

WELCOME TO KRLA, DAVE CLARK FIVE

(Story in Col. 1)

KRLA BEAT

NIGHT MAKE MOVIE HERE

HOLLYWOOD — The Dave Clark Five, now in Los Angeles for their Long Beach performance, also have another reason for being in Los Angeles: Bob Eubanks disclosed today. Dave is to meet with representatives of Warner Brothers Pictures to discuss his next movie.

SINATRA PARTY

The meeting will take place at a private party, hosted by none other than Frank Sinatra! If all goes well, Dave will be back to this country in January to begin shooting his first full length film for Warner Brothers. He will be the first English singer to star in a full length movie shot in Hollywood. Although few people know it, Sinatra and some of his friends will also be at the Long Beach performance. It is reported that the D.C. 5 is very excited about meeting Sinatra, and are anxious to be allowed to make their film in Hollywood.

SHOW SOLD OUT

The show in Long Beach has been sold out for months! Bob Eubanks signed the boys up as soon as plans were made for the American tour (doesn't he get all the groups first!). They loved this country when they were here last time, and this time they are traveling in their own private plane, containing a living room, bedrooms, a kitchen, and stereo tape recorder!

NEW RECORD

The latest sound from the group is called "Anyway You Want It" and it looks like the most exciting record since "Glad All Over." The driving beat and wild guitar has that groovy D.C. 5 sound that has made them the second most popular group in the world.

55 DAY TOUR

The group consists, beside Dave, of Lenny Dawson, Mike Smith, Rick Huxley, and Dennis Payton. They will be in this country for 55 days before returning to England for a rest.

HI, HULLABALOOERS!

I'm sitting here thinking of the delicious turkey I'll be chomping on next week! Boy, the holidays roll around so fast. It hardly seemed like the 4th of July was over before National Dave Hull day was upon us, and now... what? You never heard of National Dave Hull Day? Why it's the biggest holiday of the year! You mean they don't even let you off school for it? Well, I like that! "SO DO I!" Oh, no! It's Maud Kinsmore, back again to put her feet in her mouth... with both hands! "OH, YOU THINK YOU'RE SMART JUST BECAUSE YOU HAVE HORNS, BUT IF YOU DON'T BE GOOD, I'LL TELL EVERYONE ABOUT YOUR TAIL!" Maud, how could you say that! I thought we agreed to be friends! "NOT UNLESS YOU INTRODUCE ME TO THE DAVE CLARK FIVE!" Sorry, Maud, they'd never forgive me. But back to National Dave Hull Day. "WAIT A MINUTE, BIG BOY, IF YOU CAN'T INTRODUCE ME TO THEM, AT LEAST I CAN HAVE YOU!" Who said? I mean, uh, no you can't! Maud stay away from me! Oh, no! Well, see you next week everyone! Byyyyyyeeeee!

KRLA "SCOOP"—BEATLE FIRST!

HOLLYWOOD—KRLA scored another scoop over everyone when they became the first station in the WORLD to play the Beatles' new record of "I Feel Fine." KRLA listeners heard the record even before it was played in England!

The record was played first by Dave (Scuzzy one) Hull, who proved that he was far from scuzzy when he became the only person in the world to get a copy of the

It's awful how KRLA keeps, er . . . blowing its own horn, but honestly, have you ever seen such groovy pictures? Yep, we scored again. (It's even getting tiring to say that . . . without being conceited, we keep on scoring). And do you know why? Because of YOU, the greatest listeners in the world! Every English star who has ever been here has said that the KRLA kids (that's you) are great! So actually, it's YOUR fault we keep coming out first with the most! And here's just more proof of it . . . all the groovy scenes backstage at the big Rolling Stones Show, and even groovier scenes of the show itself for those of you who missed it. Next week, KRLA brings you the Dave Clark Five, and if you can't make the show . . . tick right here, same station, and we'll cover it for you in the KRLA BEAT! And one message from the Rolling Stones to All of YOU: You're a gas! And y'know something? We at KRLA second the motion!

Bob Eschanks spends a few minutes before the show with his new Cinnamon Clad group, Don and the Deacons. The boys are really tearing them up at the C.C., and they were the group that locked the show.

Cepi! Looks like the scuzzy one's in trouble again! And our lovable Hallelujaher out the window . . . at wearing his hat! But then why is Bob smiling?

Don and the Deacons do one number to start the show off. They're really a great group! Although the boys are young, they have been around for quite a while . . . and they have many fans who know it!

Charlie 'O' announced the Scuzzy Hallelujaher . . . then ran for his life! The screams were so loud that you couldn't even hear Dave's famous horn . . . the one he carries everywhere he goes. He loved the applause!

Finally, the Rolling Stones, stars of the show arrive and left as soon as the show was over. Here Keith their entrance . . . Charlie leaves clothes and always

Meanwhile, back in the closed dressing room . . . Bob Eschanks and Keith laugh at a joke Bill is telling . . . he's sitting next to Keith, but you can't see him. You can, though, see Brian's new white guitar!

Mike really wasn't sulking in this picture . . . he was just tired. The boys told Bob that they liked him because "you don't wear us out like everyone else does . . . you're good people." Which is a high compliment!

Dave, spending a few minutes with Jimmy, sudden Brothers are nearly through, and Jimmy hasn't as Panizville! He had to help Jimmy get ready!

Next, it was Dick and DeeDee's turn. These two stole the show with their groovy act, and DeeDee looked so nice that even the Rolling Stones came to the side of the stage to watch! They were terrific!

At last, the moment everyone's been waiting for! The three KRLA d.j.'s walk on stage . . . they don't have to say a word . . . the audience knows . . . it's the ROLLING STONES! The screaming starts . . . louder and louder!

With Charlie Watts in the background, Brian and Jim is one of the most versatile of the Stones . . . he plays and can "fool around on the drums a little."

Bob Dylan spends a few minutes before the show with his new Cinnamon group, Den and the Deacons. The boys are really tearing them up at C.C., and they were the group that backed the show.

Oooh! Looks like the scuzzy one's in trouble against Actually, Bob wouldn't push our lovable Hullohalooer out the window . . . at least, not while Dave is wearing his tie! But then why is Bob smiling?

Smiles again . . . this time for real! Jimmy Clanton poses with handsome d.j.'s . . . and it's hard to tell just which one's the stunner . . . (When Dave pulled his head back, he bumped it!)

Mr. "O" announced the Scuzzy Hullohalooer . . . then ran for his life! The cameras were so loud that you couldn't even hear Dave's famous hair . . . he carries everywhere he goes. He loved the applause!

Finally, the Rolling Stones, stars of the show arrived. They were very tired, and left as soon as the show was over. Here Keith and Charlie Watts make their entrance . . . Charlie loves clothes and always dresses well.

The boys wouldn't let anyone in their dressing room except . . . you know. Here, Bill Wyman talks to Bob about hair . . . while Charlie looks well, what is that expression? What's Charlie thinking of?

Really wasn't talking in this picture . . . he was just tired. The boys told them that they liked him because "you don't wear us out like everyone else . . . you're good people." Which is a high compliment!

Dave, spending a few minutes with Jimmy, suddenly realizes that the Soul Brothers are nearly through, and Jimmy hasn't even begun to get ready! Panicville! He had to help Jimmy get ready!

But it was worth the panic! Jimmy was great, and we all know he's heading the charts again! He's the only singer who REALLY sings in a Southern accent! (and Very Well, too!)

At last, the moment everyone's been waiting for! The three KRLA d.j.'s walk onstage . . . they don't have to say a word . . . the audience knows . . . the ROLLING STONES! The screaming starts . . . louder and louder!

With Charlie Watts in the background, Brian and Mick go into action. Brian is one of the most versatile of the Stones . . . he plays guitar, harmonica, piano, and can "fool around on the drums a little."

Mick wails! Of all the Stones, he has the most fun on stage. If you'll notice, the stage isn't so clean anymore! And to all of you stuffed animals . . . the boys kept them!

Smiles again . . . this time for real! Jimmy Clanton poses with KRLA's two handsome d.j.'s . . . and it's hard to tell just which one's the star, they all look so good! (When Dave pulled his head back, he bumped it!)

The Spats have a quick rehearsal before the show starts. These boys are truly great talents, and will go far. Like to England next year . . . or at least, that's what they hope to do!

The boys wouldn't let anyone in their dressing room except . . . you know who! Here, Bill Wyman talks to Bob about hair . . . while Charlie looks on with . . . well, what is that expression? What's Charlie thinking of?

And now, the most famous d.j. in the world (that's what his mother says, anyway) comes back to announce the next act . . . carrying, of course, his horn! One thing to notice . . . the stage is clean at this moment.

But it was worth the panic! Jimmy was great, and we all know he'll soon be heading the charts again! He's the only singer who REALLY sings in a Southern accent! (and Very Well, too!)

The Soul Brothers rip it up! Now everyone knows how they got their name! The lead singer reminded everyone of James Brown in looks, and when he opened his mouth . . . the resemblance was even more startling!

Mick wails! Of all the Stones, he has the most fun on stage. By the way, if you'll notice, the stage isn't so clean anymore! And to all of you who threw stuffed animals . . . the boys kept them!

Bill, the quiet one, hardly moves at all when he's singing . . . but who was the girl he kept smiling at in the balcony? It was really a great show, and everyone had a good time . . . and next came the D.C. 5!

HOLLYWOOD—English stars Chad and Jeremy are making a surprise stay in K*^RL*A*N*D this week. The boys flew in with Johnny Rivers, the Ventures and a cowboy star for a show in San Bernardino, then drove back for a week's rest here in Hollywood. After their short stay, they will return to England.

The boys confided to KRLA that they expect to see the Beatles when they return home, show that George and John are still keen on the idea of returning here without anyone knowing so that they can see the country without the country seeing them! Of course, the minute they set foot here in America, KRLA will be right on the scene with all the news first!

KRLA SCOOP...

new release. (This is why other d.j.'s go bald early . . . from tearing out their hair in frustration because KRLA gets all the hits first!)

MORELAND TO NASHVILLE

HOLLYWOOD — If you're wondering why Dick Moreland seems to be speaking with the hill-billy accent lately, the answer is simple! Dick spent part of his vacation at the annual country and western music convention in Nashville. The convention was a blast, says Dick. He was able to meet many of the great country singers and see them perform, and since Nashville is so friendly, I felt just like I was at home," Dick added. Although he would like to return to the home of Elvis Presley, Brenda Lee, and the Nashville sound, Dick won't be able to for a while. But he states that he had so much fun during the short time he was there that "I'll go back someday . . . even if I have to walk!"

CONTEST CORNER!!!

It's giveaway time again! And do we have something to give away this time! See, it all started a few weeks ago when WE started thinking, "We thought, 'hmmmm, look at all the dates with stars we've been giving away! Really gassy dates, too . . . trips to Disneyland, hours back stage with the star of your choice, groovy dates with a d.j., all kinds of goodies! It made us feel pretty proud of ourselves, we can tell you that! But then we started thinking . . . during all these dates, none of the winners got a chance to sit down and have dinner. And YOU know how important it is never to miss dinner, don't you? And you also know that it's important to eat dinner in pleasant surroundings, don't you? And what more pleasant surroundings could you ask for than Fabian? Soooo . . . just to show you how much we worry about you being healthy and never missing dinner and all that jazz, we wanted to make sure you were well fed, and . . . okay, we'll stop chattering and get on with the contest, since you insist!"

YOU CAN WIN A DINNER DATE WITH FABIAN!

Yes, you heard us right! You can actually win a fab date with this gear guy! And not only that, but you'll have the most fabulous dinner of your life at one of Hollywood's famous restaurants . . . just you and Fab! PLUS . . . our KRLA photographer will be there to take pictures of every wonderful moment . . . and they'll appear right here in the KRLA BEAT, so that you'll never forget the most wonderful date of your life!

HERE'S ALL YOU HAVE TO DO:

What do you think KRLA stands for? Now don't go getting all noble on us . . . we mean the letters KRLA. Does it stand for "Kool Radio, Los Angeles?" Or maybe "Kute Rita Loves Albert?" Well, don't ask us! If we tell you, WE'LL win the contest! Start thinking of the answer . . . and maybe you'll be the winner!

HOW TO ENTER

1. Write down what you think the letters KRLA stand for, and enclose this with an entry blank to Contest Corner, KRLA, Pasadena, California.
2. YOU MUST ENCLOSE A PICTURE OF YOURSELF WITH YOUR ENTRY!
3. You can make any meaning from the four letters KRLA, but it must be an understandable sentence.
4. All entries must be postmarked by December 1st, 1964. Deadline is midnight, December 1st. Entries will be judged on originality and suitability (whatever that is). Judges will be KRLA and Fabian.
