RINGO TO ENTER HOSPITAL; OPERATION (Story in Col. 1)

OPERATION FOR BEATLE.....

NEW YORK—Ringo Starr has announced that he will enter the hospital later this fall for his much talked about throat operation. He made the announcement at a press conference in New York just betion to for fabricary Beater left.

this country to return to England RUMOR CONFIRMED

For months, there have been rumors that Ringo intended to have the operation, but it was finally confirmed when he made his statement to the press. Ringo does not know at this date just when he is to enter the hospital. The operation will only take a

The operation will only take a few hours, but the famous drummer said that he expected to be in the hoxpiral at least three days to catch up on some much needed rest. It is runword that the three days will be sometime when the group does not have other pressing commitments, and will give John, George, and Paul a short vacation.

CONFIDED IN DAVE

Ringo didn't disclose the name of the hospital he is planning for his operation, however, when the group was in Los Angeles, Ringo confided to Dave Hull that it will be the University College Hospital where he was taken after his collapse last spring. The operation itself is very simple. Since Ringo never had his tonsils or adenoids removed, the main purpose of the operation will be to remove them, along with several small growths which cause our boy to get frequent attacks of tonsillitis, and sometimes cause Ringo to come down with very bad colds.

ASKS FOR TONSILS

Other than his throat, Ringo is in excellent condition. One fan has already asked for the consils to be preserved for her, but Ringo doesn't know yet whether he will answer her request. Everyone in the world joins KRLA in wishing him a speedy recovery.

Many of KRLA's listeners have wondered why they can't buy Thinking of You Baby' by the D.C. Five, and "I'll Be Back Again," by the Beatles. Since KRLA's records are shipped to us directly from England, we get them before any other person in the U.S. of A. even knows they're out! These KRLA exclusives can only be heard on KRLA... just another way of saying KRLA listeners are first in EVERTTHING!

This is the scazy Hallabalooer himself, believe it or not! The only D.J. in the world who blows Bis own born ! Welcome to the KRLA Beat. I put itso gether with my

This Saturday, KRLA has a . er, treat coming up: It seems that Bobby Pickett has bewitched everyone into thinking that they'd love to have his monsters here at KRLA, and as for the outcome . we'll let bim tell you about it . .

HELLO BOYS AND GOULS ... HEH, HEH, HEH!

I want to tell you a MON-

STROUS secret . starting this Saturday, some friends of mine will be with me at KRLA for a monster's holiday . . . sort of a serious party in fact, a GRAVE party heh, heh, heh, You see me here with one of my friends . . . his name is Alvin . . . he's quite harmless, really. The non-emotional type, COLD BLOODED, you might say! Alvin is bringing his zombie friend, Zelda. Zelda is a Beatle fan . . . but she doesn't want their autograph . . . no, she wants to drink their blood!

I'll introduce you to the "people" you will meet on Saturday first, meet Gerrald, the surfin Goul. Gerrald and I have been quite close ever since we met . . in a CEMETERY one Halloween Both of us tried to pull the other's mask off . . . till we found out that neither one was wearing a mask!

Hortense, my favorite vampire, will melt your heart in no time Then she'll drain it. Hortense always has refreshments for her COLD BLOOD ON guests . . Heh, Heh, Heh! ICP

Gerrald and Hortense have been going together for three months now. It's quite a sight to see them . . . Gerrald, packed with bandages, paddling out on his surfboard . . . and Hortense right behind him, grabbing any of Gerrald's bandages she can reach. They make such a lovely Barney, the shapeless blob, is a killer! He tells jokes. He'll SLAY you . . . if you get near enough to let him!

All of you will fall in love with Tubby, the twisting toad. He's been a good friend ever since he fell into some stew I was making. Of course, I fished him right out. I already had a toad in the stew!

You'll also meet my four little friends from England, the Cockroaches. They're a singing group. Their names are Jom, Gerge, Pill, and Rungo. They're very good. actually, and have a new twist to their act. The andience sings and THEY do the screaming! Their latest record, "I Wanna Hold Your Throat," is a rage. (An outrage[]

You'll meet lots of interesting characters on my show . . . and if you're not careful, you might even become one yourself! In fact, just to show you how good natured I am, the first person who writes in and tells me how many of my friends were on the first show will get a record album and an autographed picture of me, signed, of course, in blood! Send your entries to KRLA, 1401 South Oak Knoll, Pasadena, California-

Now for a little information about myself . . . I was born at midnight . . . it was a full moon ... there was thunder and lightening outside, too. The thunder was from the doctor. He was afraid my parents couldn't pay the bill. The date was October 31. The year was 1664.

I lost most of my family during the Salem witch burnings. My nerves were so shot by this that I had to retire to a nice cool vault and sleep for a few hundred years.

One day a KRLA D.J. acci dently kicked open the stone to my tomb. Alas, the poor man was found at daybreak. However, I managed to disguise myself well and took over the noor man's show the next day. Unfortunately, I was discovered by Reb Foster, who kicked me out. When I came to, I found myself outside the station, pounding on the door. But although he wouldn't let me back inside, I got my revenge. I sent him Maud Skidmore!

After months of pounding at the door, KRLA took pity on me and let me inside, After someone brushed the cobwebs off my clothes, and the moss from the north side of my face, they agreed to let me have my own show, It starts this Saturday, and you'd better be listening . . . DO YOU HEAR? YOU'D BETTER LIS-TEN . OR ELSE ... HEH. HEH, HEH! YOU WILL LIS-TEN! YOU ARE GETTING SLEEPY . YOU WANT TO TURN ON THE RADIO YOU WANT TO LEAVE IT AT KRLA AND NOT SHUT IT OFF TILL I COME ON HEH HEH, HEH! YOU WILL SIT BY THE RADIO WITHOUT MOV-ING WHILE I SPEAK YOU WILL! HEH, HEH, HEH, HEH, HEH, HEH

WEST INDIES - British star Dusty Springfield was stricken with a virus this week while she was on tour in the West Indies Doctors suspect that she may also have food poisoning; however, they say that her condition is not serious. She was planning to leave for America just as the illness WILL REST FOR A WEEK

Although she is in good condition, doctors have ordered her to rest for at least a week before resuming the tour. After her recovery, Dusty will make a stopover in Los Angeles where it is rumored that she will visit the KRLA studios.

Peter Feels Much Better

LONDON - Peter Asher, of Peter and Gordon fame, is reported feeling better today and will be out of the hospital this week. The boys had interrupted their entire schedule in hopes that Peter would get better with some rest, but it was necessary to hospitalize him. His illness was described as a stomach ailment. When Peter was in town several months ago, he told KRLA newsmen that he hadn't been feeling well. It is reported that Jane Asher, Peter's sister, goes to see him every day. As soon as Peter is allowed out of bed, the boys will start on a tour of Scotland They will return to this country in late spring or early summer of next year.

Most of you know that they bought their clothes at the Beau Gentry while in Los Angeles. But did you know that many stars buy their clothes there too, and so do most of the KRLA D.I.'s? The boys were told about the shop by the Rolling Stones, who were in K*R*L*A*N*D a few months

Speaking of the Rolling Stones John Lennon loves them, and George is having them teach him how to play the guitar the way they do. John has every one of their records, and spends hours listening to them.

HII This is Casey! So many of you have asked questions about "Letter From Elaina" that I thought I'd take this opportunity to answer a few of then Elaina is in her teens. When she wrote me the letter, I had no idea that it would touch all of you the way it did me. When I read it on the air, and got such enthusiastic results from all of you, I thought of making a record of the letter. Since Elaina's mother didn't want the publicity to affect her daughter, she made me promise not to reveal Elaina's last name. Elaina of course, is thrilled to death with the record. "Not because it's a record," she told me, "But because George might hear it now!" Don't worry, Elaina, he has! (and loved

When I spoke with the Beatles' press agent, I managed to get a list of some of the Liverpool slang they use. You already know what Gear and a few other words mean, but now I'll give you the rest of the list so that you can talk "Beatle Talk.

You've got cheek' means 'You're pretty nervy!' 'Fooney'' means fun-ny, and 'Roobish' is rubbish, which is anything that's silly or untrue. The Beatles never say shut up What they do say is "Shurrp'! Pull ing the lower lip up between the teeth and blowing air through it is a polite way of calling someone a liar! 'Screamies' are fans. No explanation needed there! 'Knock yourself out' means 'Be my guest. When the Beatles call someone a pip, they mean he is completely unnecessary! 'Wild' means that something has soul.

Well, the boss is calling. Maybe it's because I was so busy writing this that I'm late for my show! See you later!

Hull · Elected

KRLA D.J. Dave Hull was chosen as one of America's eight D.I.'s to be a member of Ringo's Presidential Cabinet by Teen Screen Magazine. Teen Screen conducted a national Ringo for President campaign, with eight D.J.'s selected by popular vote for the cabinet. Dave Hull won by a large margin to represent the West Coast. Publisher Shelley Heiman stated that Hull is represented by the National Teenage Party, and reported to KRLA that the plat form of the Teenage Party is "Let's get down off this platform and have a party

ACCEPTANCE SPEECH

In his acceptance speech, Hull promised to kill the school bill, and any other kind of bill he can think of. It is a well known face that he hates bills! Hull also stated that he will perform his duties with complete conviction, steadfast strength, and utter abandon
