TOP PRIORITY

Alice In Chains, "Grind," Columbia/CRG

In a pose that strikes more familiarity with 'Facelift' than with their more recent material, Alice in Chains return to rock radio in the Top 3 Most Added column. We've been serviced Staley via the Mad Season variety, and you've fielded the listener requests for the new Alice for most of the summer. Now you can produce it for them. KICT's Sherry McKinnon calls it "Killer. Absolutely killer. It will be huge." Rob Hunter at KILO says "I think the song is absolutely incredible. After the first riff, a smile spread across my face. Nice and dark and gloomy." KISW's Cathy Faulkner calls it "Absolutely amazing. Kudos to Columbia for not letting leaks get out of control. Our audience didn't buy into the rumor that they were breaking up. They just want to know when they can buy the album." KLOS's Carey Curelop sees it as a "Good rock record. I like it better because it is not necessarily as slick as the last record. It's got a rougher sound."

CURRENT ORIENTED ROCK

Tom Petty, "Cabin Down Below," Warner Bros.

What can you say about Petty? He's a proven marksman for the hook target. In this track, he pulls out a CCR-ish feel, runs through some rootsy guitar, and applies that casual simplicity he's known to provide. "Cabin Down Below" is Tom Petty paying homage to a bluesier form with total unpretentiousness. He tied for #4 Most Added this week, and shows up again as a breath of fresh rock air for you to break the pattern of potential sound-alikes. He's one-of-a-kind.

The Pretenders, "Sense of Purpose," Warner Bros

The Hall of Fame concert clearly depicted a fit and fabulous Chrissie Hynde, still rockin' with vigor and charisma. This live track, recorded in London with The Duke Quartet comes from the forthcoming The Isle of View, and is a tune you're already familiar with. It's an eloquent reading that sizzles with the concert energy without being surrounded by the concert hall echo. It's an intimate performance that your Pretenders fans will likely adore.

SELECTIONS

CHRIS WHITLEY
"DIN"
WORK

The critically acclaimed crooner never let us down with his voice. We've come to understand his new musical stance as being supportive of the lyric. His dark, haunting tales of soul-searching inner travel and withered dreams lend themselves to the screech and scowl of the electric guitar in overdrive. You'll be supplying the audience with important information as to this artist's range of motion. This one will cut through the air like a saw.

STEELY DAN
ALIVE IN AMERICA
GIANT

If you like live albums, this one will knock you out. The performances are outstanding, culled from their '93 and '94 dates. Since Becker and Fagan took so much time off between touring (they hadn't up until that point since the months after the release of their first album Can't Buy a Thrill), the arrangements were fresh, the performance exciting and the quality control of the recording pristine. Is it really Live? As far as you know. You've got the hits here.

WANDERLUST
"BEFORE WE FADE"
RCA

The story built well this summer from these melodic Philadelphia guys, and we found that the band has definitely got a strong set of tunes under their belt to follow "I Walked" at COR radio. That song was a #1 BDS ranker for one or more weeks at WMMR, WDVE, WNEW, WIYY, WKLQ and WRCX, among others. This one takes a slightly different turn, sounding somewhat more modern and rowdy turn. The drums shuffle a bit more than they stomp, the guitar keeps more rhythm than it does enhance melody, and the vocals are a bit more mysterious and understated. You've still got something that's catchy and radio-friendly.

REM.
"I TOOK YOUR NAME"
WARNER BROS.

Here's another ride from the recent record to go along with this leg of the tour. You can't argue with multi-platinum sales, and you can't argue with this artist's importance in the COR world. Try another track, a machinery-consistent dance track of sorts that doesn't sound quite like the other offerings from the album.

in progress..

- • • Chris Whitley's new single "DIN" takes high-wattage guitars, those rambling riffs and proves extremes are good. Remixed by Nick DiDia (Pearl Jam, Mother Love Bone), the track is not vacant above the din. Its raw urgency does not conform and compromise.

Whitley's 1991 bluesy debut "Living With the Law" earned the artist critical acclaim. Now, the plaudits are well-earned for his guitar-centric "DIN OF ECSTASY," a contemporary rock record that can compete with anything else out there. "I wanted to make something that was raw and pertinent," Whitley says, adding, "I was going for that intensity that you hear in Robert Johnson, Howlin' Wolf and in Hendrix and in Zeppelin."

Whitley isn't the kind of artist who's going to try and impress you with a gold lamé suit or cute comments between songs. Instead, his album and especially "DIN" is just a blatant reminder that BEAUTIFUL NOISE can be expressive.

7 MARY 3, "CUMBERSOME" MAMMOTH/ATLANTIC

Phones: KBAT, KICT, KILO, KSPQ, KTUX, WHTF
Rank: 11-8*

KEGL (B-12 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Duane Doherty

"I think it's still got a lot of headroom. We bumped it up in rotation, so we shall see."

KILO (B-31 PPW WKS-ON:9) PD Rich Hawk

"The record's through the roof for me. Top 5 phones for a brand new artist like that with its type of sound is amazing. Research looks decent."

KISS (B- 8 PPW WKS-ON:6) APD Kevin Vargas

"Still building. A favorable sound and the calls are all positive. Plus, there's a show we can finally talk about. So we'll see how many people really do care."

KISW (B-10 PPW WKS-ON:7) MD Cathy Faulkner

"The requests are increasing — there's a lot of curiosity toward the show in mid-November."

KNCN (B-26 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Matt Vaughan

"I think it's still charging...just now coming into its own."

KRXQ (B-20 PPW WKS-ON:7) PD Curtiss Johnson

"7 Mary continues to perform really well for us, but hasn't really busted through. A couple weeks of growth left."

KRZR (B-20 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD E. Curtiss Johnson

"It's going to go to heavy. We're seeing a lot of 'Who is that?' calls."

KSJO (B-21 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Dana Jang

"I think it's still climbing and the band is starting to get their name known now. The song is definitely getting attention."

KZAK (B-24 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Chris Payne

"We were early on that. Some of the stodgier people who were slow are finally on board...it's on fire. I think it's a hybrid of Molly Hatchet and Pearl Jam."

WCCC (B-16 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Todd Heft

"The testing is decent and we're still getting phones."

WDBZ (B- 9 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Darrin Arriens

"I do think there is more chance for growth. It would be in the limelight but there are too many big major hits right now. I'm happy with it in medium...a slight response from listeners."

WDIZ (B-37 PPW WKS-ON:11) PD Mike Beck

"Just got research back and it's very strong."

X107 (B-23 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Steve Blatter

"I think this a potential Power record."

WGRX (B-20 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Brian Beddow

"We have it in our heavies already so I don't see it increasing that much more. We do seem to be getting more calls than we were."

WOZN (B-15 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Dano Amann

"Each week it gets bigger and bigger...curiosity calls and getting attention...plenty of room to build."

WWBR (B-30 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Walt Brown

"There's a strong possibility of it being a #1 song. It mushroomed with us...we moved into Hot quicker than we do most things. Sales are good, too."

WZTA (B-19 PPW WKS-ON:9) PD Gregg Steele

"It's doing fairly well. It would be a Power at my station if I didn't have so many other great testing songs. It really has great potential."

KICT (M-14 PPW WKS-ON:7) MD Sherry McKinnon

"Still doing really well on the phones. Continues to build considering we have had it dayparted. We think there is still room to move if this continues — it should open up."

KUPD (M-13 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD J. J. Jeffries

"Not over, but we're not sure how much longer it will hang."

WAVF (M-32 PPW WKS-ON:9) MD Hollie Anderson

"One of our better records. #1 phones for the third week in a row."

WBZX (M-10 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Hal Fish

"I think it's about played out. It's not getting much phone activity anymore...in medium."

WDZR (M-20 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Joe Bevilacqua

"It's reached the breaking out point. It's a hit. I'm seeing units move...it's garnering phones...just now beginning to become familiar. Sales are going to be hard to get with all the stuff out. But there's an obvious hook — great for radio."

KEZE (N- 6 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Trip Rogers

"We had it in our new music files, and moved it to medium because of good calls. It may have peaked though, because there's lots of new music taking over."

WARQ (N-23 PPW WKS-ON:7) PD Dave Stewart

"It's been a slow grow for us. Just within the past week it seems to have caught a bit on fire. Still building."

BIG SUGAR, "DEAR MR. FANTASY" SILVERTONE

New: KJOT, KRZZ, KSPQ, WHMH
Added Last Week: KATP, KTYD, KWBR

KATP (N- 8 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Brad Elliot

"People recognize it right off the bat, but it's a bit more wild and crazy. I think the listeners are liking it a lot."

KTUX (N- 9 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Randy Robbins

"Nothing yet. But I like it and that's all I give a shit about."

KTYD (N- 3 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Paul Cavannaugh

"'Dear Mr. Fantasy' has always been a great testing song and we're not really playing any Traffic anymore. Let's see if a different treatment is going to help out."

 Rank: 2-3

KQRC (B-25 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Valorie Knight

"AC/DC's doing very well...people love it. It's researching very fast."

KRXQ (B-34 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Curtiss Johnson

"Top 10 early tester."

KEZE (M-28 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Trip Rogers

"It's still doing well — but starting to burn. It fared pretty well in research, so we put in three more tracks and got positive response. 'Boogie Man' is a slow build."

KICT (M-19 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Sherry McKinnon

"Still maintaining — not researching — it out-sold Hootie this week. It was never strong on requests here."

KILO (M-32 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Rob Hunter

"Still holding its own — not Top 5 phones any more."

KUPD (M-13 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD J. J. Jeffries

"It researched really well, but we wanted to add a depth track while the album was doing well."

WDBZ (M-47 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Darrin Arriens

"It's doing fantastic combined with the other AC/DC tracks on the air. I'm not sure that this is the hit, but they all work together well. I think it may be a quick burn, so the other tracks will help."

WDZR (M-26 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Joe Bevilacqua

"AC/DC turned out #1 at Harmony House. They're getting a lot of hype from three stations. Performing well...Top 5 phones...their fans are happy. It's too early for research, however."

WDIZ (N-37 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Mike Beck

"It's still growing. For a new record it's testing well."

ALANIS MORISSETTE, "HAND IN MY POCKET" MAVERICK

KNCN (B-20 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Matt Vaughan

"Negatives and positives. I personally like the song, but we've had some negatives. She's just one of those types of artists."

KRXQ (B-16 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Curtiss Johnson

"Very strong testing. I was real hesitant since the subject matter wasn't as voyeuristic...for a male-based radio station. I'm getting very positive feedback."

KTUX (B-14 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Randy Robbins

"A big record."

WARQ (B-47 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Dave Stewart

"'Hand In My Pocket' was #3 requests last week, 'You Oughta Know' was #2."

WBZX (B-10 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Hal Fish

"I think it'll do really well. This market wasn't seeing tremendous over-the-top rankings on that song, but the last two weeks have been really good."

WCCC (B-21 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Todd Heft

"That's gonna be as big as the other one. It's getting a load of phones already."

WDBZ (B-47 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Darrin Arriens

"A #1 phone record...early response is good...especially 18-24."

WDIZ (B-37 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Mike Beck

WGRX (B-14 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Brian Beddow

"People are requesting it...I think it's more of an artist rather than a song thing."

WOZN (B-14 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Dano Amann

"A big request instigator. But I'm getting tired of it. Why isn't her hand in my pocket?"

WRXK (B-11 PPW) PD Greg Gillispie

"It's reacting a lot like 'You Oughta Know.' A high polarity record: some dig it, some don't because it's not rock enough. We're giving her the benefit of the doubt, although I don't like her new haircut."

WZTA (B-31 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Gregg Steele

"It's easily one of our top requesting and testing records."

X107 (B-42 PPW WKS-ON:7) PD Steve Blatter

"She's strong across the board."

ZROC (B-20 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Pat Dawsey

"The testing is not what I had hoped, but kind of what I expected. We've already moved on to 'All I Really Want,' which has the same intensity that the first track did."

KUPD (N-15 PPW) MD J. J. Jeffries

"Oh great! This song's going to be a homerun for us!!!"

KEGL (N) PD Duane Doherty

"It's just okay. By no means a 'Man In The Box' or 'I'll Stay Away.'"

KISS (N) APD Kevin Vargas

"The early phones are not good. But you've got to think in time this will come through."

KLAQ (N) PD Mike Ramsey

"It won't change the world, but I think it's good."

KNCN (N) MD Matt Vaughan

"It's real dark. Hard to get a feel on this one yet."

KQRC (N) MD Valorie Knight

"It sounds amazing. Great production."

KRXQ (N) PD Curtiss Johnson

"I'm hoping there's much better stuff on the album."

KRZR (N) PD E. Curtis Johnson

"The jocks are all talking about it and love it. I have a hard time hearing this band."

KSJO (N) PD Dana Jang

"A pretty good hooky song. It's short. Not going to say it's great yet, but it's good."

KTYD (N) PD Paul Cavanaugh

"More lively, a little harder-edged. It kind of is going back to 'Facelift.'"

KUFO (N) PD Dave Numme

"A top tier band with an average track. But it's a rocker and it's Alice in Chains, so it's going to be a one of the most played songs on the radio station."

KRZZ (B-5 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Greg Bergen

"We're looking to move that one on up...no early reaction."

KUFO (B-13 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Dave Numme

"A passive, textured record."

WDRK (B-11 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Addison Wakeford

"Real good phones across-the-board — even getting young guys calling who like it. It'll work with more spins."

WOZN (B-14 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Dano Amann

"The Satch rules! He is well-loved here — we rotate about 25 songs here."

WRXK (B-14 PPW) PD Greg Gillispie

"We do get some good calls on it and we like the way it sounds."

WAAF (N) PD Dave Douglas

"Will be a strong record for us. Not disappointed."

WARQ (N) PD Dave Stewart

"On nights to start, but it's another one that's not easy to get on the first listen. Hopefully it will build."

WBUZ (N) MD Matt Wilauer

"They can do no wrong. Of the new crop of artists they are my favorite in the whole entire fucking world!"

WBZX (N) PD Hal Fish

"It sounds good. But we are still playing the the goddamn tape."

WDBZ (N) PD Darrin Arriens

"Obviously huge phones. They have that weirdness about them. Alice in Chains is a fetish for our audience. They love it, but they just can't wait to hear more."

WDIZ (N) PD Mike Beck

"A good record with lots of buzz. It's exactly what people want to hear. Alice in Chains is an automatic for the format."

WDRZ (N) PD Joe Bevilacqua

"This is signature Alice in Chains. The phones are already coming in. I have the highest confidence in this."

WGRX (N) PD Brian Beddow

"I think it's okay. We beat the piss out of it because we got it earlier."

WHMH (N) MD Dan Peterson

"It will be added this week. It rocks - that's all I can say. Oh, and I love that band."

WLLZ (N) MD Todd Thomas

"It's okay. It's Alice In Chains. It will do well because it's them. I have a feeling there's better stuff on the album."

KATP (N-10 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Brad Elliot

"Phones are leveling off slightly."

KISS (N-11 PPW WKS-ON:3) APD Kevin Vargas

"It's a slow instrumental. There's no way in hell we're going to get good testing on it."

KTYD (N-9 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Paul Cavannaugh

"We had to stick in at night only to get it on the air...daytime this week. No phones yet."

WWBR (N-8 PPW) PD Walt Brown

"I'm not a big advocate of instrumentals, but I'll have to see what's going on in other parts of the country."

WHMH (N) MD Dan Peterson

"We haven't received the full album yet. Kind of a mellow song. Dayparted out of nights. It's just hanging, building slowly."

 "Still doing well...good phones."
KEGL (B-35 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Duane Doherty
 "The phone reaction to this is unlike anything else lately...#1 Most Requested."
KEZE (B- WKS-ON:1) MD Trip Rogers
 "Top 5 phones already blowing through the roof. The DJs think it's 'Hot Rod Lincoln from the cops' side of the coin."
KLAQ (B- 8 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Mike Ramsey
 "Great early requests...lots of young people."
KQRC (B-13 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Valorie Knight
 "The Bottle Rockets are getting some phones and they are playing a show. Half the jocks hate it and half like it. They are from the area too, so we'd expect a little more support."
KRZZ (B-12 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Greg Bergen
 "Still doing really well for us. Calls continue to build. We forecasted it as a three to four week record, but it doesn't seem to be like that. We first played it during morning drive as a parody, now we play it because it's a great song."
KTUX (B-26 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Randy Robbins
 "Having spent a week out in public at a major outdoor event, you get to see the true research at work. They sing along with it, and do the Teabury shuffle."
KTYD (B- 8 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Paul Cavannaugh
 "Definitely getting phones at night, and more curiosity during the day."

KZAK (B-25 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Chris Payne
 "We slammed it in as soon as we could. Second coming of Georgia Satellites. Burn that in as soon as you can. It's a memorable song. It's good to get on to something like this."
WDRK (B-17 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Addison Wakeford
 "It's starting to get some really good phones. I use it a lot on my show in the afternoon, and people are asking who it is and where to get it."
WHMH (B-32 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Dan Peterson
 "Oh man, they are so hot here. In heavy for a month and phones are increasing."
WWBR (B-24 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Walt Brown
 "Maintaining right now. Based on instinct it'll run its course in five or six weeks like a novelty record. It appeals mostly to 15 to 25 year olds 'cause they've all got tickets."
WAVF (N-21 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Hollie Anderson
 "Kinda new. But it sounds fun on the air. A spattering of requests."
KISS (N) APD Kevin Vargas
 "Tough call. There is something here that people go for."
WDBZ (N) PD Darrin Arriens
 "It's real early, but I put them on as our Buzz cut. Could be a novelty thing, it may be polarized with our audience, but I'm going to give it a shot, especially at night."
ZROC (N) PD Pat Dawsey
 "Doing great. No testing but phone buzz on it is good. And just from reading comments from other PDs, it seems like it's doing there what it's doing here."

KICT (B-11 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Sherry McKinnon
 "That one really grew on me. At first I thought it was wimpy but it's actually a good song with great texture. It seems that the 'Friends' thing has had an impact."
WARQ (B-47 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Dave Stewart
 "It's doing really well...seems to be one that sounds good. All of a sudden the fans are on the phone, more from the band than the song."
WDRK (B- 8 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Addison Wakeford
 "We're getting calls on it. The older crowd seems to like it and they probably watch the show."
WGRX (B-17 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Brian Beddow
 "One of those bands that people like. No one's going to wear a Toad tour jacket, but everybody seems to like their songs. But because they don't have that grind, they don't get mentioned."

WRUF (B-15 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Harry Guscott
 "I didn't want to play it at first, I thought it was way too slow. But it's a nice balance record on the air, and the more I hear it the more it's growing on me."
KFMZ (M-12 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Paul Maloney
 "I like the song personally, but it's a little light for our target."
KLAQ (M- WKS-ON:3) PD Mike Ramsey
 "It's just holding up...women never call anyway."
WAVF (M-31 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Hollie Anderson

Phones: KCLB
Rank: 37-26*

KEGL (B-11 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Duane Doherty
"A middle tier band for us. Getting some phones, but nothing that strong."

KICT (B-14 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Sherry McKinnon
"It's growing on me. We added it early for a show. We could definitely give it more spins and probably will."

KNCN (B-18 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Matt Vaughan
"I think they're one of the most important new artists we've got going right now. 'Breadmaker' is riding the wave of 'And Fools Shine On.'"

KRZZ (B- 5 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Greg Bergen
"It's a shame that this record is more aggressive than I would have liked for the second cut, while it also loses a bit of the southern feel. The band is important to us, and to a straight-ahead AOR format."

KSJO (B- 8 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Dana Jang
"I'm waiting to see how this band does with a rock track. The last track was definitely a departure...this one's more rocking."

KISS (N-11 PPW WKS-ON:1) APD Kevin Vargas
"An extremely important band. 'Breadmaker' is still being held back by 'And Fools Shine On,' which just came back as the #1 current/recurrent tester beating songs like 'Only Wanna Be With You,' 'December,' 'Plowed' and 'Everything Zen.'"

KISW (N- 5 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Cathy Faulkner
"'And Fools' was much stronger, but this is starting to build."

KLAQ (N- WKS-ON:2) PD Mike Ramsey
"I put them in the top tier with this album. If I had a vote for the album of the year it would be 'Seeds.' Just so mature, so well written, so well played and produced."

KQRC (N-14 PPW) MD Valorie Knight
"Pretty early...still important. We never seem to see sales though. Confidence is about a 6.5."

KRXQ (N- 8 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Curtiss Johnson
"A mid-line band right now. 'And Fools' started off well, but never really achieved what I thought it would."

KRZR (N-16 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD E. Curtis Johnson
"Unclaimed territory at this point. I think they've got pretty good momentum. Support may be a bit local since they just opened for Van Halen here. High hopes."

WCCC (N) PD Todd Heft
"It's testing through the roof. Minimal requests, light retail. It's a turntable hit."

KUFO (N- 7 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Dave Numme
"The band is developing nicely with the audience. They accepted the track off the first album which we still play and they have accepted the first single from this album very well. We have every indication they'll like this track too."

WDBZ (N-10 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Darrin Arriens
"Personally I love the sound. I hope I can move it up soon. Good night-time response. It's staying on the playlist because of the good research. I didn't think anything would be as good as the first track but it fits in perfectly and so we want to try and move it up."

WDRK (N-10 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Addison Wakeford
"Rock and roll is a tough sell right now but this track's good."

WGRX (N-18 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Brian Beddow
"I would put them in a secondary tier, maybe with the Toadies or Blind Melon. I think the other track had a better hook...not a bad song."

WHMH (N- 7 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Dan Peterson
"I love it. Sounds like some jazz quartet at first. It rocks and we'll probably give it a big jump when we get room. It will be on the list for a while."

WOZN (N-16 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Dano Amann
"I like this a lot...it's growing on me. Nothing from the audience, but they tend to be more passive. Our audience is familiar with them. I want the band to work and they're a priority for me."

WRUF (N-13 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Harry Guscott
"An up and coming act, along with, Alanis Morissette, or perhaps Blues Traveler, or even Kenny Wayne Shepard — all those contenders that haven't broken through to the next level yet."

WBZX (N) PD Hal Fish
"I'm still a little suspicious regarding this group's importance. I think it is a good sounding radio sound. We are willing to give it another chance."

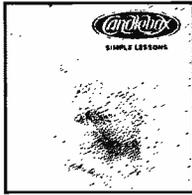

WDZR (N) PD Joe Bevilacqua
"It's a great straight ahead mainstream rock record. You get the goods early. I like Brother Cane. I am a bit concerned about the lack of sales, though."

CANDLEBOX, "SIMPLE LESSONS" MAVERICK

KISW (B-18 PPW WKS-ON:6) MD Cathy Faulkner

"Still happening big time. I'm looking forward to seeing the first week sales."

KLAQ (B- WKS-ON:6) PD Mike Ramsey

"It's doing what I expected...Top 5 requests with good sales in the market."

KLLO (B-18 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Andy Beaubien

"Doing alright. It isn't setting the world on fire, but I suspect maybe there's a little bit of artist burn."

KRZR (B-21 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD E. Curtis Johnson

"Ahead of the curve. It may beat the dreaded sophomore curse."

KUFO (B-25 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Dave Numme

"It's still developing and we've been hitting it pretty heavily out-of-the-box. Not the strongest track on the album but the audience is still learning about it."

WAAF (B-38 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Dave Douglas

"The initial sales in the market were very encouraging."

WBUZ (B-19 PPW WKS-ON:6) MD Matt Wilauer

"Still doing great. This is a big Candlebox town. And we're also looking forward to a show soon."

WBZX (B-40 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Hal Fish

"Performing better than I expected. Medium pack, at best, test wise. But we actually got it to heavy for a short time. But it's back in medium now. Typical callers: male, probably about 25."

WDIZ (B-36 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Mike Beck

"It's doing very well for us...building still. It's doing better for us here than the alternative stations. This market definitely perceives them as a rock band, not alternative."

WZTA (B-19 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Gregg Steele

"It's doing surprisingly well...holding its own with upper demos. A great start with females, but this track seems to be more male by its hardness. Great female and huge 25-29 numbers. They're starting to come around well."

WARQ (D-18 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Dave Stewart

"Performing 'Far Behind' my expectations. They simply need a better song."

KEGL (M-13 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Duane Doherty

"Underperforming from the perspective that I was looking for. Light phones, mediocre research."

KICT (M-19 PPW WKS-ON:6) MD Sherry McKinnon

"The PD is less than excited, so we may move on to another track."

KILO (M-32 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Rich Hawk

"Not outta there yet...let's give it a couple more weeks."

KNCN (M-29 PPW WKS-ON:6) MD Matt Vaughan

"Personally I think it's performing behind expectations. There's got to be better tracks on the CD."

KQRC (M-15 PPW WKS-ON:6) MD Valorie Knight

"Doing alright. Not a 'Far Behind' — a mid-charter testing; a few phones — they have dropped off."

KRXQ (M-19 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Curtiss Johnson

"I would have hoped for a little more from this first track, but I think this record is pretty solid. My LP track pick: 'Understanding.'"

KRZZ (M- 6 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Greg Bergen

"Phones are flat. We'll add another cut in the next week or two."

KSJO (M-19 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Dana Jang

"I'm disappointed by the overall performance...looks like it has peaked."

KUPD (M-33 PPW WKS-ON:6) MD J. J. Jeffries

"They've played in this market so much, I'm not worried about research. They're practically our house band."

WCCC (M-14 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Todd Heft

"We're about ready for a new track."

WDBZ (M-47 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Darrin Arriens

"Our research is okay. It probably peaked...phones are so so. This may be a short-lived record, but I am confident something else will pop up."

WDRK (M-20 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Addison Wakeford

"Just average phones...very surprised. It's a good song that hasn't caught on yet."

WDRZ (M-33 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Joe Bevilacqua

"Just came back so-so in tests. Did real well with first week sales...Top 10. People are interested in hearing the new song, but it's not as reactive as 'Far Behind.' A good sounding record for a current rock station. Modern rock may not be as happy. Not real familiar yet. Phones are fair. But a song that deserves play."

WLLZ (M-23 PPW WKS-ON:6) MD Todd Thomas

"There's interest in it...a good phone record for us. They're coming to town on November 4th with Sponge and Our Lady Peace."

WOZN (M-16 PPW) PD Dano Amann

"We re-added it. It was climbing up quickly so we put it back in. We get Candlebox requests, but not as much for this record."

WWBR (M-31 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Walt Brown

"About average performance. I still think that it's one of the weaker tracks on the album."

X107 (M-26 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Steve Blatter

"Not doing much...getting concerned."

ZROC (M-30 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Pat Dawsey

"I'm not getting a real good read on it either way. It's still a pretty cool song. It sounds very Candlebox. Its primary appeal: any 19 year old."

KISS (N-25 PPW WKS-ON:6) APD Kevin Vargas

"Underperforming...a severe lack of passion scores. Although it has high unrecognizability, it could still develop."

KLOS (N-22 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Carey Curelop

"Medium testing so far."

KTYD (N-16 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Paul Cavannaugh

"Still too early for me."

WRUF (N-20 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Harry Guscott

"Another one of those bands that I think is faceless. A decent song, developing in the second tier, but no great passion for the song."

KQRC (B-18 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Valorie Knight

"Already researching Top 5 with men. I'm sure the MTV has helped. I can't see a 32-year-old female getting into it, but it's in everything except mid-day or morning."

KTUX (B-27 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Randy Robbins

"A great radio record, and I've watched people respond to it physically."

KZAK (B-28 PPW WKS-ON:10) MD Chris Payne

"Once again we were on it early. It has tough tread — you can play it a lot. Now that all of Atlantic is behind it, it's selling and it refuses to die."

KISS (D- 8 PPW WKS-ON:6) APD Kevin Vargas

"It probably won't make the cut."

KRZZ (D- 4 PPW WKS-ON:10) MD Greg Bergen

WGRX (M- 8 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Brian Beddow

"I really like this song at the station. I feel good about it. I was going to bag it, but we started getting some requests."

WLLZ (M-15 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Todd Thomas

WWBR (M-18 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Walt Brown

"Border line...basically younger demos with us."

X107 (M-19 PPW WKS-ON:7) PD Steve Blatter

KEZE (N- 7 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Trip Rogers

"I expected more from this one. I have seen light phones so far. It will hold its own for a little more. We hope that the video is helping."

KICT (N-14 PPW WKS-ON:9) MD Sherry McKinnon

"It's still building and was just moved into medium...I love the video. We had it light but now it's starting to open up. It's really catchy."

KRXQ (B- 9 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Curtiss Johnson

KTUX (B-13 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Randy Robbins

"#1 phones. It won't go away with just night play. Definitely a lot of interest in that band."

KQRC (B-12 PPW) MD Valorie Knight

"Getting some phones at night."

KUPD (B-32 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD J. J. Jeffries

"Stone cold smash! Big phones...we just added a depth track. We're one of the nation's leaders. A very hot band...we got response the first week we put it on. They have a buzz about them. It's not really that hard tempo-wise, it's slower than Green Day. I would look past the heaviness and give it a shot."

WDBZ (B-10 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Darrin Arriens

"Great night-time record. It has the Pantera following. Unlike Pantera, it has actual singing and great musicianship. Night reaction has been good. We're playing it everywhere except morning."

KZAK (B-13 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Chris Payne

"Another southern thing. This is the best Lynyrd Skynyrd song in twenty years. An amazing piece of work you can mix with any heritage artist in the format. You can play it at 7am and any other time. If you're not hip to Down you will be left behind. If you're Looking for 18-34's, this is where they are at."

KRXQ (B-19 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Curtiss Johnson

"Still good calls."

KSJO (B- 8 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Dana Jang

"Lots of early calls."

KISS (N- 8 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Virgil Thompson

"An active record with strong curiosity."

KNCN (N- 9 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Matt Vaughan

"Too early, but boy, I anticipate some good things. A really good sound."

WDZR (B-18 PPW WKS-ON:2) Joe Bevilacqua

"Great story here. If COC and Pantera do well for you, it will work. If you're a station that doesn't play heavier stuff, it may not work unless it's a night record. A no-brainer for us."

KRZR (N-10 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD E. Curtis Johnson

"Nothing yet, but that's about the only song on the whole playlist right now that I'm actually excited about."

FOO FIGHTERS, "Y'LL STICK AROUND" CAPITOL

New: KEGL, WCCC, WIZN, WFSM
 Phones: WZTA
 Rank: 21-16*

KEZE (B- WKS-ON:1) MD Trip Rogers

"We're starting to see very good response on the phones, the band's name is getting out there. We have even been so bold as to do double shots. They are both doing well. This is in medium right now. In time it will go heavy. It should last through the new music."

KICT (B-17 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Sherry McKinnon

"Both songs built kind of slowly, but it is performing...it may just take a little time."

KILO (B-30 PPW WKS-ON:8) MD Rob Hunter

"Doing real well and maintaining."

KUPD (B-32 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD J. J. Jeffries

"Good record...researches well. I think it's one of the best songs on the album. The first song had burn — this is showing distance."

WBUZ (B-10 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Matt Wilauer

"We are starting to get phones now. I think this will be bigger than 'This Is A Call' — it has a bigger hook."

WDBZ (B-18 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Darrin Arriens

"It's definitely the better track of the two — better phones...has a hook...much happier."

WLLZ (B-21 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Todd Thomas

"Real good requests — we're having a hard time figuring out what to use for the hook — testing so so."

WZTA (B-17 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Gregg Steele

"It's growing due to video exposure."

ZROC (B-31 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Pat Dawsey

"It's at #12 with our P1's, #23 overall. Definitely moving up."

KISW (M-17 PPW WKS-ON:9) MD Cathy Faulkner

"We have been playing it since the album came out — the video helps, too."

WAVF (M-13 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Hollie Anderson

"Nothing really new...sounds good...not doing anything special."

WDZR (M-31 PPW WKS-ON:8) PD Joe Bevilacqua

"Moving into recurrent. It did not perform like I thought it would. It didn't test very highly nor did it request. We stuck it in heavy for awhile and I thought it would react, but 'This Is A Call' was more exciting."

KEGL (B-21 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Duane Doherty

"Less impact than expected...by no means are we getting the reaction we thought we would."

KICT (B-18 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Sherry McKinnon

"It's still very strong. It could still build more, but they are as strong as they'll probably get."

KILO (B-28 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Rich Hawk

"We can say it's been underperforming but I think it's got a lot of headroom left. You have to hear it 20 or 30 times before you get the hook."

KISS (B-12 PPW WKS-ON:2) APD Kevin Vargas

"Past history mandates that we give it every shot possible."

KLAQ (B- 8 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Mike Ramsey

"More impact than I expected. The kids just go nuts for this band. There are no callers over 15. #1 sales first week in the market, it's ahead of some real heavy hitters."

KLOL (B- 9 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Cindy Bennett

"We knew with 'J.A.R.' that they weren't as big as they were a year ago, and especially with all of the burn, it's doing what we expected."

KLOS (B-22 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Carey Curelop

"It's starting to happen like one would expect it to."

KQRC (B-21 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Valorie Knight

"Getting some phones. People were calling for it as soon as they released it. They still seem excited."

KRZR (B-21 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD E. Curtis Johnson

"It's more important than what I thought it would be. The comments seem to be consistent: 'Thank heaven this doesn't sound like the last one.'"

KUFO (B-13 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Dave Numme

"It's turning out to be more important. The track is strong. Green Day have an innate ability to put out hooky records. It seems like it's been non-stop Green Day for several months, and the danger is that they have the potential to get blurred together due to the rapidity of those releases."

WAAF (B-34 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Dave Douglas

"You just keep waiting for it to cool down, but it refuses to. 15,000 tickets sold here in less than six hours."

WARQ (B-23 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Dave Stewart

"Still predominately a younger fan base, as far as requests go. A catchy song. I wouldn't think it would be too offensive to older demos."

WBUZ (B-16 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Matt Wilauer

"A lot of phones on that one. It's a fairly young response, but the adults like it too."

WCCC (B-20 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Todd Heft

"More important than I thought. People in the audience care very much...it's a strong album that will be around for a while."

WDIZ (B-25 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Mike Beck

"I think it's going to be fine. The next single or two will tell if it measures up to the first one. If they come close it will be a victory. We're starting to see some burn from the alternative crowd. The rock audience still enjoys the old stuff."

WDRK (B-11 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Addison Wakeford

"It's just starting to get phones. People are beginning to realize there's a whole new album."

WGRX (B-20 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Brian Beddow

"Less impact than I thought it would have, but still very important."

WLLZ (B-24 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Todd Thomas

"A core artist for us. One of our Top 5 or 6 most requested, and they just announced a show that should sell out in about 10 seconds. I'm not worried at all...a home run."

WZTA (B-22 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Gregg Steele

"It's still doing great business on the phones. I'm wondering if this will have as much 25+ appeal as the last one did."

X107 (B-36 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Steve Blatter

"Their appeal is definitely more than teens."

KRXQ (M-19 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Curtiss Johnson

"We're getting very strong response on that. The industry has probably gotten burned quicker than the general public outthere. The phones are very active, not just the 14-year-olds."

WAVF (M-13 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Hollie Anderson

"Actually we don't have anything yet. Just getting some kiddie calls."

WRUF (M-11 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Harry Guscott

"It's less important than I thought it would be, but the verdict is still out on the record. It's not as mass appeal as their other tracks, and a little more young-end."

KISW (N-16 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Cathy Faulkner

"It's doing very well...not huge on requests, mainly younger. I think the audience may be more critical this time...we'll see how it does."

KNCN (N- 9 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Matt Vaughan

"Disappointed! Everything they've done sounds the same to me."

KSJO (N-18 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Dana Jang

"I think it pretty much has met my anticipation. The younger end are very much impassioned, while the upper end seems to be ambivalent toward them."

KZAK (N-37 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Chris Payne

"At a point when I thought that their lyrics were too silly they come up with this showing of what crank can do to you."

WBZX (N-11 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Hal Fish

"We're still looking at teens and young callers. It serves its purpose."

WDBZ (N-18 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Darrin Arriens

"A very young record...so far so good with requests."

WWBR (N-29 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Walt Brown

"It's having a better impact saleswise than I anticipated. I haven't seen the requests I was hoping for. But kids are back in school and lower demos are not on the phones 'til after 3 O'Clock."

ZROC (P) PD Pat Dawsey

"I kind of felt some burn, saw the comments this week, and I agree with the thought that kids making fun of it is a dangerous sign. That and the fact that Lee Abrams' ten year old daughter was in the AOL chat room talking about Pocohantas and Green Day. When you've got sub-teens who are rabid about an animated movie and a rock band in the same breath, I worry."

KNCN (B-18 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Matt Vaughan

"What a great regional record — for the south, it's perfect...light phones."

KRZZ (B- 9 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Greg Bergen

KTUX (B-27 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Randy Robbins

"Local artist. Wish it was 1979."

WDRK (B-10 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Addison Wakeford

MELISSA ETHERIDGE,
"YOUR LITTLE SECRET"
ISLAND*KILO (N) PD Rich Hawk

"We just think it sounds like the Black Crowes backing-up her, it's got some great, some guitar. It rocks. As far as I'm concerned the format has to be more open to female rockers. Name recognition alone is going to get you some response."

KLOS (N) PD Carey Curelop

"I love the record. She has always worked extremely well for KLOS."

KNCN (N) MD Matt Vaughan

"Bad-ass song from Melissa. Smokin'."

KQRC (N) MD Valorie Knight

"This is the first Melissa that really hits me when I hear it on the air."

KRXQ (N) PD Curtiss Johnson

"She was major for us in Phoenix. Here a lot of stuff hasn't done well, but this is a pretty straight-ahead rock record, and if anything this will open her up for my audience."

KTYD (N) PD Paul Cavanaugh

"It's very strong. They never played Melissa here until Dave and Jim bought the station. I've been a fan from the beginning and a big supporter. I worked at least one of her records. Every song we've played has proven that. This song has been on for less than a week, and the phones are already very active."

WARQ (N) PD Dave Stewart

"Musically it sounds great. Lyrically, to each his own. Didn't seem to hurt Elton."

WAVF (N) MD Hollie Anderson

"She seems to have a lot of fans around here."

WCCC (N) PD Todd Heft

"Pretty good. Pleasantly surprised. It has some balls to it. That will help her at this format. Have been pulling out a whole lot of old stuff due to perception that she's a pop artist."

WOZN (N) PD Dano Amann

"This one rocks for her. I like the subject matter."

WRUF (N) PD Harry Guscott

"That record is an AOR smash. It's exactly what the format needs. That Top 40 probably won't touch, she rocks and there's a decent hook on the record. Very high on it."

WRXK (N) PD Greg Gillispie

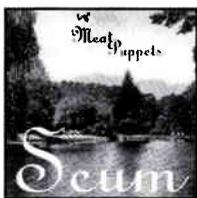

"I think it's a great record. A lot of rock stations might have gotten nervous with the A/C play on her last record. This puts her squarely back in rock radio's court."

WWBR (N) PD Walt Brown

"It's Melissa, it rocks. On initial listening I figured it was a mid chart song. Blowing it out on MTV, we're beginning to get calls, waiting they're to see what sales look like."

KNCA (B-19 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Matt Vaughan

WCCC (B-26 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Todd Heft

WDIZ (B-20 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Mike Beck

"He's still very strong with our audience from a catalogue perspective. He also tests well — including the old stuff with the alternative audience."

WDRK (B-19 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Addison Wakeford

WLLZ (B-23 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Todd Thomas

"Getting better tests than I thought it would."

KILO (B-29 PPW WKS-ON:7) PD Rich Hawk

"Equal calls for both this week."

KISS (B-21 PPW WKS-ON:7) APD Kevin Vargas

"'Warped' has been testing for us all along. It's starting to show a little burn, but still very solid, especially among KISS core."

KLOS (B-11 PPW WKS-ON:8) PD Carey Curelop

"It's doing pretty well for us — that's why we stuck with both in reasonable rotations."

KRXQ (B- WKS-ON:7) PD Curtiss Johnson

"It'll be a good recurrent for us. It didn't test too quickly, but it's real strong now."

KSJO (B-17 PPW WKS-ON:7) PD Dana Jang

"Both songs are doing very well for me in my research. I'm surprised by the demo spread on 'Warped.'"

KTUX (B-27 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Randy Robbins

"We took it out and then we got phones."

WCCC (B-14 PPW WKS-ON:7) PD Todd Heft

"It's still testing really well."

WDIZ (B-9 PPW WKS-ON:7) PD Mike Beck

"No research on 'Friends,' but 'Warped' is starting to show very well. We're getting more calls for 'My Friends,' but 'Warped' is starting to test very well."

WGRX (B-11 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Brian Beddow

"It sounds better with the intro cut off."

WLLZ (B-11 PPW WKS-ON:7) MD Todd Thomas

"It's still testing pretty well for us, but 'My Friends' is the smash. We were getting requests before anyone was playing it."

WZTA (B-16 PPW WKS-ON:7) PD Gregg Steele

"Research on 'My Friends' is a familiarity issue. 'Warped' is still researching very well...still very young."

ZROC (B-30 PPW WKS-ON:7) PD Pat Dawsey

"'Warped' does real well with men. 'Friends' will be more of a female record."

KUPD (M-19 PPW WKS-ON:7) MD J. J. Jeffries

"This is kind of moderate. People like it...researching moderately."

"'Warped' didn't go anywhere. It's still early on for 'My Friends.'"

KRXQ (B-20 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Curtiss Johnson

"It started out-of-the-box very strong...stronger than 'Warped'."

KRZR (B-21 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD E. Curtis Johnson

"'My Friends' is surpassing 'Warped,' much to my dismay. I think 'Warped' will be one of those songs that people will drop fairly early, and about six months from now will test through the roof."

"A little poppy, but there are enough guitars to make it work."

WAAF (B-23 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Dave Douglas

WRUF (B-17 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Harry Guscott

"A very strong reaction. That'll be in power in a very short period of time. The phones are good...research is coming back very positive. Nothing will hold that record back."

WWBR (B-24 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Walt Brown

"Top 10 album sales. We think 'My Friends' is the track that's selling it."

WZTA (B-21 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Gregg Steele

"Fairly passive...not a lot of requests. It has great potential...not as familiar."

X107 (B-42 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Steve Blatter

"Smash, as confirmed by our testing."

ZROC (B-19 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Pat Dawsey

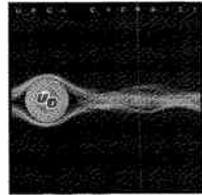

"We're giving almost equal emphasis to both tracks. We have 'Warped' in power and 'My Friends' in medium. 'Friends' is 43% familiar, only 56% familiar with core, and falling into average popularity. 'Warped' is doing great. Last week it was our #1 tester, and this week #8."

KRZZ (N-6 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Greg Bergen

KRZZ (M-5 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Greg Bergen

"I was hoping to have huge reaction by now. It just hasn't happened. I put 'em in the same tier as the Meat Puppets, and a notch down from Blues Traveler or Soul Asylum."

WDBZ (D-19 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Darrin Arriens

"No reaction from the beginning. Research is OK — non active — but that doesn't mean it won't break through. The sound definitely fits...and if the sound fits, you must spin it. 'Sister Havana' had much better success reaction-wise."

KICT (M-22 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Sherry McKinnon

"It sounds better on the radio than it does in the office. 'Sister Havana' is still in the library. It seems to be performing similarly to that song. We hope it will end up doing as well."

THE SMASHING PUMPKINS, "BULLET WITH THE BUTTERFLY WINGS" VIRGIN

Phones: KICT, WDBZ, WZTA
Rank: 0-28*

KSJO (N-11 PPW) PD Dana Jang

"I would put that one in the second tier of importance. There's definitely some really passionate people in the audience — but it doesn't reflect the overall audience as of yet."

KTYD (N- 2 PPW) PD Paul Cavannaugh

"They're getting back to their more alternative slant."

KATP (N) PD Brad Elliot

"Hard to tell it's the Smashing Pumpkins at first, until you get to the whiny chorus."

KEGL (N) PD Duane Doherty

"I think its real important. Finally a smokin' record that fits right in with what we're doing. They're no longer a fringe type of thing."

KICT (N) MD Sherry McKinnon

"That jumps right into the top five phones. A dark sounding record, especially for them. It has that hooky little chorus, in fact it reminds me of the stuff from Gish. They are excellent."

KILO (N) PD Rich Hawk

"Some good early response. A second tier band at this point, in a class with Candlebox."

KISS (N) APD Kevin Vargas

"Very important. Heard the whole album, and this is a double that won't disappoint. It's very deep, very quirky but hooky. It never goes too far hooky to sound too poppy or too quirky. This album is going to solidify them in the upper/middle artist range. AOR will deal with about 4 tracks and they'll all be successful."

KISW (N) MD Cathy Faulkner

"Good first week out with interest and requests. I like it."

KRXQ (N) PD Curtiss Johnson

"I think it's a real important record. Didn't know whether I liked it on first listen, but on the radio, I think it's going to be a very solid record for us."

KUFO (N) PD Dave Numme

"They're a mid tier band. I think it's a great song. A rock song and it's pretty cool."

WAAF (N) PD Dave Douglas

"Upper middle in importance to us."

WARQ (N) PD Dave Stewart

"Perhaps more important here than on a national level. One of the few bands that have played here. They sold out the Township Auditorium in 22 minutes, and Hootie was the only band able to do it faster. Started playing Friday and already #1 phones. Across the board demos on this too."

WAVF (N) MD Hollie Anderson

"Already getting a lot of requests. Will probably be #1 requests."

WBUZ (N) MD Matt Wilauer

"Love this band. They're a major artist for us. Phones are going crazy. May be our #1 request next week."

WBZX (N) PD Hal Fish

"I think it's important. I just think its very cutting edge, the record sounds great. Sonically it's wonderful, and the song is good on top of everything else."

WCCC (N) PD Todd Heft

"It's getting some phones right now. I think it's a great record. Middle to upper tier. Not essentially for most of our audience but very solid and people want to hear it."

WDBZ (N) PD Darrin Arriens

"Again very good off the bat phones. A little afraid at first, but when it starts to rock, the hook will pull the record through."

WDIZ (N) PD Mike Beck

"Very important band. Huge. At this point, it's an automatic. He sounds just like Mick Jagger in this song."

WDZR (N) PD Joe Bevilacqua

"Oh that's a great fucking record. This is going to be big. This is the best record I heard this month - which right now is saying a lot. This is great. People are calling asking for it by name. Reminds me of young Stones."

WGRX (N) PD Brian Beddow

"Almost a level 1 band. Once you understand the story behind the song, you kind of like it a little more. We still get a lot of requests for their stuff from Siamese Dream."

WLLZ (N) MD Todd Thomas

"For our radio station, they're one of our core artists and top tier. We play everything from 'Drown' to 'Rocket' to 'Disarm.' The #1 requested track at our station."

WRUF (N) PD Harry Guscott

"On balance it's what we anticipated. Valuable enough to play and try to establish. Some hooks. I like the guitar riff. Band is of middle importance. Song of low to middle."

WWBR (N) PD Walt Brown

"It's real important to me because a lot of people in this format question The Smashing Pumpkins. It looks extremely good after one week of calls. I think it will do well for us. I don't care what people in other formats say about it."

ZROC (N) PD Pat Dawsey

"A very important record. I would put them in as one of the tier one type bands for the '90s, if not a very close secondary at any rate. I think this track is very good."

KNCN (B-20 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Matt Vaughan

"'Rainin'" has been fairly successful. We're seeing a lot of 'Who is that?' calls even though they have had a few songs played. People are still becoming familiar with Sponge."

KRXQ (B-19 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Curtiss Johnson

"We supported this project from day one. I'll wait and see what happens with this track — slow and steady seems to be the approach."

KTYD (B-15 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Paul Cavannaugh

"Sponge, in general, reacts well here. They've been through town two or three times, and they're coming again next week. Their audience awareness is stronger than most due to the fact we've dealt with every track from them."

WARQ (B-19 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Dave Stewart

"The overall audience awareness of the band seems to be a bit low. 'Plowed' and 'Molly' were such different songs that the average listener may not have caught on that these songs were by the same band."

WDIZ (B-22 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Mike Beck

"I think they've had three songs that sound like three different bands — it's hard to get a handle — although I do think this one will be fine."

WRUF (B-11 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Harry Guscott

WAAF (N-8 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Dave Douglas

"They're victims of the superstar glut — awareness is relatively low."

KEZE (N-5 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Trip Rogers

"It's a recognizable Sponge track. Hoping to see video support, otherwise it will die."

KLAQ (N-8 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Mike Ramsey

"They're coming here next week. Their awareness is high right now — before the show was booked it was low. 'Rainin'' is holding its own."

KTUX (N-16 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Randy Robbins

"It's early — 'Molly' was a daypart. 'Plowed' still works well in heavy recurrent, but 'Molly' broke that band away from the pack in terms of pop accessibility."

WBZX (N-10 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Hal Fish

"I don't think this track is going to happen...not getting much on it yet. Not a request record — it'll take forever to get it familiar. I openly wonder if we have that long."

WCCC (N-10 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Todd Heft

"There's no response at all to that record. I think the audience is aware of the band due to market airplay saturation."

WDRK (N-11 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Addison Wakeford

"Personally I don't like it as much as 'Plowed' or 'Molly.' However, I think they've squeezed enough out of this band."

WZTA (N-22 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Gregg Steele

"This track does not seem to be as important to the audience — not reacting like 'Molly' did, comparatively."

WWBR (B-24 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Walt Brown

"A very strong reaction here. They sold out a concert Saturday night...strong sales and requests."

KRXQ (A) PD Curtiss Johnson

"One of those Alternative bands that seems to be crossing over big and this is more of a rock record than 'I've Got a Girl' was."

WARQ (A) PD Dave Stewart

"We had a great run with 'I Got A Girl'. 'I like the sound.'"

WBUZ (A) MD Matt Wilauer

"A better tune than the first. Even though it reacted it had a high burn. Their last show did well here."

SONY & O'BRIEN LAUNCH NEW LABELS

Sony Music and Brendan O'Brien have joined into a label and production agreement, that has O'Brien launching two record labels, 57 Records and Shotput Records, through Sony. 57 Records will be distributed by Sony and its releases marketed and promoted through Sony Music's Epic Records Group and Columbia Records Group labels. Shotput Records, distributed primarily through RED, will sign and record regional southeast artists as well as reissue recordings. Glenn Phillips, an original member of The Hampton Grease Band, and The Sight-seers are Shotput's first signings.

shotput

O'Brien will oversee the A&R, production, and recording activities for both labels, and will produce new and developing artists exclusively for Sony Music and his two labels. "Brendan is one of those rare combinations of musicianship, artistic integrity, and commercial instinct," commented CRG Chairman Don Ienner. "Every project he becomes involved with benefits from his extraordinary gifts. He truly takes talented artists to another creative level, and we're greatly looking forward to a long, rewarding partnership at Columbia and WORK." Epic Records President Richard Griffiths added, "He's always been a great producer, and is now extending his abilities to signing artists and working with them at every level."

On October 17th, Sony will release the first recording from 57 Records, Vulture, by the Atlanta-based band 3 lb. thrill, which will be marketed and promoted through Sony 550 Music. "We are very happy to have the debut release of 57 Records on 550 Music," said Son 550 Music President Polly Anthony. "Our entire staff is excited about working with Brendan to introduce 3 lb. thrill. Vulture is a great album that ranks with Brendan's best productions."

O'Brien's production credits include Pearl Jam's Vs. and Vitalogy, Neil Young's Mirror Ball, Matthew Sweet's 100% Fun, Stone Temple Pilots' Core and Purple, Pete Dinklage's Necktie Second, Dogman by Kings X, Uncle Green's Book of Bad Thoughts, and Dan Baird's Love Songs For The Hearing Impaired.

WARONKER & OSTINS JOIN DREAMWORKS SKG

Former Warner Bros. Records Chairman/CEO Mo Ostin, and President Lenny Waronker will head up the much anticipated management team for DreamWorks SKG Music, along with Michael Ostin (Mo Ostin's son), who was most recently Warner Bros. Sr. VP/A&R. Mo Ostin will be the senior member of the team and function as the chief executive. Taking an unconventional approach, there will be no corporate titles at the company. At its inception, there will be two music labels, SKG Records — named for founders Steven Spielberg, Jeffrey Katzenberg, and David Geffen — and the soundtrack label DreamWorks. "Mo and I have been friends and have done business together for years," commented Geffen. "When I founded Geffen Records, it was marketed and distributed through Warner Bros. After competing with each other for 15 years, it'll be fun to be on the same side. We have the ultimate affection and regard for each other." Ostin concurred, "DreamWorks SKG is the most exciting entertainment company to come along in decades. I couldn't imagine a better environment in which to work and build a new record label. I'm just ecstatic." The DreamWorks SKG labels will temporarily operate out of Geffen Records' West Hollywood headquarters.

MCGUINN MAKES NETWORK MOVE

There's no official announcement yet, but Noise has confirmed that KPNT/WVRV-St. Louis OM Jim McGuinn is exiting that post and has accepted the Ops Manager position for the WDRE Network. Other changes in store for Alternative 'DRE include involvement with Pollack Media and on-site Program Directors for Network stations, including WIBF/Philadelphia.

Zoo Entertainment announced the appointment of 13-year industry veteran Dana Kiel to National Director/Pop Promotion. Kiel joined CBS Records in 1982, advancing from an assistant in the copyright and broadcast service department to Director of Pop Promotion West Coast. Another addition to the promotion department is David Ross who has been appointed Northeast Regional Promotion/Marketing Manager for Zoo. Ross spent the last few years as Regional Marketing and Promotion Manager for Atco EastWest Records based in the Northeast. "David's a veteran, whose relationships with radio throughout the northeast are well documented," said Pfordresher. "We welcome him to the Zoo family, and with Ray Gmeiner, consider him one of our twin towers." Also in promotion, David Tezak was appointed Great Lakes Regional Promotion/Marketing Manager. Tezak was previously with Hollywood Records as a Regional Promotion Manager Mid-Central Market. Prior to that, he was Promotion Manager for Columbia and Capitol in the Detroit Market. Bruce Mittman

Over the course of the past several years, WAAF has become one of the country's premiere rock stations. Its signal blankets two-thirds of Massachusetts, extending into sections of Vermont, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, and Connecticut. Capitalizing on their massive signal strength, GM Bruce Mittman and staff have built WAAF into a legitimate billing monster, no small feat given the station's highly attitudinal on-air approach. Bruce has owned stations, and has worked at heritage legends such as WRKO, but butting heads in Boston for 'AAF is clearly what gets this guy off most. Well, that and a sub-90 round.

WAAF practically wrote the book on value added. Now that every station is loading on the bells and whistles, how full is your VA plate?

Bruce: It's too full. It's a problem and it's an opportunity. The problem is that it's interruptions on the air. When you are in a tight competitive situation you want to play as much music or do as much quality on-air imaging as you can. The real game is how to provide more support for the clients without stinking up the radio. We try to develop as many tentacles to reach our listeners as possible. Those tentacles would be in the form of interactive phone lines that are sponsorable, or a Web site that's sponsorable, or maybe a couponing program on the back of bumper stickers, which is traditional to some degree but is still a good usage. We have mega-promotions that we do off-site all during the year. We have a very active promotional calendar. A case in point would be our annual Halloween party, where we do ticket blitzes at retail sites. The only way you can get to an 'AAF Halloween concert party is to get the tickets at retail sites or on the air. You don't go on the air giving tickets away all day, you promote the fact that we will be at a certain site and the first two hundred people that get there get their tickets. So you are building an event for a client but you are also solving your own marketing issues. Those are the kinds of things that we try to do to enhance the value but not to gum up the on-air presentation.

Is the Web site paying any kind of serious dividends for you or do you feel like you are way before the curve?

Bruce: We are getting enormous numbers of hits from that thing. The interesting part about it is when you download a lot of the messages that are going to the jocks, you start to see some threads of themes coming through. It's acting somewhat as market research for us. From that point of view it's very positive.

Can you give me an example of messages or themes that were forming via the site?

Bruce: We have a morning show that I think is pretty funny and pretty interactive. Our traffic guy, who we've named Major Dick, is starting to become a little personality in his own right. Believe it or not, we just got over 30 e-mails asking for Major Dick's picture and his bio. You never would have thought that your traffic guy would have that sort of presence. You hopefully set him up so that he is an important part of the presentation but whether it sticks or not you don't really know.

The Hard Interview

Do the morning guys discuss what's happening in the chat room during their show?

Bruce: We're just setting up our chat room. They do see what's there after they are off the air. Greg and Kevin check for their messages. And then respond for an hour.

I hear Cousin Ed, the night guy on WDRE, making reference to what's happening in the chat room all the time, but I'm not sure the mass audience relates to those comments.

Bruce: I see the Web site as a separate medium that interfaces with your medium. I'm not sure integrating it on the air is as critical as allowing access to and having interaction with the radio station. It's nice to have e-mail requests for music. If you can respond that's good because a lot more people have computers on their desks and during lunch they start to hunt through the web site. Right now it's obviously somewhat in its infancy in terms of importance.

In a market the size of Boston how hard do you have to sell radio as a medium? Is it easier than in the secondary and tertiary markets?

Bruce: To be successful you have to always be selling radio. There are loads of new advertisers that are potential targets for you. A number of them have never used radio so there is always that on-going sell about why radio makes more sense. In a major market like Boston you have lots of agencies doing business already but that's not to say that you won't make a presentation to a major advertiser who is spending a big portion of their money in print and convincing them to take a half page out of a 16 page print buy and use that money for a fairly high level of regional radio frequency. Developing new business, developing new advertisers is a must if you want to grow and stay alive in radio.

How was business when you arrived at WAAF?

Bruce: When I joined here in '91, the market was pretty recessed. Before I got here the station had already started in the New Rock direction, and that began to give us some momentum. Unfortunately at that point many people were unfamiliar with New Rock and the new groups and it was a little esoteric for some of the advertisers. Then our new direction started to create a whole new marketplace for us.

Before that marketplace opened up, were you and then PD Ron Valeri on the same page regarding WAAF's current intensive direction?

Bruce: Yes. I thought it was a great strategy. I believe that radio should be properly niched. Here we were going at 18-34 and everybody in Boston was going at 25-54. Even the traditional rockers like 'BCN were pretty much targeting that demo. I felt that this was a nice opportunity for the station to start to develop a real relationship with that 18-34 advertiser, who really doesn't have a lot of places to go. Television is really expensive, and reaching 18-34 is even more expensive. 18-34s don't read newspapers. They aren't active readers of that many magazines. From a localized basis that allowed us a whole new marketing opportunity by just projecting ourselves 18-34. As a matter of fact, when I first came on board, we went to a lot of the agencies and said 'We're not going to come in here and tell you that we're a 25-54 radio station.' Which gave them a lot of relief that they didn't have to battle us. They then started to comprehend the opportunity in using the radio station. It also allowed us all to singly focus on what the goals were. It turned around pretty quickly in '91.

What happened first - advertiser support or ratings growth?

Bruce: The advertising support came first. WAAF, prior to this point, would have one or two good books then a number of lousy books. It wasn't that it was their fault, it's just that when you are dealing in Arbitron and at that point so few 18-34 diaries, you are always going to see fluctuation. They'd have one good book, one not so good book. Programming also was evolving at that point, and since the core audience wasn't that solid there was additional fluctuation.

'BCN and 'ZLX were also sort of doing the same 25-54 thing, and you could go after your demo with minimal competition.

Bruce: We started to get some consistency with numbers. We really just focused on who we were and what opportunity we had and who we could or couldn't be. When you make a decision and focus all your assets in that direction with a lot of creativity, which we have in this building, you find that you succeed very quickly.

How much did Tom Barnes have to do with that?

Bruce: First of all, John Gorman set the wheels in motion and deserves the credit for that. He set us on the track and changed us from a traditional AOR to a fresh, vibrant AOR. When I got here the station was very hard edged, which was a good way to start building your core but diminished some of the opportunity in bringing in more cume. What Barnes did was to work with our music, sequences, and presentation so that we had an opportunity to blend our music a little bit better and build a larger, more enthusiastic core. I feel we've really built on that core over the past four years. It's going to be very hard to knock us off the hill at this point.

How did you sidestep the hair band stigma?

Bruce: Our research came back and it said that we were definitely the hair band radio station. But we've always been evolving the radio station. It was more a case of when to stop projecting ourselves in a single direction, and when to broaden out our playlist a little bit. I think that Ron started introducing a lot of the grunge into the mix and evolving the format as rock started to evolve. Our strength is that we seem to be consistently on the edge of where music is evolving. We play guitar driven rock and whatever direction that's leading, that's where we go.

Do you think that your ability to build and sustain an audience has anything to do with Arbitron's 18-24 sampling modifications?

Bruce: I'm not happy at all with the changes that Arbitron made in response to 18-24 diary returns. Arbitron made a desperate attempt to get more 18-34 by now measuring through quarters. The shortcoming of that is that what you are really measuring is the transient population that really is not projectable to the market place. An example of that is if you take a BU Dormitory. A big majority of the BU student population is from New York. New York radio listening is very different than the Boston radio listening. So if you now measure a BU group quarter and you've got a number of New Yorkers in that quarter whose tastes are very different than the Boston marketplace, you get an inaccurate local measurement.

And you obviously prefer...

Bruce: Accuratings, which unfortunately is not being accepted by agencies, but does the best form of sampling. They sample each cell appropriately by county and they do it via phone. I think that diaries are a 12th century concept in the space age. I can't even comprehend anybody actually believing that Arbitron is the proper way to measure audience.

Why have Accuratings not been more successful in penetration at the agency level?

Bruce: Like anything, you have to sell your idea. You have to build relationships and have people believe in the concept and see that it has a real benefit for them. I don't think Accuratings have been able to communicate the benefits to the advertisers. With agencies consolidating more and more, and more buys coming down overnight, and with millions of dollars being spent overnight they don't have a lot of time to sit down and think about what system is better than the other. So they deal with the system that is in place.

And stations like yours, unless they get lucky with that sample, get hurt.

Bruce: Or misrepresented. For example, in the Spring we had a 2.8 in Arbitron and in Accuratings we had a 4.3. We're talking 12+ Boston Metro. Maybe Accuratings is overstating the younger a smidgen and maybe Arbitron is understating. We're probably somewhere in between. We don't get credit for that. The fallacy in the whole system is that buyers come and spend three or four hundred thousand dollars against the 18-34 market believing they are actually reaching that market. The advertising campaign doesn't work because they are buying off an Arbitron which still demonstrates that AC stations are still very strong, 18-34, which they are not. A lot of money goes on these stations, the campaign doesn't work, the advertiser gets dissolution by radio and I think it hurts all of us.

I know the Boston ratings competition is pretty intense. How is it in the sales trenches?

Bruce: It's intense. You've got a number of great radio stations in this market that target 18-34. It's really a function of the value added kind of things a station has to do to demonstrate the value of our audience. We do that many times by stressing not only the impact an advertiser gets in the Boston market but the fact that you can cover the entire ADI and western Massachusetts. A multi-retail site would gain an enormous advantage by using us. We can deliver the Boston ADI and give them Springfield for free. That's an added value that no other radio station can offer.

Your programming mindset is target Boston and hope you get the ADI?

Bruce: My mindset is target Boston and hope we get Boston. I know I'll get the ADI. We market the ADI and my feeling is that we're on very solid ground regionally. Unfortunately, you don't get rewarded for doing well in the ADI. Too many biases are made on a metro-basis because people just don't understand that the market in Boston has changed so dramatically. From a business point of view Sussex County, (downtown Boston), is a hell of a lot less important to an advertiser than the surrounding counties. People from outside the market think that the Boston Metro means Downtown Boston. That's always a battle. There are 1.7 million people in Middlesex County. That's the biggest county in the state and it's the furthest west county from downtown Boston. Well, if you're an advertiser what do you really want to reach? Do you want to reach the masses or do you want to reach Downtown Boston, which is a bunch of buildings? For some reason, New York has been able to get around that. Everybody believes that New Jersey and Long Island, and the five counties are a part of the New York Metro. They don't buy into that for Boston and I just can't even understand it.

The Hard Interview

And your Boston based competitors love to sell against your city of licence.

Bruce: Yeah, everybody likes to call us 'the Worcester station' which, from our point of view, is not a negative. That's our city of license and that's ok. Nobody ever called 'HTZ a New Jersey station. But our competitors do say we're a Worcester station and claim that we can only help the advertiser out in the Worcester County area. What we've done with Maximizer, which is one good thing Arbitron's put in, is to get into the database county by county so as to restate the Metro based on the retail sites. For example, in many incidents there are no retail sites at all in Sussex County, but there are plenty in Essex and in some of other counties on the Metro. You can now restate the Arbitron rankings based on excluding Sussex. That opened advertisers' eyes dramatically. Or you could just talk about Essex County alone or Middlesex County alone, and when you start doing that the advertisers recognize that radio really is a localized medium. They realize that perhaps most of their bucks should be covered more within a twenty mile radius of these stores versus a 60 mile radius.

You use to run about a 15 share in Worcester proper. Have your efforts to identify with Boston affected your ratings and revenue there?

Bruce: Well, we did go down to a 5 share when I first got here, and now we're at a 10 share, which is totally livable in my mind. We don't turn our back on Worcester. We're still visible in the community and we still promote in the community. There are 700,000 people in the county. There's business in Worcester county and we support that business. Our premise is that the Boston metro should be expanded and therefore Worcester really is a bedroom community compared to Boston, so what goes down at Downtown Boston is just as important to Worcester as it is to say Downtown Boston itself. No different than Long Island is to Manhattan. You wouldn't exclude talking about what's happening in Manhattan if you were on Long Island. It's part of the metro. Same dynamic here. But for some reason it gets segmented out mentally a lot more so in this market than it probably does in other markets.

People talk about how well run the Infinity organization is. What's it like competing against those guys on a daily basis?

Bruce: Well, both stations are very well run. Gerry and Buzz at WZLX are very competitive people and very bright. They do a good job. At WBCN, Tony and Oedipus do a terrific job. So you're constantly dealing with some very talented competitors. You're also dealing with very competitive people to begin with. Knowing the personalities, I think they would be competitive whether or not they were working for Mel Karmazin.

What are the practical ramifications of WBCN's switch to Alternative?

Bruce: From their point of view, it was probably a good move. Time will tell, but my instincts tell me it was probably a good longevity direction for them. It's impacted us to some degree in business, we certainly have to fight more for the things we used to get because people saw us as the only 18-34 outlet. Now, they have an alternative in their minds.

Yes, and plenty of Alternative leaning stations to choose from — between you, WBCN, and WFNX.

Bruce: I worry more about the fact that we share so much and that we're three stations sharing a lot of music which means you tend to burn your records quicker. I'm also concerned with what bands we're stamping versus what bands they're stamping. I think that we've stayed true to our core and we try to stamp bands that reflect that core. The political problems happen where we both stamp the same band. That's been a distraction. But there is so much good quality music coming out right now, Rock Alternative, Modern, whatever you want to call it, that we're probably broadening the audience because the music is so much better. I've got to believe that we're also taking away a lot of CHR listening, that might have traditionally listened to pop oriented music.

Do you in fact stick your head into music meetings? Are you involved on that level?

Bruce: John Osterlind and Dave Douglas are very talented guys. I also believe my instincts are pretty good. I rely on them 100% and occasionally walk in and make a suggestion. I would value their opinion over mine.

For instance, what is there that you hear on the radio right now that you don't get?

Bruce: We had a discussion about 'Dizzy' from Green Apple Quick Step for example. I think they're a great band, and that 'Los Vargas' was a good song. But 'Dizzy' sounded more CHR/Poppy to me and less Rock driven.

Hey, the GM gets a word in edgewise!

Bruce: Yes. The nice news is that both of these guys give me the courtesy at least of listening and either agree or don't agree. I allow them the final opinion, though. That is their job. They do it every day. They work with the labels every day. They certainly have a better pulse than I do. On top of that, I'm 45. It's hard to be an 18 year old in a 45 year old body.

What logistically do you have to do to cover such a huge area? Are you bulked up in terms of sales staff, vehicles and the rest of that stuff to cover the turf?

Bruce: Our guys run twice as hard. We call ourselves the road warriors. My sales manager Stu Siden and Glen Lucas work their butts off. You can't buy that. That's just commitment. On the same plane, John O'Brien, our promotion director, is out almost every other night with our three vehicles in every direction we could possibly target. The key to our success is that we have an incredible staff of people that are talented, committed, energetic, and frankly, fun to work with.

WAAF has one of the country's highest power ratios. Isn't it wearing to have to live up to that level of performance?

Bruce: Yes, we are constantly growing. Right now, other than the sports station, we're growing at the highest rate of any Boston station. The pressure to continue to grow comes with the territory. You've got a lot of committed people here who want to win. The one thing about working here is if you don't want to win, we don't want you. Therefore, with that comes a commitment that there is going to be a lot of time and effort. It certainly puts more pressure on everybody but I think the rewards are bigger because you see real incremental gains that you might not see at other stations that are kind of trying to maintain their market share. I only see opportunity. The radio station is growing dramatically and I see a lot more opportunity ahead of us.

How big a factor is it for you that you have some degree of staff turn-over? Obviously Ron stayed there for six years, but now he's in New York, along with Mark Razz. Liz Wilde's now at the Loop. How do you keep talented staff around?

Bruce: The key to keeping people is to provide an environment that they want to work in. All the contracts in the world don't keep people anywhere if they're not happy. Ron did a great job and had a great opportunity. He made a six year commitment, you can't ask much more than that from any employee. Most of the employees here have been here a long time. Obviously we have some new people here now - Dave Douglas, who has done just an unbelievable job in the short time that he's been here. Our afternoon crew, Opie and Anthony are very talented guys. John Osterlind has been our Music Director for about a year and a half now and is incredibly talented and easy to work with.

What would Dave Douglas say was the aspect of your style took him the longest to get used to?

Bruce: He probably never had a GM that asked him so many questions on a daily basis.

What about his style that took you the longest to get used to?

Bruce: Ron is kind of an intense guy. You kind of know what's on his mind right away. Dave is very quiet. I call him the sponge. He absorbs everything and then gives you his comments. The two are a real contrast in style. I'm kind of an ethnic human being who lets you know what is on his mind right away. Dave kind of soaks it in and then gives you his point of view.

The co-promote issue is something that a number of current driven or Rock stations are up in arms about. What are your thoughts on the Rock Coalition? Would you think that real practical gains could be realized by such a group effort?

Bruce: More than practical gains I hope the labels get the message. I have no problem if a competitor realizes a co-promote if they've truly stamped that band. The same way I would think that they shouldn't have a problem with us if it's a band we've truly stamped. Problems arise when labels give one station a benefit they don't deserve on an artist we all share.

You see that happening much?

Bruce: I see that happening too much, although I think it's less in the last six months than it was in the prior six months.

Does that cost you money or...

Bruce: It costs us money. It costs us imaging. It costs us momentum.

And you're of the considerate opinion that the listeners are aware of who gets what show?

Bruce: I think it's a cumulative effect. I don't think that on a one shot basis anyone really gets the message. If somebody is consistently out there with bands that you are sharing and they are the ones promoting, then I think there is a message being communicated that this radio station is a more happening station than that radio station. That's where the problems come in. However, I think Dave has done a real good job in reeling the labels back into the reality of what 'AAF should mean to them. That situation has improved dramatically.

For one thing, you've got rotations that match just about any CHR.

Bruce: And we have more time to play records than, say, a station that features talk at night or football games. There is a lot of distractions for the format at that end.

Would you have bet that Stern tape-delayed broadcast at night would work?

Bruce: Yes, I would. I think that Howard Stern is a terrific talent. It sounds good on their station. They get the numbers to prove it.

How about football? Would you run football?

Bruce: Having worked at 'RKO and having had the Celtics, I wouldn't want the headaches. They paid 3 million dollars a year just for rights fees. That's a lot of pressure. That's a lot of distraction at the station. I wouldn't want to have that distraction here.

You are one of those unique, stand-alone stations at this juncture. How big a disadvantage is that in today's duopoly climate?

Bruce: In some cases it puts us at a disadvantage and in some cases I think it gives us an opportunity. We're a guerilla kind of radio station. I describe us to people as being like a PT boat around a lot of aircraft carriers. We can drop a couple of shells and run away. They have to find us. There's opportunities to being smaller sometimes and being more aggressive. The good news is that with duopolies I don't think the pressure is there for them to produce their maximum earnings, therefore a lot more money is left on the table that might not be there. Down the road I think they will learn to scoop up more of the bucks, but there is still plenty of money left on the table for us to grab. The people know the value of 'AAF promotionally and relationship wise and we garner some of those extra bucks because of it.

The Hard Interview

Do you envision adding another property?

Bruce: We are trying to add another property. The Zappis' are very committed, very supportive of the station. They want to see it grow. They've really given me all the assets I need to operate with. They would like to add another station tomorrow if we could. It's just a function of finding the station that makes the sense with WAAF.

Do you think the biggest issue right now is unrealistic pricing?

Bruce: Unrealistic pricing and also lack of a signal that would really add anything to the radio station. Those are the two issues at the moment. We are very profit oriented. I'm very cost conscious. I don't want us to add something just to add. It really has to add value to what we're doing and have some synergy with 'AAF.

And the best format match for you...

Bruce: I'd prefer it if we could broaden out the demos with something else. Something male oriented and something that would give us 25-44.

What format would you say is the easiest sell right now?

Bruce: Anything with a 5 share.

Funny guy. But seriously, folks...

Bruce: That's a tough question. I think sports is very saleable. I've done that before. I owned a station that was sports oriented. Sports is an emotional sale, you don't need ratings for it. I'd say also Triple A, frankly, should be a very saleable property. That would be something that would work well with WAAF.

What about the fact that you have two Triple As in Boston already? What do you think of the job that 'BOS does?

Bruce: 'BOS does a pretty decent job. A lot of the stations in town tend to counter-program each other all day long, which I think is a mistake. If I had any negative comments about some of them, it would be that they are not focused or true to their format. They are more concerned with one station that might grow this week or that week. Add some songs in that genre of music or promote in the direction. If they were just a little more true to their formats they'd probably do better.

When the station was more hard rock/hair band oriented, there was a certain set of client reservations you had to overcome. What sort of reservations do you have to get around today?

Bruce: It's not about reservations so much anymore. It's really building our audience. You've got a lot more stations sharing your music than you did a year ago. If you told me a year ago that 'BCN would be playing what they are playing now, I wouldn't have believed you. You've got a station with great history basically jumping into your format and into the Alternative format, and we're now all sharing listeners that we didn't at any time previously. I also think that the lifestyle of people 18-34 has changed so dramatically that they have all accepted Rock

Alternative music. Two years ago when we were doing this it was still kind of a foreign ground to many of them. Now it's part of their everyday lifestyle.

What has been the most frustrating aspect of your tenure as GM?

Bruce: Knowing that our numbers would be higher if we didn't have some signal disadvantages due to Arbitron methodology. Another big frustration is not receiving the benefits in terms of recognition that the on-air staff deserves, and the benefits of the additional revenue that we deserve that we don't get.

And the most satisfying aspect?

Bruce: That has been the growth. Purely going from an enigma to most people in Boston to an accepted player. That has been truly gratifying.

From a time management perspective do you see the time programming, spent with labels, on the phone and otherwise, as being as productive as it is a time drain?

Bruce: This is a business of relationships. I believe the stronger the relationship the better opportunity. If you don't have relationships opportunity goes elsewhere. It's important to maintain those relationships, as I know John and Dave do.

What's your theory on maximizing music industry revenue?

Bruce: We've been able to build a real synergy between the record stores, the venues, the concert business, the night clubs and the music business and maximize our revenue opportunity by building a relationship with all of them. Rock n'roll is the kind of medium where they bring groups around to small clubs, then those groups start to grow up and they play in bigger venues and they then get buzzes, then they start selling records. The objective is to be in all of those arenas so that as they are passing through the system and developing their clout that you are a part of that process. We do that very well. That has been a success for us.

You've been pitched by every consultant there is. What's the worst idea you've heard in the last two years?

Bruce: I laugh when I get these letters from consultants who tell me about the New Rock revolution and how they are going to help us. We've been doing this for four or five years, and would be more than happy to consult them.

Many stations have dipped their toe in the 18-34 water, but there seems to be a high attrition rate. Why?

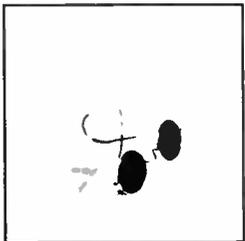

Bruce: I think a lot of broadcasters are lazy. You have to work hard when you are niched. They want to see those big national bucks flowing in without having to work that hard. If you have to work for a living this is a tough format to be in. If you want to walk out with your rankers and do your business that way then this is not the format to be in. Plus, there's no format that stands still, aside from perhaps Classical. You have to evolve whatever you are doing consistently. That means a lot of work, a lot of effort, a lot of thinking, a lot of research and a lot of strategic goals and direction. A lot of people are not committed, body and soul to making it work, and that's what it takes to win.

TRIPLE ACE

Melissa Etheridge, "Your Little Secret," Island
As long as Melissa keeps pumping out music of this caliber, the Triple A format will always make room for her: Pat Gallagher/WMMM, "I love it! Could there be a more perfect artist or song for Triple M than this? I don't think so." Colter Langan/KMMS, "We added it into heavy rotation the minute it came in. The record rocks! This is a great start for what should be a record for longevity at Triple A." Zeb Norris/WXLE, "DUH...heavy add." Greg Roberts/KFXD, "She's God and can she do no wrong! This is a little edgier than her usual stuff, but we certainly like it." Kefer/KBXR, "This is another great track from Melissa Etheridge. It's just a good rock song." Tom Krumm/KLRF, "This is a great track. I'm a HUGE Melissa Etheridge fan, and I knew this would be a fabulous song." Ron Sorenson/KFMG, "This won't be a secret for long." Shawn Taylor/WVAY, "This is pretty powerful stuff." Don Ferrell/KRVM, "God, what a great song! This is a smokin' tune — when I played it, my CD player melted. The fire alarms went off and everyone had to clear the building. I love music that throws me on my ass. She can rock my world anytime, even though she never returns my phone calls." Kim Rowe/WCLZ, "The single is great. It's always time for something new from Melissa Etheridge."

THE HOT CORNER

Various Artists, "Working Class Hero, A Tribute To John Lennon," Hollywood Greg Roberts/KFXD, "There are some real nuggels on this record. The Blues Traveler track 'Imagine' is great — Popper does justice to the song and puts his own signature on it as well." Mary Ramirez/KPFT, "I like this album a lot. There are a few songs that will fit well for us. The tracks from Red Hot Chili Peppers and Toad The Wet Sprocket are personal favorites. This album is something listeners will love." Jeff Bieri/KRCC, "Lennon was definitely a hero and it's great to hear these musicians paying tribute to him. It's hard to match the caliber of John Lennon, but there's plenty on this album that we're more than happy to play." Louise Coogan/WKZE, "We added the album. There are plenty of highlights on it, like Collective Soul, and Mary Chapin Carpenter, who sings a very little known John Lennon tune 'Grow Old With Me.' It sounds great." Pat Gallagher/WMMM, "I love the track from Toad The Wet Sprocket and Cheap Trick. It's great to hear from them again." Shawn Taylor/WVAY, "I love the tracks 'Imagine' from Blues Traveler and 'Jealous Guy' from Collective Soul." Don Ferrell/KRVM, "There's some great stuff on here. My favorite song is 'Jealous Guy' from Collective Soul. These guys stay close to the purity of the song and they don't go overboard."

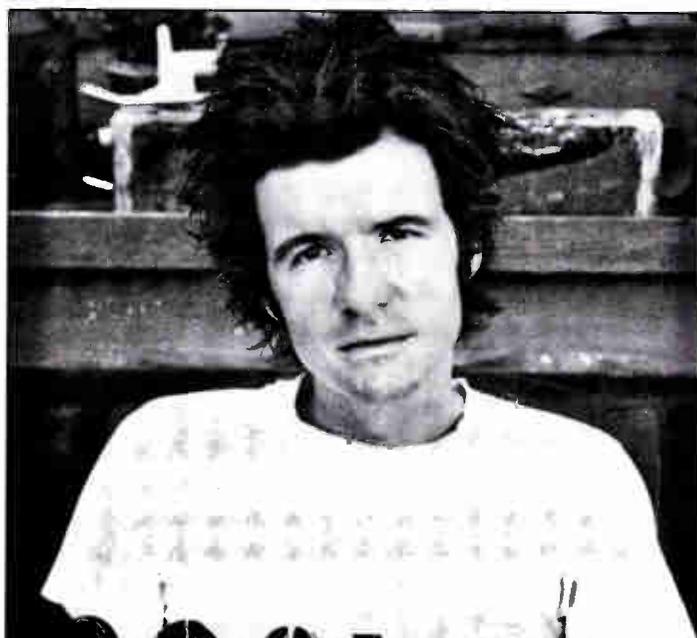

Joan Baez, "Ring Them Bells," Guardian If you look up the topic "folk music" in any encyclopedia you are likely to encounter the words "see also Joan Baez." Baez has done for the folk movement what Alexander Graham Bell has done for communication. Joan is, of course, both soothing and potent in her delivery and message. Every track on this release should Ring Them Bells and inspire different memories and emotions in all who are fortunate enough to get an earful. In addition to the single, "Don't Think Twice, It's Alright" featuring the Indigo Girls, Triple A is picking up on "You're Aging Well," with Dar Williams, "Diamonds & Rust," with Mary Chapin Carpenter, and the title track featuring Mary Black. Joan Baez's legacy to the Triple A format takes another step with this stellar release.

Marlee MacLeod, "Favorite Ball & Chain," Medium Cool/Restless

Marlee MacLeod is sure to shake her Favorite Ball & Chain with this new release of that title. The ball & chain we speak of is her first album, which just didn't get the attention that it deserved. Under-produced and a lack of focus are the alleged reasons for its shortcoming of success. That is certainly not the case here with her sophomore effort. Marlee has produced the record herself this time and was certainly able to realize the potential of each cut with her own ideas. Mike Mullaney/WXRV, "Marlee MacLeod has the pipes that caught our immediate attention. She has great vocal delivery." Mary Ramirez/KPFT, "She has got the most beautiful voice. It's the kind of voice that often ranges from high to low and she really knows how to use it well. The songs that I heard were gorgeous." Dan Reed/WNCW, "I'm always interested in anything Peter Jespersen is involved with. Marlee MacLeod is an energetic singer/songwriter with an attitude." Don Ferrell/KRVM, "We added this album and it has some interesting stuff on it for Triple A. This should not be ignored. I think it will work well here at KRVM. We are already receiving a positive response from it."

SINGLE SPOTLIGHT

Smashing Pumpkins, "Bullet With Butterfly Wings," Virgin

The edgier-leaning AAAs will have no problem embracing this power-alternative rocker. The first single from the forthcoming Mellon Collie And The Infinite Sadness is an obvious multi-format smash, with signature Smashing Pumpkins attitude and an unrelenting rhythm. However, if you're among the Triple A stations whose listeners prefer the Smashing Pumpkins more subdued side, don't feel left out. Our sources tell us that there's a virtual pumpkin patchful of material on the full LP for you to choose from. Dave King/WJSE, "We are added the single, and it's very strong. It looks like it will do extremely well for us. They should always release their CDs in October."

CHERYL WHEELER, MRS. PINOCCI'S GUITAR

Bob Seger

This is where I don't mind Jason handing over the keys to me while he honeymoon this week, because I already know we have a difference of opinion here. The first single from Bob & The Silver Bullet Band's forthcoming new lp It's A Mystery (Capitol) is "Lock and Load." And though I could do without the firearms metaphor, the song is vintage Seger and should hold the same appeal on Adult Rock radio as most of Wildflowers did for Petty fans. Think about how this may sound up against Bush on your crosstown rock competition, then decide where his home may be now.

Wooldridge Brothers

One of the nicest surprises of the week is the release of Star Of Desire (Don't) by brothers Scott and Brian Wooldridge. They write catchy, compact pop-folk-rock songs that will do well for stations that enjoyed success with Danny Tate, The Courage Brothers or The Jayhawks. Favorites are the lead track, the CD's title song as well as "Happiness," "Sarah," "Away," "Harms Way," and the clever "Escape Artist." This should be Don't Records Willy Porter of this fall.

Ashley Cleveland

A veteran of the Friday Constantine Consulting Dinner at the A3 Summit attended by everyone in Boulder (Apparently even AAA members Auto Club Members thought it was open to them!), Ashley's latest album Lesson Of Love is her debut for Reunion/Arista. The title song is an elegant mid-tempo piece, and will soon appear on the latest Constantine quarterly CD sampler. Runner-up possibilities for airplay would be tracks 7 and 8, "You Are There" and "Enter His Courts."

Steely Dan

As Becker & Fagen themselves explain on the "words and music" promo CD, there was "a little bit of gap in our touring schedule...between 1974 and 1993...we forgot to do any dates." Recorded during their sold out '93 and '94 tours, Alive In America (Giant) is full of the favorites that best display this format's depth. Figure that most Classic Rock and AOR's may pass, then play it to expose it, and stroke the fans who have never forgotten one of the most innovative bands of their era. We are thrilled to have their live take on "Reelin In The Years" open our next Constantine quarterly CD Sampler.

Happy Rhodes

"...to you...until...we meet... again!" (Sorry. I can't say her name without that melody creeping in). Here is an autumnal sound and Happy Rhodes' newest collection The Keep (Aural Gratification) is full of songs that have just the right quality for those first few weeks of brisk days and quiet moments. Many of the rarities or re-recordings on the compilation were previously available on promotional CD's, or were recorded during on-air performances at stations like our own WXPB. Check out the new song, "Flash Me Up," or "Look For The Child" and the re-recording of last year's "Collective Heart."

Marlee Macleod

Jason and I both picked up on the clever, folksy style of Marlee Macleod's songwriting on the tour-song sampler, which included the lead track "In Trouble Again." Now comes further confirmation of her talents with the release of full CD Favorite Ball & Chain (Medium Cool/Restless). We also like "Nobody To Me," "Lover Let Me Be," and the uptempo "Walk." With some of the same Appalachian charm as early Steve Earle or Michelle Shocked, Macleod should make some inroads at this format and among Americana stations.

Marvin Gaye Tribute

Sorry if you thought last week was our blowout "tribute album review" week, but one sneaks in this week of worthy mention—Motown's Inner City Blues: The Marvin Gaye Tribute Album. The CD coincides with a forthcoming MTV Salute, and contains a rather diverse collection of artists playing homage to one of the great voices of the rock and Motown era, from Marvin's own daughter Nona to Speech of Arrested Development fame. Most appropriate for this format will be Bono's interpretation of the enduring "Save The Children." Feel Bold? Neneh Cherry's take on "Trouble Man" is also a highlight worth exposing.

Blues Breakers

Lowell Fulson

Them Update Blues

Bullseye

Records

by Bruce

Bjorkman, host

1490 Bluez Blvd,

KBZY/Salem,

OR

Unlike

other arenas of the recording industry, where yesterday's performers are promptly forgotten, Blues recording labels actively seek out the men and women who in large part are responsible for the resurgence of Blues music's popularity. Such is the case with veteran West Coast-based artist and songwriter Lowell Fulson. Them Update Blues on Bullseye Records, the second Fulson release for the label, is filled with literary gems, all eleven cuts having been penned by the man who brought to life "Reconsider Baby," "Blue Shadows" and "Three O'Clock Blues" (B.B. King's first big hit). At 74 years of age, you'd think that Fulson would be winding up his career. This release clearly demonstrates that he is still in top form both as a songwriter and guitarist. While Fulson's guitar style may be less showy than other six string slingers, it matches his unhurried style of singing and developing his stories in song. The first half of the release features more of a strolling type of mood, easy-to-listen-to, slow dance type of numbers, while cuts 6-11 tend to romp more. Fulson is given in-studio support from the venerable Memphis Horns and Hammond B-3 pedal pusher Ron Levy. The combination of horns and organ give the songs snap and punch. Stand out cuts (at least to my liking) include: "Think About It" - featuring such great lyrics as 'I was born to be a wise man, but look how long I've been the fool,' and "Too Soon To Tell" - a reminder to take it one day at a time. The whole package is capped off with a duet between Lowell and Levy titled, "L & L Special," showcasing Fulson's guitar playing and Levy on the B-3. The value of this release is in the fact that Bullseye has not allowed such an important figure of modern day blues to just fade away. Instead, they've kept him right where Lowell Fulson belongs, giving the 1990s Blues audience his unique perspective of life with Them Update Blues.

The Radio Kings Live At B.B. King's

Icehouse

by Randi Anglin, host of "Crossroads", WVBR/Ithaca, NY

There seems to be a new trend out there. Record a red hot live album at B.B. King's club in Memphis. Rod Piazza did for his '94 release on Big Mo Records and now the Radio Kings have done it on Icehouse. It's a ballsy move to make your second release a live one, but well-executed by the road-worthy Radio Kings. Out of Boston, the Kings served as the back-up band to harmonica ace-to-the-stars, (first Muddy Waters, now Eric Clapton), Jerry Portnoy. The experience has made a band that's as exciting to listen to as to see. I caught the guys at the Jacksonville Blues Festival in April and they ripped it up. This album captures the excitement of their live show. The Kings' sound has been compared to that of the Fabulous T-birds (a comparison I'm sure the Kings enjoy). Front man Brian Templeton's voice has that just-won't-quit quality, but it's the fact that guitarist Mike Dinallo, Dave Clarke on bass and drummer Mike Aiello are so incredibly tight that makes this album one that's going to be hot for awhile. Brian Templeton proves that he's more than just a pretty face (or voice) by his harp and accordion playing. Templeton's squeeze box graces the Slim Harpo tune "Rainin' In My Heart". Mike Dinallo's guitar playing is perfect, never over-powering and nicely complementing Templeton's harp. Templeton obviously took notes while touring with Portnoy. A nice selection of songs that haven't been covered to death, ranging from James Brown, Robert Johnson, Slim Harpo, Guitar Slim and Howlin' Wolf plus three original titles help to keep it fresh. One of the originals, "The Other Side Of Town," is a highlight of the album and one of my favorites. Programmers: Warning! If you don't add Radio King's Live At B.B. King's now, you'll be playing catch-up with every other Blues programmer. This album is certifiably hot.

Big Mike Griffin

Sittin' Here With Nothin'

Waldoxy

by Peter Simon, host of the syndicated "Peter Simon's Blues Jam"

In life, love, Blues and baseball you've got to be able to toss a good change-up once in a while... Big Mike Griffin appears to support that theory with his third release from Waldoxy Records' Sittin' Here With Nothin'. His styles for this offering range from jazzy to rocky, Diddley to Dixon. The only shortfall of this recording is its length; it's less than forty-four minutes. Big Mike wrote five of the eleven tracks on this CD, and it sure sounds as though we've been having relationships with the same women... Check out the "Anti-

Christ" in "Deliver Me From Evil" cut #12; the credit card queen of cut #6, "High Maintenance Woman" or for that matter the title track, cut #4. I rest my case. Other writers on this production include Little Milton Campbell and Richard "King Biscuit Boy" Newell. Hopefully, come awards time, there'll be an extra handy in the house for this one, with Pat O'Connor on drums, David Hood on bass and Clayton Ivey making love with the keyboards. No one can deny this is award material. Enjoy! Go Tribe.

COVER PICK

g/z/r, Plastic Planet (TVT Records)

While this jam packed fall season may contain heavyweight releases from classic artists that we grew up on and promising new bands, this is one of the only albums that will ever feature both. Laying down the foundation and writing most of the material is original Sabbath bassist Geezer

Butler (who is also on the road with former band mate Ozzy Osbourne). It's the bottom heavy sound that Butler helped create which gives Plastic Planet it's power. The element that gives the album it's intensity is the versatile vocals of relative newcomer Burton C. Bell of Fear Factory. The marriage of the two brings the familiar style well into the '90s with prolific rhythms and textured production. Many radio stations have already been able to sample g/z/r, from the Mortal Kombat Soundtrack, and while "The Invisible" is included, there is much more to sample from, including "Catatonic Eclipse", "Drive Boy Shooting", the title track, and the Gothic "Seance Fiction". With Fear Factory on the road with Ozzy, the opportunity for g/z/r to show off some of the new material is there - as if there isn't enough reason to check out that tour - but hopefully the band will be able to head out on their own tour. It's refreshing to see the dark restless side of Geezer Butler back in the updated, creative - and massive - form of Plastic Planet.

TOP PICKS CONTINUED

Iron Maiden, The X Factor (CMC International)

It has been a long wait for radio since the last material from Iron Maiden, but "Man on the Edge" has shown that the listening audience is still enthusiastic to hear new material. Especially judging by the fact that top requests have already shown up at KWVA, WCDB, WCWP, WHJY, and WTFX. Very few bands have shown the staying power that Maiden has,

and through the years the band has kept their musical vision in tact largely due to the focus of Steve Harris. While Harris has always been one of the main songwriters, the newer members Janick Gers and Blaze Bailey have also contributed. While a definite contrast to Dickinson, Bailey is making his own impact on vocals. Mark Morden of WSGR feels that, "Blaze is the perfect choice to replace Bruce. He is a combo of Dickinson and Di'Anno. There will always be a place for Iron Maiden." If you are looking to expland that place past the single, try out "Sign of the Cross," which has an almost medieval feel to it and is reminiscent of "Rime of the Ancient Mariner" (but not fifteen minutes long). Also try out of "Lord of the Flies" and "Judgement of Heaven" with it's building energy. With the intangible X Factor on their side, you can never ignore Iron Maiden.

Nailbomb, Proud to Commit Commercial Suicide (Roadrunner)

One of the most powerful releases of early last year was the explosion of force from the collaboration of Nailbomb. If you don't know the history, the duo is comprised of Max Cavalera of Sepultura and Alex Newport of Fudge Tunnel, along with sampling machines and a few friends (including Igor Cavalera, Andreas Kisser, and Dino Cazares) helping out. While the band never toured in the States, they did do some European dates (well, two anyway), the biggest of which was the Dynamo Festival in Holland where this live release was recorded. We would expect that any unwilling participants were quickly shoved out of the pit as they blasted through most of the songs from Point Blank and a handful of new tunes. The first new one is "Police Truck," which takes the non stop assault of a real old school punk song (Jello Biafra style) and beefs it up with their metallic fury. "While You Sleep, I Destroy Your World" crawls along a eerie, distorted path and "Zero Tolerance" cuts your senses with sharp steel mill effects. For those of us itching to hear new material from both Sepultura and Fudge Tunnel, this live offering will satisfy both camps, or anyone just looking for an album to pummel their senses.

Alice in Chains, "Grind" (Columbia)

Not too much time has passed since this Seattle band first hit the hard rock airwaves with "We Die Young" and won over new fans on the "Clash of the Titans" tour in 1991. Since that time, Alice in Chains has become one of the most demanded bands at rock radio and is an automatic add at most stations. There were many rumors as to whether or not we would see another AIC album, and not only are they back, they can still overwhelm with their dark, introspective grooves. Considering this is the first format to embrace the band, we can be especially happy that "Grind" is well named with a sludgy churning rhythm boiling underneath the eerie melodies created by Layne Staley's vocals. Jar of Flies displayed their ability to create intense songs of a mellow tone, as did the EP Sap, but on the full albums they always have the level cranked up. "Grind" indicates that this upcoming self-titled offering will carry on that tradition.

Strange Days Soundtrack (Epic Soundtrax/Lightstorm)

It looks like this movie, directed by Karen Bigelow of T2 fame, is going to be one of blockbusters this fall, and Strange Days is also set to impact hard rock radio charts as well with the Soundtrack to the futuristic flick. Some of the songs to lend an ear to include the two entries from Skunk Anansie (who also have a performance in the movie) and Satchel - even actress Juliette Lewis has an interesting singing debut. But what seems to be attracting most of the airplay so far is the pairing of Prong with The Doors' Ray Manzarek on "Strange Days". The menacing thick riffs of Prong are an interesting contrast to the light dreamy keyboards. Early adds have already come in at nineteen stations, including WCWP, WDBM, WGLS, WHMH, WKTA, WSOU, WTFX, and WXZR, so it looks like the Strange Days are upon us.

Hostility, Brick (Century Media)

Like the rock that it's named after, if you run full steam ahead into Brick without any protection you will come out with a serious headache. But if you enter their world of grinding, locked-in, intense grooves and guttural vocals with the ferocity of a rabid fan, you will find yourself in heaven. Hostility is from Kansas, but don't mistake them for Paw or Stick, the band has opened up for the likes of Fear Factory, Crowbar, Obituary and Kyuss. While their muscle and aggressiveness will appeal to fans of death and thrash metal, the vocals are not as abrasive and the foundation is more cohesive and infectious a la Pantera and Machine Head. Those elements will help Hostility pull in a wider audience. They are already off to a good start with early play at WAIF, WVUD, KRZZ, WEOS, WKNH, and WWSP.

You might also want to make sure that the full length Iron Maiden (CMC International) disc, The X-Factor, has made it onto your list. Add it today, then spin it... When perusing through the Strange Days Soundtrack (Epic) check out the kick ass Prong version of The Doors' classic "Strange Days". Tommy Victor and crew teamed up with Ray Manzarek for this '90s update... Keep in mind that the fourteen track, self-titled Humble Gods (Fierce) album goes for adds today. The bands features ex-members of Doggy Style, Descendents, Dagnasty and Mind Over Four... Go ahead and add the long-awaited Alice In Chains (Columbia) single, "Grind," this week. Then let your let your listeners know that they can pick up their copy of the full length, self-titled album November 7th when it hits the stores... You now have eight more reasons to spin Sheer Terror (MCA) on your show - coming in the form of the Good Fer Nuthin' EP. Pleasant, Michigan; Toledo, Ohio; and Cleveland, Ohio areas should be on the lookout for the band. They will be stopping in the aforementioned cities October 16th, 19th, 31st, and November 5th respectively... Go check out Nature (Zoo) as they travel the rock road with shows booked October 21st in Long Beach, California; October 22nd in Corona, California; October 25th in Fullerton, California; October 29th in Phoenix, Arizona; October 30th in Albuquerque, New Mexico; and on the 31st of October in Austin, Texas. Two shows have been slated for November 2nd and 3rd in Lubbock and Amarillo, Texas respectively... Look for Brutal Truth (Earache) to take to the road with shows booked from October 20th through November 2nd. Stops along their way include Bristol, Connecticut; Boston, Massachusetts; Richmond, Virginia; Columbia, South Carolina; among others. 🌀🌀🌀 When asked about the filming of the Slayer (American) Live Intrusion home video NFL Films VP of Special Projects Phil Tuckett said "We expected that we had see it all, done it all, that nothing would surprise us in terms of wild behavior. But, for the first three songs, my cameramen were pretty intimidated. I'd say that the Slayer concert was 3-400 times more intense than any football game we'd ever filmed." With that said we have no doubt that you will rush right out and buy your own copy of the home video when it fills the retail shelves October 31st. The said 90 minute vid was filmed at the Mesa Amphitheater in Phoenix last March, and contains 15 live performances and some behind the scene footage of the band members. To summarize the experience Tuckett said, "I guess I'd say it was like being on a runway with a bunch of 747s taking off, with your ears strapped to a Harley tailpipe, while standing in the middle of a jailbreak." Yep, that sounds about right... F.Y.I. - Lars Rosenberg has officially left the Entombed (Earache) fold to become a the full-time bass player in Therion (Relapse/Nuclear Blast). 🌀🌀🌀 Go Flyers! Peace.

Skateboard Marketing's Munsey Ricci is showing new dedication to the job (either that or he really needs a vacation) when he shaved the Sick of it All initials into his skull.

The Tink of WVUD fame made the all important pilgrimage to New York for the Down show recently. This would be his Mt. Rushmore shot with Even Seinfeld, Charlie Benante, and "righteous" Phil Anselmo. It looks like Phil has a pretty good grip on Even here, maybe he made one too many comments about southern boys not being a cool as Brooklyn-ites!

Letters to Cleo, "Demon Rock," Giant

With the success that "Awake" has seen in recent weeks at the format, it is apparent that the projections look very promising for Letters to Cleo in radioland. Because this song is reflective of the depth found underneath the recent album's first single. "Demon Rock" taunts you with a subtle and somewhat brooding intro, and transforms into an upbeat guitar-driven melody monster. The overall effect is likely to produce a greater feeling of diversity in your mind, and on the part of the audience's. Letters to Cleo give us a seriously catchy, vocally melodic and relatively strong attitudinal blast on this second single. WFNX is first out. And we'll do the slow grind. WEND's Kim Monroe says "It reminds me of something that would be on 'Facelift.' It just grinds, and I love that. It's starting to get great phones."

choices

Alice in Chains, "Grind," Columbia

However you managed to get a hold of this one, many of you got it on this week, as it nails down the #2 Most Added slot. We know the fans are out there, as they've been calling for the new AIC all summer during the Mad Season run. The tune might not be the most genius AIC tune we've ever heard, but it is plenty for the hungry masses at this stage of the game. You don't have to sit a hungry person down to a plate of filet mignon. A ham sandwich and a beer will do just fine.

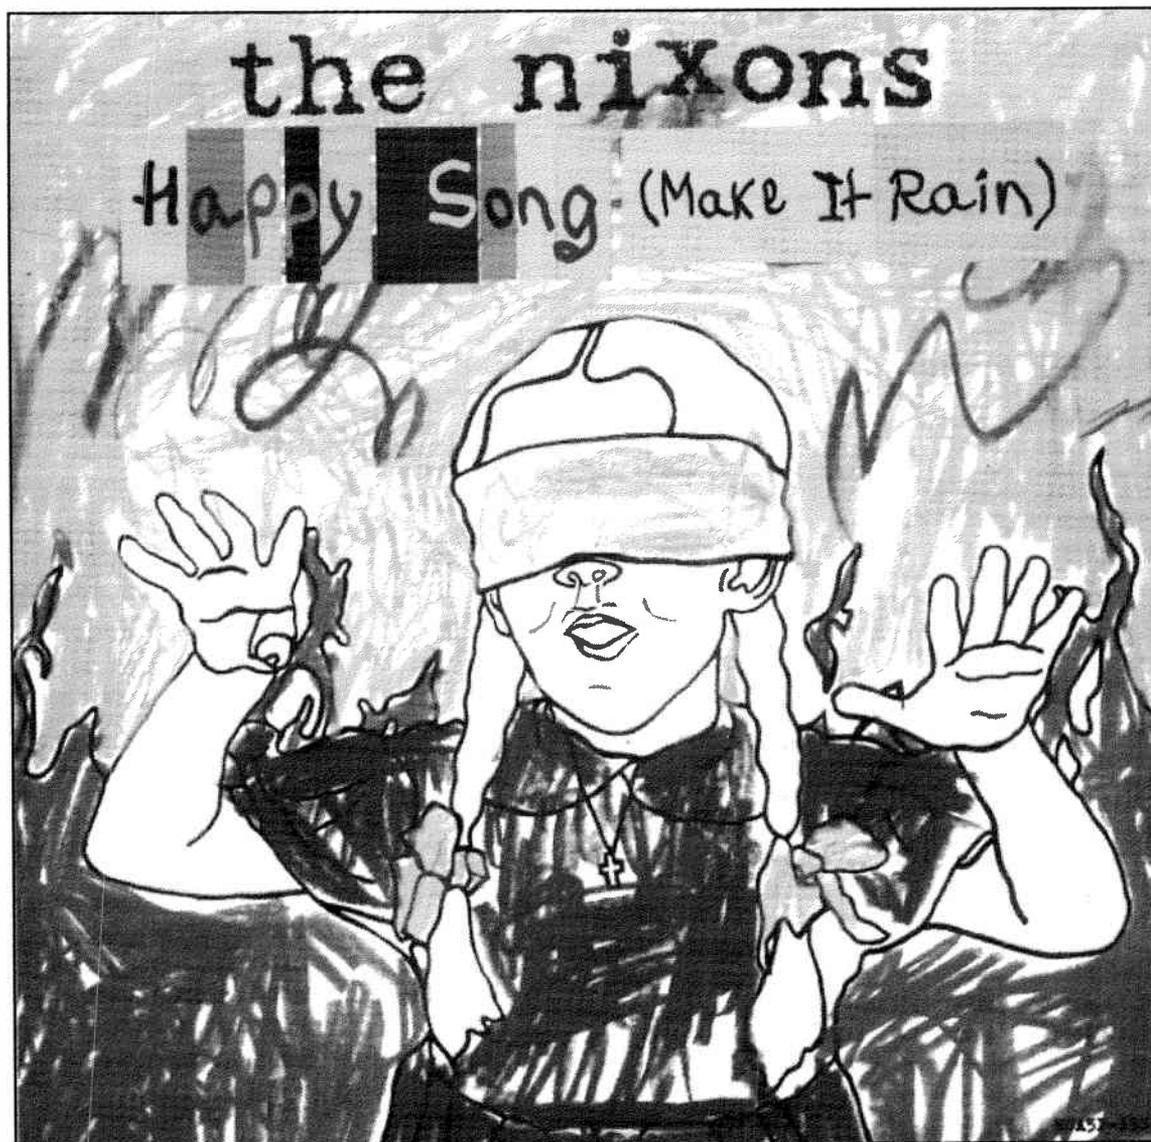

Melissa Etheridge, "Your Little Secret," Island

Hey, what's going on here? #3 Most Added at Alternative? While we ponder the membership of this artist at the format, the early indications are clear. Many are ready to rock with this uptempo effort from one of the most powerful voices in rock and roll. It's not experimental. She hasn't shaved her head. But she's Melissa. And the audience wants to hear her. Adds from KDGE, KEGE, KPNT, KROX, KTCL, WBCN, WBRU, WHFS, WMMS and WQBK pace the pack. WRZX's Michael Young says "There's nothing wrong with multi-platinum artists." WDST's Nic Harcourt says "I'm detecting a need at some stations for records like this. This is a great record for stations who are looking for something to pull someone in from another station."

more choices

Black Grape, "In The Name of the Father," Radioactive/MCA

Madchester is alive and well with this band, brought together by Happy Mondays' Shaun Ryder and Bez. And while the times are different, the sounds are still inspiring and fresh. This song brings the same distinctiveness to the airwaves as Edwyn Collins did some weeks ago. Here, you have a very delectable sound that makes its little music nuggets jump out of the radio. The buzz is strong, and you can't go wrong. WFNX, WOXY and KTCL are already in.

Smoking Popes, "Rubella," Capitol

The new single from the record that spawned the track "Need You Around" gets more intense than its predecessor, and has some early airplay already.

The Daisies, "Aeroplane Day," IRS

This uptempo crasher will blend in with the top format food groups as if it always belonged in their ranks. Consider the catchy chorus, and the early Cure-like single note guitar lines. The vocals sound like a subdued Joey Ramone. The mixture is relevant.

Seam, "Hey Latasha," Touch and Go

The critical acclaim this band has received is no joke. Rolling Stone magazine said "this quartet has killer hooks, moody melodies and biting lyrics." All of the qualities you've come to expect from the best music at the format. Give this one a shot, and get some indie vibe into your mix. It'll make Bush and Hootie sound better.

Shades Apart, "September Burns," Revelation

This Jersey band got rolling with their Soft Cell cover, and comes back to the table with the shortest tune you'll see in a while. And this one burns into your brain with great immediacy. This band is better than most.

Dandelion, "Trailer Park Girl," Ruffhouse/Columbia/CRG

The new single from Philly band Dandelion retains the playful nature we exposed with "Weird Out" and packs up a short shot of youthful modern rock vigor.

Dance Hall Crashers, "Go," (510)/MCA

This band is making the rounds of the parties, and there's good reason why. They don't rely on an overbearing guitar onslaught or reckless lyrics that are designed to produce shock value. They meld a ska sensibility with a rock and roll attitude in a "Time Bomb" sort-of way (Rancid members Tim Armstrong and Matt Freeman were founding members of DHC in '89).

Lisa Cerbone, "Asbury Park," Ichiban

This singer/songwriter creates a marvelous landscape of our beloved Jersey Shore former resort town, and creates a song that features every positive aspect of this artist's repertoire. She's got a wonderful voice, and the picture that's painted is worth a thousand more words that never get spoken but come through loud and clear in her delivery.

Wanderlust, "Before We Fade" RCA

The first single, "I Walked," achieved #1 BDS ranking for one or more weeks at a couple handful of stations across the country. So the facts indicate they're more than just a regional phenomenon; they demonstrate recognized potential plus future promise. With the foundation firmly established, Wanderlust responds to the bell with the malleable yet chunky, soulful yet kaleidoscopic second single from their Prize CD. It would be to your advantage to keep your eye on the prize as you place this one under playlist consider. -JH

Chris Whitley, "Din," WORK

One of the most distinctive voices in the '90s rock world brings the "Din" from Din of Ecstasy to the table this week at the format. The critically-acclaimed record displays thought-provoking tangents to acoustic dreams and nightmares, and unveils a meaner Whitley who's facing demons with sawed-off lazer beams of electric guitar. Taking that voice into these uncharted waters means business for those of us who pursue the format for what it always has been - a place where the artist can unveil his art. -JH

Jewel, "You Were Meant For Me," Atlantic

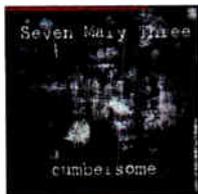

While performing around the country as an opening act for many Alternative acts, Jewel has been generating serious talk from surprised audience members. We have seen her a few times in both headlining and support roles, and the conclusion is clear. Jewel will be an artist we will reckon with for some time to come. Her powerful approach to songwriting mixes the ghosts of Joplin with a modern nature that stirs up the format. This track rocks a bit more than the first, too. 91X gets the ball rolling.

Brute, "Good Morning Mr. Hard-on," Capricorn

Need a novelty tune? Looking for relatability? A one-two punch exists with this offering. It's not too slick for the room, either.

WKRO (M-20 PPW WKS-ON:8) PD Taft Moore

"We have been on that song since we signed on, before the major label release. We knew we just had to be on this. They've always been a strong live club band, and with the kind of production that's on this record, they're deeper than just that one track. They're the strongest new rock band in Central Florida."

WDST (B-7 PPW WKS-ON:8) MD Nic Harcourt

"It's really a night-time record for us. Will not go further here. We've recategorized the records, so our approach is a bit more upper-demo. It's doing great at night, though."

WEND (B-27 PPW WKS-ON:8) MD Kim Monroe

"It is still building. In our call-out, that was in the Top 5."

WUNX (B-10 PPW WKS-ON:8) MD Steve Binder

"With WDRE going on the record now, that can do nothing but help us. It stayed constant until them."

WMRQ (M-25 PPW WKS-ON:9) MD Gina Crash

"This has been huge forever. People are just now going out to buy it. We get at least a call a night asking about the new Pearl Jam. Some people are saying it's tough to find in the market, it's selling out. Kids are finally catching on. It's exactly the sound that's working best for the station right now."

WDST (B-16 PPW WKS-ON:7) MD Nic Harcourt

"We've just moved it out of heavy, but we've been on it from the beginning. It stands out on the radio, and if you need one reason to play it that should be it. It developed really quickly."

WUNX (B-20 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Steve Binder

"This is huge. I didn't think it could get much bigger. Good phones."

WEND (B-39 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Kim Monroe

WMRQ (B-10 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Gina Crash

"This is my favorite record of the year. We've been on it since the bootleg vinyl version of 'VOW.' I think Butch Vig is a genius."

WKRO (M-20 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Taft Moore

"I had to hear this by myself while I was driving in the car. If they sound good there, they will usually work. The two key words here are Butch Vig. There's some real depth to this band. They've got an original sound. This record reminds me of the older albums, where you would play the album, instead of a single. This is a collection of songs that fit snugly under one roof."

WKRO (M-12 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Taft Moore

"Just one of those records that I felt like we needed to play. I don't see it as having much staying power, but it's building here."

WMRQ (B-20 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Gina Crash

"I think it's just one of those things they expect to hear. I love that song. (The album is) still one of our top sellers."

WUNX (B-20 PPW) MD Steve Binder

ANNE COOK 1994

THE PHILADELPHIA MUSIC CONFERENCE
DISCMAKERS PRESENTS

The raging number of adds for The Smashing Pumpkins came as no surprise to us this week. This record is strong. One of the week's surprises comes in the form of the substantial add week that Melissa Etheridge had at the format.

I am a fan of hers. I have always enjoyed her stage performance, and almost without exception enjoy her recorded work. I am glad she is getting the exposure. This track also cruised in at #2 Most Added at COR, between Alice and the Pumpkins. Many of those folks find Melissa refreshingly rockin'.

I know we get adds here for Melissa. I just didn't foresee this many, for this cut. There's nothing Alternative about this artist, or this tune. It's just straight-ahead rock and roll. This action poses interesting study of this format at this time.

In the final analysis, who can blame anyone for playing a hit artist? She's gonna get played at AOR/COR, AAA, CHR and maybe Polka stations for all we know.

As a caveat, I suggest that our mission is to present music with a difference in the marketplace. With so much tune-sharing already decided by the success that we are having with artists in the first place, taking a rock artist (that has already been around for a number of years) into our midst might set us up for more confusion at diary time.

Keep in mind that the differences we provide in our music are some of the hooks by which the audience will get to know us as a radio station. Play anything you think you have to play. Just don't fall into the swirl of chasing your own tail. Grab some of the new artists, and some credible indie product, too. A proper spice rotation of some of this stuff will set you apart.

Wendy Naylor will join up with Way Cool Music this week, and still will work with MCA Alternative, according to VP Rock Promotion Gina Iorillo... It's official. KPNT PD Jim McGuinn is heading back our way to WDRE(WIBF)/Philadelphia as PD, bringing about a localized approach to Philly with the WDRE handle... WENZ PD Phil Manning is heading into Steeltown to program Entercom's new alternative rocker, Revolution 104.7... KTOZ's Rob Nicholson is upped to VP of KHTO, KZBE and KTOZ... Good to see Todd Bisson from EMI, Drew from AAM, Greg Miller from BDS and the others at the International Managers Forum panel on Wednesday night. And gracias to Futurist's Amy Nathanson for the Warrior Soul update, and the dinner. She's screaming about the band Supple... With KROQ's add of "Mighty K.C." by the band For Squirrels, the campaign for that track as the next single takes off. Label folks knew that they wanted to work this track all along, but with the ensuing tragedy they felt that the lyrical content of the song would be in poor taste as a first release. The song's title is a reference to Kurt Cobain. Didn't bother Kevin, evidently... Howard Stern picked up WKOC last week, joining sister station WVGO in bringing Howard to Virginia for the first time (other than ADI coverage from WJFK/Washington DC)... American Recordings will launch a 24-hour Internet Chat Room with Slayer on Halloween, beginning with a one hour Q&A with band members at 6 p.m. Pacific Time... Our Lady Peace will open for the Candlebox tour starting 10/24. ...WDST is looking for a band or Two for a 12/2 show...

Letters to Cleo hang out with PD Vince Richards, MD Rich Wall, and other staffers at WEDG/Buffalo.

Matthew Sweet is caught between Leslie Fram of 99X and Thomas The Glide Westfall of Zoo Entertainment just after a recent Atlanta show.

Bob Dylan turned a scheduled concert in Biloxi, Mississippi, into a benefit for victims of Hurricane Opal. Dylan requested that $5 from every ticket for his concert at the Coast Coliseum go to Floridians affected by the hurricane. Money from the show will go through the Hurricane Disaster Relief Fund to the Salvation Army and Red Cross disaster teams in Pensacola and Fort Walton Beach.

Oasis had to take a song called "Step Out" off of their new album "(What's The Story) Morning Glory?" because it was too similar to Stevie Wonder's "Uptight" and Wonder was demanding six percent of the song's royalties. But Noel Gallagher says the song is even more similar to Thin Lizzy's song "Rosalie." The band is paying ten percent of the royalties to the single "Whatever" to Neil Innes of Monty Python and the Bonzo Dog Doo-Dah Band because of similarities to Innes' 1973 song "How Sweet To Be An Idiot," even though Gallagher says he's never heard the song. "I laugh to myself when I am writing these songs," Gallagher says. "When I hear the first record that rips off one of my songs, I will find the guy, I will shake him by the hand." Gallagher says that despite Oasis' wild drug-crazed image, heroin is strictly banned. "If I ever found that anybody in the band was doing heroin or any form of heroin substitute, they would get sacked on the spot," he says. "Nobody in Oasis has ever done heroin, crack, acid or any form of downers or anything that makes you lose the marbles big time." He does admit that he once tried to stay up for 72 hours while he was in the U.S. and ended up spending three days in the hospital.

Terry Hall of the Specials is releasing an EP in Britain this month called "Rainbows." The title track was written and performed with Damon Albarn of Blur. Hall also collaborates with Tricky in a reworking of the Specials' "Ghost Town." Hall began his solo career last year with the album "Home," but life with his family in Coventry, England, remains important to him. "Success for me now is getting the kids to school without an argument," Hall says. "The success I had with The Specials I didn't appreciate at the time. We didn't know the value of money because we came from nothing. With seven people in the band you can spend money really fast."

A hearing officer has called for the destruction of three bull terriers owned by Courtney Love's father. The dogs escaped from Hank Harrison's property last month and attacked a Labrador retriever and its owner. The dog suffered 30 puncture-type wounds and bit owner Gwen Francis. City official James Madden called the dogs "vicious animals that travel in a pack" and said "their next victim could be a doe, a fawn or a 20-pound toddler." Harrison plans to appeal the decision, calling it an "obvious injustice."

Green Day are reportedly not planning to do interviews to promote their new album "Insomniac," except for an interview they'll grant to Rolling Stone magazine for a major feature about the band. Green Day do plan a North American tour in support of the LP.

Aretha Franklin plans to put out a cooking video next year. "I'll show people how to cook the best of soul," she says. It's 'Switchin' In The Kitchen.' I love to cook. Absolutely. Love It. Ribs. Chicken in dressing with candied sweet potatoes. Greens. Hot-water corn bread. All the good stuff." Franklin is also planning to start her own record label (World Class Records) and will be collaborating with David Ritz on her autobiography. "I'm going to start writing it in October and it should be on the shelves next year," she says.

Release of "Like A Rolling Stone," the first single from the Rolling Stones upcoming album, has been delayed until the first full week of November.

Kinks lead singer Ray Davies is on a solo tour as his autobiography "X-Ray" has just been published.

Jesse Colin Young is moving to Hawaii because a fire has destroyed the California home he built almost 25 years ago. The only thing Young was able to recover from his ridgetop home in Inverness, California, overlooking Tomales Bay, was the melted shell of his motorcycle. "I think it will get mounted as a piece of sculpture," he said. Young built the house in 1971 after moving from New York to California with the Youngbloods in 1967. He even wrote a song about the house — "Ridgetop," on his album "Song For Julie," which was named after his daughter. A recording studio 60 feet away from Young's house was left unscathed. Young said his children from two marriages will continue to use the studio. "Maybe there will be a new generation of music rise out of these ashes," he says. Young says he might rebuild the house, but not immediately. "My wife has a little coffee farm in Hawaii, and we're going to move there," he says.

Dave Pirner of Soul Asylum says the band's "Let Your Dim Light Shine," which was released in June, lacks direction. But he says that was intentional and is "what I think is valuable about it. That's what I think is always going to be the problem for Soul Asylum. No matter how people try to categorize the band, it's going to be pretty difficult to listen to a whole album and say, 'This is this kind of music.' It's specifically designed so I can feel like I can express whatever I need to express and have the proper musical accompaniment to it. And I do believe that, yes, a lot of emotions are punk rock, or heavy-metal emotions, and a lot of emotions are country or jazz emotions. The emotion that a certain kind of music provokes is why people need music. And, unfortunately, I don't have a one-dimensional personality, so if I could put out a product that seemed like a product, it would be something that I'm not interested in doing. I guess I just hope to be able to be as open-minded and as broad as I can be, and I hope to find people that can handle it." Pirner admits being in awe of Iggy Pop when he backed him up at the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame concert in Cleveland. "Iggy just kept telling everybody to fuck off, which I thought was great," Pirner says. "He pretty much lived up to everything I wanted from Iggy, right up to the fact that the first time I met him he talked about visiting his mom and dad. When you find out someone like that's a real person, and you see all these people coming up to him going, 'Duh, how come you're not rolling in glass?' it really gives you a sense of how impersonal the whole thing can be sometimes. Your image or your reputation can alienate you from just being somebody, and being able to hang out and just play a little bit of music and just have dinner and just realize that you're dealing with human beings. I think that's the thing that people miss so much about people that have some sort of notoriety. They're real people, with real feelings."

Sting's wife took the witness stand in London in the trial of accountant Keith Moore, who is charged with stealing almost $10 million from Sting over several years. Trudi Sumner told the court that she won't even look at her husband's bank statements because of accusations that she married him for his money. "When Sting first separated from his wife, he was a former great friend of mine and there was unkind accusations that I was with him for pecuniary gain," she told the Southwark Crown Court. "It upset me a lot and I made a decision to distance myself from his personal wealth and try, as far as possible, to be an independent person."

Brownie McGhee has been hospitalized after the death of his daughter last month. The 80-year-old McGhee had come out of semi-retirement this year to help Delta musician Elmer Lee Thomas.

Billy Joel spoke out for continued civil disobedience at a meeting of the East Hampton, New York, Baymen Association. Members of the group are descendents of families that have fished the waters of the Atlantic Ocean since the 1600s. They oppose a state law banning the use of fishing nets. "Maybe I'm too much of a romantic, but I think it's worth it to struggle for what's left of the fishery," Joel told the association. "I have no pretensions of being a fisherman, but I'm an ally baymen because it is a 300-year-old tradition in the community in which I live."

Darius Rucker of Hootie & The Blowfish says he's "such a mall rat." In an interview in Essence magazine, he says he's always liked to go to shopping malls. "Previously I would just look around. Now I can actually buy stuff," he says.

The widow of Eazy-E of NWA has given birth to his daughter, Daijah Nakia, at a Los Angeles hospital. The couple were married shortly before the rapper, whose real name was Eric Wright, died of AIDS in March.

Joe Satriani has released his seventh album, a self-titled LP produced by Glyn Johns.

A cherry-red Hagstrom V-2 guitar with mother-of-pearl inlays that Elvis Presley played in his 1968 "comeback" TV special sold for $57,500 at a Las Vegas auction of Presley memorabilia. A 1970s-era jumpsuit sold for $68,500 even though it was missing studs, its color had faded and it has been damaged by moths. A custom-made pendant with the "TCB" lightning bolt went for $40,250.

A new musical by Bjorn Ulvaeus and Benny Andersson of Abba has opened in Stockholm, Sweden. "Kristana fran Duvemala" is based on novels by Vilhelm Moberg which describe how a million Swedes emigrated to the Americas around the turn of the century.

CBS-TV has ordered the half-hour series "The Harlettes," which will occasionally star Bette Midler, who is the executive producer of the show. The show is about about a group of female backing vocalists and Midler will occasionally appear as their lead singer.

The U.S. Supreme Court has refused to review a decision by the 9th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals that ZZ Top's 1973 song "LaGrange" did not infringe on the John Lee Hooker's 1948 classic "Boogie Chillen" because not all recordings of Hooker's tune carried a copyright notice. A coalition of music publishers had filed a brief with the Supreme Court saying the ruling "creates the risk of a massive forfeiture of copyrights in musical works and, with it, a loss of hundreds of millions of dollars per year in licensing income for songwriters and music publishers."

Cher wears an outfit like Elvis Presley in her video for "Walking In Memphis" from her LP "Man's World" coming out early next year. Scenes for the video of the song about Presley, were shot at the Pink Motel in Sun Valley, California.

Former Haircut 100 leader Nick Heyward is releasing a new album called "Tangled." "I've never thought of this as a career," he says. "If it is, it's been a crap one, planned by some puppeteer who's not doing very well. However, I have got away from all the silver-suitcase managers who want to hold your plectrum for you. It's not easy making quirky records — you really have to believe in what you do, and make sure that the little money you earn doesn't disappear."

San Jose band Diatribes has a song called "Therapy" featured in the new film "Strange Days." The band hopes to be signed to a major label in the next month or two thanks to exposure from the film.

Members of Van Halen have put their handprints on the RockWalk in Hollywood in front of about 800 fans. "In a year and a half it will be 20 years since we made our first record and it seems very appropriate today to be inducted into Hollywood's RockWalk on Sunset Boulevard because we've come full circle since we started in the clubs," said guitarist Eddie Van Halen. Singer Sammy Hagar called being inducted into the RockWalk "a great honor." "We feel like there's a lot of music left in us and we're just getting started," Hagar said.

Ed Roland says Collective Soul's self-titled second album is a new start for the band. "Our whole objective with this record wasn't about how many you could sell — it was about actually letting people hear what Collective Soul sounds like," Roland says. "The first one wasn't really a true representation — it wasn't a band effort." He says he's pleased the new album has had a more steady success than the first LP "Hints, Allegations, and Things Left Unsaid." "For 20-some weeks, it's been on the top 40 in album sales....That's great, as far as I'm concerned. I look at that as very much a success and I'm very grateful for that," he says. "Last time, it was too much too quick. Your head spins around and you don't know how to react or respond....You go through different emotions, like self-doubt — do we really deserve this? What's going on? The hardest thing to do was just to accept what was going on."

David Byrne, who has been taking pictures for almost two decades, has a collection of photographs just published, called "Strange Ritual." Byrne's first book of photography mixes religious images with household products. "The profane is often treated the same way as the spiritual," Byrne says. "The shop-window displays are the same as the religious items." Byrne says a publisher approached him about the book after seeing one of his photos in an art magazine. "I think these photos work best in a series. There is a cumulative effect. Individual shots can have an isolated effect, but they're not great pictures and they have more effect when you see them one after the other," he says. "I didn't want it to look like a photography book. Hence, when I worked with the designer, we had a lot of the photos bleed off the page, more like a magazine. I think that makes the photos more accessible. You are confronted with the images. If they had these big, white borders, it would be like saying, 'This is a precious object, a work of art,' and that distances you from dealing with what the photo is." Byrne, by the way, says he has no interest in reactivating Talking Heads.

"Ain't Nuthin But A She Thing" is the name of the all-female album coming out later this month to benefit the Shirley Divers Foundation, named for a record executive who died of breast cancer. The LP features Melissa Etheridge, Annie Lennox and Me'shell Ndegocello, among others.

The new Jimi Hendrix tribute album, "In From The Storm," is available on a limited-edition vinyl picture disc. The LP features Sting, Santana, Taj Mahal, Brian May, Noel Redding and Buddy Miles.

A seven-piece Madonna costume from her "Girlie Show" tour fetched $17,920 at a Beverly Hills, California, auction. The outfit included a bra, shorts, jacket, boots, riding crop and mask.

Jane Wiedlin's new band, froSTed, will open for Big Audio Dynamite beginning October 26 in Phoenix. The band has independently released a single of "Bed/Call Me Crazy."

U2's Bono has been talking to the New Musical Express about working with Brian Eno and Pavarotti in the Passengers. The first album under the name, also featuring the other members of U2, will be 'Original Soundtracks 1,' released on November 6. According to Bono: "It's extraordinary to have been around for as long as we've been around and still find music with people we want to play with, whether it's Howie B. Pavarotti or anyone. It's great. I think the only limit is our own imagination." However, the singer conceded some people may not like the project and says U2 want to make a new rock album for release in 1996: "We're going to make a real rockin' record. Edge is falling back in love with the guitar and he's making it sound like it's never been heard before. It's a new instrument in his hands. Everybody's just in fine form. U2 are desperate to make a great rock n' roll record. We've not yet made our best record. We're slow learners." The full track-listing of 'Original Soundtracks 1': "United Colours," 'Slug,' 'Your Blue Room,' 'A Different Kind Of Blue,' 'Beach Sequence,' 'Miss Sarajevo' (sung by Pavarotti), 'Ito Okashi,' 'One Minute Warning,' 'Corpse (These Chains Are Way Too Long),' 'Elvis Ate America,' 'Plot 180,' 'Theme From The Swan' and 'Theme From Let's Go Native.'... The Stone Roses are planning to release a new studio album in 1996. A live EP or LP is also pencilled in for early in the year. Elsewhere, former OMD keyboard player Nigel Leye Ipinson is working with the band for live shows. Finally, Roses' guitarist John Squire is designing a Christmas card for the Bosnian War Child charity. Pulp's Jarvis Cocker and Massive Attack's 3-D are also designing cards... Damon McAlmont and former Suede guitarist Bernard Butler are no longer working together. McAlmont alleges this is at least partly because of his homosexuality: "I don't think he can cope with my personality. I think Brett (Suede singer) flirted with the thing (homosexuality) and I am the thing." A final McAlmont and Butler single 'You Do' will be released via Hut on October 23. Bonus tracks on different formats are 'Although,' 'The Debitor,' 'Tonight' and a cover of Barbara Lynn's 'You'll Lose A Good Thing.'... Richard Ashcroft of The Verve will perform as a solo artist when Oasis play at London Earls Court in November. The singer recently split The Verve and has been working at his home on new songs. He will play between bands, performing new material acoustically... Pulp may be banned from performing 'Sorted For E's And Wizz' when then they play at the Bridlington Spa venue in Yorkshire, North England. A local councillor has mounted a campaign to ban the song, claiming it encourages young people to take drugs... The Manic Street Preachers have started work on their fourth album. The band have been in a French studio recording demos, but are currently taking a break. It is thought the album will feature lyrics from Richey Edwards, who disappeared in February this year... Senser are looking for guest rappers and vocalist to work on their next album. Anyone interested should send a tape and lyrics to Senser, 319 City Road, London, EC1V 1LJ, United Kingdom... Marion's new single 'Let's Go Together' (London)... Joyrider, who support Therapy? at the London Brixton Academy on October 13, will release a new single 'Fabulae' via the independent Paradox on October 13. The band have been picking up strong press in the UK recently... Menswear were recently number one in Thailand with 'Daydreamer.' The band have been getting mixed reviews for their debut 'Nuisance' album and will tour the UK through October and November... Scarfo are a South London band who recently toured with Ash. The band are signed to Deceptive, UK home of Elastica, and will release a self-titled debut mini-album on November 13. The band will tour the UK in November and December... Elastica will go into the studio to work on new material before Christmas. Bassist Annie, who recently quit the band due to Elastica's heavy touring commitments, continues to say she may work with the band again in the future... Honeycrack, the new band from former Wildhearts' guitarist CJ, will release their first commercial single 'Sitting At Home' via Epic on October 23. As well as CJ the group feature guitarists Willie Dowling, and Mark McRae, bassist Pete Clarke and drummer Hugo Degenhardt. CJ is delighted to be a band leader, commenting: "It's like coming out of hell and walking into the light. I know I sound like a hippy fuckwit, but it's true. I'd introduce these people to my dogs." CJ also says of his former band: "I won't be losing any sleep about chart positions."... Boy George's new single, available this week, is 'Same Thing In Reverse' (Virgin). The single is the third from George's album

Cheapness And Beauty... Mojavo 3 are the latest UK signings to 4AD. The band will release their debut album 'Ask Me Tomorrow' on October 13 and consist of Neil Halstead, (guitars/vocals) Rachel Goswell (vocals), Ian McGutcheon (drums/percussion) and Christopher Andrews (piano). Neil and Rachael used to be in Slowdive. According to Rachel: "Slowdive didn't so much split as take a shift in direction, one that a couple of the other members of the band weren't comfortable with. It hardly seemed right to carry on with the same name; it was time to move on. We needed a fresh start."... Soul II Soul's new single 'I Care (Soul II Soul),' a track from the band's 'Volume V: Believe' album. The band will tour the UK in early 1996... King L are new Virgin signings led by former Danny Wilson frontman and songwriter Gary Clark. The band recently released a critically acclaimed debut album 'Great Day For Gravity,' and this week release a first single 'Life After You.'... Oasis' second album '(What's The Story) Morning Glory' has sold 350,000 copies in its first week of release in the UK. The album topped Blur's 'The Great Escape' from the top of the UK charts. Meanwhile, the band's Noel Gallagher has been clarifying some of his recent quotes about Oasis splitting up. Speaking to the New Musical Express, Gallagher denies the band will split up after three albums: "The next album, I know what that's gonna be about. I know the cover, I know the title, I know the list of songs, I know how it's gonna run. After that, I want this band to take a big block of time off. I see this period of Oasis as the first three albums and then a break, and then see where we stand in the realm of what's going on, take inspiration and then come back. I don't see Oasis as having a certain lifespan." He also talks about the issue of Oasis' songs allegedly resembling other bands too closely. "If we were to put 'Whatever' (for which Neil Innes receives ten per cent of the royalties because of its similarity to his song 'How Sweet It Is To Be An Idiot') on an album, we'd be talking a lot of money. Other than that it's only about... well, saying that, I suppose it is a fuckin' lot of money, we're talking about tens of thousands of pounds. But then again why didn't The Beatles sue Paul Weller for 'Start!' When I hear the first record that rips off one of my songs, I'll find the guy, I'll shake him by the hand. I'll make sure my publishing company sues no-one."... Kingmaker are said to have split, according to reports circulating in the band's home town Hull, North England... Ned's Atomic Dustbin have split. The band enjoyed three UK top 40 singles with 'Trust,' 'Not Sleeping Around' and 'Intact,' they released the albums 'God Fodder,' 'Are You Normal,' '5.22' and 'Brainbloodvolume.' It is still unclear why the band decided to call it a day... The Rolling Stones' Mick Jagger may give his name to a performing arts centre to be built at his former school in Dartford, London. The centre will be housed in a converted gym and will cost in the region of $150,000. Jagger is reported to be keen on the idea, even phoning Tony Smith, the head teacher of Dartford Grammar School. However, the local government of Dartford County Council have to ratify the name and some local Conservative councillors are said to be against the idea. A rival candidate is another school old boy, poet Sydney Keynes. A decision will be made at a full council meeting on October 16... Cast's debut album 'All Change' will be released on October 16... Gene, Supergrass, Blur and Paul Weller will be amongst artists featured on a Small Faces tribute album due for release in February. The album will raise money for the band's former bassist Ronnie Laine who suffers from multiple sclerosis. Tracks will include: Blur - 'Lazy Sunday'; Changing Man - 'Afterglow Of Your Love'; Dodgy - 'I Can't Make It'; Gene - 'The Autumn Stone'; Glen Matlock - 'Wham Bam Thank You Mam'; Noel Gallagher - 'Feelin' Lonely'; Northern Uproar - 'My Mind's Eye'; Ocean Colour Scene - 'Son Of A Beker'; Paul Weller - 'I'm Only Dreaming'; Planet - 'Tin Soldier'; PP Arnold And The Soul Destroyers - 'If You Think I'm Groovy'; Primal Scream with PP Arnold - 'Understanding'; Ride - 'That Man'; Supergrass - 'Itchycoo Park'; The Buzzcocks - 'Here Come The Nice'; and The Charlatans - 'I Feel Much Better Rolling Over.'... Gene hope to release a new album in March. It will be preceded by a single in February. Guitarist Steve Mason says the band have written 15 backing tracks and six complete new songs... Kylie Minogue has been talking about working with Nick Cave. According to the singer: "It appears that in 1988, as he was in rehabilitation coming off heroin, I was merrily singing 'I Should Be So Lucky.' It's lucky I never knew that before or I might have been a bit...intimidated."

radio comments

GATHY FAULKNER, KISW, SEATTLE

My words of worship go to Eleven for putting on one of the finest shows I've seen in a long time. Alain, Natasha and Greg fill a room with a wall of sound like no other. Eleven is not for the superficial at heart. This is a band with depth. "Why" is a great tune, hopefully you're playing it. Thanks to the band for stopping by the station before our show at the Weathered Wall. Thanks to Krist Novoselic and Sweet 75 for opening. Hello to Matt Cameron (nice to see you play with the band), Jack Irons, Kim Thayil and all the other Seattle big wigs for taking time out of your schedule to join us and support Eleven! Alice in Chains' "Grind"... My pride in this band continues to grow... thanks guys for another awesome track.!!!

KEVIN VARGAS, KISS, SAN ANTONIO

So many new releases to choose from! Steely Dan! Frampton comes alive... again! Fleetwood Mac! Heart! Asia! Seeger and The Beatles soon! Oh boy, oh boy, oh boy! Grunge is dead. Geritol rules. Classic Rock is the format for those who's life is "over" and prefer to live in the glory days of the past. Been there, done with it. Nothing is finer than a 3 hour remote listening to a room full of Al Bundy's reminisce. 25-54 appeal doesn't have to mean "dated." When we added The Badlees in support of their playing our big festival I knew this record wouldn't hurt us but I had no idea it would be as strong as it has turned out to be in helping us. I'm surprised how many people (both sexes, all demos) are giving positive feedback over "Fear Of Falling."

CARL CRAFT, WCIZ, WATERTOWN

Last week marked a very bold event in the history of breaking new artists on the radio. It was during last week, on Wednesday I believe, that a radio station in Luxembourg first played a Beatles record on the air. Luxembourg being a somewhat small market, credit for "finding the hit" was given to a honcho in a large market.... C'est la vie.

KC CARSON, WROQ

By the time you read this our 3rd Annual Rock and Roll Auction will be over. We hope to surpass the amount raised in the past couple of years... and that is thanks to all of you who helped pull this all together. Our hats off to all the reps that tracked down some really cool stuff for us to auction. The folks at the Children's Hospital are very excited about being on the receiving end of all this money. Ken and I appreciate those of you that got us autographed guitars, CDs, posters and such. You all have hearts of gold.

BRUCE WARREN, WXPB, WORLD CAFE

Question: Why does music suck? Perhaps a real critical review of new album by Lenny Kravitz, David Bowie, Urge Overkill, and Meat Puppets will point to a dearth in the art of song-writing and the emphasis of style over substance. The problem with radio these days is that we are expected by the industry to be trend setters without being critics - the fact that a radio programmer adds a record has less to do with the qualitative decisions than the quantitative implications of the decision to play a song. If we're all talking about how bad a record is;

if we talk in chat rooms about how much a new single by an "established" band really sucks; if, over cocktails, we lament about how we dislike a particular song - then why do we play it? Think about these things the next time you are called on to be a music critic and a radio programmer. Music that doesn't suck: Eric Matthews - It's Heavy In Here (SubPop); The Softies - It's Love (K Records); The Harvest Ministers - A Feeling Mission (Bar None); Garbage (self-titled on Almo); Thea Ennen & The Algorithms (Flying Fish); Mercury Rev - See You On The Other Side (Work); Tears For Fears - Raoul and The Kings of Spain (Epic); and G Love & Special Sauce - Coast To Coast Motel (Epic).

E. HEATHER LOSE

THUNDER 94, NASHVILLE

So this is my last crusade as the Music Director for Thunder 94. I feel like a kid waiting to get out of school for summer break! On the other hand, though, it'll be strange cleaning out my desk and moving on to the next thing. And what is the next thing? Not sure yet, but after taking time to clear out my head, you'll be hearing from me in some form or fashion, so keep my card in your Rolodex. I can't split without thanking some folks. People who I've connected with beyond nebulous professional relationships. So a big hug and cold brew to fellow Nashville Scorchers fan Jacqueline, Bebop, Jonathan L. (may Candlebox thrive!), Nan at Capricorn (still have that t-shirt for you!), Devin Durrant, Bill Janis (thnx for the book), Gene Dries (thanks for letting me change your mind about Alternative programmers!), Monica the spaghetti queen, Tod for being a guy who can talk about music (not to mention help w/BDS), Robbie at Epitaph (they're towing your car!), Jack Springer for always being straight with me, Nick, Dave and Co. at RCA for being so much fun to hang with, Mary at Capitol, Bill Carroll, Superfrank, Mike Bacon, Grrrrratzer, Wendy Naylor and Mike Jacobs, Todd at American, Michael Skerlock, Thomas Westfall (green suit, topknot in Bad Religion moshpit), Jerry Rubino (watching Thomas in green suit, with topknot, in said moshpit), the Spongebath guyz, and anyone I'm forgetting at this late hour. Bosses of said folks — give these people a fat raise — they're worth more than they're making now. (Superfrank, you can give yourself a fat raise!) One word before I go to unimaginative, sheep-like, non-musical, bandwagon-jumping, bottom-line-scrutinizing programmers (just ask Ivana if you're not sure): read The Fountainhead. Cheerio!

TODD HALLER & ERIC HALL, CHANNEL Z

All I want to know is what day this is? It's Tuesday right? Channel Z is still recovering from the 3rd Annual South By Southeast Invitational Showcase that took place over the weekend. It's so bad Eric hasn't found time to comb his hair, which isn't anything new. Thanks to everyone who took part in making the Showcase an incredible success. A special thanks to the performers, their management, and the record labels. Speaking of record labels, thanks to all the "record industry types" who popped into beautiful Augusta, GA. Here's a rundown of who's who: Joe Hodge, Chris Sicilano, "Godfather" Don Miller, Nan Fisher, Jeff Marks, Mark Choiter, and the always lovely Wendy Naylor... Plus we would like to give a big Augusta salute to Leslie Fram of 99X and our friends from 96 WAVE in Charleston S.C. Oh yeah, let's all thank Frank and Rob for their on going support of local and regional music in the Z.S.R.A. We also had a few other activities going on around the Z Ranch in the past week. Thanks to Chuck and Andi for helping us teach the "Hearts Filthy Lesson" and sending some of the Z-Heads to the David Bowie Show at the Lakewood Amphitheater. We hooked the Z-Heads up with tix and a seat on a luxury cruiser to the show. All I can say is "people were getting off the bus at the end of the night with their mouths wide open and a look of confusion in their eyes." Bowie can still rock "in those Golden Years." Let's also say thanks to Warren of Reprise and "Godfather" Miller from Epic for Green Day and Indigo Girls. The Z-Heads had their choice of two hot releases on a Win-It-Before-You-Can-Buy-it-Monday. Keep smilin' and surfin' the Z!!!

GREG MEITUS, WYEP, PITTSBURGH

It is a beautiful Fall here in Pittsburgh, where we have actually had 3 sunny days in a row (a new record I believe). The new releases are coming in at an unbelievable pace. Phones have been great for Emmylou Harris, Francis Dunnery, Edwin McCain and October Project. Looking forward to seeing some of these artists in Pittsburgh soon. The PD search is on. Any suggestions, give me a call or have interested party send resume and tape to our GM, Christina Springer at 2313 East Carson Street, Pittsburgh 15203. Take care, Greg M.

THE TINK, WVUD, NEWARK

Why, hello there! I can not let the good news of what I witnessed this past week go without letting those of you who read these things go without being said. (Is that like a run-on sentence? Uuhhhmm!!) I went out to a really great show last week thanks to the Roadrunner Rascal Marni. Fear Factory at the Troc in Philly. Man, what a superb start of the month, first Down and know the F.F. The show opened with Starkweather, Into the Wire (Edison Rec's) then on to Merauder, Master Killer (Century Media). I did a pre-show interview with Fear Factory and let me say it was even better than the phoner. These guys are some of the best walking this planet. The performance was mondo huge. A highly recommended activity if this band comes to your town... and I did not fear then I embraced the music. I'm stopping now I'm gonna go embrace myself.

ROBERT BABECKI WCDB, ALBANY

O.K. Here's what's up. First of all, Fear Factory live is incredible. Second, I just had midterms, so if you had trouble getting to me this week, fear not, all should be back to normal by now (or a reasonable facsimile). My e-mail address is as follows: RB3447@cnsvox.Albany.edu. Shelter is coming to town this week, can you say psyched? CIV is still kicking my ass (they're incredible live), Life Of Agony (awesome stuff) debuted at number one and there's no end in sight. The Giants are 2-4 and the Jets are 1-5 (and people wonder why I'm a Niners fan), so if you wanna talk football be ready to hear some serious criticism. I'm outta here.
