THE HARD REPORT

TOP PRIORITY

Brother Cane, "And Fools Shine On," Virgin

This band made heads turn all over rock radioland with their debut effort that spawned the tornadoes like "Got No Shame." And with a melodic consistency that has carried over to this debut single from their latest record, Brother Cane reemerge as a band with big numbers ahead in 1995. This record sounds as modern and edgy as anything from Alice in Chains, and has enough straight-ahead rock appeal that took "Shame" over the top. With the hooky vocals and the clipped rhythm guitar pattern that continues throughout, Brother Cane have upped the stakes. The sensual blend of sound is so satisfying that it will be surprising if anyone puts up much of a fight here. This is clearly a cut above the debut, and that's a scary proposition indeed. KEGL's Duane Doherty echoes the sentiment when he says, "I Love that record. I think it will be huge. I liked the last record, but this one shows that they've grown. The sound has developed. 'Fools Shine On' is going to be humongous." KLOL's Cindy Bennett echoes, "I love this record. I think it will be huge. It's just what we need right now - a good, solid rock record from a great band with a great hook."

HERITAGE

Jeff Healey, Under Cover E.P., Arista

The second promotional sampling of the Under Cover record by this gifted guitarist and performer features 3 outstanding performances of classic rock tunes. The cover of the Yardbirds' "Shapes of Things" is a fun instrumental idea that might make for a teaser spike or two. The reading of Jimi Hendrix's "Angel" is breathtaking and thoroughly enjoyable. This one's ready for the radio, as is "Stuck in the Middle With You," The Stealer's Wheel tune that pops up on your station in that goldie spot every once in awhile. This version is upbeat and catchy like its original counterpart, and holds more guitar, drums and bass than the slinky-sounding original. You're pulling in a familiar tune with this one.

COR

Type O Negative, "Summer Breeze," Roadrunner

The most consistent building success story of the past year has been the singular hardcore/gothic tinged sound of Type O Negative. They earned their airplay one station at a time, cementing believers with the tremendous phone response they pull in city to city. It's no wonder with the mesmerizing voice of Peter Steele shaking your bones, and on "Summer Breeze" his baritone grabs you once again, in particularly shocking contrast to the original. The ability of the layered elegance in their sound to appeal to both your hardcore and passive element of your audience may be one reason for their new legions of fans, or maybe it's just the constant touring schedule that has kept Type O in the public view, but as Bloody Kisses nears Gold sales status they are as, well, exposed as ever. The band is currently the opener for the high profile Queensryche tour and in July the Man of Steele will be gracing the cover of Playgirl, so it seems that things aren't slowing down a bit for these Brooklyn boys. Along with an add at KISS, an early believer in the track is Rob Hunter of KILO who thinks they are "an incredible band with an incredible record. We've been on every track that they sent out and this will be a great finish to a great story!"

Goo Goo Dolls, "Flat Top" (Warner Bros./Metal Blade)

WB hit the street with major expectations for this Goo Goo Dolls project to go all the way, and the progress to date is all positive. "Only One" nailed the early adds, sustained and built, topped out in the teens, and, in general, did a great job of further spreading the word on Buffalo's best. But as the first track started its ascent, there were those like Russ Mottla at WDRE and WFBQ's Marty Bender, who felt the immediate urge to program "Flat Top". And why not? It's not exactly the late Replacements, but neo-Minneapolis might not be far off the mark in pegging the style, with homage to The Beatles part of the mix, too. Where "Only One" was kind of three songs in one, "Flat Top" is immediately more cohesive, and absolutely more singable. KUPD's Tim Maranville assessed that, "The first track worked well and this is already doing about the same and starting to get pretty decent phones!" Also on KILO early, with Rob Hunter commenting, "I think it's a really strong song, with plenty of depth. Early phones are OK, too". With a video in the works (what is MTV waiting for?) and summer tour plans there shouldn't be any flatlining for "Flat Top".

Brother Cane, "And Fools Shine On" (Virgin)

We think that most of you will remember this band from their previous work which found many pleased programmers at rock radio, but we all know that a sophomore offering can either make or break a band. The Brothers definitely shine on this track, with just enough emphasis on the throbbing bass works to give the song momentum while the vocals cascade along. Topping it off is a melodic chorus so enthralling that it gives new meaning to the term "hook." But don't take our word for it, check out what radio is saying. Michael Lee of KRZZ isn't showing too much emotion while exclaiming "I love it. Absolutely love the whole album!" Another programmer willing to go out on a limb is Mimi Griswold of WKLL, and although she "has never liked the band a lot in the past, but I am impressed." In fact, she goes on to say that she can "smell a Candlebox success with them. This is an album that people are going to buy." We couldn't have said it better. Be there or be square.

Dokken, "Too High To Fly" (Columbia)

Anyone who thought that Dokken was a band that wouldn't fly in the '90s are preparing to eat a little crow. And we don't really understand why there was a question in the first place. If they showed a particular strength the first time around, it was their knack for fusing musical ability with radio-friendly rock gems. Nothing has changed, and with radio begging for that straight-ahead hooky rock sound, this track is a God send. Dave Numme of KUFD feels that, "It's nice to have a mainstream record that sounds good on the air, and is getting a lot of phone calls." In fact, along with a big 23 increases this week, "Too High To Fly" is showing top phones at KBER, KIBZ, KUPD, KXFX, WHMH, WHTF, and WKLL where Mimi Griswold thinks Dokken is "doing great! I think they have shed the hair band thing, and we get calls every time we play it. It's nice to play a rock - and I mean rock — record."

C.O.R. current oriented rock

The Nixons, "Head" (MCA)

Anyone who caught their set at the McGathy party this weekend had to have been impressed by the raw intensity of The Nixons. With 14 adds this week at KEGL, KEYJ, KEZE, KICT, KISS, KRZR, KZBB, Q104, WBUZ, WBZX, WKDF, WRZK, WXRC and WXTB (many of whom were at CBGBs) you can see the support growing. They have a broad appeal to many formats, whether that be AOR, Rock Alternative, or Hard Hitters, largely due to the down to earth spirit that comes through on songs like "Head" - both gently compelling and aggressively delivered. Charismatic frontman Zac Maloy captures your attention with his hypnotic voice and emotional power, and pulls you through the song before you realize that your consciousness has drifted away. Look for a big jump again in airplay this week as The Nixons get inside your "Head."

Jennifer Trynin, "Better Than Nothing" (Warner Bros.)

With Creative Writing and Philosophy degrees under her belt, Jennifer Trynin didn't imagine being able to utilize her expertise in a day job. She tried her luck at a few of them before she made the commitment to music, and as luck would have it, her degrees are being used rather well, day and night. The philosophy is simple: Write songs about the wandering spirit of creativity, and infuse an Alternative rock sensibility to the proceedings. She's walking the line like a champ, with 6 more adds at COR this week.

Hum, "Stars" (RCA)

After a buzzing performance at the standout HFStival, Hum reinforced the word on the street about the excellence of their live show. With more and more programmers on their knees in support of this Illinois band, Hum continue to pick up steam. WAXQ's Vinnie Marino calls it, "A great record that I'm the most pleased about out of everything we're playing right now. It's got a really interesting sound that sucks you in immediately."

Rock Alternative

Tripping Daisy, "I Got A Girl," Island

#1 Most Added this week at Alternative in and amidst other more talked-about releases, Tripping Daisy seems to come out of nowhere. Their debut for Island being their second record overall, Tripping Daisy haven't exactly been a household name. But given early exposure courtesy of hometown KDGJ compilation album spins beginning in 1992, and lots of Southwestern touring, they've set themselves up for a successful ride. One of the most talked-about bands on the second stage at HFStival, they've chimed in with 20 adds, from the likes of KDGE, KEDG, The Buzz, KRZO, KTCL, WDRE, WENZ, WFNX, WHFS, WHTG, WMRQ and others. And show plenty of signs that they can slide in under the rippling tide of brotherhood that bands like these can unite in a beer brawling frenzy every time their CD spins.

Primus, "Wynona's Big Brown Beaver," Interscope/AG

They've cultivated the most loyal legion of fans known to the format at Alternative, and with Primus airplay, you indeed make the crossover into the hip zone with fans of the Alternative edge. And they've brought about this fierce loyalty largely on the strength of the concert appearance. With Les Claypool bounding around like a stork and muttering the most unlikely lines in his twangy delivery, the place just goes completely bonkers. You've never had the opportunity to play another band that compares to this one. Because no one can. Primus makes the move to 33* this week on the Rock Alternative front.

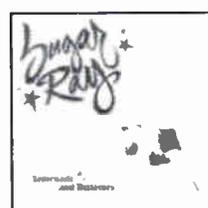

Hootie and the Blowfish, "Only Wanna Be With You," Atlantic

With the upper demo possibilities in the book, and the crazy appeal of this band with the younger ones at the same time, another effort from this overcharged and highly-successful debut record seems like a bet. Without the crazy hair, smoky stage sets, over-the-top screaming vocals or pyrotechnic guitar onslaughts, Hootie just kind of rocks back and forth across the video screen and stage in comparatively subtle fashion. With hooks out the wazoo, vocal familiarity and great pop love songs. They're neither flannel nor freakish, but they are totally hip. And debut they do, at 49* on the Rock Alternative chart.

The Nixons, "Head," MCA

With a tornadic roar comes this new band from Oklahoma who sound like they've been plodding the streets of New York City on their debut release, Foma. They've produced an album full of very enticing rock releases, and the one that's catching on quickly this week is "Head," picking up the tie for #2 Most Added at Rock Alternative this week. The pace is golden for the real rocker with The Nixons, who bring about a Pearl Jam-like rock and roll edge that is neither exclusively Alternative nor exclusively COR or anything like that. It's music from a great rock record that leans on the heavy side, but not out of the question for anyone's consideration.

Sugar Ray, "Mean Machine," Atlantic

Out of the depths of rock and roll machinery gone wild comes this firebreather of a track that sports a few choice samples of "Hot Rod Lincoln" for a little recognizability. And there are a few Rock Alternatives that are scooping in the super-charger air this week, as Sugar Ray debuts at 46*, with nearly 200 spins this past week. Known primarily for their live shows prior to the release of Lemonade and Brownies, they bring live energy to the radio with this cut, no doubt. WAXQ MD Vinny Marino says "They're huge. I love them. They're one of the best live bands I've seen in quite some time."

HERITAGE

Ian Moore, "Muddy Jesus," Capricorn

#1 Most Added at Heritage and #1 Most Added at COR is a feat not easy to accomplish, but Ian did it this week. Since the roots of this track lie squarely in the earth created by classic rock bands before it, and since Moore is a fire-branding new live show that spins around some amazing riffs on "Muddy Jesus," it does make total sense. To get picky stations like WDVE right out of the box, you've got to be hitting something right on the nose, especially if you're a relatively new artist. And Moore spans out 14 other outta the boxers including WXKE, WRCX, WRDQ, WKLS and others. The Austin axeman strikes again, and we're all testifying that here lies the most rockin' effort he's given us to date.

Sheryl Crow, "Can't Cry Anymore," A&M

More music from Tuesday Night Music Club is coming your way in the form of this catchy little ditty that will play well across the board. With the name recognition of Crow, the serious video airplay at her disposal, it's another safe bet to expose another potential monster track from this mega-successful record. The hook is strong, and the story is relatable. With this country-like lyric, Crow hits home for many in your audience with this tune. Even if you've heard enough from this award-winner in recent months, you can bet that the audience we've cultivated has gone to the stores for the album. It's not a stretch to assume a great deal of familiarity out of the box. WAPL and WPYX add this week.

Rod Stewart, "Leave Virginia Alone," Warner Bros.

The Tom Petty tune is a dramatic switch toward the more organic approach classic Stewart fans have been waiting for more of during the past few Stewart albums, relinquishing their hopes by assuming that the period of acoustic-ish Rod has gone the way of the dinosaur. Not so, said the radio world, as "Leave Virginia Alone" scores more movement, 41-36* this week on the Heritage chart. Increases at WMMR (24- 27), WONE (12-15), WBAB (14-17), KMJX (16-19) go along with spins at WKLS (6), KYYS (10), KQRS (18) and others to prove the Heritage handle isn't balking at the opportunity to showcase mature offerings from this significant Hall of Fame-bound rock and roller.

Dave Matthews Band, "Ants Marching," RCA

This band came out of nowhere to display a relatively scarce musical perspective with the hit single "What Would You Say," leaving behind a trail of listeners that suddenly realized that the music created by this band on the road during their formative years really sounds peachy to their ears. "Ants Marching" is again live-sounding in the jamming department, and comes full of hooky melodic passages that bleed with energy and distinction that only Dave Matthews is in a position to create at this time. So the exposure to single #2 comes by virtue of your substantial success with the first. KKEG, WHDQ, WHJY, WXRC and others add in this week, and WNEW (8-15), WFBQ (5-9), WXXR (6-14) shift gears on spins. Dave makes the debut at 45*.

Wanderlust, "I Walked," RCA

This listenable janglefest brought early attention from hometown WMMR long before the floodgates opened up, and it was through the local scene that we first gained awareness of this excellent band. This song sounds wonderful on the radio, as witnessed by 8 more this week, including WRDU, WXXR, and KYYS. Some of the calls already in progress are WEBN, WTUE, WCCC, WDHA, WEGR, WFBQ, KCLB, WRUF, WNEW and WTPA. With the enticing combination of brightly-colored guitar sounds, and the big fat hook, it's no wonder that stations looking for some modern edge without sacrificing a familiar sound-ing station are picking up this new band to fill the void of the Gin Blossoms/Counting Crows timeout.

TK TAKES SHE ALTERNATIVE

The "SHE to Alternative" rumor, which has been in A rotation practically since January, became reality last Monday. Starting at 5am, WSHE cut to a heartbeat, which got progressively more rapid through the morning, overlaid with drops from sports figures, celeb advertisers, and the like, asking where SHE had gone, with responses along the lines of "SHE's out shopping, but she'll be back at 1:03." At the appointed time, TK Communications VP/GM Gary Lewis came on with a brief positioning statement, after which WSHE kicked into R.E.M.'s "Radio Song," followed by a mix one industry local described as "an upper demo version of 99X," complete with signature voice Kevin Eubanks. Mr. Lewis further explains, "It's the logical outcome of eighteen months of evolution. Back in 1993, WSHE started straying from the strict AOR dogma with bands like Gin Blossoms, Spin Doctors, Counting Crows and Soul Asylum. As more compelling product came to the fore the more tired the classics appeared. That's the point at which Bill and I hooked up with the SBR/Paragon people. When we started discussions at the beginning of the year, we weren't musically apart more than about 20%. We especially liked that their presentation was much more up-to-date and not trapped in the '80s, so we saw that was the road we had to take. I've logged in about fifty thousand miles checking out the state of rock radio, listening to what the heritage stations were doing and how they were dealing with the old/new quandary. SBR, particularly at the Peak, seem to have a handle on how to deliver an updated version of the original premise of rock radio; to discover and share music. They're also committed to not doing the cookie cutter consultant dance. They're really good at customizing market to market, with Paragon scoping out what areas are being served, and more importantly, which areas are not. From a marketing standpoint, one of the compelling aspects of this approach is the huge groundswell of listener support. It feels like we've tapped into an emotional live wire. We'll obviously market well beyond our core and word of mouth, but the fact is that our core on 6/4/95 was already predisposed to what we gave them the next day. It wasn't like we suddenly disenfranchised a whole block of partisans. It's more a question of what we no longer play as opposed to what they're hearing for the first time. The loss of the Stones, Who and Led Zeppelin is the greatest distinction. One of the biggest problems facing heritage is this feeling of obligation to play everything they've played for 25 years and in doing so they lose that sense of musical exploration that made the format work in the first place. WSHE got people excited about these songs way back when, but in 1995 nobody's going to turn on the radio and say, "Wow, it's cut one, side one, from 'Houses Of The Holy!'" That aside, none of this would have taken place without the guts and vision of John Tenaglia to aggressively pursue the correct course and see it through." PD Bill Pugh continues his morning show/part timer search.

A ZOO FULL OF CHANGES

Zoo Entertainment's remodeling project is in full swing with several key changes in the promotion, sales, marketing and media relations departments announced this week. Ray Gmeiner, VP/AOR Promotion announced the addition of Thomas Westfall as Sr. Director/Alt Promotion, based in the L.A. office. Westfall joins Zoo from Mercury, where he was National Manager/Alt Promotion. Prior to Mercury, Westfall spent two years with RCA as Director/Alternative Promotion. "We're thrilled to have him join our team," said Gmeiner. "With his knowledge and experience well known in the alternative format, Thomas' coming to Zoo makes a great label even greater. Now if he would cut his hair and get some adds, we'd be stoked!"

Thomas Westfall

Bill Pfordresher, VP/Promotion announced that Ginger Mackenzie is the new Dallas Regional Promotion Rep. She joins the label after a four-year stint as Southwest Regional promotion Manager for Relativity. She has also worked as National Rock Director for Sisapa, as well as PD at KKES/Fayetteville and MD at KATD/Amarillo. "Bringing Ginger into the Zoo family is indeed a pleasure," commented Pfordresher. "Her background in radio has served her well and her promotion talents are formidable."

Ginger Mackenzie

Miles Baker

In the Marketing department, Sr. VP Brad Hunt added Miles Baker as National Director/Sales & Marketing based in L.A. Miles joins from BMG Classics where he was Sales Manager of the western region over the past two years. Hunt also announced the promotion of Billy Gentsch as National Director/Sales & Marketing based in NY.

Billy Gentsch

Gentsch was previously Director of National Single Sales and previous to that, he was Director of Artist Development. Hunt commented on the appointments, "Miles' varied experience within BMG coupled with Billy's extensive background within Zoo makes for a great combination. It's the best of both worlds — a team that's familiar with the intimate inner workings of Zoo, as well as the bigger BMG picture." Also in NY, Rebecca Shapiro has been promoted to Coordinator of Sales & Marketing. She was formerly the assistant to the VP/Sales.

From the business side of the fence, Scott Vanderbilt, VP/Business & Legal Affairs, has recruited Terry Meyer as Director/Finance. Meyer was previously with Private Music, where she held a similar position. Her resume also includes stints with Rhino and Ogden Allied Entertainment. "I am extremely pleased to have Terry here with us. Her experience at Private is a major bonus — plus she has all the qualifications of a great finance person and still manages to have a personality! Life doesn't get any better than this."

Terry Meyer

Leah Horwitz

And finally, Brad Hunt announced the restructuring of the Media Relations department. With Hanna Bolte's departure, Leah Horwitz has been reclaimed to head up the department as National Director of Media Relations. A four-year Zoo veteran, Leah formerly enjoyed a two year stint at Epic as Media Relations Coordinator.

Mike Cubillos

Mike Cubillos has been promoted to National Manager of Media Relations. Mike joined Zoo over a year ago as an assistant in the Media Relations department. "We're very pleased to see Leah and Mike advance here at Zoo," stated Hunt. "With their knowledge and expertise clearly evident, we feel very confident that we have a strong media team in place."

by Bill Hard

From his humble beginnings at little 'ole WJRI in Lenoir, N.C., Greg Mull has become one of the most highly respected programmers of the modern age. He put WXRC on the map back in the mid-80's, and then made WRXK/Ft. Myers a winner. He spent a year with the Research Group, and since arriving in Tampa in early 1990, has continued to turn the town on its ear. Big numbers, big revenue, and Livestock, the city's biggest outdoor event — no problem. Now, in addition to powerhouse 98 Rock, Citicasters recently acquired their second Tampa signal, with the Classic Rocker "The Thunder" the perfect complement. But even with all that fun stuff to talk about, we still had to come up with a new angle to pin Greg down for his third Hard cover story...

Hey, I want to thank you for braving the cover jinx and doing this interview, Greg. I'm sure I can find something for you here at the Hard Report if Dave Crowl or your GM Dan DiLoreto has a problem with this piece.

Greg: Thanks, Bill, but with Tommy serving as my cover condom, I know I'm totally protected.

What's your overview on the Carey Curelop/Steve Young reporting scenario?

Greg: I think Rock radio needs to suck it up, have some balls and realize a lot of this is their fault. For fifteen years, when the record companies were out there releasing decent new music, we as a format completely ignored it. And when a format comes along like Alternative, that's new music oriented because it comes out of CHR, and record companies see outlets that will play their music and sell their records, they gravitate toward that. I would tell you that in the markets where Rock radio would not play new rock n' roll, there's an alternative station doing very well right now. In the markets where there is no alternative station, it's because the Rock station got their head out of the sand and played the new music that was coming along. And they not just played it, they got behind it, believed that it was the next big thing, and bought into the fact that new music was important. Those stations do not have modern rock competitors. My point is that in certain situations the record companies are justified in treating Rock radio the way they do, because we sat on them for so long and didn't support their music. The problem is that we did it for so long that the brass at the record companies think we are a null and void format. It's going to take us a while to get out of that. But we are not going to do it by pissing and moaning and pointing, we are going to do it by taking what we can get, doing the best job we can do with it and blowing our competition away. That's the way we will get the respect back.

You were in New York over the weekend. What did you think of Q104.3?

Greg: It's the best I've ever heard the radio station sound. I thought the music was right on and I hear great progress in their presentation. I look forward to hearing them in another six months. Hopefully they'll have improved that much more.

What did you think of 'NEW'?

Greg: WNEW surprised me with the new music they were playing, and I thought that in that adult mix, it worked. It was a really good awareness check for them to be playing the biggest hits from Live and Stone Temple Pilots. I didn't get to spend a lot of time, but the library that I heard seemed to fit. It sounded like a good 25-54 radio station.

98 ROCK
Pure Rock & Roll

THE Hard INTERVIEW

One of the nice things about an event like the McGathy weekend is that you can kind of take the temperature of the format. Was there any sort of prevalent thought or concern about the format you picked up?

Greg: The biggest thing I picked up was this 'alternative versus rock' thing. A lot of my peers aren't sure where to go next. They're having to compete with this alternative animal and there's no proven game plan to follow. They've had things on their own terms for so long that they don't know how to operate with a niche player. For me, it kind of brings back memories of the hey-day with us and YNF. They are having to fight a lot of the same battles that we did, except now plays per week figures into the politics.

Do you feel you've gotten your fair share of support as the market leader?

Greg: My feeling going in is that the record companies don't really owe us anything except giving us good music to play. And when we ask for support on promotions, they have all been there to support us. There are obviously some things that I'd like to have a little bit more favor on, like a recent Tom Petty show, but it ended up that it was open in this market and I think we did the best job with it. Perceptually on the air, we owned the show. I will take that any day over being shut out of something, and we haven't had that happen in a long time.

Are you of the mindset that two, three years from now there won't be any more officially sanctioned co-pros? Do you think it is going in that direction?

Greg: Only in those markets where the competitive situation pushes it in that way. That's how Tampa was five years ago with us and YNF. A lot of labels called a halt to it and some artists just avoided the market altogether. I think that rock radio should hope that stations that clearly support a particular artist more than other stations will always have first option on the co-pro, as opposed to nobody getting anything.

Without the kind of label cooperation that you have enjoyed over the years, would Livestock be an impossibility?

of '90, and we had two Atlantic bands and two MCA bands on that first roster, along with several bands from indie labels. So there were a couple of companies who were there to help us at the very beginning. This past year, we had major support from nearly all the labels and had the biggest Livestock to date.

As successful as that has been for 98 Rock, are you contemplating organizing a similar event for The Thunder?

Greg: We are certainly thinking about doing some sort of show, but I don't think we will get the kind of audience participation for Thunder that would pull people out for a two day event and keep them there. We probably won't attempt anything that big, and to be quite honest, I don't really want anything to be compared to Livestock. I like being the biggest event of the year in our market. But I do think we will be doing some big outdoor single day events for Thunder.

It's interesting that you chose Classic Rock as your format hole to fill. Was it simply a matter of if we don't do it someone else will, so let's get going?

Greg: Absolutely. We urged our corporation to buy a radio station down here because we knew that we were particularly vulnerable on our upper end. When we got this second signal, the obvious way to go was to protect our upper end because 98 Rock is a young end radio station. We enjoy the 25-54 numbers we get, but if they must go away, I'd rather them go away to our sister station. I certainly like to have 98 in position to maneuver on the young end to block anybody that is going to come near us.

Aren't you attempting to market to a much younger audience than most Classic Rocks are?

Greg: No, not at all. It's a 25-44 rock and roll radio station that happens not to play new music.

Did you get any heat over the flyer with the young lady taking her shirt off?

Greg: You bet. We could not afford to put that kind of show on and pay the bands their standard fees, and charge the ticket price we do and still give money to charity. But we did the first Livestock back when few were willing to work with us. We did the first one in September

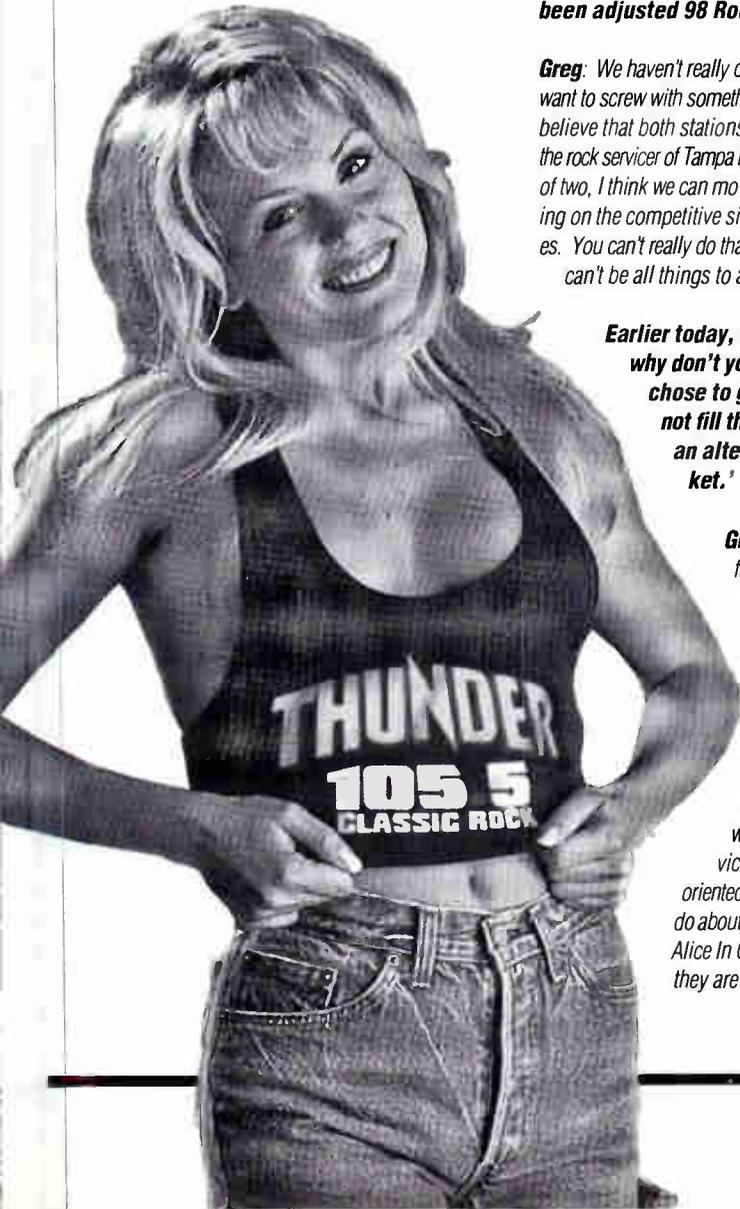

THE Hard INTERVIEW

Greg: Absolutely, which was intended. A lot of the people who didn't like it would never listen to the radio station anyway. And we would like them to have the perception that we are a bit outrageous. Maybe they will tell their friends and they will listen and appreciate us.

How did you launch the new station?

Greg: We did the direct mail piece to every household with a male 25-54 in our listening area. We just put up a 100% showing of outdoor with our logo on it to let people know we were there. The third thing is we stuck the morning guy in a major intersection with a cardboard sign around his neck that says 'Good job, great life. Have a buck,' and we take five hundred dollars and we have a rubber stamp that says 'Courtesy of Thunder.' He's out there trying to get the old people to roll their windows down to take the dollar.

Whose brilliant idea was it to call the station Thunder so that you could ID the station with the thunder sound effect?

Greg: Dan DiLoreto and myself.

What's going on at the former Power Pig?

Greg: They've been '93.3 FM The New Music Revolution,' for the last three months, a position to which they have been evolving for about a year now. They seem to be settling into a Top 40 presentation, playing the best dance music and the best rock. Those rock songs are the ones that are testing particularly well with young women. I think that is really good for 98 Rock for a couple of reasons. It lends credibility to what we are doing when the music that we are playing is exposed on other radio stations and we've been on and off most of the stuff that they are playing, so it's pretty much already burned out for our audience. A lot of it is teen oriented so they are taking that music, like the Green Days and Offsprings, and they are super-burning it out. Then we don't have to play it anymore, which is good for me. Those are not long term AOR bands and I don't need to be playing them that long.

What has having a sister Classic Rock station enabled you to do programmatically? Have you been adjusted 98 Rock noticeably?

Greg: We haven't really changed 98 Rock because I don't want to screw with something that is doing really well. We believe that both stations can co-exist. We intend to be the rock servicer of Tampa Bay from 18-54. With the strength of two, I think we can move however necessary, depending on the competitive situation, to protect our franchises. You can't really do that with one station. You certainly can't be all things to all people.

Earlier today, a promo person said, 'Hey, why don't you ask Greg why Citicasters chose to go after the upper end and not fill the hole that is wide open for an alternative station in the market.'

Greg: I don't see a wide open hole for an Alternative station in the marketplace. 98 Rock has, and always will, play the best alternative rock available. We will not be playing a lot of female skewing records on 98 Rock, and I think that is potentially the opportunity for an Alternative station. They would have to come in and service very young and be very female oriented, and there is not really a lot I can do about that. But if they come at me with Alice In Chains and Stone Temple Pilots, they are going to have a tough time.

Are you concerned that you may end up losing more audience than you thought possible to the Thunder?

Greg: Certainly a possibility. It could happen. I think WXTB is prepared to lose whatever audience we lose, because as long as it is going to our other radio station, we still have it. I am programming two very separate radio stations, but the sum of the two is going to be greater than the sum of those parts. My simple goal is for every 98 Rock partisan to have Thunder as their second favorite station, and every Thunder partisan to have 98 Rock as their second favorite radio station. I think that is achievable.

Certainly you are aware of how many times things don't go quite according to plan?

Greg: Yeah, I am. But I am also aware of a lot of things that we have been involved in that have gone right according to plan. I can also tell you that a lot of times I will tell my plan to people and they would look at me like I was a fool. Kind of like saying 'We're going to knock 'YNF out of the format.'

Now you're Ops Manager of two radio stations, with a ridiculous amount of stuff to accomplish. Going from one meeting to the next, how do you stay in touch? Don't tell me 'good delegation.'

Greg: No, although good delegation is a part of it. But that is not how I stay in touch. That is how the people I delegate to stay in touch. I have to find time to read industry magazines, though I can't read every one every week. I also have to find time to get on the phone and talk to people to find out what is going on. The easiest way to stay in touch, and the most important group of people to stay in touch with is the 98 Rock core. I do that through daily call out research. I can go back on a daily basis and find out exactly what they are thinking right now about music, and if I ever have any questions about anything perceptually in radio I can stick it in call out and get a really good indicator very quickly.

Are you excluding Classic Rock partisans from your call out at this point?

Greg: For 98 Rock, yes I am. And always have.

How many times do songs need to be played in that market before you can believe the research?

Greg: Depends on the song. I've got a couple of songs on that have been on for several months and aren't testing yet.

THE Hard INTERVIEW

stations that play nothing but type of music. Fortunately, we are a bit broader than that.

Brian has almost become the exclusive music contact person at the radio station. How much juice does he have?

Greg: He has a lot. If he gets a bug up his ass on a record, we'll probably be playing it. He does that occasionally and there are a few of them on the list. He offers quite a bit of input in our music meetings. In fact, he brings in the music that we listen to. I don't take the record calls so I don't know what is out there. I am really only exposed to what he plays for me. Although I am still kind of a music guy myself and I can go and find things, but you can't rely on that being a way to get on the radio station.

Programmers constantly comment that they get 'XTB thrown at them. Who gets thrown at you the most?

Greg: Nobody. I don't listen to alphabet soup because I don't program my station like anybody else. I program my station for my audience and I don't feel anyone has as good of grasp on what my audience wants as I do, because they are not in here looking at the research every day, listening to the phone calls, talking to people on the telephone, and living in the market. Tampa is not like any other market, and what everybody else is doing is irrelevant.

How is your all-request morning show doing? That is quite the unique concept.

Greg: It is a tactic we ventured into five and a half years ago, and it is still working for us. The numbers last trend looked great, a dominant #1 18-34, #1 men 25-54. We are playing a lot of music, having a lot of fun and getting numbers to boot. It's a good concept.

Are you currently consulting anyone?

Greg: No.

Does your Citicasters deal preclude that?

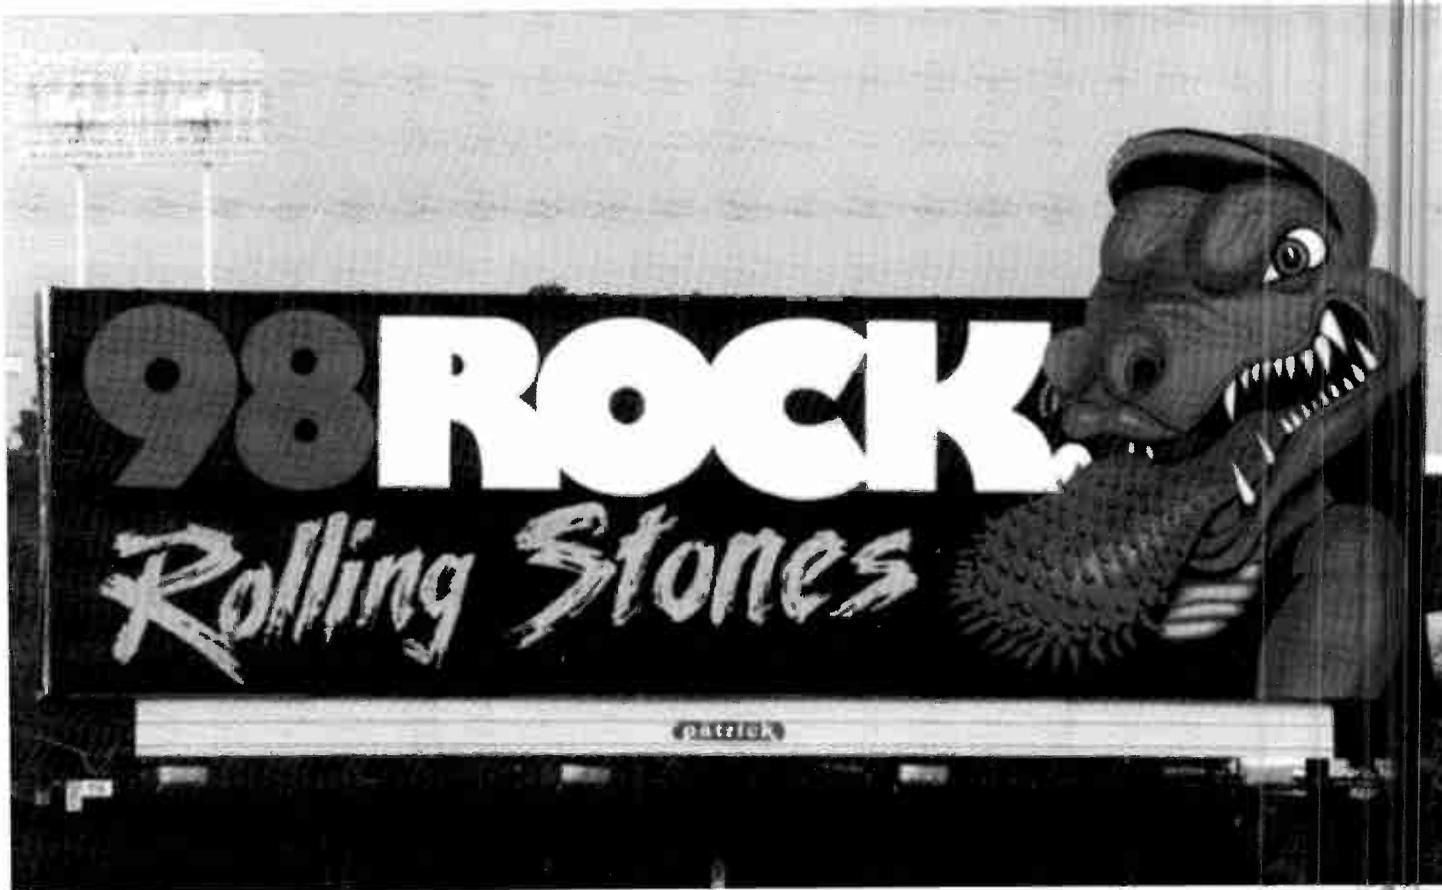

Greg: No, it does not. I've tried it and I don't like telling people my opinions and giving them suggestions, only to have them execute their interpretation of my advice and have it not work. I'm tired of that. I've had that happen at several radio stations, and it has not been fun for me to be involved in something that is not working because the execution is not there. I guess I might be open to it down the line, but it would have to be the right situation.

The Tampa situation is obviously idyllic. You have two major signals, a wonderful climate, national regard out the ass, and, thankfully, good health. Do your plans involve staying there for an indefinite period of time?

Greg: I don't foresee moving out of this area. Not that it couldn't happen for exactly the right situation, but I am hard pressed to think of what that situation would be. There hasn't been anything that I have been pitched on that I have been interested enough to follow up on.

What is it about the Citicasters corporate culture that you find so stimulating?

Greg: They love success. They want to win, whatever the cost and there aren't many companies out there that do. They will back us and support us to the maximum as long as we believe in what we are doing. They may not get every aspect of what we do, but if they understand that we believe in it they will support us 100%. In five and a half years here, there has not been a single thing that I thought was critical to the future success of the radio station that we have not been allowed to do.

Greg: Absolutely, which was intended. A lot of the people who didn't like it would never listen to the radio station anyway. And we would like them to have the perception that we are a bit outrageous. Maybe they will tell their friends and they will listen and appreciate us.

How did you launch the new station?

Greg: We did the direct mail piece to every household with a male 25-54 in our listening area. We just put up a 100% showing of outdoor with our logo on it to let people know we were there. The third thing is we stuck the morning guy in a major intersection with a cardboard sign around his neck that says 'Good job, great life. Have a buck,' and we take five hundred dollars and we have a rubber stamp that says 'Courtesy of Thunder.' He's out there trying to get the old people to roll their windows down to take the dollar.

Whose brilliant idea was it to call the station Thunder so that you could ID the station with the thunder sound effect?

Greg: Dan DiLoreto and myself.

What's going on at the former Power Pig?

Greg: They've been '93.3 FM The New Music Revolution,' for the last three months, a position to which they have been evolving for about a year now. They seem to be settling into a Top 40 presentation, playing the best dance music and the best rock. Those rock songs are the ones that are testing particularly well with young women. I think that is really good for 98 Rock for a couple of reasons. It lends credibility to what we are doing when the music that we are playing is exposed on other radio stations and we've been on and off most of the stuff that they are playing, so it's pretty much already burned out for our audience. A lot of it is teen oriented so they are taking that music, like the Green Days and Offsprings, and they are super-burning it out. Then we don't have to play it anymore, which is good for me. Those are not long term AOR bands and I don't need to be playing them that long.

What has having a sister Classic Rock station enabled you to do programmatically? Have you been adjusted 98 Rock noticeably?

Greg: We haven't really changed 98 Rock because I don't want to screw with something that is doing really well. We believe that both stations can co-exist. We intend to be the rock servicer of Tampa Bay from 18-54. With the strength of two, I think we can move however necessary, depending on the competitive situation, to protect our franchises. You can't really do that with one station. You certainly can't be all things to all people.

Earlier today, a promo person said, 'Hey, why don't you ask Greg why Citicasters chose to go after the upper end and not fill the hole that is wide open for an alternative station in the market.'

Greg: I don't see a wide open hole for an Alternative station in the marketplace. 98 Rock has, and always will, play the best alternative rock available. We will not be playing a lot of female skewing records on 98 Rock, and I think that is potentially the opportunity for an Alternative station. They would have to come in and service very young and be very female oriented, and there is not really a lot I can do about that. But if they come at me with Alice In Chains and Stone Temple Pilots, they are going to have a tough time.

Are you concerned that you may end up losing more audience than you thought possible to the Thunder?

Greg: Certainly a possibility. It could happen. I think WXTB is prepared to lose whatever audience we lose, because as long as it is going to our other radio station, we still have it. I am programming two very separate radio stations, but the sum of the two is going to be greater than the sum of those parts. My simple goal is for every 98 Rock partisan to have Thunder as their second favorite station, and every Thunder partisan to have 98 Rock as their second favorite radio station. I think that is achievable.

Certainly you are aware of how many times things don't go quite according to plan?

Greg: Yeah, I am. But I am also aware of a lot of things that we have been involved in that have gone right according to plan. I can also tell you that a lot of times I will tell my plan to people and they would look at me like I was a fool. Kind of like saying 'We're going to knock 'YNF out of the format.'

Now you're Ops Manager of two radio stations, with a ridiculous amount of stuff to accomplish. Going from one meeting to the next, how do you stay in touch? Don't tell me 'good delegation.'

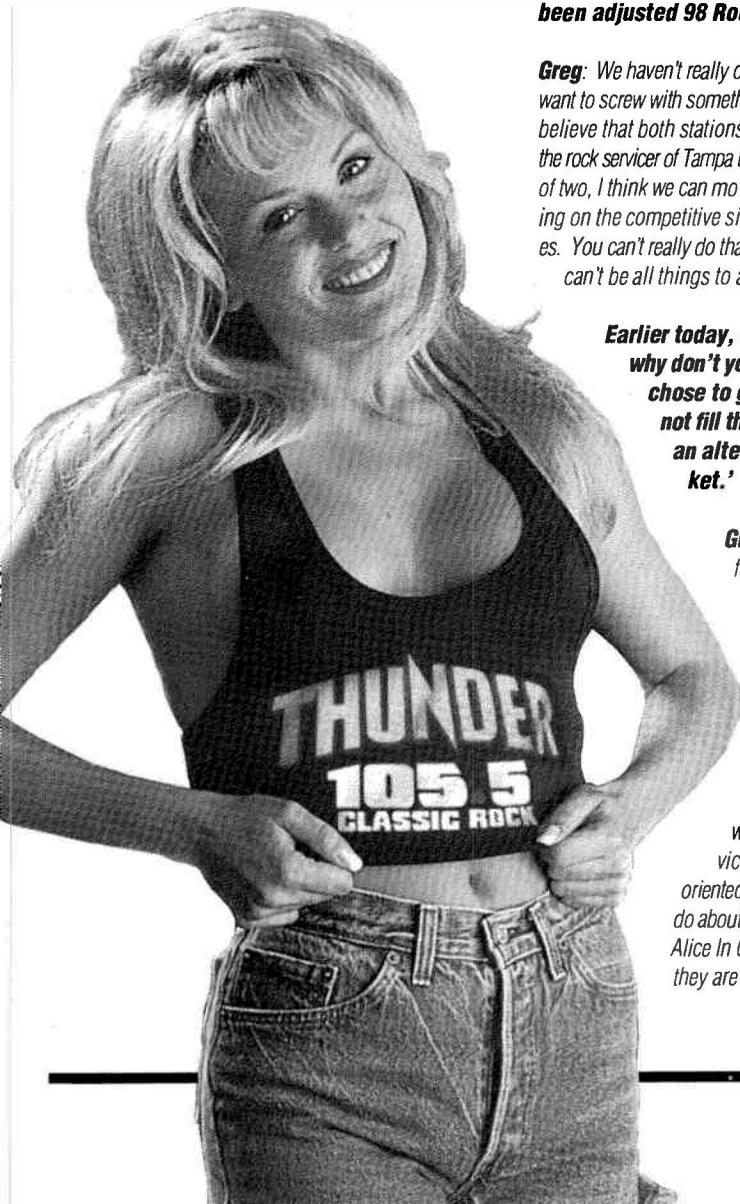

Greg: No, although good delegation is a part of it. But that is not how I stay in touch. That is how the people I delegate to stay in touch. I have to find time to read industry magazines, though I can't read every one every week. I also have to find time to get on the phone and talk to people to find out what is going on. The easiest way to stay in touch, and the most important group of people to stay in touch with is the 98 Rock core. I do that through daily call out research. I can go back on a daily basis and find out exactly what they are thinking right now about music, and if I ever have any questions about anything perceptually in radio I can stick it in call out and get a really good indicator very quickly.

Are you excluding Classic Rock partisans from your call out at this point?

Greg: For 98 Rock, yes I am. And always have.

How many times do songs need to be played in that market before you can believe the research?

Greg: Depends on the song. I've got a couple of songs on that have been on for several months and aren't testing yet.

Still testing unfamiliar?

Greg: Unfamiliar, and the positives aren't where they should be, where I think they could be. There are other songs that tested the first week I put them in call out.

Give me an example of something that you played for a long time and are surprised that it is not testing more familiar.

Greg: Let me give you two examples, and it is more of a time thing than anything. When we started playing 'Alive' in September of 1990, it was a good six months before I got decent call out on it. Last week I put 'Immortality' into call out, and after just several days, it's already testing heavy. There is the same band, but time is the constant. I can tell you right now that we've been testing the Dokken for almost two months, and it looks dirty. But if you look at it over a two month period of time, you can see that it is very slowly, a couple of percentage points a week, getting better. I listened to it, and my initial reaction is this is not going to work. Then I listen to it some more, and I think maybe it will. Maybe this will be the album that will shine through.

How much are you willing to put up with in negatives for a potential positive gain?

Greg: Again, it depends on the song. If I see a song that is pretty negative and I know it doesn't sound like anything else out there. I will let the song have a little bit of time to get familiar. I should immediately start seeing the negatives go down and the positives go up with a little more play. Then there's a song, and I don't want to name names because the song looks to be doing very well on the chart, that I can't play anymore because it was pulling 38% negative, and it only got worse every week. It was a big band and we can't play them anymore.

What is the most negatively testing record that you have long term faith in?

Greg: R.E.M. 'Strange Currencies.' I'm looking at 21% negative on that, but I am also looking at 31% favorite. That is a great initial sign. We are powering the record. It's certainly not testing power, but it will. It will be the biggest performing R.E.M. song for everybody off of this album. Another example is Tom Petty's 'It's Good To Be King.' 22% negative one week, but we stick with it and the next week it is down to 10% negative. Another one that is coming around is White Zombie, obviously a polar record. It started out extremely high negatives. You can guarantee that it wasn't just in the upper end, it was all over. But it was a particular type of person who didn't get them. But we keep playing it, we opened it up to daytime, gave it a little more rotation, and got the negatives down to 12%.

A year and a half ago when we talked, you stated you didn't think Tampa had a large metal or alternative oriented segment. Has that thinking changed at all?

Greg: No, it has not changed at all. Alternative is mainstream, that's why it works.

There was a point in time when 'XTB was perceived as a station that was way ahead of the curve. Has the curve caught up to you or do you like to think that the station continues to stay ahead of the norm, if not the mainstream?

Greg: I think the reason the station works is we stay ahead of the norm. Not too far ahead, though. You have to be just ahead of the wave. We don't program to the industry, we obviously program to Tampa Bay rock listeners. I like the fact that they can feel that they are musically ahead of their friends in other towns, and even MTV. They get exposed to their new music here on 98 Rock. That is a major mission for us, to try and find the next band. We were there before anyone knew who Pearl Jam and Nirvana were, we were banging them, and whoever the next big band is I guarantee we are already banging them now.

Who is the next big band?

Greg: I think that it could be several. I think Monster Magnet has a good shot at it. Bush is obviously on the way, but I think their sound is of a style that we may be getting ready to move away from. I'm impressed with Filter. I don't think there is another track on the Dave Matthews that fits a pure rock station like ours, but the success we had with 'What Would You Say' certainly opens things up for their next album here. Hootie & The Blowfish are already there, which goes to show a band doesn't have to be hard to be the next big thing on 98 Rock. I think Fury In The Slaughterhouse has as good a shot as anyone as being the next Live. We have been on that record already three weeks.

Looking back over the past year, what would you call your biggest success as far as finding a little known wannabe band and making them a big hit?

Greg: Last spring when Throwing Copper came out and no one really knew who it was, we embraced it immediately because we had played stuff from the previous Live album. I don't think anyone at that time thought they would be as big as they are. I certainly don't think anyone thought Hootie would be as big as they are. The Toadies, a band we have been on about a year now, are just now getting ready to explode on a mass level. I think that Interscope is doing a good job finally getting them on Rock radio. That the Toadies are doing so well is a good indication of just how much the programmer mindset has changed over the last year.

Interscope is obviously adept at those long term promo jobs.

Greg: If Dole and Newt will leave them alone, they will do great.

What is your read on the status of metal right now in the marketplace?

Greg: Dead.

What killed it?

Greg: Time. It was a phase and we moved through it. Just like alternative right now is a phase and we are moving through that. It was happening at the time because it was the only thing new and fresh out there. Now it's not the only new thing, and as a matter of fact, people got their fill of it and have moved on.

Do you feel musical limitations played a role?

Greg: Metal's limitations musically? I can't think that it's a function of that, because every genre has talented artists and creative songwriters. I think what stifles creativity is when everyone is trying to go after the same sound, based on the success of the two or three top bands. When the next Metallica record comes out, it will be huge, metal will probably come back in, and will once again be more sound alike releases, none of which will be as successful.

Do you have concern that too much of the music that you are playing is going to wind up to be in the one hit wonder category and that in terms of active powerful library material you are running a little thin these days?

Greg: I say yes to both of those. We are playing a lot of stuff that we won't be using in two or three years. But we are also playing a lot of stuff that we'll use ten years from now.

And even though a number of bands that were big in the late '80s are pretty much over, we'll still play their best tracks. I think Tesla will have library tracks on the air for a while. I think 'Fly To The Angels' will be a song that sticks around for a long time. It still tests great for me. Nothing else from that band, can't play any more of them, but that was truly big hit song.

Certainly you listened to the new album. What were your thoughts?

Greg: My thoughts were that they are still doing the style that worked back then but is not at all in vogue now. And that's fairly major baggage.

You're not finding any of that with Dokken?

Greg: No, I'm not. I found it more with Van Halen than with Dokken.

Really? Explain that.

Greg: I wish I could. My only guess is that Dokken wasn't around during those years where that style of music got beat to death. So Dokken wasn't necessarily perceived as part of that movement. I think more people remember back to '83-'84 when the Dokken records they listened to weren't all over the radio and MTV. Dokken was unique.

You played the Skid Row record, and you played it a bunch.

Greg: It's real easy right now just to play what is testing, and what's testing is alternative sounding. But I think as a Rock station you still have to keep your finger a bit on the pulse because my radio station has the same listeners today as it did 4 or 5 years ago. They liked a different style of music then, and they like a different style now but as library material isn't some of that stuff they liked before still accessible? Those were the hit songs from that period of their life. So you have to give them a shot and I know that when it does swing back around from this alternative mode it is going to be guitar based rock n' roll again, and if we move completely away from that image and turn into the Cranberries/Oasis station we are not going to be very suited to go back into that genre. We are also going to be really vulnerable to another station coming in and doing that against us.

Give me an example of how pop you'll lean.

Greg: Probably 'Live Forever' from Oasis.

Jim McGuinn at the Point in St. Louis recently commented that too many novelty records like Sublime and P.O.L. could wind up really hurting his format. Is that a legit concern for you?

Greg: Not really. I just worry about making sure that every great active record that fits the format is on the radio station. I don't want to put too many on at one time but that opportunity really hasn't ever happened. I do think that what you have to be afraid of is playing too many bands that sound like other bands that have already established themselves in particular genres. I don't ever want to hear another band that sounds like Pearl Jam, yet I am still being fed them.

Do you sense any alternative backlash with your audience?

Greg: Not with my audience, because we have never said the word alternative on the radio station. In this market, Bush and Nirvana and the Toadies are rock n' roll bands, we are a rock n' roll station, we are the source where you hear this music first and most often. I think that there is definitely going to be a backlash to alternative music for Greg: And we're not playing as much anymore.

Did you find that image was a problem?

Greg: To me the song was a good song, so I've got to say that it was either image or an extension of image against style. For some reason I could not get the negatives to go down, in fact, they only went up. I really believed that the Skid Row record was strong and had as a good shot of any of breaking through, and it hasn't yet.

I certainly can't fault you for not giving it the rotation.

THE Hard INTERVIEW

stations that play nothing but type of music. Fortunately, we are a bit broader than that.

Brian has almost become the exclusive music contact person at the radio station. How much juice does he have?

Greg: He has a lot. If he gets a bug up his ass on a record, we'll probably be playing it. He does that occasionally and there are a few of them on the list. He offers quite a bit of input in our music meetings. In fact, he brings in the music that we listen to. I don't take the record calls so I don't know what is out there. I am really only exposed to what he plays for me. Although I am still kind of a music guy myself and I can go and find things, but you can't rely on that being a way to get on the radio station.

Programmers constantly comment that they get 'XTB thrown at them. Who gets thrown at you the most?

Greg: Nobody. I don't listen to alphabet soup because I don't program my station like anybody else. I program my station for my audience and I don't feel anyone has as good of grasp on what my audience wants as I do, because they are not in here looking at the research every day, listening to the phone calls, talking to people on the telephone, and living in the market. Tampa is not like any other market, and what everybody else is doing is irrelevant.

How is your all-request morning show doing? That is quite the unique concept.

Greg: It is a tactic we adventured into five and a half years ago, and it is still working for us. The numbers last trend looked great, a dominant #1 18-34, #1 men 25-54. We are playing a lot of music, having a lot of fun and getting numbers to boot. It's a good concept.

Are you currently consulting anyone?

Greg: No.

Does your Citicasters deal preclude that?

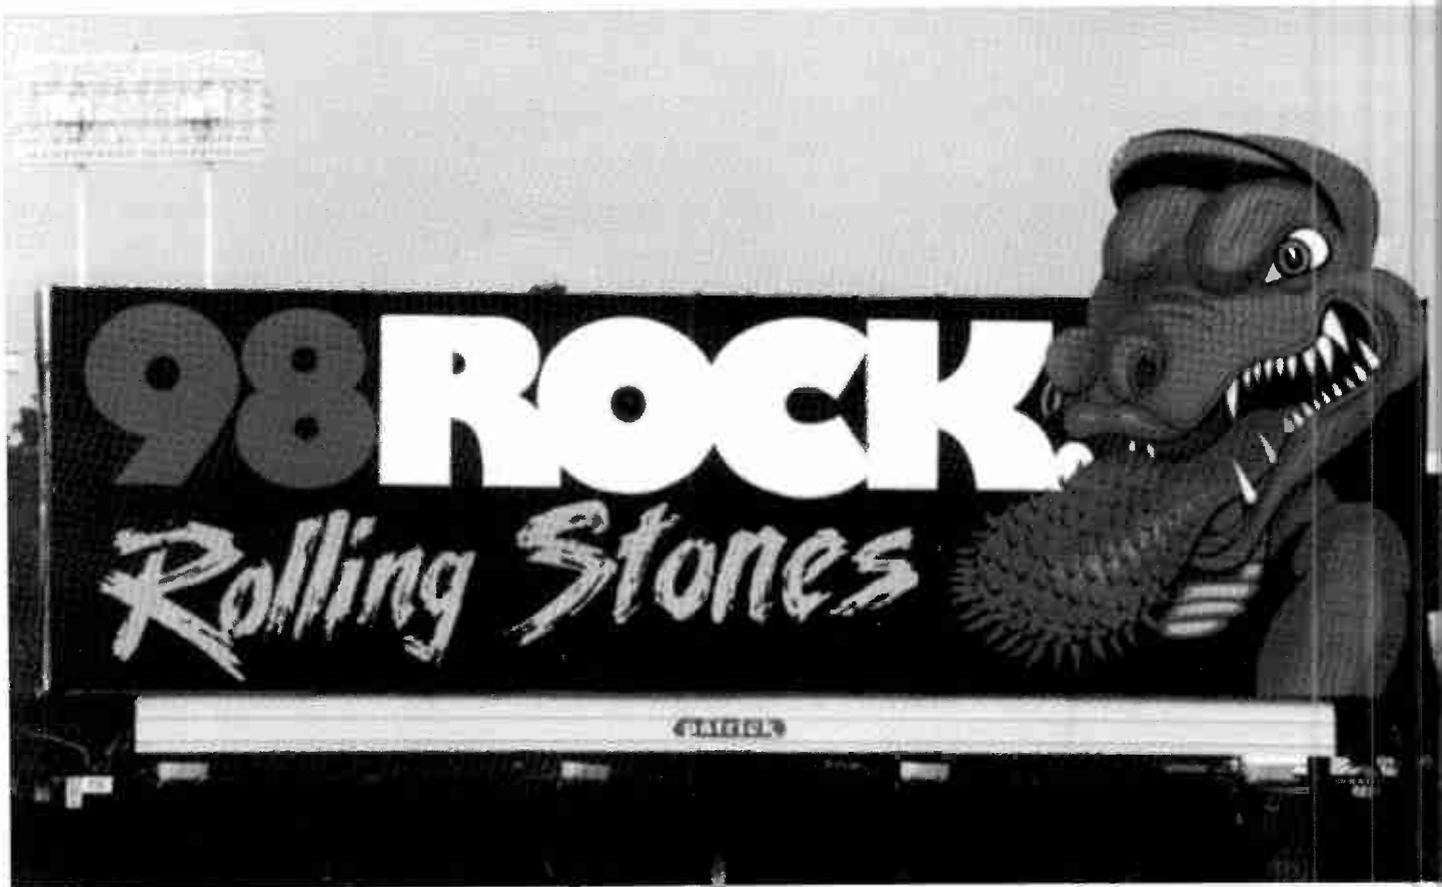

Greg: No, it does not. I've tried it and I don't like telling people my opinions and giving them suggestions, only to have them execute their interpretation of my advice and have it not work. I'm tired of that. I've had that happen at several radio stations, and it has not been fun for me to be involved in something that is not working because the execution is not there. I guess I might be open to it down the line, but it would have to be the right situation.

The Tampa situation is obviously idyllic. You have two major signals, a wonderful climate, national regard out the ass, and, thankfully, good health. Do your plans involve staying there for an indefinite period of time?

Greg: I don't foresee moving out of this area. Not that it couldn't happen for exactly the right situation, but I am hard pressed to think of what that situation would be. There hasn't been anything that I have been pitched on that I have been interested enough to follow up on.

What is it about the Citicasters corporate culture that you find so stimulating?

Greg: They love success. They want to win, whatever the cost and there aren't many companies out there that do. They will back us and support us to the maximum as long as we believe in what we are doing. They may not get every aspect of what we do, but if they understand that, we believe in it they will support us 100%. In five and a half years here, there has not been a single thing that I thought was critical to the future success of the radio station that we have not been allowed to do.

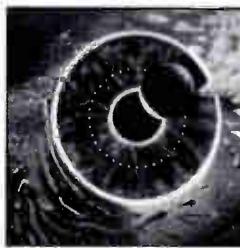

TRIPLE ACE

Van Morrison, "Days Like This," Exile/Polydor My mama told me there'd be days like this, but I just didn't believe her. I can get some relief, though, when I listen to Van Morrison, who has always had a mystical ability to encapsulate the thoughts and feelings of most people into his own unique pop/jazz/blues/soul hybrid. "Days Like This," the title track from the forthcoming album, is classic Van and absolutely perfect for the Triple A format. In fact, with its signature horns, harmonies and harp, and slightly mumbled lyrics, the whole album is a "Perfect Fit." A special treat on the album is Van's duet with daughter Shana on the cover "You Don't Know Me." She has an extraordinary voice, and the two of them together will bring tears to your eyes. Jon Peterson/WCBE, "Van Morrison once again proves that his music is timeless. The hook on 'Days Like This' rings in your head for days, and Van The Man's voice sounds better than ever." Tom Krumm/KLRF, "It is with great pleasure that we are playing new Van Morrison. It is always a treat to have his voice on the air." Greg Roberts/KFMU, "Van Morrison can do no wrong."

THE HOT CORNER

Pink Floyd, "Pulse," Columbia Alright, take away the hype and the fancy pulsating packaging and what are you left with? Easily the best live album to come down the pike in quite some time. Even if you had the opportunity to see Pink Floyd perform during their last tour, you're going to be amazed by how great this legendary band sounds on this two-disc release. They are relentless as they exhibit their musical mastery to the accumulated throngs of mesmerized fans on all the classics — "Money," "Comfortably Numb," "Wish You Were Here," "Hey You," "Another Brick In The Wall" — just to name a few. Steve Cole/KSPN, "If there's anything that could be deemed essential to the typical Triple A listener and to the format, it would be the new double-disc live set from Pink Floyd. Not only are the choice of tunes and performances first rate, but the packaging is as attractive as an audio product can get. You'll want to touch and caress it as you listen. Shoppers, go directly to the flashing red light special!" Greg Roberts/KFMU, "Pulse is wonderful! It proves that, like fine wine, Pink Floyd get better over time. This is one of the best live albums I've ever heard. I saw them perform in Vancouver and this album definitely captures their live show and then some."

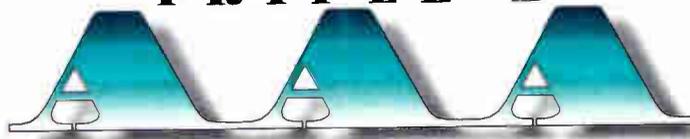

Various Artists, "Batman Forever" Soundtrack, Atlantic Of course, my favorite Batman song is the one from the original (ZONK!!) television series (NRBQ's dead-on cover is unbeatable), but I have to admit (POW!) that this latest offering from the caped crusader is a very close second (HOLY COWPIE!?). In addition to the already certified hit track from U2 (KARAANG%!), we wholeheartedly recommend Seal's "Kiss From A Rose," (THUNK!!!), "The Hunter Gets Captured By The Game" by Massive Attack with Tracey Thorn (ZOWIEPI?), Eddi Reader's "Nobody Lives Without Love" (URMPHGPPP), "Tell Me Now" from Mazzy Star (HUHI!?), and special thumb's up for The Devlins and "Crossing The River" (KARUMBA!!o). Greg Roberts/KFMU, "This has some great surprises on it (THRANK*!), especially the tracks from Massive Attack and The Devlins."

The new album
featuring

"End Of The World"

"Wait Up For Me"

"On their sophomore effort, The Waltons are posed for multi-format success, as many cuts will surely please college, modern rock and Triple A. From slow ballads to uptempo roots rock, songs like 'The Longest Line' and 'Surprise' will sparkle in all dayparts. Modern rock should embrace The Waltons' XTC/Squeeze-like sound on cuts like 'End Of The World'."

- Jon Peterson/WCBE

"The Waltons have added a touch of bouncy, Jellyfish-style pop to great effect on this winning new release. Get up and dance kids, it's the 'End Of The World!'" - Steve Cole/KSPN

"Move over John-Boy and Sue-Ellen, The Waltons are on the Caribbean airwaves. I'm so glad there's a Triple A format for bands like The Waltons...and this is one PD that is happy to have The Waltons available to us. 'End Of The World' sits quite nicely with us."

SINGLE SPOTLIGHT

Phish, "Bouncing Around The Room," Elektra/EEG

Patty Martin/XRT, "Phish is a phenomenon in the city of Chicago, and their fans have been waiting for this live album since the dawn of time, so you better believe we're playing it." Greg Roberts/KFMU, "Watch the phones light up every time you play it. Phish have grown from a minnow to a whale." Steve Cole/KSPN, "Having built their rabid following from adventurous, quirky and tight live performances over the years, it's not surprising that Phish has finally released an "official" live album. 'Bouncing Around The Room' is an infectious first taste, with studio quality sound and close-cropped arrangement. Got to tap those toes to this one." Tom Krumm/KLRF, "The new Phish left me bouncing around the room just like the song."

TRIPLE CROWN

The Jeff Healey Band, "Cover To Cover," Arista

Close your eyes. Now you can see the blues the way Jeff Healey does — with his ears and soul. Not many guitar players are in the same league as Jeff, he is beyond words of accolade. (The guy plays with the guitar in his lap!!) Yes, this is still 1995 — "the year of the remakes" — but Jeff Healey brings such life to these tunes that you completely forget that these are all covers. With his vocals that are reminiscent of Clapton's and his guitar...well, you be the judge...Healey delivers a record with 12 consistent power-punches. Take these on the chin: the guitar player classic "Shades Of Things," "Highway 49" Big Joe Williams," "As The Years Go Passing By," Hendrix's "Angel" and the Zeppelin killer "Communication Breakdown." Believe us, listen to this one Cover To Cover.

Urchins, "Yummy," Alley Cat Music

Aggressive pop with a mischievous edge — the Urchins. Their driving melodic sound is powered by the big guitar of Albie Connelly and the Natalie Merchant-like vocals of Karen Bradbury. Holding down the bottom and an equal part of the deviltries are bassist Andy Gesner and percussionist Dave Reynolds. Check out these tidbits from New Jersey's latest contribution to the music world: "Voodoo Boy," "007," "The Man With The Golden Tongue" — definitely! And "I Woke Up In Love." Oh yeah, play this record or millions of little Urchins will come and trash your studio. Yummy!

The Young Dubliners, "Breathe," Backyard Records

It's not very often that a band can cross two different musical cultures and not have it sound like a high-speed train wreck. Exception to the rule — The Young Dubliners. Their blend of American pop rock and Irish (Celtic) folk music has definitely spawned a monster. The mixture of heavy guitars and drums with violins, mandolins, banjos and Celtic overtones couldn't sound any more natural. With the great songwriting and production on this album, The Young Dubliners can only ascend to unimaginable heights. Inhale these cuts off their Breathe release: "Wash My Hands," "Mary," "Breathe" and "Follow Me Up To Carlow" for a taste of the Emerald Isle.

Dennis Constantine

Broadcast Consultant

Paul Weller

Former Jam leader Paul Weller is back with his third solo album, titled Stanley Road (Go! Disc/London). The single "The Changing Man" reminds me of much of the material on his solo debut album, and brings Weller back to the powerful pop songs he is best at. There are two cuts featuring Steve Winwood on piano, "Woodcutter's Son" and "Pink On White Walls," both of which are standouts on the album. It wasn't until I listened with Winwood in mind that I noticed how much Weller's music sounds like old Traffic at times. Also give an ear to the title track and a great "I Walk On Guided Splinters."

Natalie Merchant

Natalie Merchant's Tigerlily (Elektra) arrived as I was rapping up this week's notes. I was frantically trying to get this to Lisa before her deadline, and was feeling totally stressed out when I put the album in and was immediately transfixed by Natalie's beautiful voice and melodies. I was always a fan of the Maniacs, but this album elevates Merchant to new heights of creativity. From the first sung notes of "San Andreas Fault," my stress dissipated and the music took over. On the first listen, I was also struck by "Wonder," "Where I Go," and "Jealousy."

Vanessa Daou

One of the most intriguing releases of late is Zipless from Vanessa Daou, the first release on Bob Krasnow's new MCA imprint. The music, written by Daou, defies categorization and the lyrics, poems by Erica Jong, will certainly leave an impression. "The Long Tunnel Of Wanting You" is the track that hooked me. It has a great sound, and Daou's voice is seductive beyond belief. It wasn't until the second or third listen that I grasped the song's meaning — make sure you listen closely before putting this one on the air! Others we like are "Sunday Afternoons" and "Near The Black Forest."

Catchers

Catchers are driven by the songwriting of Dale Grundle, who built the present lineup of Catchers around himself and Alice Lemon, a former philosophy student turned pop star. With songs that range from orchestral ballads to guitar-driven pop jangles, Catchers music is striking in its lyrical beauty. Songs most likely to get Progressive airplay are "Beauty No. 3" (which will appear on our fourth New Music Sampler, due out next month), "Cotton Dress," and "Worn Out."

Insiders

Fate In Action (MonsterDisc) from Insiders has been on my desk for a while now, and every time I play it, I like it more. "109" is my favorite track, flavored by mandolin and nice, throaty vocals. "Midnight Moon" is an instantly familiar sounding song. We are also fond of "Another Little Freedom" and "Dumbing Down."

The Young Dubliners

The Young Dubliners have always staked their reputation on their live shows. With the release of Breathe (Backyard/Scotti Bros.), it's clear they have matured as a recording unit as well. The dual Irish and American influences are present, and have fused into a cohesive band sound. "Mary," a great pop song, is the focus track. It is a great place to start, but if you want to experience the more traditional side of the band, check out "Wash My Hands." There is a wealth of good-time music on this album, and if you ever get the chance to see these guys live, by all means do so!

Ziggy Marley

Ziggy Marley & the Melody Makers' latest album is called Free Like We Want 2 B (Elektra). "Power To Move Ya" is the first single. It is an upbeat pop song with just a hint of Reggae influence, but it will sound great on the air as we approach summertime. The title track starts out like a hip-hop song, but settles into a nice Reggae groove. "Today" is an anti-war song that serves as the debut of the Marley sisters Cedella and Sharon as lead singers. There are too many other great songs to mention them all, so focus on "Live It Up," and "Topsy Dazy."

The Police

The Police Live! (A&M) is preceded by a 6-song sampler that should have you salivating for the full release, a two CD set featuring performances recorded in 1979 and 1983. Police fans will go crazy for this album, which is a great complement to last year's box set.

First it was Dar Williams who joined Joan Baez during a taping at NY's Bottom Line for Joan's upcoming live album. Then, when Dar was in San Francisco appearing at The Great American Music Hall, Joan returned the favor and the two wowed the crowd with a performance. After the SF show, the pair stopped to pose for this magic moment.

WVRV/St. Louis PD R.W. "Catfish" Crouch announced that the 6-10am shift will take a new direction and be more compatible with the rest of the radio station. "The River is primarily a progressive rock music radio station and in keeping with our format, we believe our listeners would like to hear more music in the morning," stated Crouch. "We regret J.C. Corcoran will no longer be with the station. We at WVRV appreciate all the work and dedication put into the morning show by J.C. these past two years, however at this time, The River will be taking a new direction." Midday personality/MD Vic Porcelli will take over the morning show duties, together with Tom

Tommy Ridgley Since The Blues Began

Black Top
 Tom Hathaway, Maximum Blues, CIRX-FM94
 Prince George, B.C. Canada

When I first got hooked on radio in the late '50s and early '60s, the airwaves were dominated by New Orleans record labels like Specialty, Minit and Imperial. Every hit by Fats Domino, Ernie K-Doe, Larry Williams and Lloyd Price had that special bounce that made the Crescent City a unique place in the R&B world. So what a pleasant surprise when I cued up Tommy Ridgley's Since The Blues Began and heard those same sounds that made me fall in love with radio in the first place. Tommy Ridgley, born in Shrewsbury, Louisiana in 1925, began his singing career, quite typically, in the church choir. But by 1949, the lure of the blues drew Tommy to New Orleans' Dew Drop Inn, where he worked up the courage to enter their famous talent contest, and won first prize. Legendary New Orleans producer and bandleader, Dave Bartholomew knew a good sound when he heard it and recruited Tommy to be the vocalist in his band. Ridgley scored three regional hits with Dave Bartholomew before forming his own band in 1953. Through the '60s, he would continue to score regional hits with the Atlantic, Decca and Ember record labels, as well as being instrumental in launching the career of New Orleans' Queen Of Soul, Irma Thomas. Inexplicably, he never cracked the national charts, making Tommy Ridgley New Orleans' best kept R&B secret for more than 40 years. Since The Blues Began is a 13 song, 53 minute mix of remakes of Tommy Ridgley's previous hits and new material. Recorded at Ultrasonic Studio in December 1994, and January and February 1995, the sessions feature a host of New Orleans heavyweights backing up Tommy Ridgley including legendary guitarist Snooks Eaglin, George Porter Jr. (The Meters), Ervin Charles Jr. (Fats Domino, Frogman Henry), Mark 'Kaz' Kazamoff on saxophone and past and present Harry Connick Jr. drummers Shannon Powell and Raymond Weber. Bottom Line: Tom Ridgley's Since The Blues Began puts a 1990's face on the most likeable sounds of '60s New Orleans R&B. As a bonus, the mix is very punchy, making Since The Blues Began literally jump off the speakers of an FM broadcast.

Ugly Kid Joe, Menace to Society (Mercury)

It's time to come out and play! The Kids are back and they are ready to create mischief all over the country with their aptly titled Menace to Society. Those California beach bums have worked their way onto playlists and into our hearts with their playful attitude, meaty riffs, and memorable tunes.

Our introduction to this release has thrust metal radio into "Tomorrow's World" from the UKJ point of view, which was a little more somber than we are used to, but it has proved to be successful none the less with top five phones at KIBZ, KEYJ, and WHJY, with increases at seventeen stations this week, all the while climbing up into the Top 15. If you have been a fan of the fun Ugly Kid outlook and funky grooves there is no reason to fret however, for you will find plenty of selections to meet your needs. The twosome of "Intro" and "God" must go together with a brisk rhythm that is set into motion by the punctuating drumming of Shannon Larkin which underlines the emphatic vocals. Another choice is the chunky melody of "Clover", cemented by the precise timing in the way that the instruments work together, like their locked into a groove. On "C.U.S.T.", the Ugly Kids show a bit of their funky side, while the melodic chorus and Whit's compelling croon in "Milkman's Son" will pull you right in. In the playful "Jesus Rode A Harley" the Kids show their tongue in cheek side with cool vocal harmonies and clever lyrics bolstered by the churning guitars. So while UKJ have returned to wreck havoc on any unsuspecting adult types, we can revel in their youthful spark, doubled with their obvious talent, as they set out to cross the country on a national tour in which they will surely try to prove the validity of their album title. They may be a Menace to Sobriety, but Ugly Kid Joe surely are no menace to any radio shows with a taste for rockin' grooves with a metallic edge and a hint of rebellion.

TOP Picks

Speedball, Do Unto Others, Then Split (Energy)

If the summer humidity is beginning to drag you down like a grand piano on your back, then the solution to your problems is simply a dose of Speedball, guaranteed to lift up your spirits. While many bands tend to flock to the mecca of Los Angeles to be "found", this foursome did just the opposite and exited the sunny beaches for the blue collar grit of Detroit. Considering that their love for music is rivaled only by their love for cars, the Motor City was a logical choice for them. The songs on their full debut, Do Unto Others, Then Split, will leave you feeling like you were strapped onto the back of a stock car careening around the track. Kicking off with the hyper speed punked out anti-anthem "All Screwed Up", the high octane pace continues with the bluesy, buoyant jaunt of "Long Dead Gone", and the rebellious grind of "Hog", all this before dropping down a bit to the wrung out groove (with a touch of the Melvins) on "God of Slumber", delivered just before they speed out of the gate again. This fun offering is perfect for driving with a non-stop vitality that will spark even the cloudiest mood.

Malevolent Creation, Eternal (Pavement)

This is one of those death metal bands that always create a stir when they release a record for the sheer power and intensity of their music. Malevolent Creation first erupted back in 1991 on Roadrunner records with their debut "The Ten Commandments", and after three albums, scads of touring, and a variety of line up changes they have now solidified and are set to offer up Eternal for consumption. The entire release is a vicious slashing attack on your senses with frenzied guitar work, bludgeoning percussive, and disemboweling vocals at a seemingly inexhaustible pace, which is sure to put a smile on the face of any true death metal fan. And we know that you're out there, in fact a handful of stations - KRZZ, KWVA, WDCR, WKLL, WNHU, WVBR, and WWSP - couldn't hold out and starting spinning this creation early. They will be kicking off their musical onslaught this summer as part of the infamous decadence at Milwaukee Metalfest and will surely be steamrolling into your town soon, so don't wait any longer to blast out an Eternal statement from Malevolent Creation.

Sam Black Church, Superchrist (Taang!)

While many a band out there is trying their best Green Day imitation, you will find quite the opposite from Sam Black Church. With more of a nod to Black Sabbath than the Sex Pistols, the downtuned dirge found on Superchrist will pummel you with it's might. Whether you lean toward the sonic tempo of "Ninth Circle" or "Sheer Heart Attack", or the go for the more deliberate rhythm of the title track, the soulful yearning vocals will haunt you. In addition to the studio tracks there are some bonus live cuts as a treat to their die hard fans. Whichever you prefer, this Boston based crew (Ben Crandall - guitar; J.R. Roach - drums; Richard Lewis - bass; and Jet - vocals) has been harvesting their following for years (this is their third full offering) with constant touring and a hard-core intensity that their fans have come to expect. True to form, Sam Black Church are back on the road for an East Coast and Midwest jaunt playing with Skrew, Fear, and even headlining many shows. With 28 stations already on board, and increases at WBGU, WGLS, WKNC, WLFR, WNYO, WTSS, WVUD, and WWWU, it looks like it won't take a Superhero to convince Hard Hitters radio to check out Superchrist.

SINGLE Matters

Misery Loves Co., "Need Another One" (Earache)

For the past couple of years the Swedish homeland of Misery Loves Co. has been ruggedly educated as to the power of this brainchild duo. With an EP that raged up the charts and a nomination for a Zeppelin Award (Swedish version of the Grammy), along with the unleashing of their debut LP, it has been an explosive couple of years for the pairing. Just in the past couple of months the American radio masses have been exposed to their sonic fury - which blends a large heaping of angst, sharp edged guitars and electronic samplings that conjure visions of burnt out wastelands. The response has been exuberant, most noticeably with a push up into the Top 10, along with continued airplay at 44 stations including increases at KNDI, WGLS, WKTA, and WSGR. All the more reason to check out the latest single from their self titled release. If the contrast found in "Need Another One" of the smooth baritone croon into a distorted fury that bellows with the subtlety of a megaphone in your ear isn't what you're looking for, then maybe the non-LP track "Honour Code Loyalty" is. Also included are three remixed versions of "Kiss Your Boots" to choose from, ranging from riff heavy to dance-beat heavy. This time around radio has found that these creative Swedes are plenty good company, and we expect to hear their music blasting from aggressive radio speakers throughout the summer!

Sea Of Souls, Feed The Machinery, (Trumpeter Records)

A couple of you have already discovered the spectrum of sounds on the sophomore release from the foursome (Andrew McNeely - bass/vocals; Noel Winslow - guitar; Stu Bryson - guitar; and Bill Adams - drums) known as Sea Of Souls. Honestly, after listening to the eleven track record we wondered what the rest of you were waiting for. The music created is unlike much of the material out today, offering moments of hard driving and fierce musical punishment, then taking a jaunt across to the other end of the spectrum to produce something that is melodic and free flowing. An intensesness emanates from each and every note, demonstrated skillfully among the frolicking guitar licks and looping bass lines. Nearly every song is percussive driven and highlighted by emphatic vocals, but it's the raw and unabashed attitude that makes songs like "Water",

"Criticize" and "Blinded" so appealing. In your search, make sure you find the acoustic version of "Water" hidden at the end of the disc. WKLL and WKNC have given spins to this powerful romp of a record. Dig through your library and discover the textural lure of Sea Of Souls. In the event you has misplaced this musical gem, give Trumpeter's Heather Boswell a call at (804) 455-8454.

Bad Religion, "Incomplete" (Atlantic)

This is one band that simply will not give up. And why should they? With a rock solid fan base in tact from years of development they have plenty of strength on which to build. Couple that with the current popularity of punk music and the inherent credibility that goes along with being granddaddies in that genre and you have a good recipe for success. But the cherry on top comes in the form of the opening slot that Bad Religion has secured on the upcoming Pearl Jam tour that will put them in front of hundreds of thousands of new faces! It is not unreasonable to expect continued support from Hard Hitters for "Incomplete" considering the band has always enjoyed a following at this format, but also keep in mind that this is one of the most up tempo choices on the release. Your show would be "Incomplete" without it!

The Academy in NYC will never be the same, not since Orange 9mm stopped by with their crew from a rambunctious hard-core set opening Ned's Atomic Dustbin. Those pictured include Paul Brown (EEG), Pete Rosenblum (EEG), David Gentile (Orange 9mm), Joel Klaiman (EEG), Jonathan Shapiro (WDRE), Chris Traynor (Orange 9mm), Jessica Harley (EEG), Chaka Malik (Orange 9mm), Matthew Cross (Orange 9mm), Mark Snider (EEG), Matt Pollack (EEG), Julie Maxwell (WRXY) and Lazlo (WDRE).

A release is expected in the first quarter of next year. ☞ Check out the Hard Tour guide for updated KoRn (Epic) tour dates... The final dates of the current Gwen Mars (Hollywood) road trek are June 12th in Costa Mesa, California; June 14th in San Diego, California; and on the 15th in Phoenix, Arizona... A slew of dates have been confirmed on this summer's Reckoning Day North American Tour. Megadeth (Capitol), KoRn (Epic), Flotsam and Jetsam (MCA) and Fear Factory (Roadrunner) are the four bands making up the bill. Look for shows to run at least from a July 12th kick off in Providence, Rhode Island through an August 4th showing in St. Louis, Missouri... Slaughter (CMC International) have added more shows to their current itinerary. Look for them to be out on the road until their June 29th stop in Charlottesville, Virginia... Check out the Hard Tour Guide for more dates on this summer's Queensryche (EMI) and Type O Negative (Roadrunner) double billing. Shows have been confirmed through a July 24th gig at the Garden State Arts Center in Holmdel, New Jersey... Widowmaker (CMC International) are back out on the road for a handful of summer shows. Look for 'em June 23rd (in Mt Vernon, New York) until July 16th (in Providence, Rhode Island). If you want to check out the Queensryche web page it can be reached at <http://www.ios.com-ryche>. The band's fan club address is rychenet@usa.net... Dokken (Columbia) are taking their Dysfunctional record back out on the road with shows running from June 13th until July 13th. Scheduled stops include Jacksonville, Orlando, Charlotte, Baltimore, Pittsburgh, and New York. ☞ Crowbar held down the number one most added record this past week with the release of Time Heals Nothing, now they are ready to take on the task of doing some radio phoners. Interested? To set one up, give Greg Derbas at Pavement Music a call at (708) 916-1155... This week's vital information includes KTOZ/Springfield, KVHS/Concord and WXPL/Fitchburg entering radio limbo. KVHS has gone off the air for the summer. Anyone knowing the whereabouts of Scott McCooe give us a call... Those of you trying to get a hold of Mercury's Brian McEvoy can reach him at (718) 645-7023. No calls after 8pm (EST) - please!... WCDB's Rob Babecki has new office hours. Give him a buzz Monday, Tuesday and Friday from 2-5pm (EST)... Fudge Tunnel (Earache) recently received an award for the Best Hard Music release of 1994 for The Complicated Futility Of Ignorance at the recent NAIRD (National Association Of Independent Record Distributors & Manufacturers) Indie Awards. The band are currently working on their next release, In A Word... Did ya'll hear about Bob Dole's attempt to raise funds and support for his bid for the Republican nomination, and in doing so how he attacked the entertainment industry for what he feels is cultural contamination. Dole apparently mentioned Metal Blade band Cannibal Corpse, along with Natural Born Killers and True Romance, in his comments, then later admitted to never hearing the band's music. Corpse frontman Chris Barnes has his opportunity to respond to the comments made when his response was aired on NBC Nightly News with Tom Brokaw. The statement aired was, "It just seems a little senseless that a candidate for presidency would want to waste his time seeking out the destruction of freedom of speech." Barnes later added, "This is Republican's version of a witch hunt." ☞ Happy Birthday to you, Happy Birthday to you, Happy Birthday dear Jimmy (as in Frederick of WBGU fame), Happy Birthday to you... Thanks to all of those at McGathy for the fun and festivities this past weekend. It was great seeing all of you, and being able to put faces to all of the names. Hope to do it again sometime. ☞ It's trophy time! Go Flyers. Peace. ☞

We just can't seem to get enough of KoRn, and lucky for us the band are on the never ending tour - look for 'em to support Megadeth on their summer extravaganza. It kinda looks like KoRn frontman Jonathan Davis is afraid, very afraid, of those surrounding him. Wouldn't you be a bit leary of AIM's Joe "I'm in a bowling league but don't tell anybody" Mezzacappa and Anya Feldman, WCPE John Bambino, Davis and Holly Mc.

In KoRn snapshot number two, here is guitarist J. Munkey (surrounded by woman of course) showing the effects of an evening of drunken debauchery. The candid shot was taken when the band played in NYC at Coney Island High. Those pictured are Steve Prue, Sally Schmidt, Kelly, Jenni Glenn, Rob Baldwin and the lovely Joanne Grand.

Fight stopped in San Antonio on their recent tour and took the time to take the traditional trade shot. Those pictured are Jennifer Patterson (Jave's wife), Mark Chaussee (Fight), Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Vargas (KISS), and Scott Travis (Fight). In case you haven't seen this tour, you must do so as soon as possible. Our very own Holly Mc is still talking it up - apparently they played the Priest classic "Victims Of Changes" when they stopped by the Limelight this past week.

As reported in the metal news, Dokken are currently traveling the rock road in support of Dysfunctional. Here Don D. and Jeff Pilson flank WSOUer Tim Koenig when the band were in the area a few weeks back turning their New Jersey based fans onto the new album.

Few words can describe the activities snagged by the camera's eye when The Tink made his way backstage at a recent Bile show. We'll let you use your imagination to come up with an appropriate photo caption.

Could this be too far off in the future? We here at the Hard hut think Joanne Grand would make a terrific mom, but unfortunately the little person belongs to Dave Lombardo of Grip Inc. fame.

Juliana Hatfield, "What a Life," Atlantic/Mammoth

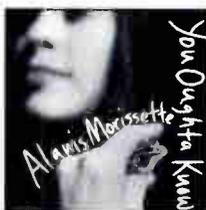

Juliana is one of the celebrated figures in the modern Alternative radio world. With a solid track record on "Universal Heartbeat," the format readily acknowledges her status as a solo artist with serious hit potential. As member of the band the Blake Babies, Hatfield encouraged an alternative-pop sensibility that was heralded as striking and unique for the late '80s, before the dawn of fashionable Alternativeness. Before their time in a commercial sense, the Babies were heralded at the critical level. When Hatfield split from her mates, she turned up the heat in the kitchen. She rekindles the jangly passion of her past band exposures with a more timely mix of crazywaif vocal edge, gut-strength guitar and pure fun on this particular solo album Only Everything. "What a Life" sounds like a winner to us, one which can produce the numbers of its predecessor track in short order. A strong follow-up, no question. Adds at REV 105, WFNX, WPFM and WRLG this week.

Rusty, "Wake Me," TAG/Atlantic/Handsome Boy

Crossing Canadian borders hasn't always insured immediate respect from States-wide radio, but times are changing thanks to bands like Rusty. They've converted industry types over the past couple of months with relentless showcasing. And they've converted KJEE, WHTG, KPOI, KTCL, WMAD, WWDX, WZRH and others out of the box.

99X (15), CIMX (27) and WOXY (14) were already awake. There's nothing tiring about this punkish fervor that's created when Rusty strap into "Wake Me," the lead-off single from their American debut. In fact, what's striking about this group is that while their live show is a real sledgehammer set, the record is focused and radio-friendly enough to entice anyone at the format. The combination of punk excitement and musical discipline indicates strength in present and future numbers from these Canadian indie label stars destined to dismantle boundary walls.

Alanis Morissette, "You Oughta Know," Maverick

Plenty of before-the-box adds led to a huge dose of awareness for this 20-year old with an elder's insight. And in the first official week, Alanis ties for #3 Most Added, and draws a debut position of 32*, with adds this week from 99X, WDST, WEQX, WMAD, WMRQ, WOXY and others.

Chalk it up to an inner confidence on the part of Morissette, who breathes fire with "You Oughta Know," and sports a confessional within these grooves assisted by Dave Navarro, Benmont Tench, Flea and others of note. It's her penchant for honest revelation in the album Jagged Little Pill that will honor even the most jaded consumer with the respect for understanding the universality in true emotions, however raw and unfettered they're expressed. Her delivery of lines is unmatched among the new breed of writers who are rocking with an edge. Ms. Morissette comes to the table clean of hang-ups regarding free expression, with a suitcase full of spiny tales that bare dark cathartic overtones, magnificent lyrical twists, and healing wings.

Ramones, "I Don't Want to Grow Up," Radioactive

Dick Clark might be called the World's Oldest Teenager, but the Ramones can certainly throttle him in an armwrestle for the Least Likely to Grow Up award. If there's any consternation on your part as to the relevance of the punk dynamos on the youth of today, let it be told that the Ramones produced a frenzy practically unmatched during the recent HFStival. The all-ages crowd was boppin' just as hard for the hits like "Rock and Roll High School" and "Rockaway Beach" as they did for anything Primus pulled off. The unison crowd participation shouts of "Hey Ho, Let's Go" probably rolled Bill and Hillary out of their bed (beds?). And this track falls right in step with the aforementioned classics. KROQ, WHFS and WWDX add it this week, going along with WMMS (23). The Ramones are the icons. Their stage show, enormous. While everyone ponders the potential finality to the story, the story continues to be written.

Sinead O'Connor, "Thank You," EMI

The return to the front for O'Connor after such a brutal slaying in the press could be considered a risky venture. And for the past four years, we've seen and heard very little from this artist in the way of personal appearances, or radio airplay. She's back at this again with the release of her latest album Universal Mother, which is dedicated by the artist as a prayer from Ireland. "Thank You" is a healing repetition of subtle melodic graces that play out as a public statement of sorts to the fans who have kept up support over the hiatus. Universal Mother will be snapped up by fans of O'Connor, who will accept her no matter what causes she celebrates.

Cake, "Ruby Sees All," Capricorn

The novelty nature of "Rock and Roll Star" led many to believe that Cake were a novelty band. "Ruby Sees All" shoots that notion right out of the sky. With "Ruby," the heat and texture of the rock and roll idiom is clearly defined, rather than on the lighter-side approach of "Rock and Roll Lifestyle." With the infusion of the edge in "Ruby Sees All" in follow-up to the story of the first single, Cake set forth to prove itself worthy of consideration at every sonic level available at the format. And certainly provide a solid follow-up for those who enjoyed the taste of the "Rock and Roll Lifestyle." WRLG and KTCL added this week before the box, joining 99X early.

Phish, "Bouncing Around the Room," Elektra/EEG

The dope on Phish is that they were one of the top 50 grossing acts in the country, with nearly 600,000 tickets sold last year. And they're embarking on another go-around, expecting to net an additional 250,000 over a 22 show tour, with a second leg of 60 dates coming in the fall. So this track culled from the catalogue of past Phish favorites seems like a perfect contender to showcase the band that cleans house every time they set foot in your city, and their 2 CD set A Live One, which hits stores June 27th. WEQX's Gary Shoenwetter notes that "Phish are huge here. We're definitely adding it," and the Radio One Network also picked up on this one early.

Type O-Negative, "Summer Breeze," Roadrunner

The third droplet from the Bloody Kisses record and follow up to "Christian Woman" and "Black No. 1" is an extremely eerie artistic interpretation of the Seals & Crofts classic. The darky-enchanted vocal arrangement winds its way around the grungy guitar with a tempo that almost sounds like you've got the original playing at half-speed. This one will clearly take two listens or better - the first one, so you can laugh about the idea and the second one to revisit the possibilities inherent in this arrangement. Consider it one of the most adventurous cross-pollinations of yesterday and today ever to make it to CD. Already under the spell are: KUKQ and KXRX.

Mike Watt, "Piss-Bottle Man," Columbia

In this corner - weight unknown, the musical heavyweight, van-travelled punk-extraordinaire Mike Watt. And his proponent for this bout, the smooth vocalist of the Lemonheads Evan Dando. This contest is scheduled for three minutes and fifteen seconds and is to determine who is the real "Piss Bottle Man." With a great hook and powerful back-ups, Watt slugs out another opportunity for increasing the hipness quotient. Plenty of energy here, which relates to the live performance that a steadily increasing number of Alternative fans have witnessed first-hand. And, you'll be joining the likes of KITS, WBRU, 91X, KNDD and WHFS.

making the climb

Jennifer Trynin, "Better Than Nothing," Warner Bros.

With a '60s folk reverence and an edge that rivals Phair and Hatfield, Trynin's air gets better all the time. Debuts at 39* this week, and picks up KPNT, 99X, KOME and WMMS, among others.

Surfing Brides, "Everything's Fine," IRS

Pssst. Over here. This one's a hit. Every week someone new comes along, and WHYY, WKOC and CKEY add it this week. See them in NYC at The Batcave on June 19th.

Garbage, "Vow," Almo Sounds

Expect plenty of music out of Alpert and Moss just like the last label. Garbage is totally berserk at radio, after spinning with buzzed revolutions for some time now. Debuts at 41*.

Moonpools and Caterpillars, "Hear," EastWest/EEG

This one's a hit. Debuts at 49* this week with adds at KTOZ and WENZ to go along with WBCN, WROX, WOXY, KRZQ, WCHZ, REV 105, WWCO, KTCL, KXRX, WDST, WOXY and others.

Natalie Merchant, "Carnival," Elektra/EEG

She's standing tall with this one, and there's no doubt the attention is warranted. It's an amazing track. This record's debuting this week at 29*, running #2 Most Added.

Ned's Atomic Dustbin, "Stuck," WORK

This slick example of British sound texture is picking up more stations this week, including the Edge's in Dallas, Phoenix and Hawaii, along with WXRT.

Jewel captivates the crowd at the Big Night Out.

This past weekend, while a lot of you were pounding 'em down at McGathy, I took it to the road and hooked up with WMRQ/Hartford, Connecticut's first commercial Alternative outlet which, at present time, is a scant 9 months old. In such infancy, it was intriguing to find out that they were throwing a bash of their own in New Britain, at The Sting, featuring heavyweight acts like Bush, Letters To Cleo, Wax, Jewel, Jill Sobule, Eve's Plumb, and the debut U.S. show for the Catherine Wheel tour. And when I called Promotions Director Jason Steinberg to get some passes, he told me about the bus trip they were planning to the HFStival immediately after the show, with contest winners and station personnel. And, yes, there was an extra seat. I was planning to attend the HFStival, anyway. So I weighed the options - Sub sandwich, drinks, radio talk and plenty of laughter in the bus. Peanuts, business dudes, little or no relatable conversation and bad coffee on a plane. And besides, flights, as a general rule, should be unmemorable. I remember two or three out of the dozens I've taken. One Christmas, for instance, when the plane banked nearly 90 degrees to dodge some incidental LaGuardia traffic on the way to the landing strip. I remember that. Memorability potential was certainly on the side of The Bus Trip. So Friday I fled to New England, and got to the venue in daylight, to find the station's afternoon driver Kev doing his show amidst a long line of showgoers waiting for doors to open. By the start of Jewel's intro set, the room was 3/4 full, with a long line yet to enter. Out of the box, it was apparent that the event was going to be a home run in terms of attendance. Jewel was probably the surprise of the night for me. Here's this little woman behind an acoustic guitar, perched in front of stacks of Marshalls, drum kits and other pre-staged band gear. With the slightest edge she began to sing and play tunes from her record, slowly enticing the rock-ready crowd out of their ongoing conversations. When she was done, she had complete control of the room. All of the acts played well, but Catherine Wheel was transcendent. Acting MD/Night Goddess Gina Crash provocatively interviewed Rob Dickinson before the show, and culled some very important details: 1. This was the Wheel's first performance in 18 months. 2. They were going to play on rental gear. Handicaps? Forget about it. They were really extraordinary. You couldn't help but consider how ready this band is for arena exposure. Their set was a magical mixture of nerves, restlessness, intense stage command, transfixed crowd, and superior songs. Oh, and Mercury's National Alternative Promo Domo Michael Idlis stage dived during "Waydown." We set off around 2:30 a.m. for Washington DC, with the Wheel's set invading our conversations for many miles down the road. Got to DC at about 9:30 a.m., and to the hotel for a shower, then back to RFK where I hooked back up with John Knapp, Jason and others. We met up with Robert Benjamin of WHFS, who took us through the lower trenches of RFK to the backstage catering area. And kindly pointed out some sites along the way, such as the framed photo of Marion Barry and Michael Jackson shaking hands which was hanging outside the elevator. We hung with the artists who were coming to and from the stage, watching the closed-circuit TV of the early bands while we tested the fabulous spread of healthy food and drink. Everyone was very cool from WHFS. And this was an immense event - everyone was pitching in on some level. It was too Big Time for words. On to the arena, to take in the vibe. The threat of rain was fairly well-established by the night before, and it held off until General Public's set, when a light rain began just as they kicked into "Rainy Days." That squall passed very quickly, with a new band of storms trekking in behind it, an imminent threat to the event. So while the clouds moved in, Primus and PJ Harvey finished their sets on the main stage. Then the skies opened up, the lightning flashed, and the throng of thousands on the field split into three groups: Those Who Fled For The Eaves, Those Who Covered Up And Stayed Put, and Those Who Didn't Give A Shit. The latter group holding the most members. And as the rain fell, WHFS' Rob Timm conveyed the news from the stage that the show would be delayed, but not cancelled. During the rainstorm, the music on the PA appropriately changed ("Red Rain", etc.), and humorous messages flashed across the RFK scoreboard ("That's not rain, those are people who couldn't get in pissing on you!" et. al.). Turns out, WHFS Promotions Guru Bill Glasser produced the music and the rest of it earlier in the week, and called up to the scorebox via walkie-talkie to start the series, and rolled the tunes from the soundboard. And with the theatrical introductions, the image ID's thrown in around the tunes between bands, and other items, it appeared that WHFS thought of just about everything on that Saturday in June. Band highlights included Bush, who were far more energized and compelling at HFStival than they were the night before, The Ramones (huge stage set, with smoke and lights, the whole bit), and Soul Asylum. Dave Pirner is a helluva performer. And sported a major tude from the stage. There was a bit of a ruckus backstage between Winona Ryder and Les Claypool of Primus just before the Soul Asylum show (...ahh. "Wynonna's Big Brown Beaver"?) in reaction to some on-air comments made during Ryder's HFS interview the previous morning. And that apparently led to Pirner's mood. Glasser reported that Mr. Pirner was very amiable during pre-show meet and greet sessions with contest winners and such. Soul Asylum's set was blistering hot, and Pirner's ferociousness was a major part of the story. So if a little misery breeds this level of show, I don't see a problem. Anyway, I had a ball, and it was due in significant part to the cool people I partied with, including Gina Crash, John Knapp, Jason Steinberg, Kev, Jake, Dan, Randy, and everyone at WMRQ, AQ, Rob Timm, Robert Benjamin, Jackie Webber and everyone at WHFS, Jay Schultz, Al Pellegrino and others at Liberty Broadcasting, Stu Bergen, Michael Idlis, Gerry Thompson, Barry Lyons, Tom Kenney, Kevan Rabat, Andrea Miller, and others of record company note. It was a pleasure... Beginning at 6 p.m. PT on Monday 6/12, The Jesus Lizard will inhabit the Lollapalooza Internet Site. On Wednesday, same time, Mighty Mighty Bosstones are on-line. The password is <http://loollapalooza.com/meoia>, as it's media exclusive for the first half-hour. Then it's open to everyone.

MOVES

As of 1 p.m. Monday, WSHE flipped formats to Alternative, operating under the consultancy of SBR, joining KXPK in their Rock Alternative department. This, on the heels of WZTA's new management team of Gregg Steele and Heidi Hess, should make for some explosive new radio growth in South Florida. Just think, even 3 years ago many new rock bands couldn't get arrested much less aired in the Sunshine State... The Jon Stewart Show has been cancelled, and the last show will be on 6/23. Paramount is locking for a buyer, evidently. For those of us here who've actually seen the show (it gets relegated to abysmal early a.m. time slots in many markets), we can attest that Jon is a real talented guy, and with station commitment and/or a little stronger network promotional push, this show is money in the bank for Alternative/Modern Rock lifegroup target audience appeal, to be sure. Contact Executive Producer Barry Secunda at 212-807-5335 for questions... In Austin, KROX makes its debut under the PD guidance of former WROX/Norfolk MD Sara Trexler and former WROX APD L.A. Lloyd Hocutt. They've got 100kw, and are duoped with KGSR. Playlists coming once the plants are hung. The address is 505 Barton Springs Rd, Suite 700, Austin, TX 78704. Phone 512-472-1071, fax 512-478-5100... KPNT announces the addition of morning show contributory employment for Production Director Jeff Burton, and the hiring of WZZQ/Terre Haute Production man Jude Corbett as Creative Services Director.

A university student has been charged with assault for allegedly throwing a can at Divinyls lead singer Christina Amphlett during a concert at a Sydney, Australia, club. The student has been released on bail and is slated to appear in a local court on June 28. The band left the stage briefly after Amphlett was struck by the can near her right eye, however the Divinyls' set continued a short time later.

The Rolling Stones and the Pretenders have recorded acoustic albums for MTV's "Unplugged" series. The Stones played two club dates on May 25 and 26 at the Club Paradiso in Amsterdam, the Netherlands, as warm-up shows for the European leg of their world tour. The sets included many of their best-known songs and a version of Bob Dylan's "Like A Rolling Stone." The Stones' "Unplugged" album will be released in October, around the same time as the release of the Pretenders' acoustic album, which was recorded in London last week.

The Four Tops and Boyz II Men have planmited a time capsule underneath what will become the Motown Cafe on 57th Street in New York City. The time capsule is to be opened on January 12, 2059, the 100th anniversary of the founding of Motown Records in Detroit. It includes a harmonica from Stevie Wonder and 45s of Smokey Robinson & The Miracles' "Shop Around" and the Temptations' "My Girl."

Former Alabama Governor George Wallace says Elvis Presley once called him and talked about killing Arthur Bremer, the Wisconsin man who was convicted of shooting Wallace in Laurel, Maryland. Wallace says Presley called him from Atlanta after the shooting, which left Wallace paralyzed from the waist down. "He said, 'I'm going up there and kill that SOB,'" Wallace says. "He was drinking or under the influence of something, dope or whiskey one."

Deep Purple have reformed for a tour with former Dixie Dregs guitarist Steve Morse in the line-up.

Chris Isaak says he regrets dwelling on a break-up with his three-year girlfriend on his album "Forever Blue." "A lot of things seem like a good idea, when you're at your house and it's four o'clock and you go: 'This would be a good thing to put there.' Then when they ask you about it on television it's like later on you think, 'Well, maybe this wasn't a good idea.'" The liner notes even include a letter to his ex-girlfriend that he never sent her. "Do you sleep with somebody else now?" Isaak writes. At least, he says, "I left her name out of it."

Bond has been set at $150,000 for the man who was shot after he jumped a fence to enter the grounds of Madonna's Hollywood Hills estate. Robert Dewey Hoskins has pleaded innocent to one count of stalking and two counts of making terroristic threats. Police say Hoskins was shot in the arm and hip after entering the compound. He's allegedly threatened to kill Madonna if she refuses to marry him. Hoskins appeared in a wheelchair in Los Angeles Municipal Court, where a preliminary hearing has been set for June 14. If convicted of all charges, Hoskins could be sentenced to five years in prison. Police say that before Hoskins was arrested, he'd gone swimming in her pool, and was carrying a small wooden heart that said "Love to my wife Madhna," with her name misspelled.

Phil Rudd has rejoined AC/DC as drummer.

REM have written over a half-dozen songs for their new album, which the band hopes to finish by the time it ends its "Monster" tour. "It's going to be pretty chaotic and wild," says guitarist Peter Buck. "We're going to try to record them during the tour, on stage, during soundchecks, maybe in dressing rooms, maybe even jump into a studio one afternoon with local musicians and knock something out. We'll just try to pull something together in the most creative and interesting way."

After his much-hyped quarrel with his record label, Prince releases the album "The Gold Experience" in September (on Warner Brothers Records). An album by his band, the New Power Generation, called "Exodus," is being released this month.

"I'll Be There For You" by the Rembrandts has been added to the band's new album "LP" because of its success from the television comedy "Friends."

When asked about the success of "I Kissed A Girl," Jill Sobule says it's "kind of a mixed blessing." "A lot of people can relate to that, because it's not about, 'Hey, having a lesbian affair,'" she says. "It's about the relationship between the two women, but what I like about it is, it's a modern twist on a classic madcap comedy, a 'Love American Style' thing where the husband calls up and says, 'Oh, I'm glad you're with your girlfriend. Tell her hi for me.' I love the intrigue and the comedy of errors. And I love the music I put with it, because of all the songs on the record, that's kind of the dumbest, musically. It's 'dumb as a box of hammers,'" she says, using a line from the song. And, has Sobule ever kissed a girl? "What do you think?" she replies.

Billy Joel played two benefit concerts in Nuremberg as part of events in the German city marking the 50th anniversary of the end of World War II. "Now that it's 50 years since the end of the war, it's time to try and fix things," Joel told the 1,500 people who attended the show. "The only way to fix what is broken is to talk, and we are doing that here," he said in response to questions from the audience. "Now we know each other a lot better. Maybe music helps."

A judge in Dayton, Ohio, has agreed to let Kelley Deal of the Breeders undergo drug rehabilitation after she pleaded guilty to signing for delivery of a package containing over three grams of heroin at her home in November. Judge Walter Porter granted Deal's request to continue drug rehabilitation at the Hazelden Foundation in Center City, Minnesota. If she completes the treatment, her guilty plea will not be part of her criminal record. If tried, she could have been fined $2,500 and sentenced to up to 18 months in prison.

Sonny Landreth says moving to Lafayette, Louisiana, when he was seven years old turned out to be a "pivotal moment." Landreth, who was born in Brandon, Mississippi, says he discovered the Cajun, Creole and blues music of the region. "The music is thick down there, so I was exposed to wonderful music on a daily basis. The spirit and sound of that music is what inspired me to learn to play guitar. And when I picked up the guitar, I found my voice," he says. "I have since thanked my father countless times for moving." Landreth says his second solo album, "South Of I-10," was intended to "establish a strong sense of place." "I wanted to capture the mood and the musical diversity of the region, but do so in a personal way. To that end, it was very important to me to develop stories within the song."

London's Financial Times newspaper reports that George Michael and his record company are about to reach an agreement that will let Michael record for another label. The report said the company (Sony Corporation) has been talking with other labels who want to sign Michael. The former Wham! U.K. member who has refused to record any new material for his label, claiming his contract is oppressive. The Financial Times says a deal could be announced within a few weeks. The report says the new label would pay "a substantial sum" to Michael's current label and would permit the former label to release a greatest hits album. "Sony is anxious to extract the highest possible price for relinquishing Mr Michael's contract," said the newspaper's front-page story. "However, its negotiating position is complicated by concern that the singer's market value will diminish the longer he goes without recording new material."

SST Records owner Greg Ginn, who sued Negativland over a book it published about sampling, has won the legal rights to sample all of Negativland's work. He's planning a project called "Positivland."

The debut albums by Randy Newman and Ry Cooder and the Everly Brothers' "Roots" album have been re-released, a year after the producer of the LPs stepped down as president of Warner Brothers Records. "Obviously those are records I'm incredibly proud of," says Lenny Waronker. "I always felt that those records are like little films that have lasted for years. Maybe they have never been particularly successful, but they are the real thing. When you're dealing with artistry like that — and maybe this has something to do with how I think — you can't really go wrong....I have always been dedicated to quality and understanding the artist and the artistic vision. Those really are the most important issues, as opposed to sales. And Warner Bros. certainly was about that — a company really dedicated to artists — and it wasn't just talk."

A spokeswoman for the Rolling Stones says the band has turned down the chance to write and perform the theme song for the next James Bond film, "Goldeneye."

Aimee Mann's next album will be called "I'm With Stupid," but no release date has been set.

The owner of the Compact Disc Warehouse in Pasadena, California, has filed a lawsuit against the six major U.S. record companies, claiming they have conspired to keep the prices of compact discs artificially high. Philip Hockwald's class-action lawsuit says CD prices should have declined in recent years as the costs of production dropped and sales volumes increased. The lawsuit asks for triple damages on behalf of all retail outlets who have purchased CDs directly from the six major distributors.

Hootie & The Blowfish have covered Roy Orbison's "Drean Girl" for the soundtrack to Quentin Tarantino's upcoming film, "White Man's Burden," which will star John Travolta. Raleigh, North Carolina, duo the Walker Sisters sing backing vocals on the track, which will be included on the soundtrack album coming out this fall (on Atlantic Records).

Chapel Hill, North Carolina, band June will soon begin recording an album for release early next year (on Beggars Banquet Records).

Michael Nesmith, formerly of the Monkees, is releasing a book and CD both called "The Garden." Nesmith says the two are intended to be experienced at the same time, and he likens them to Disney films like "Fantasia" which combined "music and visual representation that soared to great heights." Nesmith says he's trying to do something other than a music video. "The trouble with music videos is they don't understand the mutual meaning of the visual and the musical. The effects are unmotivated and gratuitous confetti," he says.

A New York judge has scuttled a plagiarism lawsuit filed against Gloria Estefan by New York salsa pianist and singer Eddie Palmieri, who had claimed that her 1989 song "Oye Mi Canto" took its chorus from one of his earlier recordings. Estefan and her attorneys say Palmieri dropped the lawsuit after an investigation found the tune is rooted in traditional Afro-Caribbean folk music. Estefan's attorneys say the judge found insufficient evidence to proceed with the case.

Richard Thompson and Roger McGuinn played a concert recently in Boston to benefit the Women's Community Cancer Project in Cambridge. Thompson is working on a solo album this summer. He's also working on a concept album with Danny Thompson (no relation) based on Britain's industrial heritage. "Some songs will be hysterical because we're trying to avoid nostalgia," he says.

Nitzer Ebb begins a tour June 20 in Buffalo, New York, in support of a new album called "Big Hit." A month of concert dates have been announced — the first US shows the band has played in three years.

Herbie Hancock is celebrating his 31st year in the record business with a new album called "Dis Is Da Drum." "I have available to me all of the tools of my musical experience," he says. "The idea for 'Dis Is Da Drum' was to combine those tools with elements of today's sound to create music people can dance to without sacrificing the art." The LP includes a rap track with Will Rock of the Boo-Yaa T.R.I.B.E. "The idea was to take African street sounds and combine them with hip-hop dance rhythms," Hancock says. "I wasn't concerned about jazz — that's just one of the tools. This is not a jazz album, and it wasn't supposed to be even though I have to admit it sounds more like one than I originally intended. I'd call it a dance album with jazz elements. There's music for people over 35 and beats for people under 35."

Gene Pitney has released his first album in 20 years and is touring Britain this month.

As they wrap up the first leg of a 52-city tour, Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers have announced details of the second part, which will begin in Salt Lake City, Utah, on August 10 and will last two months. Some of the dates will be in cities where Petty has already performed this year. The band will again work with USA Harvest, an all-volunteer food distribution group, to collect cans of food for distribution to the hungry and homeless. Greenpeace will also have a presence at concerts on the tour, and the National Veterans Foundation will be able to auction off front row tickets to every concert. Pete Droge will again open for Petty.

Musician magazine has published an issue devoted to "20 Years of Punk Rock," which includes interviews with Paul Weller of the Jam and Billy Joe of Green Day, who talks about growing up in a Berkeley, California, warehouse. "Half the house would be up on LSD, another part of the house would be up reading and another part of the house would be drinking all night. Then it was 'All right everybody! Three o'clock in the morning basketball! Everybody go!' And we wouldn't really get to choosing teams. We'd just start throwing it all over the place until something got broken."

Bonnie Raitt donated over 200 of the best seats to a Boston concert to the group Stop Handgun Violence. The tickets were sold for $250 each to help the group and buyers got dinner and a backstage meeting with Raitt. "We proposed this to her and she responded to it," says promoter Don Law. "There are more kids killed by handguns than by all other natural causes combined."

Ringo Starr has been rehearsing in Vancouver, British Columbia, for a world tour that begins in Japan. Starr's band includes Felix Cavaliere of the Rascals, John Entwistle of the Who, Billy Preston, Mark Farner of Grand Funk Railroad and Randy Bachman of Bachman-Turner Overdrive. Starr, who hasn't had a hit record in over 20 years and is now in his mid-50s, has scheduled a 45-date tour across America. Ringo's son, Zak Starkey, will play drums as part of the All-Starr Band. The U.S. tour will run from July 2 to September 3. Band members will travel throughout America on two buses — one for smokers, one for non-smokers. Apparently, Starr gave up cigarettes four years ago.

Canadian singer Jann Arden has launched a North American tour in Seattle in support of her "Living Under June" album which features a duet with Jackson Browne.

Brian O'Neal, formerly of the Bus Boys, has formed a new band called Black Bart. "I was aware it wasn't going to be an extension of the Bus Boys," O'Neal says. "That was fine with me." The Bus Boys broke up in 1990, ten years after the release of their debut album. The band also appeared in the film "48 Hours" with Eddie Murphy.

A new series of albums will look at Motown Records on a chronological basis. The first six albums of "Motown Year-By-Year: The Sound of Young America," are just out and feature the years 1964, 1968, 1973, 1976, 1980 and 1985. Plans are to release an album for every year from the early 1960s to the present.

The Stone Roses canceled plans for the next two months after guitarist John Squire injured himself in a bicycle accident. Squire broke his collarbone and shoulderblade and suffered cuts when he fell off his mountain bike near San Francisco. Doctors say it will take him six to eight weeks to recover. The band had just finished an 11-show North American tour and was about to begin a 10-date tour of Japan when the announcement was made. The band was also slated to play the Glastonbury Festival in Britain later this month, followed by additional dates in the U.S. and Britain. Those dates are expected to be rescheduled for later this year. Squire's injury wasn't the first the band had suffered while in California. Bass player Gary Mounfield played a few concerts with one of his fingers in a splint because of an injury he sustained in Los Angeles.

Curtis Salgado, formerly of Roomful Of Blues, will be the lead singer for Santana as it tours this summer.

A Tennessee housepainter stands to gain as much as $150,000 in royalties because one of his songs was featured on the "Beatles At The BBC" album released last year. Kent Westberry, a former rhythm guitarist in Carl Perkins' band, wrote "Love In The Hot Afternoon" which was a hit for Ann-Margret and Gene Watson. Elvis Presley was set to record it at the time of his death. Westberry, the musical director for the "Always, Patsy Cline" traveling stage show, also plays with his own band but paints houses and hangs wallpaper to earn extra money. While he still earns royalties from songs he wrote for Sammy Davis Jr., Del Reeves and Mel Tillis, Westberry stands to reap even greater rewards because of the "BBC" album. "They tell me now from all reports it's just under 10 million worldwide, and I'm figuring somewhere between $100,000 and $150,000 would be my portion of it," he says. If "I Just Don't Understand" is released as a Beatles single, Westberry says he could earn as much as $1 million. "It was a hit by Ann-Margret in 1961, and I guess they learned it from her version," Westberry says. "This was before they hit and they went and did those live BBC things and they happened to do it on the show and they had those tapes."

Plans have been announced for an all-star concert Labor Day weekend to celebrate the grand opening of the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in Cleveland, Ohio. The line-up for the September 2 show at the Cleveland Municipal Stadium will include the Allman Brothers Band, Chuck Berry, Dr. Dre, Snoop Doggy Dogg, Aretha Franklin, Al Green, Jon Bon Jovi and Richie Sambora of Bon Jovi, Little Richard, Martha & The Vandellas, John Mellencamp, the Pretenders, Prince, Soul Asylum and Bruce Springsteen. Ticket prices start at $30 and there are plans for a worldwide television broadcast. "Each set will feature unique pairings of artists performing each other's legendary work," says Rock & Roll Hall of Fame Foundation vice-chairman Jann Wenner. The $92 million museum is scheduled to open on September 1, and there's a report a second concert may be scheduled on Sunday, September 3.

The tape recorder Sam Phillips used in his Memphis studio to record Elvis Presley's first release — "That's All Right" b/w "Blue Moon Of Kentucky" — is headed for the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame & Museum in Cleveland. Phillips says the deck will be part of a display of his Memphis Recording Service studio, along with an RCA control board, homemade speaker, cabinet and the needle lathe used to cut acetate masters. "They'll be duplicating the control room exactly, then they're going to duplicate part of the actual studio." The machine's been at a small radio station (WLIZ-AM) in Lake Worth, Florida, which Phillips built in 1959 using proceeds from the $35,000 he made by selling Presley's recording rights to RCA Victor. The station, which went from country to Christian in 1975, aired daily 15-minute tributes to Presley called "Memories Of Elvis" through 1990. Some of the Christian station's listeners questioned whether "Jailhouse Rock" and "Heartbreak Hotel" were appropriate. "If you confuse Elvis Presley with Jesus Christ, you're in real trouble," Phillips says.

Medicine have finished working on their new album, "Her Highness," which is scheduled for release in August (on American Recordings). The LP was produced by Eddy Offord and Brad Laner and features new bass player Justin Meldal-Johnsen.

The Allman Brothers Band launches the second leg of its 1995 tour at the end of June in Concord, California. Dates are scheduled through mid-September, as the band continues concerts in support of the "2nd Set" live album. Earlier this year, the band played five sold-out shows at the Tower Theater in Philadelphia and six sold-out concerts at Radio City Music Hall in New York City.

The Benedictine Monks of the Santo Domingo de Silos monastery in Spain have a new album out, which has already gone top ten on the classical albums chart. Last year's "Chant" album, which used recordings that were two decades old, sold over six million copies worldwide. A representative of the monks say they "hardly received a penny from the chart success" of "Chant," and chose to go with a different record label for the new recording. Proceeds from "The Soul Of Chant" will be used to restore Benedictine monasteries and help Benedictine nuns.

Queensryche have already written songs for a new album, even though they're not playing any of those tunes on the current high-tech "NASA" tour in support of the LP "Promised Land." "We've got a bunch of songs worked out," says drummer Scott Rockenfield. "We're trying to get a quick turnaround. We don't want to spend another two years between records, or four years." The band's hoping to release its new album in 1996. Rockenfield also plays drums on "Bridge Of Dreams," an instrumental album by Seattle musicians Paul Speer and David Lanx. "It's actually the first time that any one in Queensryche has ever done anything outside the band," Rockenfield says. "But it was good for me. We've worked for so long together in Queensryche we can do it with our eyes closed. It was a challenge for me to try something else."

Ian Anderson of Jethro Tull has released an instrumental album called "Divinities," which was suggested by his record label's classical division. "This record seemed like the least likely thing for me to do," he says. "I had thought of making a blues album or a low-key acoustic album. Then EMI came to me with a request from their classical division in London. They persuaded me to do this, thinking it would get into that mysterious area known as 'crossover music.' It was a risk to take and we didn't expect much more than to cover its cost." As well as featuring Anderson on flute, Jethro Tull keyboardist Andrew Giddings plays synthesizer. Anderson says there will be a new Jethro Tull album out late this summer.

Lead singer Mike Score has reformed A Flock Of Seagulls, nine years after the group broke up. The band has released an album called "The Light At The End Of The World" (on Big Shot Records). Score says he didn't feel in control when the band had a hit with "I Ran." "When you're 20, you don't know what you're doing," he says. "It was a blur. My mind and body are two separate things. I used to watch myself and think, 'I would never have a hairdo like that.'" Score now lives in Orlando, after spending time building boats in Philadelphia.

Drummer Robin Goodridge says members of Bush used to paint houses to earn money, thinning out their paint so they could save money for their equipment. Goodridge says he also used the ice cream truck he drove during the day to transport the band's gear to British shows.

The Beatles' forthcoming documentary series has sparked off a bidding war between the BBC and Channel 4 television networks. The 10-hour series has been made with the co-operation of George Harrison, Paul McCartney and Ringo Starr.

The three have recorded new music for the project as well as adding their voices to two John Lennon demos. It is understood that John Birt, the director general of the BBC, and Michael Grade, chief executive of Channel 4, have both become personally involved in efforts to secure screening rights. Both are long-standing Beatles' fans and are said to be keen to secure the series as they see it as an important piece of British social history. Meanwhile, George Martin is said to be working on a three-CD set of previously unreleased Beatles' material to tie in with the documentaries. Blur will be guest editors of this week's New Musical Express. The band, who are gearing up for their appearance at the London Mile End Stadium, have completed work on a new album and are currently deciding which tracks will make the final cut. Elsewhere, Blur frontman Damon Albarn recently guested with The Pretenders when they were recording an acoustic show for a fall album release. Damon played piano on a version of The Kinks' 'I Go To Sleep.' Finally, rapper Tricky hopes to work with Albarn in the future. According to Tricky, the singer's 'laddish' image is something of an act: "He's a bit of a suffering soul underneath it all. Just as unhappy as you or I..." Oasis' new album will be released in September. The group plan to finish recording within the next two weeks and are said to have completed six new tracks already. Elsewhere, Noel Gallagher has told the New Musical Express how much the band are looking forward to headlining Glastonbury: "Glastonbury is going to be fucking top. Last year, we stayed up for three days. The kids from the crowd found me five minutes before we were due on stage. I was sitting in a field watching a load of naked dideridoo players. This kid had to remind me I was due on stage in five minutes. Oasis are amongst bands featured on a compilation to celebrate Glastonbury's 25 years, alongside such artists as Peter Gabriel, Blur, New Order and Primal Scream. Finally, John Squire's broken collarbone, sustained in San Francisco while cycling, may force the Stone Roses to pull out of the event... The Rolling Stones' 'secret' warm-up date for their July Wembley shows looks likely to be at the London Brixton Academy on July 19. Tickets will probably go on sale on the day of the show. The band are also reported to have recorded a live video and album at Amsterdam's small (by Stones' standards) Paradiso Club... McAlmont, who has recently been working with former Suede guitarist Bernard Butler, is to release a limited edition EP to mark Gay Pride '95, London's annual gay event which is expected to attract a crowd of over 100,000. Tracks on the EP available for one day only (June 19) are: 'Saturday,' 'Big Man,' 'Fort James,' and 'My Grey Day.' Elsewhere, the singer has talked to Melody Maker about his confusion when he realised he was gay.

The singer had a Christian upbringing which he says confused his feelings: "I decided to tope myself, but I was a coward and I wasn't sure how to do it." McAlmont says he is now happy with his sexuality... Shane MacGowan's new single is 'You're The One,' a duet with Clannad's Marie Brennan, available via ZTT. MacGowan looks set for a busy summer and is planning live performances with both his own band The Popes and veteran Irish band The Dubliners. Manic Street Preachers may release an EP as a trio according to industry rumours. The band are said to be considering recordings some of Richey Edwards' songs... The Levellers have set up a new headquarters in two warehouses in Brighton, on the south coast of England. The band, who will release a new album Zeitgeist via Circa in the fall, have housed their fan club, recording studio and merchandising operation in the buildings, as well as giving space to charities and pressure groups they support. According to the Levellers' Jeremy, the idea was sparked off by REM and Ride, who have similar set-ups... Bettie Serveert's new single is 'Something So Wild' (Beggars Banquet), a track from their recent Lamprey album. B-sides are 'Stanley Park' (a new instrumental), 'Crutches' (a version originally recorded for broadcast on the BBC Radio One Network) and a cover of Pavement's 'Trigger Cut.'... New Order's Peter Hook has been talking to Melody Maker about the late Joy Division singer Ian Curtis. The bassist describes how Curtis tried unsuccessfully to kill himself a short while before his eventual suicide: "He slashed himself. You see, I can't believe now that we let him come back to the band, slashed to ribbons. We went, 'Y'awright mate?' and he said, 'Yeah, fine!' It does me in more now than it did then. We were too preoccupied. He was being looked after by Rob and Terry (Joy Division management). We thought that was enough. I'm no stranger to mental illness now, but then, as a 22-year-old from Salford (a Manchester suburb) who'd worked in the Town Hall for years, I didn't know what was going on. It's like anything you can't handle, you ignore it. I feel guilty about that now. It frustrates me greatly and I'm sure it will me and Bernard till the day we die."... Blaggers ITA have split. Frontman Matty has quit the band because he was "depressed" and "holding the band back." The group are looking for a new frontman, while Matty plans to form a new band. The Blaggers have had a chequered history, including such incidents as being dropped by Parlophone and Matty being charged with assaulting a Melody Maker journalist... Evan Dando may play an unannounced set at the Glastonbury Festival. The Lemonhead's frontman will also play a one-off acoustic show at London's Mean Fiddler on June 21. Despite recent concern over the state of Dando's health, he is said to have written most of a new Lemonheads' album... Dodgy and Gene were amongst bands who attended the opening of London's flagship Virgin Megastore two weeks ago. Fans of the bands, and such chart acts as Boyzone, queued down London's main shopping street. However, police said the large crowds caused no problems.

CATHY FAULKNER, KISW/SEATTLE

No doubt in my mind, this year's McGathy Bash was the best ever! The Tea Party blew me away at the Fez... all the bands at CBGBs were incredible... Brother Kane played their incredible new stuff at the Hard Rock... Our own Seaweed kicked off the evening at Le Bar Bat, Fury did a rockin set, Catherine Wheel kicked ass and Government Mule closed the party in style. there are too many people to say Hi/Thanks/Great to see you/Let's talk so suffice it to say "notes" are in the mail to you. To Bill & Rose, congratulations on 10 great years of doing what you do best. I truly enjoy working with passionate people like you. You're the best! At home, we did a CD release party with Pleasure Elite at Rkendy. Their live CD was recorded there and turned out great! We also welcomed Skid Row to town. The show was "kick ass" as one staff member told me. Sebastian Bach and Snake visited the studios of KISW co-hosted Metal Sop with Belinda Simmons, talked with listeners and gave away an autographed guitar. Thanks to Tim Dalbec and Jon Nardacone from Atlantic for taking such good care of Belinda and KISW.

KBBT, PORTLAND, OR.

Hi and welcome to my space on the page. It has been a fabulous week!! I got to check out Skid Row. The place was packed solid with Skid Row fans! No doubt about it, The Skids Kids can rock like no one else, baby! Thanks to Tim Dalbec for helping out with the cool stuff!! Now on to music... We didn't add anything on KUFO this week. There, that was easy. We did add some really great tunes on The Beat. Ever since I first got the Sleeper CD, I have loved every track on it! Check out Inbetweeners. It's no secret that everybody digs this new tune by Natalie Merchant, and the new Offspring from Batman Forever soundtrack and we put the Baby Chaos, Buzz, in as well. I can't think of anything else smart to say so I'll go. Hurry up and leave me alone!!

CARTER ALAN, WBCN

We celebrated the coming of summer by presenting "The WBCN River Rave '95" on the banks of Boston's Charles River. Depending on who was reporting, the crowd that showed up ranged between 50,000-60,000+ to see Better Than Ezra, General Public, Letters to Cleo, and Sleeper. It was an awesome event that was characterized by a beautiful 90 degree day, a massive mosh and no trouble. The concert once again sets the stage for rock shows in the beautiful downtown park after the city banned such events last year. The "River Rave" was a fantastic outing for the troops here at BCN and we'd like to thank our special guest MC's: Jennifer Trynin, (the) Peter Wolf and Dickey Barrett of the Mighty Mighty Bosstones. Also, kudos to the bands - who all rose to the occasion and played killer sets as well as hangin' n' socializin'. Loads of thanks to Arista, Giant, Elektra, and Epic for the support. Also, special mention for Ezra's cover of the Gun Club's "For The Love Of Ivy"!

RECKLESS ERIC & JULIE HOYT

CHANNEL Z AUGUSTA, GA

Hello from what almost turned into hurricane central yesterday! I guess most of us across the country were hit with nasty weather in one way or the other. Hope that everyone made it out safe and sound. We were blessed with a natural occurrence of another sense yesterday as well. Our promotions genius, Matt-Man Junior and his wife Whitney had a beautiful baby boy named, of course, Matt Junior. He came in at a hefty 8 lbs. and 10 oz., and was 22 inches long, just like his 7 foot tall Daddy. Let's hope he that the rest of his looks from his lovely mother. Congrats to those two, and thanks for cute new Channel Z fan. We had a Sarah McLachlan ticket giveaway weekend that blew the phones away. There's something about Sarah that lends a bit a class to everything. Thanks to the great folks at the Coca-Cola Lakewood Amphitheater for their help with that. The American Cancer Society had it's annual bachelor auction this past weekend. One of Channel Z's morning men, Kevin Howard, was auctioned off and quickly became the scarlet of the barbecue. Channel Z helped raise tons of money for the cancer society, and had a blast in the process. I guess that everyone is gearing up for the July 4th weekend in one way or another. We are getting ready for another kicking Top 500 weekend then, that will include some fantastic prizes and fly-away as well. Stay tuned for more information on that matter. Until next time...

DAVE DOUGLAS, WAAF

On Sunday, June 4, the host of WAAF's local music show, "Baystate Rock," Carmelita joined 30,000 others on foot for the 10th annual AIDS Pledge Walk. It was great to be involved in an effort to raise money for funding of programs at the AIDS Action Committee and other AIDS service organizations in Massachusetts. And while in New York on Saturday, it seemed like half of those people attended the McGathy party at LeBar Bat. Way to go Bill and staff! You host the best social event in the business!

take a trip to the park with us... won't you? The 105 Daze of Summer are in full swing at Channel Z. We're on the lake with the Channel Z Party Barge (giving away all the great stuff you've sent us. Keep it coming, lots of hungry ears still need to be filled). The phones are ringing off the hook from eager listeners trying to win the key that will start their new Nissan truck. The heavenly sound of Channel Z is pounding and flowing through the summertime air with a potpourri of new music. As the Super one was sharing his ideas on elevating insomnia while he was attending the HFS Festival dinner, we gave away a trip to L.A. for the KROQ Weenie Roast. You could hear the pee hit the kitchen floor when our winner called in. She flipped when she heard she was off to see White Zombie, Bush, Better Than Ezra, Elastica, Soul Asylum, Sponge, Matthew Sweet, Rage Against The Machine, and The Ramones. We made sure she has everything she needs for the trip including Lisa Worden's home number and address. Big thanks to George Gillespie, Jay Friedstein, Laura Kim, and everyone at The Work Group for their help. There's a new Batman movie coming out... maybe you might have heard about it. We were so happy to give away copies of the soundtrack before it hit the shelves. As you might have guessed, the Channel Z faithful went crazy trying to win their very own CD copy. Hugs and kisses to Mary Tripodi and all at Atlantic for making this possible. Speaking of Mar... one of her bestest buddies and ours. Kim Pool got married Saturday. Huge congratulations to her and the mister. We hope everyone at Reprise appreciates her as much as we do. There has been a slight change in Julie's call times. She can be reached Wednesdays and Thursdays from 2:00pm to 4:00pm. On another programming note... Our dance show, Groove Nation, is kicking ass! If you have any music we could expose our listeners to or would like to be put on the weekly fax list, call John Lenac at 417-869-8400

MIKE LUOMA, WIZN

Before I get going here, I want to send a big thank you to Bill and Rose and the McGathy crew for another cool weekend in N.Y.C.! The arguments have been raging: over what to call charts and formats, what alternative means to rock radio, where the format's going, "alternative to what", etc. The best part's been a broadening of what even heritage-leaning, old-school AORs qualify as "rock" and "win in the format," broadening the audience's perceptions of "what fits" changes. The audience mostly doesn't care what label you put on music, anyway. They know if they like it, hear it a lot and find other people liking it, whatever the industry-sanctioned genre it falls in. Rock bands which were too young and uncooperative to make it in the 80s AOR climate got played at "alternative" radio along with a lot of other stuff. Young and adventurous listeners embraced the rocking bands from alternative radio while they still flipped back to AOR for classic rock. The "alternative" bands that crossed over and "made it" were vital, raw, driven, individualistic, artistic without apology, and they echoed rock music's past in much of their chords and phrasing. It wasn't their alternative status that sold people on them. These were bastard-son rock bands come to roost. Now other young bands are breaking out from under another classification, blowing past limiting pigeonholing, in the breaking out of Hootie & The Blowfish, The Dave Matthews Band, and Blues Traveler. Each has toured long and hard, have a loyal, core following, and labored long outside the "mainstream," dismissed as "hippy bands." As was true of the

"alternative" rockers, many touring "hippy" bands are vital, raw driven, individualistic, and artistic without apologizing. It's real music, and people are responding to it on an underground level which is beginning to bubble up to society's surface. The time is now right for the next big breakthrough from the ranks of these touring bands, as Phish releases A Live One, their first live album! Their ability to fill halls and arenas is unquestioned. Their fan loyalty has them pegged as the their - apperents to the Grateful Dead. Those of us long won-over by their infectious songwriting, sense of humor, musical craftsmanship, and ability to transport the listener to higher planes of consciousness, have always sworn by their live performances, despite the cliché'd "You gotta see 'em live!" Well, now you have them live, you have "Bouncing Around The Room," a concert favorite so beloved you'll hear the sizable crowd singing and surging along with every phrase, musical and lyrical! "Bouncing..." as it's been captured for the live album comes across like the capsulated essence of a Phish show, a brief dose of the incredible energies these guys harness and channel through themselves, and their audiences every time they play. It's Phish at their best, delivered in a neat and tasty little package with perfect airplay potential! Consider this: Dave Matthews Band, Hootie & The Blowfish, even Blues Traveler were launched on their way to widespread success from loyal fanbases considerably smaller than Phish's. There is so much unlimited, untapped potential for this band! "Bouncing Around The Room" from the new live album is the key to unlocking this band's potential for radio, especially in the current climate where the audience is looking for new stuff to sink their musical teeth into. Phish have delivered the goods. All we at radio gotta do is play 'em. WIZN, long-time supporters, gladly go for the gusto once again and kindly thank the guys for given us A Live One this time out!

CRAIG KOEHN

KZYR, RADIO ONE NETWORK

Yes there is life after last week's premiere of two of the summer's Marquee Attractions... Granted, they are two of the best pieces of music we'll hear this summer, but man cannot live on U2 and Merchant alone... A matter of fact Phish heads can't live without a healthy dose of live Phish... and right on time for the devoted we get "Bouncing Around The Room" from the forthcoming concert set... These guys are truly one of the great acts to catch on the road today and now we get to experience their truly quirky live trip at our convenience... Also this week we're paying maximum respect to one of the true natural mystics of our time, Bob Marley... no musician has ever been more true to their soul and vision and "Keep On Moving" is proof positive that Marley's spirit is alive and kicking... and for the no brainer pick of the week we're going with The Rembrandts "I'll Be There For You." Non stop hooks, hit show, you get it all in one neat little package... And contrary to the neat little package concept we're also adding the coolest song of the week, The Verve "On Your Own"... This is not a tune that will hit you like a brick on first listen, but don't let that detour you... If you give it a chance to grow on you it will end up on not only yours, but on your listeners heavy homeplay chart as well...

KMSA METAL TYPE, 970-248-1718

Well what can I say...I could begin by saying that it's great to be back here at home, but for the most part, that would be a huge lie! Actually here wouldn't be so terrible if some other people around here would do their job, but that's my bitch not yours, like you give a rats ass anyway! I did make it back from that crazy New York weekend in one piece even despite all the great lengths I went to not to. Was that a blast or what?! Really though, if you didn't have fun, you weren't there. It was so cool to finally meet those of you that I hadn't met yet, and to play with all of you that I had. Thanks to the folks at McGathy for yet another great time! Thanks also to Jodie and Holly for taking care of me and a big thanks to Mark Morden for saving my ass yet again! I could make a list of everyone else worthy of thanks, but that would take to long, so Cheers to all. I survived even despite almost being run down by two cabs and a bus! The actual bodily harm I received didn't start until I got back to Denver and went to the KoRn show. I've been in a rough pit or two in my day, but nothing compared to this one! Brutal would be the best word to describe that show, but hey, that's why we're in this game right? Now I'm back. I think I'm going to puke now. Later from Hell!

DAVE O'BRIEN, WROV

Ouch! My liver!... Had a bit too much and got to see the sunrise in NYC on my way back to the hotel last weekend. If you see Bob from Seaweed, ask him how he liked the pizza at Ray's. Wanderlust is coming to play a showcase for us this week. If you haven't checked out "I Walked" yet... do it!! Good phone record. Gotta go get some sleep finally. Later!!

PAM LANDRY

"First, some 'thank you's": To the folks at OKEH/550 for giving us Popa Chubby for our annual WPLR Memorial weekend extravaganza at Lighthouse Park in New Haven... attendance estimated at about 10,000... If you're not playing "Sweet Goddess," you are missing out! Listeners were coming up to me with their mouths agape, not because they wanted me to feed them, but because Popa Chubby was amazing! ...To McGathy Promotions for the 10th annual gathering... to Virgin Records for the King Crimson soundcheck: awesome. Now, to let our record friends know that as you are reading this we are doing one of your favorite on-air programming deals: A to Z. Please bear with us and understand that all spins will be nearly nonexistent for about a week (yes, we are doing the condensed version!). Gotta give the listeners what they want so we can continue to get the numbers that make you want your records played on WPLR!

We have finally moved into our new studios just in time for the summer! YA! I'm sorry for not getting back to everyone for the past few weeks, but things have been really hectic. I have new office hours and a new phone number for the summer. I can now be reached on Monday's from noon - 3pm at 609-256-4319. I should also have voice-mail on that line in a few weeks (WOW! New Toys!). Well, I'd stay and chat some more, but it's time to go on the air. Things we're cranking out include KoRn, Fight, Bad Seed, Fear Factory, COC, and The Nixons... oh yeah, White Zombie is on about every hour or so too....18tz...

We met everyone at the McGathy bash and we just had to write in and say how much fun we had. Thanx to everyone at McGathy for such a great time! Special thanx to Sudi without whom... I also wanted to thank everyone who took the time to introduce us to people we hadn't met yet. Everyone was very cool and easy to hang with. You can catch me for Metal calls in the afternoon after 2 pm almost everyday of the week at the office. Everyone who talks to me regularly knows I return messages within a day or so. Brian's doing the alternative thing now, but he still chats to the "Metal" people, too. Call me up to check on your bands and send us all your good stuff. Later.

DAVE LOMBARDI

WARNER BROTHERS RECORDS 818-953-3739

Once again, the McGathy bash was a success, with some artists reaping benefits. I know that it paid off to have Jennifer Trynin attend the party and meet programmers; this week's adds certainly reflected that. "Better Than Nothing" is developing steadily at two formats, and is looking more and more like a sure thing. I saw Jen and her band in Boston last week, and after what I saw, I'm pretty anxious to get them on the road. Jen's got a great stage presence, and musically, the three of them kick it out. We're looking at tour dates starting in July. In your pointy little clippers this week is "Flat Top" by The Goo Goo Dolls. Many of you discovered "Flat Top" on your own once you got the full CD: I was surprised with the number of prescient programmers who'd already tested this track. In fact, it's already been added at KISW, KUPD, WUFX, WFBC, KIL0, KDKB, and WDRE, KNRX, WKLL, among others. The Goos will finish the video and head back to be on the verge of breaking wide open, with a lot of people telling us that "Flat Top" will be the track to do it. Coming next week is the debut from Australia's You Am I. "Berlin Chair" sounds exactly like Rock radio in the mid-to-late 90's, and there's no doubt that active rock stations will eat this up immediately. I'm not exaggerating—this band is a good one. It was great seeing everyone in NYC! I'm out.

SCOTT "LO/JACK" DOUGLAS
VIRGIN 212-332-0418

Lead story this week is the buzz on Brother Cane! The record hit your desk midweek and no doubt immediately hit your airwaves. And Fools Shine On is a brilliant return and we're proud to have 'em. Brother Cane has made countless friends across the country and now they've shown us they can make great records, too! Adds are this Monday, 6/12, the one year anniversary of the Simpson murders. I see no hesitation from any programmers with whom I've discussed this record! It's a killer and sounds a-w-e-s-o-m-e on the air! And, the band pinned everybody's ears back at breakfast Saturday morning during McGathy braindead as were! King Crimson showed their precision during the soundcheck later that afternoon. Pow! Even if you don't personally get into their kind of music, your listeners will recognize their intensity. People is the cut. Please stop trying to second-guess this band. Give your audience what they want, not what you think they want. If it doesn't react, move on. But, see the Crimson show! See the show! See the show! It's a dynamo! It's rock and roll! (to quote an old friend of Crimson). There's nothing like leaving the McGathy to head for hurricane country. I though I'd already been through the eye of a hurricane having survived the weekend in New York! Allison pounds the Northwest Gulf Shore and down south, things are shaking and baking in Miami! Mersky departs, Steele and Hess arrive and a format flip at WSHL... this is the site of the next big battle. Lo/Jacks to: Kid Redd, Mary Dew, the Divebombers (what a fun band), Tony Couch, Ralph Tortora, Lenny and T.J., and all of McGathy's crew and participating labels for another great fucking time!

MARK FISCHER
ATLANTIC RECORDS, 212-275-2085

It's not very often that you can get to see the fruits of your labor. I would like to personally thank everyone at Radio for some amazing achievements. Hootie & The Blowfish Cracked Rear View has been the #1 selling record in the country for a month now, selling 4 million records to date. Collective Soul's "December" became the highest spun record in a single week, this week on the rock radio chart, overtaking STP "Interstate Love Song," the previous record holder. None of this could be possible without the help of our friends at radio. Thank you for your continued support. Records to watch in the coming weeks are, Billy Pilgrim "Sweet Louisiana Sound" which continues to garner new airplay and significant sales (3,000+ a week). Sugar Ray "Mean Machine" is definitely a major reaction record at radio. Top 5 phones at WAXQ, WXTB, KEGL, and WZDR in Detroit. New this week, KLOS. Put this record on the air, it's a smash!! Bad Religion starts their tour soon with Pearl Jam, but meanwhile "Incomplete" the new track from the band is finding its way onto great stations like KIOZ, KRXQ, KISS, WLZR, WQFM, KLBJ, and KLPX. Finally, but not lastly, you may have remembered a version of Zeppelin's "Going to California" on the Encomium tribute record. That version was recorded by a new Atlantic artist called Never The Bride. The first track from Never The Bride's forthcoming record is called "Loser In Love." Check this track out, we'll be going for adds on June 20th. Until then, keep playing the hits...

DAVID FLEISCHMAN
MCA RECORDS 818-777-4000

The Nixon's put on one hell of a kick-ass show at CBGB's in conjunction with the McGathy weekend. If you were there, you know, if you weren't, take my word for it or ask anyone that was there and they'll verify the fact. "Head" is the track and I'm sure your audience will love little or a lot. Give it to 'em... The Charlie Sexton Sextet is on the road and feedback from the first few dates is outstanding. "Everyone Will Crawl" is solid on the radio and receiving excellent response live. For you AAA, PAR, Adult Rock (choose one) types, check out "Sunday Clothes." This just might be the most format-friendly track on the record... Live made a great record in Throwing Copper, have made great videos, is drawing huge crowds and is selling large numbers of CD's. Their beat goes on... The Mavericks have recorded "Blue Moon" which will be featured in the movie "Apollo 13." You should receive the music by the end of the month. Make sure you check this one out... Our first project with Bob Krasnow is with an artist named Vanessa Daou. The album is entitled Zipless and the lead track is called "Near The Black Forest." It's different, interesting and very good, Bob is well-known for his work with music that on first wasn't thought to be viable and went on to become monstrous. He continues his musical history and heritage with Vanessa Daou.

JIM DEL BALZO
COLUMBIA RECORDS 212-833-7029

Well, it's been an incredibly busy week. Once again the McGathy's played host to the biggest schmooze of the year. The amount of radio people attendance was awesome—Thanks to Bill and Rose for the great night. Soul Asylum is in the middle of a brief run of club dates across the country. These handful of dates are a warm-up for the upcoming tour this summer. The band was in top form and played mostly material from Let Your Dim Light Shine and Grave Dancers Union. As usual there were some surprise cover versions... on Sunday night in Boston, they did Eddie and the Hot Rods' punk rock anthem "Do Anything You Wanna Do" and Fleetwood Mac's "Rhiannon." What a great night! The Empire State Building was bathed in lasers and red pulsing lights on Monday night while WNEW played Dark Side of the Moon in its entirety. The media coverage was enormous. As predicted the research on Mad Season's "River of Deceit" is coming back really strong. This behaved just like every Alice in Chains record. The research on Alice is strong to kick-in, but in time it does and the records stay on the air forever. All I'm asking PD's is to be patient. The rewards will be there. They always have been. Dokken continues to get bigger and bigger every week. Requests continue to be strong, sales are great (30,000 over the counter in two weeks) and the band is about to begin another leg of the tour that appears to have self-written all over it. Corrosion of Conformity is off to a great start with 20 new adds this week. C.O.C. hit the road this week with Season to Risk and Monster Magnet. These guys will be out all summer and won't come off the road until Deliverance is gold. We've got 150,000 more to go. Last week we sold 7,000 units: our best week in the last month. There's a great new band that has just released their first album on Columbia called Mother May I. "Meet You There," their first single, is already on Q104.3, WQFM, WAVF, WSFM, as well as a bunch of alternative stations. Please give this song a listen. It's really good. Coming up: Jef Buckley, "Eternal Life", Dandelion "Weird Out", Toad the Wet Sprocket "Stupid."

Well, my sinus pressure isn't the only form of pressure I'm keeping up this week. Peter Case "Torn Again" is still in those pesky Most-Added boxes in your lovely local trade, keeping pace with all the bad boy competition, even coming in #5 Most Added at Hard! And our spins are so healthy (unlike me) that they more than doubled this week. More good advice about Peter from those that matter: from the gracious Merilee Kelly at KSCA, "Love Baltimore" love "Airplane," — in fact I love the entire CD!" I couldn't have said it better myself! I'll still be in touch with everyone on this as we look to hit those livasnap Adult Rock charts in the blink of an eye. Plus, added info: we debut at Gavin Americana at #28 in just two weeks of adds! Soon to be climbing..

Hey everyone, it's Mike #2 writing my first dialogue ever! It's great to be working here at EMI with Schnapp. I had a blast at the annual McGathy party. I got to meet a lot of great people in two days. Thanks to everyone at McGathy. Now back to the office where things are really starting to heat up... Queensryche continues on the road to Promise Land, with the second leg of the tour kicking off July 9th, in Odessa, TX. Type O Negative supports. You don't want to miss this show. Butt Trumpet just rapped up their tour, look for more dates soon. Have you guys heard the Dwellers? This record might just be for you. Call me if you want a copy!! Some stations are already on it. The second release from The Tea Party is on the way. The first single is "Fire In the Head." It's going for adds on June 26/27. The full release, The Edges of Twilight, will arrive in early June. Last but not least Moist is playing the North Pole along with Metallica, Hole, and Veruca Salt. Unbelievable!!! Well my first dialogue is done and one week completed here at EMI. Now that is all that's left to do is find Schnapp a cab with an eight-track in it! Call me for all your radio needs.

TIM YASUI

MASSACRE RECORDS, 818-763-8397

Kudos to Les at KUNV, Ron at KUSF and Tom at WBGU for supporting Fleshold this week! And just in time for their summer '95 tour, which brings them to Memphis, Wichita, Dallas, El Paso, San Diego, Salt Lake City, Hollywood, Seattle, Portland, Billings, Little Rock, and Colorado Springs. If one of the above cities pertains to you, then you know what to do with the record! (And if you don't, then I'll Munsey from Skateboard Marketing after 'ya and tell him to have no mercy!) Thanks to all the metal MD's (you know who you are!) who have been patiently awaiting the new Forbidden disc and have restrained themselves from playing the few advance cassettes that I've managed to leak out. A full metal radio servicing is in the works, I promise. For questions, comments, advance promos or just to get on our mailing list contact me at 818-763-8397!

LEVIATHAN RECORDS 404-463-1009

Thanks for all the continued support for Full Circle's "Negative," especially for all of the multi-spins. As mentioned previously, any and all tracks on this Cd are top notch. There's not a weak link to be found. the band will be hitting the road in July for selective dates in the Midwest. More to come.

RELAPSE/NUCLEAR BLAST AMERICA

I have no time! Agh! I have no time for time! King from Deceased is doing radio interviews and causing havoc in the Relapse office as I type this. A heaving-huge mega big big thanks to all those who participated. Besides that going on, me and some of the new mighty Relapse interns are putting together giveaway packages for all you bums! Want some? Give me a call.... Keep pushing Gorefest and Kataklysm! These two devastating disks have a lot of destruction left in them... Also, push Meshuggah, Deceased, Therion, The Abyss, and Pyogenesis- HARD!!!! There's plenty of pain for the whole family, so drive 'em down everyone's throat, they'll thank you for it. Incantation and Kataklysm are on the road, just call for dates and info. Meshuggah interviews coming in July!

MARIA "MOM" ABRIL

METAL BLADE RECORDS, 212-529-6198

I'm here and settled. Life is grand. I have several tours that will interest you this summer. First, Grip Inc. will be out with Morbid Angel starting July 14th. Meet-n-greets and interviews will be arranged so I suggest if you wish to see 'em, support 'em. They just returned from Europe so after they've rested a bit, phone interviews will be possible as well. Call me for info. Broken Hope just finished the first leg of their tour with Decide and it went great! An average of 900 people a night and the sales look incredible too. If you've not given my boys their proper respect, you may want to take another look now. I'm not going away so just do it. X-Cops start on June 12th and The Organization SF start June 9th and keep going right into August. This band is touring their butts off for you. I'd like to see more support from metal radio. Beats The Hell Out Of Me's sophomore release, Rolling Thunder Music, is in stores June 13th.

"Track" is a song to bear down on. King Diamond's The Spider's Lullaby is in stores today. Spin "Moonlight." Six Feet Under featuring Chris Barnes from Cannibal Corpse and Al West from Obituary will release. Haunted on Sept. 12th. If anyone missed Bob Dole's little jab at Cannibal on national TV, here's the deal. Mr. Dole believes such music is destroying our society, in spite of the fact that he's never heard it. Hmm... Barnes responded on NBC News by saying among other things, "this is the Republican's modern day witch hunt." You go boy! We love you!

RUSS MILLER

ROCKWORLD RECORDS 212-996-2727

Zoinks! My head is still spinning from the crazy McGathy bash. It was infinitely cool to meet you all! And the one I didn't get to meet, well, next time! Now, for what you've all been waiting for, the follow up to Bad Seed's "Empty" is going to be track #7, "Numb." This one is a real smoker!! (and yes that is a marijuana reference). All kidding aside, this song has a serious groove that grapples your soul and won't let go! Personally, this is my favorite song off the album (Yes, I like it even better than their ode to sticky bud, God's Gift," believe it or not) and the one I'm sure that will burn it's way to the top of your playlist! Keep in mind, these guys are on the road and sure to be "rolling into a joint" near you this summer with The Organization. Call me for all dates and guest list information. On the video front, both Bad Seed and Sex, Love, & Money are receiving awesome response on video shows everywhere! If you would like to check them out, but don't know if there is a show in your area, give me a call and I'll let you know. 'Til the next time... party on!

I can't thank everyone for getting Crowbar to #1 most added and off to a great start. Of course there are a few scragglers (you know who you are), but I'm sure you'll be on top of it this week. Noizfest is just around the corner. We will be doing special promotions with our biggest supporters, don't even call if you are not playing the crap out of Crowbar. Dates start July 7th in New York. Don't forget Malevolent Creation is going for adds this week. Die hard Malevolent fans agree it's one of their best. They will be headlining a tour late July with bands yet to be determined. Don't forget about Crawl, these guys have just gotten started. They will be on the road this July with Thought Industry as well as playing this years Metalfest. Once again the McGathy bash was incredible. Finally a chance to match up some faces with the voices, well in some cases better than others. Thanks to Bill & Rose, Sudri, Gill, and everybody at McGathy for the best party of the year. Add dates for Malevolent Creation "Eternal" June 12th.

Fear Factory will be heading out with Megadeth, KoRn, and Flotsam & Jetsam in July. Call me for more information on dates, venues and what tracks to play to make FF a #1 record. Don't worry, if it is not #1 by the time the show comes to your area, you'll still get tickets. Keep playing "Replica." Suffocation will be heading out soon, please play the title track, "Thrones Of Blood" and "Depths Of Depravity." Decide and Broken Hope's tour has come to an end. Hopefully, I'll have news soon on what is next with Satan and Co. Death's headline tour will be starting in a couple of weeks. I will be setting up soundcheck interviews with Chuck and Gene for those who missed doing phones. One of the RR new signing's coming your way- Shank...

Well after a bunch of shows this weekend. I'm a little slow. So let's make this short and sweet. Misery Loves Co. is good, bring it in. Those who don't. Soon will be calling for tickets when Misery Loves Co. starts touring. Ask for the 5 Misery Loves Co. remixes and unreleased tracks coming soon. What does Extreme Noise Terror and Grief have in common? A tour together. When they come you must have P.O.P. to put up. Come and get it. Just talked to Mick Harris from Scorn. He said he wants to tour. Sounds like a good thing. Anal Cunt with their brand of music. Cathedral reissue soon. We're releasing the first full length of the Godflesh LP for the first time ever on CD, the self-titled Godflesh. Entombed/New Bomb Turks split 7" with unreleased cover songs from both bands. Fudge Tunnel's newest ... In A Word, a must have for the long time fan. Pitch Shifter reissue of Submit with unreleased 2 live tracks. The reissue of the classic Terrorizer have members of Morbid Angel, Napalm Death, and underground legends Nausea. Then the newest hard-core band Coalesce on tour with 108 and Bloodlet. Also look for Silencer. Call me.

Lots of new stuff in the works here. First off we'd like to welcome Dawn Moses to the Mausoleum pack. Yeah!! Second lots of McGathy hi-fives— you know who you are!!! Ask Will Knapp about his bathroom experience!! Ask Jack from WSUP about the missing cab ride and his cool new hairdo. Ask Jonathan from Epitaph to get you a copy of the most awesome Pennywise disc. Ask us about Tuff and Groovezilla tour dates. Ask the twenty lucky radio stations who heard Belladonna how truly awesome it is!!!! Ask Beth how much she hated when Marc reads her dialogues-in-work over her shoulder!!! Anyway— you're beautiful, don't ever change. Well you can change your underwear occasionally. PS email us at beth.krakower@sonicnet.com(for Beth) or mephilo@aol.com(Marc). Wow email, aren't we cool!!

So yo the McGathy bash is over, how's your hangover. It's way cool to see all the metal and AOR types in one room for the hang. So check it out. Take a listen to Bob Evans. It's a great record to jell to. Clutch is on the road, we have the tickets. The interviews are being done at the venue. King Diamond's tour will be major markets only. This record is in your face dude, you know you love that. Tray from Morbid Angel will be doing phone interviews on Thursday & Friday. The tour starts on July 14th. The Misery Loves Co. (EP) import will be in your face this week. It includes an unreleased track "Honor Code Loyalty." The Organization, yo Savor the Flavor on it because it kicks ass. Next week add the Kyuss. They're back with one awesome record. Also add the Black Sabbath single "Guilty as Hell." This is the real deal Sabbath with Tony Iomi. Till next week, Cya.

A.I.M. = Airplay, Information, Maintenance, T.A.M. = These Animal Men, F.Y.I. (= for your information)... come on college radio, join the High Society! Yummy, yummy, yummy, I've got Urchins in my tummy, on my turntable, in the tape deck of my car... shamelessly pop, irresistibly hook-laden, from "Grudge," "Tongue" and "The Enabler" to the punk-rock Partridge Family cover, "I Woke Up In Love," make the Urchins' Yummy your summertime guilty pleasure. Does your summer playlist have that not-so-fresh feeling? Try a little Piss & Vinegar, American Standard's new CD on Another Planet rocks like a mof, "Think Punk," think integrity, think American Standard. Mad Love: Madder Rose, Kirsty MacColl, 7-Year Bitch, Drew Barrymore, one tremendous CD, one atrocious movie. Hey, you can't have everything (where would you put it?). Everyone who played "Dizzy" from the Basketball Diaries soundtrack: rejoice!! Green Apple Quick Step's new CD, Reloaded, is now in your sweaty palms. Turn your listeners on, this record bleeds cool and rocks like my granny after one too many espressos. Breaking stereotypes, expanding listener's horizons, down with the king: WTUL, KGLT, KIDE, WBKE, WMCO WLHD, KUGS, thanks for supporting Isaac Hayes! Show some soul, give Branded the props it deserves. Almost as cool as Kelso (almost): Fledgling ("Red Messiah 7"), Brutal Juice, (Moonshine compilation), Space Needle Scratch. Call me, Tracey, and Andre for interviews, freebies, and tips on personal hygiene, we've got that down to a science.

CMC Records is on the road this summer! Check out Slaughter, Kix, Warrant, and Widowmaker coming to a club near you. If you could do a display for the shown tickets are sure to follow. People are already talking about Gwen Mars (Hollywood) and their debut album Magnosheen. Give it some instore play and watch the interest grow. How can you deny a band like Primus (Interscope) who never catered to the masses and struck big with back to back Top 10 albums. Do the right thing with their brand new one, Tales from the Punchbowl. Screw those other johnny-come-lately-pop punk bands. Check out the original, All (Interscope) on their latest, Pummel. Recommend this record to your customers, they'll love you for it! For the people who can't find World Bang (Radikal), Pedofiend, they're distributed through BMG. We have posters and play copies. Future movers Black Sabbath (IRS) and Ugly Kid Joe (Mercury), both out now. Future shakers: Shihad (Noise)-June 27 Eleven (Hollywood) July 18 and friends of Pearl Jam Red Thunder (Eagle Thunder/Alliance)- Early August Now you know, "What's Up!"
