste. 400, Great Neck, NY 11021.

BITES O' THE APPLE

Undaunted by the ongoing limbo of the Puccini's Turandot recording he did for Blue Note several years ago, saxist/composer/producer BOB BELDEN is readying a motley septet featuring modernist musicians and a hip-hopper to perform at Manhattan's Visiones June 23-25. Jazz interpretations of arias from Puccini's opera Turandot (as performed by the likes of Joe Lovano, Tim Hagans and Tony Williams), Belden's wondrous Puccini's Turandot became a cause célèbre in 1992 when the estate of the late composer withheld permission to release the project in the U.S. (It was issued in Japan, however.) Belden's subsequent project for Blue Note—reworkings of the music of His Purple Majesty, Prince—has already been released in Japan and is soon to arrive on these shores. The music of Prince and pop star Sting (subject of a previous Belden album tribute for Blue Note), along with that of the progressive 20th-century composers Penderecki and Stockhausen, will be performed at Visiones by a seven-man band featuring three keyboardists. Belden claims, perhaps facetiously, that he has announced three keyboardists (Kevin Hays, Jacky Terrasson and Joey Calderazzo) for the Visiones stint in the event one or more of them might bow out to take another, more lucrative gig. In truth, though, Belden has favored a three-keyboard lineup for some time. An assiduous student and collector of the music of Miles Davis, Belden has long been intrigued by the textural/orchestral possibilities of the multi-keyboardist lineup Davis introduced on 1969's fusion bellwether classic In A Silent Way. For the Visiones stand, Belden promises a "postrock mind-set" (the group will include DJ Smash) of "word, sound, noise." From the leader's advance description, the newcomer to Belden's music might expect chaos and dissonance. While these variables do exist, to some degree, in Belden's of-the-moment approach, so do the more essential components of swing (traceable to Belden's previous work with Woody Herman's big band) and orchestral euphony (traceable to his affection for the late arranger/composer Gil Evans). Purple Rain, the first of Belden's two Prince-related projects, reached No. 1 on the contemporary-jazz chart in Japan. This pop recording (to be retitled When Doves Cry when it hits the streets here on Blue Note Aug. 9) will be followed in the near future by his Prince-jazz project. After happily (and successfully) hybridizing the music of Sting, Puccini and Prince, what could the masterfully mischievous Belden possibly do for an encore? He's none too subtly hinting about remaking (or un-making) Sgt. Pepper's, "unplugged." You just heard the news today. Oh, boy!... In addition to conducting for pianist McCoy Tyner's recent, second big-band effort for Verve, Journey, Belden recently co-produced the follow-up Verve recording for teenage pianist PETER DELANO, Bite Of The Apple. Besides being a canny mixmaster of musical styles, Belden is also a far-seeing personnel director, as shown by his teaming of Delano with a wide-ranging cast that includes hornmen Hagans, Gary Bartz, Craig Handy and Chris Potter plus rhythmists Gary Peacock, Ray Mantilla, Adam Nussbaum and Victor Lewis, among others. In so doing, Belden not only ensured an interesting release from Delano; he also, no doubt, hastened the artistic development of this talented youngster... In other Visiones-related news, the club's talent coordinator, Gust Tsilis, is putting the finishing production touches on the second Enja outing from the Kansas City-based baritone vocalist KEVIN MAHOGANY, whose label debut, Double Rainbow, positively astonished jazz-vocal aficionados last year. More on the album as its release nears... On the heels of his first new recording in five years, On The Soul Side (MusicMasters, 1710 Highway 35, Ocean, NJ 07712/908-531-3375), the funky keyboardist

ON THE CHART

Verve-PG's Charlie Haden Quartet West refuses to say goodbye to the top spot, retaining its hold on the chart despite strong showings from a live disc from ECM's Keith Jarrett (5-2) and Gramavision's Ray Anderson (14-3). Verve-PG trumpeter Ray Hargrove makes an impressive debut at #8 with his new recording, featuring stellar sax sidemen. Also, two master pianists move into the top 10: Verve-PG's Bheki Mseleku, with help from Abbey

Lincoln, Joe Henderson, and others, moves (12-7) and Novus-RCA's Mulgrew Miller returns to the chart at #6. Four welcome debuts to the chart include the superman of sax, Maceo Parker (#16) on Novus-RCA, the massively influential griot Gil Scott-Heron (#18) on TVT, percussionist/composer Bob Moses (#20) on Gramavision and MoJazz's Norman Brown, who enters the chart at #22. (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

LES McCANN will reunite with his once-and-future partner, saxist Eddie Harris, to lead a group at the Blue Note June 28-July 3. At press time their group was being dubbed Swiss Movement after their famous live-from-Montreux album of yesteryear on Atlantic. In addition to Harris (heard on "Ignominy"), On The Soul Side also boasts guest Lou Rawls' vocals on "Lift Every Voice And Sing/God Bless America"... Trumpeter WARREN VACHÉ, a fixture on the metro jazz scene for several decades, debuts shortly on Muse with a CD that insiders say will showcase his adeptness with bebop as never before. Vaché has been so closely associated with traditional/main-stream jazz, largely by his own doing, gig-wise, that his facility with bebop has been under-recognized. The Muse offering is likely to up his ante with modernmeisters... Across the river in New Joisey, drummer LENNY WHITE will be the putative leader of a highly promising (but probably ad hoc) group called The Acoustic Masters that comes into Trumpets jazzspot in Montclair June 17-18. Curiously, the leader's straight-ahead prowess is the only questionable element in a band that includes cutting-edge players (all leaders in their own right) Eddie Henderson on trumpet, Craig Handy on tenor, Mulgrew Miller on piano and Santi Debriano on bass. White, to his credit, though, did a nice job as producer of the new Charles Lloyd disk for Atlantic. That CD, Acoustic Masters 1 (the first title in a planned Atlantic series and the raison d'être for the group name at Trumpets), is a creditable quartet side featuring Cedar Walton, Buster Williams and Billy Higgins. After nearly two decades as a funk drummer and fusioneer, White might be making a legitimate stab at straight jazz. Hope so... Farther west, in Morris County, producer Susan Cohen is bringing jazz to an area sorely in need of improvisational enlightenment. Her Sunday-night jazz showcase at the Gas Light Inn (Montville), now in its second month, is showing strong signs of catching on. The club's June slate includes an open jam with Vic Juris, one of the state's finest plectrists, on June 5, followed one week later by keyboardist Regan Ryzuk's octet. Ryzuk, a cerebral player whose two-piano duet with Rio Clemente is due out before long, is taking a contemporary, light-jazz approach with his octet, but, knowing producer Cohen's progressive proclivities, the room's fare is likely to concentrate largely on acoustic modern and postmodern sounds.

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/noncommercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). ▲ indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position; #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more...PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

CMJ RADIO TOP 150

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/noncommercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). ▲ indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position; #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more...PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

PROGRESSIVE RETAIL

Chart compiled by Dawn Sutter

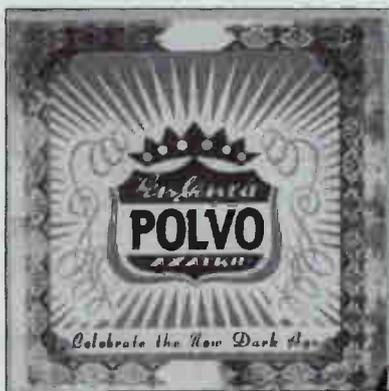

ON THE CHART

DGC's Sonic Youth proves its staying power this week, holding tight to the #1 position (both Retail and In-Store) and resisting pressure from Interscope-Atlantic's The Crow soundtrack (3-2), which gains momentum with the release of the movie. Reprise's Green Day (4-4) and Imago's Rollins Band (5-5) follow Sonic Youth's holding pattern. DGC's Counting Crows make a bit of a jump from 9-7, as do Radioactive's Live (10-9) and Merge's Superchunk (12-10). Top entry award this week goes to Mute-Elektra's Erasure, which debuts at #8 and takes top Breakthrough awards.

Violent Femmes' strong fan base helps the band's first release for Elektra enter at #13. Merge proves to be the indie with the most, with two records in the top 20 (Superchunk and the 3Ds debuting at #48) and the new EP from Polvo entering at #20 (see Retail Focus). 1/4 Stick-Touch And Go's Mekons are the second-placing indie debut, taking the #21 spot. Other new faces on the chart: Polydor-PLG's Van Morrison #39, Invisible's Pigface #40, Virgin's The Verve #53, Lookout's Punk U.S.A. compilation at #58, Velocity Girl's new single on Sub Pop at #59 and Touch And Go's Girls Against Boys #60.

This was not the most impressive week for upward mobility. Those fighting the falling trend include: DGC's Nirvana (35-29), Warner Bros.' live Hüsker Dü disc (44-30) and Death Row-Interscope's Above The Rim soundtrack (55-45). The release of a new single from Epic's Pearl Jam boosts the album up 57-37. (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

POLVO

The third release from Merge's Polvo hits the charts at #20, making it the #3 Retail Breakthrough and the #1 indie debut this week. A stalwart Chapel Hill band, Polvo calls attention to its hometown by releasing records on the local Merge label, run by Mac McCaughan and Laura Ballance of Superchunk. The new EP, Celebrate The Dark Age, is a little quirkier and occasionally quieter than the band's first two LPs, adding more intrigue to the band's guitar-based sound. In addition to the CD format, it also comes in an unusual triple-7" format, a popular option for vinyl collectors.

JERU THE DAMAJA The Sun Rises In The East (PayDay/frr, c/o ILS, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—This summer, in the shadows of spray paint-burned walls, where urban youngsters spend endless days shooting hoops in abandoned lots, or going toe-to-toe in breathless rhyme battles, the name Jeru The Damaja will undoubtedly carry the same clout as names like KRS-One, Nas and Wu-Tang Clan. For most artists, an MC battle means loaded guns and high-explosives, rather than staggering a foe with blinding rap skill. Brooklyn's Jeru The Damaja is one street-bred verbalizer who doesn't play with guns, or strike a hardcore pose for a paycheck. His boastful lyrical-blasts invade your brain without any weapons or props, while his unmistakably hypnotic delivery and freaky flow establish the East Coast as the permanent address for his enigmatic style. The Sun Rises In The East busts righteous street philosophy with articulate precision, while the 23-year-old Jeru (originally heard on Gong Starr's "I'm The Man") is a well-tested, durable new force in hip-hop that will go beyond the success of "Come Clean" and "D. Original," and raise the consciousness of the hip-hop community, which is led to idolize false imitators. DJ Premier produces some of his most solid, street-level hip-hop to date on: "Brooklyn Took It," "Mental Stomina," the thought-inducing "You Can't Stop The Prophet" and "Ain't The Devil Happy."

BEASTIE BOYS III Communication (Grand Royal, c/o Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028)—To summarize the latest mountain of old-school jabbering and funk-pocked beats in the Beastie's own vernacular: "I've got mad hits like Rod Carew." The Beastie Boys (MCA, Ad Rock and Mike D.) have come a long way since the snot-nosed days of Licensed To Ill and a shorter way since Check Your Head, but there is little in their repertoire that can reach the level of experimental brilliance and both metaphorical and metaphysical verbal weight they achieve in yards on III Communication. If there's one thing the Beastie know how to do better than almost every hip-hop group out there it's to

As the number of reports tails off for the summer (down to 80 this week), we're surprised to see Chrysalis-ERG's Gang Starr (2-1) recapture the #1 spot (backed by "Code Of The Streets") from Columbia's Nas (1-2), who's seemed unbeatable for the last three weeks. Making this week's highest debut is PayDay/frr-ILS' Jeru The Damaja, who lands The Sun Rises In The East at #7. Also debuting in the top 10 this week are singles by Wreck-Nervous' Smif-N-Wessun (11-9) and Violator-Relativity's Beatnuts (19-10). Keep an eye on releases by Grand Royal-Capitol's Beastie Boys (20-11), Chrysalis-ERG's Arrested Development (15-13) and the independently-released "Warrior's Drum" by Blacklist's King Just (29-15). There's more debuts to report: Giant-WB's Ahmad (#31), RAL-Chaos' Nice & Smooth (#34), Delicious Vinyl-EastWest America's Born Jamericans' "Cease & Seckle" at #38 and the brilliant release by Talkin Loud/Nerve Forecast-PG's United Future Organization at #40. This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Beastie Boys; 2) Gang Starr; 3) Arrested Development; 4) Above The Rim; 5) Jeru The Damaja; 6) Shyheim; 7) Da Brat; 8) Heavy D. & The Boyz; 9) Mad Flava; 10) Artifacts. (BEAT BOX REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) constantly simple and search for something different or unheard (getting dooper along the way), resulting in a sound and vibe they can easily call their own. The trio's brand of hip-hop will always be in fashion sans the use of the hottest DJ or simple loop because everyone loves to hear lines like "I get my hair cut correct like Anthony Mason," and anyone with an ounce of funk in them will be happy to be immersed in the blissfully hard-rocking (occasionally punky) '70s-styled funk (the instrumental cuts "Sabrosa" and "Futterman's Rule" are godhead), created with samplers and live instruments. Q-Tip throws down on the radio-celebrated "Get It Together," while old-school prankster Biz Markie freeks the funk on "Do It." The Beasties toss in a few trashy punk stomps to break up the funk color ("Tough Guy" and "Heart Attack Man"). The end of the disc sees the crew exploring spiritual highs on "Shambola" and "Bodhisattva Vow," while the soothing instrumental "Transitions" helps it all soak in. Still ill after all these years: "B-Boys Makin' With The Freak Freak," "Sabotage," "Alright Hear This" and "The Scoop."

NIGHT TRAINS Miles Away, VARIOUS ARTISTS Soul Of The City and VARIOUS ARTISTS Dorado: The Gold Sessions (Instinct, 26 W. 17th St., Ste. 502, New York, NY 10011/212-727-1360)—Instinct has been at the forefront of the growing acid jazz

scene since its first release by the K-Collective (a.k.a. Brand New Heavies) in 1990. Building on the tradition started with the awesome This Is Acid Jazz collections (featuring groups from England's Acid Jazz label), Instinct serves up a three-pack featuring a taste of acid jazz of every variety. England's Night Trains make their stateside debut with Miles Away, a compilation of cuts from three import-only albums. Seductively cool and loaded with smooth, jazzy atmospheres ("Lonely Road"), this brainchild of Hugh Brooker has the cooche to match beats and blows with US 3, but with a more live, instinctive feel. If Miles Away is painted with bright, oil-based colors, then Soul Of The City is brushed with warmer, water-based tones. Featuring groups signed to Germany's Yo Mama label, the dozen tracks settle into deep, nocturnal grooves, coated with jazzy soul over-lays. His Masters Voice appears on three cuts, best represented on the lively "So Fine," while Soulstiff Feat. Fred Wesley's "Set My Soul Free" is a warm, funky tune sung by poet Cunnie Williams and highlighted by JB Horns Fred Wesley and Pee Wee Ellis. Dorado: The Gold Sessions delivers progressive meldings of, you guessed it, soul and distinct jazz improvisation from the U.K.'s Dorado label. From the first cut "144 Brooklyn Palace Mansions" by Outside (which sounds like Songs In The Key Of Life-era Stevie Wonder), this compilation is the most diverse of the three. Jhelisa's "All I Need" has a biting, street-flavor while Cool Breeze's "Travelogue" is peppered with Asian chanting and a bouncy hip-hop beat. The top dog on this disc is Giant Step NYC's rendition of John Coltrane's "Impressions," which is sampled with Martin Luther King, and swings furiously over busy sax work. Turn to gold: Circle In The Round's "Devil Of Cruelty" and the steamy "Turn It All Around" by This I Dug.

SOUTH CENTRAL CARTEL 'N Gatz We Truss (GWK/DJ West/RAL, c/o Chaos, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Many within the hip-hop hierarchy are predicting that gangster rap will eventually fade into oblivion (mutating into something harder, perhaps), following the path of past hip-hop earmarks such as fat gold chains, African medallions and striped Lee jeans. As long as hip-hop has groups like South Central Cartel and records like 'N Gatz We Truss, the attention being paid these enforcers of street codes will endure. While gangster rap has been the focus of attacks on rap, SCC (which often sounds like a second rate N.W.A.) says its music is more about hardcore reality than representing a color or sect. Still, the barrel of the glock is placed firmly under the listeners nose, and the tired clichés and processed beats leave little to the imagination. While we can't dispute SCC's ability to appeal to fellow homies who live and die by the gat, those of us unenamored by its peddling of the same regurgitated gangster loathing will no longer find this brand of rhetoric interesting.

DEF 12

MIC GERONIMO "It's Real" [92 BPM] (Blunt, c/o TVT, 23 E. Fourth St., New York, NY 10003/212-979-6410)—In hip-hop, new artists are their own biggest fans. As a rapper, if you don't think that you have the best rhymes on the block, who will? Mic Geronimo launches Blunt Recordings with "It's Real," a cut with an EPMD/Redman mentality and a mellow, soft-swinging groove. A steady, street-level tribute to no-bullshit hip-hop stacked with boastful trash-talk. Check the alternate version titled "Sh*t's Real" and the B-side cut, "Hemmin Heads."

ON THE CHART

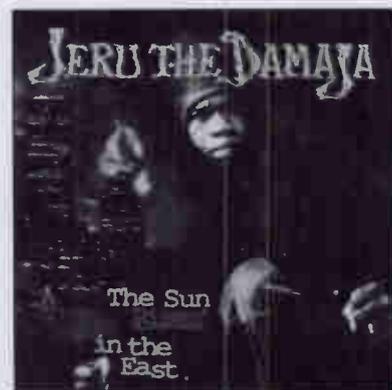

PROVOCATIVE STUFF: I guess you could call this the week for comebacks, as Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Above The Rim (2-1) makes some fancy inside moves to get by Columbia's Nas (1-2) for its second stint at #1. Meanwhile, LaFace's Dutkast (3-3), Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Snoop Doggy Dogg (6-4) and Wreck-Nervous' Black Moon (11-5) remain strong, and PayDay/frr-ILS' Jeru The Damaja makes this week's highest debut at #9, two spots ahead of MCA's Crooklyn Volume 1 (#11) and Uptown-MCA's Heavy D. & The Boys at #12. Jive's R. Kelly (22-14) and Motown's Queen Latifah (19-16) slide up a few spots, and we'll give a shout out to the debut by Jive's E-40 at #21. (BEAT BOX RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

Records President LUTHER CAMPBELL was arrested on May 17 for allegedly threatening Tina Barnett, his girlfriend and mother of his two children, with a gun. During the verbal quarrel, Luke apparently threatened "I swear I will kill you and dump you in a lake somewhere." He was later released from jail on $7,500 bond...ROLODEX FILE: Anne-Marie Stripling has joined Stepsun Music's publicity department, while Kelly Lynn Jackson has been promoted to the A&R department...YOU CAN TOUCH THIS: Funk bassist and super freak RICK JAMES will be the subject of Motown's Master Series, The Serious Funk Trilogy. Starting with the double-CD, 27-cut Bustin' Out: The Very Best Of Rick James, the trilogy will also include the 12-track, I Need Your Lovin': The Best Of Teena Marie and the 14-track, In My House: The Best Of The Mary Jane Girls. Both Teena Marie and the Mary Jane Girls were Rick James prodigies and key players in the early '80s pop/funk scene.

BLOWIN' UP

JERU THE DAMAJA The Sun Rises In The East (PayDay/frr, c/o ILS, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019) Radio Chart Position: #7—With a deafening buzz surrounding the debut album by Jeru The Damaja, its first week of release has seen it running out of record stores and vaulting up the charts. With an unwavering hardcore flow, Brooklyn's Jeru met Gang Starr while in high school, and later turned up on "I'm The Man" from Daily Operation. From the early success of "Come Clean" to the recent acclaim of "D. Original," this hip-hop purist's provoking lyrics and street-wise beats will be felt for a long time. In its first week on the chart, The Sun makes a grand entrance into the top 10 at #7, with 25 of 80 stations reporting the Damaja in their top 10. Ranking the #5 Adventure Pick, Jeru also makes the highest debut on this week's retail chart at #9. Stations doing top five damage: CJSF, KGRG, KSCR, KSCU (#1), KTRU, KUGS, WBUL (#1), WCBN, WIUS (#1), WIXQ, WNUR, WVUT and WVUA.

JACKPOT!

CAETANO VELOSO E GILBERTO GIL Tropicália 2 (Elektra Nonesuch, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)

These two poet/singer/performers merged 25 years ago to make a musical statement that has molded not only the music of their native Brazil, but in many ways the music of the rest of the world. As two of the standard bearers of tropicalismo, Gil and Veloso have made musical history, both separately and together. So it is inevitable that their newest collusion is both provocative and beautiful, the two defining factors in all things Brazilian. Tropicália 2 is proof that the real melting pot of the musical world is down south. Samba, schmaltz, jazz, reggae, rap, folk and pop all crash like waves on a beach, altering the landscape by tearing it up in one place and smoothing it out in another. Themes of love, slavery, joy, misery, philosophical musings and poetic ramblings come together as one here, each element part of the larger whole of life.

Gil and Veloso are also such a wonderful couple because of their opposing strengths. Gil's smooth approach can be almost sugar-shock inducing at times, and Veloso's rampant experimentalism has driven many a fan of Brazilian music to distraction (although I admit to being very disposed to his brand of insanity). Together they make a perfect mix of pop exploration and close-to-the-edginess. The examples are many on Tropicália. "Haiti" is a slow burning hip-hop over a bossa guitar, "Nossa Gente" is the slow Brazilian version of ska, and "As Coisa" is pure Veloso/Gil attitude and rhythm. This mix of attitude with their sweet voices is what makes for the tension and beauty here.

SKIN, WIND AND WOOD

The progression she has made from Indo-pop singer to her present state is what makes SHEILA CHANDRA one of the world's great artists. While each recording she has made, from her brief career with Monsoon through her experiments in electronics, scat singing, Indian and Celtic folk, has had a wealth of beauty and adventure, none of them compares to The Zen Kiss (RealWorld, c/o Caroline, 114 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001/212-989-2929). She has refined her art so purely that nothing but her voice is used to

ON THE CHART

Even though Shanachie's Mutabaruka falls 2-6 and RealWorld-Caroline's Shu-De moves up to take its place at #2, ain't nobody going to get anywhere near Hannibal-Rykodisc's All Farka Toure With Ry Cooder, #1 by a two-to-one margin for seven of the last eight weeks. Still, some new faces are appearing on our chart: Ladysmith Black Mambazo on Shanachie (#13 debut), Zap Mama (#14 debut, and sure to go higher) and Axiom's Chinese-American blues-opera hybrid from singer/composer Sola, which debuts strongly at #15. Further down, Israel Vibration, longtime reggae stalwarts on the RAS label, comes on at #21, while Columbia's Stir It Up collection finally enters at #22. And just squeezing onto our chart is another Shanachie release, the Caribbean/Columbian-flavored album from Francisco Zumaque & Super Macumbia, clocking in at #25. Just out of the picture: Barrington Levy's "Under Mi Sensi" single on MCA, Dean Fraser, Ingrid Karklins, Lyrichord's excellent box-set of Tibetan Buddhist rites and yes, even French rapper MC Solaar. (WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) complete her journey this time. The pieces are also less consciously "rooted," less concerned with a particular culture than they are with the purity of the voice, the sting of breath and the kiss of spirit that is the heart of her music. The only break from this purity is some judicious, creative studio manipulation that creates unreal, potent images on a few pieces like "Speaking In Tongues IV," the continuation of her series of experiments in wordless energy. This is where Chandra shows her real genius, as a multiple series of voices struggle and dance with each other. Chandra has grown beyond being a pop singer with some interesting roots into an important composer of new music that has no categorical boundaries.

Sybsylma (Luaka Bop, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510) is another stunning piece of work from vocal and percussion group ZAP MAMA. More confident, more varied and less concerned with the individual roots of the music (which extend into the turf of Europe, Africa, Australia and Asia), this music swings, rocks and roars without ever adding anything technological to the mix, from the soulful "Mais Qu'est-ce?" to the thundering Africa-soaked "The Mama Of The Mamas." More on Zap Mama in an upcoming issue.

On their self-titled album (Redwood Cultural Work, P.O. 1040B, Oakland CA 94610/800-888-7664), KEITH TERRY & CROSSPULSE explore the same territory as Zap Mama, a world of voice and percussion that reflects the primitive roots of all music, skin on skin and the human breath. This cross-cultural crew looks to North, South and Central America for its primary ideas, and those from Africa as the group filters through the experience of the Americas. The music rarely sounds like any particular ethnic tradition, but like jazz singers such as Ella Fitzgerald or Bobby McFerrin, Keith Terry & Crosspulse use the voice for rhythm against a percussive structure to create an emotional force beyond words.

Peace.

MENTAL INSTRUM

MENTAL INSTRUM FEATURING COLONEL ABRAMS "Should Be Dancin'" (12") (Freetown, Unit 13, Grand Union Centre, West Row, Ladbroke Grove, London W10 5NQ, U.K./081-964-1100)—Barely a month after Mental Instrum's breathtaking debut EP, which was probably the best vocal garage debut of the last three years, the team from Jersey recorded this deep stomper for the London-based Freetown label. The spine-chilling voice of Colonel Abrams is often overlooked, but this will bring him back into the fray, as he was with "Music is The Message" and the glorious "Trapped" for Arthur Baker's Streetwise label in 1985. The cadence of Abrams' voice resonates with longing and, like Robert Owens, he is as much an inheritor of Curtis Mayfield's tradition as he is a part of contemporary dance music history. "Should Be Dancin'" works so well because it is soulful and hard at the same time. Mental Instrum's production work is crisp to the snapping point, with snare hits and organ stabs trading off at a staccato, breakneck pace. Mental Instrum inhabits that space between under- and over-production, an enviable position for any artist. All six mixes here are worth investigating, but the "Full On Mix" is perhaps the most rapturous, with Abrams' chiming vocals and the swooping and diving drum patterns. This is the standard by which contemporary vocal house will now be judged.

BETWEEN THE GROOVES

When it was announced that HULA and K. FINGERS of the Clubhouse/Afrythmix outfit were starting a track label, Gruvee Records, it was just a matter of time before they delivered a humdinger like the Undagrooves Vol. 1 EP, four tracks of Chicago bass acrobatics built for the dancefloor. The driving "Rain Dans" is a four-on-the-floor bass and drum stomper with a hard edge, while "Sumthin D-Frent" is a piping organ builder (Afrythmix/Clubhouse, 4459 W. 147th St., Midlothian, IL 60445/708-239-4200)...When veteran Chicago mixmasters RON TRENT and CHEZ DAMIER collaborate, sparks will fly, and their latest single for Cajual's Prescription Underground label is a smoker. This is probably the best thing this pair has ever done. The basslines on the A and B tracks seem to crackle and hum like an electric current just outside the sonic scale, with severely minimal percussive work pulling the bass back into the audible range. The B-side gives the Chicago minimal aesthetic a whole new meaning. Sure, it's hard electronics but the organ chords soften the texture considerably. It is producers like Trent and Damier who insist on pushing the elastic boundaries of house to their outer limits (Prescription Underground, c/o Cajual, 1229 N. North Branch #218, Chicago, IL 60622/312-642-8008)...Kevin Saunderson's recently defunct KMS label is back in action with 10 releases slated for the coming months. You'll no doubt read about all of them here, but the first

ON THE CHART

As the school year draws to a close, Richard James' Aphex Twin remains rooted in the #1 position. One A.D., the first compilation from Waveform Records in Sedona, AZ, moves up five places (13-8) in its second week on the chart. Caroline's Transformer 2 continues its upward movement, leaping 14 places from its initial appearance on the chart just three weeks ago, while Wax Trax-TVT's Ethnotechno compilation slips a few spots (4-7). B-Tribe's domestic full-length on Atlantic begins its climb toward the top, moving five places (24-19) after making its chart debut last week. This week's longevity award goes to the Orb (12-10), whose Live '93 collection has been in the upper reaches of the chart for 16 weeks. There's also re-entries this week from Autechre (#20), FPI Project (#22) and the Secret Life Of Trance compilation (#24). (RPM REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) is the soaring double-12" "Party of the Year" by MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE. These folks contributed the most commercial track to 10/Virgin's landmark Techno compilation (released in 1986, featuring Inner City, Marc Kinchen, Blake Baxter and many other now widely known Detroiters). Once again, this is a beautiful vocal house record with enough mixes to keep everyone happy (KMS/313-567-2232).

U.K. TECH TRAX

While U.K. techno right now is best represented by the unstoppable Dave Clarke, there are a number of compelling projects floating about. Example number one is the Diversions EP by RAC. Warp picked this up after these two producers recorded a couple of molten singles for the Nucleus label in London. This is a pared-down, endlessly energetic kicker, with the best track being "Mindfield." If you need proof that the Chicago influence is only beginning to take shape again, check out this track's deft sampling of Thompson and Lenoir's "You Can't Stop The House" and Maurice Joshua's "This Is Acid." For the new wave of rhythmic British techno, this is a fine primer (Warp, P.O. Box 474, Sheffield, U.K.)...The generally underrated MARK BROOM has just released a captivating new EP with four spacey, experimental and hammering numbers.

Once again this is experimental techno with its heart in the DJ booth, something lacking in a lot of contemporary electronic "dance" tracks. The analog blips and beeps are surrounded by swirling, pounding drum brinkmanship on every track here (A13 Productions, 29 Uplands Road, Benfleet, Essex SS7 5BB, U.K./0268-757866).

FINAL WORD

I would usually defer to Glen Sansone to document contemporary hip-hop, but I'm compelled to instruct you to acquire the new JERU THE DAMAJA single, "D. Original," because this is the most important hip-hop single of the year. The peerless Premier strips the track down to a juddering, eerie piano refrain and a raw, scraping drum track, which ranks alongside the best percussive moments in the work of Marley Marl, Mantronix and Duke Bootee circa '85-'87. Freed from reliance on weighty samples and gimmickry, this kicks like a newborn (Payday/frr, c/o ILS, 825, Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019).

NAPALM DEATH

Fear, Emptiness, Despair
(Earache, c/o Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—A decade ago, Napalm Death laid the original foundation for death metal/grindcore, which hundreds of death bands would build upon in the years that followed. The band started out as a trio, built for speed and primed to pummel. Today, none of the founding members remain (bassist Shane Embury joined the group in 1988 and is the longest-running member), but Napalm Death has evolved into a tight-knit, bludgeoning five-piece that sounds better and heavier than ever. Instead of focusing on rampant, lightning-fast speed riffs and flailing, shapeless instrumentation, the band delves into a more structured landscape of hardcore death and heavy, infectious guitar grind. The group's ravenous bursts of speed have not been forgotten, and are intelligently intertwined throughout. Even though Napalm Death's sound has matured on Fear, Emptiness, Despair, the band hasn't neglected its trademark extremely loud, potent punch. The lyrics, stemming from personal, painful experiences the band has endured, are thoughtfully and cleverly constructed. Song titles like "Hung" and "Twist The Knife (Slowly)" are a bit deceiving—rather than graphically verbalizing killing and mutilation, both tunes use guttural growls, furious guitar explosions and violently pounding drums to capture the despair of being stuck in a rut with nowhere to go and no one to turn to. The band's newfound direction is sure to garner much attention from new and old fans alike. Also check out "Remain Nameless," "Primed Time," "State Of Mind" and "Retching On The Dirt."

BEASTIE BOYS

Ill Communication
(Grand Royal, c/o Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028)—Hey homeboys and homegirls, it's time to get stupid fresh illin' wit' da Beastie Boys! Whether they opt for hip-hop, straight-up rap, hardcore punk or jazzy funk, they always deliver a full, phat sound that'll make your rump pump. On Ill Communication, the Beasties have incorporated their years of cutting edge experimentation and multitude of musical styles into a meaty package of remarkable quality. Most of the tunes aren't what you would call "loud rock," but there is a handful of slammin' songs for the metal crowd to sink their teeth into. "Tough Guy" rips through 57 seconds of pure, moshing, hardcore punk at warp speed. Following the same heavy rockin' route is the hilarious "Heart Attack Man," about a fat guy who tips the scales at 275 lbs., smokes, drinks and looks like the guy in the Hefty bag commercial

("Lungs full of tar and a stomach full of Spam/Heart attack, heart attack man"). These are, by far, the two heaviest songs on the entire album. "Sabotage" blends scratching noises and thick, pounding drums into Adrock's blazing guitar licks. "Futterman's Rule" starts out with a reggae rap and plunges into a pool of churning, funky bass, keyboards and bongo drums. For a dose of some totally hip-hoppin', rappin' jams, check out "Do It" or "Get It Together" (featuring guest spots by Biz Markie and A Tribe Called Quest's Q-Tip, respectively). Also, don't overlook the poignant lyrics to "The Update" and "Bodhisattva Vow."

SEED

Ling
(Mechanic/Giant, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—Though it's a new band, Seed is amazingly tight, able to compose beautifully structured, melodic songs overflowing with grandiose instrumentation and contagious hooks. Comprised of members barely old enough to qualify for legal drinking status, the band emanates such a full, developed sound, you would think its members were veterans. With influences from David Bowie and Cat Stevens to the Beatles, Seed creates a unique blend of folksy rhythms and cool rockin' grooves. Most of the tunes have a somewhat Blind Melon feel to them—fleeting, catchy and inspiring. While Seed may not be for hardcore headbangers, it's an ideal treat for those who delight in enticing, colorful rock 'n' roll, tinged with grungy grooves. At times, Ling is shrouded in intense orchestration, while at other moments it's saturated in heavy, deep guitar grinds. As an added touch, a string quartet appears on "Baa Baa Song" and "Fortune." Leaning toward the heavier side of the spectrum, "Doe" is brimming with funkified basslines and solid, crunchy guitar chords. "Tortoise Shell" has dirgy, Alice In Chains-like guitar melodies and impassioned vocals. Also noteworthy are "Rapture," "Nail," "Ladybug" and "Mariposa."

A.C.

Everyone Should Be Killed
(Earache, 295 Lafayette St. #915, New York, NY 10012/212-343-9090)—A.C. is not for those with weak stomachs, deep thoughts or correct politics. But with thrash-metal, death-metal, "alterna-metal" and industrial-metal, not to mention punk rock, climbing up the pop charts, it's bands like A.C., which most people will find either too harsh, too offensive or too hard to track down, that have become the new "underground." A.C.'s music is harsh and probably offensive to most people, and now that the band has signed to Earache, its material will be widely available, even if the band doesn't become a household name, a point which A.C., uh, discusses in "I'm Not Allowed To Like A.C. Any More Since They Signed To Earache." It sounds as if vocalist Seth Putnam barfs his vocals, making any death metal singer sound like a crooner in comparison. If he's actually saying something, it's much easier (and more fun) to try to figure it out by referring to the 58 different song titles for insight. While "Some Songs," "Some More Songs" and "Even More Songs" point down similar paths (as do "Song Titles Are Fucking Stupid" and "Having To Make Up Song Titles Sucks"), you can infer A.C.'s meaning in "When I Think Of True Punk Rock Bands, I Think Of Nirvana And The Melvins," "MTV Is My Source For New Music," "Greatful Dead" and "Morrissey." A.C. isn't for everyone; as track 44 says, "You Must Be Wicked Underground If You Own This," but if you're looking for radio tracks, try "Song #8" or the cover of EMF's "Unbelievable."

DEAD ORCHESTRA

Sounds Like Time Tastes
(Choke Hit, P.O. Box 11548, Wichita, KS 67202/316-263-1917)—Dead Orchestra thunders with intensely heavy, churning surges of power and full-tilt grindcore madness. Erratic tempo changes slam, bend, twist and turn throughout Sounds Like Time Tastes, adding a crushing spontaneity to the delivery of the songs. These musicians share an undying love for their music, and their mutual passion and melding of their minds shines through on each inventive, devastating track. Sounds Like Time Tastes is the band's second full-length release and was recorded in Tampa, FL, a veritable hotbed for cutting edge, thrashy, hardcore music. From slow, death-metal swells to explosive, energetic blasts of speed, these towering tunes are sure to squelch your craving for heaviness. Brief moments of Hendrix-like guitar wails and funky, groovin' bass lines are filtered throughout the brutal pandemonium. If you have a lingering lust for death-metal, don't miss "Prohibited," "Pull" and "Satan Loves Me." If you prefer speedy, violent riffs galore, check out "More To Life" and "Time To Kill." For a somewhat tamer, heavy rockin' angle, try "Cosmic Dinosaur," "Sounds Like Time Tastes" and "Attack Of The 500 Foot Hippie."

Gunga Din
(Infamy, 309 S. Poppleton St., Baltimore, MD 21230/410-625-2190)—Stomping out of the shellfish-laden waters of Baltimore is a new breed of animal named Gunga Din, reminiscent of the Western Seattle-grunge beast. The band's alternative groove, however, is meshed with a harder edge but with easily decipherable words. Its sound focuses on Tim Conder's basslines and works its way up from there. Gunga Din's members work together as a team, running their own label and production company and writing their own material. Its second release Gunga Din contains everything from funky loud rock to soft, acoustic ballads. Its lyrics are soul-deep, filled with tragic stories of love, abuse and controversy. Take note of "Rain Dance" as it pours out the story of a wife being abused: "He gets carried away/I'm nothing/I'm nobody/don't need an apology." The steady, fast rhythm intensifies frontman Mike Raymond's brilliant vocals. Other tracks to push and shove to: "Flower Child," "Firefly" and "Race Religion."

LOUD ROCK NEWS & TOUR DATES

Hey everyone! Here is our first installment of the Loud Rock News. Please fax any news (or tour dates) you want printed in future issues to Jenni Glenn/Loud Rock Editor at (516) 466-7159. Thanks! Mercury Records is gearing up for a ton of new releases this summer. Keep your eyes open for the KISS tribute compilation in a week or so. It features some great classic KISS tunes performed by LENNY KRAVITZ, ANTHRAX, EXTREME, The MIGHTY MIGHTY BOSSTONES and more! Also, get ready to be pummeled by DOWNSET—a brutally aggressive band following in the same footsteps as Rage Against The Machine. BRUCE DICKINSON is also getting ready to rock your world. The add date for his new metal single, "Cyclops," is June 27. Finally, the end of July brings Ireland's CURBDOG. Curbdog has a lot of Metallica influence and is managed by Sanctuary (Bruce Dickinson's management company)...Restless Records is putting together a live Milwaukee Metalfest Compilation, featuring MALEVOLENT CREATION, SUFFOCATION, EXHORDER and CANCER, that will be in your hands on June 28...And if ya didn't already know, Hollywood Records has signed former SubPop artist SEAWEED and plans for the band's new album are currently in the works. Metal Blade has a lot of happening stuff on the way—DESULTORY's sophomore effort, Biterness, is due to hit your desks on June 21. The artwork for the album was done by Kristian Wahlin (Tiamat, Atheist, Entombed). FATES WARNING is in the studio with producer Bill Metoyer (Slayer, D.R.I., Sacred Reich) recording its long-awaited follow-up to 1991's Parallels LP. The band's entire back catalogue (Night On Broken, Spectre Within, Awaken The Guardian, No Exit, Perfect Symmetry and Parallels) will be re-issued this summer. GWAR's film, Skulhed...Face, will be out this summer. The movie also features JELLO BIAFRA and SEBASTIAN BACH. It should be as beautifully disgusting as we would hope it to be! Gwar has also joined forces with Depthography, a company that combines 3-D and fluid animation into a single photograph (no glasses needed). Gwar is the first band to explore this high technology and the band's first subject is none other than the she-beast herself, Slymenstra Hymen. For more Depthography information, contact Sara Cook at (212) 679-8101...On June 28, MERCYFUL FATE will be releasing The Bellwitch, a special six-song mini-album that includes four live songs from their last U.S. tour. The band is planning to release brand new material in the fall. Also, Metal Blade founder and owner Brian Slagel began hosting his own radio show Into The Vault on March 28. The program, which airs every Saturday between 1-2 p.m. on Phoenix KZRX 100.3 FM, features classic and rare bands of the '70s and early-'80s...A&M's trio of ultimate power, THERAPY?, is teaming up with OZZY OSBOURNE to do a song on the upcoming BLACK SABBATH tribute album. More info on that later...Roadrunner Records' OBITUARY has finished recording its new album, tentatively titled World Demise. It's due out in July. Also, new Roadrunner signing BUZZOV-EN has finished recording its debut release for the label, entitled Sore. Look for it sometime this summer...GUNS N' ROSES' Matt Sorum joins the list of fabulous drummers who pound the skins of Mapex drums. Other Mapex Percussion endorsers include Billy Cobham, Terry Bozzio, Carmine Appice, Mike Portnoy (Dream Theater), Paul Geary (Extreme) and Mark Schulman (Foreigner)...New York City-based hard rocker SCARECROW is back. The band's latest effort was recorded in just 16 days in an attempt to capture a "live" feel. Lead singer, Johnny Blaze, produced the album and wrote all of the songs with lead guitarist, T.J. Jordan. Look for this new release on Pavement/Zoo/BMG to grace your presence shortly. Coming in July is the movie and soundtrack for this summer's hottest film, Airheads. The movie will feature Adam Sandler, Michael McKeon, Steven Buscemi, Judd Nelson and a cast of cameos ranging from Lemmy to Stuttering John to Harold Ramus. The soundtrack, which will be released on Arista Records, will feature tunes from MOTORHEAD (with Ice-T and Whitfield Crane), PAW, ANTHRAX, PRIMAL SCREAM, WHITE ZOMBIE, 4 NON BLONDES, STICK and many more. Last, but not least, a hearty congratulations to Chainsaw (formerly of WZMB), who is the new director of college metal promotion at Mechanic Records. Way to go Chainsaw!...That's it for news this week. Keep it coming!

Jeremy Wagner, Guitarist from Broken Hope, Metal Blade Records, Tarzana, CA (805) 522-9111

Hi friends! Jeremy from BROKEN HOPE here! We are currently on tour supporting our album, Bowels Of Repugnance. I strangely urge you to check out our live performance in your area. If you need any info concerning our tour dates or our Metal Blade release, Bowels Of Repugnance, please contact Maria Abril (the radio goddess of all time) at the mighty Metal Blade offices for anything concerning Broken Hope! Until next time, stay repugnant! P.S. Mike Rittberg, I wish you the best, buddy!

Jill & Jeannie, Red Light Records, Des Plaines, IL (708) 297-OKFU

SKATENIGS and SARKOMA are kicking ass! Thanks so much! We've got T-shirts, and these neat S&M kits comin' your way. COVEN, GUTTED and OPPRESSOR are still blowing everyone away. Hope you all liked the posters! Call me the minute you read this to let me know about summer hours, blah, blah, blah. Thanks for your support!

David T., Leviathan Records, Atlanta, GA (404) 463-1009

In what is turning out to be a very pleasant surprise, IMPERIUM's Too Short A Season is continuing its steady climb up everyone's charts. Any and all tracks on the CD sound tremendous coming over the air! We appreciate your continued support on this one and it's good to hear great musicians getting some notice. A special thanks goes out to JRRBL of WKLL for including "Next Planet Please" in his Top 10. There is no excuse for such great taste!

Michael J. Schnapp, EMI Record Group, New York, NY (212) 492-1812

Tell me this could happen anywhere-NO! It could only happen in NYC...It's Friday the 13th (go figure). I'm hailing a cab (you know, standing in the street and waving frantically at the cabs, hoping they'll pick me up) when a car hits me! That's right, A CAR HITS ME! This dickhead in a car knocks me down (not easy), so I kick his car (how else would I get his attention?). Now, the driver gets out and starts yelling about how if I damaged his car I'm going to have to pay for the damage! Damage? Damage! So then I ask him who's gonna pay for his damage. What damage? "The damage I'm going to do to your face." He hit the road and left very fast! And speaking of the road, MUTHA'S DAY OUT are hitting Little Rock, Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Lubbock, Tucson, Phoenix, San Diego, Orange County, Los Angeles, Eugene, Portland, Seattle, San Francisco, Sacramento, Tahoe, Denver and Colorado Springs thru mid-June. Mutha's Day Out "We All Bleed Red" (especially if you hit me with a car) is rockin' now. Prepare for your soul to be wet very soon! Play Mutha's Day Out or I'll run myself over!

Munsey Ricci, Skateboard Marketing, Ltd., Valley Stream, NY (516) 328-1103

So yo, check it out...we have a new main telephone/fax number. Put it in your Rolodex and make note of it. The postcards will be in the mail as you're reading this. Our address and all other information stays the same. Also, we're looking for a college metal phone slave. Please call us if that's you. Alright, enough with that. The DIO tour starts on the 29th of this month, we have your tickets. Dig on the new track, you know you love it.

LOVE/HATE is in your face. They're on the road with Dio and coming to town. The record is still climbing the charts, so dig on it. IMPERIUM is working real fine with most of you. This is one record that will grow on you big time, keep listening to it. The full length on the SARKOMA and the SKATENIGS will be in your hands this week. You love these two bands and so do your listeners. Till next week, cya.

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY (212) 275-2135

So, I get back from a raucous surfing weekend in Virginia Beach and I realize just what a monstrous summer lies ahead for all of us! For starters, on May 25 at approx 11:30 a.m., the new STONE TEMPLE PILOTS single, "Vaseline," will land in your mailbox. One week later, metal radio will be serviced with a limited-edition vinyl copy of the full LP, Purple. I dare say that Purple is a far different record than Core. Please don't expect "Sex Type Thing" part two. Weiland and Co. will tour starting late June. Also on the road now are COLLECTIVE SOUL SURGERY and STUTTERING JOHN. GODSPEED will open for Ronnie "Long Live Rock And Roll" Dio starting next week. Call me for tix. COLLAPSING LUNGS are a band to witness. This seven-piece brutality also hits the road in June. One more thing, I heard the new OVERKILL material last week. My brain was ripped out of my skull and force-fed down my throat. That's why I needed the raucous surfing in VA—wide fucking open!!

Brian McEvoy, Mercury Records, New York, NY (212) 333-8458

My first record at Mercury Records is the KISS tribute record, Kiss My Ass. Please add this mother for me on June 6th. There is a limited run of clear vinyl records available on June 7th. CD and cassette in store on June 21st. DOWNSET's first single, "Anger," is available for your adding pleasure on June 13th. Look for a limited number of Downset dates in the Northeast in early June. Bruce! Bruce! The new BRUCE DICKINSON masterpiece, Balls To Picasso, is coming at you in late June.

Jesse Lombardi, Century Media/Lonely Planet/Dope, Los Angeles, CA (310) 396-0094

ASPHYX, TIAMAT live and ENCHANTMENT are the newest. I know you are all pounding these along with SAMAEL, MUCKY PUP, PSYCHOSIS, Grave, UNLEASHED, WARGASM and SUN. Get ready for the most interesting and musically intelligent full length from DEAD ORCHESTRA, Sounds Like Time Tastes. It should be on your desk in a few weeks. Zappa influence in a current format. Unleashed is still on tour all month. Call for tix. Psychosis is coming in late May. Look for new ATROCITY, Grave and MAYHEM in the near future. Dead Orchestral DEAD ORCHESTRA! DEAD ORCHESTRA!

Marni Halpern, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077

Here's the deal. By the time this gets printed, Wayne may not be here anymore. So, the new intern that will be taking over his calls will be Kevin McCormack. He's just as great as Wayne. However, Wayne is the greatest person I ever worked with, and good luck to him! I love you! Enough of this. DOG EAT DOG's "All Boro Kings" is getting such a great response from all of you. They are over in Europe with Biohazard, and will be back in the states for a northeast tour. BLACK TRAIN JACK is kicking up the charts from some "real" serious airplay. Play the single, "Handouts." And stations who are saying, "It's too poppy," just ask the guys in Sick Of It All who volunteered to do back-up vocals on "What's The Deal" and "The Reason." LIFE OF AGONY's new video for "This Time" will be on Headbanger's real soon. TYPE O NEGATIVE touring with Motley Crue and the Butthole Surfers. NAILBOMB interviews this summer. SEPULTURA touring with Pantera and Biohazard.

Matt Young, Earache Records, New York, NY (212) 343-9090

A.C. is the most extreme band ever! 58 songs of pure noise, humor and destruction. "Song #8" is the single (I use that word lightly). Play it real loud. Wait till ya see 'em live. PITCH SHIFTER are touring Europe now and will be back here at the end of the summer. DISGUST are making plans for a summer visit to your town. The video for "Mother Earth" is done and on its way to your favorite video show now. The samplers are a huge success! Kids are ruining entire phone systems to get a hold of one. Your phone line could be next. Ring for 'em. NAPALM DEATH!!! God bless Earache.

Linnea Nan, Warner/Reprise Metal, Burbank, CA (818) 953-3692

YES, YES, YES. You will be receiving your full CD of BIOHAZARD's State Of The World Address. This will arrive with a full CD "Clean" version of State Of The World Address. We have dubbed May 30 & 31 as add dates for the full. Do what you must! DIO hitting the road with Love/Hate and Godspeed. Please get your ticket requests in NOW and keep jamming Strange Highways. ATOMIC OPERA making some noise. Did you catch the video for "Justice" on the 'Ball. If not, call me, we'll shoot you one soon. Very soon—JOAN JETT & L7 and, of course, it's time to experience JESUS LIZARD Show live @ CBGBs. Until then, I count the days until I can see Biohazard, Pantera and Sepultura destroy the east coast. Call if you want to be a part of this.

Keith A. Jenkins, Relapse/Nuclear Blast America, Millersville, PA (717) 397-9221

Salutations, musical circus freaks! Hard core porn gore is raising blood pressures all over; Club "Mondo Bizarre"—For Members Only was a builder last week. Good work—keep the pressure up! SINISTER begins their tour with Cannibal Corpse and Cynic on Friday, May 27th, at Roxy Music Hall, Huntington, NY. Contact me for dates and information. Who wants "pure and sick" PUNGENT STENCH and AMORPHIS posters? Let me know. You can attempt to tell me over the godly din of INCANTATION, DECEASED and KATAKLYSM on Sunday, May 29th at the Wetlands Deathfest. Smell you there!

REVIEWS

DAVID BYRNE "Angels" (Luaka Bop/Sire, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—As a director, David Byrne has an uncanny flair for creating images that are unique and memorable (who can forget any of "Burning Down The House," or the rubbery images from Uh Oh's "She's Mad?"). "Angels" which will remind Talking Heads fans of "Once In A Lifetime," places Byrne's head and shoulders in front of various scenes: see him encircled by adoring models, women holding newborn babies and a group of mimes with skull masks, or see him zooming through a supermarket (dressed in a tin foil suit) and assorted spinning, outdoor scenes. There may be more technically skilled directors than Byrne, but a scant few have his knack for making arty images seem comic and vice versa. As for the song, we've been high on this track since Byrne gave a live preview of his new LP at our Music Marathon last year, and it's great that "Angels" now has a worthy video counterpart. Attention Mr. Byrne and Warner Bros. video dept.: Our hopes for the next single/video is for "Lilies Of The Valley." (SC)

KRASHMAN "Nuthin' But A Party" (Island, c/o PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—You'd have to have come from another planet not to realize that Krashman's "Nuthin' But A Party" is going to be a big hit this summer. O.K. so it's not "pure" rap, or high art, but it's great pop music nonetheless. (Hey, "Love Shack" wasn't exactly public TV either, you know). This clip is fast, fun, harmless and catchy with a little sex thrown in. Sounds like what party music is all about if you ask us. With one of the best grooves and slickest videos of the year "Nuthin' But A Party" will be blasting out of car and apartment windows all summer long. (SC)

PAUL WELLER "Sunflower" (Go! Discs/ London c/o PolyGram, address above)—Whether you're just discovering or rediscovering Paul Weller, "Sunflower" will teach you to keep your eyes and ears on Weller from now on. His new album, Wild Wood, is full of great, warm and groovy songs. Our guess is that he's loosening up a bit (is that a Champion sweatshirt he's got on?). The high rock and soul energy of the song is contrasted by the shady mood of the video; there's hardly any color here, and Weller and his band are intermittently lit by wandering spotlights. As long as we're in the mood for suggesting follow-up videos and singles, how 'bout a clip for "All The Pictures On The Wall?" (SC)

AMINIATURE "Physical Climber" (Restless, 1616 Vista Del Mar, Hollywood, CA 90028/213-957-4357)—"Physical Climber" is yet another example of how a few good ideas and a spirited song can take a limited production budget a long way. Supposedly shot for under $500, this clip uses aMiniature's vibrant guitar din as a springboard for its low-budget inventiveness. Basically a collage of grainy performance footage run at high speed and cutup tracking shots of the band, the video never slips into typical editing overkill or preconceived orchestration, cleverly moving in random jumps and pauses of movement. (CH)

DICK DALE "Nitro" (Hightone, 220 Fourth St. #101, Oakland, CA 94607/510-763-8500)—You have to respect a guitar player who literally causes his picks to melt and strings to break when he plays, especially when taking into account that player is 56 years old. That man is Dick Dale, the undisputed "King of the Surf Guitar" who continues to create music as blazing as he did 30 years ago. What better visual accompaniment for this "flight of the bumble-bee" virtuosity than a headlong rush down the highways and byways of America? Not only is the clip as exhilarating to watch as it is hear, but it should also be a staple for any program that claims guitar rock as its driving force. (CH)

THEE HYPNOTICS "Heavy Liquid" (american, 3500 W. Olive Ave., Ste. 1550, Burbank, CA 91505)—Britains' Thee Hypnotics are somewhat of a retrospective entity, absorbing anything from Hendrix, the Stones, Cream, Led Zeppelin (or hell, even Spinal Tap) into its mix of thick, bluesy acid-rock. The first single and video from The Very Crystal Speed Machine, "Heavy Liquid" borrows the film style of Led Zeppelin's The Song Remains The Same to bring Thee Hypnotics sound into current perspective. Stage performance, rides through London in the chauffeur-driven Rolls Royce and backstage groupies (in a bathtub) collide in a perfect personification of the band's dazzling '70s, er, '90s powerhouse. GUEST DIALOGUE

Neil Jendon of Catherine, TVT Recording Artist

Hey, it's a privilege to be writing this here Dialogue. I'm a little confused about this, though. It's not exactly a Dialogue, just me blabbing away. As much as I would like to talk one-on-one with you, dearest reader, I can't. How are you? See, I couldn't hear you at all.

So maybe this is a monologue. If you want some fancy talk we could call it a soliloquy. Years ago I took a class called Introduction To The Theater. "Soliloquy" was one of the few things I remember from that rotten class. When I enrolled, I thought the class would give me the training I needed to land a job at the local cinema: I would start off as assistant butter machine operator and ardently work my way up to ticket-tearer guy. When quitting time came, I'd keep me red jacket on when everyone else changed into their street clothes. That's the kind of commitment I was willing to make. I was hungry.

Instead, what I got was a semester's worth of lectures from a guy who had suede elbow patches on his jacket, and during the summer he wore a short-sleeve shirt with special clip-on suede elbow pad attachments, custom made and only available from English teacher supply shops.

One semester later, all I could think of was this: If Shakespeare and Greek tragedy were so great, why were people killing themselves to see a musical about cats called Cats? This is like inventing a new food product and the catchiest name you can come up with is "Food."

The story was a complete pack of lies. Some really smart guy once said that art is a reflection of the human condition. This play, however, gave me no insight into the feline condition. These so-called "cats" sang about memories...all my cats can remember is that they're hungry and would like to walk all over my pizza.

Don Blanchard, 21st Circuitry Records, San Francisco, CA (415) 252-9578

Just wanted to make a comment about the last few Dialogues I have read in here lately, then I promise to bring this topic to an end. It seems with the death of Cobain (and thus Nirvana) people are disheartened not only in that they feel a loss of life in someone they loved, but they feel a voice for that generation of 20 somethings has been extinguished, and the need to even ask the question "are the 90's over?" to quote one Dialogue...With all due respect and absolutely no hard feelings to Mr. Cobain, this is fucking bullshit. For all of us here at 21st Circuitry (and yes, we are all 20 something) the '90s are just the beginning of some of the most exciting and mind stretching ideas this world has ever seen. With the advent of software driven multimedia (and I ain't talkin' Idol, Bowie or Gabriel here) and the internet into new music scene, previous boundaries in perceiving music are beginning to be chipped away. And there is a ton of other music out that speaks for the "disenfranchised kids" of today that has nothing to do with Nirvana or anything close to it. Open your ears and minds to the plethora of hard electronic music that has come out in the '90s and you'll hear what I mean. If you need references: Chem Lab, Non-Aggression Pact (in your home town of Tampa), 16 Volt, Diatribe and Hate Dept. But if you're still heartbroken over this huge loss, then check out XORCIST doing your 1992 "anthem" of "Smells Like Teen Spirit" (heh, heh, heh). E-mail us at 21st.circuitry@cyberden.sf.ca.us

Russell Lefferts, Taco Bell Junkie, Zero Hour Records, New York, NY (212) 957-1277

Hello there radio citizens. Tis you I address on this misty morning in Nueva York. Summer's almost here. Let's all hope for some good lightning storms this season. Returning to the main plot...In an obscure, desolate sector of the universe known as Hoboken lies the domain of a band who have most certainly passed through your eardrums and eye sockets (on MTV) in the past...Yup, the CUCUMBERS are back, but on Zero Hour this time around. The style has altered a bit and the tunes are stronger than ever, so keep a lookout. Preceding the full-length will be a 7". Ergo, if your station is down with vinyl give me a holler and I will personally see to it that you are greased with a copy. Inching closer to the 22 BRIDES release, folks. They are currently on the road and will be passing through the Midwest when this issue hits your desk. Wanna see 'em? Ring me. If you saw them at CB's Gallery on 5/10, spread the word. If you didn't, your loss. Album is out 6/22. Every-where. In the freak-zone, if you like demented underground b/w comics pick up No Hope, by Jeff Levine on Slave Labor Graphics, 979 S. Bascom Ave., San Jose, CA 95128. Any issue will do. They all rule. Later days.

Kevin Forsythe, A.T.S./Another True Story Publishing Company, Pittsburgh, PA (412) 241-0704

A.T.S. is touring in support of their brand new album Blood Drive (Shimmy Disc). If you haven't got it yet call Shimmy Disc, (718) 768-2424. Produced by He whom the gods call Kramer, Blood Drive rocks, rattles and roars over 19 original A.T.S. songs...Thanks to WWU and all who came out to see A.T.S. at the Nyabinghi Dance Hall in Morgantown, WV, Saturday, May 28 (with Pittsburgh's way cool jazzmeisters, Watershed)...Attention Cleveland area: A.T.S. will play the Grog Shop Friday June 17, with the Jehova Waitresses. The Waitresses are a great band and Shimmy Disc labelmates. Their new album, Perfect Impossible should have hit your station in the same bundle with A.T.S. Blood Drive. Other tour dates for Jehova Waitresses: Parkersburg, WV (Brass Works) June 2; Columbus, OH (Staches) June 9; Charleston, WV (Empty Glasses) June 10...Do some of you radio people have any pull with impressionable student government types sitting on huge activities budgets looking for deserving bands on whom to lavish tons of money? A.T.S. can help. We do our own booking and we'll give you a great deal. Give me a call, we'd love to play your college, frat, sorority or party this summer or fall. Thanks for playing our music.

Nooshin, Alternative Promotions, Metal Blade Modern Records, Simi Valley, CA (805) 522-9111

Jizmogloben. And plenty of the luscious stuff, after GWAR infested California this past weekend. Oh Oderus Urungus, my head is still spinning (literally), after witnessing the potency of your masculinity and...performance. If you have not seen Gwar live yet, do so immediately. This Toilet Earth is nothing short of amazing, and if you are not currently playing "Saddam A Go-Go" on alternative radio, get down on your hands and knees and repent! They will surely be invading your neck o' the woods soon, so call me, if you'd like to get hooked up...Speaking of which SKREW... "Picasso Trigger's" add date is May 16th. Dusted being the long-awaited follow-up to their Phil Owen/Al Jourgensen produced Burning In Water, Drowning In Flame. The industrial Armageddon is beating down upon us and speaking of beatings, BEATS THE HELL OUT OF ME should be played religiously throughout the day, as a release to the daily angst we continuously face...(If ya' can play Rollins, you can play Beats.) Did someone say "Angst"? Well, CHEMLAB is currently touring with KMFDM and Sister Machine Gun, on the "Angst Fest" tour. (Hey, if you can't wallow in it, you might as well make a festival of it.) Finally, the GOO GOO DOLLS should have a new release out shortly, and THOUGHT INDUSTRY is currently on tour with Type O Negative. Call for interviews.

Heather West, Black Top Records, New Orleans, LA (504) 895-7239

So, down here in New Orleans we are still trying to recuperate from the 25th annual Jazz and Alcohol Festival, in which we had so many artists playing; including our annual Black Top Blues-A-Rama and SOLOMON BURKE, both sold out, kinda sweaty soul and blues experiences at the House Of Blues. Out of ten days of non-stop incredible music, the thing that blew my mind was Ali Farka Toure and Ry Cooder at the Rykodisc party at the Howlin' Wolf. The audience almost forgot to mingle, they were literally spellbound. I wanna thank WXDU, WCKS, WDPS, WDET, WKHR, KNON, WVIA, KHSU, KZUM, WKHR, WYCE for playing MIKE MORGAN, JOHNNY DYER, W.C. CLARK and BIG JOE AND THE DYNAFLOWS. It really is okay not only to play blues, but to report it! Please call me if you want promos for giveaways, stuff for fund drives, interviews, or anything else your heart desires.

Vicki Aubin, Radical Rcoords, New York, NY (212) 475-1111

Skankin'! One thousand pof-hoppin', skankin'-til-ya-droppin' folk took part in Radical Records' two-day Skampilation extravaganza at the Grand May 14 and 15! Thank you's and congratulations go out to all the great bands who took part: Mephiskapheles, NY Citizens, Niblick Henbane, Ox-Blood, Blanks 77, the Wretched Ones, the Templars, Faction Zero, Bouncing Souls, Scofflaws, Ska Voovie, Perfect Thyroid, Allstonians, Spring-Heeled Jack, Inspector 7, Insteps, Checkered Cabs and Agent 991 Come fall, these shows will be transformed into the Skampilation compilation, no doubt to be the ska compilation of the decade!...Meanwhile, Radical would like to welcome the following new pack of supporters of I.C.U. (Intensive Care Unit): WVVS, KLPI, WRHU, WRUB, WCVF, WIDB, KLSU and WRST. Call your local or regional music video channel and ask them to play I.C.U.'s "Play Dead" video! We also have 7" vinyl available for "Play Dead"...Remember that classic corny banjo strummin' ditty "Oh Susannah?" Well, fear no more—our own MR. FREEZE and THE HOME-WRECKERS have created a slammin' hip-hop version, of it, with several versions for all you with mix shows. If you don't have it, call T.C. and he'll get you one, along with CROSSFIRE's "Fill the Void" single (coming soon)...Til next time, groove on, and pump up the gas grill!

Keith Morgan, Radio Promotions, Restless Records, Minneapolis, MN (612) 874-2423

SISTER PSYCHIC Sister Psychic Sister Psychic. What more do I need to say. Surrender, You Freak is the name of the album. The new album features "Part Of Love," "Kim The Waitress" and "Death By Fascination." MILK has their follow up to Ear on your desk. The record is once again on Spanish Fly Records and is called Succeeding/Receding. Medium Cool presents the debut from JACK LOGAN (which is at your station as well). The title is Bulk. As you have probably noticed the debut from Jack Logan is a double-CD with 42 songs. If your attention span is short check out #2 "Shrunken Head," #5 "Escape Clause," #11 "15 Years In Indiana," #27 "The Parishioners" and #42 "Town Crier." If Hank Williams, Vic Chesnutt and Joy Division turn you on in a musical way then give a listen. AFRICAN HEAD CHARGE's In Pursuit Of Shashamane Land and DUB SYNDICATE's Echomania are also at selected college radio stations. If you want these recordings and/or feel neglected please call and I will send them out to your station. On the techno/trance/RPM front you should have the new 12" from PSYCHICK WARRIORS OV GAIA titled "Out Now." You should also have LUMUKANDA's "Araglin" and "Render" from LASSIGUE BENDTHAUS. Watch for more details in this space for info on the upcoming NOVA MOB record as well. On a final note if you are interested in being a Restless intern for summer please fax a resume to me at 612-874-2430 or call for more info. Internships are available in all major cities and college towns.

Sivan, don't ask for my last name, Wax Trax!/TVT Records, New York, NY (212) 979-6410

True, if Chuck D. says rap is the CNN of the black community, than that would mean GIL SCOTT-HERON is its first anchor. Don't let Spirits, his first record in over 12 years, get obscured by your Jazz and Rap charts. Discover for yourselves the deep-rooted socio-political relevance of hip-hop's forerunner (even before Grandmaster Flash), as heralded by the likes of Digable Planets, A Tribe Called Quest and US 3! Tour dates to be announced soon. Enough said. TVT loves Chicago! From CATHERINE to JUSTER to Wax Trax!, we just can't get enough! Catherine's majority-approved Sleepy EP will be followed up by a Butch Vig full-length. Like the Beasties? Rage? Infectious Grooves? Introducing Juster, two boys from the hood who've blended together a blistering infection of hip-hop and trash. All hail CORDS! Righteous babe Simone Holsbeek returns as '94s honorary "American Woman" (you go grrrr!) on Cords' Gaspig EP. We won't stop! Coming this summer: EMERGENCY BROADCAST NETWORK, you just calm down now, (see them nationally at Lollapalooza on second stage) and CHRIS CONNELLY. And, coming soon domestically: UNDERWORLD, D*NOTE (objectively the best fusion of experimental and acid jazz I've heard yet) and Warp labelmates KENNY LARKIN and RICHARD KIRK. SISTER MACHINE GUN and KMFDM are still on tour with Chemlab, as well as the CONNELLS (live EP this fall). Call for tickets, interviews and amusement. Good night.

Natalie Yanan, Red Decibel Records, Minneapolis, MN (612) 874-2410

It's summer and finally beautiful in Minneapolis. Our new offices came fully equipped with a great deck with a fantastic view. Actually it's a gravelly rooftop overlooking an alley—a girl can dream can't she? Regardless, I'm trying to find a phone cord long enough to reach out there. On the Red Decifront: FAT TUESDAY and HOUSE OF LARGE SIZES join forces for a month long Midwestern tour kicking off on June 1 in Kansas City, MO. Call me for dates, station ID's and interviews. The newest member of our Red Decibel family, GLAZED BABY, is burping up a heavy, intense, incredible release—Karmic Debt. It should be in your lap by mid-June with Baby's first steps (tour dates) soon after. SEA-SON TO RISK will be spending some time in the studio this summer cooking up an album for release sometime this fall. To everyone who's off air for the summer—have a great one! To everyone else—play Red Decibel bands, go to Red Decibel shows, and return my calls damn it!

Rosie V-Estrada, Hollywood Records, Burbank, CA (818) 560-5670

Congratulations! To all of you who have graduated (KMBU, Dorian Dawson; KCLU, Jason Dreyer; KJRP, John Korollaks; just to mention a few) this year. For the rest of you who are still around this summer, remember to continue supporting the BRIAN SETZER ORCHESTRA, ELEVEN, YOTHU YINDI and SEAWEED. Catch you later!

Nicole Blackman, Catherine, Nicole Black-man PR, New York, NY (212) 685-3001

Just call me CATHERINE from now on. Any band that has a fondness for the Superfriends is a friend of mine. Their Sleepy EP is startlingly beautiful and their upcoming fall album will swing you hard. Play play play! Listen to me now or apologize to me later. KMFDM and SISTER MACHINE GUN just blew the doors off 28 clubs on their Angsifest tour. Thanks to the all the new and old fans for making this tour so brilliant. Dirt: Is it true that the Lemonheads "suck my dick" line in "Big Gay Heart" has been changed for radio to "duck my sick" instead of the originally planned "stroke my brick"? Why do I know these things? Why do people care? Oh, waif me. Reasons to be cheerful: the WRENS, EDSEL, DITCH WITCH, LOCUS SOLUS, PENCIL, ROLLEN, SLOWPOKE, JOHN'S BLACK DIRT, FIFTEEN and upcoming singles from Edsel and BRAINIAC on the prolific and popular Grass Records. Hey, you...get thee a copy of the new 22 BRIDES album on Zero Hour Records ("Wild In My Arms" is just delicious and "King For A Day" is one of the spookier tracks you'll hear this year)... 1. Get in car; 2. Put in CD player; 3. Drive with top down singing wildly at top of lungs; 4. Thank me later. Catch them on their cafe tour this spring...KRAMER's Secret Life Of Comedy album should be on yer desk now, along with the new single "Tattoo Of Blood" from CAPTAIN HOWDY. If you're namechecking the guy, it would behoove you to check the work darling.

Tom Gates, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077

By now you've either: A. Closed your radio station down for the summer and left to drink Pabst Blue Ribbon for three months. B. Been through exam hell and are trying to figure out how the heck you'll fill the holes in your summer schedule. Let us know what's up at you're station! You'll notice two new Roadrunner interns phoning in. "Fashionplate" Armando Bordas and "Genessee" Linda Kelso will be taking over where "Candyman" Frank Devine left off. Be nice to them. Also be nice to BLACK TRAIN JACK (You're Not Alone!), the MOON SEVEN TIMES, DIE MONSTER DIE, DOG EAT DOG and NAILBOMB. Coming early this summer: BUZZOVEN and FRONT LINE ASSEMBLY.

See the MEICES on tour with King Missile, and please, have a good time. Check your mail for a very groovy Meices display contest, you won't regret it. A new TRIPPING DAISY EP is heading your way. Live! and very hot Get It On will keep you sweating all summer. The boys are still out on the road, satisfying audiences everywhere. You should be in one of them. NEW KINGDOM, that slammin' hip-hop/alternative groove band, are on the road. Look for them everywhere. Their album, Heavy Load, has been overlooked too long. I'm sure you're all stocking Deep Six by now. Keep stocking. Thanks to all retailers filling out the time consuming survey. 'Tis very helpful. Please excuse the brevity, my softball team got killed 16-1 yesterday, and I'm still recovering.

Dave Ross, Producer, Future Flash, Atlanta, GA (404) 419-4964

Congrats to Alex Cooley and the organizers of the first annual Music Midtown Festival in Atlanta. It was a blast! Almost every flavor of music was well represented. My faves: CRACKER, the CHARLATANS, FIVE-EIGHT and JAMES. Who'da thunk it, but even the KNACK sounded great (not bad for a 14-year layoff). Thanx to Daug at Atlantic and Tim, Mark and Mark of the Charlatans, and Helen at Ichiban and Sean, Dan and Trigger of Five-Eight. Also, three cheers to Andy Solomon for making the AJO stage run like clockwork (and for his assistance to the show). Sherman burned down Atlanta in 1864, LIVE did it May 9. The Live/ANGELFISH tour is the must-see gig of 1994. Both bands were incredible. Thanx to Jim at MCA and Ed and Chad of Live, and Shirley and the boys of Angelfish, for the great interviews. What are the hot vids? The OFF-SPRING, FRANCIS DUNNERY, and the man in black, JOHNNY CASH. Attn. Publicity Depts.—we need music news! Send media kits to Future Flash, 369 W. Sandtown Road, Marietta, GA 30064: Attn. Dawn Hasta.

Lee J. Konfrst, Music Director, KDRK, Des Moines, IA (515) 271-2766

Good morning! So I've been MD for a full semester now and I'm still enjoying it (maybe that'll wear off when next year rolls around). Jason Justice, our former everything guy, has been lifted up to general manager. As for KDRK, I think we're on the right track and it's been a productive year for us. Special thanks to TRUCK STOP LOVE, the DAVE MATTHEWS BAND, THEY CAME IN DROVES, TRIPPING DAISY and any others who have visited our little basement. Thanks Amy for setting up the VALENTINE SMITH interview. Their disc is inspiring, pick it up! I had the privilege of chatting (twice!) with MATTHEW SWEET as he rolled through the area (thanks Lisa and Craig from Zoo). His fantastic studio work takes on a whole new character in his stunning live show. You can't ever miss this guy! As always, thanks to Kris from Atlantic, John from Radioactive, Dave from Want Adds, Andre from AIM, Linda from PolyGram, and anybody else I missed. As for new music, you gotta love (at least I do) LIVE, SMITHEREENS, MATERIAL ISSUE, CHARLATANS, EUGENIUS...The list goes on for miles (and it's not all pop). That's for me. As you're reading this, KDRK is off for the summer, but keep sending us the great music. Oh finally, a special thanks to SARAH McLACHLAN for creating some of the most beautifully amazing songs on her new disc. Thanks all. Okbyebye.

Crystal Lemons, Music Director, WVCW, Richmond, VA (804) 367-1057

Hey, I'd like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who contributed their time and effort helping WVCW with its first musicfest benefit. I only had three weeks to pull it all together and somehow I pulled it off and everything went great. Special thanks go out to: Revolution Promotion Management, Beth at Velvet Dwarf, Tim at Ichiban, Brett Green, the FLESHTONES, BENT, PANDORA'S LUNCHBOX, the PETALS, TRIP THUGS, POP GUN, CARMINE, the SEYMORES, BUCKET, FULFLEJ, BLOTTO DIABLE, LAZY CAIN, MATCHBOOK POETS, TOTEM HEAD and LATENT IMAGE. Thanks to Steve Douglas for giving us the time and space at Twister's. Watch out because in the fall we're planning yet more musical maddness, only this time you have much more warning, so be prepared for my phone call. I can't express just how grateful I am for everyone working with me on such short notice, all of you are amazing and wonderful! If you read this and are interested in the festivities for the fall, please feel free to call or write me at WVCW, to the attention of Crystal Lemons, music director and promotions coordinator extraordinaire. I look forward to seeing everyone again in the fall, and meeting those of you who become involved in the next musicfest benefit. Keep listening, 'cause we're on all summer long, for your musical enjoyment. Once again thank you to everyone that had a part in making this benefit a success. I'll be talking to you soon.

Adam Potts, Music Director, KYMC, Chesterfield, MO (314) 530-0981

I had to ask myself this question, if Murphy can make a law isn't he smart enough to keep it to himself? My sad story condensed: I couldn't get to a fax machine on the ninth. Now, I find myself staring at three blank Adventure Picks. This simply will not do. Music, music, music, the next generation is born, new DAVID BYRNE a necessity. No more waiting for a new single from THERAPY?. Same with the DENTISTS. Both spinning often here. Another five inch from CATHERINE WHEEL shows the strength of Chrome. MAZZY STAR fading into view. A suggestion from our local scene, the BURNT NERVENDS new CD Marrow on Inertia. Plus, also, don't forget, others: BLUR, THE CHURCH, INSPIRAL CARPETS, GEGGY TAH, the DYLANDS, GREEN DAY, STANFORD PRISON EXPERIMENT, SONIC YOUTH. SARAH McLACHLAN/DEVILINS tour is a must see. The stations operates through the summer so keep it coming. Reps: If your band is touring through the St. Louis area, we have a "plush" 370 seat theater (call me Mondays 9:30 a.m.-11:30 a.m. Central time). The answer to my question: He tried to keep it to himself, but the law effected him first.

Rob Radencic, General Manager/Alternative Music Director, WFSE, Edinboro, PA (814) 732-2526

Well boys and girls. My time has come to say goodbye. After two years as the alternative music director at WFSE, the graduation monster finally gripped his deb-hovin' fangs into me. Who'd of thunk it? A few parting shots on my way out the door: Thanks a billion to all of those record-reps who really cared enough to go the distance for their bands. Carl at Generic, Amy from AIM Marketing (that even sounds cute), Rich at I.R.S....er, uh, 4AD! These are just a few of the people who really care about their work. There are many others who may have helped along the way: A&M, Sony, Capitol...too many good companies and people to name here. Thank you all for your support over the last two years...As for me, I'm headed over to WDVE as a summer production intern—feel free to look me up! After that I'll be in need of a good radio job...This summer, WFSE has a limited staff and probably won't have anyone to talk to about alternative music. Please fax us at (814) 732-2427 until at least September. Adds faxed Monday mornings will surely be considered promptly...A final thought: remember, it's not about money. It's about music. Music is art—life can be as well. It all depends on how you live it. Once again—thanks for the memories folks.

Cort and Brian productions are pleased to present the final penis report. This is the final chronicle of the great penis, for Cort is moving on to bigger and fuzzier things. Johanna Hooley will be our new music director, and she will continue with her own penis report. Cort's penis is currently in Gorazde, Bosnia, being used as an anti-aircraft gun. Thank God that embargo is being lifted. There has been a mistake in the papers. Nelson Mandela is not the new president of South Africa, it's Brian's penis. It won by a landslide. It promised to govern with an iron-load. There is so much good music out there it is redicu-lous: MAGGIE ESTEP, BLACK TRAIN JACK, LIVE and BOINGO rule. Thank you Carter for always cutting us loose on all the best shit. Kris at Atlantic is awesome and so is FRENTE! Kris, congrats on your recent wedding. We will have summer air time, and will keep you posted. Keep the good shit flowing. Cort would like to bid you all a fond farewell, and may the stars, planets and my penis align to create peace in the universe.

Kim Gentry, Co-Rock Director, KBVR, Corvallis, OR (503) 737-3640

Okay, here's the scoop. Jen and I are students first, rock directors second, so please don't hassle us because we haven't listened to your CD yet. We are trying our damndest to listen to everything, but it's hard to do when you are also trying to finish papers, study for tests, hold another job, have a meaningful relationship with a significant other, etc. So get off our backs! Thanks to those of you who have been very nice to us, like Patrick at Relax Productions, Leslie at Imago, and Sivan at TVT. No thanks to those of you who act like sand in a butt crack; irritating and hard to get rid of...I'm writing the music reviews for Oregon State's newspaper, The Daily Barometer. If you want to know if I've reviewed your band's CD, or get a copy of a review, let me know and I will fax or mail it to you...We have an E-mail address. It is KBVR-fmm@ccmail.orst.edu. Feel free to e-mail us. Jen or I try to check it every couple of days. I think everyone should check out THIRTY OUGHT SIX's first CD on Candy Ass Records. It is one of the best CD's I've ever heard, and I've heard a lot of music. Candy Ass is a small label in Portland, OR. If you need their address or phone, give us a call or E-mail.

Ernie Torres, Music Director/Graphic Design Major, WXAV, Chicago, IL (312) 779-9858

How much attention is paid to cover art on CDs? Undoubtedly the music comes first, but I believe there should be a strong relationship between the design and the finished musical product. Good design has always been a strong influence in my decisions to purchase/listen to new music. For the most part, the majority of good design comes from the techno genre. Some of my favorite CD designs are: most superb and above all is the work by Nick Philip of Rise Communications for Silent Records, MEPHISTO WALTZ, APHEX TWIN, MORTAL (excellent overall packaging design) and the stunning work of Projekt Records. Could it be that I'm just a bored music director?

Andy Giovanni, Rock Director, WDOM, Providence, RI (401) 865-2460

I'm done. That's it. I've left the building, folks, and I'm not coming back! In fact, you'll never guess where I'm going—that is, if you haven't already heard. Come August, I will begin an all-expenses-paid, volunteer/intern position at KNOM in Nome, Alaska. I hope you will all keep me updated as to what is going on, because not much happens up there...except dog mushing. But don't knock that...it's a growing sport! I am planning to eventually be in a commercial radio programming position, so I want to keep the relations—or should I say friendships—that I have made with all you crazy record company people. Big thanks to you all for making my time as a music director most enjoyable. After August 20, write me at KNOM, Box 988, Nome, AK 99762. Meanwhile, I would like to send my best wishes to WDOM and its new director staff. The station should be on, at least intermittently, over the summer. This should pick up in June. Ask Ken, the new GM, who the new music directors are. See ya.

Benjamin A. Knight, Music Director, KXLU, Los Angeles, CA (310) 338-2875

Gerard Cosloy, let's have some fun. Gerard states: "We [he] merely challenged them [FURTHER] to a knife fight (they declined)." That was not all he said, I seem to remember something about wanting to hit them over the head with a tire iron. Of course, they declined, they aren't violent idiots like yourself. Now we all know why you dress like a jock, it's 'cause you think like one. Even if they had fought you, the Matlantic Secret Service would have called in the Matlantic SWAT team moments after the first punch. Then Further would have been arrested by the Matlantic police for kicking your Matlantic ass. Do you really expect me to believe that you talked about Further for any other reason than out of fear for being stuck talking about something as uninteresting as ENVELOPE? Finally, if you really wanted to kick Further's ass, why didn't you just do it when they were opening for your biggest band? Were you afraid of pissing off PAVEMENT, who really enjoyed Further, despite what the boss jock thought. Also, you forgot to mention SEBADOH (who also like Further...a lot) when making your typical, unimaginative assessment of Further's music. Everyone compares them to DINOSAUR and Sebadoh. Get with it! Or is it just that you just don't like Sebadoh 'cause you think they sound just like Envelope. Besides, anyone who does like Envelope has tongue way too far up your ass to articulate why. Oops, 250 words! Peace and love.

Jason Pates, Music Director, KMBU, Malibu, CA (310) 456-4132

"Where do you get the energy?" a man wondered aloud during KRISTEN HERSH's recent show at the Roxy (thanks Rich and Jay). Kristen had just invited the seated audience to her second show later that evening in the Viper Room. "Does it look like I have a lot of energy?" she replied from her barstool, which was the only thing on stage besides Kristen and her guitar. I think I get his question though. If you've seen Hersh perform, it does seem that she goes through intense emotional therapy each show. The MUSES may go down as one of the most under-appreciated bands ever. It's still cool to get new stuff from grizzled vets like SONIC YOUTH and the PRETENDERS. Hynde, Gordon and Hersh all still have something to say...don't take them for granted. They won't be around forever. Speaking of being around, Dorian's graduated, and I'm the new music director. We'll miss her, but come fall we may let her DJ as she attends Pepperdine Law School. I think the 2-6 a.m. shift is available (kidding of course, Miss D.). KMBU is now in the summer swing of things. Give me a buzz by noon...I should be around.

Ken Viste, Outgoing MD, KDIC, Grinnell, IA (515) 269-3335

Because I am sad and have much finals week stress, I will make this quick...As of May 13, KDIC is off the air for the summer—we will return sometime in late August. I am very sorry that I have not returned the last several weeks of calls—in preparing for a place to live after graduating, and writing the papers that will let me graduate, I have not had the time I once had to do stuff up here. Which is unfortunate, as working in college radio has been the consistent highlight of my four years here at Grinnell. As I leave, I'd like to thank all the reps that have helped us out over the last two years—we finally have a station that Grinnell College can take pride in. Special thanks to all the reps that keep it all in perspective, and to the radio stations that have the integrity to balance a commitment to new music with a dedication to not labeling themselves—and most of all, to the musicians that put out everything we're ultimately concerned with. I'll miss this, but, hey, maybe I'll be on the other end of that phone sometime soon...Thanks.

Brendan M. Gillen III, Music Director, WCBN, Ann Arbor, MI (313) 763-3501

I used to really hate the French, in a very stereotypical kind of way. Though I loved French new wave, authors, artists, filmmakers, I found their rude ways and snotty attitude to be deplorable. And their music...what music? I recall walking around Paris, just having left one of the world's finer esoteric bookstores La Scarabe D'Or looking for a NME to see what shows were going on. Asking at a magazine stand for a NME resulted in blank stares and annoyance. It wasn't until I realized that I need to ask for a N Emme Euh that I found out I could catch the first show of the SONIC YOUTH/NIRVANA tour in Cork. I did, it was excellent, but that's not the point. France has some superb music of its own. Much of my favorite new music is out of that crazy place. You can always count on Breton musique, wonderful French Celtic music. Paris has a strong underground contingent with the ex FNAC now F Communications artists LAURENT GARNIER and LUDIVOC NEVAREE doing excellent trance, deep house and acid cuts. Some real funky phat beats, too, via LA FUNK MOB who have an amazing double pack on Mo Wax of hard funk acid jazz grooves. And MC SOLAAR's new LP is incredible. Beyond France...I just listened to the new FALL. Some excellent stuff, but maybe it wasn't Brix after all.

Jen Matson, Music Director, WHRB, Cambridge, MA (617) 496-4936

By the time you read this, WHRB's spring Orgy season will have come and gone, large blocks of predetermined musical programming will give way to...silence. At least for awhile. WHRB will be off the air starting June 10, at which time the last remnants of our station will be moved out of the building. Whether WHRB will be back on the air before, say, late August is still uncertain. Until we get fully settled into our new home, continue to send us things at 45 Quincy St., Cambridge, MA 02143; phone me at the above voice mail number. (I've currently discontinued my office hours, as the virtual lack of a phone and the very tangible lack of parking have prevented me from carrying out my duties in the station at the appointed time.) And if you get frustrated trying to find one of the few free message slots on my voice mail, all you wired individuals can e-mail me at jmatson@delphi.com...Those on our mailing list should soon be receiving copies of our Top 50s for the months of March and April. Indie labels, dominate, natch. Two new Queenie artists succeed in mining a different girl-rock vein: SEX-POD, whose high energy tunes roused a good chunk of the relatively stoic crowd assembled for headliners COME at a gig earlier this year, and the equally spirited COBALT, fronted by Yasmin Kuhn and Tara Key.

JELLO BIAFRA ASSAULTED AT ROCK SHOW

Jello Biafra was brutally attacked by as many as seven people on Saturday, May 7, at 924 Gilman, a club in Berkeley, CA, during a show. A dancer at the show who had been throwing people into the club's furniture landed with his full weight on Biafra's leg. When Jello stood up, his leg buckled backwards from the break. When Jello asked the person responsible to identify himself, the person refused to step forward but told Biafra that he had no regrets about the injury because Jello was a "rich rock star." An argument followed, during the course of which Biafra was thrown to the floor, held down and kicked repeatedly in the head. During the assault, attackers shouted "Rock star!" and "Sellout." Unfortunately, Gilman security and most of the audience were unable to respond or help, drawn outside by another unrelated fight. Berkeley police are still searching for the attackers. The injuries sustained by Biafra will require extensive knee surgery and rehabilitation, which will last a year or longer. The prognosis for a full recovery is hopeful. His Canadian spoken word tour has been cancelled. CMJ wishes him a speedy recovery.
