SOUL ASYLUM Let Your Dim Light Shine

Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211

Since 1990, when the group released Soul Asylum And The Horse They Rode In On, Soul Asylum has been honing its super-rock formula, chock full of powerful choruses and hooky guitar riffs that make folks teary. It wasn't until after the release of the sensational Grave Dancers Union, however, that Soul Asylum became so successful that its songs could be heard on supermarket sound systems. Let Your Dim Light Shine suggests that Grave Dancers Union was not the pinnacle of the band's success. The group has not abandoned its popular style of songwriting, witnessed in the unrelenting power of the hit-bound single "Misery" and songs like "Bittersweet," although the album is more diverse than the last one—there's the predictable collaboration of Dan Murphy and Jayhawk Marc Perlman on the sweet ballad "Promises Broken," but also unexpected hints of the band's pre-Horse punk past on the angst-filled "Caged Rat" and "Crawl." The album is tied together by sharp-edged production (provided by engineer Butch Vig) and the band's brooding lyrics. The key element of Soul Asylum's sound is singer/songwriter Dave Pirner's keen ability to take what might be mundane clichés and twist them into brand new stories that folks can relate to and hum along with. DAWN SUTTER

PENNYWISE About Time

Epitaph, 2798 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90026 213.413.7353

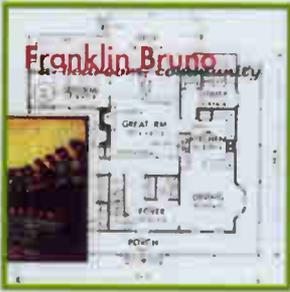

Sheer tenacity and an increasingly sharpened vision have brought Hermosa Beach, California's Pennywise to its resolutely ferocious and melodic third album. The quartet blows through About Time's dozen songs in 32 minutes, proving the band's determination and skill at squeezing plenty of aural information into a terse but fully realized framework. All 12 cuts fuse a solid amalgam of brick-heavy guitar chops, chugging rhythms, thoughtful lyrics and bounding choruses, rendering each song instantly memorable without being either cloying or repetitive. "Listen up everyone—there's something wrong," shouts singer Jim Lindberg on the album's first cut "Peaceful Day," ushering in a half hour of awakened, thought-provoking, uncompromising punk rock. He hits all the right notes but never sounds like he's pounding slogans into the listener's information-overloaded head; instead he crisply vocalizes the band's lyrics, which battle the blandness of suburbia and societal expectations ("Perfect People," "Same Old Story") with honesty and verve. Make time for the above, plus "Waste Of Time," "Not Far Away" and "Killing Time." LYDIA ANDERSON

KURT ELLING Close Your Eyes

Blue Note, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028

On the surface, Kurt Elling's Close Your Eyes might seem a fairly respectable jazz trio outing, but underneath, it can be as subversive and wild as Frank Booth's rendition of Roy Orbison in Blue Velvet. What makes the debut album by the 28-year-old divinity-school-dropout-turned-cabaret-singer unique is how Elling simultaneously works within a fairly straightforward jazz vocal/trio format (think Sinatra, Connick, Torment) while also being totally skewed. It's this wolf-in-sheep's clothing aspect that makes Elling so compelling, and has many folks—even a few serious critics—scratching their heads. It's there in Elling's crazed, totally over-the-top vocalese scatting, which often sounds like something you'd hear coming from the shower in a mental ward. It's also in his songwriting on tunes like "(Hide The) Salome" and in cryptic, slightly-too-strange-to-be-totally-serious lyrics like "Too many lovers in a life/They come and go...They go for walks and they don't walk back." The ambiguity makes it work: Is he pushing the envelope of the jazz vocal idiom, or is he putting one over on us all? Could he possibly be for real? Elling takes scat singing and injects new elements—Beat-style poetry, Tom Waits-ian character portraits—into an otherwise timeworn and respectable formula, while also tapping deeply into that bizarre Brecht/Weill dimension of cabaret, evoking a dual-natured, dark and weird world indeed. JAMES UEN

FRANKLIN BRUNO A Bedroom Community

Simple Machines, P.O. Box 10290, Arlington, VA 22210-1290 703.276.0680

Best known as the bespectacled guy fronting the Inland Empire's word-wise rock trio Nothing Painted Blue, Franklin Bruno has already penned and recorded volumes of reflective, beautifully crafted songs. A Bedroom Community, however, is his first solo full-length, developing more fully a one-man expression for his insightful songs. He alternately shapes the 13 songs here with guitar and piano, sometimes combining the two in a contemplative mood ("Layered Look"), but the focus remains on his smooth voice and clearly enunciated lyrics; Bruno is above mumbling shyly into his mic, so we can chew on lines like "The table scraps you left me weren't worth refrigerating" ("A Frozen Lake") without straining too much. Far from the insulated cul de sac wryly suggested by its title, A Bedroom Community is a triumph of artistry over uninformative categorization ("indie pop," "love rock"), with songs such as the cleverly arranged "Ghost Postage," the crisp "The Two Of You," the more fully arranged "The Lonelysocks Generation" and the darker "Uninsulated Wall," reaching out to any listener with a few quiet moments. LYDIA ANDERSON

Soul Asylum's new release, Let Your Dim Light Shine, comes out June 6. See review above.

#1 BREAKTHROUGH

CHRIS KNOX

Songs Of You And Me
Caroline

Radio Chart Position: #30

New Zealand's Chris Knox returns with his fifth solo album, which is clearly an exciting moment for the Top 150 reporters, who make Knox the Radio Breakthrough this week. The 21 songs on Songs Of You And Me are just that: songs about other people and songs about himself. Equal parts solipsism and observation, Knox's latest has all of the hummable melody one could ask for. Singing his songs in their top 10: KCMU, WEFT, WQFS, WUVT, WXDU, WXJM and WZBC.

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay, ▲ greatest upward chart movement, ▼ most requested

In just three weeks on the Top 150, Interscope's Primus has netted the top position, displacing Matador's Pavement, which drops to #2. DGC's Thurston Moore climbs 9-6, while Reprise's Babes In Toyland cut their numbers in half, moving 18-9. Slash-London's Steel Pole Bath Tub slashes 27-11, Island's Tricky slides up 16-13 and Hollywood's Gwen Mars jumps 25-15. Beggars Banquet-Atlantic's Peter Murphy (21-17), Cog Sinister-Permanent (UK)'s The Fall (23-18), EastWest-EEG's Moonpools & Caterpillars (39-20) and DGC's Pell Mell (37-21) all make gains. Matador's 18th Dye (54-27) and Kill Rock Stars' Unwound (40-28) both jump, and this week's highest debut (and Radio Breakthrough) is Caroline's Chris Knox, who takes his flip-flops all the way to #30. Warner Bros.' Elvis Costello (41-32) and HoneyGo!-London's Drugstore (70-35) both climb substantially, and Discord's Slant & positively sweeps 82-38. Fontana-Mercury's Catherine Wheel's full-length debuts at #51, and Vernon Yard's The Verve's 5" enters at #60. 4AD's Kendra Smith debuts at #64 and also takes the top Add position. Look for more volatility in upcoming weeks, as some stations stop reporting for the summer.

#1 BREAKTHROUGH

BEASTIE BOYS

Root Down (EP)

Grand Royal-Capitol

Retail Position: #1

It is an alternative nation and one of the bands responsible for making it so is Grand Royal-Capitol's Beastie Boys. The Boys have been on tour for a while now, playing the country's biggest stadiums and coliseums. Now fans can buy the Root Down (EP) to further build upon the Beastie Boys' live experience—the EP features 10 songs recorded live. It tops the charts at: C.D. Alley, House Of Guitars, House Of Records, Orpheum, Ragin', Recordsmith and Yesterday & Today.

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in sales. ▲: greatest upward chart movement. ★: in store play.

It's no surprise that its first week on the chart the Beastie Boys' Root Down (EP) on Grand Royal-Capitol shoots straight to the top. There is a great wave of groups heading for the top 10, including Reprise's Filter (12-10), Island's PJ Harvey (15-12), Dischord's Slant 6 (25-13), and Matador's Jon Spencer Blues Explosion (17-14) and Yo La Tengo (19-15). This week is also a big one for debuts; the cream of the crop includes: Reprise's Chris Isaak (#4), 4AD's Kendra Smith (#22), Grand Royal-Capitol's Hurricane (#24), Bar/None's Esquivel! (#27), EastWest-EEG's Rembrandts (#28), Elektra-EEG's Jim Morrison/Doors (#29) and Tuff Gong-Island's Bob Marley. (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

HURRICANE The Hurra

Grand Royal, c/o Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028

Hailing from Hollis, New York, Hurricane has long been the Beastie Boys' DJ as well as a member of the undeservedly forgotten Afros, and makes his solo debut on The Hurra. While the Beastie Boys' sound is evident, this isn't just a side-project that got away; Hurricane's compact, basic style leaves the acrobatics of other MCs in the dust, using his soulful '70s samples and understated tones to devastate those who overembellish. His use of samples—Rodney

King, Last Poets—is less a political statement than a reflection of life. Hurricane's style derives from old school mastery rather than '90s bravado; while he isn't shy, his lyrics are not solely about himself. The variety of guests, which include the Beasties, add another dimension to Hurricane's carefully constructed music. While Hurricane is working within rap, he avoids some of the pitfalls created by its grand success and proven formulas. The Hurra should appeal to both rap and rock fans, but the serious thought behind it makes it much more than just a crossover-ready album. Here I am, rock me like a: "What's Really Going On," "Can We All Get Along" and "Elbow Room." MEGAN McLAUGHLIN

BEATNIK FILMSTARS Astronaut House

La-Di-Da, P.O. Box 202, Peter Stuyvesant Station, New York, NY 10009-9998

Bristol's Beatnik Filmstars set the pace last year for magnetic attraction of the British press with the release of its misleadingly titled Laid Back And English. Already indie stars in their homeland, the Filmstars also began raising eyebrows stateside; their innovative guitar acrobatics and sly pop constructions made agile expansions on relatively familiar rock ideas. This year's Astronaut House boasts everything the Filmstars' debut was itching to become, as the band shifts its focus away from ordinary pop confection to delve further into its noisy psych influences and its hankering for string-bending guitar sounds. "La Fruitmousse" kicks off the record with a wiry two-chord riff that's deceptively simple and compartmentalized; the Filmstars complicate and texture their guileless hopping with random string scraping, scarcely sliding notes, and the awkwardly loud zipping of fingers on the fretboard's strings. Much of Astronaut House uses resourceful guitar technique in much the same way—instead of relying on the mechanical quality of tidy chords and measured strumming, each song plays to the notion that these are undoubtedly hands on strings: pulling, grating, scraping and strangling each note out of the instrument in a battle with its own limitations. CHERYL BOTCHICK

SIXTEEN DELUXE Backfeed Magnetbabe

Trance Syndicate, P.O. Box 49771, Austin, TX 78765 512.454.3266

The latest buzz in Austin, Texas, home of Southern punk rock, is the quartet Sixteen Deluxe. The band takes a step back from the sound of its aggressive hometown compadres and labelmates, subduing the punk just a little. Backfeed Magnetbabe, the 16D's premiere album, is not trailblazing—the overwhelming psychedelic grooves and powerful pop sensibilities suggest a link to the Flaming Lips, who are thanked on the inner sleeve—but the band has culled a collection of cleverly written songs that grab the listener with captivating melodies and female vocals, both of which add a distinctive touch. The marriage of punk rock and psychedelia is an odd one, but Sixteen Deluxe has incorporated just the right measurement of each—splashes of wild guitars are held steady by the anchoring weight of catchy guitar riffs. Magnetic: "Idea," "Fetus," "Apronstrings" and "Babyheadrush" DAWN SUTTER

SUPERGRASS I Should Coco

Capitol, address above

America's relatively apathetic attitude toward British output over the last few years might just be challenged by I Should Coco. Although initially London's Supergrass might appear to be capitalizing on the recent resurgence of punk, a few trips through the album reveal a much deeper intent and a thorough knowledge of the roots of rock. From the Stones-ish groove of "Time" to the Paul Reverestyled pop flamboyance of "Strange Ones" to the psychedelically influenced "Time To Go," I Should Coco clearly demonstrates Supergrass' skill in twisting familiar hallmarks of the past into modern melodic gems that are instantly listenable and, better still, remarkably original. The sporadic inclusion of keyboards (a jolly, bounding piano rhythm on "Alright") and a wonderfully bright toy organ on "I'd Like To Know") also helps set the band's sound apart from the standard three-piece guitar rock mold and thankfully provides the whole presentation with just

Macintosh® NEW YORK
music festival
JULY 17 - 22, 95'

New York's 15 premier music venues have joined artistically and electronically to present what is sure to be the most unique showcase of music in the world—the first Macintosh New York Music Festival.

This unprecedented festival will knit the best of today's new music with the latest interactive, on-line and multi-media technology.

350 of today's cutting edge bands will perform in 15 clubs over 6 nights this summer. Each club will host a Macintosh kiosk that is linked to the festival Website on the Internet. The Web will feature artist profiles (including photo, bio, music, video, and a link, if any, to a band's Website), an Apple QuickTime photo tour of each club, and a live connection to the festival. Attendees will see shows live and know what is happening at all the other venues as well.

enough tongue-in-cheek attitude to keep things bubbly. Other retro-delights: "Sitting Up Straight" and the helium-voiced "We're Not Supposed To." AARON CLOW

DAVE THOMPSON Little Dave And Big Love

Fat Possum, c/o Capricorn, 120 30th Ave. N., Nashville, TN 37203
615.320.8470

Inside the CD booklet for his debut album, there's a photo that says a lot about who Dave Thompson is and what he's doing with his debut. It's a black-and-white shot of Thompson, seated on the armrest of a tattered couch; the edges of the photo are artificially cracked and weathered, blurred like an old vintage photograph of some long-gone Delta bluesman, but in the photo's center, Thompson's face and long skeletal hands are clearly visible, as is his solemn black cowboy hat; only in those clear details do you realize it's a modern photo at all. Thompson, a young Mississippi guitarist, is clearly forging a link between blues past and the music's future, and that's what Little Dave And Big Love is all about. With his blistering leads, he's in the mold of Buddy Guy (and a little like Johnny Winter with his tatoos), but even at 24, an age when most are busy learning to cover blues masters, Thompson already has a firm grasp on his own personal song-writing voice. His band, Big Love, is a well-oiled, machine-precision blues machine—hearing the band whip through its live-in-the-studio set here, you quickly realize that these guys play together almost every night. Hear them at their best on "You Took Me Baby," "Hey Moma," "Standing On My Own" and the autobiographical "Mississippi Boy." JAMES LIEN

OBLIVIANS Soul Food

Crypt, P.O. Box 140528, Staten Island, NY 10314-0528 901.452.3939

A clump of scratchy, needle-pinned guitar dirt erupts with the first note of "Viet Nam War Blues" and you know exactly what you're in for: the Oblivians' sloppy, two-guitars-and-a-drum, fuck-off take on the most primordial forms of punk, blues and garage known to man. While the Blues Explosion works its sexual bravado and wild glitz, the Oblivians' ferocity is just plain mean and nasty, raw to the point of being threatening. Comprising a majority of the band's 7" output, plus eight previously unreleased songs recorded at Easley Studios in Memphis, Soul Food traverses the spectrum from the opening Lightnin' Hopkins piano-driven rave-up through 15 other impossibly low-fi, super-charged garage pounders. The sound of Soul Food—including the band's playing, the album's recording quality and the undeniably authentic attitude oozing from its every pore—couldn't be replicated by other bands if they tried. It's trashed-out, lived-in and bashed-up rock 'n' roll weaned on aggression and broken amps. Best of the Soul Food menu: "Big Black Hole," "I'm Not A Sicko, There's A Plate In My Head," "Nigger Rich" and "Ja Ja Ja." COLIN HELMS

ened the horizons of electronic music with the release of Transmissions From Planet Dog. Planet Dog is a well-respected U.K. ambient/techno label, and this two-CD collection showcases four distinct and inspired artists: Eat Static, Banco De Gaia, Timeshard and newest signee Children Of The Bong. The music here is a stimulating mind-enhancer, a medicine cabinet of ideas and expressions thrown in the direction of the listener, but not designed to persuade with conventional dance tactics. With beautiful live orchestration and a refreshing organic approach to structure, tracks like "Oracle" or the Ravi Shankar-meets-Future Sound Of London sound of "Crystal Oscillations" will attract followers like a new age cult. Children Of The Bong's "Symbol I" puts electronic music in a new light; creeping underneath a psychedelic and eerie ambient vibe is a blanket of hip-hop and dub spice which gives this cut seemingly bottomless low-end. Each group here demands the full attention of your senses. GLEN SANSONE

JERRY LEE LEWIS Young Blood

Sire, c/o EEG, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019

It's the dangdest thing: Jerry Lee's been making "he's really rocking again like crazy" comeback records for longer than most people have been making records period. So when he finally goes and does it, we mean really does it, we're a little worried that nobody's going to notice. Well, at the risk of sounding like we're crying wolf, Jerry Lee has just turned in a mother, and while it won't top Live At The Star Club In Hamburg, it's certainly one of the best albums in his crazed lifetime of rock 'n' roll. Why now? A big reason has to be producer Andy Paley, who has masterminded excellent comebacks from Brian Wilson, Little Richard and other '50s and '60s greats. Then there's a few of the rock 'n' rollers and maniacs who were recruited to help the Ferriday Fireball out: Tommy Ardolino, Joey Spampinato and Al Anderson of NRBQ, and legendary Elvis guitarist James Burton. The songs are all hand-picked choices, which Jerry Lee inimitably makes his own, either by rocking out to the point of explosion, or underscoring their litting honky-tonk melodies. In fact, Young Blood may be the most seamless marriage of the two sides of Jerry Lee's nature—country and rock 'n' roll—since his first Sun singles came out with a stomper on one side and a ballad on the flip. Goodness gracious: "Goosebumps," "Things," "Miss The Mississippi And You" (check out Jerry yodelling!), "High Blood Pressure" "It Was The Whiskey Talking (Not Me)" and "Down The Road A Piece." JAMES LIEN

GREEN MAGNET SCHOOL Illuminatus

Sonic Bubblegum, P.O. Box 35504, Brighton, MA 02135 617.782.1527
Since first signing with Sub Pop a few years back, Green Magnet School has undergone more than just a label or lineup change; the band's sound, which inspired the word "industrial" at some point during its first album, has been carefully re-worked and re-invented by the band. Manning three guitars and a bruising rhythm section makes for some clamorous rock any way you structure it, and while Green Magnet School certainly enjoys its share of clashing noise, Illuminatus reveals a progression well beyond standard riff-rock techniques. With two vocalists working around the three guitars, the band simultaneously pulls off gnarled, overdriven punk workouts and a paranoid, pseudo art-rock rhetoric, equally spruced with aggression and brainy-ness. Some songs, like "Penance," "Buck" and the Sonic Youth-referenced "Jihad Sternum," are content with being wiry, guitar-burned mid-set sure-things. "Birdie Num Num" and "Moth" dip their toes in things like melodic vocal lines and skewed, but strangely compelling, pop hooks. As the album's scrawled liner notes detail, there's more going on here than you'd ever expect. COLIN HELMS

ARTO LINDSAY TRIO Aggregates 1-26

Knitting Factory Works, 74 Leonard St., New York, NY 10013 212.219.3006
"I've broken a lot of hearts to do this..." announces the suave nerd in an adenoidal shout in his album's first few seconds. "It had better be great..." Following a decade fronting the glossy-smooth Ambitious Lovers and producing the biggest names in Brazilian pop music, Arto Lindsay has surprisingly returned to his late '70s No Wave roots, developing on the m.o. of his old trio, DNA, an extremely influential group despite a recorded output that doesn't fill up one side of a C60. Arto certainly hasn't lost the edge in his jagged songs, scraped guitar, detached moan and peculiar lyrics, and bassist Melvin Gibbs (Rollins Band, Sonny Sharrock, etc.) and drummer Dougie Bowne (Chris Whitley, Holly Cole, Cassandra Wilson, John Zorn) provide appropriately scraggly percolation to match Lindsay's asperity. From song to song (there are 26, most under a minute or two in length), there's no repetition of licks, riffs or rhythms, and the trio improvises with a sensitivity to space and silence which magnifies the music's urgency. A few songs are more hummable than disjointed, and even some occasional funkiness, but this just makes the strange lyrics seem even stranger. DAVID NEWGARDEN

SVEN VATH

The Harlequin—The Robot And The Ballet-Dancer and Touch Themes Of Harlequin • Robot • Ballet-Dancer

Eye Q, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510
Instrumental concept albums are tough to execute; concept albums with the strict limitations of techno are even harder. (Even the Orb's "story line" for U.F. Orb was done as a piss-take.) So it's a pleasant surprise that Sven Vath has made a neat conceptual record—twice. The Harlequin—The Robot And The Ballet-Dancer is an elegant, pretty construction, divided into the three sections the title suggests, with distinct themes and methods of construction for each. It's also a deliberately subdued record for the most part, bringing out serious beats only a few times. Themes ripple across the front of the mix, cross each other's paths, then disappear again. It's much more a listening record than a dance record ("Ballet-Dancer" and "Harlequin Plays Bells" are particularly lovely). There's the potential for dance music within nearly every track, though, which is where Touch Themes comes in: a collection of seven, mostly dancefloor-oriented, remixes of Harlequin by the likes of Speedy J, B-Zet and Aural Float (which pulls off a sprawling, subtle 18-minute reconstruction of "The Birth Of Robby"). The best remix, though, comes from Underworld, whose take on "Harlequin — The Beauty And The Beast" calls to mind its own "Dirty Epic" stripped down to its shimmering, polyrhythmic electronic core. DOUGLAS WOLK

CHARLES LLOYD All My Relations

ECM, 1540 Broadway, 33rd Fl., New York, NY 10036 212.930.4996
All My Relations is the latest in a string of spellbinding recordings made by flute/saxophone master Charles Lloyd, most famous as Chico Hamilton's bandleader in the '60s and probably most infamous as one of the few jazz musicians to find a big audience with '60s hippies. All My Relations is being billed as an exploration of Lloyd's blues roots, but in reality it musically has more to do with the blue of other worlds than ours: the deepness of water, the openness of the sky and the likelihood that there are far more beautiful hues of blue in worlds other than our own. This is levitational, spiritual jazz, full of yearning, poignance and exploration, not as histrionic honking but as a path to some greater spiritual place. Lloyd's self-penned liner notes are incredibly revealing; Lloyd's reminisces about growing up in Memphis and playing gigs on the R&B honky-tonk circuit provides the grounding from which his music takes off and soars. Hint: the album gets better as it goes along; try "Little Peace" (very reminiscent of Lloyd's days with Chico Hamilton), "Cape To Cairo Suite" and the mellow "Hymme To The Mother." JAMES LIEN

ERIC AMBEL & ROSCOE'S GANG Loud & Lonesome

ESD, 530 N. Third St., Minneapolis, MN 55401 612.375.0233
It's been a long time between records for Roscoe's Gang, but Loud & Lonesome makes the wait worth while. Eric Ambel, a k a Roscoe, released his first solo project in 1989, after being a member of Joan Jett's Blackhearts in the early '80s and then serving as one of the driving forces behind the gone-but-not-forgotten Del-Lords for the rest of the decade. Recently, he's made quite a name for himself as a producer for the likes of Nils Lofgren, the Bottle Rockets, the Blood Oranges and a bunch of other roots-rocking bands. Loud & Lonesome hits harder than Ambel has ever done before, even if the Gang has been whittled down to a trio. With Andy York on bass, Keith Levreault on drums and a solid assortment of co-writers, including Kevin Salem, Dan Baird, Greg Trooper and Dan Zanes, he's assembled a record with a solid one-two punch. His guitar screeches and soars on rockers like "Song For The Walls" and "One More Moment Gone," while "I'm Not Alone" and "Downtown At Midnight" are introspective, yet still pack a lyrical wallop. With its edgy guitar anthems and spare arrangements, Loud & Lonesome is masterful American rock at its rough and roaring best. JIM CALGIURI □

SOUNDS EAST

The choices are hard, especially in a week so full of other news, so instead of Jackpots you get some quick recommendations of excellent recordings you should not leave in the pile.

Musical Expeditions is another series started by those masters of the box set, Ellipsis Arts (20 Lumber Road, Roslyn, NY 11576 800.788.6670). This is a wonderfully packaged, informative set of real roots recordings from around the world. So far I have only sampled the delights of Morocco, Crossroads Of Time. Excellently recorded in the field, these are the real thing, entrancing and vital. The set also includes two older recordings made by writer Paul Bowles, whose mark is all over this set. You should also get a copy of Moroccan Street Music, recently issued on CD by Lyricord (141 Perry St., New York, NY 10014 212.929.8234), which includes material from the original '70s sessions that didn't make it to vinyl.

Move a little to the northeast to the music of the MELEVI ENSEMBLE of Turkey on Returning (Interworld, RD #3 Box 395-A, Brattleboro, VT 05301 800.698.6705). Starting with the incredible voice of Kani Karaca, this ensemble performs the music of the "whirling dervishes," seekers who find trance and spirituality in complex dance and motion.

The EMI/Hemisphere series has a hit in Sif Safaa: New Music From The Middle East, a compilation of popular music from North Africa and some of the Arab nations (Hemisphere, c/o I.R.S., 594 Broadway, Ste. 901, New York, NY 10012 212.334.2179). Just sample the two swirling tracks by swooshing Egyptian singer Hamdi Ahmed for starters, or the absolutely divine voice of Hanan as she cries out her love song over a techno-beat with serious roots sounds.

Last is a totally teched-out American reissue of Alma Alma (Miramar, 200 Second Ave. W., Seattle, WA 98119 206.284.4700) by Uzbekistan's pop diva YULDUZ USMANOVA. This could have gone the way of so many Ofra Haza recordings, but is saved by a heavy dependence on strings and winds mixed in among the synths. Of course, it helps to have a voice like hers, too! Whew!

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

In spite of the smaller-than-usual number of reports (these were the reports taken surrounding Memorial Day weekend), Papa Wemba (RealWorld-Caroline) still holds at #1, with a sizable margin over #2 Sheila Chandra (Indipop-Caroline). Our biggest debut this week could be the record that gives those two a run for the money: Bob Marley And The Wailers' Natural Mystic appears at #8. The follow-up to the immensely successful Legend anthology, this Tuff Gong-Island release promises great success. Other debuts of note: Heartbeat's wonderful Viceroy's compilation, which debuts at #12, the latest from Luaka Bop records, Afro-Peruvian Classics: The Soul Of Black Peru (#13), and the bizarre but worldly DJ Towa Tei on Elektra at #24. ### FSK The Sound Of Music

Flying Fish, 1304 W. Schubert, Chicago, IL 60614 312.528.5455

Once in a while something so weird crosses my desk that I can't stop listening. FSK has made such a record. From the roots of Bavarian oompah shoved through a Camper Van sieve, this is the stuff of B-grade movies around the world. If you are a fan of late night Midwest radio, you'll recognize the tunes from hours of Czech, German and Polish polka bands. FSK takes those tunes and gives them a once- (twice-?) over, liberating the melodies and distorting the images until they are as vibrant as anything cranked out in a Seattle garage.

AFRICA FÊTE

While the original Mango-only Africa Fête tour was less than brilliant in execution, this year's show looks to be the best one yet, with some of my all-time favorites taking to the roads of America for a hot summer of music. Boukman Eksperyans, the hot rara-pop band from Haiti, returns again, as does Senegalese techno-rootsman Baaba Maal, with guitarists Mansour Seck and Dande Lenol. Femi Kuti, son of the legendary Fela, brings his slightly mellower brand of sax and Afro-pop to America for the first time. And possibly the best moment of the night will be the most sublime: the moussoulou of Mali, singer Oumou Sangare. Try to catch this in an open, outdoor space with plenty of room to move. ### FIRE AT THE BUTTONWOOD TREE, Middletown, CT

The Buttonwood Tree in Middletown CT, has been a unique and adventurous place for music, poetry and art for a number of years. Performers have included Robin Holcomb, Anthony Braxton (who ran a weekly jam session!), Dar Williams, Elliot Sharp, La Musgaña, Black Note, Ingrid Karklins, Guy Klucsevsek and so many other musicians from around the country and the world, all in a low-key, non-profit living room space and bookstore.

On Saturday, May 19, near the end of a performance, there was a fire (deemed "suspicious" by fire people at the scene) on the second floor of the building that severely damaged the space. At first look, it's pretty clear they have lost all the books and recordings in the store, and probably the computers, phones and other office and theater stuff. They were able to save the piano, which the fire fighters took great pains to cover and protect during the fighting of the fire.

As a non-profit community center, bookstore and performance space, The Buttonwood Tree is the only space of its kind in the region. While insurance will help to rebuild (maybe/probably at a new location somewhere else in the Middletown north end), they are going to need LOTS of help, physical assistance, donations of used books and recordings for the store and, of course, financial support to get things up and running again.

I have set up a special information service for web surfers:

<http://www.rootsworld.com/rw/tbt.html> to bring you continuing updates. I'm going to be helping to coordinate some of this, and while we don't have an exact plan of action in place yet, I sure would like to start hearing from folks who can give them a hand in the rebuilding process. Donations of recordings and books (new and used) would be a huge help in reestablishing the store. Money will be gratefully accepted, and if you live in the region, they are really going to need your hands to help rebuilding over the summer.

E-mail or call me (203.624.6423) if there's anything you can do to help. I'll keep a file of names, addresses and phone numbers, and as things progress, believe me, I'll come looking for you to help. Contributions of money and recordings can be sent to The Buttonwood Tree, 49 Rapallo Ave., Middletown CT 06457. The phone machine is working at 203.347.4957. Because TBT is non-profit, contributions are tax-deductible.

Peace always.

JACKPOT!

ducer Andy Paley, who has masterminded excellent comebacks from Brian Wilson, Little Richard and other '50s and '60s greats. Then there's a few of the rock 'n' rollers and maniacs who were recruited to help the Ferriday Fireball out: Tommy Ardolino, Joey Spampinato and Al Anderson of NRBQ, and legendary Elvis guitarist James Burton. The songs are all hand-picked choices, which Jerry Lee inimitably makes his own, either by rocking out to the point of explosion, or underscoring their lit-ing honky-tonk melodies. In fact, Young Blood may be the most seamless marriage of the two sides of Jerry Lee's nature—country and rock 'n' roll—since his first Sun singles came out with a stomper on one side and a ballad on the flip. Goodness gracious: "Goosebumps," "Things," "Miss The Mississippi And You" (check out Jerry yodelling!), "High Blood Pressure" "It Was The Whiskey Talking (Not Me)" and "Down The Road A Piece." JAMES LIEN

GREEN MAGNET SCHOOL Illuminatus

Sonic Bubblegum, P.O. Box 35504, Brighton, MA 02135 617.782.1527
Since first signing with Sub Pop a few years back, Green Magnet School has undergone more than just a label or lineup change; the band's sound, which inspired the word "industrial" at some point during its first album, has been carefully re-worked and re-invented by the band. Manning three guitars and a bruising rhythm section makes for some clamorous rock any way you structure it, and while Green Magnet School certainly enjoys its share of clashing noise, Illuminatus reveals a progression well beyond standard riff-rock techniques. With two vocalists working around the three guitars, the band simultaneously pulls off gnarled, overdriven punk workouts and a paranoid, pseudo art-rock rhetoric, equally spruced with aggression and brainy-ness. Some songs, like "Penance," "Buck" and the Sonic Youth-referenced "Jihad Sternum," are content with being wiry, guitar-burned mid-set sure-things. "Birdie Num Num" and "Moth" dip their toes in things like melodic vocal lines and skewed, but strangely compelling, pop hooks. As the album's scrawled liner notes detail, there's more going on here than you'd ever expect. COLIN HELMS

ARTO LINDSAY TRIO Aggregates 1-26

Knitting Factory Works, 74 Leonard St., New York, NY 10013 212.219.3006
"I've broken a lot of hearts to do this..." announces the suave nerd in an adenoidal shout in his album's first few seconds. "It had better be great..." Following a decade fronting the glossy-smooth Ambitious Lovers and producing the biggest names in Brazilian pop music, Arto Lindsay has surprisingly returned to his late '70s No Wave roots, developing on the m.o. of his old trio, DNA, an extremely influential group despite a recorded output that doesn't fill up one side of a C60. Arto certainly hasn't lost the edge in his jagged songs, scraped guitar, detached moan and peculiar lyrics, and bassist Melvin Gibbs (Rollins Band, Sonny Sharrock, etc.) and drummer Dougie Bowne (Chris Whitley, Holly Cole, Cassandra Wilson, John Zorn) provide appropriately scraggly percolation to match Lindsay's asperity. From song to song (there are 26, most under a minute or two in length), there's no repetition of licks, riffs or rhythms, and the trio improvises with a sensitivity to space and silence which magnifies the music's urgency. A few songs are more hummable than disjointed, and even some occasional funkiness, but this just makes the strange lyrics seem even stranger. DAVID NEWGARDEN

The Harlequin—The Robot And The Ballet-Dancer and *Touch Themes Of Harlequin * Robot * Ballet-Dancer*

Eye Q, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510
Instrumental concept albums are tough to execute; concept albums with the strict limitations of techno are even harder. (Even the Orb's "story line" for U.F. Orb was done as a piss-take.) So it's a pleasant surprise that Sven Vath has made a neat conceptual record—twice. The Harlequin—The Robot And The Ballet-Dancer is an elegant, pretty construction, divided into the three sections the title suggests, with distinct themes and methods of construction for each. It's also a deliberately subdued record for the most part, bringing out serious beats only a few times. Themes ripple across the front of the mix, cross each other's paths, then disappear again. It's much more a listening record than a dance record ("Ballet-Dancer" and "Harlequin Plays Bells" are particularly lovely). There's the potential for dance music within nearly every track, though, which is where Touch Themes comes in: a collection of seven, mostly dancefloor-oriented, remixes of Harlequin by the likes of Speedy J, B-Zet and Aural Float (which pulls off a sprawling, subtle 18-minute reconstruction of "The Birth Of Robby"). The best remix, though, comes from Underworld, whose take on "Harlequin — The Beauty And The Beast" calls to mind its own "Dirty Epic" stripped down to its shimmering, polyrhythmic electronic core. DOUGLAS WOLK

CHARLES LLOYD All My Relations

ECM, 1540 Broadway, 33rd Fl., New York, NY 10036 212.930.4996
All My Relations is the latest in a string of spellbinding recordings made by flute/saxophone master Charles Lloyd, most famous as Chico Hamilton's band-leader in the '60s and probably most infamous as one of the few jazz musicians to find a big audience with '60s hippies. All My Relations is being billed as an exploration of Lloyd's blues roots, but in reality it musically has more to do with the blue of other worlds than ours: the deepness of water, the openness of the sky and the likelihood that there are far more beautiful hues of blue in worlds other than our own. This is levitational, spiritual jazz, full of yearning, poignance and exploration, not as histrionic honking but as a path to some greater spiritual place. Lloyd's self-penned liner notes are incredibly revealing; Lloyd's reminisces about growing up in Memphis and playing gigs on the R&B honky-tonk circuit provides the grounding from which his music takes off and soars. Hint: the album gets better as it goes along; try "Little Peace" (very reminiscent of Lloyd's days with Chico Hamilton), "Cape To Cairo Suite" and the mellow "Hymme To The Mother." JAMES LIEN

FRUMPIES "Tommy Slich" (7")

Lookout!, P.O. Box 11374, Berkeley, CA 94701 510.841.9042
Members of Bikini Kill and Bratmobile comprise the Frumpies, a slightly more obscure group which has put out a couple of singles on different labels. The band's music is what you might expect, similar to that of the members' other two lo-fi punk rock bands. The Frumpies highlight the great voice of Bikini Kill's Tobi Vail, which is hardly ever showcased in that band. The A-side of single is a bit slower and more laid-back than the ruff-n-tuff B-side. DAWN SUTTER

APRIL MARCH Chick Habit (7" EP)

Sympathy For The Record Industry, 4901 Virginia Ave., Long Beach, CA 90805 310.423.0281
April March, a bubblegum pop queen, doesn't quite fit into today's hip indie scene of screeching guitars and bitter sentiments. The double-7" Chick Habit is '60s-style perky pop (all sung in French, except for the title track, which appears in both French and English). Recalling the work of chanteuse Françoise Hardy, April March offers a pleasant distraction from the often humdrum rock world. DAWN SUTTER

THIRTY OUGHT SIX "Talon" (7")

Mute, 10 W. 22nd St., 10th Fl., New York, NY 10011 212.225.7670
On its first single since last year's impressive Bosozoku LP, Thirty Ought Six continues to blend catchy guitar lines with bass-heavy melodies and anguished vocals. The Portland, Oregon, trio's noisy style is balanced by a perfectly sized portion of hooks, making the band sound like the progeny of Fugazi and Buffalo Tom. "Talon"'s distorted guitars and impassioned vocals form an emotional rollercoaster. The B-side's anthemic "Moreau" is catchier: its melody gradually swells, and then crashes (think Sunny Day Real Estate). With songs that are alternately soothing and jarring, Thirty Ought Six is sure to leave you reeling. JENNY ELISCU

VARIOUS ARTISTS Winters Mist 2 (7" EP)

Silver Girl, P.O. Box 161024, San Diego, CA 92176 619.282.9843
This collection of lively pop was carefully pieced together—a rarity when it comes to compilations. There is a consistency of style on all five songs, without treading on monotony. Allen Clapp and the McTells are probably the best known names, as both have singles and full-length releases under their belts; but one of the best songs is the high-pitched pristine prize "Don't See Me Soon," from the Dufflecoats. DAWN SUTTER

CORDELIA'S DAD "Three Snake Leaves" (7")

Scenescof, P.O. Box 175, Northampton, MA 01061
Cordelia's Dad is best known for its interpretations of traditional songs, but on this single it takes a crack at high-powered rock. The group has been playing folk music long enough that hints of traditional melodies and assonances settle comfortably into guitarist Tim Eriksen's songs. "Three Snake Leaves" is a Versus-style anthem, featuring a flame-breathing guitar solo and singing with vocal ornamentation that's standard for folk ballads but unusual and refreshing in a rock context. Bassist Cath O. sings the other side's "Hush," whose balladic refrain of "what's that tapping at the garden gate" leads into a dense, surging chorus. DOUGLAS WOLK

I've Got A Tiger By The Tail
On The Bandstand
Sundazed P.O. Box 85, Coxsackie, NY 12051 518.731.6262
Before his cornball TV clowning on that great American institution, Hee Haw, Buck Owens played a vital role in the evolution of country music; as guitarist in Tommy Collins' band in the mid-'50s and then as leader of the Buckaroos through the '60s, Owens, more than any other individual, defined the "Bakersfield Sound" (Bakersfield, an oil town north of Los Angeles with plenty of honky-tonks to entertain the transplanted oil men, was a hotbed for country music). With a rockabilly background, Owens bypassed the heavy vocal choruses and syrupy strings that were drowning Nashville country music of the same period, as he updated the classic honky-tonk style with a rock edge supplied by electric Fender Telecasters (this Bakersfield style still sounded fresh when Dwight Yoakam copped it a quarter century later). Owens had a huge pile of hits, including "Act Naturally" (included as a bonus track on Together Again...), which was later covered by a rock group called the Beatles. Although songs of heartbreak were certainly nothing new in country music, these albums are notable for obsessing on themes of separation and loneliness in an era when divorce became the national pastime; Owens' wife (singer Bonnie Owens) left him for up-an-coming Bakersfield star Merle Haggard, and Buck's well-publicized search for a "good wife" drew mail-sacks full of marriage proposals. These long-overdue reissues (from '63-'65) are the first five in a series of 10 Owens albums coming on Sundazed. Hot dog! DAVID NEWGARDEN

SPEEDY WEST & JIMMY BRYANT
Stratosphere Boogie: The Flaming Guitars
Of Speedy West & Jimmy Bryant

Razor & Tie, 214 Sullivan St., Ste. 5A, New York, NY 10012 212.473.9173
Late '40s Texas swing bands like Bob Wills' Texas Playboys pioneered country/jazz hybrids with new-fangled amplified guitars, but in the early '50s, Speedy West and Jimmy Bryant rocketed this style into outer space. This collection of 16 high-speed guitar chases showcases three sides of this amazing duo: fast, faster and fastest. The action is furious jet-fueled pyrotechnics, showing off Bryant's dazzling bebop picking and ahead-of-his-time sound (he was the first guitarist to endorse the solid-body Fender Telecaster) and West's insane note-bending, -sliding and -twisting on the newly-introduced Gibson Electraharp pedal steel guitar—they sure didn't call him Speedy for nothing. DAVID NEWGARDEN

LOUVIN BROTHERS

When I Stop Dreaming: The Best Of The Louvin Brothers
Razor & Tie, address above
Charlie and Ira Louvin carried on the great country tradition of tight-knit fraternal harmonies from '30s groups like the Delmore Brothers and the Monroe Brothers, and passed it on to Phil and Don Everly, whom they influenced in a big way. Although the Louvin Brothers were Capitol labelmates of Speedy West in the mid-'50s, they sound several generations earlier in comparison. Stars of the Grand Ol' Opry, the Louvins sang old-style song-bird harmonies with acoustic guitar and mandolin, specializing in maudlin and cautionary religious songs (their Satan Is Real LP has one of the greatest jacket photos ever), along with heart-breaking tear-jerkers and weepy tragedies. While the Louvins' sweet singing is reason enough to enjoy these songs over and over again, some of them boast an extra attraction of ridiculously over-the-top lyrics. "The Kneeling Drunkard's Plea" (Ira was a lush, Charlie a teetotaler), "Pitfall" (with a purposefully heavy hand on the vocal-echo) and the gory "Wreck On The Highway" are pretty peculiar. But strangest of all is the traditional "Knoxville Girl"; this grisly first-person account of the (apparently motive-less) murder and corpse-disposal of a girlfriend, who is described only as "one I loved so well," is sung pretty matter-of-factly, making it all the more gruesome. DAVID NEWGARDEN

The Big Book Of Country Music: A Biographical Encyclopedia
by Richard Carlin

Penguin Books, 375 Hudson St., New York, NY 10014
This new reference book of country music and its many offshoots and cousins is extremely informative with lively (at times, hilarious) writing and thoughtful commentary. The 526 pages detail the lives, musical styles, influences and recordings of over 600 artists, along with a recommended discography of each. From old-timey to countrypolitan, the Big Book highlights early greats like Fiddling John Carson, Uncle Dave Macon, the Skillet Lickers and the Bogtrotters and modern stars like Garth Brooks, Billy Ray Cyrus, the Judds, k.d. lang and Alison Krauss, including practically every noteworthy in between. Although we've already spotted several artists' names misspelled, we're very pleasantly surprised to find entries on Roy Smeck, the Holy Modal Rounders, Mike Nesmith, Jimmie Dale Gilmore, Lucinda Williams, Michelle Shocked and the Good Ol' Persons (although unfortunately, no Lee Hazelwood or Butch Hancock). The author has some refreshing and intelligent criticism for such sacred cows as Patsy Cline and Bob Dylan (his recent albums), and includes saccharine country artists like Marie Osmond and Debbie Boone for some humorous skewering—to call something an "encyclopedia" doesn't mean it has to be boring. The Big Book is not afraid to call Crystal Gayle antiseptic, or to call a junky novelty song a junky novelty song, nor is it so serious that it can't make light of Dwight Yoakam's baldness. DAVID NEWGARDEN

SWEETMAN WITH HIS SOUTH SIDE GROOVE KINGS

Austin Backalley Blue

Wild Child!, c/o Mapleshade, 2301 Crain Highway, Upper Marlboro, MD 20772 301.627.0525

The lights are dim red and blue, but even if they were bright tungsten lamps, they still wouldn't cut through smoke so thick it's discolored the drab walls. Up on the stage, a weatherbeaten-looking woman wearing a feather boa, a peacock tattoo and nothing else gyrates half-heartedly, slithering around a pole. A big guy with Bo Diddley sunglasses on sits at the bar with an unlit cigar. He hasn't moved in months. The liquor is watered down before it even hits the ice in the glass. And the leader of the house band in this eternally-unchanging, open-every-night den of iniquity? It's Austin saxophonist Sweetman, purring sleazy, down-home blues out of his sax. This is the real bump-and-grind stuff, taking cues from slinky, early instrumental R&B of King Curtis, Ike Quebec, Gene Ammons and after-hours organ trios of yore. Ambience, heart, groove—call it what you will, but it oozes from every note played by Sweetman and his mates. Featuring alumni of such honky-tonk hellraisers as the Fabulous Thunderbirds, John Mooney and Evan John's H-Bombs, Sweetman's cast of characters play like they're trapped in the life described above and have no desire to leave. Sweetman himself got his chops on the Baltimore bar circuit, then paid dues playing with Luther "Guitar" Johnson and Texas bluesman Buddy Ace. Listening to the CD, you can picture the tangled Christmas lights, the tattered instrument cases, the scuffed and stitched boots of the musicians. Check their version of "Harlem Nocturne," which turns the sax staple into a quasi-surf boogaloo, or "Tyron's Night Out," "Jest Smoochin'" and the title track. While the patrons lean and slouch at their tables and nurse their watery drinks, the band kicks off another set with a late-'50s R&B nugget, "Housewarming." Outside the neon blinks like a beacon luring lost souls in from the night.

OTIS BLACKWELL All Shook Up

Shanachie, 37 E. Clinton St., Newton, NJ 07860 201.579.7763

Having released a fairly-successful tribute to Otis Blackwell last year, Shanachie follows up with All Shook Up, a re-release of Blackwell's rediscovery album from the late '70s, originally known by the much better, ballsier title These Are My Songs. The liner notes point out that it is a rare thing indeed that an artist could record an album of rock 'n' roll standards that are also his own originals—"All Shook Up," "Great Balls Of Fire" and "Don't Be Cruel," among them—and it's a fair assessment of All Shook Up. (Rather humorously, those same original liner notes from 1976 go on to compare Blackwell to Carole King and Barry Manilow!). Blackwell's musical backing, apparently from a cast of '70s session cats, is perfect for re-recordings; rather than try to reverently recreate the '50s in an "oldies" style, they rock out a little harder, with screaming fuzztone guitars and funkier beats. Blackwell's vocals take center stage—at times he cackles like Screamin' Jay Hawkins, hiccups like Jerry Lee, and even curls his lip a little like Elvis. It's fun and cool, and one can just picture Lux Interior, Alex Chilton or a young Jon Spencer digging these sounds in the late '70s.

Roots 'N' Blues is CMJ's weekly forum for rootsy 'n' bluesy music of all stripes. Send all material for review to Roots 'N' Blues, c/o CMJ, 11 Middle Neck Rd., Ste. 400, Great Neck, NY 11021.

COMET GAIN Casino Classics

Wiiija, 130 Talbot Road, London W11 1JA U.K. 0171.299.8541

Comet Gain has a canny knack of making '60s beat-pop, '70s northern soul and '80s indie-shambling sound like it all spills out from the same fertile source. The Oxford/London quintet's debut album, Casino Classics revisits the C86 movement/Sarah label aesthetic—aching or stropy boy/girl voices, stumbly guitars, rickety rhythm sections and heart-on-sleeve dynamics, altogether Pastel shades of Orange Juice recorded in Stereolab, with sleeve notes from Dan Treacy of Television Personalities (true, this bit). Comet Gain can fall prey to indie-twee cliché, but when the beats churn or the dreaminess takes to the stars, we're talking timeless funtime. Check out the punk-pop-passionate "Footstomping," the summery, Hammond-driven "A Million And Nine," the Pastels-out-of-Velvets ballad "Music Upstairs," the Pastels-out-of-Velvets rocker "Villian," the gossamer-soft "Intergalactic Starbed" and the snarl-pop finale "Chevron Action Flash."

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

An early sighting of London-based PEEPSHOW drew one observer to describe singer Paul as a fusion of Jarvis Cocker of Pulp and Prince. The debut single, "Inevitably," isn't the glam-slam mutation that description suggests but a tightly wound, punkish nugget with a whiny, guttersnipe vocal. "Strange World" is more generic but the druggy, drained "Cathy Can't Play" reaffirms the notion that Peepshow is waving something more emotionally confrontational than a simple New Wave of New Wave flag (Fantasy Ashtray, London U.K. 0171.436.1659)...Talking of feels-like-real-punk spirit, FLYING MEDALLIONS' "Riot" is bluntist 1-2-3-4 rant-pop bite for a while. It's one side of a 7" single with CHINA DRUM on the flipside speeding up Kate Bush's "Wuthering Heights" for no apparent reason than the probable fact the melody sounds great as a short term punk blast (Fierce Panda, P.O. Box 7337, London N1 9NS)...The glam-slam spirit, though, is something that the NUBILES are more in touch with, going by their second single "Without Walking," with the neo-rockabilly, attitood-oozing rumble "A Sap's Guide To Rock'n'Roll" on the flip (Lime Street, 5 Clair St., Bedford MK40 U.K. call Wayward PR on 0171.978.8611)... Last year, Thule mutated into 94:Nil (the band discovered the word Thule had fascistic connotations it wasn't aware of), a name set to change every year. Hence 95:NIL and its debut single "Carbrain," a more verse/chorus-flavored and rockified venture than Thule's loose-limbed industrial fashions. A couple of reviews have hinted at a London take on Nine Inch Nails but 95:Nil stands nearer the rigid body-beats and technology stamp of '80s than the metal and techno-influenced '90s. If anything, "Carbrain" echoes Tuxedomoon's grainy, Euro-Flavored electro-disko, even more so on the leaner, synth-led "Sprung" (Car-Wreckords, Basement Flat, 88 Cecile Park, London N8 U.K. 0181.347.9643)...Back at the diehard Britpop division, the five players in London's ELCKA are music-hall dramatists, fleshing out melody with showy keyboards, vampy guitars and echoes of pre-'50s stylings—that said, Elcka's spiritual antecedents are New Zealand's great misfits Split Enz, who also tainted musical academia with soulful vulnerability and pop essence. Elcka's debut single "Leather Lips" (backed by the less decorative "Bleed" and "Florentina Miserabelle") shows how this older, 'progressive' tip of pop can be a treasure trove, not a graveyard, of ideas. But beware—Edwardian frock coats might be 'in' by this time next week (Nectah, Warehouse Studio, 669 Woolwich Road, London SE7 U.K. 0181.293.4911).

FURTHER OUT

Column coordinated by David Newgarden

Despite the title, Some Same (XI, 224 Centre St., New York, NY 10013), from FAST FORWARD (a guy not a group), is quite different from the previous two albums by this hyperactive percussionist. On three lengthy live recordings, Forward is joined by an all-star cast, including vocalist David Moss, trumpeter Ben Neill and David Shea, New York's enfant terrible of the turntables. "Feeding Frenzy" is centered on the sounds of food preparation—chopping, stirring, whirring, sizzling, pouring and banging on pots and pans, accompanied by Guy Klucsevsek's accordion and Ikue Mori's drum machines. The resulting meal is served to the audience as the "chef" improvises the next course...No matter how modern and high-tech, synthesizers usually sound cheesy when they replicate orchestral strings and percussion, but the material on MARK WHEATON Plays America's Favorite Award-Winning Tunes (Catasonic, P.O. Box 2727, 1615 Wilcox, Los Angeles, CA 90078) is strong enough to almost overcome this flaw, the synth tackiness occasionally enhancing the music's nuttiness. Wheaton plays 17 original action-packed soundtracks in search of a movie (or at least at a late night TV thriller), many composed in the spirit of Bernard Herrmann ('50s Hitchcock) or Quincy Jones ('60s jazz coolness), but executed à la Michael Perilstein or Danny Elfman. Particularly good are "Ocean View Ave.," a soundtrack to a traffic jam, the goofball "Theatre Carnival Theme Song" and "Baited Trap," loaded with a blustery (and non-synthetic) tenor sax...Speaking of MICHAEL PERILSTEIN, he has a new soundtrack to the horror film Where Evil Lives, just out on T.E.C. Tones (P.O. Box 1477, Hoboken, NJ 07030 201.420.0238). A master of moods with a warped sensibility, Perilstein is always an interesting listen even though he plays those damn synths. DAVID NEWGARDEN

You don't often see compilations with only four tracks on them, but then you also don't often see compilations with 21-minute tracks on them, like Chaos In Expansion (Sub Rosa (Belgium), c/o Dutch East India, 150 W. 28th St., Ste. 501, New York, NY 10001). That long one is by Charles Heyward (formerly of This Heat) and Nick Doyne-Ditmas: "Where Is Chaos Now?," a six-part suite (again with no track subdivisions—aargh!) that's about two parts pompous excess to four parts exquisite drums-and-other-stuff groping for the inside of the skull. The other three tracks are Tobias Hazan's terrific interpretation of a Gyorgy Ligety piece (which sneaks up all quiet and pretty and then paradigm-shifts at you), a less memorable Coil track and an electronically augmented speech in French by Ilya Prigogine...If you prefer your spoken words in English, PETER BLEGVAD AND JOHN GREAVES's Unearthed (Sub Rosa, address above) is essentially Blegvad reading his short, arty stories, with some music and other audio tricks thrown in to make it more interesting to listen to. Sometimes the sound-tweaking gets in the way of the words (as on "The New Liquid"), though "The Only Song" is a fine musical joke (play it on the radio and you will get a response). The words themselves, though, are often excellent—like the late Richard Brautigan, Blegvad uses whimsy and absurdity to get at more meaningful things (see, for instance, "Dog With A Conscience"). The highbrow King Missile?...PSYCHIC TV is down to a duo of Genesis P-Orridge and Larry Thrasher. On the new Cathedral Engine (Dossier, c/o Com Four, 7 Dunham Pl., Brooklyn, NY 11211 718.599.2205), it's declared "Nothing Short Ov A Total Gender" (uh, whatever, Genesis) and—curiously—sanded all of its edges and points down to curves. The 10 untitled tracks are full of violent industrial noise, but warm, cozy violent industrial noise: nothing jarring, everything droning pleasantly. The fourth track, which starts with a lengthy acoustic-guitar obbligato, is especially nice. DOUGLAS WOLK

SOUNDS EAST

The choices are hard, especially in a week so full of other news, so instead of Jackpots you get some quick recommendations of excellent recordings you should not leave in the pile.

Musical Expeditions is another series started by those masters of the box set, Ellipsis Arts (20 Lumber Road, Roslyn, NY 11576 800.788.6670). This is a wonderfully packaged, informative set of real roots recordings from around the world. So far I have only sampled the delights of Morocco, Crossroads Of Time. Excellently recorded in the field, these are the real thing, entrancing and vital. The set also includes two older recordings made by writer Paul Bowles, whose mark is all over this set. You should also get a copy of Moroccan Street Music, recently issued on CD by Lyricord (141 Perry St., New York, NY 10014 212.929.8234), which includes material from the original '70s sessions that didn't make it to vinyl.

Move a little to the northeast to the music of the MELEVI ENSEMBLE of Turkey on Returning (Interworld, RD #3 Box 395-A, Brattleboro, VT 05301 800.698.6705). Starting with the incredible voice of Kâni Karaca, this ensemble performs the music of the "whirling dervishes," seekers who find trance and spirituality in complex dance and motion.

The EMI/Hemisphere series has a hit in Sif Safaa: New Music From The Middle East, a compilation of popular music from North Africa and some of the Arab nations (Hemisphere, c/o I.R.S., 594 Broadway, Ste. 901, New York, NY 10012 212.334.2179). Just sample the two swirling tracks by swooshing Egyptian singer Hamdi Ahmed for starters, or the absolutely divine voice of Hanan as she cries out her love song over a techno-beat with serious roots sounds.

Last is a totally teched-out American reissue of Alma Alma (Miramar, 200 Second Ave. W., Seattle, WA 98119 206.284.4700) by Uzbekistan's pop diva YULDUZ USMANOVA. This could have gone the way of so many Ofra Haza recordings, but is saved by a heavy dependence on strings and winds mixed in among the synths. Of course, it helps to have a voice like hers, too! Whew!

ON THE CHART

Colors indicate a significant change in ranking.

In spite of the smaller-than-usual number of reports (these were the reports taken surrounding Memorial Day weekend), Papa Wemba (RealWorld-Caroline) still holds at #1, with a sizable margin over #2 Sheila Chandra (Indipop-Caroline). Our biggest debut this week could be the record that gives those two a run for the money: Bob Marley And The Wailers' Natural Mystic appears at #8. The follow-up to the immensely successful Legend anthology, this Tuff Gong-Island release promises great success. Other debuts of note: Heartbeat's wonderful Viceroy's compilation, which debuts at #12, the latest from Luaka Bop records, Afro-Peruvian Classics: The Soul Of Black Peru (#13), and the bizarre but worldly DJ Towa Tei on Elektra at #24. ### FSK The Sound Of Music

Flying Fish, 1304 W. Schubert, Chicago, IL 60614 312.528.5455

Once in a while something so weird crosses my desk that I can't stop listening. FSK has made such a record. From the roots of Bavarian oompah shoved through a Camper Van sieve, this is the stuff of B-grade movies around the world. If you are a fan of late night Midwest radio, you'll recognize the tunes from hours of Czech, German and Polish polka bands. FSK takes those tunes and gives them a once- (twice-?) over, liberating the melodies and distorting the images until they are as vibrant as anything cranked out in a Seattle garage.

AFRICA FÊTE

While the original Mango-only Africa Fête tour was less than brilliant in execution, this year's show looks to be the best one yet, with some of my all-time favorites taking to the roads of America for a hot summer of music. Boukman Eksperyans, the hot rara-pop band from Haiti, returns again, as does Senegalese techno-rootsman Baaba Maal, with guitarists Mansour Seck and Dande Lenol. Femi Kuti, son of the legendary Fela, brings his slightly mellower brand of sax and Afro-pop to America for the first time. And possibly the best moment of the night will be the most sublime: the moussoulou of Mali, singer Oumou Sangare. Try to catch this in an open, outdoor space with plenty of room to move. ### FIRE AT THE BUTTONWOOD TREE, Middletown, CT

The Buttonwood Tree in Middletown CT, has been a unique and adventurous place for music, poetry and art for a number of years. Performers have included Robin Holcomb, Anthony Braxton (who ran a weekly jam session!), Dar Williams, Elliot Sharp, La Musgaña, Black Note, Ingrid Karklins, Guy Klucsevsek and so many other musicians from around the country and the world, all in a low-key, non-profit living room space and bookstore.

On Saturday, May 19, near the end of a performance, there was a fire (deemed "suspicious" by fire people at the scene) on the second floor of the building that severely damaged the space. At first look, it's pretty clear they have lost all the books and recordings in the store, and probably the computers, phones and other office and theater stuff. They were able to save the piano, which the fire fighters took great pains to cover and protect during the fighting of the fire.

As a non-profit community center, bookstore and performance space, The Buttonwood Tree is the only space of its kind in the region. While insurance will help to rebuild (maybe/probably at a new location somewhere else in the Middletown north end), they are going to need LOTS of help, physical assistance, donations of used books and recordings for the store and, of course, financial support to get things up and running again.

I have set up a special information service for web surfers:

<http://www.rootsworld.com/rw/tbt.html> to bring you continuing updates. I'm going to be helping to coordinate some of this, and while we don't have an exact plan of action in place yet, I sure would like to start hearing from folks who can give them a hand in the rebuilding process. Donations of recordings and books (new and used) would be a huge help in reestablishing the store. Money will be gratefully accepted, and if you live in the region, they are really going to need your hands to help rebuilding over the summer.

E-mail or call me (203.624.6423) if there's anything you can do to help. I'll keep a file of names, addresses and phone numbers, and as things progress, believe me, I'll come looking for you to help. Contributions of money and recordings can be sent to The Buttonwood Tree, 49 Rapallo Ave., Middletown CT 06457. The phone machine is working at 203.347.4957. Because TBT is non-profit, contributions are tax-deductible.

Peace always.

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

Verve's Joe Henderson (3-1) has traded the top spot with Antilles' Steve Turre (1-2) for the fourth time, as his tribute to Antonio Carlos Jobim hits #1 for the third time. Delmark's Kahil El'Zabar's Ritual Trio (14-4) zooms past last week's top chart debut, Verve's Randy Weston, who falls 5-6. This week's top debut is Roscoe Mitchell (#11), who has returned to the Delmark label after three decades. Other new entries include Rykodisc's Last Poets (#12), JMT's Django Bates (#16), Postcards' Harold Land (#18), RCA's Disques Vogue sampler (#20) and In + Out's Lester Bowie's Brass Fantasy (#25). ## TRUMPET X 3

One of the most reliably expressive, yet underappreciated trumpeters on the New Jazz front in New York City is BAIKIDA CARROLL. This imbalance will hopefully be rectified with the release of Door Of The Cage (Soul Note, c/o Sphere Marketing & Distribution, Cargo Bldg. 80, Room 2A, JFK Airport, Jamaica, NY 11430), a thoughtful, energetic quintet affair featuring 10 original compositions by the leader. Carroll's associates are fellow avant-exemplars Erica Lindsey, tenor sax; Steve Adegoke Colson, piano; Santi Debriano, bass, and Pheeroan akLaff, drums. Particularly worthy of airplay are "Against Your Warmth" (6:59), a ballad with the leader on muted horn, and "Speak" (4:29), a brisk mid-tempo romp showcasing the ensemble to fine effect. Door Of The Cage has been a long time coming, but worth the wait...The debut CD by trumpeter MICHAEL MOSSMAN, also overdue yet outstanding, affirms all the promise and praise he's received since he arrived on the scene as the co-leader and musical director for Out Of The Blue (O.T.B.), which cut several LPs for Blue Note. A clear-, strong-voiced brassman with impressive improvisational skills, Mossman has made the most of his time since O.T.B., gigging with groups large (Toshiko Akiyoshi Jazz Orchestra, Dizzy Gillespie's United Nation Orchestra, Gerry Mulligan's 1992 Rebirth Of The Cool band) and small (Mulligan's quartet and Horace Silver's combo). In several contexts with the multi-reedman Daniel Schnyder for Enja, straight swing or uplifting Nordic-style classical jazz, Mossman has also distinguished himself. Mossman's new Springdance for the Swiss Claves Jazz label (c/o Rounder, 1 Camp St. Cambridge MA 02140) isn't exactly a career summation to date — his activities have been too manifold for that — but it is a highly varied, consistently pleasing platter. Nine of the ten pieces on this 62-minute, all-digital date come from Mossman's pen and showcase the leader alongside such notables as tenor/soprano saxophonist David Sanchez, pianist Kenny Drew, Jr., bassist James Genus, drummer Marvin "Smitty" Smith and percussionist Bobby Sanabria. Suggested programming options include the briskly boppish, straight-ahead title track and the shrewd grafting of Bill Evans' pensive "Peace Piece" with Silver's "Peace." Delightfully surprising and delicious to these ears are two Afro-Cuban originals, "Chachanita" and "Mambo Ala Joe," which bear the influence of Mossman's tenure as arranger for the late Mario Bauza's orchestra. Mossman, to be sure, can do it all — and one hopes to hear more from him soon...Muscle and mer-rimant are the complementary antipodes of brassman LESTER BOWIE's musical conception. The founding member of the Art Ensemble Of Chicago leads his other well-established aggregate, his Brass Fantasy, through a 74-minute live-from-Switzerland performance on The Fire This Time for the German In + Out company (also available though Rounder, address above). Bowie leads his Brass Fantasy (four trumpets, two trombones, French horn, tuba, drums and percussion) through spirited covers of "Night Time (Is The Right Time)," a popular vehicle for Ray Charles, as well as the '50s staple "The Great Pretender" and Michael Jackson's "Black Or White." Equally cogent, though more righteously indignant, is the Fantasy's remake of "Strange Fruit," the Billie Holiday-immortalized tune about a Southern lynching.

ALTO GLADNESS

At presstime MusicMasters (1710 Highway 3S, Ocean, NJ 07712) was poised to issue The Best Of Benny Carter, a compilation culled from the alto great's nine previous recordings for the label. In addition to reprising two of Carter's Grammy-winning numbers, this CD will include two previously unissued tracks. The world's greatest living improviser — he turns 88 in August, bless him — is expected to take to the studio this fall to cut a new album with special-guest soloists...In a departure from its acclaimed reissue projects, Mosaic (3S Melrose Pl., Stamford, CT 06902-7533 203.327.7111) has come out with a worthy collection of material that has never seen the light of day: the five CD/seven-LP box The Phil Woods Quartet/Quintet 20th Anniversary Set. Alto firebrand Woods and his trusty rhythm mates, bassist Steve Gilmore and drummer Bill Goodwin, are heard with a variety of pianists (Mike Melillo, Hal Galper, Jim McNeely) and hornmen (Hal Crook, Tom Harrell, Brian Lynch) spanning two decades. The late guitarist Harry Leahey appears on several of the sides. Woods, who has at once affirmed and transcended his Charlie Parker influence over the years, is a road-warrior, and this set is a timely reminder that, both in the studio or on the bandstand, his groups come to play and play hard.

Gene Kalbacher is editor and publisher of Hot House, the monthly jazz night-life guide for the New York metropolitan area. Send all press releases, CD, cassette and LP product for consideration to: 18 Whipoorwill Lane, Rockaway Twp., NJ 07866. Call 201.627.5349 Tue. and Thur. between 11 a.m. and 6 p.m. EST.

JACKPOT

HERB JEFFRIES

The Bronze Buckaroo
(Rides Again)

Warner Western, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505-4694
One hesitates to term The Bronze Buckaroo (Rides Again) a "jazz" album per se, but it does swing and it presents, decades overdue, the exceptional tenor-to-baritone vocals and interpretive elan of Herb Jeffries, who displayed his bona fides as a jazzman as early as a half-century ago. Issued on Warner Western, this major label's country line, The Bronze Buckaroo (Rides Again) is a charming jazzified country program including such weatherworn worthies as "I'm A Happy Cowboy," "Tumbling Tumbleweeds," "Lonesome Rider Blues" and "Back In The Saddle Again." Jeffries, an 83-year-old black man who lives in California, starred as "The Bronze Buckaroo," the singing cowboy, in several all-black Hollywood westerns between 1935 and 1939. What's more, Jeffries demonstrated his crystal-clear diction, blues affinities and wondrous deep tonality with pianist Earl "Fatha" Hines in 1934. Six years later he guested with reed master Sidney Bechet and recorded the tune for which he's best known, "Flamingo" with Duke Ellington. Steel guitar, fiddle, background vocals, harmonica, snappy drums and jazzed-up piano and guitar accompany Jeffries on an album that, without defying genres, renders classification moot. Having scored fine artistic successes with previous jazzy sessions by Jimmy Scott and Charlie Rich, Warners once again does itself proud. For a nifty segue, follow "I'm A Happy Cowboy" or "Cow Cow Boogie" with one of the cowboy-jazz renditions from tenorman Sonny Rollins' immortal late '50s Way Out West album.

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

Oh Boy's John Prine holds on to #1 this week and has now ruled over our chart for four straight weeks. Meanwhile, Warner Bros.' Elvis Costello moves up one spot (3-2), while Reprise's Chris Isaak (19-4), Atlantic's Billy Pilgrim (16-6), Virgin's King Crimson (11-10), A&M's Del Amitri (23-11) and Mercury's Robert Cray (25-12) all make impressive moves. Top debuts this week are DGC's Pell Mell at #28, Rykodisc's Roches at #31 and Capricorn's Vigilantes Of Love at #38. Top adds: 1) Stephen Bruton; 2) Chris Isaak; 3) Kendra Smith; 4) The Roches; 5) Tim O'Brien.

ROCHES Can We Go Home Now

Rykodisc, Shetland Park, 27 Congress St., Salem, MA 01970 508.744.7678

The Roches are the prototypical artist for Triple AAA radio. Throughout their long and varied career they have always been bubbling under the surface of general public awareness, yet Maggie, Terre and Suzzy continue to build a strong fan base with their busy touring schedule. Can We Go Home Now is their first record for Rykodisc, and it captures the three sisters from New Jersey in excellent form. The Roches' strengths have consistently been their sharp-witted songs, covering a broad range of topics, their sophisticated musicianship and their impeccable harmonies, a wealth of which are displayed here. The concept of "home" is the overriding theme on this disc, from the effervescent lead track "Move" to the shimmering "Home Away From Home" to the haunting title track. Each of the album's 11 tunes possesses a distinctively sly appeal, making Can We Go Home Now an absolute delight.

SHORT SHOTS

With GUY CLARK's latest record riding near the top of the Triple AAA chart these days, be sure to check out Craftsman, a marvelous reissue from Philo (1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140 617.354.0700). From 1978 to 1984, Clark recorded for Warner Bros. Records, and three of his albums from that period (Guy Clark, The South Coast Of Texas and Better Days) comprise this two-CD set, which features the original versions of such Clark classics as "Heartbroke," "She's Crazy For Leavin'," "Randall Knife" and "Homegrown Tomatoes," as well as contributions from Rodney Crowell, Ricky Skaggs, Don Everly, Rosanne Cash, Vince Gill and more. It's a real treasure trove for old fans and those just discovering his genius...If John Popper from Blues Traveler is your idea of the latest and greatest in harmonica heroes, don't miss In Your Eyes, the second album from SUGAR BLUE (Alligator, P.O. Box 60234, Chicago, IL 60660 213.973.7736). While the two possess similar playing styles, each squeezing a seemingly impossible amount of notes from his harp, Blue stands apart by writing songs in a variety of styles from straight-ahead blues ("In Your Eyes") to lean and funky numbers ("Bottom Line") to all-out rockers ("Gucci Gucci Man"). Don't miss his duet with Muddy Waters' famed piano player Pinetop Perkins on "Bluepine," a nod to traditional blues that's tasty and ethereal...A college rock supergroup of sorts, GUTTERBALL is Steve Wynn (ex-Dream Syndicate), Stephen McCarthy (ex-Long Ryders), Armistead Wellford (ex-Love Tractor) and both members of House Of Freaks, Bryan Harvey and Johnny Hott. Their second record together, Weasel (Brake Out, c/o Enemy, 234 Sixth Ave., Brooklyn, NY 11215 718.636.1100), is packed with the gritty guitar rock you would expect from this conglomeration. Their playing is passionate, and the songs are loaded with hooky melodies and crafty riffs. "Sugar Fix," "Is There Something I Should Know?" and "California" are just a few highlights on a disc that's too good to let fall through the cracks...BOBBY CHARLES is best known as a Louisiana-based songwriter who has his biggest hits recorded by Fats Domino and Bill Haley. Wish You Were Here Right Now (Stony Plain, P.O. Box 861, Edmonton, AB T5J 2L8 Canada 403.468.6423) is only his second album, which is pretty amazing considering he's been writing songs for 40 years. It's a splendid collection of New Orleans-style R&B with special guest turns by Domino, Willie Nelson, Neil Young and Sonny Landreth. Charles combines the soulfulness of Arthur Alexander with the poetic lyricism of Randy Newman on updated versions of some of his older tunes like "Walking To New Orleans" and lively new compositions like "Promises, Promises (The Truth Will Set You Free)."

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

ApheX Twin remains at the chart's peak and the Orb hangs in at #2. Eye Q-WB's release of Sven Vath's latest outing is the highest new entry at #11. We have a spate of new entries this week in the chart's lower region. In at #17 is Payday-frrr's latest jungle compilation, Jungle Massive, while Rising High's new domestic base results in this week's new #18, Ascension.... The domestic release of Too Pure's Mouse On Mars through American makes its debut at #19. Other new entries include: Doppler Effect (#20), Sugar (#21) and Brothers From Another Planet (#22). Finally, Green Velvet's Portamento EP crops up at #25. The EEG labels made a strong showing on this week's chart, locking four releases in the top 10. (RPM REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TDP 35 REPORTS)

RAW OXYGEN VOL. 3 The Blue Nipple (EP)

SMALL FISH WITH SPINE Stickleback (EP)

Oxygen Music Works, c/o Dig It International, 915 Broadway, Ste. 1005, New York, NY 10010 212.673.7676

The nascent Oxygen Music Works label is fast becoming the site where New York's most experimental electronic dance voices can be heard. The label's previous releases, including the ethereal Elements Of Life EPs, were pathbreaking, negotiating the space between house and dancefloor jazz with remarkable dexterity. Here the label's roster expands a bit to include the truly deranged aural textures of the Raw Oxygen crew, whose Blue Nipple EP certainly wasn't created with commercial radio play in mind. The opening "Miss Tina's Revenge" is an expertly produced number with a haunting keyboard sequence drifting through the mix, while winding down sax blasts play across the surface. The track's restraint and grandeur are stunning. The flip's "Class" is a heavily kick-drummed walk on hot coals, while "Church" is a downtempo, jazzier affair. The label's latest signing is Small Fish With Spine, known to her friends as Riz Maslen, an English producer whose first release, the Stickleback EP, is a smorgasbord of breakbeat-fueled inner journeys. The rubbery flanging of "Siolim" opens the A-side as darting piccolos fuse with the sluggish bass line. "I Hate You" is immersed in tickling funk guitar work and disembodied chants disappearing into the canyons of reverb. The flipside's three tracks further explore Maslen's strange cosmology. "Anjuna Fleamarket Goa," her paean to the Indian island now home to British dance ex-pats, is reminiscent of the more contemplative moments of the KLF's pathbreaking Chill Out LP. This is a very promising debut indeed.

ELSEWHERE

If you hadn't guessed by now, PAUL JOHNSON is one of Chicago's bravest souls, one who has insisted on releasing jackhammer-minimal rhythm tracks long before they became fashionable. His latest record, "Just Whistle," is his best in a year. "Traction" is repetitive to the point of hypnotic ecstasy. Two synth chords bounce to and fro with the motion of a tennis ball while the snapping 909 high hat and kick keep the listener in a deep head nod. The bass line of "Just Whistle" is pierced by a melodic whistling effect, perfectly in synch with the kick drum (Relief, c/o Cajual, 1229 N. North Branch, Ste. 218, Chicago, IL 60622 312.642.8008)...The electro revival builds momentum with each passing week. For proof, you needn't look further than the latest humdinger from the AUX 88 crew. My A.U.X. Mind is just what everyone needs right now. Building on an 808 bottom that goes for miles, this is a grilling, bleeping exercise in pared down electro-funk madness. "Let It Ride" and "Sonic Beats" are electro-charged pounders with formidable amounts of excess energy. This EP is purpose built for those with attention deficit disorder, and I don't mean that in a pejorative way at all (Direct Beat, c/o 430 West, Detroit, MI 313.342.6425).

RAVE REVIEW

CARL CRAIG

Landcruising

Blanco Y Negro, c/o Warner Music U.K., Warner Bldgs., 28 Kensington Church St., London W8 4EP U.K.

0171.937.8844

Why a Rave Review of the new Carl Craig LP? The answer is simple: Carl Craig is the most imaginative, creative and progressive artist working in dance music today. With the heartstopping Landcruising, Detroit techno enters the age of the concept album. But, as the ever inventive Craig makes clear here, that notion needn't recall the bloated excesses of '70s art rock from whence that dreaded term sprung; here, the concept is the soundtrack to a film that has never been made, and really doesn't need to be. This album has a sonic and almost cinematic breadth of vision that makes it one of the most important "techno" albums ever made. The opening "Mind Of A Machine" draws in influences from Marshall Jefferson, Derrick May and Inner City to Dark Side Of The Moon-era Pink Floyd, Kraftwerk, New Order, Laurie Anderson, Phillip Glass and Steve Reich. Exemplary cultural critic Greg Tate has written extensively on the phenomenon of the black male genius, and Craig must be counted among the nearly infinite list. What goes on in these grooves is enough to render anyone's search for pure creative origin utterly futile. The reference points are there, to be sure, but the way Craig organically refigures his influences and the machines with which he works is nothing short of inspirational. "A Wonderful Life" is held aloft by a wistful, minor-key synth arrangement and tapping percussion, while the pulsing title track is shot through with incandescent keyboard chords and a surging bass line. There simply isn't a weak moment here.

DOPE!

BUSHWICK BILL

Phantom Of The Rapra
Nōō Trybe, c/o Virgin,
338 N. Foothill Road,
Beverly Hills, CA 90210

As Bushwick sees it on "Phantom's Theme," there is a connection between rap and opera: "It deals with sex, rape, violence, incest and suicide...rap is opera to people in the ghetto." Through every new fad in hip-hop, Bushwick Bill has remained one of the most enigmatic odd-balls in the game. As one of the Geto Boys, he built his career on ribald gore tales—Bill even made the loss of his eye at the hands of a bullet into a media event. His second solo album, Phantom Of The Rapra, combines the B-grade horrorcore style he's been famous for (check the eerie "Already Dead") with more sensitive and haunting anecdotes on the pains of survival (similar to "Mind Playin' Tricks On Me") on gloomy tracks like "Times Is Hard." While the wanton lyrical chatter of "X-Girls" makes Bill seem like just another rapper, the sluggish "Only God Knows" faces mortality, asking questions like: "If I should die today who would really care...who would come and stare." In these sensitive days when C. Dolores Tucker is calling for the censoring of lyrics, Bushwick illustrates total fiction and represents a very misunderstood faction of rappers. Bushwick entertains like a Friday The 13th movie set in the 'hood, and excites the darker side of your imagination. "Bushwicken" is as close as Bill comes to acting, as he raps in a possessed, monotone voice teetering on the brink of insanity, while "Mr. President" is a deep, open letter to the other Bill who speaks for the oppressed and spiritless. Creep on: "Who's The Biggest?" and "Subliminal Criminal."

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

DEEPER AND DEEPER: The top three records on this week's radio chart remain grid-locked, as Loud-RCA's Mobb Deep (1-1) holds off releases by Delicious Vinyl-Capitol's Masta Ace Incorporated (2-2) and Elektra-EEG's Ol' Dirty Bastard (3-3). Slipping back into the top five are DGC's Roots (8-4), while Blunt-TVT's Mic Geronimo (11-6), Loud-RCA's Tha Alkaholiks (12-7) and Avatar-Polygram's Pump Ya Fist: Hip-Hop Inspired By The Black Panthers (15-9) all move into the prestigious top 10 this week. There are plenty of debuts to report this week: Payday/ffrr-London's Show & AG debut Goodfellas at #19, Arista's D&D Project splashes down at #21, Tommy Boy's Naughty By Nature debuts its third record at #28, East Flatbush Project lands at #29, Milkbone comes in at #31, Grand Royal's Hurricane lands at #33 and Big Beat's Junior Mafia debuts at #38. While Mobb Deep remains atop the Retail chart, we welcome in new releases by Naughty By Nature (#12), Show & AG (#17), Elektra-EEG's Kut Klose (#23) and Hurricane at #24. # LOUD ROCK REVIEWS

CATHERINE WHEEL Happy Days

Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019

Forget anything you've ever read or heard about this band in the past and prepare to be floored by one of this year's

BRUISER PICK

best and most surprising releases. Previously touted for its moody, smoothed-over, flowing sound, Britain's Catherine Wheel takes a nose-dive into the crunchy, aggressive, power-chord world of metal with its third LP, Happy Days. Taking a sharp turn to the left and proving he's no stranger to the world of metal, vocalist/guitarist Rob Dickinson (cousin to former Iron Maiden screamer Bruce Dickinson) lets loose some of the most rabid, sinister bellows and violent, aggressive screams this side of hell on the jet-fueled crash of the first single, "Waydown" (which has already been happily embraced at metal, alternative, COR and AOR radio). "God Inside My Head" cranks out a rough mix of infectious melody, reverberating bass thumps and scorching twin-guitar grind, while the erotic sting of "Little Muscle" explodes with breathless energy and wildly passionate, deep-rooted, rhythmic thrusts. Although Happy Days has its fair share of rockers, Catherine Wheel's signature, majestic melodies and soft, lingering lilt ring through loud and clear on the emotional "Heal" and "Judy Staring At The Sun," a shimmering duet between Dickinson and Belly's Tanya Donnelly. Also check out the humorous swoon of "Eat My Dust You Insensitive Fuck" (which joins Sugar Ray's "Danzig Needs A Hug" in the "Best Song Title Of The Year" category), the elastic grind of "Empty Head" and the ethereal stomp of "Kill My Soul."

OVERKILL Wrecking Your Neck - Live

CMC International, 106 W. Horton St., Zebulon, NC 27597 919.269.5508

Recorded last February at the Agora Theatre in Cleveland, Wrecking Your Neck - Live is a 22-song collection of "fan favorites" and "hits" commemorating Overkill's 10-year anniversary.

With songs culled from eight previous Overkill albums—including last year's amazing breakthrough album, W.F.O., and the band's first ground-breaking LP, Feel The Fire—this live double-CD is a must-have for every die-hard Overkill fan. Through the years, Overkill has remained true to its roots, pounding out a volatile mix of intense, wailing heavy metal mayhem in its purest form, never compromising its heart-felt style to favor the latest musical trend. The unmistakable screeches of vocalist Bobby "Blitz" Ellsworth have earned him a permanent place in the "Heavy Metal Glass-Breaking Hall Of Fame," right next to old-school howlers Rob Halford (ex-Judas Priest), Bruce Dickinson (ex-Iron Maiden) and King Diamond (Mercyful Fate), while the band has been hailed as one of metal's strongest leaders over the past decade. Blitz comments, "So many of these other so-called styles of music are just a bunch of metal guys trying to fix something that's not broken...10 years is a long time for a style of music to still be acceptable and true metal's been around longer than that, probably longer than most styles ever last." Check out classic head-bangin' gems like "Skullcrusher," "Hello From The Gutter," "Powersurge," "Rotten To The Core" and "Fuck You," and keep an eye out for some brand new Overkill material in the near future.

BAD BRAINS God Of Love

Maverick, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd.,

Burbank, CA 91510

With the original line-up back intact, Bad Brains take us beyond reggae appeal, beyond jazzy hard rock allure and beyond hardcore punk attraction. It seems such an effortless task for this Washington, D.C., quartet, which makes you wonder how the group can stretch over such a broad musical landscape with such ease. God Of Love also marks the second pairing of the band and producer Ric Ocasek. Bad Brains achieves a long-strived-for fullness on such reggae rumbles as "To The Heavens" and "Over The Water." If it's a harder, more percolating groove you're after, check out the title cut and "Justice Keepers." Lead vocalist HR dominates the group's style with his distinctive crooning about social, spiritual and soulful issues. Kudos to the band for "Darling I Need You," "Thank JAH" and "Tongue Tee Tie," all of which gouge out a swatch from the same consistent cloth. Guitarist Dr. Know summed it up best when he said, "What we do is just vibe it; take a style and put our own signature on it." It's open season on musical genres and Bad Brains are primed for the strike.

SAM BLACK CHURCH Superchrist

Taang!, 976 Garnett, San Diego, CA 02109 619.270.2914

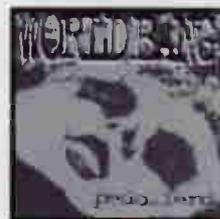

Boston's beloved hardcore rockers return with their third Taang! release, Superchrist, a six-song EP rife with mutating tempos, relentless rhythms and the uncontrollable vocal eruptions of frontman Jet, who is able to transform his voice from a blood-curdling scream to a menacing growl at the drop of a dime. With an avid fanbase spanning the entire Northeast and then some, Sam Black Church has been pounding the East Coast club circuit for years, slamming out one sweaty moshing show after another; hopefully, Superchrist will be the final push needed to rocket the band into the national spotlight, allowing the rest of the world to get a glimpse of this raging fireball of aggression. Check out the frothing, powerful crush of the title track, the psychotic, spit-fire head-rush of "Ninth Circle" and the evil Exorcist meets Cujo vocal explosion of "Sheer Heart Attack. If you haven't had the pleasure of experiencing the band live in all its gritty glory, check out the raw, 10-minute-long bonus "Live Track"; with sounds of crazed cheers emanating from the pit amidst the unbridled intensity and unique spontaneity of the band, it's the next best thing to actually being there.

WORLD BANG Pedofiend (EP)

Critique, c/o Radikal, P.O. Box 452, New Milford, NJ 07646 201.836.5116

NYC-based World Bang hammers out a gruff mix of explosive hardcore and aggressive power metal tinged with slight industrial overtones, thick grooves and catchy rhythms on its debut EP, Pedofiend. Formed in November 1989 by vocalist/guitarist/songwriter Ken Kushner (one-time bass player and vocalist for Anthrax), World Bang honed its musical skills touring the local club circuit, while also making some extreme changes to its overall sound, eventually leading to the band's 1993 signing with Radikal Records. After six years in the shadows, World Bang is more than ready burst into the spotlight with this impressive debut recording, demanding your undivided attention from start to finish. The frothing "Elias" mixes distorted vocals with gritty, melodic swoons and sharp, heaving riffs, while "I Believe U Know" revels in a bass-driven, fast-paced hardcore stomp. Also check out the crisp churn of "Domino" and the circular power-chord grind of "Skin."

MC BREED Big Baller

WRAP, c/o Ichiban, P.O. Box 724677, Atlanta, GA 31139-1677
404.419.1414

Still funk'n' after all these years, Flint, Michigan's MC Breed (a.k.a. Eric Breed) is at it again on his fifth album, Big Baller. It seems like only yesterday that Breed released Funkafied, and his new album delivers more molasses-thick funk and cooled-out boasting. Ever since the MC collaborated with George Clinton on the single "Paint The White House Black" (from Clinton's Hey Man, Smell My Finger), Breed's records suddenly started sounding inspired by the funk legend. On his new album, Breed sounds like he has come back to show he's still in the game, hitting us off with his new ideas while they're still fresh. Breed "represents" and "recognizes" in typical fashion while still finding a way to have his cuts leave a lasting impression. The three-minute-plus "Intro" features little more than high-pitched P-Funk vocals, while "Sea Of Bud" (featuring little more than Too $hort), despite its unoriginal lyrics and oft-used theme (we're not talking about Budweiser), offers live, homegrown funk and exceptional musical arrangements. One of the most surprising collaborations on the album comes on "Real MC," an intricate weave of assorted sounds and live drums, with Hurricane (Beastie Boys) on the mic. Big Baller's greatest asset is clearly its dedication to the funk; Breed's rhyming is competent, but his grooves steal the show. Big ups: "Game For Life," "Say What," the creepin' "What Do You Get" and "Been Round For Years."

VARIOUS ARTISTS Rap G Style

Priority, 6430 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028 213.467.0151

When the day comes when gangster rap is no more than an archaic memory, Rap G Style will still be a fine compilation documenting a period in hip-hop when gats did the talking and Uzi's sprayed the ghetto streets red. Featuring more than just Priority-signed artists, this 13-track chunk of steel includes some of hip-hop's more prolific rappers. Ice Cube launches into his trenchant "No Vaseline," which deals mostly with his relationship with his former N.W.A. posse, before Dr. Dre and Snoop Doggy Dogg team up on the smash "Nuthin' But A G Thang"—an enduring West Coast anthem. The Geto Boys make an appearance on the Commodores-sampled "Six Feet Deep," while fellow Houston G-funker Big Mike rips it up on "Havin' Thangs." This compilation offers a multi-dimensional look at how different MCs convey many of the same sentiments: Masta Ace Inc.'s "Born To Roll" poses a sharp contrast next to Kool G Rap & DJ Polo's "Two To The Head" or Eazy-E's "Neighborhood Sniper." A fine addition when cruising in the six-fo. Also kick it with: Spice 1's "Trigga Gots No Heart," Paris' "One Time Fo Ya Mind" and Ice-T's "G Style."

SINGLES

Bound to be one of the biggest things to hit Gotham this summer, the soundtrack to the film Batman Forever features a new track from METHOD MAN entitled "The Riddler" (Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019). It's a little bit more than a disposable soundtrack cut, with Meth showing that he can mirror the struggle of a character in the film with his heavy mental workout and keep it real at the same time. Also featured on the soundtrack are new cuts by Brandy ("Where Are You Now?") and Massive Attack ("The Hunter Gets Captured By The Game")...After getting over on Nas' "Life's A Bitch," AZ perfectly fuses a smooth, R&B chorus—courtesy of MissJones—with his commanding rapping on "Sugar Hill" (EMI, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104). If given a chance, this could be a fine crossover success...The new single by the BUSHWACKAS, entitled "Caught Up In The Game" (Pallas, 915 Broadway, New York, NY 10010), is a hard-hitting, narrated trip though reality, and the obstacles facing any ghetto-grown kid. Fish B. One, Gravedigga and B.D. Buggz provide a cautionary tale and offer a message to be heeded: You better recognize and stay alive...The latest single from the New Jersey Drive soundtrack is ILL AL SKRATCH's "Don't Shut Down On A Player" (Tommy Boy, 902 Broadway, 13th Fl., New York, NY 10010 212.388.8300). Word out.

WORD IS...

ONLY IN HIP-HOP: Well-known West Coast producer E-A-SKI (Naughty By Nature, Kam, Das EFX, Spice 1) is getting ready to release a solo EP. The first single, "Blast If I Have To," is featured on the Friday soundtrack. E-A-SKI recently caused quite a scare at the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel when he accidentally left behind a toy bomb clock in his room. The clock was a promotional item made for the single, and had the inscription: "Rally Ral and E-A-SKI Blowin' Up For '95." A maid saw the clock and, thinking it was the real thing, called the police. The hotel was evacuated and the L.A. Bomb Squad and L.A.P.D. Special Reaction Team (a counter terrorist unit) arrived. The clock was X-rayed and removed by a robotic arm before a .50-caliber bullet was fired at the bomb clock, blowing it to pieces. The L.A.P.D. called Priority looking to arrest E-A-SKI on bomb charges, but after being informed that it was only a harmless promotional item, the police dropped the charges. It doesn't end there. Later, a real estate agent was in the home of E-A-SKI's manager Jon Krashna and saw several of these bomb clocks and called the police. The FBI and ATF (Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms) then arrived with search warrants and ransacked the house looking for the clocks. Again, no charges were filed. Due to these two incidents and the climate following the Oklahoma City bombing, the promotional bomb clocks will not be utilized...West Coast rapper G-Mo has released his debut album, Ballin' 4 Life, on Watch It-Zoo Records...Kevin Black is heading the Death Row Records promotion department, along with college radio rep B-Man and Lou Bland. If you need a hook-up give them a call at 310.824.8844...RUMOR MILL: Please keep in mind that this information is unconfirmed, but word is that Elektra-EEG's Pete Rock & C.L. Smooth have split up. If the rumors turn out to be true, it would be a great loss to the hip-hop community...WORST PROMOTIONAL GIMMICK OF THE WEEK: A note for an artist named Boy X and his single "Boy X I Make Her Cum" was disguised as a note from the Ku Klux Klan. Using one of this country's oldest hate groups for the artist's own perverted gains, the note is in very bad taste...MC Breed has inked a new multi-year exclusive contract with Ichiban Records. His latest and fifth LP, Big Baller, is the last record of his previous contract.

PAL JOEY'S NEW BREED Section Of Life

Instinct, 26 W. 17th St. #502, New York, NY 10011 212.727.1360

It's a hot summer day and you're walking down a busy city street when you hear a cool, jazzy, machine-like rhythm coming from an open window. If you're in New York City, then chances are it's a Pal Joey creation. Pal Joey is one of New York's leaders and innovators of a sound blending light, lucid jazz with velvety house beats. As a producer and DJ, Joey has remixed tracks for Sade, the Orb, Deee-Lite and Shabba Ranks, among others. To journey deeper in the mellow backwoods where jazz and house meet, Pal Joey has coupled his pro production wizardry with a group of live musicians, whom he calls Pal Joey's New Breed. Although it features plenty of live players, Section Of Life is still very much a beat-driven record. Steady house beats frolic with bits and pieces of jazz, maintaining a symmetrical balance throughout. Whether it's a guitar riff or sax line, the melodic accompaniment is unobtrusive, while providing the necessary amount of pizzazz to give the record a contemporary jazz flavor. The first cut, "New York, New York" (which samples Stevie Wonder), and "Rat Race" are two of only a small handful of cuts which include the voice of Lucien Redwood. "Rat Race" shows Lucien's deadpan Jamaican spoken word, which calls for love and unity in the midst of chaos. Also groove to: "Can't Deny This" and "Mardi Gras."

JODECI "Freak 'n You" (5")

Uptown, c/o MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608

Very few artists can send women's hearts fluttering the way Jodeci can (perhaps Luther Vandross and Barry White are good runners-up). No, the group's new single is not an answer to Adina Howard's "Freak In Me," but a sexy, contemporary ballad that settles into a slow, grinding groove and is peppered with Roger Troutman-esque vocal effects. From its upcoming The Show—The After-Party—The Hotel, the lyric that easily takes the cake on this one is: "Every freakin' night and every freakin' day/I wanna freak you, baby, every freakin' way...your body's so freakin' tight." How romantic.

HERBIE HANCOCK "Call It '95" (12")

Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019

With so many jazz greats crossing the borders of traditional jazz to join forces with black music's freshest techniques (Miles Davis, Stolen Moments, Buckshot LeFonque, Jazzmatazz, etc.), funk-jazz master Herbie Hancock is not going to stand by watching. And it's a prime time for jazz veterans to make the move; jazz, as a true American art form, needed that kick in the pants to make it sound fresh again. From his album Dis Is Da Drum, Hancock offers a few mixes of "Call It '95" that quickly stake Herbie's territory in the jazz/hip-hop continuum. It's not going to change your perception of acid jazz, but it does fit in quite nicely.

PAL JOEY'S NEW BREED Section Of Life

Instinct, 26 W. 17th St. #502, New York, NY 10011 212.727.1360

It's a hot summer day and you're walking down a busy city street when you hear a cool, jazzy, machine-like rhythm coming from an open window. If you're in New York City, then chances are it's a Pal Joey creation. Pal Joey is one of New York's leaders and innovators of a sound blending light, lucid jazz with velvety house beats. As a producer and DJ, Joey has remixed tracks for Sade, the Orb, Deee-lite and Shabba Ranks, among others. To journey deeper in the mellow backwoods where jazz and house meet, Pal Joey has coupled his pro production wizardry with a group of live musicians, whom he calls Pal Joey's New Breed. Although it features plenty of live players, Section Of Life is still very much a beat-driven record. Steady house beats frolic with bits and pieces of jazz, maintaining a symmetrical balance throughout. Whether it's a guitar riff or sax line, the melodic accompaniment is unobtrusive, while providing the necessary amount of pizzazz to give the record a contemporary jazz flavor. The first cut, "New York, New York" (which samples Stevie Wonder), and "Rat Race" are two of only a small handful of cuts which include the voice of Lucien Redwood. "Rat Race" shows Lucien's deadpan Jamaican spoken word, which calls for love and unity in the midst of chaos. Also groove to: "Can't Deny This" and "Mardi Gras."

JODECI "Freak 'n You" (5")

Uptown, c/o MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608

Very few artists can send women's hearts fluttering the way Jodeci can (perhaps Luther Vandross and Barry White are good runners-up). No, the group's new single is not an answer to Adina Howard's "Freak In Me," but a sexy, contemporary ballad that settles into a slow, grinding groove and is peppered with Roger Troutman-esque vocal effects. From its upcoming The Show—The After-Party—The Hotel, the lyric that easily takes the cake on this one is: "Every freakin' night and every freakin' day/I wanna freak you, baby, every freakin' way...your body's so freakin' tight." How romantic.

HERBIE HANCOCK "Call It '95" (12")

Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019

With so many jazz greats crossing the borders of traditional jazz to join forces with black music's freshest techniques (Miles Davis, Stolen Moments, Buckshot LeFonque, Jazzmatazz, etc.), funk-jazz master Herbie Hancock is not going to stand by watching. And it's a prime time for jazz veterans to make the move; jazz, as a true American art form, needed that kick in the pants to make it sound fresh again. From his album Dis Is Da Drum, Hancock offers a few mixes of "Call It '95" that quickly stake Herbie's territory in the jazz/hip-hop continuum. It's not going to change your perception of acid jazz, but it does fit in quite nicely.

CATHERINE WHEEL Happy Days

Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019

Forget anything you've ever read or heard about this band in the past and prepare to be floored by one of this year's

BRUISER PICK

best and most surprising releases. Previously touted for its moody, smoothed-over, flowing sound, Britain's Catherine Wheel takes a nose-dive into the crunchy, aggressive, power-chord world of metal with its third LP, Happy Days. Taking a sharp turn to the left and proving he's no stranger to the world of metal, vocalist/guitarist Rob Dickinson (cousin to former Iron Maiden screamer Bruce Dickinson) lets loose some of the most rabid, sinister bellows and violent, aggressive screams this side of hell on the jet-fueled crash of the first single, "Waydown" (which has already been happily embraced at metal, alternative, COR and AOR radio). "God Inside My Head" cranks out a rough mix of infectious melody, reverberating bass thumps and scorching twin-guitar grind, while the erotic sting of "Little Muscle" explodes with breathless energy and wildly passionate, deep-rooted, rhythmic thrusts. Although Happy

Days has its fair share of rockers, Catherine Wheel's signature, majestic melodies and soft, lingering lilt ring through loud and clear on the emotional "Heal" and "Judy Staring At The Sun," a shimmering duet between Dickinson and Belly's Tanya Donnelly. Also check out the humorous swoon of "Eat My Dust You Insensitive Fuck" (which joins Sugar Ray's "Danzig Needs A Hug" in the "Best Song Title Of The Year" category), the elastic grind of "Empty Head" and the ethereal stomp of "Kill My Soul."

OVERKILL Wrecking Your Neck - Live

CMC International, 106 W. Horton St., Zebulon, NC 27597 919.269.5508

Recorded last February at the Agora Theatre in Cleveland, Wrecking Your Neck - Live is a 22-song collection of "fan favorites" and "hits" commemorating Overkill's 10-year anniversary. With songs culled from eight previous Overkill albums—including last year's amazing breakthrough album, W.F.O., and the band's first ground-breaking LP, Feel The Fire—this live double-CD is a must-have for every die-hard

Overkill fan. Through the years, Overkill has remained true to its roots, pounding out a volatile mix of intense, wailing heavy metal mayhem in its purest form, never compromising its heart-felt style to favor the latest musical trend. The unmistakable screeches of vocalist Bobby

"Blitz" Ellsworth have earned him a permanent place in the

"Heavy Metal Glass-Breaking Hall Of Fame," right next to old-school howlers Rob Halford (ex-Judas Priest), Bruce

Dickinson (ex-Iron Maiden) and King Diamond (Mercyful Fate), while the band has been hailed as one of metal's strongest leaders over the past decade. Blitz comments,

"So many of these other so-called styles of music are just a bunch of metal guys trying to fix something that's not broken...10 years is a long time for a style of music to still be acceptable and true metal's been around longer than that, probably longer than most styles ever last." Check out classic head-bangin' gems like "Skullcrusher," "Hello

From The Gutter," "Powersurge," "Rotten To The Core" and "Fuck You," and keep an eye out for some brand new Overkill material in the near future.

BAD BRAINS God Of Love

Maverick, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd.,

Burbank, CA 91510

With the original line-up back intact, Bad Brains take us beyond reggae appeal, beyond jazzy hard rock allure and beyond hardcore punk attraction. It seems such an effortless task for this Washington, D.C., quartet, which makes you wonder how the group can stretch over such a broad musical landscape with such ease. God Of Love also marks the second pairing of the band and producer Ric Ocasek.

Bad Brains achieves a long-strived-for fullness on such reggae rumbles as "To The Heavens" and "Over The Water." If it's a harder, more percolating groove you're after, check out the title cut and "Justice Keepers." Lead vocalist HR dominates the group's style with his distinctive crooning about social, spiritual and soulful issues. Kudos to the band for "Darling I Need You," "Thank JAH" and "Tongue Tee Tie," all of which gouge out a swatch from the same consistent cloth. Guitarist Dr. Know summed it up best when he said, "What we do is just vibe it; take a style and put our own signature on it." It's open season on musical genres and Bad Brains are primed for the strike.

SAM BLACK CHURCH Superchrist

Taang!, 976 Garnett, San Diego, CA 02109 619.270.2914

Boston's beloved hardcore rockers return with their third Taang! release, Superchrist, a six-song EP rife with mutating tempo, relentless rhythms and the uncontrollable vocal eruptions of frontman Jet, who is able to transform his voice from a blood-curdling scream to a menacing growl at the drop of a dime. With an avid fanbase spanning the entire Northeast and then some, Sam Black Church has been pounding the East Coast club circuit for years, slamming out one sweaty moshing show after another; hopefully, Superchrist will be the final push needed to rocket the band into the national spotlight, allowing the rest of the world to get a glimpse of this raging fireball of aggression. Check out the frothing, powerful crush of the title track, the psychotic, spit-fire head-rush of "Ninth Circle" and the evil Exorcist meets Cujo vocal explosion of "Sheer Heart Attack. If you haven't had the pleasure of experiencing the band live in all its gritty glory, check out the raw, 10-minute-long bonus "Live Track"; with sounds of crazed cheers emanating from the pit amidst the unbridled intensity and unique spontaneity of the band, it's the next best thing to actually being there.

WORLD BANG Pedofiend (EP)

Critique, c/o Radikal, P.O. Box 452, New Milford, NJ 07646 201.836.5116

NYC-based World Bang hammers out a gruff mix of explosive hardcore and aggressive power metal tinged with slight industrial overtones, thick grooves and catchy rhythms on its debut EP, Pedofiend. Formed in November 1989 by vocalist/guitarist/songwriter Ken Kushner (one-time bass player and vocalist for Anthrax), World

Bang honed its musical skills touring the local club circuit, while also making some extreme changes to its overall sound, eventually leading to the band's 1993 signing with Radikal Records. After six years in the shadows, World Bang is more than ready burst into the spotlight with this impressive debut recording, demanding your undivided attention from start to finish. The frothing

"Elias" mixes distorted vocals with gritty, melodic swoons and sharp, heaving riffs, while "I Believe U Know" revels in a bass-driven, fast-paced hardcore stomp. Also check out the crisp churn of "Domino" and the circular power-chord grind of "Skin."

ON THE CHART

Color indicates a significant increase in airplay.

While reports are down as a result of the Memorial Day holiday, the top of the chart remains relatively unaffected save for one new entry: Columbia's Soul Asylum which makes a tremendous debut with its new single/video, "Misery," at #3. A&M's Bryan Adams gains 15 spots (21-6), Epic's Oasis climbs 15 places (24-9), Columbia's Bruce Springsteen leaps 49 rungs (50-11) and Bad Boy-Arista's Notorious B.I.G. makes yet another lofty first-time appearance with his latest clip at #14. Numbers 17-28 reveal a great deal of new upward movement, punctuated by the appearance of a new Madonna clip on Maverick/Sire-WB at #27 and A&M's Blues Traveller gaining some serious ground from #73 to #19. Onion-American's God Lives Underwater reaches #30 in its second week on the chart as well as capturing the second position on the Alternative/Rock 40 chart.

OL' DIRTY BASTARD

"Shimmy Shimmy Ya" Elektra-EEG

Director: Hype Williams

Whether you're curiously intrigued or downright disgusted by Ol' Dirty Bastard, once you've seen or heard him, there's absolutely no forgetting him. The second clip from this Wu-Tang Clan member's solo debut milks ODB's unique personality for all its worth: in costume or prancing around shirtless sporting his Don King-meets-Coolio hairdo, ODB is a master of making sloppy, obnoxious hip-hop sound like the greatest thing since the invention of the 40 oz. "Shimmy Shimmy Ya" is probably one of the strangest rap clips you'll see this year, and while it doesn't push the music video envelope any further, it certainly clears some space in the world of hip-hop for a new character with unapologetic verve. CH

"Words We Never Use" Interscope

Director: Tim Hamilton

After releasing two albums in his Canadian homeland, Ron Sexsmith brings the first example of his personal, delicately arranged songs to the U.S. with "Words We Never Use." While the clip uses a fairly standard plot line, giving referential treatment to the song's lyrics, it succeeds mainly due to its style of execution. An array of photographs spread haphazardly across an old wooden table adorned with wildflowers, come to life in short, rough-cut scenes as the camera slowly pans over them. The end result is kind of like watching memories unfold from pictures in your scrapbook.

TLC

"Waterfalls" LaFace-Arista

Director: F. Gary Gray

Three's the charm as TLC releases its third video for the best song off CrazySexyCool. "Waterfalls" is medium-tempo and funky, with the kind of heartbreakingly simple and catchy chorus that spells out D

VIDEO REVIEWS

"instant-hit." The video shows two portraits of '90s life: in one, a boy leaves his mother to join his friends on the corner and gets killed; in the other, a couple neglects to use a condom when having sex and both die of AIDS. TLC shows up as the omniscient forecasters, singing while they appear as if they're floating on top of water. The most elaborate effect is when their shapes are transformed into water-shapes, making the song literal. "Waterfalls" is a sure-thing if there ever was one. MEGAN McLAUGHLIN

CHRIS WHITLEY

"O God My Heart Is Ready" WORK

Director: Paul Boyd

Who better than Chris Whitley, known as much for his sizzling guitar chops as for his keen blues-rock sense, to make a black-and-white performance clip seem like a real performance. Filmed on an open street just below the Brooklyn Bridge, Whitley and fellow bandmates seem to be jamming for their own enjoyment until hordes of screaming fans filter down through the streets to converge on the group. Between Whitley's impassioned performance and the raw, almost documentary-styled feel of the clip, its simplicity is a perfect vehicle for the band's playing.

BEASTIE BOYS

"Root Down" Grand Royal-Capitol

Director: Evan Bernard

After all the high-concept shenanigans of "Sabotage," the Beasties take things back to their home streets (read: "Root Down") in this clip from the group's latest EP of the same name. Vintage footage of breakdancing, old-school DJ parties and NYC subway maps, along with some concert snippets and clips of countless goofy Beastie happenings, make up the video's take-the-money-and-run, loose and raw feel. If you never thought you'd find yourself pining for a game of hoops in Brooklyn circa 1983, then you're in for a surprise. CH

Cathy Hoyle, A&M Records, Tour

Coordinator/Metal Promo/Alternative Promo,

213.856.7109 Speaking of being on the road...Why do you guys insist on driving on the wrong side of the road? It's so difficult to remember sometimes! I woke up yesterday (Sunday) morning and couldn't remember for the life of me what side of the road to drive on. Does that scare you? It probably should. Anyway, went and saw Face To Face play this festival called Board In South Bay—very cool. Catch them on the tour, they're on right now. Who else is on the road at the moment?: Monster Magnet w/ C.O.C.; Senser w/ Moby; Kitchens Of Distinction; the Caulfields; Fig Dish w/ Veruca Salt. So call me now and let's do interviews and tickets! Hello to a few of my favorite stations: Pete at WCCR in NYC, John at KJCC and T.C. and KRUA.

Eric Rose, Alternative Tentacles Records, San Francisco, CA 415.282.9783

For the record: After the events of last weekend (and your ensuing "analysis"), I can only conclude that you, Robbie Lloyd, are the single most dim-witted moron that the human race has ever produced. Just as I have left you with your teeth embedded in the back of your skull, you have left me with many perplexing questions to ponder: Did you actually expect to return home from "funnytown" with anything less than several new orifices, all now oozing the same pus that gurgles forth from your mouth? Did my swiftly administered blows to your cranium cause permanent brain damage, leading you to believe that your frantic biting, scratching, and kicking had any effect on me whatsoever? Did you have to pay off "Jackie Chan" DelRosario from WTUL with promos to get him to feebly attack me from behind at Ghiradelli Square? My advice to you, Robbie (because I pity you): At some point during your lengthy hospital stay, inquire about a lobotomy. Or better yet, do us all a favor and request the services of one Dr. Kevorkian...Now then, back to business: Out now is Victims Family 4 Great Thrash Songs LP—their very last, recorded live in Amsterdam, and a sampler of music from the forthcoming solo LPs by Swans members M. Gira and Jarboe. Anyone interested in the actual full-lengths this material is culled from should call me, and I will bestow them upon you.

Ray Woods and Cybele, Reality Realtors,

Rainforest Records, Portland, OR 503.682.3944

What do you see? Just what is in front of you, or do you look for depth? What do you hear? Just the sounds, or the words and their meanings? Are you ready for Land Of The Blind? Sure you are, so we just advanced you the debut CD by the band. It's titled One Eye, and it is taking the world by storm. Land Of The Blind are already a hot property on the Internet. Fans of Dead Can Dance, Tori Amos, Kate Bush, et. al. have their own little grapevine network, and when a promising "Ecto" style band like Land Of The Blind comes along, they embrace it. We're hoping you will too...A couple of weeks ago we sent you the new 7" single by chanteuse Cheralee Dillon.

Response has been good, but let's give the charming ditty, "Little Yellow Lemon," the airplay (and reporting!) it deserves. Thanks especially to KNRK and KBOO for recognizing a hit when they hear one. We also sent you the debut CD, Uncle, by Doris Daze. The response from radio and press has been tremendous. Some say Doris Daze reminds them of the Kinks, or the early days of the Beatles and Stones. Hey, but did those bands have female singers and guitarists? Welcome to the new millennia. Final thanks to AdaZoe at KLC, Ian at KAQB, Linda at KGRG, Danny at KCCR, Peter at KCAT, Mike at WMEB, Robin at KNRK, Colin at KUOI and Fred at KPSU—you're the coolest!

Antony Bland, International Manager, Chrysalis Music Group, Los Angeles, CA 310.550.0171

Whilst the rampant wave of Fascist Xenophobia sweeps the land, and the plutocratic oligarchy continues to play to our fears of all things un-American, tune out that McCarthy-ite bull and become a mindless cog in the machine with Tripping Daisy's new Island release, I Am An Elastic Firecracker. The title might make no sense, but then again, neither does the defense budget, and that ain't even pretty to look at. Almost out and about is the new Wailing Souls CD fresh off the Zoo presses, and due June 13. Check out the Marley-esque Live On... Be aware, very aware of Baby Chaos (Elektra) and Gene (A&M): These U.K. newcomers have swept up hearts and awards and are headed to our shores (that's if anti-affirmative actionists will still allow them to) with, respectively, June 6 and mid-July street dates. Coming up in the next few months: For Love Not Lisa, Supersuckers (produced by Butthole Surfer Paul Leary), Black/Note, 22 Brides and others who owe us candy and beer. Write for info: ChrysalisM@aol.com.

Valentina Andretta, Radio & Publicity, Sansei Records, Beverly Hills, CA 310.274.4050

Now that my finals are over, I am back. Let me start, then, by thanking all the DJs that promptly returned my phone calls and added Spiders & Snakes to their programs: WWUH, WMNF, WVGS, KECH, WRRG, WCCN, WLSO, WOVI, WMSV, WGSU, WRHU, WDNR, WPSU. If you didn't get your copy yet, give me a call, because you don't want to miss out on a great record! By the way, you should soon see on your desk our next hot release, Serious, by Marino, which means that you will also get another one of my messages on your machines...More releases are coming up from interesting new bands, so keep your eyes and ears open, because you will hear the name Sansei Records over and over again...

Scott/John, Revelation Records, Huntington Beach, CA 714.375.4264

Revelation Records update: "Without a doubt, number one release of the year!" Ink 19 (The Southeast's raddest punk periodical on Sense Field's latest, Killed For Less). Sense Field are on tour in Europe, a few shows with State Of The Nation (and Fugazi even). This record is finally getting the attention it deserves. Debut on CMJ top 150 and a jackpot! pick. If that isn't enough, we've even slapped together an EP (to support Killed For Less), featuring alternate takes, mixes, and demos from their forthcoming album. This is being sent out now with Into Another's new EP, Poison Fingers. All proceeds of this record go to PETA, an important animal rights organization. Engine Kid is hanging tough on both the alternative and Loud Rock charts, working their way to the top. The Kid are on tour with Iceburn in late June (call for dates, etc.). Quicksand's vinyl for Manic is still blowing out of here, not to mention their debut self-titled record (on Rev, of course). Think Shades Apart and Whirlpool: Both have new releases this summer and are on tour together in July. Have fun on your summer vacations while we slave over all these mailings. Orange 9mm with Ned's Atomic Dustball last night?

William Marion, Vernon Yard Recordings, New York, NY 212.586.7700

It's summer and we have lots going on here at the Yard. In case you haven't noticed, you should have received the debut LP from These Animal Men, (Come On Join) The High Society, a couple of weeks ago, and by the time this runs you'll be getting the sophomore LP from Low, titled Long-Division. You also should have received the new U.K. EP from The Verve. Their new record will be coming soon, so be on the lookout for A Northern Soul. Lots of tour news for you as well: Maids Of Gravity kick off their first American tour opening up for God Lives Underwater. They start June 2 in Austin. Be on the lookout for tour dates near you. These Animal Men come stateside starting June 1 and will be around for three weeks. If these guys play within three hours of you, it's worth the drive...Last, but not least, Low will be starting their tour in support of Long-Division on June 8. I want to say thanks to all of you out there that supported Maids. I have some cool import stuff as a way of saying thanks if you're interested. If you need anything from the Yard, just give me a call.

Jeffrey E. Jacobson, Esq., Jacobson & Coffin, P.C. Attorneys, New York, NY 212.691.5630

Israel Vibration still tearing up the New World charts at #1. Their album On The Rock has been consistently gathering real airplay as the U.S. leg of their world tour progresses.

John Perrone, TVT-Wax Trax! Records, New York, NY 212.979.6410

It's Friday, May 19, 1995, as I write this Dialogue. My Knicks will be playing the Pacers tonight in Game 6 with a pending game on Sunday. I'm dyin' over here! If I die over the weekend, I just want everyone to know, it's been great knowing you all, and have a good life. I'm attempting a mind meld with John Starks to make sure he doesn't take any dumb shots and hits all his free throws. My condolences out to Mr. Anderson at WVUR and Holly at The Hard Report for the early exit for their Bulls. I really wanted to play them in the conference finals...To the music: Everyone should have a 7" by the newest TVT signing, Fledgling. I know you have exams and a new summer schedule, but please check this out. The band sent it to you. It's their first release ever. Look for a full-length from them in August. They're on the road right now with Xanax 25—call me for more information...KMFDM is tearing up the road! Thanks for making Nihil their best CMJ showing ever!! Look for them in Cleveland, Detroit, Minneapolis, Chicago, Grand Rapids, Louisville and Cincinnati and more during the summer...All RPM folks, look for the Theory of Evolution... Rockin' this summer: Birdbrain, Juster, Fledgling. Remember, Isaac Hayes' Branded goes for adds on May 26. Shut your mouth and listen to what the man has to say. Add it now, or feel the evil of Truck Turner.

Andy Skibins, A&R Manager, ZYX Music, West Babylon, NY 516.253.0800

So wait, is this when I'm supposed to start complaining about the industry and the people in it? Well, it is my second Dialogue and blah blah blah...Thanks to the people who've made my first few weeks starting up ZYX's new alternative department so much easier. Erika, I wish I could hire you now. By the time this is printed, a select few of you will have the import of London band 7even's (pronounced like the number seven) new album, Electric Earth. We've brought in only 100 copies of the band's debut so far, and hope to get a few more shortly. 7even counts Roxy Music, David Bowie, Nick Cave and Blur amongst its influences.

"Electric" is my favorite song on it, but what the hell do I know? From our metal department: Loud Rock and metal stations should have Lita Ford's new album, Black, by now. Give it a chance—this former Runaway can jam (hi, Munsey). Lots of great things are in the works here at ZYX. You just wait for the fall. (Are you threatening me? I need TP for...) Go Rangers! Go Idlis! Long live the Tribe!

Donovan Finn, Zero Hour Records, Beautiful Midtown Manhattan, New York, NY 212.957.1277
Hey Rick from WDGC: To answer your question of why Homestead doesn't send you any records, one look at your playlist should make it pretty obvious. Why should I or Kathy or anyone else with a budget smaller than the GNP of Brazil send you stuff? Judging by your playlist, you don't play independent releases, with a couple of exceptions, and you definitely don't have what I'd call a current rotation. You're still playing Live for godsakes! Even if it was a good record, there's no excuse for playing something that old, although I'll forgive you for the Flaming Lips. And as for those annoying phone calls you and other MDs bitch about so much, look at it this way: If people send you records for free, isn't it a decent trade-off to talk to them for a few minutes every week? Does Downers Grove High School really have money to buy all those CDs in your station library if you hadn't gotten them for free? Not to mention all the free CDs you take home. Trust me pal, you don't have it so bad. If you don't wanna talk on the phone, either start sending back all the CDs that record companies send you, or quit and let someone have your job who wants to be a real music director and not a spoiled, whiny brat. Some of my records, which I'm sure you won't be playing now, are the Dirt Merchants, Kittywinder, the Live at Threadwaxing Space compilation, Space Needle, and very soon Grover and Shallow.

Lori O'Brien, Island Records, New York, NY 212.603.3917
Smokin' stuff coming at you from the "House That Marley Built," as Natural Mystic hits stores and radio. This record is a must for summertime pharmaceutical recreation. Speaking of pharmaceuticals, Drugstore should be taken in frequent and large doses throughout the summer months. Dallas is in for a really hot summer as homegrown Hagfish rock your lame ass, and Tripping Daisy offer elastic firecrackers just in time for July 4. Not hot enough for you? Catch PJ Harvey on her current, sold-out, headlining tour with Tricky, then go see her again as the "the" summertime tour kicks off in August with Live and Veruca Salt. Tired of the heat? The epitome of cool mod-rock, Paul Weller, has a new offering and the cool-as-Nick Cave domestic release from the Tindersticks hits late summer.

Heather Dunnuck, Radio Promotions, Upstart Records, W. Somerville, MA, 713.359.2044
Question: What's with all the testosterone-flinging that's been going on in this Dialogue section for the past couple of issues? Geez, can't we all just get along? Well, I guess I'll get on with the music. All of you great MDs who are going off the air for the summer are going to kick yourselves when you realize how much awesome Upstart music has just been sitting on your desks collecting dust! The Los Straitjackets album is still getting some great airplay, so kudos to you who are in-the-know. (If you need it, call me.) Also, Dennis Brennan should NOT be on your desks—it should be in rotation by now! (If you need it, call me.) Tav Falco's Panther Burns album should have enraptured you by now—play it long and hard! (If you need it...I hope you're catching the hint by now.) June 20 is the release date for the David Tronzo/Reeves Gabrels CD, Night In Amnesia—believe me, this one's a keeper! (You already know what goes here.) Speaking of June: My birthday is in June, and I'll finally be a "twenty-something." Yee-ha. What fun. Can't wait. Anyway, I wish you all many fun-filled hours of sun-worshipping, beer-guzzling, and Partridge Family rerun-watching this summer! Talk to you soon!

Greg Richburg, Oblivion Entertainment, Fresno, CA 209.432.7329

rules. Look out for more Pusher shows this summer. Vodka will be playing at Brownies in NYC on June 3. The Vodka full-length CD entitled She's My Dream and the Candy Planet CD titled Blisskreig will be out this summer. Advanced cassettes will be available soon. Just want to say "hey" to Amy at WMFO, Tim at WGSU, Joe at WKDT, Jennifer at WNTE, Sarah at WDJM, Melavon at KIDE, Dante at WRSK and Cindy at WTEQ. Thanks for keeping Pusher and Vodka on the charts. You all rock. We are picking up regional college radio promotions people now, those really interested should contact Marlo in the promotions department. Check us out on the internet at: <http://www.cybergate.com/~oblivion/index.html>. Peace out 5000G.

Lindsay Shannon, Radio Promotions, Ichiban Records, Atlanta, GA 800.966.4244 ext. 3026 Hi! Whatzup! Cool! Glad to hear it! Really!? Excellent! Oh yeah, I hate it when that happens! Uh-huh! You're right, those pork rinds do smell funny! You did!? Yeah, I saw them in '83! No way! I crap you negative! What!? Try calamine lotion! You did what!? I told you before, I had no idea it was your mom! This is a simulation of a real conversation that could occur sometime in the near future. We here at Ichiban know that sometimes people out there get nervous and feel awkward trying to start a conversation, so we thought we would help out. Here are some topics to get you started: Freemasonry Sparrrin' With The Varmint, Bubbapalooza Chronicle Of

The Redneck Underground (including complimentary bag of Grandad's bacon rinds), Lisa Cerbone Close Your Eyes. Give us a call and try them out. It don't cost nothin'!

Errol Kolosine, Caroline Records, New York, NY 212.989.2929 ext. 7521 You know, there's nothing more splendiferous than reading the macho posturing of two latent homosexuals in the midst of a mating ritual. Please, Eric Rose and Robbie Lloyd, just get it over with already! I guess all those late nights listening to Frogs records with Tim "Blueboy" Cook have paid off in spades. Perhaps you can share the "Cock Of The Walk" title. As for your comments regarding the well-scrubbed Mr. Gillespie, I thought you boys were a big fan of "farm life." Your attack was downright un-American, take it from someone who has a green card. Back on Earth, the response to Bracket's 4-Wheel Vibe has been tremendous. Limited-edition vinyl for those who speak the magic words, and a West Coast tour in June. Chris Knox's Songs Of You And Me is 21 songs of emotional struggle and joy. Join the fanatical cult that comprises Knox's supporters. It's a wonderful obsession to have. New Zealand's resident renaissance man will be doing a U.S. tour in June (some dates with Lida Husik!), so don't miss out on this rare opportunity to see one of the best live shows I've ever enjoyed. Seriously, Engine 88 (formerly just Engine) will be springing Clean Your Room on you unsuspecting fools any moment now. You don't know what awaits you, but you will be most pleased. If you're going off the air for the summer, let me know, please. Current heavy rotation on my planet: Smog, Fibulator, Sally Timms and Magic Hour.

Ken Waagner, HitIt! Recordings, Chicago, IL 312.440.9012 Between finding somewhere to live in six weeks to move on May 1, the busiest moving day in Chicago, and recovering from SXSW, we have neglected to communicate with anyone. So, in 250 words (or less), I will attempt to bring you up to date on the activities here. We have two new albums out, Butterfly Child Onomatopoeia came out last month, and we sent it to most of you. Thanks for listening to what we feel is a really amazing record. The second new album is Presents by Sardina, we'll explain later. Oh yeah, we also managed to make some singles: a split 7" from two Kansas City bands: Giants Chair and Boy's Life. They're in the midst of touring the states together—go see them. Speaking of Kansas City bands, Molly McGuire have just taken to the road with Combine for a tour of the Midwest and East Coast. They're coming out West after that. We have just released their album, Sisters Of... on vinyl, and they have a split single with Iron Rite Mangle in the works. We've just finished a new single with Shiner. They recorded with Bob Weston here in Chicago the day after the release party for their new record, Splay, which just came out on DeSoto. Oh yeah, next month, Spoor, from 'O'Rand, the new band of Paul Webb and Lee Harris, the founding members of Talk Talk's new band.

Angie Ahn, Logic Records, New York, NY 212.219.2040 Hey, dudes!!! Firstly, I want to give a humongous thanks to everyone that's been supporting Logic Trance 2 and the second Barramundi sampler, Dreamtime Planet. You know who you are, and you guys are the best!! Theeee Beeesstt!! OK, OK, OK...Newsflash: Good Time: Logic Euro-Dance Compilation Vol. 1 will be available to you at the end of June. This is a collection of nothing but the best in European dance tunes! It'll feature Dr. Alban, Haddaway, Le Click, Sound Factory, Clubzone, Hed Boyz and more! OK, OK, OK...If you're reading this and you haven't heard of Blunt Funkers, then you better check it out, 'cause God's An Astronaut, at least according to them. And you guys better keep an eye on Illegal District My Dream. I'm talking about a huge, huge, huge record!!! You just absolutely have to have this one...it's fabulous!!! Totally, completely, utterly fabulous!!! OK, OK, OK...La Bouche Fallin' In Love—it's a remake of the #1 hit single in 1975 and it's hotter than ever. Check out the great dance remixes! And if anyone wants to drop me a line on e-mail, please do so. Address it to me at LOGICUS1@aol.com. I would love to hear any comments, feedback, or just a hello. P.S. Hey man, please play my records. Thanks. See ya!!!

Linda Wilson, Overture Records, Detroit, MI 810.349.0115 Ah, spring is in the air, the birds are chirping, the weeds are thriving, now that the days are longer you can really see how far traffic is backed up when you're gettin' out of work. Where we are is surrounded by marshland (one might be reminded of a really badly dug moat!), so a chorus of frogs fills the air...Oh, what a segue...Yes, into Solid Frog, you may have already gazed over that new CD single that I sent you called "Standard Day." The full-length LP, Supercoat, is coming mid-June. I thought you might enjoy an appetizer before your main dish that, may I emphasize, does not taste just like chicken!!! On July 21, the long-awaited release of the new full-length LP, Full-Swing, by Universal Stomp. Stomp is on tour right now, and the word is they totally love the great state of Virginia. They are coming back there, so you Stomp fans should know you have won a place in their hearts. ROCK ON!!! THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU to all the radio stations who have given so much support on Universal Stomp. YOU RULE!! Till later, see ya.

Eric Doeringer, Music Director, WBRU-AM, Providence, RI 401.863.3006 By the time you read this, WBRU-AM will be off the air for the summer and I'll be sitting in a coffee house in Amsterdam. I'd like to thank all the record labels that added us to their servicing lists this semester (and of course even bigger thanks go to those of you who have been with us all along). We're undergoing some renovations this summer, and hopefully by next September we'll be up and running as an FM station (hooray for stereo!!!). This will mean we will be changing our call letters 'cause there's already a WBRU-FM, but I'll fill you in on all that later. I'll be back from my jaunt across Europe in July, so keep sending those discs. I'll have office hours a couple of times in July and August for any of you label reps who want to check in (I'll announce times in this space when I get back to Providence) and we will begin broadcasting again in mid-September.

Nat Fowler, Name Dropper Of Music Department, WUMD, Baltimore, MD 410.455.3192 Yeah, so we're putting out this compilation to benefit us. We're an AM station, and boy do FCC lawyers cost a lot. Especially in a shit-radio town like Baltimore, where the only college radio you can pick up is WXPN out of Philly, for some odd reason. WRNR with their "free form" r'n'r—like I really want to listen to the Eagles. And the search for an FM frequency continues. We promise you, once we get the lawyer, the school pays for the FM budget, and we are well on our way. Everyone knows Baltimore needs college radio. So we wait for a band to come to town, then we record them at our school's 24-track recording facilities, then we treat them to dinner at Chi-Chi's. We find name-dropping disgusting, so this is the part where I replace the bands we like with bold-face obscurities: So far we've recorded Breast and Cock for the comp, out of Ann Arbor, MI. Right now we are talking to Mark Fuckface from Nipple Grain Records about getting Mt. Dew and maybe somebody else. We hope you all comply, because this is good for you all too—lots more people will come to shows in B-more if there's a radio station to promote them. BTW—the new Speaking Canaries sounds a helluva lot like Van Halen to me.

Stu Ginsburg, Music Coordinator, WMWM, Salem, MA I'm proud to announce that after 5 years, the Alternative Granola Show, and its department, will continue on in a new form. The new coordinators, Mary and Tim, will continue the show. Over the years, this show has developed a huge following, not only in the broadcast area, but on a national level, with affiliate shows on other stations and a mailing list. Specializing in music by the world of the Grateful Dead and all branches, Blues Traveler, Phish, Widespread Panic, Aquarium Rescue Unit, Bay rock, bands on the Horde, and new and old neo-hippie sounds of the '60s to the present. I remember playing these guys before the labels found them. I'd like to thank all the stations involved, college reps, and most of the bands for labeling and breaking them. Rarely does major radio play or support them and they are not "Alternative." The Alternative Granola Show will continue on in the hopes of developing the next band in the ways of the Horde and Deadhead vibe!! Ex: Leftover Salmon, Bloodkin, the Freddy Jones Band, Truffle, Moonboot Lover, the Other Half and the Ugly Americans. Please keep supporting the show. New and old, large or small, near and far, lots of luck. Love and I'll see you in the industry, and if you need me I can be found.

Ken Moon, New Rock Music Director, WYBC, New Haven, CT 203.432.4127 Well, well, well. I do believe that this would be WYBC's first Dialogue in a bazillion years or so. I just wanted everybody to know that we're still here, broadcasting all summer long with a full schedule. We never go off the air. 'Nuff said. OK, here's a couple of things you should all know. 1) 'Puters: We've got a home page on the World Wide Web: <http://minerva.cis.yale.edu/~moon/wybc/wybc.html> (it's best to check this out with Netscape 1.1b3). You can also send me some e-mail at moon@minerva.cis.yale.edu. 2) Call backs: Very sorry that you've all been waiting so long for call backs. You see, my MDs took off for the summer, which has left me all on my lonesome trying to deal with everything. Have no fear, though, once Betsy joins the crew we'll be swinging the receiver and be whispering sweet "recurrents" into your ears... 3) Shrooms: If you've got any ambient/techno/trance vinyl lying around, send it our way. I've got plans for a supermix show now that the turntables and mixing board are solid in the studio. 4) Hell on earth: New Haven may be a horrible pit of despair and bad weather, but we sure do have the solid tunes. Check out Holiday and Philistines Jr.

Rick Brickwell, WDGC, Downers Grove, IL, 708.271.6586 Hello, everybody. My staff have informed me that I was crabby in my last Dialogue, and that I should be nicer this time. Must have been the result of listening to the Boredoms. I hope they get their own joke. OK. Love you all—smooch, smooch! Wish I could give all of you one of those green heart things that certain records get in the CMJ charts. Ugh. Forgot Atlantic Mike last time, and others too, no doubt. No offense. I'll catch up with you all. A lot of you have been asking if we'll be on air this summer. Answer: Yup. Radio fun knows no season. If you get me on the answering machine, I'll call back. Even MDs, OMs, PDs (all me), teachers (me, too), and BFDs need some time off once in a while. Finally, and, even though I can't believe it, it is—peace and love to our graduating Chief Engineer, Scott Kartsounes, a guy who's dedicated, professional, skilled, and as good a friend as anyone could hope for.

David Oehler, Music Director, KYMC, Chesterfield, MO 314.530.7070 I started the "Toxic Underground" approximately 5 weeks ago with little support, except from family, friends and the occasional friendly listener. Therefore, it was much to my surprise that I receive any mail. But, low and behold, I have received a lot of new music. One was the new one from Total Chaos. Total Chaos is old school hardcore punk at its best. If you don't have it, get it. Another disc you need to pick up is the new one from SNFU. SNFU has been around the punk scene for a long time and they are still putting out great music. If you don't have these new discs, do yourself a favor and pick them up. You will thank me for it.

Stephen, RPM Director, KPNI, Dallas, TX 214.768.6012 First, "thank you" to Aden at Smile Com., thanks for being so supportive of "Digital Landscapes" underground radio. Jeff at Visible, thanks for turning me on to all of that great electronic music. John Golden of Autokinetic/Eclectic Music Foundation, great analog music, keep it up! Mick at Deconstruction America, keep sending out that incredible music, people need to hear it. Sherri at Moonshine, what can I say? You always check up on us, you have a nice phone voice and you send the station all kinds of ear candy, thanks. And Tina at PGD in Dallas, thanks for all the promos, our ambient events are a better place to be. Also I would like to give a big shout to Pawn from Hard Sync, MIA from Hazy Daze, #9, Boat Crusher, M-Star and all of the Dallas underground. To the rest of the world: look beyond the media hype. Underground techno is where it's at. Definitive, ExistDance, +8, Relief, Strictly Rhythm, Zoe Magik and many others are putting out some of the most creative, forward-looking electronic music that has ever been made. It's time to give artists the recognition they deserve. Wake up! And to Jack Acid in Oklahoma City, the "Ray Of Life" benefit for the bombing victims shows that our scene can be compassionate, caring and benevolent. Keep that good vibe alive. Until next time, keep your ear to the ground and your mind to the stars! Playlists, top 10, free with SASE: P.O. Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY 212.275.2135 Witnessing the New York Knicks lose in the final seconds to the Indiana Pacers is almost as sweet as seeing another dozen stations adding Sugar Ray's "Mean Machine." WLZR in Milwaukee, WBUZ in Toledo, WDZR in Detroit and KMOD in Tulsa led the Sugar Ray charge this week. After some headlining dates, Sugar Ray will tour with Korn. The new Bad Religion single is "Incomplete." Pearl Jam/Bad Religion dates start very soon. Melvins/White Zombie shows are blowing people's minds. "Breakin' Down" will be the new Skid Row single, which will be featured in the film The Prophecy. Go Spurs!!

Marni Halpern, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY 212.219.0077 ext. 214 Fear Factory was #1 most added, had an outstanding high debut on the charts and an incredible DJ and audience response. If you were one of the stragglers who have not started playing Demanufacture, it is now uncool to be fashionably late. I am going to work very hard to maintain a strong presence for this band at radio. That does not mean I haven't started yet. I've done nothing but adopted FF as my own for the past few months. The single is "Replica," and for those who cannot play anything too heavy, please concentrate on "Dog Day Sunrise." FF will be on the road this summer for a huge U.S. tour, but first they will be heading over to Holland to play the Dynamo with labelmates Life Of Agony, Nailbomb, Madball, Machine Head, Dog Eat Dog and Type O Negative (they might as well call it the "Roadrunner Festival"). I wish I was going, but nooooo! I am going to stay here and work all my records to all you crazy people. Don't forget, Deicide are currently on the road with Broken Hope. Suffocation should be gaining more and more spins and will tour this summer. Death's headline tour starts very soon, so keep playing Symbolic as though it's going out of style. Coming this summer: Shank, Shelter, Karma To Burn, Life Of Agony. Does it ever stop!?

Melodie Mingo, Metal Blade Records, Simi Valley, CA 805.522.9111 Grip Inc. has the video for "Ostracized" out and an edit with the B-side of "Dragging Me Down," plus you have the full-length to play with. Morbid Angel shall accompany Grip Inc. on the road, so be a good metal director and support them for me. The Deicide/Broken Hope tour is kicking ass, but if you want tickets, don't wait until last minute...CALL ME NOW!! Please. And, remember, this is a package deal, so support both bands by spinning both and announcing the dates in your area. The Organization is also touring with Planet Hate, then with Bad Seed, so be on the lookout. My fave track is "Doomsday Eve" (sounds great live, too), but you can play anything your little heart desires. Just PLAY IT! X-Cops (which features members of Gwar) will be touring extensively after the release date to promote the album. Check out the cover of Deep Purple's "Highway Star." Crazy shit, huh? Now onto the new: Beats The Hell Out Of Me, Rolling Thunder Music. I love this band's sound. It's completely unique in style. Take a gander at "Track." King Diamond—this album is by far the best work King has done in years. The album is more modern sounding and has a heavier feel to it than releases like Them, Conspiracy, The Eye, etc. Andy LaRocque, Herb Simonsen, Chris Estes and Darrin Anthony complete the new ensemble. Play "Moonlight" and CALL ME, so I know you're still alive, people. Bye.

Zach "Natural Diuretic" Lanier, Energy Records, New York, NY 800.235.5678 Nothing like the first watermelon of the year. Had my first taste last night and boy was it good. Nice and sweet, no grainy dry cracked areas in the heart. Sitting on the front porch spitting seeds at pedestrians. What a treat! Moves right through you, cleans out your colon and replenishes those dried-out body tissues. Nothing like a good slice of watermelon. Souls At Zero is a very solid record, so many good radio tracks, so switch around, try new things. Divens' vocals are impossible to miss. Your listeners will recognize it and call you up! Speedball adds June 12, no excuses on this one, it's a great record.

Daniel McNicoll, Via Records, Nashville, TN 615.742.6342 The coolest thing about college radio is that there are few to no rules. Unlike commercial radio, college radio really sets the trends in modern rock. Commercial PDs and MDs look to college radio for new music and this allows for more indie-oriented music to have a voice. That's where we come in. We are Via Records, a new indie label based outta Nashville, TN, with great music that needs to be heard. And with your help, it will. We have a loud band that we think rocks and we want you to have it. Call, write, fax or e-mail us and we will send it to you. Our address is: Via Records, 209 10th Ave. S., #344, Nashville, TN 37203. Fax: 615.742.6341. E-mail: Via4Radio@aol.com. Let's set trends as we always have.

Michael J. Schnapp/Stephanie Pensyl, EMI Records, New York, NY 212.492.1812 If you haven't called our fun-filled offices for your Queensryche plans, what are you waiting for!? This week they wrap up their first leg of their U.S. Road To Promised Land tour and on June 9 kick off another round in Odess, Texas, playing indoor and outdoor venues all the way through the South and the East Coast, too! The Promised Land LP is flying out the door of stores everywhere after they hit town, so do your listeners a favor and play them the tunes they obviously want to hear before and after this tour hits your town. "Damaged," "I Am I" and "Disconnected" are top requested songs that sound GREAT on the radio! Butt Trumpet are also wrapping up their twisted, road-pounding voyage. These girls "Love Traveling In A Van" (and if you've seen their gig, you know that song!) and it shows! Butt Trumpet continues to light up the phone lines. Also, Butt Trumpet tunes sound great on a club PA before your favorite band hits the stage (witness the effect of "I've Been So Mad Lately" before Sick Of It All at the Limelight!). It's like, for instant reaction, just add Butt Trumpet! Moist are also still giggin' here and there in the states and calls are coming in from the newly Moist-ed. We love those calls! And the Dwellers' CD, Whatever Makes You Happy, featuring "Rocket Ride," hit the stores this Tuesday, May 23. Call us for your copy!

LOUD ROCK NEWS

The much-anticipated Bad Brains/Beastie Boys tour has been temporarily placed on hold due to the recent violent outburst of Bad Brains' lead vocalist HR. Apparently, minutes before their set was about to begin on May 15 in Montreal, HR "went from volatile to uncontrollable and refused to go onstage for what was to be the first night of their tour with the Beastie Boys," according to a press release issued by the Mitch Schneider Organization. When Bad Brains manager Anthony County tried to get HR to leave his dressing room, he reportedly went ballistic, breaking County's nose and seriously injuring his hand and other parts of his body. In addition, it was also rumored that HR struck his brother, Bad Brains drummer Earl Hudson. The actual cause of the violent explosion has yet to be revealed. Although HR was reportedly led away from the venue in handcuffs following the incident, he was released later that night. When HR attempted to leave Canada and return to his home in Los Angeles, however, he was stopped at the Canadian border for possession of marijuana, according to the same press release. He has since been allowed to leave and is apparently on his way home. There is no further report as to what type of charges will be filed against him. There has also been no word on whether or not Bad Brains plan to rejoin the Beastie Boys' tour in the future...Also on the concert mishap tip, during a recent KMFDM show on May 23 at the Limelight in NYC, lead vocalist Sascha Konietzko wobbled off stage a few minutes before the band's set was about to end. Once backstage, he passed out cold and was reportedly taken to the hospital in an ambulance. Rumor has it that the unfortunate incident occurred as a result of the extreme heat conditions in the Limelight that night in conjunction with the band's exhausting, non-stop touring schedule. Apparently Sascha is fine and the tour will go on as scheduled...The members of Planet Hate, avid animal and environmental rights activists, are currently putting together a video for the song "Gone," which will include graphic footage from the PETA (People For The Ethical Treatment Of Animals) archives in order to show the public "exactly what these huge corporate giants, such as Gillette, actually do to animals." The band also plans to distribute flyers and stickers throughout its summer tour with the Organization. Lead singer/guitarist Michael Caronia comments, "We are not trying to be preachers by any means. I just think if the kids who listen to our music and come to our shows were actually to see what becomes of common household pets such as dogs, cats and rabbits, they may wake up one morning and think twice about certain products they buy, such as Proctor & Gamble and Gillette. It is a tough job getting people to change their daily routines and products they may have been using for years, but hey, I feel the word needs to get out there, that's where we come in to do our part. And even if one out of 10 people on this tour thinks twice about buying a murderous product the next time they shop, we succeeded."...Punk godfathers the Circle Jerks will release their new album Oddities, Abnormalities And Curiosities on Mercury Records at the end of June...Metal Blade's Grip Inc. is currently touring Europe supporting Motorhead on a six-week stint, climaxing with a performance at this year's Dynamo Festival in Holland, where the band will perform in front of an expected audience of 100,000 people. A two-month U.S. tour will begin on July 14, when the band hits the road in support of Morbid Angel. Also in Metal Blade news, the blood-spewing mutants of Gwar are putting the finishing touches on their next opus, to be released this fall. Produced by Robert Margouleff (best known for his work with Stevie Wonder and Devo!), the record will include a duet between Oderus Urungus and Slymenstra Hymen, a surf tune and a couple of ditties with Sleazy and Sexecutioner singing...Six Feet Under, the collaboration between Cannibal Corpse frontman Chris Barnes and Obituary guitarist Allen West, is currently mixing its new album, Haunted, at Morrisound Studios. The album is due to hit the streets on September 12. Metal Blade will be re-releasing Angkor Wat's When Obscenity Becomes The Norm...Awake! (1989) and Corpus Christi (1990) on one disc. Those who aren't familiar with the band should take note that Angkor Wat has been cited as the first metal band to incorporate industrial elements into its sound, spawning members of Skrew and Nine Inch Nails. This CD compilation will be released on June 27...In light of the recent Oklahoma City bombing tragedy, the Black Crowes (American Recordings) moved their originally scheduled May 2 performance at the city's Music Hall to May 10 and have announced that they will donate all the proceeds from the recent show to the local chapters of charities which are aiding victims of the tragedy, including the Red Cross, Feed The Children and The Salvation Army. In addition, American Recordings will match the Black Crowes' donation and Creative Artists Agency (the group's booking agency) and Beaver Productions (the promoter for the Oklahoma City show) will donate their commissions from the show...Sea Of Souls has released its second album, entitled Feed The Machinery, on Trumpeter Records. Loud Rock tunes to check out include "Bonefinger," "Criticize" and "Blinded"...Deadguy has released a new EP, entitled Work Ethic, on Engine Records. The EP also includes three tunes from the band's previous Whitemeat 7" EP, originally released on Dada/Popgun Records...Last, but certainly not least, MMS USA (Mausoleum Records, Frankfurt Beat, King Biscuit Flower Hour Records, SilenZ Records, 4th Dimension, MMS Records) recently announced the appointment of Marc Meltzer to manager of college radio promotion. Formerly promotion assistant, Marc will continue to report to Beth Krakower, national director of radio promotion and can be reached at 212.758.4636. Congrats!!

seam

It's been almost two years since the release of Seam's last album, The Problem With Me. After the departure of bass player Lexi Mitchell, singer/songwriter Sooyoung Park decided to take a hiatus from the band and travel to Korea. Park notes, "A lot of parents send their kids there. It's good if you're sort of directionless and lost, like after college—for language school or maybe to find a job. The economy is really good there right now, so it's pretty easy to get a job if you're bilingual (which I'm not)." So he didn't get a job, but did spend a good deal of time in Seoul. "Before I left for the trip I was trying to get some work doing movie soundtracks," he recalls. "I started a correspondence with this woman Helen Lee from Toronto. I had seen a movie that she directed, My Niagra, at a film festival. The guy playing the male lead was William Shin. When I got to Korea I didn't really know anyone. She [Helen] had given him [William] my phone number. We ended up getting together and going to a karaoke place. We hit it off and at the end of the summer, I convinced him to move to Chicago and play in Seam." It wasn't such a huge move for Shin, who was another Asian American bumming around Seoul and had grown up in Richmond, Virginia.

SELECTED DISCOGRAPHY

- "Days Of Thunder" (7" ) (Homestead) 1991
- "Granny 9X" (7") (Merge) 1992
- Headsparks* (Homestead) 1992
- The Problem With Me* (Touch And Go) 1993
- Are You Driving Me Crazy?* (Touch And Go) 1995
- Various Artists Ear Of The Dragon (Fortune 5) 1995

The two not only restarted the band, with Shin replacing Mitchell on bass, and recorded the upcoming album Are You Driving Me Crazy?; they also started a record label, Fortune 5. "The idea was just to put out 7" by bands that we liked," Young explains. "After we got back to Chicago the idea for the Ear Of The Dragon came about and we decided to make that our first release." Ear Of The Dragon is a compilation of bands featuring singers and/or songwriters who are Asian American, including: Aminiature, David Pajo Band, Yanti Arifin, Squash Blossom, Versus, Skankin' Pickle, Venus Cures All, Slowpoke, Azure, Dolomite, J Church, Kicking Giant, Mint Aundry, Team Xiaoping, Chumley, Cub, Dambuilders, Cartographers and, of course, Seam. "I think it has less to do with my upbringing and more to do with the way I've been treated in this country as a person of color. I'm not an incredibly oppressed person and culturally I'm just as American as anyone else...I grew up listening to the same music as everyone else in my white suburb. But I did have a self-defeatist attitude, partly, I think, because of the lack of role models. I think it's important for there to be role models—not just in fields where Asian Americans are well-represented, like engineering."

Role models Sooyoung and William didn't stop with the release of the CD; they took their project out on the road, with a revolving line-up of bands, many of which are on the CD. "The response has been pretty good," Sooyoung says. "Of course in some areas, people are coming out more to see Seam than being aware of the whole concept of the tour."

But the bands remained persistent, trying to enlighten audiences with the concept of the tour and record. Park emphasizes that "it's important to do it [Ear Of The Dragon] because of the under-representation of Asian Americans in entertainment, the music industry in particular. I know on this level there are bands getting bigger, like Versus from New York and Seam and the Dambuilders, but there's never been a breakthrough band that has had some commercial success. The purpose of the CD is not to try and break one of these bands, but I think we're hoping to inspire a younger generation of kids, to make them aware that there are other Asian Americans doing this. And hopefully, in this next generation there will be a band that will break through."

SUMMER'S "SEXTASY BALL" KICKS OFF

JUNE 15 The Lords Of Acid and My Life With The Thrill Kill Kult have joined forces to host a travelling multimedia extravaganza for a two month summer tour. The Sextasy Ball will feature screenings of various cult films and "Japanimation," in addition to giving slide shows of the works of artists who have been threatened with censorship. There will also be a multitude of vendors displaying underground comic books, videos, records and fashion, and a travelling art gallery, where attendees can purchase original pieces at a nominal cost. For more information about participating in this event as an artist or vendor, contact Mark Beaven at 212.924.2929.

BAD BRAINS DATES TEMPORARILY ON HOLD AFTER OUTBURST OF VOCALIST HR

On May 15 in Montreal, Bad Brains frontman HR reportedly flew into a rage minutes before the band's set on its first night as the opening act on the current Beastie Boys tour. According to a recent press release issued by the band's publicist, the Mitch Schneider Organization, HR refused to go onstage, and when Bad Brains manager Anthony Countey went to retrieve him from his dressing room, HR physically assaulted him, breaking his nose. Reportedly, HR also struck Bad Brains drummer Earl Hudson (his brother) in the melee. Though HR was led away in handcuffs, he was released later that night, only to be stopped at the Canadian border on his way home to Los Angeles for possession of marijuana. At press time, there is no further report as to what type of charges might be filed against the singer, and Bad Brains have rejoined the Beastie Boys tour as of May 29.

ROADRUNNER LAUNCHES DANCE

DIVISION DEEP BLUE Roadrunner Records has added a dance division, Deep Blue, to its stable. Deep Blue will serve as an umbrella to a group of dance labels, each with its own specific style and focus. The maiden campaign of the division will be ESP-SUN, the American cousin to the Dutch ESP label. ESP-SUN artists will range from ambient dub to melodic techno/trance, with upcoming 12" singles to be released by artists like Nighttripper, Beyond and Black Scorpion. Full-lengths by Paradise 3001 and Intermix will be released on ESP-SUN on June 27. Other imprints will include the Floorwax label, featuring track and vocal house projects; the Clubtone label, exploring trip hop and future soul; and finally, the Mokum label, featuring releases by aggro-industrial-metal hybrids.
