Encomium, Tribute To Led Zeppelin, Atlantic

Though most programmers will tell you they've had their fill of tributes, reunions and covers in general, the reaction to this particular project couldn't be more enthusiastic. After all, these are the longest-lived titles in the library, and there's no denying the street appeal of the artists involved. KQRC's Doug Sorenson comments, "I think any band of today was tremendously influenced by Led Zeppelin, and this is a very impressive package. We're playing four cuts." ... John Duncan, WRDU, "What does it take to overcome the cover bias and make such familiar music sound fresh and exciting again? Great artists and creative interpretations, and Encomium delivers big on both counts." ... Bob Bittens, WHCN, "It crosses all the boundaries. Instantly credible songs with your adult rockers who grew up with them, ditto in terms of the status of the artists therein. You can't get hotter than STP, Sheryl, Hootie, etc." ... From WRXX's Austin Keyes, "Is there anything in there from rock artists you wouldn't want to play at some point? Even the Rollins tune is great. A brilliant record that refreshes the senses." ... Cutwise, expect STP to lead, with strong support play for 4 Non Blondes, Hootie and Cracker.

HARD ACTS TO FOLLOW

Mad Season, "River Of Deceit," Columbia

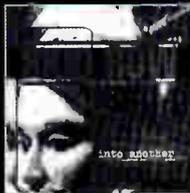

The upcoming album will indeed deliver the tempo one might expect from this Seattle super-session, but understatement and sensitivity are the bywords for the leadoff track. Given all the conjecture about AIC, and Pearl Jam's bombastic airplay presence, this little quiet spot really works beautifully. Just ask Doug Sorenson at KQRC, "Stations like mine don't generally play a lot of ballads, but this is a really haunting and introspective record." ... KRZZ's Michael Lee calls it "The best of everybody. I think it's a smash, and far more palatable to the mainstream than I was expecting." ... KDKB's Paul Peterson says, "I love that record. It's refreshing and hypnotic and I think it will be huge" ... WAVF's Dave Rossi adds, "It's definitely not Alice In Chains. You expect it to start kicking, but it doesn't — and that's what I like. Very compelling" ... From TJ at WDHA, "Not at all what I expected but I'm certainly not disappointed. It really does sound good on the air" ... From Austin at RXK, "It's so hip you've gotta do it. Layne Staley is a genius and this track is a great beginning." ...

Collective Soul, Atlantic

As if the folks at 75Rock aren't busy enough, what's with floating the new Collective Soul album out in the midst of the maelstrom? Not only is Atlantic's promo plate full to the point of overflowing, but between the nonstop spins on "Shine" and "Gel," haven't we all heard quite enough from this band lately? That's how we felt when we pushed the play button, too, Bunky, but one listen blew that notion to bits. Yeah, there are tracks like "Smashing Young Man" that suggest the two previous hits, but it's in tracks like "December," "Simple" and "She Gathers Rain" that Ed Roland's talent really shines. As WJRR's Steve Robertson notes, "This has everything the first album had, only the quality of everything is better. It's a more focused band project, just perfect for all formats, with something for everybody." Hey, this band has amply demonstrated they can make tracks that top the charts. If their mission this time out was to dramatically enhance their status as a group that makes compelling albums, they've clearly succeeded. What's next?

Skid Row, "Into Another," Atlantic

Labor under the illusion that the SkidSters tote baggage if you must, but there's plenty of forward momentum here. "Slave To The Grind" still sells 300,000 copies a year, for instance. And how about the reaction to the band's ten city mini-tour to promote "My Enemy" to metal/COR radio? The buzz was intense, shows sold out in minutes, and stations adding the record got hellacious phones. As Q104's Vinnie Marino reported, "#1 phones this week, and a sold out show. With this album, they've proven to everyone that they were not an '80s hair band at all. A lot of bands have tried to shed that image, and almost all of them have failed. Skid Row have not" ... Yep, things definitely have changed in the band's four years between records, but even with a high-powered manager and video appeal out the butt, you still need a great song to play in the platinum league. Sounds to us like they've got one.

MORE... HARD ACTS TO FOLLOW

Tom Petty, "It's Good To Be King," WB

When Ben Tench and Mike Campbell are ripping it up, there's little to compare in terms of wide demo on-air appeal. At the same time, TP has always scored well with his quasi-philosophical sing-talkers. Must be something in that Gainesville water. Or maybe it's the way he lays out a goofy lyric line and whacks you with a big 'ole power chord while you're sitting there with a goofy grin on your face. Then again, maybe they work because there's nothing else like it on the radio. At any rate, with the tour up and running, it's good to have a signature sound like this to have a little fun with. It's not a whole lot more complicated than this from KDKB's Paul Peterson, "We're on it early because it's Tom Petty and he always works for us..."

Gilby Clarke, "Johanna's Chopper," Virgin

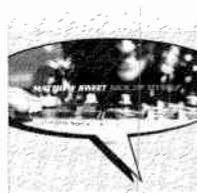

Now that Gil's demonstrated he can duke it out just fine in the splinter band slugfest with both "Cure Me" and "Tijuana Jail," why not take a shot at the mainstream with something, say, a little more left of center? That would be "Johanna's Chopper." You'd never guess it was Gilby, what with that psychedelic wash, bizarro harmonies, and veddy English sounding chorus. But it is endearing in a period piece sort of way, and with OTB adds at DMX, KCLB, KEYJ, WHMH, WOZN, WRZX, WSHE and WZZQ, he could very well come in through the bathroom window. Riding on his Harley, no less.

Pete Droge, "Northern Bound Train," American

The hell with playing it safe. Pete's new single is a ballad, true, and that makes it a tougher sell to radio—but, dammit, it's a great ballad!! As noted by TJ Bryan at WDHA, "He's a great songwriter and a really honest performer."... KRZZ's Michael Lee went early, commenting, "I think he's a great artist. We were very early on the last cut and it panned out. It's not too mainstream, it's not too alternative, and it fits its own niche. These are the kinds of distinctive records we're looking to use to set us apart in a competitive market situation..."

Matthew Sweet, "Sick Of Myself," Zoo

The new, improved Matthew racks up another strong add week, with new air at 11 reporters, 37 adds to date and increases at WSHE, DC101, and several more power up a 96-66* advance. Key calls thus far: KDKB, WDHA, WMMR, WSHE, DC101, WBCN, WCCC, WTUE, and WJRR. Also moving well Alternative (36-25*), and Triple A, at 42*. KFMZ's Paul Maloney comments, "He's always been a strong artist for this station. Sounds like Brendan O'Brien was just what he needed to scuff up his sound and make him a true rock artist."... From TJ Bryan at WDHA,

"I just think he's an excellent songwriter and the single lives up to the album's title. Definitely a fun track to hear on the air."... Need further proof that Matty's back? From the album now on your desk, check the most likely second rock track "Superbaby," and the multi-format bound "Smog Moon."

Stiltskin, "Inside," Elektra

Talk about arriving with a pedigree. Already a #1 record in England and top 10 in half a dozen other territories. At the rate this rekkid's blowing out worldwide, band leader Peter Lowrey can hang his Oxford sheepskin (dual degrees in philosophy and economics) on his wall and count the money. But he needs your help, people! And what's not to like about the track? It's gritty, hooky as hell, and knows when to go home. Keep an ear on this one. Everyone who's heard it seems to like it, and at most stations it's strictly a question of room.

Our Lady Peace, "Starseed," Relativity

Week two brings in 14 more adds (Q104.3, KISS, WDHA, WIXV), some nifty increases (KUFO 8-11, KISW 11-17, KUPD 21-24), and a corresponding 77-54* Hard Hundred advance. From WIXV's Jay Sisson, "This is as strong as any alternative leaning songs out there. Relativity might have a winner here."... Steve Robertson, WJRR, "Everybody in this building loves it. From the acoustic intro to the great vocals and the guitar hook, it's a programmer's dream."... Dave Rossi, WAVF, "Immediate reaction on 'The Cutting Edge'. The U2 overtones on the single are effective, and the album is solid."

Simple Minds At The Academy Theater 2/28/95

By Earl Douglas

After a four year absence, Simple Minds brought their "Good News From The Next World" tour to a sold out Academy Theater here in New York. Led by charismatic frontman Jim Kerr, Simple Minds defined the U.K. pop scene in the 80's with such hits as "Don't you (Forget About Me)," "Alive and Kicking" and "All The Things She Said." After the release of Real Life in 1991, Simple Minds went through numerous personnel changes. Kerr and guitarist Charlie Burchill are the only original members left in the band and rounding out the group is bassist Malcolm Foster, drummer Mark Schulmann, and keyboardist Mark Taylor.

It was shortly after 9PM when the Simple Minds hit the stage with the aptly titled "A Great Leap Forward." The first half of the 90 minute set was comprised of material from their current album Good News From The Next World. This record is somewhat of a departure for them for it's more guitar driven as opposed to the keyboard dominated sound on the last couple of releases. This newer, tougher sound was reflected on such cuts as "And The Band Played On," and "Hypnotized." "She's A River," the current single, was as hard driven live as it is on record.

But what brought the audience out on this wet and damp evening was the slew of hits Simple Minds accumulated throughout the 1980's. Songs such as "Up On The Catwalk," and "Love Somewhere In Summertime" were both celebratory and hopeful. Touches of Asian influences were found in "See The Lights" (from the painfully underrated Real Life LP) that gave the already terrific tune an entirely different slant. "Sanctify Yourself" and "Stand By Love" was all out thunderous. Ironically enough, it was with Simple Minds' greatest works where the show slightly faltered. "Don't You (Forget About Me)" is still an ass-kicker, but it really needed the machine gun drumming of now departed member Mel Gaynor. "Alive And Kicking" needed the soulful wail of former vocalist Robin Clark that beautifully accompanied the 1985 hit. As part of the encores, Ken and Co. chose The Velvet Underground classic "White Light, White Heat," but instead of thrashing it up, they went "unplugged" and with the aid of Mark Schulman's drum work, it became a hip Euro-dance tune. All in all, it was an enjoyable evening.

The current incarnation of Simple Minds are a grittier unit than past configurations. As a frontman, few are better than Jim Kerr. He's in constant motion, and you feel every word as he sings it. One can easily make the case that Good News From The Next World is really Charlie Burchill's record. Whether it was playing greas slide or Edge-like lead, Burchill should emerge as one of rock's premier guitarists when this tour concludes. The rhythm section of Malcolm Foster (bass) and Mark Schulmann (drums) were steady throughout, while Mark Taylor added some fine textures on the keyboards.

After a lengthy hiatus, Simple Minds are back and better than ever. With a strong new album, a hot tour, and a renewed interest in their music (can you believe they've been around for almost 15 years?) it looks as though Simple Minds will be alive and kicking for a long time.

Earl Douglas is the producer of "The Carol Miller Show," which can be heard weekdays 10AM-3PM on 102.7 WNEW in New York.

Watt On Watt

by Spiro Phanos

Personifying all that is true and real in music for more than fifteen years, Mike Watt is a hero and an inspiration to a generation of musicians. And yet, it is only recently that many programmers and the mainstream at large are starting to take notice, realizing just who he is and what he means to so many. A founding member of punk prototypes the Minutemen and FIREHOSE, Watt has helped lay the foundation for much of what we hear today. With his Ball-hog Or Tugboat?, Watt assembled a veritable who's who of musicians, each bringing a special ingredient into the mix. We tried, best as we could, to capture the Watt ethos, but as you can see, it is one that really defies categorization...

So what have you been doing for the past week or so?

Watt: I've been talking. All last week I was in Canada, spieling for the papers and fanzines. I wanted to talk to people. I don't blame people for being skeptical, but...

What do you mean 'skeptical?'

Watt: Well, something coming from a big label...

Your relationship with Columbia has always been good.

Watt: Well, I come from SST and there's a way I got used to, in terms of autonomy. Some people, especially straighter, square-john kind of journalists from the '70s were angry with me for them not knowing me. They think that Sony flew all these guys down to Pedro and we had this huge, 'We are the World' superjam.

Do you get that a lot from people?

Watt: Yeah, but if they listen to it, they get a whole other idea (laughs). There's a lot of scams being run. A lot of these tribute records, I wonder about.

Forget it, man. Between that and soundtracks...

Watt: Soundtracks, yeah. That's a pure marketing thing. That's why I want to do this, to talk with people. So I went on this spiel. I've never toured without playing! (laughs) I was doing ten, twelve, and I did it in Europe, too. Somebody read me a Spin thing. I wish I could talk to them a little more, but whatever. It's cool.

What did the Spin thing say?

Watt: It was pretty belig, it was about the celebrity-itis. Maybe I should have used fake names, like a wrestling match. I didn't think it would be like that.

That blows me away. It's one thing for someone to not hear the record and make that judgement just because of the list of musicians. Even then, they should know that Watt just doesn't "sell out." For them to think that just because you have a couple of 'big names' on the record is just plain short-sighted.

Watt: Like Spot. He's a big name to me. That's one of the reasons I went against using fake names, people might have missed him or the Preussners or Stephen Perkins. I don't want to make a big thing, but I know people are probably wondering, 'why would you do a spiel tour?' I've been doing them for the last two weeks.

in people's face. The bigger things kind of castrate you.

How long has this record been in the back of your head?

Watt: About a month after the last FIREHOSE gig. I was thinking, 'What should I do?' I thought, well, 'Fuck, let's do something I've never done — just play with all these people.' In a way, it was a weird kind of test for me, to try to let it go a little.

How so?

Watt: Well, when I thought of it, I just jumped on it like that. I started playing with some L.A. guys. At first I just showed them songs that I tried with FIREHOSE that never worked out. It was weird, how we didn't have any preconceived things about them. My music could be fresh to them. They could get enthusiastic about it. It was intense. Then I thought about that, playing with these guys. I've only played with four people. The two guys in FIREHOSE, D. Boon and Kira. It was kind of a big surprise. More and more, I thought of people with different angles, with different personalities, different trips. It kind of grew as I was doing it. I never thought of that. I come from playing with D. Boon. It was just one guy. I wasn't really a musician, it wasn't really a music thing. He was my friend. It was something we kind of shared together. I played with people who don't know me from my childhood, and I kinda did that with Georgie and Edward. I use a little boiler plate that me and D. Boon had come up with. This time I wanted to kinda be away from that. I thought 14 drummers, 14 years of George (laughs). Things like that. I wanted to test myself, test my music, my skills of playing with other people, if I could. It seemed to be kind of easy. A test for the bass guitar. If you have the bass lick, maybe it's easy for guys to get in there.

Hence the title of the record.

Watt: It's really weird about us being the back-up thing that's added later. Especially now, I'm 37 now, and when I was a kid it was kind of heavy. All kinds of stuff went into it. That's what the title is about. Every time the bass comes to the song, will it be the ballhog? I hate to be so biased towards basslines, bass players. That's what I know as its role. That's the way it feels, not just as a technical endeavor, it's just the way it fits in, like the color of paint a painter uses.

Some are brash, and in your face. Some are textured, layered much differently.

Watt: I went to this museum in Amsterdam. They've got these Rembrandts, there are darks on darks on darks. Those things are intense in a weird way. There was a little school of Dutch painting that got into the Italians. It's just a big difference. All a sudden it's these bright yellows and light blues and whites, and it's like, 'Wow.'

Is that how you look at your basslines?

Watt: In that way, I see them more like plays. Songs are like little plays. I'm like the lighting director — that's how I can work as writing songs or making the music. Be a conductor, a composer. They're bizarre. When I started out this was something to do with D. Boon. I was his bass player, he was my guitar. To change that into things that aren't as personal is pretty tricky. You know? Because I got kicked out of music class for not being good enough. This was in seventh grade, I was playing clarinet. I wanted to play sax, and with like fifty other guys, there were too many. So I got a clarinet, and after 10 weeks, the music teacher said, 'Whoa. You try hard.' It was a personal thing I did with D. Boon. I tried it a little bit. He took a harmony class in high school. He learned notes, I think, a little bit. We weren't really that schooled. This hippie guy lived in this car, showed us how to copy songs off records. So in a way, in this kind of experience, I was trying to be real and contemporary, but with some old guys, too. I tried to do it with FIREHOSE, too, believe me. Every time it was supposed to be a challenge and an intense thing and somehow fit together. This is an extension of that. Just 180 degrees the other way (laughs).

It's interesting that you brought up the

or tugboat?

Mike Watt, Thurston Moore, Kristin Callahan

Between the time the masters were delivered and the artwork was all set, and when you actually started doing the publicity thing, what were you up to?

Watt: It was a lot to get out the door. I have been playing a little, and going on the radio tonight with Nels and Preussner, and I'm going to start touring April 12th. I do this thing called Madonna-bites every morning, with these two Pedro guys. As a bassist, you have to play it all the time or you lose it. The strings are so big.

What kind of tour are you going to do?

Watt: With Dave Grohl, in five weeks I've done 23 tours, so this I want to be a weird one, something I haven't done, play with guys like Pat Smear and others. He's got his Foo Fighters, with guys down from Sunny Day Real Estate. We'll make it an old SST kind of circus.

Is that in the States?

Watt: Yeah, from April 12th to May 20th.

What kind of venues?

Watt: Same kinds I've done. It's good to have it whole painting metaphor. There's a definite color in your basslines. How you approach, how you fit in your bassline within the framework of each song. You can tell different textures within your bassline. Whereas, a lot of people think of the bass like a tugboat, like you said.

Watt: Yeah, but a tugboat is pretty nice, if you do it right. With bass, you look good by making other people look good.

You're like the Vidal Sassoon of bands.

Watt: (Laughs) Or more like an axle, an A-frame. Perry, from Porno For Pyros, had me come over and record. He did what I did to guys — had me come in there not knowing the song and just go for it. I made the bassline to the singing, which is something I've never done before.

Is this for his new record?

Watt: His record, yeah. He had Perkins playing on the table top in the kitchen. He had the kick drum under the table. Everybody made very intense eye contact, which was new for me. It was a trip. I was right on the spot. And in a way, after all these years of playing, maybe I have to put it to the test. I've never been like a session kind of guy. It was more like kids in the garage in a way. That's the way I tried to make the record, and it totally kind of was. I didn't let people who weren't playing in the studio, like the managers and such. I was trying to make it like that. It's one thing to get out there and execute the riff, but another to come up with the shit (laughs).

What was the vibe in the studio like while recording Ball-hog?

Watt: I was pretty scared. This was the first time I had ever played with a lot of them. With some of them, I practiced a little before we went in the studio. With Paul (Roessler) on a couple of songs, I came up with the piano with him. Just bass and piano. I've never tried that. He's the only keyboard player I've ever played with. There's not a lot of keyboards in my history (laughs). I did this just to get outside of myself and try things. I wrote Flea's trumpet line. Even the good piano on that, I wrote on the bass. They figured it out from me playing it on the bass (hums the riff). He did that on the trumpet.

That's on 'Side Mouse.'

Watt: Yeah. Some of them, like 'Against the '70s,' I wrote the day before I got up there. I wrote it for Mark Lanagan, who didn't get to it. Eddie (Vedder) came by and was playing guitar with us and he said he would sing it. Some of that was pretty random. Chris came over with the organ, that was kind of unplanned. Most things were like that. I did like two days up there, two days in New York, and eight days in L.A. Some of the L.A. dudes live around here. L.A. is a big town. I'm lucky. A lot of guys who play live here. I had practice with some of those guys, like Nels and Preussner. But the ones out of town, I did as I hit them. The Sonic Youth song, that was just, the first time going for it. In 'Maggot Brain,' Mascis only did one take.

I was going to ask you how many takes it took to do that song.

Watt: We went through it until the tape ran off the reel. I did the bassline first. I wanted him to play the bassline. I was making it like a funeral dirge trip. The engineer knew Bernie Worrell. He called him up and had him come in there. Bernie goes, 'You should have used a click track.' I said 'Bernie, I wanted to make it like a shuffle, like a dirge. Madness.' He listened to it, and said, 'Oh, I get it.' And he went in there and just did it. He did two takes, but we used the second one. That was a trip. He was an older man, and that was a bridging for me. God, I've listened to his records for so long. Some of the guys on the record say, 'Watt, I've been hearing your records.' I felt that way with Bernie.

What are you playing now?

Watt: I used mainly three basses. I used a Thunderbird '66. But it's not like Nickie Sixx, it's the forward one. I can't play the regular ones, I guess they're called reverse. I played a '56 T-bass, and a Les Paul signature bass. When I tour, I got into a lot of pawn shops. I got that for 200 bucks. The '56, too, I got cheap. I put Thunderbird pick-ups in it. Some hippie guy from Hermosa Beach cut it out and tried to put bigger pick-ups in it. It's a weird Fender, it's got a V-neck, like the Strat for those years. I used those two, mainly. There are thirteen songs that we didn't use. I did thirty.

"mike watt: ball-hog or tugboat?"

Thurston Moore,
Mike Watt

Really? Any plans to release those?

Watt: Oh yeah, I want to put all of those out. You've only got so much time on the CD.

Were there any guests who weren't on the seventeen who made the record, on the other thirteen tracks?

Watt: Oh yeah. Blue Oyster Cult, two of the guys, Albert and Joe Buchar. Perry. Chris Whitley. Mark Curry — he was a trip. I had him sing like a sailor. Frank Black did another song that we sing kind of like D. Boon. Jay played drums with me on a couple. Lee (Rinaldo) and Thurston (Moore) on a couple. I'll somehow get them out. I just tried everything. In fact, I wanted to keep going.

So all this was done in the recording time of seventeen days?

Watt: Something like that. The last days were just for vocals. We had to wait until some dudes were in town, like Mike D., who was in Spain. That's why Adam (Horowitz) had to play his drum part. I asked Adam if he played this summer. He said, 'Yeah, I've done it, but I've never played a floor tom.' So I said, 'Let's write a floor tom part.'

That's great. The whole ethic for the record, summed up right there.

Watt: And then there's that middle part. The song is supposed to be a dream, and that's a little nightmare. I tried not to use musical words too much. For that part I said, 'Pretend that's the chariot race part in 'Ben Hur.' The centurion part. That's the vibe I wanted on the record in a weird way.

A lot of these songs were written during the FIREHOSE years, you said, and they laid around.

Watt: The "70s" song I wrote right before I got up there. Some of those are dos songs, written for two basses. One of them I tried with FIREHOSE. Some were ones I tried for three years to record, and they never came out well. 'Big Train' we did in our last few gigs. Three of them are covers. 'Tuff Gnarl,' and 'Chinese Firedrill' I tried with FIREHOSE for a long time. We never played it live. We tried, but we couldn't do it. 'Songs for Igor,' we tried. I wrote that for my Yugoslav promoter in '89. Like I said, it was a test of my music.

One of the reasons I ask is because I wondered if you wrote tracks with specific people in mind.

Watt: No. I was more like a casting director. I thought I could find people to fill the role. I didn't know people's ring posture. I knew what they were from playing with them as a peer, seeing them in the crowd, playing in gigs alongside them, but not playing with them. Now I do know more.

Did the ball start rolling pretty easily? The further on it went, did people approach you, or did you approach others? What happened as the project picked up steam?

Watt: Yeah, people approached me. This guy from Bruce Hornsby and the Range, I don't know them. The drummer called me. He's this old bald guy, John Molo. He was intense. This guy would make a lot of these seventeen year olds feel ashamed. He was hollering as he was playing. I gave him a drum solo. He was playing with Dave Pirner. Dave Pirner sent me a card. He said, 'Watt, do you need another hack?' He's a sweet guy. He went in and did something a million degrees different from what he's known for. I think the record is a little springboard, not just for me, but for the dudes who were with me, too.

What about the cover and the general artwork? The scientific wrestling and such?

Watt: I made it. That's Raymond Pettibone, the wrestlers on the front. The little wrestlers are from clip art that the art guy, Doug Erb at Sony got. I like Raymond. His art is on my first Minutemen record, Paranoid Time. He's taught me a lot about what I know about politics and art. He's a genius guy. I love him. I used wrestling as a metaphor, because I was uncomfortable with the idea of a fuckin' bass solo album. It sounds like a fusion instructional video or something (laughs).

I could see you doing something like that. Watt's 'Rockschool'.

Watt: (Deep voice) 'I want to play my bass.' I wanted it to be so people would take it out and say, 'Why would he call this a fucking wrestling record?' Also when I was asking guys to do this, it was neat to say...

'Get in the ring'

Watt: (Laughs) Yeah! 'Do you want to get in the ring with me?' The musician thing scares me sometimes.

THE Hard INTERVIEW

I come from punk rock, which is trying to throw down elitism.

I want to get your take on the whole 'punk revival' thing beaten to death in the mainstream press and the media in general. What are your feelings on the 'rebirth,' so to speak, of punk?

Watt: It never died with me. It's a pretty personal vision of mine. I can't speak for guys now, but for me it was a musical utopia. You didn't know what the next band was going to sound like. It wasn't just a homogeneous thing, a haircut or guitar style. That was left up to the guy. Somehow, there were these people who didn't fit in. So they went on their own thing. In the '70s, there was a rubber stamp thing going, so I think it was a reaction. Taking it into your own hands and shit.

How does it make you feel, seeing that sort of ethic re-emerging now?

Watt: I never thought it could ever get big. But I don't think the idea could ever die. The idea of guys having something to say, wanting to play gigs. Disenfranchised people, throwing rocks at the status quo — how can that ever die? I think it's a very important thing. Every time you think it's going to die, there comes a Superchunk, a Bikini Kill. For me, it's really healthy. As far as mass movement to belong in high school, that's a trippy thing. Let's see what they do with it. In America it was really little. You only did it because you really loved it. It was not really a career move. God, I learned more about this country by just touring around. Is Van Halen punk? Is Elvis Costello punk? You get into these kinds of arguments. (Laughs) I don't know what to say. Is Green Day punk? That's what I get asked now.

Well, I think that punk is in the eye of the beholder. It's not something you can necessarily define. Like you said, someone like Van Halen...

Watt: I don't know, they wore skinny ties in the '70s and they had that song 'Atomic Punk.' I didn't know, I was an idiot from Pedro, just finding out about music that wasn't being played in arenas. That's when they were a club band. I didn't know anything, really. I knew Gene Simmons signed them. I knew about him. Kiss was the first band that I remember was called punk. There were these pictures of guys from England, and then when we first heard their music, it was guitar music. It blew our minds. It was like old Who. Me and D. Boon thought it was very relevant, we were into it. The gigs, everything, was like a DIY thing. It was a lot of things. I think the word means a guy who gets fucked in jail for cigarettes, which I really like because, you can't get too proud about that, you know? People wonder, 'why you would call yourself that?' Where like a word like 'alternative' is so jive. You want somebody to like it without hearing it. Punk means, 'Fuck, what could this sound like? Why would somebody call it this?' It was intense. I don't know how that explains things but... It's like that verse by Poe — 'sometimes you think of something just because you're not supposed to.'

Do you find yourself being approached by people who try and make you carry some kind of torch?

Watt: I think so. I want to throw down the glove and say, 'There's a lot of you talking chaos and anarchy.' The young bands, everybody, the old bands. Well, let's hear it in the music. Let's shake it up. So it's more like a glove, or like a line in the sand. There was this weird competition in a way, between Huskers and the Meat Puppets and us. At least me and D. Boon thought there was. Somehow, only using bass, guitar and drums, like them, trying to come up with your own sound. I remember when they came to our town and did Zen Arcade. We had an album done. They did this double album. We wrote all these songs in a week, so we could have a double record, too. I end up with Double Nickels. We recorded that for $1100, mixed all 45 songs in one night, but it turns out to be one of my best records. That kind of danger, or risk-taking in getting this thing together, the expression, music, whatever you call it. Theater, I don't know how I could be a torch leader. I think I've got a Pedro perspective on it, which is a little different maybe. I can't be a leader, I know that.

You don't have any desire to be?

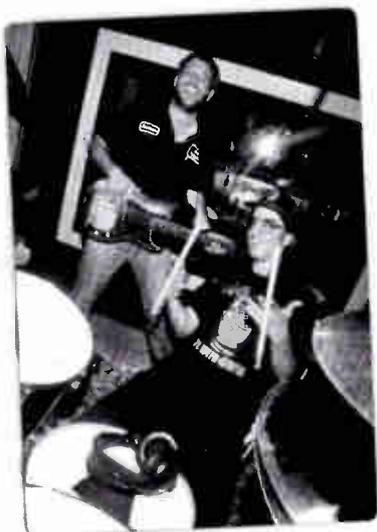

Watt: It's like, would you rather cure cancer or AIDS? What a dilemma. Too bad I can't do either, so I don't have my choice. But coming from a music that is small you never had to worry about that shit. A celebrity or being famous (laughs)?

(At this point the Sony operator tells us we have one minute left)

What would you describe as the Watt ethic? In the studio, and in general? Could you encapsulate it in a sentence or two?

Watt: When I was a kid, Townsend was the only guy who had different types of interviews in the '70s. Everybody else had the standard. But when Townsend was in an interview, he called himself a whore and lame (laughs). It was the greatest

Nobody else would say that. Pete would get really overboard. When I was a kid and not understanding interviews or anything, I was like, 'Whoa — this guy.' I think Watt (laughs), let's just say I think he's trying to get it together. I'm a whole bunch of different things. I'm a rudder man, I'm a propeller, I'm an anchor, I'm a deck, a porthole...

I guess all the different Watts came out on this record.

Watt: (Laughs) Yeah. In a way, I'm probably the only guy staying constant. When I hear the record sometimes, it's like chizophrenic. Seventeen bands that basically won't get off the stage.

The backdrops just change. Let's talk about Pedro. How has that evolved over the past few years?

Watt: More condos. Kinda lame, choking our narrow streets. I guess it goes to the highest bidder. That's the law of the land. Whatever.

Do you listen to radio?

Watt: I listen mainly to radio. I don't watch much TV. I watch only wrestling and Soul Train. On Saturdays.

What are you listening to lately?

Watt: All kinds of stuff. Spiel. Mainly spiel more than music. Government radio in the morning. NPR. KPFK here in L.A. is the listener-radio supported station. It's not government, it came from the Berkeley thing in the '50s, so they've got some pretty funny stuff. At 9:50 every morning, for ten minutes, there is the show biz report on KNX. But one thing I don't like is talk radio, where people call up. I can't listen to that shit. People telling everybody else how stupid they fuckin' are. I can't handle it.

Tell me about Kathleen Hanna's answering machine message on "Heartbeat."

Watt: After we recorded in New York, I saw Bikini Kill. Thurston took me, and she reminded me of Henry doing "Family Man." I asked her for some spoken word, cause there were no girls on the record. So Thurston let her use his machine. She did her spiel and I thought she provided the necessary estrogen to help out. I don't have an Annie soundtrack. She's talking about things that are very real, though, that I'm very proud to have on.

Are you going to rehearse in the next couple of weeks?

Watt: Well, practice. I think actors rehearse (laughs).

Do you have a set-up at the Watt homebase?

Watt: I rent the head from Fort McArthur here in Pedro. I took out the pissers and put up a wall in the door about eight years ago, and that's where I practice.

You mentioned actors. Are you planning on doing any more acting anytime soon?

Watt: I'm going to do a children's book, about a tugboat called 'Big Motor, Little Deck.' About judging a book by its cover, that sort of thing. Spike asked me to write a little book. He said I could only do five sentences a page. So that will be a very big job (laughs).

Speaking of Spike, the video is brilliant. How long did that take you?

Watt: Two days. Quite epic.

I think something about your ethics would be a good title for the piece.

Watt: Kind of like Minutemen ethics, me and D. Boon made. I don't think it's nostalgic to talk about that, because the ethics, values they're not sentimental. You can still use them today.

TRIPLE ACE

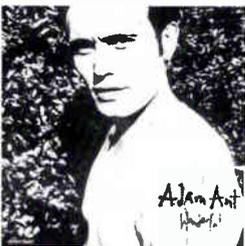

JOHN PRINE

John Prine, "Lost Dogs & Mixed Blessings," Oh Boy John Prine takes an energetic and spirited turn on his latest release. With vibrant melodies and upbeat lyrics Prine rejuvenates this album with everything from electric guitars to his own unique form of rap. Those of us who have long been admirers of Prine's unique narrative lyrics and acoustic melodies won't be disappointed, but there's also an unmistakable edge to the album that gives it a new twist for the artist. It's absolutely Prine at his best. Look for the full album to cross your desk by the end of the month. First up for adds is "Ain't Hurtin' Nobody" (the New Orleans Griddle favorite). Some of our other early favorites include "We Are The Lonely," "Quit Hollerin' At Me," "Big Fat Love," and "Leave The Lights On" — and that's just the top of the iceberg. Mikel Elcessor WYEP, "John Prine's writing style stands on its own two feet. If he updates his production style to a sufficient degree, he will stand alongside of the contemporary-sounding people, and the listeners will want to hear what he has to say. He has shown that he can do that within the last couple of years." Sybil McGuire WMMM, "This record sounds great! It's the John Prine we're used to hearing, with his mellow story-telling and the way he spins his words around us, but this new stuff rocks a little harder, which we love." Bruce Stebbins WRNX, "I didn't hear John Prine at the Griddle, but his last record was excellent, and I'm looking forward to hearing his new album."

THE HOT CORNER

Adam Ant, "Wonderful," Capitol Five years, countless movies and plays, plus eleven new tracks equals Wonderful — Adam Ant's first release on Capitol Records. It's no wonder Adam has been on a musical hiatus. He has been quietly appearing with Dennis Hopper, Sharon Stone, Bruce Kern and Henry Dean Stanton in several different films. Adam's acting craft has been his top priority for awhile, but fortunately he did not forget about his music.

In general this is a very mellow record, quite a different direction from the early-'80s, upbeat, poppy Adam Ant we're all used to. Cool melodies on "Won't Take That Talk," the horizontal bop of "Beautiful Dream," "1969 Again's" retro '60s feel and the silky eastern philosophical sound of "Yin and Yang" all make Adam Ant's latest offering simply Wonderful.

Little Charlie and the Nightcats, "Straight Up," Alligator Straight Up — this kicks @*$! Track one, "I Could Deal With It," is one we can certainly deal with. Right away this band is in your face showing just what they do best — JAM! Now we know what Stevie Ray would have sounded like on a big ol' Gibson hollow body. Blow, Rick Estrin, blow that harp man! And talk about a serious rhythm section. Then talk of Dobie Strange on drums and Ronnie James Webber on upright bass. Very bluesy, very fun and very talented, that's Little Charlie and the Nightcats. Hot spots — on the humorous side — "I Can't Speak No Spanish (No Hable Espanol)," "Me And My Big Mouth" and "Hey Gold Digger." Awesome traditional blues — "Homocide" and Sonny Boy Williamson's "Too Close Together." Instrumental — "Gerontology" - WOW! Now stand Straight Up and pay attention to this winner right away.

SINGLE SPOTLIGHT

Sonny Landreth, "Great Gulf Wind," Zoo Entertainment

South Of 1-10 is perhaps the finest album of Sonny Landreth's career to date. It's impossible to find a flaw in this stellar release — from "Shooting For The Moon" through to the alluring instrumental "mystery" track, each and every song is an impressive display of Landreth's seemingly unlimited musical talent. However, if you're among the Triple A programmers who feel that the more guitar-driven tracks are a just a little too edgy for your upper demographic listeners, we'd like to direct your attention to "Great Gulf Wind," an elegant, acoustic rhythm-based song featuring the incomparable Allan Toussaint on piano and highlighting the depth of Sonny's lyrical and vocal prowess. Landreth has always been and will always be an important artist for the Triple A format, and since there is something for everyone on South Of 1-10, absolutely everyone should have this compelling album on their playlist.

Goo Goo Dolls, "Only One," Warner Bros.

Ever get a gut feeling? We sure have. The Goo Goo Dolls "Only One" hit us so hard that we could never forget it. In the vein of today's scene of music, yet very refreshing at the same time, this tune will be huge. "Only One's" catchy chorus and beat will have listeners singing and dancing in their cars all the way home from work. So, please, begin wearing your crash helmets now when driving. This one's a no-brainer. Just do it! Don't be the "Only One" not on this rocker.

TRIPLE CROWN

Various Artists, "Encomium," (A Tribute To Led Zeppelin) Atlantic

Timing a release for Encomium was probably a tough task for the Atlantic powers that be, considering that the Page/Plant project is so successfully flooding the AOR market. But really, can you ever get enough Led Zeppelin? The tribute to this legendary band is surely flattering to Zeppelin's two main writers whose careers are still flourishing as they currently resurrect some of their classiest material. Everyone knows that there is only one Led Zeppelin, but all of Encomium's artistic interpretations are of the highest caliber. A soulful rendition of "Hey, Hey What Can I Do" is tastefully done by newcomers Hootie and the Blowfish. On the lighter side, and catchy in its own right is Sheryl Crow's "D'yer Mak'er." Perhaps Big Head Todd And The Monsters were Led Zeppelin in another life 'cause "Tangerine" smokes! Never The Bride substitutes piano for the acoustic guitar on "Going To California," and takes this old favorite to new heights. Finally, Robert Plant and Tori Amos go head to head on "Down By The Seaside," and deliver an extremely high-powered duet. KFMU/KKRV's Greg Roberts got an immediate reaction on the 4 Non Blondes cover of "Misty Mountain Hop" — "I was listening to that track, and the entire staff — 25 people — came into my office and started dancing. There was practically a riot in the lobby. This is outrageous! I have never seen the station as a whole react to something like this before. And not just for the one song — Sheryl Crow smokes, Big Head Todd nails it, Cracker is right on target, and can Hootie do no wrong."

NARAS President Supports Public Broadcasting

One of the highlights of the Grammy Awards was the impassioned speech NARAS' President Michael Greene gave calling upon the one billion plus viewers to participate in a national phone-in against budgetary cuts to the Arts Endowment and Public Broadcasting. The speech culminated with the announcement of a special 800 number through which viewers could express their support for funding. The preliminary response was 16,500 by 11pm that night, and by noon the next day, 30,475 calls had been logged. In addition, nearly 21,000 telegrams were received. The National Assembly of Local Arts Agencies (NALAA) has set up phone lines so that supporters can call (800) 651-1575 to have three Western Union telegrams hand-delivered to their Congressional Rep for a charge of $9.50. A second number, (800) 225-2007, provides additional information for those who wish to send their own messages. For those who prefer to forego the Western Union route, the number for the Congressional switchboard is (202) 225-3121.

Dave Johnson, Host of the Nationally-Syndicated "Blues Deluxe" Radio Program

I'll repeat what I said during the recording of a forthcoming "Blues Deluxe" program: "The new album from John Mayall is easily the best release this year and will still be a contender at the end of 1995." John, the Bluesbreakers (Buddy Whittington on guitars, Rick Cortes on bass, Joe Yuele playing drums, Joe Sublett blowing a great sax and even some harp work from Juke Logan) and the folks at Silvertone have really outdone themselves on this one! My only "problem" with this new work is deciding which cut to play. While sequentially perusing through the CD, I would initially decide on one cut, then go nuts over the following selection and so on. My faves? Try "What Passes for Love" and "Fan the Flames" (talk about high energy!) How are Mayall and the Bluesbreakers ever going to top their latest release? Well, that's a question that I've asked myself many times. Keep amazing us guys!

Little Charlie and the Nightcats

Straight Up!

Alligator

Paul Kenedy, Premiere Radio Network, LA, CA

When I was playing in a blues band in Detroit, we were always looking for new material to add to our repertoire. Much to the credit of our guitarists, we'd always look to Little Charlie and the Nightcats for inspiration. Now, covering Little Charlie material isn't as easy as all that, but I'm convinced that the next generation of blues players will do so the way they cover B.B. King, Muddy Waters and Willie Dixon now. Sacramento's favorite sons are back with their latest Alligator

Records release Straight Up! and it just dots the i's and crosses the t's in my mind on the fact that Little Charlie and the Nightcats is one of the premier blues units out there. Just ask John Hammond, for whom Little Charlie and company have provided tasty backup on his last two releases. It should be mandatory that all blues guitarists listen to a Little Charlie release. Little Charlie Baty defines purity in his smooth jazz phrasing ("Gerontology"). Then there's the private world of Rick Estrin. It's a world littered with dangerous harp licks, those patented "nervous & shaky" vocals and unique songs. Estrin's songs are part snake oil salesmanship ("You Gonna Lie"), part blues storytelling ("Too Close Together") and part tongue in cheek humor ("Me & My Big Mouth" and "I Can't Speak No Spanish"). Don't wait for them to become songs for a future generation. Listen to Straight Up! now and hear the blues the way it's supposed to sound now.

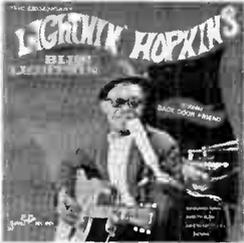

Malaco Waldoxy Records would like to invite all programmers attending SXSW to an evening of soul-scorching blues at Antone's on March 16th, at 10:00 p.m. Malaco/Waldoxy will be featuring the infamous "Little Milton," also Denise LaVelle, Mike Griffin and Karl Leigh. See ya there! - Paul Lee. Malaco Records, Johnson, MS (601)982-4522...Any self-respecting blues-rock fan from the late '60s and early '70s will remember a talented singer-harp player from Canada who had the audacity to call himself King Biscuit Boy. Along with Paul Butterfield and Charlie Musselwhite, there was no better white blues artist that blew harp and sang in the early '70s. No brag, just fact! "Biscuit" (whose real name is Richard Newell) was signed to Columbia Records' Epic Label in 1974, and released an Allen Toussaint-produced, self-titled affair that year with the Meters backing him up. Now, Blue Wave Records out of Baldwinsville, NY is proud to begin its tenth year of existence with the release of Urban Blues RE: Newell by King Biscuit Boy. Spencer, Blue Wave, (315)638-4286

Blues Breakers

Jewel Records - Contact Keith Abel (800)446-2865

Wow! How about those blues releases, huh kids? We'd like to assist you in keeping track of the vast amount of blues CDs you're receiving. Sure, there's plenty of great new material being released by contemporary, active artists, but there's also quite an influx of reissue material you're being exposed to. This is the first monthly feature on reissues in the Blues Breakers section, and we hope it's helpful. Pay attention now, and if you have any feedback, we'd like to hear it.

Jewel Paula founder Stan Lewis, the "hip hit record man" who Lightnin' Hopkins sings of, recalls that Lightnin' would want cash up front before recording any song, and would only do one take of each, take or leave it. Recorded in Houston in 1965 and now available for the first time on CD, Blue Lightnin' contains the relaxing licks and rhythms of "Move On

Out" and the comforting vocal delivery of "Lonesome Dog Blues," which will emanate silkily from your woofers and tweeters. Though he left us in 1982, be thankful that Jewel Records was willing to ensure the eternal existence of compositions like "Fishing Clothes" and "Wig Wearing Woman" by paying for them in cash up front...The flame of John Lee Hooker's immortality has once again been fueled by the rerelease on CD of I Feel Good. I can't think of a better spokesperson to elucidate the driving power of rhythmic blues. With his trademark reverberation and indefinable groove, John Lee (and featured with him on some songs, Lowell Fulson) ropes the listener into the world of boogie on songs like "Stand By" with its seemingly impromptu jam. Blue Lightnin' shows an authenticity that can be applied in few other places besides that of the blues...A consummate facilitator of setting an after-hours mood, since the '40s

Charles Brown has been at the zenith of smooth. Since 1990, Brown has been making one hell of a comeback, along with his resurgence has come the rerelease of Blues 'N' Brown. Originally released in 1971, this recording includes the impressive classics "Black Night" and "Trouble No More." Floyd Dixon tickles the ivories on "Graveyard Song." For those of you who are interested in an aural stroll on pure silk, Blues 'N' Brown is where it's at.

HOLLY MCCORMACK

Skid Row, "Into Another" (Atlantic)

This is one band that will always be a force to contend with, because of their ability to write both memorable and hard rockin' songs. Both their attitude infested debut and their even fiercer follow-up, Slave To The Grind are internationally multi-platinum, in fact, Slave (which debuted at #1 in Billboard upon its release) is still chalking up 300,000 in sales each year since its release. Their return has been welcomed with eight stations on the rousing rocker "My Enemy", including Cathy Faulkner who found "A very pleasant surprise from Skid Row, it's getting a good response; it's very different and very good!" For those of you not ready to go full tilt yet, check out the smooth melody and powerful Bas vocals of "Into Another", which already pulled in 25 spins last week at KILQ, and Rob Hunter related to us that it "Works really well for us, and has already started to react positively with our listeners." There are plenty of happy fans in the Midwest and East Coast where the Skids are doing a warm up club tour, and all the dates sold out immediately. There is little doubt that people want to hear Skid Row, and you're job is easy: just play 'em!

ENCOMIUM, Led Zeppelin Tribute (Atlantic)

How much arm twisting needs to be done here? Not too much (if any) with this collection of adoring fans, who happen to be many of today's biggest music artists! Not in the many years since Zep's break up has the band had such extensive focus, with the successful reunion of Page/Plant, a monstrous sold out tour, induction into the Rock N'Roll Hall of Fame and now this tribute. Rock radio seems to be excited about the prospects of turning on listeners to these updated versions of classic tracks, and despite the lack of a focus track (true AOR radio), programmers seem to particularly like the Stone Temple Pilots mostly acoustic version of "Dancing Days". This includes Steve Funk of KZAK who simply states "The STP song is a killer COR track, it's going to be huge!", and he is joined by Joe Bevilacqua of WDZR who is emphatic in exclaiming that "the Stone Temple Pilots cover is the smash! It's a great record and "Dancing Days is a great sounding tribute, more proof that they are truly a great band!" If you're looking for a harder rocking track there are plenty of choices with 4 Non Blondes' version of "Misty Mountain Hop", Blind Melon's soulful rendition of "Out on the Tiles" or Rollins with "Four Sticks". With Zeppelin weekend promotions in the works at many radio stations, we expect the spin counts to be hefty on ENCOMIUM next week. It's time to bow to the Zeppelin alter of worship once again!

Mad Season, "River of Deceit" (Columbia)

A mere six years ago the members of this supergroup collaboration would be unknown to anyone outside of Seattle, but with the explosion of the Pacific Northwest making bands like Pearl Jam and Alice in Chains household names and increasing the visibility of a spontaneous project like this. We should feel lucky, because the enchanting aspect of Mad Season is not full on high energy songs, its the subtle intensity found throughout, and the first single, "River of Deceit", flows along its brooding, eerie path with a captivating, somber vocal delivery that only Layne Staley can accomplish, and the smooth, discreet guitar work of Mike McCready. This is sure to have a tremendous run at COR judging by the early feedback from programmers like KISW's Cathy Faulkner who exclaims, "Awesome! Awesome! Awesome! Five stars! It's a collaboration that I never thought would happen, but together the music is awe-inspiring!" Simply stated by Joe Bevilacqua of WDZR, "People want to hear this record. It's hard to avoid juggernauts of rock." And why would you want to dodge an instant reacting band like this. You would have to be mad, and we think you would be better off with Mad Season.

Stiltskin, "Inside" (EastWest/EEG)

After the recent performance of Bush rocketing up the COR charts another UK import, Stiltskin, are hoping to follow in their footsteps, out of Europe and onto radio stations in America. With their music being used in an overseas Levi's commercial, the band was met with an overwhelming response and shot up to the #1 spot on the British charts.

With two new adds this week at WHMH and WRZK to go along with airplay at WDZR, WHMH, KZAK, and Z Rock it seems that their feedback laced, melodic, and sharp sounding single "Inside" is finding some glowing early responses. Just ask Pat Dawsey at Z Rock who jumped out on this, "We've been on this for about a month, and we really dig it, it's a solid record and deep with tracks." Another programmer impressed with its early performance is Scott Klohn of WHMH who calls Stiltskin "A core band for Rockin' 101. We got instant phone response: this is a band on the upswing!"

Quiet Riot, "Pretty Pack O' Lies" (Kamikaze)

This West Coast based foursome had the dubious distinction of being the first metal band to hit #1 on the Billboard sales chart with their debut Metal Health (in the pre-Soundscan days) many years ago, and the band has sold over 8 million records since then. It has been, shall we say, quiet on the band's front for a few years, but with some renewed energy three of the original members are back together with the song "Pretty Pack O' Lies", in which Quiet Riot aimed to evolve their characteristic sound with the styles of today. You may be surprised at what you hear, so try this "Pretty Pack O' Lies" on for size.

METAL Pick

Death, Symbolic (Roadrunner)

For those of you who like to take your metal to the extreme, this has been a highly anticipated day, because the latest from Florida's Chuck Schuldiner and Death is ready to be unleashed on the unsuspecting public. Produced by Jim Morris at the legendary Morrisound Studios, the revamped line-up (Chuck Schuldiner - guitar/vocals; Gene Hoglan - drums; Kelly Conlon - bass; Bobby Koebel - guitar) are looking to take the next step forward and offer a record that, according to Schuldiner, "had the same impact as stepping on a nail," - which would hurt, but you sure would stand up and take notice, something that Death has been doing for ten years. Long before death metal was a developed genre of music, Chuck and two of his high school buddies were reaching new levels of intensity with their band Mantas. While some may have disregarded them as noise, the underground soon began to see a growing and insatiable demand for their demo tapes. Eventually they changed their name to Death, and as the buzz grew, they sparked the interest of Combat/Relativity. Their debut Scream Bloody Gore in 1987 firmly established them at the forefront of the genre, with the follow-ups Leprosy (1988), Spiritual Healing (1990), and Human (1991) also having an impact on the metal scene. While they always showed a knack for introducing musical skill into the heaviest of metal - a genre known more for its speed and volume than flair - it was the 1993 offering, Individual Thought Patterns, that helped the band established their reputation as being as progressive musically as they are intense. The latest release, Symbolic, is the first for Chuck and company on Roadrunner Records, which is a match made in heaven considering the shrinking hard rock roster at Relativity and the recent track record of Roadrunner. The title track opens the CD with some cool twisting and bending guitars, which eventually pick up to a battering pace that underlies the rough vocals. Also be sure to check out the intricacies and fretwork of "Zero Tolerance", the double bass drum work in "Empty Words", the chunky cadence of "1,000 Eyes", and the complicated, but catchy rhythms in "Without Judgement". So, do not fear death, for it is just a part of life. And as a matter of fact, Death is knocking on your door - and looking for adds now!

KMFDM, NIHI! (Wax Trax!/TVT)

Whether you subscribe to the "Kill Mother F*cking Depeche Mode" theory or the "No Pity For the Majority" school of thought, it became very clear that the sonic assault of KMFDM contained the force of an errant nuclear bomb with their 1993 release Angst. The release, which sold over 100,000 units, brought this Hamburg, Germany based outfit into the realm of hard rock with the locomotive pace of "A Drug Against War". This infiltration into the ranks was not a fluke, as you can see with one listen to their latest, Nihil, which features the return of original member Raymond Watts (who had gone on to record in former Wax Trax! entity, Pig). The release blasts off with the nine inch nails-on-speed feel of "Ultra", and never slows down through songs like "Flesh", with guitars that cut like razor blade and a relentless attack of drum machines; "Beast", which has a very danceable beat to counter its very sinister tone, and the pounding and crunching of "Terror". The music of nine inch nails and Ministry has proven that industrial music can find a home in hard rock airwaves - as well as at the retail counters - and KMFDM have built up a enough of a following and a buzz (along with a discography that could outdo War And Peace) to merit the spot as next in line to the industrial music nobility.

Foetus, Null EP (Columbia)

The many faces of Jim Thirlwell have been analyzed by underground music fans over the years (the guy has released 32 recordings under 19 different identities), although, he is probably best known for his work in the group that you now hold in your hands: Foetus. With the full release, Gash, set to arrive in mid-April, there is plenty to keep your mind working overtime on this EP, particularly the three versions of the first single "Verklemmt", with vocals as gritty as the lyrics and a churning display of guitars blended with other electronics to create an over the top, melodic bombardment. Another song sure to see airplay is the pummeling groove of "Butter", which stomps undeterred like an assembly line punch press. With the in-house controversy of a name like Foetus, artwork that would make most men cross their legs, and music ready for the apocalypse, you would be hard pressed to find a single soul that could not respond in some way, shape or form to the blitz on their senses that Foetus provides. So, for any programmers out there who are looking for a sound that will electrify your audience like dropping a toaster into a bathtub, give some spins to "Verklemmt" and wait for the sparks to fly!

Misery Loves Co., "My Mind Still Speaks" (Epic)

Conceived from the mind-meld between Patrick Wren (vocals and guitar) and Orjan Ornkloo (programming and guitar), and featuring the talents of Jim Edwards (guitar), Marre (bass) and Bosse (drums), Misery Loves Co. explodes onto the hard rock/heavy metal scene with the first three tracks from their upcoming self-titled debut album. Some may call it musical cacophony, others just noise - but to those who have an understanding of the relentless, pummeling sound, will know that what you have in your hands is the future of the industrial revolution. The furious guitar antics, programming wizardry and unrelenting pace of "My Mind Still Speaks" makes it an exemplary metal radio track. To keep the intensity going, and making the most of the band's unique blend of death-like growls and melodic vocals, next up is "Need Another One", complete with screeching guitars, fueled by wall-opping bass work and drums. The spoken intro of "Happy?" adds yet another realm to their extreme rhythmical sense. You want a simple description of Misery Loves Co. - it won't happen. Suffice it to say, if you were to throw Pantera, nine inch nails and Stabbing Westward into a bowl and blend them you would have Misery Loves Co. And, if what you are looking for is layer after layer of churning, chaotic musical force, all coming together in a coalescence of noise, then you are in the right place.

Urban Dance Squad, "Demagogue" (Viper)

Having been at it for 9 years, this Dutch four piece (Rude Boy - vocals; Tres Manos - guitar; Magic Stick - drums; and Sil - bass) have perfected what has become the incredibly popular rock/rap/metal fused style of music of the '90s, only these guys add another key ingredient, funk - with a capital F. There is no way around it, one of the four versions of "Demagogue" (your first taste from the upcoming Persona Non Grata LP) found on the CD-pro will appeal to you and your listeners. The safe, clean edit - complete with a hazy guitar sound, gnarly vocals and a solid drum beat - is found first, but just because it's clean doesn't mean it loses any of the firepower or vitality of the song. The funkified flair of the Dance Squad is all over "Demagogue", with it's brisk tempo and groove heavy beat - it's danceable music with an urban flair. To add an even chunkier musical portion to your playlist, cue up number 3 (the live version) it adds another dimension to the song; capturing the sweltering energy of the band, mixing it with the already bruising force of the music. Give it a listen, keep in mind that WKNC and WSOU are already on it, and know that with the influx of the rap and metal fusion in this decade, this band will have no problem reestablishing themselves into the niche they helped create.

I DIG IT - I THINK IT'S GREAT! SCHIZOPHRENIC, SICK AND TWISTED AND ALL OVER THE PLACE. IT SHOWS A BROAD SPECTRUM OF MUSICAL KNOWLEDGE, INFLUENCES AND TALENT. "NOT FADE AWAY" AND "PIECE OF MIND" WORK WELL FOR US - BOTH OF 'EM GET GOOD RESPONSE.

Moby, "What Love" (Elektra/EEG)

We realize that Moby is not necessarily an artist with a background in the metal format (even though he was asked by Slayer to help them remix a tune or two), but what is offered on the "What Love" CD-pro can definitely make an impact on the metal market.

The current techno-industrial sound has taken off at lightning speed - much like the tempo of "What Love" and "All That I Need Is To Be Loved" - making it an easy assumption that he too will be embraced by the many fans of the genre. Moby's Elektra debut disc, Everything Is Wrong, is the home for a diverse collection of sound, and this single is no exception. With all the sights and sounds of New York's East Village, it's no wonder Moby has the gift to blend electronics, industrial sounds, and gritty vocals to come up with an esoteric, yet fierce brand of music. Digital Music Express and WKLL have already warmed up to Moby and his musical concoction, the rest of you can officially join them now by adding the CD-single today.

Mad Season, Above (Columbia)

A collaboration like this doesn't happen often - when key members of active bands who currently have material all over the charts find the time to create a project that is both spontaneous and magical. The members of Mad Season could comprise a who's who of Seattle music with Layne Staley (Alice in Chains) on vocals; Mike McCready (Pearl Jam) on guitar; Barrett Martin (Screaming Trees) on drums; and John Baker Saunders on bass. The music created here is dark and introspective, moody and impassioned, and while it may not hit you across the head with volume or bludgeoning riffs, its intensity will endear it to most hard rock fans. While AOR sifts through the eerie "River of Deceit", the meatier sounds of "Lifeless Dead", a fluent melody with hook laden guitars and brooding vocals, or the self examining croon and choppy groove of "I Don't Know Anything" will find their way onto the airwaves of the harder edged stations. This consortium first developed between McCready and Saunders, and back in Seattle, the remaining members were recruited, just in time to do some off the cuff live shows. It is amazing that in such a brief amount of time Mad Season found that chemistry that so many bands work for a lifetime to discover.

Stuck Mojo, Snappin' Necks (Century Media)

The Atlanta based Stuck Mojo have been popping up on many Hard Hitters playlists with their lead-off single "Not Promised Tomorrow" which has been getting airplay at WFCS, WFSE, WKSR, WTPA, WVCR, WZMB, WKNC, WKTA, KIOZ, WDWL, WKKL, WVUD, and WXTB with its full thrashing riffs and Sacred Reich-ish grooves. But now with the full release, Snappin' Necks, landing on desks (and in CD players), there are plenty of tracks to slam your way through, such as the title track, which shifts from relentless rhythms to more hip hop influenced, funky ending, and "Cake" with its crunching riffs and rapped vocals. The band members bring in their various backgrounds including metal, rap and reggae, and fuse them into an individual blend that will make your bootie move and then punch you square in the jaw. Stuck Mojo have worked consistently to develop their fanbase, playing an average of 16 shows a month from New York to Texas, including a SXSW showcase last year and a slot on the '94 NORML Hemp Coalition benefit show at the White House. So, before they come to your town and begin crushing skulls with their focused power, start Snappin' Necks with Stuck Mojo.

D.O.P.E., Resination (Anti-Matter)

Most bands like to start off slowly, maybe playing their first few gigs at a smaller club in front of just a few people to work out the kinks before graduating to bigger shows. Not D.O.P.E. Their first couple of shows put them on stage opening for the likes of White Zombie and L7 in front of sold out crowds at hipster clubs in the critical, seen-it-all, Chicago scene. Not only did they pull it off (and they did, I was at the shows), they won over a legion of new fans that have followed the band ever since. What makes D.O.P.E. unique is their blend of thick guitar rhythms with soul influenced (not hip hop, soul) vocals and jazz/fusion melodies topped off with some complex bass work. Some of the standout tracks to try spinning at metal radio include the slow groove of "Do 4 Self", the popping bass in "Next Level", the kinetic "Reality", and the grinding "Yell". For an completely unique energy, be sure to explore the uncommon pairing of old school funk, updated with buzzing fretwork, check out positive vibe of D.O.P.E.

Encomium - A Tribute to Led Zeppelin (Atlantic)

In an era inundated with tribute and compilation albums, now comes the definitive tribute album courtesy of those in the Atlantic Records offices with Encomium - A Tribute To Led Zeppelin. Having been cited by many hard rock/heavy metal bands of today as an influence, Zeppelin and their songs are timeless and incredibly radio friendly. On this collection, you will find the likes of the Rollins Band, Helmet and Stone Temple Pilots all lending their musical skills to the record. Rollins offers an aggressive in-ya-face version of "Four Sticks", while Helmet and David Yow joined together to thicken things up with their variation of "Custard Pie". A few other points of interest include Cracker's rousing rendition of "Good Times Bad Times" and an esoteric plug at "Out On The Tiles" from Blind Melon. Share this remarkable accolade to Led Zeppelin with old fans, and bring on some new ones by spinning Encomium today.

Warrant, Ultrapobic (CMC)

The trademark elements of the previous Warrant sound have all but disappeared and have been replaced by more mature song-writing and a further developed band. Joining original band members, Jani Lane,

Jerry Dixon, and Erik Turner, are guitarist Rick Steler, drummer James Kottak and keyboardist Dave White, and what has emerged are eleven well written songs - full of cascading guitar parts, hooky choruses and the recognizable Lane vocal style. Their musical evolution is indisputable; where you used to find strong carnal references you will now find subtle lyrics, the dueling guitars now emanate with stellar force, and the addition of keyboards add a new spectrum of sound. In picking and choosing, check out the energetic "Crawlspace" or "Live Inside Of You", while the pulverized "Ride #2" is an in-house fave. The first single, "Family Picnic", is on the airwaves of 18 Hard reporters, while the album is already on KNDI, WKTA and WXZR. With early stats like that, how can you lose.

A.C., Top 40 Hits (Earache)

Not ones to rest on their laurels, having already released several split EPs, four EPs of their own and an LP, A.C. offer the metal masses more of what they are known for - pure, pulverizing noise. Seth Putnam and crew put together a collection of faves on this grinding assortment of songs. Forty in all, you could play a slew of 'em on your show, considering most of 'em are under two minutes in length. With names like "Benchpressing The Effects On Kevin Sharp's Vocals", "Shut Up Mike, Pt. 2", "Morbid Dead Guy" and "Still A Freshman After All Of These Years" it's obvious that humor is a definite building block of their punishing style, while the addition of covers of Elton Jonn's "I'm Still Standing" and the Guess Who's "American Woman" showcases their talent. Three new adds came in on their "Stayin' Alive" 7" at WKNH, WNHU and WVBR, joining WCDB, WFCS, WJUL, WLFR, and WUNH who were already on it. With all this and more, what exactly are you waiting for?

METAL Filings

It would be safe to guess that a good portion of the metal contingent would be chomping at the bit to hear even a hint of the new 9 song Death (Roadrunner) album, Symbolic. You lucky folks, now have the Jim Morris produced, Chuck Schuldiner co-produced disc in hand and ready for adds this week. After you add it and play it, let your audience know the album will be in the stores March 21st... The Foetus (Columbia) Null EP, featuring the impact/emphasis cut "Verklemmt", has already debuted on four metal stations (KSJS, WKLL, WKNH, and WPMR) and is now going for official adds this week. Make a note that "Verklemmt" comes in a variety of ways on the CD-pro, where the other musical selections "Be Thankful", "Butter", and "Into The Light" are also featured... DMX and WKLL have discovered the dense musical sounds of Moby (Elektra/EEG) as the two stations have already added the "What Love" CD-pro. Everyone else should climb aboard and add the CD-single, that also features "All That I Need", March 13th and 14th... Three new adds came in this week on the A.C. "Stayin' Alive" 7" that was serviced a while back, including WKNH, WNHU, and WVBR, bringing the station total to eight. Therefore, it should be no problem for the A.C. album, Top 40 Hits, to grace the add lists of many of you this March 13th and 14th... "Not Promised Tomorrow" has seen some spinning action on 17 metal stations, with four new adds coming in just last week at WAIF, WDBM, WGLS and XBTD, now that the full length, Snappin' Necks, has arrived be sure to insert Stuck Mojo (Century Media) on your add/playlist this week... Misery Loves Co. (Earache) have provided the metal ranks with the three song "My Mind Still Speaks" CD-pro for adds March 13th and 14th. Found on the CD are the title track, "Need Another One" and "Happy?"... Warrant (CMC International), currently claiming the number 43 position on the Hard Hitters chart as their own, now hand over Ultraphobic, the full length record that spawned "Family Picnic" - a track still making the add lists of the likes of KATP, KISW, KVHS, WCWP and WZMB. The full length album, which technically goes for adds today, has already settled in on the add lists of KNDI, WKTA and WXZR a week or two early... Urban Dance Squad (Virgin) bring their funkified version of rock n' roll to radio with "Demagogue", the first cut taken from their upcoming release, Persona Non Grata. Serviced as a CD-pro, "Demagogue" can be found in four different versions - the clean edit, the dust mix, live, and in LP form - which ever version you choose, you should add it this week. If you don't believe me, just ask those at WCDB, WCWP or WSQU, cuz they are already on it... What really needs to be said about the Layne Staley, Mike McCready and Barrett collaboration, Mad Season (Columbia), except Add It Now!... Look for another servicing go 'round of the

Caspar Brotzmann Massaker (Thirsty Ear) five song Home disc. Three of you - KSJS, WSOU and WVUD - have already received it, listened to it, added it and then, gave it some spins, now the rest of you can do the same. Look for it on your desk for adds March 20th and 21st. P.S. Caspar and Co. are currently on the road playing dates across the continent. Upcoming special events for the Massaker include a stop at the SXSW convention in Austin, Texas on Saturday, March 18th... Search your the top of your desk for the 16 Volt (Cargo) album, Skin, that should have landed on it recently. Ten tracks are available to radio, why not check it out - KSJS already did... Okay, so last week we told you that the White Zombie (Geffen) track, "Supercharger Heaven", was set to go for metal radio adds March 27th and 28th, well, they're not - they are really going for adds on the 20th and 21st. Got that? The track is the first from the upcoming full length album, Astro-Creep: 2000 Songs Of Love, Destruction and Other Synthetic Delusions Of The Electric Head... The Scorpions (Mercury) return in March (on the 24th to be exact) with their third live album, Live Bites (1988-1995). The record will feature the likes of Scorps' classics "Rhythm Of Love", "Crazy World", "Is There Anybody There" and a studio version of "In Trance", along with the three new studio trax "Edge Of Time", "Heroes Don't Cry" and "White Dove"... Pyogenesis (Relapse/Nuclear Blast), who are gracing the airwaves of WDWN and WNI-U with their current release, will be offering the metal conglomerate Sweet X-Rated Nothings for adds April 3rd and 4th... dig (Radioactive) are all set to enter the studio to record their follow-up to their self-titled release of last year... Another heavy/punk record is on the way, in the form of P.O.L. - "Parade of Losers" (Giant). The record ships around April 18th with an add date of May 1st/2nd... April 28th marks the street date of the new Flotsam and Jetsam (MCA) album Drift. Yeah! The metal track scheduled to hit radio for April 10th and 11th adds is "Smoked Out". Neil Kernon produced the opus and Michael Barbario mixed it... Get this - the classic line-up of Phil Mogg, Michael Schenker, Pete Way, Andy Parker and Paul Raymond have reunited and are putting the finishing touches on their new record, Walk On Water. Yes, it's true, UFO have reunited! Ron Nevison handled the production chores on the album. Look for it in the middle of April... Morbid Angel's (Giant) Domination LP has been scheduled to ship April 18th in CD form and will then go for adds April 24th and 25th... April 18th marks the arrival of the newest Broken Hope (Metal Blade) album, Repulsive Conception... The Milwaukee trio known as Sometime Sweet Susan (Futurist) are preparing for the April release of The Coming Lights, their second full length release... Every death metal-head will want to add the Death Is Just The

The sophomore effort is due out this summer... After already releasing six recordings, Mind Over Four have inked a deal with Futurist Records and are currently recording their next release in Los Angeles... Slaughter have joined the many new faces at CMC International with plans to release their self-produced album, Fear No Evil, May 2nd. The foursome, Mark Slaughter, Dana Strum, Tim Kelly and Blas Elias, will hit the road April 18th in early support in the effort. Face To Face (A&M) wrap up their current road trip with the Mighty Mighty Bosstones (Mercury) with shows March 13th in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania and on the 17th in Fitchburg, Massachusetts... Hole (DGC) wind things down on their current tour with shows March 13th in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida; on the 14th in Orlando, Florida; on the 16th in Memphis, Tennessee; on the 19th in Denver, Colorado; and on the 20th in Salt Lake City, Utah. Catherine were tapped as the show openers... Look for Seed (Futurist) to take the stage at the SXSW convention on March 17th. And in other Seed news, Futurist Records will be releasing a limited edition colored vinyl version of the band's album, Ling... Po' Boy Swing (Royalty) have booked a few dates during March - you can catch the band March 24th in Cleveland, Ohio; the 25th in Detroit, Michigan; the 26th in Springfield, Virginia; on the 28th in New York, New York; and on the 31st (with Sweaty Nipples) in Old Bridge, New Jersey... Take note that a handful of the dates on the Circle Of Dust (R.E.X.) tour have been changed - check out the tour guide for the new dates and locations... Having just completed their first ever U.S. tour, Overdose (Futurist) are taking some time off (due to the unfortunate sickness of singer B.Z.), with plans on resuming their stateside west coast tour in late April. A major summer tour scheduled to stop in 40 major markets is in the works... Gorefest (Nuclear Blast/Relapse) are planning a summer tour, while vocalist/bassist Jan Chris and his wife are expecting their first child in May. Mausoleum Records have announced the closing of their eight week food drive campaign. The company will donate 1,572 cans of food to City Harvest (a NYC area food bank). In case you forgot, Mausoleum donated one can of food for each station that added any of their artists (i.e. Reign, Wrecking Machine, etc) to the trades during January, then for each ten point jump the artists made on the charts another 100 cans of food were donated. Not a bad turn-out, eh. This week's vital information includes the adding of KTOZ/Springfield and KRZZ/Wichita to our metal reporters roster. The metal director for KTOZ is Kevin Kline and the phone number is (417) 869-8400. The metal director for KRZZ is Jerry Thomas (J.T.) and the phone number is (316) 832-9600. Over and out. Peace.

Misery loves Co.

As the current Slayer, Biohazard and Machine Head tour wind down we figured it would be a perfect time to reflect on the fun those involved with the musical troupe. Here Warner Bros. rep Linnea Nan and KISW metal type Belinda Simmons flank the now hairless 'Hazard frontman Evan Seinfeld.

We're only slightly jealous of KZAK's Chris Payne as he is seen here in a special close and personal moment sharing space with Slayer mouthpiece Tom Araya.

Here's the lucky Belinda Simmons again, this time sharing the moment with fellow KISW staff person Jim, as the two are sandwiched between grimacing Slayer bassist Kerry King and stixman extraordinaire Paul Bostaph.

on the cover

Poster Children, "Junior Citizen," Sire/Reprise

One of our favorite records of the year so far, the Poster Kids' fourth full-length is a gem from start to finish. They show a level of maturity previously unseen in their earlier work, as the songs are cohesive, high-charged pop that maintains a zesty power throughout. Already raging hard at the Underground Network, as the record was spun 27 times last week. WOXY's Julie Forman comments, "I think this can be a teen anthem where 'Smells Like Teen Spirit' left off. Get on it NOW! They're going to be huge, so go out and rent those copies of Speedracer." And from WEQX's Gary Schoenwetter: "I think this is the Gen X, TV watching, Internet surfin' anthem of the 90's. Plus the video rules."

Sleeper, "Delicious," Arista

Alright, we've been talking about this band for weeks now, as it looks like their U.K. hugeness is about to be parlayed into Stateside success. Singer Louise Wener (whose favorite t-shirt simply states "another female fronted band") oozes with a charm and charisma that's as strong on record as it is live. She's confident, and so are we — this one's been all over college radio for the past few weeks, and with the Arista push heading into gear, the format should welcomingly embrace Ms. Wener & Co.. And, lest we say, with punk at a high point, can "newer wave" be far behind?

Jewel, "Who Will Save Your Soul," Atlantic

20-year-old Jewel Kilcher has won over a ton of fans since the record has come out, as her earnest vocals and songwriting style in general is a total breath of originality. Produced by Ben Keith (Patsy Cline, Neil Young's Harvest and Harvest Moon), Pieces Of You features live solo acoustic performances recorded and a San Diego coffeehouse, along with tracks recorded at Neil Young's studio. And Halloran's flipped over her, as the station has been supporting her since day one (hence the debut 16* on San Diego Soundscan). Look for some massive reaction to Jewel in the coming weeks.

Sybil Vane, "Pixy," Island

There's been lots of talk surrounding this Seattle-based foursome, as their brand of upbeat, dynamic music is highly emotive and charged with attitude. The band borrows its name from the heroine of Oscar Wilde's The Picture of Dorian Gray, and has been together for two years. Their self-titled debut, produced by Rick Parashar (Pearl Jam, Temple Of The Dog, Blind Melon), runs the gamut of aural colors and is highly expressive overall. Listen to format rascal Jonathan L.: "There's something to this band — I feel it, I honestly feel it. Call it dynamics, call it emotion, call it drama... Give me a woman with a powerful voice and it reduces me to a puddle. April Devereaux is for real."

REM has canceled its European tour dates through early summer as drummer Bill Berry recovers from brain surgery for a ruptured aneurysm, a sac formed by swelling in the weakened wall of an artery. Doctors expected Berry to be able to leave a Swiss hospital eight to 20 days after the surgery. Dates in Switzerland, France, Holland, Germany, Finland, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, the Czech Republic and the United Kingdom have all been canceled. The band's hoping to resume touring with a series of stadium shows in late June and early July. Berry collapsed during a concert in Lausanne, Switzerland. He reportedly held his head and left the stage in some pain. He was rushed to the local university hospital two nights later where he underwent emergency surgery to repair two aneurysms on the surface of the right side of his brain. The operation was declared a complete success and surgeons are monitoring Berry's recovery. Berry underwent a craniotomy, a micro-surgical procedure where the aneurysm is clipped and secured to prevent any further bleeding.

Bruce Springsteen will write and perform songs for an upcoming film being directed by Sean Penn. Variety reports that Springsteen liked what he saw in an advance version of the film. Springsteen may have an album of new material out in late September.

Polly Harvey says recording the new PJ Harvey album "To Bring You My Love" took its toll on her. "It was an incredibly emotional experience, I kept crying the whole time, I just couldn't help it," Harvey says. Many of the songs are about "searching for something I haven't found. I don't know what it is, but I hope I find it before I pop my clogs!"

Robyn Hitchcock says he's been "experimenting" with a diet free of meat and caffeine, and he's also abstaining from nicotine, alcohol and drugs. He says he's doing it for fun, because he wants to remind himself of what it was like as a child not to have artificial highs and lows. Hitchcock says that, despite what some people think, he was never a fan of LSD. "Acid didn't stimulate my creativity," he says. "It just made me more interested in reality, so I'd be more likely to watch 'News At Ten' or listen to 'Farming Today.' It reversed my natural inclinations. If I'd taken lots of acid, I think I'd probably just have become an accountant." Hitchcock is about to move to Chiswick, a western London suburb, to live with his girlfriend Michele.

Producer Don Was says he's going to Tokyo to work with a new album by the Rolling Stones. He's also planning to do a live album with Bonnie Raitt this summer, and he worked on the new album from the Highwaymen — Willie Nelson, Johnny Cash, Waylon Jennings and Kris Kristofferson which comes out next month. "Working with great people inspires you to do better," Was says. "When you're in the studio with the likes of someone like Bonnie or Willie Nelson or Bob Dylan, it raises your standards. Seeing great people create makes you want to go home and do it."

Sheryl Crow isn't doing too many interviews to capitalize on her Grammy success. "I'm not interested in being on the cover of Vogue or anything like that," she says. Crow does say she may move away from Los Angeles, possibly back to the Midwest. "Right now I'm trying to keep it very focused," she says. "I have to be more careful now about what I do that's not based on music. The music is what I've wanted to do for a long, long time, and now that it's going this well, I want to be careful not to screw it up." Crow's top-twenty "Tuesday Night Music Club" album has sold three million copies, and her record label expects to sell another million following the Grammy Awards.

Courtney Love's biological father reportedly tried to sell 35 poems he says were written by Love as a teenager. But the poems were withdrawn from a New York City auction when Love's attorney contended they were forged. The attorney, calling Hank Harrison an "unprincipled and despicable human being," said Love has not been in contact with him since she was 10 years old. Harrison told the auction house Guernsey's that Love had sent him the poems from reform school, her apartment and other locations while she was growing up. "He said he had kept the more risqué poems for an upcoming book he is planning to write about Courtney Love," an auction house employee says.

Marshall Crenshaw's new live album, "My Truck Is My Home" (on Razor & Tie Records) includes covers of songs by the Byrds, MC5 and Abba. Six of the 14 tracks on the album were originally recorded by other artists. The LP includes the MC5's "Tonight," Abba's "Knowing Me, Knowing You," and the Byrds' "Have You Seen Her Face." "I used to see the MC5 when I was in my teens in Detroit," Crenshaw says. "I always dug them to death, I still think they were one of the most charismatic bands I've ever seen they tried to make every song an event. I started playing 'Tonight' when I was in high school, and one night we did it as an encore in Minneapolis. But I also like Abba a lot. I thought they were masters of escapist entertainment. Everyone is a closet Abba fan. I've found." Crenshaw also covered "Silver Wings" for the Merle Haggard tribute album "Tulare Dust" (on Hightone Records), and has contributed a track to the upcoming Harry Nilsson tribute album.

Buffalo Tom are recording a new album in Woodstock, New York.

The LP, tentatively entitled "Murder," is said to be a compilation of ballads about killing. Cave has also written a number of songs for Minogue's next album.

Evan Dando may hire Rah Ahn, formerly of the Hard-Ons, as the replacement for bass player Nic Dalton in the Lemonheads.

Stanshall formed the London band, which included Monty Python's Neil Innes, in 1965 while studying at a London art college. The band had a number five hit in 1968 with "Urban Spaceman," from the "Tadpoles" album. Stanshall ended up having a nervous breakdown because of alcohol and tranquilizer use. He later campaigned against prescription drugs claiming he spent a "lost weekend of 14 years" because of them. Stanshall appeared in the Beatles' movie "Magical Mystery Tour" and narrated Mike Oldfield's "Tubular Bells." Stanshall had been married twice but was living alone when he died.

A spokesman says Jackson has made a donation to a fund established in honor of the surviving boy.

Cold Water Flat, a Boston band whose Paul Janovitz is the younger brother of Buffalo Tom's Bill Janovitz, releases a self-titled album this month. The LP includes songs about Janovitz' break-up with his fiancée and a six-month stay in the psychiatric ward of a New York hospital a couple of years ago. Janovitz credits Juliana Hatfield with helping the band get signed. Cold Water Flat is currently on a European tour with Belly, and will tour the U.S. with Hatfield. "Most bands would kill to be on these shows," Janovitz says. "What more could you ask for?"

Producer Pierre Cosette says the televised broadcast of the Grammy Awards might be spread out over two nights next year so that more categories could be given out on the program.

The U.S. Internal Revenue Service has placed a lien on Aretha Franklin's home in suburban Detroit, claiming she owes almost $500,000 for 1993 income taxes. The home, reported to be worth over $1 million dollars, is Franklin's principal address, the IRS says.

The house where Harrison stayed with his sister on the Beatles' first trip to the U.S. is scheduled to be torn down to make room for a parking lot. Franklin County Tourism Director Bob Rea says the investor wants to buy a nearby home and let the state use it for parking instead.

The mother of "Baywatch" star Pamela Anderson says she's calmed down since the day she slammed the phone down on her daughter, who had called from Cancun to say she'd married Tommy Lee of Motley Crue after a five-day courtship. "The whole wedding was on the beach and everything — it was kind of hard to accept because the whole thing was done so fast," Carol Anderson says. "But she looked cute. Now I'm hoping that they will re-do the wedding vows and have a nice family wedding." Just after learning of the marriage, Anderson had predicted it would "last two weeks." "Weddings should be a cause for celebration in a family but this is more like a death," she initially told reporters. "I hate this Tommy Lee or Bone, or whatever they call him."

"We plan to play lots of clubs and theaters and the show will be about as far away from Genesis as you can get." There may be another Genesis album next year, Rutherford adds. "1995 is the year of the Mechanics, so Genesis will not be around until next year."

Sheryl Crow has recorded a version of Led Zeppelin's "D'yer Maker" for the upcoming album of Zeppelin covers. She's already been performing the song live.

Green Day has covered the Kinks' "Tired Of Waiting" for the vinyl single of "Basketcase."

Liz Phair says the relative lack of success of her second album "Whip-Smart" came in part because she canceled a tour last fall and started doing less publicity. "There are times when it is fun and it is a pageant, but there are times when it is so oppressive that you feel like you are the least powerful person in the situation," she says. "Those are the times when it feels that none of the artistry matters...that everything is simply a strategy to sell records, and that's when it becomes overwhelming."

Memorabilia from Curtis Mayfield, Wilson Pickett and the late Otis Redding will be part of an R&B/soul exhibit that will go on display when the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame & Museum opens in Cleveland, Ohio, on Labor Day.

Have Hootie & The Blowfish changed because of the success of "Cracked Rear View"? "We used to write three-chord pop songs, and now we write five-chord pop songs," says drummer Jim "Soni" Sonefeld. He says the band has refined its songwriting process over the years but hasn't worried about having a particular style. "We're a band from the South, not a Southern-rock band," Sonefeld says.

Former Woods drummer Terry Anderson is releasing an album this month on the independent record label that's home to Chris Stamey and the Bottlerockets.

Ed Stasium is producing demos for Charlotte band 2nd Skin, a spinoff of Fetchin' Bones.

Trial has begun in Miami of a lawsuit against Luther Campbell, formerly Luke of the rap group 2 Live Crew, filed by a former girlfriend who says he secretly recorded their sexual telephone conversations and used them on the record "I've Got Sum Thin On My Mind." Nelda Parinas claims emotional damage and embarrassment and wants a portion of royalties from the track released four years ago. Her attorneys say the record sold over 350,000 copies and grossed $4 million. "She felt one step away from being raped," says attorney Luis Stabinski. "Under no circumstances would she have allowed anyone to hear her sexual activities." Campbell's attorneys contend that Parinas signed an agreement allowing use of the tape recordings.

John Denver won't face prosecution for drunken driving in Aspen, Colorado, because he's already been cleared of the charge at a license revocation hearing. Pitkin County Judge Tom Scott agreed with Denver's attorney that prosecuting Denver would be double jeopardy. However, prosecutors said they would appeal the judge's ruling. A license examiner reinstated Denver's drivers license because Denver was not given a blood test within two hours, as required by state law. Denver was arrested after wrecking his Porsche in August 1994. His attorney says Denver hasn't had a drink since then.

A St. Louis-based clothing manufacturer has filed a $51 million lawsuit against Yoko Ono and the John Lennon estate, claiming it was defrauded into believing it had purchased the exclusive license to use Lennon's likeness and drawings on clothing. Leggoons Inc. says it was damaged when the defendants signed similar licensing agreements with other companies. The lawsuit seeks $50 million in punitive damages and $1 million in actual damages.

AIDS charities will benefit from an Elton John album called "Made In England" that will include his versions of songs by Creedence Clearwater Revival, Stevie Wonder, the BeeGees and other cover versions. The label says most of the tracks were recorded before John became well-known.

Bela Fleck & The Flecktones start a North American tour on March 22 in Castleton, Vermont.

While Faith No More's new album "King For A Day, Fool For A Lifetime" features guitarist Trey Spruance, he's already out of the band, replaced by Dean Menta of San Francisco band Duh, who had been a keyboard technician with the band. Spruance wasn't up for the quintet's sometimes grueling tour schedule. "I know Trey, and I told the other guys that this might happen," singer Mike Patton says. "Touring is a weird thing. It's like getting married to four different people....It's an adventure, if you're into it. It's understandable that someone wouldn't want to commit for up to two years." The new album was recorded in Woodstock and produced by the band and Andy Wallace, who's worked with Nirvana, Soul Asylum, Alice In Chains and Bad Religion.

The Disneyland near Paris, France, is sponsoring Elton John's upcoming European tour which begins in May. He'll also perform at the theme park to launch a new Space Mountain attraction.

Seattle band Love Battery have released an album called "Straight Freak Ticket," produced by Bruce Calder in Seattle.

Material Issue has left its record label (Mercury Records) and the band's manager says recent personnel changes at the label caused sales of the album "Freak City Soundtrack" to peak at 40,000 copies. That's far short of the 260,000 copies sold of the band's debut album. Pete Katsis of the band's management says the label's alternative promotion director and Bob Skoro, the executive who signed the band, were fired, leaving the band without its "biggest fans" at the label.

Ini Kimoze, Buju Banton, Shabba Ranks and Patra are among the nominees for the Seventh Annual Tamika Reggae Awards which will be given out in New York City on March 27. At the show at Town Hall, donations will be offered for trust funds in memory of Garnett Silk and Early B, who both died last year.

There are plans to reissue Aswad's "Rise And Shine" album with three new tracks and two bonus mixes. The British reggae band is also slated to tour North America in April.

Former Prime Minister Edward Seaga is leading an effort to create a Jamaica Music Museum in downtown Kingston.

The artist formerly known as Prince kicked off his European tour performing in London on his specially-designed genitalia-shaped stage with the word "slave" written on his face. He played a two-hour set of new songs from his unreleased "Gold Experience" album. Many fans left early, disappointed by the lack of hits in the evening. Prince played only two songs from previous albums. The set includes lengthy jams and funk workouts based on the new album.

Vivian Stanshall, formerly frontman of The Bonzo Dog Doo-Dah Band, has died in a fire. He was 52. The comedian, lyricist and singer was a much loved figure on the English music scene. In the early '60s, Stanshall rebelled against his father's wishes that he pursue a conventional career and entered the London Central School Of Art. While there, he formed the Bonzo's (originally known as The Bonzo Dog Dada Band) in 1965. The band recorded their debut album Gorilla in 1966 and quickly attracted a following for their idiosyncratic take on pop. The band specialized in satire and parody, recording their biggest hit with "Urban Spaceman". By the early '70s, the band had split and Stanshall became more famous as a drinking buddy of The Who's Keith Moon than as an artist in his own terms. However, he bounced back from this period, supported by such figures as the

BBC Radio One network DJ John Peel, to come up with the film Sir Henry At Rawlinson End, starring Trevor Howard in the title role. He was also the narrator of Mike Oldfield's Tubular Bells. Later, Stanshall provided many of the lyrics to Steve Winwood's Arc Of A Diver album. At the time of his death, Stanshall was working on an album for Warner Music. It is to be hoped the company choose to release some of the completed tracks. One quote from the eccentric genius (a phrase which would be a cliché if it wasn't so apt) stands out: "They can never do what I'm going to do tomorrow." Writing in The Guardian newspaper, former Bonzo Dog Doo-Dah Band member Neil Innes says: "Can any of us say anything appropriate about such a man at a time like this? I cannot—I am sad and angry that he did not take more care of himself—but I prefer to think of his brilliance. We shall all deeply miss him but his comic genius and the stories will live on—and, unlike the '60s, even if we can't remember all that happened, Vivian Stanshall was really there." Such elegant words probably deserve to be left to stand without comment. Nevertheless, can I just say I will mourn the passing of Vivian Stanshall, as will many of my friends: his work always provided us with a sense of joy at the absurdity of life. (Vivian Stanshall: Born 21 March 1943, died 5 March 1995)...Manic Street Preachers' guitarist/lyricist Richey Edwards was still missing

My favorite song of the moment is Live's "Lightning Crashes" because it's the only song I can think of that has the word "placenta" in it. In the last couple of weeks I've caught a couple of great live shows from Oasis and the Chris Duarte Group. Both are definitely worth checking out. March Madness is fast approaching. We don't care what anybody says, if they use replacement players in the NCAA, we aren't watching, dammit. The way things were around here last week, you would have thought March Madness had already started. Thursday we had the Murmurs stop by the studio before their sold out show at The Regency. Heather and Leisha played live in the studio with Rob Nicholson and about thirty Channel Z listeners. They sounded great and were very nice and personable signing autographs and taking photos with the listeners. On to the venue where 700 Channel Z fans packed the joint singing and frolicking along with the Murmurs. If you can imagine a pit during You Suck... yes, Channel Z listeners do love to mosh. A very hearty thank you to Tom Starr, Gary Spivack, MCA and the Murmurs for an excellent time and a great night of music. Friday, Channel Z fans were treated to a very special event when Love Spit Love came to town. Channel Z, in an unprecedented move in Springfield radio, broadcast "Live From The Balcony" of the Regency Showcase. Rob Nicholson did his show live from four to seven pm. Channel Z invited listeners to show up to be a part of the broadcast and to enjoy happy hour drink specials as well as an incredible live acoustic performance by Richard Butler and Richard Fortus. Richard and Richard played "Codiene" and "Wake Up" from the self-titled Love Spit Love CD, which were sent out live over the airwaves of Channel Z. In between songs, fans got to meet Richard and Richard, getting autographs from and photos taken with the two incredible musicians. It was an enormous event that proved Channel Z is the market leader for live music. It was a perfect way to kick off "Live From The Balcony" an event we are extremely excited about knowing it will become a staple of Channel Z, further separating us from the other stations in the market. Friday also marked the beginning of our Belly weekend. Throughout the entire weekend, Channel Z gave away copies of the new Belly cd, allowing listeners to be "KING" for a day. Phones lit up like paparazzi cameras at a "Royal" wedding. A regal thank you to "Queen" Kim Poole, she stopped by Channel Z last week to share some upcoming new music with us. Vivian Stanshall, formerly frontman of The Bonzo Dog Doo-Dah Band, has died in a fire. He was 52. The comedian, lyricist and singer was a much loved figure on the English music scene. In the early '60s, Stanshall rebelled against his father's wishes that he pursue a conventional career and entered the London Central School Of Art. While there, he formed the Bonzo's (originally known as The Bonzo Dog Dada Band) in 1965. The band recorded their debut album Gorilla in 1966 and quickly attracted a following for their idiosyncratic take on pop. The band specialized in satire and parody, recording their biggest hit with "Urban Spaceman". By the early '70s, the band had split and Stanshall became more famous as a drinking buddy of The Who's Keith Moon than as an artist in his own terms. However, he bounced back from this period, supported by such figures as the

BBC Radio One network DJ John Peel, to come up with the film Sir Henry At Rawlinson End, starring Trevor Howard in the title role. He was also the narrator of Mike Oldfield's Tubular Bells. Later, Stanshall provided many of the lyrics to Steve Winwood's Arc Of A Diver album. At the time of his death, Stanshall was working on an album for Warner Music. It is to be hoped the company choose to release some of the completed tracks. One quote from the eccentric genius (a phrase which would be a cliché if it wasn't so apt) stands out: "They can never do what I'm going to do tomorrow." Writing in The Guardian newspaper, former Bonzo Dog Doo-Dah Band member Neil Innes says: "Can any of us say anything appropriate about such a man at a time like this? I cannot — I am sad and angry that he did not take more care of himself — but I prefer to think of his brilliance. We shall all deeply miss him but his comic genius and the stories will live on — and, unlike the '60s, even if we can't remember all that happened, Vivian Stanshall was really there." Such elegant words probably deserve to be left to stand without comment. Nevertheless, can I just say I will mourn the passing of Vivian Stanshall, as will many of my friends: his work always provided us with a sense of joy at the absurdity of life. (Vivan Stanshall: Born 21 March 1943, died 5 March 1995)...Manic Street Preachers' guitarist/lyricist Richey Edwards was still missing

By the early '70s, the band had split and Stanshall became more famous as a drinking buddy of The Who's Keith Moon than as an artist in his own terms. However, he bounced back from this period, supported by such figures as the

BBC Radio One network DJ John Peel, to come up with the film Sir Henry At Rawlinson End, starring Trevor Howard in the title role. He was also the narrator of Mike Oldfield's Tubular Bells. Later, Stanshall provided many of the lyrics to Steve Winwood's Arc Of A Diver album. At the time of his death, Stanshall was working on an album for Warner Music. It is to be hoped the company choose to release some of the completed tracks. One quote from the eccentric genius (a phrase which would be a cliché if it wasn't so apt) stands out: "They can never do what I'm going to do tomorrow." Writing in The Guardian newspaper, former Bonzo Dog Doo-Dah Band member Neil Innes says: "Can any of us say anything appropriate about such a man at a time like this? I cannot—I am sad and angry that he did not take more care of himself—but I prefer to think of his brilliance. We shall all deeply miss him but his comic genius and the stories will live on—and, unlike the '60s, even if we can't remember all that happened, Vivian Stanshall was really there." Such elegant words probably deserve to be left to stand without comment. Nevertheless, can I just say I will mourn the passing of Vivian Stanshall, as will many of my friends: his work always provided us with a sense of joy at the absurdity of life. (Vivan Stanshall: Born 21 March 1943, died 5 March 1995)...Manic Street Preachers' guitarist/lyricist Richey Edwards was still missing as "UK Music News" went to press. His disappearance is also being linked to a 17-year-old girl, Sally Allen of Swinton, West Yorkshire, north England, running away from home. According to Sally's mother Lynn Cooke: "She's a huge fan of Richey Edwards and she's not been right since he went missing. She's cut her hair off, she's virtually anorexic and couldn't stop talking about him when he disappeared. Everything she's done seems to be down to this. We're very worried." Meanwhile, detectives investigating the disappearance of Edwards say he has not been seen since February 1...Music Week, the industry paper, have been giving out their annual awards. In a ceremony held at London's Grosvenor Park Hotel on March 2, the main award winners were as follows: RM Club Cut: Loveland Featuring Rachel McFarlane Vs Darlene Lewis

— "Let The Music (Lift You

Up)" (Eastern Bloc/Six6); Top Single: Wet Wet Wet — "Love Is All Around" (The Precious Organization and Mercury); Top Album: Bon Jovi — Cross Road — The Best Of Bon Jovi (Mercury); Top Music Video: Take That — "Berlin" (BMG Video); Best Product Packaging — Simon Ryan and The Beautiful South for "Miaow"; Top Promo Video: Howard Greenhalgh for Soundgarden's "Blackhole Sun"; Best Venue: London Shepherd's Bush Empire; Top Airplay Award: Wet Wet Wet — "Love Is All Around" (The Precious Organization and Mercury); and Top Indie Label — Creation...Pink Floyd's Rick Wright is suing Yes frontman Jon Anderson for around $1.5 million. Anderson was declared bankrupt in the UK last year, owing a large sum to the tax authorities. However, Wright's action against Anderson stems from Pink Floyd's allegations against accountant Martin Stainton. The band accused Stainton of stealing millions from them and Wright says some of the money went through accounts in Anderson's name. Anderson, now a resident in California, says he knows nothing about the money...Cynthia Lennon has been talking to Q about her experiences as the "secret" wife of John Lennon. Beatles manager Brian Epstein decreed that none of the band should admit in public to being married and Cynthia says of the London flat she was living at in 1963: "Top floor. 15 pounds a week and no lift, which was great fun with the pram, with fans outside blocking up the key-hole with chewing gum and sleeping on the stairs overnight. Thankfully, we were young and everything was so exciting. They were going to the top of the charts. It was just an amazing experience." Cynthia also comments on the portrayal of her in the movie Backbeat. She says that, overall, the film was fair, but also says, "I think there was one comment from me that all I wanted was a house and babies. But I had been studying for five years to be a teacher, so to say all I wanted was the house missed me slightly. I also had a headscarf and a tweed coat on which was not me because I was quite a with-it student, in trousers." Cynthia also talks about Paul McCartney's supportiveness when her marriage to John broke up: "He was devastated by the break-up. He bought me a rose and offered marriage as a joke: 'We'll show 'em, won't we, Cyn?' It was very touching and on the way to the house he had written 'Hey Jude'. It always brings tears to my eyes, that song." Cynthia Lennon, now 55, has just released her first single, a cover of Mary Hopkins "Those Were The Days"...Polly Harvey has been talking to Select about her childhood in the south west of England. According to Harvey: "They (her parents) didn't really play in bands. But Ian Stewart (the "sixth Stone" keyboard player) was a good friend of my mum and dad's. Sorry, this is a bit embarrassing. In the '60's, there was a group of people round here called, don't laugh, The Flowers. Every weekend people would come from miles away and mainly down from London. They'd travel down because they'd heard about this really good scene. They'd gather on the beach, go down by the sea, have a swim, jump off the pier. When it was stormy, they'd get completely pissed. They made a lot of friends that remained with them for the rest of their lives. everyone was into the music. Stewart would get them all into gigs. It was a real hippy, freedom thing. I've seen some amazing photos from that time. This area was a landing point for lots of hippies." PJ Harvey's new album To Bring You My Love (Island) has been picking up rave reviews in the UK, as has the band's current tour...Pulp are in the studio working on tracks for a new single. The most likely a-side is "Common People", a song the band previewed at the 1994 Reading Festival...Cast is the new band formed by John Power, formerly bass player with The La's. The band will shortly record their debut album with John Leckie at the production helm. The album will be released via Polydor. However, Power warns people not to expect another "There She Goes". Speaking to Select, Power, who sings and plays guitar with Cast, says: "We want to bring things up to date for us, for Cast, because that's all I'm concerned about — I only look to the future. We don't want to be black and white, we want to be full-colour 1995. No retro..."Radiohead's Thom Yorke has been talking to Vox about his health problems when he was a child. The singer says: "When I was born, my left eye was completely paralyzed. My eyelid was permanently shut and they thought it would be like that for the rest of my life. Then some specialist bloke realized he could graft a muscle in, like a bionic eye. So I had six operations between the age of nought and six. They fucked up the last one and I went half blind. I can kind of see. I can judge if I'm hoping to hit something, but that's just about it. They made me go around with a patch on my eye for a year, saying, 'Oh well, it just got lazy through all the operations,' which was crap because they just damaged it. The first operation I had, I was just learning to speak, and apparently I asked, 'What have I got?' I didn't know. I woke up and I had this huge thing on my eye and, according to my parents, I just doubled up and started crying." Radiohead's new album The Bends is picking up rave reviews in the UK...Wire's Colin Newman has made a somewhat ironic comment on the recent awarding of some of the royalties from Elastica's "Connection" to the band on the grounds of its similarity to the Wire song "Three Girl Rhumba". Speaking to Vox, Newman says: "I hate all that (bands giving royalty invoices to other bands). Old gits trying to get revenge on young upstarts — what's the point? I mean every track on Pink Flag (Wire's first album) is a recycled rock classic. Done at weird angles, maybe, but I can recognize them." Elastica's self-titled debut album is picking up strong reviews in the UK and, according to the BBC Radio One network, Debbie Harry and Iggy Pop were in the audience when the band played in New York recently...Juliana Hatfield says she had a breakdown during the recording of her latest album Only Everything. Speaking to the New Musical Express, the singer says: "I thought about suicide because I was depressed. In some ways, thinking about it was comforting. It was good to know I had an option if things got too bad. I had time when it was grim. I couldn't leave my apartment. I always used to think I wasn't fucked up enough to be a great artist. But now I don't think that. I'm not saying I'll ever be a great artist, I'm just saying I'm fucked up."...Boy George will release a version of Iggy Pop's "Funtime" as a single via Virgin on March 20. The track is the only cover version on the singer's new album Cheapness And Beauty, available on May 1. According to George: "This is my coming-out record, not in any sour-faced militant way because some of my best friends are straight. I really have come to the conclusion that heterosexuality is as perverted as homosexuality and that bisexuality is as common sense as Buddhism or a good cup of tea. Pass the PG — this record encourages your kids to be what they are." George's autobiography Take It Like A Man will be published in April...Kingmaker will return with a new single "In The Best Possible Taste" via Chrysalis on April 3. The band are planning a tour of small UK venues to tie in with the single...Marc Almond is working on new songs in the studio. The singer is now with Mercury Records after being dropped by WEA...Elton John has been talking to Q about the reaction to his coming out as gay. Asked if telling the press he was bisexual damaged his career in America, Elton comments: "Yeah, radio stations stopped playing my records and people burnt albums in the streets. You know what they're like, fucking nut cases in certain areas of America. But after I did that Cliff Jarr interview in Rolling Stone, which I thought was very fair and very accurate and I wasn't unhappy with it at all, it didn't actually hit here (the UK) for a couple of years. It was when Waterford (the soccer club John use to be chairman of) were playing Rochdale and we were in a hotel in Manchester and my mum said, 'Ouch, bloody hell, have you seen the front of the Daily Mirror (a tabloid newspaper)?' I said 'No.' She said, 'Well I'd better warn you.' The manager at the time said, 'Look, all the boys have seen it, don't worry about it, they're fine, forget it.' I said I was bisexual and I was the first major star at the time apart from David Bowie to admit that. A lot of people still don't believe it. (Laughing) All the blind people in the world. But I feel very easy about my sexuality now. I always have. I thought everybody knew anyway." Elton John has been promoting his new album Made In England (Rocket) with a series of interviews, a contrast to previous years where he has been more reticent...The Stranglers may soon tour with Hugh Cornwall returning to front the band. The singer/guitarist has been pursuing a solo career in recent years...Cher, Neneh Cherry, Chrissie Hynde of The Pretenders and Eric Clapton all feature on "If Love Can Build A Bridge," a single to support the BBC television network's annual Comic Relief telethon.

CATHY FAULKNER/KISW, SEATTLE

I had a blast in Los Angeles last week. It was great to catch up with everybody; Thanks to Bill and Rose, Mark Felsot, Pam Edwards, Gary Poole, Dave and Charlene Ross, Kim Langbecker, Scott Finck, Dave Lombardi, Neil Lasher, Beth Tallman, Dave Ross, Jeff Naumann and Michael Pappalli for their part in making my visit extra special. Feel free to invade my town anytime... I'm a good tour guide! Mad Season is the rock record we've been waiting for! Be ready to dig deep into this one, it's magnificent. Love the Faith No More, love the Collective Soul, and Monster Magnet rules!!!

CARTER ALAN/WBCN, BOSTON

With a crash of volume and an explosion of laser light, the skies parted and the Hammer of the Gods again fell to Earth for some worthy souls to pick up. Ecomium is a delight! Can you say multi-format smash? Stone Temple Pilots wield the hammer with steady hands, turning in an unplugged flavoring that swaggers and entices. Hootie and the Blowfish offer a nearly-faithful reading of Zeppelin's original course and Cracker burn on "Good Times, Bad Times." Like a Hammer of the Gods, this album is a gift from above to the format(s). We're loving Better Than Ezra here at "The Rock!" What a song - what an album! Name's a little weird, but so is mine, so who cares? "Good" continues to stomp up our airplay and request charts here as people finally connect the hit melody and performance with the name of the band and song. Looking forward to seeing these guys live. Bush blew through town last week and at last report, construction crews were still reassembling the Paradise Theater! Hard rockin' with distinctive lead vocals, the band enjoyed a sold-out house. The pit rated an 8.5 from this judge, with bonus points going to the guy that vaulted the barrier and slammed his head into a vocal monitor. OUCH! What did he expect, the guitarist to keep him up? After 9 weeks of steady airplay, "Everything Zen" shows no signs of letting up. Favorite track on air these days is Elastica "Connection." What a sneering lead vocal! As visions of stiletto heels dancing on your head parade by, the guitars do a blazing slam dunk. More please!

TJ BRYAN/WDHA, DOVER

My favorite song of the moment is Live's "Lightning Crashes" because it's the only song I can think of that has the word "placenta" in it. Other great new stuff out there includes Sons of Elvis, Our Lady Peace, Goo Goo Dolls, Todd Snider, Bush, and Sheryl Crow covering Derek & the Dominoes. In the last couple of weeks I've caught a couple of great live shows from Oasis and the Chris Duarte Group. Both are definitely worth checking out. Thanks to Dave Morrell for bringing Timbuk 3 by 'DHA to play live on our Sunday morning progressive show. Pat McDonald & Barbara K. sounded excellent on the air and were incredibly nice people (despite the fact that it was at 9am on a Sunday), who even listened to me babble about performing "The Future's So Bright" at a lip-sync contest when I was in high school. Ah, memories. By the way, how did Soundgarden get nominated in Rock, Hard Rock and Heavy Metal categories? Hell, let's give 'em a Grammy for best female country artist, too. And how did Crash Test Dummies get nominated for Best New Artist with their SECOND album? The Grammy's just get more and more ridiculous each year. I think I'll start my own awards show next year. I think I'll start my own awards show next year. Make your reservations now for the "Teef" awards, coming soon to a network near you. As always, it's been a business doing pleasure with you.

JOHN LENAC/KEVIN KLINE KTOZ-CHANNEL Z, AUGUSTA

March Madness is last approaching. We don't care what anybody says, if they use replacement players in the NCAA, we aren't watching, dammit. The way things were around here last week, you would have thought March Madness had already started. Thursday we had the Murmurs stop by the studio before their sold out show at The Regency. Heather and Leisha played live in the studio with Rob Nicholson and about thirty Channel Z listeners. They sounded great and were very nice and personally signing autographs and taking photos with the listeners. On to the venue where 700 Channel Z fans packed the joint singing and frolicking along with the Murmurs. If you can imagine a pit during You Suck... yes, Channel Z listeners do love to mosh. A very hearty thank you to Tom Starr, Gary Spivack, MCA and the Murmurs for an excellent time and a great night of music. Friday, Channel Z fans were treated to a very special event when Love Spit Love came to town. Channel Z, in an unprecedented move in Springfield radio, broadcast "Live From The Balcony" of the Regency Showcase. Rob Nicholson did his show live from four to seven pm. Channel Z invited listeners to show up to be a part of the broadcast and to enjoy happy hour drink specials as well as an incredible live acoustic performance by Richard Butler and Richard Fortus, Richard and Richard played "Codiene" and "Wake Up" from the self-titled Love Spit Love CD, which were sent out live over the airwaves of Channel Z. In between songs fans got to meet Richard and Richard, getting autographs from and photos taken with the two incredible musicians. It was an enormous event that proved Channel Z is the market leader for live music. It was a perfect way to kick off "Live From The Balcony" an event we are extremely excited about knowing it will become a staple of Channel Z, further separating us from the other stations in the market. Friday also marked the beginning of our Belly weekend. Throughout the entire weekend, Channel Z gave away copies of the new Belly cd, allowing listeners to be "KING" for a day. Phones lit up like paparazzi cameras at a "Royal" wedding. A regal thank you to "Queen" Kim Poole, she stopped by Channel Z last week to share some upcoming new music with us. Although the visit was short, it was nice to see Kim. We need your help. Our Sunday night "Blues Alternative" show is in need of some new Blues tunes, or any catalog material you'd like exposed. Please send any Blues music to us in care of Bert Smith, the host of our Blues show. (KTOZ-FM, 309 N. Jefferson, Suite #340, Springfield, MO). Also, we are starting a top five countdown every Friday evening on the most watched local news station in town. KYTV our NBC affiliate will feature "The Channel Z Top Five At Five." Please send us music videos on Beta broadcast quality tape or 3/4 inch tape for the upcoming newscasts. Send the videos to John Lenac who will be producing the feature.

BEAVER BROWN/KDJK, OAKDALE

It's been a while since I talked to the masses, so here's the skinny on what's happening here at KDJK. We are now "The New Rock Alternative, 95.1/KDJK". If your record company puts out alternative product, put KDJK on your mailing list! I am now the "Music Coordinator" at KDJK. Chris Squires is the acting P.D. Please address all music calls to me, don't bother Chris with music calls! My music call hours are Monday-Wed., 8:30AM to 10:00AM. I am on the air from 10AM to 3PM so I can't take music calls at that time, but leave a message and I'll get back to you at a later time. KDJK is consulted by Bill Gamble at Q101 in Chicago. All music decisions are coming from him. You can call me for plays per week and adds. we can talk music too, but Bill gives KDJK our adds. Thanks for all the support so far!

BRUCE WARREN WORLD CAFE/WXPN, PHILADELPHIA

A Fan's Notes: 1. Branford Marsalis sits in with World Cafe host David Dye as guest DJ. Branford's picks include Elton John, Earth, Wind, and Fire, and Miles Davis. Too cool. 2. Guided By Voices — Alien Lanes Like R.E.M. in the early '80s; like The Hollies circa '66 GBV's new album is obscurist lo-fi AM radio rock soaked in melodic bliss. 3. BMX Bandits — Life Goes On (Creation/Tri Star) — What The Pursuit of Happiness would sound like if Moe Berg weren't a screamer. 4. Fontella Bass — No Ways Tired (Nonesuch) — With a new gospel record from this R&B diva; "Rescue Me" takes on a new meaning. 5. CAKE — "Rock and Roll Lifestyle" — possibly another alternative one-hit wonder. I've already started the book First chapter belongs to Weezer. 6. Steve Earle — Train A Comin' (Winter Harvest Records) — Back in the saddle, Steve unplugs and is mad as hell. Emmylou Harris, Norman Blake, and Peter Rowan sit in. Acoustic country punk rules. 7. Matthew Sweet — 100% Fun — Purer pop for now people. When will he tour with Aimee Mann? 8. The THE — Hanky Panky — Matt Johnson takes a stab at Hank Williams Sr. Tortured genius; only love can break your heart; darkness on the edge of town... stuff like that. 9. Simon Bonney — Everyman — A trip across the heartland; like the Band's self-titled reflection of the myths of Americana history; like Jimmy Webb, Marty Robbins, T.C. Boyle, James Ellroy, Elvis, and The Man in Black. 10. The Cranberries — If this were 1968, I'd buy all their 45's. Truly one of the first great "singles" bands of the '90s. Until next week...

DUG/WPUP, ATHENS

Mark Kordelos talked to me into adding "Swell." (didn't hurt that I love the band) Lots of people should send business to him. Safety tip: don't work on barbed wire fences that are covered in briars and rosebushes. But if you don't mind bleeding, Magnapop, Elastica, and (of course) certain Jesus and Mary Chain albums are great music to work to. I'm already getting calls on songs off of Ballhog or... that I'm not even playing. Specifically "Drove Up From Pedro." Of course, this means that it was played. The Archers of Loaf/Superchunk show rocked. It was the first time Superchunk had been on stage in 4 months. I was there, you weren't. Leaving Athens causes aneurysms. It's something in the water.

ERIC NIELSEN KMSA, GRAND JUNCTION

Tic Toc... Tic Toc... Tic Toc... The seconds aren't going by fast enough! They are, however, ticking and that's a good thing, for with every passing tic I'm that much closer to seeing KoRn again. Yeah!! And what could be cooler than seeing KoRn in a few days? Seeing them again 13 days after that!! (3 times in a month and a half... am I sick of what?) Thanx in advance to Cheryl for hooking us up. Oh, did I neglect to mention Orange9mm, Sick Of It All, Marilyn Manson and Danzig? Sorry 'bout that! Did anyone realize that I've been doing this crazy Melal Director thang for damn near a year now? Where did the time go? Like I remember. If you are bored and find yourself in this neck of the woods on April 22, we have a little something in store for you. It's called "Rocky Mountain Oyster Jam" and it's going to be a wild wacky time in the Colorado sunshine. R.M.O.J. is a day-long music fest with all kinds of other related stuff going on the side, and it's also a fund raiser for this fine radio station. If you were reading last week you know that we got the $$$ for a new transmitter. Well that's all well and good, but somewhere in the confusion, someone neglected to figure in installation costs...so we need to raise still more $$$, so there you have it. The band line-up isn't set in stone yet, but it's mainly regional acts, and I'm pretty sure we also have Czar's bizarre on the bill. Yee-haw! I'm trying to think of something to bitch about, but for some reason I don't have anything that any of you could relate to, unless you have a total and complete fuckup working for you that doesn't listen to a word anyone says, isn't good at anything, but thinks, no, is positive that he will find a career in this biz. Listen bitch, I got news... Since I have about 5 minutes left to fax this thing and since I have to go across the street to do it, I guess I should stop now. Thank you, drive though!! Later from Hell!!!

MIKE WILHIDE/WIZN, BURLINGTON

We just had the best kept secrets in the north-east play here and it was a killer...A band called Stigmata from Albany, NY whose CD is just great and so was the set they played! Then a band whose time will surely come, only living witness...Formally based in New Hampshire now in Boston. They are currently on Century Media and have one album out called Prone Mortal Form. If you don't have it in your library, get it! They are so great...Well, I got to hear some stuff, and just wait till the new one hits. If there is any justice in this world they will be around and making great music for a long, long time to come...And then it was Slush...I can't keep finding the words to let you know that this band is really something very awesome...I know A lot of you live and work in and around NYC so your chance to check them out has been limited. So the (Ver)Monster is coming to you! Mark this down: April Fools Day @ Coney Island High with Dog Eat Dog and Murphy's Law. The band is letting me tag along so now you got zero excuses! I'll see ya'll there! I can't wait to hear the whole Faith No More...I can't stop listening to the Monster Magnet CD...Death's new one is so raging...Grip Inc. is beyond huge...So far it's been a great year for new music...I can't wait to see what the rest of the year holds in store...Slush and Rocketsled in 95'...Peace Out!!!

KELLY OLIVER/KBKS, BOULDER

The "Listener Choice Awards" are less than two weeks away. On Sat. March 18th, KBKS presents five hours of Colorado bands. Listeners will vote on which bands they like best. The winning group gets ten hours of studio time and an engineer at Club Dog Studios! Invitations are going out this week. Bands, record rep's, distributors, promoters and venue managers will be at "The Party Slight" day of the show. With the hundreds of invites, I'm worried someone might get left off. So, if you want to come or if you have any questions please call Kelly Oliver "K.O." music director or Mike Makkay assistant M.D. (303) 444-1490. Speaking of local music...Congratulations to Jag Panzer! The band out of Colorado Springs has reportedly just signed on with Pavement Records. This comes after the 1994 signing of Spell by Island Records. Who will be next?!?!? That's all this week...I luv your gutz!!

TINK/WVUD, DELAWARE

Why Hello there! So many gigs (shows) have I witnessed since our last get together here in print. First off I am not bringing up the word beads for any reason what so ever - nuff said. The Mighty Mighty Bosstones played to a packed house at the Troc. Many thanks go out to Brian McEvoy for those tix and a very special vote of thanks to Dickie and the other lads for standing still long enough to get in a couple of trade shots with The. And didn't Megadeth come into town the next night after their Letterman appearance. I spoke with Dave & Marty for my soon to be released video show. E.J. Xnoybis got me in the doors and I did a long substantive video interview with Reed, Corrosion of Conformity, Mullen. He's just as nice now being from large over the top band as he was before. Marni the Roadrascal came through for me on those very hard to get a hold of "Divine Alcoholics '95" after show passes. I hope I speak for the other stations in expressing our gratitude for getting us in out of the cold to see the phenomenal BioMachinelayer show. Oh yes! Biohazard, Machine Head and Slayer all did their best on that rigid Philly night. Mercyful Fate also came through town and decimated another audience even though King had health problems just as Tom Araya did. I must admit being quite pleased at the quality of these shows.

Jeff Buckley's album has been nurtured for the last five months. We've sold well over 100,000 albums in this country and now Alternative radio has embraced Jeff at the same time MTV has made "Last Goodbye" a buzz bin clip. In two weeks (March 20th) we'll begin officially working Buckley at rock radio. I can't remember hearing so many accolades heaped on one artist by my peers in the industry as I've heard about Jeff. We have lots of fans in radio and I can't wait to begin working this record. If you are not already very familiar with "Last Goodbye," please spend some time between now and March 20th to get acquainted with this great artist. Bruce Springsteen's Greatest Hits debuts as the #1 selling album in America as "Murder Incorporated" races into the Top 10. It was great watching Bruce win 4 Grammys the other night. It's hard to believe he had only won 1 other Grammy before this year. Last night Soul Asylum did a small club date in N.Y. and broke in a new drummer and their great brand new material. Bruce got on stage with Soul Asylum and the club went absolutely wild. What a night!!! If any of you doubt that Bruce has lots of younger fans check out his files in Internet. Not only are there tons of entries, but the number increases right before your eyes. Corrosion of Conformity continues to solidify itself in the mainstream as we take a 10 point chart move in BDS. "Clean My Wounds" is now among the Top 10 most requested songs in rock radio as sales top 8,000 units a week. Mad Season is currently on your desk and probably already on your airwaves. Watch for "River of Deceit" to blow out next week. If you haven't seen the video, give it a look. Toad the Wet Sprocket began their tour with Hootie and the Blowfish this past week. The two bands did an incredible show on Saturday night at the Hollywood Palladium. "Fly From Heaven" continues to climb the rock charts and if past history is any indicator this track will research well and take Dulcinea over to platinum status. We are currently at 900,000 units on this album. Lastly, thanks to everybody who took the time to call, write or speak to me at the Pollack convention congratulating me on my promotion. Your kind words made me feel great. Thanks for caring.

ATLANTIC, 212-275-2215

I'm generally into beyond the threshold of pain stuff, right? But I went to see Todd Snider and couldn't believe my brain. And yer gonna sit right there and hear about it. The guy's got it all. The songs he writes have lyrics that make you shush industry scum around you because you just gotta hear what happens next in the story. Todd's a natural (do I sound like Burgess Meredith in the first Rock movie?)...he talks to the audience like it's just us hanging out and his mixture of wisdom and humor seduces ultimately. His band looks like three shlumps but when they cut loose, you experience unadulterated musical joy. Maybe there's a smidge of country but it's country that slams you seriously against the wall. And lemme tellya, the guy's got no problem expressing anger. (Trent Reznor Shment Shmeznor). You never heard "Fortunate Son" done like this. Did I say charisma? Did I tell you that the longer he's onstage being Todd Snider, the more you are irresistibly drawn to the guy? The more you realize you'd pay money to just hang out with him. And I did. And I'm here to tell you he walks it like he talks it. Strikes you as a guy that cut the day they were giving bullshit lessons. So - do you get it? Play Todd Snider now 'cos you're gonna play the motherfucker for years to come.

SCOTT "LO/JACK" DOUGLAS VIRGIN, 212-332-0418

What a week!!! Stones, though often nominated, bring home their first Grammys!!! Incredible moment for them as a band and for Virgin as a company. We are proud to be associated with what is (still) the Greatest Rock & Roll Band in the world! Pops Staples takes home the best Contemporary Blues Album, as well. A fine man! Then, the Simple Minds blew everyone away at the House of Blues during the Pollack Media Group convention!!! Incredible show... taped for broadcast!!! Listen for a "Jensen!" from the crowd during the show! And, watch that little Jensen on your chin, too. It was great to hook up with some old friends and make a few new ones during the convention. Also, I must say that although neither stage show is a circus, you must go to hear Hootie and the Blowfish and Toad the Wet Sprocket!!! This is the best musical match-up I've seen all year. Incredible!!! Both have made great records and really follow through in their live shows... back to my records: Simple Minds continue to grow with "She's a River"... give a listen to "And the Band Played On" (we follow with that cut in the coming weeks.) The Stones "I Go Wild" is flying on the air everywhere that "Sparks" and "Jump on Top" are done. this caps a great album release for us. "I Go Wild" on the tails of those Grammys... that's a great vote of confidence!!! Gilby Clarke is touring with Snakepit... and we have the CD of "Johanna's Chopper" on your desk now. Add it as you wish because this track displays a diversity that the others did not. It's the right thing to do. (Star sighting in L.A. — Wilford Brimley.) Watch for the King Crimson record "Dinosaur." We'll be out to see you soon to play it. Lo/Jack's to: The Team Player, Jimb, Lips, Washington, Toe-mas D. Laney, and Poodle!

MARK FISCHER ATLANTIC RECORDS, 212-75-2085

Another big week at Atlantic. Collective Soul "Gel" stays no.#1. Stone Temple Pilots "Pretty Penny" is the most added record at Rock Radio for the 2nd consecutive week. The highly anticipated Skid Row record is here! "Into Another" is the first track hitting Rock Radio for adds now!

A world tour will be announced soon. Stay tuned. Thanks to everyone who made it to the Pollack Convention last weekend and saw Hootie and the Blowfish. I think everyone was blown away. (Pardon the pun) Anyway, if you were lucky and made it up to the Atlantic suite at the Marriott you were fortunate enough to hear a preview of the one single album that is going to get more airplay, of more songs by more artist at the same time than any other soundtrack or tribute in rock history. The album in question? The Led Zeppelin Tribute Album, featuring Stone Temple Pilots performing "Dancin' Days", Hootie and the Blowfish performing "Hey Hey What Can I Do", Cracker performing "Good Times Bad Times", 4 Non Blondes performing "Misty Mountain Hop" and other great performances by Sheryl Crow, the Rollins Band, Blind Melon, Helmet and Big Head Todd and the Monsters. Play them all! A lot!! Make your listeners happy. Make us happy! Be happy! Happy is good! Until next week...

Whew! I'm making a brief cameo here at the office (or so it seems), as I've been out with the Goo Goo Dolls doing some promotion touring. And, damn! If you guys aren't responding! With visits to KISW, KIOZ, KUPD, KDKB, and KUKQ under our belts and adds to match, we're looking for more places to go. Scheduled for this week: Dallas (already on KEGG), Houston, Milwaukee (on WQFM) and Chicago (on at WRCX). Thanks to all these radio stations for welcoming the Goos and making them feel comfortable. As for airplay, this is only the tip of the iceberg, as we're already logging over 230 BDS detections. What's clear, though, is that Rock radio is leading the way with "Only One," and with MTV digging the video, we're on the verge of Goomania. Damn, this format is hot! You know, this may sound funny, but I wish everyone on the rock panel was a Pollack station, because that would mean that all of you would've been at the Whiskey for the incomparable Goo Goo Dolls/Flaming Lips show Saturday night. Ask any radio, trade, independent, or label promotion person who was there, and they'll tell you. It made me proud, that's for sure. Thanks to everyone at Pollack for their support and for helping us get a great audience for this awesome show; this event benefitted all involved. Well, it's time to get back on the road, so I'm out.

ALAN OREMAN, GEFFEN

White Zombie's new album is literally a monster! No bullshit - there are at least five smash rock tracks on this album. The first track is "More Human Than Human" and we are taking it to radio on the 29th of March. They will be touring extensively in April; and to refresh your memory, their last album sold over a million copies. Musically they have taken a great step. If you never played White Zombie, you may need to consider playing this one. Over the last year music has evolved to where White Zombie is more accessible to the format than ever before - the album should be huge at retail. We still believe in Hole for Rock Radio. Thank to those of you who are giving us the airplay on this great track. Even if you already given us a shot and for some reason have backed off of airplay, here are the facts: We're approaching platinum on this critically acclaimed album - MTV has it in Buzz Bin - Hole just performed an Unplugged that will air in April. We're releasing to Rock Radio next week the new track from Weezer.

Both the "Sweater Song" and "Buddy Holly" performed well at the format, but I feel that "My Name is Jonas" just might go the distance since it's the first true rock track we've worked at the format from this band. We're going for airplay on Elastica's "Connection" now! It's a killer track and already Top 10 at Alternative Radio - please give it a listen. Watch out for Bivouac coming in May. Musically and competitively speaking, it couldn't get any hotter. Great new songs I can't get enough of are: Our Lady Peace, Filter, Jeff Buckley, Monster Magnet, Better Than Ezra and Faith No More.

WAYNE PIGHINI
ATLANTIC RECORDS, 212-275-2112

I guess I should start off by telling you about the sold out Skid Row promotional club tour. Obviously, every date is sold out and the reactions from all have been amazing. "My Enemy" is the first radio track and is currently the #1 most requested song at WAXQ! People can't wait for the rest of this record. The national reaction to Econium: A Tribute To Led Zeppelin has been immense. Stone Temple Pilots doing "Dancin' Days" and Sheryl Crow doing "D'yer Maker" are among the many talked about. If you haven't heard the new Collective Soul, then you are missing out on a fine new record. This self-titled sophomore release is on the streets on March 14th. They will kick off the release off the record by touring with Van Halen. Tours happening: The Tragically Hip, Victoria Williams, Samiam, and of course Page and Plant. Hootie and the Blowfish continue to tour and sell tons of records. Please don't forget about Jewel, Grant McLennan, Bad Religion, Liz Phair, and The Jerky Boys Soundtrack.

CHUCKIE ROYAL TRUX
VIRGIN, 212-332-0421

Hello class. How was your week? Did you do your homework? That is nice. Have you ever heard of Jon Spencer Blues Explosion? Jon used to be in a band with Neil from Royal Trux. The name was Pussy Galore! I just love that band. Let's break away to some Urban History. Urban Dance Squad sold over 450,000 records off a Top 5 alternative release. The video was also a "buzz bin" on MTV. Great, you read my mind class, "Deeper Shade of Soul." Thank goodness for research and phone requests, Urban Dance Squad is still buzzin' in the skate shops, record shops, and rock clubs. Their latest release "Demagogue" is a jumpy little number that will surely tickle the ears of alternative radio listeners. A USA club tour begins 3/29 in Providence. I can see the mosh pits forming already. Be like WDRE, REV 105 and WFNX and support Urban Dance Squad's return to the USA, spin "Demagogue." I am so happy you are paying attention today, I hope you have recognized Massive Attack's sales growth at indie retail and at large stores like the Tower chain. You see, when people hear the record in the store, they buy it. Hmmm? That is neat. I bet they would like to hear it while driving to work on their favorite alternative stations. Make sure you listen to your Royal Trux record tonight and continue the great Simple Minds spins. Mr. Jim Kerr is a modern rock hero, just like Kurt, Michael, and Eddie. See you out on the kickball field. Don't forget, test next week. Okie-Dokie.

The new Vanguard Dave Mallet record...In The Falling Dark is growing in leaps and bounds! We're debuting this week at 23 and are 2nd Most Added two weeks in a row at Gavin Americana. People are also picking up on this at Triple A too, with tracks 3, 7, 10 being the stand-outs there. If you don't have this release, call me and demand a copy. Dave is on tour also, and I'm sure you're starting to see great reviews like the ones that just ran in the Washington Post and Baltimore Sun. In-stations are happening as he passes through and if you're smart you'll already be talking to me about having Dave swing by. Paul Kelly's Wanted Man release keeps up the action at Triple A and his tour dates are coming fast and furious, like March 22 in Chicago, the 27th in Minneapolis, March 30 in New York, April 3rd in Atlanta, and April 6th in Austin. More to be announced...Call me about getting this wonderfully talented performer in-station and making special moments like the ones he recently had at KSCA. Oh, I'm starting to get excited about Peter Case's upcoming album - his second for Vanguard. He stopped by to work with the artwork and I couldn't help but get wild with anticipation to hear the album. What a dream-team we have here! (Sorry about the OJ reference - the coverage is so persuasive that I think it's in my sub-conscious) Went out a few times since my last dialogue to sample the LA Pop scene. Saw some wacky kids including a band with an accordionist that was great! Strap that baby on and play!

SMITTY, EPIC METAL, 212-833-5988

Korn is the #1 Most Requested Metal artist in the Country!!! Now, excuse me for griping, but as the #1 phone ringer, shouldn't they be #1 on your playlist? If they aren't, just how the fuck do you decide what to play? If your listeners want Korn and you play _____, no one will want to listen to you, or call you, and then what the hell are you doing in this business? You're not one of those who plays whatever you want regardless of what they want, are you? God! Some people!?! Adds for the edited "Need To" are on schedule for March 28th, don't fuck with me, I'm pissed off as it is! Oh well, enough of that! Korn is on tour, call for tickets and/or giveaways. Firehouse's new album will be on certain desks by the end of the month (call if you want one), and the new Fight single entitled "Blowout In The Radio Room" will be going for adds April 4th. Until next week, remember, play it, chart it (a novel idea...)

The Farside comes to life in Oregon. I am absolutely not making this incident up; in fact I have it all on videotape. The tape is from a local TV news show in Oregon, which sent a reporter out to cover the removal of a 45-foot, eight-ton dead whale washed up on the beach. The responsibility for getting rid of the carcass was placed on the Oregon State Highway Division, apparently on the theory that highways and whales are very similar in the sense of being large objects. So anyway, the highway engineers hit upon the plan — remember, I am not making this up — of blowing up the whale with dynamite. The thinking is that the whale would be blown into small pieces, which would be eaten by seagulls, and that would be that. A textbook whale removal. So they moved the spectators back up the beach, put a half-ton of dynamite next to the whale and set it off. I am probably not guilty of understatement when I say that what follows, on the videotape, is the most wonderful event in the history of the universe. First you see the whale carcass disappear in a huge blast of smoke and flame. Then you hear the happy spectators shouting "Yay!" and "Whee!" Then, suddenly, the crowd's tone changes. You hear a new sound like "splud." You hear a woman's voice shouting, "Here come pieces of...My God!" Something smears the camera lens. Later, the reporter explains: "The humor of the entire situation suddenly gave way to a run for survival as huge chunks of whale blubber fell everywhere." One piece caved in the roof of a car parked more than a quarter of a mile away. Remaining on the beach were several rotting whale sectors the size of condominium units. There was no sign of the seagulls who had no doubt permanently relocated to Brazil. This is a very sobering videotape. Here at the institute we watch it often, especially at parties. But this is no time for gaiety. This is a time to get hold of the folks at the Oregon State Highway Division and ask them, when they get done cleaning up the beaches, to give us an estimate on the US Capitol.

Still doubt me? Killing Machine will make you wise to the ways of the phoenix that is L.A. Guns. I've got more tickets than Damone from Fast Times to their club tour. Then it's off to Australia and New Zealand*

If you're not sure about "Hey Man, Nice Shot", let your listeners decide. They'll tell you to spin it, just like they're already telling stations around the country to do. If you're already on this, let them hear it some more. Heading out once again for a WORLD tour is Van Halen. How many times can one band see the whole world? Ask Eddie, Alex, Sammy, and Michael when they hit the US this Spring and Summer. Glen Danzig and Co. bring their unique sound to your neck of the woods beginning March 24 in San Francisco.*

*"In Maryland on January 7, 1969, literally hundreds of bodily injured ducks fell from the sky." The ducks were apparently harmed during flight somehow but they really weren't talking. Do you think that Chicken Little misdirected his paranoia? Perhaps he confused the sky with some of his billed relatives. If the sky really was falling, here would be my last few minutes of life suggestions: Add Oasis and spin it in excess of 20 spins per week (in case it takes a while for the sky to actually hit the dirt) so that you can redeem yourself when it comes to the big judgement call, go out to a Korn show and end your existence with a big old smile on your face and massively disturbed mind (my fave), listen to Satchel on the headphones in order to achieve that truly dream-like state and do a lot of drugs just in case the act of dying is actually painful. I'm sure you're saying "F@#k that" and then something to do with acting like bunny rabbits but I figured that this was an inappropriate time to delve into your true desires... "Let's Go" has already shipped 400,000, with 554 spins in the Modern format and currently receiving a lot of attention at Q104, WAVF, WJRR and KMYZ in the Rock format. CORE and Hard Hitters will totally dig SNFU, they just finished a national tour with Bad Religion. Free buffet and beer, can you say wasted? Unfortunately again we were fucked by these idiots who don't organize the categories properly. I love Soundgarden to death but even they agree they aren't metal. They should've declined the Grammy right there and thrown everyone for a loop. And "Bring The Noise"? Was that 3 or 4 years ago? At least the party was cool. Anyway, saw Tesla last Sunday. These guys are still so great. Many thanks to Chris from Uncle Biff's Records and Troy Lecetta and his wife Linda for the hook up. Look for our March newsletter any day now in the mail. Death's new release Symbolic is on your desks and ready for adds this week (March 13th & 14th). The single is track #2, "Zero Tolerance." Other songs to check out is the title track, "Symbolic," "Sacred Serenity" and "Crystal Mountain." Thorn's full length Bitter Potion will be arriving soon and going for adds on March 20th and 21st. Don't fret you metal junkies, there are heavier tracks on the album. Some of you should not worry about if Thorn is too light of too weird. They are just flat out different than most of the other music out there. However, most of you are very receptive to Thorn because they have that unique sound. Holy Gang's single "Free Tyson Free" is gaining more and more spins. Tyson is getting out soon, so keep it up! The next track to add is "Get Chained." I saw Type O Negative and Pantera last week in New York, what a rock concert! FYI - Ton's video for "Black #1" has been added to regular rotation on MTV...

RELAPSE/NUCLEAR BLAST AMERICA
717-397-9221

Prepare yourselves, because one of the biggest releases of the year is coming your way! The add date for the title track of Gorefest's Erase is March 20th, mark it on your calendar. There will also be a huge contest behind Erase, details will be included in your packages, make sure you check it out! The time has come! Kataklysm's Sorcery will also be serviced shortly... hyper-blast, grinding, DEATH!! Amorphis and Brutality: add them now if you haven't already. Incantation and Pyogenesis are still going strong; keep 'em spinning! Look for Incantation at the Michigan Death Fest on April 1st, also look for an ultra-cool Relapse/Nuclear Blast America stand there as well, stop by and say AAARRRRGGHHH!!! And did I mention that Meshuggah is #1 on WBWC for the third week in a row? John Szeftcyk is the man! C'mon everybody, you want to be cool like John don't you? Machine Head is cool like John, they're going to tour with Meshuggah in Europe, that shouldn't tell you something. There will also be new Meshuggah coming soon, as well as an unreleased track on "Death is Just the Beginning...3", all this and more coming soon, damn we're good.

Hi!! Big Hair "The Pickle Farm" adds next week — March 20,21!! Don't forget it!! Pro-Pain are back from Europe and getting ready to hit the states again! Bile, Souls At ZZero, and Planet Hate are all doing the club thang. Call me for dates and tix! Speed Ball and Hanzel and Gretyl on deck! xoxo...

You guys rule! Really! With your help, Mausoleum Records will donate 1,572 cans of food to City Harvest. I know I haven't dialogued in a while. Here what's been going on—Gavin, work REIGN, sleep, work GROOVEZILLA, sleep, eat, work WRECKING MACHINE. Well you get the picture. Anyway—looming on the horizon—more bands, less filling. What bands you ask. Call us and find out!! C'ya...

LOUIS DECAROLIS
EARACHE RECORDS, 212-343-9090

Short and Sweet. A.C. How can a CD of this magnitude not startle anyone not only to listen but to try to explain it. Don't forget the light and sweet rendition of "Stayin Alive." It's even on it's own 7 inch. Vinyl is still alive. Extreme Noise Terror. Where can I start. This band is going to be a big surprise to everyone. This is one of the most incredibly underrated bands around. Be the first to explore Retrobution. Misery Loves Co. Just get this masterpiece and enter the world of Misery Loves Co. More next week. Watch for re-issues with extra tracks out soon. Godflesh, Entombed, Carcass, Morbid Angel, Napalm Death and Fudge Tunnel might have a few. Pitch Shifter are all battling The Remix War. Good luck in finding the limited edition CD of Bolt Thrower. There are still a couple unaccounted for. Still need a friend. Call me. Misery Loves Co. 3-21-95.

MEG MACRAE
EARACHE RECORDS, 212-343-9090

So by the time you read this, Anal Cunt will have played their one and only acoustic show. Unplugged will never be the same and neither will Disco! Thanks to all that added A.C. "Stayin' Alive" 7 inch - especially Damon at WNHU, just ask him and he'll tell ya how great this band is cuz it's #1 on his chart this week! The full length goes for adds March 13. Speaking of adds, Misery Loves Co. 3 song sampler is, at long last, on your desk. Add "My Mind Still Speaks" on 3/13 as well! This one's real, so believe the hype. The full length is coming soon along with Extreme Noise Terror (the name says it all). Add E.N.T.'s "Raping the Earth" on 3/20. This band paved the way, they started it all - the godfathers of grindcore. Pitch Shifter and Bolt Thrower are getting tremendous audience response all over the place - spin them and see why. Well that's all for now. And may you never be hit in the head with a microphone stand or a flying 2 x 4....

ERIC ROSEN
RADICAL RECORDS, 212-475-3672

OK!! What's up kids? Lately I've found myself working some metal. I never really used to dig metal very much, but now I'm beginning to realize what I've been missing. Not only is the music cool, so are the MD's (Note: this is not meant to be a cheap form of payola). Almost all of you have been extra nice to me (particularly since these are my first records to metal) and I appreciate your realness a bunch. Met a lot of you at Gavin and had a blast! Don't think I'll ever return to that decadent city again! (yeah, right...) Anyway, the records that I'm pushing are Po' Boy Swing and I.C.U. (Intensive Care Unit). Both are starting to make some noise. ICU is a real raw punk band with female vocals. They come from NYC and they don't just play it, they live it. Po' Boy Swing hails from Long Island and most of you are on this record already! They just finished with Dangerous Toys and are now beginning to play it even more! Look for 'em around, and call me to get on the list...They are now charting in the major trades and you should all keep a look out for our re-mix of the track "Why Bother." Anyway, don't do anything I would. You may hurt yourself.

So yo, It's 1:30 AM and I'm writing my comments. What's up with that. Yo Schnapp, wake and bake dude it's SXSW. So D.O.P.E. is on your desk. Add it this week after listening to it. I.C.U. is also on your desk. L.A. Guns has another single in your face. It's "Face Down." It is in your face now. Misery Loves Co. goes for adds this week. You know you love this record, cum'on it's on Earache. Monster Voodoo Machine's spins contest is running now. Win a pair of tickets to see the band in Toronto for a listener and a guest. Play this record in heavy. Orange 9MM is on the road with Sick Of It All. Two great bands that you love and worship. All interviews are at soundcheck and after the show. On your desk is Universal Stomp. You want something heavy you got it. These dudes are on steroids. It's so brutal how can you not love it. I'm outta here, Cya.

Some Helpful Guidelines To Make Your Day And Our Jobs A Little Easier:

1. Limit exclamation points to 3 per sentence or 50 per one-way dialogue.
2. Limit the terms "Rules," "Kicks Ass," "Rocks My World," "Satan," etc. to 10 times per dialogue.
3. Only mention the band's name in direct proportion to the amount of words divided by exclamation points times the amount of expletives.

Your Cooperation Will Be Greatly Appreciated
