six bubble machines

AND THE FLAMING LIPS:

a lollapalooza experience

The Flaming Lips have just released Providing Needles For Your Balloons, an EP that's a sort of an addendum to last year's incredible far-out pop record Transmissions From The Satellite Heart. The band joined the Lollapalooza tour on the very first date, July 7, and finished one month later, half-way through the tour. What follows are some of the Lips' comments on their Lollapalooza experience:

The First Day

"The first day was just one of those really hot days, we were all red...it was 120 degrees in Las Vegas," complains drummer Steven Drozd. Guitarist Wayne Coyne observes, "We're in pretty good shape now, did you notice we are tan?"

"I hate it, I don't want a tan," wines Steven, but he quickly cheers up when he spots a Rhode Island newspaper with a review of Lollapalooza and shows it off proudly. "You see that picture," pointing to a photo of Kim Deal. "That's my name written in Japanese on her arm."

The Bubbles

"We always have to have some trick or trinkets," reveals Steven. The Lips have long been known for their outlandish light shows, complete with heart attack-inducing strobes. Since their Lolla performances are during the day, the band has gone with bubbles.

Wayne points to the headline of the Rhode Island newspaper article. "Here we are in the headlines. 'Virtual Reality, Poetry And Bubbles.' And the virtual reality is not reality...it's hardly reality...and the poetry is poetry and you know how that is...but the bubbles are the real thing and they rock.

"We have six bubble machines. We have a Bubble Boy in charge of the machines. The fans applaud him everyday."

The Bands

The Lips' favorite Lollapalooza bands include Nick Cave, Luscious Jackson, Guided By Voices, Rollerskate Skinny and the Beastie Boys. Then there are some bands which they are vague about. "G.G.B.B.—Good Guys Bad Band," as Wayne says. They detail the spontaneous collaborations on the tour. "Nick Cave has come over a couple of times to sing 'Wonderful World' with us," he says. They describe the time P-Funk didn't show up and George Clinton was trying to brief the Bad Seeds on how to play funk. Luckily P-Funk showed up just in time. "The Boredoms have come over to our show a couple of times. Eye plays guitar and Yoshimi screams," Wayne remembers.

The Best Story

"The best story is when Guided By Voices smoked the Beastie Boys in basketball," says Steven matter-of-factly. "The Beastie Boys carried this goal around with them so they could shoot hoops. Bob [Pollard from GBV] walked up to Adrock, I think it was Adrock, and said in a weird way, 'We're going to kick your ass today. Should it be in music or basketball?' and Adrock said, 'Well, this is just a friendly little game we've got going on...' Jim, Bob's brother, went to college on a basketball scholarship and Robert has a basketball court in his backyard. They were kick-ass. It was Bob, Jim and a couple of their friends against the Beastie Boys and Billy Corgan. The best part was that Jim was at the very back of the court and the ball just went 'swish.' Adrock stood there shocked. Well, I think Adrock tried to strip the ball from Robert and Robert got around him, but the ball hit Adrock in the face. He stopped and said 'Hey, man!' and Bob said, 'Hey, this is just a friendly game.' It turns out Adrock went up to Robert and apologized the next day for his attitude."

The Rewards

The new Rolling Stone has just hit the stand and a friend brings it to the band's hotel room. The cover copy reads "Lollapalooza: Luscious Jackson And The Flaming Lips." Wayne's parents are called while the rest of the band criticizes the photo and the article. "It even makes us out to be nice guys. It talks about how we lugged around Rollerskate Skinny and the Verve's equipment and how we have to book our own hotel rooms..." The Flaming Lips fit into the category of N.G.A.B.—Nice Guys, Amazing Band. DAWN SUTTER

NEIL YOUNG AND CRAZY HORSE

Sleeps With Angels

Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510

While other second generation rock 'n' rollers have settled comfortably into the depths of an early grave, self-parody or pot-bellied nostalgia mongering ("We stopped a war, man!"), Neil Young continues to make great, relevant records. Without being a pedantic "protest" record, Sleeps With Angels manages to take on drive-by shootings, America's history of violence, Kurt Cobain's suicide, and even how they just don't make 'em like they used to. The single thread of hope we have in the midst of all this, of course, is love, but Young, accompanied only by a saloon piano, reluctantly admits on "My Heart" that "When dreams come crashing down like trees/I don't know what love can do." Musically, Angels is Young's most ambitious set in years—an earful of its sprawling 62 minutes is a little like listening to Decade, sides one through six. "Change Your Mind" (Young's best double-edged 'love' song since "I Believe In You") is a hypnotic 15-minute Crazy Horse jam; "My Heart" and "A Dream Can Last" recall "After The Gold Rush" or "Journey Through The Past"; "Trans Am" is a "Last Trip To Tulsa"-type epic. Spook the Horse with: "Prime Of Life," "Driveby," "Train Of Love," aw hell, listen to the whole damn thing. STEVE MCGUIRL

PUBLIC ENEMY Muse Sick-N-Hour Mess Age

Def Jam/RAL, c/o Island, 400 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10003 310.276.4500

Fuck "return to form," fuck whatcha heard, and fuck you too. Muse Sick is the Public Enemy album that belongs after Fear Of A Black Planet—not a retreat to past glories (which is what hurt PE's last two albums), but a fearless, furious step into the next thing. It's one car-bomb track after another for a solid hour, and it's amazing the group crammed all its conceptual mass into that short a time. The central question this time out: "right vs. wrong, good vs. evil, God vs. the devil, what side are you on?" Nobody—nobody—can sound as passionate, as utterly convinced of The Truth as Chuck D. Check out "Live & Undrugged Pts. 1 & 2," where he goes from a hip-hop flow to straight-up beat-dodging testifying for his listeners' souls, and underscores it all with his jaw-dropping sense of rhythm and emphasis and how things sound. Chuck's burning so white-hot that even Flavor Flav can't steal the show, close as the sneering, clowning "Godd Complexx" comes. PE doesn't merely sample, it devours everything and then sweats it back out in barely recognizable forms (there's ghosts of the Chambers Brothers hidden in "Race Against Time," the Last Poets in "Used To Call It Dope," James Brown and Steam (!) in the ace Bomb Squad explosion "Hitler Day"). Get the Mess Age: the above, plus "Bedlam 13:13," "Death Of A Carjacka" and "What Side You On?" DOUGLAS WOLK

SEBADOH Bakesale

Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA 98102 206.441.8441

Lou Barlow has already been recognized as one of the most accomplished (and prolific) indie-rock songwriters, and on Bakesale the rest of the band is catching up with his prowess, even as Barlow's skills continue to improve. The sillier, more loosely constructed songs that gave Sebadoh's previous albums texture, but often detracted from the overall impact, have been weeded out here, and Bakesale winds up the strongest, most accessible Sebadoh album to date. Lou's songs are in top shape, their dynamics honed to a precise, heartstring-tugging point, their presentation impassioned and straightforward, and their lyrics still hinging on the complex realities of boy/girl relationships. Bakesale stars off crisp and rockcentric with the catchy, warm-blooded "License To Confuse," and is followed by like-minded rockers such as "Magnet's Coil" and "Rebound," which get a lot of mileage out of their compact structure; more reflective songs like "Not A Friend" and "Together Or Alone" broaden the album's scope and sound. Lowenstein's five songs are surprisingly accomplished, much more fleshed out than his previous contributions; tops are "Bummer," whose guitar and vocal lines are quickly embedded in your consciousness, and "Drama-Mine." Even drummer Bob Fay's one contribution, "Temptation Hide," featuring vocals by Ann Slinn, is a sweet, tension-filled gem. LYDIA ANDERSON

JESUS & MARY CHAIN Stoned And Dethroned

American, 3500 W. Olive Ave., Ste. 1550, Burbank, CA 91505 818.973.4545

Since 1985 the Jesus & Mary Chain has made it a point to shock its audience into paying attention, but for the Reid brothers to trade in their heady, wall-of-fuzz drives for a stab at '60s-style folk-pop songs could hardly have been expected. With Stoned And Dethroned, their follow-up to 1992's Honey's Dead, the Reids have pushed the buzzing guitars to the back wall, opting instead to draw out their irresistible melodies with the assistance of lighter licks and more organic percussion. At the same time, they manage to avoid separating themselves from the sound that made them so influential to a generation of noiserockers—the happy-go-lucky pop structures here are still no sunny day in the park. The brothers' trademark dejected, very British-sounding vocals continue to hold fast the undercurrent of gloom and despair, communicating dark lyrical musings with typical Chain despondency, as on the longing "God Help Me" or "You've Been A Friend." Oddly enough, while Stoned And Dethroned is easily the Mary Chain's most musically layered work to date, it is also the band's most compositionally ethereal and open. The oxygenated melodic simplicity of "She," easily one of the album's best songs, belies its stacked arrangement and is exemplary of the majority of the album's 17 brief, but beautifully satisfying tracks. Other brilliant links: the dreamy "Wish I Could," "Feeling Lucky," "Come On" and "Sometimes Always," featuring Mazzy Star's Hope Sandoval. AARON CLOW

Neil Young And Crazy Horse have just released Sleeps With Angels, a cathartic and introspective album that's as moving as any of the greatest moments in Young's esteemed career

Grand Royal-Capitol
 Luscious Jackson's all-Natural Ingredients have propelled the group to a #17 debut on the Top 150, taking the #7 Adventure Pick and the #1 College Cuts title, as well as the #1 Radio Breakthrough, dancing its way past those artificial bands with filler. Discovered by the Beastie Boys, the four gals are being discovered by a lot more people (including fashion magazines—check out the September Elle), their blend of light funky grooves colliding with their New York downtown pop style. Becoming all-Natural in their Top 5 reports. KLBC (#1), KMBU, KUCI, WBIM (#1), WCCX, WCFM (#1), WCVF, WTSR, WVVS, WXCI

Headlining Club Tour This Fall

Produced by the Superbeats: Jill Cuniff / Gabrielle Glaser / Tony Mangurian & by T. Ray • Mixed by T. Ray Management: June Guzik for Cozy Shack Management ©1994 Capitol Records, Inc.

In 1975, Paul Hill, a 21-year-old man from Northern Ireland, was wrongfully sentenced to a lifetime in prison for pub bombings in Britain. Hill, along with three others—known as the Guildford Four—spent fifteen years in prison and was finally set free when the British government admitted that officers lied at the original trial.

This horrific story was immortalized in last year's feature film, "In the Name of the Father."

RETAIL FOCUS

AFGHAN WHIGS What Jail Is Like (EP) Elektra

The Afghan Whigs hit the chart this week at #19 (#1 Breakthrough) with What Jail Is Like, the follow-up to last year's Gentlemen.

The seven-song EP has four covers and three live songs, as well as "What Jail Is Like," a track from Gentlemen. A slow and intensely agonizing piece, the EP could be a soundtrack for those who have the heartbreak blues. The live songs add lots of drum fills, but the highlight is the Whigs' cover of local friends the Ass Ponys' "Mr. Superlove," complete with banjo and piano.

DISTRIBUTER UPDATES

Cargo's (Paul Heiger, 312.935.5683) top-10 list includes many singles this week, including the Warner Bros. (UK) import 7" of "Basket Case" from Green Day, the "Stranger Than Fiction" 7" from Bad Religion on Sympathy For The Record Industry, and Ween's "I'm Fat" single on Vital. Other than the usual import singles, Feedback (Ed Rapacki, 708.545.9191) has a few domestic full-lengths doing well, including Offspring's Smash on Epitaph and Silent's Unidentified Floating Ambience compilation. The top three at Music People (Greg Shaver, 510.653.5811) are Rappin' 4-Tay Don't Fight The Feeling on Ragtop, Poohman Ain't No Love on In-A-Minute and C-Bo's Aupopsy (AWOL). Dutch East India (Jack/Arthur, 212.657.0922) has both the LP and CD of Amphetamine Reptile's S.W.A.T. album, Deep Inside A Cop's Mind, an interesting concept album, but is doing best with the debut from Grass-Dutch East India's Baboon called Face Down In Turpentine. At A.D.A. (Michael Black, 212.343.2485) the top sellers include Jale's Dreamcake (Sub Pop) and Guided By Voices' Bee Thousand (Scat-Matador). If anyone has any questions or comments, or would like to contribute to the Distributer Update, contact Dawn Sutter at 516.466.6000 ext.52.

ON THE CHART As school days approach, it's the kids who will have their say, and the kids say that Reprise's Green Day (3-1) is this week's favorite, pushing Grand Royal-Capitol's Beastie Boys (1-3) out of the #1 spot. Epitaph's Offspring remains at #2 after 17 weeks on the chart, as A&M's Soundgarden also holds still at #4. Atlantic's Stone Temple Pilots (6-5) maintain momentum after a nationwide tour. Elektra's Stereolab leaps from #37 to #6. Epic's Forrest Gump soundtrack (10-8) proves its end-of-summer popularity. Maverick/Sire-WB's Candlebox (14-10) moves into the top 10 for the first time after 41 weeks on the chart. • Making waves for the first time on the charts: Elektra's Afghan Whigs EP (#19; see Chart Focus), DGC's Weezer (#29), Grand Royal-Capitol's Luscious Jackson (#32), Sub Pop's Sebadoh (#42), Amphetamine Reptile's Snivlem (Melvins) (#43) and Parlophone (UK)'s Morrissey & Siouxsie single (#51). • Capitol's Mazzy Star progresses up the charts (18-12), reaping the benefits of major video airplay. Violator/RAL-PG's Warren G's (29-22) catchy hip-hop vibe finds a niche, and Astralwerks-Caroline's Future Sound Of London (38-28) proves popular as the world of ambient music gains a larger audience. ## DINOSAUR JR Without A Sound

Sire, c/o Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510
J Mascis is a lucky guy. Unlike Neil, who has to call up Crazy Horse and wait around for Poncho, Ralph and Billy to show up at the ranch before he can indulge in feedback and raunch, all J, who plays drums, guitars, sings and produces, has to do is flip on the tape recorder and rock. On Without A Sound, J Mascis is his same low-key yet fiery self, squeezing big slabs of chords and howls of feedback out of his six-string—still, it's hard to believe that someone so reticent could wring so much noise out of a guitar. "Mind Glow," "Feel the Pain," "Yeah Right" and "Grab It" are as memorable as anything in the Dino/J canon, while the longer, weirder, quieter songs such as "Outta Hand," "Seemed Like The Thing To Do" and "Over Your Shoulder" explore the new, subtler ground that seems to have been broken with J's work on the soundtrack to Gas Food Lodging. For an alternative rock guy who's made a living by surpassing expectations musically with each passing album for almost a decade now, Without A Sound could be Dinosaur Jr's most successful moment yet. ## LUSCIOUS JACKSON Natural Ingredients

Grand Royal, c/o Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028
Everyone knows Luscious Jackson drummer Kate used to play with the Beastie Boys, and that it was the Beastly ones that first exposed the Luscious foursome to the world. But Luscious Jackson is in no way a gender-reversed Beastie

Boys. Sure, the band incorporates a vast variety of '70s jazz, funk and disco styles into its surging creations. Yeah, it often refers to hip-hop beats and sensuously fluid raps, but in the final analysis, Luscious Jackson is a soul band—not in the strictest sense, but in the way its melodies sway and groove with emotional grace. Natural Ingredients, the group's first album following its excellent debut EP In Search Of Manny, is a celebratory feast of music history, but it's also a poignant confirmation of human spirit, will and endurance. It's about standing strong in the face of adversity—accepting and overcoming obstacles by maintaining a positive mindset. "Well I'm about to go crazy/Cause I'm still living here/I just get my friends together and we dance, dance, dance," sings bassist Jill in "Find Your Mind," over an ecstatic beat, exultant horns and a bounding bass line, confirming the group's positivity. Most of the songs on Natural Ingredients are sultry and seductive, but they're filled with enough 'tude to keep them from sounding cute or sleazy. These girls of the '90s capture the sounds of the '70s best in "City Song," "Strongman," "Energy Sucker" and "Find Your Mind." JON WIEDERHORN

COP SHOOT COP Release

Interscope, 10900 Wilshire Blvd., #1230, Los Angeles, CA 90024
When a band's been doing one thing for quite some time, the slightest change in direction can meet with incredible opposition from stalwart fans. New York City's Cop Shoot Cop has long been known for its harsh, unrefined noise. The band's latest, Release, is not a drastic departure from last year's Ask Questions Later, but does incorporate a new vibe. The group's rumbling, ear-bludgeoning rhythms remain intact, though they have been rounded out and smoothed over a bit. The new and improved soft touch, paired with echoing vocals, gives the band a techno/punk edge, making comparisons to Nine Inch Nails inevitable. Despite the prevalent techno edge, it's the band's early punk that rises to the surface with songs like "Any Day Now." Though CSC's style may be a bit less off-the-cuff than on its earlier releases (pianos are used on several tracks), the band is no less menacing—in fact, the instrumentation enhances the dark intensity of songs such as "Lullaby." Other cuts, including "It Only Hurts When I Breathe" and "Two At A Time," prove that with Release, Cop Shoot Cop has made a self-discovery. DAWN SUTTER P

BUCKWHEAT ZYDECO Five Card Stud

Island, 400 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10003 310.276.4500

Listening to a Buckwheat Zydeco record is like being the preferred customer at a local jukejoint. The door swings open, and as your eyes adjust to the light, someone recognizes you from behind the counter, and says with a big smile: "Hey! Come on in here! Sit yourself down! Put your feet up! How've you been?" It's hard not to like an artist as down-home friendly as Stanley "Buckwheat Zydeco" Dural, Jr., perhaps the world's foremost ambassador of zydeco music, and certainly one of its all-time greatest practitioners. Five Card Stud, produced by Los Lobos' Steve Berlin, is yet another winning hand in a long line of great albums Buckwheat's been churning out for years and years. More than just a straight zydeco artist, Buckwheat puts all kinds of music into the pot, including clavinet-driven funk ("Make It Easy On Yourself," with background vocals by David Hidalgo of Los Lobos), country/zydeco (the duet with Willie Nelson on "Man With The Blues") and even sanctified gospel-funk (the amazing "This Train," featuring a spirited, uplifting guest performance from Mavis Staples). If this is a taste of life on Planet Buckwheat, then we want to live there the rest of our lives. JAMES LIEN

BRISE-GLACE When In Vanitas...

Skin Graft, P.O. Box 257546, Chicago, IL 60625 312.989.9865

Brise-Glace is avant-garde composer/guitarist (and Gastr Del Sol collaborator) Jim O'Rourke's new "rock band," and as you might expect, it doesn't sound like "rock bands" usually do. These five lengthy pieces (the closing "One Syntactical Unit" is nearly 25 minutes long), all instrumental, are mostly built along similar lines: A dirt-clouded pool of very quiet noise eddies for a few minutes, is taken over by Thymme Jones' clipped, distorted drumming for a while (that would be the "rock" part), then resolves itself back into ripples of atonal and arrhythmic sound. Brise-Glace includes two guitarists, but they're more concerned with the guitar's capacity for expressive low-level feedback and amp noise than with its note-producing ability; O'Rourke is credited with playing tape and razor blade, which he wields virtuosically, keeping something interesting and usually unidentifiable happening at every moment. Though Jones' drumming is always at the top of the mix, everything else is usually so quiet it's nearly subliminal if you play the album at normal volume. Cranking it to wall-shaking levels is the one sure way to bring out the wealth of details whistling and hissing deep within each track. "Stump Of A Drowner" is the most radio-friendly thing here (actual chords!), but a little enterprising thinking should let you make use of a lot of this. DOUGLAS WOLK

DIRTY THREE Sad & Dangerous

Poon Village, c/o Forced Exposure, P.O. Box 9102, Waltham, MA 02254 617.562.0507

Guitarist Mick Turner's sordid history in the scummiest of Aussie scumrock bands (Sick Things, Fungus Brains, Venom P. Stinger) gives very little indication of the musical directions of his new instrumental project, Dirty Three, in which he is joined by Venom P. Stinger percussionist Jim White (ex-People With Chairs Up Their Noses—how can we resist mentioning a name like that?) and violinist Warren Ellis. The first side consists of quiet, slow-moving dirges and marches, with nicely understated guitar and percussion and coarse violin playing simple, floating melodies. "Kim's Dirt," penned by Kim Salmon of Scientists/Surrealists fame, is especially exquisite. Things really heat up on side two, so much so that you can almost smell smoke rising up from the phonograph needle. "Jazz" and "rock" sensibilities flavor structured improvisations of heavier intensity, but it's hardly ever conventional or easily defined. Least difficult to describe is "Jim's Dog": cool '50s Hollywood jazz with brushed drums and guitarist Turner displaying a bit of Jim Hall subtlety before sneaking in a few tense bits of squawk which reveal his pedigree. The mood of side one returns as the album closes with "You're A Bum Dream," adding melancholic piano to the forlorn trio. DAVID NEWGARDEN

VARIOUS ARTISTS This Is Acid Jazz: Jazz Cam Bossa

Instinct, 26 W. 17th St., #502,

New York, NY 10011 212.727.1360

There's a revolution going on, and it's a swinging one.

While in the States hip-hoppers are still stuck looking for fatback George Clinton and T.S. Monk samples, the field overseas is wide open to artists who are seeking to explore the musical world, with unfettered creativity and good grooves as their only goal. Last year's debut by U.F.O. and The Vibe, Instinct's recent compilation of Japanese acid jazz, helped set the stage for a wave of interest and excitement on these shores. Now we have Jazz Cam Bossa, a delightful compilation of Japanese artists that draw inspiration from the simmering sounds of Brazilian grooves and cool Latin jazz of the '50s and '60s, with additional style cues taken from old Blue Note LPs, and even nod or two to Martin Denny's instrumental tropical paradise. Think of it as a companion piece to the Pizzicato Five, the first Deelite album and the Giant Steps compilation, and you're on the right track. Listen to it in the shade, with a cool drink and a pair of rad '60s sunglasses, and you'll soon realize that this is one of the top 10 poolside records this summer. Feel the heat and cool of Blue Bongos, Amore Hirotsuke & Love Machine (teaching us about "Love Bossa Style") Skipjack, DJ Matsuoka, and Arco-lris. JAMES LIEN

HOUSE OF FREAKS Invisible Jewel

Brake Out, c/o Enemy, 234 6th Ave.,

Brooklyn, NY 11215 718.636.1100

The Richmond, Virginia, duo of Bryan Harvey (guitar) and Johnny Holt (drums), better known as House Of Freaks, returns with a revitalized attitude on Invisible Jewel. A terrific new set of songs, it re-captures the free spirited nature that was evident on the Freaks' first recordings and which had been missing in action in their most recent work. Holt bashes out the rhythms while Harvey riffs along with apparent glee, and it's all captured in a lo-fi haze that perfectly sets off each song's retro tone. Harvey's vocals can still immediately call to mind Plastic Ono Band-era John Lennon, especially on "Hey, Hey, Hey, Hey" and "Motorbike," yet Invisible Jewel's songs are too full of bits of Americana to be called Beatles-esque. While obviously not intended for airplay, "It's A Fucked Up World" contains a hook you won't be able to resist singing along to and "My Lucky Day" is HOF at its best, hip-shaking yet potent bare-bones rock 'n' roll. ## Babe the blue OX this Brooklyn trio's sound. But in a few seconds, when "Ego Pimps" begins its sensuous lurch, the Babe's hypnotically smooth grooves are in full force. Informed by a jazz-inspired love for subtle rhythms, Babe The Blue Ox scrupulously avoids the shallow riffs that suffocate so many other bands attempting to groove; Babe stuffs its songs with almost enough syncopation to completely disfigure the underlying beats. Despite the complexity of the band's music, a melody is always nearby; on top of the deep, menacing bassline of "The Elephant Song," there lies a lush, airy pop song. None of this would mean much if Babe The Blue Ox didn't have the lyrics to match its musical ambition, but Babe's sense of whimsy and irony suits the band well. In "9/10," the singer declares, "And you say you're free/But you ain't even cheap/You say you're yours to sell/You better buy buy, buy buy, buy." Like most eclectic rock groups, Babe The Blue Ox has its moments of questionable taste (like guitarist Tim Thomas's horns "OI' Foggy Bottom," or the Alice In Chains-like harmony in the chorus of "Health"), but these few moments are quickly forgotten when Babe eases into "King of the Rain," a thoughtful song featuring the lyric "Don't look for sun, he'll spit in your eye/That's o.k. I got my skin/Keeps the water out and the blood in." The Babe's distinctive rumble has a sleekness which few groups this loud or prickly could hope to obtain. K SANNEH

IDHA Melody Inn

Creation/TriStar, c/o Sony, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211

There's something to be said for a young singer/songwriter who has the chutzpah to place original songs right alongside those of his or her heroes. On her debut album, 21-year-old Idha has done just that. Melody Inn features covers of seminal songs by seminal songwriters Janis Ian, Gram Parsons and Tim Hardin (plus, strangely enough, Primal Scream's "I'm Losing More Than I Ever Had"), which clearly reveal Idha's main influences, as well as the fact that she's talented enough to let her own simple, personal songs (many co-written with Ride's Andy Bell) stand toe-to-toe with the greats and come through unscathed. Idha sings in a detached, somnambulist croon that calls to mind Mazzy Star's Hope Sandoval, with less of a Robitussin vibe and a heavy folk/country-rock bent, or even Juliana Hatfield, minus the cloying preciousness. In other words, she's the sad-guy's dream date. Melody Inn's arrangements are retro, even traditional, but still compelling, the interplay between piano, pedal steel, dobro, acoustic guitars and even Rhodes piano clearly inspired by Rod Stewart's early solo records, later Byrds and, in the loping country-rock gait of songs like "High Over Hollywood," Harvest-era Neil Young. Dig the melodies in: "Music Carries On," "Get Undressed," "High Over Hollywood" and Janis Ian's "From Me To You." STEVE MCGUIRL

MOIST Silver

Chrysalis, c/o EMI, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104

Silver, the dynamic debut from the Vancouver-based band with the squishy name, showers the listener with radio-friendly choruses, modern, chunky riffs and sharp, retro soloing. The sounds on Silver are rich and true to the band's live "band-in-a-van" roots, Mark Makowy's vintage tones fusing with the organ and piano hammerings of keyboardist Kevin Young. Young's tasteful, jazzy playing is featured prominently on most of the album's tracks, the guitar nearly playing second fiddle even on heavier songs like "Freaky Be Beautiful" and the title track. In sharp contrast to other alternative-meets-classic outfits placing an emphasis on keyboards, Moist maintains its lush, orchestrated, wall of rhythm without resorting to synth layerings or additional guitar overdubs. "Believe Me" is one of Silver's most infectious tracks and an obvious single, recalling Live with its vocally emotive verses and deeply dredging chorus. Also wade in: "Push," "This Shrieking Love" and "Kill For You." AARON CLOW

TRAMPOLINE Dormer

spinART, P.O. Box 1798,
New York, NY 10156-1798 212.343.9644

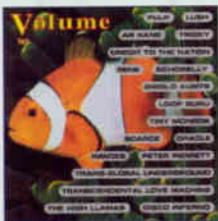

When WHFS DJ Pat Ferrise decided to find out what it's like to be on the other end of a phonograph needle, he enlisted the help of some fellow Washington, D.C. musicians, copped the moniker Trampoline and voila, instant one man band. Proving that working for one of the leading commercial alternative radio stations in the country does have its advantages, Trampo-line's debut LP Dormer not only sports guest performances from area scenesters but rests comfortably in the hands of producers Ted Nicely (Fugazi, Unrest) and Geoff Turner (Tsunami, Velocity Girl). These D.C. influences coalesce with Ferrise's tendency toward Brit-Pop wistfulness, resulting in simple, and often tenderly crafted pop breezes. Dormer is largely based on feathery acoustic guitar strums and Ferrise's lulling, Mancunian vocals, the LP's unassuming convention touched up with the additional textures of Farfisas and thumb pianos or moments of emotional detachment. Songs like "Shocked By A Revelation," "First" and "Hit The Glass Ceiling" are equally pastel; "Calculating Bird" sounds as if it's going to break into the melody from "Over The Rainbow" and then serves up such an oddly strained chorus as to make its determinedly glowing path reconsider itself. ## VARIOUS ARTISTS Volume Ten

Volume (UK), c/o Triage, 418 1/2 E. 9th St. #1A,
New York, NY 10009 212.353.2002

As we reach the tail of the shark, we get another snapshot of the state of British pop music. It's amazing how quickly the U.K. hype machine can jump on new bands. Tiny Monroe, for example, contributes an acoustic version of its new—second!—single, and gets treated with almost as much reverence as 10-year veteran Pulp (which offers a new version of "Joyriders"). The advantage of the British fast-track approach, of course, is that genuinely first-rate new bands have a quick ride to public notoriety. Take, for example, Echobelly, which checks in with the awesome new "Fake," featuring a lead vocal by Sonya Aurora Madan that sounds uncannily like early Morrissey. The band's got all of two EPs to its name, but it's already got a huge audience hungry for more, which is just as it should be. Similarly, Gene has one single predating its NME/Melody Maker frenzy, but "To See The Lights," included here, shows that it deserves the enthusiasm. Other highlights this time include Gigolo Aunts' cover of Kirsty MacColl's near-perfect "They Don't Know," the excellent and underrated Disco Inferno's demo of "Second Language," and "Daughter" by Peter Perrett's The One—the first new song by the legendary Only Ones songwriter in years. ## SPONGE Rotting Pinata

Chaos, c/o Columbia, 550 Madison Ave.,
New York, NY 11022-3211

We thought we'd only remember Sponge for that bungled mid-summer promo mailing, which caused candy corn to melt and stick to the band's debut CD; luckily, inside that gummy jewel case were less sugary songs of substance. The Michigan band rocks with considerable diversity—a sign that it may be considering longevity beyond 15 minutes of hype. If all you've heard is the lead single "Neenah Menasha," then you're only aware of one facet of the band. Perhaps that song got the nod as a first single 'cause it sound a wee bit like Alice In Chains, but a trip through all 11 tracks finds little of that band's influence floating about. Instead, Sponge takes bits and pieces from various genres like other sturdy hard/pop bands (Buffalo Tom, 700 Miles) to create a less-definable sound. The snide chorus from the title track suggests speedy, Californian punk/pop, while on other tracks, such as "Plowed," the band sounds like a grunge outfit that's cleaned up its act a bit. Also soak up: "Miles," "Drownin'" and "Fields." STEVE CIABATTONI ©

MOLLY MCGUIRE Sisters Of...

Hitlrl, 232 E. Ohio, Ste. 300,
Chicago, IL 60611 312.440.9012

Though the band has been together for less than three years, Molly McGuire has become somewhat of an instant legend in the Midwest, thanks to a grueling tour schedule and some unforgettably powerful (and loud) live performances. The four kids from Kansas City make an impressive debut with Sisters Of..., which finds itself careening wildly from hardcore intensity to churlish, riff-laden guitar textures, and back again—often in the course of a single song. Yet something in the makeup of Molly McGuire's signature sound holds it all together: perhaps it's Jason Blackmore's emotional vocals, perhaps it's the near-perfect stop-start rhythms of drummer Jason Gerken and bassist Ray Jankowski, or perhaps it's the skillful interplay of guitarists Blackmore and Scott McMillian. In any case, Sisters Of... is full of sonic hot spots. From the Fugazi-esque lead-off track "Sick," to the brooding "Sisters Of The Sacred Heart" (previously released as a 7") and the dynamic "Frog's Fog" (featuring guest vocals by Season To Risk's Steve Tulipana), Molly McGuire creates an aural landscape befitting of the album's dark and twisted cover art. Also check out "One Day Blue," with its metalish rhythm guitar, and the haunting "Temples." SCOTT MacMILLAN

FROGS

"Now You Know You're Black" (7")

Matador, 676 Broadway, 4th Fl.,
New York, NY 10012 212.995.5882

There's a Klansman in a noose on the cover of the new live Frogs single, and the song titles are written in Hebrew. The B-side, "Adam + Steve," harkens back to the duo's pro-gay era, with lyrics that could almost be political, if they made more sense: "Adam and Eve, Adam and Steve/Which is wrong and which is right?/Look at the sperm on my lips/Look at the sperm on my hips." But it is "Now You Know You're Black," a pro-racism song from the Frogs' days of dressing up in whiteface and blackface, which does the legendary band the most justice. Over loud yet lilting rock reminiscent of the Sun City Girls, they croon, "Have you ever been hit in the face with a snowball?/No!/You could use a facewash," and then, triumphantly, "Now you know you're black." K SANNEH

RUN ON "Days Away" (7")

Ajax, P.O. Box 805293, Chicago, IL 60680-4114 312.772.4783

The debut single by the excellent New York group Run On, featuring Rick Brown and Sue Garner (formerly of Fish And Roses) and Alan Licht (formerly of Love Child), shows off the more restrained side of the band. "Days Away" is a gentle two-chord simmer, built on Brown's marimba line and Garner's swaying vocal, with a vivid swatch of guitar from Licht near its end. "Ordering"'s quiet guitar-bass interplay is overlaid with a micro-thin web of Allen Ravenstine-like synth burbling. On "We'll Play House," a Pretty Things cover, Brown takes over the vocals and the band cuts loose with some goofy bluesifying, including another neat noise-ball guitar solo. DOUGLAS WOLK

HEAVENS TO BETSY Direction... (7" EP)

Chainsaw, P.O. Box 1151, Olympia, WA 98507-1151

This four-song single is H2B's most mature and accomplished record to date. The primal terror-screams of the duo's earlier records are still present, but making the music that backs them up more complex and controlled hasn't made it any less expressive. Corin and Tracy's songs spill over with uncontrollable fury and sadness, so rough-edged and intense that they're always on the verge of losing control altogether. "The Ones" is especially great, with rich, Spinanes-y guitar chords underlying a painfully raw vocal. DOUGLAS WOLK

VARIOUS ARTISTS Emily's Issue #777 (7")

Audrey's Diary, 1475 Latson Road,
Howell, MI 48843 517.546.1062

This 7" compilation features three dark and dreamy new-ish bands and is accompanied by the Journal Of Audrey's Diary, a fanzine featuring Bark Psychosis and Labradford interviews. Hot on the heels of two self-released 7"s, Jessamine puts to wax some spooky "Reflections," which sound like a My Bloody Valentine-style churning guitar motif smeared over some Moog experimentation. Sabine's "I'm Ready To Start Fire To Everything" is a mellower tune, its sober acoustic guitar strums set sail in far out space. Buddha On The Moon's "Providence" has a solitary, Red House Painters-ish glow, its chiming guitars falling like rain drops over a gentle drum machine beat. LYDIA ANDERSON

KARP "I'd Rather Be Clogging" (7")

PNMV, 120 State Ave. #241, Olympia, WA 98501

The West Coast might be known for its P.C. attitude, but it's also known for its P.R.—punk rock, that is. Karp is another product of Olympia, Washington (home of K Records and Kill Rock Stars). Though it just released its debut LP, Mustaches Wild on K, Karp doesn't contain a hint of jangly pop—it's thrashy punk all the way. Karp's screams and guitars have minds of their own, taking the listener on a trip down punk rock road. DAWN SUTTER

GLYN STYLER Glyn Styler

c/o Kelly Keller, 61 Bishop Allen Dr., Cambridge, MA 02140 617.492.1882

File under: sleazy listening. There he is, slouching in the smoky end of the lounge. Look closely at the martini glass in his limp-wristed hand and you'll notice it's cracked and chipped, and the glass itself is greasy and smeared. Glyn Styler is a cad at the bar, with a ruffled collar and a dusty satin jacket, and baby, he's got his eye on you. Known for his often outrageous stage antics, performed in dives and cocktail establishments in his hometown New Orleans, Glyn Styler is a cabaret performer from hell. There's not a lot here on this demo tape—only three songs—but even if Styler displays his talents only sparingly, these are songs built to last and the performances are certainly, well, unique. "You killed my love/You just stood there and watched it die/You committed romanticide in the highest degree," he swoons uncontrollably, like a bizarre character out of twisted bar scene in a David Lynch movie. "Aureloa" might make some squeamish, but to us it's so authentically trashy and squalid it leaps right out. Even the sound of this recording is eerily vintage, giving this recording an odd, out-of-place quality that adds to its disturbing impact. Unwanted, unwelcome, unsettling just by his very presence. Glyn Styler represents the underbelly of the cocktail nation, a twilight netherworld where happy hour goes on forever and love is not always a pretty sight. JAMES LIEN

SISSYBAR Sissybar

172 Wellington Road, Buffalo, NY 14216 716.832.1629

The hipness of grunge is finally waning and the search for a successor to the alternative throne continues. Since grunge was the product of a late-'60s/early-'70s revival, then a logical progression might be to the punk of the late-'70s. Buffalo's Sissybar predicts this certain backlash, seizing the glam punk of the era with pleasing aplomb. After studying what must have been hours of New York Dolls, Hanoi Rocks and Sweet records, Sissybar replicates not only the look and sound, but also the silly, snotty attitude that drenched the genre in its day. The band's live shows seem to be its strong suit, boasting a couple of closed-down gigs, as well as requisite glam-punk transvestitism, smoke machines, and glittery clothes and makeup. Even so, enough raw energy is preserved in this four-song demo tape to more than make up for the lack of visuals. "Sexxx Express 99,000" is Sissybar at its best, with its outrageous lyrics and screeching saxophone over the punk thrashing of the band. No steam is lost on any of these songs, and if Sissybar showed up as the house band in The Rocky Horror Picture Show, no one would bat an eye. Buffalo may not be the most flamboyant of cities, but Sissybar is single-handedly making up for that shortcoming. CHERYL BOTCHICK

BARRY WHITE All-Time Greatest Hits [522 459]

PARLET The Best Of Parlet [522 459] (Casablanca-Mercury) c/o Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019

Last summer, as the '70s/'90s thang swung into overdrive, the funk was everywhere. Now, disco, R&B and funky music of the late-'70s and early-'80s reign, and once again, Mercury Chronicles is right there with another batch in its ongoing Funk Essentials series.

Our favorite of the second batch is probably the long-overdue collection from George Clinton's Parlet, a Clinton-constructed all-female trio that featured most of the usual crew, including Bootsy Collins, Fred Wesley and Bernie Worrell. Looser than the more commercial Parliament singles and wilder than Clinton's other female project, the Brides Of Funkenstein, Parlet's outrageous funk personas made the group a central pillar of the P-Funk empire.

The set from the Gap Band is a concise packaging of its hits: one has to marvel at songs like the awesome "Burn Rubber," which were virtually tailor-made to be played on drive-time radio.

Celebration, the set devoted to Kool & The Gang's '80s output, certainly has an interesting angle in the story of its trumpet player Michael Ray. Concomitant to laying down the horn lines on hits like "Celebrate" and "Get Down On It," Ray also held down first trumpet in Sun Ra's Arkestra. At first, that's a real mind-blower, making the head spin, but given the colorful pageantry and good vibes and harmony of both groups, it makes wonderful sense. Just think: that 7" single of "Celebrate" that you bought for 99 cents after hearing it at the roller rink as a kid actually wound up indirectly helping out one of the most magnificent and visionary jazz bandleaders of our time.

The most majestic—and truly essential—of the set would have to be the All-Time Greatest Hits of Barry White. While White's full story was explored in his lavish box set a few years back, this is a tight collection of his sensuous, "surrender to me now" funk.

By the time Kurtis Blow came on the scene (represented in Funk Essentials by The Best Of), funk was on its way towards the endangered species list.

Our only complaint with the series is the artwork, or rather, the absence of it: not even a picture adorns the front of any of these volumes. While we wouldn't expect every disc to be crowded with unpublished color photo spreads and treatises on the artists, they are pretty skimpy in the packaging department, and frankly, in terms of graphics, information and presentation, we've seen smaller labels do a lot more with probably even less money.

But the music rules, and if these six CDs (and the last six in Funk Essentials) weren't enough, the Chronicles series will continue with a four-CD box set of classics from the Casablanca label (will they include Kiss' disco hits in there too, we wonder?). There's already a 12" of Parliament's "Flashlight" teamed with the long version of Donna Summer's "Love To Love You Baby."

ON THE CHART In the second week of our Triple AAA chart, it's a real battle for the top spot between the Rolling Stones' Virgin debut (1-1) and Freedy Johnston's first for Elektra (2-2), with Reprise's Luka Bloom (6-3) nipping at their heels. Also from Reprise, Neil Young And Crazy Horse make a strong entry at #4. Other new entries include two from New Orleans, Harry Connick, Jr.'s funk and blues from Columbia at #24 and MCA-Margaritaville's Latin roots/rockers the Iguanas at #31, as well as Sugar Hill's bluegrass/folk duo Tim & Mollie O'Brien at #32. Making big moves this week are Atlantic's Everything But The Girl (24-7), Imago's Paula Cole (18-9), Sub Pop-Interscope's Reverend Horton Heat (22-12) and Discovery's Sara Hickman (28-19). Look for debuts from new releases from Mercury's Rusted Root and Island's Buckwheat Zydeco next week, as both are bubbling under our fab 40.

JULES SHEAR Healing Bones

Island, 400 Lafayette St.,
New York, NY 10012 310.276.4500

He's always been a master of pure pop, so it's no surprise that Jules Shear's 10th album, Healing Bones, is loaded with tunes that lend themselves to being sing-alongs almost immediately. While a bit more electric than his most recent work, the songs here still strike to the core of human emotions with eloquence and sensitivity. With a band that includes Elliot Easton (ex-Cars) on guitar, Tony Levin on bass, Jerry Marotta on drums and Rod Argent on keyboards, Shear has put together a multi-faceted collaboration that shines at every turn. Roll these Bones: "Listen To What She Says," "When You Finally Gonna Come Through," "A Prayer (For Those Not Here)" and remarkable cover of the Walker Brothers' '60s gem, "The Sun Ain't Gonna Shine (Anymore)."

J.J. CALE Closer To You

Virgin, 338 N. Foothill Rd.,
Beverly Hills, CA 90210

An enigma to many—could you pick him out of a lineup?—J.J. Cale has had a long and successful career as both a songwriter and recording artist. Cale is best known as the writer of tunes that have been covered by Eric Clapton ("Cocaine," "After Midnight"), Lynyrd Skynyrd ("Call Me The Breeze") and many others, but he's also released 11 albums. Closer To You, his first for Virgin, is Cale's strongest work in quite a while. A finely crafted mix of swamp rock, languid blues and country shuffles, its moods shift from joyous to listless with remarkable ease. Don't miss the rockin' shuffle "Long Way Home," the jazzy vibes of "Slower Baby" and the dark and gloomy "Brown Dirt."

SHORT SHOTS

While PERLA BATTALLA's voice recalls k.d. lang's, her self-titled debut (Discovery, 2052 Broadway, Santa Monica, CA 90404 310.828.1033) is not as musically diverse as a lang album. That may not be such a bad thing, though.

Battalla seems to know her limitations and she sings her songs with unerring confidence and commanding power. Check out "I've Been Gone Too Long," "This Too Shall Pass" and a sparkling cover of Leonard Cohen's "Seems So Long Ago Nancy" for a glimpse at an impressive new vocalist...WENDY BUCKLEW's debut Painting Sidewalks caused a bit of a stir when she released it on her own about a year ago. It was a CMJ Futures pick and got a couple of other rave reviews. Velvet Dwarf (P.O. Box 1724, Roswell, GA 30077 404.664.9262) has re-released it with new artwork, and it should get wider distribution. Don't let it pass you by this time. Bucklew's name often comes up in connection with the acoustic music scene in her native Atlanta. Her vocals are distinctive, her lyrics are compelling and songs like "I Know The Feeling," "My Heart Might" and "Time To Go" are real attention-getters.

If your station is interested in reporting to the CMJ Triple AAA section, fax a sample playlist and all pertinent information to the CMJ offices, 516.466.7159, to the attention of Jim Caligiuri.

ON THE CHART In conjunction with CMJ's graphic overhaul, the Loud Rock Top 100 has been changed to a Loud Rock Top 75. The most requested Loud Rock artists are now indicated by a ♠ within the chart. We've also added something new—Loud Rock Radio Breakthroughs. These are the Loud Rock records that are showing the greatest upward movement on the chart and are indicated by a ▲. Still holding the #1 position for 10 weeks in a row now, Biohazard remains untouchable! Although Energy's Pro-Pain is running a very close second, jumping 3-2 this week, while Atlantic's Overkill (4-3) and Epic's Suicidal Tendencies (5-4) both hop up one spot. Energy's M.O.D. receives top add honors this week, while Pro-Pain takes over the #1 most requested slot from Biohazard (1-2). Overkill is still holding onto the #1 position at Loud Rock commercial this week, while Biohazard remains #1 on the Loud Rock college chart. Topping the Loud Rock retail chart is Atlantic's Stone Temple Pilots. The highest debut on the chart belongs to Roadrunner's Obituary at #10, followed by Mercury's Kerbdog at #46, Roadrunner's Saint Vitus at #52, Tony Nicole Tony's Criss at #55, Sector 2-Futurist's Pushmonkey at #62, Century Media's Puncture at #70, Fistpuppet-Cargo's Pitchblende at #71, Moby Dick at #72, Epic's Satchel at #73 and Interscope's Toadies at #74. ON THE CHART In conjunction with CMJ's graphic overhaul, the Loud Rock Top 100 has been changed to a Loud Rock Top 75. The most requested Loud Rock artists are now indicated by a ♡ within the chart. We've also added something new—Loud Rock Radio Breakthroughs. These are the Loud Rock records that are showing the greatest upward movement on the chart and are indicated by a ▲. Still holding the #1 position for 10 weeks in a row now, Biohazard remains untouchable! Although Energy's Pro-Pain is running a very close second, jumping 3-2 this week, while Atlantic's Overkill (4-3) and Epic's Suicidal Tendencies (5-4) both hop up one spot. Energy's M.O.D. receives top add honors this week, while Pro-Pain takes over the #1 most requested slot from Biohazard (1-2). Overkill is still holding onto the #1 position at Loud Rock commercial this week, while Biohazard remains #1 on the Loud Rock college chart. Topping the Loud Rock retail chart is Atlantic's Stone Temple Pilots. The highest debut on the chart belongs to Roadrunner's Obituary at #10, followed by Mercury's Kerbdog at #46, Roadrunner's Saint Vitus at #52, Tony Nicole Tony's Criss at #55, Sector 2-Futurist's Pushmonkey at #62, Century Media's Puncture at #70, Fistpuppet-Cargo's Pitchblende at #71, Moby Dick at #72, Epic's Satchel at #73 and Interscope's Toadies at #74. # LOUD ROCK

World Demise

536 Broadway, 4th Fl.,
NY 10012 212.219.0077

BRUISER

Over the past six years, Obituary has been one of the heaviest and most in-demand death metal bands, continually destroying everything and everyone in its path. With the constant fluctuation of death metal guidelines, Obituary still manages to retain all the explosive raw power that put the band on the map in the first place, while exploring a variety of tempo changes, sampling effects and vocal experimentations on World Demise. This time around, vocalist John Tardy trades in his well-known indecipherable screams and growls for a much more palpable, roughly-tinged rasp, while lyrically attacking the ongoing problem of environmental and societal decay. Other distinguishing factors setting World Demise apart from the band's previous releases include a deeper, groovier grind and stronger, tighter musical arrangements. From the first explosion of sound in "Don't Care" to the last, crushing chord of "Kill For Me," each song rumbles with uncontrollable fury and ferocious intensity. A very unexpected and interesting sample from RM Arts Presents: Repercussions—A Celebration Of African/American Music pops up at the very end of the album, after a few seconds of silence following the last track, so don't miss it. Also check out the scorching slam of "Burned In," the churning groove of "Paralyzing," the heaving thrust of "Splattered," "Final Thoughts," "Boiling Point" and "Set In Stone." JENNI GLENN

KERBDOG Kerbdog

Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019

Hailing from the land of leprechauns, potatoes and whiskey, Kilkenny's Kerbdog is set to make a big splash in the U.S. with its self-titled debut LP, after already generating quite a hefty buzz in Europe. Kerbdog (which borrowed its name from a Southern California BMX bicycle club, the Curb Dogs) and producer Jack Endino (Soundgarden, Nirvana, Mudhoney) have created one hell of an awesome first release. Although there's a noticeable Seattle element in the music, it should not be labeled "grunge," as influences from Metallica and Tool to Big Black and Fugazi can also be detected. Kerbdog's mixture of post-punk grind, thick-'n'-heavy guitar groove and extremely catchy rhythms is sure to captivate a variety of music lovers (metal, alternative, punk, straight-forward rock 'n' roll, etc.) all in one shot. Crisp, powerful vocal harmonies soar above a huge bed of chugging guitar riffage, creating a perfect contrast on "End Of Green," while "Dummy Crusher" surges along a much faster, heavier course. Don't let the gentle, sensual guitar strumming at the beginning of "Clock" fool ya...this song's definitely a rocker, as the tempo changes from a soft glide to a head-bangin' slam throughout. Also check out the energetic punch of "Dead Anyway," the slice-'n'-dice crunch of "Cleaver," the funky bass pump of "The Inseminator" and "Dry Riser." JENNI GLENN

BAD RELIGION Stranger Than Fiction

Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019

Bad Religion, one of L.A.'s finest post-hardcore-punk-pop bands, offers up yet another foot-stompin', head-bobbin' bevy of energetic gems on its eighth album, Stranger Than Fiction (the band's first proper release for Atlantic Records). Lyrically, the quintet attacks feelings of personal and global alienation (the war on the streets and at home), deals with the frustration and resentment of a repressed and apathetic generation and lashes out at the declining state of society and life in general. Returning to its old stomping grounds (the suburban wasteland of Southern California's San Fernando Valley) to record Stranger Than Fiction helped the band conjure up many of the negative emotions that fuel songs such as the title track: "Life is the crummiest book I ever read/There isn't a hook/Just a lot of cheap shots, pictures to shock/And characters an amateur would never dream up." Ex-Concrete Blonde leader Johnette Napolitano co-wrote "Television," which also features a vocal cameo from Rancid's Tim "Lint" Armstrong, while "Incomplete" features a guest appearance from guitarist Wayne Kramer from MC5. With searing guitars, vigorous rhythms and angry aggression, Bad Religion captures the true spirit of punk rock with scorchers like "Leave Mine To Me," "Better Off Dead," "Infected," "Hooray For Me..." "What It Is" and "21st Century Digital Boy." JENNI GLENN

TOADIES Rubberneck

Interscope, 10900 Wilshire Blvd. #1230,
Los Angeles, CA 90024

Blasting in from Ft. Worth, Texas, like a wild, out-of-control tornado come the Toadies with their first major-label release, Rubberneck. Most of the songs on the album were plucked from the band's two previously released indie albums (Velvet and Pleather), but a couple new tunes ("Backslider" and "Quitter") round out the LP. A vigorous, unruly blend of punk-inspired aggression mixed with hardcore grinds, bluesy beats and good ol' rock 'n' roll will have you thrashing around the room from the first slamming jolt of the instrumental "Mexican Hairless" to the acoustically-driven thump of "I Burn"...it ain't called Rubberneck for nuthin'! "Mister Love" ripples with the frantic, psychedelic wail of frontman Todd Lewis, while he takes a more sensual, gliding Robert Plant-like approach on "Backslider." A loud-'n'-crunchy wall of noise booms through "Quitter," while "I Come From The Water" wades through funky bass lines and distinct, sharp grooves. To say that this record is dynamically energetic is an understatement. Also check out "Possum Kingdom," "Away," "Tyler," "Happyface" and "Velvet." JENNI GLENN

SAMIAM Clumsy

Atlantic, address above

These Bay Area punksters have come a long way since their days of trashing instruments and throwing garbage at their audiences during all-ages shows at punk clubs in Berkeley. Six years, three albums and three world tours later, Samiam has released its major-label debut, Clumsy, guaranteed to get butts a-movin' and toes a-tappin' with its aggressive riffs, catchy pop grooves and energetic grinds. Amidst all the carefree, upbeat instrumental vibes of Clumsy, a more serious depiction of the group's struggle to overcome life's obstacles can be found in the album's poignant lyrics. "Stepson" reveals the frightening and tortured reality of child abuse through lyrics shrouded with pain, but shining with triumph—"I'm free/He can't touch me/Six feet down/And there's no sadness/Nothing's simple/No respect or meaning/Why the screaming/When he's gone/Burn the house down." Deep-rooted feelings of self-hatred crash and tumble throughout "Capsized," as subtle, simplistic chord strums slam into deep pools of frenzied, metallic swirls. For a lighter, more playful tune, check out "Simca," a tribute to a French automobile. Also give a listen to "No Size That Small," "Cradle," "Bad Day," "Tagalong" and "Routine." JENNI GLENN

AMORPHIS Tales From The Thousand Lakes

Relapse, P.O. Box 251, Millersville, PA 17551 717.397.9221

This is definitely not your ordinary death metal band. Finland's Amorphis blends elements of progressive metal with doom and death, creating a very ominous, but lavishly atmospheric and flowing musical backdrop for the thick, guttural growls of Tomi Koivusaari. Tales From The Thousand Lakes proves that you don't always need machine-gun rhythms and in-your-face, rapid-fire blasts of fury to be considered a brutally heavy death-metal contender. Wave after wave of gliding guitar melodies and majestically eerie synth sounds careen into jagged riffs and strong, definitive drum kicks through each of the 10 powerful songs contained the album. The lyrics are based on a Finnish national pole book called The Kalevala, highlighting themes of land, sea and sky, changing seasons and day vs. night. Amorphis has matured and expanded greatly over the past four years and, judging from the intricate layout and forceful determination on Tales From The Thousand Lakes, we should expect to hear a lot more from the band in the future. Already in the works is a mini-CD, titled Black Winter Day, which will be released to coincide with the band's first full European tour, supporting Gorefest. But for now, make sure you check out "Into Hiding," "First Doom," "In The Beginning," "Forgotten Sunrise" and "Magic And Mayhem." JENNI GLENN

TREACHEROUS HUMAN UNDERDOGS Vice

Rage, c/o Enemy, 234 6th Ave.,
Brooklyn, NY 11215 718.636.1100

Exploding onto the metal hardcore scene with a bang is aggressive St. Louis power-trio Treacherous Human Underdogs with its debut, Vice. Combining a variety of tempo changes, slick and funky bass beats and smooth rhythms with hard pummeling grinds and fierce intensity, the band invents a new way for presenting hardcore. While harsh socio-political lyrics are the primary focus of Vice, hints of humorous sarcasm can be found within songs like "Africa" (about the roots and origin and rock rhythms) and "Be With Me" (about being dumped by your girl). "I'll Kill Him" is structured a lot like Rollins' "Liar," starting out with soft, melodic spoken word vocals, then thrusting into a pit of slamming, grinding grooves, while telling a horrifying tale of an incestuous relationship. A thick, funky bass lick drives "Day Of The Stool," while "Vaccinate" is powered by a faster, more frantic guitar attack. If S&M is one of your hidden pleasures, check out the hilarious "Squirrel!"—"Just because I like to whip and chain you/And pull you by your hair/Just because I like the Cat-O-Nine Tails/Doesn't mean I don't feel love." Also give a listen to "Raped At Birth," "You Tripped," "Downhill" and "40 Oz. Of Joy." JENNI GLENN

It's hard to gauge what kind of staying power a 12" has, especially when Gee Street-Island's Gravediggaz (6-3) have positioned 6 Feet Deep within striking distance. The top 10 is barraged with strong advances by Bad Boy-Arista's Notorious B.I.G. (26-5), the Above The Rim soundtrack (12-6), Chrysalis-EMI's Arrested Development (15-7), Weeded-Nervous' Mad Lion (21-8) and the return of Jeru The Damaja, who moves The Sun Rises In The East (19-9). DEBUT ALERT: This week we roll out the red carpet for Hollywood BASIC's Organized Konfusion (#12), Del Jam/RAL-Island's Public Enemy (#13), Pendulum-EMI's Boogiemonsters (#17), MCA's Big Daddy Kane (#32), Elektra's Pete Rock & C.L. ## BLOWIN UP

PUBLIC ENEMY
Muse Sick-N-Hour Mess Age
 Def Jam/RAL, c/o Island,
 400 Lafayette St.,
 New York, NY 10003 310.276.4500

To many critics, the "noise" that Public Enemy has defined over its seven years has laid in a state of dormancy since the last beat on Basic Of A Black Planet sounded off. The Bomb Squad has been mutating, and the group's core audience hasn't missed an opportunity to chastise a group that's done so much to heighten awareness in the black community and show the potential marketability of hip-hop today—it just doesn't seem fair. For Muse Sick, once again everyone wants to be the first to over-analyze why PE isn't dropping jaws like it was in 1988. But the simple fact is that it's not 1988 anymore—black nationalism has made its mark, it's 1994 and the times aren't marching in unison with Public Enemy, and Chuck doesn't care. PE's firm political platform is still attacking the powers that be in this epic "good vs. evil" ("What Side You On?") crusade, offering plenty to send chills up the spine of mainstream America. Although some of the material sounds like you've heard it before, Muse Sick benefits from an added density, felt through soulful bass lines and live drumming ("Live & Undrugged Pts. 1 & 2") where incessant drums loops and layers of samples used to dominate. Without downplaying Chuck's musings, more questions are asked than answered, and there's more finger pointing ("I Stand Accused") than we've heard in a while, but Chuck's chiding makes a larger point: that institutionalized racism is alive and well ("What Kind Of Power We Got?"). Flava's solo performances are some of his most memorable, especially on "I Ain't Mad At All" which provides commentary of his past run-ins with the law in tickling Flavorvision. If listeners can expel their hopes of this being another It Takes A Nation, they may grow to appreciate this album more than they think.

ORGANIZED KONFUSION

Stress (The Extinction Agenda)
Hollywood BASIC, 500 S. Buena Vista St.,
Burbank, CA 91521

Monch and Prince Poetry, who together form New York's Organized Konfusion, are amazingly fluent in the art of rhyme. Their 1991 debut earned them a reputation as rap maestros with tightly-packed concepts and blinding clarity. On its second album, Stress (The Extinction Agenda), Organized Konfusion sees the hip-hop industry in need of leadership, in the form of an artist, to combat the industry's saturation of mediocre talent. These fiery lyrical vanguards step in and take listeners by the throat—not to injure, but to demonstrate the difference between poet and poser. On beat-conscious cuts like "Stress" and "Black Sunday," they sound as though they're exorcising the beast that's infecting today's hip-hop. There are also scorching, conceptual think-pieces like the bouncy "Let's Organize" (featuring A Tribe Called Quest's Q-Tip and O.C.). While Organized Konfusion's first record was a polished gem of abstract phrasing, Stress... turns the levels up on the beat, bass line (the one in "Stray Bullet" is intoxicating) and rowdy choruses, while keeping the hooks less obvious. "Maintain," a deftly-penned cut inspired by the death of Monch's father, has a sensible and mature style of self-expression rarely heard even among hip-hop's most advanced pundits.

CHAMP MC Ghetto Flava

EastWest America, 75 Rockefeller Plaza,
New York, NY 10019

There are very few female rap artists willing to go toe-to-toe with the more menacing male crews. It makes you wonder if it will become more difficult for women to make a mark on a street level with such heavy male domination. Most recently, Da Brat and Lady Of Rage have campaigned for hardcore respect on the West Coast, while the East Coast has been ruled by MC Lyte and Queen Latifah. New York's Champ MC thinly spreads her browbeating delivery across her debut Ghetto Flava by splitting the record into an "East" side and a "West" side, whose sound designs are completely different. She kicks down the door on "Here I Come" and audaciously swings her MC Lyte-like voice, carelessly landing verbal blows that rarely say a thing outside of typical chest-beating and predictable threats. It would be better if she wasn't emulating groups like Onyx on "Stressin' Me" or copying the overused G-funk style without offering a dose of innovation on cuts like "Keep Shit On The Real." The fact is, we've been rightfully warned a zillion times on how to be "real" in hip-hop to the point where if you waste time talking about it, you're not really doing it. Champ takes a long ride when she teams her similar rap style with Yo Yo on the freestyle cut "Cruzin'," while her deepest commentary comes on "Sistas Betta Recognize" (featuring vocalist Michael Speaks), where she warns sisters to respect their hard-working men. Although not quite convincing enough on either side, Champ is swift enough to throw down hardcore raps with just about any of her female counterparts.

DEF 12

FLATLINERZ "Live Evil" (12") [104 BPM]

Def Jam/RAL, c/o PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave.,
New York, NY 10019

More live here than evil, Def Jam's latest crew Flatlinerz are a hard-scowling, hooded trio whose picture of hip-hop borrows the riotous call-and-response of Onyx and tosses in creepy, gothic-sounding samples and a sound effect of what sounds like an electrocution in progress. The disjointed melange is held together by a simple, two-note bass line, and the results are truly creepy and unnerving. Check for the group's upcoming album, U.S.A.

WORD IS...

Death Row Records will be releasing a full album of tracks recorded by real death row inmates entitled Murder Was The Case on September 15. The release is also rumored to include a host of special guests. Give EMZ (the boy is back!) at Interscope a ring for more information: 1.800.982.1812...Violator-Relativity's Beatnuts will be releasing their new single, "Hit Me With That," on August 30. The trio is also embarking on a national tour (travelling by van) with rock/funk band, *Dog Eat Dog...*The first single from The Coup's second album, Genocide And Juice, will be "Takin' These" and will be released September 6...Oakland's Poohman (a.k.a. Lawrence Lee Thomas) was recently arrested in Berkeley, CA, for allegedly holding up a Walgreen's drug store along with two other suspects. Poohman faces six felony charges, including strong-arm robbery and assault with a deadly weapon. The incident happened only weeks before the scheduled release of his new album, Ain't No Love.

SWEET SABLE Old Times' Sake

Street Life, c/o Scotti Bros., 2114 Pico Blvd., Santa Monica, CA 90405 310.396.0088

The soundtrack to Above The Rim, and many hip-hop soundtracks like it, has already served as a career launching pad for Warren G, Lady Of Rage and now the soulful, New York-based songstress Sweet Sable. Her single "Old Times' Sake" effortlessly blended street-wise posturing with clear hip-hop undertones tugging at contemporary R&B stylings. Her crossover-ready Old Times' Sake is a consistent and sophisticated design of street-flavored R&B that has made stars out of people like Mary J. Blige and SWV, but with less vocal showboating. But what Sable may have more of than any the aforementioned artists is a natural and untreated retro-soul aspect to her delivery, making these cuts sweeter and easier to digest. On the "Hey Mr. DJ"-feeling "Tonight," she instinctively breaks in to a verse of the S.O.S. Band's "Take You Time (Do It Right)," while she ably re-interprets Evelyn "Champagne" King's "Love Come Down" with class. Although she explores romantic themes on cuts like "Every Inch Of U" and "Let Me Get To Know You," Sable keeps a self-assured demeanor in sight, especially on the sultry "No More." "We Can Do It" has everything necessary for a commercial bomb: its hook borrows a sample of the Bee Gee's "Night Fever," while it's driven by an unshakable groove and cool melody. Rappers Guru (who raps on "Love Thang") and Pudgie The Phat Bastard help endorse Sable on the LP, but all this girl needs is her "soul, some funk with little bit of grooves sprinkled on top," and she'll do just fine.

SOUL SHOT: PRINCE (the name he records under here, with "1958-1993" put under his name) has just released a new single called "Letitgo" (Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510) from his upcoming album Come. Less adventurous than the material he's performing in his live shows or featured on his interactive CD-ROM, "Letitgo" probably won't stack up to the stuff that lies ahead on NPG Records, but its mellow-funked, urban pop foundation is still worth a courteous listen.

RAVE REVIEW

GO BLACK SCATT

Go Black Scatt (EP)
Blackwiz, 97 Sullivan St. #2B,
New York, NY 10012
212.941.6043

Just when you thought New York had to be counted out with regards to truly innovative house, along comes the dynamic Blackwiz label from the depths of the underground to re-invigorate the city. Of course, there are a handful of producers (Kerri Chandler and DJ Duke, for example) who keep the New York sound vibrant, but recently, much New York music has sounded self-indulgent and over-produced. That's not the case here. The title track of this firecracker is of the elliptical lo-fi school of technology, with vocal snippets juddering across and through the mix, colliding with the crisp, galloping drums like bumper cars. This is dance music that sounds like it has just taken a shower and had a cup of coffee after 10 hours on the dancefloor. This is the sixth release from Blackwiz, so it remains for us to seek out the first five and future releases? Tremendous stuff.

ON THE CHART | Did you really think that Astralwerks-Caroline's Future Sound Of London (3-1) would relinquish its #1 position for long? Of course not, its back at the top this week, displacing Island Red-Island's resilient Orb (#3). After some bidding wars, Wax Trax!-TVT picked up Underworld's debut full-length from Junior Boy's Own in the U.K., and to no great surprise we find it holding its place at #9. Ffrr's label deal with Andy Weatherall's Sabres of Paradise organization bears fruit this week, as the Septic Cuts compilation appears at #18. Belgian tech-pranksters the Overlords have their new Zoo single entering this week at #20, while the much lauded Sandals' first LP (now on ffrr-ILS stateside) enters the chart at #25. ### X-PRESS 2

"Rock 2 House"/"Hip Housin'" (12")

Junior Boy's Own, The Saga Centre, Kensai Road, London NW10, U.K. 081.960.4495
In the contemporary dance world, remixes usually connote the total organic reconstruction of a track, rather than a few offhand sampler tricks. Such is the case with these delightful remixes of the new X-Press 2 single, which, in its original state, was nothing to write home about. What Felix 'Da Housecat (yup, him again) and Richie Hawtin have effectively done is made this a double A-side of their own invention, and invention it is indeed. This might well be Felix 'Da Housecat's 20th vinyl outing this calendar year, but it is also one of the best. He quickly excises the rap which accompanied the original, and re-builds the bass line from the ground up, providing a texture which registers in the body like the irresistible pull of tidal undertow. Hawtin welds an excoriating acid sequence to the track, and the result has an epic quality not dissimilar to his recent Hardfloor remixes for Planet Earth.

BASSMENTAL

Trackin' Ya Down Again (EP)

NiteGrooves, c/o King St. Sounds, 611 Broadway #534, New York, N.Y. 10012
212.995.9566

The aforementioned Kerri Chandler is a bundle of nervous energy, as is apparent on his jump-started new EP. Working under the Bassmental moniker again, Chandler goes for the jugular (and the feet) on "Here and Now," which possesses an angular bass line tight as a zipper. Where does Chandler find these sounds? The flip's "Keep it Deep" has a bass line that can only be marvelled at for its sheer beauty. Kerri Chandler's name on a record is a guarantee of sensual delight.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

It comes as no surprise that the peripatetic Romanthony has recorded a tribute to the venerable Tony Humphries, the spiritual father of the contemporary garage world. The irony is that the "In The Mix" (12") is a lot better than Humphries' recent turntable work, but that aside, this is a crucial piece of wax. Humming with a static electricity, the "Tony Humphries Classic Mastermix" has a thundering disco denouement that will leave garage-heads weak in the presence of beauty (Azuli, 25 D'Arblay St., London W1, U.K. 071.287.1932)...Would the week end without another corker from the Music Station folks in Englewood? No, because the emotive Elaine Monk just released the dazzling "Something For Nothing" (12"), which runs rings around just about every vocal house record this week, with its agile bass ripples and declamatory vocals (Music Station, c/o Dancefloor Distribution, 111 Cedar Lane, Englewood, NJ 07631 201.568.7066)...The inimitable Jark Prongo are actually the Good Men in another guise, products of the fertile Rhythm Imports Scene in Amsterdam. Their later venture for Fresh Fruit is the mighty, rolling "K'ucci" (12"), which takes a cue or two from Dave Clarke's now celebrated remix of "Thee Lite" by Aprohead. The minimalist movement really is making its impact felt 'round the dance world, and this is a sterling example. As you've come to expect from these folks, the production quality is so sharp you could cut yourself on it, and the bass lines have the impossibly rich texture of fine chocolate (Fresh Fruit, c/o Rhythm Imports, bv Hempooint 6F, 1013 BG, Amsterdam, Netherlands 020.681.3411)... The second release from the Love From San Francisco folks (a group of British expatriates) makes clear that this is no one-hit wonder stable. "Gonna Find A Way" by the Furry Phreaks (also produced by Charles Webster) is a gorgeous deep house track on one side, and an acid-riddled stormer on the other. If it weren't in the label name, no one would guess this record came from the Haight-Ashbury nexus. That's not necessarily a bad thing (Love From San Francisco, 591 Haight St., San Francisco, CA 94117 415.621.2230).

Well, I've been home for a week now, and I have finally opened every package the mail man brought me. For your own ecological interest you might like to know that I had three bags of mail, and once I sorted out all the packaging, irrelevant fliers and assorted rubbish, I had less than a half bag of actual pertinent music and information left. What are you people in promo-land thinking?

But in that half bag is an immeasurable stash of great music, which I won't even pretend to review in depth yet. But I have been listening like a maniac, and here's a few choice bits of plastic you ought to listen to and maybe play on the air.

SIMPLE VOICES

Just oud and voice define the entire album of Persian music by UDI HRANT KENKULIAN, rescued and released by New York City label Traditional Crossroads (c/o Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140 617.354.0700). These 1950 recordings were made by one of his students during lessons Hrant gave in the 1950s in New York. They are lively and personal, and even include some of his comments to his pupils. His techniques were innovative, even radical for the time, and they remain a priceless legacy in modern Turkish and Armenian folk music. Traditional Crossroads has also issued another remarkable collection of early Turkish music by TANBURI CEMIL BEY. These are acoustic recordings of both original songs and traditional taksim made directly to wax masters, the earliest of recording techniques, but one which lends an incredibly rich sound to his playing on the kemence (a three-string fiddle) and tanbur (long-necked lute). While there's a lot of surface noise to contend with on these pieces, the strength of the performances quickly makes you forget about the medium through which they were captured.

JAGDEEP SINGH BEDI performs a series of ragas for sitar and surbahar (a sort of bass sitar) on Soft & True (Music Of The World, P.O. 3620, Chapel Hill, NC 27515-3620 919.932.9600) with a small ensemble of bansuri flute, tabla and tamboura. These Hindustani pieces may not jolt you with flashy fusion, but their intimate beauty, sonic richness and the impeccable recording quality make them essential listening. Flautist STEVE GORN plays Luminous Ragas (Interworld, RD3 Box 395A, Brattleboro, VT 05301) on his bamboo flute with Marc Levinson's tamboura. Three ragas with no rhythmic accompaniment offer expansive improvisations on the themes. Native American flautist TOKEYA INAJIN (formerly known as Kevin Locke) has released his second volume of Dream Catcher songs titled Keepers Of The Dream (Earthbeat, Box 1460, Redway CA 95560-1460). Beautifully simple recordings of flute and voices are carefully enhanced by natural sounds to convey the old songs of the Lakota people in an immediate and sensitive way.

TECHNO TUNES

A day late and a dollar or two short, the American DJ is being introduced to the beat London has listened to for years, that strange blend of disco, hip-hop and Bengali called bhangra. Bhangra Beat: The New Sound (Multitone, P.O. 582891, Minneapolis, MN 55458-2891) gives America another chance to groove to the beat of London's Indian pop scene, with 14 tracks by four bands with a bank of machines and over-eager producers. For the more adventurous ear there is the

Manchester, U.K.-based MUSLIMGAUZE.

The group's mix of traditional eastern instruments and informed high-tech manipulations make Citadel (Extreme USA, 2450 Main St. #2000, Cambria, CA 93428 fax: 805.927.0384 e-mail: extreme@well.sf.ca.us) an exciting excursion into the unknown. A band that is rooted in the early days of punk, and propelled by the politics and personalities of the Middle East, Muslimgauze is a continuing experiment in industrial folk music for the next century.

In South Africa, the SOUL BROTHERS have been big stars for years, making a popular music that has roots in both American pop and Azanian jive. Soul Mbaqanga: The Dance Remixes (Stern's, 598 Broadway, New York, NY 10012 212.925.1648) takes some of their biggest hits back into the studio for a remix by Chris Birkett. The songs are really no stronger for the updating, nor do they suffer from the studio tricks. If you don't have some of their earlier recordings, these will do, but what was the point?

NEWS AND NOTES

And I didn't want to depart from the page this week without personally noting the passing of Sooliman Rogie, the king of African palm wine (both a drink and a guitar style). S.E. Rogie was a natural, and made music that was just for the pleasure of it. Whether he was making the surf-sound of the '60s or his more mature, but no less entertaining music of the last decade, he was a man without a time, a pure pleasure to watch on stage, and one of the most enjoyable men I have had the pleasure of talking to.

Peace. Cliff Furnald, Box 1285, New Haven, CT 06511 Internet: c.furnald@genie.geis.com

KNUT REIERSRUD

Footwork

Shanachie, 37 E. Clinton St.,
Newton, NJ 07860 201.579.7763

I first came upon the music of Norwegian guitarist Knut Reiersrud and organist Iver Klieve when an Internet pal swapped albums with me for some Irish folk music. Then, last month in Finland, I stumbled on a marvelous recording by Reiersrud and a group of African musicians and gospel singers called Tramp. Such is the way of the small world that I came home to find the same album, under the title of Footwork, out on Shanachie! In a world of haywire fusions, not even a cross pollination of Mandingo kora, American blues and Norwegian hardangfiddle tunes ceases to be a surprise. It takes a certain faith in the artists, and a certain open honesty to make it work, and this group certainly has an abundance of both. Knut Reiersrud is not only an ace instrumentalist, but has a sensitive ear and a light touch. His compositions and arrangements allow all the subtle nuances of Gambian, American and Scandinavian music to shine through, even as they melt into one another. His guitar, Klieve's church organ and the west African strings, prongs and drums find lively reinforcement in the voices of the Five Blind Boys Of Alabama. Some songs reach for the sublime touch of the recent Touré and Cooder collaborations, others look for a more manipulated sound, but all of them act on the musicians' faith in their own music and each other's cultures.

JAZZ

LARRY GOLDINGS.

arguably the fastest-rising new star on the Hammond B-3 organ, doesn't feel comfortable shuffling off to the chicken shack. A moonlight stroll on the beach, bossa-nova style, suits his sensibilities much better. Born in Boston and now residing in Manhattan, the 25-year-old Goldings realizes that "the blues have always come out, whether you like it or not, on the organ." Blues shuffles as played by Jimmy Smith, Jack McDuff and Jimmy Smith, he says, "sound real and honest, the way it should be done. When I hear them, I love it, and I guess a part of me wishes I could do that."

By and large, the B-3 has been the province of African-American jazz players since the aforesaid Smith burst on the scene in the '50s, pumping out his own bass via a foot pedal and dishing out devilish hornlike right-hand runs when he wasn't evoking the sanctity of the church with peeling chords. Playing the B-3 isn't a black/white issue for Goldings, one of the instrument's few major white practitioners. In fact, Goldings, who is on the verge of inking a major-label recording pact (following previous trio CDs under his own name for Minor Music and Verve), took up the organ by default five years ago. A full-time pianist at that time, Goldings had been called upon to supply the bass lines on an electronic keyboard for a leader, drummer Leon Parker, whose regular bassist couldn't make the gig. Goldings, already partial to bass lines played on the piano (owing to the influence of Dave McKenna), made the gig and soon was tapped to join the funky sextet of Maceo Parker, the extroverted altoman best known for his tenure with James Brown. Two years on the road (as the ersatz bass player) and two recordings with Parker gave Goldings the organist high visibility and a slew of outside offers. Recalls Goldings: "I truly thought of myself more as a bass player than a keyboard player in Maceo's band. My function in Maceo's funk, groove-type music was to hook up with the drummer in the manner of a bass player. With the funk thing, the bass had to be solid. Sometimes Maceo would introduce me over the microphone as the bass player."

ON THE CHART For the fourth straight week, there's a new number one on the jazz chart, as Verve-PG bassist Charlie Haden's 1989 reunion concert with fellow Ornette Coleman sidemen Don Cherry and Ed Blackwell grabs the top spot (5-1), narrowly edging the World Saxophone Quartet (3-2) on Elektra Nonesuch, and knocking last week's champion, Elektra Nonesuch's Eddie Palmieri, way down to the fourth spot (1-4). Percussionist Kahil El'Zabar (on indie Delmark), makes an exceptional ascent (6-3). Expect plenty more surprises and a particularly heated contest as the new semester begins and more stations come back on air in the next few weeks... Blue Note guitarist John Scofield debuts impressively at #6, while there are strong showings from MAMA's B Sharp Jazz Quartet (9-5), Verve-PG's Randy Weston Sextet (14-7) and Blue Horizon/Sire's Jimmy Scott (19-10). Former chart-topper Roy Hargrove Quintet (on Verve-PG) drops (2-8) as a newly released Novus-RCA Hargrove collection of previously released material debuts at #14. Goldings, who has worked as a pianist with Jim Hall, Jon Hendricks and Christopher Hollyday, believes "a lot of people don't like the organ because they feel it's a bombastic, annoying instrument." On the other hand, he points out, "a lot of people don't realize the organ can be a subtle instrument." Subtlety and small-group harmonic interaction are the order of business on Caminhos Cruzados (BMG/Victor, Japan only; due on Novus in the U.S. in September), a savory CD featuring Goldings' working trio (Peter Bernstein, guitar; Bill Stewart, drums) augmented by percussionist Guilherme Franco and, on three cuts, tenorman Joshua Redman. While on tour in Japan with Parker, Goldings was approached by a Japanese record exec. "The way he put it," Goldings remembers, "was that the organ was getting big in Japan, and the bossa-nova is coming back, so why not make a bossa-nova organ record?" On Caminhos Cruzados Goldings & Co. stress lilting, lucid lyricism on three lesser-known tunes by Antonio Carlos Jobim and one by Joao Gilberto ("I'm a huge fan," the leader notes), but, as jazzmen first and foremost, they can't resist the temptation to swing out on the solos on several tracks.

Goldings' talents as both organist and pianist are on display on JOHN SCOFIELD's new Hand Jive (Blue Note, c/o Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028). Goldings, in effect taking over for the departed reedman Joe Lovano, wails on 10 Scofield-composed funky groove tunes in the company of bassist Dennis Irwin, drummer Bill Stewart, percussionist Don Alias and guest tenorist Eddie Harris. It's no wonder, of course, that the funky stuff ("I'll Take Les") is reminiscent of Harris' work with keyboardist Les McCann circa Swiss Movement. In terms of both tone and line, guitarist Scofield is a master of tuneful tension-and-release as he compresses or expands his notes, much as a horn player does, searing or soaring as needs dictate. On the freer material retained from Lovano's road tenure with the band, pianist Goldings is faced with what he terms an "Ornette Coleman-type approach" on tunes whose solos don't call for preset chord changes. "I have to think more like Paul Bley," he says of this mind-set.

Did being a proficient pianist make for an easier transition to the organ? Goldings was asked. "Yes and no," he replies. "A lot of piano players can't get the feel and touch on the organ. You can't play the same voicings. But being a pianist first, technically, did help me. There was something natural about my going to the organ."

VARIOUS AND SUNDRY

Three cheers for Cachao! Israel "CACHAO" Lopez, that is, the venerable Afro-Cuban contrabassist. Classically trained, yet equally adept with Cuban pop music and Caribbean jazz, Cachao's utter mastery is out for all to hear on Master Sessions Volume 1 (Crescent Moon/Epic, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211). A 76-minute CD as bracing as it is rangy — from danzons and mambos to rumbas and descargas (jam tunes) — Master Sessions Volume 1 is rich in authentic percussion and vocalizing, by singers and horn players alike, all united by the leader's rich, resonant bass lines. One is impatient with some of the deliberate tempos near the beginning of the disk, but the later descargas (especially those featuring the clarinet of Paquito D'Rivera and the gleaming trumpet of Alfredo "Chocolate" Armenteros) are enough to make the feet swell and blood boil. Energizing when it isn't enchanting, Master Sessions Volume 1 is a long overdue forum for the incredible Cachao and, one hopes, only the first of many dates to come...A perfect programming companion to the Cachao side is Palmas (Elektra Nonesuch, 590 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10036 212.575.6720), new from the pianist EDDIE PALMIERI. Himself a bona-fide superstar in Afro-Cuban circles, Palmieri wisely employs real-deal clavé-keepers in the rhythm section, over which three superb jazz horn soloists (trumpeter Bryan Lynch, trombonist Conrad Herwig and saxist Donald Harrison) improvise with reasoned abandon. Get and play 'em both.

BILL WHARTON AND THE INGREDIENTS

South Of The Blues

King Snake, c/o Flying Fish, 1304 W. Schubert,
Chicago, IL 60614 312.528.5455

Bill Wharton is an American Original, the kind of rare citizen that makes us proud to live in this country. Let's face it, like Jerry Lee Lewis or Little Richard or Buddy Guy, you simply wouldn't find such a delightful nutcase thriving, cooking and playing the blues in a repressive Eastern bloc country or totalitarian empire. Renowned as the "Sauce Boss" (when he's not playing guitar, he's known for his cookbooks and special Florida-style barbecue sauce which he sells through mail order), Wharton and his band play a rich flavor of blues. The sauce and recipes are one thing, but Bill Wharton has moved more and more into his own as a blues player over the years, making better records each time out, and even without the trimmings and trappings, this album stands up on its own. Clean, elegant production put the music to the fore, and the songwriting thankfully shows humor. Sample "Got To Rumba" and "Hurricane Blues."

ELLIOTT SHARP Terraplane

Homestead, P.O. Box 800, Rockville Centre, NY 11571-0800
212.675.0922

Long known as a downtown NYC Knitting Factory-type of artist, often fronting his eclectic group Carbon, Elliott Sharp has created a canon ranging from atonal, unreproducible noise works to hard, sharp-edged post-Sonic Youth guitar rock. Now, in a surprising move, he unveils the first recordings of his Terraplane, a side-project band dedicated to, of all things, instrumental blues rock. He's been gigging occasionally with the group around New York for about two years now, but once you understand Sharp's background and personal tastes, the idea of a blues project makes sense. Terraplane is laudable in that Sharp, for all his avant-garde credentials, is able to get inside the blues without succumbing to empty or vacuous soloing. He takes leads on every song, but he never just wanks off on top of the chords. The result is a surprisingly listenable instrumental blues album.

TEISCO DEL RAY

The Many Moods Of Teisco Del Ray

Upstart, P.O. Box 44-1418,
W. Somerville, MA 02144 617.354.0700

It's hard not to like a musician often described as "the champion of el cheapo guitars." Teisco Del Ray is way into guitars (he lists them all for any CD buyers who may also be guitar fans), the cheesier and sleazier the better. The effect on The Many Moods Of... is as if Teisco sifted through thousands of LPs and obscure 45s to find the perfect selections to make up an album—all the faves and classics are here, impeccably done, including gems from the 13th Floor Elevators, Dick Dale, and Ivory Joe Hunter. We especially dig his ultra-raunchy cover of Mac Rebennack's "Storm Warning," as well as the rabble-rousing "Los Surf" (los surf, indeed!). The album title is borrowed from numerous blues and jazz records from the '50s. Our suggestions for next album title: either Plays Pretty For The People or Del Ray In 3-D, with Teisco pictured in blue and red 3-D glory.

CATCHERS Shifting

Setanta, 123 Shakespeare Road,
London, SE24, U.K. 071.703.0971

The Irish-born Setanta label's lineage is traditionally emotive, guitar-shaped pop (early Divine Comedy, A House, now Edwyn Collins) but superbly defined by personality and tunes. Still wet behind the ears, the Catchers are less idiosyncratic mavericks than most "Setantans" but the melodies spill down like waterfalls, marked by a feisty, smalltown innocence, clearly chiming guitars and a vocal that recalls Prefab Sprout's Paddy McAloon. Shifting is considered an EP but runs to six tracks, the second half of which constitutes the Catchers' recent debut single—the gorgeous janglepop momentum of "Cotton Dress," the more heated pace and passion that sweeps over "Dead Friends Fall" (which shimmies with the poise and precision of a class Johnny Marr arrangement) and the poignant melancholia of "Summer Is Nearly Over." Lovers of the Smiths and the cranberries should have no problem lapping up such pop of wistful simplicity, affection and enchantment. If Irish pop can be categorized as such, then the Catchers are undeniably made of the right stuff.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Joy! A Ché Compilation

Che, P.O. Box 653, London, E18 2NX, U.K. 081.530.8381

One label, multiple identities, but usually one vision, maximizing rock's primary colors viewed through a glass darkly. Ché bands—and those on Cheree, its predecessor—lean toward the introspectively expressive kind passed down from Joy Division/Bunnymen days—that's Disco Inferno, Telescopes, Whipping Boy and State of Grace in days of old, and the five bands which constitute this label sampler. The more punky-pop burst of Berlin trio 18th Dye's "AUG" (from their forthcoming EP) makes way for the "Dive" (from the Done album), a more typical array of muggy, mesmeric arpeggios. "Be Careful With Me" and "Somebody Could Die Across My Throne And I Would Never Know" (gulp!) are the first offerings from the Bardots in over a year; as ever broodingly downbeat, epically frustrated, moodily anthemic. For Slipstream (two tracks from the debut single) and Fur (the debut single "Camomile" and the new "Gift Horse"), see next week's column; for the Boston-based, guitar alchemists Magic Hour (ex-Galaxie 500/Crystalized Movements), see the band's own stateside releases. This expert introduction is limited to 1,000 numbered copies.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

ACACIA is a kind of honey, now it's a band, whose musical blend is sweet but never cloying, meticulously blended yet pure and natural. Enough analogies, already. The Maddening Shroud debut EP is a four-track jewel, connecting dots between dance, soul, pop, folk and ethnic musics, studded with glissando guitar, tinkling percussion, Alexander's velveteen intonations and keyboard/sample layering from Björk and Seal sidekick Guy Sigsworth. The title track, "Stay In Your Own Hate" and the sparser "Arc of Hysteria" echo Scritti Politti's fragile polyrhythmia, AR Kane's shuffling, neo-ambient pop and David Sylvian's rarified textures, while the instrumental "Waterphone Farewell" is an instrumental festival of Eastern scales. Acacia floats, shimmers, drifts, glides and swoons, but with the occasional sting and snap; Alexander calls Acacia "liquid music." Like O'Rang, its carefully considered soundscape sounds effortlessly organic and seamless (Alchemy Arts, c/o Stone Immaculate PR, Studio 2, 8 Nursery Road, London SW2, U.K. 071.737.6359)

Column by David Newgarden

Three remarkable musicians from the growing and revitalized New York avant jazz scene, almost completely ignored by American jazz labels, have been expanding their audience through connections with the alternative rock world. Drummer WILLIAM HOOKER has signed a three-record deal with Homestead, has recorded with Sonic Youth's Thurston Moore and Lee Ranaldo (a CD is coming out in the fall on Knitting Factory Works), and has had a video aired on MTV. Saxophonist CHARLES GAYLE has performed and recorded (for a forthcoming album) with Henry Rollins. Pianist MATTHEW SHIPP is releasing albums on three "rock" labels: his 1992 (second) album Circular Temple will soon be re-released on Henry Rollins and Rick Rubin's Infinity Zero label, a live recording is due on Ectoplasm (check out the Shipp namedrop in the liner notes of the label's Raymond & Peter: Shut Up Little Man), and his current album Zo (a duo with bassist William Parker) on Rise (2116 Guadalupe, #210, Austin, TX 78705), which has released music from the likes of Moist Fist and the Monomen. The new audience, sometimes making a jump to this complex music while unfamiliar with jazz classics (Parker, Miles, Ellington), seems to viscerally connect with the enormous energy, speed and emotion that modern jazz shares with punk rock. There are, of course, many other dimensions to the music.

Shipp, who has recorded in groups led by David S. Ware, Roscoe Mitchell and Marc Edwards, can attack the piano with the two-fisted strength of a boxer, at the same time displaying 10 agile fingers, each seemingly with a mind of its own. In addition to this fury, however, are shades of impressionistic and dark 20th century "classical," as well as the jazz influence of Cecil Taylor, Monk, Powell and Duke Ellington's often overlooked piano playing. Like one of his favorites, Andrew Hill, he blurs distinctions between "out" and tradition; it's unconventional and free-form but with a very logical harmonic sense (there's even a cover of Gershwin's classic "Summertime"). Bassist William Parker's astounding technique includes occasional left-hand plucking and two handed bowing, and he also wedges his muscular hand to bend two strings to tremendous tension. Parker plays with such unremitting ardor that a drummer isn't missed.

Charles Gayle has two new releases on the Swedish Silkheart label (c/o Gazell, P.O. Box S27, Mansfield Center, CT 06250), Translation and Raining Fire; the latter's title is a fine metaphor for Gayle's intense deluge of red-hot sound. Gayle uses the fierce passion of Ayler and Coltrane at their most extreme as a starting point; his saxophone and bass clarinet playing is the wailing extremes of high/low register, often jumping back and forth mid-phrase. The quartet (drums and two basses, including William Parker) completely forgo compositions and dive headfirst into unexplored, unarranged, unstructured seas of unrelenting jazz catharsis. The group's performances can be a truly religious experience.

William Hooker has been composing and drumming since the early '70s when his group included David S. Ware and David Murray. Of the albums mentioned here, Radiation (Homestead, P.O. Box 800, Rockville Centre, NY 11571-0800 212.675.0922) is the most obvious in its "rock" appeal; its instrumentation includes electric guitar (Borbetomagus' Donald Miller) and analog electronics (Brian Doherty), as well as sax and trombone. Hooker's rapid-fire drum rolls and shimmering cymbal splashes stir up a chaotic whirlpool of instruments, which, with the prominent electronics, suggest technology gone awry; it would make a great soundtrack to a sci-fi film about a nuclear disaster. Regardless of whether one's used to listening to rock, jazz or whatever, this music is powerful enough to fuck with anyone's mind.

SUGAR

"Your Favorite Thing"

Rykodisc, Pickering Wharf, Bldg. C, Salem, MA 01970 508.744.7678

The first single and video from the forthcoming File Under: Easy Listening, "Your Favorite Thing" lives up to all the hoopla generated by the success of Copper Blue and its accompanying videos. Visually, it's Bob Mould and co. fro-licking in the unfinished shell of the Loop 1 high-way in the outskirts of Austin, TX (a city Mould now calls home). Sonically, it's the gloriously tuneful wall-of-guitar power pop that Sugar established as its unparaleled trademark. Together, "Your Favorite Thing" is simply another great Sugar video that languishes in its own overdriven splendor. CH

MARVIN GAYE

"Inner City Blues"

Motown, 6255 W. Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028

The fact that this video is a Marvin Gaye song alone makes it worth a few minutes of your time, but coupled with sensitive video direction by the Hughes brothers (Menace II Society), the clip is practically a must-see. Known for their raw, visceral style, the two brothers wisely play it cool on this one, allowing a carefully paced montage of black-and-white urban portraits to stroll hand-in-hand with Marvin's timeless classic. CH

JESUS & MARY CHAIN

"Sometimes Always"

American, 3300 W. Olive Blvd., Ste., 1550, Burbank, CA 91550

The British invaded long ago, and now their descendants can be found roaming around the South West looking depressed as heck. In "Sometimes Always," as the folks in the Jesus & Mary Chain slump at the bar, Mazzy Star's Hope Sandoval stops by to cheer them up with her guest vocal. Well, not really, but despite the fact that the overall atmosphere of this clip can be summed up by the word "bummer," it's still one of the cooler songs/videos of the month and it also welcomes you into Stoned And Dethroned. SC

SHUDDER TO THINK

"Hit Liquor"

Epic, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211

Shudder To Think's music is tough to categorize, somehow crunching and twisting various rock, punk and metal forms into an artful barrage that is at once inviting and thoroughly

American Recordings' Jesus & Mary Chain takes this week's highest debut (with a little help from Mazzy Star's Hope Sandoval) at #27. Airplay on such shows as J/TV, New Music '94, Bohemia Afterdark and Big Video Dynamite's Blast Off indicate a strong start for this clip. unsettling. The task of marrying a video to one of the band's songs is a daunting one, but "Hit Liquor" succeeds in wrestling this dichotomy. The setting is the dank galley of NY's Frying Pan, a wreck of a ship turned party space where, (in "Hit Liquor" at least), mutiny, animal carcasses, disease and all things sinister converge. Whether it's the band's seasick performance or its character roles that make the clip so disquieting, we're not quite sure. CH

I MOTHER EARTH

"So Gently We Go"
Capitol, 810 Seventh Ave.,
New York, NY 10019

Yes, this new video is somewhat "gentler" than what you're used to from I Mother Earth, yet the band's loss of grinding power hasn't lessened our interest in the band. IME loosens up a bit: the grooves are wider, and the video is the clincher. At times it almost seems like "So Gently We Go" used footage left over from Blind Melon's "No Rain." That colorful, earthy vibe helps paint this diverse band in a new and more accurate light. SC

BLACK TRAIN JACK

"Handouts"
Roadrunner, 225 Lafayette
St., Suite 407, New York,
NY 10012 212.219.0077

Get yourself a handful of chords, add a little camera mugging, and you've got a punk/pop hit on your hands. While no-frills NYC rock like Black Train Jack always sounds better blasted outdoors or in the confines of a club where there are as many fists in the air as there are people, this video keeps things moving pretty nicely. If it's in the stars, watch for BTJ to explode like Green Day or the Offspring if they haven't already by the time you read this. SC

RECORD CO.

Michael J. Schnapp, EMI Records, New York, NY 212.492.1812 I mean it! Remember, 8-track is back and it's better than crack! Send me your stacks of 8-tracks! And now EMI rocks more than a NYC cab ride! EMI Records is now rockin'! Your favorite rock youth from Batesville, AK, Mutha's Day Out, are back on the road. Get out of the middle of the road 'cause Mutha's Day Out is touring with Sugartooth and Godspeed and will be on the road thru September. Get ready to get Green with Mutha's Day Out. Come down and say "Hey!" YeeeHaaa! More EMI rock! Bloodline is a new band. Look for Stone Cold Hearted, the smokin' rockin' guitar-jammin' song from Bloodline. I love this record, so go check it out, dudes! More EMI rock! Moist! I feel Moist! Yeah Moist! Get ready to be Moist! Look for Push, the first the first song/video from Moist! EMI rocks! Punk rock lives and is the choice of D Generation! D Generation debut LP D Generation is comin'! EMI rocks! Look out for Butt Trumpet. Butt Trumpet will be in your face with Primitive Enema out soon! Yes, Butt Trumpet. Yes, EMI officially rocks. Now check out these releases on your home entertainment center, in your car, discman, or 8-track player...

Hal Looby, College Radio Overlord, Touch And Go Records, Chicago, IL 312.463.8316 ¡Hola! A su derecha hay un buzón. ¿Tu receiverada los disco sonicos para Touch Y Go? ¿Una pistol de dies (6) shooter dan uster mailboxo muy pronto. que? Down est la nuevo album de los superstars internationale, the Jesus Lizard. ¿Tiene un laxante suave? Deliver 13 songs brillianto. Senor Yow dispense a los pants. Los mysterians de Louisville, Slint presente dos excursions de Angularismo. El Slinte no duermo bien en uno shallow grava. ¡Keponé? Tres caballeros de Virginia administrera mucho punchos al sur de border on Ugly Dance. Alors, me no habla espanol.

Will Hayes, Big Pop Records, Philadelphia, PA 215.551.3191 Hello, all...This being my first Dialogue submission, I suppose I should introduce myself: My name is Will, I'm the new guy at a new label in Philadelphia, where we're still recovering from the biggest selling Lollapalooza ever. woo-hoo. Anyhow, if you're a college radio person, mayhaps you might want to consider entering our fly-out contest for the Melting Hopefuls. Hey, free flight, free weekend in NYC...For contest details, consult the letter I sent your station (which of course you didn't throw away, what was I thinking?). By the way, you should check out their debut, if you haven't already...it made KTEC's Ron Radcliffe's "boogie ooze." Also, look for Mexico 70, passing through your town on their first U.S. tour. In other news, Pony rocks hard live—the record just doesn't do them justice, really. Man Or Astro-man? really do sweat a lot! The Swirlies sound great with their new lineup! Is Helium really relocating to Philadelphia? That's the "word" around town...I also heard that Heather from Tiger Trap is drumming for the Lois. I suppose I'll find out on 8/10, when they perform with Inert, a fiery pop quartet from Philly, featuring members of Myriam, Flyweight, and the drummer from Glen's band (on MTV's The Real World). Be sure to catch Franklin's national tour, probably passing through right about now...Kudos to Harrisburg, PA's ProTeen Records for being such cool guys. Buy their records! That's all for now...Call me for info/insight. Bye.

Jill & Jeannie, Red Light Records, Des Plaines, IL 708.297.6538 Just back from the Milwaukee Metal Fest. Gutted and Oppressor ruled the Rave stage Friday night, ask anybody. They both truly played so well. Paul WRSE and I were up on stage before each band tossing out Red Light promo stuff and the crowd went wild! I only wailed one guy in the mouth and chipped his front tooth. Hey, he should've ducked! It was great hanging with Alan WBUL, Mike WRPR, Chris KSTO, Don WLSO, Pete WRST, Paul SWUS, Aaron WXAV, Lauren "the biggest Oppressor fan in the world" from Concrete, my good buddy Chainsaw from Mechanic and Jesse from Century Media, you are a sweetie. Gutted is on the road now with A.C. and Incantation call me for tickets & interview. They are hitting the following cities, Sioux Falls, Colorado Springs, Albuquerque, Juarez (Mexico), Corpus Christi, Houston, Biloxi, Atlanta, Charlotte, Richmond, NYC, Providence, Orlando and Cleveland over the next month. Oppressor head to Europe in about three weeks, call now to get interviews with these guys. Remember Cianide, Skatenigs, Sarkoma and the Pleasure Elite. We've got tours for all TBA soon! Keep 'em spinnin', Jeannie's back!

Lindsay Shannon, College Radio CheeseMeister, Ichiban Records 800.966.4244 My wife is in love with Aaron Spelling. Sound like a song? No, it's the truth! Anyway, if you ain't gettin' any service from us, then call—it's free! Deadeye Dick is out there with their nuevo wavo album A Different Story and you may have heard "New Age Girl" but check these cuts: "The Oath," "Sentimental Crap" and "Perfect Family." If you went to Woodstock II I hope you checked out Continental Drifters, which consists of Carlo Nuccio, Ray Ganuchau, Mark Walton (Dream Syndicate), Vicki Peterson (Bangles), Peter Holsapple (DB's, R.E.M.) and Susan Cowsill (Cowsills). Whoah!—supergroup. Continental Drifters will put an album in your lunchbox this fall but it will come after we send you our Back To School J.C. Penny's Movin' On Series: Moe (Velvet Underground) Tucker's album Dogs Under Stress, as well as a funky record by Northampton, MA's Rent Party entitled Pic-Nic. Call me if there are any questions and yes, this information will be on the final.

Adam J. Pollock Island Records, New York, NY 212.603.3942 Am I a boring old fart for liking the Stones record? Probably, but once in a while it's nice to listen to something that doesn't come from what Details has decided is the "hot new town," or is part of a new wave of new wave and has no substance whatsoever. Can you tell I spent the last week in NMS hell? So two big projects hit college radio this week-

IN SPORES AUGUST 30TH

DIALOGUES

ish—Wool and Consolidated, both on vinyl, both fabulous, they're in-store on 8/23 and 8/9 respectively. Everyone at Island is studiously listening to the new cranberries album, which comes out in October and promises to be another moody gem from newly-married Dolores and co. Not to be overlooked: Gravediggaz, Royal Jelly, Buckwheat Zydeco, Public Enemy, Jules Shear, Marianne Faithfull and the soundtrack to Priscilla, Queen Of The Desert (Gloria Gaynor, Alicia Bridges, Village People and many more of your disco faves), all of which hit the street in August.

Scott Carter, College Radio Promotion, A&M Records, Hollywood, CA 213.856.2716 In my opinion: third best tribute album—that Roky Erickson one. Second best—the Neil Young one. First best—If I Were A Carpenter, the Carpenters tribute. This one's going to have you all screaming like a bunch of four-year-olds at a Barney show. It's got cover versions from Cracker, Shonen Knife, Babes In Toyland, Redd Kross, Matthew Sweet, Grant Lee Buffalo, and lots more. The first single, Sonic Youth's "Superstar" b/w Bettie Serveert's "For All We Know," should be on your desk by August 18. By the way, I'll be autographing copies of the single at the CMJ convention for $5. I can't tell you who is on the cover of it, but I can tell you it's some of the most shameless self-promotion since the Timothy Cook Singers 7". Other good stuff: the Halo Benders, Guided By Voices, the upcoming albums from the Jesus & Mary Chain and Grant Lee Buffalo and the new Billy Blaze 7".

Tim Auvenshine, Select-O-Hits Records, Memphis, TN, 901.388.1190 Coming at 'cha from Memphis, TN, home of Elvis buried in the backyard and hanging by the pool! First time in, hoping not to be the last. Select-O-Hits is a major player in independent distribution. A lot of cool things to offer, and a lot of cool things to come. Watch out for Icehouse Records releases, kind of an in-house label, with releases from Impala, Coolers, Don McMinn, Toler Brothers, Don Nix and many more. Thanks for taking the time to read my blurb! Gotta go and hide the donuts, just in case! Peace, love and tranquilizers!!

Cheryl Zarlow, Rotten Records, Montclair, CA 909.624.2332 Contrary to possible belief, Rotten Records has not dropped off the face of the earth, despite the seismic activity. The floods haven't washed us up since Noah let us hitch a ride as a new species. The riots? Well, we deal with those on a regular basis. Our plush homes didn't burn since we couldn't afford them anyway. We almost crashed into a slow moving white Bronco on the freeway, but escaped unscathed (almost anyway). You see, Katt Fish is on a leave of absence as a result of all the chaos. Meanwhile, I'm your new publicity slave with the latest update: DRI just returned from two successful shows in Argentina and will be coming out in October with a "definition of live" release. A new STG release is in the works. After months of labor, our new baby is Acid Bath. Instead of a cheap cigar, we thought you'd enjoy your very own promotional copy for hard listening. Two self portrait renditions of John Wayne Gacy are also included and should be on your desk by the time you read this. Call me soon, I'd like to hear from you. Remember: You can use me, but don't abuse me (without permission).

RADIO Rodger Baker, Music Director/Student General Manager, WPBX, Southhampton, NY 516.287.8290 Yes, we have finally, as promised, gone up in power to 25,000 watts and moved to 88.3 on the dial. We now cover most of Suffolk county and Connecticut though we have heard rumors of our signal reaching Cape Cod, Newport, Rhode Island and Burundi. Hopefully by next year we will move to a bigger tower and then we will cover all of the East Coast and some of Europe and West Africa. Our power has changed, but our commitment to good music hasn't (how's that for a cheesy sentence?). Good stuff here...(as of when I wrote this) Magnapop, Nova Mob, Penny Dreadfuls, Noise Unit, Anal Kitties, Skirt, Malhavoc, Farside, Figgs, Hope Factory. Other summer fun includes ICU, Roy, Down By Law, and of course...the Ramones! Happy 20th anniversary Ramones! Y'all keep in touch. Voicemail # is 516.287.8288, my hours are T, W, Th 11-2. PS: see Black Train Jack, Figgs, Flaming Lips, Dance Hall Crashers and ICU live!!

Anthony DelRosario, Travelling Indie Rock Dork, WTUL, New Orleans, LA 504.865.5887 Three weeks on the road. Three thousand miles put on my car. Knoxville, DC, New York, DC, Chapel Hill, Charleston, SC, and Atlanta. Highlights: DC—George Washington Masonic Monument (secret society temple thing), parking lot of a Dead show, the Tsunami gals, Go! Records. NYC—Silkworm, Conan O'Brien show, sushi at Avenue A, Crowdsell, Coney Island, Rose Of India, Polvo, Scarce, Dali exhibit at the Met, MoMA, mutant pancakes, hangin' with everyone. Chapel Hill—Squirrel Nut Zippers, Lambchop, Thrift World (five albums for $1: Tom Waits, the Rutles and more), Double Dynamite, Odes, Armadillo Cafe. Charleston, SC—a dip in the ocean. Augusta, GA—a fast food joint called Wife Saver. Next big road trip is CMJ, I guess. Our live broadcast from the Howlin' Wolf each Wednesday, TULBOX, has some good shows for September: the Cocktails, maybe Small 23, Alice Donut, 7 Year Bitch. Call me or the Howlin' Wolf 504.529.2341 for more info. I think that Rob Kwak and I were separated at birth.

Laura Jacobsen/Jenifer Lohrengel, Music Director, KYMC, Chesterfield, MO 314.530.0981 Just a thought from KYMC: Before golf balls were invented, how did mankind measure hail? I would like to thank all record reps for their patience during the MD change here at KYMC! I think we now have it under control. Want to know what's hot at KYMC? To find out, follow these simple steps: 1. Take a piece of paper and write "X Rated" in large letters 2. Take that same piece of paper and hold in front of a mirror. What do you have? Detar X!! Detar X has been sweeping our charts like a possessed broom. Not only are they doing well with us, they have entered at #6 for local sales in St. Louis. The new CD is titled Earth Jones and it's hot, hot, hot! I can get you in touch with the band if you would like a copy of the CD. Other things to check out: Stereolab, Jeffrey Gaines and new Everything But The Girl. Another thought from KYMC: Are lions really afraid of chairs?

Eitaro Hayashi, Music Director, KTUH, Honolulu, HI 808.956.4848 Yo, thanks to all who have been calling in with your answers, but please make sure to not write it in the Dialogue. Besides, if you call in with the correct response, there's an Oriental Connection/Ramen demo cassette to be received...now you can't beat that shit! Speaking of Ramen, the band just released a new single, "Main Theme" (and yes, after listening to it, you will be hungry). But back to business, this week's movie trivia goes something like this..."The brothers went in to take over...but they were hiring that day. They walked in with guns...came out with jobs. The brothers weren't mad no more. Ohhh whitey!" P.S. the category this time is comedy, and the unrelated tip of the week is don't rent On Deadly Ground for the action. Aloha!

Bill Gruber, Operations Director, WAPS, Akron, OH 216.434.1661 After four years of planning, design, and budgeting, WAPS-FM in Akron, Ohio, has relocated to 91.3 FM! Time to update your Rolodexes! This past Friday, August 5, at 2:42 p.m., WAPS 89.1 FM signed off forever. A little while later, at 3:27 p.m., WAPS 91.3 FM signed on for the first time ever. Immediately after giving birth to 91.3 FM, WAPS hosted an open house party at our facilities for all of our contributing listeners and local media...At 91.3 FM, WAPS has an improved signal throughout our metro coverage, plus, we now push our signal a bit further into our previous fringe signal areas. Many people in Canton and the south Cleveland suburbs now receive WAPS radio for the first time ever. Plus, at 91.3 FM, WAPS will be able to further expand our signal in the future is already in progress!...What IS NOT changing is the WAPS format, personnel and sound...in other words, some great WAPS radio, at a new and better spot on the FM radio dial...For further information, please contact Bill Gruber at 212.434.1661, ext. 3182, Monday through Thursday, noon to 4:00 p.m. Eastern.

LOWD ROCK DIALOGUES

Sharon Joffe, Arista Records, New York, NY 800.627.4782
x2144 Airheads is just amazing. Only a few weeks out and you guys can't get enough of it. Well, thank you and don't stop! Play White Zombie's "Feed The Gods" and see the video on Headbanger's Ball. Play Motorhead/Ice T/Whitfield Crane's "Born To Raise Hell" and see the video on MTV. Make this the summer anthem for all the kids in America, so then they'll make their parent's lives a living hell. Isn't that what kids are supposed to do? Listen to really loud rock music that the grown ups will hate and do all sorts of mischievous things! Corrupt your listening audience with damn fine loud rock music! And you can find it all in one place and even better, on one CD—Airheads!! I think I've made my point.

Linnea Nan, Warner/Reprise Metal, Burbank, CA 818.953.3692 Yes, it's good to be back in the land of the living (I heard the new Slayer record and had to take a few weeks off...it's amazing!). I promised Jenni Glenn at CMJ to set the record straight on Life, Sex & Death...yes, LSD is in the process of making a new record for Reprise and Stanley is still the frontman with a new band line-up. From what we have seen and heard, it will be worth the wait. The new record will hit early '95. L7 tearing it up on Lollapalooza. Keep cranking Hungry For Stink. It's the only way to go. RPLA—the full CD will be on your desks next week. Check it out. No pressure on an add date, just spread the word! Atomic Opera will be supporting Dio on this next leg of the Strange Highways tour. Candlebox rages on with Metallica and Suicidal. Biohazard hops to Europe for a few weeks. I'll have killer tour news for Biohazard in the U.S. in the next week. So, look for the "How It Is" video and keep delivering your State Of The World Address.

Paul Ziino, WSUW, Whitewater, WI 414.472.1323 HEY! Just wanted to drop a line to all of you in radioland. It was great meeting all of you at Milwaukee Metalfest. I have to say thanks to Lauren Goldwasser for all of her help and an extra special thanks to Overkill's soundman, Phil, for getting me in on Saturday. Well, the main reason I'm writing is because as of August 15, I will be stepping down from the position of Metal Director here at WSUW and stepping up to the position of Station Manager. The new metal guy's name is Marcus Riefel, but you can call him Reefer. His office hours won't start 'til August 29, so I'll be fielding calls for him until then. Reefer's a pretty good dude, so give him a buzz and let him know what's up with your bands. Feel free to call me whenever you'd like, I'll be around all the time. C-ya!

Maria "Mom" Abril, Metal Blade Records, Simi Valley, CA 805.522.9111 Fates Warning. "Outside Looking In" is the shit! The fans have spoken. Answer them now. Play "Outside Looking In" from the new LP, Inside Out. Tour plans are brewing for early fall in the states. A video, too. The rules for the Fates Warning contest are on the way. Don't miss the opportunity to win amazing prizes. Catch Fates Warning at their first U.S. gig at Foundations Forum '94. Skrew's "Picasso Trigger" video has gotten rave reviews. Understandable...it's killer! Add in "Seeded" next to "Picasso Trigger" and do something that sucks for Skrew in my Skrew contest. I think I spoil you guys too much. Milwaukee Metalfest was great! Skrew, Broken Hope, Thought Industry, Epidemic and Cannibal Corpse played phenomenal sets for a very cool crowd. Broken Hope's new song will kick your ass. Heavy riffage at its best. Cannibal are kings of the "not so underground anymore" movement. Since its release in April, The Bleeding continues to sell at least 1,000 units a week through SoundScan. Not so underground anymore, eh? A new tour coming in October. Epidemic's "Vulture" sounded devastating live. Spin the f*ck out of that tune! Desultory's "A Closing Eye" rages up the charts. How cool are all of you? Thanks to Ray & John at KNAC for the time! Gwar's Carnival Of Chaos looks like it'll include Green Jelly and the Genitorturers supporting. More details later. New track "The Issue Of Tissue." Add it now. New Mercyful Fate titled

Time and Joey Vera (Armored Saint) titled A Thousand Faces. Live by the blade, die by the blade.

Lauren Goldwasser, Concrete Marketing, New York, NY 212.645.1360 Holy shit! I had the sickest weekend! I visited the lovely land of Laverne & Shirley, Jeffrey Dahmer and beer. The Milwaukee Metalfest was truly amazing! I'll need about a month to recuperate...just in time to do it all again for Foundations Forum! Some amazing bands were Oppressor, Morbid Angel, Skrew, Murphy's Law, Downset, A.C. (until the chairs started flying!), Overkill, Biohazard, Cannibal Corpse and Slayer. Big thanks to Jill from Red Light, Maria from Metal Blade and the Mechanic/Futurist crew. It was also terrific to meet the WXAV guys, Ace of WRUW, Paul of WSUW, Matt of WLHU, Chris of KSTO, the Cleveland clan—Roger, Bill and John (who should give up flying totally!), Shawn (Mr. Clean) of WRST, Luke of WYRE and Alan of WBUL. Lastly, I'd like to thank Mike Carnevale for putting up with me all weekend and for tolerating my shit fits! It was terrific hanging with you guys! I'd submit some pics to CMJ, but I lost my camera while running around like a mad woman. Back to reality...the deadline dates for the Infectious Grooves and Kiss My Ass contests have been extended! Enter ASAP! Nativity In Black: The Black Sabbath Tribute coming real soon. Lastly, play my bands.

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY 212.275.2135 Overkill is blistering the Metal charts. Savatage is starting their dominance at AOR and Metal radio. Stone Temple Pilots have sold six million units in less than two years. Collective Soul has gone platinum. Bad Religion is the biggest buzz band at radio and retail in 1994. King's X and Collective Soul played at Woodstock. New Testament (Low) and Melvins (Stoner Witch) out in the fall. Now, that's exciting!!

Michael J. Schnapp, EMI Records, New York, NY 212.492.1812 So, I figured, a 19-hour bus ride from Dallas, Texas to Tucson, Arizona...FUN! THRILLS! EXCITEMENT! Hangin' with the Mutha's Day Out guys on the road, talkin' about "Green", the next track from Mutha's Day Out. And watching the new "Green" video, as well as good old road stories. So, this is Mutha's Day Out's first bus ride and it turns into an oven. Driving from Dallas to Tucson, you go through the desert. The desert's hot. In the desert, you need air conditioning. In Mutha's Day Out's bus, the air conditioning decided to break down for the last 10 hours, leaving the temperature inside the bus at 100 degrees...it was only 90 degrees outside. (We knew the temperature was like that cuz our bus driver, Billy Bob, had a thermometer. By the way, Billy Bob cooks a mean beer dog). So, picture this: Mutha's Day Out band and crew and yours truly, Schnapp, inside a big metal bus at 100 degrees for 10 hours, baked like a potato. We were baked and fried. But we made it and Mutha's Day Out rocked Tucson and Phoenix, and will continue to tour with Sugartooth and Godspeed through mid-September. Also on the EMI Rock front are Bloodline with "Stone Cold Hearted" jammin' in your ears now! And, Moist out soon. Also, DGeneration on the Airheads soundtrack. EMI rocks harder than 8-tracks!!

Munsey Ricci/John LaRosa, Skateboard Marketing Ltd., Valley Stream, NY 516.328.1103 So, you love the new Peter Criss. All of you who did not add it, do it this week. Wicked Maraya and Cyclone Temple will be heading out on the road the end of August. "Face In The Mirror" will be the next single from the Wicked ones. Drown's tour is doing fine. There will be a new single out in September. The Toys started their tour last week. We have giveaways for all of you. Gilby Clarke is in your face. The record still grow's every week. Dig on it big time. Rhino Bucket's "What'd You Expect" is on the full length. Change over to that track. Adds this week on the Treacherous Human Underdogs. It's a cross between Biohazard and Body Count, dig on it. Next week is the new medley from Body Count. It's not the single, but a mix of 4 songs in one. Cya next week.

Zachary Lanier, Energy Records, New York, NY 800.235.5678 Everywhere they land, Pro-Pain is being overwhelmed by hordes of screaming fans. Young girls are hiding out under their beds in their hotel rooms, hoping for a glance of their idols. They have been dubbed Sir Pro-Pain by the British royalty, and given a small land holding just north of Yorkshire (it's a very nice little place, really, a bit shy on vegetation, but that's nothing one weekend in the garden can't fix). Fans, blown way by their heavy, aggressive approach to music, took over three major market stations and played nothing but Pro-Pain until they were given a helmet full of cottage cheese and taken off to jail. One programmer, so overcome with the song "One Man Army," flipped out and hid out on an overpass, picking off cars with out-of-state license plates. When questioned, he said he represented the People's Republic of Pro-Pain and claimed diplomatic immunity. Bile, we regret to inform you, has disappeared. Last we had heard, they had taken over a small third world country and were in the process of selling off all the natural resources for a DAT player and a truckload of avacados. We hope they will make it back in time for their tour, starting on the 13th of August. The only thing we have received from them is a video for "I Reject," mysteriously left on our doorstep with no postmark. Although they tried to keep him down, Billy Milano is back, and bigger than ever. M.O.D. has returned with an album to be taken seriously and you should have it by now, you should have adventure picked it by now and you should be enjoying "Land Of The Free," the first track. Just don't get in his way. Pro-Pain is on tour with Overkill and Bile also has some dates. Call me and tell me how your day has been, and I'll put the phone on mute and make fun of your misery with the rest of the office.

Keith Jenkins, Relapse/Nuclear Blast America, Millersville, PA 717.397.9221 Before I say anything else, I must reach my open hand out to y'all and give you a well-deserved pat on the back. Amorphis' Tales From The Thousand Lakes debuted at number 8 on the Concrete/SoundScan Top 10 Independent Releases between Yngwie Malmsteen and Nailbomb. Keep spinning that Tales... disc! Other discs to jump-start your saliva glands include: Disrupt, Unrest (anyone in the mood for rebellion?); Merzbow, Venerology (extreme noise for extreme minds!); and Exit-13, Ethos Music ("fatty bakin', groove makin', eco-thinkin' grindheads"). Wow! And it's not even Christmas! Incantation will be casting their evil spell over audiences through August 23rd with Anal Cunt, Gutted, Morpheus Descends and Afterlife. In support of their Grotesque/Ashen Epitaph EP, Benediction is touring with Bolt Thrower through the beginning of next month. Call me for specifics. Don't forget, I want to see playlists on my desk from all of you. I want to know how the stuff I'm sending you is doing. Let me know.

Casey Dunmore, Century Media Records, Santa Monica, CA 310.396.0094 OK, here's the situation...it's gonna be brief and to the point. There's been a lot going on around here, but all you need to know is this: the NEW Demolition Hammer, Graveyard Rodeo and Puncture are coming your way! Add dates for these records are going to be for the 22nd and 23rd of August. For those of you who don't already know, D. Hammer is now a power trio, featuring Alex Marquez from Malevolent Creation. Graveyard Rodeo has taken on an all new line-up as well, as a new sound. Last, but not least, is Puncture straight outta Texas (hmmmm...)—check these boyz out if you're into that industrial thang! Just a quick note, Chaos U.K. and Eyehategod are doing a walk-a-thon across the states, and they're occasionally stopping at some clubs to play. I won't get into details here, but call me and I'll tell you more! Ya better hurry, 'cause they're half done. Also, if any stations out there are into (check this metal labeling out) Black/Viking Metal (scary, ain't it?) feel free to drop me a line, so you can receive a copy of Emperor & Enslaved split EP. That just about does it... 'cause...I'm not havin' it! 'ecaep
