GAUNT Kryptonite

Thrill Jockey, P.O. Box 476794, Chicago, IL 60647-6794 312.455.0310

We love Gaunt. That's probably clear as day by now, but we will responsibly and grudgingly concede that at its rate of two albums per year, Columbus, Ohio's fastest sons might've run the risk of three-chord amphetamine punk overload. They're fatally catchy every go 'round (and Kryptonite is anything but an exception, mind you), but fans will be absolutely thrilled at this album's expansion of what the band does best:

The internal metronomes of these four are still locked in the four-digit range, and Kryptonite speeds as much as anything they've done (Gaunt song/minute ratio: 12 songs in 32 minutes — a new record), but check out not only the way this album's recorded — a big, roomy, echoey space around the band's electric zinger of a sound — but the addition of things like horns and piano! Wow! And these guys are no consortium of band geeks (or at least they aren't anymore), 'cause with those screeching trumpets and thundering, sloppy piano bits, they just rip, no two ways about it. Kryptonite certainly could disable Superman; anybody, superhero or not, seems innocuous by comparison. Look out, 'cause it looks like these boys have hit another one out of the park. Rocket through the killer title track, "$1,000 Joke," "Transistor Sister," "Hand In Pants" and "A.W.O.L." CHERYL BOTCHICK

RICHARD THOMPSON You? Me? Us?

Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028

British folk-rocker and Fairport Convention founding member Richard Thompson reveals the duality of his writing with the fabulous two-disc set, You? Me? Us?. Deciding not to straddle the line of his varied musical textures this time, Thompson has gathered together a set of new acoustic songs for one disc, entitled "Nude," and another cluster of electric ones for a disc called "Voltage Enhanced," which together form a representative Thompson album. "Nude"'s songs often sound as if they're being channeled from the energy of some ancient Scottish moor, with Thompson's accent lending a sort of historical, folksy quality to songs like the brooding "Sam Jones" and "Cold Kisses." On the heavier side, the jagged, yet easily accessible strains of "No's Not A Word" spotlight Thompson's ability to weave a variety of strange guitar sounds and noises into a pop song. A couple of tracks, "Razor Dance" and "Hide It Away," appear on both discs, revealing the essence of the songs on one side and the full-blown arrangements on the other. You, me and us should really listen to: "Put It There Pal," "Bank Vault In Heaven," "The Ghost Of You" and the "She Cut Off Her Long Silken Hair." AARON CLOW

BIKINI KILL Reject All American

Kill Rock Stars, 120 NE State St. #418, Olympia, WA 98501 360.357.9732

There was a time when the words Bikini Kill were synonymous with riot grrrrl, the band being known more for its antics and ideas than its music. Four years later, Bikini Kill has traveled well beyond its initial sonic boundaries. It has been a slow process, but Reject All American finally shifts the emphasis from politics to the band's actual sound. The players' proficiency has improved over time, and this album shows it off. For the first time, Bikini Kill dishes out a strong mixture of perfected pop songs and catchy punk shouts, making use of solid old-school punk rhythms. Of course, the band hasn't abandoned its angle of girl encouragement — songs such as "Bloody Ice Cream" and "Finale" are the band's usual call to arms, attacking the stereotyping and subjugation of women. However, more of the lyrics on Reject All American are first-person personal rather than sweeping political statements, a big change that singer Kathleen Hanna admits to on "R.I.P.," where Hanna struggles with whether to play the part of betrayer of a friend or informant of injustice, "I can't put how I feel in a package/To sell it back to everyone/But wait, there's another boy genius who's fucking gone!" Fans will attest that this album's two-year incubation period has resulted in the band's best work to date. For those who have never been able to get past the riot grrl stigma, put on "Jet Ski," "False Start," or "Capri Pants" and get over it — Bikini Kill did. DAWN SUTTER

MAN...OR ASTRO-MAN? Experiment Zero

Touch And Go, P.O. Box 25520, Chicago, IL 60625 312.463.8316

The government knows all about Man...Or Astro-Man? but they're just not letting on. Deep inside some hangar in the desert, the military's top brass have already secretly made a pact with the group's members, fearing the consequences to the planet if the truth were divulged. Actually, after 22 single orbits, five full-length voyages and rumors of its own line of fully-posable action figures, the group is poised to lead the surf music revolution into the next century. Using electronically magnetized particle deposits on polymer substance as its forum for expression, Experiment Zero could be the record to catapult MOAM?'s blend of surf, space-sounds and B-movie kitsch out of the underground and into the realm of recombinant pop culture at large. (Actually, not since the days of Devo has any one band had its own schtick down so cold.) And so, Man...Or Astro-Man? has collected samples (sci-fi movies, audio demonstration records) and melded them to a maelstrom wave of surf guitars and space-effects, expertly captured on tape by Steve Albini. And — this just in — after almost 100 songs, the group has actually added vocals, perhaps figuring this would help it to relate better to Earth life forms (would that constitute 'selling out'? We think not). The wave is cresting, and Man...Or Astro-Man? is about to shoot the pipeline. JAMES LIEN

The DOWN BY LAW record

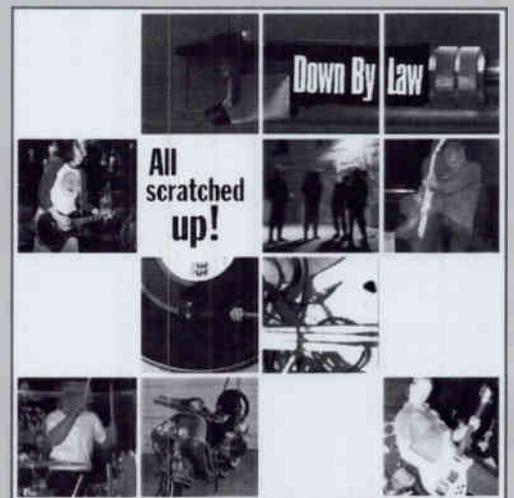

"All Scratched Up"

"...and college radio I support with all my might..." - Down By Law

"All Scratched Up! kicks ass... a combination of melodic hardcore and punk rock creates some of the best emo-punk available. A bit more kid-appeal, it seems, with Oi!-style choruses and slight [Clash] riffs, but Down By Law have without a doubt created one of the most creatively diverse (think Beasties or NOFX), energizing and refreshing clean-boy hardcore records I've heard since Pegboy's last. Be young again...check out hardcore's fountain of youth and dive right in..."

“...they really are amazing, gleaming like a fresh wound, like finding a hundred nerve-centres you didn't know you had and having them flooded with electricity for the first time...songs that really could fill stadia with light and noise, and flood radios with beamed-in heaven. They'll be stars. Unstoppable.”

ON THE CHART

4AD-Reprise's Lush is still at #1, followed by Elektra-EEG's Afghan Whigs, holding steady at #2. Alias' Archers Of Loaf (15-3) break into the top 10, while this week's Radio Breakthrough, Elektra's Stereolab, makes a grand entry at #7. Reprise's Nick Cave And The Bad Seeds (6-4) and Touch And Go's Girls Against Boys (7-5) make progress within the top 10, and Sub Pop's Velocity Girl brakes into the upper crust (12-10). Elektra-EEG's Superdrag (37-13) and Interscope's Lifter (47-19) both make big gains, as does Roadrunner's Sepultura (61-29). Zero Hour's Boyracer debuts at #38, Warner Bros.' Los Lobos (112-44), Epitaph's Gas Huffer (75-49) and Oglio's Wesley Willis (198-51) are also climbing the ranks. Other debuts this week come from: Warner Bros.' Songs In The Key Of X (#60), Sub Pop's godheadSilo (#68), Virgin's Cracker (#78), Motel's Vampyros Lesbos (#83) and Merge's Neutral Milk Hotel (#94).

#1 BREAKTHROUGH

STEREOLAB Emperor Tomato Ketchup

Elektra-EEG Radio Chart Position: #7

On its latest release, Stereolab stretches the parameters of its swooping synth sound, expanding upon the band's charms — Laetitia Sadier's lovely vocals, Tim Gane's fascinatingly creative guitar work — and forming them into fully-developed ideas within well-written songs. It seems as if a lot of radio folks think so, too; stations reporting Stereolab's enigmatically-named album in their top five include:

CHUO, CKDU, CRSG, KCSB, KCSS (#1), KLA, KSSB, KUCR, KUOI, KWUR, WKKL, WLCV, WMBR, WMUC (#1), WMUH (#1), WNYU, WPLT, WTJU, WTUL, WUNH, WXAC and WXCI.

STONE TEMPLE PILOTS Tiny Music...

Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019

Amid rumors of an imminent breakup, Stone Temple Pilots effectively quiet those who claim their music is re-warmed Seattle fare with the release of their latest album, the surprising Tiny Music... The boys have gone out on a limb this time around (perhaps due to their newfound sobriety), and if this is to be their last album, at least we will finally have a document that not only fully reveals the band's musical identity, but also its roots. Too often a band take a stab at musical experimentation, only to alienate its core audience. STP have taken this lesson to heart, placing songs like "Trippin' On A Hole In A Paper Heart," which recalls the band's first album, Core, adjacent to wonderfully dreamy tracks like the aquatic "And So I Know," which almost sounds like it could have come off Pet Sounds. "Lady Picture Show" is another sure bet, recalling the Beatles with its shimmering left/right guitars and chord structures. Here's hoping Tiny Music... is just the first of at least a few more pages in the Stone Temple Pilots catalog. Also hugely satisfying: "Ride The Cliché" and "Daisy." AARON CLOW

LOCAL H As Good As Dead

Island, 825 Eighth Ave., 24th Floor, New York, NY 10019

Local H is a duo hailing from Zion, Illinois, apparently a slow, dreary corner of America where vocalist, guitarist and bassist Scott Lucas and drummer Joe Daniels spent most of their adolescent years blaring heavy metal and punk rock in their tiny bedrooms, fantasizing the gruesome murders of high school jock types, and wondering when or if they would ever escape their miserable, ass-backwards existences. Their second release,

As Good As Dead, serves as a brilliant, sympathetic tribute to anyone who's ever felt like a misfit carriage in a lonely, no-horse town. The incredibly catchy, metallic riffs of "High-Fivin Motherfucker" begin the record with an amusing, superior jab at steroid-popping meatheads whom the boys could live without. But the humor ends there, with songs such as the bouncy "Bound For The Floor," the melodic "Eddie Vedder," and the pounding "Nothing Special" delving into the angst-ridden hormonal imbalance that makes 13, and all the teens, such unlucky numbers. Musically, the album follows its lyrical bent, at times summing things up with an introspective acoustic plucking, but more often blowing the roof off in a rage of pounding drums and shattering feedback. Revealing, honest, and destined for lots of high-volume airplay in tiny bedrooms all over, As Good As Dead may force you to revisit the growing pains of adolescence, but Local H succeeds at making the trip well worth its price. GOLDEN LEMONS Punkrock

Jetset, c/o Big Cat, 580 Broadway, Ste. 900, New York, NY 10012.212.941.6060

German garage rock isn't something we've heard a lot of lately, so the Golden Lemons' U.S. debut sounds pretty fresh, despite its reverent retro style. Bands playing garage rock, like those playing any heavily-mined rock sub-genre, require a tremendous depth of spirit and surge of energy to set them apart from the pack. The Golden Lemons have attained this rare confluence by infusing the familiar formula — rife with jaunty, uncluttered guitar hooks, cheesy organ breaks, bouncy rhythms, hand claps and called-out backing vocals — with an incredibly potent dose of fun; check the playful opening track, "Die Zuckerdose (The Sugar Bowl)," for instant proof. The group's German lyrics throw in another dimension for American listeners, adding to the band's chunky sound without being too uninviting. If you're looking for musical kinship, we'd suggest early Beatles (circa the Hamburg years) or any of the projects of formidable British garage renaissance man Billy Childish, who produced Punkrock and plugs in his six-stringer for a solo on the Ronettes-ish "Diese Kleinigkeit (These Little Things)." Smash your head on the Punk Rock: "Psycho" (no, not the Sonics' tune), "Heinrich Brinkmann" (apparently one of a few politically-charged tracks), the more punkrock sounding "80 Million Hooligans" and the sing-songy "Heil Bockwurst (Großer, Dicker König)." LYDIA ANDERSON

MECCA NORMAL The Eagle And The Poodle

Matador, 676 Broadway, 4th Fl., New York, NY 10012.212.995.5882

Mecca Normal has a third member now, which for longtime followers of the band seems about as likely as a third member in, oh, the Captain & Tennille. But singer Jean Smith and guitarist David Lester have been exploring the possibilities of rock without its usual sonic trappings for so long that adding drummer Peter Jefferies to the mix on seven of these 13 songs only expands those possibilities.

Smith has a knack for lyrics that zoom from abstraction to specificity to dead-on phrase-making ("Who would dare suggest it? I guess I will"), and her singing here is some of her best and most adventurous to date, particularly on the bizarre "When You Build A House Without Doors," where she drops into non-singing tones for a few words or stretches words into pure sound. There are fewer opportunities than usual for Lester to play his infamous windmills, and no big-riff anthems — "write your own damn anthem," Smith sings. Instead, the group lets its subtle virtuosity carry the day, with Lester's guitar probing gently into regions it hasn't been before. It's great to hear a band that's been around this long continue to grow, especially when what it comes up with is this original and beautiful. Start with "Prize Arm," "Now That You're Here" and "Her Ambition." DOUGLAS WOLK

JESUS LIZARD Shot

Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028

There's little or nothing that could sully the mighty Jesus Lizard. As much as the band's late-in-the-day signing to Capitol was a bit of a shocker in the indie world, it's still 100% the

Jesus Lizard and always will be. These guys aren't what you'd call malleable, no matter what label they're on, and this major-label debut is indeed the band's "shot" at grabbing onto the bigger, badder audience that it's deserved from the get-go. Shot is indeed these boys' best bet, too: It's crammed with a familiar and totally satisfying load of the band's trademark jagged, angular riffage, with David Yow's legendary strangled, slurred voice leading the way. Tunes like "Mailman" and "Thumbscrews" have as many smart-aleck rhythmical twists and tricks as you'd expect from the peerless Sims/McNeilly bass/drums duo. But throughout the years, the Lizard has remained one of the greatest, most intense live bands on the planet (regardless of its recorded output), and after a summer of schooling the rookies on the Lollapalooza tour (and the pursuant tradition of Yow-driven legal troubles), the rock-hungry masses are ready for the real thing, and it looks like the Jesus Lizard has risen to deliver it. Don't be caught with your pants down (ahem), and dig into Shot for rockers like the aforementioned, "Too Bad About The Fire" and "Now Then." CHERYL BOTCHICK

VARIOUS ARTISTS Schoolhouse Rock! Rocks

Lava, c/o Atlantic, address above

Cooler than Captain Kangaroo's Beatle moptop, or the day Stevie Wonder performed "Superstitious" in front of Mr. Hooper's store on Sesame Street, the fun, remarkably catchy Schoolhouse Rock! cartoon series that ran on ABC every Saturday morning from 1973 to 1985 probably did more for our understanding of electricity, conjunctions and American history than any fifth grade teacher ever did. The Emmy Award-winning series is being reintroduced by ABC to today's generation of viewers (who are still treated to less educational '70s television shows such as American Bandstand, Welcome Back, Kotter and The Bionic Woman), while nostalgia buffs are reveling in home videos, CD-ROMs and books. Schoolhouse Rock! Rocks was created by a handful of alternative artists as a tribute to the series which helped them learn the Preamble to the Constitution and how to modify verbs, and

YOKO ONO/IMA Rising Mixes

Capitol, address above

Yoko Ono's voice is such an elemental, powerful thing that you can do virtually anything with it. On Rising Mixes, a new generation of pop experimentalists gets to play with it; curiously, most of them can't resist the urge to sing along. Cibo Matto (which has been known to play live with IMA's Sean Ono Lennon) turns up twice: first, turning "Talking To The Universe" into a sort of "Know Your Chicken, Pt. 2" with the aid of Dougie Bowne and the Blues Explosion's Russell Simins, then collaborating with Yoko and a couple of stray Beastie Boys on the new "The Source." Thurston Moore sang "bow down to the Queen of Noise" in "Ono Soul" on his solo album of last year: on his remix of "Rising," he puts his money where his mouth is, backing Ono's screams with fragments of noise from her Japanese descendants, including the likes of Incapacitants and the Gerogerigegege. Tricky and Ween also lend their hands (and voices!) to remixes, but the centerpiece of the disc is "Franklin Summer," a new half-hour instrumental-plus-vocal-noises piece by Yoko and IMA — a chance for her to, as John Lennon once put it, "do her thing all over you." The disc also has some nifty CD-ROM content, including a bunch of Yoko's conceptual pieces from the '60s. DOUGLAS WOLK

ANAL CUNT 40 More Reasons To Hate Us

Earache, 295 Lafayette St., Ste. 915, New York, NY 10012 212.343.9090

We all know by now that metal is divided by that fine line between clever and stupid, but you've got to admit that speed-core screechers Anal Cunt is probably the only band of the genre that can convincingly be both of those things, simultaneously and without any real partiality toward either. They're so half-witted, they're brilliant, and so genius and dead-on that they have no choice but to deliver it with complete and utter stupidity. You sure can't fault 'em for inconsistency: When you throw on an AC record, you know exactly what you're getting, and 40 More Reasons To Hate Us will be just that to the band's detractors — 30 minutes, 40 songs, all completely offensive and barely decipherable from one another. Perfect. But the song titles are as inspired as anything else about AC. Scan through them as the 20 second thrashers blow by and it's a headbanger's low-rent multi-media experience. Kicking off with the 10-second "Face It, You're A Metal Band," 40 More... features rousing renditions of "Punching Joe Bonni's Face In," "Al Stankus Is Always On The Phone With His Bookie," "I Just Saw The Gayest Guy On Earth," "Big Pants, Bigger Loser," "Everyone In Allston Should Be Killed," and the fan-favorite "Everyone In Anal Cunt Is Dumb." If nothing else, check out the band's unique take on the Three's Company theme song: whipping out a perfect replica of the tune's opening, '70s swinger guitar lick, it catapults into a 36 second thrash explosion, with vocalist Seth Putnam growling out the goods ("Come and knock on our DOOOOOOOOOOR!" etc.). Hey it's funny. What can we say? CHERYL BOTCHICK

LINDA SMITH Nothing Else Matters

Feel Good All Over, P.O. Box 148428, Chicago, IL 60614 312.227.6050

Linda Smith is a one-woman band from Baltimore, a quiet, unassuming musician who rarely plays live shows but whose aural bedroom essays dart out of the speakers with riveting intimacy. At the core of the dozen songs on Nothing Else Matters, her full-length debut, are Smith's clever guitar strumming and picking and her hushed, slightly off-key vocals, cleverly twined around memorable, malleable songs, which always offer a surprising twist. She fleshes out the songs with chirpy organ, some low-grade synths and drum machines, and all manner of percussion, lending the proceedings a homey, psychedelic feeling. The grainy "I'll Never See You Again" couches her lonesome sentiments in a sympathetic bed of sound, and the unsettling synth drones on the dusky, spare "Bright Side" bring to mind another Smith, psychedelic forager Kendra. These elements flower on "All Of The Blue," a dreamy mood piece with two vocal tracks (Smith echoed by vocalist Elisabeth Downing), extra guitar from Peggy Bitzer and lots of unexpected noises floating through. Things get weirder on "Only A Moment," built around an answering machine message, and much poppier on the "The Answer To Your Question" and the instrumental "For Here Or To Go," a nifty conversation between Smith's strummy guitar and Nancy Andrews' pleasant violin playing that could

MODEST MOUSE

This Is A Long Drive For Someone With Nothing To Think About Up, P.O. Box 21328, Seattle, WA 98111-3328 206.441.8277

For a band as young as Modest Mouse (only one member of the trio is old enough to drink in most states), it's made quite a smart debut. The members probably spent a lot of their formative years listening to earnest punkers, then later on got some kicks out of quirky collegiate pop (via older siblings of course), but got tired of both by the time they finally sat down to record an album. The resultant collection of songs takes the leftover bits of angst and melody, and twists and bends them out of focus, refolds them like an origami project into shapes resembling guitar-pop. Thing is, the 'Mouse's style of pop doesn't have much to do with compact song structures or instantly memorable hooks: These guys rock out, play twisted, squealing guitar lines against coy, tricky rhythms, and aren't afraid to cry out about the things that cause them pain. They know a thing or two about mixing up sounds and ideas, jumping from noisy, sprawling jams one minute to left-of-center brooding pop the next with much more honesty and less goofing off than you'd expect. Those who dig the curve ball genius of bands like Built To Spill or the Grifters won't miss a beat with these guys. For the long drive: "Beach Side Property," "Talkin' Shit About A Pretty Sunset" or "Ohio." COLIN HELMS

SKATALITES Greetings From Skamania

Shanachie, 13 Laight St., 6th Fl., New York, NY 10013 212.334.0284

A new Skatalites release is as timeless as the eternally youthful beat of ska itself. With Greetings From Skamania, the band has done it again, creating classic ska music that's as fresh as the creases on a face's zoot suit. Occasional singer Doreen Shaeffer adds a soulful flavor to the horns and skanking 4/4 beat, especially on "Have A Good Time." Half the songs are standards, "adapted" here for the Skatalites' use, while the other half are originals. Once you put away the credits, however, it's hard to tell the difference between the old and the new. The band really seems to care about the musicianship as well as the style in which it's working, so the solos and the ensemble playing are excellent and well-placed within the song. Even the instrumentals are lively and rich, not lacking anything in melody or hummability — not to mention danceability. Songs to say hi to: "Phoenix City," "Trip To Mars" and "I Wish You Love." MEGAN FRAMPTON

BAHAMADIA Kollage

Chrysalis, c/o EMI, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104

Philadelphia's Bahamadia isn't trying to go punch-for-punch with most of her male contemporaries. Her lyrics aren't the type to knock you out in one breath; instead they keep you off balance with a peppering of texture-rich rhymes that add up to a positively potent result. At a time when some MCs (Ol' Dirty Bastard and Busta Rhymes, for instance) seem ready for their own comic strip, Bahamadia remains in the shadows, honing her skill as if she's preparing for an MC battle to the death.

Before we can say that she was discovered by Gang Starr's Guru in 1993, you'll notice her thick, earthy monotone flow, creeping up on you like a lyrical nerve gas that bears similar qualities to Guru's, as she remains resolute, confident and strong throughout her artistic debut, Kollage. With sparse, beat-drenched production courtesy of DJ Premier, Beatminerz and others, tracks like the infectious "Word Play" swoop you up in a sea of bass, while other cuts, like "Innovation," leave behind a jazzy residue as Bahamadia teaches her peers how to leave an impression without going into hysterics. "I Confess" is spiced by the use of Marvin Gaye's "Let's Get It On," making it the most accessible radio cut, but we favor her square-off with fellow Philly natives the Roots on the live "Da Jawn," inspired by Funky Four Plus One's "It's The Joint." GLEN SANSONE

VELOUR 100 Fall Sounds

Tooth & Nail, P.O. Box 12698, Seattle, WA, 98111-4698 206.382.4910

Thank God for creative differences. Think of the number of excellent recordings spawned from a musician's need for artistic expression outside of his or her permanent creative unit. Now add Velour 100's Fall Sounds to that list; this recording came to be only after musician Trey Many and vocalist Amon Krist realized that some songs they had composed didn't fit within the artistic strain of Many's primary focus, 4AD's His Name Is Alive. Picking up where the Sundays left off, Fall Sounds ends up being a perfect name for the side project's first release. The lush acoustic strums and quiet pianos of "Stare Into Light," "Calendar" and "Evergreen" conjure up perfect autumn scenes, Krist's delicate vocals swaying over the melodies like a leaf floating effortlessly in a cool breeze. Velour 100 isn't all sweetness and light, however; when the winds begin to whip, as on Many's slices of jangly riffs and poignant feedback in "Autumn Shelter" and "Flourish," Krist sounds as if she's drowning, her vocals sometimes indistinguishable from the other noises swirling in the sonic rustling. But overall, the recording is quite a soothing experience, ending beautifully and appropriately with the ambient textures of "Dub Space," as if it's tucking you in for a long winter's nap. M. TYE COMER

A TEN O'CLOCK SCHOLAR Quietest

Grass, 72 Madison Ave., 8th Fl., New York, NY 10016 212.843.8300

Add A Ten O'Clock Scholar to the strangely long list of bands hailing from Dayton, Ohio (home to the Breeders/Amps, Guided By Voices, Brainiac, among others). The band's debut album, Quietest, lives up to its name, though it boasts an unexpected bite or two. The band's sound shares distinguishable characteristics with other indie rock groups ranging from Eggs to Slint, without lifting from any one band too directly. On Quietest, A Ten O'Clock Scholar shows off its incredible rhythmic diversity, switching from a slow and haunting cadence to a fast-paced punk beat, sometimes without warning and within a single song. The recording, done roughly with an edge of slickness, is carefully tailored to the songs. The resulting combination of idiosyncratic feedback and strong rhythms is 10 solid songs that grab the listener's interest without force-feeding him or her guitar hooks and catchy choruses. A diller, a dollar, put on this Scholar: "Shoeshine Boy," "Lando" or "Flying Buttrresses." DAWN SUTTER

CAKEKITCHEN Bald Old Bear (EP)

Merge, P.O. Box 1235, Chapel Hill, NC 27514 919.929.0711

New Zealand's Graeme Jefferies has been in the music scene for quite some time, and has released four full-length LPs and a handful of EPs as the Cakekitchen, but never really received much more than critical accolades. A preview of the Cakekitchen's upcoming album, Bald Old Bear has a title track that sounds not unlike the songs from last year's brilliant Stompin Thru The Boneyard, its mask of felicitous feedback cleverly disguising the pop tune buried beneath. The other four tunes on this EP take a slightly different turn, prominently featuring more acoustic guitar. The songs range from the simplistic beauty of "Wild Geeses," a duet of acoustic guitar and violin, to the intensity of

"Down At The Cooler," which nests acoustic guitar strums on a bed of wild electric guitar feedback. The secret ingredient of the Cakekitchen is Jefferies' incredible knack for a tune that intrigues and engages, no matter how erratic and overwhelming the noise surrounding it. Try baking with "Wild Geeses," "Bald Old Bear" and "Moving Forward." DAWN SUTTER

JACKPOT!

SUPREME DICKS The Emotional Plague

Homestead, 150 W. 28th St., Ste. 501, New York, NY 10001 212.675.0922

The Supreme Dicks are not nearly as goofy as their moniker suggests, but instead profoundly more weird. The band's beginnings lie somewhere near Massachusetts' Hampshire College, where a revolving membership began to make odd, disjointed music concerned with things like cosmic energy and the establishment of a Partridge Family Temple — wacko collegiate whimsy to be sure, but nothing so bizarre as to make the Dicks' music laughable, or even that light-hearted.

The Emotional Plague, the band's third full-length, wobbles between multi-layered, frighteningly introspective guitar instrumentals, moody, half-sung vocal pieces and the occasional near-catchy rock-pop creation. The record's overall atmosphere is unsettling and surprisingly fully-scripted: Even when the Dicks are being purposefully obtuse, their fractured guitar lines and sparse melodic elements (ie. select brass and wind instruments, distorted acoustic sounds) eventually coalesce into some kind of hypnotic, subtly emotional experience — dark, low-fi, mind-altering indie-rock. Play any track, and you're guaranteed to elicit the same perverse, warmly numbing response. COLIN HELMS has the kind of earnest, emotionally-charged vocals that make his lyrics come alive, and his melodies are simple and memorable. The slight forays into ska ("Here In Your Bedroom" and "King For A Day"), epitomized by the addition of a horn section (a traditional punk rock dabbling), only serve to throw the basic punk rock structure into relief rather than diluting the mixture. Take a stab at the above, plus "Minds Eye" and "Anxiety." MEGAN FRAMPTON

VARIOUS ARTISTS Hardhop & Trypno

Moonshine, 8525 Santa Monica Blvd., West Hollywood, CA 90069 310.652.8145

We're not about to suggest that record stores make separate sections next to their Ambient, Slambient, Techno and Trip-Hop bins for Hardhop, Trypno, Tech-hop, Ambetrip or No-Hop — let's just be done with the semantics, and treat them as all groovy, funny names used to support some of the latest, most innovative sounds in electronic dance/trance music. Like bubblegum music in the '60s, the current crop of techno/electronic musicians and remixers offers endlessly innovative permutations based on the same themes — raging beats, otherworldly samples, and the strange new sensations offered up by recordings made without any air or actual vibrations in them. "Donuts With Buddha" by Eboman is five minutes of ecstatic electro-funk, made all the more pleasant by the fact that the lead is played by an utterly unidentifiable instrument (Jew's harp? didgeridoo? sampled surf guitar?). Fatboy Slim's "Everybody Loves A 303" is the kind of insistent, gurgling groove that you either love or drives you crazy — listen for the tinny Morse-code bleeping that actually propels the track behind the sampled breakbeat rhythm. This set is so masterfully compiled and sequenced, it's often difficult to tell when one track ends and another begins, if you're not carefully watching the CD display. It's only electronic emissions but I like it: the aforementioned tracks from Eboman, plus Keoki's "Caterpillar," Crystal Method's orgiastic anthem "Blast" and Philadelphia Bluntz's "I Like That." ETHER NET Severance

Buzz, 2048 N. Damen, Chicago, IL 60647

Cleveland's Ether Net packs a dynamic punch on Severance, tackling quiet, meandering songs with the same intensity and directed purpose as its heavier numbers. Although its lineup reveals a classic three-piece rock trio, Ether Net spreads its sound out pretty thickly, taking some chances with unorthodox chord changes on the album opener, "Quel Dommage," and capably widening its sonic textures with contrasting guitars on tracks like the melodic "Watch You Lose." Vocalist/guitarist Rob Cherry's rhythm playing is always interesting, particularly when he combines opposing chords and guitar lines to heighten tension, as on the eerie "You Took Your Time." There's a mad string score here too, making "Cut Flowers" sound like something halfway between Angelo Badalamenti and "The Devil Went Down To Georgia." Connect with: "Fashionably Grey Suit" and "ID." GOLDFINGER Goldfinger

Mojo, c/o Universal, 1755 Broadway, New York, NY 10019

Take a gander beyond the snazzy gold lettering and the comic book characters on the cover of Goldfinger's debut record, and you'll find something that is much simpler than its packaging suggests: a classic punk rock band, one that hasn't been beguiled by recent punk rock success into altering what is a perfect recipe. VARIOUS ARTISTS Stargirl (7" EP)

Villa Villakula, P.O. Box 1929, Boston, MA 02205
The songs on this double-7" represent additional tracks that will be added to the soon-to-be-released CD version of the compilation Move Into The Villa Villakula. Led Byrd, the first of the four groups here, is a project of Mary Timony and Ash Bowie of Helium, and their "Fantastic Castle," unsurprisingly, Helium with less percussion. The recording is fuzzy, burying Timony's beautiful voice in a heap of bass, but the song is just as wonderful as all their other work together. The contributions from Boston duo Kore are dark and snail-paced, filled with an underlying tension that bubbles to the surface now and then. Denise Monahan's "Miss Unknown" is a series of poems set to old-timey violin and piano music. Finishing off the set, DQE does an acoustic version of the traditional song "Knoxville Girl," one of the most frightening tales of deceit and murder ever written, but puts it to a new tune — a far cry better than Nick Cave's rendition of the song on his latest import single, where he performs the original music. DAWN SUTTER

ERIC'S TRIP/MOVIOLA

"Pillow"/"Payday" (7")

MeToo!, 841 Whittier, Crosse Pointe, MI 48230
The Eric's Trip contribution to this split 7" is a prime slab of basement-bred, fuzzed-out drum and guitar riff-rock, intersected with soft vocal stretches. The flip offers two from Columbus, Ohio's Moviola: "Pillow," a somewhat muddy, yet elegant low-fi ballad, and "Don't Spook The Horse," a short, melodic dose of urgent vocals and noisy, near-hallucinogenic guitar breaks. COLIN HELMS

DELGADOS "Cinecentre" (7")

Chemikal Underground, P.O. Box 3609, Glasgow G42 9TP U.K.

Glasgow's Delgados have crafted a near-perfect pop song in "Cinecentre" — the guitar hooks jangle along, until they're suddenly dissolved by quick bursts of rough-rock guitar licks and the kids shouting "got-gottogetit." The B-side songs are more on the soft-pop side; "13 Gliding Principles" is a lovely male/female duet accented with violins and careening guitar, while "M.Emulator" is the sweetest song here, with just xylophone and acoustic guitar. Calling all pop fans, the Delgados' full-length is due out later this year. DAWN SUTTER

VAMPYROS LESBOS

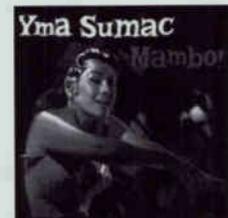

Sexadelic Dance Party
Motel, 210 East 49th St., New York, NY 10017 212.755.4328

Turn the lava lamps down low and get into something really wild. In the late '60s and early '70s, filmmaker Jess Franco wreaked havoc on the silver screen with dozens of movies such as Vampyros Lesbos, The Erotic Rites Of Frankenstein and Kiss Me Monster (also known under its German title, Das Schloss Der Gehekten). Franco was a pioneer of "horrotica," a euphemism for B-grade horror/softcore exploitation films. The soundtracks to "Spanish lesbian vampire movies" compiled on Sexadelic Dance Party were released on album in impossibly small editions in 1969 and '70, then re-released on CD in an even smaller pressing in 1993. Electric sitars, bongos, psychedelic fuzz guitar freakouts: it's exactly the kind of underground sound you'd expect from quasi-softcore movies about lesbian vampyres — the only thing we've heard that comes anywhere near it is Savage Pencil's collection of '60s biker soundtracks. As brilliant as the album, in this writer's opinion, is Tim Lucas' press release accompanying Sexadelic Dance Party, outlining Jess Franco's career: to read him wax eloquent in his praise of Gritos En La Noche — Cries In The Night or describing Franco's gruff cameo as an incestuous father in Barbed Wire Dolls is to fully appreciate the essence of mondo cinema and its fans the world over. Enjoy!

YMA SUMAC Mambo!

For the uninitiated, the first listen to an Yma Sumac record can be a life-changing experience, not unlike an LSD trip or a religious conversion. Dancing bongos, blaring royal trumpets, tinkling vibraphones, and Sumac's otherworldly, operatic soprano warbling some two octaves over a normal human's vocal range — if the heavens suddenly opened up to reveal an enormous Yma face soaring and soloing over the city, one wouldn't be the least bit surprised. There's simply nothing else on Earth — not even Esquivel — like Sumac's wordless, theremin-like vocal warbling and the dazzling exotica of her big band — song titles like "Goomba Boomba," "Chicken Talk" and "Jungla" say more about this record than we ever could.

Move over, Jordy. MINGA recorded her side of a new split record with the Boredoms' Eye when she was all of 10 months old. "....." from Eye Love Minga (Japan Overseas, 6-1-21 Ueshio, Tenniojuku, Osaka 543, Japan 06.771.8573), is the result of somebody sitting her in front of a synthesizer and a microphone. It proceeds by, well, baby-logic: driven by impulse and attention-span. Minga diddles the keys randomly and sweetly, triggers a bit of atmospheric pre-programming, mewls and coos, and knocks against the microphone a lot. This is as free as improvisation gets, because it's by somebody who doesn't know any structures yet. It's also so good it's hard to believe it was created by an infant — Eye himself would be stretched to the limit to match Minga's gurgling, trilling vocal sounds. His work with the Boredoms has always attempted a regression, aurally and physically seeking the purity and freedom of infancy. In fact, he's one of the few grown-ups whose on-purpose musical timing can be as unexpected as hers. His recorded tribute, "Minga," an awfully nice ambient instrumental made with synthesizers, a tape of the ocean and some light-to-heavy drumming, is like nothing he's done before.

The EVOLUTION CONTROL COMMITTEE's recent Whipped Cream Mixes 7" is already justly (in)famous. The plunderphonic trio's follow-up cut-up, a self-released CD, Double The Phat And Still Tasteless (c/o P.O. Box 10391, Columbus, OH 43201), is a lot less consistent — for every clever piece, there's a couple of pointless ones. Still, it's got some unmissable moments, chief among which are a very funny public-service announcement called "We WILL Rock You"; a serial (!) of ECC guy Mark Gunderson's outgoing answering machine messages that makes you think about what the term "answering machine" really means; and "Jessiematic," guaranteed to send radio listeners to their phones in panic. (There are also rap parodies, straight musical pieces and a detoured Kroger's commercial.) The Committee are the low-budget godchildren of Negativland, the Tape-beatles and the many other groups they name-check on "Shout-Outs," not to mention the Firesign Theatre. They prove by example that the kind of assemblages that used to be the province only of people with razors, magnetic tape and way too much time on their hands are now possible for people with a decent sound-editing program and only a little too much time on their hands to create. It's worth mentioning that initial copies of this CD come packaged in a really damn heavy disk drive (you read that right). Okay, maybe they do have way too much time on their hands. Props also for citing all the sources they sample in the booklet (polite!).

STEVE EARLE I Feel Alright

Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank CA 91510
In thinking about Steve Earle, there's a certain mingling of love and frustration, the kind of deep-felt, contradictory emotions one usually only feels for an errant brother or old friend gone awry. Reactions to Earle's life and music over the downward spiral of the past few years are likely to be poignantly mixed: moments after the triumph and exhilaration of a brilliant album or finely-crafted song, you'll open the industry papers and say, "Aw, man, Steve, how could you have done a stupid thing like that!" For his first album after being sprung from the pen, Earle has taken a bare-bones, acoustic, convict's approach, stripping things down so far that this record doesn't stand much of a chance of getting noticed by the mainstream. Like his contributions to Dead Man Walking, it's a sparse acoustic sound that is harrowing and straight from the gut. Art is life, and life is real, and Steve Earle shows us how real real life can get.

VARIOUS ARTISTS

Mountain Music Of Kentucky
Smithsonian/Folkways, Office Of Folklife Programs, 955 L'Enfant Plaza, Ste. 2600, Washington DC 20560 202.387.3262

As perhaps an extremely ancient antecedent to the depression that Steve Earle must have been feeling as he made I Feel Alright, we have this incredible two-disc collection of songs from Kentucky. Recorded in the late '50s in Hazard County (yes, that Hazard County), this is about as rural as rural music gets. It's recorded with a wonderful approach that's bound to make magic: drive to the tiniest town in the sticks you can find, stick a mic in front of some old-timers on the porch, and ask them to play the oldest songs they know. There's George Davis The Singing Miner, as well as Mr. & Mrs. George Sams (he picks a mean banjo while she thumps a ruckus on the guitar). There's even an incredible picture of a young boy playing a homemade banjo, and we'll be struck by lightning if he doesn't look an awful lot like what Will Oldham must have looked like at age 13.

JOSH WHITE Blues Singer 1932-1936
Legacy/Columbia, c/o CRG, 550 Madison Ave., New York NY 10022-3211

Though known from his 1950s recordings as more of a genteel "folk singer" than a bluesman, Josh White's original blues recordings of the early 1930s are mean and lean: it's easy to imagine the young White singing "Greenville Sheik" in the same sort of rough-and-tumble roadhouse where Robert Johnson and Charlie Patton were wont to frequent. "Lord, I Want To Die Easy" mines the same deathbed blues scenario as Bukka White's "In My Time Of Dying," and Blues Singer also includes the office fave, "Silicosis Is Killin' Me."

spectacular Carl Craig. Gabriel, whom you've heard of in this space before, is one of the brightest stars among the small coterie of British techno producers. His Pilgrimage EP, recorded under the name RUSS GABRIEL'S AUDIO SPECTRU is the closest to straight-up deep house that Gabriel has come. His earlier outings were stark and bare, stripped of the warm keys of New York deep house. But not this time. The four tracks here would find a perfect home on a lot of progressive deep house floors, especially the organ-soaked "Alligator Voodoo" and the mysterious "Korgan" (Soma, 62 Kelvin Grove St., Glasgow, Scotland D3 7AC, U.K. 0141.331.1477)... MAURIZIO is the recording name of Mark Ernestus and Moritz Von Oswald, who operate the elusive Basic Channel label from Detroit and Berlin, almost simultaneously. They've endeared themselves to the Detroit techno cognoscenti, and their infrequent records are well worth the wait. Their sixth, untitled single is a long, sprawling epic which covers vast terrains of the imagination in its six minutes of analog progression. The music of Maurizio has a remarkable subtlety and austerity, creeping around the edges of the listener's consciousness like a dream (Maurizio, c/o 7th City Distribution, 1301 W. Lafayette, Detroit, MI 48226 313.963.4737)... It really wasn't until last year that Carl Craig was recognized as the genius that he is. His profound contribution to dance music's oft forgotten histories are impossible to gauge accurately. His earliest work has been out-of-print or nearly impossible to locate for a good five years. So it's fortunate that Craig's Planet E label has just released the Elements album, which culls material from Craig's outings under the PSYCHE and BFC monikers, music which gave rise to the present generation's pleasing analog affliction. Even before he encountered Derrick May, Craig was making orchestral electronic music that seemed to emanate from another world. From "Crackdown" to "Chicken Soup," this mandatory album re-acquaints the listener with the often overlooked years in techno's development as an art form (Planet E, P.O. Box 27218, Detroit, MI 48227 313.965.4330).

DRUM AND BASS-ICS

Drum-and-bass singles seem to emerge in waves of varying quality.

The last week has seen a torrent of tunes that won't quit. Ray Keith's Dread label has just let loose the rolling "Phunk Not Funk" by INSYNC II, a mammoth track combining the brute force of the hardstep sound with the soul-jazz stylings found in the music of Alex Reece and Wax Doctor. These two camps are rarely reconciled, but this record should make them inseparable (Dread, c/o Vinyl Distribution, 70-72 Kings Road, Reading, Berkshire RG1 3BJ U.K. 1734-510801)... Another label capturing the attention of experimental drum-and-bassheads is J. MAJIK's Infra-Red label. Now if you're thinking to yourself that every British jungle/drum-and-bass producer has their own label, you're right. Artists will record under one name, cross the street, and record for a different imprint under a different name, which doesn't make the task of keeping up with the music an easy one. Majik's fifth release, "Apache"/"Pictures" is a dense, demanding piece of music which pushes the limits of the drum-and-bass genre to its utmost. Jagged synth lines swirl around the rotating, breakneck drum loops while a Herculean bass line anchors the track, at the same time lifting it from within (Infra Red, c/o Vinyl Distribution, address above)... FUTURE BOUND's new Sorrow Bound EP is a real drum-and-bass tear-jerker, only it's in a more melancholic vein, not unlike a faster, manic Portishead, with noir-ish film effects winding through "Sorrow" and "Liquid Groove." This is dance music which truly goes back to the future and beyond (Skanna, c/o Vinyl Distribution, address above).

SPACER Atlas Earth

Pussyfoot, 43/44 Hoxton Sq., London N1 6PB U.K. 0171.729.4100

Howie B.'s Pussyfoot label continues its journey into the realm of the unknown with the debut record from the team of Gordon & Simmonds, whose filmic, orchestral, and rhythmic sense results in one of the strangest records of the year, a half-lit excursion into the realm where bass lines, cat-scratch guitar and ricocheting keys collide with one another over an apocalyptic landscape. The sound of dread, expectation and wonder are found in these tracks. I'd be hard pressed to identify many dancefloors that would respond to this sort of sonic asymmetry, but this album is certainly one of the stranger electronic "dance" records of the year.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Abstract Workshop 2

Shadow, c/o Instinct, 26 W. 17th St.
#502, New York, NY 10011
212.727.1360

When Instinct founded the Shadow imprint, the label couldn't have had any idea what a monster it had created. Shadow is now the abstract headz jazz label of record in the U.S., consistently releasing superb slo-mo beats for the hip-hop/jazz-inclined dancefloor. This latest installment in the Abstract Workshop series sees the eclectic fruits of the so-called "trip hop" movement in full bloom. With tracks such as 9 Lazy 9's dense, smoky "Brothers Of The Red" and Parisian turntable jazzeter DJ Cam's "Gangsta Shit," this collection would be equally at home in a late-night cafe as it would be on the headphones of someone relaxing in a recliner. The range of labels and styles represented here is exemplary, from the comic book shenanigans of "Stoked" by Beamish & Fly licensed from Ashley Beedle's Black Sunshine label to the serpentine sax movements of DJ Cam, whose work is licensed from the French Street Jazz imprint. This remarkable collection also contains a second disc which features a whole range of jazz dance flaneurs such as the biting Sharpshooters, whose "Massacre" is a wicked, groove-infused number. Everyone's favorite Japanese hip-hop alchemist, DJ Krush, offers his ambitious, soulful track, "Big City Lover," and the low-slung "Roll & Tumble," Abstract Workshop 2 is a real state-of-the-art bulletin for the increasingly popular jazz/hip-hop hybrids emerging at the edge of dancefloor experimentation.

DEEP MINIMALISM

Despite the fact that the deep minimalist techno movement has, to a great extent, run out of steam, there is still a handful of producers exploring the medium with great success. Two examples of the new organic minimalism are the new records by Maurizio and Russ Gabriel and an essential album of reissues from the

Fifa

Mango, c/o Island, 825 Eighth Ave., 24th Fl., New York, NY 10019

Angélique Kidjo has one of the greatest voices in pop music, no matter what the sub-genre or origin. She is vibrant, aggressive, totally in control and completely spontaneous-sounding; in a word, brilliant. Every album she makes I want to proclaim "great," and every one heads more in that direction. Fifa comes so damn close, and maybe it's just my expectations balanced against her clear ability that keeps me from proclaiming Fifa the one that gets thumbs up. The songs are solid, lyrically hip numbers, the production full of great hooks and clever phrases. As a singer, she has never sounded better.

But once again Kidjo and her producers have chosen to take the pop-path, steering again and again back to clichéd riffs and easy turns that make her record sound more like one by Debbie Gibson or Whitney Houston. In fact, I fear this really is what they are looking for — not to make a great record but a popular one. Too bad, because she has all the right stuff to be both. But I fear the pop music world will never accept her because she isn't American or Brit, and clearly the "art" audience will expect more effort from the production and writing. VHI will eat this up (although I'll bet on some late night "world beat" ghetto program of some sort), but I'll probably find it getting less and less time on my CD player as the time-worn phrases get more and more familiar.

SHEILA CHANDRA Quiet: The Indipop Recordings

Indipop, c/o Caroline, 114 W. 26th St., New York, NY 10001 212.886.7500

Chandra as grown into an artist of uncompromising talent and conviction. Her growth from London pop dance music to new music diva has been wonderful to listen to. Quiet was her second solo album, and the one that may have steered her towards her present place in the music world. Here, she and musical partners Steve Coe and Martin Smith forged an album of wordless songs, loosely based on Indian tradition but flying out from there in all directions. It was a quantum leap past her more dance oriented debut album, daring to experiment with ambiance, roots and electronics, but also daring to use her voice in ways that were then confined pretty much to the "avant garde" music of singers like Meredith Monk. While she has since wandered in and out of the pop music world, 12 years later this album stands the test of time as both a work of interesting traditions and new ideas.

JOHAN SARA JR. AND GROUP Øvccí Vuomi Øvttá Veagglis

DAT, Pb 31, N-9520 Gouvdegeidnu, Norway fax: 47.7848.6788

Now here is an artist, a writer and singer who prefers to explore the outside edge, yet does it from within the deepest part of his own tradition and culture. Sara is a joiker, a singer of the ancient Sami songs of Lapland. These songs are unique, vocally challenging pieces of ancient history, usually sung unaccompanied, or with just a frame drum or some simple, single-tone instrument. But Sara has gone well past that, and has assembled an ensemble of flutes, stringed instruments, percussion and even electric bass and synthesizers to make the music into something personal, expressive and yet still contemporary. There are elements of lower-Scandinavian folk, European pop music and jazz, and even hints of Latin rhythms in some of the more percussive pieces. What makes this album work is that they almost never take the easy way out by catching a familiar phrase and playing it to the crowd. The familiarities come in unexpected places, and disappear just after you settle into them, taking you down unexpected roads to places that neither history nor tradition had led you to foresee. The ensemble stays true to its roots (and maintains a primarily acoustic setting) even as it looks to surprise and expand.

GARMARNA Guds Spellmän

Massproduktion, c/o MNW, PO 271, S-185 23 Vaxholm, Sweden

fax: 46.85.413.0060 email: headq@mnw.com

This band just keeps getting better. Here, on its third time out, Garmarna has found a harder edge that still has plenty of roots and beauty. The group is getting more adventurous, a little crazy even, and it all comes off as real rock 'n' roll even as it hangs on to traditional Swedish folk modes. They are clearly heading into the headier turf occupied by Hedningarna (aka the Heathens, who by the way, are lost in the abyss of Sony Tristar, which seems to be trying to make them the best kept secret in world music!). Garmarna's new record should be getting a U.S. release late this year, so I'll save the rest for then.

FOUNDLAND Everybody's Neighbor

Xource, c/o MNW, address above

Foundland is Kristoffer Wallman and Arne Johannson, a studio ensemble-duo in the ambient-electronic vein, full of rambling sounds, disjointed samplings and moody, cloudy riffs. What sets this one apart from the rest is the voices, particularly that of Elle-Marit Labba, and the intelligent use of folk instruments like Jew's harp, drone fiddle and horns. I'm not a total fan of this electronic/new age approach, but those voices...they make it work. This is worth tracking through for some really fine moments.

Peace always.

SCUD MOUNTAIN BOYS Massachusetts

Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA
98102 206.441.8441

As Midwestern as they sound, the Scud Mountain Boys come from the quiet town of Northampton, Massachusetts (hence the title), where they practice the art of making charming and feather-light classic American music with rich, traditional sensibilities. Not quite as gritty as Son Volt or Wilco, the Scuds have a slightly more dazed and enchanting effect, not too far from the last Palace release in that its inebriating subtlety is as effective as a rock band's twin-guitar attack. The songs on Massachusetts sound like they were penned while the band was lounging around a dimly-lit, empty beer bottle-speckled room, and every gentle pedal steel drone and weightless guitar strum sounds like it's performed with the last drop of emotion the quartet can muster. The mandolin-graced tune, "Penthouse In The Woods" is brushed with Joe Pernice's vocal sweetness and early-Eagles brand of intimacy and warmth. "Drunk" is a super-lazy, country-hinged elegy that sounds written for closing time, while "Liquor Store" contains one of the most gorgeous, lullaby melodies we've heard this year. Kick back and daydream with: "Scratch Ticket," "Lift Me Up," "Holy Ghost" and "Cigarette Sandwich."

UNPLUG IT

From the opening track on anti-folk singer/songwriter CINDY LEE BERRYHILL's latest release, Straight Outta Marysville (Earth Music, c/o Cargo, 4901-906 Morena Blvd., San Diego, CA 92117-3432 619.483.9292), your heart goes out to her. Her unabashed candor and occasionally flip songwriting style paints vivid pictures taken from her life experiences on songs such as "High Jump," which recounts her time on the boys track team in high school. Like her last, critically-acclaimed album, Garage Orchestra, this release reveals an odd sense of pop melody, mixing up her high-pitched, angular voice — not far from Victoria Williams' — with a strange, even junky, mix of instruments ("Caravan") that are always threatening to stretch the boundaries of the folk genre. Revealing influences from Patti Smith to Brian Wilson, the gentle melody found on "Unwritten Love Song" provides a beautiful backdrop to her yearning, sentimental hallucinations. The most enchanting thing about ...Marysville is its constantly changing aural sketches: the metaphoric visions on "I'm A Tumbleweed" are backed by shimmering vibes and timpani, while the equally-metaphoric "Riddle Riddle" is submerged in a Dylan-esque brew of harmonica, acoustic guitar and mandolin. Sweet folk, off-kilter pop — whatever the tag, Cindy Lee Berryhill has a voice that will find its way to your heart. Keep it real: "Diane" and "Jane And John"...Sorry I'm late, but we've only recently been captured by the powerfully intricate sounds of PETER MULVEY's album Rapture (Eastern Front, 7 Curve St., Medfield, MA 02052 508.359.8003). Released about a month ago, Rapture shines with deeply poetic lyrics and his outstanding guitar work (musicianly types will appreciate the inclusion of string tunings in the booklet). Mulvey climbed Boston's acoustic music scene in relatively short time, winning the Boston Acoustic Underground contest in 1994, and culling many of his ideas while playing in clubs, coffeehouses and subway stations. The title track features moaning slide guitar, while the dancing melody on "On The Way Up" is one of those songs that grabs you from the moment it starts, similar in rhythm and feel to Sarah McLachlan's "Ice Cream." Written by Mulvey years ago, the spoken word piece "The Voice" wishes for that sense of identity that torments many young people ("I want to speak and hear the floorboards take it up/So that people hear me first with their bodies"), while the light, acoustic funk on the lamenting "If Love Is Not Enough" shows another side of Mulvey's inner soul. At times he captures the unassuming might of a Michael McDermott or Marc Cohn, but Mulvey is doing just fine on his own terms...One of New York's better kept secrets is the duo of Andrea Weber and Doug Gotchman, who make up COMMON CENTS. The pair's third long-player, Fish Road (Duo, 67 W. 89th St., Ste. 1R, New York, NY 10024-2033 212.724.7994) is a wide-ranging journey through wonderfully ordinary, subtly decorated pop with just the right amount of folk seasoning. When this record locks into a groove or melody, you really feel it: the opening cut, "Nothing You Can Do 'Bout Fate," drills its buoyant, feelgood chorus to the point where you can't help but sing along, while "The Rain" is another well-crafted, pop-smart tune that keeps reminding me of Fleetwood Mac's "Gold Dust Woman." The group mixes in laze-in-the-shade blues on "Road Weary," while the up-tempo "She's Got The Goods" is a rather faceless reminder that the group is more effective playing mellower songs which radiate a wealth of character and charm.

SMOOTHE DA HUSTLER Once Upon A Time In America

Profile, 740 Broadway,
New York, NY 10003 212.529.2600
Brooklyn's Smoothe Da Hustler was just another hustler-turned-MC in the over-crowded rap world when he released his first single, "Hustlin," last winter. A decent, yet unspectacular, record, it was virtually ignored until one fateful day when some DJ following the old Chuck D maxim, the "B-side wins again," flipped the vinyl over and found the hottest underground gem of 1995. "Broken Language," Smoothe's deadly duet with his equally-talented brother Trigga Da Gambler (recently signed to Def Jam), brought forth a new lyrical style that the hip-hop nation couldn't resist: "free association" rhyming. Smoothe's debut, Once Upon A Time In America, is notably innovative, with rapid-fire vocal performances over rugged beats and effective skits that go beyond cliché — one interlude even has Smoothe arguing with his mother. Now, that's what I call keepin' it real. Smoothe does, however, make a few freshman mistakes: The overly-R&B tendencies displayed on "Neva Die Alone," "Only Human" and "Dedication" are a little hard to stomach. But, for the most part, Smoothe and his support team, the Nexx Level clique (Trigga and raspy-voiced singer/rapper Christ), deliver the goods: "Fuck Whatcha Heard," "Dollar Bill" and "Murdafest."

MC EIHT FEATURING CMW Death Threatz

Epic, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211

It's hard to diss or dismiss the career of MC Eiht. Unlike other rappers, this Compton-based rap veteran has been in the rap game for eight years, acted in a gang of movies, and still maintains his credibility. Never having gone through the image changing of some of his left coast contemporaries, Eiht has remained the same baseball cap-wearing, lozed out G we all know and love. While maintaining gold-to-platinum status, he avoids jealousy and remains one of the more respected figures in the hip-hop industry. While major figures on both sides of the rap map battle it out over petty things, Eiht could be found in New York kicking it with the Wu-Tang Clan (he's appeared in two of its videos). Like Too Short, Eiht has found the key to success a distinctive hit-making formula, and he's never throwing away the recipe. It's simple: a splash of melodic keyboards, dark and dramatic, soap opera-ish bass lines, and Eiht's vocal delivery, a deadly drawl accented with the his trademark "J-eah." Death Threatz, his latest offering, doesn't disappoint. "Ain't Nuthin 2 It" and "Drugs N Killin'" are laid-back growing-up-in-the-hood narratives, and the dirty, dusted funk of "Run 4 Your Life" and "Endoness" are hard to resist. What would an MC Eiht album be without a dis to his nemesis DJ Quik? With the striking "Def Wish IV" opening the album, it looks as though this feud won't be ending anytime soon. Death Threatz's only mishaps occur when Eiht shares the spotlight with his boys, N.O.T.R. His intentions are good, but none of these new jacks possess the charisma or presence of MC Eiht.

MC REN The Villain In Black

Ruthless, 21860 Burbank Blvd., Ste. 100, Woodlawn Hills, CA 91367

As a member of N.W.A., rap's original fab five, MC Ren helped put the city of Compton on the map way before MC Eiht. Although he still sounds the same as he did on the classic N.W.A. grooves, Ren has never been able to make it happen as a solo artist. When the group disbanded over personal and monetary differences, Ren ended up being the odd man out. He was loyal and stayed with Eazy, recording two mediocre solo albums, while others went on to tremendous individual successes. His current release, The Villain In Black, probably won't do much to change the current state of affairs, but it does have some of the best music Ren has recorded in years. "Keep It Real" (it's not as bad as the title) is a funk-dusted bomb produced by Dr. Jam (the man behind the boards for Ren's last great record, "Mayday On The Front Line" from the CB4 soundtrack), and "It's Like That" has a rolling groove making it the type of song that would sound incredible in a car with a superior system. The album's strongest moment is the first single, "Mad Scientist," where Ren rides the laid-back groove like a stallion and laments about how rap has fallen off over the years: "Criminal Minded you been blinded, I'm looking for some shit like that but can't find it/Six in the morning, police at my door/Niggas don't make that kind of shit no more." One thing Ren has to begin to realize is that he's a part of the problem. Never learning from past mistakes, Ren continues to construct albums with a minor league all-star collection of producers who have inconsistent, hit and miss track records. Cold 187um's use of cheesy rock guitar sounds on "Live From Compton 'Saturday Night,'" the bizarre underwater feel of "Still The Same Nigga" (courtesy of Big Jess), and the dreary singing on "Mind Blown" and "Bring It On" all help sabotage a project that had potential. If Ren is ever to reclaim his status as a ruthless villain, he needs to find one producer who will help him get there. I got three letters for you, Ren: D-R-E.

MORE DANGEROUS: Blahzay Blahzay, the dynamic duo from Brooklyn, has re-emerged with the follow-up to its hit "Danger" and its sequel "Danger Pt. II." "Pain I Feel" (Fader, c/o ILS, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019 212.603.7943) kicks off right where "Danger" left off, with the group's MC Out Loud continuing to assert his disgust for other wack MCs. This time around, however, he clarifies his position, letting the public know his attack is worldwide. "East vs. West, we never on that/Cause the rugged format, you can't get from where you born at," he declares in response to those who felt "Danger" was an anti-West Coast assault. On this bluesy, up-tempo track, his partner DJ P.F. Cuttin adds scratches of vocal samples from Large Professor and Channel Live to elevate the song's concept. Look out for the full-length sometime this summer...Back from a long-ass sabbatical and full of California love is the original O.G., ICE T. On his new single, "Where The Shit Goes Down" (Priority, 6430 Sunset Blvd., Ste. 900, Hollywood, CA 90028 213.467.015), Ice displays his trademark storytelling skills, while oozing L.A. pride all over the chorus. The B-side, "Pimp Anthem," demonstrates Ice has been listening to the radio while he's been away from the scene. As you might gather from the title, he shamelessly jacks the chorus of Junior M.A.F.I.A.'s "Player's Anthem," while asserting that he's the "hustler of the century." Look for more uplifting material on his upcoming album, VI: Return Of The Real...Also coming with that real shh..., I mean stuff, is SHYHEIM with (stop me if you seen this title before) "Shit Iz Real," with the clean version "This Iz Real" (Nōō Trybe, c/o Virgin, 338 N. Foothill Road, Beverly Hills, CA 90210). Even cleaner than the clean version is the smooth production by RNS, who uses Surface's "Happy" (recently made famous by G Rap's "Fast Life") as the backdrop for Shyheim's raw raps. The youngest affiliate of the Wu-Tang crime family, this shortie, who captured our attention with the hit "On And On," has escaped puberty and, now has a rough-as-sandpaper voice. At only 18, Shyheim sounds more comfortable on the B-side, "Jiggy Comin'." Seemingly inspired by KRS One's "Sound Of The Police," this haunting, f- the police, anti-government track features an introspective Shyheim pondering the dangers of the streets and our justice system. Look for his second album, The Lost Generation, on May 16.

CHINO XL "No Complex" (12")

American, 3500 W. Olive Ave., Ste. 1550, Burbank, CA 91505
Jumping 14 places to #12 on this week's chart is the debut single from Chino XL. "No Complex" epitomizes his sound in a nutshell. With ferocious fury, this L.A.-based verbal warrior attacks materialism and the competition. "I will detach your limbs there ain't no wins if you test mine/You won't be coming back again like Sinbad's sitcom." Utilizing the rap technique made famous by Slick Rick, Chino uses a double vocal effect (switching up between lead and background vocals effectively) over a non-stop, up-tempo track that accelerates like a runaway train. Never coming off "soft like Johnny Mathis," Chino sounds insane in the brain. Reporters supporting this metaphorical madman include: KFSR, KSBR, KVRX (#1), WBUQ, WCVF, WKNH, WMUR, WQFS, WRAS and WUTZ.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Deep Soul Volumes One and Two

Priority, 6430 Sunset Blvd., Ste. 900, Hollywood, CA 90028

Before the folks at Priority discovered gangsta rap in the late '80s, they began the label with the K-Tel mentality of putting out compilations, such as Rap's Greatest Hits, Diss Rap and Happy Rap (you get the idea). Even though the label currently has a respected stable of artists, it still stays true to its roots by flooding the market with compilations (has anyone seen my copy of Phat Blunts?). Compilations are the original mix tapes, a collection of good songs from a variety of groups. The majority of Priority's latest, Deep Soul Volumes One and Two, is probably the kind of stuff your parents got their groove on to. Volume One features songs that will be familiar to the younger generation because rappers have sampled them: Jean Knight's "Mr. Big Stuff" and King Floyd's "Groove Me." But this is not a break-beat album for DJs to misuse. There are moving ballads like the O'Jays' "You Got Your Hooks In Me" and the tear-jerking "Lovin' You" by Minnie Riperton. Some selections, such as Curtis Mayfield's "Superfly" and the Staple Singers' "Let's Do It Again," seem out of place. There are some obscure cuts, like the silly "Get Dancin'" by Disco Tex And The Sex-O-Lettes from 1975, which tried to capture the frenzied dancefloor energy of (the fast-developing) disco movement. Volume Two showcases an all-male troupe. The inclusion of Curtis Mayfield's lesser known, socially-conscious "Future Shock," Isaac Hayes' sophisticated "Joy (Part I)" and Donny Hathaway's conga-tinged "The Ghetto" are all great inclusions. The Friends Of Distinction's "Going In Circles" stands out on this, the weaker of the two sets, by bringing the project's theme to full realization. This ballad contains what today's R&B music scene lacks, what Rakim and Bobby Byrd have in the past claimed to possess, the ingredient that makes this music from the '70s so timeless: soul.

GREYBOY Land Of The Lost

Ubiquity, 54 Washburn St., San Francisco, CA 94103 415.864.8448

New York has its Groove Collective, and the West Coast has Greyboy. Of course, the two bands inhabit different worlds and different musical spaces, but a comparison is valid: Groove Collective is always hustling the crowd, giving props, shouting out and making sure everybody's having a good time, while Greyboy just relaxes and lets the grooves do the work in a more mellow, flowing West Coast-style. Fronted mostly by multi-instrumental hornmen Karl Denson and Harold Todd, the 'Boy gives us 10 instrumental grooves that are some of the best that can be found. As is so often the case, the term acid jazz is a bit of a misnomer here: what Greyboy is about is straight-up funk on the relaxed, contemplative tip — think Roy Ayers on a Saturday afternoon off. When it comes to mellow flute-funk, the grooves on "Parkside Bounce" and "Top Floor" hit the listener like a ray of sunshine on a foggy day. Passing though: the sampled guitar grooves on "Whirlwind" sound so good, why not give a real axe a try? Anybody got Charlie Hunter's number? JAMES UEN

PRIMA MATERIA

Meditations

Knitting Factory Works, 74 Leonard St., New York, NY 10013 212.219.3006

Imitation may be the sincerest form of flattery, but for the brazenly avant-garde group Prima Materia, inspiration—not imitation—is the surest route to personal and collective fulfillment. As on their 1995 debut, Prima once again takes the music of John Coltrane as its inspiration and point of departure. Cut live at New York City's Knitting Factory during its What Is Jazz? Festival, Meditations matches its predecessor for extemporaneous intensity and introspection, giving virtually literal meaning to the phrase "inside-out." While the group's repertoire, and apparent raison d'être, remains the explorative ethos of Coltrane, its personnel has changed slightly. Tenorman Louie Belogenis and altoist Allan Chase once again comprise the front-line; bringing up the rear—though the conventional notions of soloist and accompanist are rendered moot in this band—is drummer Rashied Ali (Coltrane's drummer from 1965-67), bassist Joe Gallant and the new member, pianist Greg Murphy. Whereas last year's Peace On Earth employed two contrabassists (William Parker was the other), Meditations replaces one bassist with a pianist without sacrificing the supple, warm bottom that made the group's inaugural so inviting to wide-open ears. Meditations isn't likely to receive widespread airplay (though CMJ-reporting stations should be receptive), inasmuch as this 50-minute CD contains only six selections, but groups like Prima Materia that champion substance—through spirit, instead of vice-versa, are in short supply, and remain, more than ever, absolutely, vitally necessary for the continuation of jazz as a high art form.

SAX APPEAL

Nearly two decades after recording one of his most heartfelt albums, Spirit Sensitive, tenor/soprano saxist CHICO FREEMAN has come out with a sequel, Still Sensitive (both India Navigation (P.O. Box 3108, Sag Harbor, NY 11963 516.725.9206). The saxist, a scion of Chicago's highly respected Freeman clan (Chico inherited his adventurousness from his sax-playing father, Von), turns in another exceptional performance of bravura balladry on Still Sensitive: His lone original, "In Her Eyes," is framed by expressive readings of such perennials as "Nature Boy" (6:24), "Time After Time" (6:11), John Coltrane's "After The Rain" (7:56) and Milton Nascimento's "San Vicente" (2:27). Freeman's poignant phrasing and tonal complexities engender compatible responses from his well-chosen accompanists John Hicks (piano), Cecil McBee (contrabass) and Winard Harper (drums)... Freeman's longtime buddy, altoman ARTHUR BLYTHE, employs two-thirds of the aforesaid rhythm section (Hicks and McBee plus drummer Bobby Battle) to equally fine advantage on Calling Card for the German Enja label (c/o Koch International, 2 Tri-Harbor Court, Port Washington, NY 11050-4617 516.484.1000). Blythe, whose friendship with Freeman dates back to New York's experimental loft scene of the late '70s, cut Calling Card in late June of 1993 at the Village Vanguard. Especially tasty are the Blythe original "As Of Yet" (8:31), a quirky yet engagingly syncopated piece, and a sprightly reading of Fats Waller's "Jitterbug Waltz" (7:15). Aficionados of daring, inside-to-outside jazz will find much to savor on both Still Sensitive and the 72-minute Calling Card. By the way, the simpatico between Freeman and Blythe is amply displayed on 1994's Focus (Contemporary, c/o Fantasy Inc., 10th & Parker, Berkeley, CA 94710 510.549.2500), featuring Freeman's fivesome with Blythe on the front line... After a hiatus of nearly a decade (due, according to the liner notes, to the 3 D's — depression, disillusionment and drugs), tenorman CARLOS GARNETT makes his Resurgence on Muse (106 W. 71st St., New York, NY 10023 212.873.2020). This 1995 quartet session (four cuts add a percussionist) reveals that the leader's chops, thankfully, are little the worse for rust. This native of Panama enjoyed productive stays with Freddie Hubbard, the Jazz Messengers (1969-70) and Miles Davis (1972-73) in addition to five years as a recording leader for Muse (1974-79). Garnett's skills as a composer — allied to the driving fluidity he achieves largely throughout Resurgence — also stand out in bold relief: With the exception of Harbie Hancock's "Maiden Voyage" and Mal Waldron's "Soul Eyes," all of the material springs from the leader's pen. The jazz world champions commitment to tradition, longevity and triumphs over adversity. On the latter count, in particular, Garnett's return is a welcome one, indeed... On-stage and on disc, venturing high and wide on his alto, in the fleet tradition of Charlie Parker and Eric Dolphy, altoist PETE YELLIN practices what he's been preaching for 13 years as Director of Jazz Studies at Long Island University. Yellin, heretofore underrecorded, confidently demonstrates his worthiness as a leader in the company of equally adept (but better-known) players on It's You Or No One for Mons Records of Germany (c/o DL Media, 270 Park Ave. So., #5C, New York, NY 10010 212.353.2334). Yellin's limber alto is ensconced in a tonally well-balanced front line between the trumpet of Nicholas Payton and the tenor of Bob Mintzer. Bringing up the rear is the compatibly chosen rhythm troika of pianist Stephen Scott, bassist Dwayne Burno and drummer Carl Allen. Cue up the Yellin originals "Air For Aaron" (5:36) or, better yet, "Yea-Buh (For Art Blakey)" (5:42), on which Payton leads the chorus—charge with a sizzling solo. For a winning double-play, sequel from "Yea-Buh" to a cut from Payton's brand-new, second Verve side, Gumbo Nouveau.

20 DEAD FLOWERCHILDREN 20 Dead Flowerchildren

Overture, 47551 Iroquois Ct., Novi, MI 48374-3635 810.349.0115

Although the band's name may conjure up images of blurry-eyed, free-loving stoners dancing through a colorful poppy patch, and the bouncy, clangy fuzz-beat at the start of the album's opening track may lead you to believe that 20 Dead Flowerchildren are a glittery techno-disco outfit...think again. After the band's meaty guitar sludge, huge distorted wall of shuddering, rhythmic grind and gritty, scathing vocal howls slam you straight between the eyes, there's no denying 20 Dead Flowerchildren are one helluva heavy-ass band. Hailing from Detroit, the group grinds out a bludgeoning mix of razor-sharp industrial rhythms and pure, brutal hardcore groove on its self-titled debut offering. Aggressive, raw-powered riffs surge forth through wave after wave of churning rhythms, while the album's disturbing, pain-stricken lyrics add to the menacing rumble of the band's overall sound. Exploding in a molten fireball of manic distortion, 20 Dead Flowerchildren thrash their way through 10 seething tracks characterized by aggression, anger and bile-coated melody. Immerse yourself in the raging stomp of "Tear The Tie," "Give In," "Focus" and "Pain."

VARIOUS ARTISTS

Youth Gone Wild: Heavy Metal Hits Of The '80s Vols. 1-3

Rhino, 10635 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles, CA

90025-4900 310.474.4778

Ahhh, the "Heavy Metal '80s"...a time when long tresses flowed freely, skin-tight Spandex abounded and the entire heavy metal genre was dressed in makeup, glitter, feathers, high-heeled boots and studded leather. During those days, style meant everything and band-members spent more time primping their coifs, choosing their outfits and touching up their faces before a show than they actually spent out on stage performing. Fashion sense aside, this period spawned some of the best Loud Rock music and most memorable metal bands of all time. Before grunge-infested, flannel-wearing, alternative slackers invaded the country and "hair metal" became almost obsolete, it was this brand of high-energy, flamboyant '80s-style metal that was considered the king-shit amongst devout headbangers. True metal fans will always have a place in their hearts for the music highlighted on Youth Gone Wild: Heavy Metal Hits Of The '80s Vols. 1-3 and won't ever be afraid to admit that they, too, once banged their heads in harmony to bands like Poison, Ratt, Cinderella, Bang Tango, BulletBoys, Faster Pussycat and Winger. Spanning a musical period filled with sex, drugs, fun, flair and true, wild rock 'n' roll spirit, Youth Gone Wild... hearkens back to a time before metal bands turned into gritty, seething, shaved, tattooed, screaming, pummeling, pissed-off hardcore grinders. Showcasing classic "hair metal" hits like Poison's "Talk Dirty To Me," Britny Fox's "Girlschool," BulletBoys' "Smooth Up In Ya," White Lion's "Wait" and Winger's "Seventeen," the three-volume, 42-song compilation also pays homage to the grittier bands of the '80s, represented by Motorhead's "Ace Of Spades," Accept's "Balls To The Wall," Judas Priest's "Parental Guidance" and Quiet Riot's hit cover of Slade's "Cum On Feel The Noize." Youth Gone Wild: Heavy Metal Hits Of The '80s Vols. 1-3 is guaranteed to bring a blissful tear to the eye of all true heavy metal fans. Sniff, sniff.

BLOODLET Entheogen

Victory, P.O. Box 146546, Chicago, IL 60614 312.666.8661

Screaming, vile, uncontrollable fury and tortured, maniacal rage come together in a bloody burst of pure hardcore brutality on Bloodlet's second frenzied, full-length album, Entheogen. Exploding with ultimate anger and frustration, Bloodlet emits the kind of malevolent, discordant, rabid grinds that chill the blood and weaken the spines of even the meanest and toughest hardcore fans. Wrapped in a nightmarish cloak of disdain and chaos, Bloodlet lashes out with sharp-tongued, monstrous screams straight from the tormented bowels of hell, while its mega-stomping riffs, body-slaming grinds and ravenous grooves careen around a dark musical chamber of hardcore madness. Scary stuff. Hailing from the bright and cheerful home base of Mickey Mouse and friends, Orlando, Florida's Bloodlet is anything but sunny, happy and friendly with its brain-bashing amalgam of stench-ridden noise. Lunging straight for the throat through layer after layer of ragged, hardcore mayhem, Bloodlet rips it up with a venomous twin-guitar attack, tight-fisted rhythms and frighteningly brutal vocal eruptions. Prepare to be crushed beyond recognition with "Brainchild," "Something Wicked," "One And Only," "Eucharist" and "CPAI-76."

ECONOLINE CRUSH Affliction

Melding rock and industrial can either blow up in the faces of those that attempt the mix, or the brew can reach a furious, rolling boil, drawing fuel from the fire beneath. Exhibiting the latter, Econoline Crush churns a mean cauldron of musical ingredients. Although the band started out back in 1992, this release marks its maiden voyage into the studio. The results should please a wide variety of listeners, including rock, industrial, dance and hardcore fans. Produced by Rhys Fulber (Front Line Assembly, Delerium), who also contributes his programming and keyboard talents, Affliction also boasts the golden touch of mixing engineer Greg Reely (Front Line Assembly, Skinny Puppy). Two stand-out tracks are "Nowhere Man" and "Wicked"; the former is a more Loud Rock-inspired song, complete with the hum of a whining guitar and kick-ass drumming, while the latter is a more industrial leaning cut which carves out a syncopated techno pulse. And for your daily shot of an almost-'80s metal feel, check out "Emotional Stain." The vocals on "Close" recall those of Pete Burns (Dead Or Alive) while the music suggests the darker side of Depeche Mode's sampling, and "Sycophant" is punch-your-fist-in-the-air rock. Vocalist Trevor Hurst leads the charge through "Cruel World," like a knight courageously dominating the attack and victoriously rising above to conquer his quest. The title track begins in a breathy whisper, evolves into a techno-dance dream a couple of minutes into the song, and then crashes gloriously back into a hushed finale. DONNA RODGER

BRAIN JUNKIES Shu Man Jesus

Voodoo Biscuit, 219 E. Christian St., Newport, DE 19804 302.994.0804

While still in the infancy stage of their career (they formed less than two years ago), Brain Junkies have already gotten the attention of local radio stations and record stores in the New York/New Jersey/Connecticut area. With a sound that's got a pinch of Metallica and a dash of Alice In Chains, the band's first full-length release, Shu Man Jesus, jumps out of your speakers with loads of promise. The band really shines on the more melodious numbers, even more so than on its typical speed-demon offerings. Even the mainstream-friendly "Mud" and "Well..." for example, both exhibit the talents of Shawn's more pristine guitar work, as each song rises and falls in intensity and harmony. For the more daring, there's "Dreams In The Witchhaus," whose throaty, hardcore grasp clenches with a mighty fist, and "Holy Man," which leans heavily on deep pounding backbeats and satanic bass lines. Brain Junkies display a variety of musical styles and have carefully sequenced the CD so as to evoke several moods throughout. At times, it's almost like having a bucket of ice water thrown in your face, especially during the segue between "Heaven's Bleed" and "Abuse." The peaceful "Heaven's Bleed" gives you an almost out-of-body feeling, its drifting guitars sounding like a Victorian harpsichord, while "Abuse" does a complete 180°, lurching straight for the head, as the listener struggles in a fruitless effort to keep his head from bobbing uncontrollably. In the "chuckle category" there's a goofy hidden track on which the band sings the simple lyrics, "We are the Brain Junkies..." and a picture on the CD of a stoned-looking dude sipping brains from the top of a cut-off skull through a straw. Yum! DONNA RODGER

BOTH WORLDS Beyond Zero Gravity (EP)

Another Planet, 740 Broadway, New York, NY 10003 212.529.2600

With a lineup consisting of four, tried-and-true, old-school players from three of the best, original NYHC (New York Hardcore) heavyweight bands, Both Worlds couldn't not rock your world. Boasting a sound primarily rooted in traditional hardcore grind, Both Worlds serves up a guitar-driven, stomping groove topped with a hard-edged melodic twist, propulsive rhythms and half-shouted/half-howled vocal rumbles that ease in and out of distorted sounds and crystal-clear shouts. Lead throat John Joseph (ex-Cro-Mags) teams up with Leeway's A.J. (guitar) and Pokey (drums) and ex-Sick Of It All bassist Eddie on the band's debut EP, Beyond Zero Gravity. Both Worlds' somewhat polished approach to the original, brutally raw NYHC sound may not be as gritty as it used to be, but it is nonetheless heavy, jarring and crushing. With their refreshing melody-meets-mayhem style, these NYHC veterans are primed to taste the fruits of widespread musical success. Dive into the rigid groove of "Militant," the fast-paced romp of "Flip The Switch Fantastic," the dirgey, groove-laden riff of "Over The Edge" and the intense, rumbling blast of "Visions (In The Mind's Eyes)."

LOUD ROCK NEWS

Slayer has announced that ex-Testament skin basher Jon Dette will be its new drummer. The band is currently working on a new studio album, in addition to prepping for a summer tour. In the meantime, keep your eyes peeled for Slayer's upcoming album of punk-rock cover tunes, titled Undisputed Attitude, which is scheduled for a spring release...Although nothing has been confirmed yet, rumors are flying at warp speed that American Recordings label president and big-cheese Rick Rubin will be producing the upcoming Nine Inch Nails album. On the other side of the fence, however, there have also been rumors that Terry Date (Prong, White Zombie, Pantera) will be presiding over the knobs. Hmmmm...very interesting...Energy Records has just signed an exclusive U.S. distribution deal with Caroline Distribution. Keep an eye out for new records from Bile (Teknowhore) and Pro-Pain

LOUD ROCK NEWS

Awww...How cute can these two get? Two of the coolest chicks in the biz, Cheryl Valentine and Hollywood's Dyana Kass, share a big metal hug.

Okay, guys. You looked just a wee bit too happy when this pic was snapped. Can anyone guess how long after this picture was taken that both Smitty and Brian Lima fell flat on their faces?

Here Jacksonville's hottest new export, Limp Bizkut, belts one out for all the crazed Korn partygoers.

Korn's gold record party at L.A.'s Dragonfly on March 21 was a blast! Thanks to Cheryl, Smitty and Brian Lima from Epic Records, the entire Immortal crew and, of course, the boys in the band for a great time. Following Sugar Ray's (Atlantic) jammin' party performance was a brand new band from Jacksonville, FL, Limp Bizkut. Just signed to Flip Records, the band flew all the way to L.A. just to play the party, and they brought the house down! Keep your eye on this baby...it's HOT! Sounding something like a cross between Beastie Boys, Cypress Hill, Korn and Rage Against The Machine, Limp Bizkut is a heavy, funky, angry, loud and brutally bold amalgamation of metal/hardcore/hip-hop/groove. Awesome! The band will begin recording its debut album any day now with producer extraordinaire Ross Robinson. For more information (and maybe a sneak peek of some advance tunes!) call Terry or Chris at 212.925.2527 (Flip Records in New York), Carl at 818.762.5648 (Flip in Los Angeles) or JB at 404.223.5470 (Flip in Atlanta).

The hot, sexy and sweaty Mark McGrath (Sugar Ray's lead vocalist) exits the stage after an amazing set. Moments later he was mauled by a group of uncontrollable, drooling females. God, the nerve of some people. I hope no respectable people in the industry saw us...er, I mean, them. Ahem.

(Contents Under Pressure), which hit the streets the beginning of May. Bile's first single, "No I Don't No," goes for metal radio adds on April 15, while Pro-Pain's first single, "State Of Mind," goes for adds on April 22...Iron Maiden was recently forced to cancel eight sold-out shows on the band's current "X Factor" tour of North America due to illness. Lead vocalist Blaze Bayley was taken to an emergency medical center in the early hours of Sunday morning, March 24, following Iron Maiden's performance in Seattle. He was diagnosed with severe bronchitis and told that he would not be able to perform again until April 3. "There's nothing worse than having to cancel a gig, but sometimes you just don't have a choice," said bassist Steve Harris. "We've been told that if he tries to sing before April 3, he could do permanent damage to his voice, as well as put the rest of the tour in jeopardy." He also added: "It's a great shame, as the tour has been fantastic, but right now the important thing is that Blaze gets some rest and starts to feel better. We apologize to the fans who were planning on attending the shows, particularly those in Vancouver who found out on short notice, but we'll be back as soon as possible." For more information, contact Michael Mazur or Debbie Sellnow at Mazur Public Relations: 609.426.1277. Get well soon, Blaze!...Relapse Records recently released the final album from Pan-Thy-Monium. Entitled Khaooohs And Kon-Fus-ion, it is the third and final installment in the Pan-Thy-Monium trilogy. The last track on the album, titled "In Remembrance," is a one-minute track of silence in memory of the band. At least the band hasn't lost its sense of humor...Type O Negative (Roadrunner) was confirmed for the middle slot of the Ozzy Osbourne/Sepultura tour. Check these pages for upcoming tour dates. Is this a killer lineup, or what!?...Congratulations (I think) to Mausoleum's Marc Meltzer, who has risen in victory after completing his quest to wear shorts all winter long. To all those who bet against Marc in the "Marc Meltzer Shorts Pool" and lost, Marc had this to say: "No one should ever doubt me again." Commenting further, he said, "I feel bad that all these people entered the contest just to win my shorts, and I still have them." Marc, seek help please, before it's too late. □

RECORD CO.

Salvatore Gnolfo, Post Pagan Creations, Copiague, NY 516.789.5996 Thanks to Fog at WCEB for being the first in the nation to spin Cave Penny (your posters are on the way). Also a big thanks to John T at WUSB for his support of Cave Penny. Also thanks to WBCR, WCHC, WCOT, WCWP, WCSB, WDCR, WECS, WITR, WMPG, WNHU, WORT, WPBX, WRHU, WSIA and KNON for being adventurous enough to add Cave Penny (how about heavy rotation guys?). Who is Cave Penny? The world's only heavy post-pagan rock band. "This is very fucked up, fearless music." (PIT Report). This is your last chance to get the 7" red vinyl featuring the single "I Want You II," with the B-side "Pressure." Look for the album Salamander Smile in May. Last chance to break this band before someone else does! Later.

Jeffrey E. Jacobson, Esq., Jacobson & Colfin, P.C. Attorneys, New York, NY 212.691.5630 email: jejesq@aol.com All right, spring is here. Kerr Kearney's Blow Your House Down on Eudaenonix Records is on radio everywhere, thanks to all of you. We even had some serious interest over at Point Blank. If you haven't gotten his CD yet, call us and we'll get you one. We also want to express our most sincere thanks to radio for continuing to play Sorethumb. Get ready for their April 13 major NYC showcase at Avalon. Call us for guest list. We have some new releases coming at you: Holy Mother has an import debut album available from Cream Records. Ned Lucas, Little Shot of Blue, is very radio-friendly. Sasha and Mick Taylor soon to come. Come visit our website at: <http://www.thefirm.com/>.

Jonathan Obera, Tony Jansen & Jason Ziebarth, Virus Promotions, Los Angeles, CA 213.464.7593 email: viruspromo@aol.com.

Cheers to Pete Burness' Dialogue on the indie vs. major front for distribution. When one gets too involved about where a piece of music comes from, you lose touch with one of the whole reasons music was created: "The enjoyment of music itself." Instead, let's worry about how I'm going to pay all of these parking tickets I just got. You have from Taang!: Swirlies, Spaceman 3, Slap Shot, the Business, Buck O Nine, Ken Chambers & Strangle Hold. Onset Records: Supernovice. Slab Records: Maple. Deep Six Records: Kim Salmon & The Surrealists. SurfDog Records: Sprung Monkey. Countdown Records: the Almighty Ultrasound. On its way from Strapon Records: Make Friends The Hollywood Way, a Hollywood, CA, compilation including bands like Univalve, Lava Diva, Bottom 12, 40 Watt Domain, Kingsize, 60 Cycle, Custom Made Scare, Skunkweed, Touch Candy, Mother Tongue Nameless and Twister Naked. For you Southern and Midwestern stations, you should have the Lounge Flounders Imaginary Saints. The Flounders are touring with Dishwalla and the Refreshments. Call us for dates, interviews, etc. Went to South By Southwest — great bands out there! Some of my faves include Tablet from Dallas, Mariner 9 from Philadelphia, Lotion from NYC, Idaho on Caroline, Wrens (rule!!!) from NYC, Supernova, Sixteen Deluxe and your mother (kidding). Call us, fax us (213.464.7897), or email us. C-ya. Out Jonboy.

Laura Bond, iEpiphany! Records, Tempe, AZ 602.804.0992 The Drakes performance at SXSW caused quite a stir. Our phone has been ringing off the hook from major label bigwigs looking to sweep them out from under us. Ladies and gents, bring on the bidding war! Their single, "I Did That," is still spinning in dizzy rotations on stations in Phoenix and Tucson, as well as on various college stations across the country. Beat Angels are busy promoting their new CD, Unhappy Hour, and planning a Midwestern tour with the Piersons in May. The Angels will play Jonathan L's wedding party at Jack's Sugar Shack in L.A. on April 13.

(Congratulations Jonathan! We miss you!) The Piersons' new CD, Humbucker, is destined to be a winner. We've already had a great response from college radio with the singles "Wasted" and "Pink Dress" being the obvious favorites from the album. Keep your ears open for all of these bands — you're going to be hearing a lot more from them in the coming months.

Adam Lore, Homestead Records, New York, NY 212.675.0922 First off, a hearty thanks to all these folks playing the David S. Ware Quartet. It's nice to see a record at #1 that deserves to be there for once. Sort of renews my faith. Well, almost. Anyway, by now you should also have the new one by the Supreme Dicks. In case I haven't mentioned it to you already, I love the Dicks. With all of my heart. And this record, their second proper full-length (third overall) after over a decade together, is their greatest work to date. I haven't been this moved by a record in quite a long time. A lovely new acoustic blues record from Elliot Sharp's Hoosgow will also be on the way shortly. Any stations that are into the blues should give a call as servicing on this one is going to be quite selective and happening very soon, see? And while you're at it, tell me whether or not you're on over the summer. Plus, we still need an intern! All of this is of the utmost importance.

Andy Skibins, ZYX Records, West Babylon, NY 516.253.0800 email: 102177,640@compuserve.com It's nice that the weather is actually starting to act like spring. I just wish we got two more inches of snow on Long Island so we could've broken our all-time record like NYC did. Thanks to everyone for the quick and overwhelming response to the Bloom CD, Big Block. For those who have not listened yet, please do. We recorded the CD this past November and December at Boston's Fort Apache studios with David Cook, who has worked with everybody from Juliana Hatfield to King Crimson and the Mighty Mighty Bosstones. A great job was done by all. Bloom is available for interviews, so please call to set one up. The band is also on the road in the Northeast: 4/9 in NYC (Brownies), 4/13 in Albany, NY, 4/20 in Geneseo, NY (at the Earth Day

David Avery & Bill McMahon, Powderfinger Promotions, Cambridge, MA 617.623.3824 email: powderspam@aol.com

The additional voice you may hear on this end of the phone is none other than Bill, the best damn assistant east of the Pecos, so be nice to him because he's a cool ex-DJ (WSKB) who just wants to help you find the answers to life, the universe, and everything. What is that large bright orb thing in the sky? It's been a long time since I've seen it, but it could be the sun. Or it could be the new Pete Weiss CD shining brightly with humor and rock. Don't miss the two songs on Pete's CD that are written by none other than Chris Balew of the Presidents Of The United States Of America. You have to like someone who sings, "Axl Rose can bite my Wang Chung." You should also have a copy of the Ken Keseyian sounds of Sonic Joyride. These guys actually tour in a bus that has a stage welded on top so they can stop, set-up on the bus, plug in, and rock your commode.

Jabbering Trout just returned from South By Southwest where they played to a packed house as one of the only unsigned bands in the festival. I've been told that Joan Osborne took a swing at one of them, which is a good sign. Hope everyone had a good spring fling.

Hal Looby, Astro-Samoan (Angry), Touch & Go Records, Chicago, IL 312.463.8316

Man...Or Astro-Man?'s tesla coil. It looks really cool. It spits purple lightning bolts and it's really, really dangerous. Super danger, as the French say. If they set it up at a show, I suggest you don't even go near it. Definitely don't position yourself between it and any sort of fuse box or power transformer. One fan/doofus of interstellar proportions has already tried to light a cigarette off it because it looks so tempting. It's a death machine, OK? Experiment Zero, however, emits no lethal radiation, and if you pry open the plastic CD, you'll find the aluminum unfolds to become a space blanket, possibly the most useful survival tool in our solar system. We're just a bit late welcoming Atavistic aboard as a distributed label. They've been working with some of the more obscure Chicago artists of the past few years, as well as re-issuing important No Wave albums.

Their entire catalogue is now available from Touch & Go, plus new Scissorgirls, Wharton Tiers, and Lydia Lunch albums. Watch for Swans, Mars and Dream Syndicate stuff from the vaults. Hey champ, Atavistic does their own radio promotion. Thrill Jockey has Kryptonite, a new Gaunt record, on April 16. It whups Superman's ass.

Arcwelder has a new album ready right now, so there'll be no excuses at Grammy time in 1997. The word is Entropy. Call us for GVSB, Brainiac, and MOAM? tour dates happening now.

Heather & Todd, Upstart Records, W. Somerville, MA 713.359.2044 email: 70540.505@compuserve.com

Greetings children! Lots of exciting stuff has been going on in the infinite realm of Upstart these days, hardly the least of which is that Todd, our faithful compatriote, has returned. The awesome new Laika & The Cosmonauts CD, Zero Gravity, should be off your desk and into rotation by now! This CD is off to a great start, so give it a listen if you haven't already! The Finnish foursome will be hitting the road in support of Ministry this summer, so check it out when they come to your town. Thanks to all who have made Big Ass Truck's new CD, Kent, a big ass success! The CD and the tour are still going strong, so call us for dates, tickets and interviews. Robert Gordon, author of It Came From Memphis (who also compiled Upstart's CD release of the same name), will be on a book signing tour through May, so call for info. Los Straitjackets and Tailgators are also on the road during April, so check them out as well. Thanks to everyone still playing and charting Tailgators and Teisco Del Rey! And last but not least, shout-outs to our friends made at SXSW: Bill Hanke from WROC, The Beast from WAXY, Tark from KMSM (you owe me bowling), Errol from Caroline (a k a Beer Monkey — thanks for the brew), Rosie at World Domination (need a ride?), and Eric (cutie!) at KANZ (gang fights can be fun)!

RADIO Jeff Schwartz, KSUU, Cedar City, UT

801.586.7975 Alright, for those who don't know, I'm the new metal director (since last quarter) at KSUU. Mucho thanks to Anya and everyone else who's helped introduce me to the biz. My, uh, office hours (i.e. "normal" radio shifts) are Monday and Friday from 11 a.m.- 12 noon, but if you call anytime and leave a message, I should be able to get in touch with you. I've had swell time so far, charting bitchin' bands like Korn, Sacred Reich, Only Living Witness and Wickerman. Congrats goin' out to Rocketsled on the review last month. '71 Nova grows on you like foot fungus. The hardest part of my job is waiting for the new Prong and Rage Against the Machine albums to be released, but until that happens, I'll have to settle for a Primus show (thanks, Interscope!).

Ben Sprunger, Boy Wonder, WOBN,

Westerville, OH 614.823.1557 Dear Friend: Well, I've signed on to represent the station "musically" for another year. Since my appointment, requests are up and area residents are either tuning us in or turning us off. They're mad because we don't play Def Leppard anymore. (It was a necessary evil, I assure you.) Did you know our new industrial director is named J.T.? And of course, there's always Becky, our Loud Rock dominatrix. And then there's me, the MD. Take a moment now to reaffirm your love. Call and write to express your undying need to promote, promote, promote. Did I also mention we have RPM and R&B specialty shows now? Plus a video show to be played on our public access channel? They need your love, too. I saw Mercury Rev last week and I told the flute player she "rocked." It was kind of stupid, I suppose, so I'll apologize publicly. But I really meant it. Self on Spongebath "rocks" too. Ditto Acetone. Anyone heard the Sleeping Giants? M'm m'm good! "With a knife in my chest and a bullet through my head."

Matt Hoffman, Music Director, KSCV, Kearney, NE 308.865.8216

Wow! Talk about a wild conference! I still can't recall half of the bands that I saw at SXSW. One thing, however, is that you should never, ever, go see a group at the Steamboat! That place is like one giant smokestack! We had eight people go as a group from the station, and all of us had reaaaaly bad coughs after two shows there. We started blaming all of the problems in the world on the gross garbage piling out of their doors. Teenage pregnancy, poverty, war, famine, steroid use. All of this is caused by the smoke that comes out of the Steamboat. There was a really good band that played there, though. Fastball impressed all of our staff members. Amy Arena was really cool, too. And she looks different with her clothes on. The best band in the world wasn't even downtown. A band called Dayroom played at the Hole In The Wall on Friday night, and even though it was a small crowd, they had everyone groovin' to their vibes. If you haven't heard them yet, they have new music coming out in May, so call me or Troy Aubrey in Athens, Georgia. The other cool show we saw was Weapon Of Choice. This was the absolutely coolest, nutbusting, Nutmeg musical extravaganza I have ever seen!!! I'm never going to look at a plunger the same way again! Also, check out the queen goddess of the squirming girls!!! She dances on stage with them, and all I can say is WOW! Anyway, thanks to Spackle at Hollywood, Chuck at Mercury, and Tony from Virus Promotions. They showed us a wild time. The best show ever!!! Bye!

Kevin "Lucky" Walton, WFHC, Henderson, TN 1.901.989.6749 email: alton_K@FHU.EDU

Hello, everyone. Again, I would just like to say that this has been a great year, and I have enjoyed trying to get on all of your mailing lists. I now have an assistant, his name is Brennan "Cave Man" Hughes. He will more than likely take over here at WFHC as Music Director for the next year or so. Give Brennan a hard time, he is still learning. I would like to say thanks to a few people that made this job a little less stressfull. Xavier at Interscope, everyone at Capitol, Heather at Upstart, Zach at TVT, Mike at EMI, Spackle at Hollywood, Julie at Megalithic, and finally, Steve B. at Mia Mind Music. Music is music no matter whether the label is big or small. Why is "indie" vs "commercial" a big deal? Love the music, not the label. ☐

DIALOGUE

Brent DiCrescenzo, Co-Music Director, WVFI, Notre Dame, IN 219.631.6888 email: wvfi@nd.edu I've discovered a fool-proof way of improving radio airplay. Smash your CD players! Our beloved, stealth-black Technics SL-PG340 has just gone the way of my Intellivision. Now the turntables are spinning more than the GOP candidates' public opinion. The Promise Ring and the Rye Coalition rocketed up our charts with their new wax. Not to mention the fact both bands melt grey matter, loosen the mandible, and tickle the inner ear. Notre Dame alums Chisel continue to put the pogo in our collective step. And mark my word — mod is the next big fashion trend. It's only a matter of time before Goodwill stores are overstocked with size 45-plus jeans, chain wallets, and alien workshop tees. Yes, Notre Dame does have a "scene." In fact, besides Chisel, you can catch Chicago darlings Sweep The Leg Johnny on the road now. Also, keep your ears open for emiLy. They rock. If you'd like info or 7"s from these bands, drop us a phone or email line. If you wish, Dan (the taller music director) and I love to chat. Later.

Travis Greenwood, Program/Promotions Director, KRRC, 104.1 Reed College Portland, Oregon 503.771.2180 email: tgreenwo@reed.edu Hey there, kids! KRRC, now in its thirtieth year, is again rawking Portland silly. Seven unbelievable days a week the mzk just keeps coming. This semester brings with it some new staff, and as always, some incredible new DJs. Speaking of which, they have total control here at KRRC. Our philosophy is free-form — no pre-determined playlists at this station! So far at Reed College this semester, the Student Affairs Board and KRRC have had some excellent live music to entertain the masses with. Examples include the Halo Benders, Love As Laughter, For Carnation, the Cannanes, and Jessamine to name but a few. As for music on-air, the new Girls Vs. Boys, Trans Am, US Maple and Sonora Pine albums have all received ample amounts of play. As for the future, we are eagerly awaiting several new releases, especially the Polvo and Stereolab albums. Thanks, of course, must go out to all of label friends, especially those at Matador, Sub Pop, Elektra and Thrill Jockey. I must, however, give extra thanks to Hal over at Touch And Go — the music he sends rocks our world, never mind how polite he is. Finally, email me if you would like to receive our weekly Top 30 playlists. Later.

Warren Price, Music Director & All-Around Swell Guy, CHUO, Ottawa, Ontario 613.562.5965 Hi everyone! This is my first Dialogue, and boy do I have a lot to say. First off, a very large 'Thank you!!!' to all of you folks who sent us stuff for our fund drive. It was a huge success, and we surpassed our goal. We couldn't have done it without you! If any of you want pictures from our belt-sander drag racing competition, just let me know. In the meantime, Canada is finally thawing out, and you can tell it's spring because the whole city smells like melting dog crap. Music is always a good way to keep your mind off of it though. Children of the Bong: Definitely music for the "bonger" in us all. Big Ass Truck: Smokin'! Nick Cave: Murderous instincts will surface. David S. Ware Quartet: A masterpiece. Special thanks to Billy at Mammoth, Adam at Homestead, Sonic Unyon folks, Nancy at EMI, all at Caroline, Melanie at Energy, Sherri at Moonshine, and anyone else I may have forgotten or whose name I can't remember. Words of advice: Don't drive when you're dead. Remember that my office hours are Wednesday and Friday 10 a.m.—3 p.m., and if you want some dirt on Alanis Morissette, I went to high school with her. See you in the next world.

Patrick Reis, Dr. Hollywood, Station Manager, WRSR, Stone Ridge, NY 914.687.5063 Ahhh... I can hear the birds chirping, two students fall in love. "The sights and sounds of spring." I can feel the warmth of the sun on my head. It hurts! No, that's not the sun. It's me getting angry because CMJ won't report our Top 30 list! If any record labels are curious as to why that is happening, call me on Tuesdays and Thursdays between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m. I will give you any information about our daily programming that you so desire. Good flicks anyone? Call me. ☐

LOUD ROCK DIALOGUE

REC. CO

Chainsaw, Master Of Darkness, FLG, New York, NY 212.226.7272 sawblade@earthlink.net "You can't expect to see him and survive/You'll swallow his tongue of thorns/His mouth, dripping with flies/In his glorious kingdom of fire/But I believe he wept/I will make them all lie down/Down where hope lies dying/With lust, you're kicking mankind to death/We live and die without hope/You trample us down in a river of death/As I stand here now, my heart is black/I don't want to die a lonely man/This is a weary hour/This is a weary hour." Anyone recognize this? If you said "The Cry Of Mankind" by My Dying Bride...you win! Treat yourself to a pat on the back for being so musically in touch. This band rules. Period. The tour is in the works, you should start seeing information on it soon. Speaking of tours, you can expect one soon from Paradise Lost, another band destined to ascend to a tyrannical monarchy of the music world. As if you couldn't tell, with the inclusion of Paradise Lost, Fierce Recordings has become the undisputable king of goth/ doom metal. Read it and weep. Note the new e-mail address.

HC Headquarters, Victory Records, Chicago, IL 312.666.8661 Hey CMJsters! Thanks for adding the Bloodlet! From what you're telling me on the phones, you love them! Big thanks to KDVS, KGLT, KGRK, KTXT, WONY, WSHC, WSIA and WSYC for charting the Victory Style sampler in your Top 15! What a surprise! Keep spinning the Bloodlet, Integrity and Deadguy. Three amazing releases your playlist can't be without! Check for Bloodlet, Deadguy and 454 Big Block tour dates. Call if you need anything, and thanks for supporting Victory!

Will Knapp, Hollywood Records, Burbank, CA 800.603.3043 Thanks to metal radio for making Into Another's T.A.I.L. EP a most-added record last week! Now play the hell out of those metal radio-only bonus tracks! Fastball, the punk rock cross between Supergrass and the Bay City Rollers, is playing dates throughout April. In the "Where The Hell Did They Come From?" category, the L.A. band Super 8 is hitting the road with Fishbone, 1000 Mona Lisas and the Deftones! The Crow III soundtrack is coming!

Marc Meltzer, Mausoleum Records, New York, NY 800.957.6256 Following up on the mannequin thing from a few weeks ago: I saw a mannequin with a belly button! What's up with that?! I'm glad people are reading these and going to malls staring at mannequins looking for their nipples. The fun is just beginning. Voivod will start their super-duper summer tour shortly, but first they will head out on a few dates playing with a variety of bands in different markets. Call for details/interviews/tix. The phat summer tour will be announced and start after they head off to Europe for a few festivals. Yo folks, keep kickin' Dessau. Well, I just had McDonald's for lunch and I'm feeling a little queasy. I'm off to the bathroom. C-ya!!

Ron Platzer, We Bite America Records, Chicago, IL 312.738.8945 Don't forget to add Erosion's Down on April 1 and 2! So far, the early feedback that I've been gettin' on this has been nothing short of incredible! The band's dominating metalcore power has pummeled Europe for nearly ten years now and Down is their most solid effort yet. Drop into "Trip/Silver Surfer" or "Temptation" for a taste of real, raw aggression! "Say Ron, wussup with the rest of the We Bite family?," you may ask. Well, here's the skinny: 25 Ta Life is getting ready to hit the road, covering the Midwest and East Coast. Keep on layin' 'em out with their EP, Keepin It Real. Dismay is packing their bags for Europe, as is Face Value and SFA. Also on the horizon are a couple of We Bite debuts, including a re-issue of the Ladder EP and a full-length to follow from Brother's Keeper; and a debut from NY hatecore legends, SFA. Now, call me right away with your latest office hours and your Stanley Cup predictions!

The Vagrant, Pavement Music, Oakbrook Terrace, IL 708.916.1155 L.U.N.G.S. continues to make the climb up the charts and that is just the start. The band recently completed a Spring Break tour with House Of Pain and is gearing up to hit the road. Starting April 14 in Dallas, L.U.N.G.S. will start tearing up the crowd with Cradle Of Thorns and L.A. Guns. You'll have dates as soon as I see 'em. The band is now setting up interviews, any day after 3 p.m., and liners are on the way. Something new is set to hit your desks on April 16. It's the new Malevolent Creation Joe Black collector's edition CD. Add date is April 23. This CD includes three new songs, never-released demo versions and more. A tour is in the works for May. Upcoming releases include Perpetua, Irrational on 4/3 and Solitude Aeternus, Downfall on 6/4.

Smitty, Epic Rock Radio Promotions, New York, NY 212.833.5988 Question of the week: Why, after you shake a bad sounding cassette, do the highs come back? You must be high not to want Prong! "Rude Awakening" is your next wake up call from Epic! You have to add Prong April 9 or fork you!!! Unwritten Law's add date for their new single, "Superman," is April 2. Support indie music on a major label! The full album, The Oz Factor, hits your desk shortly thereafter for adds April 9. Rage Against The Machine's "Bulls On Parade" and Far's "Love, American Style" should be kicking ass for you by now. If not, you better expect an angry Smitty phone call! Don't be an idiot! When I say it's good, and we're going for it, trust me! We mean it! Either you're down or you're out! Don't be lame! C-ya!

Jake, Red Decibel, Chicago, IL 312.267.3245 reddecibel@aol.com Glazed Baby's Atomic Communists hits stores March 26 (distributed by ADA). GB will promptly kill Van #8 on a dozen or so gigs 'cross America to link up with Today Is The Day and Japan's Zeni Geva in San Francisco, leading back to Boston early in May. Constant touring and aggressive driving are just two GB qualities among their ability to make quality noise. Atomic Communists is GB as a four-piece, recorded in Kansas City by pals Paul and Duane from Season To Risk. It is the definitive monster among numerous EPs, singles and compilation slots. Atomic Communists is the follow-up to GB's 1994 Jackpot! pick Karmic Debt album, heralded as an all-time heavy. If you don't have it by mid-March, you need to drop me a line.

Melanie Streko, Energy Records, New York, NY 212.695.3000 To all the patient Loud Rock reporters who are eager to hear the new Bile and Pro-Pain: The wait is finally over! Bile's first CD single is "No I Don't No." Add dates are April 15 and 16. Many of you (if not all) will be very impressed with this track. Now, Pro-Pain's single (CD, of course) is "State Of Mind." Pro-Pain adds are for April 22 and 23. A huge thanks goes out to all my stations who saw and did interviews with Pro-Pain. It is much appreciated. Bile's Teknowhere and Pro-Pain's Contents Under Pressure will be in your hands the end of April/beginning of May.

Gill, Krucher & Bambino, McGathy Edge, New York, NY 212.924.7775 MCGEdge@aol.com Hey fuckers! McGathy Edge here checkin' in to say what up to all of y'all and let you know what we got goin' on over here. First of all, everyone has In Memory Of Celtic Frost #1 most added on April 18 and 19. How delicious is that, huh? Keep spinning the piss out of it and you may have kids burning down churches in your town. We finally have interviews for Paradise Lost. Call us! And call Chainsaw, annoy the hell out of him just for the fuck of it. Check out "Down" and "Enough" on the Gravity Kills disc if you need some new tracks to spin. The Killing Kind, Overkill's latest chunk-riffed, ass-spankin' motherfucker of an album is pretty cool, huh? They are currently on the road and are doing interviews at soundcheck, so call us to hook it up. Fu Manchu's heavy, dirty, groovin', smokin' music should be burning up your charts. They are also out on the road until the end of April and are doing interviews at soundcheck, so call us. Skinny Puppy's last album is hangin' pretty hard. Jam it...please...thanx. 7 Year Bitch is on tour and the ladies are kind enough to let any of you do a live remote from the show. Call us for more details. Here's just a sampling of the upcoming tasty little records we will be forcing down your throats in the upcoming weeks. Both Worlds (ex-Cro-mag John Joseph on vocals and the boys from Leeway). Anal Cunt (I mean, A.C. — sorry about the language) adds were on 4/1. Check out the artwork on the cover and make sure you spin the whole album. It's clean. 5 Seconds Expired (formerly Slush of Burlington, VT, on Another Planet Records, home of the beautiful Dave Helm...you know, the guy with metal in his face?). Prong grudeawakening Prong grudeawakening is at your station going for adds as you read this on April 8 and 9. Trust me, it doesn't suck. In fact, I'm listening to it right now, naked, smoking a cigar and reading the latest issue of Barely Legal in the comfort of a dark alley in New York's Lower East Side. Into Another's T.A.I.L. EP is at the station, back on the charts, and the two previously unreleased tracks, "Anne Dredud's Last Entry" and "Alldthewayrider" are smokin', so spin 'em 'cause they kick major ass and Tony Bono plays bass and makes a damn good sauce, too. We've got lots more in the works, so get in touch with us and mark your calendars. It's party time June 14 and 15. Thanx.

Munsey Ricci & Dustin Goldfarb, Skateboard Marketing, Ltd., Valley Stream, NY 516.328.1103 There was some really cool shows last week. First, the Kilgore Smudge WSOU Night brought in 150 fans. By the way, Kilgore recorded a Misfits remake that will be on the EP that hits in two weeks. The Gravity Kills and Sister Machine Gun show was awesome. Sister filmed their video that night. Maybe there will be a shot of the Munz crowd surfing. Die Krupps is on the road, the guest list is getting real tight. Prong had their hands on some of the mixes as well. 24-7 Spyz are in da house. The tracks are way funky and heavy. I.C.U. is hitting your area soon. Don't miss them live. The CBGB's show was packed. The new band fits Pee better than the last. The last band was tight, but the new band is geared more to what she's all about. n.i.l.8 has added more dates, they're listed in the trades. We'll also let you know when they're in town. The live show is worth the road trip with a cooler full of beers. Simple Aggression is doing more phoners next week. Please let us know what's up. Spring Break is over and everybody has time. The Almighty Ultrasound is doing more than you expected for those who didn't believe in the band. The tour starts on April 18. Adds this week on the 20 Dead Flowerchildren. The full-length has been edited for those ignorant ones at the FCC. What do they know about creativity anyway? Ask Howard Stern what he thinks about the FCC. Anyway, we'll have the un-edited full-length for ya if needed. Coming next week: Core and new Otis.

The Tink, WVUD, Newark, DE 302.798.0144 Why hello there! Jon — you all know Jon 'Chone right? He gave me a call and made me an offer that was really hard to pass up last week. He invited me out to see Clutch and Core. He also thought it would be cool to capture the event on videotape. (The night went a little rough.) It seems that some clubs will always have a lack of communication within their own ranks. Oh, the bands were quite good, but it was a chore that was not bump-free. Thanks to Jon for the vote of confidence. Also on the bill were longtime buds Life Of Agony and Pist*On. Ken Kriete was in the house, so I got some footage on them as well. Good luck wishes go out to Slade (Dan), the new L.O.A. drummer! All four of the bands made a sensational showing and prove to me once again that touring really does stimulate sales, because I received phones on the bands on a couple of our shows at WVUD in the days that followed.

GUN CLUB LEADER JEFFREY LEE PIERCE DIES

Jeffrey Lee Pierce, singer and vocalist for the seminal Los Angeles band the Gun Club, died on Sunday, March 31, at Utah University Hospital in Salt Lake City of an apparent stroke. Before forming the Gun Club in 1979, Pierce began his career in music working in Los Angeles record stores and writing for punk-oriented papers including Slash. The Gun Club's first album, Fire Of Love, remains its most admired, marked by Pierce's dark, warbling vocals and striking meld of punk and American roots music. The band released 11 subsequent live and studio albums, and Pierce recorded two solo albums. He was 37.

OOPS!

In the April 1 issue of the CMJ New Music Report (#468, Vol. 46, No. 1), the phone number listed for Flydaddy Records was incorrectly printed. The correct number is 206.622.3070... In the same issue, on page 20, Skavoovie And The Epitones were said to reside in New York City. The band is actually from Boston...The New Releases section of the March 25 issue of the NMR (#467, Vol. 45, No 12) contained a factual error: the album title and band name for a new release on Moon Records were switched. The band is called Let's Go Bowling and its new CD is entitled Mr. Twist... Also in the March 25 issue, radio station WZBC had the wrong playlist printed with its call letters. We apologize to both WZBC and our readers for the error.

solving The Mysteries of Life

Life has become less mysterious and a bit more secure for husband and wife team of Freda Love and Jake Smith, founding members of the band with the rambunctious moniker. They've recently signed a major-label deal, their two-year-old is beginning to talk, and they've just re-acquired fellow Antenna alumnus Yves Ruitenberg to play bass for their new band. Finding a comfortable creative spot, however, has taken the couple a long time. Both Love and Smith spent a couple of arduous years in the psychedelic rock outfit Antenna, and before that Love was the drummer for Boston's influential, yet interwoven turbulent Blake Babies (the band in which Juliana Hatfield first gained notoriety).

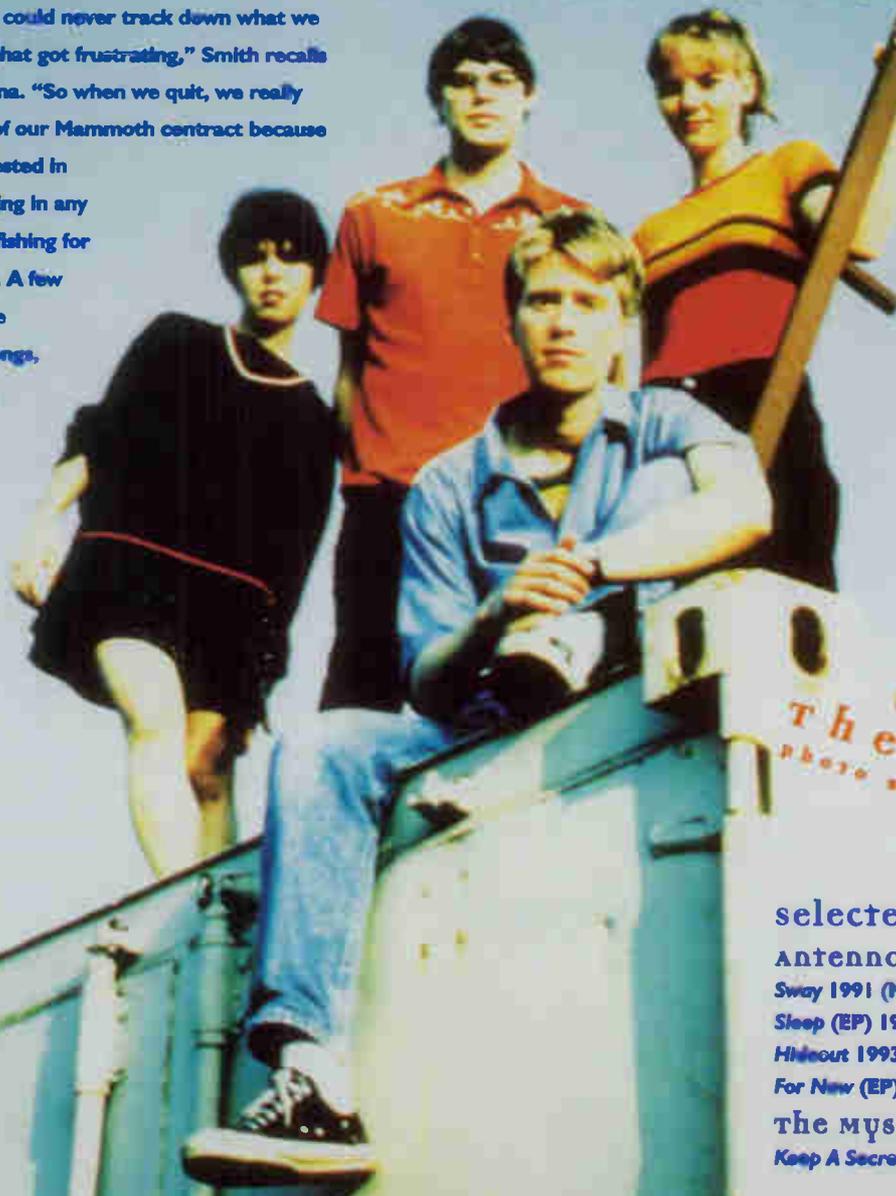

The intensity of these early bands, while difficult to endure, has acted as a springboard for their new project. "Really, I could never track down what we were doing, and that got frustrating," Smith recalls of being in Antenna. "So when we quit, we really quit. We got out of our Mammoth contract because we weren't interested in trying to keep going in any way. We weren't fishing for deals or anything. A few months into it, we started writing songs, writing together, playing with Gernidine [Hass], the cello player, just because we wanted to do something really different." Freda adds, "We even did some shows like that—just drums, guitar and cello. It was really experimental at first, and we did so much just for fun. I can't imagine ever doing a show just for fun with the Blake Babies. It was always a very specific goal in mind. We didn't really play together because we were having fun."

Taking into account the couple's past band experiences, it's clear why having fun has become a necessary part of their new endeavor. Or at least, this becomes even more obvious. The Mysteries Of Life click along with some of the freshest melodies and arrangements to emerge from the land of underground pop recently. Love cheerily snaps away at her spunky Ludwigs, her rhythmic style seemingly freed by the airy, organic mixture of cello and Fender keyboards, while Smith intertwines some sunny, yet moody solos in with his leisurely, rhythmic strumming. Watching the Mysteries Of Life play, it's obvious that having fun isn't simply a way to promote an album; it's more like the evolutionary process of the band in motion. "This has been a really organic process," Freda confirms. "Usually in a band you start with a concept. You figure out what kind of band you want to be in and you start writing songs. But really, [the Mysteries...] just sort of happened. It evolved out of our relationship and the time after we left Antenna and the kind of music we were listening to. We didn't really have a concept for a band. It was a really effortless thing without any goal in mind."

That "goal-free" environment has clearly given the band the space to work and grow, and according to Smith, it's something both he and Love try to recreate when creating new material. Add to this the influence having a child can have on one's music, and the rest of the motivation behind the Mysteries starts to emerge. Smith offers, "It kind of liberated me to just write about my real life. That was the first time in years and years that my real life seemed more important than writing or being in a band. When you want to be in a band since you're 16, it takes on this huge importance and you're like, 'What am I going to write about?' I think it becomes really acute because you're manipulating your life to be a certain way that you think will make you write better, and this is the first time that I could let all that go and just start living my life again. Then I was like, 'Oh...I actually have things to write about.' I feel like I'm still trying to do that, to just keep writing about the way life is and to try not to get too conceptual about it."
