Andy Partridge & Harold Budd:

Ancient Sound Of Swindon

Listening to XTC's Andy Partridge and minimalist composer Harold Budd converse reveals how these disparate performers collaborated musically on Through The Hill (Gyroscope-Caroline). After it was suggested that they were something like two ill-fitted dance partners, the obvious question arose: Who leads? "The one in the middle," Partridge answers without missing a beat. Partridge chooses his words expertly and can take any phrase or response and twist it into something wickedly funny or terribly perverted, or both. Budd plays the straight man, speaking slowly, softly and genuinely, often beginning his sentences with "Well, I must confess..."

So, the other obvious question: Why did they do a record together? Says Partridge, "We both liked the ludicrous idea of working together for no other reason than it sounded preposterously incongruous." Incongruous indeed, yet after a brief improvisatory session the two began to assemble a dense framework for what would become Through The Hill.

"We started out not knowing what the hell we were doing," says Partridge, explaining the process. "We were both totally blind in an all-black room."

"We spent about six weeks on the phone and faxing," says Budd. "Very detailed faxes about ideas...and the more mad and the more irresponsible the better."

"I sent Harold some things that would offend your inlaws," Partridge offers.

Budd continues, "We had what I called a macrostructure..."

"Actually a mackerel structure," Partridge interrupts.

"...And we started to get images that went with titles that we thought were potent, that would really suggest music," says Budd.

Through The Hill has more than a few ponderous track titles. Try: "Hand 19," "Well For The Sweat Of The Moon" or "Missing Pieces To The Game Of Salt And Onyx." Derived and inspired from actual titles of illustrations Partridge found in historical texts, the titles suggested vivid ideas on what sort of sounds should go with each track. How could one not be inspired by a title like "Bronze Coins Showing Genitals?"

The two had discussed the skeleton of the record in such mathematical detail that the studio recording was fairly brisk. As Budd put it, "The CD was already manufactured, we just didn't have any music for it yet."

Partridge concurs: "After dozens of faxes, hundreds of titles, suggestions, drawings and whatever, a planet was formed out of this whirling mess."

Not surprisingly, the disc follows a topographical, architectural and archeological pattern. "We saw [the record] developing a tripartite form going from large structures down to medium sized ones down to microstructures, i.e. artifacts that you could hold in your hand," says Budd. Part one is labeled Geography, with pieces about hills, islands and valleys, reducing to Structures, such as wells and bridges, and ending with Artifacts, including as coins and game pieces.

Budd, a pianist who has collaborated with Brian Eno and the Cocteau Twins, has made terrifically sparse records in the past that rarely rise above a whisper, a style seemingly in contrast to that of Partridge, whose work with XTC is often of the highest studio concept. But as accustomed as he is to what he does, Partridge was able to let go a bit with Budd. Partridge, an aging dog who had never had trouble learning new tricks, learned to sit quietly in front of the fire for a change.

"Harold has the knack for underornamenting," says Partridge. "It's something I must work towards. I've had loads of fun putting brass fineals, cherubs, cupids and drapes on everything in the past and now I'd like to take them all down, get the shotgun and blast a few holes in the brick wall."

There are such sonic "holes" on Through The Hill—wide-open musical spaces that are beautiful in spots and oddly dark in others. Both men found the Hammond organ immensely gratifying for conveying such spacious moods. Partridge sums up his feelings about said keyboard: "Certain instruments are so beautiful that in their presence—well, its like a huge-breasted woman—you're magnetically drawn, your fingers aching to get your hands on them..."

As Budd influenced Partridge, so Partridge influenced Budd, who admits his work ethic improved as a result of the collaboration. "I like very much [Partridge's] attitude of not taking anything for granted and the refusal to be lazy."

"Actually, I think what Harold's referring to," says Partridge, interrupting again, "is the fact that I'd come in in the morning and say 'Harold, you're facing the wrong way. The piano's behind you!' And suddenly things improved immeasurably."

ON THE COVER JACKPOT!

Essential New Music

STEREOLAB Mars Audiac Quintet (Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—On its fifth album in three years, Stereolab has stripped away most of the avant-garde ornament of its recent efforts and created a wondrous album of streamlined pop, recalling the simplicity of its early releases, but with a more mature poise and sophistication; the group has refined and integrated its overt Velvet Underground and Neu influences into a more individual sound. To its characteristic gorgeous melodies and unhurried Farfisa-organ driven chug, Stereolab has added subtle horn lines, more intricate vocal diva Lucia Pamela. As usual, Laetitia Sadier's lovely voice, the warm and bubbly synthesizers and the infectious toe-tapping beat make Stereolab's latest a joy to listen to again and again.

harmonies and antic Casio samba rhythms. The frequently wordless or French vocals make it easy to overlook the lyrical content, but the words are deserving of scrutiny. The single, "Ping Pong," with pseudo-'60s pop sappiness and "don't worry be happy" lyrics, ironically derides laissez-faire capitalism, and "International Colouring Contest" is a delightful paean to crackpot outer-space

MAGNAPOP Hot Boxing (Play It Again Sam, c/o Priority, 6430 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028/213-467-0151)—There's one cigarette and two people. Anxious and nervous, you trade off drags to pass the time, fighting your anticipation. You inhale and allow the nicotine rush to take hold of your senses before passing the smoke to your companion. Just as the initial high starts to recede, the butt is returned to your hand, rejuvenating your simple pleasure once again. This is hot boxing, a slang term salvaged from the '50s that captures all the edgy euphoria found on Magnapop's sophomore LP. The band's songs exist in shared moments of instant gratification, short and packed with flavor, slightly acerbic but wonderfully sweet and satisfying nonetheless. With kudos going to the production talents of Bob Mould, Hot Boxing effectively captures the boundless energy, unrelenting melody and celebratory pop smarts that mark Magnapop's live shows. When Linda Hopper injects her ebullient vocals into songs like "Lay It Down," "The Crush" or "Here It Comes," stacked to the ceiling with Ruthie Morris' serrated two-chord guitar chug, you get the feeling she knows something we don't. Then, the almost devilish pleasure in her delivery is revealed when the song's colossal (read: magna) hook smacks you in the face.

arrangement and made it their own. The crisp precision of their jazz upbringing informs instrumentals such as "Peel" and "Postcard," as well as slow-paced numbers like "Wicked Ways" and moody tunes like "Even Time"; the band's pop bent shines on the sprightly "Miss Maple" and the near-perfect two-plus-minutes of "2000," featuring one of the catchiest guitar lines we've heard this year.

COCTAILS Peel (Carrot Top, 3716 N. Greenview, Chicago, IL 60613/312-348-2523)—The Coctails initially made a name for themselves with kitschy, '60s-style packaging and related goodies, including a custom-made calendar and dolls styled like each Coctail member, but soon enough people were equally intrigued by the quartet's jazz/rock dialectic. The last Coctails album, Long Sound, was an exercise in contemporary jazz, sparkling with vibes and horns, and while Peel isn't the band's first pop-oriented album, it's probably its finest. Here, on their fourth LP, the Coctails have seized the guitar/bass/drums

Like the Sneetches, the Coctails are intrinsically nostalgic, but transcend nostalgia's limitations with sheer ingenuity. With Peel, this remarkably adept and inventive band has come into its own, concocting a summer refreshment with the perfect balance of sweet and sour.

—Lydia Anderson

JEFFREY GAINES Somewhat Slightly Dazed (Chrysalis, c/o EMI, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104)—Jeffrey Gaines' second release incorporates sweet, winsome melodies, powerfully earnest vocals and acoustic guitars, further refining his pop songwriting and delivery. As on his debut, Gaines' enthusiasm for songwriting and love of the roots of pop shines through, from the Elvis Costello-ish first single, "I Like You," to the Bowie strains of "Sweet Janine" back to Costello again on "Safety In Self." What Gaines has that other songwriters do not is a strong, emotional voice; he can carry off all of the passion in his lyrics because it manifests itself in his vocals. The production, although obvious, is never overbearing, even when strings are used, as on "You Believe In Me"; rather, the production is like a piece of designer clothing: so simple it has to be pricey and complex. While Gaines isn't reinventing the pop wheel, he's doing a great job at sustaining its life in the current pop milieu. Start with the first single and wait for all the rest of the songs to follow.

ED KUEPPER The Butterfly Net (Hot, c/o Restless, 1616 Vista Del Mar Ave., Hollywood, CA 90028-6420/612-874-2424)—

With hardly anybody in the U.S. noticing, Australia's Ed Kuepper (pronounced "Cooper") has made some of the best (and hardest to find) no-nonsense rock albums of the past few years. Thankfully, Restless has seen fit to license several of them and plans to put out Kuepper's new album in the fall. The Butterfly Net captures highlights from this prolific songwriter's solo albums of the late-'80s and early-'90s. Kuepper's diverse projects have been an enormous influence on the pop scenes of Australia and New Zealand: From '76-'78, he was a member of the seminal punk group, the Saints, who pre-dated the Sex Pistols; the group's early output, particularly "(I'm) Stranded," still sounds vital today. Since then, Kuepper led the lesser-known, but still wonderful, Laughing Clowns ('79-'85), who produced odder jazz-inflected songs, and the Aints ('91-present), whose repertoire includes Saints songs and lengthy, driving Stooges-flavored originals. His solo albums are in a more straightforward, acoustic rock vein, adorned by slick, elaborate arrangements of horns, piano and backing vocals which generally don't overwhelm his unmistakable deep voice, acerbic lyrics and catchy melodies. Butterfly collection: "Black Ticket Day," "It's Lunacy," "Electrical Storm" and "Everything's Fine."
—David Newgarden

RIPE The Plastic Hassle (Beggars Banquet, 274 Madison Ave., Ste. 804, New York, NY 10016/212-889-9595)—Although The Plastic Hassle is the first stateside release by Melbourne's Ripe, the band has contributed more than its share to Australia's indie scene with numerous domestic singles, EPs, compilation tracks and a full-length album. Preceded by a 7" single on Sub Pop, The Plastic Hassle fits comfortably into the Anglophilic mold established by its new label, Beggars Banquet. Characterized by a warm, reverb-soaked live sound, the album takes eight songs (three of which break the six-minute mark) through 45 minutes of murky, guitar-filled moods and enigmatic pop conventions. Imagine The Church's wistful flourishes paired with Teenage Fanclub's steady pop yearning further knotted by Sonic Youth's adventuresome tunings and you'll begin to get the picture. Songs like "Something Fierce" and the title track meander in thick waters, while the 10-minute closer "Daylight Wants To Kill" and the acoustically peppered "Centre Of The Universe" blossom with a tumbling, dynamic struggle, building and shifting their intensity with supernatural compulsion.—Colin Helms

BATS Spill The Beans (EP) (Flying Nun, c/o Mammoth, Carr Mill, 2nd Fl., Carrboro, NC 27510/919-932-1882)—A longtime New Zealand pop force, the Bats have made a name for themselves with their sugary melodies layered with Robert Scott's pensive, subdued lyrics. Noticeably darker than last year's Silverbeet, Spill The Beans still glistens with a charming pop personality, from the familiar jangle of "Make It Clear" to the plaintive title track. "Give In To The Sands" is a disarming ballad, most affecting during its male and female harmonizing chorus. With four of the five tracks recorded in America and featuring some extra guitar work from Superchunk's Mac McCaughan, the Bats avoid sounding Americanized, the wah-wah guitar on the title track fitting right into the mix rather than overwhelming it. The Bats are the most straightforward of the acclaimed Flying Nun scene, and Spill The Beans is an engaging showcase of their deftness in crafting simple, delectable pop.

—Bryan McNamara

DA BRAT Funkdaffled (So So Def, c/o Chaos, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Women who fit Apache's description of a "Gangsta Bitch" have had very few female artists to relate to in the male-dominated hip-hop arena. Boss' gats-'n'-guns' tormenting probably came out too late to profit from the post-Straight Outta Compton invasion of gangster rap. Now that Dr.

Dre and Snoop Doggy Dogg have re-defined West Coast rap, opting for slo-flow (but still hard), '70s funk-inspired vignettes, Chicago's Da Brat is part of a new breed of female MCs who, along with tougher artists like Lady Of Rage, give rap female equivalents to the mellow, G-funked sounds of the street with their confident rhymes. To ensure her recent top 15 debut on Billboard's album chart, Da Brat recruited producer/rapper, Jermaine Dupri (Kris Kross, Xscape) to surround her street-savvy boasting and funk-ed-out threats with well-oiled, hook-heavy beats that are both danceable and jeep-ready. The first single "Funkdafied" launched her debut out on a good foot with a silky Isley Brothers sample, though the best parts of Funkdafied are when she fires off bold, crafty wordplay ("My shit is what the niggas like/Gangster-ass funk is all we write") instead of routine, gangster posing, which just isn't convincing. Funk it up: "Fa All Y'all," "May Da Funk Be Wit 'Cha" and the Lenny Kravitz-sampled "Come And Get Some," featuring Kris Kross' Mac Daddy. —Glen Sansone

ARTHUR RUSSELL Another Thought (Point, c/o PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Arthur Russell wasn't a composer, producer, performance artist or cellist; he was a cloud made human, a wisp made flesh. His records, mostly on labels that are now defunct, were wondrous, dreamy affairs, meditative, elegiac and sublime. A curiously dichotomous individual, Russell released some of the most fondly-remembered dance singles in the early '80s NYC club milieu (such as Loose Joints' "Is It All Over My Face" or his own "Let's Go Swimming" and "Go Bang"), but his solo work was another world entirely. The central element of it was a bowed cello run through an echoplex: simple enough, but the effect is eerily haunting when coupled with his heartbreakingly sincere, plaintively emotive vocals. Sung in a naked, vulnerable, Muppet-like voice, Russell's poetic and abstract lyrics could run the gamut from poignant to playful, often blending a touch of whimsy undermined with sadness and a melancholy tone. Even though Russell died of AIDS in 1992, his unusual vision lives on in this compilation of previously-unreleased compositions. The fact that his music went largely ignored at the time says more about the nature of the '80s than it does about his talent—since he emerged on the scene, others have followed with similar-sounding experiments and ideas, and the concepts he pushed forward have become more accepted and commonplace today. They don't make many visionaries, and even though his creation was a world of sound, Arthur Russell was as visionary as they come. —James Lien

KILLING JOKE Pandemonium (Big Life, c/o Zoo, 6363 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028)—As the forefathers of menacing, brutish industrial music, the reunited members of Killing Joke have a lot to prove on their latest record, some 15 years after their first release. The uphill climb is due in part to bands like Nine Inch Nails, Ministry and Tool raising the standards and expectations of pummeling electro-angst rock. Pandemonium aims somewhere between the brittle rhythms of NIN and the meaty punches of, say, the Rollins Band, and more often than not, hits that mark with strong results. In truth, the band is far too diverse (hell, KJ's Youth has worked with the Orb and Crowded House) to get pegged as an NIN disciple or something that simplistic; Jaz Coleman, Youth and Geordie are clearly their own reference points. Surprisingly, melodic tracks like "Millennium," "Jana" and "Exorcism" show that Killing Joke (tough as it may seem) has managed to widen the scope of the genre it helped to create. —Steve Ciabattoni go absolutely ape over the sound of guitars—three big, noisy guitars—strummed, scraped, and strangled, draped on top of simple pop songs. The sounds of My Bloody Valentine or Rollerskate Skinny's ethereal racket will put you in the ballpark, but the Filmstars are much, much rawer (this record was reportedly recorded and mixed in a little over a week), obsessively perfect layered arrangements eschewed in favor of a more visceral feeling (think MBV crossed with Come). The term psychedelic, vague though it is, could be applied to many of Laid Back...'s cuts, but if hallucinogens are a motivator for these guys, they seem to prefer their LSD sloppy, cut with plenty of speed and strychnine. At least one guitar always seems on the verge of careening out of control, the results often unnerving, skittish, or just plain ugly.

BEATNIK FILMSTARS Laid Back And English (La-di-da America, P.O. Box 202, Peter Stuyvesant Station, New York, NY 10009-9998)—However elusive this band's moniker may be (perhaps they had Burt Convy's role in Roger Corman's beatnik horror film A Bucket Of Blood in mind?), the sound of Beatnik Filmstars' Laid Back And English is pretty easy to grasp. The Filmstars

LOVE SPIT LOVE Love Spit Love (Imago, Carnegie Hall Tower, 152 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019)—If you were wondering what had happened to Psychedelic Furs' frontman, Richard Butler, Love Spit Love—or "lahv spit lahv" as it'd no doubt be delivered in Butler's British, raspy drawl—is his first new project since the late '80s dissolution of the Furs. Though it's easy to get swept away in the imagery of Butler's concocted world full of dumbwaiters, scratchy old victrola records, eternal rainy afternoons and hallucinogenic dinner parties, it might be fruitful to consider the real-life story at hand. The Furs might have lost their way towards the end (only Tim Butler is now on board from the band), but Love Spit Love plants Butler firmly back in the camp of the vintage Furs of yore, recalling Forever Now or even the first album. Not only is the time right for Butler to come full circle in a personal sense, but, luckily, the world has come along as well, and pop culture these days is far more prepared for something as genuinely strange as Butler's weird world. Butler rasps, draws, nags, whines, even blabbering "tawk tawk tawk tawk" in "Superman," "Jigsaw" sounds like Cracker covering a Brecht/Weill song, and "Codeine" is nice too (it's not the Buffy St. Marie song, but we've love to hear him try it), recalling the demented, frumpy, opium-addict-in-a-frock characters of Talk Talk Talk. Also try: "Wake Up" and "Seventeen."

ZILLATRON Lord Of The Harvest/SLAVE MASTER Under The Six/O.G. FUNK Out Of The Dark/HARDWARE Third Eye Open/BUDDY MILES EXPRESS Hell And Back (Black Arc, c/o Rykodisc, Pickering Wharf Bldg. C-3G, Salem, MA 01970/508-744-7678)—The Black Arc label,

a new Bill Laswell-constructed imprint, is certainly not just the minor-league bullpen beneath the ambitious perfectionism of his more established Axiom label, nor is it just a dumping site for the scraps and bits of stuff swept up off the studio floor after other sessions, either. Although the name has reggae connotations (Black Ark was the name of Lee "Scratch" Perry's legendary recording studio), it's a bold new vision of the future of funk, drawing elements from the musical past and future and recombining them alchemically to create even more potent explosions. O.G. Funk is a project featuring P-Funk alumni Billy "Bass" Nelson, Jerome "Bigfoot" Brailey and Bernie Worrell, with rap and vocal cameos from Grandmaster Melle Mel (listen in particular for Brailey's rock-solid kick drum that earned him his nickname). The peak is on "Music For My Brother," a tribute to Eddie Hazel, but the momentum is quickly lost on "I've Been Alone" after it; even so, any of the other tracks are strongly recommended. Slave Master is a Living Colour-ish black funk project fronted by Islam Shabazz and Bill McKinney, which shows great promise. Hardware, a trio fronted by guitarist Stevie Salas with Bootsy Collins and Buddy Miles, is an exciting, intoxicating blast of post-Hendrix funk rock: tune into "Got A Feelin'" or "The Walls Came Down" to hear what Living Colour and Mother's Finest should sound like. Then there's the welcome return of venerable Jimi Hendrix drummer Buddy Miles, at the helm of a revamped Buddy Miles Express, delivering possibly the best album of his career. But by far the real prize here is Bootsy Collins' cameo on Zillatron's Lord Of The Harvest. Like a Japanese cartoon version of Cream, it teams Bootsy, in full space-bass gear, with mutant guitar whiz Buckethead, Bill Laswell, Melle Mel and the Last Poets' Umar Bin Hasson. It's a truly wild album, a must-hear (perhaps even upstaging his own solo album due on Ryko later this year), and one of the finest, most-unbridled blasts of Bootsy-ism to be released in many a moon.

TWO DOLLAR GUITAR Let Me Bring You Down (Smells Like, P.O. Box 6179, Hoboken, NJ 07030)—The title of the first full-length release from Tim Foljahn's (ex-Mosquito, Half Japanese) new project, Two Dollar Guitar, explains it all. Let Me Bring You Down travels to the bottom of the woeful soul, and wanders about pondering despair and exploring blues. Foljahn has the deep, lonely vocal tones of Mark Lanegan, but looks and plays like Beck. Though Sonic Youth's Steve Shelley plays drums on a few tracks and a few other musicians add other bits of instrumentation, Two Dollar Guitar remains a solitary effort. The songs focus on the bleak sounds of Foljahn's guitar, pushing the album's emphasis further into the darkness. The songs occasionally stretch towards an excitable tone as in "Snare," but the majority of Let Me Bring You Down offers little uplifting relief, remaining focused throughout. "December Song"'s cry of "December's icy hand is comin' down on me" evokes the helplessness of a snowbound lost soul. Bringing us down (in the best possible way): "Interlude," "Small And Hard" and "Star Sixty."

BUZZOVEN Sore (Roadrunner, 536 Broadway, 4th Fl., New York, NY 10012/212-219-0077)—Buzzoven has the unusual ability of being outrageously noisy, obnoxious and gross all in one show. Slithering upwards from North Carolina, the band formed about three and a half years ago from the remnants of Sewer Puppet. Live, the band's members always cause an upset, either by destroying equipment or making themselves bleed. The lyrics are gritty, with references to hatred, heartache, drug abuse, suicide, hopelessness and frustration. Billy Anderson (Steel Pole Bath Tub, Melvins, Sleep and J Church) maxed out his eardrum capacity to produce Buzzoven's latest violence-induced release Sore. Sore's thudding dirge should broaden the band's following beyond the cult that has been trailing their blood for years. Not for the easily shocked, Buzzoven's Sore festers in all the right places.

MOUSE ON MARS Vulvaland (Too Pure, 3A Highbury Crescent, N5 1RN, U.K./071-609-2415)—The direct progenitors of techno were Brian Eno and the Chicago types who created house, so people tend to think that techno comes in two flavors: dance (if it has a beat) and ambient (if it doesn't). German duo Mouse On Mars uses electronic instruments and creates extended, evolving patterns with them, but there the similarity to either camp ends. The group draws more on the legacy of Can ("Augmn," in particular, is a big influence on tracks like the lengthy "Katang" and the endless, nameless extra track that follows it) and late-period Art Of Noise (the way familiar sounds are made unfamiliar and vice versa). One other important influence is paid tribute to here: "Die

Seele Von Brian Wilson," a gently percolating piece with tiny, decontextualized vocal samples, suggests that Mouse On Mars has paid close attention to Wilson's neglected side—pieces like "Pet Sounds" that built fertile sound-environments that weren't tied to melodies. Although Vulvaland is full of supple rhythms, it isn't dance music; although it's soft and blurry around its tone-bent edges, it can't sink into your environment like ambient music. It is an environment, almost three-dimensional, big enough to explore or get lost in. Squeak to: "Future Dub," the single "Frosch," and the didgeridoo-laced "Uah."

JACK BREWER AND BAZOOKA Saved From Death In The Dream World (New Alliance, P.O. Box 1389, Lawndale, CA 90260/310-430-6838)—The product of a one-hour studio experiment between poet Jack Brewer and jazz outfit Bazooka, Saved From Death In The Dream World is a superb tribute to occasionally ignoring convention, relying on instinct instead. Brewer has made a career of exploring the fringe, from his days fronting the seminal SoCal art punk band Saccharine Trust to his own Jack Brewer Band. He has an uncanny ability to brave the unforgiving tides of improvisation, and his forceful, preacher-on-speed voice is fluid in its ability to either take the lead or accompany the fray. Almost magical in duplicating the dark, smoke-filled aura of a jazz club, Saved From Death... harkens back to the beat era music-meets-poetry experiments chronicled on Rhino's Beat Generation box set. "The Sinister Rain" describes both music and lyrics, driving melodically before leaving Brewer to duel with only the saxophone. "Spacious Kitchen of Your Passion" is a dark commentary on life and religion: "It's a bullshit world," Brewer muses, egged on by the brooding cacophony. Perhaps the most gripping aspect of the album is its ability to remain coherent even in its most chaotic and challenging moments, genuine proof of the beauty in spontaneity.

HAKIM BEY T.A.Z. (Axiom, c/o Island, 400 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10003/212-

995-7891)—Like most ambitious undertakings, Hakim Bey's T.A.Z. begins early on with a revelation: "No, listen, what happened was this. They lied to you. Sold you ideas of good and evil, gave you distrust of your body, and shame for your prophethood of chaos...mesmerized you with inattention, and bored you with civilization..." Although the premise of this Bill Laswell-produced CD is fairly simple—author Hakim Bey reads excerpts from his book T.A.Z. (published by Autonomedia Press)—the truth of the matter is far deeper than that. For beyond Bey's ideas, T.A.Z. the CD represents an interesting and innovative development—the pairing of ambient music with information. The basic gist of it all—that true rebellion and freedom exist in "temporary autonomous zones" free from totalitarian intervention—is interesting and significant, but not without its drawbacks. On the one hand, anarchy itself is very cool, but on the other, it's often an excuse to make it easier for pedophiles, hate-mongers and genuine crazy people to have their way, and these are the people who give anarchy a bad name. Though there's no telling whether in 10 years' time this record won't sound any more dated than Timothy Leary or Allen Ginsberg albums from the '60s, Bey's prose dazzles the mind just as the music dazzles the ears (the book is recommended, which is different than advocating that the reader follow everything it expostulates), making T.A.Z. an essential outing in the realm of ambient information.

SHOOTYZ GROOVE Jammin In Vicious Environments (Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Musicians seeking to create fresh sounds and new ideas have consistently found themselves looking to the tried and true creations of the past for inspiration. Nowhere is that more evident than in the current backlash against using computers in the studio to generate rhythm tracks. J.I.V.E., the debut hip-hop-meets-metal full-length from Bronx-based Shootyz Groove, fosters the belief that there is nothing so forceful and convincing as a live, muscular sound. The Groove even takes the concept a step further by backing its acoustic percussive stance with thick, gnashing surround-sound guitars. Yet no matter how stunningly violent these tracks might sound, the album as a whole conveys an overwhelming message of positivity, with musings and key lyrical sections of the album's songs collected in the liner notes. The dichotomy of positive/negative emotions and images keeps a nervous, yet compelling edge on dark, meandering tracks like "Walkin' In The Fog" and "Maxin' (Clockin' Z's)." —Aaron Clow

JOHN'S BLACK DIRT Perpetual Optimism Is A Force Multiplier (Grass, c/o Dutch East India, P.O. Box 800, Rockville Centre, NY 11571-0800/516-764-6200)—With its debut full-length, John's Black Dirt displays a remarkable amount of foresight and planning. While a lot of its fellow indie bands wind up banging out rocker after rocker, throwing them all together, JBD has thoughtfully placed each tune according to mood and tempo, as well as by rhythmic dynamic and key. By minimizing the standard two-to-three second gap between tracks and carefully arranging the beginnings and endings of songs, the band creates an epic-sounding record, with songs running seamlessly into one another in a meaningful and thoughtful way. While the band's members have formerly played with Mercury Rev, Mother's Day and Unrest, these former musical lives only peek through JBD's amalgam. The group's songwriting style can more fairly be compared to that of Silksworm: intelligent and deeply textured. JBD seems to have grown past the belief that speed, volume and riff are the only means to its end; its songs are full of surprising shifts and changes in a long process of development, making each one fully completed and truly satisfying at its end. Cause for optimism: "Crazy Goddamn Mad" (written about a letter by jazz legend Albert Ayler), "Congliptious," "Cloud in Pants" and "Buick." —Cheryl Botchick

SHARA NELSON What Silence Knows (Chrysalis, c/o EMI, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104)—Emerging from the silky grooves of the multi-cultural group Massive Attack, vocalist Shara Nelson gets a chance to show what she's got, without being overwhelmed by any of the rhythmic varieties her former group indulged in. Nelson's voice is more reminiscent of Smokey Robinson's than any current diva, her husky mid-timbre range able to grab all layers of emotion. The music stays in the background, providing accompaniment for Nelson's wails and moans, never becoming the focus itself. The songs are mainly slow and simple, with the basic soul rhythm and little else. Nelson's voice is distinctive enough not to require any extra fillips; by itself it is so rich that more music would have been overkill. Although What Silence Knows looks like a soul record, Nelson's artistry goes into other territories, making her meld (in style, if not sound) more like Prince's than a standard vocalist's formula. With more groups crossing musical boundaries to grab the best musicians, artists like Shara Nelson are becoming more prevalent, unable to be pigeonholed because their backgrounds are so diverse. Know this: "Pain Revisited" (very similar to Smokey's "More Love"), "Thoughts Of You" and "Inside Out."

—Megan McLaughlin

HOTEL X Residential Suite (SST, P.O. Box 1, Lawndale, CA 90260/310-430-7687)—Much like the debut release from Hotel X, A Random History Of Avant-Groove, Residential Suite is a jazz record—sort of. The instrumentation is jazz, yet the approach is funkier and bluesier than one might expect. By placing as much emphasis on its two basses as it does on its sax and drums, Hotel X creates an undeniable groove, one that's direct, like raunchy rock 'n' roll. Hotel X's niche is defined by the idea that they're not really a jazz band, yet, ironically, the strengths of Residential Suite appear in the more defined jazz tracks such as the Pharoah Sanders and Count Basie covers: The swinging, supple rhythms of those tracks unfortunately make the steady rock beats sound, in comparison, more standard than they should. A unifying strength for the whole of Residential Suite, however, is J. Ghaphery's alto sax playing; his deep squawking lines recall the swinging heyday of both bar-walking yakity-yak sax and out-there beatnik bleatings.

—Steve Ciabattini

JACKPOT EXTRA!

BREEDERS "Head To Toe" (7") (4AD, c/o Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—The Breeders' new single is available only on vinyl, and it's a departure for them in other ways as well. For one thing, none of these three songs are by Kim Deal. "Head To Toe" is a hardcore-ish original by bassist Josephine Wiggs, arranged by Luscious Jackson's Kate Schellenbach. It's followed by an excellent, bracing cover of Guided By Voices' "Shocker In Gloomtown" that emphasises the song's battering drum-fill hook. The B-side is a speedy (slightly too speedy) take on Sebadoh's "The Freed Pig"—recorded, strangely enough, with J. Mascis, about whom the song was purportedly written. —Douglas Wolk

MERCURY REV "Everlasting Arm" (5") (Big Cat (UK), P.O. Box 1561, London NW6 4SW/081-960-3702)—It's been a while since we heard from New York's Mercury Rev; Boces, its last yelp, came out over a year ago. Shortly after, singer David Baker left the band, leaving a mere quintet behind. His absence isn't all that noticeable, however; "Everlasting Arm" sports the uplifting psychedelia that defined the band's earlier releases, while "Dead Man" is a creepy, haunting tune, featuring the vocals of Suicide's Alan Vega. In typical rambling Mercury Rev style, "Dead Man" is followed by an ongoing recording of a child at play. The band's new album is due out this fall. —Dawn Sutter

LIFTER "Nova" 7" (Triple X, P.O. Box 862529, Los Angeles, CA 90086/213-221-2204)—There's a certain level of satisfaction found in a quiet verse/explosive chorus methodology. While Lifter is certainly not the first band to offer a couple of mini-anthems on a single, it'll certainly win over more than a few fans with these loose riffs and emotive vocals. On "Nova," the band skillfully uses the buzzing, dissonant lead guitar work to enhance and complement the simpler riff, while the flip ("Shutout") shows a more accessible, melodic side to its sound. Bonus points for the keen cover art. too. —Cheryl Botchick

NOTHING PAINTED BLUE "After The Housewarming" (7") (Anyway, 118 E. Patterson, Columbus, OH 43202)—If your mouth's been watering for the forthcoming Nothing Painted Blue album, Franklin Bruno and Co. have two new non-album tracks to tide you over. The scratchy sound missing from last year's Power Trips Down Lower Lane makes a much needed return here, reaffirming their strong Shrimper roots. "After the Housewarming" is a speedy pop gem, with the band's familiar jangle and Bruno's charismatic storyteller vocals. The flipside, "Love to the Third Power," is a Great Plains cover, finding NPB successful adding their enthusiastic charm to a garage ditty. Brace yourself for more brilliance just over the horizon. —Bryan McNamara

led by the songwriting duo of multi-instrumentalist George Howard and vocalist Vanessa Tanaka, whose simple pop songs take on melancholic edges with the addition of guest players. "Too Late" is the most straightforward of the two here, a sprightly little guitar-laced pop number with plenty of vocal harmonizing between Howard and Tanaka and some mandolin snippets thrown in for good measure. "Spit In Your Eye," recorded by the Dambuilders' Eric Masunaga, also features the weepy violin lines of fellow Dambuilder Joan Wasser, adding a dignified beauty to the song's country inflected honesty. —Colin Helms

GLORIUM Phantom Wire Transmissions (7") (Undone, P.O. Box 4012, Austin, TX 78765)—Glorium has a very Texas-y sound, the fuzzy punk which began with the Butthole Surfers and continues with King Coffey's Trance Syndicate label. "Matches For The Fuse" builds a fast paced groove out of deep rhythms and giddy guitar. The vocal styles are high-pitched, occasionally distorted punk howls, reminiscent of Nation Of Ulysses. Tim Kerr produced the single, a 7" which leaves us waiting to see what surprises Glorium's debut album (due out this fall) will bring. —Dawn Sutter

BRISE-GLACE "In Sisters All And Felony" (7") (Skin Graft, P.O. Box 257546, Chicago, IL 60625/312-989-9865)—Although guitarist/keyboardist Jim O'Rourke is the most familiar member of Chicago instrumental ensemble Brise-Glace (he's made many solo records and plays on the new Gastr Del Sol album), the star of this single is drummer Thymme Jones. Jones sets up two amazing distorted drum patterns in opposite speakers on "In Sisters All And Felony," and the rest of the band hangs shreds of noise (from rock instruments, bass clarinet and unidentifiable things) from the intersections of the drum latticework. "Angels On Installment Plan," on the other side, has a single, monolithic beat and a creepy, continuous organ wash. —Douglas Wolk

FUTURES

JACKPOT!

FRANK BANGO I Set Myself On Fire Today (P.O. Box 5133, Hoboken, NJ 07030/201-217-0721)—Hoboken's Frank Bango played guitar for NJ notables Gimme The Gun, which created a steady buzz opening for acts in the NY/NJ area. Listen to the lead track "Today I Quit The Band, Mom," and it doesn't take a criminologist to figure out that Bango is happy to be free of that group. All 12 songs on this cassette are remarkably strong for a self-produced demo. Bango (who plays almost everything here) uses mostly acoustic guitars for these tracks, making use of them as a rock instrument—you'd never guess that the wickedly-clever rocker "Get Yourself Buried" doesn't have an electric guitar on it. That song in particular is a standout; its skinny tie-era Elvis Costello mannerisms add the perfect, snide pop punch to equally biting lyrics. Other memorable moments upon first listen include the brisk, new wave folk of "Statement Of Purpose," "Guillotine," the bright pop of "Lucky Suit" and "Old Milk Crate." A creative producer and a gutsy backing band would really makes these top-notch songs fly. —Steve Ciabattani

FYI

Although Chicago's Squash Blossom are guilty of mentioning bassist Tim Hurley's membership in Red Red Meat a bit much, its promising three-song demo tape, She (1906 West Crystal #1, Chicago, IL 60622/312-384-0409), more than makes up for the over-emphasis. The local reviews that mention the Red Red Meat connection at every turn are misguided, since there is nothing about the band's sound that suggests a spin-off. The invaluable element of Squash Blossom lies in the commanding vocals of Chiyoko Yoshida. Female vocals can frequently be too breathy, ethereal, or downright girly, especially when the other elements of the band are so melodic, but Yoshida's clear, resonant voice unabashedly seizes the forefront. With such a powerful dose of femininity throughout each song, the instrumentation is forced to follow along, and it does so with smooth, rhythmical, swaying guitar work. The songs themselves are happy and poppy, but certainly not to a fault, leaving room for the passionate voice of Yoshida. Squash Blossom was wise when naming its demo She, because it's nothing if not for its show-stealing frontwoman. Watch for Squash Blossom in this year's CMJ Music Marathon showcases in September—. D.I.Y.

CHART FOCUS

ESQUIVEL!

Space-Age Bachelor Pad Music (Bar/None)

With his cool jazz aura, sublimely ridiculous lyrics and groovy feel, Esquivel, Mr. Mucho Muchacho himself, is snapping his fingers from 101-59 this week. The rediscovery of Juan Garcia's '50s and '60s work is a bonus for today's Cocktail Nation, adding a full body of work to this burgeoning (and extremely well-dressed) movement. Without a doubt, Space-Age Bachelor Pad Music is one of the best summer records in many a moon. Those stations charting the "Mexican Duke Ellington" in their Top 5 include: KCSU, KMBU, KSCU, KSDT, KUSF, WDCR (Hanover), WOBC and WXDU.

Most Valuable Programming

ON THE CHART

Once again, Grand Royal-Capitol's Beastie Boys come out on top, holding the #1 position for seven weeks in a row. Just on the Boys' heels is Virgin's new Rolling Stones album, which debuts at #2. Epitaph's Offspring holds onto the #4 spot, while Slash-Reprise's L7 grabs the #6 position its first week on the chart.

In the summer heat most things are slow, including the release schedule, although the chart does feature a few new pieces: Columbia's Harry Connick, Jr. (#23), American's Deconstruction (#24), Capricorn-WB's 311 (#39), Virgin's Julia Fordham (#50), Epic's Alice Cooper (#56), Grand Royal-Capitol's Luscious Jackson (#60), Atlantic's Hootie & The Blowfish (#63) and Warner Bros.' new Flaming Lips EP (#66).

DGC Rarities Vol. 1 makes a jump in its second week on the chart (14-12), coming one step closer to the top 10. Angel-ERG's Benedictine Monks Of Santo Domingo De Silos (38-28) prove the ongoing popularity of the music of yore. When the summer gets dull and hot, folks go to the movies for entertainment and air conditioning. This summer's most popular movie choices also have soundtracks which are in demand, including Epic's Forrest Gump (60-29), Walt Disney's Lion King (47-30) and RCA's Reality Bites (74-61). Island Red-Island's Orb continues to step up this week (55-48), while Mute-Elektra's Nick Cave And The Bad Seeds, currently working Lollapalooza's main stage, make a second appearance (#58). ## RETAIL FOCUS

The third album from LA's L7, Hungry For Stink, hits the charts this week at #6, grabbing the #2 Breakthrough and #2 In-store positions. The album offers more of the polished roughness that was featured on Bricks Are Heavy, an alternative record so heavy it also made inroads with the metal crowds. There is little doubt that Hungry For Stink will be a crossover favorite, and these women have the attitude to make it happen.

JACKPOT!

MARVIN GAYE The Marvin Gaye Classics Collection (Motown, 6255 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90028) [cat. no. 31453-0320]

This smartly-packaged four-CD cluster of musical energy documents a five-year span of one of the brightest and most misunderstood stars in the Golden Age Of Soul. As part of the Motown hit machine, Marvin Pentz Gaye, Jr. was tortured by self-doubt and insecurity, a side which he managed to keep separate from the romantic, love-obsessed persona he seemed to revel in. As the original lover man, Marvin's rebelliousness and stormy existence stemmed from unstable relationships with his family (most notably his father and brother), his wives and his insatiable desire to be admired as a true artist who, as he later went on to demonstrate, could be sanctified by his own words and music. By the time Marvin's career was tragically cut short at the hands of his father, Marvin's body of music reshaped and broadened soul and pop music.

In the years which encompass Trouble Man, Let's Get It On, and I Want You, Marvin invented new ways to articulate his emotions; not by a tested Motown assembly-line formula, but through his own raw, sensual instincts. The success of 1968's "I Heard It Through The Grapevine" and the depth of 1971's What's Going On (a Lennon-esque masterpiece), were two significant benchmarks which made Marvin a bona fide superstar, plus it gained him full creative control over his work and gave him the self-confidence to reach further. 1972's Trouble Man soundtrack came at the height of the "blaxploitation" film era. For Marvin, it was an opportunity both to try new styles and demonstrate his affection for jazz and musicals. Its unconventional cool and uncanny compositional wisdom is strengthened by Marvin's expertise in composing a real—mostly instrumental—soundtrack and not just a collection of songs. The soundtrack included the jazzy hit, "Trouble Man" and funky incidental music perfectly tailored to the movie's inner-city cop storyline. 1973's Let's Get It On and 1976's I Want You are probably the most romantic and erotic records ever made. In these years, Marvin saw his marriage to Anna Gordy (Berry Gordy's sister) coming apart, and a new love sprouting with his second wife, Janis Hunter, who is the inspiration behind these two records. Let's Get It On's themes were of love lost, of love's desire and Marvin's erotic illumination of the dreamy, sexual fire within himself. Replete with warm string arrangements and soft, but noticeable grooves, the production and musicianship boasts the same blood pressure-raising passion as lines like: "Baby, please turn around/So I can love you good" from "You Sure Love To Ball." Also, during remastering, producers discovered a longer version of "If I Should Die Tonight" that includes a missing last verse. Though the title track and pining "Distant Lover" are the album's most precious moments, it's better to let Let's Get It On play from beginning to end, feeling every carnal craving, frustration and desire along the way. Though the beauty of his voice was always his greatest gift, the uninhibited—almost pornographic—levels of expression ("Come Live With Me Angel") which reign supreme on I Want You (with cover art by Ernie Barnes, whose art was featured on Good Times, as well as Donald Byrd album covers) were sweeter, more erotic, with disco underpinnings that were that era's signature. I Want You featured tender dance grinds, epitomized by cuts like the title track, "After The Dance" and "All The Way 'Round." The songs achieved a close, intimate feeling with the listener, which was amazing considering the state of his personal life. Gaye fans will adore the special fourth CD called Love Starved Heart, which features 16 previously unreleased tracks recorded between the years of 1966 and 1969. Rather than being throwaways, these tracks' discovery is akin to an oil rig hitting a gusher. From the velvety croons on "Darling, You're So Wonderful" to the vein-bursting, passionate roars on "Get Away Heartbreak (Keep On Moving)," Marvin is fueled here by youthful emotion and backed by prime Motown sounds. Essential Gaye cuts include: "It's A Desperate Situation" (originally written for David Ruffin) with its funky-as-hell bass line, "When I Feel The Need" (penned by Ashford & Simpson), the stark ballad "For Both Of Us I'll Be Concerned" and the bluesy "I Can't Help It (I Love You)."

Marvin Gaye's music was as revolutionary and urgent in its day as any artist Motown has ever produced. Though these releases merely scratch the surface of Marvin Gaye's career, they do represent an artist who—no matter how derailed his life often seemed—unquestionably mastered the art of self-expression through his music. —Glen Sansone

PUCHO & THE LATIN SOUL BROTHERS Tough! (Fantasy, 10th And Parker, Berkeley, CA 94710/510-549-2500) [cat. no. 24138]

When it came to the cooler, simmering sounds of Latin jazz in the swingin' '60s, Pucho was the man. While the space age bachelors of the '50s grooved to Esquivel, Martin Denny and Arthur Lyman, in the '60s a leisure-lover was just as likely to relax to the sounds of Latin soul jazz—these were the days when Herb Alpert sold a zillion copies of Whipped Cream And Other Delights. While the timbales of Tito Puente and the brazen band of Machito reflect the hotter side of Latin jazz, Pucho and his Latin Soul Brothers epitomized the cool and restrained Latin approach—after all, he was hip enough to name his band the Latin Soul Brothers, unquestionably the most awesome band name since "Machito And His Afro-Cubans." Born in New York, Pucho deftly assembled his conception of Latin Soul from different components; viewed in retrospective post-modern light, one can sense a link between Pucho's music and Martin Denny's exotica or even Esquivel's space age bachelor pad sounds—i.e. not necessarily rooted in Latin music in a strict traditional or realistic sense, but based upon what one might think Latin jazz should sound like. While other Pucho albums were a little more sizzling and upbeat, Tough! is surprisingly mellow, almost tender in spots—two Beatles covers, and both of them are ballads ("And I Love Her" and "Yesterday"). Also of particular note here is an early cover of Herbie Hancock's "Cantaloupe

Column coordinated by James Lien

Island," which Pucho himself pegged in 1966 as "a hip tune!" In fact, in the early days of Fantasy records the label pretty much cornered the market on Latin soul, with recordings by Carl Tjader, Mongo Santamaria and Pucho rounding out their roster in the days before Isaac Hayes and Creedence Clearwater Revival paid the label's bills. Also check out "The Groover," an US 3-type sample-in-the-bag that's a smash hit single just waiting to happen.

AHMAD JAMAL Ahmad's Blues [cat. no. 803] and RAMSEY LEWIS Maiden Voyage (and more) [cat. no. 804] (Chess, c/o GRP, 555 W. 57th St., 10th Fl., New York, NY 10019/212-424-1000)

Though jazz aficionados who subscribe to the high-art conception of the music might frown upon the form, legendary Chicago blues label Chess records released numerous jazz records in the '60s on its Argo and Cadet imprints, often which often featured jazz artists in a more pop-based setting. These records, often dance-oriented, have since been rediscovered by groove-hounds and funk-heads; these two reissues offer mixed results, and two different pictures of '60s funk-jazz of the period. Ahmad Jamal, he of "Poinciana" fame and a stellar jazz master, also took on some loose and bluesy, piano-based recordings for Chess in the mid-'60s. The recordings here are amongst the finest showcasing Jamal's simple, elegant and tasteful talents in a relaxed live setting, a wonderful collection from top to bottom. The set from Ramsey Lewis, however, is another matter. The new liner notes for Lewis' Maiden Voyage give clues to the sham, claiming the easy-listening Beatle-covers of Mother Nature's Son to be among his finest work of the period (which they're not), and even slipping in a plug or two for Lewis' forgettable current CD Sky Islands (also on GRP). We're much more partial to his more groove-oriented, "in crowd"-style material, found in such albums as the excellent Them Changes—named for an ultra-funky cover of the Buddy Miles/Band Of Gypsies song—and think they'd be far more deserving of reissue honors. At the time, Lewis was at the helm of a truly amazing ensemble, featuring legendary funk maestro Cleveland Eaton on bass and Maurice White on drums (who would later find fame as founder and leader of R&B supergroup Earth, Wind, and Fire). Unfortunately, these recordings here are marred by schmaltzy backup singers, strings and even choirs (!?!), which give rise to erratic results. A good example would be Lewis' version of "The Mighty Quinn (Quinn The Eskimo)." First Lewis lays out a bluesy piano intro, but then a bunch of operatic easy-listening strings and background singers come in, sounding like they think Ramsey's trying to cut a version of the closing music from Star Trek. Ugh! But wait—a minute into the track, Lewis' awesomely funky rhythm section hits on a killer groove, and suddenly the background singers are rendered speechless; you can almost picture the string section looking around, dumbfounded, as if say, What is this? That's not in the score! It's a moment that makes the whole CD worth having—instant groove, the difference between sweet and saccharine. One wonders if maybe this CD wouldn't have benefited from a treatment similar to that given to Muddy Waters' famous Brass And The Blues CD, where a pesky and irrelevant horn section was mixed out of the CD reissue, leaving the performances of the original core band intact. —James Lien

DOPE!

COOLIO It Takes A Thief (Tommy Boy, 902 Broadway, 13th Fl., New York, NY 10010/212-388-8300)—It's amazing what a good video can do for a rap artist today. After an unsteady start with "County Line," Compton's Coolio came back bigger than George Foreman on the Lakeside-sampled "Fantastic Voyage," a single which cracked the top 10 in Billboard's singles chart, went gold and had the country bouncing to his '70s-styled, mack daddy funk. With his hair always standing on end, Coolio (once a member of WC's M.A.A.D. Circle) is not your typical Compton G: his rhymes are smoothed over with appealing—often comical—lyrics ("Ugly Bitches"), adding a distinct and inviting change of pace to the usual canned anger and exhausted gangster sermons. It Takes A Thief describes life in the ghetto over old-school samples and dusty funk, turning hardcore reality and porch-step reminiscing (second single, "I Remember" features Tha Alkaholiks) into listenable, well-crafted songs that sound as though he's grown tired of pointing fingers and searching bloody revenge. One of the most theatrical cuts on the album is "Moma, I'm In Love With A Gangsta" featuring labelmate LeShaun. The cut portrays a modern ghetto romance (picture Grease or West Side Story taking place in Compton) via telephone raps. "Can O' Corn," with its soft trumpet work, paints a picture of Coolio's life childhood poverty. With "potential summer bomb" written all over this one, it should be a long time before this G has to worry about his next meal. Also roll to: "Smokin' Sticks," "Ghetto Cartoons," the title track and "On My Way To Harlem."

BOBBY SICHRAN From A Sympathetical Hurricane (Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—With a new generation of artists (G. Love And Special Souce, Beck) taking hip-hop production and shoddy rapping to places that most serious hip-hoppers probably wished didn't exist, New York native Bobby Sichran (who played guitar and helped engineer Das EFX's debut) is a guy who probably has the most disjointed and understated take on hip-hop in a long time. I wouldn't categorize his self-produced From A Sympathetical Hurricane as a hip-hop record, but after a few spins you'll begin to appreciate its homemade and pleasantly warped approach. Sampling includes KRS-One and Afrika Bambaataa and James Brown's "Unity," but what the real attraction is Sichran's incredible melding of junky blues textures, tuneless vocalizing, and occasional funk-ed-up grooves. As messy as it seems, there is an honesty and charisma to the finished product that deserves praise for its imagination. Try it and see: "Don't Break My Heart Kid," the title track, "Real Live Wire," "Burning Like Tire, Swinging From A Tree" and "Soul Runners." ▶

ON THE CHART

STILL GOING: Columbia's Nas (1-1) holds on for his 11th week at #1, while PayDay/frr-ILS' Jeru The Damaja (6-2) returns to the #2 position after one week at #6. Making big splashes into this week's top 10 are the debut album from LaFace-Arista's Outkast (18-7) and the stateside debut from Cohiba-Island's MC Solaar, who parks Prose Combat at #8. Amid mixed reviews, Def Jam/RAL-Island's Public Enemy push its way from 17-12, while the group's DJ's other conglomerate, Terminator X And The Godfathers Of Threatt, crack the top 20 by moving 22-19. Making debuts this week are: Arista's Craig Mack at #27; "Stress," the debut from Hollywood BASIC's Organized Konfusion, at #31, and pulling up the rear (almost), WRAP-Ichiban's MC Breed at #39. This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Craig Mack; 2) Public Enemy; 3) Mic Geronimo; 4) Sir Mix-A-Lot; 5) Nice & Smooth; 6) Roots; 7) King Tee; 8) Above The Law; 9) Mad Lion; 10) Big Daddy Kane. VARIOUS ARTISTS C&S Street Jazz (C&S, c/o Micmac, 166 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10010)—Pass your plate over here, because C&S is serving up an 11-song collection of acid jazz (termed "street jazz" here) sweets. Nine of the cuts have been released before, but they're strong enough to make this an enjoyable listen: Young Disciples & Masta Ace's "Talkin' What I Feel," the Solsonics' "Jazz In The Present Tense" and Gang Starr's "Manifest" are always welcome, while the new cuts include Tribeca Sound's "Street Jazz" and Da Phenoms' "Old-School Rule." "Street Jazz" is given life by serene sax improv and a languid, foggy swing groove, while "Old-School Rule" offers crustier rhythms, a big, standup bass sound and hip-hop patchwork.

Send all hip-hop, funk, R&B, soul and money to Glen "T-Bag" Sansone at CMJ, 11 Middle Neck Rd., Suite 400, Great Neck, NY 11021-2301.

MADBALL
Set It Off
 (Roadrunner, 536 Broadway, 4th Fl., New York, NY 10012/212-219-0077)—Vocalist Freddy Cricien has been dedicating his life to the hardcore scene ever since he hopped up on stage to sing the Animals' "It's My Life" with his big brother's band, Agnostic Front, during a show in NYC (when he was only seven years old!). After years of sleeping, eating and breathing hardcore music, Freddy founded Madball. The band unleashed its destructive power on the masses in 1989 with a 7" on In-Effect Records, followed by another 7" in 1992 for Wreck-Age Records. Freddy's raspy, rough-'n'- ragged raspy screams, along with the relentless twin-guitar attack of Vinnie Stigma and Matt Henderson (both formerly of Agnostic Front), the brutal skin bashing of Will Shepler and the heavy, vibrating bass crunch of Haya, makes for a perfect slamfest of raw, intense power. Set It Off, the band's debut full-length LP, explodes with fury and animalistic aggression in true hardcore fashion, while viciously attacking the problem of gun-related deaths in the country today—since the recording of the album in April of this year, more than 500 people have been killed by guns in NYC alone. Freddy explains, "Over the smallest beef, people are ready to pull out a gun; no one fights with fists anymore." "Lockdown" rips with intense rage, fiercely striking out against "the system," while the importance of remaining loyal to the brotherhood plays a big part in songs such as "Down By Law" and "Face To Face." Also check out the frightening reality of "New York City," the bitter ire of "C.T.Y.C. (R.I.P.)," the anti-police corruption anthem "Smell The Bacon (What's With You?)" and Madball's theme song, "It's Time." —Jenni Glenn

GILBY CLARKE
Pawnshop Guitars
 (Virgin, 338 N. Foothill Road, Beverly Hills, CA 90210)—Guns N' Roses' Gilby Clarke has already proven himself an amazing guitarist, and with his first solo release, Pawnshop Guitars, he demonstrates not only that he can wail on the strings, but also that he can write extremely catchy hard-rockin' tunes and sing 'em even better! The entire G N'R gang joins Gilby throughout the album, along with special guests Frank Black (ex-Pixies) and Skid Row drummer Rob Affuso. You should already be familiar with the first single, "Cure Me...Or Kill Me...", which is destined to be a major-huge hit with its instantly singable chorus and infectious grooves. Another highlight from Pawnshop Guitars is "Tijuana Jail," featuring Matt Sorum (G N'R) on drums and Slash (G N'R) on lead guitar. It pumps with "Radar Love" rhythms and even has some Spanish verse

ARGH!!! IT'S THE LOUD ROCK REPORT

Section edited by Jenni Glenn

sampled from the radio in Gilby's '65 Mustang. "Skin & Bones" is a fun heel-kickin' dust-flyin' ditty with twangy acoustic guitar, harmonica, fiddle, harp and slide guitar, that makes you jist wanna git on yer horse and ride off into the sunset, jammin' all the way. "Johanna's Chopper," with Gilby on 12-string, floats with breezy Beatles-esque harmonies that collide with thick, sultry guitars, while "Let's Get Lost" swirls with airy, psychedelic, carefree sensations. The title track swaggers with blues bump 'n' grinds, but also retains a hard, rocky edge, while "Shut Up" takes a humorous stab at the difficulty of relationships. Also check out the killer version of the Stones' "Dead Flowers" (with Axl Rose on piano and vocals), the cover of The Clash's "Jail Guitar Doors" (with Duff McKagan and Frank Black) and the blues-stomp of "Hunting Dogs." —Jenni Glenn

FATES WARNING

Inside Out
(Metal Blade, 2345 Erringer Road, Ste. 108, Simi Valley, CA 93065-2200/805-522-9111)—After six albums, it's hard to believe that Fates Warning could develop its beautifully intricate, heavy progressive style to an even fuller, more extreme extent...but the boys have done it again! Inside Out glows with heartfelt melodies, strong musicianship, amazing guitar work and the soaring vocal magic of Ray Alder. Over the years, the band has remained true to its progressive metal style and has built on that base, expanding and experimenting with its complex sound, instead of abandoning it to blindly follow the newest trend. The band's dedication and commitment to the music is obvious on Inside Out and will completely electrify all your senses. Themes of pain, fear, frustration and loneliness make up the thought-provoking lyrical content of the album and thrust a hard punch of stark reality on songs like "Outside Looking In"—"Running, tired, tortured and torn/Outside looking in/Clawing away these open scars/To heal the wounds within/And the man in the mirror looks out/As he reaches in." Many of Fates Warning's previous records were very progressive with some epic songs that almost took up entire album sides, but Inside Out follows along the same lines as the band's last LP, Parallels—LP...more structured, shorter pieces with the same intense, richly elaborate arrangements and mind-melting melodies, minus the drawn-out instrumental breaks. Inside Out is probably the band's most accessible album to date, so make sure you check out "Face The Fear," "Down To The Wire," "Pale Fire," "Shelter Me" and "Afterglow." —Jenni Glenn

BUZZOV-EN

Sore
(Roadrunner, address above)—Immersed in seething hatred and extreme disgust, Buzzov'en unleashes Sore, its second full-length venture into the world of hostile ugliness. By enmeshing hideously eerie samples of agonized screams and cries with grating noise, scathing thrash slams, hardcore punk grinds and slow, painful churns, Buzzov'en creates a thick, monstrously heavy sound that slowly sucks you under, farther and farther, with each passing track. Guitarist Kirk Fisher's voice oozes with a scratchy evil quality and sends a chill down the spine as he spews "I don't like you!/You worthless piece of shit/Why do I even bother with you!" on the sick, industrial-tinged "I Don't Like You." With the addition of guitarist Johnny Brito, the overall sound of the band is even more crushingly brutal. The title track rips through over six minutes of jarring intensity, after three full minutes of very haunting, tortured groans and screams. Most of the other songs are about half as long, except for the last track, "This Is Not," which echoes repetitively with bizarre, vibrating sounds for over 19 minutes!! Buzzov'en is definitely loud, definitely disturbing and definitely filled with the utmost anger and hatred possible. There is no escape, so get ready to be engulfed by the power of Sore, and check out "Unwilling To Explain," "Hollow," "Broken," "Pathetic," "Blinded" and "Grit." —Jenni Glenn

SOUNDTRACK

Airheads

(Arista, 6 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019)—Until the movie Airheads hits the streets, hook yourself up with its soundtrack and you'll have the coolest thang this summer. Musical supervisor Lonny Friend snatches tracks (nearly all previously unreleased) from the hottest bands around. White Zombie goes to the rowdiest extreme with "Feed The Gods," which the band also performs in the film. The boys in Anthrax re-work "London," originally performed by the Smiths. Howard Stern's blundering sidekick Stuttering John chimes in with "I'll Talk My Way Out Of It" from his new release on Atlantic—also check out John's cameo in the film. The three stars of the movie (Brendan Fraser, Steve Buscemi and Adam Sandler) perform "Degenerated," a cut written by now deceased New York punker Lone Ranger. And don't forget to thrash to the re-recording of Motorhead's "Born To Raise Hell" (which appeared on Bastards, the band's 1993 import-only album), performed by Motorhead, Ice-T and Whitfield Crane (Ugly Kid Joe). Other exclusive tracks are offered by Primus, Prong, Candlebox, 4 Non Blondes, D-Generation, Dig, Stick and the Ramones. —Lana Wraith

SAVATAGE

"Handful Of Rain" (5")

(Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—After the untimely death of Savatage guitarist and founding member Criss Oliva, the band's future was very uncertain and looking dreadfully bleak, until ex-Testament guitarist Alex Skolnick agreed to join the force. Criss' brother Jon Oliva (co-founder/co-writer/piano) says, "Alex was our first and only choice to replace Criss and if he had turned us down, we probably would have called it a day." Fortunately he accepted, and Savatage is back once again with its seventh Atlantic album, Handful Of Rain (which won't be out until August 16). In the meantime, check out the title track and first single for an appetizing taste of what's to come. "Handful Of Rain" begins as a sweeping, majestically flowing acoustic ballad, then lunges full-on into a pool of elaborate instrumentation, highlighted by the intensely stimulating guitar wails of Skolnick. After breaking away from the dark clutches of death metal and experimenting with rock opera for awhile, Savatage has found its niche with progressively-tinged, intricately-designed rock with a hard edge. Handful Of Rain promises to be a landmark album for Savatage and will definitely take the band to new and higher levels. —Jenni Glenn

LOUD ROCK NEWS

First and foremost, a big CONGRATULATIONS to "Toxic" Tommy Delaney on his new gig as national college promotion manager for Virgin Records. Tommy started out at WSOU, moved over to Concrete Marketing and then worked a short stint with Atlantic Records, before relocating to Virgin. Best of luck, dude! Also, a thumbs-up-two-snaps-and-a-twist to Eric LeMasters on his awesome new position as label manager for Earache Records. Eric has previously worked with Foundations magazine, Energy Records and, most recently, Mechanic Records. Way to go, Eric, you deserve it! And if ya didn't know already, the very-much-in-demand Ray Mancison (formerly of the now defunct Chameleon Records) is handling metal for Giant Records. Congrats!...Speaking of Giant Records, look for a new video from the Jesus Lizard for "Glamorous." Also, the video for Seed's "Rapture" was just accepted on MTV's 120 Minutes. Check it out. In your hands soon will be a brand new edit for Atomic Opera's "Joyride," and don't forget about Green Apple Quick Step's new EP, due out just in time for the back-to-school madness...Unfortunately, Alice In Chains has withdrawn from the Metallica summer tour as well as from an appearance at the Woodstock '94 festival, due to health problems within the band. The band hopes to resolve the situation and plans to return to the recording studio in the fall. Best wishes for a speedy recovery...While on tour in Vancouver with I Mother Earth, bassist Tim White from the Headstones (Avalanche Records) was hit in the head with singer Hugh Dillon's swinging microphone. The stage was covered in blood, the show shut down and Tim was rushed to the emergency room, where he received four stitches above his eye. Tim was able to carry on to the next show and is feeling much better now. The tour with I Mother will be ending on July 29, but the band will embark on a headlining tour of the Northeast states starting August 1...Also, don't be alarmed! You didn't miss a magazine—CMJ will not be producing an issue for the week of August 1. Look for our brand new look and redesign to premier in the next issue, street date August 8!

The long and short of radio promotion... (L to R) Pretty Boy Steve "Can I Have Another Piece Of Fruit?" Prue (Concrete Marketing), the oh-so-cute Lauren Goldwasser (Concrete Marketing) and Jay "Whaddya Mean It's Not Metal?" Hughen (A&M Records).

Alright, already! Just take the damn picture so we can finish our beers! Mutha's Day Out vocalist Mikal Moore and Candlebox vocalist Kevin Martin hanging out after Mutha's Day Out's Los Angeles debut at the Whiskey.

If you have any news, tour information or pictures you would like included in any future Argh!!! section, please send them to Jenni Glenn/ Metal Editor at 11 Middle Neck Road, Ste. 400, Great Neck, NY 11021-2301 or fax to (516) 466-7159 Attn. Jenni/ Loud Rock News. Thanks!!

JACKPOT!

BILL MONROE The Music Of Bill Monroe From 1936 To 1994 (MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608)—While there have been a number of box sets and anthologies over the years that have tried to present an overview of Bill Monroe's recording career, they have all been rendered obsolete with this wonderful, tastefully assembled four-CD set. Moving chronologically, the set goes from the days of working with older brother Charlie as the Monroe Brothers, through his days as a regular featured performer at the Grand Ole Opry, to some fallow days in the '60's, to his current exalted stature as the Father Of Bluegrass. The 98 tracks contain several previously unreleased cuts, as well as a few rare live tracks. It positively brims with songs that have become a standard part of any present day bluegrass band's repertoire. What really makes it special, however, is the packaging and the accompanying 98-page booklet which contains a biography, glowing testimonials from a wide variety of musicians, a meticulously annotated discography and some fabulous photographs of Monroe's life and times. (Marty Stuart's fans are sure to enjoy the photo of Bill and a very young Marty from 1972). The Country Music Foundation and MCA should be heartily applauded for finally giving one of the major musical forces of this century his long overdue, proper tribute.

DON WALSER Rolling Stone From Texas (Watermelon, P.O. Box 402088, Austin TX 78704/512-472-6192)—Hungry for some REAL country? Then Don Walser's your man. His music recalls those halcyon days when Hank Williams, Bob Wills and George Jones ruled the radio. Listening to Rolling Stone From Texas is like a good night at a hot and crowded Texas honky tonk. Walser adds his pure country warble to some charming originals ("(The Party Don't Start) 'Til The Playboys Get Here," "Cowboy Ramsey" and the title track), as well as a wide range of covers from the likes of Jimmie Rogers ("California Blues (Blue Yodel #4)," Willie Nelson ("Three Days") and Marty Robbins ("Don't Worry About Me"). Walser and his Pure Texas Band have long been favorites in their native Austin and co-producers Ray Benson of Asleep At The Wheel and T.J. McFarland do a super job of capturing his classic C&W sound, augmenting it with past and present members of ASAW as well as legends Jimmy Day on pedal steel and Johnny Gimble on fiddle.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Songs From Chippy (Hollywood, 500 S. Buena Vista St., Burbank, CA 91521)—Chippy is a play based on the true-life diaries of a prostitute who lived in a West Texas panhandle in the '30s. Written by Jo Harvey Allen and Terry Allen and commissioned by the American Music Theater Festival, its premiere was in Philadelphia in June, later performed in New York as part of the Lincoln Center Serious Fun! Festival in late July. The Allens are members of the creative group of artists from West Texas, which also includes Butch Hancock, Joe Ely, Robert Earl Keen, Wayne Hancock and Jo Carol Pierce, each of whom performs in the play. As each is probably best known as a songwriter or musician, it follows that each contributes to the play's original music (performed by the band on stage). While it doesn't purport to tell the entire story of the play, this is a quirky, yet fascinating listen. A remarkable collection of swing tunes, folk songs, honky-tonk and spoken word, especially notable for fans of Texas music, containing new songs from Ely ("Buildin' More Fires," "Cold Black Hammer"), Butch Hancock ("Wind's Gonna Blow You Away," "Morning Goodness") and Terry Allen ("Gonna California," "Angels Of The Wind").

IN THE NEWS

The lineup for this year's Philadelphia Folk Festival looks pretty spectacular. Held August 26 to 28, it includes KILLBILLY, CHRIS SMITHER, BILL MILLER, RICHARD THOMPSON, JOHN GORKA, the NASHVILLE BLUEGRASS BAND, LOS LOBOS, ANI DI FRANCO, JOHN HAMMOND and a lot more. Call 800-556-FOLK for info...Pretty Close To The Truth will be the title of JIM LAUDERDALE's first for Atlantic Records, due August 2. Also from Atlantic, Horizons fave MARY KARLZEN's major label debut, Yellin' At Mary, is due in September...On August 10th, expect Gringo Honeymoon from ROBERT EARL KEEN on Sugar Hill and Wild Love from JOY LYNN WHITE on Columbia...Liberty (3322 West End Ave., Nashville, TN 37203/615-269-2000) has just released WILLIE NELSON's The Early Years: The Complete Liberty Recordings Plus More. A two-CD set that anthologizes his recordings for Liberty from 1959 to 1963, it features original versions of some of his best known songs, "Crazy," "Night Life," "Hello Walls," "Funny How Time Slips Away" and more. Among the collection's 62 tracks are 10 from an album that was recorded but never released in 1963. An interesting collection for sure, but it just makes me anxious for the complete Willie box that some label should have done by now...STEVE GOODMAN will be getting his due soon. Nashville-based Red Pajamas Records will mark the 10th anniversary of his death with the release of The Steve Goodman Anthology, a two-CD package that will include previously unreleased, live and demo tracks, in the early fall.

SHORT SHOTS

A couple things have caught my ear out of the Nashville machine recently. DAVID BALL's debut, Thinkin' Problem (Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510) is a lively affair with a sound straight from the dancehall. Ball was a member of the legendary Uncle Walt's Band with Walter Hyatt and Champ Hood in the '70's. That band's sense of swing is carried over to his music today as it's filled with tinkling pianos, wailing fiddles and train whistle pedal steel, while his singing recalls a young Gary Stewart. Give a listen to "Blowin' Smoke," "A Walk On The Wild Side Of Life" and the title track and get ready to two step around your living room...I know HAL KETCHUM is a mainstay on commercial country radio these days, but he's written some great songs and his voice is distinctive among a sea of George Jones soundalikes. Every Little Word (Curb, 47 Music Sq. E., Nashville, TN 37203) extends his streak of highly listenable albums to three. This time Ketchum collaborates with the cream of the crop among the current Nashville songwriter corps, including Al Anderson ("That's What I Get For Losin' You"), Gary Burr ("Drive On") and Gary Nicholson ("Walk Away")...Speaking of great songwriters, get your hands on a copy of Stories, the second release from ELLIS PAUL (Black Wolf, P.O. Box 2692, Cambridge, MA 02238/617-426-1918). It's easy to hear why he's won a bunch of awards recently, including being named "Boston's Best Songwriter" at the 1994 Boston Music Awards and winning the "New Folk" competition at this year's Kerrville, TX Folk Festival. Paul delivers his lyrics that read like poetry with a high, clear voice, that can be fragile or tough as the song allows and each one strikes directly at the heart. Very special Stories: "Who Killed John Lennon?," "Last At The Table" and "3,000 Miles."

CAN'T LET THESE BLUES GO

There are just too many new blues records that have tickled me lately to fit them all in the space I've got left. So check these out with the knowledge that the blues is very much alive and each one is guaranteed to kick your butt. Texas harmonica man GARY PRIMICH has released his first for Flying Fish (1304 W. Schubert, Chicago, IL 60614/312-528-5455), Travelin' Mood. He covers a lot of ground, moving easily from acoustic to electric blues, both original and standards from Sonny Boy Williamson, Duke Ellington and Memphis Slim...Known as "The Sauce Boss," BILL WHARTON is not only known for his hot sauce, which he calls Liquid Summer, but for his slide guitar playing as well. His South Of The Blues (King Snake, c/o Flying Fish, see above) is a hearty portion of swamp rockin' blues served up with a variety of rhythms...LAVELLE WHITE's Miss Lavelle (Antone's, 500 San Marcos, Austin, TX 78702/512-322-0617) is a soulful collection made up mostly of her own strong material performed with the Antone's House Band. If you enjoy the high powered soul of Lou Ann Barton or Angela Strehli, this one's definitely for you...Finally, we move up to Chicago where guitar favorite JIMMY DAWKINS has just put out Blues And Pain (Wild Dog, c/o Ichiban, P.O. Box 724677, Atlanta, GA 30339/404-419-1414). Dawkins has a unique guitar style, sending notes flying in lots of directions, shredding players half his age. This one's highly recommended for guitar fans.

THE LAST ROUNDUP

After four and a half years, this is the last edition of Horizons. Starting with the next issue of CMJ New Music Report, I'll be editing the new weekly CMJ AAA column, which, if some of the conversations I've been having lately are any indication, should be both exciting and educational for all of us. I'd like to thank all the record companies, publicists, promotion people, managers and musicians (I'm sure I missed someone there) who have helped me with my exploration of the different shades of American music over the past few years. I hope I've turned you onto a few artists that you've never heard before or perhaps gotten you to listen to a type of music that you weren't familiar with. Don't worry though, CMJ will continue to give you the best new country, blues, bluegrass, folk, zydeco and roots music coverage in our own special way.

I.K. DAIRO M.B.E. & HIS BLUE SPOTS Ashiko (Green Linnet, 43 Beaver Brook Rd., Danbury, CT 06810/203-730-0333)—If you're looking for a record to remind you of why you do whatever it is that you do that makes you read this page, whether it's working in the music "business" on a full-time basis, or pulling a humble, once-a-week, late-night shift as a volunteer for a local radio station, then you'll want to hear this. Whatever your vocational/recreational relation to music, this is the kind of album that reminds you of why you got involved in the first place. It's about music, pure and simple, and the power of a great musician to elicit a reaction in a listener no matter how different their backgrounds and cultures may be. I.K. Dairo, legendary Nigerian bandleader and multi-instrumentalist, has been doing that for a lifetime, and he's still one of the all-time greats of African music. Ashiko proves that the simplest ideas are often the greatest: this set, mixing old material with new, was recorded live and unoverdubbed in a Seattle, Washington recording studio. The sound is pure African juju, full of lilting vocals and delicate, intertwined guitars laid over propulsive, solid rhythm tracks and bobbing, weaving basslines. Ashiko, named for the older, original name for juju music, is a pure and uplifting CD as you'll hear all year. —James Lien

NOT DROWNING, WAVING... so far....
I have been exchanging e-mail with some folks in Europe and Asia who are trying to get alternative radio stations off the ground. I thought I'd share some of that correspondence with you in a very informal interview with Dmitry Bender of Rodezia Plus Radio in Izhevsk, Russia. It is a wild and active time in eastern European and Asian radio, and there are lessons to be learned on both sides.

Cliff Fumald: When was your radio station started, and by whom?
Dmitry Bender: Myself and some other guys run one of the many other programs at local radio station Europe Plus Izhevsk, which is the branch of Moscow's Europe Plus, which is again the branch of Europe wide Europe Plus radio stations. Europe Plus Izhevsk is the only radio station in Udmurtia except one AM powerful station which belongs to State Radio and TV Company Udmurtia. Nowadays branches of Europe Plus are broadcasting in 24 cities of NIS (ex-USSR), with headquarters in Paris and are now named simply Europe Radiostation.

Do you sell commercial ads to pay for it? If not, where does the money for equipment, salaries, etc. come from?
Yes, the station does sell ads. That is the only method to stay alive and active. The station does not receive any money from the government of Udmurt Republic (they haven't enough money to support Udmurtia TV/Radio Company on stable basis) or from listeners—you know, the economic situation doesn't allow people to spend money on anything different than their everyday needs, and if someone has such an ability he or she would spend that money in a form of payment for advertisement. But I have to say businessmen spend some money sponsoring cultural and sport events from time to time. Unfortunately, we are not considered "cultural or sport events."

Ad breaks take place during all the time the station is broadcasting. But our program is free of ads, maybe because we aren't paid and do it for own pleasure only; if we'll go off, Rodezia Plus will die off.

ON THE CHART

Luaka Bop-WB's Zap Mama remains our #1, but Giant-WB's Manu Dibango (3-2) draws ever closer, narrowing the margin from week to week. Right behind them both, Chaos' Yousou N'Dour turns up the heat, advancing 4-3 and increasing the competition near the top of the chart. It's also worth noting that Yousou guests an Manu Dibango's remake of "Saul Makossa" on the new LP. Even in spite of the sudden cancellation of the second leg of his U.S. summer tour, Ali Farka Toure With Ry Cooder continue to rack up the points, moving back into the top five (6-5). Two new debuts garner attention this week: MCA's Morgan Heritage, comprised of offspring of reggae great Denroy Morgan, springs on board at #21, while Star Trail-Heartbeat's Ram Jam A Gwaan compilation takes a ready position at #22. Perhaps our most surprising occurrence on the chart this week was not the return of Mango-Island's Africa Fete compilation (#16 re-entry) but the return of the mighty vocal stylings of RealWorld-Caroline's Nusrat Fateh Ali Khan & Party, who tear back onto the chart at #19. (WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

And what is the city and the audience like?
The city of Izhevsk is the capitol of Udmurt Republic, and has been well known as the nearest place to the city of Votkinsk, birthplace by Piotr Tchaikovsky and in the present time the place which American inspectors have been monitoring due to nuclear missiles SS 20 producing in the recent past. In turn Russian inspectors have been monitoring nuclear missiles plant in Magma, I think that's in Nevada. Every year the festival dedicated to Piotr Tchaikovsky has been held here in Izhevsk in the end of May, Piotr Tchaikovsky's birthday, as well as this year, just now the festival is being held and we are visited by stars of classical music like State Symphony Orchestra conducted by famous pianist and conductor Michael Pletnev, singer Galina Sinavskaya et al.
Izhevsk is overcrowded with heavy industrial plants, six or seven really big ones and lot of small. Sure we breathe not the clearest air on planet, sometimes in winter days snow on pond becomes yellow because a huge metallurgical plant stands right on the shore and issues the multicolored smoke which lays on land, pond, people, buildings so on, so the district of the city where the plant placed is very polluted—dirty trees, dusty sidewalks, gassy air, and the situation is getting worse due to lack of winds which could blow smog away from there if the air was steady. But this is down side of town, upper is much better—there are a lot of stand alone trees, parks, bushes, forest is nearby. Udmurtia is placed in the heart of huge mixed forests, there are pines, birches, firs, maples, limes, etc., and the city itself lays around a long narrow pond with nice sand shores overgrown with pine and fir trees, small ships ride the pond forth and back steadily during warm days. So I can say I am fond of local landscapes and we often picnic there—you know, all that stuff like shashlik (meat on sticks), vodka/wine, potatoes, go swimming, go fishing, etc. The whole population reaches about 800,000.

What can American press and trade do to help you out?
Rodezia Plus wants to play obscure bands, unknown musicians, demo tapes along with artists better known in small circles. Rodezia Plus puts all incoming recordings on rotation. Please send your demos, 7", CDs and LPs. We are the only music station in the Udmurt Republic, Russia, placed in the city of Izhevsk, the capitol of Udmurt Republic, so I believe our audience is at least 400,000 of the 800,000 inhabitants of the city and the surrounding area.

You can reach Dmitry Bender, Music Director, Rodezia Plus FM (alternative, indie-rock, 4AD-ish—whatever it's labeled) at 8-100 Mayskaya str, Izhevsk 426000, Russia; internet: <db@mark-itt.ru>.

Peace.

REVELATIONS PER MINUTE

Column by Tim Haslett/Section coordinated by Megan McLaughlin

PAPERCLIP PEOPLE "Throw" (12") (Planet E Communications, P.O. Box 27218, Detroit, MI 48227/313-567-0916)—Carl Craig is Detroit's figurehead, an artist whose sonic explorations in the mid-'80s formed a new narrative of black artistic modernity (of which hip-hop is only one chapter), one in which the re-imagining and re-invention of electronic instruments led to an ongoing musical project now termed "techno." The history of techno has undergone a cultural erasure to the extent that many of its contemporary devotees believe its origins lie in northern Belgium circa 1990. Craig's genius lies in his ability to reinscribe techno's roots into music that can excite those who've never given a second thought to Detroit's lengthy cultural history. Invited to spin at London's Ministry Of Sound, Craig was asked to release a record for the label and he subsequently created an ambidextrous reworking of Manuel Gottschung's mid-'70s German analog aria, "E2:E4." Utilizing elements from that piece, Craig has now fashioned the undulating "Throw," which is shocking the most jaded DJs from sea to shining sea. Craig is effectively winning converts from among those for whom his name has regrettably been synonymous with electronic doodling miles away from the dancefloor. "Throw" allows tense melodic threads to hang in the air like a hummingbird, but keeps the percussion at the top of the mix, with crisp attenuated snare hits pushing past the surface. Where electronic music fans seem to insist on maintaining the opposing dancefloor and armchair camps (as do many of its creators), a producer such as Craig renders those binary oppositions unnecessary and meaningless.

ON THE CHART

As the dog days of summer begin to take hold, the top of the chart remains locked in place, with no movement in the top four, while Silent's second trance comp, Tox Uthat Volume 2, takes the highest debut this week at #16. Pow Wow's latest trance comp also debuts this week, at #22, while one of the rare vocal house entries to the chart comes in the form of Elegant Slumming, the debut full-length from M People, now signed to Epic in the U.S. (from de/construction on the U.K.), at #25. Re-entries this week include Seefeel (#9), Program 2 (#10), Zen Paradox (#15) and Nine Inch Nails (#23). You want a label count? Caroline and its various imprints make up one fifth of the top 25 this week. (RPM REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

ROBERT OWENS "All Night Long"/"After The Rain" (12") (Musical Directions, UK / 071-259-5376)—The Curtis Mayfield of the house generation has returned with an aching, beautiful gem of a single. The A-side's "All Night Long" is a hymn that alone makes this record worth hearing, but the flipside resonates with the sort of longing that I couldn't even try to express here. Since his outings with Larry Heard ("Bring Down the Walls"), Owens' music has encapsulated that desire for escape from the real world through a night on the dancefloor, while never ignoring the joy and pain that lies within the ken of the DJ. Hearing a song as graceful as this, you have to lament the fact that Owens had to travel to the U.K. and set up his own label to release music that should be adored by more than a few hundred people in this country. Stunning.

ROBERT ARMANI "Right To Silence" (double-12") (ACV, Via Antonio Coppi 4/C, 00179 Rome, Italy/06-7806466)—The Midwest's finest mix board bricoleur has once again demonstrated that another quick uptake of ephedrine is just what the doctor ordered. Armani negotiates the electronic terrain with the dexterity of a slalom champion. How he continues to do so much with so little sound is remarkable. His "best of" compila-tion, recently released on Pow Wow domestically, introduced many to his singular style. Those newcomers would do well to investigate these two platters which never stop to catch their breath.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

The indefatigable DERRICK CARTER just estab-lished his own Blue Cucaracha label in Chicago, and the debut release is a quirky four-track EP where Carter's most devious ideas are allowed free rein. Roping in some of the Midwest's most inventive producers, Carter launches the label in fine style. The A-side's jumpy "Jack Another Day" and "What Do You See" (co-produced with Chris Nazuka) have the ceaseless momentum of a helicopter blade, while the flip-side estab-lishes a mellifluous texture with the help of the reliable Ron Trent and Chez Damier whose involvement is a near guarantee of dancefloor activity (Blue Cucaracha, Chicago, IL/312-365-9690)...CHRIS "BAM

BAM" WESTBROOK generated a great deal of excitement with his menacing "Where Is Your Child" in 1988, which invited the listener on a journey that took acid into the next dimension. Westbrook's eponymous, highly influential label disappeared soon after, so his re-emergence with the jolting "Space Track (Year 2000)" is well worth the wait. At a time when every Chicago acid vet is knocking 'em dead once again, Bam Bam warms up his acid machines for this heavily kick-drummed tour de force. Where is the soul in hard acid? Right here (Other Side, c/o Interfisch, d-10974, P.O. Box 360428, 10999 Berlin, Germany).

One year ago at this time, controversy nearly engulfed Jazz at Lincoln Center. The announcement of this prestigious art institution's jazz performance schedule — heavy with appearances by friends and protégés of the program's artistic director, Wynton Marsalis — provoked cries of nepotism and complaints about the limited idiomatic scope of the music. If that wasn't enough, when word leaked out that the elder (over 30) members of the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra were to be replaced by young-bloods (under 30), the spam hit the air conditioner. The resulting furor forestalled immediate wholesale personnel changes in the big band, though a number of younger members have gradually been eased into the fold. Through it all, no one questioned the abilities of the players, be they outgoing or incoming; it was the timing and even moreso the wording on the planned pink slips (which many viewed as age discrimination), that rankled many musicians and critics. One year later, the rancor has largely abated, largely, and Jazz At Lincoln Center, which began as a summer concert series in 1987, has unveiled another year of jazz activities, beginning this month with "Classical Jazz," running from Aug. 2-7 at various Lincoln Center venues. This summer's slate, in addition to a film (Jazz Shouters On Film, Aug. 2, Walter Reade Theater) and a debate (between Wynton Marsalis and James Lincoln Collier, Aug. 7, Stanley H. Kaplan Penthouse), includes a "Battle Royale" jam session pitting alto saxophonists against trombonists (Aug. 7, Alice Tully Hall); "Cornet Kings Before Armstrong," the music of Buddy Bolden, King Oliver and Freddie Keppard as interpreted by Dr. Michael White, Wynton Marsalis and his small-band members (Aug. 6, Alice Tully Hall); "Live From Lincoln Center: The City Of Jazz," a multi-group program featuring the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra, the Wynton Marsalis Septet and the Roy Hargrove Quintet, among others (Aug. 3, Alice Tully Hall), and evenings devoted to career retrospectives honoring and featuring Jimmy Heath and Art Farmer. "Tenor On Top," at Alice Tully Hall Aug. 4, is an overdue appreciation to tenor saxist and composer Jimmy Heath for his more than four decades of service to modern jazz. The Philly-bred "Little Bird," as he was dubbed early in his career (after alto sax giant Charlie Parker), will lead his own big band, featuring guests Marsalis and tenorist Joe Henderson, and also perform with the Heath Brothers, the quartet comprising the sibling triumvirate of Jimmy, Percy and Albert Heath. Jimmy, now 67, who realized a longtime dream in 1992 with the release of a big-band CD, Little Man Big Band (Verve), has been commissioned to pen new music for a large aggregate. Among the new music's five movements, to be performed by the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra with soloist Henderson, are "The End Of The Tunnel," "Mandela," "Moments Of Peace," "A Harmonic Future" and "The Search Continues." One hopes that Heath's new music, imbued as the titles suggest with sociopolitical awareness, will be recorded (that night live or later in the studio) for eventual release. The other elder statesman to be honored with an evening, brassman Farmer, is equally deserving. Farmer,

ON THE CHART

Verve-PG's Roy Hargrove Quintet sits comfortably atop the jazz chart for its sixth straight week. Elektra-Nonesuch's World Saxophone Quartet jumps way up (7-2) while the import World Saxophone Quartet album (an Black Saint) finally falls off the chart. Two big jumps into the top 10 are Black/Note's debut album on Columbia (12-4) and Novus-RCA's Vanessa Rubin (15-9). And less dramatically, Blue Note-Capitol's Mose Allison (9-5) has been slowly, but steadily scaling the chart for five weeks. There are four chart debuts this week: Twin Tenors' debut album on Novus (#19), the young-at-heart Tony Bennett on Columbia (#20), percussionist Kahil El'Zabar from Chicago on the Delmark label (#22) and New York drummer Joey Baron on New World (#24). Reporters: Note that there are two current World Saxophone Quartet albums; please be sure to specify which you are playing in your faxes and phone reports! 65, who expatriated to Europe decades ago (but performs in the U.S. extensively), has made scads of albums over the years for a multitude of labels in a wide variety of formats. Never an innovator on the order of Louis Armstrong or Dizzy Gillespie, Farmer has nonetheless been a thoroughly consistent, pleasing and expressive player — first on trumpet, later exclusively on flugelhorn, and of late on the flumpet, a combination of the two. Like the late trumpeter Kenny Dorham, Farmer has proven again and again that he is a team player, capable of blending into any playing situation, be it as leader or sideman (most notably with Horace Silver and Gerry Mulligan). Farmer's cachet — indeed the common denominator throughout his highly productive career — has been his abiding lyricism, a tunefulness and respect for melody in any key, at any tempo, in small-group or big-band settings. His night at Lincoln Center, "Art Farmer: Autobiography In Soul & Swing" (Alice Tully Hall, Aug. 5), presents him in the company of Marsalis, Mulligan, guitarist Jim Hall, bassist Ron Carter, tenorman Benny Golson and trombonist Curtis Fuller. In the late '50s, Farmer and Golson co-founded the Jazztet, a seminal hard-bop combo (which featured Fuller at various times) that ranks just below Art Blakey's Jazz Messengers and Miles Davis and Horace Silver's '50s quintets in neoclassical influence. The release of Farmer's latest CD, The Company I Keep (Arabesque, 10

W. 37th St., New York, NY 10018/212-279-1414), a sextet side featuring second brassman Tom Harrell, is propitiously timed. The leader's flumpet, in tandem with Harrell's trumpet and flugelhorn, is buoyed by the tight-knit rhythm section of Geoff Keezer (piano), Kenny Davis (bass) and Carl Allen (drums); the double-brass front line is enriched by the tenor and soprano saxophone work of Ron Blake, best known for his work with Roy Hargrove. The hour-long The Company I Keep, a studio session produced by Helen Keane, is a splendid paradigm of organic development: Better than half of the compositions were written by the players on the date; Harrell and Davis (a fast-rising writer and dependable timekeeper) chipped in two apiece while Keezer contributed one, the eight-minute "Song Of The Canopy." The pairing of Farmer and the equally versatile Harrell was an inspired decision because the unselfish Farmer is uplifted, rather than diminished, by the presence of a fellow brassman. Touché! In other Lincoln Center Jazz-related recording news, the Marsalis-led Orchestra's new Columbia outing, They Came To Swing, will be issued imminently. In addition to two Marsalis tunes, the program includes numbers by Duke Ellington, Billy Strayhorn, Thelonious Monk and Dizzy Gillespie.

REVIEWS

ORB "Pomme Fritz" (Island Red, c/o Island, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—The Orb's most abstract and minimal single to date is the basis of one of the most abstract and minimal videos we've ever seen. It's centered primarily on a big, weirdly-shaped, blue turning strange thing that whirls quietly in space for a while, then ventures out into the world of armored medieval guards and confused suburban businessmen; there's also a pair of hands manipulating a few more large crystal balls than hands can actually manipulate. If this sounds like it could inspire the same kind of stoned reverie as the best Hipgnosis album sleeves from Pink Floyd records, well, that's it exactly. There's not much going on on-screen, but you still can't pull your eyes off it.

MAGNAPOP "Slowly, Slowly" (Play It Again Sam, c/o Priority, 6430 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028/213-467-0151)—Cute boys, cute girls—gosh, copulation has never looked so youthfully hipl! With all the elements of a Generation X hit video, "Slowly, Slowly" introduces Magnapop's infectious pop vibe with enough shots of twenty-something cuddling couples to give Reality Bites and Singles a run for their money. But when you have a voice as delightfully melodic as Magnapop's Linda Hopper, or a song as hook-filled as "Slowly, Slowly," images of post-teen playfulness and energy are inescapable. (CH)

PUBLIC ENEMY "Give It Up" (Def Jam/RAL, c/o Island, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—After undoubtedly changing the face of music, PE has returned to the scene with Muse Sick N Hour Message, the first album of all-new material in almost two years. While "Give It Up" probably won't change the face of music video, it definitely takes a step towards eradicating the car-hoppin', gun-toutin' and 40-swillin' tradition pervading most hip-hop video these days. Just when you thought Flavor Flav couldn't get any more cartoonish than he already is, the wildman himself is depicted as a miniature claymation figure, along with Chuck D and even

Bill Clinton. The presence of these humorous figures works not only as comic relief for PE's oft times overt seriousness, but also as important theatrical props in the clip's dissection of rap's violence and hypocrisy. (CH)

KILLING JOKE "Millennium" (Big Life, c/o Zoo, 6363 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028)

Who better than Killing Joke, one of the most seminal "industrial" bands ever, to create a virtual apocalyptic tour de force for its first video (and album), with the band's original lineup reunited for the first time in 12 years. Directed by John Klein (U2, Inspiral Carpets), "Millennium" takes some of the bedraggled populace of The Road Warrior movies, stark industrialized landscapes and a variety of contorted editing movements to create an overall sense of impending doom. Figure in the unlikely presence of Middle Eastern melodies that haunt the band's heavy-duty instrumentation, and you've got more than your average post-NIN din—you've got the original. (CH)

WEEZER "Undone: The Sweater Song" (DGC, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90028)

It's nice to see a video director get a lot of work and return that good fortune by churning out diverse and engaging videos. We're talking about Spike Jonze, of course. This fuzzy, funny pop song from the geekyyet-catchy Weezer is one long tracking shot—a veritable optic balm among hyper-edits and computer graphics (with apologies to the fine Killing Joke clip). It's hard to write a good pop song and even harder to make a one-shot video that doesn't bore the viewer, yet Weezer and Spike have accomplished both with "Undone." The dogs chasing the cameras out of the studio at the end is a nice final touch too. Our sweater's off to Weezer and Spike! (SC)

HARRY CONNICK, JR. "I Could Only Whisper Your Name" (Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)

Maybe he got a threatening phone call in the middle of the night from Francis Albert Sinatra saying: "Hey kid, stop singin' like me," but the bottom line is Harry Jr. has put coo coo crooning on the back burner and has opted for the joyous rhythms of his birthplace, New Orleans. As one casual viewer of "Whisper Your Name" noted: "There's so much smiling in this video." Well, there's plenty to smile about. This cut shows Harry having fun: He's lost the hard-as-nails pompodour, the outdated garb and the orchestra, and the result is a loose, funky pop song. The abrupt stylistic change may disappoint many a housewife awaiting another blue crooner record, but we're pleased as hell to welcome Mr. Connick into this decade. (SC)

DIALOGUE

GUEST DIALOGUE

Goalkeeper Claudio Taffare (Brazil) defends final penalty kick against Roberto Baggio (Italy).

Final World Cup '94 Report From The Dentists, EastWest Recording Artists

So we guess we owe you all $10! Brazil made it, but the brave Bulgarians didn't, though they'd already won their "cup final" when they trounced Germany. The final itself was a bit disappointing—two great sides scared to get into top gear, but we think the best team won the tournament anyway. Penalty shoot outs are so cruel. Those Italians will be haunted for years. Lucky they're not Columbian, really...It has to be said the Americans did good job as hosts, and it makes it even more upsetting that England failed to qualify. We're not sure we would have contributed much to the footballing occasion (too hot for English football), but we certainly would have improved the arrest statistics for the L.A. and NY PDs! Apparently there were only 300 arrests in four weeks out of a watching audience of two million. That's the bit that you've actually missed! But what did you, the American public, make of it all? Will you abandon your Lakers caps for a Brazilian t-shirt? Send back those Bulls mugs for a Manchester United scarf? Grow your own Lalas beard? Let us know...Fax us your own World Cup reports, throw down the challenge for a game of five-a-side when the Dentists next pass through, or simply tell us if soccer really is the "beautiful game." Our fax number is 011-81-747-1699, day or night, and we'll print the good ones in the next edition of our Novocaine fanzine. They say it ain't over 'til the fat lady sings, but someone really should have told Pavorotti—maybe put the mockers on an Italian victory! See you all in France in '98!

RECORD COMPANY

Keith Jenkins, Relapse/Nuclear Blast America, Millersville, PA (717) 397-9221
AMORPHIS, Tales From The Thousand Lakes and BENEDICTION, Grotesque/Ashen Epitaph will be invading your space very soon. The Amorphis is going to be huge, so prepare yourself. Benediction's Grotesque release will be followed by an East Coast tour with Bolt Thrower. SINISTER is still touring with Cannibal Corpse and Cynic. And, the tour I know you've been waiting for...a PUNGENT STENCH will wait across the U.S. this fall! Can you smell it coming? I can.

Scott Carter, A&M Records, Hollywood, CA (213) 469-2411

Before I babble about A&M stuff, I'd like to take a moment to point out what a great show Talk Soup is on the E! channel. If you don't get cable TV, I would highly encourage coughing up the $20 and getting it. That information superhighway on-ramp is staring you in the face, so stop taking those information side streets. OK—FRETBLANKET's out now, and they'll be playing here in the US in August or so. The first single off the SFW Soundtrack is a brand new MONSTER MAGNET track, and the album contains new CHRIS CORNELL, PAW, COP SHOOT COP and BABES IN TOYLAND. The Carpenters tribute album rules, with tracks from SONIC YOUTH, BETTIE SERVEERT, CRACKER, GRANT LEE BUFFALO, SHONEN KNIFE and lots more. And our Fast Track To Nowhere soundtrack (for the Showtime (more cable TV!) mini-series) has new MEAT PUPPETS and IGGY POP tracks. Things I must explain to people: Kyuss, Jonathan Richman, Beasts Of Bourbon and the beauty of a good card trick. Things I need explained to me: Live, the new L7, soccer, pogs. And hats off to college radio for leading commercial radio to the Offspring record.

Jill & Jeannie, Red Light Records, Des Plaines, IL (708) 297-6538

OK, Wednesday July 20, 1994 you WILL be at THE BANK on the Lower East Side in NYC during New Music Seminar. Playing will be the following kick ass bands: The PLEASURE ELITE, SARKOMA and Delaware's own SOLITUDE who will have a record out in Sept. (these guys are so good!!) Also joining in the bash, CIRCLE OF DUST (R.E.X.) and CYCLONE TEMPLE (Monsterdisc). The evening kicks off at 9:30 with CT. Record labels, radio stations, retailers, press, anybody, call me, call me, call me, we have an open guest list and you are invited. It will be the coolest thing goin' that night so be there. The Pleasure Elite full and CIANIDE adds will be July 25 & 26, mark your calendar now!

Natalie Yonan, Red Decibel Inc, Minneapolis, MN (612) 874-2410

Hello and Goodbye! As divine as it's been sharing this purgatory with all of you lovely souls, heaven awaits me elsewhere. Basically I'm moving on, hittin' the road, puttin' my pole in a different pond, shiftin' gears, changin' lanes, shuffling off to Buffalo (for all you tap dancers out there), blowin' this popsicle stand. You name it, I'm doing it. So your Red Decibel radio calls will now come from Amy. She'll be nice to you so you be nice to her. If I'm granted a last request, it would be that y'all play the shit out of GLAZED BABY. The band is on tour now, see them in a town near you (call for dates and info), don't forget FAT TUESDAY and HOUSE OF LARGE SIZES, and watch for new releases from CHER U.K. and SEASON TO RISK this fall. Okay, I know that's really more than one request jammed into a run-on sentence. Lighten up.

Gary Jay/Amy Nathanson/Andre Marian, AIM Marketing, Old Bridge, NJ (908) 679-9111

God, I'm running late...what time is it? 5:57? OK, I've got three minutes to write this, type it up, and fax it over. My teeth are rattling. I work well under pressure. I can do this. I think I can, I think I can, I think I can...I'm the little engine that could. Remember that story? That was the coolest. New music from SKY CRIES MARY, KILLING JOKE, TRIPMASTER MONKEY, MICHAEL HEDGES, LOVE SPIT LOVE...do the right thing, your listeners will thank you. BOINGO is on tour, call us or your Giant rep for ticket info...SURGERY are shimmering live along with MACHINES OF LOVING GRACE. Two great tastes that taste great together. Coming in August: GOATS, No Goats, No Glory. Call us for free stuff. We're cooler than Santa Claus (or even Scott Giampino, for that matter): we don't care if you've been naughty or nice. Damn, it's 6:01...hope they print this.

[Actually, it was 6:05 by our clock, but we've been known to be benevolent—ed.]

"Everything you know about dance music is wrong." Behold a sign of the changing times. dubnobasswithmyheadman. UNDERWORLD. An indie rock aesthetic for the dancefloor experience. "There is no way you will hear a more thrilling album this year. No fucking way at all." Here's the deal: I haven't stopped listening to this record for a month now, and if you haven't received a copy, you had better call me immediately. No hype here. Just a pure, insatiable lust for the record. I haven't been this moved since New Order (ucchh, my age). Okay. Now let's talk about D*NOTE. Experience the rebirth of cool. Experimental fusion. Jazz in the coffeehouses. Jazz (and Sivan) in the discos. Metrojazz with flavor. Yumm. Guru, Queen Latifah and Incognitio (to name a few) remixes "Now Is The Time," the first single from Babel. Am I psyched? Fuck, ya. Music here has never been this good. TVT, not just for gearheads anymore. Strength through diversity. Rock on with your bad self. Ahhem. CATHERINE hits the west coast in August with Dig and Lucy's Fur Coat. CORDS' Simone Halsbeek rocks your world (Mia Zapata reincarnated?) JUSTER? Here's to the Ill Communicator in you. GIL SCOTT-HERON? Enough said. SISTER MACHINE GUN's on tour now: 7/19-St. Louis, 7/21-Indianapolis, 7/22-Grand Rapids, 7/23-Chicago, 7/24-Minneapolis, 7/28-Omaha. Your call is as good as mine. Capisce?

Sharon Joffe, Arista Records, New York, NY (800) 627-4782 ext. 2144.

Three hours of pool for free. Lots of gin and tonics. Puck. The Reverend. 7B. Hangover? Nope, not me. Pretentious commoners at CB's are not for me. Corrupting 15 year olds, now that's for me. Courtney and Evan sitting in a tree? She says no, but I'll bet he says yes. Nudge nudge wink wink. He still played drums too fast for her. Hugging lampposts and getting black and blue. Basketball in an old folks complex. See Spott dribble. Picnic on the roof. What does all this mean? Typical weekend for me in NYC. THE CHURCH Sometime Anywhere is still doing quite well with you in college radio land. You have the CD with seven extra tracks. Play it now and a lot. Tell everyone about it. SARAH MCLACHLAN may be coming back on tour. Look for her. Saw you at NMS? Great to meet you! On the future agenda from Dedicated Records is THIS PICTURE with an album called City of Sin. In August you'll hear FAMILY CAT (already getting rave reviews in the UK) with Magic Happens. Airheads, the soundtrack, is on your desk by now and hopefully you found something to use and didn't give it to your metal dude because they already have one. A few suggestions: PRIMUS, WHITE ZOMBIE, ANTHRAX and DIG. Was I a goth? Am I a goth? What is a goth? That question lurks in the minds of many. Perhaps some insight..#45 sunblock, a few hours frolicking in the sun and I still got a tan.

Al Crisafulli, Minister of all that is good, Dromedary Records, Boonton, NJ (201) 334-3415

We couldn't stand hearing questions like "When are you going to put out a CUPPA JOE CD?" So we decided, fuck it, let's do it, and we did, so we're putting out nurture (the CD) in September. You should remember them from their busy work e.p. on Dromedary just a few months back. Their cut "bottlerocket" was number one at your station just before you got there. You should have it sometime soon—look for it in your thing. Play it, chart it, interview the band, do the thing, live it, love it, rock and roll, rust never sleeps, you know the deal...anyway, a couple of weeks later you'll all receive the new CD from the MOMMYHEADS. You should remember their Coming Into Beauty CD on Simple Machines a few years ago, and their contributions to Simple Machines compilations and seven inchers over the past few years...so I'm obviously too fuckin' busy to write this dialogue. But I love you all so much I felt you just had to know. Sorry to keep you. Oh, every time a Dromedary record charts at your station, you get a free Roger Daltrey CD from Blake at Continuum. E-Mail me at dromedary@aol.com.

Adam J. Pollock, Island Records, New York, NY (212) 603-3942

Wanna know what Island is releasing in August: PUBLIC ENEMY, CONSOLIDATED, WOOL,

Performance Artists... Spoken Word... Soundbite Poets...

CMJ Music Marathon '94 is seeking submissions for the second annual performance art festival at the Space.

Please submit: CD/cassette/LP, 1/2" video, bio, photo to: Jinnette Ries

Great Neck, NY 11021

Phone: 516-466-6000 ext.19 • Fax: 516-466-7159

MARIANNE FAITHFULL, JULES SHEAR, GRAVEDIGGAS, ROYAL JELLY, BUCKWHEAT ZYDECO and the soundtrack to the coolest movie of the summer, The Adventures of Priscilla, Queen of the Desert (about three transvestites in Australia—sounds like my last vacation) so just forget any other labels exist next month. On top of all that stuff, the MEAT PUPPETS are smoking across the U.S. with Wieland and co. PULP is starting to generate some excitement—thanks for the Jackpot—JAH WOBBLE's new one is off to a grand start: look for Jah on the road in August, and we just released an album from Irish rockers ENGINE ALLEY, who I think sound a bit like the Kinks. Call for a promo and make up your own mind (as usual).

Steve "Mr. Tough" Charles, Two Tough Records, Washington DC, (301) 680-1970 'Nuff Respect to all of the CMJ Reggae massive. It has been a long time coming, but now it's here for you, GENERAL TK's phat US debut CD entitled Original Poisonous on Two Tough label. Featuring thirteen wicked new tracks, including combinations with Dennis Brown and Snagga Puss, as well as the smash R&B styles single "Have Fi Get Her," featuring Jack Radics. Hailing from Kingston, Jamaica, T.K. has been setting the dancehalls ablaze with his unique style and conscious message. Tracks like "Maximum Speed," "Times A Change," "Wicked Way" and the ganja anthem "Herb Man" are destined to be classics. On his recent visit to the states, he received rave reviews on his performances in New York, Boston and Philadelphia, and this is only a sample of the talents of this rising Dancehall phenom. Please contact us here at the Two Tough Headquarters if your station needs IDs and radio drops from T.K., and to assure that you receive copies of both the "Have Fi Get Her" single and Original Poisonous CD. In other Two Tough news, keep your eyes and ears open for the release of new 12" discos via VP Records in Queens, NY. Artist include General T.K., DENNIS BROWN, SNAGGA PUSS, BUCCANEER, and GLEN RICKS. Finally, I need to big up all Boston, New York and Philadelphia Massives. You're large! for making T.K.'s US trip a major success. Seen!

Jason Luber, The Cage, Capitol Records, Hollywood, CA (800) 342-8842 Hi everybody! We're still waiting on your a capella BEASTIE BOYS cassettes, so get them to us ASAP. B-Boy keep rockin', I hope you dig 'em as much as we do. LUSCIOUS JACKSON should be on your desk right now, great girls, great tunes. They'll be catching a ride on the Lollapalooza tour through early August, so if you're one of the lucky ones to catch them, let us know what you think. By now most of you have heard EVERCLEAR, (formerly with TK), have jumped aboard the Capitol boat. If you don't have this record yet, call us now to get it. MICHAEL FRANTI of Spearhead (ex-Disposable Heros of Hyphoprisy) is now on tour. Call us for interviews. Thanks, see ya!

Teri Donnelly, Revolution Promotion Management, Athens, GA (706) 548-6007 What'cha doin'? There once was a kid named Migraine Boy and his little dog, Tylenol...a great comic here. That is what is up in Athens, GA...and if you don't wilt in the sweaty clubs seeing some intensely sonic shows! Jack O'Nuts, the Woggles, Man or Astroman?, Hayride, 311, and Archers Of Loaf were especially sweaty...Since you saw us here last, The WOGGLES have released The Zontar Sessions on Estrus Records. You may have already guessed that this quintet, who portray the Kingston Trio on their album, are surf-rockers! Only a precious few in radioland got one, but go buy the thing! Copies are available on CD and vinyl. If you must, you may call me and I'll finagle a copy for you...The CD is in a not-so-handy sleeve, so please do it a favor by putting it in a jewel case. On your plate, HUNDRED YEAR SUN, EMILY BEZAR and WILD WEST PICTURE SHOW...Get your fill. More later, bye!

Julie McKnight, Doctor Dream Records, Orange, CA (714) 997-9387 Did you get the CADILLAC TRAMPS latest? ...It's Alright check those mailboxes. I'm sure it will find it's way to your charts. The Tramps are in the middle of their national tour and will be on the West Coast in mid-July. I'm all Milky Juicy to see TINY LIGHTS in the Top 150. The band will begin their national tour in August. Forget Seattle and San Diego, you know it all started in Orange County, take veteran punkers D.I. for example. The band's recent release, State Of Shock is tearing up the airwaves as we speak and their upcoming tour will bring the legendary O.C. punk sound to you!

Tom Gates, Roadrunner Records, (212) 219-0077 Love him or hate him, Puck (yes, the guy who picks his nose) from MTV's The Real World is in the new BLACK TRAIN JACK video for "Handouts." Speaking of BTJ (convenient segue, eh?), the boys are beyond excited about their current tour with Mighty Mighty Bosstones. I hope that single with unreleased b-sides has made its way to you. BUZZOVEN are on the road (kinda like Cats, "now and forever"). It's always nice to have bands that cut their flesh on stage. Sore is right up the college radio alley! DOG EAT DOG's All Boro Kings should be at every station by now. Call if you need a copy. Also, if you didn't get a copy of MADBALL (old-style New York hardcore in the '90s) and would like one just start touching those tones. Coming soon: LAZY, FRONT LINE ASSEMBLY (oh my god).

Gina (The Babysitter), Galli Round The Globe, (212) 947-5575 311 Grassroots on Capricorn Records is at your station now! Everyone should be playing this record. "Shriek Of The Weak" by NAKED SUN and TEN WINGS CD Wishing Well continue to pick up more radio support. Thanx to all that gave them a chance. Let's start reporting them now.

Jeff Sperber, McGathy Alternative, New York, NY (800) 448-7625 Originally, I was intending on writing a Haiku to introduce myself, but I couldn't remember the rhyme scheme. So, I guess this brief intro to me will have to suffice. I am Jeff Sperber, the newest member of the McGathy promotions "Alternative Division." Please make sure that each and every one of you in College Radioland has had the experience of speaking with Corey or myself. "It's free, It's fun, It's Confidential." In the "By The Way" file, the answer to KTUH's movie trivia is Caddyshack. Do we win anything?

Chuck P. & John Perrone, Caroline Records, (212) 989-2929 First, everyone should have the debut release from San Francisco's BRACKET. 924 Forestville St. is fast, fun and loud. Check out "Why Should Eye" and "Skanky Love Song." They'll be on tour later this summer and you don't want to miss 'em...Next up, the future is in your hands. FUTURE SOUND OF LONDON Lifeforms. Expose your listeners to something different. Play "Room 208 (track #9-cd2) and "Cascade" (track #1-cd1)...PEACH will be on the road with CORDUROY in late August supporting their record Siesta. Be on the look out for a new EP in September with unreleased tracks and "Stop" by the James Gang and "Children Of The Revolution" by T-Rex on it...Still wanting to play: FUDGE Southside Speedway and ADRIAN BELEW Here...RPM folks are slammin' with enough stuff from Astralwerks to start your own record store. You should have Excursions In Ambience: The Third Dimension, Technomancer IV, TRANSFORMER 2, Seefeel 12", FSOL and DAEDALUS PROJECT 12". Coming soon: new Seefeel, HOWZE O'

DYNAMITE, SPACETIME CONTINUUM, STEVE FISK and FIERCE RULING DIVA. That should hold you over a month.

Gretchen Lindensmith, National Retail Marketing Coordinator, Independent Label Sales, New York, NY (800) 274-7957 ext.7943 or (212) 603-7943 Go see AFRICA FETE. Listen to MC SOLAAR. Grab that TRIPPING DAISY EP. Take a trip with the ORB. Have a BIG HARD DISK VOL. 2. Rock to the MEICES. FEAR OF A BLACK HAT is at a theater near you (so go buy one). Look for: SANDALS, SABRES OF PARADISE, ORBITAL, VAPOURSPACE, and some starting pitching. Would somebody get me a date with Dean Cain?

Craig Williamson, Zoo Entertainment, Hollywood, CA (213) 468-4224 If you have not received your KILLING JOKE "Millenium" (single) or Pandemonium (full) call me, and I'll get this to you...Don't be left out in the dark on this one. If you're a Killing Joke fan call me to receive your own copy of Pandemonium on double vinyl...the band is looking to tour in October. COURSE OF EMPIRE are touring with Sister Machine Gun and Engines of Aggression in July and August call me for tickets and look out for the next single "White Vision Blowout." SPADE GHETTO DESTRUCTION's One Time Too Many will be in your hands as you read this, check it out!!! Thanks to all who have a healthy glow for your continued support of the MISS ALANS this band is phenomenal and I'm glad you feel the same way...Check out "Cat" by the CARNIVAL STRIPPERS from the "Speed" soundtrack. Mark (RAS) the neg's will cost many a bale...thanks Monica & Brad for the candle idea...Dorian (SST), I'll see you at the next klan meeting...Trisha (KCRW) what do you think of the new Miss Alans songs?

Chris Stimer, Geil Publishing, Chicago, IL (312) 942-0530 For those of you in radio land that think we are running a petting zoo, let it be known that we here at Geil do not necessarily condone any form of BESTIALITY! The title of THE BUSTERS' new release is Sexy Money, not Sexy Monkey as shown in CMJ #386. While no offense is intended to the good folks at CMJ, however one might pause to question the sexual practices of the typesetter or computer scanner for that matter. Of course by all means please fuck whatever you like, just leave our monkeys alone. My dog is also unavailable. SLAPSHOT Live At S036 is getting good play and I can't thank you enough! (Thanks to Rob, WCWP and Andrew, KSDB; you guys are great!) Don't forget to add "Wish You Were Here" and "Funmakers" from The Busters' Sexy Money, that's right, money, money, money, money. Next dialogue we can address the sexual glorification of capitalism.

RADIO

Tori B. Elliott, The Best Limbo Dancer, WZND, Normal, IL (309) 438-5491 My first entry. How sweet. As I sit in limbo land, with construction workers gathered 'round, I would like to thank all for their patience with us for not being on air. As most know we were to be on air June 20, but we leaked. So we are waiting for final cleanup. We are here and functioning (except for that pesky on-air thing). My summer phone hours are Mon and Wed 1-3 and our new fax number is (309) 438-2625. We are scheduled to go on the air in August around when school starts up again. But a look into the future, we have two huge back to school promotions and need anything you would like to send for us to give away. Also with our move, and limited LP space, we would like mainly CDs sent (unfortunately), unless it's a can't pass up vinyl (as most are). We are two hours from Chicago and three hours from St. Louis and smack dab in the middle of a cornfield. We are surrounded by country and top 40 stations. We try our best to deal with it. Talk to all soon. Looking forward to the fall, I will still be talking to you then. Kisses!

Adam Potts, Music Director, KYMC, Chesterfield, MO (314) 530-0981

News from the center of the country. To all the reps that have been trying to get in touch with me, No, I wasn't in a horrible car accident. As of now, I am no longer on staff as MD. The new MD is Jen and as of yet she has not set up office hours. She will be returning calls and taking them so make sure to introduce yourselves to her. What about me? I got a part-time jock position. Thanks to all the reps that supplied music and etcetera to the station (continue to do so). Thanks also to CMJ for proofreading all the dialogues I have sent in. For one final thing I would also like to encourage everyone who reads this to listen to a new CD from DGC called The Woman's Boat by TONI CHILDS.

Chris Miller, Music Director, KBLZ, Omaha, NE (402) 554-2957

Well, I just read in the newspaper that those oh so good looking grunge gods, PEARL JAM, appeared in Washington, DC. They were whining about how Ticketmaster was unfair in jacking up ticket prices for Pearl Jam shows. If Pearl Jam were really concerned with outrageous ticket prices, they should take a lesson from a true "alternative" band, FUGAZI. Ian and company are still only charging five dollars a head, still do not sell merchandise at their shows, and still refuse to make a stupid video to push their albums. Stand up and take notice. But when I'm not slugging Pearl Jam, I'm listening to SUPERCHUNK, MAN OR ASTROMAN?, HELMET, GIRLS AGAINST BOYS, MEDICINE and JESUS LIZARD. And, if you are ever in Omaha this summer, check out some of our local bands that are getting airplay on the John Peel show in Europe; such as FISCHER, RITUAL DEVICE, MOUSETRAP, and FRONTIER TRUST. While you're in Omaha, you should also check out the Antiquarim, located in the Old Market in downtown Omaha, which is one of the best Indie Rock Record shops in the Midwest. Nuff said. Enjoy the rest of your summer and take care.

Randy Tenbrink, Music Director, WCKS Radio, Allendale, MI (616) 895-2356

Heeey! Milwaukee Metalmania VIII is creeping upon us quickly so get yer tickets and git 'em soon! 'Twill kick your ass! Lumps are finally going down and the soggy air is gone—for now at least. Is the summer more than half over? Noo, no no. It's only a dream. Palooza fever has hit the nation and I don't have tickets for the Pine Knob date; any sympathy? Go cry. Mailers should be in your box by the time you see this and if you have already heard from me, ignore the damn thing or give me a call anyway. Work begins on the WCKS "Rites Of Autumn": here at GVSU which does what the "Rites Of Spring" does—showcase local and state-wide bands to hopefully introduce them to as many new people as possible (impressionable freshman, ha!) and if all goes well, it'll blaze just like the April '94 extravaganza did. SKY CRIES MARY is the best friggin' thing to come from Seattle—ever. Thanks to all who helped build our metal library this summer. Thank you, thank you, thank you. You know who you are and if you are a metal director to whom I have not yet spoken, call me! Want a beer Rita? You never talk to me.

Hola folks, greetings from WFSE's summer alternative director! Hope that you all are keeping cool and happy during these heat filled days. I must say that this summer's music scene has been more exciting than frying ants with a magnifying glass! The new LIVE is absolutely great! "I Alone" is stirring up a lot of good response from the jocks and the audience. The DGC Rarities Vol. 1 disc is also cool, as well as FRETBLANKET, GIGOLO AUNTS, the new TOAD, and the DAMBUILDERS!!! For those of you who haven't picked up the AP 9th anniversary disc—do it! You don't know what you are missing. By the way, to all Rob Radencic's reps—feel free to call (4p-6p) on Mondays, or leave a message on the machine. Well, you all behave yourselves!!! Later.

Steve "Whatta ya mean it's not an open bar" Maloney, Music Director, WBIM, Bridgewater, MA (508) 697-1303

First of all, hello to everyone out there, especially Kelly at 227 Records, Chuck at the Want Ads, the Vickster at Radical, and Adam at Sub Pop (not necessarily in that order). Second of all, thanks to 7 YEAR BITCH for being themselves, and for the great show they played in Boston. The album is great, and so are the band members. Third of all, I am sure I don't have to say how great the new VELOCITY GIRL or LUSH releases are, so I'll talk about JACK LOGAN (Twin/Tone Records). His release is called Bulk, and it's a 2 CD thing. When I sat down to preview it, it blew me away. With all the different music being put out these days, I have become hard to impress; very few things stand out in my mind, and this is one of them. It is obvious by the way he genre-hops that he is doing this for the music, and for the fun and love of the music. You must check out a new release on 227 Records by the MELTS, titled Salicoutinaw (no, I don't know what it means...). It is great, so crank it way up. Honorable mention to MIRANDA SEX GARDEN and HOUSE OF PAIN; both are excellent. Viva Zapata! Until next time....

Mike Siciliano, Alternative Music Director, WCWP Radio, Brookville, NY (516) 299-2626

This one is a thank you to a bunch of people that I'll list in no particular order. These guys have helped me immensely since I came on to this chaos, I mean position, in January, and I'd like to just write a written thanks to all of them. Brian & Billy at PGD, Darren at Mechanic, Amy at AIM, Amy at Detour M, Gina at Round The Globe, Jeremy at AAM, John at Radioactive, Stephanie & Jeff at Virgin, and last, but not least, Corey at McGathy. Thanks crew for dealing with my antics and craziness, and I hope we keep working for quite some time. Okay, enough with the mushy stuff. SEED is coming aboard for an interview come the end of this week. It should be a blast. The new one is still pumpin' out hit after hit. I'm working the track, "Nail." Last but not least, really quick: LIVE rules with "The Dam At Otter Creek." Later.

Artie Fufkin, Music Director, KGSU, Cedar City, Utah (801) 586-7975

STUCK IN THE MIDDLE OF RADIO WASTELAND IN THE SOUTHERN UTAH DESERT! We at KGSU have recently switched our format to college radio and are dying for contacts in the real world. We are "it" as far as radio stations go for the area, (except for the country and dinosaur rock stations) and have quite an impact as far as introducing the masses to different kinds of alternative music. We are stuck in a typical college town with 10,000 watts of power reaching approximately 40,000 people in Cedar City and surrounding communities...We can't get enough of that RCA release of 700 MILES and love the latest from STONE TEMPLE PILOTS from Atlantic. The kids here sure love throwing that copper around the place with Radioactive's toe tapping release from LIVE. Please call and chat with me, Artie Fufkin; my summer office hours are Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays from 1:00-2:00 p.m. Mountain Standard Time. Please feel free to send us stuff at: KGSU, Southern Utah University, 351 W. Center Street Centrum 213, Cedar City, UT 84720. Please help rescue us from radio wasteland!

Brendan M. Gillen III, Musical Director, WCBN, Ann Arbor, MI (313) 763-3501

Hello. Quick. Really quick. Very cool new assistant. You probably know her. Her name is Sweena. She used to do MD WSDP. I am going to Germany, mainly Berlin for the month of August. I will be doing some live performances with Teste & Perceptions of Probe + 8 & Switch Records and DJing in Berlin, Dresden, Cologne and Zurich. So for that month Sweena will be your phone victim. Treat her well my friends, or I will kill you. New music I like: The Laswell funk series on Ryko, Todd Edwards stuff, the latest FLYING SAUCER ATTACK single, the STEREOLAB advance, and that Mo Wax compilation Royalties Overdue.

VIDEO

Dave Ross, Producer, Future Flash, Atlanta, GA (404) 419-4964

A brief note as we continue our float south to the Gulf...cool summer tip: rub some LOTION on your playlists and try not to burn. Thank yous to Jeannine and Michelle at Chaos and the Lotion lads for a swell interview & live performance. If you like "Head," check out "Tear"...Hot vids: "Basket Case" from those Bay-area Anglophiles, GREEN DAY. Also THERAPY? and INSPIRAL CARPETS... Attention Publicity departments: WE NEED MUSIC NEWS! Send media kits to FUTURE FLASH, 369 W. Sandtown Rd., Marietta, GA 30064. Attn. Dawn...Am I paranoid or just really stoned?

RETAIL

Bev Chin, 4AD U.S., Melrose Ave., CA (310) 289-8770

Greetings from Smogsville U.S.A. There are many exciting things coming your way from Melrose Ave. in the coming months. As you probably know...LUSH's long-awaited album Split is out now. The band is scheduled to tour the states at the end of July. They will also be appearing on Late Night With Conan O'Brien on the 25th, as well as guest-hosting MTV's 120 Minutes on the 31st. For those of you who are fortunate enough to attend this years Reading Fest., look for performances from both Lush and FRANK BLACK. Coming this fall...expect a new release from the PALE SAINTS. The album is called Slow Building and hits the streets on the 30th of August. Also this Fall, a new effort from the WOLFGANG PRESS. Funky Little Demons comes your way on the 13th of September. Finally...A special treat for all you 4AD fanatics entitled All Virgos Are Mad. Stay tuned for more details. Last but not least, music you need to love...new releases from Guided By Voices, Luscious Jackson, Grant Lee Buffalo and LA's newest sensation...The Geraldine Fibbers! Until next time...

Dale Johnson, Retail Shlub, Slash Records, Los Angeles, CA (213) 937-4660

Funky. That's the new word I think of everytime I see lil' Kerry Murphy Groove (with a capital G) to the new Beastie Boys record. It's so damn cute...Funky in another way is Pretty Little Lonely the new record from hep cat MICHAEL PETAK, yet this one is funky in a T Bone Burnett-meets-Xanadu-at-a-party-thrown-by-the-cast-of-Gilligan's-Island kinda way, if you know what I'm sayin'. The man made a movie too, and we're giving it away free (for a limited time) with the purchase of the CD. Bargains galore! Who knew retail could be this much fun? All that happens circa August 16. Hungry For Stink, L7's grand slam of smelly goodness, is selling out everywhere. Random thought interjection: This Certain Damage CD is sooo awful good. Anyways, oh yeah, stock up on the transparent blue vinyl on the L7 record before they're all gone. It's all about stocking up and rocking out and Esquivel. Hot. Things: Free-spirited love goddesses, Hot Michael Hitt and Colours, Kerry Murphy. That's it okay, so get out.

NEWS

News coordinated by David Newgarden

ELEKTRA CHIEF QUILTS

Just a day after Doug Morris was appointed as head of Warner Music U.S., Elektra Entertainment Chairman Bob Krasnow resigned from his position. At press time, there is speculation of an Elektra merger with EastWest America Records, headed by EastWest America chair Sylvia Rhone.

S.E. ROGIE DEAD AT 68

S.E. Rogie, singer/guitarist from Sierra Leone in West Africa, died on July 4 at the age of 68 from a combined heart attack and stroke. Rogie came to prominence in the early '60s playing "Palm Wine" music. RealWorld/Caroline has just released a new Rogie album, which he ironically titled Dead Men Don't Smoke Marijuana.

PONK INHERITS FOT

Fot Records founder Steve Rubin died on May 12 at the age of 31, after battling stomach cancer and suffering a stroke. Rubin started the label in 1986 and released seven volumes of the Passed Normal compilation series, as well as albums by Henry Kaiser, Amy Denio and others. Friends of Rubin are carrying on the great Fot tradition with a new label, Ponk Records. The label is carrying the Fot catalog as well as completing several of Rubin's projects, including new albums from Soft Machine's Hugh Hopper and Tiny Tim, whose album will include contributions from Eugene Chadbourne, R. Stevie Moore and Pink Bob. Ponk can be contacted at P.O. Box 3664, Bloomington, IL 61702-3664, phone/fax (309) 365-4491.

NEW SLINT? YES AND NO

Touch And Go will have an August 29 release from Louisville, KY's Slint. It will be a 10" record with no album title and no song titles, and in fact there is no writing on the jacket at all. Its two selections were recorded between the Tweez and Spiderland sessions. According to Touch And Go, rumors that the band had reformed are unfounded. Drummer Britt Walford (who has also previously played with the Breeders and the Palace Brothers) is currently in the group Evergreen, and guitarist Brian McMahon is reportedly involved with a new group in Chicago.

INKED

A&M has signed Cincinnati, OH's Ass Ponys, who have previous releases on the OKra and Safehouse labels...Milk, formerly of the rap duo Audio Two, has been signed to American...Richmond, VA's Kepon has been signed to 1/4 Stick-Touch And Go and will have an album out in late August...Epitaph Records has announced that Claw Hammer has left the label for Interscope...Flying Saucer Attack will have an album released by Drag City. Late this summer, a collection of the band's singles entitled Distance will be released on the band's previous label, VHF...Drag City will also be releasing an album by Finland's Lilimarinna, which has previously recorded on the Bad Vugum label...Steel Pole Bath Tub has been signed by Slash Records... New York City's D Generation will release its debut album in late September on Chrysalis.

RECORD NEWS

Dinosaur Jr.'s new album, entitled Without A Sound, will be out on August 30 on Sire-Repulse, with a vinyl release out a week earlier. Thalia Zedek of Come contributes guest vocals, and hard-working singer/guitarist J Mascis handles the drum duties...Duane Denison (of the Jesus Lizard) and Jim Kimball (ex-Laughing Hyenas/Mule) have formed a new group called the Denison Kimball Trio. The band's first project, due on Skin Graft this fall, is the soundtrack for Jim Sikara's Walls Of The City. The band is currently touring with other Skin Graft bands...Seattle's Jessamine will have a Sub Pop 7" out in November and a full-length out on Kranky sometime in the fall...In October, Virgin will release a five-CD box set of material from Tangerine Dream's 15 Virgin albums. The music will be digitally remastered and is expected to contain a CD's worth of never-before-released material...The Cramps have a new release scheduled for an October release on Medicine Hollywood... On August 30, Scotti Bros. will release a tribute album to Tom Petty, including songs performed by Throneberry, Everclear, Silksworm and Edsel, among others...Restless will be reissuing Hear It Is, the Flaming Lips' second record from 1986, in October...DGC is reissuing Sonic Youth's classic 1986 album EVOL on August 30...Giant Sand's first major-label release, Glum, is scheduled for an August 30 release on Imago...On September 6, Rhino is releasing a four-CD boxed set of songs and poems by Allen Ginsberg, recorded between 1949 and 1993. The set, produced by Hal Willner, includes his 1966 Atlantic album Kaddish, a 1956 reading of his classic "Howl," and a wealth of unreleased material, including musical collaborations with The Clash, Elvin Jones and Bob Dylan.

LIVE WIRE

ROCK FOR CHOICE BENEFIT July 14, Irving Plaza, New York City

By the time most of the large crowd filtered into Irving Plaza, Tuscadero had already played most of its set. The crowd missed out. The band (which has two singles out on Teen Beat; an album, The Pink Album, is due out in a few months) came on like the head and torso of a charming new wave band with novelty tendencies grafted onto the kicking end of an immensely powerful rock band. Tuscadero is still finding its legs stylistically, but it performed amazingly well, and the rhythm section's matching outfits were a nice touch.

"I just want to say that we are definitely not signing to any major labels," singer Kathleen Hanna said to roars from the crowd as Bikini Kill took the stage for its first New York appearance in well over a year. Though it can be difficult to keep up enthusiasm on stage when you've played a small repertoire for as long as Bikini Kill has, the band was unflinchingly forceful, thrashing through songs from Pussy Whipped and older records, as well as one or two new ones. At the end of the half-hour set, the group was joined for a couple of energetic songs by Jean Jett. Jett traded off vocals with her younger comrade (who seemed to be having the time of her life), strapped on a white guitar for "Rebel Girl," and tossed the pick into the audience when it was over.

Shudder To Think frontman Craig Wedren, taking a sip from his thermos, had only one thing to say about the night's theme: "If abortion were illegal, I—24-year-old Craig—would have a 10-year-old kid. And that's far and away the last thing I need right now." The band, preparing for the release of Pony Express Record (Epic), is one of the weirdest hard-rock groups imaginable. The band has the Smashing Pumpkins' big rock moves and sound down, but its new songs turn standard song structure into salad. Tight, tough and giddy with its own self-assurance, the band deftly negotiated the bizarre rhythmic mazes of "Chakka" (so titled because "the guitar riff goes da, da, da, da-da-da-da-chakka!" Wedren explained) and the one-chord wonder "X-French Tee-Shirt." The closing "Hit Liquor" was the highlight of the set, with Wedren and Nathan Larson pulling impossible noises out of their guitars, then stopping so hard and fast the sound system had whiplash.—Douglas Wolk

COURTNEY LOVE GUESTS WITH LEMONHEADS July 8, Roseland, New York City

Hole frontwoman Courtney Love performed two songs, "Doll Parts" and "Miss World," at a surprise appearance that followed a Lemonheads concert on July 8. Moments after the Lemonheads finished their encore, Love ran on stage and said, "I wanna play a song for you, okay?" to the shocked crowd. "Doll Parts," her first number, was performed solo and "Miss World" was accompanied by Lemonheads frontman Evan Dando on drums. The songs were sloppy and raw, like a disorganized practice session. During the beginning of "Miss World," which was started and stopped twice before being played to completion, Love playfully chided, "Evan, you can't play drums," and followed with the remark, "Evan, you're going too fast. It's a ballad." Moments such as these were light and humorous, but the overall tone was harsh and despairing. Love's voice wavered unsteadily between weary mooning and abrasive howling and she closed "Miss World" with the added lines, "I am the one who's asking/Why'd you have to die?" —Jon Wiederhorn
