95's BEST

Collective Soul, "December," Atlantic

When Ed Roland pressed his demo tape into a CD which he named Hints, Allegations and Things Left Unsaid, he hardly thought about reaching #1 with its track "Shine" in 1994. When WJRR first aired the track and spoke of the results, the rest of the country eventually took note. And for the second year in a row, Collective Soul wind up with the number one track of the year, this one being "December" from the album Collective Soul.

"December" was the first full-on single from the record ("Gel" was worked from the soundtrack to The Jerky Boys), and wound up spending a record-breaking 8 weeks at #1. Collective Soul was the first record the band felt they had really made together. We expect that they will be making great records for some time to come.

CURRENT ORIENTED ROCK

Into Another, "Mutate Me," Hollywood

This New York band ain't no rookie outfit - they've been around for at least 10 years. With Seemless, and this single "Mutate Me," Into Another step into mass appeal territory. Technically a first quarter release, it's already screaming on a number of COR stations, including KISW, KIOZ, WRCX, WXTB and others. It also picks up 10 more this week, including KBPI, KNRX, KEYJ, KRZZ, WCCC and WKQZ. WDRK's Addison Wakeford notes "This is getting very good phone calls for as little as we're spinning it. Lots of lower demos."

Tori Amos, "Caught a Lite Sneeze," Atlantic

This influential singer/songwriter certainly deserves a cross-format push with this track from the forthcoming Atlantic release slated for shipping next week. The drum bed consistently thumps around Amos' visionary vocal performance. Don't be silly and consider this too AAA for COR. She's cultivated quite a following all over the demo map.

The Rugburns, "I Hate F%@king X-Mas," Priority

Ahh, the holidays. Toys, smiling kids, trees, family, It's a Wonderful Life, sleigh bells... AAARRRRGGGHHHH! For anyone interested in totally derailing the warm, fuzzy holiday vibe in favor of some obnoxious fun, this one is a must. It's reasonably edited, and full of attitude.

Bottle Rockets, "I'll Be Comin' Around," TAG/Atlantic

You paved the way with "Radar Gun," and now it's time to see a different side of The Bottle Rockets. While they are a bunch of fun-loving party animals that display a good ol' wit in many of their songs, "I'll Be Comin' Around" is more on the serious side. It's melodic and rockin', and seems to be heading for multi-format acceptance.

CURRENT ORIENTED
ROCK

S E L E C T I O N S

DOG'S EYE VIEW
"EVERYTHING FALLS APART"
COLUMBIA/CRG

Here's a first quarter track that's been set up by plenty of radio visits and early buzz. With the success of Hootie and Dave Matthews, we will probably be seeing plenty of material that plays on the rootsy side in the months ahead. This is strong, indeed.

GREAT WHITE
STAGE
ZOO

We all know that straight-ahead rock still makes the grade, and you might find that "Once Bitten, Twice Shy" can finally come out of the closet again, too. Here on this live album, recorded in two "stages" - one at The House of Blues in 1994 and the other for Westwood One back in '93 - is a live version of this and other Great White familiarities.

JOSH CLAYTON-FELT
"WINDOW"
A&M

The former frontman for School of Fish embarks on a solo career with this first single due out in early '96. You can check it out on the Wiener Dogs promo sampler. It's got all the life and melody found in something like "3 Strange Days," and then some.

LIVING COLOUR
PRIDE
EPIC

There's a new mix of "Love Rears Its Ugly Head" you might find some interest in, as well as other staple Living Colour tunes. And on this "Best of" retrospective are also 4 previously unreleased tunes recorded back in October of 1994, apparently from sessions for a new album which never materialized.

DISHWALLA
"COUNTING BLUE CARS"
A&M

Keep your eyes open for this one. It was a track that provoked programmers to comment that this should be the single to work in the first place. You'll see it hit your desk very soon.

KEGL (B-33 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Duane Doherty

"I think it will be another winner. I had my doubts at first; it seemed to just sit there. My early testing indicates mid-pack."

KLOL (B-15 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Cindy Bennett

"Boy, this record is not taking off at all. 86% familiar, with 69% acceptance. Our top-testing record is 110."

KQRC (B-29 PPW WKS-ON:7) PD Doug Sorensen

"This is huge, massive. One of the biggest artists of the year for us."

KSJO (B-26 PPW WKS-ON:7) PD Dana Jang

"Glycerine' is performing just like every other Bush song...strong, really strong."

WARQ (B-47 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Dave Stewart

"This could be as big or bigger than 'Come Down.'"

WBZX (N-40 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Hal Fish

"Just a really tasty piece of frosting on a big cake."

WDRK (B-17 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD/MD Addison Wakeford

"Great. Smash for us."

WKLL (B-34 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Jeff Gillis

"High buzz on this one...every song from that record is bigger than the last one."

WLZR (M-15 PPW WKS-ON:7) PD Keith Masters

KILO (B-17 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Rich Hawk

"Starting to pick up phone action, which we didn't have before."

KNCN (M-14 PPW WKS-ON:4) APD/MD Matt Vaughn

"Not a whole lot of reaction."

KRXQ (M-23 PPW WKS-ON:8) PD Curtiss Johnson

"Moderate performer. Not bad, but not great."

KRZZ (B-10 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Greg Bergen

"Stronger reaction than with the first track. Sales are just not there."

KUFO (M-18 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Dave Numme

"No response to this track. No requests and no good research."

WBUZ (N-13 PPW WKS-ON:6) Co-PD/MD Matt Willauer

"Doing alright, not as well as I would like it to do. It seemed to do a lot better when the band was in town. Not very reactionary right now."

WDIZ (M-22 PPW WKS-ON:6) MD Pat Lynch

"Surprisingly quiet on the phones. Sounds good. It'll take a while to sink in."

WDRZ (B-21 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Joe Bevilacqua

"The core likes it. Doing better than 'Simple Lessons.' Reacting well in medium rotation."

WKLL (M-18 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Jeff Gillis

"On it a month, and getting minimal curiosity calls."

"Soft sales here."

WOZN (M-19 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Kent Baker

"They seem to be hot and cold. They have done well so far — strong enough to maintain but not as strong as previous Candlebox tracks."

KILO (N-14 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Rich Hawk
"I think it has some real legs to it. Great hook, great guitar, and sounds more straight ahead than just that punky Green Day sound."

KIOZ (N) PD Greg Stevens
"A stronger, catchier track."

KLOS (N) PD Carey Curelop
"I liked it when we first got the record. I like those Green Day tracks. They test well and they're over in three minutes."

KQRC (N) PD Doug Sorensen
"Actually isn't so punky and obnoxious. A pretty good little rock ditty."

KRAD (N) PD/MD Jay Gleason
"I think it's more of a mainstream sound for these guys, not straight out punk. Might appeal to a broader audience."

WLZR (N-11 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Keith Masters
"My gut tells me it's a better record than 'Geek.'"

KRXQ (N-17 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Curtiss Johnson
"This market seems to be lagging behind in artist burn. They're still very alive and strong here. Testing well. Sales of CDs aren't like the first one was, but still legitimately strong."

WARQ (N) PD Dave Stewart
"This is definitely a cut above for the band. They may be having a few identity problems, but as a song this is pretty decent."

WBZX (N) PD Hal Fish
"I think it'll be a big phone record. More disposable kid music."

WKLL (N) PD Jeff Gillis
"Any kid who is familiar with his parents' Chicago records will love this."

WRIF (N-6 PPW WKS-ON:3) APD/MD Mark Thompson
"Strongest track on the piece, and for Green Day that means a lot."

"A record that sounds really good. No response on it yet."

KTYD (B-21 PPW WKS-ON:5) OpsDir/MD Paul Cavanagh

"Very active for us. We still get requests for 'Supersonic.'"

WARQ (B-24 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Dave Stewart

"#5 on the phones last week. Of all these tracks we've played this is by far generating the most interest."

WDBZ (N-10 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD/MD Darrin Arriens

"I personally preferred 'Morning Glory,' but this one has a feel unlike anything out there right now."

KEGL (M-20 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Duane Doherty

"This is testing midpack and looking pretty good, actually."

KIBZ (M-14 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Paul Young

"Holding its own. Not really building or trailing off. I don't know if people know anything about the band yet."

KLOS (N) PD Carey Curelop

"We've liked this record for a long time and decided it was time to give it a shot."

KNCN (D-9 PPW WKS-ON:8) APD/MD Matt Vaughn

"This is winding down. It has peaked already."

KQRC (B-15 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Doug Sorensen

"I like it and it sounds really good on the radio."

WRIF (B-5 PPW WKS-ON:5) APD/MD Mark Thompson

"This is just like the Energizer Bunny."

WOZN (M-17 PPW WKS-ON:10) MD Kent Baker

"It's a slow song. We would prefer a funkier song, but it's doing well at #2 most requested. Probably my favorite band. I'd like to see 'Aeroplane' come out next."

KRXQ (M-34 PPW WKS-ON:12) PD Curtiss Johnson

"This is getting near the end of its run. Another week in heavy. It has performed very well."

KSJO (N-20 PPW WKS-ON:10) PD Dana Jang

"It is still early for test scores. Fairly confident about it."

WDZR (B-17 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Joe Bevilacqua

"Doing okay on the charts. Still building. Decent retail story but the phones are rather light. The jocks like it a lot."

WKLL (B-9 PPW WKS-ON:7) PD Jeff Gillis

"I'm inclined to think it has a little growth left in it, but I'm not sure how much."

WLZR (B-26 PPW WKS-ON:12) PD Keith Masters

"I think it's gonna go."

KILO (B-21 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Rich Hawk

"This is still getting interest calls."

KISS (M-11 PPW WKS-ON:9) APD/MD Kevin Vargas

"Totally passive record for us. No sales, no phones."

KNCN (B-8 PPW WKS-ON:6) APD/MD Matt Vaughn

"This has done fairly well. Moderate calls, nothing more."

KRAD (B-16 PPW WKS-ON:10) PD/MD Jay Gleason

"It steadily increases. We have opened it up into days - the more we play it the better the response gets."

KRZZ (B-5 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Greg Bergen

"A few interest phone calls. It's growing out of specialty programming."

KSJO (M-7 PPW WKS-ON:7) PD Dana Jang

"I'm still thinking it's a bit early on this record."

WAAF (M-10 PPW WKS-ON:7) PD Dave Douglas

"This is a slow builder."

WDBZ (N-19 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD/MD Darrin Arriens

"Unfamiliar, but we will try to move it up."

WDIZ (B-12 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Pat Lynch

"It's starting to warm up a little bit...some phone action."

WLZR (B-7 PPW WKS-ON:10) PD Keith Masters

"Getting there. The band's in town this week."

WRIF (N-6 PPW WKS-ON:7) APD/MD Mark Thompson

"There was a show Saturday night. Building slowly, as is retail."

WZTA (M-10 PPW WKS-ON:8) PD Gregg Steele

"Nothing new to report after 200 spins."

ZROC (B-20 PPW WKS-ON:9) PD Pat Dawsey

"This one came in well, and it moved up from medium to light."

KILO (B-27 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Rich Hawk

"Both tracks are appealing to the same audience but '1979' is going to have more upper appeal. It is showing calls from 25+ listeners. 'Bullet' won't go away, either."

KQRC (M-21 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Doug Sorensen

"This is still getting pretty good phones, with Top 15 sales on the record, and 'Bullet...' still doing fine."

KSJO (B-7 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Dana Jang

"This is really moving up quickly. A longer term than 'Bullet...'"

WAAF (B-15 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Dave Douglas

"It is hard to imagine anything bigger than 'Bullet...', but this could be the thing."

WARQ (B-24 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Dave Stewart

"I didn't expect this quick of a build from a request standpoint. It's picking up fast."

WAXQ (B-34 PPW WKS-ON:4) APD/MD Vinny Marino

"Phone reaction's quite good. One of those bands that can do no wrong."

WDIZ (B-17 PPW WKS-ON:7) MD Pat Lynch

"Logical second track. Falls in the same vein as 'Interstate Love Song.' We're getting requests for depth tracks up the wazoo."

WZTA (B-13 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Gregg Steele

"Great potential in early testing. But still pretty unfamiliar. High positives so far...all demos."

ZROC (B-21 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Pat Dawsey

"'Bullet' is still #1 testing after six weeks, with '1979' still overshadowed. Playing the game on this one."

KSJO (B-15 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Dana Jang

"Sounds great...no vibe yet."

KTYD (B-17 PPW WKS-ON:3) OpsDir/MD Paul Cavanagh

"Good reaction. Better than 'Cabin Down Below.'"

WDRK (B-22 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD/MD Addison Wakeford

"Petty is a huge core artist for us, and this is something I can spin anytime and people are going to like it."

WOZN (B-22 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Kent Baker

"One of the classic rock artists that we still get requests for — symbolic of what he has done in the past. We continue to play him — he still fits."

*Rank: 94-59**

KEGL (B-16 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Duane Doherty

"This was a hit for us even before they got signed to MCA. It's more of a recurrent for us now. Really big here previously."

KILO (N) PD Rich Hawk

"This is our third track deep. We didn't see a whole lot on the other two, and I just hope we get something here."

KISS (N-12 PPW WKS-ON:1) APD/MD Kevin Vargas

"It'll be a hit. We've had a tremendous passion level for The Dixies when they performed at our JC Jam. They had a line at the auto-graph booth for an hour and a half. It's that safe, soft, 'every-body can play'-type tune."

KRXQ (N) PD Curtiss Johnson

"I don't think it's the Goo Goo Dolls' 'Name,' but it's that kind of song. Much higher hit potential than their other two tracks."

KRZZ (N-4 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Greg Bergen

"A regional base has already developed. This could be the song that puts them over the top. Great tempo record."

KSJO (N) PD Dana Jang

"The only one of the three Dixons tracks I've added. That's how I feel about it."

KTYD (N-2 PPW WKS-ON:1) OpsDir/MD Paul Cavanagh

"Personally I think it's definitely the song that should push them over the top."

WBZX (N-10 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Hal Fish

"It sounds a bit much like Eddie Vedder, but if that doesn't hurt the record, it really has a chance."

WDRK (N-10 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD/MD Addison Wakeford

"It's the best song on the album, and we've played every one of them. Initial response on this one is the best yet. A little bit more poppy."

WKLL (N) PD Jeff Gillis

"This is a really good song. There's no way Alternative can ignore this song."

WLZR (N-9 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Keith Masters

"Confidence is high. I think it's going to outperform the first two. A good song."

WRIF (N-6 PPW WKS-ON:3) APD/MD Mark Thompson

"Sounds like a Rush record to me, so if anybody still gives a damn about them, we'll find out."

KIBZ (N-18 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Paul Young

"We were always curious as to what he would sound like on his own, so we are glad to have this."

KILO (N-17 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Rich Hawk

"Still getting a lot of interest calls."

KIOZ (N) PD Greg Stevens

"Not a flood of requests yet - about as much as the 'Hey, does Alex have a new record out?'-type calls."

KISS (N-12 PPW WKS-ON:1) APD/MD Kevin Vargas

"Just put it on because it's Alex and this is a big Rush city. People want to hear their guitar heroes."

KLOL (N) MD Cindy Bennett

WKLL (N-15 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Jeff Gillis

"Immediate recognition from Rush fans. They sought that record out, we put it on and it never fails to pull in a least a curiosity call or two when it gets played."

WLZR (N-9 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Keith Masters

"With the right jock sell, it's a great record. You gotta put it out there and let them know what it is. There's been some phone action on it."

ZROC (N-16 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Pat Dawsey

"The more I hear it, the more I like it on the air. That's got potential to be a good rock radio song for the next few months."

BUZIAK EXITS TRISTAR

Bob Buziak

Bob Buziak has resigned as President of TriStar Music Group, stating, "I am leaving to pursue other interests, and while I am sad to be TriStar, I am proud of my accomplishments." In addition to his responsibilities as RED Distribution President, Sal Licata will oversee TriStar. In making the announcement, Ron Urban, Sr. VP/Sony Music, commented, "I am grateful to Bob for his contributions to TriStar's development, and wish him well in his new pursuits. During the past year, Sal has greatly contributed to the growth of RED Distribution. He has extensive knowledge of the music industry and terrific leadership skills. I am certain that he will be an asset to all of the artists and employees associated with TriStar Music Group."

ERDAHL ELEVATED TO GM

Jon Erdahl has been named General Manager of WGIR-AM/FM in Manchester. N. Scott Knight, President of Knight Quality Stations commented, "Jon's management and operations experience over the past nine years well qualify him for this key appointment. I have had the opportunity to spend a great deal of time with Jon in recent months, and I can say without hesitation that I have reaffirmed my own conviction that he is the single best qualified person to lead the WGIR radio team into the future." VP Robert A. Knight added, "It is with the greatest confidence that we are passing the responsibility of running the WGIR radio operations to Jon Erdahl. I have worked closely with Jon over the years, and his sense of purpose and attention to our local listeners, advertisers and community organizations is complete."

MC EWEN JOINS WARNER BROS.

Joe McEwen

Joe McEwen has been named Sr. VP, Director of A&R for Warner Bros. Records. McEwen comes to WB from Sire where he was VP/A&R, a post he held since 1990. Prior to Sire, he spent 11 years as Director of A&R at Columbia. WB President Steve Baker commented on the appointment, "Joe is the quintessential A&R man, combining an extraordinary knowledge of musical history with a keen ear for music's future. His record for spotting and signing great new artists is matched only by his ability to nurture and guide their careers. He is truly a friend of the artist, and indispensable quality here at Warner Bros. Records." In other WB news, Peter Standish was named VP/Product Management. Standish began his career in 1979 as Program Coordinator for KUSF/San Francisco. In 1982, he began the Alternative Music Section at the Gavin Report, and was also a freelance contributor to Rolling Stone. Standish joined Reprise in 1989 as National Manager of Alternative Promotion, and in '92, he became Product Manager.

KROQ's Christmas

"How The _____ Stole Christmas," the 6th annual charity cassette compiled by KROQ/Burbank morning duo Kevin & Bean has been excluded from appearing on the Billboard album sales chart. The cassette — which has been aired as "How The Juice Stole Christmas" — would have debuted as the #1 best selling album in the Los Angeles area and the #22 best selling album in the U.S. on an accurate chart of product sales. According to a press release, 76,581 copies of the cassette were sold during the week ending December 10, 1995. When translated, the cassette outsold the next best selling album in L.A. by better than a four to one margin (17,864 copies of The Beatles' Anthology were sold). Billboard claims the release is not eligible for its charts because the tape was sold at only one retail chain. The cassette was sold for $1.67 plus tax at The Warehouse's 132 stores in the L.A. area, with all proceeds being donated to the Starlight Foundation of Southern California (a charity which enhances the lives of seriously ill children). The said cassette features holiday songs and comedy pieces performed by the likes of Bad Religion, Better Than Ezra, Bush, Goo Goo Dolls, the Presidents of the U.S.A., the Rentals and Wesley Willis.

Radio Shifts:

Today's Rock, X-107/Westchester Program Director Steve Blatter announced the recent promotions of Darrin Smith and Shari Roth. Smith has been elevated from Music Director to Assistant Program Director, thus taking on more responsibility in the day-to-day programming. Before joining the X-107 staff, Smith worked at WDRE/Long Island. Roth will be assuming the duties of Programming Coordinator/Assistant Music Director. In her new post Roth will become more involved in the weekly music selection process... KRZZ/Wichita announced the promotion of APD/MD Greg Bergen to Program Director. Bergen has been with the station for four and a half years, doing his share of air-time and taking on various programming duties. In commenting on his new post, Bergen said "Michael Lee is expanding his success to WTFX, and I would like to thank him for handing me the torch at KRZZ. It's a very exciting and competitive time in Wichita radio, and KRZZ is ready to meet that challenge." The promotion goes into effect December 18th... Multi-Market radio station WRXR/Augusta has signed a joint sales agreement with WCHZ/Channel Z/Augusta. Multi-Market Radio, Inc. also owns WKBG/Augusta. Of the deal inking, WRXR Director of Programming Jeff Sanders said, "WRXR is Augusta's legendary rock and roll station in the sales arena, teaming up with Channel Z, Augusta's New Rock tation, makes perfect sense."

Pearl Jam donated $50,000 to the Surfrider Foundation during the band's two-day concert series in San Diego, with frontman Eddie Vedder announcing that the band is donating the money to the foundation for their work to protect the oceans. Here Vedder is seen handing over the check to foundation Executive Director Dr. Pierce Flynn.

It must have been a pretty thankful Thanksgiving for the Goo Goo Dolls when they played at a sold out performance in their hometown of Buffalo. Frontman Johnny Reznick stopped by the WEDG studios with Warner Brothers rep Jeff Criden for a bit of quality time with PD Vince Richards.

One of the scheduled stops on Skunk Anansie's tour in support of Paranoid and Sunburnt just happened to be in the X-107/Westchester area. Vocalist Skin can be seen here anked by the likes of Kristin Petti, Darcy McCabe, Tony Couch (Promotions Director), Steve Blatter (Program Director), Jacqueline Saturn (Epic) and Dave Bouchard.

Dan Mason

1995's most significant radio merger took place late last month, uniting the vast holdings of the Group W and CBS station groups. For this year's Presidential Perspective, we're honored to present an in depth conversation with Dan Mason, the recently named President of the new CBS Radio Station Group. Dan was formerly President of Group W Radio, a title he assumed in 1993.

Mr. Mason began his career in radio in 1975 as Program Director of WZGC in Atlanta. In 1977, he moved to WPGC-AM & FM, where he was both Program Director of the station and National Program Director for owner First Media. In 1979, he became Vice President and GM of KTSA and KTFM in San Antonio, returning once again to First Media in 1980 as General Manager of KFMK-FM in Houston. In 1985, he was promoted to the position of Executive Vice President of First Media, and in 1988, when First Media became Cook Inlet Radio Partners, he was named President of that organization.

He is currently in the midst of a tour of all 39 CBS Radio Station Group properties, a roster that now includes WNEW-FM/New York, WMMR/Philadelphia, WXRT/Chicago, KTXQ/Dallas, KTWV/Los Angeles, WLLZ/ Detroit, and KRQR/San Francisco, with additional stations also in Houston, Boston, Pittsburgh, St. Louis, Dallas and Minneapolis.

How would you rate the state of affairs at Group W when you took over in 1993?

Dan: Group W was always a successful broadcasting company, very community minded, and caring about listeners and clients. They still are. However, I think that over the past three years we have added a financial side to Group W that has brought our company up to speed, making us as competitive as we can be on the broadcast cash-flow side. Three years ago Group W's broadcast cash flow was 32%, as defined by station expenses from the net revenue, versus three years later, at 42%. Ten points on a margin line of a major radio company with their heritage represents a super job from a lot of General Managers.

You'd say the primary impetus for those gains came at the GM level?

Dan: Sure, because they became very aware of the financial side of the business.

Was heightening that awareness one of your primary goals as President?

Dan: I might have made them aware of it, but I can't do the work. They have completely done all the work and deserve all the credit. What I brought to the table was just an awareness that this is something that they needed to do in order to make the company as profitable as it could be. When you get into these large corporations like Group W or CBS, sometimes there is not the financial awareness that you might find at a smaller entrepreneurial company. Once a corporate company has that financial side, the situation is somewhat analogous to a sailboat. You twist the sail the right way and you can really move in the water.

Have your ratings over that time frame increased proportionately?

Dan: Some have, some haven't. I think that WMMR and KTWV have done a great job. WNEW has really been affected by the competition level in New York, and I think they were hurt directly by WAXQ. You are aware of 'XRT. That has always been a successful radio station. WLLZ has not done as well. However, the overall news battle has been won by Group W over the past three years, as it had been before.

I've heard it said that Group W has been fairly public regarding your feelings about how the CBS properties have been run. Is that an accurate comment?

Dan: When you stack up performance, the CBS stations are 10 to 15 points behind the Group W stations on the margin side. That's significant. There are some issues that CBS has that Group W does not have. One specifically is that the CBS radio stations are compensated very little by the network. The Group W stations are compensated well in that area. You have to take that into account. On the whole, there is a lot of work to be done at the CBS stations. They have tremendous products. Some stations do as well or better than ours, specifically WCBS-FM in New York. That is about as good as it gets.

How have those comments gone over with CBS management? Has there been blow-back?

Dan: I have not had any feedback like that. I think the CBS General Managers in this new company are very eager to get going, to move on. It's my job to bring these two companies into the same focus. They will all have the same goals. I want them to have relationships with one another and I will do everything to make that happen.

Group W has long been known as a fairly bureaucratic organization. Have you found that to be true?

Dan: No. I have never really run into that myself. Early on, I went through a couple of turf skirmishes with television, but as relationships began to be developed, that went away. A lot of people had told me before I took the Group W job that I may not be able to be effective, that maybe I wouldn't be able to get anything done. But I did not find that at all. It was really the opposite. I got exactly what I needed to bring the company to the place where I thought it should be.

You're the extremely rare group President who comes from programming rather than sales. There are obvious advantages to your specific radio programming experience, but were you perceived as kind of an 'outside' guy initially?

Dan: Any time a person goes into Group W as the President of the radio division, of course they are going to be an outside person. I got over that fairly quickly because I am a radio person. I have been in radio and have done absolutely everything that there is to do with a radio station at one time or another. I've painted control rooms, messed with towers, put air conditioners in walls in transmitter buildings. There are a lot of great radio people at Group W, so my expertise blends into the organization. I don't look at my experience so much as a programmer, but as a total radio person.

When WNEW decides to make a major change in direction, as they did a few months ago, are you involved in those programming decisions?

Dan: The General Managers in the company run their individual radio stations. I am aware of all the changes that go on in the company because I talk to the General Managers. Obviously, if I didn't agree with it I discuss it with them. They run their own ship. They have the autonomy at the local level. It has to be that way.

If, say, you didn't agree with a particular format direction or modification, could you put the brakes on?

Dan: I haven't vetoed anything. I guess I could. I never have had to arrive at that position. I want to give these General Managers the autonomy to run a good business. I want to move rules and regulations out of their way.

How are you going to avoid that sort of occupying force mentality that so often accompanies mergers? What are your keys to peace and harmony in that situation?

Dan: You just keep preaching the uniqueness of the two products and give them the same financial goals to hit.

What's your sense about current station pricing that's now closing in on multiples of 20. Is the end in sight?

Dan: Remember that multiples on radio stations are not a function of the radio industry. They are a function of the financial markets. Right now, the market is flooded with money ready for investment. When that dries up, the multiples go down.

Your thoughts on the deregulation bill before Congress?

Dan: We think it's good for the industry if it passes. We'd like to see it happen.

The Hard Interview

You've just acquired a healthy chunk of radio real estate. How long do you think it will take to get the systems in place, to get things worked out and to truly move forward and digest such a big meal?

Dan: When something like this occurs, the best opportunity for change is in the beginning. So we're going to try to move as quickly as possible within the first 90 days to set the organization. The systems integration is going to be a big problem, but after the first year, I hope that we're way down the road. I'm going to do everything that I can to move fast as far as setting the company structure.

What's on your acquisition wish list?

Dan: There are two holes in our portfolio. Those holes are News stations in Dallas and Washington.

A number of the big operators have commented that they have the cash, but just can't find properties at the right price. Are you experiencing that to any great degree?

Dan: They are participating in a time when to make a deal you have to spend the money. It's the investors' choice to spend it or not to. There is no radio station that any of us are going to steal right now. We have to wait for the financial market to dry up for prices to drop, but then the money won't be there. When you have an opportunity to buy the right property, you simply have to buy it. You don't buy just anything. You don't buy junk. You try to buy franchise stations. What better franchise is there than CBS radio?

What do you see as your smartest buy?

Dan: 'XRT was a great buy. It was pricey, but we still were able to get it for less than 12 times cash flow. It's a great radio station in a top 3 market.

There are persistent rumors that Disney may be willing to spin off ABC radio. What is your educated guess as to whether or not that will happen?

Dan: I'd guess it would depend on how much they needed the money. Otherwise, there is just no real reason for them to sell. Cap Cities radio is a name brand. Talk about franchise stations.

What sort of advice would you offer to Program Directors who want to move into management?

Dan: If they want to be a General Manager, especially if they're a successful Program Director, they have got to move when they are hot. That is very, very important. Nobody is going to hire them when they're cold. When they get a string of successes, or a couple of good books behind them, that's the time to start marketing themselves and to tell as many people who will listen that they want to be a General Manager.

What would you consider the key risks you took to get to where you are?

Dan: Back in 1978, when I was at WPGC, I had a solid three year contract making six figures. In 1978, that was big money. Along comes KTSA and KTFM in San Antonio, which were and are still great radio stations. They offered me the General Manager job. I was 27-years-old and I had to take a $10,000 pay cut. That was risky, but my wife and I made the decision to go for it. That was a really tough decision because WPGC was always a successful radio station. Plus, the Marriott family were such a wonderful bunch of people to work for. Why would anyone leave? I wanted to be a General Manager so bad that it was worth the risk. We had a couple of great books at 'PGC that year, and the station was really hot. I don't think they would have called me if the ratings were down.

In the course of your programming career, who are the toughest competitors you've faced?

Dan: Unfortunately, in programming I don't think there is any one of us who is so bright that they are a master of all formats. So, we've kind of all split off as specialist in certain formats. I will tell you that in the Urban/CHR arena, in my mind there is none better than Jerry Clifton. He is the absolute best in his field. In terms of NAC, I think that Broadcast Architecture's Frank Cody and Bryan Stone are the best. In terms of rock, I think you would be safe to say that Pollack and Lee Abrams are at the top, and in Top 40, Scott Shannon can do wonders with a station.

Other than your own, what company do you most admire?

Dan: You have to admire Infinity for what they have done for the radio industry as far as making radio stations more valuable. They have set the tone for higher multiples in radio and I think it's reflected in the price their stock sells for.

Your purchase of WXRT this past year was interesting on a couple of levels — one, the big dollars involved, and two, that Group W and WXRT were perceived by many to be slightly strange bedfellows. What were your thoughts going into that deal?

Dan: To buy a franchise property. Yes, WXRT did set a new (at that time) standard for multiples, but WXRT is a waterfront franchise property that people don't have an opportunity to buy very often. If you are even lucky enough to get to buy a station of that stature, you buy it. They deserve a premium because it is such a legendary radio station. As far as corporate cultures, I tell Harvey Wells, the General Manager, 'Just tell me what I have to do to stay out of your way. Just send me the money.' WXRT has total freedom, like any one of our radio stations, to do what they want to do as long as they hit the three main goals that we've set out to do. And that is really simple. Those are going to be the same goals for CBS: Top five in their target demo, or specifically top five 25-54; if they go for a shorter demo like 18-34 they have to be in top three to survive; top five in revenue; and to keep a profit margin near 50%. That's what we're after. WXRT hits the bell. In my book, that qualifies them to be a franchise radio station.

Who do you see as the ultimate winner in the WRCX/Q101 battle?

Dan: WXRT.

We as an industry love toglom onto the next cool format. Do you foresee all this Alternative attention sustaining?

Dan: It's another splinter of AOR radio. Sure, it will sustain. It's another niche. Go back in the history of music programming and look at how all of the major formats have been splintered. You see it in Urban radio with Urban Contemporary and Softer Urban. Now you've got Urban Oldies. Who would have ever thought that there would be Young Country? Classic Rock splinters AOR, and now The Arrow splinters both. And then there's Triple A. Over the next ten years, you are going to see splinters of splinters. It's going to become very narrow because radio is more competitive.

Isn't it about time for someone to come along with a magic formula to combine all of the above and take all the marbles?

Dan: There may be a hole in programming the best of all these music forms into one great format, perhaps the New AOR. But I don't think that we've really figured out how to program that yet. But as these music forms continue to fuse, the opportunity will present itself. All it takes is some really bright programmer to figure out how to roll that into one package and you've got yourself a great new format.

You guys don't do much with the Modern Rock format. Is that by design or just the way the cookie crumbled?

Dan: Just the way we inherited the stations.

Do you see that as an area that you'd like to get involved in?

Dan: It depends on the market condition.

In the late '80s, Group W had a number of Heritage stations that were going through some serious competition. How do you feel you've corporately responded to the challenge?

Dan: Timing was so much of it. Howard got really hot at that time. He really hurt 'MMR, of course, and sure as heck didn't help WNEW. Then we made our own mistakes, specifically on WNEW, there was some talent at that station that walked across the street to WXRK — that hurt. Our problems at that point were probably 50% of our own company shooting itself in the foot and about 50% of very skilled competitors eating away at us.

What do you see as the primary ingredient in 'MMR's rebound?

Dan: Their longevity. It's a franchise station. An interesting point about radio, is that a station that still maintains a fairly significant cume can reach up and bite you in any given three month period. It's the sleeping dog theory. As long as there is cume, a radio station can be deadly. In programming, we often make the mistake of assuming that that dog with the big cume is dead. But it's only sleeping, and it can really get you — and on a dime. That's the nature of radio. It's very quick, word of mouth and things happen fast. If there is cume, anything can happen.

The situation in New York is a focus of a lot of conversation and debate these days. Three months ago, SBR came on board with a ton of steam behind their success at the Peak, and the WNEW change came amidst great fanfare. Now, the 'Rock Alternative' positioner has been dropped and a lot of the Classic library material is back in. Do you think a mistake was made in blowing off the core with the elimination of that Classic material? And how would you address comments that jocks like Scott or Carol Miller don't quite work in the context of the new mix?

Dan: We probably did move too quickly. I think that Ted and Kevin and myself, we all realize that. I think we had a situation where we couldn't generate new cume fast enough as we could potentially lose the 75% cume that was there and enjoying the current and Classic Rock mix. So knowing that, they have to do very skillful music research, work with SBR, and now with Norm Winer, to craft a product that can accomplish what they need to do. One thing about WNEW: Never underestimate their heritage. That is their format — Heritage. I'm really not concerned about Carol or Scott being a detriment to that format. They're part of that heritage and what we have to do is going to take time. Radio stations are very delicate entities. Let me go back to the sailboat again. If you turn that sail one wrong inch, you think you are going to Connecticut and you end up in Florida. So programming a radio station is just as delicate. It has to be done carefully and skillfully. The mission is to capitalize on WNEW's heritage while moving it into the '90s.

And you feel that the Classic Rock now being re-introduced is compatible with the bones of Rock Alternative.

Dan: Yes, I do. I think you'll find those same oldies on KFOG and WXRT. They are not unique to WNEW.

But I'd doubt that you'll hear them in Miami or Denver.

Dan: I agree 100%. But we do not want to be like Miami and Denver. I see us more as a mix of 'XRT and KFOG.

The Hard Interview

And it's reasonable to assume that Norm and the boys in Colorado will offer Ted non-conflicting advice?

Dan: Norm has had hands on experience over the years with WNEW. I look at it more in a collegiate way. These guys are colleagues. It's like a group of doctors trying to make the patient great. I really don't look at it as a reporting structure or some title thing. I look at it as a good team of professional radio programmers working on a product.

There's lots of talk regarding WYNY's rumored move to dance. Smart move for them if it happens?

Dan: Probably, because with Urban radio you can score ratings very quick. I shouldn't say just Urban — with any younger demographic you are going to score ratings quickly. They should do well.

'YNY sounds like a well run Country station. Is that format not being more successful there simply a question of the inherent ethnicity?

Dan: People used to say that in Chicago when I worked with WUSN but I have a hard time accepting that.

Do you sense that Country is on the wane?

Dan: The format has peaks and valleys.

In Houston, you gained ownership of the #1 and #2 Country stations in KILT-FM and KIKK respectively. Now KKBQ owns the #2 Country slot. Did the duopoly not do what you had hoped?

Dan: You have to give KKBQ some credit here. They are a very good radio station. The duopoly would have done handstands had it not been for KKBQ. I think Dene Hallam is an excellent Program Director. He has done a great job with KKBQ.

Your new conglom is clearly the king of News radio.

Dan: Our mission is to deliver radio news in the United States in the top 10 markets. That's what we want to do because I believe that could turn out to be a company within itself. That is a powerful position to have.

Who's your closest competitor?

Dan: With this merger there is no one. No one produces radio news in the world better than Group W and CBS.

How does News revenue compare to music formats?

Dan: 60% News, 40% music.

WCBS and WINS in New York have gone head-to-head for many years. What's it like trying to make peace in that hallway?

Dan: It's like listening to a couple of brothers in the family. Sometimes they don't do what's in their brother's best interest, but they are brothers. Does that mean they have to love each other and get along? Heck no. Does it mean they are in the same family and unfortunately they will never be able to kick their own brother out of the house? Yes.

CBS has made great strides with the Arrow format, but detractors argue the format has a limited shelf life. What are your thoughts?

Dan: It depends on what the Classic Rock arena looks like in the market. It's well documented that Arrow displaces Classic Rock, specifically in Houston and Washington, DC. If there is a Classic Rock station in the market and an Arrow format in there, it's difficult for both of them to survive. There still is a franchise in every major market for Classic Rock music, I believe. But just one.

In many cases though, that format tends to falter without the big morning show.

Dan: I think that's true of any format.

Then again, look at WMMR. Obviously Pierre Robert does a good job, but it ain't Howard Stern level numbers.

Dan: Again, you just said it. Pierre is a name brand person. To Pierre's audience, he is a superstar.

What's your feeling about Triple A at this point?

Dan: I like any format that produces 25-54s. What stations like WXRT or the Mountain in Seattle have done is impressive. Any format that produces 25-54 is a friend of mine.

WRIF's Detroit rebuild is also impressive.

Dan: They've done a great job with the morning show. If you take the morning show away, it's one of 6 Rock stations in Detroit.

The fact that WLLZ has floated down between a 1 and a 2 share hasn't hurt them. I know you can't comment specifically, but...

Dan: There are too many Rock stations in Detroit.

You're not doing a lower end format anywhere, a la the success that Citicasters is having at WXTB or Journal Communications with KQRC in Kansas City. Why?

Dan: If a radio station is first or second in a market 18-34, you can be successful and you can make a lot of money. From third on down in a major market, you begin to get in trouble. However, with a 25-54 format, you can be top 5 or 6th and still do very well. Any radio operator will tell you that they need 25-54s. Salespeople and General Managers were telling me that in 1975, when I was Program Director at Z93. Things really haven't changed much in the last 20 years.

Issue #405 — January 6

Steve Young

KISW/Seattle

"I think that the public, as usual, is a lot smarter than the industry. They don't label these things. They are saying, 'I'm hearing a lot of new music on this radio station, therefore I like it.' They are not making those distinctions they same way we do."

Issue #406 — January 13

Bill Pugh

WSHE/Miami

"As insane as this business is and continues to get, I think you find that's the case with most industry types who are happy. To survive in this business, you've got to have some sort of anchor, whether it's your job or golf or your family. Three kids is a real reality check for those moments when you start going off into left field."

Issue #407 — January 20

Andy Beaubien

KLOL/Houston

"99% of the staff requires kid-gloving around here. This is a radio station just chockful of strong personalities on and off the air. That's part of what makes KLOL what it is. This is not your average radio station. This is a really dynamic, exciting place to work."

Issue #408 — January 27

Doug Sorenson

KQRC/Kansas City

"When I came to Kansas City, label people didn't care about the place. Harvey Leeds says I was an idiot for leaving KATT and going there. The only thing I knew of Kansas City was that I would take I-70 and keep driving. Now it seems Kansas City is a great city for test marketing."

Issue #409 — February 3

Greg Stevens

KIOZ/San Diego

"I'm probably unlike most PDs as far as ratings go. When the book comes in, I look at it to figure out what's going on. But I don't memorize it. If someone calls me two days later, I don't remember every number in every daypart in every demo. It's the rearview mirror."

Issue #410 — February 10

Randy Michaels

Jacor

"You're managing talent, and by definition they are all psychotic. They sit in a little room. They talk to people they can't see. That's psychotic. They do a great break, they know no one heard it. They do an awful one, they know everyone heard it."

Issue #411 — February 17

Jay Faires

Mammoth

"We start with artists who write great songs and have a great vision. We allow them to nurture that vision on their terms and create an environment that is supportive of that. Believe me, I want some huge records. I'm not in this to fucking sell 25,000 copies of a record. I hope all my artists are multi-platinum."

Issue #412 — February 24

Bryan Schock

KNAC/Los Angeles

"The things KNAC has been able to accomplish despite their signal limitations have always amazed me. It is one of the most recognized logos in the city of L.A. And for a station that traditionally pulled a 1 share, that's quite a remarkable marketing job. KNAC had more audience than Arbitron ever gave them credit for."

Issue #413 — March 3

Bob Bittens

WHCN/Hartford

"I've suggested on a couple of occasions recently to programming powers above me that certain things need to be done at 'HCN. They say 'Got any research?' My point is, I would think all of my background and experience would count for something. Thus far, with this company, it seems to be that if it isn't researched, you can't count on it. Liberty is pretty much like every other company in that sense."

Issue #414 — March 10

Mike Watt

"About a month after the last FIREHOSE gig I was thinking, 'What should I do?' I thought, 'Well, fuck, let's do something I've never done — just play with all these people.' In a way, it was a weird kind of test for me, to try to let it go a little."

the hard report under cover

Issue #415 — March 17

Zeb Norris
WXLE/Albany

"The current state of AORs, with a growing number of them going to a younger 18-34 stance, means that there is a tremendous window of opportunity for Triple A to be less of a niche format and more of a mainstream for the 25+ audience."

Issue #416 — March 24

Phil Manning
WENZ/Cleveland

"I don't mean to dis past management, but I had to rebuild the infrastructure. There was paranoia in the building. The staff feared for their jobs. They were told what to do, and if they didn't do it, they would be dealt with. There was a comment on the music log that said, 'Back sell and front sell in 15 seconds or die.'"

Issue #417 — March 31

Alan Sneed
Consultant

"I don't have any interest in the Triple A format. Modern Rock and mainstream Classic Rock-based radio with a few select currents are both much more viable than Triple A. Pure Classic Rock with a big morning show or the Infinity approach with some sports is much more viable."

Issue #418 — April 7

Dick Sheetz
KGON/Portland

"My focus is to be a leader and not a follower. My focus is not to worry about grinding down The Beat at all. My focus is to create a good radio station. If, by virtue of that, they are snuffed, fine."

Issue #419 — April 14

Pat Fant
KRQT/Houston

"This is where the wave is going — Modern Music, Modern Rock, Rock of the 21st Century, Rock of the 90s — whatever you want to call it. It's the direction that I feel growth is coming from. I would rather be riding this wave than riding the AOR wave right now."

the hard report under cover

Issue #420 — April 21

Chris Mays

KMTT/Seattle

"A lot of Triple A stations are the owners' last resort. There is no other format option left and they desperately pin their hopes on the music and say, 'This is a format that can do it because they play such cool music. We won't have to market it. We won't need any personalities. We won't need a station van.' If they continue to see it that way, the format will struggle."

Issue #421 — April 28

Arthur Penhallow

WRIF/Detroit

"You can't strike obvious, close, personal relationships with PDs because they don't stick around long. You get used to them, and they're gone. Then you have to break the new guy in. You get used to him, and he's gone."

Issue #422 — May 5

Neil Mirsky

WZTA/Florida

"I keep saying that I should have my head examined since this is the third time I've programmed a Rock station in one of the worst Rock markets in the country. If you add up the 12 rock shares, you're going to end up with maybe a 6 share total. Rock is not a huge format here."

Issue #423 — May 12

Todd Rundgren

"The record business is no different from any other business in that they want to control and monopolize the market. Therefore, they want to limit the audience's exposure to music because, in reality, nobody who has as much money invested in a market as record companies do want it to be unpredictable. They want it to be predictable."

Issue #424 — May 19

Michael Hughes

WKLS/Atlanta

"I've always tried to be honest with the presentation of the station and realistic about the expectations of the record community. I tell them where we stand. I don't bullshit them about the possibilities of certain songs being played and others not being played. For the most part, I have a healthy relationship with all of the labels."

the hard report under cover

Issue #425 — May 26

Jim McGuinn

KPNT/St. Louis

"I don't know that Triple A will ever get that tight, but people are going to wake up and realize that you can't be a completely core, TSL, narrow-niched format. You miss the mark. You go over people's heads."

Issue #426 — June 2

Jimmy Del Balzo

Columbia

"It's (co-pros) a no-win situation. The last thing we want to do is piss someone off who is supporting our records. At the same time, we're in a situation where if you do a show, somebody is going to be happy, somebody is going to be unhappy. It's messy and we share a lot of the frustration of the other labels."

Issue #427 — June 9

Greg Mull

WXTB/Clearwater

"I think Rock Radio needs to suck it up, have some balls and realize a lot of this is their fault. For fifteen years, when the record companies were out there releasing decent new music, we as a format completely ignored it. When a format comes along like Alternative that's new music oriented, and record companies see outlets that will play their music and sell their records, they gravitate toward that."

Issue #428 — June 16

Lee Chesnut

VH1

"As far as the decisions that were made about what to take off and what to leave on, we left that up to the viewers. We did a lot of research on the music and videos and followed their advice. It's not like there was anybody inside the building saying, 'I hate Michael Bolton,' or 'I hate Kenny G.'"

Issue #429 — June 23

Jeff Carrol

KLBJ/Austin

"At some point, all mainstream stations are going to have to decide which way to go because they are getting farther and farther apart from the two ends. Things just weren't meshing where we could play a Pearl Jam or some of the new stuff next to some of the Classic artists."

the hard report under cover

Issue #430 — June 30

Vince Richards

WUFX/Buffalo

"There are times when we have to shove new music down their throats. We had to shove Live's 'Selling The Drama' down people's throats. We wanted to say, 'People, this is what's happening. You guys have to grasp this.' So Buffalo was definitely behind the curve as far as new music goes, but now we are in the curve."

Issue #431 — July 7

Harry Guscott

WRUF/Gainesville

"After a while you reach a saturation point with all of this Alternative music where enough is going to be enough. I'm not down on Alternative music at all. We've been leaning in that direction for many years, but it's just every song on your station doesn't have to be Alternative, there has to be a balance to be mainstream."

Issue #432 — July 14

Doug Podell

WRIF/Detroit

"I used to be a very in-your-face guy. I was that way when I was at WLLZ against 'RIF, and I was certainly in WMMS' face even with WNCX. I don't think that's changed. When I got here all the Program Directors were all very friendly to each other. Everybody gave everybody space and didn't get in each other's face. I have taken back a lot of turf that used to be WRIF's."

Issue #433 — July 21

Curtiss Johnson

KRXQ/Sacramento

"We've done a lot of moving around, but from the research that I've seen and my feelers on the street, people still think of the station as the Rock station in town. Even though it has wandered to different sides of the path, the image is still strong."

Issue #434 — July 28

J.B. Brenner

A&M

"We see that the Triple A format sells records. It has become an important part of the market plans put together by product managers and people in the marketing department. They are smart enough not to sit in an ivory tower and look at 12+ shares and think that is the end of the day. Everybody talks about spins, but sometimes we don't address what a quality spin is."

the hard report under cover

Issue #435 — August 4

Alex DeMers

DeMers Programming

"There isn't a 'DeMers approach' to Classic Rock, or a 'DeMers approach' to AOR or Modern Rock. We don't have a brand name for anything. We really do buy into the 'every market is different' philosophy."

Issue #436 — August 11

Bob Moore

KLSX/Los Angeles

"There is a group of males who envy Kato tremendously, but think he is a cool guy. Women, particularly the 25-34 demo, really love him. We knew in a jaded community like L.A. that we were going to run into some opposition. I am very hopeful that Kato can get through that first round."

Issue #437 — August 18

Jonatha Brooke

The Story

"I would do absolutely anything before I would get into a sick business triangle like that, where the tiny label sees golden eggs and drains the deal of anything good that might come to the artist. I'd be happy to sign to an indie or a major, but never have both involved."

Issue #438 — August 25

Joanne Doody

WXRV/Boston

"When management said, 'The format I am looking for is a cross between 'FNX and 'BOS,' I almost fell flat on my face. It's like a dream for me. I worked at 'FNX for ten years and you do kind of outgrow things at some point. I never thought someone would say, 'Hey, I am going to let you program this station doing actually what you like.'"

Issue #439 — September 1

Tom Marshall

WKLQ/Grand Rapids

"The target demographic has always been 18-34 year olds, and my gut told me that the station needed to start releasing some of these bands that weren't appropriate anymore for the format. We're the contemporary Rock station, the lifeblood which needs to include those 'Alternative' leaning bands that are so important to the 18-34 audience."

Issue #440 — September 8

Pat Dawsey

Z-Rock

"It used to be how good you could look, how big you could get your hair, how many chicks you could get in your video. It seemed cool to see how ill-educated you could be and to see how easily you could skate through life. Date as many titty dancers and sponge off of them while you're trying to get a rock band together. Now all the sets have been torn down, and four guys with their Peavey amps sing about whatever is happening."

Issue #441 — September 15

Jim Herron

WBOS/Boston

"I go nuts when I hear talk about Triple A, the notion that it has to be done in an eclectic, non-conformist approach. Maybe in non-commercial radio you go for that. But a commercial radio station needs to make a buck, so you have to get the ratings. If a wide, eclectic mishmash of stuff gets you ratings, so be it."

Issue #442 — September 22

Jeff Gillis

WKLL/Utica

"Ed Levine has been quoted that he is 'a hand grenade in a necktie.' As time has gone on, that perception has diminished, and the businessman has emerged. I have no doubts that he is feared on a certain level, but he is respected on a higher level. Once you get over the fear, there is respect."

Issue #443 — September 29

E. Curtis Johnson

KRZR/Fresno

"It's been amazing to me this past year to see how many bands just aren't relevant anymore. As the demographics shift a little older, there really is a division line between 29-year-olds and 30-year-olds. It's two different audiences. One is a Classic Rock audience, the other is a group that wants to hear new stuff."

Issue #444 — October 6

Jim Owen

DeMers Programming

"Like it or not, when a radio station is worth tens of millions of dollars, and your company is publicly traded, you do what is necessary to keep the company happy. That is really how any PD ought to look at their situation. It doesn't change the creative nature of the business."

Issue #445 — October 13

Bruce Mittman

WAAF/Boston

"We're a guerilla kind of radio station. I describe us to people as being like a PT boat around a lot of aircraft carriers. We can drop a couple of shells and run away. They have to find us. There's opportunities to being smaller sometimes and being more aggressive."

Issue #446 — October 20

Chris Woltman

Columbia

"For bands to really break through and reach the masses, multiple formats have to be involved. When one station gets exclusivity, everyone else gets upset. That ultimately hurts the band because you need all the pieces of the puzzle in order for it to all come together."

Issue #447 — October 27

Joe Robinson

WRCX/Chicago

"I knew that we could make this frequency work and I knew that Dave Richards would be the guy to go with to do it. When we got here, there were maybe 40 CDs in the studio. Now we're very tight, but we've got thousands in the studio."

Issue #448 — November 3

Bob Richards

KBPI/Denver

"I can't think of one record person in all the years that I've been doing this job who — when I left their market or they left my market — have continued a relationship with me. That may be because of my attitude, but bottom line is these guys want to be your best friend while they are here, but that's not really the way it is."

Issue #449 — November 10

Gregg Steele & Heidi Hess

WZTA/Miami

"I'm not worried about beating 'SHE'. I'm not worried about beating other people. What I am worried about is proving my rank and being able to make money for my company. Being the only Rock station in the market does not insure that I am going to be any better off if I'm beating 'SHE' or not beating 'SHE.'" — Gregg Steele

Issue #450 — November 17

Michael Lee

WTFX/Louisville

"I've got a lot of negative feedback on airing bands early. It's just an ego thing to smack the guy across the street. The listeners don't give a shit. They don't know that you played it three hours or two days before the other guy. It's all mind games against your competition."

Issue #451 — November 24

Ben Arnold

"I love the way the music scene in Philly is going now. It has become less separatist. Bands are more willing to share bills with another band that may not necessarily be in their exact group or click of friends and might not have the same sort of sound going, but they just respect their musicality. No egos involved."

Issue #452 — December 1

Dave Stewart

WARQ/Columbia

"Just as this is not a big enough market to be niched as a hard rock station, I don't know if anybody could squeeze in on the other side and have any better luck than we did when we were trying to be extremely hard rock. When you look at the playlists there is really not anything that we play that doesn't show up on an Alternative chart."

Issue #453 — December 8

Chris James

WTPA/Harrisburg

"People aren't going to get rich in a medium market. They have to be in this because they like it. The GM really has a lot of control in that area. You do the best you can in terms of money, and make things even better with the best possible benefits."

A big release from Little Milton and Delmark — Live At Westville Prison. Recorded at the Indiana prison one winter night in 1983, this is a record that finds Milton in one of his many transitions. Little Milton always been a little hard to peg. His career has been marked by hits of all types. 'Live' was created just prior to his The Blues Is Alright, and after the more funky R&B stylings of his Stax records like If You Talk In Your Sleep. This performance shows us the Little Milton of today. Slowburners like "Eight Men, Four Women" & "Loving You" showcase the mel-low groove of the now renowned Lucky Peterson on keys, and Miltons' scorching guitar work rattles and screams on "Bad Luck." The heart of this CD is a powerful jam/medley featuring both Little Milton and Lucky. As they weave through the classic "Somebody Sleeping In My Bed" and "Little Bluebird," each performer provides just the right touch, sometimes as the driving force, others as tastily crafted backing. The rhythm section of Frank McClure and Tony Brown finish and fill the groove. Although Live At Westville Prison features Little Milton, what made my ears perk up is the interplay between Milton & Peterson. This is one great live CD.

Blues Review

Joe Cocker

The Long Voyage Home — The Silver Anniversary Collection

by Dave Johnson, host of the nationally syndicated Blues Deluxe

U ever a musician has had his ups, downs and a right to sing the blues, it's Joe Cocker. As a compendium of Joe's labors over the past quarter-century, this new 4-CD box will take you time-traveling back to the '60s and propel you through to the present. After listening, you'll no doubt have a bit of Joe's sweat on your brow and be ready to go back for another listen. And no, you haven't heard it all before: some great previously unreleased material is included. It's easy to forget that most of Joe Cocker's tunes are covers since his work defines the phrase, "makes the song his own." This is a man who can swing a sledgehammer with the finesse of a watchmaker. I mean who else has recorded hits as raucous as Cocker's rendition of "She Came In Through The Bathroom Window," while making gold out of "You Are So Beautiful?" (Give me the raucous ones, though!). Within this new collection lies a booklet that is a feast for the eyes. In it, Joe comments that, "A lot of people put me in the 'dinosaur' category." Maybe so, but this "dinosaur" is a "Jurassic Park" success.

Smokey Wilson 88th Street Blues

Blind Pig

by Steve Curley, host of Squirrel's Blues Review, KMCO, The Dalles, OR

When I think of real blues, searing blues guitar and vocals that cut straight to your spinal cord, three names that always come to mind are Jimmy Dawkins, Albert King, and

Smokey Wilson. A Mississippi native transplanted to L.A., Smokey Wilson is, to me, the real thing. Blind Pig has just rereleased a Murry Brothers recording released in 1983. 88th Street Blues features Smokey on guitar and vocals, Rod and Honey Piazza on harp and keys, Larry Taylor on bass and Richard Innes on drums. The late Hollywood Fats is also present on seven of the twelve cuts. Produced by Rod Piazza, this album provides the listener with the whole gamut of blues, starting off with serious slide work on

"Crossroads Blues," some wonderful harp and keys on "You'd Better Watch Yourself"... blues that when you crank it up either gives you goosebumps or brings a tear to your eye, or both! This CD give everyone room to stretch out without stepping on anyone's toes. "Smokey's Shuffle" just rips and grooves and dimples; the slow slide guitar is excellent. It would just be real hard to find a better back-up band than these veterans. The more I learn about Smokey Wilson, the more I realize this is the real stuff.

Blues Blurbs

by Lee Gutowski, Alligator Records

It's the morning after the annual Alligator holiday extravaganza, and boy that string of blue lights decorating my office sure is blaringly bright today! But at least there's not a discarded chicken bone decorating my desk, along with a beer cup half full of cigarette butts, like last year! Apparently our guests are becoming more conscientious with the passing years. Anyway, a good hundred and fifty esteemed "industry" types turned out for the catered affair (fabulous food provided by LaBelle Catering), in spite of the typically nasty Chicago winter weather (this year an ice storm kept a few friends away — we missed you, Rich Gordon from WXRK — and friend Tom!). Celebrity sightings included Koko Taylor and members of her Blues Machine; Lonnie Brooks and band; Pinetop Perkins; Sugar Blue; "World Famous" Kelly Littleton (former Lil' Ed drummer, now a touring Hawk with Studebaker John), Dave Meyers; various members of Son Seals' band, Charlie Musselwhite's band and countless other blues band configurations from the past, present and no doubt future; radio personalities Tom Marker (WXRT), Scott Dirks (WLUP), and Jill Dane (WILLWLIP, Kenosha) — great to make your acquaintance, Jill!; oh, the list could go on, but I'm having neuron dysfunction at the moment... I need another cup of java. And the arrival of Derek "Dr. Rock" Ault and his lovely bride Vicki drew cheers from the guests packing the radio promotions department. Last year's party saw us bidding Derek a fond farewell on the eve of his departure from Alligator to go work for Rhino. We miss you, Doc Rock!... Sorry about that. Didn't mean to get all misty-eyed on you, but since I'm feeling kind of sentimental, I do want to take this opportunity to wish all you regular Blues Breakers readers and contributors a happy and peaceful holiday and New Year. Special thanks to my gal Jodie Fabricus at Hard, who is always cheerful, helpful and capable — you're great! Muchas gracious as well to Jim McGrath, the ever-busy Blues Breakers chart compiler (I promise Bruce will call you — I just don't know when!). And of course, you REGULAR page contributors, the guys I can always count on to write a review exactly when I need it, I love ya; Paul Kenedy, Bruce Bjorkman, Squirrel, Peter Simon, Randi Anglin, David Day, Dave Johnson, Jaybone, Rich Gordon... my "stable," I like to call you. But really, thanks to ALL of you who have contributed: your time and attention is greatly appreciated. Think I'll list a bunch of you here. Keep in touch in '96!

T O P P E R F O R M E R S

KoRn, KoRn (Epic)

Yeah, we know that this record came out last year, and even with the fact that they have become one of metal radio's favorite baby bands, or that commercial radio has been forced into airplay because of the undeniable fanbase, it is still surprising that over a year since the release of their debut, KoRn is still residing on the Hard Hitters chart. And things don't seem to be slowing down at all with "Shoots & Ladders" continuing to get airplay at commercial radio while the underground stations play "Sean Olson". In addition, the band landed the coveted middle slot on the upcoming Ozzy Osbourne arena tour. By taking on music fans with their grinding cathartic sounds rather than poppy melodies, they found a contingent of loyal listeners that will stick with them for the long haul. 1995 was definitely a year for popping KoRn.

HERE'S WHAT YOU HAD TO SAY:

WCWP - Chris Hoffman: "It's doing great. KoRn is the best. They rule!"

WDBM - Dave Ciancio: "This is a band that has so much anger and passion, you have to love them. Every time I see the video or hear the music I have to have more. My life is starting to revolve around this CD."

WIYY - Chris Vaught: "A number one band on the show! We are always in the mood to pop some KoRn!"

WSUP - Jack Hansen: "I love KoRn!"

THE FOLLOWING STATION REPORTS MADE UP THE HARD HITTERS PANEL THIS WEEK:

CFOX, DMX, KCSU, KDUR, KIBZ, KISS, KISW, KLOL, KMSA, KNDI, KPFT, KRZZ, KSJS, KTOZ, KUNV, KUSF, KXGO, KZAK, KZRK, KZRQ, WCDB, WCWP, WDBM, WGLS, WHJY, WHMH, WJSE, WJUL, WKKL, WKLO, WKNC, WKNH, WKPS, WKPX, WKTA, WLRA, WMHB, WMMR, WNHU, WNYO, WOZN, WRHU, WSGR, WSMU, WSOU, WSUP, WTFX, WTSR, WTZR, WVBR, WVUD, WVXU, WWBR, WWSP, WXCI, WXJM, WXPL, WXTB, WXVU, WXZR, WZBC, WZMB, and XEQC.

CKQB, KEYJ, KFMX, KVHS, KWUR, KWVA, KXFX, WARC, WDNW, WEOS, WFCS, WKLL, WKSJ, WLFR, WNYU, WPCR, WRFL, WTPA and WWVU.

82 STATIONS TOTAL.

Flotsam and Jetsam, Drift (MCA)

To round out the top five we went back to the old school with Flotsam & Jetsam, who have made their career out of straight ahead metallic rock. What keeps fans energized on the band is that on each record they sound fresh and their style develops and changes without ever straying outside of what we would expect from

Flotsam. On Drift, not only did they impress with their music, but with the subject matter and their ability to put your emotions right into the situation. With the consistency and staying power of Flotsam & Jetsam, we have no doubt that their future will be just as stellar as their past.

Here's what you had to say:

KIBZ - Mike Melbye: "F*cking awesome! I love the record. I think it will do very well and I'm hoping to get some crossover play."

KMSA - Eric Pain: "It moves me! It takes me to a higher place."

KUNV - Les Stewart: "I love it! So far, it's working well for us. The listeners have been eating it up! It seems like every album their musical abilities and songwriting really grow."

WXZR - Julie Johnson: "I think this is great. There are at least three very strong singles. A record we will be hearing from for a long time."

F I L L I N G S

After our three week hiatus, and basic holiday break we will return to a flood of stuff going on in metal-land. You can look forward to the delivery of new material from the likes of Incantation (Relapse) with the Upon the Thorn of Apocalypse album; Rust (Atlantic) with their single, "One in Seven Surveyed;" CIV's (Atlantic) "Choices Made" CD-pro; the Mortician (Relapse) House By the Cemetery album; the full length Therapy? (A&M) Infernal Love; Sister Machine Gun (TVT); a Merauder (Century Media) disc called Master Killer; Dissection's (Nuclear Blast) Storm of the Light's Bane; the Teknowhore album from Bile (Energy) is slated for a March arrival; the Dead Guy (Victory) album Fixation on a Coworker; Trouble's (Century Media) Plastic Green Head; Napalm Death's (Earache) full length follow-up to Greed Killing, Diatribes; an Only Living Witness (Century Media) record called Innocents; an Industrial Strength Compilation from Earache; and Misery Loves Co.'s (Earache) new stuff on Happy... Also up at the beginning of the new year, and from those in the MMS/Mausoleum camp is the release of "Mixed Emotions," the second single from the self-titled Belladonna disc. It goes for adds on January 16th. Serviced as a CD-pro, the single will have a "down and out" edit also included. Keep in mind that Joey and the boys will begin their tour with Motorhead (CMC International) and Speedball (Energy) in January... Look for Voivod (MMS/Mausoleum) to tour starting in February. The band's 2nd single will also be hitting around then; and included on the CD-pro will be a couple of b-sides. A remix is in the works for one of the tracks... The working title for the upcoming Wicked Maraya album is Human Factor. Look for it sometime in the first quarter... March brings the as-of-yet untitled second album from the stomp-monsters in Groovezilla (MMS/Mausoleum)... Visual stimulation in the new year comes in the form of the Reign video clip for "Violate", track six on the band's disc. P.S. — A full-on U.S. tour in the works. ☸☸☸☸ On the current touring front, Excel (Malicious Vinyl) and Shi-Had (Noise) wind things down on their winter tour. The final shows are 12/18 in Orange County, California; 12/19 in Los Angeles, California; 12/20 in San Francisco, California; and 12/21 in Portland, Oregon... The Cubanate (Noise) and Ultraviolence (Earache) tour commences with the final four shows being December 18th in St. Louis, Missouri; the 21st in Scottsdale, Arizona; on the 22nd in San Diego, California; and on the 23rd Los Angeles, California... Look for Wicker Man (Hollywood), Stuck Mojo (Century Media) and Machine Head (Roadrunner) to play the final date on their current cross country trek December 22nd with a showing in Detroit, Michigan... Word is, there is an Internal Bleeding (Pavement), Six Feet Under (Metal Blade), and Immolation (Metal Blade) tour in the works. The triple billing is slated to kick off in February. ☸☸☸☸ The members of Earth Crisis (Victory) were in a van accident on Sunday, December 10th. Apparently the band were leaving Seattle, Washington after a show and were on their way to Salt Lake City, Utah when the van they were riding in slid over a cliff and rolled three times. Band member Dennis Merrick (drums) is suffering from two collapsed lungs and a broken collarbone, one of the road crew staff had to have his spleen removed, and Kris Weichmann (guitar) is currently in a wheelchair. At press time the band members were healing, but unfortunately their tour with Shelter (Roadrunner) has been cancelled. If you want to send cards, etc. send it in care of: Victory Records, 1837 W. Fulton St., Chicago, IL 60612. ☸☸☸☸ This past year has been a great one for both of us here in the Hard metal camp. Thanks to everyone who helped make it wonderful. Hope y'all have a safe and happy holiday season filled with much peace, love and happiness. ☸☸☸☸ That's all folks. Go Flyers. Go Bulls. Peace.

ALBUM OF THE YEAR

White Zombie, Astro-Creep 2000: Songs of Love, Destruction, and Other Synthetic Delusions of the Electric Head (Geffen)

The official title of the follow up to the breakthrough White Zombie offering is so long and mind bending that it can almost suffice as a description of what you will find inside. But what can you say about the album that not only dominated the Hard Hitters charts for a good portion of the year but also became a given at most AOR and Alternative stations. Most of their fans would have been content with an album that was similar to La Sexorcisto, but while retaining their trademark rhythmic grooves, White Zombie expanded the limits of their sound and unleashed an album that blew away most people's expectations. They also did it their way — with a theatrical presentation that is seemingly unhip from the cookie cutter grunge bands, and held onto their metallic roots, all while touring constantly (as they did the last time around) with their handpicked openers. White Zombie are deeper than a hit single, and even though you can hear "More Human" all over MTV, clubs, and commercial radio, they retain their credibility with hard rock fans with their pummelling strength and warped ingenuity.

HERE'S WHAT YOU HAD TO SAY:

WDBM - Dave Ciancio: "Remember how great Star Wars was back then, and you didn't think it could be topped? They have the Spielberg Syndrome - every record gets better."

WSOU - Mike DePippa: "Tremendous. It totally blew me away since the first time I really heard it. It's amazing."

WSUP - Jack Hansen: "What is there to say? This album is it! This is the only thing I've had in my CD player since it came in."

WNYO - Chris Kelly: "I can't say enough about this record. It kicks the other one out of the water."

HAPPY HOLIDAYS FROM THE FOLKS AT NOISE!

Thanks for making '95 such a successful year for SHIHAD, Kreator, & Cubanate.

Get ready for NOISE Records in '96 and be prepared for the new release from Manhole (L.A.'s most talked about band).

Monster Magnet, Dopes to Infinity (A&M)

Although this band hails from Red Bank, NJ, you would swear that they just came in from another solar system with the astral journey that their music takes your mind on. Dopes to Infinity was one of the most highly anticipated releases of the year and it more than met, and expectations with songs that were both radio friendly and at the same time clung to the band's psychedelia, extended-jam mind-bending. In addition to finding them on the radio and MTV (visions of Dave Wyndorf flying through space on an asteroid, wedged in between TLC and Bush is a sight to behold), Monster Magnet also found themselves on the road - a lot - with the likes of Corrosion of Conformity and KoRn, including jam packed showcases at both CMJ and Foundations Forum. Despite having never snagged the #1 slot (just as they were ready to snag the top slot, White Zombie wedged their way up), it's obvious that with the airplay that came early and often - and stayed late for that matter - Monster Magnet are one of the biggest Hard Hitters' success stories of the year.

HERE'S WHAT YOU HAD TO SAY:

WBGU - Jimmy Frederick: "What else can I say but that this is probably the best record of the year!"

WDWN - Adam Christensen: "Yeah, I like it. People like it, all of my friends like it. It's so trippy that I can't listen to it all the time or my brain will overload."

WTPA - Randy Johnson: "Still huge. We will be on this for awhile. A guy at a local tattoo parlor loves it and plays it in the store all the time."

KZRK - Eric Slayter: "I bow down before Monster Magnet."

Fear Factory, Demanufacture (Roadrunner)

When the debut from Fear Factory first hit metal radio it not only pleased the heaviest of metal fans, but also received critical acclaim for pushing the boundaries of metallic music. They further drove back those limits on Demanufacture with Burton C. Bell's chameleon vocal abilities. One minute they are grinding and growling, the next they reach soothing majestic heights. This versatility brought many different radio stations into their camp and kept them atop the charts for seven weeks. They also had good luck on the touring front hooking up with Ozzy Osbourne, KoRn, Flotsam & Jetsam, and Megadeth, further expanding their quickly growing fanbase. While many of the metal bands of the '80s are having a hard time holding together, Fear Factory explode out with a perfect blend of thrash and techno. With new material having just arrived, the Factory will be running well into next year.

HERE'S WHAT YOU HAD TO SAY:

WHFR - Melissa Jackson: "Personally I like the bass-line and the ripping guitars. They rip out your throat, stare at you and just laugh!"

WSGR - Mark Morden: "This album is beyond any proper adjective."

WTFX - Frank Webb: "I love it! I will make a major commitment to this record. I certainly have been warned about it. I play it very, very loud and like it very, very much."

WHJY - Dr. Metal: "Oh wow! Definitely a breath of fresh air. This record smokes."

HARD Hitters

KoRn, KoRn (Epic)

Yeah, we know that this record came out last year, and even with the fact that they have become one of metal radio's favorite baby bands, or that commercial radio has been forced into airplay because of the undeniable fanbase, it is still surprising that over a year since the release of their debut, KoRn is still residing on the Hard Hitters chart. And things don't seem to be slowing down at all with "Shoots & Ladders" continuing to get airplay at commercial radio while the underground stations play "Sean Olson". In addition, the band landed the coveted middle slot on the upcoming Ozzy Osbourne arena tour. By taking on music fans with their grinding cathartic sounds rather than poppy melodies, they found a contingent of loyal listeners that will stick with them for the long haul. 1995 was definitely a year for popping KoRn.

HERE'S WHAT YOU HAD TO SAY:

WCWP - Chris Hoffman: "It's doing great. KoRn is the best. They rule!"

WDBM - Dave Ciancio: "This is a band that has so much anger and passion, you have to love them. Every time I see the video or hear the music I have to have more. My life is starting to revolve around this CD."

WIYY - Chris Vaught: "A number one band on the show! We are always in the mood to pop some KoRn!"

WSUP - Jack Hansen: "I love KoRn!"

82 STATIONS TOTAL.

Flotsam and Jetsam, Drift (MCA)

To round out the top five we went back to the old school with Flotsam & Jetsam, who have made their career out of straight ahead metallic rock. What keeps fans energized on the band is that on each record they sound fresh and their style develops and changes without ever straying outside of what we would expect from

Flotsam. On Drift, not only did they impress with their music, but with the subject matter and their ability to put your emotions right into the situation. With the consistency and staying power of Flotsam & Jetsam, we have no doubt that their future will be just as stellar as their past.

Here's what you had to say:

KIBZ - Mike Melbye: "F*cking awesome! I love the record. I think it will do very well and I'm hoping to get some crossover play."

KMSA - Eric Pain: "It moves me! It takes me to a higher place."

KUNV - Les Stewart: "I love it! So far, it's working well for us. The listeners have been eating it up! It seems like every album their musical abilities and songwriting really grow."

WXZR - Julie Johnson: "I think this is great. There are at least three very strong singles. A record we will be hearing from for a long time."

1995's Best

Alanis Morissette, "You Oughta Know," Maverick

It's a calculated guess, since our computer department couldn't come up with a year-end chart for us (we switched to a tracks chart from an album chart midway through the year). But it can't be off by much, if it is. Alanis Morissette captivated our ears with the first listen of the advance cassette Maverick serviced before the radio release, and she continues to win us over with the depth tracks that radio is beginning to expose. This song destroyed all competition in the Most Requested category for many weeks in a row. And, it apparently revitalized the posture of viability that women artists have at rock radio. Thanks to Alanis for flipping off a world of bad research numbers, and making "Does it rock?" and "Is it any good?" two questions that are now asked more often than ones about gender.

the one to watch

3 lb. Thrill, "Diana," 57/550

Here's the deal: This is a hit. 3 lb. Thrill is due for major things, and they will likely become large in 1996. And for that matter, it will be a pleasure to see how much this track has increased in spinnage over the holidays. We wouldn't be surprised if we came back to a January chart position. Nevertheless, the former Uncle Green is at radio with a truly cool pop/Alternative/rock/whatever masterpiece that is the album Vulture, and this lead-off single is a summary of beautiful qualities that the record possesses in its entirety. Uncle Green was always considered a band that had everything it took to make it in the musicality department. Programmers who were at work in 1989-90 remember their smash hit sounds with misty reverence. Now, it seems like their time has come. Already in are 99X, KNDD, KBBT, KTOZ, WCHZ, WTKS, DMX and others.

first quarter picks

Alternative

There seems to be many great musical options for quarter number one, and here are a few of them that we managed to glean from the early mail.

Lisa Loeb, "Taffy," Geffen

Already racking up points, Lisa Loeb brings out a bit more rock and roll attitude with this single. Eric Schmidt at KPNT calls it "Her best rock song on the new album. It's a nice change of pace from her previous releases." It's also on at WAQZ, KROX, KXPK, WBRU, WENZ, WZRH and others.

Tori Amos, "Caught a Lite Sneeze," Atlantic

The new Tori is coming to you in CD form over the holidays, and WFNX is already playing it from the advance cassette. Can't blame them for loving the sexy drum rhythm and Amos' enchanting presence.

Limblifter, "Screwed It Up," Mercury

This new band is the focus of Merc's first quarter in the Alternative department, and this first track is a potential loser's anthem. There's a lot of edge and distinctiveness, and it's not mere novelty. But you'll have fun with it.

XC-NN, "Lifted," 550

After changing their name from CNN to thwart furthering the ire of Ted Turner from where it already was, XC-NN crossed the big blue as one of the most rockin' bands to come from Britain in some time.

Edsel, "Glazed by the Cold Front," Relativity

Washington, DC band Edsel is ready to take advantage of a little more label/distribution strength, and this track is strong. Already on at WDST and WOXY.

Frank Black, "Man in Black," American

Former Pixies frontman wails in this release, which should get sent up the charts by the true Alternative-niks first, then spread from there.

Beggars, "Lovely Soul Detonator," Island

Dammit, I still can't get this hook out of my head. I last heard the song back in October.

Jars of Clay, "Flood," Silvertone

Jars of Clay score big points for distinctiveness in arrangement. Production by Adrian Belew doesn't hurt, either. XHRM's Alternative Rock Challenge had this winning 5 nights in a row, beating Soul Asylum, Tripping Daisy, Spacehog and others. KTOZ is in, as well.

Christy McCarthy, "If Jesus Came Today," A Lasting Impression

Reach the label at 1-800-800-2099, if you don't have a copy. It's a tasteful, modern look at the world that will ring some bells at holiday time, a little like Joan Osborne's "One of Us."

Living Colour, Pride, Epic

It's a best-of CD from this excellent band, and in a way it's a sad reminder of what might have been. The CD contains the most-recognized songs from their catalogue, and some slightly-rough new songs culled from what must have been their last recording session.

Supernova, "Vitamins,"

Amphetamine Reptile/Atlantic

It's short, sweet, and everybody needs 'em.

HOW TO MAKE YO

File Edit Style Item Page View Utilities

Louis Lewow is Vice President of Marketing for HomeCom Communications, an Atlanta-based company dedicated to assisting organizations that want to have a presence on the Internet.

Lewow is a music industry veteran who spent five years with CBS Records in the Epic/Portrait/Associated Labels division, working on marketing and promotion projects for artists like REO Speedwagon and Cheap Trick. He's also been a member of the A&M Records promotion staff as well as Private Stock Records and started his own independent marketing and promotion company in Atlanta in 1982. Lewow, a past director of the Art Institute of Atlanta's Music Entertainment Management program, also launched his own company, Lewow & Associates, representing small software and CD-ROM publishing companies.

Mike Cooper talks to Louis about radio station Web sites and the growing number of people who are tapping into the Internet

Lewow: "It's doubling every year. There are about 30 million users worldwide and that will probably double this time next year to 60 million."

What is a Web site and what purpose does it serve?

Lewow: "It's an advertisement in cyberspace for your company or your services, or your radio station. The purpose that it serves is to reach the people where they are, and more and more are gravitating towards the Internet and cyberspace and utilizing this as a form of information, education and entertainment. A Web page gives you the ability to be interactive with your audience. You can put up sound bites. You can put up e-mail addresses and communicate. You can do chat rooms and communicate directly with an audience, one-on-one, in real time. It gives you a lot of opportunities to really be pro-active with your audience."

What kinds of companies have Web sites?

Lewow: "Everybody from IBM on down to Joe's Pizza Parlor. Everybody has the ability to have a Web site and utilize it in a profitable manner. Coca-Cola has a Web site that cost, from what I understand, over $1 million to do. It's just another extension of Coke's marketing of its name wherever they have an opportunity, whether it be a high school gym or, now, cyberspace."

"The World Wide Web levels the playing field in competition for companies. I can devote $1 million, or I can devote a little bit less, but if I market my address and get it out there, I can generate hits on my page and help sell my product or advertise and market my product as easily and as well as Coca-Cola or Toyota or Motorola. If you'll notice any of their commercials on television this season, at the end, you'll see them listing their 'http://www.mycompany...' address."

But if Web sites are essentially an advertisement, what is the incentive for people to go around and check them out? You don't buy the newspaper just to see the ads, and you don't turn the TV off when there's a program on because you just want to see the commercials. How do you keep the interest level high so people keep looking at your Web site?

Lewow: "It's an implied advertisement. A lot of these Web pages make them fun — put games on there and the advertisement or the reinforcement of the name is there, but you don't buy a Ford on-line. But maybe you can test-drive a Ford on-line or get through the experience of it through computer programs that they've placed there. You have, again, that interactivity with a potential audience. You're not necessarily constantly 'buy this, buy this, buy this,' but you're reinforcing a product name, brand allegiance. It works very effectively that way."

But the big question in some people's minds is who are the people who are looking at Web sites and are there enough people who will see it make it worthwhile. In the case of radio stations does it reach your potential listeners?

Lewow: "The reality is that if those questions were asked initially when television started, I doubt that CBS or NBC or ABC would have immediately... If they were looking for initial money from this venture they probably would never have gotten into television. There were fewer TVs out there and they had to build a demand for it. I would say, at this particular point, if network television reaches 100 percent of the market, cable television reaches 50 percent, the World Wide Web probably reaches less than that, because not everybody has a computer."

"But as we all know, and as we all project, and as Bill Gates is feverishly working at Microsoft to do, to make the computer an everyday occurrence just like indoor plumbing is not. The more and more people do that the more and more people look at this medium for entertainment, information delivery and its ability to ultimately do more than just staring at a television screen."

"The idea that maybe you're not going to see an immediate response....I think for radio stations they will, because they can

It's just another extension of Coke's marketing of its name wherever they have an opportunity, whether it be a high school gym or, now, cyberspace."

"The World Wide Web levels the playing field in competition for companies. I can devote $1 million, or I can devote a little bit less, but if I market my address and get it out there, I can generate hits on my page and help sell my product or advertise and market my product as easily and as well as Coca-Cola or Toyota or Motorola. If you'll notice any of their commercials on television this season, at the end, you'll see them listing their 'http://www.mycompany...' address."

But if Web sites are essentially an advertisement, what is the incentive for people to go around and check them out? You don't buy the newspaper just to see the ads, and you don't turn the TV off when there's a program on because you just want to see the commercials. How do you keep the interest level high so people keep looking at your Web site?

Lewow: "It's an implied advertisement. A lot of these Web pages make them fun — put games on there and the advertisement or the reinforcement of the name is there, but you don't buy a Ford on-line. But maybe you can test-drive a Ford on-line or get through the experience of it through computer programs that they've placed there. You have, again, that interactivity with a potential audience. You're not necessarily constantly 'buy this, buy this, buy this,' but you're reinforcing a product name, brand allegiance. It works very effectively that way."

But the big question in some people's minds is who are the people who are looking at Web sites and are there enough people who will see it make it worthwhile. In the case of radio stations, does it reach your potential listeners?

Lewow: "The reality is that if those questions were asked initially when television started, I doubt that CBS or NBC or ABC would have immediately... If they were looking for initial money from this venture they probably would never have gotten into television. There were fewer TVs out there and they had to build a demand for it. I would say, at this particular point, if network television reaches 100 percent of the market, cable television reaches 50 percent, the World Wide Web probably reaches less than that, because not everybody has a computer."

"But as we all know, and as we all project, and as Bill Gates is feverishly working at Microsoft to do, to make the computer an everyday occurrence just like indoor plumbing is not. The more and more people do that the more and more people look at this medium for entertainment, information delivery and its ability to ultimately do more than just staring at a television screen."

"The idea that maybe you're not going to see an immediate response....I think for radio stations they will, because they can

"It's still working."

WKRO (B-16 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Taft Moore

"I love that song. That's another band we have to keep an eye on. This will play well to your older demos. It's got that funky familiar feel to it. And it's weird enough for the kids. That's a crossover hit."

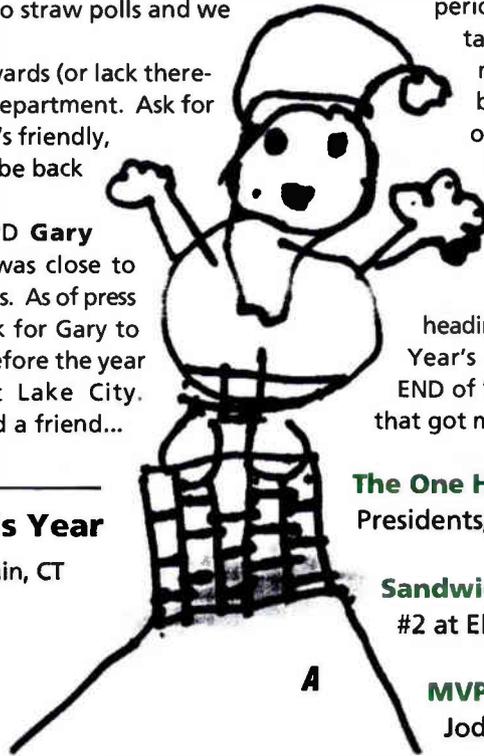

Happy Holidays to you and yours. In the interest of looking forward rather than backward, we have avoided the usual "Best of The Year" ritual in favor of spending the space picking a few records we think you should hear for the 1st quarter. Of course, I couldn't avoid making a few informal year-end awards of my own. We did no voting, we took no straw polls and we consulted no oracles.

If there are any problems with these awards (or lack thereof) please feel free to call our complaint department. Ask for Nick (our resident German Shepherd). He's friendly, as long as you're not in a uniform. We'll be back in the office on 1/8/96, ready to rock.

HOW TO MAKE YO

File Edit Style Item Page View Utilities

Louis Lewow is Vice President of Marketing for HomeCom Communications, an Atlanta-based company dedicated to assisting organizations that want to have a presence on the Internet.

Lewow is a music industry veteran who spent five years with CBS Records in the Epic/Portrait/Associated Labels division, working on marketing and promotion projects for artists like REO Speedwagon and Cheap Trick. He's also been a member of the A&M Records promotion staff as well as Private Stock Records and started his own independent marketing and promotion company in Atlanta in 1982. Lewow, a past director of the Art Institute of Atlanta's Music Entertainment Management program, also launched his own company, Lewow & Associates, representing small software and CD-ROM publishing companies.

Mike Cooper talks to Louis Lewow about radio station Web sites and the growing number of people who are tapping into the Internet.

Lewow: "It's doubling every year. There are about 30 million users worldwide and that will probably double this time next year to 60 million."

What is a Web site and what purpose does it serve?

Lewow: "It's an advertisement in cyberspace for your company or your services, or your radio station. The purpose that it serves is to reach the people where they are, and more and more are gravitating towards the Internet and cyberspace and utilizing this as a form of information, education and entertainment. A Web page gives you the ability to be interactive with your audience. You can put up sound bites. You can put up e-mail addresses and communicate. You can do chat rooms and communicate directly with an audience, one-on-one, in real time. It gives you a lot of opportunities to really be pro-active with your audience."

What kinds of companies have Web sites?

Lewow: "Everybody from IBM on down to Joe's Pizza Parlor. Everybody has the ability to have a Web site and utilize it in a profitable manner. Coca-Cola has a Web site that cost, from what I understand, over $1 million to do. It's just another extension of Coke's marketing of its name wherever they have an opportunity, whether it be a high school gym or, now, cyberspace."

"The World Wide Web levels the playing field in competition for companies. I can devote $1 million, or I can devote a little bit less, but if I market my address and get it out there, I can generate hits on my page and help sell my product or advertise and market my product as easily and as well as Coca-Cola or Toyota or Motorola. If you'll notice any of their commercials on television this season, at the end, you'll see them listing their 'http://www.mycompany...' address."

But if Web sites are essentially an advertisement, what is the incentive for people to go around and check them out? You don't buy the newspaper just to see the ads, and you don't turn the TV off when there's a program on because you just want to see the commercials. How do you keep the interest level high so people keep looking at your Web site?

Lewow: "It's an implied advertisement. A lot of these Web pages make them fun — put games on there and the advertisement or the reinforcement of the name is there, but you don't buy a Ford on-line. But maybe you can test-drive a Ford on-line or get through the experience of it through computer programs that they've placed there. You have, again, that interactivity with a potential audience. You're not necessarily constantly 'buy this buy this, buy this,' but you're reinforcing a product name, brand allegiance. It works very effectively that way."

But the big question in some people's minds is who are the people who are looking at Web sites and are there enough people who will see it make it worthwhile. In the case of radio stations, does it reach your potential listeners?

Lewow: "The reality is that if those questions were asked initially when television started, I doubt that CBS or NBC or ABC would have immediately... If they were looking for initial money from this venture they probably would never have gotten into television. There were fewer TVs out there and they had to build a demand for it. The more and more people do that the more and more people look at this medium for entertainment, information delivery and its ability to ultimately do more than just staring at a television screen."

"The idea that maybe you're not going to see an immediate response....I think for radio stations they will, because they can immediately set up a communication with their listeners, that they may not even be able to do via their request lines."

Lots of radio stations have Web sites. Have you looked at them, are they good, bad or in the middle?

Lewow: "Some are great, some don't really push the medium to its limits. I'm real impressed with what KPIG is doing. They are starting to broadcast live 24 hours a day on the Net and that's real impressive. I think that there will be more to it. At this particular point, it's like the inception of television. If you look back and look at the kinescopes of what the original shows looked like, you'd say, 'My god, they're awful in comparison to what television looks like today.'"

What makes a good radio station Web site? What can a station do with a Web site?

Lewow: "One of the things that's really immediately important for a radio station to do is advertise the URL address. That's one thing that a lot of radio stations are not doing that kind of surprises me. They have Web pages, but it's sort of like a secret. You don't create the demand to get on there if you don't tell people about it. That's one of the external things they can do."

"Another thing radio stations do that surprised me is that they are probably going the pennywise, but the pound-foolish way of going with Web page developers who are willing to do it for cut-rate or for free advertising, and are basically sub-domaining the stations with addresses like 'http://www.internetcompany.com/user/pages/wxxx.html.' That's an impossible address to remember or find. I think radio stations need to get their own domains such as 'http://www.wxxx.com' and put that on the air."

"Now when you bring the listeners to the radio station's Web page, what are you going to present them. Probably an extremely good visual presentation of what the radio station is all about. Everything from playlists, you might be able to do music polls, you might be able to use the Web site as a research site to aid programming. Ask the audience questions. Have e-mail boxes set up for all the disc jockeys, for the programming department. Be able to solicit responses. Do contests on the Web site. Say something on the air and in order for someone to win, they have to send an e-mail message and then pick a winner from those entries. Drive traffic to the Web site."

If a radio station wants to start or improve its Web site, how can your company help them?

Lewow: "We've established what we call a radio starter kit. Actually, you could call it a 'home page in a box.' It's at 'www.homecom.com/starter/radio' and has three audio clips, a music poll, an events page, a news page and a personalities page. It gives the radio stations the ability to post all the station's news, their weekly playlists on the Internet without coming through the Web page developer to make the changes. The stations can make the changes themselves."

"The key to this is that we've put about $15,000 worth of work and technologies for this, and we're selling to radio stations for the price of $2,950."

If someone buys this do they ever need your services again?

Lewow: "No, we would host it so there would still be a monthly maintenance. Certainly, if people wanted to add on to it, we would certainly be there to help them, but if they never wanted to do more than this, they could post their own station news, station events, change their playlist without every coming through us. Absolutely."

What sort of time and effort is needed to keep a Web page going. To me, it seems as though they should be updated, yet the other day I saw a radio station's Web site with a list of "new releases" that only listed records that came out in August and September and hadn't been updated since.

Lewow: "It's not a major lifestyle change for a station. As long as a station is computerized and generating a playlist on a word processor, you've basically done the work. All you're going to need to do it additionally file transfer protocol it up on your Web site. You're really doing a lot of the work already. Adding the additional steps of always thinking about 'this is going to go on the Web site,' once you add that, it becomes an automatic action and it's really not that difficult at all."

If someone buys your system, it's easier to update than if they just get some kid to put together their Web site, right?

Lewow: "Absolutely. Number one, they're doing the changes themselves, so they don't really need to explain to someone how their business operates or why it should be worded in a certain way — the key points of radio that they're going to have to teach someone. They're doing it themselves. They understand their business. No one else should really have to touch that."

How can you tell how many people visit your Web site?

Lewow: "We can provide stats. We can give them a password that will allow them to come on our page, come to our stats page and see by hour, by day, how many hits they're getting and from what Internet providers are coming from."

"It is a form of ratings, and it's something they can utilize to help sell sponsorships of their Web pages to local, regional or national advertisers, which is another way that radio stations can go to defray costs and turn this into a profit center."

And what does the future hold for Web sites?

Lewow: "What we call home pages today are going to be widestream audio and widestream video deliverers of information and that to me sounds like television stations. Your radio station could actually be a television station, not far from the turn of the century, via the World Wide Web, so it's time to stake that claim now."

Hometown fan Bruce Brutschy is proposing naming a block-long street in the Five Points district of Columbia, South Carolina, after Hootie & The Blowfish. Jack Van Loan, the president of the Five Points Merchants Association, says he likes the idea. "That'd be kind of fun, wouldn't it?" he says.

Courtney Love claims she was assaulted by bodyguards while hanging out backstage at a Green Day concert in New Orleans. Love says she was signing autographs while sitting on an equipment box when three guards for the Lakefront Arena told her to move and then grabbed her by the neck and shoved her towards the seats. She says they pulled their hair and wouldn't look at her backstage pass. "My head was banged one, two three, four times against a steel pole," Love says. "While this was happening, one guy was doing things down by my underwear. You don't touch a human being like that, celebrity or not."

Steve Albini will produce Bush's follow-up to the top 20 album "Sixteen Stone."

Porno For Pyros releases a new album in March called "Good Gods' Urge," which features Flea of the Red Hot Chili Peppers. Some of Perry Farrell's songs are said to have been inspired by trips to Bali, Fiji and Tahiti. Song titles include "Tahitian Moon" and "Porpoise Head." The band will be headlining Australia's "Big Day Out" rock fest next year, along with Sonic Youth, Oasis, Everclear, Jawbreaker and the Rentals.

Memphis band Lime has become the first rock band to play at the National Civil Rights Museum in Memphis. The band, a collaboration between British singer-songwriter Mark Harriman and three Memphis musicians, describes its sound as a "Big Star fusion of Beatles and Stax." The group has released its debut CD on an independent label (GravelSauce Records).

Sting talks about his newly-developed interest in yoga in the latest issue of Yoga Journal magazine. "I want to get old gracefully," he says. "I want to have good posture. I want to be healthy and I want to be an example to my children. I'm working on it. I am by no means pretending to be an adept or anything but a beginning. But I feel I'm on a path." Sting says members of his band also are interested and "we do at least an hour and a half of yoga before every concert." Sting releases a new album in March.

Charlotte, North Carolina, pop band the Spongetones, who are tired of being compared to the Beatles, are growing more popular in other countries than they are in the U.S. Their new album "Textural Drone Thing" has been released (on Sony Records) in Japan, while a single by vocalist and guitarist Jamie Hoover with two songs written by Robert Crenshaw (Marshall's brother) has been released on a small label in Sweden. "We've had a lot of success but I feel like we've been down a rough, bumpy road," Hoover says. "It's great for a major to pick you up anywhere. We're as excited about it as we could possibly be."

Chicago band Yum-Yum will have a "lush, orchestral pop" album out next summer (on Tag/Atlantic Records), according to Chris Holmes. He's also involved in a techno project called Ashtar Command and anticipates their next record will be for an independent label.

Carter USM had to cancel a British show after drummer Wez injured his ankle while the band was touring in Germany.

Boy George's brother has admitted in a British court that he murdered his wife. Gerald O'Dowd's wife, Gillian, died from a stab wound at the couple's home in Tring, England, in September. O'Dowd will be sentenced after psychiatric reports have been prepared for St. Albans Crown Court.

Chrissie Hynde has been criticized by the stepmother of an 18-year-old girl who died after taking an Ecstasy tablet last month. Janet Betts says Hynde was "irresponsible" in an interview with Britain's GQ magazine in which the Pretenders singer said Ecstasy was "like a love drug, but it stays at that level, it actually doesn't go anywhere." "It's like the buzz you get if you've had a couple of glasses of champagne, that feeling before it goes horribly wrong," Hynde says in the interview, calling it a "fine drug." "I would take it any day over an alcohol high." Hynde's comments brought a sharp rebuke from Betts, whose stepdaughter Leah, took an Ecstasy tablet at her 18th birthday party. "I cannot believe that someone in Chrissie's position could come out with something so irresponsible. Her description is so biased and wrong. Her children are going to have the money to buy these drugs. If they ever take Ecstasy she may regret her words. "Ecstasy is not choosey about who it takes. It could be her." A spokesman for Hynde says the interview was conducted two weeks before Leah Betts' death and says Hynde was not advocating the use of the drug.

Sarah McLachlan, Tom Cochrane, Melissa Etheridge, Del Amitri and Dionne Farris are to play a special acoustic concert against world hunger in New York later this month.

The costumed old woman on the cover of the new Candlebox album "Lucy" isn't Lucy, says guitarist Peter Dinklage. "We just liked the picture a lot," he says. Dinklage says that when he's not listening to classic rock, he listens to the Smashing Pumpkins and old jazz fusion groups like Return To Forever and the Mahavishnu Orchestra.

Matt Sharp says the Rentals is "not just a little side project" while Weezer is on hiatus. "I have lost far too much sleep during the writing, recording and mixing of this record for it to be called that," he says. Sharp adds that the songs on "Return Of The Rentals" might not have the most lyrical themes, but they were at least "written honestly."

Despite their cover of Alanis Morissette's "You Oughta Know," 1000 Mona Lisas vocalist and guitarist Armando Prado says "we definitely want respect as songwriters." Prado says the band's five-song EP shows the band's serious, artistic songwriting. "Some people think...if you sign to a major label, forget it. To them you've sold out," he says. "Well I haven't sold out. I'm writing the exact same music I always did."

Five digitally-remastered Jefferson Airplane titles will be reissued in January, marking the 30th anniversary of the band's first LP, "Jefferson Airplane Takes Off."

Margaret Maldonado Jackson, the live-in lover of Jermaine Jackson for the past eight years and mother of his sons Jeremy and Jordan, is publishing a book called "Jackson Family Values." In her forward to the book, she writes it's not her "mission to hurt anyone," but she goes on to describe Jermaine as being a misogynist, a two-timer and a deadbeat dad.

Lead singer John Popper says Blues Traveler has now performed in every state in the U.S.

The March Of Dimes turned down Tiny Tim's offer of half of the proceeds of his upcoming album after it learned he would be appearing on Howard Stern's radio program.

Bob Seger & The Silver Bullet Band launches a 23-city tour in Charleston, South Carolina, on January 19, in support of the "It's A Mystery" album, Seger's first studio album in four years. "I want to get out there in front of the fans again. I miss it," Seger says. Seger says he's changed after having gotten married and having two children. "When you have kids you don't have time to worry about stupid things anymore," he says. "I'm more mature. I think I'll pace myself better....I also think I'm more appreciative."

Moncton band Zero Degrees Celcius has released its first album "Tales From The Bend" (on Ground Swell/Warner Brothers/Canada). The five-piece band mixes English and French.

Michael Jackson is on the 12th annual list of the dullest celebrities of the year put out by the Boring Institute in Maplewood, New Jersey. Jackson is "too weird, too rich and likes little boys too much," says founder Alan Caruba.

Darren "The Human Beat Box" Robinson, formerly of the Fat Boys, has died at his home in Rosedale, Queens, while performing for friends. Paramedics were unable to revive him. Robinson's brother says the rapper, known for his rhythmic breaths, belches and burps, had been battling the flu. Robinson went solo in 1991 but there was talk of a Fat Boys reunion LP. Robinson was fined $10,000 in 1990 when he was charged of filming a roadie having sex with a 14-year-old girl. The Fat Boys got their start in 1984 when they won a Brooklyn rap contest under the name Disco 3.

In an interview in Ski magazine, Seal says the lengthy worldwide success of his "Kiss From A Rose" single is a bit like snowboarding. "In the beginning it was extremely frightening," he says "It was like being put on a snowboard for the very first time and being pushed down the hill. At any point you could catch an edge and just fall over, and indeed you do sometimes. But then the more you persevere, the more you realize that there are ways to manipulate the snowboard. And you realize that it's not that frightening at all."

David Briggs, a record producer who worked with Neil Young, Alice Cooper, Nick Cave, Spirit and Neil Young, has died at his home in San Francisco at age 51 from lung cancer. Briggs worked on 18 Young albums over 26 years, including "Tonight's The Night" and "Rust Never Sleeps." Briggs met Young in 1968 when he picked him up hitch-hiking in Topanga Canyon, north of Los Angeles.

At his live shows, Ozzy Osbourne is showing a short film which sees him in the Oval Office with President Clinton and spending time with "Forrest Gump." "See You On The Other Side" will be released as the next single from his "Ozzmosis" album in January.

Linda McCartney sent a friend to buy a 28-pound turkey at a Christmas auction in Henley-on-Thames, England, so that the bird wouldn't be slaughtered for a Christmas dinner. She gave Pat Maynard-Rollings, owner of a vegetarian restaurant, a blank check for the auction to benefit children's and cancer charities. She got the bird for $4,500, outbidding the owner of a restaurant who usually buys the turkey. "I could have gone up to $15,000," Maynard-Rollings says. She says the turkey will be given to an animal sanctuary. "Everyone should think about doing something like this to try to have a kinder Christmas," McCartney said in a statement.

Take That won eight awards at the Smash Hits Poll Winners Party in London, sponsored by British teen music magazine Smash Hits. They won awards for Best Group in the World, Best British Group, Best Single ("Back For Good"), Best Album ("Nobody Else"), Best Pop Video ("Never Forget"), Best Dressed Person, Most Fanciable Male Star, and Best Haircut (Mark Owen). The band also won the award for Worst Group and former member Robbie Williams was voted Sad Loser of 1995. It was the fourth consecutive year Take That won for Best Group in the World. Jarvis Cocker of Pulp was voted Least Fanciable Male and Worst-Dressed Person. Michael Jackson and Mariah Carey were voted Best Male and Female Solo Singer, respectively. Jackson was also voted Worst Male Solo Singer. Eternal won the award for Best Dance/Soul Act, Bon Jovi won for Best Rock Outfit, and Blur won for Best Indie Type Band. The Backstreet Boys won the award for Best New Tour Act and Boyzone won the Smash Hits/Radio One Best New Act award. Former Eternal singer Louise won as Most Fanciable Female Star while Kylie Minogue was voted Worst Female Solo Singer. Simply Red's "Fairground" was voted Worst Single.

Canadian Celtic music veteran John Allan Cameron is recording a new album called "Glencoe Station" for release in March or April. The LP features the Barra MacNeils, Natalie MacMaster and Ashley MacIsaac.

Celtic rock band Rawlins Cross will release a new album next March, tentatively entitled "Living River" (on Ground Swell/Warner Records/Canada).

Michael Jackson has been released from a New York hospital after being treated for gastroenteritis, dehydration, and an electrolyte imbalance involving his kidney and liver. Jackson's sister La Toya said she didn't believe Michael's illness was genuine and charged that he fainted while rehearsing for an HBO concert in an attempt to get attention. "I know all of Michael's little moves and his little schemes that he pulls when he thinks he needs attention," she says. "It's a publicity move."

Michael Bolton, Salt-N-Pepa and Seymour Stein of Elektra Music have been named charter recipients of the Hero Awards given out by the National Academy of Recording Arts & Sciences in New York City. They were chosen for significant contributions to the New York music community.

Odds makers in Britain believe that Michael Jackson has a better shot at having the number one record at Christmas than the Beatles. Bookies are quoting odds of 2 to 1 that Jackson's "Earth Song" will top the holiday chart. Another possible contender is a cover version of Oasis' "Wonderwall" being released by the Mike Flowers Pops Orchestra.

Boyz II Men and Hootie & The Blowfish have both received five nominations for the American Music Awards to be given out in Los Angeles on January 29. Hootie & The Blowfish were nominated for best overall artist of the year, pop/rock band, duo or group, pop/rock new artist, pop/rock album and adult contemporary artist. Green Day and the Eagles were each nominated in three categories. Green Day, Nine Inch Nails and Pearl Jam are nominated as best alternative artist, while Green Day, Pearl Jam and Van Halen were nominated as best heavy metal/hard rock artist. Blues Traveler, Hootie & The Blowfish and Alanis Morissette are the nominees in the pop/rock new artist category.

An appeals court in Britain has reduced a $537,000 award that had been given to Elton John in 1993 because a newspaper had reported in 1992 that he was suffering from bulimia. The new court decision says the damages were "manifestly excessive" and reduced the award to $115,100. The three-judge panel also said judges in libel cases should provide guidance to jurors on how much damages should be awarded because otherwise they are like "sheep loosed on an unfenced common with no shepherd." The court said that the story that appeared in the Sunday Mirror newspaper, which said John was eating snacks at a party and then spitting them out into a napkin, did not harm John's personal integrity or his artistic career. John was upset at the appeals court ruling, saying it allows newspapers to print "whatever lies they want." He also says he's ended up losing money after paying attorneys' fees. "If I can't afford to fight the abuse of power of some of the British press and win but nevertheless come out of pocket then it doesn't exactly encourage others to stand up to abuse of power by the press, does it?" he said.

Robbie Williams, formerly of British teenage heartthrobs Take That, has filed a High Court lawsuit seeking to be released from his record contract. Trial on his suit, similar to the one filed by George Michael against his label, has been scheduled for February 26.

Courtney Love will play Althea Flynt, the wife of Hustler magazine publisher Larry Flynt, in an upcoming movie. Woody Harrelson will play Larry Flynt.

Jeff Lynne produced the two new Beatles tracks after being asked to do so last year by George Harrison. "Each song probably took a couple of weeks to make," Lynne says. Lynne's known Harrison since they collaborated on Harrison's Cloud Nine in 1987.

Mike Peters, formerly of the Alarm, is another artist keeping tabs with his fans through computer. He has his own Internet Web site and hosts "gatherings" for fans every year at his home in Wales. "I play the songs acoustically and invite comments and discussions," Peters says. "In a sense, I put the fans on tour and stay home." Peters is finishing work on a new album in Boston that will be called "Down The Road." The LP, which comes out early next year, will reflect Peters' prime influences — Bob Dylan, the Byrds and the Clash. "I'm taking two steps back to go four steps forward, in a way," he says. "It's a garage record, if you like. I play a lot of acoustic and harmonica on it, but it isn't a folk record. It has a groove. I even have a cover of Grandmaster Flash's 'The Message' on it, but it sounds like 'The Times They Are A-Changing'."

The top 20 singles chart this week loses Wet Wet Wet, Blur, M People and Erasure....Singles that rose but didn't make the top 20 include Whigfield's "Last Christmas/Big Time," Simply Red's "Remembering The First Time," Mary J. Blige's "Natural Woman," Menswear's "Sleeping In," Pearl Jam's "Merkinball," Michael Barrymore's "Too Much For One Heart," Jinny's "Wanna Be With You," Fluke's "Tosh," and Sugg's "The Tune." There are also new singles from the cast of the popular television show "Coronation Street" and a Christmas single from Mr. Blobby with the title "Christmas In Blobbyland."...Boyzone's single comes from their debut album "Said And Done."...Childliners features a number of stars including East 17, MN8, Michelle Gale and Kylie Minogue and raises money for the Childline charity, a help-line service for children in trouble or danger....Chicago band the Outhere Brothers have already had two number one singles this year in Britain.

Erasure's Andy Bell has been talking to the New Musical Express about drugs. Asked if he thought he had ever lost the plot completely, he said, "Once, too much cocaine two Christmases ago. I'd been up for two weeks with no sleep and was convinced I was being murdered. I ran out of the house with no socks or shoes or shirt in the middle of winter at 5 a.m. Vince rescued me. He's always there for you, he's that kind of person." Erasure's latest single 'Fingers And Thumbs (Cold Summer's Day)' has just been released via Mute in the UK... The Prodigy will return with a new single Fire Starter on March 4. The band debuted the track on their recent British tour. The single will also feature another new song "Come Correct." The band's new album, the follow up to the critically and commercially successful Music For The Jilted Generation, will probably be available at the end of April... Oasis have recorded a version of The Beatles classic 'You've Got To Hide Your Love Away.' The track was broadcast by the BBC Radio One Network on December 1, but there are no plans to release it commercially... Supergrass will return with a new single in February. The band are currently recording material for a new album. A spokesman said the songs were written in the back of a bus touring America, and are all in the key of E because that was the key of the bus' engine... Sugg's new single is "The Tune," released this week by WEA. The b-side is a cover of Supergrass' "Alright"... Frank Black, former mainman with the Pixies, has been talking about his forthcoming album The Cult Of Ray. Black said, "I recorded some tracks in my kitchen. I'm just glad someone in the UK wants to put it out. We've kept it as near to bootleg as we could." Black will tour the UK and Ireland in January and February... The Help compilation has raised more than 1,000,000 pounds sterling to spend on projects in the former Yugoslavia. More than 800,000 pounds of sterling has already been spent on projects in the region. In addition to money spent on education and health projects, more than 200,000 pounds sterling has been put toward a new music centre in Mostar, Bosnia, scene of some of the worst battles between Bosnian Muslims and Bosnian Croats. The Centre will eventually cost around $5,500,000 and will provide music therapy for people recovering from the effects of the war. Opera singer Pavarotti, closely involved with the War Child charity, has also donated $300,000 towards the project. Elsewhere, The Smokin' Mojo Filters' (featuring Noel Gallagher, Paul Weller and Paul McCartney) version of "Come Together" only made it on the b-list of the BBC Radio One Network when it was released as a single. The track is the second to be released from the Help album and a similar fate befell the first single, Radiohead's "Lucky." However Go! Discs' Tony Crean, the man behind the album, says he is not too unhappy: "It did its job. Top of the Pops (BBC Network music show) gave it a video exclusive and "Now That's What I Call Music" picked it up for their Christmas compilation, so that's about another 100,000 (pounds sterling) for a start." During Blur's Cardiff International Arena show, Damon Albarn sprints from one side of the stage to the other. He pauses and then throws water over the front rows. He looks up and smiles. In the UK at least, he is that rarest of things, a pop star and a rock star... And, on tonight's performance, it would be somewhere between difficult and impossible to deny Blur the status they have achieved. Because, confronted by an audience which ranges in age from 13 to 40, and performing in a soulless arena with all the atmosphere of your least favorite auntie's living room on a cold Sunday afternoon, Blur are magnificent... The snotty arrogance which used to characterize some of Blur's early performance has gone. Then, Blur often seemed to be too confident without material or stagecraft to back it up. Damon's excursions up lighting rigs or barracking of the audience just looked like ways of distracting the audience from Blur's shortcomings... Now, with four albums of material to draw from, Blur can afford to almost throw away the early crowd favorite "She's So High," knowing they have the likes of the lush "To The End," the Kinks-like "Stereotypes," Phil Daniels' appearance for "Parklife" and the anthemic "Girls And Boys" in their armory. Hell, they can even afford to pay a horn and string section these days to beef up their sound, freeing guitarist Graham Coxon from the obligation to fill every melodic gap... By the time Blur reach their final song, the recent UK single, "The Universal," you've forgotten the fact you have to walk up two flights of stairs just to get an overpriced beer... Whether this UK adulation will ever cross the Atlantic remains an open question. To some American ears, Blur may always sound too English, too parochial. But, if you are one of the doubters, it really might be worth giving Blur another listen because, on this form and with one of the year's best albums in The Great Escape, they are beginning to look unstoppable in the rest of the world. The Beautiful South have been forced to cancel recordings sessions following the accident to guitarist Dave Rotheray reported in last week's UK Music News... The Trash Can Sinatras will return with new singles and an album in the new year. The band are still with Go! Discs... Napalm Death, who recently released a mini-album, will release a new full-length set on January 22, 1996, Diatribes, available via Earache. The full track listing "Greed Killing," "Glimpse Into Genocide," "Ripe For The Breaking," "Cursed Into Crawl," "Cold Forgiveness," "My Own Worst Enemy," "Just Rewards," "Dogma," "Take The Strain," "Diatribes," "Placate, Sedate, Eradicate" and "Corrosive Elements."... R.E.M. are rumored to be planning a short European tour in February or March of next year. Reports suggest the band want to make up for the shows they cancelled earlier this year. Elsewhere, R.E.M. are also reported to be planning to record new material in March... David McAlmont, Squeeze and Right Said Fred were amongst artists who gave their support to the Counter Revolution event at the London Virgin Megastore on December 1. The event marked World AIDS Day and raised around $24,000 for AIDS charities. Around 150,000 people visited the store. Oasis, recently at the center of controversy Noel Gallagher's remarks that he hoped members of Blur would die of AIDS, sent a message of goodwill... Gary Moore is working on new songs in a London studio... Heavy Stereo, a band signed to Creation and heavily tipped for success, are recording a new single... Des Man DeAblo are a new band worth searching for in the import bins. Their single, "Love Mantras For DeAblo," is available via Whole Car, and their music has been described as "post-hardcore."... Tori Amos will return with a new album, Talula, in the spring. The singer/songwriter will tour the UK through February and March... Gene's singer Martin Rossiter has been talking to Melody Maker about the band's new material, "Lyrically, the songs are becoming far more open, honest and autobiographical. Looking back, we realize that Olympian is a very good album, but it's not the great album we can make." The band's first single, "For The Dead," is being re-issued on January 2 because fans have been paying up to $120 for the rare single... Elton John has had a libel award of 350,000 pounds sterling cut to 75,000 pounds sterling by the British Court of Appeal who described the original sum as "manifestly excessive." The singer was awarded the money in December 1994 after the tabloid newspaper The Sunday Mirror published an untrue story which said he was hooked on a bizarre "diet of death," related to the eating disorder bulimia nervosa. However, the court ruled that, although the article was false, offensive and distressing, it did not damage the singer's personal integrity or reputation as an artist. John said the decision left him 85,000 pounds sterling out of pocket in legal fees. He commented: "Today's decision has given the press carte blanche to print and be damned, and confirmed to the press that it makes commercial sense to print whatever lies they want, and if sued, just pay to them what is a small fine." The decision is seen as a landmark in UK libel history after a mounting wave of criticism over the amounts paid in libel cases. In the UK, for instance, someone who sues after losing an arm can receive a maximum of 45,000 pounds sterling... Black Grape's Kermit is seriously ill in the hospital. He is suffering from septicemia, a form of blood poisoning. The rapper fell ill after drinking dirty water, according to Black Grape manager Nick Nicholls. The band's Bez described visiting Kermit: "He's pretty well built is Kermit and he hasn't got a muscle on him. You wouldn't recognize him, he is that thin." Kermit's illness has forced Black Grape to reschedule UK dates. Finally, the band have been doing recent promotion of work in Cuba after Shaun Ryder was refused a U.S. Visa... Robie Williams, former singer with Take That, is trying to free himself from his contract with BMG. The singer goes to court on February 26 and says the contract he signed with the label while a member of Take That is no longer valid. He alleges restraint of trade and says the label are stopping him from launching a solo career. BMG says the contract gives them the option to release any Williams' solo recordings. Williams left Take That in July... Teenage Fanclub have signed a sponsorship deal with their local Sunday League soccer side. The band are sponsoring Birkenshaw Athletic for around $1,500. The idea came about because of links between the group and their former sound engineer Paul Chisholm. Chisholm, a keen soccer fan, approached Fanclub bassist Gerry Love, who agreed to the idea. Teenage Fanclub's logo now appears on Birkenshaw's shirts.

DAVE DOUGLAS, WAAF, BOSTON

We dusted off our Twisted Christmas CD here at WAAF recently and have once again begun spinning various tracks for the holiday season. I had forgotten what a brilliant piece of work this project is. Bob Rivers at KISW, along with Spike, and Rockfish (now doing AM drive at KNRX/Denver) deserve credit for this masterpiece. "Teddy the Red-Nosed Senator" is, of course, huge around here. Holiday wishes from Boston and all of us here at WAAF.

CATHY FAULKNER, KISW, SEATTLE

1995 was an incredible year! A year full of great music, tons of new bands, and great releases from artists that we know and love. The music industry, during the past, has been full of too many things to list, both good and bad. Regardless, I can look back on this year and smile. There are some amazing individuals who work in this industry, I'm grateful to have the opportunity to work in the same industry as you. I wish you all a wonderful Holiday Season. Best wishes and success to you in the New Year. There's enough time to deal with work... take time now to appreciate what is really important to you!

GARTER ALAN, WBCN, BOSTON

We'd like to thank all the bands and record labels that helped make the WBCN X-mas Rave such a resounding success here in Boston. 24 bands in six venues on 8 stages - all sell-outs! Thank you all for a 110% effort. The event itself began with an engaging set from Jewel, who jump-started a packed audience at the Orpheum Theater, followed by Heather Nova and her group, then headlined by the Dave Matthews Band. Since this was one of only three December concerts for Matthews, not including his upcoming New Year's Eve extravaganza, it was a rare opportunity to hear new music from an album the band is currently recording for a Spring '96 release. Simultaneous shows around Boston began after that, with the Avalon featuring the triumvirate of Buffalo Tom, the Goo Goo Dolls and rising talent Ben Folds Five. Unfortunately, Electrafixion had to cancel for personal reasons, and we offer our sympathy to the members of the band. Next door at Mama Kin, WBCN presented music on two stages, with 311, Everclear, the Bogmen and Spacehog packing the big room, while Mike Peters (formerly of the Alarm) delivered an acoustic set on the smaller stage. Joining him for an electric set of their own were the members of Gene, who flew in from Switzerland especially for the performance! Over at the famous Paradise Theater, the Toadies, CIV and Supersuckers rocked the faithful in a hard rock tour de force. Across the river in Cambridge, the Middle East presented new Columbia signing and Boston fave Janet LaValley with Eve's Plum and Fledgling upstairs while in the large room below, Garbage, 7 Mary 3, and Boston band Mistle Thrush were featured. Around the corner at TT the Bears, Gigolo Aunts, DeluXX, Folk Implosion and God Lives Underwater filled the place until the walls were bulging! All the profits went to charity and we were happy to make money for "Stop Handgun Violence," the Margaret Fuller House and the fight against the deadly disease Tay-Sachs. Blind Melon had originally been scheduled to perform before Shannon Hoon's tragedy, so this entire event was and is dedicated to his memory. Thanks to everyone involved and we were happy to see you in Boston on December 5th!

KEVIN VARGAS, KISS, SAN ANTONIO

Texas! The hot bed for new rock! Has any radio region outside of KROQ been the springboard for more songs and artists in the last year? Talk about takin' Texas to the people! Toadies, Deep Blue Something, Tripping Daisy, the list goes on! It's a "who'd have thunk it" over the amount of record promotion and A&R types who have asked me about our little quadrant of this great big state. Two bands worth acknowledging are Sun Day, and the best reggae bar band I've ever heard, Trinidad Panmasters! Both of these bands have not only cut their chops on covers but do their own material and do it well enough to begin establishing their own identity. Want to know more? Call me or Debbie Alcocer at 210-646-0105. Best release of '95 has to be the 10th anniversary of "Dr. Lyons hi-fi holiday"!! It's in power rotation in my car, home, and often office. I'm surprised syndication hasn't picked up on a Christmas special version for radio.

JAY SISSON, WIXV, SAVANNAH

I'd like to thank Savatage and Gary Hoey for giving us some of the very few rock & roll Christmas songs this year that actually Rock!

LORETTA WINDAS, WXPB, PHILADELPHIA

Greetings from frosty Philly and the offices of the World Cafe! I'd like to put the word out to label-types: We are looking for AAA artists (preferably a solo or duo act) to play our World Cafe Showcase at the Public Radio Conference in Washington, DC May 15-19, 1996. Please contact me, Loretta, for any info you need... Philadelphia is great, thanks for asking, although it's weird being deepinahearta Eagles country (Barry Jeckell, I know what you're thinking, and you can just stop). I miss a lot of you with whom I had weekly conversations. Hope Julie O. is treating you well! Feel free to call me anytime to say hello. Hope everyone has a healthy, safe, and happy holiday!

Laurie Gail, WFNX, BOSTON

It's still happening: One gift for someone, one gift for me. One gift for someone, two gifts for me - you get the point. I was able to score Holiday Barbie and avoid the coupon that gets you the '95 Holiday Barbie in '96! What's up with that? Mattel should be ashamed of themselves. WFNX presented the Mighty Mighty Bosstones Ho-Ho-Hometown Throwdown December 13th-17th at the Middle East (what's left of it). What we're diggin' - Papas Fritas, Ivy,

Tori Amos, Poe, Saturday Morning: Cartoons' Greatest Hits. Have a Fabby-Dabby Holiday and a Barbie New Year!

MATT JONES & JULIE BAHRE, KTOZ, SPRINGFIELD

Just when we thought everything was slowing down, we noticed our box of Christmas music started to overflow. Have you heard "Grandpa Got Worked Over by a Mobster?" Anyway, this past weekend was the Official Merkinball Weekend on Channel Z. We gave away patches of public hair, oh no, wait, it was the new Pearl Jam. Everyone who won said they were about to run out and buy it, so we predict a very strong week of sales. By the way, Mr. Joe Blonde, our specialty show guru is now in the office for calls for Enjoy the Noize, Fear of Music, and MidXMidwest on Thursdays from 12:00 - 1:30pm Central. He doesn't have blonde hair though. We heard a strange rumor about Mary Tripodi giving up her bow hunting hobby for table dancing. What's up with that?!

TODD "JOHNNY CAGE"

HALLER & "RECKLESS" ERIC SCOTT

You know it's not even X-mas and I'm already having to deal with the dysfunctional family gatherings. But it's that time of the year and what is one to do? By the way, if you have any extra space at your place please let me know. I have a lovely mother-in-law to donate. Here's the Top Five Requested Songs putting the Z-heads into holiday spirit : 1. Pumpkins - "Bullet W/Butterfly Wings" 2. KoRn - "Shoots & Ladders" 3. Everclear - "Santa Monica" 4. Pres. of the USA - "Kitty" 5. Alanis Morissette - "Head Over Feet". As we roll through the holiday season, Channel Z hands out the gifts daily with the Top 25 CDs of 1995. Thanks again to everyone who helped put this promotion together, there's so many of you that I would run out of time, space, and breath thanking you all individually. Let me just say that the Z-Heads are really getting in the X-Mas spirit with this promotion. Thanks to Wendy Naylor of MCA for taking time out of her extremely busy schedule to round up the guys of Mr. Miraing for an on-air interview. Plus the tix to check out the band last Thursday in Columbia, SC. Some of our listeners even came back with some cool scars; which means it was a kick ass show!! Also a big thank you goes out to Myra and Tod of Atlantic for helping us put out the call for 7 Mary 3. All last week the Z-heads got a chance to pick up tix to their Dec. 16th show in Atlanta. Plus their killer debut CD American Standard. The phones would not stop ringing all week long. As a matter of fact, I now have a permanent ringing sound in my ears. Also thanks for the Jewel tix for the Dec. 12th show in Atlanta with John Hiatt. All I can say is that Tom Schmall is the man! Thanks for helping us bring new music to the Z.S.R.A. All weekend long we passed out limited edition Merkinball EPs from Pearl Jam. It was like shopping at the Augusta Mall. The Z-heads were begging for their copy of the new tunes. Well, I'm off to look for a parking spot at the mall. You know if I go now I might find a spot for the after Easter white sale. Keep smilin' and surfin' the Z!!!

CHRISTOPHER J. KELLY, WNYO, OSWEGO

I would like to take the moment to apologize to a lot people. I have not been living up to my responsibilities as the Metal Director of a radio station. I have not kept in touch with important record representatives, and my reporting has been haphazard. I do hope that everyone will accept my sincere apology, and all I can do is strive to do better next year. On the other hand, I hope that those people who have become aggravated at me realize something very important — from some of my messages, it seems that some reps have the mentality that this is the only thing I do with my life. They think that I can use the term 'busy' just to have some sort of excuse. Well, the truth is that I have three jobs: I am Metal Music Director, I work at a public radio station every morning, and I am General Manager of WNYO. I also have classes and independent study work that I am trying to keep up with. I try my best and am currently jeopardizing my health to deal with all of the work and stress that is building. I hope that people understand that I have to run a business, and if I can't get in touch with them in a few weeks or even a month, then so be it. Maybe that's a harsh attitude, but I feel that people don't understand my situation. I can't remember the last time I had a real night's sleep. I hope that after this letter, you realize that it isn't personal, it's just hard to do a lot of things at once. If you want to personally talk to me, then call me at 315-341-2101. I am currently looking for someone to take this job, because I can't do everything myself. Maybe by next year I will have resigned, and you can deal with someone new. But until then all I say is I will do the best I can, and you should understand where I come from as well.

RUSS TAYLOR,

WCWP, BROOKEVILLE

This is funny, my first and last dialogue as a reporter. I am graduating in two weeks so I will be leaving WCWP, but Chris Hoffman will be taking my place as Metal Director. I feel this was an excellent experience. I think I made new family. Just want to thank some people who made me come this far. Steve and Gil at McGathy, Sudi at TVT, Anya and Joanne at AIM, Chainsaw at Mechanic, Maria at Metal Blade, Joe at Earache, and especially Cheryl and Smitty at Epic. You guys taught me a lot, and last but not least, Brian McEvoy at Mercury. Feel better and thanks for believing in me. I will be helping out Joe at Earache and hopefully move on up in the industry. If you need to get in touch with me I will be at Earache in January. For the people I didn't mention I want to thank you all. Thanks. P.S. E.J. I still want my Dokken interview. P.S.S. I have gotten a job at Hot 97 working in the promotions department. See ya on the flipside! Love Magoo!
