WILLIAM L. MAYER PASSES AWAY

By JOSEPH N. WEBER

THE demise of Brother William L. Mayer came as a great shock, not only to the members of our organization, but also to his host of friends and to the musical world in general. He was a man of high standing, integrity and intelligence, and a wonderful musician.

He was an important and most representative figure in the musical world of Pittsburgh for 40 years. As Musical Director, organist and teacher, he enjoyed deserved renown. Of immediate and outstanding interest to our organization were his activities on behalf of the organized musicians.

He represented Local No. 60, Pittsburgh, as a Delegate to Conventions of the A. F. of M. for many years, and as Chairman of the Law Committee he rendered services of inestimable value which redounded to the benefit of the members of the Federation in general.

He officiated as President of Local No. 60 for 14 years, and thereafter as Vice-President of the American Federation of Musicians for 12 years. During the last three years of his life he officiated as one of the Assistants to the President of the Federation and here, being in close touch with all immediate problems and difficulties which confronted the Federation during the period of readjustment in the theatrical field and the present depression, his experience, gained through many years of service, came in good stead, and therefore his services at the President's office proved especially invaluable.

He was the possessor of a most lovable personality; he forever contended for liberality in the policies of the Federation, recognizing that the musicians joined the organization to better their conditions in life and hence was a sworn enemy to all propositions in rules and laws of the organization which in the slightest deviated from this principle or became particularistic in their nature.

While in Pittsburgh, among his multiplicity of duties was that of officiating as Musical Director at the Institute for the Blind, and many Delegates who attended the Pittsburgh Convention will doubtless remember the wonderful musical performance given by the blind children, which placed the activities of Brother Mayer as their teacher in the realm of a genius.

His obsequies in Pittsburgh were attended by delegates from many locals. The floral tributes received from many others were indicative in their number of the high esteem in which the locals in general beheld him. We of the Federation may well say that we have suffered a great loss. However, with his passing, his influence does not end, as his activities in our organization were of such a nature that for generations to come the result thereof will remain beneficial to the membership at large.

As a colleague, one could not be but impressed by his outstanding characteristic of extreme loyalty. He possessed a heart of gold. His aim was to round out 25 years of service to our Federation. He came near his goal. But alas! to reach same completely was denied him! May Heaven bless his memory. In the history of our organization he will live forever!

A band of 75 pieces, composed of members of Pittsburgh Local, No. 60, led the funeral cortege.

Representatives of many local unions of the American Federation of Musicians attended the funeral, including Ed. Haug and wife, Otto J. Kapl and Henry Pfizenmayer of Local No. 4, Cleveland, Ohio; Adam Shorb and wife, of Local No. 111, Canton, Ohio; Harry M. Dunsbaugh, Local No. 86, Youngstown, Ohio; William Stephens and Nick Von Berg of Local No. 142, Wheeling, W. Va.; Ed. Callio, Local No. 41, Johnstown, Pa.; Geo. F. Wilson and wife, Local No. 223, Steubenville, Ohio; James C. Petrillo and David Katz, Local No. 10, Chicago; Alfred Troyano, Local No. 248, Paterson, N. J.; G. R. Broadberry, Local No. 134, Jamestown, N. Y.; Edward Canavan, M. S. Rauch and James J. Lawnham, Local No. 802, New York City. Also a large delegation from Pittsburgh Local, No. 60, American Federation of Musicians, friends and relatives.

From the National Executive Board of the American Federation of Musicians were: Joseph N. Weber and wife, Harry E. Brenton, A. C. Hayden, G. Bert Henderson and William J. Kerngood.

William L. Mayer, Vice-President of the American Federation of Musicians for the past twelve years, and President of the Pittsburgh Musical Society for a number of years, passed away at the Allegheny General Hospital in Pittsburgh, Pa., on March 21st, 1931, after a short illness.

The funeral was held Tuesday morning, March 24th, from his home, 212 Charles Street, in Pittsburgh.

Mr. Mayer was 62 years old. For twenty years he had served as Director of the Memorial Department of Western Pennsylvania Institution for the Blind.

Mr. Mayer was born in Richmond, Va., December 22, 1868, received his early education at St. Vincent's College and devoted his life to the study of music. For years he represented Andrew Carnegie in his musical benefactions and directed the Braddock Carnegie Library Band and the Carill Hussars. An authority on pipe organs, he had designed many instruments of national reputation.

Mr. Mayer is survived by one son, one daughter, a sister and two brothers.

New Aluminum Bells by Ludwig

A striking new feature for the marching band, the Ludwig Bell Lyra has a clear, sweet ringing tone that carries above 100 pieces! The Bell Lyra is easily mastered by bell players, has frame and bars of aluminum. Total weight only 13 pounds.

Ludwig Rhythm Bells shown at the left are a new note of flash and class for the modern drummer. Easy to play and unlike any other instrument made, the Ludwig Rhythm Bells possess a clear, sweet tone of short duration—are practical for hot choruses, song waltzes or solos—a real attraction feature for the drummer who wants to keep on the "big time." Instrument folds and packs into carrying case.

Paul Whiteman's Orchestra Equipped 100% With "MASTER METAL MOUTHPIECES" FOR SAXOPHONES

Why the Master?
 We call them the "MASTER MOUTHPIECES" because: With them and through them a player can do everything better than with any other mouthpiece on the market. They are made of one piece and being seamless provide a solid foundation for the vibrations to radiate from. They are absolutely sanitary. The teeth rest on a hard rubber inlay exclusive in our mouthpieces, eliminating the germ carrying glued-on soft rubber patch. A new style, single screw ligature assures an even pressure acting directly on the reed.

On February 2, 1931, Local 220 held a dance for the benefit of the unemployed in the city. Four orchestras and a band donated their services to help make the affair a success. We had the largest attendance that has ever attended a dance in this city. We were able to turn over to the mayor the sum of $461.75. This contribution was greatly appreciated, and we think it has created a better feeling between the musicians and the citizens than anything we have ever done before.

As the Worker Sees His World Summary and Digest of Important Events Here and Abroad.

Peace is promised in India as the result of a compromise agreement made March 3 between Mahatma Gandhi, leader of the Indian Nationalists, and the British Government, represented by the Viceroy, Lord Irwin. The British Labor Government has withdrawn the trades dispute bill from the calendar of Parliament because the Liberal amendments had made it unacceptable to labor. On his way back to Germany, Dr. Albert Einstein, famous scientist, reiterated at Chicago his strong pacifist views, declaring that he was convinced the only way to stop war is the denial of military service by war resisters. Following approval by the Senate of a resolution providing for an investigation of the question of unemployment insurance, Vice-President Curtis appointed Senators Wagner of New York, Glenn of Rhode Island and Hebert of Rhode Island to make the inquiry. The immense revenues now derived from the illegal liquor trade by lawless elements "threatens our social peace and security," Col. Henry W. Anderson of Richmond, Va., a member of the Wickersham commission, said in a recent address in New York City. The House on February 26 and the Senate the following day passed the veterans' bonus loan bill by big majorities over President Hoover's veto. The big communist-led strike of employees of the American Woolen Company at Lawrence, Mass., was ended on February 26 when the workers voted to return to their jobs, following action of the company in conceding the original demands of the strikers. Italy has agreed to a naval pact, ending its rivalry with France, Arthur Henderson, British Foreign Secretary, announced in Rome on February 28. Robert H. Lucas, executive director of the Republican National Committee, in spending $4,000 "secretly" last year to fight the election of Senator Norris of Nebraska, is "chargeable with willful violation of the corrupt practices act in that he failed to report the expenditure in the time prescribed by law," a report by the Campaign Funds Investigating Committee, headed by Senator Nye, asserts.

TO OBTAIN AN OFFICIAL SONG Nation-wide Song Writing Contest is Announced by "Future Farmers." "Open to anyone, anywhere." So reads an announcement of a song-writing contest sponsored by the Future Farmers of America, the national organization of boys enrolled in vocational agriculture classes in the United States and Hawaii. The object of this contest is to obtain an appropriate official song which will symbolize, as far as possible, the characteristics, ideals and purposes of the organization. A prize of $150 will be awarded the author or authors of the composition submitted in this contest which the Future Farmers adopt as their official song," says W. A. Ross, of the Federal Board for Vocational Education and Executive Secretary of the Future Farmer organization, by whom the announcement of the contest is made. It is expected that the final selection of a song will be made at the Fourth Annual Congress of the Future Farmers of America, to be held in Kansas City in November. Under the rules of the contest the song selected will become the property of the Future Farmers, but the name of the author will appear on the song when it is published. Full information concerning the rules of the contest, which closes September 15, may be obtained from W. A. Ross, Federal Board for Vocational Education, Washington, D. C.

Times Call For Less Shadow Boxing

OUR business depression probes are becoming the Nation's leading industry. We are obsessed with "fact finding." Each venture is to be the last word and we breathlessly await the verdict.

When the tumult and shouting dies we launch another investigation, with its charts, graphs, statistics and "comprehensive surveys."

The depression cause is approached from every angle, except higher wages and shorter hours.

The investigators discuss without end the difference between "overproduction" and "underconsumption." The latest economic phrase is parsed and dissected with the minuteness of a Middle Ages scholastic and new phrases are coined.

Of equal importance is tariffs, credits, the price drop in silver, the international situation, and adjustment of output to demand, called "stabilization."

But never a word on the kernel of the situation—lack of buying power and consequent accumulation of commodities, followed by shut downs.

These "fact finders" also ignore prevalence of the long workday.

The Ohio Director of Industrial Relations, only recently, called on employers in that State to adopt the eight-hour day "whenever feasible." The Wisconsin Citizens' Committee on Employment favors a 50-hour week as a maximum for industries.

"Fact finders" act on the theory that the seven, or even the eight-hour, day is nation-wide. The contrary is true. Professional probes should cease skirting the edges of this problem. They should not be as babes on the ocean shore who timidly wet their tiny toes in the incoming tide.

There can be no lasting business recovery unless the nation's buying power is increased and the workday is shortened.

Both plans will give employment to countless workers and all classes will be benefited.

The value of these fundamental remedies is unchallenged, but their application is sidetracked.

Workers are hopeful that something will be handed them by numberless and bewildering commissions, investigations, probes and surveys.

Each disappointment is forgotten as the wage-earner is lured by another "final solution."

And the depression continues because of low purchasing power and long hours that are not referred to.

Let us have less shadow boxing and more substance.

The Old Tricks Bob Up

EVERY old trick that has ever been thought to have promise in the effort to beat down labor's wages bobs up sooner or later to bring fame to some new exploiting genius.

Again we hear, this time from banking quarters, that there should be a wage standard that would move up and down with commodity prices.

What fiendish ideas there be in the minds of bosses and money changers!

When labor agrees to such a devilish device it will have fixed its status forever and the status will be one of serfdom.

Is there any American employer, banker or what not, who believes American labor will forsake the gospel of progress and accept the chains of a bondage such as that? Probably not, but there are some that still hope so. We must dispel even the hope!

Do We "Turn the Corner?"

OUR faithful International Labor News Service tells us, in a New York dispatch prepared with obvious care and after obvious research, that industry has "turned the corner" on the basis of the known facts and is headed toward improvement. The dispatch aims to tell wage-earners of the situation four months in advance of the usual speed with which such information would reach them.

Another news story tells us that if the modest sum of 75 cents a day were added to the payroll of New England alone it would equal the volume of export trade of that section. Putting these "two and two" together leads to interesting conclusions, though not new ones for us.

A lurching, staggering buying power is beginning to require new goods. That's one point. The other, that is with a proper adjustment of wages and hours of work, there never needed to have been a depression and there never needs to be another.

We add the third point, which is that we shall never have such a wise and sound adjustment until labor-haters get over their fever and sit down with labor to work things out.

Canada Acts

NO one will deny the democracy of the Canadian people, but somehow Canada seems to have combined democracy with speed of action. By an order in council Canada has barred soviet products, including pulp wood, wood pulp, coal, lumber, timber, furs and asbestos. The order says, in part:

"The government is convinced that there is forced labor in the cutting and transport of timber and in the mining of coal, that political prisoners are exploited, that the standard of living is below any level conceived of in Canada and that, broadly speaking, all employment is in control of the Communist government, which regulates all conditions of work and seeks to impose its will on the whole world. This is communism, its creed and its fruits, which we as a country oppose and must refuse to support by interchange of trade."

Every reason given for action by Canada is equally a good reason for the United States. And, let us remember, it was the United States, led by organized labor, that first raised the alarm against soviet slave labor imports. It is not labor, but government officialdom, that is asleep!

Labor Queries - - -

Questions and Answers on Labor: What It Has Done; Where It Stands on Problems of the Day; Its Aim and Program; Who's Who in the Ranks of the Organized Toilers, etc., etc.

Q.—Who was William Bendow?

A.—An English radical, agitator and pamphleteer. He is credited with being one of the chief originators of the idea of the general strike, and a pamphlet which he wrote in 1832 was influential in bringing on the great walkout of 1842, called the first general strike.

Q.—What trade union was the first organization in the United States to fight the ravages of tuberculosis?
A.—The International Typographical Union.

Q.—Has Mexico a workmen's compensation law?

A.—There is no national compensation law, but 24 of the 28 States have either enacted such laws or have included provisions of workmen's compensation in their labor codes.

Q.—What Southern State reduced working hours for women last year?

A.—Louisiana, whose legislature reduced maximum working hours from ten to nine a day and from sixty to fifty-four a week with certain exceptions, applying to women in specific industries and outside of the larger cities.

Q.—Are there trade unions in Northern Africa?

A.—There are a number of unions in Morocco, affiliated with the French labor movement. A central organization has been formed and it reported the movement for organization is growing.

Q.—What member of the United States Supreme Court helped in the settlement of a big strike?

A.—Justice Louis D. Brandeis, who drew up the protocol arrangement ending the big strike of workers in the women's garment trades in New York City in 1909. He was not then a Supreme Court Justice.

Q.—Where can information on the big national union label campaign in April be obtained?

A.—From the Union Label Trades Department of the American Federation of Labor, John J. Manning, secretary-treasurer, 202-204 A. F. of L. Building, Washington, D. C.

Out Beyond the Surf--

Where thought, unhampered by necessity or trepidation, sometimes penetrates to truth. Here, where the shallows throw no spray, let us ponder and enjoy the lessons of the art and the work and play of life.

How many of the readers of this column read True Story Magazine is quite beyond the point, which is that the display advertising used to promote that magazine is distinctly worth reading.

Currently there has appeared large-space copy containing an essay "on a man buttoning up his vest." It is illuminating.

The professor started, as usual, to button up his vest, giving never a thought to it, until his fingers encountered a button that wouldn't button. His little daughter had sewed up a button hole. "A button wouldn't button," and the professor discovered that "fingers can remember." More: there came the great conclusion "That the mind of man is 'an emergency organ.'" It runs along without fussing—or thinking—very much, until it encounters an obstacle.

The fingers, it appears, are allowed to go along buttoning up the buttons, until somebody sews up a buttonhole.

Then the brain comes into action to tell the fingers what to do about it.

This advertising writer goes on to apply the moral to bigger things.

This paragraph is worth quoting:

"Take the attitude, for example, toward the wage-earner. A whole business nation is intensely active in keeping him on the job and at the highest possible wage it can afford to pay. Nobody ever heard of such a thing before. Times like these used to be the Employer's Paradise. He could hire 'em from as little as he wanted to pay, and grind 'em to the bone. Now he's trying to do just the opposite. Give 'em as much as he can afford to pay and shorten the hours."

True enough, isn't it? And how refreshing it is to find an advertisement talking that way! We've come a long way since the "labor agitator" was reviled everywhere for talking about higher wages and the rights of men.

There's a long road still to travel, but we can say today, as we could not ten years ago, that we are on the way.

The advertisement goes along, saying this: "The greatest number of wage-earners must be kept on the job" and "there is the mass outlet we have to have in order to balance our mass production."

Not a sounder thing in all thy philosophy, oh, Horatio!

The lesson can be applied elsewhere. There's the non-union man who goes along buttoning up his last year's vest until he finds out that his union-hating boss has sewed up the pay envelope. His brain hasn't been working—only his fingers—until the jolt brings him up short. Then he thinks—and joins a union.

This matter of habit, routine, unconscious moving along in old ways, is good for much thought. Look into your own life and find out in how many ways you're buttoning up things just because you've always done it and just because nothing ever happened to jar your brain into action!—C. M. W.

Socialism, or Not?

THOSE who advocate having the government do this and that, plunge into this field and that, take over this and that, had better say right out where they intend to go. Have they any terminal facilities? It is even more important that the people in general should know.

If socialism is the objective, let us find out about it. If it is, then do we want all of it, or only half of it? And if we want only half, can we take only half without taking all of it? And is that the direction in which we want to go anyway? It is unwise to start without knowing what is to be the direction and what is to be the finish.

There has been too much lack of definition already. It is time to take stock and get onto some basic philosophy and then to lay down some definite policy. Which way go we hence?

Unless plans are changed convict labor will be employed on a part of the work of finishing a bridge across the Potomac River leading to the Lincoln memorial. It would be difficult to imagine a more finished affront to the fitness of things. If there is no official with power or courage to stop such an outrage, then public sentiment ought to roll up to such heights as to bring an end to it.

OVER FEDERATION FIELD

By CHAUNCEY A. WEAVER

Frequently one hears the question asked—"How is the music business?" "Are the musicians getting back into the theatres?" "Is the Federation advertising campaign bearing fruit?" It is pleasing to be able to note that rifts in the clouds are constantly appearing. For example, a report published in the San Francisco Musical and Theatrical News (Local No. 6) has such a buoyant tone that we are moved to reproduce several excerpts therefrom as an indication that better days are on the way. The aforesaid article reads in part:

The situation for musicians in Los Angeles and other coast cities is currently the best it has been since the talking pictures threw a crimp into the whole musical field, a survey this week showed.

With stage shows and bands going back into practically all of the major houses, a drive is now on foot to restore flesh-and-blood music to outlying theatres. And initial moves in this direction have met with great success.

The Los Angeles and San Francisco situations are particularly gratifying. Locally more houses are using musicians than is the case in New York and Chicago put together. Sixty men have been placed in the last two weeks, and this ratio of placements is rapidly restoring the music profession to its pre-talkie status.

In San Francisco the situation is equally optimistic. The musicians there negotiated an agreement with picture house operators placing a quota of 133 to be placed in vaudeville and presentation places. But the quota has already been exceeded, 160 being now so employed.

The drive for flesh-and-blood music in outlying theatres around Los Angeles resulted in the first negotiation in placing of three bands in such houses. While this is no great number, it indicates the trend back to real music in such spots, union officials believe, and they expect a big response to this drive they are launching.

Of course, the foregoing should not be interpreted as a bid for outside musicians to hurry westward to take care of surplus jobs, as the Sons and Daughters of the Golden West are still equal to all emergencies. But we can congratulate our Pacific coast brethren upon clearing skies and indulge the hope that the situation may speedily become general.

What shall be played as suitable numbers for a memorial program is a matter of speculation many times among local organizations. On the twelfth day of last month Local No. 9 held memorial services for twenty-three members who had passed away during the year. Brother James Kenney remembered us with a program. We are going to pass it along as a model of good taste and replete with suggestions which we feel will be appreciated by other locals who will be interested in the Boston way of doing things. The program follows:

EXERCISES

Presiding officer, President George Gibbs. Preludium, Bach; "Still As the Night," Bohm (in memory of Mme. Nellie Melba), orchestra, William F. Hoffmann, director; invocation, Rabbi Harry Levi; song, "Rock of Ages," arranged, Beethoven, Male Quartette; cello solo, "Kol Nidrei," Mr. A. Di Scipio; necrology, Mr. A. H. Merritt; taps, Mr. Aaron Shapiro, Mr. E. S. Brown; selection, (a) "Heart Throbs," Greig, (b) "Spring," Greig, orchestra; song, "Crossing the Bar," arranged, Beethoven Male Quartette; address, Rabbi Harry Levi; national hymn, "The Star-Spangled Banner," orchestra.

"Business is looking up," solemnly observes an industrial analyst. Being flat on its back would be rather difficult to look in any other direction.

We acknowledge receipt of the Biennial Report of our old friend, John H. Mackey, State Labor Inspector of Florida, and known to many Federationists as a member of Local No. 444 of Jacksonville and frequently a delegate to national conventions. This report is an interesting 48-page document and shows that Brother Mackey's enthusiasm for union activity is still adjusted to high gear. Florida is looming larger and larger in the public eye all the while. In fact, we are especially pleased with the fine brand of grape fruit she is sending northwest this year.

The Pittsburgh Musical Society, Local No. 60, is sponsoring a mammoth Show and Dance for April 15. From this fine display of boosting evidenced by a perusal of their Musicians' Journal we would be very much disposed to attend if not quite so far away. Local No. 60 has the talent and the enthusiasm to do things in a large way.

Report is at hand that the musicians in the Joliet penitentiary became involved in a riot. Perhaps, however, they were simply rehearsing some of the latest jazz selections.

April, month of smiles and tears—also of dreams concerning next year's contracts.

The Middletown (N. Y.) Symphony Orchestra, Local No. 809, organized "To enhance the appreciation of the musical arts in Middletown and vicinity," is fulfilling its high purpose in a fine series of concerts. Ernest Ortone is musical director and George A. Keene is president. On the program submitted we notice two symphonies—"The Surprise" by Haydn and "The New World by Dvorak. Such symphonic food should prove both stimulating and satisfying.

The thirty-sixth annual convention of the American Federation of Musicians will be called to order at the Hotel Patten, Chattanooga, Tennessee, on Monday, June 8, 1931, at 2 P. M. Local No. 80 has long wanted the honor of entertaining a national federation convention. Since accorded the honor last year by the Boston committee, ratified by the convention as a whole, Chattanooga musicians have been formulating and executing plans to make their offer of welcome good. The traditions of Southern hospitality will be handsomely vindicated by the members of Local No. 80 and every local which can possibly do so should be represented. When it is recalled that the transportation issue is the only obligation resting upon the delegate, and that he is housed and fed during the entire convention, the incentive should be strong for every local to be registered when the credentials committee formally meets.

The buzzing sound heard the middle of the present month from the Middle West undoubtedly came from the Midwest Conference at Lincoln, Nebraska.

LABORGRAMS

The man who took his tools and went into the wilderness to carve out a home had a chance to win a full reward for his work and nobody could throw him off his place. Compare him with the fellow who goes alone into the United States Steel Corporation's big plant.

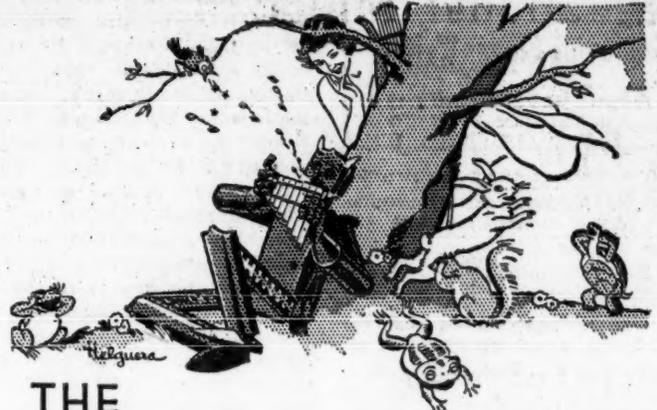

The union card is the symbol of unity among workers. It is the sign that they can work together, think things out together, apply their will and their wisdom to the job.

Bell Telephone added five billions to its assets last year. Yes, mates, it was a tough old year all right, all right.

A scientist has invented a cure for squint. That fellow is needed by a lot of politicians!

The New York World has passed out of existence, bought by Scripps Howard, and thrown into the waste basket. Three thousand workers were added to the unemployed. Sellers and buyers joined in saying the traditions of the founders would be carried on! What a nice way of putting it!

Remember the union membership to keep it up to date, for without that card you are all alone in a darned hard world.

THE "MEDDLESOME" SPRING SONG

THE ROBOT of Canned Music, in the role of Pan, piping a welcome to Spring!

Can You Imagine it?

Small wonder the birds and beasts are walking out on him.

Yet human beings, creatures of cultivated taste, are expected to accept the Robot's music as a fit substitute for the Living Art of Music in theatres!

Millions have dissented from this preposterous proposal by joining the Music Defense League. You, too, may vote for Living Music in the Theatre by signing and mailing this coupon.

OFFICIAL NOTICE

New York, Jan. 2, 1931.

In conformity with the Constitution of the American Federation of Musicians, and as determined by the Thirty-fifth Annual Convention, held in Boston, Mass., June 13th, 1930, all the Locals and Members constituting the American Federation of Musicians are hereby notified that the Thirty-sixth Annual Convention of the American Federation of Musicians will be called to order at the HOTEL PATTEN, Chattanooga, Tenn., on Monday, June 8th, 1931, at 2 P. M.

Delegates to be chosen in accordance with the provisions contained in Articles V and VI of the Constitution, which are as follows:

ARTICLE V.

Representation and Delegates.

All Locals of this Federation of one hundred members or less shall be entitled to one delegate. All Locals shall be entitled to one delegate for each one hundred members or a majority fraction thereof, not exceeding three delegates for any one Local, but each Local shall be entitled to one vote for each one hundred or majority fraction thereof, but no Local shall cast more than ten votes, and the number each Local is entitled to shall be computed from the last report made on January 1st, before the Convention, by the Local, according to the books of the Treasurer. On questions affecting a change in the laws, each Local may, upon roll call, cast as many votes as it has members, as per book of the Treasurer, A. F. of M. All laws so passed shall be referred to a convention committee consisting of the Executive Board, A. F. of M., and chairmen of all committees, who may sanction or veto same; their action to be final. Roll call shall be demandable and had under this Article on demand of ten delegates or five Locals.

ARTICLE VI.

Delegates—How Elected.

Section 1. Delegates to the Convention shall be elected by the Locals, either at annual, special or regular meetings. If elected at annual meetings, the usual notice to members in vogue for such meetings shall be sufficient. If elected at regular or special meetings, which cannot be done earlier than 100 days preceding the Convention, every member of the Local must be duly notified of such meeting.

Elections held in violation of this law are null and void.

Sec. 2. No member shall be permitted to represent more than one Local, nor shall any member be permitted to act as delegate for a Local unless he is a full member in good standing in said Local.

Sec. 3. In the event of protests being filed against the seating of delegates, such protests must be accompanied by a certified copy of the minutes of the meeting at which the election of delegates took place, under seal, which shall be furnished by the Local Secretary. All other documentary evidence must be duly sworn to before a Notary Public. The contestant must notify the accredited delegate at least forty-eight hours before the opening of the Convention of his intention to contest, and either party may submit his evidence in person or by proxy.

Sec. 4. The hotel accommodations of the delegates and a per diem of $4.00 per day, or fraction thereof, commencing not more than twenty-four hours prior to the opening of the Convention and ending not later than twelve hours after adjournment, and those of the Executive Board, A. F. of M., for such time as it may be in session, and of such members as it may summon to appear before it, shall be paid from the funds of the Federation.

Sec. 5. Alternates may be elected for those delegates who may be unable to attend the sessions. It shall be the duty of Local Secretaries to notify the Secretary of the Federation of the names of the delegates and their alternates immediately after such election.

Sec. 6. The title of honorary delegates may be conferred by the majority vote of the delegates in convention assembled, but the compliment shall not entitle such delegates to any privileges vested in the delegates of the different Locals, and only the hotel expenses shall be borne by the Federation.

Attest:

WM. J. KERNGOOD, Secretary.
JOS. N. WEBER, President.

"The Moving Finger Writes"
About Labor Events

UNION ASKS DRESS INDUSTRY SURVEY—The International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union, through Acting President Salvatore Ninno, has requested the New York City dress manufacturers' and jobbers' association to appoint a committee to organize a survey of the industry to ascertain to what extent dress concerns were employed making coats and suits. For some time the Industrial Council of Cloak, Suit and Skirt Manufacturers, Inc., has made complaints that union cloakmakers were being employed in dress shops at piece rates in competition with the cloak industry where payment by the week is a matter of contract.

BAKERS FIGHT NON-UNION BREAD—Ten thousand dollars has been appropriated by Bakery Salesmen's Union No. 33, Washington, D. C., for a campaign to educate the public to "the fact that it is to its benefit to patronize Washington industry and union industry," it was announced recently. The sum is to be matched by the bakers, according to present plans.

The five-cent loaf of bread recently introduced to Washington will be the subject of the campaign. The unions contend that this bread is manufactured outside of Washington, where a lower wage scale prevails.

WIDOW OF JEAN JAURES DIES—Mme. Jean Jaures, widow of the noted French Socialist leader whose assassination at the outbreak of the World War created a sensation, died in her home in Paris on March 12. Deputy Jean Leon Jaures, whose ashes were placed in the Pantheon in 1924, was shot and instantly killed on the night of July 31, 1914, while dining with friends in a little restaurant near the Bourse. His assassin, Raoul Villain, was held in prison until March, 1919, when he was acquitted, apparently on the ground that he acted merely from misguided patriotism.

NEW HAMPSHIRE'S UNEMPLOYMENT AID FOR MOTHERS—The first bill signed this year by the Governor of New Hampshire made $75,000 immediately available during the first four months of the year to assist mothers and children affected by unemployment. This augments the State's current appropriation of $45,000 for mothers' aid. It is to be used to care without delay for waiting applicants and to extend aid to mothers and their children rendered temporarily dependent by the unemployment either of the mother or of the person upon whom she usually depends. The law stipulates that the aid given by this fund is not to replace that of county, city or town, but may supplement it. The Governor and the State Board of Education are made jointly responsible with the State Board of Education for administration of the fund.—U. S. Children's Bureau.

INDIA SEES DECLINE IN NUMBER OF WOMEN MINERS—An illustration of an awakening social consciousness in India is to be found in a report of the Indian Chief Inspector of Mines, which notes that during nine months of last year there was a decrease of almost a fourth in the number of women employed underground in mines. This reduction in the number of women workers has come about as the result of regulations issued in March, 1929, which provides for progressive reduction in such employment, culminating in its total prohibition by July 1, 1930. Efforts to further ameliorate the working conditions of women are at present under the consideration of the government of India.—United States Women's Bureau.

JAPANESE WOMEN ACT TO AID SERVANTS—Working conditions of maid servants in Tokyo and its suburbs recently were made the object of an investigation by the Women's Commission of the Japanese Association for Social Legislation. As a result, a resolution was adopted by the association, urging that the treatment of maid servants be bettered in various directions. The suggested improvements include a guarantee of eight hours sleep in every 24, at least one day of rest in a month, at least two hours of free time during the day, the provision of a well-lighted and ventilated separate room, the payment of wages monthly in cash to the maid herself, and other improved conditions.

MORE VACATIONS FOR WOMEN WORKERS—"It must be regarded as very encouraging that over a five-year period there has been a 7 per cent increase in the proportion of plants granting vacations to production workers," says a report of the New York Bureau of Women in Industry, commenting on the results of a recent study of vacation policies in manufacturing industries. "This increase is more significant in that it has been measured in a year of industrial depression."

COMMUNIST CONVICTED UNDER SYNDICALISM LAW—Ben Boloff, organizer for the Young Communist League, was sentenced to ten years in prison in Portland, Ore., on March 3. He had been convicted of criminal syndicalism. The maximum term was imposed by the court despite a recommendation of leniency by the jury.

Exhibits offered as evidence by the prosecution included excerpts from the Communist Manifesto; Lenin's "The State and Revolution," and copies of the New York Daily Worker. These exhibits were cited to prove the State's contention that the Communists intend to establish a dictatorship of the proletariat by force. Eleven other Communists are held for trial.

BOSTON PRINTERS PREPARE TO ENTERTAIN CONVENTION—Boston Typographical Union, No. 13, is preparing an elaborate welcome for the delegates to the convention of the International Typographical Union, which will be held in Boston the second week of September. A convention committee of 25 members of the local is functioning, with Leo F. Green, president of the local, as chairman; John O. Battis, as treasurer; J. Arthur Moriarity, president of the Boston Central Labor Union, as secretary.

MEMBER OF LABOR MINISTRY IS DEAD—Vernon Hartshorn, who was a member of the Simon Commission to India and had been Lord Privy Seal in the British Labor Government since 1930, died suddenly at his home in Wales on March 13. He was 59.

GRANITE CUTTERS' HEAD ASSAILS MAYOR—Samuel Squibb, president of the International Granite Cutters' Union, has charged Mayor James M. Curley of Boston with giving a contract for edge stones in behalf of the city of Boston to a non-union concern, located outside the city, and that the contract was awarded the day before the date scheduled for a conference between Curley and a committee of union men. At that conference, arranged by the mayor, the question of allotment of the contract to a Boston firm hiring only union labor was to be discussed.

LABOR BACKS PUBLIC HEALTH BILL—The New York State Federation of Labor, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Order of Railway Conductors were recorded in favor of the Wicks-Hutchinson Public Health bill at a joint hearing before the Senate Finance and Assembly Ways and Means Committees. The bill was drafted by the Special Public Health Commission appointed by Governor Roosevelt last May. It sets up well-staffed county health departments, preserves local control, assures efficient medical and nursing service, and provides for additional tuberculosis hospitals to accommodate larger numbers of curable patients.

LABOR GROUP EXPELS AUSTRALIAN TREASURER—E. G. Theodore, Australian treasurer, has been expelled from the city labor conference by unanimous vote because of his opposition to the policy of repudiation of debts and inflation of currency advocated by the New South Wales premier, J. C. Lang. It was decided at the gathering to replace the "white Australia" objective—one of labor's main planks—with that of the socialization of industry and new methods of merchandise distribution.

LABOR MAJORITY DOUBLED IN WELSH ELECTION—The Labor Party on March 20 doubled its 1929 majority in a by-election at Pontypridd, Wales, where D. L. Davies, Laborite, swept to Parliament with a majority of 7,010 over the Conservative and Liberal candidates combined. The figures were: Davies, 20,867; Captain G. C. H. Crawshaw, Liberal, 8,368; D. Evans, Conservative, 5,489, thus making the Labor majority over the Liberal's 12,499 and over both candidates 7,010.

DIVISION OF LABOR AFFAIRS IN EGYPTIAN GOVERNMENT—The United States Department of Labor reports that as the result of a recent discussion between the Egyptian premier and representatives of the Ministries of Finance and the Interior, it is said to have been decided to create a special section within the Department of Commerce and Industry for the consideration of labor affairs from the economic and social sides. The new division will study workmen's unions and dwellings, employment disputes between men and their employers, and international points of view as to workmen's affairs.

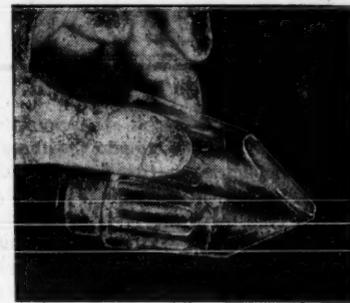

BUSINESS WOMEN GAIN IN NUMBER—"Business women have gained in numbers since the 1920 census," says Miss Emily R. Kneubuhl, executive secretary of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs. "The 1920 census showed 8,500,000 of them employed in gainful occupations. The 1930 census sets the figure at 10,000,000.

"Ten years ago women were in all but 35 of the 572 known occupations. Statistics are not yet available as to how many of those occupations they have now invaded, but experts believe that women have entered almost every professional field open to men. They are miners, chemists, metallurgists, architects, contractors, housebuilders, house and sign painters. They run hotels, blacksmith shops, theatres. They are telegraph operators, engineers, boiler-makers, not to mention veterinary surgeons, doctors, lawyers, dentists, judges, college presidents. They have at least gained a foothold in practically every profession. The next ten years will demonstrate what progress they can make. I believe women will have reason to be proud of that progress."

Deception

An old lady approached a porter at a busy railway station.
"Can you tell me when the next train leaves?" she inquired.
"Where do you wish to go?" the porter asked.
"That's none of your business," was the old lady's tart reply.
"But I can't tell you when the train leaves if I don't know where you are going," the porter explained.
"Well," said the old lady, "if you must know, I'm going to Edinburgh."
The porter then told her when the train left, and soon after he saw her looking out of the carriage window.
"Ha, ha!" she laughed, "I've tricked you this time. I'm not going to Edinburgh. I'm going to Birmingham."—Ex.

NO OTHER MOUTHPIECE LIKE IT IN THE WORLD

The Hand-Lapped Facing on every O'Brien Crystal is so perfect that merely blowing the breath on it and rubbed together will cause any two O'Brien Crystal Mouthpieces to adhere together so firmly as to hold many times their weight.

Such perfect workmanship is the reason why Solo Clarinetists play them.

SWEEP TO INDUSTRIALISM FAST CHANGING OUR LIFE

By CHESTER M. WRIGHT

Whither America? To the cities and always to the bigger cities.

That means to industry and commerce—some to work and to live upon those that work.

Today we find 69 per cent of our population in cities and towns.

It is only ten years since city and town population began to outnumber country population. Through all of our national life, except for that short decade, we have been preponderantly a country-living nation.

George Washington became President of a nation in which 97 per cent of the population was rural, living on the land, making a livelihood from the land. Just 3 per cent were city folks. The factories had not arrived!

United States Constitution Made for Nation of Farmers

The Constitution was made for a nation of agriculturists. It was made, for the most part, by men whose living came somehow from the land and whose dominating interests harked back to the land.

In that day the nation could not have supported itself except by working the land and its products. There had to be 97 per cent on the land. Today we should perish with that percentage on the land because we could not go backward fast enough to learn in time how to live that way.

Living on the land has changed, along with changed living in cities. Else much less than 50 per cent of our population could not produce more land products than are necessary for the whole population.

Not Much Unemployment When American People Lived on Land

When the nation lived on the land people were not often thrown out of their homes by unemployment, though there were plenty of abuses, just the same. Read in old books some of the tragic stories of those "bound out" in the early days of nationhood.

But we deal not, at this time, with the minor phases of change. It is the big sweep of chance that concerns us. Starting as a land-living nation, we built a magnificent political structure designed for such a people. Having become a factory nation, drifting as rapidly, as possible to the cities, we cling to the old theories, we resort to the old practices, we follow the old trails, even though most moderns do not know what a trail looks like, or how to follow one.

Strange as it seems, the organized labor movement has known this change, its direction, and what to do about it, better than any other section of our national life.

Labor Has Seen That Industry Must Learn to Govern Itself

Labor has seen that industry, the coming, major interest of our nation, the place in which most working people now spend their vital hours, must learn to a certain definite degree how to order its own ways, how to make its own rules and how to enforce those rules.

Many have muddled around looking for a cure to the evils that have grown out of industry's coming age. The socialists have offered their cure, childlike, fantastic, futile. The communists have come nearer, in reality, to seeing the issue, but have given us an amazing example of that genius that misses its mark and becomes insanity. The same is true of fascism. In each there is a glimmer of sanity, lost in a terror of awful madness, making of them both menaces that civilization must destroy, or be itself destroyed. Trade unionism alone has offered sanity of analysis, sanity of outlook, sanity of program—understanding, statesmanship, guidance toward deliverance from the chaos of trying to fit the new to the harness that held the old.

Labor Asks Only for Freedom and Protection From Injustices

Long years ago labor said to legislators: We ask nothing but freedom. We ask only that you take away injustices. So it has remained. Meanwhile labor has gone forward, building up organizations fitted to sit around the table with organizations of employers, legislating for industry. The organizations will grow. More organizations will come into being. Wherever there is useful service there will be organization. The scope of action will broaden. The methods of creating a fuller degree of what may properly enough be called government in industry will be improved out of experience. Voluntary machinery will be enlarged all along the line. Voluntary thus far, it will remain voluntary. And in time it will find in law the sanction for its being and for its functioning.

A population drifting—no, racing, not drifting—toward industry must expect to change its ways and to change, as a consequence, some of the sources of its authority. This must come, not because of fads or reformers, but because of alterations in the time and swing of basic things. When men learned to live on the surface of the land the rules that applied to cave dwelling and tree dwelling became useless.

People Must Adapt Themselves To Big Changes Now in Process

We are in the midst—and well along in it, too—of one of the profoundest changes in all human history. We cannot merely look at it with a silly grin and pass the buck. We are in it, like it or not, and we shall have to help with or stand for the change that goes with change. Particularly that applies to employers who say, like dodos, "This is my business and I shall run it as I please."

REMARKABLE THINGS SAID—

Police Commissioner Mulrooney:

Deportation of aliens would cut down almost every kind of crime.

Dean Inge:

Let us pay no attention to this Feudian nonsense about repressions. Parts of us were made to be suppressed.

Margaret Culklin Banning:

Often the rich take money more seriously than the poor; when a rich man finds his income decreased he is even more susceptible to panic than a poor one.

Colonel L. P. Ayres:

The purchasing power of an important part of our population is still restricted by the paring down of debts incurred in unsuccessful stock speculation.

Justice John Ford of the New York County Supreme Court:

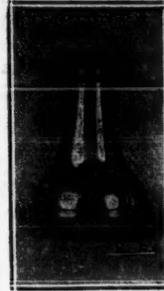

A home does not mean what it used to because people are born in hospitals, entertain in clubs, eat in restaurants, take visitors to cabarets and are buried from funeral parlors.

Elsie McCormick, New York World Columnist:

I think it may as well be admitted that the disease of the endocrine glands called genius simply does not appear among women as frequently as it does among men. If one can find consolation in the thought, neither does idiocy.

Justice Royal A. Stone of the Minnesota Supreme Court:

It is not a pleasure to contemplate what might now be the state of the world had the students and practitioners of medicine and surgery and of the physical sciences been so much the slaves of "standpatism" during the last century as have been the members of the American bar.

Comment and Criticism About Things Doing in the World

Stanley B. Mathewson, executive personnel director of Antioch College, at Yellow Springs, Ohio, has conducted a survey of industrial employment which shows that many unorganized workers in the United States "soldier" on the job to prolong employment and prevent wage rate cuts.

While making his survey, Mathewson worked as a laborer, machine operator, bench assembler, conveyor assembler and skilled mechanic and lived with working people. Six other workers aided him in gathering facts and data.

Mathewson said that the trade unions are commonly blamed for deliberate restriction of output by workers, but he found the practice in "open shops," where other workers advised him "not to work so fast."

Enemies of trade unionism have delighted in charging that union workers loaf on the job to restrict output, despite the fact that there was no proof of the charge. The investigation of Mr. Mathewson shows that the charge had no more basis than lots of other accusations made against trade unionists.

It is beginning to seep into the public consciousness that the order of Secretary of Agriculture Hyde permitting the use of corn sugar in food products without the fact being stated on the label is a danger to the pure food laws. It is being asked, if corn sugar can be used, without any notice to the consumer, why can't the use of other products, perhaps not so wholesome as corn sugar, be authorized?

The case against Secretary Hyde's order is well stated in the following editorial from the St. Louis Post-Dispatch: "Mr. Hyde has now completely reversed himself. He says corn sugar is a wholesome food product. Nobody questions it. He cites the necessity of stimulating the use of corn and thus helping the farmer. Nobody questions that fact; on the contrary, everybody agrees with it earnestly and sympathetically. But his own unanswerable objection to the proposal remains unanswered—that this executive order will legalize deceptive labels, that it violates the basic principle of the pure-food law, that it is an invitation to other interests to ask for the same privilege, which, in his own prophecy, they will be sure to do; that it is the opening wedge which, in the end, will mean 'effective repeal' of the pure-food law.

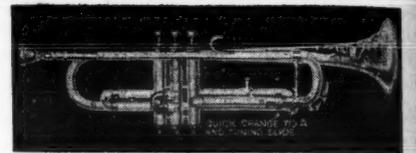

"The prospect is disturbing."

Opposition of a group of Bethlehem Steel Corporation stockholders to the payment of huge bonuses to a small number of the corporation's executives throws light on why the corporation does not pay higher wages. Bethlehem Steel is not the only corporation that pays large sums to its executives, under the guise of salaries or bonuses. It is a common practice. So much goes into dividends and "gravy" for the big boys at the top that there is too little left for wages.

The Cherry Tree

Where with our Little Hatchet we tell the truth about many things, sometimes profoundly, sometimes flippantly, sometimes recklessly

Frank Munsey in his palmyest days as a destroyer of newspapers through the merger process never performed such a devastating act as the merger of the New York Evening World with the New York Telegram, just engineered by the Scripps Howard interests, headed by Roy Howard.

By this merger the Morning World and the Sunday World have passed out of existence, while the merger of the Evening World with the Telegram means the same for the Evening World. Three newspapers have gone by the board.

There was no organic, fundamental necessity for the slaughter of the World newspapers, which throws out of employment nearly 3,000 employes and affects the livelihood of perhaps as many more in allied and supply lines.

But here is a striking fact: To working newspaper men a newspaper is an institution. To newspaper owners and bankers it is a piece of property, like a house and lot, or an empty field.

When the World employes formed a co-operative association to bid for the paper they were assured of support by newspapermen all over the country. The working newspapermen wanted to keep the World going, for more than the jobs involved, numerous and important as they are.

But to Mr. Howard and the Pulitzers as well, the World was a piece of property.

To buy it and get it out of the way meant more power to Mr. Howard and his associates, while to the three Pulitzers its sale probably meant money and the end of an undesired and unprofitable responsibility.

Eventually it will become clear to great numbers of people who remember the Scripps tradition as founded in the days of E. W. Scripps and Col. McRae, that Scripps Howard is a big business institution.

Big business in newspapers can be just as ruthless, just as much occupied in the pursuit for power and dividends as it can be in steel, or oil, for example.

So the New York World, with all its faults—and they were numerous—has gone out of business, taking with it all that was good, which was a great deal; and throwing out of work an army of men and women in a time when New York newspaperdom is as hard hit by unemployment as any other section of the economic organization of the city, not yet recovered from other mergers and slaughters.

But the Scripps Howard organization has put a competitor out of the way and has moved up a step on that mysterious and shaky pinnacle from the top of which is supposed to float the banner of success.

The Scripps Howard newspapers are not supposed to worship at the shrine of material success, but perhaps that is just one of the illusions hanging over from the old days. How the old Penny Press of Cleveland would gasp at this three-million-dollar deal!

Newspaper mergers, consolidations and sales have been frequent in the last two or three years. Step by step the printed word has been coming under the control of counting houses.

If it be argued, as well it may be, that more powerful newspapers can be better newspapers, let us agree, for the sake of argument, that it is so.

But let us know likewise that banks that control newspapers are going to have their say when policies are made as to such things as trade union rights, wages, injunctions, foreign policies, Mussolini, the soviets, Cuba. And newspapers that are big business institutions are more than likely to arrive at conclusions in a manner not entirely unrelated to financial well-being.

UNION LABOR LIFE INS. CO. REPORTS GAIN IN BUSINESS

Individual Insurance Increases 30 Per Cent in Year, While Total of Group Policies Make Substantial Gain.

Despite a year that has taxed the strength of the industrial world generally, life insurance has forged ahead of reasonable expectations and the Union Labor Life Insurance Company has reported a 30 per cent gain in individual insurance in force, with a substantial gain in group insurance, according to the report of President Matthew Woll, to the annual meeting of the shareholders of the company.

President Woll's report points to a growing interest on the part of the trade union movement, manifested in various ways. One such manifestation is a growing practice of insuring the lives of officers and representatives of the unions at the expense of the unions, the persons insured choosing their own beneficiaries. Another is a tendency of International Unions to insure the lives of their employes under group policies. The report shows that the Union Labor Life Insurance Company has been constantly forging ahead and has made remarkable success in the past year, insuring not only wage earners, but also men prominent in business and professional life.

Fear Dominated 1930

Commenting upon general trade conditions, President Woll reported that it is recognized that the year 1930 was an unusual year. He stated that "fear dominated our business activities. Capital would not venture and, as is usual at such times, the toilers suffered most. These elements of fear, indecision and unrest were probably more prominent during the past year all over the so-called civilized world than ever before. Probably, this was true because we have reached a point in our industrial development where a much larger proportion of our people than ever before are dependent for their well-being upon the smooth and continuous operation of our productive and distributing machinery."

President Woll points out that this depression has brought clearly before us the fact that life insurance is "a sound method of savings combined with the essential features of family protection for which it was devised."

Insurance Routs Fear

Referring to the company's reasons for considering thrift a virtue, he declared that "the virtue of thrift lies in its stabilizing power to meet the unexpected" and that "insurance institutions are the only institutions which can provide for misfortune if it comes in the early stages of the savings process. Whenever we fully appreciate and make use of the institutions which exist for the purpose of meeting unexpected hazards of life we will be freed of fear of the future and with the removal of this fear should go much of our social unrest. Our widespread feeling of uncertainty and indecision is due in no small degree to fear for our future well-being and only through the co-operative method involved in our insurance institutions can we remove this fear."

President Woll discussed briefly the agency organization of the company and developments in connection with both individual insurance and group insurance. He reported favorable progress for the year 1930 from a financial standpoint, the surplus of the company having increased by more than $32,000. He spoke very highly of the co-operation received from the various trade union organizations and publications over the country, and commended the agents of the company for their faithful services.

SHORT STORIES ON WEALTH

By IRVING FISHER

Professor of Economics, Yale University

STABLE MONEY IMPORTANT FOR LABOR

As we have seen, society in general profits through stable money and no class of society is likely to gain anything in the long run. There is one class, however, which invariably loses and that is labor. The laborer is the victim not only of unemployment caused by deflation, but also of the high cost of living caused by inflation. Some other classes have a chance at least of temporary benefit from either an upswing or a downswing of prices; but the laboring man, handicapped economically and otherwise, is the most helpless member of society in the face of these conditions.

It is true that when prices are rising he usually finds it easy to get and keep a job, but he finds it more difficult than ever to get and keep a living wage. His money wages almost always lag very considerably behind the rising cost of living.

The most extreme instances of loss of real wages occurred in Germany during the early days of the great inflation which began in the middle of 1922. In one particular week in January, 1923, the wages of skilled labor of all kinds had advanced to more than 500 times the level of 1913. But the cost of living had advanced more than 1,100 times; so that the workman's weekly wage of 18,000 marks would buy less than half what his weekly wage of thirty-five marks bought in 1913.

In fact, throughout the period of the great inflation there was a continuous marathon race between the cost of living and the wage rates. In the later days of this period, wage adjustments in accordance with the cost of living index were made daily, but wages for both skilled and unskilled workers in all industries and occupations, except mining, continued to lag behind prices.

The height of absurdity was reached in December, 1923, when the average weekly wage of a metal worker was almost 30,000,000,000,000 (thirty million million or thirty trillion) marks, or about 850 billion times the 1913 wage, while the cost of living had increased about 1,250 billion times. This metal working Croesus with his pay satchel bulging with trillions of marks (truly "wealth beyond the dreams of avarice") was barely able to pay the butcher, the baker and the paper-shoe maker, since his thirty trillions would buy only about 70 per cent as much as his thirty-six marks would in 1913.

Higher wages, such as these in Germany, with prices ever going higher, are well styled by Edward A. Filene "counterfeit" wages. In so far as they pass for real wages, the workman is the victim of the Money Illusion.

When, on the other hand, as now, the price level is falling the wage earners who are lucky enough to have jobs are helped by a reduced cost of living, but the hordes of the unemployed mean that labor, on the average and in the long run, loses by falling prices.

In short, in either case, labor loses. The real wages of labor, as a class, are reduced, either by wages lagging behind the high cost of living (during inflation) or by some workers being out of jobs and having no wages at all (during deflation).

Out of these economic evils arises another derivative evil, that of social discontent. The very fact that the people do not understand the change in the buying power of the dollar leads them to discontent. For instance, when inflation is going on and wages lag behind prices, the workman often thinks the employer is in some sort of a game to defraud him of every increase of wages by raising the cost of living against him.

Popular discontent always follows in the wake of inflation or deflation. When the price level rises rapidly the laborers rightly feel themselves to have been victimized, and the more radical among them come to hate society. As inflation goes on, the workers grow continually more dissatisfied and attribute their plight to an intentional plundering by a social system of "exploitation."

Out of such discontent, therefore, come socialism, communism, anarchism and other radical theories.

Even the most reasonable workmen as well as the most reasonable employers are apt to get into disagreements because of unstable money. Unstable money is a chief cause of bad industrial relations.

When the price level is rising the workmen complain, as we have seen, of the high cost of living and demand higher wages. This is a reasonable demand, but the employers are likely to resist, especially if they have long-time contracts or understandings with the workmen. A strike is often the result of the difference between these two viewpoints.

When, on the other hand, the price level is falling the employers try to reduce wages. This also is reasonable, but the workmen are almost certain to resist, especially if they have a contract or understanding to their advantage. A lock-out is likely to result.

It follows, therefore, that unstable money is one of the chief causes of industrial unrest, and stable money one of the chief hopes for industrial peace.

Very Much Alive

The census taker approached a little tumbled-down shanty on the outskirts of Savannah and pushed his way through a bunch of little pickaninnies who were playing in front of the door. He knocked. The door was opened by a large lady of color. After the usual preliminary questions the statistics gatherer asked:

"What is your husband's occupation, Liza?"

"He ain't got no occupashun. He's daid. He done passed away fq-teen yeahs ago, suh," replied the negress.

"Then who do all these little children belong to?"

"Days mine, suh."

"Why, I thought you said your husband was dead."

"He is, but 'ah ain't."—Jack-O-Lantern.

Unnecessary Worry

There was great commotion on deck. Feet ran to and fro. Then there was a grinding sound and the engines seemed to stop. The timid passenger ran up from his cabin and almost collided with the captain.

"Whatever has happened?" he panted. "Be prepared for the worst," said the captain, sternly.

"Wh—where are the life belts?"

"They'll be no good to you now," said the captain. "We've done all we can for you. From now on you must look out for yourself."

He began to lead the timid man to the port side.

"Now you see," he said. "It's every one for himself."—Ex.
