With Mother's Day just ahead of us, Kitty Kallen demonstrates her smash hit "Little Things Mean A Lot" in the best way she knows how, by kissing her little son Jonathan. Kitty, whose "Are You Looking For A Sweetheart" started her off in fine style on the Decca label, now has a full fledged top notcher in "Little Things". Happy Mother's Day, Kitty. That's sure a nice "little thing" you're kissing there.

What About TV?

9,100,000 programming hours per year should result in new type acting circuit and develop America's next big songstars!

What about TV? If all comes true, according to what the FCC intends to grant in the way of new telecasting stations, there will be about 2,500 telecasting outlets—in a few more years.

That means, if figures count for anything, that with 2,500 telecasting stations on the air for an average of ten hours each: 25,000 hours of telecasting each day.

175,000 telecasting hours per week. 9,100,000 telecasting hours per year.

With all the old movies, with all the present programming, with everything that can be thrown into this potpourri, it still means more programming hours even if all the present networks were thrown into one network—than anyone ever yet dreamed of in this sore-eyed world of entertainment.

Can this mean the opening of an entirely new entertainment circuit? A circuit that can be likened to those of the old days? The Pantages, the Keith, the Orpheum?

Will this mean that the big stars of the nation (and the lesser names as well) may be traveling from one town to another, filling TV station programming commitments (live)?

Can this mean the return of a new kind of variety?

Whatever it does mean, and whether the movie industry does or does not, join in to help make these 9,100,000 programming hours possible as well as interesting to the viewers, there are bound to arise the nation's new songstars when these many telecasting units come into being.

Just as when radio grew up and the local as well as the network stars grew up with it, the people wanted to hear them over again. The nation's juke boxes were the one and only medium which would once again produce the sounds the people wanted to hear. Perhaps here, too, will again come into being the new juke box songstars of tomorrow.

What about TV? Well, according to those in TV (and they keep making this same statement year after year), "We're still in our infancy!"

If it is plausible to believe that "figures don't lie" then these people, who are engaged in TV at this time, are really and truly "in their infancy."

They'll get out of it with a sudden and very determined shock. That'll be the day when someone announces: "There are now 2,500 telecasting stations in the U.S.A."

That will mean, on the basis of only ten hours of actual operation each day for each telecasting unit over 9,100,000 programming hours per year.

That, believe it or not, is more programming hours than anyone ever dreamed would ever be necessary for television.

Will stars travel from one city to another to appear on local stations, because with so many, many telecasting stations in operation, network may become almost entirely too expensive for the average advertiser?

Will this then, likewise, mean a new kind of star? An artist who will have to learn to do the greater part of his acting from the waist up, especially in the very discerning closeup shots which TV so drillingly and peculiarly calls its own dramatic emphasis on action?

Will this, then, be the new 'Pantages' or the new 'Keith' or the new 'Orpheum' circuit similar to those historical circuits of yesteryear?

And, surely, won't this mean that local talent, sponsored by local people, the youngsters, the newcomers, will be the stars of tomorrow?

The kids who are singing their hearts out in local clubs today who may be the big names of tomorrow as television grows up? Just a few thoughts spoken aloud.

What do you think?

KLAC-Los Angeles turned New York City upside down with one of the greatest parties the Gotham has ever seen. Several thousand members of the radio industry, sponsors, record business and the press attended the party last Monday, April 26, at the Savoy Plaza Hotel. In from the coast were KLAC's "Big Five"—Dick Haynes, Peter Potter, Bob McLaughlin, Jim Ameche and Alex Cooper. Also actively engaged in seeing that everyone had a good time were Red Doff, publicity and promotion for KLAC, and lovely Gloria Haas, Bob McLaughlin's secretary. Tony Paster and his orchestra supplied dance music for the gala event.

TODD PURSE
(WJW—Cleveland, Ohio)

Pic of the week—Todd Purse (WJW-Cleveland, O.) gaining great popularity with his two shows 2 to 5 P. M. and 6:15 to 7 P. M. Unusual approach to the public is Todd's 4 to 5 P. M. airing which he calls "Purse Homework Haven." Todd's studio virtually resembles a schoolroom study hall at this time as the studio is usually filled with bobby soxers doing their homework to the Purse selection of music. . . Lt. John Parker, operations officer of the Armed Forces Radio, a new daddy. John's wife gave birth last week. . . Johnny King, emcee disk jockey of the afternoon "Luncheon Ala King" over WJAR-Providence, added a Saturday request stint of "This Is Your Tune" from 8:30 to 11 P. M. . . Tommy Edwards (WERE-Cleveland) currently revising his list of fan clubs in his area. Tommy distributes the list to teen age listeners free. It contains names, addresses and full information about fan clubs for record stars, radio and TV personalities and movie stars. . . This might be a record of one kind or another.

The Home Furniture Companies of Norfolk and Portsmouth, Virginia, have extended their daily allnight DJ program, MC'd by Roger Clark (WNOR-Norfolk, Va.) from six to six and one-half hours a day—making a weekly total of forty-five and one-half hours commercial time for one sponsor. . . Ed Meath (WHEC-Rochester, N. Y.) was extremely successful in his first country music promotion which featured Webb Pierce and Hank Snow headlining the Grand Ole Opry troupe. The show played to 4200 customers. Meath is already looking forward to the next one.

* * * * *

Jack Chenoweth (WCUE-Akron, O.) recently worked a great tie-in with the fic "Glenn Miller Story." When the movie played Akron, the Palace Theatre ran a trailer after each showing to the effect "that music from the 'Glenn Miller Story' can be heard on Platter Matinee." . . Don Sherman (WLYN-Lynn, Mass.) recently had to think fast when two of WLYN's 4 turntables conked out, leaving one serviceable table in each studio. Don and another WLYN jockey, Jack McDermott, worked out a gimmick, asking the listeners to call in requests in rhyme. Calls flooded the studio as fast as Don and Jack could handle them. The rhymes were perfect intro's for each disk giving the fast thinging duo time to bridge the gap between records.

PAUL WESTON ORCH.
(Columbia 40237; 4-40237)

B+ "I WENT OUT OF MY WAY" (2:38) [Broadcast BMI—Bliss] The Norman Luboff Choir gets a stringy backing from Paul Weston and the crew on a dreamdusted version of a beautiful tune. Music for the quiet hour. Top job.

C+ "THE BELLS OF NOTRE DAME" (2:23) [Glenwood BMI—Roberts] Another pretty tune about the famous church is treated with ease and tenderness by the artists. Good listening.

STEWART "RICK" ROSE
(Look 103; 45-103)

B "I COMPLAINED" (2:48) [Personality BMI—Ram, Rand] Corporal Stewart Rose bows on the Look label with a dramatic "I Believe" type of number. An exciting tune very well rendered. Choir effective. Could make the grade.

C+ "I WANT YOU" (2:38) [Personality BMI—Ram, Rand] The artist leans into a tango reading of a romantic item formerly known as "Golden Wedding." Lovely melody given a sincere and feelingful reading.

LEROY HOLMES ORCH.
(MGM 11735; K-11735)

B "LAZY AFTERNOON" (2:59) [Chappell & Co. ASCAP—Moross, LaTouche] From the musical "Golden Apple" comes this bluesy, lazy affair given a terrific orking by LeRoy Holmes and the ork. Rosanne's exciting voice does wonders in the vocal department. Good job.

C+ "SERENADE" (2:51) [Harms ASCAP—Romberg, Donnelly] The ork belts out soft jumper from the soon to be premiered flicker "Student Prince." Terrific dance music.

FOUR BELLS
(Bell Records 1039; 45-1039)

C+ "HERE" (2:21) [Hill & Range BMI—Cochran, Grant] The Four Bells come up with a smooth inviting version of a current hit. Good sound and some fine coverage. Larry Clinton's ork assists.

C+ "DREAM, DREAM, DREAM" (2:50) [Feist ASCAP—Parish, McHugh] The boys dish up some polished harmony on this end as they ease through an appealing ballad that's making noise.

BLUE NOTES & MELINO ORCH.
(Tico 1083; 45-1083)

C+ "CHARLOTTE AMALIE" [—Benjamin, Weiss] A pretty tropical melody is given a soft and pleasing treatment by the Blue Notes as Melino and his men back with a slow mambo tempo. Ok Latin item.

C+ "MAKE A BOX" [—Melino] Melino dishes up another mambo backdrop for the Blue Notes' vocal effort on a cute ditty. Catchy piece good for dancing.

THE CASH BOX DISK OF THE WEEK

"STEAM HEAT" (2:16) [Frank ASCAP—Adler, Ross]

"LONELY DAYS" (2:31) [Lear ASCAP—Moore, Hurd]

PATTI PAGE

(Mercury 70380; 70380 x 45)

● Keep 'em different is Patti Page's formula and she does just that as she bids for her third hit of '54 with a real classy piece of material. First the thrush clicked with a slow waltz in "Changing Partners." Then came the rhythm spiritual "Cross Over The Bridge" which is pressing the top spot. And now the thrush offers a terrific jumper called "Steam Heat" that'll surely draw loads of loot for all concerned. Patti gets a solid backing on this sockeroo from the coming B'way musical "Pajama Game." And her multiple voicing comes over great. "Lonely Days" is a pretty soft waltz item given the unique warm touch that only Patti can give a song. Looks like another hit.

DICK HYMAN TRIO
(MGM 11743; K-11743)

B "UNFORGETTABLE" (2:58) [Bourne ASCAP—Gordon] The Dick Hyman Trio makes an impressive showing with a good sounding arrangement of a wonderful oldie. Group has a sound all its own. Could make noise.

C+ "OUT OF NOWHERE" (2:48) [Famous ASCAP—Green, Heyman] From the flicker "You Came Along" comes this beautiful oldie offered in a slow rhythm fashion by the threesome. Interesting style.

RICHARD MALTBY ORCH.
("X"-0016; 4X-0016)

B "MEADOWLARK" (2:41) [Sherwin ASCAP—Maltby] The lush and inviting strings of the Richard Maltby orchestra glide through a pretty instrumental item. Pretty melody penned by the conductor.

B "BLACK PEARLS" (2:42) [SESAC—Bizet, Maltby] Another interesting instrumental is this Maltby arrangement of an exciting Bizet composition. Lovely melody.

PAUL BRUNO
(BBS 126; 45-126)

B+ "WANDERLUST BLUES" (2:30) [Hampshire House ASCAP—Di Minno, Tucker] With a catchy arrangement including a banjo, Paul Bruno bounces through a cute novelty that could break big. Good item.

C+ "BEFORE YOU SAY GOOD-BYE" (2:52) [ASCAP—Borrelli, Venuto] Joseph Leahy and the ork set up a dreamy backing for the crooner's feelingful rendition of an ok ballad.

THE COMMANDERS
(Decca 29093; 9-29093)

B "IT'S A WONDERFUL WORLD" (2:48) [Miller ASCAP—Savitt, Watson, Adamson] An excellent instrumental jump interpretation of a wonderful oldie is offered by the combined efforts of the Commanders. Very danceable.

C "JIM'NY CRICKETS" (3:01) [Englewood. BMI—Odette] The crew rides through another good piece of lindy material. Boys show their talents as they take off on solos.

GINNY GIBSON
(MGM 11736; K-11736)

B "SERENADE TO SPRING" (2:55) [Geo. Simon ASCAP—Charles, Regney] Aided by the Joe Lipman orchestra, smooth voiced Ginny Gibson tenderly fashions a lovely romantic item fitting for this season. Good job.

B "AYE AYE AYE AYE" (2:56) [Trinity BMI—Lipman, Regney, Regney] The popular Latin-American tune, "Cielito Lindo" gets a solid samba beat and a new set of lyrics fashioned by the thrush. Could click. Novelty.

THE CHORDETTES
(Cadence 1239; 45-1239)

C+ "TRUE LOVE GOES ON AND ON" (2:45) [Frank ASCAP—Adler, Ross] The Chordettes and their beautiful harmony send up a melodic version of a slow waltz with a folk flavor. Excellent voice blend. Tune is hitting.

C+ "IT'S YOU, IT'S YOU I LOVE" (2:35) [Essex ASCAP—Cope-land] Archie Bleyer assists the quintet with a good backing on a catchy jumper with a light bounce. Interesting interpretation.

BETTY HUTTON
(Capitol 2776; F-2776)

C+ "BANANA BOAT" (2:55) [Ardmore ASCAP—Livingston, Evans] A banana boat is the subject of vibrant Betty Hutton's catchy samba novelty. Real cute bouncer with a chorus and Nelson Riddle's ork assisting.

C+ "MY CUTEY'S DUE AT TWO TO TWO TODAY" (2:15) [Stasny ASCAP—Robin, Von Tilzer, Bibo] The chirp lets loose on a clever cornball item with the band dishing up a rag time backing. Ok ditty.

MARY MAYO
(Benida 5014; 45-5014)

B+ "HEAVENLY FEELING" (2:00) [Billy Jr. BMI—Wayne, Silbert] The infectious Chock Full O' Nuts jingle is given new lyrics and a real commercial delivery by the pert voice of Mary Mayo. Chorus adds warmth to waltz. Could happen.

C+ "COME TO BABY, DO" (2:08) [Leeds ASCAP—James, Miller] The talented songbird rhythms through a jump version of a great oldie. Ork sets up a fitting backdrop.

KAYE BALLARD
(Decca 29114; 9-29114)

B "LAZY AFTERNOON" (3:09) [Chappell ASCAP—Moross, LaTouche] Kaye Ballard, star of "Golden Apple" bows impressively on wax as she renders a bluesy imaginative number from the show. Thrush has a bright future.

C "IN OTHER WORDS" (2:14) [Almanac ASCAP—Howard] Kaye gets another lush backing for her strong voiced delivery of a good love song.

DANNY WINCHELL
(Jubilee 5140; 45-5140)

- C+ "RO-RO-ROLLIN' ALONG" (2:47) [Shapiro Bernstein ASCAP—Mencher, Richman, Moll] A pleasing and inviting slow lilter gets a personality treatment from Danny Winchell and the Sid Bass ork. Ok job.
- C+ "JOSHUA" (1:58) [P.D.] Sid Bass and the boys supply the crooner with a real beaty backing as he belts out a vigorous version of an old spiritual favorite. Solid arrangement.

DOLORES GRAY
(Decca 29109; 9-29109)

- B "LOST IN LOVELINESS" (2:31) [Chappell & Co. ASCAP—Romberg, Robin] A beautiful hit ballad from "The Girl In Pink Tights" musical is given a potent reading by show-disk star Dolores Gray. Beautiful job.
- B "IN PARIS AND IN LOVE" (2:49) [Chappell ASCAP—Romberg, Robin] Aided by the Dave Terry ork, the wonderful thrush eases through another beautiful love song from the same show. Lovely subdued tango. Good tune.

BILL HARRINGTON & JONES BOYS
(Anchor 24; 45-24)

- C+ "WHEN YOUR OLD WEDDING RING WAS NEW" (2:45) [Mills ASCAP—McCarthy, Solieri, Douglas] Roy Ross and the orchestra set up a soft backdrop for a pretty slow waltz tune by Harrington and the Jones Boys. Soft item.
- B "ACE IN THE HOLE" (2:30) [Jerry Vogel—Dempsey, Mitchell] The crew teams up a good rhythm novelty that could catch on. Real clever ditty given a classy reading.

PEREZ PRADO ORCH.
(RCA Victor 20-5738; 47-5738)

- C+ "SUCH A NIGHT" (3:22) [Dreyer BMI—Chase] Ray Baxter handles the vocal chores on Perez Prado's mambo arrangement of a current noise maker. Good rocker on the slow side. Instrumentation rates the nod.
- B "BALLIN' THE JACK" [E. B. Marks BMI—Smith, Europe] A great oldie gets a sensational mambo arrangement from the Prado men. Real wild trumpet section and a crazy beat.

AL MORGAN
(“X”-0015; 4X-0015)

- C+ "MY MOM" (2:10) [Bregman, Voeco & Conn ASCAP—Donaldson] Assisted by Bill Walker and the ork, Al Morgan hands in a tender reading of a touching tune very fitting for Mothers' Day. Pretty melody and fine piano work.

SLEEPER OF THE WEEK

[Jubilee ASCAP—Best]
"LOVE, TEARS, AND KISSES"
(2:07) [Bergman, Voeco & Conn
ASCAP—Goodhart, Alstone, Poll]
JUNE VALLI
(RCA Victor 20-5740; 47-5740)

JUNE VALLI

● June Valli comes up with a strong contender that could pass "Crying In The Chapel" in short order. It's a beautiful new tune with an exciting and unusual lilt to it and is dubbed "I Understand." Aided by Hugo Winterhalter's superb orking and a chorus, June leans into this ballad with all the sincerity that her thrilling voice carries. We think it's the thrush's best job to date. "Love, Tears And Kisses" is another beautiful ballad set to a slow waltz tempo that makes this coupling a double threat. June is headed to the top again.

"WOW" (2:30)
[Vincent BMI—Gaylord]
"OH, LOVE OF MINE" (2:40)
[Vincent BMI—Gaylord]
RONNIE GAYLORD
(Mercury 70378; 70378 x 45)

RONNIE GAYLORD

● Currently making a strong showing with his jump rendition of a cute novelty called "Cuddle Me," Ronnie Gaylord follows up with a similar jumper that could go way up the ladder. It's a real catchy ditty with a short title "Wow." It's by far his best showing as a soloist. And the chorus dishes up a top grade assist. "Oh, Love Of Mine" is an expressive delivery by the songster of a sincere romantic tune. We go for the top half in a big way. "Wow" oughta have the boxes humming.

"GO IN AND OUT THE WINDOW"
(3:20) [Sunbeam BMI—Oliver]
"CARNIVAL IN VENICE" (2:31)
[Capitol Songs ASCAP—Kaye,
Manning]
MILLS BROTHERS
(Decca 29115; 9-29115)

MILLS BROTHERS

● Steady hit makers year in and year out, the Mills Brothers come through with another potent platter that looks like a biggie. Backed by Sy Oliver and the ork, the Mills men present their version of a favorite kiddie tune, "Go In And Out The Window." It's a clever rhythm number that'll be on the lips of the public once again. The coupling is another rhythm version of a standard dubbed "Carnival in Venice." Both sides have strong appeal, but we lean to the top half.

"CRAZY 'BOUT YOU, BABY"
(2:30)
[Sunbeam BMI—Maugeri, Barrett]
"ANGELA MIA" (2:12)
[Crawford ASCAP—Rapee, Pollack]
THE CREW-CUTS
(Mercury 70341; 70341 x 45)

CREW-CUTS

● A sensational new group known as the Crew-Cuts bows on the Mercury label with a great piece of material that's sure to shoot 'em up to the top in no time flat. The tune is a catchy rhythm novelty tagged "Crazy 'Bout You Baby," and the way the boys treat it, it spells hit from start to finish. The arrangement is one of the best we've heard in quite a while. Coupling is the current clicker "Angela Mia" that demonstrates the quartet's skill on a slow number. Top segment could be a real smash.

GLORIA MANN & CARTER RAYS
(Jubilee 5142; 45-5142)

- B+ "GOODNIGHT SWEETHEART GOODNIGHT" (2:40) [Arc BMI—] A beautiful new ballad gets a hit contending delivery from Gloria Mann and the Carter Rays. Terrific job that'll sell well in blues too. Tune is clicking in East.
- C+ "LOVE-ME-BOY" (2:20) [Flair BMI] The artists rhythm through a cute jumper on this end. This side is definitely better fitting for the rhythm and blues market.

JOHNNY DESMOND, ALAN DALE, BUDDY GRECO
(Coral 61176; 9-61176)

- B+ "SWEET AUGUSTINE" (2:04) [Vim ASCAP—Reid, Altman] Desmond, Dale and Greco team up on a gang-sing version of an old German favorite. It's another "Heart Of My Heart" type number that could click big.
- B "EAST SIDE, WEST SIDE" (2:42) [Champion BMI—arr. Jacobs] The boys belt out the ever popular waltz favorite in the same manner as top side. Real informal and the type of material that'll go well in the boxes.

FOUR KNIGHTS
(Capitol 2782; F-2782)

- B+ "I WAS MEANT FOR YOU" (2:40) [Duchess BMI—Hurwitz, Stallman] Billy May offers a top notch backing for a superb rhythm number by the Four Knights. Real catchy ditty that could hit big. Boys are currently hot with "I Get So Lonely."
- B "THEY TELL ME" (2:51) [Chase BMI—Nathan, Flick] The quartet comes through with an easy treatment of a real pretty ballad. Nice harmony with another solid May backing.

DON, DICK & JIMMY
(Crown 112; 45-112)

- B+ "THE LAST TIME" [Modern] [Modern BMI—Cook] Currently clicking with their hit version of "Angela Mia," Don, Dick & Jimmy render a pretty ballad in their interesting harmony style. Excellent tune that could click too.
- C+ "THE PIANO PLAYERS" [Manners ASCAP—Manners] The trio fashions a cute and inviting cornball novelty in a barber shop style as the bar room piano sets up the backing. Catchy side. Good arrangement.

JENNY BARRETT
(Coral 61165; 9-61165)

- B "THE TOUCH OF YOUR LIPS" (2:42) [Joy ASCAP—Noble] Jenny Barrett bows on the Coral label after her success with "He Loves Me." She offers a hushed and dreamy vocal on a star-dusted romantic piece.
- C+ "HURRY, HURRY HOME" (2:10) [Simon House BMI—Sullivan, Barrett] Tony Iavello's ork supplies another lush backing for the thrush's delivery of new lyrics set to a familiar old melody. Pretty job.

Stocking Plan, LP Price Boost Set For Victor

NEW YORK—Five RCA Victor Records executives have taken to the field this week (April 26) to advise the company's distributors of a summer stocking plan and of a price rise on long-playing classical disks. Beginning in June, the list on RCA Victor's 12" classical LPs goes from $5.72 to $5.95, with the new price on 10" classical LPs moving to $4.95 from $4.67.

The stocking program is "back by popular demand," according to W. W. Bullock, the company's acting general sales and merchandise manager, who pointed out that last year dealers and distributors enjoyed "Christmas-all-Summer sales" on RCA Victor merchandise.

This year's program covers catalog merchandise and all new album releases through March of 1954, Bullock said. Highlights listed for the plan include:

1. An expanded "101" catalog—the 101 best-selling EPs in addition to the 101 best-selling LPs.
2. Return privileges.
3. A guaranteed price on all merchandise.
4. A dating plan of payment on all orders.
5. All shipments of orders to be completed by June 30.

RCA Victor home office executives who with fieldmen are conducting the meetings include Bullock; Jack Burgess, field sales manager; George Marek, director of artists & repertoire; Bill Alexander, advertising manager; and Irwin Tarr, syndicate store sales manager.

Capitol's 1st Quarter Sales 20% Over Last Year

HOLLYWOOD, CAL.—Sales of Capitol Records, Inc., which hit a new high of nearly $17 million in 1953, appear to be heading for another peak this year. First quarter business reportedly ran around 20 per cent better than that experienced in the comparable 1953 period. This gain has been converted into a substantially greater rise in net income.

Capitol is doing well in the "hit record" field with three in the top ten: "I Get So Lonely" by the Four Knights; Nat "King" Cole's "Answer Me My Love," and Frank Sinatra's "Young At Heart." Sinatra signed with Capitol last year and now has a hit record as well as an outstanding hit album. Jackie Gleason's albums continue to be outstanding sellers.

The bulk of the increase in sales is accounted for by the growing popularity of albums, which the company is aggressively merchandising and producing in larger numbers.

Epic Signs Mary Small

NEW YORK—Marvin Holzman, A&R head of Epic Records, has announced the signing of Mary Small. The thrush's first session was cut last week and her initial release will be out shortly.

Mary has just completed a sensational engagement at the Copacabana in New York and opens May 7 in Dallas.

Marlene Dietrich (Show Biz' Youngest Grandma) is to open at the swanky Cafe de Paris June 21st and is busy finding the right accompanist for her stint. Bill McGuffie was the man she wanted but it seems Bill is already committed for those dates so two very well known personalities suggested none other than that brilliant pianist arranger and conductor Peter Knight. Peter incidentally has just cut two sides for English Decca, with his singers, and I only hope London Records will issue them as soon as possible. I feel the D. J.'s will prick their ears up when they hear this sound. . . . Wow! It's really great.

Billy Eckstine has conquered the lay press. Yes sir, the gentlemen critics who usually hope the record companies will give them enough information in advance of their write-up, actually admitting "Mr. B" can sing, is certainly a great event and a tribute to Billy.

Woody Herman with Mrs. H. and daughter Ingrid, toured London in the Ted Heath coach and were full of praise for the Heath band which he and the whole Herman outfit went to hear at the Hackney Empire Theatre. . . . Coming over to do a continental tour starting in June will be Spike Jones and his City Slickers. This news was announced by MCA's London office. Also due here on September 5th for a concert tour arranged by agents Lou and Leslie Grade is the "Velvet Fog" Mel Torme. . . . I hear Kay Tompson will play the Cafe de Paris again in a few weeks. . . . Has anyone really listened to the Tommy Dorsey LP "Tenderly"? This is one of the finest LPs for my money and believe me it's hard to find fault with it. In fact there's nothing but quality and wonderful listening on it. . . . Another first timer for London nitery will be the "Heiress" (Eileen Todd) mentioned in this column several weeks back. Miss Todd makes her debut at the Colony in June and will feature a special routine written by Phil Moore. . . . Speaking of the Colony brings back the story told by this nitery's bandleader Felix King. He was asked to play "Overflow" by a customer. It was only after the lady started to sing it for him that he recognized the familiar opening bars of "Ebb Tide."

David Whitfield being offered Paladium (second top billing) show with Bob Hope in the Autumn. Nice going David. . . . Lena Horne will cut several disks while touring in England this Summer.

Yours truly back on the air on May 5th with another DJ show, this time however, to feature continental artists. Picked up some wonderful disks during my recent trip abroad and I feel sure some of the records will click.

CLASSICAL

BRAHMS: Symphony No. 4 in E Minor — Leonard Bernstein conducting The Stadium Concerts Symphony Orchestra of New York—Decca 9717 (12" LP) List: $5.85

Johannes Brahms was at the peak of his fame as a composer when he created his Fourth Symphony. This great piece of music has been recorded by almost every major concert orchestra in the country. However, Brahms enthusiasts are always seeking new interpretations of his symphonies. Here Leonard Bernstein, one of the most prominent figures on the American musical scene conducts the Stadium Concerts Symphony Orchestra. He has conducted some of the major symphony orchestras in the world and he is not yet 36 years old. Bernstein is also a distinguished American composer and pianist. He penned the musical score for "Wonderful Town." This album is an excellent reproduction of the world's most beautiful music, recorded in New York's Carnegie Hall. Should attract the attention of many classical followers.

CONTEMPORARY AMERICAN MUSIC—Vladimir Golschmann conducting The Concert Arts Orchestra—Capitol P8245 (12" LP) List: $5.70

BARBER: ADAGIO FOR STRINGS; DIAMOND: ROUNDS; COPLAND: QUIET CITY; CRESTON: TWO CHORIC DANCES.

Four great composers of contemporary American music have some of their most popular and most requested works offered by the Concert Arts Orchestra conducted by Vladimir Golschmann. Each talent has contributed much to musical Americana. One of the featured pieces, and one which should act as a potent sales rep, is Copland's "Quiet City" which was originally written for Irwin Shaw's play of the same title. Album should have a ready market among the many classical music lovers who appreciate the contemporary composers. Recording has an excellent sound.

"EMPEROR" QUARTET IN C, Op. 76, No. 3—Haydn. "QUARTET IN G. K. 387"—Mozart—Amadeus String Quartet LHMV-1039 (1-12" LP) List: $5.95

The beautiful "Emperor" Quartet by Haydn expertly performed makes a strong chamber issue that will appeal to the longhair market. The second movement, familiar to most people as the Austrian National Anthem, should be a good salesman. The "Quartet in G. K. 387" is the first Mozart quartet dedicated to Haydn, by whom he was so greatly influenced. An excellent pairing that permits the listener to compare the two great composers who wrote during the same period.

TCHAIKOVSKY: "Love Themes by Tchaikovsky"—Jesse Crawford, Organ—Decca DL 8059 (12" LP) List: $4.85

THEME FROM "ROMEO AND JULIET"; THEME FROM THE SIXTH SYMPHONY; REVERIE OP. 40, NO. 12; NONE BUT THE LONELY HEART; THEME FROM THE FIFTH SYMPHONY; CHANSON TRISTE; ANDANTE CANTABILE FROM STRING QUARTET; SONG WITHOUT WORDS; THEME FROM FIRST PIANO CONCERTO; BARCAROLLE (JUNE) FROM "THE SEASONS"; ROMANCE F MINOR, OP. 5; NOCTURNE IN C SHARP MINOR, OP. 19, NO. 4.

Another album in Decca's "Music for Your Mood" series features Jesse Crawford, "the poet of the organ", as he treats a dozen of the most beautiful Tchaikovsky themes to his tender touch. Although each of these brilliant melodies are classics, many of them have been converted to popular songs. The Crawford treatment, and the warm sound of the organ give the lovely themes an ultra-romantic and relaxing air. Folks who love organ music will surely want this package. "Romeo and Juliet" is a perfect showcase.

PRINCE DI CANDRIANO—"Romantic Sketches for Orchestra"—Conducted by Georges Tzipine—Capitol H501 (10" LP) List: $3.00

ALONG THE RIVER NEVA; THE LEGEND OF MARIEL.

Prince Camillo di Candriano, member of a distinguished Roman family, a war hero and a parliamentary representative shows his skills as a composer as Georges Tzipine conducts the concert orchestra through two of the Prince's compositions. "Along The River Neva" is a romantic orchestral item describing the River Neva as it flows past St. Petersburg. "The Legend Of Mariel" is another pleasing item with a classical feeling. This depicts the author's thoughts of Cuba's beautiful Bay of Mariel. Lovely listening that should appeal to a limited audience.

ARTHUR HONEGGER—Symphony No. 2

JEAN RIVIER—Symphony No. 2 in C

Izler Solomon conducting the MGM String Orchestra—MGM E 3104 (12" LP) List: $4.85

Sidney Baker is the trumpet soloist on Honegger's Symphony No. 2 composed for string orchestra and trumpet. This striking work in its dramatic and deep entirety reflects the tragedy of fallen France of which Honegger was part. The coupling is a symphony by Jean Rivier who is not as well known outside of his native France as is Honegger. However this recording serves as a good introduction to the work of this talented string composer. This, to our knowledge, is his first recorded work. Very limited appeal.

POPULAR

JACK HYLTON—"Memories Of Jack Hylton"—RCA Victor LPT-1013 (10" LP)—List: $4.00

JUST A GIGOLO; THE KING'S HORSES; YOURS IS MY HEART ALONE; THE ALPINE MILKMAN; GOODNIGHT SWEETHEART; BOLERO; BODY AND SOUL; MY SUNSHINE IS YOU; WITH A SONG IN MY HEART.

In the 1930's the Jack Hylton Orchestra was probably England's leading dance band catering to London society. Despite the fact that his was a British orchestra, Hylton's reputation was also widespread in America due to his recordings such as these. His music was elaborate with a great deal of attention given to detailed and high styled arrangements. On this platter, the Hylton crew fashions nine favorites which his audiences have thrilled to time and time again. The scope of the music ranges from "Body And Soul" to "Bolero". Interesting listening which, although not designed for the teen-ager, should do well with folks who remember Hylton. Limited appeal.

JAN AUGUST—"Piano Favorites"—Mercury EP-1-3169 (1-7" EP)—List: $1.47

TEA FOR TWO; MY MELANCHOLY BABY; A PRETTY GIRL IS LIKE A MELODY; MAKE BELIEVE.

Probably best remembered for his recording of "Misirlou", which has sold a horde of copies, Jan August displays his artistry on four of America's all-time favorites. This selection of lovely oldies takes on new meaning through the individual interpretation of the keyboard wizard. "Tea For Two" should prove an influential salesman.

BARBARA CARROLL TRIO—RCA Victor LJM 1001 (1-12" LP) List: $4.62

I WANT A LITTLE GIRL; SERENADE FOR A WEALTHY WIDOW; FOLKS WHO LIVE ON THE HILL; WHAT'S THE USE OF WOND'RING; MOUNTAIN GREENERY; LET'S FALL IN LOVE; FROM THIS MOMENT ON; GOODBYE; GOOD BAIT; CABIN IN THE SKY; GIVE ME THE SIMPLE LIFE; LULLABY OF BROADWAY.

The nimble fingerings of Barbara Carroll paint spright pictures with undertones of excitement, dreamy after hours pieces, and tender mood items. An especially appealing platter both for listening and relaxing. While the bulk of purchases will be by jazz followers, this should also appeal to the pop market.

ORGAN INTERLUDE—Richard Ellsasser, Organ—MGM E 198 (10" LP) List: $3.00

AVE MARIA (BACH-GOUNOD); THE LORD'S PRAYER; LARGO (HANDEL); IN A MONASTERY GARDEN; BARCAROLLE (FROM "TALES OF HOFFMAN"—OFFENBACH); ELEGIE (MASSENET); FLOW GENTLY, SWEET AFTON; THE BELLS OF ST. MARY'S.

A wonderful selection of beautiful classics and popular favorites are chosen for Richard Ellsasser's "Organ Interlude". All of the melodies are well known to lovers of music and are styled with the utmost of feeling by the talented organist. And the wonderful sound of the Hammond Electronic Concert model organ adds to the attractive results. Gounod's classic "Ave Maria" ought to serve as an excellent demonstrator.

LATIN-AMERICAN

RUMBA FIESTA—Los Rumberos de Cuba and their Orchestra—Tico 125 (12" LP) List: $3.85

FRENESI; THE LADY IN RED; PERFIDA; JUNGLE DRUMS; TRES PALABRES; COPACABANA; QUIEREME MUCHO; LONG AGO AND FAR AWAY; YOU BELONG TO MY HEART; BESAME MUCHO.

Here is a great party record. Los Rumberos de Cuba lead their orchestra through very danceable rumba rhythm interpretations of a number of Latin-American favorites. The beat is not loud so as to interfere with conversation, but is subdued and inviting enough to lure people on to the floor. The entire album casts a mood of romance. Excellent, simple arrangements that makes top grade listening too.

JAZZ

THE JUG BANDS "Backgrounds of Jazz Vol. 1" "X" Records LX-3009 (1-10" LP) List: $3.85

DIXIELAND JUG BLOWERS—BANJORENO; SOUTHERN SHOUT; NATIONAL BLUES; BOODLE AM SHAKE; MEMPHIS BAND—STINGY WOMAN; NEWPORT NEWS; SUN BRIMMERS; OVERSEAS STOMP.

Of extreme collector value in that the music represents an era of pre-recorded jazz. Although the actual recordings were made in 1920 and 1928 when jazz recordings already showed an advanced sound, the music played and instruments used on this release portray an earlier period. Use of the jug, and kazoo, indicate an era when instruments were often homemade and had not reached the stage of later development. A rare collectors item. Etchings have that quality that perhaps marks the music as at the stage where blues and syncopated jazz had about reached the point where jazz moves out on its own.

T-BONE WALKER "Classics In Jazz"—Capitol Records H370 (1-10" LP) List: $3.00

FIRST LOVE BLUES; BORN TO BE NO GOOD; I KNOW YOUR WIG IS GONE; HYPIN' WOMEN BLUES; SHE'S MY OLD TIME USED TO BE; T-B SHUFFLE; CALL IT STORMY MONDAY BUT TUESDAY IS JUST AS BAD; YOU'RE MY BEST POKER HAND.

Newest of the Capitol Classics In Jazz series highlights the blues singing of T-Bone Walker. Title might be misleading to the jazz collector as T-Bone's efforts are blues. Of course, in a historical sense in all of T-Bone's singing there is that jazz feeling which is present in all rhythmic negro music and from which jazz progressed through its various stages.

SPECIAL MATERIAL

"ONE GOD" Eddie Albert—Kapp Records KL 1000 (1-12" LP) List: $5.95

No matter what your denomination and in which church you pray in, there is but "One God". That is the message this record tells. A release that could do much good. Beautifully and sincerely done. The players are expert. The University Interfaith Chorale provides the inspiring musical background. All efforts such as this should be given all kinds of cooperation, but unfortunately the ones who should listen to its message are probably the ones who will never hear it. The package obviously has been well thought out with an eye to lasting through long and hard wear. Sale will be limited. A good gift item. Huge audience saw this release acted out in full length on the Ed Sullivan TV Easter show. This exposure could bring in sales action.

New Way of Promoting Disks

BOSTON—Chris Drake (left), Capitol Records' Boston Branch Manager, evolved a new idea in promoting Capitol's Hi-Fi records by blowing up the masonite demo record and putting it on the back wheel of a Nash Rambler owned by Bill Mini (right) of Boston. This has created quite a bit of comment in Boston and may start a new fad in promoting sales of a record.

Joy Signs Jimmie Boyd For Personal Management

NEW YORK—Eddie Joy has signed moppet recording star Jimmie Boyd to his personal management firm, Preferred Representatives. He joins the company's expanding roster of artists that includes Mindy Carson, Guy Mitchell, Bill Carey and Gayla Peevey.

Joy leaves for London next Wednesday, April 28, with Guy Mitchell. In addition to making final arrangements for Mitchell's tour of the British Isles, he will also explore the possibilities of a tour for Jimmie Boyd. Boyd's records have scored very big in England, particularly "I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus," which hit the top of the popularity lists this winter. Also, his duet recordings with Frankie Laine have helped establish him firmly with the British public.

On his return from England, Joy will expand the staff of Preferred Representatives. He will add a top agency man to supervise the talent activities of his company.

While in England, Eddie Joy will also begin negotiations for a new contract with Reg Connelly, the British representative of Joy Music Publishing Company. The present two-year contract will expire in July.

The Joy-Connelly operation has been one of the most successful American-British publishing combinations. During the past two years, a succession of some 17 hit songs, which have been fed to the British firm, have hit the best selling lists in England.

And Free Lunch Too!

DALLAS—The Commercial Music Company, Wurlitzer phonograph distributor in Dallas, has opened a record sales department.

"Now," Commercial's prexy Raymond B. Williams says, "in one stop, the operator can buy his records, select his machines, get servicing for his equipment and have lunch at the free lunch bar."

Announcements of the addition of this wholesale record department have gone out to operators throughout Texas.

Dancer On Wax

MARIA ALBA

NEW YORK — Cadence Records claims a first in recording history. The diskery claims to be the first to use a Spanish dancer on a pop record. The artist is Maria Alba who plays the castanets on the Archie Bleyer record of "Hernando's Hideway" and is a legit Spanish dancer. She is doing her specialty with the Bleyer crew on stage at the Loew's State Theater where the orchestra is appearing with Julius La Rosa.

Darnel Cuts Grey Tune

NEW YORK—Lanny Grey, half of the Lanny and Ginger Grey jingle team, whose voices are heard day in and day out on hundreds of ditties such as "I go for a man who wears an Adam Hat," just discovered that an old tune of his, composed under the name of Alan Grey was recorded by Bill Darnel on label "X." The tune is called "I Would If I Could, But I Can't" and was written by Grey with Bing Crosby and Mitchell Parish quite a few years ago.

Grey and his wife are contacting disk jockeys and will visit many of them to promote the new platter.

RCA Victor, Chicago, Sponsors Local Dee-Jay Contest

CHICAGO—Rocky Rolf, RCA-Victor promotion man, this city, and Bob Nossett, firm's sales manager, have dreamed up a contest called, "Radio Roulette," beneficial to both Victor and deejays in this territory.

Each week Rolf sends a 'spin sheet' to every disk jockey and record librarian in his territory which includes Chicago and Northern Indiana. Sheet contains week's plug disks. Ballots, or 'spin slips' are enclosed which the deejays or librarians are to return, telling which tunes they have played, or programmed, as the case may be, and when. These slips are placed in a ballot box and at the end of each week, one jockey and one librarian is selected. The winners, notified by wire, may select one of the following prizes:

Mixmaster; electric blanket; iron-master; toaster; waffle iron; coffee-master; percolater; shavemaster; egg cooker; bottle warmer; cookery and deep fryer, or, any of these RCA items; a clock radio; personal portable; portable victrola phono, or personal table radio.

Contest will run for 8 weeks and, at the end of that time, each of the weekly winners will be eligible for grand prizes which are:

RCA-Victor new high fidelity "Victrola" console phonograph, first prize; RCA tape recorder, 2nd prize; RCA Strato-World portable radio, 3rd prize; RCA portable 3-speed phono, 4th prize.

First week's winners, drawn by Bill Gersh and Karyl Long of The Cash Box, are DJ Jack Kary, WCFL and Marie Snyder, record librarian, WRSW, Warsaw, Indiana.

CORAL RECORD # 61173

"Press Me"

NEW YORK—Members of the press were among the many who attended Wendy Waye's party at the Press Box for her new recording of "Press Me," last week. The thrush greeted her many visitors and performed for the crowd. Above, Henry Costello, Press Box impresario, demonstrates a pressing situation to the Coral artist.

Over Thousand Turn Up At KLAG New York Party

NEW YORK—Top wax world stars, diskery execs and almost everyone associated with the radio and record industry turned up to greet KLAG dee jays Peter Potter, Bob McLaughlin, Dick Haynes, Jim Ameche and Alex Cooper, at the Savoy Plaza Hotel this week, at one of the largest cocktail parties this trade has ever witnessed.

The KLAG staff along with their aids were flown in from Hollywood to thank the record industry for the great assistance given the station over the years.

In one of the four rooms occupied by the crowd, Tony Pastor's band played dance music. The other three rooms were also packed with the dee jays' many friends who turned up.

It is estimated that well over a thousand people attended.

"Dance Music Cure For Band Biz", Says Elgart

NEW YORK — "There's nothing wrong with the dance business that a little dance music won't cure," says Les Elgart.

"The kids want to dance, and they will—if the bands will only play dance music." The hot new band property apparently hasn't been phased by the trade's skepticism regarding bands.

Last weekend the Elgart band, riding the crest of a major disk build-up, made its first foray into the field with a series of college prom dates in the Pittsburgh area. The impact of the Elgart recordings was evidenced (1) in the large turnouts (2) in requests for Elgart specials. According to the trumpeter-maestro, "Columbia has released 22 numbers by the band to date, including our 'Sophisticated Swing' album. In the course of the one weekend I believe we got requests for every one of them. . . . But the thing that really convinced me that we've been on the right track was the fact that the kids kept the floor jammed every evening, all evening. We held 'em with pure, tasty dance music—no gimmicks, no funny hats. We intend to stick with that formula."

The Elgart band will cut another session this week, and Les has promised a couple of "real surprises." "And," Les adds, "Don't forget to mention that it was the deejays up in Pittsburgh—Joe Deane, Art Pallan, and the other fellows who pre-sold the band for us up there."

There's No Business Like Junk Business

NEW YORK — In these days of wholesale catalog deals, many a publisher has been credited by his competitors with the acquisition of junk. "But," argues one major publisher, "What's wrong with the junk business?" This particular Brill building denizen may have a case in point.

Recently he completed a deal with an old-line Boston pubber whose many years in the business resulted in the accumulation of 50,000 copyrights—all reasonably obscure. The reported price—and they laughed when he sat down at his checkbook—was $50,000—or $1 per copyright.

Last week our subject swung into action with his new property. He sold the metal printing plates to a junk dealer—for $65,000!

Incidentally, he still owns the copyrights.

Best Selling Records

FROM MORE THAN 15,000 RETAIL OUTLETS!

• Tunes are listed below in order of their popularity based on a continuing weekly national survey of thousands of record dealers by Jack "One Spot" Tunis. Each listing includes the name of the song, record number, artists, and tune on the reverse side.

• The number underneath the title indicates the actual sale per 1000 records made for the week. If the figure is 67.4, it means that for every 1000 records sold that week, 67.4 were of the tune indicated—a combination of all the records on which it was available.

The New 3 D's

London Prepares Big Drive On New Ted Heath Album

NEW YORK—Because of the great success of the "Ted Heath at the Palladium" album, London Records has prepared an extensive nationwide sales and publicity drive to promote the new Ted Heath album, "The Music of Fats Waller," played by Ted Heath and His Music.

This new LP contains a collection of some of Fats Waller's most popular songs and distinguishes itself by being the first 33 1/3 recording of his "London Suite."

The tunes in the album are: "Soho," "Limehouse," "Piccadilly," "Chelsea," "Bond Street," "Whitechapel," "Honeysuckle Rose," "Ain't Misbehavin'," "Blue Turning Grey Over You," "Jitterbug Waltz," "I've Got A Feelin' I'm Fallin'," and "Alligator Crawl."

In addition to being released as a twelve inch LP, the Heath package will be offered as three single extended-plays sold separately, and a complete extended play package.

London's sales effort on these items will double the promotional push given the "Palladium" disk. Fifteen-hundred disk jockeys will be serviced with a special radio station package including six 78rpm disks covering all the pieces, plus a Ted Heath introductory message. This seven pocket album will include a four page "Ted Heath Story" and be wrapped specially.

Five-hundred key buyers, popular reviewers, and chain store execs will be serviced with a sample copy of the new LP.

As aids to the dealer, the diskery has prepared window-size album cover blow-ups, booth or window hangers, and additional supplies of all LP and EP jackets.

The attractive cover is a multi-colored job with a glossy finish that is certainly eye catching.

Album should appeal to youngsters who go for big-band dance music, to fans of Fats Waller, to fans of Ted Heath and to all jazz lovers.

Dorseys Drop In

MOBILE, ALABAMA—The Dorsey Brothers, Tommy and Jimmy, stop in to congratulate disk jockey Chuck Thompson on his recent move to Mobile, Alabama and radio-TV station WALA. Chuck reports the Dorsey Brothers Bell records are being well received in Mobile in juke box play and on the air. The Fort Whiting Army was the crowded but merry scene of their engagement in the Azalea City of Mobile.

Popcorn For All

CHICAGO—2500 bags of popcorn will be heading out to disk jockeys this week as a promotional tie in between Decca's Janet Brace recording of "Popcorn For You" and the Popcorn Institute of America gets under way.

The thrush was the subject of a big introductory campaign when she bowed on the Decca label. The slogan "Brace yourself, Janet Brace's new record will soon be out" was highlighted in all promotion.

In this tie-in the artist's photo will be attached to each of the popcorn bags being distributed. The Popcorn Institute will include with each promotion piece facts about the making of popcorn and statistics about the amount of popcorn consumed each year.

The Institute has also completed plans with the Fox Theater chain whereby during intermission a film of Miss Brace will suggest that the audience try some popcorn as she sings in her song.

Decca will assist in the campaign by enclosing each of the "Popcorn" disks in a special sleeve showing Miss Brace eating popcorn.

Kaye Named Entertainment Chairman of Multiple Sclerosis Society

NEW YORK — Sammy Kaye has been appointed Entertainment Chairman of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower is serving as Honorary Chairman; Francis L. Whitmarsh, President of Francis H. Leggett & Company, and Robert Montgomery are National Co-Chairmen.

The National Multiple Sclerosis Society is conducting a national campaign, which will continue through June 15th, to raise funds for its Three Point Program, which consists of research, clinics and rehabilitation, for some quarter of a million victims of multiple sclerosis. Additional millions affected by other neurological diseases stand to benefit from this program.

Multiple Sclerosis is a crippling, progressive disease of the central nervous system which strikes young adults, usually between the ages of 20 and 40. Most common symptoms are double vision, staggering gait, speech difficulties, paralysis, and impairment of other functions. The Society has supported 36 research projects and ten diagnostic and treatment clinics since its inception in 1946.

"Lovey Dovey" Goes Pop

NEW YORK—Bunny Paul, Essex artist, has just recorded "Lovey Dovey," currently in the number two spot of the Nation's Rhythm and Blues hits. The original R & B version was recorded by The Clovers, one of the nation's leading R & B groups, on the Atlantic label.

This makes the third pop cover of rhythm and blues tunes originally issued by The Clovers. The others were "Fool, Fool, Fool" by Kay Starr on Capitol and "One Mint Julep" by Buddy Morrow on Victor.

For Bunny Paul, this marks her second straight cover of an R & B hit. Bunny's previous record was "Such A Night," the original version of which was by Clyde McPhatter and the Drifters, also on Atlantic. "Such A Night" was also recorded by Johnnie Ray.

WENS Boosting To 1,000,000 Watts

PITTSBURGH, PA.—WENS, Channel 16, is going to boost its power to one million watts.

The announcement was made by Larry Israel, general manager of the UHF television station. Israel said:

"We placed an order on Tuesday with General Electric for one of its new 60,000 watt transmitters. With our present antenna, which has a gain of 20, we will have the maximum power of one million watts permitted by the Federal Communications Commission and we still won't have to run our transmitter at 'full throttle'."

This Pittsburgh station, according to General Electric, is the first television station in the nation to order one of the new transmitters.

Frank Barnes, sales manager at GE, at the transmitter division in Syracuse, said:

"The new transmitter is still in the laboratory, but we expect to be able to deliver it to Pittsburgh by the middle of next year. Your city will be one of the first, if not the very first, to be on UHF with the highest power permitted by the FCC."

Some idea of the enormous amount of power to be used on Channel 16 was given by James Hurley, in charge of technical operations at WENS:

"If you take the total power being used by all television stations in Pittsburgh, Johnstown, Altoona, Wheeling, and Steubenville and add the figures you'll find that still doesn't come to a million watts."

"What effect will it have on your signal? Well, principally it will provide much better pictures in the fringe area and it will make unnecessary the installation of outside antennas in many locations in the immediate Pittsburgh district."

The present WENS transmitter uses two 15,000 watt klystron tubes, each valued at some $23,000. It operates with a power output of 200,000 watts.

The new rig will have two 75,000 watt klystrons. No estimate of their cost has been made yet.

The move will give Pittsburgh TV fans two stations operating with maximum power. WDTV expects to get on the air with its 100,000 watt transmitter within the next few weeks.

FCC regulations permit channels 2 through 6 to operate with 100,000 watts. Channels 7 to 13 are authorized 316,000 watts since it takes more power to get the same distance on the higher numbered channels. All UHF channels are authorized to operate on power up to 1,000,000 watts.

The earth "absorbs" more of the power at the higher frequencies, engineers point out.

Decca Signs Bill Haley And Comets

PHILADELPHIA, PA.—James E. Myers, head of Myers Music, has announced that Bill Haley and his Comets have been signed to a Decca contract by Milt Gabler, A & R head of the diskery.

The pact calls for a sizable guarantee against royalties, which are 5%, a minimum of twelve sides per year, full disk jockey coverage of Decca's 1800 name dee jay list, plus coverage of 500 juke-box operators with 100 or more boxes, and other considerations.

Haley, who has been a steady seller for years, gained national recognition with his record of "Crazy, Man, Crazy".

The group's first release for Decca is due out this week. It includes "Rock Around The Clock" b/w "13 Women And 1 Man".

Firehouse Five Renew GTJ Pact

LOS ANGELES, CAL.—The Firehouse Five Plus Two, exclusive Good Time Jazz recording stars for the past five years, have just signed a new long term contract with the West Coast record company. Since coming into prominence in 1949, the crew of Walt Disney artists, writers and directors, have been a top selling band in the Dixieland field.

The group is under the leadership of trombonist Ward Kimball, a top Disney director and producer who just won an Academy Award (Oscar), as well as 1st prize at the Cannes Festival for his production, "Toot Whistle Plunk and Boom." Kimball is also a well-known authority on early automobiles and railroading, and a recognized painter. He is currently supervising production of the new Disney TV series.

Other members of the group, all key men with Disney, include artist Harper Goff (banjo), art director of Disney's "20,000 Leagues Under The Sea," now shooting on the Burbank lot; screen writer Ed Penner (tuba); and director Frank Thomas (piano).

The Firehouse Five Plus Two have just recorded a hi-fi album for GTJ to be released this month.

S & G Records Formed

LOS ANGELES, CALIF.—It was announced last week that S & G Records, this city, will be re-activated. Songwriters James MacDonald and Jack Hoffman will head the A & R department while Cal Simon, John Galitza and Frank Bellone will be in charge of distribution and sales.

First releases include a pop number titled "Gotta See Ya (Once More)" b/w "Revenge" by Chuck Crayne; a western titled "One Step" b/w "Arizona" with The Top Hands; and a novelty tune called "Go Down To The Beach (And get into the ocean)" b/w "Dear Mother" by Casey O'Hara and The Shamrocks.

The new firm has a wide line-up of artists including John and Sondra Steele.

Distribution will be handled in Los Angeles by Central Record Sales Co. General offices will be at 6359 Selma Avenue, Hollywood, California.

Fabulous Fanny

NEW YORK — Songwriter Fanny Wolff, composer of such hit tunes as "Teardrops On My Pillow" and "Before It's Too Late", is all smiles as she points with pride at her new song "Love My Lovin'" recorded by the 5 Keys vocal quartet on Aladdin Records which is being held up by Art Ford. Fabulous Fanny recently discussed her career on Ford's WNEW disk jockey show in New York.

Betty Madigan Scores With "Joey"

NEW YORK — On her third try, Betty Madigan looks as though she has scored.

The 21-year-old songstress from Washington, D.C. is the possessor of the No. 1 selling record on the M-G-M banner, sales figures revealed this week. The disk is the ballad, "Joey," which has moved at a fast clip since its release three weeks ago.

As a result, Betty is being besieged with a flurry of offers for national radio and television shots. She is set to render in-person versions of "Joey" on the May 7th CBS-TV Color show, "The New Revue," and on the May 12th Du Mont TV program, "Stars on Parade."

The new disk star got her start a few seasons ago while a student at Catholic University in the Capital city. She was soon featured in the vocal spotlight on several radio and teevee shows in Washington and played such local clubs as the King Cole Room, Colony Club, 2400 Club and the Old New Orleans.

While appearing at a Washington club, she was spotted by Broadway publicist Arthur Pine, who subsequently took her under his wing and secured an M-G-M recording pact for her.

Betty debuted on wax a few months ago with "You're Thoughtless". Her second platter was "Call Me Darling." "Joey," however, is the one that has taken off for the brunette singing star.

Betty recently completed engagements at the Jefferson Hotel, St. Louis, the Hollenden, Cleveland, and the Casa Marina, Key West, Fla. She arrived in New York this week to prep for her teevee and radio shows.

Ray Perkins Show Continues On KIMN

DENVER, COLO. — Ray Perkins, one of the leading disk jockeys, whose recordings, piano music, song and amiable chatter about America's singing stars has been aired three hours daily on KFEL since early in 1946, is still heard on the station although it became KIMN on May 1st.

"When KFEL was sold to A. L. Glassman, owner of KLO in Ogden, Utah, to become the key-station of the Inter Mountain Network," said Ray, "I was included in the sale along with the furniture and other fixtures! So listeners who tune in the 950 spot on their radios are still going to hear R. Perkins, on KIMN!"

May 27, 1954, marks the beginning of Perkins' 9th year on the same Denver station. KIMN plans to inaugurate its new services to listeners in the Rocky Mountain Empire, by feeding a portion of the Ray Perkins Show to the Inter Mountain Network.

Still going strong after spinning a conservative estimate of well over 60,000 records, Ray Perkins demonstrates daily that a show never grows old when you give people what they like to hear.

Atlantic Signs Floyd Dixon

NEW YORK — Miriam Abramson, Ahmet Ertegun and Jerry Wexler, Atlantic Records, announced this week the signing of Floyd Dixon to a recording contract.

Dixon, one of the country's leading Rhythm and Blues artists, has previously recorded for Supreme, Aladdin and most recently for Specialty.

Some of his big hits were: "Broken Hearted", "Dallas Blues" and "Operator 210".

THE CASH BOX RHYTHM N' BLUES Ramblings

NEW YORK:

Jerry Wexler, Atlantic Records, announced the signing to the Atlantic roster of top stars Floyd Dixon and Arnett Cobb. The latter already cut and his release will be issued in about two weeks. Floyd now in New York and Jerry and Ahmet Ertegun busy cutting the initial Dixon sides. The label zooming with the new Joe Turner "Shake, Rattle and Roll", catapulting. Its subsid, Cat, has come up with what looks like a solid winner on its first try in "Sh-Boom" by The Chords. Deck has broken out in Newark, Philadelphia, New York and Cleveland. Also showing indications of moving up is "Little" Sylvia Vanderpool's "Fine Love." . . . Don "How Do You Speak To An Angel" Gardner, Bruce Records, booked solid into July. . . . Du Droppers on Groove switch from the "knock-em-down" kick and come up with two soft sides on their newest release. Sides "Just Whisper" and "How Much Longer" very tasty and should stir things up for them. . . . Earl Forrest, Duke artist, whose latest etching is "Oh Why," will accompany B. B. King and Bill Harvey Ork into New York's Apollo Theatre soon. The B. B. King and Harvey package drew 10,000 fans into Houston's City Auditorium Easter and had to shut out about 2,000 disappointed customers.

. . . Eddie "Tex" Curtis, writer of the two current big Atlantic hits "It Should've Been Me" by Ray Charles, and "Lovey Dovey" by the Clevers, has signed an artist-writer-arranger contract with "Gee" Records. . . . Phyllis Branch, Tuxedo thrush, booked into the Apollo on May 14. . . . Al Silver, Herald Records, shot down to Atlanta, Ga. to catch up with the Joe Morris group to cut Joe and Al Savage. Al, whose "I Had A Notion," established him as a first rate star, has been rehearsing some new material with Morris and thinks there will be several sock sides coming forth from the Atlanta session. Bobby Shad, A & R chief of Em Arcy will release his new jazz disks next week. They will be "Alone Together" and "This Is My Night To Cry" by Helen Merrill; "Straight Ahead" and "The Fuz" by Med Flory; and "The Way You Look Tonight" and "Lonely Town" by Maynard Ferguson. . . . Baby Dee, MGM thrush, begins a two-week engagement at Chubby's in Camden, N. J. on May 3. . . . Bertice Reading, RCA Victor gal, has been elected "Grand Song-Bird" of the Elks National Convention at Chicago this coming August. . . . Joe Davis, Jay-Dee prexy, has released two new items by Otis Blackwell and The Crickets. Otis has a hot wax in his "On That Power Line" that could break big. . . . Bob Umbach, formerly of Radio Station WJLD-Bessemer, Alabama, is now located at WAOK-Atlanta, Ga. Bob's on the air four hours of r & b time daily. . . . Apollo's "Cry Some More" by the "5" Royales picking up steam and rapidly moving up the list of best sellers. . . . George Goldner excited about the new Crow's etching, "Baby." Etching could take off like the hit "Gee" which just refuses to drop off the charts even after 9 or 10 months of action. . . . The Bards, new Dawn group, with backing by the Al Williams ork, will soon be released. Titles are "I'm A Wine Drinker" and "Easy Going Baby."

OTIS BLACKWELL

FLOYD DIXON

CHICAGO:

Hear tell that Roy Hamilton, presently appearing at the Flame Club in Detroit, may be invading Chicago nite life very soon. Roy's "You'll Never Walk Alone" has been in the top spot on the 'Hot Charts' for weeks'n weeks. Which reminds us of the Ernie Leaner's Epic cocktail party a couple of months back, where many heard Roy's rendition for the very first time and just about 'flipped.' From that nite on, the tune was pegged 'hit' all the way. . . . Howling Wolf's "No Place To Go" on Chess looks like a sure winner. "Wolf" is now appearing at one of our town's popular niteries. Len Chess sends word from the South, where he is currently travelling, that Bo-Bo Jenkins' "Democrat Blues" is showing real promise. And that's not all. Willie Mabon's "Would You Baby" is keeping Phil busy at home. He can't seem to fill orders fast enough. . . . Smiley Lewis, currently featured in the show at the Club De Lisa here, has two good waxings riding for him, "Blue Monday" and his newest, "The Rock," for Imperial. . . . The Spaniels skedded to open the Apollo Theatre, New York City, where their "Goodnite Sweetheart, Goodnite" is in fifth spot. This disk, though slow in taking off, has really hit big. . . . Vee-Jay label has another which, according to Leo Kolheim, shows promise. That is "I Found My Baby" b/w "Jimmy's Boogie" by Jimmy Reed. . . . Just listening to Daddy-O Daylie each A. M. is proof of the guy's popularity. More and more sponsors seem to be jumping on the Daddy-O bandwagon. . . . For sheer enjoyment, give a listen to Ernie Andrews' "Don't Lead Me On." One of the smoothest, most romantic tunes we've heard in a long, long time and done to perfection in Andrews' fine styling. . . . Pleasantly surprised this past week to get a call from Bess Berman, all the way from New York. Bess is mighty excited these days, as the 5 Royales' "Good Things" is really moving. . . . The Ruth Brown-Sugar Ray Robinson show at the Regal this past week, did SRO biz.

THE FLAIRS

Miniature Pianos

HOLLYWOOD—Liberace and Norma Gilchrist discuss the virtuoso's collection of miniature pianos on her "Helpfully Yours" program when the popular pianist visited the KTTV star recently.

Pianorama World To Bow At B'way Theater

NEW YORK—Pianorama World, a brand new departure in "rama" entertainments, featuring five pianists, Tutti Camarata and his orchestra, a string quartet, an all-star jazz band, and Milton Cross as master of ceremonies, all in person against a background of an ever-changing vista of foreign lands, will bow at the Broadway Theatre for a limited engagement beginning Wednesday evening, May 12.

Created, conceived and staged by Helen Beatty Clarke and Bob L. Roberts, Pianorama World will present these name pianists: Ken Clarke, the jazz pianist who was discovered by the late Mark Hellinger; the dual piano team of Arthur Ferrante and Louis Teicher, known not only for their concerts in this country and on the continent but also for their recordings in which they have performed popular works in the classical style; Joseph Battista, the American pianist who has been called "a young Tital of the Keyboard"; and Jeanne Rosen-blum, winner of the Walter Naumberg Foundation Award.

Tutti Camarata will act as musical supervisor of the entire program, assisting in planning the various scenes and numbers, and Paul Weirwick will be the arranger.

For the classical piano music, there will be an accompaniment played by a string quartet, and for the "hot" numbers, there will be an all-star jazz band, featuring Bobby Hackett on the trumpet, Ed Shaughnessy on the drums, Lou Garrity on the trombone and Clyde Lombardi on the bass.

Miss Clarke and Roberts, who have the Lee K. Freeman play, "Black Candle", on their schedule for next season, have conceived the entire production, which consists of a musical trip around the earth, in which the background of foreign lands corresponds to the globe-circling music.

Ben Boyar is general manager for this newest dimension in entertainment.

ⓓ VERY GOOD	ⓓ MEDIOCRE

KENZIE MOORE
(Specialty 491)

B "HOW MUCH LONGER?" (2:50) [Venice BMI—E. Johnson] Kenzie Moore does a slow rhythmic blues with a moving treatment that comes off for an okay side.

B "IT AIN'T NOTHIN' BUT A DREAM" (2:47) [Venice BMI—W. E. Buyem] A very similar item. A pleasing side performed in okay manner.

MEL WALKER
(Mercury 70370)

B "I'D LIKE TO MAKE YOU MINE" (2:40) [E. B. Marks ASCAP] Mel Walker sings a beaty bounce in warm and intimate style. An infectious romantic ditty. Rhythm section lends solid support.

C+ "ANOTHER SAD NIGHT" (2:41) [Motion Music ASCAP] Walker projects on a middle tempo blues smoothly. Side comes out fair.

JOHN GREER
(Groove 0016)

B "TOO LONG" (2:30) [Royal Music ASCAP—John Greer] John Greer dishes up a rhythmic romantic ditty on the cute side. Greer sells in solid style with potent orking to back up the artist.

C+ "WHEN THE ROSES BLOOM IN LOVER'S LANE" (2:20) [Royal Music ASCAP—Coblin, Coblin, Greer] A slow tempo instrumental that makes light and interesting listening.

THE FOUR BARS
(Josie 005)

B+ "GRIEF BY DAY, GRIEF BY NIGHT" (2:16) [Benell BMI—Daye] The Four Bars blend smoothly and with a good sound as they chant the slow blues with lyrics describing the woe inflicted by the woman he can't get along with. Good platter that could break out big.

B "HEY BABY" (2:25) [Benell BMI—Daye] The flip is another goodie. Side has a real beat that could appeal to pop as well as R & B. An infectious tempo.

THE CHECKERS
(King 4710)

B "HOUSE WITH NO WINDOWS" (2:26) [Jay & Cee BMI—Henry Glover] The Checkers perform a moving slow blues on the sorrowful kick. Having lost his love, lead mournfully sings of his intention to move into a house without any windows so that no one will see him crying. Group blends smoothly behind the lead.

B+ "DON'T STOP DAN" (2:49) [Jay & Cee BMI—Glover] The Checkers come up with what is obviously an attempt to grab another "60 Minute Man". Wax is a good issue with a beat that sells. Lyrics are along the same vein as "Sixty" and the lead voice sounds very much like the lead on the tune that made the Dominoes. Could catch on and create loads of action.

"MILK AND WATER" (3:08)

[Aladdin—Rudolph Toombs]

"I'M STILL A FOOL FOR YOU" (2:23)

[Aladdin—Rudolph Toombs]

AMOS MILBURN
(Aladdin 3240)

AMOS MILBURN

● Amos Milburn's going to shock his fans as he switches to "Milk and Water". Poor old Amos is off the whiskey, scotch, etc. 'cause his doc ordered it so. The old whiskey man is really suffering as he sings this middle tempo bouncer, but he promises he won't be on this kick for long. A cutie that leads the way for another in the same series. Should follow in the same pattern as his numerous hits. The under lid, "I'm Still A Fool For You", has Amos telling his baby he's still a fool for her no matter how wild she runs. Amos rocks through this middle tempo ditty in more forceful style. A good pairing.

"SOMEBODY SOMEWHERE" (2:25)

[Danby Music BMI—Roberts, McCoy]

"CRAZY MIXED UP WORLD" (2:30)

[Angel Music BMI—Adams, Stone]

FAYE ADAMS
(Herald 429)

FAYE ADAMS

● Faye Adams comes up with a strong pair that should create strong sales action. One side, "Somebody Somewhere", is a quick beat jump that rocks along on a semi-religious kick that proved so successful heretofore. Deck, while it has the Faye Adams full throated singing and styling, is different than the "Shake A Hand" styling. Flip, "Crazy Mixed Up World", is a slow emotional storm. Gal generates sparks singing from the heart as she tells of her sad romances "sharing someone else's man". Two powerful items.

BELLS OF JOY
(Peacock 1726)

B "WELL, WELL, NO, NO, NO" (2:30) [Lion—Littlefield, Robey] A potent syncopated religious item flavored by that talented group, Bells of Joy. Should capture a strong segment of gospel sales.

B "NEVER LET IT BE SAID TOO LATE" (2:47) [Lion—P.D.] The Bells etch a slow tempo gospel item with sincerity and somberness. A spiritual that inspires reflective listening.

WILLIE HEADEN
(Dootone 1203)

B "I LOVE YOU BOBBY SOX" (2:53) [Dootsie Williams BMI—Willie Headen] Willie Headen sings a beaty ditty in happy style and comes off with a riding item that should please the hopping crowd.

B "STOP DRINKING" (2:23) [Dootsie Williams BMI—Willie Headen] Another drinking song. Headen sings out a moving blues effectively. Sings the blues about his "juice head" woman and her running around. Punch is centered on the line, "stop drinking, pass me that last glass of beer". Good side with a feeling that could catch on.

THE BLUE DOTS
(DeLuxe 6052)

B "DON'T DO THAT BABY" (2:43) [Franlin BMI—Davis, Pauling] The Blue Dots rock out a driving item with a solid beat. Group blends with an appealing bounce. A good disk.

B "YOU'VE GOT TO LIVE FOR YOURSELF" (3:15) [Franlin BMI—Davis, Pauling] An intriguing side with a slow syncopated beat. Sound created is different. Group has a potent style that could catch on and create sales action.

"YOUNG" JESSIE
(Modern 921)

B+ "I SMELL A RAT" (2:40) [Stoller, Leiber] Young Jessie drives through this novelty item for an exciting side. Jessie does a good job on a record that moves. The shouter belts it from the shootops.

C+ "LONESOME DESERT" (2:53) [Modern BMI—Jessie, Josea] Jessie sings a slow blues. Lyrics on the bloody side. The man killed his wife and is on the lam. Stronger deck is the "Rat" side.

JAMES COTTON
(Sun 199)

C+ "STRAIGHTEN UP BABY" (2:19) [Hi-Lo Music BMI—Cotton] James Cotton sings a Southern rhythmic blues and captures the true feeling.

B "MY BABY" (2:23) [Hi-Lo Music BMI—Cotton] Cotton sings a quick beat bounce that moves with a sprightly effect. Guitar provides some interesting support.

SLEEPER OF THE WEEK

"JUST WHISPER" (2:47)
 [General ASCAP—Moe Jaffe, Bickley Reich Ner]
"HOW MUCH LONGER" (2:40)
 [Danby Music BMI—Kornegay, Roberts]

THE DU DROPPERS
 (Groove 0013)

DU DROPPERS

● The Du Droppers switch attack and come up with two slow blues ballads. One, "Just Whisper", is an emotional religious item tenderly presented. Organ assist lends the proper coloration. The tune is melodic and ear tantalizing. Sincere and not too overly dramatic narrative bit also adds to the general effectiveness of the plate. The other tune, "How Much Longer", is a similarly handled effort. Boys are sweet, soft and romantic as they deliver the lovers lyrics. A good evergreen no matter which side is played.

MELVIN SMITH
 (Groove 0010)

B+ "NO BABY" (2:35) [Merry-mount Music Press BMI—Melvin Smith] Melvin Smith comes up with one of his best in sometime when he pecks and grunts his way through a rocking ditty. Smith employs a staccato technique that makes for an infectious sound. Lyrics on the romantic side although the treatment is anything but. Novelty that could catch big.

B "YOU CAN'T STAY HERE" (2:25) [Campbell Music BMI—Thomas, Kirkland] Smith sings a slow blues chant on the reverse side. Smith wails the urge to move on in a sad and beaten manner. A swaying tempo blues.

JIMMY LEWIS

B "LAST NIGHT" (2:54) [Progressive BMI—Lewis] Jimmy Lewis sings a slow jump blues with a romantic lyric. Lewis etches an effective piece of wax.

B "LOVE BROKE MY HEART AGAIN" (2:39) [Progressive BMI—Lewis] The flip is a slow pretty ballad sung with heart by the chanter. Soft and sentimental item with a dreamy appeal.

OTIS BLACKWELL
 (Jay-Dee 791)

B+ "ON THAT POWER LINE" (2:14) [Beacon Music BMI—Otis Blackwell] Otis Blackwell chants a rhythmic middle tempo item with powerful effectiveness. Blackwell has a feeling on this deck that could create a big sale. Is possibly his best effort to date. Lad's a real comer.

B "DON'T KNOW HOW I LOVED YOU" (2:00) [Beacon Music BMI—Otis Blackwell] Blackwell sings a slow blues in strong style. Has a real potent style of delivery. Material is short of the upper plate.

SONNY WOODS and THE TWIGS
 (Hollywood 1015)

B "CHAPEL OF MEMORIES" (2:22) [Starrite BMI—Tholen, Carpenter, Jolonsa] Lead by Sonny Woods, tenor, the Twigs etch a slow romantic pretty with tenderness. Dramatically etched.

B "SONG OF INDIA" (2:27) [Time—Mercer, Korsakoff] A really exciting arrangement of the old standard. Woods and the Twigs are outstanding on this reading.

JAZZ

(Rating is based on appeal to the jazz market.)

THE LESTER YOUNG QUINTET
 (Norgan Records 102)

B "NEW D. B. BLUES" (3:17) [JATAP—Young] Lester Young rides high, wide and handsome on the fast tempo rocker. Assisting Les on the tenor sax is Jessie Drake, trumpet, Gene Ramey, bass and Gildo Mahones, piano.

C+ "TENDERLY" (3:24) [E. H. Morris ASCAP—Lawrence, Gross] Les and the boys work over the much recorded classic. Should appeal to the cool crowd and the Lester Young fans in particular.

MAYNARD FERGUSON
 (Emarc 16002)

B "THE WAY YOU LOOK TONIGHT" (2:40) [T. B. Harms ASCAP] Maynard Ferguson is strong on this deck as he moves all the way with his interpretation of the oldie. Aggregation, which receives no credits on the label, come up with a fine sound. Good deck with commercial possibilities.

C+ "LONELY TOWN" (2:41) [Witmark ASCAP] Interesting tonal creation with a limited audience.

VIDO MUSSO
 (Crown 110)

B "MUSSO'S BOOGIE" (2:53) [Mod. Music BMI—Musso] Musso sax is wild on this fast moving boogie. Side rocks at a killing pace as Musso blows a torrential storm.

B "SING SING SING" (2:50) [Prima] The rhythmic oldie is melodically handled and swings along in the style of the old swingmasters. A good commercial sound that could pick up some strong play on the current impetus of the Miller-Goodman revival.

BILL DOGGETT
 (King 4711)

B "THERE'S NO YOU" (2:48) [Barton ASCAP—Durgom, Adair, Hopper] Master of the jazz organ etches a dreamy treatment of the pretty item. After hours sound.

B "EASY" (2:25) [Billace BMI—Bill Doggett] Bill etches a middle beat ditty that shows off some tasty organ work. Unidentified sax carries a big part of the play with drums and bass holding the unit together.

Stars Over Harlem

Harlem's Invaders Of The Week: Sensational blues shouter Roy Brown of the Syd Nathan roster drifted in, cooled for a brief spell then proceeded to make the rounds of the jocks and spots sporting a list of scheduled one nighters that will keep him and his crew whaling away until long past June. . . . Spotted The Spaniels cruising up and down the uptown area. Their steadily climbing "Goodnight Sweetheart" was picked by this column as a sure fire chartbuster. . . . Decca's star romantic balladeer Joe Medlin back into town after weeks work under the southern skies. . . . A pleasure it was indeed to chat with Sylvia Van (she's formerly Little Sylvia) and the Buddy Lucas' gang shortly before their departure to fill another batch of dance dates. P.S. Listen to the little lady's latest, "Fine Love", on Atlantic's new Cat record. . . . The string section of bands everywhere were very much represented over the week end in the Harlem area as exciting bassist Oscar Pettiford and Johnny Smith, (he's the guy with the sugar coated guitar stylings), guested on the Jack Walker, Georgia Carr and Leigh Kamman shows. Spotted Bob Astor (Billy Shaw's crack representative) combing the uptown area like mad. . . . Ramon Bruce, Hal Wade, George Hudson still keeping things very much alive in the Jersey territory. . . . Comes April 30th, the divine one, Sarah Vaughn, along with the terrific band of new sax star Paul Quinichette in to the Apollo for a week of what should prove to be the craziest. . . . Something to see and hear: Bandleader George Williams, when he's feeling good and digging discs, praising the tenor sax work of the president, Lester Young. . . . Old Town record executives all worked up as a result of the news received from way out California way via Syd Talmadge that The Solitaires tasty platter "Wonder Why" is getting bigger and bigger every day. . . . Watch Guitar Slim's "The Story Of My Life", The Strangers "My Friend", and last but not least Willie Mae Thornton's long awaited Peacock ditty "I Smell A Rat". . . . Energetic busy body of the Portem lineup Joe Grippo sat in on the first of the sessions in the wax room conducted by the new "After Hours" diskery and nodded time and time again his approval of the whole happenings which will introduce one of the most exciting new vocal groups currently gracing the nation's cabaret and show place floors, "The Vibrinaires".

Victor Caravan Off To A Fast Start

NASHVILLE, TENN. — The RCA Victor Country-Western Caravan was launched on Saturday, April 24 with Tennessee's Governor Frank Clement present to officiate. After many photographs were taken of the troupe and the Governor, the Grand Ole Opry stars and others who are performing left on a Greyhound bus for the 15 day junket.

The Caravan, which is designed to sell records, is doing just that. Its method and scope of promotion is proving effective in every area where the star-studded show is now playing. This is evidenced by the large number of advance sales, where listeners have purchased many times the required number of one record to obtain reduced admission.

Singer-emcee Eddie Hill previewed all the special Caravan releases on his deejay hour "Opry Echoes" over WSM. Besides playing the Caravan records, he interviewed all available artists on the air.

On Saturday night's Grand Ole Opry program, talk about the Caravan was plentiful. Among those heard were Hank Snow, The Davis Sisters, Chet Atkins, Bud Isaacs and Minnie Pearl. Roy Acuff extolled the Caravan to a packed Opry house as did Ernest Tubb during the show that follows the Opry from his record store in Nashville. Charline Arthur joined the performers at Tubb's place, singing "I'm Having A Party All By Myself" and "Waltzing" which were chosen especially for the recorded Caravan series. She and her husband Jack Arthur had just arrived from a tour throughout west Texas.

The first leg of the trip was from Nashville to Knoxville. Then on to Asheville and Roanoke which might be called the joking trips to distinguish them from the speech making trip to Charlotte and the performing trip to Jacksonville.

In Asheville, the troupe met with Col. Tom Parker of Jamboree Attractions, who had arrived earlier to make preparations for the two evening shows there. The good work that he, Tom Diskin and Mrs. Parker had done in advance of the Caravan was highly evident in Asheville.

Hawkshaw Hawkins, Betty Cody and Hal "Lone Pine" drove directly to Asheville from Wheeling where they are featured on station WWVA. Everyone was deeply concerned for Hal, who had wrenched his back only a short time before. He performed in great pain that day, but showed not a trace of it as he brought down the house with his favorites "She Took, She Took" and "I'd Like To Sit With The Baby Sitter". By the time Roanoke was reached Hal was much improved.

Charlie Lamb of The Cash Box joined the troupe in Roanoke. While riding on the bus from Roanoke to Charlotte, Charlie initiated a series of impromptu speeches and songs where every traveler was heard from. Using the inside P.A. system of the bus, they staged a real show-within-a-show as far as the Caravan was concerned. The two cooperative bus drivers W. Eddie and E. P. Richardson played an important part, despite the harassing they received from the passengers imitating police sirens and making like fume-sufferers en route.

We've described the jaunt to Jacksonville as the performing trip. Actually this is a tremendous compliment to the troupe who had slept only four hours after two rousing shows to a packed armory in Charlotte. As if nothing had happened, they uncorked one of the most remarkable sessions in memory that morning and afternoon.

Hank Snow, whose Caravan release of "I Don't Hurt Anymore" and "My Arabian Baby" seems to be a smash, treated the group to a wealth of singing and playing of his latest numbers, including some never heard before. He was joined by Chet Atkins for their first session together as long as they have been playing and recording for RCA Victor. The drive and subtlety these two great artists displayed was impressive. Charline Arthur filled in on rhythm guitar and Hawkshaw Hawkins did the lyrics. This was a remarkable performance.

The Davis Sisters likewise proved themselves to be great improvisers not only on the trip to Jacksonville, but all during the first four days of the Caravan. And if audience reaction is any indication, their recording of "You Weren't Ashamed To Kiss Me" and "Foggy Mountain Top" is destined for a foremost position among the Caravan disks.

BULLSEYE OF THE WEEK

"I'M A STRANGER IN MY HOME" (2:47)
[Ridgeway BMI—P. W. King, R. Stewart, N. Burris]
"ONE BY ONE" (2:53)
[Hill & Range BMI—J. Wright, Jack Anglin, Jim Anglin]
KITTY WELLS and RED FOLEY
(Decca 29065)

● Two of the label's top moneymakers team up on a pair of tunes that have the quality, melody and lyrics to go big time in a big way. Both decks are sure to bring out the crying towels and attract a bundle of coin. On the top portion, "I'm A Stranger In My Home", the Kitty Wells-Red Foley combination waxes a moderate beat weeper with the utmost of feeling. Flipside, the pair turn in another top drawer performance on a middle beat piece dubbed "One By One". The material is great on both sides and either end could really step out.

"MY CHIHUAHUA DOG" (2:30) [Dandelion BMI—L. Smith]
"I SAW E'SAU" (2:30) [Dandelion BMI—F. Kirkland]
GINNY WRIGHT
(Fabor 105)

● Ginny Wright, one of the most exciting new talents in the country field, comes up with a pair of tunes that should make the best seller lists in the near future. The thrush hit it big when she teamed up with Jim Reeves on "I Love You" and now she should do equally as well on two terrific solo efforts. "My Chihuahua Dog" is a bright, novelty bounced with refreshing lyrics. Flip, "I Saw E'sau (Kissing Mary Lou)" is another happy sounding, quick beat ditty. Keep an eye on "Chihuahua".

"YOU WEREN'T ASHAMED TO KISS ME LAST NIGHT" (2:18)
[Tannen BMI—F. & B. Bryant]
"FOGGY MOUNTAIN TOP" (2:10) [Peer Int'l BMI—A. P. Carter]
THE DAVIS SISTERS
(RCA Victor 20-5701)

● The Davis Sisters dish up a two-sided natural and both decks should climb in the direction of the juke box throne. Top half, titled "You Weren't Ashamed To Kiss Me Last Night" is a moderate beat, sentimental piece that the duet waxes in charming fashion. The reverse deck, "Foggy Mountain Top" moves along at a fast rhythmic pace and the girls belt out the flavorful lyrics in solid style. The gals receive an excellent musical backdrop on both ends of this potent coupling. It's another release in conjunction with the diskery's Country Caravan.

THE CASH BOX FOLK and WESTERN ROUNDUP

There seems to be a fresh, new air of activity on the Country and Western Music Front these days. And, from all indications, this splurge of activity is a very good one. First of all, the RCA Victor C&W Caravan hit the road with a wide-a-woke promotion to promote its artists, and record sales. There has been a good supply of commercial recordings from this end of the trade all along, but now, the Country wax flow seems to be even getting better. And, more and more Country tunes are being covered by 'pop' artists. On the personal appearance scene, a Grand Ole Opry cast has just returned from a tour of Texas where they exceeded all previous gate receipts. The Opry unit included Webb Pierce (Decca), Roy Acuff (Capitol) and his Smoky Mountain Boys, Carl Smith (Columbia) and his Tune Smiths, Marty Robbins (Columbia), the Carter Sisters with Mother Maybelle, and the Duke of Paducah. Bobby Williamson (RCA Victor) of WFAA-WFAA-TV, Dallas, Texas just completed a date at the Hillbilly Park in Waco with his band. . . . Bobby's latest is "Steady Diet" and "There's Nothing As Great." We've been tellin' you about the new George Morgan release lately . . . well, it's out now and is really great. Many claim that this is George's best in sometime . . . title of the Morgan release is "I Think I'm Going To Cry". Cindy Walker, prominent songwriter and entertainer in Nashville recently visiting with her many friends. Cindy's mother was along also. Lonzo and Oscar of comedy fame, set for personal appearances in Iowa and Nebraska last week. Grandpa Jones, Romona and all the grandchildren including Floyd Robinson, Dale Parker set for four days in Canadian territory. Want to compliment Uncle Herm Reavis of WRIS, Roanoke, Va. for the fine job he is doing spinning out C&W tunes each day from 6-8 A.M. and 12:30-2 P.M. Doug Smith does a great job too with C&W records at WSLV-TV, Roanoke, Va. Valley Record Company just released a fine tune with Mary Jane Johnson doing the vocal. Mary's release is "I'll Never Tell" and "Across The Tracks." Sheriff "Tex" Davis, WLOW-Norfolk, Va., has added a new feature to his show, in which he takes the artist that wins the top spot on his hit parade and stars him for 15 minutes each week Jesse Rogers and Sally Starr, who were recently voted "Mr. and Mrs. Team-work in Marriage and Careers", started their brand new television show over Channel 6 in Philadelphia.

Johnnie and Jack and the Tennessee Mountain Boys continue to build with their current offering of "I Get So Lonely" which is hittin' all charts and is expected to go even bigger in the next couple of weeks. This unit from WSM's Grand Ole Opry are consistently in demand for road appearances and are managed by Frankie More who has the group booked well into the season. The boys are also getting heavy play on the reverse of "Lonely" with "You're Just What The Doctor Ordered." Paul Cohen seems to have gotten another commercial twosome together . . . this time it's Kitty Wells and Red Foley with a fine recording of "I'm A Stranger In My Home" backed with "One By One". The tune, just released, is already getting response! Just received a fine Fan Club Journal from Del Wood's Fan Club rep, Doris Land, Macon, Georgia. Thanks! Big news in the Music Circles broke recently when it was learned that Oscar Davis, veteran promoter of Grand Ole Opry and other big-name shows decided to align himself with a leading lady; choosing himself a bride! The bride is the former Doris Noles of Nashville, a secretary by profession. Hank Snow tries a hand at something a little different with his latest release "I Don't Hurt Anymore" and the results are quite satisfying. Early reports from the RCA Victor Caravan tour audiences indicated that the tune will be a big one for Snow. Edgar Clayton in Nashville recently for a visit with Grant Turner on Turner's Mr. DJ U.S.A. Show over WSM. Clayton spins out C&W records at WERH, Hamilton, Alabama. Kenny Lee (RCA Victor) busy paying visits to disc jockeys in the Atlanta area, and is planning on doing guest shots with Boots Woodall and the TV Wranglers over WAGA-TV soon. Kenny also visited with Joe Rumore and Dan Brennen at WVOK, Birmingham, Jimmy Atkins at WLBS, Happy Hal Burns of WBRC, and Hardrock Gunter of WJLD of Birmingham, Alabama.

DEL WOOD

Want to wish Tom James lots of good luck with his first RCA Victor record . . . "Sample Of Your Love" and "Your Kind Of Lovin'". Tom plans to return to Dallas soon for appearances with some of his buddies prior to his move to Nashville. In Dallas Tom worked with the Shelton Brothers, Al Dexter, Skeeter Webb and Sonny James. Billy Dudley (Capitol) seems to be getting lots of play with his latest recording . . . "Dark Streets". Tune was penned by Buddy Killen, Nashville. Pee Wee King really busy these days. May 2nd, Pee Wee held forth in Indianapolis and May 9th he'll be in Akron; May 14th in Hanover, Indiana, May 16th in Vermillion, Ohio, May 18th in Ashtabula, Ohio and May 22nd in Little Rock, Ark. Pee Wee's current offering is going in both the Country and Pop fields . . . "Backward, Turn Backward" and "Indian Giver". Curtis Gordon's been on the move recently. First with personal appearances in Albany and Thomasville, Georgia, promoting his recent release "Dig That Crazy Moon" and "I'd Do It For You." Curtis wants to thank all the deejays for the fine job they've been doing with his latest record and also wants to thank Fred Wamble of WBAM in Montgomery and XEA in Fort Worth for the contests they are running in connection with his record. Curtis also visited with friend Leony Morris at WEAR in Pensacola, Florida recently. Eddy Arnold in Atlanta recently for visit with the deejays in that area and a little luncheon get-together. Eddy also visited with Sam Wallace and stopped by the Sears Store in Atlanta and autographed some 300 albums while in the store. Carl Smith (Columbia) who has had quite a fist full of good tunes in the past and who is now getting some fine action on his latest "Back Up Buddy" looks as if he is going to be hittin' doubly now. Carl combines his talent with that of June Carter for a fine duet with their latest release "Time's A'Wastin'" and "Love, Oh, Crazy Love". It's a clever novelty that should click for this couple!

Dub Allbritten busy with finishing up details for the Jimmie Rodgers Memorial Celebration to be held in Meridian, Miss. the 25th and 26th of this month. Martha Carson recently played to capacity houses in Beaumont, Texas, Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Okla., and Norman, Oklahoma. Starting May 16th, Martha and Little Jimmie Dickens begin a two week's tour of the Western Canada Arenas Association towns.

Folk And Western Notes From California

Rex Allen has been voted the top singing Western star for 1953 by the Mountain States Independent Music Writers League on the basis of Mr. Allen's "Musicianship and repertoire." The Music Writers League secretary, Morey Russell of Oregon, said that Allen's rodeo swing through the northwest last year made Allen a sensational hit and boosted his recording sales into leadership over all western platters. Rex cut six sides for Decca Records this week in his first recording session in three weeks and he has scheduled a heavy recording calendar before starting his season of personal appearances April 30th. . . . Hitting a double jackpot in the near future will be Jack Tucker & his Oklahoma Playboys. Jack's four star record, "Too Quick To Condemn," is selling faster than rare Eastern food in LA at bargain prices. "I Was Only Foolin' Me," his newest release, has won an excellent review from The Cash Box and is being covered by two major labels. . . . Who made a big hit at the Paul Laymon and Cane Rockola openings with his new Victor release "Angel With A Broken Wing?" That was Audie Andrews, Texas Country Boy. Audie also signed for a three months' personal appearance tour with veteran actor Tom London, through Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma and across to New York, where he will have a good chance to make friends and promote his record. . . . Ferlin Huskey (doing business as) Terry Preston will now record under both names. His first release under Terry Preston will be "Each Time You Leave" b/w "Deceived." Mr. Huskey (Preston) changed his name from Preston to Huskey because Preston wasn't successful enough. But now Capitol Execs find that people are asking for Mr. Preston's new releases. So now Mr. Huskey (Preston) is doubly successful and he will be recorded under both names. . . . "This Must Be The Place" and "Honeymoon's Over," a new POP release on Capitol has brought together western star Tennessee Ernie and Betty Hutton. They will be teamed together for these tunes. . . . Capitol's new 14-year-old pactee, Dallas Frazier, from Bakersfield, Calif., has recorded two numbers soon to be released and titled "Space Command" b/w "Ain't You Got No Bringin' Up At All." Dallas himself wrote the latter tune.

Here and There

MILWAUKEE, WIS.—At a meeting of executives from a wide variety of industries at the Management Center of Marquette University, this city, it was stated that "Business in the Midwest is moving forward with caution—but without fear." It was the contention of those present that one of the main reasons for the improved condition was "harder selling." For the past year or so, it has been stressed in every possible manner that it was high time for business men all over the country to rediscover the art of selling. At the present meeting it was said that in some circles statements were heard that "Constant repetition of this phrase got rather boring at times, if not outright nauseating, and there were many who smirked at it as 'just another bromide' that could never solve any of our basic economic difficulties." However, those in attendance at the Management Center contended that "harder selling" as well as development of new and better products proved "just what the doctor ordered", and supplied evidence to prove it. An executive of a Milwaukee foundry concern with a national reputation stressed product diversification and—selling. "We started pounding on doors for the first time in years", he said, "to secure our share of the available business. . . . And it works."

NEW YORK—A short time ago Mayor Robert Wagner and his administration proposed a 3 per cent retail sales tax on commercial services. This tax would have been directed at advertising agencies, printing and publishing firms, stock brokers, shipping, commercial airline services, et al. In a spirited public hearing, representatives of the above type businesses threatened to remove their offices from the city. General opinion is that this is one of the most unpopular tax proposals ever presented. It is now reported that the Wagner administration, unwilling to run the risk of driving these businesses from the city, has decided to abandon the plan. In its place the city is studying other methods of raising needed funds. Among the items being considered is a tax on juke boxes, ($25 per machine, per year). Up to this time, unlike many other cities thruout the nation, N. Y. juke box ops have not been subjected to a local tax.

DETROIT, MICH.—As the automobile industry has considerable effect on the economy of the nation, let's take a look at last week's activity. Last week the U. S. factories built 124,540 cars and 22,295 trucks, the highest volume in 34 weeks. This compared with 118,485 cars and 21,132 trucks the previous week. . . . Used car sales (April 1-10) paralleled the same 1953 period with more than 230,000 units. . . . GM employment was some 30,000 more than in the first quarter of 1953, a total of 574,000, approximating the all-time high for any previous quarter.

"You can't tell 'til you try"

There's a tremendous number of red-faced skeptics in this industry today.

These men are carmine-faced only because they wouldn't try. They just listened to gossip. To rumor. To anyone else, but, themselves.

They didn't try out that new machine.

They thought they knew 'all the answers.'

Until, suddenly, because someone else, someone who wasn't really and truly interested in their continued, happy and prosperous future, tried one.

Then, they, tried 'one.'

And they were surprised.

Surprised to learn, suddenly, that this was actually a good game (or a good phono, or a good vending machine, or a good service machine, or a good kiddie ride) or a good whatever-it-was.

The fact remains that what may "go over" in someone else's territory, may be the worst flop in another territory.

Similarly, what doesn't go over in another territory, may prove sensational in another area.

The old, old story of the great inline game that was "absolutely sensational" in the City of Syracuse, New York. But "a flop," everywhere else.

Until, today, when the inline pinball has suddenly again blossomed forth.

And has, without any doubt whatsoever, become the most outstanding sensation since the early days of pinball game sensations.

But, how did it become a sensation?

Because someone tried it out!

Someone who had the courage to try "the new idea."

Someone who believed in the manufacturers.

The men who are spending many, many dollars in experimentation and development and production to bring "what's new" to the field.

The skeptic is the guy who won't try.

He doesn't believe that anything new is any good.

He doesn't see tomorrow.

In fact, he's the kind of guy who probably says, "What was good enough for Pa is good enough for me."

To this guy, and to all like him, there's only one statement which can be made (within what Uncle Samuel will allow us to print), "You can't tell 'til you try." (And we mean "try.")

Not just put a new machine out in one spot for one day. "Try."

Get that new machine around.

It doesn't take a hundred new machines today to convince you, or anyone else in this business, that the machine's got quality, money-making power, and the enjoyment and relaxation which your players are seeking.

How will you ever know if you don't try?

Here is what happened
when another

WURLITZER 1700 CAROUSEL Record Changer

was field-tested in

★ ALTON, ILLINOIS

Before the Wurlitzer 1700 Phonograph was ever presented to the operators of America, it was field-tested in locations all over the country.

Here is what happened in Alton, Illinois. The new Wurlitzer 1700 mechanism, disguised in a 1550-A cabinet, was turned over to Harry Schaffner, President of the Southern Illinois Operators Association, and an operator himself for ten years.

He and his service men handled the entire testing program.

At the conclusion of the test, Mr. Schaffner stated, "Collections are terrific. This is it! It's wonderful!"

Nashville Shuffle Game Op Gets Interpretation of Federal Law as Regards Awarding of Prizes

NASHVILLE, TENN. — Some months ago, Tommy Tomlin of Tommy's Distributing Company, this city, requested a ruling from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, U. S. Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., as to the application of either the special tax imposed by section 3267(2) of the Internal Revenue Code ($250 per year on coin-operated gaming devices), or the excise tax on wagering imposed by section 3285 of the Code ($50 per year occupational tax for wagering), with respect to the operation of coin-operated shuffle board games, when each player is given a numbered ticket and prizes are offered to the person acquiring the winning number tickets.

We reproduce herewith the reply Tomlin received from R. J. Bopp, Chief, Excise Tax Branch of the Office of Commissioner of Internal Revenue, U. S. Treasury Department, Washington, D. C.:

This is in further reference to your letter of January 14, 1954, requesting a ruling relative to the application of either the special tax imposed by section 3267(2) of the Internal Revenue Code or the excise tax on wagering imposed by section 3285 of the Code with respect to the operation of a coin-operated shuffle board game in the manner described below.

You state that the shuffle board machine in question is operated by the insertion of a ten cent coin. The game is played in substantially the same manner as the ordinary game of shuffle board except that the puck is propelled by hand instead of by means of a wooden stick. At the conclusion of a game the score is registered on the machine. The player does not receive any cash or prize by reason of the score attained nor does he receive anything by the element of chance. However, as a "trade stimulator" the operator of the device gives each person a numbered ticket and prizes are offered to the persons acquiring the winning number tickets. Tickets may not be purchased but are given to each person playing the machine and the price charged for playing the game is the same regardless of whether or not the player takes the ticket.

With your letter of February 1, 1954, you furnished a descriptive folder which contains pictures of the various prizes awarded and the cost price of each article together with a sample ticket. It is noted that the prizes used have numbers written above each one. Any person who happens to get a ticket corresponding to the number designated for a particular prize wins that article and the prizes are awarded at any time when a winning number is presented.

You state further that you informed your client that in your opinion no Federal tax is involved other than the $10.00 per year tax applicable to amusement machines provided for by section 3267(1) of the Code.

Section 3267 of the Code, as amended, imposes on every person maintaining for use or permitting the use of a coin-operated amusement or gaming device on any place or premises occupied by him a special tax as follows:

(1) $10.00 per year for each coin-operated amusement device defined to mean any amusement or music machine operated by means of the insertion of a coin, token or similar object.

(2) $250.00 per year, effective November 1, 1951, for each coin-operated gaming device defined to mean "slot" machine which operated by means of the insertion of a coin, token or similar object and which, by application of the element of chance, may deliver or entitle the person playing or operating the machine to receive cash, premiums, merchandise or tokens.

CHICAGO—This will probably come as no great surprise to those who have been active in the sales field.

But, from all reports accumulated to date, the coinbiz for April, 1954, has exceeded that of the same month, April, 1953.

This has become quite apparent in almost every industry in the nation. Many attribute this to a resurgence of buying due to elimination of stock on hand.

Others, in various industries, claim it to be the usual spring business pick-up added to the elimination of the excess profits tax.

Whatever the reason, the fact remains that this industry, unlike many others, has zoomed ahead this first quarter of '54, and continues on ahead as the second quarter comes into being.

Many are now predicting that this same business upsurge will continue thruout the spring and summer months of 1954.

They base their prediction on the fact that the manufacturers are "carefully controlling production" and, as one of these men stated:

"None of the manufacturers is letting himself get stampeded into going all-out for production at this time."

The main purpose of many of the factories is to draw out production schedules. This keeps their employees working right ahead. While demand continues high, and just when many expect the demand to fall, there is a switchover to some new type product, so that the first machine will not even have an opportunity to go out of demand completely.

A shuffle board machine which is activated by the insertion of a ten cent coin and which is operated in the manner described is an amusement device within the meaning of section 3267 of the Code even though each player is entitled to a numbered ticket. Accordingly, your client will incur liability to the special tax of $10.00 per year imposed by section 3267(1) of the Code with respect to the maintenance for use of each such game.

Since a person pays no more to play the game than is generally charged for playing such a game, it is considered that no wager has been placed. Therefore, such an operation would not come within the scope of the wagering tax law.

However, if it is determined that the practice of awarding tickets to

The fact that business was better this April of 1954 than it was April of 1953 doesn't excite anyone here in this manufacturing center.

Each one of the executives of the various large plants in this area attribute this business upsurge to the fact that they are producing better equipment than ever. And that operator after operator has reported that the new machines are reviving business on location after location.

For example, one manufacturer here who was rather quiet for some months, and who is now producing a new gun game, reports:

"Business is so great we are trying to satisfy five distributors with three machines."

Inline game manufacturers are far overordered and are also in this same position.

The five-ball game manufacturers are continuing ahead on their "controlled production basis" and this is keeping them going ahead on an even keel.

The shuffle game manufacturers are also behind in deliveries and, dollar-wise, are far, far ahead of 1953. These manufacturers are also keeping step with the new developments. Each one is presenting new and more intriguing equipment for the operators.

As far as the music manufacturers are concerned, their factories are working right ahead of schedule, trying to fill the demand from their distributors not only everywhere in this country, but also from many parts of the world where music has, at long last, taken strong hold, and where new machines are now in biggest demand.

all persons who play the game is (1) merely a guise to circumvent the wagering tax and the primary purpose of placing money in the machine is to obtain a chance on a prize rather than to participate in the game for the amusement afforded or (2) tickets are sold outright to any individuals without the necessity of playing the game, the operation would be considered the operation of a lottery conducted for profit within the meaning of section 3285 of the Code and the operator would be liable for the 10 percent excise tax on wagering and the $50.00 per year occupational tax imposed by sections 3285 and 3290 of the Code.

Very truly yours,

R. J. Bopp
Chief, Excise Tax Branch

New York Cigarette Vendors Called Trust by Government

NEW YORK—A Federal grand jury alleging violation of the anti-trust laws, returned an indictment on Wednesday, April 28, naming a cigarette trade association, five member corporations, a labor union and seven individuals, charging a conspiracy to monopolize vending machine sales of cigarettes in the metropolitan area.

At the same time the Government filed a companion civil complaint to dissolve the association and enjoin the defendants from continuing the alleged violations.

The indictment charged that since 1936 the defendants had conspired to monopolize the cigarette vending machine business so as to exclude independent operators.

The defendants, the suit said, have used Local 805, Confectionery and Tobacco Drivers and Warehousemen's Union, A. F. L., to enforce and police the conspiracy by compelling members of the association to conform to the by-laws through threats of picketing or by means of boycotts.

The civil suit seeks a decree from court dissolving the association, enjoining the defendants from continuing the alleged monopolistic practices, and requiring them to cancel all agreements and understandings that have been used to effectuate the alleged illegal conspiracy.

If found guilty on the criminal indictment, the individuals could be sentenced to a year on each of the four counts involved, and fined $5,000 on each count, the anti-trust division of the Department of Justice said. The association and the corporations are liable to $5,000 fine on each count.

Arraignment will be in Federal Court on May 10.

In an effort to check the association's viewpoint, The Cash Box contacted the Cigarette Merchandisers Association, but was informed that Matthew Forbes, executive director, was out of town, and wouldn't be back for several weeks.

Those named as defendants were:

Cigarette Merchandisers Association, Inc., and Matthew Forbes, executive director.

Confectionery and Tobacco Drivers and Warehousemen's Union, Local 805, A. F. L., and Milton Holt, secretary-treasurer.

Rowe Corporation, and Arthur Gluck, executive vice-president.

Cigarette Service, Inc., and Gustave Stern, president.

United Tobacco Corporation, and Jackson Bloom, secretary-treasurer.

Herald Vending Corporation, and Harold Jacobs, president and owner.

County Enterprises, Inc., and Louis Price, secretary-treasurer.

Chicago Coin Presents New "Star-Lite Bowler" Announces Newest 6 Player Match Type Bowling Game

SAMUEL WOLBERG

CHICAGO—Following right along on the streak of successful bowling games which it has produced this year, Chicago Coin Machine Company, this city, announced its newest 6 player match type bowling game, "Star Lite Bowler," with an entirely new matching feature.

Samuel Wolberg of Chicago Coin Machine Company, who was present at the factory this past week, described the game as "One of the very finest we have yet presented to the market."

He also reported, "This is the type of bowling game that the players want, and because our distributors were right on the ball to give us this information as quickly as they did, we are now ready with delivery of our new type 'Star Lite Bowler.'"

Engineers of the firm describe the game with the following statement:

"In previous match type bowling games a match number appears only once at the end of the game, thus the player whose score matched the number would then receive an award.

"But on 'Star Lite Bowler,' they continued, "a match number appears as each player finishes his turn in the first frame, second frame, third frame, and so forth, up thru the tenth frame.

"The object of the game being that as a player's score matches the number in any frame a star automatically lights directly under his score. For each match made during the play of

Ops Complain: "We're Working Against Each Other"

Claim Ops are Actually Working Against Each Other to Detriment of Entire Biz in Many Territories. Lack of Stability is Reflected in Slowed Payments for Equipment Purchased. Distribs in Such Areas Wary and Won't Risk Capital Merchandise on Time Payments Realizing Lack of Cooperation Among Ops Causes Loss in Many Instances. Other Ill Effects Also Noticeable Especially in Cooperation for General Legislation

CHICAGO—"As regards 10c play in our territory," one op said, "we can't get it going, as much as we would like to, because the other operators won't cooperate."

"Furthermore," he continued, "we consider ourselves lucky to be able to continue on a 50%-50% commission basis as we are doing right now, regardless of the fact that many of us are losing money."

This is heard from many territories thruout the country. Distributors in these areas are also perturbed.

The operators, as one of the nation's well known distributors reported, "... are actually fighting each other. They are jumping each other's locations with preposterous percentage deals. They are kicking each other around."

"In the long run," he continued, "they are simply making it practically impossible to do a sound business with them, at least as far as we, as distributors, are concerned."

This is reflected in the slowed payment for long purchased equipment, as well as in the fact that distribs, in such areas, are now extremely wary. They won't risk capital on these operators. They don't believe in the changing of one route after another. They can't see any stability in such business.

"It's a very sad thing to report," one distrib said, "but we just don't believe that these men can last very long in this business."

"They simply must learn to cooperate with each other and work together for the betterment of everyone concerned in the territory."

"For example," he continued, "we had a very bad tax bill on the way and to get cooperation was practically impossible. Each one we talked to, would say, 'Tell George to do it.'"

"This is hurting all concerned with the business. We simply must have harmony and coordination or we are going to continue to lose money."

Another thing that is very noticeable in these areas is the fact that more of the old, prewar, scarred, screechy machines are on locations in such areas than anywhere else. These operators will place such old phonos on locations on a $5 per week rental.

"And," as one operator described the situation, "the truth of the matter is they won't even come around to collect in two or three weeks to get the five bucks.

"In short," he commented, "they simply block off a location that might be developed by some intelligent operator, and we just simply can't fight them, because of the fact that the storekeeper shows us he practically pays nothing for the equipment he has there."

"At the same time," this operator dryly commented, "he earns nothing. But what hurts, he keeps us from earning. And the whole territory continues in a turmoil."

the game one star is lit, with the maximum possibility of lighting six stars in any one game."

This outstanding and interesting feature, these engineers explained, has been thoroly tested on locations and has pulled tremendous play.

The game is also equipped with single or double chute as the operators prefer.

"In fact," Samuel Wolberg concluded, "every outstanding and successful feature of all our great bowling games is incorporated into our new 'Star Lite Bowler,' plus the new matching feature, which is not only unique and original, but has proved itself on location as one of the finest attractions bowling game players have ever enjoyed."

Coinman Active In Civic and Community Affairs

CHICAGO — Members of the coin machine industry have varied noteworthy interests outside their regular work. These interests include active participation in community and civic affairs.

One such member is Charles M. (Little Jimmy) Johnson, owner of the Globe Distributing Company, this city. His number one hobby is chasing fire engines.

This hobby of his is a holdover from the days when, as a youngster, he was a fixture at his neighborhood fire station on Chicago's west side. When a call would interrupt a crucial checker game during those days, "Little Jimmy" would just naturally tag along with the firemen to see what was cooking.

"Little Jimmy" is now vice president of the Chicago Fire Fans Association, an organization he helped reactivate four years ago with eight other Chi "fire bugs."

The original association, formed during World War I, had remained dormant for years.

At the last monthly meeting the association, which has a maximum quota of only 100 members, a check for $5,000 was presented to the Salvation Army Traveling Canteen Service.

"Little Jimmy" is one of two honorary fire chiefs of the Chicago Fire Department, and has been for the past 10 years.

The association belongs to the American Red Cross Disaster Service, and has the right to purchase supplies for disaster victims using Red Cross funds.

The Globe Distributing Company's owner is also a member of the nationwide Variety Club, Dayton, Ohio chapter. This club includes as members personnel of the amusement field, and has charity as its goal.

ST. LOUIS, MO.—Pete Brandt, president of Brandt Distributing Co., Inc. reported that his company enjoyed a constant flow of operators from Missouri and Southern Illinois on Wurlitzer Days. They are Harold "Bo" Young of Broadway Music Company, Caruthersville, Mo., Bill Wood, salesman for Brandt Distributing, Stanley Seiter, service manager for Brandt Distributing, and Bill Hayden of Broadway Music Company. Both operators indicated their intention of replacing many phonographs on their route with new Wurlitzer "1700s".

Wurlitzer Latin American Service School

MEXICO CITY, MEXICO—Wurlitzer's sales and service representative for Latin America, Andres Echevarria, recently returned from a swing through his territory. A major portion of the time in each country visited was spent in training service and maintenance men in the correct procedures for adjusting Wurlitzer phonographs.

One of the best attended service schools was a three-day session held at Casa Riojas in Mexico City. Jose Riojas, distributor for Mexico, had eighty-five operator's servicemen on hand to benefit from Mr. Echevarria's instruction. The classes used ten Wurlitzer chassis, including mechanisms for all current models.

Each machine was mounted on a special assembly stand permitting easy access to all parts. Amplifiers and coin register units were also included in the training.

Andres was assisted by Pepe Riojas, who is in charge of phonograph as-Chairman, Harold Chasen; Entertainment, Herman Halperin and Harry Goldman; Arrangements, Jules Rusoff and Robert Harvey; Reservations, H. Betti, Jr. and B. J. sembly in Mexico. Parts are shipped to that country from the factory for assembly into completed units.

In commenting on the Latin American schools Arthur C. Rutzen, Wurlitzer export sales manager, said, "This project is essential to acquaint these men with our new products. They are geographically located too far from our factory to make a visit practical. We must take the training to them. The mechanics' interest and their obvious desire for knowledge are ample payment for our efforts."

Ohio Judge Okays Pinballs

COLUMBUS, OHIO—In a ruling which might prove a set back to the Ohio State Liquor Control Department in its campaign against pinball machines in liquor places, a decision handed down in Columbus (April 27) by Common Pleas Judge Joseph M. Clifford held that pinball machines which give players free games are not in themselves gambling devices.

The court reversed a 15-day suspension of the permit of the Kozy Korner at Powhattan Point. The suspension had been ordered by the Liquor Control Board after two of its investigators played a pinball machine in the place.

Judge Clifford's order, however, in no way touched upon a recent order by the liquor department banning the machines from liquor places on the claim the machines are gambling devices. That order has been appealed by about 200 pinball operators and was scheduled to be heard by another Common Pleas Court judge. In his decision, Judge Clifford said:

"A device such as here in evidence offers an opportunity to play a game, primarily one of skill, with little element of mechanical chance, and so long as the device is not used for gambling purposes it is not a gambling device per se merely because the player may win the right to play a free game. . . ."

"There is no evidence or even a claim," Judge Clifford added, "that the pinball machine was being used for gambling purposes (in the Powhattan case) and the demonstration of the machine showed conclusively that the result attained was not dependent upon the mechanism of the device."

The machine involved in the case was of the so-called "five ball" variety.

Belgium Games Mfr. Setting Up Distribs Thru World

BRUSSELS, BELGIUM—La Maison Bleue, of this city, who has been manufacturing amusement games for sale in Europe, has now expanded its efforts to secure world wide sales.

Its current game is a soccer football game, which has had an outstanding success in the European market.

The game has 22 moving players arranged thruout the playing surface, and each man can be manipulated to kick at the moving ball with his right foot. A goaltender, which is also controlled by the patron, can be moved in an effort to stop a shot at the goal. It is a two patron, competitive game with each patron standing on either side.

La Maison Bleue is now in the process of setting up distributors for this game thruout the world.

Williams Busy As New "All Star Baseball" Clix Thru Trade

SAM STERN

CHICAGO—Williams Manufacturing Company is one of the busiest factories in this area as orders continue to flood in for the new six player "All Star Baseball" game with triple match feature which the firm had presented to the trade just a few weeks ago.

"In fact", as Sam Stern, executive vice-president and general manager of the firm stated, "if this keeps up we'll have to take over every available inch of space that we can obtain."

"We are working on the biggest production schedule we've yet put thru this year. The way that the orders are coming in assures us that even this schedule won't be sufficient to keep step with the business we are doing at this time."

Stern attributes the success of the "All Star Baseball" to the fact that:

"This is one game that the operators themselves wanted and we simply met the demand."

"But", he continued, "instead of just an ordinary match feature, we put a triple match feature on 'All Star Baseball' while maintaining it as a six player game."

"The result has been a string of steady compliments ever since the game's introduction with orders complementing the compliments."

United Reports Sales Continue Upwards

BILL DeSELM

CHICAGO—Bill DeSelm, general sales manager of United Manufacturing Company, reported this past week:

"Our sales are continuing to swing upwards and we believe that, even before this second quarter of 1954 is over, we will have set a sales record as compared to business for this same period in 1953."

DeSelm pointed to the busy factory as he continued to speak, and advised: "Our new inline game, 'Mexico', has taken strong hold and we believe that this game is proving itself one of the finest yet produced."

"We also feel that our shuffle alley games and our inline games are helping all operators everywhere to enjoy greater prosperity, especially in view of the fact that each and every game we produce is geared to get peak play on all locations, regardless of what those locations may be, and also regardless of how much play these locations enjoyed with any other game."

DeSelm also proudly pointed to some complimentary letters on his desk from noted operators and distributors and stated:

"Reading letters like this makes anyone feel grand."

"We build the kind of products that make more money for the operators, and that is why our factory continues to be so busy."

Bally Factory Operating Around Clock On Bowlers

JACK NELSON

CHICAGO—Jack Nelson, general sales manager of Bally Manufacturing Company, reports a terrific demand for the new "Champion Bowler" and "Victory Bowler" Shuffle Alleys.

According to Nelson, the entire Bally plant has been working around the clock to meet the demand for the new bowlers, and affiliated Bally organizations have stepped up production to provide many of the components that go into the new bowlers. Nelson stated, "the coordinated efforts of Bally subsidiaries have made it possible to meet the demand, and shipments are going out just about as fast as the orders come in." "Yes," said Nelson, "with Bally Surf-Club in-line game going strong, and orders for the new bowlers pouring in, the Bally factory is at its busiest in many years."

Very few, if any, were surprised this past week when The Cash Box survey showed that the coinbiz had gone ahead, for the month of April '54, over that of April '53. As some of the larger factory sales heads stated, "We're so busy we just didn't think about comparing sales figures with a year ago." This, in itself, highly indicative of the speedy action under way here. . . . As Jack Nelson stated, "All you have to do is just look out on the loading platform where those 'Surf Clubs' are stacked up to get some idea of the shipments we are making each day. And even then," he continued, "we just can't meet the tremendous demand, which," he explained, "seems to be growing bigger each day." . . . Very fine letter from Lt. David B. MacFarland, executive officer of Battery B, 79th AAA Battalion, wherein he states re: the juke box donated to this outfit by Bob Lindelof of Skokie, "The Battery Commander and I wish to take this opportunity to express our appreciation for the juke box. Anything we acquire to improve the morale of the men on this site is a big factor in operating efficiency." This outfit one of the many surrounding Chicago for defense against invading aircraft. And with the Army economizing so severely, boys of that battery had nothing to keep them entertained, until Bob Lindelof came around and donated a beautiful juke box chock full of records.

Paul Huebsch over at Keeney didn't get much time to prove that all the firm's distribs would try to help a young man who was in full charge of a big factory. John Conroe returned last week. Now Roy McGinnis back this week. . . . Quite a party this past week at the Chez with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Bill O'Donnell acting as hosts and hostesses to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zimmer of South Bend, Ind., a real old timer in the coinbiz; Jimmy Savarese also now of South Bend, Ind., formerly of New Jersey and Jimmy doing very great in the Hoosier state; Mr. and Mrs. Al Calderon of Indianapolis, Ind., where Al's proving himself one of the top distribs; and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lieberman of Minneapolis, who just returned from a very pleasant visit to California. The Lieberman's haven't given up their plan to visit Israel and Europe.

This actually happened. A phone call to Strike Rothrock of Amusement Dist. Co., Houston, Tex., will verify it. Seems that when Strike got his first sample of Bally's new "Victory Bowler," he was first man in his place to try the game. And, strange as it seems, the first puck Strike bowled turned out to be—you guessed it—a strike. . . . George Kozy, general sales manager of ABT Mfg. Corp. became a suburbanite homeowner this past week. George has moved his family to Franklin Park. They love it, he reports. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tratsch away on a tour of the southland and will visit with their many, many friends thruout the southern states. . . . With the return of Samuel Wolberg to ChiCoin's offices this past week the firm announced its brand new "Star Lite Bowler" with new and unique match features which were pretested and proved very great. . . . Howie Freer of Empire has us all set, and we're both hoping for a warm and sunny Saturday, to teach us the game of golf. . . . Sincerest condolences to Mike Hammergren whose father, John Hammergren, passed away this past week in St. Paul, Minn. at the age of 83, after a long illness. Mike flew to California to bring back his ailing Dad for hospitalization in St. Paul some weeks ago.

Eddie Ginsberg advises that all of the Atlas Music employees just simply thrilled with the very beautiful and outstanding "Atlas Music Building." The first hot day the boys tried out the air conditioning and all just simply "Ahhhhed." In fact, some of the ops who had come in to buy new Seeburg phonos, just didn't want to leave the cool and beautiful offices. . . . Sam Stern of Williams a very smiling fellow these days. He's moving things here and there in this big plant, seeking more space to build the firm's click six player baseball game with triple match feature, "All Star Baseball." . . . Dave Russell reported on his way to Miami for a little rest and sunshine prior to the opening of his Belmont Park in Montreal. Dave reports that they'll have their kiddie rides located right down the middle of the midway. . . . Talking about Canada, Romeo Laniel, also of Montreal, turned out quite a catalog on new and used games. It's over 50 pages and chock full of descriptive material.

Bill De Selm of United came up with this remark this past week, "Sales are still 'way up on the upgrade." All Bill does is show the visitors the factory. The action there is anyone's answer to: "How's business?" Bill also reported that United's "Service Schools" are continuing nationwide. Johnny Casola and Ken Sheldon at T. B. Holiday's place in Columbia, S. C., while Al Tholke out in Salt Lake City. . . . Alvin Gottlieb, in a reminiscent mood this past week, pulled out some old books to show what games and prices were like—but 'way

What does bother Nate is getting used to the daylight saving time which has stolen an hour of his sleeping time. . . . Sam Lewis called to advise that S. L. Stiebel Games Co. had been granted more territory by Genco. In addition to Leighton Smith handling Nashville for Stiebel, Fred Baker's offices in Evansville will now also distribute Genco products. . . . Vince Shay of Empire eagerly looking forward to the next banquet of the Old Time Football Player's Assn. which is held annually at the Morrison Hotel and of which Vince is a member. This is one eatfest and gabfest which Vince wouldn't miss for all the tea in the world. . . . Charles (Little Jimmy) Johnson advised this past week, "I just shipped a million." He meant a million coin wrappers. To Tokyo, Japan, yet. . . . From what Sam Berger of Williams advises, seems like baseball-minded Central and South America are howling for Williams' baseball games. They've gone simply wild over baseball, Sam claims. . . . Harold Scott of the S. D. music ops' assn., advises that their meet dates have been changed to May 30 and 31 at Kelly's Cove in Yankton, S. D. where Mike Imig is going to act as host to all who will be present those two days of this big meeting.

Mel Binks and Bill Bolles advise that their new counter game, "Whiz Bowler," will simulate the play of a bowling game with 10 balls working up strikes, spares, etc. . . . Herb Jones' new issue of "Bally-Who" stresses the free plates which Bally will send to ops who desire to use this very fine ad in their local press. (The ad was reproduced in The Cash Box some weeks back.) A very fine idea for ops seeking to obtain better public relations in their communities. . . . Ben Coven has kits for bowling game ops featuring tenth frame conversion and advance scoring. . . . Mr. A. Miller, well known coinneedle manufacturer, got himself quite a story from Phil Hanna in the Financial section of the Daily News. . . . Also in this same issue the story of the sale of Mills Industries, Inc. to a group of Chicagoans. Tho the buyers haven't as yet been officially identified, Louis E. Leverone is reported to be in the group as well as Richard E. Dooley of Admiral Corp. Sad part of all this to coinmen is the passing of the name, Mills, from the industry's picture. There's many a memory attached to the old Mills Novelty Co.

With the Lenten season over and the spring breezes in the air, operators tell us that their collections have shown a nice increase on all equipment. Indicative of the optimistic attitude of the operators is the fact that coinrow distributors and wholesalers are being visited by considerable numbers of them—all placing orders for equipment. Add orders from arcade owners and operators for shore and resort locations, as well as export, and you can see why the jobbers are so busy. As a matter of fact, several of the distributors didn't have samples on their floors of their latest music and amusement games, having yielded to the pressure of some operator who needed the machines.

The 2nd annual dinner-dance of the Coin Machine Employees' Union, Local 465, (games), came off in grand style on Sunday night, April 25, with a large group of coinmen and their wives enjoying the show and food at the Latin Quarter. The union turned out a thick (and what should be a profitable) journal. The union officials, particularly Jimmie Cagiano and Al (Gil) Gilbert, are to be complimented. . . . "The greatest amusement machine Exhibit ever produced" is the way Mike Munves describes the new "Shooting Gallery." "Wish they would send me a few carloads" he wishes. As is usual at this time of the year, Mike and his staff, busy shipping arcade equipment, and setting up entire arcades in some instances. . . . Tom Gobel in town the week prior to the N. Y. State Operators Guild banquet, making last minute arrangements. . . . Joe Friedman, Crystal Amusement, Bridgeport, Conn., and Al Simon, Albert Simon, Inc., go out to a spiffy spot for lunch. Al, just back from a visit to Chicago, reports he had a most wonderful time, and for the first time in over a year, was in the Windy City when both ChiCoin executives, Samuel Wolberg and Samuel Gensburg were at the factory at the same time. . . . Joe Kochansky, Bay Ridge Music, Brooklyn, down on the street buying. Joe was one of the first ops in the country to start a Kiddie Ride route, which, he reports, is still doing nicely, thank you. . . . Johnnie Bilotta, Bilotta Distributing, Newark, N. Y., takes on the Riteway "3-Dimensional Theatre" for upper N. Y. state. Nat Cohn of Riteway shipping his three dimensional picture machines as quickly as they come off the line.

Joe Young and Abe Lipsky, Young Distributing, report that while attendance at their weekly Saturday morning service sessions on the new model 1700 Wurlitzer phono is good, there's plenty of room for many more ops and their mechanics. School runs from 9:30 A.M. to noon every Sat. . . . Humbert Betti, Sr., Union City, N. J., expects to leave for Europe once again around June 13, and should be away for several months. . . . Bob Slifer, Seacoast Distributors, informs that Al Cole of Cole Products expected in N. Y. this week. Meanwhile, both Bob and Dave Stern busy supplying music ops with Rock-Ola's "Comet" phono. . . . Dick Wenzel and Wes Chauncey of Newburgh, N. Y., in town. . . . Another visitor was Si Silverstein of Peekskill, N. Y. . . . Barney (Shugy) Sugerman and Irv (Kempy) Kempner, Runyon Sales, drive up to Connecticut to see the ops about AMI's phono and Bally's new "Champion Bowler" and "Victory Bowler" shuffle alleys. . . . Archie and Eddie Goldberg of Archie's Amusement Co., White Plains, N. Y. on coinrow. . . . Harry and Hymie Koepfel, Koepfel Distributing, always in action. With their big export order almost ready for the boat, demand opens for reconditioned music machines for resort and shore locations. . . . Paul Levine, newly appointed manager for Herman Distributing, Evans' phono distribs, making many friends quickly. The Herman brothers, Arthur, Aaron and Albert, very seldom get a chance to get to coinrow, being kept busy in Brooklyn with their operations, wholesaling and their Kings Amusement Co., manufacturing "Ajust-A-Pins" conversion unit for shuffle games. . . . Joe Green and Irv Holzman, new proprietors of National Novelty Co., Merrick, L. I., busy organizing their personnel, as well as taking care of an export order. . . . Major Enterprises, Newark, N. J., doing quite a job donating music machines and service to needy organizations. Received letters this week from the State of New Jersey (Commission for the Blind) thanking them for the donation of a juke box to Camp Marcella, the New Jersey Camp for Blind Children, and from the Temple B'nai Zion, Bloomfield, for a donation of records.

Herb Gorman, local manager for Taran Distributing, says the ops are just beginning to discover what a terrific performer the new Rock-Ola has turned out to be. Roadman Gordon Dunn, Gorman's man Friday, all enthused about United's Team Shuffle. . . . Much interest among the operators on Exhibit's "Shooting Gallery". Joe Barton states that it is "out-selling any other arcade pieces in the field in its class." Barton is local manager for Bush Distributing Co. . . . T. C. Monroe, re-elected President of North Florida Coin Operators Association, hopping hither and yon, doing a grand job of helping to smooth out the little wrinkles which always develop when a bunch of fellows get together for the first time. . . . The conversion to 10c play is coming along in jig-time and the ops report very little opposition from their locations, especially those who have been through a collection period. . . . J. T. Elkins, so elated over the ops getting together, and so willing to work toward these ends in the job of Secretary of the Association, that he was given the job on a permanent basis. He is local manager for Southern Music. . . . Business must be good out in the territory because Fred Patton, of Wolfe Dist., Bud Reichel, of Bush Dist., and Bill Whitcomb, of Southern Music Distributing, were all reported to be out in the field for the week.

TRUTH IS STRANGER THAN FICTION DEPT:—In this confused world it always makes this reporter feel good to be able to pass on an interesting sidelight such as the following:—Ed Wilkes, who works for Paul A. Laymon Company, recently received an excited call from his teen age son Tommy telling him he had won first prize in his art class. His prize winning drawing was of a Wurlitzer amplifier. Looks like Tommy may soon be following in his father's footsteps to make the name of Wilkes firmly imbedded in the minds of everyone in the Coin Machine Industry. . . . Jean and Dolores Minthorne recently left for Palm Springs enroute to Phoenix to confer with branch manager John Reese. Back at the Los Angeles showrooms the new Chicago Coin baseball game "Home Run" is reported to be going over big with the operators. . . . Joe Durate, export sales manager for Badger Sales Company, continues his business trip through South America. His tours will include stopovers in Peru, Colombia, Mexico, Panama and possibly Venezuela. Badger Sales now has on display Northwestern's new "Jet" vendors with the modern plastic wrap around front. They will vend ball gum, candy or charms. Adolph D'Este reports very good reaction to the new vendors. Mary Jane Happel has returned from Idaho and Las Vegas where she spent several days vacationing. . . . We wish to welcome LA operator Paul Bershin into The Cash Box twenty year club. He has operated and serviced music machines and games for the past twenty three years.

Al and Bruce Cane of Cane Distributing Company recently flew to Chicago to confer with Rock-Ola Manufacturing Company execs. . . . Paul and Lucille Laymon spent a few days resting up in Ensenada, Mexico. The Laymon crew are all more than pleased over the fine response to the new Wurlitzer "1700." . . . The third meeting of the California Music Merchants Association, Los Angeles division, was held at the Nickabob Restaurant on April 22. George Miller presided over the meeting and new officers were elected. They are Walt Hemple, president; Ben Korte, vice president; Irma Bryant, secretary; Gabe Orland, treasurer and Sam Ricklin, sergeant at arms. A new Board of Directors was also elected. They are Pete Pellegrino, Larry Collins, George Nachtweih, Merle Holmes, Lee Walker, Lin Catlin, Al Hanlin, Fred Ross, Fred Ferra and Henry Bringas.

CAUGHT HERE AND THERE:—Sam Ricklin, California Music Company, trying to get out some rush mail orders while Betty Blakeney and Marth Delgado continually keep asking him questions. . . . Walter Hill trying to move out a bunch of equipment single-handedly while his boss Aubrey Stemler, West Coast representative for Eastern Electric, is away in San Francisco on business. . . . Jack Simon talking to operators at Simon Distributing Company. . . . Lyn Brown dashing around taking care of his kiddie rides route and managing to find time to show Exhibit's new "Shooting Gallery." . . . Atsie Stein and Bess Selbin of Selbin and Stein Hobby Horse Co. talking about this and that as they map plans on their kiddie rides operation for the Summer months. . . . Charley Robinson and Al Bettelman anxiously waiting for a new shipment of United's new "Mexico" over at the C. A. Robinson showrooms. . . . Mary and Kay Solle filling orders and waiting on operators but having a hard time keeping their mind on their work. . . . Phil Robinson making the rounds of coinrow chatting with operators and distributors. . . . Al Hanlin dashing along West Pico taking care of business.

Most everyone agrees that business is down somewhat along the Pico strip. No one seems to be too worried about it though. After reading The Cash Box editorial (4/24 issue) on "The Good Old Days" even the Old Timers in the business have to agree that the coin machine industry is much more economically sound today than it was back in the thirties. This reminds us of a statement that Robert Bard, prexy of Bard Distributing Company, made recently. He stated that when business gets bad for him, all he has to do is think back to the pre-war days and put into effect plans that he used then. Ops who rode the gravy train during the war years often times forget the hard work and planning they had to put into the business prior to that time. Yet, these pre-war years were considered good years at that. The factories turned out good equipment and everyone made a fair living. It just took a little more foresight and good honest work and the facts reveal that if the same perseverance were used today, it would result in good times for everyone connected with the industry.

THIS WEEK'S USED MACHINE QUOTATIONS

15th Year of Publication
761st Consecutive Week's Issue

How To Use "The Confidential Price Lists"

[Also Known As the "C. M. I. (Coin Machine Industry) BLUE BOOK"]

FOREWORD: Many times, wide differences appear in the quotation of high and low prices of certain equipment. Like any true reporter "The Confidential Price Lists" can only feature the market prices as they are quoted.

METHOD: "The Confidential Price Lists" should be read as follows: First price listed is lowest price quoted for the week; Second price listed is highest price quoted.

FOREIGN BUYERS: To cover cost of packing, crating, shipping, etc., figure an additional $20 to $25 on Pin games — and $25 to $30 on Phonographs.
