Bluest Eyes

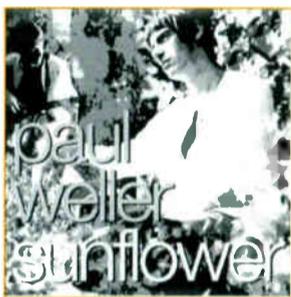

ON TOUR IN JULY

STORYVILLE, "BLUEST EYES," NOVEMBER Austin, Texas is a town with more than its share of talented musicians. Storyville are the latest success story, spending the past few months locked into the Top 30 of our AAA chart. This is a track inspired by the Toni Morrison novel The Bluest Eye. It's a profoundly moving song of love, hate and racism that touches on the nature of faith. Formed by singer Malford Milligan, Storyville were named the Best New Band at the Austin Music Awards, where Milligan also won for Best Male Vocalist. He recruited some of the hottest rockin' blues artists in the Austin scene for Storyville's debut album. "Bluest Eyes" features backing vocals from Don Henley as well as Stevie Ray Vaughan's rhythm section — Chris Layton and Tommy Shannon. They've just filmed a video for the song at Antone's in Austin. And Malford's just gotten nationwide exposure singing "The Star Spangled Banner" at the opening game of the NBA finals in Houston. The word to the wise is to make room for this tune.

■ ■ ■ HARD ACTS To follow

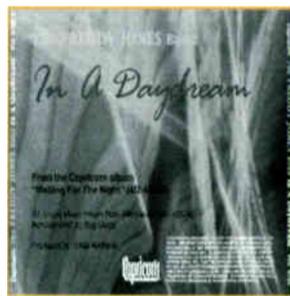

PAUL WELLER, "SUNFLOWER," LONDON/PLG Paul's had a loyal following in the U.S. since his days with the Jam and Style Council, back in the late 1970s and 1980s. But he's never quite gotten the recognition he deserves. "Sunflower" comes from Weller's second solo album, Wild Wood, which sees him writing material that goes back to his roots, influences from the 1960s and early 1970s. There are traces of Joe Cocker, Traffic, and Bad Company in Weller's music these days, with rock, R&B, and soul grooves aplenty. But "Sunflower" is also a sentimental track that shows what a terrific songwriter Weller is. Weller's old band, the Style Council, never tried to break in America. But now Paul's put this record as his "best shot." Weller's an agile performer who's never gotten his due in America. "Sunflower" should get him the attention and support he deserves.

SMITHEREENS, "EVERYTHING I HAVE IS BLUE," RCA Three years and one record label later, the Smithereens are back with a sound that owes more to the innocent pop of the mid-1960s than it does to the despair of today's grunge. "Everything I Have Is Blue" is another example of how the band has gone back to the sparse sound of earlier albums like Especially For You. Working with producer Don Dixon, who twiddled the knobs for their first two albums, the New Jersey quartet shows a worldly, more mature tone with power-pop hallmarks like powerhouse drummer Dennis Diken, complementary guitars, and Pat DiNizio's pained, heartbroken lyrics.

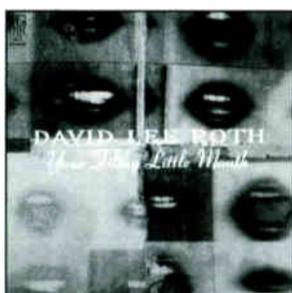

PRIMAL SCREAM, "JAILBIRD," SIRE/WB An ultra-groovy drum-kick starts off "Jailbird," the opening disc on Primal Scream's Give Out But Don't Give Up album, the best Stones record of the '90s. Before "Rocks" peaked at number 24 on the Hard Hundred, Primal Scream were relegated to the murky world of college and alternative play. But that kick-dead rock & roll stomp has certainly garnered new fans for these Glaswegians. On "Jailbird," the guitars are gritty and those Stax-like horns loom big and loud behind frontman Bobby Gillespie. Turn up that big ol' volume knob to scream level and get carried away with this follow-up track. KEZE's dived into this goat's head soup.

FREDDY JONES BAND, "IN A DAYDREAM," CAPRICORN Big adds this week include WSHE, WKLS, KCLB, KEZE, WRUF, WAPL, KQWB, KSQY, WHDQ, WKZQ, and KSEZ. Capricorn looks to have some big guns already in for next week. (Stay tuned). If you're looking for a mass-appeal record for all day parts "In A Daydream" will work like crazy. This track is performing like a real sleeper that works after a few spins. For those stations into call-out, this track is a monster. When you add this song expect to still be playing it in September and your listeners will still wanna hear it. John Ross at WSHE told us, "I liked it months ago, it's fits what were doing at WSHE. It's got a good sound to it. If you're spinning the Counting Crows or Cracker it'll work!" WRUF's Scott Steele sums it up with this farewell quote, "The tune is so silky smooth that you have to do a double-take on your radio to make sure your not daydreaming. It's unconscious."

— THIS WEEK'S AOR REVIEWS RESUME ON PAGE 8 —

DAVID LEE ROTH, "EXPERIENCE," REPRISE Another reflection from David's life in New York City the past two years, "Experience" comes from the album Your Filthy Little Mouth. Roth's partner in crime on guitar here is school friend Terry Kilgore, who co-wrote this track and is the only member of Roth's recording band to tour with him. The low-down talking blues of "Experience" shows a more laid-back and bluesy side to Kilgore's guitar-playing, which reflects Roth's receptiveness to other styles of music on the "Mouth" album. There's that sleek, refined production of Nile Rodgers, and a great line from Dave that says, "I'd love to talk philosophy but I gotta take a piss." This is a track that is bound to be an "experience" for old or new Van Halen fans.

Sheryl Crow, "All I Want To Do," A&M
You probably already know that Sheryl's been a session musician for quite some time, landing impressive credentials by backing up people ranging from George Harrison to Michael Jackson. Now the Missouri artist has succeeded on her own. The Tuesday Night Music Club album has now sold 300,000 copies, and Crow has won fans opening for Crowded House. Crow's first single, "Leaving Las Vegas", has been in every Hard Hundred since the first of this year, and now the uptempo "All I Want To Do" is the latest track to showcase Crow's gentle voice. Typical of Sheryl's stories of disillusionment, "All I Want" takes a glimpse of the dark side of people having fun. Sheryl goes on the road headlining this summer, while also opening for some Eagles and H.O.R.D.E. dates. Call it a good bet that Sheryl Crow will be an artist to follow for some time to come.

Suicidal Tendencies, "What You Need's A Friend," Epic Here's the latest chapter in the voyage through the mind and soul of founder and leader Mike Muir. Stick a mic in the hands of Suicidal rant n'raver Mike Muir and you are sure to get an earful. This time around you are handed "What You Need's A Friend", the first cut taken from the soon to be released Lp, Suicidal For Life, a fast and furious blend of funk a la punk and menacing guitar licks. Muir's vociferous lyrics are showcased, and amply backed, here by the funky tones created by the ST rhythm section. Lucky for you ST will be hitting the rock road this summer on the Metallica and Danzig musical extravaganza. "Oh man, what a great record" sez Mike Melbye at KIBZ, "I love the way the song gets you to think it's a power ballad then it slaps you in the face and says 'I don't think so'. It's going over great here."

Tori Amos, "Cornflake Girl," Atlantic One thing is for sure about Tori Amos — her music will never be confused with anyone else's — the soft tinkling of the piano keys and that ethereal voice. "Cornflake Girl," subtle in approach and elegant in delivery, offsets some of the intense songs on her new album — it's serious without being heavy. From an album that debuted on the album sales chart at number 12 and quickly went gold, "Cornflake Girl" is the second radio track from Amos' new album Under The Pink. It's been as high as number 28 on the Hard Report AAA chart.

Chainsaw Kittens, "Pop Heiress Dies," Mammoth/Atlantic The Chainsaw Kittens' first album, the 1990 release Violent Religion, was a triumph of low-fi originality — gripping pop songs that were eerily irreverent. The band went on to work with Butch Vig on the 1992 second album. Even though guitarist Trent Bell says that record was "a little too metallic for us," it managed to broaden the band's fan base, partially thanks to airplay for the video of "High In High School." "Pop Heiress Dies" is the melancholy first single from the band's third LP, Pop Heiress, where the band has fully explored the oddities that make them unique while going against the trend to harder music by going a little more melodic. The Kittens have been touring constantly over the past year, including dates opening for Public Image Limited and Smashing Pumpkins. With newly recruited bass player Matt Johnson and drummer Eric Harmon, these guys are bound to be even more of a crowd-pleaser than ever before.

Atomics Opera, "Justice," Collision Artists/Giant This Houston band's debut, Sam Taylor (well known for his work with King's X) produced album, For Madmen Only, comes "Justice." Frank Hart, who brandishes a fiery lead guitar, says the song "certainly isn't about wanting justice. People tend to confuse justice and mercy. As for me, I'll take mercy over justice any day." The current video is getting attention among the loyal MTV Headbanger's Ball viewers. This is a debut LP for Barry Lyons and Giant records to be taking to the mainstream. It's building steadily through the metal ranks where it's getting Top 5 Phones at KIBZ. Here's Mike at KIBZ, "It a tune that grabs you by the right testicle and squeezes until you scream Justice!"

MOST ACTIVE

Meat Puppets, "We Don't Exist," London/PLC The Trouser Press Record Guide describes the Meat Puppets' music as "...occasionally funky, occasionally psychedelic, occasionally countrified rock tunes."

With a description like that it's no wonder that Pearl Jam, Nirvana and Soul Asylum have all credited the Meat Puppets as being a major influence. The "Backwater" track is still in the Hard Hundred top ten. What else do you need to know? You gotta like a group that's pissing off its record company by still doing things like throwing vegetables into the audience. (Of course, at Bill McGathy's bash, they didn't need to.) Or a group that gives you a chance to mention Butthole Surfers' guitarist Paul Leary, 'coz he produced their album in Memphis. Smart programmers are converting from "Backwater" so as not to get left behind by the momentum on this record, Too High To Die, the band's second major-label album (and eighth in their career). "We're gonna have a long run with it," predicts Steve Funk at KZAK.

Gary Hoey, "Low Rider," Reprise Gary cruises in on a building wave of 27 adds this week (#3 Most-Added), and he's surfing high with number one requests at WDIZ.

"The original gets huge requests for us," adds David A. Ross at KMJX. "It's summertime and here's a rocked-up version." "He does a really good job," says Steve Funk at KZAK. "It's a killer, groovin' tune." And the buzz on the movie The Endless Summer II is already out there, especially anywhere near where salt water and wooden boards meet with regularity. Although surfing now isn't what it was when the first movie came out — attorneys and dentists and engineers are out there surfing now. "Low Rider" debuts in the number 94 spot on the Hard Hundred, with even bigger waves ahead. Don't get swept out in the undertow!

The Poor, "Tell Someone Who Cares," 550 Music Well, we care a lot (that would be a great song title, wouldn't it?). They're just starting a tour with the Scorpions (check your shoes before you put 'em on, boys) that's just blasted through Memphis and cruisin' to Kansas City, St. Louis and Chicago, if we read our map correctly. "More Wine Waiter Please" was a solid top 30 track on the Hard Hundred and buzzed up to 13 on the COR chart — ample proof that this group has made a solid debut, while competing with a lot of familiar acts. The seven new adds this week (KATP, KBER, KEZE, KIBZ, KQRC, KZRZ and WVCR) attests to the strength of the full-on, high energy guitar groove and whiskey vocals that help define the sound of these Aussie lads.

Great White, "Sail Away," Zoo "It's getting phenomenal response," says Steve Funk at KZAK. "Great phones, heavy rotation. I'm very comfortable with it." Good thing, cuz the station total is now 100 — led by WHMH's 40 plays last week and they are seeing top-five phones at WRCQ and WKLQ. And a nice half-dozen adds as KDKB, KGGG, KYYS, WCMF, WNEW and WYMG all come aboard. "Sail Away" is planted at 23* on the Hard Hundred and moves 17-15* on the COR chart. WDHA's TJ Bryan tells us, "It sounds good on the air," with John Stuart at WDRK reports number one phones while adding, "This is a smash." F.Y.I - Great White were one of the first bands to do an MTV "Unplugged", now they are performing unplugged up close and personal with some on-air acoustic time while visiting stations as they cross the country on a summer tour. If they take requests — how 'bout "Sail Away."

Dixie Dregs "Shapes Of Things," Capricorn Here's a terrific instrumental remake of the old '60s hit by the Yardbirds. The Dregs give it the progressive approach that only they can do. Pound for pound and man for man you're not gonna find a tighter group of players anywhere. There are five believers with two new adds this week including KATP (6) and WRXR. WOZN, with 21 spins, has found good reason for serious rotation on the Dregs. Now that the Full Circle CD has been shipped to radio, core fans are really starting to appreciate the variety of tunes and musical direction that only the Dixies are capable of. The new disc is guaranteed to thrill longtime devotees and to delight a new generation of listeners. Take the time to check out two of the great originals found on Full Circle — "Aftershock" and "Sleeveless In Seattle".

ROBIN TROWER, "20th Century Blues," V-12 It's been about four years since Robin Trower's last outing, but he used the time wisely and got together a new band, which includes bass player and vocalist Livingstone Brown and drummer Mayuyu. Trower says he likes his new bandmates because "they lay it in deep." WPLR, WXKE and WXRC add "20th Century Blues" this week. Maybe they remembered that Trower had three top-ten albums in the 1970s. Maybe they saw that WHDQ is getting top-five phones on this track. Or was it was the 21 spins last week at WIMK or the 18 plays at KATP and WOZN that helped convince them. Let's ask Steve Funk at KZAK. "We played it and I started to see response," Funk says. "It sounds cool. A good, crunchy edge. Guys in their early 30s are calling for it." And we say, if the young people like it, that's good enough for us...

STEVIE NICKS, "Maybe Love Will Change Your Mind," MODERN/ATLANTIC Stevie's gonna be taking her act on the road to promote the new Street Angel album just out. Nicks' world tour for 1994-95 begins July 22 in Boston and continues through September with stops in New York, Philadelphia, Atlanta, Cincinnati, Chicago, Los Angeles and other cities. Top-five phones already at KCLB and WGIR, with a baker's dozen of 13 adds this week, including KBAT, KEZE, KEZO, KLAQ, WIMK, WIMZ, WKIT, WKLC, WKQZ, WNCB, WTPA, WZMT and WZXL. "It'll work really well," says Howard P. at WROV. "It's like the '70s all over again," adds Lenny Bloch at WDHA. "Can you say 'smash?'" asks Scott Steele at WRUF. She used to perform with a group called Fleetwood Mac. We've heard that name before...

LIVE, "Selling The Drama," RADIOACTIVE "Drama" climbs 26-17* on the Hard Hundred this week and 24-18* at COR as Ed Kowalczyk reinforces his confidence in the band's success with the lyric, "Hey, now we won't be raped. Hey, now we won't be scarred like that." "It sounds like a record you've always heard and loved," says Austin Keyes at WRXK. WZMT's getting top-five phones, and 19 adds rolled in this week, including KBAT, KLOL, KQRC, KSJO, KWHL, WAXQ, WCGY, WDVE, WEGR, WHJY, WIMZ, WKLS, WLQV, WNEW, WONE, WPYX, WRKI, WSTZ and WTKX. Former Talking Head Jerry Harrison produced Live for the second time as they released their sophomore album Throwing Copper. "It's a slow builder that the audience is starting to grasp," says Beaver Brown at KDJK. "It's great, wonderful," says WBCN's Carter Alan. It should move up here.

GREEN DAY, "LONGVIEW," REPRISE That classic power trio sound climbs 20-16* on the Hard Hundred this week and 9-7* on the COR chart. "The phones are lighting up like crazy," says Beaver Brown at KDJK. "Sales have doubled." "This is exploding," adds Phil Marlowe at WCCC. "Great sales in Hartford." "Fuckin' killer call-out," says Jonathan at WIYY. "Sounds like a bitch." New adds this week include KSEZ, KUFO, WDHA, WKLC, WLLZ, WLQV, WSTZ, WTUE, WXLN, and WZZR, bringing the count to 114 Hard reporters. Those reporting top 5 phones include KQRC, KSHE, KUPD, WBLM, WCCC, WHTF, WKLL, WKQZ, WMMS, WSHE, WXTB, and many more. Michael Linehan at Reprise wants you to know. "It sounds good, too!" Do you really need to know anything else?

LENNY KRAVITZ, "DEUCE," MERCURY Taken from the KISS tribute album that also features Garth Brooks, Dinosaur Jr., the Lemonheads, Anthrax, Extreme and the Mighty Mighty Bosstones, here's the #1 Most-Added track this week. Do you think Lenny was still sucking his thumb when this record came out the first time? "Lenny puts a swing into 'Deuce' which Kiss couldn't do," says the oft-quoted Steve Funk of KZAK. "Getting phones out of the box," says David A. Ross at KMJX. "I think it's cool, especially since Stevie is playing harmonica on it," says Vinny Marino at WAXQ. "The best track on the record." Without a doubt. New adds this week include KDJK, KEZE, KFMZ, KILO, KKEG, KLBK, KLOS, KSHE, WBAB, WDHA, WFYV, WHCN, WGIR, WMMS, and WXTB to bring the out of the box total to 38.

JOAN JETT & THE BLACKHEARTS, "GO HOME," WARNER BROTHERS Joan and her band the Blackhearts, featuring drummer Tommy Price, guitarist Tony Bruno and legendary bassist Kenny Aaronson, originally of the '70s hard rock group Dust, look set to take this one home. Rock & roll's original Riot Grrl has enlisted the help of the new wave of Riot Grrls, including members of L7, Bikini Kill and Babes In Toyland for her new album. In fact, the impetus for this album was when Jett jammed with members of those bands at a 1992 "Rock For Choice" benefit. "Go Home" is a song co-written by Jett and Kathleen Hanna of Bikini Kill, who also provides backing vocals. It's been a good week of adds for Joan, she got 13 of them, including WCCC, WIYY, WLZR, KILO, KIOZ and WBCN. "Love her, love her, love her," says WDHA's TJ Bryan. "This is a strong rocker and with all the COR situations she'll see added support."

PETER HIMMELMAN, "WITH YOU," 550 MUSIC He's a 34-year-old singer-songwriter from Minnesota, best known to the tabloid-reading public as Bob Dylan's son-in-law. His six solo albums are populated with flawed characters who wrestle with questions of the symptoms of sin and redemption every day and then often lose the battle. "With You" is powered by the earnestness in Himmelman's vocals, deftly backed by a accomplished musicians ranging from a keyboardist to a violinist. From John Rozz at WSHE, "He reminds me of Elvis Costello. It's a good adult tune you can play in all dayparts."

TOAD THE WET SPROCKET, "FALL DOWN," COLUMBIA Over 60,000 copies of Toad's fourth album, Dulcinea, have flown out of the record stores already. The band, who took their name from an obscure Monty Python skit, had its best BDS week ever, and they are only beginning a summer tour that is sure to see more copies of the disc exiting the retail shelves. Toad's Glen Phillips says the band "let the space define the sound" on this record. WBZX, WONE, WRKI and WZMT are the latest converts, while WMRR and WVVV are tallying top five requests, making it easy to see why "Fall Down" climbs 21-19* on the Hard Hundred this week and leaps from 34-25* at COR.

STONE TEMPLE PILOTS, "VASOLINE," ATLANTIC "I predict it will sell a QUADRILLION copies," says Debbie at KISS. "It's a monster." Let's face it, do you want to admit to your GM that you hesitated to add a something that went on to be a quadrillion-selling record? Let's face it, if you miss out on "Vaseline," you're gonna need some Vaseline after the caning you're going to get. "Vaseline" slides in with 24 adds this week, making it #4 Most-Added. "Vaseline" continues the full frontal assault of 'Big Empty' to the max," says WBCN's Carter Alan, who's never been to Singapore. "These guys are huge and this is another indication why," adds Dale Miller of KATP. Brendan O'Brien once again handled production chores for the Stone Temple Pilot's new album, Purple, that was recorded in an unprecedented fourteen days. STP's summer tour begins in late June with the Meat Puppets and Red Kross, but as a warm up Weiland and crew are gonna be stopping by the Late Show with David Letterman on Friday, June 17th to sing their smash song. The phones at 14 stations are being lubricated, with top-five requests for "Vaseline" — WDZR, KILO, WMMS, KZRX, WBZT, WTKX, KEZE, KUPD, KKEG, WDRK, WRXL, WBAB and WHCN. This track pilots from 25-15* in the biggest jump in the top 30 of the Hard Hundred this week. "This is not a novelty band," says TJ Bryan at WDHA. "You gotta take 'em seriously. I find myself singing this one."

STABBING WESTWARD, "NOTHING," COLUMBIA Rather than caught up in rhetoric like Ungod is a confrontational album that deals with love and loss in a brutally honest way — musically and emotionally. "let's just state that where ever this record gets play, sales pick up. WAXQ's leading the way with 27 plays last week for this Chicago band. KICT, KQWB and WHMH add "Nothing" this week. Haven't people told you that your music list is good for "Nothing"? "It's a good stab at integrating pop sensibilities, industrial production and a metal edge," says Steve Funk at KZAK. "It'll eventually lead to big dollars." "Nothing" moves 60-54* on the Hard Hundred this week and 35-27* on the COR chart. Finally, Ron Valeri at WAAF thinks, "It sounds like the new millennium. We are impressed by it."

ROB RULE, "SHE GETS TOO HIGH," MERCURY The tour has already begun (all of the initial dates are radio co-promotions) and now the group is performing headline dates in clubs through the beginning of July, before they take to the road with Candlebox on scheduled dates that kick off in late July and run through August. There are "buy it and try it" campaigns going on at retail, where over 35,000 units are out the door. Great marketing plan. They've picked up six adds this week — KLBK, KZOZ, WEGR, WNOR, WROV and WTKX. "Too High" climbs 31-29* on the Hard Hundred, while landing 27-24* on the COR chart. 35,000 LP's are out the door. If ya wanna check it out there's a complete video kit if ya call Cliff O'Sullivan at 310 996 7233. Hey, it's free!

BON JOVI, "DON'T ALWAYS WEAR WHITE," 550 MUSIC The important words this week are "Bon Jovi — a great band." That's what Matt Mangus of WRCN says. "They play and are great live." Thirty-five of our reporters are on the track, with KUPD offering 28 spins last week and WHDQ reporting top 5 phones. There were three new adds (KBAT, WHTF, and WKIT) this week bringing the station count to 38 Hard believers. From KUPD's Curtiss Johnson, "Bon Jovi has always done very well. We got out the box instant reaction."

MOTHER STATION, "PUT THE BLAME ON ME," EASTWEST
This hot Memphis band will be on the road opening for Collective Soul this hot summer, as airplay heats up behind this chart-climber. "Blame" moves 33-30* on the Hard Hundred and holds a 31* position on the COR chart. KEZO, WCMF, WMRR and WXKE sign up this week, while WKZQ and KLAQ tell us the track's among their five most-requested. Janis Joplin's rawness and Otis Redding's sense of melody make this track a real crowd pleaser. "It's a tough fat record. This ain't no hair band!" testifies WRUF's Scott Steele. KLAQ's Al Jones translates, "We just had them here for our balloon festival. The response was tremendous from the young and the old. This track takes you back and shows you the future." Finally, from Belinda at KEZE, "Gary and I love this track. Susan Marshall has such a great voice, it's incredible the way she belts it out. The comparison to Janis just aren't fair."

MOTHERLAND, "RUMOR," 550 Music "It's got a nice atmosphere," says Steve Funk at KZAK. "I like it." KJOT adds the track this week, and "Rumor" climbs 81-76* on the Hard Hundred. The production is great (easy to understand considering Ron Saint Germain was turning the knobs), Jason Bonham's credentials are unquestionable and the addition of new vocalist Marti Frederiksen was a good move. Look for a summer U.S. tour, and the Peace 4 Me album has just hit retail. Belinda at KEZE says, "I love the sound of the song. The lead singer has a great voice. I look forward to playing this song every evening."

SAMMY HAGAR, "BUYING MY WAY INTO HEAVEN," GEFEN "Heaven" is one of the new songs on the Unboxed retrospective album, and it closes the book on Hagar as a solo performer, "It's just Van Halen now," he says. The California-born and bred vocalist/guitarist has lived there all his life except for a six-month stop in Rochester when he was broke. A hefty 30 adds this week (#2 Most-Added) help propel Sammy from 95-80* on the Hard Hundred. The oft quoted Belinda at KEZE remarks, "We've been dropping it in since we got the LP. He's big here in Spokane. This is a major kick ass tune!"

JIMMIE VAUGHAN, "SWEET SOUL VIBE," Epic The Jimmie Vaughan Band is about to take Jimmie's vibrant brand of rockin' blues on the road, in his first-ever tour of the U.S. as a leader. "Sweet Soul Vibe" is stinging guitar-blues, but shows a contemplative side to Vaughan, who at age 43 is sounding wiser and wiser. Vaughan will tour in the United States and Europe starting this month with his new band, which includes Junior Brantley on piano, George Rains on drums and Bill Willis on organ and bass. New this week on KLBJ.

OPEN SKYZ, "THE ANSWER," ORCA Long Island band Valentine changed their name to Open Skyz, but thankfully they stayed true to their trademark sound. "The Answer" is an acoustic track, and the sky is the limit on this one, which could end up being a big top 40 hit. If you've listened to the band's entire album, you'll want to Give A Little Bit of airplay to this track, if not more. They opened for Mr. Big to help set the base for AOR audiences. Lewis Levin is the heavyweight manager (whose birthday is June 14) so check out the right power-ballad at the right time.

FRANCIS DUNNERY, "AMERICAN LIFE IN THE SUMMERTIME," ATLANTIC The way this track is steadily building, we might be talking about Dunnery's "Life" in the fall. There's a 53-45* Hard Hundred move to talk about and a sunny 50-45 increase at COR. Nice, steady progress. Dunnery's still writing with Robert Plant, so you're not gonna get rid of this Brit so easily. He's one of the most prolific songwriters. And WRZX (32), KRRK (30) and WMMS (28) wouldn't be leading the way on airplay if this wasn't such a solid album. Adds this week include KICT, KRXQ, WBAB, WKLQ, WLUP and WXRC. Darrin Arriens at WKLQ, "This is a definite theme song for the summer. Expect to hear this one outdoors...often!"

THE TEA PARTY, "THE RIVER," ERG Not just another blues-rock opus, the Tea Party have the goods. "Jim Morrison re-lives," says Scott Steele of WRUF. "No, he has not left the building!" "It sounds old and new," says Mimi Griswold at WKLL. "An incredible combination of '70s, '80s and '90s rock rolled into one." Adds this week include KILO, KISS and WRXK, with top-five phones at KKEG and WRXL. The Party hold primo spot number 63* on the Hard Hundred. Once again the passionate Belinda at KEZE, "It's performing great for us, it sounds really good on the air. It's a great song to use as a bridge for what's up next."

SPIN DOCTORS, "CLEOPATRA'S CAT," Epic The Spin Doctors are about to release their second studio album, Turn It Upside Down, and the Doctors are just beginning an international tour with two sold-out shows at New York City's Bottom Line. The Spin Doctors have always been able to take in rock music's past and update it ambitiously and "Cleopatra's Cat" is no exception. KLOS, KZOZ, WZXL and WBFL add the track this week, helping "Cat" bound a coupla of slots to land 22-20*. Top-five phones are ringing at WIMK, KLAQ, WZNF, WRKI, KEYJ and WVVV. This is a band that has played an estimated 800 shows since 1989 and it's planning a somewhat smaller tour this time — this one's only going to last just over a year. "Funky, very funky," says Dom Nardella at WNCN. "Nothing at all what I expected." "The guitar brings it through," says Tom Starr at WOUR. "The more I hear it, the more I like it," says Howard P. at WROV.

ALICE COOPER, "LOST IN AMERICA," Epic The king of shock is back with a second track from The Last Temptation Of Alice Cooper, the only record on this page with its own comic companion (F.Y.I - there are a trio of Cooper comix written by Sandman creator and comic genius Neil Gamen). Cooper will be making the comic-book circuit tour in conjunction with his upcoming concert tour, which promises another wild, theatrical stage show. "I like it better than the first one," says David A. Ross at KMJX. "It's tongue-in-cheek. He's always done well here. The lyrics are great." "He has a ton of credibility," says Steve (used to call himself Alice) Funk. "It's a good solid effort." Forgive us if we get lost in call letters, but there are so many here. Eleven American adds this week, including KATP, KBER, KEZE, KIOZ, KMJX, KRZR, KZRR, KZRX, WAPL, WIYY and WZZR. And top-five phones at KUPD, with almost a dozen plays a week at Z-Rock. Is it true Alice is now a born-again Christian? He'll never get guns or girls that way, or another cameo in Wayne's World, for that matter.

BONNIE RAITT, "LONGING IN THEIR HEARTS," Capitol Phase 2 officially begins: She's back in the states to begin her major U.S. tour, which begins July 18 and continues to late October/early November. Bruce Hornsby will round out the bill. On July 4th (after your big bar-b-que) check out Bonnie on the Tonight Show and if you can't wait that long on Sunday June 26 she'll be on the VH1 Honor Awards. Six adds this week include KRNA, KYYS, WKQQ, WRXL, WSTZ and WXXR, with top-five phones at KCLB. This Bonnie lass moves 62-47* on the Hard Hundred.

YES, "WALLS," Victory/PLG The progressive rock giants are back to their five-man "fighting weight" after ballooning up to an 8-piece rock orchestra. Trevor Rabin has reinvented a new Yes for the '90s and major market stations are leading the way in taking this to the "Walls." Nine stations get on the roundabout this week — KDKB, KSEZ, KWHL, WHFF, WNCN, WPYX, WRKI, WRXR and WTKX. There are top-five phones at WGIR. "Walls" moves 27-20* on the Hard Hundred this week. "It's a different flavor for the band," says Beaver Brown at KDJK. "It's doing really well," says Chuck Robson at KSPQ. "Getting phones." Here's Scott Steele at WRUF, "The most accessible track on the LP. Fantastic!"

SCREAMIN' CHEETAH WHEELIES, "SLOW BURN," Atlantic Danny, Lea, and Mark are intent on career development for the Wheelies — now it's time for phase three. Let the touring continue. They smoked the McGathy party with special guests Warren Haynes and 'Binkey'. Now they're out on the Meat Loaf tour followed this summer by the H.O.R.D.E jam-fest. The plan is to keep these guys out there till the word-of-mouth thing keeps growing. By the end of August over 1 million people will have seen the group kick some serious ass. A total of 17 adds, including WDHA, WZBH, WBCN, WSFL, WCMF, and WCIZ, are helping the Wheelies on their way to gold.

ROGER DALTREY, "PINBALL WIZARD," Continuum Can't see no lights a-flashing? Can't hear no buzzers and bells? Well, you must be deaf, dumb and blind. We'd better remind you about Daltrey's two sellouts at New York's Carnegie Hall in February. He'll be on a 50-city tour beginning in June, backed with local orchestras in each city. How do you think he does it? What makes him so good? Well, there's that band that will include drummer Zak Starkey (Ringo's son), guitarist Simon Townshend (Pete's brother) and Dire Straits keyboardist Guy Fletcher on synthesizer. And bass player John Entwistle is also expected to play several dates. New adds this week include WNEW, WLUP, WPYX, WAPL, WGIR, KCQR, KJOT and KFMG among others. Here's John Cooper from WPYX, "Playin' it is easy, everybody knows the song and the reaction is very positive." From Jon Erdahl at WGIR, "Our fans weren't able to see the show but anytime Roger does a song we're so familiar with were definitely gonna play it. It's an instant add." Finally from WLUP's Dave Logan, "A timeless tune dressed up for a night at Carnegie Hall. V.I.P. - B.F.D. - A.O.K."

TAKING A PEAK AT DENVER'S ROCK ALTERNATIVE

The waiting is over, the speculation has ended, the rumor mill has grinded to a halt... At 3:00pm on Wednesday (6/8), Evergreen Communications new 100,000 watt radio station signed on the air in Denver as 96.5 The Peak "Denver's Rock Alternative," with a music mix focusing on rock alternative from the '80s and '90s. The Peak, with call letters KXPK is the first commercial, Class C FM station to enter the Denver market in over 25 years.

Bruce Jones, Doug Clifton, Ray Skibitsky & Pete MacKay

As previously reported, Ray Skibitsky will serve as General Manager, and KBCO veteran Doug Clifton has been named Program Director of The Peak. Doug will also tackle mid-day duties. In addition to 'BCO, Clifton's 14 years in the Denver market includes stops at KAZY and KBPI. Skibitsky spent 17 year at KBCO leaving his GM position in 1991 to form the SBR consulting firm with John Bradley and David Rahn (both formerly of KBCO). SBR serves as consultants to The Peak. KNNC/Austin PD Bruce Jones fills the MD/afternoon talent position. Prior to Austin, Jones spent 7 years in the Salt Lake City market, serving as MD at KJQN and KCGL. "After 10 years programming alternative radio and helping to start up KNNC, it's very exciting to be in Denver and working with such a solid organization," said Jones. Other Peak air staffers include Pete MacKay in the mornings and Jackie Selby at night. MacKay makes the transition after 18 years with Denver's KBPI. He also served as the lifestyles reporter for Denver's NBC affiliate, and helped launch Denver's public radio station, KCFR. Selby joins The Peak from Radio One/KZYR in Vail, where she was Music Director. Prior to that, she served as PD/afternoon drive host at KEYV/Las Vegas. The personality line-up debuts next week, following a musically intensive sign-on.

In addition to Skibitsky and Clifton, other former KBCO staffers who have segued to The Peak include Promotions Director Rena Foxhoven who spent the last six years in the 'BCO promotions department; GSM Deborah L. Fox, a 14 year veteran of the 'BCO sales department; and Debbie Carey, who joins The Peak sales staff after two years with KBCO/KHOW/KHIH. Rounding out the new sales department are David Zobl, Tonya Everist and Nancy Rowe.

The Peak's Rock Alternative format will focus on alternative songs from the '80s and '90s by established bands such as U2, R.E.M., Peter Gabriel, Sting and Pearl Jam mixed with new bands like the Counting Crows, Cracker, Toad The Wet Sprocket, Sarah McLachlan and Gin Blossoms. BILL BETTS HEADS TO SACRAMENTO

Bill Betts

KRXQ/Sacramento GM Tom Schurr confirmed the rumor this week, naming former KBPI Program Director Bill Betts as the station's new Operations Manager. Current PD Pat Martin, who actually first suggested the move on a Great American conference call, remains as PD and midday air personality. In addition to assisting Pat, Bill will also oversee all aspects of programming, promotions and production at KRXQ. Sez Betts, "It was Pat's idea to get me involved with the radio station from the git-go and I'm looking forward to helping him out. I get to meet a whole new group of professionals and continue my experience with Great American, the best AOR broadcast group in America."

SINTON, BARNES & ASSOCIATES

Tom Barnes

Jon Sinton announced that longtime associate Tom Barnes has been made a partner of his consultancy, and that the name of the consulting division of JSA will change to Sinton, Barnes and Associates. "This announcement serves two purposes," said Sinton. "It makes official the de facto partnership which Tom and I have enjoyed for a number of years, and it gives me the opportunity to acknowledge Tom's continuing contribution to the consultancy, radio programming, and branding efforts in the consumer products business. Over the past several years as our firm has become increasingly active in investment banking (partnering with Amsterdam Pacific Corporation) and network/syndicated radio projects ("Hightower Radio" for ABC Radio Networks, "Brooke Daniels and Roberta Gayle" for WW1, and general developing for the new SW Radio Networks), Tom's thinking has expanded our reach in custom-designed, demo-targeted formats. We have ACs, CHRs and Progressive clients out there who are achieving new ratings and revenue heights due in no small measure to Tom's input. I guess the industry may know Tom Barnes best for his musings about Generation X and his groundbreaking work with Alternative and Hard Rock in places like Los Angeles, Boston, Atlanta, Seattle and Indianapolis, but because of our client confidentiality policy, many people are probably unfamiliar with Tom and his abilities in other formats and industries, so I thought it time to credit him publicly." Barnes commented, "It's nice to have my name on the letterhead, but Jon's endorsement means even more. It's particularly gratifying that this is happening at a time when our business is growing not only in depth but in breadth as well. When I started with Jon seven years ago, our approaches to marketing and programming were considered pretty radical. Yet, using marketing-based paradigms that aren't format-biased has allowed our business to grow beyond the traditional bounds of radio programming. I'm proud of the growth we've made and of the varied clients whose success made it possible."

WRCN'S ALL OVER THE ISLAND

This past week, eastern Long Island hard rock mainstay WRCN realized their long awaited goal of moving into Nassau County. They've bought a second 10KW signal in Huntington at 94.3, formerly soft rock WMJC. The simulcast started Monday (6/6) at midnight with Led Zep's "Rock And Roll," and obviously, the 'RCN staff is thrilled to bits. As Ops Manager Matt Mangus put it, "We've been on the air a couple of days and the people of Long Island have been waiting for this for a long time and are loving it to death." Mr. Mangus is next week's Hard coverboy, so stay tuned for full coverage in the coming issue.

VALENTINE NAMED EPIC METAL DIRECTOR

Cheryl Valentine

Cheryl Valentine has been in place at Epic Records for a few months, and this week the label officially gave her the title of Director, Metal Marketing & Promotion. She will oversee all metal niche retail promotions, in-store artist appearances, "midnight sales," and other activities, working in association with Brian Lima, Associate Director, Metal Marketing & Promotion. Valentine joined Epic from Mercury, where she spent two and a half years as National Manager, Metal Promotion. She began her career in music as Metal Director at Dayton, Ohio's Wright State University radio station WWSU, after which, she served as Metal Marathon Coordinator for CMJ. This was followed by two and a half years at Metal Blade, where she was VP/Promotion. Valentine then moved to Relativty for one year as Director, Metal Promotion.

McEVROY MOVES TO MERCURY METAL

Brian McEvoy

Brian McEvoy has been named National Metal Manager for Mercury, filling the position left open after Cheryl Valentine segued to Epic. Prior to joining Mercury, McEvoy ran his own record label, Grand Slam Records. Previously, he was head buyer for Wall To Wall Sound and Video. Sr. VP/Promotion David Leach commented on the appointment, "Brian has a great track record at this format. His knowledge and experience are a wonderful asset to our promotion team, and I look forward to breaking many artists with him." VP/Rock Promotion Drew Murray added,

"Brian's background and history in this business made him just a natural fit. He's almost overqualified for the job...he's too good!" And Brian said of his new position, "I've known David and Drew for years, and Mercury is a great record label. I'm really looking forward to working in a team environment. It's a good fit for me, and I'm going to kick some butt!"

BEGIN AGAIN!

Former WXPN/Philly afternoon star, WMMR Saturday night special, WXZL/Baltimore morning menace, and KRXQ/Sacramento morning co-host Karln Begin has landed the much coveted, megabuck morning show at San Francisco's new '70's rocker, Big 98.1 FM. Not bad for a kid who snuck across the Canadian border with a suitcase full of iffy Halifax airchecks a mere three years ago. You might recall Ms. Begin was part of the KRXQ Christmas Day blowout that included PD Judy McNutt, as well as the GM and GSM. Though on the air only a week now, Karin's already succeeded in getting David Cassidy, on the show to hype his new book, to stalk off in disgust after being asked about the chicken suit he wore in a Partridge Family rerun the night before. Karin, using the nom de air Darrian O'Toole is joined by her former Canadian PD Shawn Kelly, most recently doing mornings in BC.

LIFEBEAT OFFERS VIP TICKETS

LIFEbeat, the music industry-fights-AIDS organization, is offering a special VIP package to "The Beat Goes On," a benefit concert scheduled for Friday, June 24 in NYC. The event will feature k.d. lang, Melissa Etheridge, Jon Secada, Sarah McLachlan, and the Max Weinberg Seven in performance; actress/talk show host Ricki Lake and supermodel/writer Veronica Webb will co-host. GET READY FOR A CORPORATE VACATION

The music industry can look forward to the release of the movie Corporate Vacation sometime in '95. The story centers around a small record company that hasn't had a hit in years. Feeling they need a change of pace, the company execs decide to go on a working vacation in the Caribbean (which, of course, would never happen in real life). After their yacht is chased by modern-day pirates, the execs abandon ship in mid-ocean and eventually wind up on a remote island with a tribe of Rastafarians and have to learn to work together to fight off the pirates and survive the perils of the rain forest, all the while trying to decide what to do about their ailing company. Screenwriter/executive producer Michael Malott has lined up a number of well-known musicians for cameos in Corporate Vacation — kind of like "The Player" of the music industry," he jokes.

RADIO RUMBLE

KFMF/Chico's staff are still in a state of shock from the untimely death of morning show host Gary Bennett, who was found dead in his apartment on Wednesday (6/1) of apparent natural causes. "He called in sick Tuesday and when we didn't hear from him this morning, they went over and found him," said Dan Barnett, KFM News Director and the other half of the station's morning Bennett and Barnett Show, to a local newspaper. "Our phone's ringing off the hook," said PD Marty Griffen. "Gary has been a fixture in the community for so long. We've gotten calls with lots of kind words and support, which we really, really appreciate. Gary was one of the most creative, talented, funny individuals I've ever met, and he will be missed by all of us and by his audience." After cutting his teeth at student-run KCSC radio at Chico State, Bennett spent over a decade on the air at KFMF.

Virgin record artists Brother Cane will be there performing their hit "Got No Shame." To start out the day, local rock favorites Dr. Lector, Tammer Laine, and Storm Childe will perform beginning at 1:00pm. Tickets are priced at $9.97 in advance and $15.00 the day of the bash. Portions of the proceeds will benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

KMJJ/Denver signed Haz Alwattar (former Haz Montana) for programming duties at the all 70's formatted Secret Communications station. As a "Mental Weapon" since 1992 at research and telemarketing firm Critical Mass Media, Haz provided strategic analysis, tactical planning, and marketing consultation services to stations across North America. Prior to that, he spent eight years with Goodrich Broadcasting, including programming WWIC/Lansing and WSNX/Muskegon-Grand Rapids. "Leaving Critical Mass is tough," commented Alwattar. "But this is one of those proverbial ideal programming opportunities. Denver, duopoly, Frank Wood (President), Chuck Finney (VP/Operations), and all the other staff involved — I couldn't ask for a better matrix of elements and people."

Westwood One appointed David Dennis and Jerry Greenberg to the WW1 Board of Directors. Greenberg is President of MJJ Music, a Michael Jackson/Sony owned record label. In making the announcement, Chairman of the Board Norm Pattiz commented, "We're delighted to announce the addition of two such well-qualified individuals to our Board of Directors. David brings a wealth of experience and expertise from the financial community and Jerry's background and stature in the music and entertainment business speaks for itself."

When the Indy 500 race hits town Memorial Day Weekend, WFBQ/Indianapolis takes full advantage of the event with a month's worth of promotions leading up to the big day — including a celebrity softball game, remotes and interviews with Indy drivers...

WFBQ's Dave Gunn (Gunner) interviews Lyn St. James, the only female in the 500 field for the race — and the second woman ever to run in the Indy 500. The interview was held during an early morning show remote from McDonalds, a sponsor of the race.

A McDonald's representative presents Lyn St. James with a McDonald's racing jacket.

Gunner interviews Dominique Dobson during the morning show remote. A variety of Indy 500 drivers showed up for this event for interviews and to sign autographs.

Gunner with Paul Tracy, one of the Penske car drivers. Penske had the Mercedes engine that proved impossible to beat, as Paul's teammate, Al Unser Jr., later won the 500.

Michael and Gunner did play by play commentary for the game which raised money for the Indiana Special Olympics.

Among the celebrities who participated were Jason Priestly from "Beverly Hills 90210," Regis Philbin from "Regis and Kathi Lee," John Oates from Hall and Oates, Larry Drake (Benny) from "L.A. Law," and Mark Paul Gosselaar from "Saved by the Bell."

Is Hal Fish your real name?

Hal: Yes, it is. I don't use it on the air. I'm the 'Kingfish.' That was just the name that the jocks gave me. Before I came on the air, I told them that I didn't want them saying my name on the air, so they started calling me 'Kingfish.' Since people had been introduced to me by that name, I just started using it.

What do you like least about Columbus?

Hal: Maybe that there's a certain amount of conservatism that tends to creep up from Cincinnati. Get enough of that and things can get a bit boring from time to time. If you are from the Midwest and you are looking for a good place to rock that's not over the edge, but is also still real fun and knows how to party, then Columbus is pretty cool. But if you decided that you didn't want to party anymore and wanted to lay back and have a family and raise kids, then Columbus is great for that, too. It's really a fairly conservative market with some crazies hiding inside of it, enough to make a successful Blitz format.

Is Cincinnati really that much more conservative?

HAL FISH

By Bill Hard

Hey, is that a neat Harley our man Hal is on or what? Unlike the Eagle s Duane Doherty, who was merely lusting after the Fat Boy he was sitting on, this is actually Hal s personal scooter. It s a 1992 Dyna Wide-Glide, merely the most sought after boss Hog on the street. It s the kind of ride a guy who runs a station like the Blitz should own. Flashy, fast, powerful. Needless to say, the only Helmet Hal uses regularly is on Interscope. You might say that Hal personifies the mindset you have to inject into your radio station when you re slammed up against an excellent heritage rocker like WLVQ and a well run Triple A/AIt hybrid like CDIOI. One thing fer sure — Hal s having one hell of a lot more fun than he was before the station switched from Classic Rock.

Hal: I think it is. Actually, people who have lived here for a long period of time seem to have this thing about Columbus being this backward kind of cowtown. I came here from Lansing, and grew up in the Ann Arbor area, and I think that I was exposed to a fairly hip environment on a regular basis — enough so that I would know totally 'not hip' if I saw it. I didn't get the cowtown vibe at all because you have this little city sprouting up and becoming a big city. It's very clean downtown and it's very nice — it sort of reminds me of a miniature Chicago. They're trying to do some neat stuff, like horse-drawn carriages around the city at night.

If you consider Cincinnati is a markedly more conservative town, what's the vibe on Cleveland?

Hal: Blue collar, a little bit harder edge, rough around the edges.

If you're renting a three bedroom house with a nice yard in a decent section of town, you're going to pay what?

Hal: It's probably going to be around $1,000.

And a two bedroom apartment?

Hal: Probably in $550 - $600 range.

How long has the station been on the air?

Hal: We have been on the air for two years. Our big anniversary party is coming up on July 3rd. Two years ago, the Friday before the 4th of July, we debuted the format.

And the station was Classic Rock prior?

Hal: Yes, it was called Magic. I came here in September of '88, and we did well. They were doing good business, but I had just about had it with the Classic Rock thing. We had done just about everything that we could do in Columbus and I was ready to start looking around. I think that the owners were sensing that the format was not going to get them any further. The young guy who runs our company is a little more competitive than the Classic Rock was allowing him to be, too. We felt that we needed to win bigger and find new things. We actually started talking about this format the previous January. I had always wanted to do some kind of a hard rock/AOR type of presentation, but something that was a little different than what I had heard before, so this is what we came up with.

What convinced you to go with the Pollack organization?

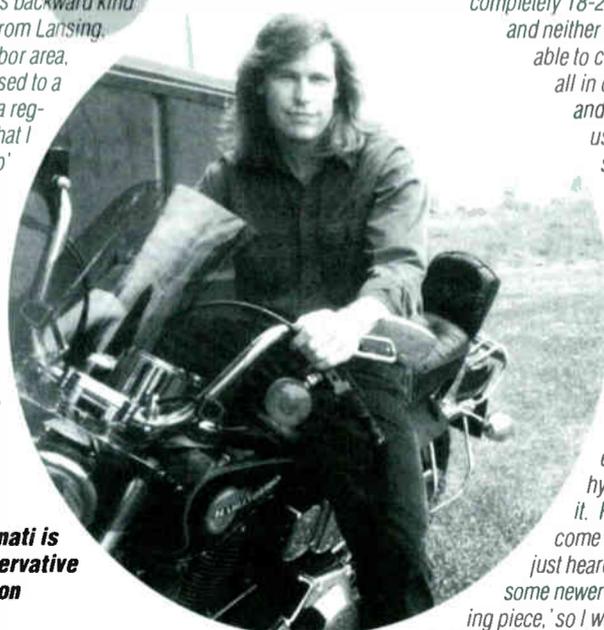

Hal: Dave and I worked with Dave Brewer at Pollack for a number of years on and off. I met him when I was working in Lansing, Michigan, back when you'd play The Doors, Bob Seger and Jimi Hendrix and also play The Supremes. One day, I was out to lunch with the GSM, and when I got back, Dave was on the phone saying, 'Hey, we have this new format and you guys would be perfect for it,' and it was basically the same thing that we were talking about.

Why would you say the station didn't perform better as a classic rocker?

Hal: WLVQ was and still is doing that mainstream/AOR, very Classic Rock based thing, and they were able to blunt us. The Classic Rock position in the market was being filled very well by them. When our Classic Rock was doing well, they just moved more in our direction. There was nothing on the new music end, except for CD101, which was a little more Alternative than the mainstream. They didn't have to play a bunch of new music to keep their listeners, and we knew they couldn't come after us without losing their core audience. We were almost completely 18-24 going in, and neither station was able to come much at all in our direction, and that allowed us to become sort of the 'mainstream' hard rock station.

Did WLVQ harden up initially?

Hal: I think so, but then everyone was hypersensitive to it. People would come in and go, 'I just heard them playing some newer current rock-ing piece,' so I would listen tentatively for this new direction that they were supposedly heading in. What I ended up hearing after three or four weeks was that they were even more Classic Rock.

Given Greater American's success at the COR level with WXTB, and before selling them, with KBPI and WLZR, it's a little surprising they were able to resist the impulse to rock WLVQ a little harder.

Hal: As I said, every once in a while I will hear them play something that definitely seems a little more in our direction. They've seen that we have taken the new music position. As things play out, they are right back where they always were — protecting the mainstream. I figured one of the tenets of this particular format was having the audience perceive that we were the station to come to for new music, so we began a campaign capitalizing on the phrase 'The new music revolution.' We really hadn't claimed the new music position before that. We played a lot of new music, but we didn't say 'the best' or 'the latest,' or any horseshit like that. We were playing it, but we didn't have any positioners on the air. We actually made more fun of traditional positioning lines than anything else. We might say 'One in a row every time,' or 'Guaranteeing that we will play at least a bunch of songs every now and then' — goofy shit like that. So we had fun making fun of the standard radio liners. People seemed to get it and they liked that approach. When we started using 'The New Music Revolution,' in a sort of deadpan, non-radio delivered way — prior to new things like Pearl Jam, Cracker or Candlebox — it really took with the audience. It really burned a hole in their brains.

And you think the effectiveness of that phrase had an effect on WLVQ?

Hal: It seemed like a fairly short time after that that they began to sort of mimic our rotations in many ways, as far as the number of currents and recurrences. Not long after they started doing that, there was a period where WLVQ had some fairly down trends. Of course, they would probably deny this, but I think they probably looked at it and said, 'You know, they own this position. Our going over there and pretending like we have it too is only going to hurt us. Listeners don't come to us for the "New Music Revolution," they come to us for Eric Clapton.'

Was 101 putting the hurt on them in their upper end at all?

Hal: I think that 101 has always hung around the fringes, ready to take a piece of whatever is available. We were even seeing them showing up well 18-34 recently. The more mainstream that we happen to become, the more they will show up 18-34. They used to be more 25+ than they are now. I'd say they've really honed their Alternative position a little more, although, they don't really get in there and jam on Alternative. They tend to avoid the grunge or the harder guitar stuff, though, they'll play it a little bit at night. They are more of a mainstream Alternative.

Does a record leaning more Alternative make it more or less attractive to you?

Hal: We play a lot of that kind of stuff. 101, as an Alternative station, has to be concerned about being mainstream Adult Alternative, so they are not going to get too far into the Candleboxes of the world. They are not going to rock it out too hard, which leaves the door wide open for us to do that, and we do. Let me grab my recent music list. Okay — Soundgarden, Collective Soul, Meat Puppets, Cracker, Counting Crows. Of course, we play Alice In Chains, Smashing Pumpkins.

What is the hardest thing that you play? Pantera?

Hal: We play a little Pantera.

Heavily dayparted, I assume.

Hal: We don't do much dayparting, but we do daypart the Pantera. We have been playing Nine Inch Nails at night, we've been playing the Rollins, The Wildhearts, and we just added Prong last week. To me, that stuff is just sort of shading, spice, because they are not going to get it anyplace else.

What are the poppiest artists you play?

Hal: We did play 'Mr. Jones,' which kind of brings the hair up on the back of my neck, but it seems to test really well.

Did you get in early on that record or later?

Hal: No, we got in later. We might have even tested it before we played it. Everything else here is pretty typical. We play Metallica, and at times we're real mainstream with the likes of Brother Cane and Sass Jordan.

Give me a recap of how the station started out, how the numbers were initially.

Hal: We hit real strong. I think that the first book was like a 6.3, and then we popped a 6.5. We beat 'LVQ in one of the trends, but not in the actual quarterly. We've always hung somewhere about a share from each other. I've heard that in the most recent Arbitron we had a 6.4 12+. WLVQ had a 7.4 and we had a 6.4. 18-34 we are at 11.3, they are at a 12.0, that's totally 18-34 numbers. I don't know if you pay much attention to AccuRatings, but I think that they are pretty interesting. For the winter of 94, 12+ WBZX had a 7.1, 'LVQ had a 6.0 and we were #1 for 18-24. 18-34 we were #1 in the winter with a 12.5, 'LVQ had a 10.9. Their strength is mornings. They beat our morning show, but not by much in this book — they have a 13.3 to our 12.2. As you go down the rest of the dayparts, they go to a 9.8 middays, and we have a 12.9. Afternoons WLVQ is 10.1 and we are a 12.0; evenings, they're an 8.5 and we're an 11.0, and weekends they have an 11.3 to our 15.

Who handles WLVQ mornings?

Hal: They have Waggs and Elliot. They've been there for a long time. It was originally Pat and Waggs, back in the old days, and they did great years ago.

How have your mornings fared?

Hal: We didn't do very well coming in mornings initially. We hired some guys out of Georgia that we thought would be funny and they weren't.

Did you bring them in during the Classic Rock phase?

Hal: No, it was after The Blitz. We came on with these guys, and they weren't working. That's when I moved Suzie Waud from nights to mornings. She had worked 92X, which was CHR some years ago in the '80s, and she came to us to do evenings, where she killed. She has this really upbeat sort of rock sounding, very different female voice. Plus, she did a lot of phones and was very active and had tons of heritage in the market. So, at the risk of hurting ourselves in the evening, we brought her to mornings and she has showed slow, but continual growth virtually every book. So, she has been good for us. As I was reading to you from that AccuRating from the winter, she was within a share of the competition.

It's a music intensive show?

Hal: She probably plays 6-7 songs an hour in her peak time, and she takes a lot of phones.

How blue does Suzie get?

Hal: She gets fairly blue, but she's not into innuendos as much. If she's talking about sex, then she is talking about sex, she's not looking for a cheap innuendo laugh. She's pretty conservative that way, but sometimes shit that will come out of her mouth will floor me.

Many COR stations have commented that their on-air sound has changed substantially over the past year to eighteen months. How much have you changed?

Hal: I think that we've changed a lot, too. The one thing that I thought coming in, and still believe, is that I am not going to assume anything about my listening audience. I'm not going to assume anything about a hard rock audience. In fact, we don't talk about hard rock on the air.

You don't use that phrase?

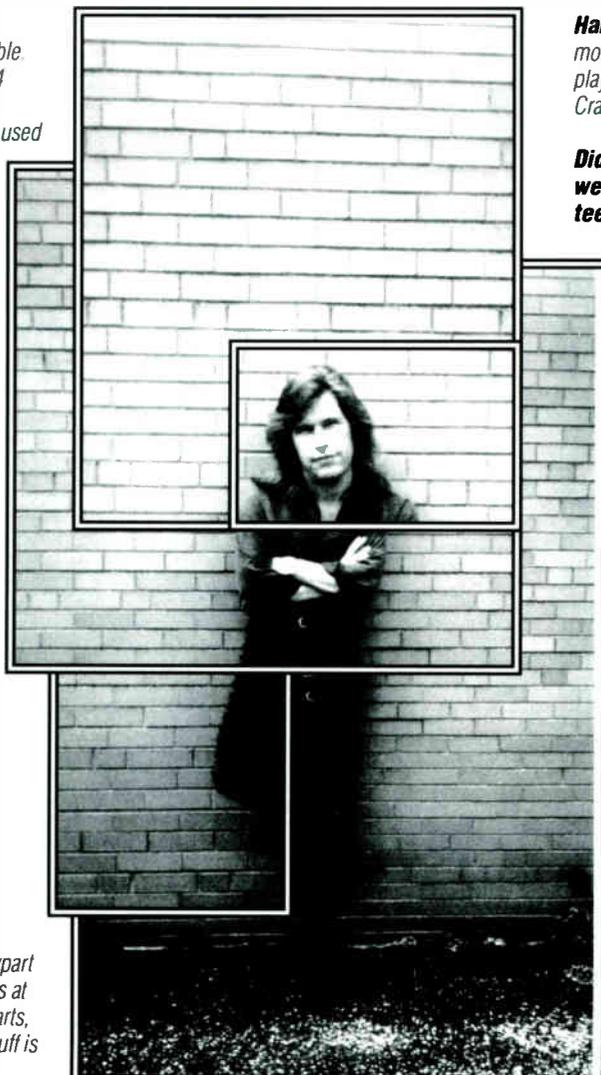

Hal: No, we say 'solid rock,' which I think is much more appropriate if you consider the fact that we do play stuff like Counting Crows now and then or Cracker 'Get Off This.'

Did 'LVQ attempt to position your audience as wearing black T-shirts and missing strategic teeth?

Hal: They still do. As a matter of fact, they have a TV ad running where they have some fat, sweaty hard rock mama saying 'Here's the latest from Skid Bump,' or something like that, which is an obvious shot at us, although we don't play Skid Row. So, yeah, they still do that. They try to position us that way on the streets, and quite frankly, it doesn't work. I haven't seen the results from the TV spots in this particular book, but our sales staff has done a great job of saying, 'Hey, give us a shot and we will show you. We'll prove to you that this isn't black T-shirts.' We have a real successful ongoing promotion with something we call The Blitz Band, which is our very own rock and roll band. A couple of guys from the radio station are in it, including myself. We open up for bigger bands sometimes. For instance, we did a big gig in front of Pink Floyd. We called the event Floyd Gate and we had a big tailgate party in front of a place called the Holiday. It's where they have big parties during the football season, close to the stadium where Pink Floyd was. We had about 4,000 people there for The Blitz Band.

You guys are obviously competent?

Hal: Oh, yeah. Like I said, we have a couple of guys from the station playing in the band, but then we went out and found people from the music community to help us get plugged in. The band is tight. People seem to enjoy it, and we play whenever we do big promotions, like Harley Davidson giveaways, or the Mustang GT convertible giveaway we're doing this spring. When you go to these promotions, you see the listeners aren't black T-shirt people. They may be primarily between the ages of 18 and 28, but they are people who have real jobs, and are in some cases professionals. We like to go out and show people this. These are the people that are buying into our radio station. These are the people that are buying into the music that we play. It's a hip station to listen to for a lot of different people, so please don't generalize about our audience. I sometimes get people who call the radio station and say, 'You guys play The Counting Crows, that's not real rock and roll! Where is Prong?' But I think those guys are dinosaurs and they don't really represent our listeners.

Does having a huge university in your backyard make selling a youth oriented product that much easier?

Hal: Columbus isn't a place that you would go to get the hippest, newest everything. There is certainly that undercurrent near the campus area and we have sort of an artistic crowd. By and large, what we do is more mainstream than people might think. It's really dangerous to assume anything about the people who like this kind of music. As I continue to do music testing, I'm looking for edge more than anything. It's kind of a cross between MTV and hard rock with sort of an attitude. I'm looking for active people who like their music uptempo, who like to rock, who like to get out. I've been avoiding using the term 'Generation X' because I don't know what that means, but there's a real generation of people who are interested in music that talks about things other than love and sex and getting your rocks off. I'm not saying that we have a bunch of poets in this generation, or any more than there were 20 years ago. There's definitely something real happening out there, as opposed to the '80s, when Classic Rock was so popular with an audience that really lacked an identity. WLVO would like to get people to buy into the fact that their station also loves this stuff and that they are on top of it. But I think that there is a cut off point. You can't play Bonnie Raitt and still be hip to people who want to hear Green Day.

Do you think you and 101 have done an effective job of squeezing 'LVQ from the upper and lower ends?

Hal: Well, I think that they have a tough road, but they seem to be walking the thin line pretty well. I have to give them credit for that. They are able to maintain a pretty healthy audience and capitalize on a lot of years of heritage.

Neumann is no dummy, that's for sure.

Hal: I don't even think that they need Neumann. I like Bob, and he seems like a nice guy, but quite frankly, I always felt like Buzz was a better competitor. Buzz was in the street — I don't know if I even want to say this in print because next thing you know, they are going to be in the street.

Radio's constant bickering over co-promotes is one of promotion's biggest headaches these days. With at least three stations in your market playing the same artists, is this a big problem there?

Hal: It is, and the only thing that makes it a big battle is that WLVO's heritage provides them with grandfathered relationships with some of the promoters that do business from outside our market. Those who do business inside our market on a day-to-day basis and know that we put people in seats to see shows, they deal with us on a regular basis. For instance, we have a situation with The Players Amphitheater, a new 20,000-seat outdoor venue which is opening up the 15th of this month. The partnership in that is Sunshine Promotions and Belkin from Cleveland and Promo West from here in Columbus. The guy from Promo West is very aware of what the market climate is. He has his own little venue called The Newport Music Hall, and we put people in there for him, and he knows the kind of bands that we play. But his associates come from out of town, and they did a big deal with 'LVQ, who paid them to present upwards of 20 shows at the Players Amphitheater. So we say, 'Okay, that's fine. That's your business. But I think that you are going to need us on some of these shows.' They say, 'Well you guys will be involved. We'll bring you in — but you can't have your van there. You can't put your banner up. You won't be able to be involved that way — but we will get you involved.' So they bring the Scorpions in and give the show to 'LVQ. But at that point we have to say, 'Have a nice show. Enjoy. We're not going to hand you 20,000 people on a silver platter.'

How did the show do?

Hal: It's not doing anything. So now, they are burning up my phone lines trying to get me to help them out with a show which is dying on the vine, and meanwhile, I am bringing in mainstream bands for my anniversary party. We sold 500 seats for Great White and Brother Cane the first day. I don't want to be too cocky about that — that kind of shit can blow up in your face real quick. But at the same time, I think that it goes to taking the temperature of the market. It's all about knowing which people are listening to what radio station — and why.

Do you use the local scene to position yourselves at all? Is that part of your on-air thing?

Hal: We do a show called 'Local Stuff' on the radio, which is entirely local bands. We do the production right here at the radio station and we play all local music. I think that, in terms of being as street as possible, we are more in the listeners' face than any other radio station.

Describe your street presence.

Hal: We go out and party a lot. We do a fair amount of bar nights. We have a 'Suzie Waud Bar Tour,' which is kind of structured and promoted like a concert series, when it's actually her going and taking her show out live in some club.

Is Suzie the most heavily marketed personality?

Hal: Yeah.

Do you go to conventions yourself?

Hal: Sometimes. I do the Pollack thing. I didn't go to France this year. I thought, 'Why do we want to spend that kind of money to probably only get in on half of the seminars?'

Do you listen to a lot of other COR stations, or do you make it a point to network with any PDs that are running similarly targeted stations?

Hal: I really haven't this year because the stations that I tend to watch the most have undergone some pretty major changes. I kind of followed KRXX, and for a time it seemed like a fairly similar format, and then they brought the guy in from KNAC and they seemed to go a little heavier right before things ended. That wasn't really something that I cared to emulate. I did go up to Buffalo and listen to The Fox when they were doing what we're doing. I think that they are more mainstream now. But I made a special trip up there to listen to them because I'd heard a lot of good things about these people, and they were getting good numbers. I didn't actually sit with Bob Richards at the time. I called him up beforehand and said that I was thinking about coming up, and we talked for awhile. When I actually went there, I didn't tell him that I was coming, I just wanted to hear the whole ugly truth, whatever it was.

And how was it?

Hal: It was pretty good. I actually stole a few things from them. They did some stuff over music and on the breaks that I kind of liked. I stole a couple of ideas like that, and of course, I heard some stuff that I promised I would never do on my station.

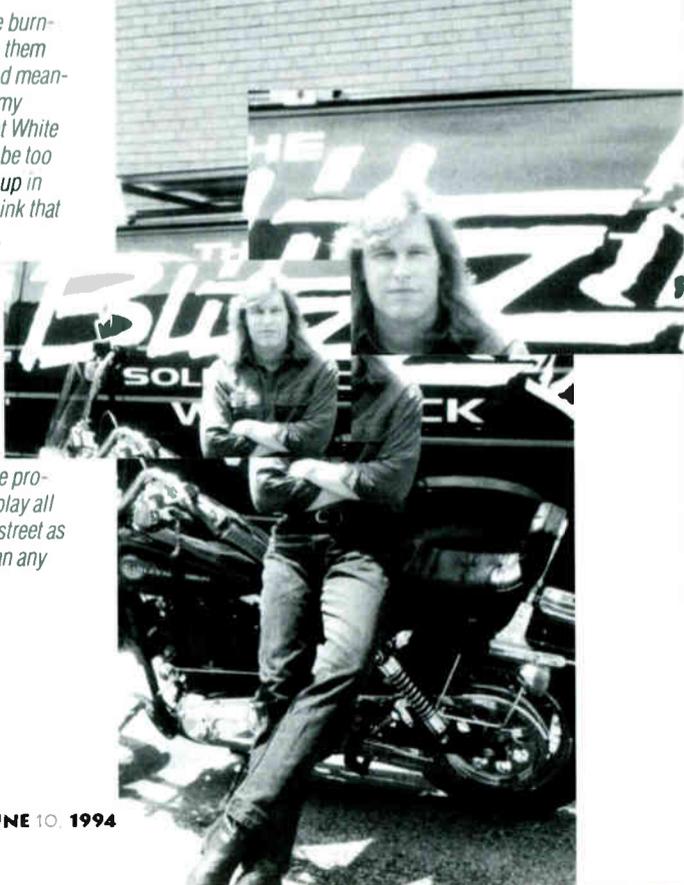

Who else have you listened to that you have made mental notes on?

Hal: When we first went on, I listened to The Blaze, but then they kind of went to hell with hair music. I don't know what they are doing now.

Do you find that labels occasionally want to work you just because The Blaze added it and they feel like The Blitz is an automatic?

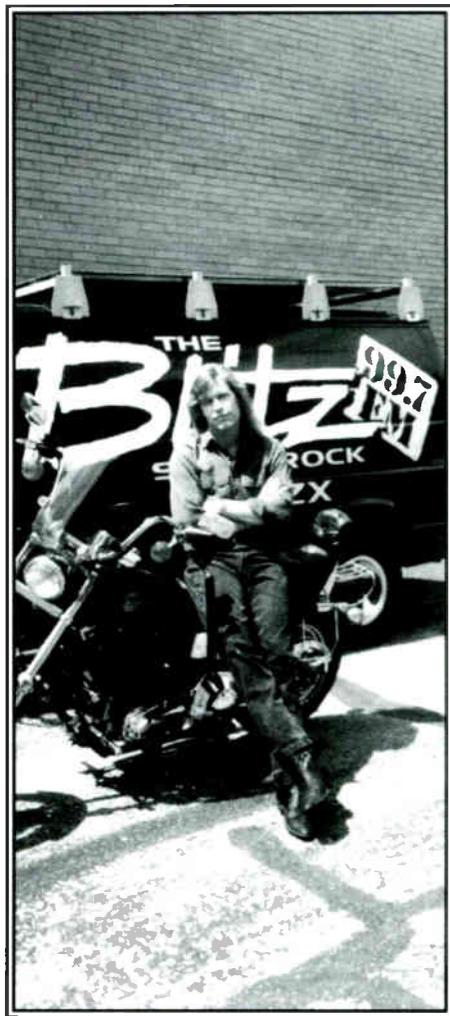

you can't have your van there. You can't put your banner up. You won't be able to be involved that way — but we will get you involved.'

Hal: It seems like the station that I hear the most is 'XTB. People are always saying that to me. After awhile I started saying back to them, 'You know, I can't imagine that they do so well. They play every piece of shit that comes down the pike. How can they possibly be good?' So, I haven't heard much about 'XTB, although they do great. I really haven't heard that station so I can't speak for it.

In general what kinds of stations are you interested in?

Hal: The ones that tried really hard to follow where their audience was, rather than try to spoon-feed them something that they weren't into. Those are the ones that end up surviving. I just don't think the ones that really hung onto 'We're hard rock, we must do this,' are really even part of the equation. If you came to town and did a focus group asking, 'Who is the hard rock station in Columbus?' people would probably say, 'That would be The Blitz.' We are the hardest rocking station in Columbus, no question about it. But does our program look like a hard rock station? I don't do automatic adds on the Motley Crue. It has to be a good song. It has to be something that is going to have a life with the audience. Quite frankly, I ended up playing the Counting Crows longer than I have the Motley Crue.

Just out of curiosity, looking back at the Crue project, would you consider that a worthwhile airplay investment for you or basically a coin toss?

Hal: It's a coin toss. I think that the audience was interested in finding out what it's all about. We had a fair number of phones on it when it came out, so there was definitely activity.

Do you find that the fickleness inherent in the genre is making it tough to maintain your CDR artist file?

Hal: Not really. The groups that we have gotten rid of were destined to go, based on the way the barometer was shifting — the Wingers, Warrants, White Snake.

Are you seeing any new generation burn?

Hal: There seems to be a pretty toasty burn on the Nirvana project. And really, the new Nirvana stuff, while it sort of tests in the middle of the pack, I don't think that it's a must have for anybody in our audience. They liked the first album, but they are kind of burned on it now, and maybe even on the whole grunge thing. I don't think that it's over, just that it was more the beginning of a sort of Alternative/Rock trend, which is alive and well and real strong. Look at bands like Candlebox with 'Far Behind' for instance, which is considered an ultra-hip track. We've had real good success with the Soundgarden.

What are your most successful baby bands?

Hal: Cracker was huge, Collective Soul is huge, and the Meat Puppets 'Backwater' is doing real well for us.

How is the Stuttering John record doing?

Hal: Actually, it's a good phone record, but I don't know how it's going to play out.

How do you think the Sugartooth record will do ultimately?

Hal: We've been on Sugartooth for 8 weeks. It started out real strong with good immediate phones, and it's just sort of played out. We're not getting much on it right now.

Where do you think Great White is going?

Hal: That's classic rock for our generation.

Do you have anything else that's brand new that you are excited about?

Hal: I'm the one that doesn't get very excited about anything until it's been on for a while. Whenever we do music, we try to get a third person involved in our music meetings. That's because when Ronnie says 'I have this great new song, this is so hip,' and then plays 'Backwater' for me, and I usually say 'What is this shit?' So for me, I have to hear a song three or four times before I can make a decision.

And then I have to hear it on the air for a week.

Hal: Like the Stone Temple Pilots. When I first heard 'Vasoline,' I thought, 'Uh oh, this is like "Go" from Pearl Jam,' which actually never ended up being something that we hung onto. At first we played 'Go' for the hard core Pearl Jam people, but by the third or fourth time I heard it on the air, I thought it was pretty cool.

Do you have Blitz girls or pregnant bikini contests or that sort of thing?

Hal: We had in the very beginning, we thought that we might have Blitz girls, and it seems really inappropriate now.

Just politically incorrect?

Hal: Yeah, and I think that we are a whole lot more aware than we were a couple of years ago.

Are you satisfied with the overall promotional support the labels seem willing to send your way?

Hal: They seem to come to us with a lot of stuff. We actually have more promotions offered to us than we can effectively do, so we turn a lot of stuff down. I'm not saying that in a cocky way, I'm just saying that I would love to be able to do more than we can because we have so many things that come at us. With bands that are trying to get a leg up in the market and get a little bit further ahead, it's sometimes difficult because you're trying to do everything with the big bands. Finding a place for those acts is really getting next to impossible sometimes.

How healthy is the local economy?

Hal: It seems to be real healthy. The last recession right before the election kind of passed this market by. The radio market reached a point where it was kind of getting down a little bit, but right now, radio in this market is really up and doing well.

You are teamed up with a country sister station.

Hal: Yeah.

What's the duopoly scenario in the market like?

Hal: It really hasn't had too much effect here as of now.

How does the music decision process work?

Hal: Ronnie and I basically try to listen to as much as we possibly can that comes in, and obviously, we are affected by things that seem to have a buzz on them in the trades. Ronnie will come in and say, 'Hey, we should listen to this, it seems to have a buzz happening,' and we will give it a listen. We do our own music meeting here on Thursdays, and by Monday have a pretty good idea of a list of things that I'm looking at and seriously considering. Then I will do a music meeting with Pollack on Monday, and basically the questions that I have for them are 'What do you see happening with this?' We know what's hip locally. We look at our research and we ask Don Brewer about other things we might have missed or could be interested in.

Do you have any thoughts on R&R's chart weighting system?

Hal: I don't know if R&R is changing it any time soon, but I think that if 'NEW' can get a record on the charts just by playing it, something is kind of weird. Honestly, I don't really pay that much attention to stuff that is really doing well. If something is charting at 60 and one or two people are playing it, I'm going to judge that record's merits on my own. The only way that the charts help us is when I'm looking for records that maybe I missed, because we really do tend to add stuff as it comes in. We see music come in and we will go through it. If we happen to have missed something or thrown it away by mistake, or maybe didn't get good service on it, and we look at a chart somewhere, and find it at '38, then we will find it and listen to it.

How direct a bearing does direct promotional support have on your rotations?

Hal: If you get into a political game with some record company, if you're doing a promotion or something, that could potentially affect something that goes up and down on your playlist. You hate to admit that, but come on, let's be real. If you have a big promotion with the band coming into town or something, hey, and you look at the chart and see that it backed up three spaces, you're not going to dump out of it and make space, because you can't.

What sort of format would you like to sink your teeth into next?

Hal: I think I would feel pretty good about doing an aggressive mainstream AOR, but it would have to be aggressive in the newer music sense. I really want to stay close to the new music. I really love the vibe of an uptempo radio station. I think that it drives the promotions. All of a sudden, your promotions sound like they have energy, and it's a lot easier to get people to come to things.

Michael Hill's Blues Mob, "Bloodlines," Alligator This is blues with an edge that Triple A can take beyond the blues show: Ron Sorenson KFMG, "Michael's got the kind of B.B. King/Robert Cray voice that transcends the genre. Play him in regular rotation as well as on your blues show." Jon Peterson WCBE, "The Mob proves that 12 bars and 3 chords doesn't have to sit in a vacuum. The band breaks boundaries from progressive rock to soul to blues-funk in an innovative way that most certainly should make progressive Triple A programmers' playlists." Dennis Constantine, "Actually, the best song on the album is the only one that is not rooted in blues. 'Heading Home' has a great laid back feel to it, and lets Hill's sweet voice take center stage for a change. The guitar is heavy on the blues numbers, but you might try 'Wrong Number,' 'Righteous Love,' 'Why We Play The Blues,' and 'Can't Recall a Time.' Greg Hills WNCW, "Energetic, and funky! If you occasionally play Hendrix, you should drop in some Michael Hill." Ian Taylor WKVT, "It's scary how good this is. Put it on and it will make your audience call you."

THE HOT CORNER The Hot Corner

Richie Havens, "Cuts To The Chase," Forward/Rhino The grandfather of Triple A is back: Sybil McGuire WMMM, "We just got the The Cliff Eberhardt song, 'My Father's Shoes,' and it is absolutely awesome. Richie is such an important artist for this format, it was a pleasure to pop this on the air the minute we got it in. It's just such a great album." Jeff Bieri KRCC, "Here's the old soul man giving fresh breath to traditional tunes. Something familiar/fresh for everyone." Jeff

Ballou KECH, "This is a great album. A lot of cover tunes, which is great for us because it gives us a chance to rest the oldies. 'Darkness, Darkness' is a favorite, we put it on the air and it's already getting calls. Sounds really good." Dean Carelson KMTT, "I love the track 'Darkness, Darkness' and another good one is 'My Father's Shoes.' They both have a great acoustic sound that will fit in well at our station."

David Knopfler, "The Giver," Mesa The former Dire Straits comes in #1 Most Added at Triple A: Sybil McGuire WMMM, "This is a really good album. Very reminiscent of early more mellow Dire Straits. He's an artist that when you listen to it you go, 'Yeah, this is familiar, this feels comfortable.' Recognizable, but at the same time very different." Ron Sorenson KFMG, "Although his Straits are no longer Dire, his sound is.

David's music certainly stands on its own, but genes will tell. Especially in the absence of current music from brother Mark's band, this is an easy pick." Brad Hockmeyer KTAO, "David Knopfler's first release is a library staple at KTAO and this new one is a nice follow-up. Start with the first track and proceed without caution." Dennis Constantine, "'Mercy With The Wine' is a great place to start. It has an understated quality that will hit you after a few listens. 'How Many Times' and 'Love Knows' are in the same vein. Also of note are the jazzy 'Lover's Fever,' and 'Carry On.' Dean Carelson KMTT, "This is a great record. 'Mercy with the Wine' sounded right out of a Dire Straits record with the moody sound they used to have." Jeff Ballou KECH, "We're a couple of tracks deep on this album. 'Mercy with the Wine,' 'Hey Jesus' and 'Domino' are all great tunes."

richie HAVENS

cuts to the chase

One of the few Woodstock vets who can still stop the show has released an album that lands him squarely in the nineties.

"Silvered fingers flashing turquoise. Moving...bending strings. Stirring deep, rich stories. Living...breathing history. (Richie Havens sings, too.)"

Triple Crown

Des'ree, "You Gotta Be," 550 Music I have to admit that when I first looked at the CD cover I thought, "Madonna meets Jody Watley." But I managed to set aside my preconceived notions long enough to give it a listen. Needless to say, this is the first time my initial instincts about a record were wrong — alright, maybe the second time. With animated vocals and completely infused soul, the London-born Des'ree delivers a fresh, unique sound all throughout her second album. A remarkably mature record both musically and lyrically, it is her use of knowing subtlety that gives her material its obvious edge. As Dennis Constantine notes, "Her voice is dark and husky, and her pitch is perfect. Check out 'You Gotta Be' and 'Feel So High.'" Des'ree's material possesses a definite uplifting quality, performed articulately and with sheer savvy — a sound Triple A can absolutely appreciate. The first single from the album I Ain't Movin' is "You Gotta Be," going for Triple A adds this week.

Luka Bloom, "Turf," Reprise Luka Bloom strips down to just his voice and his guitar for this moving album: Brad Hockmeyer KTAO, "This is Luka Bloom's best yet. What a solid album! I expect this to be in heavy rotation for a good long time." WMMM Acoustic Show Host, Leslie Gavin, "It's killer diller! In fact, when I played it Sunday night, somebody called and said, 'Thank you so much for playing Luka Bloom.' It's a little more mellower than what I expected. Real bare, but great. I'll be playing it a lot, especially 'True Blue' and 'Sunny Sailor Boy' — they killed me." Bob Terrill KCSU, "I loved Riverside, and Acoustic Motorbike was great. I can't imagine him writing a bad song or putting out a bad album. I really look forward to hearing this new record." Jeff Bieri KRCC, "We've been waiting for Luka since the Acoustic Motorbike CD. 'Turf' is raw, acoustic, Irish pop folk. His past albums have certainly been amongst my favorites, hopefully, this will be no exception." Dean Carlson KMTT, "We are really, really, really digging into Luka Bloom. The only problem is deciding what to play. I love the track 'Sunny Sailor Boy,' and 'Cold Comfort' is another track worth a listen. This album is clean, authentic and a breath of fresh air." Greg Hils WNCW, "When this guy strums the guitar, it's like a prairie unfolds before you. He's a songwriter with a remarkable vision."

David Halley, "Stray Dog Talk," dos After the success of last year's Broken Spell, dos has re-released the critically acclaimed Stray Dog Talk, a 1989 self-produced demo tape by the Austin-based Halley that was released in Europe in 1990 on England's Demon Records. As Halley pointed out, the only problem with this record was, "You have to take a plane to England to get it." Fortunately, dos has remedied that situation. Brad Hockmeyer KTAO, "David Halley is one of the country's finest songwriters and someone who should be heard on Triple A radio. We're getting good response to 'When It Comes To You'." Don Ferrell KRVM, "This is good stuff! We are getting a lot of play out of this on our specialty show, and we've received great phone response. He seems like a swell guy, and I heard a rumor that he makes his own clothes." Jon Peterson WCBE, "David Halley's expansive vision of roots rock is not just confined to the blues, for it also adds a great deal of singer/songwriter, folk and even keltic-like influences." Bob Terrill KCSU, "His music is part of the new country sound, which means you can play it backwards and still keep your wife and dog in the car. And while your at it, slap in one of his cassettes because it's great driving music." Bill Evans KFOG, "I like David Halley a lot. I was exposed to him in New Mexico, and I did some live broadcasts with him as well." Bruce Stebbins WRNX, "We're looking forward to really getting into this new album based on our success with his past stuff."

WNCW/Spindale

Hils

As of May 16th, WNCW's "World Of Music," just got larger with a translator signal into Charlotte, NC. It was the listeners in the Queen City who raised $17,000 in three months time to improve the station's signal. Charlotte listeners can now tune in at 100.7 FM for a daily dose of Triple A music and news from National Public Radio. In addition to the new 100.7 in Charlotte, WNCW has a translator (also purchased by hungry listeners) in Greenville, SC at 97.3 FM, plus the regular 88.7 FM signal broadcast from 6650 feet high atop Clingman's Peak near Mt. Mitchell (highest point in Eastern U.S.). WNCW, which broadcasts from the town of Spindale, NC (pop. 4,042), is now reaching two of the top 100 media markets in the United States, with Charlotte, NC and the combined Greenville-Spartanburg, SC-Ashville, NC ADI. The response from Charlotte has been overwhelming with new listeners joining us every hour!

Attention Triple A Record Labels

From: WFBQ/Indianapolis

Last week, our morning show spent an hour each with Mac McNally, Webb Wilder and Leon Redbone. Does this sound like a radio station that should at least get some minimal progressive adult service? WFBQ and over 1/2 million of our listeners are waiting for your music!

The Final Word

In case you managed to miss last week's section, this is the question we posed to the Triple A community:

"With artists like Bonnie Raitt, Traffic, Boz Scaggs, Pretenders, Pink Floyd, Allman Brothers, John Mellencamp and Stevie Nicks dominating the Triple A charts, it seems to be getting more and more difficult to break new artists at this format. This week, we'd like to devote some time and ink to new and/or independent artists who the Triple A community feels should be getting more attention, so please fax us your list of artists and comments."

The response was tremendous. Whether you agree, disagree, or weren't able to read the section because of graphic overload, one thing is very clear — the people within the Triple A format are not about to sit back and let anything happen that they are not actively involved with. The music being played on their stations is there because they know their audience — not because it was jammed down their throat.

We'd like to thank everyone for their faxes and phone calls and input, and hope that this feature has provided some insight into a situation that seemed to be at the top of everyone's mind.

And the final word belongs to...

Dean Carlson, KMTV/Seattle

What a funny situation to be in — our format offers a breath of fresh air to radio listeners tired of the same old heritage artists that have been played to death on AOR, and now we complain that a lot of those heritage artists are now being marketed for AAA.

We shouldn't be complaining, we're in a great position. The music is now catering to us, instead of the other way around. Our concern should be to maintain that commitment to exposing our audience to great new music, in addition to playing new releases by heritage artists.

My concern is that we don't spend enough time on artists that need substantial airplay in order to become familiar. We need to make these new bands household words. Having cool new music in the currents is great, but how many of them actually graduate to recurrent status? If this format is really gonna break bigtime, we should be prepared to commit ourselves to these cool new artists and make them stars. The quality music is already there, now all we need is some quality airtime.

Here's my list of artists that we are having great success with here at the Mountain: Francis Dunnery, The Subdudes, Texas, Phish, Ben Harper, Ted Hawkins, Toni Childs, Lloyd Cole, Pete Dinklage, and check out the new Dave Alvin. Cheers.

David Fleischer, WJLA

First of all, it's a plus for the format that the format has been elevated to the point where this subject is given this much space. Yes, too many heritage AOR artists on the air can be a problem. The question is FOR WHOM? If there is a large number of these artists with records getting airplay because they're "good" records, then the problem is a record company problem in terms of the inability to get NEW artists exposed. If a large number of these same artists are getting played because of the QUALITY OF THEIR NAME AND NOT THE QUALITY OF THEIR MUSIC, then it becomes a radio problem, because the product going out over the airwaves will be substandard.

My personal feeling is that the "glut" of heritage artists will be a cyclical situation. I hope so, because I want to see this format succeed due in large part to it being accepted by a large segment of the listening audience BECAUSE of its playing quality music by new artists. The ultimate answer is, as with most things in life, balance. I also feel the format needs its own identity, and if the format plays too large a percentage of heritage artists, it runs the risk of being identified as just another type of classic rock station. Some might not think that's bad. I do. I really like listening to the Horse CD and not just because it's our record. I truly like the music. Also, our friends from Margaritaville Records have released The Iguanas LP that I also not only love to listen to, but also feel deserves exposure at AAA radio. Others I like are Billy Pilgrim, Storyville and Ted Hawkins. And it goes without saying (although I'm writing it), The Subdudes rule!!!

Zeb Norris, WXXI/Albany

Perhaps I'm being a tad hypersensitive, but your memo regarding new music content at AAA radio struck me as another case of what I call the "play more reggae or I'll kill your dog" syndrome. We play a very wide variety of music at XL 104.5, but naturally, those with an interest in only part of our musical spectrum wish we would lose everything else. I expect this from listeners, but not from the trades! I would expect you folks to understand that if I fail to generate an audience for the station, I'm not going to be able to play any artists at all...be they new, established, obscure, or whatever. I also won't be able to eat. Besides, I'm not going to bail on artists that the format broke just because they are now well known and played on other formats. If I did that, I'd run the risk of being too cool for the room. So c'mon, give me a break!

That said, an analysis of my list shows that over 30% of my currents are by new or developing artists...and that includes over 35% of my heavys! Up and coming favorites include Jah Wobble's Invaders of The Heart (I was out of the box on this one), 3rd Matinee, and The Hatters. Although they aren't a new act, I'm also very fond of NRBQ, a great band other formats won't touch...yet. But I'm still gonna play Mellencamp and Stevie Nicks because the station needs the familiarity. It's been said a million times by a million programmers, but my responsibility is to the station. In this format, I can make the station succeed and play new artists, but I simply don't have the same agenda as record labels or trades. Is this really news to anyone?

Pat Gallagher & Sybil McElhiney, WYZZ/Madison

Where at Triple M have some additional thoughts about the new/old music for artist debate started last week.

What we're trying to achieve is a certain balance of familiar and new artists within the programming team's vision of the station, so that we can remain commercially viable in our market. Should we turn our backs on traditionally popular progressive artists because they've garnered "cross-over" success?

Seems pretty self defeating and incredibly stupid if you think about it. Yes, of course, breaking exciting new artists is a part of our mission. The final decision about whether or not a piece of music (new or old) will work for our market rests with each of us. In our case, Pat was born here, and Sybil has lived here for nearly a decade. Beating us up about music that we're not playing (for whatever reason we have) is not productive. Finding out why we aren't playing something is very helpful for everyone involved. I think you'll find we're very honest. Our first priority is the overall sound or flow of the station, making sure that it remains consistent with our vision; not everything being worked to Triple A or Progressive Radio fits. The people that understand what we play, or don't play, are the people who earn our respect.

If you missed the certified Triple Ace show of Bill Miller opening for Tori Amos when they toured together in early spring, we have good news — the tour has resumed! When Tori heard Bill's album, The Red Road, she asked him to be her special guest on her North American and European tour. Sold-out shows and standing ovations have been the norm so far. Warner Bros. is re-releasing The Red Road on June 28 with brand new packaging and graphics, so look for that album to cross Triple A desks at the end of the month.

"Bloodlines"

Alligator

By Peter Simon

Ive heard Blues for the nineties, them is this! The first guitar wails on track one — speak of consummate playing ability!

When you've absorbed the totality of the following lyrics on "Can't Recall a Time," it's obvious the future of the blues lives here. According to my ears, "Hard Blues for Hard Times" (cut 6), "Soldier's Blues" (cut 9 with Vernon Reid courtesy of Living Colour), "Ready for the Blues" (cut 12), "Can't Recall a Time" (cut 1), "Why We Play The Blues" (cut 2), and "Bluesman at Heart" (Cut 4) will be the candidates for the most air time. There are two tracks that stand out as being "different" — #8 "Signifyin' Monkey/Watch What You Say" with poet Sekou Sundiata, and #11 "Heading Home," perfect road trip music. Both are examples of "different" being good. Every parent and politician on this big blue ball should be locked in a room for 24 hours with nothing but cut 13 rolling from the speakers. It's dedicated to Michael Hill's nephew, Tyrone. The rest of Bloodlines doesn't drop below a nine. Michael Hill & the Blues Mob can be proud, they have given us a look at today, yesterday, and tomorrow. All we can say is.....what next? P.S. Hey Bruce I., how about the Kinsey Report & The Mob together on tour?

"Still Shinin' "

Have Mercy

By Johnny Meister, host of The Blues Show

Those in the know have long recognized a soulful, jazzy intelligence in the blues of Sacramento's Johnny Heartsman. Heartsman is an uptown blues singer with down home undercurrents, who also plays keyboards, organ, bass, guitar, and flute. Some aficionados may have a copy of his hit single, "Johnny's House Party," from sometime back in the Bronze Age, or his LP Music Of My Heart on the Cat 'n Hat label — arguably the best blues album of 1984. Unfortunately, the cat didn't have nine lives; it barely had one, and the album was out of print before even many blues deejays got wind of it. If Music Of My Heart wasn't the breakthrough album, it should have been. Neither was Heartsman's 1991 album The Touch on Alligator, another excellent project that, notwithstanding the Alligator cachet, failed to give him a well-deserved piece of recognition in the mainstream of the blues world. Johnny's latest release Still Shinin', on the struggling Have Mercy label out of Sacramento, offers up more of his magic, recorded live and unsweetened. To be sure, the album is not exactly radio-friendly. The best cuts are quite long and expansive, with Heartsman improvising and experimenting with Charles Brown's "Driftin' Blues," and J.B. Lenior's "Talk To Your Daughter," as well as his own "Move On Down The Line" and "Bitter With The Sweet." Four of the shorter cuts are actually excerpted from one instrumental, sliced up into four fade-in, fade out snippets (two of them under a minute!) highlighting the soloists. The logic behind this is exclusive at best. Still Shinin' won't be a hit, but it deserves serious attention on blues programs. Johnny Heartsman's singular talents will add depth and diversity, providing listeners with a taste of what for many will be a whole new flavor of the blues.

"One More Mile, Vol. One"

MCA

By Bob Ancheta, Host of Sunday Night Blues Show on KGON/Portland

Just when we thought everything ever recorded by Muddy Waters was available on LP or CD, we come to find the new double CD, One More Mile. This CD package includes alternate tracks never used before and a host of blues finest musicians to back up Muddy at one point or another. Along with songwriters Willie Dixon, Jimmy Reed, and Sonny Boy Williamson, McKinley Morganfield still proves, after all these years, the blues had a baby and named it rock and roll!! Now somebody needs to release Electric Mud on CD and see how skilled Muddy really was with the guitar.

(Ed. note: Also available are incredible box sets from Bobby Bland, Howlin' Wolf, The Moonglows, and Stone Rock Classics: The Original Recordings of songs covered by The Rolling Stones. Call Dave "Flash" Fleischman at (818) 777-4051 for service info.)

BLUES REVIEWS

With the flood of great new blues releases coming in June, you'll have to ask yourself (as B.B. King put it) "How Blue Can You Get?" Pantera, "Five Minutes Alone" (EastWest) Many of you in the COR format were able to experience Pantera for the first time with the single, "I'm Broken", and while the "cowboys from hell" were steadily clawing their way up the COR chart, they have dominated the metal charts, holding onto the #1 spot for eleven weeks straight. Having just finished up a sold out tour of large theaters, Pantera are teaming up with Sepultura, Prong, and Biohazard to headline a summer shed and arena tour that will leave a path of happily destroyed concert goers across the country. KISW, WIYY, and KTAL have already jumped on "Five Minutes Alone", and found that the brutally chunky riffs of this song make it among the most infectiously memorable on the radio right now. With 1.1 million records sold it is very obvious that people want to hear Pantera, that this is a core artist for the format, that this is the future of hard rock music. Many of you have embraced the powerful groove already and are busy fielding all of the requests, but for those of you who "don't hear it", just remember that your audience does.

Suicidal Tendencies, "What You Need's A Friend" (Epic) This Los Angeles based band originated in the mid-80s skater punk scene, and with their sinister melodies, the unsurpassed wit of Mike Muir's lyrics, and crunching guitars, they have become one of the most anticipated artists in the metal format, having churned out many phenomenal records that easily sell well over 250,000 each. On "What You Need's A Friend", the first track off the new Suicidal For Life release, the light intro slides into a groovin' rhythm that sounds as though it is skirting the edge of insanity. Margaret Zakoor of WBTZ agrees, commenting that "It is a really cool track! We like both Suicidal Tendencies and Infectious Grooves [another project of ST members Muir and Robert Trujillo] and I can't wait to hear the full album. We have received a good initial response and expect top 5 phones eventually." Margaret, like many of us, is also looking forward to seeing Suicidal open up for Metallica on what looks to be one of the biggest tours this summer. And after all, in the cut-throat world of radio these days, what you really do need is a friend!

Joan Jett, "Go Home" (Warner Brothers) This is one woman who kicks ass harder than most men in the business and has been cutting her chops for a long time, going back to her teenage years in The Runaways, and her successful solo releases of the '80s. She's back and ready for the '90s, rockin' harder than ever, and still has that street credibility - in fact some of her "helpers" on the new album include members of L7, Bikini Kill, Metal Church, and Babes In Toyland. "Go Home", the bluesy rocker off her new release Pure and Simple, has had a good start with 19 stations spinning it, including KILO, KIOZ, KRXQ, WIYY, WLZR, WRZK, KEZE, KATP, among others, and Kris Kelly of WXQR puts it best: "You can never go wrong, she rocks like nobody else!"

Beastie Boys, "Sabotage" (Capitol) What can we say? The Beasties are back, and we are very excited about it. In fact, the new release Ill Communication has been in heavy rotation here in the Hard Report stereos since we got it! Metal loves it - already making it into the Top 20 of the Hard Hitters chart; Alternative loves it - most requested in the Hard Alternative section; MTV loves it - can you say Buzz Bin?; the record buying public loves it - 220,000 already sold. While the Beastie Boys are known for being a rap act (along with being fashion trend setters), don't let that tag deter you, because this song rocks with plenty of distorted guitars, emphatic vocals, and a jumpy rhythm. The Beastie Boys have a long standing rapport with the rock audience since "Fight For Your Right To Party" and "What You Want", and with #1 sales in every COR market this past week, plus a buzz that is gaining momentum every week, don't be mistaken, your audience would love to hear lots of the Beastie Boys!

Wicked Maraya, "Another Day" (Mausoleum) Hey, this might be a new band, on a new label (to the U.S. - they have been effective in the European market for quite some time now), but don't ignore this release. The first track, "Another Day", is dripping with majestic melodies, soaring vocals, and full, razor sharp riffs. What you get when you put all these ingredients together is a song that will reach out of your speakers and grab you by the throat, and chances are, your listeners will want to hear it over and over again! In fact, in Germany, where the album has already been released, Wicked Maraya is #1 on the charts, ahead of Pearl Jam and Soundgarden. Larry Mac at KZRZ didn't procrastinate, pumping in on the air immediately. "Don't wait 'Another Day'" he encourages, "We heard it, we loved it, we tested it - our listeners loved it! Play Wicked Maraya today!"

Metal Pick

Helmet, Betty (Interscope)
Everybody has heard of the term "using words as your weapon", but never before have basic riffs been used to destroy thousands of people as swiftly as a hydrogen bomb. The cornerstone of Helmet's growing popularity has been the ability of this unassuming-looking band (they can often get away with tuning their own interments on stage unrecognized by the audience) to churn out bludgeoning grooves that will fuel the energy of even the most lethargic audience. The fact that their success is broadening to the mainstream segment without losing an iota of their strength attributes to the fact that the destiny of this band will not be stopped. They first began receiving notoriety in the relentless New York scene through their releases on AmRep, including numerous single releases, and the 1990 LP Strap It On. Their hard work paid off, and the undeniable buzz landed them a slot on the Interscope roster (after a good fight) and the 1992 release, Meantime, did not disappoint and was welcomed with open arms by the metal community who appreciated their focused intensity - despite the short hair. Now onto bigger and Betty things! The sound of the new release shows a song-writing maturity in guitarist/vocalist Page Hamilton, and also the additional influence of new guitarist Rob Echeverria infuses a variety of elements to their music, including a more melodic structure to frame the churning grooves. The first single - both off Betty and The Crow Soundtrack - is "Milktoast" (or "Milquetoast", depending on which similar but different version that you choose to play), and judging by the early response at radio with 29 adds the past three weeks and heavy airplay at KISS, WKLO, WXZR, KDJK, KFMX, KMSA, KSHE, WGLS, and WTSR - plus the adoring response at the recent McGathy showcase - it seems that Helmet fans are chomping at the bit for new material. And there is plenty to choose from, starting with the opening cut "Wilma's Rainbow", with its steady pace and overwhelming guitars; the semi-industrial stomp of "Biscuits for Smut" (keep an eye open for the remix version); and the pounding drums of "Rollo". As Helmet prepare to hit the road (the environment in which they first found success) in another killer live package - they will be hooking up with Rollins - and begin to infiltrate the metallic airwaves, look for Betty to quickly surpass the gold status of Meantime.

Suicidal Tendencies, Suicidal For Life (Epic) It seems that all of us have a suicidal streak in us, judging from the monstrous response to the new track from Suicidal Tendencies last week. Over 80% of the those who reported, 56 adds in all, decided that they too, need a friend! An early debut at #32 was earned on the Hard Hitters chart with significant airplay already being recorded at KEYJ, KIBZ, KISS, KMSA, KSHE, WHMH, WKLO, WMMR, WTPA, and WXTB. Apparently your listeners like the new stuff, too (as if there was ever a question), with top requests lighting up the phones at KUNV, WHMH, and WVCR. As cool a song as it is, "What You Need's A Friend" is only one taste of Suicidal and once you get those cyco ST fans moving they won't be satisfied unless you can give them more. No need to worry for your safety, the full Suicidal For Life is ready for consumption, and it is the most wicked release that they have pumped out in years! All of the songs that kick off the first half of the release are dripping with attitude, but a long visit to the production studio would be necessary with song titles like "No F*ck'n Problem" and "F*cked Up Just Right". The last half offers some cleaner, but not necessarily happier, tunes to pick from, with the screaming guitars of Rocky George, monster drums, and the breakneck pace in the track "Depression and Anguish". Also check out the sinister rhythm of "Evil" and the changing tempos, funky bass, and twisted solos of "What Else Can I Do". The Suicidal bunch are currently on the road with Metallica, playing sheds and arenas everywhere - hopefully in your neck of the woods soon - to spread their psychotic gospel. Get ready to join the ST army and become Suicidal For Life!

Stone Temple Pilots, Purple (Atlantic) Everywhere you turn these days, you see Stone Temple Pilots. With the runaway success of "Big Empty" from The Crow, and the multi-format adoration and MTV airplay for "Vaseline", the first single which has only been out for a few weeks, they are sticking as close as a magnet to our subconscious. Because metal radio was the format that originally sang the praises of this San Diego band, the full album was serviced on limited edition purple vinyl to metal radio, ahead of the regular mailing, giving us the opportunity to debut the release. With 10 new adds this week, and airplay at WZDQ, WSOU, WKLO, WMMR, KMSA, and KWVA, the Pilots have already debuted on the Hard Hitters chart at #48. Purple has many tracks with their characteristic dreamy atmosphere and honed guitars, such as "Silver Superman", with its hypnotic melody; the upbeat pace and hefty guitars of "Unglued"; or the punkish rhythm of "Army Ants". This release is going to put them in front of thousands of people, and your audience will be wanting to hear the new material. So don't miss a beat, and play it until you see Purple!

Downset, "Anger" (Mercury) This five piece band from South Central Los Angeles have grown up through the turbulence of the poverty stricken, drug infested world of the inner city gang environment and they incorporate that edge into their music. Their sound incorporates chunky, sharp guitar riffs, steady drums, and a hip hop laced vocal delivery similar to bands like Rage Against The Machine, Body Count, and Biohazard. The first single of the upcoming self titled release is the track "Anger" (make sure that you find the clean edit before you put it on the air), which kicks off with an attention getting introduction that sets up the attitude of the entire song. The full fury of the song then takes over, with ferocious axe-work to back up lyrics that paint a vivid picture of their world. Both WIYY and KZRX reacted so strongly to the song that they added it into their regular rotation this week! With feedback that enthusiastic, and a tour coming up in July and August opening for Biohazard, look for multitudes of people to be strongly affected by this street-wise band as the year develops.

Marilyn Manson, "Get Your Gunn" (nothing/Interscope) This South Florida band claims as its main influence the "spoon-fed Saturday morning mouthfuls of maggots and lies disguised in your sugary breakfast cereals... and the all American Antichrist bathed in talk show trash." Hmm. Well, obviously they are not your normal band, and after one listen it should come as no surprise that they are the first signing to Trent Reznor's label, nothing, and the band has just finished possessing the souls of the public through their opening slot on the Nine Inch Nails U.S. tour. In your hands (and in-stores) now is the CD-5 featuring "Get Your Gunn" and three other songs from their upcoming Portrait of an American Family release, which will be in stores July 5th. Their sound is one part industrial sonic attack, one part razor-sharp, metallic guitars and bombastic drums, and finally, one part demonic alter-ego taking human form in the twisted lyrics of Mr. Manson. They have been inundated with critical acclaim from their home state, winning awards for both Best Alternative Band and Best Metal Band in various publications. People may have trouble trying to figure out exactly what Marilyn Manson is, but two things are for sure: they will hit you harder than an anvil dropped from the Empire State Building, and they will scare you faster than a ghost story on Halloween. What other reason do you need?

Stompbox, Stress (Columbia) This Boston based band (note the killer alliteration!) has been riding the metal airwaves with their first single "No Woods" and has stuck on the Hard Hitters chart with airplay on 18 stations including WJUL, WMWM, WWSP, KIOZ, KWVA, KEYJ, KISS, KQAL, KVHS, WFSE, and WMMR. The full length, Stress, has just arrived, and many of you wasted no time in getting this on the air with 12 early adds last week. As in "No Woods", their songs feature the hearty, gravelly voice (a la Rob Zombie) of Jeff Turlick and their musically explosive rhythms. "Saltpelexitwound" is a cool track with a riff as thick and muddy as chunky peanut butter, and also the exciting pace of "Chevy S-10" may be to your liking, or maybe even the ironic twist of "Workin' For Sony". Coming from a past in which they bucked the regular scene and developed their own following, Stompbox will surely buck the norm and find their own future. We all have plenty of stress in our lives, but this one time that we will accept Stress with open arms!

Wicked Maraya, Cycles (Mausoleum) This New York five piece (Lou Falco - vocals; John Iadevaio - bass; Michael Iadevaio - guitar; Dan Malsch - guitar; Mike Nash - drums) are all bonded by either family ties and/or childhood friendship, and this connection shows in the unified flow of their songs. The band formed in New York in 1988 and are a popular live act on the regional scene, having opened for acts such as Asphalt Ballet and Spread Eagle. Cycles is their first release on German based Mausoleum Records (the album was released overseas earlier in the year), and they combine a powerful twin guitar attack with the soaring vocals of Falco into a sound that is reminiscent of bands like Helloween, Dream Theater, and Fates Warning. The first single and video is "Another Day", a memorable song about mankind's search for a higher being that glides along in a haunting harmony. But don't overlook the alternating styles of rugged guitar rhythms and ethereal, flowing melodies in "Forever", and if you played "Immortal Sin" by Fight, you will be pulled in by the churning groove of "Winter's Garden". With early adds coming in at KMSA, WNHU, and regular rotation airplay on KZRX, keep your eye on this dynamic band to have an impact on the airwaves.

Thunderhead, Killing With Style (CMC International) With three Germans and an American, Thunderhead have become a household name in Germany and Japan. They have already released three albums overseas (their 1989 debut was release by Enigma Records in the U.S. just before the label went under), that have been well received by rabid fans of straight up, in your face heavy metal. They are now ready to hit the international circuit with their newest release - Killing With Style. Thunderhead don't concern themselves with petty issues like being politically correct and avoiding comparisons to other bands. With common influences like KISS and Thin Lizzy, plus a sound that injects the German influence of bands like the Scorpions and especially Accept, they bulldoze ahead on songs like "Young & Useless", "Save Me" and "House of Swallow", with blazing guitar licks, gritty vocals, and a big chorus. For all of you looking for an updated version of your favorite metal classics, look no further, because Thunderhead is your band.

The Pleasure Elite, "Media Feed" (Red Light) The world of The Pleasure Elite is like entering into an animated S&M show, the eerie twisted elements are there, but you just have to laugh. This band hails from Seattle, and consistently sells out now-famous venues like RKCNDY, but they bear little resemblance to the bands that have put that music scene at the top of everyone's minds. This band has made their name by combining off beat rhythms with chunky, pounding guitar riffs, touches of industrial spice, an outrageous live show, and an irreverent attitude. Your first Pleasure experience is a three song sampler containing "Media Feed" (the first focus track and video), "In The Belly", and "Honky Tonk Hell", all from their upcoming release Bad Juju, which was produced by Don Gilmore who has done work with Pearl Jam and Sweetwater. With the personality of a Green Jelly, the expressiveness of a Rage Against the Machine, and the showering riffs of Megadeth, The Pleasure Elite will find a happy home among the metal radio brethren.

Single Matters

Pantera, "Five Minutes Alone" (EastWest) How much arm twisting do we really have to do? If any, then you are in the wrong place. Back a couple of months ago Pantera stormed onto the charts with a debut on the Hard Hitters chart at #3 (we think that could be a record) and have held onto the #1 position ever since: even with some strong records aiming their guns at them to shoot them off their roost. The one and only cowboys from hell just finished tearing up the country on a theater tour, and are setting out to headline the most potent tour of the summer. With that, plus the second video for the newest track - "Five Minutes Alone" - already taking over Headbanger's Ball, and record sales over 1 million and climbing, the domination of Pantera continues to reign. "Five Minutes" has been a metal radio favorite since the release of the album, with many stations having already put this infectious romp on the air. If you have been playing this song, make it official and keep jammin' it. If you have yet to spin this one, what are waiting for? Start playing it now or you will be spending more than five minutes alone.

On Tuesday, May 24th Poison's (Capitol) Bret Michaels lost control of his Ferrari and hit a telephone pole head on at what has been estimated by Burbank Police at 80 mph. Michaels was rushed to the hospital and was treated for contusions and lacerations of the face and body, a broken nose and thumb, a chipped collarbone, 4 missing teeth, a cracked sternum, and a hairline fracture of the upper jawbone. At press time management had made no comment as to how the incident occurred and criminal charges remain pending. Drummer Rikki Rockett said, "Bret has been living way too out of control lately. He is lucky to be alive this time. The police said he should have been dead. This is the second time this has happened - once on his Harley and now this. I think we need to hire him a permanent driver." The band will now take a break from recording their sixth album until the frontman is fully recovered. We wish him a speedy recovery. 🌀🌀🌀🌀 We would like to wish Brian Stone, over in the Warner Brothers Metal Promotions Department, the best of luck on his upcoming marriage to his girlfriend, Suzanne. Peace. 🌀🌀🌀🌀

The follow-up to the breakthrough single

"Bizarre Love Triangle"

On tour with Counting Crows

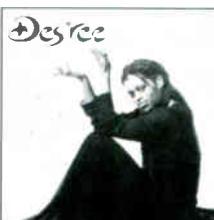

Swell, "Forget About Jesus," American/psycho sPecific Quite possibly our favorite band. Swell is one of the few groups who manage to be so evocative while maintaining a firm grasp of the minimalist nature that makes their material so compelling. As we all know, subtlety is often a key element in constructing the soul and overall depth in all forms of art — Swell are absolute masters of the form. 41, their third full-length release, builds on the band's signature concept of combining an eclectic blend of acoustic and electric guitar with the pop of a dusty snare and David Freely's eerily monotone vocals. "Forget About Jesus" is, on all levels, a completely affecting song. Hope as you'll get this band sometime soon. They're as real as it gets.

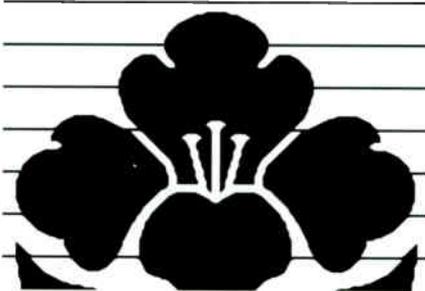

Joan Jett and the Blackhearts, "Go Home," Warner Brothers/Blackheart A powerful, highly charged effort from an indisputable icon of the format, Pure And Simple, the band's Warners/Blackheart debut, serves as an excellent reminder of Joan's vitality. And as is plainly evident by the first single, the level of intensity in the music is as high as ever. The song is about being stalked, assaulted, and fighting back, and is inspired by the tragic rape and murder of Mia Zapata (the lead singer of the Gits) last summer. The video, directed by Julian Temple, is as provoking a video as we've ever seen. The band will be kicking off a huge tour in early July, starting off with small venues in the East and then eventually heading out west. How relevant is she to the format? Boy Troy at FNX says it best: "Joan Jett was alternative before any of us. Proof of this fact is in the lyrics of 'Go Home.' While the rest of the industry dives into songs about fiction, Joan lets us know just how fortunate we are to be alive. Rock on, Joan — you'll always have a home at this radio station."

Frank Black, "Headache," Elektra With a thoroughly cohesive effort, Charles Francis is all set to reap the benefits that have long awaited him. Teenager Of The Year is a fluent record, weaving adroitly through his various songwriting styles, guitar modes and vocal angles. With an inherent intensity present throughout, the artist as musician shines brightly once again — expressively, pointedly, and astutely. Sean Ziebarth at KXRR advises, "Got the summertime blues? Head throbbing? Well, take a few spins of Frank Black's 'Headache' and call me in the morning." And KPOI's Ted Taylor exclaims, "It's the best record since Enrico Caruso!" Look for him to do a number of small venues as his tour continues on through the summer.

Des'ree, "You Gotta Be," 550 Music With buoyant vocals completely infused soul, the London-born Des'ree purveys a fresh, unique sound all throughout her second album. Her material possesses a definite uplifting quality, performed articulately and with sheer savvy. While her first album made her many talents obvious, it is in this effort that they become fully realized. A remarkably mature record both musically and lyrically, it is her use of knowing subtlety gives her material its obvious edge. Poised to do extremely well on the adult level, we also see some CHR potential in this undeniably cool track. We expect this one to surprise, not unlike Lisa Loeb has done.

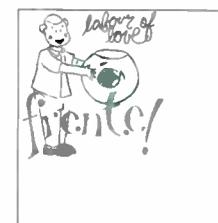

Yardsale, "Yardsale," Western Front This Chicago trio's brand of thoroughly infectious pop has won them tons of support on a grassroots and college radio level. And for good reason. The band's songs are filled with purity and void of any pretension; guitar pop in its truest sense. While the record is extremely tight musically, there is a friendly looseness in their material that only emphasizes the record's luster. The music, lighthearted at times, is sincere and refreshing from beginning to end. Standout gems include "State Of My Mind," "Season's Refrain," and "Sunflower Grove."

Ivy, "Lately," Seed We've raved about this NYC trio's impeccable, pristine pop for months now, as they possess a sound so clean and incredibly alluring that's impossible to resist. "Get Enough," their debut 7", received massive college play, and the band has already started recording their debut full-length to be produced by Ultra Vivid Scene's Kurt Ralske. In your hands now is this wonderful EP with all its charm and elegance, and it behooves you to take notice. The combination of Parisian Dominique Durand's vocals with hauntingly airy guitar lines and a confident overall stance is what does it for us. Check out "Wish It All Away," and "Can't Even Fake It."

Sheryl Crow, "All I Wanna Do," A&M The jury is unanimous as to A&M's tremendous effort in taking Sheryl to the level she's at (over 300,000 records). And your listeners are undoubtedly dying to hear what's in store for her next. An upbeat, totally catching track, this one is poised to make her presence felt in the format once again. Sheryl goes on the road headlining this summer, while also opening for some Eagles and H.O.R.D.E. dates. WEQX's Gary Schoenwetter comments, "A&M sent us 13 copies of it, so I'd feel kind of guilty if I didn't add it. But seriously, I think it's a great follow up to 'Leaving Las Vegas.' We've been getting a fabulous reaction to it. She is definitely not a one hit wonder."

Frente!, "Labour Of Love," Mammoth/Atlantic From the moment the band burst onto the scene a few months back, airplay was split between this track and "Bizarre Love Triangle." Even as "Bizarre" blew up all over the place, stations supporting "Labour" were enjoying huge success. Well, now's the time to put this band over the top and reclaim this artist as yours, blowing the cross-town CHR out of the water. "Labour" serves as the perfect showcase for Angie Hart's vocals, and manifests itself as a prime example of the band's originality. Guaranteed to put aside all those "novelty" outcries.

Honky, "The Ego Has Landed", (ZTT, U.K.) Fuckin' incredible is the best way to describe this album in two words or less. This album has more hits than a joint (not to say I do that kind of stuff...HONEST!). Check out "The Whistler", "Supatight Love", "Love Thy Neighbor" and about six other great tracks. Reigning from Doncaster, England and being relatively undiscovered in the rest of the world does not take away from this talented duo. Honky are going to explode on a global scale. The entire album is very street orientated with a hip, mass-appeal edge that is rhythmic in its entirety. A smash hit album from the next hot band from Europe. GUARANTEED!

Ariel, "Let It Slide", (RCA, U.K.) Don't let this bubbly alternative track slip past your desk. An alternative track with a pop twist makes this a rather accessible record for mainstream radio. Great guitar hook with a sensible pop approach and catchy vocals all add to the flavor of "Let It Slide". Currently only available as an import.

Wrecxx N Effect w/ Apache Indian "Wrecxx Shop", (MCA, U.K.) What do you get when you mix a groovy hip-hop band with a ragga sensation...a #1 record. Definitely more of a Ragga/Top 40/Crossover and club track for the cutting-edge and mainstream programmers. Very infectious with four mixes to groove your listeners and make this a number one requesting track makes it a must play even for the braindead. Look for a big impression on the charts when it receives a statewide release.

Roachford, "Only To Be With You", (Sony, U.K.) This is the title track taken from this London based bands third album. One could conceive this album and track as being very reminiscent of Living Color and Tracy Chapman blended together. Roachford have received great reviews in the U.K. and certainly are a bunch of talented young lads. A good daytime and afternoon track to appeal to many of your female listeners.

Deadly Sins, "We Are Going On Down", (Ffreedom, U.K.) Put on your space suit and take a trip...cause "We Are Going On Down". This techno track is very catchy and unique unlike other repetitive techno bands. This one is radio friendly and has a hook that could make this an alternative or club classic.

The big news this week is the signing on of 96.5 The Peak, KXPX in Denver, and Bruce Jones leaving KNNC to become Music Director at the new station. Using the moniker "Denver's Rock Alternative," the station will focus on core rock alternative groups, NOT the adult-leaning direction that everyone believed. Jones will handle afternoons, PD Doug Clifton is set for middays, Denver institution Pete MacKay handles the morning shift, and Jackie Selby is set for nights. Their first four songs were "Talk About The Passion," "Steam," "Once in a Lifetime," and "These Are Days." How will this affect KTCL, who's had some incredible ratings of late? It'll be interesting, no doubt. Taking over for Jones at KNNC is former APD Lynn Lawless, and Mike Peer stays on as Music Director... Congratulations once again to LIVE 105 for more killer numbers. In the Accuratings released last Monday, LIVE 105 was leading the pack in two primary adult categories. LIVE 105 was #1 adults in 18-34 and 18-49. In 25-54 results, the station is second among FM music stations. 12+ numbers are a massive 4.9. All this is pre-KOME, of course. Will the station be able to hold on?... Jimmy Fernandez, bass player with the God Machine, died on May 23. He was admitted to the Royal Free Hospital in London on Friday, May 20th, 1994 suffering from a severe migraine. Upon registering at the hospital he slipped into a deepening coma and was ultimately put on a life support machine. The cause of death to be a cancerous brain tumor. Jimmy Fernandez was born in Los Angeles in 1965 and grew up in San Diego where he formed the God Machine with childhood friends Robin Proper-Shepard and Ronald Austin. The band moved to London in 1990, signing to Fiction Records in December 1991. Three EP's were released prior to their 1993 debut album "Scenes From The Second Story". The judge notes Slick had a long history of alcohol abuse and was drunk with a blood alcohol level of 0.18 when she waved the gun at an officer investigating a call at her home in Tiburon, north of San Francisco. At the sentencing hearing Slick said she "would like to say how sorry I am to all involved that this incident happened." As part of her sentence, Slick will have to go to four Alcoholics Anonymous meetings a week for three months.

Trial is underway in Los Angeles in a lawsuit filed by Bo Diddley against the estate of his former manager. Diddley claims mismanagement of personal funds and he's seeking commission on past royalties as well as at least $75,000 in damages. He also wanted to nullify an agreement signed in 1991 giving then-manager Martin Otelsberg sole control over Diddley's finances. Otelsberg died six months after the agreement was signed. The complaint alleges Otelsberg "comingled" his money with Diddley's, often using Diddley's money to pay his own expenses.

Irish singer Chris DeBurgh, whose "Lady In Red" is one of the most popular songs at weddings in Britain, has admitted having an affair with a 19-year-old student. "Lady In Red" was written for DeBurgh's wife, Diane. The London Sun newspaper reported that DeBurgh is "besotted with" teenager Maresa Morgan and wrote his latest single, "Blond Hair, Blue Jeans," about her. In the song, DeBurgh sings about how he wants to make love to a beautiful blonde who "lives in my neighborhood." "I have been seeing Maresa regularly for several months. She is very, very important to me," the Sun quotes DeBurgh as saying. "I met her when she became our nanny last September. My wife obviously knows her because she worked for us, but she doesn't know that I see Maresa frequently." The newspaper's account says DeBurgh claims the physical part of the relationship is over, but adds the two were seen at a Dublin apartment building four times in three days last week. In an interview on Irish radio a few days after the report, DeBurgh said his wife was "very, very angry." "We are both determined to make a go of this marriage, and we are both determined that our little children do not suffer," DeBurgh said. "I am extremely lucky in as much as I have a very strong and loving wife. There are some wives, who by now would have changed the locks on the door, taken the kids off to America, done all sorts of excluding things. I want to face the music, and I need to feel her rage and anger — and rightly so. She is a dedicated wife and mother."

David Byrne says he wrote the track "Buck Naked" on his new self-titled album when his wife's sister, designer Tina Chow, was dying of AIDS. Byrne says the song is "kind of born out of that grief and confusion."

Goudreau says he had nothing to do with the new Boston LP. "We've been gearing up for our own album, which we've put a lot into over the past year or so," Goudreau says.

Hootie & The Blowfish releases an album this fall (on Atlantic Records), called "Cracked Rear View." The title comes from a John Hiatt lyric that says, "It was the life that I was living, it's a cracked rear view." "It's about looking at your past and dealing with the problems you've had and making the best of them," says guitarist Mark Bryan. "Things only suck if you want them to suck." The band recorded the album in Los Angeles.

Toad The Wet Sprocket have covered KISS' "Rock & Roll All Nite" for the upcoming "Kiss My Ass" covers album. Gene Simmons asked them to contribute after he saw the band at a New York club. "The one thing Gene said to me was that he wanted us to do it so it was reflective of our sound rather than the hard rock sound of Kiss," says vocalist and bass player Dean Dinning. "So what we did was take a look at ourselves and identify the cliches that we lean on and attach them to the definitive Kiss song 'Rock & Roll All Nite.'" What we eventually got was a song that sounds like a campfire anthem with acoustic guitars and sweet harmonies on the chorus."

Road manager Roderick Rountree and his assistant, Quadree El-Amin, were trying to take the men to hotel security when Babbington shot Rountree and El-Amin. Charges against Babbington's two companions were dismissed because of insufficient evidence.

The U.S. 9th Circuit Court of Appeals has ruled that songwriter David Jackson Jr. waited too long to file a lawsuit claiming he co-wrote Three Dog Night's hit song "Joy To The World," which was written by Hoyt Axton. The federal appeals court said Jackson should have filed his lawsuit before 1975. In his 1991 lawsuit, Jackson claimed Axton used to acknowledge his co-writing during live performances while refusing Jackson's request for a share of royalties.

The National Museum of American History in Washington, D.C., has opened an exhibit called "Guitars In American Popular Music." Over a dozen guitars are on display in the exhibit, which reviews the guitar's use in music since it was introduced to North America by Spanish settlers in the 1600s. Among the guitars on display is a neon yellow solid body electric guitar designed for Prince in 1984.

Seal says he didn't intend to wait three years to release a follow-up to his debut LP, which sold three million copies worldwide and yielded the international hit "Crazy." "It's just been one of those things that have taken longer than I thought it would," Seal says. "The most important thing was that I got it right. It's not just me who is the perfectionist, (producer) Trevor (Horn) is a perfectionist, too. I trusted in him as the producer to give me the record I wanted." The new album is currently number one in Britain. After the release of his first LP, Seal moved to Los Angeles. He drove his car off a cliff, but walked away without a scratch. Shortly after the accident he contracted pneumonia, then he was a witness to a shooting. "I find it very difficult to write about my experiences in a positive way while I'm experiencing them," Seal adds. "I'm not terribly in love with Los Angeles. It's good for working. There are some brilliant musicians in Los Angeles. There's a certain lifestyle, you can move to L.A. and kind of live the American dream. But, I'm not crazy about Los Angeles. I couldn't live there." There's less anger on Seal's follow-up LP. "Maybe I've been suppressing my anger, or maybe I don't have as much anger as I had before," he says. "Maybe I haven't felt that much angry in the last three and a half years. I did get angry quite recently about Kurt Cobain's death. I saw it as a kind of a waste and a shame, really."

Boatright, a former Miss Black Georgia, testified on behalf of Tyson.

he Rage Against Racism Carnival, held at London's Brockwell Park was a massive success. Over 130,000 people from all over Britain attended the event, which was organized by the Anti-Nazi League. The ANL say the costs of staging the Carnival, which was partly organized by Metropolis Music, were met by a combination of donations collected on the day and other gifts, including some from figures such as David Bowie. However, the Carnival nearly didn't take place because the local government of Lambeth Council were concerned about the effects of rain in the days running up to the event. The council were worried Brockwell Park might turn into a mud bath, but backed down when confronted by the idea of thousands of people gathering with nothing to do.

Billy Bragg and S*M*A*S*H entertained crowds from a float as they marched to the Carnival itself. Local police did attempt to stop them playing, but eventually relented. Shortly afterwards, a policeman escorting the float could be seen singing along as Bragg ran through a version of The Small Faces' 'All Or Nothing.' This somewhat incongruous sight led to Bragg quipping: "Look at him. He must be an ex-mod!" Performing at the Carnival itself were the Bhangra band Achanak, African Headcharge, Billy Bragg (again!), Urban Species, Credit To The Nation, The Manic Street Preachers, and The Levellers.

Afterwards, Mark of The Levellers explained his feelings about the Carnival and the difficulties of political action in the nineties to the New Musical Express: "We know three times more than what anyone in 1968 knew. That makes for a more futile feeling, but when you look around today you know that hundreds of thousands of other people feel angry. The Manics are the most cynical fucks in the world and they are here. There's a lot of hope. I always will be optimistic."... Gallon Drunk frontman James Johnston will join Nick Cave And The Bad Seeds when they tour America as a part of Lollapalooza. However, Johnston will not be joining the Bad Seeds on a permanent basis. He has stressed he is filling in for Blixa Bargeld. Bargeld has other commitments in Germany during that period. Johnston says the tour does not endanger the future of Gallon Drunk and also told Melody Maker he would have to save up for a new guitar because: "I can't turn up there with something I bought in a junk shop which is going to fall to pieces."... Pop Will Eat Itself are to perform two free shows for fans after they were forced to pull out of Brighton Carnival '94, a festival held in Brighton, south England. PWEI had to cancel because computer equipment they had hired — their own computers were in London — did not work. Fans who can produce a ticket stub for Carnival '94 will get a free ticket to a Brighton show in July. The extra shows are being organized in conjunction with the anti-Nazi League. Elsewhere, the University Of Sussex Student Union, who organized Carnival '94, have defended their decision to hold the event on the same weekend as the ANL's Rage Against Racism Carnival. A spokesperson commented: "At the time our Carnival was booked, the ANL gig was due to happen much earlier. They then postponed their gig onto our pre-booked date. As soon as we discovered, we let them know, but unfortunately it was too late for us to change." Carnival '94 was dedicated to God Machine bassist Jimmy Fernandez who died recently. The band had been due to play at the event...

The Farm have been explaining to fans why their latest album Hullabaloo is so expensive in British shops. The band pointed out that the album is currently available only to import and they have no say over the price. The album will be given a domestic release by WEA next month. A single 'Messiah' will precede it...The New Musical Express is to sponsor NME TV at this year's Glastonbury Festival. The station will provide news, interviews, reports, videos, and information via a screen erected at the side of the main Pyramid Stage... Fun-Da-Mental, the British rap act, have been talking to the New Musical Express about their recent trip to South Africa. The band's Blacka D says: "People have a spirit of hope. Nobody spoke to me of a spirit of revenge." Whilst in South Africa, Fun-Da-Mental visited the townships of Soweto and Alexandra: "You just had to break down, seeing the blatant repression of people for no other reason than color." An example of this kind of racism was provided by a phone-in. A man claiming to be from neo-Nazi group AWB commented to Blacka D: "Name one invention by a black man in the whole course of history."... PJ Harvey has signed a management deal with Principle Management, the company run by Rick McGuinness and Shelia Roche, who also handles U2. McGuinness commented: "Shelia and I have been fans of Polly's for some time now. We watched every one of her shows when she opened for U2 last year in Europe. She's brilliant, she's original and she's going to have an amazing career." PJ Harvey are currently working on songs for a new album which is scheduled for release by Island early in 1995... Deborah Harry has been dropped by Chrysalis Records, her UK label. No reason has been given for the decision, but it seems likely the company were disappointed with sales of Harry's latest solo album Depravation. Harry was also dropped recently from her US label Sire... Erasure frontman Andy Bell is to appear as the actress Judy Garland in a forthcoming London stage play. Bell will star in 'The Night They Buried Judy Garland,' which is set in The Stonewall Inn, New York on the night of Garland's death. The gay club was raided by police that evening and a fight ensued between police and gays who had gathered to mourn Garland. The play is meant as a celebration of the birth of the gay rights movement. Bell will perform Garland songs in the production, which runs from June 8-26 at the Shaw Theater, Euston Road, north London... The Auteurs frontman Luke Haines is working on music to accompany a forthcoming Channel 4 network television documentary about suburban transvestites. Scheduled for broadcast this summer, the program is directed by Lindy Heyman who has also worked on Auteurs videos. Recently, The Auteurs were forced to cancel a show in Newcastle, north England because Haines was suffering from problems with his throat... Siouxsie And The Banshees guitarist Jon Klein was beaten up in Soho, central London on Saturday,

May 28. Klein, who used to be in The Speciman, was taken to the hospital by Banshees' drummer Budgie and had to have 17 stitches on a head wound. He also suffered a black eye and other cuts. Klein was beaten up outside of Fred's nightclub after an argument with former Dead Dr Alive singer Pete Burns. The Banshees had gathered at the club for a band meeting after a day spent working on their new album with producer John Cale. Speaking to Melody Maker, Klein said Siouxsie Sioux and Burns had been talking when the subject turned to the recent dismissal of Klein's sister from her job as the manager of a health club where Burns was a member. Klein says Burns' attitude was unsympathetic, despite the fact that his sister had helped with Burns' wardrobe in the past. At this point, Burns' wife joined the conversation. Eventually, the two were outside the club and Klein poured a glass of beer over her head, although he cannot remember why! Klein picks up the story: "I just felt several blows to the head and the body. I didn't manage to get off the floor until they were pulled off by Budgie. As far as I can make out, they wouldn't have stopped beating me if it weren't for him. It must have been fairly obvious after the first boot or two that I wasn't going to get up. I was in a state of catatonic shock." Klein did not see his attackers. However, he claims he saw Pete Burns walking down the street shouting, "You bald fuck." After treatment and only two hours of sleep, Klein returned to work in the studio and says: "I'd like to put it on record that I did get a take down that day."... Peter Waterman, the British dance producer who helped to launch the singing careers of such figures as Kylie Minogue and Jason Donovan, has bought The Charter And Special Train Unit from British Rail for 10 million pounds sterling. The nationalized rail system was recently split into different franchises and put up for privatization. Waterman has been interested in railways since he was a child and says he wants to "rekindle the magic of rail travel in the fifties at an affordable price." The part of BR he has purchased is responsible for running special excursions. Plans for newly named Waterman Railways include running restored diesel locomotives. Waterman, who used to work as a fireman for BR, has an extensive collection of these old engines... Manic Street Preachers fans in Thailand were upset recently when guitarist Richey James cut lines in his chest with a knife for a live performance. Manics fan Mudfong explained to Face journalist Andrew Smith: "It's traditional that Thai people cut themselves. But they do it as a last resort when they're really miserable." The Thais were also confused by the band's anti-royalty stance. The Thai royal family is noted for its work with the rural poor... Crowded House frontman Neil Finn has been talking to Time Out's Laura Lee Davies about the recent departure of drummer Paul Hester. Finn says: "Paul had been unhappy for some time and it was becoming quite a burden on the band, waking up each morning and not knowing if Paul would be up for it. There was a certain edginess about the shows which crossed the line of entertainment I think! We'd probably quite willingly do that most of the time for the sake of the odd, ahem, transcendental moment, but there was an unease which I think even the audience started to sense. The day it happened I felt this huge sense of relief and I think he was quite taken aback when we were like, 'Okay, then, off you go.' I don't feel bitter about it because everyone closed ranks and there was a really positive vibe that night. I was really excited about what might happen."... The Umbrella Seminar/Independence Day is a seminar which will take place at London's Columbia Hotel on July 2/3. The event is intended as a forum for discussion of the state of the independent music business. Such figures as journalist, producer and former Membrane singer John Robb and Play It Again Sam founder Michael Lambot will take part. A series of shows to coincide with the seminar are currently being finalized.

CARTER ALAN, WBCN, BOSTON

Beginning this week, Steve Strick and I will be taking our Music calls on MONDAY from 11AM-5PM instead of Wednesdays. We've done this because so many of you have commented to us that you'd like to be able to contact us immediately before our Music Meetings on Tuesday. So, once again, our new Music Call day is Monday from 11AM-5PM. (617) 266-1111.

Adds are still available at or around 5:30 PM on Tuesdays at (617) 424-8865... Love the STP album—"Vaseline" continues the full frontal assault of "Big Empty" to the max. On the tails side, "Pretty Penny" is a beautiful acoustic facet to this band's growing reputation... The Boston album yields a few rockin' tracks that have cemented this band's return to radio. We've latched onto "Surrender To Me" and the "Walk On" medley... Love the third Screamin' Cheetah Wheelies track-looking forward to the H.O.R.D.E. show when these guys return... Talking about H.O.R.D.E., the Allmans' CD is solid and strong on the air. We're planning to drop in the title track—it might be 9 minutes long, but it sounds like it's got all the key elements that made Jessica such an Album and Classic Rock Radio smash!

PEG POLLARD, KIOZ, SAN DIEGO

So I got to see the Eagles this past weekend! Holy shit it's a Joe Walsh kinda evening. What an incredible show. I had goose bumps most of the night. Henley goofed the opening line of "Boys of Summer" and he didn't even freak out! Don't miss the show when they play near you. Thanks a million to Mia and Barry for the awesome seats... Geez, is Mike Halloran pissed that he missed the boat with STP. He's trying to get over it by latching on to any band with San Diego roots, and trying to lock us out, to the point of hurting the band's career. The bands are catching on Mike! Get a grip. You're a worm.

J.D. KXPT, LAS VEGAS

A thanks goes out to Lisa Michelson at Elektra for setting up the killer Eagles promo thing. It's gonna be a huge promo with autographs etc. It wouldn't happen if it wasn't for Elektra, thanks again. Also, the Pick Of The Week is Iguana's "Fortune Teller" from the Jimmy Hollywood Soundtrack.

MIKE LUOMA, WIZN, BURLINGTON

Wow! So that's the McGathy bash! Thanks aplenty to Bill and Rose and the crew for a wonderful time in N.Y.C.! I'm still a bit shell shocked, but I'm glad I was coherent enough to catch Warren Haynes jamming on "Feelin' All Right" and "Ride the Tide" with the Screamin' Cheetah Wheelies (and Binky too — nice job!) after 3 a.m. at Le Bar Bat! Letting it all hang out and just ripping through wave after wave of improvised leads and phrasing, warming up the room like that, that's what this is all about! Many thanks again to the entire McGathy promotions clan for one hell of a time!... That said, on to the tunes! Kiss My Ass! My first live concert experience was seeing Kiss at the Providence Civic Center back in '79 (New England was the opener...remember them?). Kiss was into that quasi-disco "I was made for loving you, baby" period, but they still had the make-up on, and Gene Simmons still breathed fire, spit blood, and flew up to the rafters to sing "God of Thunder" (yes, I was a member of the Kiss Army!)... Now, I'm glad that Kiss is still a going concern, but to me their glory days were during those days of makeup, glitz and fire. I loved those old albums, Destroyer, Love Gun, Rock and Roll Over, Alive and Alive II... they were great back then, and I, like the musicians now stepping up for Kiss My Ass, were at the perfect age to have the tunes indelibly etched into our psychies (like some kinda psychic tattoo, I guess). So this is the Kiss we celebrate on Kiss My Ass! That Kiss, those days... These new versions of classic Kiss cuts are completely cool, with a hipness factor most stodgy old AORs would kill for! Lenny leads the way, adding cool upon cool by first doing the tune, then doing it like Sly, then having Stevie Wonder on it... it's so cool we're almost at absolute zero here! "Deuce" is only the start, too. Everybody's talking about Toad's reworking of "Rock and Roll All Night," and it looks like Kiss will actually get us to play Garth Brooks (who woulda thunk it?); "Hard Luck Woman," with Kiss accompanying Ol' Garth, sounds like a record Rod Stewart would have killed to record. The Toad and Garth and Extreme's slick "Strutter" all go into our jock choice category, as we delve into Kiss My Ass!... One final note, unrelated to all above: "Sample in a Jar" by Phish, from Hoist, is the best new song I've heard in years! Okay, I'm biased. So what. I know true greatness when I hear it, and this song is fucking amazing. Can I say that? Fucking amazing! Yup, guess so. Elektra will be bringing you "Sample" as the follow up to "Down With Disease." If you want your station to sound fucking amazing, I suggest you best be playing this tune! Okay, I'm done. Stick a fork in me.

TJ BRYAN, WDHA, CEDAR KNOLLS

Sweep! Sweep! Sweep! The Royals took three from New York, including the all-important McGathy game! Thanks to Bill & Rose for another stellar weekend extravaganza. The jam between the Screamin' Cheetahs Wheelies & Warren Haynes (Binky, too!) was most definitely the highlight of the musical entertainment... The Jesusmaster stopped by with Gilby Clarke last week to chat about his forthcoming record. Also got a peek into the new Stones record & the reissues. Groovy stuff, indeed... Are you playing the new Joan Jett yet? If not, why?!?!? Joan's new record rocks my world, and it should your as well... Pearl Jam's "Yellow Ledbetter" (from the "Jeremy" import single) goes in this week. Reaction has been great so far. After cooking five or six tunes from Vs., this is something different from a core band that our audience is really digging. There's also a live version on the CD single of "Dissident" for your listening pleasure... If you have a blues feature make sure you check out the new Van Morrison live disc. Sugar Blue doing the Stones "Miss You" (he played harp on the original version), as well as Fleetwood Mac in Chicago from 1969. As always, it's been a business doing pleasure with you!

CATHY FAULKNER, KISW, SEATTLE

It just gets better and better every year... only the Yankees have yet to win! All my love and respect to Bill and Rose McGathy for another FINE party. Every aspect of the weekend was wonderful and I enjoyed "schmingling" with everyone. Special thanks to Dave Ross, Sky Daniels, Michael Papalli, Pam Edwards, Gary Poole, Donna G (my shopping hero), Debbie (Ms Kodak moment) Applebaum, Michelle Meisener and Jeff Cook. Phin, Steve and the whole McGathy gang, thank you for your hospitality... Michael Prince... behave yourself!... Happy to be playing Boston "Surrender to Me"... Smashing Pumpkins has a great follow-up in "Rocket" and Pantera's best track ever in "Five Minutes Alone."

MIKE WILHIDE, WIZN, BURLINGTON

I hope I got everyone, thanks a million and here's to Foundations and Mc10!... P.S. Slayer!!!

STEVIE LYNNE, WVVV, BLACKSBURG

As luck would have it, I had scheduled my vacation for this week months ago not realizing I would need a full week of R/N/R to recover from the McGathy weekend! BIG thanks to everyone involved and I just want to say every band lived up to expectations, (which were high)! Gilby Clarke rocks and the Warren Haynes/Screamin' Cheetah Wheelies jam - all I could say was WAAAAAAHHH! (But Warren said that was OK, it says it all)... Also, special thanks to the guys of Valentine Smith for the fun on Sunday (and if anyone hasn't checked out the EP or live show from this band yet - DO IT)!.. 'Til next time, WAAAAAAHHH!

GUY DARK, WHDQ, CLAREMONT, NH

We added the Kravitz cover of the Kiss classic "Deuce" and I'm sure that it won't be the only track from Kiss My Ass to grace the New Hampshire/Vermont airwaves this summer! I also like the Mighty Mighty Bosstones' take on "Detroit Rock City." Just think, in the 70's, when Kiss was at its peak of popularity, they were lambasted by the critics who probably thought that Emerson, Lake, and Palmer were the cat's meow!.. In the "we couldn't wait because the song's great" department: "Sample in A Jar" from Phish. Dig the "Pictures of Matchstick Men" intro!.. Looking forward to the Metallica/Danzig/Suicidal tour to descend upon the Granite State on the 12th. Bob Dole never generates this much excitement when he comes up here to Bubba-Bash!

NAT LAMP, KUPD ARIZONA

McGathy promotions, the Yankees, their fans, everyone at the McGathy party, and the entire city of New York rules... June 3, 4, & 5 was rockin'!!! A big thanks to our two most gracious hosts, Bill and Rose McGathy, you're fabulous... Gin Blossoms, Lenny Kravitz, Garth Brooks, oh hell the entire Kiss My Ass CD is excellent... The Meat Puppets performance, Saturday night (6/4) at Le Bar Bat should put "We Don't Exist" on the radio... Stone Temple Pilots Purple CD is the goods, "Interstate Love Affair," "Silvergun Superman," "Still Remains." Lie back, listen, and enjoy... see ya...

LARRY MAC, KZRX-PHOENIX

Greetings from the desert! You haven't lived until you've heard The Mighty Mighty Bosstones cover of "Detroit Rock City" on the new Kiss My Ass compilation. Mike Muir is proving once again that he is one of the hardest working people in rock n' roll... A new Infectious record and a Suicidal album at the same time! New records that we believe will warm up the Arizona desert hotter than it already is this summer... The Wildhearts, Beastie Boys, Therapy, Stompbox, Downset (great song, but can somebody get me an edit without the word "mutherfucker" in it). Alice Cooper's new record The Last Temptation actually taps into some more Arizona homegrown talent. Alice actually wrote some songs with former Icon guitarist and songwriter Danny Wexler. Will Danny be in touring with Alice... he ain't sayin'!.. For phone action check out the Love/Hate record. S.T.P., Soundgarden, The Rollins Band, Prong, and Soundgarden... Until next time... Keep Cool!

J.D., WONE, AKRON

The-Pick-Hit-To-Click-Of-The-Week... The Clarks "Cigarette."

BELINDA SIMMONS, KEZE, SPOKANE, WA

Our night guy, Geoff Scott and I, were just talking about what a blast we had at "Livestock" last weekend (it's an outdoor festival featuring 9 bands at Eastern Washington University.) One of the bands that performed was Inflatable Soule. All throughout their set I'm thinking I can't believe they're not signed to a major label! (I even forgot I was on my way to one of the food booths when they went on... and I was hungry, man.) Geoff and I both picked up their new CD—I'm sharing mine with the station so not just me, but our listeners can also enjoy Inflatable Soule's music. In case you didn't make a note of Silver Management's number when KISW's Cathy Faulkner gave it out last week: (206) 623-9268. Call you'll thank us in the morning.

GREG O'BRIEN, WPDH, POUGHKEEPSIE, NY

A big hug and thanks to all at McGathy promotions for a fine and festive time this pass weekend. It is always a pleasure to hang with my two best buds in the biz; Jeff Gillis from Albany's 'PYX' and 'DHA's T. J. Bryan. But the nerve of the Yanks getting swept!.. On the music front, Live's "Selling the Drama" should and could be the record of the summer... I can honestly say I have been waiting for the new Boston record like I'm waiting for a root canal, but it seems the audience is digging it so who am I to say... Toad The Wet Sprocket has always worked well for us and "Fall Down" is no different. Oh!! Just shot myself in the foot!! Oh Boy! See Ya!!!

KEVIN WALSH, WVVV, BLACKSBURG, VA

Greetings, friends and neighbors! I just wanted to check in and say, "Thank You!!" to Bill and Rose McGathy for a fabulous weekend in NYC. I met lots of terrific people, heard lots of great music, and got a couple of exquisite hangovers... The tenth anniversary is next year and I'm all over it! Put my name on the list now!!!! Also many thanks to Lee Arnold, Mike Lyons, Neal Mirsky and the rest of the alumni of WORJ/Orlando ("The rare medium that's well done.") for letting me hang out with them during the Yankee game. "ORJ was a great station and it was a real thrill for me to meet you guys... Now, if you excuse me, I'm going to find someplace dim and quiet and finish recuperating from the weekend. See ya'!

JIM MCQUINN, ALEX LUKE, SARAH CLARKE, KPNT, ST. LOUIS

Another week, another music meeting... Hmm, should we add the Joy Division rip off, the Zeppelin rip off, or the Spinners rip off? Any rep who can name all three songs we're talking about will not get a free add, but will be considered nearly as hip as Glauber... Another note to you record weasels. Please make sure to play all three St. Louis stations off of each other. We're happy to hear that both of the other guys are 'this close' to over 15 records each week. Thanks for your help... Just a little grief to get off the Collective Soul-chests of the point. Another thing we really dig here-when we're penalized for breaking bands early by having our free shows turned into neutral events when the others finally get around to adding a hit. Speaking of adds, if you'd like to find out what Q104 is adding in 6 weeks, just call our addline today... In other news at the point, we've finally declared call hours. They follow: Alex-Wed/Thur/Fri 11-noon, Jim-Thur 12-2, and Sarah-Wed/Thur 12-1. Peace, Love and Arbitron Books. PS. we added the Spinners rip off.

DEAN CARLSON, KMTT, SEATTLE

Greetings from Seattle... and hello again. Not only so we have some great adds to report... this is my first week as music director at the Mountain... after leaving the M.D. seat at KRXR two years ago. It's an absolute treat to be involved in the progressive-album format... as far as I'm concerned this is the future of AOR... By the way, our On The Mountain CD, chock full of exclusive live tracks by numerous AAA artists, went top 5 at Tower Records in Seattle. Couple that with some great adds this week and we're looking at one hell of a summer in front of us... Most listened to CD in my office has been the new Lloyd Cole, and we've added "Too Much Of A Good Thing"... Also this week: David Knopfler's "Mercy With The Wine", which sounds like it could've been a bonus cut off the first Dire Straits album, good stuff!... Former Blaster and X dude, Dave Alvin gets the nod with Barn Burning and check out northwest artist Pete Droge, he's from Seattle but moved to grunge-free Portland... Give this CD a listen... we added "Straylin Street" to start off... We shifted tracks with Toad The Wet Sprocket to "Something's Always Wrong" and added another cut by Boz Scaggs with "You Got My Letter." Seal leads the pack in top 5 phones, followed by the Indigo Girls, Boz Scaggs, The Pretenders, and Phish. That's all for now.

BRUCE WARREN, WORLD CAFE

Oh My Gawd!!!! Triple A in El-Lay. We're all believers. You go Dennis!...Five reasons you should play Velocity Girl's new Simpatico on Sub Pop: 1 - They're cute. 2 - They know more about pop culture trivia than you do. 3 - Their songs remind me of The Association and The Shirelles and Marshall Crenshaw. 4 - They're the next Gin Blossoms. (did I just say that?) 5 - Amy from Sub Pop will personally force you to listen to Tad outtakes if you don't. Check out the Girlie's on "Sorry Again," "There's Only One Thing Left To Say," and "I Can't Stop Smiling"... We're diggin' Volume 1 of Razor & Tie's In Their Own Words. Must spins are Graham Parker's "No Woman, No Cry," Jimmy Webb's "Wichita Lineman," and Barrett Strong's "I Heard it Through The Grapevine"...Where does the soul of Brazil, the street sounds of funk and hip-hop, and gorgeous folk-pop all co-exist? Why, on the new collaboration between Brazilian legends Caetano Veloso and Gilberto Gil, Tropicalia 2. It's an Elektra/Nonsuch thing...Wow, two weeks ago Al Kooper came up to the Cafe studios and blew us away with his stories about "the old days" with Dylan, and as a producer for bands like The Tubes and Lynyrd Skynyrd...If you thought that was cool, wait till you hear our session with Peter Jespersen - he of Twin Tone, Medium Cool, and the guy who signed Soul Asylum and The Replacements. In a couple weeks on the cafe, Peter waxes about the "old" post-punk days in Minneapolis as well as some of his newer projects like Duane Jarvis and Logan...And speaking of Logan, his album Bulk is so thick with great songs it makes us sick. Imagine Dylan and the Band's Basement tapes, a little Exile on Main Street thrown in, with the good ol' southern irony of writer Flannery O'Connor. Bulk up with "15 Years In Indiana," "Female Jesus," and his cover of Neil Young's "On The Beach." We will pester you for a long time on this... And finally...I was thinking - we all love these trade dialogues but how come we don't use them more to force certain issues in the format...it's sometimes so much of a bubbly, smiley face, happy hour it makes me want to break a bottle of fruit juicy Hawaiian Punch over someone's head and start a riot... From Philly - recently hailed as the most hostile city in the country - we're out like Leno.....

ZEB NORRIS, WXLE, ALBANY, NY

Hey everybody, long time no breath! I've been working my ass off (not that I ever had any spare butt to start with), but I've also been having a blast! XL 104.5, WXLE is tweaked up and sounding pretty good now... In fact, I sometimes have difficulty getting out of my car after driving home at the end of the day, because I don't want to miss any segues! Nevertheless, I'm aware that it's going to be a real dogfight to get an increased audience share... with the addition of WDRE to the market, we now have 7 rock based stations in a market of just over 700,000 people. That's more rock stations than New York City or Los Angeles! And none of my rock competitors are lame... although some of the A.C.s are pretty turgid...Seeing as how I'm PD/MD/Morning Man, it's a real blessing to have a strong staff. My newsman and morning show partner Paul Cashin has been easy to generate quick chemistry with, because like myself, he's an incurable smart ass. Tom Robinson does an ultra smooth job in mid-days and is production director, former WQBK and WPYX jock Jeff Beger is in afternoons, Chris Marks handles evenings, and Lee Messina is on overnights. Donna Smith does a great job in promotions, and the weekenders are also strong, we're delighted to offer a variety of speciality shows to boot. Long time local musicologist and critic Don Wilcock does a weekly interview show and is developing a blues show, our very highly rated acoustic sunrise show is put together by Mary Winnans is developing a jazz show. Which reminds me, service for any of the types of music we address in our speciality shows would be greatly appreciated!.. Maybe next time I'll have the time to (try to) be funny, but right now I've got to get back to work slaving away over a hot CD player picking all my favorite music to play on the radio. Damn, what a tough life!

JOHN HAYNES, KTCL

KTCL's big adventure Saturday, June 4th at Fiddler's Green was a huge success! Over 17,500 listeners attended and had a killer time in the sun enjoying 19 bands on two stages. This accomplished even while Denver held its Capitol Hill peoples fair, the largest outdoor gathering of the year in Colorado with over 275,000 attending Saturday and Sunday. We faxed information to all the trades, and only the Gavin mentioned our show beforehand... Where was the help from the trades in publicizing this event? I thought we were all in this together!

STEVE WOODWARD, KWVA

As I write this, I am in the middle of finals. Finals suck! Anyway, today (June 6) is my birthday and I have finals. Isn't there a law against this somewhere?.. Well, there are changes coming your way. The first of which is the phone number. The new number to call is (503)683-8399. I have the machine set up, so you can call and leave a message if I'm not there... KWVA is 24/7 for the entire summer... we don't stop for donuts around here. In fact, our metal and thrash shows are gaining so much popularity, we june be expanding our metal programming. If you have any questions about schedule, or anything for that matter, give me a call... Thanks to Phil at Z Rock affiliate KZZK for the order and chat... no hard feelings here.

ROB NICHOLSON & JULIE HOYT, CHANNEL Z

Hello from Augusta! Boy, did we have an amazing and full week last week! It kicked off with a visit and show from Peter Himmelman. What a fabulous interview, show, and man all-around! Thanks goes out to Joe Hodge from 550 Sony for bringing him by and for the great kosher dinner we had... Thursday brought Danielle Brisebois in for an interview and show at a local cafe. She was absolutely phenomenal and an amazingly sweet woman. Thanks to Don Miller of Epic and to Peter Cattsis for bringing her in and for the lovely dinner we had... Friday was the "First Friday Festival" downtown, which is held every first Friday of the month. It features local arts, crafts, and music. South By Southeast is planning a showcase in conjunction with the First Friday Festival before long. This was only the second First Friday Fest, but it has already grown remarkably since last month. This weekend brought the Children's Miracle Network Fundraiser, with which our morning show was much involved. Fortunately, the benefit was a success and hundreds of thousands of dollars were raised for the children. There was also a benefit softball game for Robbie Williams this past Saturday in which many of our D.J.'s played. Nighttime jock Reckless Eric proved to be the star of the game, and brought home a victory for our team... We did a "Win-It-Before-You-Can-Buy-It" Weekend with the new Stone Temple Pilots CD, Purple. Of course, our listeners were climbing all over each other trying to be the ninth caller through and pick up this hot item! Thanks to Myra Simpson and Todd Elmore of Atlantic for their help... That covers it for this week. Until next time, don't forget to shave that bikini area! Don't want to scare the tourists!

JOHN LENAC, ERIC SCHMIDT, KTOZ-FM, CHANNEL Z

Hello, how was your Wednesday? We had the pleasure of hanging out with Michael Been. Michael and Finn, our afternoon driver, had this amazing conversation on the air before Michael played. It sounded sooo good, I wish you could have been here. Kim Poole was...big thanks to her, everyone at Quest Records, Michael and Pat, his guitarist, for a fantastic afternoon, our receptionist was so engrossed with everything, she let D-Day slip in the door. Just kiddin' big thanks for coming by. One more thank you before you go to lunch. It's to our pal, Mary Tripodi. Thanks for lunch and the story about your vacation with Poole. Have a day...

DUG, WRFC, ATHENS

For a while on the farm, we used two milk crates as a stile so we could cross the fence. One day, as I was half over, the left-hand crate slipped. And as I hung there like an unwilling crotch of Damoclese; and as I felt the rusty bars ripping into my flesh, and as I wondered if my left gonad was still attached; and as my blood slipped down to feed the land that was dying in the Drought, one thought rose to fill my mind: Goddamnit, I want off this fucking fence... Now, whenever I'm faced with a tough decision, all I have to do is think about those two little scars on my inner thigh to remind myself of the hazards of straddling the fence. That doesn't make the decisions any easier... I sit here tonight in clothes too big and life too small and try and see how to get off this fence. I've checked the cards; they only tell me what I already know. (Divinatory foci are good sometimes, but I usually work better either free-form or with psychometry. Like you would understand, anyway...)... I list my options and the only one that makes sense is... wait, and straddle the fence until something changes. And feed the land. And I'm afraid that She's too thirsty... Anyway, I'm going to go away now... Have to prepare for interview with Jackopierce tonight, and see if I can schedule something with the Dave Matthews Band for later in the week...

JOHNATHAN L., (602)963-1796

Go Home: The Video Produced by Julian Temple in London This song is about being stalked, assaulted and fighting back. It was written in the aftermath of the tragic rape and murder of poet, Mia Zapata of the gits on July 7, 1993 in Seattle. This murder has still not been solved. A relevant song with a strong message on society today. Watch your copy now, it's brilliant!.. A Good Radio Song, Is a Good Radio Song: You most likely share Beck, Smashing Pumpkins, Pearl Jam, Counting Crows, Green Day, Meat Puppets, and others, with you AOR & CHR competition. And if you are playing Collective Soul, please don't use the excuse Joan doesn't fit.

JEFFREY NAUMANN, VIRGIN RECORDS

Snappin' Arseholes! The past two weeks have absolutely been jam-packed, being on the road promoting the forthcoming Gilby Clarke (Guns N' Roses) project with Gilby and his band. It was great seeing the likes of Eeeeedipus and the great staff at WBCN. Gilby played WBCN's Rumble and blew everyone away. This guy is really great!.. Other greetings and visits go out to: Bill "Where's your goatee" Weston; Sharon Schifino; Ron Valeri; The Mutant; Jim Herron; Ted "Birthday Boy" Edwards; Jeff "I'm glad I don't have Pneumonia" Levin; Z-100's provocative Love Phone host; Bill "Do you want some more donuts" Palmeri; Greg "We still don't know who's playing Woodstock," O'Brien; Lenny "Can I tape the Stones?" Bloch; T.J. "What a nice guy!" Bryan; and everyone from the dyslexic Hard Report. Hope I didn't miss any of you Jesus freaks. For those who have not seen or met Gilby Clarke yet, you are in for a major treat. Here's a seasoned musician with a great attitude, super personality, more stories than Bayer has aspirin, and an incredible talent with an intense will to work. His forthcoming CD is called Pawnshop Guitars, and it's a veritable suckah! "Cure Me... Or Kill Me..." his first single, is shipping at the end of the month. Make sure you get an advance copy from your Virgin rep... How could a road trip have ended on a better note than attending the ever-growing, ever-better Bill McGathy party. I think next year it will officially be called the McGathy Convention. Thanks to Bill, Rose, Phin, Binky, Steve, Studie and Corey, and all the rest involved. Great fucking blowout!.. P.S.: Voodoo Lounge can now be heard. Call Virgin. The Rolling Stones' creative juices are flowing in a big way again. This is the most musical LP the Stones have delivered in many many years. Honest.

LEA PISAGANE, ATLANTIC RECORDS, 212-275-2215

Can't think, brain numb, inspiration won't come... I know we have great records but I can't remember what they are just now. Oh right...but I'm tired of touting the same blinding success stories week after week. Trouble is we're outta records that suck just now... Check this out-the great and powerful King's X adding major hip factor (along with Type D) to the Crue tour for weeks to come. Play "Pillow" off the Dogman album-it's a monstrously gigantic anthemic piece of mind-altering soundwave hood. Whew, after that sentence, I need a shower... Prepare thyselfes for Hootie & the Blowfish, a band doing such major business live for so long that don't ask me how they didn't get picked up by a major sooner. We're lucky as shit to have 'em and when you hear "Hold My Hand" you'll clutch your heart. (Can you believe Lea compared a song to anything but SEX, ferchrissake?) Gotta go get in the shower. Think of me while I'm in there, willya?

JIM DEL BALZO, COLUMBIA RECORDS

Pink Floyd's "Take It Back" swings into high gear this week as it increases over 250 spins in BDS!!! The strong video play is prompting good request action and helping Floyd spread their magic to a new audience. The Division Bell hits 2.5 million this week and shows no sign of slowing down... Finally, the Steve Perry solo album is done. The release of the first single "You Better Wait" (I guess we did) is June 22nd. Steve will be on a month long promo tour across the U.S. with lots of radio, TV and special events along the way. It's a typical great Steve Perry event that will make millions of fans happy... Toad the Wet Sprocket and Alice In Chains continue their race up the charts. Toad is spending much of the summer on the road headlining clubs, while Alice hits the road with Metallica!... Stabbing Westward hits the road playing clubs as the record continues to get new fans every week. Requests are coming in nicely. Currently, record sales climb dramatically in every market they play. This song definitely has the goods. If you're not playing it yet, give it a try. Just look at the BDS spins. Some of the nation's most astute PDs have already discovered this great new act.

DAVE LOMBARDI, WB RECORDS

The highlight of the McGathy weekend had to be the flawless NY weather, and that's no knock against the festivities, which were great (though crowded!) as usual... If you were one of the throng that caught Joan Jett's show on the U.S.S. Intrepid (she performed at the Navy's request for a Fleet Week event celebrating the 50th anniversary of D-Day), I got nothing to say to you. If you weren't there, believe me when I say Joan looks great, sounds great and can still work a crowd like an Eskimo can work a snowblower, but to be fair, the ship (an aircraft carrier) was covered with several thousand servicemen who would've reacted positively to Dr. Joyce Brother in tights, but I still think a lot of it was Joan's and The Blackhearts' dynamic performance. Fleet Week Note: Did you know the U.S.O. still exists? It does, and it's gone grunge - the girls wear flannel shirts and Doc martens, no lie. As for radio action, adds at KIOZ, WIYY, KRXQ, WLZR, KILO, WCCC, WTUE, WPLR and KZRR, among others, tell us Joan's still got what it takes for active rock radio. And with preorders already over 130,000, a week before the album ships, it seems to me she's got what it takes for retail, too... Now on your desk is Primal Scream's "Jailbird". All you have to do is listen to this one and you'll get it, so I'll spare the sonic description. Just please make sure you listen to it, though-this is an interactive test... Biohazard orders now over 180,000!.. Candlebox over 850,000 (including a 70,000 + 5-day). I'm out.

DIANE GENTILE, ARISTA RECORDS

Thanks to Bill & Rose McGathy and staff for a tremendous weekend! Many had the opportunity to see The Crash Test Dummies open the show on Saturday night. It seemed everyone was in agreement that this band is outstandingly different and extremely talented. #1 New & Active this week at Rock Radio with WCMF, WHJY and WMMS (amongst others) now playing "Afternoons & Coffeespoons." New Rock airplay is exceeding 400 spins per week and airplay at AOR is up to 200! CD sales verify all!.. The Airheads 6 song cassette sampler arrived this week: Motorhead, 4 Non Blondes, Candlebox, White Zombie, & Primus. White Zombie's "Feed the Gods" goes to metal - airplay date June 27. Motorhead's "Born To Raise Hell" is the first single for CORE/AOR - airplay date July 11... What female artist is out there playing to packed houses, getting bombarded with fans at each show and whose album is the 59th selling CD in the country? Sarah McLachlan! Are there any other champions out there at the AOR format beside WMMS & WHDQ? Other acts that have broken largely due to word of mouth are those with the real credibility. Think about it.

MARK FISCHER, ATLANTIC RECORDS, 212-275-2085

My figurative hat goes off to Bill and Rose McGathy and the rest of the McGathy clan for hosting a truly enjoyable time at Le Bar Bat with our Screamin' Cheetah Wheelies delivering a surprise mini-jam with the likes of Warren Haynes and the honorable Binkey Phillips on guitar. Or was that Pete Townshend? This was the first event in which I was able to put names with faces, and need I say, you all are a pretty bunch... This week we saw Collective Soul at NO. #1 for the 5th consecutive week, registering the most play of the five previous weeks... Stevie Nicks comes in with another strong week that is highlighted by the fact that her record is in stores now! The album entitled Street Angel contains some great rock tracks for album radio such as "Blue Denim" and "Listen To The Rain". However, don't let other tracks distract you from the increasing success story of "Junebe Love will Change Your Mind"... Also out in stores this week is the heart pumping, sweaty hand causing Stone Temple Pilots album Purple. No. #1 at soundscan next week? Just watch. Please, Please, Please do yourself a favor, test The Hatters' "Dig the Ribbit". WAVF in Charleston, SC has had this record as their NO. #1 most played record for weeks and sales are top 5 in the market. Call Dave Rossi and hear it from the source... The Hatters' track has the instrumentation of a great Little Feat record with a Steve Miller-ish vocal harmony hook. Be on the look out for two new records this week, going for reports Tuesday... Chainsaw Kittens (love that name) "Pop Heiress Dies" and the second track from Tori Amos, "Cornflake Girl". You all know what I think about Tori. This woman can do no wrong. Album radio, this is your artist!!

SUSAN GREENWOOD, MCA RECORDS, 818-777-4118

Oh Hi! So... Live "Selling the Drama" is totally kickin' out there in radio land - not only has BDS increased dramatically...sales are totally there — THIS IS FOR REAL, PEOPLE!.. Boston...the full CD is out there, "I Need Your Love" has over 1500 BDS detections after only 3 weeks! Dig is on tour and selling loads of tickets...is your station involved?... Sass Jordan "Ugly" going for adds June 27th...have you heard the edit...it totally rules!.. McGathy party was sooo fun...many thanks to Bill, Rose and Suzanne! See ya!

JEFF COOK, CAPRICORN RECORDS, 404-873-3918

Yes, it's true, I have been to the mountain (not KMTT) and not mountains as in KBCO, but I have been to the mountain and "I have a dream." That dream is for every man and woman in America that programs a radio station to play Freddy Jones "In a Daydream." In fact, there are already so many stations in the south playing it (like WSHE, WKLS, WRFX, WRDU, WAVF, WGLF, KKYK and others) that Rosa Parks is considering becoming our spokesperson! We have a vision we have a desire and we want you to share our dream — spin this record, stand up for what's right. This record no longer deserves to be at the back of the bus! Unite, once and for all!! Make Freddy Jones a hit where you are because it's already a hit where we are and it's too late to turn back now. Can I get an amen brothers and sisters?... If you haven't played or tested the Dregs "Shapes of Things" you're asleep at the wheel. The last Dregs track was the biggest radio record of their career and you know it got requests don't you. So put it on already. And then I'll tell you about the tour... Vigilantes of Love continues to astonish and astound adult radio! So, we'll be sending you a good rockin' track from the album Welcome to Struggleville in the not too distant future. Wake up and smell the Struggleville.

JON GRIMSON, WARNER/REPRISE RECORDS INC., (615)748-8000

JON NARDACHONE, ATLANTIC (212)275-2135

I'm recovering nicely from the mega McGathy Bash this weekend!.. Many, many, many people inquired what the name of the new Overkill album, W.F.O. stands for?! It stands for The Best Heavy Metal Album Ever Recorded!!! "Fast Junkie" adds on 6/20!

MICHAEL J. SCHNAPP, EMI RECORDS, (212)492-1812

LINNEA NAN, WARNER/REPRISE METAL, 818-953-3692

Somewhere in a Daze in NYC, still not recovered from the McGathy weekend... Wondering how to prepare for a night of Dio and the beginning of the Biohazard tour/assault of the U.S. In my state of delirium I still manage to mutter Biohazard, Biohazard. Let's take it to the top!.. Atomic Opera on its way too!.. Give plays to Joan Jett. She ain't no "Spinster" and look out for the awesome L7 track "Andre." Here it comes 6/17!.. P.S. Thanks everyone for being so damn cool this weekend. It was too much!

E.J. JOHANTGEN, COLUMBIA, 212-833-4989

Napalm Death on the air, sellin' like hot cakes and soon to be on tour! If you have yet to be a part of this - your out of your head. Pantera, Sepultura, Ministry I know your playing these artists so excuses will not cut it. "Plague Rages" is the emphasis track video soon to follow... Alice In Chains "I Stay Away" VD is pure fucking genius, but would you expect anything less from the true kings of rock... Please note the Godflesh EP "Merciless" will be adding July 11 & 12 with the full LP to come in September... McGathy was joyous mayhem-one hell of a good time!

JESSE LOMBARDI, CENTURY MEDIA/DOPE, 310-396-0094

McGathy Bash 94-What a great NYC refresher. Thanks to Sudi, Bill, Rose, Corey, Mike and Phil. Oh yeah, and the McGathy Dog. Thanks to Leigh Taylor, for her excellent company. Beth Krak-thanks for the hospitality. Greg-thanks for blowing your whole expense account on my drinking binge with Kealty. Kealty-Who's getting married? Maria Cannibal Abril-what it like to be back home-psyche! Psycho-you need a cellular, so you can blow AOR calls from Metal Radio parties. All the radio people-you all rock!!! Thanks for all those drinks!.. Thanks for adding Dead Orchestra!.. New Grave full length is coming... Mayhem is coming... Graveyard Rodeo

SHERI SINCLAIR, ENERGY RECORDS, 212-695-3000

First of all, thanx to the McGathy family for a killer party... Second of all, thanx to all who are continuing to support Larva. Check out "Kia," it's a cool tune... In your mail crate soon will be an advance cassette of Pro-Pain "The Truth Hurts." Not for the air, just for your ears. More later, XOXO...

DYANA KASS, HOLLYWOOD RECORDS, 818-560-5670

Ok people. Let's review...shows with Pearl Jam, tour with Candlebox, a radio campaign that takes a licking and keeps on ticking, a sold out tour with Soundgarden and an appearance on Conan O'Brien. If you are not playing Eleven's "Heavy", "Reach Out" or "Let Down" you must be completely mental! Only truly special projects have this kind of longevity so check yourself quickly and make sure that you're on the Eleven trail... Seaweed has just completed a European tour and will be writing something very special for you soon, but until then keep things rolling with "Four"... It was so very joyous to see many of you in NYC last week and like last year, those bat bites reeked havoc on people's heads the next day...Where's the aspirin?

TOM GATES, ROADRUNNER, 212-219-0077

I guess that punk rock is all the rage again. Green Day have finally gotten the attention that they deserve by sticking to what they do best, Offspring have been "discovered" (umm, have you checked out Pennywise too?) and bidding war frenzies are breaking out over All (funny how very few people checked out "Shreen", which can be found filed under "the hit that radio missed" section)... With all of this in mind, HAVE YOU CHECKED OUT BLACK TRAIN JACK??? This band is taking off on the East Coast quite similarly to the way the aforementioned groups have broken from the West. GUARANTEE: You'll be hearing quite a bit about Black Train Jack over the next few months. The single for "Handouts" is coming and a tour with Mighty Mighty Bosstones kicks off in July. Call me if you do not have a copy of You're Not Alone and you would like to check it out.

MEG MACRAE, EARACHE 212-343-9090

Howdy y'all! Meg MacRae, the Southern Belle (yeah, right) of Earache here and, as you may know by now, I will be taking over Mr. Young's position as head honcho of radio/video promotions. That said, I am now in the middle of hell, writing my very first ever dialogue... So what's up in Earache land? A.C. (yes, I prefer to use the acronym), I know you've got it in your hot little hands so play it whydon'tcha?! I just saw them at their record release party last Sunday in NYC at Wetlands (with Buzzov*en and Eyehategod)-very entertaining to say the least. Word to the wise if you plan to catch a show-wear a helmet! Or at least bring an umbrella... Also saw Sleep last week in San Francisco-"Dopesmoker" rules!! Pitch Shifter's video for "Triad" aired on Headbanger's Ball last week... Disgust track and video; you should be playing Mother Earth. GREG DERBAS, PAVEMENT MUSIC,

Ah yes, an unbelievable trip to the big apple to hang with all of the cool metal people. It was great to finally come face to face with everyone. Well, not everyone. It does kind of suck to find out who the few were that I didn't get a chance to hook up with. There is always Foundations. Pictures are in development, so be on the lookout to see your mug in the trades... Some were lucky enough to nab a Fear of God advance. I knew I should have brought more. Don't worry the rest of you will get it this week, so watch your mail. Don't forget, the add date is June 20th. This one is even better than their first with tracks like "Beyond the Vail", "Will of Evil", and even hear a mix with the late David Koresh in track 4, "Burnt". Phoners will be on the way with a tour to follow in early August. Not only will you be able to check out Fear of God, but opens include Stressball and the new Headlock. So be prepared.

JIM KOZLOWSKI, VICEROY MUSIC,
212-465-2357

Well, today's Wednesday and Viceroyland is hopping with activity - Robert Gordon and his band are rehearsing one floor down from here in preparation for his tour in support of All For The Love Of Rock N Roll which was released this week (to all of you who've been calling every day for the past three months-it's heeere, as they say in the movies)... Meanwhile, Naked Blue, a gutsy but smooth bunch of rockers from Baltimore featuring songstress Jennifer Ferguson, are shooting the cover of their debut release Treasure and the Pearl with reknowned photographer Mick Rock (who also did the cover of the Robert Gordon title). Look for Naked Blue before the end of August... Alvin Lee continues to be hot, hot, hot at KSPN, KFVG and WOZN-check out his duets with George Harrison on "Bluest Blues" and "I Want You (She's So Heavy)"... Mick Abrahams, in addition to basking in the warm glow of airplay for his Lies release, just finished recording "The Same Way" at Roundhouse Studios in London as part of A Blues Session For Peter Green, produced by Pete Brown. Other tracks recorded thus far include "Looking For Somebody" (Snowy White), "Watcha Gonna Do" (Zoot Money), "Showbiz Blues" and "Leaving Town Blues" (Rory Gallagher), and "Rattlesnake Shake" (Vince Converse/Innes Sibun). All these tracks are, of course, by Peter Green. Kids, this project is soooo cool it's superhot! (It has to be, when we've got musicians calling out of the blue wanting to participate in it). Watch for this one early next year (you'll be hearing lots about it as time goes on)... Well, that's it from me for a couple of weeks. I'm getting married on Saturday, so from my wife-to-be, Lula, and myself...happy ears!

BY CUMMINGS & PIERCE, SST/CRUZ/NEW ALLIANCE, 310-430-7687

SST's drag queen in residence, Falling James, and the rest of the Leaving Trains, will release The Big Jinx on July 5. The album is dedicated to Chaz Ramirez who fell through a ceiling, lapsed into a coma and died during production... Transition. (yes, with a period) is a hot new band from SF. Some of you guys call 'em "skate metal." Their debut Spine came out a few weeks ago. The 39 stations who are hip enough to play T, should inspire the rest of you to break out your copies and give 'em a spin. T will tour North America this summer with Greg Ginn... Gone's remix of "Snagglepuss" from the Smoking Gun CD is breaking all the rules by sticking its nose into everybody's format. Better watch out...yours might be next...The word of the week is definitely "Dingle"... Red Dog, the debut, has truly bizarre instrumentation. If left-field is where you're at, songs like "Ba Da Da Da" and "Xylocheese" were made just for you. We dare you to sport a poker face when this stuff is on... Chuck Dukowski is like so great. We really like him. His new record with Paul Cutler and Bill Stinson called United Gang Members has terrific tunes like "Yo, Muthafucka," "Public Sex" and "I'm A Gang Member" on it. Make Chuck happy...don't file it as a rap record cuz your Beat Box jocks will be pissed.

MARNI HALPERN, ROADRUNNER RECORDS,

I want to say how great it was to finally meet some of you in person last week at the radio lunch in New York. Fitz (KIOZ)-It was amazing hanging out with you finally, and watching the BJ channel was the highlight of my whole weekend. Mike R. (A & M)-Thanx for hang'n out and listening. You are my LA bud! Jay Hughen-you kicked some serious east coast ass!! You go boyfriend!! Back to the music thing... Dog Eat Dog will be heading out with Biohazard, call for info. When their video for "No Fronts" hits Headbanger's check out JC's (singer) shirt. It displays the team who will win the Stanley Cup this year. Can you say R-A-N-G-E-R-S!.. Black Train Jack will be touring with Mighty Mighty Bosstones this August. BTJ will be recording some B-sides this week featuring some special guests on vocals... Nailbomb interviews will be set up once again with Alex Newport, so call me... Life of Agony will be out with Carcass this summer... Type O Negative, Motley Crue and Kings X are sweeping across the country together... Cynic and Cannibal Corpse are currently on the road together. I am setting up interviews for Cynic at soundcheck. There is an extra member playing with them just for the tour. Dana plays keyboards and does back up death vocals. She is completely brutal. Don't miss them... Sepultura, Pantera and Biohazard coming closer.

RICH HOLTZMAN, 4AD, LOS ANGELES,
310-289-8770

Life could not be better, the Rangers and the Knicks are in the finals and 4AD has four amazing records... You should already be playing "Hypocrite" off the new Lush CD. Lush will be doing their first shows in the U.S. since the 1992 Lollapalooza. Look for them June 13-23... The add date on the new Frank Black song, "Headache" is June 14... Lisa Germano's new CD, Happiness, is attracting new fans beyond her, already well established, AAA audience... While you are all falling all over the number of Kiss covers out there, don't neglect the best and unarguably most interesting one...Red House Painters have a new EP called "Shock Me" (Yes, that was an Ace Frehley song)... Rangers in 6. Knicks in 7.

MARIA "MOM" ABRIL, METAL BLADE

I just got back from hell and have so many folks to shout out to. First off, to all at McGathy. You throw one hell of a party. Thanks for having me... Thanks to Chris Barnes of Cannibal Corpse for the cold. Sniff... Randy from WSOU for a great Cannibal interview... Broken Hope for putting on the best show ever and dedicating "Remember My Members" to me. Classic moment... Corey & Julie for not killing me. Fingers, Dr Metal, Jeff Perry and all promoting my Cannibal dates!.. Now let's talk GWAR. "Saddam A Go-Go" is a radio song of the summer. Can we say top 3? I think yes... The Bleeding tour rages on as Cannibal Corpse comes to a location near you. Interviews and IDs are a must... SKREW's latest, Dusted, is the soundtrack of The Armageddon. Put it in and press play. Good. Now "Picasso Trigger" is the track o'choice and the video will be invading an outlet near you soon. Beats The Hell Out Of Me. Phoenix hard core. Play it. Simple... Coming soon... Desultry, Mercyful Fate, Epidemic, and Fates Warning!!! Fates is alive and kickin'. The album is due at the end of July in record stores! This band has sold over 500,000 records and there is no excuse on earth for not playing it in power. Prepare to be blown away by the forefathers of progression. Their first single, "Outside Looking In" is on its way... On the road...GWAR, Cannibal Corpse, Beats The Hell Out Of Me, SKREW, Thought Industry, Chemlab, and Epidemic. Wish you were me, huh?

WAYNE PIGHINI, EARACHE RECORDS,

By the time you all read this, the New York Rangers may have already hoisted Lord Stanley's glorious trophy over their heads and paraded around Madison Square Garden. They also may have lost a few games and made all of us die-hards suffer like usual... Speaking of pride...How proud am I to be working Disgust?! The new record Brutality of War, features former members of Discharge and Blitz. They are too punk for their own good!.. Ladies and gentlemen A.C. has entered the building and the store racks. Everyone Should Be Killed delivers 58 top 40 hits in just under an hour! If anyone needs re-issues just call me... Napalm Death, Godflesh, Morbid Angel, and Entombed are all going out for a June 21st release date. Napalm Death 7's are due out in July!.. Jay Hughen, I bow to you! You are truly the king of Sega hockey! However, I'm still a rookie and NMS is right around the corner... A.C. live.....OOOOHHHHH!!! PHAT!!! WEAR A FUCKIN' HELMET!

DAVID T., LEVIATHAN RECORDS,
(404)463-1009

Thanks for the continuing support for Imperium's Too Short A Season. If you think the track "Chemical Dreams" has ran it's course, give the title track some time. It definitely shows the more dynamic side of the band... Joe Stump is currently finishing up his next instrumental release "Night Of The Living Shred." Joe is also working with a very high profile vocalist. More news on that in very short order.

NOONSHIN, METAL BLADE MODERN,

Roadkill: Thought Industry and Chemlab are out on the road together this month... The Excops are opening up for GWAR on this leg of the tour, then GWAR will be doing their "Carnival of Chaos" tour with Jim Rose Sideshow Circus. Fun for the whole family, namely, chaotic mayhem and utter confusion... with a wrestler or two thrown in for good measure. Expect the unexpected, the bizarre, the macabre, SKREW is in Europe at the moment, but will commence their US tour late June, headlining w/Monster Voodoo Machine... Beats The Hell Out Of Me will be out here on the west coast early this summer. (My beats "pick" for this week is "Act Like A Man," still directed at the same person"... And finally, GWAR's new film, "Skulhed Face" will be released next month. Oderus is a very sexy leading man, with quite a strong screen presence, I must say. Just goes to show.....Size is everything...

LULU COHEN, THE COLLECTORS PIPELINE, (516)681-2125

Good morning... music worshippers... Last night I cruised to the Bottom Line to check out a singer/songwriter Coffeehouse (type) jam session. It was incredible. Joey Ramone held the house with his comic relief. He sang "I Wanna Be Seated," and "Sheena is a Punk Rocker." Awesome!... Check out The Uptown Horns record - it features Keith Richards, Peter Wolf, Albert Collins, Ben Houston, and more. Cut #5 - "Trust Me" and Cut #10 - "Odds Are Good That Goods Are Odd" will make you boogie!!! The record is receiving airplay on the following stations: KTCZ, KKDJ, KFOG, KZON, WOZN, WPXC, WCSX, WDHA, WMMR, WRZZ, KDBM, and many more!!! Thanks to everyone!

DAVE MAC, GUITAR RECORDINGS, (914)935-5241

I find it encouraging when radio programmers add records by artists that are not on 6 different charts. There are those who listen to tracks based on the merit of the music for their partner market, and radio station. Sure, there are questions. Is this record something the label will support with press, advertising, etc? Am I the only radio outlet in the country playing it, save for the cable station in Caribou, Maine? Does the band work at their career, or do they sit on the flop-house couch and remote-control the television between Wheel of Fortune and Love Connection, claiming it makes them write better? When they actually get a gig, will they be so bad that the promoter fires them mid-set, and replaces them with trained seals? All valid questions. I understand the paranoia. I was a P.D. for a bit, and also MD/APD. There are pressures. But why did we get into this business in the first place? Free tickets are cool. Turning people on to music that you feel something for is cooler... The Fenwicks "Member of No Tribe" is on nearly 200 radio stations. The label is behind the project completely. They are touring. Their live show is insane. They're happening at R.E.D. Try "Another Deadly Mother," and "Member of No Tribe." Join the leaders. Your audience wants to believe you lead. Thanks to Gary, Doug, Chad, and everyone at WEQX, WRPI, and WYLR for the hospitality over the weekend. The Fenwicks had a great show in Albany. A very cool town for new music, and a volatile radio market. It is new, changing...

STEVE KANTSCHIEDT, FOUNDATIONS FORUM, 212-645-1360

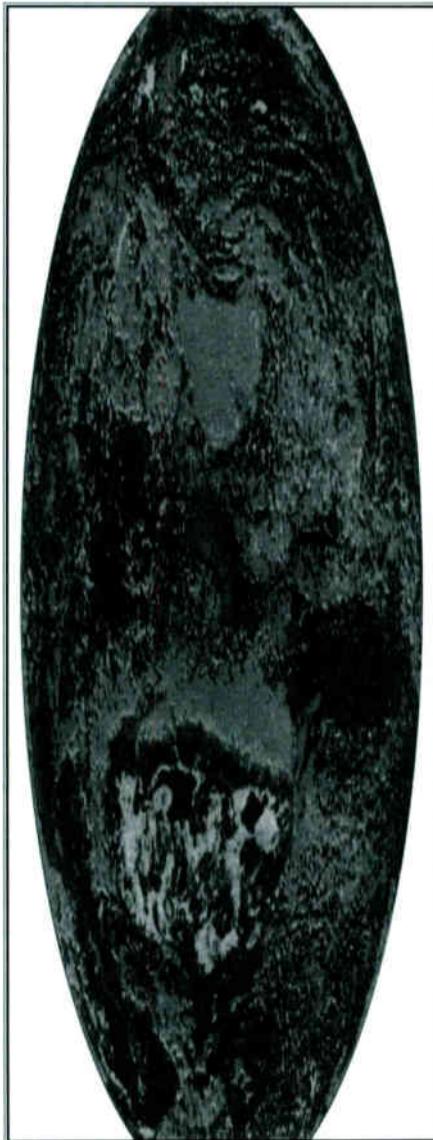

For those of you keeping score at home, I am no longer at WCDB and instead have landed myself here. Your new metal contacts at WCDB are Brian De Moa and Alex DuBavoy (I think I spelled those right). Brian has been briefed, and they should be reporting shortly. Please eliminate my home phone number from your files. Thanks. Huge, shameless thanks are offered to all those I've worked with, and against over the past 50 years, even Prue. It's been grand and I hope that I never have to do it again. See you at the Forum!!

GINA GALLI, ROUND THE GLOBE, 212-947-5575

Naked Sun's Wonderdrug and Ten Wings' Wishing Well should just be arriving at your stations this week. Check out "Shriek Of The Weak" on the Sun's and "Special" as well as "Keep On" on Ten Wings. KMLS in Santa Rosa, CA already on the scene!.. Don't miss Tindersicks currently on the road. Stay tuned, there's more to come...

MUNSEY RICCI, SKATEBOARD MARKETING LTD., 516-328-1103

So the big bash is over now. How's your hangover, mine is ok now. Well the Dio and Love/Hate tour is rockin' real heavy. You love these bands, you also love this tour so let's keep it going. By now all of you have the family pack from the Skatenigs, what a cool home idea. We should have some tour dates in a few weeks. Drown will be on the phones this week talking to all of you. The station liners should be in the mail this week. Give this record some time, it's going to grow on you big time. For Love Not Lisa on the Crow soundtrack is doing fine. Most stations that tried it out have been getting good response to "Slip Slide Melting," way cool I say. Sarkoma is still climbing the metal charts, the show at the Bank in NYC this Wednesday the 15th is only a taste of this band. Last week you got the Wicked Maraya cd Cycles. ADDS THIS WEEK THE 13 & 14. The first single is "Another Day", dig on it dude. Coming this week is the new Cyclone Temple, adds next week. The Headstones will also be in the mail this week for adds next week. Till next, Cya.

DENNIS CONSTANTINE & JASON PARKER, CONSTANTINE CONSULTING, (303)440-5470

I am pleased to announce that Judy McNutt has been hired as the new PD of KBCO. As 'BCO's new Program Director, she has a clear vision of what needs to be done there. It has been a difficult period of transition at 'BCO—many long-time voices have disappeared. The station has become complacent. A new fire has been lit, and there is no doubt the KBCO will be tremendously successful. I'm excited to be a part of it, and to work closely again with my good friend Judy... The other big news of the week is that there will be a Triple-A radio station in Los Angeles very soon. I've been negotiating with a station in the city of angels, and we have shaken hands on a deal. Our office is in the process of ordering the CD library for the new station. The hope is we'll be able to announce the beginning of a new AAA era in Los Angeles this week. I'll keep you posted... and congratulations to Zoe Zuest, PD of KRSH in Santa Rosa. She's the mother of a new baby girl, Theona, 9 lbs 11 oz. born this past week! On the music front: David Knopfler is back with The Giver (Mesa/Bluemoon). "Mercy With The Wine" is a great place to start. It has an understated quality that will hit you after a few listens. "How Many Times" and "Love Knows" are in the same vein. Also of note are the jazzy "Lover's Fever," and "Carry On."... I Ain't Movin' (Sony/550) is the new album from singer Des'ree. Her voice is dark and husky, and her pitch is perfect. Check out "You Gotta Be" and "Fee; So High."... Tab Benoit's new one, What I Live For (Justice), is full of rockin' blues. Howlin' Wolf's "Who's Been Talkin'" is terrific. "Cross The Line" and "Cherry Tree Blues" are slower tracks, and "Night Life" will remind you of "Nice and Warm." Up-tempo tunes include "Don't Cut Off Your Hair," and "Wide Open."... The Barcelona Tribe of Soulsters, AKA B-Tribe, has released an album of Flamenco-guitar-meets-techno-beats called Fiesta Fatal! (Atlantic). The title track sounds like Enigma. "Nadie Entiende" has more of a beat to it. Also check out "Love, Tears, Heartaches, and Devotion."... Iain Matthews is back with his best album ever, The Dark Ride (Watermelon). "I Drove" is a beautiful soul-searching song that leads off the album. "Rooted To The Spot" caught me immediately, as did "For Better Or Worse." "This Is It," and "London" are also strong tracks... Roger Daltry is back with Daltry Sings Townshend... Live At Carnegie Hall (Continuum). A two track sampler contains "Pinball Wizard" and "Won't Get Fooled Again," featuring The Juilliard Orchestra. Michael Hill's Blues Mob have a new album called Bloodlines (Alligator). Actually, the best song on the album is the only one that is not rooted in blues. "Heading Home" has a great laid back feel to it, and lets Hill's sweet voice take center stage for a change. The guitar is heavy on the blues numbers, but you might try "Wrong Number," "Righteous Love," "Why We Play The Blues," and "Can't Recall a Time."... Speaking of blues, The Uptown Horns have released a new album called The Uptown Horns Revue (Collector's Pipeline). The two tracks featuring the Iceman are incredible. "I'm Dealin'" sounds like signature Collins, and will bring back the memories of our most recently deceased blues master. "Sugar Melts When It's Wet" is fun, and shows off the horns blowing like crazy.

JAMES LEWIS MARKETING, 310-820-4006

You should all have a new release from David Halley titled Stray Dog Talk. early believers include KFAN, KVNF, WKVT, Sony Digital Cable Radio and World Cafe. Glen Clark has a debut called Looking For A Connection and it should be on your desk now. Glen is currently touring with Bonnie Raitt and they'll be back in the U.S. soon. Don't miss this show! Disappear Fear's latest is added by KTAO, KZON, WCBE, WFUB and WXPX - this band has a huge fan base and should not be overlooked. Jimmy Lafave's "Highway Trance" is still making headway...go back to this one if you haven't already. The Boomers will be on the road in the following cities: San Diego 7/5, Los Angeles 7/6, Sacramento 7/7, San Francisco 7/8, Phoenix 7/10, Boulder 7/11, Aspen 7/12 and Salt Lake City 7/13. Thanks to Lisa Riegel and The Hard Report for their Triple A feature last week. FINALLY! What a great idea! I'm glad to see so many stations sounding off...keep it coming! Have a great week everyone!

His loving hands could not protect him enough. He must live with that. José Mercedez Sotz Caté and his son, José Estuardo Sotz Alvarez. In 1986, armed men, believed to be government agents, opened fire. Young José caught the bullets intended for his father, a Guatemalan trade union leader. At the age of three, he was left paralyzed from the waist down. At every turn, the senior José was denied adequate medical help for his son. Then friends of Amnesty International, and people like you, intervened. Not long ago, José again took his first halting steps.
