THE JEFF HEALEY BAND SPECIAL LIMITED EDITION SERIES UNDER COVER

*This masterful rock guitarist has always kept the blues well within reach on previous efforts, and here on this portion of the record now serviced to you in the form of a four-song blues sampler are more reminders of his reverence to the blues. A cool version of Robert Johnson's "Stop Breakin' Down," and a smokin' version of "Highway 49" are ready for air on rock radio. While Healey gets highlighted for guitarists in the blues cover spotlight in June's Guitar Magazine, his appeal to mainstream radio listeners is no less significant. Guitarists all over the map revel in his ability to play. Ordinary rock radio listeners love his rock songs like "Angel Eyes," and his classy covers such as "While My Guitar Gently Weeps." You'll get 'em both with these tunes from this recognizable rock artist.*

HARD ACTS TO FOLLOW

Kevin Gilbert, "Kashmir," PRA

*Recorded during sessions surrounding the Encomium project, it was bumped from the album due to the more-recognizable competition. This version from Toy Matinee member Kevin Gilbert holds up with anything on the disc, in terms of a quality cover of a Led Zeppelin classic. We've had plenty of curiosity buzz after some time spent on our hold button, and we think it's something you should consider. KLOS's Carey Curelop first brought it to our attention, and he says "I heard Mark and Brian playing it, and it was obvious after one listen that this was a song we wanted to deal with. After three weeks it has been our #2 most requested song, and we haven't hit any major spins yet. Kevin Gilbert's 'Kashmir' is a hit for us."*

Van Halen, "Amsterdam," Warner Bros.

Sex, drugs and rock n' roll from the band that has at times departed from this tried-and-true treaty of rock songs over the years. Rarely has the departure alienated the core rock fan, but in some cases they've become a little bit weary. Why not bring them back to basics on this track from this successful record, and leave the rest up to one of the most decorated bands at the format? #1 Most Added means business, with 33 adds, and 27 increases from others nets this a 64-43 spot on the Hard Hundred.*

Dokken, "Too High to Fly," Columbia

*The return of the original lineup has been a welcome one at radio this week, with the #2 Most Added spot, and 29 adds chalked in at this point. The fact that rock stations still want to rock in a mainstream fashion doesn't hurt "Too High to Fly"'s chances at snatching up many more stations before it's through. Don Dokken and George Lynch have buried the hatchet, and on that level alone there is a story to convey. The hard rock contingent that has been putting up with all our philosophizing about the death of the MTV-metal sound certainly acknowledges the departure of many of the bands from that short-lived era. But don't mess with Dokken. And this track proves it wasn't just the beer money that got them back together. There's still plenty of rockin' left to do.*

MORE... HARD ACTS TO FOLLOW

Sponge, "Molly," Work

The second single from this band that radio loves is getting its just due this week, with 14 adds including WAXQ, WCCC, WGIR, WRIF, WGLF, KATP and KSJO. WDIZ debuts with 17 spins, WOZN debuts with 12, WIOT gives it 10 for the first week, and 15 others increase their workload on this excellent example of melodic edge that makes Sponge even more impressive with this first record. Sponge soaks up the big-time attention as witnessed by a move 99-67 on the Hard Hundred. "Plowed" is still getting some spins, and in its wake this one makes sense for air. After we've exposed the real rock distinctiveness with the aforementioned first single, it is a good time to unveil a song that will be somewhat less distinctive on its own merits, but wholeheartedly applicable in terms of building this band at the radio level. Because they're here for a long, long time.

Matthew Sweet, "Sick of Myself," Zoo

Texturally, this song from Matthew Sweet fits nicely on rock stations of all shapes and sizes. Where it might lack in terms of hard rock appeal, it isn't alien in terms of a guitar-heavy mix. Hearing it segue on a rock station like WMMR proves that it makes the grade in terms of the familiarity of sound. It's a good song, too. There's a Budokon Cheap Trick feel that really sparkles to the fore on "Sick of Myself," and it should accommodate even the most stubborn of alternative-skeptics.

If you're testing this at night when the metal cume is large, you might get some bad phones. And it's not a crazy phone record, anyway. 14 adds this week including WRCX and ZROC mesh with 44 increases including WNEW (10-17), KLOS (11-18), WNOR (13-16) and WMMR (7-15) slide this sucka 21-17* on the HH. The waiting room is full. It's time to operate.

Slash's Snakepit, "Good To Be Alive," Geffen

The straight shot of guitar devoid of drums, bass or anything else, sets up a trick for an intro that leads into a Slash solo. In other words, the payoff is quick. There's plenty of muscle on this one, and more intrigue than "Beggars..." provided. Adds this week from Snakepit pioneers KATP, KISS, KMOD, WHMH, WRUF, WSTZ and others join WRIF, WKLL, KRZZ and WMRR as "Good to Be Alive" is set to hit the charts next week as these new converts come through with their respective weekly spins. Aim yourself at this song this week if you're looking for something rough and ready, G&R-ish and hard-rockin'.

Steve Vai, "Juice," Relativity

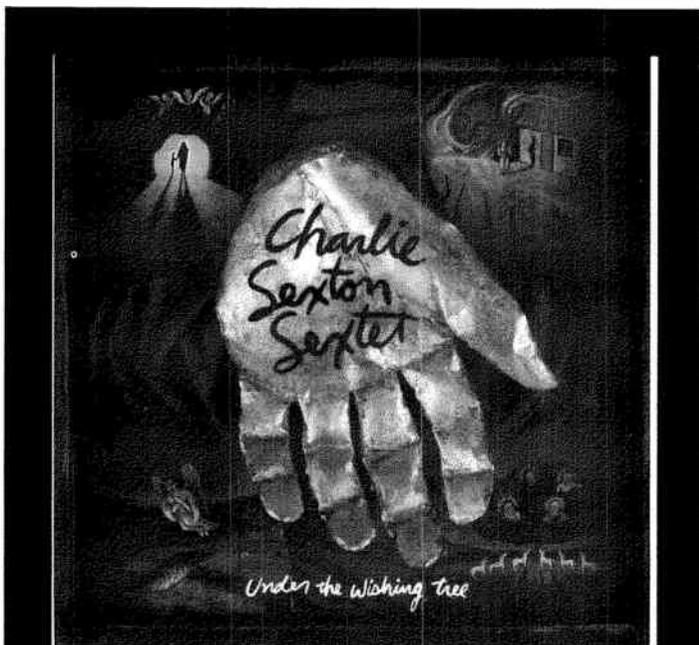

This maestro of the 7-string rings up 7 adds this week at rock radio with a return-to-form instrumental offering from his new record. Being the only instrumental artist out there of note helps his cause, and we've all seen the sales figures on Vai instrumental record "Passion and Warfare," signifying fan base galore. The audience is listening, and Vai comes clean with another largely-instrumental record this time around. KATP, KBPI, KEGL, KEZO, KRZR, KXFX and WRCX all come in this week, and KMOD (8-18), WOZN (12-13) and others increase the spinload. He's also on at KILO, WDHA, KIBZ and others, and debuts at 95* on the HH this week.

The Magnificent Bastards, "Mockingbird Girl," Elektra

This track from the "Tank Girl" Soundtrack is instantly memorable. There's no point in relegating this soundtrack to purely Alternative status, although it is kicking some serious ass at that level. The Magnificent Bastards are a creation of Weiland of Stone Temple Pilots for the soundtrack, and although the movie doesn't appear to be a box office monster, the soundtrack is really stirring up attention of its own. There are plenty of reasons to try and expose this particular track this week, not the least of which is the heavyweight hook.

MORE... HARD ACTS TO FOLLOW

Wanderlust, "I Walked," RCA

A radio-ready modern pop song that sounds great on the air makes the cut again this week with a variety of stations, garnering 9 adds and 12 increases as it makes the walk 96-78* on the HH. KATS, WAPL, WLWQ, WROQ and WSTZ are amongst the added, and WSHE (10-14) and KATP (16-18) are leading the movers. A strong debut at 16 spins by WMMR is also duly noted. "I Walked" is being looked at for Alternative as well, proving the band defies easy categorization. The song is certainly relevant for more than one format aberration. Good songs are like that. There's a buzz about this one, and it's likely to trip your trigger if you like the essence surrounding acts like The Gin Blossoms. This will fit the bill.

Billy Pilgrim, "Sweet Louisiana Sound," Atlantic

Rootsy, melodic and entirely listenable, this track is gaining more respect each week from the rock panel, and the occasional add at the Alternative level, too. Adds this week at WDVE, WMMR, WEGR and WGIR among others meet with increases at WSHE (11-15), WVRK (11-16), KRNA (5-13) and WBAB (5-13) to propel this sweetie 85-60* on the Hard Hundred. It's clear that the song is memorable. So put yourself in the listener's shoes, and see if this one makes the grade on the textural level in the midst of your library. It's sure to work for the classic-based. And it might just be for real on current-based stations.

is certainly relevant for more than one format aberration. Good songs are like that. There's a buzz about this one, and it's likely to trip your trigger if you like the essence surrounding acts like The Gin Blossoms. This will fit the bill.

King Crimson, "Dinosaur," Virgin

Probably the most intriguing comeback of the year is embodied on this track from King Crimson's latest recording. The tongue-in-cheek title clearly refers to the potential for slugging that this band faces in 1995. After all, there is a bit of truth to the fact that they've been around the block. "Dinosaur," on the other hand, reminds us of some early Crimson efforts. It's a totally amazing feat to play to an older audience as well as a younger one. Classic bands are able to do it. King Crimson has never been more relevant to the multi-demo audience than they are now with this track. Take the plunge.

Tragically Hip, "So Hard Done By," Atlantic

This Canadian band has done the proverbial fence walk between Alternative and rock since their entrance into US radio airspace, and their latest effort is just as intriguing as other tracks we've been presented. It's a swampy, low-tempo rock track with a percussion background and a dirgy rhythm guitar grumble that keeps the feel consistent throughout. There are understated vocals that come off more laid-back and Doors-ish than what we're used to from the band. Showcase some of the band's more versatile work with some air on this follow-up. It picks up 6 adds this week, and a handful of increases, landing the Hip at 96* this week.

Ted Nugent, "Hot or Cold," Atlantic

The Motor City Madman entertained a host of PDs and other radio types the other weekend at his ranch in Michigan, and the word is that the old boy is as wild as ever. So it is safe to assume that the vibe is recreated within the grooves of this burner, which continues to leap up the chart. KIBZ, KRNA, WTKX, KCLB and others come in this week, and 30 others move up in spins including KOMP (9-16), KSPQ (9-19), KYYS (9-16), KXFX (11-16), WKQZ (18-28), WKQZ (23-30) and WZZQ (6-10). It's a return to a classic sound that Nugent created many years ago, and radio fans are relating to in 1995 with a sense of gratitude.

Green Day, "She," Reprise

With 6 million units under their belts, there isn't much chance that the band will strike unfamiliar chords with the audience, so another burner from this band seems fairly easy to do. How can you go wrong, if every prior track has gone right? Fans don't really think this band does anything wrong. Evidently neither do KCLB, KLOL, WAAF, WHEB, WIYY, WTKX or ZROC, as they add up this week. Some stations that are already on this one in varying degrees are KLOS, KISS, KMOD, WTPA, KSJO, KUPD, WIXV, WWDC, X107 and WBAB. It's apparent that the value of Green Day is still high, as she rises 92-57*.

Popa Chubby, "Sweet Goddess of Love and Beer," 550

Popa Chubby ain't no fluke, he's a big fish again this week with his ode to the barmaid bringing the brew. A move 49-40* comes from the adds at WNOR, KGGG, WAOR, WMMR, WNEW and KEZE that came in this week. Also contributing to the move were 31 increases in spins. KRZZ's Michael Lee says "I like it a lot. It's a great sounding tune. Right now the phones are 'Who was that?' calls." WIXV's Jay Sisson notes "He's doing O.K., with curiosity calls and requests coming in." He's looming large, and he's not going away anytime soon. You don't have to be playing bluesy stuff to pick this one up.

Faith No More, "Ricochet," Slash/Reprise

From the record King For a Day, Fool For a Lifetime comes this second single that rocks with plenty of resonance — the sound we've come to recognize as Faith No More. You may still be playing "Digging the Grave," a song that's testing extremely well in the late innings. If FNM is somehow lacking from your current musical menu, it's time to consider this excellent, and somewhat more signature-sounding tune. FNM are on tour through the end of May, and will then head off to Europe.

The shows are grabbing great ink from all locations, and the record's selling well. Take another slice of rock and roll from this band renowned for their live shows, and keep the faith in full focus for the listener who has grown to love this band.

Bad Company, "Down and Dirty," EastWest

The band that has been through the drastic change of singers with previous efforts, managed to stay alive with the fan base, despite missing the signature Paul Rodgers vocal. Guess what? There is yet a new voice to Bad Company. The previous releases without Rodgers carved a more polished rock image for the band, and created a persona that was accepted not as a replacement for the old, but as a new chapter in the band's history. Current lead singer Robert Hart does this whole trip one better — he actually sounds a lot like Paul Rodgers. "Down and Dirty" is written in the mold of the late '80's incarnation of Bad Co., and presented more in the fashion of the classic Bad Co. It will undoubtedly work out with both factions.

TIME WARNER REPLACES ROBERT MORGADO; HBO CHIEF MICHAEL FUCHS TO HEAD WARNER MUSIC GROUP

The reported power struggle between Warner Music Group Chairman/CEO Robert Morgado and Warner Music U.S. Chairman Doug Morris climaxed late Tuesday (5/2), when Time Warner Chairman/Chief Executive Gerald Levin asked for Morgado's resignation. Michael J. Fuchs, Chairman and Chief Executive of the HBO subsidiary of Time Warner since 1984, will take over as Chairman of the Warner Music Group, inheriting one of Time Warner Inc.'s biggest money-making divisions. In 1994, HBO and the Warner Music Group brought in $5.4 billion of Time Warner's $15.8 billion revenue. Tuesday's move resulted from a series of feuds that pitted Morgado against several executives, notably Mo Ostin and Morris, and most recently, the heads of some Warner labels, including new Chairman of Warner Bros. Records Danny Goldberg. In an article in the New York Times, Levin commented "Despite the performance of the music company, things were not working. It was clear that at the top, particularly at a music company, someone who is talent sensitive and attuned to the creative community is the right person." Fuchs will remain Chairman of HBO, and President Jeffrey Bewkes will become the Chief Executive.

REPRISE ROTATIONS

Reprise Records' Dir./National Album Promotion Gary Briggs has moved to the label's newly established product management department. Briggs, whose been handling product management duties for awhile, now takes on the position full time. Jann Hendry segues from her Reprise post as regional rep in The Carolinas to assume the National Album Promotion Manager job in Los Angeles. Filling Hendry's vacated position is Reprise promotion assistant Leah Kiyonaga, who moves from Burbank to Charlotte to fill the slot.

HENDRICKS TO HEAD LIBERTY

Scott Hendricks

Acclaimed producer Scott Hendricks has been named President and CEO of Nashville based Liberty Records, replacing Jimmy Bowen, who retired from the company at the end of March. In making the announcement, EMI Records Group Chairman & CEO Charles Koppelman commented, "Scott is tremendously passionate about making great music. He obviously knows what goes into a hit and he excels at bringing out the best in the people he works with. That is exactly the kind of leadership we were looking for. I have every confidence that he will do great things with Liberty's existing talent and that he will have equal success attracting and nurturing new talent." Hendricks added, "I am very excited to have this incredible opportunity. I plan to give 150 percent of my heart and soul to parlay what I have accomplished as a producer into the success of this company. Working with Charles, I intend to build a very artist-driven label known for executives who possess a 'whatever it takes' attitude in getting our music heard. In addition to his success as a producer, Hendricks was nominated for a Grammy in 1991 in the non-classical engineering category, and he also won an Emmy for his work producing and engineering the "Monday Night Football" themes by Hank Williams, Jr.

LASHER & FISCHER EXIT EMI

Neil Lasher

A surprise promotion department shakeup at EMI headquarters in New York City on Thursday (5/4), saw Sr. Director/National AOR Promotion Neil Lasher and National Director/New Music Promotion & Marketing Shanna Fischer exiting the label. At presstime, there was no word on Lasher's replacement, but Noise did learn that Todd Bisson is joining EMI as Sr. Director/National Alternative Promotion. Bisson, former Columbia Alternative Promotion Director, begins his new duties on Monday (5/8). Neil can be reached at (201) 662-0484, and Shanna at (212) 242-4754.

MCKELLEN RETIRES FROM MCA PUBLISHING

HOLLYWOOD CLEANS HOUSE

Hollywood Records continues restructuring their promotion department this week with VP/Rock Promotion Art Phillips, Director/National Rock Promotion John Souchack and Manager/Alternative Promotion Michelle Robbins vacating their positions. There was no official statement from Hollywood, but Art Phillips is already looking forward to new challenges, "For the first time in twenty years, I'm on the beach and looking for that next opportunity, be it in promotion, marketing, or even my first love, radio. Reach him at (213) 256-4950

BACA'S BUZZ PROMOTION

Chris Baca has opened his own indie promotion company, Buzz Promotion. "Recently, I've been working with Rollins Band manager Richard Bishop to break Filter," explained Baca. "We've had a lot of early success at alternative radio and feel this is a hit. Several other industry friends have approached me about working projects at Alternative and Triple A. Ongoing industry changes, the growth of the alternative format, and my passion for the music have convinced me that now is a great time to open Buzz Promotion." Baca has held various marketing and promotion positions at Imago, CEMA and EMI, including National Director/Rock. You can reach Baca at Buzz Promotions, 444 W. Ave. 44, L.A. CA 90065. RADIO RUMBLE WRRV/Middletown has a new PD. Former station MD Greg O'Brian takes on Program Director duties at "The Rock Revolution," while Andrew Boris fills Greg's vacated MD spot. Greg and Andrew will continue their on-air shifts of 3-7pm and 10am-3pm respectively.

WRGX/Westchester has named Bob Kane Commercial Production Director. Kane will also fill one of the station's weekend air shifts. Prior to joining X-107, Kane was on-air at WDHA and served as Production Director/On-air at WPMR in the Poconos.

CILQ/Toronto announced that Mark Hebscher becomes the station's Sports Director effective June 5th. Hebscher, sports anchor with Global TV for the past 11 years, will be heard on the Q Morning Zoo weekdays from 5:30am - 9:00am.

WRCX/Chicago debuted "Chicago Rock," an hour-long program featuring the city's bands on May 1st. The first show spotlighted music by Material Issue and Veruca Salt, as well as music from lesser-known bands such as Holland and the Slammin Watusis. "Chicago Rock" will be broadcast every Monday night at midnight.

WLIP/Kenosha's news department garnered two awards from the Wisconsin Associated Press at the AP Broadcaster's annual meeting in Madison. The station won "Best Newscast" and "Best Enterprise Reporting" in its category, based on news staff and market size.

WPDH/Poughkeepsie raised over $50,000 for Oklahoma City bombing victims on the station's "Waking Up With The Wolf" morning show in six hours. One caller, Yankee picture Joe Ausanio, offered his player seats for the opening home stand and a ball autographed by Don Mattingly. That alone raised a $1000 bid. All funds were forwarded to the Oklahoma City fire department and used to help survivors with hospital and funeral expenses.

WRIF/Detroit presents the "Kenwood at the Speed of Sound" concert series at the 1995 ITT Automotive Detroit Grand Prix, starring Paul Rogers and band, Sunday, June 11th. WRIF Director of Marketing and Promotion, Jim Marchyshyn, said, "WRIF is excited about our continuing relationship with IMG, the Grand Prix and the Kenwood stage. We look forward to being a part of the total race experience. We want those attending the race to know that Detroit is alive, well and a great place to spend the entire race weekend. The concert is the crowning touch."

With understated style and simplicity, WDVE produced a TV spot to run on the opening day of baseball season. The voice-over reads: "The strike was another ugly reminder that the major leagues belong to the agents, lawyers and corporations. But the game belongs to everyone. We the fans have a message for the players, owners and lawyers the next time they start thinking that they own the game."

Neal Mirsky

by Bill Hard

Though Neal Mirsky's first brush with radio was with the Armed Forces Radio Network in Argentina, Newfoundland ("There was a beautiful woman behind every tree — only problem is there are no trees in Newfoundland), Florida has remained home turf through the years. His first commercial job: WGMW/West Palm in '72; mornings at Lee Arnold's WORJ/Orlando with Paul Yeskell, Mike Lyons and Bill McGathy '73-'74; WQSR/Sarasota in '75; then programming 98 Rock/Tampa in '78, WDIZ/Orlando in '79, and WSHE in 1980. Then came MTV in late '81, and off to Europe a year later to help with the startup of the first continental music video channel. It was back to Miami and "cutting edge" K102 in '83. A sale and a format change later, Neal moved north to New Haven and eighteen months of programming WPLR. After that, he was VP of Programming at DIR Broadcasting in NYC, producing the King Biscuit Flower Hour and the first national Howard Stern show. L.A. was next, with Neal Director of Creative Development for what is now the E! Channel, then called Movie Time. Quick, call Mayflower! The late '80s found Neal back in Orlando, at TK's WHTQ, followed by a second tour year hitch at crosstown WDIZ. In November of 1992, Neal returned to Miami, this time as PD at Paxon communications WZTA. Zeta, classic on Neal's arrival, went briefly Triple A, and early this year adopted a new current direction. The Winter Book just hit last week, and Neal and his station obviously have cause to celebrate...

So you had a really good book in the new format. Were you expecting to do so well?

Neal: I knew it would come eventually, but I didn't know it would come this quickly. When I saw February, we extrapolated from that. We were skyrocketing and 'SHE was plummeting. I knew then we'd come close to them in the first book of the new format. We didn't change until mid-January, so as far as I'm concerned it's our first real report card with the new format. Even though it wasn't a complete book, it's a reflection of things to come.

What were the highlights?

Neal: 12+. Zeta went from a 1.9 to a 2.4. And 'SHE went from a 3.2 to a 2.4.

How about demographically?

Neal: 25-54, Zeta went 2.6 to 2.7. From my point of view we went from a 0 to a 2.7. 'SHE went from a 4.3 to a 2.7. 18-34, where you would expect to see it, we went from a 3.9 to a 5.1. 'SHE went from a 7.9 to a 5.0, which is incredible. Three months ago, they were a full four share points ahead of us, and now we're a tenth of a point ahead of them.

What tells you it's not just curiosity come?

Neal: One of the first big tip-offs was a promotion we did back in March, when Van Halen was here. We were giving away a pair of front row seats, as was 'SHE. We told people to bring banners, that we would be looking for ones that said, '94.9 Zeta Rocks.' We said the people with the biggest and best banner would be upgraded to the front row. We've done these kinds of promotions in the past and had three people show up with banners. I got to the arena, and there were 50 or 60 banners outside. Humongous banners. The guy who won had rented a Greyhound bus for the night and the side of it was the banner. He had parked it across from the arena. To have that many people show up told me that people were listening. There were other indicators — phone, mail. That, and combined with the fact that in my opinion, 'SHE sounded awful.

In what sense?

Neal: It was just unfocused, all over the place. One minute you're hearing the Beatles, 'Drive My Car' and the next, it's Danzig. Then it's Sonny Landreth. They are trying to play Alice in Chains with the Beatles. Or Jane's Addiction into Sheryl Crow. They have been getting by for the last couple years on default. Although Zeta has been a classic rock station, we were not a very good rock station.

What were your deficiencies?

Neal: We made the mistake a lot of other stations have made — knowing the critical importance of the 25-54 audience for sales, we played too much Phil Collins, Billy Joel and Elton John, and were trying to call ourselves a rock station. People who tuned in for rock and heard Phil Collins were laughing. We were a Rock A/C. 'SHE has been the only rock station in town. That gave them the freedom to be broad-based as the only game in town. They're OK, but not much better than that.

Is this your best book ever?

Neal: Perhaps my most rewarding, but my best book ever numerically was in 1979 when I came to 'DIZ and attacked WORJ. We went from a 3 to an 8.8, and took them from the 8s down to the 4s in one book. That was the best ever.

Were you able to sustain in that market?

Neal: Based on that book, I landed the job at 'SHE when John Tenaglia bought it.

So you've known John for a long time. How personal is the battle with you and 'SHE at this point?

Neal: I can only speak for me. It's not nearly as personal as people think it is, though the infamous 'daily root canal' remark will live in infamy. It may be more personal from him towards me than vice versa. It wouldn't matter to me who owns 'SiHE. They are my competition. They are the enemy. However, I think it's safe to say that Will Rogers never met John Tenaglia.

You and Bill Pugh get along well.

Neal: Bill's a great guy and a good programmer, which is why I am so baffled at how 'SHE sounds now.

Was Jeff Pollack your consultant as a classic rock station?

Neal: No. Although, I thoroughly enjoyed working with Fred, and have the highest regard for him. Fred is a great consultant. Every conversation we had, every piece of correspondence we ever got, made me feel like I was his only client. It was never boiler plate. It was about our specific market, our needs, our situation and our competition. I was very impressed by that.

The absence of a full-fledged alternative in the market is interesting to a lot of people. Given his success with The Edge, did Jacobs pitch you on that approach?

Neal: That wasn't considered an option back then. We were comfortable being a classic rock station at that time.

Explain the whole Ron and Ron scenario.

Neal: When I was at 'DIZ in Orlando, we were their first affiliate. When they decided to syndicate it, they approached us for obvious reasons. We were a nearby market, their signal bled in, and they already had some base to build on. It made sense for Orlando to be the first market to dip their toes into, and they were successful there. When I arrived at Zeta in November of '92, Zeta was a Jacobs consulted classic rock with a music intensive-morning show that was doing nothing. We decided to go with something different in the morning, so we looked at a bunch of morning shows that are out there. With Ron and Ron's Florida track record, we opted to go with them and they had spectacular success very quickly. At one point they were Top 3, maybe tied for #2 25-54, and number one Anglo at the same time. They were phenomenally successful. For instance, there was the time they came to the market to do one of their live gigs. We had a lot of controversy over it, because Flipper had a band he named the Dead German Tourists. It was a sensitive issue, as Miami's tourism was suffering after some tourist killings. We were supposed to do this live gig at the Hard Rock Cafe Bayside, and the city freaked out. They put pressure on the Hard Rock, who came to us and said, 'You're welcome to do your show here, but leave your Dead German Tourists at home.' The Ron and Ron show decided to find another place. In two days notice, we relocated to a local rock club, and at 4:30 am there were 10,000 people lined up to get in. It stopped traffic. The whole controversy made us the lead story on the news for two or three days running. All of these things contributed to their success. That, and the show itself. They are talented guys.

Neal: We had been consulted by Fred Jacobs as a classic rock, and then we severed the relationship about a year ago and went without one. Between the classic rock era and the format change to a mainstream AOR in January, we went through five or six months of being a Rock A/C, playing Triple A currents.

That didn't work at all, did it?

Neal: No. When we made the decision at the end of December to attack 'SHE and be a mainstream AOR, we hired the Pollack people. They have been very helpful.

Obviously, they field a format applicable to the market hole you perceived. You had no thoughts of hooking back up with Jacobs?

You were going for a 25-54 audience with classic rock and Ron and Ron's appeal is decidedly lower on the male scale. Did that incompatibility trouble you?

THE Hard INTERVIEW

Neal: Let me put it like this. This is the first time in my lengthy career that I haven't had to beg for equipment, research, or marketing and promotion dollars. Mr. Paxson is a big believer in spending money to make money and giving you the tools to win. This is the first time I have been provided all the tools I've needed. He believes in research and technology. We don't have cart machines anymore. Our studios are all digital and beautiful, and this is the nicest working environment I've ever had. It's great.

Are Bud's ratings expectations in line with what he has to spend to provide all of the above?

Neal: I've learned he's a realist. The ratings pressure isn't worse here more than anywhere else. Ratings pressure will be there for any PD anywhere. With this company, I've got a lot of help. It isn't Neal Mirsky sitting here calling all the shots. I've got a consultant, a general manager, a corporate vice president of programming, Alan Mason, Mr. Paxson and Jay Hoker, president of our radio division. Every one of us is involved in this decision. The decision to go mainstream and attack 'SHE' — although something I've wanted to do and one I've been trying to pitch for a long time — was made by us all together. With this company, we work together to come up with a plan, and it's my job to execute the plan. If the plan doesn't work, I'm not held responsible. As long as I've executed the plan we've designed, I won't worry about getting fired. It's not, 'We've had a lousy book, blow out the PD.' We all share in the responsibility.

The 'lousy book and you're fired' mentality certainly isn't any less prevalent these days.

Neal: It's been that way everywhere I've worked.

What was the toughest job you ever had?

Neal: Q96 in Orlando for three months in 1987. I was working for John Tenaglia. Enough said.

Any thoughts about your tenure at MTV?

Neal: I look back on that very happily. It was such a cool place to be then at the beginning. It was a fabulous place to me. The flame had gone out in me for radio. I had just left 'SHE' and felt I didn't want to do radio anymore. I wasn't sure what I wanted to do.

How comfortable are you with the amount of wheeling and dealing it takes to get airplay at this point? Is it just a fact of life?

Neal: It's not a fact of my life. I've been back in the format since January and I haven't cut any deals for anything. I play the records I think are right for what I'm doing.

Part of your music selection criteria involves avoiding so called 'WSHE' records. Explain.

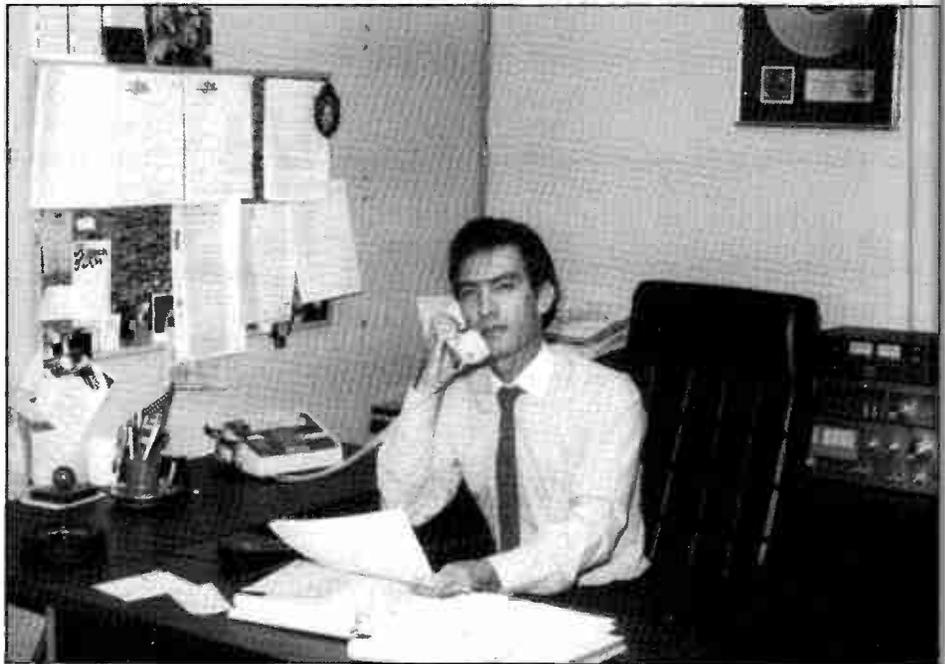

Neal: Giving the current situation with the two rock stations in town, there's no reason for us to be exactly the same. I'm trying to differentiate from 'SHE'. Their image is that of a dinosaur, and we are a '90s station. We are rocking. We called ourselves a rock station when we weren't really rocking, so it's important that we are rocking now. I'm staying away from those softer records. I never played Blues Traveler 'Run Around,' Widespread Panic, The Jayhawks. Though they're good records, but I'll let 'SHE' have them because I need to keep focused. We're a little more modern, harder. When it's a hit, I'll play it. I resisted Dave Matthews until it was almost Top 10. I

Neal: I don't know how to answer that because they are all over the road. They don't have any definition. Looking down their list, I see them playing Danzig and Freddy Jones. They'll play a Type O Negative and then a Del Amitri.

What are your positioning statements?

Neal: '94.9 Zeta rocks' is our primary one. We poke fun not only at our competition but at ourselves. We had one, 'Why did Paul Casternova and Ron Brewer leave her?' 'SHE got old.'

That's funny. But you had a little problem with 'She' by Green Day due to the 'SHE' reference.

resisted Hootie's 'Let Her Cry' until it was Top 10.

But what's the point of avoiding some songs, when you share 7 of your top 10 most played tracks?

Neal: The difference is that my powers are getting 30-35 spins a week. I don't have this load of records that are getting played five or six times a week. All the spins they are giving to records they hardly play are taking away from spins they could be giving to hits. If we're sharing seven out of the top ten, I'm playing them more, because they are playing a lot of mid-chart stiff.

What are the musical characteristics of a 'SHE' record?

Neal: From what I understand, the label isn't working the track.

Good sidestep, Neal.

Neal: If they were, I would play it. I wouldn't mention the title in back-announcing. It would be hard to say that was 'She' on Zeta.

Big sports town. How do you deal with sports?

Neal: We do a lot of promotion with our hockey team the Panthers. We do promotion with the Marlins. Our AM station carries the Heat games, so we do a lot of ticket giveaways. We did a lot of Panther games this year. I had my personalities out on the ice during half-time doing pro-

row seats, as was 'SHE. We told people to bring banners, that we would be looking for ones that said, '94.9 Zeta Rocks.' We said the people with the biggest and best banner would be upgraded to the front row. We've done these kinds of promotions in the past and had three people show up with banners. I got to the arena, and there were 50 or 60 banners outside. Humongous banners. The guy who won had rented a Greyhound bus for the night and the side of it was the banner. He had parked it across from the arena. To have that many people show up told me that people were listening. There were other indicators — phone, mail. That, and combined with the fact that in my opinion, 'SHE sounded awful.

In what sense?

Neal: It was just unfocused, all over the place. One minute you're hearing the Beatles, 'Drive My Car' and the next, it's Danzig. Then it's Sonny Landreth. They are trying to play Alice in Chains with the Beatles. Or Jane's Addiction into Sheryl Crow. They have been getting by for the last couple years on default. Although Zeta has been a classic rock station, we were not a very good rock station.

What were your deficiencies?

Neal: We made the mistake a lot of other stations have made — knowing the critical importance of the 25-54 audience for sales, we played too much Phil Collins, Billy Joel and Elton John, and were trying to call ourselves a rock station. People who tuned in for rock and heard Phil Collins were laughing. We were a Rock A/C. 'SHE has been the only rock station in town. That gave them the freedom to be broad-based as the only game in town. They're OK, but not much better than that.

Is this your best book ever?

Neal: Perhaps my most rewarding, but my best book ever numerically was in 1979 when I came to 'DIZ and attacked WORJ. We went from a 3 to an 8.8, and took them from the 8s down to the 4s in one book. That was the best ever.

Were you able to sustain in that market?

Neal: Based on that book, I landed the job at 'SHE when John Tenaglia bought it.

So you've known John for a long time. How personal is the battle with you and 'SHE at this point?

Neal: I can only speak for me. It's not nearly as personal as people think it is, though the infamous 'daily root canal' remark will live in infamy. It may be more personal from him towards me than vice versa. It wouldn't matter to me who owns 'SHE. They are my competition. They are the enemy. You were going for a 25-54 audience with classic rock and Ron and Ron's appeal is decidedly lower on the male scale. Did that incompatibility trouble you?

THE Hard INTERVIEW

Neal: They achieved Top 3 25-54 adults. People might think this is an 18-24 oriented show. Not true. As much as they have the reputation for getting down and dirty — the Hooters girls and the body shots — they also got into some serious issue shows. It was great, compelling radio. They had fabulous guests on who ran the gamut.

So what slowed that momentum down?

Neal: I thought the turning point was when they lost their producer, Billy Owens, 'Billy the Phone Freak.' They ran Billy off. He abused him on the air and it got to him. I believe that's why he left. When he left, they lost their ability to book great guests. Because of huge success in Miami and Orlando, it became a cottage industry. They had their 'Let the Puppy's Breathe' video. Ron Bennington put together his 'Ron Bennington's Disciples of Comedy.' They would put on shows, sell tickets and make a lot of money. They had quite an enterprise going. As the guests went downhill, the show turned into a four hour info-mercial for their comedy shows. Then Stern debuted in the market and made an impact. They couldn't stand up to the competition. You tuned into Howard, and he had Roseanne Barr in one day and Arnold Schwarzenegger. The next On Ron and Ron it was comedians screaming into the microphone and these Hooters girls.

And finally...?

Neal: They had slipped from 3rd, to 5th to 8th to 12th. We were paying a lot of money, and that was okay when they were 3rd. When they slipped to 12th, we pulled the plug. We got one final Trend after they had left, and they had slipped to 15th.

Was it at that point that you stole Paul Castronovo and Ron Brewer from WSHE?

Neal: We knew when they hit 8th place that something had to give. We knew we'd have to do something different. Paul has been a friend of mine for a long time. I gave him his first job out of college in Miami in 1984. We worked together for a brief spell at Q96. I knew Paul was no longer protected under contract and that he was unhappy. Most of the options we were looking at involved other syndicated shows. That's when I made my pitch about going head to head with 'SHE' and stealing their morning show. I rolled some tape on Paul without him knowing it, and sent them to Mr. Paxson. It just happened.

Was that when you decided your station needed a whole new direction?

Neal: It was based on gut as well as some very strong research we had done.

How have Paul's ratings been thus far?

Neal: We haven't gotten the impact on that yet. It's not even close to what it's going to be. We're still going through the phase of the Ron and Ron audience going away. Look at the numbers and don't know to say whether we went from a 2.6 to a 2.7 or from a 0 to a 2.7.

What's going on in the morning at WSHE?

Neal: They hired Garth Hemp. He was the morning guy before Paul and Ron. As Ron and Ron were sliding, Paul and Ron were beating them. That's part of what piqued our interest. As far as Garth is concerned, I don't get it. I hear dinosaur radio. Anyway, it doesn't really matter. After only three months, I hear he's already leaving.

How did you like being a classic rock station? Did you feel like you were out on an iceberg?

Neal: Very much so. The only up-side was that I had so much time to spend with my station, whether it was promotions or positioning or marketing or working with the jocks. I forgot how much time it takes to be a current-intensive station. I was watching 'SHE get everything that came down the pike. I still had some labels calling me because I've been doing this for a long time. They're not stupid. With my history, who knew where I might be in six months, or what format the station would be? People would show us the courtesy of a phone call every couple of months and talk to us about classic-oriented things. There were some labels that treated us very shabbily. They gave everything to 'SHE, even with some classic rock bands. For instance, 'SHE owned the Pink Floyd opener in Miami in every aspect. At any point in time, I was expecting Pink Floyd's lasers to spell out 'WSHE' in the skies over Joe Robbie Stadium. When the show was first announced, I was told that we could buy tickets but no one was doing anything else. I went with that assumption, but when I went to the show, 'SHE owned it.

THE Hard INTERVIEW

Have you since fixed that with Jimmy Del Balzo and Columbia?

Neal: Yeah, because of a long-standing relationship with Jimmy. I've been friends with him for a long time, and I really like him. Even through the worst of this, I never changed my feelings about Jimmy, personally. He did what he had to do. We were worthless, we weren't going to help with these new bands, and Columbia did what they had to do. When we went current-based, we had many talks on the subject. We felt that not talking and me not playing their records would be counter-productive. I am considering their records and playing the ones that are right. There is the understanding that we will work this out and make things right down the road. Although, just today, the local Columbia guy gave the new Soul Asylum

Then there's the label whose records you won't even play, let alone report.

Neal: The biggest band on that label was coming to town and I was tipped off by the promoter that both shows were going to be owned by 'SHE. I called the regional person and he played dumb and said he didn't know anything about it. He said he would investigate it and get back to me. He got back to me and said, 'It's true, some kind of deal was cut. I don't know what to tell you. We'll make it up to you.' I later learned that he was the person who put it all together.

How does a company fix a situation like that?

Neal: I don't know what they can do to make it right, or how long it's going to take. I'm hoping eventually we'll fix it, but it could be two years from now. But the person who lied to me will never have the right to call me up and promote records. He lied to me. Why would I waste my time? If they come out with something that hurts me not to play, I'll play it. This, by the way, was a band that I played as a classic rock and during our Triple A phase. I supported their first album when I was in Orlando.

Can you foresee a situation where an Alternative could slide in the door and steal your thunder?

Neal: I'm not sure that there is enough room for a third rock station of any type in this market. I'm not all that concerned about it.

You've heard the oft repeated conjecture that WSHE is considering a much more alternative approach?

Neal: They could go alternative, they could go classic, they could go Triple A. Depending on when I punch in, they appear to be all three. That's the most mystifying thing to me. In January, we stole their morning show and made it clear we were going head to head and since, they've done nothing. They are continuing to be broad-based, and that's why I'm killing them. They've got to do something, but I don't know what.

They may feel that this is a wobble, that you've got the curiosity factor and that their present course is fine and dandy.

Neal: I can only hope.

Given the ethnic make-up in the market, isn't the normal range of format options fairly limited?

Neal: I keep saying that I should have my head examined since this is the third time I've programmed a rock station in one of the worst rock markets in the country. If you add up the 12+ rock shares, you're going to end up with maybe a 6 share total, and that's because of the ethnic make-up. Rock is not a huge format here.

Does the Hispanic population seem intrigued by Alternative music?

Neal: Yeah. When you go down to South Beach, there is some alternative mixed in with the dance stuff. 22% of my audience is Hispanic, and 19% of 'SHE's is. Just because they're Hispanic doesn't mean they're going to listen to John Secada and Santana. They like Green Day and Pearl Jam and Stone Temple Pilots and Led Zeppelin and Van Halen and Aerosmith. But there are so many more of them who are into the Hispanic and urban dance music that those stations will always be at the top at this market.

What's happening over at the '70s station?

Neal: That's where Howard is. There are two versions of the '70s format — the rock and pop versions. Big 106 seems to be trying to do both. Now they seem to be leaning toward pop. The rock share of 25-54 normally sits between a 7 and 8. In this book, you add up our 2.7 and 'SHE's 2.7, and you have a 5.4.

Where are the missing shares?

Neal: Some are at Big 106. As they're going more pop, they're going to come back. And some of those 25-54's disappeared from Arbitron, which happens from time to time.

In contrast to most stations, you have huge promotional bucks at your disposal, don't you?

THE Hard INTERVIEW

Neal: Let me put it like this. This is the first time in my lengthy career that I haven't had to beg for equipment, research, or marketing and promotion dollars. motions. We've had a number of hockey players on the air as guest DJs. We're in the process of having Dan Marino do it. One of our positioners is, 'We're not really sure, but we think we're one of Dan Marino's favorite stations.' Our morning show is always talking about it. Our sports director from the AM station comes in a couple of mornings during the week and talks about sports. It's great cross-promotion for both stations. It's a music-intensive morning show with a lot of personality and content.

How involved is Zeta in the local music scene?

Neal: As soon as we changed format, we established a local show. 'SHE used to have one, and during the Ernesto Gladden regime, they dumped it. As soon as they dumped it, there was pressure on both stations to better serve the local scene. It didn't make sense when we were a classic rock, but as soon as we changed, it made perfect sense. We put one on the air, and within a week, 'SHE launched their own. Thank God they don't directly compete. I'm on Sunday 10-11, and they're on Sunday 11-12. This week we added a record from a local, unsigned band to regular airplay.

And the band is?

Neal: Coma. They have Matt Kramer, the former lead singer of Saigon Kick, who was huge down here. They're a fabulous band, with great songs. A lot of labels are showing a lot of interest. I think they're going to be big. I figure play it now, help them out.

What's the status of your MD/Midday position?

Neal: We're close. I'm getting a lot of packages in. I have several strong candidates already, some within, some without. Several people on staff are interested in moving into that position. I could move one of my night jocks into the spot. There are so many options. I'm going to take my time.

If you were on the outside looking in, what about the position would be the most appealing?

Neal: The climate. It's a happening market, with South Beach becoming a huge scene. Everyone from Sylvester Stallone to Madonna is coming down here. It's a glamorous market. You can have a lot of fun here, and you don't have to shovel your car out of the driveway in the winter.

As long as you've got your Kevlar vest on, no problem. Has the concern over the murder rate died down?

Neal: We haven't had any major incidents in some months now, and tourism is starting to come back.

What about the cost of living?

Neal: I don't know the exact numbers, but I've always thought this was a very feasible place to live. Although, when I came to Florida in 1972 I heard a line that you still hear today. 'You get paid in sunshine.' Salaries tend to be a little lower here. That's changing. It's an over-radioed market, and it's very competitive. But that's changing.

What is the best part about living in Miami?

Neal: I have a son who lives in West Palm, and the worst part about the MTV gig was moving so far away from him. Now I see him all the time. He'll be 20 soon. He and his girlfriend go to concerts with me. We go to sporting events together and hang out. It's great.

Rock Alternative

Catherine Wheel, "Waydown," Mercury

From their third record, Catherine Wheel manage to hit stride. This track is particularly well-seasoned in terms of its reflection of maturity and musicianship that Catherine Wheel exhibits. The development is well-timed, too, as "Waydown" really crosses into Rock territory as well as Alternative. There's plenty of G&R sensibility here as well as less mainstream influences, and as long as there are radio stations playing Van Halen and Bush, there shouldn't even be any argument against this band as they play now. "Waydown" has the edge necessary to play like a rock record that needs no categorization. And at this point in the radio evolution, we're all in search of a good rock record at Rock Alternative.

Bad Brains, "God of Love," Maverick

This band rocks. This track rocks. They've influenced countless other bands while raking up influences as diverse as reggae and hard-core. Bad Brains are lighting it up full-tilt on this track, simply on-par with anything they've ever done. WDRE picks it up this week. You should, too. There isn't exactly a genre to represent here — how many bands do you know that fuse a reggae storyline and attitude with a hard-core music feel? Doesn't matter. Bad Brains rule the roost, and it's high time that credit be given where credit is due. You're talkin' about pleasing a strong contingent of fans who haven't heard much of their band on the radio. That's called scoring points.

The Nixons, "Foma," MCA

Drawn from a direction that few bands are travelling in and around the Rock Alternative chart this week, The Nixons sound a bit more like Prong than they do something like Bush — which will fly for you who like to rock it up. These guys hail from Oklahoma, home to The Flaming Lips and The Chainsaw Kittens. This band is legendary for their live show, and much of the energy and passion translates into the sound on this track — a rousing slugfest that you'll want to turn up loud. Plenty of reasons to use this one to please the contingent of fans that can't seem to get enough of the hard stuff, as witnessed by the success of Filter, White Zombie and others.

Nirvana, "Lake of Fire," DGC

From the Unplugged collection comes this track from the sessions that proved to be even more important than previously anticipated. And it was #2 Most Added at rock radio. This cover of the Meat Puppets' tune has a certain passion on the part of Cobain that isn't always evident throughout the disc. Obviously he had some reverence for the tune or else they wouldn't have played it that night. It's about 2:30 long, and contains some nice guitar noodling that plays against the lyric well. It's a spacey, almost C&W treatment. Certainly it's a rootsy way to accommodate the legion of fans still hungry for memories about a band that rocked their world then and now. KLOL, ZROC, WDIZ and 27 others go this week, joining a host of others on the rock side.

Sugar Ray, "Mean Machine," Atlantic

No doubt the machine is firing on all cylinders as we speak, as the buzz is mounting into adds on the alternative front and consideration for all in Rock Alternative land. KATP and WDIZ add up this week, joining WAAF, WAXQ and KEGL as earlybirds. It's a slammin' rock track that gets in your face with punk attitude and crash lands in your lap as a solid option to fold into your night-time slot this week. It will grow, and you'll be dealing with it soon enough. May as well come in early. It's the Hot Rod Lincoln from Hell.

TRIPLE ACE

WARREN ZEVON Mutineer
Warren Zevon, "Mutineer," Giant We've been excitable ever since we heard that our alternative guru was working on a new album, and once again, Warren Zevon has delivered everything we hoped for. Edgy, smooth, intense, raw, disturbed and a little paranoid — the forthcoming Mutineer has already struck a chord with the Triple A community: Ron Sorenson KFMG, "From the EP, we like 'Rottweiler Blues' (talk about taking the pulse of the nation!) and 'Mutineer' — looking forward to the full CD." Colter Langan KMMS, "We hit this one as soon as we got it. We added 'Rottweiler Blues,' and the third track on the sampler could work for other stations that don't want to immediately go for the juggler with Warren's new record. As soon as we threw this on, we got immediate phones. This is a great record!" Jon Peterson WCBE, "'Poisonous Lookalike' is classic Zevon, featuring jangly acoustic guitars, a great hook, and dark, deeply disturbed lyrics about lost love and revenge." Ian Taylor WKVT, "We added the song 'Rottweiler.' It sounds like good old Warren and it sounds good." Greg Roberts KFMU, "This is a solid record. We're on the track 'Mutineer,' which I think really fits the format." Johnny Ayers WIVI, "Artists that have their own unique sound are the ones that always seem to turn me on. Mr. 'Werewolves of London' is such an artist. Warren is back with an array of emotions, from the driving sound of 'Rottweiler Blues' to the sensitivity of 'Mutineer'. Keep your eyes and ears open for this one."

THE HOT CORNER

BOB DYLAN MTV Unplugged
Bob Dylan, "MTV Unplugged," Columbia Unplugged — raw and energetic — the most pleasant way to witness this songwriting genius. Along with smooth renditions of some of his dated material — "All Along The Watchtower," "Knockin' On Heaven's Door" and "Like A Rolling Stone" — lie a few, newer "potential" classics, "Tombstone Blues" and the snappy sounds of last year's Triple A hit "Dignity." Tim Tobin, Upper

Valley Radio Network, "What can you say about Bob? It's great to hear Dylan doing a lot of his classic tunes, re-done in a fresh sort of way. We just moved this album into heavy rotation and we expect a long run from Dylan." Jeff Hansen KPFT, "This album is excellent. Dylan goes back and hits some of his landmarks. It's nice to hear brand new, live acoustic versions of these songs from one of the most important singer/songwriters of the last thirty years. It's great that he's got this new record out. Another thing that's interesting is that Peter, Paul & Mary have a new album out at the same time as Dylan's. They were instrumental in making Dylan's music known. They made his songs popular before anyone knew who he was. Peter, Paul & Mary should also be considered for Triple A." Colter Langan KMMS, "We're on 'John Brown,' and our adult listeners are hungry for more after the simulcast in April. We're so happy to have some Dylan that's fresh, and yet a classic approach from the definitive AAA artist."

TRIPLE CROWN

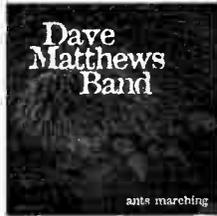

Melissa Ferrick, "Willing to Wait," Atlantic

Boston's soulful, storytelling, acoustic axe-wielding, passionate songwriter, Melissa Ferrick, returns with her sophomore release Willing To Wait. Melissa's voice drips with such emotion that it must be rung-out like a sponge. A coiled snake, she sits calmly waiting, never leading on to the listener when to expect the strike — "Faking" and "Willing To Wait." Delivering guitar that chugs like a steam train ("Till Your Dead," "I Am Done") and lyrics that touch the inner-soul ("I Am Not" and "Trouble In My Head"). Early believers include WVXU, KINK, KRVM and WKVT. Jon Peterson WCBE, "Melissa Ferrick's sophomore effort shows considerable depth. She repeats her 'Happy Song' type jangle with 'Falling On Fists,' but also shows strong singer/songwriter sensibilities with 'I Am Not' and 'Crackerjack Kid' — and also a sexy, aggressive, hard rockin' side with 'Willing To Wait.'" Bob Terrill KCSU, "This is as edgy as acoustic guitar can get. It's just a great album." Ian Taylor WKVT, "We are exploring Melissa Ferrick's second album, and it sounds very promising."

SINGLE SPOTLIGHT

The Dave Matthews Band, "Ants Marching," RCA

Ron Sorenson KFMG, "'Ants Marching' should pick up where 'Jimi Thing' left off. I also want to say thank you to RCA for giving us the acoustic and live versions." Colter Langan KMMS, "We added 'Ants Marching,' a song that's further proves the continuing success of a seminal Triple A Artist." Jon Peterson WCBE, "'Ants Marching' features a great groove and fantastic violin work that's much more earthy and organic than some other material on the album. Sounds like a hit to me." Bob Terrill KCSU, "The Dave Matthews Band is one of the best live bands in the country. Until you have a chance to see them live, listen to 'Ants Marching.'" Bruce Stebbins WRNX, "I saw The Dave Matthews Band live in Boulder and they blew me away. When I first listened to the album, we couldn't decide what track we liked the most, but since then, we decided that we love every song on it. 'Ants Marching' has got to be the best track that we've been on. The Dave Matthews Band are phenomenal... they're on fire."

Zeb Norris WXLE, "Perhaps you've noticed the stunning worldwide popularity of a dynamic, delightful corkhead of loveable mop-tops from Liverpool...oh wait, sorry, wrong decade. Well, The Dave Matthews Band got real popular real fast, too, and this track has more of the fresh approach that made them the fab-gear item they truly are."

The Rosemarys, "Spaceman," Fox

From the critically acclaimed movie Kiss Of Death lands a soundtrack cut deserving of a spotlight itself, "Spaceman" by The Rosemarys. Like a space shuttle to the galaxy of rock-n-roll, this tune will shoot all listeners into permanent orbit around their stereos. 3 - 2 - 1 - Play! One small step for The Rosemarys, one giant step for your audience.

PRIORITY
10 YEAR ANNIVERSARY

Report Date: May 9

Management: Double Tee Promotions, Inc. Portland, OR

Robert Cray

Some Rainy Morning (Mercury) from Robert Cray should land on your desk this week. This album is much like Young Bob's last two in that it leans heavily on his blues roots, as opposed to the R&B and soul he has been known to delve into. The absence of horns lets Cray stretch out more, and there are some stunning vocal and guitar performances on the album. In addition to "Moan" and the other songs on the CDPro, check out "I'll Go On," featuring Jim Pugh's soulful Hammond playing, "Tell The Landlord," a nice shuffle, and "Enough For Me." Cray is one of the most widely known blues musicians on the planet and will make a great addition to any playlist.

Elvis Costello

Kojak Variety (Warner Bros.) is Elvis Costello's tribute to songs and songwriters that have moved him over the years. Yes, this is an album of covers, but most of these songs are not ones your listeners will be familiar with. They are old R&B songs, for the most part. The label wants us to focus on "Pouring Water On A Drowning Man," which is a Dan Penn song. This is one of the better tunes on the CD, along with Willie Dixon's "Hidden Charms," Little John's "Leave My Kitten Alone," and Jesse Winchester's "Payday."

Moonpools & Caterpillars

Moonpools & Caterpillars may be the surprise band of the second quarter. When I first heard the single from Lucky Dumpling (EastWest/EEG), called "Hear," I thought that the song was a smash that would probably be huge at alternative, college, and MTV, but not something for most AAA's. However, as I dug deeper into the album, I found some terrific songs. Start with "Sunday," which has blown away even other labels' promo people (I won't mention any names, but it starts with an "H" and ends with a "oward"). Also pay attention to "Traveling Song," "Soon," and "Trampling Rose." This has the potential to be a real sleeper of an album.

Jeff Healey

Jeff Healey also has a new album of covers, called Cover To Cover (Arista), strangely enough! The album is preceded by a 4 track CDPro, which gets cookin' right from the start, courtesy of a great version of Big Joe Williams' "Highway 49." Healey's pyrotechnics abound, and his voice sounds better than ever. Robert Johnson's "Stop Breakin' Down," a song made famous in the rock world by the Stones, is a bit more subdued, but still has that Healey flavor. The other two tracks are the ballad "As The Years Go By," and an acoustic reading of "Me And My Crazy Self." Healey once again proves himself to be a guitar wizard, and consummate reader of the blues.

David Knopfler

David Knopfler has put out a fine album that some people are calling "The best album Dire Straits has ever made." The track "A Little Sun (Has Gotta Shine)" has a great feel to it, and is perfect for this time of year. "Remember It All" is highlighted by some nice sax work, and "A Women" and "Weeping In The Wings" should also get your attention.

MUSIC NOTES

By JASON PARKER

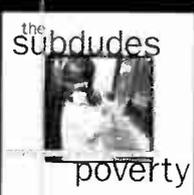

Curtis Salgado

Although the name Curtis Salgado may be new to you, he has had a long and illustrious career. From playing with Robert Cray, Albert Collins and Roomful of Blues, to being the inspiration for John Belushi and Dan Ackroyd's Blues Brothers, Curtis has been around the block. In recent years, he has spent his time honing his brand of blues, R&B and soul, in bars from San Francisco to Seattle. Being from Salgado's hometown of Eugene, Oregon, I have seen him play countless times in many configurations, and I can tell you he is the real deal. The single from his new album More Than You Can Chew (Rhythm Safari) is "She Told Me That Too," which features longtime friend Steve Miller on vocals. It's an upbeat rocker that should sound great as Spring turns to Summer. Other tracks to focus on are "Little Charming," "I Don't Care," and "Can't This Be Mine."

Melissa Ferrick

Melissa Ferrick is back with another powerful album of edgy folk songs. Willing To Wait (Atlantic) is a consistent follow-up to her 1993 debut Massive Blur, and continues her development as a songwriter. Songs like "Falling On Fists" and the title track will give you a taste of Melissa's electric side, while "Faking" and "Til You're Dead" show off her more immense talent on an acoustic guitar. What holds all of her works together is her talent as a lyricist. Spend some time with this one. Ferrick could become a staple for us.

High Street Records has released an EP from the subdudes called Poverty, which is a CD to benefit the National Coalition for the Homeless. It features the track "Poverty," which appeared on their last album, plus some alternate and live takes of five other songs. All proceeds from the sale of the EP will go to the NCH, and they would appreciate your support of this worthy cause.

Singles

Soul Asylum's new album Let Your Dim Light Shine (Columbia) is due out next month, but you should already have the lead track "Misery." This is a great satirical song written in Soul Asylum's signature power-pop style. "They say misery loves company/We could start a company and make misery/Frustrated Incorporated." Does it get much better than this?

"Somebody's Crying" is the first single from Chris Isaak's forthcoming Forever Blue (Reprise). This is the best single from Isaak since "Wicked Game," and should be added immediately! The rest of the album lands in two weeks, and is filled with wonderful songs — you won't be disappointed.

Bob Dylan

There has been some misunderstanding of last week's review of Bob Dylan's MTV Unplugged (Columbia) album, and I'd like to clarify. We are very glad to see Bob making a return to writing and performing. Last year's "Dignity" was hopefully the start of a continuing string of great releases from Dylan, and the fact that he agreed to do an Unplugged taping signals a willingness to get back up in front of an audience, something he has only done sporadically in recent years. As for the album itself, we recommend it highly. I will reiterate that I feel the tracks to focus on are the lesser known ones, like "John Brown" and "Tombstone Blues." It was not my intention to "slag" the album, the man or the label, and I apologize if my comments were taken in that vein.

The Local Beat

Jeff Hansen P.D. KPFT/Houston

KPFT is a 100,000 watt public radio station owned by the Pacifica Foundation. We're celebrating our 25th Anniversary this year. I came on board at the end of August last year to join the management team already working hard to orient the station toward survival and self-sufficiency into the new century. Unlike Seattle, New York, L.A., Madison, or the Bay Area, Houston is not a Camelot market for public broadcasting. Our challenge is to survive and prosper in spite of these market limitations, in spite of an annual budget less than $400 K (less after the CPB cuts!) and in spite of having no money for research or marketing.

KPFT has always been a source for progressive music and our progressive mid-day music mix has shown an encouraging growth trend over the last few years. Since August, we have replaced a morning drive news magazine program with World Cafe. Just since November, this program has already resulted in significant increases in listener support and makes it possible for us to provide a level of programming that would otherwise not be possible for us to do ourselves at this time.

Also since August, we've begun a music library, gained reporting status, and instituted rotations and airsound guidelines for DJs. There is much more work to be done. I hope to have approval soon to hire a Music Director, and that should be another major step forward for us. In the meantime, I'm holding down both PD and MD positions. We have no promotions or production staff.

Listener response to the music has been phenomenal. We're trying to work in some of the landmark artists. Last week we had tremendous phones when we played Steve Goodman, It's A Beautiful Day, Ry Cooder (Paradise and Lunch), Jeff Beck, Dan Hicks, and Buffalo Springfield. We also got great phones on brand new artists, including Jeff Buckley and Leticia, and on new music from Susan Werner, Guy Clark, Steve Earle and many more. This progressive music fits our mission to a tee: our listeners love it, and it's not being done anywhere else in this market. Thanks for your support so far.

The Point and Warner Brothers are getting together to send some listeners to Memphis, Tennessee to see Tom Petty at the world famous Orpheum Theater in our "It's Good To Be King, At The Home Of The King" promotion. The show is on May 28th, and on behalf of Richard Reed (our illustrious P.D.) and the rest of The Point staff, we just want to say "Thank you Todd Galli and Nancy Stein at Warner for the help putting this great promotion into action! Keep on rockin'..."

He'd be lying... if WRLT/Nashville afternoon driver/MD David Hall said he wasn't happy over Mary Karlzen's visit for an interview prior to a Nashville concert appearance to plug her Atlantic CD Yelling At Mary.

Reissue Spotlight

Otis Spann

Down To Earth

Chess/MCA

Scott Miner, host of "The Blues Blowout"
WIVE/Virgin Islands

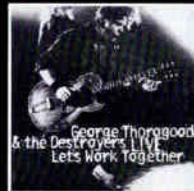

Tip of the blue hat to MCA's Andy Mckae for re-issuing a great pair of out of print Bluesway recordings by blues giant Otis Spann. A stalwart of the Muddy Waters band for most of the '50s, (various combinations of Muddy's bands from that time play behind Otis on both albums, including the great man himself, contributing both his songwriting and his trademark slashing slide) Spann has a few solo recordings that leave you wondering what heights he could have reached on his own. On this recent re-issue, Otis shines throughout as he plays rollicking, rambling blues piano as only he could. Recorded live in the studio, these tracks showoff not only his piano playing but distinguish him as a convincing vocalist as well — check out his version of "Taint Nobody's Business." Some of my favorite cuts include "Chicago Blues," "Nobody Knows Chicago Like I Do," and the infectious grooving "Doctor Blues," but all the tracks are good, solid Chicago blues. Backed by the aforementioned cream of Chicago's best (in addition to Muddy, George "Harmonica" Smith's playing deserves mention) and joined by wife Lucille on four numbers, this disc showcases the peerless talent of one of the blues finest piano players - Otis Spann.

Blues Breakers is compiled by Jim McGrath, of WXXI/Rochester and "Living Blues."

Blues Plate Special

George Thorogood and the Destroyers Let's Work Together

EMI
Dave Johnson, host of the nationally-syndicated "Blues Deluxe" radio program.

My first comment upon receiving the latest collection of energy from G.T. and the Destroyers was "Didn't these guys already have a live album just a few years ago?" Well, make it about ten years ago, not that I couldn't handle every Thorogood album being recorded in concert! Let me remind you that George's first album (self-titled, on Rounder) was eighteen years ago, so the man deserves at least two live albums in my book. There's no repetition of songs on the latest release that were on the last live album. Nice touches include the piano work of Johnny Johnson on a few tunes (including "Johnny B. Goode" - remember that Johnson has worked extensively with Chuck Berry) and struttin' guitar man Elvin Bishop joining George and the band for the title track. It's Thorogood's guitar work, of course, that makes this latest release a stand out in 1995. This band has enough wattage to light up a good-sized town. Watch your ears and enjoy!

HOLLY MCCORMACK

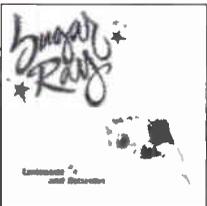

COR CUTS

Dokken, "Too High To Fly" (Columbia)

In the "when hell freezes over" category, a few years ago when the boys of Dokken split up still near the height of their popularity, nobody ever thought that the explosive union would ever reform. Well, it's 1995, pigs are flying, and radio is rockin' with Dokken once again. The first single off of their upcoming Dysfunctional release is the insightful "Too High To Fly", a melodic rocker true to Dokken form, which got a big hug at radio with 14 adds at COR this week and sold out shows in markets such as Detroit and Columbus. One of the early adds was at WBZX, whose Ronni Hunter told us, "We got that right out of the box and it's been big. All the Dokken fans have been waiting for this moment and it's been big on the phones. The real question was if they can still make music, and this album rocks. It has exploded!" Also pleased is KILO's Rob Hunter who simply stated that "the song is working great."

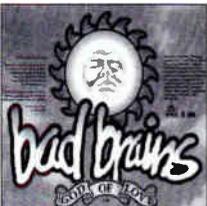

Sugar Ray, "Mean Machine" (Atlantic)

If you are looking for a song that will jump right out of your speakers and turn your airwaves into an instant party then you need some sugar - or should we say Sugar Ray - in your diet. The rambunctious sounds of this Los Angeles based band come blazing out in their debut single "Mean Machine", which sounds like a musical version of a drunk partier running around in their underwear, but is actually an affectionate ode to their faithful car. They have been impressing the hell out some major programmers with early airplay at WDIZ, KEGL, WAAF, and Q104 whose Vinnie Marino told us after upping the spins to 19 this week that "it has a unique sound, with a combination of different things like metal and rap, plus there is some great sampling on the record. They are a great live band as well." Besides being a hyper paced frolic, "Mean Machine" works because of the infectious slashing guitars and the way that song oozes personality. Pretty soon radio will see just how mean this machine really is!

Bad Brains, "God of Love" (Maverick/WB)

This legendary D.C. based band has been influencing new musicians since the early '80s, and have always been ahead of their time, cranking out hard-core laced punk with a reggae edge long before multi-format bleeding became the norm of the day. Back to their original line up with HR on vocals, the Bad Brains have returned on the positive tip with "God of Love", that comes complete with a choppy pace that is chunky at times and smooth at others, and is already seeing airplay at select college radio stations who were serviced with the 7" of the song. Another factor in the game is a tour starting next week that will put Bad Brains on the road with the Beastie Boys, and as a result in front of droves of potential new fans. We may be a long way from the psychedelic '60s, but this could be the Summer of Love all over again with "God of Love".

Hayride, "Brick Stretcher" (Capricorn)

Capricorn records are entering the low end radio game this year with the new release from Hayride. Hailing from Athens, GA - an area more commonly known for R.E.M. - the members of this band (Nick Bielli - bass/vocals; Kevin Sweeney - guitar/vocals; Will Kraft - drums/vocals) put a little more razor sharp guitars and resolute rhythms into their game plan than those alternative wunderkids. The Dave Barbe produced debut features the song "Brick Stretcher", which is now open for your consideration, and comes clean on their classic rock roots, but with a buzzing tone that plants them firmly in the '90s. So, put on your boots and head out to the tractor for this year's Hayride!

METAL Pick

Catherine Wheel, "Waydown" (Mercury)

This multi-format English band may sound familiar to you from their debut release Ferment, or perhaps from the follow up EP Chrome, which produced air-play on songs like "Black Metallic" and "Crank", but if not, you are in for a treat if you are a fan of hard edged rock. With the intense delivery of vocalist/guitarist Rob Dickinson (who is a cousin of legendary Iron Maiden frontman Bruce Dickinson) at the helm of this buzz bin bound band, they have managed to inject a steel plated backbone into their ethereal yet sharply honed sound. Joining Dickinson in the Wheel are guitarist Brian Futter, bassist Dave Hawes, and drummer Neil Sims, who formed in 1990 and attacked the English scene with their indie released EPs. Now with Mercury, the band has long established themselves in the Alternative market, but it will be this offering - Happy Days, due out in early June - that will turn their music onto a harder rocking crowd. The initial sample from this release is the exalting and slightly sinister "Waydown", which despite a quite frightening and intense video, has an breezy feel to it with buzzing guitars and a propelling rhythm with potent time changes that hooks you right into the song. Catherine Wheel will be in your face this year over in the states, beginning with a showcase at Le Bar Bat for the McGathy party and continuing with constant touring all summer. So, don't waste time in checking out the new Catherine Wheel, because you should see "Waydown" going way up the charts.

TOP Picks

Clutch, Clutch (EastWest/EEG)

The four piece known to the metal rants as Clutch have once again reached down deep into the hollows of their sludgy souls to create an album full of grinding musical tangents that rise and fall in waves of frenzy. They are a fine tuned machine that use their instruments to create powerful, disjointed interludes and pulsing discord - all of which combine to make an avalanche of sound. The rough, gritty vocals of Neil Fallon, are perfectly complimented by the torrent of guitar riffs courtesy of Tim Sui, while Dan Maines and Jean Paul Gaster round out the unit on bass and drums respectively. Looking for thick and dirty guitar drones - check out "Escape From The Prison Planet". Want ethereal aural meandering - cue up "Space Grass" or "Droid". And if all you need is your daily fix of dense, face pounding metal - try "Tight Like That", "The House That Peterbilt" or "Big News II". With two early album adds at WHMH and WLRA and 45 stations digging on the Songs Of Much Gravity EP, Clutch can once again be heard grinding their musical gears.

METAL Filings

Catherine Wheel (Mercury) plan on invading the metal radio waves this week with the "Waydown" CD-pro. Add it, it's good stuff. And if you don't believe me, ask those at WDWN or WWSP cuz they jumped on it a week early. Keep in mind the rest of the record, Happy Days, will be in your hands early on in June... You are probably already familiar with P.O.L.'s (Giant) hit single, "Stupid", now you need to get to know the rest of their material found on Parade Of Losers. Add the GGGarth and Da Skunk co-produced disc on May 8th and 9th... Hollywood Records are geared and primed to take over your radio waves with the delivery of the newest stuff from Gwen Mars. This Los Angeles based trio delivers "Cosmic Dick" for adds May 8th and 9th, with the rest of the spacey stuff found on Magnosheen arriving at the end of the month... I must say, I love The Nixons (MCA)! Now that I have that out of my system we can move on to the business at hand - add this band's first single, "Foma" today! Got that? Five Hard Reporters - KFMX, KMSA, WAIF, WMMR, and WPSU - must also be into The Nixons cuz they are already on the track. The single comes from the album of the same name, which will be on the streets May 23rd... Bad Brains have found a new home on Maverick Records, have early radio stats like having 7 stations on board, new adds at WCDB and WMMR, plus major spins on KDUR and WSOU, and are going for official adds this week on "God Of Love". Not bad, eh?! Add the single now, and look forward to hearing the rest of the Ric Ocasek produced album... This week's A.C. (Earache) impact track is "Delicious Face Style". Play it. Then next week give "Theme From A-Team" some spinnage... Grip, Inc. (Metal Blade) have made it a little easier for you to decide which of their tracks to spin by handing over "Ostracized" for adds May 8th and 9th... Scorn (Earache) fans will be quite happy to know that they will have their hands on the Ellipsis Remixes for adds May 8th and 9th... The new Pentagram (Fierce) album, Be Forewarned, have been given May 8th and 9th add dates, and will be on the retail shelves Tuesday, May 9th... After the release of the Dokken (Columbia) Dysfunctional sampler, the band held down the number two most added position this week. Up next from the original Dokken line-up - May 15th and 16th adds on the full length Dysfunctional album... Green Apple Quick Step (Giant/Reprise) return to the metal front for May 15th and 16th adds on the Reloaded sampler, featuring the likes of "Los Vargas", "Ed #5", and "Underwater" — apparently WKLL and WXZR are really into this band, they are on the record a full two weeks early. The three musical morsels are taken from the upcoming album, Reloaded... My Dying Bride (Fierce) offer the metal masses the Trinity release, featuring material previously found on the band's EPs, Thrash Of The Naked Limbs, Symphonaire Infernus and I Am The Bloody Earth. This release comes before their upcoming U.S. tour, which precedes the release of the new studio album, The Angel And The Dark River. Got all that?... May 22nd and 23rd are the official add dates for Ugly Kid Joe's (Mercury) first single, "Tomorrow's World", from their upcoming disc, Menace To Sobriety. The full length album is slated for arrival June 13th... Season To Risk (Columbia) drop their album, In A Perfect World, on your desk for adds May 23rd and 24th... Sinister (Relapse/Nuclear Blast), having wrapped up a European tour with Deicide (Roadrunner), are gearing up for the release of their third album, Hate... We've been told that Kerbdog (Mercury) are planning on entering the studio on June 15th to record their next full length album. GGGarth (as in Richardson) has been selected to turn the knobs on the release... The premier punk rockers of our time, Circle Jerks have joined the Mercury Records camp and will be releasing their first single, "I Wanna Destroy You", for adds June 20th. Look for it June 27th... A mini-CD from Human Remains (Relapse) is slated to arrive later in the summer. Work on the album has currently been delayed because drummer Dave Witte is suffering from a broken foot. 🐻🐻🐻🐻 Check out the tour guide for the specifics on the upcoming Deicide (Roadrunner) and Broken Hope (Metal Blade) tour. Thirteen shows have been scheduled on the trek that is set to kick off May 12th in Charlotte, North Carolina... Season

Check out the Hard Tour Guide for the specifics on the upcoming Bad Brains (Maverick) and Beastie Boys (Capitol) touring jaunt. HARD Hitters

Bad Brains, "God of Love" (Maverick/WB)

Over the past decade an entire generation of artists have been influenced by the groundbreaking sounds of Bad Brains. Forming in the early '80s in the thriving punk/hardcore scene of Washington D.C., which also spawned Black Flag and Fugazi, Bad Brains not only harnessed that rebellious energy, but injected it with a shot of warm reggae vibes. The upcoming release - God of Love - is their sixth full length release and features original vocalist HR back in the line up, replacing the young Israel Joseph-I who fronted the band on their Rise offering a couple of years ago which found some fans on the Hard Hitters circuit. The first single and title track, "God of Love", has already been receiving some airplay from an earlier servicing of the 7" and is pulling in spins at KDUR, KTOZ, KZAK, WCDB, WJUL, WMMR, and WSOU. With the current format blending trend at radio, Bad Brains are as relevant - if not more so - as ever, and the chunky rhythm should appeal to our harder rock-ing elements.

The Nixons, "Foma" (MCA)

If you are a fan of the energy inherent in a electrifying live performance, then we think that you will enjoy this band. According to their bio, The Nixons (Zac Maloy - vocals/guitar; Jesse Davis - guitar; Ricky Brooks - bass; John Humphrey - drums) have played 324 shows over 18 months, travelling far away from their Oklahoma base, in fact, with that record it seems miraculous that they were able to slow down long enough to record an album. Their stripped down and dirty version of rock n' roll is aggressive and melodic, with driving execution and soulful, gritty vocals that spring up from the heart of the band. The initial sample that we have is the title track from their upcoming release Foma, and the song is catchy enough to stick in your head yet pummeling enough to stand up on any hard rocking radio show, but the most alluring quality of the song is it's down to earth vitality. With the amount of shows that The Nixons have played, it is apparent that they are a tight cohesive unit, and if you are heading out for the McGathy party, be sure to catch them with Fight at CBGB's. If you can't make it, just pop "Foma" onto your airwaves, close your eyes and pretend your there.

Gwen Mars, "Cosmic Dick" (Hollywood)

While science is still working on making a trip to Mars possible, we can substitute the effort by taking a trip with Mars, well Gwen Mars anyway. Their cosmic, layered sound, with a hint of Smashing Pumpkins meets Lost in Space, is inked into their Hollywood Records debut. The brainchild of the band is Birmingham (Alabama, not England) born Mike Thrasher (guitar/vocals) who journeyed from his country music family heritage and hooked up with John Boutin (drums) and Matt

Westfield (bass) in Los Angeles, and within six months of forming, the band had already released a demo and had signed a major label deal. The first single, "Cosmic Dick", was first written long before the band formed, but with a modern edgy sound, you would never know it. With a psychedelic tone, sharpened churning guitars, and a driving beat, the song is like a roller coaster ride through pink clouds, with an attention getting "you don't know dick" chorus to boot. The full release, Magnosheen, will be landing at radio at the end of May, but until then you can beam up Gwen Mars on your airwaves with "Cosmic Dick".

If you happen to be searching for the perfect record, one that has just the right amount of personality and attitude, and doesn't necessarily conform to what is expected of musicians today, then the P.O.L. album, Parade Of Losers, is the one for you. This fourpiece, that has been floating around the Los Angeles musical circuit for the past two years, bring an ingredient to the musical mix that sets them apart from other bands using the punk influence as the foundation for their music - they are brutally honest, but in a humorous kind of way. Sure, they are whimsical at times and forthright at others, but what makes this fast paced, hook-laden album so appealing is their ability to tackle some pretty serious issues without losing their comical edge.

The frolicking, guitar-powered "Stupid" has already found it's way onto the radio, and the lighthearted musical sense and quick wit of tracks like "Sux 2 BU", "I Hate Myself" and "Hemphead" make them perfect for the shows looking to entertain their audience. A handful of Hard Reporters are already on Parade Of Losers in some form or another, with spins reported at the likes of WDNW, WMMR, WNHU and WSMU. With early recognition like that, you could be a winner by joining this Parade Of Losers.

Engine Kid, Angel Wings (Revelation)

In trying to come up with a clear and concise way to describe the Engine Kid release, Angel Wings, all standard descriptions didn't seem to fit. You see, the Kids have found a way of taking clamor and confusion, mixing it with the dynamics of dark, riff heavy music and placid melodies to come up with something that is nothing short of an assault on your auditory system. The eleven tracks on the album each contain the quality that makes this band's sound: the ability to give way from a dense song structure into an almost surreal melody, before crashing down once again in a tidal wave of sound. Musically, the songs are molded together with grimacing, almost cathartic vocals, wrapped around unstructured, heavily textured guitars and held together by a solid foundation of bass and drums. Listen to "Windshield", "Nailgun" or "Fanbelt" for some insight, or just follow by example as 36 adds came in last week (with spins on KDUR, KEYJ, WKTA, WPCR, WSGR, WSUP, WVBR, WWWU, and WXCI) and add the record now.

Grip Inc. "Ostracized" (Metal Blade)

Now, we figured that there would be some interest in a group that featured former Slayer drummer Dave Lombardo, but thanks to a collection of songs with more ferocity and power than maybe even the latest Slayer, the Hard Hitters stations embraced Power of Inner Strength. Not only that, you played the shit out of the release as well, pushing the band into the #1 slot until getting knocked off by White Zombie. The phenomenal drums of Lombardo, the intricate fretwork (and production for that matter) of Waldemar Sorychta, the snarling vocals of Gus Chambers and the solid foundation of Jason Viebrooks bass work all blend to produce a lethal combination, and with the latest track, "Ostracized", they are all up front and in your face with a marching pace that stomps right into your head. Also included is the previously unreleased "Dragging Me Down", a short but sweet bombardment on your senses that highlights Chambers London punk roots. Grip Inc. are currently touring overseas, but by June they will be back in the States for an anxiously awaited national tour. So, don't waste any time, if you can't find the room for the latest from Lombardo and Co., you will surely find yourself "Ostracized" by your listeners!

METAL Filings

Catherine Wheel (Mercury) plan on invading the metal radio waves this week with the "Waydown" CD-pro. Add it, it's good stuff. And if you don't believe me, ask those at WDNW or WWSP cuz they jumped on it a week early. Keep in mind the rest of the record, Happy Days, will be in your hands early on in June... You are probably already familiar with P.O.L.'s (Giant) hit single, "Stupid", now you need to get to know the rest of their material found on Parade Of Losers. Add the GGGarth and Da Skunk co-produced disc on May 8th and 9th... Hollywood Records are geared and primed to take over your radio waves with the delivery of the newest stuff from Gwen Mars. This Los Angeles based trio delivers "Cosmic Dick" for adds May 8th and 9th, with the rest of the spacey stuff found on Magnosheen arriving at the end of the month... I must say, I love The Nixons (MCA)! Now that I have that out of my system we can move on to the business at hand - add this band's first single, "Foma" today! Got that? Five Hard Reporters - KFMX, KMSA, WAIF, WMMR, and WPSU - must also be into The Nixons cuz they are already on the track. The single comes from the album of the same name, which will be on the streets May 23rd... Bad Brains have found a new home on Maverick Records, have early radio stats like having 7 stations on board, new adds at WCDB and WMMR, plus major spins on KDUR and WSOU, and are going for official adds this week on "God Of Love". Not bad, eh?! Add the single now, and look forward to hearing the rest of the Ric Ocasek produced album... This week's A.C. (Earache) impact track is "Delicious Face Style". Play it. Then next week give "Theme From A-Team" some spinnage... Grip, Inc. (Metal Blade) have made it a little easier for you to decide which of their tracks to spin by handing over "Ostracized" for adds May 8th and 9th... Scorn (Earache) fans will be quite happy to know that they will have their hands on the Ellipsis Remixes for adds May 8th and 9th... The new Pentagram (Fierce) album, Be Forewarned, have been given May 8th and 9th add dates, and will be on the retail shelves Tuesday, May 9th... After the release of the Dokken (Columbia) Dysfunctional sampler, the band held down the number two most added position this week. Up next from the original Dokken line-up - May 15th and 16th adds on the full length Dysfunctional album... Green Apple Quick Step (Giant/Reprise) return to the metal front for May 15th and 16th adds on the Reloaded sampler, featuring the likes of "Los Vargas", "Ed #5", and "Underwater" — apparently WKLL and WXZR are really into this band, they are on the record a full two weeks early. The three musical morsels are taken from the upcoming album, Reloaded... My Dying Bride (Fierce) offer the metal masses the Trinity release, featuring material previously found on the band's EPs, Thrash Of The Naked Limbs, Symphonaire Infernus and I Am The Bloody Earth. This release comes before their upcoming U.S. tour, which precedes the release of the new studio album, The Angel And The Dark River. Got all that?... May 22nd and 23rd are the official add dates for Ugly Kid Joe's (Mercury) first single, "Tomorrow's World", from their upcoming disc, Menace To Sobriety. The full length album is slated for arrival June 13th... Season To Risk (Columbia) drop their album, In A Perfect World, on your desk for adds May 23rd and 24th... Sinister (Relapse/Nuclear Blast), having wrapped up a European tour with Deicide (Roadrunner), are gearing up for the release of their third album, Hate... We've been told that Kerbdog (Mercury) are planning on entering the studio on June 15th to record their next full length album. GGGarth (as in Richardson) has been selected to turn the knobs on the release... The premier punk rockers of our time, Circle Jerks have joined the Mercury Records camp and will be releasing their first single, "I Wanna Destroy You", for adds June 20th. The tune is taken from the Oddities, Abnormalities And Curiosities LP... For the first time ever, the self-titled Godflesh (Earache) album will be available in the U.S. of A. Look for it June 27th... A mini-CD from Human Remains (Relapse) is slated to arrive later in the summer. Work on the album has currently been delayed because drummer Dave Witte is suffering from a broken foot. 🐻🐻🐻🐻 Check out the tour guide for the specifics on the upcoming Deicide (Roadrunner) and Broken Hope (Metal Blade) tour. Thirteen shows have been scheduled on the trek that is set to kick off May 12th in Charlotte, North Carolina... Season

To Risk (Columbia) have been tapped to warm up the audiences on the upcoming All (Interscope/AG) tour. The duo will be performing from May 12th (in Lawrence, Kansas until May 19th (in Detroit, Michigan)... The platinum act known as White Zombie (Geffen), whose current release, Astro Creep 2000: Songs Of Love, Destruction, And Other Synthetic Delusions Of The Electric Head, will embark on a national tour in May. Look for dates to follow soon... Stuck Mojo (Century Media) have added to their tour itinerary, with shows running through the 27th of May when they stop in Wilmington North Carolina. After which, the band will travel to Europe with Dog Eat Dog (Roadrunner) and Downset (Mercury) for shows beginning May 28th and running through June 23rd... After Slash's Snakepit (Geffen) wrap up their current state side trek May 13th, the band will jaunt across the Atlantic to tour Europe, before travelling to Japan for a slew of dates... Check out the Hard Tour Guide for the specifics on the upcoming Bad Brains (Maverick) and Beastie Boys (Capitol) touring jaunt. The double billing kicks off May 15th in Montreal, Quebec and runs through a June 4th outing in San Diego, California... The X-Cops (Metal Blade) are taking to the rock road, in support of You Have The Right To Remain Silent, with shows booked from June 13th until June 22nd... Word is Corrosion Of Conformity (Columbia) Monster Magnet (A&M) and Season To Risk (Columbia) will be travelling the states together on a full blown summer tour. The shows will kick off June 13th. More dates will follow - as soon as we get 'em, you'll get 'em... Skid Row (Atlantic) have given the nod to Souls At Zero (Energy) to open the shows on their upcoming tour. The duo set out on May 5th with a show in Tampa, Florida and will continue to wander state side through June 9th with a stop in Hollywood, California... The Organization (Metal Blade) will hit the road in June in support of the recently released Savor The Flavor album. Shows have been booked from June 10th until July 15th. 🐻🐻🐻🐻 Go Bulls! 🐻🐻🐻🐻 Dates for this summer's first official worldwide KISS convention have been released! Yea! For those of you wanting the chance to look at the KISS past, present and future will want to stop by one of the 23 scheduled U.S. stops. Offered will be a question and answer session with the band members, a KISSACOUSTIC performance the KISS hall of fame museum, and more. The event will kick off June 17th in Los Angeles California with stops slated for San Francisco, Seattle, Phoenix, New Orleans, Chicago Cleveland, New York, etc. If you want more info call Howard Paar at (310) 996-8235 or Ginger Greager at (212) 333-8256... To fulfill your need for visual stimulus Catherine Wheel (Mercury) have submitted their video for "Waydown" to Music Television. The Mark Pellington (known for his work on Pearl Jam's "Jeremy" video) directed clip has already been aired during 120 Minutes. Tune in to the video channel to get a glimpse of the mini-movie... Steve Vai (Relativity) followers might be interested in the fact that the guitar virtuoso was invited to take part in a Frank Zappa tribute performance with members of Zappa's band, the acapella group the Persuasions the Seattle Symphony, among others... In other Vai news, look for Fire Coma, the follow-up to the mini-LP Alien Love Secrets, to be on the streets late in '95... METAL Photos

Up close and personal, and in support of Menace To Sobriety, Ugly Kid Joe frontman Whitfield Crane gets sandwiched between Mercury's metal main man Brian McEvoy and KISW metal chic Belinda Simmons.

For the past few months we have been singing the praises of the New Idol Son album, Reach. Obviously, we like the band. Now, to further infiltrate your brain, we are bringing you a shot of the bend's frontman Matt Hilzendrager taken with Polygram types Janice Lum and Jeff Harris after the band played with L.A. Guns.

While on the promo campaign for Persona Non Grata, Urban Dance Squad's Rudeboy is seen hanging in the WSOU studios with the adorable Mike DePippa.

Yes, folks, here is another shot of The Tink-meister. In case you didn't know, we have been on a campaign to run at least one Kodak moment featuring the Tink's mug in nearly every issue of the Hard Report. He has been captured next to the likes of Mercyful Fate, Type O Negative, the Mighty Mighty Bosstones and now, with Solitude Aeternus. Boy, that guy gets around. Hey, Tink - using the sleigh and the reindeer, again, huh?!

In continuing our coverage of Mike DePippa, here the WSOUer, along with Testament's Chuck Billy, show us some of the finest in heavy metal poses. Apparently the rest of the guys in Testament and Atlantic's Jon Nardachone opted for a more calm demeanor.

On location in Sandy Hook, New Jersey, Bad Seed and director Val Haller lensed a video for the single, "Empty", among the mortar batteries at Fort Hancock. The track is the first taken from the band's self-titled debut record. Photo credit: Michael Mazur.

The Surfing Brides, "Everything's Fine," IRS

It's the record with the little people on it. On the cover, that is. The big people are on it early, with BDS detections all over the map. WDST, WEQX and the Radio One Network come in with adds this week. This might be ready to break into open field. The absolutely monster, patently pop hook is one thing. There's plenty of energy and feel within the opening verses to set up the chorus. It's a candy pop chorus. Honey-sweet. No question about it. Does that scare you? It would be a different story if the verses weren't so edgy. The talk-y vocal should settle you down. Listen to the song. It's gonna segue hand-in-glove with '80's gold, and it's texturally compatible with recurrences. O.K., so it's not garage attitude. Park your car in the garage. Get on with the process of building cume. We're making everyone's bed in the hit department as it stands. Here comes another one you'll eventually hand off to everyone else. C'est la vie. It's a bitch being right so often.

Moonpools and Caterpillars, "Hear," EastWest

Hear (v) - 1. To perceive by the ear. 2. To listen to attentively. 3. To pick a hit without checking some chart. O.K., so we made #3 up. We're on the phone to Webster's right now explaining ourselves. They're saying something about a C&D. We told them we get those all the time, and please send it Priority Mail so we get it in before the add date. Anyway, this track is a hit. If you're finding room for a female vocal, that is. Chances are you're in the running for one that doesn't sound waitfish, politically-motivated or languidly paced. How about one that rocks, moves forward, sounds live rather than labored-over and polished, and hooks you like a sailfish before the one-minute mark? "Hear" is still casual and wistful. "Hear" is also short and snappy, with a tempo break that can serve as an attention-grabber. And it has that fashionable chuck-chuck pop guitar that sounds suburban and relatively non-schooled. In the midst of the "angst" overload, you don't exactly have to play Up With People to balance the vibe.

Basketball Diaries Soundtrack, The Jim Carrol Band "People Who Died," Island

It's certainly been one of the most talked about records of the last 15 years around radio. And in recent years, with the advent of new-found fancy with music that used to be underground and rare, the talk has been in the form of "Where is that ferschlugginah album?" The Basketball Diaries revolving around Carroll's life has spawned the soundtrack containing this track that made the phones jump off the hook back when you could smoke during your show. And it's no less relevant today. Just listening to this around the dozens of other music we've sampled this past week confirms the suspicion: Things haven't changed too much. And if they haven't heard it before, they're still gonna react.

Sons of Elvis, "Soaking In It," Priority

Sons of Elvis

Coming off of a pretty solid success story in "Formaldehyde" with a track called "Soaking In It" is almost comic, don't you think? This tune's no joke, though. Follow up with this one. There's a rockfest of guitars and rhythm up through the chorus, then the tempo breaks down to acoustic guitars and vocals. Then it's right back into the storm. The pattern is followed through the tune. There's no chance for boredom. The ride-out is the melodic vocal hook over the lower-tempoed acoustic break. With the versatility of "Soaking In It," you will find an all-purpose rocker that should stand out as well as segue in.

Catherine Wheel, "Way Down," Mercury

One of the more talked about records of the past week finally hits your desks in the form of the first single, a very compelling, seasoned, and up-tempo attitude jam. The Brits have come back to The States, and you wouldn't be able to tell by listening to this track. Catherine Wheel have a sound that defies a lot of preconceived notions about how British rock is likely to sound in 1995. For that matter, there's no real point in categorization here. Just enjoy this track from the band's third record for what it is — a stormin' guitar-based rocker with distinctive Rob Dickinson lead vocals that will strike you as perfectly-timed. He sounds like he totally fried his voice by the end of this take. Must still be O.K. — he just did a Billboard interview.

NOFX, "Leave it Alone," Epitaph

Short and to the point. That pretty much nails this one down. An up-tempo track that plays off as the audio equivalent of Jolt cola. Sure there are sound comparisons to Green Day. NOFX has been banging around for 10 years. They aren't copycats. Punk rock posturing is fairly rampant in the mainstream, and while NOFX isn't the first name you think of around the pop-punk resurgence, they do deserve their credit in the overall scheme of things. They're huge in Europe.

This song is radio ready, and considering the track record of bands with similar appeals, they are a strong consideration to fill this textural need. KRQT, WENZ and WWDX come in this week, and CIMX (34-36), KITS (12-17), KRZQ (3-13) and WKQX (9-19) are among the movers. NOFX debuts at 50*.

Bettie Serveert, "Something So Wild," Matador/Atlantic

In a vocal combination that rings of Chrissie Hynde and Joni Mitchell, vocalist Carol van Dijk keeps this track from dripping out of your CD player into a puddle on the floor. There's a soothing passion in her delivery (it was that way when she was working for Dominos, too), and while this track makes "Ray Ray Rain" sound heavy, it still follows a course prescribed by the record Lamprey — diversity of tempo is happening throughout. This track has plenty of energy, it's just not guitar/drums/bass energy. Great for upper demos, and should prove to be a strong track for some time to come. The storyline is pertinent.

LOW DOUGH PROMO

This week's feature promotions come from St. Louis, and Albany. On music-driven formats such as ours, there are obviously major benefits to tying in with the music you're presenting on the air. Here are a couple of examples of stations improving image by identifying more closely with the music at hand. In KPNT's case, they're making it happen by airing music you can't hear anywhere else. Yet.

KPNT's Pointessential Vol. 2 CD is the second for the year, and given the success of the first volume in December of '94 (it sold out in 1 week), staffers and management figured another shot at this project would make sense and cents (proceeds of the sale of the CD go to a charity called United Cerebral Palsy). The CD will come out in June, and will feature bands from the St. Louis area.

KPNT's Scott Strong said that the narrowing-down process started with Jim McGuinn and Alex Luke weeding through over 250 entries to find 45 that would potentially suit the sound of the station. All of the bands get exposure on-air, and a couple manage serious rotation, so compatibility with the station's sound is imperative. Then, a committee of music people from St. Louis got together with staffers to narrow the field to the album's running order.

KPNT puts up the initial production costs, although Strong says they have a deal worked out with some of the costs to pay them upon receipt of the album sales. Total production costs run nearly $20,000 for a run of 5,000 units, recording time, etc., and the station is ultimately responsible for the money. But with the sell-out of 2,500 last time out, all are hopeful for another positive result.

Total cost (projecting the forecasted sales rate): $0.00.
Profits go to charity.

WEQX has been involved with the City of Albany for the past three years for an event over the Mother's Day weekend called Tulip Fest. Prior to WEQX's involvement, the dominant day of entertainment was Saturday. At this point, WEQX's Sunday slot rivals Saturday in terms of attendance, and Sunday is no longer just another day for Tulip Fest. This year, WEQX scored Belly, and The Caulfields to play this free festival. The day of the show is May 13th.

PD Gary Schoenwetter explains how the deal gets done for the station to produce the bands. "We're working with the city of Albany, so the fact that it's tied into a major municipality, and that the city is spending a lot of money on the production, advertising and other aspects of the show certainly helps," said Schoenwetter. "It's a free outdoor show, and it's a festival weekend. We sent some letters to management, and to labels asking for bands to perform. 80,000 people go through the parks on that weekend. We're realistic - we're not aiming for Pearl Jam or The Red Hot Chili Peppers. We're realistic with the bands and the labels - we say you're not gonna make the $10,000 you might by playing the theatre in town, but you're gonna play to 15-30 thousand people." As soon as a date gets locked in, we start talking about the event around the tracks of the bands who will be performing. We begin about a month out. We do major amounts of recorded promotional mentions. We'll do live drops from the event, and run a DAT to be re-broadcast upon approval of the recording."

It's the event's 47th year. This is the city's biggest event. The connection images the station tremendously well. And the costs are covered by the City, including hotels and catering for the bands.

Total cost to the station: $0.00.

Alternative

more choices

Everclear, "Heroin Girl," Capitol

There she is, crouched in the corner of the cover art for the single. The singer takes a trip down memory alley, reminiscing about days and nights with the girl who enabled him to stay high. "She would do anything to give me what I need for my disease...I'm happy in hell with my heroin girl." Not exactly PC. It works on two levels, thematically - Listen to the character tell details about the relationship, and it's an anti-drug ad. Unless your addicted cume is higher than you know, and they're listening to it for good ideas about how to spend summer vacation. Either way, make up your own mind. They're on tour with Sponge.

Ednaswap, "Glow," Elektra

There's a great song here that shouldn't be missed. The band rocks like Pearl Jam, with that relative irreverence to the standard song structure, and keeps many sounds going at once with "Glow." Vocalist/lyricist Annie Preven makes mincemeat out of the notion that female vocals on songs for the format must sound waifish. She rocks. The track is definitely worth a trip to the meeting. With the over-saturation of great stuff to choose from week to week, sometimes things get pushed aside. Don't let "Glow" pass you by without an engaging listen. You will miss something that can dance amongst the recurrences, distinctively enough to be remembered.

Ivy, "Get Enough," TAG/Seed

In terms of comparison to other tracks we're highlighting this week, this one stands alone, texturally. It's a relatively up-tempo pop track with a prominent acoustic guitar, and duet female vocals downplayed below Indigo Girls dramatics. There's some wistful passion within the vocal, but it doesn't particularly remind you of anything else. And a tasteful electric guitar overlay keeps the track from becoming boring. If you lean upper-demo, here's a real find. It's already on at Live 105 (20), DMX (16) and REV 105 (16), and was picked up this week by WHTG, WPFM and WWDX.

King Friday, "The One," DMZ

This is one of those records that nailed us on listen one. They've been playing the Austin scene for a bit, and have scored points with many around town. They did a stint with The Arc Angels, who were knocked out by what they saw. But this ain't bumpkin rock. This track comes from a very colorful record that merits consideration. Here's the best part - it's a badass tune that only lasts 2:35. It's as good as anything out there right now. Politics will only get you part of the way. Your ears have to take over with what little room you've got on your lists. This track starts cold with a vocal on top of a mid tempo dance groove, mixes in three or four different guitar sounds, throws down background vocals and dynamic shifts without missing a beat.

KMFDM, "Juke Joint Jezebel," TWT/Waxtrax

This record has been a slow grower, to be sure. "Patience is a virtue," your mom always said, and here it is certainly an appropriate reminder. But growing is what it's doing, and there's no doubt that KMFDM are deserving of the attention. If you rolled past this one some weeks back, re-listen this week. It's a great song. It's exciting, provocative, sexy, rockin', danceable and energetic. Techno magic. Depeche Mode meets Godzilla in The Bowery at midnight. And loses. KEDG, KITS, KMYZ and WMAD pick up this week, and WKQX makes a monster move 12-22. KXXR (22), WDXY (14), KEDJ (12) and KUKQ (27) are on it in a big way.

P.O.L., "Stupid," Giant

Sean Demery at 99X says "I like it because it's real short." KACV's Jamey Karr says "It's working really well, and the jocks are having fun with it." WXWX's Rick Schmidt says "So far so good. It's getting really good reaction. And it's stupid." We couldn't agree more. So stupid is as stupid does, as "Stupid" slams 50-38* this week, with adds at WDRE, WAQX and SWEM combining with increases at KITS (12-19), REV 105 (18-25), WRZX (25-28), KACV (8-11) and others joining in with KUKQ (27), WKQX (14), and WMRQ (23). For the summertime attitude, it's probably a smart move.

making the climb

Sleeper, "Delicious," Arista

Increases at KRRK (16-20), WDRE (25-27), and KPDI (15-19) join others who up the ante as this tasty track makes the climb 47-45*. Already on are 99X, WBCN, WBRU, WENZ, WKQX, WFNX, WHTG, WDXY and WEQX.

Cranberries, "Ridiculous Thoughts," Island

A big week at radio keeps The Cranberries on the ups 24-22*, with The #1 Most Added spot and 14 adds including CIMX, KDGE, KDME, WAQZ, WBCN, WDRE and WNVE. KRRK (22-30), WDST (16-21) and WVBR (5-10) make increases. WHFS (25), WEQX (23) and WDXY (24) are on it, too.

The Muffs, "Sad Tomorrow," Reprise

This sprightly track debuts this week at 48* courtesy of increases at the early supporters like WBCN (6-15), WAQZ (10-15) and WDST (16-21). Also on are REV 105 (19), WRLG (10), WENZ (12), WBRU (10) and 91X (7).

Jill Sobule, "I Kissed a Girl," Lava/Atlantic

A big week for this quasi-novelty, as Jill picks up 7 more kisses from the format, including KDJK, KTDZ, WMAD, WMMS and WRDX. Top 5 phones continue at WBRU and KDGE, and double digit spins from WDRE (28), WDST (16), WENZ (19), WRLG (19) and others finally jack Jill onto the chart at 46* this week.

Cake, "Rock and Roll Lifestyle," Capricorn

WENZ and KBBT come aboard on this ode to poseurs all across the fruited plain, with moves at WKQX (26-38), WRLG (13-15) and others helping it along 33-30* this week. A novelty pick if you can use the texture.

Filter, "Hey Man, Nice Shot," Reprise

WAQZ's Matt Harris says "It's only in nights right now, and it's showing strong reaction. It's a big phone record and it sounds good on the air." WHTG's Rob Acampora calls it "Top 5 phones first week out. It's out of the gate smokin'." KKNB picks up this week, and a bevy of uploaders push Filter 28-25*.

Collective Soul, "December," Atlantic

So much for wondering whether or not this was alternative. Who cares? It sounds great on the air, as programmers are so fond of saying. A solid track from an established band picks up WDRE and KRQT this week, and pushes the album 21-18* on increases from 16, including WAQZ (16-28), WKQX (22-25), KDME (10-23), KPNT (26-34) and others.

Radiohead, "Fake Plastic Trees," Capitol

Radiohead picks up 7 adds this week - KPNT, KRQT, WMAD, WNVE, WPFM, WRDX and WRXQ 17 increase spins including WEQX (17-21), WKQX (23-30), KDJK (27-31) and WBRU (14-19). "Fake Plastic Trees" grows 30-24*.

 ty exclusively, but one of their new projects is Preacher Boy and the Natural Blues falls well within the bounds for alternative.
 Especially when you consider guys like Tom Waits plenty relevant. Preacher Boy guts it out with blues angst and alterna-

 the format panel soon, as they are developing a big buzz with college at this point. A strong act... This new record by

The members of Lynyrd Skynyrd are all off drugs and alcohol, according to keyboards player Billy Powell. "I've been spending time in rehab because I decided to get clean all the way," Powell says. "You realize you aren't that young anymore, and if you want to keep doing this for a living, playing five cities in five days, you'd better get straight because it is a strenuous life and we're not spring chickens anymore. We figured if the Stones can do it in their 50s, we'd better get in shape." Powell says the difference was already noticeable when the band was rehearsing in Nashville recently. "Everything was positive in attitudes and the way we played," he says. "Somebody may have had a beer here and there, but everyone had slacked off heavy partying, and the music was as good as it has ever been."

David Bowie, Phil Collins, Lou Reed, Iggy Pop, Peter Gabriel, Pete Townshend, Brian Eno, Michael Stipe, Dave Stewart and the Cranberries have agreed to design clothes for a charity fashion show scheduled to take place at a London gallery on June 21. The event is expected to raise over $160,000 for children in Bosnia, Yugoslavia. Designer clothes by the artists and painting created during the evening will be auctioned off for the War Child charity and a special music therapy center in Mostar, Bosnia. The event will feature music by Eno, who is asking artists to give him permission to use music samples of their work for a special piece to be played at the event.

"Pulse," Pink Floyd's double live album coming out next month, will be easy to find in the dark. The CD will be packaged in a cardboard sleeve with a flashing light on its spine. The tiny battery powering the light should allow it to flash for at least six months, the band says. The album features highlights of Pink Floyd's 1994 European tour, including a live version of the classic 1973 album "Dark Side Of The Moon."

Peter Buck says REM never considered using a replacement drummer after Bill Berry collapsed on stage from a brain hemorrhage in Lausanne, Switzerland. Buck says the band members "were all willing to be in limbo." REM doesn't plan any changes in its shows when the tour resumes in Mountain View, California, on May 15. "Once you have the operation and it's taken care of and healed, it's over," Buck says. "He's less likely to have an aneurysm than I am now... I think we're all looking at this as a positive thing. It's not a tragedy. It was a serious operation and a serious occurrence which is now over. And I think we can only kind of learn things from it. Just walking by the graveyard is always kind of an invigorating thing. Bill, certain, came as close as you want to come to, you know, death."

A half-hour tape recording of Mick Jagger and Keith Richards jamming together in 1961 will be auctioned off in London later this month. The tape includes 13 songs, many of them Elvis Presley or Little Richard covers, performed by Jagger and Richards, probably with Pretty Things founder Dick Taylor. The line-up calls itself Little Boy Blue & The Blue Boys. "The rock-solid rhythm of Richards' guitar and the confident play of Jagger's voice were, and still are, the core of the Rolling Stones' sound, and it's breathtaking to hear them in the context of a teenage jam session," says Peter Doggett, rock & roll consultant to the Christie's auction house. The tape is being sold by a school friend of Jagger who borrowed his parents' tape recorder to record the music. The same auction will feature the suede jacket John Lennon wore on the Beatles' 1965 "Rubber Soul" album, a passport for T. Rex leader Marc Bolan, a letter from Bob Dylan to a Chicago woman, and several Jimi Hendrix items.

David Bowie will have an album out this fall called "Outside" (on Virgin Records), co-produced and co-written with Brian Eno. Bowie's new record contract reportedly guarantees him over $1 million per album.

Bob Seger was given a special Lifetime Achievement Award at the Fourth Annual Motor City Music Awards in Detroit. The "Greatest Hits" album by Bob Seger & The Silver Bullet Band has remained in the top 25 for five months since its release. Seger and his wife, Nita, recently had their second child. Samantha Char Seger was born on April 16.

Roseanne says an episode during the final season of her television program next year will feature her having a baby at a Grateful Dead concert. "In the story, I tell Dan (played by John Goodman) I'm not getting old and to prove it I want to go to the concert," she says. Roseanne says she'd like to have Jerry Garcia appear in the episode.

A federal district court judge in San Francisco has awarded John Fogerty $1.35 million in legal fees. Judge Samuel Conti ruled that the former member of Creedence Clearwater Revival was entitled to reimbursement for money he spent on lawyer defending himself against a copyright infringement lawsuit filed by his former record company (Fantasy Records). The judge concluded that Fogerty's defense required "extensive time and labor" and "involved novel and difficult questions." The record label had sued Fogerty claiming that "The Old Man Down The Road," from Fogerty's 1984 LP "Centerfield," was copied from Creedence Clearwater Revival's "Run Through The Jungle." A federal court jury decided in 1988 that Fogerty didn't violate copyright law.

Paul McCartney's 17-year-old son, James, suffered a slight ankle fracture after he flipped over his Land Rover near his father's farm about 50 miles southeast of London. "James suffered a slight fracture to his ankle when his Land Rover rolled over after it hit some tractor ruts while he was taking a shortcut home," McCartney says. "He was very lucky but he is fine and in good shape." McCartney asked the British news media to leave his son alone. "There are many other kids in this country who have suffered much worse injuries in accidents," McCartney says.

After playing a concert at the Royal Albert Hall in London, Johnny Cash canceled the rest of his European tour because of complications from recent facial surgery. Cash underwent an operation on a facial nerve last month, and found the pain to be too distracting during his London show. He decided to return to the United States to seek treatment. Cash was scheduled to travel to Ireland, then Germany, the Netherlands, Switzerland and Australia. He'll probably make up the dates in September.

The Kingston, Jamaica, newspaper the Daily Observer, reports that Bunny Wailer formerly of Bob Marley & The Wailers, has signed a 10-year, $10 million contract (with Columbia Records).

Ian Moore releases a new album (on Capricorn Records) in late June called "Modernday Folklore." The 13-song LP was produced by Moore and Mark Howard. Moore rented a dilapidated warehouse in the Mission district of San Francisco to record the LP. "The studio was just this huge open room with the console and drums and everything in the same room," Moore says. "I thought, 'Screw separation, we're going for a vibe.' It's not a record about technical perfection. I wanted a fear-reaching album that was loose and free and creative and original." The LP features Sass Jordan and Darrell Johnson of the Neville Brothers. Moore plans to tour the U.S. this summer in support of "Modernday Folklore."

John Waite is releasing a solo album (on Imago Records) called "Temple Bar," named after a bar in the Bowery section of New York City. "It's like something out of the '40s," Waite says. "A very romantic, dark place where you can just brood. I'd take long walks around Manhattan while I was making this record and end up there for a drink." The LP includes versions of Bill Withers' "Ain't No Sunshine," and Van Morrison's "Someone Like You." Waite left Bad English about three years ago.

Boy George told a group of students at Oxford University in England that he was bullied by teachers and students when he went to school. "I remember being insulted by teachers in terms of being effeminate and 'girly'. I now realize it was my own problem but a lot of the teachers were only marginally more stable than me," George said in a speech to about a thousand students at the Oxford Union. "I suppose I went into school with the wrong attitude and did not want to be there. I remember being bullied in the playground and in the classroom and I remember being called 'girly'. I hated football and rugby and my life was not fun at the time."

Stephen Stills and Graham Nash are playing a benefit concert in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, with Michael Hedges and local band Seventh Wave. The show is intended to help children whose parents were killed in the bombing of a federal government office building. "Graham has written a new song. It's called 'Half Their Angels.' I can't wait to hear it," Stills says. "The thing I happen to do best is sing. So for whatever insignificant help it would be, perhaps I can bring some comfort and continue with the healing process and try to keep the frayed nerves from becoming unglued as we ask the question: What cause is so urgent that it requires the slaughter of innocents?"

David Byrne has a photo exhibit in Zagreb, Croatia, called "Evidence Of Human Habitation." Byrne says he visited areas affected by the fighting in the former Yugoslavia. "It felt like we were tourists going to see a war...like a sick joke, black humor," Byrne says. "One wonders how close you can get and still remain tourists on a sort of vacation."

Heart are playing two acoustic shows in Seattle on May 12 for a television special that will coincide with the release of "The Road Home," the band's new album due out in mid-August. The album features acoustic versions of Heart songs and cover versions of other artists' tunes, recorded with an eight-piece string section. Ann and Nancy Wilson played a 20-song, hour-and-a-half set as the Lovemongers at an Earth Day concert in Seattle on April 23. Their set included "Battle Of Evermore" and "Papa Was A Rolling Stone."

Lil' Ed Williams has split from his band, the Blues Imperials. Williams is planning an extended hiatus from blues performances, because he's tired of rehearsing and touring. Williams & The Blues Imperials put out three albums in the past decade.

Members of Van Halen played a concert in Philadelphia wearing jerseys that they'd been given by the city's hockey team, the Flyers. Band members stood so that the numbers on the jerseys read "5150," the title of a Van Halen album.

A company called Music By Design says it's recruited the Beach Boys, Dave Stewart, Salt-N-Pepa, Wilson Pickett, Barry White and Smokey Robinson to create original music for television commercials. The firm says it's signed over 60 musicians.

Allen Toussaint says he's launching a record label that will be dedicated to documenting local music in New Orleans. "One of the group's we're going to include will be the Dixie Cups," Toussaint says.

The Radiators are about to sign with a new record label (War Records) for their next LP. "The new album includes a tribute to Professor Longhair and an acoustic version of one of our most popular live songs, 'Riverrun,'" says Camille Beaudoin of the group.

John Primer, veteran guitarist with Magic Slim & The Teardrops, is recording a solo album (for Code Blue/Atlantic Records). The album is being recorded in Chicago with producer Mike Vernon and will feature harpist Billy Branch and bass player Johnny B. Gayden.

Dave Alvin and Chip & Tony Kinman of Rank And File were among the acts who played a Santa Monica, California, concert to benefit Sweet Relief, which provides medical assistance for musicians.

The 1995 World Music Awards will air on ABC-TV later the same day after they are given out in Monte Carlo.

A former girlfriend of Eric Clapton has been found dead from a heroin overdose in a house in Bournemouth, in Dorset, England. Alice Ormsby Gore still had a syringe in her arm and had apparently died from injecting unusually strong heroin. A suspected drug dealer was charged with attempting to murder a policeman with a knife during a raid on the house.

Even though Linda Ronstadt's new album is called "Feels Like Home," she says she hasn't gone back to the 1970s style that brought her initial success. "It's puzzling to me, because it really isn't like my earlier music," Ronstadt says. She says she picked the album's title from the songs on the LP. "We went down the list of titles, 'The Waiting? No. 'Teardrops Will Fall'? No. 'Feels Like Home' was the one that worked" — and not because it signified any sort of musical return to form," she says. The title track was written by Randy Newman and will be in his upcoming "Faust" musical. Some of the tracks for "Feels Like Home" came from sessions for a second "Trio" album with Emmylou Harris and Dolly Parton. Parton wasn't able to help finish the record, so Ronstadt and Harris took some cuts for their own albums. "We actually made three different records," Ronstadt says. "I felt like a pilot in his ship, drifting from port to port and people saying, 'No, you can't dock here. Try Naples.' The record company was having a fit." Ronstadt does concede the new album sees her "exploring traditional material again, but in English, not Spanish."

Little Richard, Chuck Berry and Fats Domino are touring England together this month. Richard has invited the Queen of England to come to one of the shows. "This is a once-in-a-lifetime show and we want Queen Elizabeth to come out and enjoy herself too, with Prince Charles," he says. "We'll give them some new energy and new life."

Former Uncle Tupelo guitarist Jay Farrar will have a solo album out later this year, now that bass player Jeff Tweedy's Wilco has released its debut album.

Adam Ant says his new "Wonderful" album is "a belated love letter" to a woman he's been involved with for a few years named Heather. "The relationship and my life experiences — the travel, the acting career — opened me up a bit. It was a fresh arena for me. I'm not as hands-off about my emotions anymore. If you're truly in love with someone, I believe it lasts forever. A song is a way of landmarking it, giving the love form and substance." Ant says he's currently listening to Blur, Elastica and Nina Simone.

The new company that's handling Pearl Jam's summer tour says that over 12,000 tickets for a concert in Salt Lake City, Utah, sold out in under seven minutes. And a total of 18,000 tickets to two Denver shows sold out in less than six minutes.

Ted Nugent says he supports the Michigan Militia, because he says its members would not have been involved in the federal office bombing in Oklahoma City. Nugent says the car bombing was "a demonic, cowardly murderous crime," but says "law-abiding gun owners have done nothing wrong."

Scriptwriter Joe Eszterhas says he's been unable to find a buyer for "Blaze Of Gold," his version of the life of soul legend Otis Redding. The Hollywood Reporter says some executives decided the 137-page screenplay wasn't commercial enough, while others said it would cost too much to produce. Eszterhas wrote the Sharon Stone movies "Basic Instinct" and "Sliver," and is getting $3.7 million for his next project. He says the Redding story is the first script he's been unable to sell since 1983.

The Jerry Garcia Band, Tom Waits and Screamin' Jay Hawkins are featured on the soundtrack to "Smoke," which comes out in early June. The Garcia Band has covered Jerry Butler's "Cigarettes And Coffee" and Jerome Kern's "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes," while Waits contributes his songs "Downtown Train" and "Innocent When You Dream."

Mary Chapin Carpenter, Lucinda Williams and Kevin Welch are to play a benefit concert in Oklahoma City on May 28 to benefit firefighters and rescue workers.

The events will include a question-and-answer session with Paul Stanley, Gene Simmons, Eric Singer and Bruce Kulic and an acoustic performance where fans can make song requests. The band's also bringing around the a memorabilia display called the Kiss Hall of Fame and is letting a Kiss cover band perform at the conventions.

Marianne Faithfull says her new album, "A Secret Life," is about "love, sex and doubt. It's very clear and lays it all out very honestly. It explains a lot, but it's not high drama. It's moody and complex, and the songs are much more written than what people are used to hearing from me. It doesn't cop out or skirt issues, but there's an element of playfulness to it as well. The album deals with a lot of the darker themes that I've always explored, but I think that it's also got a great sense of hope to it — which I think will be a big surprise to everyone who still thinks that 'Broken English' is what I am."

Burning Spear has a new album coming out in June (on Heartbeat/Rounder Records) called "Rasta Business."

Yoko Ono has donated $100,000 in profits from the soundtrack to "New York Rock" to the American Foundation for AIDS Research. "New York Rock" is a rock opera by Ono which ran last spring. "The AIDS epidemic is affecting the lives of all of us and therefore, it is in our interest to participate as much as we can in the battle against the disease," Ono says. The sum represented an estimate of first day sales of the LP.

The Vigilantes Of Love release a new album later this month (on Capricorn Records) called "Blister Soul." The 13-song album was produced by John Keane and recorded in the band's hometown of Athens, Georgia.

Madonna is donating a 1969 Mercedes-Benz 280SE to a New York auction house to raise money for an exhibit of pictures by the late photographer Tina Modotti, whose work Madonna admires. The car will be sold at a June 20 memorabilia auction being conducted by Sotheby's in New York. The auction house estimates the car will sell for $40,000 to $60,000. The exhibit of photos by the Italian-born Modotti is scheduled to open on September 16 and will remain on display for two months.

Smalls, LL Cool J, Run-DMC and Salt-N-Pepa will perform at an AIDS benefit concert late this summer or early in the fall. The Urban Aid concert is intended to help inner-city youth realize they are not immune to AIDS. Organizers have also contacted Janet Jackson, Toni Braxton, Snoop Doggy Dogg, Dr. Dre and Stevie Wonder about participating.

Geoff Barrow doesn't want Portishead to be called an ambient dub band. "As long as it's not ambient or dub, I really don't mind," he says. "Every decade in pop since the '50s has had a distinct sound. But the '90s sound so much like the '80s, with the crisp, clean production. Technology has become a way to achieve a standard sound, instead of anything innovative. (Portishead) uses technology to take music from all over the place and make combinations of sounds that normally wouldn't belong together. I don't think we're originators...I was just desperate to get real songs with real emotions over some music I wrote."

Harpist Sugar Blue releases an album this month (on Alligator Records) called "In Your Eyes," the follow-up to last year's "Blue Blazes."

Rapper Tone Loc has been fined $1,350 and sentenced to undergo an "anger management" program after pleading guilty to assault with a deadly weapon for attacking a woman's car with a baseball bat in 1993. The woman was in the car at the time. Loc whose real name is Anthony Smith, has been placed on two years probation, and has also been ordered to perform 100 hours of community service and give two inspirational speeches to public school students in Los Angeles.

Bette Midler has adopted two-mile stretches of the Long Island Expressway and Bronx River Parkway, to fund the removal and graffiti from the roadside. Midler adopted a segment of the Ventura Freeway in Los Angeles in 1991.

Jodeci, Mary J. Blige, Heavy D., Soul For Real, TLC, Biggie

Earth, Wind & Fire and Gladys Knight & The Pips will headline the five-day Seventies Soul Music Festival taking part in St. Martin, the Netherlands Antilles, beginning May 24

Tonya Harding is releasing an album, and has released a single called "When We Shared In Each Other's Lives," which she says she's dedicating to victims of the bombing of a federal government office building in Oklahoma City. "I'm not a pop singer. I'm not a rock star, I'm not a country singer," Harding says. "I'm just me and I'm doing something that I love."

Bob Dylan, Faith No More and Paul Weller will headline the Phoenix Festival, which will take place on a site near Stratford-upon-Avon from 13-16 July. The full line-up: Main Stage, Friday 14 July: Bob Dylan, Suede, Tricky, The Fall, The Wedding Present, chumbawaba, Salad, Mercury Rev, Velvet Crush; Main Stage, 15 July: Faith No More, Public Enemy, Terrorvision, Paradise Lost, Ice T, Bodycount, EMF, Gallon Drunk, Pitchshifter; 16 July: Paul Weller, Brand New Heavies, Warren G and the G Funk Area, George Clinton And The Parliament Funk, The Charlatans, Underworld, Credit To The Nation and Marion. Other stages (Melody Maker Stage, Jazz Cafe Stage, Carlsberg Stage, Megadog Dance Stage) will feature performances from such artists as Bootsy Collins And His New Rubber Band, Marxman, Gil Scott-Heron, The Frames, Aztec Camera, Aimee Mann, Lisa Germano, Galliano, Spritualized, The Verve, Cardiacs, Frances Black, Gure's Jazzmatazz, Robyn Hitchcock, Justin Sullivan of New Model Army, Martin Stephenson, The Wildhearts, Senseless Things, Headswim, James Taylor Quartet, The Orb, Eat Static and Transglobal Underground. The event will also feature a comedy stage and circus area. Tickets are 58 pounds sterling and can be obtained by post from PO Box 1707, London, NW10 4LW. Money orders should be made payable to Phoenix 1995 and it's probably worth including another two pounds sterling to cover booking fee and postage to North America... Therapy? may work with Manic Street Preachers guitarist James Dean Bradfield.

Speaking to the New Musical Express, Therapy?'s bassist Michael McKeegan explained: James is a shit hot guitarist and great songwriter. He may play live with us for some fun and he may write with us. He's one of the musicians we've met who we have a lot in common with, attitude wise. We're not the sort of band who meet that many other bands usually, we just do our own thing. But, with James, we've talked about it and maybe it will happen in the future." Bradfield will not be joining Therapy? permanently. Therapy? will tour the UK in June to coincide with the release of their new album Internal Love. The full track listing: "Epilepsy," "Loose," a cover of Husker Du's "Diane," "30 Seconds," "Stories," "A Moment Of Clarity," "Jude The Obscene," "Bowels Of Love," "Misery," "Bad Mother" and "Me Verses You." The album was recorded at Peter Gabriel's Real World studios. Lead single will be "Internal Love," available via A&M on May 22... The Stone Roses next single will be "Beggins You," in stores on June 12. The band, who will play at the June Glastonbury Festival, will tour the UK in September. No dates have yet been announced. Meanwhile, the Roses' show at Oslo, Norway, which saw their return to live action and the debut of new drummer Robert Maddix, has received poor reviews... The Cult have confirmed recent rumors of a split. The band formed in 1983 from the ashes of The Southern Death Cult. Their television debut was in 1984 on the Channel 4 network show "The Tube." The Cult went on to enjoy enormous success on both sides of the Atlantic with such hits as "She Sells Sanctuary." However, recent years have seen them enjoying less commercial success. Cult mainstays Ian Astbury and Billy Duffy are both planning solo careers... Black Grape, the band fronted by Shaun Ryder of Happy Mondays' fame, are planning to tour the UK in August and may also be added to the bill for the Reading Festival. The band's debut album It's Great When You're Straight... Yeah!, already the subject of positive feedback from industry insiders will be in stores in August... The Verve have been forced to cancel four UK dates because guitarist Nick McCabe has broken his hand. McCabe got into a fight in Paris with a bouncer at the Paris Bataclan venue, where the band were supporting Oasis. Trying to bet backstage after loosing his backstage pass, McCabe was thrown into a door and punched in the face... Hole's Courtney Love has given an extraordinarily frank interview to the New Musical Express. In it, she talks to the paper's Amy Raphael about such subjects as the suicide of Kurt Cobain the forthcoming Hole album and her relationship with Trent Reznor. Of Reznor, she says: "I'm angry because he's not compassionate and, Jesus Christ, what I haven't said! Him and his people should be sending me flowers every fucking day for what I don't say. Everything he says about me is true: I am manipulative, I am a careerist. But if I am, he's times ten. He thinks he's the biggest fucking recording star since Elvis." Of Cobain's death, Love comments "He planned and plotted it for years. He got so weird and crazy towards the end and he wanted to drive everybody away and his body was a prison. I have a medical textbook called 'Suicidology' and this doctor found a cachet of suicide notes from in a coroner's office from the 60s and 70s and they are all similar to Kurt's. They were completely irrational, a lot of them were addressed to a childhood friend or to themselves. 60 or 70 percent of suicides don't leave notes. Out of those who do, more than half leave really mean ones. Lots of them are about contradictions: 'I hate everybody, I love everybody: I'm too emphatic, I can't feel a thing.' You cannot sit here and say he was in a rational state of mind when he did it." Love goes on to say Cobain waited until she had flown out to Italy for his first suicide attempt (Cobain took sleeping pills) because he had wanted an "audience." She also defends herself about criticism over the fact Cobain was alone: "Everybody was away and hiding in the bushes when anyone came to the house." She concludes: "Richey (missing Manic Street Preachers' guitarist and lyricist) had all the fucking symptoms: he'd have done it with or without Kurt. Richey is dead by the way. You know that." Love also says she plans to bury Cobain's remains at Seattle's Calberry Cemetery in a public ceremony. Finally, talking about the forthcoming Hole album, Love says she wants it to sound "70s lo-fi." Hole's UK popularity was confirmed when around 2,000 fans blocked London's Oxford Street as the band made a public appearance at the Virgin Megastore on April 25. Hole played a nine-song acoustic set at the store. Love then signed autographs... The Wildhearts, who recently returned to the UK after claiming they were going to relocate to New York, are auditioning for a new guitarist to replace CJ.. Weknowwheretheyoulive are a new band formed from the ashes of The Wonder Stuff and Eat. Former Wonderstuff members Malcolm Treece, Martin Gilks and Paul Clifford have teamed up with former Eat frontman Ange Doolittle to form the band who will play UK dates this month. According to Treece: "We (The Wonder Stuff) completely lost the plot. No one seemed to pull in the same direction at the same time. It mutated over the last English tour. We had a meeting after that and said it's not worth it. It was a brave thing for us to do because we could've gone on. But I think we all knew it wasn't happening. I still see Miles, through, from time to time." Meanwhile, Miles Hunt has formed a new band. Paul Weller is said to have persuaded him to quit his job with MTV's '120 Minutes'. Hunt formerly presented the show. Since he quit, such names as Inspirar Carpets' Clint Boon and journalist, producer and former Membrane's frontman John Robb have been rumoured to be doing auditions for the job... Echobelly, Sleeper, My Life Story, These Animal Men, Rub Ultra, 60ft Dolls, Tiny Monroe and The Clouds will feature on a New Musical Express album to benefit the homeless. Home Truths is being produced in conjunction with the homelessness charity shelter... Freedom FM has begun a 28-day test/temporary broadcast period in London. The station, the first in the UK aimed at the gay and lesbian community, will feature such DJs as Boy George, S-Express's Mark Moore and ambient DJ Mixmaster Morris. Saint Etienne singer Sarah Cracknell has left the group. She will go solo and is said to have been unhappy that her songs were not used by the band Pete Dinklage and Bob Stanley will form a new band... The Cure are reported to have completed several tracks towards a new album which will be released in the fall... Van Morrison's new album Days Like This will be released in June.

CARTER ALAN, WBCN/BOSTON

Live revisited Boston last Friday night and it was a grand occasion with Throwing Copper reaching #1 on the Billboard sales chart. One song into the band's set at Brandel's University's Gosman Center, though, the audience crashed over the band's barrier and broke through to the stage. Chaos reigned up front and it looked certain that people were getting hurt, so the band ended their first song and left the stage while security cleaned up the confusion and stagehands rebuilt the barrier. Over an hour later, Live returned and blasted the hall apart, playing every song I wanted to hear (especially "Shit Town") and more - Vic Chestnut's "Supernatural" is pretty cool. Meanwhile, "All Over You" is moving up in airplay here and the audience loves it! Portishead came to Boston for the first time, selling out the Avalon club and impressing all present. Haunting and captivating, Portishead is an acquired taste that has been surprising us with its listener acceptance. "Glory Box" is turning out to be a strong follow-up to the initial single. Then on Sunday night, the topper - Mike Watt, Foo Fighters and Hovercraft at Avalon. Everyone hoped Eddie Vedder could show since he figures in the stories of all three bands, but who dared believe he would? The place was filled to bursting and a memorable night was had by all. Oh, by the way, congrats to Pearl Jam and their liaison with E.T.M. - it looks like all is running smoothly and the tickets are being distributed just fine. Thanks to the band for keeping the prices (way) down. If this works, I hope other bands will consider this cheaper, but equitable and efficient, distribution method. It's fortunate there was a champion out there that was big and powerful enough to break through the Ticketmaster monopoly. Can you say anti-trust? Sure you can.

CRAIG KOEHN, KZYR/RADIO ONE

At the risk of being contradictory I've got to rave about something we are not playing.. Spearhead "Home", number one on my heavy home play chart goes much deeper than the groove and takes a hard look at life in the 90's. Main man Michael Franti seemingly takes heed to a couple of infamous quotes, Bob Marley, "He who know's it feels it" and George Clinton, "You can't fake the funk." "Home" is chock full of down home roosty groove's, rasta rhythm's and a touch of Gil Scott Heron. This album exemplifies a term that is extremely exploited and overused, Soul. If you want Collective Soul then check out Spearhead, it's the best collection of soul in quite some time. Addwise for us this week we are going with a couple of automatics, Bjork off the Tank Girl Soundtrack, and the pure power pop of the Rembrandts. We are also going with the IRS project the Surfing Brides. After two weeks of test play and great phone response it deserves a full time slot.

RECKLESS ERIC & JULIE HOYT

CHANNEL Z/AUGUSTA

Hi ho from Augusta, Georgia, where we are looking forward to a gigantic weekend! Whoa Nelly, soooo big! But we're getting a bit ahead of ourselves. Last weekend in itself was a total treat! We had a Live weekend, where we gave away Live's latest release, Throwing Copper and tickets to their sold out show in Athens this Wednesday night. The callers were nuts! We're still getting calls from pleading Live fans, "Please, oh please, I'll do anything for those tickets." Thanks to Jeff Davis and Gary Spivack from MCA for those little treasures. We also had the pleasure of a visit from Steve Smith from Island. Thanks for the fabulous dinner. The abundant cocktails and the conversation that went straight to hell in a hand basket. It was beautiful! Our long awaited Butt Jam '95 weekend is this upcoming Sunday and everyone is about to fall out they are so excited. We got the most fantastic posters and t-shirts made and some excellent bands to match, like Wax, Billy Pilgrim, The Caulfields, and South by Southeast artists; Marc Stowe, Deity 5000, Mary Jane Jones, and Hanging Francis. We are celebrating sand protecting the Archibald Butt Memorial Bridge, which the city is considering tearing down. In case your wondering, Archibald Butt was an American Dignitary who unfortunately was on the Titanic. He gave up his seat in a life raft and went down with the ship. The bridge is for him and that's why we want to protect it. We'll give you the entire update next week.

DUG BROWN, WPUP/ATHENS

Isn't life beautiful? The suns out, we've got 3 kittens to look at and go "oooh" and Live is playing tomorrow night. Just makes you grin. Ok, so the dating scene is looking up. Am I really that easy to read? Music that works: Peter Murphy, Elastica, Matt Sweet, and numerous cool things. Umm, I'm going to go away now. I'm much too happy to waste my time on you.

JOHN LENAC & KEVIN KLINE

CHANNEL Z/AUGUSTA

It's May already, damn! We are kicking May off right with an Adam Ant show. It was a "Here And There" weekend on Channel Z. Listeners won pairs of tickets to see tonight's show, plus when we gave away tickets, we registered the winner for a trip to Atlanta for the Midtown Musical Festival. What a wonderful weekend. The Adam Ant touchtones were working overtime as people were absolutely going crazy about the possibility of seeing this musical legend. It was so bad, at one point a listener even volunteered to strip for a pair of tickets. We gave the trip away to a young lady who was listening to the radio and watching early morning cartoons with her son. When she heard her name over the air, she began jumping up and down on the living room floor with her son. Ahhhh, Channel Z, the station for family bonding...that's bonding, not bondage.

Also, Adam also was a part of a now Channel Z tradition...Live From the Balcony for 50 Channel Z listeners which we broadcast live over the air. Adam and John had a very nice chat in-between three fantastic acoustic songs. The packed crowd went crazy for The Murmurs before Adam came on stage and kept the energy pumping all night. What a memorable experience. A large Channel Z thank you to Debbie Hathaway, Greg Seese, Mary Divney and everyone at Capitol for helping out with this promotion and show. Getting back to midtown music festival, our winner will see eight bands in the Olympic City over a three day period. Some of the acts on the bill are Adam Ant, Collective Soul, Bush, Matthew Sweet and Our Lady Peace. Mega thanks to D-Day, Doug Ingold, and the fine folks at Relativity Records for making this trip possible. Last week we were fortunate to have Kimberly Sanderson from Island visit us. No, really, she likes the name Kimberly and would rather be called that, actually, or so she says. It will probably take a while to get used to though, but at least it's close to what she previously went by. Imagine if she decided to change her name to Sopan or something like that, now that might take some time to soak in. Then again if you hear what her name could be if she continues seeing the guy she's currently seeing we're all in trouble. How the hell do you even say Boustamonte. Diggin' the new Trippin' Daisy, girl.

MARK FISCHER, ATLANTIC RECORDS

Club Ted rules! A big thank you to Ted Nugent and everyone from radio and retail who were able to make it out to Ted Nugent's ranch on Saturday. We had a blast riding horses, canoeing on his 22 acre lake, swimming in Ted's "Gibson Birdland Shaped" pool and eating a healthy dose of alligator, duck, buffalo and beaver. Yum! Yum! The new Ted Nugent record Spirit Of the Wild is out in stores this week and the first track from the album "Hot Or Cold" has already entered the top 40 at Rock radio. Ted Nugent will be embarking on his tour with Bad Company later this month. Do yourself a favor. If your not playing Ted Nugent watch the soundscan in your market. I think you'll be surprised. In other news, Collective Soul has another hit record with "December." The new album has scanned 200,000 units so far and climbing. December is 4th Most Requested Record at Rock radio. Play this one to death. This week we have a new record from a new artist who is currently the buzz around Atlantic. The band? Sugar Ray. The song? "Mean Machine. The Story? The end in Seattle started playing this record a few weeks ago. Q101 in Chicago and Live 105 in San Francisco discovered the band soon after that. Meanwhile at AOR, the Eagle in Dallas (KEGL) started playing the record and within two weeks it was the no.1 Requested Record out requesting the very strong White Zombie record. And to top the anti even more, Q104 in New York has added the record and is up to 19 spins. The beauty of all this is that we haven't even officially shipped Sugar Ray "Mean Machine" to AOR or Alternative. What does this mean? It means, find Sugar Ray's "Mean Machine" in your stack of priorities, put it on the radio, and play the piss out of it. I rest my case. Finally, before I sign off, Billy Pilgrim had the most amazing week at radio. New major market adds included WDVE/Pittsburgh, WMMR/Philadelphia, WQFM/Milwaukee and WEGR/Memphis. Billy Pilgrim's "Sweet Louisiana Sound" is a track that will stand out on your radio station in a positive way. Trust me. I'm a record guy. Cheers!

DAVE LOMBARDI

WARNER BROS., 818-953-3726

After 7 cities (Houston, Austin, San Antonio, Dallas, Kansas City, Columbia and St. Louis), 5 Goo Goo Dolls shows, 5 radio dinners, 4 radio lunches, 5 radio visits and 1 instore in 5 days. I'm glad to be in one place for a few hours. I want to thank my awesome local reps in Houston, Dallas and St. Louis, because Melissa Morrison, Laurie Hughes and Bobbo Hathaway did a fantastic job of keeping us all busy for a week. Thanks also to the Goo Goo Dolls, Cindy Bennett, Planet Music, Don Parker, Steve Robison, Jeff Carroll, Loris Lowe, Mike Peer, Lynn Barstow, Debbie Alcocer, Kevin Vargas, Virgil Thompson, Bill Lee, Duane Doherty (we owe you one, Duane), Cindy Scull, Joel Folger (now will you play the Goos?), Doug Sorensen (I finally made it!), Valorie Knight, Debbie Mitchell, Paul Maloney and Al Hofer...but not Paul. By the way, the Goo Goo Dolls "Only One" had another great week with 8 more adds, a 28-27* move in the Monitor. Rock radio continues to kick booty with the Goos! Shipping this week: "God Of Love" from the reformed Bad Brains. Thank G-d you work for a rock station, because this is some serious rock. And if you're a rock station masquerading as an alternative station (or an alternative one masquerading as a rock station, for that matter), don't sweat it, because you can most certainly play this, too. Personal to John, Robby and Gummy Mike (Jennifer!): "Cabin Boy" does suck, but you guys are the best. Keep working hard, and we'll break through. Now, don't mention the scar (A"Z"?!?!?) and remember: Don't eat metal! I'm out.

CHRIS WOLTMAN

COLUMBIA RECORDS, 212-833-8505

Dokken "Too High To Fly" comes out and kicks ass. #1 Most Added with over 50 stations this week and a handful of early stations last week. KISW and WXTB are among those that lead the way. Everyone is saying the same thing...it's just a really good rock record. Obviously something is going on. The promotional tour has been a huge success with radio visits in Denver, Dallas and Kansas City to name a few. On the way the band has been playing shows to sold out crowds that have been going crazy. It's real!! If you don't believe it look at the quality of stations this week, then put it on the air for the audience to decide.

Jeff Buckley "Last Goodbye" continues its growth across the board at all formats. I look at stories from stations like KLPX and WSHE on the rock side and their stories tell you more than I ever could. At WSHE where the spins are real, over 20 per week, the record has seen Top 5 phones — the point is this...Jeff is a great artist and "Last Goodbye" is a great track. It's getting real reaction at Triple A and Alternative, MTV has it in Buzz Clip and every week the sales continue to climb. Mad Season...what do I need to say. In BDS, "River of Deceit" moves to #2 behind another brilliant record from Live. It seems like the anticipation builds daily for Soul Asylum. "Misery", the first track, is coming soon. Once again, there is nothing that I can say that won't be said when you hear this track and this record...just wait and see... That's it...thanks to everyone at radio for all the support. See ya later....

KIM LANGBECKER, COLUMBIA

Today was a good day. Actually a good week. The Suns are up in the playoffs, the Red Wings are gonna take the Stanley Cup and Dokken comes in #1 most added!! I have to tell you it is very gratifying to have great radio stations like KISW, KIOZ, KQRC, KUPD, WXTB, KATT, KILO, KIBZ, KLQ, and 50 others raise their hands on this record. Anyone who doubts the strength that Dokken has with your audience should check your "hipness" factor at the door and let your audience decide. Guess what - this record fits your station if you are playing current based "rock" music. The tour is selling out and we are already logging monster phones at KILO, KIOZ, WBZX among others. I have had conversations with a lot of programmers who are feeling the backlash of so many sound-a-like records and this is straight down the middle rock. Play it. I had the pleasure of seeing Jeff Buckley this past week in Austin at Liberty Lunch to about 600 people. He played to about 200 fans earlier in the day at Tower and the response was same - people dig this guy. We have been growing every week and the stories are starting to develop. I talked about the great KLPX response last week and now WNEW is starting to get calls. Sales are up 25% and in air play markets we had debuts on the sound scan A.D.I. The record moves 25-16 on the new artist chart. The alternative picture is great with 700 spins and 99X in the first week of call out showed the record to be very positive. We pick up WLVQ and KEZO among others this week. This record is here for the long haul. It takes time to develop and as usual, unless you actually play the record more than once a day, you've probably not going to get great requests or research. Jeff Buckley is a star and you can do one of two things: take the bull by the horns and get in now and be a part of his success or sit back and watch your competitors. It's as easy as that because as I've said before - we are not going to give up. Look out for Soul Asylum - "Misery." We have had tremendous response to the track and this will be bring the band to new heights. Official add date May 16. And for those Pink Floyd aficionados out there the concert tour of last summer is headed your way via a 2-cd package called Pulse. First release will be "What Do You Want From Me?" I get goose bumps. The next track from C.D.C. will be "Seven Days" which was had picked by several programmers around the country. The tour of the spring and summer is Mike Watt and "Piss-Bottle Man" is the next track.

Here's my story and I'm sticking to it...glad to get back out on the road again! Fun is Georgia in the sun. I can't stand this New York weather. It's either cold or shitty or hot and shitty. Decide, dammit! Heard some good radio in the south this week. Hot battles being fought in both Savannah and Augusta. Wow, you don't have to be in a million plus market to feel the heat! Should be fun to see how it turns out. And, about my records...Simple Minds are turning out just fine as "And The Band Played On" charts everywhere and has some healthy rotation to boot! Let's get rolling...this is the rocker. Do you play rock or not? King Crimson is adult, it's alternative, it's fun. If you don't like "Dinosaur", try "People". We're working an album, you know. Maids Of Gravity are getting some good response at the alternative leaning stations in this format. Check 'em out! (See William, we're not slacking!) I'm stoked about the Brother Cane! The feedback on this new album Seeds is really awesome. Catch their live show...they're out doing some pre-release dates to work out the kinks. I'm hearing there aren't many kinks at all!! This isn't a baby band anymore. Can't wait to see 'em in Wichita in two weeks!!! Lo/Jacks to: Paul Yeskel, Don VanCleeve, Jim Nelson, Brian Krysz, Chris Woltman, and Scott Booker!

PAM EDWARDS, THE WORK GROUP

Thanks for the early support on "Molly" from Sponge. With stations like Q104.3, KUPD, KDKB, KSJO, WRIF, WCCC, WDIZ, WJRR, and KBPI, and in the first two weeks, we've got another top 10 record on the way! Look for Sponge on the east coast and Midwest for the next month - summer tour plans will be announced soon. Chris Whitley's impact day for "O God My Heart Is Ready" is May 15th. WPLR couldn't wait and has had this in rotation for the last 3 weeks! Spend some time with the new CD Din of Ecstasy and you'll see why the early reviews have been spectacular! The New York Times says, "The rocker today whose music evokes Jimi Hendrix's splendid noise more powerfully than anyone else's is Chris Whitley..." Musician says, "...imagine the Edge lost in the purple haze, and you'll have a sense of just how dizzying the solos get." Sometimes the critics are right - and this is definitely one of those times! Now, it's back to work!

CHUCKIE ROYAL TRUX

VIRGIN RECORDS, 212-332-0421

Maid's Of Gravity! Maid's Of Gravity! "Only Dreaming." This sonic gem is a modern rock smoker. Produced by Matt Hyde who turned the knobs for Pomo For Pyros and Mighty Mighty Bosstones. What a killer guitar song. And of course WFNX (Alternative Station of the Year) and REV 105 are already loving the track. Massive Attack continues to sell from air play and club play in trend setting markets, LA, SF, Seattle, Minn., NYC, Chicago. Get with it. Your time has come to pay the price. Do you see the connections between Portishead, Bjork's track: "Army Of Me" and "Tricky"? Are you wise enough to know that it all began with Massive Attack. Get on the stick! Royal Trux! A big thanks to WFNX for having the band play their music poll show. The BBQ at Irving Plaza was an all-star salute to boogie woogie...Pavement! Iggy Pop! Thurston Moore! Lenny Kravitz! Thank goodness they have the brains to know the future of boogie woogie! WFNX! WDRE un network! KLZR! WCBR! WHY! WRAS! WCBZ! You deserve a massive hug. Royal Trux rules. As I told you radio Jesus freaks before... "You're Gonna Lose" and "Ray O Vac" are teen anthems waiting for your spins. Read Rolling Stone like your listeners do, "Royal Trux are the missing link between the Stone's "Exile On Mainstreet" and Sonic Youth's "Daydream Nation" they are demi-god's of the low-fi underground." Or read Spin like your listeners do, "Thank You is Sticky Fingered to the max, with sinewy riffs, grinding bass, and seething percussion...Royal Trux have made a motherfuckin' fine album." The best part of working on this project is when I get to say "I Told You So." Just like Verve. Everyone will be gushing when they get their hands on The Verve's new record! The record is monster. Call your local Virgin or Vernon Yard cat for a taste.

Who's afraid of Virginia Woolf? She once wrote something about a Lighthouse, but I don't think she ever envisioned a two-year old lad strapped down to her commode. If you want to check out a contemporary portrait addressing the learning process of human hygiene, and one of Woolf's undocumented fantasies, just look inside Light House Rocket, the debut solo release from Sean Kelly of The Samples. Sean will be happy to share other secrets of his childhood, along with his literary insights, during his brief solo tour that will bring him to Boston, New York, D.C., Chicago, St. Louis, and Kansas City.

Wow! I had a bit of activity last week! Dave Mallett was here in Southern California to support his Vanguard release...In the Falling Dark. In addition to his many radio appearances, we enjoyed his Saturday night performance and his instore at Hear music. This record is still hangin' tough at Americana! Plus I got to see the talented Paul Kelly in concert on Monday. His show, which also included stellar multi-instrumentalist Kerryn Tollhurst playing lap steel, mandolin, and guitar. Both guys contributed to a sound that had the audience listening in rapt attention to selections from "Wanted Man" some old favs, and of course a few key songs from a new album that's due later this year. What a wonderful music filled week. And of course hearing the roar of the crowd at the Forum as the Kings defeated the Ducks in their last home game was music to my ears. I went to the game with friends of mine that brought their favorite good luck charm — their new baby boy, Linus! All three times he's gone, they win and pucks come flying over the boards as souvenirs! Now I'll be keeping my fingers crossed that the Blackhawks get defeated tonight — it literally is our only chance!

Have you seen the new David Knopfler release, Small Mercies? Track 7, "A Little Sun (Has Gotta Shine)" is perfect for AAA, PAR, Adult Rock, Progressive, A3, and any other term that applies to some great music. Lots of other great tracks too! Hey, don't blow off Mummr U.K.! This over-looked album is a winner and deserves another listen! Track 7, "I Need Time", and track 9, "Comin' Down Like Rain", are really great songs. Give them a try. Boxing Gandhis continue to tear up the road on Dave Matthews/ Big Head Todd tour. The responses are 100% positive. Thanks for having them into your stations! Later in May watch for the new Al Stewart!

So I'm hanging out at Ted Nugent's pad, firing pistols, bow and arrows, consuming wild bird, riding Ted's 4x4 and hearing the FU#@ING Motor City Madman play in his own backyard!! How does one return home to Newark, New Jersey and explain this weekend of adventure to his friends who also grew up with "Cat Scratch Fever", "Weekend Warriors", "Tooth Fang and Claw", etc!! Well, I tried!! A thesaurus doesn't hold the many names I was called describing LIAR!! My 9 month-old daughter didn't even believe me! There are however, about 100 people who can back me up here including: Jeff Pescatello, Matt Dylan, Ray Koob, Robert England, Terry Spilde, Paul Fix, Darrin "the legend" Arriens, Joe Bevilacqua, Valorie Knight, etc. etc. etc. We all shared the Spirit Of The Wild!!! Next weekend me and the longboard hit the shore!! Can it compare...I think not!!

Yeah, yeah, yeah, so I haven't written...sue me. On deck brand new C.O.C. tour dates with Monster Magnet and Season To Risk! Look for this tour to start on June 13th in the 'il o'South before it heads up to the Midwest. This show is not to be missed. C.O.C. continues to rule at the registers as well as the airwaves, as the last two months has seen solid increases for C.O.C. (actually Deliverance is already C.O.C.'s best selling album ever). It's also no mystery to retailers that both "Blind" and "Technocracy" also have those registers registering! Keep your eyes peeled for special C.O.C./Monster Magnet tour posters. Don'tcha worry we'll get ya sussed out. A this talk about Metal: Is Metal Dead? Blah, blah, blah, make me want to puke blood. Feeling very tired from a looong weekend. This week's very plain and simple dialogue. Misery Loves Co. will be touring. This record will not let you down. Simply put, this record sells. Scorn is for all the dance, ambient, techno people. tour. Look for Anal Cunt's 7". They are a Top 40 Hit. Fudge Tunnel - new full length In A Word... Coming soon. Extreme Noise Terror. Let the new punks beware. It's old school at it's best. Ten years of terror. Bolt Thrower's double CD is gone. Good luck in finding that one kiddies. Old is coming with more techno dance which is not to be missed. A couple of new bands on 7" vinyl soon. Last the classic re-issues. Cathedral - Forest Of Equilibrium. Godflesh - Pure. Pitch Shifter - Submit. Terrorizer - World Downfall. METAL BLADE, 805-522-9380

I'll take this opportunity to confirm the rumor that I am moving back to New York. Metal Blade will have an office there and that is where I'll be. Never fear, I'd never leave the Blade Grip Inc's "Ostracized" cd pro should be added May 8th. "Dragging Me Down" should be faded prior to the 50 second mark to avoid profanity. The tour starts in June so who wants to meet Dave Lombardo??? I can't hear you... Broken Hope start on the road with Decide soon. If your not being nice to Marni and ourselves then Joe & Glenn will sacrifice you to Satan. "Dilation and Extraction." Spin it. No excuses. The Organization SF have so graciously offered you Savor The Flavor now if you value your health put "The Drought" and "Doomsday Eve" into heavy rotation. The musicianship on STF is superb so push it please. Those meery band of donut chasers, X-Cops, will be invading your homes in June when they hit the road. Wanna go? Then play them. "Highway Star" is cool (and clean) so go for it. Yes, the members are mutants of Gwar so beware! Skrew plays May 5 in Houston. Goo Goo Dolls ripping up the charts. Coming: Decoryah, King Diamond, Beats the Hell Out of Me. Whips-n-Kisses...Maria and Melodie.

I'm running a little late with some of the new stuff I've told some of you about, please add the following as soon as you get them: Deceased, Meshuggah, Pyogenesis, Therion, and The Abyss. Just follow the rest of the add dates listed in the package after everything has been put in rotation. (If you don't....I'll shave your cats! Throats slit! Eyeballs gorged! Skull soup bowls! I once heard that all good things must come to an end, I guess that's true..as I recently found out. This is my - first and last - dialogue and mostly I wanted to say thank you to a few people. I have made quite a few really great friends along the way here between WLR & Red Light. First and fore most I want to thank the family at Red Light for taking me in and teaching me everything. People like Drew at KXXI, Heidi at KUPS, Eric at KAKS, and Blaze at KCOU, just to name a few, made my job so much easier. Then there's the others, ya know the ones that bugged me every week beginning the second I walked in the door until I walked out, and then some. Chainsaw, I'm on my way to stuff envelopes; John, TAG, you're it!!! Sudi, I'll miss you Hun thanks for trying for the Collective Soul tix; Munsey, what can I say...you're one of a kind; and Stephanie, I can't thank you enough for getting me in to meet Chris from Queensryche...it was a dream come true...I love him. Thanks to everyone I left out, I'll miss everyone...I hope to talk to you all soon!! Last but certainly not least, I have to thank Jill!!! Without you, I would never have gotten my foot in the door! I miss working with you, you are the greatest!! I can't thank you enough!! Watch out for my buds in Oppressor!!!

ERACHE RECORDS, 212-343-9090

Ok, I'm gonna cut right to the chase here - what's up with the decrease in spins on Misery Loves Co.? Those of you that have kept on it and have upped the spins, ignore this little tirade; but those of you that have cut down on spins or not reported it this week...HELL-0000! Wake up and check out what is happening around you. I'm only directing this at a very small number of you and you know who you are. This record is da shit, your listeners love it, so why aren't you playing it?!! If you can come up with just one good reason then I'll let you off the hook, but if not then you really don't have a leg to stand on now do ya? Again, most of you need not pay any attention to my outburst so I apologize because you know what's up - you know better than to let a good record pass you by. These guys will be over to tour soon and once you see them live you'll be even more convinced that you're doing the right thing by playing them as much as possible. Shout outs to DMX, KEYJ, KQAL, KNDI, KSJS, WKNC, WKTA, WMHB, WNYO, WSGR, WSOU, WVUD and WZMB for high amounts of spins last week. Anal Cunt is trekking across the US as we speak so no excuses not to be spinning any or all of their Top 40 Hits. Thanks for the adds on "American Woman" and special thanks to KSRH, WLFR and WSMU for charting in top 5 - especially Brian at WCDB who gave them a whopping 36 spins last week! Add "Delicious Face Style" this week.

Extreme Noise Terror is moving up. I knew you'd come to sooner or later and give this band the air play they deserve...don't neglect Bolt Thrower either. Yes, I'm a bit pissy this week and no, it's not that time of the month so play my records, please.

ROCKWORLD RECORDS, 219-996-2727

First, much thanks goes out to Julie, Ron, Jeff, and the whole gang at WXZR for their awesome hospitality and a groovy hang at their anniversary party this past weekend. Second, How can anyone not be playing Bad Seed?! (Charts: CMJ 19*, Hard 21*, Gavin 24*, QB 26, Album Net 30*). This record is smokin' (Marijuana pun intended). It is addictive, just ask Rob Fiend, he'd take it intravenously if he could. I personally get my buzz from listening to it, but whatever fills your bong or floats your boat, just play the damn CD and watch it react, you will get phones!! People want to hear this, they need to hear it, they must hear it!! Don't deny yourself the pleasure, just give in to the groove!

Well, I guess it's that time of year again. Have fun with those final exams, Ha. By now you all know about the new Crowbar record. It hits the streets on May 23rd, but remember the add date is June 5th. You'll all have your disks before the big weekend, so you can spend three days moshing in your bedroom and tearing the place apart. And if that's not intense enough for you, just wait till the week after when the new Malevolent Creation hits your hands. Add date June 12th. In the mean time play the crap out of the new Uglystick record. Tour set for this summer. So what do you think of an industrial/Death band. Sound interesting, well you'll find out all about it on May 15. That's when you'll get your Crawl Cds. Their debut "Earth" goes for adds on May 22. To all Solitude Aeternus fans, the band is currently on tour overseas, expect a tour to hit the states later this summer.

Arbitron numbers were released in Seattle. Our client, KMTT The Mountain was down, specifically because there were significantly higher listening levels in the market. In most demos, the curme and quarter-hour audiences were almost identical to the Fall numbers. February was the third best in the station's history. With total 12+ audience, KMTT's shares dropped from 3.5 to 3.0, and 25-54 the station's shares were off 5.3 to 4.8 (tied for 6th). KUBE and KNDD are tied for number one in Seattle. KBSG is number one 25-54. Everyone at the Mountain feels that the station is on the right track. Expect to see the Spring numbers bounce back up. On the music front, Mae Moore's latest album Dragonfly (TriStar) picks up right where her last album left off. Her penchant for smooth, polished pop songs is obvious from the first notes of "Genuine," which is the lead single. If you liked "Bohemia," you'll be equally impressed by this one. Lisa Cerbone has a nice new album called Close Your Eyes (Ichiban). "Amber" is the emphasis track and is a good indication of the sound of the album. It is a good pop song highlighted by Cerbone's breathy vocals. Bonypony has anew CDPro called Bonypony Presents...A Personal Shade Of Blue. Try the tracks "Blue Blue Blue" or "Shrouded in Blue." For the Love of Harry: Everybody Sings Nilsson (Music Masters) is a great tribute album. I know we've been inundated with covers lately, but there are some tracks on this album that deserve some exposure. Marc Cohn's take on "Turn On Your Radio" is fabulous. Another early favorite is Aimee Mann's "One" which is a song everyone will recognize, and should generate great phone response. Plus, all the proceeds from the album go to the Coalition To Stop Gun Violence in Nilsson's memory. Bob Dylan's MTV Unplugged contains some great tracks. The tracks to focus on are the lesser known ones, which seem to have more vitality to them. Try "Tombstone Blues," "Dignity," and the stunning "John Brown." And if you're feeling real adventurous, spin "Desolation Row." Madder Rose is back with an EP called The Love You Save (Seed/Tag). You might recognize the title track, as it is a cover of the old Jackson 5 tune. It's a nice take on the song, with Mary Lorson's sweet vocals and the laid back feeling. Also check out "Diane," a beautiful ballad that sounds great to our ears. Some Rainy Morning (Mercury) from Robert Cray should land on your desk this week. This album is much like Young Bob's last two in that it leans heavily on his blues roots, as opposed to the R & B and soul he has been known to delve into. The absence of horns lets Cray stretch out more, and there are some stunning vocal and guitar performances on the album. In addition to "Moan" and the other songs on the CDPro, check out "I'll Go On," featuring Jim Pugh's soulful Hammond playing, "Tell The Landlord," a nice shuffle and "Enough

For Me." Coco Montoya cut his blues teeth playing with Albert Collins and John Mayall — not bad company for an up-and-coming guitarist. His sound definitely resembles both of his mentors, but he is quickly developing his own style of play. His debut Gotta Mind To Travel (Blind Pig) is an accessible blues record with some great material for AAA radio. "Too Much Water" sounds like a Robert Cray tune. The title track is a Collins original that swings like crazy, and "Taking Woman Blues" features the late great Collins on guitar. Also check out "Top Of The Hill" with Mayall. The Colour of Memory are a group from the Western British Isles who take the Celtic music of the region and infuse it with modern technology and ideas. The result is a great sound akin to but not wholly like that of Loreena McKennit or Annie Lennox. One listen to "Rigmarole" and I was hooked. This song has everything needed to be a hit on the radio. "Sun Fire Majestic" is another song that grabbed my attention on the first listen.
