IT'S WARNER TIME

Time Inc. stood strong throughout a seven-week takeover battle with Paramount Communications Inc., and on Monday, July 24 bought Warner Communications Inc. for an estimated $14 billion. The new company, Time Warner, becomes the world's largest media and entertainment conglomerate.

In addition to the biggest American-owned music business, Time Warner's holdings will include the nation's largest cable television company, an ultra-successful cable television programming service, the second largest hardback book publisher, a paperback publishing company, magazine group and, of course, a top movie studio.

Originally the two companies were poised to merge, but a hostile takeover attempt by Paramount brought a suit ending, ultimately, in a Delaware Supreme Court ruling in Time's favor.

As of Wednesday, Warner Bros. Records were not commenting on the effects of the buy on the record company's successful operation.

GEHRON TO WNUA

WODS-Boston GM John Gehron has been hired by Pyramid Broadcasting CEO Rich Balsbaugh to run the corporation's Chicago outlet, WNUA.

Gehron's been enjoying success with his oldies format in Boston for the past year. "I've had so much fun at this job and things have gone so well here...but because things have gone so well I felt it was time to consider a move," he said. Recently rumors have been circulating about the fate of the Adult Alternative format at the ratings-beleaguered WNUA. In that regard Gehron said, "I think that what they're doing is on the right track, and my goal will be to take the station to the next level...I think that, working with the fine people there, we can continue to build on the success that they've already started."

Before his stint at WODS, Gehron spent fourteen years at Chicago's WLS as Program Director, Station Manager and General Manager. "John is a premiere manager with intimate knowledge of the Chicago marketplace," said Balsbaugh. He's the perfect choice to continue WNUA's audience growth and revenue success."

Gehron replaces G. Michael Donovan, who'll remain with Pyramid at Cody/Leach Broadcast Architecture developing and marketing research tests. August 14 is Gehron's start date.

RICH AND NOBLE

In an unexpected move, B100-San Diego PD Bobby Rich has joined Noble Broadcasting's KMGJ/FM and KIXI/AM in Seattle as General Manager.

"Things are falling together just like they were supposed to be this way," Rich told the Gavin Report, "which leads one to believe that they were supposed to be this way."

Bobby Rich is a native of Washington state, and has always harbored a desire to return. "I feel as though I've been waiting my whole life for an opportunity to be here. My dream used to be to do afternoon drive on KJR (Seattle). I grew up listening to Seattle radio. It has always been and continues to be some of, if not the best personality radio in the country."

Rich exits B100 at a high point. His station, and his morning buddies "The Rich Brothers," have consistently enjoyed tremendous success. He has won numerous awards, including the Gavin Report award for Program Director of the Year, Best Air Personality, and Station of the Year.

Before this four year go 'round at B100, Rich was Program Director at 99X (now WRKS)-New York. Prior to that he was Program Director at B100 for five years. In becoming a General Manager, he joins the few programmers that step into that position. "Apparently it happens a lot here," he said. "I will be the fourth major station General Manager (in Seattle) who came directly from programming."

Though the start date hasn't been finalized, Rich has already traveled North to his new station. He will "wrap things up" and settle in at KMGJ/FM-KIXI during the middle of August.

With Rich's imminent departure, Assistant Program Director Mike Novak was named Acting Program and Operations Manager.

X-100 DROPS BLEU

The contract of popular San Francisco Morning Personality Don Bleu, a ten-year veteran of what is now X-100 and was KYUU has not been renewed.

"The day I came to the station his contract was up, and it was a decision that, in fairness to Don, ▶

► had to be dealt with fairly quickly," said current Program Director Bill Richards, who has been with the Emmis outlet since the beginning of June. "It's one of those things where Don will be just fine," continued Richards. "He knew what direction the station was heading in, and I felt it was a move we needed to make."

In a press release, Bleu said that he disagreed with Richard's choice, but also stated, characteristically, "I respect his position. I'm sure he felt, in the words of Jack In The Box, it's time to blow up the clown."

Some of Bleu's popular morning features included "Listeners Without Lovers," and "Bleuper Calls." When Emmis took over the station last summer, they began paring down Bleu's features, and released sidekicks Vickie Jenkins, Whitey Gleason, Ricardo and former San Francisco 49er star Wide Receiver Dwight Clark.

X-100 Afternoon Drive personality Ron Leonard has also exited the station. Richards says he currently has no one in mind for the morning position and will possibly fill the afternoon slot from within. Meanwhile, Chuck Geiger is handling mornings and Mark Hanson is filling the PM Drive position.

DEPARTMENTAL RESTRUCTURING FISHER EXITS MCA ALTERNATIVE POST

MCA National Director, Alternative/College Promotion Nan Fisher exited the label on Friday, July 21.

"We're making some changes in our promotion area here," said the label's John Hey. "I can't comment until we have it finalized." Hey indicated that the position will take on new elements. "We're going to make it an Alternative, Metal, Marketing and Promotion function—like a double duty position."

"I wish MCA all the best in their pursuit of the Alternative and Metal Markets," said Fisher. "I'm considering possibilities in anything from Alternative to A&R." And, as a last word for her old label she said to radio, "Play the Peregrins!" She can be reached at 213-876-2604.

Joni Solomon has been appointed to the newly created position of Manager of Alternative Promotion for Chameleon Music Group. Solomon has been with Chameleon since February of 1988, when she joined the company as Project Coordinator. She has previously worked at WLIR (now WDRE-Long Island, NY).

EXECUTIVE VP/COO KEATING HEADS TO BEASLEY

WLTT-Washington, DC General Manager Jim Keating will be joining the Beasley Broadcast Group as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer.

Keating has been a General Manager for CBS and Gulf Broadcasting for the past seventeen years. "This moving along to another layer of the business is something I'm very excited about," he said. "After seventeen years I can face practically most any problem—but having said that I'm probably going to see something new!"

Beasley Broadcasting owns 20 stations in 12 markets, and is about to add KRTH-Los Angeles to its group.

In addition to WLTT, Keating has worked as Director at the ABC/FM Radio Networks, as GM and Sales Manager at WCAU-Philadelphia. "I'm leaving CBS after twenty years and there's a tinge to that, but this is right for me at this time in my career," he said. He starts at Beasley's Naples, FL offices "within a couple of weeks, after a smooth and efficient transition here."

KIRKSEY TO ENIGMA

Twenty year music industry veteran Jon Kirksey has been appointed Vice President, Rock Promotion at Enigma Records. Kirksey worked at Epic Records for the past sixteen years, and before that held positions at Reprise, Capitol, MGM, A&M and Decca.

"Jon Kirksey is a key addition to the Enigma executive team," said Senior VP, Promotion, Enigma Sam Kaiser. "His acquisition signifies we are dead serious about making this company a major league player in the rock music industry of the nineties."

KBLX/FM and KBFN/AM-Berkeley/San Francisco GM/VP Harvey Stone has been promoted to President/General Manager of Inner City Broadcasting Corporation, Berkeley.

INSIDE TOP 40 by Dave Sholin

For well over a decade FM has dominated contemporary music airwaves in nearly every major market (Chicago's WLS and San Francisco's KFRCheld out well into the eighties). Ten years ago it became clear that the vast majority of music listeners under thirty-five preferred to hear the hits on FM. Ask those high school seniors in the class of 1980, who are nearing their thirties, about AM radio and they'll likely give you a blank stare. At the Upper Midwest Conclave I got into a late night conversation with Art Vuolo, Jr. about AM's decline. Art is "Radio's BEST Friend," and travels to all corners of the country video taping and air checking stations. Going from city to city, renting cars along the way, Art noticed that no one's even bothered to set AM frequencies in most cars. He's had to demonstrate how to switch to the AM band and people are surprised to find they have a choice. FM has given birth to new formats over the past twenty plus years and improved the audio quality of the music aired. But, like most things in life, there's a trade off, which in the case of radio has been the loss of those powerhouse AM Top 40 signals that allowed small town America to hear big time personalities and be exposed to new music in the process. I found it interesting that the night before leaving for Minneapolis A&M's Steve Resnik brought up the same subject. Art described a recent experience that fascinated him and illustrated the difference between the generations raised on AM and FM. He was playing an old WABC aircheck of the great Cousin Brucie (aka Bruce Morrow) for a young friend who, after hearing Brucie do his famous opening hello to places as far away as the Carolinas, turned to Art and asked, "Is he syndicated?"

It's a battle at the very top of the chart with only a few percentage points separating the top four artists, but looking at the percentages of increase RICHARD MARX appears to be unstoppable for number one next week.

Can't get much hotter than NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK who take a HIT FACTOR surge from 22% to 50%! Races into the top ten at Z100 New York 18-10, Y100 Miami 16-8, Y106 Orlando 13-5, WWCK Flint 12-7, KDWB Minneapolis 16-7, KYYY Bismarck 21-9, WKTI Milwaukee 15-5, KZOU Little Rock 18-9, KIXY San Angelo 15-7, KS104 14-9 and Y108 Denver 18-10, KYNO Fresno 19-10 and X100 San Francisco 15-10.

Top twenty conversions for HOWARD JONES include WSPK 24-19, KHSS 31-20 ("one of their biggest movers of the week"), WPST 29-19, KATM 27-19, POWER 104 28-18, KXXR 22-19, KWIN 21-13, KAGO 30-20, K100 26-20, etc. New on PRO/FM, WKSQ, WDJX, KCLD, KKJO and KVVQ.

Highest debut for Tony Waitkus at WCIL/FM Carbondale, IL is WARRANT at #21. He added it last week and says it's already his seventh most requested song. Mike Young at KTUF Kirksville, MO charts it #30 reporting tremendous female reaction. Tops 200 total reports with adds at KUBE, Z100 Portland, KZ103, Z103, WJAD, KPAT, WBIZ, WPXR, WSPT, POWER 104, KISN, WIBW, KIIS/FM, KWSS, X102, Y108, KZLS, WPLJ, PRO/FM, Z100, WAVA, etc.

Another entry vaulting over the 200 report mark is KATRINA & THE WAVES. Corey Ward, MD at KPAT Sioux Falls, SD, says he's getting "good phones" moving it 40-23. Heads into the top thirty at 100KHI, WJET, WDJX, WBIZ, WIAL, KNIN, FM104 and KSND.

WRCK Utica adds SKID ROW at #40 and is getting top ten CD, cassette and LP sales.

No stop at CHARTBOUND for this former RECORD TO WATCH which is on fire at 97-5KHTY Santa Barbara 13-8, KIXY San Angelo 23-14, KDWZ Des Moines 27-16, Y95 Dallas 14-4, 102QQ Saratoga Springs/Albany 26-15 and WNVZ Norfolk 21-16. HIT FACTOR has climbed to 30%.

1989's been a pretty strong year for comebacks and the BEE GEES are adding their name to the list. Duff Damos, PD at WIFC Wausau, WI, debuts them at #28 and says he's getting "lots of good 18+ female reaction." Helping it earn MOST ADDED honors are new believers CKOI, K104, WIOQ, POWER 96, KOY, WXXQ, KRNO, Y108, FM102, KWSS, X100, CKXY, KYNO, etc.

Programmers keep saying the same thing about GRAYSON HUGH—wherever it goes on—adult requests follow. That's the case for Vicki Todd, PD of WAZI Morristown, TN, who says it's "really taking off" and moves it 31-25. Other gains at WPFM 23-15, WHTK 19-12, KIXY 14-8, WWUF 27-15, WHHY 29-25 ("strong 25+ male requests—lots of calls asking who it is"), Z104 14-9, KOZE 27-20 and Z100 Portland 29-25.

It's across-the-board response to DION at WJAT Swainsboro, GA where MD Charlie Fri reports a 32-21 jump and says, "It's top ten in requests and all demos love it." Added at POWER 99, WJMX, WYAV, 100KHI, KTRS, KROC, KDWZ, KOZE, K106, WSTW, etc.

Airplay comes close to doubling for THE CURE who are top ten in requests at POWER 104 Houston and MD Cheryl Broz says the phones lit up instantly. She charts it #27 and it's also top thirty at KIIS/FM, Y95, X102, Q106 and X100. New on Q96, WPXR, KSND, 95XXX, WMMS, WDFX, Y100, WJMX, KS104, KISN, KNIN, KBQ and Z104.

Look for a lot of action for mainstream as well as dance Top 40's on the giant URBAN CONTEMPORARY smash by BABYFACE that jumps 15-5 this week. Adds include Q106 San Diego, HOT 97 New York, KKFR Phoenix, KITY San Antonio, FM102 Sacramento, HOT 97.7 San Jose, YES 97 Columbia, POWER 98 Myrtle Beach, etc.

NEW RELEASES by Brian Samson and John Martinucci

CHRIS BENDER - Baby Girl (Epic)

Percussion and rhythms kick in from beginning to end. Chris gives a thumbs up vocal effort on this uptempo jam, as Z'Looke members Art Z and Mikel Cee collaborate to provide a slammin' production.

MAZE Featuring FRANKIE BEVERLY - Can't Get Over You (Warner Bros.)

The ever distinctive but sensual sound of Maze is back, and the "Silky Soul"-ful voice of Frankie Beverly heralds a promising Warner Bros. debut. This midtempo ballad should easily garner support from programmers as well as the newly formatted Urban Adult Contemporary audience.

REGINA BELLE - Baby Come To Me (Columbia)

Smooth as silk. Emotional innuendos coupled with superb production from Narada Michael Walden make Regina's ballad a win-win situation.

THE TEMPTATIONS - All I Want From You (Motown)

Contemporary, uptempo, sheer Temptation-style vocals, with a hook that you'll remember from the first listen, all blend together to make this a classic.

THE JACKSONS - 2300 Jackson Street (Epic)

Who would have guessed that it would hit our Chartbound the first week out? Popular cut from the LP generates programmers' votes, and the addition of the siblings' children (nieces and nephews) is a nice touch.

SYBIL - Don't Make Me Over (Next Plateau)

Debuting on Up & Coming and as well as one of the Most Added (16) this week. Sybil remakes Dionne Warwick's 1963 chart topping hit (you may remember Brenda & The Tabulations' 1970 version). The 12" has several mixes, including a SOUL II SOUL type version.

KIARA - Quiet Guy (Arista)

This single was a late arrival. Kiara's style has progressed from their first release, "The Best Of Me" to this fourth single—all from their debut album, "To Change And/Or Make A Difference." Greg and John—nice summer ballad.

HEAR & THERE

Todd Rundgren played the second date of his "Nail" tour a couple of weeks ago at San Francisco's Fillmore. It should have been billed "Todd Rundgren and his San Francisco Revue" since it featured two former Tubes members—vocalist Michele Gray and keyboardist Vince Welnick; two members of Bourgeois Tagg—drummer Michael Urbano and guitarist Lyle Workman. Also joining Todd were Jenni Mathews (Maria Muldaur's daughter), Scott Mathews of Duroc fame, Byron Allres of the Steve Miller band; vocalist Shandi Sinnamon and horn players Bobby Strickland and Max Haskett. At any one time you could be hearing 11 out of 12 band members singling backup. Rundgren and his band moved through some of the best of Rundgren's classic material, the great new stuff and a bevy of old R&B tunes. They're coming your way, and Todd's still got those great dance steps down pat!

Sire's Royal Crescent Mob has been invited to open up the B-52's 1989 tour beginning July 28-29 at the very same Fillmore. The first video from the Mob will be "Na Na Na" from director Adam Bernstein of Public Enemy, Beastie Boys and Tom Petty renown...

If you haven't signed up yet for the first annual "Rock And Roll Fantasy Camp" taking place in the Bay Area next month (August 20-27) it may be too late. Mick Fleetwood and guitarist Craig Chaquico from the Starship are the first two stars to sign on as celebrity "camp counselors." The week's event will culminate in a professional recording, a live concert, a video of the event plus a satin jacket, photos, t-shirts and other appropriate paraphernalia. Applicants from this first year's camp have ranged from Dudley Moore's 13-year-old son to a 67-year-old Detroit grandmother. Interested campers should call 1-800-443-0344...

The untitled project was recorded at two soldout shows at the Capitol Theatre in Wheeling, WV and is scheduled for a fall release...Epic's Living Colour will perform a benefit concert for the Partnership For The Homeless in New York on August 15...Dangerous Toys are on tour and really bring the house down. In Lawton, OK the ceiling fell in on the band and the stage collapsed in Phoenix...In July Larry Gatlin & The Gatlin Brothers, along with Highway 101 and the Jeff Dayton Band performed for a quarter of a million people at a KMLE-sponsored date at Fountain Hills in Phoenix...Don't look for a new DIO album until 1990, but the scuttlebutt on the "sinsational" new guitarist, 17-year-old Rowan Robertson of Cambridge, England has begun to surface...The furor over the Rolling Stones tour and the high price of tickets has begun. Northeast Promoter Don Law is the first to make his feelings known. After handling their shows for the past 20 years, he says "no" to this one...The first solo project from Iron Maiden's lead singer Bruce Dickinson will be "Lead Your Daughter To The Slaughter" which was recorded specifically for the "Nightmare On Elm Street Part 5: The Dream Child" album. Also on the album is a new song from Jive/RCA artist Whodini produced by Full Force...Meatloaf has a new MCA recording contract in his hip pocket...Steve Miller has signed with a new manager, Herbie Herbert who has managed Journey for years and is now involved with such bands as Mr. Big and Europe...Congratulations to Lita Ford and her husband, W.A.S.P. guitarist Chris Holmes. The couple was married in June in Lake Tahoe before a small gathering of friends and family. W.A.S.P.'s tour is heading your way, featuring Metal Church and Accept...Eddie Rabbitt is writing material for his 15th career album with his New Jersey cowboy roots well in place. The autobiographical title cut "Jersey Boy" will be ready by October. Eddie composed nine of the album's ten cuts for his first Universal Records release...

Kingdom Come showed up a day early for their gig at the Fillmore with Warrant. KC's Rick Steier and James Kottak spent their night off jamming with Sacramento's Northrup & the Odyssey Room in San Jose, CA. Johnny, Northrup's lead singer, is an old buddy of Kottak's from their Louisville, KY days when they both played in Buster Brown...EMI's Crazyhead members Kev Reverb and Anderson stopped by the Gavin Report while on a two week talking tour in support of their LP Desert Orchid. Look for the band to hit the U.S. in September for some righteous touring...

Ziggy Marley and The Melody Makers kick off their tour in support of the new Virgin album One Bright Day at the Santa Cruz, CA Civic Center, winding up the California coastline, crossing into the Midwest, the South and ending on the East Coast. Ziggy, his brother Stephen and sisters Sharon and Cedella will once again be touring with Dallol, the Chicago-based Ethiopian band they've worked with for a few years now. Joining them will be a number of guests musicians, including Jamaican guitarist Earl "Chinna" Smith. The tour is booked through September and will wind up in Florida...

Stevie Ray Vaughan and Double Trouble are ready to release their first new studio recording in four years. In Step was produced by Vaughan, Double Trouble and Jim Gaines, whose credits include the Neville Brothers, Huey Lewis, Santana and Tower of Power. Vaughan and Double Trouble will be the only act sharing the bill with the Who at their final U.S. concerts on September 2 at the Houston Astrodome and September 3 at the 80,000-seat Dallas Cotton Bowl. •

by Moon Mullins

HEADHUNTING

With the release of the Spring numbers, some programming heads may roll. Stations achieving big numbers may lose their programmers to greener pastures. Or perhaps a venture capitalist is putting up the funds for your very own station. Whatever the case, you may be in the market for a program director.

These days the PD candidate needs to know a lot more than what are the top hits. Trade publications like the Gavin Report and consultancy firms can handle that aspect of programmers' duties. Today's PD must possess research and marketing skills; the best will also have at least a touch of the "crazy" in them, for we're still Show Business, even though sometimes it's hidden under P&L statements.

Naturally, you prospective bosses will want to know the programmers' philosophy on stop sets—loads, lengths and placement, counter-programming techniques, jingle use, news-weather-traffic importance, morning show content, contests and promotions.

But beyond the obvious (you may get the standard answers), here are a few subjects which you may wish to probe your candidate for his or her TRUE responses.

Education. Do they have any experience in a research project or marketing model—even Junior Achievement? Any drama, speech or arts studies? How about a general accounting course? What, if anything, would they do differently if they went back to school? What was their very first job—was it working for an allowance? At McDonalds? Remember, in radio it's no crime to have only attended the school of hard knocks.

LEADERSHIP. Since everyone thinks they're good with people, ask your candidate how they reprimanded someone within the past six months. Have them tell about how they fired someone. Ask when they last socialized with their staff. How many times per day did they visit the studio? How many memos do they compose, on average, per week? How many staff meetings have they conducted in the past six months? Have them detail what, if any, of their responsibilities are handled by others. If they assign a task to someone, how do they know the job is being performed well? Should you hire this person, who will replace him or her? Has the soon-to-be former employer trained someone to replace them? Of the people currently working for the applicant, who has the most confidence in him/her and why? When do they make exceptions to the rules? Give examples. •

JIMMY BUFFETT

Take Another Road (MCA)

Neither Country nor goofy, this track departs from his usual routes. His change in attitude is peacefully easy and sober to the bone - - kept expecting a punch line and all we got were hooks.

DARRYL TOOKES

Lifeguard (SBK)

A new label and artist come out swinging with a gorgeous track primed for any adult-oriented format. The record epitomizes the essence of a ballad.

NEIL DIAMOND

Baby Can I Hold You (Columbia)

One of the many highlights of his current North American tour is his rendition of this classy ballad from the pen of Tracy Chapman. Neil doesn't need to record the works of other songwriters, but he knows a hit when he hears one.

CHARLIE KARP & THE NAMEDROPPERS

Givin' It All I Got (Grudge)

This one is just plain fun. The only karp we know that is comfortable around hooks. It's a quasi-autobiographical story of a struggling wannabe who's willing to put it on the line again.

GEORGE HARRISON

Cheer Down (Warner Bros.)

From the soundtrack to Lethal Weapon II, this George Harrison track, influenced by the remnants of the Wilbury sessions and produced Jeff Lynne makes for an extraordinary contemporary adult listening.

INSIDE A/C by Ron Fell & Diane Rufer

Things are getting pretty thick at the top of the chart as DON HENLEY's "End" is near and RICHARD MARX is right there waiting. Only bad ears or poor record service could keep either off any A/C station.

This week's top six records will be next week's as well—maybe some shuffling among them, but only Mr. OSMOND has a near-term shot at upsetting the bunch. DONNY, now top ten A/C for the first time since he started shaving, picked up his HIT FACTOR (72% to 83%) and 11 ADDs including WKQD, K103, WELI, WMXC, WAIV and WJBR.

Former SPLIT ENDer, TIM FINN is cruisin' for a possible top-tenner. His HIT FACTOR is up to a respectable 87% (90% from those on it more than one week).

JOHN COUGAR MELLENCAMP's "Jackie Brown" has moved seventeen chart points over the past two weeks and has increased 40% in HIT FACTOR. New this week for KFMB, WVMT, KLSS, WKIO/FM, KHLT etc.

CHER's "If I Could Turn Back Time" is halfway home after just two weeks on the chart. Now HIT FACTORED by 55% of all players (and 69% on it more than a week) it looks to be a huge A/C record and at Top 40 (for those of you who won't ever peek) it has moved similarly, 40 to 30 to 24.

Another good week for MICHAEL TOMLINSON's "Gettin' Gone." It climbs from 35 to 26 with a HIT FACTOR leap from 43% to 58% and is new this week for WMBA, KRKO, KTID, WLGN, KYMG/FM, WJER and WMOH.

The INDIGO GIRLS move "Closer To Fine" closer to top twenty and as HIT FACTOR increases 13%. Now in serious rotations at WKYE, WMT/FM, WJON, KYJC, KSAL, KJOY etc.

As is usually the case, one week's TOP TIP is next week's highest chart debut. Thus CUTTING CREW's latest, "Everything But My Pride" leaps into the fire at #31 with 28 more ADDs including WZST, CKFM, KBIG, WFBG, WZNY, KLRR, KTSR and J107.

HIT FACTOR

A/C Research:
Diane Rufer/Ron Fell

Hit Factor is a percentage of stations which have it in Heavy or Medium rotation. ie: 100 stations playing the record — 60 stations have it in Heavy or Medium rotation — Hit Factor = 60%

RESTLESS HEART. This week's HOT record Restless Heart's "Say What's In Your Heart," has remained in the Most Added category since its release three weeks ago, and is our top debut at #32. Heavy hitters adding it this week include KSAN, KLAC, WXTU, KHEY/Y96, WCAV, WFMS, WSLR, WKHX, etc.

CHANGES, CHANGES, CHANGES. There've been some promotions at KEZS/FM-Cape Girardeau. Bob James is now the Operations Manager, with Tom Bradley taking over as Program Director/Music Director...Maggie Hartt has left KOYN-Paris to seek other interests... Congratulations to WLBB-Carrollton's Mitch Gray, who's been named Station Manager...And finally, congratulations to Gavin pal Sam Harrell, who has been named West Coast Representative for Atlantic's new Country division.

STATION HAPPENINGS. The Fourth of July is great holiday for fun promotions. KMIX-Modesto always participates in Modesto's Fourth of July parade, and this year everyone enjoyed the antics of KMIX's Second Annual Kazoo band as they gave new meaning to the words 'tone deaf.' This year, the station also added a new element of fun to the proceedings with a "precision-lunch-box-drill-team," complete with lunch boxes and intricate footwork...Another big July Fourth event was KYGO -Denver's Fifth Annual Free Concert and Fireworks Display. The concert featured Restless Heart and The Forester Sisters...KNFO-Waco recently completed their Funfest '89 featuring Earl Thomas Conley. This benefit concert, located at the Bell County Expo Center in Belton, TX, has proceeds going to the United Way of Belton. The pre-concert activities included a Funfest '89 picnic and prize giveaways from Earl Thomas Conley "rumper" sticker registration...KSON-San Diego has a new address and phone numbers. The address is now 1615 Murrany Canyon Road, Suite 710, San Diego, CA 92108. The business phone is now 619-299-1240 and the FAX number is 619-543-1363.

NEW RELEASES by Lisa Smith & Cyndi Hoelzle

ALABAMA - High Cotton (RCA)

Alabama once again uses the "good old days in the South" theme to come up with what's sure to be another smash single. Already this week's Most Added record, it's gotten plenty of advance play as an album cut.

GEORGE STRAIT - Ace In The Hole (MCA)

One of this year's most popular album cuts is finally a single. Strait and his Ace In The Hole band are top notch Western Swing players, and they get down to it on this song. It's short and sweet and about as down and dirty as Strait gets.

KATHY MATTEA - Burnin' Old Memories (Mercury)

Larry Boone co-wrote this twist on the "old flame" theme, and set it to a romping Swing beat. Kathy's award-winning voice dances across the melody easily and playfully.

TIM MENSY - Stone By Stone (Columbia)

This simple little love song kicks in after the first chorus and just keeps building. You're sure to be tapping your feet before the song's end. Speaking of song's end, there's more good news here. This record, and th other five reviews included here, all come in at 3 minutes or under!

MARTY STUART - Cry Cry Cry (MCA)

Marty revives a rocker from father-in-law Johnny Cash's Sun years. Stuart has made the switch to MCA, with Richard Bennett and Tony Brown producing. Hopefully this will be the break he's deserved for so long. It's quick and mean, with lots of ringing Cash guitar.

SHANE BARMBY - Ridin' And Ropin' (Mercury/PolyGram)

Word has it that this newcomer was one of the surprise hits of Fan Fair. He's used his experience as a real life prize winning rodeo cowboy to write an upbeat, fun song. A good choice for his second single.

ADULT ALTERNATIVE

by keith and kent zimmerman

ith one year under our belts, we felt this week was a time for looking backward and forward. As a new decade approaches, we thank the many voices of the Jazz and Adult Alternative community—stemming from radio and music industry folk to writers and especially the artists themselves—who took time to share their thoughts and predictions. All comments were gathered especially for this special edition. A few ground rules had to be set. Since neither of us subscribe to the use of such terms as New Age, Contemporary, Mainstream, Straight-Ahead, Fusion, NAC—you know the rest—we decided to relax such a ban for simplicity's sake. The order of the quotes were chosen by flow and not by importance (so keep those egos in check, willya?). Sometimes we juxtaposed disagreement to illustrate the diversity of the Jazz/AA spirit. The word "Jazz" is capitalized out of a personal reverence we've always felt for the heritage of the music forms. Very special thanks to Don Lucoff of DL Media in New York for gathering the lion's share of the artists' comments. His and their contributions brought significant color and wisdom.

NOTES AND QUOTES FROM THE COMMUNITY

I have always felt positive about the people and the music in this format, and I am as optimistic as ever about its future. In many markets today, radio remains "remarkable for nothing except for the markedness by which it is remarkable for nothing." It is often said that the format must be one thing or the other, Jazz or "New Age," all instrumental or all vocal, all current or all pre-1980, etc. What we as programmers are dealing with is music, and that's the only label it needs. Buzzwords like balance and flow are tremendously important. If we adhere to a doctrine that this format should encompass only Jazz, only "New Age" or only rock elements, then we risk sounding like a wall of fusion, a mood service or just another lame A/C hybrid. We must keep the format colorful. I think we are past the point where people expect us to disappear. Artists like Pat Metheny are not going to become irrelevant overnight. New artists like Julia Fordham and Tanita Tikaram are going to enjoy a lot of good years. We can be there with them if we don't underestimate our listeners, and continue to present them with music rich with variety and innovation.

Rob Moore,
The Breeze Network

Talking about a radio format doesn't do a bit of good unless we talk about the audience. As radio programmers our job is to create audiences, not formats. With that idea in mind, who are the people that are choosing to listen to Adult Alternative stations? Over 80% of KKSF's audience is between 25 and 44. This is the group that collectively redefined and mythologized the concept of adolescence during the sixties and the seventies. We know them as Baby Boomers. The eighties will go down for this group as the transition period between youth and middleage. Times are a changin'! With maturity comes new responsibilities, concerns, interests and tastes. I have no doubt that this group will redefine the concept of middle age in the nineties as profoundly as they did to being young in the sixties. The Adult Alternative stations are the only ones that are trying to address this change of sensibility, at least musically. Pay attention to the changes going on, keep trying out new stuff, whether it's with music, promotions, image making or research. And for God's sake, listen to your audience!

Nick Francis,
KKSF- San Francisco

Pop will continue to be a big influence (i.e. Anita Baker and Tracy Chapman). Players are now dealing with the technology better, but it is also important to embrace acoustic instruments. The piano and the acoustic guitar represent a return to a more organic sound. The combination of understanding the technology better and using more acoustic instruments should be exciting to see in the next ten years.

Terri Lyne Carrington,
Verve Forecast Recording Artist

As we now move into the nineties, Adult Alternative and Jazz radio stations are flourishing. As a result, record labels are beginning to support and develop their artists with more commitment. Established artists are expanding their individual styles by diversifying their sound without sacrificing the Jazz tradition. Accepted traditional artists like Freddie Hubbard, Eliane Elias, Miles Davis and others are moving their traditional recording histories towards a more modern approach. We are also seeing contemporary artists like Yellowjackets, George Benson, Lou Rawls and Dr. John creating more traditional albums. Adult Alternative radio will capitalize on the direction of Jazz radio by becoming more progressive. The format will mature into more than a "light" Jazz format—it will provide an exciting and stimulating alternative for adult radio listeners.

As imprecise as this rule of thumb may be, it seems that Jazz has generated a new style and direction about every decade since its inception. For the nineties I see one trend emerging clearer than any others. I would call it "Techno-Jazz." Its major proponents are musicians like Michael Brecker, Marc Johnson, Peter Erskine, Jack DeJohnette, Greg Osby, Steve Coleman, and groups like Steps Ahead and Bass Desires. It has a high-tech feel to it and yet is firmly rooted in the classic Jazz traditions. Techno-Jazz musicians are for Jazz what Max Headroom is for television.

Karl Kessler,
WRTI-Philadelphia

The two camps representing commercial Jazz (fusion) and traditional will continue bumping heads in the nineties and grow even further apart as fusion booms. But as fusion sales grow, so will reissue sales from traditional Jazz veterans whom young college-educated listeners, looking for an alternative to pop/rock, are discovering through CDs. New traditional Jazz will continue progressing through the Marsalis brothers, their proteges and saxophonist/arranger/writer Bobby Watson, who will be a major force next decade.

James T. Jones, IV,
Jazz Critic, USA Today

I think a greater emphasis will be placed on melodic content. The audience can better relate to melody, and this will inspire musicians to be more resourceful. This energy will in turn begin to reach people in educating their consciousness so they can make better decisions in their daily lives as we move into the 21st century.

George Adams,
Blue Note Recording Artist

There have been two key elements in the continuing growth and success of the new Jazz/Adult Alternative format—an abundance of good music and the presence and interest of Gavin! The fear of many of us programming these new musical escapades is that this unique effort will become just "another format" with predictable hits and follow-the-leader attitudes. In its first year, however, Gavin has allowed and encouraged us to report everything we play and to communicate the diversity and breadth of our new format venture. Thanks for the great first year Zimmerman and Gavin. The future is OUR music.

Jack Kolkmeier,
KLSK-Santa Fe/Albuquerque

Radio is finally taking chances by mixing many styles. It reflects people's maturity, tastes and mixing many lifestyle decisions. Tacos and Thai food; Grover alongside Miles.

Talaya, KTWV/The Wave- Los Angeles

I see radio continuing the trend toward fragmentation—there is now enough interest to go one to three stations deep, depending on the market size. There is room for the traditional/acoustic approach, Urban and a folk/Jazz hybrid.

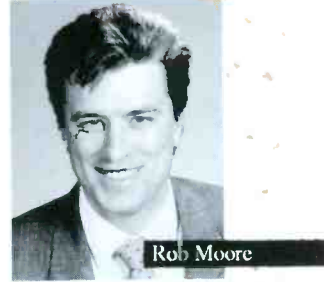

I truly feel that a station could happen with Windham Hill artists, selections from the ECM catalog and musicians like David Grisman as an amalgam for an innovative format.

Andy Denmark,
Producer,
The David Sanborn Show

At the Adult Alternative level, I think the music will continue to change and the artists who have already achieved great recognition will remain intact—those of medium recognition will probably fall by the wayside. "World-oriented" type music might emerge to fill a void. Because of the extemporaneous nature of Contemporary Jazz, it always seems to parallel the sociological phenomenon of the times. At the present time we are enjoying multi-formatted instrumental music which strengthens and expands tremendously the life and longevity of an artist's career. Contemporary instrumental music is exciting especially when the sales explode. On traditional Jazz in the eighties, everything relates to introspection and retrospective analysis of this music as an art form. As the traditional radio format shrinks—or is not expanding—for this music, I am sure that there are concerns from every angle of the business. In the meantime everyone struggles to survive.

Basil Marshall,
Novus/RCA Records

The Gavin Report has been responsible, in large part, for providing the necessary exposure to over 100 Jazz/Adult Alternative titles a week. While there has always been great diversity to the Jazz product released in the past, there seems to be a much greater awareness of the whole picture—from "straight ahead" to "crossover" to "new age" to "alternative/pop." Not only are artists blurring the lines of distinction, radio has become more flexible by daring to format themselves along some or all of these lines. Finally, radio is attempting to become in synch with the average adult's record buying hab-

I believe three issues will provide the impetus for radio to get back into the forefront of human consciousness: one, a continued and intensified effort by the nations of the world to provide basic Human Rights and dignity to all people; two, a mass realization that we cannot continue to use and dispose of the planet Earth without threatening Human extinction and three, a discovery of the rich and varied musical heritage of the World's cultures and a willingness to incorporate the melodies and rhythms into a new and more universal sound.

Michael Canning,

I think Brazilian music has always been influential in Jazz—from the rhythms of samba to Jobim's compositions. It used to be all treated as Latin music, but now people are aware of the differences between Brazilian music and, let's say, Cuban music.

Ricardo Silveira,

KPLU is using Afro-Jazz and Blues to compliment our Jazz format. The inclusion of these two elements into our mix has added variety, rhythm and passion to our sound. Since people respond to music more on an emotional level than an intellectual one, we feel that there is real audience growth potential by playing these styles. Finding vocals that work seems to be an on-going task for Jazz stations. At times Jazz can be very complex and can take itself a little too seriously. These styles keep it simple and fun.

Joe Cohn,
KPLU-Tacoma/Seattle

When we decided to enter the frontline music business, we purposely began with Jazz and Adult Alternative product. Our Headfirst and Nouveau artists are allowed complete creative freedom. The consumer is anxious to hear new, innovative performers while remaining loyal to proven greats. Radio also supports both new acts and established names. And broadcasters do listen to all releases and evaluate them with no fear of exposing and testing the music. It is always a pleasure to talk with programmers who know their product. The acceptance and rapid expansion of the Gavin charts for these formats in one short year has reinforced our commitment to this music. Our heartfelt thanks to radio for their support and our congratulations to the committed, enthusiastic Zimmermen and all the Gavin staff.

Al Bergamo,
K-tel Int'l (USA), Inc.

I feel we are moving further away from great acoustic music with the emergence of digital technology. However, a keyboard, sampler or sequencer is only as brilliant as the musician who programs it. I hope we never lose the ability to appreciate the music that has stayed true to the original art form and which has been the greatest innovative catalyst in this industry.

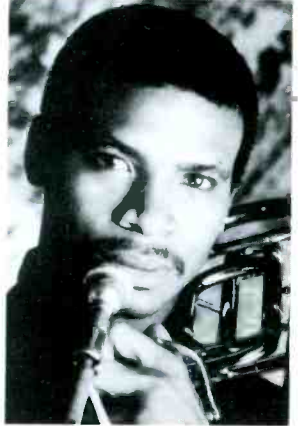

Debbie Dumas,
MCA Jazz

Only two albums in the Top Twenty are by leaders who play electronic instruments. It is interesting from that standpoint that we're enmeshed in the "Electronic Age" and yet our music leaders in Jazz are returning to the acoustic instruments. It seems as though music with a more melodic theme is outweighing music without. However this is not to say that the music being recorded by Branford, Wynton and other young musicians will have no place to go. There is nothing more exciting to me as a programmer than hearing a new group with a fresh sound becoming accepted by my audience.

Rick Petrone,
WJAZ-Stamford

It's exciting to finally see friends and musical peers emerge into the forefront of the current music scene. The different personal viewpoints that exist, such as the variety of directions within the M-BASE collective are very stimulating to me. I'm very optimistic about the future of the improvised music.

Robin Eubanks,
JMT Recording Artist

Since the inception of your charts, I have seen greater acceptance for more straight-ahead and fusion artists from a wide variety of stations. I am glad to see the adult formats opening up to embrace all Jazz music, thanks to the alternative charts. We all need more exposure for our artists. I can only see the music spiraling upward with magazine support like Gavin and with tremendous station support across the country. We can only have more outlets for our music. I predict more Jazz on regular A/C outlets.

Paul Stritling,

During the last year, we have seen major growth within the Jazz and Adult Alternative formats. The artists have matured into superstars for their respective formats, and have paved the way for the development of new artists and their music. Radio continues to welcome these new artist and their new sounds. The future of the format continues to rely upon the ability of the stations to address the needs and the challenges of its adult audiences. We as an industry must challenge ourselves to remain progressive.

Kevin Gore,
CBS-FM Records

I hope you were surprised to find our yellow songsheet fall out of this week's issue. This ten minute audio excursion is my personal account of where it all came from—Free Form, Progressive, FM. Today's Adult Alternative and Jazz formats have filled a void of cultural enrichment as no established format can. Singles success of Enya and Julia Fordham, etcetera, have hit for a variety of formats. The challenge still remains for more instrumentals to make that crossover, quantum leap. I believe these wordless wonders provide more vivid visuals for adults than many a saccharine vocal. Baby Boomers are still the big bulge demo and for them, being hip has been reconstituted and redefined.

Roger Lifeset,
Roger Lifeset Inc.

Since Jazz is a continuum, my role as a Jazz singer is to redefine the music as a cultural expression of Blacks in America and move it into the future.

Cassandra Wilson,
JMT Recording Artist

As it stands right now, the average consumer walks into their local record store knowing that they've heard Jazz they like, but can't find it in the one or two bins indiscriminately labeled "Jazz." This causes confusion, frustration and an eventual detour out of the Jazz section and into the "rock" or "pop" section. If the Jazz industry wants growth in the 1990s, I suggest a mutually agreed upon classification system that will help guide the consumer through their appreciation process and eventually through their purchase pattern. There are basically three subformats within the Jazz industry that could constructively function and reach this goal of standardized classification: one, Traditional Jazz, two, Contemporary Jazz, and three, New Age.

Jim Rock, Producer,
Beyond Bourbon Jazz Countdown

The music we call Jazz is enjoying more popularity than ever before and as the Baby Boomers age, that popularity can only increase. We run into trouble, however, when we try to define what Jazz is and what it isn't. We need to learn that Jazz is as individualistic as the people who create and enjoy it. We need to stop wasting time trying to define and pigeon-hole this music, and devote more of our energies toward presenting the music in the best, most informative means possible.

Brian Delp,
Prairie Public Radio/KCND-Bismarck

The Adult Alternative format has undergone a plethora of changes since its inception. Coming from the two purist-associated genres of "New Age" and Jazz, original programmers were faced with satisfying two very different and discerning publics. To accomplish this, and to gain an even larger audience, they found they needed to add vocals to complete their musical mix. Now, it seems that vocals have become the focal point of this mix, rather than filler. They have become the statement by which stations reflect their personalities. The vocal stars emerging from this format have one common denominator—quality. They are the true superstars of tomorrow. Geffen Records is a company that takes great pride in the originality of its artists. The Adult Alternative outlook seems to be the same.

Christina Anthony and Yvonne Olson,
Geffen Records

Until recently, mainstream A/C was under siege from only Top 40, Country and Oldies radio formats. With the advent and success of Adult Alternative radio, traditional A/C now has another threat. Few A/C programmers see it coming and even fewer know what to do about it. Adult Alternative radio is doing what A/C radio is not—controlling its audio ambience—providing a consistent sound which is not derivative of other formats. Adult Alternative stations and their audience are passionate about their music. Their listeners patronize the art form and are quality conscious audiophiles. The indifference often shown by A/C programmers toward the music of their format will be their undoing. And aggressive, contemporary thinking from Adult Alternative programmers will continue to steal quality listeners to this refreshing, new format.

Ron Fell,
the Gavin Report

People will have a greater appreciation for the healing and spiritual nature of music. I think a couple of players will step out much like Coltrane did. These players will use technology to draw on other cultures and combine the two. As this information becomes more accessible, the music will have a greater influence on the condition of the planet.

Jimmy Haslip,
Yellowjackets,
MCA Recording Artist

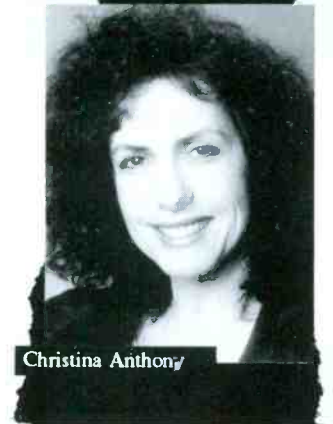

While the eighties saw a bounty of synthesized, hi-tech sound, the onset of "World Beat" music in the nineties is providing listeners with natural sounding music, appealing to our more basic senses. Perhaps it is because our culture has become so citified that we now desire a simple, more organic music. American artists like Lee Ritenour, Manhattan Transfer, David Byrne and Paul Simon have all introduced albums displaying Brazilian and African influence. And foreign artists like Ivan Lins and Ladysmith Black Mambazo are coming into their own, enjoy-

Carol Davis

In the last five years we've seen tremendous growth in Jazz sales, based on broadening avenues of radio airplay. Also supporting this wider radio exposure are the twin market explosions of Baby Boomers and CDs. This potent combination has meant that more adults are out there in the marketplace, demanding more sophisticated sounds to accompany their hectic lives—both at home and "on the go." And what better way to enjoy these sounds than through the digital magic of compact discs! As we move into the nineties we can expect these trends to continue as Baby Boomer adults, raised on rock, continue to explore new musical alternatives. We'll see more Jazz on adult-targeted video outlets like VH-1 and more avenues of exposure from Jazz-flavored singles to cutting edge videos and film scores to DAT and other new music carriers. Jazz will continue to be an important part of the eclectic soundtrack of the next decade.

Harold Childs,
Warner Bros. Records

With the shifting demographics, I'm noticing elevated taste levels in all musical genres, particularly NAC/Jazz/Adult Alternative. Electronic music and home computers have definitely changed the market on music. I'm sure the nineties will bring a sifting of those of us truly committed to full-blown, quality production from the "closet synth writer." Hopefully this will alleviate the glut of product from all levels and make programming music once again more enjoyable for those in the industry.

Carol Davis,
Visual Musik

I find that there are a lot of really good young Jazz players emerging. Musicians today are more exposed to other cultures and also new technology. This will influence the sound and instrumentation of Jazz in the nineties. But I don't think anything can substitute the creative essence of the music.

Eliane Elias,
Blue Note Recording Artist

It's nice to see that this style of music is steadily becoming more accessible and recognized for its value, as evidenced by Gavin's Jazz/Adult Alternative charts. It's a real kick to see Jim Chappell and Ray Lynch on the same page with the Neville Brothers, Van Morrison and Lou Rawls. Congrats on the first year. Keep it up!

Kenny Altman,
Music West Records

The continued success of Jazz ultimately depends on what the artists give us. I am very optimistic about the future, as we've had over a decade for the blend of traditional and contemporary forms to come together. This blend being best represented by Chick Corea, Yellowjackets and Rob Mullins. In the nineties, many new artists will contribute by intelligently mixing the two styles. We now have the opportunity to draw from a wide array of talented vocalists such as Tuck and Patti, Basia and Mica Paris. Jazz has now become the framework of pop music. At this point, we gotten the audience's attention and they are becoming more familiar with the artist's identity.

Russ Davis,
WQCD-New York

The possibilities for Jazz are now unlimited. Saxophonists on commercials, a wider range of performance venues, the configuration explosion and hybrid radio formats have brought Jazz into the mainstream of American popular culture. The main hindrance to breaking Jazz to a wider audience lies in the reluctance of important network TV programs such as "The Tonight Show," "Good Morning America" and "The Arsenio Hall Show" to present Jazz with any consistency. Programs such as CNN's "Show Business Today," "The Today Show" and CBS' "Sunday Morning" are examples of programs that handle the music with good taste, without disrupting the commercial intentions of the medium.

Don Lucoff,
DL Media-New York

We will see and hear a lot of people playing music. This will cause Jazz to expand and grow because there will be great masters to learn from. Duke Ellington's concept of perfecting all styles of Jazz will be explored in-depth. Kids are also exposed to Jazz at an earlier age. The greatest impact, however, will be an increased opportunity to hear the music live as Jazz is a "living music."

Marcus Roberts,
Novus/RCA Recording Artist

By its very definition, Jazz is an improvisational art form and will continue to evolve as the music moves into the 21st Century. But the roots of Jazz run deep and its improvisa-

OTHER TIMES OTHER PLACES - DAVID FRIESEN (GLOBAL PACIFIC/CBS)

Bravo! Where else besides Jazz could an instrument like the bass be subject to this much scrutiny? Certainly much closer to the Jazz spectrum than AA, bassist David Friesen explores the Jazz bottom realms with an emphasis on acoustic. Most of the melody lines on compositions like "Festival Dance," "Our 25th Year" or "Tyrone's Dedication" are strongly reinforced by saxophonist Phil

Dwyer, who provides unison support. Rounding out the talent pool is no less than Flora Purim, Airto Moriera (who gives Other Times Other Places a natural percussive feel) and pianist Denny Zeitlin. My favorite track is the farthest out, "Childhood Walk." Though deceptively tame sounding, the structure takes a walk on the wild side. Nice touch.

JAZZ NEW RELEASES

CITY OF EYES - RALPH TOWNER (ECM)

Guitarist Ralph Towner's latest on ECM is the label's most accessible airplay project since the Carla Bley/Steve Swallow project of last year. Towner, a co-founder of Oregon in 1971 with Paul McCandless (who ironically appears only on the album's loftier moments), is respected as one of Jazz's few living guitar masters specializing in classical six-string. He's also probably the only acoustic twelve-string virtuoso that springs to mind. Best described by some as an impressionistic jazz folkie, Towner is—compositionally—all over the fretboard like a mad concert pianist. The tracks to key in on are wonderfully varied. The opener, "Jamaica Stopper," is a tenuous folk song performed on six string. Proceed to "Sipping The Past" for the set's definitive twelve-string performance piece. Towner also has substantial duet talents and he shines with bassist Gary Peacock on "Les Douzilles." Our favorite track, and one that could possibly attract double format play, is "Far Cry" where a drummer Jerry Granelli is added to the aforementioned duet configuration.

RIQUE PANTOJA (SOUNDWAVE/WEALATINA)

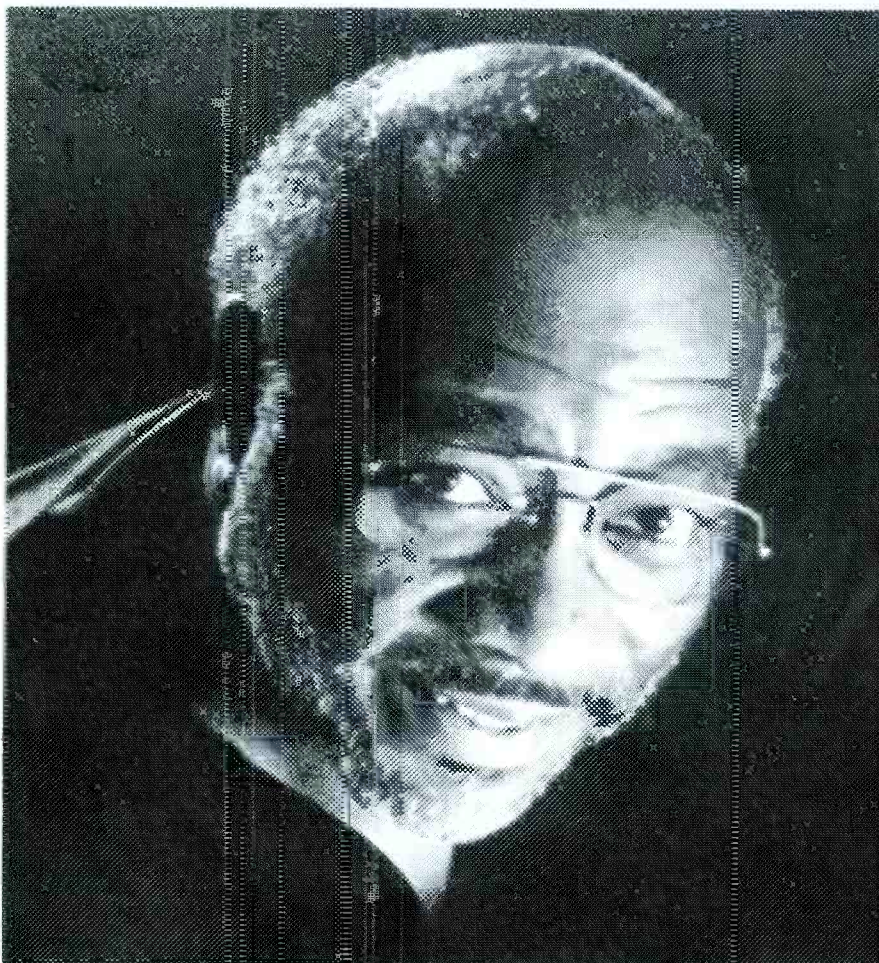

Rique is a vibrant keyboardist/arranger who following his Berklee education toured all over Europe. While there he formed a band and also toured with the late Chet Baker. Back in Brazil Pantoja gigged with Gilberto Gil and then toured the globe with Djavan. Pantoja is currently the keyboardist in Milton Nascimento's band. Now, what more reason does one need to check out this CD on Sound Wave, a new Jazz/AA subsidiary label for WEA Latina? While we await Pantoja's collaboration with Chet "Let's Get Lost" Baker, here's Rique's first stateside delivery featuring saxman Ernie Watts. Try "DX Samba," "Morena" and "Trilha." Rique's work tingles like fine Czech crystal next to Watts' dependable offerings. Contact WEA Latina's Jessica Chornesky at 818-955-8050. From what we hear,

HAPPENSON SUNDAY - TELL ME TELL ME (IMAGINE)

Kincaid Miller and Johnny Thompson are two chaps who call themselves Tell Me Tell Me, Miller playing keyboards and Thompson playing as the bass and guitar. They also have talented friends lending support, including Yellowjacket Mark Russo and a fine drummer named Darrel Verdusco, who we've seen bashing away with folks like Ry Cooder, Paul Kantner and an enigmatic wacko strummer named Dirk Hamilton. Quite simply, Tell Me Tell Me has released the finest independent project we've heard in months. If you're looking for commercially viable instrumentals that soar with hipness and chops, this is it. Tracks like the short "Seaborn's Song" into "Here With You" along with "Peaceful World" will fit snugly with Wave type formatics. Yet every track is worth a listen and the recording packs a sonic wallop. The opening vocal track "Whisper To Me" skillfully charts the mood of the entire set and programmers who are looking for modern, driving stuff should key in on edgy raveups like "Flying" and "Happens On Sunday." We highly recommend this set, which is already drawing attention from a lot of hip stations. Call Roger Lifeset at 818-991-7668 or band-member Thompson at 415-927-7628 if you haven't received this gem.

THE CLOCK AND THE MOON - SKIPPER WISE (CYPRESS/A&M)

Skipper Wise, known in the Los Angeles area for his work with the Timmerman/Wise duo, has enjoyed a long and fruitful association with the progressive adult music movement. The Clock And The Moon is Wise's vocal showcase and on this he teams up with Al Stewart's talented guitarist/writer/cohort Peter White. The first two tracks, "Standing Outside In The Rain" and "Tell Me, Tell Me" benefit the most from their teamwork. Both tracks have the signature saxophone accompaniment that listeners will associate with Stewart's recordings, along with lyrics that have an endearing, exotic feel—perfect for "wave" vocal pitstops. Already a Most Added Adult Alternative.

tion should enhance the melody, not rewrite history. KDSU is committed to the "melody" and the American art form known as Jazz. Since joining Gavin, my product service has tripled as the format stays current with Jazz as a welcome radio alternative in the Midwest.

Karen Severtsen-Olson,
KDSU-Fargo

Two areas of music that I feel will be more highly represented in the Jazz/Adult Alternative format are World Music and Folk. World Music is just starting to appear and programmers and listeners are in the state of being educated as to what this music is all about. I believe that more and more record labels will be putting out music from all parts of the world and that this will fit with what the format is doing now. Additionally, the return of Folk music with its politically and socially relevant lyrics is both timely and overdue. This is the format where chances will be taken. I see that the major labels will continue to use Adult Alternative to break reemerging artists such as Van Morrison and Judy Collins.

Neal Sapper,
Global Pacific Records

Jazz music continues to be a mainstay here at BSU Radio Network, but I see a change in the way Jazz music is regarded. Traditionally, Jazz music has been the inferior mate of Classical music in NPR programming. While Classical is still the dominant music in NPR programming, Jazz continues to gain in influence. In a recent listener survey our station conducted, Jazz programming had grown to claim its own substantial following. Our Jazz programs rated higher in popularity than a number of our established Classical shows.

Phil Matlock, KBSU/
BSU Radio Network-Boise

Musicians of all calibers and styles seemed to pause and take stock of where Jazz has come from, perhaps, as Malcolm X pointed out, to get a grasp on where we're going. The result of this exploration into the music of Charlie Parker, John Coltrane, Charles Mingus and Duke Ellington gave us, at Jazz radio, some of the best music to program for years to come. Even the listeners seem more willing to listen—not just for entertainment value alone, but for music to express the intangible emotions that perhaps they are unable to articulate themselves.

Yvonne Anderson,
WNAA-Greensboro, NC

The WXTS staff hopes that we and Gavin have helped each other in promoting Jazz in Northwest Ohio. We have been a Jazz-only service for over ten years and the old-timers here have noticed an increased acceptance of OUR music. We believe that we are fast approaching a time when the new audience for Jazz can be educated about the original works of Armstrong, Ellington, Tatum, Clifford Brown and others. Let's not ignore the roots of Jazz while the newer artists prosper!

John Kushell,
WXTS-Toledo

The big story for Jazz will be an upsurge of interest in Jazz roots and traditions led by Wynton and Branford Marsalis, as well as Joshua Breakstone and Chris Hollyday. Taking Wynton's lead, many musicians, young and old, will present a nineties mainstream Jazz that both radio listeners and concertgoers will support. This surge may be just a blip in the early part of the next decade, but "real Jazz" has always had a hardcore following. This charge up the hill by stars such as Wynton and others may be just what is needed.

Carl Watanabe,
WEVO-Concord, NH

The young musicians today have tremendous technical ability but many do not play with a feeling of emotion. I think the nineties will find many artists quite adept at combining technique with feeling.

Don Pullen,
Blue Note Recording Artist

We play a wide variety of Jazz throughout our broadcast day ranging from the progressive acoustic stylings of Don Pullen to the electronic powerhouses such as Steps Ahead. We lean more than 50 per cent toward "mainstream," i.e. bebop, big band, vocals ala Ella. The "New Age" music—a term which everyone seems to now despise—has definitely infiltrated our format in an effective manner.

John J. Werick,
WBFO-Buffalo

Jazz is in its healthiest condition ever with so many veterans and elder statesmen of the music imparting their rich heritage to the emerging keepers of the flame. Then the youngsters build on that exceptionally sound foundation. Just think how many gifted and dedicated players came along in the eighties and how many careers have been rejuvenated. Previously, such films like Round Midnight and Bird would have had scant chance of being made, much less garnering the media attention afforded to Charlie Parker and Dexter Gordon. The promise of the nineties is boundless. Duke Ellington's famous declaration still holds true: "It don't mean a thing if it ain't got that swing."

Bob Hammond,
KANU-Lawrence

Congratulations to all at Gavin for a very successful first year with the Jazz format. What this music needs in order to become more understood and accepted is increased involvement by the record manufacturer, radio stations and the print media. It is in the latter that Gavin has excelled, providing important information to record companies, personality profiles that are interesting and charts that reflect the true voyage of a release from the instant it enters to the moment it exits. All this is due to the position you assumed at the beginning—build a good, strong base of reporting stations and you will, in turn, come up with a truer picture for the charts. Keep on doing what you're doing. This way Jazz will always have a friend, a good friend. Jazz lives!

Duke DuBois, GRP

The biggest development for radio in the past decade is the rise of the blended format. Programmers have found ways instrumental and vocal music can cooperate, not just to fill preconceived musical niches, but to create altogether new niches. The next steps are already being taken as predominantly vocal formats are enriching their mixes with contemporary instrumental music. But the goal of all this blending can't be eclecticism for its own sake. We have to satisfy an audience. And a station can do so by creating a unique world of sound. It's innovation, not imitation, that will determine the future.

Steve Elman,
WBUR-Boston

There is a general awareness among musicians that quality music is produced by utilizing a variety of styles, mainly ethnic musics. Faster access through the media is allowing other musicians to check each other out. These facets are expanding the music at a quicker rate than ever before.

Bob Mintzer,
DMP Recording Artist

The Jazz format and its Adult Alternative hybrids—Quiet Storm, New Age, etcetera—has proven successful in cities such as New York, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Chicago, Detroit, while smaller cities have contributed through progressive programming and the use of syndicators. Why? Because visionary PDs and MDs have noted the "Graying Of America," whose musical palate is looking for something more progressive and "America's youth," who continue to search for something that's a little more sophisticated. Both groups are looking for the "alternative" to the common trends in music today and Jazz fills these needs while attracting major advertising.

Joe Grant,
Warner Bros. Jazz

A year ago, there wasn't any place to go for comprehensive Jazz radio information. You had to look in separate places for information on artists, reviews on new releases and chart information. There wasn't a publication that even bothered to cover the entire spectrum of Jazz—from mainstream to contemporary to adult contemporary. The Gavin Report has taken the initiative in filling the void surrounding Jazz by successfully providing a wide scope of information.

JoAnn Urofsky,
WAER-Syracuse

In just a short period of time, our music has grown from a small colony to a large, diverse nation that can accommodate many styles and interests. As with any nation, it requires management, even a little control, to try to keep a semblance of order. "Gatekeepers" like us try to regulate the flow of traffic in and out of the borders, with the borders themselves becoming catalysts. It ain't perfect, but it's the best "nation" yet.

Ace Lopez,
KAZU-Monterey

Congratulations to the Gavin Report on the one year anniversary of the Jazz section. I was a little skeptical at first, but I'm truly impressed with the great work put into the section itself. It's extremely well laid-out with interesting reviews. The success of the section certainly goes to both Keith and Kent Zimmerman. Your hard work paid off in many ways. I see it every Friday when I have to fight off our DJ's to get to our copy. I utilize Gavin as a funnel of information passed on to our announcers. Grow and stay young.

Rod Flores, KCSM-
San Francisco/San Mateo

I guess the days of staggering releases has been passed over. We are now bombarded with music all at once. Don't get me wrong, it's great to have all this great music to play, but sometimes it's a pain to talk to someone about ten of their label's albums. It would seem to be better to be consistently in the top ten over a year than to be number one only a couple of months as each label competes with each other.

Jon Kettering,
KMHD-Gresham/Portland

Predictions are a tricky issue as they often come back to haunt you. I can better speculate on my own ambitions in music. I would like to travel to French West Africa around Zaire, places where people aren't hearing many of us live. I want to set up solo in a village and play—talk to the animals, too!

Tony Williams,
Blue Note Recording Artist

ON RATINGS & RESEARCH...

by Jhan Hiber

THE RATINGS PICTURE FOR JAZZ: SWEET NOTES OR SOUR?

Jazz has a tough time getting respect in the ratings books.

New Age Jazz has gone through the roof in the ratings!

Both of the above are true. And false.

Of all the formats we think of when it comes to the American musical spectrum, it seems ironic that one of the most unique and special aspects of that musical array—Jazz in its various forms—has such a tough time doing well in the ratings. And yet there are signs of hope. Let's review some history, look at the recent impact of the "New Age" approach, then see what the Spring Arbitron and Birches have to say.

Mainstream Jazz: Tough Times

If one can refer to any aspect of Jazz as "traditional" we'll do so—as in Jazz before the New Age explosion recently. Mainstream Jazz stations have often hit sour notes with the folks who keep diaries and report to Arbitron. Perhaps the nadir of the situation happened in New York City, of all places, when the legendary WRVR died. And became a Country music station, no less. Later that station became the now popular light A/C outlet WLTW—playing mainstream music for "white bread" listeners.

One of the best all-Jazz stations in America is WJZZ, in my former stomping grounds of Detroit. During my days at the legendary Top 40 station CKLW, yours truly would always enjoy checking out some sounds of WJZZ. However, when the ratings books came from Uncle Arbitron, you'd always find WJZZ between a 2-3 share. It was like there was a conspiracy to keep the station from showing too well.

Of course there's no conspiracy to keep any format down on the farm. However, perhaps due to lifestyle or other factors it seems Jazz fans aren't the best diarykeepers. Just look at the WRVR-WKHK-WLTW evolution in New York. The diary just wasn't kind to Jazz, but is especially up the alley of mainstream folks who like A/C music.

The Qualitative Sell

So if all-Jazz stations could muster lots of bodies in the ratings, what's next? If you can't market the quantity of your audience you push the quality of your listeners. Much as Classical stations have done over the years, Jazz stations caught on to this approach. One of the assets here lately has been the Birch ratings reports. While Jazz may or may not show better in Birch than Arbitron (it seems to vary by market/station) at least the Birch quarterly ratings books contain useful qualitative info. Arbitron's ratings books do not.

"New Age" Jazz: Better Ratings Bet?

Jazz has taken on a new vigor and form with the popular emergence of the "New Age" sound. Since the debut on radio in February, '87 at The Wave (KTWV) in L.A., this form has evolved into a format that in some cases has delivered notable Arbitron numbers. Whether locally programmed or on satellite, the New Age explosion that began in L.A. has now successfully spread to San Francisco, Sacramento, New York, Cleveland—among other markets. It's no ratings panacea, however, as Pyramid has found out in Chicago (WNUA).

The good news is that the fresh appeal of this version of Jazz, often mixed with other musical genres, has gotten some saleable numbers. In both L.A. and San Francisco (KKSF), the Winter sweep results from Arbitron found the format in the top three among adults 25/49 and 25/54. In Sacramento KQPT (The Point) was even #1 12+ in one book.

But that's the question. How long can the format sustain such success? Is it a one or two book wonder, destined to recede to a niche such as that occupied by the mainstream all-Jazz stations?

The latest ratings tea leaves are not encouraging—on the surface. In L.A., San Francisco, Sacramento and New York (WQCD) for example, the Spring Arbitrons showed notable slippage for the stations on this approach. The Birches weren't much better. However, even in the Spring Birch data both KKSF and WQCD are ranked sixth 25-49 respectively in San Francisco and New York. Top three it ain't—but it's hardly the end of the world either.

Questions, Challenges Remain

In my new home turf of the Philadelphia market there's no Jazz station (commercial at least) of any genre. My ear tells me there's a hole for a New Age Jazz station. It's been examined by stations here. Yet no one has taken the plunge. Why? Here are some of the key questions or challenges Jazz has to meet in order to become more widespread and successful in commercial radio:

- Is there the music inventory to sustain a New Age approach? Owners, GMs and PDs need, in some cases, to be convinced that if they go with this format it won't be repetitive due to lack of material.

- What kind of ratings can be expected—and sustained? Was the ratings success in some markets just the public's reaction to the otherwise boring material on other playlists? Or is there some deep vein in the public's taste, especially the Baby Boomers, crying out for some musical experimentation? Could this be the next version of Album Radio, which when it exploded opened up horizons for artists and listeners alike?

- How do you market such a station? So far New Age has drawn from Album and A/C stations most heavily (Black/Urban also were relevant). Organizing a campaign to appeal to a diverse group like that could be tricky—and tricky too could be the challenge of holding your new listeners if someone else freshens their sound.

Jazz: An Exciting Future

While there are many questions to be answered and challenges to be met one thing is clear to this writer. Jazz is on the comeback trail and has an exciting future. Whether mainstream or New Age, the format has generated some momentum lately. Now the task is to get the numbers—qualitatively or quantitatively—that can make the format profitable. Let's stay tuned to see how this story works out!

Next week we'll begin to help you tear apart your Spring ratings report in another of our "Ratings 101" series. See you then!•

by Eric Norberg

UPGRADING AM SOUND

On April 12, the FCC took a long-anticipated step to help AM broadcasters get better quality receivers into the hands of consumers—or at least I think they did. They certainly did make a move to reduce interference between stations, which should improve coverage for many AM stations.

The FCC was confronted with its' own, and the NAB's proposal to make mandatory the use by AM stations of the "NRSC standard," which as I've explained before introduces a pre-emphasis (standard treble boost) curve, essentially the same as the mandatory FM pre-emphasis curve as far as 10,000 Hz and then cutting off all potential transmission above 10 kHz (FM rolls off audio above about 15 kHz). The proposals were separated into NRSC-1 and NRSC-2, with NRSC-1 embodying the pre-emphasis curve and 10 kHz cutoff in the audio chain, and NRSC-2 providing for cutoff of all high-frequency audio products above 10 kHz "out of the transmitter." These are not exactly the same thing, because although audio may be limited to 10 kHz, if you limit it going into the transmitter with a clipper, and/or if there are transmitter nonlinearities in responding to the input audio, the transmitter may generate harmonics or "splatter" above 10 kHz, which on AM means interference of more than 10 kHz on both sides of the main signal—potentially interfering with stations nearby on the dial despite the audio 10 kHz restriction.

Consequently, the NAB and most broadcasters were urging the FCC to make NRSC-1 mandatory at this time, since implementation of that would require equipment costing usually well under $1,000, and contemplate making NRSC-2 mandatory at a later date when inexpensive equipment would become available to monitor "splatter."

On April 12 of this year, the FCC acted decisively on this proposal—backwards!! Yes, they made NRSC-2 mandatory (effective June 30, 1990)—and did not make NRSC-1 mandatory! Confusing? You betcha. Then the Commission stated that stations that DO use the NRSC-1 audio standard will be ASSUMED to be in compliance with NRSC-2 until June 30, 1994, after which compliance with NRSC-2 itself will be mandatory.

So let's recap. What AM radio wanted most was the mandatory pre-emphasis curve, which would prod manufacturers to build higher-fidelity AM radios with the full 10 kHz bandwidth and the complimentary de-emphasis curve. What the FCC did though, was make mandatory an anti-splatter measure, and leave the pre-emphasis curve still optional! But—if you do use the pre-emphasis curve and 10 kHz cutoff, the Commission will consider that you are meeting the anti-splatter rule for the first four years. Isn't this bizarre? One way or the other the FCC action means that splatter interference between stations should end no later than next June 30—but it does seem as if the major effort toward getting a specific high-fidelity standard for the manufacturers to use in building AM radios has been detoured off the road and over the cliff.

Ironically, since it will be cheaper for stations to implement NRSC-1 rather than NRSC-2, probably all stations will be in compliance with NRSC-1 by next June anyway, to meet this rule—but without the force of an FCC mandate which would have brought broadcasters the receivers we want to see in all future consumer equipment.

The FCC may not even realize that they have thus blunted the impact of their ruling—and perhaps snatched defeat from the jaws of victory—because a statement by FCC Commissioner Patricia Diaz Dennis, released on April 12 says, "I hope that...the receiver manufacturers will get the message and give consumers the option of buying high-quality AM receivers." Since the main excuse manufacturers have been using all along for not building such receivers was the wide variety of AM pre-emphasis used from station to station, and the need to design radios that would not sound shrill or distorted when such audio processing is in use, a mandatory pre-emphasis standard was the one event that would probably have brought such manufacture about—and that is the one thing the FCC failed to do.

Apparently the main reason the FCC did not take this step was the belief that the NRSC-1 pre-emphasis curve "can be readily circumvented or abused by adjustments made to other audio processing equipment." This bit of reasoning strikes me as something right out of Alice In Wonderland! After all, the same thing can be said for FM audio processing, which is added to exactly the same transmission pre-emphasis curve! Sue you can make a station sound shrill or muddy by tinkering with the processing—but if you start with a standard transmission pre-emphasis curve, which the receiver de-emphasizes complementarily, the result out of the receiver will be the same as it was out of the audio processing—as is also in FM, TV, phonograph records and cassette tapes, all of which use this same method for high-frequency noise reduction. This is not the first time the FCC has issued a rule which defeats its own purpose—the same can be said for the way in which AM positive peaks were restricted many years ago—but this is probably the most obvious example to date. Somehow, each time, the one thing nobody who knows the technology involved even suspects they will do is what they always do. It's baffling.

Nonetheless, as eccentric as this NRSC rule for AM has turned out to be, it is a step forward and may result in some improvement in AM receiver design. If splatter is reduced, as it should be by the new rule, wider band (high fidelity) AM reception does become practical—and it would make sense for any new wideband radios to conform to the NRSC-1 de-emphasis curve, rather than any other curve, since it is as close to a "standard" as there is at the moment. The problem is just that there is now less motivation for manufacturers to make the effort to make any changes in AM receiver manufacture than there would have been if NRSC-1 had been made mandatory to begin with.

We'll update AM audio technology next week. •

•BILLY HILL

The group known as Billy Hill is inspired by the "legend" of the same name. The folks at Reprise (who never lie) say Billy Hill once recorded an album called Poultry In Motion.

•STARSHIP

In one of the more ironic bookings of all time, the group Starship will perform on August 10 in Broomfield, Colorado. What makes it so strange is the name of the venue, The Jefferson Airport.

•JEFF HEALEY

Born 22 years ago with eye cancer, Jeff was legally blind at the age of one. Growing up in Toronto, Healey's unique form of guitar playing is completely self-taught.

•PRINCE

When Simon Climie wrote I KNEW YOU WERE WAITING FOR ME it was intended as a duet for Aretha Franklin and Prince. The Purple One chose not to record the song, which led to George Michael taking the male lead.

•DENNIS QUAID

An accomplished singer/musician even before preparing for his role as Jerry Lee Lewis in Great Balls Of Fire, Dennis Quaid has signed to record an album for Capitol Records.

HOODOO GURUS

ONE BRIGHT DAY - ZIGGY MARLEY & THE MELODY MAKERS (VIRGIN)

As Burning Spear used to chant, this new Marley effort is "drier and heavier." After the pop gloss of the last album, One Bright Day has more bite, more interplay between Ziggy's detached vocals and the female "I-Three"-type call and response background voices. One Bright Moment actually has many bright moments. While "Look Who's Dancing" is the album's lightest and catchiest song—compositionally speaking—there's meat in the form of "All Love," "When The Lights Gone Out" and the serious opener "Black My Story." Side two offers a little anarchy including "Justice," "Pains Of Life" and "Love Is The Only Law." "Urb-an Music" is a play toward Black radio, a medium Ziggy's father Bob Marley regretted never penetrating.

THE HANGMEN (CAPITOL)

Tip of the Gavin hat to Dave Sholin and Linda Ryan for turning me on to The Hangmen. File this one under bottomline backbeat rock n roll. The Hangmen's raunch and roll, ironically, became the very last project for pub-rock producer Vic Maile, who died last week after a bout with cancer. In every way this album is a tribute to both Maile's rough and tumble career and to this young band's ability to say big things with only the most basic tools. Turn this sucker up, okay? Trax—"Desperation Town" and "Coal Mine" for starters.

"COLD FRONT" - WEBB WILDER (ISLAND)

I can't endorse Webb Wilder's concept more heartily. My CD copy of his indie album on Landslide is one of my prized, jealously-guarded possessions. The guitar work by Donnie "The Twangler" Roberts is always superb. Webb's loowww voice (that's him on the middle bridge) is distinctive. One warning—you're dealing with a clever mind. Check out the spoken intros. Filmmaker, writer, songwriter Webb gives us a first taste of the new album with "Cold Front." Watch out, it's c-c-c-c-cold stuff.

NEW RELEASES

"NEW THING" - ENUFF Z'NUFF (ATCO)

This Chicago band was created from the ashes of Chip Z'Nuff's faltering minor league baseball pitching career. Sick to death of getting smacked around on the mound, Z'Nuff took to rock n roll writing. If Cheap Trick comes to your mind on first listen, you're not alone. This is chainsaw pop rock.

"ATOMIC PLAYBOYS" - STEVE STEVENS & ATOMIC PLAYBOYS (WARNER BROS.)

Guitarist Steve Stevens finally comes up with a piece of work on par with the music he recorded with his more celebrated sidekick, Billy Idol. This is a hard rockin' anthem for the nuclear nineties. These "radiation romeos" kick up some great noise. Don't be afraid to push up the volume on that guitar solo toward the end. It's as forceful as anything off of "Rebel Yell."

"JUST WANNA HOLD" - MICK JONES (ATLANTIC)

After forging the Foreigner legacy and playing studio doctor for the likes of Van Halen and Bad Company, this is Mick Jones' first official solo item. Co-written by one of my heroes, Ian Hunter, and, you know, I can almost hear Ian singing this one for himself. Mick, who has always had a great rock ear, calls in the chips as Ian, Joe Lynn Turner and Billy Joel guest on this jolly rocker.

"NO MONEY AT ALL" - BRENDAN CROKER & THE 5 O'CLOCK SHADOWS (SILVERTONE/RCA)

Silly me. Listening to a blank tape, I found myself making the usual Dire Straits comparisons. Maybe it's because that's Mark Knopfler on lead guitar. Before there were the Straits, there were pub rockers like Dave Edmunds, Ducks DeLuxe, Brinsley Schwartz (the band) and many more. Brendan seems to rise from such pub rocking roots. Listening through the whole LP (due in mid-August), I think I heard Eric Clapton singing as well. "No Money At All," for all the poverty it espouses, sure evokes a good feeling.

MAGNUM CUM LOUDER - HOODOO GURUS (RCA)

Hoodoo Gurus are known in the United States as a band who dispense no craperoo. They tend to conquer Alternative correspondents who aren't usually so enamored with a band whose approach can be defined as mainstream. Songs like "Axegrinder" show the Gurus' working-class approach to their rock n roll. Yet on the very next track is their less coarse side. Part of the sonic appeal of Magnum Cum Louder is the flagrant use of acoustic guitar, which creates a tangible base. Even though their music is loud and produced, the strummed acoustic base makes the music sound believably composed and human. Other trax: "Come Anytime," "Where's The Hit" and "Another World."

THIS IS THE DAY...THIS IS THE HOUR...THIS IS THIS! - POP WILL EAT ITSELF (RCA)

Pop Will Eat Itself is a sample collage band concept not unlike Colourbox, definitely to the left of Art Of Noise. I'd say PWEI are the radical renegades of the genre. Measured in "beats per minute" as well as milliseconds, PWEI's music/commentary has a devilish sense of "itself." They also wear their influences on their sleeves. "Not Now James, We're Busy" is a startling, unsympathetic look at James Brown's brush with the law. "Wake Up! Time To Die," if I recall correctly, were some of the last words uttered by Roy Batty, the platinum-blonde replicant in Ridley Scott's cinema futurama, Blade Runner. This is more than dancey, synth rock. PWEI are outrageous and controversial.

THE OCEAN BLUE (SIRE/REPRISE)

Ocean Blue are not what they seem. Their beautiful cover is designed by prestigious European designers. Their producer, Mark Opitz, has produced some of the most influential Australian acts, including INXS and Cold Chisel. Yet Ocean Blue come from Hershey, Pennsylvania. Being a native Pennsylvanian, I'm familiar with Hershey, home of the great American chocolate bar. Everything in the damn town is brown, with streetlights shaped like Hershey's Kisses. The creative heart of the band seems to be writer David Schelzel. His poetry is spare while the chord progressions may recall not only early Echo & the Bunnymen, but also Julian Cope's Teardrop Explodes and early Roddy Frame's Aztec Camera. "Between Something And Nothing" is the definite starting point. Steps beyond could include "Just Let Me Know" and "Vanity Fair." KZ

The EASY HOES

Tragic Songs of Life

TRAGIC SONGS OF LIFE - THE EASY HOES (Shindig)

The Easy Hoes are a San Francisco band that have been together for about five months. Instead of spending time playing the local dives they've channeled their energy (and pocket money) into this piece of vinyl. For any other band this might not have worked, but the Easy Hoes have produced one crazy, good time record. Great harmonies and twangy guitars make this the kind of record John Doe or Dave Alvin could be proud of. Key tracks include "Hey Chuck," "Red Georgia Dirt," "The Gay Bar Song" and a fantastic hillbilly version of AC/DC's "You Shook Me All Night Long." It's worth finding this record for the latter song alone! Interested? Write to Cammie Blackstone at: PO BOX 170014, San Francisco, CA, 94117.

"INFO FREAKO" - JESUS JONES
"NEVER ENOUGH" - JESUS JONES
(Food/EMI)

A few months ago I talked with the Wonderstuff, and while the interview itself bordered on chaos, a diamond emerged from the rubble. Q: "What is your favorite band at the moment?" A: "Jesus Jones!" they chorused gleefully. A few days later I bought their first single, "Info Freako." The sound is slightly on the techno side (ala Pop Will Eat Itself, not as in disco, thank you) with an aggressiveness that's downright mean. What a roar! Their second single, "Never Enough" displays the same frustrated urgency—a quality this band revels in. This is what makes them shine. If your local record store isn't too up-to-date on its British imports, don't worry. EMI America is releasing a full album in the near future. LINDA RYAN

THE AUNTIE WINNIE ALBUM - THE BEVIS FROND (Restless)

Bevis Frond started out in the late sixties influenced by Jimi Hendrix. Bevis' music is drenched in psychedelia and mixed with garage and punk undertones. The ten minute "City Of Sun" was inspired by a visit to Egypt. Other tracks include: "Malvolio's Dream Journey To Pikes," "Down Again" (with Mick Donovan on guitar), "Will To Lose," "Winter's Blues" (a tribute to Johnny Winter), and "The Miz-Maze." A new album is due in the fall. ROBERT BARONE

"SKAVILLE UK" - BAD MANNERS (Blue Beat)

I am personally pleased about the renewed interest in ska music. It's comforting to know that some things get better over time. Case in point: Bad Manners' new single, "Skaville UK." This is classic ska/rock steady with a zaniness that could only be derived from Bad Manners' wacky frontman, Buster Bloodvessel. The rollicking up-on-the-down-beat is a sight for sore ears. The sleeve indicates that Blue Beat is a 'Bloodvessel Production' and that a forthcoming album entitled Return Of The Ugly is in the works. Look for both in the import section or write Bad Manners at 33 Spring Hill, London E5. LR

ALTERNATIVE PROFILE

By David Beran

New Orleans is a city firmly rooted in the musical heritage of Blues and Jazz. Beneath this familiar stereotype and slightly to the left (91.5), is where you'll find WTUL/FM, New Orleans' only Alternative Music station.

Although the 1,500 watt station is owned and subsidized by Tulane University, 80% of its listeners come from outside the college. WTUL recognizes the area's traditional roots, but its main objective is to make people aware of new music.

In the early seventies the station switched from AM to FM, and by 1977 it was perched on the crest of the new wave of progressive music. Dave Margulies (formerly WTUL's Assistant Music Director now with CMJ) recalls that "WTUL was always the only outlet in New Orleans for different types of music." James Lien (Music Director from 1985-88, and also with CMJ) adds, "There's a whole lot more than just Jazz and Blues, so at TUL we worked to augment the notion, to prove that there's all kinds of music." Instead of pandering to the strong musical heritage of New Orleans the station has taken flight and added to it.

WTUL devotes roughly 120 hours a week to Alternative Music and takes a free form approach to programming. It is a flower in the desert of tightly formatted Top Forty and Album Rock stations in the New Orleans market. Two hour time slots in the mornings and evening feature Classical music and Jazz respectively. Three hour specialty shows (Metal, Reggae, and Classical music) are feathers in the diverse cap that WTUL proudly dons. Music Director Gil Creel explains that "DJ's go through a year of apprenticeship. They are urged to play variety and we stress that the most important thing is to be educated musically. Anything can happen on WTUL. I've heard people play the soundtrack to Apocalypse Now underneath the Screaming Trees." Experimentation and informality are two of the main ingredients that make the station unique. Stir in the backbone of soulful New Orleans and you have a feast.

: WHERE PAST AND PRESENT MERGE

March of 1990 marks the 20th anniversary of WTUL's annual marathon fund drive. For three straight days there is live music, refreshments, and crafts. Local bands are thrown in with national acts and the station sponsors club nights spotlighting Reggae, Blues, and other Alternative Music. Last year's event made around $10,000. Promoting local music has always been a priority at WTUL. As James Lien puts it "you can have your Athens, your Austin and your Bay Area, but New Orleans has the greatest local music scene in the country." Gil simply states that "In New Orleans if you don't want to go see music, you're in trouble." On Monday nights the station broadcasts the Tul Box, a live show from local club Tipitina's. Major bands such as Soul Asylum, Camper Van Beethoven and the Godfathers have performed, but local groups are also given credence.

Success is measured by heavy listener response and the impact that club shows have. Ivan Bodley, manager of West Coast Media Relations with Epic, was WTUL's Music Director from 1982-86. He maintains that "the station stays on the cutting edge in a city where living legends are walking around." In a progressive community that is mixed with an international flavor, criteria for the music played is that it not be mainstream and commercialized. As Gil puts it "When you play Stones songs don't play the familiar ones. Try to find music that's going to fit in with WTUL—different, diverse stuff."

Goals for the future include gaining more space and increasing the power to 3,000 watts. Remaining intact will be what Gil cites as "the freedom that goes along with WTUL and the relaxed atmosphere that allows people to be imaginative and experiment." New Orleans will always provide the roots for the station to spread its wings, and there's no better place to do it. ●

PERSONAL PICKS

SINGLES by Dave Sholin

MICHAEL MORALES - What I Like About You (Wing/PolyGram)

I was living in Los Angeles when The Romantics first released this tune in 1980 and it's been a personal favorite ever since. It's a perfect choice of material to follow-up the debut single from this San Antonio newcomer. It's also tailor-made for skilled, veteran producer Roy Thomas Baker.

PAUL SHAFFER - When The Radio Is On (Capitol)

It's about time radio faithful had an anthem. David Letterman's sidekick, known for his inventive interpretations of classic hits, lets it loose on this original, finger poppin', street corner harmonizin' number. Hearing this first thing in the morning is a great way to start the day and a reminder to keep that radio on—(it's never off is it?).

JUNKYARD - Hollywood (Geffen)

It's safe to assume that when a band names itself Junkyard you shouldn't expect a night of ballroom dancing to wimpy ballads. Rapid-fire thrills begin with the very first note and continue non-stop on this hard driving ode to the glitter n' glamour capitol.

DOOBIE BROTHERS - Need A Little Taste Of Love (Capitol)

When it sounds this good, everyone wants to listen to the music. Top 40 and Album Radio programmers' and listeners' immediate acceptance of the Doobies' return affirms the group's remarkable staying power.

APOLLONIA - The Same Dream (Warner Bros.)

Best known as a Purple Rain era protegee of Prince, Apollonia's settled into a style all her own; well-demonstrated by this rhythmic dance/pop production. Chorus is one of those that sneaks up and catches you quickly.

UNDERWORLD - Stand Up (Sire/Warner Bros.)

A few years back several markets had tremendous success with their first effort, "Underneath The Radar." Retaining their uniqueness without sacrificing commerciality, they've concocted a hot hook that should stand up well under heavy airplay.

CROSSOVER PICK

BABYFACE - It's No Crime (Solar/Epic)

Expect big, big things from this entry by one half of the L.A. Reid/Babyface team, easily the hottest producers of 1989. An outstanding effort that also rates as the week's "Record To Watch," it's top five on the Urban Contemporary chart after just five weeks!

ALBUMS by Ron Fell

BEE GEES - One (Warner Bros.)

Excellent producers in their own right, Barry, Maurice and Robin have often surrendered to others for the chores of coordination, direction and administration of their albums. But this new set is almost completely self-produced and who would know them better than themselves? The album's title implies singular purpose as a unit and you don't get closer than brothers. Siblings have a sixth sense of togetherness and as much as there can be friction there can also be harmony, which by no coincidence is the trademark of their talent. This new album has an extraordinary abundance of harmonic warmth and a comfort zone worthy of its own area code. The title track, ONE, will be their biggest single of the decade as it's this week's Most Added at both Top 40 and A/C. ONE is about a merger of kindred souls without a leveraged buyout (unlike Time & Warner Bros.) and places love as the paramount interest. I also like EIGHT, or rather WISH YOU WERE HERE, a song which could be taken as an ode to their late brother Andy, but more likely as a generic, post-romantic tear-jerker. Other ballads, BODYGUARD and TEARS are tall, true love songs which stand nearly as upright as do ONE and WISH YOU WERE HERE. The Bee Gees are back, boys and girls.
