MECCA NORMAL Sitting On Snaps

Matador, 676 Broadway, 4th Fl., New York, NY 10012
212.995.5882

Few bands poking around the indie scene can be singled out for creating something entirely their own, rather than producing an assemblage or reshuffling borrowed sounds. The beautifully potent songs of guitarist David Lester and vocalist Jean Smith stand cleanly in that rare arena. Over the course of seven albums (one a singles collection), the Vancouver duo has mined its singular sound: a taut melding of Lester's sinewy, impressionistic guitar playing and Smith's poetic, combative wails and whispers that's charged in more ways than one. This time around the two broaden their canvas, including guest pianist Peter Jefferies on two cuts, and take their own raw sound to new, spine tingling levels. The opening cut, "Vacant Night Sky," is padded with Jefferies' piano playing and strummy guitar, and the first words out of Smith's mouth are "This is not what it's supposed to be," a sure warning that Sitting On Snaps is something more than what you expect. The LP winds down with the frenetic grind of "Gravity Believes," and in between Mecca Normal lets us peek at the guitar-stretching "Frozen Rain," "Only Heat," "Trapped Inside Your Heart" and "Cyclone." LYDIA ANDERSON

LOIS Bet The Sky

K, P.O. Box 7154, Olympia, WA 98507 206.786.1594

The 10 new songs on Bet The Sky are certainly more amiable than cathartic, yet Lois Maffeo proves that you don't necessarily need to be heart-wrenching to give listeners a glimpse of your character or skill. Lois hardly strays from the acoustic sound of her past work, choosing only a few instruments and chords as if they were as close to her as the friends who play on and put out her records. All of the music on Bet The Sky is made with little or no amplification or overdubs, suggesting the songs within are meant only for small, manageable audiences (if not just a solitary listener). As a musician, Lois sings and plays guitar just well enough to get these songs across, but it is her gut feeling about pop that propels her songs past those from a host of naive popsters. The inherent prettiness in her voice makes her buoyant songs ("Shy Town" and the clever "Transatlantic Telephone Call") delightfully infectious; the songs are brisk and airy, but never insubstantial. Track down the Shy Town EP for four extra tracks (recorded by Ian MacKaye) and enjoy these other sure bets from the LP: "Charles Atlas," "Flamer," "The Western," "February 15," and the songs above. STEVE CIABATTONI

MEDESKI MARTIN & WOOD

Friday Afternoon In The Universe

Gramavision, c/o Rykodisc, Shetland Park, 27 Congress St., Salem, MA 01970 508.744.7678

Medeski Martin & Wood's music slides rather easily into the jazz category simply by its improvised, instrumental nature. But the New York City-based trio scales great heights with its sly and funky melange that ranges from avant garde to bebop. Obvious take off points for Friday Afternoon In The Universe include the sublime trio work of Hammond B-3 master Jimmy Smith, Sun Ra's interplanetary excursions, Frank Zappa's dadaist fusion and the on-the-one funk of James Brown, yet keyboard player John Medeski, percussionist Billy Martin and bassist Chris Wood carve their own niche with their uncommon improvisational interplay. KITCHENS OF DISTINCTION Cowboys and Aliens

One Little Indian, c/o A&M, 1416 N. LaBrea Ave., Hollywood, CA 90028

An eternity has passed since we last heard from these Brit popsters. Relief has arrived in the form of Cowboys And Aliens, which affirms Kitchens Of Distinctions' tenacity over a near decade-long career. Maturity suits the Kitchens well though, and they flaunt it in a number of conspicuous changes. Longtime producer Hugh Jones has departed, leaving knob-twiddling duties to the band's live soundman, who succeeds ably. The presence of background vocals immediately distinguishes this record from its three predecessors, yet a far more significant evolution has occurred: Guitarist Julian Swales has mothballed some of his galactic effects pedals for a more traditional sound that is less shimmery, but no less powerful. And while these are welcomed refinements, the familiar frank narratives of passion and heartache penned by frontman Patrick Fitzgerald remain happily untouched. He poetically depicts a universe of lust and sinful delight, where fantasy ("I'll get the pencils/We'll draw ourselves a new world") triumphs over staggering reality ("When you're in love/You have someone to hit"). The soundtrack to your orgy on Mars: "Sand On Fire," "Thought He Had Everything," "One Of Those Sometimes Is Now," and "Pierced." STEVE SAVOCA

Sub Pop

Radio Chart Position: #19

Pond's sophomore release is certainly not suffering from any kind of slump, capturing the #1 Radio Breakthrough this week and debuting at #19 (not to mention a snug #37 debut on the Retail chart). This Portland, Oregon, band's intriguing blend of melody and noise, as well as some surprising harmonies, make it a standout from the morass of releases waiting for stations after the break, and obviously those who listened liked what they heard. Stations practicing some joy in their top fives before classes start include: KCSU, KSCU, KTOO, WASU (#1), WBMB (#1), WGLS, WHRW, WLOZ, WMEB, WXJM and WXOU.

ON THE CHART This week's chart brings more stations back into the fold, pushing Trauma-Interscope's Bush (3-1) to the top, as well as advancing the chart positions of Geffen's Stone Roses (9-2) and Sire-Reprise's Throwing Muses (12-3). The remainder of the top 10 all drop somewhat, with the exception of Warner Bros.' R.E.M. (11-9), which re-enters the upper echelon. Big jumps this week come from Matador's Bettie Serveert (44-15), Grass-Dutch East India's Brainiac (113-18) and World Domination's Low Pop Suicide (89-22). A little further down we see some bold movement from Circa-Virgin's Massive Attack (125-59), whose new album surfaces next week, Sub Pop's Zumpano (146-62), Priority's Sons Of Elvys single (117-64) and CMJ cover star Lois, whose new EP climbs 139-65 while her new LP for K waits in the wings. Top debuts this week include Sub Pop's Pond (#19), 4AD-WB's Wolfgang Press (#32), One Little Indian-A&M's Kitchens Of Distinction (#37), Sire-WB's Fossil (#46) and Giant-WB's Certain Distant Suns (#56).

#1 BREAKTHROUGH

ROOTS

Do You Want More?!!!!!!!

DGC

Retail Chart Position: #19

Taking the chart by surprise as this week's #1 Breakthrough are DGC's Roots. The Philadelphia-based group describes itself as "organic hip-hop jazz" in the intro to its debut record, Do You Want More?!!!!!!!.

The band's minimal use of samples (a rarity in the hip-hop world) insures the Roots' live performances will captivate more audiences than hip-hop's more typical arrangement of pre-recorded music, side stage DJ and rappers around the stage. Like Dign Dign, the Roots have put a spin on hip-hop, creating a groove that's proving very popular with consumers.

ON THE CHART

This week Geffen's Stone Roses leap to the #1 spot, knocking Epic's Pearl Jam out of its steady position. Reprise's Green Day holds onto #3, as Island's Cranberries gain a bit of ground (6-5). Sire-Reprise's Throwing Muses (65-7) finally reap the benefits of all the In-store play they have been receiving. Kill Rock Stars' Mary Lou Lord (35-18) has been creating quite a buzz with her first EP and is receiving a good deal of In-store play. DGC's Roots makes an impressive debut at #19 (see #1 Breakthrough), while 550 Music-Epic Soundtrax's Higher Learning (25-20) soundtrack is still climbing up the chart. Island's Melissa Etheridge witnesses yet another surge of popularity, jumping from 67-30, as does Sub Pop's Sebadoh (re-entering at #31), Up's Built To Spill (re-entering at #39) and Virgin's Massive Attack (re-entering at #46). New on the charts this week: Sub Pop's Pond (#37), Little Brother's Minutemen tribute Our Band Could Be Your Life (#49), Geffen's Pat Metheny Group (#50), Warp (UK)'s Black Dog (#59), MCA's This Is Fort Apache (#62), Wax-Trax!-TVT's KMFDM Vs. Pig (#65) and Epitaph's Wayne Kramer (#67). The In-store buzz on Bettie Serveert, Wolfgang Press and Zumpano is high. (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

HONKIES Who Eats?

Megaphone, P.O. Box 2982, Baltimore, MD 21229
410.646.0047

The Honkies leap out and howl with the urgent abandon of the kindred Dog Faced Hermans and God Is My Co-Pilot, but unlike those bands, there's barely a trace of "rock" anywhere to be found. This group of saxes, trumpet, bass and drums borrows from jazz, but at the same time never plays the game by conventional jazz rules. The angular songs and melodies descend from the traditions of '60s revolutionaries Albert Ayler and Ornette Coleman, spitting out riff after crazy riff, rather than using melodies to jump off into improvisation. Cries of anger, joy and hilarity are yelled, honked, and banged out with a peculiar logic on "Suit Yourself," "Happy Eater," "Doggerel" and "Dance In Mad Shoes." Elsewhere, "Don't Bring Flowers" recalls Sun Ra, with a clamorous chant and over-the-top outer-space reverb, "Inguish" is a warped, wobbly funk dish with a mouthful of saxophones, and the inspiration of the bizarre "Who Eats?" is anyone's guess (Pygmy yodeling? Cooing pigeons? Hallucinogenic drugs?). "Dust Of The Past," ending with a simple repetitive bowed cello and double bass, would be a haunting and elegiac finale for this wild and rambunctious album, except that there's a hidden bonus track where the Honkies sneak back for one last exultant chortle.

WOLFGANG PRESS Funky Little Demons

4AD, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510

The Wolfgang Press started as a gloomy, death-funk kind of band, one which broached no humor in its lyrics nor was it anything but a cruelly cold exercise in rhythm. With the release of its first record in four years, Funky Little Demons, the Wolfgang Press has expanded upon the sound of 1991's Queer, and lightened up to include more pop elements, making the overall effect much less serious. Although the music is more melodic and less dependent on heavy churning rhythm, it still makes you want to dance. All the songs are fully fleshed out, with Michael Allen's husky baritone meandering over the top of the music. The most intoxicating grooves are those which pit the sinuous feel of the music against Allen's rumbling, distant voice. The Wolfgang Press has continued to develop its version of funk throughout its 12-year history, and on Funky Little Demons the band has reached a sophisticated high. Press on: "Going South," "11 Years" and "Executioner." MEGAN McLAUGHLIN

H.P. ZINKER Mountains Of Madness

Energy, 545 Eighth Ave., 17th Fl.,
New York, NY 10018 212.695.3000

H.P. Zinker has obviously spent many a long and late hour poring through intricate passages in the Dungeonmaster's Guide To Art Rock. While its contemporaries mine the retro vein for kitsch or humor values, Zinker seems to have stepped intact through a time portal from the mid-'70s, born from an attitude that says, 'Hey, Neil Peart isn't writing trippy, literary lyrics for Rush like he used to, Hawkwind isn't using those chord progressions anymore, so why can't we?' Mountains Of Madness, the latest effort in Zinker's six-year career, is another sentinel-like opus in the singular career of this Austrian/American hard rock combo. While only the title track and "Stalker" extend past the five-minute mark, shorter numbers like "The Breed" still display the intricate time-signatures and science-fiction inspired lyrics that are Zinker trademarks. Despite our earlier jest about the band's occasional Peartisms, the words in Zinker songs actually carry weight: "Birch" is a serious, meditative statement, while the title track sets a text by H.P. Lovecraft to music whose epic musical twists and turns manage to evoke what Z.Z. Top would have sounded like if it'd been influenced by Samuel Taylor Coleridge's "Rime Of The Ancient Mariner" rather than Mexican border radio. In sum, there's nothing here that wouldn't have sounded perfectly natural on progressive, freeform "underground" radio at 3 a.m. any night 20 years ago, which in its own way is as noble and worthy an ambition as any. A HUNDRED LOVERS

VODU 155 Vodu 155

Mango, c/o Island, 400 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10003

With the eyes of the world focused upon the political and humanitarian concerns of the land of Haiti, the nation's music is also coming to the public's attention, and even on a purely musical level, it's a profound moment. Centuries ago as a chief stopover point for slave ships travelling to the new world, Haiti was one of the first stops for African influence in America, making the tiny island a touchstone for the future of funk, soul, reggae and even hip-hop. An acerbic mix of beats and message, the deep space funk and heady hip-hop-inflected rhymes of Vodu 155's debut mark a new frontier of world music, in which the new glue of hip-hop influence unites urban cultures the world over. It's a different sound, to be sure, a bit more ambitious than most African-American music, but planted firmly in the tradition of funk, soul and hip-hop, only a few rocks in the ocean removed from George Clinton's funk or Bob Marley's vibe—in fact, the title of the lead track, "Vodu Funkadelic," says a lot, while "Lissala" samples Marley's "Iron Lion Zion" to great effect. While most of the planet sleeps on the growing multiculturalism and human rights concerns that will take the center of humanity's stage in the next century, Vodu 155 makes the sort of futuristic funk that points the direction in which the world is really headed. Try the above, plus "Mama Dadu," "Zaka," and "Boom Boom Bip." JAMES LIEN

A.C. ACOUSTICS

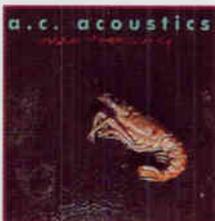

Able Treasury and Hand Passes Plenty (EP)

Trance Syndicate, P.O. Box 49771, Austin, TX 78765 512.454.3265

The Glasgow-based quartet A.C. Acoustics can do just about anything it feels like doing, and do it all the way. The nine tracks on Able Treasury (and the four on Hand Passes Plenty, a more recently recorded EP that's also being issued domestically on Trance Syndicate) show a band capable of dream-droning quietly, sampling dance beats and spoken-word fragments, going into needle-pinning multi-guitar onslaught or setting up sparse, prickly rhythms, and all naturally and fluidly, without showing off its "diversity." There always seems to be a little more going on in the band's arrangements than is strictly necessary, which is good—it means there's more to listen for. Hand Passes Plenty, in particular, sounds like an inspired first-time collaboration between members of five different bands, with a mix that elegantly incorporates vocal samples, well-considered pedal effects and keyboards both cheap and expensive. And for a band as careful with instrumental sounds as A.C. Acoustics, it shows a welcome attention to lyrics, or at least to vocal sounds—there's some neat wordplay going on in "Hand Passes Plenty" and "Love Lies Broken Pieces." Also check out "Leather Buyer," "Sweatlogde" and "Mother Head Sander."

PEOPLE LIKE US Lowest Common Dominator

Staalplaat, P.O. Box 83296

Portland, OR 97283-0296 503.335.0706

People Like Us is mostly a person named Vicki, a London radio show host and sonic pirate/tape manipulator of the highest order. Lowest Common Dominator does not splice samples or lift sounds solely for ironic effect like close relative Negativland; the aim here seems to be more musical and artistic. Track two (Vicki has one name, the tracks have none) must throw a dozen things into the mix that could clash, yet what the listener takes away from it is a dark and meandering groove made from a questionable spectrum of notes. Aside from the last three tracks, which are each over 10 minutes, these collages never go on longer than your average pop song, making even the most peculiar offering (try track five) a digestible curiosity, as if you were strolling casually through a modern art gallery, pausing a minute or two to appreciate the effort even if it were something that irritated the hell out of you. The haunting opening of track nine reminds us how powerful this medium can be—able to unnerve a listener with just audio is no small feat indeed. Keep the lights on and enjoy.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Volume 12

Volume (UK), c/o Triage International, 30 Vandam St., 3rd Fl., New York, NY 10013 212.989.4545

Volume 12 offers the series' usual overview of what's hot on the wet isle of England, a natural balance of electronic and rock music, including some selections that happily blur the edges.

Node, an electronic outfit featuring hot producers Flood and Ed Buller, starts things off with the lengthy mood-heavy "Olivine," which, like the work of the Orb and Aphex Twin, infuses electronic music, played on vintage equipment, with a warm human touch. Massive Attack slides in with an instrumental take on its LP track "Karma Corna," a dub-wise Mad Professor remix. Moby's "What Love?" is anything but a hand-waving club anthem; instead he's armed with an electric guitar and industrial beats, and ready to take out Trent Reznor in fist-to-fist combat. Prolapse rides similarly churning rhythms, which make a perfect backdrop for the snarling vocal tradeoff of Linda Steelyard and Mick Derrick. Further blurring the dance/rock distinction are Laika's new track "Lower Than Stars," a spacious dub cut frosted with Margaret Fiedler's whispered vocals, and an even more expansive track by Sonic Boom's experimental project E.A.R., which is keenly balanced by a submission from former fellow Spaceman Jason Pierce's Spiritualized. All this, plus 11 more tracks, scads of reviews and articles and lots of sharp British wit. LYDIA ANDERSON

LOCAL H Ham Fisted

Island, address above

It doesn't take many people to make a big noise—Illinois' Local H consists of two people, but makes a racket that mushrooms out as if there were five or six folks involved. The band goes for the big, anthemic move whenever it can, on the principle that shouting a chorus is more memorable than just singing it. Singer/guitarist Scott Lucas knows how to make the most of his voice (listen to his Nirvana-fied rasp in the crest-and-crash of "Sports Bar"), and power-chords and power-solos his way through every track—on the songs without bass, you don't miss it at all. Drummer Joe Daniels complements him nicely, bashing away unsubtly enough to fill in whatever gaps the guitar leaves. Local H also has lots to say about the rest of the rock world: "Grrrrfriend" is a nod to Kathleen Hanna, "Mayonnaise And Malaise" takes on fast food and the Smashing Pumpkins at the same time, and "Chicago Fanphair"'s subject isn't tough to figure out. Check out "Feed" (with a screamed chorus of "I don't need my ego fed"), "Bag Of Hammers" and the frothing-at-the-mouth "Skid Marks."

CRASH WORSHIP Triple Mania II

Charnel House, P.O. Box 170277,

San Francisco, CA 94117-0277 415.664.1829

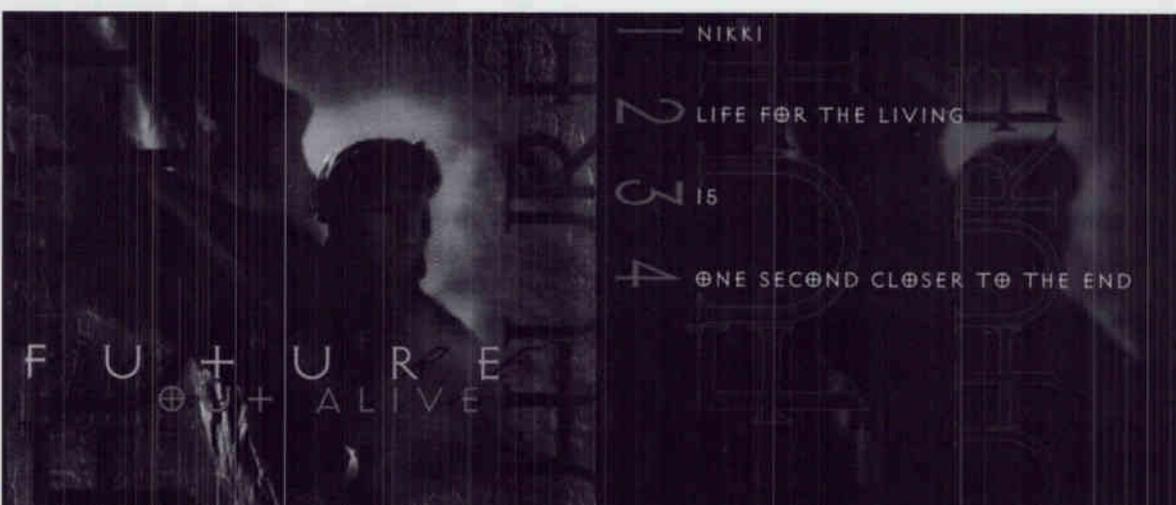

Crash Worship has an edge, both inside and out. The incredible three-fold packaging, decorated with screen printed copper foil, is the first indication that Triple Mania II is not exactly cut from a mold. The album transports the listener to an abstract world, as if it were a soundtrack to a surreal film. An assault of primitive rhythms, relentless from start to finish, provides the background for a quarry of noises, ranging from psychedelic gurglings to desperate roars. The few and scattered lyrics are mutated, distorted grumbles that ride the waves of drum beats. Triple Mania II is a vehicle, taking the concentrated listener to the end of the imagination realm, perhaps to a jungle chase or a pagan ritual. Individual songs are of little importance as the album works as a whole, from the packaging to the last track, there is an exciting unpredictability. DAWN SUTTER

PRICK Prick

Nothing, c/o Interscope, 10900 Wilshire Blvd. #1230, Los Angeles, CA 90024

Much of the eponymous debut from Prick proceeds full-force with a slam-it-in-your-ears approach to electronic rock, with drum samples pulsing away wildly amid scratchy, distorted guitar and overdriven vocals. What separates Prick from the rest of the electro-rock pack is that the band adamantly refuses to get stuck in repetitive grooves or carried away with simple run-on rhythms. Rather, it often manifests a carefully applied sense of dynamics, creatively cutting and pasting different rhythmic breaks together or sometimes even going so far as to place such organic elements as acoustic guitar prominently in the mix. Perhaps one of the album's most compelling tracks is the second side opener, "No Fair Fights," which begins with an aquatic-sounding synthesizer and softly enunciated vocals, then metamorphoses into a distorted, electrically-frenzied anthem. Another surprising turn comes when the more traditional "Crack" serves up a vicious classic rock meal complete with roomy, Bonham-esque drums and real-miked guitars. Other piercing tracks: "Riverhead" and "Communique." AARON CLOW

LILYS Eccsome The Photon Band

spinART, P.O. Box 1798, New York, NY 10156-1798
212.343.9644

Calling Kurt Heasley "the only stable member of the Lilys" might be overstating things a bit. Still, he's the only person who's appeared on all the band's records; on Eccsome The Photon Band, he's backed up by Poole's Harold Evans and a few guest musicians, but his blurry, fluorescent guitar playing absorbs most of the album's free space. This is the Lilys' most idiosyncratic and best record to date; most of its songs are almost tauntingly slow, with

Evans' drums the only crisp element in the mix, blanketed by free-drifting tones and drones, and by Heasley's never-resolved melodies. "Radiotricity" (track 12—the album includes four unlisted noise pieces that can throw off counting) and especially the percussion-hooked "The Hermit Crab" (track 7) are the most immediate pop songs here, but the furthest-out songs are ultimately the most rewarding. "The Turtle Which Died Before Knowing" (track 6) begins with 2 1/2 minutes of almost inaudible guitar fuzz before the rest of the song zooms in, as if it were a dub mix, then relies on the fuzz as the pulse of the piece even more than the drums; "Overlit Canyon (The Obscured Wingtip Memoir)" (track 9) drops beats, then slowly reassembles itself into new rhythms. If snow made music as it melted, it might sound like this. DOUGLAS WOLK

BOB WISEMAN In By Of

Bar/None, P.O. Box 1704, Hoboken, NJ 07030
201.795.9424

Watching Bob Wiseman play with Blue Rodeo, you often had to wonder just what the Hell this eccentric talent was doing there. His jazzily elegiac piano solos, wheezing squeeze box and Hammond B-3 flourishes were the fly in Blue Rodeo's country-rock ointment, doping the band's gin-joint reveries with emphatic odd-ball runs across the keys. You also had to wonder what would happen if he were to cut himself loose from those verse-chorus-verse moorings and set out on his own. In By Of is a compilation of three satisfactions of that curiosity—City Of Wood, Presented By Lake Michigan Soda and In Her Dream, all released in Wiseman's native Canada between 1989 and 1993—and is a gloriously idiosyncratic morass of splintered pop and acoustic avant folk. Sounding like Arlo Guthrie one moment ("Have A Nice Day"), a street-corner version of the Attractions the next ("Gabriel Dumont Blues") and pounding on the low keys of his piano ("City Of Wood") after that, Wiseman runs through his personal gamut with creative abandon. Wiseman's brilliance is always in flashes (his voice is occasionally adequate, if affecting in a Daniel Johnston sort of way), which has a way of making his wild creative spark (he also paints when not scoring television shows or touring) all the more awesome. SCOTT FRAMPTON

WAYNE KRAMER The Hard Stuff

Epitaph, 6201 Sunset Blvd. Ste. 111,
Hollywood, CA 90028 213.413.7353

As guitarist for the legendary, indisputably influential MCS, Wayne Kramer was, and still is, revered as one of rock 'n' roll's seminal godfathers. His band's infamous declaration "Kick out the jams, motherfucker!" has served as an anthem for countless punk luminaries including The Clash, Black Flag and the Ramones, and this dangerous, badass spirit remains Kramer's strongest ally on The Hard Stuff. Supported by his rip-roaring, nose-to-the-concrete guitar style, Kramer's debut solo outing is fleshed out by a variety of old and new school punks alike (Bad Religion, Circle Jerks, Claw Hammer, Rancid, the Melvins, etc.), yet remains very much a straightforward summation of not only Kramer's life, but the enduring attitude that he germinated with the MCS. A cursory listen to "Crack In The Universe," "Poison," "Hope For Sale" or "Sharkskin Suit" quickly dismisses any notion that Kramer has lost his vital urgency or razor-sharp chops, or that gritty, streetwise rock 'n' roll should be reserved for only those under 30. SWANS The Great Annihilator

Invisible, P.O. Box 16008, Chicago, IL 60616
312.808.0222

Though the Swans have been on a three-year hiatus, 1995 marks the 13th year of their existence, an eternity in terms of alternative bands, most of which quickly fall victim to one trend or another. Perhaps it was the fact that when they emerged in a world of New Wave and jangly guitar groups in the early '80s, their bludgeoning rock of nearly unprecedented volume was already too alien to be part of the rise and fall of any hip sound. Through 11 albums, numerous singles and EPs and more than a few side projects and solo albums, the Swans have modified their work just enough to stay one step ahead of fans and curiosity-seekers alike. The Great Annihilator is a near 70-minute epic collection of the Swans' more recent work, and with moments that are lilyingly ethereal and at the same time gloomy and sorrowful, and beats that are as sinister as they are dancey, it stands as the flipside to the Swans' dark coin. M. Gira's haunting lyrics are as dire as ever when delivered by his foreboding and decadent voice. "She Lives!" tells a perverse tale: "Now I just want to thank you, for going insane/Every second that you suffer, is a loss that I gain." The Great Annihilator is best listened to as a whole, as Gira himself suggests, to fully grasp its scope, but particularly haunting are the aforementioned "She Lives!" and its ominous beat, "My Buried Child," "Where Does A Body End?" and "Mother/Father." DRUGSTORE "Starcrossed" (5")

Honey-Go! Discs (UK), c/o Triage International, 30 Vandam St., 3rd Fl., New York, NY 10013 212.989.4545
English-based Drugstore packs a wallop with its starchy Brit-pop. The band's songs flow like soothing lullabies, due in part to the deep vocals of Brazilian chanteuse Isobel Monteiro. The mood of Drugstore's soft pop recalls Mazzy Star or Britain's latest darlings Portishead, a quality signaling a promising future for the trio. An album is scheduled for release in February on Go! Discs.

GO SAILOR Go Sailor (7" EP)

YoYo, P.O. Box 10081, Olympia, WA 98502
Go Sailor is yet another project of Rose Melberg from the late Tiger Trap (her other band is the Softies). With each release, it becomes apparent that Ms. Melberg has a gift for pop and has been blessed with a voice to match. Go Sailor is moodier than either Tiger Trap or the Softies, sitting on the verge of melancholy. Both songs on the B-side are jangly, touching, naive tributes to love. There is another single from Go Sailor to be released later by Slumberland.

FIGGS/BLOOM "Up The Charts"/"Marita" (7")

Paint Chip, P.O. Box 12401, Albany, NY 12212
518.765.4027
Quite unlike the Figgs' polished studio debut Lo-Fi At Society High, "Up The Charts" is a remarkably raw, rootsy, buzzing guitar-fest, which should delight fans of the band's punkish live shows as well as confirm their place as one of the better young acts to emerge from the Costello/Joe Jackson school of live performance. Bloom (which hails from the same hometown of Albany, New York) spins an equally raw guitar vibe with the R.E.M.-ish "Marita."

SONE "747 (Apogee, Perigee And Dramamine)" (7")

High Mast, P.O. Box 12486, Portland, OR 97212
The Portland band Sone incorporates ultra-low-tech analog synths into its raw, splintery rock with superb results. "747" is a two-chord howl built on a warbling sine-wave pulse, with some cryptic lyrics and deft free-noise at the end. The B-side's "Down At The Expo," a sort of technological sea shanty, is a Suicide-style electric/electronic bomb with a graceful guitar intro as its long, slow fuse.

BIG DRAG "Gotta Let Me Go" (7")

Unclean, P.O. Box 49737, Austin, TX 78765 512.452.9044
The title track of this infectious single is due out on the band's upcoming full-length debut, but it shines brighter as a single than tucked in with a collection of songs. "Gotta Let Me Go" is a quick, two-minute summary of Big Drag's natural instinct for great hooks with its memorable chorus and brief, matching verses. The flip features the band's heavy yet poppy take of a country tune, "I'm A Lonesome Fugitive."

RROPE Rrope

Smilex, P.O. Box 45956, Los Angeles, CA 90045 310.337.0626
It's entirely appropriate that Rrope's debut shares a producer with not only the Thinking Fellers, but also with room-clearing racket-makers Icky Boyfriends. The only common thread throughout this tape is the silly, self-effacing, lopsided, clunky beats and the odd guitar and percussive sounds permeating the band's meandering songs. For a group that has one single and a compilation appearance under its belt, Rrope has an ambitiously broad sense of its sound: one song is full of guitar feedback and wail, the next is a quiet, quirky little piece full of odd sounds and clever lyrics. Little snippets and noises slip by and melodies twist and contort themselves, taking smart hairpin turns, dips and ascents, forcing an active listen to this demon. Taken as a whole, Rrope's output seems doomed to be excessively enigmatic, but considered in more manageable bits and chunks, it illuminates the band's odd and difficult mission, which proves worth the extra effort.

KIP JACKSON

The Untanned Hide Of A Young Cow
Kip Jackson, 138 Brunswick St., Fredericton, New Brunswick, Canada E3B 1G6
The 15-song demo tape by singer/guitarist Kip Jackson is homemade and lo-fi to the point of being primitive, though it's endearingly unpretentious and tremendously effective in places. It's almost entirely Jackson and his acoustic guitar, often speed-altered and double-tracked, triple-tracked or more—"Sabine" builds into two interlocking patterns, each played by its own flotilla of guitars. Jackson's got a peculiar sense of humor (the first two song titles are "Grandmother Waving At A Distance" and "Holy Un-Ironic Use Of The Word 'Holy'"). He also knows the limitations of the home four-track form, and exploits them. "A Little Delirious," while it's more a fragment than a proper song, cranks up the tape hiss under its simple two-chord riff and accents the bed of hiss with overdubbed random notes and string-scraping noise; the Steve Reich samples (!) hiding far behind the strum of "Evolution" are blurred and subtle enough that they intensify the mood of the piece without being noticeable unless you're listening for them. And the simplicity of Jackson's originals works for him, too: "Cover My Soul" sounds more like a traditional song than "Land Of The Silver Birch," which actually is one underneath all that reverb and that final fog of guitar noise.

FLASHBACK

WILLIE BOBO Uno Dos Tres 1-2-3/Spanish Grease Verve, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019

In the mood to do a little boogaloo? Craving a little Latin flavor in your life? Willie Bobo's got the Spanish Grease. These two LPs, from '65 and '66, are the sorts of albums that these session and live pros could knock out in a day; legendary sessionmen like Melvin Lastie, arranger Chico O'Farrill and percussionist Willie Bobo were the pinnacle of Latin jazz pop when they recorded under the suave and hip direction of producer Creed Taylor. But it's also a lot more: Bobo's blend of pop, jazz, soul, and Latin flavors was not only hip for its time—no doubt copies of Spanish Grease lined the shelves of both swinging, well-to-do bachelors and young uptown toughs from the barrio—but ahead of its time as well. Really, they're the missing link between poolside '60s soul and the gritty down-home sounds of '70s funk. "Fried Neck Bones And Some Home Fries" sounds like War would've had the band been around in '66, while "It's Not Unusual" Latinizes the campy Tom Jones period piece into a pulse-quickening mambo. Then there's "Spanish Grease," which sounds like something Uma Thurman and John Travolta would dance to, while "Night Song" sounds like a love theme from a '60s spy adventure flick. Song title of the month: "Boogaloo In Room 802." Considering the demand amongst connoisseurs for these original records of grooves, grease and funky stuff, one can foresee all kinds of wonderful reissue options: how about the Boogaloo Box Set? Best Of Bongos? Tribute albums to Mongo Santamaria and Carl Tjader can't be far behind. Hip tidbit: these days, Bobo's son jams with the Beastie Boys, who immortalized him in the song "Bobo On The Corner" (from Ill Communication).

JOHN COLTRANE Live In Seattle

Impulse! c/o GRP, 555 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019 212.424.1000
In the ongoing quest of every record company to release every scrap of tape in the world with John Coltrane's thumbprint on it, Impulse! has finally rolled out an expanded edition of Coltrane's live recordings from the Penthouse club in Seattle from September 1965. This is roughly between A Love Supreme and Live In Japan, when Coltrane's songs were say, between 15 and 30 minutes long, but not yet up to the 40- and 50-minute marathons found on his later albums, and he was already augmenting his classic quartet with other players. Pharoah Sanders, who ruled in '94 with numerous groundbreaking releases and cameo appearances, screams his way through Live In Seattle's two discs like he's trying to melt the ice in the customers' drinks with his horn. Listen to him here and remember that at that point he was 25, and playing two hours a night shoulder-to-shoulder with one of the giants of jazz. It's interesting to contrast the intro to "Out Of This World" here with the original studio version from a few years earlier; while the opening theme on the version on the album Coltrane is emotive and uplifting, a cry of the spirit, this one is darker, more jagged, McCoy Tyner's chords dashing with the plaintive, soaring melody instead of lifting it up. "Cosmos" sounds like, well, exactly like what you'd expect a free jazz piece named "Cosmos" to sound like, only better; with Elvin Jones kickstarting the universe with his powerful drumplay. At the other end of the spectrum, but also worth examining is the quiet, meditative bass piece "Tapestry In Sound," featuring bassist Jimmy Garrison. Garrison was possibly the most underappreciated element in the classic Coltrane quartet; like John Paul Jones or Bill Wyman, he built a rock solid rhythmic foundation which allowed the rest of the players to fly so high. Rounding out the disc are two pieces not found on the original double-LP package, "Body And Soul" and a 35-minute fragment of "Afro Blue," both welcome additions to Coltrane's legacy.

MARTIN ZELLAR Born Under

Rykodisc, Shetland Park, 27 Congress St., Salem, MA 01970 508.744.7678

You may recognize Martin Zellar's name since he was a founding member and frontman for the Gear Daddies, who garnered an abundance of critical acclaim for their raw-boned brand of American rock 'n' roll. The finely honed sheen and from-the-gut songs of his solo debut Born Under are sure to earn Zellar a great deal more notice. His musical vocabulary varies widely from pedal steel-filled country twang to cello- and acoustic guitar-based mood pieces. His lyrics freeze a moment in time with deft precision or strike the core of an emotion with rare wit. Backed by fellow Minnesotans and musically like-minded members of the Jayhawks and Soul Asylum, Zellar has created a set of music that's moody and spiritual yet has the earthy touches of great American rock. Top tracks include "Lie To Me," "East Side Boys," "Problem Solved," "Force A Smile" and "Let Go." JIM CALIGIURI

WALLY PLEASANT Houses Of The Holy Moly

Miranda, P.O. Box 1024, East Lansing, MI 48826 517.224.1384

Randomly breaking the unwritten rules of folk rock is not for the dim-witted or weak of heart, so Wally Pleasant must have a head of stone and a heart of steel. His music is undoubtedly folksy, but, like Bob Dylan, who alarmed people when he went electric, Pleasant stands apart from the crowd by being radically different. There's no one on the scene today with Pleasant's whacked-out global vision, neurotic sense of melody and joyous sense of humor. On Houses Of The Holy Moly, his third self-released album of acoustic music and social commentary, Wally's off-the-cuff lyrics still recall the wide-eyed innocence of Jonathan Richman crossed with the lyrical wit of Loudon Wainwright III, updated for, as he calls them, the "AlternaTeen" nation. The sentiments of "Stupid Day Job" are universal, "Denny's At 4:00 A.M." is a delightful stoner's vision, and "Post Graduate Overeducated Out Of Work

Blues" achieves the difficult task of making you think and rock out simultaneously. Pleasant may not be everybody's cup of tea, especially if you don't share his political views, but if we need a court jester on today's oh-so-serious singer/songwriter scene, he more than adequately fits the bill. JIM CALIGIURI

Exploding most common ideas of what a singer/songwriter is or can be, Edward Hamell, a.k.a. HAMELL ON TRAIL, mixes a harsh punk attitude with traditional storytelling and folk blues on his debut Big As Life (Doolittle, P.O. Box 4700, Austin, TX 78765 512.451.5997). While some of the songs here may be a little too noisy for some tamer Triple AAA stations, tracks like "Blood Of The Wolf" and the title track are tuneful, ear-catching and enthrallingly different. Originally from Syracuse, Hamell settled in Austin and has been raising quite a storm there with some riveting performances...Don't miss some new music from a former CMJ Futures pick, New Yorker JONATHAN GREGG, who turns out another sterling collection of songs on Unconditional. Gregg's talent doesn't stop with his ability to write varied pop rock—he's a fine singer and a terrific guitar player, adding pep and edge to the dozen songs on Unconditional. Any major-label songwriter would kill for songs as solid as "A Bit Of Ms. Jones," "Take Him Away" or "Shades Of Blue." Anyone digging John Hiatt, the solid, sweet melodies of Freedy Johnston or the dynamics of the Dave Matthews Band should get in touch with Jagdisc (304 Mulberry St., Apt. Lj, New York, NY 10012 212.941.7884) right now...Cello and acoustic guitar get a workout on the rich debut from JASON & ALISON. Woodshed (Whitehouse, P.O. Box 34363, Chicago, IL 60634 312.583.2526) finds Jason Narducy strumming and singing with Alison Chesley sawing away at her cello. The result is something very un-folk, despite the use of folk instruments. Narducy's songs are brisk and bright, with electric instruments they could be feisty rockers, but the deep vocal harmonies and the sonic depth added by the cello creates something new and refreshing instead, and for that we're happy. STEVE CIABATTONI/JIM CALIGIURI

ON THE CHART As we pick up post-holiday steam and head towards our full battery of reporters, there's starting to be a little bit more action than usual in our chart. First of all, Tarika debuts at #13 with the revamped combo's latest offering for Xenophile-Green Linnet. Directly beneath them, Senegalese string wizard Mansour Seck moves 22-14, as he continues to rack up impressive points with his N'Der Fouta Tooro Vol. 1, courtesy of Stern's. With his occasional partner Baaba Maal reigning at #1, it's nice to see the great Seck get some recognition, too. The soundtrack of the moment has to be Caroline's Latcho Drom, which moves impressively 20-11. Other debuts of note this week: Xenophile-Green Linnet's La Musgana (#17), Stern's Saadou Bori & Moussa Poussy (#19), Shanachie's Guo Yue & Joji Hirota (#23) and RealWorld-Caroline's latest compilation, Arcane (#25).

WADADA LEO SMITH Kulture Jazz

Everyone who has a personal involvement in music experiences a few transcendent moments that come back to them forever. One of mine was during a live, on-air concert series I co-produced at WYBC in New Haven about 10 years ago. The show was outdoors, it was threatening to rain, the crowd was impatient, and the band was extremely late arriving. We had no sound check, in fact, virtually no setup. But Leo Smith, nonplussed by the whole thing, walked onto the stage without introduction, surrounded by incomplete drum kits and unplugged mic cables and proceeded to BLOW. Minute by minute, as the ensemble got hooked up, they joined in, and in a few minutes we were treated to one of those moments that stretched first into an hour and eventually into a lifetime. Seemingly aloof and disconnected, Smith had brought the audience into his personal, mystical aural world.

Kulture Jazz is that kind of cool but personal experience. It is a solo effort, wave after wave of overdubbed musical observations that traverse jazz, African folk, blues and classical music with ease, grace and slow burning energy. He plays trumpet and flugelhorn, adds koto, mbira, bamboo flute, percussion and vocals. Each are just an extension of his inner voice, a tool for searching, and the album is a sort of musical archeology site that uncovers small, revealing mysteries about the world's music.

PAUL MOUNSEY Nahoo

Iona, 27-29 Carnoustie Pl., Scotland St., Glasgow G5 8PH Scotland

In last week's edition of the World Music Charts, this record was included with only the identification of (Scotland/Brazil). That made it irresistible, so I sought out and found Nahoo just to satisfy my curiosity. And curiosity certainly is the right word for this. Working in Brazil with local musicians, and equipped with a pile of archival recordings of old Scots singers, Mounsey went at the task of tracking together a modern concept album that is alternately as sublime as pop music gets and as stupid as dance music can be. In the wake of three Mouth Music albums this may not seem so adventurous, but there are moments to match anything the "other" Scots innovators have done. On a scale of one to 10, I'd give it an eight...and a two.

Subject: Fooled ya!

Dear Cliff

Just opened CMJ. Thanks very much for the Tarika review. You made a nice mistake in the review which actually pleases me very much! You mention a kit of more standard drums. In fact, this was the first [Tarika] record which doesn't use a kit of standard drums! What I set out to do in the studio was build up the effect of the constituent parts of a conventional drum kit with all-Malagasy percussion: the big aponga or djembe working like a kick drum, smaller aponga as toms, the korintsana (shakers) as hi-hat etc. It's all traditional hand percussion except a borrowed snare for the 'hiragasy' style drumming on 'Safidy.' We were pleased with the way it worked and they've subsequently been building more live arrangements that way—they have a great new Salegy which is all acoustic (apart from the bass guitar) but drives like a full electric band! Obviously my amateur production efforts worked as well as I hoped if it convinced you there was a drum kit in action: I'd be interested to know what you think the next time you play it with this information in mind!

Best wishes,
Ian Anderson

JACKPOT

MANSOUR SECK
N'Der Fouta Tooro Vol. 1
Stern's, 598 Broadway,
New York, NY 10012
212.925.1648

You know his sound but you may have missed his name as he hides in the background on recordings and stands to the side, playing his guitar in concerts by his far more famous partner, Baaba Maal. But Mansour Seck has always been a part of the innovative search for new roots that is at the heart of the African music boom of the last two decades. As co-founder and the driving rhythmic force behind Dande Lenol, Seck has quietly revolutionized the music of Senegal. On N'Der Fouta Tooro we finally get to hear him in the forefront, in an all acoustic recording of his own compositions and arrangements, and featuring his vocals as well as those of Mauritanian master singer Ousmane Hamady Diop and, on one exceptional track, his partner and friend of 40 years, Baaba Maal.

This is one of those recordings that will grow with every listen. The diverse sound created from the raw materials of guitar, kora, ngoni and percussion is enriched by the voice of northern Senegal, the voice of the griot. Members of Dande Lenol lend instrumental support on an album that was lightly produced and recorded in Dakar by the ubiquitous Ibrahim Sylla. There is an intensity to this music that cuts through any cultural barrier, a potency that calls up the spirits of the past and the hope of the future. This is living folk music, growing and daring to expand rather than restrict the soul of the artists who make it. In the same way that Baaba Maal has brought the technology of the future into the music of the past, Seck has brought the tools of the past into music of the future.

Do You Want More?!?!?!?

DGC, 9130 Sunset Blvd.,
Los Angeles, CA 90069

Hip-hop's love affair with its older jazz relative has been mostly a novel experiment up to this point. While more and more hiphoppers are paying respects and performing musical analogies between the two musics, the results—no matter how adventurous—reveal certain limitations and pose questions, such as: How creative can one get by juxtaposing samples and beats and rhymes? All answers are rendered pointless after hearing what Philadelphia's Roots have made a reality on Do You Want More?!?!?!?. On the surface, the Roots fit nicely into the jazz/rap rubric; they have all the main ingredients to catch wreck on both levels: The dauntless, improvisational raps provided by Black Thought and Malik B. could hold their own next to a live group (check the scatting on "Essaywhuman?!?!?!?"), while they could just as easily reach out and tear the throat out of any whack MC ("Distortion To Static"). The homegrown jazz backdrops provided by group members B.R.O. the R. ? (drums) and Leonard Hubbard (bass) do not employ samples or even a DJ, but arrange organic funky jazz compositions which prove to be more than something to kick raps over. The sounds you hear are not a new invention, but are more like the results of a rap group inside a jazz group performing as one tight unit, bridging the gaps between jazz and hip-hop better than anyone has before. The Roots draw jazz and rap so close that their self-penned sounds overlap and mix into complex sound designs without sounding busy or contrived, and freely traverse exciting new terrain that will benefit the whole of Black music. Every cut here is a must. □

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

In an unexpected move, Pendulum-EMI's Digable Planets retake the #1 slot from Elektra's Pete Rock & C.L. Smooth, who fall 1-2—somebody at Pendulum must be doing his job. The long-anticipated domestic debut of DGC's Roots presents a stellar fusion of live jazz and hip-hop on Do You Want More?!?!?!?, which is at #3 this week following the successful "Proceed" single. Also movin' on up are Elektra's Brand Nubian (10-4) and Priority's Ice Cube, whose Bootlegs & B-Sides jumps 14-5. Backed by the wildly successful single "Shook Ones Pt. 2" by Mobb Deep, the Nudder Budders EP debuts on this week's Radio chart at #13, while you have to travel way down the chart to discover new entries from Wreck-Nervous' Smif-N-Wessun (#31), Payday/frr-London's Showbiz Feat. AG (#34) and Elektra's Old Dirty Bastard at (#35). Method Man continues to hold down the top spot on the Retail chart, as the debut by Smif-N-Wessun (4-2) climbs two spots and Noo Trybe/Rap-A-Lot-Virgin's Scarface moves The Diary 8-3. As they did on the Radio chart, DGC's Roots make this week's highest debut (#5), as we welcome new releases by Wreck-Nervous' Funkmaster Flex & The Ghetto Celebs (#12) and the soundtrack from Higher Learning at #25. This week's Top Adds: 1) Old Dirty Bastard; 2) Roots; 3) Scarface; 4) Showbiz Feat. AG; 5) In Al Skratz; 6) Method Man; 7) Lords Of The Underground; 8) Street Fighter; 9) Big L; 10) Notorious B.I.G.. VARIOUS ARTISTS The Headrush

Love n' Hemp, 7 Glenwood Ave.,
Bloomfield, NJ 07003 201.429.7075

As illustrated on past compilations such as The Hill That's Real and Herm: Trying To Survive In The Ghetto, new voices trying to be heard in the overstocked hip-hop arena need to represent and show a diversity or style that can stand alone. The city of Newark, New Jersey, has long since struggled with all the strikes of inner city life, including riots, as well as sitting in the long shadow of Manhattan. The artists contributing to The Headrush comprise an angry mob looking to show the rest of their hip-hop peers that Newark can come as rough and tumble as the next city. The 14 artists here don't allow much diversity between their styles, as sludgy bass lines and lazy funk grooves dominate most of the cuts. The Headrush's first single, "Ain't Tryin' To Hear It," comes from 2PM (2 Poor Muthaphuckas) and is among the compilation's more accessible moments, cruising even-toned raps with a reliable, soft groove in tow. The duo also delivers the cut "I'm 2 Small," designed to inspire one to achieve despite obstacles and pitfalls—an ethic which is at the core of this compilation. Try these on for size: Murder One's "Eeezoff," Madman's "When I'm Gone" and Orfinz's painfully frank "Audio Retards (A&R)."

US PLUS ONE "Dear Jenny"

Swirl World, 312 Park Ave. South, Ste. 1620,
New York, NY 10010 212.533.3135

There is something about hearing an MC flow clear, penetrating old-school rhymes which, when coupled with the perfect beat, lock together in perfect sonic symmetry. Popcorn and Quick Da Barbarian's complementary rapping is the focal point of Us Plus One, and on "Dear Jenny" they remind us of the days in rap when artists didn't worry much about securing sampling clearance when constructing a song (circa 1988), a freedom allowing for some infectiously entertaining cuts. "Dear Jenny" takes a healthy serving of Ray Parker Jr.'s "You're The Only One I Love" and spins it around lyrics paying tribute to Popcorn's girlfriend, who was a victim of the Long Island serial killer, Joel Rifkind. Despite its function as a release for Popcorn's feelings of loss and sorrow, the track is oddly upbeat and lively. Also included are "J.E. Double N Why?," which samples Herb Albert, and "For All My People Locked Down," which is chunky and sweet to the taste.

HIP-HOP IN ESPAÑA

One of the most intriguing packages received by the Beat Box section in recent memory came all the way from Spain, where hip-hop is starting to have an impact. The package contained a CD by the group EL CLUB DE LOS POETAS VIOLENTOS entitled Madrid Zona Bruta

(Yo Gano, P.O. Box 7135, Madrid, 28080 Spain 34.1.530.88.43). While a developing hip-hop underground has been steadily on the rise in Spain, Yo Gano is the first Spanish label dedicated entirely to hip-hop music. El Club is a six-man, multi-cultural crew whose Spanish raps won't sound threatening to any Brooklyn-bred MC—they often sound like a frog-throated auctioneers—but they do show how well the Spanish language flows over hip-hop rhythms. The disc's biggest asset is the special attention that's been paid to production. The sound is somewhat reminiscent of where American hardcore/political rap was post-It Takes A Notion Of Millions To Hold Us Back (Public Enemy). DJ Jota Mayúzcua lends plenty of scratches to the cuts (especially "La Fundacion De La Rima"), while the swings between noise-filled hardcore and smooth sizzling funk sound intuitive and natural, making the overall effect stimulating and eclectic. The deliberate-sounding pre-school raps, however, could use a little more work. My favorite cut is "Sanchez," which repeats: "Sanchez in de house!" Viva España!

MASSIVE ATTACK Protection

Virgin, 338 N. Foothill Road, Beverly Hills, CA 90210

Massive Attack's debut album, Blue Lines, in 1990 seemed to encompass and somehow transcend everything that was affecting dance-based music in their native Bristol, England. Since then, the scene has widened to include greater dub and ambient nuances (highlighted by artists like Tricky and Portishead), which core-members 3-D, Mushroom and Daddy-G utilize on Protection effectively. This work is much more about mood, hazy layerings of portly vibes and the exotic and seductive melodies that make a record like this stark and enchanting. With Shara Nelson making solo records nowadays, Nellee Hooper produces new voices like Tracey Thorn (Everything But The Girl) on the title track, whose understated luster is a harmonious match. Protection never breaks out of mid-tempo, hypnotic rhythms, but makes up for that with stunningly intimate pop undertones and a heart you can feel beating over the album's 10 tracks. Dance music that has never sounded so passionate. Settle into the groove: "Karmacoma," "Weather Storm," "Spying Glass" (which features Horace Andy reworking his reggae jam, "Spy Glass") and the deep breaths of "Heat Miser." GLEN SANSONE

Give 'Em Enough Dope Volume One

C&S, c/o Micmac, 166 Fifth Ave., New York, NY 10010

This hard-grooving collection of licensed tracks from British and Austrian labels is the fourth release for the C&S label which is swiftly creating an image as being a player in the jazz-meets-soul-meets-funk (we're just trying to avoid saying "acid jazz") genre. On C&S' Street Jazz compilations, there were a limited number of previously unreleased songs to choose from. Give 'Em Enough Dope does an admirable job at showing just how finely this genre of music can be splintered. Ski's "(Ain't Gonna)

Justify" is submerged in an uptempo groove and meanders through ambient sidetracks with vocals appearing just long enough to sing the song's title. However, the Brand New Heavies/Sly Stone-flavored track by Children Of Judah's "To The Bone (Let's Get Stoned)" relies heavily on vocal arrangements to propel the rhythm. Marden Hill's "Get Some In" seems modestly influenced by the late '80's acid house boom, but disguises it well, while the Afro-Cuban aesthetic is well-defined on Soft Sugar Productions' "Cubop," and Kruder And Dorfmeister's "High Noon" tosses in harmonica and a bit of "Blue Moon" over the lavishly brushed rhythm. SINGLE FILE

Her name is being passed around the industry as one of the most dynamic and exciting new voices in black music. Dionne Farris' first single from Wild Seed - Wild Flower entitled "I Know" (Columbia, S50 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211) is a fine example of what is also making her hybrid of musical styles so tough to categorize. The single release features both mixes that are included on the album, as well as an acoustic, slide guitar blues version on which she lets her soulful vocals run freely...The second single from Brandy's self-titled debut, "Baby" (Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019) will follow the gold-selling single "I Wanna Be Down," which instantly made Brandy a serious contender in the overcrowded female R&B genre that was lacking a leader. The 12" single features only one remix ("All Star Party Mix"), but you could expect more to follow in the near future. □

NAKED RHYTHM Fatbox

Massacre, 11526 Burbank Blvd., #6,
North Hollywood, CA 91601 818.763.8397

Just as its name implies, Naked Rhythm delivers an emotive, uninhibited blend of rhythmic styles with a rousing sense of reckless abandon on its debut LP, Fatbox. The album also marks somewhat of a debut for Massacre Records, as this is the first alternative/metal crossover band ever to join the label's roster of heavier-than-hell artists, including Sickening Gore and Spudmonsters. Holding absolutely no regard for any specific musical genre guidelines, Fort Lauderdale, Florida's Naked Rhythm delves deep into a swirling groove spattered with rippling pop/punk/rock overtones. Overflowing with numerous crossover possibilities, Fatbox either rocks and rumbles with dense, chugging grinds ("Eyeballs," "Fuck This Place"), swings and sways with catchy, mainstream/alternative beats ("Break You," "Mountain") or mixes both styles together ("Brown Billy Goat," "My Fault"). A couple more interesting tunes of note that are included on the album, but don't fit into any of the aforementioned categories include the dreamy, melodic croon of "Improv Cafe"—a soft, atmospheric song that puts the listener on stage with the fledgling performer, as sounds of people talking and coughing, spoons tapping and feet shuffling about emanate from the background—and the eerie, moody chime of "Clock," which is interspersed with pained, vocal outbursts and gentle, windswept guitar melodies. Keep your eyes open, because Naked Rhythm will soon be streaking through a record store near you. JENNI GLENN

Identity?! Soundtrack For The Lost Generation

Century Media, 1453-A 14th St., #324,
Santa Monica, CA 90404 310.396.0094

For those of you not familiar with the Century Media line-up, this is a perfect introduction. After being perceived as a tiny-unknown-sole-carrier-of-blood-dripping-death-metal-mayhem for years, Century Media has finally begun to break out of that mold, its diverse collection of amazing artists growing and gaining new fans. Identity?! Soundtrack For The Lost Generation compiles songs from 18 of Century Media's best and brightest stars, new and old alike. Some great new bands to check out:

Atlanta-based, heavy rap-metal-hardcore outfit Stuck Mojo, which contributes two jammin', rough tracks ("Not Promised Tomorrow" and "Propaganda") from its upcoming debut LP, Snappin' Necks, due out next month; Kentucky bluegrass-kickin' hardcore brawlers My Own Victim with "Burning Inside" and "Pushback" from its upcoming debut EP, also slated for a February release; Power-drivin', crushing hardcore grinders 454 Big Block, which features three members from the now-defunct Wrecking Crew and recently lost a lead singer (the search is currently on for a replacement) with the single "Don't"; Devin Townsend (Vai, Front Line Assembly, Wildhearts), who offers up a cool, aggro-industrial track, "Filler..." while he prepares his debut solo album release for later this year. Also check out the songs from already-established artists, including Cro-Mags, Only Living Witness, Demolition Hammer, Grave, Samael and Tiamat. Century Media...it's not just for death anymore. JENNI GLENN

16 VOLT Skin

Re-Constriction/Inkhead, c/o Cargo, 4901 Morena Blvd., Unit 906, San Diego, CA 92117-3432 619.483.9292

Although 16 Volt hails from the Pacific Northwest, you won't find one ounce of grunge-influenced, repetitive power-chord rip-offs on Skin, the band's sophomore effort; instead you'll find pure, adrenalized industrial grind, pelting electronic rhythms and heavy, scorching guitar riffs all held together by tight, intricately-woven melodies. After years of bandmember changes, the apparently solid 1995 line up consists of original founder/vocalist/ songwriter Eric Powell, Jeff Taylor (guitars/sampling), Von VinHasa (drums) and newest addition, ex-Chemlab bassist Ned. Seething with anger and dark antagonism, "Perfectly Fake" begins with a sonic melange resembling evil, hideous laughter only to lurch into a mire of hissed, enraged outbursts of sarcasm—"You're fuckin' perfect/It's so true/You're a fuckin' saint/For God's sake/You're a perfect fake"—set amidst a flurry of noise and catchy, guitar-driven choruses, while "Slow Wreck" bumps and blips through a series of choppy electronics and sharp-edged rhythmic beats. Also check out the chaotic, schizophrenic rip of "Skin Graft," the punk-influenced grind of "Built To Last," the bizarre, instrumental soar of "Bottle Rockets" and the seductive romp of "Downtime II." JENNI GLENN

D.R.I. Live

Rotten, P.O. Box 2157, Montclair, CA 91763-0657 909.624.2332

Those snarling Dirty Rotten Imbeciles are back and in your face once again with the long-awaited Live CD, a compilation of all the band's best songs recorded live during a show at the Hollywood Palladium in 1992. It's all here: classic D.R.I. tunes spanning the band's 10-year (at that time) career; screaming, frothing fans; raw, thrashing hardcore/punk energy, and sweaty attitude seeping from every nook and cranny...a mosh-lovers' wet dream. Live renditions of various songs culled from the Definition, Thrash Zone, 4 Of A Kind and

Dealing With It! LPs come screaming through the speakers like a speed freak with a flaming arrow shot up his ass. Check out D.R.I. fan-favorites "I Don't Need Society," "Thrashard," "Mad Man," "Couch Slouch," "Hardball," "You Say I'm Scum" and "Nursinghome Blues," among a slew of others and, as guitarist Spike Cassidy so nicely puts it in his personal CD liner notes, "Just use your imagination, sit back, close your eyes and don't forget your shoulder pads. Enjoy!" JENNI GLENN

PITCH SHIFTER VS. BIOHAZARD/THERAPY?/

GUNSHOT The Remix War (EP)

Earache, 295 Lafayette St., #915,
New York, NY 10012 212.343.9090

This newest offering from Nottingham, England's industrial/grindcore masters Pitch Shifter features various re-workings of previously recorded Pitch Shifter songs from the band's last album, Desensitized, served up by musical cronies

Biohazard, Therapy? and Gunshot, as well as great, new re-mixes by the Pitch Shifter boys themselves, including "Triad," "NCM," "Diable" and "To Die Is Gain." During this intense fight with Pitch Shifter to become the ultimate victor in the bloody Remix War, Therapy? serves up a frighteningly engaging rendition of "Diable" going head-to-head with Gunshot, which rips through a funk-ed-up, rapped-out, booty-slammin' version of "Triad," while those bad-ass Brooklyn boyz in Biohazard stomp out a menacing, crunchy take on the "Triad" single also. Who's your re-mix hero? JENNI GLENN

UNIVERSAL STOMP "Stomping Of Jake" (EP)

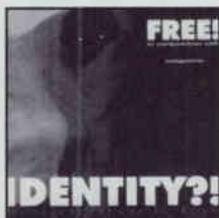

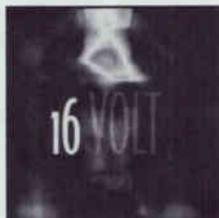

Overture, 23309 Beck Rd., Northville, MI 48167 313.349.0116

Many of you probably haven't heard of this band yet, as "Stomping Of Jake" is Universal Stomp's debut EP...oh, but you will. Just as one would probably expect from the band's name alone, Universal Stomp tramples through a thicket of dense power-grooves, brutal hardcore rhythms and scratchy, rough vocal shouts to form a masterpiece of heaviness that's sure to grab the attention of head-banging fans far and wide. Check out the bold, frustrated crash of "Intolerance," the militant grind of "Circle Of Fear," the fierce growl of "O.E.M." and the winding, twin-guitar assault of "Lost" for an introductory taste of Universal Stomp and, before you even know what happened, you'll be craving more. After the last-listed track ends, stick around while the CD advances to track 13 for some cool spoken word. Keep your eyes peeled for the band to begin touring some time in mid-February and also for the release of the band's yet-untitled, debut full-length recording to hit the streets this spring. JENNI GLENN □

ON THE CHART Well, the durable Plastikman remains in the #1 position this week, and Richie Havrins's forthcoming remix of "Blue Monday" should only solidify his growing status on the chart. Moonshine's Law Of The Jungle compilation continues its strong hold at #2 this week. The Lords Of Acid's latest (6-4) and Instinct's Human Mesh Dance (10-8) each climb two notches, and the top 10 sees two new entries: Moonshine's Ibiza increase in airplay. Afterhours comp (16-9) and Dedicated's Global Communications (13-10), which re-enters the upper caste. The long-dormant N-Joi has re-entered the scene at #17 with its new EP for deConstruction, which continues its rise to prominence with Way Out West's single, making a premiere at #21. Other new entries this week come from Wax Trax!-TVT's Black Box collection at #24 and Reflective's Synoptics compilation in at #25. (RPM REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

DAVE CARLUCCI AND JUNIOR SANCHEZ Rufftrax On Wax (EP)
B.O.P. Bop To The Trax (EP)

Rufftrack, P.O. Box 318, Ironia, NJ 07845 201.927.5845

Over the tiny town of Ironia, New Jersey, two of house music's more eccentric bricoleurs, Paul Scott and Shank Thompson (a.k.a. B.O.P.), have set their sights on underground dancefloors and will stop for nothing. Their debut releases from their Rufftrack label just put Northern Jersey on the hardhouse map with a bang. In its earlier Big Beat days, B.O.P. produced beautiful vocal, garage influenced house. Now, the duo has discovered that whiplash-tight bass strikes and bouncing vocal samples beneath smothering drums will set the most moribund dancefloor alight. Some people think of this new Jersey hardhouse sound as the thinking person's Armand Van Helden. All I care about is that "I'll Find Someone" from the Bop To The Trax EP is the dancefloor equivalent of a Cuisinart on purée, dragging all its wake into a punchy, stentorian explosion. The delayed, staccato vocal opening gives way to a bass line wound tight as a trampoline while the vocal of the title is bounced off the mix like a yo-yo. I can imagine very few dancefloors that wouldn't be driven to distraction by this track. Sanchez and Carlucci's low intensity bass acrobatics on the Ruff Trax on Wax EP demand immediate attention. "Freedom Dub Inside" is an expertly constructed number, with a heavy, pulsing synth breakdown, which slows down like an unwinding clock only to pick up momentum before crashing into the flailing denouement of drums and bass. These two EPs really demonstrate that lo-tech lithe little twisters never really disappeared from the New York/New Jersey underground, they only went in search of new identities. I can't think of a better way to kick off 1995 than two ecstatic, energetic EPs such as these.

ON THE SNEAK TIP

The enfant terrible of the Chicago trax scene, DJ SNEAK has just completed his latest installment of the Sneaky Trax series, Vol. II. Sneak's been picking up quite a bit of remix work since his debut last year. Now, he goes back to his south side roots for a stripped-to-the-bone trax EP that'll have them jacking 'til dawn. "Tricky Sneaky" seems to dangle over the edge of a precipice, its yawning, curled bass lines and lickety-split high hat sprays anchored only by the reliably thick 909 kick drum. "Bangin' It" borrows vocal samples from the now infamous "Bang The Box" by Matt Warren (recently utilized by Richie Hawtin, among others) and turns the snippets upside down and inside out while preserving the distant rumble of Sneak's wide area snare attack. The flip's "Land Of Freeze" is a nifty little click track with a menacing growl, while "Tribal Rhyme" finds Sneak burrowing into those disco archives as he did so expertly on his recent Moon Doggy

EP. Thankfully, he seems to have retreated from his "Booty Call" phase and is heading straight back to the underground (Defiant, 1640 N. Avers St., Chicago, IL 60647 312.342.4350).

POWER MUSIC UPDATE

You have to respect the Power Music posse: they work the phones and the mixing board with a tireless enthusiasm. Their latest ventures include ROY DAVIS' true magnum opus, an album of tracks that will overjoy his followers and no doubt win a few converts. Davis' sheer versatility is quite evident on this splendid collection. The first disc highlights Davis' deeper house learnings, though he can't resist throwing a few drops of acid into the mix when you least expect it. Don't let Davis' light touch on the piano fool you—churning beneath is a maelstrom of bass pulses and swollen keyboard effects. On the second record of the set Davis comes into his own, building deliberate, excoriating acid and bass sequences driven by a percussive momentum that simply never looks back. Of course, Davis is an old pro at these kind of analog machinations, having worked with DJ Pierre in his formulative years. Under the tutelage of Pierre, he certainly picked up a few nasty aural tricks which are on display here, particularly on the furious "Heart Attack" and "Lost In Space." With his spate of releases for Power Music, Davis' maturity is becoming clear, and you can expect a lot more where this came from (Power, 648 Broadway, Ste. 600, New York, NY 10012 212.982.2506).

WHAT A RELIEF VI

When Dj Magazine's house columnist Phil Cheeseman commented that the singles on the Relief label arrived like a breath of fresh air on the house scene last year, I could only nod in agreement. The all-too-familiar vocal, bass line and breakdown formula of house had to be reinvigorated, and Relief was just the label to do it. With its three latest releases, we can see the label's sound moving away from stark minimalism to more dense, complex, moody tracks. Midwestern stalwart TIM HARPER's latest self-titled offering sounds like a midnight trip through the Florida everglades set against a rotating 909 kick drum pattern. Unearthly, juddering sounds and bird cries filter through the bass line on the grimy "Enter The Dragon," while "Eugene Harper" has an almost hallucinogenic quality, its muffled, distant, unintelligible vocal samples juxtaposed with a flat hard bass drum. Strange music for the mind and the body (Relief, c/o Cajual, 1229 N. North Branch #218, Chicago, IL 60645 312.642.8008).

RAVE REVIEW

DJ DEEON Quad (EP)

PLAYGROUND PRODUCTIONS PRESENTS

Low End Theory (EP)

Dance Mania, c/o Barney's, 1345

Roosevelt, Chicago, IL 60622

312.521.6300

If this country's dance underground does not quickly become cognizant of the extraordinary imagination of DJ Deeon, then a real critical lapse will have taken place. There is simply no one else in contemporary dance who can approach Deeon's clairvoyant abilities. These two records are a good five years ahead of everything else around; Deeon's artistic endeavors are yet another manifestation of the trope of the African "talking drum." Deeon's utter mastery of analog drum machines and bass line generators allows him to create music the machines' inventors could never have imagined. One listen to the third track on the A-side of the Quad EP, and you begin to feel that electronic dilettantes the world over should just pack up their equipment and throw in the towel. Honestly, I can't articulate what finally happens when you hear dance music this good, the wholly unexpressed electrifying momentum of this track is just beyond any descriptive strategy of mine. The opener, "I Said C'mon," is a 909 high-hat and high tom drummed exercise which moves like the Concorde. If you're looking for pretty, extended instrumental breakdowns, stay well clear of these two records. These EPs were designed for unrestrained physical movement on an illegally loud sound system, nothing more, nothing less. Already, these are probably the best two dance records of the year.

JAZZ

Leave it to Joe Lovano, the most most respected tenor saxophonist of the under-50 generation, to come out with a new recording that is, at once, his largest and smallest, his most progressive and traditional to date.

Approximately two-thirds of Rush Hour (Blue Note, c/o Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Los Angeles, CA 90028) is devoted to Lovano's orchestral collaboration with the 1994 Pulitzer Prize-winning composer, arranger, educator and historian Gunther Schuller. Schuller, heard on his first Third Stream project (a jazz and European-classical synthesis) with a name jazz leader/soloist in more than a quarter century, penned three new original compositions and orchestrated four pieces from master jazz composers with whom he's been affiliated: Duke Ellington ("Prelude To A Kiss"), Charles Mingus ("Peggy's Blue Skylight"), Thelonious Monk ("Crepuscule With Nellie") and Ornette Coleman ("Kathline Gray"). The Schuller-written or -arranged pieces employ a vast instrumental palette including 16 woodwinds and brass, 15 strings and a core unit comprising maestro Schuller's sons, bassist Ed and drummer George Schuller, plus soprano vocalist Judi Silvano (Lovano's wife) and occasional acoustic guitar and harp.

Schuller, who gets co-leader billing with Lovano on Rush Hour, wisely uses ingenious combinations of strings, winds and brass in varying combinations around soloist Lovano and his core accompanists. Thus, while the orchestrations are often lush, the net effect is neither cumbersome nor overdone. Despite, or perhaps because of, the enormous sound possibilities, small yet telling details stand out, especially the flute obbligatos on "Prelude To A Kiss" by Dick Oatts, Lovano's longtime section mate in the Monday Night (formerly Mel Lewis) Orchestra. Schuller's own "Rush Hour On 23rd Street," sequenced after the tenderly melodious (and airplay-friendly) "Angel Eyes," is an artful exercise in swinging counterpoint that flirts with, yet ultimately avoids, disaster as it suggests cacophony (with all manner of instruments, used percussively) in a manner befitting the song's title.

Verve's young bassist Christian McBride, one of the busiest sidemen today (working with Joe Henderson, Joshua Redman, etc.), makes his debut as a leader, and enters the chart at a very impressive #4, overshadowing respectable chart premiers by hardbop sax veteran Charles McPherson (on Arabesque) at #13, Gramavision-Rykodisc's Medeski Martin And Wood (see review on page 3) at #17 and the new Pablo-Fantasy release by the late guitar legend Joe Pass at #25. After a 14-week stand, former chart-toppers the Jazz Passengers (High Street) took a big fall off the chart from #12 last week. (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

"It was a real challenge not only to play all the music, but to follow Gunther's conducting," Lovano told CMJ, noting that he prefers the term "American music" to Schuller's "Third Stream." Continued Lovano: "Dynamically and tempowise, there's a huge range of colors and accelerandos and diminuendos. Few measures repeat. We did it all in three days. I really had to be in tune with his movements and dynamics as well as listening and playing... Because we didn't overrehearse — we'd rehearse a tune, then record it; rehearse another, then record it — I was just reacting to what I was hearing. It really made me play more pianissimo sometimes than I've ever played. At other times I played more aggressively and stronger because I had someone in front of me pulling it out of me."

Since his emergence on the New York scene, following stints with Woody Herman's big band and organ-combo funksters Jack McDuff and Lonnie Smith, Lovano has kept heady company, responding solidly and empathetically to the needs of the given situation. Reared in the heartlands of America and tutored by his father, Tony "Big T" Lovano, a Cleveland barber who played tenor with a sumptuous tone, Lovano hit Gotham and quickly made a name for himself. Building on his formidable chops, blue-collar work ethic and impressive mainstream-to-bop experience, the tenorman impressed everyone with his team-playing attitude and venturesome post bop inclinations. On his own albums for various labels (Soul Note, and lately, Blue Note) and in drummer Paul Motian's trio, guitarist John Scofield's quartet and bassist Charlie Haden's Liberation Music Orchestra (a live date from Montreux is due from Verve, Lovano says), Joe Lo took the artistic high road. On a personal level, by consensus among musicians, critics and listeners, he's the most unaffected, accessible and affable player on the scene.

Lovano's association with Gunther Schuller dates back to the early '70s, when, as a student at Berklee in Boston, he befriended the maestro's son, Ed, and frequently visited the Schuller household. In recent years Lovano taught with Schuller at the latter's summer music workshops in Sandpoint, Idaho. There he heard Schuller's piano concerto for three hands, a serial-music piece, and decided to approach Schuller about collaborating on an adventurous orchestral recording. Lovano, who had envisioned a large-scale project including the music of Ellington, Mingus, Monk and Coleman, found an eager partner in Schuller, who was primed to return to work following the death of his wife Marjorie (for whom he penned "Lament For M" on Rush Hour). Asked why he chose to team up with the former president of the New England Conservatory, Lovano replied: "Gunther was the perfect choice because he had a relationship with [Ellington, Mingus, Monk and Coleman]. Ellington influenced everybody, especially Mingus, who had a workshop-type band that changed all the time but had a looseness and freshness. You can hear Duke's influence in Monk's playing, especially his piano-trio stuff. Ornette, to me, came almost from another branch of the tree... Gunther's tunes have deep roots in bebop upon an abstract approach to harmonic movement. When Gunther was asked why he hadn't worked with other players for many years, he said, 'Well, no one asked me.' I was the first one to approach him. He's so involved conducting and doing orchestrations, writing books and operas, that he doesn't need to go out and do outside things. People come to him. He poured his heart and soul into this project, and he gave me complete freedom."

In certain respects, especially Lovano's interaction with his wife's voice and the deft combinations of brass, reeds and strings, Rush Hour harkens back to Lovano's septet Universal Language, which made a self-titled CD for Blue Note in 1993. "Juniper's Garden" — Judi nicknamed herself Juniper as a kid and has led her own group called Juniper Voices — is a duet between soprano voice and soprano sax. "Judi," Lovano said of his wife, "has amazing movement with her voice and a soprano range that goes all the way up into the piccolo range but also goes down into the alto and deeper sounds. And she's got great imagination."

As a splendid contrast to the immensity of sound on the orchestral pieces on Rush Hour, Lovano offers his most intimate tunes to date, doing duets with his wife on which, for the first time in his career, he plays bass clarinet and drums. Lovano, who has long maintained that he takes a "percussive" approach to the saxophone, related to CMJ: "I've played drums all my life; it's a passion that has been helpful for direction in my writing. Throughout my career, I've played with a lot of great drummers, and I feel a real connection with them. I can sink into what they're playing, and it changes what I play on the saxophone." □

REGGAE

COMPILATION ROUNDUP

As we slide into the new year, it seems that there are more reggae compilations than ever before to tide us through the long winter months ahead. Seeing that as of this writing there are about 60 days of winter left, and we've only had maybe three of those 40-odd storms predicted by the old Farmer's Almanac, that makes for one storm every two days, so we'll need all the music we can get. (Actually, the compilation glut probably has a lot to do with the fact that individual artists are most likely holding back their new recordings until warmer weather arrives, allowing for touring.) RAS Records (P.O. Box 42517, Washington, DC 20015 301.588.9641) has unleashed a wonderful collection entitled Classic Reggae In A 90's Style, featuring reworked versions of old chestnuts. It's one of those strange "is it old or is it new" compilations that defies explanation but succeeds pleasantly. It's a cliché to say that the process of musical recording is magic, but it is. How else can one wed vintage vocals with today's sound? It's a world where virtually anything is possible, and this compilation is pleasing in an unassuming way...Priority Records (6430 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028 213.467.0151) has several compilations waiting in the wings, and from the advance tapes, they look absolutely killer. Strictly Riddim—Dancehall Volume 1 has some good if slightly shopworn tracks from Mega Banton, Spragga Benz, Buju, Terror Fabulous and Beres Hammond, including a great hip-hop remix of Banton's "Sound Boy Killing." The label's foray into the realm of slackness, Love Punanny Bad, is every bit as wicked as you'd expect from its title, totally lewd, utterly crass, devoid of wit or redeeming value, and one of the best compilations of its kind. It will no doubt sell by the truckload. Betraying its newness (the equivalent of showing up in the dancehall in a new linen suit with the price tag still dangling on it), the label has even included a helpful "Brief Glossary Of Slack/Slackness Terms" to help those who don't know of family doings, punny printers, and batty rider shorts...Dub heads be warned: no one, no one (with the exception of a possible dead-heat tie with my man Ernie B.) knows how to satisfy dubheads and connoisseurs of deep dub better than the folks at ROIR Records (611 Broadway, Ste. 411, New York, NY 10012 212.477.0563). The label has just unleashed a Dub Revolution: UK Roots: High Steppin' To The Future. Significantly, it's the first genuine CD release from ROIR in its history; astute reggae scholars may remember that the label started out as a cassette-only venture and has only recently begun to catch up with the daunting task of converting its copious catalog to CD. Well, Dub Revolution, a worthy and significant addition to the label's illustrious legacy, lives up to all expectations. Unlike so many reggae outings glutting the marketplace these days, it's a compilation with a focus, spotlighting several interesting British practitioners who are rendering new dub creations in a modern style, but one that is still very in touch with the roots of the music. A very fine and worthwhile release...And there's room for one straggler left over from last year—late in the winter Tuff City released its Riddim Riders compilation, collecting jacked-up tracks from the likes of Daddy Screw, Spragga Benz, General TK, Simpleton and the ubiquitous Buju Banton for a simmering pepper-hot concoction. The compilation's subtitle, "Straight From Yard," is accurate and says it all.

FLAMINGOES Plastic Jewels

Pandemonium, Unit 1, Acklam Workshops, 10 Acklam Road, London W10 5QZ U.K. 081.964.3300

Britain could never seriously respond to the seemingly intuitive American impulse of grunge, so the overriding influence of what the U.K. does best—artful pop—is understandable. Blur, Oasis, Elastica, Gene, Pulp, Marion—the list keeps getting longer, with the Flamingoes the latest to make it to notable-debut-album stage. Plastic Jewels sparkles with both fizzing, stamping, pouting pop-rock surges and dewey-eyed ballads, dangling choruses at every turn and crowding in moistened harmonies from twin brothers Jude (guitar) and James (bass) to round off the trio's glam-mod blueprint that got it shoved into the press-contrived New Wave Of New Wave banner. The first three singles are the best place to start, from the gorgeously drawling debut "The Chosen Few" and its B-side "It's Been A Thrill" to "Teenage Emergency" and "Disappointed." Adolescence is the lyrical key—"The flashy gear, the cocky sneer," "I'll meet you Saturday night 7:15/We'll get out of our heads and hit the scene," et al—with all the attendant desires permeating every groove; but it's not all bright-eyed wonder, as the line "I came to this town as a young man/I've paid the price and yet I'm still for sale" ("It's Been A Thrill") makes plain. Plastic Jewels is a pure pop rush—as if Carnaby Street has never faded away...

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

You don't need an excuse to snap up each issue of the CD magazine series Volume but number 12 features the heavenly pop beauty of CATATONIA's "Dream On." The Welsh band has had one single ("Whale," part of the Rough Trade singles club series) and is about to release one on its own, but this is a true knock-out—imagine Bjork singing Françoise Hardy written by '60s soundtrack specialist John Barry, with electric piano frosting, reedy strings, the most languid dream-weave melody imaginable and ex-psychiatric nurse Cerys' dream-kooky vocal. The new single leads off with "Bleed," more down-to-earth power pop but laced with pure-pop euphoria and Cerys' gorgeously naive timbre. "This Boy Can't Swim" doesn't deviate from the above, while "Painful" sees Cerys retreat to the nursery as the music slows down and the candlelight takes over in a rare reprise of "Dream On." With Gorky's Zygotic Mynky, 60 Ft Dolls and Catatonia following the Manic Street Preachers, Welsh rock has never been so good (Nursery, c/o Excess Press, 88 Leather Lane, London EC1N 7TT U.K. 071.405.5563)...THE FUZZ makes its debut with "God Bless The Radio," a samplefest of jumped-up funkular grooves, serrated, whiny vocal, the beatbox rhythm mixed up into your face. Then "Nailed" starts like the Beatles, turns into some dodgy suburban punk band (Eater, for example) and ends up as some losercore brat, in all its mixed-up sampledelic glory. "God Bless Tha' Hardcore"—"This song is only intended for use with headphones and a phat blunt," the sleeve instructs—borrows its motordrive from jungle breakbeats, like EMF and Pop Will Eat Itself hitting the fast forward button (Laurel, P.O. Box 2406, London NW10 U.K. phone Real Time PR, 071.411.4672).

TERRY RILEY Persian Surgery Dervishes

New Tone, Robi Droli Strada Roncaglia, 16 - 15040 San Germano (AI), Italy phone/fax: (0)142.50577

Persian Surgery Dervishes, a reissue of a 1972 Shandar album, is a lesser-known but outstanding composition by Terry Riley, a "minimalist" pioneer best known for his 1964 "In C" and his work with LaMonte Young and John Cale. Riley's experiments with repetition, cyclical patterns, tape and digital delay, and modal music (he studied Indian classical music) have had a tremendous influence on Brian Eno and Robert Fripp, as well as the space music and new age scum that has floated along in his wake. On Persian Surgery Dervishes, a solo composition for electronic organ and feedback inspired by the spirit of the ecstatic dances of the Turkish Whirling Dervishes, Riley improvises modal arpeggios and trills with slowly changing rhythms (there are some moments you'll swear the CD is skipping) layered over warm drones, creating a hypnotic, almost dizzying effect. The music can be both meditative and menacing.

MORTON SUBOTNICK

Silver Apples Of The Moon

Wergo (Germany) c/o Harmonia Mundi, 2037 Granville Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90025-6103

Morton Subotnick was associated with Riley (along with Pauline Oliveros and others) in the '60s San Francisco Tape Music Center cooperative. The title (a line from Yeats) of this classic electronic work from 1967 may be familiar to readers from records by the rock groups Laika and Jessamine (as well as the recently rediscovered '60s underground rock group Silver Apples), who borrowed it partially for kitsch value, but who also embrace the analog colors and textures made popular by this recording. Composed specifically for commissions by Nonesuch Records on a Buchla "modular voltage-controlled" synthesizer (notable in that it operated without a keyboard), Subotnick's late '60s compositions (his 1968 "The Wild Bull" is also included on this CD) helped demonstrate to a substantial audience that synthesizers were capable of much more than just Switched On Bach classical diddling. Decades later, to a generation that has grown up with synthesizers, the oscillations and squeaking blips sound a bit quaint, but still futuristic. In particular, the looping rhythmic development of "Part B" of the title track still sounds pretty engaging today.

ALVIN LUCIER Clocker

Lovely Music, 10 Beach St., New York, NY 10013, 212.941.8911

Composer Alvin Lucier has made unusual music utilizing acoustical technology, phenomena and concepts: the vocoder, sonar, radio frequency sferics and ionospheric disturbances, electronic time capsules for alien beings. His best-known works (all available on Lovely) involve an 80-foot wire vibrated by an oscillator ("Music On A Long Thin Wire"), amplified brain waves ("Music For Solo Performer" 1964) and tapes of tapes of tapes ("I Am Sitting In A Room" 1968). After concentrating on chamber works for the past decade, Lucier has been lured back to electronic sound installation, his 1978 piece Clocker in particular, by recent developments in digital delay technology. In Clocker, Lucier attaches the electrodes of a "galvanic skin response sensor" (which "measures differences in skin resistance caused by changes in emotional state") to his fingertips, amplifying the variable output voltage from his skin to power a ticking clock, which is miked and sent through a digital delay that's controlled by the sensor's output voltage. Yes, the results are pretty peculiar, as Lucier metaphorically slows down time with his mind.

THE NONCE "Mix Tapes"

Wild West-American

Telling a tale of the transformation of a tape mixer to an MC, "Mix Tapes" radiates the easy goodtime vibe of old-school rap. The simple cool of the video is a breath of fresh air, as are the shots of actual tape decks, turntables and mixers (when's the last time we actually saw those things in a rap video?). "Mix Tapes" has even more going for it: Some may like the subtle groove, some may like Yusef and Nouka who are both strong rappers in their own way, but everyone will dig the chorus. Make a tape of it today. SC

GAS HUFFER "Crooked Bird"

Epitaph

Sporting crisp black suits and flaunting synchronized stage moves, Northwest heroes Gas Huffer create a pretty convincing visual accompaniment to their rocket-blast garage rock in "Crooked Bird." B&W footage of the band playing in a basement space (complete with a stuffed marlin on the back wall) and them dressed as angels dangling from support beams while a devil prods them with his pitchfork are just some of the clip's cheekier moments. CH

BELLY "Now They'll Sleep"

Sire-Reprise

Tanya Donelly doubles as roadie and rock star in "Now They'll Sleep," the first single and video from King. The onstage band (portrayed by Belly) get full rock-god treatment (towels, evian, etc.) and dishes out the rock star moves (foot up on the monitor, hair tossing, etc.) while poor little roadie Tanya waits like a Wimbeldon ballgirl eager to fetch a sweaty towel, change a guitar string or wield her duct tape to an unruly wire. This goofy jab at the pop world works well and balances out how pop "Now They'll Sleep" sounds. SC

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

With airplay on MTV, The Box, BET, Much Music, and VH-1 (in Boyz II Men's case) the top two vids this week seem to have a virtual monopoly on national airwaves, ensuring that they retain their positions for yet another consecutive week. Despite this stronghold, Radioactive's Live is able to break into the top five, leaping 43 spots with the band's fourth clip from Throwing Copper. WEA U.K.'s Electrification premieres at #19, obviously appealing to more than just old Echo & The Bunnymen fans. Riding on the heels of Ian McCulloch and co. is Wild West-American's The Nonce (#20), who gain 27 rungs on the video ladder this week, and Spoiled Rotten/Big Beat-Atlantic's Changing Faces (#21) who leap 53 spots in their fifth week on the chart.

VIDEO REVIEWS

COP SHOOT COP

"Any Day Now"

Interscope

In this self-directed video, NYC's Cop Shoot Cop follows the lead of the above-reviewed Gas Huffer clip by keeping it simple and effective. Glittery lounge suits are the style here, singer Tod A's nery delivery quickly revealing the dark underside of the band's stylish exterior from the start. Stock footage from old educational films add the requisite bells and whistles, and a looming bass-driven hook completes the scene for these seasoned noise-makers CH

SORDID HUMOR

"Barbarossa"

Capricorn

Yes, that's Counting Crow Adam Duritz singing backing vocals on "Barbarossa." And it seems as if Duritz has not lent his star power out for nothing. Sordid Humor put a few more twists on folk and rock than the Counting Crows do: The Bay Area band plays a little rougher and looser, but still have a knack for strong melodies. "Barbarossa" has all the ingredients to be a hit, even if those shots of the heroine hitchhiking seem like something out of a Richard Marx video. SC □

Nicole Blackman, "Glad I don't live in California right now" PR/212.685.3001 KMFD. Nihil. March. Wax Trax!/TVT Die Warzau. Engine. February. Wax Trax!/TVT You have been warned.

Rebekah, Trauma Records, Los Angeles, CA 818.382.2515 'As 1994 came to a close, and the new year of 1995 began with your new year's resolutions already broken, I find there are still positive things to look forward to in the next 12 months. For instance, WVKR's Ben Goldberg can't wait till the day he evolves from college guy to college graduate working guy. Gavin's Seana Baruth looks forward for the next tasty bit to print, and the No Life/Want Adds guys are anxiously awaiting for the overdue opening day of their record store. Another year without baseball is something to celebrate. A bowling league. KCMU's Don Yates will finally go to a convention. There is the endlessly witty promotional material from Scott Carter to be sure to knock your socks off. Interscope's Jeff Marks awaits a date. A&M's Jay Hughen just wants to kick your ass at Sega Hockey '95, while 4AD's Rich Holtzman just wants to kick your ass. KUNV's Ian Scott looks forward to, "the death of the indier than thou attitude." Sonics will be the NBA champs. Trauma's Once Upon A Time and Phunk Junkeez new releases will spread good cheer. KAOS's salad boy will finally get the hookers he's been dying for (but not from me). And hey, if nothing else, there will be the Republican backlash to look forward to.

Scott Rogers, President (Even Days), Spotteddog Records, Dallas, TX 214.523.5280 Back in the saddle again! I just wanted to thank those of you who responded to our last mating call. I hope you enjoy Dali Automatic's music as much as we do. However, the main reason I'm writing to you is to let you know our telephone # has changed, so please take note of the new number above. If you tried to contact us but instead got "Big Shot" Law Offices, we apologize. And for all of you who have expressed concern over Wade's unexpected shock therapy at Dali's New Year's Eve show, he is doing fine. Besides, it did wonders for his hair.

Gary Jay, AIM Marketing, Old Bridge, NJ 908.679.9111 Triskaidekaphobia? Not! CBGB's was the place to be this Friday the 13th, great sets from Walt Mink, the Veldt, Combine, and Girls Against Boys, (who were absolutely fierce!). Chuckle Of The Week (Submitted by Giant's Ray Mancison): Q: How did magician David Copperfield convince supermodel Claudia Schiffer to marry him? A: He used his Houdini-weenie! New music? Bim Skala Bim, Soulvitamins, Trenchmouth, Sons Of Elvis, Certain Distant Suns, Chris Connelly, and coming soon...Local H, Quicksand, (live) Echobelly, Love Battery! NYC's own Hope Factory will be performing live for the first time ever on Wed., January 25. Alee has recruited some local musicians to fill out the sound, we're looking forward to seeing the show! There should be a new 7" single from Hope Factory sometime in the spring. Give it up: David Fricke (Rolling Stone), the San Francisco 49ers, Vicki, Mike, and Eric at Radical Records, Craig Williamson (Zoo), Star 69, Chris Berman (ESPN), MST3K, Chris (WDBM), Andrew (WMNF), Nick (WUJH), Wayne (WUCF), Don (WAWL), James (WMSV), Gary Larson, Right Said Fred, Sharkboy, D'Arcy, Hilly (CBGB's) Crank magazine, Kenny Larkin, John Starks, John Perrone (TVT), Folger's Coffee Singles. Kelso & Tom Gates, Roadrunner Records' Dynamic Duo, 212.219.0077 1995. Yippee. Wow. Woo-Hoo. We couldn't have asked for a greater year than 1994, but here we are doing just that for '95. Why? Um, because...because...well...aw, why the hell not? The first things on Roadrunner agenda are a single from a new band called Thorn and a neat little side project from Richard 23 of Front 242 called Holy Gang. Thorn has paid their dues in the seedy clubs of NYC perfecting a sound that is moody, dark and deep—sort of like Velvet Underground meets Joy Division. Then there is Holy Gang. Essentially, it's a tough industrial record with a very, very interesting single called "Free Tyson Free." It's about Mike Tyson (obviously, eh?) and the promo of the disc you'll receive includes a very necessary edit of the song. Say no more. Say no more.

Steve Pilon, Long Play Records, Atlanta, GA 404.681.4915 This is likely to be my last dialogue, at least for a while. Not for the usual reasons—no, Jill hasn't fired me yet—but because we've finally hired a genuine radio promo dude, you don't have to hear my stuttering drivel anymore. His name is Craig Williams, and I'm sure that if you're on our list you'll be hearing from him soon. Be nice to him. At any rate, currently available on Long Play is the debut of Smoke, entitled Heaven On A Popsicle Stick. Smoke is a new band with former members of the Jody Grind and Opal Foxx Quartet. They've been getting lots of favorable comparisons to Nick Cave and Tom Waits, but are actually more in the orbit of Vic Chesnutt or Daniel Johnston. Heaven also happens to feature the most deranged song about Luke Perry's feet that you're ever likely to hear. Next up is The Brotherhood of Lizards, featuring Martin Newell. The Brotherhood plays brilliant British pop along the lines of Robyn Hitchcock or XTC. In fact, Martin's other U.S. release, last year's The Greatest Living Englishman, was produced by XTC's Andy Partridge. Look for that in late January. Other fab Atlanta oriented discs you should be spinning: The Vidalias' Melodyland on Upstart, engines' Crescent Fire Co. on Sister Ruby, and Jesus Christ Superstar-A Resurrection on Daemon/Long Play. E-mail us at: Longplay22@aol.com.

Lou Dog, Skunk Records, Long Beach, CA 310.246.5981/800.633.4487 Congratulations, it's 1995, you're back from your winter break and you've just been graced with a special gift—the very stoney sounds of...Sublime, courtesy of Skunk Records (open up TABASCO looking CD). Yeah, that's right Sublime (Long Beach, CA), the band that's been fusing Reggae, Punk, Hip-Hop and a whole mess of other assorted shit such as conversations with drunken schizo street denizens and just plain old bong sessions up in the STP (Secret Tweaker Pad) since 1988. Fresh off the road after playing dates with Offspring, 311, and No Doubt (check No Doubt's totally hot Gwen Stefani on sublime's "Saw Red" track). Sublime hits the road and the airwaves in 1995 like a stiff kamikaze—hard and fast. But like a smooth toke of very high quality Humboldt Skunk, this band delivers a unique blend of tasty hits, many of which can be found on the promo you now own, the rest appear Sublime's two independently released CDs—40 Oz. to Freedom and Robbin' The Hood, on Skunk Records, and hopefully available at your favorite record store (if not request it). If you're cool and listen to the entire promo CD you'll also realize that two secret trax exist and that they are rare unreleased original demos of Date Rape and Epin...so now that you know there is a skunk in the air...take a hit. Yeah...Sublime. ☐

Molly Neuman, Promo Lady, Lookout Records, Berkeley, CA 510.841.9042 Hi. No one here has ever done this before so bear with me. The newest information for 1995 is that we have about a million records coming out in the first six months alone. January has a 7" from Eureka, CA's Couch, a mix gendered punk band with nods to Gang Of Four. Also we have the first LP from the Lookout house band the Potatomen featuring the legendary Larry Livermore who always has something to say about everything. In February we have Pansy Division's compilation CD Pile Up. If you haven't heard these boys before you are in for a queer treat. They finished a tour opening for Green Day in December and are back on the road doing the south by themselves getting ready for a tour of Australia and New Zealand. Do what you can to see them because they are totally entertaining and really smart. The Queers have a new 7"/CD EP out in February called Surf Goddess, and will be beginning the most thorough US tour they've ever done at the end of the month. We also have a new split EP coming out from Rancid and Avail, new LPs from the Queers, the Winona Ryders, the Ne'er Do Wells, a split CD from Sweet Baby and Brent's TV, and 7"s from the Frumpies, the Pee Chees, Mr. T Experience and mas more. You'll find we have a lot more than the first two Green Days if you check out our new 1995 poster catalog thingy.

Morgan Church, National Alternative Network, Minneapolis, MN 800.455.7746 Look ma! I got a new free show! The Request Audio Files is a weekly half hour concoction of some very cool music ranging from indie underground and rockabilly to obscure oldies and world music. There'll be celebrity hosts, band interviews, live tracks, exclusive in-studio performances, behind-the-scenes info on breaking acts, satellite updates from across the globe and a slew of other entertaining surprises. Add some spice this semester for free! It's on CD and starts Feb. 1.

Kevin Forsythe and Evan Knauer, Radio Promotion, A.T.S./Another True Story Publishing Company, Pittsburgh, PA 412.241.0704 Attention Radio Gods and Goddesses!!! You've just received our deluxe A.T.S. Blood Drive package (T-shirt, poster, photo, CD) if you fit into one (or both) of the following categories: 1) We can reach your college on one tank of gas, or 2) Your station charted A.T.S./"Sepco," our 1993 self-produced, 50-song double CD (Thanks!) Our new release, Blood Drive is on Shimmy Disc, produced by Kramer. Play anything you like, but please listen to "Louise," and "White House." Here's a few stations charting Blood Drive so far: WVHM, Mars Hill, NC, WDCV, Carlisle, PA, WRCT, Pittsburgh, PA, KCSU, Fort Collins, CO, WDFH, Dobs Ferry, NY, KNWD, Natchitoches, LA, KUOM, Minneapolis, MN, WFCS, New Britain, CT, WJUL, Lowell, MA, WYER, Pittsburgh, PA, KMSU, Mankato, MN, KUCB, Boulder, Co, KUGS, Bellingham, WA, WFNP, New Paltz, NY, KAGU, Spokane, WA, WMEB, Orono, ME, KAZU, Pacific Grove, CA, WUJC, Cleveland, OH, WNEC, Henniker, NH, WKDU, Philadelphia, PA, WKYZ, Syosset, NY. Distribution: Dutch East, 1-800-7599-0007. Booking: Talent Network, 412-264-4727. Also from Pittsburgh: Rusted Root, When I Woke, on Mercury Records, Cynics, Get Our Way on Get Hip Records.

Adam J. Pollock, Island Records, New York, NY 212.603.3942 It's nice to have some really credible projects to start off the New Year with. PJ Harvey To Bring You My Love will change the world as we know it. Absolutely the coolest new music I've heard in months (the new Stone Roses is up there too, we played it constantly during our lost holiday week in Amsterdam).

Quicksand's Manic Compression will satisfy your deepest cravings for hard punk rock (excellent tour plans in the works). Both PJ and Quicksand hit the stores on Feb. 28. Local H release their debut on 1/24, this guitar/drums duo reminds me a lot of early Nirvana, and Seattle's Sybil Vane release their Banshees-like debut on 2/28. Spell continue to make inroads at alternoradio and are on tour now, dEUS will be over for a tour in March, and Portishead is taking America by storm (Melody Maker's album of the year). Everyone happy to be back at work???

Tommy Daley, Capitol Records, Hollywood, CA 800.342.8842 I don't know about you, but it usually takes me a couple of months before I remember to write '95 instead of '94. Another year, another broken resolution. I hope everybody had a wonderful holiday season. I know I enjoyed the break. Capitol has a whole bunch of cool shit coming out this year. We've got new records from: Butthole Surfers, Radiohead, Channel Live, Hurricane, and Everclear. We've got new records from new artists like: Mother, Triple Fast Action, Spragga Benz, Milkbone, Aceloyne, and Truly. We've got great records out right now including: Spearhead, Dink, and Big Chief. Keep pumping these new bands! Spearhead is touring with Digable Planets. Dink is touring with Lords Of Acid. Luscious Jackson will open for R.E.M. The Beastie Boys will do a U.S. tour this spring. It's gonna be a busy year. Call me if you need anything. Later.

Vinnie Esparza, High Street Records, Stanford, CA 415.329.0647 What I got for Christmas: a peach Menudo t-shirt, and afro-pick, a fat-ass credit card bill, the entire L'Trimm catalogue on CD ("We like the cars, the cars that go BOOM!"), a Stryper tattoo on my neck, a Melrose Place dart board, a clue, some Funyuns, an Atari 2600 with Combat and Night Driver, a handful of change, and a copy of Breakin' 2: Electric Boogaloo on Betamax. New music headed your way from the flooded land of Northern California: Timbuk 3's A Hundred Lovers. Check out the song "Prey" and then call me up and thank me. Oystein Sevåg's has returned with Global House. The critically acclaimed Norwegian composer is back with compositions featuring flavors from around the world. There is something here for everyone. Steve Morse from the Dixie Dregs will be supplying you with a high dose of smokin' guitar. The album Structural Damage will be on your desk soon. Play them lots so that I may eat.

John Warden/Pete Konczal, Rive Video Marketing, South Amboy, NJ 908.721.1523 Hey everyone, we're back, you're back, hockey is back so what else do we need. We want to say thanks for all the nice holiday cards we received and we hope everyone is psyched for '95. Anyone out there in label land should really give us a call if they need production and promotion work done. We are offering cool deals on I.D.'s, video press kits, music videos, longforms, and complete promotion services when the production is complete. Let's talk about what we can do for your bands. We're available anywhere, anytime, anyplace. It'll be fun. Let's continue by saying thanks to everyone who helped us with Sweaty Nipples (Megaforce), B-Thong (Pavement music) and Frontline Assembly (Roadrunner). We ended last year by having three bands we working on the CMJ Loud Rock 25, which was a great feeling. Of course we couldn't have done it without you. We will be working both Sweaty Nipples and B-thong when their tours begin later this month. By the way, you will be receiving M.O.D.'s video for the tune "Devolution" from Energy records soon. Give it a look. We produced and directed the clip for the legendary Billy Milano last fall. It was one of the wildest days we've had. It was a lot of fun dealing with 20 hours of Billy Milano's own brand of rip-in-to-you humor, although I could have done without having his dog boo-boo bite a chunk of my leg off. Oh well. Give the clip a spin. OK? Keep in touch. Until next time, stay cool.

Mike Siciliano (for the vacationing Jess), Alternative Dude, WCWP, Brookville, NY 516.229.2683 The words are Demon Knight. The reaction is big. Big. Really HUGE. I like the Rollins cut the most. Well, then, I think Henry Rollins is God, but hey, who am I kidding?...Chris Connelly. Good stuff. The album is Shipwreck. The song is "Candyman Collapse." John @ TVT, I like this stuff. Can we do business?...This message is for Matt @ Lemuria Records, I lost your number, give me a call. I'd like to tell you Hostage Symphony is still kicking ass here!!!!...Xanax 25 is weird, but I like it. "Strongest Child," with Suzanne Vega on backup vocals. Hmm. Sounds like a possible hit to me. Check it out...Two more to note. Scott @ A&M, my phone manners will improve drastically if you keep giving me great stuff like Kitchens Of Distinction & Love Battery. Must have more good music! Must have!...OK. One last thing. God Bolts! Go Bolts! Go San Diego Chargers!!!

Timothy Parish, Assistant Director, WUFI, Miami, FL 305.348.3071 Attention Everyone! A new (well somewhat new) radio station is now on the air in South Florida. WUFI, after several years of struggle and accumulation of legal fees, has now gained enough attention to become FM. WUFI previously broadcasted on 540 AM but is now broadcasting on 88.1 FM at 162.5 watts with an estimated range of 539 Km sq. WUFI is now only the second alternative radio in South Florida to be established on a noticeable level in over 30 years. WUFI is a college station located at Florida International University, University Park GC 340, Miami, FL 33199. Our format is "Alternative" and we possess a large variety of specialty shows for ALL types of music. Anyone, I mean ANYONE with anything to offer (not necessarily just music), should feel free to contact us. We are looking to establish the most connections possible to diversify our airplay for our audience. We would also like to thank all of those companies and/or people who have supported us through the years. Thanks very much...without your help we would not exist. Also one more note: WUFI has to change its call letters; a station with the same letters exists. So we will notify everyone what our new call letters will be as soon as we obtain them. Look out for our new E-mail address also (speaking of which: Dan, where in the hell did the modem go?).

Mike Snow, Music Director WUSO, Springfield, OH 513.327.7026 Well, I've finally gotten around to writing this dialogue. It's wintertime here in the Ohio Valley, providing me with little to do and a lot of time to do it. Contrary to the substance of my last name, I hate Winter, so I expect all of you out there in weasel, uh, record land to spice up my dreary days. If the rest of you are like me, you staggered into the new year with a blurry recognition of the last year (and the previous night, as well) so if I neglected you please forgive me. Since it is a new year I want to say thanks to everyone who has been great and generous in '94, but here's full props to the top-o-the-hill, cool as hell, motherfkers: Drew @ AAM, you rule my man, thanks for all the help; Spackelle, Yigal and Jeff @ Interscope; Kelso @ Roadrunner; Leslie @ EMI (Ohio); Chuck @ Immortal; Jason & Miwa @ Capitol; Scott @ A&M, Darren @ Mechanic. Attention all indie labels: send us your music. I'm trying to revamp format and can use your help in widening our playlist. You may be hearing from me soon. Check out these monster Ohio bands: New Bomb Turks and Brainiac! Yes there is some life in the Midwest. Finally a big howdy goes out to Jon @ KWSB, Julie @ WEOS, and Ron and Anna @ WDWN. My e-mail address, if it is handy, is: SPEEDO@wittenberg.edu.

Scott "Yes I Look Like Eddie Vedder" Pacyna, Music Director, WRBU, Peoria, IL 309.677.2231 We are back once again, and I would like to start off by thanking Amy @ AIM, Adena @ Capitol, and anyone else who gave us tickets and CDs for the holidays. Are we the only station who didn't get a copy of Pearl Jam's Vitalogy? Someone at Epic please help us with this. also, we are still not on the mailing list for companies like Sub Pop, Giant, Rhino, Epitaph, Roadrunner in getting your stuff on our air waves so please get in touch with us. Once again, our station has various specialty shows for urban, jazz, metal, and '80s music, so if you have something in this area, let us know. We will hopefully begin to report for metal on a regular basis this year as well. Lastly, I want to warn all labels about a great new band: they are called Motorhome and they currently play around the Chicago area (yes, another Chicago band). They are incredible live, and they are already beginning to build a following in the area. Do yourselves a favor and look for this band, because they could be big one day if they want to. I can be e-mailed at: furball@camelot.bradley.edu. Or, you could e-mail the station at: wrbu@camelot.bradley.edu. Long live the NHL!

Lisa Blanning, Music Director, WPRK, Winter Park, FL 407.646.2446 Just like to announce a few things: Craig Willingham (former co-MD) has moved to Tallahassee to attend Florida State. We'll miss him a lot and wish him good luck! WPRK is off the air for the month of January due to renovations and reprogramming, but we'll be back and better than ever as of Feb. 1. We're also conducting our first ever on-air fund raiser during the first half of February, so if any labels happen to have a few promos lying about that you could send our way for pledge incentives it would be much appreciated! Or you can just send a tax-deductible donation, checks payable to Rollins college. It's for a great cause! thanks to those who have already helped! ☐

LOW ROCK DIALOGUE

Smitty, Epic Records, New York, NY 212.833.5988

There has been a bit of a shift of responsibilities here at Epic. In trying to keep in contact with all of our stations, we've streamlined a bit. A bunch of you radio types will be getting calls from someone you've never spoken to before—ME!! And some more of you will be getting calls from our Sony College rep, Joe Guzik. Please be nice to him, he's very cool and he will take care of all your Sony needs (Epic, Columbia, 550 Music, Chaos, etc.) I know some of you have spoken to either or maybe both of us, and while I want to speak to everyone, it's just not physically possible. I'm sorry, OK? Now, back to business... By now, you should have the CD single for "Blind" from Korn and you should have added it. Please continue to support these guys, they rule and my commitment to this band is 1000%. Tour dates should be shortly forthcoming. The other track that you should be jammin' is Rage Against The Machine's "Year Of The Boomerang" from the Higher Learning soundtrack. It's been awhile since you've had new music from Rage, so this one should be headed straight for the top (next to Korn). FYI: There is also a live version of "Freedom" on the Tonnage alternative sampler. If you have any questions, just call and the Shell Answer man will be happy to take care of you (and we'll check your oil, too).

Joe Guzik, Sony Music, New York, NY 212.833.8873

What's up? Warm greetings to everyone! Many of our brothers and sisters in the metal faith are back and I've talked to you, but of course, there are those of you who haven't returned my calls yet. I need your new office hours, so call me. NEW tracks from Rage, C.O.C., Korn and Nativity In Black to play. I don't have cooties...212.833.8873, all day Tuesday and Thursday.

Dan "Spit" Fitzgerald, Columbia Retail, New York, NY 212.833.4988 AAAAAAAAAHHHHHHH! Man O Man O Man (part II) I just called to say "I Love You!!" Lord, I have seen the writing on the wall and it says Corrosion Of Conformity!!

Jay Hughen, A&M Records, Hollywood, CA

213.856.7139 Hype—A triumphant phoenix by L.A. Guns was completed by nailing down the #1 Most Added slot across the board! Let your world know that L.A. Guns have rekindled the heaviness with "Killing Machine!" Let those few of you who lent a doubting ear take notice of this week's top of the hill performance. Let that repressed Cocked And Loaded fan inside you to the surface again. Full-length entitled Vicious Circle out February 7th. Two quick things: 1) Game on; 2) 49 days and counting until your dose of Monster Magnet's Dopes To Infinity kicks in. God bless you.

E.J. Johantgen, Columbia Records, New York, NY

212.833.4989 This is it, judgment day has arrived..."Clean My Wounds" baby, "Clean My Wounds."

Michael J. Schnapp, EMI Records, New York, NY

212.492.1812 Smell this! Butt Trumpet are on tour now! Butt Trumpet are getting requests! Play "I'm Ugly And I Don't Know Why" by Butt Trumpet and the phones will light up faster than Michael Schnapp in a potfield. Mike DiPippa at WSOU reports, "I'm Ugly And I Don't Know Why" is #2 requested and that every time they play it, people call up and ask who it was! Reaction! Butt Trumpet smells like a winner! (Did he say weiner?) "I'm Ugly And I Don't Know Why" goes for adds 1/20, but don't wait, you have all the edits now! Queensryche are beginning their world tour February 9th in Europe. Keep tuned for U.S. dates and play "Damaged," "Disconnected," "I Am I," hell, play the whole record, after all it is Queensryche and Promised Land is pulling Top 5 phones many places. Moist are touring soon and the Machine Punch Through CD-Pro will hit you soon. Give Moist a spin and see 'em live. Also look for Bloodline on the road smokin' boogie guitar jammin' their way across the U.S. And look for my bud Milla on the road, too! And I still haven't come down from the Rock N' Roll Hall Of Fame Show. Unfuckin' believable!

Performance by Allman Brothers, Led Zep, Pearl Jam, Neil Young, Al Green and Phil Spector.

Meg MacRae, Earache Records, New York, NY

212.343.9090 The battle has begun! By the time you read this you should all have received the newest Earache package. Special limited double Bolt Thrower CD, featuring previously unreleased live CD entitled War, in addition to their latest endeavor...For Victory. Despite the rumors spawned during their last U.S. tour, the band has not broken up...For Victory marks the departure of vocalist Karl Willets and drummer Andy Whale, who are on the album, but are no longer members of the band. Karl's replacement, Martin Van Drunen (ex-Pestilence/Asphyx), and new drummer also named Martin (a 17-year-old from the UK) join forces with remaining members Jo Bench (hey, a chick!), Gavin Ward and Barry Thompson to form a new-n-refreshed line-up. Add the title track to your playlist this week if ya missed the official add date. Pitch Shifter The Remix War EP—remixes of "Triad" by Biohazard and Gunshot (UK hip-hop giants), Therapy?'s remix of "Diable" and Pitch Shifter's own remixes of "Diable," "Triad," "To Die Is Gain" and "NCM." All tracks from Desensitized, a li'l sumthin' to tide y'all over 'til they get into the studio and start recording the new stuff. Official add date is 1/31! Brutal Truth are here in NYC and available for interviews-n-such. Keep playin' 'em, cuz hey, if Al Goldstein loves them, then you should too! Fudge Tunnel—you're still on it and no need to slow down now! "Joy Of Irony" 7" will be in soon and I'll be more-n-happy to send 'em to ya. Also FYI, my assistant, Therese, will be in on Monday and Wednesday and I'd like to welcome Mike "My Main Man" Scondotto, who will be helping me out here on Tuesdays. Alright, 'nuff for this week. C-ya! Misery Loves Co. 3/21/95.

Greg Gura, Concrete Marketing, New York, NY

212.645.1360 First and foremost, Monster Voodoo Machine on RCA is on the road opening for Marilyn Manson. Come out early and check out this kick ass double bill! Also on the road through February is one of the hardest working bands in the music business, Widowmaker on CMC. Supporting their album, StandBy For Pain. Secondly, Nativity In Black... on Columbia is still climbing and clawing its way to the top. Give it the proper play it deserves. It's guaranteed to get people saying, "This is pretty cool, who is it?" Next up, be on the lookout for some new releases to keep you warm during these winter months. Quicksand on Island (February 28th), Steve Morse on High Street (early March) and Royal Hunt through Majestic Entertainment (February 21st). Mucho thanks go out to Penny Howard at Michigan Where House Records in Jackson, MI for the gifts. Here's the Top 5 of '94 according to her: 1-Concrete Blonde; 2-Lords Of Acid; 3-Skatenigs; 4-Cop Shoot Cop; 5-(tie) Korn/Christian Death.

Linda Wilson, Overture Records/Crazy Mary

Promotions, Detroit, MI 810.349.0115 By now, with any luck, you should have something I've been waitin' to send you cats since we first saw these guys devastate the crowd at the State Theater here in Detroit, Universal Stomp. Watch for that stunning Overture mail label and check out "Stomping Of Jake", the new EP release by Universal Stomp. On tour starting February 8th. You gotta get these guys in your town! Spin the disc, give me a call. Universal Stomp is a shot to the senses, get "stomped," you'll thank me later. By the way, there is a track 13 on the disc. You say, "No, I only see four cuts, you frost-bitten, Skittles-addicted record rep." Check this, after track four, advance to track 13 and hear Ed's spoken word track. It's worth the search! Trust me. Till next time, later.

Munsey Ricci/John LaRosa, Skateboard

Marketing, Ltd., Valley Stream, NY 516.328.1103 So yo, the Munz has a nomination for the Gavin awards. It's my first industry nomination, way cool. So yo, now my records... Demon Cleaner EP by Kyuss is doing real well. If you didn't add it, add it this week. We have more stuff to follow. L.A. Guns is smoking everywhere. Nobody thought they would come back even stronger, well they did. Monster Voodoo Machine's new single, "Inside These Walls," is awesome. They're still moving up, the tour is helping. Check them out when they're in the 'hood, we have tickets. Overdose will go Top 10. You love this record and you know you're going to do it, you rule. Sick Of It All is in your face and they're not going anywhere. This record rules, dig on the new single, "Step Down." Circle Of Dust goes for adds this week. Don't forget to add it. This record is way cool. If you didn't get it, it's still in the mail. You'll have it today or tomorrow. Well, that's it for us, till next week, c-ya.

Greg Derbas, Pavement Music, Oakbrook Terrace, IL

708.916.1155 Just wanted to let you know my office hours. For this semester they will be as follows: M-F, 9-6 Central. Since my availability is so vast, I hope you'll all have no problem getting ahold of me. Solitude Aeternus has arrived. If for some insane reason it's not on your desk, CALL ME. I have plenty. As you all know, Solitude is on tour with Merciful Fate, which started this past Wednesday. If you need anything—posters, giveaways, interviews, tickets—let me know! I'm here. Did I mention we are doing the next Accept record. That's right, Udo, the Troll of Rock N' Roll, is back. Who said you have to be pretty to kick ass. Down with poseurs. Their disc, Death Row, is due out in March. Crowbar is in the studio in February. Anybody check out the new video on Beavis And Butt-head? Crowbar promised this one will blow their last effort away. Is this possible? I guess we'll find out this May.

Jill & Kelly, Red Light Records, Des Plaines, IL

708.297.6538 First, a big huge thanks to everyone who voted for Gutted, Oppressor, Skatenigs and Coven (yikes!) in their year-end questionnaires for The Hard Report and CMJ. We made a presence in many of your Top 5 releases lists, best tour of '94 and best album artwork categories! WOW! The support is greatly appreciated. '94 has been the most successful year for radio in Red Light history, that's why I get paid the big bucks! Look for a whole rundown on that in my next newsletter! Thanks to everyone who has called us, returned our calls, faxed new office hours and all that good stuff. Really helpful! Kelly is getting into the swing of things! She is the metal director at WLRA and gets the rep calls every week herself, so she knows the drill. She is very experienced as metal director and understands what you all go through every day, so feel free to call and bond! We still have the Solitude From Within comin' your way some fucking time in 1995. We have Sarkoma and also Gutted touring (not together...talk about a crossover show!). Check out the touring section or call for dates and tix. Oh hey, you guys can E-mail me now! I just love to get mail. Here is my address JiRLRadio@aol.com. Gotta run, see you on the information superhighway.

The Tink, WVUD, Newark, DE 302.798.0144

Why hello there! Where'd I go and who did WVUD's "Aminster Of Sinister" see at the year's end? Thanks to Maria "Mom" Metal Blade, one of those shows was that unstoppable Gwar-arama. After these many years and all that setting up, Gwar still slices and dices through a stage show like so few can and/or dare. On that bill also were Energy's newly acquired masters of NYC hard-ass industrial techno-crunch, Bile. Both bands were very cordial and gave me some sizzling station I.D.s. The very last band of the year for me was Type O Negative. They played to a sell out crowd, in what may be the last of their club-sized gigs. I hear from some who attended the New York show and they said it was the best show ever. Well, let me tell y'all right now, I was there when they played to what you wouldn't call a full house in the early days. I'd say they played better here in Philly because of less pressure. (That's my opinion). I'll take on any radio rat who thinks different. In station only news, we are now starting to seek any national act that would like to play at our Second Annual WVUD Metalthon Benefit. Give us a call if anyone has an interest and will be in the Delaware area in March. ☐

the last word: caspar brötzmann

Neither the lanky frame nor the soft-spoken demeanor of Berlin-based guitarist Caspar Brötzmann reconciles easily with the monstrous, howling language he speaks with his Stratocaster, the sole guitar in the dense overdrive of his band, the Caspar Brötzmann Massaker. When pressed to explain how he single-handedly generates a cacophony unmatched by any other guitarist, he quietly reveals, "I am always using my hands only," then pauses to qualify that by earnestly admitting, "And also...I'll show you," before he begins some determined digging in his coat pocket. Here, finally, will we discover Caspar's secret? Does he beat the guitar with scraps of wood or metal or other tools? What kind of device could he be dragging along the strings to make them moan and wail so intensely? After a few moments, his search is successful, and he leans forward and opens his large hand to present the most ordinary of white, plastic 10-cent guitar picks.

Brötzmann wasn't pushing the envelope of electric guitar-playing from day one, however.

He found his first guitar (an acoustic) at home, and though his father is renowned jazz saxophonist Peter Brötzmann, his desire to teach himself guitar was borne of a different kind of inspiration. "I was around 13 or 14 years old [when I got my first guitar]. I was a big fan from Deep Purple, and in my room I had a big poster from Deep Purple and I bought all of their records...I taught myself to play guitar by listening to Deep Purple, Led Zeppelin and Jimi Hendrix. A year later when I was 15, I had my first electric guitar." Remarkably, Caspar can't read or write a note, and his playing is entirely uncluttered by any formal training. Before picking up his first guitar, he took a few piano lessons, only to quit after three weeks, discovering that he "was not in the mood to read notes." In time, Brötzmann abandoned learning his chops from his heroes, and started developing his own vision of self-expression on the guitar.

Today, Brötzmann plays a left-handed Strat right-handed, making it reverse-strung (so that the deepest strings are on top), with only a handful of effects, two 100-watt Marshall stacks, and an amp from 1960. Although he originally taught himself to play right-handed guitar, as he naturally would, Caspar was forced to change his approach for the sake of his first Strat, which he describes with singular reverence: "I was living in a very small city, and there was just one music store. In it, there was one Fender Stratocaster, and it was left-handed. This guitar was perfect." He's struck speechless for a moment at the memory of it before he abandons the description, only to say that "it was one of the best things I ever saw and I bought it on my 18th birthday, because then I was old enough to go to the bank and get credit and get money for it. After this, I learned how to play left-handed guitar after having played so much right-handed guitar."

His group's latest effort is a prototypical Massaker record as much as it is completely new. The five songs on Home (Thirsty Ear) are re-recorded versions of songs from the band's first two records, including the essential "Massaker," with its 14-plus minutes of Caspar's pulsating guitar roars and squalls, his growling German lyrics and the merciless pounding snare and bass thump of his bruising rhythm section. Caspar speaks very fondly of Home in spite of the fact that the songs are old, and even because of it: "I welcomed the possibility to, after six years, make a new and really good sound for these five songs, because these five songs are kind of my home. They are the most important things for me. I was so happy to record them with a good sound, and good quality, and, after six years, the songs have kind of their own life. I've changed so many things, and this possibility to record it again in another way—for me it's totally another song."

The release of Brötzmann's collaboration with old friend F.M. Einheit of Einstürzende Neubauten (Merry Christmas, also on Thirsty Ear) is imminent, and Caspar also reluctantly divulges that he's considering doing a solo record, but asking such an intensely focused musician to describe any of these projects is a lost cause: "I don't know how to describe what I do. You know, if you talk to me you have to know that I'm really just a musician. I say this all the time, because it is so true. I cannot explain my work in words. Music is how I can talk. I talk through my music, and all my emotions are in it...I think I was a really lucky person, I was so young, 14 years old, and I really knew what is good for me, and that was to play guitar."
