TOP PRIORITY

Shoveljerk, "Unwind," Capricorn

There's no way around a big, fat, solid hook if you're a fish like us. And the hook jury has to give the nod to the latest release from Shoveljerk. The impending release of their debut full-length Swarm in early February has spawned this EP entitled Swarm Warning. It also contains "Killing My Buzz," which scored some air by virtue of its appearance on the National Lampoon Senior Trip soundtrack. "Unwind" is on the hold button this week, and it's already drawing raves. Swarm was recorded in Seattle under the tutelage of producer Don Gilmore (Pearl Jam, John Doe, Temple of the Dog). This is just a great rock and roll song. The trippy intro sounds like Monster Magnet meets T Rex. It will swirl with tornadic momentum, packing the perfect set-up punch for the finishing rinse of the killer hook.

CURRENT ORIENTED ROCK

The Beatles, "Free As A Bird," Capitol

The much talked-about resurrection of John Lennon's vocal has now been offered up for our consideration, and while it is not the best song The Beatles have ever done, it still merits some exposure. Though controversy is always bred from disturbing the work of the dead, the potential for positive result is ample reason for embarking on the process. Jeff Lynne's touch makes it sound more Wilburys-ish than purist Beatles fans might have wished for (Harrison's screaming slide solo makes up for some of the drawbacks), but the essence of Lennon's storyline surrounding the obvious factual information is moderately stirring and fanciful. The Anthology will do big-time Christmas business. The new Beatles track was also a prime Turkey topic last week. The Fab Four have re-entered our immediacy, and we are all dealing with their legacy in purely personal ways. "Free As A Bird" might help to convert Lennon's assassination anniversary into something more than just somber memory. #2 Most Added with 30 in, including KLOS, WDVE, WMMR and WNEW.

Pearl Jam, Merkinball, Epic

This 2-song collectable EP accompanies Neil Young's Mirror Ball, and features Neil in a backup role on guitar, organ and vocals. In the best "you scratch my back, I'll scratch yours" mentality, Young provides the assist to Eddie's tunes "I Got ID" and "Long Road," both of which jumped on X107 this week. Brendan O'Brien makes a guest appearance on bass. WDIZ's Mike Beck says "This is awesome. The EP is better than anything on the last record in my opinion. This will be absolutely huge. It has the same sort of vibe that Black had." Of 'Long Road,' WZTA's Gregg Steele says "I think, in time this is a record we will all fall in love with." And WRXK's Greg Gillispie says "We thought the songs were very good - a little less moody and a little more rock. We like 'I Got ID' better."

SELECTIONS

OZZY OSBOURNE, "SEE YOU ON THE OTHER SIDE," EPIC

No denying Ozzy's Top 5 performance at COR. The man is back, indeed. We had a rocker for the first outing, now we are sampling something more mid-tempo with "See You On The Other Side," one of a few tunes written with former guitarist Zakk Wylde. It's an inspired track from Ozzy, a man who has certainly dealt with the topic enough to turn it around into a tune with some measure of healing power. It continues to climb at COR, 96-75*, with increased spins at KILO (14-17), KQRC (8-14), WAXQ (9-19), WLZR (8-19) and others.

NIXONS, "SISTER," MCA

This is the tune that got this band the record deal. And early indications are that this is the tune that will break this band. So far so good - They've scored early adds at KBPI, KEGL, WZZQ, WRCX, WBZX, WRIF and others. They've had modest return on previous singles, and although you might have balked at "Foma" and "Happy Song," you will probably find that this tune is better for the radio.

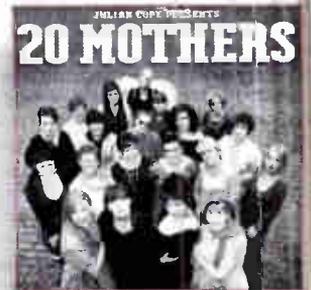

MELISSA ETHERIDGE, YOUR LITTLE SECRET, ISLAND

The full-length is in, and although "Your Little Secret" is a proven winner, you might be provoked to sample a few more tracks. There are as many airable possibilities as there are tracks on the album. New York rockers WNEW and WBAB have launched with "I Want To Come Over," WBAB, WMMR and WRXK are on "I Really Like You," WRXK just picked up "Change," and NEW took advantage of "An Unusual Kiss."

JULIAN COPE, "TRY TRY TRY," AMERICAN

With a debut this week at 96* and 110 total spins, Cope continues to find a home for his retro pop art. Good songs are still good songs. And this one is as good as anything he's brought to the table in quite some time. WARQ's Dave Stewart says "Everybody loves it here. The song felt similar in style to "Breakfast at Tiffany's" and we had a great run with that song."

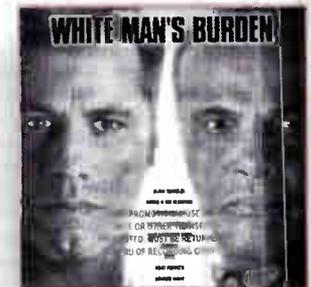

RANCID, "RUBY SOHO," EPITAPH

Rancid follows "Time Bomb" with something decidedly less ska-influenced but no less catchy. Rancid pursues the punk fervor that brought them here in the first place. The anthemic rock crush of The Clash immediately comes to mind. The chorus will knock 'em out. "Ruby Soho" debuts this week with 111 total spins, and at 95* on the COR chart.

ORIGINAL MOTION PICTURE SOUNDTRACK,
WHITE MAN'S BURDEN, TAG/ATLANTIC

Some pretty heavy names grace the grooves of this soundtrack, and therefore some likely opportunities to air the resulting musical offerings. Blues Traveler performs a Cat Stevens-inspired "Regarding Steven," Hootie and The Blowfish tee off on the Roy Orbison tune "Dream Baby," Me'Shell Ndegeocello covers The Chamber Brothers' "Time Has Come Today," and Bush, Cracker, Dave Matthews Band, and Meat Puppets also kick in their own tunes.

KUFO (B-13 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Dave Numme
"A great song that actually sounds almost like an A/C track."

WXRA (M-10 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Randy Scovil
"They just did a show here packed to the gills. We are also playing 'Where the River Flows' because we think it's a better song."

WGRX (B-19 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Brian Beddow
"Getting good reaction to that one. Again, we're having a problem with tempo because we're playing a few slow songs in our medium and heavy rotation. I think it's the best song off that album, personally."

"I think this is a lot more of a novelty song. The bagpipes hook you in, and then the guitar hits you over the head like a sledgehammer."

KIOZ (N-5 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Greg Stevens
"The band has its core following and I'm sure they'll respond to this song."

WTPA (N) MD Dina Wagner
"This is a song everybody knows because of the nursery rhymes. In at night, and we expect Top 5 phones."

"Doesn't seem to be getting much on the phone, but their songs take awhile to sink in."

KRZZ (B-11 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Michael Lee

"Everything's on the increase. Starting to get some phones on it, too."

WDIZ (B-21 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Mike Beck

"Good record. I think they're right down the middle for rock and roll radio right now. The 1995 version of Bad Co..."

WGRX (M-22 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Brian Beddow

"Little disappointed. Not hearing a whole lot of requests. Playing that out of faith."

WKLQ (N-11 PPW WKS-ON:3) OM Tom Marshall

"Building. Not wild about it but it's okay."

WSFM (N) PD John Stevens

"This is a much better release than the last one. This should have been the first track."

WLZR (N-9 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Keith Masters

"I think it has the potential to be a sleeper. There's sort of a feeling that this album isn't as important as the debut, and I tend to agree with that, but it might turn out to be one of those songs that clicks in after you hear it enough times."

WTPA (B-19 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Dina Wagner

"We are expecting this to do really well. It's great - really intense. I think it will do better than 'Simple Lessons' since it's more mass appeal. Still early starting response."

WWBR (N-24 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Walt Brown

"Getting a lot of reaction off the video for some reason. I think that's sparking some interesting. Album sales are not that strong."

WKQZ (N-8 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Paul Oslund

"A lot of people like Dave Matthews, and songs like this make me wonder why. But then I'm not a big fan. Who knows, it may work out."

WRUF (N) PD Harry Guscott

"I like the sound. Dave Matthews just takes time to get into, though. This seems like the most accessible of the the tracks so far on first listen."

WSFM (N) PD John Stevens

"Dave Matthews is huge around here. They have an incredible following. We had 9000 people out to see them last year the day before Easter Sunday. Plus, he hasn't experienced the burn that Hootie has. This track is a little mellow for my taste, but if we can play Blues Traveler we can play this."

WWBR (M-23 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Walt Brown

"It may be too wimpy for us."

"Another one that's really big. People love it. This is a winner cut for us already."

WHMH (N-20 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Dan Peterson

"It's getting a lot of spins. I think people still like him. The Eagles tour didn't hurt either."

WRUF (B-23 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Harry Guscott

"Pretty much universal appeal. No negs at all. Upper demo but still pretty hip."

WRXK (B-23 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Greg Gillispie

"Getting very big phones and a lot of people are talking about it."

WTPA (N-6 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Dina Wagner

"We are already seeing Top 5 phones. Everybody knows who it is and they are excited. The Eagles are big here, even though we don't play a lot of them."

KIOZ (N-15 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Greg Stevens

"Pretty hot already. We've only been on it a few days and I already hear the jocks saying it's their favorite record. Early listener inquiries, too."

KQRC (N-6 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Valorie Knight

"Definitely catchy. I think it sounds great and I hope it does well."

KUFO (B-19 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Dave Numme

"Seeing very good testing. We're very strongly projecting it to be a hit."

WARQ (N-18 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Dave Stewart

"I think it's a great-sounding song."

WRUF (N-7 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Harry Guscott

"It's too early to tell. We get a few calls from the Alternative show."

WFSM (N) PD John Stevens

"Love this record!! Love it. It grabbed me."

WDIZ (N-22 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Mike Beck

"Obviously the Florida connection is the main impetus for us playing this. It's the best of the bunch that's available to us now."

WWBR (N) PD Walt Brown

"Light on the phones right now."

WRIF (N-8 PPW WKS-ON:1) APD/MD Mark Thompson

"It's getting light rotation right now. The response I've gotten from the air staff is positive."

KEGL (B-27 PPW WKS-ON:7) PD Duane Doherty

"It's still pretty unfamiliar, but considering we're the only station playing it, it's doing okay. The phones are still pretty strong."

KIOZ (M-12 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Greg Stevens

"I'd say it's steady, but it doesn't seem to be building at this point."

KQRC (N-10 PPW WKS-ON:6) MD Valorie Knight

"Overall a mid-chart researcher. It's still pretty unfamiliar overall. Starting to test well with the younger demos."

KRZZ (M-5 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Michael Lee

"It's there. It's not really jumping out."

WKLQ (N-8 PPW WKS-ON:7) OM Tom Marshall

"Hanging in."

WSFM (B-8 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD John Stevens

"I was a big believer at first. I'm not seeing it build the way I want it to, but I'm not going to give up."

WZTA (D-3 PPW WKS-ON:7) PD Gregg Steele

"It's incredibly passive, even with the younger demos."

WGRX (M-31 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Brian Beddow

"It's almost over. She burns."

WRXK (B-23 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Greg Gillispie

"It's still doing just fine. We're onto two other tracks and actually getting some good early response to 'Change.' We're still satisfied with the single."

WXRA (M-24 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Randy Scovil

"It's still good - not huge but steady. It's a good fit."

WSFM (M-24 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD John Stevens

"My female demographic, especially the college-aged demo, really digs this record. Her A/C image doesn't help, but this is a real rocking record."

WRUF (B-19 PPW WKS-ON:6) MD Dina Wagner

"That one could potentially go into heavy - getting some phones and she's always done really well for us."

WWBR (M-33 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Walt Brown

"I would have thought it would be dropping by now, but it's still maintaining well. We're just waiting for the next track."

WXKE (B-28 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Rick West

KIOZ (M-4 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Greg Stevens

"Not growing at all. We're exposing it mostly before noon. The awareness is there with the Stones fans, but there's not much interest beyond that group."

KRZZ (N-20 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Michael Lee

"Seeing nothing, not even any curiosity calls. The sales are really marginal in this market."

WKQZ (M-23 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Paul Oslund

"A lot of the Stones fans may be older listeners who don't call in, but they are still a core artist and we are more than happy to get behind them."

WRUF (N-15 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Harry Guscott

"Had initial positives, and now we're starting to see some negatives from the low-end. It will burn quickly."

WZTA (M-5 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Gregg Steele

"It's got about another week. There seems to be no feedback."

WRXK (M-8 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Greg Gillispie

 "We feel really strongly about that record. We're gonna bang it. I think it's a hit."
- KIOZ (N) PD Greg Stevens
 "Finally found a place for it. Sounds good and it's building a nice story."
- KRZZ (B-6 PPW WKS-ON:5) PD Michael Lee
 "That's another great-sounding song. We will move it up, give it more spins and see what happens."
- WDIZ (N-13 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Mike Beck
 "It's doing okay. It's filler right now."
- WGRX (B-10 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Brian Beddow
 "Not a whole lot on this but enough to keep it on."
- WKLQ (B-23 PPW WKS-ON:12) OM Tom Marshall
 "We think that's a hit. Something we also went on early that we've been moving up in rotation."
- WZTA (B-9 PPW WKS-ON:10) PD Gregg Steele
 "It's surprisingly passive. Medium in the 'like' department."

- WKQZ (N) MD Paul Oslund
 "We've had a couple of calls for that - it may be something that will catch."
- WLZR (B-22 PPW WKS-ON:9) PD Keith Masters
 "I think that's gonna do very well. It's busting open, and it feels great on the air. It's just a fun song that's got a good vibe, and it fits well next to a lot of other records."
- WRIF (B-8 PPW WKS-ON:2) APD/MD Mark Thompson
 "It's got lots of headroom to it. It's got a catchy hook and it tests well."
- WRUF (N-8 PPW WKS-ON:2) PD Harry Guscott
 "It gets a few calls, but it's still early. Medium confidence. I think that record will survive through the holidays."
- WTPA (N-10 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Dina Wagner
 "It sounds great - it segues well with what we have on at night. We are hoping to see some reaction, and we really like it."

"I'm playing it to let people know it's there, then we won't play it anymore. It's a curiosity factor. To play it any more than that would be to beat a dead horse."

WGRX (N) PD Brian Beddow

"I went into it expecting to hate the song and not play it. We weren't going to play it before we heard it. ABC has a lot going with it, so we figured we'd play it for a week or two during the day and capitalize on some of the hype and just not get carried away."

WRUF (N) PD Harry Guscott

"Initial interest which I think will wane very quickly. It's probably an 8 because of what it is. The longevity is probably a 4 or 5."

WRXK (N) PD Greg Gillispie

"I think it has a great historical perspective. I don't think it's a great song. Impressed with what they did with it, especially when you compare it to the original demo tape."

WSFM (N) PD John Stevens

"This is something I can play middays and mornings to start. And will see what happens. Personally I really like it."

PALMESE RESIGNS AS MCA RECORDS PRESIDENT

Richard Palmese

On Monday (11/20), MCA Music Entertainment Group announced the resignation of Richard Palmese from the MCA Records President post. During the transition period until a new president is named, daily operations of the label will be overseen by Doug Morris, who last week was named Chairman and CEO of the MCA Music Entertainment Group. "MCA Records has experienced continued success under Richard's leadership," said Morris. "We thank Richard for his dedication and contributions to the label over the years. We now begin a new chapter in the label's history and look forward to further achievements in the future." Palmese stated, "I leave MCA Records with the satisfaction of a job well done, and wish everyone at MCA the very best in the future. The men and women here at MCA are the greatest team of executives in the music industry, and I will forever cherish my 12 years with the label."

DAVID ROSS NAMED CAPITOL VP/ROCK PROMOTION

David Ross

Capitol officially named David Ross VP/Rock Promotion, based at the label's Hollywood headquarters. Prior to joining Capitol, Ross held a similar position at Island, where he initially served as National Director. He also held the position of National Director/Rock Promotion for Chrysalis, after a stint as West Coast Director. Ross began his career at WMET/Chicago. Capitol Sr. VP/Promotion Phil Costello commented on the appointment, "My old man always told me to surround myself with great people and you can't lose. Dave is a reflection of that philosophy. Now if you'd excuse me, I gotta get back to kicking his ass for more Everclear adds!!!"

RELATIVITY ELEVATES BIRCH

Amy Birch

Amy Birch has been promoted to National Director/AOR Promotion for Relativity. She was previously Northeast Regional Director of Promotion for the label and in her new post will be based in the New York office and will report to VP/Promotion Kevin Carroll. "Amy's enthusiasm and drive make her the perfect leader for our AOR team," offers Carroll. "Her background and experience in rock radio are a welcomed addition," he concluded. Prior to Relativity, Birch worked as Advertising Director at the Hard Report. Her radio background includes the MD post at KQDS/Minnesota, and on-air jock at CHR station KZIO/Minnesota. Birch joined the Relativity team in October of 1993.

RADIO RUMBLE

Last month Atlantic Recording artist Edwin McCain, stopped by the WDHX studios to "unplug" with Terrie Carr. Edwin played two tunes off his new CD Honor Among Thieves. After the interview he got together with Terrie, WDHX PD/Lenny Bloch, and Atlantic Rep/Lynn Oakes to see who could make the ugliest face. Imagine being selected as the mythical fifth member of the world's most famous rock n' roll band, the Beatles... Imagine being treated like a superstar... Imagine the life of Roy Katnic and his wife this weekend as grand prize winners of radio station KTYD and KEYT Channel 3's "Beatle for a day" contest! The contest promoted the 3 part "Beatle Anthology" series aired on Santa Barbara ABC affiliate KEYT Channel 3 on November 19, 22, and 23. Roy Katnic was selected at random from the group of listeners/contestants who correctly answered KTYD's Beatle "Morning Show Review" question over the past week. Katnic - the "newest member" of the Beatles, will enjoy two nights this weekend in a bungalow at the Four Seasons Biltmore, Santa Barbara, use of an 8 person super stretch limousine, VIP record service (every cd distributed by the company) for year from Capitol Records, a Ringo Starr jacket, Beatles collector items, an invitation to sing a Beatle song with the Tearaways at their cd release party this Saturday at Toe's Tavern, screaming fans and paparazzi! Criterion Media Group Director of Marketing David Hefferman says Katnic is a perfect winner for the contest: "Roy and his wife actually arranged their schedule this week just in case they won. Roy, is also a musician, and is so excited to sing a song with the Tearaways - he's in Beatle heaven!"

Hundreds of rock music fans filled the Commodore Ballroom Sunday afternoon for a chance to bid on one-of-a-kind collectibles. The event was radio station 99.3 the FOX's (CFOX) first annual rock auction for B.C. Children's Hospital. Items up for bid included a soup can autographed by the late Shannon Hoon of Blind Melon, which was auctioned off for $400. A Fender Stratocaster guitar from Bryan Adams garnished $1000. Elton John and Bernie Taupin's "Candle In The Wind" sheet music was auctioned for $950 and "You Song" went for $750. And, a Lee Paul Sunburst guitar autographed by Jimmy Page and Robert Plant brought in $3100. By the end of the auction, 99.3 the FOX had raised over $13,318.24 for B.C. Children's Hospital. A concert featuring local bands Deadline, Noise Therapy, David Gogo, and Rymes With Orange followed the auction. Proceeds from the concert were also donated to the B.C. Children's Hospital.

98KUPD is proud to announce that Dave Pratt has signed a 6 year extension. The new contract extends through 2001, and Dave extends his career at the Big Red Radio to 20 years. General Manager Chuck Artique pointed out that although he and Dave worked on the details, it's truly Pratt's loyal listeners who sign his contract four times a year. (Arbitron ratings) Pratt commented that 98KUPD has always been supportive, and when it comes to negotiating, "There's nothing a round of golf and a cold beer can't solve." On monetary details of the new contract, Pratt claims, "I have no idea. I haven't seen my paycheck since I got married 7 years ago! I imagine Chuck worked it out with Paula."

BEN ARNOLD'S ALMOST SPEECHLESS

A Philadelphia native (sort of), Ben Arnold has spent the last several years becoming somewhat of a legend in the local music scene. His live shows have been described as electrifying and riveting, and his audiences are willing hostages captured by his performance. A two-week tour opening for Jeffrey Gaines in late 1994 found Ben in front of an audience that included Chris Schwartz, the CEO of RuffHouse Records, and his partner,

So is it true that you started out as a chef?

Ben: I really started out playing music, and then during high school, I started working as a cook in a little kitchen. I got pretty sucked into the restaurant business. It seemed like a great way to support yourself — a good way to feed yourself during the day. I think that where actors always seem to support themselves by being waiters, musicians are always cooks. I had fun with it. I am not very well educated in the sense of advanced education or anything like that. When I got done with high school it was like, 'Okay, that was nice. I went to a high school for four years. I know how to play music. Now what can I do?' I needed to start doing something, so I started working at restaurants and found that I had a talent for cooking. I ended up becoming pretty much a chef by trade. All around, I think I am pretty good at it. I ended up working at lots of different restaurants in different spots in the country, from Seattle, to Virginia, Ontario, and Canada. I've been to a bunch of places. More recently, in the last four or five years, I worked as the chef for Electric Factory Concerts cooking backstage at rock shows.

RuffHouse President Joe Nicolo. After seeing Ben perform, they made him the label's first singer/songwriter signing. Ben recorded his RuffHouse/Columbia debut, Almost Speechless, in Philadelphia. Emotional and raw with intense lyrics, Almost Speechless has ignited AAA stations with its high energy, electric sound and Ben's impassioned vocals. When we sat down with Ben, we went for the meat and potatoes of his story...literally...

That's one way to get your foot in the door.

Ben: It was a cool experience. You would be amazed at what I learned while doing that. You learn a lot about how the real business works, how the real backstage scene is and how a show goes from starting at 6 o'clock in the morning with this cold empty huge space to 8 o'clock at night when the lights go up. It's a pretty intense day. I learned a lot about how the actual production side of things works and who is really in charge and who calls the shots and makes the decisions. It was a great experience. I also got to meet some people that maybe I wouldn't necessarily love, but it was cool meeting them.

Did you ever have an artist ask you for some really weird food?

Ben: Nothing weird. People are pretty normal. I think that was a '70s kind of trend where people were requesting all kinds of strange things. There were some prissy, primadonna acts who wouldn't let smokers within a hundred yards of the building, stuff like that. We served a helluva lot of wheat grass juice, I'll tell you that. You provide a lot of raw vegetables to put into juicing machines. You would be amazed at how many things that you have to provide that the acts say are absolutely necessities, and later you find that they haven't even touched them. The strangest thing we had was Kenny G. wanting to have his room decorated like a Japanese garden, and he wouldn't have any air conditioning on — and when he came to town it was about 100 degrees.

No wonder his hair is so curly. When you were working in restaurants, did you see any waiters do anything disgusting to food?

Ben: I'll be honest with you, I never really saw anything. No spitting or anything. I would never have put up with that. If I saw anybody doing that, they would be out of there. I just have no tolerance for that shit. I would sooner personally say something to the customer than do something physically to them.

That's good to hear. I feel a little more secure about eating in restaurants.

Ben: There are definitely some questionable people who work in restaurants. Restaurants are the new haven of little stars. Everybody wants to work in them.

You've lived in Philly since childhood, right?

Ben: Another confusing story. I was born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and I lived there until I was 3 or 4. Then we moved to upstate New York, in the Rochester area. I lived there until eighth grade, at which point we moved to Philadelphia. My mother and I moved to Philadelphia after my parents split up. I lived here until about a year and a half after I graduated high school, then I moved up to Ontario, Canada, then back to Philadelphia, and then to Seattle. Then I moved to Virginia before moving back to Philadelphia. I call Philadelphia my home though. I have my majority of friends and business associates in Philadelphia.

The music scene has changed so drastically in Philly in the last five years.

Ben: Oh man, it's unbelievable how much it's changed. One of the guys in my band, Christopher Colucci, his brother, Jeff played in Beru Revue for a number of years. Chris' dad dropped off this big box of memorabilia stuff, and in the box were video tapes of Beru's Christmas pageant at the 23 East Cabaret. We were checking it out last night and it was like there were some people The Daves, and people from Beru — all of these bands that kind of ruled the music scene for awhile.

The ones that were that one step below Tommy Conwell. It was just an entirely different scene. Most of the musicians in Philly now don't even know who those guys are. I think it's refreshing looking at those things. I'm sure it was a lot of fun, but the whole thing just looks so corny to me — to be just a show band kind of thing. I love the way the music scene here is going now. It has become less separatist. Bands are more willing to share bills with another band that may not necessarily be in their exact group or click of friends and might not have the same sort of sound going, but they just respect their musicality. No egos involved.

And there are so many more venues now for singer/songwriters than there was 10 or 15 years ago.

Ben: Good venues. They're not huge, so you don't feel that necessity to have two beat deep club bands that bring out six hundred people. You can bring 40 people out and it feels like you have a decent little gig going. It's happening. I used to have a hard time getting into clubs, especially when I was playing more solo. I had a really tough time. They didn't want to hear from me. They would say, 'You don't really have a whole band. You're not busy enough.' Which is funny because then you don't really gain that reputation of being a band rock n' roll guy, and then, all of a sudden, you pop up with a rock band and they're like, 'Where did you come up with that?' I really didn't have the money to support a band for awhile, but now I do. I've had a rock format band for the past four years or so.

Your first release was on cassette, Signal My Arrival, is that right?

Ben: Wow, you remember that?

Unfortunately, I never heard it. I just read about it in your bio.

Ben: What was cool is that I think my timing was pretty good with that cassette. I'm not saying that I am a great trendsetter or anything, but you know, doesn't it seem like everybody and their mom has an independent CD out right now?

Everybody and their mom and their grandmother.

Ben: It's amazing. God bless them. You've got to do it to compete right now. But my timing was pretty good in that I put out that first cassette about six years ago, and that was pretty much at the prodding of Mike Menies, who was the keyboard player for The Daves. He helped me put it together. I knew him from working at the restaurant, and he asked to hear some songs. He really liked them so he said, 'Let's work out some way to get them recorded.' We went and recorded them and put out the cassette. I actually got some press from that cassette. People just weren't doing it at that time, making a cheesy demo tapes. But I made an effort to package it nicely, and I sold a shitload of them. Then after that, two or three years later, I put out Sore, which is my independent CD. With that, I had a record release party — but that was right before everybody was having tons of release parties and everybody was putting out independent CDs, so I ended up getting a decent amount of recognition off of that, plus the fact that it was pretty listenable.

Is it much different from the latest CD, Almost Speechless?

Ben: Yeah. Song-wise, no. As far as the tones of the songs go, no. But the production is very different. I started playing guitar a couple of years ago — I had always been a piano player, piano can be a pretty mellow instrument unless you are Ben Folds...

...And you play it with your feet.

Ben: Guys named Ben are happening right now — Ben Folds, Ben Harper, and Ben Vaughan — the name is out there. The other day, the band was over rehearsing, and I brought out this cheesy little toy piano — I really like Ben Folds, don't get me wrong — but I put it on the floor and said, 'This is my Ben Folds impersonation' and I jumped on it and smashed it. I guess you sort of had to be there...

He does get carried away.

Ben: Where was I going with this?

How the CDs are different...

Ben: Almost Speechless took on a much more aggressive tone because I had just started playing guitar. I wasn't really playing folk guitar, I was playing rock guitar. I got into jamming some chords and making some noise. Sore has much more of a pristine, shimmery quality to it than Speechless, which is just more raw. I think that it works for me a lot better to be raw because I have rough edges and I'd rather not deceive people to think that I don't. I think that's what Sore did. People thought I didn't have these rough edges, because we spent so much time trying to make everything perfect, rather than throwing the songs down on tape; making sure the groove is right and the vibe is right and just turn on 'record.' I hope that people get to see the live show because the live show rocks. If they like the record, they are going to love the live show.

Columbia is putting a lot of pressure on this record, aren't they?

Ben: It's funny because it was a very low budget record that was done as a side project for RuffHouse. What happened was that Chris Schwartz, the CEO of RuffHouse, a Vice President at Columbia, and Joe Nicolo the President of RuffHouse. They were at Columbia playing one of the tracks for Don Ienner, the first track we got done, and Donnie got all excited about it. I can't complain, but here we go, we have this low-budget record, and all of a sudden, they are treating it as if it were a substantially higher budget record, which makes me a little nervous. We could have done such and such and such. If we had another three weeks and another $20,000, we might have been able to do a couple of things differently, but we just rushed and finished the record. It turned out pretty good though.

I think it turned out great. And it's got to be nice having the powers that be at a label like Columbia behind you.

Ben: It's really cool. They had a couple of other acts being released at the same time, and I was nervous that I was going to get brushed aside, but they ended up really giving us a push. They are into helping me build a career, which is cool.

I've heard you compared to Randy Newman a lot, and Elvis Costello. Who have you heard yourself being compared to where you thought, 'What are they thinking? I don't sound anything like him.'

Ben: I tell you, this Randy Newman thing... Did he ever rock?

I'm not familiar with too much of his music, but I never hear him mentioned when people are talking about the history of rock.

Ben: People kept comparing me to Randy Newman so much, and I had never even heard of the guy other than 'Short People,' so I bought Sail Away. I guess some of vocal inflections maybe are the same. And maybe some of the detail in the songs. He's a lyrical guy. Somebody told me Jackson Browne, and I thought that was kind of weird. Most of the people I have been compared to though, even if I don't necessarily love their work, they are really good. So I figure that's okay. Joe Cocker I get a lot, mostly I think in terms of my live show. I get the Counting Crows sometimes, but I don't understand that one at all. I listened to a lot of '70s rock when I was growing up.

And you lived through it.

Ben: My sister had these 45 collections, she was eight years older than me. She was a hippy. She had her room with her black lights on and Jefferson Airplane posters on the wall. I was always checking her albums out, so I grew up listening to Woodstock, Jesus Christ Superstar, Tommy, Joe Cocker, Crosby, Stills & Nash, Neil Young, and a lot of Zeppelin and that kind of stuff.

Did you get into disco at all?

Ben: No, not really. When I first moved to Philadelphia, I lived in the Northeast and for about six months, and we did not like it out there. I had no friends and I didn't know anybody and it was the summertime, and at night I would fall asleep with WIP on. It was right before I got turned on to WMMR. I would go to sleep with the stereo on really quiet, and it was right when Saturday Night Fever was breaking. It was all that kind of easy rock stuff. I definitely tuned into that. At the same time, my folks were really into the show music, and Burt Bacharach, Hal Davis, Carole King, and that kind of stuff. And strange show music like Liza Minnelli and the coconut guy...

The Hard Interview

Jimmy Buffett?

Ben: No, way too hip. Harry Belafonte. We listened to a lot of that kind of stuff. But as far as disco goes, I never felt comfortable with the fashion of the whole disco era so at that time I leaned — and at that time, you really had a choice, you either leaned toward disco or you leaned toward heavier rock. At that time I was more into Zeppelin, KISS, Jethro Tull, and Yes. I was way into Yes. Supertramp, and more like wordy, song-oriented rock stuff.

Did you watch any of the rock n' roll documentary that was on PBS?

Ben: I caught a couple of the episodes. My favorite was the one with George Clinton, James Brown, and the funk episode.

I saw the one that featured David Bowie, and I was surprised that the Ziggy Stardust album didn't do that well, because I was a kid in Philly at the time and it was huge here. I waited in line for hours to get tickets for that show at the Tower.

Ben: That surprises me, too. Philly was his audience for a long time. I think he probably broke in the United States in Philly, New York, and L.A. probably quicker than he did anywhere else. Philly was a big disco town and a big rock town all at the same time. When I watched the show with George Clinton, just seeing how the whole funk thing evolved from James Brown — I guess I always knew that, but they put the whole thing together so clearly. I thought that was such an amazingly well done series. After the show was over, PBS had something on Stevie Ray Vaughan. What they did was play three different sections of Austin City Limits and that was amazing. It was when he was 19. He was this young kid, still just a little uncomfortable, but still on fire rockin'. He was so good. Then they had one from a little bit later on, then they had one that they had taped about a month and a half before he died. You can see him rise to the point of being this bonafide star. The one from '89, right before he died, was amazing.

I imagine you'll be doing some pretty extensive touring soon.

Ben: I think part of the marketing plan involves a fair amount of aggressive touring. I'm into it. We are all into it.

Will this be your first extensive tour?

Ben: I did a tour with Jeffrey Gaines, and one with three other songwriters — a songwriters in-the-round, on the road type deal. Both of them were fun. We have not actually gone out as a band and done any touring yet. We are starting a residency tour tomorrow, which will take us in rotation between Boston, Albany, and Philadelphia. Then we are doing on-offs every week in Northampton, Amherst, New York City, and a couple of other places. I'm really excited. We've been waiting for this tour and we're finally starting it tomorrow.

It sounds like you'll be hitting the cities that have Triple A stations.

Ben: They've been pumping the record to Triple A pretty much. I don't think we have even tried to touch AOR or Modern Rock or anything like that. I think what they are doing is, my impression at least is that they are trying to slowly massage things into that space so that maybe after the first of the year we will slowly start trying to hit some of the AOR and Modern Rock stations. I hope we can climb up these charts and hopefully, people will call in and say, 'like that guy.' I guess that's what everybody hopes for.

TRIPLE ACE

David Broza, "Stonedoors," Mesa/Atlantic
David Broza has returned with a new label (Mesa) and a new album, Stonedoors. Broza has been embraced by the Triple A format since the release of Time of Trains (1993), followed by Second Street (1994). His flamenco-tinged folk/rock melodies have brought the works of American poets to countless listeners who might not have otherwise been exposed to the art. Stonedoors brings us an exuberant and spirited David Broza with passionate and powerful vocals, tackling such lofty poets as Walt Whitman ("O Captain! My Captain!"), and Percy Bysshe Shelley's "Love Philosophy" (retitled in the song "If You Don't Kiss Me"), and contemporary writers like Wyn Cooper, whose poem "Opal, Wyoming" was the basis for the album's opening track, "A Night In Wyoming." Other early favorites include "Yesterday's News," "I Marry The Bed," and "We Are Two." Broza has been a superstar in his native Israel for well over a decade now, and everyone in this format agrees that it's about time he received some major recognition in the good ol' U.S. of A. I'm willing to bet that Stonedoors brings David that long overdue salute to his talent.

THE HOT CORNER

The Beatles, "Free As A Bird," Capitol by David Hall, WRLT/Nashville For 25 years we've been asking The Beatles if they would ever get back together and when. Now they've found a way to do it for us with "Free As A Bird," and I'm glad they did. At first listen "Free As A Bird" may disappoint. It almost has to! It's the first new Beatles song in 25 years and nothing could live up to anticipation and expectations for that. "Free As A Bird" sounds better to me with each new listen. It was a great John Lennon song that deserved to be finished. I'll bet John would rather have it finished by these 3 guys than anyone you could mention. Obviously Paul, George, and Ringo worked on "Free As A Bird" lovingly. They seemed to have had a great time working together again. I'm happy for them and for us, because they found a way to give us another thrill. I'd suggest the way for the Fab 3 to perform for us live is to go out as "Paul, George, & Ringo." We'd all know who that is and they wouldn't have to call it "The Beatles." They don't have to bring in anyone to replace John. In fact, I'd rather hear Paul, George, and Ringo choose John Lennon songs they'd each love to sing and do them. Talk about a John Lennon Tribute! There could be no better.

Gee, let's get cliché, tabloid relativity out of its cell: "more punch than a Tyson marriage," "another 'Knockout' Cooney will never remember," "Everlast has found its girl!!!" and my personal favorite: "sweet & numbing." Candye's second Antone's release Knockout lays the talent out for all to see. This CD will not only benefit most blues formats, but there's crossover potential for A/C and country formats (cut #4 "The Blues I Feel For You," cut #6 "Cheek To Cheek," #8 "Call Me" and #10 "There's Nobody Home"). Even though only eleven songs are listed for our enjoyment, the :40-something twelfth selection examines KFC addiction and is worthy of air in food sets and sponsorship schmoozings. Songwriting credits include Lowell George (Little Feat leader and general genius), Bob Dylan, Rickie Lee Jones, Isaac Hayes, and Ike Turner. Joey Harris (Beat Farmers) lends his vocals out on "There's Nobody Home," while Lou Angeleze provides the non-fictional backdrop for "Shaketown." If your blues fans are like my blues fans, Candye Kane will keep your phones ringing long into the New Year. Thanks Candye! When will round 3 be released?

Howard Armstrong

Louie Bluie

Blue Suit Records

By David R. Day, producer, The Blues Highway, KFXD FM, Boise ID

"Step it up and go. I'm dustin' my broom, don't you see, I'm takin' off. You can go too slow, but you cannot go too fast." These words are part of the spoken intro from Howard Armstrong's version of the traditional tune "John Henry" from his Louie Bluie CD. The envelope the CD was sent in was labeled "Erie Tool and Supply" and proves once again that you can't judge a book... The package I received from Erie was a powerful documentation of this century's musical roots. Howard Armstrong's Louie Bluie is a gem. Tiny Blue Suit Records has produced a wonderful piece of work. A portrait of Howard playing fiddle graces the front cover, and shows one of this multifaceted artist's talents. At 86, Howard not only "grew up with the blues," but helped shaped the genre. The extensive and well-written liner notes describe the life of this remarkable talent. Born in Tennessee in 1909, he learned guitar and mandolin at the age of 9, and over the next eight decades he would play throughout the south and in Chicago. The fourteen songs and three spoken pieces paint a portrait on Louie Bluie just as the paintings reproduced on the front and back covers do. The story of his moniker is explained as a spoken intro to the classic Gershwin tune "Summertime." The simple ditty "This Little Song Of Mine" is a showcase for Armstrong's sing-song vocal style. Stringed instruments are like brushes to canvas in Howard's hands. The mandolin on "Wading Through Deep Waters" and "Sitting On Top Of The World" is lyrical, distinctive, and strong. Traditional guitar work shines on "Louie Bluie Blues" and again on his gospel "When He Calls Me I Will Answer." Howard "Louie Bluie" Armstrong has definitely "earned his steak and cornpone" with Blue Suit's release of Louie Bluie.

Blind Mississippi Morris

You Know I Like That

Icehouse Records

By Paul Kennedy, Premiere Radio Network, LA, CA

When Icehouse Records President John Phillips signed long-time Beale Street performer Blind Mississippi Morris Cummings, he proclaimed that Morris was "the real thing." Listening to Cummings' first-ever release You Know I Like That, he wasn't just a-woofin'! Born in Greenwood, Mississippi,

Cummings has the credentials to sing and play the blues. "My life has been hard," he states. "Because I was blind, I was taken away from my family and out in an institution when I was four years old... and I was there for ten years." He learned music from cousins Robert and Mary Diggs (of the Mississippi Sheiks); was no doubt influenced by another cousin, blues legend Willie Dixon; and claimed the greatest influence was his aunt, Mary Tanner, who played harmonica with the gospel group The Harps Of Melody. Listening to this debut release makes you realize the connection between the Delta blues and what's become known as the "Chicago Sound." Cummings teams up with The Pocket Rockets (guitarist Brad Webb, drummer Tony Adams, and bassist Dan Cochran) to mete out a blues that's raw yet refined, and not as produced and slick as Memphis-style blues can be. (Witness "Junkyard Dog" and "Mean Street" in particular as perfect examples). Cummings' harp playing sears to your marrow, with the nastiest tone you're gonna hear (and you thought guitarists were picky about tone!). Whether it's the shifting rhythmic pattern of the title track or the harp-anthem "Good Evening," Cummings and The Pocket Rockets whip up a serious blues frenzy. Blind Mississippi Morris has seen the light: blues that's pure, raw and powerful... and you KNOW I like that!

HARD Hitters

COVER PICK

Voivod, Negatron (MMS/Mausoleum)

Their's is a familiar name that has taken us from their progressive thrash roots back in 1984, but it was Voivod's '89 release Nothingface that set them up for critical acclaim outside their French Canadian homeland. We last heard from them on The Outer Limits, but with the departure of original member Denis Belanger, that left Michael Langevin and Denis d'Amour to regroup and refocus the influential band. The trio have introduced bassist/vocalist Eric Forrest to the mix and continue their constant need to push the hard rock musical limits. Negatron is true to their metallic track record with bombastic musical entries, like the opening "Insect", the chugging and careening riffs of "Project X" and "Nanoman". If you like to add a futuristic tech side to things, fast forward to "D.N.A", which features the brain of Foetus - Jim Thirlwell - as both a guest vocalist and collaborator; the song is chilling, disturbing, and a raucous, tumultuous journey. And don't think for a minute that Voivod would be left out in the current information superhighway craze, as usual they are ahead of the pack. Negatron doubles as a CD-Rom, compatible to both Mac and IBM formats at a CD price, with the user able to explore information and excerpts from the band as they weave through the puzzle. The Canadian stations - CFOX and CKQB - have already begun spinning the latest from Voivod, and the U.S. invasion of Negatron begins now.

TOP PICKS

Reign, Exit Clause (MMS/Mausoleum)

Most of you should remember Reign from their earlier release Embrace, which got enough airplay to land on the Hard Hitters chart. If you liked what you heard the first time around then Exit Clause is an early Christmas present, showing growth plus increased synergy and strength on this follow up. Maybe this show of musical unity is born from their extensive European tours with Bolt Thrower, Napalm Death, and Sick of it All. If you didn't check this band out the last time around, now is the time to start paying attention because this album features a more groove oriented direction for the band, giving it a grinding intensity on top of their guttural death metal history. Reign already have 33 adds under their belt, but with meaty production and songs like "Freakshow" - it's opening rhythm will hammer it's way inside you; the riff onslaught of "Dei Gratia", and the surreal texture of "Chemical Rebirth", expect Exit Clause to go leaps and bounds past what they have accomplished in the past.

Jolly Mon, Nobody Knows Who You Are (Elemental)

As you slip the release from Jolly Mon into your stereo, prepare to take a trip to a more celestial state of consciousness. From the opening romp of "Is My Name" to the Monster Magnet meets Pink Floyd creation of "Oh No, Not Again," Jolly Mon are more than prepared to take the musical time capsule trip back to the irreverent recklessness of the '70s as well as it's psychedelic style. Their music can adapt like a chameleon to many audiences without changing a note as shown by their opening slots with Ziggy Marley, Candlebox, Beck, and Sky Cries Mary. The band originated in Washington D.C., but established their following after relocating to Portland, OR and frequenting the Pacific Northwest scene. Produced by Drew Canulette (Soundgarden, Nirvana, Neil Young), Nobody Knows Who You Are has been catching the attention of programmers for a few weeks now, with current spins showing up at WXCI, KWVA, KZRK, and Digital Music Express. So why wait, take the opportunity to join in on the festivities with Jolly Mon now.

Notable faces in this gratuitous trade shot taken when Ugly Kid Joe took on Wilkes-Barre, PA include Mercury's Bryan McEvoy, the Ugly Kids Whitfield, Klaus, Shannon, Dave, and Cordell, along with WTZR's Matt Dylan and other station personnel. The only unidentified person would be the bleached blonde in the middle. Hmmm.

The Hard Report

Dismay, In Doubt (We Bite America)

For fans of raw and unadorned hardcore this new offering from Dismay will leave you anything but. This Connecticut based band show their roots with their ferocious vocals that hint toward a young, angry, and emphatic execution in the style of Henry Rollins' guttural intensity. The guitar work features twists and bends reminiscent of early metal fret-work, backed up with drums that drive a spike up the backbone of each song. Featured tracks, such as "Catch 22" "Madness", and "Uncivilization," bombard the senses with the power and consistency of a sweaty muscled worker breaking rock with their trusty sledgehammer. With a two week tally of 24 adds, the Hard Hitters stations are leaving no doubt about the ability of In Doubt to make it's mark on hard radio.

The Obvious, Detached (Grindstone)

Getting this band on your playlist is an obvious choice after delving into this independently release CD. The high quality production is clear and their music, ironically considering their name, makes a subtle impression as it seeps in. This is straight ahead rock with a touch of the tremoring intensity of Candlebox, a good amount of slap bass funkiness, the earthiness of Blind Melon, and the soulfulness of Pearl Jam, without sounding derivative of any of the above. The initial single and title track, "Detached," started the ball rolling, and airplay continues to come in with increases at KDUR, KIBZ, KMSA, KNDI, KWVA, WKKL, WKSJ, WMHB, WTPA, WXCI, WXVU, and XEQC. Now that the full has arrived, be sure to sample the vitality of "Righteous Indignation," the surreal quality of "Life in One Day", or the haunting guitar work that leads off "Nightfalls". Just to make things even more fun, the CD doubles as a CD-Rom for you media buffs, but the real meat and potatoes here is the music. That much should be Obvious.

When Zoo recording artist Nature took to lensing their first video (for "Cometh"), a couple of band members found themselves just hanging around - literally.

Bonar (Nature), Brian Threatt (Nature), Brendan Etter (Nature), Andrew Parsons (Nature) and Jonathan Stearns (director).

HARD Hitters

F I L L I N G S

This week's noteworthy news:

Did everyone notice that new material from Ministry (Warner Brothers) has made its way back into the hands of metal radio programmers? The music, packaged as the three song sampler The Fall/Reload, is just a musical appetizer — the full course comes via the Filthpig album set for arrival January 30th. Add the three songs (album cuts "The Fall," and "Reload," and non-LP track, "TVIII") on the CD December 4th and 5th... Make sure that the five track Soundgarden (A&M) Songs From The Superunknown EP is at the top of your December 4th/5th add lists. The music is now available on the Alive In The Superunknown CD-ROM, and heretofore previously unreleased stuff. Among the included material: "She Likes Surprises," previously only available on vinyl, an acoustic version of "Like Suicide," and the video version of "Fell On Black Days"... Napalm Death (Earache) go for December 4th/5th adds on their 7-song mini album, Greed Killing. The release is just a warm-up for fans of the band cuz off in the new year the full length Diatribes album is slated for release. Look for the entire record to be in stores January 30th... Look to January of '96 for the arrival of Remanufacture, a new EP from Fear Factory (Roadrunner)... Another January of 1996 arrival comes in the form "What Do I Have To Do," new stuff from the Chicago-ites in Stabbing Westward (Columbia)... Look for January 30, 1996 to bring new material (finally!) from Trouble. The Chicago natives, who have joined the Century Media family, will release their new stuff under the moniker Plastic Green Head... Even though a new Therapy? (A&M) full length is set for arrival in January, keep on spinning the Misery EP. ☸☸☸☸ The White Zombie (Geffen), Ramones (Radioactive) and Into Another (Hollywood) triple billing is slated to kick off November 27th with a showing in Hamilton, Ontario. Twelve dates have been booked on the tour, with scheduled stops in the likes of Hartford, Connecticut; Hamburg, New York; Salem, Virginia; and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania... Did y'all know that Seaweed (Hollywood) is currently warming up the audience on the current Sponge (Work) and Candlebox (Maverick) tour. A few upcoming stops include: 11/27 in Plattsburgh, NY; 11/28 and 11/19 in Boston, MA; 12/2 in Washington, DC; 12/4 and 12/5 in New York, NY; 12/7 in Cleveland, OH; and 12/8 in Cincinnati, OH... December 6th marks the kick off to the Ultraviolence (Earache) and Cubanate (Noise) double billing. The duo have shows scheduled from the blast off in Boston, Massachusetts until a December 23rd stop in Los Angeles, California... To kick off the new year, Ozzy Osbourne (Epic), KoRn (Epic/Immortal) and

Life Of Agony (Roadrunner) will take to the rock road - together - in support of their albums Ozzmosis, KoRn, and Ugly. We'll print the scheduled dates as soon as the confirmed shows come in... Odds are pretty good that most in the metal contingent already know that Slayer (American) have a new album set for delivery in 1996. The record, Selected & Exhumed, is chock full of covers of the band's favorite hard-core, punk rock faves. One brand new Slayer track, "Gemini," is among the covers, while two Jeff Hanneman penned, punk originals ("I Can't Stand You" and "DDAMM," short for Drunk Drivers Against Mad Mothers) will also be contained on the disc. ☸☸☸☸ Other notable news: Sepultura (Roadrunner) fans will be very excited to know that the band will have a new album out in the first part of 1996, but until then you can chat with frontman Max Cavalera via the MTV on-line service December 5th. All Sep-heads should go on-line at 9:30 EST and ask the Brazilian metal head some interesting questions... Type O Negative's (Roadrunner) Bloody Kisses album has been certified Gold. Congratulations to everyone who put so much work into making the band a success... A bit of interesting news from the Dog Eat Dog (Roadrunner) camp, the band have been nominated for the Best New Artist award at the European MTV Music Awards. They are going up against (get this!) Alanis Morissette, Portishead, and Weezer. We'll keep ya posted as to the outcome. ☸☸☸☸ On the industrial side of things, Cherry Disc have trimmed things down in their offices, thus leaving Steve Weitasek out of work and looking for a new gig. If you have anything in mind give the man a call at (617) 262-7599... Due to unfortunate circumstances, WHFR/Dearborn no longer has a metal show. We'll keep ya posted as to the whereabouts of Melissa Jackson... KIOZ/San Diego has also cancelled their metal show. And, unfortunately, Fitz Madrid was also let go. ☸☸☸☸ Go Flyers! Peace.

on the cover

Radiohead, "High and Dry," Capitol

Easily one of the most memorable tunes on this particular record, "High and Dry" could do a lot for the texture of your radio station, and is bound toward Top 10. In terms of hook melody and anthemic effect, this song conjures up the pre-War U2 and Alarm ghosts of passion. This goes everywhere that "Just" couldn't. "High and Dry" flexes in tempo from ballad-like to strongly mid-tempoed. It comes off as both personal and potentially mass-appeal. Don't bother trying to base the possibilities on past performance. This song is better than the others. Already in are KROQ, 91X, LIVE 105, KOME, KBBT, KEDJ, KFMA, KNDD, WBCN, WEQX, WKRO, WLUM, WROX and others.

choices

Pearl Jam, Merkinball, Epic

An accompanying piece to Neil Young's Mirror Ball, this 2 song EP features a guitar/organ/vocal assist from Young. Both tunes jumped out on X107 this week, and both will make nice atmospheric additions to your growing Pearl Jam library of radio-ready material.

They reveal a Neil influence in Eddie's writing, and certainly reflect the vibe of the Mirror Ball give-and-take.

Alice in Chains, "Heaven Beside You," Columbia

This one is garnering the early votes as likely successor to "Grind," and musically acts as the antithesis to the first track. Sounding more like The Guess Who than themselves for the first minute and a half of the tune, Alice in Chains exhibit serious depth and texture balance here. With all the critical attention surrounding the drug questions, this tune is a likely response to the judgements. And it's already on at WHFS, WWDX, KNDD, KRRK, WAQZ, WEJE, WMRQ, X107, CIMX, WEDG, WNRQ, WRXQ, WXDX and others.

Virgin

The Nixons, "Sister," MCA

This is the tune that got them the record deal in the first place, and one which provoked KMYZ's Paul Kriegler to state "If the label ever releases this song, they will break this band." Here's the release (CD-pro's a'comin'), and this balladeer rocker sounds destined for mid-winter radio rumblin'. KDGE is spinnin' it 28 times, as well.

Klover, "Our Way," Mercury

If Green Day is working for you, this will too. Although Klover leans a little more Social D. than the youthful aforementioned Geeks, the uptempo firehose rush of "Our Way" loses nothing in melodic comparisons. In many ways, there's more here. WVGO and WUNX are in already.

Original Movie Soundtrack, White Man's Burden, TAG/Atlantic/AG

With new tracks from Bush, Hootie and The Blowfish (a version of Roy Orbison's "Dream Baby," Blues Traveler, Cracker, Dave Matthews Band, and Meat Puppets, it's a soundtrack you'll be wise to contend with. The Bush and Meat Puppets tracks are especially noteworthy in the riff department.

Filter, "Under," Reprise

Here's the latest from the "Hey Man" boys, and this one draws even more NIN comparisons. It suffices to say that where "Dose" didn't have the stuff, "Under" definitely does. If Zombie still kills for you, give in to "Under" ASAP.

Alanis Morissette, "Ironic," Maverick

This was our favorite album track all along, and it looks like KROQ and KOME have stumbled onto it in the early stages. The lyric is pure ironic poetry, and the phrasing and delivery in this tune are tops of the year. This one has a hook that just won't quit, and a story that purely matches up with its title.

Melissa Etheridge, "I Want To Come Over," Island

If you're prone to playing Melissa in the first place, you might want to sample some other tracks from Your Little Secret. Take KXPX's lead on this one, a mid-tempo Melissa mutha with her standard sexy drawing power.

Aztec Camera, "Sun," Reprise

NYC band Aztec Camera have impressed us over the years with unaffected modern pop that always ends up being more listenable than much of the usual singer/songwriter jive we get hammered with as being "new" and "important" in the press hype.

Surfing Brides, "Diceman," IRS

This second single from this mainly British band comes on the heels of some outstanding attention the first single "Everything's Fine" received at the format. With air at WNEW, WBCN, LIVE 105, WEQX, WZRH, WDST, WDRE and a host of others, The Surfing Brides cut through the clutter of the unknowns to become a quantity worth exploring in further detail with a new single!

Dog's Eye View, "Everything Falls Apart," Columbia/CRG

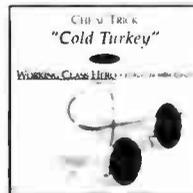

Not officially going for adds until 1/18, but one you might want to try earlier. Already in are KDGE and WEQX, taking advantage of a pop sound that reminds us of those golfin' Carolinians.

Mike Scott, "Beatles Reunion Blues," EMI

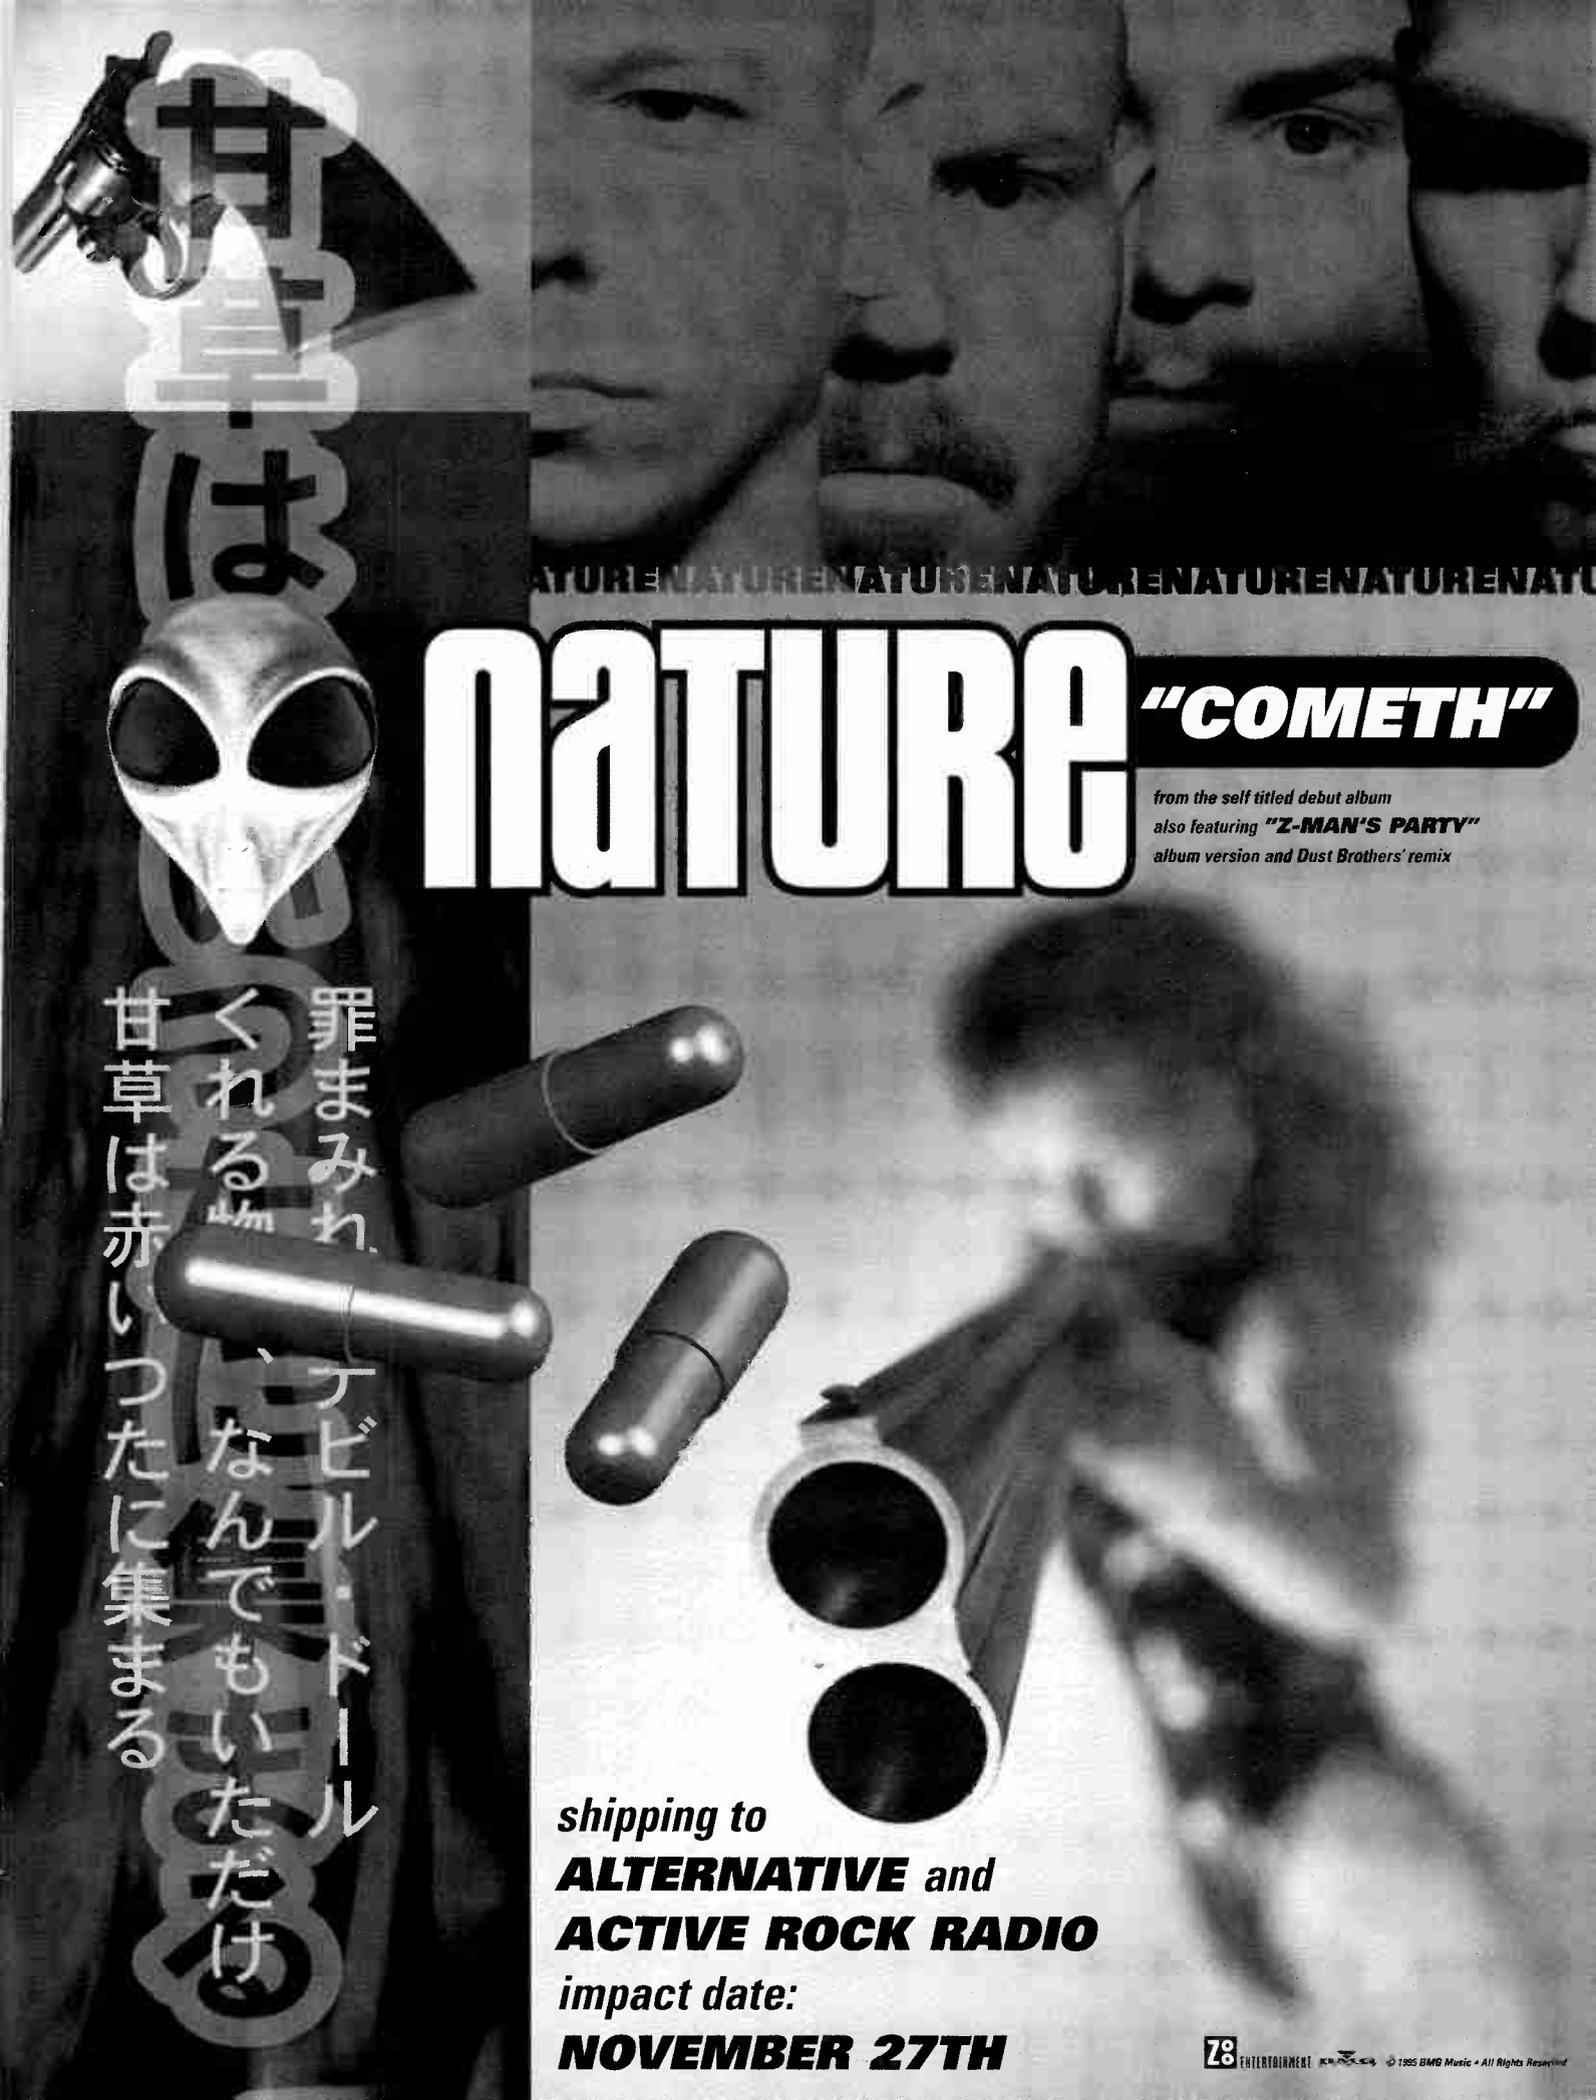

May as well take advantage of a timely topic, and begin the reintroduction of The Waterboys founder's name into the minds of the audience. The label is coming with more material after the first of the year.

Cheap Trick, "Cold Turkey," Hollywood

I know you think I'm nuts. But close your eyes, and listen to this. Forget about who it is that's doing it. Does it sound like something that fits? Thought so. Just food for thought...

Alternative REPORT CARD

Please note that parentheses between station call letters and programmer's name are coded "N" for "Too New", "B" for Building, "M" for maintaining, and "D" for Dropping, along with that week's reported plays on the song in question.

BUSH, "GLYCERINE" TRAUMA/INTERSCOPE

KRRK (B-20 PPW) MD Nick Malloy

"This is Huge. We got immediate reaction. It is probably one of our top 3 most requested songs on the station right now."

KRZQ (B-36 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Rip Ewing

"We had them come by recently, and added 'Glycerine' very early on. We had to stop playing it because we had so many requests, and we knew it was gonna be a single soon. We're re-adding it now."

WDST (B-22 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Nic Harcourt

"This is the easiest thing to play from them - we've played all the Bush tracks at night. This one we play all day. It's the perfect record for us."

WEND (B-13 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Kim Monroe

"We're seeing really good reaction so far. I see that being moved up very quickly."

FOLK IMPLOSION, "NATURAL ONE" LONDON

KACV (B-19 PPW WKS-ON:6) PD Jamey Karr

"That is the really 'jump-out' record of the last 3 or 4 months. It smells like a hit, plays like a hit, and the audience knows it's a hit."

KRZQ (B-39 PPW WKS-ON:6) MD Rip Ewing

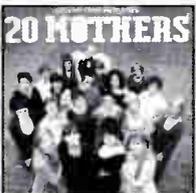

"It's starting to burn a bit, but it's still strong, phone-wise."

WDST (B-22 PPW WKS-ON:10) MD Nic Harcourt

"It's not burning, but we don't want it to, either."

WEND (B-44 PPW WKS-ON:7) MD Kim Monroe

"It's still really hypnotic. I can't get tired of it. The song is still tucked in Top 10 in call-out - big numbers, with very little burn."

JULIAN COPE, "TRY, TRY, TRY" AMERICAN

WDST (B-22 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Nic Harcourt

"Play it - that's the case I'm making. It fuckin' works. It's in heavy here. We added it really early, and I'm personally a fan. It's a great pop song. It grooves - I play it in AM drive a lot."

WARQ (N-17 PPW WKS-ON:3) PD Dave Stewart

"Everybody loves it here. It felt similar in style to 'Breakfast at Tiffany's' and we had a great run with that."

RENTALS, "FRIENDS OF P" MAVERICK

KRRK (B-26 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Nick Malloy

"This is performing really well. They'll be here soon with Alanis, so the show has helped to boost interest. The phones are still strong - this is a young male record."

WEND (B-28 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Kim Monroe

"It's getting some great requests. A cool tune."

KRZQ (M-38 PPW WKS-ON:) MD Rip Ewing

"I think its hit its plateau with us right now."

KACV (B- 7 PPW WKS-ON:4) PD Jamey Karr

"Starting to pick up in the last week or so."

KRZQ (B-23 PPW WKS-ON:5) MD Rip Ewing

"That is screamin'. This might be some sort of ska capital - I don't know why."

WDST (B-15 PPW WKS-ON:3) MD Nic Harcourt

"It's beginning to react. We moved it up last week. It's a good mid-demo song. 25 year-olds love it."

WEND (B-17 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Kim Monroe

"I had quite a few requests for that today. A good 25+ record. The kids don't get it, but that's okay. It sounds great and it breaks thing up."

OASIS,
"WONDERWALL"
EPIC

KACV (B-15 PPW WKS-ON:1) PD Jamey Karr

"We're seeing more on this than with the last one. We're still trying to make a distinction between records with our audience - the releases have come pretty fast."

KRZQ (B-26 PPW WKS-ON:1) MD Rip Ewing

"It's starting to generate a little bit of phone action. We just upped the spins, so we're hoping for a bit more reaction."

WDST (B-22 PPW WKS-ON:2) MD Nic Harcourt

"We love it. This could be huge. It's better than the new Beatles record, that's for sure."

POE,
"TRIGGER HAPPY JACK"

KRZQ (B-18 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Rip Ewing

"At first it was reactionary, and now it has been steady. The area stores are selling out consistently."

WEND (N-18 PPW WKS-ON:4) MD Kim Monroe

"It's still a little early - we're getting a lot of curiosity calls."

CHRISTMAS CROONING

We're sure there's more to be found, but here are a few samplings of formatically-inclined Santa snippets:

Flaming Lips, "Christmas at the Zoo," Warner Bros.

The Zoo referred to in this tune could very well be the rehearsal studio as well as the popular animal house for this band of fun-loving freaks. The lax wit and slouched 'tude prevail on this yuletide ode to the Great Animal Escape, and the Lips enjoy an abundant amount of musicality with this tune as well. CKEY, WOXY and WFNX are already aboard.

Punk Rock Xmas, Rhino

Ho Ho Fuckin' Ho. Yuletide cheer from the dungeons of Sloppy Seconds, Fear, The Damned, The Ramones, D.I., Mojo Nixon and others. And the radio-ready Ravers tune "(It's Gonna Be A) Punk Rock Christmas."

A Christmas Present For You, Zero Hour

With the opening line of "It's Christmas eve in the drunk tank" as is delivered in truly Pogued-like fashion by Grover with Kevin Salem, the mood is set like an Everclear jello mold. Also appearing on this compilation are Dirt Merchants, 22 Brides, Space Needle, and others.

Superstars of Christmas '95, Capitol

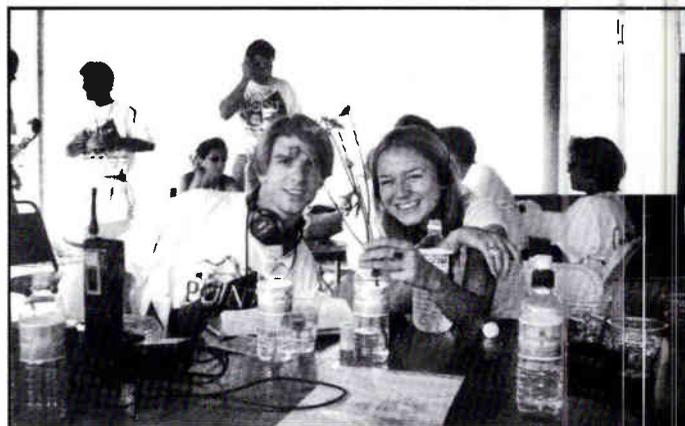

Steer clear of most of this (unless Peggy Lee is a core artist for you), but the cut of John and Yoko's "Happy Xmas (War is Over)" is yours, if you don't already have a copy.

You Sleigh Me, Atlantic

With contributions from Collective Soul, Tori Amos, Juliana Hatfield, Jill Sobule and other Atlantic artists, you've got some names to throw around. Dillon Fence and Everything But The Girl also pitch in.

While the FCC was closed for the shutdown, we heard about some pretty funny stuff that went on. Like Rip at KRZQ saying they ran a recording of the FCC's prerecorded message notifying callers of their closure, and followed that with Dash Rip Rock's "Let's Go Smoke Some Pot." Rip's saying that tune is pulling down the top phones at the station, by the way... Rhino/Forward recording artist John Wesley Harding will be opening Springsteen's solo acoustic tour, with stops in L.A., San Francisco, Chicago, DC, Philly, New York and Boston... Our advertisement for Nature that appears in the Alternative section this week wasn't touched, but apparently another esteemed trade paper required the cover-up of the weapons on the advertisement itself... Silverchair's first Saturday Night Live performance will take place on 12/9, following news that they will be embarking on their own arena tour. Red Hot Chili Peppers' drummer Chad Smith's broken wrist is expected to delay the resumption of their tour until early 1996... Dead Hot Workshop and The Gin Blossoms teamed up with The Refreshments to play a benefit show for Camp Hakuna Matata earlier this month. Proceeds from the performances go toward expanding the size and scope of the summertime refuge, which brings together families coping with AIDS and HIV. Camp Hakuna Matata (translates as "no worries" in an African dialect) is sponsored by a group of dedicated Phoenix residents and the Arizona AIDS Project, with support of private donations and corporate funding. The event was a sell-out - just over 14,000 - and the concert enabled just under $50,000 to go to the camp... LIFEbeat, the music-industry-fights-AIDS organization, has signed on its first wave of artists to participate in this year's Counter AID. The fundraiser will bring together major and "mom & pop" retail outlets with music, television and film stars. From December 1st (World AIDS Day) through December 7th, participating retailers will be asking their customers to round their purchases up to the nearest dollar, with the extra money being donated to LIFEbeat. Artists slated to participate in NY on December 2nd include Lisa Loeb, Sponge, J. Mascis of Dinosaur Jr, Juliana Hatfield, and Naomi Campbell. In L.A., Coolio, Mike Inez of Alice in Chains, Johnette Napolitano and "Weird Al" Yankovic will be among the participants. Speech of Arrested Development will field a register at the Blockbuster store in Atlanta. The Rembrandts will appear in Miami. Additional artists are being added daily... You may have already heard, but Mark Olson has decided to leave The Jayhawks. There is no word about the future of the band at this time... Congratulations to WBZC at Burlington County College for winning "Station of the Year" honors from the National Association of College Broadcasters. They are the youngest station ever to win the award and the first county college radio station to be named number one in America in the history of the award. Kudos to OM Drew Jacobs and MD Earl Gardner... Thanks to John Butler of Silvertone for stopping by to play me the upcoming record from the band Jars of Clay. Watch out for "Flood," the Adrian Belew-produced first single in January. It's excellent, and will stir you up... God Lives Underwater's frontman David Reilly pleaded guilty to charges of inciting a riot stemming from the June 16th incident at WNVE's concert in Rochester, NY. Reilly's sentence - which includes 40 hours of community service in Los Angeles during the next 3 months - is apparently flexible enough to allow the band to go ahead with their in-progress European tour with Filter.

Dan Baird, formerly of the Georgia Satellites, releases a second solo album in January called "Buffalo Nickel." Baird says the music and lyrics combine to say, "I'm not a kid anymore, and I'm not ashamed of it. I'm proud of it! So don't fuck with me." The lead track from the album is "Younger Face," which Baird says is "about the fate that awaits everybody who's in a public opinion bix. People love the new thing. I mean, the day will come when even the Rolling Stones probably won't be able to get a record deal. But, hey, I'm going down swingin'." Baird says "Younger Face" was difficult to write. "I must've used up a minor rain forest of scrap paper writing this song," he says.

Brian Henneman of Festus, Missouri, band the Bottle Rockets readily admits that Crazy Horse and ZZ Top are "two major influences." "The Brooklyn Side," originally released on an independent label last year, isn't called that because the LP was recorded in New York. Actually, "The Brooklyn Side" refers to a special shot used in bowling, even though no one in the band is a bowler. "The balls are too heavy, man," Henneman says. "It's too much like work. And it takes too dang long, too."

Kim Deal of the Breeders has recorded a cover of Willie Nelson's "Angel Flying Too Close To The Ground" with Kris Kristofferson for an upcoming Nelson tribute album called "Twisted Willie." The album, coming out in January, will also feature Waylon Jennings with L7; and Johnny Cash backed by Kim Thayil of Soundgarden, Sean Kinney of Alice In Chains and former Nirvana bass player Krist Novoselich.

Matt Sharp's involvement in the Rentals doesn't mean he's turning his back on Weezer. The band is recording songs for an album to be released next spring.

Henry Rollins, the Gun Club, Phranc, the Muffs and Mike Watt will perform at a benefit in Los Angeles on December 18 for three organizations which help runaway and homeless youth in the Hollywood area.

Ruby, the band formed by Lesley Rankine, former lead singer for Silverfish, releases its debut album "Salt Peter" in the U.S. in early January.

George Harrison reportedly primarily agreed to participate in "The Beatles Anthology" television special because he needed the $80 million he will earn for his part in the production. John Lennon's former personal assistant, Frederic Seaman, told the New York Post newspaper that Harrison "didn't want to participate until his accountant ripped him off for millions of dollars." Harrison filed a $25 million lawsuit earlier this year in Los Angeles against former business partner and financial manager Denis O'Brien, claiming that his investments were mishandled, costing him at least $16 million over two decades. Harrison, meanwhile, told a television program in Adelaide, Australia, that the television special means people will recognize him again and he joked that "by the time the show comes out I'm going to have short blue hair."

Bon Jovi had to cancel a concert in Perth, Australia, because drummer Tico Torres has been suffering from a recurrence of tendonitis. Torres was told by doctors to take four days off to reduce the swelling in his wrist.

Frank Black releases an album called "The Cult Of Ray" at the end of January (on American Recordings).

Keith Richards says the Rolling Stones are on "a winter break kind of thing" until the band begins touring Asia and South America with a concert in Bombay, India on March 1.

John Hiatt says the title song of his "Perfectly Good Guitar" album unintentionally got criticism from one of the members of the Who. "It was meant to be a joke more than anything else, but also with a bit of poignancy to it," Hiatt says. "But Pete Townshend, I am told, was on Letterman kind of bitching and moaning that I was castigating him somehow for smashing guitars, which of course is ridiculous. It's a grand part of our rocking tradition, the destruction of instruments. I've smashed a couple guitars, and then wished to God I had 'em back. But I guess maybe it's a metaphor for other things we've smashed, and wish we had back." Hiatt says he doesn't consider his latest album "Walk On" to be part of a particular stage in his career. "I see it as I get a bunch of songs together, and then get a group of musicians together, and then we go in and try to let the songs tell us where they want to go. I kind of look at record-making as taking a picture of the songs," he says.

Alan Hull, leader of the veteran British folk-rock group Lindisfarne, has died of a heart attack at age 50. He was pronounced dead on arrival at a hospital in his hometown of Newcastle. It's believed that he died of a heart attack.

An asteroid has been named for the late Jerry Garcia of the Grateful Dead. Simon Radford of the Radio Astronomy Observatory in Tucson, Arizona, and Ed Olszewski of the Stewart Observatory at the University of Arizona applied to the International Astronomical Union to put Garcia's name to asteroid 4442, which was discovered in 1985 and orbits between Mars and Jupiter.

City officials in Gary, Indiana, want to turn Michael Jackson's childhood home into a museum that would be the centerpiece of a 400-acre rock & roll amusement park. "I think the dynamics of Graceland suggest how you can successfully build around a famous personality," says outgoing Gary mayor Thomas Barnes. Jackson family members are said to support the idea.

Van Morrison and Bono of U2 appeared at a rally in Dublin, Ireland, in support of introducing divorce in the Catholic country just days before a referendum on the issue. Divorce has been banned under Ireland's constitution for 70 years.

John Lydon, formerly of Public Image Limited is mixing a solo album for release next year (on Virgin Records).

Alice In Chains' self-titled album sold 189,000 copies during its first week out as it debuted at number one on the album sales chart.

Rita Coolidge will release an "Out Of The Blues" album next year as well as going a national tour of "The Best Little Whorehosue In Texas." She's also planning to marry keyboardist Tim Veasey.

Wet Wet Wet, Eternal, Squeeze and Bitty McLean are on bill for the Princess Of Wales' Concert of Hope at Wembley Stadium in London on World Aids Day — December 1. "We are proud to be involved in any way we can and particularly in helping the Princess of Wales's Concert of Hope continue as a major fundraiser and symbol of caring for those in need," Wet Wet Wet said in a statement.

The London tabloid newspaper the Sunday Mirror is appealing a court decision two years ago ordering it to pay $550,000 to Elton John because it ran a story saying he was on a "don't swallow and get thin" diet. Jurors awarded the money as "exemplary punitive damages" as they agreed with John's attorneys that the story, which carried the headline "Elton's Diet Of Death," was published to hype newspaper sales and with reckless disregard for the truth. The newspaper claims the judge should not have let the jury decide the amount of the award.

Bruce Springsteen says playing with Joe Grushecky & The Houserockers rekindled his interest in working with the E Street Band for his "Greatest Hits" album. "There was a reconnection to certain themes that were rooted in a lot of my own music, that I feel close to. Some blue-collar themes, the state of things as they are out there," he says. Springsteen also produced Grushecky's "American Babylon" album, which was released last month (on Razor & Tie Music). "It actually led me back to cutting live with the E Street Band," Springsteen says. "Working with them, I said, 'Next time I work with the E Street band, I want to cut them live.' So when we went in for the 'Greatest Hits,' that's what we did."

Catherine Deneuve, Blur, MC Solaar, Bjork and East 17 are scheduled to participate in the MTV Europe Music Awards being given out in Paris on November 23. Leading nominees for the awards include Michael and Janet Jackson, REM, the Rolling Stones, Oasis, Blur, Bon Jovi, Green Day, Madonna, East 17, U2 and Lenny Kravitz. While the awards are described as being for Europe, Bjork is the only one of the 37 nominated artists who does not come from an English-speaking country. However, two French clip directors have been nominated for their work: Jean-Baptiste Mondino for Madonna's "Human Nature" and Michel Gondry for Massive Attack's "Protection."

Britain's National Trust has purchased Paul McCartney's childhood home in Liverpool. The organization, which preserves historic sites, purchased the terraced house in a public housing project where the McCartneys lived from 1955 to 1964. "My mum would have been dead chuffed to think that our little council house would end up with the National Trust," McCartney says. "This house was the scene of many of the Beatles' formative years, such as leaving for Hamburg, rehearsing and writing songs. Sometimes we made quite a noise and I hope it will be quieter now the National Trust has got it." The price of the house was not disclosed.

Some of the royalties from the Beatles' "Free As A Bird" will be donated to the Romanian Angel Appeal, an AIDS charity established in 1990 by Elton John and the Beatles' wives. Olivia Harrison told the Reuters news agency that the band "donated a percentage, a very large amount of money, of their royalties for the project." "We spent some $4 million over the past five years in many projects," she explains. "We have done a lot of renovation and paid salaries for many of the nursing staff in two clinics." One of the AIDS clinics is in the Constanta hospital, which has the highest rate of pediatric AIDS cases in Europe.

Jane Siberry says the 20-minute song "Oh My My" on her new album "Maria" is "in response to the media's disrespect for people in the way that it sees everyone as a source of money if you can just manipulate the listener or viewer in the right way. All of these things, I feel, eventually make you feel like an object without any worth or value." Siberry says she's gone through emotional times in the first half of the 1990s. "I've done a lot of work in the last five years just to clear out my body which includes all of the emotional stuff that is stored. Lately I feel like I'm coming out of a long tunnel and things are just beginning to manifest itself into a better quality of life. I'm in a great space now and I trust myself more than I ever have."

Man...or Astroman? are recording a new album with producer Steve Albini (for Touch & Go Records), having moved their base of operation from Auburn, Alabama, to Atlanta and Athens, Georgia. The band is planning a tour of Australia and Japan this winter and will record a song called "Interplanet Janet" for a "Schoolhouse Rock" album (on Atlantic Records) which will also feature Beck, Mudhoney and Biz Markee.

Bass player Nikki Sixx says Motley Crue will have a new album out during the first half of next year called "Personality #9." It was recorded with Scott Humphreys producing. A "Christmas Song" will be out before the end of the year.

David Reilly of God Lives Underwater has pleaded guilty to a misdemeanor charge of inciting a riot in connection with a free outdoor concert in June in Rochester, New York. Reilly told the crowd to "have fun and express yourself" and moshers got through the barricade separating them from the stage, prompting security police to pepper spray the crowd. Reilly's been sentenced to 40 hours of community service in Los Angeles during the next three months.

Soul Asylum have recorded a track for "Sweet Relief II," a compilation of covers of Vic Chestnut songs that will benefit the Sweet Relief Musicians Trust.

Edwyn Collins says he waited four years after the release of "Hellbent On Compromise" to put out his new album "Gorgeous George" because he wanted to build his own studio to work with other groups and learn production techniques. "Basically I was using the groups I was working with as guinea pigs," he says. "It took me three years until I felt comfortable enough to start work on my own record." Collins says the new LP is "satirical in nature, especially the title track. Before, I wrote a lot of unrequited love songs."

Dale Maharidge's book "Journey To Nowhere: The Saga Of The New Underclass" will be re-issued in February with an introduction by Bruce Springsteen, who has promised to help promote it. Springsteen says the book, which sold only 10,000 copies when it was first published a decade ago, helped to inspire his new acoustic album "The Ghost Of Tom Joad." Author Maharidge and photographer Michael Williamson spent three years in the early 1980s investigating how formerly middle-class people end up living on the streets. The first edition of the book began with the closing of steel mills in Youngstown, which have since been replaced by prisons. "You can bet I'll be looking to see if some of the people who once worked in those mills end up living in those prisons," Maharidge says.

Guitarist Tommy Thayer, formerly of Black N' Blue, has left #9 so he can put together an expanded version of Kiss' book "Kisstory." Thayer took time off to organize this year's Kiss convention tour. He'll be replaced by former Rozy Coyote guitarist Jay Gillie, who filled in when Thayer was overseeing the convention tour.

Kix have released a new album called "Show Business" which features guitarist Brian "Damage" Forsythe, who left the band after it released a live album in 1993. Damage had been working on a project with former Faster Pussycat bass player Eric Stacy. Filling in for Forsythe on the road is Pat Dement, who vocalist Steve Whiteman describes as "just a real wiry, blues foundation kind of guitar player, which is kind of up our alley." Dement's only playing with the band on one tour because he has a commitment to another group, so the 17-year-old band is still looking for a guitar player. "I think people know that we're a real band," Whiteman says. "We don't jump on the latest trend. We're not wagoners, by any means. We unfortunately kind of got lumped in with that kind of music like the Britny Foxes and Trixters and Poisons and Nelsons and stuff like that, because we were all popular at the same time. But we'd been around 10 years before any of that stuff ever came out."

The Delevantes are recording the follow-up to "Long About That Time" (for Rounder Records) with producer Garry Tallent for release next spring.

Craig Ross, formerly of Storyville and the Stick People, will have a solo album out in March (on MCA Records).

"Weird Al" Yankovic has a compilation album just out (on Scotti Brothers Records) called "The TV Album," which features his songs with television themes, including "Ricky," "Bedrock Anthem," "Money For Nothing/Beverly Hillbillies," "The Brady Bunch," "I Lost On Jeopardy" and "I Can't Watch This." The LP features art work by Mad magazine illustrator Jack Davis.

Matt Freeman says Rancid took more time to record their latest album "...And Out Come The Wolves" than they did with "Let's Go." "Let's Go" we did in like six days," Freeman says. "We just buzzed right through it. This time we had a little bit more money and a little bit more time. We spent about five weeks on this one. We recorded 40 songs, finished about 25 to 35 of them and then actually put 19 on the record. We maximized our time. It still seemed hectic, though. I think that we still think that we don't have enough time, we have to maximize everything or we're never gonna get a next chance." Freeman says he's particularly pleased with the mixing by Jerry Finn, who worked on Green Day's "Dookie" album which Freeman says sounds "fuckin' hell good, dude."

The Bank of Jamaica has honored Bob Marley with limited-edition gold and silver coins.

Ruben Blades has been replaced by legislator Gloria Young as leader of the Papa Egoro political party he founded in 1992. Blades had said he was stepping down to concentrate on his artistic career but he says he's not ruling out another run for the presidency in 1999.

Slayer releases a new album early next year called "Selected & Exhumed" which sees the band covering its favorite hard-core punk tunes. There are also three new songs by Slayer, including one called "Gemini" written by band members Tom Araya and Kerry King. "This record is something I've wanted to do for a long time, but we're only getting around to it now because we're just a bunch of lazy bastards," says guitarist Jeff Hanneman. "A lot of our younger fans have never been exposed to this stuff. Wait 'til they hear they hear what we do with it. Everybody will see that the soul of this band is punk rock."

Matthew Sweet has a new song called "My Pet" on the "Ace Ventura II" soundtrack.

Three appearances by Marie Osmond on a cable television shopping channel sold over $3 million of a set of twin dolls called Jingles & Bells that Osmond developed.

Jeff Buckley has written the liner notes for upcoming compilation albums from Nusrat Fateh Ali Khan.

The Beatles' single, "Free As A Bird," was launched in the UK on November 20 when the video to the song was played on the 1TV network. The first UK showing followed a series of tributes to the band from media figures and musicians, including Oasis' Noel Gallagher and Paul Weller. However, some have been critical of the recording. Jonathan King described it as "awful", while feminist writer Germaine Greer said, "They're flogging a dead horse." Elsewhere, Apple: MD Neil Aspinall has been talking to The Guardian newspaper about putting together the forthcoming 'Anthology' and how it happened. "I said to Paul, George, Ringo, and Yoko, 'Let's do it!' I realized the one thing we had that nobody else had was access to interviews with the surviving Beatles and all John's interviews." Other industry commentators have been slightly more cynical. The Guardian quotes one unnamed source, who commented: "In fairness, it's probably happening now because of the conjunction of George's finances (Harrison is said to have lost 16 million pounds sterling when his film company Handmade Films failed — he is currently suing former advisor Dennis O'Brien for negligence) and the fact that Paul has always been disappointed in his career since he stopped being a Beatle. This is his chance to be one again." 'Anthology' begins its British TV run on 26 November... Bob Geldof's wife Paula Yates says the couple are still friends. Yates says, "People who divorce are in pain. As far as that allows us to be friends, we are." She also says that she wrote a recent autobiography because, having lost her job as a breakfast television presenter, she needed the money to buy a house for herself and her three children... Rough Trade Publishing are behind a new compilation Space Mountain. The album includes tracks from such artists as Tindersticks, Done Lying Down, and Papa Brittle. The company recently launched a site on the World Wide Web, the first publishing company to do so... Done Lying Down continue to pick up strong UK press with their latest single "So You Drive," available via the UK independent Immaterial Records. The band, who features an American singer, release a new album early in 1996... Jill Furmanovsky, the acclaimed rock photographer, has published a collection of her photos entitled 'The Moment', available via Paper Tiger Books. The book features shots of such artists as Sting, Stevie Wonder, Pink Floyd's Dave Gilmour, Blondie, Charlie Watts, and The Clash... Ace Of Bases' Ulf Ekberg says he is tired of people referring to his past. Ekberg was formerly a skinhead in a gang with right-wing leanings, but now says: "I was 12 years old. You're not really very smart at that age. I made a big mistake. It's hard to get out, but I did, six years ago. I stopped when I started to think."... Crowded House's Neil Finn says former Split Enz designer Noel Crombie guided him through experiments with LSD. Talking to Q, Finn says, "I'm very grateful to him because he taught me that if you were going to do it, you had to treat it with respect. You had to make sure the house was tidy, you put on a clean suit of clothes, you shaved and everything was just so. Then you'd go for a walk and come back and everything would be nice clean lines."... The Charlatans' Tim Burgess has hit out at Green Day. The singer says: "We're the anti Green Day. You can hear massive big hearts in our music. With Green Day, you obviously can't and I want to rid the world of 'em."... The Prodigy's Keith Flint says he likes guitar music. According to Flint, "The Stone Temple Pilots are gods! Zeppelin, The Foo Fighters...The guitar is to rock what the synth is to dance music; it gives you a mind tune. When a guitar's wailing at you and someone's strumming it with all his heart, it just lives." Speaking to Raw, he also talks about body piercing. "It's something you've got to do for yourself, not to impress anyone else. I used to be a jewelry man, but I just find this (displaying his pierced tongue) a more personal piece of jewelry. I'm gonna have everything done in a straight line down my body." Prodigy is currently recording a new LP... Holly Cole, the Canadian singer, says the doctor who delivered her predicted she would be a singer. Speaking to Ikon, she says, "When I was born, it was a long, hard hellish delivery. Or so my mother tells me. When I popped out, the doctor lifted me up, smacked me on the ass, and I let go an enormously loud, deep howl. And he said to my mother. 'I guess you have a little alto here.'" Cole's album, Temptation, has just been released in the UK. The collection of Tom Waits' songs is the first of Cole's LPs to get a UK release... The Shamen's Mr C is to launch a new club, The End, which will open in London on December 2. Mr C and partner promoter/DJ Layo Paskin say the club will feature underground DJs on the cutting edge of dance music... Black Grape's Shaun Ryder has been talking to Muzik magazine about the early days of the UK Acid House explosion. According to Ryder, "We had this gaff (house) in Fallowfield (Manchester) and we were living in the house where the E was. We had the only E in Manchester at the time. It was all coming from the same people. Half was going to London, half to Manchester. And after giving the E away for a few weeks, we had queues outside our house. We used to have longer queues to get into our parties than there were outside The Hacienda. It was fucking mad." Black Grape have been forced to cancel US dates because Shaun Ryder was refused a US visa. Ryder has been convicted for drugs and needed special waivers to get a visa. These were not applied for in time for the band to tour. The Mean Fiddler Organization are rumored to have bought yet another London club. The company already own such theaters venues as The Forum and The Garage, as well as running the Reading and Phoenix Festivals. Unconfirmed reports say the company has purchased The George Robey pub which has been a punk venue for the last few years... The Human League's Phil Oakey says Pulp's recent success has helped them in their hometown of Sheffield, north England. According to Oakey, "They've actually done us a favor. There's no-one in Sheffield nightclub looking for members of our group to beat up. They want to beat up Pulp now." Pulp's new album Different Class (Island) has gone platinum in the UK, selling 302,000 copies in its first week of release, a figure close to Oasis' record-breaking 350,000 for (What's The Story) Morning Glory?... Glen Matlock, the former Sex Pistol, is mixing a solo album in a London studio... The Beautiful South have recorded a new single for Go! Discs. The band recently set out on a UK tour... KKS-One says he doubts whether humans originated on earth(!) The rapper says, "Now I'm entertaining the idea that humans didn't even originate on this planet. I think we came from other galaxies. This planet came into existence through some other means. Either we were brought here, came here and we went from a Stone Age to where we are now. Someone intervened and taught us language and through language we were taught to conceptualize a reality. The concept of us evolving into this state is ludicrous."... Morrissey's latest UK single is "Boy Racer", a track from his Southpaw Grammar album (RCA Victor). Additional tracks available on different formats are "London," "Billy Budd," "Spring Hill Jim," and "Why Don't You Find Out For Yourself?," all recorded live at London's Drury Lane Theater. Morrissey is currently touring the UK with David Bowie... Easy Listening is one of the latest club crazes in the UK. Already featured on national TV news programs, clubs such as World of Cheese at Stoke's Cafe in Bristol, south-west England, and London's The Indigo Club are attracting large audiences to listen to records from the likes of Herb Alpert, Burt Bacharach, and Nancy Sinatra... Hank Marvin re-visits his past as a member of Cliff Richard's backing group The Shadows with the release of Hank Plays Cliff. The twangy one brings his inimitable tone to 16 of Cliff's UK top ten hits. Richard guests on four tracks... Mice, the new project from former All About Eve singer Julianne Regan, released a single, "Mat's Prozac," via the independent Permanent Records this week. The band will play their first live dates in the near future... The Stranglers' sessions for the BBC Radio One network between 1979 and 1981 are featured on "Radio One", available via Essential/Castle. The album features alternate versions of such tracks as "Something Better Change," "Down In The Sewer," and "No More Heroes"... Jah Wobble's new album is Heaven And Earth, available via Island... The Wannadies have been picking up strong press for their Be A Girl album (Indolent). The band's singles "You And Me Song" and "Might Be Stars" have been extensively played on Alternative specialist shows such as the Radio One network's

"Evening Session"... The Wedding Present have been working on a new album. The band recently released a mail order only single, "Sucker," on their own Wedding Present Records... Bruce Springsteen's The Ghost Of Tom Joad has been getting rave reviews in the UK with many critics saying it is Bruce's best LP for years... The Selecter, British ska band, have a new album Pucker! (Dojo) in store now. The re-formed band are currently on a UK tour. Manic Street Preachers' guitarist Richey Edwards, who went missing from the London Embassy Hotel this year, may be dead according to the policeman in charge of the enquiry into his disappearance. Detective Sergeant Stephen Morey of the London Metropolitan Police told Vox this was his personal view, but that the case remains officially open. He said Edwards could have gone to Europe, despite leaving his passport at the hotel: "You can hop on a yacht and be over there without a passport, landing in a small port. It takes a wee bit of planning and a little bit of negotiation with the yacht skipper, but I would have thought that it can be done. I'd have thought that if something like that happened, with the publicity, we would have been notified." The Vox article also said that Sinead O'Connor contacted police with a theory that Edwards had gone to stay with a fan in Hereford, south west England. A check revealed no evidence... Ministry's Al Jourgensen has been talking to Melody Maker about the recent police raid on his Texas home. Jourgensen said: "They came in with 30 people, man. They'd heard from somewhere there was an armed compound, or something. You know, Waco/RevCo, RevCo/Waco, they sound kind of similar. They sent DEA, FBI, local, state, county, it was like a cop show, it was great." Jourgensen also clarified the charges against him. When asked if he had been charged with possession of heroin, Jourgensen replied, "No, that's not quite true. Well I've not been indicted yet. I've been charged with possession of pot — like, a joint — and they found this empty bag of an unknown powder. I mean, I haven't been in the house for six months, because I'd been moving stuff back to Chicago. I'd been home for one day and I guess someone just thought, 'They're back! It's our last chance to go and get the baby-killing satanic cult! Yeeha!' Set-up man. It was quite funny, I guess." Jourgensen denies he has drug problems. Elsewhere, the Ministry and Revolting Cocks man said press coverage may have had something to do with the raid. Referring to an article by New Musical Express journalist Keith Cameron which made reference to crack and heroin use, Jourgensen said, "I forget that this stuff gets printed. They seemed to have a couple NME's as a matter of fact. I'm dead serious. They'd been scouring over them, reading them. So I take the Fifth on all drug-related questions now."

LOOKERS

Help! Get this country music rash Hoff me! Female on-air personality with 11 years experience seeks full-time in north central Florida area. Good with phones, production, and appearances also relatable on-air, and very loyal to station. Nice package! Call Pam Grey at (904) 750-2072

CARTER ALAN, WBCN-FM/BOSTON

WBCN would like to thank Duke Erikson, Butch Vig, and Shirley Hanson of the band Garbage for dropping in and talking on-air with mid-day host Bradley Jay. The group is on its first tour as a group after releasing that fantastic debut album on Almo/Geffen this summer and hit Boston to perform at Axis along with Acetone, a moody and precise Velvet Underground-esque outfit whose members pulled off a decent, trance-like set. Garbage took the stage in front of an ever-tightening sell-out crowd and although this was only the band's seventh gig, the musicians united effortlessly behind Manson's undulating dance. Both "Vow" and "Queer" have done well on the air at WBCN, we'll be getting on a third track soon enough. Right now the band is set to return to Boston on December 5th to be part of the station's "Christmas Rave" concert series all across Boston. The same day as the Garbage visit, members of Collective Soul also dropped in to chat with afternoon host Mark Parenteau. A year into the campaign for the band's second album finds Collective Soul in fine shape. "December" was a season-long smash at many stations including WBCN while the newest single, "The World I Know," is currently climbing the charts with a video firmly in place at MTV. Strange that 'BCN is the only station in Boston playing this gem since it seems like such a stone-cold smash. We'll see if it does as well as "December," which had an abnormally-long and successful run. Thanks to Paul Brown, newly instated guru at Arista, for hopping the shuttle up to Boston many times and is quite accustomed to packed houses. "The Big Burn" has done well at WBCN and we're looking forward to next year's single. Meanwhile, the Bogmen also return to Boston on the 5th to play the WBCN "Christmas Rave." Music calls are accepted on Mondays at (617) 266-1111 between 11AM and 5PM. Adds are available on our ADD-LINE after 5PM on Tuesdays at 424-8865. In addition, the Music Department has a FAX machine which is always available at that same number anytime.

MARTY BENDER, WFBQ/INDIANAPOLIS

OK, here's the deal. We want free bands for our Christmas show. We don't wanna pay for nothin'. Don't think you can sneak by with some baby band either? We only want the big guys. Of course this doesn't mean we have to really play the record... A couple spins in overnights and during our new music show oughta do it. Of course this whole deal has to be an exclusive. Even if our competition played the song first we don't even want them doing an artist ID or a phoner or nothin'. And don't think because we're gettin' this free band we have to add the next track or heaven forbid, another one of your artists and/or priorities down the road, so what are you waiting for? Merry Christmas.

CATHY FAULKNER, KISW/SEATTLE

KISW presented an incredible "Low Down Show" with 7 Mary 3 at the Weathered Wall last week. This is an incredible straight-ahead rock band with a glorious future ahead. I'm sure other formats will discover this band in time. KISW has been supporting 7 Mary 3 since for months now. These guys are so nice. We went deep on Eleven's album. "Tomorrow Speaks" is the perfect follow up to "Why." KISW has always been a believer in Eleven. We've been playing "Why" since June 20th, and it's just now blowing wide open. Don't underestimate the power of Eleven. We also found huge phone response to Kenny Wayne Sheppard. This young guitarist get's the add.

BRUCE WARREN, WXPB WORLD CAFE

The truth is out there: I've been busy. Sorry it's been a while. What's next? Good question. Here we go. Caroline Lavelle's Spirit is a healing touch of ambient singer-songwriter grooves. A protege of William Orbit, think Enya and Jane Siberry when you play Caroline. We suggest "Turning Ground" or her cover of Joni's "A Case Of You". Why should you be playing Eric Matthews? Because he has invigorating, fresh pop vision on his Sub Pop debut It's Heavy In Here... Groovin' High is a suave collection of acid jazz, ambient groove, and trip hop that you head cases must check into. It's on Stepping Stone Records who you can fax at 310-393-8005... In the genius category Capitol Records just inked Jeb Loy Nichols a singer-songwriter of such incredible magnitude it makes me sick. He used to be in a band called The Fellow Travellers who were a reggae/dub/folk band that put out a couple cool records on the Okra label, and Jeb's demo tape is a soulful blend of diverse roots styles that was produced by Ben Vaughan and Danny Kahn. Jeb cites Merle Haggard, Tony Joe White, Bobby Womack, and Curtis Mayfield as some of his heroes (that ain't bad), and Jeb's a soulman (think grooves and spirituality) who knows how to write a song. Be on the lookout for Jeb. Don't forget his name!... Coming soon to Columbia are The Philosopher Kings, a rockin' jazzy, bluesy crew from Canada who remind me of a cross between the Asbury Jukes and Steely Dan and who Kid Leo will be telling you more about... and from the folks who brought you Garbage, Almo Records will be dropping a record by Gillian Welch in a few months that's being produced by T-Bone Burnett. Ms. Welch wrote "Orphan Girl" on Emmylou Harris' recent album and we're excited to hear her debut... Finally, in the "can you relate" department, I can't help thinking about Bruce Springsteen's latest album The Ghost of Tom Joad. While I don't doubt his sincerity and compassion for the working man, his support for the rights of the unemployed, and his keen literary insight into the spirit of the people, somehow the thirty dollar ticket price he's charging for his upcoming acoustic shows here in Philly shows no compassion or understanding for the "common man" at all. Let's face it. This is a ticket price Tom Joad couldn't afford. Thank-you and goodnight.

LAURIE GAIL, WFNX/PHOENIX

Fabby-Dabby bands stopping through town this past weekend included Rocket From The Crypt, Number One Cup and Schtum! We celebrated the holiday with WFNX "Unplucked" on Thursday and Top 101 Countdown sponsored by Newbury Comics on Friday. We're also gearing up for the WFNX Ski/Snowboard season! World Aids Day takes place December 1. We're taking it live on the road all day; thanks to the labels who've donated CDs, etc for the event! Big Barbie thanks to Mike Dreese and Lisa Fehl at Newbury Comics! Hope you had a great holiday!

TODD HALLER & "RECKLESS" ERIC CHANNEL Z

Can somebody say "HUH"!!! I'm still trying to recover my hearing from the awesome R.E.M. show two nights ago... Also does anybody have some aspirin? Hear are the top five requested songs as signed by the Deaf Z-Jays (get it?) 1) Smashing Pumpkins - "Bullet W/Butterfly Wings" 2) Silverchair - "Pure Massacre" 3) Presidents Of The United States Of America - "Lump" 4) KoRn - "Shoots & Ladders" 5) Alanis Morissette - "Head Over Feet" & 7 Mary 3 - "Cumbersome"... They came, they played, they kicked some asssss!! They being R.E.M.... Millions of the Z-Heads and the Z-Jays flocked to Atlanta for the homecoming on Saturday night, and had the time of their life. I don't know if the Greyhound Bus will be able to be used again, but the important thing is it made it through Saturday night. Thanx to Danny Davenport of Warner Bros. Records and his support of Channel Z! We also went soul to soul this weekend. Anytime the Z-Heads heard two Collective Soul tunes back to back they snagged tix to the December 2nd homecoming show in Atlanta. It was a blast because we kept messing with their minds by playing a Collective Soul tune here and there. Thanks to Myra Simpson of Atlantic Records for her support of live music on Channel Z!!! And if we didn't get enough tix out to the Z-Heads, Channel Z blew out the box office all week long. Thanks to Errol of Caroline and Jack of Tenki for Ben Folds Five, Scott Davenport of Geffen for Garbage, and John, Brian, & Scott of Columbia for the Pres. Of The U.S.A.... Well I'm off to eat some turkey and take a nap!!! Keep smilin' & surfin' the Z!!!!

MATT JONES & JULIE BAHRE KTOZ-FM/SPRINGFIELD

My dog Daisy is a star! The Christmas Parade, yes we know it's not even Thanksgiving yet, which happened this past Saturday was unbelievable. The Channel Z float, containing 2 Snowpeople, many children, Rick & Lola, and a Christmas Tree was by far the most creative and real looking of all floats. The Channel Z entourage was headed by Julie's dog, Daisy, who garnered the most attention of anyone in the parade including the News Media. Last week also brought us a breath of straight up, raw indie heaven when Sugarsmack, from Chapel Hill came in for a show. Remember that incredible voice from Fetchin' Bones? Hope Nichols is back and badder than ever with this band, and Springfield loved them. Somebody, please do not let this band get lost in the endless flux of unsigned bands, they deserve your ears! Matt-Man has set his call times in stone. Ready? Wednesdays from 11AM - 1PM Central. Thank you, drive around.

ALLISON STRONG, LARRY MAC, AND UNCLE FRYDAY AM 1060 KUKQ/PHOENIX

Larry Mac has executed a brilliant Station - retail-value - added (to our listeners and sponsors) Promotion. It's are you ready for this? The KUKQ4 Korner Q-Pon. KUKQ has the back page of the current "Planet" Magazine, an alternative bi-weekly. (Maggie Estep contributes to said publication). AM 1060 KUKQ is in the center of the page, and "Q-pons" worth $1.60 off albums from 1,000 Mona Lisa's, Rusty, The Inbreds, Rocket From the Crypt, Dead Hot Workshop, and The Rugbums. The Four Korner "Q-Pon" is valued at all valley Zia Records locations. Thanks to Lynne at Interscope, Gary at Tag, Greg at Priority, Nick at RCA, Brad and Lloyd of Zia Records for making this happen. And thanks to Larry Macdaddy for a promotion so beautiful it may spin off into a Miniseries (or a Musically expansive Q-fest!!!)

JOHNNY VINCENT WIVI/ST. THOMAS

As the radio industry continues to be in flux in the Caribbean, 96.1FM stays on course. WIVI 96.1FM announces a new daytime lineup with the same great music that 1000's of listeners have grown to know and love. Hurricane Marilyn brings continued growth to WIVI, 96 Rock. WIVI announces a new morning jock! New to the Islands but not new to radio. Brian Daniels brings 10 years of radio experience, working behind the mic of Country, Classic, and Modern rock stations. Brian can be heard on WIVI, 96Rock weekdays from 6:00 to 10:00AM. Featuring great music, trivia contest, live phone-ins, on-air games, and comic relief. Popular daytime jock, Kristine has been promoted to weekdays from 10:00AM to 2:00PM. With all the finest cuts of Classic and Modern rock. Johnny V's traffic jam will return to it's normal time. Weekdays from 2:00 to 6:00PM. With CD giveaways, "Up-Close" every Friday, the latest in new music releases and classic reviews. WIVI doesn't stop there; 96Rock has brought in "Arnie" on Monday nights, Bubba's Southern Rock on Tuesday nights, The Doc Of Rock every Wednesday with the Grateful Dead hour at 8PM, Scott's Blues Blowout every Thursday, and Patrice rockin' in the weekend every Friday night, Spider's devolution on Saturday evenings and Mark Hillsman's rockshop every Sunday night. Concerned that the 96Rock signature eliminates your taste for Jazz or Classical? Have no fear, they both remain; Jazz on Saturday; 7:30AM to 11:00, and Charlene's Classical; Sunday mornings from 8AM to 12NOON, followed by the Doug Lewis Show. If that's not enough, WIVI business director, Mark Bastin has brought in an additional veteran sales representative, to assist with the servicing of WIVI's growing client base. WIVI also has implemented a new state of the art, all digital recording production facility which is firmly in place. Adding their all digital transmitter for better coverage, WIVI is sure to continue to rock the rock. You may not hear much of WIVI in the press these days, but they are not silent by any means. On the air for three years the first station back on the air after Marilyn, broadcasting the recovery radio network. WIVI, the communities radio station, they're running strong and are here to stay.

MIKE KAROLYI WCCC/HARTFORD, CT

Coming back on WCCC airwaves is the famous "Rock'in Across America" contest. The radio station will be sending two lucky listeners on the road to Florida to see AC/DC and Meatloaf. WCCC Radio is working with the Science Center of Connecticut on an upcoming "Rush Chronicles Live Laser Light Show" for November into early December. It features the music of Rush along with a spectacular laser light show. WCCC Radio last weekend worked with the Fidelco Foundation on the First Annual "Brew Ho Ho" event. Held in downtown Hartford, approximately 18 regional microbreweries featured over 50 beers in this beer tasting fundraising event.

JULIE MAXWELL, WOXY/CINCINNATI

The auction starts Monday. Twenty items to be auctioned off over a two week period. All the money raised will be split between United Way of Oxford and Free Store Food Bank in Cincinnati. Thanks to all out there who came through will good quality stuff. I'll keep you posted on the bidding war. If you want a listing of what's on the block when, just call "Julie" and I'll fax you the list. Right after the auction is over, we head into the 97X Gift Grab. We could still use some stuff to wrap up and put under the tree. I have sent out faxes for catalogs, and some are coming in, but next week I will be re-faxing for all the outstanding catalogs and if you could get on that right away that would be really cool. Also, coming to a fax machine next week will be orders for all outstanding releases of the past year. From December 1 to about the 21st, listeners will be invited to register to win virtually every release of 1995. We've done a pretty good job of stock piling items throughout the year, but there are still many we are missing. Next week I'll be cross-checking the inventory against the adds and faxing you all for the missing discs. If you could hop on this quickly, I would be almost as appreciative as I am for the previous item. Send posters! We use them to wrap the items in the gift grab. They make wonderful recyclable wrapping paper and they really look cool under the Modern Rock Christmas tree. Send any and all posters you have. Mrs. Clause thanks you.

DAVE DOUGLAS, WAAF/BOSTON

"In war, sometimes there are casualties."

THE TINK, WVUD/WILMINGTON

Why Hello there! Well, now whether it was turkey or ham or tofu I hope your thanks for giving holiday went super-sonically super. This weeks thank yous for hook ups go Cheryl & Smitty (Epic) or was it J-A&M. The proof positive is still uncertain. Where once again KoRn kame and Koncured krowds. The bill also had 311 and Monster Magnet all three worthy of headlining that's for damn sure. Topped the weekend off with a hook-up from Rob Gill through the EastWest/EEG camp. Yes! a return visit from those hard-core mavens Sick Of It All they really rocked the Troc to its rafters as per usual. Opening for S.O.I.A. was Ignite - they were good as well. Plus the band promised me a CD of their stuff. Speaking of CDs I just read somewhere that the shelf life of the compact disc is only going to last around 15 years, is that true?
