VOLUME XXII—NUMBER 14

DECEMBER 17, 1960

Era Records has enjoyed the best year in its history thanks to the three artists shown above. Top left is Larry Verne who was responsible for one of the year's biggest novelty smashes, "Mr. Custer." Above he is shown donned in the attire for his latest single, "Mr. Livingston" which broke onto the charts this week. In the center is Dorsey Burnette who made a strong showing during the year with "Tall Oak Tree" and "Hey Little One." His latest is "River And The Mountain." Bottom right is the newest Era star, Donnie Brooks, who smashed thru earlier this year with "Mission Bell" and is currently climbing the best sellers with "Doll House."

ALL THAT JAZZ

Cadence Records is finally getting set to launch its Candid jazz label affiliate. Candid topper Bob Altshuler said that the label will be handled through the regular Cadence distributors but introduction of the line will involve a novel promotion. The initial release, skedded for January, will be sent to jazz dealers in a package similar to Atlantic's recently-issued "Southern Folk Heritage Series," each album in its regular jacket but the entire release enclosed in a special package, the liner of which will detail the label's ideals and directions. Altshuler again reiterated the Candid recording program: to record in all fields of jazz—modern, swing, blues, etc.; something for every type of jazz fan. Altshuler said that any jazz dealers who would like to receive the initial presentation package, and all jazz disk jockies wishing to be put on the label's mailing list, to write him c/o the Cadence address.

Shelly Manne (drums), Red Mitchell (bass) and Pete Condoli (trumpet) have been added to the orchestra now scoring the "West Side Story" soundtrack. The trio, under the direction of Johnny Green, will provide specially written backing for three of the film's numbers, as well as fill in intermittently throughout the score. The hope from this end is, that the great Leonard Bernstein score, which does provide some touchy problems for film producing, is not tampered with too much.

Everest Records has been awarded the Grand Prix Du Disque De Jazz 1960 by the Hot Club of France, the country's leading jazz organization. The award is for the company's recording of the Jo Jones Trio, and also for the best jazz soloist release—Charlie Shavers. Everest seems to be really cleaning up in France this year, as they were also awarded Le Grand Prix National Du Disque from the Academy of French Recordings (classical) for its release of Lili Boulanger's works performed by Igor Markevitch and the Lamoureux Orchestra.

Another new label to bow soon is ABC-Paramount's Impulse jazz line. The line brings AmPar back into the jazz field, in which it was pretty active several years ago. Heading up the label will be AmPar A&R man, Creed Taylor, who already has cut sessions with Ray Charles, J. J. Johnson & Kai Winding and the Gil Evans ork. The albums, each in a double-fold "deluxe" package, will hit the market next month under price tags of $4.98 (mono) and $5.98 (stereo). A special feature of the Impulse schedule will be the release of a 33 1/3 stereo single for juke boxes from each album. Unlike the above mentioned Candid outlook, Impulse will concentrate on recording modern jazz artists only. According to the company's advance notices, it will operate as a completely separate enterprise from ABC-Paramount, so as not to confuse the consumer with the AmPar pop line. It was just this type of disassociation which was behind the setting up of a completely separate corporate image for AmPar's highly successful Grand Award and Command labels.

The Modern Jazz Quartet again take to the stage of Carnegie Hall to present its case for the blending of jazz and classical influences. On Dec. 14, the Quartet will take part in the Orchestra of America's presentation of George Antheil's "Jazz Symphony," Arthur Kreutz's "Dixieland Concerto for Symphony Orchestra" and Gunther Schuller's "Concertino for Jazz Quartet and Orchestra." The performance of this last piece will be the first New York performance of it; continuing Schuller's exploration into his "third stream" of American music. The piece is planned for 75% improvisation for the quartet but contains completely written out parts for the orchestra.

Atlantic's Gary Kramer was given the duty of ushering eight young German amateur jazz musicians around New York during their tour of the country. The musicians, winners of the German Amateur Jazz Festival in the traditional and modern categories, were feted to a reception at Birdland while they were in this city, on the first leg of their journey. Quipped Kramer, when informed of his being picked as host, "I guess I'm the only jazz figure in the city who can speak German."

Prestige Records admits to varying degrees of reception to its new Swingsville, Moodsville and Bluesville series, but states that overall acceptance has been very gratifying. In response to measured research, the similarity among the jacket designs of the three labels will soon cease. Work has begun on changing the Swingsville covers to a basically photo-dominating cover, while design work is under way to give Moodsville a new look too. Also, the company disclosed it will step up activity of its Prestige International line, providing increased opportunities for new domestic and foreign folk artists to record. Folklorist Ken Goldstein is currently seeking out talent in this field.

JAZZ JOTTINGS. . . Lambert, Hendricks & Ross swing into the village Vanguard Dec. 13 for a three-week holiday gig. They'll alternate with the Ray Bryant Trio. L, H & R have now taken to Ellington with a new Columbia LP of the great man's music. . . We record with deepest sympathy, the loss of Gerry Mulligan's father. . . Gene Quill, reed man with Mulligan, was married Nov. 29 to Julie McDonald, a piano student at Manhattan School of Music. . . Chico Hamilton, currently vacationing in Hollywood, is working on a supper club song-and-dance act. . . Max Roach takes his Quintet into Chicago's Cloister Dec. 12 for two weeks. . . Gene Krupa, stricken with a slight heart attack during his last week at the London House, had to cancel all engagements for the rest of the year on doctor's orders. . . That grand old master of the piano, Teddy Wilson, finishing up three weeks at New York's Composer East. Date was preceded by a successful Australian tour.

The Cash Box Pick of the Week

"C'EST SI BON" (It's So Good)"
(2:14) [Leeds ASCAP—
Seelen, Hornez, Betti]

"DON'T YOU DARE LET ME DOWN" (1:50)
[Valley BMI—Pomus, Shuman]

CONWAY TWITTY (MGM 12969)

Both tracks can achieve chart money. The old sentimental, "C'est Si Bon," gets a relaxed rock-swing vocal from the teen favorite, with the setting including good-natured gal comments and a string ork. "Don't You Dare Let Me Down" is a fine gospel-type jumper.

"MY LAST DATE (With You)"
(2:26) [Acuff-Rose BMI—
Cramer, Bryant, Davis]

"MY LAST DATE (With You)"
(2:23) [Acuff-Rose BMI—
Bryant, Davis, Cramer]

"I CAN'T GIVE YOU ANYTHING
BUT LOVE BABY" (3:32)
[Mills ASCAP—McHugh, Fields]

"BROKEN HEARTED" (2:27)
[Camarillo Simon Jackson BMI—
Glasser]

JONI JAMES (MGM 12933)

DICK LORY (Liberty 55293)

Two more strong vocal versions of the Floyd Cramer instrumental hit, "Last Date." MGM's Joni James and Liberty's Dick Lory understandingly react to the lovely wistful, both warbling against a lush string-chorus setting. Skeeter Davis has a stint on Victor. Lark's flip is an intimate ballad stand on the durable; Lory offers a rock-beat plaintive.

The Cash Box Best Bets

FABIAN (Chancellor 1067)

(B+) "HOLD ON" (2:30) [Roosevelt BMI—Barry, Kovay] Youngster follows his "Kissin' And Twistin'" chart-maker with another strong contender. This one's a thumping rock-a-cha cha colorfully show-cased by the Peter De Angelis ork-chorus.

(B+) "YOU KNOW YOU BELONG TO SOMEBODY ELSE" (2:05) [James Monaco, Fred Fisher ASCAP—Monaco, Schuster, West] The Fabulous Four join Fabe and the De Angelis crew on this sock-jump up-dating of the oldie. Potent pairing.

FRANKIE LYMON (Roulette 4310)
(B+) "JAILHOUSE ROCK" (2:23) [Elvis Presley BMI—Leiber, Stoller] Youngster, whose recent revival of "Little Bitty Pretty One" made the hit grade, gives Presley's short-while-back smasher a strong chance for another chart go-round. Lymon let's out all the stops here.

(B+) "SILHOUETTES" (2:45) [Regent BMI—Slay, Crewe] This side's a potent beat-ballad revival of the Ray's fabulous success. Tremendous two-sided coin-catcher.

THE RIVIERAS (Coed 542)

(B+) "EASY TO REMEMBER" (2:50) [Famous ASCAP—Hart, Rodgers] Another powerful up-dating job by the crew. Ear-pleasing string support as the crew smoothly carves out the evergreen, ballad-with-a-beat style. Teeners'll love it.

(B+) "STAY IN MY HEART" (2:55) [Winneton BMI—Semola] This striking beat-ballad newcomer also has the chart goods. Stay with it.

PAUL DINO (Promo 2180)

(B+) "GINNIE BELL" (2:11) [Duplex BMI—Dino] Catchy folkish ditty receives a solid Bo Diddley-type sound that could send it to the charts. Dino is the strong vocal-chanter here and is backed-up with the combo and femme chorus. Could break.

(B) "BYE-BYE" (2:25) [Duplex BMI—Dino] Bouncy R&B-styled romantic. Top-half has the chart chance.

JOHNNY ADAMS (Ric 976)

(B+) "YOU CAN MAKE IT IF YOU TRY" (2:24) [Comrad, Babb BMI—Jarrett] Songster can come thru chart-wise with this potent revival of the short-while-back pop-r&b click. It's a heartfelt, string-filled beta-ballad opus that Adams renders with loads of feeling. Watch it closely.

(B) "CLOSER TO YOU" (2:27) [Ron BMI] More warm statements on this tender slow paced romancer. Fine companion piece.

LENNY MILES (Scepter 1212)

(B+) "DON'T BELIEVE HIM, DONNA" (2:21) [Ludix BMI—Dixon, Thomas] Newcomer Miles can step into the big-time with this infectious beat-ballad hip-swing. Gal chorus echoes the tune's title in the backdrop. Power-packed teen offering.

(B) "INVISIBLE" (2:15) [Ludix BMI—Dixon, Thomas] This inviting up-beat entry makes for a dandy change-of-pace coupler. Luther Dixon's outfit supplies the winning ork supports.

JO-ANN PERRY (Glad 1006)

(B+) "Are You Lonesome Tonight) YES I'M LONESOME TONIGHT" (2:50) [Bourne ASCAP—Turk, Handman] Yet another answer to the Presley smash and the thrush does a fine soft-spoken warble plus narrative. Strings and chimes-like chorus nicely support. Attractive answer version.

(B) "WHEN YOU'RE IN DOUBT DO WITHOUT" [Am-Zen BMI—Peters] Tune with a sunny spiritual feel gets a legit swing reading.

ISLE WERNER (Vista 366)

(B+) "CAPITO" (2:35) [Discoton Germany—Reisfeld, Niessen] Charming Italian-flavored date by the German thrush (she warbles this end in English). Feature is multi-tracked chants and title repeats. Could show-up here.

(B+) "CAPITO" (2:35) [Discoton Germany—Rauch, Niessen] A German version of the catchy ditty.

THE JON DEAUX TRIO (Felsted 8611)

(B+) "TUPELO COUNTY JAIL" (2:13) [Cedarwood BMI—Pierce, Tillis] Old country click gets a bright pop-folk run-through from the vocalists. Catchy sound that might make noise.

(B) "NOT WISELY, BUT TOO WELL" (2:32) [Studio & Jack BMI—Clement, Addington] A Kingston Trio-type tragic affair tied-in with Shakespeare's "Othello."

LEE ANDREWS (Swan 4065)

(B+) "I MISS YOU SO" (2:29) [Leeds ASCAP—Henderson, Scott] Andrews, who has done chart business (i.e. "Tear Drops"), attractively warbles the fine sentimental oldie. Could develop into a coin-catcher.

(B) "I'VE GOT A RIGHT TO CRY" (2:30) [Recordo BMI—Liggins] Relaxed rock-moody by the songster.

SONNY TIL (Jubilee 5394)

(B+) "NIGHT AND DAY" (2:33) [Harms ASCAP—Porter] Deliberate-beat work by the vocalist on the mainstay. Background feature is vocal chants that resemble the stint in the awhile back Flamingos' hit, "I Only Have Eyes For You." Strings are also included in the support.

(B) "SHIMMY TIME" (2:31) [Benell BMI—Davie, McKinney] Catchy middle-beat issue for the popular teen dance.

SANDY NELSON (Imperial 5708)

(B+) "COOL OPERATOR" (2:09) [Travis BMI—Nelson] Percussionist Nelson, who had a big hit with "Teen Beat" on the Original Sound label sometime back, is the highlight of this busy-beat combo pounder. Lots of rock color here.

(B) "JIVE TALK" (2:10) [Travis BMI—Hall] Sax and guitars get good spots in another wild-one.

GARY PAXTON (Paxley 752)

(B+) "YOU BEEN TORTURING ME (A-Hay-Hay-Honeypot)" (2:20) [American BMI—Guilbeau, Cotton, Williams, Moore] Paxton and The Hollywood Argyles, producer and artists, respectively, on the big novelty about a guy who's figuring on all sorts of sadistic ways to get even with the gal who-done-him-wrong. Could run into stationtime difficulties.

(B) "THE GRUBBLE" (2:04) [Maverick BMI—Paxton, Fowley] A partytime rocker with New Year's Eve-like vocal noises.

NORMAN PETTY TRIO (Norman 500)

(B) "WEIRD" (2:48) [Harrose BMI—Lubin] Intriguing theme from the supernatural TV'er, "One Step Beyond," gets the weirdo instrumental treatment from the Petty outfit, debuting the St. Louis label.

(B) "FIND ME A GOLDEN STREET" (2:05) [Dundee BMI—Petty] An offbeat dramatic sound from the crew. Effective combo stuff.

THEOLA KILGORE (Candix 311)

(B+) "(Chain Gang) THE SOUND OF MY MAN" (2:40) [Kags BMI—Cooks] Talented lark does a good-sounding, similar-arrangement answer stint on the Sam Cooke click. Could get around.

(B) "LATER I'LL CRY" (2:21) [Kags BMI—Russell] A pretty sound to this moody romantic.

WERNER MULLER ORCH./HELMUT ZACHARIAS (Decca 31189)

(B) "CALCUTTA" (2:20) [Pincus—Symphony House ASCAP—Gaze, Bradtke] The Muller presents the engaging European success with appropriate full ork zest. Dot's Lawrence Welk and London's Winifred Atwell also have readings.

(B) "LOVE IS LIKE A VIOLIN" (3:20) [Chappell ASCAP—Laparcerie, Kennedy] Zacharias' "magic violins" do the sweet instrumental talking here. Both tracks are German imports.

MANNY LOPEZ (Indigo 113)

(B+) "QUEREME SIEMPRE" (2:52) [J.V.P. ASCAP—Lynes, Guthrie] Lopez's Latin ork & chorus cheerfully handle a Spanish tune that sounds like the year-back teen hit, "Little Darlin'." Very agreeable sound here.

(B) "HAWAIIAN EYE" (1:58) [M. Witmark ASCAP—David, Livingston] A flute-led cha-cha rendition of the TV main-title.

BATYA & "BUMPS" BLACKWELL ORCH.-CHORUS (Chelan)

(B) "MAIN THEME FROM EXODUS" (3:20) [Chappell ASCAP—Gold] Authentic-sounding Middle-Eastern chants & instrumentation throughout on this version of the pic theme, currently hitting via the Ferrante & Teicher outing on UA.

(C+) "CYPRESS WINE" (2:50) [Sandra ASCAP—Miron, El-yagon, Blackwell] More offbeat vocal (lyrics, this time) and instrumental work.

The Cash Box Best Bets

JEANETTE (BABY) WASHINGTON (Neptune 121)

(B+) "TOO LATE" (2:41) [C. Shaw BMI—Shaw] Successful R&B thrush could do more R&B (and some pop) chart business with her contagious jump performance. Pro upbeat sound from the combo.

(B) "MOVE ON" (2:00) [C. Shaw BMI—Washington] Upbeat blues stand with less of a busy-beat.

JUDY SCOTT (Capitol 4491)

(B+) "A YEAR AND A DAY" (2:35) [Stew - Dar BMI—Arthur, Kaplan, Kaufman] Label's new thrush makes a fine first impression as she sincerely warbles the pretty lost-love plaintive. Lush rock-a-string & femme chorus backing directed by Stan Applebaum. Could score.

(B) "JOHNNY DOESN'T TALK MUCH" (1:56) [Stew - Dar BMI—Arthur, Kaplan, Kaufman] Bright rock rhythmic from the teen-wise lass and backing.

GINNY ARNELL (Decca 31190)

(B+) "LOOK WHO'S TALKIN'" (2:15) [Aldon BMI—Goffin, King] This could be the one to put the young thrush out in the national wax spotlight. It's a rockin' teen beat cha cha that features a terrific all around performance by Ginny, the Yea-Yeas and Jack Pleis' ork. Can bust wide open.

(B) "TELL ME WHAT HE SAID" (2:00) [E. B. Marks BMI—Barry] Another similar beat, teen-angled effort that can make lotsa noise.

SCOTT BROS. (N.Y. Skyline 501)

(B+) "CELEBRITY PARTY" (2:25) [Starling BMI—Scott, Field] The Scott Bros. pop up on the new label as they host a 'twistin' shindig where a host of teen idols show up. Loads of sock teen sounds and engaging impersonations make this a deck to watch.

(B) "DO YOU WANT MY LOVE" (1:56) [Starling BMI—Scott, Scott] This half the boys run thru a "Tonight's The Night"-flavored rocker in solid style. Strong assists by the Art Harris ork. Jubilee handles deck.

RICKEY LANE (Laurie 3071)

(B+) "DUM DEE DEE DUM" (1:50) [Just BMI—Lane] There's loads of sock instrumental sounds to recommend this slice for chart status. It's a blazing Rickey Lane-led rocker filled with tantalizing gimmicks. Can take off big.

(B) "NIGHTCAP" (2:11) [Rambled BMI—Lane] More intriguing rock-sounds on this end. Two solid money-makers.

FLOYD ROBINSON (RCA Victor 7827)

(B+) "THE MAGIC LAMP" (2:05) [Tree BMI—Robinson] Big-sounding medium-beat romantic about a fella who requests a loved-one from the genie. Effective arrangement.

(B) "OUT OF GAS" (2:08) [Cedarwood BMI—Loudermilk] Lighter rock moments as songster Robinson is joined by gal comments.

KEY LARSEN (Lawn 106)

(B+) "A LITTLE LOVIN' (Goes A Long Long Way)" (1:58) [Conley ASCAP—Sally, Crewe] Upbeat rock stuff done in pro style. Teen-wise songster Larsen delivers in front of infectious activity by the Frank Slay-directed ork-chorus. Happytime big-beat stint that could get around.

(C+) "WEB OF LIES" (2:22) [Conley A S C A P—Slay, Crewe] A disenchanting date with a familiar rock-ballad ring to it.

THE CRESCENDOS (Scarlet 4007)

(B+) "LET'S TAKE A WALK" (2:00) [Conmar BMI—Willis, Russell] Folkish novelty-romantic is conveyed with a contagious sound by the songsters and combo, which features a striking guitar gimmick. Could step-out. Label is distributed by London Records.

(B) "STRANGE LOVE" (2:00) [Combo BMI—Romain, Porter] Familiar chant sounds is featured in this Latin-flavored rock-romantic.

JIMMY STARR (Laurel 1018)

(B+) "CHOO CHOO TO HEAVEN" (2:00) [Sepe ASCAP—Cha-Cha] This sequel to Bob Luman's "Let's Think About Living" is a quick moving outing that carries lots of chart weight. Lyrics tell about the characters that didn't come out alive in past hit tunes.

(B) "ALL I EVER DO" (2:03) [Mayhew BMI—Cortwright, Jr.] Pretty Latin-flavored, dual-tracked tear-jerk'er on this half. Laurie distrib. nationally.

THE EMBERS (Dot 16162)

(B+) "MY DEAREST DARLING (Queridisina Mia)" (2:03) [Republic BMI—Bacon] This interesting Latin-rock outing by the vet songsters could move. Most of the time, the lead translates the Spanish warbling of the rest of the team. Eye it.

(B) "PLEASE MR. SUN" (2:03) [Weiss & Barry BMI—Frank, Getzov] A soft-beat revival of the old Johnnie Ray hit. Inviting work.

JAN AUGUST (Mercury 71743)

(B) "ME AND MY SHADOW" (2:21) [Bourne ASCAP—Rose, Jolson, Dreyer] August applies some of his engaging "Miserlou" touches to the great oldie. A charmer that's in for loads of airplay.

(B) "WHAT IS THIS THING CALLED LOVE" (2:12) [Harms ASCAP—Porter] The ever-green's set in a swinging new showcase on this portion. Bongos liven things up here.

ORLIE (Band Box 253)

(B) "DENVER TWIST AND FREEZE" (3:00) [Band Box] Another variation on the twist-beat is accomplished by good rock work by songster Orlie and The Saints combo. Worth teen attention.

(C) "KING KONG" (3:00) [Band Box—Trujillo] Busy rock novelty of questionable taste.

ERIC ROGERS ORCH. (London 1957)

(B) "FOLLOW ME" (2:07) [Chappell ASCAP—Lerner, Loewe] Melodic ballad from "Camelot" receives a fine legit swing run-through from the ork. Organ is included in the swinging. Merits solid station attention.

(B) "MARCH FROM 'CAMELOT'" (2:07) [Chappell ASCAP—Loewe] Good-natured martial music.

BUDDY KILLEM (Scarlet 4008)

(B) "THANK YOU FOR CALLING" (2:15) [Blackwood BMI—Walker] Guy gets a Dear John call from the gal in this interesting warm waltzer from the singer and full ork-chorus. Could come-up with some activity.

(B) "'TIL YOU COME BACK AGAIN" (2:25) [Tree BMI—Killem] Pretty easy-go wistful in a legit vein.

BOBBY & LUCY (Chief 7025)

(B) "I FEEL SO STRANGE" (2:25) [Melva—Plummer] Bobby Stone does the major vocal on this R&B rhythmic, with Lucy offering now-and-then comments. Mostly R&B-audience work.

(B) "IT'S NOTHING" [Melva—Plummer] Twosome share this low-down R&B romancer.

THE HOT TOMALES (Alpine 68)

(B) "THE MEXICAN TWIST" [Small, Hill, Thompson, Sumner, Callicut] Yet another variation on the twist is conveyed with good R&B-styled vocal-instrumental humor.

(B) "THE PONY" [Wray, Cooper] More good rock news in another dance-time outing.

THE SPIDERS (Imperial 5714)

(B) "YOU'RE THE ONE" (2:10) [Commodore BMI—Smith] Moody ballad affair with strings. Attractive date.

JAMES SPRUILL (Cee-Jay 581)

(B) "HUCKLE BUCK" (2:35) [United Music ASCAP—Gibson, Alfred] Funky instrumental outing on the oldie currently making a chart comeback via Chubby Checker's Parkway single. Good teen-directed sound.

(C+) "JUMPING IN" (2:10) [Everlast BMI—Hill, Johnson] Upbeat blueser with sax-organ belting.

SCOTTY McKAY (Ace 608)

(B) "BROWN EYED HANDSOME MAN" [Arc BMI—Berry] Romping novelty session done with teen authority.

THE TWILIGHTS Featuring TONY RICHARDS (Colpix 178)

(B) "PLEASE BELIEVE IN ME" (2:19) [Trinity BMI—Passalacqua] Vocalist Richards does good work on the pleader R&B-type while the other boys—in a chanting role—and combo back-up with a busy sound. Could make some noise.

(B) "PAPER BOY" (1:49) [Trinity BMI—Wolfe] Paper boy finds love on his route in this lively rock display.

EDMUNDO ROS ORCH. (London 1959)

(B) "HAVE YOU MET MISS FANDANGO?" (2:20) [V. Young ASCAP—Unger, Young] Staple Latin ork does a cha-cha stint on the oldie which is included in the new flick, "Where The Girls Are." Another first-rate Ros sound.

(B) "CLIMB EV'RY MOUNTAIN" (2:25) [Williamson ASCAP—Rodgers, Hammerstein] Band-styled cha-cha reading of the beautiful song from "Sound Of Music."

THE SECRETS (Columbia 41861)

(B+) "QUIEN SABE? (WHO KNOWS, WHO KNOWS?)" (2:18) [Larry Taylor ASCAP—Tobias, Carr] This extremely pretty, ear-arresting lilter has what it takes to step out for the new combo. Platter spinners'll cotton to it real quick.

(B) "NOW IS THE HOUR" (2:31) [Leeds ASCAP—Kaihan, Scott, Stewart] The waltz old-timer receives a fine new treatment here. Two easy-to-take sides.

JERRY LEWIS (Dot 16164)

(B) "SOMEBODY" (2:15) [Famous ASCAP—Warren, Brooks] Lewis does an easy-swing reading of the oft-cut romantic from his new pic, "CinderFella." A fetching etching.

(B) "TURN IT ON" (2:20) [Famous ASCAP—Warren, Brooks] Nice tune with a happy-philosophy also comes from the pic.

RUSS CARLYLE (Regis 701)

(C+) "EVERYTHING'S THE SAME" (2:39) [Carbaugh ASCAP — Carlyle, Caranda, Washabaugh] Romantic plaintive that sometimes sounds like "My Mother's Eyes."

SCOTT BERRY & THE KERRY BELL VOICES (Alanna 561)

(B) "IT SEEMED TO ME" (2:50) [Alanna ASCAP — Osbourne] Wistful teen opus is pleasantly essayed by the songster against a nice combo-femme chorus sound.

(C+) "ON THE GOOD SHIP LOLLIPOP" (2:28) [Fox ASCAP — Clare, Whiting] A light-beat stint on the old Shirley Temple favorite.

DIANNA DARRIN (Magnet 1001)

(C+) "ALL ACCORDIN'" (2:18) [Fabulous & Futura ASCAP — O'Sullivan, Motola, Furth] Catchy philosophical ditty is sung by the thrush against an amiable hopping sound from the combo-femme chorus.

(C) "FREEDOM RIDERS (1960 Pony Express)" (1:55) [Fabulous ASCAP — Colonna, Motola, Darrin, Ellis] Galloping horses sound backs the lark's handling of a song about a group making stopovers in various cities across the country.

KENNY HAMBER & DAVID ROBERTSON'S COMBO (Spar 101)

(B) "TEARS IN MY EYES" (2:54) [Rim BMI — Hamber, Robertson] Hamber displays the lost-love affair with expressive R&B-styled authority. Moody combo-chanting chorus beat.

(B) "DO THE HULLY GULLY" (2:40) [Rim BMI — Robertson] Hamber is joined by David Robertson's Combo in this lively stint on the durable teen dance.

E. C. BEATTY (Colonial 7009)

(B) "TARZAN" (2:12) [Bentley BMI — Cobb] Session doesn't neglect all the shout gimmicks the title suggests. Whacky teen-laff waxing.

BOYD WHITE (Mercury 71714)

THE FOUR YOUNG MEN (Crest 1076)

(B) "SEE THEM LAUGH" (2:33) [American Music BMI — Guilbeau, Cotton, Williams, Moore] Striking blend by the songsters on an intriguing teen-romantic about a guy who's "too old" and gal who's "too young."

(C+) "YOU BEEN TORTURING ME" (2:25) [American Music BMI — Guilbeau, Cotton, Williams, Moore] An "Alley-Oop"-type sound in which a fella comes-up with all sorts of sadistic ways to get rid of the gal who done him wrong. Could have programming troubles.

TONK GAVIN (20th Fox 228)

(C+) "EVER LOVIN' BABY" (2:13) [South Philadelphia BMI — Pinto, Pera] Less successful shuffle-rock doings.

JERRY GLENN (Mercury 71707)

(B) "HONKY TONK MAN" (2:07) [Golden West BMI — Halsey, Horton, Franks] First rock 'n roll turn for the country performer is good slap-beat reading of country item that's been around. Both Glenn and his bright backing are solidly in the pop teen groove here.

(B) "JUST BECAUSE" (1:50) [Lead's ASCAP — Shelton, Shelton, Robin] All-out romantic-beat attack by the artist and accompaniment. Old tune is not the old Lloyd Price hit.

BOB & CAROL (Warner Bros. 5187)

(B+) "THAT'S WHAT YOU DO TO ME" (2:14) [Acuff-Rose BMI — Montgomery, Sinks] Vocal duo blends effectively on the fine upbeat teen lovey-dovey. A catchy combo-chorus sound supports. Could prove an active entry.

(B+) "TWO OF A KIND" (1:55) [Acuff-Rose BMI — Montgomery, Sinks] Pretty young-love theme gets a tender delivery by the talented team. Two teen-wise takes.

BOBBY & THE DEMONS (MCI 1028)

(B) "THE WOO" (1:58) [Desert Palms BMI — O'Donnal, Duncan] Displaying strong twist influence, songster Bobby and The Demons combo attack with pro teen vitality. Natural hop stand.

(C+) "OH, DALE" (2:08) [Desert Palms BMI — Duncan] Sentimental-rock affair about two who don't have the blessings of the gal's parents.

MARY KAYE TRIO (Verve 10228)

(B) "WHEN MY SUGAR WALKS DOWN THE STREET" (2:28) [Mills ASCAP — McHugh, Austin, Mills] This bright, breezy revival by the trio is a winner for deejay turntables. Side, which opens and closes with audience applause, is from their "Up Front" LP.

(B) "KISS ME AGAIN" (2:12) [M. Witmark & Sons ASCAP — Herbert, Blossom] More happy sounds on this cut from the same package.

FIFI BARTON (Ace 609)

(C+) "DANGER HEARTACHE AHEAD" [Miller ASCAP — Stutz, Barefoot] Thrush revives her ballad success of some years back.

DWIGHT DUVAL/CARA STEWART (Brosh 100)

(C) "BLUE MEMORIES" [Brosh BMI — Johnson, Greenlaw] Deep-voiced Duvall warbles a wistful against a rock combo-chorus setting.

THE RANDY VAN HORNE SINGERS (Eureka 1204)

(B) "HEY JACQUE!" (2:14) [Music Productions ASCAP — Shanklin, Ahbez] The excellent mixed chorus does a fine job on the gay Parisian waltzer. Full ork supports. Charming legit stand.

(B) "QU'EST CE QUE C'EST L'MOUR" (2:34) [Mills ASCAP — Gladstone, Lane] In a sentimental vein, the group presents a pretty ballad. All the lyrics but the title ("What Is Love") are sung in English. Two fine pop choral displays.

GUNTER FISHER (Strand 25024)

(B) "A DAY NEVER ENDS" (2:24) [Kryder BMI — Grothe, Dehmel] Harmonica-player does an appealing job on the pretty, folkish melody. Guitar heads the simple support. Attractive mood-styled programming.

(B) "THE SAD MUSICIAN" (2:37) [Kryder BMI — Drexter] Fisher's plaintive pose gets a semi-dramatic beat from the again simple setting.

BOB GIFFORD (Manco 1010)

(B) "MARY GOES AROUND (Like A Merry-Go-Round)" (1:45) [Bluebonnet BMI — Gifford] Catchy, full-sounding teen outing from the vocalist and accompaniment. Bright session.

(C+) "OOIE BLUES" (2:00) [Bluebonnet BMI — Gifford] Countryish sound to this pounding statement.

IRA JAY II (Sun 351)

(B) "YOU DON'T LOVE ME ANYMORE" (2:30) [Tuneville Hi Lo BMI — Lichterman, Dover] Catchy teen-beat rhythm stint by the singer and infectious string-chorus backdrop.

(B) "MORE THAN ANYTHING (In The World)" (2:16) [Tuneville Knox BMI — Lichterman] Another infectious issue by the personnel here.

JAN DAVIS/THE RICCO—SHAYS (Rendezvous 131)

(B) "HUGGERMUGGER HOP" (2:05) [Granson BMI — Buck] Bottom half's a catchy little finger-snapper that also has an eye on the jock's turntables.

BOB & LARRY (King 5426)

CHRISTMAS

WREG TRACEY (Anna 1126)

(B) "ALL I WANT FOR CHRISTMAS (Is Your Love)" [Ro-Gor BMI — Davis, Gordy] Gal's love is what the fella wants for Xmas in gentle rhythmic.

SAMMY KAYE ORCH.

(Decca 31174)

In his new position, Forlenza will assume responsibility for merchandising of single records. He will also supervise activities of the field communications manager, who, according to Forlenza's own announcement last week, is now Bruce Lundvall, who joined Columbia last July.

Forlenza joined Columbia in 1959 as field communications supervisor. Previously, he was a member of The Four Voices, the vocal group. Lundvall will supervise field communications and edit Insight and Newsletter, Columbia's sales publications.

Kiddie Album Reviews

"TALL FIREMAN PAUL AND BUSY POLICEMAN JOE" RCA Victor LY-102, $1.98

Content: Raymond Abrashkin wrote the story and lyrics to the 13 folksy selections constructed around the duties of a policeman and fireman. Cover: Features cartoon color art of both men at work. Performance: The child's normal interest in policemen and firemen is cultivated here with song and story on an intelligent level for children. Music is borrowed from folk song sources and makes for a pleasant children's package. Commercial Value: Will have to compete with TV hero packages but this type material could very well be recognized for what it is—a refreshing kiddie product loaded with listening appeal. Strong sales potential.

"POPEYE'S ZOO" Animal Songs and Stories, Nobel NOM-100, $1.98

Content: "I'm Popeye The Sailor Man," "Tiger! Tiger!" "Grumpy Grizzly Bear" 12 in all. Cover: Lively cartoon art of Popeye and his friends at the zoo. Performance: Jack Mercer's famous Popeye voice is here romping through the zany antics, capturing wild animals for the local zoo. In between catches Popeye delivers his tunes. Big production on this (ork uses 27 instruments for effect) package and the material is all new. Commercial Value: Popeye's a winner as you know. This deck is publicized as being the background for an up and coming Popeye series not yet viewed on TV. Should score.

"CHILDREN'S SONGS FOR A RAINY DAY" Harmony HL-9524, $1.98

Content: Rosemary Clooney, Gene Autry, Art Carney and others get together on 10 selections for the kids. "Fuzzy Wuzzy," "PeeWee The Kiwi Bird," et al. Cover: Color shot of small boy at rainy window is a tear-jerker. Could spur sales. Performance: A load of talent here each doing their stuff individually. Good songs, good performance, good listening. Commercial Value: Here's a package that could attract a good share of sales. Merchandised from stem to stern for sales appeal.

"DEPUTY DAWG" Original TV Soundtrack RCA Camden CAL-1048, $1.98

Content: Six complete stories of the famed TV character and his friends. Cover: Bright artwork helps display gain attention. Performance: Right off the TV tapes, this product has everything but the picture. Humorous stories and familiar voices round out the cartoons. Commercial Value: Its on TV and its network so expect sales appeal.

More Disk Bootlegging Suspects Rounded Up

NEW YORK—The general crackdown on disk bootlegging gained a new momentum last week with the arrest of twelve persons—nine in Brooklyn and three in New York—charged with the manufacture of phony LP's by Frank Sinatra and Johnny Mathis.

According to police, the ring was set to unload hundreds of thousands of the LP's for holiday sales in all parts of the country, which could have resulted in a net profit of over $1,000,000. The ring was able to produce an LP for 58 cents and plans were to sell them to dealers for $2, about 50 cents less than the regular wholesale price.

MGM's $9½ Million Net Is A 12-Year Record

NEW YORK—Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Inc.'s net profit for the fiscal year ending Aug. 31 reached a twelve-year high and was 25% above the preceding year, according to a shareholder report last week by MGM president Joseph R. Vogel.

Net profit was $9,595,000 compared with $7,699,000 for the previous financial period.

In stock terms, the profit was equal to $3.83 a share, compared with $2.91 a share for 1959's fiscal period. Earnings before income taxes rose to $21,395,000 from $17,304,000.

Vogel informed shareholders that earnings for the first quarter of the present fiscal period are moderately above those a year ago.

Host Of Talent Joins Mercury Stable

CHICAGO—A flock of artists have been added to the Mercury Records' roster.

In negotiations concluded by Mercury's eastern A&R director, Clyde Otis, the diskery has signed Bobby Hendricks, currently making noise with his "Psycho" deck on Sue, and Jay Epae, a songster from the Hawaiian Islands.

Mercury president Irving Green announced the pacting of the Kim Sisters, three Korean larks who succeeding here in nitery appearances. Their initial session will be arranged and conducted by Midwest musical director, David Carroll.

Joining Mercury's jazz line-up is George Barnes and his Renaissance Quintette. According to Hal Mooney, the label's jazz director, Barnes has been contracted both as a solo artist and as the leader of his group.

Shelby Singleton, Mercury's Southern A&R head, announced additions to the label's rhythm and country roster. In rhythm, there's The Sprouts, The Salems, and The Plainsmen. In country, there's Curley Herndon, Jerry Glenn and Eddie Noack.

New Kapp Branch

NEW YORK—Jay Lasker, general sales manager for Kapp Records, announced last week (9), that the label will open a distributorship in Los Angeles, December 19.

The showdown came last Wednesday (7) with simultaneous raids in Brooklyn and Utica. In Utica, state troopers broke into two establishments, confiscating thousands of the bogus LP's and arresting three people. They were Stanley Markowski, his brother, Alexander, and Miss Ann Decker.

About the same time, Brooklyn detectives trailed Charles T. Polhemus of Utica, alleged messenger in the operation, from Newark Airport to the Fort Hamilton section of Brooklyn, where they stopped his car and arrested him and three other persons, including Sidney Mittleman, who is under indictment in New Jersey for his alleged part in the counterfeiting of Bobby Rydell's Cameo singles. The other two arrested were Gaetano Vastola and Frank Lerner, both of Brooklyn. Lerner operates Lerner Associates, which prints LP jackets and labels.

Police said they found twenty-five phony copies of Frank Sinatra's "Nice 'n Easy" and Johnny Mathis' "Johnny's Moods," two best-selling LP's, in Polhemus' car.

Further investigation by the police led to the arrest of Jerry Kipperman, Brooklyn, Leon Silverberg, Jericho, L.I., Daniel Anunziata, Brooklyn, Larry Martire and Nicholas Del Negro, both of Brooklyn.

Teen favorite Lloyd Price entered the picture when he was called in for police questioning concerning a car of his which was found near one of the places producing the phony records. Police said he was completely absolved of any part in the racket.

The nine arrested in the city were arraigned in Brooklyn Felony Court on charges of grand larceny, conspiracy and violations of trademark laws. Eight were released in $2,500 bail for a hearing in the court in December. De Negro, however, was held without bail because of a past criminal record and is set to appear at the same hearing.

Discovery of the ring was the result of the murder last June 3 of a 17-year-old hood, Vincent Graffeo, who was scheduled to appear in court on a burglary charge. As police questioned suspects in the case, they learned of plans to produce the bogus disks for holiday sales.

Sigmund Steinberg of the law firm of Blanc, Steinberg, Balder and Steinbrook, attorneys representing ARMADA in the investigations of bootlegging, said that ARMADA and the legal firm will assist the Utica and Brooklyn District Attorneys in their investigations. Steinberg said Utica was one of the territories ARMADA was planning to investigate. When the case broke, Steinberg was on the coast conferring with Los Angeles and San Francisco's D.A. offices to assist in rapidly bringing to trial a number of the people who had been arrested there on bootlegging charges.

POPULAR PICKS OF THE WEEK

An evening with
MIKE NICHOLS
and ELAINE MAY

"AN EVENING WITH MIKE NICHOLS AND ELAINE MAY"—Original B'way Cast—Mercury OCM 2200

This album of selections from the smash Broadway comedy brings to disk audiences the instinctive humor of the nation's newest comedy sensations. The album, double-fold "deluxe" packaged, contains four sketches, ranging in time from 6½ to 9 minutes and covering such diverse subjects as "Adultery," "Telephone"—a desperation attempt to cope with telephone operators, a long-distance telephone conversation between "Mother and Son" and a healthy dig at name-dropping interview disk jockeys. Should corner the comedy disk field.

HIGH FIDELITY

BOBBY'S BIGGEST HITS

"BOBBY'S BIGGEST HITS"—Bobby Rydell — Cameo C1009

This volume of smash singles from the songster's hit list promises to be a huge teen attraction. Included are such items as "Kissin' Time," "Swingin' School," "Sway," "Volare," "Ding-A-Ling," "Wild One," "We Got Love" and six others. Package also comes with a 12X12 pin-up photo of the star, plus other pics.

MITCH'S GREATEST HITS

"MITCH'S GREATEST HITS"—Mitch Miller, the Gang and Orchestra—Columbia CL 1544

Besides being the great album seller he is, Mitch has had enormous success with a host of singles. This album puts them all under one roof. They include "March From the River Kwai (Colone Bogey)," "The Yellow Rose of Texas," "The Children's Marching Song" and "Do-Re-Mi." Has great strength.

THE ALAMO

"THE ALAMO"—Original Film Soundtrack — Columbia CL 1558

The soundtrack album is highlighted by Marty Robbins' performance of "The Ballad of the Alamo," the Brothers Four singing "The Green Leaves of Summer," a chorus version of this tune, and its involvement in the main title theme. The Dimitri Tiomkin score has punch and a gripping musical urgency. Should follow success of flick.

ELLA FITZGERALD SINGS FROM 'LET NO MAN WRITE MY EPITAPH'

"ELLA FITZGERALD SINGS FROM 'LET NO MAN WRITE MY EPITAPH'"—Verve MG V-4043

As the liner notes truthfully point out, the 13 selections in this set were cut wholesale for the film (in which the singer makes her dramatic debut), from which only three were used in the final editing. This is Ella in her finest blue mood, wailing expressively such choice tunes as "Black Coffee," "Angel Eyes," "I Hadn't Anyone Till You," "One For My Baby" and "Then You've Never Been Blue." Great performances by a great artist.

HE WILL BREAK YOUR HEART

"HE WILL BREAK YOUR HEART"—Jerry Butler—Vee Jay LP-1029

Butler is riding high with "He Will Break Your Heart" in singles, and this first album by him should cash in handsomely on his popularity. The songster offers convincing and warmly personal performances of "Teardrops From My Eyes," "Thanks To You," "After the Laughter," "I Found A Love" and the title hit tune.

THE SHEARING TOUCH

"THE SHEARING TOUCH"—George Shearing—Capitol ST 1472

The famed jazz pianist dips into the storehouse of sturdy pop piano favorites and comes up with a dozen which he offers in his own stylish manner. Behind the Shearing piano is a lush Billy May-arranged and conducted string choir, helping to set the proper atmosphere on "Autumn Nocturne," "Misty," "Autumn Leaves," "Honeysuckle Rose," "Tonight We Love" and "Nola." Hot item for the pop side of the Shearing sales ledger.

"CAMELOT"—Percy Faith and his Orchestra—Columbia CL 1570

The lavishly tuneful score for the new Lerner & Loewe Broadway musical is treated to the delicate and melodically faithful Percy Faith directorial touch. In this instrumental version of selections from the show, "I Wonder What the King Is Doing Tonight," "The Lusty Month of May," "How To Handle A Woman" and "What Do the Simple Folks Do" stand out as highlights. Fine companion mood piece for the yet-to-be released original cast'er.

"FOR TWISTERS ONLY"—Chubby Checker — Parkway P 7002

Leading exponent of the "Twist," Checker adapts a lineup of tunes to his rhythmic dance craze. Among the revamped tunes are "Blueberry Hill," "Hound Dog," "Night Train," "At the Hop," "Rock Around the Clock" and a delicious version of Fats Waller's "Your Feet's Too Big." Each is handled with vitality and rocking enthusiasm. Powerful release.

"WONDERLAND BY NIGHT"—Pretty Music—Prima Style Volume 2—Louis Prima—Dot DLP 3352

Prima is a capable trumpet player with a sweet melodic tone. With this instrument as the major solo voice, he offers peaceable readings of "Moonlight Becomes You," "Polka Dots and Moonbeams," "Goodnight My Love," "I Could Have Danced All Night" and his current click, "Wonderland By Night." Ork and wordless chorus set the backdrop for this lush instrumental mood encounter.

"CANDID TELEFON" — Harold Flender — United Artists UAL 4075

Flender's Candid Telefon can be likened to a phone version of Candid Camera. With a rigged phone he calls various business establishments to make unusual requests, managing to keep the people on for a couple of minutes trying to logically answer his zany questions. This album contains his hilarious attempts to buy a monkey for soup, purchase a "drop dead" card from a greeting card shop, borrow two dollars from a bank, and others. The most laugh-provoking response is received from a woman (who called him accidentally) trying to have her 15-year-old fur coat remodeled. Can be a big comedy album.

"TONIGHT'S THE NIGHT" — The Shirelles — Scepter S-501

Gals bow on their initial LP date for the label with a package that includes their previous hits, current sides, and several outstanding new items. List includes "Dedicated To The One I Love," "Tonight's The Night," "Will You Love Me Tomorrow," "Lower The Flame" and "The Dance Is Over." Strong teen merchandising with particular appeal to the blues markets.

"EXODUS"—The Hollywood Studio Orchestra—United Artists UAS 6123

Music from the much-heralded flick is performed in all its brilliant lustre by a studio ork. This is a heartwarming score. Vividly dramatic and triumphant in its compassion for the film story. This is not the original soundtrack album, but it should do very well.

"CAMELOT"—Orndel and the Starlight Symphony Orchestra—MGM E3916

The distinguished British pops conductor turns in an inspiring and thoroughly enjoyable instrumental reading of music from the new Lerner & Loewe extravaganza. He has captured the spirit of olde Englands in his scoring of the selections, especially the opening "March," "I Wonder What The King Is Doing Tonight" and "Then You May Take Me To The Fair." Excellent musical fare.

CAPITOL FULL DIMENSIONAL STEREO
THE JONAH JONES QUARTET

"JUMPIN' WITH A SHUFFLE"—The Jonah Jones Quartet—Capitol ST 1404

Title is apt description of the Jones style. The artist employs open and muted trumpet stylings of such melodic offerings as "Dream," "You're Driving Me Crazy," "Misty" and "One For My Baby" and adds his own warm voice to three tracks. The rhythms section maintains the now-famous shuffle beat behind him all the way. A favorite in pop and jazz markets.

Percussion and Brass

"PERCUSSION AND BRASS"—Grand Award All-Stars—Grand Award GA 255 SD

Now it's Lew Davies' turn to take advantage of the superior Grand Award sound with which to fashion his arrangements to. He welds a studio group of percussion and brass musicians into a cohesive, crackling small ork in stabbing, biting arrangements of "The Boy Next Door," "That's My Desire," "I've Got You Under My Skin," "Talk Of The Town" and others. Superb product for the stereo rigs.

"DRESSED TO THE NINES"—Original Cast Recording—MGM E39140C

Julius Monk's latest off-Broadway diversion is again a delightful, delectable romp of spoofs of people, institutions, customs and habits. This time around, producer Julius Monk has retained Ceil Cabot, Gordon Connell, Gerry Matthews and Mary Louise Wilson from previous Upstairs-Downstairs shows, and has added Bill Hinnant and Pat Ruhl to round out the cast. Among the fifteen sketches, stand-outs include "Con Edison," "Come In And Browse," "Bring Back The Roxy To Me," "Smoke," "A Word From Our Sponsor" and "The Hate Song." Has a limited but faithful following.

"MORE LITTLE MISS WONDERFUL"—Shirley Temple—20th Fox 3045

Backed by a successful first volume, label has culled eighteen more pic tracks from the performer's remarkable heyday. Both nostalgic adults and moppets will delight in her stints on the catchy tunes. News of this new volume should bring many into stores, especially at this holiday-purchasing time. Selections include "What Did The Bluejay Say," "We Should Be Together," "Be Optimistic," "Thank You For The Use Of The Hall" and "He Was A Dandy."

"LET'S FACE THE MUSIC AND DANCE"—Maynard Ferguson And His Orchestra—Roulette R 52055

Ferguson, a fabulous trumpet player, divides his time between jazz club dates and the prom circuit. Here he offers his precision jazz ork in swinging, danceable arrangements of a dozen sturdies, among them: "The Party's Over," "It's Only A Paper Moon," "Spring Is Here," "My Foolish Heart" and "Let's Do It." Set also serves as a solo showcase for Ferguson's trumpet, valve trombone and mellophone. This is aimed basically at the pop market—and it's aimed well.

"CHARLTON HESTON READS FROM THE LIFE OF CHRIST (ACCORDING TO THE GOSPELS)"/"CHARLTON HESTON READS FROM THE PASSION OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST (ACCORDING TO THE GOSPELS)" Vanguard VSD-2080/VSD-2081

Heston supplements his previous readings from the Bible with these two disks of readings from the Gospels. He again reveals an earnest and genuine interest in the performance and once more the Robert DeCormier Chorale adds to and highlights the disks with such spirituals as "Get On Board Little Children," "Virgin Mary Had One Son," "Were You There" and "They Led My Lord Away." A particularly commendable enterprise for the Christmas season.

"ETTA JAMES AT LAST!"—Argo LP 40003

Trush, now hitting with "My Dearest Darling" takes her first LP turn for the label. She's heard in performances of pop ballads and rock-a-ballads, all in the "low-down" bluesy vein which she so well demonstrates on her current single. That song is included here as well as "Sunday Kind of Love," "At Last," "All I Could Do Was Cry" and "Stormy Weather." Tops in vocal entertainment.

"NEW! NEW! NEW! THE UNIQUE SOUND OF THE BOBBY COLE TRIO"—Columbia CL 1536

The Cole trio (Cole, piano, plus drums and bass) is an interesting musical aggregate which projects much more than expected from its size. The members sing and play in complete accord with each other, offering here, on their session, pleasing slices of "Dancing In The Dark," "Johnny One Note," "Lilac Wine," "Love For Sale" and "September Song." Nice, easy-going date.

"WRITTEN IN THE STARS" (The Zodiac Suite)—Dick Jacobs—Coral CRL 757339

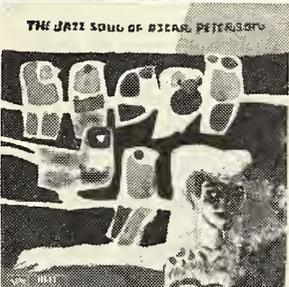

Actor-singer-composer Rod McKuen has written a suite consisting of a dozen songs tailored to each of the signs of the Zodiac. The Dick Jacobs ork renders this "suite" with appropriate moodiness, ranging from lush string scenes to lightly swinging jazz-like melodies. It's all in the romantic groove and provides listenable mood music.

JAZZ PICK OF THE WEEK

"LAMBERT, HENDRICKS & ROSS SING ELLINGTON"—Columbia CL 1510

Having disposed of the complete Basie book to history-making results, the amazing L, H & R devote this newest LP venture to the standards in Ellingtonia. Their distinct brand of "vocal lightning" takes hold of "Cottontail," "Things Ain't What They Used To Be," "Caravan," "In A Mellow Tone" and "Rocks In My Bed," among others. Excitement reigns throughout.

"THE JAZZ SOUL OF OSCAR PETERSON"—Verve MG V-8351

The energetic, full vitality of pianist Peterson is again showcased in a Verve session. With trio members Ray Brown and Ed Thigpen, the artist virtually zings through "Liza," "Maidens of Cadiz," "Woody'n You" and three others, with jet propulsion. A happy, swinging time here.

"DEMASIADO CALIENTE"—Cal Tjader—Fantasy 3309

Tjader's Latin jazz has long been a favorite of both jazz buffs and the cha cha-niks. This latest Tjader set features the usual striking quintet performances on five tracks (with Mongo Santamaria & Willie Bobo, mainstay percussionists) plus four big band tracks in which the small group is complemented by an ork playing Eddie Cano arrangements. Another fascinating set for Tjader fans.

"BLUE'S MOODS"—Blue Mitchell—Riverside RLP 336

Blue Mitchell, mainstay of the Horace Silver group, has proved his strong, youthful leadership ability on a previous Riverside album, "Blue Soul." Here he is teamed with Wynton Kelly, Sam Jones and Roy Brooks. Mitchell, as his name implies, is wholeheartedly bluesy. He also is an extremely sensitive and lyrical trumpeter. Witness his performances of "Kinda Vague," "When I Fall In Love" and "Sir John." There are also some high flying swinging moments. First rate jazz date.

"J. J. JOHNSON, TROMBONE AND VOICES"—Columbia CL 1547

The popish side of jazz's current top trombone star is revealed in the ten tracks here, wherein Johnson's mellow tone is complemented by ork-chorus arrangements by Frank DeVol. It is a pleasant, mildly swinging and moody album. Selections include "Jennie's Song," "What Is There To Say," "I'm Glad There Is You," "Lazy Bones" and "In A Sentimental Mood."

CRDC Names Mayer Ad Mgr.; Gets Capitol LP Packaging

HOLLYWOOD — Perry Mayer has been appointed advertising manager of Capitol Records Distributing Corp., it was announced last week by Stanley Gortikov, vice president in charge of merchandising. Mayer succeeds Steve Auld, who will leave the company at the end of the year to enter the advertising agency field.

Mayer, who will report directly to Gortikov, has been with Capitol for four years, during which he has served in several merchandising and promotion posts, most recently as merchandising services manager. Before joining Capitol, Mayer was an account executive with advertising agencies in New York and Los Angeles.

Gortikov also disclosed the transfer to CRDC's merchandising department of all album-packaging functions formerly performed by the creative services division of Capitol Records.

Gortikov said the entire packaging operation—including the art and editorial departments and the photographic studio—will continue under the direct supervision of Marvin Schwartz, who now becomes administrator of graphic arts for CRDC. Reporting to Schwartz are Jim Silke, art director; Jack Smothers, manager of the editorial department; and Ken Veeder, Capitol's chief photographer and head of the photo studio.

The changes become effective Jan 1.

ALL ABOUT DISK JOCKEYS

One of last year's most successful charitable Christmas campaigns, WACE-Springfield's "Toys For Tots," is being reported again this year. The station will once more team up with the local U.S. Marine Reserve urging listeners to bring in new or repairable toys in exchange for records. Last year it took three trucks to pick up the tons of toys; this year program director Sy Levy is pushing for an even greater success. We hope they make it. . . . Another commendable incident was the giant hop held last week by the Greater Portland Disk Jockey Association for the benefit of Frank Fixaris. Frank, the WJAB-Westbrook program director, was severely burned in a recent fire. His local comrades, under the chairmanship of Larry Westcott of WPOR, managed to turn out 1400 youths and collect $600 to help defray Frank's medical expenses. Member stations in the Portland DJA are WCSH, WGAN, WJAB, WLOB and WPOR. . . . Bruce Morrow writes from WINZ that Miami has been good to him, Bruce, who recently located there from WINS-N.Y., infos, off-the-cuff, that television, in the form of a teenage package, is a near-future possibility. As a way of introducing himself to Miami youngsters, Bruce held the first live studio dance party on the Starlight Roof of the Biscayne Terrace Hotel; expects to run it as a regular monthly feature. . . . KALL-Salt Lake City threw the switches of its new $150,000 transmitter and put into operation its 24 hour, 5,000 watts broadcasting. The station had just received FCC permission to go 24, and to increase its power from 1 to 5 kilowatts. A state-wide on-the-air promotion was launched to herald the change, with each community within the station's new listening radius being saluted and encouraged to submit the name of an outstanding local student with the promise of a scholarship to be awarded to the outstanding student of the year.

A unique twist on dog shows is being held by WINS-New York. The station is inviting listeners who can fetch, retrieve, roll over and do tricks to write a card describing their best trick. Those whose cards are selected will appear Dec. 31 to perform and be judged by a panel of bona-fide dog judges. Blue ribbon is worth $100. What some people will do for a buck? . . . Tieg in with Lou Monte's Roulette disking of "Dominick the Donkey," Bill Schweitzer, program director of WEBR-Buffalo, is running a Christmas contest for $100 worth of toys. Catch is, the toys will be delivered to the winner's home via a donkey rather than the usual Santa and reindeer. . . . One of the early pioneers in radio editorializing, Ben Strouse, president of WWDC-Washington, has launched a campaign to prove the effectiveness of "Breakfast Editorializing" on a nationwide basis. He is urging stations across the country, as a public service, to support the passage of the constitutional amendment granting District of Columbia residents the right to vote for President of the U.S. With 47 state legislatures convening in 1961, and ratification by two states already, Strouse points out that chances for passage look good if enough public-minded stations get behind the measure. . . . Bob Adkins of KNEW-Spokane, who, we reported here recently, had invited Prince Philip to join his "foot-in-the-mouth" club, received his reply. The good Prince replied that, since he has proposed his own "Institute of Pedology," he feels it would be improper to join a rival organization. Bob is sending out other honorary memberships to show-biz personalities, including Jack Paar. . . . WISN-Milwaukee has filed an application with the FCC asking for permission to increase the station's power to 50,000 watts. The application is an amendment to WISN's previous application asking for a power increase to 10,000 watts. If the request is granted, WISN will become the state's most powerful station.

VITAL STATISTICS

Bob "Coffeehead" Larsen, one of the nation's top disk jockeys, returns to WEMP-Milwaukee and his morning "Coffee Club," where he reigned long and loud from 1948 to 1958. . . . Buddy McGregor, a Texas byword at KLIF-Dallas, has come East. He's now at WITH-Baltimore in the 4-8 PM slot. . . . New appointments at WNTA-Newark include Bob Dahlgren and Reed Upton. Dahlgren joins WNTA after a short stint with WCBN-N.Y., while Upton comes to the station from his Sunday night show at WMCA-N.Y. Upton will also double as the station's news director. . . . Johnny Bell moves from WTBO-Cumberland, Md. to manage WHPL-Winchester, Va. To compensate, WTBO has moved Larry Ford into the afternoon show and Tom Melanson into the nighttime hours. . . . Bob Robin, formerly with WGHO-Kingston, N.Y., takes over the 9-midnight stint at WAMS-Wilmington, Del. . . . Volney Lamb, Jr., better known to audiences as V.L.J., was named program director of WIRL-Peoria. . . . Rod Carson has joined WNOW-York, Pa., from WCOJ-Coatesville, Pa. . . . Ray Lawrence has left CKOY-Ottawa for a post with WNLC-New London, Conn. . . . Bern Solyn was appointed program director of KFMB-FM-San Diego. He is late of KTMS-Santa Barbara. . . . WIXI-Birmingham, Ala. began broadcasting Dec. 6 under the direction of Tom Whitley as manager and Harold F. Burns as assistant mgr. . . . Bill Jay, a member of the KNUZ-Houston award-winning news staff since 1959, was appointed news director of the station.

New Mercury Hartford Dist.

CHICAGO — Mercury Records announces a change of distributorship in the Connecticut area. Effective December 5th, Mercury product will be distributed by Leslie Distributors New England Inc., of 477 Park Avenue, East Hartford, Connecticut.

Irwin H. Steinberg, executive vice president of the diskery, makes this statement: "The change is in keeping with Mercury's desire to increase exclusive sales activity in connection with our product. We are seeking more and more to influence existing distribution, or create new distribution, with separate sales forces which will give exclusive representation to the Mercury label. The Connecticut change is in keeping with this thinking."

In addition, Impulse will concentrate on stereo single records from each LP release for use in juke boxes. ## Aretha Franklin

Aretha Franklin has followed a natural path toward a singing career, culminating in the current chart climb of her Columbia debut disk, "Today I Sing the Blues."

Miss Franklin made her singing debut at the age of eight in the church choir of her father, the Rev. C. L. Franklin. Her mother, the late Barbara Franklin was also a prominent gospel singer. When she was 14, Aretha was already on a regular gospel recording schedule for Chess Records. During the interim years the young thrush has kept busy studying piano and guitar, writing songs and appearing as soloist in her father's church choir. She is now an accomplished pianist and accompanied herself in the recording of "Today I Sing the Blues." She is now in preparation for her first Columbia album, working with A&R man John Hammond.

Buddy Knox

Unlike most of his contemporaries, Buddy Knox had been very active in various other fields before turning to music as a career. He holds degrees in Psychology and Business Administration from West Texas State College, has ridden for four years in rodeo events, boxed in the Golden Gloves competition and worked with stock theatre groups in Texas, his home state.

It was during his college days that Buddy played in a band which included Jimmy Bowen and Dickey Doo. They began their disk career by recording two songs on their own, "Party Doll" and "I'm Sticking With You." Roulette Records picked up this master, split the two sides onto two different records and scored with two hits, the "I'm Sticking With You" under Jimmy Bowen's name. A stint in the Army, as an officer in the Tank Corps, followed for Buddy. Now signed to a Liberty Records pact, Buddy is beginning a chart climb with "Lovey Dovey."

Rocco Vocco Dies; Teamed Hit Writers

NEW YORK—Rocco Vocco, president of long-time publishers, Bregman, Vocco & Conn, died suddenly last week (5) at his home at the Forest Hills Inn in Forest Hills, Queens. He was 73.

Vocco was credited with bringing together such hit songwriting teams as Walter Donaldson & Gus Kahn, Kahn & Isham Jones, Mack Gordon & Harry Warren, Gordon & James Monaco and Gordon & Josef Myrow.

Vocco began his career as a boy tenor in Chicago, where after successful appearances in Loop Theatres, he was discovered by Harry Cleffer Von Tilzer, who engaged him to promote and exploit the Tilzer catalog. He later headed publisher Leo Feist's Chicago office and then Feist's professional staff in New York. From Feist, Rocco went to become general manager of DeSylva, Brown & Henderson, head of Warner Bros.' publishing interests, which included the Witmark, Remick & Harms catalogs. He left WB to form—in 1938—BV&C with former Robbins' music man Jack Bregman and writer-songplugger Chester Conn.

Songs in the BV&C catalog include "You'll Never Know," "Serenade In Blue," "I Had The Craziest Dream," "I Can't Begin To Tell You," "You Make Me Feel So Young," "On The Boardwalk (In Atlantic City)," and "You Do."

Vocco was honorary president of the Professional Music Mens Organization since its inception, a member of the Friar's Club.

Survivors include a daughter, Lorraine Curry; a granddaughter, Catherine Curry and a brother, James Vocco.

Services were held last Friday (9) at St. Malachy's Church in Manhattan and internment was at the Gate of Heaven Cemetery, Pleasantville, N. Y.

Johnson Inks Shells To New Wax Pact

NEW YORK—The Shells, who are hitting in both the pop & R&B fields with "Baby Oh Baby" on the Johnson label, have been re-signed to a new long-term pact by the diskery. Topper Hiram Johnson announced that the label had inked two vocal groups, The Cordovans and The Arcades, whose first sessions are due next month.

Schirmer's 100th Anny Gets Ad Campaign

NEW YORK—G. Schirmer, the music publishing firm, will celebrate its 100th anniversary next year with a series of advertisements in various music media which will salute various composers who have worked with the firm. The first ad—bowing in Jan.—will feature Samuel Barber, the three-time Pulitzer Prize winner whose entire output is published by Schirmer.

Mercury Sets 2-Day Annual Distrib Meet

NEW YORK—Mercury Records Annual Distributors Meeting, to be held at Chicago headquarters this week, will be a two day session, December 15-16, taking place in special meeting rooms reserved at the Executive House. Joining the conclave will be Mercury's entire A&R Staff, with national regional sales managers also called in to attend. The general theme will be "continued growth and expansion in 1961."

"January 1961 marks the start of Mercury Records 16th year in the phonograph record industry," states Irving B. Green, president. "In every year of its history, our firm has experienced a tangible growth, and 1960 has been no exception. The last twelve months show a growth of 15% in the domestic market, as compared to the previous year of '59. We have also expanded our growth in the foreign market—in fact, Mercury is recognized as having great strength in the overseas field. In 1960, too, we have become an integral part of the country's Record Club operation."

"The December meeting will review this past growth, and reveal plans for expansion in 1961," says Green.

The agenda for December 15 is divided into three parts. Two morning meetings will take place: Green and executive vice president Irwin H. Steinberg will preside over an A&R forum attended by Clyde Otis, eastern A&R director; Hal Mooney, jazz A&R director; David Carroll, midwestern A&R director; and Shelby Singleton, southern A&R director.

Kenny S. Myers, Vice-president in charge of Sales, will gavel a morning sales meet attended by Chet Woods, vice president of Mercury Distributors; and Regional Sales Managers Bob West, Irving Marcus, Dick Bruce, George Hayes, John Coleman and Charlie Fach. In the afternoon, A&R and sales forces will merge for open-forum on subjects common to both.

On December 16th the Mercury staff will be joined by the firm's distributors from national distribution areas. This meeting will be centered on Mercury product plans for '61, with special emphasis on the January release and its related sales, merchandising, and advertising program.

Mercury's new sound series, "Perfect Presence Sound," recently premed with two David Carroll LP's "Latin Percussion" and "Percussion Orientale." Introduced to the distributors at this week's meeting will be the new classical sound, "Living Presence Sound Series."

Westminster Veep Here For Meets

NEW YORK—Dr. Kurt List, vice-president in charge of A&R for Westminster Records, flies into New York this week (13) from Vienna to attend a series of meetings with company officials. Dr. List will return to Europe later this week to complete a series of stereo LP's with conductor Hermann Scherchen. He will return to the U.S. in several months.

Dr. List has announced that it is his intention to introduce, in each monthly release throughout 1961, a new artist who has achieved recognition in the concert field, but who has not been formerly represented on records or, at least, under the Westminster label.

These artists include Italian conductor Fernando Previtali; Belgium-Hungarian violinist Andre Gertler; make his American debut during the Chinese pianist Fou Ts'ong, who will 1961-62 concert season; pianist Eugene List; English guitarist John Williams. The Chamber Orchestra of Lausanne will also be represented on Westminster.

Dr. List is now engaged in an extensive project of "preserving on Westminster the fast-fading tradition of the true Viennese operetta" and is taping favorite Viennese works with the Vienna Operetta Theatre.

Atco Sets Album By Armstrong & Nina & Fredrick

NEW YORK—An LP co-starring Louis Armstrong and European stars Nina & Fredrick will be released on the Atco label next month, it has been announced by Atco's LP chief Nesuhi Ertegün. Most, though not all, of the album is from the soundtrack of the film, "Formula For Love."

Monte "Donkey" Deck Gets Deejay Contests

NEW YORK—"Dominic The Donkey" deejay contests — based on Lou Monte's Roulette Xmas single of the same name—have caught-on in the New York and New England areas.

Bill Schweitzer, program director of WEBR-Buffalo, who started the contests, spins the deck twenty times a day, requesting the listeners to send their names on post-cards to be pulled out at random for a free copy of the deck. At the close of the contest, the grandwinner will be pulled-out and thus win $100 worth of toys in time for the holidays. Delivery of the toys: by a donkey named Dominick!

The following deejays are giving away stuffed donkeys with Monte autographs to listeners who best explain why they would want a Donkey as a Christmas gift: Howie Leonard-Portland, Me.; Mike Elliot-WLYN-Lynn, Mass.; Shermx Strickhouse-WICE-Providence, R.I.; Bill Morrissey-WKBR-Manchester, N.H.; Paul Coss-WCOP-Boston, Mass.; Dick Smith-Worcester, Mass.

Everest Names Indie Distributors In N.Y., So. Calif.

NEW YORK—Everest national sales manager Charles Hasin has announced that two indie distributors—one in New York, the other in Southern California—have taken over the label's product from the firm's own distrib set-up.

New distrib in New York is Ideal Record Distributors. George Moscoso, who headed Everest's branch in New York, will serve in a dual capacity, that of aiding Ideal topper Al Levine and as a field rep for the label.

In Southern California, Hasin said the label felt it had accomplished its purpose there in "creating an active market for the line" and was turning distribution over to Sunland Music Company, headed by Gordon Wolf. Charles J. Dondero, the label's Los Angeles branch manager, will now concentrate more fully on the Western division in addition to Southern California.

reported to Barney Balaban, president of the parent firm.

With six weeks remaining in the year, Dot had already passed the $10 million dollar mark in sales, putting Dot's 1960 business nearly 30% ahead of 1959's gross sales of $8,600,000.

The label's top sales volume, Wood said, was attributed to three successful sales drives during the year: stereo month in Jan. which accounted for almost $2 million dollars; a six week heavily advertised summer sale to consumers in June and July which grossed over a million dollars; and the 1960 fall program from Sept. 1 to Oct. 15 which accounted for nearly $3 million dollars in sales.

In the past year-and-a-half, Dot replaced ten indie distribution areas with its own company-owned branch management. Prior to that time, the diskery had relied solely on indie distributors. Dot owned distributorships are located in Houston, Dallas, Memphis, Nashville, Oklahoma City, Atlanta, Miami, New Orleans, Pittsburgh and Buffalo.

Since Dot became incorporated in Gallatin, Tenn. in April of 1950, the annual gross sales have steadily increased by an average of more than 80% per year. During its first year, the label's total sales amounted to $95,859.30 and during 1951, its second year, sales had leaped some 200% to a gross of $264,950.52.

Top performers in the label's catalog include: Pat Boone, Billy Vaughn, Louis Prima, Keely Smith, Debbie Reynolds, Gale Storm, Lawrence Welk, Johnny Maddox, Tony Martin, The Lennon Sisters, Danny Kaye, Dodie Stevens, Helen Traubel, The Fontana Sisters, Marlene Dietrich, The Mills Bros., The Hilltoppers, Tab Hunter, Eddie Peabody, Jerry Lewis, Louis Armstrong and Bob Crosby.

Audio Fidelity Issues "Sound Effects" LP

NEW YORK—"Sound Effects," the sixth LP in Audio Fidelity's "Doctored For Super Sound Series," has just been released. Available in monaural and stereo, the disk contains such varied sounds as lions' roars, pistol shots, blasting of steamship whistles, racing cars, heartbeats and many others. Besides showing-off one's hifi or stereo equipment, the LP can be used to accompany the operation of electric trains plus home slides and movies.

Bill "Hoss" Allen Joins Chess-Checkers-Argo Set-Up

CHICAGO—Bill "Hoss" Allen, for the past eleven years a disk jockey on WLAC-Nashville, has resigned that post to become a member of the Chess-Checker-Argo records organization. He will handle promotion, sales and A&R in the south for the labels while to headquarter in Nashville, according to Leonard Chess, president of Chess Producing Corp. Allen assumes his post on Jan. 1.

Liberty Continues Xmas Product Plan

HOLLYWOOD—Liberty Records has announced the participation of six of the label's top recording artists in an additional holiday product push which will coordinate and cooperate with regional promotion directors in the areas in which the artists are appearing.

This is the second phase of "Operation Hit" which began two weeks ago in fifteen key cities by seven Liberty sales execs. Participating in the initial effort, which subsequently will encompass additional Liberty artists, are; Dave Barry, Johnny Burnette, Martin Denny, Buddy Knox, Jackie de Shannon, Bobb Vee and Si Zentner. The addition of other Liberty personalities will be announced as they are able to join the campaign.

Special promotions in the various cities and areas in which the label's standard bearers will appear include nitery engagements, concert dates, radio and TV appearances and specific promotional activities arranged with sales managers and promotion directors in conjunction with distributors, one stops and large direct sales centers in major population areas.

Capitol, Angel Disks Win French Honors

NEW YORK—In announcing "Grands Prix du Disque" awards for 1960-61, the French Recording Academy (L'Academie du Disque Francais) has honored two albums on the Capitol and Angel labels.

Announcement of the awards, which were presented recently in Paris, was made last week by Leo Kepler, director of Angel A&R for Capitol.

Chosen by the Academy for its "Prix Jacques Rouche" was Capitol's complete recording of Bizet's "Carmen." The three-disk set, which was recorded under the direction of Sir Thomas Beecham and released in the United States in Jan. 1960, stars the celebrated Spanish soprano, Victoria de los Angeles, in the title role, and features tenor Nicolai Gedda, soprano Janine Micheau, and baritone Ernest Blanc.

Also selected for an Academy "Grand Prix du Disque" was Angel's recent coupling of Ravel's "Piano Concerto in G Major" and "Piano Concerto in D Major for the Left Hand," featuring pianist Samson Francois with the Paris Conservatoire Orchestra under conductor Andre Cluytens.

The French Academy's "Grands Prix du Disque" are awarded annually to outstanding new recordings featuring French compositions, French artists, or performances recorded in France.

'Frisco Home Hi-Fi Show

James Logan, executive director of the twin event, said that the show will combine the best elements of home building, home furnishings and home music systems, in close relationship with each other.

Fountain Opens Club

NEW ORLEANS — Jazz clarinetist Pete Fountain (dubbed by Coral—"Mr. New Orleans Jazz") returned home from a tour last week to open his own night club in his home town. The place is called Pete Fountain's French Quarter Inn and is located on famous Bourbon Street. An entourage of Coral and Decca brass flew to this city to be present at the opening night festivities and a pre-opening press party. Above photo shows New Orleans Mayor Delesseps Morrison presenting Pete with five awards, one of which is "Official Jazz Ambassador of New Orleans." Below, label mate Brenda Lee and Pete in a jam session.

Indigo Inks Manny Lopez; Sets 3 Album Issue

HOLLYWOOD—Indigo Records has announced the signing of Latin maestro Manny Lopez to an exclusive pact. Lopez is already represented with a single—"Hawaiian Eye" and "Quiere-me Siempre"—and is due about Dec. 15 with an LP of cha-cha readings of pic-TV themes, "Just For You."

Two other Indigo LP's set for release along with the Lopez LP are: "Innocently Yours" by The Innocents, who hit with "Honest I Do" and "Gee Whiz, and "Puro Mariachi," a collection of Mariachi dances performed by Los Comperos. Latter LP will be directed toward the Mexican and Latin markets.

An "extensive" sales and promotion campaign is planned on the retail and wholesale level.

MRIA Committees To Watchdog Standards

CHICAGO — Ten subcommittees to watchdog standards for magnetic tape recorders were named last week by the Magnetic Recording Industry Association.

C. J. LeBel of New York, chairman of MRIA's standards committee, said that the "tremendous strides made by manufacturers to tape recording machines in the past two years have pointed to the need for a constant review of standards to assure the continued growth of tape music systems for the home and for tape in audio visual education."

Engineers have been named to the following subcommittees: measurement of frequency response, distortion & signal to noise ratio, wow & flutter & speed tolerance, power output, stereo characteristics (crosstalk, differential phase lift), head characteristics, standard reproducing characteristics, head dimensions, track dimensions and tape and reel dimensions.

R&B Chart Returns

NEW YORK—As a result of continued requests for information as to which disks are selling best in R&B retail shops, The Cash Box has reinstated its R&B singles chart, beginning with this issue. The list was originally dropped because it had become dominated by pop records, but retailers, nevertheless, have requested its return.

Atlantic & Roulette Share Connor/Ferguson LP's

NEW YORK—In a rare one-shot trade, the Atlantic and Roulette labels will each release an album featuring Chris Connor backed by Maynard Ferguson's ork. The femme jazz stylist is under exclusive contract to Atlantic, Ferguson to Roulette.

The deal between the two firms was set by Roulette topper Morris Levy and Atlantic LP veep Nesuhi Ertegun.

Albums will be cut later this month and are tentatively set for release in Feb. Miss Connor has cut nine albums for Atlantic, Ferguson has cut five for Roulette.

Schecks Establish Fund In Daughter's Memory

NEW YORK—A Marilyn Scheck Foundation is being established by Mr. & Mrs. George Scheck in memory of their 8-year-old daughter who perished in a fire which destroyed their Flower Hill, L.I. home recently. The memorial foundation will be devoted to research assistance for needy children afflicted with Cheiloschisis (hare-lip).

Contributions to the fund should be sent to: The Marilyn Joan Scheck Foundation c/o Mrs. Arthur Pine, 9 Orchard St., Port Washington, Long Island, N.Y.

Scheck is the manager of Connie Francis.

No '60 WB Xmas Product Explained By Conkling

BURBANK, CALIF.—In an effort not to "further satiate" the record market, Warner Bros. Records will not release any pop singles or LP's on Yuletide themes, prexy James B. Conkling announced last week.

"Our decision not to release any Christmas," Conkling explained, "is influenced by our policy to release only a few selected albums we feel our distributors can adequately devote some promotional effort to."

This policy, the exec said, appears to have met with the "wholehearted approval" of WB's thirty-two distributors throughout the country.

"Distributors have told us," Conkling concluded, "that the largest percentage of sales comes from popular material not devoted to the holiday season except for that rare occasional Christmas hit. We want to keep our distributors and all dealers happily occupied with a greater rate of turnover on the entire Warner Bros. catalog, rather than relegate special effort to seasonal material."

Temporary Injunction In Glad Vs. Glad

NEW YORK—Sidney Schwartz's Glad label received here on Nov. 21 a temporary injunction against Lionel Hampton's Glad Records.

Am-Par Joins Festival - Australia

NEW YORK—Am-Par Record Corp., a subsidiary of American Broadcasting-Paramount Theatres, Inc., has joined Mirror Newspapers Limited as an equal partner in the ownership of Festival Records Proprietary Limited of Sydney, Australia. This was jointly announced in New York last week by Samuel H. Clark, president of Am-Par, and Frederick C. Marks, Festival's executive director.

Announcement of the sale of Festival to the Mirror newspaper group was made in October. Publishers of the Sydney Daily and Sunday Mirror and weeklies in Melbourne Brisbane, Adelaide and Hobart, Mirror Newspapers is part of News Limited of Australia. Early in 1959, AB-PT purchased an interest in News Limited, which controls broadcasting properties including Adelaide TV station NWS-9. Clark visited Australia in August, accompanied by Simon B. Siegel, AB-PT financial vice-president.

Details for Am-Par's partnership in Festival were finalized in New York by Clark and Marks following Marks' attendance at the annual conference of the Top Rank International Cooperative in London (Oct. 22-23). Festival is the Australian member of the co-op.

Festival is one of Australia's major record companies in manufacturing and distribution. It has extensive modern recording and pressing facilities in its Sydney headquarters, and is the Australian distributor for Decca Records. In addition to pressing and distributing overseas labels, Festival is the leading force in the promotion and development of Australian recording talent.

Chairman of Festival is John C. Glass, who was for many years the general manager of Hoyt's theatres, the 20th Century-Fox theatre group in Australia. Gordon C. Marshall, who has close association with the U.S. record industry through numerous study missions, is general manager of Festival. One of Australia's leading A & R directors, Ken Taylor, fulfills this capacity and that of general sales manager in the Festival company. Both Marshall and Taylor were appointed directors of Festival when Mirror Newspapers announced purchase of the company.

Basie Anniversary Receives Big Scandinavian Promotion

NEW YORK—The photograph of the store window of one of Stockholm's larger retail record outlets is indicative of the massive celebration being conducted throughout the Scandinavian countries honoring Count Basie's Silver Anniversary. Taking their cue from Roulette's recent two month sales promotion on behalf of all the Basie albums in the catalog as well as the entire Roulette "Birdland Series" of jazz albums, Bjourn Fremer, promotion and publicity director for the Scandinavian Record Co. reported that the same type of campaign is taking place in Sweden, Norway, Finland and Denmark, the countries covered by his firm's operation.

Fremer, who is now in the states on behalf of his company, advised that he has been carefully studying American record companies and their methods of promotion and merchandising with an eye toward applying these methods in the Scandinavian countries. He noted that the type of full scale promotion which hinges on one big name artist such as in the Basie promotion, has not been tried to any often extent in the Scandinavian areas. Also, deluxe packaging, such as the "Count Basie Story," which comes with special booklet and photographs, is an aspect of merchandising which his company will seek to put to full use in future releases.

While in New York, Fremer presented Basie with a special gold disk which signifies the "enormous" sale of Basie albums in the Scandinavian countries. The award was given on stage of Carnegie Hall during Basie's recent concert appearance there.

Inevitable as the advent of sound in motion pictures visual disks are now an accomplished fact. As a result of several years negotiation and close cooperation between Harry Walters of EMI—the man behind the idea—and Norman Miller of Radiovision, which has financed the project, tremendous strides have been made in bringing about the production of such disks. Radiovision has now produced five visual records some made on film and others on video tape. Although intended at present as a service to television and the cinema both here and abroad it may well be that, in the future, these disks could be available to the general public for home consumption. Thus, with a record you can both see and hear, dj's will have scope to operate on television just as they do on radio. For a turntable a screen is substituted. Skilfully produced request programs in this new medium would undoubtedly prove as popular as radio's "Two Way Family Favorites," "Housewife's Choice" "Saturday Club" and "Pick of the Pops" and certainly give an added boost to record sales. Of the first visual disks produced by Miller at Radiovision's Park Lane Studios some were directed by well-known BBC TV Producer Richard Afton and some by Jack Good.

It is understood that the BBC, impressed by the five pilot visual disks, have agreed to the idea in principle. The pilot disks are "Apache" by The Shadows (Columbia), "Gotta Get A Date" by Frank Ifield (Columbia), "Now Is The Month of Maying" by The Vernon's Girls (Parlophone), "Mamma Wouldn't Like It" by Maureen Evans (Oriole) and "I Double Dare You" by Jimmy Lloyd (Philips).

The Delta Record Company has recently concluded an agreement with The Viking Record Company of Wellington, New Zealand and Sydney, Australia, granting them sole concessions for the manufacture and distribution of Delta's popular 'Tale-Spinner' series in these territories.

Tito Burns, personal manager for top teenage star Cliff Richard, has formed his own recording company—Lindon Records Ltd. The first three 'masters' to be sold to major companies have now been released. "Southbound Gasser" by Dee and the Dynamites on Philips, "Teen Scene" by The Hunters on Fontana (Epic in the States) and on the same label Terence Holderway Hale makes his debut with "Beauty and The Beast" written by Tepper and Bennet, the team responsible for Richard's hits, "Travellin' Light" and "Don't Be Mad At Me." Agreements have also been signed with the companies for Lindon Records to produce disks by these artists over a three-year period. Tito Burns told The Cash Box that he plans to acquire recorded tapes from America and the continent for exploitation in this country.

Cliff Richard has completed a new LP with a 50-piece orchestra directed by Norrie Paramor. The 16 tracks include several oldies. Cliff is also to record four titles in German for that market including "I Love You," "D in Love" and "A Voice In The Wilderness."

Impresario Bernard Delfont recently hosted a party for The Andrews Sisters at his Talk of The Town Restaurant where the sisters open a season of cabaret on December 5. Last in England in 1951 when they topped the bill at the London Palladium, Maxene, La Verne and Patty are veterans of 17 major films and can claim total disk sales in excess of 60 million. Their manager, Bill Loeb told The Cash Box that TV dates have been lined up and there is a possibility of a new disk for Philips.

Cyril Berlin, manager for Lonnie Donegan, just back from Australia told The Cash Box that he has completed negotiations for many of our leading recording stars to appear there next year including Diana Dors. Berlin was responsible for the successful visits recently of Lonnie Donegan, Harry Secombe and Benny Hill.

More news from music man and publisher Cedric Dumont in Switzerland. Edition Coda of Zurich have acquired the rights of the current United States hit "I Want To Be Wanted" for Switzerland. Other pops coming up in that territory include "Tell Laura I Love Her," "Running Bear" and "Alley Oop." Edition Coda is also publishing for the first time several well-known standards including "Stardust," "St. Louis Blues," "Ain't Misbehaving," "Royal Garden Blues," "Yes Sir, That's My Baby," "Basin Street Blues" and "Tiger Rag."

Backing as usual by John Barry, who has a new instrumental disk of his own, "Black Stockings" on Columbia, also published by Mills. Other Mills numbers include "Serenata" by Sarah Vaughan on Columbia and a new Jerry Keller deck, "What More Can I Say" on London.

Bob Kingston, managing director of Southern Music, tells me that he has so far this year effected recordings of 70 British numbers, five of which have entered the charts. Current Southern publications include two new numbers from The Cash Box Top 100—Bobby Rydell's "Sway" released on Columbia and The Ventures "Perfida" on London. On the same label the latest Johnnie Ray, "In The Heart Of A Fool."

Teddy Holmes of Chappell, publisher of "Little Donkey" recorded earlier this year by Nina & Frederik on Columbia told The Cash Box that besides entering the British charts and showing at No. 2 in the Best Selling Sheet Music Lists the number is getting plenty of activity on the continent. Chappell also publishes the successful American ballad "Till" with waxings by Colin Day (Columbia), The Peters Sisters (Columbia), Tony Bennett (Philips), Percy Faith (Philips), The Four Freshmen (Capitol), Jane Morgan (London), Roger Williams (London), Karen Arman (Brunswick) and Russ Conway (Columbia). Three American smash musicals due here next year are handled by the Chappell group—"The Music Man" (Frank Publications), "Bye Bye Birdie" (Morris Music) and Rodgers & Hammerstein's last great hit, "The Sound Of Music" (Williamson Music). The group also has the music from two new films "The World of Susie Wong" due at The Plaza on December 14 and "Cinderella" starring Jerry Lewis for Christmas showing at the New Victoria cinema. The hit from the film is expected to be "Somebody" written by Harry Warren, responsible for such oldies as "You'll Never Know" and "Lullaby of Broadway."

A Christmas number released on Ember International is "My Momma Told Me" by The Shane Sisters and on the same label "Why Did You Leave Me" by Ray Merrill (for United States release on Rank Records). Both numbers published by Filmusic who also have "Angel" by The Day Brothers on Oriole and "Unkind" by Jimmy Crawford and the Ravens on Columbia. Filmusic have the theme written by Phil Green for the film, "The Singer Not The Song," starring Dirke Bogarde and John Mills to be premiered at the Odeon Theatre on January 5. International waxings are being lined up.

Pop singing idol Adam Faith was the subject of "Face to Face" for BBC TV on December 11 and was interrogated by John Freeman. Skilled in the art of revealing the person behind the personality Freeman has come face to face with many well known people.

American comedian Morey Amsterdam makes his second appearance for BBC TV's "Showtime" this month. In her third "Saturday Spectacular" in seven weeks MGM recording star Vera Lynn guested ballad singer Michael Holliday whose latest Columbia recordings are "Stay In Love" and "Catch Me A Kiss."

GERMANY

It looks like Ramona is about to make its second round as a world hit. It is on the market now, and the sound is great. The Blue Diamonds from Holland have done the new version and their recording in English is already number 1 in their country. Their German version with the original playback is beginning to move here, their American release on London is set, and "Ramona" is off and running to hitsville once again.

Peter Schaeffers and composer Aldo Von Pinelli from Melodie Film and Schaeffers music publishers respectively, are very happy about their new song "Pepe" which already has 40 different recorded versions. The gentlemen are in New York and have renewed their contract for the handling of the catalogs of Schapiro-Bernstein, Skidmore and Columbia Music here.

Schaeffers promotion man, Gerd Hammerling, is working on the French hit "Babylone 21-29" by French orchestra leader-composer Norman Maine. We mentioned that Caterina Valente had several records going for her at the same time. Two of these recordings are already in the top 10, and a third "Schick' Mir Einen Gruss," took first place on Elmar Zimmer's "Schlager Scala" show in Stuttgart with 40.8% of the total mail. The song is a German cover of "Livin' For The Day." Valente, who completed her comeback here with a great triumph at the Radio Luxemburg Pop Music Festival is on top of the market here once again.

Metronome Records is really going to town with film hits at present. Top Dixieland star Acker Bilk has recorded "Mit Himbeergeist Geht Alles Besser" or in English "Everything Goes Better With Raspberry Juice" as the title song for the new O. W. Fischer flick. The premier of the new Nina And Frederik-Louis Armstrong film "Youth, Jazz and Serenades" was held recently in Nurnburg to top reviews. Metronome produced film.

Monty Sunshine, the clarinetist who made his mark in the world with his solo on "Petite Fleur" by Chris Barber has formed his own quartet for recording purposes. The first sides were cut in Copenhagen and are now released as an EP and as singles here. Monty stays with Chris for concert purposes and also will continue to record for the Chris Barber sessions.

Top German folk singer-composer Erich Storz has released his first LP. German officials expect the record to move well in America and England where German folk music is a great draw at record sales counters. Swedish record man Simon Brehm of Karusell and Joker records is in Germany with his top selling female star Lill Babs Svenson. Lill, who just finished a successful screen test for UFA in Berlin has sold 112,000 of her EP "Klaus Jorgen" in Sweden alone. This is an amazing figure for that small market. The hit "Klaus Jorgen" will be released by Lill in English under the title "Just a Letter To Me Won't You Write" on Columbia in America.

Globus One Stop reports that "Charming Billy"—Johnny Preston, "Save the Last Dance For Me"—The Drifters, "Let's Think About Livin'"—Bob Luman, "Nine Times Out Of Ten"—Cliff Richard, "So Wie Du (Summer's Gone)"—Paul Anka and "Don't Be Cruel"—Bill Black's Combo are the best American and British produced hits this month for this market.

Paul Siegel reports from Berlin that Werner Mueller's "Tango Barcellona" will be released by RCA Victor stateside, that Ariola star Tony Sandler has recorded "Four Little Heels" in German and that he is now negotiating for a new contract as an A&R man. Paul has been working for Ariola but is now having talks with both Teldec and Electrola. It looks like Electrola has the inside track on his services. Paul is still d-j ing in Berlin and his Brian Hyland hit "Four Little Heels" now has 5 recordings in this market. Paul's tied up with George Pincus stateside. The arrangement seems to be working well except for one hitch. George says that if Paul's secretary makes many more mistakes in her English letters, George will send her to the WACS. Remember, George, she could write to you in German! Christa Williams is going great guns with her French hit "Pilou-Pilou" sung in German. She has 3 TV shots set for December and January and will also do the song in a new film here.

German teenage idol Rex Gildo has a small problem on his hands. He's done a cover of Ray Peterson's "Tell Laura I Love Her" but some of the radio stations refuse to play it here even though the German lyrics are completely uncontroversial. Since the English and American versions have been banned here, the radio people feel that it's better to let the song die a slow death. Perhaps their bans have aroused extra interest because the record is selling like hot cakes. Rex is just too big a star to hold down.

English Jazz trumpet man Humphrey Lyttelton is touring Germany with his group. He'll do concerts in Cologne, Essen, Dusseldorf, Bremen, Berlin and Bonn.

Hans Blum, who hit the charts here with his waxing of "Charlie Brown" in German, has just released his second record. This time out, he's doing an original composition based on the German bad boys, "Max and Moritz," who could be compared with "Hans and Fritz" in the states.

Teenage star Conny just celebrated her 17 birthday. Conny is at present set for a TV show out of Zurich called "Show Boat" where she'll do her hit recording of "Midi-Midinette."

Ken Hecht of Ken-Co Records (New York) believes that a Belgian record will score a big success stateside, "Cristina"/"El Borrachin," sung in Spanish by Gino Ricco. Record was released in the USA a few weeks ago. Same titles have just been recorded in German by Bruno Majcherek (the "Laila"-boy!) for Tivoli-records to be distributed in Germany by Polydor.

Belgian teenage idol Bob Rocky recorded his two hit-songs "It Is Over"/"Amper Zestien" in English. "Just Wait And See"/"Twenty Steps To Go To Heaven" to be released in the U.K. under ACM Academy label. Lyrics written by Allan Crawford of the Allan Crawford Group of publishers. Rocky will record same titles in German for Ariola Records.

Bovema's Capitol label had the highest salesfigures since two years ago, according to manager Cees Hundepool. The recording was released on Sept. 5.

Bovema will set up a great and extensive newspaper advertisement campaign for all its labels in the forthcoming months.

Gerry M. Oord, Bovema's managing director, will travel to Switzerland shortly, where he will bring an example of Ad v.d.Hoed's Pathé single, "Royal Clarinet," to King Phoemibol of Thailand, to whom the number has been dedicated.

Word comes in from L. C. Phonogram that the Decca recording of "Ramona" by The Blue Diamonds has sold 100,000 copies! This means a golden record for the boys, who quickly rocketed to stardom. This means a record in Dutch record history too: Never before has the 100,000 mark been reached in so short a time. That means an average sale of 1,000 copies a day, which for Holland is quite something! More news from The Blue Diamonds: their recently released Xmas record is selling pretty big too. There has not been such a demand for "White Christmas" for years! As a matter of fact the release of this seasonal record was done in a rather American way. A week before the date of release, all Dutch record dealers found a mysterious little postcard in their postboxes. It showed two shadows in a recording studio and just read: "Watch your postbox next week. There is going to be great news from the Decca-studio." The next mailing was on the release date. A big envelope imprinted with "Open At Once" carried a poster on "White Christmas" screened in dayglow colors, an order form and the display of the EP record. On that same day, all Decca salesmen from L. C. Phonogram went to the dealers. The reps were really loaded with advertisement materials, folders, glossy photographs, etc., all promoting the recording. Results are pretty high so far. In one day, 3,000 EP records of this record were sold. Over 6,000 singles were bought. And this is still going on at the same speed!

A new single by Bovema's first and outstanding teen singer, Lydia, has hit the stands. On the Imperial label, her version of "Never On Sunday" was recorded just before her departure to the United States.

The first 5 singles on Capitol's Dixieland Single-series have been released. At the same time, three 45 rpm recordings by Peggy Lee and George Shearing's "The Beauty And The Beat" were issued.

Bovema's His Master's Voice label manager William Voerman told The Cash Box that the famous Dutch textwriter Eli Asser, well known for his work in broadcasting, has been signed with the label to execute a series of children's fairy-tales. Also the famous Dutch folksinger Johnny Jordaan is in the news again with a new record entitled "De Saxophoon Van Ome Toon."

Connie Stevens, whose recordings on Bovema's Warner Bros label are among the hot sellers, was featured in a recent broadcast of "Teenager's Time." Further news on the Warner Brothers' side of L. C. Bovema is that the singles of Bob Luman are doing very well nowadays. Salesfigures inspired manager C. Pompe to plan the soonest possible release of Bob's EP, "Let's Think About Living."

Bovema's MGM label manager, Frank Visser, believes that Vera Lynn's "Accordeon" has got real hit parade potential. Other highlights in the popfield are Connie Francis' "Many Tears Ago" and the duet of Bing and Satchmo in "Muskrat Ramble."

In the Amsterdam City Theatre a charity performance was recently held. "Het Parool"—one of Holland's leading newspapers—organized this event in cooperation with L. C. Phonogram. The place was crowded and the success enormous. The cream of Dutch artists performed and the audience could not stop applauding. The Blue Diamonds, Willy Alberti, Rita Reys, Wama's etc. etc. were all there. The result of this night show, a sum of over 10,000 guilders, will no doubt help a lot of sick kids to get well again.

Pathé, the label that started its Bovema-existence quite satisfactorily, is currently featuring the Dutch singer of Italian song Tony Volare with "Mai Dire Mai." Volare's first big hit was "Fantastica."

L. C. Phonogram's publicity department is putting out a lot of publicity material. Folders, leaflets, booklets, streamers, hand-outs, recordguides, posters, etc. are being put on the market with a total run of more than 2½ million copies (population of Holland is 11 million people), so that one out of every four Dutchmen gets hold of some L. C. Phonogram advertising.

Music publishers Basart-Amsterdam has a new hit on its hands with the German song, "Zwei Täler Weiter" (Two Valleys From Here). The Polydor recording of the Limbra Zusjes is becoming so popular that Philips now also has recorded the song with the Limburg Sisters. More news about Dutch girls: the Harmony Sisters have recorded "Wil Je Altijd Bij Me Blijven" (Please Stay With Me Forever) which is a very popular song in the South of Holland and Belgium. This also is a Basart world copyright. Jane and Ben made their duo debut on the CNR label with a new Dutch song called, "I Remember." This is an original Dutch song, published by Basart.

FRANCE

Well, the miracle has taken place! Common sense won out in the end and the agreement between BIEM and the Record Industry has been signed. The two parties approved the final draft of the new contract last Tuesday. It is still too early to analyze the document, but in next week's issue we will give a brief resumé of the principal modifications.

The Cash Box joins the well-wishers in saying good-bye to A. Bernard president of Artec-Odeon who is retiring. He will be replaced by B. Taylor, former EMI Director in Argentina. Bernard is 79 and has devoted more than 40 years to the record business, serving as president of the Chambre Syndicale de l'Industrie Parlant in France after having founded and developed Artec-Odeon and assured it an envied place on the European market. He has earned his rest and we also join those who say "Good luck" to the incoming president. Asked about his plans, Taylor reported that he is creating a new label, "Artec," on which he will release foreign recordings for the moment. We can also expect new promotional efforts for the Rank catalog, a revival of the old recordings of Berthe Sylva and the more recent ones of Ives Montand, and others.

Leon Cabat, Vogue's president who is staking great hopes on Johnny Halliday and Korafas has had both of these artists wax "Killiwatch," which promises to make the hit lists here, much to the pleasure of H. Ferly of Vendome Publishers.

Colette Renard has just cut a second 12-inch album entitled "Chef d'oeuvres De La Chanson Francaise." The first one sold 60,000 copies. F. Bonifay is ready to launch his new composition, "Gimmick," with the aid of EMI artists Frank Purcell, Ray Antony, Annie Cordy, etc.

Mr. Wolfson, artistic director for Vogue, is also a publisher, and his firm, Alpha, has just had its "La Gatte" (ceded to it by Ricordi of Italy) recorded by Korafas.

P. Weill, of Fontana reports that Yvette Girand has waxed "Papa Aime Mama" and "Marchand de Bonheur." Drummer Akak returns to the recording scene with a new version of the famous "C'est Si Bon." Fontana's duo Jan and Rode, have cut "Aragon et Castille." The firm's Devos and Denise Benoit have won this year's "most humorous record" award with "Le Petit Poete."

Philips has announced the January departure of Roberto Benzi for Poland. Pianist Philippe Entremont will tour France for a month before leaving for a 3-month concert stint in the U.S.A. Held recently was a private showing for the new film "Pierrot la Tendress" starring Michel Simon, music by Guy Beart, whose tunes promise new success for Tutti Publishers.

"L'impatte De La Fidelite" is off to a new start at the ABC Theatre. Paola had recorded "L'hippopotame" for her next release and Les Trumpet Boys have also included the tune on their coming disk. The Fontana-Philips group seems to be specializing in film music more and more. Another new issue, "Tirez sur La Dianiste" is from the picture starring Charles Aznavour.

Jacques Brel on his return from Israel will go to Canada from March 10 to 27. Devos will leave for the same country on March 13.

Latest news from RCA:—release of one of Mario Lanza's last recordings, "Chanson De Noel"; a new cutting of Vivaldi's "Les Quatre Saisons"; an album of Goldberg and Bach Variations by the late Wanda Landowski.

Fresh flashes from Barclay—Charles Aznavour's new recording session featuring "Comme Des Etrangers," a tango, which is certainly not the usual fare of the popular singer; Dalida has a session coming up at which she will warble, "Cia, Baby, Ciao," Les Five Rocks is the name chosen for the new rock n' roll group; Bob Azzam, back from a tour in Lebanon, has recorded "Coriandoli Cha Cha Cha," as well as "Marrons Chauds." The latter promises to be George Garvarenz' (French Music) winter hit.

Roger Corsin of Plante Publishers and Leo Missir, Bel-Air's A&R man, have combined their efforts to launch "That's How Much" here. Brian Hylands version on the Kapp label (Bel-Air) is off to a flying start. Richard Antony has done the first French version and there are others coming up. Bel-Air's Arturo Motta interprets "L'olivier" on the heels of Rika Zara's vocal reading. Editors Rhodania and Glotz are counting on the success of "Geisha Cha Cha" as recorded by EMI's Cha Cha Cha Boys. EMI's Gloria Lasso seems to have a juke box hit with "Les Citrons de Tel Aviv," though we can't quote figures yet.

Richard Antony's "Roly Poly" got off to a lightening start but the disk has been out-of-stock for the last 15 days. In another week, this missing record might well become simply a forgotten record. The juke box people fail to understand EMI's commercial policy in regard to juke box distribution. As soon as an EMI record begins to show good sales, it's out-of-stock and for long periods of time. Nothing left for the operators to do but get behind some other record. . . . We don't even mention the question of 45 single prices! All in all, the 45 single is still the dearest record on the French market.

ITALY

Tuesday, November 29, was the deadline for sending tunes to the San Remo Committee. Last year 435 tunes were sent in, but the number has been largely exceeded this year. The committee that selects the tunes for the Festival consists of music composers and music newspapermen, and it began working on this huge amount of melodies last week in Rome. We will have another big Festival in 1961, but unfortunately without Domenico Modugno, who already decided not to take part, and is now in bed with a broken leg. The accident will keep him from working for three months.

"Due Note" (Two Notes), the final leit motiv of our Canzonissima Shows, was put on the market in Italy on November 28 and after only six days it has sold 25,000 copies. This recording appears as number three in its first week out on the chart. Gramitto Ricci of Curci is paying a visit to the States.

Robert B. Weiss, Warner Brothers' International Director, was in Milan for business talks with Gurtler and telephoned The Cash Box to say hello.

Bluebell has announced the next showing of the motion picture, "Marina" starring Rocco Granata, in Italy. The music background includes "Marina," of course, "Germanina" and "Ein Italiano." Two EP's from the sound track will be released.

Paul Anka's success in Italy continues to be very strong. "Hello Young Lovers" was already included once in the best-selling chart, and now "Summer's Gone" has been released with a side in Italian, and is showing action.

Alan Bates back from a prolonged visit to Germany. Bates made a thorough examination of the German market and consolidated Interdisc distribution throughout Germany and Austria. Conference held with Bernhard Mikulski in Frankfurt resulted in plans being made for a closer cooperation between Interdisc and Schallplatten Import-Dienst, the company responsible for distributing the Interdisc lines in Germany.

Nico Fidenco, who keeps the fourth spot on the Italian charts with the Italian song, "Su Nel Cielo" (What A Sky), appears on the music scene in Italy for the first time with this record, which couples both the English and Italian version of the same tune. The recording is a success on Italian RCA, which announced the launching of a new disk by Gianni Meccia, who has already entered the chart with "Il Barattolo" (The Can), written by himself. The title of the new song composed and sung by Meccia, is "Il Pullover."

By the beginning of January, a new TV show, called "Moderata Swing," will be shown on our screens. Twelve weekly shows are scheduled and a part of each spectacle will be devoted to the theme, "Yesterday's Naples," represented by guitar player and singer Ugo Calise, and to "Today's Naples," represented by Peppino Di Capri, at present engaged at the Astoria night spot in Milan. After this engagement, in the middle of December, Di Capri is scheduled for a tour throughout the main cities in Italy in the company of Umberto Bindi, but their debut will be made in Paris, where Di Capri seems to be famous already. Di Capri has again brought real great success to old Neapolitan songs, performing them in an original, modern version.

On March 1, 1961, the Second Festival of the Italian Song will take place in Buenos Aires. VCM announced to The Cash Box that Narciso Parigi will participate in it. After its debut in Buenos Aires, the show will cross the whole of South America, touching the most important cities.

Publisher Daniele is in touch with Ivan Mogull to sell him the rights to "Mi Sento In Estasi" in the States, already recorded here by Tony Dallara.

SCANDINAVIA

DENMARK

The great favorite among Danish teenagers is Otto Brandenburg, a Dane who usually tops the hit parades with every record he makes. He cuts for EMI and together with the Four Jacks and Raquel Rastenni, he is the top seller on EMI's labels. Otto has so far appeared in one Danish film and has been offered a contract for a new picture. The German film industry is reportedly interested in Otto, too.

Top selling record in Denmark now is "Oh! Marie, Jeg Vil Hjem," which is the American song, "Mary Don't You Weep." The publisher, Imudico, told The Cash Box that the song has not done well in the States, but in Denmark, where it was recorded by the Four Jacks, it immediately became a top seller.

Knut Mörk of Mörks Music Publishing Co. in Copenhagen says that the "whole world is knocking on his door," trying to sign a contract with the Italian singer Robertino, who is under contract to Mörk's label Triola. This 13-year-old boy was discovered in Italy and taken to Denmark, where he had a TV-program. He immediately became famous, and his debut record is now on the best-selling charts in Denmark as well as Sweden.

NORWAY

The Monn Keys, one of the top vocal groups in Europe today, is doing very good business at the famous Chat Noir. Recording for Egil Monn Iverson A/S, the group is very popular in the Scandinavian countries, and also several other countries are now looking for the team for TV shows, etc.

"I think we have had one of the finest seasons in history," according to Mr. Frogh of Iversen & Frogh AS, Norwegian distributor of EMI. "And with the Xmas sale to come, our sales will be even better," he added.

One can always learn something. One is used to hearing a lot of Swedes complaining about Swedish TV programs in general and our music programs in particular. "Look at Norway," people in Sweden say. While in Oslo, it is said that no one there wants to buy a TV set unless he can be sure he can watch the Swedish programs "as the Norwegian programs are nothing." It certainly is a hard job to produce show programs on television these days.

Publisher Lennart Reuterskiöld of Stockholm in Oslo for business talks. Also here on short biz visit is Börje Ekberg of Metronome Records, Stockholm.

NEW ZEALAND

Norman Wright has asked us to correct a statement made in this column in the Nov. 26 issue. He feels that his American friends may have got the wrong impression about the Lotus/Wright merger. The fact is that Norman Wright & Company remains as is and Lotus Record Company Ltd has 'bought-in'. Wright still has the controlling interest in his company. The merger came about to improve the distribution and pressing facilities of both companies in this territory, giving Wright the Northern distribution of the following labels: W&G, Cetra, Spotlight, Lotus and World Pacific and Lotus the same in the South.

Philip Warren of the record division of Kerridge-Odeon, which has to date been known as Top Rank Records (NZ) Ltd, advises that as from Jan. 1, 1961 the division will be known as Allied International Records Ltd. This move has come about owing to the fact that the Kerridge people feel that Top Rank confuses overseas affiliates tagging a label name to a company distributing far more than just one name brand. This in effect means that the following labels will be distributed by Allied Records International Ltd.—Top Rank; Warner Bros.; Verve; Roulette; Elektra; Oriole; Prestige—under which of course many many US companies are issued.

The Christmas sales are being appreciated by all companies here this year. All are well represented on the market with material apt for this period.

Most companies report an increase in stereo sales and every company has at least one stereo disk in his catalogue. It will be interesting to see the governments statistics on record pressings and sale for 1960 which will, of course, show how well Record Clubs have done.

The New Zealand Broadcasting service, which rejected the American version of "Mr. Custer," bought the British version of the same title by Charlie Drake on Parlophone. HMV had both versions in its catalog (Larry Verne on London) so they are not particularly worried. Philips has also issued an English version by Ted Lune. This sort of thing really makes the industry wonder about the purchasing of records by the service. On top of this HMV has just had the American hit "A Million To One" rejected and Viking is awaiting a decision on Maurice Williams' "Stay."

November 26 saw the people go to the polls and change the government after they had only been in three years. We now have a National party (Conservative) in power once again. It was a sweeping victory for them with the Socialistic Labor party losing 6 seats, some of which were thought Labor strongholds. How this change of government will affect the recording industry remains to be seen. However, most people are looking forward to improved business particularly where imports are concerned.

AUSTRALIA

The current practice by some leading retailers of importing large quantities of cheap American albums into this country is causing a great deal of concern to record companies in Australia. Large supplies of these albums are available on the open market at prices ranging from 29/6 upwards, which is far below the regular album prices by local labels. In some instances the identical album is being imported and marketed at a very low price against the same album which has been locally pressed and packaged being sold at the regular price of 52/6. Most major Australian labels are taking steps through their American associates to prevent the importation of albums that have been—or are likely to be—pressed here under license.

Popular local teenage idol Col Joye made his "farewell" appearance at a big teenage dance at Melbourne's Earl's Court. Col and his group have left Australia for an English tour which was organized by his brother and manager, Kevin Jacobson. The Earl's Court dance was a big success it was also Col's first public appearance since his recent throat operation. The dance, which was organized and compered by "Crash" de Courcy, drew a crowd of close to 1500.

We, his Australian friends, wish Col and The Joy Boys every success in their English jaunt. Col has everything it takes to be popular with English audiences and his most recent hit single of "Yes Sir That's My Baby" has been a tremendous success in Australia and is being released in England to coincide with Col's tour.

To mark the occasion of Toni Harper's visit to Australia, RCA records has issued her single of "Heavenly Love" and "What Am I." Toni is set for national TV appearances during her stay in this country.

Johnny O'Keefe's instrumental group, The Dee Jays, has a new single out on the Lee Gordon label. It couples "Steppin Out" with "Straighten Up." The Dee Jays are popular and this single could meet with a healthy sales response.

Festival's sales manager, Noel Brown, reports a "fantastic" reaction to four 12" albums released by Col Joye, Johnny O'Keefe, Dig Richards and Johnny Devlin, respectively. These four albums were released simultaneously and the four artists made personal appearances in major Sydney stores in connection with the promotion of their albums.

English vocalist Lynne Alison, who has just arrived in Australia, is already making her presence felt on both radio and television. Lynne has already made her debut on Johnny O'Keefe's national TV show "Six O'Clock Rock" and is scheduled for other prominent TV and public appearances during her Australian season.

Under its agreement with Eddie Joy's Records of America, the W&G label here has released the controversial single "An Open Letter To Mr. Khrushchev" which features a special spoken introduction by Viktor Jaanimets, the sailor who jumped the ship Baltika which carried Mr. K. to the historic United Nations meeting.

Joe Loufer of Leeds Music reports great success with the firm's latest batch of hits, which includes "Think Me A Kiss" (Johnny Rebb on Coronet); "Four Little Heels" (Brian Hyland on London); "Little Kangaroo" (two versions—Johnny Ashcroft—Columbia and Kevin Shogog on W & G); "You Gotta Love Me" (Dig Richards on Rex); "Sailor" (Lolita on Polydor) and "There's No Need" (Allen Brothers on Pye).

Rex Records has packed a group of its various singles into a 12" album under the title of "The All-Australian Hit Parade"—The artists are all Australian. The artists are Wilma Reading, Bix Bryant, The Dew-etts, Candy Williams, Margaret Hooper, Pam Liversidge, Noeline Batley, Judy Cannon, Johnny Byrell and Patty Markham.

One thing seems sure at the moment, Elvis Presley will pull plenty of traffic into record stores with his new single, "Are You Lonesome Tonight" and I Gotta Know and his soundtrack album from the movie, "G.I. Blues." Elvis is still by far the hottest disk attraction in this country.

"FIRE BALL MAIL" (2:09)

[Milene ASCAP—Rose]

"JOHN HENRY" (2:48)

[Public Domain]

"LITTLE" JIMMY DICKENS (Columbia 41916)

The pint-sized artist with the big booming voice has two new ones for Columbia which present a "pick-em" choice. They're both oldies culled from Dickens' recent LP, "Big Songs." "Fire Ball Mail" is an old Fred Rose country blueser that's tackled with thrilling honesty; "John Henry" is the famous folk song dressed up here with stringbustin' country duds. Either can mean a strong chart stand.

GEORGE KENT (Maverick 1005)

(B+) "TWO COLD COLD ARMS" (2:18) [Stoddard BMI—Ferris, Eden, Kent] George Kent, who had a touch of success recently, looks good enough here to attempt another try at the charts. Tune's an up-tempo weeper and it's sung with deep sincerity and, of course, talent.

(B) "IF LOVE HAD A COLOR" (2:05) [Stoddard BMI—Kent] Another upbeat traditional-styled sentimental is treated to Kent's attractive ballad style.

JACK BARLOW (Dollie 3371)

(B+) "WHERE THERE'S A WILL, THERE'S A WAY" (2:42) [Cedarwood BMI—Walker, Wilkin] Barlow, a name to contend with in the future, turns in a sensitive performance of a supremely attractive tune. Could mean something.

(B) "WALK WITH ME BABY" (2:29) [Cedarwood BMI—Walker, Wilkin] A haunting flavor is attained in this quick-paced pleader. Lad has a real deep voice that gains in favor after repeated hearings.

RED SOVINE (Starday 521)

(B+) "IF I COULD COME BACK" (2:33) [Cedarwood BMI—Tillis] A heartwarming sentimental romantic is sung in earnest by the veteran favorite. A real lovely session that could mean a lot to Sovine. Keep your eye on it.

(B) "NO MONEY IN THIS DEAL" (2:14) [Starday BMI—Jones] A George Jones tune is whacked out in high-flying honky-tonk manner by Sovine. Lots of good fun in this end.

TOMPALL AND THE GLASER BROS. (Decca 31180)

(B+) "SWEET LOVE GOODBYE" (2:42) [Marizona BMI—Cassale] The country-folk trio should enjoy a good response to their folk-ish, Latin-flavored ballad here, which they turn out with an attractive haunting romantic sound.

(B+) "SAME OLD MEMORIES" (2:30) [Marty's Music BMI—Glaser] The weeper here is more in the straight country tradition, and it's done to a good turn. Has potential.

NICK WILLIAMS/TREECE-REECE TRIO (D 1168)

(B) "SPRINGTIME IN HEAVEN" (2:40) [Glad BMI—Edwards, Treece] With Nick Williams doing the lead vocal and the Treece-Reece Trio doing back up chorus duties, they tell a touching sentimental tale in honor of the late Johnny Horton. Could get a nod from the market.

(C) "HOW MANY HEARTACHES" (2:30) [Glad BMI—Treece-Reece] Here the Trio goes it alone for a tear-jerker in "down-home" country style.

JIMMY HANEY (Jandel 1001)

(B) "WOULD YOU LIKE TO RIDE WITH SANTA (CHRISTMAS EVE)" (2:40) [T. B. BMI—Trickett] Haney, a deejay at WKCW, bows on disk with a pleasant offering for the Christmas season. Deck is aimed straight at the kiddies. Could get some action.

(C+) "LET'S HAVE AN OLD FASHION CHRISTMAS" (1:36) [Lonesome Pine BMI—Trickett] This end reiterates the traditional Christmas wish, set to a bubbly, upbeat pace.

FREDDY POWERS (Longhorn 509)

(B) "HE GAVE US A HEART" (1:55) [Partners BMI—Powers, Powers, Buskirk] Delightful little love ditty with an inspirational touch is Powers' turn here. He does it up prettily.

(C+) "HEARTACHES OF A FOOL" (2:03) [Partners BMI—Mathews] Slow moving blueser is moaned with sincerity by the artist.

JOE E. MAY & SIS (Cover 60111)

(C+) "DON'T YOU FOOL WITH ME" (1:48) [Quilted BMI—May] Bright shuffle beat rocker is tapped out rhythmically by the pleasant voice of Joe May.

(C) "I NEARLY LOST MY MIND" (2:12) [Quilted BMI—May] May and Sis are teamed here in a real hillbilly cryer. Tears fall all over the place.

"We're here to make country music the popular music for Daytona Beach and the Florida east coast" says Val Carter. Val, general manager of WELF, has launched an all-out campaign to promote country music in the listening area of his station. Of course Val needs your cooperation. . . . Another new member of the country music fold is WIXI-Birmingham, Ala. The station, which went on the air Dec. 6, is devoting 60% of its air time to our music. Tom Whitley is manager and Harold F. Burns is assistant manager. We bet they need records too. . . . Looks like this is the week for switchovers—WTIV-Titusville, Pa., has also joined the "club." Diane Mallery writes from the station that they need disks and promo material for their new country music show. The station is located at P.O. Box 184, Titusville. . . . Slick Norris in with the news that there's no need to worry over bookings for his stable of Liberty artists. Warren Smith is handled by Jim Denny, Ray Sanders works out of Curtis Artists and Bob Wills gets his dates from Sam Gibbs Ork Service. Slick's latest pop sheet lists Paul Williams' Decca outing as a side to watch. Knowing the accuracy of Slick's words, we pass the information to you. . . . With deepest sympathy, we record here the passing of Mrs. Pearl H. Benson. Mrs. Benson, or "Mom," as she was affectionately known to hundreds of musicians and ork leaders during her five years (1945-50) as matron at Seattle's Trianon and Aragon Ballrooms, succumbed to a heart attack Nov. 23rd. She was 71 years old. Mrs. Benson, was the mother of Arthur H. Benson, composer-publisher and president of Celestial Records and Grosvenor House (ASCAP). We know she will be missed by her hundreds of "adopted" sons and daughters.

The Country Music Association reported some 70 new members have joined the organization since mid-October, 40 of which were gained during the CMA's annual membership meeting (which was held in conjunction with the recent Nashville Festival). Discussed during the CMA executive committee meeting were ways and means of recruiting new members. Mrs. Jo Walker is now hard at work preparing a list of prospective new members. Are YOU one of them? . . . Lorne Harasen reports in from CJGX-Yorkton, Sas., that reception to their new country music format has been nothing short of fantastic. Lorne recently played host to on-the-air guests Marty Robbins, Bill Anderson, Jimmy Newman, Roger Miller, Stonewall Jackson and Warren Smith. That's quite a powerful lineup for one session. . . . Kenny Custer and his Cole Mountain Boys have signed a one year contract to appear on WFBG-Altoona, Pa. Kenny and his boys, which includes the Western Vagabonds, are a popular attraction throughout the western Pennsylvania area, playing to packed houses regularly. They're also heard regularly on WVSC-Somerset, Pa. . . . The Wright Talent Agency (Nashville) has a package consisting of the Carlises, Benny Martin, Bobby Sykes, Dick Flood and Miss Joyce Moore set to work the Carolinas and Georgia in January, and Ark., Mo., and Ill., through February. Joe Wright, of the agency, notes that the Carlises' new Columbia outing, "Skin 'Em Quick," looks like the strongest thing they've had in a long time. Isn't that what we said in our review of the disk? Copies of the record can be obtained by writing the agency at 909 Stahlman Building, Nashville. The agency is also interested in spreading the word (and disks) on the new Dick Flood sessions for Monument. They're tagged "Cowpoke" and "Carita." . . . Decca's Jimmy Martin looking for a good year-end success in "Old Fashioned Christmas" and "Hold to God's Unchanging Hand." Copies of the sides can be gotten from Gene Johnson, Hawley Bldg., Wheeling, W. Va.

Through the CMA, we pass the following requests for records on to those who can do something about it. In need of country disks are Wally Hoy of KDXE-Little Rock, Ark. Wally reports that the station is about to switch to an all-country format. Bret Steele of KBOY-Medford, Ore., also needs records for his four daily hours of country programming. . . . Tragedy has struck hard at Jimmy Simpson. Jimmy, who works out of KFQD-Anchorage, Alaska, was in the hospital fighting off a siege of double pneumonia when a fire completely destroyed his home. Luckily his wife and new-born baby were not hurt, but it looks like a tough winter ahead for Jimmy now. I'm sure he'd appreciate all the help he can get. . . . "The Dixie Jubilee," a live country show, has debuted as a regular Saturday night feature in the East Point Auditorium in Atlanta, Ga. Under the guidance of Ray Pressley, the show features Ralph Emery as emcee, presiding over such talent as Wilma Lee & Stony Cooper, Cowboy Copas, the Louvin Bros., George Hamilton IV, and Billy Byrd. (Looks like they've just moved the "Opry" a little further South.)

"Congratulations Yourself"

NASHVILLE — This "behind-the-scenes" photo shows Ray Price and Jim Reeves good-naturedly offering each other mutual congratulations on winning the Best Country Male Vocalist category in The Cash Box Juice Box Poll. The two artists tied each other for top honors. Though they record for different labels, they are in the same management stable—Curtis Artists.

'61 Could Be THE Year For A More Liberal Tax Depreciation

If one percent of what has been written about the possibilities of a more liberal tax depreciation for American business were converted into action we might see the potential of American business increased through expansion and greater production. This past year the subject has been given more editorial space than ever before and much of it has appeared in the consumer press as well as in the nation's business publications.

The Treasury Department recently completed a survey of American business to gain further insight into this problem. This past month 30,000 members of Research Institute of America, Inc. were polled with questionnaires along these same lines. RIA is a business advisory organization.

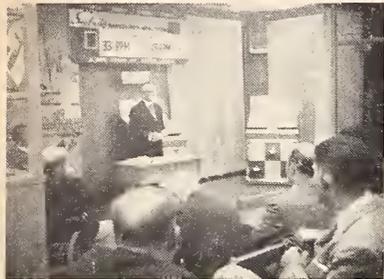

The recent national election prompted more than one major daily newspaper to comment on the eventuality of a more liberal tax write-off during President-elect John F. Kennedy's term in office. This note was brought about after pre-election campaign suggestions were made by the Democratic candidate to the effect that it would enable businessmen greater opportunity for growth.

The results of the aforementioned Treasury Department's survey were enlightening. They indicated that in almost every instance the change would stimulate growth and further production at the manufacturer's level. Eight of thirteen businesses would expand if the Government would allow a better tax break, advised the RIA survey results.

Last week the Investment Bankers Association heard from its members suggestions for a more liberal tax depreciation and the report pointed to the tremendous growth of Western Germany, a nation permitting its businessmen the freedom of charging reserves to earnings as they saw fit. The report stated that this has been a major factor in the growth and economy of the country as it stands today. The report also stated that this Government outlook has provided at one time both the incentive to build new plants and also a large part of the means of financing them.

A more liberal tax depreciation law would enable the entire coin machine industry to enjoy its benefits from the operator level on up. The road now seems shorter with Government agencies actually studying the situation and the new President already on record favoring such a change. Recent changes in Government spending both here and abroad might be the start of a program designed to stimulate greater spending here in the USA. Changes in present depreciation tax laws would certainly help to achieve this all-important goal. Perhaps 1961 will be the year we've been waiting for.

Atlantic Sponsors Op Forum To Aid Coinmen Solve Major Business Problems, Plan Future

Meyer Parkoff, Atlantic NY Corp.
"... ops must get more services"

NEW YORK—More than sixty operators turned out for what resulted in one of the most constructive business meetings in this area last Monday evening, December 5, when Meyer Parkoff, President of Atlantic New York Corp. sponsored an operator forum which covered accounting, banking, finance; legal and general business topics designed to further the operator in his own business. Experts in each field addressed the coinmen during a session that lasted all evening and was devoid of sales presentations and promotion pitches. The operators asked innumerable questions pertaining to the subjects, received professional answers from a banker, a lawyer and a certified public accountant, aired their gripes in each of these areas, and listened as the professionals from the business world advised them to "act like businessmen in a businesslike manner." Interest and enthusiasm on the part of the coinmen coupled with the willingness of the experts to assist them made the evening a huge success. Plans are being considered for periodic meetings of a similar nature.

Typical of the remarks from the floor following the meeting came from Mrs. Marcus Klein who stated, "I don't know when we've been treated to such a constructive business gathering before."

The coinmen were advised on accounting procedures by Joseph Klein, of Klein and Ziegler, Certified Public Accountants; Jacob Hendle, Manufacturers Trust Company discussed the manner of loans to small businesses; Jacob Schulder, Gibraltar Credit Corp. went into credit and finance problems; and Joseph Godman, legal counsel for the operators in this area talked on licenses and legal filing of business matters.

The accounting discussion took up a large part of the evening with Klein delving into depreciation and proper bookkeeping procedures. The CPA advised operators to expand their business or "stand still." He stressed the bookkeeping end of the business as it pertains to the profit side of the operator ledger and said "until you conduct your business properly you cannot expect to make the progress that will come about through efficient business practice. The small operator who doesn't keep up with modern times, new tax procedures, and modern equipment will eventually be swallowed up by big business."

Jacob Hendle, Mfrs. Trust Co.
"... proper procedure necessary"

Operators had a field day with Jacob Hendle of Manufacturers Trust throwing questions at the banker but the answers came back as fast. "Proper procedure is necessary in any bank before the bank will extend credit," said Hendle. He discussed the importance of loan application and relationship with the bank. Schulder, of Gibraltar Credit, covered the loans problem and opened the forum to general discussion after pointing out that location loans are costly to ops. Joe Godman closed the evening session with a discussion of "lost locations" through "transfer of ownership" and demonstrated the use of legal documents in combatting this problem.

When Parkoff opened the meeting earlier in the evening he commented that "... 1961 will be the year of resolute determination to be successful..." He stressed that the purpose of the meeting was to work toward a solution in the problem area as he outlined it. "Costs are going up... the manufacturer will get more for his product... the distributor will get more for his services... therefore the operator must get paid more for his services." Parkoff referred to news clippings to substan-

Operators had requested the meeting of Atlantic executives ever since a similar meeting was held several years ago. Judging from operator reaction Monday's forum will be the first of a long series if the operators have anything to say about it.

Rader Elected President Of Canteen Int'l.

NORVAL B. RADER

CHICAGO—The election of Norval B. Rader as President of Canteen International S. A., Geneva, Switzerland, wholly-owned subsidiary of Automatic Canteen Company of America, was announced last week by Frederick L. Schuster, Automatic Canteen Board Chairman.

Schuster said Rader will be directly responsible for all Automatic Canteen operations throughout the world, outside of the United States and Canada. Since 1959, Rader has been a Vice President of Automatic Canteen, a position he will continue to hold. His headquarters will remain at the Merchandise Mart in Chicago.

Schuster said the appointment of Rader is in line with Automatic Canteen's policy to expand its present vending operations in Germany, England, Belgium, Switzerland, Sweden and additional countries elsewhere in the world.

As an example of this expansion, Schuster noted that within the past few weeks Automatic Canteen Benelux, a branch of Canteen International, has been established in Antwerp, Belgium. Automatic Canteen Benelux will offer complete full-line vending services throughout Belgium, with plans for future expansion into Luxembourg and Holland.

ATE Preparations Are Underway

LONDON—Officials of the Amusement Trades Exhibition advised that preparations for the forthcoming ATE Convention to be held in the New Royal Horticultural Hall from January 31 through February 2 already indicate a full house once again. Last year's coin show in England did SRO capacity business and because another meeting place was not available for this year's convention the same facilities were scheduled for use once again.

The 1960 show was held after a government controlled period in England and with the relaxation of certain laws on coin machines together with an opportunity to show new equipment the ATE show broke records. It is expected to repeat in 1961.

Continental Vending Acquires Two More Operating Firms

Together They Do Volume Of About $5-6 Million

WESTBURY, N.Y.—Continental Industries, Inc. has expanded its vending operating division with the purchase of the routes, assets and equipment of two cigarette vending operating companies, Cigarette Service Corporation and Pyramid Vending Co., Inc., which jointly cover five cities, Harold Roth, Continental President, announced last week.

The cigarette routes acquired include Cigarette Service, Miami, Fla., and Pyramid's five operations which are: Ace Saxon, Miami, Fla.; Broward Vending, Broward County, Fla.; Rockwell Vending, Santa Ana, Calif.; Pyramid Vending Co., New York, N.Y.; and Champion Vending, Charleston, West Va.

In the purchase of these routes Continental acquired approximately 5,000 vending machines doing an annual volume between $5 million and $6 million, Roth stated.

"These are the first in a series of acquisitions we have in mind," he said, adding that it was his company's aim to accelerate its program of expansion in its vending operating division.

"The Cigarette Service and Pyramid acquisitions are substantial contributions to the development of Continental in the most profitable area of vending," Roth concluded.

Univ. Match Vending Machine Goes Into Montgomery Ward

Vends 36 Items and Accepts $1, $5 Bills

ST. LOUIS, MO.—Vending is making headway in leaps and bounds and Universal Match Corp. is responsible for some of its major inroads of late. The dollar bill currency changer which has received so much attention from the press this year has been utilized on a vending machine manufactured by National, a Universal subsid, and the machine which was originally tested in Macy's, NYC, will go into Rich's Department Store, Atlanta, one of the South's largest stores next week on a commercial basis. As a matter of fact the store will use six of the 36-item merchandisers which accepts $1 and $5 bills. Montgomery Ward is scheduled for installation soon.

The merchandiser accepts money in any combination of $1s, $5s, and coins up to $9.00, electronically identifies and validates the currency, and rejects counterfeits, foreign currency, and genuine bills of other than $1 or $5 denomination. It provides a selection of 36 articles of merchandise at 36 separate prices up to $9.00

The company anticipates that several thousand of the currency-handling mechanisms, a development of National Rejectors, will be in use within the next year in merchandisers, change-makers, ticket vendors, self-service wagering machines, and other applications.

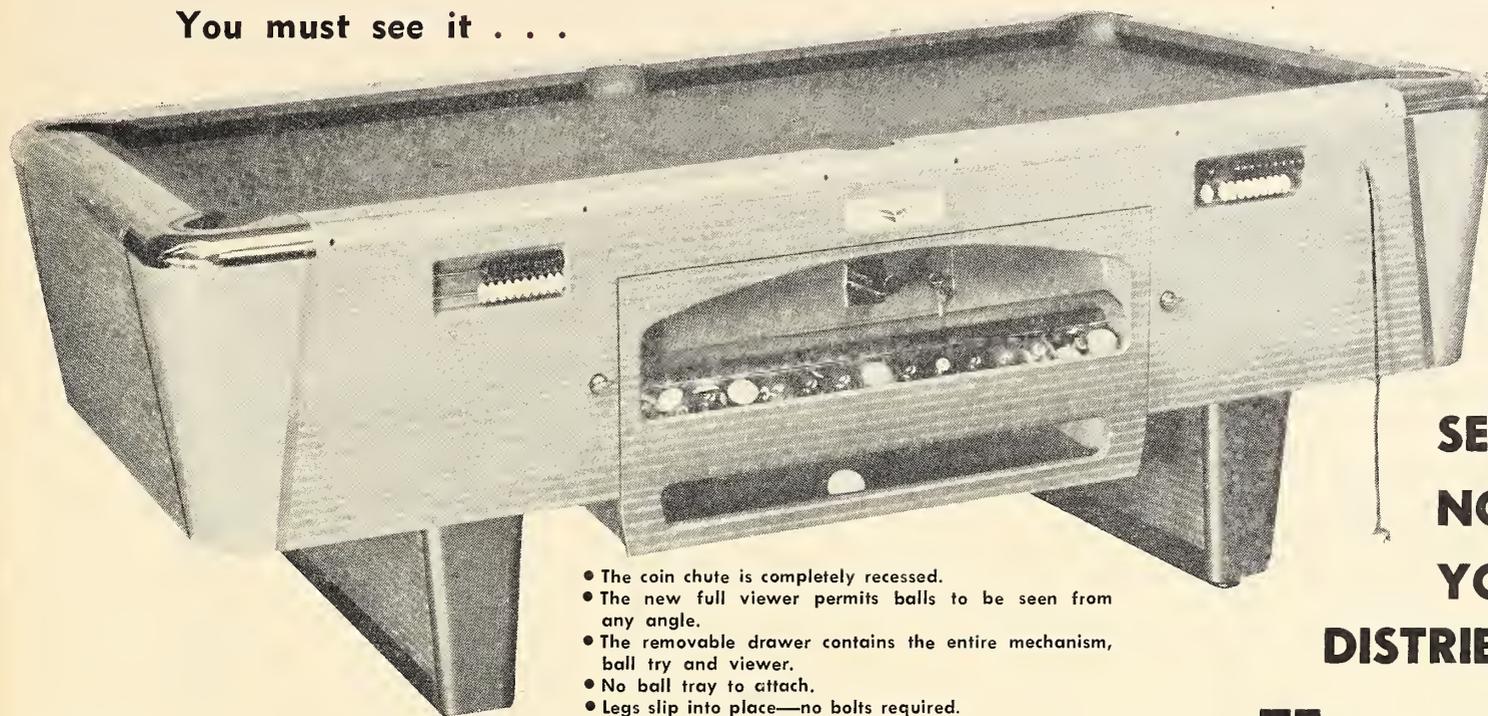

"This is the beginning of our intensive market testing of this new machine under actual conditions in selected locations," said John L. Wilson, President of the firm, "We have every confidence that it is also the beginning of a great new era in push-button shopping."

Special Air Filtering For Gottlieb Hospital

CHICAGO—New electrostatic air filtering equipment for Gottlieb Memorial Hospital is examined by leaders in hospital building drive at first event held in the hospital, a luncheon for 200 businessmen and physicians in hospital dining room at 8800 W. North Ave., Chicago. David Gottlieb, president, D. Gottlieb & Co., whose family foundation contributed $750,000 to build hospital, shows equipment to (l to r) Louis Zahn, President of West Towns Hospital Association, sponsors of new hospital; George Portes, west suburban pharmacist, who contributed $100,000 for hospital; Robert H. Skamfer, Vice-President of Richardson Co., plastic firm which has been large contributor to hospital; and Dr. Caesar Portes, Chairman of medical credentials committee.

Competing Ops Finally Agree—Get Married!

JACKSONVILLE, FLA.—Most operators with adjacent routes run into one another in the course of daily events and the meetings are not always favorable. However, differences are generally ironed out and the operators remain friends. However, two operators in this territory went all the way in patching up whatever difficulties they had—the ops married each other!

That's right, Bert Cliatt of Havana,

Florida, and Alice Martin, of Bainbridge, Georgia, just over the line, were married on Saturday, December 3.

The story was forwarded to us by D. J. Barton of the Bush Distributing Company. Incidentally, Barton advised that Bert called last week and advised him to transfer Alice's open balance to his account. He said she was throwing in her route as part of her trousseau!

NAMA Western Conference Exhibit Attracts 3500

70 Exhibitors Attend Meet Following Natl. Convention In Miami

LOS ANGELES—Attendance at the NAMA Western Conference & Exhibit held here at the Ambassador December 2, 3 and 4, required a second printing of the convention program and that in itself tells the story of the successful vending show which was scheduled on the heels of one of the largest NAMA Conventions in Miami Beach last month.

Attendance shattered all expectations and the automatic merchandising industry proved that it can support two major conventions in one year. About seventy exhibitors occupied more than one hundred exhibit booths and the attendance reached the 3500 mark.

The four evening clinics were attended by SRO crowds totaling between 250 and 400 people. As a matter of fact, several exhibitors advised that they had written more orders at the Western conclave than they had during the Miami meet.

The meeting was designed to attract manufacturers and suppliers from all over the nation to serve vending operators from a 13-State region, including Alaska and Hawaii.

While the visitors to the meeting were primarily from the West Coast the exhibitors were, for the most part, the same manufacturers and vending product suppliers as displayed at Miami's November show.

EASTERN FLASHES

Biggest attraction last week was Atlantic's Operator Forum staged in the Seeburg showrooms on Monday eve. with more than 60 operators turning out for talks by a lawyer, an accountant and a banker. First time the coinmen had the opportunity to throw questions at all three under the same roof. The results were gratifying, Meyer Parkoff who sponsored the forum, was very happy and he expects to announce more meets along similar lines at a later date. The operators were advised by the professionals to "operate and conduct your business in a business like manner. . . . This alone will help you in the loan and banking departments. . . ." It's about time the industry took notice of these important facets of business. Perhaps other groups throughout the country will follow suit. The more an operator knows about his business the better his chances are for success. As a matter of fact, that's exactly what Joe Klein, CPA, told the coinmen.

Of interest to operators in the Nassau-Suffolk area is the announcement this week by the US Govt. that Grumman Aircraft was awarded a $70 million contract. This ought to keep thousands of employees on the employed rolls for a while. Businessmen throughout the Long Island area are happy over the news especially at this holiday time of year.

The Westchester ops are holding their Christmas party on Monday, Dec. 19th, in place of the regular business meeting. A dinner for members and their employees will be held at the Top Hat Restaurant in North White Plains. All of the association's members are expected to attend the holiday event which is always a warm and friendly get-together. Seymour Pollak has everything arranged in order that the members enjoy themselves.

Continental Vending continues expansion moves with the purchase outright of two cigarette firms—Cigarette Service, and Pyramid Vending Co. Together the firms formerly covered five cities—Miami (Ace Saxon); Broward County (Broward Vending); Santa Ana (Rockwell Vending); Pyramid, in NYC, and Charleston, W.Va. (Champion Vending). About 5000 machines were involved in the purchase. The cig units were doing a volume of approximately $5-$6 million. Harold Roth, Continental Pres., claims this is only the beginning—"these acquisitions are substantial contributions to the development of our firm in this most profitable area of vending."

Harold Seidel, Allied Vending Company, Kingston, was awarded the "Fireman of the Year" trophy by his community at the annual dinner-dance held in November. Harold is Asst. Chief of the Spring Lake Fire Dept. Honor came on the heels of Harold's 25th Wedding Anny. which he and his wife celebrated on December 1st. The award reads ". . . for outstanding services and duties rendered above and beyond call of duty . . . contributed to community. . . ."

Irv Kempner off to the Catskills for some vacation and then to a solid week of work in the firm's Connecticut offices. Runyon Sales reports good activity on export sales with Morris Rood commenting on the fine acceptance of the AMI "Continental" juke box line. Perry Lowengrub is happy over the Irv Kaye "Klub Pool" sales and remarked that the Bally "Deluxe Jumbo" shuffle was still "the best in the business." Barney Sugarman spent the early part of week in Jersey. . . . Ted Seidel (no relation to Harold) strolling coinrow with several business deals in mind.

Irving Kaye has a new 6-pocket pool table on the market and according to Buddy Fox the game has caught the eye of distribs all over the country. They showed it in Chi and the result was a sellout. Now the production run will be shipped to distribs and ops will get a chance to view it. Still called "Eldorado" but the 3 models are named "Mark I," "Mark II," and "Mark III." Last model is the largest—92" x 52". No protrusions, coin chute recessed, steel corner pockets, sets up in five minutes on location, and top rail is all formica. Sounds like a winner for Kaye. Runyon handles it in NYC.

With RCA Victor announcing 33 singles for January we can expect all of the phonos to carry the 45-33 feature. Victor will press 45's and 33's simultaneously after issuing an initial batch of 25 early in Jan. They're currently getting the '33' idea into the hands of consumers via a 1 million toothbrush sale deal with Dr. West through retail outlets and a give-away program.

Mike Munves, never one to exaggerate, told us that he moved quite a few "Twirleybird" kiddie rides at the Parks Show and doesn't even have a sample left. The ride is a novel new helicopter idea and looked good from the start. The firm was also happy over "Reacto" response, a small counter game with a "quick nickel" idea that went over at the show. "Champ Grip-Test" just about sold out and a few are left on the showroom floor. Meanwhile, Mike and Joe keep arcade ops happy with regular shipments.

Surprise visitor to NYC—Romeo Laniel, AMI distrib in Canada. Into N'Yawk after a visit to Bermuda for some golf. Looked fine and sends regards to those he missed during his stop. . . . Dave Rosen into New York and a meeting with Al Simon. Both looked great and since they both handle ChiCoin equipment, why not? The new "Ray Gun" will be delivered next week and from response at the Parks Show it ought to go over big. Al Simon is displaying the new Rock-Ola 100-selection machine "wall phono" model. Has everything the larger Rock-Ola model has—smaller carriage for records, stereo, reverba-sound, takes wallboxes, comes with a bracket for easy wall installation. Al D'Inzillo was busy supervising installation on a Simon wall outside the Music Room.

Eddie Czajka, Danbury op, announces his wife is expecting. They just had a boy, will take a girl if there's a choice. . . . Abe Lipsky and Harry Koepfel, Libra Distribs, shipping Wurlitzers and used machines to a waiting list. . . . Meyer Parkoff and Murray Kaye, Atlantic NY Corp., loaded with ops looking to buy equipment and the paper work appeared to be bigger than ever. Planning meetings takes time and Atlantic has had showings, forums, and other outside activities eat into valuable time. Hence, the backlog of paper work and the unusually large number of ops doing business. . . . Bernie and Lou Boorstein, Leslie Distribs, have stock overburdened with regular shipments of innumerable labels and disks. An awful lot of product for the customers. And new names, new labels, and new firms still mushrooming. Takes a good businessman to separate the wheat from the flops and the Boorstein boys certainly can help the music ops with selections. Talk about service!

CHICAGO CHATTER

About this time every year the wordly-wise business prophets take over from the weather prophets. As a result business predictions commence to crop up everywhere. This condition is more prevalent now since business in general has not "been busting out all over" as most of us had previously hoped it would. However, industry leaders and some of the top drawer economy and stock market specialists predict that there will be a gradual acceleration in the business index commencing after the first of the New Year. On the basis of these predictions 1961 should show a marked improvement business-wise over 1960.

Here's an interesting note: Charles W. Wood, vice president and general merchandising manager of Montgomery Ward & Co., announced last Tuesday (12/6) that he plans to install on an experimental basis machines that will dispense clothing items. The machines, which accept both currency and coins, will be installed in two of Ward's full-time department stores in this area. Machine vending is certainly progressing. The machines are manufactured by Universal Match Co. (See story elsewhere).

Genial coinbiz veteran Roy McGinnis, president of J. H. Keeney & Co., is resting comfortably in Columbus Hospital. He entered the hospital early last week for observation. Paul Huebsch, vice president, advises that he is more than pleased with the acceptance everywhere of all of Keeney's upright amusement games. In this category he includes the "Red Arrow" single player, the multiple player "Deluxe Red Arrow," "Twin Red Arrow" 2-player, "Sweet Shawnee," and "Black Dragon" 3-way upright game. . . . Joel Stern and Len Micon hosted a swank dinner party Sunday, December 11, heralding the success of the Rock-Ola "Regis" phonograph promotion at Luigi's Restaurant. . . . Production at the Bally plant is humming along at a terrific pace running off a lot of "Touchdown" bingos. Bill O'Donnell, general sales manager, reports that sales are maintaining a high level daily on all Bally amusement games.

To hear Gil Kitt, owner of Empire Coin, and Joe Robbins, sales manager, tell it they have the hottest game in the country in Midway's "Shooting Gallery." Everybody's screaming for this terrific game, sez Joe. And this feeling is echoed by Jack Burns and Bill Herbord of the sales dept. . . . A trio of experts who happen to agree with Gil and Joe also are Hank Ross, Marcine (Iggy) Wolverton and Ralph Sheffield of Midway Mfg., who are manufacturing "Shooting Gallerys" as fast as they can to meet the heavy shipping schedules. Ralph asserts that it is the most popular game Midway has ever created for the trade.

Chicago Dynamics president Sam Wolberg and director of sales Art Weinand happily declare that they have a big winner and sales getter in Chicago Coin's new "Ray Gun." It is receiving terrific acceptance all over the country, according to Mort Secore and Art. . . . Proud parents, Mr. & Mrs. Howard Ellis (he's prexy of the Music Guild of Nebraska) are slightly jittery—as proud parents usually are—as they await the nuptials of their lovely daughter Judy, who weds Howard Sorensen December 18 in Omaha. . . . Seeburg prexy Delbert Coleman and Jack C. Gordon, vice president and head of the Seeburg phonograph division, were delighted over the success of the Seeburg two-day convention recently held for the benefit of their European outlets at the Spigarten Hall in Zurich, Switzerland.

We bid welcome to newsman Earl Finberg who recently joined The Public Relations Board, Inc. to serve as account exec for the Coin Machine Council. Finberg will work very closely with Ben Rogers who has been very capably directing CMC's public relations activities. . . . Best wishes to Richard Revnes, managing director of Chicago International Trade Fair, who resigned that position to enter private business, details of which will be announced at a later date. The Chicago Assn. of Commerce and Industry has not as yet replaced Revnes. . . . Prexy Sam Stern and vice president Sam Lewis are delighted over the action they have been getting with the new "Voice-o-Graph" recording and record vending machine following the Williams Electronic Mfg. showing of it at the recent Parks Show at the Hotel Sherman.

Alvin Gottlieb and Judd Weinberg, D. Gottlieb & Co., inform us that Gottlieb's "Flipper" has everybody in the plant flippin' over its continued very healthy sales activity. Also there is a realization permeating among the Gottliebs that the new Gottlieb Memorial Hospital will actually be completed on schedule (April 1, 1961). Lou Zahn, wealthy drug supplier and president of the West Towns Hospital Assn., assures us we'll get the thrill of a lifetime when we tour the hospital at completion and see the many wondrous new instruments and techniques the hospital offers its patients. . . . Memorial services were held Tuesday, December 6, for James Roling in DeKalb, Illinois. Young Roling, executive vice president of Wurlitzer Company, was lost and presumed dead following a plane crash over Lake Michigan with Wurlitzer's comptroller Robert Bruner and the pilot of the small cabin plane.

First Coin's Joe Kline infos that business is moving along at a steady pace. Of course, he says, people are too much concerned with their Christmas shopping right now to concern themselves with dropping coins in amusement games and juke boxes. Sam Kolber and Fred Kline are busy tending to export business. . . . Rock-Ola's George Hincker advises that Executive Vice President, Edward Doris and Bob Dunlap are on the west coast taking in the California automatic vending machine conclave, and they will then call on distributors throughout the area. Sales chief Frank Mitchell is calling on Rock-Ola's distributors in the southland, and Lester Rieck is covering the middlewest territories.

Bill informs us that "Minibowls" are coming off the line in the United plant as rapidly as they can possibly be produced exclusively for Len Edwards' Minibowl of America firm in St. Louis, which sets them up in multiple installations. . . . The rigors of bowling were painfully in evidence for Marvel Mfg.'s Estelle Bye last Wednesday. Estelle hobbled on stiff muscles after resuming her bowling after a layoff of several years. She is seriously thinking about taking up knitting after all. On the business agenda both Estelle and Marvel prexy Ted Rubey report that interest in "Lucky Horoscope" is growing by leaps and bounds in most of the European markets. Meanwhile the parts lines are moving very well also. . . . Mr. & Mrs. Frank Holys and Mr. & Mrs. "Doc" Strohs were host during the two day meeting of the Music Guild of Nebraska at the Evans Hotel in Columbus, Nebraska, December 3 & 4. . . . Games, Inc.'s Clarence Schuyler is absolutely flipping over the terrific sales results he is enjoying with Games' "Trail Blazer" electronic upright game.

Rowe-AMI Sales' Mike Spagnola reports that Charles Brinkmann and Ed Weiler are in town, and that business is holding very well. Right now most everybody is looking forward to a happy holiday season—and, he adds—he wishes everyone everywhere the same. . . . Wico's Ed Ruber is still out on the road covering a wide territory calling on the trade. . . . Al Warren, sales manager for Auto-Bell Novelty, informs us that Auto-Bell's "Hi-leaf" is racing like the dickens in some markets, and generally holding up very well on the sales charts.

Atlas Music's Nate Feinstein headed up a small group of Atlas staffers which hosted a showing of the 1961 Seeburg Phonograph, background music and vending lines at the Abraham Lincoln Hotel in Springfield, Illinois, November 29. Newell Bellamy was also on hand representing the Seeburg Corp. Other Atlas staffers beside Nate were Bill Phillips and Irv Ovitiz. Operators in attendance included such Illinois notables as Les Montooth, Pete Westermeyer, Ed Gilbert, George Rademaker, Floyd Altman, Bob Rose, Joe Yaegel, Bud Hashman, Tunny Heffernan, Dwain Kramer, Gus Camdioto, Roscoe & Fritz Bentler, Vince Salvo, Tony Zito, Lou Edmiston, and many, many more. . . . We're delighted to learn that the Standard-Harvard "Metaltyper" came in for its fair share of activity on the exhibit floor during the recent Parks Show. Henry Barnas and Andy Wierdak echo the above sentiment. . . . Don't forget to get your copy and news items in on time for the big "International Quarterly Export" and gala Christmas edition!

Universal Announces Production On 2000 Self-Service Ticket Vending Machines Loew's Theater Tests Vendor In NYC

ST. LOUIS, MO.—A production program covering 2,000 automatic currency acceptance and change making devices for use in a wide variety of self-service ticket vending machines, was announced jointly today by John L. Wilson, president of Universal Match Corporation, and M. Mac Schwebel, president of Universal Controls, Inc.

"As the result of a survey just completed jointly by Universal Match and Universal Controls," they said, "it is anticipated that a minimum of 2,000 vending devices should be put into use by Universal Controls through lease during 1961."

Wilson stated that "so great is our confidence in the immediate future of the application of Vendaticket for theaters and other uses, that these components are being produced for incorporation into devices for immediate installations and as they are needed."

Other uses will be by Universal Controls' American Totalisator division in its self-service pari-mutuel wagering machines.

Vendaticket has been accepted for installation soon in the Loew's Theater chain. In addition to this application, Vendaticket is now being further developed for use in the sale of bus and railroad tickets, admissions to stadiums, recreation parks, and the sale of insurance by vending machines.

"We look forward to the time," Schwebel said, "when Vendaticket will replace the more than 10,000 motion picture theater ticket issuing machines, now manually operated by Automaticket, and supplied over the last 25 years by General Register Corporation, a Universal Controls' subsidiary."

"With the advent of Vendaticket, a patron will walk into the lobby of a theater, insert the appropriate amount of bills or coin up to $9.00, press in a button indicating the type and number of tickets required—such as for adults or children—and almost instantaneously Vendaticket will identify the currency, issue the appropriate tickets, and return the exact change in bills and coin."

Wilson stated that "our development of a machine that will identify $1, $5, $10, and $20 bills in a single unit will further accelerate and expand the use of Vendaticket."

A test machine was on location in New York's Loew's 175th Street Theater last week and reports indicated that it will remain there until such time as the machine has withstood various test patterns.

Kaye Ships New 6-Pocket Table

BROOKLYN, N.Y. — Irving Kaye, head of Irving Kaye Company, Inc., manufacturers of pool tables and other coin-operated amusement machines, last week advised that deliveries were being made to all distributors on the firm's new 6-pocket game "Eldorado." The game carries the same name as a previous model but the entire design is different. The machine is available in three sizes—Mark I, 77"x45"; Mark II, 82"x46"; and Mark III, 92"x52". "Eldorado" is available in platinum grey or mahogany.

Probably the most radical change in the design is the presence of a ball viewer and coin chute on the side of the machine rather than on the end of the table. "We've recessed all parts that formerly protruded," said Kaye from his Brooklyn plant last week. "This enables clean smooth lines from all angles. The full viewer of formed plexiglass permits a clear view from every angle as well." The ball tray is an integral part of the machine and will sustain the weight of two men.

IRVING KAYE

"It's unbreakable," commented Kaye. Kaye also stated that the removable front makes accessible the entire mechanism—ball tray, coin chute and viewer.

Corners are constructed of 16 gauge steel stamping finished in high polished brass and chrome. No hardware is required. Legs slip into place for installation on location. "The table will be set up without any trouble in about five minutes," said Kaye. "It's an operator's delight and we're feeling the success already." The top rail of the table is formed formica.

Kaye advised that while the firm's distributor network is capable of broad national sales, several territories were open for additional sales representatives.

Midway's 'Shooting Gallery' Scores; Chi Firm Appoints New Distributors

CHICAGO—Ralph Sheffield, general sales manager for Midway Manufacturing Company, Franklin Park, Illinois, advised this past week that the firm's "Shooting Gallery" rifle-target amusement game is receiving "the kind of acceptance all over the country we certainly did not anticipate at any time during its development."

Sheffield explained that several of Midway's distributors have already claimed that "Shooting Gallery" is maintaining a high level of sales constantly. Exciting play features, appealing design and the low price for the amusement game are attributed by Midway's management as the prime reasons for the immediate success of the gun.

Sheffield continued by saying, "Shooting Gallery" has been already approved by civic officials for licensing in New York, Chicago and Detroit."

"Shooting Gallery" is housed in a trim, compact plexiglass encased (at the upper section) cabinet. The lower portion is illustrated with target (bulls-eye) symbols. The target area at the rear of the cabinet features animal targets such as "ducks," and "owls", which move in a horizontal back and forth motion. A "bear" moves in an erratic horizontal motion and is the most important scoring target of the game.

Sheffield refers to Midway's "Shooting Gallery" as a "100% game of skill," and points up the spectator appeal since it appears as a miniature replica of a huge carnival shooting gallery.

He further explained that the gun actually shoots 11/16 inch plastic balls at targets.

"This is the first time, to my knowledge, that a gun was designed to actually project pellets at targets in this type of amusement equipment," Sheffield stated.

"Shooting Gallery" measures 20 inches in width, is 66 inches deep, and 64 inches in height. It is sturdily mounted on well-balanced tapered legs.

Sheffield announced the appointment of David Rosen Company in Philadelphia to handle distribution throughout the eastern section of Pennsylvania for Midway Manufacturing Company.
