8 Everything Will Never Be The Same

Even though Fiction Plane has graduated from the syncopated spazz-grunge from its early years into the more aesthetically-pleasing realm of British-tinged indie pop, the band's debut, Everything Will Never Be OK, still simmers with all the rage, cynicism and grim retort that only youthful angst can trigger. The band is currently wowing audiences across America as its plane taxies for takeoff. And when it lands, everything will never be the same.

NAPSTER RESURFACES

Just when we thought it was gone for good, Roxio Inc. has announced plans to resurrect file-sharing service Napster before the end of 2003, as a legitimate pay service. After being blamed, and subsequently sued, by the RIAA, record labels and several other artist-advocacy groups for allegedly ushering in the current record industry sales slump, Napster filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy last June. Many of its assets were then purchased by Roxio, which manufactures CDburning software. Roxio is currently in discussions with the five major record companies (Universal Music Group, Sony Music, Warner Music Group, Bertelsmann AG and EMI) about licensing their music for the service, which will include monthly subscriptions or single fees for individual song downloads. At the height of its popularity in 2000, over 60 million people were using Napster's software, which allowed users to copy and share music for free. Since the company went offline last year, several other file-sharing services, such as Kazaa and Morpheus, have risen to fill the online free music void. In the meantime, legitimate download services like Pressplay and Musicnet have struggled to convince users that MP3s are worth buying, when they are readily available for free elsewhere on the Internet.

KBOO WINS DECISION AGAINST FCC

When the FCC slapped Portland, Oregon's KBOO with a $7,000 fine for indecency two years ago for playing the Sarah Jones song "Your Revolution," Program Director Chris Merrick and John Crigler, KBOO's legal council, decided to take a stand for free speech. They have now finally emerged triumphant — but the ensuing two-year court battle accrued legal expenses of almost $26,000. The FCC first got involved when a listener called in to complain on Oct. 29, 1999, after hearing the lyric, "six-foot blow-job machine." "We knew all along that it was not indecent," said Station Manager Dennise Kowalczyk. "[The song] was in regard to [Jones's] feelings and concerns about misogynistic lyrics in a lot of Hip-Hop songs and it was a political commentary about that. We knew that from the get-go, and we're happy that the FCC realized it made a mistake." There is no plan as-of-yet as to how the station will cover the legal bill, which Kowalczyk described as "money well spent to defend freedom of expression," but there is a pledge drive planned for March that will most likely address the issue.

MUSICNET NETS MAVERICK'S CATALOGUE

MusicNet, a leading digital music service for streaming, downloading and burning online music, announced on March 3 that it has entered into a non-exclusive agreement with Maverick Records that will allow MusicNet users access to stream and download tracks from Maverick's extensive catalogue, enhancing MusicNet's song library by more than 250,000 tunes. Jeremy Welt, Head of New Media for Maverick Records said, "We're excited to partner with MusicNet and look forward to expanding the reach of our artists' music through MusicNet's dynamic platform." Maverick's catalogue includes albums by Madonna, Alanis Morissette, Deftones, Bad Brains, Me'Shell Ndegeocello, William Orbit, Paul Oakenfold, Candlebox and many others. MusicNet is the most widely distributed digital online music service, with its shareholders including Bertelsmann Inc., EMI Recorded Music Holdings, Warner Music Group, RealNetworks and Zomba Recording Corporation.

INDUSTRY SHUFFLE

Kill Rock Stars, Olympia, Washington's favorite source for great music, has announced some in-house changes. All press efforts will now be outsourced, as former Publicity and Advertising coordinator

Maggie Vail takes on the new title of General Manager. • Lionel Ridenour, Executive Vice President of Arista Records, has resigned from his position in order to pursue new business opportunities. Ridenour has been on the Arista senior management team since 1993, when he became Senior Director, R&B Promotion. "It has been an amazing 10-year run at Arista Records," said Ridenour. "The last two years in particular have been incredible, and I am truly proud that I've been instrumental in building one of the best executive teams in the business."

ither there's some kind of a witch-hunt going on in the U.K. music world, or kiddie porn is becoming increasingly popular with rock stars. Once relegated to the likes of glam-freak Gary Glitter, who actually managed to get though, with the new Massive Attack album, 100th Window, having just hit stores worldwide and debuting at No. 1 on the U.K. album chart — a feat the pioneering band has never before achieved in its decadeplus career. Meanwhile, in a less himself deported from Cambodia for alleged sexual offences during his selfimposed shame-driven exile from Great Britain, the recent controversy around The Who guitarist Pete Townshend shocked the world into realizing that the problem goes well beyond the fringes of society. However, it still seemed like a joke when Massive Attack founder Robert "3-D" Del Naja, one of contemporary England's most influential musical artists, as well as one of its most outspoken anti-war advocates, was picked up by police at his Bristol home for suspicion of downloading Internet child porn. Del Naja, who had computer equipment taken from his residence, was released on bail after questioning. "I have never looked at child pornography in my life," he told the U.K.'s The Sun, following his release. "I am fully co-operating with the police and I would ask everyone not to judge me prematurely. I have total faith in the justice system." The timing couldn't be worse, shocking twist, illegal drugs reportedly ecstasy — were allegedly found on the premises as well. Of course, along with fellow British act Portishead, Massive Attack is credited with inventing "trip"-hop. • Sadly, The Clash legend Joe Strummer didn't live to see his band's induction into the Rock And Roll Hall Of Fame this year. However, at least he knew that The Clash had finally made it in at the time of his passing late last year. In addition to his last solo recordings, one of the other projects Strummer was working on before his untimely death was helping to put together The Essential Clash, a two-CD collection of remastered classics by the U.K. band that covers its career from 1977-1985 and includes a total of 40 tracks. Released on March 11 in order to hit stores the day after the group's official addition to the Hall, the collection will be followed a month later by a DVD of the same title, which will include all of The Clash's videos, as well as a previously unreleased hour-long black and white movie from 1982, titled Hell W 10, that was written and directed by Strummer and stars the members of the band. Originally shot as a silent film, music from The Clash has been added as a score for the DVD. • Bassist Hilary Woods has bailed out of Irish trio JJ72. The group, led by youthful troubadour Mark Greaney, released its self-titled debut album worldwide in 2000 to much critical acclaim, followed by considerable success in the U.K. and Europe. The follow-up disc, I To Sky, was released in October 2002 overseas, but currently remains available on import only in the U.S. Greaney and drummer Fergal Matthews appear on the surface to be taking Woods's departure in stride, simply stating on the band's official Web site (www.jj72.com), "JJ72 would like to take this opportunity to wish Hilary happiness and success in the future." Meanwhile, Woods herself, who says her departure is based on a desire to "to pursue other interests," responded with a similar sentiment: "I wish Mark and Fergal continued success in the band and thank JJ72 fans for their support." • Howie Epstein, who played bass with Tom Petty And The Heartbreakers for two decades, died on Feb. 23, at the age of 47. While no cause of death was immediately discerned, the woman who brought him to the hospital told officials that he had been using heroin. Epstein joined the group in 1982, replacing founding member Ron Blair, and left in 2002, with "personal problems" cited as the reason. A year prior to his departure, he was arrested for heroin possession in New Mexico, where he also passed away. "We are deeply saddened at the news of Howie's passing," reads a statement from the band. "It's difficult to put into words how much we loved him and will miss him. The world has lost a great talent and a kind and gentle soul."

MINUTEMEN
Double Nickels On The Dime

Released as a 43-track double album (the ultimate in antipunk excess and a response to Hüsker Dü's just-released Zen Arcade), the Minutemen's Double Nickels On The Dime reinvented punk rock by subverting Jazz, funk, folk and avant-garde into short hardcore bursts. Growing up in the 'burbs (San Pedro, California), the band was the spiritual working-class progeny of Creedence Clearwater Revival (dutifully covered on Nickels), although it was more Bad Brains than "Bad Moon Rising." The leftist screeds shouted by D. Boon (R.I.P.), the free-spirited fluidity of bassist Mike Watt (easily the most musical thud in the indierock pantheon) and the punk-Jazz drumming of George Hurley all still resonate from Fugazi to the Chili Peppers.

BEN HARPER

Diamonds On The Inside (Virgin) Capturing rock, reggae, soul, gospel and funk in a chrysalis of unique design, the hybrid sonic creations that Ben Harper unleashes have consistently left him as an artist without contemporary peer. With Jimi Hendrix, Stevie Wonder and Bob Marley still living in equal parts in his music on Diamonds On The Inside, Harper offers one of his most diverse collections of songs yet. Some, like the emotional lament "Amen Omen" and the fuzzy "Touch From Your Lust," recall his older, most well received work, but others find him testing new waters. "Picture Of Jesus," for example, sees Harper collaborating with African vocal group Ladysmith Black Mambazo (previously best known Stateside for its work with Paul Simon on Graceland). The track, along with the accordion-assisted "When She Believes," serves as a reminder that, while his lyrics often touch on religious themes, Harper always manages to come off as a secular artist. The reason for that, of course, is simple: Ben Harper has certainly always preached the gospel, but at the heart of it, his is the gospel of music — and that speaks to us all.

APHEX TWIN

26 Mixes For Cash (Warp) The Aphex Twin (a.k.a. Richard James) approach to remixing is very much like plastic surgery: James will often take a track he despises and enhance it, making it into something he considers more voluptuous. But unlike most remixers, he doesn't just add a simple layer of drumbeats or a new bass line over the original track; instead, he takes the work through a complete reconstruction to create a piece that has little — and sometimes nothing — to do with the original. To celebrate 10 years of this sonic architecture, Warp Records has compiled a whopping 26 of Aphex Twin's most blinding remixes on the double-disc 26 Mixes For Cash. Reworkings of tracks by Jesus Jones, Phillip Glass, Nine Inch Nails, Curve, Mescalinum United, Meat Beat Manifesto and Mike Flowers Pops sit alongside two previously unreleased Aphex tunes – "Windowlicker (Acid Edit)" and "SAW2 CD1 TRK2 (Original Mix)," a version of a piece that might sound familiar from Selected Ambient Works II. This collection is what remixing is all about, as well as solid proof that nobody makes — and remakes music like Aphex Twin.

CURSIVE

The Ugly Organ (Saddle Creek)

Cursive is capable of enslaving listeners, thrusting them into a world of severe post-hardcore beauty and soul-baring terror. Starting out as a foursome, the Omaha, Nebraska collective initially planted its fertile seed in 1997 with its debut, Such Blinding Stars For Starving Eye. The Ugly Organ now finds the band, which evolved into a quintet in 2001, unchaining its fifth full-length — recorded only a few months after vocalist Tim Kasher suffered a collapsed lung that required major surgery. A multifaceted work, the disc gushes like a passionate opera, fleshed out by jarring strings, guitar-punk sexuality and a nearly exhaustive poetic fervor. Each composition varies in style, mood and theme from the rest, requiring — and deserving — repeated listens. "Art Is Hard" takes on the business of music, charging, "Fall in love to fail/ To boost your CD sales," while "The Recluse" and "Sierra" delicately delve into more personal matters. Complicated musical interplay, honest narratives and thunderous rhythms all combine to make The Ugly Organ anything but.

LONGWAVE

The Strangest Things (RCA) When a band sets its sites on an album like U2's Unforgettable Fire, it usually doesn't possess the luxury of having Brian Eno or Daniel Lanois at its disposal — or half the necessary talent, for that matter. Even with such lofty ambitions, however, Longwave singer/guitarist Steve Schiltz's vision for his group hasn't gone unrealized. With the help of producer David Fridmann (Flaming Lips, Mercury Rev), Longwave has, in fact, created one of the first truly memorable albums of the year. The Strangest Things beams with a vintage soul that strings elements of early U2 throughout, while simultaneously evoking names like the Psychedelic Furs and Joy Division. Schiltz's emotional lyrics and deadpan vocal delivery paint him as a detached everyman hero (reflected in his "Tidal Wave" declaration of "I am everything you wanted"), while the rest of the band meticulously unfolds each song around him with guitar jangle, Peter Hook-y bass lines and hungry, driving beats. The result is an album that emits an incredible amount of warmth, balancing its urgency with a feeling that's both familiar and comfortable. — Brad Maybe

ATARIS

So Long Astoria (Columbia) After being discovered by Joe Escalante of the Vandals, the Ataris spent time on both Kung Fu Records and the influential Fat Records, gaining a large fan base through constant touring and well-received albums. With that fan base continuing to grow, the band found itself at the right point in its career to head to the majors, and thus, So Long Astoria is the Ataris' first album for Columbia Records a bright, if sometimes bittersweet, pop-punk blast of energy. There may be moments on the track "My Reply" that are reminiscent of Joshua Tree-era U2, but the Ataris (despite their namesake) are not stuck in the "Me" decade; the breakneck guitar crunch and contrastingly charming melody of "Takeoff And Landings" can't be mistaken for anything but 21st century punk. Some may try to write the Ataris off as music for mall

punks, but singer Kris Roe's lyrics about past loves and cherished memories offer something that those much older than your average Hot Topic-hopping skate rat can relate to. - Brad Filicky

DAMIEN JURADO

Where Shall You Take Me? (Secretly Canadian) As Where Shall You Take Me? opens with "Amateur Night," the sparse acoustic strum, coupled only by gentle organ coos and Damien Jurado's whispers about bloodshed, prostitutes and addiction, immediately lets the neo-urban folkster's listeners know that he won't be following along the path laid by 2002's electrified rock-opus, I Break Chairs. Indeed, even though Where Shall You Take Me? teams Jurado with the same Gathered In Song band he used to record Chairs, it finds him on a new label and with a new sound. The arrangements here are unembellished, often including little more than a plaintive guitar and Jurado's soulful croon. Echoes of loneliness drench tracks like "Omaha" and "I Can't Get Over You," but the lilting vocal harmonies that mark them serve to soothe the sorrow. "Window," meanwhile, comes off like a Southern spiritual that would feel at home on the O Brother Where Art Thou? soundtrack. Then again, wherever Jurado decides to take his listeners, it always feels like home.

TURIN BRAKES

Ether Song

(Source-Astralwerks) Remember when Bob Dylan went electric? Of course you don't, being that it was before most of us were born, but in 1964, the former Mr. Zimmerman showed the world exactly what he could do when he "plugged in." The leap taken by Turin Brakes' Olly Knights and Gale Paridjanian from the intricately-woven acoustica of their 2000 debut album, The Optimist LP, to Ether Song, isn't quite as drastic a move as the one Dylan took all those years ago, but the effect is just as astonishing. Without abandoning the soft-spoken aesthetic that initially enchanted its listeners, the duo this time uses added instrumentation to elevate its songs to a whole new level. Sparser tracks like "Average Man" and "Stone Thrown" recall the best moments of The Optimist, while divergences like the sunny, flute-riddled "Pain Killer," the slow-building "Long Distance" and, most notably, the dark psychedelic opus "Panic Attack" bring in previously unheard elements of everyone from Radiohead to Pink Floyd. Turin Brakes may not have literally gone "electric" on Ether Song, but it has definitely plugged in to something electrifyingly good.

M. WARD

Transfiguration Of Vincent (Merge)

If he had been around when Hilly Kristal opened New York's CBGB's almost 30 years ago, M. Ward would have definitely called the joint home. Not long before Television kicked open the doors for the club's legendary bad reputation, Ward's style would have fit right in with Kristal's original vision (evidenced by the Country, Bluegrass and Blues the venue's acronym stands for). The Portland, Oregon singer/songwriter's third album is a masterfully performed, traditionally arranged collection of songs, deeply rooted in both folk and country. Ward's alternately sweet and gruff vocals perfectly punctuate his allegorical musical yarns. On "Sad Sad Song," he sounds like a non-smoking Tom Waits, while "Vincent O'Brien" is more reminiscent of Frank Black's recent works with the Catholics. A cover of "Let's Dance" sees Ward tackling David Bowie like a sad virtuoso on a budget, stripping away any unneeded accoutrements to present only the "serious moonlight" fragility of the song's lyrics. Touring recently with Conor Oberst's Bright Eyes Orchestra, Ward proved himself as an accomplished player, but Transfiguration Of Vincent solidifies his role as an evergrowing talent in his own right. — Brad Maybe iction Plane, I must say, fucking rocks. There could possibly be no other words to describe just how awesome they [are]," reads one of several likeminded posts on Fiction Plane's Web site. And even though the band is only on its first major tour of the country and is still relatively unknown here in the States, all that is about to change. Everything Will Never Be OK, the group's debut, is set to launch the London-based lads into the national spotlight.

Centered around biting guitar licks, soaring melodies and insightful lyrics that are just as likely to cry out socio-political commentary as they are to express innermost feelings of loneliness, rage and shame, Everything Will Never Be OK finds frontman Joe Sumner, bassist Dan Brown and guitarist Seton Daunt seething with an unfailing passion and unbridled energy.

Arrangements are razor-sharp, but not over-produced; songs are dynamic, but still cohesive; and hooks abound, but are free from any pretension. Citing Fugazi, Jesus Lizard, Pavement, Nirvana and "every Seattle band that came out" as its primary influences, Fiction Plane takes all that is aesthetically pleasing with indie rock and crafts it into an album that is just as accessible to College Radio music elitists as it is to the casual listener. But don't make the mistake of calling it pop music.

"The music does not come from a place where we're thinking, How can we make a record that can shift some units?" explains Brown. "It really is about making music that people can connect with, and so therefore it becomes kind of poppy in bits here and there, but it's really about making music that means something and that people can relate to."

And people are relating to Fiction Plane. A recent show at New York City's Irving Plaza opening for the Juliana Theory left a sold-out crowd dumbfounded by the group's raucous live show. When the group closed with the daunting "Wise," which culminated in Sumner, Brown and Daunt catapulting themselves from atop touring-drummer Pete Wilhoit's bass drum amid a firestorm of distortion and wails, the crowd erupted in cheers, prompting several concertgoers to exclaim, "Holy shit, who are these guys?"

To put it simply, Fiction Plane is the future. The trio first started playing and writing songs together during high school, when they went by the name Santa's Boyfriend. While early SB songs tended to be characterized by excessive amounts of experimental noise and bizarre time signatures, the guys in the band used this time to hone their craft and figure out what they really wanted to achieve musically. After going their separate ways for college and doing their own various musical projects, the trio reunited once again two years ago and started writing the songs that would eventually become Everything Will Never Be OK.

"We did our separate things for a long time and then we came back together about two years ago and just used that name again," states Sumner. "Then last year, [the music] changed a lot, so we changed the name. We were a really noisy band, but then we grew into writing songs and being creative in a different way."

"As we got more skilled, the songs became more crafted and more considered and had more meaning to them," concurs Brown. "They're more about conveying a specific idea or emotion."

To record the group's debut, the band teamed up with producer David Kahne (Sublime, Earshot). In an attempt to catch the uninhibited energy of the group's live show,

"It's really about making music that means something and that people can relate to."— Dan Brown

Kahne opted to record the whole album on an analog eight-track, using almost all first takes.

"It was really scary to have worked for 10 years to get to this point and have a record come out, and then you just play a part through once and you're thinking, OK, let's go back and get it right this time, and he's like, 'No, that's fine," remembers Brown. "It's hard to let go at that point, because that's it. It's forever. That's what's going to be on the record. I mean, we were really quite scared." The method paid off, however, as the recording steers clear of glossy production techniques that tend to suck the life out of so many recordings, and instead flaunts the grit and vigor that the group possesses.

The band's chief songwriter, Joe Sumner, is incredibly easy-going and remains fairly reserved, but he carries a sly grin that hints at his wry sense of humor and strong wit. The fact that he is also the son of living-legend Sting (whose real name is Gordon Sumner) has certainly helped bring the band some attention, but it is something the band would much rather keep a lid on. Forced comparisons between the two, along with pressures to live up to the former Police-man's career are things any new up-and-coming band would want to avoid. When asked about it, Sumner tries to shrug it off as best as he can.

"The only thing I really care about is to not sell our band on that basis," he says. "That's it, really. The rest of it is people's perception, and that's what music is all about really."

While the younger Sumner's facial profile is eerily familiar and the head-bob that comes out while he plays live is a dead-on ringer for his father, there's no way that his band's music would be confused for the Adult Contemporary leanings of his father. In fact, the only family influence Sumner admits to is that of his grandfather, when talking about the dark nature of his lyrics.

"I've got a lot of depressed Irish blood in my family," he explains. "My granddad was an author in Belfast and he's got these books that are so depressing."

Without a doubt, songs like the title track (sample lyric: "There will always be some part of you in pain/ Everything will never be OK"),

"Hate" ("We hate things/ We hate people"), "I Wish I Would Die" ("The fear will keep me alive... I wish I would die today") and the Brown-penned "Everybody Lies" ("The hand that feeds me stabs me from behind") would make one concerned for the band members' emotional well being.

"That side of my personality is completely in the music," reassures Sumner. "I'm pretty easy-going most of the time."

Indeed, watching the band interact together does not give off the same doomsday vibes that its lyrics suggest. In fact, Fiction Plane is actually quite goo-goo over its situation. "I couldn't be happier," gushes Wilhoit, who made the drive from Indiana to New York just for the chance to try out for the band. "I'm floored at how things have worked out, I really am. I just feel really fortunate to be able to know these guys and be able to make music with them every day."

Just as the flowers start blooming and birds are chirping over all the love in the air, Brown leans in and deadpans, "We don't really like him at all," before everyone bursts into laughter. "No, the feeling's completely mutual for us," he continues. "We made the record with Abe Laboriel Jr. [who has played with such artists as Paul McCartney, Juliana Hatfield, kd lang and others] and he set such a high standard, we were like, 'How are we going to find anyone?' We tried to find people and we just couldn't find anyone who was quite right and then Pete came along and halfway through the first song, it was just like 'Aw, thank God, we found him!"

Now that the band has a full lineup, it is setting out across the country. And as Fiction Plane faces the daunting task of playing short, opening slots for bigger names, the guys are just happy to have the chance to share their music.

"The last couple of nights I had the same feeling as I did when we made the record with David [Kahne], just 'Oh my God, this is real. It's really happening," explains Daunt. "It just feels like that every night. You remember why you wanted to do it in the first place — why you're here, why you left your friends and family back at home. It's just a really amazing feeling."

Chart information is based on combined airplay reports from CMJ's panel of college, commercial and non-commercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-30) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon market size, market impact and market reach). A digest version of this chart reaches over 100,000 active music consumers in CMJ New Music Monthly. Visit www.cmj.com/mmm. © 2003 The CMJ Network, 151 W. 25th St., 12th Floor, New York, NY 10001.

200 Moves

at Power absolutely dominated this week, taking over the No. 1 spot on the Radio 200 chart, as well as maintaining that same position on the Core chart for a second week in a row. Congrats to Matador's new radio czar, Fred Navarrete, on a job well done! Also within the Top 10, Massive Attack creeps up two notches (5-3*), while Supergrass (10-7*) continues to make strides towards the Top 5. In addition, there were lots of significant moves on the chart this week, including offerings from Fischerspooner (48-14*), AFI (80-19*), Minus 5 (189-26*), DI Krush (55-31*), Nobukazu Takemura (87-49*), Swingin' Utters (82-50*), Tobin Sprout (75-55*) and, much to the delight of many CMJ staffers, the almighty Lightning Bolt (110-57*). The week's most impressive debuts came from Throwing Muses (D- $45^*$ ), Boy Sets Fire (D-46), Murs (D-59* — also went to No. 1 at Hip-Hop!) and Reggie And The Full Effect (D-60*). Next week, you can pretty much bet the farm that Boston's Cave In (this week's Most Added) and Jetset's Stratford 4 will enjoy huge debuts. What's more, Folk Implosion (D-156*) is pretty much guaranteed to skyrocket up the chart after nabbing a remarkable 194 adds this week.

KSCR Vitals

Market: Los Angeles, California

Frequency: 1560 AM

School: University of Southern California

General Manager: Justin Evans Program Director: Mark Schneider Operations Director: Terie Smith

Marketing Directors: Peter Kazanjian, Kenneth Basin Concerts Director: Courtney Beavers Music Director: Arun Antonyraj

News Director: Alejandra Villalta Sports Director: Ethan Rector Address: University of Southern California, STU 404, Los Angeles, California 90089-0895 Telephone: 213.740.5727 Studio Line: 213.740.1483 Fax: 213.740.1853 E-Mail: kscr@kscrradio.com

Station Philosophy/ Audience Perception:

KSCR has a little something for everyone; you just need to know when to listen. During designated time-slots throughout the day, people can tune in to hear indie, metal, punk, Hip-Hop, RPM, Latin, Jazz, or vastly eclectic shows spanning numerous genres.

Slogans/Position Statements:

"KSCR 1560 ---Revolutionary Radio"

How does the station differentiate itself from others in the market?

Los Angeles is a saturated radio market, where Clear Channel reigns supreme. KSCR is the only station that supplies an alternative to mainstream radio in the downtown L.A. area. With over 150 DIs and interns, there is a tremendous variety of musical tastes within and between genres, which lends an amazing diversity to our programming.

How is the station promoted on-campus? Off-campus?

Aside from consistent flyering and tabling campaigns, we recently began publication of our own music-oriented newspaper, Bandwidth, and often cross-promote with other campus organizations like Hip-Hop Congress, Techno Tribe, and Trojan Vision (USC's student-run television station). Off-campus, we have crosspromotion deals with the local movie theater, as well as the college lifestyle magazine, Campus Circle.

Regular Special Features:

Since we live in the Los Angeles area, we're treated to a plethora of celebrities looking for publicity in the college market. Recently, we've had guests such as Jim Breuer, the Farley Brothers, Joe Bonamassa and Akil from Jurassic 5. We also have an hour of live music twice a week: "Universal Buzz" on Mondays at 3 p.m. and a "Live Band Show" every Wednesday at 2 p.m., where we bring in a local or national act to do a live set in the studio recent acts include Irate, Pseudopod, Milk, Idle and Poopan Hooligan.

Ties To Local Music Scene:

In addition to arranging free monthly concerts with local and national artists (previous acts include Remy Zero, the Impossibles, the Stereo, Onelinedrawing, Nerf Herder, Ozma, Noise Ratchet, Minus The Bear and Piebald), KSCR also hosts a USC "Student Band Series" in a venue where students can perform in front of their peers. Furthermore, we recently began booking open mic nights at Ground Zero, our campus coffee house.

Station Benchmarks:

Our manager emeritus, Barry Levine, began his show, "The Bear's Den," on Jan. 30, 1997 and has since aired his program over 240 times. Furthermore, he has conducted in-studio interviews with over 75 bands, including Bad Religion, They Might Be Giants, Fugazi, the Damned, Blue Man Group, AFI and Pennywise.

Also Of Interest:

After ceasing our Webcast for nearly a year because of the DMCA, we've finally become legally compliant and have resumed broadcasting both on-air and online. We have over 70 distinct shows throughout the week this semester. On April 5, we'll be hosting the Southern California College Radio Conference, where we'll hold panels and concerts for members of College Radio, the music industry and local students and citizens.

ARTIST SPOTLIGHT DANIEL LANOIS

amous for the spacious, yet intimate soundscapes he created with U2, Peter Gabriel, the Neville Brothers, Bob Dylan and others, Grammy-winning producer Daniel Lanois has now brought some of his shimmering studio techniques to his own Shine (Anti-). His third solo record, and first in 10 years, the album is highlighted by duets with both Emmylou Harris and Bono. Considering he's pretty much produced everyone he ever hoped to (except, he hints, for fellow Canadian Neil Young), Lanois has finally found the time to talk about his own work before heading out on a small tour.

What was your goal for the moods and sounds of Shine? The instrumentals are reminiscent of Apollo [recorded with Brian Eno in 1983].

I wanted this record to have a journey and I always liked those records that mix instrumental passages with songs. Some of the mid-'70s David Bowie and Brian Eno records have that about them. The thought was to have four songs that could be universally embraceable — potentially [laughs]. And then another four or five that are like snapshot songs — the way you see the world at a given minute — and then have three instrumentals that allow the listener to be transported.

Were these songs mostly written over the last 10 years, or just in the last year or two when you've had a bit more time?

There's really no justification for it [laughs]. It's not as if the songs take that long to write. But, lyrically, these songs came together pretty late in the day. The wait is largely about responding to invitations to produce other people's records. And it's kind of easier in a way to do that. It's a lot more predictable what the tasks are if I'm producing somebody else. The main difference is that you finish the work on someone else's record and then you get to go to sleep for a while. With your own work, you deliver the record and the work has only just begun. You have to get out there, stand by it, tour and talk about it.

There's a real spiritual thread that runs throughout your records: bits of gospel and the blues — God and the devil.

Yeah, all of the things that never go out of fashion. Some of that comes from what I've appreciated in other people's records. Songs like Bob Dylan's "Every Grain Of Sand" or "A Hard Rain's A-Gonna Fall" — songs that have power and substance that keep resonating though cultures and decades to come.

The opening of "As Years Roll By" is great. The guitar sounds like it was recorded over a telephone.

Well, it's a telephone recording because it's actually a sample of a Charley Patton record. That's a leftover from Dylan's Time Out Of Mind. I had built a lot of samples for Bob to work off of and that's one of the ones we didn't use. So I built the whole song around that sample. There's something space age and traditional about the song that I love.

The working title for this record was Steel, in part because of the pedal steel guitar on it. How long have you been playing?

It's turned up on a few records over the years. It's on that Apollo record and then the Trainspotting people used a track from it in the toilet bowl scene...

You must be very proud.

Yes, Brian Eno and Daniel Lanois: Music For Toilet Bowls... I realized the way I play this instrument is unique and that's a very rare thing to stumble upon. So I'm just trying to bring that out to the forefront. I've been playing it live and it's just spectacular.

Are you concerned that people will associate guitar effects or vocal treatments on your records more closely with the artists you've produced?

I feel very confident with my thing and where it comes from and I'm proud enough of my influences and inspirations. Ultimately, I want to do something that's unique and that belongs to me, but I'm not going to deny the creative osmosis that exists when you work with someone. Obviously, I've had an impact on their musical lives and the reverse is true as well.

"People who work with me are expecting the unexpected. There are plenty of great folks who can document a record, but my art is largely about discovering something."

How do you choose what artists you're going to produce?

It's largely about chemistry. There has to be some kind of combustion with people. Luckily for me, pretty much every record that I went into, I was able to bring something to the table. It was always something I was excited about, largely because of my dedication to the studio laboratory — some angle, some work technique — and I want them to be thrilled about something too.

So artists know that you'll be an active participant beyond just setting up the microphones?

People who work with me are expecting the unexpected. There are plenty of great folks who can document a record, but my art is largely about discovering something.

Similar to the way the members of U2 prefer Anton Corbijn photographing them, as opposed to someone else.

Yes. Anton gets mystery in his work. You keep asking questions, you keep looking at the picture for a while. You read more into it every time, and that's nice when that happens sonically, where you get enough depth of field to keep asking questions.

Is your producer side demanding on your artist side when you produce yourself?

I'm probably overly critical. I'm just looking for a fresh angle and for the album to be testimonial. I'm looking for it to exist past my ego mainly, for a listener in five or 10 years time, so that it can elevate their spirit.

- Interview by Steve Ciabattoni

t's official. Metallica has named its new bassist: Robert Trujillo of Suicidal Tendencies, Infectious Grooves and Ozzy Osbourne fame. "We've taken a long time to find the right bass player for us," the band stated on its Web site. "Obviously being a good player is important, but it was also very important that whomever we found would fit in as a family member, a brother with a huge vibe. We wanted a fourth band member, not just a new bass player. We've all known, and have been huge fans of, Rob since the early-'90s when he was a part of the legendary hardcore/metal band Suicidal Tendencies. We got to know him when we played together with Suicidal in Europe in 1993, and again during the during the 1994 'Summer Shit' tour, when they joined forces with us." Added drummer Lars Ulrich, "We were impressed by Rob's roaring bass style and his very cool and unique vibe onstage." Congrats to Trujillo and the mighty M. • Well it's about damn time! Throwdown has signed with Trustkill Records and is recording its label debut, which is expected to street sometime this summer. For those anxious to hear some new, moshable sXe hardcore stuff, go to: http://www.xthrowdownx.com/nothingleft.mp3. • Ex-members of Mindrot have formed Shiva and have signed to Century Media. The band is currently tracking its debut. • Gorgororth has completed Twilight Of The Idols (In Conspiracy With Satan). Bassist King Of Hell exclaims, "The result is eight grim and atmospheric tracks that are guaranteed to satisfy new and old fans." Well, coming from someone who calls himself the ruler of Hades, we're compelled to believe him. The track listing is as follows: "Procreating Satan," "Proclaiming Mercy (Damaging Instinct Of Man)," "Exit Through Carved Stones," "Teethgrinding,"

"Forces Of Satan Storms," "Blod Og Minne," "Of Ice And Movement" and "Domine In Tua Laetavitur Rex." Look for this hulking slab of Christian-hating music in May. • Former P.O.D. guitarist Marcos Curiel has lashed back at the band regarding his departure. Last week, we reported that Curiel had left the band to pursue other interests, based on an open statement made by bandleader Sonny Sandoval.

In Flames

Curiel has responded, saying he did not quit but was fired from the band. "It got pretty sticky at the end," Curiel told MTV. "I was told, 'You need to prioritize where you're at with your music and where you're at with your walk with God. I'm like, 'You guys are tripping, dude. I just want to be an artist, and if I can't have that freedom, I just want to fly.' If someone asks me to play with them, if someone asks me to write a song, I just want to be able to do that." No further word from the Payable On Death camp at press time. • Apparently, Chuck
Schuldiner's estate and Hammerheart Records are locking horns over the late singer's music. Schuldiner's mother, Jane, is concerned about how the label will "handle" the unfinished Control Denied album, When Machine And Man Collide, according to www.blabbermouth.net. Schuldiner laid down his guitar tracks prior to his death in late 2001. As of now, the rest of the band plans to complete the album as a tribute to Schuldiner, whose name is practically synonymous with extreme metal. • It's no secret that In Flames has completed its contract with Nuclear Blast and is currently seeking a new label. There is plenty of interest, and a new (or old?) label home should be announced later this year, after it's finalized of course. • Arch Enemy is recording new material. New track titles are as follows: "Despicable Heroes," "Exist To Exit," "Dead Eyes See No Future," "Dehumanization" and "Injected." For more details, check www.archenemy.net. • Dillinger Escape Plan's psychotic frontman Greg Puciato will lend his talents to the upcoming Psychotogen CD. The Baltimore tech-death metal band has parted ways with its singer and Puciato has stepped in and will contribute his vocals to the band's forthcoming CD, The Calculus Of Evil. • All Else Failed has broken up but will release a final recording. Rest in peace. • Out To Win (formerly Mushmouth, which to us, is worse than the monikers Hoobastank or Audioslave) has signed to World Media. The band's former home was Triple Crown Records. • Guitarist Jens F. Ryland has exited Borknagar for personal reasons, not "creative difference" or "bad blood." • Former Queensrÿche guitarist Chris DeGarmo has rejoined his former bandmates in the studio, however, there is no confirmation whether or not DeGarmo has "officially" rejoined the band.

INDUSTRY NEWS

On a sad note, CMJ would like send out our condolences, thoughts and prayers to WHJY/Providence, RI and the family and friends of Mike "Dr. Metal" Gonsalves. Dr. Metal was among those who tragically lost their lives in a fire at a Rhode Island nightclub during an illfated Great White show. Gonsalves was doing the stage announcements the night of the disastrous blaze, which claimed the lives of nearly 100 people. "The Metalzone," a former CMJ Crucial Spins reporter, aired for 17 years with The Doc at the helm. He will be sorely missed in the Loud Rock community. • Sean McEneely, formerly of Concrete Marketing and Spitfire Records, has returned to Loud Rock promotions. McEneely will be doing part-time promo calls for Heavy Hitter and can be reached at 866.432.8969, or sean@heavyhitterimcom. Welcome back, McNeelz! • Please welcome WAAF/Boston, MA to the Crucial Spins panel, effective immediately. The show is called "Harder, Faster" and the host/Loud Rock Director is Mike Hsu. He can be reached via email at hsu@waaf.com, or by telephone at 617.779.5429. Please add him to your mailing lists at: WAAF; Attention: Mike Hsu; 20 Guest Street; Third Floor; Boston, MA 02135. Welcome aboard, WAAF! • Former McGathy Promotions metal radio rep Rich "Did I Call You Last Night?" Hall has landed a new gig out in sunny California. He is doing A&R for Abacus Recordings. Abacus is a brand new subsidiary of the Century Media Family. The first release on Abacus is Narcissus's self-titled debut. Check out www.abacusrecordings.com for more information. • In other Century Media industry news, Steve Joh has left the building and has been replaced by Phil Hinkle. Hinkle had been doing A&R for Nuclear Blast and is now taking over Joh's old post of CMR A&R. He can be reached at phil@centurymedia.com, or at 323.418.1400, Ext. 109. Best of luck, Stevie J. We will definitely miss you. • Elektra and The Firm will be shipping the new Staind single to radio via a satellite company or MP3. In a revolutionary move, the companies will not send a CD-Pro (label jargon for a promotional single copy) to stations. Rather, they will "beam" the single to stations on March 31. Don't worry. Full copies of the album will be serviced when ready. • Eddie Trunk's "Friday And Saturday Night Rocks" shows were axed when WNEW/New York, NY flipped formats again. The resourceful Trunk has found a new home for his show at classic rocker WAQX. His show will air on Friday nights, from 11 p.m. to 2 a.m. Congrats and welcome back to the metal scene, Mr. Trunk!

FIVE QUESTIONS WITH... HAUNTED'S JENSEN!

Twin brothers/Haunted members Anders and Jonas Bjorler were once in At The Gates — 'nuff said about the pedigree, as that says it all. Guitarist Jensen (yes, just Jensen), who is quite the ladies man when he isn't moonlighting in Witchery, submitted to CMJ's Five Questions attack and fired off one-liners with ease. The Haunted's new album,

One Kill Wonder (Earache), has already catapulted to No. 2 on the CMJ Loud Rock chart in just two weeks.

Anders left to go to school in June 2001, but came back in September 2002. Did the power of metal compel him to return or did you have to twist his arm?

He was accepted in an exclusive program to study film. Only 20 people out of 2,000 applicants are accepted. He was tired of touring. Film is his second passion in life. I could not hold it against him. He realized that he missed touring. You don't miss it till it's gone. He asked to come back, so yes, the power of metal compelled him.

The last album opened with the Slayer-y "Dark Intentions." This album opens with "Privation Of Faith" and a monster riff. Is that the goal of every album? No! The goal is to beat the piss out of people! I wrote both tracks and that's exactly what I wanted people to do. You discovered the secret.

The Haunted Made Me Do It was promoted with the tagline "Swedish As Fuck." Is One Kill Wonder more "Swedish As Fuck" than its predecessor?

There is a joke that "Swedish As Fuck" became "Swedish Ass Fuck." This is our most melodic and brutal album. We felt the pressure to prove we were still as heavy as we were on our first album. The Haunted Made Me Do It is tight, but we think, in hindsight, it is too clinical; it didn't capture our live feeling and we sound better live, like AC/DC and Motörhead. One Kill Wonder is looser, with a live feel. It has to sound dangerous in order for it to be good metal.

You strike rock star poses on stage. It's elevated you to the status of quite a heartthrob among metal chicks. What's the best line you've ever used on an unsuspecting chick you're trying to pick up?

I don't need lines! My onstage persona, with the drink in my hand, does all the talking [laughs]. We give the audience a show that's not boring. I don't want you standing in the corner crying. Drink a beer with your friends and rock!

You won a Swedish Grammy. Where do you keep the statue? I gave it to a girl! No, I am kidding. I have it, but it's not on the wall. But it meant a lot to us in Sweden. We're the heaviest band to win that award, so it opens a lot of doors.

CRADLE OF FILTH

"Babalon A.D. (So Glad For The Madness)" CD5 (Red Ink-Sony)
2003 will be the year of the Filth. The band is co-headlining Ozzfest 2003's side stage, which might cause the premature death of pasty-faced frontman Dani Filth, since sunlight is the enemy of any vampire! On March 25, Sony Music will distribute Cradle Of Filth's forthcoming album, Damnation And A Day, via its Red Ink label. No kidding. The shock at seeing Cradle, easily the most nefarious sideshow in metal, with a Sony label attached to it is incredible and awe-inspiring. It's a good sign for extreme metal and the Cradle/Sony partnership will go on to become the yardstick by which future collaborations such as this are judged. The single "Babalon A.D. (So Glad For The Madness)," from COF's ninth album, will require that you go in for neck replacement surgery after hearing it because you'll bang your head so hard to it. If you've been around long enough, you know that Cradle's shtick is its blatant, over-the-top blasphemy. You'll also know that the production is always something to be desired, as the keyboards and Filth's vocals always overpower everything else in the mix. This time, however, everything gets a fair chance to stand out.

OLD MAN'S CHILD

In Defiance Of Existence (Century Media) European black metal bands are incestuous, playing in and leaving each other's bands as often as obsessive-compulsive germophobes wash their hands. Old Man's Child's family tree features Galder (of Dimmu Borgir fame) and Nicholas Barker (formerly of Cradle Of Filth and currently with Dimmu Borgir). OMC is, for all intents and purposes, Galder's brainchild. In Defiance Of Existence has a fire in its belly, shaking and stirring keyboard-driven, gothically inspired black metal with the unquestionable brutality of death metal. Galder leaves the high register squawking to Dani Filth and delivers only the most agitated, lung-rotted growls. Additionally, the drumming and riffing are so blast-beatedly fast that you'll go into cardiac arrest when listening to this bastard. If Satan needed a band to play music every time he took a step in hell, it would be Old Man's Child. "Agony Of Fallen Grace," "Black Seeds On Virgin Soil" and "Sacrifice Of Vengeance" should cleanse your palate of all false and nü metal and tide you over till the next Dimmu release.

YATTERING

Genocide (Candlelight)

The Yattering is death metal from Poland. Lay it on us! So, will Yattering remind you of Vader? Well, by virtue of the fact that it's Polish and it's death metal, which are two common traits that both of the bands share, Genocide does indeed conjure up images of Vader. Even so, Genocide wraps its roots around grooves, which is something that's more prevalent in American death metal. The gears of Genocide will grind your spine into shrapnel. "Inflow (Thoughts From Outside)," "Temptation Of A Crime" and "Message

To M.A.R.I.O." are competent death metal tunes that won't introduce you to anything you haven't already heard several times over in this genre. But if stable, unrepentantly heavy music is your bag, then Yattering should more than satisfy.

THE END

Transfer Trachea Reverberations From Point: False Omniscient (Relapse)
The End (not to be confused with the record label of the same name) will rip listener's throats out and ruthlessly shit down their necks. Transfer Trachea Reverberations From Point: False Omniscient's angular rock sneers in way that hasn't been heard in quite some time. It's manic and atmospheric, showing off a complete and utter disregard for form and structure. Employing those oft-ballyhooed "off-kilter time signatures" amid a shitstorm of noise, The End is demented like Dillinger Escape Plan, metallic like Mastodon, all over the map like Yakuza and noisy like Neurosis. "Sonnet" and "Opalscence.1" are the picks of the TTRFP:FO litter.

AGENT ZERO

Agent Zero (Borgata)

Agent Zero's self-titled debut is about as interested in sticking to one genre as Fred Durst is interested in winning friends and influencing people. The band flavors its down-tuned, commercial hard rock with plenty of reggae rhythms, refusing to stick within the bounds of a single style. While Agent Zero is a bit long (12 tracks, as opposed to the disc's 15, would have sufficed), it's an ambitious affair that proudly displays its influences. Opening cut "Getting Smart" tucks itself in a Clutch-style groove, while "Head Up" borders on the nü'ish stylings of Endo and From Zero.

JONES WINS BIG AT GRAMMYS

The phenomenal success of Norah Jones has given Blue Note its biggest Grammy score ever. Apparently the Grammy folks were impressed enough with Jones's timeless blend of Jazz, folk, blues and country to give her five awards for her album Come Away With Me, including "Album Of The Year." Congratulations to Jones and the folks at Blue Note, Shorefire and Groov for making it happen!

Verve records did all right too. Diana Krall took home the "Best Jazz Vocal Album" award for Live In Paris. Herbie Hancock won "Best Jazz Instrumental Solo" for "My Ship," off of his Directions In Music collaboration with Roy Hargrove and Michael Brecker. Directions also won for "Best Jazz Instrumental Album." Also, as reported last week, Jesse Harris has signed with Verve's Blue Thumb imprint, which is looking like a smart money move for the label - after winning "Song Of The Year" as composer of the Jones hit "Don't Know Why," Harris's stock just went up considerably.

Meanwhile, Dave Holland's big band album, What Goes Around (ECM), was the winner in the "Large Jazz Ensemble" category and the Caribbean Jazz Project's The Gathering (Concord) won for "Best Latin Jazz Album." Congrats to the folks at ECM and Concord.

COMPOSERS COLLECTIVE HOLDS THIRD ANNUAL FESTIVAL

The Jazz Composers Collective marks its 11th year with a week of shows at New York City's Jazz Standard, from March 11–16. Dedicated to the fostering, developing, performing and documenting of new and creative Jazz works, the JCC has really stood out as an alternative support system for Jazz musicians. Like a typical arts organization, the Collective commissions works, has a board of directors and an advisory board. Composers in residence are Ben Allison. Michael Blake, Ron Horton, Frank Kimbrough and Ted Nash. During the festival, each will be leading a group, as well as performing in each other's groups. The Herbie Nichols Project, a group led by Horton and Allison dedicated to playing the works of underrated pianist Herbie Nichols, will also perform. For more information, go to: www.jazzcollective.com.

DAVE DOUGLAS HITS THE BIG 4-0 IN STYLE

Trumpeter Dave Douglas will celebrate his 40th birthday with a week-long run at New York City's Jazz Standard from March 25–30. Douglas will play with a full 10 of his groups over the course of the six nights, with highlights including the opening night, with his Balkan music combo Tiny Bell Trio, and the rarely performing Four In One all-star combo featuring Douglas, pianist Misha Mengelberg, bassist Brad Jones and drummer Han Bennink. The trumpeter's chamber music-like Charms Of The Night Sky has also been on hold for a while and will no doubt once again enchant on March 27. The evenings are rounded out by performances from the septet featured on the brand new Freak In, the New Quintet, the Sextet, El Trilogy Ensemble (a group Douglas uses for his work with the Trisha Brown Dance Ensemble), the large group Witness and string group Parallel Worlds. Whew. All the work prepping for these gigs is gonna age the guy another year by the time it's done. For the lowdown on which group plays when, go to: www.davedouglas.com.

INSTANT COMPOSERS PROJECT TOURS

Speaking of Misha Mengelberg and Han Bennink, their long-running 10-piece group, Instant Composers Project, will head out on a 13-date tour of the U.S. and Canada from March 17–April 4. The world-renowned group from Amsterdam generally promises to keep things light and goofy, often taking its free-Jazz improvisations into the realm of whacked-out carnival music and eccentric humor that is the Dutch improvisers' calling card. For some, it's a hard pill to swallow — watching a band capable of world-class improvisation mugging for the audience — but once the shock wears off, folks usually get into the swing of things. It's rare that an acclaimed band this big tours, so by all means check it out. A word of warning: keep an ear out for saxophonist Ab Baars. He's a monster.

COLUMBIA ISSUES TITLES FROM JAPAN'S EIGHTY-EIGHT LABEL

Most Jazz fans know that Japanese labels put food on the tables of a lot of American Jazz musicians. One reason for this is noted Japanese producer Yasohachi "88" Itoh, who has helmed many sessions since the '70s, as well as run both his own noted imprint, East Wind, and Nippon Phonogram. In 2001, Sony Music Japan subsidiary Village Records offered Itoh a chance to start a new label and the first four albums will be out domestically on April 15 via Columbia. This is all well and good, but Itoh has taken the ball and run with it (as we say here in America). There's new music from Clark Terry And Max Roach, Ravi Coltrane, Eddie Henderson and Roy Haynes. Suffice it to say, this is a first volley that is sure to make some noise.

KENNY GARRETT

Standard Of Language (Warner Bros.)

Due to the polished nature of some of his recent work, there was some concern that one of the best in the bebop biz was going over to the dark side of smooth Jazz, but Kenny Garrett comes out here with guns blazing. The opening three tunes hit as hard as anything the alto saxophonist has done, displaying his massive chops. He's challenged throughout by his regular working trio: free-leaning pianist Vernell Brown, bassist Charnett Moffett (an Ornette alum) and hyperactive drummer Chris Dave. The three do an excellent job testing Garrett, perhaps getting him out of his comfort zone, and definitely getting him to come up with some interesting work. When the leader pulls the group in a more conventional direction, it follows along while adding its own fiery imprint. This is another example of why working bands can oftentimes surpass an all-star outfit assembled specifically to record — the group breathes as one, and that's always a good thing.

JOHN PATITUCCI

Songs, Stories And Spirituals (Concord)

Bassist John Patitucci continues to mine Brazilian and Afro-Cuban, as well as classical, music styles for inspiration. But where his last effort seemed a bit diluted by its ambitious reach and broad array of musicians, Patitucci keeps it together here, coming up with a smaller, more cohesive and free-flowing combination using some of the same people (singer Luciano Souza stands out in particular). As always, Patitucci's on-the-beat playing is both nimble and rock solid, perhaps best presented here on Coltrane's "Wise One," a duet with Brian Blade. The overall vibe is fairly mellow without being boring, simmering with the energy of a pot just about to boil.

APOSTOLIC POLYPHONY

Apostolic Polyphony (Drimala)

This date is a one-time musical meeting between Gold Sparkle Band's Charles Waters (reeds), Andrew Barker (drums) and the ubiquitous Matthew Shipp (piano). While the pianist is further along in his catalog, Waters and Barker give him enough to chew on, playing fine counterpoints to Shipp's thundering blocks of chords and angular runs. Barker's typically muscular style propels things as Waters builds melodic ideas and bounces them off his mates. A nice showing by all.

Stephen Malkmus (pictured above) And The Jicks will partake in an outing this spring, beginning March 21 and concluding on May 25. The quartet, lead by the former Pavement frontman, will release its second full-length, Pig Lib, on March 18.

Former Sunny Day Real Estate members Jeremy Enigk, Will Goldsmith and Nate Mendel are now performing as Fire Theft. Currently, the trio has 10 tour dates on its itinerary, with the next show scheduled for March 17 in Atlanta.

Pilot Radio is in the midst of an extensive jaunt, scheduled to end on May 23 in the band's home state of Texas. The lads, led by frontman Ricky Young, are touring in support of 2002's Antiques. The band is expected to record its third album this summer.

Dieselboy (a.k.a. Damian Higgins) is slicking up his turntables for 17 appearances, beginning on March 21 in steamy Miami, Florida. The drum 'n' bass DJ, whose latest album is dubbed projectHUMAN, is renowned for his flawless mixing skills don't miss the opportunity to witness his expert vinyl acrobatics in person. For the full tour itinerary, check out: www. thefiretheft.com/tour.asp.

One of CMJ's favorite indie labels, Trustkill, is getting set to take the world by storm. A handful of the label's most promising artists are hitting the road; Most Precious Blood is set to embark on a lengthy string of dates beginning on March 19 in Providence, Rhode Island, while Bleeding Through is set to play four dates (4/2, 4/4, 4/5, 4/7) with AFI and Explosion. Hopesfall, meanwhile, is set to unleash another leg of live dates beginning on March 28. Let the hardcore merriment begin!

Gingersol recently released its debut on Rubric Records, titled The Trainwreck Is Behind You, and the Los Angeles-based group is on the road promoting the album. However, don't wait too long to see the band; the current string of dates concludes this month. In the meantime, be sure to check out the new disc, as well as Trampoline Records Greatest Hits, Vol. 1, a label compilation featuring Pete Yorn, Sake Sushi Orchestra, Minus 5, Gingersol and many others.

HART OF THE MATTER

s many of you may have heard, CMJ has recently announced a college campus tour which kicks off March 13 at SXSW in Austin, running 22 markets and wrapping up in Santa Clara on April 6. The tour partners CMJ with Nokia, MTV2 and (more importantly for our world) Music Monitor Network and FreeCD.com—as well as other great indies from our reporting panel in participating tour markets (Waterloo, Criminal, DCCD, Luna Music, Atomic, Fingerprints and more).

CMJ Retail and these independent accounts are joining forces to reach out to local college campus radio stations hosting the tour to create mutual awareness and cross-promotional traffic... from store to station to stage and back again. This is CMJ's first college radio/campus/retail campaign and it's off to a great start. There are so many good people involved, all juggling several tasks and schedules to make this first one a success. We especially appreciate the enthusiastic support and coordinating efforts of Michael Kurtz and Carrie Colliton and the participating Network stores as well as Eric Levin, Rand Foster, Bernie Hackett, Todd Robinson, Josh Modell and all those involved within their organizations.

The launch of this tour, and the subsequent tours that will follow, are part of the general principle we're so committed to here in Retail—artist development. As we've mentioned on several occasions since the last CMJ Music Marathon, college stations have been making it abundantly clear to us that they want to learn how to integrate what they do with what retailers sell. In an upcoming cover story sponsored by CMJ Retail, we'll be taking a close look at stores who are nurturing relationships with their local college stations and finding success. The idea is not to convince everyone that college radio sells more records than commercial radio, but that there is a profitable artist development life that can be regularly had outside Clear Channel's kingdom. The level of cooperation between stores, stations, labels and CMJ regarding this tour has been encouraging throughout the birth of this promotion. And college stations, as independent, unorthodox and unpredictable as they can be, want to get more involved. And for retailers, this is the chance to help develop something that, whether its immediate or over time, can bare marketing and sales fruit.

If you haven't heard, the tour features Mooney Suzuki, Raveonettes, Longwave and White Light Motorcade. Fantastic lineup. All bands who deserve the artist development push that only independently minded retailers can give them. As I said before, we are looking forward to a new tour and the opportunity to partner with even more retailers in those TBA markets.

On a different note: how about the in-store performance of Red Ink/Columbia's Switchfoot at Tower La Jolla: 300 pieces sold instore with no real advance signage. Second best-selling new release for Tower chainwide. Huge fan support for this band. Also, when you get the new Astralwerks release from Turin Brakes, make sure you search for the hidden track about four minutes from the end of Track 12—beautiful, absolutely beautiful.

SPEAK OUT

In response to "Hart Of The Matter" (CMJ NMR Issue 802, cover date Feb. 24), which featured independent retailer responses to UMVD's handling of the 50 Cent release, Jim Urie, president of UMVD, offered UMVD's side of the story. We present it here, unedited, and thank Jim for reaching out to "speak out."

Jim Urie President, UMVD

Since it's been such a hot topic the last couple of weeks, I wanted to share the other side of the "50 Cent bulls**t" (thanks, Hanna [Skrobko, East-West Discs And Tapes]). Back in the old days, we used to make the product as soon as a master was delivered. It was not uncommon to have finished product around weeks in advance. Due to concerns about piracy and P2P uploading, we now manufacture literally at the last second. Fifty leaked off of a European master—they still have to start early-and was starting to show up everywhere. When Interscope made the decision on Friday to move the record up to a Thursday street date, we had not made the first piece. We couldn't fill the initial orders, nor the reorders. Situation was made worse by the DVD package which takes extra time due to outside manufacturing.

Since it seems to be such a concern to retail, I wanted to be sure everyone knows that we prorate everyone's order in a situation like this. Sorry to burst the bubble, but Best Buy got the same percentage as your favorite indie store. One stops get their share in the same manner. The only thing we do differently on reorders is prioritize one stop and retail drop ship orders over central warehouse orders. If we can't fill 'em all we wait until day's end and give everyone (including one stops) an equal share.

It's still bulls**t, Hanna, but it is organized bulls**t.

UNDER THE RADAR

This week in Under The Radar we want to draw special attention to those albums that are either making important moves on CMJ Retail charts or are just about to. We'll also throw in a few reasons on the what, why and how things are beginning to pop.

MURS

The End Of The Beginning
Definitive Jux
Catalog No. 48
A testament to boundarycrossing hip-hop and the devotion of Def Jux fans. No big numbers at any one store, just little pockets of "heads" practically everywhere. Top 10s across the board: Albums On The Hill (Boulder), Amoebas (SF, Berkeley, Hollywood), Aron's (LA), LINCS (Long Beach), Mad Platter (Riverside), Pure Pop (Burlington), Rhino (Claremont), Tower (Seattle), Twist And Shout (Denver), more. Current Top 100 chart position: 48*

KEM

Kemistry Motown Catalog No. 067516 Motown's smooooooooth R&B newcomer Kem has

"kemistry" with retailers up north, debuting at No. 63*. A No. 1* showing from the DMRC (Detroit) and Top 10s from Desirable Discs II and III (Garden City and Dearborn), Record Time (Ferndale) and Crow's Nest (Crest Hill, IL). Much love from Chicago's Virgin Megastore as well.

DJ WHOO KID

Hood Radio Vol. 1 Full Clip Catalog No. 2005 Underground mixtape star rocks his first widely distributed mix, featuring LL Cool J, Nas, Foxy Brown, Juvenile and more. But being 50 Cent's DJ doesn't hurt. Top 20 debuts at Angelo's CDs And More (Thorton and Aurora), Manifest (Columbia), Music Shack (Albany), Newbury Comics (Brighton) and Record Exchange (Greensboro).

HAUNTED

One Kill Wonder
Earache
Catalog No. 265
Super-speedy, thuggish, chuggish Scandinavian death metallers the Haunted debut at No. 67* with their latest Earache earache. No. 1* debuts at Bionic Records (Huntington Beach and Fullerton) and Threshold Music (Tinley Park, IL). Top 10s at Angelo's CDs And More (Littleton and Thorton), Daddy Kool.com (St. Pete), Music Shack (Albany), Record Time (Roseville) and Rock-A-Billy's (Utica).

Current Top 100 chart position: 67*

NOTWIST

Neon Golden Domino Catalog No. 10 Critically revered Teutonic IDM-cum-indie rockers Notwist debut at No. 69* with their much-hyped Neon Golden. No. 1* debuts at East Alley (Rochester) and Jackpot (Portland). Tons of top tens: Albums On The Hill (Boulder), Amoeba (SF), Aron's (LA), Atomic (Milwaukee), Discs And Tapes Unltd. (Brighton), Face The Music (Eugene), Mod Lang (Berkeley), Park Ave. CDs (Winter Park, FL), Sea Level (LA), Sonic Boom (Seattle), more.

Current Top 100 chart position: 69*

*Bold numbers signify upward movement.

LYL WYTE

Doubt Me Now Hypnotize Minds Catalog No. 3604 Produced by Three 6 Mafia's DJ Paul and Juicy J, Lil' Wyte's debut is a Southern sensation, especially on Triple Six's home turf of Tennesee. A No 4* debut from Music City Record Distributors (Nashville) and Top 30s from Be-Bop Record Shop (Ridgeland, MS) and more.

Current Top 100 chart position: 95*

Early programs/support from LINCS, CIMS, A.I.M.S., MMN, ISIS, indies everywhere. No. 21 this week on the CMJ In-store Play chart: those who have been playing it have been selling it.
	This one is fast becoming a CMJ favorite. Focus tracks so far are "Tidal Wave" and "Everywhere You Turn." For radio info contact Alli Groman (agroman@atorecords.com). Comm. radio campaign will kick in April/May.	Official add date for college radio is 3/10-3/11, with commercial specialty radio mailing going out 3/16. Focus tracks are "Art Is Hard" and "The Recluse," but definitely give the entire CD a listen.	"With My Own Two Hands" recently added at 91X (San Diego), WXRT (Chicago), KFOG (SF), WRNR (Baltimore), KMTT (Seattle) and KGSR (Austin). Target formats are Triple A and Modern Rock.	Focus tracks: "Brand Of Skin" and "Leaving It Up To Me." Going for adds at Triple A, non-comm., college and comm. alternative specialty. S.P.E.C.T.R.E and Team Clermont working college, Modrox comm. spec. No. 1 Triple A and No. 2 Most Added at College Radio this week.
	Video for "Everywhere You Turn" has been completed and is already seeing airtime on MTV2. Band also was featured last week on MTV's "You Hear It First"— a feature which will air two weeks total.	The CD includes four live video performances. Official video is in the works.	Video for "With My Own Hands" at regional video outlets and MTV2. Directed by the Malloys. MTV2 started play 2/24.	Video for "Brand Of Skin" shot by the Brothers Chaps. Fans can check out video at http://artistdirectrecords.com/imusic/mediatoolkit/folkimplosion/.
H	Press support rolling in from Rolling Stone, Village Voice, Alternative Press, NME, CMJ, YM. A band-created fanzine called The Echo with all band's history, activity, plans, etc. avail at lifestyle accounts for free. Band very into doing interviews with college papers in tour markets.	Press is everywhere, with initial support coming from fanzines and national alike: AP, The Big Takeover, Blender, CMJ NMM, Jane, Spin, Magnet, Rolling Stone, Stereotype, Revolver, Esquire, Guitar Player, Heckler, Impose, Punk Planet and many more!	Reviews and features from Relix (cover), CMJ Monthly (cover) to Mean Street, Performing Songwriter, Guitar World, Jane, Billboard, Amplifier, Blender, Details, Esquire, Jane, Spin and more. Will appear on Letterman 3/10 and Carson Daly (TBA).	Lou Barlow's indie-rock pedigree (Dinosaur Jr., Sebadoh, Folk Implosion) has helped garner early support from CMJ (four-page spread), Magnet, Rolling Stone, Blender, Stuff, Esquire, AP, Chicago Tribune, Boston Phoenix, Time Out NY and it's just getting started.
	Longwave part of CMJ Advance Warning Tour (in partnership with MTV2, Nokia, MMN and other CIMS, A.I.M.S., LINCS retailers in tour mrkts). Tour features Raveonettes, Mooney Suzuki, White Light Motorcade, too. Band just finished w/ Donnas and OK Go.	Spring tour kicks off 3/15 in Omaha and hits Mnpls., Milwaukee, Chicago, Detroit, Columbus, Philly, Boston, NYC, DC, NC, Tampa, Miami, Orlando, Atlanta, Nashville, St. Louis, KC, Denver, SLC, Seattle, Portland, SF, LA, San Diego, Tempe, Texas, more!	Solo dates from 4/25 – 5/11 (which includes a New Orleans Jazz Fest appearance 5/2, Memphis' Beale Street Music Fest 5/4 and Coachella). He'll then be on tour with Jack Johnson 6/5 – 7/3.	Extensive five-week headlining tour including: SF, Portland, Seattle, Boise, SLC, Denver, KC, Mnpls., Chicago, Detroit, NYC, Cambridge, TX, Atlanta, N.O., LA, SD, Phoenix, more. Then to Europe and back for another full US tour.
	E-blasts to all Strokes, Ben Kweller and R.I.Y.L. fan lists with Longwave E-cards attached and IM icons, music and video clips. SperryMedia program launches mid-March with jukeboxes on all CIMS sites. Band site is longwavetheband.com.	Bios, photos, Mp3s, tour dates, updates, etc available at saddlecreek.com (where fans can also pick up all currently available CDs, LPs, posters, merch). Band's official site is cursivearmy.com and contains its own pics, tour dates, news updates, and more.	Best site is benharper.net where fans can stream audio and video for "With My Own Two Hands." Jukeboxes will be available for retail sites and E-blasts and will be customizable with store logos and specific click-to-buy links.	Internet has been a huge tool in getting the word out on The New . E-blasts, E-cards, downloads, newsletters, chat rooms, icons, contests, programs with Amazon, CIMS. Best sites are the band's at folkimplosion.com and ARTISTdirect.com.
	Band discovered opening for the Strokes. Fenway Records originally released the killer Day Sleeper EP in October 2002, which really helped build an early fanbase. Fans of the Strokes, Interpol, BMRC, Vines will love this—but so will Joy Division, (old) U2 and Bauhaus fans. Album produced by Dave Fridmann (Flaming Lips). Band totally down for in-stores at all your stores. Contact brid eldhom@har.app.com.gr.vivir. BMC or	After suffering a collapsed lung during a fall tour in 2002, Tim Kasher and the rest of Cursive entered the studio to make The Ugly Organ , their fourth fulllength and most commanding performance yet. For posters, postcards, stickers and in-store play copies contact matt@saddle-creek.com.	For info regarding the jukeboxes as well as display materials (this one's got posters, bin/tent cards, flats and stickers) contact your local EMD. One interesting note: three of Ben's catalog albums—  Live From Mars, Burn To Shine and Fight For Your Mind—are all verging on Gold. His voice is so recognizable, truly a "diamond inside"—in-store play this one and you'll find old as well as pow face.	For posters, postcards, stickers, in-store play copies, etc., contact shanieka.brooks@artistdirect.com. Constant touring (with a solid fanbase) and Barlow's 15 years of indie-rock history have given them out-of-the-gate support with many indie retailers. This album deserves your continued support, watch it climb the CMJ charts (Retail and Callers) in the posting works.

COUNTER CULTURE: MY GENERATION Section by Jamie Farkas • jfarkas@cmj.com

lthough Westlake, Ohio's My Generation stocks the newest indie releases, carries hot imports and attracts record hounds with their deep catalog, My Gen Buyer Adam Walker stresses the most interesting aspect of the store lies not within product. "Our customers are what makes us special," Adam says. "We have a very knowledgeable customer base and a lot of them are regulars. They help me do my job better!"

On November 12, 1983, Tom Kiss opened the doors of his new 500-square-foot store with the belief that compact discs were going to be the next big thing. Since then, My Generation has flourished, moving once and expanding twice to its current 3,500square-foot home.

My Generation is the biggest independent store in the Cleveland area, carries everything from classical music to DVDs and is now a proud member of A.I.M.S. "I think A.I.M.S. is great," Adam says. "So many good ideas come from seeing how different people do business. Even the smallest ideas that arise from the way someone does business halfway across the country have really opened my eyes to what we can do better and reinforce what we do pretty well."

Q&A with Adam Walker, Buyer, My Generation

What local press affects sales most? Cleveland Scene, our weekly free arts and entertainment paper.

What radio station affects sales most?

As far as commercial stations go, 92X and WMMS. Two college stations also affect our sales a lot: WJCU [John Carroll University] and WCSB [Cleveland State University].

Talkin' 'bout... oh, forget it.

Do you have in-stores?

We do have in-stores, but we don't have a PA. Some highlights have been Marshall Crenshaw, Poe and local band Hot Teenage Ass, who we had play here after the store was closed on a Sunday night and we had a great turnout!

What is your most effective program?

Definitely our listening stations, both the A.I.M.S. listening stations and our inhouse posts.

What other programs do you offer? Are any of them discretionary?

We have window displays, endcaps and other P&P options. We do offer some discretionary stations, so if I have an open slot and there's a record I really like, I'll put in.

What types of non-traditional promotions have worked best?

We do a lot with our E-mail list. We'll have E-mail-only sales where we will send an Email out that acts as a coupon once the customer prints it out. We have also started a new promotion where if someone brings in a photo of themselves at a concert wearing one of our T-shirts they get ten percent off their purchase that day.

What display materials work best for you?

Three-by-three foam boards work really well for our windows; posters and flats are best for inside displays.

What records are your current and alltime favorite records?

My Bloody Valentine's Loveless and Sondre Lerche's Faces Down.

What's the first record you bought and where?

It was the Clash The Clash, and I bought it at My Generation!

What's the best concert you've attended? Nirvana in 1990 at the now-closed club The Empire in Cleveland.

NEWSWORTHY

Sonic Baby Boom

Seattle's Sonic Boom is exploding with excitement, as their third store (located on Capitol Hill) will have a downright jawdroppingly spectacular grand opening this March. To celebrate the newest Boom, Sonic Boom Capitol Hill is having nine-count 'em nine-instore performances their inaugural week, from both indie superstars and up-and-comers alike: the Peter Buck/Scott McCaughey vehicle Minus 5 (3/1), acclaimed Nordic troubadour Sondre Lerche (3/3), half-Quasi side project Blues Goblins (3/4), a DJ set from Mira of new-new-wavers Ladytron (3/4), country-inflected Seattle indie-rockers Loveless And Goodnight Trail (3/9), one-fourth-of-Weezer band Special Goodness (3/13), mighty Brit-pop holdouts Supergrass (3/20), Sub Pop's folkafied Damien Jurado (3/21) and the inestimable post-Pavement king of shrug Stephen Malkmus (3/22).

The opening of the new store flies in the face of a rash of recent record store closings. "We've been lucky," says Sonic Boom co-owner Nabil Ayers. "The stores we have are smallto-medium stores in good locations-bars and clubs where people are just walking around. [The new store] looks really good," Avers says of the most recent Boom. "It looks so clean and new, it's hilarious. It smells really nice."

NAIL Hammers Symbiotic

Pacific Northwest indie distributor NAIL (part of the Allegro Corporation) has acquired the distribution assets of the Symbiotic Label Group. This is a significant addition because it means NAIL adds damn-near-a-dozen new labels to its roster, including: Omnibus Records (Mates Of State, Shins), Skin Graft Records (Ruins, Arab On Radar), Monitor Records (Oxes, Bellini), Makoto Records (Tristeza, Crush Kill Destroy), Divot Records (Paper Chase, Sweep The Leg Johnny), Hearbox Records (Superdrag, Figgs), 4 Alarm Records (Frogs, Pinehurst Kids), 54°40' or Fight! Records, Copper Press Magazine, Owned and Operated Records and Upland Records. Congratulations everyone on what should be a new and happy polygamous marriage.

The winner of the "Win Snoop Dogg's Low Rider" contest, Shaniqua Knox, surrounded by her crew (because even in the world of contest-winning, it ain't no fun if the homies can't have none). Within minutes she was likely rolling down the street, smoking indo, sipping on gin and juice.

On February 23, Easy Street Records in Seattle, Washington was blessed with what geologists refer to as, "a double shot of that sweet-ass rock." First, the boys of OK Go (right) eschewed their original idea for a three-song strippeddown set in favor of a plugged-in, amped-up power-pop rockstravaganza Afterwards, they signed their names to things.

Not an hour later, the bad, bad girls 'o pop-punk, the Donnas (left) crashed the party and spiked the punch. They snuck in the back door, rolled around in the back room, waltzed through the store, grabbed the mic and said, "Let's have some fun!" They spun records—Thin Lizzy, Foghat and, of course, Doggystyle-and also performed the ancient ritual of signing their names on stuff. "They signed every last autograph for about 400 google-eyed fans," said Easy Street prez Matt Vaughan via E-mail. "It was a sunny weekend in Seattle!" Security then had to escort the Donnas out of the store after they attempted to Spend The Night

INTERNSHIPS

Blackout! Records (H2O, Kill Your Idols, Commercials) is seeking interns to work in the Promotions and Marketing areas in its Hoboken, NJ office. Unlike labels where you'll only buy coffee and lick envelopes, at Blackout you'll actually do real jobs that have a real impact on the bands. We pay transportation only, and suggest that you be eligible to receive course credit for your time. Submit resume and (most importantly) a real letter stating why you want to work here to: info@blackoutrecords.com.

Mute Records is seeking interns in its Radio Department to assist with daily operations and to help maintain relationships with college radio stations nationwide. Our offices are centrally located on 22nd Street in Manhattan. No mass-mailing work will be involved in this internship! Our artist roster includes Liars, Richie Hawtin, Echoboy, Paul van Dyk, Goldfrapp and more. Please contact Alex Schneider at 212.255.7670, ext. 230; email: alex@mute.com.

McGathy Promotions is looking for a part-time intern to work closely with our Marketing, Rock Radio Promotions, and Band Management departments. Duties will include filing/sorting, data entry, communicating with record labels to obtain product, and any ad hoc projects. This is not a paying position, but candidates may receive college credit. All inquiries must have "MCG-INT" in subject line of email. No phone calls or faxes. Send all resumes to gman@ mcgathypromotions.com.

Kinetic Records is looking for motivated interns to help out in all departments this winter and summer. This is a great opportunity to experience the inner-workings of an independent label up-close-andpersonal. Please send your resume and cover letter to john@kineticrecords.com.

Roadrunner Records is seeking highly motivated, organized and detail-oriented individuals to intern for its Tour Marketing, Retail and Field Marketing Departments. Internships will run during the Spring and Summer semesters. Gain a wide range of music industry knowledge, along with the opportunity to attend Roadrunner shows and special events. College students looking for experience in exchange for credit are preferred. Candidates must be available at least 20 hours per week. Internships are unpaid, but reimbursement for travel will be offered. Submit resume and cover letter to Veronica Vallado at vallado@roadrunnerrecords. com; fax: 212.505.7469

STREET TEAMS AND MARKETING

Universal Music And Video Distribution is seeking pop/rock/urban College and Lifestyle Marketing Reps in the following markets: Atlanta (urban only); Boston; Champaign, IL; Cleveland, OH; Hartford, CT; Madison, WI; Memphis; New Orleans; New York City/New Jersey; Philadelphia; Raleigh, NC. Positions focus on marketing artists on Interscope, Island/Def Jam, MCA, Universal/Motown, Verve, DreamWorks, and associated labels through college press and radio, tour coverage and activities on campus and in the surrounding community. This is a 20-hour per week paid position and requires college enrollment through Fall 2003. Fax resumes to Shola at 818.866.4601; email: shola.akinshemoyin@umusic.com.

REPORTING DATES

February 28 - March 4

CMJ REPORTING HOURS

6 a.m. Friday - 2 p.m. Tuesday EST www.cmj.com/reporting/

NOTE TO REPORTERS: Printed playlists reflect airplay reported to CMJ two weeks prior to magazine's cover date. The number of station playlists printed each week in CMJ is randomly determined by available space.

CMJ REPORTING GUIDELINES

CMJ Airplay Reporters must submit reports weekly, via the online interface located at www.cmj.com, prior to 2 p.m. (ET) every Tuesday afternoon, abiding to the following guidelines:

- "Adds" are the new and current albums that a CMJ Airplay Reporter makes available for airplay and reasonably expects will receive airplay during the forthcoming week.
- Albums reported in a CMJ Airplay Reporter's Top 30 playlist must represent the 30 most played current albums on the station during the preceding week. Because we are a "new" music publication whose charts are albums-based, reporting re-currents (or recordings more than a year old) or singles is not necessary.
- Airplay reports that do not correlate with actual airplay, also known as "paper adds," are not permitted under any circumstances.
- For this issue only, if CMJ cannot verify the existence of an artist and/or recording on a station's airplay report (we do so by investigating our own internal database, searching the Internet and/or consulting with online music retailers), the recording in question will be substituted with the entry "UNVERIFIED" in its position on the playlist and submitted, with the alternate entry in its place, for the compilation of CMJ's weekly radio charts.
