Thirty-one percent of 12-24 year-olds say they are listening less to radio because of more commercials. Even more disturbing, time spent listening is down 14 percent among 18-24 year-olds over the past six years, 11 percent among teens 12-17, and 10 percent with 25-34 year-olds. What should radio do now to address these concerns?

Entercom Scoops Up Sinclair Radio

In an $821.5 million dollar cash deal that makes it one of radio's top five groups, Entercom has signed a letter of intent to acquire 43 radio stations in nine markets from Sinclair. The deal excludes Sinclair's St. Louis radio cluster, which is pending sale to Emmis (fmaq 7/2).

After both deals close, Baltimore-based Sinclair will have completely left the radio fold to concentrate on TV, while Philly-headquartered Entercom will have blown past Cox (reported to have also bid on Sinclair) to emerge as radio's fifth largest operator, based on 1998 proforma revenues.

Sweetening the deal is a promise by Entercom to also purchase $5 million worth of advertising on Sinclair's TV properties (59 stations in 38 markets) over a five-year period, and to fork over up to $2 million for capital improvements at Sinclair properties.

Entercom and Sinclair only overlap in one market, Kansas City, where Entercom already owns seven stations (with a CP for expanded-band KBJC). Add to that the four stations they're picking up from Sinclair, and some divestitures will be required. The other eight markets are all new ones for Entercom: Milwaukee, Norfolk, New Orleans, Greensboro/Winston-Salem, Buffalo, Memphis, Greenville-Spartanburg, and Wilkes Barre-Scranton (see chart on page 8).

"The Sinclair acquisition is in furtherance of our stated growth strategy," Entercom

Chairman/CEO Joseph M. Field remarked. "It will significantly enlarge and expand Entercom's platform to include 12 of the Top 50 markets, and will enhance the company's geographic diversity by adding new markets in the Northeast, Southeast and Midwest to complement our position of market leadership in the Pacific Northwest."

"The Sinclair station group is an excellent strategic fit with Entercom, and will significantly enhance our reach by adding eight new markets, including six Top 50 markets," Entercom President/COO David J. Field added. "Entercom is acquiring several outstanding cluster positions, including the number one position in four new markets."

"We value this transaction with Entercom at 20 times our

Bonadonna Exits WMMR To Pursue Other Interests

After 22 years at WMMR/Philadelphia (including nine as Program Director), PD Joe Bonadonna has resigned to pursue other opportunities. Joe has been with WMMR for 22 of the station's 31 years, leading WMMR to many successes in various capacities. A number one-rated afternoon personality since 1977, Bonadonna served as MD and APD from '81 to '90, and PD from '90 to the present.

Joe received numerous awards in broadcasting while at WMMR, including PD Of The Year in 1993 and 1998. During his time as Program Director, he helped the station to grow and thrive despite consolidation, fragmentation and strong market competition. In the most recent Spring Arbitron, WMMR improved 12 percent in both 12+ and 25-54 ratings, and 22 percent in 18-34 ratings.

No PD replacement has been named by the station. According to GM Rick Feinblatt, the Heritage Rock station will stay on course with no format flip anticipated. Ken Zipeto will continue in his role as WMMR MD. Assisting Ken with music will be Chuck D'Amico, who has been working at Greater Media sister station WXXM, aiding in that station's full conversion from Modern AC to "Jammin' Gold." Chuck was MAX's MD prior to its format flip.

Simulcasting Will Never Be The Same

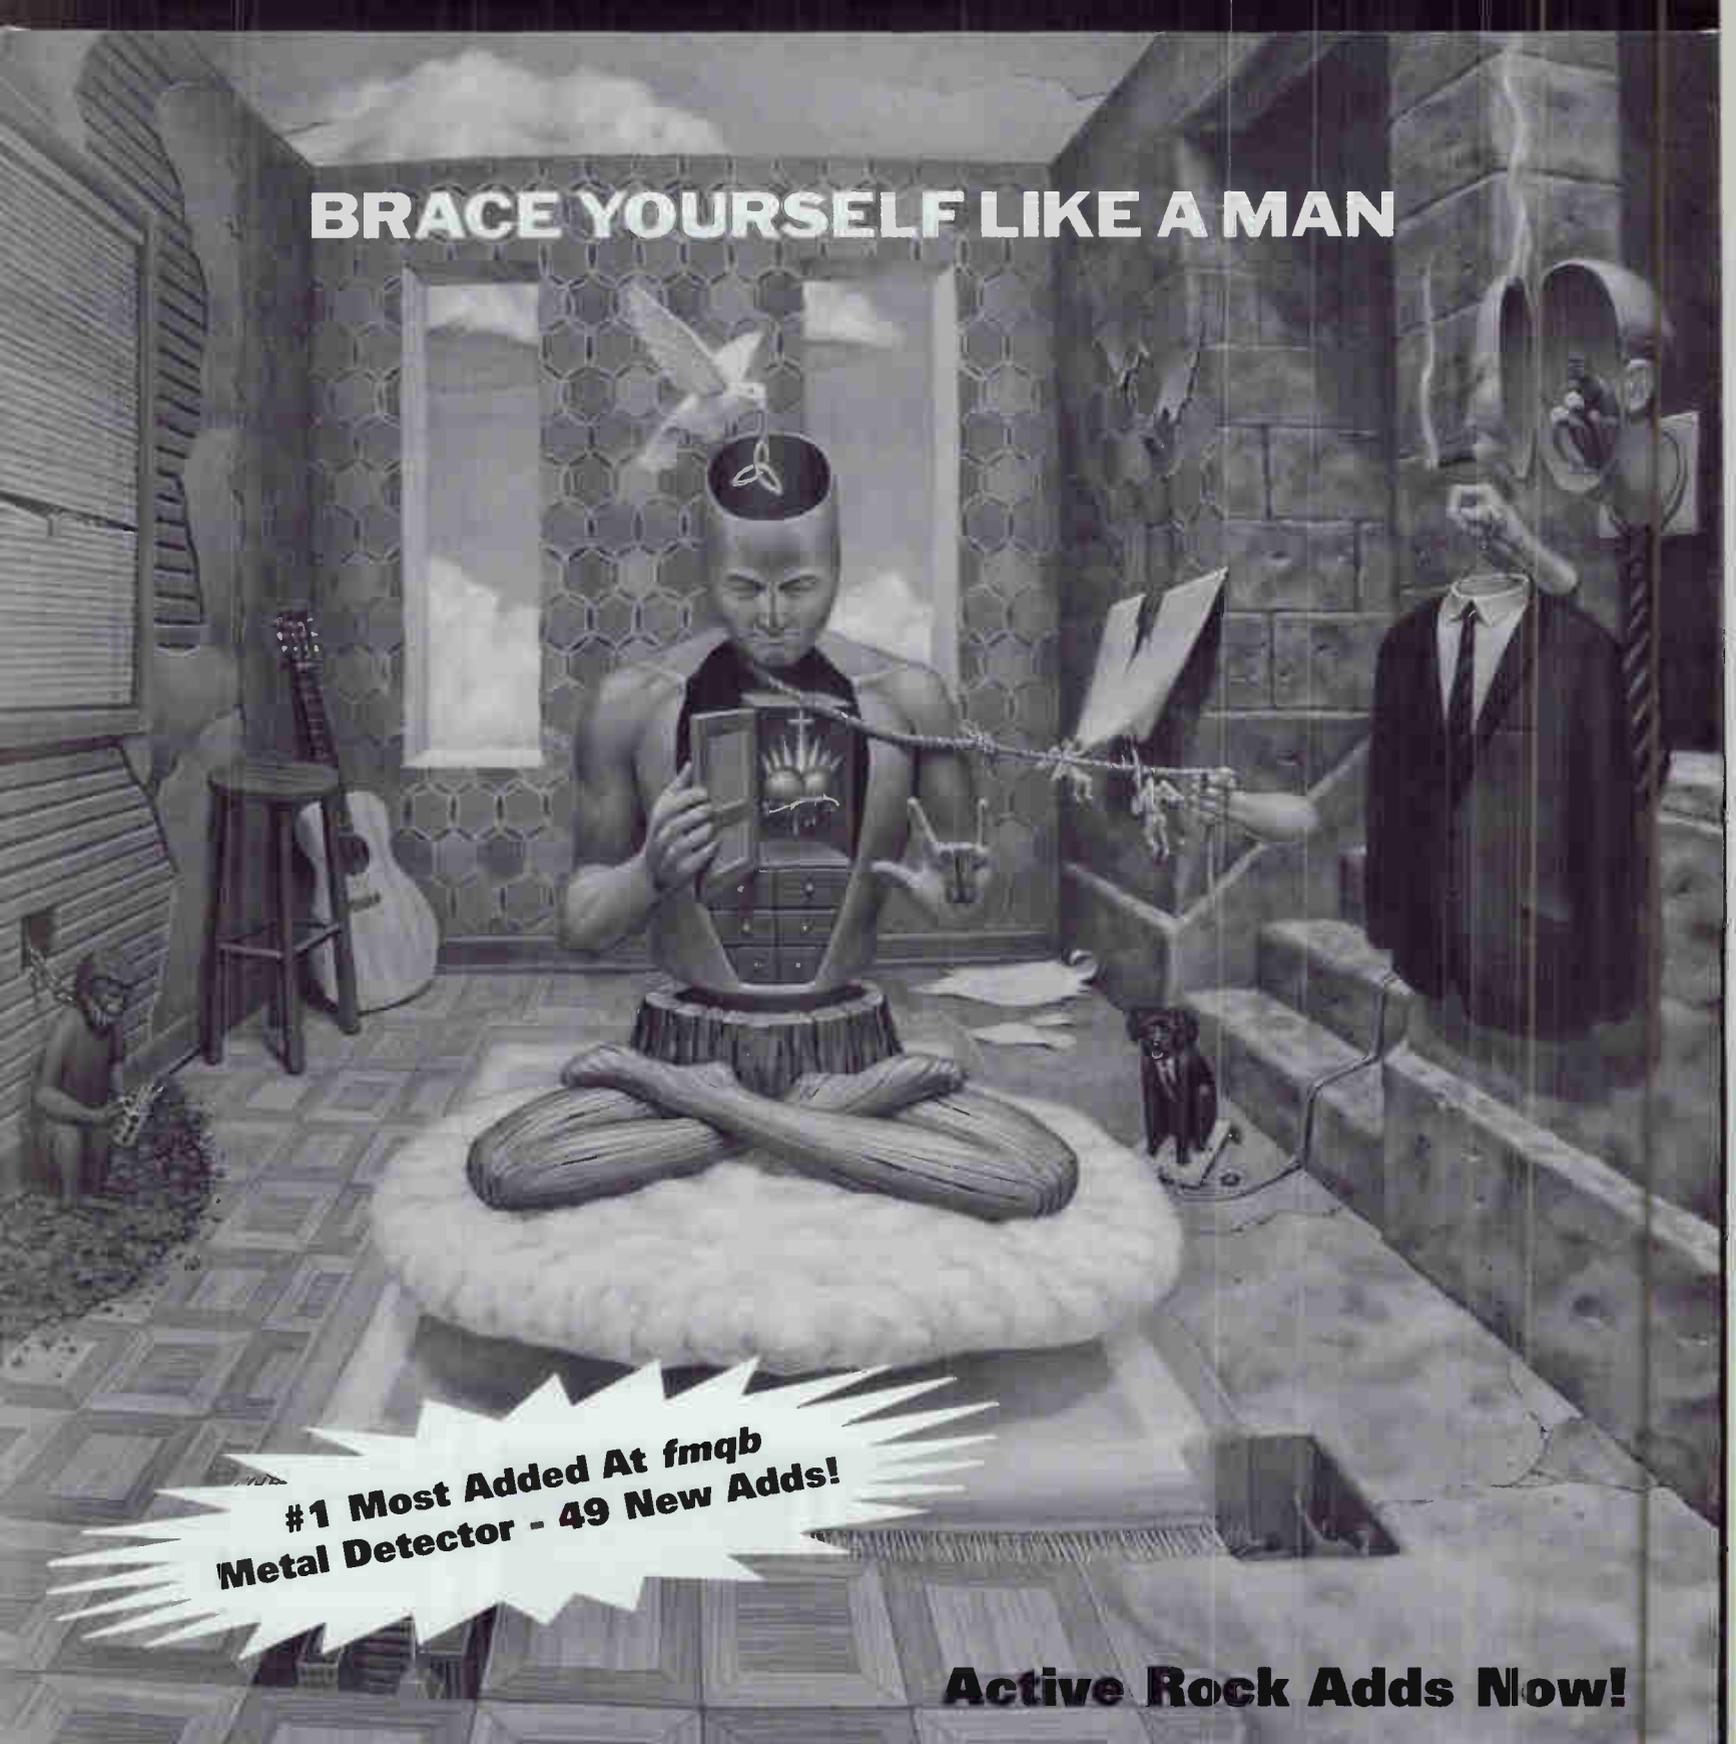

Stations that simulcast, listen up: Arbitron is changing the way it reports your ratings, beginning with the Fall '99 survey. For the first time ever, there won't be any limit on the number of partners in a simulcast combo. What's more, stations that meet 100 percent simulcast status can have their numbers reported with a combined total-line only in all Arbitron services. Simulcasters that don't meet the definition (or those that do, but don't want total-line only reporting) will get only individual station estimates in "the book," Arbitrends, MaximiSer and Media Professional services. In other words, you get total-line only or individual estimates — not both. And, in what will make for some funky looking Fall '99 market reports, Arbitron initially will not generate "back data" for stations that elect total-line only reporting.

Here's the new simulcasting policy, blow-by-blow:

- No limit to the number of simulcast partners. (Combos are currently limited to two partners.) Simulcast partners may join or leave the combo from survey to survey. Stations must

Universal Concerts Sold To House Of Blues

Seagram has sold its Universal Concerts unit to House Of Blues Entertainment for approximately $190 million in cash and assumed debt. Universal Concerts controls 20 concert venues in the United States and Canada. However, under the terms of the deal, Seagram will retain ownership of the Universal Amphitheatre on the lot of Universal Studios in Hollywood. House Of Blues will operate the venue under a long-term lease.

Universal Concerts President Jay Marciano and his management team will join the House Of Blues management team as part of the agreement. In addition, Universal's online joint venture with BMG, GetMusic.com, will become the exclusive e-commerce provider for House Of Blues online properties, and will receive support for the launch of its Digital Media Distribution system.

For Seagram, the deal is part of a sell-off of non-core assets to help retire debt incurred in its $10 billion purchase of PolyGram last year. For House Of Blues, it's about broadening beyond the seven

House Of Blues clubs to compete with SFX Entertainment, which has 82 venues and was a bidder for Universal Concerts.

"Jay Marciano and the Universal Concert management team have built one of the premier live event divisions in the business and we thank them for their tremendous achievements," Universal Music Group President/COO Zach Horowitz commented. "We look forward to working closely with them and House Of Blues in this new relationship."

"We've created a powerhouse of a company through this acquisition," House Of Blues Entertainment President/CEO Greg Trojan added. "HOB is the only live entertainment company that can offer the artist exposure from the small club level through to an amphitheater, partnered with live digital broadcasts over the Internet."

The transaction should close before the end of September.

THE Y2K CHECKLIST

by Joe Moss

January 1, 2000 is now just months away, and if you believe the alarmists, airplanes will be falling from the skies, elevators will refuse to work, and people will be running for the hills with jugs of water and supplies just in case all of the world goes, well, OFF. While there's no reason to panic, some systems will be impacted as a result of software that doesn't compute the year "00" properly. Here's a look at what you can do to avoid the unexpected in January.

Just what is the Y2K Bug? Many computers use software that tracks dates with only the last two numbers of the year, such as 97 instead of 1997. When 00 comes up for the year 2000, some computers will view it as 1900 instead, potentially leading to failures in business, transportation, utilities, and other services.

Here are a few ways to make sure you're protected and don't have any surprises on your personal computer when the big ball drops:

Test your hardware and software. Make sure that any critical software you use is "Y2K Compliant." This means scheduling and accounting software, and software and computer systems that are used to run your phone system, security systems, transmitter equipment, etc. There are online resources that will tell you if specific programs, products and services are Y2K Compliant. The Y2K

Compliance Database for Consumers at www.y2kbase.com is a comprehensive database of information. There is some free software you can download to check your PC's hardware such as Y2K Test for a quick test, or Check 2000 PC Deluxe for a more thorough test. These programs will check your computer's bios and clock for compliance. (You'll find links to download these programs on the fmqb Web site at www.fmqb.com). Have your IS department check all your PCs and servers for compliance.

If you would prefer to manually check your computer rather than use these programs, or if you just want to double-check to make sure everything is okay, do the following:

- Update your BIOS if necessary. Figure out which version of which BIOS you're using — the information usually appears when you boot the PC. Armed with your BIOS version, look on the Web site of the company that manufactured your PC to see if it has posted any warnings about your particular BIOS. Check with a BIOS firmware manufacturer, such as Micro Firmware (www.firmware.com), to see if it has any additional information on your BIOS.

- Run the Clock Forward. Advance your PC's clock to some date in the year 2000 to see if your system will continue to work. (To do this, double-click on the time in the lower right corner of the Windows 95 or 98 screen and roll the date forward.) If you want to give your PC a thorough exercise, you should test three specific situations. First put the clock at 11:59 p.m., December 31, 1999, and let it run for a couple of minutes to make sure the year 2000 rollover works correctly. Then set the clock to 11:59 p.m., December 31, 2000, and make sure the year 2001 rollover works. Finally, reboot the PC while it still thinks it's January 1, 2001, and see if the change takes.

You should also contact everyone with whom you do business — your employer, bank, and broker for personal use; your suppliers for business — to be sure there will be no interruption of service.

At home and at work, be sure to keep paper records of all transactions in case data gets lost.

You can find more information about Y2K at the Year 2000 Information Center, at <http://www.year2000.com/>

Infinity Drops Suit Against Greaseman

Infinity has dropped a $100,000 lawsuit against former WARW/Washington morning man Doug "The Greaseman" Tracht, agreeing instead to resolve differences over his exit via binding arbitration. The suit, filed in May, sought to recover station revenues lost when outraged advertisers canceled buys in the wake of racist remarks made by the controversial personality on February 24 (fmqb 2/26, 3/5). Infinity fired Tracht the next day. Attorneys for both parties negotiated over severance terms for months, and the exiled jock continued receiving paychecks until May, when talks broke down and Infinity filed suit. AFTRA intervened in July, saying its collective bargaining agreements with Infinity override Tracht's employment contract and stipulate that employment disputes must be resolved through arbitration.

Among the likely issues arbitrator Herb Fishgold will decide at the September 27 hearing: Was Tracht properly fired and properly denied severance pay? Infinity's position, as stated in its lawsuit, is that Tracht's racist comments rendered his contract null and void. AFTRA, representing Tracht, is expected to lay some of the blame on Infinity. "It's not a question of whether he should stay on the air, that's CBS' decision," AFTRA Washington-Baltimore General Counsel Tom Powers tells fmqb. "If you investigate all the facts, you will find that CBS walks into this thing, in my opinion, without clean hands. They create these shock jocks. They're hired by corporations, [and] put on the air to make money." Powers also maintains Infinity had an obligation to work the eight-second delay button.

Tracht had just begun the second year of a three-year deal with Infinity that was to have paid him an average of $808,000 annually.

EMI Music Publishing Buys Windswept

EMI Music Publishing has acquired a significant portion of Windswept Pacific Music Co. for $200 million and the assumption of some liabilities. EMI gains the copyrights to 40,000 songs recorded over the past 50 years, including such classics as "Louie Louie," "Shout," and "La Bamba." The Windswept collection also includes the rights to lyrics from John Mellencamp, Willie Nelson, K.C. & The Sunshine Band, and the late Ronnie Van Zant, among others. Windswept is hanging on to Hitco Music Publishing and its arrangement with LaFace Records President L.A. Reid, as well as agreements with Pete Townshend and Gregg Allman and other songwriters.

USA Digital Strikes Deal With Texas Instruments

USA Digital has announced a deal with Texas Instruments to integrate USA Digital Radio's software with Texas Instruments' programmable digital signal processors (DSP) for use in AM/FM radio receivers. The two companies will work together to develop and market DSPs to incorporate into USADR's In-Band On-Channel Digital Audio Broadcasting Technology (IBOC DAB).

radio division's 1999 expected adjusted EBITDA," Sinclair CEO David Smith commented. "This deal dramatically highlights the value of our radio division."

The next stop on the road to closing is a three-week final negotiation and due diligence period. Then come the regulatory hurdles: both the FCC and the DOJ must bless the deal, along with the boards of each company. The deal isn't expected to close until Thanksgiving. Once it does, Entercom expects to own or operate at least 82 stations in 16 markets.

inform Arbitron (via Station Information Packet or letter) of their simulcast partners and hours each survey.

- Stations can elect to be reported with a combined total-line only in all Arbitron reporting services, provided they meet the criteria for 100 percent simulcast status:

100 percent Monday-Friday 6 a.m.-midnight (including commercials) and at least 91 percent Saturday-Sunday 6 a.m.-midnight. That means you can concurrently break simulcast on weekends for no more than three hours and fifteen minutes. Simulcasters pick one station's call letters to be reported on the total-line. Total-liners will not get individual estimates in any form.

- Stations that don't meet the 100 percent definition will receive only individual station estimates. The same goes for stations that meet the 100 percent rule but don't want total-line reporting.

- Arbitron won't initially generate "back data" for stations that choose total-line only reporting. The first time your total-line ratings appear, there won't be any prior survey numbers or four-book averages for your combo. Trends will build over time. For example, if you go with total-line only in Fall '99, you won't see a four-book average until Summer 2000.

- Prior survey trends will track the combo, regardless of which individual stations comprise it in a given survey.

- Simulcast combos in dual metros can be reported as home to only one metro. The partners choose which one it is.

- Total-line only reporting won't be reflected in Phase I and II Arbitrends unless the combo was reported that way during the preceding survey.

Arbitron stresses that all of this makes filling out the Station Information package more important than ever. Fall '99 forms are set to mail on August 5; they're due back at Arbitron on August 23. Another footnote: Minimum reporting standards remain unchanged. For more information, go to www.arbitron.com.

KIIS Launches New Internet Initiative

Clear Channel's KIIS/Los Angeles has entered into a unique new strategic Internet venture with radio Web content provider InXsys Broadcast Networks, a division of BuySellBid.com. Dubbed KIISFMi, the new site will go well beyond touting station promotions and streaming the station's signal. Original audio and video programming will be featured, forming completely new alternative programming defined as "Next Top 40," and "a new media for a new generation." Interviews, new music showcases, breaking music, video entertainment, and lots and lots of interactivity will be served up on KIISFMi (www.kiisfmi.com), which is scheduled to debut Labor Day weekend.

In addition to spreading the appeal of the station and its personalities worldwide, the new site will also integrate the services of BuySellBid.com, including online classifieds, auctions, personals, and e-commerce. Celebrity-signed items from guests appearing on the Rick Dees morning show can be bid on through the site. In addition, discussions are underway to develop programming in other languages, based on the popularity of KIIS in Japan and other countries.

"We believe the creation of a new life-form exclusively for the Internet medium is a key addition to our existing Clear Channel-exclusive KIISFM.com audio stream," said Roy Laughlin, GM of KIIS. "Simulcasting AM programming on FM radio in the '70s was effective initially. FM quickly developed its own unique programming, as is the case for KIISFMi."

The business model creates revenue by selling advertising and utilizing e-commerce. Additionally, the site will develop income from the sale of user information. Research tools on the site can be utilized for music tests, and target demo "likes and dislikes," which can then be sold to record labels and other broadcasters. Other marketing and revenue opportunities include other forms of research, net distribution - which will include all 650 Clear Channel sites - and satellite distribution for planet-wide audio/video reception.

Eventually, KIISFMi will be joined by other channels offering multiple formats, including Rap and Urban from Detroit, Country from Nashville, Hispanic from Miami, and Hard Rock from New York. Next up: XTRAI, a Hard Rock format Internet station aimed at the core listeners of Clear Channel's Southern California XTRA Sports Network.

Improving Your Internet Strategy

At Jacobs Media, we've spent the last few years learning what the Internet could do for us. Recognizing the trends, understanding what the users really want, and seeing where the potential revenue stream was coming from. The bottom line? The Internet can be a collaborator, or a competitor — it's here and will continue to be there. The choice is yours.

Therefore, we've developed two key strategies. The first is to develop a plan, and we've created a 12 step outline as an onramp to the Information Superhighway. The second is to have a key player in charge of the plan: an Internet PD. We've also developed an outline for that individual's roll as well as skills they should possess.

The Internet is still developing, and the ground rules are constantly changing. Having a solid course of action and a person in charge of the plan go a long way toward making your Web site not just another bump in the road, but a serious contender in an online world.

12 Steps to a Successful Internet Program

1) Develop a Separate Budget

The worst answer is to do it all on trade. You will have staff, hardware and service-related needs. Much like festival planning, this requires a different skill set than traditional radio. Be realistic about your ROI, but get started now.

2) Design The Department

You have to find the right personnel, as well as find a hosting partner. Involve all the department heads of your radio station (Programming, Sales, and Promotions). The most important objective: Build the site for your users — not your company's organizational chart.

3) Hire An Internet Program Director

(See job description below) Without a solid leader, your site will flounder. It's an investment - but it will pay off in the long run. You need a real product manager to take this department over — not just "extra staff" or interns.

4) Find A Solid Hosting Company

Treat them as a partner — they are deeply involved with your success in this project. Treat this process like you would hiring any major employee. DO NOT JUST DO IT ON TRADE!

5) Develop A Position For Your Site

Keep in mind the concept of the Entertainment/Commerce Portal. Just like a strategic lane for your radio station, you also need to fill a hole in the online market.

6) Make The Internet Part Of EVERY Meeting

Be certain you aren't missing chances to bring on-air promotions to the Web site, and find new ways to utilize the Web to make your on-air presence stronger. Missed opportunities mean missed growth — and revenue!

7) Create Online Events

This isn't just about cybercasting "Whatever-Fest." Think of exclusive online events that can relate to on-air happenings or otherwise. Maximize the visual aspect of the Internet that traditional radio lacks.

8) Integrate Sales And Be Open To Strategic Partners

The creation of a separate sales staff must be in the initial plan, similar to dedicated NTR people. Also, partner with sources your audience wants - whether it's an "Extreme Travel" agency or a financial planner with a Gen X focus.

9) Be Prepared For Your Site To Evolve

It's a living, breathing thing. As technology changes, so will your site. As your consumers become more 'Net savvy, their needs will change. Keep up with new technologies (Cable and DSL).

10) Act Locally, Think Globally

Start locally — but keep in mind the Internet is a global medium. Don't limit yourself to city "X," but DO target city "X." Your future could be as a global entertainment source — but it has to start with your local efforts.

11) BE FIRST!

Ries & Trout said it: It's not who's BEST, it's who's FIRST. Don't do a half-hearted job on the rollout / rebuild, but get it done now. There is plenty of time to get better, but limited time to be first.

12) Consider Advertising Online

You already have one of the strongest off-line mediums on your team: Radio. But, "fish where the fish are." Develop online advertising with a contest angle to drive site usage and actual listening. Look into FastBlast.com.

The Internet Program Director Job Description

- Must Know The Internet - You don't just want the best code writer. You can hire-out or rely on your hosting company for that. This person should have a basic understanding of the technology and software, but it's more important that they understand content than code!
- Oversee development of content and purpose of site, define its "strategic lane."

- Use the Web site as a marketing tool to enhance traditional station images, features, and audience.
- Develop strategic alliances and form business relationships with online (and off-line) partners.
- Integrate the marketing and content of the site into traditional on-air programming.
- Develop and oversee Web-only content to co-exist with traditional radio - content that takes the radio station to the next level of visual and interactive capabilities.
- Help generate sales revenue via the Web. Develop promotional and E-commerce plans.
- Turn the site into a virtual storefront. Convert your listeners into consumers.
- Develop programs that can help the entire cluster or group. Similarly, use the cluster/group as leverage in the development of entertainment value, sales revenue, and E-commerce.
- Stay on top of leading edge-technology, new content tools and services that are available, from new options in E-Commerce and products that target user's lifestyle to the influx of broadband.
- Skills to look for in an Internet PD:
 - Product development experience (PD, Print Editor, Web Developer).
 - Graphic/Design background.
 - Solid understanding of the entertainment industry (radio specifically), and its client base.
 - Management experience and ability to handle deadlines.
 - Understanding of an advertising and product-driven economy. It can't be all about content with no vision of what sells, or more importantly how to sell.
 - Ability to develop Web sites using many of the industry-wide development tools.
 - Proven skills in the areas of pre-sales, customer relations, and product development/marketing.
- Successful record of identifying and capturing new business
 - Client-oriented, with ability to build rapport and relationships with new and existing customers.
 - Experienced in planning and delivering information and promotional presentations.
 - Strong writing, training and communication skills.

Woodstock Wrap-Up

Red Hot Chili Peppers

The all-star tribute to Jimi Hendrix never materialized (footage of Hendrix playing "The Star Spangled Banner" and some lasers was all the tribute he received). The concert site burned like a scene from Apocalypse Now during and after the Red Hot Chili Peppers closing set on Sunday evening, thanks to a reported half-dozen bonfires which blazed out of control. Woodstockers began looting everything in sight while the fires raged, prompting the arrival of the New York State Police in full riot gear to restore order. And bags of ice went for $15. Aside from that, it was all about the music at Woodstock '99, which truly featured a little something for everyone. From James Brown's funky kick-off on Friday (23) afternoon, right on through the Chili Peppers fiery closing set on Sunday (25), concertgoers were treated to over 50 acts, both new and established, on several stages. Saturday night's testosterone-fueled line-up of Metallica, Limp Bizkit, Rage Against The Machine, and Kid Rock proved to be the most moshpit friendly. While Sunday performers like Willie Nelson (who opened the final day after Al Green failed to show), Elvis Costello, Everlast, and Mike Ness were received like a cool blast of air on an ultra-sticky summer's day (which it was). Surprises included former Doors guitarist Robbie Krieger joining Creed on covers of "Roadhouse Blues" and "Riders On The Storm," Collective Soul's cover of Ozzy Osbourne's "Crazy Train," the number of Canadian flags on display during Our Lady Peace's set, Chili Pepper Anthony Kiedis requesting that all menstruating females toss a certain feminine hygiene product on stage, and the number of bare breasts - male and female - which were de rigueur by festival's end. The chaos on Sunday evening saw tractor trailers, cars, sound towers, and vending areas trashed. The entire cost of the damage remains unknown.

A Brand New Day For Sting

Sting's long-awaited new LP, Brand New Day, will be in stores on September 27. The first single should be out in the beginning of September. Sting recorded the album in the U.S., France and Italy, and received help from the likes of James Taylor, Stevie Wonder, Branford Marsalis, and Talvin Singh. Sting kicks-off a 71-date world tour on October 14 in Las Vegas. These early dates consist of primarily mid-sized venues: 10/14-16, Las Vegas; 10/19-20, Berkeley; 10/23, Santa Barbara; 10/24, San Diego; 10/26-30, Universal City; 10/31, Mesa; 11/2, Houston; 11/3, New Orleans; 11/5, Miami; 11/6, Tampa; 11/7, Atlanta; 12/31, New York.

Family Values Update

While names for this year's Family Values tour continue to be tossed about, one band has signed on for sure: Insane Clown Posse. ICP joins a line-up which should include Limp Bizkit, DMX and Filter. Other acts you may see on the Family Values tour include Kid Rock, Tommy Lee's Methods Of Mayhem project and (a longshot), Foo Fighters.

It's Official: Foos To RCA

Speaking of the Foos, the band has officially signed with RCA Records, who will issue the band's third album in November. The band will release albums on Dave Grohl's Roswell imprint, and license them to RCA. "It took nearly a year to make this decision," said Grohl in a statement. "But it feels great to be at a label that's willing to build up a really strong Rock roster, as opposed to chasing whatever's popular at the moment. Being at Capitol was wonderful, but we felt it was time to move on." No word on when, or if, the band will add a guitarist to replace the recently departed Franz Stahl.

Silverchair frontman Daniel Johns and Rage Against The Machine mouthpiece Zach de la Rocha are the subject of separate harassment charges in Australia. On June 28, a law student named "Emily Spencer" filed charges against Johns, claiming that he threatened and harassed her. The charges were withdrawn after it was discovered that the woman was really a road worker named Jodie Anne-Marie Barnes, who is believed to be an obsessed fan. Johns issued a statement, saying: "These completely false charges and the sensationalized media coverage which they have received in some places have been very upsetting for myself and my family. I'm glad the truth has finally come out." In de la Rocha's case, which is still pending, a Sydney woman claims the Rage singer has been stalking her since they met backstage at 1996's Big Day Out festival. The woman is seeking a restraining order against de la Rocha, who she claims has assaulted and drugged her, and thrown a rock through her window. The case will be heard next month, so that de la Rocha will have a chance to respond.

Blood tests have confirmed that Mick Jagger is the father of 29-year-old Brazilian model Luciana Morad's three-month-old son, Lucas Morad Jagger. The 56-year-old Jagger had been publicly denying paternity.

Morad's pregnancy was the deciding factor in Jagger and wife Jerry Hall's decision to annul their marriage of eight years. The British tabloids estimate Jagger's financial settlement with Hall to be anywhere between $15 million and $50 million. Lucas Morad is Jagger's seventh child.

Slash

Former Guns N'Roses guitarist Slash was arrested at an L.A.-area recording studio last weekend for allegedly assaulting his estranged girlfriend, Perla. The skirmish reportedly took place at a West Hollywood hotel last Monday (19), but a complaint wasn't filed until later in the week. Slash was working on his new Slash's Snakepit LP with producer Jack Douglas at the time of his arrest. He was booked at a West Hollywood police station and released on $50,000 bond.

Just before they touched down in Rome, NY for their Woodstock set, Live completed work on their fourth LP, The Distance To Here, which is due on October 5. The album, which is described as a return to the feel of their 1991 Mental Jewelry debut, includes songs like "Sparkle" and "They Stood Up For Love." The Distance To Here was produced by Jerry Harrison.

A pair of acts are in the process of readying new LPs. Marcy Playground just completed mixing their sophomore effort, Shapeshifter, which is penciled in for a November 2 release date. The band recorded the album at Vancouver's Mushroom Studios, which was just purchased by singer Jon Wozniak. In other new album news, Gomez just wrapped-up their second LP, Liquid Skin, and has set a release date of September 21. The band should return to the States for a round of dates this fall.

Manic Street Preachers have re-scheduled the U.S. tour they were forced to postpone when frontman James Dean Bradfield's mother fell ill. It is not known whether Remy Zero, who were to open the original dates, will be on board for the make-up shows. Dates are: 9/6, Atlanta; 9/8, Washington, D.C.; 9/9, Philadelphia; 9/11, Toronto; 9/14, New York; 9/15, Boston; 9/17, Detroit; 9/18, Chicago; 9/19, Minneapolis; 9/22, Vancouver; 9/23, Seattle; 9/25, San Francisco; 9/27, San Diego; 9/29, West Hollywood.

The Donnas' clear vinyl seven-inch single of KISS' "Strutter" features some real firepower on the flipside: KISS themselves, who turn in a version of their classic "Detroit Rock City." The Donnas version of "Strutter" also appears on the soundtrack to KISS' hotly-anticipated Detroit Rock City movie. The soundtrack hits stores on Tuesday (8/3), with the movie landing in theaters on Friday the 13th. The Donnas/KISS split seven-inch (of which only 5,000 copies will be pressed), hits stores on August 31.

Fresh from their appearance at Woodstock '99, The Tragically Hip are planning to enter the studio in September to begin working on their ninth studio album. Look for the album in early 2000.

Barely a month after Sonic Youth's gear was heisted from a truck in southern California, the Jon Spencer Blues Explosion were victimized by thieves, who broke into the band's van and stole their equipment last Wednesday (21) from a hotel parking lot in Vancouver. Among the stolen items is Spencer's ultra-rare Theremin. The bassless trio plans to stay on the road in spite of the missing equipment. Anyone with information regarding the band's gear should call their road manager, Dick Meredith, at (213) 503-0269, or e-mail him at dicky_boy@msn.com.

FROM LONDON

Who fans will be looking forward to the September 21 release in the U.S. by Platinum Entertainment of Pete Townshend Live: A Benefit For Maryville Academy, recorded at his 1997 and '98 shows for the Chicago charity. Polydor in the U.K. is also readying an album of Who sessions taped by the BBC, for possible fourth quarter release, a taster for which appeared on the Austin Powers: The Spy Who Shagged Me soundtrack in the form of a version of "My Generation."

"Popstar" is out on August 9 as the second single from the Pretenders' Viva El Amor album. It will include the remixed 'Street Version' of the album's "Samurai" plus a cover of Neil Young's "The Needle And The Damage Done." The Pretenders are due to feature on 17 dates of the 1999 Lilith Fair and have announced a London date at Shepherd's Bush Empire on September 27.

Sheryl Crow's version of Guns N' Roses' "Sweet Child O'Mine," recorded for the Big Daddy soundtrack, becomes a U.K. single on August 23. The first CD includes her hits "If It Makes You Happy" and "A Change Would Do You Good," while the second has a 'Rock Mix' of the lead track plus the video for "Leaving Las Vegas."

Madness, back in the Top Ten this week for the first time in seven years with "Lovestruck" (and the first time with a new track since 1983), have confirmed an arena tour of the U.K. for December, concluding with two dates at Wembley Arena on the 22nd and 23rd. Their album, Wonderful, is scheduled for October.

David Sylvian releases "Godman" as the second single from Dead Bees On A Cake on September 6. It'll head up a limited edition EP (5,000 copies) featuring two new remixes of the track by Wagon Christ (aka Electronica notable Luke Vibert) and Guy Sigsworth. Also on the EP are the new, ambient-style "Shadowland" and "Northfield," two versions of the same song by Sylvian and his wife Ingrid Chavez.

Ricky Martin's "Livin' La Vida Loca" still can't be moved from #1 in the U.K., where it spends a third week and fends off the latest pretender to its crown, Five's "If Ya Gettin' Down," a new entry at two. DJ Jurgen Presents Alice DeeJay achieved the latest Europop crossover with "Better Off Alone" at four, while the big event for Pop nostalgists was the return of Madness at 10 with "Lovestruck," their 17th Top Ten hit just a few weeks short of the 20th anniversary of their U.K. chart debut with "The Prince."

The Pet Shop Boys also scored a new hit, although only at 15, with "I Don't Know What You Want But I Can't Give It Anymore," the recent club chart-topper "Feeling It Too" by 3 Jays came in at 17. Elvis Costello entered with "She," from the Notting Hill soundtrack, at 19, his highest chart position since "Pills And Soap" went to #16 in 1983, and rock report

"Did You Ever Think" by R.Kelly with Nas arrived at 20. Boyzone's By Request is still top of the album chart.

On August 26 at 8:00 p.m. Bravo Network will premiere This Way Up: R.E.M., a new one-hour documentary charting the group's recording of their new CD, Up. Showcasing revelatory in-studio footage and candid interviews with members Michael Stipe, Peter Buck and Mike Mills, band manager Bertis Downs and co-producer Pat McCarthy, the special captures R.E.M. at a crucial point in their career, following the departure of drummer Bill Berry. The members frankly discuss how Berry's departures affected them musically and personally. Michael Stipe speaks about the almost crippling writer's block that affected him while working on the new record. Also discussed is the festering resentment and tension that marred the recording. Footage from the band's first post-Berry performance at Washington, D.C.'s Tibetan Freedom Concert is also included plus a rehearsal with Radiohead's Thom Yorke is featured. No puff piece, This Way Up is a compelling portrait of a band riding the precipice of creative crisis and triumph.

More news on Run Devil Run, Paul McCartney's new studio CD due in October. Comprised of favorite covers and new studio tracks, the record was recorded at Abbey Road Studios and produced by McCartney and Chris Thomas, who also manned the dials for Wings' Back To The Egg LP. Musicians lending their talents include long-time McCartney pal, Pink Floyd axe master David Gilmour, Deep Purple's Ian Paice, studio drummer Dave Mattacks, and Mick Green, among others. There are three new studio cuts: "What It Is," "Try Not to Cry" and the title cut. Choice covers include Elvis Presley's "All Shook Up," "Let's Have A Party," and "I Got Stung," "Brown Eyed Handsome Man" by Chuck Berry, "Movie Magg" by Carl Perkins, Joe Turner's "Honey Hush," and "Bluejean Bop" by Gene Vincent And The Blue Caps. Also included is "Lonesome Town," a Ricky Nelson tune which was one of Paul and Linda's favorite songs.

An exciting new book, Guardian Of The Gods: An Inside Look At The Dangerous Business Of Music, has just been published by Monkey Boy Press. Written by Mark Rodgers, the well-written tome charts the storied career of Andre Augustine, security and tour manager to such Rock luminaries as Aerosmith, KISS, Bon Jovi, George Thorogood, and others. Not a tell-all book per se, but rather an entertaining and informative look behind the music biz curtain, Guardian Of The Gods paints a vivid portrait of the touring life of such superstars as Steven Tyler, Gene Simmons and Jon Bon Jovi. Besides the two hours spent on stage by the bands, you'll discover what really goes on doing those remaining 22 hours of road captivity. The chapters detailing the exploits of Aerosmith and KISS' 1996 reunion tour are perhaps the most gripping and revelatory. Scores of rare and candid photographs (KISS visiting Disney World and riding the log flume, for example), all previously unpublished, are also showcased in this fascinating book. To order call 1-888-MONKEY-O / E-mail: info@monkeyboymedia.com, or check out their web site: www.guardianofthegods.com.

Former Squeeze/Waterboys drummer Kevin Wilkinson was found hanged at his home in Baydon, England on July 21. Wilkinson was set to tour America in August backing Howard Jones. Besides his work with Squeeze and the Waterboys, Wilkinson's credits include Bonnie Raitt, Joey Ramone and China Crisis. Wilkinson's tragic death comes in the wake of similar passings of U.K. music figures Screaming Lord Sutch and Brian O'Hara, lead singer of the Liverpool beat combo, The Fourmost, all by hanging.

Wife Says Osbourne Won't Rest After Sabbath

Black Sabbath will play their final shows in their hometown of Birmingham, England before Christmas, but no need to worry about Ozzy Osbourne, he'll stay busy. Osbourne's wife and manager, Sharon, somewhat ominously told the Los Angeles Times, "For the next three years he's booked and my husband isn't going out much after that, you can take it from me." Among the plans are another solo album and the next Ozzfest, which he will headline as a solo artist. Also on the agenda is a film about his life which won't be a documentary. Instead, actors will play all the roles. Osbourne said the film wouldn't include such Rock star clichés as "tearing up hotel rooms and groupies and drugs." "This is more his private life than Ozzy onstage," she said. "It's more Shine meets Rocky with an emphasis on Ozzy as working class hero."

Sublime Survivors To Release First CD With New Band

Three years and two months after frontman Bradley Nowell died of a heroin overdose, two members of Sublime have announced that their new band, the Long Beach Dub All Stars, will release their debut album on DreamWorks Records on September 21. Sublime's Bud Gaugh and Eric Wilson front the seven-piece band. The album, Right Back, was produced by "Field" Marshall Goodman, who also plays drums, percussion and turntables, and Miguel, the co-founder of Skunk Records, the indie label that was Sublime's first home. Drummer Bud Gaugh says, "Sublime was, and still is, a family and Right Back reflects that vibe in the music as well as in the lyrics. It's still just us and a bunch of close musical friends who've helped us out along the way, jamming together." Among them are Reggae luminary Barrington Levy on

"Saw Red." Levy recorded the original version in 1994. Brad Nowell co-wrote a new version as a duet with No Doubt's Gwen Stefani which appeared on two later Sublime albums. Half Pint appears on "Pass It On" while two other tracks feature guests from Pennywise and Bad Brains. According to Gaugh, "The Dub All Stars have broken down all the different types of music that influenced us when we were in Sublime and the new songs are still mostly about first-hand, real-life experiences." LBDAS made their live debut at a January, 1997 benefit at the Hollywood Palladium with No Doubt and Pennywise. Proceeds from the Enough Already concert went to Nowell's young son and the non-profit Musicians Assistance Program. The first track from the new album, "Trailer Ras," will be out next month. The Long Beach Dub All Stars will soon announce the Right Back tour kicking off this fall.

Net Aid Concert Line-Up To Be Announced Next Month

Lauryn Hill and U2 are expected to be among the artists named when Net Aid announces its line-up next month. Set for October 9 at Wembley Stadium in London, the Opera House in Geneva and Giants Stadium in suburban New York, the concert will be available on two streams on the Internet. The Net Aid site will be up September 8, according to concert promoter Harvey Goldsmith. The site will be accepting donations to relieve Third World poverty.

Our Lady Peace Preview New CD At Surprise Club Gigs

Our Lady Peace previewed songs from their new album and warmed up for their Woodstock appearance with three unannounced shows in clubs around their native Toronto recently. Their 75-minute sets included 10 songs from their third album, Happiness ... Is Not A Fish That You Can Catch, plus "Superman's Dead," "Clumsy" and songs from their debut album. On Saturday and Sunday nights they billed themselves as the Bellyflop Communist and even sold T-shirts with the name when they played the 250-seat Horseshoe Club, the same room where The Rolling Stones played a surprise gig before the Bridges To Babylon tour. OLP will release the first track from the new album, "One Man Army," on August 10.

Costello Enjoys Revival: Woodstock, Hit Song, Films

Elvis Costello is enjoying one of his biggest years ever, first winning a Grammy Award, and now with his Woodstock appearance last weekend and his biggest hit in 18 years in England. Costello's "She" from Notting Hill was released as a single in the U.K. last week (19) and is expected to return him to the Top 10 for the first time since 1981. Notting Hill is just one of the hit films Costello says he and Burt Bacharach will be forever linked for singing "I'll Never Fall In Love Again" for Austin Powers and Felicity Shagwell in The Spy Who Shagged Me. Costello hopes he and Bacharach will do more together in the future, possibly a song for another movie. "If we got the opportunity to work together again, I'd jump at it," he says. "Maybe if we got to work on a song for a movie that might be a way to do it because before it was such a big undertaking." Costello said he and Bacharach spent two years putting together the songs for their album, Painted From Memory. Costello claims the opportunity to sing "She" came quite by accident. Although the song was a big hit in England in 1974 for Charles Aznavour, it never was in America. Producers were concerned when audiences failed to respond to the unfamiliar tune at test screenings so director Richard Curtis asked Costello to perform it. Costello said he was surprised to find that the London Symphony Orchestra had also been hired for the recording session. Costello has spent most of the summer touring with Steve Nieve, the keyboard player from The Attractions.

Rose Recalls Rock 'n Roll Side Of JFK, Jr.

Watching coverage of John F. Kennedy, Jr.'s burial at sea last Thursday (22) reminded Jim Rose of a night in December, 1994 at Madison Square Garden when he bumped into Kennedy in Nine Inch Nails' dressing room. Rose mentioned it later in his book, Freak Like Me, but didn't include any details. The Jim Rose Circus and Nine Inch Nails toured together for about six months and Rose said he and Trent Reznor quite often hung out after the show so it wasn't unusual for him to be in NIN's dressing room. "It was just Trent, John Kennedy, Jr. and Trent's father," recalls Rose. "I wasn't quite sure who he was at first, but it dawned on me real fast. He was very, very inspired by Trent. That was basically why he was back there. He was telling Trent what a big fan he was. What a soothing voice he had." The Jim Rose Circus just began a European tour.

Non-Profit Musicians United Opposes SDMI

The record industry's Secure Digital Music Initiative — SDMI — has a new enemy. Musicians United, a Virginia non-profit organization advocating the rights of online music artists, is asking music lovers and artists to sign an online petition urging vendors to pledge continuing support for open audio formats such as MP3 and its successors. The organization claims SDMI will have a chilling effect on the nascent independent music industry because high fees are likely to be required to create SDMI-compliant files. Those fees may prevent indie artists from

THE MAN WHO USED THE NET: David Bowie made Internet history recently, when he recorded the cyber-track "What's Really Happening" for all to see on BowieNet, using BowieCam. The song was a collaborative effort between Bowie and Alex Grant, whose lyrics were chosen from 80,000 other entries in the Bug Music-sponsored BowieNet cyber song contest. Look for "What's Really Happening" on Bowie's forthcoming LP, hours... due October 5. Captured in the studio was (L-R): Bowie guitarist Reeves Gabrels; Grant; Bowie.

distributing their work in SDMI formats. Musicians United says if vendors stop supporting open formats, the SDMI will effectively control online music distribution, marginalizing independent artists in the Internet music economy. Visit www.musicians-united.org for more information and to sign the petition.

Sheryl Crow To Release Concert On DVD, Video

Sheryl Crow will release a concert DVD and video from her Globe Sessions world tour through Image Entertainment, the same company which has held the No. 1 spot on the DVD Charts for 16 weeks with the Eagles' Hell Freezes Over. The Crow concert was taped May 8 in Detroit. It will air on VH-1 in September, but the DVD and VHS release will have additional songs including "All I Wanna Do," "If It Makes You Happy," "Strong Enough" and "My Favorite Mistake." Crow herself supervised the audio mix. The Eagles' Hell Freezes Over has sold over 100,000 copies, making it the No. 1 selling music DVD in the history of the format.

Bowie Takes Baltimore Orioles Out To Cyberspace

David Bowie teaming up with the Baltimore Orioles? It could only happen in Cyberspace. Next month, Ultrastar Internet Services, co-founded by Bowie, who launched his own ISP, BowieNet, a year ago, will launch major league baseball's first branded full-service dial-up Internet access as well as a membership-based online fan club. In addition to Internet access and the standard e-mail, 2MB of free Web space to create your own Web pages, plus bulletin boards and news groups, oriolesworld.com will have special merchandise and ticket offers for fans and chats with players and coaches. The cost is $14.95 per month. Bowie says, "We feel we can add the same excitement and sense of community to oriolesworld which has brought so many music fans together at BowieNet."

BBC Radio To Premiere Townshend's Lifehouse

Actress Kelly MacDonald of Trainspotting and David Trelfall are in rehearsals for the premiere of Pete Townshend's Lifehouse, December 5 on BBC Radio 3. The play will include such Who songs as "Won't Get Fooled Again," "Behind Blue Eyes," "Baba O'Riley," and "The Song Is Over," as well as previously unheard songs written and performed by Townshend. Trelfall stars as Ray, a man searching for his missing daughter across the industrial wastes of Britain on the last day of the millennium. Eventually he heads back to his hometown where he is drawn to a subversive music event called the Lifehouse. Townshend began writing it 28 years ago but abandoned it until a couple of years ago when he resumed work on it.

25th Anniversary Concert To Close Third Cheap Trick Fest

Cheap Trick's third annual Trickfest next month will culminate with a 25th Anniversary Concert at Davis Park in their hometown of Rockford, Illinois on August 28. For the three days before that, 80 miles away at the Radisson Star Plaza Theater in Merrillville, Indiana, Trickfest 3 events will include autograph sessions, fan photo ops with the band, a battle of Cheap Trick cover bands, music clinics given by band members, a silent auction of band memorabilia, an acoustic concert, an all-request show, and question and answer sessions with Cheap Trick and their original producer, Jack Douglas. There will also be an Audio / Video Rarities Room. Trickfest started as a one-time only event in Chicago in 1995 when Cheap Trick spent a day with their fans signing autographs, taking photos and performing an all request show. It was revived last year and expanded to three full days.

Lennon Overcoat Being Auctioned

A navy blue cashmere overcoat with velvet trimmed collars and cuffs that belonged to John Lennon was expected to fetch more than $150,000 when it was auctioned off in England on Tuesday (27). It has "John Winston Lennon And His Coat" and a drawing of Lennon's trademark glasses on the inside. The coat was put up for auction by an unidentified woman who worked as a seamstress and was a friend of Beatles manager Brian Epstein. Lennon had given it to her because the pockets were worn out.

Harrison's Guitar On The Auction Block

Another of The Beatles' personal items goes on the auction block next month (19) when George Harrison sells a custom made, rosewood Fender Telecaster. Leo Fender gave it to Harrison as a gift in 1968 and he used it during the recording of Let It Be. He also played it at The Beatles' final performance on a London rooftop. The estimated value of the guitar is $320,000.

The Verve Pipe Do Leno

The Verve Pipe will perform "Hero" on The Tonight Show on August 4.

I noticed your Web's Dirt Alert that said, "Active KSJO continues to strengthen its San Francisco presence but still trails Modern KITS."

Unfortunately, Arbitron's trend program in which we all see the "advances" does not tell the whole story.

To properly find, reflect and report reality, one must use their "MaximiSer" program to create a KSJO combo that includes KSJO, KFJO and KXJO. While KFJO (92.1/Contra Costa) and KXJO (92.7/San Fran) do not show up on the Trends program, it's easy to see in MaximiSer that their contributions are meaningful and significant. Here's the real deal:

P12+	San Fran		(Rank)
	Win/99	Spr/99
KITS	2.9	2.9	11th
KSJO	2.3	2.8	15th

KITS	2.9	2.9	12th
M25-54
KSJO	4.2	5.4	1st
KITS	3.2	3.9	6th

Those are total week numbers that include Howard's incredible performance and Loveline's undeniable contribution. When we look at Mon-Fri 11a-10p and compare KSJO to KITS, the numbers are even more powerful:

KSJO	3.9	4.7	6.2	3rd
KITS	3.9	4.4	4.0	7th

I know that you guys can only report on the numbers that you've been provided by Arbitron. fmqb has always been extremely fair and diligent in reporting the facts about me and my involvement in WEBN, KSJO, Jacor and now Clear Channel.

Given the facts above, it becomes difficult to say that KSJO still trails KITS without a disclaimer that the information is for persons 12+ only or without showing the entire story. The perception remains with several people in the industry that KSJO (even though it has two additional frequencies in San Fran) is this little San Jose station that bleeds into the bigger San Francisco market. These last three books are showing what my Critical Mass and Accutrack phone surveys are also showing--that KSJO is now THE legitimate rock station in the fourth biggest radio market in the country. And we're not done growing yet.

See Ya

Jim Richards, Director
Programming & Operations
Clear Channel, San Francisco

Take a look...
fmqb's area code has changed from 609 to 856

You can still use 609 until November. Some carriers, including MCI and Sprint, have not made the change yet!

In KSJO/San Francisco's Woodstock Or Bust promotion, the outcome was a "bust" in more ways than one. After sending in pictures of their favorite "bust," two contest winners—accompanied by stuntboy Sully and a promotions assistant—set out for Rome, N.Y. aboard a 1962 Volkswagen microbus, but only got as far as North Platte, Nebraska before the vehicle croaked. The crew had the flower-powered relic repaired and continued east. But a breakdown in Davenport, Iowa marked the final bust for the magic bus. The winner took a chunk of her $1000 in station prize money, rented a real car, and finished the journey herself. Sully and partner flew back to San Fran. KSJO's Jim Richards tells The Inside Track the trio phoned in wacky reports along the way: "The winner was completely outrageous and off-center, she was singing "'Burn Down The Mission' the whole way." (How prophetic)... Don't try this in New England: Tampa's WXTB has been giving away flying lessons at Vero Beach, where JFK Jr. reportedly learned how to fly. Qualifiers get a copy of Oliver Stone's JFK flick...

KICT (T-95)/Wichita is putting the finishing touches on their Pizza Hut Oz Fest '99, to be held August 13 and 14 at the Kansas Coliseum. Twenty-two, national, regional, and local acts will perform including: Sammy Hagar, Shades Apart, Simon Says, Neve, Splender, The Diner Junkies and Shootyz Groove. Oz Fest will also include food vendors and retail and craft exhibits, along with a sky-diving demonstration. Tickets are only $25.00 per person for the two-day event... For the next couple of weeks, KNCN (C101)/Corpus Christi's Ticket To Rock Thursday features giveaways for the Motley Crue/Scorpions show at San Antonio's Freeman Coliseum on August 21. C-101 will crack open the ticket window, hooking up listeners with tickets to the show, while qualifying them for a grand prize BBQ with the Crue... Last weekend, the Beloit Riverfest took place in Beloit, and for the second year in a row, WJJO/Madison played a part in the festivities. The station was responsible for a stage, and lined up Big Bad Zero, Soulmotor, and The Gufs to play, as well as breakout regional band Mudvayne and a few other local bands.

PICKS

ERIC CLAPTON, "BLUE EYES BLUE"
(COLUMBIA/SONY MUSIC SOUNDTRAX/BLUE DUCK/REPRISE)

"Blue Eyes Blue" is from the soundtrack to the motion picture Runaway Bride, starring Julia Roberts and Richard Gere. This track is as guaranteed to be as much of a smash at Pop and Modern AC as the movie is guaranteed to be a smash at the box office. It behooves the format to jump on this song from a core artist before everyone else does.

RICHARD THOMPSON, "CRAWL BACK (UNDER MY STONE)" (CAPITOL)

The lead track from Thompson's forthcoming Mock Tudor set, the Reggae-tinged "Crawl Back (Under My Stone)," is set to a hypnotic guitar riff that carries Thompson's distinctively gruff voice throughout. The marriage of Thompson's fluid guitar work and melody makes the track a no-brainer.

LINDA RONSTADT & EMMYLOU HARRIS, "SWEET SPOT" (ELEKTRA/EEG)

From the forthcoming album Western Wall: The Tucson Sessions (in stores 8/24), Linda Ronstadt and Emmylou Harris' "Sweet Spot" was produced by Glyn Johns in a makeshift studio assembled in Tucson's famed Arizona Inn. Written by Harris with Luscious Jackson's Jill Cunniff, this track is just one of many star-studded collaborations included on this impressive album.

ME'SHELL NDEGECELLO, "GRACE"
(MAVERICK)

This track from Ndegeocello's gorgeous new Bitter album captures the stately grace of the entire disc in its skeletal framework. She's more quiet storm than sharp slap bass now, but Ndegeocello's emotive crooning has never sounded better. We cannot wait for the full CD.

WILLY PORTER,
FALLING FORWARD
(SIX DEGREES)

Finally, the long-awaited follow-up to Willy Porter's Dog Eared Dream hits our collective desks! It's been four years since we fell in love with "Angry Words" (longer for those of us who new Porter as a local artist). Falling Forward is a beautiful, honest and eloquent album that we expect from this excellent singer-songwriter/guitarist. Picks: "Mystery," "Cut The Rope," "The Line," "Paper Airplane," "Tribe," "Somebody Else," and the instrumental "Road Bone." Don't miss him on Thursday night in Boulder!

MATRACA BERG,
LYING TO THE MOON & OTHER STORIES
(RCA)

Lying To The Moon was first released in 1990 but a series of happenstances kept Matraca (soft "c") Berg from going as far as she should have given her talent. Berg is the first woman in history to have written five #1 hits in the space of twelve months. You may remember The Speed Of Grace which was geared toward Alternative and Progressive radio a few years ago. This "return to roots" album, with both new and remixed songs, will appeal to several types of Progressive programmers.

MOXY FRUVOUS,
THORNHILL
(BOTTOM LINE/RAZOR & TIE)

Moxy Fruvous' music is usually as quirky as their name. Not this time. Their influences are firmly rooted in Beatle-esque Pop, combined with gorgeous Beach Boys-like harmonies and unique lyrics. Thornhill was produced by studio vet Don Dixon (R.E.M. and many others) and is surprisingly "serious." We're still surprised that Modern Rock radio hasn't discovered and claimed this band for themselves. You'll like: "I Will Hold On," "Half As Much," "Earthquakes," and "When She Talks."

Emphasis Tracks

WILCO,
"NOTHING SEVERGONNA STANDINMYWAY(AGAIN)"
(REPRISE)

No typo here, that's the title. WXRT and KFOG are already diggin' this cut, one of Wilco's catchiest. Two listens and you'll be HOOKED!

INDIGENOUS,
"GOT TO TELL YOU"
(PACHYDERM)

Indigenous is on the road this summer with B.B. King and Kenny Wayne Shepherd - who do we have to kill for tickets?

BLUR,
"COFFEE + TV"
(VIRGIN)

The video has a dancing milk carton. We're still scratching our heads trying to figure that out. From their latest album, 13.

JUDE,
"I'M SORRY NOW"
(MAVERICK/REPRISE)

If you haven't yet played "I'm Sorry Now" from Jude's No One Is Really Beautiful, now's your chance!

Venice "The Man You Think I Am" (Vanguard)

We normally don't pick an un-charted artist as our Pro-Former, but this one is showing just too much promise to ignore. Venice's "The Man You Think I Am," from their Vanguard full-length Spin Art, is #4 Bubbling Under this report with over 150 spins and six new adds, including WBOS, WKOC, and KNBA. Venice is also on-the-air at KINK, KFXJ, WAPS, WRNX, KBAC, WYEP, KTAO, and WEBK, among many others and appears to be chart-bound as early as next week. Congrats to Michael Briggs, the Vanguard gang, and the Lennon brothers on a great project. Keep it up!

KERA To Flip In September

KERA/Dallas will be switching from Progressive/NPR on September 6 to an all News/Talk NPR format during weekdays, with the possibility of music programming remaining on week-ends. PD Jeff Hansen told fmqb that they hoped to continue some music presence in the Progressive community. MD Gabrielle West will be returning to the recording studio to work on her album. West's last day at the station will be Friday, September 3.

Peace, Love, Looting And Arson

After almost 72 hours of peace and love, Woodstock '99 ended in blazing chaos on Sunday night (7/25) as hundreds of concertgoers turned into vandals. What began as scattered bonfires toward the end of the Red Hot Chili Peppers' festival-closing set (with Flea performing in the nude) escalated into several raging infernos that took hours to contain. State police said the situation inside the venue had been stabilized by early Monday, and most of the fires had been extinguished. Police said most of the concertgoers had been herded off the grounds. Concert promoter John Scher said, "It's a great shame that this happened because in so many ways it was so uplifting. It puts a permanent blemish on what happened here." The three-day concert climaxed into a frenzy about a quarter mile from the main stage when several concertgoers set fire to 12 parked tractor-trailers. Several people pulled cases of soda and merchandise from the trucks and fed the flames with debris. Others toppled light stands and speaker towers, while another group tried to destroy K-Rock's [WXRK/New York] station vehicle. The vehicle was on loan from crosstown WHTZ (Z100) and will be shipped back to NYC on a flatbed truck. Hundreds of state troopers in riot gear moved in to protect other vendors' booths. County deputies and city police were deployed to protect other areas of the former Griffiss Air Force Base, now a business and technology park. Slightly over 100 people decided early Sunday that striping was better than grabbing an extra hour or two of sleep and turned out for a massive nude photo shoot as a brilliant orange sun began to light up the sky. Flyers announcing the escapade were circulated over the weekend by photographer Spencer Tunick, who is well known for his photos of nudes in public places.

Ripped-Off

U.S. bands might be well advised to nail down their equipment, judging by the number of musically-inclined thieves roaming the continent. A few weeks after Sonic Youth had their van full of customized guitars stolen, comes the news that Jon Spencer Blues Explosion have also been relieved of their gear, this time from outside a venue in Vancouver. Among the DAT players, amps, mics and compressors were a vintage Moog synthesizer and a rare 1962 theramin, the distinctive sound of which has become a trademark for the band. They are currently appealing for any news of the instruments in an effort to retrieve them, and will continue their current U.S. tour.

Satisfaction?

Mick Jagger has been determined through DNA testing to be the father of Brazilian supermodel Luciana Morad's child. He admitted to a dalliance with the Brazilian beauty (which finally put paid to his relationship with Texas model Jerry Hall), but denied her allegations of his paternity. After Morad gave birth to a bouncing baby boy, Jagger asked that DNA testing be conducted to determine whether he truly was the newborn's father. Now the BBC reports that the results of that testing are in, and the verdict is that the Rolling Stones frontman is a father yet again. Britain's Sun tabloid says flacks for the flamboyant rock icon broke the bad news to their boss on Monday as he celebrated his 56th birthday at a chateau in France. A spokesman for Jagger made the following terse statement earlier this morning: "I can confirm that the DNA tests are up and Mick is the father of the child, but that's all I'm prepared to say." Morad has christened her son Lucas Morad Jagger. Lucas is Jagger's seventh child: He sired four children by Hall, has another from his marriage to Bianca Jagger, and one more from a relationship with writer and actress Marsha Hunt. Earlier this month Jagger convinced Hall to accept a reported $16 million settlement to put an end to their not-quite-marriage (he claimed the 1991 Hindu ceremony by which the two were wed on Bali was not recognized under British law). London's Daily Mail says Morad was shocked by the paucity of the settlement amount, and told friends Jagger had "got away with" shamefully mistreating the Texas-born Hall. Morad has given no indication as to whether she will seek child support payments from Jagger. Friends of the rocker reportedly fear he'll be dipping into his wallet again soon.

Ben Folds Seven

Ben Folds and his Australian wife, Frally, are the proud parents of twin girls. Ben Folds Five Australian Web Site reports that the twin girls were born on different days. Louis Frances Folds was the first to arrive. She turned up at 11:04 p.m. July 22. Her sister, Gracie Scott Folds was born a few hours later, at 1:54 a.m. the next morning. The Folds twins will have the unusual situation of birthdays on separate days. Ben and Frally were married in Adelaide on May 20. The couple plan to live in the city. Folds doesn't see a problem with that as he tours nine months of the year. The next tour is a little closer to home starting in Brisbane on August 17.

Upcoming Music Alert

Our friends at Tone-Cool dropped us a line to let us know about their latest signing, The North Mississippi All Stars. The band is a trio of Memphis-born, Mississippi-raised musicians, comprised of brothers Luther and Cody Dickinson (guitar and drums, respectively), and bassist Chris Chew. The Dickinson boys are the sons of producer/session man Jim Dickinson, whose credits include The Rolling Stones, Big Star, The Replacements, Ry Cooder, and the All Stars' forthcoming debut, expected in early 2000.

MUSIC MAILBAG:

Two landmark concept albums have been repackaged and rereleased by Mercury. White Mansions and Jesse James feature songs written by Paul Kennerley who, oddly enough, is British. It's amazing that someone from across the pond could write such touching, realistic songs for "movies that were never made." He was inspired by the voice of Waylon Jennings to write the songs for these projects. The artists on each album are a who's who list of Americana and Country music. The "cast" includes: Waylon Jennings, Eric Clapton, Johnny Cash, Levon Helm, Emmylou Harris, Charlie Daniels and Roseanne Cash among others. White Mansions is a slower, introspective, and sad album written from the point of view of the South as they loose the Civil War. The Jesse James album is a more upbeat, electric guitar album involving all the thrill and action of the James Boys.

Dave Moore is best known for his performances on Garrison Keillor's Prairie Home

Companion. His new album Breaking Down To Three (Red House) is a collection of real life observations with that "simple country boy" style better known as Americana Folk. He can be sad, without being too slow and upbeat without being unbearably perky. There's some great harmonica and fantastic Country-style guitar backed by a tight rhythm section on this CD. Listen to: "Mr. Music," "Magic Dust," "Big Fool For You," "Let's Take Our Time And Do It Right," and "Sharks Don't Sleep." For service contact Emilie Liepa at: (651) 644-4161, publicity@redhouse-records.com.

Grammy Award winners The Amazing Rhythm Aces blast back onto the scene with the tasty new platter, Chock Full Of Country Goodness (Valley Entertainment). It's not Alt. Country and it's not Traditional either. It's the kind of music you'd love to hear when you go to a place with a sign that says "Pool and Fried Chicken." Put some of this gravy on your biscuits: "Jerry Fontaine And His Jammin' Guitar," "Guardian Angel," "Rednecks Unplugged," "Vera Cruz," "If I Could Call You Mine," and our favorite "DUI/SOL." For service contact Lance Cowan: (615) 331-1710, LCMedia@sprynet.com.

Bob Hillman is the fifth Replacement. Listen to his album Playing God (Sliced Bread/Brave

New Records) and see if you don't agree. He's got some of Townes Van Zandt brand of ironic humor in his lyrics that we find easy to like. This former professional volleyball player now gives tips and preps high schoolers for SATs and ACTs!. It keeps him in-touch with the youth of today, and while he's hardly an old age pensioner, he does have an old soul. You can tell by reading his lyrics. Check out: "Everyone's An Actor In New York," "I Turn Slowly Around," "Witchcraft Lover," "Saint Anne," and "Salem." For service contact Lance Cowan at (615) 331-1710, LCMedia@sprynet.com.

"Have gun, will travel, reads the card of a man..." Oh wait! That's the other Paladin. Slippin' In'

(Ruf) is the new album from California's Rockabilly rebels, The Paladins. This trio has been doin' it to ya in yer eardrum since the mid eighties. The new album has some classic Johnny Bond numbers, including the title-track (that's also been done by The Stray Cats). A nod is also given to Psychobilly with the song Vampira. The band is not retro, they have a Modern edge while keeping that badass J.D. attitude that Jerry Lee made famous. Cut the belt loops off your Levis to these: "Rain, Rain," "The Hard Way," "Slippin' In," "Baby Don't Move Me," "Five Minute Love Affair," Gram Parson's "Strong Boy," "Gone Again," and "California Boogie."

The Ramones are the greatest band in the world. We don't need you to agree because Bill Ingot, Gary Stewart, and Don Williams all agree with us. We want you to agree, so check out the new Ramones Anthology. It's a two-CD set with a hardcover booklet full of Ramonesabilia. If there was ever any band that cut through all the Disco and Stadium Rock crud that flooded the music world, it's the Ramones. Down to earth and fun, The Ramones are real and should be declared an American treasure. Remember that Vin Scelsa plays them. Don't be intimidated, try these lesser-known gems: "53erd & 3erd," "I Wanna Be Your Boyfriend," "I Remember

You," "Swallow My Pride," "Here Today, Gone Tomorrow," "I Don't Care," "Don't Come Close," "Do You Remember Rock N' Roll Radio?," "Questioningly," "The KKK Took My Baby Away," "It's Not My Place In The 9 to 5 World," and "Something To Believe In."

Modern Country radio is a pale imitation of what used to be music about gettin' drunk and kickin' ass. For Johnny Dilks and His Visitacion Valley Boys harkens back to the old version of Country music. The new self-titled album on HMG is pure '50s country dancehall. Most of the songs are originals and sound like you could have found them on any Country Classics compilation. If BR5-49, Asylum Street Spankers and Hot Club of Cowtown work for you, Dilks is a natural. Those Visitacion Valley Boys are no lightweights, they can play the pants off anybody! That steel guitar will haunt you. Yeeee-Haw!: "Losin' That Woman Blues," "Close But So Far Away," "The Check's In The Mail," "The Sunny Side Of The Moon," "Jelly Roll Blues," "Lonesome Side Of Town," "California," and "Grey Eagle." For service contact Darrell Anderson at (510) 763-8500, dba@hightone.com.

astroPuppees second album Pet (Hightone) is full of Pop melodies and lots of harmony. With more than a few of their tunes being used in movies and on television, astroPuppees is quickly becoming a group of some notoriety. Most of the song are about love, but they're not silly, sappy tunes. It's about picking yourself up and not apologizing for being who you are. The music is strictly Pop-Rock with an emphasis on Rock, all these songs have some smokin' guitar. Check out: "Shaken Free," "Wanna Be Alone," "Crowded Town," "It's Alright," "Angelica," and "Speed Walking College Girls." For service contact Darrell Anderson at (510) 763-8500, dba@hightone.com.

Dudley Connell & Don Rigsby hail from two of Bluegrass' most renown groups, Seldom Scene and Lonesome River Band respectively. They've come together for an album of traditional Bluegrass, Meet Me By The Moonlight (Sugar Hill). The harmonies on this album are great, and the mandolin/guitar combo complements them perfectly. This is probably the best Bluegrass album we've heard all year. Listen and hear: "Meet Me By The Moonlight," "I'm Troubled, I'm Troubled," "Jealous Lover," "Dark And Thorny," "Rollin' On," "Our Darlin's Gone," and "Old Ship Of Zion." For service contact Kim Fowler at (615) 297-2588, publicity@sugarhillrecords.com.

Justin Clayton hails from Liverpool. His debut album Limb (Ultimatum Music) is full of pensive songs. His music has an almost otherworldly quality. Perhaps because it was recorded in Sweden, it gives one the impression of being very personal yet detached. Slightly similar of slower T-Rex songs, Clayton's atmospheric music is most decidedly English evocative of gray rainy days. Guitar-Pop melodies to be profoundly depressed by, so move over Morrissey. That's: "Collide," "Drag," "Painless," "Just Like You," "You Sink Me," "Shallow World," "Slide," and "If You Feel Like Comin' Down." For service contact Thanh-Thanh Dang (ton ton dang) at (310) 558-0555, T2D@ultimatummusic.com.

Progressive Picks are written by Kevin Boyce, Sybil McGuire and Pat Berkery. Progressive News is written by Sybil McGuire, Theresa Meire, Pat Berkery, and Kevin Boyce. Pro-Former is written by Kevin Boyce. Music Mailbag is written by Theresa Meire. All sections are edited by Sybil McGuire, Kevin Boyce and Mike Boyle.

Red Hot Chili Peppers, "Scar Tissue" (Warner Bros.)

"Scar Tissue" stays on top for a sixth straight week, but the spins start to decline (-106, 3536 total). Even so, the competition shows no signs of displacing RHCP from the top slot as nine of the top ten tracks showed a spin decrease. Out of the top twenty, only Filter (+212, 1062 total) showed an increase greater than 200 spins. Look for the Chili Peppers to stay on top for a while.

Showoff, "Falling Star" (Maverick) Five more adds show up this week, as WBRU, WROX, WWCD, WAVF and MTV all start spinning "Falling Star." With a Brand Spankin' New rotation at MTV, Gaby Skolnek's latest project is sure to get some exposure that will help increase its already growing status (40*-35*) on the chart. Support coming in from 45 Modern Rockers, including WNNX, WEDG, WPBZ, Q101, and WPLY.

Joydrop, "Beautiful" (Tommy Boy) This is quickly becoming the song that Cheryl Valentine will not let die. Every time we turn around, a handful of stations are adding the record. This week's converts are CIMX, KKND, KPNT, WQBK, and WWCD. A resurgent chart move (31*-24*) shows there is a lot of life left in "Beautiful."

Buckcherry, "For The Movies" (DreamWorks) Two straight weeks of double digit adds means that Buckcherry's second single is already off to a better start than the first track. Ross Zapin and Matt Smith have a hit on their hands. 39 stations are providing 396 spins, good enough for a 41* chart debut.

Days of The New, "Enemy" (Outpost) With the "official" airplay date still a week away, there are currently 19 stations playing "Enemy," with twelve of them coming in as adds this week. The story is only going to improve on this song as it is one of the stronger new tracks to be released since the MLB All Star break. Spinning at KKND, WNNX, KDGE, KXTE, WEND, WPLA and WLRS.

Jimmie's Chicken Shack, "Do Right" (Island) Since WHFS added it early, we can say that they started the trend for the 19 others that followed suit this week, giving Howie Muira and Paul Langton the #1 Most Added honors. WXDX, WEDG, WPLA, WPBZ, WLRS and WMRQ were among the adds, giving a strong east coast presence to "Do Right."

Uncle Ho, "Bubblehead" (Risk) If you haven't listened to this yet, do so now! With just a few spins at WHFS and WBCN, the phones are starting to light up with "Bubblehead" requests. A dozen Modern Rockers are already hip to this fact, with WFNX, KNRQ, WPGU, WEQX and WKRL among them. Call Ari Chazanaz (323.462.1233) for a copy of the record.

Unwritten Law, "Cailin" (Interscope) Early adds at KROQ, KITS, KEDJ, WMRQ, KFMA, KZMZ and KRZQ have Interscope's Brian MacDonald and Robbie Hanjobbie enthusiastic over the prospects for the relaunch of this record. KITS (22x) and KROQ (19x) are already dedicating solid spins.

Bis, "Detour" (Grand Royal/Capitol) Need some relief from all the Rock records you have on the air? Take a detour to the latest single by Bis for your solution. The infectious groove of this song has already won over the likes of KNDD, WBTZ, WLIR, WXSX, and more. Listen and call Spivack or Corona to tell them how much you love this song.

Staind, "Mudshovel" (Elektra/EEG) With a baker's dozen of adds pouring in this week, Dorfman and Biondolillo now have a quarter of the panel playing "Mudshovel." The band recently won over a lot of programmers during their festival stops, so look for good things to continue to develop with this track. WXDX, KROQ, WHFS, WQBK, WLRS, WBRU, WPBZ, and CIMX are all providing support.

Sevendust, "Denial" (TVT)

Gary Jay is already off to a magnificent start with TVT's most anticipated record of the year. WBCN, WXRK, KXTE, KTEG, KPNT, WKRL, KXPX, WBRU, and Q101 are among the 20 stations that have given their blessing to "Denial" and jump started Sevendust's most accessible track to date. More adds should follow in the coming weeks.

WDST Helps Kosovo WDST/Woodstock morning man Jimmy Buff will be competing in the Lake Placid Ironman Triathlon and is using the competition to help raise funds for the American Red Cross' Kosovo Refugee Relief Fund. The spirited morning man is asking listeners to sponsor him by paying a certain amount of money per mile of the event. The triathlon consists of a two-and-a-half mile swim, a 112 mile bike ride, and a 26 mile run. One word of advice, look out for the alligator during the swimming portion.

WLIR Books Long Island WLIR/Long Island continues to book acts into the Vanderbilt in Plainview. The station recently had 1,000 people show up for Mike Ness and 1,200 people for Luscious Jackson. Upcoming shows will find Cake (8/11), Soul Coughing (8/13), Ween (8/27), and Beth Orton performing acoustic on August 5, the day before Lilith Fair hits the area. In honor of the women's festival stop on Long Island, WLIR will be holding a Women On Top weekend, from 8/6 - 8/8, where nothing but female-artists or female fronted bands will be played on the station.

K-Rock Gets Lit Up

"We are truly the hottest station in New York," WXRK PD Steve Kingston told fmqb. With a statement like that you would think that K-Rock just jumped to the top of the ratings, but what Kingston is referring to is the burning of the station's vehicle and skybox (a hydraulically raised forklift) at Woodstock '99. "Our van was burnt down," conveyed Kingston. "In all the bedlam last night (7/25) they were roasting marshmallows on it. I don't know the full extent of the damage, because I haven't seen it yet, but there's no glass left in it and there are other problems." The vehicle in question, along with the driver, were actually on loan from crosstown WHTZ (Z100). An arrangement was made to lease it because Kingston felt K-Rock didn't have a vehicle that would compare to the Z100 van "as far as covering an event this large." He also had experience with the vehicle as it was the same one used to cover Woodstock in 1994 while Kingston was PD at Z100. The vehicle will be shipped back to NYC on a flatbed truck and WXRK will work out the final details with Z100 at that point. Over 60 photos from WXRK's Woodstock '99 journey, including the K-Rock skybox going up in flames, are available at the station's Web site (<http://www.krockradio.com>) for viewing.

"Our business is less about the box than the contents. Superior entertaining communications drive profitability."

TOM OWENS
SR. VP PROGRAMMING
CLEAR CHANNEL

We have cautiously adjusted spot loads, considering individual competitive circumstances. Overall, Clear Channel has taken the longer-view and operated on the conservative end of this spectrum, recognizing other methods for achieving financial goals, including superior inventory management, alternate revenue streams, prudent acquisitions, and improved efficiencies through the creative application of new technologies. In the near-term, we feel these unit load excesses by our competitors will benefit Clear Channel station performances.

Regarding the additional fragmentation, conventional broadcasting clearly cannot cater to the micro-niche as effectively as satellite or Internet delivery systems as the economics of station ownership would not support it. Clear Channel has taken the best possible approach, believing that our best defense is a dual offense: First, focus on enhancing the caliber of our content, specifically the more difficult-to-duplicate non-music attributes such as personality, production, promotion, community involvement and service. Second, invest intelligently in the new mediums. Our business is less about the box than the contents. Superior entertaining communications drive profitability. If we control compelling content we can deliver it through whatever combination of pipelines seems most effective.

"Radio groups need to use some of their properties to woo a new generation of listeners to radio."

JOHN BRADLEY
PRESIDENT
SBR CREATIVE MEDIA

A study found that teens and college age people are listening less to the radio. Why should that be a surprise? Radio has long since given up targeting the 12-24 age group. The Baby Boomers who control the radio industry have been programming to the Baby Boomer listeners for the last 20 years. Some stations targeted 18-24 in the '90s, but now those stations are fast becoming dated and out of touch. Cigarettes, soft drinks, beer and fast food industries do a much better job of grabbing people when they are young and holding on to them. They know that the future success of their product is dependent on cultivating an audience today that will grow with them in the years ahead. Radio concentrates on the here and now. People will not suddenly start using radio when they turn 21 or 25 or 30. They need to be invited to listen at an earlier age by radio personalities speaking directly to them.

Radio groups need to use some of their properties to woo a new generation of listeners to radio. Wake up, they are already gone to video, MTV, Internet, cable TV, CDs, MP3 players, and shopping experiences in stores that can be infinitely more fun than a radio station. There are so many more entertaining things available to today's youth than listening to the radio.

Radio Disney has the right idea. Now let's see more programming effort and sales effort put into reaching the huge youthful population bulge that's coming in the 21st Century.

"We've always known that teens and 18-24s have had a low tolerance for interruptions and a high tolerance for adventure and cheap grain alcohol."

JIM RICHARDS
DIRECTOR, PROGRAMMING & OPERATIONS
CLEAR CHANNEL,
SAN FRANCISCO

Diminished TSL; Internet audio; satellite radio; no more fights on "Springer;" what the hell's going on!?

So Arbitron conducts a study and finds that 1071 12- to 24-year old diary keepers are listening to radio less because of increased commercial loads. Does that surprise anyone? We've always known that teens and 18-24s have had a low tolerance for interruptions and a high tolerance for adventure and cheap grain alcohol.

Think back to when you were 12-years-old. Before music had marvelous fidelity coupled with user-friendly portability. Before the 80/90 moves forced the inevitable niche formats. Before

MP3 players allowed you to download songs over the Internet. Back then, you had few entertainment choices and only one or two radio stations that played some kind of Rock music. It didn't much matter if your favorite station played two minutes or twenty-two minutes of commercials. What were you gonna do? Download your box of 45s into your car's portable turntable and cruise the town while blasting "Billy Don't Be A Hero" from the speakers?

Not only has radio fragmented, musical entertainment is fragmenting. Perhaps up until now, these disenfranchised demos merely perceived they were listening less. In the very near future, that perception may become actual reality. As the new technology becomes more mainstream, we risk losing not only the younger groups of listeners, but perhaps the older clusters as well.

Now is the time for radio to stick its collective head into the sand so the further splintering of entertainment mediums can't happen. That, or maybe focus on what's important — the listener. Create a compelling, entertaining radio station to make your listeners happy while simultaneously finding ways to generate non-spot revenue to make your GM and group heads happy, therefore allowing you to reduce unit counts to make your listeners happier. Actually, that head-in-the-sand thing seems a lot easier.

"Radio has to continue to maximize synergistic opportunities with both the Internet and satellite radio."

MICHAEL LEE, OM
WTFX/WQMF/
WQSH/LOUISVILLE

There are more choices for entertainment and information for all ages than ever before. Radio has to continue to maximize synergistic opportunities with both the Internet and satellite radio. Television, print and the Internet are ahead of radio in developing ways to package advertising in an attractive way for the younger audience. Commercials are a fact of life; we need to do a better job of making them more listenable. We will stay competitive in our marketplace if we continue to focus on creating compelling local radio. We should embrace new technology and make the most of it. It is being done in some markets already.

"The time of the 300-500 library is coming to a close. We are all the same now."

CHRIS JAMES
PROGRAM DIRECTOR
WTPA-FM, HARRISBURG

Radio listening is down... no kidding! Welcome to the '90s! We're seeing the same thing television saw in past years. Is the commercial load the culprit? Maybe a small piece of the pie, but not the main problem. The main problems are apathy, not enough good new bands, the genre of the music today, the attention span of listeners today, and the many other options. Put all of these together and you've got your reasons. Are we pushing the youth away? I don't think so. Will the advent of satellite radio hurt? Of course. It's another outlet for people to tune to when they get bored. But they'll get bored with that as well.

We were sitting in the music meeting recently saying, "Geez, we have two daytime slots and nothing to put in." Everything, for Rock Radio at least, is either Heavy, Rap, or Metal. Yes, the kids like it, but there's not enough of them to go around — and we all know that's not the demo the sales people want. So what do we do? I'll think out-of-the-box, and piss off a lot of researchers and PDs, but the time of the 300-500 library is coming to a close. We are all the same now. We all have such small lists. Make it interesting and rotate more spice — or for a better term — more of the songs that worked locally in the last 15 years that we never put into the library because they didn't "test" now, and were forgotten about. Maybe we even play a few non-testers here and there that still worked.

Make it interesting to listen to. More production. What happened to funny promos and funny production? Make them want to stay when the song ends! Sounds pretty elementary right, but I think folks have forgotten. As far as alienating today's youth, we all know they have many ways to get their music. We, as radio, are another avenue. Spot loads hurt, sure. But, there's no way we can do anything about that with the bottom line breathing down our necks. We need to find bands that aren't disposable one-hit wonders, and find ones that can play instruments and write great songs — and sing, not rap. Sure it sells, but that doesn't mean that's the only thing they want to hear when they turn on the radio. Nurture the money demos; as the kids grow older their tastes will change and they'll be back at radio. After all... look at us.

"Radio can't stop technology. Radio can respond to the audience."

TOM KELLY
KELLY MUSIC
RESEARCH

In the 1960s, the American automobile industry refused to recognize the demands of consumers for reliability and economy. As a result, the door opened for Japan to enter and lock up significant market share. In the 1970s, the major television networks truly believed that viewers would never pay to watch cable TV. Now, most of us gladly make the monthly payment for higher quality, more choice, fewer interruptions, etc. Make no mistake. If radio ignores the concerns of its customers, the audience will not hesitate to leave.

The evidence is in our own industry. In the '60s, AM radio ruled America's youth. Weary of repetition, too much talk, and too many commercials, listeners in their teens and 20s gladly jumped to the FM band for new and different music outlets. Now as we close out the '90s, FM must take a look in the mirror. Can the same thing happen again?

The advent of Internet and satellite are immensely more threatening than CDs, MTV, cassettes and 8-tracks could have been. As the technology develops, music from Internet and satellite sources will be available to anyone anytime, anywhere. Think of your own car. Right now you have two audio choices: conventional radio and whatever pre-recorded music you may have brought along. Soon, as cars become equipped with on-board computers and satellite receivers, you'll have four choices. What will you do if all of your favorite stations are in the eight-minute stopset at the :50 break?

What can radio do? Radio can't stop technology. Radio can respond to the audience. Instead of making it easy for listeners to abandon radio at the first opportunity, stations would be wise to find ways to fortify loyalty. Listen to the listeners. Give them the entertainment that they crave: great music, localism, personality, desirable promotions. Minimize the negatives: unfavorable music, cookie-cutter presentation, and boring jocks. And maybe, just maybe, you can make it harder for today's P1s to turn their back on you.

"There are hundreds of youth-oriented magazines filled with print ads, and the television channels are full of teen-targeted commercials. Yet radio can't 'sell teens'?"

LIZ JANIK, PRESIDENT
LIZ JANIK & ASSOC.

Radio turned its back on younger listeners a long time ago. So, it is hardly surprising that their tuning is spiralling down. How often have you heard radio people express their disdain for teens? Typically I hear the following two statements together: "We don't want teens. We can't sell teens."

Now, I am not in sales, but I am an observer of teen culture. There are hundreds of youth-oriented magazines filled with print ads, and the television channels are full of teen-targeted commercials. Yet radio can't "sell teens"? Advertisers are spending a lot of money trying to tap into teen spending power, which is reportedly over $200 billion dollars annually. And that doesn't include their enormous influence on the spending decisions of their families.

Radio must change its attitude towards younger listener if it wants to make sure it has adult listeners in the future. Radio listening is an acquired habit. How can you develop the habit of listening to the radio, when there isn't a station which plays your music? There are markets of all sizes which have very limited radio choices for younger demos.

When radio doesn't offer the younger potential listeners something they really want, they will simply seek new sources for their entertainment and music, including friends, videos, television, satellite, CDs, CD-ROMs, magazines, the Internet and video games. They will not develop the habit of turning on the radio.

Radio can thrive in the future, but it must step up to the challenge of serving and also selling younger demos, right now. Owners and programmers must give younger listeners a reason to fall in love with radio. And sales managers have to stop blaming the advertisers for not seeing the value of using radio in their marketing campaigns.

At Issue:

Is Radio Turning Off Tomorrow's Listeners?

Thirty-one percent of 12-24 year-olds say they are listening less to radio because of more commercials, according to a recent study of 1,071 diarykeepers conducted by Arbitron and Edison Media Research. Even more disturbing, time spent listening is down 14 percent among 18-24 year-olds over the past six years, 11 percent among teens 12-17, and 10 percent with 25-34 year-olds.

In light of these findings, we asked a handful of programmers, consultants and researchers if radio is jeopardizing its future by alienating today's youth (and tomorrow's adult) listeners with too many commercials and not enough programming aimed at them? Does radio risk losing younger demos to new media like the Internet and, in the years ahead, new services like satellite radio? And what should radio do now to address these concerns?

GREG GILLISPIE
VICE PRESIDENT /
ROCK-ALTERNATIVE
McVAY MEDIA

No wonder 12-24 year-olds are listening less to radio. It doesn't seem that any radio stations really care about what is soon to be the largest generation in the history of the United States!

What do you mean largest generation in the US? If you haven't heard, the children of the Baby Boom, known as the Echo Boom generation, will eclipse the Baby Boomers at the end of this year!

By the year 2006, the Echo Boom will reach critical mass. They will impose their lifestyle values on our population. Their values include the demand for total control and interactivity. This is especially true in their media choices. Think about the media available today, including radio, TV, newspapers, and the Internet. Only one is truly interactive, allowing the Echo Boom control over their choices. The other media are designed and delivered as is, with no changes or interactivity allowed.

I recently ran these concepts by a broadcasting company executive. While he agreed we need to start thinking about how to address these issues, he couldn't devote any more time or thought to them, as he had stations to work on now.

If the future of our medium is dependent on this growing generation, can we really afford to wait until they come of age? If we do, they'll be gone.

The challenge is designing a future-focused station that can appeal to and grow with this generation. As the Echo Boom creates and manipulates their own culture through their interactive abilities, they are also creating three identifiable traits:

1. Diversity: Cultural and entertainment tastes are expanding. Prejudices are becoming non-existent.
2. Curiosity: Exploration, discovery, and investigation lead to a shift in control of their media choices. They don't want to be dictated to; they want interactivity and control.
3. Self-reliance: Control of their media choices makes them confident and gives them the power to make a difference.

The way you get this generation's attention is sending your message in an expected and appreciated manner. The product and marketing message has to be interesting, useful, and relevant.

If you have the desire to be the teen station of today with the hope of being the young-adult station of tomorrow, call McVay Media. We have already strategized and are continually developing new ideas for the day when the Echo Boom is the largest segment of the US population. Remember, the year 2006 is not that far away.

"The ultimate answer is to reassess radio's core emphasis and to rapidly create appealing youth-oriented formats."

FRED JACOBS
JACOBS MEDIA

The opinions of 12-24s about radio's commercial loads are disturbing. But they're merely symptoms of a problem that's been festering for the better part of 15 years — radio's ambivalence toward teens. The more telling statistics come from Edison/Arbitron's Internet study — 81% of 12-17s and 71% of 18-24s are online — and those numbers will continue to grow. There's a relationship here.

When radio embraced the 25-54 standard, it essentially numbered its days as a youth medium. Because broadcasters contend they can't sell 12-24 demos, the important revenue stream has been steadily diverted to television and now the Internet.

Early in July, Grey Advertising launched a new unit — G Whiz — to target Generation Y (21 and unders) business among companies like Hasbro, Reebok, Sprint, and Procter & Gamble. They all realize that brand adoption occurs at an increasingly younger age and that it's important to get in the game. G Whiz is no anomaly. Agencies like Leo Burnett, Saatchi & Saatchi, and the Interpublic Group of Companies have also created kid-targeted advertising units.

So where's radio? Working hard to create more 25-54 formats or finding ways to convert aging formats (Oldies) into more 45-54 friendly environs. In the meantime, Nickelodeon, MTV, the WB, and Fox are all garnering major advertising dollars, while the traditional networks hustle to get in the teen game.

And then there's the Internet. The bet was that once young people grew into the 25-34 demo, they'd discover radio and flock to our medium's variety of music options. But few foresaw the advent of the computer as a source of music entertainment. In the past year or two, radio or music services like Yahoo Radio, VH-1 at Work, Imagine Radio, Spinner, and many others have been developed to pick off radio's base audience. (By the way, most of these outlets are commercial-free.) Now that the Internet has emerged as a high-tech player, where does this leave radio?

Of course, the ultimate answer is to reassess radio's core emphasis and to rapidly create appealing youth-oriented formats. Radio programmers are still a very resourceful lot and could easily conjure up an attractive array of formats designed to laser focus on 12-24s. But until the fledgling sales end of radio can develop the tools (not to mention the bravado) to market teens, none of this is going to happen anytime soon.

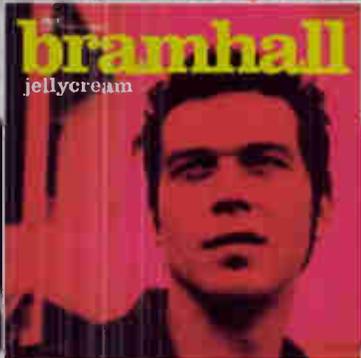

It would be great if an influential broadcaster took that first important step to realize the teen potential, but the pressures of consolidation and quarterly Wall Street performance are naturally going to take precedence. The answer lies at the NAB's door because radio is no longer red hot. That primary color has now been co-opted by the Internet.
