DRUGSTORE Drugstore

Go! Discs, c/o London, 825 Eighth Ave., 24th Fl.,
New York, NY 10019

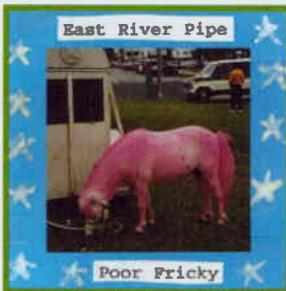

Overzealous flag-waving and dogma aren't every British band's cup of tea. Dodging the always overcrowded bandwagon, Drugstore's scene-proof, eponymous debut delivers chilling beauty, moodiness and removed sensuality, dealing not a single sub-par tune over the course of its 14 songs, which flow from rollicking to lulling, with little in between. The trio demonstrates a typically British sense for penning beautiful melodies, but its spacious and subdued sound comes off as convincingly American, like a more revved-up Mazzy Star, stripped of its synthetic fog and black lights. Drugstore shares common themes with other rainy-day rockers, putting into song those thoughts usually spoken only by the devious voice inside your head. Drugstore's charm is heavily based on the tense, breathy singing of Brazilian-born bassist/vocalist Isabel Monteiro, whose backing vocals are absolutely precious. Her lyrical catharsis is gently guided by unassuming backing tracks, which achieve a state of soothing weightlessness. The nurturing approach to songwriting displayed here favors feel over performance, aiming right for the pit of the stomach and the hum-along mechanism in your head. The perfect prescription: "Speaker 12," "Nectarine," "Super Glider" and "Starcrossed." STEVE SAVOCA

EAST RIVER PIPE Poor Fricky

Hell Gate, c/o Merge, P.O. Box 1235, Chapel Hill, NC 27514
919.929.0711

East River Pipe's music has been slowly attracting notice, despite the exceedingly low-key profile of its sole member, F.M. Cornog, who almost never performs live and records all his music alone in his Queens, NY apartment. While some one-man-show recordings wind up being fascinating self-portraits that don't really transcend their framework, Cornog's music gets into balanced, approachable pop gems, reaching out to the listener through seductive melodies and revealing lyrics. The album's first track, "Bring On The Loser," is a passively triumphant, feel-sad-all-over song whose tensely guitar work and plaintive vocal are quiet without being complacent, pretty without being cute. And the rest of Poor Fricky, which follows up last year's collection Shining Hours In A Can, works around similar contrasts, juxtaposing the loneliness of being an outsider with the inner pearl of pride that allows him to survive. The naturally-sweetened musical ear of Brian Wilson sunkisses such irresistible fruits as "Ah Dictaphone" (a sweet ode to a hand-size electronic device?), "Here We Go," the deceptively catchy "Marty" and the strummy "When The Ground Walks Away," while the solemn "Keep All Your Windows Tight Tonight," cloaked in a tinny keyboard blanket like a cheap velvet throw, is a wet-eyed revelation of self-loathing. LYDIA ANDERSON

STEEL POLE BATH TUB Scars From Falling Down

Slash, c/o London, address above

If Steel Pole Bath Tub is scarred, it certainly isn't the result of career slips and falls over its vigorously productive six-year existence. On Scars From Falling Down, the band carefully redesigns its rock approach to enter the broader, more mainstream arena of college rock with a bold stride and an outstretched hand to listeners who might have been intimidated by its earlier, more heavy-handed releases. During those developmental years, the band and its various spin-off projects (Tumor Circus, Milk Cult) churned out a release almost every couple of months, the best of which featured everything from intense riffage and dense sludge to bizarre movie dialogue samples and oddly clever lyrical tales. Even though Steel Pole Bath Tub is comprised of three men, Scars' most obvious touchstone is the vocal wail and anthemically chunky, melodic guitar lines of Hole (ie. the catchy rumble of lead track "500 Club"). But that's not to say that the band doesn't make the underbelly of its Northwestern origins proud: Scars is full of as many gritty, chugging riffs (à la Melvins) and tricky rhythmical twists as one might hope. Never tripping up: "Home Is A Rope," "Four Barrels," "Friday" and "Population 2." CHERYL BOTCHICK

GWEN MARS Magnosheen

Hollywood, 500 S. Buena Vista St., Burbank, CA 91521

On its debut release, Gwen Mars—a trio, not a person—dirties up the basic rock formula favored by Smashing Pumpkins. The focal point of Magnosheen is Mike Thrasher's guitar and vocals; like Perry Farrell or Billy Corgan, Thrasher favors a low, screechy wail that changes in intensity as his emotion does. His one guitar sounds more like several, transforming the wall of fuzz he creates into a dense grungy noise. While it's not as hard to pick specific lyrics out of the din as some other rock bands ("Cosmic Dick," in particular, stands out), Thrasher's lyrics get buried in the music and his vocal treatment. The band's song structure is most striking when the bass and drum recede, turning the spotlight over to Thrasher's vocal/guitar mix, stylistically similar to Jane's Addiction, as well as many post-Nirvana bands. Magnosheen's production, not too pretty but not deliberately messed up either, matches the band's sound well; these 15 songs were originally intended for demo purposes, but ended up as the final release. Take a sheen to these: the title track, "Control" and "Heal Me." MEGAN McLAUGHLIN

#1 BREAKTHROUGH

PAVEMENT

Wowie Zowie
Matador

Chart Position: #16

Pavement's third album (excluding Drag City's odds-'n'-ends collection Westing...) is wowing programmers right out of the box, thrusting the album into a #16 debut (#3 on the Core chart) and making it the #8 Add. The band may have smoothed out some of the knots of noise found on its earlier releases, but the group's knack for a song and caustic wit remains firmly intact. As Wowie Zowie perches at #2 on the Retail chart and "Rattled By The Rush" jumps 19-7 on the College Cuts tally, KWBY, WAMH, WIUP, WMCN, WMUA, WMUC, WPUR, WTUL and WWMV are all charting Pavement at #1.

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay ▲ greatest upward chart movement ▼ most requested

As Island's PJ Harvey (1-1) and Rykodisc's Morphine (2-2) hold their positions at the top of the 150, Zoo's Matthew Sweet (4-3) slides up one position to challenge. Meanwhile, All's debut for Interscope is the only new entry to the top 10 at #6, and Alias' Archers Of Loaf veer up 10-8. The top debut on the chart is also this week's #1 Breakthrough: Pavement's Wowie Zowie on Matador. Our next debut doesn't come until #36, with Yo La Tengo's new album on Matador. Other new faces include Sire-EEG's Aphex Twin (#72), Island's Tricky (#81), Big Cat's Crowsell (#85) and Lava-Atlantic's Jill Sobule (#95). Guided By Voices' first album for Matador sidles up to the top 10 (36-11), while labelmate Helium (21-13), Reprise's Muffs (32-14) and Sire-Reprise's Wilco (22-17) all follow suit. Big leaps were made by RCA's Hum (84-39), Beggars Banquet-Atlantic's Peter Murphy (90-40), Elektra-EEG's Clouds (91-41; #2 Add) and Radical's Oh! Skamplation Vol. #1 (102-57).

INFINITELY AMBIENT.

Gavin Bryars creates a haunting musical fantasy based on the tragic maiden voyage of the famous ocean liner, the Titanic. Inspired by the selflessness of the ships' musicians, Bryars' The Sinking of the Titanic breaks new ground, going beyond the classical genre into a new dimension of ambient sound.

"...from aft came the tunes of the band... The ship was gradually turning on her nose, just like a duck that goes down for a dive... The band was still playing. I guess all of the band went down. They were playing Autumn then... The way the band kept playing was a noble thing... How they ever did I cannot imagine."

— Harold Bride, Wireless Operator, Titanic, from an interview for The New York Times, April 19, 1912.

#1 BREAKTHROUGH

FLYING SAUCER ATTACK

Further
Drag City

Retail Position: #14

Drag City's Flying Saucer Attack is beginning to reach more than a core audience after two albums. Further builds on the band's earlier work, continuing to layer the guitar and muddy the sonics, but with a more acoustic flavor. The lack of obtrusive noise makes it a perfect shopping soundtrack, as those who have been playing it in-store have learned. The album is a top five seller at: Third Street, Aron's, Atomic, Blue Note, Co-Op, Mod Lang, Play It Again, Reckless and Vinyl Ink.

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in sales ▲ greatest upward chart movement ★ in store play

The battle for the #1 spot has begun, as Geffen's White Zombie (2-1) wrestles Matador's Pavement (1-2) out of the coveted position. RCA's Dave Matthews Band (12-3) is gaining popularity, reflected in this week's climb. Atlantic's Hootie & The Blowfish (13-11) and Island's Cranberries (17-12) are both long-term charting records still on the rise. Drag City's Flying Saucer Attack (#14) takes #1 Breakthrough and is a popular in-store choice as well. Only a few new releases made it onto the chart this week, and most of the movement is from older albums. A&M's Monster Magnet (56-27) will continue to do well as its video for "Negasonic Teenage Warhead" receives airplay. Sympathy For The Record Industry's domestic issue of Spacemen 3's For All The Fucked Up Children Of The World (61-43) continues to sell well after two weeks on the chart, as are Shangri-La's Grifters (73-52). Receiving in-store play but not yet charting are RCA's Hum and Warner Bros.' Muffs. (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

FILTER Short Bus

Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510

Short Bus, the self-produced/-recorded debut from the Cleveland-area duo of Richard Patrick and Brian Liesegang deftly blends samples and drum machines with chugging, Helmet-y guitars. While comparisons can be drawn to similar recent bands such as Dink or T-Ride (with a strong foot in Nine Inch Nails), Filter's objective is far more organic, stretching the most out of the available electronic technology found in the band's home studio. Short Bus' opening track, "Hey Man Nice Shot," is one of the album's standouts, beginning with a meaty bass line and then launching into a surround-sound hurricane of thick, gritty guitars and furious drumming. Here and elsewhere, Patrick's thinly distorted, high-pressure vocals consistently provide a sharp focus within the din, slicing through the mix with precision where others would have merely drowned in the wash. The album closer, "So Cool," is a strikingly anomalous, experimental respite, complete with violin and gently wavering harmonies. Also chew on: "Consider This" and "Gerbil." AARON CLOW exciting new timbres. The latest gladiator in the ring is DJ Krush, who is one of the premier pioneers of Japan's burgeoning hip-hop/acid jazz scene. His original group, the Krush Posse, was among the first to rap in Japanese and inject Japanese themes into hip-hop, rather than merely copy American models. It's a significant detail, as there is nothing about his stateside debut that is secondary or anything less than totally innovative. Often mixing a live trumpeter out in front of his scratching, Krush orchestrates a vision of hip-hop that is bold, brave, and challenging, a world away from typical low-riding G-funk beats that dominate the hip-hop scene here. So, "Roll & Tumble" features rippling jazzy piano tinges, while the instrumental "Ruff Neck Jam" pits a kicking snare rimshot against otherworldly stone-metal guitar soloing. The world is getting smaller, the boundaries are being blurred, and our Nipponese neighbors are giving anything the States can produce a run for the money. Guru, ever the ambassador of international hip-hop, appears on "B-Boy Mastermind," while other tracks like "Keeping The Motion" and "SOS" showcase Krush's cutting prowess and creative chops. JAMES LIEN

the lavish servings of heavy, gritty guitar found on albums by the Breeders, Hole or Belly, Bonham's trained instrument is classical violin, an instrument which tastefully pops up now and again in various contexts throughout the album. But it's not just the inclusion of violin (used very sparingly, we might add) that separates The Liverpool Sessions from the myriad of girl-with-guitar albums. Take a listen to the fabulous "I'm Not A Waif," which was supposedly written as a joke, but which ends up taking the fashion industry and their spokespeople for a brutal raking across the coals. While the subject is not necessarily the freshest, the approach is—several sharp lyrical jabs with musical tongue planted firmly in cheek. Other session standouts: the hook-drenched "Dandelion" and the punkishly wonderful "18 Heads Roll By." AARON CLOW

DJ KRUSH DJ Krush

A HOUSE Wide Eyed And Ignorant

Radioactive, 8570 Hedges Place, Los Angeles, CA 90069

A spunky Dublin sextet, A House gives us variety and freshness with Wide Eyed And Ignorant. Each of the twelve songs is its own little gem. They are crisp and simply played without any fancy frills or pretension. The hookiest songs on the album that are instantly enjoyable and memorable are "The Strong And The Silent" and "Here Come The Good Times." The moods on the rest of the album range through power pop with a vengeance ("Spinster"), a quirky look at pondering life away ("Why Me") and a stop-being-so-down-on-yourself dissertation with "Make Me Proud." The material on this release exhibits some major assets of the band. Introducing strings and brass and staying away from computers for stimulating sounds, A House has melodic instincts coupled with tight, lean drive, like an adolescent Replacements. Dave Couse is a sweet triller and together with David Morrissey and Susan Kavanagh on backing vocals, they show a real confidence behind the mike as they create harmonies to go with their catchy tunes. ## BOUKMAN EKSPERYANS

Libète (Pran Pou Pran'Li)/Freedom (Let's Take It!)

Mango, c/o Island, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019

The most dynamic of all current Caribbean bands, Boukman Eksperyans returns with Libète (Pran Pou Pran'Li)/Freedom (Let's Take It!). This is the Haitian bands' third album and it's similar to their other work. Characterized by a fiercely rhythmic combination of the traditional (African influenced Vodou drumming) and the contemporary (lots of electric guitars and synthesizers); it's all tied together with astonishing, uplifting ensemble vocals. Boukman Eksperyans make a joyful noise, yet their lyrics and message are politically and socially rebellious. Siding with Jean-Bertrand Aristide and being directly affected by the U.S. embargo on Haiti, they were forced from their homeland and had an American tour canceled. From the pious missive, "Sa'm Pèdi," to the exhilarating chant, "Rara Ti Celia," to the dense rhythms and righteous subject matter of the title track, Boukman Eksperyans' musical intensity and humane vision are unmatched by any band of our day. ## WELCOME TO JULIAN Surfing On A T-Bone

Rosebud, 10-13 rue Jean Guy, 35000 Rennes, France 99.65.04.14

We don't know much about Welcome To Julian—where the band comes from (more specifically than "France"), what its background is. We also don't know how it managed to end up with almost-authentic-sounding English lyrics (native Anglophones don't use "groovy"), a singer with a heavy French accent who sounds like he learned everything about singing from Pavement and Fall records (actually, the rest of the band seems to have been listening too), and photographs of a New York subway station on its album's sleeve. What we do know is that it's huge in the French indie scene, and that Surfing On A T-Bone, its second full-length record, is one awesome surprise—catchy, diverse, and tough as bent nails. The band has a taste for odd guitar effects, and for giving each song a different sonic strategy. The opening "Bob Your Head" is built on a vintage, pounding two-note bass hook, slide guitar and a relentless string of well-thought-out production tricks; "Do You Know What" takes the Jesus Lizard as its model, but throws in some wah-wah to keep its rawness fresh; "Violence In My Brain" is an early-'80s-styled punk stormer. Also check out the languid "Satisfied," the loopy, rumbling rhythm of "Psychotic Ballad" and spindly lead guitar line and shouted hook of "Age Class And Race." DOUGLAS WOLK

MASTA ACE INCORPORATED Sittin' On Chrome

Delicious Vinyl, c/o Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028

Masta Ace's Slaughterhouse was his breakthrough—especially the huge single "Jeep Ass Niguh," which for four glorious bumping minutes made distinctions between the New York, California and Florida schools of hip-hop irrelevant. Sittin' On Chrome, the follow-up, spins off from that song into a sort of concept album—partially about Masta Ace's cousin, who comes to town, hangs out with him and his crew the I.N.C., and impresses lots of women, and mostly about rolling around town in a jeep blasting Brooklyn Bass beats really loudly. "Jeep Ass Niguh" gets quoted a lot ("Born To Roll" quotes nearly the whole thing), the tempos are casual, the loops are short (two bars, mostly) and woofer-warping, and everybody sounds like they're having a great time, even when they're tossing off threats. The I.N.C. is the "Inc." of "Incorporated," and the whole corporation gets in on the act, with other members getting entire tracks to themselves (like "Turn It Up," which is actually sung). Crank up the low end for "The I.N.C. Ride," the swinging title track, and the "Let's Play House" whomp of the self-celebrating "Da Answer." DOUGLAS WOLK

REX Rex

Southern, P.O. Box 25529, Chicago, IL 60625 312.463.3796

While Rex may be justifiably compared to bands like Slint or Codeine (the latter of which shares a drummer with Rex), this New York City foursome's debut displays more than just a well-informed knack for brooding songcraft. Cello, bass, drums, guitar and the occasional subdued vocal are interwoven with careful precision, forming woozy, gray tendrils of fog in their wake. The album's opener, "Nothing Is Most Honorable Than You," spreads itself out over eight minutes, introducing the gentle slide guitar and swaying, wounded vocals of frontman Curtis Harvey, while taunt, mournful cello strains linger among the rhythm section's soft crescendos. Working from this stark emotional sketch the band then proceeds to texture and re-work its musical outlines: a lighter, almost pretty, series of melodies form the relatively short "High School Dance," "Come Down"'s precarious guitar whine is tempered by subtle layers of vocal harmony and tight percussion, while "Ditch" and "This Is A Recording" eschew these more plaintive moods for gangly guitar and string sounds, off-kilter melodic structure and the sure-fire power of tension-and-release dynamics. COLIN HELMS

PAPA WEMBA Emotion

RealWorld, c/o Caroline, 114 W. 26th, New York, NY 10011

It begins with an techno-fied, electronically-processed sounding drumbeat, but when Papa Wemba opens his mouth to sing on "Yolele," it is, to paraphrase Sly Stone, Africa talking to you. For years and years Papa Wemba has been one of those beloved stars of African popular music, one who may not have had a hit duet with a famous Western star or a streamlined video (although he did appear in Peter Gabriel's Secret World live video clip), but one who consistently seems to turn out the entire expatriate population of his native Zaire every time he tours the world. Well, at least some of that may change, because with the release of Emotion, Wemba plans to do both the video and the duet, appearing with soul diva Juliet Roberts on a brilliantly funky cover of Otis Redding's "Fa Fa Fa Fa (Sad Song)." Emotion deftly summarizes the sartorially resplendent Papa

Wemba's position at the pinnacle of African music in Paris, evoking both his roots in his so-called "Rhumba Rock" of the '60s, and a vision of the well-dressed, forward-looking future of African music. English producer Stephen Hague (Erasure, New Order, Pet Shop Boys) does a Don Was, displaying an appreciation of Wemba's pop sensibilities and modern feel without losing touch with the roots, making Emotion the perfect synthesis of the authentic and the new. JAMES LIEN

ROSA MOTA Wishful Sinking

13th Hour, c/o Mute, 140 W. 22nd St., 10th Fl., New York, NY 10011 212.255.7670

The U.S. debut from London's Rosa Mota can't be pegged by two or three descriptive adjectives or comparisons, because its broad-based cache of sounds suggests so many different moods and resources. The mostly instrumental first cut "Thintro" sets the scene nicely: its highly textured ripples of aggressive guitars build to a swoon more than once throughout the song's nearly-four-minute stretch, and this pattern is repeated over Wishful Sinking's 60-minute duration. Quiet passages might be followed by angry torrents of gnarled guitars and vocals, as on "L'Egoiste" and "Deepness," or the vocals of founding members Ian Bishop and Julie Rumsey might cat-scratch at one another before an almost resolution is reached, as on "Touched" and "Unrequited Love Song." While the whole album seethes with discontent (check the unnamed noise fragments at the disc's end), the band's willingness to forge ahead, tempering its gut-wrenching noise with basouki or flute lines and stray samples, marks its ultimate triumph with surprisingly cohesive results. LYDIA ANDERSON □

SKIPLoader Anxious, Restless (EP)

Geffen, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069

While its an obvious, almost trite reference, the title of Skiploader's major-label debut couldn't be any more of an apropos equation of the band's youthful didactic.

Spearheaded by the uncringingly personal and veracious tongue of frontman/guitarist Tom Ackerman, Skiploader plays with boundless tenacity and verve, maneuvering thick, blunt, guitar riffs and concise pop hooks into blistering rock workouts. Save for the second half of "Stunt Double," which features an impressively graceful swath of acoustic and electric guitar melodic interplay, the EP's five tracks are bare-bones, head-down power-pop at its purest. Skip your Ritalin and get anxious to the risqué "N20," the stop-start oomph of "Trademark" or "Stunt Double"'s instantly ingraining chorus. COLIN HELMS

APPLES IN STEREO Fun Trick Noisemaker

spinArt, P.O. Box 1798, New York, NY 10156-1798, 212.343.9644

As the voice of an orator on a stereo demonstration record recurringly interjects on the Apples In Stereo's debut full-length, it becomes apparent that the band has an avid interest in discovering new methods of manipulating sound. Fun Trick Noisemaker was self-produced and engineered and with a more extensive budget than they'd had in the past, the album's sound quality is much more polished than any of the band's previous recordings. The extremely lo-fi sound that the Apples In Stereo used on their 7's could be distracting, but here the band has been able to refine their sound, allowing their songs to be heard and appreciated. The trio has the ability to deliver innovative pop constructions that are extremely memorable. Robert Schneider's high-range voice is perfectly suited to the sanguine mood of the Apples songs. Accompanying harmonies (mostly in the form of "La-la-la's") by John Hill and Hilarie Sidney are sweetly sung and add to the appeal of the thirteen songs here. The Apples In Stereo infuse their songs with a spacey sound that includes plenty of guitar slides and bent notes. Out of this world: "High Tide," "Green Machine," "Glowworm". JENNY ELISCU

CHRIS MARS Tenterhooks

Bar/None, P.O. Box 1704, Hoboken, NJ 07030 201.795.9424

Over the course of his three solo albums Chris Mars has effectively gone from ex-Replacements-drummer-turned-solo-artist to an increasingly accomplished and mature singer, songwriter and multi-instrumentalist in his own right. Tenterhooks, his third effort, stretches a bit beyond anything he's done before, incorporating a variety of eccentric pop twists to his simple rock 'n' roll concoctions. As a result of his new label deal with Bar/None Mars was afforded his own home recording studio, and it's apparent here that the extra noodling time was all Mars needed to begin experimenting with some more eclectic songwriting styles (he already plays the majority of the instruments on his albums anyway). The record's opener, "White Paddy Rap," is surprisingly enough, a goofy hip-hop parody smirking at white musicians attempting rap, while other tunes like "Lizard Brain," "Mary" or the swinging "New Day" toy with ambitious string arrangements, vocal distortion, synthesizers and flourishes of brass. Tenterhooks has its small share of misses, but Mars' firmly-rooted pop smarts inevitably guide these tunes to proper ground in the end. COLIN HELMS

SPACE NEEDLE Voyager

Zero Hour, 1600 Broadway, Ste. 701, New York, NY 10019 212.957.1277

With the foothold of home recording specialists like Guided By Voices, Smog and others as an inspiration, there are no doubt scores of disgruntled musicians taking things into their own hands, sinking a few bucks into what must now be a booming four-track recorder industry and sweating out their muse, tucked away in their suburban basements after the daily grind has let up. This can only be a good thing. Space Needle, hailing from the cultural void of Long Island, NY, is comprised of two of those frustrated Regular Joes, and the personal and emotive Voyager is a clear vindication of their endeavor. The lo-fi recording gives a generous boost to these intimate songs; most of them are carried by gentle guitar strumming and Jud Ehrbar's vocals alone, though the warm, muffled drums and occasional organ flavor texturally complicate what are otherwise very simple tunes. The shining moment of the disc is the long, easy flow of "Before I Lose My Style," a Velvet Underground-styled, deceptively plain groove that develops a life of its own by song's end. Also a voyage unto themselves: "Beers In Heaven," "Scientific Mapp" and "Patrick Ewing." CHERYL BOTCHICK

WEEKEND The '81 Demos (EP)

Vinyl Japan, Rear Yard, 281 Camden High St.,

London NW1 7BX 0171.284.0359

After the dissolution of Young Marble Giants in 1981, singer Alison Statton's trio Weekend released a few singles and an album. Before those, though, they recorded a set of exquisite demos, which see their first official release here after years of being circulated on tapes whose hiss nearly overwhelmed the impossibly delicate music. All four of these tracks were re-recorded for Weekend's sole album, La Variete, with busier, jazzier arrangements. On these (superior) recordings, though, they're stripped down to essence and sometimes evanescence, with the smallest instrumental figures the group could get away with, and gently rippling drum machines instead of live drums. Warmer and more expansive than the arty miniaturism of YMG, Weekend lets its pieces flow and stretch naturally—the highlight of the EP is a transfixing 9-minute version of "Red Planes," with minute violin parts curling out of Statton's simple bassline. And, though "Nostalgia" incorporates at least 6 instruments, they're all so subtle that you'd swear, in retrospect, that it was barely more than Statton's voice, singing plainly and sadly: "Sometimes it's nice to see people/you used to be really close to." DOUGLAS WOLK

CARNEY HILD KRAMER Black Power

Shimmy Disc, JAF Box 1187, New York, NY 10116, 212.675.0922

Carney Hild Kramer—not a law firm, not quite a supergroup, but three very talented and creative oddballs: saxophonist Ralph Carney (Tin Huey, recent Tom Waits records), all around dude (Mark) Kramer (Shockabilly, Bongwater, zillions more), and vocalist Daved Hild (the Girls, who earned a spot in the punk rock history book with "Jeffrey I Hear You," the great b-side of their only single). Like a locust, Hild emerges every 7 years to make a record, and they're always worth the wait. He's a peculiar singer with a wry sense of humor; individual lyrics might seem to be nonsense, but he builds them into memorable images and moods, albeit quizzical ones. Not many would attempt to open an album with a dreary minor-key lament ("Tears Come Down") or end an album with a tango called "Dangerous Cult Following." In between there's distorted crooning on the lounge classic "These Foolish Things," homages to the Tinklers ("Thanks For The Tinklers") and Daniel Johnston ("Wish"), songs about Florida, Jim Jones and soap, and "Sweetheart" with a chorus ("takes one to know one") so catchy we've been playing it all day, although we still don't have the slightest idea what they're talking about. Right on... DAVID NEWGARDEN

GIANTS CHAIR Red And Clear

Caulfield, P.O. Box 84323, Lincoln, NE 68501 402.476.6205

Following last year's well received "Hot Boy" 7", Giants Chair's promising debut full-length is a well-crafted sampling of noisy post-punk. The trio hails from Kansas City, Missouri and its ability to infuse its songs with energy and deliver them with passion is showcased on Red And Clear. The ten songs here vary from accessible, rhythm-driven pieces to more chaotic, guitar-noise. Bearing noticeable similarities to Jawbox or Unwound, Giants Chair brandish a foolproof combination of prominent bass-lines, dissonant guitar squeals and fiery vocals. On "Gutshot And The Jogger," the repetition of the chorus: "Right now/Right? Right now/ Right now." is simultaneously grating and engaging. Lyrical repetition is a touchstone element of many Giants Chair songs and it lends a hypnotic power to a number of the band's compositions. The tight-kick drum-parts set up an interesting counterpoint to the frenetic guitar work on "Semi" and "Kick The Can." The latter includes an extended instrumental introduction and memorable chorus, making it one of the most fully realized tracks on Red And Clear. JENNY ELISCU

TINSEL Finding The Perfect Gift

Jesus Christ, P.O. Box 4971, Chapel Hill, NC 27515 no phone

The buzz about the North Carolina scene fell silent after the handful of bands were signed and went on to achieve individual successes. Though the "NC-sound" has been rather ambiguous because of its vast range (Superchunk to Queen Sarah Saturday), there is a core group of successful similar-sounding bands (Archers Of Loaf, Small) playing catchy pop/rock music that would include Tinsel. Resisting the derivative reflex that many bands fall trap to, Tinsel cultivates an unusually thick layer of guitars without ever letting it suffocate the pop melodies. These strong melodies balance the more typical raw, angst-ridden rock and (thankfully) never let it become too overwrought or obtrusive. Fortune has smiled on Tinsel whose vocals are a strong point, while so many of today's indie rock bands wind up with vocals that are mediocre-on-the-verge-of-annoying in thinking, "If he can play guitar then let him sing." The debut, Finding The Perfect Gift makes us wonder if the buzz about North Carolina bands won't soon start up again. Found treasures: "Pelican Bay," "Cocktail," and the title track. DAWN SUTTER □

HOVERCRAFT "Zero Zero Zero One" (7")

Repellent, 4742 42nd. Ave. SW #616, Seattle, WA 98116

"Zero Zero Zero One" could be the soundtrack to the next space shuttle launch, its echoing rhythms and plink-plonking guitars a perfect complement to an image of stars and craters. The unnamed B-side is a bit spicier and more striking due to fast-paced guitar zinging laid over a steady bass rhythm. These songs don't need vocals to maintain interest, as their unusual instrumentation does the job. DAWN SUTTER

VARIOUS ARTISTS*Candybars De La Technique (7" EP)

Little Teddy, Schifferstr. 1, 80687 Munchen, Germany

This double-7" has a track apiece by 28 different artists, each a minute long or less. Most of them hew closely to the Little Teddy lo-fi pop uber alles aesthetic—the Tables' track is called "Jailhouse Pop," and there are pleasant nuggets from the McTells and Fondue Set. There are also little instrumental doodles, like Six Cents And Natalie's "Spooky Circus," though a few get a more raucous, like MOTO's frenetic "Do You Remember." And there's plenty of ridiculousness, like Jowe Head's brain-fried "Your Baby's Gone Down The Plughole," a charmingly pointless cover of "Sleigh Ride" and Wimp Factor 14's tiny, ludicrous "Hibachi." DOUGLAS WOLK

INLAND EMPERORS "Hey, Hey, Blake Pirtle" (7")

Bag Of Hammers, P.O. Box 928, Seattle, WA 98111

The Inland Emperors were wise to select a name that does its part to disassociate the band from the Seattle lexicon, because otherwise the three songs on this single would inexorably adhere the band to the Mudhoney arm of that city's family tree. "Hey, Hey, Blake Pirtle" is dirty romp with nasal, howling vocals indebted to the distinct wail of Mark Arm. The flip meanders through the instrumental "Junkie's Lament" before kicking into full gear for the filthy punk romp of "D.W.I." CHERYL BOTCHICK

BROKEN GIRL Nora (7" EP)

Sappy, P.O. Box 25097, Moncton, NB E1C 9M9 Canada

Broken Girl is the solo identity of Julie from Eric's Trip, who writes tender, linear, nakedly emotional songs in the mold of Lou Barlow's home recordings. On these three songs—totaling less than five minutes—her voice and guitar playing are so pure and sad it's as if her heart were hanging there in midair, in front of the speakers. The lilting "Dance Music" ("Please turn off your dance music/Please go to bed now"), on which you can hear her fingers moving on the strings, is especially moving. DOUGLAS WOLK

ANALOGUE "Average Luck Charm" (7")

Sonic Bubblegum, P.O. Box 35504, Brighton, MA 02135

617.782.1527

This first single from Analogue plays interesting tricks with speed. The slow starting "Average Luck Charm" lopes along lethargically, its short bursts of energy becoming increasingly longer as the song continues. The band also uses push/pull rhythms (although to a lesser degree) on "Christmas," but it succeeds in holding the listener's attention to an otherwise normal, fuzzy guitar pop song. DAWN SUTTER

MY SISTER JANE Big DirtMy Sister Jane, P.O. Box 58981, Salt Lake City, UT 84981
801.596.9132

One doesn't generally think of Salt Lake City as a hotbed for new talent, but My Sister Jane may change all that.

The band was twice named "Band Of The Year" in a local arts weekly poll. Big Dirt, the all-female quintet's third self-released album, is a striking blend of well-crafted pop songs drawing on a variety of styles, from dusky folk rock to '60s psychedelia to country twang. With an acoustic sound that's darker than the Indigo Girls and fueled by a punk intensity recalling the Breeders, My Sister Jane draws the listener into its world with solid ensemble play and cogent lyrics. "Inside A Circle" possesses an enchanting swirling groove, "Standstill" is X-styled hard charging country punk and a sultry tinge lies beneath the pop sheen and sunny vocal harmonies of "Animal Shelter." Big Dirt is an impressive collection throughout and it firmly establishes My Sister Jane as a band to be reckoned with. JIM CALIGIURI

FASHION CENTRAL UnderwoodFashion Central, P.O. Box 4243, Richmond, VA 23220
706.548.6007

More than a few demos fall victim to the embryonic state of the band—uneven quality is easily ballooned by inconsistent stylistic turns—but some of those same early recordings carry moments of illumination strong enough to carry the remainder of the tape. On the B-side of Underwood, Fashion Central hits the mark with "West-End Universe" so squarely that the rest of the songs can be reheard as primitive versions of this very developed tune. The song is bursting with snappy, wiry pop hooks that borrow from early Elvis Costello and Joe Jackson without resorting to theft, and the familiar vocal delivery and popping rhythms are a knockout punch that clears away the less successful moments of the tape. By comparison, "Saccharine Girls" and "Talk Show" rise from the tape's eight songs as similarly-minded, crafty pop tunes brimming with potential and possibilities. If Fashion Central keeps on this fertile and promising path, we'll be anxious to hear release #2. CHERYL BOTCHICK

MERLE HAGGARD The Lonesome Fugitive:*The Merle Haggard Anthology (1963-1977)

Razor &amp; Tie, 214 Sullivan St., Ste. 5A, New York, NY 10012 212.473.9173

When it comes to talkin' about hard times and feelin' bad, few did it better than Merle Haggard in his prime. His classic recordings for Capitol in the '60s stand among America's supreme home-grown songs, painting a picture of the fascinating underside of the American dream. Razor & Tie's The Lonesome Fugitive is an essential collection of the man and his music. Germany's Bear Family label, known for its insane dedication to releasing the complete works of American country artists in lavish box set form, plans a massive Merle anthology for later this year, but we're content with this two-disc set. "The only thing I can count on now is my fingers," he asserts in "(My Friends Are Gonna Be) Strangers," and that small lyrical flourish masks a declaration of powerful hopelessness and solidarity, delivered in Merle's almost deadpan vocal style. Meanwhile, "I'm Gonna Break Every Heart I Can" mines a similarly bitter vein as "I'll Cry Instead." Musically, Haggard's influence on country music is monumental, simply because his emergence in the early '60s provided a continuance from the honky tonk heyday of country music in the '50s. Without him, it's entirely possible that the course of American music would have been much different, steered in different directions. Ignoring the impact of Elvis and the Beatles, and making no concessions to the mainstream, Haggard released an unbroken string of albums and singles marked by an almost unrelenting darkness and sorrow which stands impervious to time. Viewed cumulatively, his canon of work marks Merle Haggard as one of those legendary American talents who isn't afraid to take on the dark battles of the soul, to look the darkness in the eye. JAMES LIEN

DAVID BOWIE Santa Monica '72

Griffin, P.O. Box 87587, Carol Stream IL 60188

From the very start, it was absolutely brilliant: if you're an aspiring British rock star and you want to crack America, the land of revolutions, opportunity and self-made men, it pays to re-invent yourself completely. So sometime in late '71, David Bowie dyed his hair red and embarked on one of the most ambitious marriages of music, marketing and attitude in history, creating a media persona in the form of Ziggy Stardust. Declaring his bisexuality in what now seems to be an incredibly calculated interview, he embarked on a U.K. tour, and by the time he hit the States, the hype had soared to a fever pitch in front of him. One of the most oft-bootlegged releases in Bowie history now re-emerges in legitimate form as Santa Monica '72. Though not quite as essential as the remarkably similar soundtrack to the Ziggy Stardust movie, this FM-broadcast from September of '72 nonetheless captures Bowie/Ziggy in full stride at what was, for all intents and purposes, the peak of his career. There are traces of the whole Ziggy-trip in evidence ("Here's another one Ziggy wrote," Bowie introduces one song), but this tour pretty much recounts Bowie's best songs in one place—20-some odd years later, on the "this is really the last time I'm going to do these songs" Sound & Vision tour, most of them were still in his set list. Another added bonus that Santa Monica '72 offers for the fan: the realms of memorabilia that line the pages of the booklet, including a schematic of the Santa Monica Civic Auditorium (front row seats cost $6.50), a receipt for Bowie's fuzz pedal, and someone named Sue Fussey's backstage pass. JAMES LIEN

VARIOUS ARTISTS Professor Longhair Foundation Presents Piano Night At Tipitina's

Overture, 47551 Iroquois Ct., Novi, MI 48374-3635 810.349.0115

Strategically placed between weekends at the New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Festival, the Professor Longhair Foundation's Piano Night is one of the more recent traditions to crop up in New Orleans. Assembling an all-star cast of Crescent City keyboardists, the Foundation uses a night at Tipitina's to raise money for a sculpture and park in honor of Professor Longhair (one hopes that the city's leaders will also see the benefits of beautifying the neighborhood along with the value of celebrating a local legend and lend a hand). The independent nature of this CD project means that local luminaries who performed, such as Art Neville, Ellis Marsalis and Dr. John, could not be included, but Piano Night At Tipitina's still captures several of the Crescent City's great masters along with a few other pianists who stepped up to pay tribute to the great New Orleans pianist dubbed the "Bach Of Rock." Walter Lewis offers up a delicate "I'm Gonna Sit Right Down And Write Myself A Letter," full of whimsy and light, rippling piano lines, but the Big Easy spirit of the City That Care Forgot just can't hide the tinge of wistful sadness beneath its peppy, strolling melody. Elsewhere, "Davell's Boogie Woogie" showcases Davell Crawford's dexterity, while Tommy Ridgely shines on "Down Home Blues." And Eddie Bo, as always, succeeds in bringing down the house with his perennial favorite "Check Mr. Popeye."

Dark Clouds Rollin': Excello Swamp Classics

AVI, 10390 Santa Monica Blvd., Ste. 210, Los Angeles, CA 90025 310.556.7744

Where's that eerie harmonica coming from? Who's playing those drums that sound like someone beating on a hollow log? Why's everything drenched in all that spooky echo? You're listening to the raucous sounds of swamp blues, that primordial sound that permeated swamps and bayous and the cypress trees of Louisiana and east Texas in the late '50s and early '60s, the sound that reverberated out of a thousand roadhouses on forgotten highways into the Louisiana night and into history. Dark Clouds Rollin' unlocks more great gems from the vaults of Excello Records, as produced by J.D. Miller, the man responsible for recording Slim Harpo and Lightnin' Slim. All of the Excello artists are just as distinctive, even within the parameters of the genre's particular sound: there's the primordial pulse of Harpo, the leering storytelling of Jimmy Anderson, the swooning stomp-blues of Lazy Lester. That said, we'd love to see other songs from some of these artists: perhaps a little bit more archaeology would have dug up some even more obscure sides buried even deeper in the muck and black water. Hip fact: the first 16 tracks here were originally released in LP form in England as Authentic R&B on the Stateside label in 1963; shortly thereafter, the Rolling Stones recorded "I'm A King Bee" and "Got Love If You Want It," both Slim Harpo contributions to that original LP.

ORANGE DELUXE Necking

Dead Dead Good, 2 Witton Walk, Northwich, Cheshire CW9 5AT U.K. 0606.44559

Founded by Paul Bassett of prematurely nouveau mods 5.30, Orange Deluxe occupies a similar space to Shed Seven, spinning pithy pop with lads-together bonhomie but an equal drive to broaden the horizons the way the original mods did on receipt of the keys to the chemical cupboard. Elements of Merseybeat, Motown, hard rock boogie, New Wave and New Wave Of New Wave combine in a frankly Not So Very New melange of trad rock/pop values, though the thermometer never dips below cookin' hot. Standouts include the cheeky Motown pastiche "Love 45," the psychedelic guitar-fest "Angelique," the suitably raunchy "The Stripper," the ten-minute blow-out finale "Anti-Gravity Blues" and, best of all, the quiversome "Pure Grunt," which suggests Orange Deluxe should follow this dramatic, Radiohead-style route to self-expression. Maybe not deluxe yet, but definitely on the way.

MURMUR Sexpowder 2000 Volts

Cloudland, P.O. Box 575, DK-2200 Copenhagen N, Denmark phone Stone Immaculate on 0171.737.6359

Murmur is "five noisy youngsters from Copenhagen," the press bio says, making Sexpowder 2000 Volts sound like a children's adventure story. In a way, it is, though less Treasure Island than the 2000-volts, sexpowder adventure that is Sonic Youth—check out the dual male/female vox and sweet/drone melodies, on a mission of song-shredding and feedback-drenching discovery. New York rules, despite the Danish passports, Anglo-Asian producer Tjinder Singh (of Cornershop) or the Connecticut studio location. Fittingly, the album has an American release on NYC indie Dot Dot Dash, so over to them for more proof of Danish uprising (see 18th Dye and Trains And Boats And Planes).

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

Latest U.K. hype MENSWEAR are

'mates' of the Blur crowd, and the quintet's fashion-friendly, new-mod aura (Edwardian coats out of Carnaby Street 1965, luvaduck) and media connections got them a deal without writing more than five songs, front covers without a release, blah blah. One report suggested, 'Sod the hype, isn't it fun anyway?,' but not if the music is a let-down. "I'll Manage Somehow"/"Second Hand" just about manages as a debut statement—the band has taken the low-fi, scuffed-up route, but it's all too 1965-mod-pop predictable. That's fine for a school band but hardly the stuff of future legends. We'll see. Meanwhile, the U.K.'s perennial TV showcase Top Of The Pops had the band on for an exclusive—the runaway-train hype goes on (Laurel, P.O. Box 2400, London NW10 5NE U.K. phone Savage & Best PR on 0171.284.1922)...Since the WEEK-ENDERS originate from the same North London (specifically Camden Town) Blow Up club scene as Blur and Menswear, are they to be trusted? Their label, after all, is named Blow Up. Actually, "Man Of Leisure" is cheeky, cocky, and not a little fab—an infectiously neat mod-ish nugget (imagine a punkier Blur) that chews through its 'swinging London' feel with tongue in cheek. With quavering vocal, chirpy guitar, alternating tempos, Weekenders manage to walk the right side of retrolife (Blow Up, 10 Inverness St., London NW1 U.K. call Stone Immaculate PR on 0171.737.6359).

VINYL LP: KING OF FORMATS

With so few manufacturing outfits making good old-fashioned vinyl nowadays, the quality of pressings seems extremely shoddy lately. Conspiracy fans have been bandying about a theory about a bum batch of nickel, the metal used to make the plates from which records are stamped. Most of the best vinyl-only releases are pretty lo-fi recordings to begin with, so a little surface noise shouldn't scare you away from some delicious platters...JIM SHEPARD, of V-3 and Vertical Slit "fame," has been plying home-taped opuses (as have his Columbus cohorts Nudge Squidfish and Mike Rep) since the late-'70s, long before Sebadoh played at Budokan. After seven solo tapes, he's finally got two out on black plastic: Evil Love Deeper (Thrill Jockey, P.O. Box 476794, Chicago, IL 60647 312.278.7703) and Picking Through The Wreckage With A Stick on the vinyl-only Siltbreeze label (P.O. Box 15757, Philadelphia, PA 19103). Despite the noise and muddiness inherent to home cassette recording, Shepard's solo albums are really quite beautiful compared to their more raucous V-3 cousins (even a chorus like "Should have punched her in the mouth" on "I Owe You Nothing" becomes a lovely melody). While his deadpan regular-joe voice is oddly appealing, it's Shepard's trebly, scrabbling guitar which is most noteworthy—the strings of the instrument are almost always noticeable. On the splendid "Bingle Bangle" (co-written with Strapping Field Hand Bob Dickey) his arpeggios fall like goddamn spring raindrops, and on "Harry's Getting Ready To Shave" I swear he briefly quotes a melody from "Gymnopedies" (whether it's knowingly or accidental, it's pretty stupefying). On the minus side, for someone who cares nil about college radio, Spin magazine and the Billboard charts, Shepard sings about them a bit too much...Put The Music In Its Coffin (Siltbreeze, address above), the second album from British piffers the SHADOW RING, is rather cultivated tomfoolery: absurd and whimsical stories, recitations and songs with not-quite-random plinking, twiddling, rattling and knocking about. The band's two members are unabashed enthusiasts of sound, with a refreshing lack of cynicism. What others might view as pretentious emperor's new clothes is genuine butt-naked joie de vivre...On Jacks Creek (Abduction, P.O. Box 9611, Seattle, WA 98109), the vinyl-mostly SUN CITY GIRLS again display their artistry in malarkey, this time with a deep-fried southern flavor (pluckin' banjos, blowin' harp, Dukes Of Hazzard drawl, chord changes from "Dixie" become "Civil War Jazz," etc.), plus a bit of extraneous keyboard rambling. It could pass for the soundtrack of Deliverance as directed by Jodorowsky...Another recent Abduction release sports a very nice photo of a beach full of snoozing cows, but no title or artist name is anywhere to be found, inside or out. Sun City guitarist ALAN BISHOP might be a little shy, but he takes 28 very nice one- and two-minute solo jaunts on acoustic and electric guitar. Bishop evokes more than a little of the spirit of John Fahey, but with a much more whacked harmonic and melodic sense. Highly recommended...BLBAF's Home Of The Brahma Chopp is the first full-length album on the digital-loading Vertical label (1736 Columbia Road NW #402, Washington, DC 20009). BLBAF, a k a Broken Lightbulb, Anal Fetish (Jim Sottile of Squirmbo), conducts experiments on the electric guitar in the name of science, raising ethical questions as the instrument screams for mercy amidst mysterious bubbling and gurgling...Next week: a pile of non-lousy singles.

JACKPOT!

KENNY GARRETT

Triology

Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd.,
Burbank, CA 91505-4694

For saxophonists the measure of true grit—short of a completely unaccompanied date, the ultimate leap into the breach—is the pianoless—trio format. Without a pianist feeding the saxist directional chords and offering support melodically, harmonically and rhythmically, the sax player must compensate. The horn player is more exposed, more at risk; at the same time, an experienced, confident improviser can be impelled, without pianistic undergirding, to summon all of his or her inner resources in the hope of scaling greater heights of expressiveness. Among tenor saxists, Sonny Rollins and Joe Henderson have recorded masterful pianoless-trio statements that stand as the benchmarks against which newcomers to the format will be judged. Kenny Garrett, who happens to play alto, tackles the pianoless-trio form head-on with Triology, a daring, high-energy spree with drummer Brian Blade and bassist Kiyoshi Kitagawa or Charnett Moffett. The onetime Jazz Messenger and Miles Davis bandmate admits that part of his motivation for exploring the trio format was his inability at the time, 1993, to find the right pianist because his favorite, Mulgrew Miller, was unavailable. Touring Europe, sans piano, with Moffett and Blade emboldened him to make Triology, which he states is indeed an homage to Rollins and Henderson. "Few sax players of [my] generation have played [pianoless] trio," explains the New Jersey resident, noting Branford Marsalis as a notable exception. "I wanted to pay homage to the fact that Joe and Sonny are still living." In addition to doing three of his own originals (including "Oriental Towaway Zone" from his debut on Criss Cross more than a decade ago), Garrett & Co. embark boldly on Wynton Marsalis' "Delfeayo's Dilemma" (from Black Codes From The Underground), John Coltrane's almighty "Giant Steps" and such Great American Songbook faves as "Night And Day," "In Your Own Sweet Way" and "What Is This Thing Called Love?"

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

After just one week at #1, Verve's Joe Henderson (1-2) is topped by trombonist/conch-blower Steve Turre, whose new Antilles album (2-1) includes guest performances by Herbie Hancock and Pharoah Sanders. Saxophonists Ernie Watts (16-11) on JVC, and Johnny Griffin (23-13) on Verve are making steady climbs. The top debut was Verve's Charlie Haden/Hank Jones duet (#14). Haden's past several albums have regularly hit #1 on the Jazz chart, so keep your eyes on it in upcoming weeks. Bubbling just under the top 25 were new albums from Columbia's Wynton Marsalis & Ellis Marsalis, the third album in a series from John Zorn's Masada on DIW, and the late Don Pullen on Blue Note (see obituary on page 63). (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

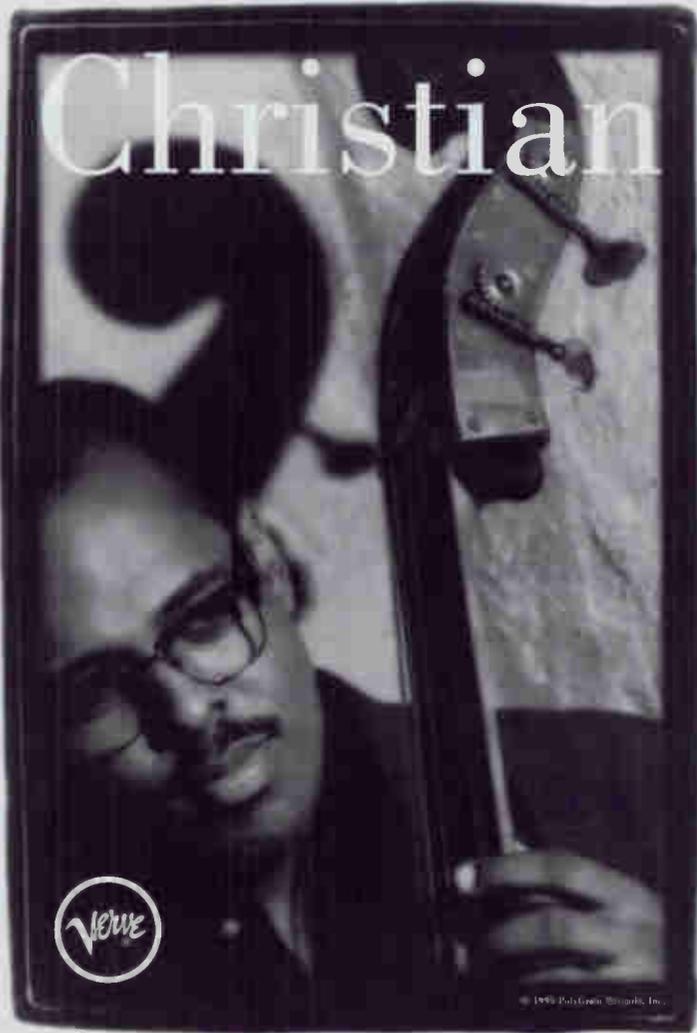

Youngster Blade, highly esteemed for his stickwork in tenorman Joshua Redman's current quartet, was introduced, in actuality, several years ago on Garrett's Black Hope recording for Warners. As such, his simpatico with Garrett, as with Moffett and Kitagawa, is well established. "Trying to play without the piano," says Garrett, "is another discipline. The fact that you don't have the chords gives you freedom in the structure. [But] you have to be thinking all the time. You have to have a lot under your fingers. I found that very challenging. Joe and Sonny can play harmonically whatever they want to play, and you can hear where they are in the tune. People like Joe and Sonny—they've figured it out. I'm still searching." Searching he may be, but Garrett is also burning on Triology. Jocks who like their jazz largely fast and furious, but still coherent and tuneful, will find hours of enjoyment with this disc. A track from Triology will work wonderfully, and fittingly, alongside pianoless-trio tunes from Rollins (A Night At The Village Vanguard, Vols 1 & 2, 1957, Blue Note) and Henderson (The State Of The Tenor: Live At The Village Vanguard Vols. 1 & 2, 1985, Blue Note). In so doing, the enterprising jock will showcase three daring saxists in an explorative format spanning three generations. That's what jazz is all about.

LEADING LADIES

Female trumpet players are few and far between. The physical demands of the instrument and, perhaps even more so, its macho identification tend to discourage young women, though Stacy Rowles and Rebecca Coupe Franks are two notable exceptions. To that short list one can now add the promising Ingrid Jensen. Vernal Fields, her debut CD for Enja (c/o Koch International, 2 Tri-Harbor Court, Port Washington, NY 11050-4617 516.484.1000), reveals a piercing attack and a rounded tone (similar to that of Art Farmer, who has endorsed her) well-suited to her neobop approach. Born and raised in Vancouver, Canada, Jensen was graduated from the Berklee College of Music in 1989, whereupon she performed widely throughout Europe. Since settling in New York City, she has made a name for herself in the all-woman Diva Big Band. Experienced though she is with big-band work, Jensen opts for a smaller setting on Vernal Fields. In alto/soprano saxman Steve Wilson, who has distinguished himself on CD for Criss Cross, and tenorist George Garzone, a fierce, burly-sounding Bostonian, Jensen has a formidable front line. Fellow Enja artist Bruce Barth (whose second CD, Morning Call, hits the streets soon) anchors an experienced, versatile rhythm section with bassist Larry Grenadier and drummer Lenny White. White, best known for his funk and fusion ways, most notably in Return to Forever, has been slugged in this space for his questionable sense of swing. But this album, and a few other efforts, has made a convert of these ears. In addition to covering two Cole Porter numbers, the leader gets strong compositional input from her younger sister, Christine, who penned three pieces, and tenorist Garzone, who contributes "The Mingus That I Knew." Christine Jensen, a pianist and alto saxist (she doesn't perform on the CD), has come up with two compositions, "Marsh Blues" and the title track, that serve as cohesive yet flexible blowing vehicles for the frontline soloists. On muted trumpet the leader's pinched tone is overly reminiscent of the late Miles Davis', but this is a minor caveat on a debut recording. Her open horn, solowise and in combination with the saxists, is beautifully poignant, especially on the aforesaid numbers by her sister and on Porter's "Ev'ry Time We Say Goodbye." Both are strongly recommended for airplay. Well done...Unlike the trumpet, the jazz flute has numerous distaff name practitioners—Holly Hoffman and Elise Wood (who works frequently with pianist John Hicks) spring foremost to mind. Unlike many flutists endeavoring to play jazz with a wispy, feathery tone, Ali Ryerson combines a flavorful, full-bodied sound with precise diction and easeful swing. On her seventh recording overall and first for Concord (P.O. Box 845, Concord, CA 94522 510.682.6770), Portraits In Silver, Ryerson presents a flute-friendly program including, among other cuts, Chick Corea's "Windows," Sam Rivers' "Beatrice," Bill Evans' "Very Early" and J.J. Johnson's "Lament." Portraits In Silver is a refreshing and substantive quartet affair with swingsters Kenny Werner on piano, Dennis Irwin on bass and Danny Gottlieb on drums. All (perhaps not coincidentally) are veterans of the Vanguard (formerly Mel Lewis) Jazz Orchestra, a Monday-night institution at the Village Vanguard in New York City for decades. Good show.

Dream Songs And Healing Sounds In The Rainforests Of Malaysia

Smithsonian Folkways,
Office Of Folklife Programs,
955 L'Enfant Plaza SW Ste. 2600,
Washington, DC 20560
202.387.3262

It's a pleasure when a recording leaves you wordless, and this is one of them. The Temiar people of the Malaysian rainforest are so far beyond my feeble comprehension that any musical analysis is irrelevant and possibly irreverent. Here are people so completely one with nature that their music and their environment sometimes seem as one, and this recording richly documents, and attempts to explain, that relationship.

Musicologist Marina Roseman has done an elegant job of capturing, as best any technology can, the sublime and wonderful musical world of Malaysia, through both the songs and the ambient sounds surrounding her during her visits to these rare places. That the two are so intertwined is intellectually no mystery, but beyond that comprehension fails me, and probably will you too. The music is simple and complex, pure and adulterated interpretations of life in the forest reinvented, as is human custom, with technological tricks of voice and machine: bamboo becomes zither, scrap metal becomes mouth harp, voices become creatures of the land. It's an age-old process we have forgotten here in the land of DAT and CD. We need these reminders, even if we can't understand the full message.

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

We have yet another #1 on our hands, as Worldly-Triloka's Trance Planet Volume Two (4-1) takes center stage. Right behind this set, another strong new record is gaining steam: Hannibal-Rykodisc's Dr Didg moves up 6-2. Our highest debut comes from Parisian/Lairean superstar Papa Wemba, whose RealWorld-Caroline debut comes on board at #7. That's the highest debut in quite some time. Further down, Musican-Elektra's The Best Of The Gipsy Kings appears at #14. The Gipsy Kings have always enjoyed tremendous success on our charts, and this lively compilation should prove no exception. Further down, there are three more new debuts, all in a row: Lucky Dube's Tabu-Motown debut (#18), Interra-Subharmonic's recordings of Chinese Han—Zheng Melodies (#19) and Heartbeat's Michael Rose (#20). One final note: please be sure and have titles and labels handy when calling in your report, as there are occasionally more than one current release from a particular artist; Dennis Brown and Mad Professor are just two current examples. ### RODRIGO AND REMEDIOS FLORES Flamenca Caravan

Lyrichord, 141 Perry St., New York, NY 10014 212.929.8234

In the rush of pop-flamenco, schmaltz flamenco new age and experimental flamenco that has buffeted the ears of America in the last few years, only a few moments of the real thing have ever managed to receive wide distribution (notably the fabulous Duende set on Ellipsis Arts). So here it is, in all of its mystical and various glory. Rodrigo, the guitarist, is a firebrand, a peerless technician who will leave you breathless as he rages up and down the strings. His wife, Remedios Flores, is one of those voices that bespeaks darkness and depth, a fiery sensuality that will make you quiver in places rarely touched by music. There is no fusion here of the marketing sense, just the fusion of history, the confluence of Middle Eastern, Spanish, Indian and gypsy cultures, which came together to beget one of the world's most enduring musical languages. This duo is a good example of what can happen with simple tools, a lot of passion and a lot of history.

SUPER SWEET TALKS INTERNATIONAL The Lord's Prayer

Stern's, 598 Broadway, New York, NY 10012 212.925.1648

Still more A.B. Crensil on CD! This time it's in a gospel-influenced, highlife-drenched dance party. These late-'70s recordings make the case for highlife's long reign as the influence in Africa, with their rich mix of African, American and pop influences, from Latin to gospel to funky Afro-soul. The title track is just what it says, a groveful, tuneful rendition of that most universal of Christian invocations. While Christianity may have wreaked some havoc on the cultures of Africa and the Americas, it certainly had a positive musical influence as the black gospel of the Americas roamed back to Africa for a second musical incarnation. But the monster track of the album has to be "Adjoa," with its searing horns, incessant and gripping groove (with some wild stops and punctuations) and slyly sexual emotions. This is the real thing, strong and sweet.

PAPA WEMBA Emotion

RealWorld, c/o Caroline, 114 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001 212.989.2929

What a voice! What a character! Wemba, Zairian in the best Parisian sense of the word, has grown into a major figure in the modern journey of African music. This album takes all the things that were flaws in Youssou N'Dour's last trip out—synths, drum machines, incurable pop grooves, even a pop-style duet—and turns them into advantages. Why? Because he's Wemba, and there is an infectiousness to his voice, his songs and his arrangements that takes every cliché in the book and makes them seem somehow fresh. Even his turn around on Otis Redding and Steve Cropper's "Fa Fa Fa Fa Fa (Sad Song)" is durable and right. He tries out Latin tempos, hip-hop and some off-the-wall turns and makes them his own by sheer force of talent. I usually hate this stuff, these pop-masters of Africa, but every once in a while someone gets it right, and plays it with undeniable Emotion.

WHY DO I WRITE THIS COLUMN?

It seems to be a question that is not only asked of me regularly, but that more and more I have to ask myself. I thought I should concoct an answer. There is a thread to all of this New World stuff, a connection however deep, that has everything to do with what I hold very close: the community of music and the community of radio. The 20th century has desperately tried to reinvent the musical wheel, giving complicated names to the simplest of things; folk music (music for and by folks) has been torn asunder into folk-rock, popular folk, singer/songwriter folk, anti-folk, punk folk and "traditional" folk. In the '80s we were delivered "world music," an innocuous term that once again has the marketers arguing and the musicians grinning. "What's traditional?" "What's 'world'?" More than once the contents of this column have strayed from what most folks believed to be its mission: marketing little pieces of plastic with noise on them. I believe that it's the musicians, and the societies they live in, that are the real point of all this, whether they are from Seattle or Sudan. To look at music in a vacuum of reviews and sales figures is to denigrate it into oblivion.

I have tried a different approach over my years at CMJ. I came here in the spring of 1989 as a musician and community radio volunteer, with just a little journalism. I tried from the very beginning to do what I did in radio and performance: make the connections between artist and listener, in a real world, real time way. Politics, humor, love and life are all elements of great music, and to deny them in journalism is to suck the life out of the music. There is a connection between Newt Gingrich and folk songwriting, between Looney Tunes and rock 'n' roll, between music and war and poverty and commerce. A.B. Crensil is a product of that strange African/Christian confluence. Youssou N'Dour is overwhelmed by modern technology and trade. These are all elements of art, real living art in a real, living world. If I did anything in the years I have been at CMJ, I hope to hell I have helped to make someone in radio think about those connections in some creative, serious, funny, cynical or joyous way. It ain't much, but it's all I got.

Peace always.

ON THE CHART Make it nine weeks in a row at #1 for American's Jayhawks. What will it take to dislodge them from the top spot? It's hard to say, especially when the Jayhawks lead over contenders remains large and the rest of the top 10 is packed so tightly. While Atlantic's Led Zeppelin tribute (20-8) and A&M's Del Amitri (12-10) enter the top 10, Arista's Boys On The Side soundtrack (21-18) and Swell-Elektra's Better Than Ezra (32-21) make significant gains. Top debuts this week are Capricorn's Freddy Jones Band at #27, Atlantic's Collective Soul at #30 and Charisma's Danny Tate at #39. ### A HOUSE Wide Eyed And Ignorant

Radioactive, 1775 Broadway, 7th Fl., New York, NY 10019 212.489.4820

Ireland's A House has developed a strong fan base with its three previous albums that is sure to expand with Wide Eyed And Ignorant. Always dependable for clever pop hooks, the band has augmented its sound with a horn section and strings, bringing vocalist Dave Couse and friends closer to sounding like an effusive World Party or an extremely animated Robyn Hitchcock & The Egyptians. In spite of three different teams producing the album's various tracks, Wide Eyed And Ignorant hangs together very well, which is a testament to the band's sturdy songwriting and witty lyrics.

From the positively anthemic "Here Comes The Good Times" (already a Top 40 single in the U.K.) to the '60s pop funk of "Everything I Am" to the spoken word/folk rock fusion "Why Me" to the killer hook of "The Comedy Is Over," A House once again exhibits a shining personality that's impossibly endearing and sure to sound great on the radio.

SHORT SHOTS

One of the last year's sadly overlooked gems was DAVID KNOPFLER's The Giver. Now he's back with Small Mercies, his second for Mesa (209 E. Alameda Ave., #101, Burbank, CA 91502 818.841.8585). Taking up where he left off, Knopfler creates sparse, yet enveloping story/songs with a slightly British folk bent. Knopfler and co-producer Harry Bogdanovs provide most of the instrumental backing, weaving chillingly mysterious beds for his emotionally charged lyrics. Don't miss "Depford Days," "A Little Sun (Has Got To Shine)" and "Weeping In The Wings," some of the most distinctive and winsome music we've heard this year...The COX FAMILY defies categorization with its special blend of country, bluegrass, gospel and rock. Beyond The City is the group's second for Rounder (1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140 617.354.0700) and it's sure to attract a great deal of attention. With help from Alison Krauss (who produced the record) and members of her band Union Station, the Cox Family offers its own spin on tunes from a diverse set of songwriters, including a couple of that stand out from Sidney Cox. John Sebastian ("Lovin' You"), A.P. Carter ("I'll Be All Smiles Tonight"), Roy Orbison ("Blue Bayou") and the Louvin Brothers ("Broken Engagement") are all included, and each song is performed with a ton of heart and an obviously deep appreciation for the composer...Sounding like he hails from Austin, yet with a songwriting style that recalls some of Nashville's best (i.e. Kevin Welch, Kieran Kane), San Francisco's RICHARD BUCKNER has just released his powerful and absorbing debut, Bloomed (Dejadisc, 537 Lindsey St., San Marcos, TX 78666 512.392.6610). Recorded in Lubbock, Texas, with the assistance of Lloyd Maines, Ponty Bone and Butch Hancock, it's filled with Buckner's sprawling narratives, aptly given life with his warm, fragile vocals and simple, airy wisps of acoustic guitar, pedal steel and fiddle. "Gauzy Dress In The Sun," "22" and "Surprise, AZ" stand out among the 12 gems here....One of the most talented and sadly underappreciated blues bands around today, the SMOKIN' JOE KUBEK BAND is back with Cryin' For The Moon, its fourth for Bullseye Blues (c/o Rounder, address above), and it's the band's best collection so far. Kubek has been favorably compared to Stevie Ray Vaughan and Albert Collins, yet he synthesizes his own wicked style from their legacies. With a solid rhythm section and the soulful vocals of Bnois King, this is a multi-dimensional band. It can lay the hoodoo down on "You Haven't Hurt Me," get lean and mean Texas-style on "In One Hand (And Out The Other)," or get laid-back and funky on "If It's The Last Thing I Do."

RAVE REVIEW

CHOCOLATE CITY

Love Songs (EP)

Deep Dish, 20043 Placid Lake Terrace, Germantown, MD 20874 703.212.0878

Just when you thought house was on its last legs, when every record from the New York metro area and beyond had begun to sound identical, along comes the astounding Love Songs EP by Chocolate City, on the now highly regarded Deep Dish label. The label came to prominence with its release of Brian Transeau's first EP last year. Transeau (also known as BT) has gone on to considerable acclaim as a producer and remixer, both in the U.S. and Britain. On this release, producers Sharam and Dubfire head straight for the dancefloor. The A-side's perfect "House For Chocolate" has a bass line that bypasses the ears and enters the bloodstream directly, offset by reedy, piercing keyboard stabs and stinging sax work. The flip's "Taxi Luv" is an aching, gorgeously orchestrated piece of work with keyboard licks that seem almost organic. It would be no exaggeration to say this is a house record whose status as a classic is already ensured.

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

To no-one's surprise, Alex Paterson and the Orb crew jump three positions (4-1) to the chart's peak. Aphex Twin's latest Sire full-length also ascends four spots (9-5), followed by Wax Trax!-TVT's KMFDM (8-6). Instinct's entry into the jungle sweepstakes, King Of The Jungle, climbs six places (15-9). The highest new entry comes from Black Dog's release on EastWest-EEG at #10, followed by Taylor and the Prototype 909 crew at #18. Two industrial diehards also debut this week: Sire-WB's Armageddon Dildos (#21) and Geffen's revived Nitzer Ebb (#22). Upward trends include: WHITE LABELS/EYE Q/Onion-American's Harthouse collection (17-11) and Dee-Lite DJ Towa Tei (22-12). (RPM REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

BASS KITTENS Kittens Ripped My Flesh (EP)

Oxygen Music, c/o Dig It International, 915 Broadway, Ste. 1005, New York, NY 10010 212.673.7676

And now the next exciting episode in the electro revival: the Bass Kittens four-to-the-floor, electro-charged four-tracker that will force you to reconsider New York as a site for electronic experimentation. I can't tell you how welcome this record has been. Paraphrasing a mid-'70s Frank Zappa LP title, Weasels Ripped My Flesh, this is a humid, pummelling exercise. The first side's "Rat Patrol" and "Take It To The Street" recall the flattening 808 histrionics of the Jozun Crew and Planet Patrol. The bass sounds are set to new depths of floor-quaking potential, the sampled scratches emerge between the bass bounces, and the energy levels are ridiculous. The track moves with the momentum of the mid-'80s video game Defender, with darting laser sounds and mock explosions. We really need more records like this, where the producers' restraint just goes to the dogs and everyone has a great time. The flip's "Big Hair Is Still Alive In Small Towns" and "Jack The Biscuit" are acid inflected groovers with an equally satisfying sense of humor.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Two A.D.

Waveform, P.O. Box 1905 Sedona, AZ 86339 602.204.1989

Waveform is the U.S. outpost for the British Beyond label, home to a number of highly respected ambient producers. The label's first U.S. compilation, One A.D., enjoyed a long residency in the RPM chart and this second release is certain to do the same. Two A.D. culls tracks from a variety of artists, including Coldcut (a.k.a. Matt Black), with his long-out-of-print "Autumn Leaves," as well as Birmingham's Groove Corporation, whose dub stylings are well evident on "A Voyage On The Marie Celeste." Ambient stalwarts Higher Intelligence Agency and Biosphere are also featured. As a manifesto for the current state of ambient invention, this compilation is quite accurate.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Drum And Bass Selection Part Four

Breakdown, c/o Suburban Base, 3 Old Mill Parade, Victoria Road, Romford, Essex RM1 2HU U.K. 0708.727029

Once again, U.S. junglists are offered a scorching collection of the latest U.K. jungle tracks at a tenth of the cost of the individual singles. From the hurtling "Real Love" by Asend & Ultravibe to Marvelous Cain's "Dub Plate Style," this compilation can do no wrong. Compiled by Danny Donnelly (a.k.a. Danny Breaks) of the highly regarded Suburban Base label (now also partially distributed in the U.S. via Moonshine in L.A.), Drum And Bass Selection Part Four is a tour de force of contemporary British jungle. The ragga influence is still strongly felt in the jungle underground, thus this compilation features the talents of Rude Bwoy Monty, Dillinja, and Hopa & Bones Featuring Fats. Suburban Base (along with Moving Shadow) has become the standard bearer for jungle in the U.K. This explosive compilation confirms the label's status. Let us hope it will appear in the domestic racks in the near future.

ELSEWHERE

The Midwest's minimalist auteur Robert Armani has just released a double 12" pack of blistering grooves that will undoubtedly win him still more fans. "Madman Stand" offers enough ideas over four sides of vinyl to keep imitators at bay. As is customary, Armani's more distorted kick drum techniques are reserved for his Italian releases on Tony Verde's overlooked ACV label. With enough energy to heat the island of Manhattan for a couple of winters, "Sweating Bullets" and "Supermarket Sweep" are the standouts among the eight tracks here. Some of Armani's most unusual work can be found on the dangling, off-center "Clockwork" and "Bonkers" (ACV, Via Antonio Coppi 4/c, 00179 Rome, Italy 06.780.6441).

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

In a surprising move, DGC's Roots reclaim the #1 position from Elektra-EEG's Ol' Dirty Bastard, who falls from #1 to #2—don't expect ODB to take this lying down. Relativity's Common Sense is enjoying new life as Resurrection climbs 9-3, and the soundtrack for Friday (12-4) makes an impressive eight-spot jump. Making the highest debut this week is the new album by Delicious Vinyl-Capitol's Masta Ace Incorporated entitled Sittin' On Chrome, which debuts this week at #5 following the success of "The I.N.C. Ride." Climbing into the top 10 this week is New Jersey Drive Vol. 1 (13-9), while the soundtrack to Bad Boys surfaces at #19. On the Retail chart, New Jersey Drive Vol. 1 (2-1) takes over for Interscope's 2Pac (2-1), while Def Jam/RAL-Island's Method Man (6-5) remains strong with his new single featuring Mary J. Blige. Two debuts to watch include Uptown-MCA's Soul For Real, which debuts Candy Rain at #18, and Capitol-Delicious Vinyl's Masta Ace Incorporated, which debuts its third album at #20. This week's Top Adds: 1) Friday; 2) Artifacts; 3) New Jersey Drive Vol. 1; 4) Funkdoobiest; 5) Loud 95: Nudder Budders; 6) E-40; 7) Boogiemonsters; 8) Channel Live; 9) Dana Dane; 10) Frankie Cutlass. ## DOPE!

NAUGHTY BY NATURE

Poverty's Paradise

Tommy Boy, 902 Broadway,
13th Fl., New York, NY 10010
212.388.8300

On its self-titled debut, New Jersey's Naughty By Nature paved its neighborhood's streets platinum with the tremendous success of "O.P.P." The group's follow-up, 19NaughtyIII, was similar to the first album but less inspired, although it did spawn the group's second anthemic hit, "Hip Hop Hooray." It wasn't like Treach and Vinny and Kay Gee had lost their skills, or moved into palatial mansions and retired from the game; the music simply lacked a sense of purpose, indicating that maybe the bright lights of crossover success had blurred their vision. On Poverty's Paradise the trio has reignited a fire and come up with its most focused and consistent work to date. NBN packs the heart of the ghetto into every cut, rallying the people, rousing them with reality ("World Go Round"), and swinging the Louisville Slugger right alongside them (the title track and "City Of Cl-LO"). It seems as though Treach and the crew received a wakeup call from the hip-hop community and have created a work that will be chocolate and roses to anyone who felt abandoned in the past—boogie beats and hardcore flows are everywhere. Treach's nimble rhymes are in top form ("Sunshine" and the shimmering "Chain Remains"), squashing any notions of being soft, while Vinny assumes a greater role here, playing less of a sidekick role. Kay Gee's production is straight ghetto funk that is easily digestible by crossover crowds, maintaining Naughty By Nature's place as one of hip-hop's craftiest groups, and one that will never be second-guessed again. Rock on: "Clap Yo Hands," "Holdin' Fort," "Craziest," "Respect Due" and "Connections," which can also be found on New Jersey Drive Volume 2.

SOUNDTRACK Tales From The Hood

40 Acres, c/o MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza,
Universal City, CA 91608

The soundtrack to the film Tales From The Hood features new tracks from some hip-hop heavyweights who are masters of street tales and hardcore reality. Putting its best foot forward, the Wu-Tang Clan rips through "Let Me At Them," which has a fresher sound than the traditional Wu-Tang style found on Method Man and Ol' Dirty Bastard's solo releases. Face Mob featuring Scarface drops "Face Mob," which is full of Scarface's fury and cutting rhymes, while the laid-back flow of Domino returns on "Tales From The Hood," featuring a sing-songy chorus and less-fervent rhyming. Spice 1 delivers the apocalyptic "Born II Die," which reeks of dead bodies after the gun blasts and murderous lyrics end, and the Wu-Tang's Ol' Dirty Bastard flips his high-strung rhymes on "Ol' Dirty's Back" over near-inaudible bass vibrations and sluggish beats. But, in typical ODB style, his charisma and maniacal personality make it sound dope. Other tracks worth messing with include: "One Less Nigga" from MC Eiht (yes, he says "Ch-yeah" umpteen times), the Gravediggaz' "From The Darkside" and "Hot Ones Echo Through The Ghetto" by the Bay Area posse known as The Click.

I-CUE Funky Vintage (EP)

New Breed, 134 W. 26th St., Ste. 770,
New York, NY 10001 212.255.0672

I-Cue is a New York-based DJ who spins a lively stew of head-nodding hip-hop grooves with rare jazzy ornamentation which gives this instrumental EP its personality. Without a rapper, I-Cue successfully mixes up four eclectic, steamy portions of the freshest hip-hop/jazz. Calling attention to his dynamic creativity and gift as one of the great up-and-coming DJs, I-Cue incorporates hooky organ loops on "Dig This," and builds "Keepin' It" around deep-rooted piano sampling and undulating bass. "Vibes" is wrapped in live-sounding hi-hat and snare clicks, while the stand-up bass and trumpet loops make this the EP's jazziest and liveliest songs. The last cut, "Bright & Early," is handled with greater hip-hop production, casting an unearthly glow. You can also find I-Cue on New Breed's Fat Jazzy Grooves Volume 10.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Speakeasy Acid Jazz

Moonshine, 8391 Beverly Blvd., Ste. 195,
Los Angeles, CA 90048 310.246.0091

Speakeasy Acid Jazz continues Moonshine's series of urban alternative compilations, including Acid Jazz Test Part One and

Two and the Speakeasy Collective. On this compilation Moonshine gathers together some talented outfits signed directly to the label, showcasing the diversity of this ever-expanding, groove-based genre of music. Toledo's "Saxface" is a live funk jam peppered with moaning vocals and equally strained sax work, while the Broun Fellinis' "Zoomin'" sizzles with jazzy bass and drums, the spoken-word vocals its only other accompaniment. "Pele," by Hip Hop Giants, is a sedate mix of contemporary grooves and hip-hop production that lacks direction, but Tuba's "Back To The One," Snake Eyes' "Brotherhood" and Freedom Of Knowledge's "Hip Bop Jazz" are more familiar-sounding and industrious cuts. Also settle into: Philadelphia Bluntz' "Dum Dum Dum" and New Jazz Movements' rap-flavored "Final Verses."

METHOD MAN

"I'll Be There For You/You're All I Need To Get By" (12")

Def Jam/RAL, c/o PolyGram, 825 Eighth Ave.,
New York, NY 10019

An early mix of Method Man's album Tical featured a sample of Ashford & Simpson's "You're All I Need To Get By," which never quite made it to the final mix on the album. Here, he invited Mary J. Blige to add her soaring vocals and producer Sean "Puffy" Combs to apply his expertise to the "Puff Daddy" remix, which liberally utilizes the descending melody of the Ashford & Simpson cut (along with samples of Slick Rick and Notorious B.I.G.) and turns this into a glorious fusion of soul, melody and rap. The "Razor Sharp" mix uses more electronic sound effects and leans heavier on the bass line. While Meth also tosses on "What The Blood Clot," "I'll Be There For You..." has got "crossover hit" written all over it.

KUT KLOSE Surrender

Elektra, c/o EEG, 75 Rockefeller Plaza,
New York, NY 10019

Kut Klose is the first female group founded and produced by Keith Sweat for his label, Keia Records. The trio's debut album, Surrender, is a versatile mix of sultry, funky grooves, silky ballads and hard-hitting dance floor jams. The first single "Get Up On It" (featuring Keith Sweat) was successful even though it came at a time when there was an onslaught of girl groups. The group's persevering debut covers all the bases, from straight out steamy tracks, like the lusty "Lay My Body Down," to romantic interludes, such as "Giving You My Love Again," to just plain fun, as on "Do Me." All the offerings are well produced and flawlessly executed, and you're likely to hear more about the new single, "I Like," in the coming months. DERRICK THOMAS

DJ/producer FRANKIE KNUCKLES is a monster

when it comes to the evolution of dance music over the past 10 years. As a DJ in Chicago in the late '70s, Knuckles became an instrumental figure in the development of house music, and has since become one of the most respected and sought-after remixers in the business. His first venture as an independent artist came in 1991 with the release of Beyond The Mix, which contained the club smash "The Whistle Song." He returns after nearly four years off with Welcome To The Real World (Virgin, 338 N. Foothill Rd., Beverly Hills, CA 90210), marking the deepest Frankie has ventured into R&B and soul music. The record features contagious grooves that will attract R&B crowds and avid club-goers alike. Knuckles recruited the deep, smokey voice of Adeva (whose self-titled debut from 1989 is essential to any R&B/dance aficionado), whose vocals blend perfectly with Knuckles' moderate rhythmic and stylistic variations. This is far more than a club record: Try "Too Many Fish" or the cover of Gladys Knight's "You're Number 1 (In My Book)" for a dose of infectious soul, or get off on Frankie's flawless production on "Love Can Change It"...When tracing the lineage of all that is cool, specific images immediately spring to mind: Jimi's headband, Sly's swooping hat, Marvin's skullie, Angela Davis' afro, and Isaac's clean-shaven head. ISAAC HAYES, the king of hot-battered soul, returns with two releases: Branded and Raw And Refined (Point Blank, c/o Virgin, address above). Sir Isaac has been one of the most essential figures in the history of American music over the past 30 years. He started as a keyboard player for Stax Records, before becoming an influential songwriter and model of blackness in the early 1970's. His 1969 album, Hot Buttered Soul (on which the Bar-Keys performed), is a landmark in black music, and his work on the Shaft soundtrack is second-to-none. Hayes' visionary use of symphonic accents, romantic spoken dialogue with funky bottom-end became his defining trademark, and his influence can be heard in the music of artists like Barry White. The vocal album Branded immediately proves that this paradigm of blackness hasn't missed a beat. This release sees Hayes collaborating again with David Porter (Hayes and Porter together penned hits for Sam & Dave) on "Thanks To The Fool," and it also features social commentary ("Ike's Plea" and his cover of Sting's "Fragile") and updated versions of "Soulsville" (from Shaft) and "Hyperbolicsyllabicesqueyalmyistic" from Hot Buttered Soul. Raw And Refined is a mostly instrumental release of music recorded as far back as the '60s, documenting a wide spectrum of Hayes' musical concepts from the past few decades. From the raw jam of "Birth Of Shaft" to the breezy "The 405," this is some of the funkiest easy-listening music you'll ever hear.

MORBID ANGEL Domination

Giant, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510

Under normal circumstances, it would have to be a cold day in hell for a death metal band to quote Nietzsche in its bio,

BRUISER PICK

but not for an atypical, musical powerhouse like Morbid Angel, whose blazing affinity for the unexpected and unusual has been a consistent source of illumination within the dark realms of death metal. Never operating under the ordinary, run-of-the-mill, death metal "rules," Morbid Angel rises from the bowels of hell once again to bestow the band's latest fatally crushing, brutal masterpiece of malevolent power upon its ever-growing throng of devout, blood-thirsty fans. Although Morbid Angel's gloomy, goth-laced major-label debut, Covenant (the first major-label death metal album in history), helped nudge the band into the outer edges of the commercial metal industry limelight, the appropriately-titled Domination will rocket them directly onto center-stage with a newfangled, eruptive, raw power that blows the doors off the band's last record. Shuddering with Pete "Commando" Sandoval's trademark, spit-fire skin-bashing, the devastating twin-guitar attack of Trey Azagthoth and Erik Rutan, and David Vincent's signature, rabid growls and relentless bass grinds, Domination ravenously rips into dark, festering peels of razor-sharp tempo breaks, mind-shattering rhythms, heavier-than-hell grinds and subtle, foreboding synth wails. Check out the thick, oozing stomp of "Where The Slime Live," the thunderous pummel of "Nothing But Fear," the enraged blast of "This Means War," the surreal, crystalline shimmer of "Dreaming," the tempting, throbbing grind of "Inquisition (Burn With Me)" and the uncompromising, iron-clad grasp of the title track.

X-COPS

You Have The Right To Remain Silent...

Metal Blade, 2345 Erringer Road, Ste. 108, Simi Valley, CA 93065 805.522.9111

For those of you who may not know: the psychotic, gun-waving donut hounds that belong to this outrageously offensive outfit of X-Cops are the same sick and twisted, but nonetheless lovable, mutants who comprise the almighty, blood-spewing Gwar. Made up of eight ex-police officers gone horribly awry and wanted for various crimes (including illegal cavity search and seizure, public lewdness, illegal mass strip search, sodomy, murder and extreme brutality), the X-Cops have chosen the metal world as their latest victim, while spreading their corrupt, lewd and crude message to the masses through their debut full-length, You Have The Right To Remain Silent... Group leader X-Sherriff Tubb Tucker, commonly referred to as "the motherfucker of all motherfuckers," and his pack of fellow degenerates lunge through one bludgeoning tune after another with deadly vengeance and tireless aggression. Although it's obvious that the main focus of this hysterical Gwar offshoot is one of demented fun and sarcastic humor, the music isn't anything to joke about. With tight, hardcore-thrash rhythms, harsh, raw-throated vocal howls, strategically-placed, riotous samples and grinding, punk-laden grooves, You Have The Right To Remain Silent... is a serious metal contender that will blast its way to the top of the charts in no time at all. Delve into the deranged world of the X-Cops with "Interloper," "Cavity Search," "Welcome To New Jersey," "Your Mother," "Third Leg" and "You Fucked Up."

FILTER Short Bus

Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510

This amazing two-piece sonic machine recently made a huge splash in both the metal and alternative worlds with the jangly, bass-driven roar of its first single, "Hey Man Nice Shot," featured on the Demon Knight soundtrack. The multi-talented dynamic duo of Richard Patrick (vocals/guitars/bass/programming/drums) and Brian Liesegang (programming/keyboard/guitars/drums) will swiftly turn that splash into a tidal wave with Filter's debut full-length, Short Bus, an intricate amalgamation of electronic noise, intense, hard-rockin' rhythms and techno-industrial grinds rooted in a deep bed of thick, swirling grooves. The album's unusual title refers to the "short" buses that usually transport "challenged" kids to school each morning, and Filter picked this title to emphasize its interest in taking uncommon perspectives for examining life. The duo builds its music from an arsenal of creative tools that most only dream about, making Filter a perfect fit for numerous formats. Check out the expansive, mind-altering sting of "Dose," the rough, fast-paced surge of "Under," the stripped-down churn of "Spent," the infectious rhythmic bite of "Gerbil" and the pensive, groove-laden rumble of "It's Over."

GWEN MARS Magnosheen

Hollywood, 500 S. Buena Vista St., Burbank, CA 91521

With an inventive, sonically-layered sound similar to, but distinctively heavier than, the lush soundscapes of the Smashing Pumpkins, this psychedelic, emotionally-charged

Los Angeles trio pounds out a hard-edged mix of catchy, rockin' rhythms, mesmerizing electric effects and smooth, powerful vocals on its debut, Magnosheen. The band's history reads almost like a fairy tale: A mere six months after forming, Gwen Mars not only astounded producer Richard Podolor (Steppenwolf/Three Dog Night) with its live show and rough demo recording, but impressed him enough to lure him out of retirement to produce Magnosheen, which landed the band a deal with Hollywood. With all the finishing touches firmly in place, Magnosheen sparkles with intense, intricate guitar riffs, thought-provoking lyrics and free-flowing, spacious melodies. "Cosmic Dick," penned by primary songwriter/guitarist/vocalist Mike Thrasher long before the band got together, mixes attitudinal, punk-ish stomps with careening psychedelic tones, while the rough, reverberating grind of "Hollow" abruptly comes to halt in the song's middle, where it yields to the soft, beautiful tones of an autoharp and organ for a brief moment before caterwauling back into the fast-paced swell of the chorus. Also check out the percussive precision of "Control," the wailing, reverb blast of "Stick B.," the bizarre, experimental noise of "Ticket To Mars," the thick, dirgy churn of "Fisher King" and the futuristic, space-rock fuzz of "Stuck To The Sun."

developed by the band in conjunction with the Irvine, CA-based ETM Network. Advantages to the ETM system include charges of only $2.00 in service fees and 45 cents in handling fees; check, money order or credit card payment options; and personalized ID codes imprinted on each ticket to help curb scalping. ETM will announce special 800 numbers, thorough which fans can purchase tickets, via local press and radio in tour markets. The company is also setting up kiosks at local retail outlets... Last but not least, we all bid a fond farewell to Red Light Records last month, when the label shut its doors forever. Needless to say, former Red Light Records Director of National Radio Marketing & Promotion Jill Castellano is currently looking for another gig. #### "Million Bucks"

Interscope

Director: Samuel Bayer

Sidling up alongside fellow Calipunkers Green Day, Bad Religion, and Offspring, the veteran All crew makes its big-budget video debut in this cartoonish parody of television and its ever-present commercialism. The performance shots are stylized in typical Bayer fashion (see "Smells Like Teen Spirit" or "Gotta Get Away"), framing the tune's punchy rhythms with exaggerated slo-mo movements. Surrounding the band's moments in the spotlight are perfectly grafted re-makes of Calvin Klein's "Obsession" ads (now duped "Depression," with the ad's fantasy models wringing tears from their eyes) and psych-chic hotline infomercials. Fun, comic and under three minutes. What more could you want from a pop-punk band? CH

BELLY

"Super-Connected"

Sire-Reprise

Director: Chris Gorman

The latest video from Belly hints not only at a literal transformation of Ms. Donely, as we watch her "assembly" at the hands of a group of Drs. Frankenstein, but also at a symbolic transformation, with the emergence of a darker, heavier visual presence for her band. The clip itself is a wonderful nightmare, taking an equal number of visual cues from Bride Of Frankenstein and Fritz Lang's Metropolis, including supersaturated color flashes, ancient film stock scratches and other lighting inconsistencies, which add a time-worn, revival-house vibe to the piece. AARON CLOW

ON THE CHART

(color indicates a significant change in replay)

The return of Simon LeBon and co. firmly asserts itself this week as Capitol's veteran new wavers make their way to #1, while Motown's Boyz II Men remain in second place for the second week in a row. Columbia's Jeff Buckley leaps 16 spots to the third position with his second clip, "Last Goodbye," and Reprise's latest industrial darling Filter makes its chart debut at #5. A big re-entry this week comes from Epic's Shudder To Think, whose innovative clip for "X-French Tee Shirt" comes in at #14, while gaining the #2 and #5 slots on the Alternative/Rock 40 and the Locals Only, respectively. Other vids making their highest chart position yet include Geffen's White Zombie (34-19), Warner Bros. R.E.M. (69-22), Island's Melissa Etheridge (52-25), A&M's Monster Magnet (31-28) and Lava-Atlantic's Jill Sobule, who makes her debut this week at #29 with a little help from Fabio.

the intriguing clip for "Hypnotized." Among the many curious scenes passing through frontman Jim Kerr's world in this clip is one in which a young girl, dressed completely in black-and-white horizontal stripes, pulls a polka-dotted handkerchief from her mouth. Sound odd? Well it is, but in a very absorbing and exotically mysterious way. Much of the clip's texturing and color recalls Nine Inch Nails' "Closer" vid, but its imaginative sense is all its own. CH

RED AUNTS "Freak-a-thon"

Epitaph

Director: Darren J. Lovett

Frontlit by an exceptionally bright light, the Red Aunts appear to blast through a lip-synch of their raucous, less-than-90-seconds-long "Freak-a-thon." Until you realize that none of them are actually moving their lips, even the one behind the microphone. And that their hands aren't quite playing the sounds you're hearing. And that while their patch cords are slung through their guitar straps, they're not actually plugged into the guitars. At the end, there's a brief cut into a few seconds of what looks like a martial-arts/wrestling movie, starring the band. It's weird and disconcerting enough to demand multiple viewings. DOUGLAS WOLK

HELIUM "Pat's Trick"

Matador

Director: David Kleiler

This first video from Helium's Dirt Of Luck was directed by David Kleiler, who also did the band's "XXX" video last year. The new clip's bigger budget allows Kleiler to intersperse crisp black-and-white shots with vivid color segments throughout. The video works with the song in a literal manner—when Mary Timony sings of "little flowers," she is shown playing guitar in a room full of brightly colored pinwheel flowers, and when she sings of being dirty, she's shown out in the fields, hoe-in-hand. The color/black-and-white juxtaposition makes for a beautiful eyeful, and new facets of songstress Timony's personality are revealed when she's behind the wheel of a bulldozer. DAWN SUTTER □

Craig Williams, Long Play Records, Atlanta, GA 404.681.4915 Hello from the land of pollen and Olympic™ rings. It is possibly one of the busiest times we've ever seen here at little ol' Long Play. Many of you have discovered Smoke, definitely one of the most unique bands today. For those who haven't heard Heaven On A Popsicle Stick, you are missing what has been described as "probably the only band that can lay claim to the thrones of Tom Waits, Chet Baker, and Hank Williams." Recently the band played NYC with Steve (Sonic Youth) Shelley's side-project Catpower...Those of you who liked XTC or think Robyn Hitchcock is way cool should find the Brotherhood Of Lizards right up your eccentric alleyway. Listen, Martin Newell is the Brotherhood, and his cult status in Britain should have you wondering what you're missing. That album he did with Andy Partridge only scratched the surface of this man's genius. Here's a quote: "Lizardland is another virtually perfect collection of timeless and beautiful tunes."...Thanks to the many stations who have discovered both Smoke and The Brotherhood Of Lizards for themselves. Mid-May will find a new album from Big Fish Ensemble who have probably been in your area recently (over 200 shows in the last year). They've got lotsa fans...By the way, if you aren't on our mailing list and you are intrigued, give us a call or e-mail us at LongPlay22@aol.com.

Gary Jay, Celebrity Stalker, AIM Marketing, Old Bridge, NJ 908.679.9111 What's the PC way to approach a celebrity you're dying to meet (but haven't been formally introduced to)? Outside of the Our Lady Peace show at CBGB's last week, I encountered Henry Rollins. Here's somebody I'd go out of my way to shake hands with—the guy's a fucking legend. How can I meet him without looking like a complete drooling, big glasses, Buddy Holly/John Perrone-looking Duran Duran groupie circa 1984? I could pretend to accidentally bump into him, "Whoops! Sorry about that...hey, aren't you Henry Rollins?" (like you could mistake him for someone else with the big, hawking sun tattoo all over his back?) Actually, bumping into him might not be too smart, the guy might kick my ass. Do I casually inch closer and mumble something about taping My War off of WTSR in 1983 as a punk rock pre-teen? (what I actually did was stare at him until he acknowledged that I was, indeed staring at him and I humbly said "Hi," while extending a hand.), which he did shake...I think I did still look like a geek, though.) Whoop! (there it is): Gwen Mars, Tracy Bonham, Matthew Sweet, Aphex Twin, Truck Stop Love (#1 at KSDB, go figure?), KMFDM, Ednaswap, Green Apple Quick Step, Tank Girl soundtrack. Thanks to the anonymous punk rocker who responded to my ramblings about Rancid's indecipherable lyric. (It actually goes, "C'mon baby, won't you show me what ya got, yeah...I want your salvation, whoa-oh") Uh-huh.

Rudy Pro., Priority Records, Hollywood, CA 213.993.3291 I remember when I was eight years old playing near a tree in our backyard when I discovered a nest of six newborn mice. I could hardly contain my joy as I cupped my hands over the top of a Parkay margarine container that was going to be their temporary home. I brought the butter dish into my bedroom even though I knew I shouldn't have. Intuitively my mother rounded the corner in silence and without so much as a reaction she lit a cigarette and said in a monotone voice, "They have to go." I knew she was still recovering from one of her nervous breakdowns, so it was better not to argue. Wasting no time at all, she gathered up my little friends in a plain, brown paper bag and started walking away from our house. Mom had a bizarre Cher look at the time, straight bangs with long sides, giant Jackie Onassis sunglasses as big as dinner plates and big silver hoop earrings. A little severe, she lit another cigarette and looked up at the clouds seemingly not noticing me. Suddenly, she jerked her head and like a space alien said coldly, "You know you cannot keep wild animals as pets," and lit the paper bag on fire. Now, these are some of the images I get when I listen to the new Milk Cult album. Call me and let's rap about some of your images.

William Marion, Promo Guy, Vernon Yard Recordings, New York, NY 212.586.7700 I know it's been a while since my last Dialogue...I've been busy. I want to say hello to all of you out there that I've had a chance to chat with so far. I have just three words for those of you I haven't talked to: Maids Of Gravity. This band is made up of four guys from L.A., two of which are ex-members of Medicine. If you haven't listened to it yet, it's the bright orange CD with a picture of Jupiter on the cover. Just look for orange in your big pile of music. For those of you who are major fans, I will have limited quantities of some cool import stuff soon...so keep your fingers crossed and Santa will be good to you. By the time you read this I'll be calling you about our next release, These Animal Men. The debut LP is called (Come On, Join) The High Society, and these guys rock. They are part of the "New Wave of New Wave" in the U.K. They will be on tour in June for three weeks, so catch them while you can. Low's sophomore release, Long-Division, will be out in late May. Anyone who loves soft, ethereal, minimalist music will dig Low. Low will be out on the road with the Swans in June. Be on the lookout for a new record from The Verve (enough said).

Drew Wohl, Tender Stone Entertainment, New York, NY 212.873.2192 Thanks to WVCW and Crystal in VA. Rock/alternative act Buzz Prophets "Man In Despair," from their debut EP Raw has reached #8 based solely on phone calls!! "Sam (Significant Catastrophe)" just added as a second single. Additional recent adds include WRPW and WWSA. Call, get a copy of "Raw," and start playing it. Also WVCW (again) adds heavy/alternative act Mortal Remains. Others are following shortly!! Get the MR CD-3 now!! Call, leave an address in case you have missed getting (or overlooked) these discs, and they'll be sent pronto!!! Its not too late to play these records, since newer stuff won't be coming until later this year. Both bands are gregarious and fun to interview, so call if you want to speak with them!!!

Dane Johnson & Joshua Blood, Heartbeat Records, Cambridge, MA 617.354.0700 First off, we would like to thank everyone for your support with Sister Carol, Everton Blender, Burning Spear, the Meditations, and the Marley Family Album. These releases are all doing extremely well, and we thank you for all of your help (you know who you are and we love you)! On Saturday, April 1, 1995, Heartbeat was presented with the award for Best Independent Record Company of the Year '94 by the South Florida Reggaesoca Music Awards. We would like to thank all involved for recognizing Heartbeat and our commitment to quality reggae music. This Summer is going to be very hot for us as Sister Carol performs in 40 cities across the country on the Reggae Sunsplash U.S. Tour '95. Also, we have just released the highly anticipated solo album from Michael Rose, the Grammy-winning voice of Black Uhuru. Drop us a line if you don't have a copy. And get ready for the upcoming CD from the legend, Burning Spear. This is a beautiful release that showcases Spear's powerful lyrics and lush musical arrangements, blending music and message. Make sure to look out for videos from both of these fantastic new projects. Please feel free to call Dane Johnson (x253) or Joshua Blood (x278) if you need any information about Heartbeat reggae. You can also fax us at 617.491.1970, or e-mail Dane at danej@rounder.com. Respect!

Zach "Adventure Is What You Make Of It" Lanier, Energy Records, New York, NY 800.235.5678 So I went up to New Paltz this weekend to do a little climbing, and we got caught in a snow storm. My friend John was all ready to pack it in for the day, but hey, when you are out of town, misfortune and misery aren't misfortune and misery, they're adventure! So we strapped our gear on John's back, and we climbed. Not very far up, John started to cry, evidently his fingers were numb. I never would have heard him, but I happened to look down when I noticed the blood running down my leg from the ice-cold snowy rock edge that had just filleted my thigh. Then John fell and broke his arm, but we had to get to the top, so I put a tourniquet on my leg to stop the rapidly depleting supply of blood in my leg from pouring out on John, and we finished up. Now that's fun! The Big Hair record release party was great, they put on a great show. The Souls At Zero is a solid record, everyone should be on it.

Adam J. Pollock, Island Records, New York, NY 212.603.3942 Well, I guess Urbandale, Iowa was the place to be last weekend—seems power-duo-to-be-reckoned-with, Local H, rocked things up a little too much for the power structure at Urbandale High (where they played). 600 riotous teens and a whole lot of upended formica furniture later, and our heroes were scampering for the van—luckily they escaped unmolested. Look for Local H in your town soon. The Portishead tour which started this weekend should be slightly less aggressive, although by no means less dramatic. Likewise, the PJ Harvey/Tricky dates, which start in mid-May, will be boffo. Get your tix now. What I'm looking forward to: Foo Fighters in NYC next week.

Tor Elting, Flying Fish Records, Chicago, IL 800.394.3474 ACHTUNG: David Lowery's latest project, FSK has been released in the United States! Lowery became a member of this Bavarian punk/beerhall band in 1990, injecting much of the same musical eclecticism and droll humor he brings/brought to Cracker and Camper Van Beethoven. After touring with FSK extensively in Europe, David brought them back to his studio in Richmond, VA to record The Sound of Music. Now that FSK has a domestic release they will be touring the States this Spring with David Lowery. You Core College stations have a copy of the pre-release cassette on your desk now. If anyone else out there is interested in receiving a copy of the pre-release cassette give me a call. Otherwise, the CD will be mailed out to our full list in early May.

Donovan and John, Zero Hour Records, New York, NY 212.957.1277 I've been sitting here for ten minutes trying to think up some witty anecdote involving the fact that the porno theater downstairs from our office is showing a double feature of John Wayne Bobbit Uncut and Tonya Harding's Wedding Night, but I couldn't think of anything witty, so I just gave up. If you aren't playing the Live At Threadwaxing Space compilation you must be drunk or stupid or both. Try and convince us why you shouldn't, since you know you played the last Guided By Voices, Sea And Cake and Blonde Redhead records and they've all got tracks on here. Kittywinder are on the road as we speak to support their Scream Of The Week EP. Call if you wanna check 'em out in yer town. Stephanie Sayers' new record, Christmas Island, is the most enchanting debut of the year. Play it by candlelight for maximum effect. The new Dirt Merchants record is the best thing to come out of Boston since Sanj Adams, and if you haven't heard this record yet, you're missing the boat. I've seen the future of indie rock and it's called Space Needle. Drink a bottle of Robitussin, grab a Schlitz Ice and throw Voyager in the CD player. You've been warned.

Kerri Savage, College Radio, Relativity Recordings, 212.337.5325 Andrew was featured on one of the last episodes of Miami Vice as a drugged-out college student that leaps to his death... "The current is flowing nicely," says KFJC's Alan Lowe, and it's Home he speaks of. If your station doesn't have the Home CD, please call me. Or if you'd like to speak to Eric from Home I can give you his private phone number. At CBGB's last week, Our Lady Peace wowed everyone from John McEnroe to Jon Stewart! Mercy Rule are on the road. If you've never seen them, it's a lovely thing. Go watch them rock. Call here for more tour info. Common Sense Resurrection is making hip-hop fans come out of the woodwork! Believe the hype, baby! Congrats to Doug and Marie. Roze got a kitty named Lester. Can you help him out from under the bed? I don't have e-mail, so fax me at 212.337.5372.

Daneil Mazone, Publicist, Continuum Records, Cranford, NJ 908.709.0011 Give the Harvey a rest and take your indie asses over to the 'e' section and pull out the new Engine Kid. I recommend the double vinyl version complete with gatefold. I've seen Engine Kid twice within the last year—both shows were in my friend's basement—these guys are the real deal. Speaking of shows, Mephiskapheles, who have two tracks on Ska: The Third Wave, will be embarking on an East Coast tour in June. If you want the guys for an on-air interview, performance or conference call with Satan, give me a ring. If you haven't received a copy of Cupid's Revenge yet, call me to receive the best punk rock compilation to come out in the year after punk rock broke. The Rotters' "Sit On My Face Stevie Nicks" is a must-have. To quote Wesley Willis on the compilation Live! Lounge: The Fabulous Sounds of Now, "The rock 'n' roll is excellent and the jam was terrific. It takes a licking and keeps on ticking."

Molly Neuman, Lookout! Records, Berkeley, CA 510.849.0512 Happy Easter dears. We have so many records coming out in the next few months that I can hardly believe it and I hope that most of you will be expecting our packages with open ears. But before I begin the rundown, thank you so much to everyone who is playing the Hi-Fives LP, and the Mr. T Experience EP. The response I have gotten so far is really exciting, so please keep it up. This is a new era at Lookout!, and we hope everyone catches the wave with us. The main things coming to you in the immediate future are the Screaching Weasel compilation CD (Kill The Musicians) and the first 7" from Chicago's finest, the Riverdales. Make sure to check this one out because it is so radio! It is also the prelude to our Spring happening of 7" vinyl singles in full effect, with the likes of Squirtgun, Frumpies, more Riverdales, the U.K.'s Wat Tyler (featuring a very revealing photo of punk rock's biggest heartthrob), the Peechees, Worst Case Scenario and more. On the full-length side, we have the Queers' best record to date for sure out May 5. It's called Move Back Home, and if you missed them on their recent U.S. tour, check this out and see how bummed you are. Also, we have the double LP from the Vindictives coming out at the same time, so now is your chance to explode from all the excitement. Just like me.

Robbie, Promo Fuck-O, Alias Records, Burbank, CA 818.566.1034 Let's make this simple and to the point, 'cause I don't have much time to fuck around. For those of you who have supported the Archers Of Loaf, we know who you are. You should be getting something a little extra from us, if you know what I mean. The boys will be going out on tour with the Flaming Pimps in May. You can call us for dates. You should also have Edsel Auctioneer (a pop diamond with teabag undercurrents) and Knapsack (committed to dynamics, or some sorta bullshit like that) in your hands today. I suggest you play them now, or we'll have a couple of friends come over to the neighborhood and show you what a knuckle sandwich with gravy looks like...on your face. On a final note, to Mr. Eric Rose of Alternative Testicles: I have had it up to here with your fancy-schmancy intellectual crap crowding up the Dialogue section. If I ever run into you up in funny town, you little bag of shit with feet, I will personally rub your face in cement. I have three words for you: Answer me, fuck-o!

Annie Ammann, Manager of Music Publicity, Lord, Dentsu & Partners 212.408.2285 Conner of the Interesting Guys says thank you to: Sarah at WCCG, Scott at WCOT (Hi Scott!!), Darren at WCOW, Erik at WRHU, Theo at CFCR, David at KRVS, Bill at WNCW, Phil at KCHU, Sonja at KFSK and Ed at KSJD. "We really appreciate all your help. We love you more than food."

Lee Cuellar, Production Manager, Jimco Music, Culver City, CA 310.670.2099 Jimco Music Japan has opened an office in Culver City, CA. Jimco is a 15-year-old Japanese label specializing in American music. Our catalog includes albums by Shabba Ranks, Bob Marley, the Beach Boys, Voodoo Glow Skulls, and many others. Jimco's first American release will be Michael Wolff (Arsenio Hall). Other releases will be power pop/alt/punk in nature. We are looking for interns who will work for college credit. If interested, please call Lee or fax resume to 310.670.2098.

Thomas "Worm" Delaney, Virgin Rebound Leader, New York, NY 212.586.7700 Send in your entries for the Royal Trux "You're Gonna Lose" contest. If you can guess the lyrics to this song you can win autographed 60" x 40" posters and Drag City vinyl of Thank You, also with John Hancock included. I've received a few already, but let's get some more in here, take five and get it done, and when I send you your stuff and a copy of the real lyrics you'll get a great laugh seeing the difference between the two. Urban Dance Squad kickin' it live, and intimidatin' and perpetratin' in the low post. More songs to dig on: "Good Grief" and "No Honestly." That should do the trick. Ride the wave. Maid's Of Gravity. The newest members of the "wiseguy" stable of Vernon Yard Recordings. Former members of Medicine are here to massage your earlobes. I know you must listen to many records a day, so this will be a pleasant relaxer. "Only Dreaming" and "Your Ground" are pleasant slices of reality that will make you forget all the tension from the previous day's activity. King Crimson has a new record called Thrak. It will surprise and confound you. Six rock legends together on one record deserves your attention. Other notes of Virgin concern: The Celtic sounds of the Rob Roy soundtrack, Isaac Hayes' new release Branded, B.B. King's Heart And Soul, Sacred Spirit Chants And Dances Of The Native Americans, Shaggy's Boombastic, Bushwick Bill's Phantom Of The Ropra, and last but not least, A Northern Soul, from The Verve, the record of the year. ☐

Doug Diamond, Surf Records, Indianapolis, IN

317.271.0767 Anyone who doesn't think the Midwest is the nerve center of the United States, consider this: There's enough nerve gas stored in Terre Haute, IN to kill everyone in North America. And there's more than that in Lexington, KY. Surf's up in Indy! Blackbone, charging out of Memphis with ultra-aggressive groove rock and soaring vocals, recording with Pantera's Dimebag Darrell in Seattle, crowd-surfing in Billings, MO, packing clubs and starting brushfires at the Offramp in Seattle, the Thirsty Whale in Chicago, the Stage Stop in Memphis, the Rage in Dallas, gaining airplay all over the country, doing raucous gigs with Massacre's Fleshold; it's all part of Blackbone's relentless road assault in support of their debut Surf release, Homegrown. Ask these guys what they think about Blackbone: Rip's Katherine Turman; Michael Young (Indy's WRZX); KILO's Jimmy Paladino in Colorado Springs; KRKX's Dave Phelps in Billings, MO (KMAY's number one requested band); WRDP's Chris Hubble in Chicago; Z-Rock's Chris Anderson in Champaign, IL. Buzzy Jones is on the road in support of Female Delight (as in fuh-mah-lay delight). This stripped-down three-piece charts its diverse course with the down home stomp of "River of Love" and the psychedelic cover of the Monkees' "Auntie Grizelda." If you're not buzzin', you're jonesin'. In closing, watch for new ones from perennial road-dogs Ma Kelley and Birdmen Of Alcatraz. For more information, guest lists and promo, contact Surf.

David Avery, Keeper Of Promotion Secrets Of The Ancients, Powderfinger, Cambridge, MA

617.623.3824 Don't these Dialogues just write themselves when you're having a green day? A handful of advance copies of the new Machinery Hall album, Tile, went out and it's already getting airplay at WFNX, WBCN, WEBK, WECB and WRBB (#2). It has great crossover appeal! And the album Flat World by Stranger Than Pretty should now be gracing your desk; their first single got raves from the Boston Phoenix and Alternative Press, and the album is even better. Check 'em out, dudes! Triple AAA types, Americana types, and other luckies, keep yer peepers peeled for the first release by Laurie Geltman Band. Laurie is a great singer/guitarist who writes stirring rockers from the heartland. Laurie Geltman Band features performances by Brian Karp (ex-Letters To Cleo), Patty Griffin, and Woody Geissmann (ex-Del Fuegos, Big Dipper). Watch for the 7" now and the CD in the fall. Thanks for all your love, support, adulation, blah-blah-blah, etc.

Eitaro Hayashi, Music Director, KTUH, Honolulu, HI

808.956.4848 Lately in Ho-no-loo-loo, the winds have been blowing like a caution sign for the next surfacing hurricane. To add to this "stormy" weather, I recently witnessed a fierce (well, at times) MC battle at DJ Min's "Midnight Troglydte" radio show (4/14) on KTUH. It all started with a kid who goes by the name of Big Shawn (no crew alliance) going on-air claiming to be the best MC and that he "will battle and defeat anybody freestyling." Salt Lake's (of Hawaii, not Utah!) own Rude Funk Clan were apparently listening to this, and a minute later arrived on the premises ready to step up to the challenge. Ultimately, it came down to a one-on-one matchup between Shawn and RF's One Knight Stan, which went on to last for 90 minutes or so. People who were present at this event agreed that Stan took out the trash and then some, although friends were obviously touting their respective cohorts. It's not too often that one is able to be a part of a MC battle in the 50th state, but this is proof it still is possible. I'll get more into the meat of the story next time. Aloha. (P.S. Sorry, but no movie trivia this week.)

Shawn "Y Ramone" Braith & Chris "Is This Crap?" Campbell, Music Dept., KVSC, St. Cloud, MN

612.255.3126 This is one of your typical kiss-ass letters to thank all of you label people for sending us stuff. Thanx to Yigal (you fuckin' stud) at Interscope, Melly-Mel at BMG, Miwa (the L.A. girl) at Capitol, Lisa (the Punx-grrrr!) at Vision Trust, Pete (play it, say it) at Fat Wreck Chords, Genya at CBGB's, and all of the others that Chris, Scott and Steph chat with on a regular basis. We appreciate all the great music that's made our station worth listening to for 28 years. Remember that we program blues, punk, reggae, punk, jazz, punk, hip-hop, punk, and oh yes, ambient stuff as well as lots of other cool music and punk, too. Please continue to do your part to help keep our airwaves stink-rock free. Thanx.

Dave Chiasson, Music Director, WGAO, Franklin, MA

508.528.4210 OK, so I haven't taken the Phunk Junkeez CD out of my CD player for the past week and a half. Sue me!!! This thing rocks real hard. If you haven't heard it or don't have it, get with the program!!! It's a future top five with us for sure. Saw Fugazi a few nights ago. It was my first Fugazi show. I'm still not sure what to make of it, but I will say they are tighter as a band and have more energy than 90% of the bands I've ever seen. Saw Morphine a few nights ago, too. Helluva show. These guys are poised to get huge. I noticed that Agent Orange is back on the road. They'll be coming to Providence at the end of May. Maybe they'll finally get some of the recognition they deserve. Some shows coming up that I'm pumped for: Bad Brains, Juliana Hatfield (with Cold Water Flat), KMFDM, White Zombie, Sick Of It All, George Clinton, R.E.M., Mike Watt (with the Foo Fighters), and Bush (with Wax). It's gonna be a very busy Spring/early Summer. Thanks to Lauren at Concrete, Joe Calitri at Polygram, Spackle at Interscope, and Jason Luber at American. Play the Phunk Junkeez!!! Out for now.

Andrew Ziola, Music Director, WMUR, Milwaukee, WI

414.288.7541 What's shakin' CMJ people and college rock people? We're just doing the same old poop here in beautiful cold and sloshy and rainy Milwaukee—drinking beer and rolling the tunes. If anyone has good contacts with fun, can we call them alternative/pop-punk bands (ie. Face To Face, Samiam, and our faithful punk buddies at Epitaph, Dr. Strange, Johann's Face, Underdog, and Lookout!), call me about shows and new releases. I'm at the station on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays 3:30-5:30. Marquette University's favorites are still the boring Green Days, Hootie & The Blowfishes, Pearl Jams, and Lives. Oh, well! Peace, love, groove.

Mark Jaffe, Booking for "Front Row Radio" and World Music Director, WSIA, Staten Island, NY

718.982.3057 Good things just keep on happening! The Hardvark session for Front Row Radio was a huge success. Randy, Ed, & Bob are great guys, not on a rock star trip like some of our other guests. We look forward to a huge reception for their major label debut, Memory Barge... Things to look forward to: the RAS showcase at SOB's featuring Mad Professor at Macka B., and upcoming Front Row sessions with Vieux Diop and Pete And Maura Kennedy... New and noteworthy in the world: the Interra music label, Hossam Ramzy, and of course, Boukman Esperians... Trying to reach me? Try Wednesdays and Thursdays... Hellos to some of my favorite promo people: Kathy at Homestead, Theresa at RAS, and Mark at Brownies—and a big thanks to everyone out there who believes in providing the community with good music. Aibobo. Dare 2 love, Jaffe.

Dan "The Man" Corcoran, Rodeo Clown & Music Director, KGLT, Bozeman, MT

406.994.6483 Our two-week fund drive is over and we raised a cool $47,000, $7K over our goal! Thanks and foot massages to all those industry types who sent us stuff. I'll buy you all a pitcher of Black Dog Ale next time you're in Bozeman (ha). Kudos to Bob at Triage for his recent Dialogues telling it like it is... I can (proudly) say that KGLT's weekly playlist is actually what our 70-plus staff played, not some charts-as-favors, never-aired product of an inflated music director's ego list. The best Michael and I can do to get your record charted is (personally) introduce your music to our DJ's and provide them with the promo CDs, tapes, etc. you sent (I assume that's the intended purpose of promotional material). If they don't like the music, they probably won't play it more than once. We won't sell your CDs even if, in our opinion, they suck. We'll add them to our library and let the masses decide. And because our station is not formatted in any way, our #1 record is not going to get 30 plays a week. There is far too much good music out there to justify playing any album 20-30 times in a week. I don't believe that's what college radio should be about. Oh yeah—computer geeks can now reach KGLT via e-mail at wwwkgl@gemini.oscs.montana.edu and on the web (wwwkgl.com) See ya on the phone.

Scott Pacyna, Music Director and Evil Genius, WRBU, Peoria, IL

309.677.2231 Well, by the time this gets printed, our station will just about be ready to go off the air for the Summer. We will be going back up towards the end of August, though. I'd like to say a quick thanks to all of the record companies who sent us all the CDs to give away for our promotion. We greatly appreciate it... I just want to tell everyone to go see Jewel and Everclear if they come in your area (well, they'd be separate, not together). They are incredibly great to see. Have a great Summer, and it's been a really great year. Talk to you all in August.

Greg Hils, WNCW, Spindale, NC

704.287.8000 Spring is bustin' out all over! Including here at WNCW as our family of listeners made this Spring fund raiser the biggest in the station's short history. In eight short days WNCW listeners pledged over $143,000, up a whopping 58% from last fall. The last day broke all the single-day records with $36,000-plus raised from 6 a.m. to 11 p.m. Renewing members came back with a 37% increase, and new friends up 29%. Many thanks to all the record folk who helped make all this possible, your care and concern for this brand of broadcasting is much admired and appreciated. Thanks to all the management folks who routed their artists into the studio—it was a major plus. The spirit of community showed itself this Spring and its potential is extraordinary. Again, our thanks and good wishes to all of you who helped, and to those of you who didn't, well, you don't know what you missed.

715.346.3865 Please, be gentle. This is my first Dialogue. Somehow, I have found myself knee deep into a TV Broadcasting/Film major at a remote college deep within the jack pine, white-tail infested central portion of Wisconsin. My only solace, aside from taunting the locals about their miniscule gene pool, is producing a music video program which airs Monday through Thursday from 7-9 p.m. The formats of the shows include: rap/r&b/hip-hop and the like, alternative (whatever the hell that's supposed to mean these days), metal/hardcore and anything else that's heavy, and country (hey, we're in Wisconsin). Now, to the point: It has been brought to my attention that persons who had held my position in previous years might not have kept the best relations with you wonderful promotion people and, as a result, we lost much of our servicing. I am here to beg you to please put us back on your list. If you have never heard of us before, please put us on your list. If you wish to contact me, which I implore you do, I can be reached at the above number between the hours of 10 a.m. and 12 noon (CST) on Mondays and Wednesdays, or by fax at 715.346.3957. Please call me. There isn't much else to do here. ☐

GUEST DIALOGUE

Sascha Konietzko, KMFDM

It's Wednesday, April 19, sometime in the afternoon. Raymond bought some boots in London which are fucking shit and he wasted a ton of superglue trying to attach the actual boot to the sole. The phone rings... Meanwhile, Gunter and Mark are waiting along in the background trying to rehearse for the tour. Mark is not actually going to be on tour with us, thank God; he's only playing a few select shows in the Chicago area. The phone rings... Yesterday we had dinner with Jim and Dannie from Wax Trax! at a steakhouse where we ate 30 oz. T-bone steaks and Gunter was sick all over the table, after the idiot waiter initially mistook Raymond for a "she," while he was in the men's room, but had his coat (that looks like a poodle hide) over his vacant chair. The phone rings... We talked about the upcoming release of Pig's new album, Sinsation, on Wax Trax!, which is nice and incestuous all around, and how I will be handling the publishing for it and ripping big chunks out of TVT's wallet! What fun!! We're looking forward to seeing Klaus and Roberta tomorrow in LaLa-land. Never in the course of human history has so much noise been made by so few. It is another day from hell here in the headquarters. The phone rings...

Brian McEvoy, Mercury Records, New York, NY

212.333.8458 Three weeks till the Wheel (Catherine Wheel)!! Add date May 8. Please write down that date. This record is so deep that we will be talking about it a year from now. Remember, the first single is "Waydown." Right behind the Wheel is Ugly Kid Joe, all loaded up and ready to go. The first single is "Tomorrow's World," and it will rock your world. Please keep in mind this is only the second record after their platinum debut release. Add date is May 15. People who have heard the first single know how strong "Tomorrow's World" is. On deck and ready to go is the new Circle Jerks. Vinyl featuring two songs from the new album, Oddities, Abnormalities And Some Other Word, will be mailed out the end of May. Baseball season starts and Mercury has got a great line-up coming. How good can it get?

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY

212.275.2135 This week's huge highlights: 52 adds for the Motor City Madman, Ted Nugent; Encomium... selling 50,000 SoundScan units; Collective Soul selling 32,000 units. "December," "Simple," and "Gel"—MASSIVE MASSIVE MASSIVE!!!; Melvins' "Revolve" 37 spins at Q104 in NYC; Sugar Ray driving up the metal charts. It's a "Mean Machine" baby!! Skid Row tour announced today! I'm erect!

Joe Guzik, Sony Music, New York, NY 212.833.8873

Everyone should be enjoying the Fight and Foetus records. Keep pounding "Verklemmt" and "Blowout In The Radio Room." Your diligence will pay off; remember, both these acts like to tour. Korn! C.O.C.! See ya.

Zach Lanier, Energy Records, New York, NY

800.235.5678 Alright, Souls At Zero, number one most added across the board; yes, that means everywhere. People are jamming to this record all over. Your listeners want to hear it, it's a solid metal record, so play it and quit complaining. Big Hair is doing shows in the Northeast and turning heads everywhere! Definitely not your father's Oldsmobile or his old Janis Joplin records. I know, a regular Dialogue, no crazy stuff. Well, tough, I feel like I've been run through a chipper/shredder set on mince.

Maria "Mom" Abril/Melodie Mingo, Metal Blade

Records, Simi Valley, CA 805.522.9111 Today is both Broken Hope's street date and the day of European departure for Grip Inc. Broken Hope should be in every playlist that has Decide in it. The two bands will be on the road together in May and June. Are you scared? "Into The Necrosphere" and "Dilation And Extraction" both come highly recommended by me, which is all that matters, after all. I want to see some (high) numbers. Disappointment is an ugly thing. From Grip Inc.'s The Power Of Inner Strength you should be spinning "Monster Among Us," "Savage Seas," "Toque De Muerto" and "Hostage To Heaven." The "Ostracized" pro is coming and should be added May 8. The Organization's Savor The Flavor is in stores May 9. "The Drought" must be added on April 24. X-Cops has an add date of May 1 for "Highway Star," which is from the LP, You Have The Right To Remain Silent. Upcoming: King Diamond, Decoryah, Six Feet Under, Gwar, Guitars... Vol 2 and much, much more, boys and girls. Think bodily injury when you think of us. Kisses...

Greg Derbas, Pavement Music, Oakbrook Terrace, IL

708.916.1155 Uglystick! Uglystick! Uglystick! This is the band you want to look out for. Going for adds today on their self-titled debut and yes, Dave Ciencio, they will tour this summer. Sorry to all not hanging out this summer. Looks like you will be missing the most amazing record of the year. That's right, the new Crowbar, Time Heal Nothing. Add date June 5. Noizefest starts July 7 in New York. I'll have dates next week. Watch out for newcomers Crawl, as well as the new Malevolent Creation and yes, we have signed Internal Bleeding. All out this summer.

Lauren Goldwasser, Concrete Marketing, New York, NY

800.666.6382 x1700 And the #1s on Monster Magnet continue to come flooding in! Yipee for Mike at KRNU, Kevin at WDTU, Frank at WJMF (I am going to miss you!), Lloyd at WKGC, Gina at WMVB, Kelly at WUAG, Derrick at WUTZ and John at WCPE! The rest of you, wake the fuck up! Working: White Zombie (if you don't call me, you don't see 'em on tour), Fight, Foetus, KMFDM, Quicksand, All, Filter, Warrant, Vai, Kix, Slaughter, Die Cheerleader, Dokken and Gwen Mars! Coming up: Ugly Kid Joe, Babes In Toyland and Overkill Live (on CMC). Please let me know if you are going off the air for summer break or if you are graduating! Write me at lilaur@aol.com!

Marni Halpern, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY

212.219.0077 x214 Here's the spiel: Suffocation's new release, Pierced From Within, will be on your desks soon enough, and will be going for adds on May 15th. Death will be heading out for a headline tour in May and Decide will be touring with Broken Hope in May as well. April showers bring death flowers! Fear Factory's release, Demanufacture, is the second coming of Christ (oops, I mean Peter Steele).

E.J. Johantgen, Columbia Records, New York, NY

212.833.4989 You say Fetus, I say Foetus. The tour—C.O.C./Monster Magnet/Season To Risk—be there or be square.

Sean McKnight, Relapse/Nuclear Blast America,

Millersville, PA 717.397.9221 Gorefest's Erase is crushing all those who experience it and charting everywhere. I think that's all that needs to be said about that! If you haven't signed up for my unusual GF contest, you still have time, but let me know soon because time's running out. We're doing Kataklysm interviews May 3 and 4! Sorcery is one of 1995's most vicious releases from Relapse/NBA, so get in touch with me if you want to participate. After all, there's a reason why these guys are #1 at CHUO. New package: Meshuggah, self-titled EP; Deceased, The Blueprints For Madness (interviews coming soon!); Therion, Lepacca Kliffoth; The Abyss, The Other Side; and Pyogenesis, Sweet X-Rated Nothings. Coming soon: Death Is Just The Beginning III; it's a double CD and, oh boy, is this mother going to be HUGE!!

Louis DeCarolus, Friend Of All Who Wish Promos, Earache Records, New York, NY 212.343.9090 After a long weekend of living metal, I can only say that when you think of Earache, think of how much our bands shred! Now down to business. If you have not heard Misery Loves Co., then crawl out of the hole you have been living in. This band will be next to sell out in your store. Extreme Noise Terror—if you don't know the name, then you're just not punk. A.C. is the one and only Anal Cunt. How can anyone put this record down once they see the cover. Now Brutal Truth is back from their two week tour of Germany with no problems at any of the borders. Pitch Shifter is going to be releasing a new full-length this fall. Bolt Thrower still has a couple of double CDs here and there. Call for more info. Tons of re-issues from all the classic bands. Look for our bands to tour the states soon. If you like my title, call for the same reason.

David T., Leviathan Records, Atlanta, GA 404.463.1009

It is great to see that Full Circle's Negative seems to be on everyone's most added charts! This debut release from this Cincinnati/N. Kentucky group kicks. Perhaps you will remember the singer, Doug Carter, from his previous work with Simple Aggression. If somehow we missed you on our initial mailing, let us know and we will reservice you. You definitely don't want to miss out on this release!

RADIO Mike Wilhide, WIZN, Burlington, VT 802.865.1236

Okay, so I was stressed and put the wrong phone number. It's 802.865.1236. Well, I went in style. I was amazed at the amount of well-wishers that called. I hope they'll watch the tube, too! I think they will. I'd really like to thank everyone involved with the trade papers for letting me ramble on for the past two and a half years, I'm gonna miss doing so very much! I have no real complaints except the obvious and I'd like to thank each and every promo person at all of the labels and McGathy and Concrete. I'd love to name y'all, but it would take up too much space and if I forgot anyone, I'd feel like crap! Remember, the phone number is 802.865.1236. I hope to see some of you in the Green Mountain State on May 4 and 5 for the Good Citizen CD release party. A&R types, it's be worth the trip 'cause then you'd know what's up in Vermont. Toast's phone number is 802.660.2088. Talk to Dennis for hook-up. That's a wrap folks, the name of the video show is "Tales From The Hard Side." I don't need much, I need videos! The format is hard music...if it's hard, send it! Thanks once again and, remember, if it's not hard and fast, WHO CARES?! Peace, O-U-T!

Rod "The Rockin' Librarian" Brombacher, WVMH,

Mars Hill, NC 704.689.1259 Wanted to thank all who helped us get the "Louder Faster Harder" show—hardest rock east of the Mississippi, south of the Mason Dixon—on the air and keeping us cookin! A special thanks to Wickham at Roadrunner (who wakes me up on Monday morning), Melodie at Metal Blade, Kim & Meg at Earache, Zach and Sheri at Energy, Raul at Dwell and Greg at Pavement. They got us started. Thanks also to E.J. at Columbia, Tracy at Elektra, Petra at Capitol, Mike at Chrysalis, Frank at A&M. Joe at Epic and all the others who helped keep us goin'. If I forgot your name, I am sorry, but we are playing your records. Thanks and please keep servicing us. White Zombie is a killer. I bought three CDs as gifts! Machine Head/Biohazard/Slayer is a killer. Misery Loves Co. a "must" CD. Extreme Noise Terror is great. The new Death CD is excellent, as is the Demon Knight CD. New Megadeth and Queensryche make great X-mas gifts and so does the Slayer, Melvins and Generation CDs. L.A. Guns a "big" surprise...great! And also Face To Face and Monster Magnet are cool. Thanks again for the help and support, we appreciate it.

FAT POSSUM MISSISSIPPI JUKE JOINT CARAVAN

Junior Kimbrough runs Junior's Place, a rough-looking juke joint at the side of two-lane Highway 78 near Holly Springs, Mississippi. Dave Thompson's band is named for his tattoo, brazenly depicting the words "Big Love" on his left arm. Depending on who tells the tale, R.L. Burnside's house has burned to the ground two, three, or even five times. The kudzu-drenched hills of north Mississippi are real blues country, and Oxford-based Fat Possum Records is bringing the real deal to the world, recording little-known area musicians direct-to-digital, capturing the music the way it's really played. In the early days, the label recorded on-site in local juke joints and apartments; now they use a studio built in back of "Jimmy's Auto Care" in Oxford.

With its driving rhythms and blaring guitars, this is mojo music for dancing, wild times, losing your mind. In a lot of ways, the modern-day hill country music of Junior Kimbrough or R.L. Burnside has more in common with Railroad Jerk or the Jon Spencer Blues Explosion than with the tepid shuffles and histrionic crowd-pleasing soloing that are often peddled as blues these days. And this summer, the Fat Possum Mississippi Juke Joint Blues Caravan will take a taste of real Mississippi roadhouse blues on tour across the country.

Most of the label's albums have been produced by Robert Palmer (the author of Deep Blues, not the guy in the "Addicted To Love" video), and he's a good person to describe the label's anti-aesthetic. "I feel like Fat Possum, our tastes are very definitely a post-punk blues label," he says. "It's like we're all people that really got into punk rock and a lot of post-punk stuff, and I feel like that really informs the sensibilities of the label to a certain degree. Because of just the rawness of it, that really raw thing, and wanting that sort of in-your-face intensity. Plus, a lot of the artists, like R.L. Burnside, definitely have some punk rock attitude going on," he laughs. "I'm gonna do what I'm gonna do, and fuck you if you don't like it..."

In fact, the punk vibe was so strong, that Jon Spencer invited R.L. Burnside to open several shows on the Blues Explosion's recent tour, which finished up April 27 in Los Angeles. The shows couldn't have been a more appropriate warm-up for what's to follow: This spring and summer, Fat Possum will load up a bus with three of its artists and their bands and send them on the road, as the Fat Possum Mississippi Juke Joint Caravan will bring the music to audiences who, for whatever reason, haven't made it down to Holly Springs and Junior's Place for a Sunday night of drink, dance and devilment.

Burnside, who has toured occasionally in the past, usually plays on the road as a solo act. This time, he's bringing his full band, the Sound Machine, featuring his son Dwayne on bass. Dave Thompson will be touring to support his Fat Possum debut, Little Dave & Big Love, due out in May. Junior Kimbrough's All Night Long, which made many critics' year-end blues lists, will be re-released through Capricorn later this month. All three of the bands may benefit onstage from the guitar of Kenny Brown, a lanky, Johnny Winter-ish guitar-slinger who learned first-hand from veteran bluesmen like Joe Callicot and Mississippi Fred McDowell, and who's been playing with R.L. since the early '70s.

When R.L. Burnside takes the stage or cuts a record (almost all Fat Possum records are cut live in the studio), it sounds like what he wants it to sound like now, not what somebody thinks the blues should sound like. "I wouldn't want to do anything that was archival, or documenting something, or that whole folklore thing," says label president Matthew Johnson. "That would be death."

The best blues is live blues, real blues, and with the Mississippi Juke Joint Caravan, folks will be able to experience the real deal, up-close and first hand.

JAMES LIEN

DON PULLEN 1941-1995

Jazz pianist/organist/composer Don Pullen died of lymphoma on April 22. A brilliant and unique stylist, Pullen brought an R&B background (he had recorded with Ruth Brown, Big Maybelle and others) to modern jazz. He played in the '60s and '70s with Muhal Richard Abrams, Guiseppi Logan, Milford Graves, Charles Mingus and others before co-leading a dynamic quartet with fellow Mingus alumnus George Adams. In recent years he led his own groups, including the Don Pullen Afro-Brazilian Connection, on recordings for Blue Note.

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD FILES SUIT OVER WATT VIDEO

According to The New York Times, the Union Pacific Railroad Company has sued MTV, Sony Music, video director Spike Jonze and Mike Watt over what the company deems a negative depiction in Watt's "Big Train" video (the clip shows Watt as a drunken and reckless engineer in a Union Pacific train). The suit, filed in Federal District Court in Houston, accuses the plaintiffs of trademark infringement, fraud and defamation. After several airings on MTV, Union Pacific got a restraining order: Sony re-edited the video several times in an attempt to obscure the Union Pacific name and distinctive yellow color scheme, but the company still felt the train was recognizable. Sony and MTV have agreed not to market or distribute the clip in any form. Union Pacific is now proceeding with the liability and damages portion of the case by determining how often the video was played and in what markets.
