Buckshot LeFonque

It's the '90s, and popular culture is playing fast and loose with genres, categories and pigeonholes. Take a look at the "specialty" charts in this magazine: there are jazz albums on the Beat Box charts and hip-hop albums on the New World chart, and from US 3 to Guru to the Beastie Boys, there are any number of albums that could find their way onto two—sometimes even three—charts at once. And in the middle of it all, Buckshot LeFonque (the nom de hip-hop of jazz saxophonist and Tonight Show bandleader Branford Marsalis) has just released a self-titled bombshell of an album. It's a revolutionary, multi-stylistic tour de force, perhaps the first jazz/hip-hop collaboration to truly mix the sophistication and artistry of jazz with the feel and vibe of hip-hop, and successfully incorporate a myriad array of influences including blues, reggae and African music along the way.

In many ways, Buckshot LeFonque builds on the framework established by Guru's Jazzmatazz project, which, like Buckshot, was also produced with help from Gang Starr's DJ Premier. Branford explains: "Guru took the record as far as he could. He's at a slight disadvantage because he doesn't play an instrument. It's almost impossible to really hire dynamic musicians unless you can play. You wind up hiring people based on reputation, and not actually based on 'Wow, I heard him play that, so I know he can play this.'"

"The way most people do it is, 'Okay, we're doing a reggae tune, let's call Sly & Robbie. We're doing a rock tune, let's get Eddie Van Halen.' And what I did was, like on that song 'I Know Why The Caged Bird Sings,' I said, 'Let's call Nils Lofgren.' And everybody goes, 'Nils Lofgren?' It's like that. This record is not for hip-hop people, it's not for young people, it's not for old people. It's for people who like music. I mean, I made this record for me, you know."

Does Buckshot LeFonque's blending of styles and sounds represent something new? "Not to me," he says casually. "Well, all of my records have been generally like that. It's just that in jazz music, only jazz people can hear the subtle differences between styles in jazz. In pop music the styles are more dramatic because they spend so much time trying to separate them. If you go from like a reggae tune to a hip-hop tune with metal guitar in it, it sounds like this huge stretch, because people don't usually think of music that way. Jazz musicians, we think of music that way [as all the same thing], and just blend all that shit together."

Branford's views on rap are a little more ambiguous. "I don't really listen to words, man. I mean generally, the words are so stupid. Plus, my whole thing is like my father's [jazz pianist and teacher Ellis Marsalis] thing. If I want to be moved by some words, I'll go get a Langston Hughes poem off the shelf. I don't need to hear the Commodores to be moved by words, you know. When it [rap] first came out, I didn't really like it. But when that Public Enemy record Yo Bum Rush The Show came out, it turned my head, because it was the first time in the '80s that I heard attitude in black music again."

So how did he hook up with DJ Premier to collaborate on Buckshot? "Spike Lee pulled us together for [the soundtrack to] Mo' Better Blues, and we decided to keep in touch. He [Premier] has a wonderful musical sense about him, which is very rare for a cat that doesn't play an instrument. His decisions are very musical. Premier's shit is always, like real logical, smooth, man."

In a way, even though Branford/Buckshot's music doesn't sound like normal jazz, his description of the project seems to carry the same commitment, dedication and seriousness that's been a part of jazz from be-bop forward. "I've never cared what people thought, or I'd have never joined Sting's band, never played with Public Enemy, or done Buckshot. 'Oh, what will my audience think,'" he whines, mockingly. [If he thought that way] "I would have never played jazz in the first place. Everybody I went to school with was like, 'what are you playing that shit for?' If you want to get rid of a date, just mention Charlie Parker," he laughs.

DJ Premier and Branford Marsalis

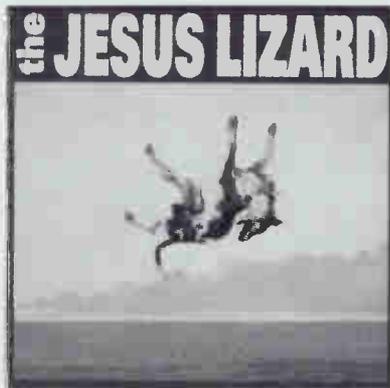

Asked why he released such a revolutionary album under the moniker of Buckshot LeFonque rather than using his own name, Marsalis explains. "I want to play the music that I want to play. I don't want to be stuck in a situation where I'm playing jazz concerts and having people mad as fuck cause they wanted to hear some hip-hop. And I don't think that this record should be stuck in the jazz bins." And what about the critics? Is he hiding behind a pseudonym? "Well, with my name on it, they've judged it before they've heard it. And it's not like I'm keeping it a secret. Everybody knows it's my fucking record. It's not like it's some secret guy with a beard on."

—James Lien

ON THE COVER JACKPOT!

Essential New Music

JESUS LIZARD Down (Touch And Go, P.O. Box 25520, Chicago, IL 60625/312-463-8316)—"The best band around" tag has had a funny way of following the Jesus Lizard recently, espoused by fellow bands and critics alike—not bad considering the band's five year existence. Not that the Lizard hasn't been productive; three proper albums, along with a string of EPs and 7"s, have helped plenty in fanning the growing excitement over this underground juggernaut. Although Down is technically the most straight-forward the band has ever been, in Jesus Lizard terms that's still pretty out there. The songs, however, lean more to the rock side, the band cutting out the slower, more grueling tunes standard on previous outings. But while "Queen For A Day" and "50" have some catchy riffs, they're far from classic rock: David Yow still sounds like a constipated burn victim, and the band's jaded, metallic edge remains fully intact. The surprise is "Elegy," an honest attempt at a ballad, which finds Yow actually trying to sing

(with, well, varied results). For the neophyte, 1994 has provided the ultimate starter kit: a retrospective live album and now this satisfying platter of new material. More long-standing fans shouldn't feel slighted either, as they'll find plenty of vintage Lizard on Down, like "The Associate," "Mistletoe" and "American BB."

UNDERWORLD Dubnobasswithmyheadman (Wax Trax!, c/oTVT, 23 E. Fourth St., New York, NY 10003/212-979-6410)—Underworld is a long-lived pop group that discovered techno and hooked up with a young DJ, but that's not what Dubnobass... sounds like. It sounds like a great, versatile techno group tenderly but surefootedly exploring rock for the first time, and taking what it likes from the world of silicon-free pop (singing, spontaneity, harmonic variation, even a guitar or two) to use for its own purposes. Underworld snaps its songs into their component fragments, then reassembles them into drawn-out techno structures (the tracks here average eight minutes), with swatches of dub echoes and Karl Hyde's softly-sung melodies fluttering from the joints. The music never behaves quite the way you expect it to: the pungent, rapid-fire sequencer lead in the middle of the distorted softcore-techno "Cowgirl" sounds like a Robert Quine or Adrian Belew guitar blast, while the gentle guitar chording that sustains "Tongue" is both prickly and lulling at once in the same way as the Orb or Orbital can be. There's tremendous stylistic diversity here, too. Underworld draws on multiple techno traditions, sometimes in the course of a single song, and the tricks it's picked up from rock keep each song interesting in itself and distinct from its neighbors. Check out "Mmm Skyscraper I Love You," "Spoonman" and "Dirty Epic."

—Douglas Wolk

BLONDE REDHEAD Blonde Redhead (Smells Like, P.O. Box 6179, Hoboken, NJ 07030)—Named after a DNA song and nurtured by friends (and most apparent influence) Sonic Youth, Blonde Redhead glows with New York warmth of the just-copped-in-Washington-Square-Park variety. Parts of this album—let's take the bull (in the heather) by the horns—sound exactly like prime-period Sonic Youth. Note the operative words "exactly like," as opposed to "like a fairly good imitation of": This is wonderful, wild stuff. Where Blonde Redhead distinguishes itself is with its mastery of the tension-release paradigm, or rather by turning it into a Tantric sort of tension-tension paradigm. The band's songs rise and fall, end naturally but never resolve; its singers' voices scream and murmur, or drop out and make way for long, thrilling, discordant passages of violently quivering guitar noise and Zen-calm rhythms, but don't slip into anything anthemic or even chorus-like. Singer/guitarist Kazu sounds restrained even when she's howling and near-frantic even when she's whispering, especially on the ferocious "Astro Boy." Sisterhood is powerful: "I Don't Want U," "Swing Pool," "Sciuri, Sciura" (check out that unison guitar-and-vocal bit) and "Girl Boy," the brief, eye-opening samba that closes the record.

—Douglas Wolk

JULIAN COPE Autogeddon (American, 3500 W. Olive Ave., Ste. 1550, Burbank, CA 91505)—Take in Julian Cope's last three LPs in one sitting and you've just heard the portable companion to the fall of humanity in century number 20. From the ecological and political nightmares of Peggy Suicide to the mystical unravellings of Jehovakill and finally to the post-apocalyptic visions of Autogeddon, Cope loves to discourse on the struggle between Homo sapiens and the modern world. (In Autogeddon's liner notes, Cope includes a story about how a car he hadn't driven in weeks suddenly blew up while he'd been watching Up In Smoke.)

The first and simplest thing people like to say about Julian Cope is that he's a bit on the loony side—a fitting description, yet Cope's rants are not ironic punchlines from a hopeless eccentric, but ironic, lucid thoughts from a staggeringly well-read eccentric. The songs on Autogeddon are all first takes, which explains Cope's doo-doo-dooing and wah-wah-wahing where guitar parts were perhaps to go later. Those extemporaneous bits (good luck finding a predictable moment) are what give the disc life. There's still no one who sounds like Julian Cope: his psychedelic, folk, cosmic, Beeftharian, progressive, arty rock 'n' roll sounds old, new and futuristic all at once.

DEEE-LITE Dewdrops In The Garden (Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)

With its third album, Deee-lite attempts to bounce back (it's been two years since Infinity Within, which didn't quite meet the commercial expectations after a smash debut), but rather than aim in the pop or rap directions which the group has flirted with, it delivers a well-crafted study in progressive house and trance, spotlighting Lady Kier's voluptuous voice. But Dewdrops In The Garden is not just for the dancefloor; it showcases creative and elaborately-constructed music that's as compelling for your ears as for your feet. Curveballs like abrupt tempo changes and gradual slow-downs abound, and there are plenty of Deee-lite's typically ridiculous lyrics like, "you've got your chocolate in my peanut butter." Among the many inspired samples are Willie Williams' "Armageddon Time" reggae beat in "Apple Juice Kissing" and a melodic touch-tone phone in "Call Me." The first single, "Party Happening People" probably won't inspire a jitterbug craze, but Kier's scat-singing and samples of syncopated '30s jazz and swing work terrifically with a disco beat. If you're resistant to high BPMs, try the soulful and sexy "Say Ahhh..." the lazy, slow-flow "Stay In Bed, Forget The Rest" and the sunny "Picnic In The Summertime."

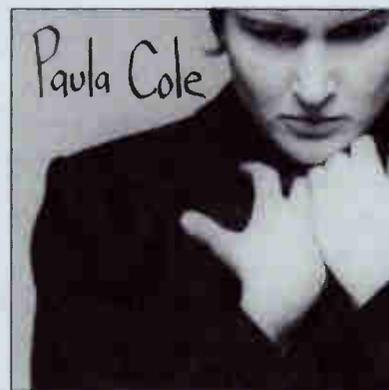

—David Newgarden

LOU DONALDSON Caracas (Milestone, c/o Fantasy, 10th & Parker, Berkeley, CA 94710/510-549-2500)

Alto saxophonist Lou Donaldson was one of the key architects behind much of the funky '60s Blue Note jazz sound popularized via sampling by US 3, and exhumed on compilations like Blue Note Break Beats and Straight, No Chaser. Here, on this wonderfully slinky, laid-back, straight-up album, he's joined by venerable jazz-funk compatriot Dr. Lonnie Liston Smith (who appeared on Guru's Jazzmatazz, and had a string of his own funk-jazz albums on Flying Dutchman in the '70s), who lays down some roaring, gutbucket organ fills on his Hammond B-3. Caracas is one of those delightful albums that comes along from time to time, lighting the world on fire simply by being, as they say, what it is; it ain't no new thing, it's not a groundbreaker, it's not a revolution—it's just a mighty funky, mighty fine Lou Donaldson album, and in the midst of a particularly long and funky summer, you really can't ask for anything better. Not only was Lou up to these kinds of shenanigans long before today's new audience were not even on the scene, but he probably was at it before a lot of them were even born, although it's quite probable that a few of the parents of today's acid jazzbos and hip-hop heads did the Alligator Boogaloo and the Hot Dog to a Lou Donaldson platter or two back in the day. Try: "Hot Dog," "I Be Blue" "Night Train" and the title track. —James Lien

PAULA COLE Harbinger (Imago, Carnegie Hall Tower, 152 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019/212-246-6644)

Paula Cole's debut is a dark and deeply satisfying one, an engaging fusion of haunting melodies and equally haunting lyrics. Like tiny films that pass all too briefly before the eyes, these 14 songs leave stark, poignant images behind. Harbinger is uncluttered, even sparse, wisely showcasing Cole's husky-yet-delicate vocals. The lyrical content of her seemingly confessional songs ranges from the depression-inducing ("I nearly died, I suicided softly...she is your holy Mary/And I am so ordinary" from "I Am So Ordinary") to the uplifting as in "Watch The Woman's Hands," where Cole elegizes a woman who toils in the fields and is spoken down to by "the man," by singing "We need her, oh, we need her." With such profound passion, it's no wonder Peter Gabriel called upon Cole to sing with him on his recent tour. That gesture, and the songs contained in this sterling debut, place Cole alongside other emotive vocalists like Youssou N'Dour, Kate Bush and Sinead O'Connor. Stand out tracks include "Chiaroscuro," a compelling mix of exotic rhythms (Cole as human beat-box) and a string quartet, the social commentary and Führer samples in "Hitler's Brothers," the steamy passion of "Oh John" and the ethereal pop of "Saturn Girl."

Dab upon first exposure compared to those who are instantly annoyed, you'd find the responses hinge on whether one likes the distinctly pre-pubescent, southern-fried vocals and wide-eyed world view of singer/guitarist Linda Hagood. It's this childlike perspective that makes listening to this NYC trio's second long-player, Majestic Root, a lot like watching a six year old experience the delight, wonder and unfettered appeal of the "simple" things in life—picking flowers in the backyard, spreading peanut butter across a sandwich, L-U-V—for the very first time. With help from a cleverly animated rhythm section, Hagood endows each one- or two-minute long tune with some of the most perfectly-formed little melodies you're likely to find when the pop music's this genuine and simple. But to call these playful compositions merely charming or cute belies the unsettling quality that Hagood's precious machinations take on; a snaking bass line or delicate guitar plunk lurk through the most innocent of ditties like the monster hiding under your childhood bed. Truly majestic: "Little Dagger," "Pendulum," "Elephant Memory" and "Digging My Feet In The Ground."

CONTROLLED BLEEDING Songs From The Drain (Dossier, c/o Com Four, 7 Dunham Pl., Brooklyn, NY 11211/718-599-2205)—Having renounced his forays into industrial dance (with the groups Skin Chamber and Joined At The Head, in addition to Controlled Bleeding), Paul Lemos has returned to the older, less trendy form of "industrial music," which he's been creating since the late-'70s. Songs From The Drain includes a 1988 import record, three brand new studio tracks and three newly released live cuts. Saying that this album is not dance music is easy; describing what it is is a different story. Controlled Bleeding has experimented with harsh noise, ambient sounds, loopy krautrock and less-definable forms, and there's as wide a variety of styles and textures on this one. The three new cuts are the odd dub-reggae "The Hidden Section," "Glass On Wire," with oozing sounds bubbling in and out of humming layers of guitar, and "Loop Cycle," with the eerie sounds of pouring liquid and a beat that doesn't overwhelm. Highlights among the older material include Joe Papa's elegiac chanting on "Ash And Stone" and "Near The Fire," the Faustian "Fiddles & Eggs" (track 13), and especially the epic "Music For Water And Earth," which combines impressionistic synth and guitar with floating voices (including just-barely audible pygmy yodeling) and quiet mechanical rhythms.

RAINCOATS Extended Play (EP) (Smells Like, P.O. Box 6179, Hoboken, NJ 07030)—Of all the influential punk legends that've recently gotten back together, the Raincoats are one of the few that are still worth their salt. A recent tour reunited original members Ana da Silva and Gina Birch, and brought into the fold violinist Anne Wood, whose expressive sound fits right in, and drummer Steve Shelley, on loan from Sonic Youth. Together the quartet fashions the same tuneful, yet equally unsettling, art rock that flows naturally from the Raincoats' bittersweet, female-empowering songs. The four songs here include two new ones, Birch's impassioned "Don't Be Mean" and da Silva's slowly building, alternately dark and light "We Smile." Also appearing in new versions are "Shouting Out Loud," which has lost none of its nery impact, and the bouncy, infectiously catchy statement-of-purpose "No One's Little Girl" ("I'm no one's little girl/Oh no I'm not/I'm not gonna be/Cos I don't wanna be"). We only hope that more new stuff is just around the corner.

KEB'MO' Keb'Mo' (OKeh c/o Epic, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Don't let the packaging, label (the recently re-activated, legendary OKeh imprint) and Robert Johnson covers fool you: Keb'Mo' is not a hard line walkin' blues revivalist or traditionalist. Keb'Mo' wisely realizes that, in 1994, anyone (especially if he's under 60) who pretends to have grown up in a blues vacuum, impervious to other, more contemporary influences, is not only sadly misled, but will most likely make music that won't ring true, bogged down in awkward kowtowing towards the greats. Instead, Keb'Mo' (a.k.a. Kevin Moore) takes his loving reference for country-blues and formidable talents on acoustic and slide guitar, and combines 'em with strains of folk, pop and soul. bouncing soul-pop, "Victims Of Comfort" is a folk song, "Anybody Seen My Girl" oddly recalls Bob Dylan's more tender moments, and "Don't Try To Explain" (probably the LP's most satisfying moment), a plaintive soul ditty with organ placed high in the mix, wouldn't sound out of place on a Percy Sledge record. —Steve McGuirl

DIS- M386.D57 1994 (12Inch, c/o Cargo, P.O. Box 4083, Urbana, IL 61801/619-483-9292)—

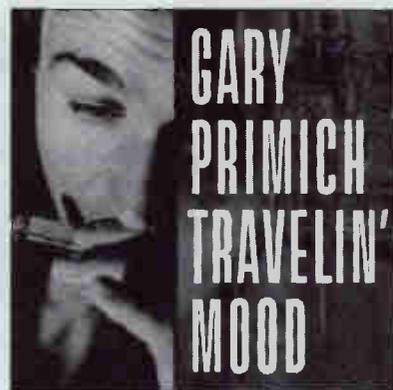

The title refers to a Dewey Decimal code for where this album would be filed in a library system (two members of this Milwaukee trio are librarians). Dis's songs lunge, scrape and roll, weighting all of the band's instruments equally both in the sound of the record and in the composition of its songs. Riffs evolve over the course of a few seconds, rather than repeating themselves; Dis- can be blasting away at top volume and still be getting a lot of force out of what it's not playing. Occasionally, a song will be dominated for a few moments by a single instrument (like the bass chords that drive the beginning of "The Nischkes" or Chris Fuller's "Driven To Tears"-like series of guitar blows in the middle of "Sleep Mouth"). Most of these pieces, though, pass over solos—or even moments where one instrument stands out—in favor of the power of the ensemble. If it's often hard to hear the words, that's because they're no more, or less, important than anything else in the mix. There were plenty of Slint comparisons made about Dis-'s last album, but the only similarity evident here is the absolute precision and trickiness of Peter Pollack's drumming, and how well it's integrated into the whole. Leaving us Dewey-eyed: the above, plus "Christ But They're Few" and "Her Daughter's Friends." —Douglas Wolk

GARY PRIMICH Travelin' Mood (Flying Fish, 1304 W. Schubert, Chicago, IL 60614/800-FYI-FISH)—

For Austin-based harpman Gary Primich and his band, the blues is not about goofy sideburns, cheap Wayfarer sunglasses, or irksomely silly songs about hoodoo roots, car fins, and fried chicken: he's all about the real deal, far from the comical, post-Blues Brothers posing of way too many uninspiring bands. Get ready to dive into some serious jump blues with Travelin' Mood. In a way, Primich and his band are more in the vein of bands like Shadowy Men On A Shadowy Planet or Big Sandy And The Fly-rite Boys, which use retro stylings and vintage gear to capture perfectly not just the sound but also the spirit of the music that moves them. Extend the attitude connection to other fields of music, and it's easy to see why Mark Rubin of the Bad Livers sits in, thumping on an upright bass on a few tunes (at his best on "Beer Drinkin' Woman"). Also jump to: "House Rockin' Party," "Shake The Boogie" and "Ding Dong Daddy" (which opens with an answering machine message from its author Jerry McCain). —James Lien

POP WILL EAT ITSELF Dos Dedos Mis Amigos (Nothing, c/o Interscope, 10900 Wilshire Blvd., Ste. 1230, Los Angeles, CA 90024)—

Pop Will Eat Itself started out as a brash punk/pop band, but by the dawn of the cyber-age and the release of its third album This Is The Day, This Is The Hour, This Is This in 1989, the group had plugged in, turned on and spaced out, creating some of the most impressive electro-rap-noise of its era. Five years later, things remain pretty much the same. Dos Dedos Mis Amigos the band's seventh full-length, is a glorious bacchanalia of electronic decadence, incorporating rap, techno, funk and metal into a zoned-out and amped-up forum of sound. While Pop Will Eat Itself is still tuned to the same celebratory frequencies it was on when it first discovered samplers, the band keeps finding different ways to combine sounds. As technology has become more varied and complex, so have the group's electrifying compositions. With Dos Dedos Mis Amigos, the band turns up the volume and regurgitates the grooves, providing a harsher, more guitar heavy environment for its ricocheting rhythms. "Ich Bin Ein Auslander" chugs with militaristic might, invoking images of fascist armies marching to armageddon, while "Cape Connection" starts with an ambient keyboard line before blasting into a furious crunch-fest. Also eat "Kick To Kill" and "Reaper."

—Jon Wiederhorn

SANDALS Rite To Silence (frr, c/o London, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019/212-603-3927)—Though destined to become pigeon-holed with the recent acid jazz movement, London's Sandals are actually pretty light on the jazz samples—an occasional flute or horn bit turning up mostly as an addition rather than focus. Not just classic jazz pieces thrown over dancey beats for a quick-fix hit single, most of the pieces on Rite To Silence are actually well thought-out compositions, reminiscent of early Orb. Touches of recent Jah Wobble also show in both the optimistic spirit of the record and the undisguisedly British vocals. The greatest successes come when Sandals hit a good vibe rather than write a standard chorus-verse song; the floating "Ardens Bud," a hodgepodge of found sounds and rump-shakin' grooves is the album's strongest track. A pleasant surprise is some great fuzz guitar, which really helps make "Profound Gas" and "Change" more than just standard fare drivel. The first single "Feet" shows up in three forms, the original plus two superior remixes: one by the Dust Brothers (Beastie Boys, Tone-Löc) and another that cuts down the lackluster vocals of the original in favor of a great frog sample. Try the above, plus "Lovewood."
—Bryan McNamara

ITCH Pull The Wool (Nettwerk, 1250 W. Sixth Ave., Vancouver, BC V6H 1A5, Canada/604-654-2929)—Itch's brand of eclectic piano-based speed-thrash has had people scratching their heads in wonder for a few years now, the band simultaneously amazing and confusing its listening audience with alternating blasts of percussive sonic cacophony and spacious melodic revelry. The group's latest, Pull The Wool, is not only an alluringly dramatic agitation of musical styles, combining qualities of such disparate artists as They Might Be Giants, Billy Joel and Mudhoney, but also a captivating informational platform for Itch's mastermind, keyboardist/songwriter Mark Critchley. The album's comprehensive liner notes (get out your magnifying glass) feature an extensively researched warning of the ongoing 'advances' made by the world's ethically unabashed scientific community, specifically targeting the field of genetic experimentation. To great effect, Pull The Wool often belies its lyrically scathing messages, with Critchley sneaking his sense of humor in through the song's arrangements or his own vocal delivery, even as he chides audiences with lines like "You won't hear my music 'til I clobber your ears" or "Rate us on your sliding scale of cool." Play: "Stress," "Swamp Water" and "Frankenmouse." Now, doesn't that feel better?

—Aaron Clow

THIS PICTURE City Of Sin (Dedicated, c/o Arista, 6 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019)—Hailing from the southwest of England, This Picture creates the type of no-nonsense, traditional rock that escapes notice because it is unadorned and unproduced. But if the quartet deflects attention for its adherence to convention, the spiritual ache in the Celtic-tinged songs on City Of Sin make the group's second full-length album worth repeated listening. Duncan Forrester and Austen Rowley fashion tight mid-tempo rhythms, over which Robert Forrester (Duncan's brother) and Simon Bye lay clean guitar, mandolin and piano arrangements. Bye's unaffected vocals and self-revelatory lyrics strike a chord, melodically moving between earnest introspection and bare emotion. Perhaps the easiest comparison of This Picture's music is to the most recent and accessible work of friend and fan Peter Dinklage; This Picture, however, defines its own younger and more rock-oriented sound. Notable tracks include "Heart Of Another Man," "The Great Escape," with its ringing piano chords and questioning lyrics, "Hands On My Soul," and the political "Fire in the House."

—Scott MacMillan

BORBETOMAGUS/SHAKING RAY LEVIS Coelacanth (10") (Agaric, 3 Haring Ave. Sparkill, NY 10976)—This is a three-track EP on a handsome picture disc which sports a colorful illustration of saxophonist Jim Sauter catching fish in his underwear. On this collaboration with the Tennessee group Shaking Ray Levis, Borbetomagus seems to have left its industrial strength saxophones at home, instead featuring guitarist Donald Miller and the SRL's electronics, which are never cold and synthetic, but busy and alive like crawling termites. On "Lady Big Boy," they cook up a delicious stew of tortured guitar, ricocheting electronics and pots-and-pans drumming. "I Want To Be A Black Weight Lifter Named Douglas" is an improvisation of small percussion, bowed guitar and unidentifiable sounds (processed saxophone?) which sound wonderfully like a hybrid between bagpipes and mallard ducks. Although it's very free music, it's never anarchic; the musicians are obviously listening carefully to each other and reacting to the collective effort as well as resisting the temptation to play non-stop, allowing a subtle calm between frenzied storms.

—David Newgarden

D*NOTE Babel (TVT, address above)—With Babel, D*Note adds its own language of acid jazz to the ever-growing tower, using a live band, silky grooves and a persistent rhythm. Instead of samples, D*Note is blessed by the presence of Dee Major and Pamela Anderson, both of whose soul singer style has all the requisite emotion and range. Most acid jazz records focus on the mood and groove rather than the form, but D*Note's emphasis is on stretching the form, changing speeds within songs and bending genres to include reggae, house and soul, as well as the somewhat amorphous style of acid jazz. The first single, "Now Is The Time," is a classic jazz-flavored pop song, sounding like Brand New Heavies, while "The More I See" is a slow reggae sound like Definition of Sound. Babel's blend of styles results in a rich result, a rewarding exercise in what a live band and some strong songwriting can do. Talk about: the above, plus "Bronx Bull" and "Rain."

—Megan McLaughlin

MIL0 Z Basic Need To Howl (Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—After four years of slugging it out in some of the grungiest clubs in New York City, Milo Z (which is the name of the lead singer and the band) debuts with Basic Need To Howl. A worthy attempt at capturing the group's sweat-drenched funk and jazzy soul, the LP bristles with non-stop energy. Nothing will replace a Milo Z live show, however, where everything shakes and shimmies, the band daring the crowd to bop 'til the break of dawn. With masterful chops, Milo Z draws from such varied rhythmic ensembles as the Neville Brothers, Trouble Funk and War, producing one powerful groove after another. Start to Howl with the go-go of "Get On Up," move on over to the rock solid "Fallin' (And I Can't Get Up)" and end up with the gentle sway of "Do It Up."

—Jim Caligiuri

BOYRACER More Songs About Frustration And Self Hate (Slumberland, P.O. Box 14731, Berkeley, CA 94701/510-654-6124)—Although the last few years have seen plenty of singles and flexis from Boyracer, as well as a split LP with Hula Hoop, this is the band's first full-length album. The British quartet fires off low-fi, sandpapery songs (there are 24 here) like Guy Fawkes Day fireworks; most burn brightly for a couple of minutes, and before they've even fallen to earth, another one is off. If one sputters and collapses (like the half-minute improv "New Zealand Jazz"), it'll be followed by a hyperactive, Pixies-ish sparkler (like "The Useless Romantic"). There are a couple of colorful, odd pieces thrown into the middle: "Chanteuse" lets the band's mastermind, multi-instrumentalist Stewart Anderson, stretch out his voice over a nearly calm groove, and "Why Bother Asking Me Now?" makes good use of a scratchy-old-records and strange whooshing noises. And, of course, there's the big bang at the end (or almost the end—on the CD, it's followed by the songs from the band's AUL 36X EP): "Second Is Always Second," almost 10 minutes long, with guitars squealing and rumbling until the song takes off into orbit on its own momentum. —Douglas Wolk KILL CREEK Stretch (EP) (Mammoth, Carr Mill, 2nd Fl., Carrboro, NC 27510/919-932-1882)—Pop punk: it's everywhere. These days, a band has to rise further and further above its peers to garner attention, and with the five tracks on Stretch, Kill Creek makes some skillful steps in getting ahead of the game. While all of the essential elements are here (strong melodies and hooks, sing-along choruses, and clean, prominent guitars), the band's trump card lies in its sheer exuberance. While that might not seem especially unusual for this genre, the speed, sweat and blood in these tracks threaten to kick some of the movement's reigning kings right off of their thrones. The first track, "Fruit Pie," serves as the obvious single, with its bouncing chorus and teasing quiet spots. The other standout of the five is "Inside," the EP's closing track, with its broken-hearted anger. Watch for a full-length debut to be released come fall. —Cheryl Botchick

WATERLILLIES Tempted (Sire, c/o Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—Marc Almond has a lot to answer for, most particularly the debauched attitude of post-'80s new wave; the Waterlilies' Tempted showcases that languorous glistening sound. The band twists its traditional synthesized sound to include soft, quavering female vocals and soaring melody lines. On Tempted, the glory days of new wave are revisited without remorse, smooth old-school synthesizer lines fitting hand-in-hand with the post-"Planet Rock" beat. At times, the band ventures into traditional disco, the synthesizer sound giving way to a warmer, sexier feeling, especially when the piano's house chords take center stage. When the synthesizers are left out completely, as on "No Lion Doll," the Waterlilies conjure up a romantic Kate Bush-like tone, with all the requisite emotion. Non-Stop Temptations: "I Don't Want Your Love" and "Wanna Be There." —Megan McLaughlin

JACKPOT EXTRA!

SLINT Slint (5") (Touch And Go, P.O. Box 25520, Chicago, IL 60625/312-463-8316)—

Today's increasingly familiar intense, slow, deliberate rock owes a lot to Slint—the band has the highest influence-to-output ratio of nearly any band we can think of. Slint only recorded two albums, but its name turns up on an awfully high percentage of flyers looking for people to join bands. This single has two previously unreleased, untitled instrumental tracks, supposedly recorded before Spiderland. The first is an inexorable bassy juggernaut spiked with Britt Walford's signature snare smashes; the second is one of Slint's finest moments, featuring a guitar part that shakes and frays, firing off notes in all directions, pauses, and then flares like a supernova for four incredible minutes before it dies down into a lengthy feedback siren. —Douglas Wolk

ODES "Meltaway" (7") (Merge, P.O. Box 1235, Chapel Hill, NC 27514/919-929-0711)—Former Love Child bassist/vocalist Rebecca Odes strikes out on her own with

"Meltaway," her first single with her new band Odes, rounded out by players from Yo La Tengo and Sleepyhead. "Meltaway" is sweet, but definitely un-syrupy, Rebecca's girlish vocals taking the spotlight over a bristling bed of guitars. On the longer flipside, "Honey Gets Hard," she slows things down for a moodier sound, recalling Juliana Hatfield at times, but without succumbing to the looming traps of overindulgent coyness and cuteness. —Lydia Anderson

VANDERMARK QUARTET "Eightball" (7") (Hi Ball, 657 W. Lake St., Chicago, IL 60661)—

Although the vinyl revival has created an endless glut of DIY punk and pop releases, jazz is not generally a beneficiary of the medium. The Vandermark Quartet, hailing from Chicago (a city rich in jazz history), is an impressively competent improvisational outfit. Leader Ken Vandermark, who plays bass clarinet and alto saxophone on these two pieces, also clocks in time with, of all people, Estrus' the Waste Kings. Bearing subtle likenesses to John Zorn's Naked City, the Quartet rumbles through often unforgiving territory with exciting results. "Eightball" is a frothing bit of skronk improv, frantic yet structured; "Steel Head Beauty" is a sparse piece featuring superb bass and sax solos. —Bryan McNamara

SNAPPER "Vader" (7") (Flying Nun, P.O. Box 677, Auckland, New Zealand/649-377-4607)—

The organ-drenched buzz-pop of Snapper, the musical outlet for New Zealander Peter Gutteridge, remains largely unknown in the U.S. With several import-only singles and one LP behind it, Snapper returns with another precious nugget. "Vader"'s dark, repetitive grooves are peppered with guitars so full of squeaky energy they sound fit to explode. "Gentle Hour" is, well, gentler; Gutteridge and Christine Voice's vocal web takes precedence over the buzzing guitars here, sounding more like a reflective 3Ds moment, decorated in delicate acoustic guitar pluckings. —Lydia Anderson

PHYSICS Physics (7") (Dagon Productions, P.O. Box 17995, Irvine, CA 92713)—The two lengthy, untitled one-chord instrumentals on this single are played by a virtual orchestra of 11 people, including Way Out Sound mastermind John Goff and members of Heavy Vegetable. Both sides find the group jackhammering away at a single note in unison, like the climax of a Spacemen 3 or Th' Faith Healers song, with individual instruments sometimes playing harmonic complements to the main note. The first side rolls along slowly, picking up mass as it goes; the second side is faster and more brutal, but overlaid with theremin and bird noises. This isn't the most accessible single of the week, but fascinating to hear. —Douglas Wolk

SHITBIRDS/SIMON & THE BAR SINISTERS (7" EP) (Sympathy For The Record Industry, 4901 Virginia Ave., Long Beach, CA 90805/310-423-0281)—

Although Simon & The Bar Sinisters were brought onto this single by old pals the Shitbirds, they wind up inadvertently upstaging their hosts. Each band offers two surf/instrumental tracks, and while the Shitbirds are not traditionally an all-instrumental band, their songs are certainly worthwhile punk versions of an old style. It's the purity of the Bar Sinisters, however, that gives them their edge. Clearly long-time instrumental pros, they've trimmed their style to its bare bones, creating a sound much sparser and more vintage than any Mono Men record. Even more compelling is the curious fact that the lead singer of the Spin Doctors named them as his favorite band in a recent issue of Rolling Stone. —Cheryl Botchick

PURPLE IVY SHADOWS "Psychic, Baby" (7") (spinART, P.O. Box 1798, New York, NY 10156-1798/212-343-9644)—

Purple Ivy Shadows have been around for years and have only a couple of singles to their name. That's a shame, because the band has a really interesting, tightly defined aesthetic. Every song is a lush, slowly unfolding mossy forest of soft, reverbed guitars, usually in 6/8 time, with everything else taking a back seat to the Shadows' subdued jangle. "Psychic, Baby" is in the band's usual hauntingly sweet tradition; B-side "Circle" adds a plaintive fretless bass to the mix. —Douglas Wolk

GEM Gem (2585 Euclid Hts. Blvd. #3, Cleveland Hts., OH 44106/216-371-9588)—

While it may never be stagnant, the Cleveland scene is so incestuous it would make the construction of a family tree of Cleveland bands look like a mangled web (this has always been true there—just try sketching a Pere Ubu flow chart and you'll see). Everyone's been in everybody else's band at some point. Where Gem falls in this big mess is too laborious to discuss here, but suffice to say that it's the closest any combination has ever come to being the quintessential Cleveland supergroup. With members previously spending time in Death of Samantha (Doug Gillard, who's also been playing with Cobra Verde), Prisonshake, Children's Crusade, 4 Coyotes and Spike In Vein, as well as backing up My Dad Is Dead and Superstar Dan Theman, Gem pretty much runs the gamut of underground rock in Cleveland for the past 10 years. As a result, the band's sound is a pleasing amalgam of all of its past musical lives—guitar-pop songwriting, leftover punk sensibilities from days past, and dissonant and distorted guitar work. Included here is another version of "JHS" (the original appeared on Scat's Hotel Cleveland Vol. III under Gillard's name), the future smash hit "Suburban Girl," a catchy instrumental ("Drool") and a hypnotic cover of Pere Ubu's "Blow Daddy-O." Watch for Gem to release a single in the coming months and appear in a Music Marathon '94 showcase in September.

FYI

With the wall between success and primarily female rock bands obliterated by bands such as L7 and the Breeders, the last year has seen two positive developments. First, there seem to be more women in bands than ever, and second, talented bands that have been around for a while are finally receiving some much deserved attention. Boston's QUIVVER (P.O. Box 382199, Cambridge, MA 02238) is a prime example: all three members are in their early thirties and have extensive track records. Bearing an uncanny vocal similarity to the Breeders, the trio makes delectable, rootsy pop, revealing some country influences (albeit by way of Neil Young and CCR). The three songs on this demo offer a small peek into Quiver's sleek, shimmering pop world.—D.I.Y.

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/noncommercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). BOLD indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position; #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more...PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

JALE Dreamcake (Sub Pop)

After LPs by Sloan and Eric's Trip marked Nova Scotia, Canada, on the indie-rock map in permanent ink, Jale's debut is the icing on the cake, so to speak. Sweet melodies and vocals balanced with melancholy minor chords give Dreamcake its bittersweet flavor, making the disc an instant hit at radio. In its second week on the Top 150, the LP climbs 117-8, capturing the #3 Radio Breakthrough position, a jump echoed by early showings on the Adventure Pick (#6), Audience Response (#15) and Progressive Retail (#74) charts. Of the 340 stations turning in top 35 charts this week, 90 are serving up Dreamcake, headed up by top 10 showings at CHRY, CHSR, CKMS, KAOS (Olympia, WA), KCRH, KCSU, KMBU, KMIH, KSCU, WVBC and WXCI.

PROGRESSIVE RETAIL

Section coordinated by Dawn Sutter

ON THE CHART

The boys of the summer are none other than Grand Royal-Capitol's Beastie Boys, who remain at #1 for the eighth consecutive week. Epitaph's Offspring (4-2) and NOFX (74-6) both move towards the top. Reprise's Green Day continues to make progress (8-4) after 25 weeks on the chart, while A&M's Soundgarden (10-7) makes similar progress after 21 weeks on the chart. DGC's Counting Crows (9-8) and ZTT/Sire-WB's Seal (13-9) round out the top 10.

Atlantic's Everything But The Girl is the top debut this week, hitting the charts at #20. Many singles debut on the chart this week, including Stereolab's import single on Duaphonic (UK) (#26), Matador's Pavement (#28), 4AD-Elektra's Breeders (#41) and Silbreeze's Guided By Voices (#63). New full-lengths on the scene: Tommy Boy's Coolio (#23), Virgin's Bob Mould collection (#49), Lookout's Queers (#50), Epic's Shudder To Think (EP) (#52), World Domination's Sky Cries Mary (#62) and Energy's Pro-Pain (#65).

Many bands are making mid-summer jumps towards the top of the charts. Those on the way up include: Scat-Matador's Guided By Voices full-length (26-14), Maverick/Sire-WB's Candlebox (20-15), Nothing/TVT-Interscope's Nine Inch Nails (27-17), Capitol's Mazzy Star (70-19), Virgin's Smashing Pumpkins (43-25), Warner Bros.' Flaming Lips (EP) (66-32), OKeh-Epic's G. Love & Special Sauce (73-38) and Columbia's Alice In Chains, which re-enters at #57. (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

RETAIL FOCUS

Elektra's English sextet Stereolab is causing quite a commotion with its electronic melange of sounds. "Ping Pong," an import single on the band's own Duaphonic label, enters at #26 this week, and offers a sampling of the upcoming Mars Audiac Quintet full-length, which tops the In-store chart this week. The LP's clean production offers a crisper Stereolab than last year's Elektra debut, Transient Random-Noise Bursts With Announcements. Mars Audiac Quintet is full of songs with wonderful titles such as "Wow And Flutter," which onomatopoeically sum up the album. The band is currently touring on Lollapalooza's Second Stage.

Sir Mix-a-Lot
Chief Boot Knocka

SIR MIX-A-LOT Chief Boot Knocka (Rhyme Cartel, c/o American, 3500 W. Olive Ave., Ste. 1550, Burbank, CA 91505)—The vivid image that comes to mind in connection with Sir Mix-a-Lot's wildly successful Mack Daddy is the enormous, blow-up derriere erected on the roof of Tower Records in California—it was the kind of promotional stunt that could make even Luke Campbell jealous. It was also a symbol of Mix-a-Lot's homemade hit machine, which has been pumping out gold and platinum records since 1985's "Square Dance Rap," all done with comical exploits and quirky storylines. At first glance, Chief Boot Knocka is no different: Mix poses in a fur coat with his obligatory harem on the cover, and the themes are similar, though not exactly like those found on Mack Daddy. After the needle drops, Mix unfolds luring stories, partially influenced by his eminent success ("Take My Stash"), and an array of bouncy grooves that sound like something Parliament would have done if it was still together. Best of all, this Seattle native is not about to put his career on auto-pilot now that his wallet has turned platinum: he is well aware of the pressures to follow up a bomb with a louder bomb, and from my perspective, Mix has pulled it off. "Sleepin' Wit My Fonk" and "Let It Beounce" are high-energy funk workouts with live-sounding sampling and his patented colorful rhymes, while on cuts like "Brown Shuga" and first single "Put 'Em On The Glass," Mix's low-profile mackin' is not presented without laughable and sporty raps. Mix's voice has a hard time sounding hardcore ("What's Real"), especially with songs like "My Hoopie" and "Lockjaw" in his repertoire. If you think you know what to expect, you're right on the money, but keep your ears out for a surprise or two along the way. Knock boots to: the title track (whose chorus will have you doing the tomahawk chop), "Don't Call Me Da Da" and "Monsta' Mack."

D*NOTE Babel (TVT, 23 E. Fourth St., New York, NY 10003/212-979-6410)—While many groups within the musical framework that's been called everything from acid jazz to street soul generally subscribe to fashionable formats, rarely searching for a refreshing approach, the European brainchild of multi-instrumentalist Matt Wienevski, known as D*Note, is a collective whose extensive jazz influences have conditioned it not to settle on one style. Originally released in Europe on the Dorado label, Babel is easily one of the most far-reaching records to come along, with the uncanny ability not to distance itself too far from the listener. It stirs up various states of mind, guiding ears through sweet soul, smatterings of cool jazz and progressive dance, as well as more unusual encounters with reggae, odd harmonic structures and sound bites of Raging Bull ("Bronx Bull") and John Majors ("Omni"). The album flows like a movie soundtrack, as it constantly injects something new to make the songs less predictable, and gives anyone taking this ride a feeling that they're being led on an uncharted voyage, visiting strange places

SAME AS IT EVER WAS: It may be the title of House Of Pain's second album, which darts up this week 11-2, but it's also the status for Illmatic, the long-standing debut from Columbia's Nas (1-1). Also making a mad dash this week is Public Enemy's latest single "Give It Up" (12-3), which is being well-received despite occasional bad press. The third record to catapult into the top five this week is So So Def-Chaos' Da Brat (14-4), who makes a 10-spot jump this week on the success of "Funkdafied." Other records on the fly include: Arista's Craig Mack, who moves "Like Dat Y'all" from 27-9, the debut single from Wild Pitch-EMI's O.C. (26-18) and the debut album from Immortal-RCA's Volume 10 (36-19), whose Hip-Hopera is getting some long overdue airplay. Debuts this week come from MC Eht Featuring CMW at #15, Rhyme Cartel-American's Sir Mix-A-Lot at #21, Notorious Big at #25, DGC's Roots at #33 and Pendulum-Elektra's Boogie Monsters, whose debut "Recognize Threshold Of Negative Stress" is at #34. This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Big Daddy Kane; 2) Da Youngsta's; 3) PMD; 4) Notorious Big; 5) Das EFX; 6) Public Enemy; 7) Mad Lion; 8) Domino; 9) Warren G; 10) Sir Mix-A-Lot. (BEAT BOX REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) never seen before ("The Message"). Raps—most notably on the biting "Judgement"—are provided by Krazy Kool D-Zine, while Pamel-la Anderson offsets the strong raps with her cool, wistful vocals. Babel never relaxes; it's the type of musical statement that will hopefully cause others to approach acid jazz with one eye into the future. Climb: "Now Is The Time," "Aria," the house-influenced "Rain" and the Public Enemy-sampled "Scheme Of Things."

KEITH SWEAT Get Up On It (Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 100019)—Before there was any such thing as R. Kelly, there was Keith Sweat to make the teenage girls melt and swoon over his pulsating new jack R&B and graphic romanticism. Now on his fourth album (the last being Keep It Coming in 1991), entitled Get Up On It, this Harlem-born singer/songwriter offers another collection of pining ballads with the dimly-lit, synth-heavy production which has come to define this brand of pop music. Though Get Up On It is often times a little mushy ("For You (You Got Everything)"), and at others painfully redundant, Sweat's best moments come on "How Do You Like It? (Part 1)," a Bell Div DeVoe-ish grind where irresistible crooning and showy uses of the word "gangsta" are bolstered by guest rapping from TLC's Lisa "Left Eye" Lopes, and "Put Your Lovin' Through The Test," featuring the trademark synthesized backup vocals by Zapp's Roger Troutman.

DJ KOOL 20 Minute Workout (CLR, 1400 Aliceanna St., Baltimore, MD 21231/410-522-1001)—One of the most regionalized and overlooked forms of music is go-go. Go-go has the power to turn any situation into a wild, call-and-response party. Washington DC's DJ Kool (a k a John Bowman, Jr.) has been at the forefront of hip-hop-flavored go-go since 1988 and had a moderately successful debut in 1990 called The Music Ain't Loud Enough. His latest party on wax, 20 Minute Workout, is a partially-live, raucous album blending smart hip-hop with the percussive echoes of go-go. The record offers four cuts and five beat-heavy remixes; the first single "20 Minute Workout" sees DJ Kool whipping a live crowd into sweaty, groove-heavy delirium by use of a catchy call-and-response technique and rugged rapping, while "Short Work Out" (recorded at Ivory's in Richmond, VA) also demonstrates the unifying power of the rhythm. But 20 Minute contains much more than hypnotic booty-rockers. Cuts like the Edie Brickell-sampled "Bass N The Truck" and "4 The Brothas In The Ghetto" (whose remix is called "Blood Of Willis") offer conscious messages and infectious hip-hop production.

SINGLELAND

The first of two important singles to make its way to my ears this week comes from DGC's first rap signing, the ROOTS. The group's debut single from the upcoming Do You Want More?!!!!!!, "Distortion To Static" [92 BPM] (DGC, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069), sounds a bit like De La Soul or A Tribe Called Quest with its haunting vocal textures and warmly-lit instrumentation. But this crew is live in every sense of the word. No DJ, just live, jazzy recordings of Rhodes keyboards, bass and a stiff pocket-groove under leader Tariq's loaded rapping. The B-side, "The Lesson Part 1," showcases astounding human beat box and superb vocal layerings...Producer Easy Moe Bee (R.I.F., Miles Davis' Doo-Bop) surfaces to produce "Flava In Ya Ear" [96 BPM] (Arista, 6 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019), the new single from 23-year-old CRAIG MACK, taken from his upcoming Funk Da World album. After releasing a single called "Get Retarded" on the legendary now-defunct Sleeping Bag Records when he was just 17, Mack spent years on the street living hand-to-mouth. Down and out on his luck, Mack finally landed a deal via a collaboration with Mary J. Blige on her hit "You Don't Have To Worry." Now with "Flava..." Mack turns out a self-affirming chunk of ear candy with his lazy, EPMD-influenced delivery at the fore, which should find the success to make Mack a rich man. Word out.

ON THE CHART

STRAPPED AND DANGEROUS: As the summer reaches its peak, Violator/RAL-PG's Warren G (1-1) narrowly escapes the debut from Epic Street's MC Eht Featuring CMW, which makes a large splash by debuting at #2 this week. Rap-A-Lot's Big Mike (4-3) keeps up the success of his first album away from the Geto Boys, while Violator-Relativity's Beatnuts move its self-titled debut into the top 10 after four previous weeks on the chart. This week we welcome in new releases by Tammy Boy's Coolio, who parks It Takes A Thief at #13, and Rhyme Cartel-American's Sir Mix-A-Lot, who lands his fourth full-length, Chief Boot Knocka, at #17. OVER SEAS

JACKPOT!

VARIOUS ARTISTS Volume Ten (Volume, 22 Brooks Mews North, London W2 3BW, U.K./071-706-8122)—Into double figures for Volume, a brave venture that set sail in a recession yet has consistently proved its worth. The 192-page booklet—like a mini music weekly—is a bonus, but the real stuff is the astutely-compiled thesaurus of fresh material that never suffers from bands contributing just 'B-side'-style 'throwaways.' Of the 18 tracks, only four aren't new releases, with Disco Inferno's demo of "Second Language" and Pulp's masterful scaling down of "Joyrider" (now a madcap ballad) outstanding. Of the brand new heavies, A.R. Kane, Scarce, Gene, the High Llamas, Echobelly, Gigolo Aunts (covering Kirsty McColl's "They Don't Know"), Tricky (moonlighting from Massive Attack), Loop Guru, Trans-Global Underground and Insides all retain a sense of purpose and poise. After a dance-oriented passage, Volume Ten closes with a notable unwinding of the senses. "The Sweetest Place" by Oracle, potentially your first exposure to the new group of Colin Newman (ex-Wire) and Malka Spigel and Samy Birnbach (ex-Minimal Compact), is a gentle, glowing electro-glide that lives up to its title, while "Daughter" by Peter Perrett's The One is the first recording by the venerable Perrett since the Only Ones split in 1980; taken from a recent Dutch radio session, the track maintains a similarly vulnerable, passionate guitar-rock, with added keyboard carpeting. Suffice to say, pump up the Volume.

SHUDDER TO THINK Your Choice Live Series 021 (Your Choice (Germany), c/o Com Four, 7 Dunham Pl., Brooklyn, NY 11211/718-599-2205)—Given that the NY Choice live series has gone over the 20 mark (18-20 were Helios Creed, the Notwist and Steel Pole Bath Tub), you'd take it for a legitimate exercise but no, 'bootleg' appears to be the name of this game. The sleeve insert even claims the band helped mix this set from Albig, Germany (May, 1992), so maybe 'official' should prefix that. Anyway, it's one way to wax lyrical about my favorite Americans—dizzily rhythmic, densely complex, heavenly melodic, rapturously moody, dangerously voluptuous, mesmerically adventurous—few bands come this ripe, this advanced. The 11-song set isn't exactly hi-fidelity (way too trebly) but Shudder To Think's Pandora's-box dramatics are suitably amplified with stage-bound wildfire, opening with the relatively aged "White Page" and concentrating on the Get Your Goat-era—"Shake Your Halo Down," "Rain Covered Cat" and "Pebbles"—but including the thrilling "Chocolate" and the new "So Into You" and "I Grow Cold." There is even a sleeve recipe for Frozen Monkey Bits, and for every copy sold, a donation goes to the U.K.-based Vegan Society. In fear of stating the obvious, the forthcoming album on Epic, Pony Express Record, is stunning, a measure of how far Shudder has come since this surprise memento.

BANG BANG MACHINE Eternal Happiness (Ultimate, 271 Royal College St., London NW1 9LU, U.K./071-482-0115)—As the title of a debut album, Eternal Happiness has an ironic ring. Having made the top of John Peel's 'Festive 50' in 1992 with its debut "Geek Love," Bang Bang Machine got hopelessly steamrolled under major-label wheels, but the band has lived to see a slightly updated version emerge under the Ultimate (Senser, Submarine, Sidi Bou Said) banner a year later. BBM's forte is gleaming, full-bodied pop, raised on Elizabeth Freeth's diva-rich whoop, Steve Eagles' multi-effected guitar and a rhythm section as capable of dancelidic drum contours as straightforward rockular drive. The mood is lush, defiant, giddy, sometimes ethereal, sometimes bubblegum-goopy, sometimes pop-snappy ("Give You Anything"), sometimes epic (the nine minute finale "16 Years") and sometimes reminiscent of a more rockular Blondie, minus the cheesiness and iconoclasm but with added stargazing languor. There's even a reggae beat to "A Charmed Life," though such grooveadelic eclecticism is hardly the band's strongpoint.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

Do we ever need a Next Big Thing? No, but GENE's debut single "For The Dead"/"Child's Body" was justifiably acclaimed in indie-pop circles as the bees' knees, the cat's meow, the hot potatoes, as the last word in perfectly drop-dead perfect guitar-pop (yeah, until the next time). Except most people won't own it due to its cruelly limited-edition format (1994 copies—very 'zeitgeist'). "The Second Single" is available to all, and on CD too, and nearly as triumphant. The shadow of the Smiths still hangs heavy—talent borrows, genius steals, it's said—but Gene just can't help but know what constitutes great pop songs—the delicate verse vs. strident chorus of the lithe, thrusting "Be My Light, Be My Guide"; the cantering, shuffling rhythm and maximum R&B swagger of "This Is Not My Crime"—a brave attempt to write about rape from a woman's perspective ("Everytime I cry/He's inside me")—and the dewy-eyed ballad "I Can't Help Myself" (Costamonger, c/o Alan James PR, 1st Fl., 130 London Road, London SE1 6LG, U.K./071-620-1383)...From Bristol, PORISHEAD debuted with a short film To Kill A Dead Man before releasing the "Dumb" single. The band's second single "Sour Times" confirms its filmic ambitions, being the most suitable applicant yet for an underground, film noir version of a James Bond film, if ever one was made. "Sour Times" is a gorgeously blue lament set to a loping hip-hop beat—Massive Attack meets Twin Peaks, with the eggshell-fragile vocal and guitar twang in perfect synchronicity inside a shimmering arrangement. Three remixes—"Sour Sour Times," "Lot More" and the instrumental "Sheared Times"—increasingly explore the subscape possibilities—wind sweeping across an urban promenade, lovers lie back to back, rain falls down under sodium lights, you know the score, though make no mistake, the track itself has its own unique allure (Go! Best, 72 Black Lion Lane, Hammersmith, London W6 9BE, U.K./081-748-7973)...True to form, the new MERCURY REV single has a unique allure. "Everlasting Arm" imbibes a beatific, summery melody with the band's love of '40s-style jazz timbres. David Fricke's sleeve notes are right to mention Pet Sounds, Van Dyke Parks, Syd Barrett and muzak, while the lyrics are equally evocative, with tales of Puerto Rican children, "In a summer rain/Breaking open the hydrants, amid going insane." Space doo-wop, as guitarist Grasshopper termed it. The B-side "Deadman" is even more poetically out-there; a spoken-word poem/rant from the thin lips and pen of Alan Vega is set to Revmusic; said Vega, "The first thing I thought of when I heard it was a funeral band marching through New Orleans in the rain at midnight." Exactly; like Shudder To Think, there is so much intelligence, pure melody and spontaneity at play, it can leave you breathless. As Vega says again of Revmusic, "pop-surrealists and totally fearless" (Beggars Banquet, 17 Alma Road, London SW18, U.K./081-870-9912 ["Everlasting Arm" is available stateside on Big Cat, P.O. Box 2020, New York, NY 10013-0874—Ed.]...Rough Trade Singles Club's July entry is by FRUIT, a.k.a. Patrick Fitzgerald of Kitchens Of Distinction notoriety. "The Queen Of Old Compton Street" is a drumbox-fired pop shuffle illuminating the often unilluminated, vainglorious lifestyle of the Ecstasy-fueled section of Queer Culture—see you on the rack tonight." Not as curiously as you might think, "Scatter Me" recalls Space Oddity-period Bowie—Fitzgerald's voice has always shared a certain timbre with Zig, supported by its urgent, acoustic thrum and gradually escalating, electrified anger—his own "Wild-Eyed Boy From Freecloud." The new Kitchens album has been much delayed but it's a brilliant record; meanwhile eat Fruit, an excellent addition to the Queercore alumni (Rough Trade, 66 Golbourne Road, London W10, U.K./081-960-9888)...The split between Moonshake founders Dave Callahan and Margeret Fiedler has produced nothing but good—while Callahan takes Moonshake into fiercer, torch-jazz territory, Fiedler and LAIKA (the name of the first dog in space) zoom off toward Fourth World exotica with the Antenna EP. "The Marimba Song" layers Fiedler's subtle intonations inside polymorphously percussive, heavenly textured whirl that maintains Moonshake's sample-based soundscape, marimbas flying over flute, Moog and disguised guitar, like a sped-up Jon Hassell. "Lyn' Goat" is a harder version of this fluorescent-jungle, "Squeaky" a more spacious, electronic configuration. Laika shows enormous promise (Too Pure, 3A Highbury Crescent, London N5 1RN, U.K./071-609-2415)...Like Senser, RUB ULTRA is dancing punkrapfunk boogirlchildren—or practitioners of "heavy metal shrink-wrapped dub," according to one source—of the forthcoming apocalypse. The debut EP Combatstrengthsoap opens with "Soft Drink And Dogma," which wins many points for its hybrid activity, quasi-Eastern chords and vocal melody, persistent guitar whinny, punched-through chorus and engrossing lyrics—an abrasive but not over-psychotic attempt to sound concerned, overturned, burned. "Generate" and "Wind It (Bacchic Afterthought)" are more slowburning examples of the band's metal tendencies, though the recipe is multi-flavored, especially the latter's anarcho-funk fractions (Sugar, c/o Wayward PR, 38 Dalberg Road, London SW2, U.K./071-978-8611)...Produced by Robin of the God Machine and recorded for his label The Flower Show, LIGAMENT's debut single is "Thankyou For My Pumping Heart," an ultra-low-rent exercise in monochromatic tension—muffled vocals, churning guitar undercarriage with added drones, recorded as dry as a bone. The same goes for "Hawg Jawz" and the brief instrumental thrash "Ligamentary Canal." (The Flower Shop, Unit G, 44 St. Paul's Crescent, London NW1 9TN, U.K./phone Stone Immaculate PR at 071-737-6359).

Jammin In Vicious Environments

(Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Shootyz Groove first introduced its blend of hip-hop, metal, funk, reggae and jazz with its debut EP, Respect, and after an inspirational tour throughout the Northeast and Midwest, J.I.V.E. was created as a reflection of the band's collective life experiences. Sometimes you need a break from the negativity, anger and frustration that inundates a lot of today's music, and J.I.V.E. is the perfect breather, shining with positive vibes, slammin' rhythms, upbeat grinds and feisty grooves. If these 13 tracks don't get your booty movin', nothing will. Imagine Doug E. Fresh and the Beastie Boys getting together with Rage Against The Machine and Biohazard to jam at a Stop The Violence festival. Filled with heavy rippin' guitar barrages, slick bass grinds and barreling drum blasts, J.I.V.E. spells out a new definition for metal/rap fusion with tunes like "Respect," "Soulfreak," "The Craze" and "Come w/Cha Best." Also, don't miss the thick and crunchy "R.I.T.W." (the last, and heaviest, track on the album) or the poignant "Walkin' In The Fog"—"The blind lead the blind/They never use their minds/ Never escalate cause they always think it's late/But wait and listen to the science we create/And let me introduce you to a higher mindstate." Listen and learn.

MACHINE HEAD

Burn My Eyes

(Roadrunner, 536 Broadway, 4th Fl., New York, NY 10012/212-219-0077)—Joining Roadrunner's hot roster is Machine Head, best described as a brutally aggressive cross between Pantera and Sepultura, with a dash of Armored Saint and Biohazard...in other words, it fucking rips! The band's debut LP, Burn My Eyes, steamrolls through wildly vicious grooves, hardcore grinds and thunderous drum blows with groundshaking dominance, while Robb Flynn's rabid, frothing vocals claw and tear at the surface. The lyrical make-up of Burn My Eyes shares the music's ferocious insistency, lashing out at those oblivious to the destructive world around them. Flynn explains: "Many people choose to look out their front windows and see the sun shining, the birds singing and the flowers blooming, while at the same time, out their back windows, in their own backyards, another world exists—a world that is cold and dark, where survival is a fight from each day to the next." Well, Machine Head is one hell of a wake-up call! Dive into the fiery anger of "Davidian," "A Thousand Lies," "The Rage To Overcome," "A Nation On Fire," "I'm Your God Now" and "Real Eyes, Realize, Real Lies" for a kickstart into the crushing world of Machine Head.

BILE

Suck Pump

(Energy, 545 Eighth Ave., 17th Fl., New York, NY 10018/212-695-3000)—After spewing a string of raw and gritty self-produced demos, NYC's Bile has unleashed its dark and angry madness upon the quivering masses with its first full-length release, Suck Pump. This isn't just ordinary, run-of-the-mill industrial music; Bile takes its industrial-tinged aggressive dementia a step further with the addition of extreme grind-core noise, tortuously violent overtones and hideously evil samples, creating a massive malediction that will blacken the hearts of everyone that falls prey to its reign of terror. The menacingly twisted nine members of Bile, who choose to remain nameless, show no mercy for the weak on this musical rampage from hell, dishing out track after track of harsh irreverence. The hate-filled "URA Fucking Loser" blasts with machine-gun rhythms and screams, with the scathing, scratchy howls from the lead vocalist—"You're a fucking loser!/You are nothing! You are nothing!" The first single, "I Reject," vibrates relentlessly around a massive wall of grinding power that leads you right into the disgustingly vivid shit-sample preceding the next track, "Feeling Like Shit." Also, give in to the screeching sickness of "Get Out," lose yourself in the murky depths of "Suck Pump" and don't forget to get a little "Head" while you're at it. Be afraid, be very afraid.

ARGH!!! IT'S THE LOUD ROCK REPORT

SATCHEL EDC

(Epic, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—You're probably already familiar with the band Brad (a side project for some of the Pearl Jam dudes), but you might not've had a proper introduction to Satchel, which originally spawned Brad. Satchel has been around for more than three years, but hasn't gotten the credit it deserves...until now. Satchel was created inadvertently when Regan Hager's drums were destroyed in a rehearsal-room fire and he was invited to use a friend's kit at another space. The impromptu jam session with John Hoag (guitar, keyboards) and Cory Kane (bass, keyboards) sounded so good that Regan immediately phoned vocalist Shawn Smith and Satchel was born. It's difficult to pinpoint the band's sound, but it's along the lines of Prince meets Mother Love Bone meets Led Zeppelin meets the Beatles—pure acid-drenched rock 'n' roll with pop-funk-blues overtones and jazzy rhythms, laced with swirling psychedelia. Shawn's strong, melodic vocals swoon over colorful waves of vibrating guitar riffs and thick, mesmerizing grooves on "Mr. Brown," while "Taste It" relies on a heavier, more seductive grind. "More Ways Than 3" is a catchy, hip-swayin' rock 'n' roll gem and "Mr. Pink" resonates with beautiful harmony and deep, flowing guitar chords. Also check out the very Prince-like "Built 4 It," the heartfelt, keyboard-based ballad "Suffering," the jazzy "O," "Equilibrium" and "Trouble Come Down." —Jenni Glenn

"End Of Green" (5") (Mercury, address above)—Ireland's Kerbdog has already generated a big buzz in Europe and is now on the verge of exploding wide open in the U.S. When the band's debut full-length LP is released next month, you'll be hearing and seeing much more of this amazing new band, but for now, check out the first single, "End Of Green." Heavy-weight producer Jack Endino (Soundgarden, Nirvana, Mudhoney) lends his magical touch to Kerbdog's already slammin' music, guaranteeing an instant hit. Even though the Alice In Chains/Stone Temple Pilots elements are evident, Kerbdog shouldn't be lumped strictly into the "grunge" category, as it also has strains of Metallica and Tool running through its music. "End Of Green" mixes a heavy guitar grind with catchy melodies that will have you hitting the repeat button on your CD player over and over again. Cormac Battle's crisp, powerful voice soars over thick, rough-edged guitar grinds, plunging into a deep pool of pounding rhythms. —Jenni Glenn

XC-NN

"Young, Stupid & White" (5") (550, c/o Epic, address above)—XC-NN, originally known as just CNN (which caused an uproar with the cable network CNN and had to be changed), were signed to Transglobal, an offshoot of Rhythm King, in June '93. After recording and releasing its eponymously titled debut album overseas last April, 550 Music took the band under its wing to expose it to the U.S. audience. "Young, Stupid & White," the first single from this brash British industrial-punk-rock band, takes a vicious stab at today's pop stars. The band's sound has fairly accurately been described as a cross between Ministry, INXS and the Sisters Of Mercy (in fact, XC-NN's Tim Bricheno used to be in the Sisters). "Young, Stupid & White" is filled with tons of attitude, gritty rhythms, scratchy grinds and plenty of sarcasm. This single also appears on the Epic Summer Soaker Sampler, so if you don't have the 5" yet, check it out on there (track #10). XC-NN's rowdy full-length will hit your desks in a few weeks. —Jenni Glenn

METAL NEWS

Bad Religion has just released an EP, Selections From Stranger Than Fiction, on Atlantic that should hold you over until the full-length, Stranger Than Fiction, is released the first week of September...Metal Blade recently signed Joey Vera, formerly the bass player for Armored Saint. His new album, A Thousand Faces, will be released on September 27. Unlike anything you'd probably be expecting from Joey, A Thousand Faces marks his debut as a singer, guitarist and songwriter. Look for Joey and his touring band to hit the road some time this fall. Also on September 27, look for Metal Blade's long-awaited reissue of Chemlab's first album, Ten Ton Pressure, with remixes of a couple tracks from Burn Out At The Hydrogen Bar. The Goo Goo Dolls are currently in the studio with Lou Giordano (Sugar, Husker Du) cutting another album, which is slated for an early '95 release. Hey all you Gwar freaks!!! The much-anticipated 35mm film, Skulhed Face, will be out on August 9. And don't forget that the Gwar comic book put out by Last Gasp is on store shelves now. The art and story of the comic book was all done by Gwar and their Slave Pit and centers around the theme of Skulhed Face. The band has also cut the title track to a major motion picture, S.F.W., which will be out later this summer. The soundtrack also features Hole, Radiohead, Soundgarden, Marilyn Manson, Monster Magnet, Paw, Suicidal Tendencies and Therapy?. And that's not all!!! Gwar also makes an appearance in the Beavis & Butt-Head video games for both Nintendo and Sega...Rock Hard East Records has announced plans for its first CD (a compilation of East Coast talent), which will hit stores early '95. The label is presently reviewing materials for the effort with hopes of bringing the spotlight around to Southern New England. For more information, please contact M.J. at Rock Hard East Records, P.O. Box 310413, Newington, CT 06131-0413, or phone the label at (203) 279-7061...Epic News: Sepultura's Chaos A.D. has gone gold in Indonesia! Congrats to those heavy slammin' boys from Brazil! Also, keep your eyes peeled for Alice Cooper at an in-store near you. Alice has been doing a ton of in-stores lately, the first one taking place at a K-Mart in Detroit, which drew over 2,000 folks. Infectious Grooves will be touring this fall with Suicidal Tendencies...must be nice to open for yourself, eh? Don't forget about Arcade's new album, A2, which will hit your desks the first week of September.

S.E. ROGIE Dead Men Don't Smoke Marijuana (RealWorld, c/o Caroline, 114 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001/212-989-2929)

It is one of the saddest facts of this year that most reviews of the excellent Dead Men Don't Smoke Marijuana will also double as obituaries: shortly before the album's release, legendary palm wine guitarist Sooliman Ernest Rogie passed away at the age of 68. It's one of those unusually sad and searing ironies, for Rogie's vibrant music virtually personified the essence and spirit of life itself. Exuberant and easygoing, palm wine music is from Sierra Leone, strummed on an acoustic guitar, with clip-clop African percussion and lilting melodies; this album also features the warm, resonant sound of Pentangle alum Danny Thompson on upright bass. Uncannily like the Piedmont blues of Mississippi John Hurt, it's an carefree, mellifluous style, characterized by arpeggiated fingerpicked guitar, simple vocal lines and earthy, unassuming lyrics. Like that of Hurt, or Lightnin' Hopkins, Rogie's music was so endearing that he could record the same tunes over and over again with different words, and nobody seemed to mind a bit (many of the melodies here are almost identical to some that cropped up on previous Rogie albums on the Worker's Playtime label). Rogie was not just a musician, but an educator and ambassador—shortly before his death, he returned to Sierra Leone to perform a series of benefit performances, and while he lived in the U.S. he often performed for students and children. So listening to this CD in the wake of Rogie's departure, one is drawn to think about the impact Rogie and his resplendent music must have had upon impressionable young minds at some of those concerts. If one could imagine a subtext, a message not said in words but left behind in the mind after such a performance for young people, it could well be: I am African. I may be different, but I am neither strange nor foreign. This music is very like your own. Standing alongside his relaxed goodwill persona, that is a really significant contribution. The music on this album is outside of time, existing in no particular place: to hear it is to sit around a fire, drinking a milky white elixir, and to feel peace. —James Lien

VARIOUS ARTISTS Pure Purépecha (Corason, c/o Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA, 06140/617-354-0700)—Pure Purépecha, a collection of traditional string band music of the indigenous Purépecha people of Central Mexico, in the state of Michoacán, is another triumfo from the consistently excellent Corason label. The album highlights two styles of fiesta music, pirakuas and abajenos, both in 3/4 waltz time, but very different in tempo and feeling. The gentle, lively and romantic pirakuas are traditional courting songs, pervaded by a cool, minor-key melancholy expressing the sadness of real love. A recurrent motif in the pirakuas is the tsitsiki, a local flower exalted for its beauty and used metaphorically to praise the loveliness of a

As we return from a one-week hiatus in chartland, there are several changes reflecting the time off, the subtle week-to-week shifts on the chart amplified by the two-week gap. For starters, there's a new #1, as Giant-WB's Manu Dibango finally vaults to the top after a steady rise through the top 10 (did any of you New York-area readers check out his set in Central Park two weeks ago?). There are quite a few new entries here as well, as two weeks' worth of new releases have found their way into programmers' hands since the last chart. These include RealWorld-Caroline's S.E. Rogie (an impressive #6 debut), Giant-WB's Big Mountain (#9 debut), Tippa Irie on RAS (#15 debut) and a whole slew of new records at the bottom of our charts, including B-Tribe on Atlantic (#22), Virgin's debut from UB40-mate Bitty McLean (#23), Ariwa-RAS' Mad Professor (#23) and City Of Tribes' Stephen Kent (#25). Meanwhile, the week's biggest mover is MCA's the Morgan Heritage, which vaults 21-13, while Culture's dub album on Heartbeat returns to the charts at #21. desired young woman. The songs, generally sung as duets, are performed here by two male ensembles and one female group, the Dueta de Comachuén, which sings the love songs unadapted, as if the men are wooing the women, or as if women are singing to themselves. Perhaps the Purépecha men should note that the women sing these songs with a more joyful spirit and less melancholy. Things really heat up on the Conjunto Atardacer's instrumental, fiddle-driven abajenos "El Ultimo Beso" and "Rebozo Blanco," and the album's exciting finale, "El Fandango," features the exuberant plucking of a loosely strung upright bass, sounding like a galloping horse, one of the most splendid sounds in all the world's string music. —David Newgarden engaging as it lacks the academic stuffiness of some anthropological and ethnomusicological texts. Sarno is a regular joe from New Jersey whose life is transformed by hearing pygmy music on the radio. He has since spent several years living in the rainforest, recording music, and apparently he's still there. Even though Sarno becomes fairly well integrated with the Ba-Benjellé, he's well aware that his presence is a corruption of the culture which he is documenting. He has enough sense of humor that when he gives in to the pygmy's persistent pleas for clothing, among his gifts is a T-shirt with the message, "Fuck You." There's also an unintentional laugh when a telegram from Brian Eno makes its way to Sarno in the wilds of the rainforest.

The writing is colorful and romantic, although tempered by the harsh realities of the Ba-Benjellé's friction with industrial society and government, and their medical deficiencies in dealing with malaria. Sarno richly describes the sights, smells and tastes of the forest, the cultural clashes and relationships between him and the pygmies, and especially the hauntingly beautiful pygmy singing and music traditions, which are documented to have existed as far back as the time of the Egyptian pharaohs. Particularly appealing is Sarno's vivid account of the people he lives with; the musicians of most traditional music recordings and texts are so often nameless and without personality.

Sarno's recordings are thus far available only on cassette (Boyobi is available from Sound Photosynthesis, P.O. Box 2111, Mill Valley, CA 94942-2111). Numerous European import CDs of pygmy music on the Ocora, Les Chant Du Monde and Playasound labels are distributed in the U.S. by Harmonia Mundi (2037 Granville Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90025-6103). There are two fabulous domestic albums of Ituri rainforest (in the Congo/Zaire region) pygmies recorded by Colin Turnbull. Mbuti Pygmies Of The Ituri Rainforest (Smithsonian/Folkways, Office Of Folk Life Programs, 955 L'Enfant Plaza, Ste. 2600, Washington, D.C. 20560/202-387-3262) was recorded in the late '50s; although recording technology has improved dramatically since those days, the performances are superb. Music Of The Rain Forest Pygmies (Lyricord, 141 Perry St., New York, NY 10014/212-929-8234) is recorded on more modern (1967) equipment and is also highly recommended. Turnbull died on July 28 at the age of 69. In addition to making field recordings, the British anthropologist wrote extensively and supervised the curation of the Man In Africa hall at the American Museum Of Natural History in New York. Turnbull was best known for his book The Forest People (Touchstone, 1961) about egalitarian pygmy society, and the explosive The Mountain People (Touchstone, 1972), about the Ik, a Ugandan hunting-and-gathering people who were driven to desperation at the verge of their extinction. —David Newgarden

CRUCIAL!

BITTY McLEAN Just To Let You Know (Virgin, 338 N. Foothill Road, Beverly Hills, CA 90210)—Formerly on the sidelines and behind the scenes with UB40, Bitty McLean now steps into the forefront on his own. The album's liner notes read like a fable straight out of the glory days of reggae in the '60s: Delroy "Bitty" McLean works humbly as tape op for UB40 in the studio, recording his own tracks on the sly (often in the middle of the night), waiting for his big break, a moment which probably came shortly after Bitty nailed the background vocals on UB40's smash remake of "Can't Help Falling In Love." So now comes his debut, and it sounds like one of those albums an artist has been saving up for his whole life. To some ears, the album is pretty smooth and slick in places, but that's mainly because this is English reggae, where the likes of Maxi Priest and Chaka Demus & Pliers rule (if you're looking for heavy electronics and hyperkinetic rhythms, then you're on the wrong island—try Manhattan or of course, JA itself). This is smooth, contemporary reggae that isn't afraid of crossover potential, isn't scared of success, isn't backed into a corner trying to be real or tough. And the best part of this record is that it works, perfectly. "What Goes Round" is catchy, perky and perfect for summer, a song just made for a beach tape or a party mix. And the album is full of tracks like that one, each just brimming with enthusiasm and emotion in McLean's vocals. A fine debut.

JACK RADICS Open Rebuke (Heartbeat, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700)—One of the first of the new Heartbeat titles licensed from Star Trail records, this outing features Jack Radics' vocals on 12 new tunes. The last few Radics records we've heard have been a little flat, and while this one is not quite the slamming return to form we'd hoped for, it certainly finds Jack Radics in better spirits, in good voice and with some good tracks behind him. For starters, Kulcha Knox provides tough dancehall raps on "Let My People Go," providing a gruff and rough counterpart to Radics' smoother vocal stylings. From there, Radics' reggae-fied reading of "Psalm 72" is particularly moving, as is "Puppet Master At Play," a scintillating duet with Yami Bolo that plays off a similar riff to James Brown's "It's A Man's World." Still, sometimes it seems as though the electronics and producers' trickery of many of the Star Trail productions use the technology as a replacement for real musicianship, rather than an innovation springing from the new technology; not only is it cheaper for one or two musicians to use drum machines, keyboards and such to produce tracks rather than paying a full band, but they're easier to deal with on an ego level as well! Unlike the wildly creative use of samplers and loops in hip-hop, Jamaican producers too often rely on the same old sounds to get the job done.

MAD PROFESSOR The Lost Scrolls Of Moses (Ariwa, c/o RAS, P.O. Box 42517, Washington, DC 20015/301-588-9641)—There are some artists and producers who are prolific to an infuriating degree, where it seems as though the bins are constantly deluged with second-rate product and quickly-thrown-together projects. Then there are those producers and artists who continually amaze and delight fans and audiences by consistently delivering quality records. The Mad Professor is definitely of the latter category: it seems like every few months he rolls out a release or two on Ariwa, and all are excellent and well worth seeking out. The latest, The Lost Scrolls Of Moses, is a fine dub-heavy outing. To many who are dazzled by the blaring pulse of hip-hop influenced dancehall, dub reggae might seem a lost art, like scrimshaw or building suits of armor. But to those who are still fans (and there are a lot of them out there), it's a rich territory of the imagination, a fertile forest that has yet to be fully mapped out, even years after pioneers like King Tubby and Lee Perry blazed the first trails into the dense and unexplored overgrowth. Often dub reggae heads are from a demographic well outside the typical reggae fan: we know at least two artists, one a woodworker and one a painter who are not particularly big reggae or dancehall buffs, but who often listen to dub in their workplaces, claiming its calming, meditative effects enhance their ability to concentrate on the creative process. These tracks, particularly "African Hebrew Chant," "Land Of Canaan" and "Subversive Literature" (our pick for song title of the week!) are all worth exploring. Another fine record in an ever-lengthening success streak from the Mad Professor.

JACKPOT!

JOE LEWIS Joe Lewis (EP) (Relief, c/o Cajual, 1229 N. North Branch #218, Chicago, IL 60622/312-642-8008)—Once again, the Cajual track label, Relief, shatters the dense summer calm with four tracks of electronic acrobatics that'll dehydrate you faster than a noontime jog through midtown. These tracks are unimaginably stark and sinuous, juxtaposing crisp snare jolts with flickering, staccato vocal yelps and a shuddering drum pattern. Once again the Chicago underground lets loose a mammoth talent, a producer who can create dance music which makes inertia just impossible. I just wish 10 records a week this good would make their way into your local dance store bins, and with the release schedule over at Relief, that possibility seems less remote.

CRISTIAN VOGEL Lambda (EP) (Magnetic North, London UK/071-284-0434)—Since Cristian Vogel's first EP for the Magnetic North label last year, his vision has matured to the point where he must now be thought of (along with Dave Clarke and Luke Slater) as one of Britain's most inventive techno producers. His recent "Tales From The Heart" was pathbreaking, but this new EP is simply wondrous. Like the best moments in the music of Clarke or Maurizio, Vogel insists on maintaining a crystalline threnody through giant, scraping layers of electronics and racing, quick-step drums. The A-side's track (identified only by a Prince-like symbol) sucks the listener into the enormous pool of sound, yet retains a vast, cold distance.

ITALIAN HOT TRAX

In the lean dance month of July, four outstanding Italian singles have made their way across the Atlantic purpose-built for the hardhouse literati. The first is the new EP by the lauded LEO ANIBALDI, whose hair-raising electronic doodling has won him a large following. The Endurance EP is, if anything, a move even further away from the realms of commercial potential, but it kicks. The uncredited second track on the B-side incorporates Carl Craig-like cat-o-nine tail snare hits, while a grimy acid sequence squirms underneath. All four tracks here sound like nothing else on wax (ACV c/o Via A. Coppi 4/C (A) 00179, Rome, Italy/06-780-6466)... CENTURIA CITY's Rise Of The Techno City EP is a welcome discovery at a time when mediocrity abounds in deep techno. The oddly perverse "MHz" drifts around the edges of your consciousness like a half-forgotten dream, while the hammering "Reifluxe" sends drums crashing down atop a taut acid springboard. This is a promising debut indeed (Hot Trax, c/o ACV, address above)... Undoubtedly one of the most uncompromising Italian techno labels is Muzak, whose 13 releases to date have pushed electronics to the breaking point. The serpentine textures of the two latest 12" releases by BENDOID and CHRONOGLIDE are deeper than the Mariana trench and work their way into your bloodstream like a shot of endorphins at the base of the spine. Both these EPs were produced by Gemolotto and Fabrice, who must have tied up their studio engineers to get at the kinds of sounds found here. "Tethnical" on the Chronoglide EP is a deep sea world heard only through a sonar, with a stark blip circumscribing the scene. The bass reverberations have a centrifugal quality and the production quality is peerless. "Acid Tools" from the Bendoid EP is a wasting, acid steam bath with the heat set at maximum. This label regrettably suffers from uneven distribution, but these records are worth the wait (Muzak/Informal, c/o Della Rosta, 13 UD, Italy/0432-505228).

ON THE CHART

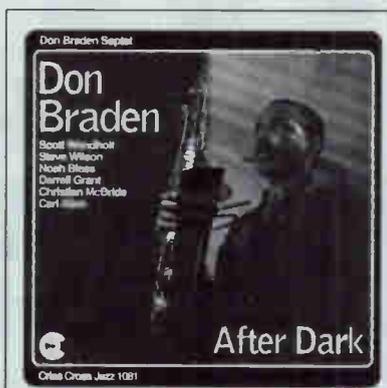

After its week off, the RPM chart returns with a plethora of debuts. While still retaining the #1 slot with Lifeforms, Future Sound Of London's import of Expander enters this week at #21. Another import takes the highest debut, Global Communication's Chapterhouse Remixes on Dedicated (UK) at #9, while domestic debuts from Seefeel's Polyfusia and Killing Joke's Pandemonium on appear at #12 and #16, respectively. Also notable (but not surprising) is the Orb's steady climb towards the top of the chart (5-4) after debuting a few weeks ago. The number of compilations on the chart this week (six) is starting to be rivaled by the number of charting Caroline-related releases (four), two of which hold down the first two spots. PLUS, ALSO, TOO

JOEY BELTRAM, the producer whose Mundo Muzique-created, warping Juno synth sound formed the basis for well over 200 records since 1991, is enjoying a resurgence of artistic activity and acclaim. His recent double 12" for Trax tore everybody's roof off and the new Caliber EP for Warp in the U.K. confirms that Beltram's days of pedestrian, major-label remix work are over. These tracks, particularly the solemn "Orion," show Beltram's creative energies at their peak. "Orion" sounds like the fusion of Carl Craig's recent work with the first side of New Order's first LP, Movement. The grandeur of the upswept keyboard lines form a counterpoint to the sharp, high-end percussive volleys which crash through the drum patterns like an unwanted party guest, only to transform the track from the inside out. Many may have counted Beltram out, but he is back and making no apologies (WARP, P.O. Box 474, Sheffield, S1 3BW U.K.)... Windsor, Ontario's techno prodigy Richie Hawtin requires little introduction in these pages. What does merit attention is his radical stylistic departure on the superb Hardphunk EP by HARDTRAX. Ostensibly produced by the Hard Brothers, this is Hawtin's stab at the ascetic electronic project begun in 1989 by Robert Armani. Borrowing ideas from Armani and Detroit's Dan Bell (of DB-X fame), Hawtin whips together a corrosive, high-velocity groove from next to nothing. Armani's less-is-more aesthetic can sound wan and antiseptic in the wrong hands. That is certainly not the case here (Probe, 934 W. 11 Mile, Ste. B, Madison Hts., MI 48071/519-641-7059).

Extroverted, energetic and enlightened, the 30-year-old DON BRADEN has emerged as one of the most important tenor voices of his generation. Like his peers Craig Handy and Willie Williams, the Betty Carter- and Roy Haynes-schooled Braden is motivated by melody: He sidesteps vapor-shrouded chordal cul-de-sacs in his search for Sonny vistas. His new, third outing for Holland's Criss Cross, After Dark, is an often dreamy cityscape showcasing his writing for septet. In trumpeter Scott Wendolt and altoist Steve Wilson (who also record as leaders for Criss Cross) and trombonist Noah Bless, Braden boasts agile players capable of following a leader's cues and, when the need arises, seizing the moment, soloistically. Bassist Christian McBride and drummer Carl Allen, two sturdy, ever-dependable swingers, are joined on the back line by Darrell Grant, who has tickled the ivories for such demanding bandleaders as the aforesaid Carter and Tony Williams. After Dark, like all Criss Cross CDs, may be hard to come by, but the music is worth the search... On his second foray for Enja (c/o Koch International, 177 Cantiague Rock Rd., Westbury, NY 11590/516-938-8080), WW3, WILLIE WILLIAMS follows Braden's thematic route but dispenses with piano, opting for a harmonically open, push-pull dialogue with bassist Scott Colley and drummer Harold Summey Jr. Energy, unpredictability and multidirectional invention abound on this recorded journey, which can be as bracing for open-eared listeners as it is for cutting-edge players like Williams & Co.

Baritone saxist JAMES CARTER, a young-blood member of the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra (whose new CD, They Came To Swing, is newly out on Columbia), makes his own Columbia/DIW debut with JC On The Set. The highly-lauded Carter, extolled for his explosiveness and almost cubist tonality-playing simultaneously in what sounds like several registers- is heard on alto and tenor besides bari in the company of pianist Craig Taborn, bassist Jaribu Shahid and drummer Tani Tabbal. The repertoire, in addition to three Carter originals, includes the late tenor giant Don Byas's "Worried And Blues," Sun Ra's "Hour Of Parting Sun" and Duke Ellington's "Caravan" and "Sophisticated Lady." Keep your ear open.

Another Columbia/DIW artist with a new CD on the market is ROBERT HURST, Branford Marsalis' homey in The Tonight Show band. The Detroit-bred bassist's new one, One For Namesake, his second for the label, is a threesome with fellow Motowner Elvin Jones on drums and Leno-ite Kenny Kirkland on piano. Hurst's compositional savvy—he penned 10 of the 11 cuts; his only nonoriginal is Dave Brubeck's "In Your Own Sweet Way"—suffuses the CD, and the influence of Wayne Shorter is especially palpable. Drummer Jones, a polyrhythmic marvel, shines on relaxed, tensile tunes ("C-Ya" and "Chillin' At The Sloat") in addition to reflective numbers ("Thad's Blue Plaid" and "The Onliest") reminiscent of his playing on Shorter's 1964 Blue Note LP Speak No Evil. Jones' subdued tactile responses (particularly his brush playing on the Brubeck piece) gives way to fury on "Swing On Swole." It's no surprise that

ON THE CHART

After six weeks atop the charts, Verve-PG's Roy Hargrove Quintet (1-2) has finally been knocked off by World Saxophone Quartet's Breath Of Life album (2-1) on Elektra Nonesuch, featuring Fontella Bass. The group's Black Saint impart album, Moving Right Along, returns to the chart at #24. Charlie Haden (Verve-PG) debuts way up at #6 with a live 1989 reunion concert with his fellow Ornette Coleman band-mates Dan Cherry and Ed Blackwell. Also debuting in the top 10 is the new album by saxophonist Grover Washington, Jr. on Columbia (#9). Latin pianist Eddie Palmieri, also on Elektra Nonesuch, moves up (11-3), and Evidence's Franklin Kiermyer Quartet featuring Pharoah Sanders returns to the top 10 (12-5). Other chart debuts this week are: MAMA's B Sharp Jazz Quartet from Las Angeles (#15), singer Jimmy Scott on Blue Horizon/Sire (#16), Warner Bros.' trumpeter Wallace Roney (#17), alto legend Sonny Stitt (#20) and pianist Randy Weston's never-before-released Monterey '66 concert (#22). Hurst wrote much of this material with Jones in mind, and it's no wonder the results are so splendid. Hurst comes East the week of Aug. 30-Sept. 3 for a weeklong stint as a leader in Manhattan at Sweet Basil. He'll share the stage with Detroit trumpet titan Marcus Belgrave, drummer Lawrence Williams and pianist Carlos McKinney, whose work in tenorman Bill Saxton's quartet ATYMONY (as heard on the eponymous CD for Jazzline) has raised eyebrows.

The tenor-friendly music of Thelonious Monk—enriched over the years by the likes of John Coltrane, Sonny Rollins, Johnny Griffin and Charlie Rouse—has enraptured the wayfaring alto saxist SONNY FORTUNE. As such, this onetime associate of Miles Davis and Mongo Santamaria devotes his entire Blue Note debut, Four-In-One (due Sept. 6), to the High Priest's music. Fortune, returning to major-label prominence after stints in the '70's with Atlantic and A&M/Horizon, teams up with pianist Kirk Lightsey, bassist Buster Williams and drummer Billy Hart on an all-Monk program featuring such pieces as "Criss Cross," "Trinkle Tinkle," "Pannonica" and the lesser-known "Hornin' In" and "Coming On The Hudson." Although he cut an all-Monk quartet album a few years ago for the German Konnex label, Fortune emphasizes that instead of growing out of Monk, "I've grown into him." In a chat with CMJ the affable altoman, who also plays flute and other woodwinds, remarked: "I'm more impressed with Monk now, as I've become more enlightened, than I was 15, 20, 25 years ago. ... Monk's music is very complicated. His movement of chords is very intricate and innovative; his melodic approach is very unique, contemporary."

REVIEWS

DEEE-LITE "Picnic In The Summertime" (Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—It's too hot to rave indoors, baby. So after you've watched this colorful, carefree clip, get yourself outdoors and enjoy the summertime. The luscious and always entertaining Lady Miss Kier and fellow Deee-lites leave behind the funky club backdrops, the NYC car-alarms and assorted nonsense in favor of some green grass and sunshine for a "Picnic In The Summertime." Kier, looking adorable in her "Action Girl" T-shirt, rolls around, delivering daydreamy lyrics like "Hop on a lily pad for the summer groove." Deee-lite's grooves are as inviting as Kier's wide smile (distorted to cheshire-cat proportions by the fisheye lens) and it's easy to see why those grooves cause people to bound and leap about in the great outdoors. ARRESTED DEVELOPMENT "United Front" (Chrysalis, c/o EMI, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104)—While Arrested Development reinstates its revolutionary musical brilliance with its second studio album Zingalamaduni, Speech and co. are persisting in their quest to make some of the richest visual statements of the genre. Although considerably more subtle than "Tennessee," "United Front" is a powerful tune; the clip is steeped in all the Mother Earth spirituality of the band's music. The Afrocentric ideals and aesthetic that AD relies on to affirm its message are translated by deep brown tones and stark black-and-white portraits, simultaneously contrasting and merging the soul and spirit of the African plains with the decay of the American inner city. Various members of AD's assembly travel through each scene as spiritual explorers, dancers or celebratory figures, united by the umbrellas proudly held above their heads. "United Front" is another cultural triumph from one of the most important hip-hop groups on the planet. (CH)

INDIGO GIRLS "Least Complicated" (Epic, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—If you ever wanted to play along with your favorite Indigo Girls song but didn't know all the chords, well, here's your chance. No, "Least Complicated" isn't quite as text heavy as all that, but it does use clever graphics, which give this clip its interesting character. While the Indigo Girls play on a dimly lit stage, one on each side, the bottom third of the screen allows space for hip, witty or pointed textual interpretations of the song (i.e. "BONGOS" when the song's percussion kicks in, chord notations, and lyrics also appearing.) If this isn't the kind of loose, witty video you'd expect from this folk-pop duo, then that's a good thing. (CH)

XC-NN "Young, stupid And White" (550, address above)—The battle over using the letters "CNN" are over, and it's time for XC-NN (formerly X-CNN, formerly CNN) to start its own network featuring its brutish and brosh barrage of Britcore. Since you can probably guess what this song is about, we'll just let you know how the message is translated into video. "Young, Stupid And White" is perhaps the most obnoxious, offensive and confusing thing we've seen this year, and we like it a lot. With vomiting, dead people stuffing their faces with french fries, obese old women in ill-fitting outfits and lots of bondage play thrown in, what's not to enjoy? By obscuring certain parts of the film, "Young, Stupid And White" suggests that certain other grotesque and offending things are happening here, and simply by suggesting (like NIN) such things, the effect is twice as powerful. (SC)

WARREN G "This DJ" (Violator/RAL, c/o Island, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—While notably modest in scope, the video for "This DJ" is a more than applicable companion to Warren G's mellow G-Funk sound. At its most basic, the clip is a montage of carefully-paced shots taking the viewer through different times and places in Warren's world. Cruising smoothly like a low-riding convertible through the 'hood, the video relies on chroma-key transitions to seamlessly carry one scene into the next, using a rolled-up car window or turn of the corner to bring the next background under Warren's profile. With its sing-along chorus and an atypical visual smoothness, "This DJ" should set the standard for G-Funk wannabes everywhere. (CH)

WILLY DeVILLE "Hey Joe" (Forward, c/o Rhino, 10635 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90025/310-441-6654)—It's not surprising that he'd be singing about wronged men killing their old ladies, since journeyman songwriter/performer Willy DeVille has probably seen a fair share of shady characters while living in New York, Paris and now New Orleans. In this breezy, Mexicali arrangement of this oft-covered standard, DeVille is outfitted in full band-leader garb, looking a bit like Wayne Newton's sinister brother. The video is extremely well done, allowing the gaudy festival setting and DeVille's shifting eyes to supply the dark drama hidden in the song's lyrics. (SC)

Tommy/Steph, Virgin Records, New York, NY (212) 586-7700

So settling in is key #1, and cool music is next in line. The Virgin College Dept. is in full effect once again with Tommy and Steph on the full tilt. What's up with our music? Hmmm...Let's see, the AUTEURS are out on the rood and still need support from radiol! Now I'm a Cowboy is without question a great record. Listen up! THE VERVE are out on Lollapalooza with new music coming early next year. In the meantime, jam on No Come Down, enjoy the stoner ride...The ROLLING STONES have proven college radio is a safe place to hang, call us for more details about spending some time in the Voodoo Lounge. BOB MOULD and IGGY POP have great CDs out there. Bob's Poison Years is a remembrance of his great early Virgin work plus live stuff, and Iggy's Live: TV Eye, is a sick reissue from 1977! Jams with BOWIE Beefest! Be Iggy's dog! Remember BEN HARPER and SAM PHILLIPS too, as they are ultra cool as well. The CAMPER VAN BEETHOVEN/CRACKER swing is tip top with The Virgin Years, a compilation for both bands. Any questions, call us. Did I mention that UDS is signed to Virgin UK? I think I'm in love.

Alex Parker, National Promotions and Crypt Kicker, R.E.X. Music, Nashville, TN (615) 370-8813

Billy Bob runs a fish hatchery in the back woods of North Carolina. After a long day of... well hatching fish, Billy Bob loves nothing more than kicking back with some home-slung brew and listening to CIRCLE OF DUST. Billy Bob was once heard uttering, "I can't really describe their music other than admitting it makes me feel like break dancing." What Billy Bob fails to realize is that the music of C.O.D. is commonly referred to as industrial. Billy Bob's wife Cindy Lu likes to sneak off to the backyard where she decapitates dinner and cleans it with a handmade tool which she calls "the tool." While preparing the evening meal, she often listens to SIXPENCE NONE THE RICHER. Cindy Lu conveys, "I think that girl has the prettiest voice. And I hear that she was only 17 when she sang on that record." Just before bed, the husband and wife join together in the most sacred of all marital duties. They go dance to PASSAFIST. The two soul mates find a happy medium in the techno-influenced college rock of Passafist. Since this story is leading nowhere, I will end it. But before I go, if you college radio types need any of the aforementioned bold-faced titles just call me. Also, the CHOIR's "Speckled Bird" and STARFLYER 59's debut release will be surfacing at your heap soon.

Dale Johnson, Ummmm..., Smash Records, Los Angeles, CA (213) 937-4660

MICHAEL PETAK. Pretty Little Lonely. It's a record. It's a movie. It's a record, it's a movie. Wait! It's both! Michael is such a prolific guy that he made both a record and a movie. Where does he get all his energy? Anyways, the T Bone Burnett-produced album will be accompanied by a free movie for a limited time, starting August 16. So rock, okay? Speaking of rocking, FAILURE will be bangin' their well-travelled heads throughout the month of August as part of this night-before-Lollapalooza club tour with Rust and Inch. It kinda makes ya think what a great record Magnified is, huh? Discuss. After the Failure show, you might want to shuffle on over to Big-Stadium-In-Your-Town to check out Lollapalooza and L7 goin' off on the mainstage. And, like, eat something while you're there. Don't forget about the cool transparent blue Hungry For Stink vinyl, too. It's available, contrary to popular belief. Don't let them tell you otherwise, okay? It's all about Jawbreaker, Jean Genet and Hash Browns. Deal with it.

Galen McCorkle, Promotions Director, Silent Records, San Francisco, CA (415) 957-1320

Greetings and salutations! I'm the new Promotions diva at Silent, the spiritual vortex of ambient heaven. I want to begin this Dialogue by throwing a big ol' kiss and offering a hardy hello! OK boys and girls let's talk some shop. Most of you RPMers should already have our new releases, PELICAN DAUGHTERS, Tox Uthat II, and ABSTINENCE. Those of you who don't have these gems just drop me a line. I've talked to some of you, but being summer, I've had the luminous opportunity to get over my fear of answering machines. Thanks to those who've been blessed with the kindness to return my calls. Super to see that Pelican Daughters charted on RPM this week (July 25)!!! Keep 'em spinnin' and don't forget about the trippy grooves of Tox Uthat II. Those of you with a taste for raging intensity along the lines of Prong and Killing Joke should check out Abstinence, the industrial phenomenon that features Prong member Jon Bechel. Keep your shades peeled for upcoming releases from Swedish experimental ensemble PHAUSS and a compilation from San Francisco's intelligent techno wizards, aptly entitled Brilliance for a Better Future.

Ginny O'Rourke, Monsterdisc Records, Chicago IL (312) 266-5770

First, I want to thank all of you who came out to see CYCLONE TEMPLE at the New Music Seminar, they rocked New York. It was great to meet everyone, we all had a great time! Cyclone Temple will be on tour in Sept. so keep in touch for dates and info. Now listen up, if you guys are playing Dick Dale, Man or Astro Man you'll dig the SPIES WHO SURF it's great summer music, so call me and I'll get you a copy ASAP! Thanks again for the support.

Mitch Goodman, Public Works/Nouveau Poore Records, Pasadena, CA (818) 585-0515

Runaway souls are filled with all these decisions, hopeful words turn into miserablisms, and THOMAS has just released his latest collection, Nothing Is Real. Don't miss the deja vu effect running through this disc. It seems quite possible that Thomas knows exactly what we are thinking. If you're one more victim of the tyranny of choice, get used to the GREED GODS and look for Thomas as he continues his coast-to-coast butterfly safari and radio tour. Thanks to Diane and Amy and very special thanks to Christa, Alex and E.T, without whom...Please play Nothing Is Real one day in the life of Thomas.

Todd Miller and Justine Brennen, Upstart Records, W. Somerville, MA (617) 354-0700

Is it my imagination, or is this the hottest summer ever? Here in Boston, we're slaving away in cramped, and un-airconditioned rooms to let you know about the TAILGATORS most recent (6th) release, Swamp's Up. The powerful surf rock trio is currently tearing it up through the South central, guided by Don Leady's screaming guitar. We wanted to let you know about this band's latest moves and offer our most gracious, humble, and servile thanks to all them CMJ radio stations who are playing those surfy sounds that we know and love. Here's the dates: July 30 @ VZD's Oklahoma City, August 11 @ Billy Blues Club Houston, TX, August 13 @ Hole in the Wall Austin TX, and August 26 @ Cibolo Creek Club San Antonio TX. Also, watch out for the up coming surf release by the HALIBUTS.

You know gang, living in L.A. definitely has it's advantages. Why, just the other day, I crashed the True Lies party with Arnold "Fuckin' Terminator" Schwartzenegger, Jamie Lee Curtis, her father Tony Curtis and a barrage of shmoozy industry types. While sipping champagne with Jamie Lee and her father, I just happened to mention how incredible MORGAN HERITAGE's single "Unjust World" is, BARRINGTON LEVY's "Under Mi Sensi" and the soon to be arrival of the new STEEL PULSE record called Vex. Well, let's just say I had to pry her off me after she found out I could get her the records. The night was long and filled with free drinks, free food and fast women. I got a couple of souvenirs from the party that I'll be happy to tell you about (818) 777-4380. I'd write about it, but I have to be sure that everyone reading was over 21!!! Big shouts!!! KTUH (ie desu ne). KXJZ, KMSA, KZSC, KRCL, KPFA, CJAM, KIOT, WWUH, WVKR, and everyone else playing MCA records. Peace.

Dan Mackta, Autotonic, New York, NY (212) 260-3389

Hey now. Not a lot of time to chat, but thought you'd want to know some of the things we've sent out lately. No dry humor, no cutting wit, just the facts: on Scat Records, there's Bee Thousand by GUIDED BY VOICES and Viva La Muerte, the debut record from COBRA VERDE, four fine men from Cleveland, Ohio. On K Records, a busy season featuring new albums from SOME VELVET SIDEWALK, FIFTH COLUMN, BECK and HALO BENDERS, and a mini-LP from Olympia, Washington's KARP. On Hut U.S.A., debut EPs from English bands S*M*A*S*H and THESE ANIMAL MEN, and DARYLL-ANN from Holland. On Drag City, a timely reissue of Red Crayola founder MAYO THOMPSON's 1970 solo LP Corky's Debt To His Father. Got 'em yet? Plus, bands like KING KONG, GRIFTERS and LOIS are doing tours and such now, too. Coming up momentarily: NOTHING PAINTED BLUE Placeholders (Scat), LYNC These Are Not Fall Colors (K), FITZ OF DEPRESSION Give It A Twist (K), PALACE BROTHERS (Drag City), SUPREME DICKS Workingman's Dick (Freek (UK)). And don't forget to ask me about NEGATIVLAND, the Teen Beat records fall package tour, CANDY MACHINE, SMOG, RED KRAYOLA and PORK, the other white meat. If you want jokes, buy a damn George Carlin record.

Morgan Church, National Alternative Network/Spin Radio Network, New York, NY (800) 455-7746

Ain't nothin' but a G. LOVE AND SPECIAL SAUCE thang! A way cool show at the Minneapolis Uptown Bar last night and great "saucy" stuff for a hot summer night. The first delivery of the SPIN Radio Network for college radio is coming soon. Sign your non-commercial station up for a free weekly half-hour of exclusive music and interviews during the '94-'95 school year. SRN features unreleased, prereleased, in-studio, rare and imported music from a plethora of great artists. Join the Network.

SEED now on MTV!!! How amazing is that. We've been trying to tell you that this band is going to be huge. Do yourself a favor and play the shit out of this band. Thanks to all that did interviews, if anyone else needs an interview just call us. Listen to EARTH EIGHTEEN!!!! You will not be disappointed. The tracks are "Mechanical" & "Goin' Steady" The JESUS LIZARD continues to climb the charts as well as the new BOINGO. The HORSIES are slowly getting on more stations each and every week. Check out "Noam Chomsky." You should all have PUSHMONKEY, adds on "Blue" go on the 25th & 26th. Be on the lookout for the BEATFARMERS...Talk to yas soon.

Patrick Rule, Relax Productions, Columbia, MO (314) 442-2631

I want to thank all of those adventuresome souls out there that have the guts to play ROBIN TROWER. You know who you are, and you deserve a lot of credit for seeing the album for what it is, good music, and overcoming the urge that so many people have to label and artist from a particular era as being locked into that mold. Without proper segue, the PATROL is kicking ass with the new CD, Tearing The Social Fabric. The lucky stations that received the CD early this summer are telling me the CD is awesome. The whole country should have received the CD by now, so give me a call if you don't have one. Another CD that all of you should have by now is the MUDSHARKS, Crackin' Porcelain. This land-locked ska band is from Reno, NV, but the CD is immediate ear candy from start to end. MIRROR GARDEN's new hit song is their ballad "Michelle," and is starting to catch fire on AAA and commercial alternative as well as college. And last but not least, BIG MOUNTAIN's new CD, Unity will be out very soon. I know you hear a lot of hype from us promoters, but Unity will be the best album to cross your desk this year. You heard it here first. Have fun!

of you in disarray and confusion, let me enlighten you and give you a taste of what the guts are made up of. The B.U.D., you figure out what it stands for, has a laid-back East coast rap style that the ladies in Sarejava are dying for. The single is called "Chill" with "B For The Ladies." Check it out and I'll be calling you lumpheads about it soon. I want to see it go #1 in the Beat Box. Other interesting trinkets for the ear are MISFITS IN THE ATTIC and DA SMOOVE ONE. The Misfits are doing spot dates around the area of Cleveland and Pittsburgh so you better stop down. The single to know and love from them is "Blind Love." Thank you so much. And finally in this corner wearing the green trunks is Da Smoove One with the single "Best Kept Secret." The best kept secret about this single is that stations in CA, NY, PA, FL and OH are playing the record so take a lesson. Until next time, don't forget to touch my monkey and bring the Snapple.

Dawn Richardson, Slot Records, San Francisco, CA (415) 864-8540

Greetings from San Francisco! You should be receiving our first release from SPANKING VIOLETS within the week—this 5-song CD is Slot Records' #001 release and we're just getting our sh@&#t together, as it were. Spanking Violets is a mad combination of country, southern rock and spunky farm funk, and is playing to great reviews all over the Bay Area. Between beating the drums with 4 Non Blondes (the band you love to hate) and my private life (almost non-existent), I've put this label together to get more San Francisco bands onto the airwaves! Spanking Violets will be touring to support their CD soon, so stay tuned for more details. The girls are available for interviews and in-station acoustic performances as well, so go for it! You can reach me at (415) 864-8540.

Alan Sartirana, (Can't believe the model in Victoria's Secret catalog was a man) Director, KSMC, Moraga, CA (510) 375-1242

Hello world of college radio. I hope all of you that received our "KSMC Spring Catalog" (FAX) were pleased. Though the general consensus of those who received it was that we here at KSMC have too much time on our hands, the circumstances are to the contrary. We have just received a large amount of new recording equipment for our studio, and the installment has been keeping us very occupied. This "Catalog" was faxed out as an incentive to all you radio promotions folks to call us and chat. Hopefully this will work. A note to those who haven't received this fax, our new number here is (510) 376-5766. KSMC's major picks for summer: LUSH, SENSEFIELD, MEDICINE, MC SOLAAR, ORANGE 9MM, B-BOYS, the ORB, SNEETCHES, POT VALIANT, MIRANDA SEX GARDEN, FUTURE SOUND OF LONDON and the JESUS LIZARD. Show of the month: JUPITER'S SUN and EARTHMEN.

Disappointment of the month, the CURVE break-up. Thanks to Chuck for including us in the FSOL 3D Headspace radio tour. Thanks to everyone else for your help (fix, giveaways, etc...) One last note, the bodies on our fax are not our own, so please don't panic. Just call us so we can rap 'bout rekids.

Jon "The Not So New Anymore Music Director" Klinowski, KWSB, Gunnison, CO (303) 943-3033

Ello. You mean "Hello." No I mean "Ello." I just wanted everybody to know that KWSB "The Mighty Penguin" is running all summer long, and is undergoing an Alternative Revolution with myself at the helm (Classic Rock must die!), so get those albums in the mail! We are also now charting for Beatbox, RPM, and World Music so any help in these areas would be much appreciated. Da Goods: B-TRIBE, MARILYN MANSON, BOBBY SICHRAN, HELMET, FUZZY, EVERCLEAR, BUZZOVEN, SKREW, GROUND FLOOR (Independently produced, call me to get your own copy of this great Denver band's first release), the BOREDOMS and of course we just can't get enough of the BEASTIE BOYS. The people who make it all work: Kelso (my sister in Real World-dom) at Roadrunner, Yigal "The Chief" at Interscope, Jason at the Cage, Corrina at Seed, and Lisa, Stephanie and Kyras at Vision Trust. Thank you, that is all.

Bobby Comstock, Rastamerica Show Producer, WVBR, Ithaca, NY (607) 273-4000

Add another great show to the Ithaca summer: MANU DIBANGO will make an appearance here on July 29. The SKADANKS show in June was postponed at the last minute, but they rescheduled (July 22). Sadly, we just missed having PATO BANTON, but I've been told the summer's young. The club night also suddenly cancelled. It just didn't work out. Still, Ithaca's alive with great music. Pay a visit sometime, and call the station when you get here.

Denton Anderson, Music Director, WMUL, Club D.J. for Gumby's in Huntington, WV (304) 696-2295.

I'd like to thank all the individuals who have helped out WMUL and the club I work at Gumby's with all the support and backing that's been given in the past year. Thanks to McGathy promotions, thanks for being a friend Corey Sheridan, Tom at Roadrunner, Aron at Interscope, Joel at American, Adam at Sub Pop, Pete at EastWest, Matt at Seed, Lisa & Steph at Vision Trust. Radioactive, Kristin at Mammoth, Leslie at Imago, Sivan at TVT, Cynthia at Discord, Kris Metzdorf, Mookel at Capitol, Gina, Darren at Mechanic, Corey at Triple X, John at Caroline, and The Want Ads. Thanks to all the band that have played at Gumby's in the past—Clutch, KARMA TO BURN, Madder Rose, the AFGHAN WHIGS, the JESUS LIZARD, STOMPBOX, HUM, DIE MONSTER DIE, STICK, SUPERSUCKERS, the POSTER CHILDREN, I MOTHER EARTH, G.G. ALLEN, LIQUOR BIKE, ENGINE KID, too many to list and thanks to all the bands that have come back to Gumby's to play again, and I look forward to working the August line up with—KYUSS, TYPE O NEGATIVE, BUZZOVEN, CLUTCH, SAM BLACK CHURCH, STOMPBOX... Thank you Chuck and Aly at WRFL for considering me as your music director, thanks Julie at WNYU, and all the other radio, and industry people that I've meet or talked to in the past.

Mike B., WMNF, Tampa, FL (813) 238-8001 Okay. It's over. Another NMS has come to an end. Thanx again to Chuck for the radio panel and the great spread. Thanx to the Seminar for the champagne. Thanx to all the great radio and college reps. Thanks to Laure Parsons for not boring us all ("can I make one more point... NO!"). Thanx to Corey at McGathy. Thanx to the beautiful Asian women of NYC. Thanx to ECHOBELLY, OASIS, SPEARHEAD, FUNDAMENTAL, S*M*A*S*H, STOMP, Frankie's Soul Kitchen, No Tell Motel, Girlee Action Publicity, Marxmen, United Future Organization, Galliano, BIKINI KILL, ABC NO RIO, the Supper Club and 42nd St. No thanx to clubs with little air, the humidity, late starting shows, and Club Tilt. Personally, the two most interesting sights during seminar week had nothing to do with the music. Seeing DAVID BYRNE teaching his two-year old to ride a bicycle and watching a father and son embrace for what could be the last time said more to me than any band ever could.

Annalisa Morrison, The "Other" Music director, WDWM, Auburn, NY (315) 255-1743 ext. 284

That MCI masturbation-thang has never been sooo good!!! I've had the biggest grin on my face ever since my telephone conversation with Gary Asquith from RENEGADE SOUNDWAVE. Thanks Drew H. for setting that one up! While I'm chatting overseas, my program director Ron Schayler is on the other line schmoozing with Chadwick Solls of SEED. In preparation for our jump to 3,000 watts we've been adding lots and lots of new music among other exciting things (specially night shows and on-air interviews)!!! Ron and I are both willing to travel to talk with you, as was in the case of the interview I did with Jared from CHEMLAB, so if you're up for something interesting, give us a call. We are both in our offices all day on Wednesday.

Doug Woycechowsky, Alternative Music Director, WRUB, Buffalo, NY (716) 645-3370

Someone spray painted "Will the last person to leave Buffalo please turn off the lights!" on an abandoned building downtown. But hey, Buffalo is coming back to life with the rising power of WRUB. More people are finding out about us every day, and they say "Hey, if you guys play the new POP WILL EAT ITSELF, then you're OK in my book." So we do. Many of the labels have been great to us in getting us on two feet, especially Yigal at Interscope, Adam at Sub Pop, Kelso at Roadrunner, Sivan at TVT...thanks guys! Right now we're totally into THE FALL, TEN BRIGHT SPIKES, EVERY 13 DAYS (from Buffalo), and REVEREND HORTON HEAT. We're eagerly awaiting the new BOB MOULD and DANIEL JOHNSTON albums. WRUB tries to encourage music like Daniel Johnston which has true genius and comes from the heart as opposed to shallow go-nowhere bandds like Aerosmith which get tons of airplay on all the other Buffalo stations. The rising forces of WRUB and Daniel combined give some hope for radio listeners in America's first ghost city.

Eitaro Hayashi, Music Director, KTUH, Honolulu, HI (808) 956-4848

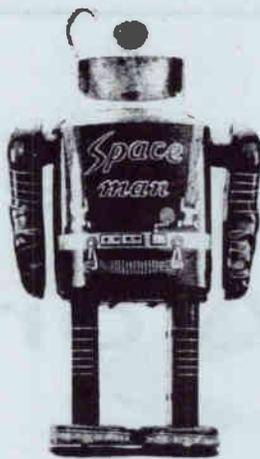

Yo! Just checked out the new Arnold movie True Lies which simply defines the term "ac-tion." Fuck Keanu Reeves and Speed! But enough trash talking and on with business: Movie Trivia 5! "You cold blooded bastard...I'd live to see you eat that contract! But I hope you have enough room for my stomach, because I'm going to ram my fist down your throat and break your goddam spine! Aaarrrggghhh!" Winners as always will be treated with an Oriental Connection/Ramen demo. So far we've had two winners only (Go Russell Go Tony!) so turn around your thinking cap and call/fax (808-956-5271) me with the best answer you can grind up. Aloha.

Lisa Cole, Music Director, KUOI, Moscow, ID (208) 885-6433

By the time this reaches y'all I'll be in Seattle reinventing myself as Super Grungekitty. OOOOH, perish the thought. Anyhow, I would like to take this time to thank those of you that made this past year such a pleasant and highly amusing experience. Hmmm, do I wanna name names and risk hurting someone's feelers? Nah. You know who you are and if you don't then you probably aren't on the list. Gee, it's not every job that a gal gets to be serenaded, talk about body piercing, and learn such information as a certain rep's showering etiquette (tee=hee) all in the course of a week. I've enjoyed chatta' it up with most of you and am going to miss ya. Enough of that, this is also to introduce my replacement, Colin Forbes. He is a nice fella and I am sure he will do a terrific job. Be nice to him or I will find you and flog you until you cry. Or is that really a punishment? Anyhow, be kind and gentle and don't scare him too badly to begin with. Smoochies!

SST & NEGATIVLAND KISS AND MAKE UP

According to Negativland's Mark Hosler, the group has reached an out of court settlement to end SST's lawsuit for copyright infringement regarding the band's magazine The Letter U And The Numeral 2, which chronicled the U2/Negativland fiasco. The Island Records vs. SST lawsuit was also settled out of court, resulting in SST and Negativland losing ownership of Negativland's "U2" parody collage and over $40,000 in costs and payments to Island. Agreements of the new settlement include a split of the costs (25% SST/75% Negativland), dropping of SST's lawsuit, splitting of the Negativland/SST catalog (SST will retain four titles, rights to five will revert to the band) and an odd proviso which allows SST chief Greg Ginn to freely sample from any Negativland recordings (past, present or future) in order to create parody sound collages, the first of which Hosler says Ginn is planning to call "Negativland." Ginn declined to comment.

RADIO NEWS

WFUV, of Fordham University in the Bronx, NY, has been ordered to stop construction on its new, half-built, 480-foot, $1.3-million broadcast tower by the New York City Buildings Department, because of a complaint by the University's neighbors, the New York Botanical Garden, which received no advance notice of the construction. The tower is approximately 100 yards from the Garden's conservatory, a national historic landmark. In a front page New York Times article (7/6/94), Botanical Garden president Gregory Long states: "It's exactly what you would think neighbors aren't supposed to do. You can't build this monstrosity at our front door...It's very damaging to the notion that the garden is an oasis in the middle of the city." According to WFUV General Manager Ralph Jennings, the station is building at the new site because the old antenna, atop a building of classrooms since 1947, was judged a health hazard by the F.C.C., as it showers the students with RF (radio frequency) radiation, although Jennings questions the validity of the environmental requirement, which the station has failed since it was initiated in the mid-80's. Speaking to CMJ, he said "if there's any blood on the floor, no one can find any." WFUV, which broadcasts at the maximum-allowable 50,000 watts, stands to increase its coverage area by moving to the new tower, which is being built 300 feet higher in order to isolate the radiation. The university continues to pursue the case with the Department of Buildings, and with the Botanical Garden the station is exploring the possibilities of locating the tower elsewhere...In early August, WPBX, of Long Island University in Southampton, NY, will be boosting power from 1,000 to 25,000 watts and changing frequencies from 88.3 to 91.3 fm. According to WPBX Director Alex McCarty, the station will simultaneously become an affiliate of National Public Radio, adding 25 hours a week of NPR programming, while truncating some of its student- and community-produced jazz and classical programming... Listener-supported WFMU in East Orange, NJ, has become independent of Upsala College, precipitated by a college financial crisis which almost shut down the institution in July, according to Station Manager Ken Freedman. Auricle Communications, a non-profit organization headed by Freedman, has purchased the license and plans no changes in the station's programming.

LIVE WIRE

WOMAD FESTIVAL July 16, Jones Beach, Wantagh, NY

Peter Gabriel's WOMAD (World Of Music Art And Dance) Festival was seen as an unmarketable underdog among the many multi-act music tours this summer. To combat that, WOMAD, in its second year in the States, again used high-profile acts (Gabriel, Midnight Oil, Live and Arrested Development) as its draw, thus exposing the consciousness of what was primarily a middle-America "rock" audience to supporting "world music" acts. Between set-ups of main stage acts the audience was encouraged to visit stage two for 25-minute sets from artists who, for the most part, were foreign to this crowd in more ways than one. Highlights of the smaller stage included the Moroccan funk of Hassan Hakmoun, the dense polyrhythms of Ghana's Mustapha Tettey Addy & The Royal Obunu Drummers, and the striking music of China's Guo Brothers, who play feverish classical works on bamboo flute and sheng, a shrill wind instrument that's like a cross between a pipe organ and a harmonica. The crowd was won over by the brothers' intimate performance and by the elegance of the flute and the orchestral choos produced by the sheng. The festival grounds (allotted to merchants of ethnic jewelry, clothing, etc.) featured something called the WOMAD Workshop, which invited concert-goers to participate in various ethnic dances, songs and marches. In one workshop, Zimbabwe's Stella Chiwese taught a traditional dance and song to a few willing female participants. On the big stage, Midnight Oil played a juggernaut of a set and Gabriel's closing hour was a high-tech romp through the hits. Yet the peak of the eight-hour concert came when Arrested Development's mid-festival "celebration" gave the crowd a joyous and long-lasting second wind. The band's universal vibe typified the very essence of WOMAD, as it brought the crowd to its feet with positivism and dance-inducing grooves. An un-billed Lenny Kravitz stopped by to jam with AD and Gabriel. The show ended with many other festival performers—South Africa's Lucky Dube, Hakmoun and members of the Native American group Songcatchers—joining in an extended version of Gabriel's "In Your Eyes." —Steve Ciabattoni

TOUR UPDATE

The second concert planned for the 25th Anniversary of Woodstock, has been scrapped. Bethel '94, as it was being billed, was forced to cancel its shows, scheduled for the weekend of Aug. 12-14, due to disappointing ticket sales. Bethel '94 boasted nine acts from the original festival, yet failed to sell enough of its $94.69 tickets in advance "to support a multimillion-dollar expenditure," according to a spokesperson from an event promoter.
