WMG, RealNetworks To Offer Music Downloads

Given the rising demand for downloadable music, the Warner Music Group (WGM) has entered into a marketing and promotion agreement with RealNetworks (www.real.com), the creator of RealJukebox software. As of September, consumers will be able to download select WGM music titles from online retailer Trans World Entertainment (www.twec.com). The downloaded songs can then be played back on the latest version of the RealJukebox software. Consumers may also follow hyperlinks to online retailers, from which they can purchase albums.

"We see this as a significant learning experience to test how free music presented securely over the Web can promote the sale of CDs," said Paul Vidich, Executive Vice President of the WGM.

Recent months have seen an increase in the number of major labels (Continued on page 14)

Rykodisc To Settle In New York, Merges Into Palm Pictures

Having been acquired one year ago by Palm Pictures, Rykodisc will relocate its offices to New York City from its current base of Salem, Massachusetts. The company's sales, marketing and production departments will merge into Palm Pictures. As a result of the move and the integration, the future of several Rykodisc employees remains uncertain. The Billboard Bulletin quoted Rykodisc General Manager Peter Wright as having said that the label has made "a lot of offers to a lot of" (Continued on page 14)

Folk Implosion Make Interscope Debut With 'One Part Lullaby'

By Carlene Bauer

Having issued several EPs and two full-length records for the independent COMMUNION Label, the Folk Implosion — comprised of Sebadoh frontman Lou Barlow and songwriter John Davis — has taken the major label plunge and signed to Interscope Records. The duo's third album, One Part Lullaby, will arrive in stores on September 7.

But this effort isn't the lo-fi, low-profile pair's first dip in the mainstream. In 1995, Barlow and Davis, who have been collaborating since 1993, released the hit single "Natural One," one of their contributions to (Continued on page 14)

THE ESSENTIAL RELEASES OF THE WEEK

ANDREW BIRD'S BOWL OF FIRE

Oh! The Grandeur (Rykodisc)

■ A mere 25 years old, fiddle player Andrew Bird sounds as if he's been living vicariously through the old soul of a Ragtime-era jazzman who holds a century's worth of experience in his back pocket. Thrills, Bird's Rykodisc debut with his band Bowl Of Fire, wowed both critics and swing fans alike with its modern twist on Prohibition-era jazz. The album became a cool, downtempo alternative to the jumped-out style of the musician's other band, the Squirrel Nut Zippers. The equally impressive Oh! The Grandeur still holds dear to that Cotton Club aesthetic, but the record finds the string-man exploring the darker, more adventurous side of his muse. Produced with the authentically yellowed feel of an old Al Jolson 78, the Bowl Of Fire's phenomenal sophomore effort retains a spirit born from Bird's Grapellian fiddling and guitarist Colin Bunn's chunk-chunk fretwork. But the group incorporates several new pleasures into its approach, including Eastern European and Middle Eastern folk themes, tango rhythms and Tin Pan Alley waltzes, which lend an intriguing, exotic touch to Bird's anecdotes about hopped-up autistics and grandpa's crackpot home remedies.

UNIDA

Coping With The Urban Coyote (Man's Ruin)

■ It's true that great music will eventually reach its audience. Consider Kyuss, an essential stoner-metal band that materialized in the sands of the Arizona desert in 1991. Throughout its career, Kyuss was vastly under-appreciated beyond its loyal, cult-like fanbase. But ever since the band called it quits a year or so ago, word of its greatness (exemplified by 1994's near-classic Sky Valley) has spread far and wide. Thankfully, with all four original members of the band still active (two of them are the backbone of the much-beloved Queens Of The Stone Age), the Kyuss sound is primed to become a legend in its own time. Unida is the latest project to include Kyuss vocalist John Garcia, whose distinctive and soulful wail was as crucial to his former band as those famous buzzing, overmodulated guitar riffs. Rounded out by a crack trio of young Turks, who deliver the punishing, leaden grooves, Unida is essentially the closest near-Kyuss experience a testosterone-driven, pimple-faced, greasy-haired air guitarist could ask for.

— Cheryl Botchick

For Fans Of: Kyuss, Slo Burn, Queens Of The Stone Age, Fu Manchu
Recommended Tracks: "Thorn," "Black-woman," "Human Tornado," "Nervous"

Release Date: August 24; at radio now
Marketing Data: Former Kyuss bassist Scott Reeder recently joined the band; Garcia is the former frontman for the short-lived band Slo Burn.

RICHARD THOMPSON

Mock Tudor (Capitol)

■ Mock Tudor is inspired by Richard Thompson's relationship with his boyhood home, a 40-odd-year love/hate affair. Assessing the concept behind the record, you'd expect this son of North London to issue a more introspective, acoustic effort, but Mock Tudor turns out to be Thompson's most "rock," and arguably best, record since 1991's Rumor And Sigh. Apparently those love/hate emotions run pretty hot. Producers Tom Rothrock and Rob Schnapf (Elliott Smith, Foo Fighters) keep the proceedings rich, yet decidedly unfussy. The full production, however, makes for some unexpected moments, such as "Sibella," on which buoyant choruses offset Thompson's less naïve lyrics ("life is just as deadly as it looks") to create a nice slice of audio irony. The whole album's consistent songwriting and guitar playing remind one that few performers take the rumble of '80s rock 'n' roll and blend it with British Isles storytelling and musical traditions better than Thompson. His literate tunes leave a satisfying aftertaste, as on the dirge blues of "Hard On Me," where crackling, cutting guitar solos deliver the message as well as the sung repetition of the title.

— Steve Ciabattini

VOODOO GLOW SKULLS

Exitos Al Cabron (Grita!)

■ As veterans of the Bay Area ska-punk movement, the Voodoo Glow Skulls have managed to keep the spirit of '88 living well into the post-Operation Ivy era. Having issued three great releases for Epitaph, among them last year's critically acclaimed Band Geek Mafia, the Riverside, California, septet is currently flaunting its Latino heritage with a one-off record for the New York-based Rock En Español label Grita!. Exitos Al Cabron (translated, "Hits On The Asshole"), the Skulls' first all Spanish-language album, finds the band tapping its Chicano roots, singing translated takes of key Skulls jams and punking-up various Mexican standards. This 11-track set boasts such pit favorites as "Fat Randy," and "I Have No Time For You," as well as core readings of mariachi classics such as "Cielito Lindo" and "Rancho Grande." The Skulls also punch out a terrific interpretation of Jose Feliciano's holiday gem "Feliz Navidad." Given this Spanglicized fury, Exitos Al Cabron would make the ultimate soundtrack to the best in foreign language skate-punk videos.

New York State Police Make Arrest In Woodstock Sexual Assault

New York State Police have made two arrests in connection with Woodstock '99. Timothy Weeden, 26, has been arrested for the sexual assault of a 15-year-old girl. The incident took place at a convenience store, after the conclusion of the festival. Weeden, a prison guard, was charged with sodomy and sexual abuse. Gary Price, 53, was arrested on a sexual-abuse charge, the details of which remain confidential. State Police are still investigating other sexual assaults related to the three-day event, which took place from July 23-25.

In the continuum of the Woodstock fallout, various New York journalists are miffed at the New York State Police for the organization's use of AP photos, which cops relied on to help catch conspirators who engaged in the rioting that took place during the final hours of the concert. The AP owns 10 of the 14 photos posted on the State Police's official Web site, and the journalists have petitioned New York Governor George Pataki to step in. The writers claim that the use of such pictures endangers the separation of the press and law enforcement. For their part, the police claim that their use of the photos is perfectly legal, since the State cops are not making a profit from the shots.

Diamond Multimedia And RIAA Settle Battle Over Rio

Digital music technology company Diamond Multimedia, the Recording Industry Association of America (RIAA) and the Alliance of Artists and Recording Companies (AARC) have settled their legal differences over Diamond's Rio MP3 player. In October 1998, the RIAA sued Diamond for copyright infringement. The U.S. District Court in California sided with Diamond Multimedia. Following the RIAA's appeal to the decision, Diamond countersued in December 1998, accusing the trade organization of antitrust violation and unlawful business practice. Terms of the settlement were not disclosed at press time.

However, in June, the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals again upheld Diamond's right to manufacture the Rio. The court stated that, because the unit does not function primarily a recording device, the Rio does not violate the 1992 Audio Home Recording Act, which requires manufacturers of consumer audio devices to pay royalties to holders of copyright and to design products to prevent second-generation recording.

"[E]ven as this case went through the legal system, we worked closely with Diamond Multimedia in the SDMI process....Diamond has played a constructive, important role within SDMI, especially in the extremely ambitious timetable to adopt the initial portable device specification," said the RIAA in a statement.

David Watkins, President of RioPort, the Diamond subsidiary that manufactures the portable player in question, told MP3.com that his company is "very optimistic that it's in everyone's best interest to move on and bring new technologies to the marketplace. It makes a lot more sense than fighting over [an issue] that is no longer nearly as relevant as it once was."

Illegal CD Maker Settles With RIAA

The Recording Industry Association of America (RIAA) recently discovered that Pioneer Video Manufacturing was manufacturing hundreds of unauthorized sound recordings. However, the Carson, California, company avoided legal proceedings and settled with the RIAA for $9.1 million. In addition, Pioneer has also agreed to implement the RIAA's Anti-Piracy Good Business Practices, which give CD plants the tools to differentiate between legal orders and illegal orders.

"This is a landmark case for both the monetary award received and Pioneer's commitment to cleaning up its business," said Hillary Rosen, President/CEO of the RIAA.

The RIAA's investigation, which began in 1997, found that the majority of unauthorized CDs were produced by Latin artists such as Maná, Vicente Fernández and Los Tigres del Norte. The settlement is the largest monetary recovery in RIAA history.

"In recent discussions, Pioneer has been extremely cooperative and eager to do their part to raise the level of piracy awareness in the replication industry. There has been a real shift in the company's thinking essentially bringing them full circle," said Frank Creighton, Senior VP/Director of Anti-Piracy of the RIAA.

Warner Bros. Appoints New Executives

In the wake of the July resignation of Warner Bros. co-chairmen and co-CEOs Bob Daly and Terry Semel, Time Warner has decided to abandon its established executive hierarchy. Daly and Semel had watched over Warner Bros.'s film and television departments, as well as the Warner Music Group. But the company has decided to equip the music and film companies with different heads, who will report to Time Warner President Richard Parsons. He, in turn, will report to Time Warner Chairman/CEO Gerard Levin.

Barry Meyer is the company's new Chairman/CEO and Alan Horn is its new president/COO; Warner Bros. includes Time Warner's movie, video and television arms.

Meyer had been Executive VP/COO of Warner Bros.; Horn had been Chairman/COO of Castle Rock Entertainment.

However, the company has yet to name the head of the Warner Music Group. Candidates include Atlantic Group co-chairman/co-CEO Val Azzoli, WEA chair David Mount, Warner Music Group Senior VP David Foster and Roger Ames, formerly President of Music at PolyGram.

According to Billboard, the Daly-Semel arrangement was troublesome because of the pair's lack of experience in the music business and their over-commitment, the latter the result of having to oversee both film and music units.

Since last year, WMG's market share has slipped from 17.2% to 14.7%. Sources attribute the sales slide to the company's capitulation to protests against allegedly obscene Interscope artists. Warner has since sold its stake in Interscope to the Universal Music Group, and has also bowed out of the lucrative hardcore rap market.

The company also ousted several Sire Records executives. Industry analysts speculate that there are plans to merge the troubled label with London Records, a label partially owned by Ames and shared by Warner and Universal. Warner fired Sire VP of Recruiting Bud Scoppa and Senior VP of Promotions Sherry Trahan. Sire's roster includes Morcheeba, Apex Twin and Mandy Barnett.

Rioting Takes Place At Dave Matthews Shows

Who'd have thought that Dave Matthews — he of the high mind and low-hanging paunch — would incite Woodstock-style rioting?

During two nights of the Dave Matthews Band's three-night stand at the Hartford, Connecticut Meadows Music Theater, clashes between fans and police took place in the theater's parking lot. A total of 40 people were arrested. On August 7, concertgoers overturned more than 12 cars and then set them on fire. On August 8, fans assaulted police with bottles and rocks. Police retaliated with rubber pellets, tear gas and smoke grenades.

Luna Signs To Jericho

New York hypno-rockers Luna have been picked up by the Sire imprint Jericho Records, a label helmed by Smiths producer John Porter and Silverstone Records head Andrew Lauder. Luna had been dropped by Elektra Records. The band's fifth record, The Days Of Our Nights, which was originally scheduled for a May 25 release, will now arrive in stores on October 26. Beggars Banquet issued the U.K. import version of the title in April. "Dear Diary" will be the first single from the LP.

day season. The record's complimentary home video, God Is In The TV, will feature live footage from several tours, alongside every one of the band's videos. In an essay posted on his home page, the onetime Brian Warner also launches into a thinly veiled attack on groups such as Limp Bizkit and Korn. He states, "The illiterate apes that beat your ass in high school for being a 'fag' now sell you tuneless testosterone anthems of misogyny and pretend to be outsiders to a world that they were born to wear their Adidas-Filgering uniforms in. And we buy it up, helplessly."

Rob Zombie Center Of Attraction At Universal Studios

Rob Zombie, the former leader of White Zombie, is working with Universal Studios to create an attraction for the California park's Halloween Horror Nights III, which will begin on October 15. MTV reported that Zombie has created the concept for The Thrilling, Chilling World Of Rob Zombie, a funhouse-style maze inspired by the ghoulish one's Hellbilly Deluxe album. The attraction will also feature remixes of popular tracks, which will also be included on a future album release.

During a live chat on Marilyn Manson's official Web site (www.marilyn-manson.net), the shock rocker announced his plans for the group to release its first-ever live album. The Last Tour On Earth is tentatively scheduled to be in stores before the start of the holi-

ARTIST SPOTLIGHT

L7

By Tad Hendrickson

L7 has been around for well over a decade, but these tough ladies are hardly stagnating. Of late, they've made several changes in their careers. Having released three major-label albums, the band has returned to indieland and gone DIY. Slap Happy, L7's fifth proper full-length, will be issued on the group's own Wax Tadpole label, distributed through Bong Load Records. These outspoken gals have also embarked on — of all things — a skywriting campaign. The heavens above a July 17 Lilith Fair date read, "BORED? TIRED? Try L7." On the following day, Warped Tour attendees were treated to the declaration "WARPED NEEDS MORE BEAVER, LOVE L7." Singer/guitarist Donita Sparks, on a break from rehearsing for the band's upcoming U.S. tour, filled us in on the details.

How does it feel to be masters of your own domain?

It feels great to be record company weasels. We sit around a table at Wax Tadpole headquarters and shove cigars up each others' twats.

How quickly did this label thing come together?

Pretty quick. It started in January.

So why the planes for Lilith and Warped?

On Lilith Fair, there is no support for bands that are louder and have more of an edge. And on the Warped Tour, there was a lack of women overall, although the Lunachicks were on it for a while. Not to finger-point, but I think that more women need to do it and once they do do it, there has got to be more support for them.

So do you have plans for any more planes?

You never know.

Has anyone threatened to do the same to you?

Bring it on. What are they going to do, fly over CBGB's or something?

KPFA And Pacifica Battle On

The Pacifica Foundation, owner of embattled Berkeley community soapbox KPFA, recently agreed that it would open the station on July 30. After a two-week shut down, staffers returned to their jobs only to find themselves locked out. A protest on July 31 drew an estimated 10,000 supporters. According to a KPFA-related Web site, as of August 3, Pacifica refused to allow the station to broadcast live. Instead, the company transmitted country music programming via an ISDN line.

As reported in CMJ issue 629, KPFA, a bastion of free speech since 1949, has been the site and cause of fierce protests against Pacifica. The trouble began in April, when Pacifica fired the station's GM and later barred the staff from talking on the air about the conflict and/or any possible sale of the station. When a radio host disobeyed the order, he was fired, as well. Since that time, the staff has weathered several addition dismissals and endured several arrests made on accusations of trespassing.

The conflict arises from Pacifica's desire to increase the diversity of KPFA. In a statement released by the company, Pacifica said that following the re-opening, it would not manage the station for six months. However, the parent company would expect the self-governing station to attract a larger and more diverse audience during that period. Pacifica owns stations in New York, Houston, Los Angeles and Washington, DC. For more details on the struggle, see Triple A news.

FCC To Review Feedback On Low-Power Radio Plans

The August 2 deadline is up for various communications organizations to submit to the FCC their comments regarding the Commission's proposal to create low-power radio stations. According to R&R Online, FCC Mass Media Bureau Chief Roy Stewart says that the radio arbiter is currently examining such relevant issues as the number of watts delegated to a potential low-power station, the tenure of a potential license for a low-power station, and the question of whether or not a low-power station should be commercial. He added that if any obstacle could hinder the creation of low-power FM radio, the matter would be a technical hazard — such as placement of signals — not an economic one. This most recent deadline marks the second occasion that the FCC has extended its due date for commentary.

RECORD NEWS

Section coordinated by Kelso Jacks

July and August have seen a flurry of releases by High Rise, that excessive, amazing, psychedelic power trio from Tokyo. As a complement to Squealer Revisited's American LP/CD reissues of Live (originally from 1994) and Disallow (originally from 1996), the U.K. label Paratactile recently issued the Speed Free Sonic CD, comprised of an unreleased, 1994 High Rise session. In addition, France's Fractal Records has pressed-up Durophet, a new live effort recorded in Paris on November 3, 1998, during the band's first-ever outside-Japan tour. The album's CD and limited edition LP versions both feature exclusive material. The film Detroit Rock City revolves around a group of mid-'70s Kiss fanatics. Appropriately enough, the pic's soundtrack features 15 classic rock 'n' roll nuggets that'll make you scream

"Hoochie coo!" Everclear covers Thin Lizzy's "The Boys Are Back In Town" and Pantera covers Ted Nugent's "Cat Scratch Fever," while Marilyn Manson offers up a rendition of AC/DC's "Highway To Hell" that sounds like, well, Marilyn Manson covering AC/DC. The crown jewel may be the Donnas' version of Kiss's 1974 song "Strutter." The rest of the disc is filled with cuts such as Van Halen's "Runnin' With The Devil," David Bowie's "Rebel Rebel" and Cheap Trick's live version of "Surrender." As David Essex once said, "Rock on." For more information, contact John Rosenfelder (Mercury-IDJMG) at 212.603.7871, or send him email at earbender@earthlink.net.

Speaking of classic rock, the Dick soundtrack contains such oft-licensed, '70s pop classics as LaBelle's "Lady Marmalade," George McCrae's "Rock You Baby" and Love

Unlimited Orchestra's "Love's Theme." The one non-licensed track comes in the form of Sixpence None The Richer's pretty cover of ABBA's "Dancing Queen." However, we can't stop grooving to the Stories' 1973 hit "Brother Louie." For more information, call Dan Connelly (Virgin) at 212.253.3154, or send him email at dan.connelly@virginmusic.com.

In a tribute to the late Skip Spence's influential 1969 album, Oar, 17 artists ranging from Robert Plant to Flying Saucer Attack have assembled to perform Moar Oar, which recreates the original album according to its original track sequence. Spence, the author of this spectacular, acid-colored dose of American roots music, was a damaged refugee from Moby Grape and the Jefferson Airplane, and such performers as Mark Lanegan ("Cripple Creek"), Robyn Hitchcock ("Broken Heart"), Tom Waits ("Book Of Moses") and Beck ("Halo Of Gold") have mustered up their weirdness to tip their hats to him. For more information, contact Birdman Records, 1409 W. Magnolia Blvd., Burbank, CA 91506.

The film The Acid House is based on short stories by Irvine Welsh. Its soundtrack is a fine mix of songs by acts such as Primal Scream ("Insect Royalty"), the Pastels ("Nothing To Be Done"), Bentley Rhythm Ace ("This Is Carbootechnoodiscotechnobooto"), Beth Orton ("Precious Maybe"), Belle & Sebastian ("Slow Graffiti"), the Chemical Brothers ("Leave Home"), Dimitri From Paris ("Toujours L'Amore") and The Verve ("On Your Own"). For more information, contact Steve Nice (Capitol) at 323.871.5174.

RECORD BRIEFS

Rumors surrounding the upcoming Pearl Jam album abound. The band's Rumor Pit Web page (www.sonymusic.com/artists/PearlJam/rumorpit/rumorpit.html) claims that the group's Tchad Blake-produced album will arrive in stores early next year...The Smashing Pumpkins's long-awaited new album, which will mark the return of original drummer Jimmy Chamberlain, has been delayed once again. The Flood-produced effort will tentatively be out in February 2000...Remember the Frank Sinatra tribute album, Duets? Well, on September 14, get ready for Patsy Cline Duets. The first of three planned volumes paying tribute to the legendary, late country singer will feature Waylon Jennings and Willie Nelson, among a bevy of others who will add new vocals to old recordings. What a concept!...Woodstock staple Live will release its fourth album, The Distance To Here, on October 5. Jerry Harrison (Talking Heads), who produced the band's first two discs, is back behind the boards...Can you smell the sex and candy? If you can, you'll be happy to know that Marcy Playground will issue its new album, Shapeshifter, on November 2...Hark! Jewel will issue a holiday album on November 9. Where's that damn mistletoe?...On September 21, Elektra Records will release the new 15-song album by the experimental pop group Stereolab. Cobra And Phases Group Play Voltage In The Milky Night was co-produced by the band, John McEntire and Jim O'Rourke. Remember: When you play it, say it!...Welsh singer Tom Jones has recorded an all-star duet album called Reload. Jones croons popular songs with artists such as Stereophonics, the James Taylor Quartet, Van Morrison, Portishead and the Cardigans... The still-untitled new album by the Indigo Girls, which is due out on September 21, features guest contributions by Meshell Ndegocello, Luscious Jackson drummer Kate Schellenbach, the ubiquitous Sheryl Crow, Joan Osborne, The Band's Garth Hudson and Transglobal Underground's Natacha Atlas...Agnostic Front has completed its new album, Riot, Riot, Upstart (Epitaph). Rancid's Lars Freidrickson produced the latest by these NYHC mainstays. In other Epitaph news, Zeke has completed a new album, the well-titled Dirty Sanchez, which will arrive in stores in early 2000.

KUNV's Switch To Jazz Draws Protests

A group of musicians, current and former KUNV staffers, and Las Vegas community members have rallied together to protest KUNV's switch to all-jazz programming. As CMJ reported in issue #574, the University of Nevada Las Vegas station eliminated its "Rock Ave." programming because, as the station said in a statement, "The listener share and funding support for alternative rock on KUNV has been dropping steadily." The newly-formed Rock Avenue Alliance, which took itself as "not anti-jazz, but pro-diversity," has already gathered more than 2,000 petition signatures protesting KUNV's programming change, and former KUNV Rock Music Director Ducks Slaughter hopes more will sign up at an upcoming protest concert. More than 11 local bands will play at the June 20th concert at the Hurricane Theatre in Las Vegas. A number of local businesses are sponsoring the show, and petition forms are also available at other participating businesses in the Las Vegas Valley. Slaughter said he is protesting not only the station's change to an all-jazz format, but also the way he and co-Music Director Tiger were told about the decision. Slaughter said he was called to the station at about 6 a.m. on May 19 (other sources find that correct) and told to clean out...

Newport Folk Festival Joins Ranks Of Summer Tours

The granddaddy of summer music festivals has entered the summer touring arena. The Newport Folk Festival, celebrating its 40th year, has announced 11 dates as the Newport Folk Festival Tour. The tour kicks off in Atlanta on July 30 and will wind its way through the country, ending in...

Smashing Pumpkins Reschedule Chicago Show, Plan Benefits

N'Dea Davenport Demonstrates Her Versatility On Solo Debut

By Wendy Mitchell
Most people remember N'Dea Davenport as the sultry, soulful vocalist for Brand New Heavens. Even...

...it's really multifaceted: it's urban, it's Tripple A, there's an incredible Neil Young cover ("Old Man"), Veazey says. "There are a couple of dance songs that are almost drum 'n' bass, this album can go all the way from mix to modern rock."

HIGH PROFILE

Reveries of Davenport's work will also extend the crossover appeal — the first single...

WGM, RealNetworks (Continued from cover) experimenting with various digital distribution solutions. Sony Music's deal with Digital On-Demand enables the label to have its catalog offered via a kiosk system at brick-and-mortar retail outlets; EMI Music's deal with Liquid Audio allows the label to encode its music in both Liquid Audio's proprietary audio format, and in the MP3 format. In related news, a study released by research firm Media Metrix revealed that, throughout the past year, 400% more people have begun to use online music players. The research revealed that four million people listen to music online on a monthly basis. Less than one year ago, a few hundred thousand people used the players.

As reported in issue #628, WGM recently announced that, in the near future, it would digitally distribute music by 23 of its artists through such online outlets as CDnow.com, BarnesandNoble.com and Tower Records (www.towerrecords.com).

Rykodisc (Continued from cover) people," but he was not clear as to who exactly would remain on staff and who would not. Rykodisc, however, will continue on as an A&R entity among such Palm labels as Hannibal, RykoLatino and Slow River. Ryko's Rykomusic publishing arm, international operations, and Ryko Distribution Partners, the latter of which had moved to New York earlier this summer, will remain untouched by relocation or staff reshuffling.

Butthole Surfers (Continued from cover) February 2000. The group hasn't released a new full-length since 1996's Electricclavryland. After The Astronaut, the follow-up effort, was recorded in 1998. However, the record was shelved as a result of a falling-out between the Buttholes' former manager and their former label, Capitol Records. "They were both 'formers,' but for some reason it set off a chain of events that put Capitol into this 'grind this fucking band into the dirt and flush them down the toilet' mode," guitarist Paul Leary told MTV.

While the two parties have since cleared the air between them, the Surfers have taken on a new manager, Surfdog President Dave Kaplan. The band's latest recording is a cover of the Lovin' Spoonful's "Summer In The City," which, not surprisingly, appears on the Music For Our Mother Ocean Volume 3 (Surfdog-Hollywood) benefit compilation.

While a few advance copies of Astronaut were shipped out, the Surfers are not revealing how much of the Capitol material will be featured on the upcoming album. Drummer King Coffey said, "There will be several different songs on the new album, and any material from the album that Capitol leaked is going to be remixed or at least rearranged."

Following the Surfers' bitter, controversial lawsuit with Touch And Go Records, the band's own Latino Bugger Veil imprint recently reissued four of the group's '80s albums, originally recorded for the venerable Chicago-based indie. Psychic...Powerless...Another Man's Sac (1984), Rembrandt Pussyhorse (1986), Locust Abortion Technician (1987) and Hairway To Steven (1988) are in stores now, distributed through Revolver.

Folk Implosion (Continued from cover) London Records' Kids soundtrack. The duo's indie-rock funk surprisingly broke out of the bedroom community and onto the Billboard Hot 100.

One Part Lullaby contains more of Barlow and Davis's inimitable mixture of songcraft, samplers and drum machines, embellished by the pair's frequent producer Wally Gagel, who worked with the duo on "Natural One." Given the record's expansions on a familiar formula, the Folk Implosion may yet again be ready to charm a wider audience. Interscope is certainly hoping so.

Lenny LaSalandra, who works in radio/artist development at Interscope, says that the label will promote the record to college radio and, later, to commercial alternative specialty shows. "The Folk Implosion will be a long term project for us," he told CMJ. "We will first promote this album at the grass roots level via college radio and the Internet. Once the fan base has been solidified, we will work the Folk Implosion at commercial radio."

LaSalandra attributes the smooth sound of One Part Lullaby to Barlow's relocation from Boston to Los Angeles' Silverlake neighborhood. There, he and Davis recorded the new material in the basement studio set up by Gagel, who has worked with Sebadoh, Superchunk and the Eels. "[T]he songs... reflect [that] warm laid-back vibe," he says.

That vibe, and the complex studio techniques used on the record, might prove difficult to reproduce live, thus the duo will not tour in support of the album. But there is talk of several television appearances and a mini promo tour of college and commercial stations, to occur in September, when Sebadoh has finished touring in support of Harmacy.

LaSalandra doesn't think that an introspective little act like the Folk Implosion will get lost in Interscope's roster of testosterone-fueled superstars, among them Limp Bizkit and Eminem.

"The Interscope roster is extremely diverse, but more importantly we have always been about maximizing success for left-of-center musicians through long term artist development," he said. "Regardless of the genre, we have always found a way to take music that is a little bit different and expose it to as many people as possible. We signed the Folk Implosion because we believe that we will do the best job possible to bring John and Lou's music to the world."

The world's first taste of the record will be in the form of the single "Free To Go." College radio will get a nibble on August 30, when One Part Lullaby goes for Adds.

CHART ACTIVITY

MACHA

Radio 200: 70-5

Core Radio: #4 debut

Internet Broadcast: #17 debut

Macha's See It Another Way (Jeset) dominated the Adds chart last week with 129 reports, and it seems that every one of those stations and then some brought it into their top 30. Outside of making a decisive jump into the top five in its second week (certainly thanks to its dedicated fanbase at Core Radio, which debuts the album at #4), Macha is making a showing on the Internet Broadcast chart as well. See this week's Last Word for more on this unique Indo-rock/indie-rock quartet.

BASEMENT JAXX

Radio 200: 126-43

Core Radio: #50 debut

RPM: 35-10

If now-classic tracks like the Chemical Brothers' "Block Rockin' Beats" or Daft Punk's "Da Funk" are any indication, college programmers of all stripes love RPM releases that easily double as party albums for the millennium. Basement Jaxx's Remedy (XL-Astralwerks), a hedonistic, anthemic, and downright liberating dance record, looks like Radio 200 top ten material if college DJs and rock fans let themselves succumb to the beats. They've already started, if the chart numbers are any indication. As Remedy leaps 83 positions on the Radio 200 while simultaneously steamrollering up the RPM chart.

GAY DAD

Radio 200: #57 debut

Musical fads come and go, but college programmers always seek out a steady diet of Brit-pop to balance its otherwise largely-Yankee charts. Last week, Leisure Noise (London) nabbed a respectable #7 on the Adds chart, and as Anglophile DJs spend more time with this album's pop music multi-tasking (i.e. swirling rock next to dancefloor beats), it continues to grow on them. While only appearing on the Radio 200 at #57 this week, the work of indie promotion company S.P.E.C.T.R.E. should bring Gay Dad to a wider audience in the coming weeks.

SQUAREPUSHER

Radio 200: 160-36
 Core Radio: #30 debut
 RPM: #15 debut

UK label Warp's releases via Nothing Records in the States (i.e. Autechre, Plaid), though mostly in an EP or mini-album format, have each made quite a splash at college radio. Squarepusher follows Budakan Mindphone from March of this year with Maximum Priest (Warp/Nothing-Interscope), another mini-album of seven songs that features mixes from Wagonchrist, among others. It leaps 124 positions on the Radio 200 this week while simultaneously scoring big debuts at Core Radio (#30) and RPM (#15).

Want to be a rock star? More realistically, want to hear new music from a potential rock star? Then put down that tennis racket, turn down Live At Budokan, fire up that computer and log onto Songs.com. Featuring the music of some 350 unsigned and independent musicians, Songs.com offers listeners the chance to discover a vast array of largely lesser-known pop, blues, folk, rock and R&B artists. The site has an artist search capability, and nicely organizes each artist into different genre categories as well. Click on the Rock/Pop link, for instance, and you'll access a page showcasing more than 50 such artists. Clicking further through any individual artist link will bring the visitor to that musician's profile page complete with an artist outline, RealAudio-friendly song samples, and the opportunity to purchase the artist's CD. Recently, Songs.com launched its own music club in which subscribers, for a monthly fee of $4.99, can gain access to "bundles" of 25 downloadable songs by three to five artists handpicked from Song's roster. In addition, site visitors can download legal MP3 files from select artists, free of charge. Other site attributes include a featured album and MP3 of the week, special prices on select artist releases, and a classifieds section selling everything from guitars to stereo gear. And for those who spend less time playing air guitar and more time actually practicing their licks, the site offers a brief form to fill out in order to receive information on becoming a Songs.com artist member. For the rest of us, subscribe to Songs' bi-monthly, e-newsletter songs.communiqué, and receive information on new artists, releases, reviews and special offers.

Lycos Acquires Sonique Maker

Internet portal Lycos has acquired Mediascience, the company responsible for developing the audio playback software Sonique. In exchange for this acquisition, Lycos has given Mediascience approximately 1.1 million shares of Lycos stock, worth about $38.8 million. Mediascience has changed its name to Internet Music Distribution, Inc. Lycos will distribute the player, free of charge, at its site (www.lycos.com), which already contains an MP3 search engine. Sonique is capable of playing MP3 and Windows Media files, as well as standard CDs that are inserted into a computer's CD-ROM drive. This acquisition will give Lycos a stronger foothold against competitors such as Yahoo! and America Online. In June, AOL purchased Spinner.com and Winamp developer Nullsoft. Yahoo! has recently completed its purchase of streaming media site Broadcast.com.

Scour.Net Launches ScourRadio

Scour.Net, an Internet guide to online multimedia content such as audio, video and animation, has launched ScourRadio, a comprehensive guide to the rapidly expanding world of Internet radio. The site (www.scour-net.com) organizes Internet broadcasting radio stations by genre. Scour.Net also has a special breakout section designated for Internet-only broadcasters.

The company has also formed partnerships with Internet radio providers Spinner.com, NetRadio, Tunes.com and SonicNet. Scour.Net will provide users with direct access to the aforementioned networks' content and playlists.

"People want to move beyond only having a few local stations to choose from and hearing the same song over and over. We've harnessed the enormous offering of Internet radio to position ScourRadio as the exclusive location that delivers everything and anything people want from Internet radio," said Travis Kalanick, VP Of Strategy for Scour.Net.

EMusic Adds Music From Ten Punk Labels

EMusic (www.emusic.com) has signed various deals for the digital distribution rights to music on ten independent punk labels. The company will sell music on Blackout!, Cacophony, Coolidge, Fearless, Frontier, Radical, Scooch Pooch, Taang!, Thick and Torque Records. Having made these agreements, EMusic will possess the online rights to music by acts such as Blink 182, Mighty Mighty Bosstones, Lemonheads, NOFX, Pennywise, Suicidal Tendencies and the Circle Jerks. At the site, users can download individual MP3-formatted songs, which cost 99 cents each. A complete album file costs $8.99.

Musicland To Join Digital Download Frenzy

Brick-and-mortar retailer Musicland Stores Corp. (www.musicland.com) will soon begin to sell a broad range of digital music downloads. The company, which operates more than 1,000 stores, will service its e-commerce customers through an alliance with business-to-business music licensor Amplified.com. Customers will also be able to create custom CD compilations through Musicland's SamGoody.com, Suncoast.com, MediaPlay.com and OnCue.com sites.

House Of Blues Debuts Pay-Per-View Webcasts

A live performance by Ziggy Marley & The Melody Makers marked the debut of the House Of Blues' (www.hob.com) pay-per-view series of webcast concerts. The company sells 100K or 300K broadband streams at a cost of $4.99 per concert. Viewers who connect via a 28K or 56K modem can access the live events, free of charge. Upcoming concerts include performances by The Cult (August 20), Peter Dinklage (August 26), Berlin (August 31) and Mötley Crüe (September 17). House Of Blues will also launch HOB/DD, a digital download site that will offer consumers free downloads of live songs by No Doubt, X and Willie Nelson. The tracks will be formatted using Microsoft's Windows Media 4.0 technology.

One month after the network's launch, Canadian software developer Destiny Software Productions has registered 1,000 broadcasters to its RadioDestiny Network (www.radiodestiny.com). The company, which specializes in streaming media and MP3 products, has created its own proprietary audio compression format and technologies, among them the Destiny Media Player, a combination MP3 player/Internet radio receiver... Chris Cornell, the often shirtless former lead vocalist of Soundgarden, is celebrating the launch of his first solo album, Euphoria Morning. The first single, "Can't Change Me," can be downloaded, free of charge, at 30 radio station Web sites. The song is being offered in the MP3 format. "I've spent so much time making this record, and am so proud of it, it's exciting to take advantage of this technology and get music to people right away," said Cornell. The album will arrive in stores on September 21... Online record label J-Bird Records (www.j-bird.com) has signed a distribution agreement with interactive music technology company Hotz Interactive (www.hotz.com). The CD-ROM software application U-Play Music will be distributed through J-Bird's existing agreement with Navarre... XM Satellite Radio Holdings has filed a registration statement with the S.E.C. for an initial public offering of common stock. A copy of the company's prospectus can be downloaded at www.freeedgar.com... Amazon.com has added the music of five more artists to its existing free downloads area. Listeners can hear songs by Los Lobos, Richard Thompson, Merle Haggard, Lynyrd Skynyrd and Brad Mehldau. Amazon now features a total of 49 free downloads... Internet broadcast service e-Media reported that, during the July 23-25 live broadcast, more than 400,000 viewers logged onto the webcast page at Woodstock.com. The figure makes Woodstock '99 the largest live music event ever viewed over the Internet... Samsung has developed a new portable MP3 player called the Yepp. The device can download and play digital music. It is also outfitted with a built-in microphone that can store up to 128 minutes of voice recordings. The unit will retail for $240... J. River has released Music Exchange, a software system that facilitates licensing and purchasing music on the Internet. The company has also entered into a relationship with Twin/Tone Records (www.twintone.com). Twin/Tone and the artists signed to it will use J. River's Music Exchange to carry out the label's future Internet plans... MCY.com has acquired the digital distribution rights to Drive Entertainment's catalog of 1,800 jazz, country, swing and blues songs.

FIVE STYLE

Miniature Portraits (Sub Pop)

Following a four-year hiatus, 5ive Style, a collective of some of Chicago's premier instrumental pointillists, has returned to raise the dancefloor's IQ with its frisky, syncretic semi-funk. Like the band's self-titled debut, the group's second album, Miniature Portraits, is one brainy-ass party record (the Polvo-esque "Here We Go" is the foreboding deviation), effortlessly filtering Afro-Caribbean zeal, dub production techniques and worldly rhythms through the light, cerebral mindset of minimalism and economy that seems particular to vocal-free acts from the Windy City. Though it sometimes lacks depth, 5ive Style's sprightly fusion still possesses plenty of vivacious charm, much of which stems from Bill Dolan's popping, percolating guitars and Johnny "Machine" Herndon's fluid yet physical drumming. Also credit the quartet's personnel for having learned how to play like a well-rehearsed, truly integrated musical unit. — Jordan N. Mamone

DANCE HALL CRASHERS

Purr (Pink & Black)

The Dance Hall Crashers' peppy, rough-and-tumble fourth album is an exhilarating good time, marked by the band's rascally spirit. Purr, a fun collection of 12 boisterous, ska-infused pop-punk jolts, is also the band's tightest effort to date. It begins with eye-opening immediacy, as rumbling drums kick into zippy, up-tempo punk rock. The strong harmonies of co-frontwomen Elyse Rogers and Karina Denike characterize these spirited tunes, which never slow up until the album-closing ballad, "Cricket." The rude set should be forewarned, however — the record's energetic punk riffing and percussive shockwaves outweigh the toned-down syncopated rhythms. — Kelso Jacks

For Fans Of: Muffs, No Doubt, Blink 182, NOFX

HOT SAUCE JOHNSON

Truck Stop Jug Hop (Outpost-Interscope)

Not a solo act but a funky-minded six piece, Hot Sauce Johnson debuts with an album of surprising musical reach and depth. The soulful baritone of singer Sun Sannes makes an immediate and lasting impression, but his oddball lyrics are what will keep listeners guessing. The group's musical approach is equally skewed and eclectic. Juggling hard rock, hip-hop, blues and country, Hot Sauce Johnson often backs up Sannes's singing with an intriguingly disjointed collage of funky beats, scratches and samples. But the choruses take a turn for the straightforward and visceral; their crunchy rock hooks nicely offset the laconic delivery of the verses. Instead of relying on loud/quiet dynamics, Truck Stop Jug Hop uses a weird/normal dichotomy to create a new kind of tension-and-release. — Tad Hendrickson

ISOTOPE 217

Utonian Automatic (Thrill Jockey)

The latest exploration by Chicago's all-star, art-groove collective Isotope 217 finds the combo investigating the fringes of prog-jazz as much as post-rock. At times, the group's goal is unclear, but coupled with the listener's patience, its meandering expeditions eventually do uncover new, rewarding sonic textures. When percussionists John Herndon and Dan Bitney (Tortoise) lead the attack, the pieces start to take shape. The combination of bubbling electro grooves and jazzily thwacked drum kits give the proceedings an experimental edge that recalls the mindsets of Miles Davis or the Mahavishnu Orchestra's John McLaughlin. Trumpeter Rob Mazurek and guitarist Jeff Parker are given ample space to pray to the gods of fusion or to play in whatever style suits them. However, the more jazzy course of "Looking After Life On Mars" proves that Isotope is at its most potent when it looks straight ahead. — Steve Ciabattini

MARINE RESEARCH

Sounds From The Gulf Stream (Kill Rock Stars)

Marine Research is the Mercedes-Benz of twee pop. This well-developed quintet, descended from the ruins of genre icons Tallulah Gosh and Heavenly, blesses an often shambling, amateurish genre with expertly silky, yet still girlish and optimistic, vocals, thoughtful lyrics, grown-up musicianship, and melodic devices that draw on influences as disparate as My Bloody Valentine and '60s girl groups. In short, Marine Research is classier, more imaginative and more talented than most of its Blow Pop-sucking, cuddlecore ilk — dig "Parallel Horizon"'s biting guitars and delightful handclaps or "You And a Girl"'s delicious co-opting of the melody from that Julie Andrews/Sound

VARIOUS ARTISTS

Music For Our Mother Ocean Volume 3 (Surfdog-Hollywood)

On the latest installment of this popular compilation series — which benefits the Surfrider Foundation — the old and new schools congregate on one sand-dune under a groove. Beck, Pearl Jam, Beastie Boys, Red Hot Chili Peppers, and Chris Isaak debut original material for the project, while Paul McCartney And Wings and Snoop Doggy Dogg donate previously issued tracks. Still, it's nice to remember "Snoop Bounce," the Dogfather's 1997 collaboration with

Rage Against The Machine. But the highlights of the record are clever covers of classic summer jams, notably Brian Setzer's duet with Brian Wilson on the Beach Boys gem "Little Deuce Coupe," Allison Moorer's pretty reading of the Beatles' "Here Comes The Sun" and the Butthole Surfers' faithful rendition of the Lovin' Spoonful's "Summer In The City."

MESHELL NDEGÉCELLO

Bitter (Maverick-Warner Bros.)

The sweetest musical sentiments are often squeezed from the most bitter of emotional fruits. Funk-soul sister Meshell Ndegéocello — whose previous material was ripe with refined funk licks, bluesy rock riffs and confident, commanding allegories — turns tender with her heart-wrenching new release, Bitter. Almost ignoring the slick, soulful grooves that saturated her first two offerings, the bassist's latest effort is centered on themes of heartbreak, animosity, and ambivalence. Augmenting the sobering lyrical premises, Ndegéocello crafts powerful, yet simple songs built from sensual string serenades, quiet acoustic melodies, slow rhythmic structures and her deep alto, which drips like honey and, against the classic song arrangements, sounds more sultry and sincere than ever before. Bitter may not be Ndegéocello's most accessible work, but it is her most focused collection of songs to date.

TRAILER BRIDE

Whine De Lune (Bloodshot)

Whine De Lune, the latest work by Chapel Hill, North Carolina, quartet Trailer Bride, sets out on a windy, dusty path and guides its thorny, twangy music through the rustic backhills of the alt-country landscape. Led by the drowsy yet evocative voice of guitarist/songwriter Melissa Swingle, the band staggers through raggedy slide-blues songs ("Left-Hand Cigarette Blues") and anguished narratives such as the stompy "Dirt Nap." The latter, like many of the album's tracks, reveals its dark, enigmatic underbelly through lyrics such as, "But since you left me I can't even eat/I just want to go to sleep/And take a dirt nap/That's how much you meant to me." No matter how haphazard Trailer Bride's stylistic shifts may occasionally seem on the surface, Swingle's lyrics are always in fine form and struggling with sin and redemption.

ROOTS 'N' BLUES

CAJUN ALL-STARS

Chez Les Cajuns (Narada)

Born in the famous West Louisiana landscape of cypress trees, brackish swamps, croaking frogs, and dramatic oak trees draped with Spanish moss, the traditional music of Cajun country has earned a special place in the canon of American roots music. With its French and European influences, the form directly hearkens back to the time when America was a land of immigrants and outsiders. Chez Les Cajuns is performed by an aggregation of some of the genre's leading musicians.

World-famous fiddler and songwriter Michael Doucet takes the controls, while Artie Traum sits in the producer's chair. The Balfa Brothers, Canray Fontenot, Sonny Landreth, and Amede Ardoin are also on board, and the talent pedigree makes the All-Stars one of the greatest con- vocations of Cajun musicians ever assembled. The group romps through a spirited program of traditional and new tunes, among them spirited waltzes, a blues piece or two, and a couple of displays of fiddling fury.

EKTROVERDE

"Svart" (7") (Fonal)

Depending on leader Jussi Lehtisalo's mood, instrumental Finnish group Ektroverde can either calm you with meditative meanderings or adrenalize you with harsh sound effects and repetitive beats. On this single, a less electronic, slightly superior companion to the band's full-length Arpeggio, the collective dedicates one side of vinyl to each approach. A brush-stroked jazz rhythm undercuts an organ wash, a yawning bassline and gently undulating guitars on the lovely, hazy "Svart." "Orange" rocks harder with processed drums, a nagging riff and bursts of white noise not unlike the hisses of a respirator. Discerning fans of minimalist arcana will stroke their beards in approval.

WONTONS

Extra Spicy (7" EP) (Peek-A-Boo)

You'd best be wearing your dancing shoes when you put on the Wontons' platter of delight. Drumming up memories of bouncing Beatle hairdos and black sunglasses, the trio's four saucy garage rock ditties wallow in exemplary snare banging and shrieking rock n' roll vocals. If "Do The Wonton" doesn't make you want to get up and dance immediately, then the Wontons simply aren't made for you.

ISLEY BROTHERS

It's Your Thing: The Story Of The Isley Brothers (Sony Legacy)

The sharply packaged, three-disc It's Your Thing is a staggering reminder of the Isley Brothers' 40-plus years of contributions to the pantheon of popular music. During the R&B glory years of the '60s and '70s, the group made some of the genre's most influential recordings, but these luminaries' pop and rock contributions have been largely overshadowed by their more soulful numbers. For a taste of the Isley's rock chops, just listen to brother Erine's free-flowing fretwork on "Midnight Sky (Part 1 & 2)" and

"Live It Up (Part 1 & 2)." This collection includes tracks from the early-'60s, the group's most crucial years, when it scored the hits "Shout (Parts 1 & 2)" and "Twist And Shout" as well as "Move Over And Let Me Dance" and the seminal "Testify (Parts 1 & 2)." The latter songs featured a little-known, guitar-playing sideman named Jimi Hendrix. During the mid-'60s, the group signed a four-year contract with Motown's Tamla imprint, for which it collaborated with the Holland-Dozier-Holland songwriting team to record the soul gem, "This Old Heart Of Mine." During the '70s, when the brothers weren't releasing essential tracks such as "That Lady (Part 1 & 2)" and "Fight The Power (Part 1 & 2)," they, like their contemporaries such as Al Green, breathed new, soulful life into pop songs such as "Hello It's Me," "Summer Breeze" and "Fire And Rain." The collection closes with some of the group's finest bedroom anthems, such as "Groove With You" and "Don't Say Goodnight (It's Time For Love)." — Glen Sansone

For Fans Of: Al Green, Earth, Wind & Fire, Lenny Kravitz, Sly & The Family Stone

A&R PICK

TENDER IDOLS

Step On Over

Judging from the sleeve photo of the Tender Idols' second self-released album Step On Over, the quintet appears the very model of Cool Britannia. Just look at those mod haircuts, slim-fitting duds and pale, high cheekbones. And, fittingly, the first song unveils the tell-tale sounds of Brit-pop — predatory, chiming guitar riffs that dovetail nicely with a kite-high chorus. But the Tender Idols hail from Atlanta, and only their vocalist, Ian Webber, is British. Although one too many of their songs recall the Beatlesque balladry of Oasis, the Tender Idols manage to infuse their brand of glammy lad-rock (lad-core?) with tenderness, optimism and lush, more varied guitar textures. Epitomized by "Never Get Closer Than That," the mixture makes for several affecting love songs that seem destined for summer anthem glory.

— Carlene Bauer

For Fans Of: Oasis, Semisonic, Radiohead

I'M YOUR Fan

JOHN HIATT

Bring The Family (A&M)

In 1990, the day before I left good old Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, for the big city, I decided to spend my last Keystone night at Graffiti, the best club in town. John Hiatt, while on his tour between larger cities and larger venues, had decided to make an unplanned stop at the venue. (I noticed the Steel City's finest dive wasn't listed on the official concert t-shirt.) I had heard and really enjoyed Hiatt's Bring The Family in college, and I think that the record helped me like country music even more. Not that Hiatt's music is strictly country, but I really admired the way he turned up the juice on roots rock. He kicked a lot of the corniness out of pop-country to make way for a more rugged and earnest sound that channeled the spirit of rock's early country/blues beginnings. Even Hiatt's big-hearted piano ballad "Have A Little Faith In Me" has an edge. Bring The Family has such an interesting dynamic because it's played by four musicians who have decidedly different, yet similarly sympathetic, views on country and rock 'n' roll. Firstly, Hiatt wrote feisty Americana rock songs (including "Thing Called Love," which Bonnie Raitt later spun into Grammy gold), and he sang them with a knowing rasp of a man who had battled more than just alcohol. Nick Lowe added a pop-a-billy bass sound. Drummer Jim Keltner (Travelling Wilburys) added curious nuances to time-honored rhythms, and Ry Cooder unloaded his whole bag of slide blues and desert rock tricks. Though Hiatt's live show that night (in support of the very fine Slow Turning) featured a different backing band, the ensemble was just as gutsy. "Memphis In The Meantime" chugged like Johnny Cash, slithered like Merle Haggard and quite simply, rocked the house. — Steve Ciabattini

For Fans Of: Mavericks, Richard Thompson, Dwight Yoakam

Bio-Fact: In 1991, Hiatt, Lowe, Keltner and Cooder reunited and recorded a self-titled album as Little Village; Hiatt will replace David Byrne as next season's host of the PBS performance and interview series Sessions At West 54th.

I'm Your Fan is a weekly column in which individual CMJ editors sound off about music and artists, both new and old, that are near and dear to their hearts.

Matt E. Silver, the conceptual visionary and organizer of the recent rave event at Woodstock in Rome, New York, wants to party on your campus. Silver plans on taking his lauded "6th Element" event — which brought the sounds of DJs such as Fatboy Slim, Liquid Todd, Dave Ralph, Sandra Collins and others to an estimated 80,000 late-night Woodstock attendees — to six college campuses in the Northeast during the last two weeks of October. The event, which has also taken place at such exotic locales as Puerto Rico, Brazil and Ibiza, is fully sponsored and comes equipped with a working list of T.B.A. talents in place. All Silver needs now is a few interested colleges who are down with underground sounds. Think 1,000 to 5,000 students on your campus are up to the task? Contact Silver Worldwide Entertainment Ltd. by phone at 212.284.3630, by fax at 212.253.5677 or by email at silver@sonicnet.com for more information. The deadline for inquiries is August 23...Industrial/goth fans should also look out for this forthcoming package tour. Frontline Assembly, those (Continued on page 36)

VARIOUS ARTISTS

Revenge Of The B-Boy (Bomb Hip-Hop)

Revenge Of The B-Boy takes you back to the days of fat laces, Adidas warm-ups (first edition) and boom boxes the size of Montana. As the soundtrack to the forthcoming independent film I Saw Your Mama Breakdancing Bucknaked (no kidding!), the album features newly recorded, old-school pop-locking grooves set to the pulsating beat of hip-hop, electro, big beat and funky breaks. A host of accomplished Bomb artists join an assortment of international artists revisiting the music that paved the path for much of today's modern electro-funk mayhem. The sleeve also lists breakdancing maneuvers and old-school slang terms. Break out the linoleum!

For Fans Of: Tommy Boy's Perfect Beats, Afrika Bambaataa & The Soul Sonic Force

VARIOUS ARTISTS

Torchbearers (Risk)

The artists included on the Torchbearers compilation are better known for spinning dance tracks than for creating them. But this release, honoring 11 American radio DJs, shows that these jocks know how to make bodies move and minds expand, on the dance floor, or from the studio. A surprisingly inspired and well-rounded CD running the gamut from airy trip-hop to trance breaks.

For Fans Of: Liquid Todd, Astralwerks' Unknownwerks compilation, Om's Mephisto compilation

WISEGUYS

"Ooh La La" (12")

(Ideal/Wall Of Sound-Mammoth)

London's Wiseguys get the place pumping with "Ooh La La," the first single from their highly anticipated debut album The Antidote. Big beat breaks and a sultry retro swing mark this bouncy and bubbly party-rocker. The B-side's "The Grabbing Hands" rides a tougher hip-hop edge, but remains an enticing, uplifting feel.

TYPE O NEGATIVE

World Coming Down (Roadrunner)

Type O Negative is Loud Rock's favorite dry-humored goth metal troupe. The Brooklyn quartet is finally back with World Coming Down. It continues the Type O tradition of epic-length songs laced with dark and doomy atmospherics, and is anchored by sampling, slow, deep and hard guitar work and formidable singer Peter Steele's menacing sensuality. (He did appear in the buff in Playgirl a few years back!) Type O yet again impresses its legion of fans (1993's Bloody Kisses has been certified Gold) with the solid World Coming Down. And don't miss the spooky "Daytripper" Beatles medley.

For Fans Of: Bauhaus, Nevermore, Life Of Agony, Amber Asylum
Recommended Tracks: "White Slavery," "World Coming Down," "Everything Dies"
Contact: Jen Meola
Phone: 212.274.7545 Fax: 212.334.6921

Release Date: September 21; at radio now

ZAO

Liberate Te Ex Inferis (Solid State)

Who'da thunk that the kids in Zao, who mesh savage, almost inhuman vocals with voracious riffs and bestial basslines, are devout Christians? On the decidedly metalcore Liberate Te Ex Inferis (which translates as "Save Yourself From Hell"), Zao frames its songs around Dante's Inferno and its thematic circles of hell. But don't fret thinking that the band is preachy. Rather, this God-core quintet battles personal demons in its lyrics, and the result is frightening enough to send Satan to Sunday school.

For Fans Of: Unbroken, Today Is The Day, Training For Utopia
Recommended Tracks: "Savannah," "If These Scars Could Speak," "Desire The End"

H-BLOCKX

Fly Eyes (Risk)

H-Blockx is turning heads in its native Germany, and Fly Eyes is a solid indication of why. The four piece rocks with surgical precision. No pretenses, no gimmicks, just straight up hard rock with deliciously unrefined punk edges, rap metal touches, and power ballad-worthy guitar parts. Think Rage Against The Machine battling the Scorpions.

For Fans Of: Rage Against The Machine, Scorpions, Zebrahead

loud rock news

Ever re-experience the music of one of those bands you used to love during your youth? Ever been reminded of when your virgin ears were introduced to the group's then-totally new and groundbreaking sound, your only response, "Holy shit! What's this?" That feeling came flooding back to my body when Ministry ripped the roof off NYC's Roseland. The duo's new Dark Side Of The Spoon has garnered mixed reviews compared to such previous, mind-fucking efforts as The Mind Is A Terrible Thing To Taste, Land Of Rape And Honey and Psalms 69, but Al Jourgensen and Paul Barker still got it goin' on. Big Al bounded on stage sporting a doo rag, shades, a New Jersey Devils hockey jersey, and leather jeans. Oh the humanity! Some of the resounding crowd pleasers were brain-bashing renditions of "Just One Fix," "So What" and "N.W.O." DMFs were left battered, bruised and bloodied on the Roseland's spacious floor. Even more exciting was the encore, during which Jourgensen and the boys blasted through "Supernaut," made famous by Ministry's 1000 Homo DJs side project. New Ministry songs such as (Continued on page 36)

Ol' Dirty Bastard. What the hell else can I say? Enough drama, man. You got a new record to promote. Last week, I told you how the Dirt Dog got out of jail by the skin of his teeth. This week's big news is that the 30-year-old Wu-Tang member was arrested yet again. He was picked up on July 30, in Queens, for allegedly possessing crack and the chronic. Police nabbed the rapper, whose real name is Russell Jones, at about 2:30 a.m., after he ran a red light on the corner of Linden Blvd. and 228th St. The officers claim to have found 20 containers holding over 500 mg of the dirty white rock. They also confiscated one sack of bud. The MC was also hit with charges of aggravated an unlicensed operation of a motor vehicle in the second degree, driving by unlicensed operator, and running a red light. Jones made bail, which was set at $15,000 cash or $200,000 bond. He was due in Queens Criminal Court on Friday, August 6. If convicted, the Dirt Dog could face up 25 years in jail. And — just like I predicted last week — the release date of his sophomore (Continued on page 36)

HIGH & MIGHTY

Homefield Advantage (Rawkus)

Owing as much to Topps trading cards and the Daily News sports section as they do to Boogie Down Productions and the Beastie Boys, High & Mighty comes correct for sports-minded b-boys on their full-length debut. As DJ/producer Mighty Mi stones you to the bone with his dirty beats, Mr. Eon delivers rhymes soaked with crafty, leftfield references to everything from Star Wars to the Green Bay Packers. Guests on Homefield Advantage include Eminem, Pharoahe Monch, Defari, Mos Def, Mad Skillz and Thirstin Howl III. What What, Kool Keith and Bobbito also join Mr. E on "Hands Of Experience," the coolest ode to masturbation since Cyndi Lauper's "She Bop."

VARIOUS ARTISTS

Violator The Album (Violator/Def Jam-IDJMG)

Hip-hop's most prominent management company celebrates its existence with this 18-track collection of exclusives from the variety of talents on their roster. You may find yourself fast forwarding through a couple of the weaker cuts on here, but impressive contributions from Q-Tip, Flipmode Squad, LL Cool J, Fat Joe (with Big Pun and Eightball) Cru, Mobb Deep and the Beatnuts make Violator The Album a worthy addition to your rotation.

For Fans Of: Noreaga, Busta Rhymes, Mobb Deep, Terror Squad, Murder Inc.
Recommended Tracks: "Vivrant Thing" (Q-Tip), "Oh Wee" (Cru)
Contact: John Rosenfelder

Release Date: August 10; at radio now

HOT BOYS

Guerrilla Warfare (Cash Money-Universal)

The four horsemen of the Cash Money crew (Juvenile, B.G., Lil' Wayne and Young Turk) do not disappoint on their debut album under the Hot Boy$ moniker — the quartet serves up a complementary mix of '85-style beats and the gritty lo-fi funk that hemorrhages with Dirty South soul underneath their "off tha porch" gangsta fairytales.

For Fans Of: OutKast, Juvenile, Big Tymers, B.G.
Recommended Tracks: "Respect My Mind," "Off Tha Porch," "You Dig"

MÔNICA SALMASO
Trampolim (Blue Jacket)

With Trampolim, Brazilian vocalist Monica Salmaso has created an album with a strong and contemporary Brazilian feel, brimming with innovative but tasteful production techniques and subtle instrumentation. Anchored by solid contributions from some of Brazil's great songwriters, Salmaso imbues her arrangements with touches of accordion, upright bass and percussion, giving the album a stark atmospheric quality that reminds one of medievalists such as Dead Can Dance.

For Fans Of: Joyce, Elis Regina, Dead Can Dance
Recommended Tracks: "Canto Dos Escravos," "A Permuta Dos Santos," "Determinei"

PACO DE LUCIA
Luzia (Blue Thumb)

Master flamenco guitarist Paco De Lucia's Luzia is a stunning modern flamenco album that showcases the nimble-fingered guitarist at his best. Conceived largely as a tribute to his mother, it is a truly amazing album that ably documents the smoldering fires of love, unrequited pangs of passion and the inevitable imminence of death. All three are integral parts of flamenco music, and De Lucia plays these emotions better than any flamenco player alive.

For Fans Of: Al Dimioli, Gipsy Kings, Oscar Castro-Neves
Recommended Tracks: "Rio De La Miel," "Calle Muncion," "Luzia"

VARIOUS ARTISTS
World Fusion (Higher Octave)

With a roster culled from around the world, this compilation spotlights the broad range of music to be found on the Higher Octave label, ranging from authentic Cuban sounds to Arabic music to the French rap of Les Nubians. As an overview, it points out the threads that connect the funk samples of Les Nubians and the actual funk of the Soto Koto band, or the passionate flamenco guitars of Govi and the Mexican guitar stylings of Cusco.

For Fans Of: Ali Farka Toure & Ry Cooder, Gipsy Kings,
Recommended Tracks: "Les Portes Du Souvenir" (Les Nubians), "Kelefa" (Soto Koto Band), "Pintate Los Labaios Maria" (Eliades Ochoa)

new world news

Another participant has signed on for the all-star homage to Bob Marley. Hip-hop fusionists the Roots have just climbed on board and are scheduled to cover Marley's "Burnin' And Lootin.'" Slated for release on October 26, Bob Marley: A Rebel's Dream will feature such artists as Erykah Badu, Guru, Lauryn Hill, Steven Tyler, Busta Rhymes and the Marley Brothers. Each artist will add unique touches to original Marley compositions. No word on what that means for folks such as Steven Tyler, who isn't known for his remixing or scratching ability, but the record's objective is to bring Marley's music to a wider audience. The project is headed up by Marley's son Stephen, with his brothers taking on producer duties. Expect more contributor announcements as the release date approaches...The Rifa'i Marufi Order of America has announced plans for the Second Annual Chapel Hill Rumi Festival. Artists such as Hamza El Din, Michael Harrison and Shahram Shiva are scheduled to perform September 29-October 3. There will also be a Rumi Festival Dervish Camp, which will give celebrants an opportunity to mark the Persian mystic's birthday with a special show of spiritual unity...Rounder Records is proud to announce the signing of Tarras, a band hailing from the hills of Northern England and Southern Scotland that has been taking the Celtic folk world by storm since their formation in early '98. Although Tarras's music has a decidedly Celtic air, the band's influences reach from classical music to modern R&B. The average age of the band members is 21 and their (continued on page 36)

INNOCENCE MISSION Birds Of My Neighborhood (RCA)

Thirteen years after her band's debut album, Karen Peris still has one of the most beautifully haunting voices in pop music. If Birds has even sparser arrangements than one might expect from the Innocence Mission, it's because Karen and husband/fellow-composer Don wrote many of these songs while unsuccessfully trying to start a family. Their mood is reflected in songs such as "Snow," in which loss is cleansed away by the glistening, virgin flakes. But a child eventually did come to the young couple and a more joyous turn of events is heralded by the startling resplendent "Lakes Of Canada."

For Fans Of: Joni Mitchell, Sixpence None The Richer, Sam Phillips

LINCOLNVILLE Yesteryear (Black Box)

Hailing from Portland, Maine, Lincolnville's name and sound reflect the somberness of small town America. With music that sits somewhere between Richard Buckner's expressive songcraft and the Pernice Brothers' subtle arrangements, this trio relies on playful interactions to create soulful beauty.

For Fans Of: Pernice Brothers, Richard Buckner, Varnaline

CURTIS SALGADO Wiggle Outta This (Shanachie)

Yes, it's true that Curtis Salgado introduced John Belushi to the blues and inspired the Blues Brothers movie character of Jake. More importantly, Salgado honed his killer vocals and gutsy harmonica style with Roomful of Blues and Robert Cray. But it's on his own albums where Salgado truly shines, and this Shanachie debut is arguably his finest effort.

For Fans Of: Roomful of Blues, Robert Cray, Muddy Waters

KPFA Update: On August 5, after more than three weeks of community protests and arrests, the staff returned to work and went back on the air. Pacifica spent an estimated $500,000 worth of charitable donations to lock out the KPFA staff and to seize control of the station. On August 20, the California Assembly's Joint Legislative Audit Committee will hold hearings at the Elihu Harris State Building in Oakland. The organization will examine the Pacifica Foundation's conduct during the ongoing conflict with the KPFA staff and community. KPFA staffers suspect their station, though now up and running, will be sold. But Pacifica has denied any such thing... On July 17 and 18, WXPN's Singer Songwriter Festival attracted an estimated 12,000 people per day, in spite of the 100-degree heat. The weather may have been brutal, but with a lineup that included the Old 97's, Entrain, Indigenous, Kelly Willis, Richard Thompson and Steve Earle, the music was certainly cool.

ERIC REED

Manhattan Melodies (Verve)

Although pianist Eric Reed has worked as a sideman for Betty Carter, Joe Henderson, Gerald Wilson and Wynton Marsalis, he is at his most innovative in his piano trio. Not surprisingly for such a creative and ambitious player, this New York-themed concept album has real flow and mood as well as an attention to detail that shows a playful sense of Reed's familiarity with his subject. Just like the chameleonic city that's been his home this past few years, Reed is stylish and elegant, funky and down-home, hectic and laid-back all at the same time.

T.K. BLUE

Another Blue (Arkadia Jazz)

T.K. Blue is really a pseudonym for noted saxophonist-flautist Talib Kibwe, a New York-based reedman who has worked with Randy Weston, Abdullah Ibrahim and the Spirit Of Life Orchestra. For this all-acoustic album, he's pulled together an impressive array of jazz talent such as Randy Weston and trumpeter Eddie Henderson. On Another Blue, Kibwe takes what he's learned from his mentor-friends and crafts it into a truly inspiring and individual vision of jazz.

TIM BERNE PARAPHRASE

Please Advise (Screwgun)

For this free-form follow-up to Visitation Rites, the group again creates compositions out of cacophony. Saxophonist Tim Berne leads through a skillful use of dynamics and athletic blowing. Game for anything, bassist Drew Gress and drummer Tom Rainey push and prod each other and Berne through these two long, yet very rewarding, pieces.

jazz news

Joshua Redman

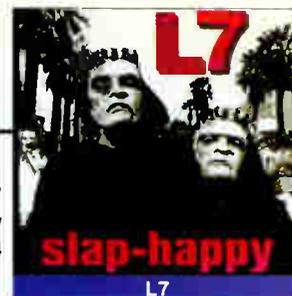

While Earl "Fatha" Hines passed away 16 years ago, his reputation as a jazz forefather endures, as attested to by Christie's plans for an October 25 live auction of Hines's piano. Presented to Hines during a 1969 tribute, the 1904 vintage Steinway features baroque-styled gold inlaid wood carvings and a lyre-shaped pedal. The sale of the piano is expected to raise between $200,000 and $500,000 for the Young Musicians Program, which educates promising students from underprivileged backgrounds. (Alumni of the program include saxophonist Joshua Redman and Yellowjackets drummer Will Kennedy.) Jazz pianist/educator/announcer Dr. Billy Taylor will be on hand to showcase the piano's sound. Drumming great Max Roach is also scheduled to be at the auction, although he has not decided whether he will play or not. In addition to the piano, 300 other jazz-related items will be up for bid in a silent auction... Jazz fans in the Southeast will get a rare chance to see one of New York's finest jazz groups. Other Dimensions In Music, featuring reedist Daniel Carter, horn player Roy Campbell, bassist William Parker and drummer Rachid Bakr, will be hitting the road from September 13-19. The group has been around for 20 years and works on such an improvisational level that last year's record Now! only hints at the band's power. Check it out...AALY Trio, along with Ken Vandermark, will play a string of dates that week as well, though they'll be traveling from Chicago to New York. Although Vandermark is a known name here at CMJ, the Swedish trio, which features reedist Mats Gustafsson, bassist Peter Janson and drummer Kjell Nordeson, has been wowing fans in Europe for a number of years. They have also played with Vandermark in Europe and Chicago in recent (Continued on page 36)

rpm news

founding fathers of industrial music, will team with Clan of Xymox, those founding fathers of goth. The tour runs from October 12 through November 3, and dates are still being confirmed. Contact Michael Mahan at 610.595.0356 for tour and interview information...Metropolis Records recording artist Kevorkian Death Cycle will embark on their "Free Jack" (as in Dr. Kevorkian) tour on September 12, which begins in Tempe, Arizona and ends in Seattle, Washington on October 21. In addition to hawking their hard-edged dance music, the band will also distribute literature from euthanasia groups and will possibly even feature a brief talk on the right to die. Once again, Mahan is your point man for tour info and interview requests.

"Bad Blood" and "Super Manic Soul" were hot as well. Nothingface was the sole opening act for the evening. Every time I see this foursome, the band just blows me away. The Roseland was packed to capacity and these Washington, DC-area soul crushers handled themselves with utter poise and grace. Drummer Chris Houck is superb and bassist Bill Gaal sports two mammoth devil horns of hair on his mostly-bald head. Blue-haired singer Matt Holt exuded plenty of charisma to keep the crowd charmed; he even joined Big Al during Ministry's kick-ass version of "Thieves." From onstage, Nothingface announced that, earlier that very day, it had inked a deal with TVT! A big congrats to the band. Finally, the rest of the world can be exposed to something we Loud Rock radio people have been privy to for years. WSOU sponsored the show and I joined some of the deejays onstage to throw out giveaways to the crowd. I felt like a rock star...Speaking of the mighty 'SOU, the country's biggest and best metal station can now be heard anywhere, anytime on the Internet. Point your browser to www.shu.edu/wsou, then link up to www.nj.com/wsou and prepare to blow out your speakers...Rob Fiend has left MIA

Records...Long-haired, leather-clad metalloids, mark yer calendars for October 26. On that day, CMC International will bestow upon you Coverkill, Overkill's new all-covers album. Bobby Blitz and company will interpret classics such as Kiss's "Deuce," Deep Purple's "Space Truckin'," Black Sabbath's "Konicopia," the Dead Boys' "Ain't Nothing To Do," and (natch) Motörhead's "Overkill"...I pose the question: "What do you wanna do with your life in September 1999?" Your answer should be a definitive "I wanna rock!" CMJ '99 is gonna kick all our metal asses into submission. Confirmed metal performers include Machine Head, Nothingface, Slipknot, Skinlab, Cryptopsy, Turmoil, Nile, Dillinger Escape Plan, Skunk Anansie, Soil and Step Kings. Aw, yeah!...I spent the last day of my recent vacation viewing soap operas and flipping channels. When I settled on WWF wrestling — the ultimate male soap opera — I spotted one of the league's beefy dudes wearing a Black Label Society t-shirt. Metal and wrestling go hand in hand, folks...I even caught an episode of HBO's Oz, the prison drama that recurrently features Biohazard's Evan Seinfeld. Interesting entertainment, to say the least.

years, and have almost made their jams a regular thing because everyone involved is so excited about the music. Watch for them at CMJ '99...Turning from hard news to the rumor mill, the Bird Lives! Web site reports that a steering committee featuring the heads of every major jazz label and other industry entities are looking into merging the Jazz Awards with a jazz industry conference. Now that the JazzTimes convention is no longer, the group would put this new conference in its place. No word at this time on the outcome, but stay tuned.

new world news

not-so-secret weapon is 16-year-old fiddler Emma Hancock, who performed with the London Philharmonic at age 14. Expect a debut from the band early next year... Allegro Distribution has announced plans for the release of a 4-CD box set entitled The Raga Guide. Released through Nimbus Records, the package will feature 74 of the most popular Hindustani ragas performed by some of the genre's leading practitioners. Accompanied by a 196-page booklet, these cuts will give the curious helpful insight into the music's structure and function. For more info, contact Dmitri Vietz at dmitri@allegro-music.com.

beat box news

solo effort, Nigga Please, has been pushed back to September 14...On the same day, the Ruff Ryders' queen bee Eve will issue her solo debut. Eve: The First Lady Of The Ruff Ryders features guest appearances by Missy Elliott and fellow Ryders DMX, The LOX and Drag-On. Swizz has also cooked up some fresh beats for the occasion. The first single, "Gotta Man," should be on your desk at press time...An old-school luminary also has a solo record looming on the horizon. Q-Tip's long-awaited, post-A Tribe Called Quest debut, Amplified, is slated to hit the streets in November...That hip-hop tribute to reggae godfather Bob Marley will arrive in stores on October 26. What to expect? Erykah Badu wants "No More Trouble," MC Lyte starts "Jammin'," Guru takes on "Johnny Was," Lauryn Hill asks you to "Turn Your Lights Down Low," Busta Rhymes sings a "Rastaman Chant," Krazie Bone plays "Rebel Music," and the Roots start "Burnin' and Lootin'." The Lost Boyz also drop in for a joint, and, somewhat incongruously, those Aerosmith Toxic Twins Joe Perry and Steven Tyler throw a "Roots Rock Reggae" party. Marley's son Steven, who, with brothers Damien and Julian cover his father's classic "Kinky Reggae," is the executive producer of the tribute, which is entitled Bob Marley: A Rebel's Dream...LL Cool J and TLC's Lisa "Left Eye" Lopes will host the Source Hip-Hop Awards, which will take place on August 18, at the Pantages Theater in Los Angeles. Two nights later, the big show will air on the UPN network at 8 p.m...Wyclef Jean has been tapped to co-produce the forthcoming comeback LP by '70s funk legends Earth Wind & Fire. He'll take the reins along with group songwriter and leader Maurice White. Jean's Refugee Allstar imprint will issue the still-untitled record, which will hit the shelves sometime next year.

CMJ CERTAIN DAMAGE VOL. 108

Way Martin

Kar Riedl

"You first," says Macha's Kar Riedl, skirting rather than answering the question posed to him. You'd expect this sort of reaction from a performer who is asked to describe his fairly untaggable music. "Let's hear you describe it first," he laughingly follows up.

Riedl's fellow bandmate and housemate, Joshua McKay, quickly restores order by implicitly detailing Macha's approach to sound science. "I think it's generally a beautiful environment of opposites that kind of end up together in the same place," he comments. From lesser bands, such a response might sound pretentious and overly abstract, but given Macha's wordily, genuinely holistic rock, the statement makes perfect sense.

The quartet's transcendental songs are, at heart, meat-and-potatoes indie-rock drone worked out on standard guitar, bass and drums. But Macha expands the instrumentation and the drone itself by employing unconventional devices such as hammer dulcimer, electric auto-harp, and vibraphone. In turn, these exotic sounds redesign the music itself. Both of the group's records, 1999's Machin and the brand new See It Another Way, are terrifically exotic, yet somehow familiar at their core. McKay happily elaborates on the subject. "See, we all in Macha are rockers, and we really like the loud churning sound of amplifiers. Of course, at least 80% of the time we refer to the acoustic, traditional musics of cultures that, well, you know. Well, they're cultures that just don't rock."

But Macha's subtle imposition of Eastern ethnic traditions onto college-radio-friendly hooks isn't your father's world music fusion, à la the Talking Heads or Peter Dinklage. "I think that the hypnotic, rhythmic, cerebral sounds of our hammered and malleted instruments is really attractive. I think that our instruments give Macha a very different personality," says McKay.

Discovering Macha on record is one thing, but the band's dazzling live set transforms the room into the hippest post-punk club this side of Bali, where East meets West via a conduit of loud, ringing guitars. Onstage, these four lean, focused multi-instrumentalists strum and pound out a full and echoey wash of sound. They just happen to use a very unusual set of musical tools. According to McKay, See It Another Way accurately recreates the ambiance of Macha's gigs. "I think this record has more of a live-band feeling. In the studio, this time we were able to move past the mistakes that we had recording the first record. We got to bring a lot more out of the instruments. We had already figured out the sweet spots in the room and which mics were best for which sounds. So on this album, things were sounding good as soon as we started to lay sounds down. We didn't have to do quite as much collaboration with the production of it, giving it a live feel that I really like."

So is it hard dragging a hammer dulcimer or a vibraphone to a rock club? Does the average sound engineer know how to help make these kind of instruments resonate for the Rolling Rock crowd? "Actually, we've been really lucky and haven't had a real high rate of bad experiences. Basically, we set up and the sound guy turns around, walks in the other direction. They pretend that we don't exist," McKay says, smiling. "Club soundmen really don't know what to do with the hammer instruments," he admits. "So we've just learned how to get our own levels onstage. We really like the dulcimer and the vibraphone cranked up high because they do something strange and beautiful through a P.A. system at a high volume. But of course, when we're up there playing, we have no idea what it sounds like out there in the audience. So right now what we do is we just say a little prayer before we start, and hope that the mix isn't going to be all kick drum. 'Cause it would just get worse if there's all these air-zitherists and air-vibists out there in the audience doing all this hard percussive work and we're just giving them all this kick drum."

When not on the road, Macha resides in the musically charmed burg of Athens, Georgia. When asked if he's ever inspired by music that's closer to home as opposed to Indochina, McKay is quick to laud the land that gave the world R.E.M., and more recently, Neutral Milk Hotel and Olivia Tremor Control. "It really is great here. It's just one of those towns, you know?

Like, copping an attitude would be ludicrous here. It's so small and inexpensive, so Athens gives you time to hole up in your own laboratory and make your dreams come true musically."

So despite such sweet musical dreams, can Macha's priceless music pay the bills? McKay chuckles one last time. "No, not quite. Macha ain't no job; it's strictly an adventure in the tightening of the belt."

SHACHAR OREN

Vice President of Music Matters, Amplified.com

Interview by Bill Konig

Shachar Oren got his start in the music industry as a student of music production at Georgia State University. It wasn't long before he became a DJ on the university's radio station, WRAS. Later, Oren built a studio production facility to record the live performances of musicians who played on-air. After a stint as that station's music director in 1995, Oren went on to do promotions and A&R for the now defunct Ichiban Records. About a year and a half ago, he, like so many industry professionals before and since, was bitten by the Internet bug and joined Amplified.com. We talked to Oren about what makes Amplified.com different from the growing number of music companies popping up on the Net.

First of all, what drove you to get involved in this medium?

I love the challenge, because there is nobody really to learn from. It's kind of like everybody in our field...is making up the rules, inventing the new business models, figuring out what works and what doesn't. There are so many great opportunities for the labels and for the artists. All of that offers [a lot of] opportunities to be really creative and innovative.

"I love the challenge, because there is nobody really to learn from. Everybody in our field is making up the rules, inventing the new business models, figuring out what works and what doesn't."

Amplified.com touts itself as a "business-to-business digital music enterprise." What exactly does Amplified do?

We are [solely] a digital distributor in the sense that that we don't have our own destination site. Many other folks online that do great jobs with downloads, custom compilations and what not attempt to develop their own niches and really solicit their destination site. Our goal as a business-to-business company is to accommodate online retailers, portals and destination sites with services that make sense to them business-wise, economy-wise. We will integrate into their shopping carts, into their e-commerce systems, into their databases, and we can deliver multi-format downloads as well as custom compilations that are fully branded for them. And we deal with the headache of what is happening in the back end. It's not simple. You've got to license stuff from the labels, you've got to encode it, store it. It's multi-format. There's digital rights management on the back end. You have deal with royalties. You need to do clearances with the publishers. It's a pretty robust task.

So what makes Amplified unique?

When you visit our services at Towerrecords.com or Warehouse On Demand, or anything else we're doing for anyone else, there's no branding of Amplified. To the best of my knowledge, we're the only company out there right now that is focusing on the business-to-business model that is software agnostic and has no third agenda or any channel conflict with our partners because we do not have a destination site and we're not a software company. We don't have any co-branding issues with what we do.

What exactly is your role at Amplified?

I've been doing a little bit of everything. I basically run the music department, which is now comprised of four people that deal with label relations, licensing music from the dependents, putting together content and marketing ideas for the independents and the majors as well. I'm also working with some of our affiliates and future affiliates.

What is the biggest concern facing your company and other online music enterprises?

Well there are a lot of uncertainties. Many folks in the industry are very uncertain about the format — which format to endorse, like MP3 versus Liquid Audio, Microsoft, and other new formats being introduced into the marketplace. Most labels have a lot of concerns about security. The retailers have concern about how business models will actually behave in the marketplace. Will consumers pay for downloads and what will they pay for downloads? How do you make custom compilations of a winning format and how do you market them correctly?

Christmas 1999 is a highly anticipated holiday season in terms of online music activity. Will Amplified be trying anything special?

We'll be trying a lot of different models: Downloads, custom CDs, custom compilation incentive programs. We'll figure out what works best.

Do you see merger mania overtaking this industry?

I think there are always going to be some mergers. There are going to be some loss leaders. There's going to be people that get purchased by others and merge into other companies. At the same time, it's never going to be a one-way road. There's always going to be some new players that will come in with so much power, they will overwhelm whoever thought that they, through a merger, created something really powerful. There's going to be newcomers that are bigger and better.

How close, if at all, are we to experiencing the death of the compact disc?

That's a good question. I don't know. I don't think they're going to die that quickly. They have so many applications attached to them. You can put so many various things on a CD format. There's always going to be something you can store on it, and to that extent, it may stay with us forever. I think new formats, while they may take a little bit from something older, they usually just increase the pie. Downloads and custom CDs add to the pie. They don't take anything away.
