SCORING

IN THE

4TH

QUARTER

As '94 Winds Down and Football Winds Up, Label Execs Have a Common Goal: Hits.

But They All Have Different Game Plans For Top 40.

This Week.....

Now that the Joe Montana-Steve Young issue has been settled—at least until they meet again in the Super Bowl—what's there left to get excited about this football season? If you said 'hit records,' you scored. For the record industry, 'fourth quarter' means more than 15 final minutes on the gridiron; it means three more months to hit the charts. This issue, promotion coaches at various labels tell Your Duke, Dave Sholin and Annette M. Lai how they plan to hit the end zone numerous times before game's—and year's end. And, just as the concert scene's been energized by veterans (see News), so will the record retailers, as greatest-hits compilations are carried down the sidelines by the likes of Aerosmith, Sting, Bon Jovi, and Sade. Label execs keep the football connection going by offering their predictions on which two teams will be meeting up at the Super Bowl. You read it here first. Amy Grant (top) is more a

Christian than a Detroit Lion, and, since breaking through into A/C and Top 40 with her last album, with the shades-of-football title, Heart in Motion, she's devoted herself to family. Now she's back with a new album, House of Love, and the Zimmermen catch up with her. Also, Lt. Lai talks with programmers, including the real Jimmy Steal (middle) of Q102-Cincy, about the magic Amy brings to their stations. On the GO Chart, Anita Baker (above), Deadeye Dick and Stone Temple Pilots are winners.

A promotional image for Mazzy Star's album 'So Tonight That I Might See'. The image features a woman with long dark hair, wearing dark sunglasses, a dark tank top, and a plaid skirt. She is standing in a field with trees in the background. The lighting is warm and golden, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The overall mood is serene and atmospheric.

Radio Coalition Raps Hip-Hoppers' Knuckles

BY THEMBISA S. MSHAKA

Here's a reminder of why artist development, which goes largely ignored in hip-hop, is priceless and critical: The Bay Area Radio Coalition has unified behind one of its 14-member stations, the powerful KMEL-San Francisco. Because of what the Coalition considered poor on-air conduct, M.O.P. and Jeru have been taken off the air (and to a significant degree, off the street) in the Bay Area, an important and tightly-knit underground market for rap.

Both artists reportedly insulted KMEL air personality MC Sway of the King Tech Wake-Up Show live during guest appearances recently. Joe Quixx, the show's mixer, was allegedly threatened by M.O.P. for not having their record in the studio. Select's Wyatt Cheek, director of promotion for M.O.P., noted that the label serviced the station in time for their interview. He expressed disappointment over the incident and said he hoped that it would not affect the new duo adversely.

(Whether or not related to the Coalition's action, M.O.P. takes a drop on the GAVIN rap chart this week.)

Jeru took his hostility, which he explained away as "just playin'," to the DNA Lounge, where his crew assaulted Klub journalist Seth "Supa Seff" Jacquish after reading what he perceived to be an unfavorable review.

Coalition members, saying the various incidents reflected a lack of respect, decided to pull their support of the artists. Said Coalition member Garen Sampson of KPOO-San Francisco: "We look at our shows as a means of support for artists.

But they have to support our community so that our programs and live shows are not threatened. We're not headhunters, but we need our respect."

Jeru The Damaja—Came far from clean during his last visit to the Bay Area.

The Coalition plans to contact the labels to express their concern. Coalition spokesman Kevvy Key of KZSU-Stanford noted: "They pissed off all the wrong people with some ignorant shit."

Zelnick's Future Is Crystal Clear

Software mogul Strauss Zelnick was this week tapped to head up the Bertlesmann Music Group's North American operations.

The 37-year-old Zelnick, the former president of 20th Century Fox, has been a consultant to BMG which distributes Crystal Dynamics software outside the United States. The two-year-old company makes software for Sega and 3Do. It's speculated that, given his Hollywood ties, Zelnick will spearhead BMG's expansion into the movie business and expand the corporation's interactive media business.

Sigerson Tops EMI As Glass Departs

Former Polydor president Davitt Sigerson moved to EMI this week following the departure of Daniel Glass. His title is president and chief executive officer.

Sigerson spent three years at Polydor's helm, prior to which he produced records for Tori Amos, among others. A solo artist who put out two records on Island Records, he has also worked as a journalist and a songwriter.

"Davitt is an extremely creative and talented individual," said EMI chairman and CEO Charles Koppelman. "He possesses tremendous focus and leadership ability...He is also very skilled as a manager, and he will lead the company into great success. I have every confidence that he will capitalize on the enormous potential within these labels."

Following Glass' exit, four high-level EMI executives, Mike Mena (vice president A&R/marketing), Ken Baumstein (senior vice president, marketing), Michael Leon (vice president, A&R international) and Billy Brill (vice president, Top 40, West Coast) handed in their resignations. In an interview, Koppelman said it was time for EMI to make some changes.

"It's no secret that EMI has had a tough year and a half," he said. "All my other labels are doing great: Capitol, EMI Canada...this was the last piece of the puzzle."

"People and music are what I care about most," said Sigerson, "so working with Charles (Koppelman) is a natural. The mission of EMI, SBK and Chrysalis will be to build great careers with great artists in a spirit of honesty, respect and passion."

LiPuma Takes Helm at GRP

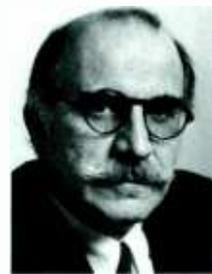

Tommy LiPuma, who over the years has been as adept at promotion as he is at picking talent and producing it, was named president of GRP Records this week. GRP is a subsidiary of the MCA Entertainment Group.

LiPuma will take over the position in November this year, when current president and label co-founder Larry Rosen becomes chairman emeritus. Dave Grusin, who co-founded the jazz powerhouse with Rosen, will remain GRP's creative consultant.

LiPuma's illustrious career has already netted him 18 gold and platinum albums, 30 Grammy nominations and an estimated 45 million albums sold. He's worked with such diverse musicians as Miles Davis, Jackie DeShannon and Leon Russell. Just before accepting this position, he was senior VP of A&R at Elektra Records. After starting his career as a local promotion representative in Cleveland, LiPuma worked at Liberty Records, A&M Records, and Warner Bros. In 1990, while with Elektra, he co-produced Natalie Cole's album, Unforgettable, and its platinum follow-up Take A Look.

"Tommy is that truly rare individual—a creative force and an award-winning producer who is at the same time a highly-respected music executive and industry leader," said MCA Entertainment Group chairman/CEO Al Teller. "GRP was created by Dave Grusin and Larry Rosen as a home for great music, and Tommy's creative and management styles are perfectly suited to continuing and expanding GRP's legacy of excellence."

MTV Video Awards: Seeing is Disbelieving

BY BEN FONG-TORRES

Nothing is as it seems on the MTV Video Music Awards.

Michael Jackson and Lisa-Marie Presley—presented as “Mr. and Mrs. Michael Jackson,” with Michael hogging the mic and never mentioning Lisa-Marie by name—kissed. But afterward, everyone was talking about her body language, and how she appeared to be shying away from him.

Madonna and David Letterman managed to upstage the Jacksons when they strolled out together near show’s end. Michael had quipped: “Just think, nobody thought this would last.” Now, Madonna glanced at Letterman, whose show she littered earlier this year with four-letter words, and said, “And you thought we wouldn’t last.”

MC Roseanne (the actress formerly known as Roseanne Barr; then Roseanne Arnold)—looked great—but, then, she wasn’t exactly herself. She said so herself, with her reference to her plastic surgeries. On top of that, she hit the Radio City Music Hall stage with a line of dancers who looked to be women—but weren’t.

And, finally, the award show isn’t really an award show—can anyone name any winners from the previous ten years?—as it is a show of MTV’s power and attitude.

Besides the above-named bigwigs, the network roused, onto the stage, the Rolling Stones! Aerosmith! Snoop Doggy Dogg! Bruce Springsteen! The Beastie Boys! Stone Temple Pilots! Smashing Pumpkins! And, you can be sure, many others.

And, having decided to keep the show to itself, instead of syndicating it as it had in recent years, MTV played host to a variety of low-level humor, much of it initiated by Roseanne—she of the braying voice and humor—who began in the basement (“OK—which one of you bitches made it with my ex?” she asked the bevy of feathered dancers surrounding her) and barely made it to ground level. Her prime target was MTV VJ Kennedy, who wasn’t exactly top-drawer herself. As New York Mayor Rudolph Giuliani spoke, Kennedy, standing next to him, licked her microphone as if it weren’t a lollipop.

Nirvana: Best Alternative Video; Best Art Direction

The Stones’ appearance on the show certified MTV’s importance; in fact, the network forced the producer of Aerosmith’s “Cryin’,” winner of Best Video of the Year, to blur a scene in which a woman makes an obscene gesture. But, as Marty Callner, the director of “Cryin’,” said about the awards: “I’m not sure it means much in the industry...it probably means more outside...it’s a fun event...but it has to be taken with a grain of salt.”

Here’s how this year’s salt—N pepa—was sprinkled:

Video of the Year:

Aerosmith, “Cryin’”

Best Male Video: Tom Petty & the Heartbreakers, “Mary Jane’s Last Dance”

Best Female Video: Janet Jackson, “If”

Viewer’s Choice: Aerosmith, “Cryin’”

Special Recognition: Rolling Stones

Video Vanguard: Tom Petty

Sizzling Summer Tours Boost Concert Grosses

You can thank the old-timers and increased ticket prices for it, but whoever gets the credit, pop acts, concert promoters and ancillary businesses are celebrating what’s shaping up to be a record-setting year in concert revenues.

With Pink Floyd, the Eagles, Billy Joel (with and without Elton John), the Grateful Dead, Barbra Streisand, Phil Collins, the Rolling Stones, and Rush leading the way, concert attendance for the top ten tours is reportedly up 68 percent over last year’s top acts (from January 1 to August 26) with revenues at $378 million, up 145 percent.

The figures, from the trade weekly, Amusement Business, follow by two months an indication from Pollstar that concert business this year was rocking at a record-shattering pace.

Until this year, the highest total concert revenues were $1.1 billion, established in 1990. In July, Pollstar noted that while, in 1990, the ten biggest tours had grossed $171.9 million, while this year, ticket sales at the halfway point had already reached more than $260 million.

The $378 million figure does not include either Woodstock, which reportedly sold some $25 million in tickets, or Lollapalooza ‘94’s total revenues. The rock and rap carnival toted up a $24.3 million gross, with 927,000 concertgoers at 43 dates.

Pink Floyd, whose gross has now reached $103.7 million on 59 shows; the Eagles, with a $65.2 million gross for 45 concerts, Joel ($15.8 million on 32 shows of his own; $46.4 million more in tandem with Elton John for 18 dates), and Streisand ($33 million from only 14 dates) made ‘94 a dramatic jump from last year, when the Dead led the pack with $34.9 million. (The Good Ole Grateful ones came back strong this year as well, with $37.7 million, but the figure put them in fourth place.)

Also yet to be counted: the ongoing Rolling Stones juggernaut, along with acts that didn’t make the Top 10 tally, but have done well nonetheless. They include packages such as Foreigner/Dobbie Brothers; Spin Doctors/Gin Blossoms/Cracker, and Lynyrd Skynyrd Ted Nugent.

Although Streisand and the Eagles, among others, sold some tickets at higher prices than usual, industry reports indicate overall attendance much higher not only at superstar shows, but at smaller and mid-sized venues as well. And it wasn’t just rock and pop that drew the big crowds; country and alternative rock shows, and jazz, blues and hip-hop concerts also filled clubs and auditoriums.

“It is our best year ever, no question,” said James Monaco of Concert Production International in Toronto. “The promoters are giving people what they want. And the fans are seeing value for their dollar.”

And while higher ticket prices accounted for increased revenue, Alex Hodges, vice president of Nederlander Concerts spoke of balance.

“We used Gold Circle (higher-priced, up front seats) more often this year,” he said, “almost on every show. But our prices in the back of the house are lower, about $15.50, and they are selling very well because of it.”

KOA Off the Hook

Because of a recent court ruling that the FCC’s system of fines was improperly implemented, the Commission has set aside a $2,500 fine it had levied on KOA-Denver for a contest violation.

According to Marissa

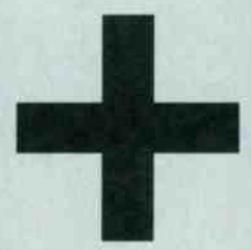

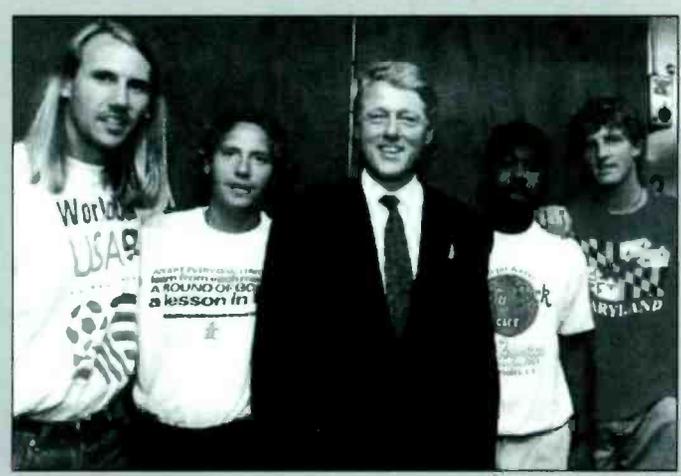

Repp, attorney for KOA’s owner, the Jacor Broadcasting Corporation of Cincinnati, the FCC action has no long-term significance, that “they’re just holding fines up until they adopt a fine system the right way.”

The current system, which has been in place since 1991, was revised in 1993. On July 12 of this year, the day the Commission tagged KOA, a federal appeals court handed down a ruling (on U.S. Telephone Assn. vs. FCC) on the fine system.

Stern Probe Widening

The radio engineer who knocked Howard Stern off the air in Cleveland in June (GAVIN, June 17, 1994) has pleaded guilty to reduced charges, signalling cooperation with prosecutors and a possible widening of the investigation into the sabotaging of the Stern show.

William Alford, engineer at WMMS, rival to Stern's WNCX in Cleveland, opened his trial by pleading guilty to "disruption of a public service." Alford, 30, who admitted cutting wires leading to WNCX's transmitter truck at a Stern remote, originally faced up to ten years in prison for deliberately disrupting a broadcast. At his sentencing September 28, he could still get up to two years in jail and a $5,000 fine.

But, according to assistant prosecutor Craig Weintraub, Alford is working with authorities in a "continuing investigation of OmniAmerica and WMMS."

OmniAmerica, which owns WMMS, has said that "Mr. Alford acted on his own and is confident that any further investigation of this matter would reach the same conclusion."

But Weintraub, who appeared on Stern's show last Thursday as a guest, said investigators have reason to believe that Alford may have acted with the knowledge of supervisors or even under their direction. What they've learned, said Weintraub, is "only the tip of the iceberg."

Alford himself apparently wanted to offer a few tips at his pleading, with a prepared statement for the court, but it barred disclosure of the statement.

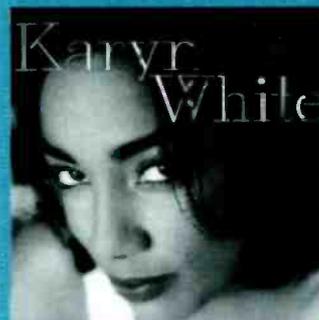

Bullish At Billboard

Among the highlights of Billboard's Monitor convention held last week in New York was Infinity Broadcasting president/CEO Mel Karmazin's bullish outlook for radio. "Radio's advertising has never been higher," he said. "Our friends in newspaper can't say that." Karmazin also noted radio's strength in the face of increasing competition from video outlets. "MTV's success hasn't hurt radio as predicted," he said.

Karmazin's called for the FCC to relax ownership rules ("Gannett can own a newspaper in every city in the United States, so why can't a company own more than 20 AMs and 20 FM's?") and confessed to a personal campaign against cellular phones, calling them unsafe.

Billboard's other keynoter was Garry Wall, who recently appeared at GAVIN's A3 summit. Additional highlights included consultants panels and format meetings.

CAMPAIGN OF THE WEEK

Karyn White
Make Him Do It

The focus of Karyn White's third Warner Bros. album, Make Him Do Rigot, is its first single, "Hungzh." It's being used as a vehicle to collect food for needy families with children.

LABEL: Warner Bros.

RADIO: 12-inch version of the album's first single, "Hungah" was serviced to radio on August 17. Selected stations will declare September 23 "Hungah Day" and ask their audience to bring a non-perishable food time to the station or a designated mobile outlet. The first 50 participants will receive a pre-signed poster and cassette. All others will receive a station bumper sticker.

VIDEO: Live performance on BET Monday, September 26. "The Hungah" in rotation at the Box and on The Soul Of VH-1.

TOUR: White will tour extensively through 1995.

RETAIL: A major campaign features contests, giveaways listening booths and product displays. White will visit select retail outlets.

OF SPECIAL INTEREST: Select album cuts can be heard online through Warner Bros.' preview program on America Online and CompuServe.

Hopkins was 50. For thirty years, Hopkins put his unique stamp on albums by top rock 'n' rollers including the Beatles, the Rolling Stones, and Jefferson Airplane. Despite numerous offers to become a full-time band member, Hopkins was always content to stay in the background. He gave a secret to his success in a 1993 interview: "Keep playing and keep silent, sometimes. That way, they'll invite you back. Don't threaten their position, even when you know they're wrong"... ●

EMI's long-rumored shakeup began last week with the resignation of Daniel Glass as president. Less than 24 hours later the label named his successor, former Polydor President Davitt Sigerson. VP, pop promotion Billy Brill also exits as does Rock Dibble, (national director artist development and touring), Michael Leon (senior VP, international), Jeff Panzer (VP, video development), Mike Mena (VP, A&R/marketing) and Ken Baumstein (senior VP, marketing). In other moves, Fred Davis segues from A&R to business affairs. Look for Glass to announce his future plans over the next several weeks. Brill's many friends in the biz can reach him at (213) 650-7391. (See News for more details.)

WILD 107 (KYLD/KYLZ)-San Francisco GM Scott Fey has left the building. Taking over is Bob Vistotcky, who was last crosstown at what had been oldies outlet KSFO/AM & KYA/FM. KYA has since become "Young Country" KYCY under new owner Alliance Broadcasting and KSFO was sold to Cap Cities/ABC and is now talk. Expect Fey to remain in the market.

Will yet another A&R chieftain assume the presidency of a major label? Fair to say that's what more than a few are saying will happen at RCA.

Playing to a packed house that included the heaviest names in the industry, eastwest records america singer Gerald Levert took it to another level last week at New York's Copacabana. After mesmerizing the crowd with his new single, "I'd Give Anything," Levert tore it up when he brought out his dad, former O'Jay, Eddie Levert. It's a night that'll be talked about for years.

There's a long, long line of candidates for the soon to be vacated APD/MD slot at KDWB-Minneapolis. Will it be Mark & Mark? Mark & Dan? Mark & James? The only thing we can be sure of is it won't be Mark & Brian.

A veteran of many GAVIN Seminars, B96 (WBBM/FM)-Chicago GM Tom Matheson won't have to fly in from now on. Tom is once again a Bay Area resident, having accepted the GM post at Alliance's San Francisco "Young Country" outlet KYCY.

Scorecard please! They're playing formatic musical chairs in Indianapolis as Emmis dumps calls and '50s/'60s gold at WKLR. It's now all '70s and they're re-instituting the station's old call letters, WNAP. Will radio's best friend Art Vuolo do weekends?

Heartfelt condolences to Dave Bavido PD at DeKalb, Ill. Top 40 WDEK/FM. Dave's brother Tom died on September 13 due to injuries sustained in a car accident. He was en route to Dave's bachelor party. Dave and his fiancée Candice Torman will be married Saturday, September 17. Our best to the couple and wishes for happier times ahead.

Forget those rumors about Pyramid flushing the "Smooth Jazz" format at WJZZ-Philly. Both the music and PD Bernie Kimble remain in the wake of Pyramid's takeover, creating a duopoly with A/C WYXR "Star 104.5."

SHO-TALK

Panacea Entertainment Management's Eric Gardner sent a fax the other day that starts out HELP!! Gardner is being deluged with calls after the recent announcement that a new movie starring Tonya Harding is being written and co-produced by Eric Gardner—the other Eric Gardner. Panacea's Gardner says, "I could only manage one project involving a convicted felon at a time," referring to the $30 million feature based on the life of Timothy Leary that he's producing for Interscope. In addition to film and TV projects, Gardner's management clients include Paul Shaffer, Elvira, Todd Rundgren and John Lydon of Sex Pistols fame...

Guns N' Roses guitarist Slash presented the Lifetime Achievement award to Alice Cooper on September 10 at the Foundations Forum '94 convention in Burbank. Over 20 years ago Alice Cooper brought us his first onstage horror antics and songs like "School's Out," "Welcome to My Nightmare" and "Billion Dollar Babies." His latest album was just released on Epic Records...

Bits & Pieces: Country Joe and The Fish plan to reunite after 18 years for their first concerts in as many years. The band will play two shows in November—one in Berkeley and one at The Fillmore in San Francisco...The Rolling Stones' "Voodoo Lounge" tour will spend a couple of days in Oakland. After selling out three shows in a few hours the band added one more show. Their last performance is scheduled for Halloween night...Zero Hour Records has announced that 22 Brides are set to go into Studio Red in Philadelphia on September 28 to record a promo-only project consisting of a new song, a live track and a cover of Bob Mould's "See A Little Light." Adam Lassar, who has worked with Helium, Gigolo Aunts, Matt Keating and Dumptruck, is producing...

Curb/MCA Records has announced the release of I Love Everybody, the new album from Lyle Lovett. The album was produced by Lovett and his longtime collaborator Billy Williams. The first video will be "Penguins" which features John Lefwich on bass and Kenny Aronoff on drums, John Hagen on cello, and backing vocals by former Was Not Was voices Sweet Pea Atkinson and Sir Harry Bowen. Lovett wrote all the songs except "Fat Babies," which was co-written with Eric Taylor...

Randy Guse, drummer for Toad The Wet Sprocket, was married on August 19 to Heather Bjorkman in Santa Barbara, Calif. Guse and his bandmates are on an European tour with dates scheduled through the end of September. They'll return to the U.S. for more concert dates that'll keep them on the road through Christmas...

Mammoth Records is heading for the highway. They've hooked up with Internet and will soon begin spotlighting some of their bands. You can hear Frente!, look up biographical info about Victoria Williams or catch the latest video from Juliana Hatfield. You can reach them via the World Wide Web at <http://www.nando.net/mammoth/>, or anonymous file transfer protocol at <ftp://nando.net>. As of September 1 the official Mammoth Internet address will be: info@mammoth.com...

The sophomore effort by Jackyl, Push Comes to Shove, is the band's rowdiest rock yet. It was released by Gelfen Records on August 2 and was produced by Bruce Fairbairn. Be sure to take a close look at your copy—due to an unintentional mishap it may already be a collector's item. When the band received the first finished copies of the CD, outspoken frontman Jesse James Dupree immediately called the label, absolutely furious because the tips had been airbrushed off of his handlebar mustache. Reportedly, when the cover art was being passed around at a meeting, a Gelfen executive commented that Dupree's "General George Custer"-style facial hair "had

Kansas City interim PD Alex Valentine's door can go to work now. The PD title was officially his as of September 12. Valentine's first order of business was naming Booker Madison from WWXM-Myrtle Beach, S.C., MD and night-timer.

Don't mess with RCA's Butch Waugh and crew. They took over the Penthouse suite at the New York Hilton and programmers were treated to Kathy Troccoli performing her newest release, "If I'm Not In Love." As if the setting, a panoramic view of Manhattan and Central Park, wasn't dramatic enough, halfway through the song a bolt of lightning appeared. Talk about being well-connected!

Condolences to friends and family of Joe Duffy, account exec at WLUP-Chicago. Joe was aboard the U.S. Air flight that crashed just outside Pittsburgh last week. He was on the way to attending a friend's bachelor party.

Dave Michaels returns to the programming chair at KOTM-Fairfield/Ottumwa, Iowa. Michaels had been at classic rock KGGG-Rapid City, S.D.

Chris Ruh, most recently PD at A/C KNNN (K9FM)-Redding, Calif., is now OM at Las Vegas alternative outlet KEDG.

Congrats to Maty Novia, wife of Star 94 (WSTR/FM)-Atlanta OM Tony Novia, on having her ABC/TV show, Mike & Maty, renewed for another 13 weeks.

How did KFTZ-Idaho Falls, Idaho PD Rich Summers spend his summer vacation? Try a trip down the Kenai River in Soldotna, Alaska. That's where Rich took out his Popeil Pocket Fisherman and hooked this 37 pounder Alaskan King Salmon! Also caught: two halibut, one weighing 100 pounds and the other one weighing 98 pounds. Okay Rich, when's the barbeque?

GAVIN sends its sincerest sympathies to Arista recording artist Barry Manilow on the passing of his mother Edna last week. Barry's mom was a very special person in his life.

Major buzz on the big Elvis Tribute show in Memphis next month. The show, scheduled for October 8, will be seen via pay-per-view and features acts such as Bryan Adams, Tony Bennett, Melissa Etheridge, Cher, James Brown, Michael Bolton and others. Although previously announced, Naomi and Wynonna Judd will not be on the bill.

New York lived up to its reputation as the "city that never sleeps" last weekend. Early Saturday morning (September 10), numerous industry notables jammed into the Hilton's Club 53 for an intimate unplugged show put on by Mercury Records' supergroup, Bon Jovi. Up close, personal and awesome.

Hot 97 (WQHT)-New York's morning team, Dr. Dre and Ed Lover, took their best shot while emceeing Saturday night's award presentation at Billboard. Asking everyone to give it up for RuPaul, they stopped and corrected themselves saying, "Oops. No, we were wrong—that's Howard Stern's wife!" Guess they won't be celebrating at the Stern house anytime soon.

Yes, that was KSJO-San Jose PD Dana Jang stopping off in Kansas City on his way home from New York to catch the Niners' game. By now we know, it didn't help.

Friends Of Radio

JON MC HUGH

Director, film music
A&M Records
Hometown:
Staten Island,
N.Y.

What radio stations did you grow up listening to?

WABC/AM, WNEW/FM and WPLJ/FM.

What stations do you listen to now regularly?

KROQ/FM, KCRW/FM, 101.9/FM and POWER 106.

The most memorable moment of your career to-date?

A&M had the soundtrack to Good Morning, Vietnam in 1988. At the time, I was the New York local (first weeks on the job). Charlie Minor sent me to Scott Shannon's Z-Morning Zoo and told me to get Louis Armstrong's "What A Wonderful World" played before I left. Watching the phones light up, I knew I had the first ADD in the country on what became a platinum song by a dead guy!

If you owned a radio station, you'd...

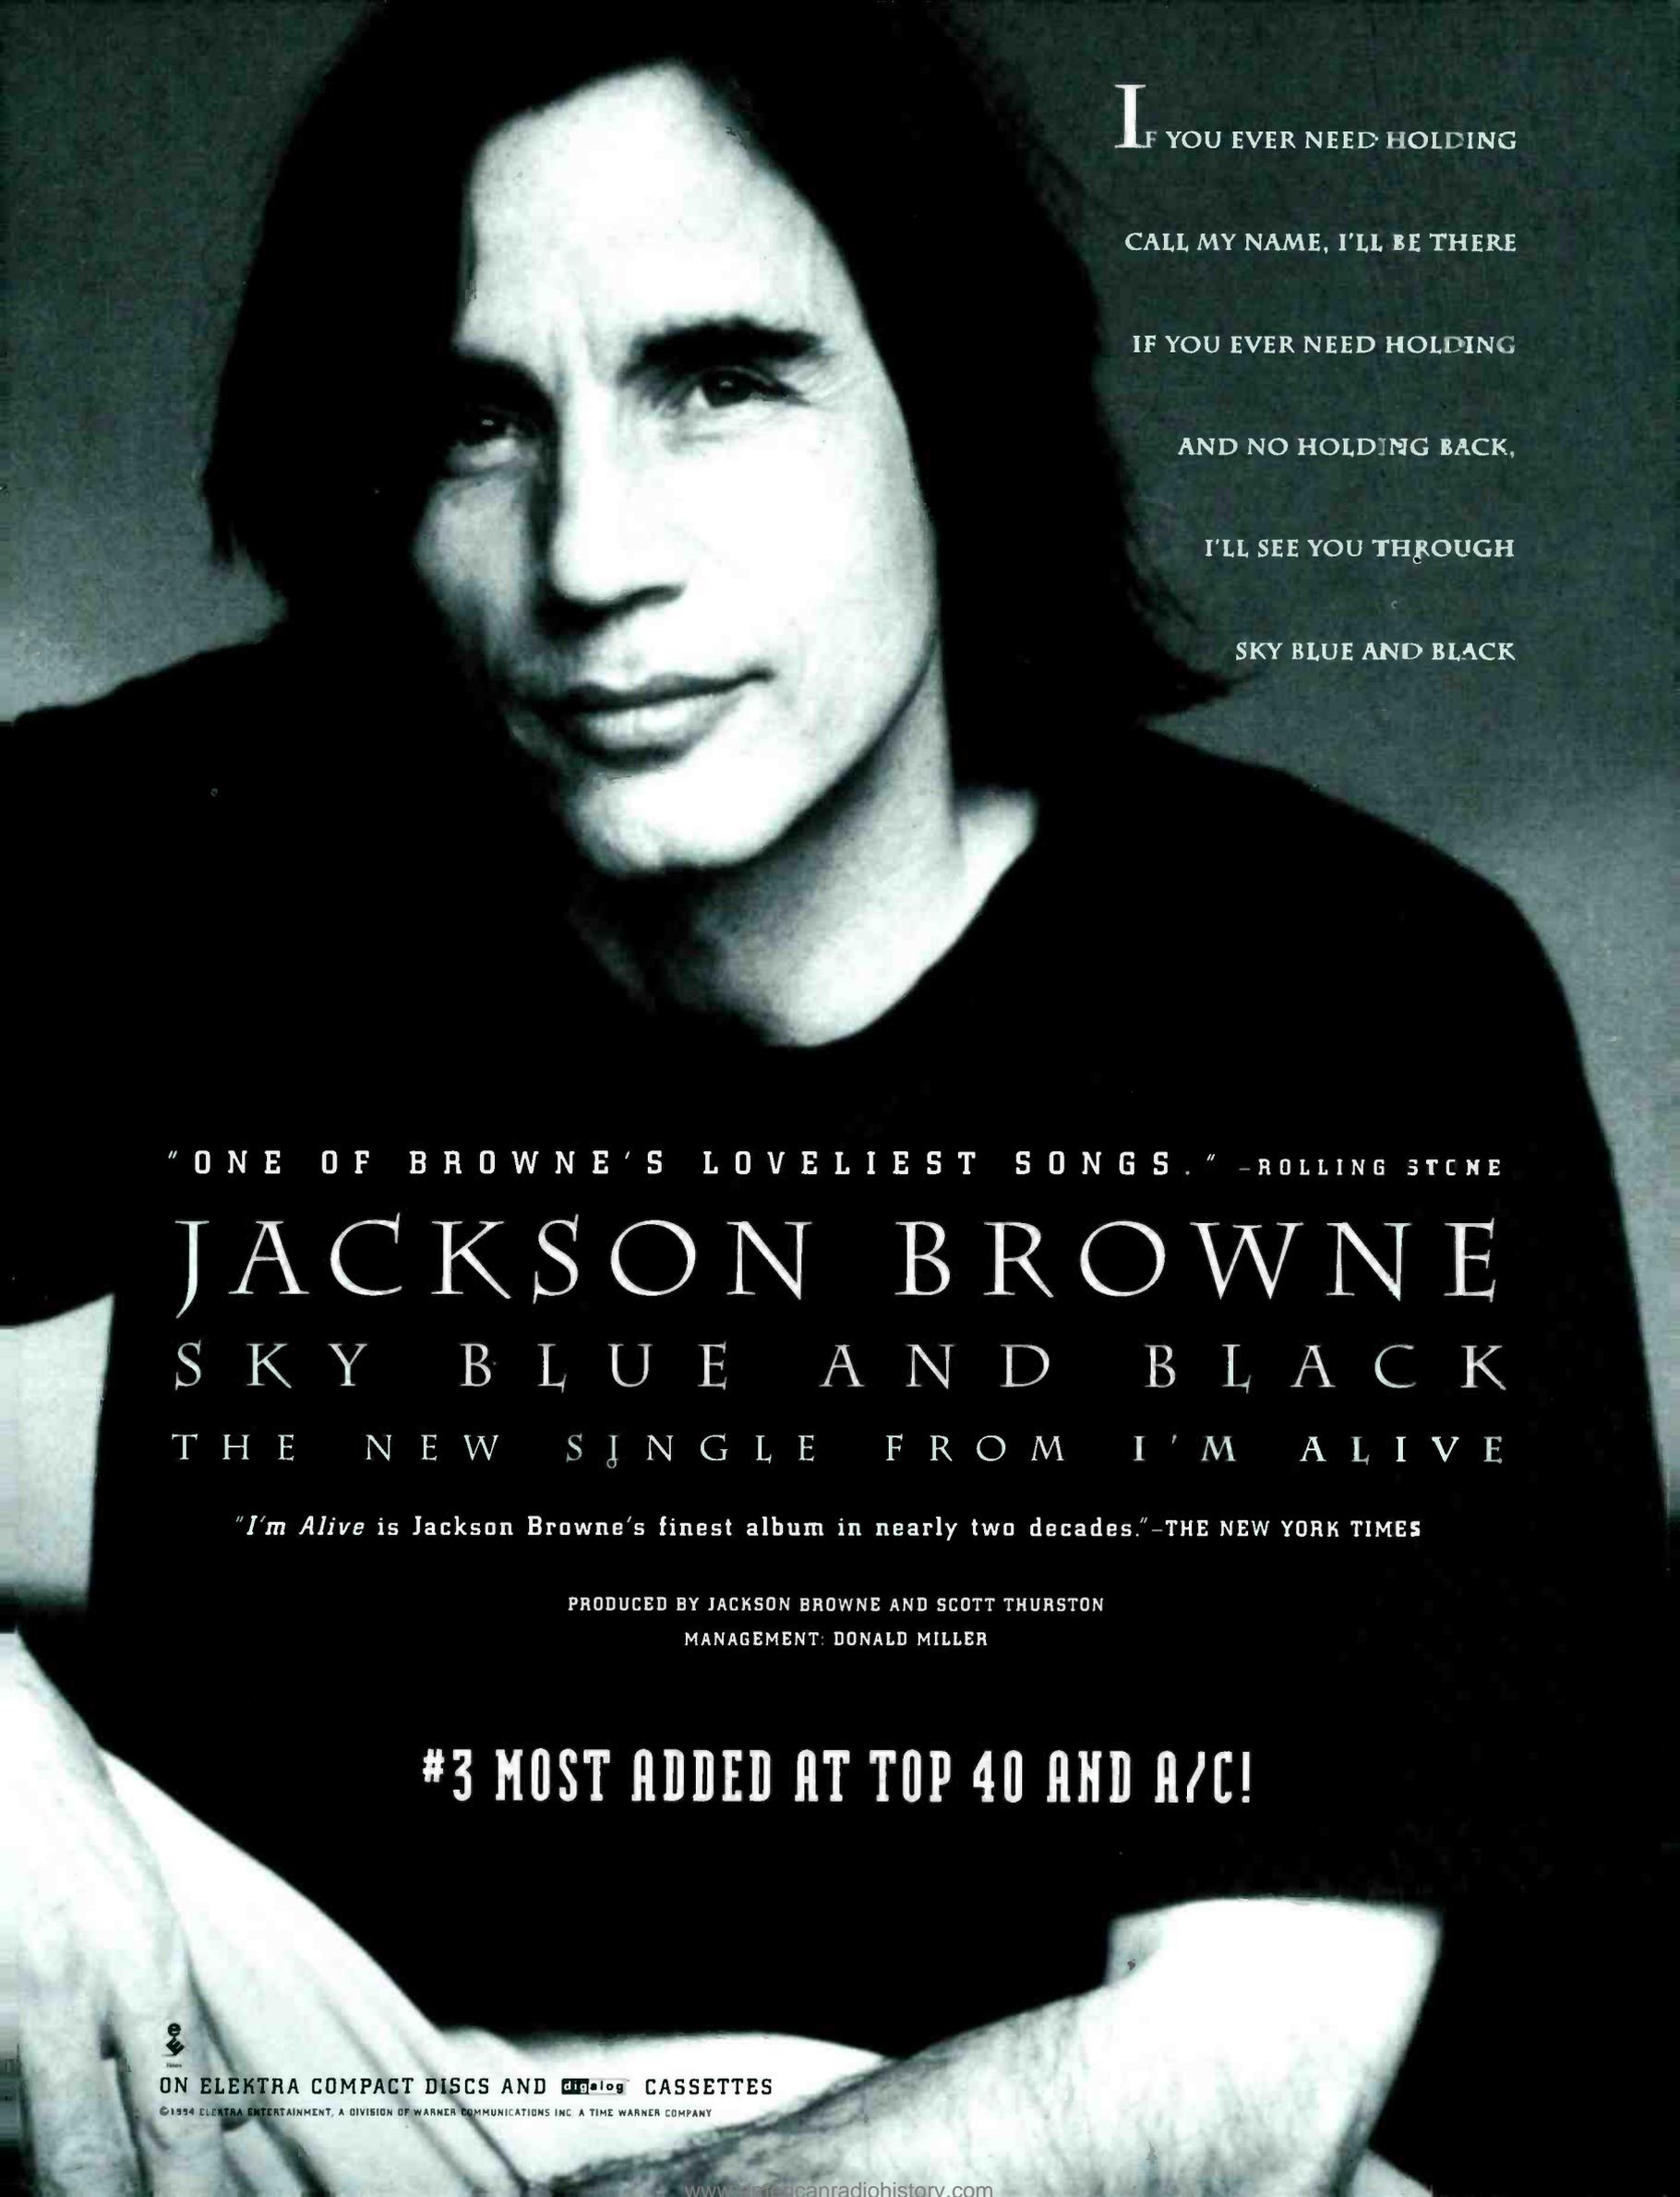

Have my own shift (10 a.m.-2 p.m.) skewing all formats, but with awesome music and daily farm reports.

Future ambition:

Having a soundtrack as successful as The Bodyguard.

If you could work with any artist that you haven't already worked with, who would it be and why?

Neil Young. Any artist that can stay contemporary for over 25 years and popular without being a sellout, is my kind of guy.

to go." The innocent remark was taken seriously by a well-meaning art department and the whiskers were airbrushed down. Matters were quickly set straight and all further pressings will include the mustache in its entirety. Currently on the road with Aerosmith, Jackyl played the Friday Woodstock '94 show along with Collective Soul, Candlebox, Sheryl Crow, Kings X, Live, Orleans and the Violent Femmes...

New Yorkers Black Train Jack filmed their first-ever video a couple of weeks ago for the song "Handouts." They shared the occasion with a member of MTV's The Real World by flying the infamous Puck Rainey from San Francisco to appear as the bike messenger. Puck chased lost goods across New York City, conveniently passing the members of Black Train Jack as he rode by. The video was directed by Toby Tilley and comes from their latest release, You're Not Alone, on Roadrunner Records. The band will be out on tour this summer and fall across the U.S. with the Mighty Mighty Bosstones...

Sugar released their third album, File Under: Easy Listening, on Rykodisc on September 6. The album was produced by Bob Mould and recorded in and around Austin, Texas. "Gift" will be the opening track...

Morphine continue their worldwide tour in support of their second album, Cure For Pain, which was released in September of 1993. They've just returned from headlining several European festivals as well as a three week tour of Australia. Tour dates are booked through September 10...

Duran Duran's album of covers, Thank You, on Capitol Records has been delayed due to production snags. The band used the time to record two additional songs, The Temptations "Ball Of Confusion" and Bob Dylan's "Lay Lady Lay." Although a date has not been set for the album's release, "Thank You" debuts as the first single in October. ●

SHO-PIECES

PRINCE

Prince is so prolific that it's estimated his Paisley Park studio complex outside Minneapolis contains somewhere between 300 and 500 recorded, but as yet unreleased, Prince songs. Some of his material has been made semi-famous by an obviously unauthorized bootleg album, Crown Jewels.

AARON NEVILLE

Aaron Neville's niece, Arthel Neville, is co-host of the new syndicated television show, Extra—The Entertainment Magazine. Arthel is the daughter of Art Neville.

COUNTING CROWS

When Counting Crows want to play unannounced in clubs they bill themselves as The Shatners.

ROLLING STONES

Over the past decade, 32-year old Rolling Stones bassist Daryl Jones played with Miles Davis, Madonna, Sting and Peter Gabriel.

ERIC CLAPTON

To support the release of his new blues album, From The Cradle, Eric Clapton will tour North America beginning October 3 in Montreal for a 23-city, 32-day set of shows.

MARIAH CAREY

Mariah Carey's next project will be a Christmas album.

YOUSSEU N'DOUR/ NENEH CHERRY

Yousseu N'Dour and Neneh Cherry's "7 Seconds" video was made as a duet, but the two never appear together in the same frame.

THE JUDDS

Naomi Judd is writing again. This time she's working on a four-part TV miniseries based on her autobiography and she hopes daughter Ashley will be cast to play her.

RICHARD MARX

Before beginning his career as a solo artist, Richard Marx sang radio and television commercials including a Nestle's Crunch spot.

SNOW

It'll Snow in November as the Canadian dancehall reggaeman releases his second album just before Thanksgiving (Canadian or American).

DR. DRE

The last two albums produced by Dr. Dre, Doggystyle for Snoop Doggy Dogg and Chronic his post-N.W.A. debut have sold nearly eight million albums.

SPIN DOCTORS

The Spin Doctors' 1991 debut album, Pocket Full Of Kryptonite, has sold nearly six million copies worldwide. After the release of that album and its follow-up, Upside Down, they performed at more than 500 gigs.

KEITH SWEAT

Keith Sweat's Atlanta-based record label, Keia Records, is named after his three-year-old daughter.

NORMAN BROWN

Though he's most comfortable playing jazz guitar, Norman Brown also plays saxophone, drums and upright bass.

MEAT PUPPETS

The Meat Puppets are from Phoenix, Arizona and have been playing together for 14 years.

JON SECADA

Jon Secada's new album, Heart, Soul & A Voice, was also released on EMI Latin in Spanish under the title Si Te Vas on EMI Latin.

WHO AM I?: Joe Cocker

ANITA BAKER

There was a time back in the summer of 1991 when producers of the Tina Turner bio-pic were considering Anita Baker for the title role that eventually went to Angela Bassett.

DAVID HUNGATE

In 1976 David Hungate, Jeff Porcaro and David Paich backed Boz Scaggs' Silk Degrees album. Two years later Hungate, Porcaro and Paich formed Toto with Steve Lukather and Bobby Kimball.

GLORIA ESTEFAN

Gloria Estefan's new single, "Turn The Beat Around," is from the soundtrack to the new Sylvester Stallone/Sharon Stone film, The Specialist and it's out on Crescent Moon/Epic Soundtrax. Estefan knows the head of the Crescent Moon pretty well—it's her husband Emilio.

PATTY LOVELESS

Patty Loveless was born in Pikeville, Kentucky—the same town in which Dwight Yoakam was born.

ROLLING STONES

The 200,000 limited-edition copies of Virgin Records' re-issue of the Rolling Stones album Sticky Fingers included a real zipper as part of the packaging as did the original.

ZZ TOP

While growing up in Texas, the members of ZZ Top listened to radio stations as far away as Chicago and Mexico to hear blues guitarists like B.B. King and Lightnin' Hopkins. That inspired them to title their new album Antenna.

Inside Top 40

Most of my stays in New York City are much too short to fully appreciate what radio in the Big Apple has to offer. But last week, I was there for the MTV Awards and the first Billboard Seminar, so I was there for nearly five days. Imagine my panic when I entered my hotel room and there wasn't a radio! However, the good news was, this place provided boom boxes. So sandwiched between the schmooze and the booze I got in some quality listening time.

The results? Hot 97 (WQHT), Z-100 (WHTZ) and WPLJ are three highly-produced, entertaining and exciting radio stations. While Top 40 purists continue to debate whether any of them merit being labeled Top 40, each station can boast massive shares of audience that carve very distinct identities. They stay focused and play the hits their listeners want to hear. Tight? Absolutely. Contemporary? For sure. Top 40? Formatically, each easily qualify even though they play very different music for very different segments of their audience.

But the bottom line is, it's a safe bet that Steve Kingston, Scott Shannon and Steve Smith don't really care about how the industry defines them. As each made their strategic moves they had to listen to critics who felt what they were doing would never work. At the Billboard Awards ceremony KROQ-Los Angeles' Kevin Weatherly commented that he'd heard a particular song on Z100 and that it sounded great on the air. Being in a market and hearing a radio station is very different than simply seeing a music log or even hearing an aircheck. You pick up the vibe in the context in which it's meant to be heard. In its various forms, Top 40 radio in New York in September of 1994 sounds better than it has in years. Do yourself a favor and listen as much as possible next time you hit town. Oh, and just in case, bring your own radio.

What's Going On

An overview of early indications from a select panel of Gavin Only Correspondents

STEVE GILINSKY, PD, WGRG-BINGHAMTON, N.Y. "All it took was one play on Gloria Estefan's 'Turn The Beat Around,' and the calls started coming in. Unbelievable request action that hasn't slowed down since we began playing it last Thursday, September 8."

DICK O'NEIL, PD, WTNV/FM-WATERTOWN, N.Y. "We're poppin' Toad The Wet Sprocket's 'Something's Always Wrong.' I feel it will be their biggest since 'All I Want.' Very surprised to see the exceptional callout on Seal's 'Prayer For The Dying' over the last three weeks. Especially hot with women 18-34."

BILL BRAVO, PD, WEOW/FM-KEY WEST, FLA. "B-Tribe's 'You Won't See Me Cry' has been in heavies for over a month and still going strong. All demos love it. Sophie B. Hawkins' 'Right Beside You' started off slow, but it's really kicked in and we're moving it into powers."

DAVE SHUMAN, MD, ISLE 95 (WJKC)-St. Croix, V.I. "Want a secret record? Try UB40's 'Bring Me Your Cup.' Women love this track which is building faster and faster. Instant reaction on the latest Aaliyah, 'At Your Best (You Are Love).'"

JON NORTON, MD, KYYY-BISMARCK, N.D.

"We've been on Hootie & The Blowfish's 'Hold My Hand' for nine weeks and over the last few weeks sales and requests have really picked up. We stuck with it because we really believed and now it's coming through." Jon's two favorite tracks on the new Carpenters' tribute album are Sonic Youth's 'Superstar' and Dishwalla's 'It's Gonna Take Some Time.' "We don't really have a Smash Or Trash during the day, but we tested Danielle Briscois' 'What If God Fell From The Sky' at noon and got 80 percent positives—all adult females."

KEVIN ERICSON, PD, WOLV-HOUGHTON, MICH. "Played Gloria Estefan's 'Turn The Beat Around' for the first time during the morning show last Friday and requests came in right away. It hasn't slowed down and all signs point to it turning into a hit. We're playing the album version."

ED KANOI, PD, KONG-LIHUE, KAUAI, HAWAII "Instant response to Bitty McLean's 'It's Raining' on Virgin. It's incredible. We broadcast from the State Fair last weekend and had a lot of people coming up equal the success they had with 'All I Want.' Gloria Estefan's 'Turn The Beat Around' is a much needed uptempo tune that's perfect for upper demos." Cos also predicts another slam dunk for Toni Braxton.

BRIAN GARVIN, PD, KDOG-MANKATO, MINN. "Instant hit calls on Toad The Wet Sprocket's latest. What a song! Everything But The Girl's 'Rollercoaster' sounds great on the air. Top CD singles at retail come from Deadeye Dick, Green Day, Boyz II Men and Sheryl Crow." (Editor's Note: Read all about Brian and KDOG in this week's "Small Market Success" on page 22.)

PAULA PAREZ, PD, SKIP CARR, APD/MD, WAVT (T-102)-POTTSVILLE, PA.

"Great phones for Boyz II Men, Candlebox and Soundgarden." Paula digs The Real McCoy's 'Another Night' and The Freddy Jones Band's 'In A Daydream'. BRAD ANDERSON, PD, KSSZ (KISS/FM)-FARGO, N.D. "Huge phones and top five retail on Green Day. After just a few spins on the Gin Blossom's 'Allison Road,' calls started coming in."

MARK REID, APD/MD, KQKY-KEARNEY, NEB. "Number two phones and strong sales on Candlebox's 'Far Behind.' Toad's got another big hit. Watch out for Lucas's 'Lucas With The Lid Off'—hit, hit, hit." "DANGEROUS" DAN WATSON, PD, Q96 (KSIQ/FM)-IMPERIAL VALLEY, CALIF. "20 Fingers' 'Short Short Man' is by far our most active record of the year. If you don't see any cattle or cornfields out your window, you should be playing this song! Connie comes straight from the old school in '94 with a smash called 'No Tears.' An obvious pick for Hispanic markets."

ARTIST PROFILE

ERASURE

ERASURE IS: Vince Clarke and Andy Bell

LABEL: Mute/Elektra

Senior VP, promotion-Elektra: Jon Leshay

CURRENT SINGLE: "Run To The Sun"

CURRENT ALBUM: I Say, I Say, I Say

HISTORY: Vince Clarke is known for his previous work with Depeche Mode and Yaz. He teamed up with Andy Bell in 1985 after meeting him through an audition.

TOUR PLANS: The group doesn't expect to hit the road again until the summer of next year.

VINCE CLARKE ON

ERASURE'S SOUND: "I'm a big fan of the early '80s, when synthesizers sounded like synthesizers—they weren't pretending to be anything else. We don't use samples of other records or instruments. We try to make original sounds that people have never heard before—more like science fiction sounds."

—DJ Times, July, 1994

IT'S SAID: "Bell's lyrics retain an old-fashioned romanticism, drawn as much from old movies as vintage pop. 'I don't like modern movies at all,' Bell explains. 'They're all guns and explosions.'"

—Jim Farber, Daily News, June 9, 1994

GO STATION PANEL: The GO Chart is based on reports by 140 GAVIN correspondents who are not part of Radio & Record's or Billboard's panels. Underlines indicate upward movement, while blue entries highlight a stronger performance than on the main Top 40 chart.

SMALL MARKET SUCCESS

GAVIN'S "Small Market Success" takes a trip to Mankato, Minn. this week. Did you know that, meteorologically speaking, whatever happens in Fairbanks, Alaska, also happens in Mankato a week and a half later? Mankato is also home to the Minnesota Vikings training camp and it's where the Minnesota River begins. KDOG is the only Top 40 game in town and program director BRIAN GARVIN gives us some insight on his station. You are an hour south of Minneapolis. That's a lot of signals hitting your market. What are your station goals?

We are not a regional station. We don't try to compete outside of our listening area because it just isn't smart radio. We go after the largest amount of people in our listening area and the most college students. According to Arbitron, we are number two in total cumes in the market. What competition do you have locally?

Besides fighting with all of the Minneapolis stations, we have a few automated stations in the market and a few others that are playing some current music, but play a lot more oldies. The country station went live this last year and took over the number one spot. This is the first year in the last nine that we've been knocked out of the number one position in the market. Tell me about your music? Are you conservative?

Just the opposite. We've traditionally been early on music and we have been building on that for nine years. The audience expects a little different sound and they also know they will hear the new releases on KDOG. We also run an alternative show once a week. We are the outlet for new music in our listening area.

How do the advertisers feel about your presentation?

It's a tough sell in this market, but everything is. Mankato is growing very quickly as a regional shopping hub. We have only one major industry in the market besides the college. It's very hard to support those shopping dollars locally. But the advertisers keep a close ear on what is being played in the market. They know we are known for the new music, but they sometimes need to be spoon-fed the trends and changes in the industry. They are very supportive of us though.

What does that mean for music retailers?

Actually, we are moving a lot of music here. We have two major chains in town and a local outlet. The local retailer specializes in alternative music and they do very well. We talk with all three retailers weekly. Interestingly enough, almost 50 percent of the music bought in this market is from consumers 25 and under. Being that we are so close to Minneapolis, we also get a lot of shows in town. Offspring, Green Day and Material Issue are just a few that have been through recently. It keeps the music moving out of the stores.

Give me one programming philosophy that you will always stand by.

My announcers get to think for themselves. To do that, they've given boundaries with which to work. Build your own show and don't go over the line. We aircheck every week or so and make adjustments from there. Something else for them to work with is in regards to the music. I give them the currents they need to play every hour, but they get to choose the oldies. This way they need to be up-to-date on the music, pay attention to the flow of music and the direction of their show. I know that they will all grow to become stronger announcers that way. It's a high maintenance philosophy, but it works.

Tell me about your promotions.

We nickel and dime a lot. I believe, and this market seems to agree, that if there is a chance to win, they'll get involved. But the chances must be good. I'd rather have ten thousand small prizes to give away than one huge prize. Pepsi and Coke have done some major promotions with us, but most other giveaways are smaller and more local. We play games on the air, get people on the air and we'll give them dinners, tickets, cassettes, etc. They love to be involved.

Do your promotions tie-in with any charities?

Very much so. We are the March Of Dimes radio station. This year the goal for Walk America was $15,000, but we raised over $25,000. Jail and Bail was $17,000, but we raised over $19,000. The community comes to us when they want something done. That's very flattering to me. I think it's very important for radio to be involved with the community as much as you can without overextending yourself.

Any last comments?

I keep thinking this will get easier, but it doesn't. Maybe it's not brain surgery, but maybe it is. If it was easy, would I be doing it right? Maybe these are questions better left unanswered.

KICKING OFF THE 4TH QUARTER

Record Execs Run Down Their Top 40 Game Plans

They're tracking, blocking, blitzing, sacking, sweating—and that's only on Mondays and Tuesdays. It might be the first quarter for the National Football League, but it's the final push for those looking to hit paydirt at Top 40 during 1994. For a look at what radio can expect, here's a rundown of what labels plan to drop between now and the end of the year.

And just for fun, we also asked these promo gods to play prognosticator and select their choices for the two teams that'll wind up at the Big Dance on January 29, 1995—and who'll be on top when it's all over. (NOTE: Subsidiary labels are indicated in parentheses.)

Here's a comment from country programmer Al Hamilton of KKAJ-Ardmore, Oklahoma. "Am I the only one who wonders why so many of today's songs project a hokey country bumpkin image...i.e., 'Bubba,' 'Queen of My Double Wide,' 'Lifestyles of the not so Rich and Famous,' etc.

"I was in country back in the '70s when country radio had an image problem with advertising agencies. Many years of marketing our dle that shift and get out of the station before late evening.

Third topic. As you know, many AM radio broadcasters are giving up on building a mass audience with music. The listening audience can receive AM and despite some of the unappealing and sometimes bizarre niche music programming and the ten tons of talk, the audience still comes AM looking for music.

My point is supported by a brief article in the July

"Many program directors seem to prefer the afternoon drive shift, but that's also the time when things happen that need taking care of right away."

demographic/psychographic audience composition has erased that image and we're enjoying an enviable position compared to other formats. Are these songs simply a form of thumbing our noses at the '70s perceptions? Give me some feedback! (By the way, even though I question these songs' lyric approach, I proudly played them because they're good songs and I have never let my personal opinions interfere with my music judgment in deciding what I program.)"

If you'd like to respond to Al his number is (405) 226-04C71. If you'd like to comment to me write or fax me c/o GAVIN at (415) 495-2580.

Here's something else that's a good topic for comment: What do you think of on-air program directors? I've been both, so I see both sides of the issue.

What do you think? And if you're an on-air PD what shift do you prefer? Many program directors seem to prefer the afternoon drive shift, but that's also the time when things happen that need taking care of right away. I don't believe program directors can handle that shift and get out of the station before late evening. Under the headline "AM Radio News," Ivan Berger writes about the Sony SRF-42 AM/FM Walkman now available for under $35; the RCA AMAX #7-2887 Superadio portable; and the Denon TU-680NAB AMAX super tune (the best AM and FM tuner you'll find anywhere). According to Berger, "For several years the consumer magazine Audio has been asking which tuners and receivers in our car and home director issues offered AM stereo or met the AMAX standards for high AM quality...The FCC finally made Motorola's C-QUAM system the official standard, which should encourage many more stations and radio makers to adopt it...By the time you read this we'll be processing forms for our October '94 Equipment Directory. Perhaps we'll see more AM progress there"

As you can see, there still is consumer interest in AM radio as a basic medium. Not only that, every AM station, music or talk, should be stereo for the best quality. ●

AMY GRANT

FOR AMY GRANT,
RADIO IS A "HOUSE OF LOVE"

BY KENT AND KEITH ZIMMERMAN

Artists come to Top 40 from all over the musical landscape, jumping over various format borders. Amy Grant crossed the line from Inspirational/Christian music in 1985 with Unguarded. Since the 1991 release of Heart In Motion, Grant had sold over 10 million albums. She spoke with GAVIN from her office in Nashville.

Our collective body clocks are rapidly ticking away the hours, days, and months at blinding speed. Amy Grant is no different from the rest of us. Seconds and minutes are like pennies; they buy practically nothing. Even Amy Grant, with her heart in constant motion, hasn't found a way to harness time.

"I try. But even when you stop and take your time, time still flies," she says. "You want to grab time and make it stop, but it won't be stopped. Sometimes there are weeks and months when I feel busy—I feel like I'm missing all of life. But then I'll have total free time at home; I can watch the sunset, go fishing with my kids and it still flies by. We just have to do the things we need to do and make the most of it."

The new album is entitled House Of Love, and it comes four years after Grant's last album, Heart In Motion, which was a massive pop breakthrough that sold over four million copies. Heart In Motion's success signaled a new era as Amy Grant the pop singer became wife and mother, something she is philosophical about.

"When it was time to start collecting and writing songs [for House Of Love] I spent a couple of months trying to re-enter the world. I was emotionally leaving the baby world. It's such a wonderful, wonderful thing, but..."

"Well, having a family does create its own kind of existence, as it well should. Re-entry into the world that everyone else is occupying was a shocker; I was plugging back into my creative side. As precious an experience as having a baby is, one of the most interesting things about it is how absolutely functional you feel."

Amy delivers a crash-course on womanhood's post-childbearing experience:

"My body is the functioning component here! I am the breasts! I am the milk! I am the womb!

"Then you start sleeping through the night again. Passing the one year mark [after having a child] is huge, a huge undertaking. Sarah turned a year old and started traveling under her own steam. So the shift of going back into the studio was wonderfully timed. Plus, A&M gave us a lot of leeway time-wise."

House Of Love exudes the comfort (and maybe even an underlying strain of dependence) that Amy feels working out of Franklin, Tennessee, a beautiful outlying suburb of Nashville.

"As wonderful as music is, it does not outline my world.

"I'm basically defined by my family, which is the life I've always known.

"The thought of going somewhere and putting myself through some emotional turmoil to try to find something doesn't sound appealing at all."

From September to October Grant is in Europe; in November she's off to Southeast Asia and Australia until December; come January she'll embark on a 40-city American tour that will continue through April.

"I don't have nearly the record sales overseas that I have in the States," she says. "I feel 100 percent anonymous anywhere I go overseas. I love the idea of traveling, making videos or sitting in a sidewalk cafe just watching people."

Here in the States, recognition is another story.

"Over here it seems any familiarity people have through my records is a nice thing. I get asked all the time, 'How do I know you? Did we go to school together?'

"I guess I have this familiar but nebulous face."

The "nebulous face" never stops. Even after handing in House Of Love, Grant's music meter continues to run.

"Making music is a process that's ongoing," she says. "I was coming home from one of my first overseas promotional trips a couple of weeks ago, trying to sleep on the plane. I woke up from an absolute dead sleep singing this little song. Of course I have to pull out my Panasonic-record-on-the-spot machine thinking, 'Will this melody have much of a life?'

"I took it into band rehearsal yesterday. There we are—the process starts all over again. I'm rehearsing all this material for the House Of Love tour and there I was writing something brand new. It might be 1996 until it finds a digital home.

"Why not keep going?" ●

—EDITORIAL ASSISTANCE BY ANNETTE M. LAI.

Amy Grant's popularity at radio soared with her album, Heart In Motion, and her latest, House Of Love, has been eagerly awaited. We spoke with key programmers at Top 40 and A/C to get their thoughts about her:

"Amy Grant is an important artist to KKRZ's core 18-34 female target. 'Lucky One' is already showing the three signs of a hit record: phones, top 20 single sales and positive callout."

—KEN BENSON, PD, KKRZ-PORTLAND

"Amy Grant consistently provides us with hit songs that withstand the test of time and go from currents to recurrenents to oldies on K-101! She should take a tip from Doritos: 'Eat all you want, we'll make more.' Amy, make more!"

—ANGELA PERELLI, PD, K-101-SAN FRANCISCO

"Amy Grant has become a very important component to Hot A/C radio. Her last album was full of songs with tempo and texture that didn't burn in our research, and she had a wonderful acceptance quotient with our listeners. Amy's songs provide the perfect balance for our playlist. We look forward to House Of Love providing more of the same."

—LINDA SILVER, MD, WRQX (MIX 107.3)-WASHINGTON, D.C.

"Amy Grant is among a select group of artists who truly define the sound of Q102 because her appeal and sound transcends formats and boundaries and tastes. She is mass appeal in the truest sense of the word—she's not strictly rock or A/C or pop. Plus, she has multi-generational appeal. As with any core artist, when a new album hits we play more than just the single. 'Say You'll Be Mine' is one of the cuts we've been playing. It has a great hook and tempo that we really love."

—JIMMY STEAL, PD, Q102 (WKQR)-CINCINNATI

"The most interesting thing about Amy Grant is her evolution from Christian to secular music. It's been a slow but very methodical and smart process on her part. This transformation is owed in part to her massive success at A/C radio. As with Michael W. Smith, I feel that by playing artists with Christian roots, a coolness factor has helped deliver a whole new audience to my station, and they'll stay around and listen. She's a core artist for us."

—MICHAEL DELROSSO, PD, KESZ-PHOENIX

the curb or passed over altogether for recognition and representation. Here's a prime example. I got a call and fax from the DJ Without A Name at WESQ-North Carolina. He was shocked and angered to find that "Basement Music," the central breaker of new underground rap and WESQ's first rap show, has been cut in half from four to two hours to make way for a classic rock program. At this point, DJ W/O A Name needs your support! Call him at (919) 962-1506 to help him win back

KEEPIN' THE FUNK

SLUGGY RANKS Ghetto Youth Bust (Profile)

Sluggo winds around the "Crush Sounds Sprousa Remix" to this classic dancehall jam with rugged ease. Remixer Will Fulton pours the bass on thick and adds a chime of xylophone for exotic butterfly-able flavor. Dipping in on the guest rapper tip is Tucka Da Huntman (imagine a dope Wolfman Jack-esque ragga stylee). Be on the lookout for the album of the same name from Sluggo. HALF PIT HALF DEAD Better Off Dead (Motor Jam)

As the horrorcore platform opens to the masses, Half Pit Half Dead brings "Better Off Dead," their version of the genre's gruesome tales and haunting rhymes. Eerie wind-blown strings and loping bass pull the blood red curtains back on this hypnotic theatrical debut. Considering this package of tight production and aggressive lyrics, get set to bob your head. Contact Keir @ Motor Jam (212) 473-7673.

New Releases

B.M.U. (BLACK MEN UNITED) "U Will Know" (Mercury)

How's this for a star-studded group: R. Kelly, Tevin Campbell, Boyz II Men, Keith Sweat, Tony Toni Tone, DRS, Brian McKnight, Stokley (Mint Condition), Silk, Aaron Hall, El DeBarge, H-Town, Christopher Williams, Portrait, Gerald Levert, Al B. Sure, Damion Hall, Lil' Joe (Rude Boys), Intro, After 7, D'Angelo, Usher, Sovory and Joe. Add Lenny Kravitz's guitar and you've got the uplifting song from the soundtrack to Jason's Lyric. Either mix from B.M.U. makes for a great Fall record. This week's Most Added record.

MEN AT LARGE "Let's Talk About It" (eastwest/Atlantic Group)

The two stout men from Cleveland are slow jammin' their way back into your lives, and they just want to talk about "it." Once again, Gerald Levert and Edwin "Tony" Nicholas are responsible for lyrics and production. "Let's Talk About It" is the lead single from the group's sophomore album. One Size Fits All. Added at WBLK, WCDC, WFKX, WRKS/FM, WPEG, WQMG, WIZF and WTMP.

DIGABLE PLANETS "9th Wonder" (Pendulum/EMI)

Butterfly, Mecca and Doodlebug are coming at you "slicker" this year. The Digables serve up a narrative about what the trio's been doing, making "9th Wonder" a slicker, actually a thicker in funk mass-appeal track. Toting a slowed down "Love Rollercoaster" bassline, "9th Wonder" will find urban radio listening intently. The album, Blowout Comb, will hit the stores in approximately five weeks.

MELVIN RILEY "What Makes A Man (Wanna Cheat On His Woman)" (MCA)

"What Makes A Man (Wanna Cheat On His Woman)," shows Melvin Riley's seductive side while presenting a question that many women may ask. The next single from Riley's solo debut, Ghetto Love.

INI KAMOZE "Here Comes The Hotstepper" (Columbia)

In one week, the New York/Philly/Washington, D.C. markets account for 90 percent of Ini Kamoze's (pronounced Eye-knee Ka-MO-zee) 12" and maxi-singles sold. As Ini said, "Here Comes The Hotstepper" signifies a return to reggae roots, when there was power in the words "lyrical gangster," and not so much emphasis on guns and sex. Thirteen adds this week including, WZAK, WOWI, KKDA, WJTT and WVDM/FM.

SOMETHING YOU DON'T LEAVE HOME WITHOUT: "The Creator and common sense."
IF I WASN'T A RECORDING ARTIST: "Unimaginable...I probably wouldn't have had to come here."
RACHELLE QUOTES PIERRE TELLHARD DE CHARDIN'S HYMN OF THE UNIVERSE: "Some day, after we have mastered the winds, tides and gravity, we shall harness for God the energies of love. Then for the second time in the history of the world, man will have discovered fire."
AMBITIONS STILL TO FULFILL: "See above quote."

Creative Promos — Be Hip, Be Holy, but Stand Out!

By John Lund

In the search for more music and less talk, the art of produced promos has all but disappeared. Promos are an excellent vehicle to showcase emotion. On prime-time TV, for instance, we are exposed to more promos per hour than that heard in radio's prime hours. TV promos tend to be fast, exciting, and effectively entice the viewer to stay tuned later in the evening, or tune back the following evening.

Great radio promos are short movies that paint a picture with sound. Consider what one station does to produce great promos for all dayparts. The morning show hopefully contains magical moments that can be edited down to 10-25 seconds. Create a "Moments of Greatness" audio file for airchecked oddities and bits. In production, that moment is lifted off for use in produced promos that are updated daily and run in other dayparts. Clips are produced with music that act as a rim shot for the punch line, phone call clip, or man-on-the-street clip.

Show promos are produced daily by each talent to tease a specific skit or schtick that will happen in each program. These can be customized to run in a specific talent's show. Morning show characters can briefly tease a specific bit that will be on the next day at a promotable time.

Every successful radio station uses liners to set a programming position in the listener's mind. Great liners carry a listener benefit to force a desired listening behavior. Another listener benefit provided by liners shows how the station complements leisure time activities and keys into what listeners are doing. Thus, liners help listeners with ways to better "use" the radio station and present ways to make the station part of their lives.

Promos with "stationality" provide the station with personality regardless of the specific talents on the air. They reinforce the call letters, the positioning statement, the contests, promotions, appearances, shows, etc.

A production director can be creative when interviewing listeners about station benefits. Funny and charismatic persons are asked to spontaneously associate ideas and verbiage based on a specific subject, like "What is it like to wake up in the morning without the station's morning show?" Editing, cheers, music, sound effects, and more editing result in a unique and memorable promo.

A station talent can go to a shopping center with cassette and ask people what it is like to wake up in the morning without taking a shower or without having breakfast; the results are edited to the question, "what's it like to wake up without the station's morning show?"

Creative Promo Examples:

- (Exorcist theme) The exorcism didn't take.
- Less music by dead guys...
- Upstanding citizens on a downward spiral...
- Some stations play Lite Rock, Mellow Rock, Sleepy Rock, Disco Rock, Rap Rock, ARROW Rock, 70s Rock, Country Rock. This station simply has less crock and all of the Original Rock and Roll.

•If you're waiting for a commercial, be patient. It will be a while.

To Be Competitive, Be Creative!

Since the station is competing for listeners in a multiple channel, TV and cable environment, one must get creative with produced promos and one-up the competition. Get away from the dreadful, boring and dry straight copy with nondescript music in the background. Highly produced promos will peak interest in your station, reinforce the calls and market position. In addition to getting listeners to come other dayparts, promo creativity suggests the station is alive and fun and a great sales tool for clients.

The need for more creatively produced promos is relevant to all contemporary stations from CHR to Country to Oldies. Creative production, good talents, and fun contests that make the station sizzle with excitement. This is Stationality!

Next week, more examples of stationality and attitude liners for all formats as contributed by Gavin subscribers... plus the new emerging formats that target the listener attitude.

Inside A/C

THE BIZ

Changes in A/C this week include Top 40 WBBQ flopping with sister station WZNY in Augusta, Georgia. John Patrick will now program BBQ and report to us, while WZNY takes on a news/Hot A/C persona directed by Bruce Stevens. Also, from Mason City, Iowa Harry O'Neal reports that KLSS, "The Choice Of Klass," is switching to Top 40 effective this coming week.

Our condolences to Tom McClendon of WCKQ-Campbellsville, KY on the loss of his father to cancer late last month.

Diane Rufer is on vacation this week, camping, hiking and breathing the freshest air in America. She returns on Monday September 19 ready to rock your world. Meanwhile, it is I, Mr. Excitement, (as pictured above), carrying on with an analysis of our format's best music.

THE MUSIC

Amy Grant's (above) "Lucky One" is clearly our format's most important record as it clears more than 6,100 spins this week. That's more than a thousand spins more than her nearest competitor, Elton John's "Circle Of Life." At 125 of our 224 stations we're getting reports of 28 or more spins per week. Since we began this form of reporting (Spins Per Week) it's the first single to clear 28.

Elton John is no slouch. "Circle Of Life's" Spincrease this week is 692 (fourth best in the format). Nearly 150 A/Cs report three plays a day or more. His is also the only record other than Grant's that has over 200 clearances.

Congratulations to Edie Brickell who charts top ten with our her usual Bohemians. "Good Times" has reached #9 with an underline an 169 players, and better than 21 spins a week from the believers. ADDs this week are in from KLZY, KMCQ, WGMG, WHCO, WJYY, KOIS, WZRT and KARO. Top Spins of better than four times a day at KVIC, WQTU, KYMG, WBLG, KLLS, K99, WCKQ, KKOR, Z106 and Q93 etc.

HOTTEST track in the format is Luther Vandross and Mariah Carey "Endless Love." In just two chart weeks it's already at #10 with 169 players including 42 new like MIX 107.9, WDAY, WLDR, WVLT, KELL, KTDY, KBLQ, KMGQ, KFOR, KKLY and WCSO. The track also leads the format in Spinincreases this week with 1449 rotations more than last week.

Right on Luther and Mariah's tail is Anita Baker (above) with "Body & Soul," which leaps #19 to #11 with a Spincrease of 565. New this week includes KLLS, WJTW, KVIL, K9FM, WYCO and WQLR.

Boyz II Men's "I'll Make Love To You" is breaking out with this week's #26-#17 move. Three dozen ADDs registered this week including KBey, WHSB, KVYN, K101, KBIG, WGMG, WKWK, WTSX and KTHO.

Two charts weeks after debuting, Sheryl Crow's "All I Wanna Do" is busting out all over at #24. It's a MOST ADDED with 47 new, second only to the brand new Crosby, Stills & Nash single. Among the 113 players are K99, WALK, KMGQ, KXLK, KBOZ, WTSX, WQLH, WRQX, WMXB, WMT, KMGN, WBMX and WSPT. Its Spincrease of 850 is third- best in the format behind Luther & Mariah and Boyz II Men. That should be enough ammo to close out the remainder of skeptics.

Jon Secada's "Whipped" is at #28 with another 17 ADDs coming in this week. The current roster of Whipped fanatics includes WLEV, WCKQ, WQTU, KZLT, WAWV, KQIC, KVIC and WAHR.

TOP TIP last week was Sarah McLachlan's (above) "Good Enough" and sure enough it's this issue's highest chart debut at #34. Another 22 ADDs come to the party this week and it's sure to pass the 100-station level next week. On board are KYMG, WTPI, KMGQ, WMT, WTTR, WTSX, WAHR, KVIC, WFRO, WOBM, KBMG and KLOG.

The only other chart debut in this tough week is America's "Hope." The Hopeful now include KVYN, KOKO, KDEC, WFRO, KGLE, WAHR, KMGN, WEIM and KJLS.

Last week's RECORD TO WATCH was Arnold McCuller's (above) "Change All Of That." This week it scores ten ADDs (KGY, KCCR, WTPI, WFRO, KBMG, WXLT, WEIM, WHLM, KVYN/FM and KSDN. Other top players now include KLOG, Q93, WQTU, KBMG, KVIC, WKWK, WHAI and KLRQ.

This issue's RECORD TO WATCH is Gerald Levert's "I'd Give Anything." This is a record we're proud to say we picked in this section back on July 29. Levert converts already include KUDL, WAFY, WEIM, WLKI, KLSY, WBMX, WQLR, WMT, WAHR and KKLI.

From the distinguished six in this week's CHARTBOUND we'll pick the Crosby, Stills & Nash's hot new single, "Only Waiting For You" as next week's highest chart debut. It wins a tough competition this issue for #1 MOST ADDED and its first-week believers include WQLH, WHSB, WSUL, WFRO, WMT, WHAI, KATW, KCRE, KVVN, KSCQ and KMGN.

New Releases

ROLLING STONES

"Out Of Tears"

(Virgin)

Probably the most unusual Stones single in the modern era, "Out Of Tears" is bound to get hunks of A/C airplay because of its patient yet moody performance. And you know something is changing in the world of music when the Stones get as much airplay on VH-1 as on MTV.

BE BE & CE CE WINANS
"If Anything Ever Happened To You" (Capitol)

If sentiment and presentation mean anything in evaluating new releases, this one should go to the top of the consideration pile. This brother/sister team and producer Arif Mardin take an awesome Alan Rich and Jud Friedman ballad and make musical magic.

THE MAVERICKS
"O What A Thrill" (MCA)

Oh what a song! This Jesse Winchester composition is brought to the attention of A/C by Maverick lead singer Raul Malo's Orbisonian vocals. This quartet's first crossover attempt fits our format like a comfortable and stylish cowboy boot.

SWING OUT SISTER
"La La (Means I Love You)" (Mercury)

The old Delphonics hit from 1968 is re-done in four flavors on this multi-track pro CD that includes versions with and without guitar as well as with and without flute and trumpet. The bottom line is, in every case, cool and intimate.

OES-A PROGRAMMING STRATEGY

“Repeat the record just the right amount of times so that the listener likes what they hear...”

Wander down the hall some summer's morning and ask the sales manager what OES is. He or she should know that OES means Optimum Effective Schedule. The term was introduced to radio in the late 1980s and institutionalized in a book published by the National Association of Broadcasters (NAB) in 1990. The authors were Steve Marx of NewCity Communications and Pierre Bouvard, formerly with Arbitron and currently vice president of Coleman Research.

Radio Advertising's Missing Ingredient: The Optimum Effective Scheduling System was their book's full title. It made the case for the significance of frequency in advertising effectiveness. In other words, they gave the reasons why repetition is important to get people to remember the message. The book's largest contribution was a method to calculate a schedule that should be effective.

The principle of repeating a message applies in radio programming as well as in sales. Repeat the call letters or station name so that your listeners (more importantly, diary-keepers) can remember them. Repeat the record just the right amount of times so that the listener likes what they hear, but not so many times as to make the punch the next dial button if they've tired of the song. Repeat the promotional announcement enough times to make the event successful, but not so many times as to cause your audience to tune you out. The question in the minds of advertisers and radio programmers has been "How many times do I have to repeat the message to be effective?" The Optimum Effective Scheduling System gives you a method to determine the answer to the question.

Here's the three-step formula. It requires only a ratings book and a calculator. You could do it with pencil and paper, but who does that anymore?

STEP #1: Calculate the turnover. Cume + AQH

STEP #2: Multiply the turnover radio by the OES Spot Factor of 3.29. The magical constant of 3.29 is the result of multiple computer runs that "produces a schedule that has 50% of the Total Reach falling into the Effective Reach group," according to the book. Effective Reach is defined as the percentage of the audience that hears the schedule three times or more.

STEP #3: Multiply the cume by the OES Reach Factor of .46. This constant determines the size of the audience that has been Effectively Reached.

This formula is generally applied for total week schedules. Let's try a real case example:

STEP #1: The weekly cume for the station is 683,300 and that divided by the average quarter hour of 39,200 yields the turnover factor of 17.4.

STEP #2: Multiply the turnover of 17.4 times the constant of 3.29 and this equals 57.3. According to the OES formula, this major market Top 40 requires 57 announcements to reach half the station's cume three times or more. This number is probably much higher than you would have thought. Even for a light A/C, you'll see the range of 40-45 repetitions.

STEP #3: The cume of 683,300 is then multiplied by the constant of .46 in order to find the actual number of listeners that are effectively reached by the schedule of 57 announcements. In this case the answer is 314,318 of the cume is effectively reached.

What is obvious in OES calculation after OES calculation is that the number of spots required is much higher than typically placed by advertisers. They are much closer to promo liner standards. It also indicates records may be rotated with a much higher frequency than many have had the courage to run them.

What is missing from OES is the artistic portion of the equation. There is nothing that tells us the impact that an announcement has had on the listener. We know, for example, that a listener's attention can be gotten through humor, sound or message and because of the greater attention, there can be a quicker or stronger impact. The prime case for this is "novelty records." The listener is captured by the imagination, creativity, humor, or some other element of the record. They want to hear it often, but for a short period of time. Yes, the art in radio programming does remain.

What drives OES's overall success for advertisers is buried deep in the Arbitron data. It is Preference levels that are effecting the success. The PD PROFILE norms have shown that about 36% of the station's total audience has selected the station as their first choice; that is, they spend more time listening to this station than to any other. The First Preference listeners are critical to ratings success. It doesn't take a statistical gee whiz mind to realize that the First Preference listeners don't require as many announcements to reach the exposure levels of OES. It is the Second, Third and four preference listeners, the lighter listeners to you station, that force the OES number high.

As a programmer you probably are more concerned with "burnout" and with too little exposure of a record add than with the effects of a promotional schedule, but the principles of OES work for both. The social science of OES is to find a method that can quantify exposure levels that are going to be generally effective. The radio programmer must blend the art of programming to understand when to exceed or diminish the number of times a promotional announcement is repeated. An OES statistical formula cannot supplant judgment, but judgment can be assisted by valid numbers. ●

JOHN MICHAEL MONTGOMERY "If You've Got The Love" (Atlantic)

John Michael furthers his reputation as a romantic singer with this charming love song co-written by Steve Seskin, who wrote Montgomery's first hit, "Life's A Dance."

JOHN ANDERSON "Country 'Til I Die" (BNA)

Have a song and an artist ever fit so perfectly? John wrote it along with Troy Seals and Eddie Setser and everything, from the lyrics to the vocals, makes it the ultimate John Anderson song.

FAITH HILL "Take Me As I Am" (Warner Bros.)

This title cut from her current album fits Faith to a tee. Written by Bob DiPiero and Karen Staley, its upbeat tempo and positive lyrics are infectious.

LEE ROY PARNELL "The Power Of Love" (Arista)

Horizon-award nominee Parnell shows us once again why there are so many fanatic Lee Roy fans out there. His bluesy vocals are the highlight of this beautiful ballad.

AMIE COMEAUX "Moving Out" (Polydor)

As you may have surmised from her last name (pronounced Como), this 18 year-old newcomer hails from Louisiana. Her debut single is a cute, energetic song written by K.T. Oslin.

RHETT AKINS

THIS IS WHO THEY'RE TALKIN' ABOUT

"The first time I heard Brooks & Dunn's "Brand New Man", I got goosebumps. I have not had goosebumps since...until Rhett Akins. He is youthful and real... country music at its best!"

— DONNA HILLEY

CEO/President ■ Sony Music

"Frankly, this is one RHETT programmers need to 'Give A Damn' about..."

— GREG EDWARDS

KFRE/KNAX/Froggy 101.1 ■ Fresno, CA

THIS WEEK'S GRID...

Yelp! It's the attack of the hot Fall releases. As Bryan Ferry and R.E.M. battle it out for top Most Added honors, Shawn Colvin has one more swing at the plate to gain A3 number one status before Eric Clapton (14-6) and Nanci Griffith (34-14) move into the top five. It's mostly a matter of preserving Colvin's airplay total and raising her heavy rotation count. Jules Shear (yes, that third Zimmerman) made a crucial leap into the top ten, going 11-11-9. If he can break 50 stations, Jules has a shot for the top five. Six more songs have been leaked via an MCA sampler called 6/18 as Lyle Lovett's I Love Everybody release looms closer. Can't wait.

Ladies And Gentlemen... It's A³ Bluestime!!

MAGIC DICK & JAY GEILS Bluestime (Rounder)

During the J. Geils Band's final days, the group seemed muddled by Seth Justman's glitzy pop keyboards and Peter Wolf's jiving vocal presence. Jay Geils always had our respect for being a clean, no-nonsense guitarist and Magic Dick never hid his Little Walter/Sonny Boy Williamson roots, even when the band ruled Top 40. Now the payback arrives with Bluestime. Jay Geils is full of smoking blues chords and Magic Dick has friendly lead vocals, even though his harp licks are as mean as ever. Bluestime reenacts Chess Records' unforgettable Chicago blues ambiance. Our favorite, both live and on CD, is Muddy Waters' "The Stuff You Gotta Watch." Two minutes in, Dickie tells the boys in the band to pump up the tempo as they grind into a more suitable, snappy tempo. It kinda reminds us of the days when the J. Geils Band used to do "the freeze" onstage in the middle of a song, to the wild delight of the crowd. Here's a great way to inject some much-needed blues into a set.

BRYAN FERRY "Mamouna" (Virgin CD Promo)

The ingrained sensual tones behind "Slave To Love" and Roxy Music's Avalon return in full bloom with "Mamouna," the warm-up track to Bryan Ferry's long-awaited solo project on Virgin. Ferry is influenced by the most unpredictable sources. This time it's guitarist Robin Trower, who serves as the sessions' co-producer. Ferry's signature vocal croon floats over a bed woven of rich harmonic blends and highlighted by a Hendrix-flavored, wah-wah guitar loop presumably constructed by Trower. The CD-pro also includes updated live versions of "In Every Dream Home A Heartache," "Don't Stop The Dance" and "Bete Noire."

BLUE RODEO Five Days In July (Discovery)

Blue Rodeo have an unusual, eclectic rock sound. They come from Canada, but Five Days In July sounds more like it was mined in Nashville than Toronto. "Bad Timing" resembles a country ballad. Lots of acoustic guitar, harmonica and relaxed country-style slapping drum beats adorn the production. "Cynthia" is festooned with whining steel guitar and Everly Brothers-style harmonies. Vocalist Jim Cuddy has a corn-fed, robust vocal delivery that recalls the wide open pastures of Winnipeg and Saskatchewan. Looking for something unusual to segue into Jim Lauderdale, Nanci Griffith or Jimmy LaFave? Try Blue Rodeo's "Photograph."

VICTORIA WILLIAMS "Century Plant" and "You R Loved" (Mammoth/Atlantic)

It seems like only a short while ago a producer friend of ours played us a front-porch sounding demo cassette by Victoria Williams. Her voice sounded like it dropped out of the sky from heaven. This latest collection of six tunes from her new album, Loose, will attract significant alternative attention as well as A3 interest, particularly when Mammoth/Atlantic drops off the entire set. The staggering guitar solos on "You R Loved" sound as chaotic as anything Neil Young's playing these days. Williams' high vocal range cuts an intriguing silhouette to the song's bluesy construction. "Century Plant" also has a lumbering Muscle Shoals kick to it.

"A soloist of stunning force and originality."
New York Times

"One of God's guitarists."

More Clues From Lyle Lovett

LYLE LOVETT
6/18 songs from the album
I Love Everybody
(MCA CD Promo)

The drama continues. First we got a two-song taste of Lyle Lovett's upcoming release I Love Everybody on an A3 MCA sampler distributed at the Boulder Summit. Now the label sneaks us six of the eighteen tracks in the form of a second promo sampler. As many of us saw, while onstage Lovett commands a large ensemble of up to 17 players, but he likes to break it down into various configurations to suit each tune. Songs like "Old Friend" and the deadpan "Fat Babies Have No Pride" utilize a vocal, acoustic guitar and an orchestral string sextet. "Penguins" sports a James Brown-style syncopated horn section, gospel background vocals, string bass and shuffle beat drums. Various clues to the human condition are unveiled. "Penguins are so sensitive...to my needs," Lovett opines philosophically. "Fat babies have no pride. But that's okay. Who needs pride anyway?" Ultimately, the challenge of Lovett's music is separating the poignancy from the sarcasm. As more pieces are added to the puzzle, it looks like I Love Everybody resembles the coziness of earlier works like Pontiac, while maintaining the wider sound canvas of Josua Judges Ruth.

Letters...We Get Letters!

We got tons of positive phone calls regarding last month's A3 Summit. Thanks for your kind words. Now here are some excerpts from a few letters concerning our Boulder gathering. See you next year!

I sat back and watched you demonstrate how totally committed to music you are at the Summit...On behalf of Jules (Shear), thanks. Sky Daniels, Mercury Records

Thank you for putting together a great Summit. The people, the networking and the music all contributed to a successful weekend. Dave Leonard, WKZE

Thanks for acknowledging the Dave Matthews Band at your convention...I can't thank you enough for allowing us to launch the band at your convention. Now, I've got this other band... Dave Loncao, RCA Records

I can tell you really believe in the music and what A3's all about. Thanks for making it happen. Drew Ross, K-OTTER

It was a very constructive three days for me and I appreciate your hospitality. Mark Graham, W.F. Leopold Management

Where'd everybody go? We woke up Sunday afternoon and the streets of Boulder were empty. We actually got through the day without a showcase performance or an animated discussion of cume vs. TSL...We want to say thanks for coordinating a very successful year two of the A3 Summit. We thought the entire event was a positive learning and growing experience for the "format" and the programmers who attended. John Bradley, Dave Rahn, Dave Benson, SBR Radio Company

The convention did us a world of good! Radio's been great! Mike Lembo, Mike's Artist Management

The convention was a hit! How about the Dave Matthews Band? Incredible or what? Jason Martin, W.A.R. Promotion

Wonderful job on the A3 Summit in Boulder! Had a great time. Good meetings, wonderful music, hip people. Keep on rockin' in the free world.

Chris Mays, KMTT

It has been my experience in event production that the second year is the hardest and most critical for the future. Congratulations on outdoing the vibe from last year, and providing a forum for everyone to hear and be heard. I think you've created something with real meaning and integrity that will become an important annual gathering.

William (Biff) Kennedy, November Records

You did an awesome job with the A3 convention. I found the general attitude positive and hopeful, and that is good.

Tracy Skelly, Geffen Records

Great meeting you guys did in Boulder. It was the best music gathering I have ever been to. Tony Poulos, Monkey Hill, Inc.

It was by far the best convention I have ever attended. The artist showcases at the Fox and the hotel lounge were just incredible!

Steven Gordon,

Jeff McClusky & Associates Inc.

Congratulations on a job well-done at this year's A3 Summit in Boulder. I thought the event was more effective and broader-based this year, including more aspects of this exciting radio style.

Julie Amacher, KUNC

I wanted to thank you very much for a GREAT time in Boulder. Smooth running and very exciting. Reasons to be cheerful—I'm lucky to be able to work with this musical genre. Reasons to be fearful—we'll all get crazy and screw it all up!

Paulette McCubbin, Lee Arnold Marketing

It is a lovely sight to watch hard work and dreams come true. Your efforts and passion for the A3 format is finally spreading. Thank you for making my participation possible.

AMERICAN MUSIC CLUB
"Wish The World Away"
(Reprise)

BLUES TRAVELER
"Hook" (A&M)

The angst-ridden "sad-core" sounds of the Red House Painters and American Music Club take a more forceful turn with "Wish The World Away," the newest song from the American Music Club's upcoming album, San Francisco. The arrangements are more explosive, but the themes are just as bleak and confessional: "Don't watch TV. It's all lies. I watch TV day and night. I believe everything I see, and I can't turn it off." On the lighter side, those cosmic blues-rockers, Blues Traveler, are a spunky alternative with the hook-laden "Hook," the opening shot from Four. Instrumentally, this song runs the gamut. Dig the spirited chromatic harmonica solo, wild strumming guitars and frenzied vocal crescendo.

Inside Jazz

Say Hello, Say Goodbye...

We're still adding more stations to our illustrious Jazz/Adult Alternative roster. This week we add three new A2 stations and drop two. We also welcome a new jazz reporter.

Say hello to Bill Harman as he re-enters the A2 arena at WMTD, Panama City. He can be phoned at (904)-235-9686 or faxed at (904)-235-0861. His mailing address is 3605 Thomas Drive, Panama City, FL, 32408.

We're pleased to welcome back another good friend, PD Nick Francis, who's at KYOT-Phoenix. He can be phoned at (602)-229-1015 or faxed at (602)-420-9912. The station's mailing address is 840 North Central Avenue, Phoenix, AZ, 85004.

We also welcome back KHII in Denver. You can reach PD Jamie Kartak at 8975 East Kenyon Avenue, Denver, CO, 80237. The phone number is (303)-631-2957 and the fax is (303)-694-4919.

The homecoming continues with the addition of jazz station WSTC in Stamford. PD Rick Petrone returns to the fold and you can reach him at 100 Prospect Street, Century Plaza North, Stamford, CT, 06901. Phone is 203-327-1400 and fax is 203-359-9907.

Finally, say goodbye to two Arkansas A2 stations, KYFX-Little Rock and KEZU-Fort Smith. Both are no longer reporters.

Jazz/Adult Alternative New Releases

JONATHAN BUTLER
HEAD TO HEAD (MERCURY)

South African guitarist/vocalist Jonathan Butler is back after his four-year layoff, and he's just in time for the smooth revolution on A2's metro airwaves. During his days on Jive, Butler methodically separated his talents from one release to the next. He would give urban radio satiny vocal records and then go into the studio and cut some jazzy instrumentals. On Head to Head, Butler lets all his influences segue into each other. His vocal presence has matured in the process. A2 will be just as receptive with layered vocal performances like "Slow Down" and the grooving "I'll Be With You" (featuring Butler on Hammond organ) as they will be to clean instrumentals like "Celebration" and "Reflections." Butler's seasoned vocals remind us of Stevie Wonder and George Benson. Jazz folks might want to check out track 14, the "unlisted" acoustic guitar jazz jam stashed at the end of the CD.

GENE DUNLAP BAND
GROOVE WITH YOU (AVENUE JAZZ)

Gene Dunlap is best known for being Earl Klugh's longtime drummer, having appeared on Klugh's last several recordings as well as at his live shows. While Dunlap's rhythms top the A2 charts in the form of Klugh's Move, he managed to coax Klugh into the studio to play acoustic guitar on a couple of tunes from his own solo record, entitled Groove With You. Our top airplay pick is "The Lights Went Out And..." a tune Klugh handed over to Dunlap after the pair rehearsed it during a recent demo recording session. Guitarist Perry Hughes gives the guitar parts a little more of an energetic, electric kick. "The Little Ones," another bright moment from GWY, demonstrates Dunlap's flair for arranging and layering different soloists. Besides navigating delicately between a live drum sound and computerized rhythms, Dunlap deftly maneuvers a round-robin solo fest between Klugh's gut-string guitar, Dwight Adams' trumpet and the husky tenor sax tones of Ray Manzerolle. The velvety "It's Over" is another recommended jam that trips along on a light, finger-popping pace.

JOE SAMPLE AND THE SOUL COMMITTEE
DID YOU FEEL THAT? (WARNER BROS.)

With earthquakes, fire, and floods pounding away at Southern California through the last year and a half, it's little wonder

Joe Sample came up with the title, Did You Feel That? This is an especially sweet release for Sample for a couple of reasons. First, how often do we get simultaneous Top Most Added honors from both Jazz and A2? Judging from the stylistic gulf that separates both formats these days, not a whole lot. Secondly, Sample's Soul Committee sessions is part of the ongoing jazz rediscovery of what Sample calls "American Soul," the logical extension past the jazz/hip-hop fusion movements of Ronny Jordan and others. Sample's dazzling but basic reworking of Lee Morgan's "Sidewinder" sets the tone for the entire release. It's true enough to win over hard core jazz fans and groovin' enough to tantalize the A2 smooth set. Sample has also recaptured the wide-open spirit of early '70s Crusader recordings like "So Far Away." If you recall, jams like "Put It Where You Want It" were so swinging, they were even a hit on many early underground FM stations. Sample recaptures that funkiness of the old Fender Rhodes electric piano era—without the inherent buzzing and feedback we conveniently forget about. The wah-wah guitars and tight-but-relaxed horn charts drift us back to those innocent jazz/rock days before the raucous electric jazz fusion movement set in. This is Sample's finest solo recording in memory, if not his best on Warners. It showcases a personable band identity that enables Sample to sneak off and play acoustic piano without any bebop baggage attached. Check out "While It's Good" and the shuffle beats of "Brother, Can You Spare Your Car?" with its combination New Orleans and early Art Blakey Jazz Messenger sound. Turn it up!

MICHAEL WHITE
SO FAR AWAY (NOTEWORTHY)

With major labels dominating the Adult Alternative chart so much the past several months, it's gratifying to see independent labels grabbing a bit of the spotlight. Oddly enough, some key A2 indie releases these days come from bandleaders like Alphonse Mouzon, Gene Dunlap and Michael White who are drummers composing and arranging their own tunes. A case in point is White's So Far Away. On Noteworthy. Actually, SFA is White's American debut, and its material has been drawn from three previous records released only in Japan. White is best known his eight years with Frankie Beverly and Maze as well as gigging with top names like David Sanborn, Everette Harp and George Benson. White's early influences include his cousins, Maurice and Freddie White of Earth, Wind and Fire. Establishing the groove early is So Far Away's strongest suit. The music is as conversational as it is smooth, and devoid of any cliché drum solos. Because of White's reputation, SFA boasts an impressive lineup of session players including Stanley Clarke, Gerald Albright, Harp and Norman Brown. Ironically, one missing invited guest was supposed to have been Miles Davis. Prior to his untimely death, Miles had made arrangements to sit in on a couple of tunes. All that aside, White should do well on the chart with this one. Then expect a quick follow-up to this noteworthy release in the new year.

 FREELON

FROM: Cambridge, Mass.

LABEL: Columbia

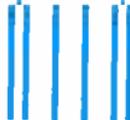

LATEST RELEASE: Listen

ON LISTEN: "I'm very proud of it. It was a lot of fun and we had a ball. Everybody came into the recording with all their hearts. It was very special."

APPROACHING SONGS: "I try to find a door or window, be it through the lyrics or the beauty of the melody so as to get inside the song and then tell my own story. That's where I try to sing from—standing in the center of the song, singing from the inside out."

ON SCATTING: "I approach my scattting from a language style as opposed to the voice as a horn approach. I try to use a sound language, imbuing it with the kind of feeling that is a very fluid, language-like experience."

WORDS AND MUSIC: "I'm a storyteller, so words are the most important thing for me, the framework that everything else—the melody, the instrumentation, the arrangement—is built on. Words have a life and a power all its own and those meanings are amplified through music. It certainly is a very powerful thing."

Rock Releases

MONSTER VOODOO MACHINE "Bastard Is As Bastard Does" (D-Tribe/BMG)

Anyone who caught MVM's show at the Foundations Forum will undoubtedly add this new single from their upcoming album, Suffersystem, which is due October 25. Even though lead singer Adam "Doom" Sewell was suffering from the flu, the band still put on an impressive show. One of the songs showcased was "Bastard Is As Bastard Does," their latest single which contains low-end chainsaw guitar riffs, pummeling drums, techno horn blasts and Sewell's scolding vocals. Check out the B-side and discover the double-time bongo/drum beats and industrial guitar grooves of "Inside These Walls (Salvaged & Recycled)."

WHITE ZOMBIE "Children Of The Grave" (Columbia)

Monster rockers White Zombie have contributed their hard rock metal skills to the yet-to-be released Columbia album Nativity In Black: A Tribute To Black Sabbath. Using their own unique, savage guitar riffs on Black Sabbath's "Children Of The Grave" allows for an extremely heavy and intriguing listen. The psychedelics and sampling the band sneaks into the song is what makes it so irresistible. Your listeners will definitely find White Zombie's version of "Children Of The Grave" worthy of a couple of head slams and a few "F*ck Yeahs!" Don't miss this one.

KYUSS "Demon Cleaner" (Elektra)

Desert rockers Kyuss offer another shivering, psychedelic tune for your listeners with their single, "Demon Cleaner," which was taken from the last full album, Sky Valley I, II, III. This track is actually from part II and contains moaning bass lines and wiry guitar riffs that compliment the rueful lyrics and tribal drum beats. The hazy rhythms and lazy melodies will keep your red-eyed listeners smiling.

TESTAMENT "Low" (Atlantic)

The latest effort from Testament comes in the form of a hard hitting single, "Low," which explodes with intense metallic guitar riffs, serious drum bashing, vicious bass lines and vocal growls that flirt with death metal elements. Taken from the long-anticipated album, Low, which will be in stores October 4, this single will keep your metal listeners happy and your phones eternally lit.

BILE

LINEUP: Kristoff, vox; Eric Roi, vox; Archie A.K., vox; Brett, four string; Jeff X., six string; R.H. Bear, keyboards; Omen, cybercussion; Sin-D, sex; Mr. and Mrs. Clown; Bobabuss, beatings; Mclusky, lights

LABEL: Energy Records

ALBUM: SuckPump

PRODUCED AND ENGINEERED BY: Slave, Void and Kristoff

SINGLE: "I Reject" and "Get Out"

R.H. BEAR TALKS ABOUT:

SIGNING WITH ENERGY: "We sent them a tape but by the time we signed the label had changed personnel, which was good because the old regime wasn't interested in us. I'm very happy with the way everyone at the label is into our music."

BILE'S LINEUP: "We've been together since December of '92. Mr. and Mrs. Clown, Sin-D and Bobabuss are part of the stage show—they roam around and play with the audience. At one point we tie them up and beat them while they breath fire. Mclusky, who's on the lights, is also part of the show. R.H. are my real initials. The bear paw was inspired by a tattoo on my butt."

THE STAGE SHOW: "We want to be anonymous, so we all wear masks or hoods onstage. No one knows what we really look like—which is nice. We don't wear anything different than we'd wear offstage except the masks. Our show is violent and S&M-oriented, with a lot of sex. We show old porno films both gay and straight and with animals. We show anything that'll get a reaction from our audience. We're a bunch of oversexed pigs. There's a little bit of everything in the band; I'm gay, and everyone else is into something different. We're very open-minded; we see everything from every point of view."

THE GAY SCENE: "Everyone knows people who are gay but they just don't talk about it. I want people to understand that there are a lot of different people in this world. Our audience is very homophobic and I'm here to turn that around."

SONGS ON THE ALBUM: "We've got enough material for three albums. This is what we thought would be interesting to put out on the first EP. Hopefully the album will be out within six or seven months. We've lived every song on this album."

KEEPING UP WITH SUCKPUMP'S SUCCESS: "The label keeps us informed but we also like to keep up on our own. We've been in the business for a long time so we keep on top of everything. We've all been screwed before so we know how it goes."

SLAVE AND VOID: "They're DJs from a band called Vampire Circus. We've known them from hanging out in the clubs. Both of them are interested in what we're into. They knew our sound and got it right the first time."

RADIO: "We don't care whether they play 'I Reject' or 'Get Out,' just as long as they play something. It's hard to find a cut on the album that's not dirty on the album. The first video is for 'I Reject' and hopefully it'll pass all the tests. We're very happy with the work that Tony DeSantos did for us."

THE ARTWORK: "The cover is from an Associated Press photo. Those are real terrorists. Inside there's a poster by Gina Volpe of the Lunachicks. I still see new things every time I pick up the album up. A lot of bands are helping us out. The New York scene is pretty cool. It's not like the metal scene where everybody wants to cut each other's throat. If we make it we plan to drag all our friends along with us."

TOURING: "We're playing a lot of dates throughout California with Thought Industry. We played Foundations Forum '94. We'll be all over the place and were happy to do it—especially since I've never been to California. I really want to visit San Francisco and go to Castro Street. I don't think my boyfriend will be too happy about that, but I want to go and look."

Hard Rock Releases

ATROCITY'S Blut (Massacre)

The hard rock/metal scene in Europe is ten times bigger than it is in the U.S., so you can bet that bands who make an impact across the Atlantic deserve attention. Such is the case with Atrocity's who demonstrate guitar torturing skills and linear death metal rhythms on their album Blut. Rock radio is just beginning to explore the complex, rugged approach that Atrocity's (Alex Krull, vocals; Mathias Roderer, guitars; Richard Scharf, guitar; Markus Knapp, bass; Michael Schwarz, drums) gut-riveting metallic grinds offer. Most death metal bands are repetitious and lack any kind of musical direction, which translates to very few spins, even at the hardest college metal station. Atrocity's doesn't get bogged down in predictable, unimaginative riffs, but instead deliver waves of pummeling bass lines that ride along intricate rhythms formed by dueling guitars and merciless drum bashing. Krull uses his deep pipes to convey lyrics in a semi-growling yell or eerie demonic chant. The words are always intelligible. Blut is a dark excursion into the realm of aggressive music where the line between hard rock and death metal is obscured by sardonic melodies and disturbing harmonies. Be sure to check out "Trial," "I'm In Darkness" and "In My Veins."

SIX FEET DEEP Struggle (R.E.X.)

Six Feet Deep are scratching and clawing their way out of Cleveland, Ohio's hardcore scene and onto college metal stations with their appropriately-titled album Struggle. An angry yet hospitable listen, Six Feet Deep (Myk Porter, vocals; Matt Simmons, guitar; Mike Shaffer, guitar; Tom Wohlfeld, drums) deliver a hefty hard rock/metal sound that serves as a platform for Porter to project the band's futile outlook. They don't preach negativity on every aspect of life, just the fake, see-through aspects that people seem to waste their time on. They emphasize that it's a struggle to hurdle the bullshit and focus on what matters before you're six feet deep. Armed with low-end metallic guitar grooves, clipped bass lines, smashing drum beats and serious vocal yells, SFD will impress your rock listeners with the title track, "Angry Son," "Release," "Regret" (awesome), "Nemesis" and "Homeless." Metal radio will dig Six Feet Deep's blazing, guitar dominating grinds and appreciate the title, Struggle, which is a metaphor for our format.

MOLLY MCGUIRE Sisters Of... (Hitt)

Hard rock/metal programmers who include alternative-leaning rock in their rotation will be pulled in by Kansas City based Molly McGuire's guitar-blasting melodies and rock heavy rhythm. Hovering between the head slammin' hooks of Fugazi and the emotional screams of Jesus Lizard, Molly McGuire (Jason Blackmore, vocals/guitar; Scott McMillian, guitar; Ray Jankowski, bass; Jason Gerken, drums) create an intense unpolished sound that will attract alternative and hard rock listeners like moths to headlights. The lead-off track, "Sick," is the first glimpse of the band's harmonious dual guitar hooks that suddenly rise and eventually fall back into themselves without following any established path. "Pile Of Heads" contains harder guitar riffs that accompany Blackmore's empathetic vocals while room is left for Jankowski's bass to lead a life of its own. Another devilish tune that straddles the hardcore edge is "Dumb Fuck." For something out of the ordinary, give Molly McGuire a spin.

Inside Alternative

I spent a wild weekend in Los Angeles hanging out with some most impressive hair farmers. Actually, I didn't intend to crash the Foundations Forum. It just happened that way. I just had to witness firsthand Kerbdog and Korn, who were two of the highlights at this year's event. F.Y.I.—Kerbdog has a Therapy? meets Metallica sound and Korn is a bit on the Rage/Helmet tip, and you'll have music in your lap sometime in the near future, so keep 'em pecked.

The recent upheaval at EMI has left many casualties in its wake, including Mike Mena. As most of you know, Mike was the visionary responsible for bringing Jesus Jones, Blur and Slowdive to the SBK roster, and we're sure that kind of talent will be recognized in the form of a job offer soon. The New York native tells me that he's especially interested in jobs available on the West Coast, and is already mulling over some offers. Anyone wanting to get in touch with Mike can do so at (212) 288-9046. And if you want the scoop on the changes at EMI, turn to page 4.

I asked a very large number of people who went to the Billboard convention how Kevin Weatherly (left) and Max

Tolkoff's (below) commercial alternative panel was, and almost everyone responded with: "It was great! Jim McGuinn hit Tom Calderone over the head with the microphone." Uh, 'scuze me? In his defense, KPNT's Jim McGuinn says he was "simply handing the microphone back and sort of tossed it, and it kind of bonked Tom on the head." It was not an attempt on Tom's life, nor was it a cute ploy (a la Tonya Harding) to take over his soon-to-be-vacant position at the WDRE Network. KPNT MD Alex Luke does, however, wonder if it was "premeditated bonking." I say again, 'scuze me?

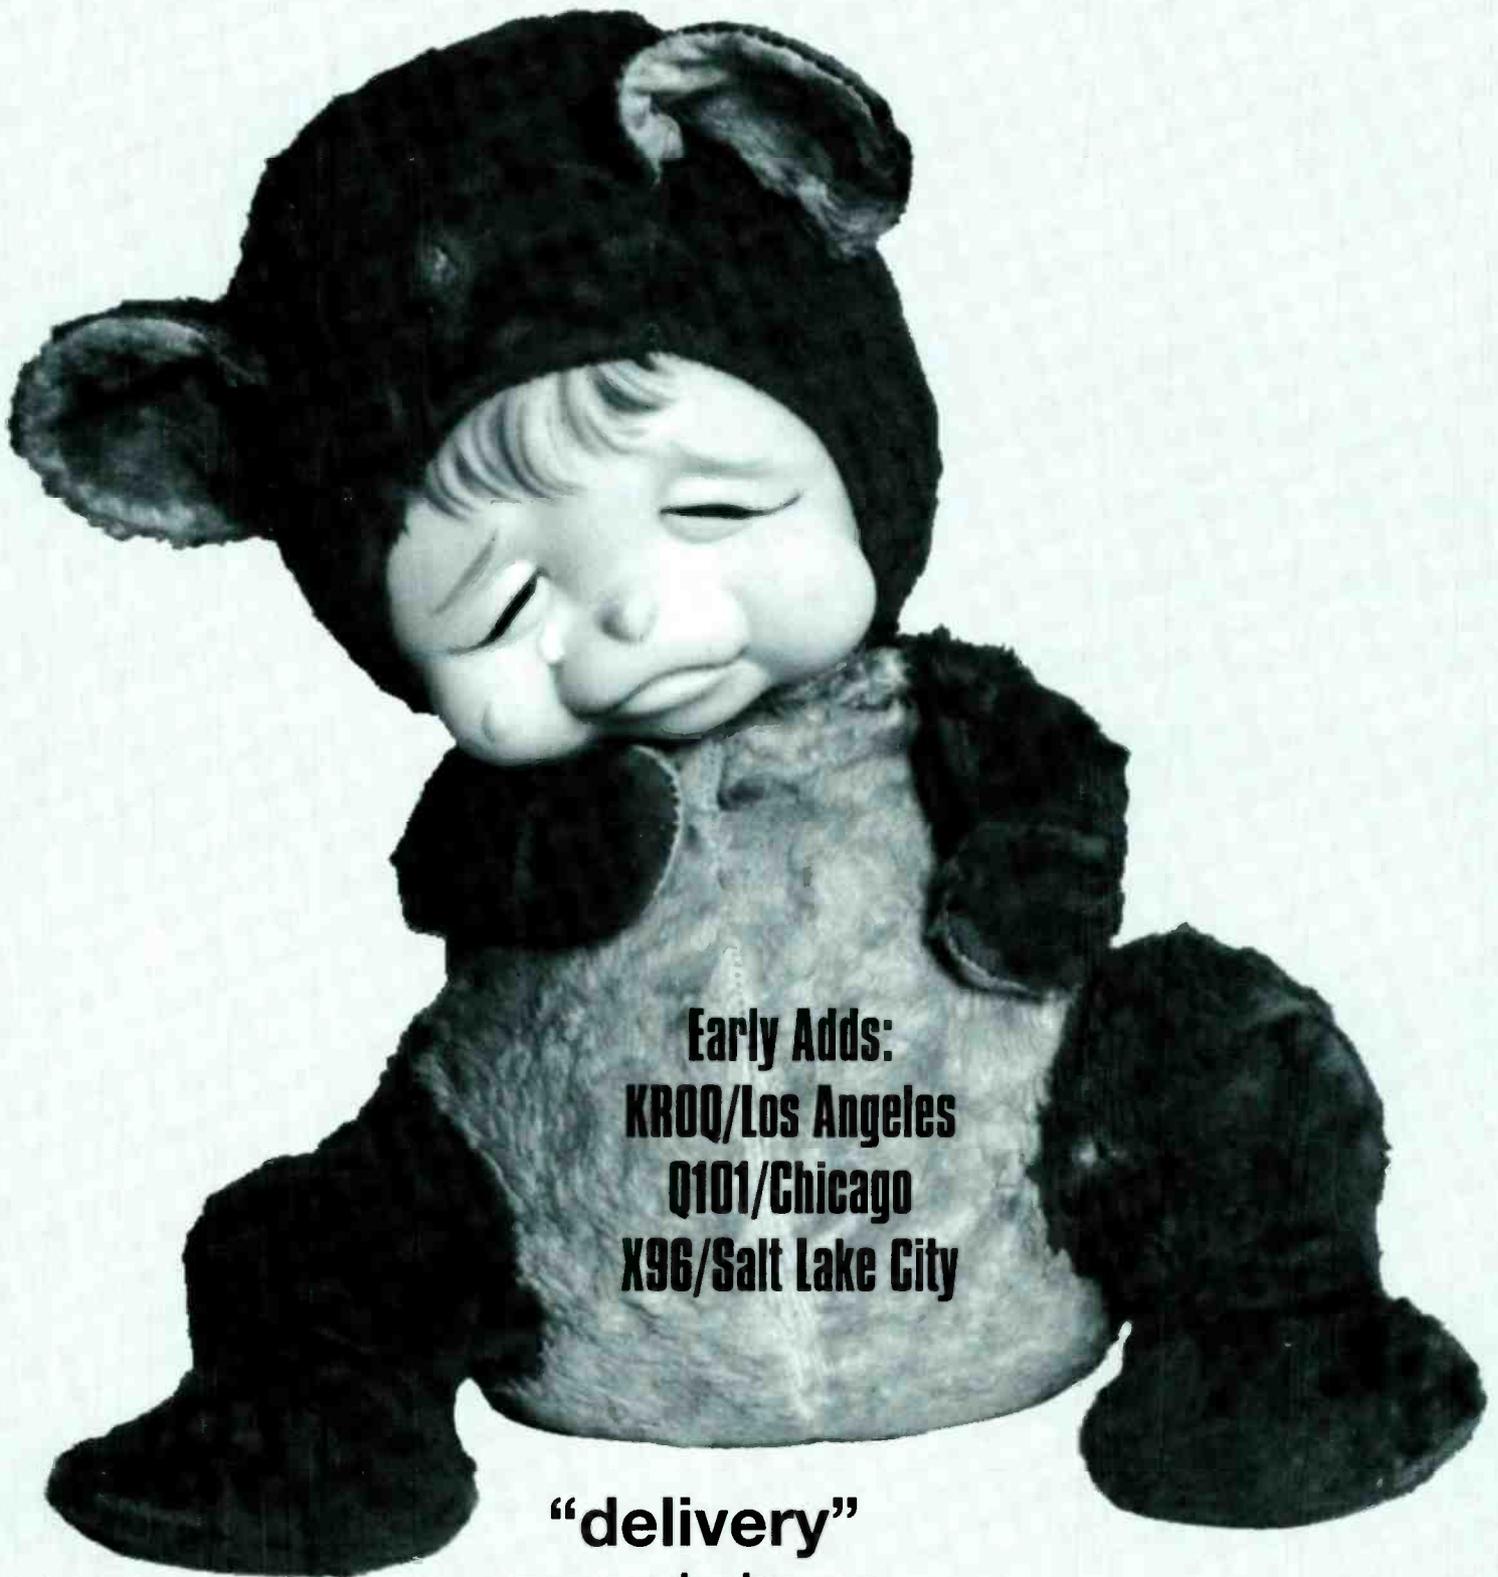

Seriously, though, quite a few programmers said the panel touched on some important topics that ranged from golds vs. currents, to the Channel X-ers, to market competition. And all said Kevin and Max did a wonderful job.

Longtime GAVIN friend Chris Ruh called to say he's the new OM at KEDG-Las Vegas. Previously, Ruh was PD at K9 FM-Redding, Calif. Welcome to the exciting, back-of-the-bus-and-proud-of-it part of the magazine, Chris.

When I got off the plane from L.A. on Sunday, I bumped into Joe from The Meices, who just arrived home from Boston. He told me that WFNX's Welcome Back Weekend concert I mentioned in the last issue was "raided by the riot squad, who came storming in with tear gas and in full riot gear." According to both Troy at WFNX and The Boston Herald's Dean Johnson, the news reports were exaggerated. They said that while it was an aggressive show, it wasn't the riot the media made it out to be. Around 70,000 concert goers turned up to see The Meices and Green Day, and as Johnson said, "Things got real rowdy, real fast." The crowd, already wound up after The Meices, tried to push back the barricades that were putting a 15-20 foot space between the stage and the audience. Green Day played seven of their 11 song set, until bottles began to fly. That was when security and state police put on their riot helmets and stopped the show. The band and WFNX staffers pleaded with the crowd to go home quietly but, as Troy says, "It was the presence of the state police that stopped the incident from turning into a full-on riot." PD Kurt St. Thomas probably summed it up best when he said, "65,000 fans came for a great time and 500 assholes ruined it for everybody." But hey, love those CNN and MTV News headlines!

I noticed that KUKQ-Phoenix added yet another Fretblanket track to their playlist this week. AMD Alison Strong says that while the band was in town last for a show, Will and Clive stopped by and did two acoustic numbers on the air ("Twisted" and "Song In B") that "reduced me to tears." More stations should be all over this one.

Speaking of KUKQ, MD Larry Mac will now take music calls on Wednesdays and Thursdays from 8-10a.m. And F.Y.I.—the station's add line is (602) 225-8953.

Here's the latest on the now-legendary Stone Roses (right) follow-up album: One song, "Ten Stories," has been completely mixed and is totally done. The band is currently mixing the rest of the tracks, with sights on a January Stateside release. There have been reports in the British music press of an English single to see the light of day before December. Which year they're talking about, remains to be seen. Just kidding.

While we're on the subject of Geffen/DGC releases, I heard the new Nirvana single, and it's absolutely stunning. Fans of the Bleach album will be familiar with "About A Girl," and this live, unplugged version, while nodding to the Beatles' "Things We Said Today," shows off Nirvana's pop sensibilities perfectly. You'll have this one in a week or two.

Check out R.E.M.'s debut into the top ten. Anyone want to start a pool predicting when the band goes number one and how long they stay there?

Just a few tidbits of news this week: Warner Bros. has (finally) hired a college promo guy. His name's Rob Goldklang. I've heard rumors that he's done a little interning at KROQ, and his number is (818) 953-3567. Rob sez he'll be at the upcoming CMJ convention to make your acquaintance.

Stephanie from Vision Trust asked me to let you know that her company has a new e-mail address. It's vt@crl.com for those of you that are so equipped and so inclined.

Also, if your station does any degree of alternative country programming, please consider calling Rob Bleetsteen at (415) 721-0791 to tell him about it. Rob's looking to put together a database of stations friendly to alternative country for some project that I didn't get all the details on. But call him and find out: he's a nice guy.

Next time you talk to Alternative Tentacles' Eric Rose, ask him about his band, the lame-ly-named American People. Eric and company did a one-time-only show last weekend that turned into a regular Bay Area schmooze-fest, since everyone that wasn't in L.A. for Foundations came to the Thirsty Swede. Present and accounted for were (yes, I'm name-dropping): Sarah, assistant MD at KUSF, Anthony Bonet from KALX Pete and Jonathan from Virus Promotion, Paul Ashby from Revolver, a ton of other KUSF people, and a host of local musicians. The American People shared a bill with The Prodigals (Flophouse's J.C. Hopkins' side project), an eclectic little ensemble called Chotchke, and Fuck, a bi-coastal band that's got two singles slated for release on Matador this fall.

THINKING FELLER'S UNION LOCAL 282 Strangers From The Universe (MATADOR, 676 BROADWAY, NEW YORK, NY 10012)

Seems like every time I turn around I trip over a new Thinking Fellers release, and while I've ceased to be surprised by this San Francisco outfit's prolific nature, I'm continually astounded by the consistent quality of their material—regardless of label or length. This newest release, Stranger From The Universe, appears on the Fellers' home-base imprint, Matador, and it, like last year's full-length, Mother Of All Saints, seems a dual-natured beast. On Mother Of All Saints, TFU maintained a balance between their hypnotic, swarm-of-bees hobbit rock and creepier (but still kinda melodic) meanderings. With Stranger From The Universe, however, the Stinking Smellers seem to have taken a powder (or perhaps a psychoactive drug), 'cause now, at their most frenetic, they're jaunty and ditty-ish ("My Pal The Tortoise"), while in their plentiful relaxed moments, they almost seem to dabble in ambiance. I prefer the more song-like offerings, particularly the aforementioned "My Pal The Tortoise," a cartoony (but skronk-laced) little number, and the final track, a simple piano/organ nursery rhyme/lament, "Noble Experiment," which includes Anne Eikelberg's lead vocal and encourages the end of humanity. Leave it to the Fellers to end on an upswing. Also notable is "The Piston And The Shaft," a hilarious, thinly-veiled succession of metaphors like "I'm your gravy baster gun/You're my creamy, squishy bun." Supposedly, Stranger From The Universe shipped on the 13th; look for it on your desk next week. —SEANA BARUTH

SMOG Burning Kingdom (DRAG CITY, P.O. BOX 476867, CHICAGO, IL 60647)

Bill Callahan, a.k.a. Smog, is an almost notoriously anti-social creature, an artist who's (semi) comfortable (and often brilliant) while speaking via song, but who is unwilling or unable to express himself elsewhere. In "My Shell," the first track on Smog's new EP Burning Kingdom, Callahan defends his nature; throughout the EP's remainder, he explains its development. If it's actually autobiographical, track three, "My Family," which is built on a dragging, heartsick cello and kicks off with the lyric, "Mother's smoking pot in the bathroom again/I can hear her butt squeaking on the tub" goes a long way towards explaining Callahan's reticence, distrust and misanthropy. The following titles, "Drunk On The Stars" and "Not Lonely Anymore," initially hint that Smog's black cloud might lift just a tad, but the former, a somewhat atonal and sparse piano piece, turns out to be a meditation on suicide, and the latter's circular two-chord guitar whirlpool suggests drowning—as do the lyrics, which also dimly proclaim, "I'm not lonely anymore, now that I've got two heads instead of four." Despite all this gloom, Callahan remains an impressive poet, and with Burning Kingdom he takes another step up the production ladder and inches away from lo-fi noise. Bonuses: "My Shell's" electric, less piecemeal and quite focused instrumentation, and guest vocals and guitar from Rollerderby contributor Cindy Dall.

WEEN I Can't Put My Finger On It EP (ELEKTRA)

Gene (the short one) and Dean (looks like Westerberg) Ween are masters of mockery and icons of irony, a post-modern pair who're part comedy team, part musical duo. Ween rely on in-jokes and funny voices for some of their more Beavis and Butthead-esque humor, but the Weensters also poke irreverent fun at "respected" musician/heroes (David Bowie, Leonard Cohen, and here, Eddie Van Halen) in a sly, less obvious fashion. So, Ween are fun for the average joe, and funnier for the music fan! The same goes for this EP's gut-busting liner notes. "I Can't Put My Finger On It" and "Now I'm Freaking Out" are fave tracks, since they're the most warped, weird, and Ween-like, but "A Tear For Eddie," a hilarious bluesy guitar sendup, is also worthwhile. The full-length, Chocolate and Cheese, drops next week.

BRAINBOX Primordia (NETWERK - 215 4TH STREET #23, NEW YORK NEW YORK 10009)

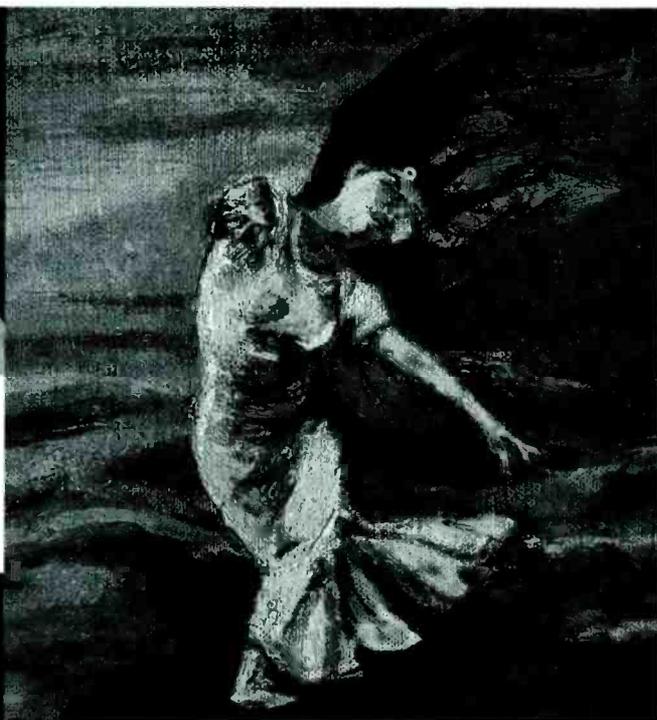

The brainchild of digital manipulator Tom Third, Brainbox specializes in astral dub-funk-ambiance. Branching out from underneath the umbrella of sub-standard dance grooves, Third works as a sonic astrochemist, concocting music that goes well beyond the normal confines and industrio-monotony of mere techno. "Astroasis" plays like the galactic theme music from an outer space western, complete with cow bells and haunting steel guitar strains. "Salt And Velvet" is bathed in astro-erotic, synthesizer phasing from channel to channel while breathy female voices inhale and exhale wisps of vocal pleasure. Synthetic gurgles of liquidity burp and burble their way through a hyaline haze of guitar and flute on "The First Principle," creating orbital lounge music. And the warm, pulsating hues of "Alterindigo" paint an aural picture of nebular funk and computerized swing. Brainstorm is hip, intersidereal groove muzak created to fill the vastitude of time and space and take you on a journey into the empyreal realms of trance and dance. Truly the next level of space age bachelor pad / futuristic cocktail party music. —SPENCEDOOKEY

Already on: KJEE, KEDJ, KKNB, WDST, WPFM, WRLG, KLLK, KLZR, KNDD, KPOI, REV 105, WHTG, WQNF

As predicted in the last issue, both Liz Phair and Grant Lee Buffalo made excellent upward strides of 33-17 and 32-22, respectively. As both artists are still bringing in adds, it doesn't look like they're going to run out of steam any time soon.

Looking for something to take your listeners closer to the edge? Check out Sebadoh's Sub Pop album, Bakesale, and then notice it jumped 28-23 on the strength of college (and very few commercial) Spins Per Week. Oh c'mon, indulge me. Give it a listen.

Oasis makes a solid debut at #35 this week—no mean feat for an English band these days. You want to hate these guys, but the music won't let you. "Supersonic," "Live Forever," and "Rock And Roll Star" all sound like surefire winners to me, so how 'bout turning down that American alterarock for a minute, and giving Definitely Maybe a listen. Oasis hit the road this month, and I'd be remiss in my duties as the Last Living Anglophile if I didn't tell you to check them out.

Special thanks to eastwest's Pete Rosenbloom and Maridi Nalle for taking practically the entire San Francisco Bay Area college force to dinner last week. Good food and great conversation wins every time.

My contact lens has a hole in it, so when you see someone that sorta looks like me in New York but they're wearing glasses, you should know that it is me, so come up and say hello.

New Releases

THE CRANBERRIES "Zombie" (Island)

Now this is a great surprise. With a guitar-tough sound The Cranberries blow away every reference to their sound being lush, cute, or delicate. I mean, you'd never know this was The Cranberries until Dolores O'Riordan starts singing. Their latest, "Zombies," is a powerful, spine-tingling, look at the violence that surrounds the north of Ireland. With the Irish peace talks making headlines in this country, "Zombies" becomes even more compelling and quite timely. —LINDA RYAN

THE FAMILY CAT "Wonderful Excuse" (Dedicated/Arista)

I admit that I seem to go hold or cold with releases from The Family Cat, but with "Wonderful Excuse," I've found a nice hot spot. "Wonderful Excuse" is a super-charged pop song that has plenty of guitar-powered riffs, pounding drums and not one, but two hooks. And it ends cold, as all the best power-pop songs do. Seriously, The Family Cat hasn't put out a single this radio-friendly since 1990's "A Place With A Name." The revolution starts tomorrow, so what are you waiting for? —LINDA RYAN

HOLE "Doll Parts" (Geffen)

After the hugely successful "Miss World," this is the track that commercial programmers asked for. "Doll Parts" seems to be an almost autobiographical peek into Kurt and Courtney's relationship, which makes it that much more intriguing—kind of like glancing at the Weekly World News headlines on your way through the check-out stand at the supermarket. Although it's a non-convention show, Hole kick off their tour in New York next week, and will be on the road for a month. —LINDA RYAN

THE MIGHTY MIGHTY BOSSTONES "Kinder Words" (Mercury)

Weren't we just talking about Ska's resurgence last week? Already doing well on hometown station WFNX-Boston and flagship ska station KEDO-Honolulu, The Mighty Bosstones' "Kinder Words" starts with a hip-hop flavored beat, flirts with hard rock, then dissipates into some wild ska, all within the first minute. This is an exciting, highly-charged effort that will especially appeal to people with short attention spans—like me. —LINDA RYAN

K'S CHOICE "Me Happy" (550)

Sexual politics are the order for the day—at least that's what lyrics like "Love's not what you see between the legs of the majority," lead me to believe. Singer Sarah Bettens has a deep, warm voice that calls to mind Concrete Blonde's Jonette Napolitano, and "Me Happy" is the perfect platform for it. Give this one a listen and chances are you'll reach for it again. —LINDA RYAN

LIZ PHAIR Whip-smart

(MATADOR/ATLANTIC, 676 BROADWAY, NEW YORK, NY 10012)

Phair's first album, Exile in Guyville, made me enviously hope that her next album would founder. Maybe that's more pessimistic, but in any case, sitting down to listen to Phair's new CD, Whip-Smart, I braced myself: "Ready for more about sex, boys, sex from the uppity slang-sliling rocker girl?" Well I wasn't prepared to be so bitterly, yet so sweetly disappointed. These songs (which were maybe recorded at the same time as Guyville?) have an individuated craftiness, although the album lacks the thematic integrity/marketing savvy of Exile. Songs like X-Ray Man, "You've got an X-rated mind, you're not satisfied looking at me, you're always checking out the girl behind," smack a little of male bashing (for lack of a better term), but Phair also points her laser insight to the self on songs like "Jealousy" and "Crater Lake." "Standing on the mud banks watching the salmon pass by, wondering if I'll ever bury the hatchet inside," spawns a couple visuals for me. With Whip-Smart, Phair re-affirms her prodigious talent for crafting a fine hook, and she displays more vocal confidence this time 'round, making it obvious that, in a race between her and her hype, Phair is picking up speed and gaining fast. —JENNIE RUGGLES

KEN CHAMBERS Above You

(TAANGI, P.O. BOX 51, AUBURNDALE, MA 02166)

Taangi! presents a highly evolved trio made up of the Boston rockers Ken Chambers (ex-Bullet Lavolta) on vocals and guitar, Jim Janota (ex-Bags) on drums, and Jeff Goddard on bass. Their five-song debut EP Above You plays short, but leaves a lasting aftertaste. The title song contains delightful guitar melodies, and for your enlightenment, its demo version closes the CD to provide an alternate look at Chambers' style. If you like pop with an edge of rock, then "Temptation" was written for you. Another outstanding track would have to be "Superstar" (a la Andrew Lloyd Webber) whose power chords prepare us for the tumultuous secondcoming of the big J.C. And the rock doesn't stop there—give "Wiped-Out" a chance for a slick instrumental without all the surf. —SANDRA DERIAN

ARTIST PROFILE

LIZ PHAIR

FROM: Chicago

LATEST RELEASE: Whip-Smart

LABEL: Matador/Atlantic

CONTACT: Tod Elmore, Kris Metzdorf, Kris Gillespie.

ABOUT WHIP-SMART: "Whip-Smart is an excellent follow-up to Exile In Guyville. Phair's picaresque narrative of adventure unfolds over 14 songs that elaborate on her favorite themes: sex, love, power, freedom and rock & roll." —Rolling Stone

ON BEING CALLED THE INDIE MADONNA: "That's fine. She's vacuous, but I want to have the staying power she has. I really want to be one of those they-don't-make-them-like-they-used-to kind of stars. And I'm gung ho. It would be hard to take advantage of me because I'm going to exploit myself better than anyone else could." —Liz Phair

ON SLUTS: "I'm sick and tired of that eternal female dialectic: Be good or be a slut. Serve yourself or serve others. I do not find my life to fit in either category, and I'm not satisfied with balancing on one end of the teeter-totter or the other." —Liz Phair

ON INTERVIEWS: "I came to a kind of cynical conclusion that it didn't matter what I said in an interview, it was whether the picture was good or not. They're (readers) gonna feel one way or the other about what you say, but what will actually make them give a fuck to read about me is whether they think I look intriguing."

COWBOY JUNKIES Sweet Jane (Interscope)

How sweet it is! First heard on the Junkies' first album in 1988 (and a former Personal Pick), it resurfaces on the soundtrack to Natural Born Killers. Check out this week's "Inside Top 40" and note an unidentified record that Kevin Weatherly told Steve Kingston he'd heard on Z-100 and how great it sounded. This is the track which, coincidentally, Kevin added when he got back home. Movie dialog over the intro is a major hook.

R.E.M. What's The Frequency, Kenneth? (Warner Bros.)

Never stagnant and always fresh, Michael Stipe, new look and all, brings an uptempo track to Top 40 radio and stations are jumping on it before the "official add date." Song and video are the coolest.

TONI BRAXTON How Many Ways (LaFace/Arista)

Long before her first release hit the street, Toni was being touted as a future force. She's surpassed all expectations, delivering one great song after another. This latest entry (which includes an obligatory R. Kelly remix—does this man ever sleep?) is just one more reason she's so hot right now. RAPPIN' 4-TAY Playaz Club (Chrysalis/EMI/Rag Top)

Credit KMEI-San Francisco MD Joey Arbagey for turning EMI's Kevin Knee on to the tape of this single, which made its way to New York and soon, the rest of the country. Crossover radio is picking up on it fast, but it's got broad appeal. A big request on THE BOX, here's one that's guaranteed to light up the phones.

SASS JORDAN Sun's Gonna Rise (Impact/MCA)

Album radio is where Sass has found her biggest success so far, but here's the track destined to take her over the top at Top 40. Co-written by Jordan and Stevie Salas, and produced by Nick Didia (Pearl Jam, STP).

GIN BLOSSOMS Allison Road (A&M)

A few years back this would've been labeled pop/rock instead of alternative. All that really matters is the music, and the Gin Blossoms are coming off three major hits that programmers agree are some of the best researching records this year. This follow-up track is set up to go all the way.

COLLECTIVE SOUL Breathe (Atlantic)

A band that's got a thing for one-word titles that features licks that just won't quit. Collective Soul knows how to work it as demonstrated by this latest shining example.

Albums

JOHNNY CLEGG & SAVUKA In My African Dream - The Best of Johnny Clegg & Savuka

Through his bands Juluka and Savuka, South African Johnny Clegg fearlessly preached equality. Despite a radio ban and experiencing the violent deaths of close compadres, Clegg's iron-spined stand against apartheid has never faltered. Here now is a wonderful reflection of his Celtic and African rhythms, with four excellent new tracks sprinkled throughout. Start with the new, then re-listen to the romantic, spiritual and demanding "Scatterlings Of Africa," "Cruel Crazy Beautiful World," and "Take My Heart Away." Clegg's "One (Hu)man One Vote" was once a wish but it's now a reality. One of the year's best.

—BEVERLY MIRE

JOSHUA REDMAN MoodSwing (Warner Bros.)

Tenor saxophonist Joshua Redman is convinced that, as a genre, jazz is indeed a heartfelt style of music and not just the sonic equivalent to algebra. MoodSwing lives up to its name in that sense. Mood, as in capturing the gamut of human emotions like "Faith," "Mischievous," "Obsession" and "Sweet Sorrow"; Swing as in creating rhythmic impetus and dramatic energy with the horn. When it comes to new jazz stars, Redman is today's foremost ambassador for both mood and swing.

—KEITH ZIMMERMAN

PETER GABRIEL Secret World Live (Geffen)

Recorded last November during two Italian gigs, Peter Gabriel's Us tour is immortalized on this double CD set. On Secret World Live, Gabriel sheds his crafted studio persona in favor of a torrid onstage workout. Since many of his songs, such as "Come Talk To Me," are composed from rhythm tracks and built from there, the power of the drums and bass are crucial. Guitars and keyboards take on a more atmospheric role. Much of the Us material, like "Digging In The Dirt," deals with intense human interaction, so that extra live edge is all the more important.

—KEITH ZIMMERMAN

SWING OUT SISTER The Living Return (Mercury)

Corinne Drewery and Andy Connell have that English curiosity for American musical form, most notably R&B. Now, sounding more than ever like a six or seven piece band, they take a logical sidestep into jazz and AA while holding onto essential pop and soul grooves. Their opening single, "La La (Means I Love You)" and "Don't Let Yourself Down" link their past to their present, while syncopated rhythmic vocals on tracks like "Don't Give Up On A Good Thing" blaze the new trail.

—RON FELL

ANITA BAKER Rhythm Of Love (Elektra)

With a talent like Anita Baker it's difficult to choose favorites, but cuts on Rhythm Of Love that jump out are the title track, "Baby," "I Apologize," "Plenty Of Room," "Wrong Man," "Only For A While," and "Sometimes I Wonder Why" (piano by Joe Sample). Of the three songs Anita reworks my favorite is "You Belong To Me" (which also appeared on the Elektra's 40-year anniversary compilation, Rubaiyat).
